SERIES HISTORY & NOTES

Tennessee leads the all-time series with Vanderbilt 68-27-5, dating to 1892. The Volunteers hold a 34-10-1 edge in games played in Knoxville. The last time these teams met in Neyland Stadium, the Commodores snapped a streak of 22 straight Vol victories in the series (Nov. 19, 2005).

Tennessee avenged that loss last year in Nashville, using 429 yards of total offense and a two-touchdown performance by quarterback Erik Ainge to post a 39-10 win.

Tennessee head coach Phillip Fulmer, a native of Winchester, Tenn., who worked as an assistant coach at Vandy in 1979, boasts a 13-1 career record against Vanderbilt. Commodores head coach Bobby Johnson is 1-4 against the Vols.

Of the 57 Tennessee natives on UT's 2007 roster, 13—highlighted by seniors Steven Jones (Brentwood) and Ryan Karl (Franklin)—hail from the midstate region. Karl has started every game this season and also has served as a game captain.

TENNESSEE TO HONOR 21 SENIORS SATURDAY

Saturday's home finale marks the last game in Neyland Stadium for 21 Tennessee seniors, each of whom will be making the traditional solo run through the "T" during pregame.

Those seniors are: quarterback Erik Ainge, tight end Chris Brown, tight end Brad Cottam, defensive end Michael Crain, quarterback Dylan Dickey, center Michael Frogg, defensive back Antonio Gaines, defensive end Adam Gillem, quarterback Bo Hardegree, free safety Jonathan Hefney, defensive back Inquoris "Inky" Johnson, offensive tackle Steven Jones, line-backer Ryan Karl, defensive tackle J.T. Mapu, offensive lineman Cameron Mayo, defensive end Xavier Mitchell, tailback Roy Olasimbo, defensive back Jarod Parrish, defensive end Antonio Reynolds, wide receiver/holder Casey Woods and offensive tackle Eric Young.

VOLS CONTINUE TO LEAD FBS IN SACKS ALLOWED; AINGE SACKED JUST TWICE THIS SEASON

Tennessee's offensive line has allowed just three sacks this season, and just two against starting quarterback Erik Ainge. Overall, the Vols have attempted 363 passes, meaning UT's opponents are averaging one sack in every 121 attempts.

The Big Orange lead the nation (FBS) in sacks allowed, giving up less than a third of a sack per game (0.3).

Prior to a fourth-quarter sack by South Carolina against game on Oct. 27, the senior had attempted 290 straight passes without being sacked. His only other sack this year came during the season-opener at Cal in what would have been his third attempt of the game/season.

Vanderbilt ranks tied for 23rd nationally and second in the SEC with 2.80 sacks per game.

VISITING OFFENSES STRUGGLE EARLY IN NEYLAND STADIUM

John Chavis' defense has given visiting offenses fits early in UT's last four home games. The Vols allowed zero points in the first half against Georgia, South Carolina and Louisiana-Lafayette and allowed just a field goal against Arkansas.

In first-half action, the Vols surrendered two first downs and 59 yards vs. Georgia, nine first downs and 146 yards vs. South Carolina, 10 first downs and 172 yards vs. Louisiana-Lafayette and just one first down and 49 yards vs. Arkansas. Additionally, in 24 first-half possessions, opponents reached the red zone only once and have driven into field goal range three times.

The defense also has done a good job of getting its hands on the football early in games. In the last three contests, the Vols have forced four first-half turnovers, three of which the Big Orange offense converted into touchdowns.

TENNESSEE OFFENSE STARTS HOT AT HOME

In the last four home games, the Vols' offense has taken full advantage of Tennessee's stingy first-half defense. Tennessee has taken a lead of at least 17 points to the locker room against Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana-Lafayette and Arkansas. The Vols have scored no fewer than 20 points in the first half of each of those games, outscoring opponents 93-3.

In 21 first-half drives, the Vols' attack has produced 10 touchdowns, five field goal attempts (3 makes) and has been forced to punt just six times. The average scoring drive for Tennessee in the first half has been an eight-play, 50-yard march.

ACCURATE AINGE AUTHORS STREAKS

One of senior quarterback Erik Ainge's strengths is his ability to string together impressive completions streaks.

Last season, he authored two of the 10-longest completions streaks in school history (he completed 15 straight tries against Air Force—the second-longest streak in UT history—and also completed 11 straight passes at Vanderbilt).

This season, he completed 10 straight passes at Cal. That streak ties for the ninth-best ever by a Vols QB.

AINGE ONE OF TENNESSEE'S TWO SENIOR OFFENSIVE STARTERS

Erik Ainge and tight end Chris Brown are Tennessee's only senior starters on offense. The Vols have the fewest number of senior offensive starters in the entire SEC.

UT's five senior defensive starters give it a total of seven senior first-teamers.

AINGE'S TOP-FIVE PASSING GAMES (yardage)

291	vs. California, Sept. 2, 2006 (4 TDs)	W, 35-18

AINGE 16th ON SEC'S CAREER TOUCHDOWN PASSES LIST

Senior quarterback Erik Ainge is on track to hold a prominent place on the SEC's all-time chart for career touchdown passes. He presently ranks 16th in SEC history with 58 scoring strikes.

Ainge joins a pair of former Volunteers on the SEC's top-20 list. Peyton Manning (1994-97) ranks second in SEC history with 89 touchdown passes, and Casey Clausen (2000-03) ranks seventh with 75.

AINGE NOMINATED FOR FOOTBALL FOUNDATION SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

Senior quarterback Erik Ainge was Tennessee's nominee for the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Awards. He was selected as a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy.

Tennessee has had six NFF scholar-athlete award winners and two recipients of the Draddy Trophy, known as the "Academic Heisman." Peyton Manning won the award in 1997 and Michael Munoz was the recipient in 2004.

Ainge also is on the watch list for the Maxwell Award.

TWO WINS TO ATLANTA: VOLS CONTROL SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME DESTINY

While three SEC Eastern Division teams are still mathematically alive in the race to appear in the SEC Championship Game, Tennessee is the only team in the division that controls its own destiny.

Tennessee owns the head-to-head tiebreaker against Georgia—the only other two-loss team in the East.

"I feel tested, I know what it's like to throw three interceptions in the first half of a game and then come back in the second half and win. To play, to not play. To win big games, to lose big games. I've done just about everything but win a championship. That's our goal."

NOTES ON THE VOLUNTEERS

2005 WIDE RECEIVER SIGNEES COMING OF AGE

Tennessee wideouts Josh Briscoe, Austin Rogers and Lucas Taylor were all members of UT's 2005 signing class. Their collective impact on the Vols' offense had been minimal prior to this season, but they have been clutch thus far in 2007.

◆ All three players have set new career-highs for catches, yards and touchdowns this year.

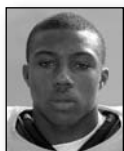

◆ Taylor has 56 catches for 782 yards and three touchdowns this season. The Carencro, La., native is currently third in the SEC with 78.2 receiving yards per game and is fourth in the SEC averaging 5.6 receptions per game.

◆ Rogers has 41 catches for 490 yards and two touchdowns this season. The Nashville, Tenn., native averages 49.0 yards per game and ranks ninth in the SEC with 4.1 receptions per game.

◆ Briscoe has 36 catches for 305 yards and three touchdowns this year. The Shelby, N.C., native averages 3.9 catches per game.

BERRY GENERATING FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA BUZZ; SETTING INTERCEPTION RETURN RECORDS

One of the nation's most highly sought-after recruits a year ago, true freshman Eric Berry has started all 10 games this season and is currently fifth on the team with 57 tackles after setting a career-high Oct. 27 against South Carolina with 12. Berry leads all SEC true freshman in tackles.

The starting safety also has added a big-play element to UT's defense. Berry's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown at Florida tied for the third longest in the history of Tennessee football. It was the longest by a Vol since Art Reynolds returned an interception 96 yards against Memphis State in 1972.

Berry's 52-yard fumble return to set up a first-and-goal against South Carolina was the longest fumble return by a Vol since Julian Battle rumbled 81 yards for a touchdown at Notre Dame in 2001.

Berry also had interception returns of 61 and 37 yards against Arkansas on his way to SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

Berry's 207 interception return yards leads the country this season and are also a school record, topping the previous mark of 177 yards set by Bobby Majors in 1970.

The SEC record for interception return yardage in a season is 244 yards by Florida's Joe Brodsky in 1956 (on five INTs). LSU's Greg Jackson stands in second place with 219 yards in 1988 (on seven INTs).

The NCAA single-season record is held by Southern California's Charles Phillips, who totaled 302 yards on seven returns in 1974.

FULMER'S VOLS ENJOY LONG HOMESTANDS

On Oct. 27 against South Carolina, UT began a four-game stretch of home contests. It is the fourth such stretch in the Fulmer era, but the first that didn't come in the first five games of a season.

Tennessee opened the 2004 and 2006 seasons with four-straight home games and went 3-1 each time. In 2002, the Vols opened the season with a win over Wyoming in Nashville, then played four games in Knoxville, going 3-1 in those contests as well.

This year's four-game homestand marks the first that will feature three SEC tilts. The Vols played only one SEC team in the 2006 homestand, and two in both 2004 and 2002.

Though Tennessee was the home team against Wyoming in Nashville in 2002, the Vols have not enjoyed a longer home stretch entirely in Knoxville since 1977, when Tennessee opened with five games at Neyland Stadium.

FOSTER CLIMBING UT'S ALL-TIME RUSHING LIST

Junior tailback Arian Foster's 100-yard performance against Louisiana-Lafayette on Nov. 3 made him the 12th Vol ever to log 2,000 career rushing yards. He is 117 shy of 1,000 for the season.

He currently ranks 11th in school history with 2,084 career rushing yards and needs just six yards to crack UT's all-time top 10.

Foster is on pace to net 1,059 rushing yards this season. That would give him the 12th-best single-season total in school history.

And should his career average of 65.1 rushing yards hold steady throughout his career, Foster could make a serious run at Travis Henry's school record of 3,078 career yards (1997-2000).

Player	Att.	Yards	TDs

ROGERS, LINCOLN TABBED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT FIRST TEAM

Tennessee sophomore wide receiver Austin Rogers and red-shirt-freshman placekicker Daniel Lincoln were named on Nov. 8 to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District IV Team.

In doing so, both earn spots on the Academic All-America ballot.

Rogers was one of two receivers selected for first-team honors thanks to his 3.35 grade-point average in finance and his play as the Vols' second leading pass-catcher this season. The Nashville native and former member of the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll has 41 receptions this year for 490 yards and two touchdowns. He was named to Tennessee's 2006 Thornton Center 40-Plus Club after completing at least 40 credit hours during the academic year.

Lincoln was the first-team pick at placekicker. An Ocala, Fla., product, Lincoln has been the SEC's best all-around kicker with 18 made field goals in 21 tries and a perfect 41-of-41 PATs. The business major, who owns a 3.53 GPA, is one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award. He already owns the school's freshman field-goals record and also stands tied for sixth on UT's season field goal list.

The Academic All-District IV teams, selected by regional members of the College Sports Information Directors of America, comprise honorees from Division I bowl and championship subdivision teams in Tennessee, Alabama, Kentucky, Ohio and Michigan.

LINCOLN IS LEAGUE'S TOP FIELD GOAL SPECIALIST, AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS

Freshman placekicker Daniel Lincoln continues to work his way up the Tennessee season field-goal charts. The Ocala, Fla., native now has 18 made field goals in 21 tries.

Lincoln's two field goals last weekend lifted him into a tie for sixth on UT's all-time single-season chart, and he already owns the school record for field goals by a freshman. James Wilhoit held the previous record with 17 makes as a freshman in 2003.

Speaking of Wilhoit, the Hendersonville product made 18-of-22 field goals during his consensus All-SEC season of 2006. Mostly forgotten is the fact Wilhoit finished the 2005 season with a streak of eight consecutive made field goals. Add Lincoln's success rate this year, and the Vols as a team now have made a whopping 44 of their last 51 three-pointers for an 86.3 percent success rate.

LINCOLN NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR GROZA AWARD

Daniel Lincoln's outstanding freshman season for Tennessee continues to turn heads.

Lincoln was recently named one of 20 semifinalists for the 2007 Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award and is the only representative from the Southeastern Conference.

Lincoln has been the SEC's top field goal specialist and is becoming a challenger for national honors as well. The Ocala, Fla., native has made 18-of-21 (.857) field goal attempts this season and all 41 PATs to stand third in the league with 95 points and first in field-goal percentage.

This year's award appears completely up for grabs as 13 of the 20 semifinalists, Lincoln included, were not on the Groza preseason watch list.

"VOL SCHOLAR" INSIGNIA RECOGNIZES ACADEMIC DILIGENCE

The VOLScholar program, an initiative of UT's Thornton Athletics Student Life Center in cooperation with the men's and women's athletics departments, is a comprehensive academic and citizenship-building program that has gained enthusiastic support from several of UT's athletic teams. Student-athletes earned the right to wear the VOLScholar patch on their uniform by achieving a 3.0 grade-point average in the previous fall and/or spring semester.

"We have a lot of outstanding young men and women in our program that are doing great things on and off the field of competition," said Mike Hamilton, men's athletics director. "This is just another way to recognize them for their behavior and prepare them for life after school."

PHILLIP AND VICKY FULMER ANNOUNCE $1 MILLION DONATION TO UT

University of Tennessee President Dr. John Petersen and Chancellor Loren Crabtree announced Tuesday, Aug. 28 that head football coach Phillip Fulmer and his wife, Vicky, have committed $1 million to the University of Tennessee.

The donation to The Campaign for Tennessee represents one of the largest gifts by a coach and family to their university. The gift, to be split equally between academics and athletics, will be used to support scholarships, athletics facilities and programming.

VOLS REGULARS ON TELEVISION

Since 1990, Tennessee has had 177 games broadcast on national or regional television (excluding pay-per-view). That's 80.1 percent of Tennessee's total games played since 1990 that have been televised.

FINDING INSPIRATION IN INKY

One of the emotional rallying points of the Volunteer Nation during the 2006 season was the career-ending injury suffered by junior defensive back Inquoris "Inky" Johnson against Air Force in the second game of the year.

As he made a tackle during the fourth quarter of UT's win over the Falcons, Johnson severely damaged his "right brachial plexus," a network of nerves from the spinal cord that controls sensation in the shoulder, arm and hand. Emergency surgery was needed to repair blood vessels, and additional surgery at the Mayo Clinic helped the cornerback begin to retain normal function in the right side of his body.

Johnson is currently continuing his rehab while working toward his degree in Political science. He is on track to graduate in December (one semester early). And he also hasn't strayed far from the football field.

The Atlanta native is working with the UT coaching staff as a student assistant this season. Johnson has made himself available to the squad's newcomers, making sure they have someone to talk to and serving as a mentor during the players' adjustment to major college football.

"God never takes you through anything that he can't bring you through," Johnson said shortly after his injury. "I told (Coach Fulmer) that I was blessed and that he didn't have to worry about anything because I was going to be all right."

Johnson was selected as one of UT's game captains for the Oct. 27 showdown against South Carolina, which the Vols won in overtime, 27-24.

COLQUITT CAREER PUNTING AVERAGE RANKS SECOND IN SCHOOL HISTORY, CONTINUING FAMILY EXCELLENCE

Junior punter Britton Colquitt's career average of 42.7 yards per punt currently ranks second in school history, trailing only his cousin, Jimmy Colquitt, who averaged 43.9 yards per punt from 1981-84.

Britton's older brother, Dustin (currently punting for the Kansas City Chiefs), ranks third in UT history with a career punting average of 42.8 yards. And Britton and Dustin's father, Craig Colquitt (former Pittsburgh Steelers punter), ranks fourth with a 42.5-yard average.

Jimmy, Dustin and Craig Colquitt all rank among the top 20 on the Southeastern Conference's career punting chart, and Britton is currently poised to join them in that elite group.

Britton is averaging 42.3 yards per punt this season to rank fourth in the SEC.

NOTES ON THE VOLUNTEERS

"SPEAKING VOLUMes"

"I'll tell you what a big part of it is, we get up and read the paper on Saturday morning and everybody acts like we're dead and might as well not even come out and play tonight. That ticks us off. There are articles about our head coach, talking about his status ... the 'hot seat' and things like that. I'm going to battle my butt off for coach Fulmer. He's a great guy and a great coach. He's still the same great coach he was."

— C Josh McNeil

"It's the greatest feeling in the world not to worry about whether the guy is going to get it done on the route. I had that feeling last year with Robert (Meachem). I could get the snap and worry about protections, coverage, and moving in the pocket. But when I decided to shift to the receiver, I knew he was going to be open and that is where we are with Lucas right now. I don't have to shift and say 'Is he winning the battle?' I just can shift and throw the ball because I know he is going to get it done."

— QB Erik Ainge on WR Lucas Taylor

"Our receiving corps ... they look pretty out there, but they will hit you."

— TB Arian Foster on UT's receivers

"I think they're playing better than everyone thought. I knew they were not gamebreakers or five-star kids, but when you say 'hike,' you are going to get their very best, and that is all you can ask for. Perfect alignment, perfect assignment and unbelievable effort—they give that every play. If you try to find a play and give them a minus for effort, I promise you will have a hard time finding one."

— Wide receivers coach Trooper Taylor on Austin Rogers and Lucas Taylor

"We're not afraid to change. We're not afraid to do whatever we need to do to win football games. We as a staff have been together for a long time. We're a very veteran group of guys, so we're going to do what we believe in. You don't invent football in one day. You just change things. There's a lot of schemes out there, and different personnel. We might do things differently, but with what we've got, we're doing the right things."

— Phillip Fulmer after the win over Georgia

"He's a great back, but he's not going to win the Heisman Trophy in Neyland Stadium. I promise you that."

— LB Jerod Mayo on Darren McFadden after UT defeated Arkansas

"He's got that look in his eye. He knows a lot of it's on him this year, but that's the way he wants it. He's got a lot of young receivers around him, guys with a lot of talent, but guys who haven't really played. Erik's going to make sure they're ready. He's been pushing them since the day they got here."

— DB Jonathan Hefney on QB Erik Ainge

"Jonathan is as good as I have been around from the standpoint of being a playmaker. You go back and view the cut-up's on (film) and you see No. 33 show up all the time. He just makes plays. He is a valuable guy, and we need him to make more plays. He's a bulldog. He wants to do everything. He wants to return punts, kickoffs and play some offense. He can't do everything, but we need Jon Hefney on the field. He is that glue."

— Defensive backs coach Larry Slade

"We want to win all of our games, but this was a non-conference game and in the SEC, it's amazing how fast you can move when you win a couple of games here and there. This might hurt us nationally, but what we want is the SEC championship, so we're still in the hunt for that."

— QB Erik Ainge on the Cal loss

2007 TENNESSEE 2-DEEP BY CLASS (INCLUDES SPECIAL TEAMS)

TENNESSEE'S OVERTIME HISTORY

Since the NCAA established a tiebreaker system for Division I in 1996, Tennessee is 6-1 in overtime contests. The Vols have won the coin toss four times and chosen to play defense three times. The only time UT chose offense after winning the toss was against Florida in 1998.

Tennessee has played the second- and third-longest overtime games in NCAA history at six (Arkansas 2002) and five periods (Alabama 2003). The Vols won both games.

Three of the four times the Vols have gone to overtime in Knoxville, the score at the end of regulation has been 17-17. UT is 4-3 in games following overtime contests.

Date	Opponent	OTs	Coin Toss	Game-Winning Play	Final Score

Senior linebacker Ryan Karl has averaged 9.5 tackles over Tennessee's last four games ... Karl leads the Vols with seven pass breakups this season ...

QUICK NOTES:
 Tennessee and LSU are the only SEC teams undefeated at home so far this year
 Jerod Mayo's TD return Saturday was Tennessee's third interception for a TD this year, the team's most since 1990.
 Saturday's game against Vanderbilt will mark Phillip Fulmer's 100th game as a head coach at Neyland Stadium.

VANDERBILT ALL THAT STANDS BETWEEN TENNESSEE AND ITS SIXTH UNDEFEATED HOME SEASON UNDER FULMER

A Tennessee win on Saturday would give the Vols their sixth undefeated home season under head coach Phillip Fulmer.

Fulmer has guided the Big Orange to perfect home records in 1993 (7-0), 1995 (7-0), 1997 (6-0), 1998 (6-0) and 1999 (7-0).

Should the Vols defeat the Commodores on Saturday, 2007 would mark Tennessee's 36th all-time undefeated season at Neyland Stadium.

NOVEMBERS TO REMEMBER

Tennessee has a 80-9 (.899) mark in the month of November since 1985. Since that season, the Vols are 46-5 (.902) at home and 34-4 (.895) on the road in November.

The rare November losses came in: 1990, 2004 and 2005 to Notre Dame; 1996 at Memphis; 1999 and 2006 at Arkansas; 2002 vs. Miami (Fla.), 2005 vs. Vanderbilt and 2006 vs. LSU.

Against SEC foes, the Vols boast a 58-4 (.935) record in November (including a 30-1 home mark).

SCORING STREAK

Tennessee has scored in 169 consecutive games dating back to a 31-0 shutout by Florida in Knoxville in 1994. It is the second-longest streak in the SEC, trailing Florida's 236. UT's home scoring streak is at 88, while it has scored in 151 straight games away from Neyland Stadium. UT's last road shutout came via Georgia in 1981, 44-0.

PROJECTIONS

ON PACE ...

Tennessee is on pace to allow 3.6 quarterback sacks this season (while attempting 435 passes). That's really, really good.

Tight end Chris Brown is on pace to catch 38 passes this season; that's one shy of the single-season record for Tennessee tight ends. He caught 31 passes in 2006.

Wideout Lucas Taylor is on pace to gain 938 receiving yards this season; that would give him the sixth-best single-season total in UT history.

Linebackers Jerod Mayo and Rico McCoy are on pace to finish the regular season with a team-best 93 tackles. Placekicker Daniel Lincoln is on pace to score 114 points this season; that would give him the third-best single-season points total in UT history.

Lincoln also is on pace to make 21 field goals this year. He would become just the third Vol ever to make at least 20 field goals in a single-season (and the first not named Reveiz). Fuad Reveiz made 27 in 1982 and 20 in 1984. Carlos Reveiz made 24 field goals in 1985.

CUTCLIFFE'S MAGIC NUMBER = 30

During David Cutcliffe's two stints as Tennessee's offensive coordinator (1993-98 and 2006-present), the Vols have been awfully tough to beat when they score at least 30 points. In fact, with Cutcliffe gripping the offensive reins, Tennessee has scored at least 30 points in 61 different games; and UT owns an impressive 58-3 (.951) record when that happens. Cutcliffe's UT teams score at least 30 points in 62.9 percent of their games (61 of 97). The Vols average 42.4 points in those contests.

When Cutcliffe's UT offense totals at least 30 points, Tennessee outscores its opponents by an average of 24.9 points per game (42.40 ppg to 17.52 ppg).

Below are some of Tennessee's scoring breakdowns with Cutcliffe as offensive coordinator:

- ◆ Home SEC Games: 33.3 ppg
- ◆ Home Non-Conference Games: 39.9 ppg
- ◆ Road SEC Games: 33.6 ppg
- ◆ Road Non-Conference Games: 29.3 ppg
- ◆ Neutral-Site Games: 25.6 ppg

VOLS SEEKING ANOTHER FOUR-GAME WIN STREAK UNDER FULMER

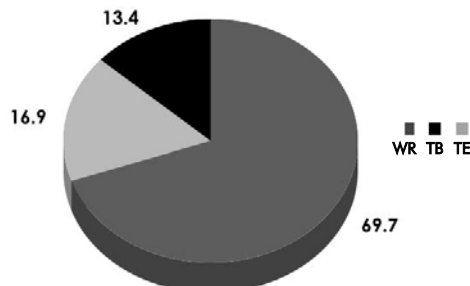

Tennessee has put together win streaks of at least four straight games in 12 of head coach Phillip Fulmer's 14 full seasons. A win over the Commodores on Saturday would give Fulmer a 13th season with such a streak.

The only years in which the Vols under their native son have not managed to author a four-game win streak were 2002 and 2005.

In 1992, Fulmer was only credited with the first three games of the season and the postseason bowl game, but all four of those contests were Volunteer victories.

Tennessee put together a three-game win streak earlier this year but was defeated at Alabama in its attempt to stretch the streak to four.

2007 TENNESSEE RECEPTIONS
(PERCENTAGE BY POSITION)

SPECIAL AGENT MCKENZIE

First-year Vol Nevin McKenzie has resembled a heat-seeking missile on special teams through 10 games.

A junior transfer from San Antonio who arrived on Rocky Top via Trinity Valley (Texas) Community College, McKenzie has recorded 25 tackles on the year. And 12 of those—nearly half—have come on special teams.

The Vols' special teams tackles leader, McKenzie logged three special teams stops Oct. 6 against Georgia. He is now averaging 1.2 special teams tackles per game.

McKenzie began the season as a defensive back but was moved to linebacker following the Vols' third game.

YOUTH GAINS EXPERIENCE IN HOMECOMING WIN

Tennessee's Nov. 3 Homecoming victory over La.-Lafayette gave Tennessee an opportunity to give its rookie skill position players some valuable game reps.

Tennessee true freshmen had a season-high 17 touches (on offense and special teams) against the Cajuns. That's the most since the Vols had 25 true-freshmen touches against Notre Dame on Nov. 6, 2004.

UP NEXT: KENTUCKY

Tennessee closes out the regular season with a trip to Lexington, Ky., next week. The Vols lead the all-time series with Kentucky 70-23-9, dating to 1893. The two teams have met every season since 1919.

Tennessee holds the longest active winning streak in the nation (FBS) over the Wildcats: 22 games dating to 1982.

The Vols won 17-12 last season in Knoxville and 27-8 in Lexington two seasons ago.

Kentucky is coached by Rich Brooks, who is 24-33 in five seasons at the helm in Lexington. The Wildcats finished 8-5 last season and went to a bowl for the first time since 1999. Brooks has Kentucky bowl eligible again this season at 7-3 heading into this weekend's game at Georgia.

HEAD COACH PHILLIP FULMER

Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee, 1972) is in his 16th season at the helm of the Tennessee football program. He has recorded a 144-44 (.766) career record to lead all active coaches with at least 10 years of experience.

Fulmer is the seventh-winningest coach in league history with 144 career wins. He reached 50, 75 and 100 victories quicker than any other coach in SEC history.

During his tenure as head coach, Fulmer has produced 90 NFL draft picks (15 first-rounders), 15 first-team All-America selections and eight Academic All-District or All-America honorees.

Prior to being named head coach at the start of the 1992 campaign and then accepting the full-time duties after the season, Fulmer had served as an assistant coach at UT since 1980. Fulmer's association with the University of Tennessee extends back to his playing days when he was an offensive guard. When Fulmer was on the offensive line (1969-71) the Vols posted a 30-5 record and captured the 1969 SEC Championship.

FULMER SEVENTH ON SEC'S ALL-TIME WINS LIST

Phillip Fulmer's 144 head coaching victories put him in seventh place on the Southeastern Conference's all-time wins list, making him and South Carolina's Steve Spurrier the only active head coaches in the league's all-time top 10.

Fulmer ranks even higher on the SEC regular-season victories list, as his 91 regular-season conference wins are good enough for sixth place all-time.

NON-CONFERENCE DOMINANCE

Since 1989 (Fulmer's first season as UT's offensive coordinator), Tennessee has a 66-16-1 (.801) record in non-conference games.

Only seven of those defeats have been in the regular season (Notre Dame in 1990, 2004 and 2005, at UCLA in 1994, at Memphis in 1996, Miami [Fla.] in 2002 and at Cal in 2007). The other nine losses all came in bowl games.

During Fulmer's tenure as head coach, Tennessee is 51-13 (.797) against non-conference foes. Fulmer's home record against non-conference teams is a daunting 36-2 (.947), with the two setbacks coming vs. Miami (Fla.) in 2002 and vs. Notre Dame in 2004.

FULMER JOINS ELITE COACHING LIST

Here's an interesting enumeration—Bobby Bowden of Florida State, Joe Paterno of Penn State, Jim Tressel of Ohio State, Steve Spurrier of South Carolina and Chris Ault of Nevada. And now following last week's conclusive win over Arkansas, add Phillip Fulmer to that list.

Those are the only six active coaches in the NCAA's Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I-A) who own a won-lost record at least 100 games over the .500 mark.

Fulmer made good on his first chance to join that elite fraternity last Saturday, as he improved his career record to 144-44.

The dean of SEC coaches is in his 16th season at the Vols' helm.

Coch, Current School	Years	W-L-T	+ .500

Foster is third in the SEC in rushing touchdowns with 12 and sixth in yards per game with 88.3 ... He needs just 117 yards to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for the first time ... Montario Hardesty ran for 65 yards on 20 carries vs. Arkansas ... Foster leads all running backs/receivers with 13 touchdowns ... The running backs have accounted for 21 of Tennessee's 39 offensive touchdowns this season.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Lucas Taylor leads the team with 56 catches for 782 yards, including four grabs for 41 yards vs. Arkansas ... He caught a career-high 11 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown at Miss. St. ... Tight end Chris Brown has 27 catches and five touchdowns through ten games ... He had caught a pass in 12-straight contests before the Arkansas game ... Austin Rogers returned to action with six catches for 62 yards and a score vs. Arkansas after leaving the Louisiana-Lafayette game with a shoulder injury ... Josh Briscoe has five catches for 62 yards and a score in his last three games ... Rogers and Briscoe are Ainge's second and third targets with 41 and 36 catches, respectively ... Quintin Hancock and Denarius Moore see significant time in their absence.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The line has allowed only three sacks in 366 passing plays this season ... Tennessee's three sacks allowed is the best mark in the FBS ... The Vols rushed for 151 yards against Arkansas and for at least 180 yards in four of the previous six games ... Senior LT Eric Young is out for the season with a left quadriceps injury ... He is replaced by Chris Scott, while Jacques McClendon fills Scott's void at right guard ... Anthony Parker moved to left guard this season after starting 12 games at right guard a year ago ... Chris Scott and Ramon Foster (RT) moved into starting positions at right guard and right tackle, respectively, after playing primarily as backups last year ... Sophomore center Josh McNeil was a unanimous Freshman All-SEC selection in 2006.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Tennessee surrendered a 100-yard rushing performance for the seventh time this season vs. Arkansas, though the Hogs gained only 36 yards rushing in the first half ... The unit has 10.5 sacks and 24 TFLs for 119 yards through ten games ... Antonio Reynolds returned a tipped pass 70 yards for a score vs. Louisiana-Lafayette ... He also posted a sack ... Dan Williams led the unit with five stops vs. Arkansas, including a sack ... Xavier Mitchell leads the unit with 33 tackles ... Mitchell and Robert Ayers led the unit with five stops apiece vs. Louisiana-Lafayette ... Demonte Bolden has 20 stops on the year ... Mitchell and Reynolds have 38 career starts between them ... Williams has started seven games at tackle this season, splitting time with J.T. Mapu.

LINEBACKERS

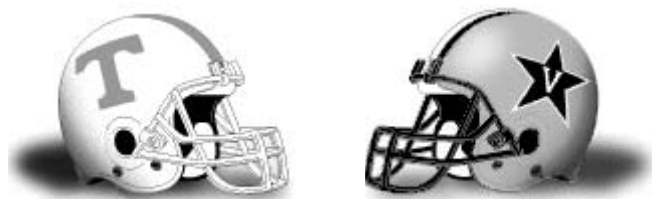

Jerod Mayo led the team with nine stops vs. Arkansas, also returning an interception 34 yards for a touchdown ... Ryan Karl had seven tackles and Rico McCoy posted six ... Three linebackers made at least 10 tackles vs. South Carolina, led by McCoy with 14 ... McCoy and Mayo lead the team with 78 tackles this season ... Karl had an interception and a PBU vs. South Carolina and two TFLs vs. Louisiana-Lafayette ... Mayo and Karl are returning starters from 2006 ... McCoy has started all season ... Junior Ellix Wilson has seen increased time recently.

SECONDARY

Tennessee gave up just 130 passing yards vs. Louisiana-Lafayette and 162 vs. Arkansas ... Jonathan Hefney led the unit with eight stops vs. Arkansas ... Eric Berry posted six tackles and two interceptions vs. the Hogs while earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors ... Berry has four interceptions and 207 INT return yards this year, which is a single-season school record ... Hefney is fourth on the team with 61 tackles ... DeAngelo Willingham moved into the starting lineup vs. South Carolina and posted 10 stops and forced two fumbles ... Brent Vinson moved into the secondary for the Georgia game after starting the season at wide receiver.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Daniel Lincoln is an SEC-best 18-of-21 on field goal attempts and 41-of-41 on PATs through ten games ... Lincoln kicked his career-long 48-yard field goal vs. South Carolina ... Dennis Rogan replaced Jonathan Hefney as the punt returner before the Louisiana-Lafayette game ... Against Arkansas, Rogan averaged 8 yards per punt return and had one kick return for 78 yards.

SERIES HISTORY: TENNESSEE vs VANDERBILT

LAST MEETING

Nov. 18, 2006

Vanderbilt Stadium - Nashville, Tenn.

Attendance: 39,773

NASHVILLE - Coach Phillip Fulmer expects to win every game - perhaps even more so against Tennessee's in-state rival.

After his team didn't meet Fulmer's expectations for the first time in his career during the 2005 season - the only loss against Vanderbilt in 13 previous meetings - the Vols were anxious to return their one-sided rivalry back to normal.

After 364 days of waiting, UT went back to status quo with a dominating 39-10 win over the Commodores at Vanderbilt Stadium.

The win ended Vanderbilt's short reign over bragging rights and halted a two-game losing streak for the Vols. Erik Ainge was absent from the line-up for all but one quarter during the short slump, and his return from an ankle injury sparked a busy day for the UT offense.

The junior signal-caller was accurate and efficient, connecting on 21-of-26 attempts for 266 yards with touchdowns passes to senior Jayson Swain and junior Robert Meachem.

So, too, did the oft-maligned UT running game. Freshman LaMarcus Coker broke off another highlight-reel scoring run - an 87-yard scamper to go with his 89-yarder earlier this season - and finished with two touchdowns and 126 yards on just 10 carries.

The Vols offense was racing from the opening kickoff and only slowed after the game was put well out of reach early in the fourth quarter. Meachem's score made it 36-7 with just less than 14 minutes left to play, effectively putting the wraps on another banner offensive day for the Vols and offensive coordinator David Cutcliffe.

KEY GAMES IN THE SERIES

Nov. 28, 1987

Tennessee 38, Vanderbilt 36

Tennessee spotted Vandy a 28-3 lead midway through the second quarter before staging the biggest rally in school history for a 38-36 victory.

The Commodores scored on their first four possessions, but the Vols scored on five consecutive possessions in the second and third quarters to take a 35-28 lead and hold on for the triumph after Phil Reich's 47-yard field goal in the fourth quarter proved to be the ultimate difference.

Vol tailback Reggie Cobb continued his assault on the record books, gaining 140 yards in 27 carries to bring his season total to 1,197. His second-quarter touchdown was his 20th of the year, tying Herschel Walker's SEC single season scoring record.

The Vol defense was led by Keith DeLong, who was in on 19 tackles, and Victor Peppers, who stopped a third-quarter Vandy drive with his second interception of the season. Charles Kimbrough recovered one fumble and caused another on a kickoff.

Nov. 19, 2005

Vanderbilt 28, Tennessee 24

Vanderbilt snapped the nation's second-longest losing streak to an opponent and also crushed any hopes for Tennessee to secure a bowl bid when it beat the Volunteers 28-24 at Neyland Stadium.

For 22 consecutive years, the Commodores had fallen to the Vols. But Jay Cutler, who wasn't even born when Vanderbilt last edged Tennessee in 1982, steered the Commodores to victory in his final game.

Trailing 24-21 with 1:11 to play, Cutler hit Earl Bennett for the 5-yard, game-winning touchdown. The Vols managed to get to the Vanderbilt 11-yard line, but Rick Clausen's desperation pass into the end zone with no time left was intercepted and the Commodores rushed the field.

For Tennessee, the game ended the Vols' run of 16 straight bowl appearances, the nation's third-longest streak, and guaranteed UT a losing record in SEC play for the first time under Phillip Fulmer.

Arian Foster provided the glaring highlight of an otherwise cloudy day for the Vols. He had a career-high 223 rushing yards on 40 attempts. His 268 all-purpose yards tied him for the third-best single-game performance in UT history. It was Foster's fourth consecutive game of 100 yards or more since taking the starting role.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

75th SEASON OF SEC FOOTBALL

The Southeastern Conference begins its 75th season of play in 2007. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools—Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

Here are some facts and figures from the 75-year history of Southeastern Conference football:

STORIES OF CHARACTER

In conjunction with the SEC's 75th anniversary, the league has launched a "Stories of Character" multimedia campaign that highlights individuals from each current SEC institution.

The following former football Vols are highlighted:

Charles Davis (1983-86): College football commentator who works with at-risk youth at the Edgewood Children's Ranch

Heath Shuler (1991-93): U.S. Congressman representing North Carolina's 11th District

Tim Townes (1970-72): World-renowned medical researcher and Chairman and Professor of Biochemistry and Molecular Genetics at UAB

INTERDIVISIONAL EXCELLENCE

The Vols own the best interdivision record among SEC teams, going 34-12-1 (.734) against the Western Division since the league split in 1992.

SHUTOUTS

Since 1992, no SEC team has pitched more shutouts than Tennessee's 13. The Vols have recorded at least one shutout in three of the last six years. Four times in the last 13 years UT has registered two shutouts in a season.

VOLS STRONG AS SEC ROAD WARRIORS

Since 1992, Tennessee owns the second-best road record in league games among SEC teams, going 47-16 for a mark of .746. UT has not had a losing record away from Knoxville during that time.

SEC AMONG BCS BOWL LEADERS

Since the adoption of the BCS format in 1998, the Southeastern Conference leads the nation in BCS wins with nine and also ranks first in BCS winning percentage (9-4, .692).

The SEC is second nationally with 13 all-time BCS bowl appearances (the Big 10 leads with 15).

The SEC's three BCS national championships are more than any other conference (Tennessee in 1998, LSU in 2003 and Florida in 2006).

SEC ATTENDANCE LEADER SINCE 1974

Tennessee has led the SEC in football attendance every year since 1974. That makes 33 straight seasons that the Vols have been the league's top-drawing team.

The Volunteers have ranked in the NCAA's top three in attendance for 31 consecutive years.

TOP-25 FINISHES

Since 2000, the Southeastern Conference has had more teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches' Poll than any other conference. The SEC has had 34 teams ranked in the last seven final USA Today Coaches' polls, an average of almost five per season. The Big 12 is second with 26 teams ranked since 2000.

The SEC has led or tied for lead in most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches' Polls in six of the last seven seasons.

BOWL GAME APPEARANCES

Using current conference alignments, the Southeastern Conference has more bowl game appearances and more bowl victories than any other conference. SEC teams have appeared in 352 bowl games and hold a 177-162-13 record in those games (52.1 percent).

NEYLAND STADIUM

"It's static noise. You can't hear anything. You go up and down the line, your wide receivers, your running backs, your tight ends, nobody can hear. Nobody."

— California quarterback Nate Longshore, 2006

NEYLAND STADIUM RENOVATION PROJECT

Phase I of the Neyland Stadium Master Plan renovations were completed prior to the start of the 2006 season. That phase included the expansion of the lower-north concourse near Gate 21, the addition of the East Club and infrastructure improvements to the stadium. The phase was a preview of the vision for the entire project and brings the stadium's total capacity down slightly to 102,038 (the nation's fourth-largest collegiate football facility).

For the 2007 season, fans will enjoy college football's largest LED display in the bowl of the stadium along with new permanent recognition of the football program's retired numbers and national championship teams.

Phase II, which is projected to cost $27 million, will begin after this season and will include the renovation of the lower-west concourse, improvements to the team locker room, the construction of a field-level Lettermen's room and aesthetic changes around the field.

Phase III is scheduled to be finished for the 2009 season and includes renovations to the upper-west and north-lower concourses, the addition of a brick facade around the front of the west and north side of the stadium and improvements to the west tower (including upgrading the press box and skyboxes). Helping to fund the $45 million Phase III renovations is the addition of a West Club featuring 422 seats.

VOLS' CROWDS AVERAGED MORE THAN 105,000 IN 2006; SEC LEADER FOR 33 YEARS

Tennessee's seven home crowds in 2006 averaged 105,789. The Vols' total attendance for those six contests stands at 740,521.

In 2005, UT's total attendance of 746,507 (six games) led the nation.

Tennessee has led the Southeastern Conference in football attendance every year since 1974. UT's home crowds also have ranked among the top three in NCAA attendance for a remarkable 31 consecutive seasons.

NEYLAND STADIUM RANKS SECOND NATIONALLY IN TOTAL WINS

Tennessee has won 417 all-time games at Neyland Stadium. That is the second highest win total for any school in the nation at its current home venue.

Only Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium (422 wins) has hosted more victories for its team—and Bobby Dodd Stadium (1913) opened eight years before Neyland Stadium (1921).

UT'S WINNING PERCENTAGE AT NEYLAND HIGHER THAN 80 PERCENT SINCE 1990

More than 105,000 fans have witnessed the Vols win better than 80 percent of their games at Neyland Stadium since 1990. Included was a record crowd of 109,061 that saw the Vols' win over Florida Sept. 18, 2004.

NEYLAND BOASTS 75 CROWDS OF MORE THAN 100,000

In their last 76 home games at Neyland Stadium, the Tennessee Vols have played in front of crowds of at least 100,000 fans 75 times.

Since the stadium's capacity was expanded to more than 100,000 in 1996, the Vols have had just one home crowd of less than six figures (Nov. 3, 2007, vs. La.-Lafayette).

Neyland Stadium's current capacity is 102,038, making it the nation's fourth-largest college football venue (trailing Michigan Stadium [107,501], Penn State's Beaver Stadium [107,282] and Ohio State's Ohio Stadium [102,329]).

UT'S RETIRED NUMBERS PERMANENTLY DISPLAYED AROUND STADIUM

A select group of seven celebrated members of the Tennessee football family have had their jerseys retired.

Each of those Vols greats now has his respective jersey permanently displayed on lighted signage just below the upper deck at different corners of Neyland Stadium.

Reggie White's No. 92 was retired and put on display before the 2005 Mississippi game, and Peyton Manning's No. 16 was retired before the 2005 South Carolina contest. Doug Atkins' No. 91 was retired prior to the Vanderbilt game that same year.

The retired numbers of the four Vols who died in service to their country during WWII—Clyde "Ig" Fuson (No. 62), Rudy Klarer (No. 49), Bill Nowling (No. 32) and Willis Tucker (No. 61)—were put on permanent display during a special ceremony prior to the Air Force game in 2006.

86 SEASONS AT NEYLAND

The 2007 season marks Tennessee's 86th year of football in Neyland Stadium. The Volunteers own a 417-101-17 all-time record at home, giving them a Rocky Top winning percentage of .795.

Consecutive Games Without a Loss: 55, beginning Oct. 3, 1925, with a 51-0 victory against Emory & Henry, and ending Oct. 21, 1933, with a 12-6 loss to Alabama.

Consecutive Home Wins: 30, beginning Dec. 8, 1928, with a 13-12 win against Florida and ending Oct. 21, 1933 with a 12-6 loss to Alabama.

Winning Seasons: 76, including 35 undefeated years at home. The last Vols squad to go undefeated at home was the 1999 team, which was 7-0 at Neyland Stadium.

SHIELDS-WATKINS FIELD AT NEYLAND STADIUM

Director of Sports Surface Management:

Bob Campbell, Certified Sports Field Manager and past president of the Sports Turf Managers Association

Playing surface was artificial turf from 1968-93

Grass field was reinstalled in 1994 and was replanted prior to this season

It takes 90 gallons of paint to complete the lines, center logo and the famous orange and white checkerboard end zones

The checkerboard end zones first appeared from 1964-67, then reappeared in 1989 and have been in place ever since

Playing field built to United States Golf Association golf green construction specifications:

- 12 inches of sand over four inches of gravel
- Drainage lines 15 feet apart under gravel in subgrade
- Infiltration (drainage) rate of 12 inches per hour
- 16-inch crown from sideline to center of field
- Tifway Bermuda grass mowed at 3/4-inch height

"That's the greatest stadium I've ever been in ... that Tennessee stadium—there's just something different about it. Just the aura around it. It's just a first-rate place and it's been sold out every time I've been in it. I believe it's one of those places in college football where you say, 'It's one of the key bench marks of what college football is supposed to be.'"

— Neyland Award winner and former Southern Cal and UNLV head coach John Robinson, 2007

Tennessee has played 19 night games in Neyland Stadium since the 2000 season (14-5) ... Neyland Stadium is the fourth-largest college football venue in America ...

NFL PIPELINE

Tennessee had 36 active players on 2007 NFL Kickoff Weekend rosters, ranking tied for fifth nationally.

Tennessee had the second-most active NFL players among SEC schools, trailing Georgia by one.

Included among Tennessee's professional standouts are 2006 NFL Pro-Bowlers Peyton Manning, John Henderson, Jason Witten and Al Wilson.

SUPER BOWL VOLS

Did you know that at least one former Vol has played in each of the last 16 Super Bowls and 19 of the last 20?

Most recently, quarterback Peyton Manning appeared in Super Bowl XLI for the Indianapolis Colts. He earned Super Bowl MVP honors while leading the Colts to victory.

VOLS IN THE PRO BOWL

Over the years, 32 former Vols have been among the elite NFL players selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Those players have earned 94 Pro Bowl invitations, led by Reggie White's 13.

White (1987) is one of four Vols who was named MVP of the Pro Bowl, joining Doug Atkins (1959), Peyton Manning (2005) and Bert Rechichar (1957).

MANNING BUILDING ELITE NFL LEGACY

Peyton Manning can add another check mark to his illustrious career, as he was named Super Bowl MVP as his Indianapolis Colts captured Super Bowl XLI in Miami.

Manning has started every game of his nine-year NFL career and has completed more passes and thrown for more yards and touchdowns, with a higher passer rating, in a career-opening nine-year span than any NFL player.

He also is the only quarterback in NFL history with 25+ touchdown passes in nine consecutive seasons.

In 2004, he put together arguably the best season ever by an NFL quarterback, setting records for touchdown passes in a season (49) and passer rating (121.1).

Manning also has directed 28 regular-season fourth-quarter and overtime game-winning drives. He and wide receiver Marvin Harrison also have set many records together. The duo has combined for 878 receptions for 11,908 yards and 106 touchdowns, all of which are NFL records.

In Indianapolis/Baltimore Colts history, Manning has produced the nine best seasons in terms of completions and yards, the eight best seasons in attempts, the seven best seasons in games with a touchdown pass, eight of the nine best seasons in completion percentage and nine of the eleven best seasons in touchdown passes.

Most recently, Manning became the only player in NFL history to be named NFL MVP, Super Bowl MVP and Pro Bowl MVP during their career.

UT'S ATKINS, WHITE IN PRO HALL OF FAME

Legendary defensive linemen Doug Atkins (1950-52) and Reggie White (1980-83) represent UT in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Atkins was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the 1953 draft and eventually went on to star for the Chicago Bears (1955-66) and the New Orleans Saints (1967-69).

White, a defensive end who began his career in the USFL, is remembered as one of the best pass rushers in NFL history. He retired as the NFL's all-time sacks leader and is the only player in league history to have recorded nine consecutive seasons of double-digit sack totals. White passed away Dec. 26, 2004.

10 VOLS ENJOYING SUCCESS IN ARENA FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Former Vols quarterback Andy Kelly (1988-91) now stars for the New Orleans Voodoo and is UT's most prominent alum in the Arena Football League.

Other former Vols active in the AFL include lineman Jonathan Brown (Columbus Destroyers), lineman Mondre Dickerson (Grand Rapids Rampage), lineman Bill Duff (Columbus Destroyers), wide receiver/linebacker Cory Fleming (Orlando Predators), defensive specialist DeRon Jenkins (Nashville Kats), lineman DeAngelo Lloyd (Austin Wranglers), wide receiver/linebacker Andy McCullough (free agent), wide receiver Marcus Nash (Dallas Desperados) and lineman Cory Stone (Philadelphia Soul).

ANDY KELLY AFL'S TOP ALL-TIME PASSER

Former Tennessee quarterback Andy Kelly (1988-91) is a 14-year veteran of the Arena Football League and is arguably the greatest quarterback in league history.

Kelly, currently a member of the New Orleans Voodoo, holds the AFL career passing records for completions (3,886), attempts (6,224), passing yards (42,519) and touchdown passes (809). Kelly also holds the record for most touchdowns ever by any professional quarterback in any league.

TWO VOLS ACTIVE IN CANADIAN LEAGUE

In addition to Tennessee's large contingent of active NFL and AFL players, two former Vols are also strapping it on in the Canadian Football League.

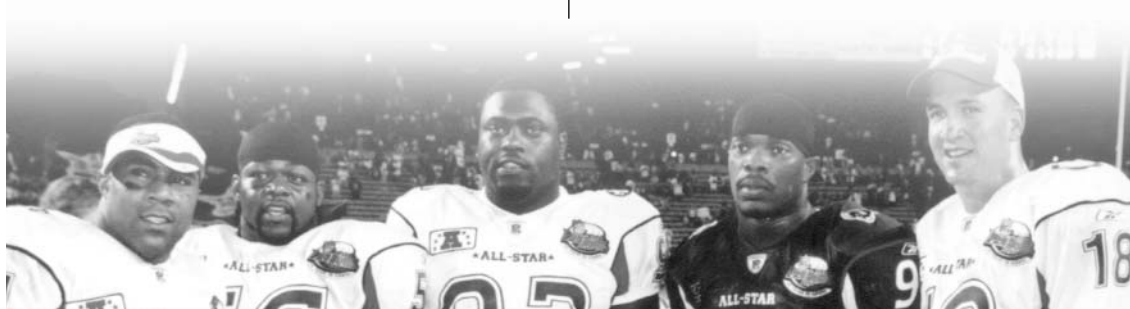

Defensive end Jonathan Brown (1994-97) plays for the Toronto Argonauts, and wide receiver Jermaine Copeland (1995-98) plays for the Calgary Stampeders.

2007 GAME REVIEWS

GAME 1 - CALIFORNIA

Sept. 1, 2007

TENNESSEE 31
CALIFORNIA 45

BERKELEY, Calif. - Erik Ainge connected on 32 of 47 passing attempts for 271 yards and three touchdowns, but it wasn't enough to outscore a balanced California attack as the Golden Bears dropped Tennessee 45-31 in front of 72,516 fans at Berkeley's Memorial Stadium.

Justin Forsett scampered 13 yards to paydirt with 9:10 remaining to give Cal its two-touchdown margin of victory and halt any chance of a Tennessee comeback in the final quarter.

"Cal's a very fine football team," UT head coach Philip Fulmer said. "We did not tackle well. Their front did a good job moving us more than we would have liked, so you have to give them credit."

Forsett produced 156 yards and a touchdown on the ground and quarterback Nate Longshore completed 19 of 28 passes for 241 yards and two touchdowns while adding another one on the ground to pace a Cal offense that netted 471 yards of total offense on the night.

The Golden Bears opened up a 17-point lead with a five-play, 63-yard scoring drive to start the second half. Longshore hit Lavelle Hawkins for a three-yard score to cap the drive.

Robert Jordan caught a Longshore pass from four yards out late in the first half to put the Golden Bears up seven. After forcing Tennessee to punt, Cal marched 60 yards in 52 seconds before Jordan Kay converted a 27-yard field goal with 12 seconds remaining in the half to make the score 31-21.

Tennessee surrendered two non-offensive touchdowns in the first half, but answered for both of them. With 12:23 remaining in the half, DeSean Jackson returned a punt 77 yards for a touchdown to give Cal a 21-14 lead. Two possessions later, Ainge hit Chris Brown for a two-yard score to tie the game.

On the game's opening possession, Ainge was nailed from his blind side, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Worrell Williams and returned 44 yards for the game's first score. UT answered on its next possession, going 70 yards in seven plays and scoring on a 12-yard pass from Ainge to Arian Foster.

Each team scored again in the quarter, Cal on a Longshore 2-yard sneak, and Tennessee on a Montario Hardesty 1-yard run.

Foster led the Vols' rushing attack, netting 89 yards on 13 carries and adding a 68-yard kickoff return to set up Hardesty's touchdown.

Tennessee's Lucas Taylor led receivers with six catches and 103 yards. Brown caught seven passes for 54 yards and two scores.

Daniel Lincoln converted on his first collegiate field goal attempt, a 41-yard try in the fourth quarter. Cornerback Eric Berry became only the third true freshman in the Fulmer era to start a season opener. He posted seven tackles.

GAME 2 - SOUTHERN MISS

Sept. 8, 2007

SOUTHERN MISS 19
TENNESSEE 39

KNOXVILLE - Erik Ainge produced 276 yards and two touchdowns through the air and Arian Foster added 125 yards and two touchdowns on the ground as Tennessee rallied to beat Southern Miss 39-19 at Neyland Stadium.

Ainge threw for 205 yards and both of his touchdowns in a first half that featured a combined 493 yards of total offense from the two teams. Foster took over in the second half, rushing for 94 yards and two scores to distance the Vols from the Golden Eagles.

"It was great to see Foster get 100-plus yards," Tennessee head coach Philip Fulmer said. "We had two receivers get 100 yards; that's fun. Erik Ainge is a heck of a football player. He understands, he sees and he throws. It was a good effort by him."

Tennessee had two receivers over the 100-yard mark in a single contest for the first time since the 1997 SEC Championship game. Austin Rogers caught seven passes 112 yards and a touchdown, while Lucas Taylor caught five passes for 118 yards. Josh Briscoe snagged the other touchdown pass, though he only caught three passes for 11 yards.

"I have to credit Austin, Lucas and Josh," Ainge said. "They are all playing well. The potential has always been there, so we aren't shocked that they're where they're supposed to be every time."

After Ainge's 26-yard strike to Rogers gave the Vols an early 7-3 lead, Southern Miss' Jeremy Young hit Chris Johnson behind Tennessee's coverage for a 69-yard score and a 10-7 lead. Britt Barefoot and Daniel Lincoln each converted a field goal attempt for his team to make the score 13-10 after one quarter.

Southern Miss' Justin Estes kicked another field goal to make the margin six before Tennessee rallied to score 17 unanswered points, the last of which came on a 9-yard run from Foster.

Estes kicked a 24-yard field goal to pull Southern Miss within eight, but Tennessee answered with a nine-play, 45-yard drive and a one-yard Arian Foster touchdown run. Lincoln added his third field goal, and Nevin McKenzie forced a fumble that led to a safety to put the victory on ice for the Vols.

Taylor and Rogers set career highs for receiving yards in a game. Both players have more receiving yards through two games this season than they did in all of 2006.

Rico McCoy led the Tennessee defensive effort with nine tackles and an interception. The Vols surrendered only 90 yards rushing, the fewest allowed by the unit since the Alabama game in 2006.

GAME 3 - FLORIDA

Sept. 15, 2007

TENNESSEE 20
FLORIDA 59

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - Florida's Tim Tebow tallied 366 yards of offense and four touchdowns to pace Florida in a 59-20 win over Tennessee in Gainesville. The Vols were held to just 37 yards on the ground and committed three turnovers to aid Florida in achieving the most lopsided win in the series since 1990.

"We can't continue to give up big plays," Tennessee head coach Philip Fulmer said. "I'm not saying that we gave it to them, they earned it. But they earned a punt return for the second week in three weeks, which puts our defense in a tough spot. We cannot help good teams that way."

The biggest play of the game came late in the third quarter when Arian Foster fumbled deep in Tennessee territory and Dustin Doe scooped up the loose ball and returned it 18 yards for a Florida touchdown and a 35-20 lead.

The Tennessee defense swung the momentum in the Vols favor on the previous two Florida possessions. Eric Berry intercepted Tebow's pass and returned it 96 yards for a touchdown to pull Tennessee within eight, and then the Vol defense forced Florida to punt.

Foster's fumble gave the momentum right back to the Gators, and they took full advantage, scoring 24 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to send the Vols back to Knoxville with their first 1-2 start since 1994.

"Certainly, this wasn't the representation that we intended it to be down here today," Fulmer said. "Our players did work hard in preparing for this. Their attitudes have been outstanding."

Florida's other big play came less than two minutes into the game when Brandon James returned a Britton Colquitt punt 83 yards for the first touchdown of the game.

Tennessee could only answer Florida's touchdowns with field goals much of the first half and found itself trailing 28-6. The Vols finally found the endzone with 25 seconds to play in the half when Erik Ainge hit Chris Brown for 15 yards out to send Tennessee to the locker room down only 15.

Ainge completed 26 of 41 attempts for 249 yards and a touchdown in the game. Tennessee's leading receiver was Josh Briscoe, who caught eight passes for a career-high 76 yards. Foster gained only 26 yards on the ground in 11 attempts.

Lincoln continued to be a consistent weapon for the Vols, converting two more field goals to remain a perfect 6-for-6 on the season.

GAME 4 - ARKANSAS STATE

Sept. 22, 2007

ARKANSAS ST. 27
TENNESSEE 48

KNOXVILLE - Erik Ainge threw for a career-high 334 yards and four touchdowns and LaMarcus Coker rushed for 101 yards and a score as Tennessee ran away from Arkansas State, 48-27, at Neyland Stadium.

"It's a darn good win. We're glad to get it. I appreciate the leadership on this football team during the course of the week from the coaches and the players. It wasn't perfect by any stretch of the imagination, but it sure feels good to win."

Ainge connected on 27 of 39 attempts including two touchdown passes of 24 yards or more. Coker turned in his best performance since the 2006 Vanderbilt game, and Arian Foster spelled him with 57 yards and a score as well.

The Tennessee defense also showed signs of improvement in some areas, forcing three turnovers and limiting the Indians to just 199 passing yards.

"Defensive takeaways were huge in this ballgame. Marsalous (Johnson) and (Brent) Vinson had interceptions, and (J.T.) Mapu had a (forced fumble and fumble recovery)."

Ainge and Lucas Taylor connected on a 24-yard score with 13:37 remaining to give the Vols a 45-27 lead and put the game out of reach for the Indians. Daniel Lincoln connected on his eighth-straight field goal five minutes later to create the final margin.

Taylor was also the recipient of the game's first touchdown pass, a 17-yard strike from Ainge less than three minutes into the game. Taylor finished with seven catches for 104 yards.

Each team made one costly mistake in the game. Arkansas State extended a Tennessee drive with a roughing the kicker penalty in the first quarter and paid the price when Ainge hooked up with Chris Brown on the next play for a 15-yard score.

Tennessee returned the favor in the second quarter when an Ainge pass was intercepted and returned 54 yards for a touchdown.

"With the exception of that turnover, I thought we did a good job on offense. It wasn't perfect. Our biggest problem so far has been just giving teams things. We gave them seven more (points) tonight, but they earned everything else."

Robert Ayers led the Vol defense with six tackles, two of which were sacks and another a tackle for loss. Johnson's and Vinson's interceptions were the first of their careers.

GAME 5 - GEORGIA

Oct. 6, 2007

GEORGIA 14
TENNESSEE 35

KNOXVILLE - Tennessee set out to run the football, and it did exactly that.

Arian Foster posted another career day against Georgia, running for 98 yards and three touchdowns to lead a Tennessee rushing attack that totaled 190 yards on the ground and five touchdowns before the day was done.

"We ran it well early, and we ran it well late," Tennessee head coach Philip Fulmer said.

Tennessee's opening drive set the tone for the game. After the much-maligned defense forced a Georgia three-and-out, the Volunteers offense marched 81 yards in 12 plays--nine of which were rushes--and scored on a nine-yard run from Foster.

Two possessions later, Tennessee opened the bag of tricks and pulled out a fake-reverse wide-receiver pass for a touchdown. Lucas Taylor hit LaMarcus Coker for a 56-yard score and a 14-0 lead.

Later in the second quarter, Montario Hardesty took over in the backfield, carrying five times in a seven-play, 48-yard drive that was capped by his 10-yard touchdown run.

Another Georgia three-and-out gave Tennessee the ball back at its own 35 yard line, and the Vols made quick work of the Bulldogs defense again. Erik Ainge hit Denarius Moore for 34 yards to move into Georgia territory and set up a 22-yard Foster touchdown run three plays later.

With a 28-0 halftime lead, Tennessee relied on a stingy defense and a methodical run game to keep Georgia at a comfortable distance. The success of the Vols' run game reduced Ainge to a role player. The senior quarterback played mistake-free football, completing 17 of 22 passes for 165 yards.

"The offensive line has been playing great," Ainge said. "The running backs, tight ends, everybody (has contributed in the running game). We felt like we could run the football, but you never know until you get to the game."

Georgia managed just 69 yards on the ground and 243 yards of total offense in the game. Rico McCoy and Jerod Mayo led the Vol defensive effort with 11 tackles apiece.

GAME 6 - MISSISSIPPI STATE

Oct. 13, 2007

TENNESSEE 33
MISS. STATE 21

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Tennessee got another outstanding effort from Arian Foster, then turned to the defense and kicker Daniel Lincoln in the fourth quarter to put away Mississippi State, 33-21, in Starkville.

Foster ran for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead a Vol ground game that gained 211 yards on the day. Erik Ainge was effective again as well, completing 22 of 36 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns, including a season-long 51-yard strike to Lucas Taylor in the second quarter. Taylor caught a career-high 11 passes for a career-high 186 yards to lead the Vol receiving corps.

"This was a really tough football game for us," head coach Philip Fulmer said. "This is somebody you don't play every year, so we didn't know a lot about Mississippi State and I thought we prepared really well. I think the staff did a heck of a job. There was some terrific play on both sides of the ball."

After taking a 17-14 lead to the locker room at the intermission, Tennessee opened the second half with nine-play, 67-yard scoring drive capped by a one-yard Foster leap to take a 10-point lead.

The Bulldogs answered with a touchdown drive of their own to pull back within a field goal, but the Tennessee defense forced a punt and three turnovers on downs in State's final four possessions. Lincoln converted field goals of 29, 26, and 43 yards on three of Tennessee's last four possessions to put the game away for the Vols.

"Before the season everybody was wondering what he would do," Fulmer said. "I am really happy with the job he has done and the consistency that he has shown."

Lincoln did miss his first field goal of the season late in the second quarter, but the defense forced a Bulldog three-and-out in just 20 seconds to give Lincoln another chance with two seconds to play in the half.

Tennessee scored on the opening drive of the game on a 4-yard, play-action pass from Ainge to tight end Chris Brown. The play capped a 78-yard drive and gave Brown his fifth touchdown reception of the season. The Bulldogs answered two possessions later with a 38-yard strike from Wesley Carroll to Tony Burks. State then took a 14-7 lead six minutes later on a 30-yard touchdown run from Anthony Dixon.

Rico McCoy led the Tennessee defense with nine tackles, including one for a loss.

GAME 7 - ALABAMA

Oct. 20, 2007

TENNESSEE 17
ALABAMA 41

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Alabama's John Parker Wilson threw for 363 yards and three touchdowns and the Tide defense held Tennessee scoreless in the second half en route to a 41-17 trouncing of the Vols in Tuscaloosa.

Trailing only by a touchdown at the half, Tennessee managed just 145 yards of offense after the intermission while Alabama kept the ball for almost 20 minutes and produced three field goals and a touchdown.

"They kept the dam football away from us most of the second half," head coach Philip Fulmer said. "Our third down execution wasn't particularly good; some of our receivers not being in there certainly affected some of that, but the receivers that are in there need to play well."

Erik Ainge finished 22-of-35 for 242 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Arian Foster led the Vols on the ground with 91 yards and a score on 13 carries. Tight end Chris Brown was the Vols' leading receiver with five grabs for 28 yards. Two of Ainge's favorite targets, wideouts Lucas Taylor and Josh Briscoe, were both limited due to injuries.

The game turned on Tennessee's first possession of the second half. After the defense forced a Tide a three-and-out, Tennessee marched into Alabama territory before Ainge was intercepted on a deep crossing route. The Tide took the turnover and converted it into three points and a 27-17 lead after chewing 4:47 off the clock.

"He probably should have put some more air on the ball, but he said he didn't see the guy," Fulmer said of the Ainge pick. "That was one of those things where you let the receiver run under it rather than stick the ball in there. That was a tough break. There was a chance there to make the game even."

Alabama kept the momentum for the remainder of the contest, getting a field goal, touchdown and field goal in their next three possessions, all the result of Tennessee punts.

"We moved the ball pretty well and we'd get the ball to third and short then we'd have a bad snap or miscue to the receiver or a bad throw," Ainge said. "It was one little stupid thing after another in the second half that kept us from completing drives."

Tennessee hurt itself and extended several Alabama drives with a season-high 11 penalties for 81 yards.

Alabama opened the game with an onside kick and pulled out to a 10-0 lead. Tennessee answered with two touchdown drives to take the lead back at 14-10. Wilson hit D.J. Hall for two scores in the second quarter before the Vols closed the half with a Daniel Lincoln field goal.

GAME 8 - SOUTH CAROLINA

Oct. 27, 2007

S. CAROLINA 24
TENNESSEE 27

KNOXVILLE - Daniel Lincoln saved Tennessee from the largest blown lead in school history with a career-long 48-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter.

He then split the uprights from 27 yards out in overtime to give the Vols a 27-24 win over South Carolina at Neyland Stadium.

"You don't know what Daniel has been through," head coach Philip Fulmer said. "I was unmerciful to him in the spring. I think, obviously, he's got a very great future. And the best thing about it is he's a football player. He's a tough guy."

Lincoln rebounded from a 51-yard miss late in the second quarter--only his second misfire of the season--to make the clutch kicks late in the game.

He got a shot at the game-tying kick in regulation because of a 37-yard kick-off return from LaMarcus Coker. South Carolina's Ryan Succop hit a 49-yard field goal with 1:24 remaining in the game to give the Gamecocks their first lead, but Coker took the ensuing kickoff from one sideline to the other to give Tennessee good field position at its own 47.

Erik Ainge directed a drive--Tennessee's only substantial ball movement of the second half--to the Carolina 17 before a sack and a false start penalty forced Lincoln on the field for the 47-yard kick.

In overtime, Tennessee drove to the 10 before stalling and calling on Lincoln again. Succop missed a 40-yard attempt on South Carolina's possession to give the Vols the win.

"A lot of things had to go right for us to win," Ainge said. "You had the two fumbles, the best kicker in the league had to miss, and he did. A lot of things we had called, they had the one defense called that could stop it, so you have to credit their defensive coordinator."

Tennessee jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first half, but could barely move the ball after the intermission, forcing the defense to spend almost 20 minutes on the field. The fatigue showed as the half wore on, and South Carolina tied the game early in the fourth quarter.

The Gamecocks fumbled deep in Tennessee territory on their next possession, then promptly picked off Erik Ainge. The Vols then intercepted South Carolina quarterback Blake Mitchell to end that threat.

After a Tennessee punt, South Carolina got the go-ahead points to cap an eight-play, 26-yard drive.

On the Vols' game-tying drive, Arian Foster fumbled on a third-down run only to have the ball take a fortunate bounce into the grasp of Jacques McLendon.

Foster carried 19 times for 79 yards and a touchdown. Ainge connected on 26 of 44 passes for 216 yards, a score and an interception. Lucas Taylor caught four passes for 57 yards.

GAME 9 - LOUISIANA-LAFAYETTE (HC)

Nov. 3, 2007

LA-LAFAYETTE 7
TENNESSEE 59

KNOXVILLE - Tennessee scored on nine of ten possessions and racked up 466 yards of offense in a 59-7 rout of Louisiana-Lafayette at Neyland Stadium.

Tennessee got points on the ground, through the air, from the defense and on special teams in the homecoming win.

"We blocked kicks; we scored on defense; we scored on offense," head coach Philip Fulmer said. "We kept the other team off the field pretty well. It was a complete game, but we've got a lot bigger fish to fry."

The Tennessee rushing game was dominant in both halves. Arian Foster rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns then gave way to Lennon Creer, who carried seven times for 109 yards and a score. The two were the first Tennessee duo to rush for more than 100 yards in the same game since 2004. Foster's last carry gave him 2,000 career yards and moved him into 12th place on Tennessee's all-time rushing list.

Erik Ainge was as efficient as he needed to be, completing 16 of 23 passes for 125 yards and a touchdown. Jonathan Crompton relieved him in the fourth quarter and connected on three of four attempts for 68 yards and a score.

The Vols broke the game open late in the first half on a big defensive play. Antonio Reynolds grabbed a tipped pass from the air and rumbled 70 yards to paydirt to give Tennessee a 24-0 lead at the intermission.

"He looked like a truck running down there," Fulmer said. "I didn't think he'd ever get there. But he knew what to do with it when he caught it, and he ended up with a convoy. It was great to see the defense score."

Tennessee's special teams got in on the scoring act midway through the third quarter when Nevin Mckenzie blocked a punt into the arms of Antonio Wardlow, who returned the kick 20 yards for a touchdown.

John Chavis' defense gave up 234 yards on the ground to the Ragin' Cajuns but allowed points on only one of 11 possessions and forced two turnovers. Linebackers Ryan Karl and Rico McCoy led the defensive effort with eight stops apiece.

Four different Vols scored their first-career touchdown in the game. Quintin Hancock caught a touchdown pass from Ainge in the third quarter. Two possessions later, Creer scampered 30 yards for a score. Kenny O'Neal caught a 49-yard touchdown pass from Crompton in the fourth quarter before Gerald Jones ran 12 yards for the final points of the game.

The win gave Tennessee a 3-1 record in its regular season non-conference games and made the Vols bowl eligible for the 14th time in Philip Fulmer's tenure as head coach.

GAME 10 - ARKANSAS

GAME 11 - VANDERBILT

GAME 12 - KENTUCKY

Nov. 10, 2007

ARKANSAS 13
TENNESSEE 34

KNOXVILLE - Tennessee scored on four of six possessions in the first half and added two big plays in the second half to beat Arkansas, 34-13, and improve to 6-0 at Neyland Stadium this season.

The Volunteer defense rose to the occasion, holding Arkansas to just one first down and 49 yards of total offense in the first half while the offense built a 20-3 lead, then forcing two interceptions and another turnover on downs in the second half.

"The first thing I want to tell you is never doubt the heart of a Volunteer," head coach Philip Fulmer said. "I'm really, really proud of this football team. It was a great team win. And the game was won in the preparation."

Arian Foster led the Tennessee ground effort with 83 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries. Austin Rogers caught six passes for 62 yards and a score from Erik Ainge, who again managed a run-heavy game well, completing 12 of 25 passes for 128 yards and two touchdowns.

The Tennessee defense did not allow Arkansas into the endzone until the 8:27 mark of the fourth quarter when Michael Smith rushed in from nine yards out. The Razorbacks only other scores came on field goals of 31 and 42 yards from Alex Tejada.

"The front four did an excellent job this week preparing for Darren McFadden and Felix Jones," said linebacker Jerod Mayo, who led the defense with nine tackles and also returned an interception 34 yards for a touchdown in the waning minutes of the game. "The secondary did a good job stopping them when they got to the perimeter. We got tired of hearing about it. We knew we had to come in and play like we did against Georgia and South Carolina."

The Vols scored on their first possession of the game for the sixth time this season when Ainge hit Rogers across the middle on third and long from the 16. Arkansas took advantage of a 48-yard kick return from Jones and converted a field goal on their first possession.

Tennessee answered with a big kick return from Dennis Rogan and a 25-yard Daniel Lincoln field goal. After two defensive stops, Lincoln converted another kick from 28 yards. Ainge hit Josh Briscoe for a 14-yard score with just 10 seconds left in the half to send the Vols to the locker room with a 17-point edge.

Foster stormed 59-yards for a touchdown on Tennessee's opening possession of the second half, his longest run of the season. Arkansas answered with a field goal five minutes later before again going cold on offense.

Smith's score midway through the fourth quarter pulled the Hogs within two touchdowns, but Mayo's interception on Arkansas' next possession put the game away for the Vols.
