Setting The Scene

Series History

vs. Ohio: The teams have met six times on the baseball diamond, with Ohio winning the first ever matchup 7-2 in 1975. The Commodores swept a two-game midweek matchup in 2005, including a 3-0 shutout in the second game.

Polls

Vanderbilt is ranked in all the national polls, with a high ranking of No. 3 by Collegiate Baseball and Rivals.com. Ohio is unranked.

All of the National Polls can be found on page 6 of the release.

The Coaches

VU's Tim Corbin is 147-95 in his fifth season as head coach.

Ohio's Joe Carbonne is in his 19th year in Athens and sports a 533-435-2 record.

Radio/TV/Internet

All of the games can be heard free via the internet through Yahoo and can be accessed using the following web page: <http://vucommodores.collegesports.com/sports/m-baseball/radio-tv-internet.html>. Sunday's contest will be broadcast locally in Nashville as well on WNSR 560 AM. Eric Jones will call all of the action this weekend for the Commodores, as well as most of the non-conference slate heading into SEC play. The first two games of the series will also be webcast and can be watched for free via www.vucommodores.com. Live stats via Gametracker can also be accessed through the vucommodores.com website.

6-The Citadel Tournament (Charleston, S.C.)

All Times Local to Game Site

What's On Tap

Vanderbilt baseball takes its highest ranking ever into a three game series against Ohio starting Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. The Commodores (3-0) open a ten game homestand against the Bobcats who are making their season debut. The teams will play at 2 p.m. on Saturday and at 1 p.m. on Sunday.

Scouting Ohio

Ohio returns eight position starters from last year's team that finished 22-25 overall and 14-13 in the Mid-American East division. Head coach Joe Carbonne is in his 19th year in Athens and sports a 533-435-2 record.

The Bobcats rotation for the weekend is junior college southpaw Matt Smith on Friday, senior lefthander Dan Weiss on Saturday and senior righthander Zeke Isaacs on Sunday.

The teams have met six times on the baseball diamond, with Ohio winning the first ever matchup 7-2 in 1975. The Commodores swept a two-gam midweek matchup in 2005, including a 3-0 shutout in the second game.

Commodores Receive Highest Ranking In School History

Vanderbilt achieved its highest ever ranking on Monday as Collegiate Baseball ranked the squad No. 3 in its weekly poll.

The Commodores (3-0) swept through an impressive field at the Houston College Classic with wins over three Top 25 ranked teams, including then-No. 1 Rice in the season opener last Friday.

VU's highest ranking prior to today was No. 6 by Collegiate Baseball in March of 1973.

Clemson, which has yet to play a game this year, moved into the top spot and South Carolina, which went 3-0 over the weekend, moved into the No. 2 spot.

In addition, Rivals.com also has the Commodores at No. 3 behind North Carolina (0-0) and South Carolina.

Baseball America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association tabbed VU No. 4 this week behind Clemson, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Pedro Alvarez Named National Hitter of the Week

Sophomore third baseman Pedro Alvarez was named the Pro-Line Cap National Hitter of the Week by The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) today based on his hot start at the Houston College Classic over the weekend.

In three games against nationally-ranked opponents at the Minute Maid College Classic, Alvarez batted 7-for-14 (.500) with two doubles, a triple, a home run and five RBI in the Commodores three-game sweep of the field. Alvarez 2-for-5 with three RBI in VU's win over No. 1 Rice on Friday. He followed that performance with a 3-for-4 day, including a homer and two RBI against No. 12 Arizona State. The New York City native closed out the tourney with two more hits against No. 20 Baylor on Sunday. He was named to the Classic's All-Tournament team along with centerfielder David Macias.

This is the second time Alvarez has picked up National Player of the Week plaudits in his two years at Vanderbilt.

The NCBWA Board reviews candidates from each Division I Conference each week and names winners each Tuesday throughout the season.

Alvarez was named SEC hitter of the week on Monday.

Commodore Tidbits

Vanderbilt opened the season in impressive fashion with three wins over ranked opponents over the weekend at the Houston College Classic ... VU defeated No. 1 ranked Rice on Friday, marking the first time the Commodores have achieved that feat under head coach Tim Corbin ... The Dores 3-0 start is the best since starting 12-0 in 2005 ... VU rallied from behind to win every game of the tourney, including seventh inning rallies against Rice and Arizona State on Friday and Saturday ... VU was the lone team to go undefeated in the

The Commodore pitching staff sported a 3.21 ERA with 23 strikeouts and nine walks in 28 innings ... Reliever Casey Weathers pitched in the first two games in relief and picked up the win against Arizona State on Saturday. He did not allow a hit in three innings and struck out three ... Sophomore Brett Jacobson had the best outing of the three Vanderbilt starters over the weekend, going 6.2 innings and giving up one earned run with six strikeouts and no walks in the winning effort against Baylor ... Freshman southpaw Mike Minor made his first collegiate appearance against Baylor and picked up a save in relief. He did not allow a hit in 2.1 innings of work with a walk and two strikeouts ... Another pair of relievers also sported 0.00 ERAs as Stephen Shao and Tyler Rhoden did not give up a run of their own in three innings combined ... The Commodores will now play 19 of their next 20 games in Nashville. The lone game outside of the Music City will be against Western Kentucky (one hour away). VU will open its home campaign this weekend in a three game series against Ohio ... All available single game tickets will be $1 through the month of February.

National Expectations Highest Ever To Start Season

It started last summer when Baseball America tabbed Vanderbilt as one of the early favorites to reach the 2007 College World Series. The early buzz resulted in the Commodores being ranked the highest they have ever been to start the season. With eight position starters returning along with a veteran pitching staff, Vanderbilt will find out quickly how the team stacks up against some of the premier programs in the country. Price along with sophomore slugger Pedro Alvarez starred for Team USA last summer and along with head coach Tim Corbin helped guide the squad to a gold medal at the FISU World Championships last August. Both players are preseason All-Americans and are on the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List, recognizing the top player in the country by the College Baseball Foundation. The schedule is favorable after the season opening tournament as the Commodores will play 18 of their next 20 games at home.

Commodores Picked To Finish Second in SEC East By Coaches

Southeastern Conference coaches predicted Vanderbilt to finish second in the Eastern Division in a vote done prior to the season. Two of the 12 league coaches voted the Commodores as their pick to win the regular season championship. South Carolina received seven of the 12 championship votes in the poll and Arkansas received three votes. The Gamecocks received 63 of a possible 66 points to win the Eastern Division, while the Commodores were second with 54 points. Arkansas was the unanimous predicted winner in the Western Division with a total of 66 points. Ole Miss, last season's SEC Tournament champion, was second with 53, while Alabama finished third with 47.

Price Named To Roger Clemens Award Watch List

David Price was named to the preseason Roger Clemens Award Watch List, recognizing the top pitcher in college baseball. Price was a three-time National Pitcher of the Week honoree in 2006 and finished the year with a 9-5 record and a school record 155 strikeouts in 110.1 innings. His 12.6 strikeouts per nine innings was third best nationally and No. 1 in the SEC. He was named BA's Summer Player of the Year after going 5-1 with a 0.20 ERA with 61 strikeouts and only seven walks in 44.0 innings for Team USA. He is widely considered to be among the top prospects in next June's amateur baseball draft.

The finalists for the 2007 Roger Clemens Award will be selected in voting by a national panel that includes: all Division I head baseball coaches, a selection of national media who cover collegiate baseball, the 16 winners of the R. E. "Bob" Smith Award, which was presented to the top player in the country in Houston in 1988-2003.

In addition, the 10 previous finalists for the Clemens Award are also issued ballots. The 2007 award will be presented at a gala dinner next July. The event is administered by the Greater Houston Baseball Association, which has donated more than $300,000 to the charities from the net proceeds from the first three dinners.

Price and Alvarez Named Preseason All-Americans

Sophomore third baseman Pedro Alvarez and junior pitcher David Price continue to pick up pre-season plaudits as both were named first-team preseason All-Americans by Baseball America and Rivals.com this week. Both players also picked up preseason All-American honors by Collegiate Baseball and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

Alvarez finished the 2006 season with a .329 batting average to go along with a school record 22 homers and 64 RBI. His homer total was third most nationally and second best in the Southeastern Conference. Alvarez had a torrid summer with the USA Baseball National Team that captured a gold medal at the World University Championships in Cuba. The New York City resident led the collegiate all-star squad with a .379 batting average to go along with five homers, 12 doubles and 43 RBI. Baseball America listed him as the No. 2 prospect off of the USA team that was coached by Vanderbilt head coach Tim Corbin.

Price is expected to be one of the top picks in this June's amateur draft.

Record Watch

Two Vanderbilt records worth watching this season is the school's career strikeout mark and the career homer mark. David Price's 253 strikeouts is good for fifth best in school annals and trails record holder Mike Willis by 97 strikeouts. Pedro Alvarez is currently outside of the Top 10 homer list but with another strong showing he would move into the top five entering his junior season.

Broadcast Info

Nearly every Vanderbilt home game will be available to watch for free online through All-Access. In addition, all 56 regular season games will be broadcast via the internet through Yahoo. For more information on that you can visit www.vucommodores.com. This season, ISP has joined forces with baseball flagship WNSR 560 AM to broadcast 44 regular season contests. Eric Jones will handle the play-by-play to start the season before handing off to Voice of the Commodores Joe Fisher once the men's basketball season concludes.

Six Commodore games are currently scheduled to be televised this year. College Sports Southeast will broadcast four games, the April 21st game against Tennessee at 6 p.m., the April 29th game against Florida at 1 p.m. and the May 18th and 19th games against LSU at 7 p.m. and noon CT respectively. Fox Sports South will broadcast the South Carolina game on March 31 at 3 p.m. The Sun Network will show the Florida contest on April 28 at 3 p.m.

Head Coach Tim Corbin

In four seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has raised expectations of the baseball program into one that is expected to be among the nations best on an annual basis.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

This past summer he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba in August. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee in September.

Those results were probably to be expected, as Corbin has taken Vanderbilt to heights it has rarely seen in its long baseball history.

His overall record of 144-95 (.602) is the fourth best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

Last year he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

With virtually the entire team back, Corbin knows the expectations are there to build upon that success and take the Commodores to their first College World Series in school history. It is a goal that he and his coaching staff are determined to achieve in the near future.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 29 players have been drafted over the last three years including 13 in 2005.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up a school-record 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) — all of which were bettered in 2004. Three different players earned conference Player of the Week honors (the most for VU in a single season), and the team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.

Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort instead of the product of one dominant player on the mound. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky University.

Corbin came to Vanderbilt following nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson.

During his time there (1994-2002) the Tigers had more victories than all but four programs. Clemson won more than 71 percent (434 wins, 172 losses) of its games, captured two Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles, made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament and reached the College World Series four times (1995, 1996, 2000, and 2002). The Tigers ended the 2002 season with their ninth consecutive top 25 finish and their sixth top 10 finish since 1994.

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin was head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. There he restarted a baseball program that laid dormant for several years. He directed Presbyterian College from NAIA to NCAA Division II status and had a 106-138 overall record. Along the way, the Blue Hose made three consecutive appearances in the South Atlantic playoffs (1991-93), and Corbin earned South Atlantic Coach of the Year honors in 1990.
