STARTING FIVE

- 1 ★ The Commodores are back on the hardwood on Thursday when they host backyard foe Lipscomb in its final non-conference game of the season. The Commodores and Lady Bison will top off at 7 pm from Memorial Gym. Thursday's game will be the second straight against a Nashville-area foe as the Dores played Belmont in their last game before the holiday break. Thursday's game will also be the fourth game of a four-game homestand.
- 2 ★ Vanderbilt is coming off a 111-74 loss to Belmont on Dec. 21. Freshman Chelsie Hall scored a career-best 26 points in the loss while Rachel Bell added 15 points. Erin Whalen and Kayla Overbeck added 12 and 11 points, respectively off the bench. Overbeck also led the rebounding efforts with a team-best six rebounds. The loss was the fourth straight for the Commodores and Belmont's first win in the last nine meetings.
- 3 ★ Thursday's matchup with Lipscomb marks the second mid-Tennessee team the Commodores will take on this season. Vanderbilt opened the season against Middle Tennessee on Nov. 11 faced Belmont on Dec. 21 and will face Lipscomb on Thursday. In total, the Dores will face five teams, including Tennessee twice in SEC action, from the state of Tennessee this season. Vanderbilt leads the all-time series with Lipscomb, 15-0 with the last meeting coming during the 2012-13 season.
- 4 ★ Rachel Bell became the 37th member of Vanderbilt's 1,000-polint club in the Commodores last outing against NC State on Dec. 16. With 39 seconds left in the game, the Cumberland Furnace native, hit a jumper to push her over the mark. Bell is the first Vanderbilt player to reach 1,000 points since the 2012-13 season, when the Dores had three players reach the milestone. Bell is currently sitting at 1,017 career points.
- 5 ★ The Commodores debuted new lineups in both its game against Memphis and NC State. Kayla Overbeck started against Memphis while Cierra Walker earned her first start of the season against NC State. On the season, Vanderbilt has used just four lineups and has gone primarily with Rachel Bell, Chelsie Hall, Kaleigh Clemons-Green, Autumn Newby and Christa Reed. Those five have been the starters in each of Vanderbilt's win.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEPHANIE WHITE:

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

Stephanie White
Vanderbilt Head Coach

"Above all else, academics, research, scholarship, and service define the Vanderbilt experience, yet we also compete at the highest levels in athletics. Coach White's values align perfectly with those in our university community. I welcome Stephanie to Vanderbilt and look forward to working with her as she leads our women's basketball program to fulfill our goals and highest potential."

Nicholas S. Zeppos
Vanderbilt Chancellor

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career. She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

David Williams
Vanderbilt Athletics Director

"Even though this is Stephanie's first collegiate head coaching job, her experience in the professional ranks are enormously valuable. I expect great success from her as she establishes her culture and her system."

Lin Dunn
Former Indiana Fever Head Coach
Kentucky Assistant

Stephanie White enters her second season at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in 2017-18. White was named the head coach of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in May of 2016, becoming just the fifth all-time head coach in the history of the Vanderbilt program.

When she arrived in Nashville, White inherited a young Vanderbilt team that featured only two seniors and relied heavily on five freshmen. White guided the Commodores to a 14-16 overall record in her first season with the team, including a 4-12 mark in the SEC during the 2016-17 campaign.

White's inaugural season on West End featured plenty of highlights, and was capped by a late-season surge that saw the Commodores win three of their final five games of the regular season. Other highlights included:

* The Commodores were ranked among the nation's top-5 in 3-point percentage throughout the season, and finished the season ranked No. 6 after shooting 38.6 for the year. Vanderbilt also led the SEC in 3-pointers per game (7.1).

* White guided Vanderbilt to 10 wins in its first 11 games during the first six weeks of the season. The hot start included a nine-game winning streak that spanned from Nov. 16 to Dec. 18. The winning streak was highlighted by an impressive victory over Duke on Nov. 20, along with quality wins over Robert Morris, Drexel and Tulane.

* At season's end, a pair of Vanderbilt freshmen -- Kayla Overbeck and Erin Whalen -- were named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team, as voted upon by the conference's coaches.

Having enjoyed success at virtually every level of basketball as a player and coach, White arrived at Vanderbilt after spending two seasons as the head coach of the WNBA's Indiana Fever. She took the Fever to the playoffs in each of her two seasons, including a trip to the WNBA finals in 2015.

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said at her introductory press conference. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

White -- who played five seasons in the WNBA after a decorated playing career at Purdue -- was named head coach of the Fever in September 2014. In 2015, she guided the Fever to the WNBA finals, becoming the first rookie coach in league history to lead a team to the finals. As a collegiate player, White enjoyed a highly successful career at Purdue, where she earned national Player of the Year honors after helping lead the Boilermakers to the 1999 NCAA championship as a senior. That season, she also received the Wade Trophy (given to the nation's top female player) and was named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year.

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career," Vanderbilt athletic director David Williams said. "She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

White averaged double-figure scoring in all four seasons of her college career, including 20.2 points per game as a senior, and amassed 2,182 points for her career. White was inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame on April 21, 2006.

She was also a star in the classroom at Purdue. She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was an Academic All-American.

White was an assistant coach with the Chicago Sky from 2007-2010, then joined the Fever staff as an assistant in 2011. She was promoted to associate head coach in 2014 before being named head coach after Lin Dunn's retirement. While coaching in the WNBA, White served as a college basketball analyst for ESPN and the Big Ten Network. She also covered the NBA's Indiana Pacers for FOX Sports Indiana.

Prior to coaching in the WNBA, White coached in the college ranks, serving as an assistant at Toledo (2005-07), Kansas State (2004-05) and Ball State (2003-04).

Before beginning her coaching career, White enjoyed a productive five-year WNBA career, spending one season with the Charlotte Sting and four with the Indiana Fever, before retiring in 2004.

At the completion of her four seasons with the Fever, she ranked third in games played (112) and 3-pointers (92), and fourth in scoring (684). She was named to the Fever's All-Decade Team that was announced in 2009.

White and her wife, Michelle, have three young boys: Landon, and twins, Aiden & Avery.

Setting the Scene

-The Commodores close their four-game homestand when they take on Lipscomb on Thursday. The Commodores and Lady Bison square off at 7 pm from Memorial Gym in the first 7 pm home game of the season for Vanderbilt.

Last Time Out

-Vanderbilt dropped a 111-74 contest to Belmont on Dec. 21. Chelsie Hall scored a team-best and career-high 26 points in the loss while Kayla Overbeck added six rebounds to lead the Dores on the glass.

-Freshman Chelsie Hall was a perfect 9-of-9 from free throw line against Belmont. Her nine free throws are the most in a single game for a Commodore this season.

-The loss was the fourth straight for the Commodores and gave Belmont its first win over the Commodores in the last nine meetings.

Scouting Report

-Lipscomb enters Thursday's game with a 3-10 record after a 61-57 road win over Tennessee Tech on Dec. 21. The win snapped a six-game losing streak for the Lady Bison. Lauren Cagle leads the way with a team-high 16.6 points per game and 4.6 rebounds per game. Cagle is the lone player in double figures.

-The Commodores and Lady Bison have several common opponents in Middle Tennessee, Belmont, Alabama and Alabama. Lipscomb and Vanderbilt have lost to each of the common opponents.

With A Win

-The Commodores will move to 4-10 on the season and will stop their four-game skid after winning back-to-back games against Saint Louis and Iowa State.

-Give Vanderbilt its 16th straight victory in the series, keeping Lipscomb winless in the all-time series.

Final Tune Up Before SEC Slate

Thursday's game against Lipscomb will be the Commodores last chance to prepare before the start of the conference slate on Dec. 31 at LSU. The Dores have had an up-and-down non-conference slate but have had several good wins over Iowa State, Saint Louis and George Washington.

Hall Tallies Career Best vs. Belmont

Freshman Chelsie Hall proved she can fill the stat sheet with a career-best 26 points against Belmont. It was Hall's second career game of 20 or more and her seventh game in double figures this season. Hall is Vanderbilt's second-leading scorer with 13.2 points per game.

Hall Gets It Done at the Stripe

Nine of Chelsie Hall's career-best 26 points came at the charity stripe where the freshman went 9-of-9 against Belmont. Hall's nine attempts are the most for a Commodore this season. Hall, who has the most attempts this season from the line, is shooting .763 for the season from the charity stripe.

Big RPI Opportunities on Tap for Dores

The Commodores, who are looking to climb the RPI rankings, will open SEC action at LSU who is currently No. 55 in the RPI rankings. According to RealTimeRPI, the Commodores strength of schedule is in the top 25 and one of the toughest schedule in the SEC.

Home Sweet Memorial

The Commodores will close a four-game homestand with Thursday's Lipscomb game. The Dores opened a four-game home stretch vs. Memphis on Dec. 16. The four-game home stretch will be the longest of the season although the Dores will have a three-game homestand in SEC play in mid-January when they host Missouri, Kentucky and South Carolina. Vanderbilt is quite successful at Memorial Gym sporting a 468-122 all-time record with only one sub-.500 home record, during the 1982-83 season in 40 seasons played at Memorial.

Tennessee Foes on Tap

Thursday's matchup with Lipscomb is the second straight against a Nashville foe. The Dores faced Belmont in their last outing and with Thursday's game against Lipscomb will have faced each of the Nashville area Division I teams this season. Vanderbilt has already squared off with Middle Tennessee to open the season and will face three other Tennessee foes including two games with Tennessee in SEC action. When the non-conference is all set and done, the Doers will have played three teams from the Middle Tennessee area in Middle Tennessee, Belmont and Lipscomb.

Bell Makes it 1,000

Senior guard Rachel Bell became the 37th member of Vanderbilt's 1,000-point club against NC State on Dec. 19 with a jumper with 39 seconds left in the contest. Bell, who now has 1,1017 career points, is the first Commodore to reach 1,000 since the 2012-13 season when the Doers had three players reach the mark. Bell moved into the No. 34 spot and is tied with Rhonda Blades with her 1,017 points.

Lineup Shakeup

The Commodores have been pretty consistent with their lineup this season but have made some changes in the last two games. Kayla Overbeck started in the place of Autumn Newby against Memphis as Newby missed due to a death in the family, while Cierra Walker started against NC State due to an injury to Kaleigh Clemons-Green. Vanderbilt has gone primarily with Chelsie Hall, Rachel Bell, Christa Reed, Autumn Newby and Kaleigh Clemons-Green this season and this group has a 3-7 record when they start.

Overbeck Cleans the Glass

Kayla Overbeck posted a season-best nine rebounds against NC State on Dec. 19. It was Overbeck's fourth game of five or more rebounds this season and was just one short of giving the California native a double-double. Overbeck is averaging 3.8 rebounds per game and has grabbed a rebound in 10 consecutive games.

Strong Start Against Cardinals

Vanderbilt had one of its best starts of the season against Louisville, in fact the Commodores led 24-20 after one period of play. The Doers 24 points are the most scored in the first period this season and marked the first time Vanderbilt has led after one period of play this season. The Doers are averaging 16.2 points per quarter.

Bell and Hall Stong in First Half at Louisville

Rachel Bell and Chelsie Hall have been a good combination all year but they were spectacular in the first half against Louisville, combining for 28 of Vanderbilt's 33 first-half points. The pair have accounted for 40 percent of the Commodores scoring this season. Hall has been in double figures in five of the last seven games while Bell has reached double figures in the last five games.

Vanderbilt Bench Brings the Heat

The Vanderbilt bench has been vital this season. In the last four contests, the Commodore reserves have outscored their counterparts, 127-97 including a 20-3 advantage against Memphis. On the season, the Vanderbilt bench has outscored its opponents, 296-198, and have only been outscored on four occasions in losses to Syracuse, Middle Tennessee, NC State and Belmont. On average, the Commodore bench is averaging 24.0 points per game and on the season is accounting for 34 percent of Vanderbilt's scoring this season.

Doers are "Youthful"

Of the 14 players on the Vanderbilt roster 10 are underclassmen meaning that the 2017-18 Commodore roster is 71.4 percent underclassmen. The Doers added four true freshmen this season and had a five-member freshman class last year while welcoming Boston College transfer and redshirt sophomore Mariella Fasoula.

40 is the Magic Number on the Glass

For the fourth time this season, the Commodores tallied 40+ rebounds against Iowa State with 42 rebounds. In games in which Vanderbilt grabs at least 40 rebounds they are 3-1. Conversely, when they fail to get to 40 rebounds Vanderbilt is 0-8.

Bell Tough Against Syracuse In Paradise Jam

Senior Rachel Bell was on fire against Syracuse in the second game of the Paradise Jam. The Tennessee native tied her career best with 31 points against the Cuse and went 7-of-10 from long range to set a new career best and tie the Paradise Jam single-game three-point record. Bell's 31 points are the most points and individual scored in a single game over the three-day tournament. Bell averaged 18.0 points per game at the Paradise Jam.

Bell Shoots Her Way into Vandy Record Books

Bell's seven triples against Syracuse will earn her a spot in the Vanderbilt record books as her seven long-range bombs tie her for the second-most triples in a single-game. She joins Christina Foggie, Caroline Williams, Jillian Danker and Julie Powell as Doers to hit seven in a game. The senior was just one away from tying the program record and two away from holding the top spot by herself. For her career, Bell is shooting .369 percent from long range.

Doers Were Road Strong in November

In the first month of the season, Vanderbilt has played six of its eight games on the road in a true or neutral site fashion. Vanderbilt sports a 2-4 road record to date. Through the first month of the season the Commodores traveled 2,115.3 miles for six road games. Vanderbilt is looking to right its road woes this season. Last season, the Commodores posted a 3-10 record away from Nashville and were 0-8 on the road in the SEC. Vanderbilt already has two road wins in the bag this season with wins at George Washington and at Saint Louis.

Counting up the November Miles ...

Nashville – Mt. Pleasant, Mich. (Central Michigan)	607.2 miles
Nashville – New Orleans (Tulane)	533.2 miles
Nashville – Washington, D.C. (Paradise Jam)	665.8 miles
Nashville – St. Louis (St. Louis)

309.1 miles

Road Wins for the Road Warriors

The Commodores picked up their second road win of the season at Saint Louis on Nov. 29. Two of Vanderbilt's three wins have come on the road this season and put the Commodores one road win away from tying last year's road win total just a month into the season.

Volunteer State Bragging Rights on the Line

This season, Vanderbilt will face five teams from the state of Tennessee in Middle Tennessee, Memphis, Belmont, Lipscomb and Tennessee. Additionally, the Commodores are playing three teams from the greater Nashville area in Middle Tennessee, Lipscomb and Belmont. This will be the most teams from the state of Tennessee that Vanderbilt has played in the last six seasons. In each of the last three seasons, including this season, Vanderbilt has played at least two non-conference opponents from the Tennessee.

Speaking of Tennessee ...

Vanderbilt has several players that call Tennessee home. Currently, Vanderbilt has four players from Tennessee. Rachel Bell (Cumberland Furnace), LeaLea Carter (Dickinson), Kaleigh Clemons-Green (Chattanooga) and Myka Dancy (Antioch). The Dores will add two more from the state of Tennessee when they welcome Nashville area natives Brinae Alexander (Murfreesboro) and Jordyn Cambridge (Nashville).

#AsOne

This season the Commodores have taken on the slogan, "As One". It signifies that the team is working to become better individually so that the team can function as one group united by a love of each other and a love of the game.

Shooting Shirts For Justice

The Commodores are taking a stand against social injustice and this season will don shooting shirts that personally tie them to the cause with a word or symbol that showcases their personal "why's" Vanderbilt debuted their shirts against Syracuse in the Paradise Jam and will wear them throughout the season.

Mississippi State. In non-conference action, the Commodores will take on NCAA Tournament participants, Syracuse, Iowa State, Belmont, NC State and Louisville.

Welcome to The Family Brinae and Jordyn

The Commodore women's basketball family expanded by two during the NCAA's early signing period as local products, Brinae Alexander (Murfreesboro, Tenn.) and Jordyn Cambridge (Nashville, Tenn.) inked with the Commodores. The duo is the No. 18 class nationally and are the second top 25 class for Vanderbilt in the last three seasons.

Freshmen Become Sophomores

The highly-touted freshmen from the 2016-17 season will be sophomores this season and have gained valuable experience. The five-member class of LeaLea Carter, Kaleigh Clemons-Green, Kayla Overbeck, Cierra Walker and Erin Whalen was a consensus top-20 class and was ranked as high as No. 6 by Blue Star Basketball. As freshman, the quintet averaged 32.7 points per game and 16.2 rebounds per game. The group also accounted for 48 percent of the Commodores scoring. This group gained valuable experience as freshman which will be beneficial in 2017-18.

Shooters Touch

Last year, the Commodores were ranked among the nation's best in three-point field goal percentage. Vanderbilt closed the season ranked No. 6 nationally, shooting at a .386 clip from long range while leading the SEC in triples per game with 7.1 per game. The team returns it's top two three-point threats in Kaleigh Clemons-Green (.449) and Christa Reed (.446).

Hitting the Glass

The Commodores will have the tall task of replacing Marqu'es Webb's 9.1 rebounds per game but they won't be short on help. Vanderbilt returns the SEC's top freshman rebounder from last year in sophomore Kayla Overbeck who averaged 7.2 rebounds per game as a rookie. Additionally, the rebounding will be helped by Purdue graduate transfer Bree Horrocks who checks in at 6-5 as well as freshman Paige Warren who is 6-4.

Whalen Looks to Build On Strong Close to Freshman Season

SEC All-Freshman selection, Erin Whalen, is looking to keep the momentum from the end of the season going into the 2017-18 season. Whalen averaged 18.6 ppg over the last three game of the regular season and earned Freshman of the Week after the final week of the regular season. For comparison, Whalen averaged 13.0 ppg and 3.8 rpg over the last 11 SEC contests compared to just 1.4 ppg and 0.8 rpg in the first five SEC games.

Commodores By the Numbers

7- Number of three pointers Rachel Bell hit against Syracuse. It was a new career-high for the senior and also tied the Paradise Jam single-game record.

9- Number of free throws Chelsie Hall had against Belmont. The freshman went 9-of-9 for the most free throw makes for a Commodore this season.

26- Number of points Chelsie Hall scored against Belmont. It was a career-best and Hall's second game of 20+ points this season.

31-The number of points Rachel Bell scored against Syracuse. The 31 points tied her career best and were the most points scored by an individual in the Reef Division of the Paradise Jam.

1,017-The number of career points Rachel Bell has after scoring her 1,000th career point against NC State.

KO Looks to Grow in Sophomore Season

Kayla Overbeck, known as KO to her teammates, looks to capitalize on a productive freshman season. The Newbury Park, California native averaged 7.2 rebounds per game and 9.4 points per game as Vanderbilt's second-leading scorer and rebounding. Her number's ranked her first and third among SEC freshmen, respectively. Overbeck also gained extensive basketball over the summer playing on the USA U19 squad which earned a silver medal at the FIBA World Cup.

Plenty of TV Time on Deck for Commodores

There will be plenty of opportunities to see the Commodores on television this season. Vanderbilt's Big 12/SEC Challenge matchup with Iowa State on Dec. 2 will be televised on SEC Network and is the first of eight games set to air on the SEC's flagship. The Commodores will have four home games televised on the SEC Network: Iowa State (Dec. 2), Kentucky (Jan. 15), Texas A&M (Jan. 28) and Mississippi State (Feb. 15). Road games televised on the SEC Network include: at LSU (Dec. 31), at Tennessee (Jan. 7), at Auburn (Feb. 12), at Florida (Feb. 18). The home game with Tennessee on Feb. 4 will air on ESPNU.

Summer International Experience

This summer Kayla Overbeck spent some time with USA Basketball's Women's U19 team that competed for World Cup in July, winning a silver medal while Mariella Fasoula played on the Greek national team that advanced to the semifinals of the FIBA European Championships and played on Greece's U20 FIBAS team at the FIBA Under 20 European Championships.

25th Anniversary of 1993 Final Four Team

This season marks the 25th Anniversary of the 1993 Vanderbilt team that went to the NCAA Final Four. Vanderbilt, under the direction of Jim Foster, reached the Final Four for the first and only time in program history and were a No. 1 seed out of the SEC. Vanderbilt defeated Cal, Stephen F. Austin and Louisiana Tech en route to the Final Four in Atlanta They were defeated by eventual national champion, Texas Tech. The Commodores will commemorate this team throughout the season. The Commodores will celebrate that team the weekend of Feb. 3-4 when they take on Tennessee in Memorial Gym.

Pure Vida

The Commodores had a chance to bond this summer in sunny Costa Rica as they played two international games in August. The team defeated Ottawa and University of Costa Rica and while also there did a service project with Sole4Soles providing shoes to children in need and took in all that Costa Rica had to offer.

MEMORIAL GYM

HOME SWEET HOME

Memorial Gymnasium, the Southeastern Conference's most historic venue for college basketball, serves as the home court for the Vanderbilt Commodores. Dedicated in 1952 as a memorial to all Vanderbilt men and women who served in World War II, the arena was built as a combination gymnasium and concert hall by the late master architect Edwin Keeble.

Six decades later, the unique style of Memorial Gym — with its benches on the baselines, a playing court that sits above portions of the crowd and deafening acoustics — continues to make the Commodores' home a dreaded stop for opponents. "Memorial Magic," with its capacity crowds, overflowing student section and lively pep band, have assisted in numerous Commodore victories. In the stands, fans across Middle Tennessee have helped Memorial Gymnasium rank among the NCAA's Top 30 attendance leaders on numerous occasions.

On the floor, Vanderbilt has compiled a 467-118 record at home, and has only had one losing season at Memorial Gym (1982-83).

When the 2012-13 season tipped off, Memorial Gym featured a new video board, installed during the summer of 2012. The display, manufactured by Utah's Young Electric Sign Company, features four screens that measure 16 feet by nine feet and includes a two-foot tall LED display that wraps around the bottom of the board.

Before the 2008-09 season, Vanderbilt's locker rooms, the video room, the training room and media room were renovated and are now state-of-the-art. The floor was also replaced before the 08-09 season. During the 2009-10 season, the building received new championship banners.

In 2002, a $25 million renovation of Memorial Gymnasium was completed. Connected to the facility sits a practice gym that includes three cross-court playing floors, coaching offices, a donor room and a Hall of Champions. Other aspects of the renovation included upgrades of the seating areas, private suites, a new lighting and sound system and a new court design.

In all, Memorial Gym has been expanded three times. Constructed with a seating capacity of 6,583, the University saw its first need to increase seating in 1965 with the addition of two north-side balconies. Two years later, a pair of balancing balconies were erected on the south side of the gym and dubbed "The Balconies That Clyde Lee Built."

Capacity has fluctuated throughout the history of the building. It reached its highest number of 15,646 in 1969 when 4,000 seats were added in the east and west ends. When chairback seats in the end zones and suites on the north side were installed in the late 1990s capacity lowered to 14,168. Shortly thereafter, university officials removed portions of media press row on the south side in an effort to expand the student section by nearly 150 seats. Official capacity is now 14,326.
