Comfortable Around 4th Down Territory

Georgia has not been afraid to go for it on fourth down this season as it ranks second in the SEC with a 78% conversion rate at 7-for-9. Last year, Georgia was 4-for-9 (44%) on fourth down attempts. The Commodores rank third at 73% (8-for-11). Georgia's opponents have been successful 60% of the time on fourth down this season at 6-for-10 while Vanderbilt's foes are 70% (7-for-10).

Wilson Among SEC Tackle Leaders

Junior ILB Ramik Wilson is second in the SEC with 61 tackles in six games. The Tampa, Fla., native had a career-high 15 tackles, including a sack, in the overtime win at Tennessee. To put that in perspective, Wilson appeared in 18 games and had 10 total tackles coming into this season.

Turnover Margin

The Bulldogs are minus-four in turnover margin this year, which ranks 14th in the SEC and 103rd nationally. Meanwhile, Vanderbilt ranks 11th in the SEC and 85th nationally at minus-two.

Last week, the Bulldogs had four miscues versus No. 25 Missouri. The Tigers lead the SEC in this category and are tied for fourth nationally at plus-nine. Vanderbilt was off last week and its most recent game was against Missouri, and they had one turnover in a 51-28 loss in Nashville.

ON DECK: Open (vs. No. 22 Florida, Nov. 2)

Saturday, Oct. 26 will be Georgia's second bye week of the year. The Bulldogs had their first week without a game between their wins over #6 South Carolina and North Texas. The Bulldogs are 15-4 under Mark Richt following an open date.

When the team returns to action, Georgia will travel to Jacksonville, Fla., for its annual meeting with Florida. The Bulldogs have won their last two games over the Gators. Prior to that, Florida had taken 18 of the last 21 contests. In 2012, Todd Gurley led Georgia's attack with 118 yards rushing and a touchdown. Defensively, current Pittsburgh Steeler Jarvis Jones was named the Walter Camp National Player of the Week after racking up 13 tackles, including three sacks and 4.5 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Georgia-Vanderbilt Series

Georgia owns a 53-18-2 edge in the series with Vanderbilt. The Bulldogs have won the last six games in the series and 17 of the past 18. Georgia is 24-7-1 all-time at Vanderbilt Stadium. The Commodores' last victory in the series came in 2006 in Athens, 24-22. Georgia has won the last 10 meetings in Nashville while the Commodores last home win over the Bulldogs came in 1991, 27-25.

SEC Record Watch For Total Offense & TD Passes

Senior quarterback Aaron Murray has two more SEC career records that are within reach Saturday. Currently, he ranks second in Total Offense and Touchdown Passes. He has 12,203 yards of total offense, trailing Tim Tebow (Florida 2006-09) by just 29 yards. This season, Murray ranks second in Total Offense in the SEC at 317.0 ypg behind only Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M) at 377.0 ypg.

The SEC record for Career TD passes is 114 by Danny Wuerffel (Florida 1993-96). Murray has 112 TD passes entering the Vanderbilt game including an SEC-best 17 this year.

Going Green In The Running Game

Georgia's current tailback options feature a pair of freshmen in J.J. Green and Brendan Douglas. They have filled in the past two games for injured sophomore stars Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall. Gurley has been out since the win over No. 6 LSU on Sept. 28 when he went down with an ankle injury in the first quarter. Marshall was lost for the year with an ACL injury in the first quarter of the UT game.

Since being thrust in to a feature role, the 5-9, 183-pound Green has 29 carries for 216 yards (7.4 average). Not bad for a guy who arrived on campus last January and was listed as an "athlete." Bulldog coaches initially considered him as a cornerback or wide receiver and then in the spring, he got an opportunity at tailback and showed promise.

Most recently, Green tallied 87 yards on 12 carries (7.3 avg.), including a career-long 57-yarder against No. 25 Missouri. The 5-11, 202-pound Douglas finished with 14 carries for a career-high 70 yards. They have proven to be capable options in the passing game too. Douglas picked up his first career TD reception against the Tigers, a 7-yarder, and he ended the day with six catches for 43 yards. Green managed five receptions for 42 yards versus the Tigers. In the road win over UT, Green responded with a career-high 129 yards on 17 attempts while Douglas collected 25 yards rushing and a 32-yard reception.

A Ray Of Sunshine Up Front

Junior DE Ray Drew ranks third in the SEC with a team-best five sacks, and they have come in the last three games (#6 LSU, at Tennessee, No. 25 Missouri). He entered this season with 0.5 career sacks. Most recently, he collected seven tackles and two sacks against the Tigers. For the year, he has 22 tackles.

Next Man Up

Georgia came into its game versus Tennessee on Oct. 5 missing its top tailback in Todd Gurley (ankle) and top receiver in Malcolm Mitchell (ACL). During the game against the Volunteers, the Bulldogs lost tailback Keith Marshall and receivers Justin Scott-Wesley and Michael Bennett to right knee injuries. Georgia also has not had starting safety Tray Matthews (hamstring) the last two contests. Head coach Mark Richt announced that Marshall and Scott-Wesley will miss the rest of the year with ACL injuries while Bennett and Matthews should return later this season. Georgia did not have any major injuries against No. 25 Missouri.

Youth Movement

The Bulldogs have played 14 true freshman this season. Seven of those have started (FS Tray Matthews, CB Brendan Langley, OLB Leonard Floyd, FS Quincy Mauger, CB Shaq Wiggins, ILB Reggie Carter, TB J.J. Green). Floyd now has four sacks on the year after picking up another against No. 25 Missouri. Ten of the 14 true freshmen play defense. This is tied for third nationally with LSU while Texas A&M (17) and UCLA (15) are the top two in the category.

Murray Sets SEC All-Time Passing Mark

With a 24-yard strike to Chris Conley on a 4th-and-4 situation at Tennessee, senior QB Aaron Murray became the SEC's all-time leader in passing yardage. He now has 11,915 passing yards, which passes former Bulldog David Greene who held the conference and school records at 11,528. Last year, Murray ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency at 174.82. In 2011, Murray graduated with a degree in Psychology after posting a GPA of 3.3. He is now taking undergraduate classes towards another degree.

In his 32 wins as a starter, Murray has 88 TDs to just 18 INTs. Murray is the SEC's leading active player in total offensive yards (12,203), completions (819), TD responsibility (124), TD passes (112) and passing yards (11,915, No. 2 nationally among active FBS QBs).

Here are some of Murray's career highlights:

- Became the SEC's all-time leader in passing yards after completing 19-of-35 for 196 yards and three touchdowns in the overtime win at Tennessee
- Two-time Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week after wins over #6 South Carolina and #6 LSU in 2013
- First QB in SEC history to have three consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons
- Matched career-high 427 passing yards and 5 TD passes in 45-31 win over #23 Nebraska in 2013 Capital One Bowl
- Directed game-tying 75-yard drive in the last 1:54 of the 2013 Tennessee game to force overtime, doing it without his top two running backs and three of his top receivers due to injuries

Gurley and Marshall Injured, Frosh Emerge

In 2012, true freshmen roommates and North Carolina natives Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall became Georgia's weapons in the backfield.

The pair picked up where they had left off during the first three games of 2013. Gurley, who has hit the century mark 11 times in his career, and Marshall combined for more than 100 yards and at least one touchdown in those contests. However, Gurley went down with an ankle injury in the second quarter during the win over #6 LSU and Marshall responded with a career-high 20 carries for 96 yards. Then, Marshall injured his right knee in the first quarter of the Tennessee game after carrying the ball five times for 33 yards. Both missed the matchup versus #25 Missouri.

Following Marshall's injury versus the Vols and with Gurley sidelined, the Bulldogs have called on freshmen tailbacks J.J. Green and Brendan Douglas. Green responded with a career-high 129 yards on 17 attempts as the featured back against Tennessee. He got his first start against Missouri and 87 yards while also having five catches for 42 yards. Douglas had his first rushing touchdown to go with a 32-yard reception against the Vols. His first career catch came on a 3rd-and-6 situation on Georgia's game-tying drive in the fourth quarter. Coming off the bench against Missouri, Douglas had 70 yards on the ground and six catches for 43 yards, including his first career receiving touchdown.

In the win over #6 LSU, Gurley had eight carries for 73 yards (9.1 avg.) before leaving early in the second quarter because of an ankle injury. For the year, Gurley is averaging 112.5 yds/g as he has tallied 450 yards on 71 attempts. Marshall had 246 yards on 56 attempts this season before being sidelined for the rest of the year with his ACL injury. He was also a threat in the receiving game with eight catches for 111 yards in 2013.

Big Guys Up Front

In five of the Bulldogs' first six games, Georgia's starting unit for the offensive line has been: senior Kenarious Gates at LT, senior Chris Burnette at RG, senior Dallas Lee at LG, junior David Andrews at C and junior Kolton Houston at RT. The unit has kept the Bulldogs at No. 2 in the SEC in total offense (517.3/g). Burnette was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week after the Tennessee game after grading out at 82 percent with six dominator blocks and four knockdowns. Houston moved over to LG in the win over #6 South Carolina as sophomore John Theus got the nod at RT. Georgia's offensive line has only allowed three sacks in the last four games after allowing six in the first two contests. Houston got his first shot to play for the Bulldogs after he was ruled eligible after a three-year battle with the NCAA (For more on Houston, check out the story at <http://gado.gs/1xu>).

Opponent	Points	Total Offense (Rushing/Passing)	Sacks
@ #8 Clemson (L)	35	545 (222/323)	4
#6 South Carolina (W)	41	536 (227/309)	2
North Texas (W)	45	641 (191/450)	0
#6 LSU (W)	44	494 (196/298)	0

#25 Missouri (L)	26	454 (164/290)	2

Developing Fresh Targets

One of the keys to Aaron Murray's success has been his passing efficiency, and his ability to spread the ball around. The matchup with Tennessee proved to be especially costly for the receiving corps. During the contest, the Bulldogs lost redshirt sophomore SE Justin Scott-Wesley (ACL) and junior SE Michael Bennett to right knee injuries. The Bulldogs turned to their "Next man up" as senior FLK Rantavious Wooten led the team with a career-high six catches for 38 yards and two scores. He became the fourth different Bulldog to lead the team in the first five games. Prior to the Tennessee game, Wooten had just two catches for 46 yards this year. He has now caught at least one touchdown in five consecutive seasons. In 2011, he got a medical redshirt following three games after he sustained a concussion in a car accident.

Yet another Bulldog led Georgia in receiving against #25 Missouri. Freshman TB Brendan Douglas hauled in six passes for 43 yards and his first receiving touchdown during the loss. Five different players caught at least two balls against the Tigers. Junior Chris Conley is leading the unit with 378 yards receiving and four touchdowns after having a line of 5-60-1 against Missouri.

In 2013, Georgia had seen the emergence of Scott-Wesley. Against #6 South Carolina, Scott-Wesley posted his first 100-yard performance with three catches for 116 yards and a touchdown, including an 85-yard score. He snagged the game-winning catch against #6 LSU with 1:47 left in the game and finished with four catches for 55 yards.

Bennett had returned from a 2012 ACL injury and was third on the team with 14 catches for 176 yards. Bennett tied his career high with two scores against #6 LSU.

True freshman Reggie Davis caught a 98-yard touchdown strike from Murray to etch their names in school history. This was the longest offensive scoring play in school history. It is also tied for the third-longest passing touchdown in SEC history and is the longest passing touchdown in the FBS this year. Davis was named the SEC Freshman of the Week for his efforts.

One of the team's leaders last year, Malcolm Mitchell, went down with an ACL injury against Clemson and is out for the year.

DEFENSE

Linebacker Duo Leading The Defense

Junior ILB Ramik Wilson is second in the SEC in tackles with 61 (10.2/g) after a career performance against the Volunteers. The Tampa, Fla., native racked up 15 stops, including a sack, to take over the conference lead before adding a team-leading nine more tackles against #25 Missouri. His partner on the inside, junior Amarlo Herrera, added 11 tackles in the Tennessee win and is now tied for third in the SEC with 55 stops. There have been two Bulldogs to lead the SEC in tackles (Whit Marshall, 1995, 128; Rennie Curran, 2009, 130).

Freshman OLB Leonard Floyd is coming on strong of late, highlighted by a career-high eight stops against #6 LSU. He had a sack and two tackles for loss against the Tigers after picking up his first two sacks of his career in the win over North Texas. In the battle with #25 Missouri, he improved his sack total to four after catching Tiger quarterback James Franklin 10 yards behind the line of scrimmage.

Sophomore OLB Jordan Jenkins is another playmaker. Jenkins has 20 tackles so far, including five tackles for loss of 29 yards. Last year, he had 31 stops with the team's second-most sacks (5.0) behind current Pittsburgh Steeler Jarvis Jones with 5.0. Jones had a school record 14.5 sacks in 2012.

Sacking The Opposition

Georgia has moved into a tie for third in the SEC with 16 sacks on the season, including 11 in the last three games (#6 LSU, at Tennessee and versus #25 Missouri). Junior DE Ray Drew has stormed into the team lead and into the No. 3 spot in the conference with five total, including a pair in each of the last two games. Freshman OLB Leonard Floyd is right behind Drew with four (tied for No. 5 in the SEC) after adding another against No. 25 Missouri.

Mauger, Wiggins Get The Nod

True freshmen Quincy Mauger (FS) and Shaq Wiggins (CB) have started the last two games, giving the Bulldogs their fourth different starting lineup in the defensive backfield in six games. Mauger and Wiggins responded by combining for 13 tackles against the Vols plus 10 more versus #25 Missouri.

Bulldog sophomore Josh Harvey-Clemons ignited the defense with a career-high 15 tackles in the victory over #6 LSU. This was the most for a Bulldog since Alec Ogletree had 15 in the win over Georgia Tech last year. Harvey-Clemons is third on the team in tackles with 35 tackles in just five games played (he has the second-most tackles of any SEC player who has only played in five contests).

Georgia has a youthful secondary with junior Damian Swann, who equaled his career high against Missouri with eight tackles, as the only starter back. This season, freshman safety Tray Matthews has 20 tackles and the team's only interception (North Texas), but has missed the last two games with a hamstring injury. Senior safety Connor Norman, who has 14 stops, also missed the matchup versus the Vols because of a concussion but returned against Missouri. He recovered a punt that was fumbled by #6 LSU and the Bulldogs were able to convert it into a touchdown in the next series.

Junior Corey Moore has also been called into duty, starting three of six games. The Griffin native played in 14 games with one start to go with 14 tackles last year. Georgia's 2013 signing class featured eight defensive backs/safeties including three who enrolled early in Matthews, Mauger and Reggie Wilkerson. Wilkerson tore his ACL during summer workouts and is out for the season.

Catching The(ir) Ball

The Bulldogs are tied for last in the SEC (tied for 119th nationally) with just one interception this year (Tray Matthews, North Texas). Vanderbilt is hovering in the same zone with three and are tied for 104th nationally. Georgia finished with 13 last season, including a team-leading four from Damian Swann. The lowest INT total for the Bulldogs in a season in the modern era is five in 2004. That was the fewest in available records going back to 1948. Also of note, the 2004 Bulldog offense threw only five INTs.

Youthful Defense Forced To Grow Up

Four of Georgia's first six opponents this season have been eighth-ranked Clemson, sixth-ranked South Carolina, sixth-ranked LSU and 25th-ranked Missouri, and the Bulldogs are 2-2 against these ranked squads.

While No. 25 Missouri put up 41 points last Saturday, three of the Tigers six touchdowns came on drives of 52 yards or less, including a fumble recovery that went for a 21-yard score.

Did You Know? The Bulldogs held the Tigers scoreless in the third period, marking the first quarter all year that Missouri had not scored (broke a 22-quarter streak).

While the Gamecocks tallied 24 points in the first half, the Bulldog defense held them to six points the rest of the way, including a goalline stand on their final possession midway through the fourth quarter.

The Bulldogs' stout rushing defense continued against sixth-ranked LSU. Georgia held the Tigers to just 15 yards on the ground in the first half. LSU finished with just 77 yards rushing after coming into the game averaging 221.0 rushing yards/game.

New Faces

Georgia has had 13 new starters on defense including seven true freshmen. FS Tray Matthews, OLB Leonard Floyd and CB Brendan Langley became the first true freshmen starters in a season opener on defense under Mark Richt since Kedric Golston (2002). They are the only four on defense under Richt. Prior to them the last true freshman to start in the secondary in a season opener was Tony Flack in 1982 and it was against Clemson in Athens. Flack was the first true freshman (non-kicker) to start a season opener in the Vince Dooley era, which began in 1964.

Defense Forced To Make Adjustments

The hallmark for Georgia's defense in 2012 was its ability to make key second half adjustments. For example, opponents averaged just 7.7 points in the final two quarters (107 points), and one touchdown came on an interception return. This season, eighth-ranked Clemson scored 21 first half points and then 17 in the second two periods. Sixth-ranked South Carolina scored 24 points in the opening half, but only six in the second half. Georgia's defense versus North Texas tossed a shutout in the second half. The only touchdown that the Mean Green scored in the final two quarters came on a blocked punt that was recovered in the end zone. In their most recent contest, the Bulldogs held #25 Missouri scoreless in the third quarter but gave up 13 points in the final frame.

The Bulldogs also struggled in the second half against #6 LSU and at Tennessee. The Tigers scored 17 points in the first half and 24 in the second. LSU had scored at least 35 points and tallied more than 400 yards in its first five games. Against the Volunteers, the defense allowed three touchdowns (the fourth of the half was a blocked punt returned for a touchdown).

The 2013 defense features nine new regulars. The returning starters are junior CB Damian Swann and senior DE Garrison Smith. Junior ILB Amarlo Herrera and sophomore OLB Jordan Jenkins combined for 15 starts.

Third Down Stops

One area the Bulldogs hope to continue to improve on is third down defense. The Bulldogs are 13th in the SEC in the category allowing opponents to convert on third down 44 percent of the time. Looking at the last three opponents, sixth-ranked LSU went 10-for-15 (67%) on third downs. Tennessee was 7-for-17 (41%) on third downs while No. 25 Missouri was 5-for-12 (42%)

Smith, Drew Anchoring Defensive Front

Smith leads this group and is fourth on the team with 28 tackles after matching his career high with eight versus Tennessee. Also against the Vols, Drew rose to the occasion with five tackles, including a career-high two sacks, before adding another two sacks against #25 Missouri. Drew came into the year with 0.5 sacks and now has five in his last three games.

Bailey is close behind Smith with 26 tackles and that ranks sixth on the team. Bailey has battled back from shoulder and foot injuries that slowed his progress early in his career. He exploded for a career-high 10 tackles against #6 South Carolina and his performance included a sack.

SPECIAL TEAMS AT A GLANCE

Specialists Gain Experience

Sophomores Collin Barber and Marshall Morgan have been the starters the past two seasons at punter and place kicker.

Morgan connected on a career-long 56-yard field goal on Georgia's first possession against Tennessee and was later named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for the second consecutive week. This is the longest since Morgan drilled a 55 yarder in the win over #6 LSU. It is the longest FG for the Bulldogs since Blair Walsh kicked a 56 yarder versus Buffalo in 2011 and the longest on the road in school history. Morgan's field goal is the longest against Tennessee in history and is tied for the longest in the NCAA this year. Then, Morgan won the UT game with a 42 yarder in overtime. It marked the first game-winner by a Bulldog since 2009 (Blair Walsh, 37 yds., ASU).

Morgan scored a career-high 14 points, including his 55 yarder, in the win over LSU as he connected with three field goals and 5 PATs in the 44-41 thriller. Morgan got his first career SEC weekly honor following his performance. He is one of four Bulldogs to make FGs of 55 or more longer twice in a season. Morgan joins Rex Robinson (1980), Kevin Butler (1984) and Brandon Coutu (2005). On the year, Morgan is 8-for-10.

Sophomore Patrick Beless filled in for Morgan in the first two contests this year and was 10-for-10 on PATs and 2-for-2 on FGs (both versus South Carolina) during the first two games. He was lined up to attempt another 19-yard field goal against Clemson, but a high snap caused a fumble and loss of six yards. Beless made the team in the spring of his freshman year in 2012 and has been on the roster the last two seasons.

Barber has averaged 45.1 yards on 18 punts this year. Barber also ran five yards for a first down on a fake punt from the Georgia 34-yard line at #6 Clemson. Barber returned to average 49.8/yds on five punts against North Texas, including a career-long 61 yarder. In the Tennessee game, a blocked punt led to a touchdown and he sustained a concussion on the play. Junior Adam Erickson finished the game as punter. Erickson punted twice against No. 25 Missouri for a 40.5 average while Barber's two averaged 32.0 yards.

Redshirt sophomore Nathan Theus has assumed the role as FG and PAT snapper this season. True freshman Trent Frix has seen action five of six games and is snapping on punts now. Trent is the younger brother of Ty Frix, who was the Bulldogs' snapper for the last four years.

The Return Men

Four Bulldogs have returned kicks this year for an average of 18.3/yds, including the longest by Justin Scott-Wesley of 24 yards against #6 South Carolina. True freshman Reggie Davis has four returns for 69 yards. In the punt return game, junior CB Damian Swann has eight returns for 28 yards while Davis has six for 30 yards.

Did You Know?

Georgia is one of only two teams since after the 2000 season to beat two top-10 teams in a season before Oct. 1, according to ESPN citing the Elias Sports Bureau. Alabama in 2008 was the other.

In fact, Georgia's 44-41 victory over No. 6 LSU marked the first time in school history that the Bulldogs have posted two wins over top-10 teams in Sanford Stadium in the same season.

Bulldog Depth Tested Every Week

Georgia's athletic training staff has been working overtime to keep the Bulldogs as close to full strength as possible while younger, inexperienced players are getting a shot for an increased role due to injuries to the veterans. Numerous key Bulldogs have missed games, gotten hurt during games, and a few have been sidelined for the season. Nine Bulldog players have missed game time because of injuries and three on offense are out for 2013.

NFL Picks Record Eight Bulldogs

Georgia tied a school record with eight Bulldogs selected during the 2013 NFL Draft. This equaled Georgia's tally in 2002. Unlike 2002 where Charles Grant was the sole first rounder, the Bulldogs had a pair of first round picks in Jarvis Jones (Pittsburgh Steelers - 17th) and Alec Ogletree (St. Louis Rams - 30th). Georgia had the fifth-most players in the nation selected in the 2013 Draft.

The Bulldogs have 37 players on the active NFL rosters. In addition, Georgia has six players who are either on the injured-reserve or practice squads.

Bulldog Brothers

The Bulldogs have two sets of brothers on this year's team. Sophomore RT John Theus and redshirt sophomore SN Nathan Theus both start for Georgia after coming to Athens from The Bolles School in Jacksonville, Fla.

Redshirt sophomore QB Christian LeMay is also a backup for the Bulldogs while his younger brother, Uriah, joined the team as a true freshman receiver this summer. The LeMays attended Butler High School (N.C.).

Making Their First Starts In 2013

Georgia had seven first-time starters in the season opener at #8 Clemson, including three true freshmen on defense. The Bulldogs have now had 17 on the year. OLB Leonard Floyd, CB Brendan Langley and FS Tray Matthews all started for the Bulldogs as first-year players against the Tigers. Redshirt sophomore DE Sterling Bailey, sophomore DE Josh Dawson and junior ILB Ramik Wilson also got the nod on defense in the opener. On offense, junior RT Kolton Houston, who was getting the first playing time of his career, was the seventh new Bulldog starter.

In game two, FB Quayvon Hicks, SE Justin Scott-Wesley, DE Ray Drew and SS Josh Harvey-Clemons earned their first start. SS Corey Moore was the only first-time starter versus North Texas. However, Moore had started one game as a lead blocker on offense in 2012 prior to this contest. Versus #6 LSU, N Chris Mayes got his first start and responded with four tackles, including a sack. During the overtime win over Tennessee, both true freshmen FS Quincy Mauger and CB Shaq Wiggins got their first career starts. ILB Reggie Carter and TB J.J. Green started against #25 Missouri.

The True Freshman Experience

Floyd, Langley, Matthews, CB Shaq Wiggins, TB J.J. Green, SS Quincy Mauger, ILB Ryne Rankin, ILB Tim Kimbrough, ILB Reggie Carter, SN Trent Frix, TB Brendan Douglas, FLK Reggie Davis, ILB Johnny O'Neal and OG Brandon Kublanow are the 14 true freshmen to play for the Bulldogs in 2013. Ten played in the season opener.

In 2012, 13 true freshmen played during the season opener for Georgia. This marked the most true freshmen to play in a season opener in the Richt era.

CLEMSON, SC. -- The No. 5 Georgia football team dropped its season opener at Memorial Stadium by a score of 38-35 to the Clemson Tigers in front of a crowd of 83,830 and an ABC national television audience.

With the loss, the Bulldogs drop to 0-1 on the season, while Clemson improves to 1-0. Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray led the passing attack, going 20-29 for 323 yards and an interception. Sophomore tailback Todd Gurley finished the game with 12 carries for 154 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including a run of touchdown run of 75 yards in the opening quarter.

Michael Bennett returned to the receiving corps for the Bulldogs after missing the second half of last season with an ACL injury, and he finished the game with five catches for 60 yards. Justin Scott-Wesley also had four catches for 55 yards, while junior Chris Conley finished the game with three receptions and 67 yards.

Junior Ramik Wilson turned in a career-high total of 13 tackles, completely destroying his previous career-high mark of two tackles. Amaro Herrera also contributed 12 tackles, while freshman Tray Matthews finished with eight tackles.

Clemson scored first off a 4-yard run from quarterback Tajh Boyd, but the Bulldogs quickly responded less than 15 seconds later when Gurley split several defenders and raced past the Clemson secondary to turn in a 75-yard touchdown run. The offensive showdon continued, as just over one minuter later, Clemson receiver Sammy Watkins hauled in a 77-yard pass from Boyd to give the Tigers the early 14-7 lead.

The Bulldogs once again responded in the first quarter, this time with sophomore tailback Keith Marshall finding the endzone on a 4-yard run to knot the score at 14 apiece. Quayvon Hicks then had his first career touchdown run at the 13-minute mark of the second quarter to give the Bulldogs their first lead of the night at 21-14. With just under two minutes remaining in the first half, Boyd carried the ball for a two-yard touchdown score that would leave the game tied entering halftime.

Clemson opened the scoring in the second half, as Zac Brooks hauled in a 31-yard reception from Boyd to put the Tigers back in front. Gurley once again responded midway through the third quarter, this time with a 12-yard run that tied the game once again for the Bulldogs.

Clemson was able to secure a 24-yard field goal from kicker Chandler Catanzaro with just under five minutes in the third quarter. After Georgia missed their own chance at a field goal due to a miscued snap, Clemson once again scored as Boyd found Stanton Seckinger in the back of the endzone for a 9-yard TD pass that put the Tigers in front 38-28.

Murray would lead one final drive for the Bulldogs, culminating in a 1-yard run by the quarterback that trimmed the Tigers' lead to just three with 80 seconds remaining. Georgia then attempted an onside kick, but the Tigers recovered and were able to run out the remaining time on the clock, thereby sealing the 38-35 victory.

Worth Noting...

- Todd Gurley ran for a career-long 75-yard touchdown on his first carry.
- The game marked the first time that both Georgia and its opponent were ranked in the top 10 to start a season.
- The Bulldogs fall to 10-3 all-time in season openers under Coach Richt, with all three losses coming against top 10 opponents.
- Georgia now holds a 41-18-4 edge over the Tigers in the all-time series history.
- Junior Kolton Houston started at right tackle in his first action as a Bulldog. He was the only first-time starter on offense for Georgia.
- Ten true freshman played for the Bulldogs against Clemson. Georgia played a total of 13 true freshmen in the 2012 season opener vs. Buffalo.
- Tray Matthews, Leonard Floyd and Brendan Langley became the first true freshmen starters in a season opener on defense under Mark Richt since Kedric Golston in 2002.
- Captains were seniors Aaron Murray (QB), Connor Norman (FS), Garrison Smith (DE) and Arthur Lynch (TE).

Coach Mark Richt said...

"Clemson is a very good football team. They did what they had to do to win the football game. Tajh (Boyd) had a good game, and Sammy (Watkins) did his thing. Both teams played a great game and had bright moments. At least we got it down to where we had a shot at an onside kick. We weren't able to get it and lost the game."

ATHENS, GA. -- The 11th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs earned a 41-30 shootout win over the No. 6 South Carolina Gamecocks on Saturday, Sept. 7, in front of 92,746 fans and a nationally-televised ESPN audience at Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga.

With the win, the Bulldogs improved to 1-1 on the year and 1-0 in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina dropped to 1-1 on the year and 0-1 in the SEC.

Aaron Murray led the passing game, finishing with 309 yards and four touchdowns on 17-for-23 passing. Justin Scott-Wesley led all receivers with three catches for 116 yards and a touchdown. Todd Gurley led the running game with 30 carries for 136 yards and one touchdown. Keith Marshall added 62 yards on seven carries. Marshall also had 54 receiving yards and one receiving touchdown. Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Amaro Herrera, who finished with 12 tackles, including five solo stops and one tackle for a loss.

South Carolina's Connor Shaw finished with 228 yards through the air on 16-for-25 passing. Nick Jones was South Carolina's leading receiver, picking up 97 yards and two touchdowns on six receptions. Mike Davis led the ground attack for the Gamecocks, finishing with 150 yards and one touchdown on 16 carries.

South Carolina won the toss and elected to receive the ball on the opening drive. The Gamecocks put together an 11-play, 57-yard drive that resulted in a field goal and an early 3-0 lead. Georgia responded with a six play, 60-yard touchdown drive that took just two minutes off the clock as Murray connected with Michael Bennett to set up a 1st-and-10 at the South Carolina 20. Following a 19-yard run by Gurley, Murray found Lynch in the back of the end zone for a one-yard scoring pass that put the Bulldogs up 7-3.

The Bulldogs recovered an on-side kick near midfield on the ensuing play and marched down to the South Carolina seven before Patrick Beless connected on his first-ever field goal attempt to extend the Georgia lead to 10-3 with 2:51 left in the first quarter.

The Georgia defense forced a three-and-out on South Carolina's next drive, putting the ball back in Murray's hands for a seven-play, 69 yard scoring drive that culminated in a six-yard touchdown pass to Marshall with 12:22 to play in the second quarter.

The Gamecocks answered with a 12-play, 84-yard touchdown drive that took just over five minutes off the clock and made it a 17-10 game after Wilds' six-yard touchdown run. South Carolina then took advantage of a mishandled snap as Georgia attempted to punt on its next possession, recovering the ball at the Bulldogs' 18-yard line. On the next play, Shaw connected with Jones for a touchdown to tie the game at 17.

Georgia then embarked on a 70-yard drive that was capped-off by Gurley's two-yard touchdown run. The Gamecocks got the ball back with 1:38 left in the half and responded with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Shaw to Jones that tied the game at 24-24 with 13 seconds left to play in the half.

Following the break, both teams exchanged possession before the Bulldogs used a 48-yard catch-and-run by Marshall to move the ball inside the South Carolina 30-yard line. Another Beless field goal gave Georgia a 27-24 lead. Georgia then made it a 10-point game with 18 seconds left in the third quarter when Murray found Gurley in the corner of the end zone on an 8-yard touchdown strike.

The Gamecocks responded with a touchdown run by Davis, but a missed extra point kept the Georgia advantage at four points. On the Bulldogs' next possession Murray found Scott-Wesley streaking down the sideline for an 85-yard touchdown that put Georgia up 41-30 with 13 minutes to play. A goal-line stand by the Georgia defense on South Carolina's next possession sealed the win for the Bulldogs.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"The team that loses this game is waiting for the other's bus to break down. We've been chasing them the last three years. South Carolina has a very good team, and this year, we get a chance to sit in the driver's seat. We haven't been 1-0 in the league in a while because South Carolina's been getting us. Today, we got them, and I'm so thankful."

ATHENS, GA. -- The No. 9 ranked University of Georgia football team earned a 45-21 win over the North Texas Mean Green on Saturday, Sept. 21 in front of 92,746 fans and an SEC TV audience. The Bulldogs are now 2-1 on the season, while North Texas falls to 2-2 on the year.

Aaron Murray finished with 408 yards and three touchdowns on 22-of-30 passing to lead the Bulldogs through the air. Chris Conley was Murray's top receiving target, grabbing five catches for 63 yards and a touchdown. Arthur Lynch finished with four catches, 85 yards and a touchdown. Reggie Davis was also on the receiving end of a touchdown grab and finished with 134 yards on two catches. Todd Gurley led Georgia's ground game with 91 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries.

Ramik Wilson led the Bulldog defense with nine tackles, including six solo stops and two tackles for a loss. Josh Harvey-Clemons finished with seven tackles, four solo tackles and one tackle for a loss. Leonard Floyd recorded two sacks. As a unit, the Bulldogs recorded 57 tackles, nine tackles for a loss, two sacks and an interception by freshman FS Tray Matthews. The Georgia defense allowed the Mean Green 236 total yards, including just seven yards on the ground.

The Georgia offense marched 69 yards in 2:01 on its third possession of the game to get on the board first. Murray connected with TB Keith Marshall and TE Jay Rome to pick up key first downs on the drive, before Gurley rushed for a 12-yard touchdown that put the Bulldogs up 7-0 following the Marshall Morgan extra point.

On the first play of the second quarter, Murray found freshman receiver Reggie Davis streaking up the middle for a 98-yard touchdown pass that was the longest offensive play in Georgia football history. It was also Murray's 100th career touchdown pass, and put the Bulldogs up 14-0.

The Mean Green got on the board with just under 10 minutes to play in the first half, though, as QB Derek Thompson led North Texas on a 10-play, 86-yard drive that culminated in a 20-yard touchdown pass to receiver Darnell Smith.

With its advantage halved at 14-7, Georgia responded with a touchdown of its own on the ensuing drive. Rantavious Wooten found Lynch over the middle on a trick play to gain 42-yards, and five plays later Lynch took a 16-yard pass from Aaron Murray to restore the Bulldogs' two touchdown advantage.

The margin was short-lived, however, as a second quarter, 99-yard kickoff return by the Mean Green's Brelan Chancellor and a recovered blocked punt in the endzone on Georgia's first possession of the second half knotted the game at 21-21.

Georgia then went on an eight-play, 63-yard drive to break the tie with 7:11 to play in the third quarter. Key receptions by Michael Bennett and Lynch moved the Bulldogs to the North Texas 1-yard line, setting up Murray to score on a 1-yard rush.

The Mean Green looked poised to tie the game again, going 48 yards to the Georgia 27-yard line, but an interception by Matthews at the five prevented the score and allowed Murray and the Georgia offense to retake the field. The Tampa, Fla., native then capped off a 95-yard drive in 4:41 with a 4-yard pass to Conley and in the process became Georgia's all-time leader in total offense.

Up 35-21, Georgia embarked on two more scoring drives that resulted in a Morgan field goal and a 1-yard touchdown rush by freshman J. J. Green. Down 45-21, North Texas got the ball back with 1:52 left to play but would not score, sealing a second-straight home win for the Bulldogs.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"I think the biggest key in the game was the defense and how well they played. Overall the defense stepped up and played well. Offensively, anytime you go over 600 yards that's a pretty good day, too, so they did some things well. Our special teams were good, but we had some bad things obviously. We've got to rise to the challenge and do better than that."

LSU

Sept. 28, 2013 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

LSU	14	3	10	14	=	41
Georgia	14	10	10	10	=	44

ATHENS -- In its third game against a top-10 team this season, the No. 9 Georgia football team won a 44-41 shootout with No. 6 LSU in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 and a nationally televised CBS audience at Sanford Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 28. Georgia improves to 3-1 on the year (2-0 SEC), while LSU drops to 4-1 overall (1-1 SEC).

Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray went 20-for-34 for 298 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Bulldogs to the win. Chris Conley was Murray's top target, hauling in five catches for 112 yards, including a touchdown. Keith Marshall led Georgia's ground game, rushing for 96 yards on 20 carries.

Josh Harvey-Clemons led the defensive efforts with 15 tackles, while Leonard Floyd finished with eight tackles and a sack. The Bulldogs totaled four sacks on the day.

Georgia wasted little time in scoring first, driving 75 yards on eight plays in just over three minutes for an opening-drive touchdown. It marked the first time that LSU has trailed this season. The Tigers answered on the next drive, going 66 yards on six plays before tying the game with a 48-yard touchdown pass. LSU intercepted Murray on Georgia's next drive and scored on a four-yard touchdown pass to Kadron Boone to take their first lead of the game at 14-7.

The lead didn't last long, as Georgia marched 79 yards on five plays to tie the game at 14. Todd Gurley took the ball 23 yards on the first play of the drive before Murray found Conley in the back of the end zone three plays later for a 25-yard touchdown pass.

Marshall Morgan broke the tie with 8:16 left in the first half with a 24-yard field goal to push the Bulldogs back in front 17-14. Following punts by both teams on each of their next possessions, LSU made a 49-yard field goal to tie the game at 17. Georgia would answer with a nine-play, 82-yard touchdown drive that culminated with Murray finding the end zone on a one-yard keeper. The Bulldogs entered halftime leading 24-17.

Georgia and LSU traded field goals on the first two possessions of the second half. LSU notched a 39-yard field goal before Morgan answered with a career-long 55-yarder to extend Georgia's lead to 27-20 with 6:35 left in the third quarter.

LSU would once again tie the game on its next possession, driving 80 yards in just under three minutes for a 39-yard touchdown pass from Zach Mettenberger to Jarvis Landry. After a three-and-out, Georgia was forced to punt but the catch was bobbled, allowing Connor Norman to recover the fumble at the LSU 20-yard line. Two plays later, Murray found Michael Bennett wide open in the end zone for a 21-yard TD.

The lead didn't last long, as LSU drove 70 yards in just over 40 minutes for another TD score to tie the game at 34 apiece. Georgia scored at the 8:09 mark of the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Morgan to reclaim a slim lead, but LSU responded with a 75-yard touchdown drive that gave it a 41-37 lead with just over four minutes remaining.

On the ensuing drive, Murray went 3-for-3 to lead the Bulldogs into LSU territory. J.J. Green then picked up 18 yards on the ground before Murray found Justin Scott-Wesley in the endzone for what eventually proved to be the game-winning 25-yard touchdown with 1:47 remaining. The Georgia defense held strong in LSU's final drive, not allowing Mettenberger to complete his last four passes. This resulted in Georgia taking over on downs and running out the clock to seal the 44-41 victory.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"In the moment of truth, we took care of business. We knew it would take everything we had in this game. Everything was so crucial. I'm just humbled and thankful to be the head coach here and to be able to enjoy what happened here today. I thought it would be a knock-down, drag-out fight. I didn't think we'd be able to slow down their run like we did."

KNOXVILLE, TN. -- In their third Southeastern Conference matchup of the season, the sixth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs won a nail biter over the Tennessee Volunteers 34-31 in overtime in front of a nationally televised CBS audience and crowd of more than 102,000 in Neyland Stadium in Knoxville, Tenn., on Saturday, Oct. 5. Georgia improves to 4-1 on the year, including a 3-0 mark in the SEC. The Vols fall to 3-3 overall and 0-2 in the SEC.

Senior quarterback Aaron Murray led the Bulldogs through the air completing 19 of 35 passes for 196 yards and 3 touchdowns. He also notched 53 yards on the ground. Murray surpassed former Georgia quarterback David Green to become the all-time leader in yards passing in SEC history. Chris Conley and Rantavious Wooten were the top receivers for Murray. Conley tallied 64 yards and a touchdown on 5 catches, while Wooten had six receptions for 38 yards and two touchdowns. Freshman running back J.J. Green led Georgia's rushing attack, with 17 carries for 129 yards. On the defensive side of the ball, Ramik Wilson led the team with 15 tackles, including 8 solo stops and a sack. Ray Drew had two sacks, and Amarlo Herrera totaled 11 tackles on the afternoon.

On its opening drive, Georgia took an early 3-0 lead with a 56-yard field goal by Marshall Morgan. The kick was a career-long for Morgan and the longest field goal successfully kicked against the Vols in Tennessee history. The Bulldogs extended the lead on their next drive, going 80 yards in 12 plays, as Murray connected with Conley in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown. After Morgan's kick, Georgia took a 10-0 lead over the Vols.

Following defensive stands by both teams on the ensuing drives, Tennessee put together an 11-play drive down to the Georgia three-yard line. The Bulldogs held the Vols to three points as Michael Palardy kicked a 26-yarder through the uprights.

Georgia responded on its next drive with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Murray to Wooten. After several quick first-down passes from Murray, Tennessee forced a fourth-and-four situation. Georgia went for it, and Murray hit Conley across the middle for a big first down. The drive culminated with Wooten's touchdown, his first of the season. Georgia headed into the locker room at halftime with a 17-3 lead.

Tennessee then took advantage of a missed Georgia field goal on the Bulldogs' first possession of the second half to march down the short field and score on a touchdown pass from Justin Worley to Marquez North. On Georgia's next possession, the Vols blocked Colin Barber's punt and returned the loose ball to the endzone to tie things up at 17.

Georgia wasted no time in answering, however, as a career-long 57-yard scramble by Murray set up a 3-yard touchdown run by freshman tailback Brendan Douglas. The Volunteers responded in kind, as Rajion Neal ripped off a 43-yard run on 4th-and-1 to keep the Tennessee offense on the field. Five plays later, Neal scored on a 1-yard run to tie the game at 24-24. Tennessee then held Georgia and got the ball back with 8:36 left in the fourth quarter. The Vols took 6:42 off the clock in a 13-play, 80-yard drive that resulted in a 7-yard touchdown run by Neal, his second of the game.

Down 31-24, the Bulldogs took possession of the ball with 1:54 left on the clock. After several penalties by Tennessee defenders pushed Georgia deep into Vol territory, Murray hit Wooten in the back of the end zone for a two-yard touchdown pass with five seconds left on the clock to tie the score at 31.

The game went into overtime and Georgia won the toss, electing to first play on the defensive side of the ball. Tennessee quickly drove down to the Georgia three-yard line, but Pig Howard fumbled on the goal line, resulting in a touchback.

Georgia regained possession of the ball on the Tennessee 25-yard line, and with the Bulldogs unable to convert a first down, Morgan lined up for a potential game-winning field goal. He hit the 42-yarder straight through the uprights, sealing the Georgia win.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"We never give up hope. I never gave up hope. I didn't think much about it, but yes, I was glad Murray was there to do it, but no matter who our quarterback was or is at that time, we always expect those guys to bring us down the field and score. Murray has really played extremely well this year. I'm really proud of him. I think this was a big game. I don't know what anybody else thought, but he played big."

ATHENS, Ga. -- The No. 7 Georgia football team dropped a 41-26 decision to the No. 25 Missouri Tigers on Saturday, Oct. 12 in Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga., in front of 92,746 fans and a nationally-televised ESPN audience. The Bulldogs fall to 4-2 on the year and 3-1 in league play, while Missouri improves to 6-0 overall (2-0 SEC).

Aaron Murray led the Bulldogs through the air, going 25-for-45 for 290 yards with three touchdowns and a pair of interceptions. Rantavious Wooten was Murray's top target, finishing with four catches for 83 yards and a touchdown. J.J. Green led the rushing attack, picking up 89 yards on 12 carries. Ramik Wilson led the Georgia defense with nine tackles, while Ray Drew picked up seven tackles, including two sacks for a loss of 12 yards.

After the first three drives of the game resulted in punts, Murray orchestrated a 12-play, 86-yard drive that gave Georgia a 7-0 lead after the Marshall Morgan PAT. Highlighting the play was a 26-yard pass to Wooten that set up the Bulldogs at the Missouri 14. Murray eventually connected with Brendan Douglas for a seven-yard TD.

Missouri answered on the following drive, going 79 yards on nine plays to tie the game on a five-yard touchdown run by quarterback James Franklin. A short punt after a Georgia three-and-out gave Missouri the ball near midfield, and Franklin eventually found L'Damian Washington in the end zone for a 16-yard TD that gave the Tigers a 14-7 lead.

The Bulldogs were able to cut the lead to 14-10 on the next drive on Morgan's 29-yard field goal. The Tigers continued to extend the lead with just under six minutes remaining in the first half, as Marcus Murphy picked up 36 yards on the ground for a touchdown that made it a 21-10 game following the extra point. On the ensuing drive, the Tigers recovered a fumble at the Georgia 21-yard line and ran it back for a TD to take the 28-10 lead at half.

On the second play of the second half, Green streaked 57-yards down to the Missouri 10-yard line. The Bulldogs had to settle for a field goal on the play, with Morgan splitting the uprights on a 28-yard attempt that made it a 28-13 game.

After forcing a Missouri punt, Georgia took over at its own 20. Later in the drive facing 4th-and-5, Murray hooked up with Chris Conley for a gain of six, and Arthur Lynch caught a Murray pass for a gain of 21 that put the Bulldogs inside the Missouri 15. Following another pass interference call on the Tigers, Murray connected with Wooten in the end zone for a touchdown that made it a 28-20 game, following the Morgan PAT.

A defensive stand by the Bulldogs that included a sack of Franklin for a loss of 11 gave Murray and the offense the ball back with under a minute remaining in the third quarter. Douglas carried the ball four times for 23 yards during the drive that put the Bulldogs at the Missouri 10. Murray found Conley waiting in the end zone for a touchdown that trimmed the Tigers' lead to two. The Bulldogs attempted a two-point conversion but were unsuccessful. Missouri then answered with an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive that made it a 34-26 game. Missouri kicker Andrew Baggett kept it a one-score game with a missed PAT.

Georgia got the ball back with 4:25 left, but Murray was intercepted on the first play of the drive, giving the Tigers the ball at the Georgia 39. The Tigers scored four plays later on a seven-yard rush by Henry Josey to extend the lead to 41-25 with just under two minutes to play. Georgia was unable to get into the end zone on their final possession of the game.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"You can't win a game turning it over like that. They did a really good job of securing the ball and we didn't. We did a good job defensively and started scoring some points. It was impressive to get it back close early in the fourth quarter...Being down as we were, we did a good job of making it interesting."
