VANDERBILT QUICK HITS

- The Commodores are in their 29th season, having amassed a 273-221-45 record.
- Coach Darren Ambrose enters his first season as head coach after spending the previous 15 at Penn, where he won 148 games and was the program's all-time winningest coach.
- Ambrose picked up his first victory at Vanderbilt vs. Gonzaga on Aug. 28. He needs just one win for career victory No. 150.
- Fifteen lettermen from last year return, including eight starters.
- Seniors Erin Myers and Kelsey Tillman, along with junior Claire Anderson and sophomore goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami return as the only four to start all 19 games in 2014.
- Junior All-SEC forward Simone Charley comes in as the team's top returning scorer after scoring nine goals, with three assists. The three-time All-American in the triple jump is the team's active leader in career goals with 16, including two vs. Gonzaga on Aug. 28.
- SEC All-Freshman Lydia Simmons returns after dishing out three assists, tied for a team-high, and being a steady force in the mid-field as she started 18 games.
- In June, redshirt junior Lina Granados represented Colombia in the Women's World Cup in Canada, making the 23-player roster.

COACH DARREN AMBROSE

Darren Ambrose enters his first season at Vanderbilt after a successful run at the University of Pennsylvania.

Ambrose spent the last 15 years as the head coach at Penn, and was the program's all-time winningest coach. He is the sixth head coach in the history of the program.

In 15 years at Penn, Ambrose compiled an impressive record of 148-71-35, including a 54-34-17 mark in the Ivy League. His teams reached the NCAA Tournament three times and won three Ivy League championships. His teams finished in the top three of the Ivy League in 10 of his 15 seasons, including seven of the past eight years.

Ambrose never had a losing season at Penn as the Quakers averaged nearly 10 wins a year under his watch. He coached the team's first two All-Americans as well as its first NSCAA Scholar All-America, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, Ivy League Player of the Year, Ivy League Defensive Player of the Year and Ivy League Rookies of the Year. In addition, Ambrose was at the helm for all of Penn's Ivy League championships (2001, 2007, 2010), three of its four NCAA Championship berths (2001, 2007, 2010), and an ECAC title in 2000.

Under Ambrose, more than 80 percent of the Penn women's soccer players have graduated with GPAs above 3.0, and Penn is the only Ivy League program to have earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award each of the last 14 years.

Prior to Penn, Ambrose served as an assistant coach at Florida State, Rhodes College (in Memphis) and Connecticut. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in management accounting from USC-Spartanburg, where he played goalie and was the Division II National Player of the Year in 1992-93. He received his master's degree in sports administration from Memphis in 1995.

Ambrose, who was born in Sheffield, England, lives with his wife, Sherry, and their two daughters, Madison and Ainsley.

GLIMPSE OF THE 'DORES

Vanderbilt is in its 29th women's soccer season.

The Commodores return 15 letterwinners and eight starters from a team that went 7-10-2 overall and 2-7-2 in SEC play. Among those returning are All-SEC junior forward Simone Charley, who led the team with nine goals last year, and midfielder Lydia Simmons, who was named SEC All-Freshman. Goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami also returns after starting all 19 games as a freshman and leading the SEC with 113 saves.

In addition to Ogunsami, senior captain Erin Myers, senior Kelsey Tillman and junior Claire Anderson started all 19 games in 2014. Myers, a midfielder/defender, has started all 58 games of her career.

The Commodores return 56 percent of last year's goal scorers. Both goalkeepers are back, as Ogunsami and senior Shannon Morrish combined for six shutouts.

The squad welcomes eight newcomers. Six freshmen arrive, plus a pair of transfers from the ACC — defender Danae O'Halloran from North Carolina and midfielder Kacy Scarpa, who played for national champ Florida State.

WEEKLY REPORT

Vanderbilt split a road trip to the state of Washington.

On Friday, the Commodores picked up their first win of the season with a 3-2 victory over Gonzaga in overtime. Simone Charley scored two goals, including the game-winner in the 94th minute. Vanderbilt led 2-0 at halftime as Cristina De Zeeuw scored the first goal of the season in the 10th minute.

But Gonzaga tied the game up with a goal in the 90th minute. Charley ended it in overtime when Keegan Thimons sent a pass up the sideline and Charley raced to the ball, finishing it with a shot into the far corner. Sasha Gray and Lydia Simmons also had assists.

Vanderbilt fell 3-1 to Seattle University on Sunday, allowing three goals in the first half. The Commodores scored on an own goal in the 87th minute, but it was too little, too late as they fell to 1-3. Goalkeepers Christiana Ogunsami and Shannon Morrish combined for three saves as Morrish made her first appearance of the season.

SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

The Commodores come back home to host a pair of non-conference games. They welcome Dartmouth on Friday night and end the weekend with Lipscomb on Sunday.

Dartmouth is 1-0 after starting its season with a 2-0 victory over Marist last weekend. The Big Green went 8-5-4 overall and second place in the Ivy League with a 3-1-3 mark. Vanderbilt is 1-1 against Dartmouth, with the 'Dores winning the last meeting in 2006. The Big Green are familiar foes for Vanderbilt coach Darren Ambrose, who spent the last 15 years in the Ivy League as the head coach of Penn.

Crosstown rival Lipscomb is off to a hot start at 3-0-2. The Bisons have not allowed a goal all season - holding opponents scoreless for 490 minutes. This includes 0-0 double overtime ties against Tennessee and Cincinnati. Anna Buhigas has made 26 saves, out of 29 shots on goal, and posted five shutouts. Maycie McKay leads the team with three goals. Vanderbilt is 1-0 against Lipscomb, with the teams' only meeting coming last year with a 1-0 victory for the Commodores.

AMBROSE ERA BEGINS

Darren Ambrose begins his first year at Vanderbilt as the sixth head coach in program history. He spent the last 15 years as head coach at Penn, where he was the winningest coach in program history with 148 wins. He also guided the Quakers to three NCAA Tournaments, three Ivy League championships, while never having a losing season.

With his first Vanderbilt win over Gonzaga on Aug. 28, he is just one win away from notching his 150th career victory.

The 44-year-old from England has been a coach for the last 20 years, serving on staffs as Florida State, Connecticut and Rhodes College. He is no stranger to Tennessee as he received his master's degree from Memphis, starting his coaching career at Rhodes College and was active in youth soccer in Memphis, leading the Memphis FC '81 girls team to a state title and the Dana Cup championship in Denmark in 1998.

DOUBLE THREAT

Simone Charley enters the second half of what has so far been a superb two-sport college career. The 5-foot-8 junior forward from Hoover, Ala., leads active VU players with 16 career goals, including a team-high nine last year.

She accounted for seven of the team's nine goals in league play and scored six goals in her last six games. She was named First Team All-SEC and All-South Region Second Team last year. Against Gonzaga on Aug. 28, she scored her first two goals of the season, including the game-winner in overtime.

Charley also is a standout on the track as a three-time All-American. She placed fourth at the NCAA Indoor Championships and then reached the podium at the NCAA Outdoor Championships with a third-place finish in June. In the process, she leapt 44-3.25, breaking her own school record.

TASTING THE WORLD CUP

The Commodores were represented at the Women's World Cup in June in Canada.

Redshirt junior Lina Granados made the 23-player roster for Colombia and traveled with the team during its four games. Colombia advanced out of pool play for the first time and fell to the United States, the eventual champ.

Granados hails from Ashburn, Va., but has dual citizenship as she was born in Bogota, Colombia. She has played for the Colombia Football Federation since she was 15, and has played in international tournaments three times. She made her first career start against Seattle University on Aug. 30.

NEW FACES MAKE DEBUTS

Six newcomers have made their Vanderbilt debuts already.

ACC transfers, defender Danae O'Halloran (North Carolina) and midfielder Kacy Scarpa (Florida State) have started all four games. Three freshmen have also made their Commodore debuts. Midfielder Kelsey Carrier has come off the bench in all four games, defender/midfielder Maggie Clemmons has played in three games and defender Megan Henry played in her first collegiate on Aug. 30 against Seattle University.

Redshirt sophomore Carley Bogan also played against Seattle University. This came just five days after she joined the team on Aug. 25. Bogan, a Pittsburgh, Pa. native, was added as a walk-on. This is her first year at Vanderbilt after she transferred from William & Mary, where she played in 2013.

MORRISH BEGINS NURSING SCHOOL

Senior goalkeeper Shannon Morrish will be juggling not only soccer and her final year of undergraduate studies this fall but also nursing school.

Morrish, a native of Bradenton, Fla., entered Vanderbilt University's School of Nursing on Aug. 17. She is pursuing a master's degree in adult/gerontology acute care. She'll be a registered nurse after the first year and complete the requirements to be certified as a nurse practitioner by May 2017.

SEC PRESEASON PLAYERS TO WATCH

Five Vanderbilt players were selected as preseason players to watch.

Junior forward Simone Charley (nine goals, three assists in 2014), redshirt sophomore midfielder Lydia Simmons (three assists), sophomore defender Cristina De Zeeuw (one assist), senior midfielder Erin Myers (one goal) and sophomore forward/midfielder Sasha Gray (one goal, one assist) were all chosen.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Vanderbilt dominated possession and the stat sheet, but the Commodores fell short in their season opener and coach Darren Ambrose's debut.

Miami-Ohio scored in the 80th minute to hand Vanderbilt a 1-0 loss on Friday night at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The Commodores outshot the Redhawks 22-8, with 13 shots on goal, but none found the back of the net.

Haley Walter scored the lone goal in with 10 minutes left in the game on an assist from Courtney Evans. Walter nudged a shot off the feet of Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami, who tried to cut down Walter's angle, and the ball bounced up into the goal.

It was a tough loss for Vanderbilt (0-1) and Ambrose, who was coaching his first game as Commodores head coach after spending the previous 15 years at Penn. VU outshot Miami 16-4 in the first half and a couple of solid looks that were snuffed out.

Simone Charley, who led the team with 12 shots and seven on goal, nearly put the Commodores in front in the 19th minute. On a breakaway, Charley aimed a shot toward the right corner. But Miami goalkeeper Vic Maniaci got enough of her mitt on the ball that it deflected off the near post. It was one of Maniaci's 11 saves.

Twice Vanderbilt had empty nets in the first half, but Miami defenders knocked the ball away. Off a corner kick, Charley headed the ball toward the goal. Vanderbilt defender got a foot on it and steered it toward the net but Redhawks defender was right there on the goal line to keep the shot from going in. Lina Granados also had a chance as she beat Maniaci to her left just inside the five yard-mark, but the ball was cleared by a defender at the goal line.

CINCINNATI – Allowing a second-half goal and failing to score doomed the Vanderbilt soccer team for the second straight game.

The Commodores surrendered a goal in the 67th minute that proved to be the difference in a 1-0 loss to Cincinnati on Sunday afternoon at Gettler Stadium. Vanderbilt (0-2) mustered just three shots for the game. The Bearcats (1-1) started off slow, too, with just two shots in the first half. But they become more aggressive in the second half, firing off 12 shots.

"I don't think we showed enough heart and I don't think we showed enough fight," Vanderbilt coach Darren Ambrose said. "If that is the defining character of this team, we've got a long way to go. We have to be better in certain aspects of the game. But the bottom line is you've got to want to win more than the other team. Today, Cincinnati, to their credit, wanted to win more than we did."

Vanderbilt gave up a goal on a ball that was sent into Jaycie Brown, who got ahead of the defense and slotted it past Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami – who had five saves.

Senior Taylor Elliott had the team's best look in the first half. She settled the ball after heading it and tried to slip a shot past Cincinnati goalkeeper Sam Pavilka but a defender was there at the line to knock it away. Later in the half, redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons fired in a free kick from 25 yards out that Pavilka had to jump and swat away. Vanderbilt's lone shot attempt in the second half by Simone Charley's was immediately blocked.

SPOKANE, Wash. – After just missing a chance to put the game away in regulation, Simone Charley made sure to quickly end it in overtime.

Charley scored her second of two goals on the night in the 94th minute off an assist from Keegan Thimons to lift Vanderbilt to a 3-2 victory over Gonzaga in overtime on Friday. The Commodores scored their first three goals of the year en route to picking up their first win of the season and first victory under first-year coach Darren Ambrose.

Up 2-1, Charley nearly iced the game in the 88th minute, but her breakaway attempt bounced off the far post. In the 90th minute, with less than 30 seconds remaining, Gonzaga tied the game to force overtime.

But the Commodores (1-2) regrouped to pick up a huge road win. Less than four minutes into overtime, Thimons sent a long pass down the sideline and over the defense toward Charley. The junior All-SEC forward raced to the ball, redirected toward the net and laced a shot into the left corner past Gonzaga goalkeeper Christie Tombari.

Charley notched the second multi-goal game of her career and Thimons, a senior, recorded her first career assist. Sophomore Cristina De Zeeuw also scored and redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons and junior Sasha Gray added assists.

SEATTLE – Vanderbilt's trip to the Pacific Northwest ended with a damper.

The Commodores suffered a 3-1 loss to Seattle University on Sunday afternoon at Championship Field. The Redhawks scored all three goals in the first half as Vanderbilt (1-3) lost the second leg of a two-game trip in Washington.

After a thrilling overtime victory over Gonzaga on Friday night, the Commodores couldn't find the back of the net until late in the second half against the Redhawks, who reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament last year.

Seattle (2-2) jumped in front in the 17th minute. Summer Mason's initial shot was blocked by Kelsey Tillman, but Mason followed up with a cross that bounced off a Vanderbilt defender and past goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami.

About four minutes later the lead increased as Karli White raced into the box and tapped in a cross from the right side into the middle of the net. Seattle capped off the scoring in the 38th minute when Julia Moravec headed in a goal off a cross from the left side into the bottom left corner, past an outstretched Ogunsami.

The Commodores' lone goal came in the 87th minute on an own goal by Seattle. Senior Jamie Kator sent a corner kick into the box and a leaping Redhawk defender headed into the net.
