CAT SCRATCHES

- UK is in its 112th season of basketball and remains the national leader in total wins with 2,157.
- Seeking their first win at Alabama under the leadership of John Calipari, the Wildcats stormed out to an early 21-14 lead and never looked back in a 70-48 rout of the Crimson Tide. UK's 22-point victory was its most lopsided over Alabama since beating the Tide by 26 in the 1992 SEC Tournament. It was also the most lopsided victory for Kentucky in Tuscaloosa, Ala., since rolling Alabama 90-67 on Feb. 14, 1966.
- After needing overtime in its first two league games, UK earned a 49-point victory (86-37) over visiting Missouri on Tuesday. The 49-point win marked Kentucky's largest margin of victory against an SEC opponent since a 62-point margin against Vanderbilt, 106-44, on March 5, 2003.
- UK held Missouri to less than 20 points in both halves and followed that up by holding Alabama to less than 20 in the first half. UK has held an opponent to less than 20 points in a UK shot-clock record 13 halves this year.
- Tuesday's game vs. Vanderbilt will mark Calipari's 100th game at Rupp Arena. With a 95-4 record entering the game, win or lose, Calipari will own the best record among UK coaches in their first 100 games at home.
- With 17 consecutive victories to begin the season, UK is off to the fourth-best start in program history.
- Kentucky is one of just two teams (Virginia) remaining in the country with an unblemished record.
- UK has only trailed for 98:22 of the possible 695 minutes this season.
- The Wildcats have won 35 of their last 37 contests as the Associated Press top-ranked team.
- Last week, junior Willie Cauley-Stein was named to the Midseason Wooden Award watch list for national player of the year honors. Cauley-Stein is the eighth player in program history to amass 100 or more blocks, 75 or more steals, and 500 or more rebounds in a career. He needs five more steals and one more block to become the first player in program history with 200 or more blocks and 100 or more steals.

This Week's News:

Cats Get First Win at Alabama in Coach Cal Era

• Seeking their first win at Alabama under the leadership of John Calipari, the Wildcats stormed out to an early 21-14 lead and never looked back in a 70-48 rout of the Crimson Tide.

• UK's 22-point victory was its most lopsided over Alabama since beating the Crimson Tide by 26 in the 1992 SEC Tournament.

• It was also the most lopsided victory for Kentucky in Tuscaloosa, Ala., since rolling Alabama 90-67 on Feb. 14, 1966.

• The loss for Alabama was its worst since losing by 23 to Oregon on Nov. 24, 2008.

• UK went on three different runs of 8-0 or more (10-0, 10-0 and 8-0) to take a commanding 35-17 halftime lead.

• It was the 13th time this season UK has held an opponent to less than 20 points in a half.

• Alabama scored the first seven points of the second half and got as close as 39-30, but UK put the game away with a 16-2 run to make it 55-32.

• Kentucky's largest lead was 28 points.

• UK improved to 51-0 in the Coach Cal era when holding the opponent to 55 points or less, including a UK shot-clock record 13 times this season.

• The Wildcats made 50 percent from the field (23 of 46), the sixth time this season they have made at least half of their shots.

• UK continued its hot shooting from the 3-point line, making 8 of 17 (47.1 percent) from long distance.

• Over the last seven games, Kentucky has shot 44.2 percent on 3-pointers.

• For the second consecutive game, Kentucky shot a season best at the free-throw line. After making 80 percent of their foul shots vs. Missouri, the Cats canned 88.9 percent vs. Alabama.

• UK got a balanced effort from its two-platoon attack. Five players scored eight or more points, led by Devin Booker with 13.

• Booker made 4 of 7 shots overall and 3 of 6 from behind the arc. He's made 20 of 28 (71.4 percent) from 3-point range over his last seven games.

• Tyler Ulis was 3 of 4 from long distance and scored 11 points.

• Dakari Johnson continued his recent strong play with 11 points. He's averaging 8.8 points over his last four games.

Return of the Platoons Leads to Win Over Mizzou

• Dominique Hawkins earned his third career start on the "Blue" platoon and Trey Lyles rejoined the "White" platoon in helping lead UK to a 86-37 defensive charge against visiting Missouri on Tuesday.

• Leading 12-10, Kentucky took control by closing the opening half with a 32-8 run, going to intermission ahead 44-18. UK never trailed in the game.

• The 49-point win marked Kentucky's largest margin of victory against an SEC foe since a 62-point margin against Vanderbilt, 106-44, on March 5, 2003.

• The 37 points scored by Missouri are the fewest by

Block Party

- As of games through Jan. 17, UK's 135 blocks leads the country. The Cats are also averaging a nation-leading 7.9 blocks per game.
- At the pace UK is blocking shots, if the Cats were to play the full 40 games this year, they would finish the season with 316 rejections.
- The current national and school record is 344, set by the 2011-12 national title team.
- According to kenpom.com, Kentucky is blocking 21.0 percent of its opponents' shots, more than any other team in the country.

Big and Tall

- According to ESPN Stats and Info and prior to the Alex Poythress injury, UK's frontcourt players were an average height of 6-10.14. If UK was an NBA team, only the Portland Trail Blazers would have a taller front court (6-10.44) than the Cats.
- For the second consecutive season, UK boasts the tallest roster in the country, according to Ken-Pom.com. UK's average height of 79.6 inches is a little more than a half of an inch taller than the second-tallest team, Wisconsin, at 79.0 inches.

- If you were to line up Kentucky's 13 scholarship players from one end of the court and have them extend their arms to each side (their wingspan), they would nearly reach the other end of the court. Combined, UK's 13 scholarship players have nearly 89 feet of wingspan length, just short of the length of a basketball court (94 feet).

Size Matters

- The nation's tallest team has out-rebounded its 17 opponents this season by 166 boards.

- According to kenpom.com, the Cats grab 44.8 percent of their offensive rebound opportunities, tops in the country.

Deceivingly Young

- Despite having the most collective experience in the John Calipari era, UK's average experience is still only 0.79 years. That ranks 346th out of 351 teams in the country, according to KenPom.com.
- Only Vanderbilt (348th) and Southern Cal (349th) have less experience among schools in the Power Five conferences.

On Fire From Behind the Arc

 - UK is averaging 8.7 3-point field goals per game during that stretch.
 - Kentucky's 61 3-point field goals marks the most the Wildcats have made in a seven-game span since hitting 61 in a seven-game stretch from Dec. 22, 2010 to Jan 15, 2011.
 - During that span, Devin Booker has hit 20 of 28 3-pointers (71.4 percent), Tyler Ulis has made 9 of 20 (45.0 percent) and Aaron Harrison has connected on 21 made 3s.

The Success Rate

• Coach Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (10 of 10) who have been eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility.

- Of that group, Patrick Patterson and Jarrod Polson each completed their degrees in just three years.
- For the seventh time in the last eight semesters under Coach Cal, the Cats posted better than a 3.0 grade-point average in the classroom. The Wildcats posted a 3.129 cumulative GPA for the 2014 fall semester with 13 of 16 players on roster earning a 3.0 or higher.

Calipari's Undefeated Conference Teams

- Calipari is believed to be one of three coaches, along with Frank McGuire and Jerry Tarkanian, to lead multiple teams to an unblemished mark in multiple Division I conferences.
- Calipari did so at Memphis in Conference USA and Kentucky in the SEC.
- McGuire led St. John's in the Metro New York ('51, '52), North Carolina in the ACC ('57) and South Carolina in the ACC ('70) to undefeated marks.
- Jerry Tarkanian guided Long Beach State in the Pacific Coast Athletics Association ('70, '71) and UNLV in the Big West ('87, '91, '92) to perfect conference seasons.

Calipari and the NBA Draft

- Coach John Calipari has had two or more players selected in seven consecutive NBA drafts dating back to 2008 with Memphis.
- He has three players who have been taken No. 1 overall.
- Following the 2014 draft, Calipari has had 10 players taken in the top 10 of the draft in the last five seasons and 15 taken in the first round of the draft.
- With Anthony Davis going No. 1 overall in 2012, Calipari coached three No. 1 picks in a five-year span.
- His three No. 1 picks are the most by one coach in NBA Draft history.

Coach Cal's 100th Career Game at Rupp

SUCCEED & PROCEED

UK head coach John Calipari and his staff don't just land the nation's top recruits; they're also the best at developing them. In the process of churning out 19 NBA Draft picks over five seasons at Kentucky, including 15 first-rounders and two No. 1 overall selections, Calipari and his staff have proven there are no equals when it comes to developing elite recruits into NBA Draft picks.

HEAD COACH JOHN CALIPARI

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari has guided five teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 31 players make it to the NBA during his 22-year college coaching career.

John Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, 2012, 2014).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the 2012 title, finishing the season as the nation's top-ranked team in field-goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference and the school's 45th SEC championship, all while extending his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games. Calipari extended his perfect mark at home as UK's coach to 54 games before finally losing in his fourth year at Kentucky.

Upon being named head coach on April 1, 2009, Calipari continued to work his magic of resurrecting once proud programs, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), the program's 44th SEC regular-season championship and 26th SEC Tournament title.

The honors continued after the 2009-10 season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first-round picks. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Rupp National Coach of the Year, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996, and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

In his second year in 2010-11, a season that was labeled as a "rebuilding effort," one in which Calipari and the Cats were supposed to struggle after losing an unprecedented five first-round picks in the 2010 NBA Draft, Kentucky reloaded as Calipari guided UK to its 27th SEC Tournament championship, kept his unbeaten record at Rupp Arena alive and collected his 500th career on-court win.

His latest season, in 2013-14, may have been his best work yet. Coaching the youngest team in the nation, Calipari guided Kentucky back to the Final Four for the third time in four seasons, coming up just one win short of his second national championship and the program's ninth title.

Calipari and the Cats reached the championship game in what some national pundits called one of the greatest NCAA Tournament runs of all-time. Seeded No. 8 in a region analysts called "the region of doom," UK knocked off previously undefeated and top-seeded Wichita State, downed defending national champion and archrival Louisville, defeated defending national runner-up and Big 10 champion Michigan, before edging Wisconsin in the Final Four. UK became the first team ever to knock off three of the previous season's Final Four teams. And the Cats did so starting five freshmen and coming off an appearance in the NIT the season before.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his final 18 seniors that came through the Memphis program earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 10 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a degree in hand, while two (Jarrod Polson and Patrick Patterson) earned a degree in just three years.

Following a 3.4 grade-point average in the 2013 spring semester — the highest in Coach Cal's tenure at UK — the Wildcats' scholarship players posted a 3.11 GPA for the second consecutive semester in the 2014 fall semester. It marked the seventh time in the last eight semesters Coach Cal's team earned a 3.0 or better.

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, he has placed 31 players in the NBA during his college coaching career, including 19 over his first five seasons at Kentucky. The 19 picks over that five-season span is the most of any coach.

In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history. He followed that up with four players in the draft in 2011, six players in 2012 — the most in a two-round draft — two more in 2013 and another two in 2014.

Overall, he's churned out 19 NBA draft picks, 15 first-rounders, two No. 1 overall selections, five top-five picks and nine lottery selections at Kentucky. Since the 2008 draft, 24 of Coach Cal's players have been taken in the NBA Draft, including 17 first-rounders. Calipari has produced a top-10 pick in seven straight drafts. No other school has had a first-rounder in each of the last seven drafts.

Included in Calipari's NBA success are three No. 1 overall picks (Derrick Rose, Wall and Davis) over a five-year period. No other coach has had three No. 1 picks, and 2012 was the first time two players from the same team (Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist) were taken with the top two picks in the draft.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history and seventh in the last 80 years.

Following his fifth season at UK, Calipari's overall on-court record is 597-166, giving him the third-highest winning percentage (.771) among active NCAA Division I coaches with 10 years experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few and Roy Williams. After opening the 2014-15 campaign with three straight wins, he became the 13th active coach with 600 wins.

Calipari is one of only two coaches (Williams) in NCAA Division I history to have 400 or more wins in his first 16 years as a head coach, and his 173 victories from 2008-12 are the most ever for a coach over a five-year span in Division I history. Since the 2005-06 season, he has the best winning percentage among all Division I coaches. On the NCAA Division I list for winning percentage for all coaches (minimum 10 years), Calipari is in 10th place and ahead of Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Boeheim, Bob Huggins and Lute Olson.

Calipari's eight 30-win seasons are third most for a head coach in NCAA Division I history, and he is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons. For his college career (22 years), Calipari has 20 20-win seasons and 13 25-win campaigns. The 20 consecutive 20-win seasons tie Olson for the second-longest streak in NCAA history, trailing only Dean Smith, who had 27.

His NCAA Tournament record of 43-14 (.754) gives him the second-highest winning percentage among active coaches and the second highest of all-time (minimum 20 games). His five Final Four appearances is tied for ninth most by a coach all-time, and his 11 straight NCAA Tournament wins prior to the 2014 national championship loss was the longest winning streak in the tournament since the Florida Gators won 12 straight in 2006 and 2007.

Coach Cal started his head-coaching career at UMass in 1998, guiding a struggling program at UMass to the top of college basketball, capped off by a Final Four appearance in 1996.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began building a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT). The Minutemen won their first Atlantic 10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

From there, the program skyrocketed under Coach Cal.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in A-10 play. In addition to five straight NCAA Tournaments and a Final Four appearance in 1996, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT semifinals in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the A-10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 Final Four season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular-season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his Naismith National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become executive vice president of basketball operations and head coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year post-season drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining Philadelphia coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari returned to the college game in 2000 at Memphis, where he led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game. Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins — 28 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Calipari, who is on the board of directors for the National Association of Basketball Coaches, began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but he was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 55-year-old lettered two years at North Carolina-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free-throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II Top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari's foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country, and in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with another telethon in 2012 that raised $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy.

A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend.

His foundation has also worked with and donated money to Samaritan's Feet, the West Liberty Recovery Fund, 4 Paws for Ability, the Starkey Hearing Foundation, the Urban League of Lexington and the V Foundation. Calipari has also headed up the EverFi Financial Literacy Program, which teaches students across Kentucky the importance of money management.

Author of the national bestseller, "Bounce Back: Overcoming Setbacks to Succeed in Business and in Life" and the recently released "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto "that it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin and Megan, and a son, Bradley.
