Single game tickets for the Louisville Regional will go on sale on Friday at Jim Patterson Stadium. Single game tickets for the Louisville Regional are priced at $18 for reserved chairback seats, $10 for bleacher seats, $8 for general admission berm seats and $6 for students with a valid ID. All tickets purchased at Jim Patterson Stadium must be paid for with cash.

NCAA Tournament History

Vanderbilt is making its eighth NCAA tournament appearance this weekend and will look to win its second regional championship under Tim Corbin. The Dores are 12-14 all-time in NCAA play and have made the field a school record four straight times.

Last season the Commodores went 1-2 as the No. 2 seed in the Tempe Regional. They lost to No. 3 seed Oklahoma in the first round, before rebounding to win against No. 4 seed Stony Brook. The Dores were then eliminated on a walk-off homer to Oklahoma.

In 2007, VU hosted for the first-time in school history as the No. 1 National Seed. VU made the regional championship game for the second straight year, but lost to Michigan.

In 2006, the Dores advanced to the championship round of the NCAA Atlanta Regional before falling to host and eventual College World Series team Georgia Tech.

In 2004, VU swept three games at the Charlottesville, Va. Regional, before falling to eventual NCAA runner-up Texas in a Super Regional in Austin.

Vanderbilt is 9-8 in NCAA tournament games under Tim Corbin. Prior to his arrival in 2003, the Commodores were 3-6 in three previous appearances.

No. 2 Seed Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee is making its first trip to an NCAA Regional since 2004. The 2009 Sun Belt Tournament Champions are making its 14th NCAA Regional appearance and will be the No. 2 seed in the Regional for the first time in school history. MTSU has never been higher than a No. 3 seed at Regionals.

The Blue Raiders put together a sensational season, going 43-16 and sharing the regular season Sun Belt title under 22nd year head coach Steve Peterson.

The 43 wins this season is a new school record. MTSU was nearly unbeatable at home this season, going 28-4 at the newly renovated Reese Smith Field. Middle Tennessee started the season winning 21 of its first 25 games.

MTSU led the conference in hitting and was second in team ERA and boast one of the top players in the nation this season, in Sun Belt Conference Player of Year, Bryce Brentz. Brentz, a Golden Spikes Semifinalist, leads the Raiders in batting average (.482) hits (106), home runs (28), doubles (19), RBI (72). Brentz's .482 average, .968 slugging% and 28 home runs ties him with Alabama's Kent Matthes for first in the country. Five other Blue Raiders were named All-Sun Belt following the regular season, including senior third baseman Rawley Bishop. Bishop is a nice compliment to Brentz as his numbers speak for themselves. Bishop is hitting .404 with 14 home runs and 51 RBI. Seven of MTSU's starting position players are batting .325 or higher.

On the mound, the Blue Raiders are led by junior lefthander Kenneth Roberts and reliever Coty Woods. Roberts, the team's No. 1 weekend starter, earned first-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors after going 8-1, 3.12 ERA during the regular season, while Woods has a school record 14 saves this season. Roberts was named the Sun Belt Tournament's Most Outstanding Player after going 2-0 with a 2.07 ERA, including a complete game in two starts at the tournament. MTSU will throw Roberts against the Commodores Friday. It will mark the first time Roberts has faced Vanderbilt in his career.

No. 1 Seed Louisville

The 17th-ranked Cardinals are tabbed as the region's No. 1 seed after winning the Big East Championship title game and posting the best regular season in school history.

Louisville (44-15) is making its third straight NCAA Regional appearance and is coming off an 11-3 win over Connecticut in the Big East Championship. It marks the second time in the school's history, including second time in three years, that they will play in it's home stadium (Jim Patterson Stadium) during postseason play.

In 2007, the Cardinals took two of three from Oklahoma State in a Super Regional to advance to advance to their first ever College World Series. Heading into NCAA Regional play the Cardinals have won 15 of its last 17 games. The Cardinals lost only two weekend series during the regular season, going 1-2 against Seton Hall (3/27-28) and Notre Dame (4/24-4/26). At the plate, Louisville is once again led by two-time BIG EAST Player of Year, Chris Dominguez. The junior third baseman leads the team in home runs (23), RBI (79) and stolen bases 18. Five other Cardinals earned ALL-BIG EAST honors, including the 2009 BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year Justin Marks. In just three years, Marks (10-2, 3.50 ERA) is the school's career leader in wins, strikeouts and ERA.

This year squad has displayed a constant strong pitching and a powerful offense throughout. At the plate, Louisville is led by the trio of Phil Wunderlich, Andrew Clark and Dominguez. Those three have combined for 42 percent of the team's run total, 45.4 percent of team's RBI total and 62% of the team's home runs. The Cardinals led the BIG EAST in home runs with 81, while boasting the league's top pitching staff. Louisville's pitching staff ranked first in ERA, while holding nearly a 3-1 strikeout to walk ratio as a team.

No. 4 Seed Indiana

Indiana (32-25) is making its first NCAA Championship appearance since 1996 after winning the Big Ten Tournament title on Saturday night with a 13-2 win over Minnesota. The Hoosiers rolled through the Big Ten Tournament winning all four of its games in decisive fashion, outscoring its opponents 47-9 during the tournament.

Junior pitcher Eric Arnett and junior catcher Josh Phegley were both named Golden Spikes Award semifinalists earlier this week. Arnett is 12-1 with a 2.58 ERA with 103 strikeouts and 35 walks in 101.0 innings. The right-handers is expected to get the start against Louisville on Friday. Phegley is hitting .352 with a team leading 17 homers and 66 RBI. Freshman designated hitter/outfielder Alex Dickerson leads the team with a .379 average and has provided power as well with 14 homers and 57 RBI. The Hoosiers are hitting .329 as a team with 61 homers and 421 runs scored (7.4 per game).

Junior left-hander Matt Bashore forms an impressive 1-2 punch on the mound with Arnett. Bashore is 7-4 with a 3.57 ERA with 101 strikeouts and 29 walks in 90.2 innings of work.

Junior right-hander Chris Squires is the team's closer with eight saves in 19 relief appearances. He has a 4.01 ERA with 36 strikeouts and 18 walks in 51.2 innings.

As a team the Hoosiers sport a 5.08 ERA with 424 strikeouts and 208 walks in 501.1 innings.

Commodore Tidbits

Vanderbilt went 3-1 at the Southeastern Conference tournament and advanced to the championship game for the third time in four years and the fourth time in the last six years ... HEAD COACH TIM CORBIN

In six seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has turned Vanderbilt into one of the national powers of college baseball. In 2008, Corbin guided the Commodores to their second straight 40-win season (41-22) and third consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Commodores battled through the first half of the season without the services of Preseason Player of the Year Pedro Alvarez and managed to record road sweeps over Mississippi State and Tennessee for the first time in school history.

Corbin's overall record of 239-130 (.648) is third best in terms of wins at Vanderbilt, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

The 2008 draft saw eight current Commodores selected, highlighted by Pedro Alvarez who was taken with the second overall pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Vanderbilt became the first school in draft history to have the first overall pick (David Price in 2007) and second overall pick in consecutive drafts, an indication of the talent Corbin has brought into the program over the last six years.

In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage set a new national team high and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

In 2006 he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth-place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters being freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. New for 2009 are permanent seats in the outfield pushing Hawkins Field seating capacity to double the amount when Corbin arrived in 2003. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 28 VU players have been drafted over the last four years, including eight in 2008.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.
