COACH DEREK GREENE

A dynamic recruiter, excellent tactician and passionate leader, Derek Greene officially was named the head coach of the Vanderbilt women's soccer program after the 2011 season, which he spent as the interim head coach for five months.

A 18-year veteran of collegiate women's soccer, Greene's coaching career has been highlighted by success at a number of schools in the southeast. As an assistant and associated head coach at Ole Miss, Greene helped lead the Rebels to their first three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a second-round appearance in 2003. Greene helped guide Ole Miss to seven consecutive SEC Tournament berths — including an SEC Western Division title and second-place overall finish in 2005 — and recruited four Freshman All-America selections to Oxford.

Greene got his start in coaching nearly 20 years ago with the Knoxville Stars Soccer Club. He developed a team that went from third to second to first in the Tennessee youth soccer ranks over a period of three years, and guided that program to a Region III semifinal appearance. Five years of club experience led Greene to a position with the University of Tennessee's new varsity women's soccer program in 1996.

After serving on staff at his alma mater for a year, Greene was named the head coach at Division II Carson-Newman College. In 2000, he led the Eagles to their first South Atlantic Conference semifinal appearance with a victory over nationally ranked Wingate.

Greene made his way back to the SEC in 2002 and immediately made his mark on the recruiting trail. Among the recruits he helped bring to Ole Miss was 2005 Freshman of the Year Jennifer Hance, a four-time All-SEC honoree who went on to play professionally. Team success once again followed Greene. The Rebels would advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2003 and 2005 while posting the fourth-highest conference winning percentage from 2002 to 2008. Ole Miss also boasted a 15-game unbeaten streak in conference play spanning the 2005 and 2006 seasons.

After helping Belmont to its best finish in the A-Sun in 2009, Greene was brought to Vanderbilt as coach Ronnie Woodard's top assistant.

Just weeks before the 2011 season, Woodard retired and Greene was elevated to interim head coach. Under Greene's direction the Commodores won eight games, including victories over SEC foes LSU and Arkansas.

Shortly after the season ended, athletic director David Williams named Greene head coach — just the fifth coach in program history.

In 2013, Greene guided a Commodores bunch that scored 35 goals — the most in a season since 2005. They also averaged 2.06 goals a game for their highest average in 13 seasons.

Greene and wife Gail reside in Nashville with their two sons, Max and Miller.

'DORES WEEKLY REPORT

The Commodores (5-8-1, 0-5-1 SEC) dropped their lone game last week — a 6-2 defeat to No. 10 Texas A&M.

Vanderbilt scored for the first time in nearly three weeks, snapping a four-game scoreless streak. Sophomore Simone Charley scored her fourth goal of the season in the ninth minute to tie the game at 1-1. Junior Erin Myers notched her first goal of the season and second of her career in the 38th minute to pull within 3-2 at halftime.

The Aggies pulled away with three goals in the second half. They finished with 35 shots to tie a season high. Amid the barrage of shots, Vanderbilt's freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami made a school-record 15 saves. It was the most saves by a Vanderbilt keeper since Christy Barringer made 15 stops on Oct. 17, 1992.

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE AND TENNESSEE

Vanderbilt hits the road this weekend to play Mississippi State at 7 p.m. on Friday and Tennessee at 5 p.m. on Sunday.

The Commodores are 13-3 all-time against Mississippi State and have won 10 of 11. The Bulldogs (3-10, 0-6) have lost six straight and haven't won an SEC game since Oct. 25, 2012. They are led by Shannen Jainudeen, who has a team-high six goals.

Tennessee hasn't lost to Vanderbilt in the last four meetings of the series, going 3-0-1. The teams are tied all-time 9-9-3, with Vanderbilt's last win coming in 2009. Tennessee is led by Hannah Wilkinson's four goals. Goalkeeper Jamie Simmons has made 54 saves and post six shutouts.

WINS UP

Vanderbilt already has more wins than it had all of last season. The Commodores needed just eight games to win five this fall. Last year, they finished the season 4-12-3 and entered league play 3-3-2. One more win will give Vanderbilt its most wins since the 2011 season when the team went 8-11.

'DORES SOLID AT HOME

Protecting the house, indeed. The Commodores are an impressive 4-1-1 at home this year. On Sunday, they suffered their first home loss, a 1-0 setback to Alabama. But they won their first four games before tying Auburn on Friday. The four wins are the most at home since 2011. The Commodores last started a season 4-0 at home in 2009.

STOUT FIRST HALF D'

Vanderbilt has allowed just four goals in the first half this year. Through the first 12 games, the Commodores were the only team in the SEC not to give up a first-half goal.

Missouri ended that streak with a goal in the first 24 seconds of the game. No. 10 Texas A&M, which leads the league with 37 goals, tacked on three in the first half against VU on Oct. 10.

Still, Vanderbilt has allowed just four goals against 95 first-half shots this season.

SHOOTING FRENZY

Vanderbilt put up some numbers that hadn't been seen in a while when it blanked Chattanooga 6-0 on Sunday, Sept. 14.

The 47 shots were nearly double the Commodores' previous season-high of 25 against Mercer and the most since Sept. 15, 2005 when they fired off 47 shots in a 1-0 win over Morehead State. In addition, sophomore forward Simone Charley's 10 shots against the Mocs tied for the second most in a single game.

OGUNSAMI TIES SCHOOL RECORD FOR SAVES

Vanderbilt freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami tied the school record with 15 saves against No. 10 Texas A&M on Oct. 10. It was the most saves by a Vanderbilt keeper since Christy Barringer made 15 stops on Oct. 17, 1992.

The Cherry Hill, N.J., native has quickly risen to the top of the SEC charts. The 5-foot-11 Ogunsami leads the league in saves (84) and saves per game (6.00) and is fifth in save percentage (.792). She has started all 14 games and has posted three shutouts.

SIMONE SAYS

Sophomore Simone Charley returns as the team's top scorer and points leader after scoring five goals, dishing out five assists and notching 15 points in 2013.

The two-sport athlete from Hoover, Ala., was named an SEC All-Freshman selection last year. So far, she has continued her stellar play with four goals and three assists.

She scored against Cincinnati and scored in back-to-back games, against Chattanooga and Georgia. She ended Vanderbilt's four-game scoring drought when she scored in the ninth minute against Texas A&M. She has assisted twice on goals by freshman Colby Ciarrocca, including the game-winner against Cincinnati. Charley is also tied for fourth in the SEC with 45 shots. Her 10 shots against Chattanooga were the second-most in a single game in program history.

She kept busy in the spring, too, by breaking the school record five times in the triple jump. She finished ninth at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships to earn second team All-American honors. At the USATF Junior Championship in June, she broke the school record again with a leap of 43-2.5 to finish third.

EXPERIENCED GROUP

The Commodores bring a wealth of experience for a team full of freshmen and sophomores, which count for 16 of the squad's 30 players. Twenty-one letterwinners return from 2013, including nine starters. The trio of forward/defender Kelsey Tillman, defender Cherrelle Jarrett and midfielder Erin Myers (a team captain) started all 19 games.

SEC All-Freshman forward Simone Charley started 16 of 17 games before suffering a MCL sprain. Forward/midfielder Sasha Gray started 18 of 19 games. Midfielders Jamie Kator and Andie Lakin each made 16 starts. Defender Taylor Richardson made 14 starts. As a freshman, Olivia Liebman started 13 games in goal after Alexa Levick suffered an ACL injury. In 2013, Vanderbilt scored 37 goals for its highest single-season scoring output since 2005. The Commodores also averaged 2.06 goals a game — their highest average in 13 years.

SEC EXPECTATIONS

Three Commodores were tabbed as SEC preseason players to watch — sophomore forwards Simone Charley and Sasha Gray and redshirt freshman midfielder Lydia Simmons.

As a team, the Commodores were picked to finish 13th in the league by the SEC coaches. They finished ahead of Mississippi State, which VU defeated for its lone conference win of 2013.

GRANADOS WINS GOLD

Redshirt sophomore Lina Granados did not play for the Commodores in 2013 in order to pursue a dream of representing her country in international play. Granados, a 5-foot-6 forward, helped the Columbian U-20 team win the gold medal in the 2013 Bolivarian Games last November. Granados, who first started playing with the team when she was 15, and Colombia defeated Venezuela in penalty kicks of the tournament in Peru.

In January, Granados and the U-20 team narrowly missed qualifying for the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup. Colombia finished third in the South American qualifier in Uruguay, falling short by one point as the top two teams qualify. Granados also spent part of this summer on the training roster of the full national team. Granados was born in Bogota, Colombia before her family moved to Costa Rica and then Ashburn, Va., where she has lived since she was five.

CIARROCCA, OSWALD DONE FOR SEASON

Vanderbilt forwards Colby Ciarrocca and Ashley Oswald both suffered season-ending injuries in the last month.

Colby Ciarrocca's breakout freshman season has come to abrupt halt after a season-ending injury on Oct. 5. Ciarrocca broke her collarbone after landing hard on her right shoulder after a collision with a Missouri defender. Ciarrocca will undergo surgery later in the month. She is expected to be out for four to five months.

Ciarrocca is currently the team's leading scorer, as she picked up five goals in the team's first eight games. She made four starts and was named the SEC Freshman of the Week and the Tennessee Sportswriters Association's Player of the Week on Sept. 2.

The Montgomery, N.J., native was honored after she scored her first two career goals, including the game-winning goal, in a 3-2 overtime win against Cincinnati on Aug. 29. Two days later, at Memphis, she scored twice more in a 2-1 win. She scored her fifth goal of the season against Chattanooga on Sept. 14.

Senior forward/midfielder Ashley Oswald is out for the rest of the season after doctors discovered a blood clot on her lung on Sept. 15.

Oswald experienced discomfort hours after scoring her first goal of the season and dishing out a personal-best two assists in a 6-0 victory over Chattanooga on Sept. 14. Oswald is undergoing treatment and remains with the team. The native of Pembroke Pines, Fla., played in 58 games with 16 starts and had four goals, six assists and 14 points.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Jamie Kator and Ashley Oswald met at the same spot, both determined to be the player to deliver a go-ahead goal for Vanderbilt.

But on a hot and muggy Friday night, it was Kator's time to be the star. And the junior came through. In the 67th minute, Kator scored on a penalty kick to lift the Commodores to a 1-0 victory at the Vanderbilt Soccer/Lacrosse Complex in the season opener for both teams.

"When I stepped up Ashley Oswald was there too and we kind of had a silent exchange like, 'Who is going to get this one?'" Kator said. "But it came down to me. I saw the keeper moving and I knew it was just so easy. So I hit it straight, hit it hard and it went in. It was just really exciting."

Kator scored the first goal for Vanderbilt in 2014 after forward Simone Charley drew a foul in the box. Charley, who scored the lone goal in the Commodores' exhibition victory against UAB last week, fell to the ground after she was tangled with Mercer's Rachel Buffalo. The two were fighting for a loose ball and Buffalo was whistled for a foul just inside the box.

That set up Kator, who scored two goals last year. The striker stepped up to the penalty kick spot just 12 yards from the goal. She saw Mercer goalkeeper Christina Mursuli lean to her left and fired a laser down the middle of the goal and to the right of Mursuli.

As they did in their exhibition victory over UAB, the Commodores (1-0) dominated possession of the game.

With eight shots on goal, Vanderbilt had several chances to score early but the Mercer goalie duo of Maggie Cropp and Mursuli made seven saves. In fact, Vanderbilt outshot Mercer 25-4, including an impressive 14-1 advantage in the second half.

After the game, head coach Derek Greene reminded his team that they had a similar shooting effort in the 2013 season opener. But this time the result was different.

"Opening game last year we outshot UAB 13-1 in the second half and lost that game," Greene said. "So we did what we needed to do. We grinded it out, held onto the lead late. I'm proud of our kids. They deserved it 100 percent."

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – In the season opener, the Vanderbilt women's soccer team fired off a bevy of shots.

On Sunday, opportunities were far fewer.

Less than 48 hours after opening the 2014 season with a win, the Commodores mustered just three shots in a 3-0 loss to Rutgers in the first road game of the season. The Scarlet Knights scored all three goals in the second half and outshot Vanderbilt 19-3.

After recording 25 shots in a 1-0 victory over Mercer on Friday, Vanderbilt faced a quick turnaround. The team boarded a plane early Saturday afternoon and flew nearly 900 miles to play Rutgers, an NCAA Tournament team a year ago.

The Commodores (1-1) and the Scarlet Knights (2-0) played an evenly match first half. Neither team scored over the first 45 minutes. Rutgers outshot Vanderbilt 6-2 in the opening half but freshman Christiana Ogunsami, playing in her native state of New Jersey, made three saves.

Forward Simone Charley had the team's best chance at scoring in the 14th minute. She kept playing through a play that looked like an easy pickup for Rutgers goalie Casey Murphy and knocked the ball loose. But her header was cleared away by a Rutgers defender at the goal line.

After halftime, Rutgers proved to be the aggressor, outshooting Vanderbilt 13-1. Stefanie Scholz broke up a scoreless tie in the 51st minute on a goal to the right of a diving Ogunsami. It was the first goal Ogunsami had allowed in her first 141 minutes of collegiate action.

Nearly 15 minutes later, Rutgers added insurance with the first of two goals by Amy Pietrangelo. After Rachel Cole's header hit the post, Pietrangelo chipped in the rebound. In the 89th minute, with the Commodores stretching the field in hopes of a desperation goal, Pietrangelo added the final goal of the game on a breakaway attempt that slipped into the bottom right corner.

Ogunsami made a total of six saves, including knocking away breakaway attempt in the opening minutes of the game.

Along with Ogunsami (Cherry Hill, N.J.), junior midfielder Andie Lakin (Wayne, N.J.) and freshman forward Colby Ciarrocca (Montgomery, N.J.) returned to their home state.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – With no timeouts, college soccer coaches have to rely on their players to stick together and rally each other when faced with adverse situations.

On Friday night, Vanderbilt coach Derek Greene witnessed his team grow up a little.

Trailing by a goal late in the second half, the Commodores were determined to fight back against a scrappy, physical Cincinnati team. Behind the first two career goals of freshman Colby Ciarrocca, including the game-winner in overtime, Vanderbilt rallied for a 3-2 win over the Bearcats at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. In rallying past Cincinnati (2-1), Vanderbilt avoided a second straight loss and appeared to learn from its setback at Rutgers on Sunday when three second-half goals spelled doom.

"I really think they thought, 'We're not going to go through this again. We're still going to get this and we're going to fight for this,'" Greene said. "I think it is just a belief in each other and trust in each other... We have some really good players right now. We're still a little bit young but the determination on their faces when we went down 2-1, you could see it."

Coming off the bench, Ciarrocca tied the game on a header in the 81st minute, thanks to a brilliant cross by her roommate and fellow freshman Cristina De Zeeuw. Standing in the box, Ciarrocca out-jumped a Cincinnati defender and headed a shot just inside the post.

She won the game 12 minutes later. After Erin Myers forced a turnover in the midfield, the junior captain sent a pass up the field to Simone Charley. The sophomore, who scored the first goal of the game, laid the ball off to her left for Ciarrocca. The forward then put on a move to separate from one defender and fired a missile past Cincinnati goalkeeper Natalie Smith. The Commodores celebrated their first win in overtime since a 3-2 double overtime victory at Arkansas on Oct. 5, 2012.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Colby Ciarrocca continued her magnificent play Sunday at Memphis, helping lead Vanderbilt to a 2-1 victory and its second win in a row.

After coming off the bench to score two goals Friday, including the game-winner, to lift the Commodores' to a 3-2 overtime win against Cincinnati, the freshman did it again Sunday.

The Montgomery, N.J., native scored the first two goals of the game against Memphis to lead the Commodores (3-1) to their first road win of the season, while handing the Lady Tigers (1-1-1) their first defeat. The two goals by Ciarrocca were the only of the game for the Commodores, but they had a pair of near misses, hitting the crossbar and post on two second-half shots by Lydia Simmons and Andie Lakin, respectively.

"It was a gritty performance," Vanderbilt coach Derek Greene said. "We knew going in that Memphis was a very good, hardworking team with really good players. We were very confident going into the game. One concern we had was that they had Friday night off and didn't play, so that was a concern in how we would finish the game. I couldn't be more proud of the effort, determination and heart that we showed to fight for this win on the road against a really good team."

Ciarrocca scored on her only two shot attempts, the first coming at the 17:45 mark and the second at 30:38. She was unassisted on her first goal and was setup by Simone Charley on her second as Ciarrocca buried a shot into the left side of the net.

"We are just so proud of Colby," Greene said. "She absolutely deserves this. She was our fittest player in preseason this year and it has just taken a little time to get her confidence up at this collegiate level. I'm just so proud of her and I know her teammates are. She's such a humble kid and I'm just so happy that her hard work is paying off."

Ciarrocca replaced fellow freshman Cristina De Zeeuw at the 14:29 mark. Meanwhile, Vanderbilt's defense was rock solid behind another good game by freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami. She made five saves to earn her third win in net.

The Tigers' only goal came at the 65:34 mark by Valerie Sanderson, who was assisted by Kaitlyn Atkins.

Both teams had 10 shots. The Commodores had three shots in the first half and seven in the second. Sasha Gray led Vanderbilt with three shots.

HOUSTON – Seconds separated the Vanderbilt soccer team from their third straight win.

But victory was snatched away from the Commodores.

Rice scored in the 90th minute to force overtime and then scored the game-winner in the opening minute of overtime to hand Vanderbilt a 2-1 loss on Friday night.

“We played with some good effort but the soccer was never there,” head coach Derek Greene said. “Our speed of play was bad and we just weren’t sharp. I am not sure why we were so off from the start but we need to fix it quickly to bounce back Sunday against a good North Texas team.”

The Commodores took a 1-0 lead in the 37th minute. Senior defender Cherrelle Jarrett headed in a goal off a free kick by Jamie Kator, who recorded her first assist of the season. It was the first goal of the year for Jarrett and the fourth of the captain’s career.

It appeared Vanderbilt (3-2) was closing in on its third straight win for its longest winning streak in three years. But the Commodores failed to close out Rice (3-1-1). Vanderbilt was outshot 17-10, including 10-6 in the second half. Sophomores Simone Charley and Sasha Gray led Vanderbilt with two shots apiece. Charley had a chance to push the lead to 2-0 but her shot bounced off the post.

Greene said Rice sent a bevy of players up to the goal toward the end of the game and the increase in attackers worked for the Owls. With 39 seconds left, Jenny Fichera scored from close range in heavy traffic to tie the game and send it to overtime. Less than a minute into the extra period, Nia Stallings ended the game when she scored after a header from Lauren Hughes.

The Commodores were outshot 17-10, with six opportunities after halftime.

Vanderbilt freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami made her fifth career start and made five saves.

DENTON, Texas – A slow start in the first half stymied the Vanderbilt soccer team from leaving their Texas road trip with a win.

The Commodores suffered a 1-0 loss at North Texas on Sunday for their second straight loss. A goal in the 69th minute for the undefeated Mean Green was the difference but Vanderbilt coach Derek Greene said his team’s start to the game proved more costly.

“This is a tough loss,” Greene said. “We have to do a better job coming out with more passion in the first half. We moved the ball well but there was no desire to win in the first half.”

Coming off a tough 2-1 overtime loss at Rice on Friday, Vanderbilt (3-3) mustered just three shots in the opening half against North Texas. The Commodores managed 10 shots in the second half. But it wasn’t enough as they had just four shots on goal. Sasha Gray led the team with five shots. Simone Charley had three shots, including two on goal and one that hit the post. Jamie Kator and freshman Colby Ciarrocca, the reigning SEC Freshman of the Week, each took two shots.

North Texas (5-0) stayed undefeated on a goal midway through the second half. Molly Grisham scored on a shot outside the penalty box that soared into the top right corner and well beyond the reach of Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami for the game-winner. Ogunsami made six saves, just one shy of tying a career-high.

“The second half we imposed our will on the game and dominated every phase other than the scoreboard,” Greene said. “There were some really bright spots and quality chances in the second half, but we played down to their level in the first half and that ultimately cost us the game. That’s unacceptable and we have to learn from it.”

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Gena Inbusch showed off her range with her first goal of the season – the game-winner in a 1-0 victory over crosstown rival Lipscomb on Friday night at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. Inbusch's goal in the 43rd minute was enough for Vanderbilt to snap a two-game losing streak and stay undefeated at home this season.

Both Oswald and Inbusch came off the bench to provide a spark for the Commodores (4-3), who are 3-0 at home this year.

Off a pass from fellow senior Cherrelle Jarrett, Oswald immediately felt pressure from a Lipscomb defender as she neared the edge of the penalty box. Oswald, picking up her first assist of the season, surged forward to defend against the tackle and the ball popped over to Inbusch. The 5-foot-10 forward from Upper Arlington, Ohio took one dribble and fired a shot with her left foot from 18 yards out that breezed by a defender and soared into top right corner. It was her eighth career goal.

The Commodores fired off 15 shots, including eight on goal. Sophomore Simone Charley led the way with six shots, including three on goal. Lipscomb (4-3-1) had eight shots, but just two came after halftime as Vanderbilt controlled possession. The loss snapped a program-best three-game losing streak for the Lady Bisons.

“We had a little chip on our shoulder being from the same city,” Oswald said. “Throughout the full 90 both teams gritted it out. Our coaches said in the first half we were a bit more clean and crisp. We had to do what he had to do to get points on the scoreboard. They were a definitely a good team and it was tough but we gritted it out until the final minute and it was a great win.”

Freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunnsami, who entered the game with a SEC-high 30 saves, made three saves to post her second career shutout. Through seven games, Vanderbilt hasn't allowed a first-half goal.

The win snapped a two-game winning streak and gave Vanderbilt some much-needed confidence after a pair of one-goal losses on the road last weekend to Rice and North Texas.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – The Vanderbilt soccer team capped off non-conference play with a scoring outburst the program hasn't seen in seven years.

With Southeastern Conference play set to begin next weekend, the Commodores boosted their confidence with a 6-0 win over Chattanooga on Sunday afternoon at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. Six players scored for Vanderbilt, which last scored six goals in a game on Sept. 9, 2007 against Tennessee Tech.

The Commodores used 28 players and fired off an astonishing 47 shots while Chattanooga (1-6) had just one. Through eight games, Vanderbilt (5-3) already has more wins than they had all of last season.

“I told the team before the game I'm not sure what to expect from Chattanooga. We didn't have a ton of information on them. But we knew what to expect from us,” coach Derek Greene said. “It took about 10 minutes to get flowing in that game but once we did, we never looked back. I think the fact we could score some quality goals and do some things in the attacking third we haven't done. Could have had more but we stuck six in and that is really good. We were very aggressive going forward and we never looked back.”

Simone Charley broke open the scoring with her second goal of the season in the 20th minute. Seventy-seconds later Colby Ciarrocca netted her team-high fifth goal and the rout was on.

In the 29th minute, off an assist from Charley, Ashley Oswald netted her first goal of the season. Oswald also added two assists to tie Charley for the team-high with three for the season. Later in the half, Oswald then recorded her second assist in as many games when her shot bounced off the crossbar and right to fellow Gena Inbusch, who scored her second goal in as many games.

Oswald also dropped off a pass to redshirt junior Taylor Elliott, who wrapped up the first-half scoring by booting her first career goal with 13 seconds before halftime for a 5-0 lead. Sophomore Sasha Gray capped off the scoring in the 47th minute with her first goal of the season.

ATHENS, Ga. – On the road, against a ranked team in the Southeastern Conference opener, the Vanderbilt soccer team pounced first and had chances to increase its lead.

But the Commodores couldn't manufacture the same energy after halftime, allowing three goals in a 3-1 loss to No. 24 Georgia on Sunday at UGA Soccer Stadium in the Southeastern Conference opener.

An early first-half goal by Simone Charley was the only score for the Commodores, who outshot Georgia 11-8 at halftime. But the Bulldogs were the aggressor in the second half, outshooting Vanderbilt 14-5 in the second half.

Vanderbilt (5-4, 0-1 SEC) jumped ahead 1-0 in the seventh minute. Charley scored her third goal of the season by depositing a shot from the top of the box into the bottom left corner. It was the first Vanderbilt goal against Georgia since 2007 – a span of seven games and more than 520 minutes.

In total in the first half, Vanderbilt put six shots on goal but only one went in as Hogrell made four saves. The Commodores also had five corner kicks compared to Georgia's two in the first half (those numbers would flip in the second half).

The Bulldogs (6-1-1, 1-0-1) came out of halftime more aggressive and rallied to win its fifth straight game. They knotted up the game on a putback by Marion Crowder in the 59th minute. VU freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsumi made an initial save but couldn't hop on the loose ball before Crowder swooped in.

Kelsey Killean scored the game-winner in the 76th minute as Vanderbilt was trying to clear a Georgia corner kick. The Bulldogs then sealed the victory in the 86th minute with Crowder's second goal. Ogunsumi made her ninth start and tied a career-high with nine saves.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - After holding strong against a flurry of Auburn shots in the early going, the Vanderbilt soccer team battled back to stay undefeated at home on Friday night.

Neither team scored but the Commodores picked up their first point of the young SEC season with a 0-0 double overtime tie against the visiting Tigers in the conference home opener.

"We were lucky not to be down 1-0, I told the team, in the first 15 minutes," Vanderbilt coach Derek Greene said. "Honestly, I've seen a lot of video on Auburn and I think that's the best game they've played all year... I haven't seen them be that mobile in the attacking half of the field so credit to them. But really proud of our team's response. It was a really good response by us. I felt like after the first 15 (minutes) we were unlucky not to win the game. I think we created a ton of chances. But, again, credit to Auburn. It was a really good game."

In front of a lively, student-heavy crowd of 876 - a season-high - at the VU Soccer Complex, Vanderbilt (5-4-1, 0-1-1 SEC) came alive after a sluggish first half. Thirteen of the Commodores' 15 shots came after halftime, including 11 in the second half. Jamie Kator led the way with four shots, including three on goal. Kator had several good looks but Auburn goalkeeper Alyse Scott snuffed out every chance with a season-high 10 saves.

Vanderbilt's goalkeeper was up to the challenge, too. At one point in the first half, Auburn (6-3-1, 0-1-1) outshot Vanderbilt 7-0. But VU freshman goalie Christiana Ogunsumi didn't let any of Auburn's 21 shots sneak by her. Ogunsumi set a career-high with nine saves and posted her third shutout of the season - and fourth for the team.

She made a couple big saves late in regulation, diving to her left to snatch a couple shots. She also snuffed out a possible finish on an Auburn corner kick late in the game by just using all of her 5-foot-11 frame to pluck the ball out of the air.

"She just goes up and snags a ball out of the air that you don't see very often in the women's game," Greene said. "Her game management was good. We gave her some balls under pressure a couple times and she dealt with it very well. So I'm really proud of her and she is developing so well. (Assistant coach) Sebastian (Vecchio) is doing a great job with her. She comes to work every day with the other goalkeepers with Sebastian and they're just bringing an effort and they're all making each other better."

It was the first tie for both teams, each recording a point in the SEC standings.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – From start to finish on Sunday night, Vanderbilt soccer coach Derek Greene believed his team was the better squad in all phases on Sunday.

Unfortunately a play that lasted just seconds sunk the Commodores in a 1-0 loss to Alabama at the VU Soccer Complex. It was Vanderbilt's first loss at home this year after starting with four wins and a tie.

Meryl van Dongen's corner kick was deflected and went right to Jordan Meier, who booted in a goal in the 61st minute. Vanderbilt outshot Alabama 25-19, with nine players taking shots. The Commodores (5-5-1, 0-2-1 SEC) also manufactured eight corner kicks. But Vanderbilt was held scoreless for the second straight game and is still searching for its first SEC win of the season.

"I'm really proud of the team," Greene said. "My thoughts are it is the game of soccer and it really stinks for our kids right now. We should have won that game. We had no business losing it. Sometimes it happens like that. I'm just proud of the effort. They brought it for 90 minutes tonight. We were clearly the better team. Dominated every phase of the game – every phase. Unfortunately, the scoreboard was the main one that matters. And they stuck a set piece in. We told the team set pieces were going to be important. They're dangerous on those and they live for them and certainly it cost us tonight."

Sophomore Simone Charley led the Commodores with seven shots against Alabama (7-3-1, 2-1). Midfielder Lydia Simmons added five shots, with a team-high three on goal and freshman Colby Ciarrocca fired off four shots. The Commodores haven't scored in more than 283 minutes. On Friday, they tied with Auburn in double overtime and their last goal came in the seventh minute against Georgia a week ago.

In goal, Christiana Ogunsam made eight saves, one shy of a career-high. The freshman goalkeeper and Vanderbilt's stout back line defense hadn't allowed a goal since the 86th minute of a loss to Georgia one week ago for a span of more than 174 minutes. The Commodores extended their SEC best streak to 11 games this season without allowing a first-half goal.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – After an evenly played first half, Vanderbilt soccer coach Derek Greene believes his team played a second half worthy of coming away victorious.

Unfortunately the breaks didn't go the Commodores' way.

For the third straight game, the Vanderbilt soccer team was held scoreless in a 1-0 loss at Arkansas on Friday night.

The Commodores failed to score in losing back-to-back games and falling below .500 for the first time this season. The Commodores (5-6-1, 0-3-1 SEC) are looking for their first SEC victory of the season along with their first goal since the seventh minute against Georgia on Sept. 21.

"Anybody that has spent time around soccer will tell you soccer can be a cruel sport sometimes and we are feeling that now," he said. "The luck just isn't going our way, but I am very proud of our effort and play. We out-worked and out-hustled an Arkansas team that takes a lot of pride in having a blue collar effort. We won most of the physical battles and played some tremendous soccer. I am very proud of our entire team for the work they put in and the belief they have."

After Vanderbilt once again didn't allow a goal in the first half – the only team in the SEC to stake that claim through 12 games — Arkansas scored the lone goal in the 50th minute. Hailey Pescatore scored her first goal of the season after Arkansas (6-2-4, 2-0-2) took advantage of a rebound when a shot bounced off the crossbar.

The Commodores nearly tied the game in the 60th minute but Simone Charley's shot hit the crossbar and Gena Inbusch's rebound attempt went wide left. Vanderbilt took nine shots, including four on goal.

Vanderbilt will try to bounce back on Sunday when it stays on the road and plays at Missouri at 1 p.m. in a game broadcast on SEC Network +.

"We have a lot of SEC games left," Greene said, "and we will take some grit and fight with us to Missouri on Sunday and hope to create our own luck through even harder work than we put in tonight."

COLUMBIA, Mo. — A goal in the first minute was too much to overcome for the Vanderbilt soccer team on the road.

The Commodores suffered a 2-0 loss to Missouri on Sunday afternoon for their third straight loss. Vanderbilt (5-7-1, 0-4-1 SEC) surrendered a goal just 24 seconds in to the game — it was the first time all season the team has given up a first-half goal. Missouri tacked on a goal in the 57th minute for insurance.

Vanderbilt has gone four straight games without scoring, last notching a goal in the seventh minute against Georgia on Sept. 21. The Commodores have been held scoreless for the last 463 minutes.

Vanderbilt mustered eight shots, including five that were on goal. Sophomore Sasha Gray led the way with three shots, including two shots on goal. Arkansas (9-2-2, 4-1) fired off 17 shots as Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami made seven saves. The freshman leads the SEC with 69 saves.

"Missouri is very good going forward and we knew that," Vanderbilt coach Derek Greene said. "We battled hard and played well, but give Missouri credit for finishing their chances. We didn't give them much and were solid along the back line today. I think the stats are a bit misleading in that we had the ball for good stretches in the game, but ultimately we need to get the ball in the back of the net again. I am proud of the effort, but not the end result. We gave them the first goal early on and could have let down the road against a quality team, but we didn't."

The Commodores head home to host No. 9 Texas A&M at 6 p.m. on Friday in a game televised on the SEC Network.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — In the week leading up to Friday's game Vanderbilt soccer coach Derek Greene proclaimed that No. 10 Texas A&M was probably one of the best SEC teams he had seen in a long time.

The Aggies lived up to the billing on Friday.

The Commodores scored their first two goals in nearly three weeks but they weren't enough in a 6-2 loss to Texas A&M at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex.

The Aggies (11-2-1, 5-1 SEC) scored in the fourth minute. The shot barely crossed the goal line as Vanderbilt defender Andie Lakin tried to clear it out but Janae Cousineau's rebound shot started the scoring.

Vanderbilt sophomore Simone Charley knotted the game up in the ninth minute. The forward soared a long distance shot off the top of the crossbar and in, as once again it just eclipsed the goal line. It was Charley's fourth goal of the season and the Commodores' first since the seventh minute (also by Charley) against Georgia on Sept. 21.

But 34 seconds later, A&M took the lead for good with another putback goal. The Aggies added another just minutes for a 3-1 lead.

The Commodores (5-8-1, 0-5-1), however, didn't give up. Junior captain Erin Myers scored her first goal of the season to cut the lead to 3-2 in the 38th minute. Myers blasted a shot just from outside the penalty box and into the top right corner.

Out of halftime, starting in the 50th minute, the Aggies extended their one-goal lead with two goals in three minutes. Vanderbilt never recovered and suffered its fourth straight loss.
