The game will be televised on SEC Network with Karl Ravech and Chris Burke on the call, while 93.9 The Ville will have radio coverage.

ABOUT THE LOUISVILLE CARDINALS

Louisville was 3-1 last week earning a midweek win over Western Kentucky and taking two of three games in a weekend series against Indiana State. With three weeks remaining in the regular season, the Cardinals have a 10-11 conference mark and are fourth in the Atlantic Division. The nation's last unbeaten team for the second straight year after winning 14 straight games to open the 2018 season, Louisville is ranked in one of six major national polls this week, 29th in the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Sophomore Logan Wyatt has a .338 average with three home runs, 41 RBIs, 18 doubles and 41 walks to pace the offense. Wyatt is ranked eighth in the nation in walks, 10th in doubles and 23rd in on-base percentage (.487). Danny Oriente hit safely in a career best 14 straight games from March 31-April 24 and has lifted his batting average to .364, while Josh Stowers ranks ninth in the nation with his 25 stolen bases.

The pitching staff is led by junior Adam Wolf, sophomore Nick Bennett and freshman righthander Bobby Miller. Wolf has a 4-2 record, 2.39 ERA and 76 strikeouts in 67.2 innings and 11 series-opening starts. Bennett has registered a 5-1 record, 2.32 ERA and 43 strikeouts in 42.2 innings, including six straight weekend starts. Miller has four consecutive weekend starts, a 4-1 record and 0.92 ERA in 39.1 innings this season. The bullpen is paced by All-American righty Sam Bordner, who ranks 19th in the nation with his 10 saves in 2018.

Louisville is guided by head coach Dan McDonnell, who is in his 12th season in The Ville following a record-setting campaign in 2017 when the Cardinals ranked fifth in every major national poll after advancing to the College World Series for the fourth time in school history. UofL set a school record for wins with a 53-12 mark and earned the program's third straight ACC Atlantic Division title.

ABOUT THE VANDERBILT COMMODORES

Vanderbilt is 25-18 overall and 11-10 in the SEC after dropping two of three games last weekend to South Carolina. Ranked 15th in this week's Collegiate Baseball news poll, the Commodores are hitting .266 as a team with a 3.77 ERA. Led by head coach Tim Corbin, Vanderbilt was 36-25-1 overall and 15-13-1 in the SEC in 2017. The Commodores won the NCAA Clemson Regional before ending their season with a loss to Oregon State in the NCAA Super Regional.

SERIES HISTORY

Louisville trails 24-9 in the all-time series with Vanderbilt, which dates to 1971. The Cardinals have won each of the last two meetings with a 6-2 win in Louisville last season and a 9-5 win in Nashville in 2016. The Battle of the Barrel rivalry began in 2012 and the teams have split the first six meetings in the annual regular season series.

ABOUT HEAD COACH DAN MCDONNELL

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series. Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a then-school record 47 wins during that 2007 season. He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to nine more NCAA appearances during the next 10 years, including three more College World Series berths in 2013, 2014 and 2017, as well as eight conference regular season titles and two conference tournament championships. Louisville has hosted 12 different rounds of NCAA postseason baseball in the last 11 years with NCAA Super Regionals in 2007, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 as well as seven NCAA Regionals in 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. McDonnell added his second career National Coach of the Year honor following the 2017 season receiving the award from Baseball America.

In McDonnell's 11 seasons as head coach, Louisville ranks third nationally in wins with 509, including a school-record 53 wins during the record-setting 2017 season. During the 11-year span, the Cardinals have produced a consensus National Player of the Year (Brendan McKay, 2017), 34 All-Americans, 85 all-conference selections, six conference Pitcher of the Year winners, four conference Player of the Year winners and one conference Freshman of the Year, while 57 Louisville players have signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

The Louisville baseball team concluded its record-setting 2017 season ranked fifth in every major national poll after advancing to the College World Series for the fourth time in school history, setting a school record for wins with a 53-12 mark and earning the program's third straight ACC Atlantic Division championship. In addition to the team success, the Cardinals also received numerous individual honors, highlighted by consensus National Player of the Year Brendan McKay. The 53 wins in 2017 for Louisville surpassed the previous school record mark of 51 victories achieved in 2013. The Cardinals are the only team in the country to advance to an NCAA Super Regional in each of the last five seasons while ranking second nationally in total wins (251) during that five-year span.

McKay became the program's first National Player of the Year as the junior two-way standout swept each of the seven awards, including the prestigious Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy. The Darlington, Pennsylvania native also earned his third straight John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year honor and was selected as the ACC Player of the Year. McKay became the highest MLB Draft selection in program history going fourth overall in the first round to the Tampa Bay Rays.

Pitcher Lincoln Henzman was honored as the 2017 National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year, a First Team All-American and All-ACC First Team selection while also being selected in the fourth round of the MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox. Shortstop Devin Hairston was selected as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year, earned All-America honors for the second straight season and was chosen in the sixth round of the MLB Draft by the Milwaukee Brewers.

Drew Ellis emerged as one of the nation's top hitters in 2017 earning First Team All-America honors, All-ACC First Team recognition and was the ACC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The third baseman was selected 44th overall in the second round of the MLB Draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks. Additionally, sophomore reliever Sam Bordner was an All-American honoree, pitcher Nick Bennett was a Freshman All-American and All-ACC Third Team selection, Colby Fitch was an All-ACC Second Team member and was selected in the 13th round of the MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies, Kade McClure was an All-ACC Third Team honoree and was chosen in the sixth round of the MLB Draft by the White Sox and outfielder Logan Taylor was taken in the 16th round of the MLB Draft by the White Sox.

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. He is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

LOUISVILLE IN NATIONAL POLLS EVERY WEEK SINCE START OF 2012

Louisville, which surpassed its previous high national ranking of No. 2 (in 2016) with the No. 1 ranking on March 13 and March 20 during the 2017 season, has enjoyed a historic run by remaining ranked in at least one major national poll every week since the release of the 2012 pre-season rankings -- the longest such span in school history. Ranked in the top 25 in all six major preseason polls for 2018, the Cardinals have earned a preseason national ranking in 11 straight seasons (2008-2018) overall. Louisville is ranked in one national poll this week landing at No. 29 in the Collegiate Baseball newspaper poll.

FITZGERALD, WOLF NAMED TO COLLEGE BASEBALL FOUNDATION AWARDS WATCH LISTS

Infielder Tyler Fitzgerald and lefthander pitcher Adam Wolf were named April 19 to watch lists for a pair of 2018 College Baseball Foundation awards. Fitzgerald was on the watch list for this year's Brooks Wallace Award, which honors the nation's top shortstop, while Wolf was on the watch list for the 2018 National Pitcher of the Year.

A native of Rochester, Illinois, Fitzgerald was among 53 players named to the season's first watch list for the Brooks Wallace Award, named for former the Texas Tech shortstop, who played for the Red Raiders from 1977 to 1980. Named among 78 players on the Pitcher of the Year watch list, Wolf has anchored Louisville's pitching staff in 2018.

The Brooks Wallace Award and the National Pitcher of the Year Award by the College Baseball Foundation following the season. FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won more than 77 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 366-106 record (.775 winning percentage), including an impressive 33-4 mark during the 2017 season at the corner of Third and Central. Louisville set a school record for home wins with 36 in 2016 and the Cardinals have registered 30 or more wins at home in four of the last five seasons.

CARDINALS WIN 14 STRAIGHT TO OPEN 2018 FOR THIRD BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Louisville won its first 14 games in 2018 marking the third best start in school history and the second longest season-opening winning streak in head coach Dan McDonnell's 12 years at the helm. The 2017 Cardinals set a school record by winning 19 straight games to begin the season, which culminated with the program's fourth College World Series appearance, while the 1957 Louisville baseball team finished with a 17-0 record overall.

WYATT NAMED ACC CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK ON MARCH 12

Louisville sophomore first baseman Logan Wyatt was named as the ACC Co-Player of the Week on March 12. The conference honor is the first for Wyatt, who shared the recognition with Clemson's Seth Beer. Wyatt was 7-for-12 at the plate with a home run, three doubles, one triple and eight RBI's as the Cardinals went 3-1 that week with a series win over No. 13 North Carolina. Wyatt added seven walks and scored five runs while registering a 1.250 slugging percentage and .737 on-base percentage in the four games. After opening the week with four hits and five RBI's in a win over Morehead State, the Louisville native was 2-for-3 with a pivotal three-run double and scored the game-winning run in the 5-4 series-opening victory against the Tar Heels.

BORDNER, MANN AND THOMPSON RECEIVE 2018 PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA RECOGNITION

A trio of Louisville players were named preseason All-Americans in 2018 by various organizations. Junior righthanded pitcher Sam Bordner led the way as a second team preseason All-American selection by both the NCBWA and D1Baseball. Additionally, junior infielder Devin Mann was named as a preseason second team All-American by Baseball America while junior righthanded pitcher Riley Thompson was a third team selection.

Bordner earned his first career All-America honor (NCBWA Third Team) last season after registering a miniscule 0.41 ERA, 2-0 record, three saves and 39 strikeouts in 43.2 innings and 23 total appearances as a sophomore. He delivered scoreless appearances in 22 of his 23 outings in 2017, including all four NCAA postseason outings when he piled up 13 strikeouts and did not allow a hit in 10.2 innings in the NCAA Regional, NCAA Super Regional and College World Series.

Mann hit .268 with eight home runs, 11 doubles and 44 RBI in 64 starts at second base last season. In 2016, he was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team after hitting .303 with nine doubles and 17 RBI in 39 games.

Thompson had a 1-0 record with 23 strikeouts and a 4.02 ERA in 15.2 innings work and 14 total appearances last season. Selected in the 25th round of the 2017 MLB Draft by the New York Yankees, Thompson chose to return to Louisville for his third collegiate season.

CARDINALS PICKED TO FINISH SECOND IN ACC ATLANTIC IN 2018

The Louisville baseball team was tabbed to finish second in the 2018 ACC Atlantic Division race in a vote of the conference's 14 head coaches, while Florida State was chosen as the favorite to win the division and conference championships.

The Seminoles were picked by 10 coaches as the team to beat in the conference. The Tar Heels picked up three votes and Wake Forest received one vote for overall conference champion.

Florida State led the way in the Atlantic Division with 95 points, followed by Louisville (78), Clemson (70), NC State (53), Wake Forest (52), Boston College (25), and Notre Dame (19). The Seminoles were selected as division favorites by 13 coaches, while Wake Forest received one vote. Louisville has won each of the last three ACC Atlantic Divisions titles.

Twelve coaches picked North Carolina to win the Coastal Division, with Virginia receiving the other two first place votes. The Tar Heels tallied 96 points, ahead of Virginia (83), Duke (62), Miami (60), Georgia Tech (46), Virginia Tech (27), and Pitt (18).

BORDNER, STOWERS AND WOLF NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Juniors Sam Bordner, Josh Stowers and Adam Wolf have been selected by Louisville players and coaches as team captains for the Cardinals baseball team in 2018. Bordner earned his first career All-America honor (NCBWA Third Team) while accumulating a 2-0 record, three saves and miniscule 0.41 ERA in 43.2 innings and 23 total appearances as a sophomore in 2017.

An outfielder from Westchester, Illinois, Stowers had a .313 batting average, six home runs, 34 RBI, 15 doubles and 22 stolen bases while playing in all 65 games as a sophomore, including 59 starts. Stowers provided a key boost during the Cardinals' 2017 postseason run hitting .407 with one home run, five doubles, one triple and nine RBI in eight NCAA Championship games.

Wolf, a lefthanded pitcher from Milan, Ohio, finished his sophomore season at Louisville with a 6-0 record, 2.18 ERA, one save and 35 strikeouts in 24 total appearances and 41.1 innings pitched. Wolf made three scoreless appearances in the NCAA Championship finishing with five strikeouts and allowing only four hits in eight innings, including 3.1 innings of shutout relief against TCU in the College World Series.

CARDINALS HAVE 52 REGULAR SEASON GAMES SET FOR ESPN PLATFORMS

The Louisville baseball team's 2018 television schedule features 52 of 56 regular season games on ESPN platforms, including all 30 Atlantic Coast Conference contests for the second consecutive season. The 52 regular season games slated for television coverage are the most in school history.

Fifty of the 52 games will be televised exclusively on ACC Network Extra, available on WatchESPN and the ESPN app. The Cardinals will also make one appearance on the SEC Network with their May 1 visit to Vanderbilt in the annual Battle of the Barrel and one appearance on SEC Network+ with the road game at Kentucky on April 3.

Overall, more than 420 games featuring ACC teams will be televised across ESPN and regional networks in 2018. Additionally, the 2018 ACC Baseball Championship, scheduled for May 22-27 in Durham, North Carolina, will be televised in its entirety, with games on Tuesday through Saturday on the league's regional sports networks and Sunday's championship on ESPN2.

SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM CONTINUES FOR LOUISVILLE

As the Louisville baseball team began preparations for the 2018 season in the fall with full-squad practices, individual workouts and conditioning, the players were also excelling in the classroom as the Cardinals registered a cumulative 3.21 GPA marking the 13th straight semester the program has achieved a team GPA of 3.0 or better.

A total of 28 members of the Louisville baseball team closed the 2017 fall semester with a 3.0 GPA or better, including newcomer Austin Conway, who accumulated a 3.325 GPA during his first semester attending the Brandeis School of Law. A righthanded pitcher of Muncie, Indiana, Conway earned his undergraduate degree from Indiana State as a double major in legal studies and political science while also pitching in 72 games for the Sycamores. Receiving an additional year of eligibility from the NCAA with a medical hardship waiver due to an injury during his junior season at ISU, Conway is completing his collegiate career on the diamond at UofL while also managing the demands of law school.

The current stretch of academic success for the Cardinals dates back to the fall semester in 2011. The span of 13 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which earned three College World Series appearances, five NCAA Super Regional berths, six NCAA Regional bids and six conference championships during those six seasons.

BORDNER RECEIVES FIRST CAREER ALL-AMERICA HONOR IN 2017

Righthanded relief pitcher Sam Bordner was named as a Third Team All-American in 2017 by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, the first career honor for the Baltimore, Ohio native. Bordner accumulated a 2-0 record, three saves and a miniscule 0.41 ERA in 43.2 innings and 23 total appearances.

BASEBALL AMERICA NAMES MCDONNELL 2017 COACH OF THE YEAR

Dan McDonnell was named as the 2017 National Coach of the Year by Baseball America after leading the Cardinals through a record-setting campaign during his 11th season at the helm. The honor was the second for McDonnell, who was selected as the National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com following his first season at Louisville in 2007. Under McDonnell's guidance, Louisville closed the season with a 53-12 mark overall after making the program's fourth College World Series appearance, including the third in the last five seasons. The win total set a school record surpassing the previous mark of 51 victories achieved in 2013. The Cardinals won their CWS opener against Texas A&M and finished 1-2 in Omaha before closing the season ranked fifth in every major national poll, the highest end-of-season ranking ever. Louisville won its third straight ACC Atlantic Division championship in 2017 and McDonnell received his third consecutive ACC Coach of the Year honor becoming the first coach to achieve the feat.

BENNETT EARNS 2017 FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bennett was selected as a Freshman All-American by five organizations in 2017 – NCBWA (First Team), Baseball America (Second Team), D1Baseball (Second Team), Perfect Game (Second Team) and Collegiate Baseball newspaper. Bennett accumulated a 5-1 record with a 3.18 ERA and 61 strikeouts in 65.0 innings and 15 total appearances, including 13 starts. A native of Cincinnati, Bennett was an All-ACC Third Team selection and was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team while serving as the No. 3 starter in the weekend rotation for the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Bennett closed the season ranked eighth in the ACC in WHIP and 10th in ERA.

LOUISVILLE REACHES 50 WINS FOUR TIMES IN FIVE SEASONS; SIX CONSECUTIVE 40-WIN SEASONS FOR THE CARDINALS

Louisville reached the 50-win plateau for the fourth time in the last five seasons and the Cardinals have won 40 or more games in 10 of head coach Dan McDonnell's 11 seasons, including each of the last six. Prior to McDonnell's arrival in Louisville, the Cardinals had never reached 40 wins in a season while the single season school record for victories was 39 in 2002. Louisville capped 2017 with a school record 53 wins, two more than the previous high of 51 in 2013.

SIX STRAIGHT CONFERENCE TITLES IN THREE DIFFERENT LEAGUES

Finishing with a 23-6 mark, Louisville won its third consecutive ACC Atlantic Division championship in 2017 marking the program's sixth straight regular season conference title in three different leagues. In 2016, Louisville won the ACC Atlantic with a 22-8 record, while in 2015, the Cardinals set an ACC record for regular season wins finishing 25-5 to win the Atlantic in their debut season. After finishing with an 18-9 record and sharing the 2012 Big East title with St. John's, the Cardinals stood alone as champions in their final season in the league in 2013. In the program's only season in the American Athletic Conference in 2014, Louisville had a 19-5 league record for sole ownership of the conference title. Overall, the Cardinals have won eight regular season conference titles in 11 seasons under Dan McDonnell.

CARDINALS PUSH NCAA REGIONAL WINNING STREAK TO 15 GAMES

Louisville won its fifth straight NCAA Regional while extending its winning streak in NCAA Regional games to 15 after sweeping through Radford (11-6), Oklahoma (11-1) and Xavier (8-7) to open the 2017 NCAA Championship. Josh Stowers paced the offense in the opening weekend of the tournament finishing 6-for-10 at the plate with four doubles, one home run and seven RBI in the three games as Louisville finished with 11 extra-base hits in the NCAA Regional.

NATIONAL SEED FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON, FOURTH TIME OVERALL

Louisville was chosen as a national seed for the third straight season and the fourth time in school history in 2017. The Cardinals were also a national seed in 2010 (No. 7), 2015 (No. 3) and 2016 (No. 2). Louisville made its 10th NCAA postseason appearance in the last 11 seasons and the 11th NCAA appearance overall in 2017.

MCKAY WINS GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD, DICK HOWSER TROPHY; TWO-WAY STANDOUT CAPS CAREER AS NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Brendan McKay became the University of Louisville baseball program's first National Player of the Year in 2017. McKay swept each of the seven National Player of the Year awards during his junior season, including the prestigious Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy. The Darlington, Pennsylvania native was also named as the nation's top player by the American Baseball Coaches Association, Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball newspaper, D1Baseball and Perfect Game. McKay added his third straight John Olerud Two-Way National Player of the Year Award this season and became the highest MLB Draft selection in school history going fourth overall to the Tampa Bay Rays in the first round.

McKay closed his collegiate career with an 11-3 record, 2.56 ERA and school record 146 strikeouts on the mound during final season with the Cardinals. He accumulated a 32-10 record (second most wins in school history) with a 2.23 ERA and 391 strikeouts, the most ever for a Louisville pitcher, during his three seasons. At the plate, he had a .341 batting average, 18 home runs, 15 doubles, 57 RBIs and a .457 on-base percentage in 63 starts as a hitter this season. McKay finished with a .328 career batting average with 28 home runs, 48 doubles and 132 RBIs in 182 career starts and 189 total appearances.

EIGHT CARDINALS CHOSEN IN 2017 MLB DRAFT; SEVEN SIGN CONTRACTS

For the second consecutive season, the Louisville baseball team had eight players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft and seven of those players signed professional contracts with their respective teams. A pair of Cardinals were selected during the first two rounds of the MLB Draft as junior lefthander Brendan McKay became the highest draft selection in school history going fourth overall to the Tampa Bay Rays, while junior infielder Drew Ellis was selected 44th overall (second round) by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Louisville added a trio of selections during the second day of the MLB Draft as junior right-hander Lincoln Henzman went to the Chicago White Sox in the fourth round (117th overall), junior shortstop Devin Hairston went in the sixth round to the Milwaukee Brewers (174th overall) and junior righty Kade McClure went to the White Sox in the sixth round (177th overall). During the final day of the draft, junior catcher Colby Fitch was selected in the 13th round (383rd overall) by the Philadelphia Phillies, senior outfielder Logan Taylor went in the 16th round (477th overall) to the Chicago White Sox and sophomore righthander Riley Thompson was taken in the 25th round (752nd overall) by the New York Yankees. A draft eligible sophomore, Thompson was the only player of the eight chosen in the 2017 MLB Draft to chose not to sign a professional contract while opting to return to Louisville for his junior season.

The eight Cardinals chosen in this year's draft (as well as the 2016 draft) ranks as the second highest total in school history trailing only the 10 players selected in 2010. Overall, Louisville has produced seven or more MLB Draft selections five times in the last eight years, including four of the last five (2013, 2014, 2016, 2017).

HENZMAN WINS 2017 STOPPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Righthanded pitcher Lincoln Henzman was named the 2017 Stopper of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association during a news conference at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, becoming the second Cardinals player to capture the award since its inception in 2005. The announcement was made during the annual NCBWA awards news conference at the home of the College World Series. Henzman ranked third in career saves at Louisville with 19 and third in single season saves with 16 during 2017 season while also adding a 3-0 record with 1.67 ERA and 37 strikeouts in 37.2 innings. He was also named a First Team All-American by the NCBWA and Collegiate Baseball newspaper and was selected in the fourth round of the MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox to cap his three-year collegiate career.

ELLIS EARNS FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICA HONOR IN 2017, NAMED ACC BASEBALL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Infielder Drew Ellis capped his college career as a 2017 First Team All-America selection by four organizations and was the recipient of the ACC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year honor. Ellis earned All-America First Team honors from ABCA, Collegiate Baseball, D1Baseball, and Perfect Game to go along with All-America Second Team recognition from Baseball America and NCBWA. A sports administration major from Jeffersonville, Indiana, Ellis was named to the Dean's List and the Athletic Director's Honor Roll this year. The All-ACC First Team honoree led the conference with a .701 slugging percentage and ranked in the top 10 in home runs (No. 2) with 20, total bases (No. 2) with 162, batting average (No. 5 at .355), on-base percentage (No. 6 at .448), runs batted in (No. 7 with 61), hits (No. 8 with 82), and walks (No. 10 with 40).

HAIRSTON NAMED TO GOLD GLOVE TEAM, EARNS ALL-AMERICA HONOR

Shortstop Devin Hairston was named to the 2017 American Baseball Coaches Association Gold Glove Team and was an ABCA All-America honoree for the second straight season. The announcement marked the second straight year a Cardinals player has earned the prestigious Gold Glove honor after catcher Will Smith became the program's first Gold Glove winner in 2016. Selected as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Hairston performed at a high level this season posting a .987 fielding percentage with just three errors in 239 chances. The Lexington, Kentucky native, who is also a two-time All-ACC standout, had a .309 batting average with three home runs, 52 RBI and 16 doubles while starting all 65 games this season.

MCKAY NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE YEAR, HAIRSTON TOP DEFENSIVE PLAYER, MCDONNELL EARNS THIRD STRAIGHT COACH OF THE YEAR

Brendan McKay was named 2017 Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, shortstop Devin Hairston received the inaugural Defensive Player of the Year honor and Dan McDonnell earned his third straight Coach of the Year award. The announcement marked the third straight season the Cardinals have received at least two of the ACC's major individual honors and it was the ninth time in 11 seasons Louisville claimed a conference Player or Pitcher of the Year award.

McKay added the prestigious Player of the Year honor to his 2015 Freshman of the Year award while also being tabbed as an All-ACC First Team selection as both a starting pitcher and designated hitter/utility player. McDonnell becomes the first skipper in ACC history to receive three consecutive Coach of the Year honors.

Along with the three major award winners, Louisville had four All-ACC First Team honorees as third baseman Drew Ellis and righthanded reliever Lincoln Henzman accompanied McKay's two selections. Catcher Colby Fitch was named All-ACC Second Team, while lefthanded starter Nick Bennett, Hairston and righty starter Kade McClure were All-ACC Third Team members. Bennett was also named to the All-Freshman Team.

FITCH HONORED AS NCAA ELITE 90 WINNER; 10 CARDINALS NAMED TO ALL-ACC ACADEMIC TEAM

Catcher Colby Fitch was honored as the NCAA Elite 90 Award winner as the player with the highest GPA among the eight teams at the 2017 College World Series, while 10 Cardinals were named to the 2017 All-ACC Academic Team. Drew Ellis paced the way as the 2017 ACC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was joined on the All-ACC Academic Team by Fitch, Nick Bennett, Sam Bordner, Devin Hairston, Lincoln Henzman, Colin Lyman, Josh Stowers, Logan Taylor and Adam Wolf. Louisville led all schools with its 10 selections.

"THE SHIRT"

For Louisville baseball players, "The Shirt" has become a source of pride and accomplishment in the Cardinals' clubhouse. Awarded to a player who had an outstanding performance or made a key play in a Cards' victory, "The Shirt" was an honor coach Dan McDonnell introduced to the program in 2007.

Prior to each game, a new shirt hangs in the Cards' dugout with a number on the back of it representing the team's next win. Following the game, McDonnell awards the shirt to his key contributor for that Louisville victory.

For 2018, the messages on the back of "The Shirt" are "I DARE YOU..." and "WE NEED WOLVES" following in the team's challenge from McDonnell. Continuing the trend from the "Help the Helper" theme in 2013, after McDonnell awards the shirt to a player for his contribution that day, that player then gives it to a teammate or member of the program he believes was most deserving on that day. Below is the winners of "The Shirt" from Coach McDonnell and who those players then chose to be the final recipients.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted seven NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017) and five NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices, while the basement of the building features three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

The Cardinals have won more than 78 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 12 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through nine of those, including sweeping the 2017 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's fourth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 27-8 record overall.
