HAWKS VERSUS FIRST & SECOND ROUND OPPONENTS

SAINT JOSEPH'S VS. VANDERBILT - FIRST ROUND, SATURDAY MARCH 23

Saturday's matchup with Vanderbilt is the third meeting between the two teams. In the last contest, the Commodores, ranked #22/18 at the time, topped Saint Joseph's, 59-46, on November 24, 2009 at Hagan Arena. Shelby Smith, then a freshman, started the game for Saint Joseph's and had nine points on 3-of-6 shooting (all three-pointers) and added a rebound in 18 minutes. Ashley Prim had a game-high four assists and finished with six points on 2-of-3 shooting, including 1-of-1 from three point range and 1-of-2 from the foul line to go with a rebound in 22 minutes.

The two teams originally met in the First Round of the 1989 NCAA Tournament at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. The Hawks won the first meeting, 82-68, on March 15, 1989.

SAINT JOSEPH'S WINS THIRD ATLANTIC 10 CHAMPIONSHIP

The Hawks claimed their third Atlantic 10 title last Saturday with a 47-46 win over Fordham in the conference championship at the Barclays Center. Saint Joseph's, which was making its 11th appearance in the title game, previously won titles in 1997 and 1999.

THE ROAD TO THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Starting out as host for the first three rounds of the Atlantic 10 Championship, Saint Joseph's made its way through the A-10 bracket as the fourth seed to win the conference title. The Hawks earned a bye and downed fifth seed Duquesne, 73-60 in the quarterfinals at Hagan Arena. Moving on to the semifinals, SJU avenged a loss to #11 Dayton, beating the top seeded Flyers, 61-54, to advance to the title game at the Barclays Center. Despite trailing by 12 to start the game, the Hawks rallied from an eight-point halftime deficit to top Fordham, 47-46, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

CLOUD NAMED MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER

Scoring a team-best 15 points and adding six rebounds, six assists and two steals in the Atlantic 10 title game against Fordham, red-shirt sophomore Natasha Cloud was named Most Outstanding Player of the Championship. An All-Tournament Team selection as well, Cloud scored just three points in the first two games of the conference tournament, before breaking out for a team-best 15 points. She joins Megan Compain (1997) and Melissa Coursey (1999) as the only Hawks to be named Most Outstanding Player of the Atlantic 10 Championship.

VAN GRINSVEN SELECTED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Averaging 12.3 points and 10.0 rebounds per game over three games at the Atlantic 10 Championship, redshirt senior forward Chatilla van Grinsven was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Tournament Team. van Grinsven, along with teammate Natasha Cloud, became the 28th and 29th Hawks to be named to the A-10 All-Tournament Team.

GRIFFIN JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Saint Joseph's head coach Cindy Griffin joins a very select few in NCAA History this season, becoming just the eighth person to have played and coached the same program to the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. As a player, Griffin (nee: Anderson) helped the Hawks to three NCAA Tournament bids (1988, 1989, 1990), while this year marks the first time she has led her alma mater to the NCAA Tournament as a head coach. Below is the short list of people to lead their schools as a player and coach to the NCAA Tournament.

Name (School)	Player	Coach
Pokey Chatman (LSU)	1988-91	2005-06
Mary Taylor Cowles (Western Ky.)	1988-91	2003, 2008
Cheryl Miller (USC)	1983-86	1994-95
Bev Smith (Oregon)	1982	2005
Amanda Butler (Florida)	1993-94	2009, 2012
Teresa Weatherspoon (La. Tech)	1984-86, 1988	2010-11
Linda Lappe (Colorado)	2001-03	2013
Cindy Griffin (Saint Joseph's)	1988-90	2013

SJU CONNECTIONS AT THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

There are several SJU ties to each of the possible three opponents in the opening rounds of the NCAA Tournament. Cindy Griffin served as an assistant at Vanderbilt under head coach Jim Foster from 1993-95. Geno Auriemma served as an assistant coach under Foster at SJU from 1978-79. Additionally, former Hawk Samira van Grinsven '12 (sister of redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven) is a graduate assistant with Idaho.

INJURY REPORT

Freshman guard Jordan Strode is out indefinitely. She has sat out the past 27 games with a knee injury.

SAINT JOSEPH'S ONLINE

The Hawks' women's basketball program maintains a strong presence on the internet via the official website of Saint Joseph's Athletics, SJUHawks.com, and various social media platforms.

SJUHawks.com, your one-stop shop for all things Hawk athletics, contains updated statistics, game notes, and in-game live stats for all Saint Joseph's home games and selected road games. Through Hawks All-Access, fans can follow every home game via live streaming audio, as well as most home games through the premier streaming video broadcast in the Atlantic 10. All road games are covered with streaming audio, with streaming video available for selected contests through a sharing agreement with other CBSSports.com College Network partner schools.

The site will also host audio podcasts and video segments featuring the men's basketball team throughout the season.

The Hawks can also be found on Facebook, Twitter and YouTube. Through SJU's social media outlets, you can receive breaking news updates, connect with other Hawk fans around the world, and check out Saint Joseph's on-demand video features at any time.

VAN GRINSVEN EARNS ALL-CONFERENCE FIRST TEAM HONORS

Redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team. She is the first Hawk since Susan Moran in 2001-02 to garner First Team recognition.

SHIELDS NAMED A-10 MOST IMPROVED

Junior guard Erin Shields was named the Atlantic 10 Most Improved Player. The first Hawk to ever be chosen for the award, Shields was also named to the All-Conference Third Team and All-Academic Team. Shields averaged just 6.8 points per game as a sophomore and is currently averaging 11.6 points per game this year.

CLOUD RECOGNIZED FOR HER DEFENSE BY ATLANTIC 10

Redshirt sophomore Natasha Cloud was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Defensive Team. She is just the third Hawk to earn the honor, joining Stephanie McCaffrey (nee Graff) and Michelle Baker.

HAWKS AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

This season, Saint Joseph's has played four games against nationally ranked team, splitting those games as the Hawks went 2-2. Saint Joseph's, which is 33-116 all-time against nationally ranked teams, downed #5 Maryland, 50-49, on November 17 and fell at #17/18 UCLA, 73-63, on December 31 and at #12 Dayton, 73-66, on March 3. The Hawks avenged the loss to the Flyers with a 61-54 victory on March 10 against an 11th ranked Dayton squad. This season marks the first time since 2005-06 that SJU has defeated two ranked teams, and is the first time since 1991-92 that the Hawks have beaten two teams ranked higher than 15th.

DOUBLING UP

Redshirt forward Chatilla van Grinsven has made an immediate impact in her lone year at Hawk Hill, leading SJU in scoring (15.1 ppg), rebounds (10.5 rpg) and double-doubles (16). Her 16 double-doubles are the most by a Saint Joseph's player since Amy Mallon's 19 during the 1992-93 season.

HAWKS RACK UP 20 POINT PERFORMANCES

So far this season, Saint Joseph's has had 14 20-point performances between juniors Ilze Gotfrida and Erin Shields and redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven, the most since the 2006-07 season (16 times).

SAINT JOSEPH'S DEFENSE STIFLES EXPLORERS

The 31 points allowed against La Salle were the fewest the Hawks have allowed since holding Fordham to 29, in a 77-29 win on January 15, 2000.

GRIFFIN RANKS AMONG ALL-TIME A-10 COACHES

Head coach Cindy Griffin currently ranks fourth all-time in conference wins in the Atlantic 10. Having compiled a 109-69 record over 12 seasons, she also ranks third all-time in wins at one school, trailing just Joe McKeown of George Washington (240) and Theresa Grentz of Rutgers (156).

ROAD WARRIORS

Saint Joseph's was 9-3 on the road during the regular season with wins over Drexel, Hofstra Saint Francis, Penn, George Washington, Saint Louis, Rhode Island, VCU and Duquesne. The Hawks, who won only two nonconference road games in 2011-12, have already surpassed their total for road victories from a season ago (six). Saint Joseph's has twice posted nine road wins under head coach Cindy Griffin (2010-11 and 2002-03).

EIGHT-GAME WIN STREAK SNAPPED

Saint Joseph's had its eight-game win streak snapped with a 71-66 loss to Charlotte. The eight-straight wins were the most since SJU won 11 in a row in 2001-02. The Hawks' longest winning streak is 18 games, coming in 1996-97.

CLOUD AND VILA DISH OUT THE ASSISTS

Redshirt sophomore Natasha Cloud and senior Mireia Vila combined for 17 assists against Massachusetts. The 17 helpers are the most by a SJU pair since Angela Zampella and Susan Moran combined for 19 against St. Bonaventure on January 15, 2001. In that game, Zampella set the Hawks' single-game record for assists with 17.

HAWKS POST TRIO OF 30 POINT WINS IN A-10 PLAY

Saint Joseph's has posted three 30+ point victories during Atlantic 10 play this season with wins over Saint Louis (31 points), La Salle (37 points) and Massachusetts (37 points). This year marks the first time since 1999-2000 that the Hawks have defeated three conference foes by 30 points or more.

VAN GRINSVEN SISTERS HIT CAREER MILESTONES AT SJU

Redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven joined her sister, Samira '12, in scoring 1,000 career points with a free throw in the first half of SJU's contests at Fordham on February 24. The sisters are the only siblings in program history to each reach the 1,000 point mark in Crimson and Gray.

SENIOR CLASS JOINS SELECT COMPANY

This year's senior class has become just the sixth class in SJU history to earn a postseason bid in every season it has played. Coming off three straight WNIT appearances and now an NCAA Tournament appearance, the Hawks joined the classes of 1979, 1988, 1989, 1990 and 2000 in playing in four consecutive postseason tournaments.

HAWKS REACH 20 WINS FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

With their win over Massachusetts on Wednesday, the Hawks picked up their 20th win of the season. Saint Joseph's has now won 20 games in three straight seasons and six times in 12 years under head coach Cindy Griffin. The Hawks, who have posted 20 wins 18 times in program history, set the record for most wins in a season in 1996-97 with 26 victories.

VAN GRINSVEN ETCHING NAME IN SJU RECORD BOOK

Redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven has already etched her name in the SJU record books this season and is looking to add to it. Collecting 324 rebounds so far this season, the starting forward currently is fourth all-time in rebounds in a season, with her 10.5 rebounds per game ranking third. Additionally, van Grinsven is tied with Wendy Brink (1983-84) for 20th in points scored in a season with 462. The Helmond, Netherlands native enters the NCAA Tournament with her 47 blocked shots tying for fourth most in a season alongside her sister Samira (2010-11), and Kelly Cavallo (2011-12).

A COUPLE OF "GOOD" LOSSES

While losing isn't ideal for any team, the Hawks eight losses this season have been against strong competition. All eight losses have come against team that earned postseason bids. Among those are six NCAA Tournament teams - UCLA, Villanova, Princeton, Syracuse, Central Michigan and Dayton - and two WNIT teams - Charlotte and Fordham.

VAN GRINSVEN ON HISTORICAL PACE

In its 40-year history of playing Division I basketball, Saint Joseph's has had just four players average a double-double for an entire season. Currently, redshirt senior forward Chatilla van Grinsven is trying to join the exclusive club. Entering the NCAA Tournament, van Grinsven is averaging a team-best 14.9 points per game and 10.5 rebounds per game. Below is a list of previous Hawks to have achieved a double-double for an entire year.

Player	Season	PPG	RPG
Kathy Langley	1974-75	13.5	10.5
Chrissy McGoldrick	1976-77	13.4	10.5
Dale Hodges	1987-88	15.5	10.3
	1988-89	23.4	10.7
	1989-90	27.0	12.0
Amy Mallon	1992-93	17.3	10.5
Chatilla van Grinsven	2012-13	14.9	10.5

SHIELDS HITS NEW CAREER-HIGH FOR THREE POINTERS

Proving to be one of the top three-point threats in the Atlantic 10, junior guard Erin Shields has surpassed her career-high mark this season. Hitting just 38 three-point field goals last year, and 49 as a rookie, Shields broke her previous mark with four three-pointers at VCU. Shooting a team-best 37.5 percent from behind the arc, Shields currently has hit 72-of-192 from behind the arc and ranks second in the A-10 in three-pointers per game (2.3).

PRIM EYES CAREER GAMES PLAYED RECORD

Playing in 126 games in the Crimson and Gray, senior Ashley Prim will match Michelle Baker's record for career games played (127) in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. She had her streak of 116 straight games snapped at Rhode Island after suffering a mild head injury against Butler, but has started the previous nine games.

CLOUD MAKING INSTANT IMPACT

After sitting out last season due to NCAA transfer rules, redshirt sophomore Natasha Cloud has made an immediate impact for the Hawks. Appearing in all 31 games, with 29 starts this year, Cloud has already surpassed her scoring output her freshman year at Maryland, scoring 283 points after tallying just 76 with the Terps in 2010-11. Additionally, Cloud leads SJU in assists (136) and steals (55) and is second in rebounding (4.7 rpg) and minutes per game (31.6).

SHIELDS' BREAKOUT SEASON

Averaging a career-high 11.6 points per game and a team-best 32.5 minutes per contest, junior Erin Shields has established herself as one of the Hawks' go-to players this season. After averaging 6.8 points per game and shooting 34.4 percent from the floor last year, Shields has rebounded with a career-best in points, while shooting 39.3 percent from the floor. Named the Hawk Classic MVP, she has posted a pair of memorable performances already this year, finishing with a team-high 18 points, including the game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer that lifted the Hawks to a 47-45 win at Drexel, she also had 20-point performances at UCLA (24 points), George Washington (25 points) and at Dayton (28 points).

HAWKS POST HISTORICAL JANUARY

The Hawks completed their first undefeated January in program history, Going 6-0 on the month. Saint Joseph's has now posted 12 undefeated months, with four coming in November, four in December, one in January and three in February.

SHIELDS AMONG SJU ALL-TIME LEADERS

Junior Erin Shields ranks as one of the top three-point shooters in Saint Joseph's history. The Hawks returning leader in three pointers (38), she has converted on 37.4 percent (158-of-422) of her attempts. Shields enters the NCAA Tournament game just shy of fifth all-time (Melissa Coursey '99 - 37.5 percent).

HAWKS ON THE AIR

The Saint Joseph's Sports Network (SJSN) celebrates its 22nd anniversary in 2012-13, as the first broadcasts of men's and women's basketball games took place in the Fall of 1990. The first women's game aired on WCZN-AM on November 23rd as the Hawks hosted Oregon. The 1990-91 season also marked the first in school history in which every SJU men's game aired on Philadelphia-area commercial radio.

Since 1990, SJSN's coverage of Hawk athletics has grown and currently includes live coverage of all Hawk men's and women's basketball games and previously produced Phil Martelli's HawkTalk radio program, the nationally-renowned HawkTalk television show and Courtside, the Saint Joseph's women's basketball television show.

In 2012-13, all of SJU's women's games can be heard via audio streaming on the internet at the Hawks' official athletics site, www.sjuhawks.com, free of charge through Stretch Internet. Video streaming of non-televvised games is also available on the site as part of the Hawks All-Access package.

SAINT JOSEPH'S CAPTURES HAWK CLASSIC TITLE

Saint Joseph's captured the 21st Annual Hawk Classic title with a 79-38 win over UMBC. Saint Joseph's, which won its ninth Hawk Classic crown, defeated Fairfield, 51-38, in the semifinals.

GO TO GOTFRIDA

Junior Ilze Gotfrida has made the most of her increased role this season as she enters the NCAA Tournament fifth on the team in scoring (7.5 ppg). Additionally, the Dobeles, Latvia native is shooting a team-high 52.5 percent from the field (106-of-202), averaging a career-high 23.7 minutes per game and had a career-high 21 points in SJU's win over St. Bonaventure.

VAN GRINSVEN GARNERS PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Proving to be one of the top players in both the Atlantic 10 and Philadelphia Big 5 this season, redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven has garnered quite a bit of publicity. To date, the starting forward has been named Atlantic 10 Player of the Week four times (11/19, 1/14, 2/18, 2/25) this season, and Big 5 Player of the Week six times (11/19, 12/10, 1/7, 1/14, 2/18, 2/25). Garnering additionally weekly honors from PhillyCollegeSports.com (12/10, 2/25) and College Sports Madness (11/19), van Grinsven has now collected the most conference Player of the Week honors by a Hawks since 2001-02 when Susan Moran earned the distinction eight times en route to being named Atlantic 10 Player of the Year.

THE HAWK

The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been flapping its wings for more than a half a century.

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, The Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die."

Saint Joseph's athletic teams have been recognized with the nickname "Hawks" since 1929. At that time, the school's yearbook editor initiated a contest among the student body for a symbol. More than 100 submissions were narrowed, with "Hawks" winning out over "Grenadiers" by a slim margin. The name was appropriate because it typified "the fighting spirit of our crimson and gray athletes and it is suggestive of the aerial attack which has made our football team famous." Football, ironically, was discontinued at SJU following the 1939 season.

The idea for The Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the $120 needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as The Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at The Palestra. The Hawk, who was present at most women's basketball games, became a mainstay in 1989. Since then, 12 SJU students have donned the costume, with junior Rob Cellucci serving as the Hawk this season.

The Hawk mascot has garnered numerous accolades in its 57-year history. It has been selected as the nation's top mascot by The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Sports Illustrated for Kids, Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook and ESPN College Basketball magazine and was a nominee for the 2008 Mascot Hall of Fame.

PRIM RANKS AMONG SJU'S ALL-TIME ASSIST LEADERS

Entering the season among the top assist leaders in SJU history, senior guard Ashley Prim enters the NCAA Tournament seventh all-time in career assists with 416, surpassing Mary Kate McDade '09 (385 assists) in SJU's win over Butler. Renie Shields (nee: Dunne) is in sixth with 479 assists.

HAWK HILL ADVANTAGE

Saint Joseph's has always had a reputation of playing well at home. Over their 40 seasons, the Hawks have boasted a 371-134 mark at Hawk Hill, including a 37-15 record at Hagan Arena. Last year, SJU went 7-0 at home against non-conference opponents and 15-4 overall. They are currently 12-4 at home this season and went 6-1 at Hagan Arena in A-10 games.

THREE HAWKS GARNER ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM HONORS

Junior guard Erin Shields scored a game-high 14 points and had nine assists versus UMBC, garnering Hawk Classic MVP honors, while redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven and redshirt sophomore Natasha Cloud were named to the Hawk Classic All-Tournament Team.

SJU POSTS STRONG EFFORT AT GATOR HOLIDAY CLASSIC

Despite finishing third at the Gator Holiday Classic, the Hawks put forth two strong performances at the Florida tournament. Saint Joseph's 172 points at were the third-most points scored in Gator Holiday Classic history, while the one assist it allowed to Savannah State set a new record low. Additionally, redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven was named to the All-Tournament Team.

CLOUD AND VAN GRINSVEN HIT CAREER-HIGHS AT PENN

Combining for 46 of SJU's 66 points at Penn, redshirt senior Chatilla van Grinsven and redshirt sophomore Natasha Cloud posted career days against the Quakers. Finishing with 27 points and 19 points, respectively, the pair's 46 points are the highest combined total this season for the Hawks. Additionally, the 46 points were more than SJU, as a team, scored against Syracuse (39 points).

HAWKS EXCEL IN NONCONFERENCE PLAY

Saint Joseph's is coming off two straight years of 10 wins during the non-conference portion of its schedule and finished with nine this year. From 2010-13, the Hawks have posted a 37-18 record in non-conference games, going 10-4 each of the last two seasons, with an 8-5 mark this year. Saint Joseph's won 17 non-conference games in 1984-85 to set the all-time record after winning 14 non-conference games the previous year.

WHY S-A-I-N-T JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY?

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the "public" title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation of "St." Joseph's University was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts. According to the most recent edition of the Higher Education Directory, there are at least nine recognized "St. Joseph's" among the nation's colleges and universities. Only one of them-Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia-is a university-level, Master's I, NCAA Division I institution. A complete spelling of S-A-I-N-T Joseph's University in all contexts will help eliminate any confusion among higher education and other public constituencies.

GRIFFIN EARNS 250TH CAREER VICTORY

Head coach Cindy Griffin earned her 250th career win in SJU's victory over #5 Maryland on November 17. Over 15 seasons, Griffin has posted a 271-188 record, with 223 wins with the Hawks.

SCHOLARLY SMITH

A standout on the court and the classroom, senior Shelby Smith is the only Hawk in program history to earn Philadelphia Big 5 All-Academic Team three times. The finance major is also a member of both the A-10 Commissioner's Honor Roll and SJU Athletic Director's Honor Roll and is serving as a co-captain this season.

Moran Named To Inaugural A-10 Legends

The Atlantic 10 Conference announced its Inaugural Women's Basketball Legends and Saint Joseph's representative for women's basketball will be Susan Moran '02. The 2013 Class includes 16 former women's basketball student-athletes and coaches who made an immeasurable impact on each A-10 institution and its basketball program.

The Women's Basketball Legends will be honored on March 16 at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y., the morning of the 2013 A-10 Women's Basketball Championship finals. Each honoree will be recognized during an awards brunch in the 40/40 Club, beginning at 11 am.

Moran will be joined in the Legends Class by: Julie VonDielingen Shelton (Butler); Paula Bennett (Charlotte); Ann Meyers (Dayton); Beth Friday Bovay (Duquesne); Anne Gregory O'Connell (Fordham); Jennifer Shasky Calvery (George Washington); Jennifer Cole Davis (La Salle); Sue Peters (Massachusetts); Dayna Smith (Rhode Island); Karen Elsner Davey (Richmond); Hilary Waltman (St. Bonaventure); Theresa Lisch Meacham (Saint Louis); Marilyn Stephens (Temple); Cyndy Wilks (VCU); and Jennifer Phillips Brenning (Xavier).

Helping the Hawks to two NCAA Tournament appearances and the 1999 Atlantic 10 Championship, Moran was a four-time A-10 All-Conference and Big 5 honoree. An All-American Honorable Mention as a senior, she went on to collect A-10 and Big 5 Player of the Year accolades, along with A-10 Student-Athlete of the Year and Academic All-America honors in 2002.

Starting all 122 games over her four seasons, she is the only Hawk in SJU history to lead her team in both scoring and rebounding all four seasons. She capped her career as the all-time leading scorer with 2,340 points. She additionally set the mark for career field goals (855) and free throws (622) and is currently fourth all-time in career rebounds (908).

One of just two women in Saint Joseph's basketball history to have her jersey retired, Moran was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in the spring of 2008, into the Philadelphia Big 5 Hall of Fame in January of 2009 and into the SJU Athletic Hall of Fame in October 2010.

HAWKS POST UPSET OF #5 MARYLAND

Saint Joseph's 50-49 win over #5 Maryland was its first win over a nationally ranked team since the 2007-08 season and the Hawks highest victory over a ranked squad since they topped #3 Montclair State, 68-67, on March 11, 1977. Saint Joseph's, which is now 32-114 all-time against ranked opponents, last win over a ranked opponent was against #15 Auburn, 71-69, in the title game of the Hawk Classic on December 29, 2007.

SJU GARNERS NATIONAL ATTENTION

Coming off their win over #5 Maryland, the Hawks were named "Team of the Weekend" by ESPN's Graham Hays and were selected Pickin' Splinters' "Performance of the Week." Additionally, Saint Joseph's garnered three votes in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll (11/20).

HAWKS' ZAMPELLA INDUCTED INTO BIG 5 HALL OF FAME

Former Saint Joseph's standout Angela Zampella was among the inductees in the Big 5 Hall of Fame at this year's induction ceremony to be held on January 25 at The Palestra. A three-time Big 5 First Team selection, Zampella (1997-01) led the Hawks to three Big 5 titles and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances during her career at SJU. Saint Joseph's all-time leader in assists (788), she currently ranks sixth all-time in scoring (1,509 points), fifth in steals (216), sixth in three-pointers made (184) and 16th in rebounding (521). A member of the 2000 USA Jones Cup Team that won gold in Taiwan, Zampella still holds the single-season record for assists (241 in 1999-00) and assists in a game (17). Following her SJU career, Zampella continued to play professionally in Italy.

NEW-LOOK HAWKS

The 2012-13 season featured a lot of new faces for Saint Joseph's as half of its roster - six of 12 players - played their first seasons for SJU. The Hawks looked to its newcomers and veterans to make up for the four starters they lost to graduation in May. Last year's the SJU senior class accounted for 57 percent of their scoring (1,226 points) and played 3,838 of the team's 6,650 minutes (57.7 percent).

TRIO OF HAWKS TO SERVE AS CAPTAINS IN 2012-13

Senior Ashley Prim and Shelby Smith and junior Erin Shields are serving as team captains this season. They replace 2012 graduates Michelle Baker and Katie Kuester.

HOME ATTENDANCE AMONGST A-10 BEST

Saint Joseph's has annually been one of the top teams in the Atlantic 10 in attendance and 2012-13 has been the same. Averaging 1,348 fans per home game last year, the Hawks have out gained themselves this year, averaging 1,432 fans per home contest. Currently, SJU is third in the A-10 in attendance behind Dayton and Charlotte.

FOREIGN-BORN HAWKS

Saint Joseph's has three foreign-born players on its roster, making it the fourth straight year the Hawks have had multiple players from outside the United States. Senior forward Chatilla van Grinsven is the 14th foreign-born student-athlete to play for Saint Joseph's, joining fellow senior Mireia Vila and junior Ilze Gotfrida. Below is a list of SJU's all-time roster of foreign-born players.

Years	Player	Country

2009-Present	Mireia Vila	Spain
2010-Present	Ilze Gotfrida	Latvia
2011-Present	Chatilla van Grinsven	Netherlands

HAWKS INK THREE TO NATIONAL LETTERS OF INTENT

Saint Joseph's announced that Jessica Pongonis, Kathleen Fitzpatrick and Geena Gomez have signed National Letters of Intent during the early signing period to attend SJU next year.

Leading Hamilton Southeastern High School to a #1 ranking in Indiana to start this season, Pongonis has been a key fixture in the post for the Royals all four seasons. An efficient shooter, the 6-foot-2 forward is coming off a junior year in which she averaged 10.5 points per game and shot 58 percent from the field. Guiding Hamilton Southeastern to the 2011-12 Hoosier Crossroads Conference title, Pongonis earned All-Hoosier Crossroads Conference, Hamilton County Sports Honor Team and Indiana Elite Junior All-Star honors. An invitee to the 2010 Midwest Nike Skills Academy, she earned the team's Most improved Award as a freshman and Hustle Award as a sophomore.

A potent threat from distance, Fitzpatrick enters her senior season at the Academy of Notre Dame de Namur as the program's all-time leader in three-pointers (173). As a junior, the 5-foot-9 guard earned Second Team All-InterAc League and All-Delaware County honors after averaging 13.1 points, 4.8 rebounds, and 3.4 assists per game, while leading Southeastern Pennsylvania in three-pointers (70). The daughter of SJU Hall of Famer Ellen Fitzpatrick (nee Shields), Kathleen was selected a Third Team All-InterAc League and All-Delaware County honoree as a sophomore and honorable mention as a freshman.

A three-time All-League honoree, Gomez made an immediate impact as a freshman at Edison High School. A First Team All-State selection as a rookie, she paced the Chargers with 15.7 points, 6.5 assists and 4.2 steals per game. The 5-foot-9 guard followed with equally prolific seasons, leading her team to the California Intercollegiate Federation Championship as a sophomore and the OC Shoot-Out title as a junior. A participant at the 2011 USA U-16 National Team trials, Gomez averaged 17.5 points, 9.7 assists, 5.2 rebounds and 3.4 steals per game as a junior. The three-year starter at point, she enters her senior season having already set the Edison record for assists in a game with 16 last year.

Cindy Griffin - Head Coach

Saint Joseph's '91, MBA '93 - 12th Season

Guiding the Hawks to nine postseason appearances, including the 2013 Atlantic 10 title, Cindy Griffin is in her 12th season as Saint Joseph's head coach in 2012-13. A 1991 and 1993 graduate of SJU, Griffin (nee Anderson) has compiled an overall record of 271-188 in 15 seasons as a head coach and is 223-155 in 12 seasons on Hawk Hill. Her Saint Joseph's squads have posted five 20-win seasons, including seven victories over ranked opponents, while her players have been honored as Atlantic 10 All-Conference performers 13 times.

Backed by a veteran-laden team in 2011-12, the Hawks earned their third-straight WNIT berth and posted their most wins (22) since the 2003-04 season. Moving into second place in career victories at her alma mater, Griffin picked up her 200th win as the Hawks topped Boston University in the opening game of the WNIT on March 15, 2012. Leading the Hawks to a 15-4 mark at home, she helped Saint Joseph's become one of the more efficient teams in the nation, ranking fourth in fewest turnovers per game (12.5), 26th in three-point percentage (.348) and 39th in field goal percentage (.423).

Individually, senior Michelle Baker and Kelly Cavallo had breakout years, both garnering All-Big 5 honors. Behind Griffin's teaching, Baker went on to be named to the A-10 All-Conference Second Team and capped her career as SJU's all-time leader in games played (127) and ranking in the top 20 for scoring and field goals made. After seeing limited time as a freshman, Cavallo developed into one of the top post players in the A-10, leading SJU and finishing in the top five of the conference in rebounding, blocked shots and field goal percentage. With Griffin's aid, Cavallo finished her four-year career second all-time in blocks and 11th in rebounding at SJU.

Returning just one starter for the 2010-11 season, the Hawks quickly jelled under Griffin's guidance as they went on to win 20 games, earned the program's 700th victory, and advanced to the second round of the WNIT. Backed by All-Big 5 honorees Baker and Katie Kuester, Saint Joseph's had its most efficient offensive showing since 2002-03, as the Hawks finished 60th in the nation in field goal percentage (42.1).

Additionally, several Hawks were honored for outstanding seasons in 2010-11, headlined by sophomore Ashley Prim becoming the first SJU player to be named Atlantic 10 Sixth Player of the Year. Baker became just the second Hawk to be named to the A-10 All-Defensive Team, while freshman Erin Shields became the sixth player Griffin has coached to A-10 All-Rookie Team honors.

Earning a postseason berth for the first time in two years, the Hawks surpassed predictions in 2009-10 as they finished tied for fourth in the Atlantic 10 after being picked to finish ninth. After opening the season with a 3-7 mark, Griffin saw her team begin to click at the end of the non-conference schedule as SJU claimed the 19th Annual Hawk Classic title and worked its way to .500 by the second week of the Atlantic 10 slate.

Posting a 9-5 mark against conference opponents, Griffin hit two milestones during A-10 play, earning her 150th win at Saint Joseph's in a victory against Dayton and earning her 200th coaching win against George Washington. The Hawks would go on to earn the program's seventh WNIT bid, and play the first postseason game at Hagan Arena.

In 2008-09, Griffin undertook arguably her toughest season to date as Saint Joseph's played every contest away from Hawk Hill for the first time in program history. And in typical SJU fashion, Griffin got her team to respond as Saint Joseph's went on to post an 8-5 record at home venues and earn its first Big 5 title since 2000-01. Individually five Hawks posted career-bests in scoring, with Brittany Ford and Mariame Djouara both earning All-Big 5 Second Team honors.

Relying heavily on underclassmen in 2007-08, Griffin guided her Hawks to another winning season, including crowns at the Brown Basketball Classic and the Hilton Philadelphia Hawk Classic. Among the wins, Saint Joseph's posted its biggest win over a non-conference ranked opponent since the 1984-85, topping #15 Auburn for the Hawk Classic title.

Despite losing several experienced players prior to the 2006-07 season, Griffin had her team peaking at the right time. Playing Griffin's style of hard-nosed defense and persistent offense, the Hawks advanced to the Atlantic 10 Championship game, including the program's first win over a top 10 opponent (#8 George Washington) since 1992 along the way. Saint Joseph's capped the season with its fifth WNIT appearance in six years and tied the SJU record for games played in a season with 33.

Fueled by a collection of newcomers and a developed core of upperclassmen, Griffin led the Hawks back to national prominence in 2005-06. The Crimson and Gray engineered the nation's best turnaround (13 games) and received votes in the national polls for the first time since 2003-04. The Hawks advanced to the semifinals of the A-10 Championship and earned a berth in the WNIT.

With the loss of four 1,000-point scorers, the 2004-05 Hawks showed their true colors down the stretch, earning a hard-fought victory over La Salle in the opening round of the Atlantic 10 Championship and coming within 10 points of 16th-ranked, and eventual A-10 Champion, Temple.

Led by six seniors, the 2004 team went 22-11 and advanced to the WNIT Elite Eight. Saint Joseph's finished second in the A-10 East and dropped a heartbreaker in the Atlantic 10 Championship to Temple. Four Hawk seniors reached the 1,000-point plateau, marking just the eighth time in NCAA history that a quartet of players had reached the milestone in the same season. Erin Brady, Irina Krasnoshiok, Stephanie (Graff) McCaffrey and Amra Mehmedic went on to sign professional contracts.

Following a memorable first year at the helm of her alma mater, Griffin upped the ante in her second season by capturing 2003 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Hawks to a 19-11 record. The team sprinted to the conference's Eastern Division title and earned a berth in the WNIT for the second straight season, despite the departure of SJU's all-time leading scorer and a non-conference schedule that rated fourth nationally.

Griffin helped to reinvigorate the SJU program in her first season, leading the squad to a 24-8 record and the second round of the WNIT. She capitalized on the team's tradition of scrappy play and rugged defense, while releasing the reins and allowing the team to play a more up-tempo style on the offensive end of the floor. The Hawks finished the year among the national leaders in nine different categories and paced the nation in free throw percentage for the second straight year.

Following her playing career, Griffin spent the 1992-93 season as a graduate assistant at her alma mater. She then accepted an assistant's spot at Vanderbilt University from 1993-95 under former Saint Joseph's head coach Jim Foster. Foster recruited Griffin to SJU and coached her during her playing career on Hawk Hill.

In her two years as an assistant at Vanderbilt, the Commodores finished 53-15 overall, won the 1995 SEC championship and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 both seasons. In addition to coaching responsibilities, she was the co-director of the Vanderbilt Basketball Camp and the director of the Black & Gold Club.

Griffin left Vanderbilt after the 1995 season to become an assistant coach at Loyola College (Md.). She spent three seasons as an assistant under Patty Coyle before being promoted to associate head coach in 1998. Griffin was promoted to the position of head women's basketball coach at Loyola midway through the 1998-99 season. She was the seventh-youngest head coach in Division I at the time. Griffin – who was named head coach five games into the season as Coyle left for an assistant coach position with the WNBA's New York Liberty – kept the Greyhounds' momentum going as Loyola won a team-record 21 games that year. Overall she compiled a record of 48-33 during her tenure at the Baltimore school, guiding the squad to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference semifinals all three seasons.

One of the top playmakers in Saint Joseph's history, Griffin starred for the Hawks from 1987-88 through 1991-92 (missing the 1988-89 season due to injury). A three-time team captain, Griffin finished her career with 662 points, 278 rebounds, 510 assists and 197 steals. She currently ranks fourth on SJU's all-time assist list.

As a junior in 1990-91, she played in 1,178 out of a possible 1,200 minutes to set the school record for minutes played in a single season. The Hawks made three NCAA Tournament appearances and posted three straight 20-win seasons during her playing career. A two-time Second Team All-Big 5 choice, as well as a Third Team All-Atlantic 10 pick as a senior, she was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998.

A native of Maple Glen, Pa., Griffin played her high school basketball for Bishop McDevitt, winning two Philadelphia Catholic League titles. A 1987 graduate of McDevitt, she was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997, and in 2002, received the Philadelphia Catholic League's alumni achievement award. She earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Saint Joseph's in 1991 and completed her M.B.A. from SJU in 1993. She resides in Conshohocken, Pa., with her husband Curtis and children, Kaylie (9), Hannah (7) and Curtis Jr. (4).

Game 1 • November 11, 2012 • Hagan Arena Princeton - 69, Saint Joseph's - 59

Saint Joseph's dropped its season-opening contest to reigning Ivy League champs Princeton, 69-59, at Hagan Arena. The Hawks were paced by Ilze Gotfrida's 14 points and a 13 points, 10 rebound double-double from Chatilla van Grinsven, but couldn't overcome an early second half deficit.

Playing to a 30-30 draw in the first half, Saint Joseph's fell behind quickly in the second half as the Tigers opened with a 13-3 run to take a 43-33 edge on a three-pointer at 16:06.

The Hawks quickly countered with a 10-2 run as Ashley Prim and Gotfrida combined for the 10 points, with a three-point play by Prim bringing SJU within one possession, 45-43.

Both teams would exchange short runs as Princeton clung to a 55-51 lead with just over six minutes to go. However, the Tigers scored six straight points to make it 61-51.

Saint Joseph's fought back to cut it to 64-59 game on a three pointer by Erin Shields with just under a minute to play, but Princeton would seal the game from the foul line, hitting 5-of-6 free throws to end the game.

In the first half, the game remained tight through out the 20 minutes, with the Tigers building up their biggest lead, 27-21, with 4:38 left in the stanza.

Down 30-24, the Hawks finished the half with a flurry, scoring six straight points in the final 90 seconds to tie the game at 30 all, as van Grinsven's fast break layup slipped through the netting before the halftime buzzer sounded.

Game 2 • November 14, 2012 • Daskalakis Center Saint Joseph's - 47, Drexel - 45

Erin Shields' three-pointer at the buzzer lifted Saint Joseph's to a 47-45 victory at Drexel. Down by as many as eight in the second half, the Hawks fought back behind Shields' team-high 18 points to earn their first victory of the season.

Trailing 39-32 with under 11 minutes to go, Saint Joseph's fought back to take its first lead of the second half on a jumper in the lane by Shields at 1:09.

Drexel retook the lead on a jump shot with 26 seconds remaining.

Saint Joseph's had a chance to regain the lead in the final 20 seconds only to have a shot by Natasha Cloud glance off the backboard and out of play, giving Drexel possession with 10.4 seconds left.

On the inbound, SJU's Ashley Prim stole the ball in the right corner, and had it knocked out of play. With the ball inbounded off the sideline, Prim got the ball and drove down the left lane, only to have her shot tipped out of bounds with 1.6 seconds to go.

Following a tipped ball that got possession back to SJU, the Hawks' Cloud found Shields coming off a pick on the right wing with 0.09 seconds to go. Catching in rhythm, Shields released a deep three with 0.01 seconds to go that splashed through the net at the buzzer to give her team the win.

In the first half, the Hawks ran out to a 12-3 lead, but Drexel soon took control, opening up an eight point lead before SJU fought back to cut the deficit to 32-27 at halftime.

Game 3 • November 17, 2012 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 50, #5 Maryland - 49

Career win 250 was a memorable one for Saint Joseph's head coach Cindy Griffin as her Hawks upset #5 Maryland, 50-49. Backed by a game-high 18 point performance from Chatilla van Grinsven, the Hawks posted their first win over a nationally-ranked team since the 2007-08 season and their highest victory over a ranked squad since they topped #3 Montclair State, 68-67, on March 11, 1977.

Coming off a thrilling last second win at Drexel, the Hawks and Terps battled down to the wire at Hawk Hill as the lead changed hands nine times.

Trailing 47-38 with under nine minutes to play, the Hawks used a 12-2 run over the next five minutes to take their first lead of the second half on a layup by Ilze Gotfrida at 4:21.

Leading by one, SJU's defense continued to make plays over the final minutes. Causing a pair of turnovers, the Hawks' strong defense allowed them to maintain a one-point lead heading into the final 30 seconds.

Off a foul, SJU Ashley Prim went to the line for a one-and-one with 25 seconds remaining. The Hawks' co-captain missed the shot, despite an apparent lane violation, allowing Maryland a chance to take the lead.

Following a Terrapin timeout, Maryland's Alyssa Thomas missed a shot from inside the paint, only to grab the offensive rebound. Thomas went up for the put back, but was met by a block from van Grinsven as the ball landed out of bounds with 0.5 seconds to play.

Without a timeout to call, Maryland inbounded to Tianna Hawkins in the corner, only to have her shot bounce off the rim as the buzzer sounded, setting off a celebration in Hagan Arena.

Game 4 • November 20, 2012 • Hagan Arena Syracuse - 80, Saint Joseph's - 39

Saint Joseph's fell behind early and could never catch up as they dropped a 80-39 decision to Syracuse.

In the first half, Syracuse kept Saint Joseph's scoreless through the six minutes of play as the Orange jumped out to a 9-0 lead.

Kelsey Berger made a jumper and Erin Shields followed up with a three to close the gap 9-5, but Syracuse would go on a 36-11 run to put the Orange ahead 45-16 at halftime.

Syracuse held the Hawks to 22.2 percent shooting in the half, while the Orange shot 53.3 percent (16-for-30) from the floor and 50 percent (6-for-12) from behind the arc.

Trailing 52-25 in the second half, Shields made a three to close the Hawks' deficit to 24 points, but the Orange would keep SJU at a distance for the remainder of the half.

Game 5 • November 25, 2012 • Mack Sports Complex Saint Joseph's - 71, Hofstra - 55

Backed by a career-high 19 points from Ashley Prim, Saint Joseph's downed Hofstra, 71-55, at the Mack Sports Complex. The Hawks took a 17-point lead into halftime and never relented in the second half as they held the Pride to just 35.7 percent shooting (20-of-56) and caused 28 turnovers.

In the first half, the Hawks fell down 10-9 early, but answered back with a 12-5 run as Prim nailed back-to-back three-pointers to give SJU a 22-14 lead with 9:11 to go in the half.

Hofstra cut the deficit to 22-18, but Saint Joseph's took control of both ends from there, using a 20-7 run to end the half and take a 42-25 edge into the second stanza. Saint Joseph's caused 10 turnovers over the final 14 minutes of the half and held the Pride to just 37 percent shooting in the first half (10-27) and just 3-of-10 to finish the half.

The Pride quickly cut the deficit to 11 in the second half as Hofstra used a 6-0 run over the opening two minutes. Saint Joseph's responded though, posting a 15-0 run that opened a 57-31 lead on a Prim jumper at 14:19. The Hawks would keep the Pride at a distance from there.

Game 6 • December 1, 2012 • Degol Arena Saint Joseph's - 61, Saint Francis - 44

Saint Joseph's Chatilla van Grinsven matched SJU's single-game rebound mark of 21 and scored a game-high 18 points as the Hawks' topped Saint Francis, 61-44.

Up by two to start the second half, the Hawks gave up the opening four points as Saint Francis took a quick 28-26 edge on an Alli Williams layup at 18:56.

Saint Joseph's took over from there, using a 15-0 run to open up a 41-28 lead on a jumper by Natasha Cloud. The Red Flash went 0-for-8 from the field and turned the ball over four times during the six minute stretch as SJU hit 7-for-7 from the floor at the opposite end.

The Hawks' defense would keep the Red Flash at a distance from there, not allowing them within 11 point as Saint Francis shot just 20.7 percent (6-of-29) in the half, while SJU hit 54.2 percent (13-of-24).

In a back-and-forth first half, the Hawks took used a 9-0 run to take a 9-3 lead early on a three-pointer by Cloud. The Red Flash answered back, tying the score at 9-9, but SJU maintained control over the next seven minutes, holding an 8-16 lead off a three by senior Mireia Vila.

Saint Francis (4-2) fought back to regain the lead and open a 21-18 lead, but the Hawks answered back, scoring six of the final eight points of the half to take a 26-24 advantage into the second half.

Game 7 • December 5, 2012 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 69, Lafayette - 43

Led by Chatilla van Grinsven's third double-double of the season, Saint Joseph's defeated Lafayette, 69-43. van Grinsven recorded a season-high 19 points, 15 coming in the second half, to go along with 11 rebounds in the win.

Entering the second half with a 30-22 lead, the Hawks went on a 21-2 run that was capped with a layup by Ashley Robinson to extend Saint Joseph's lead to 51-24 at 11:47. With 1:32 remaining in the game, Kasie Parker drained a three for the game's final points to give the Hawks their second biggest lead of the game at 69-43.

At the start of the first half, Saint Joseph's jumped out to a 4-0 run on a layup by Natasha Cloud and a pair of converted free throws by Ashley Prim. With a 19-14 lead at the 7:26 mark, the Hawks would extend their lead to as many as 10 and not trail by more than seven as they headed into halftime with the 30-22 advantage.

Game 8 • December 8, 2012 • Hagan Arena Villanova - 55, Saint Joseph's - 51

Despite a career-high 24 points from Chatilla van Grinsven, Saint Joseph's dropped its Big 5 opener to Villanova, 55-51.

Down 27-23 to start the second half, van Grinsven tallied the opening two baskets of the stanza to tie the game at 27 all on a layup less than a minute in.

The Wildcats regained the lead, 32-29, but the Hawks answered back with a 5-0 run as van Grinsven capped it with a layup at 12:15.

Villanova rallied back to regain the lead, only to have SJU answer, leading to a 38-38 tie with 8:58 to go.

Unfortunately for Saint Joseph's, Villanova opened its biggest lead of the game, using a 10-0 run to take a 48-38 lead on a pair of Rachel Roberts free throws with 4:16 remaining. The Hawks went 5:40 without a point as they shot 0-for-7 from the floor and turned the ball over twice during that period.

Saint Joseph's continued to fight back in the final minutes though, cutting the deficit to three, 54-51, on a layup by van Grinsven with 6.4 seconds left. However, the Wildcats would hold on for the win as Roberts hit 1-of-2 free throws to seal the game.

In the first half, the Hawks fell behind 6-0 early, but rallied to take their first lead, 14-12, on a three-pointer by Mireia Vila at 9:52.

Villanova answered with a 7-0 run to make it a 19-14 game on a three-pointer by Emily Suhey, but SJU cut the deficit to one, 22-21, with under five minutes left in the half.

The Wildcats would retain the lead though, using a 5-2 run to end the half and take a 27-23 lead into the second frame.

Game 9 • December 20, 2012 • O'Connel Center Central Michigan - 98, Saint Joseph's - 84

Even with a season-high five players in double figures, Saint Joseph's fell to Central Michigan, 98-84, in the opening game of the Gator Holiday Classic.

Down 47-42 to start the second half, the Hawks started quickly and took a 52-51 lead on an Erin Shields three-pointer at 16:42.

Saint Joseph's held a 56-55 lead on a Chatilla van Grinsven jumper at 13:45, but the Chippewas would begin to pull away from there. Behind a 15-4 run, Central Michigan opened up a 70-60 advantage with 9:36 to play.

Unfortunately for the Hawks, they'd come no closer than eight points from there as Central Michigan hit 21-of-29 from the line from there.

In the first half, Central Michigan jumped out to a nine-point edge just under four minutes in. A three-pointer by Brandie Baker gave the Chippewas a 13-4 lead at 16:16.

The Hawks fought back to take their first lead midway through the stanza as an 8-0 run saw SJU go from down 23-18 to a 26-23 lead on a layup by Natasha Cloud at 9:58.

In a fast-paced final minutes, the Hawks held a 40-38 edge late, but Central Michigan used a 9-2 run over the final 2:21 to take a 47-42 lead into the second frame.

Game 10 • December 20, 2012 • O'Connel Center Saint Joseph's - 88, Savannah State - 41

Posting its best offensive performance of the season, Saint Joseph's downed Savannah State, 88-41, in the consolation game of the Gator Holiday Classic. The Hawks, who had 11 of 12 players score on the day, were led by All-Tournament Team selection Chatilla van Grinsven's 20 points.

Saint Joseph's jumped out to an early 12-4 lead on a three-pointer by Natasha Cloud at 14:24, but Savannah State rallied to cut the deficit to two, 12-10.

From there, Saint Joseph's took full control. Behind a 26-4 run that spanned more than seven minutes, the Hawks opened up a 38-14 lead on a three-pointer by Mireia Vila at 2:45. Saint Joseph's defense limited the Tigers to just 2-of-12 from the floor during that stretch and caused five turnovers, while the Hawks hit 10-of-12 from the field over that span.

Savannah State would score the final five points of the half as SJU took a 38-19 lead into the second half.

In the second half, Saint Joseph's gained momentum from the start, outscoring the Tigers 24-8 over the first eight minutes. The Hawks would go on to outscore Savannah State 50-22 as they capped the two-day Gator Holiday Classic with the third most points in tournament history (172).

Game 11 • December 28, 2012 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 51, Fairfield - 38

Saint Joseph's defeated the Fairfield Stags, 51-38, in the semifinals of the 21st Annual Hawk Classic at Hagan Arena.

Up 24-10 entering the second half, Saint Joseph's went on a 16-4 run as Chatilla van Grinsven exploded for seven of her nine total points. From there, the Hawks gave up just 24 more points in the half, holding the Stags to just 38 points in all, the least amount of points that the Hawks have allowed in a game all season.

In the first half, Saint Joseph's went on a 14-3 run early on as six different Hawks scored at least two points each. Kelsey Berger tallied back-to-back baskets to extend Saint Joseph's lead to 21-8 at the 3:56 mark and Ashley Prim added a foul shot to give the Hawks a 14-point advantage, their biggest lead of the half.

Fairfield's Christa Scognamiglio would add a layup for the Stags with 35.6 seconds remaining, but Natasha Cloud would respond with a layup of her own to close out the half.

The Hawks held Fairfield to just 10 points on 19.0 percent (4-of-21) shooting from the floor in the first half, the least amount of points that the Hawks have allowed in a first half all season.

Game 12 • December 29, 2012 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 79, UMBC - 38

Behind a total team effort, Saint Joseph's topped UMBC, 79-38, for the 2012 Hawk Classic championship at Hagan Arena. Led by Hawk Classic MVP Erin Shields' 14 points and nine assists, all 12 SJU players scored a basket as the Hawks improved to 8-4 on the year.

Taking control from the tip, the Hawks jumped out to a 10-0 lead, hitting 3-of-4 from the field and a pair of free throws, while the Retrievers went 0-for-4 and turned the ball over once in their first five possessions.

Leading 19-5, Saint Joseph's continued to pull away from UMBC (4-9), putting together a 12-2 run that gave the Hawks a 31-7 advantage on a steal and layup by Kasie Parker at 7:10.

Saint Joseph's, which led by as many as 28 in the first half, took a 44-18 lead into halftime as it shot 46.9 percent from the field (15-of-32), while holding UMBC to just 28 percent (7-of-25)

In the second half, the Hawks were in full control, opening their lead to as many as 47 as they allowed UMBC to get no closer than halftime deficit.

Game 13 • December 31, 2012 • Pauley Pavilion #17/18 UCLA - 73, Saint Joseph's - 65

Cutting a 12-point deficit to just one, Saint Joseph's couldn't complete the comeback as it fell at #17/18 UCLA.

Spearheaded by Erin Shields' career-high 24 points, Saint Joseph's fought back from a 48-36 hole to make it a one-point. After cutting the Bruins' lead to 60-54, the Hawks got a three-point-er from Shields and a steal and layup from Natasha Cloud to make it a 60-59 game with 5:57 to go.

Both teams would exchange a free throw as Saint Joseph's trailed just 61-60 off a free throw by Sarah Fairbanks at 4:07.

Unfortunately for the Hawks, UCLA scored nine of the next 11 points to open a 70-62 lead on a pair of free throws by Thea Lemberger with 1:06 to go. A Shields' jumper cut the deficit to six, but the Bruins sealed the game from the foul line, hitting 3-of-4 in the final 36 seconds to preserve the win

Down by seven in the first half, the Hawks answered back with seven straight points as a layup by Cloud brought SJU to within 25-23 at 6:56.

Both teams would exchange baskets over the remainder of the half as the Bruins took a 36-32 lead into halftime. UCLA, which shot 10-of-18 from the floor to start, was held to just 3-of-13 over the final eight minutes of the half, while SJU knocked down 5-of-9 from the floor over that period.

Game 14 • January 5, 2013 • The Palestra Saint Joseph's - 66, Penn - 53

Behind a combined 46 points from Chatilla van Grinsven and Natasha Cloud, Saint Joseph's topped Penn, 66-53, in the Hawks' final non-conference game of the year.

Up 24-21 heading into the second half, the Hawks quickly saw their lead disappear as the Quakers used an 8-2 run to start the half.

Saint Joseph's and Penn would exchange baskets as Penn held a 33-32 lead with 12:09 to go. From there though, the Hawks put together a 17-3 run, opening a 49-36 advantage on a van Grinsven layup with 7:44 remaining. van Grinsven scored nine points during the run, while SJU held the Quakers to just just 1-for-3 during the run.

Penn would cut the Hawks' lead to eight with under six minutes to go, but Saint Joseph's responded with six-straight points to open a 57-43 lead at 3:54 and never allow the Quakers to get any closer than 10 from there.

Up 13-10 in the first half, van Grinsven and Cloud combined for seven points as the Hawks went on a 7-2 run to expand Saint Joseph's lead by eight points, its largest lead of the half.

The Quakers began to chip away as they came within just one possession three different times, but the Hawks would hold the advantage as they went into the locker room leading 24-21.

Game 15 • January 12, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 82, Richmond - 62

Behind a 32-9 run that spanned both halves, Saint Joseph's opened Atlantic 10 play with an 82-62 victory over Richmond.

With the Spiders ahead 29-26, Saint Joseph's grabbed the momentum, finishing the half on a 9-2 run as Ashley Prim's last second layup gave her team a 36-31 lead heading into the second half.

Opening the second stanza up five points, the Hawks quickly pulled away from the Spiders. Saint Joseph's used a 22-7 run to begin the half, converting 9-of-10 from the field and 2-of-2 from the line as a three-pointer by Prim gave SJU a 58-38 lead.

Richmond would cut the lead to 11, but the Hawks would not allow their opponents to get any closer as they improved to 27-4 all-time in conference openers.

In the first half, Saint Joseph's opened its biggest lead of the first half behind a quick 5-0 run. A jumper from guard Natasha Cloud, followed by a three-point play from Chatilla van Grinsven put the Hawks up 21-13 with 8:01 to go in the stanza.

Richmond responded with a 14-4 run over the next four minutes, opening a 27-25 edge on a pair of free throws by Kristina King at 3:28. The Spiders would hold the lead for less than two minutes as SJU countered and took over the game.

Led by a career-high 25 points from Erin Shields, Saint Joseph's held off a second-half charge from George Washington to top the Colonials, 80-67.

Leading by as many as 22 in the second half, the Hawks saw their lead cut to 10, 58-48, midway through the period. Despite shooting just 34.6 percent in the half (9-of-26), Saint Joseph's would not allow George Washington to come any closer than 10 as the Hawks knocked down 9-of-10 from the foul line in the closing minutes to preserve the win.

Trailing 8-2 to start the game, Saint Joseph's quickly took control of the game behind a 19-4 run that spanned six minutes. Started by a pair of free throws by Natasha Cloud at 15:20, the Hawks would hit six of their next eight from the field, as a Shields' three-pointer put SJU up 21-12 at 9:03.

Leading 25-16, the Hawks would begin to pull away in the final minutes of the half as they opened a 38-18 advantage on a layup by Ashley Robinson with 1:59 to go. Saint Joseph's, which took a 43-24 lead into halftime, knocked down 14-of-27 from the field (51.9 percent) in the first period, including 7-of-12 from behind the arc (58.3 percent), while holding the Colonials to just 10-of-30 from the floor.

Game 17 • January 20, 2013 • Chaefitz Arena Saint Joseph's - 69, Saint Louis - 38

Holding Saint Louis to just 25 percent from the floor (14-of-56), Saint Joseph's downed the Billikens, 69-38, at Chaefitz Arena.

Despite giving up the first basket of the game, the Hawks quickly took control of the game. Behind a 14-2 run, Saint Joseph's opened a 10-point lead as a Vila three-pointer upped her team's lead to 14-4 at 11:09. The Hawks defense stymied the Billikens to just 2-of-12 shooting to start the game and caused five turnovers.

Leading 30-16, the Hawks went on an 8-0 run to open their biggest lead of the half, 22 points. Started by three pointers by Mireia Vila and Ilze Gotfrida, SJU took a 38-16 advantage on a pair of free throws by Chatilla van Grinsven with 1:07 left in the half.

Saint Joseph's carried over momentum into the second half, allowing Saint Louis to get no closer than the halftime score as the Hawks held the Billikens to just 5-of-26 shooting in the period and outscored them 31-18.

2012-13 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 26

Game 19 • January 30, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 57, Butler - 50

For the first time in program history, Saint Joseph's went undefeated in the month of January, capping it with a 57-50 win over Butler.

Trailing 46-40 with under 12 minutes to play, the Saint Joseph's defense stymied the Bulldogs over the remaining time as the Hawks took control of the game. Using a 12-2 run over seven minutes, Saint Joseph's evaporated the deficit and opened a 52-48 lead on a pair of free throws by Ashley Robinson at 3:30.

Butler which was held to 1-of-11 and a turnover during that span, made it a 52-50 contest on a layup by Daress McClung at 1:07.

With pressure coming from the Bulldogs on the ensuing play, SJU Ashley Prim drove into the paint, only to be double teamed. As the defense swarmed, Prim shuffled a bounce pass to an open Robinson at the left block, feeding the reserve forward an easy layup as SJU took a 54-50 edge with 41 seconds to play.

On the ensuing play, Robinson again made a critical play for SJU, tipping a lob pass into the post, that allowed Prim to pick up the loose ball and shuffle a pass to Erin Shields. Fouled immediately, Shields hit both ends of a one-and-one and Robinson would follow with a free throw with :06 left to seal the victory for the Hawks.

In the first half, Butler opened an 11-point lead with less than five minutes to go in the half as the Hawks struggled from the floor on offense.

Trailing 32-20 with under five minutes to go in the period, a three-pointer by Shields kick started an 18-0 run that covered both halves. The Hawks, who cut the deficit to 32-30, carried momentum into the second half, tallying the first eight points to open a 38-32 lead.

The Bulldogs countered with a 10-0 run of their own to take a 42-38 advantage with over 13 minutes to play. From their, Saint Joseph's defense took over, holding Butler to just eight points.

Game 20 • February 2, 2013 • Ryan Center Saint Joseph's - 78, Rhode Island - 51

Shooting 55.4 percent from the field, Saint Joseph's downed Rhode Island, 78-51.

Taking control from start, the Hawks ran out to a 13-2 edge. Converting on six of its first seven possessions, SJU took a double-digit lead on a pair of free throws by Chatilla van Grinsven just 3:31 into the game.

Hitting 14-of-28 from the floor Saint Joseph's opened up 21-point lead in the opening period before taking a 38-21 lead into halftime on a jumper at the buzzer by Mireia Vila. The Hawks, who also knocked down 8-of-9 from the foul line in the half, held Rhode Island to just 26.7 percent shooting (8-of-30) over the opening 20 minutes.

In the second half, the Hawks continued to hold the Rams at a distance. Converting 60.7 percent of its shots (17-of-28), Saint Joseph's outscored Rhode Island 40-30 in the stanza, allowing the Rams to get no closer than 14 points, while opening up a 32-point advantage in the final minutes.

2012-13 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 27

Game 21 • February 6, 2013 • Verizon Wireless Arena Saint Joseph's - 55, VCU - 50

Trailing by 10 with less than 11 minutes to play, Saint Joseph's fought back for a 55-50 victory over VCU.

Down 37-27, Saint Joseph's put together a 16-6 run as the Hawks took their first lead since the middle of the first half on a jumper by Chatilla van Grinsven at 5:08.

The Hawks opened a 51-47 lead on a layup with less than two minutes to play, but VCU's Jessica Pellechio buried a three pointer to make it a 51-50 game with 1:03 to play.

Saint Joseph's failed to convert on its next possession, but a bad turnover gave the ball back to SJU. At midcourt, the Rams' Carleeda Green dropped off a bounce pass to Pellechio, only to have the ball bounce off Pellechio's knee and over the time line and give SJU the ball with less than 25 seconds in the game.

After three VCU fouls, Erin Shields calmly hit both ends of a one-and-one, and after a steal on defense, sealed the game with two more free throws with 2.9 seconds left.

In a cold-shooting first half, the Hawks jumped out to a 15-9 edge, but a 10-1 run by the Rams gave host VCU a 19-16 lead.

VCU, which caused 11 Hawk turnovers in the first half, would get a jumper by Adaeze Adebayo before the half as the Rams took a 21-20 lead into the second half.

Saint Joseph's continued to struggle entering the second half. The Rams held the Hawks to just seven points over the opening 10 minutes as VCU built up its biggest lead of the game.

Game 22 • February 10, 2013 • Hagan Arena Charlotte - 71, Saint Joseph's - 66

Saint Joseph's had its eight-game win streak snapped as the Hawks dropped their first Atlantic 10 game of the season to Charlotte, 71-66.

Leading 40-32 to start the second half, Saint Joseph's came out cold as Charlotte used a 17-6 run to open the stanza, taking a 49-46 lead.

Saint Joseph's fought back to tie the game at 55-55 on a three-point play by Ashley Prim, but the 49ers answered with an 11-0 run as a pair of free throws by Amanda Dowe put the visitors up 66-55 with less than five minutes to play.

Scrambling back, SJU made it a one-possession game with 1:52 to go on a pair of free throws by Chatilla van Grinsven. After a defensive stop, the Hawks failed to convert on their next possession as Charlotte hit 1-of-2 from the foul line to make it a 68-64 game with 39 seconds to play.

Redshirt sophomore Natasha Cloud's driving layup made it a 68-66 game with under 15 second to go, but Charlotte sealed the victory with three free throws from there.

The Hawks, who shot just 31.3 percent in the second half, were solid in the first half, opening a nine-point lead, 26-17.

Charlotte closed to within three, but SJU pushed the lead back to nine again. Cloud would stop a short run by the 49ers to end the half, hitting a running layup to give her team a 40-32 edge after 20 minutes.

2012-13 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 28

Game 23 • February 13, 2013 • A.J. Palumbo Center Saint Joseph's - 69, Duquesne - 68 Overtime

Behind key free throws at the end of regulation and overtime, Saint Joseph's downed Duquesne, 69-68.

Tied 56-56 at the start of overtime, the Hawks would hit a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor and 4-of-4 from the free throw line en route to the win.

Trailing 66-62 with under two minutes remaining in overtime, the Hawks went on a 5-0 run to take a 67-66 lead on the three-pointer by Erin Shields.

Duquesne responded with a layup with 34 seconds left, but Chatilla van Grinsven was fouled in the paint and hit both of her free throws to put the Hawks back up, 69-68, with less than 20 seconds to go.

Saint Joseph's would get a key block from Natasha Cloud with 1.5 seconds left, and a forced shot by Duquesne at the buzzer was off the mark.

Leading 52-43 with 4:36 remaining in the game, Saint Joseph's saw its lead evaporate as the Dukes went on a 10-0 run to take a 53-52 lead at the 2:31 mark.

Trailing 56-54 with less than 20 seconds to go,

Cloud was then fouled with 7.1 seconds left and drained both free throws to send the game into overtime.

The Hawks came out of the gates slow, hitting just 1-of-11 to start the game as Duquesne opened up an 11-4 lead. Down 22-18, SJU used a 17-1 run to open a 35-23 lead and would take a 35-25 edge into halftime.

Game 24 • February 17, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 49, Temple - 41 Overtime

Outscoring Temple 10-2 in overtime, Saint Joseph's snapped its 13-game losing streak to the Owls with a 49-41 win.

Leading 39-38 with less than 20 seconds to play, Saint Joseph's made a costly turnover underneath its own basket as Tyonna Williams stole a pass and was fouled immediately. Williams hit the first of two free throws, but missed the backend.

The Hawks had the final shot of regulation, but the ball was off the mark, leading to overtime.

In the extra frame, Temple took a 41-39 lead, but it was all Saint Joseph's from there. Scoring the final 10 points of the extra frame, the Hawks held the Owls to 0-for-6 and a turnover after their opening basket to secure the win.

In a defensive first half that saw neither team shoot over 28 percent, Temple jumped out to an 18-12 lead, but the Hawks countered with six-straight points to tie it at 18-18 all on a Ashley Prim three-pointer.

The Owls would get a free throw with less than a minute to go to take a 19-18 lead into halftime.

In the second half, the Hawks opened a 35-29 lead on a pair of Prim free throws midway through, but Temple answered back with a 7-0 run to make it 36-35 in favor of the Owls with 7:27 to go.

Saint Joseph's scored four of the next six points before the frantic final minute.

2012-13 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 29

Game 25 • February 20, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 68, La Salle - 31

Posting its best defensive performance of the season, Saint Joseph's topped La Salle, 68-31, in both teams Big 5 finale Wednesday.

Holding the Explorers to just 23 percent shooting (14-of-61), Saint Joseph's jumped out to an 18-3 lead on a layup by Mireia Vila with 10:14 to go in the half. The Hawks held La Salle to 1-of-14 shooting to start the game and caused three turnovers in the opening portion of the first half.

Keeping the Explorers at a distance, the Hawks opened an 18-point gap, 29-11, before heading to the half up 30-13. Saint Joseph's defense forced La Salle to just 17.2 percent shooting (5-of-29) in the half, while Chatilla van Grinsven posted her 12th double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Saint Joseph's defense continued to dominate in the second half as the Hawks pulled away at the other end. Outscoring the Explorers 38-18 in the second frame, SJU kept La Salle to just 28.1 percent shooting (9-of-32) for the half en route to the Hawks fewest points allowed since the 1999-2000 season.

Game 26 • February 24, 2013 • Rose Hill Gym Fordham - 70, Saint Joseph's - 63 Overtime

Fighting back from down 12 in the second half to force overtime, Saint Joseph's eventually fell in the extra frame, 70-63, at Fordham.

Trailing 38-26 early in the second half, the Hawks (19-7, 10-2 Atlantic 10) fought back to tie the game at 58-58 with 14 seconds to go on a jumper from the foul line by Ilze Gotfrida.

Fordham (20-7, 10-2 Atlantic 10) turned the ball over with 9.1 seconds to go, but Saint Joseph's couldn't take advantage, leading to overtime.

In the extra time, the Rams scored the opening five points as the Hawks didn't score until a free throw by Natasha Cloud at 1:40 made it a 63-59 game.

Unfortunately for SJU, the Hawks would get no closer as Fordham hit 7-of-8 free throws to close out the game.

In a back-and-forth start to the game, the Hawks held an early 16-14 lead, but a 10-0 run by the Rams gave the hosts momentum as they took a 24-16 lead on a layup by Christina Gaskin at 7:26.

Down 27-20, the Hawks cut it to a one-possession game with less than three minutes to play in the half. Two free throws by Chatilla van Grinsven, including her 1,000th career point, and a jumper by Ashley Prim made it a 27-24 contest, but the Rams would score six straight to end the half and take a 33-24 lead into the second stanza.

2012-13 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 30

Game 27 • February 27, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 87, Massachusetts - 50

Backed by its senior class, Saint Joseph's downed Massachusetts, 87-50a. The Hawks got a combined 42 points from seniors Chatilla van Grinsven, Mireia Vila, Ashley Prim and Shelby Smith as they posted their 20th win of the season.

From the tip, Saint Joseph's was in full control, hitting 5-of-6 from the floor and a pair of free throws as it jumped out to a 13-0 lead.

Leading 36-21, the Hawks opened their lead to 47-23 as Smith scored six of her 11 points during her team's 11-2 run. Saint Joseph's would take a 50-25 lead into halftime as it finished the opening half shooting 63.3 percent from the field (19-of-30), while holding the Minutewomen to 30 percent (9-of-30).

Saint Joseph's would control the second half as it allowed Massachusetts to get no closer than the halftime deficit.

Game 28 • March 3, 2013 • UD Arena #12 Dayton - 73, Saint Joseph's - 66

Trailing by as many as 18 points in the second half, Saint Joseph's cut Dayton's lead to just five points in the final minutes, but could not complete the comeback as the Hawks fell to the Flyers, 73-66.

Trailing 61-43 with less than seven minutes to play, a three pointer by Erin Shields helped spark a 17-4 run over the next five minutes as the Hawks came within five, 65-60, on a layup by Chatilla van Grinsven with 1:51 to go.

After a defensive stop, SJU had a chance to make it a one-possession game, but a three pointer was off the mark and the Flyers hit 7-of-8 from the foul line in the final moments to seal the win.

In the first half, the Hawks got out to a quick start hitting their first four shots and getting a pair of free throws from van Grinsven to take a 12-4 lead 2:29 into the half. Shields scored eight of her points during that stretch.

Leading 17-11, Saint Joseph's saw its lead disappear as the Flyers used a 10-0 run to take a 21-17 lead on a three-point play by Amber Dean at 7:43.

The Hawks fought back to tie it at 21-21, but Dayton countered with a 16-4 run to end the half and take a 37-25 lead into the second half.

Saint Joseph's cut the deficit to nine, 45-36, but the Flyers used a 10-1 run to open an 18-point lead, 55-36, at 9:27.

2012-13 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 31

Game 29 • March 9, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 73, Duquesne - 60

Fourth seed Saint Joseph's downed fifth seed Duquesne, 73-60, to advance to the semifinals of the Atlantic 10 Championship.

In a tightly-contested first half, the Hawks broke open to an 8-2 lead, but that would be the biggest lead of the half as Duquesne would rally to take a 13-12 advantage.

The lead would change hands six more times in the first half as Saint Joseph's took a 24-21 lead into the second half as neither team shot over 35 percent in the half.

Up 31-26 early in the second half, the Hawks would quickly open a double-digit lead behind a 6-0 run to make it 37-26 at 15:16.

Saint Joseph's would push its lead to 15, but the Dukes rallied to make it an eight-point game, 47-39, on a pair of free throws by Vanessa Abel at 9:49.

Both teams would exchange four-point runs, but the Hawks had an answer for Duquesne as they held the Dukes at a 58-48 distance with 4:20 to play.

Duquesne cut into the lead again, making it a 58-51, but Erin Shields answered with a three to push the lead back to 10, 61-51.

Ahead 63-55 with less than two minutes to play, Ashley Prim delivered the decisive blow with a three-pointer at 1:44 to make it a 66-55 game. The Hawks would hit 7-of-10 from the foul line to close out the game.

Game 30 • March 10, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 61, #11 Dayton- 54

Saint Joseph's topped #11 Dayton, 61-54, to advance to the title game of the Atlantic 10 Championship.

The Hawks held a 52-49 lead with 2:45 remaining in regulation, but Dayton's Andrea Hoover hit a jumper to bring the Flyers to within one.

SJU's Chatilla van Grinsven responded with a jumper of her own to bring the Hawks back up three, 54-51 with 2:12 to go.

Following a defensive stop, Erin Shields was fouled and hit a pair of free throws to extend SJU's lead to 56-51 with just over a minute to play.

Saint Joseph's would cause a Dayton turnover in its next possession, leading to two more free throws by Shields to extend the lead to 58-51.

The Flyers would get a three-pointer by Ally Mallott to cut the deficit to four, 58-54 with 41 seconds to play.

Saint Joseph's would close out the win from the line, hitting 3-of-4 foul shots to earn the win and advance to the A-10 title game.

In a hot first half, the Hawks led by as many as 15, 33-18, as the Hawks hit 16-of-35 from the field (45.7 percent), while holding Dayton to just 29.6 percent (8-of-27).

Despite a 35-24 lead coming into the second half, the Hawks would face a tough battle back from Dayton as the flyers cut it to a single-possession game in the final minutes.

Game 31 • March 16, 2013 • Barclays Center Saint Joseph's - 47, Fordham - 46

Trailing by as many as 12 early in the game, Saint Joseph's roared back to earn a 47-46 victory over Fordham in the final of the 2013 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship which gave the Hawks their first Atlantic 10 title since 1999 and first NCAA Tournament bid since 2000.

Saint Joseph's held a 37-36 lead before Ashley Prim hit a three-pointer with 4:25 left in the second half to give the Hawks a 40-36 lead. Fordham responded with six straight points, taking a 42-40 lead on a three-pointer by Abigail Corning with 3:12 to go.

The Hawks answered right back as Erin Shields hit her first three of the game with 2:58 to play and put SJU on top, 43-42. Ilze Gotfrida followed with a jumper from the elbow to extend the lead to 45-42 with 2:29 to go.

Corning answered for the Rams, hitting a three from the corner at the 2:08 mark to tie the score at 45-45. Chatilla Van Grinsven then hit a pair of free throws to put the Hawks on top, 47-45, with 1:47 remaining.

Erin Rooney went to the line for the Rams and hit the first of two free throws with 30.9 seconds left to cut the Hawk lead to one; she missed the second, but the rebound went out of bounds to the Rams.

With 6.7 seconds to go, Fordham's Samantha Clark was called for an offensive foul, turning possession over to Saint Joseph's. After van Grinsven missed two free throws with 3.8 seconds left, a desperation heave by the Rams' Marah Strickland fell short and the celebration was underway.
