STARTING FIVE
1	★ The Commodores will be facing a familiar foe in the opening round of the SEC Tournament, squaring off with the Arkansas Razorbacks for the second time in the last 72 hours to open the 2018 SEC Tournament. The Commodores and Razorbacks will square off at 11 AM CT with the game available on SEC Network. Vanderbilt won the regular-season meeting, 78-73, on Sunday and has now won the last two meetings and five of the last seven between the teams.
2	★ Vanderbilt enters the SEC Tournament with a 7-23, 3-13 SEC record after a 78-73 win over the Razorbacks on Sunday. Kayla Overbeck posted a career-high 24 points for her second career 20-point outing and her seventh game in double figures in the last nine games, while Autumn Newby grabbed a game-best 13 rebounds. The win snapped a five-game losing streak for the Commodores.
3	★ The Commodores and Razorbacks will be meeting for the first time in the SEC Tournament since 2010. The 2010 meeting was an overtime affair in which Vanderbilt squeaked out a 65-64 win. The teams have met three previous times in the tournament with the Commodores owning a 3-0 record. The three meetings have been decided by a combined 23 points with just the 2005 meeting being decided by more than 10 points (79-60).
4	★ Freshman Chelsie Hall earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team it was announced Tuesday. Hall, who is leading the Doress in scoring with 12.1 points per game, is the No. 24 scorer in the league and the No. 2 freshman scorer, trailing SEC Freshman of the Year, Chennedy Carter. Hall becomes the third player in the Stephanie White era to earn SEC accolades, joining Kayla Overbeck and Erin Whalen who were on the 2017 SEC All-Freshman team.
5	★ The Commodores are the No. 12 seed for this week's SEC Tournament after defeating Arkansas on Sunday. Vanderbilt is looking to extend its season with a run through the SEC Tournament. Vanderbilt exited the 2017 tournament after the opening day for only the ninth time in program history. From 1999 to 2017 the Commodores won at least one SEC Tournament game in 16 of 19 tournaments during that span.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEPHANIE WHITE:

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

Stephanie White
Vanderbilt Head Coach

"Above all else, academics, research, scholarship, and service define the Vanderbilt experience, yet we also compete at the highest levels in athletics. Coach White's values align perfectly with those in our university community. I welcome Stephanie to Vanderbilt and look forward to working with her as she leads our women's basketball program to fulfill our goals and highest potential."

Nicholas S. Zeppos
Vanderbilt Chancellor

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career. She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

David Williams
Vanderbilt Athletics Director

"Even though this is Stephanie's first collegiate head coaching job, her experience in the professional ranks are enormously valuable. I expect great success from her as she establishes her culture and her system."

Lin Dunn
Former Indiana Fever Head Coach
Kentucky Assistant

Stephanie White enters her second season at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in 2017-18. White was named the head coach of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in May of 2016, becoming just the fifth all-time head coach in the history of the Vanderbilt program.

When she arrived in Nashville, White inherited a young Vanderbilt team that featured only two seniors and relied heavily on five freshmen. White guided the Commodores to a 14-16 overall record in her first season with the team, including a 4-12 mark in the SEC during the 2016-17 campaign.

White's inaugural season on West End featured plenty of highlights, and was capped by a late-season surge that saw the Commodores win three of their final five games of the regular season. Other highlights included:

- * The Commodores were ranked among the nation's top-5 in 3-point percentage throughout the season, and finished the season ranked No. 6 after shooting 38.6 for the year. Vanderbilt also led the SEC in 3-pointers per game (7.1).

- * White guided Vanderbilt to 10 wins in its first 11 games during the first six weeks of the season. The hot start included a nine-game winning streak that spanned from Nov. 16 to Dec. 18. The winning streak was highlighted by an impressive victory over Duke on Nov. 20, along with quality wins over Robert Morris, Drexel and Tulane.

- * At season's end, a pair of Vanderbilt freshmen -- Kayla Overbeck and Erin Whalen -- were named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team, as voted upon by the conference's coaches.

Having enjoyed success at virtually every level of basketball as a player and coach, White arrived at Vanderbilt after spending two seasons as the head coach of the WNBA's Indiana Fever. She took the Fever to the playoffs in each of her two seasons, including a trip to the WNBA finals in 2015.

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said at her introductory press conference. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

White -- who played five seasons in the WNBA after a decorated playing career at Purdue -- was named head coach of the Fever in September 2014. In 2015, she guided the Fever to the WNBA finals, becoming the first rookie coach in league history to lead a team to the finals. As a collegiate player, White enjoyed a highly successful career at Purdue, where she earned national Player of the Year honors after helping lead the Boilermakers to the 1999 NCAA championship as a senior. That season, she also received the Wade Trophy (given to the nation's top female player) and was named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year.

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career," Vanderbilt athletic director David Williams said. "She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

White averaged double-figure scoring in all four seasons of her college career, including 20.2 points per game as a senior, and amassed 2,182 points for her career. White was inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame on April 21, 2006.

She was also a star in the classroom at Purdue. She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was an Academic All-American.

White was an assistant coach with the Chicago Sky from 2007-2010, then joined the Fever staff as an assistant in 2011. She was promoted to associate head coach in 2014 before being named head coach after Lin Dunn's retirement. While coaching in the WNBA, White served as a college basketball analyst for ESPN and the Big Ten Network. She also covered the NBA's Indiana Pacers for FOX Sports Indiana.

Prior to coaching in the WNBA, White coached in the college ranks, serving as an assistant at Toledo (2005-07), Kansas State (2004-05) and Ball State (2003-04).

Before beginning her coaching career, White enjoyed a productive five-year WNBA career, spending one season with the Charlotte Sting and four with the Indiana Fever, before retiring in 2004.

At the completion of her four seasons with the Fever, she ranked third in games played (112) and 3-pointers (92), and fourth in scoring (684). She was named to the Fever's All-Decade Team that was announced in 2009.

White and her wife, Michelle, have three young boys: Landon, and twins, Aiden & Avery.

Hall Earns Spot on SEC All-Freshman Team

For the second consecutive season, the Commodores have placed someone on the SEC All-Freshman team in guard Chelsie Hall. Hall has started each game this season and is leading the team with 12.1 points per game, which ranks her the No. 24 scorer among her SEC counterparts and the No. 2 freshman scorer behind Freshman of the Year Chennedy Carter from Texas A&M. Hall also leads Vanderbilt in assists (3.0) and steals (1.1). Kayla Overbeck and Erin Whalen were named to the 2017 SEC All-Freshman team.

Tournament Time

The Commodores will open the 2018 SEC Tournament this week and have a fairly successful record in the tournament. Vanderbilt has a 48-32 all-time record in the SEC's premier event and has won its first game in the tournament 27 times. This will be the sixth time the SEC Tournament has been held in Nashville and the Dores have a 10-3 record in tournament games played in Nashville including winning the 2004 and 2002 SEC Championships.

Overbeck Goes for 20

For the second time this season and in her career, Kayla Overbeck posted 20 points with a career-best 24 points in the regular-season win over Arkansas. Overbeck, who is averaging 9.7 points per game, has scored in double figures in seven of the last nine games and is averaging 13.3 over the final nine regular-season games.

Newby Doubles up on the Glass

Freshman Autumn Newby has led the Commodores on the glass this season. The freshman pulled down a game-high 13 rebounds against the Razorbacks on Sunday. It was Newby's sixth game of double figure rebounds this season.

50 Rebounds Strong

For the first time this season, Vanderbilt reached 50 rebounds in the win over Arkansas. Rebounding has been an Achilles heel for the Commodores all season but when the Dores won the battle of the glass they are 7-3. Vanderbilt is averaging 31.7 rebounds per game but has grabbed 40 or more on seven occasions and owns a 6-1 record when reaching at least 40 rebounds.

Overbeck Efficient Down the Stretch

Kayla Overbeck has proven to be a master of efficiency and over the last 10 games is shooting .600 (48-of-80) from the field and averaging 12.4 points per game. Overbeck has reached double figures in seven of the last nine games and is averaging 9.7 points per game on the year. She is shooting .589 (106-of 180) from the floor on the year to rank No. 5 in the SEC. The California native averaged just 7.8 points per game in non-conference action.

All times CENTRAL

Overbeck is putting up numbers. She's reached double figures in seven of the last nine games, including six consecutive games, which matched the longest stretch for a Commodore this season. In the six-game stretch, she has twice recorded 20 points and set a new career-best with 24 points against Arkansas in the regular-season finale.

Reed Closing Strong

Christa Reed has turned things up offensively over the last 10 contests. Over the last 10 games, Reed is averaging 11.5 points per game and is shooting .476 (39-of-82) from the field. She is also perfect from the free throw line (20-of-20) in that span. Reed's shooting .931 from the free throw line on the year but is just shy of the minimum attempts per game to be ranked (two attempts/game) in the SEC and nationally, but if she were ranked she would lead the SEC and be the only player shooting better than 90 percent from the charity stripe.

Reed Lethal from the Stripe

Reed has been extremely impressive from the charity stripe this season. She is shooting .931 from the line, a number that leads the SEC and makes her the only SEC player shooting better than 90 percent from the foul line but Reed doesn't show up in the SEC rankings because she is just shy of the SEC minimum in attempts (two attempts/game). Reed has made each of her last 22 foul shots and has only missed four all season.

Chelsie Hall Doing Chelsie Hall Things ...

-Freshman Chelsie Hall has put together an impressive freshman campaign thus far. The rookie from Boca Raton, Fla. is leading the Commodores in scoring with 12.1 points per game and has started every game this season. She's reached double figures in a team-best 19 games this season and in 11 of Vanderbilt's last 17 games, including a career-best 26 against Belmont. Hall's scored 20+ in three contests this season. Hall's 12.1 points per game make her the No. 2 SEC freshman scorer, trailing just Texas A&M's Chennedy Carter, and ranks her No. 24 overall in the SEC. In Vanderbilt's seven wins, Hall has reached double figures in five of those contests.

Overbeck and Reed, the X-Factors in Wins

Sophomore Kayla Overbeck is shooting .600 (30-of-50) in Vanderbilt wins and averages 12.7 points per game in Commodore victories. Overbeck has 15 games in double figures this season and in Vanderbilt's seven wins, Overbeck has been in double figures in five of them. Christa Reed is also key in Vanderbilt victories. Reed is averaging 12.6 points per game in Vanderbilt wins and is shooting .550 (12-of-24) from long range in victories.

Charity Stripe Is Money for the Commodores

The Commodores are quite efficient from the line, shooting .732 which is fifth in the SEC. Vanderbilt has six players shooting at least 70 percent or better from the stripe led by Erin Whalen who is a perfect 19-of-19 from the line this year while Christa Reed is shooting .931 percent and hasn't missed a free throw in the last nine games. Reed is the only SEC player shooting over 90 percent from the charity stripe despite not meeting attempts per game minimums to be ranked.

Strong Start Against Cardinals

Vanderbilt had one of its best starts of the season against Louisville. The Commodores led 24-20 after one period of play. The Dorees 24 points are the most scored in the first period this season and marked the first time Vanderbilt has led after one period of play this season. The Dorees are averaging 16.2 points per quarter.

Dorees are "Youthful"

Of the 14 players on the Vanderbilt roster 10 are underclassmen meaning that the Commodore roster is 71.4 percent underclassmen. The Dorees added four true freshmen this season and had a five-member freshman class last year while welcoming BC transfer and redshirt sophomore Mariella Fasoula.

Bell Tough Against Syracuse In Paradise Jam

Senior Rachel Bell was on fire against Syracuse in the second game of the Paradise Jam. The Tennessee native tied her career best with 31 points against the Cuse and went 7-of-10 from long range to set a new career best and tie the Paradise Jam single-game three-point record. Bell's 31 points are the most points and individual scored in a single game over the three-day tournament. Bell averaged 18.0 points per game at the Paradise Jam.

Bell Shoots Her Way into Vandy Record Books

Bell's seven triples against Syracuse will earn her a spot in the Vanderbilt record books as her seven long-range bombs tie her for the second-most triples in a single-game. She joins Christina Foggie, Caroline Williams, Jillian Danker and Julie Powell as Dorees to hit seven in a game. For her career, Bell is shooting .369 percent from long range.

Dorees Were Road Strong in November

In the first month of the season, Vanderbilt has played six of its eight games on the road in a true or neutral site fashion. Vanderbilt sports a 2-4 road record to date. Through the first month of the season the Commodores traveled 2,115.3 miles for six road games. Vanderbilt is looking to right its road woes this season. Last season, the Commodores posted a 3-10 record away from Nashville and were 0-8 on the road in the SEC. Vanderbilt already has two road wins in the bag this season with wins at George Washington and at Saint Louis.

Counting up the November Miles ...

Nashville – Mt. Pleasant, Mich. (Central Michigan)
607.2 miles
Nashville – New Orleans (Tulane)
533.2 miles
Nashville – Washington, D.C. (Paradise Jam)
665.8 miles
Nashville – St. Louis (St. Louis)
309.1 miles

Road Wins for the Road Warriors

The Commodores picked up their second road win of the season at Saint Louis on Nov. 29. Two of Vanderbilt's three wins have come on the road this season and put the Commodores one road win away from tying last year's road win total just a month into the season.

Volunteer State Bragging Rights on the Line

This season, Vanderbilt will face five teams from the state of Tennessee in Middle Tennessee, Memphis, Belmont, Lipscomb and Tennessee. Additionally, the Commodores are playing three teams from the greater Nashville area in Middle Tennessee, Lipscomb and Belmont. This will be the most teams from the state of Tennessee that Vanderbilt has played in the last six seasons. In each of the last three seasons, including this season, Vanderbilt has played at least two non-conference opponents from the Tennessee.

Speaking of Tennessee ...

Vanderbilt has several players that call Tennessee home. Currently, Vanderbilt has four players from Tennessee. Rachel Bell (Cumberland Furnace), LeaLea Carter (Dickinson), Kaleigh Clemons-Green (Chattanooga) and Myka Dancy (Antioch). The Dores will add two more from the state of Tennessee when they welcome Nashville area natives Brinae Alexander (Murfreesboro) and Jordyn Cambridge (Nashville).

#AsOne

This season the Commodores have taken on the slogan, "As One". It signifies that the team is working to become better individually so that the team can function as one group united by a love of each other and a love of the game.

Shooting Shirts For Justice

The Commodores are taking a stand against social injustice and this season will don shooting shirts that personally tie them to the cause with a word or symbol that showcases their personal "why's" Vanderbilt debuted their shirts against Syracuse in the Paradise Jam and will wear them throughout the season.

Welcome to The Family Brinae and Jordyn

The Commodore women's basketball family expanded by two during the NCAA's early signing period as local products, Brinae Alexander (Murfreesboro, Tenn.) and Jordyn Cambridge (Nashville, Tenn.) inked with the Commodores. The duo is the No. 18 class nationally and are the second top 25 class for Vanderbilt in the last three seasons.

Freshmen Become Sophomores

The highly-touted freshmen from the 2016-17 season will be sophomores this season and have gained valuable experience. The five-member class of LeaLea Carter, Kaleigh Clemons-Green, Kayla Overbeck, Cierra Walker and Erin Whalen was a consensus top-20 class and was ranked as high as No. 6 by Blue Star Basketball. As freshman, the quintet averaged 32.7 points per game and 16.2 rebounds per game. The group also accounted for 48 percent of the Commodores scoring. This group gained valuable experience as freshman which will be beneficial in 2017-18.

Shooters Touch

Last year, the Commodores were ranked among the nation's best in three-point field goal percentage. Vanderbilt closed the season ranked

No. 6 nationally, shooting at a .386 clip from long range while leading the SEC in triples per game with 7.1 per game. The team returns it's top two three-point threats in Kaleigh Clemons-Green (.449) and Christa Reed (.446).

Hitting the Glass

The Commodores will have the tall task of replacing Marqu'es Webb's 9.1 rebounds per game but they won't be short on help. Vanderbilt returns the SEC's top freshman rebounder from last year in sophomore Kayla Overbeck who averaged 7.2 rebounds per game as a rookie. Additionally, the rebounding will be helped by Purdue graduate transfer Bree Horrocks who checks in at 6-5 as well as freshman Paige Warren who is 6-4.

Plenty of TV Time on Deck for Commodores

Vanderbilt's Big 12/SEC Challenge matchup with Iowa State on Dec. 2 will be televised on SEC Network and is the first of eight games set to air on the SEC's flagship. The Commodores will have four home games televised on the SEC Network: Iowa State (Dec. 2), Kentucky (Jan. 15), Texas A&M (Jan. 28) and Mississippi State (Feb. 15). Road games televised on the SEC Network include: at LSU (Dec. 31), at Tennessee (Jan. 7), at Auburn (Feb. 12), at Florida (Feb. 18). The home game with Tennessee on Feb. 4 will air on ESPNU.

This summer Kayla Overbeck spent some time with USA Basketball's Women's U19 team that competed for World Cup in July, winning a silver medal while Mariella Fasoula played on the Greek national team that advanced to the semifinals of the FIBA European Championships and played on Greece's U20 FIBAS team at the FIBA Under 20 European Championships.

25th Anniversary of 1993 Final Four Team

This season marks the 25th Anniversary of the 1993 Vanderbilt team that went to the NCAA Final Four. Vanderbilt, under the direction of Jim Foster, reached the Final Four for the first and only time in program history and were a No. 1 seed out of the SEC. Vanderbilt defeated Cal, Stephen F. Austin and Louisiana Tech en route to the Final Four in Atlanta. They were defeated by eventual national champion, Texas Tech. The Commodores will commemorate this team throughout the season. The Commodores will celebrate that team the weekend of Feb. 3-4 when they take on Tennessee in Memorial Gym.

Pure Vida

The Commodores had a chance to bond this summer in sunny Costa Rica as they played two international games in August. The team defeated Ottawa and University of Costa Rica and while also there did a service project with Sole4Soles providing shoes to children in need and took in all that Costa Rica had to offer.

What People Are Saying About Vanderbilt On the development of the program ...

"They are building. They are what we were 10 years ago. In the next year or two they will be hard to deal with because they will be seasoned in the league."

-Dawn Staley

South Carolina Head Coach

On the Commodores Youth ...

The players that she has right now, they're getting it — they're just really young. It's hard to win basketball games with a young team. We're experiencing that a little bit now, because we have to play a lot of young players. But they grow up. They grow up. This team, this Vanderbilt team, in the next year or two, they're going to be hard to deal with, because they'll be seasoned in this league. And the schedule that they play is going to help them in the long run. It's just hard to see it right now."

-Dawn Staley

South Carolina Head Coach

On Chelsie Hall ...

"I'll be honest, she burned us in Knoxville and she's gotten better. She's been a great leader for (Vandy), too. That's what you want, regardless if she's a freshman or not. She's put this team on her shoulders and she's handled it really well."

-Holly Warlick

Tennessee Head Coach

On Vanderbilt ...

"I truly believe their talent is as good as five other teams in this league. What they need to do is get the chemistry piece together because they have the talent. Freshman Chelsie Hall is one of the best freshman in this league and if Chennedy Carter isn't here, she may be SEC Freshman of the Year. She's pretty special."

-Gary Blair

Texas A&M Head Coach
