NIKKI FARGAS

Head Coach
Fifth Season at LSU
Eighth Season Overall

Fargas - By The Numbers

- 18 - Wins over ranked opponents since becoming LSU coach
- 8 - All-SEC player selections under Fargas
- 7 - NCAA Tournament appearances as head coach (4 - LSU, 3 - UCLA)
- 3 - National Championships (one as a player, two in coaching)
- 3 - 20-win seasons with the Lady Tigers
- 3 - LSU WNBA draft picks
- 2 - Sweet Sixteen appearances at LSU

Nikki Fargas (formerly Nikki Caldwell), who won national championships as both a player and an assistant coach at Tennessee and turned UCLA into a national power in just three years, has quickly brought the LSU women's basketball program back to national prominence.

Fargas brings to LSU the combination of outstanding in-game coaching ability with that of being a tremendous recruiter. In addition, she has been a leader off the court in the Baton Rouge community, helping the Lady Tigers connect with the city of Baton Rouge while donating their time and efforts to making a difference.

In the classroom, LSU has been a shining example of the definition of student-athlete. The Lady Tigers have recorded a perfect score of 100 in graduation success rate released by the NCAA during three of the four seasons under Fargas.

Fargas was officially introduced as the school's seventh women's basketball coach on April 4, 2011. She has produced a trio of 20-win seasons and an overall record of 90-59 (.604) over her four-plus seasons at the helm of the Lady Tigers. LSU has secured four NCAA Tournament appearances highlighted by back-to-back trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, and 13 victories over ranked opponents in her first and second seasons.

Fargas has been a part of a championship and winning pedigree at every level of her career. She played, coached and studied under one of the game's greatest figures, the legendary Pat Summitt at Tennessee and she assisted Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Debbie Ryan at Virginia.

Widely recognized as one of the nation's top assistant coaches during stints at Tennessee and Virginia, Fargas took over at UCLA in 2008. In three years with the Bruins, she turned around a UCLA program that had won only one NCAA Tournament game in the nine years prior to her arrival.

Fargas led the Bruins to a 72-26 (.735) overall mark, reached the NCAA Tournament twice and finished second in the Pac-10 Conference in both 2010 and 2011. She was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2010 after going 25-9 overall and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

BATON ROUGE – LSU used a 26-6 run over the final 10 minutes to collect a convincing 64-44 victory over Vanderbilt at the Maravich Center.

The Lady Tigers (8-7, 2-1 SEC) have won 13 of 17 meetings against Vanderbilt (8-7, 0-3 SEC) at home and extended the home team's winning streak in the series to 11 consecutive games dating back to the 2004-05 season.

DaShawn Harden racked up a game-high 18 points on 7-of-11 from the floor. The senior guard has reached double figures in nine of her last 11 outings. She also chipped in three assists and two steals over her 33 minutes of action.

Raigyne Moncrief filled the box score and worked her way to 13 points, nine rebounds, six steals, five assists and two blocks. She knocked down 5-of-6 at the free throw line, and garnered all 13 of her points during the second half.

LSU's bench play was headed by Jenna Deemer, Akilah Bethel and Stephanie Amichia. Deemer pumped in 10 points aided by a pair of three-pointers, while Bethel was a crisp 4-of-5 shooting and secured four rebounds. Amichia garnered four points and four rebounds.

Making her season debut, Danielle Ballard contributed four points, two steals and an assist in 11 minutes.

As a team, LSU turned in a 24-for-56 shooting clip and handed out 18 assists on its 24 field goals. The Lady Tigers were 4-of-13 from triple territory and an efficient 12-of-15 at the free throw line. LSU made the most of 24 Vanderbilt turnovers and cashed in with 29 of the game's 34 points off turnovers.

"I saw us be more patient offensively. I saw us reverse the basketball more," head coach Nikki Caldwell said. "We had four to five passes with different people touching the ball. That's the type of team that we have to play like. We have to be a team that is unselfish. We have to be a team that doesn't mind giving up your shot to get a better shot. When you have 18 assists on the night and have at least eight or nine people with at least one assist, that's unselfish. That's why we were as efficient as we were on the offensive end."

Vanderbilt was led by Paris Kea's 10 points and Heather Bowe's 10 rebounds. The Commodores mustered a 16-of-46 clip from the floor and misfired on 13 of their 15 attempts from beyond the three-point arc. Vanderbilt produced a 10-for-18 effort at the charity stripe.

With the score all square at 38-38 with 10:01 remaining, it was Ballard who ignited LSU's finishing kick. She stole the ball off of the press and converted the go-ahead layup courtesy of a Bethel assist.

Moncrief drove the lane for a left-handed layup on LSU's next possession. The Lady Tigers continued their flurry with a pair of free throws from Moncrief and Harden. Then, LSU went inside to Bethel who added back-to-back layups. Harden buried a midrange jumper and a triple to cap a spurt of 17 straight points to make it 55-38 at the 3:30 mark.

LSU's largest lead came at 64-42 inside the final minute after Amichia sank two free throws. The 20-point win for the Lady Tigers was their largest over Vanderbilt since a 75-53 decision on Jan. 26, 2006.

LSU led for a majority of the first half which featured four ties and four lead changes. Ahead 19-18 with 3:52 to go, Deemer knocked down a three-pointer off a Ballard crosscourt pass.

Following a Vanderbilt free throw, Ballard drove the lane and went up-and-under for a layup to give LSU a 24-19 edge with 2:12 left. Bethel tacked on a free throw, and Deemer dialed up another trey to enable the Lady Tigers to take a 28-23 advantaged into the locker room.

LSU extended its lead to 10 points, 38-28, six minutes into the second half. Deemer and Harden pumped in buckets 18 seconds apart to force Vanderbilt into a timeout with 14:03 remaining. Out of the timeout, the Commodores ripped off 10 consecutive points to knot the score at 38-38.

"I thought Moncrief played like a veteran tonight," Caldwell said. "She really tried to establish her teammates, and she played under control. She played with a lot of discipline. When you look at her stat line, she took great shots for our team and not just for her. That makes a big difference. Moncrief with five assists on the night, that's a player that is trying to give someone else a good look. Defensively, her ability to play the back of the zone and clear nine rebounds for us is huge. We are going to continue to focus on being a team that plays unselfishly."

LSU Posts Second-Lowest Scoring Effort Vs A&M

While it looked for a while like neither team would score 30 points, Texas A&M outscored LSU 38-16 in the second half of the game to escape with the 53-35 victory at the PMAC. The 35 points for LSU was the lowest since scoring just 35 in a loss to Rutgers in the 2007 Final Four. The lowest score for an LSU team in program history was an 85-33 loss to Vanderbilt during the 1994-95 season.

Other Lows in the Texas A&M Matchup...

LSU managed to hold Texas A&M to just four points off 1-of-11 (9%) shooting from the field for the lowest scoring output for an opponent in the first quarter this season. Marist (4th) and Texas Southern (3rd) had quarters of just four points earlier in the year. Texas A&M also scored just 15 in the first half, for the lowest scoring total for an opponent in the first half this season. On the LSU side, the nine points in the fourth quarter and 16 points in the second half were both season lows.

The Lady Tigers shot just 26.5% (13-49) from the field, which is the lowest mark for the squad in 2015-16, and they were held without a three pointer (0-of-6) for the first time this season. This was the lowest shooting mark since LSU hit just 25.7% (18-70) from the field against Long Beach State in the ninth game last season. Texas A&M held LSU to 1-of-10 from the field in the third quarter.

Lead At Half Means Win ... Usually

Going into the Texas A&M game, LSU was 6-0 when leading at halftime. LSU was up 19-15 at the half, but the Aggies used a 38-point second half scoring flurry to give LSU that first loss when leading at the half this season.

Lady Tigers Snap Losing Streak

The Lady Tigers snapped a four-game losing streak in convincing fashion with a 76-57 win over Ole Miss Thursday evening at the PMAC. The four-game losing skid was the first for LSU since late in the 2013-14 season. In fact, LSU lost six-straight contests that year before snapping the streak with a win over Alabama in the first round of the SEC Tournament. The Lady Tigers ultimately won its first two games of the NCAA Tournament and closed the season with a 21-13 record following a loss to #4 Louisville in the Sweet Sixteen.

Hyder Registers Double-Double Versus Rebels

Alexis Hyder scored 15 points and hauled in 10 rebounds in the win over Ole Miss for her fourth double-double of the season. She was 6-of-9 from the field and a perfect 3-of-3 from the free-throw line. An impressive nine of her 10 boards were defensive rebounds against the Rebels. Three days later against Texas A&M, Hyder led LSU in scoring and rebounding with 14 points and six rebounds.

Bench Contributes 50 Points

Alexis Hyder (15), Akilah Bethel (16) and Jenna Deemer (19) combined for 50 points for the most points scored off the bench since last season when LSU's bench contributed 48 points against UNC Greensboro. None of the three have started the last four straight games, but Hyder had previously started the first 12 games of the season. Bethel has started 11 games this season, while Deemer has made nine starts.

Deemer Shakes Off Shooting Woes, Leads Squad with 19 Against Ole Miss

Sophomore Jenna Deemer, who came in to the Ole Miss game 2-of-18 from the field in the previous three games, scored a team-leading 19 points off a 6-of-7 effort from the field. The 19 points tied a season high, which she has also logged against Little Rock and Tulane. She was 4-of-4 from the free-throw line and hit all three of the three-point shots she took in the game.

Key Notes In The Ole Miss Win

In addition to the 50 bench points, the Lady Tigers put up some other impressive numbers that led to victory. LSU scored 42 points in the paint, compared to Ole Miss' 20 points. The 42 points was a season high, and the most since last year's game versus UNC Greensboro. LSU also scored 26 points off 18 Rebel turnovers, the second-most this season. The previous high this year was 29 versus UL Monroe. The Lady Tigers also tied a season high with 16 assists and had their second-highest shooting effort of the year at 49.1 (28-57). The mark was a hair lower than LSU's 49.2 (31-63) effort against Texas Southern.

Fargas 3-2 in SEC Home Openers

With the win over Ole Miss (1/7), the Lady Tigers are now 3-2 in SEC home openers under Coach Nikki Fargas. The win over the Rebels snapped a two-game losing streak in SEC home openers. Last season, LSU's league home opener saw top-ranked South Carolina hand the Lady Tigers a 75-51 loss at the PMAC. In the 2013-14 season, LSU lost to Texas A&M, 52-48. LSU's last win was an 84-79 victory over Ole Miss during the 2012-13 season. In the last 10 years, LSU is 6-4 in SEC home openers. Here is a look at the last 10 SEC home openers:

Year	Result
2015-16	LSU 76, Ole Miss 57
2014-15	#1 South Carolina 75, LSU 51
2013-14	Texas A&M 52, #12 LSU 48
2012-13	LSU 84, Ole Miss 79
2011-12	LSU 84, Alabama 40
2010-11	#5 Tennessee 73, LSU 65
2009-10	Auburn 64, #11 LSU 62 (OT)
2008-09	LSU 55, Alabama 34
2007-08	#11 LSU 62, Vanderbilt 51
2006-07	#6 LSU 57, #15 Georgia 55

Fargas 4-1 in SEC Openers

Head coach Nikki Fargas snapped a four-game winning streak in SEC openers with the 62-45 loss to Alabama on the road. She had opened SEC action with a win in each of her four previous seasons. In addition to the road wins at Florida (2014-15) and UT (2013-14), she also led her 2012-13 squad to an 84-79 win over Ole Miss at the PMAC. In her first season at the helm of the program, she took the Lady Tigers to Oxford, Miss., to open league action and defeated Ole Miss, 83-44.

Hill Ties Career Mark with 15 Versus Alabama

Junior guard Rina Hill led LSU's efforts against Alabama, scoring 15 points in the loss. She tied her previous career high of 15 points, which she logged against North Carolina State during her freshman campaign. Hill was 7-of-13 from the field and also hit her second trey of the season. Hill has scored in double figures in five of the last 10 games.

Jones Lead LSU in Rebounding Against Tide

Ann Jones, who got the starting nod for the second-straight game in the Alabama meeting, led LSU's rebounding efforts against the Crimson Tide with six boards. This was the first time this season; and just the second time in her career, that she has been LSU's game-leading rebounder. Jones followed up the Alabama game with another six-rebound effort in the win over Ole Miss.

Grab Those Boards

Coach Nikki Fargas has stressed the need to get the advantage on the boards and her squad was doing that in the first half against Alabama and held the scoring advantage for much of the first half. But the Crimson Tide muscled in there and eventually outrebounded LSU, 32-29. This season, LSU is 0-8 when the opponent holds the rebounding advantage. On the flip side, LSU is 7-1 when leading in rebounding. The only game that the Lady Tigers have lost that they outrebounded their opponent was the final round of the Gulf Coast Showcase against Maine. Maine had a one-rebound advantage, 32-31, and defeated LSU, 52-41.

The Lady Tigers had gone four-straight games on the losing end of the rebounding margin before crashing the boards against Ole Miss and out-rebounding the Rebels, 45-32 (+13). LSU is 5-0 in games that they have hauled in 40 or more rebounds.

Pedersen Leads Lady Tigers in Loss to Samford

Senior Anne Pedersen scored a career-high 15 points off a 6-of-10 effort from the field in the loss to Samford. Her previous career high was 14 points last season against Florida. She hit her only three-point attempt and was a perfect 2-of-2 from the free-throw line in 30 minutes of action. She also led the squad with six rebounds. It was the first time in her career that she has led the Lady Tigers in scoring.

Lineup Change Sees Two New Starters for 2015-16

The Lady Tigers used a new starting lineup combination of Rina Hill, Jasmine Rhodes, Ann Jones, Anne Pedersen and Shanice Norton against Samford. Hill is the only Lady Tiger to start all 16 games this season. Jones and Rhodes made their first starts of the season versus the Bulldogs. Akilah Bethel did not start in the game because of a suspension for violation of team policy. She had previously started 11 straight games. Alexis Hyder snapped a streak of 12-straight starts when she came in off the bench against the Bulldogs.

Following the Ole Miss win, Fargas was asked about the lineup change over the last three games, here is what she said:

"The thing is that our starters have done exactly what we've wanted them to do since I've changed the lineup. They've won the battle to start the game when we go at the half or first quarter and we are up. Our starters have done what they needed to do to solidify that we won that first five minute segment. Now we have a punch coming off the bench when you bring those three (Bethel, Deemer, Hyder) off and the other teams may not be as deep. We aren't a deep team but when you have those three, that's a pretty impressive bench. Obviously Deemer and Hyder and Bethel took over and really separated us."

The same lineup of Hill, Rhodes, Norton, Jones and Pedersen started in the SEC opener against Alabama, the win over Ole Miss and the loss to Texas A&M.

Hill Leads in Scoring Versus UConn

Junior Rina Hill led the Lady Tigers in scoring for the first time in her career with 10 points on the road at No. 1 UConn. It was the fifth time this season; the ninth time in her career, that she has scored in double digits.

Hill scored a career-tying 15 points against Alabama, marking her sixth double-figure scoring effort of the season; the 10 for her career.

Hyder Paces LSU in Rebounding Against UConn

Alexis Hyder led LSU with 12 rebounds, eight of which were defensive boards, against top-ranked UConn. It was Hyder's fourth game with 10 or more rebounds. Hyder made it five games with her 10-rebound game versus Texas A&M.

UConn Too Much for Lady Tigers

The Lady Tigers were held to just 14 points in the first half off a 7-of-27 shooting effort from the field by the UConn Huskies. It was the lowest scoring output for LSU in a half this season. The previous low was 16 against Maine in the final game of the Gulf Coast Showcase. The Huskies shot 46.3 percent (31-67) from the field for the first game this season they were held below 50 percent from the field. The Lady Tigers were held to 29.6 percent (16-54) shooting from the field.

Hyder Leads in Scoring and Rebounding at Rutgers

Junior Alexis Hyder led LSU in scoring and rebounding in the loss at Rutgers with 16 points and seven rebounds, six of which were offensive boards. She was 5-of-16 from the field and 6-of-8 from the free-throw line in her fifth game of double-digit scoring this season. With her 12 rebounds against UConn and 10 versus Ole Miss, Hyder has been LSU's leading rebounder in seven games.

Pedersen Has Best Game At Rutgers

Senior Anne Pedersen gave the Lady Tigers quality minutes versus Rutgers, coming off the bench and scoring a season-high 11 points on 5-of-7 shooting from the field in 27 minutes of action. Her previous high was seven points against UL Monroe and Long Beach State. LSU ran into a scoring drought in the third quarter, missing eight straight field goals between the 8:00 and 1:16 marks before Pedersen snapped the streak with two consecutive jumpers at the end of the period. Pedersen was back in the starting lineup in the loss at Rutgers. Pedersen upped her game against Samford and set a new career high with 15 points as the leading scorer for the Lady Tigers in that loss. She also led in rebounding with six boards.

Ann Jones Earns Degree

While she didn't get to walk at the December Commencement ceremony on Friday (Dec. 19), Ann Jones earned her degree in interdisciplinary studies. Coach Nikki Fargas and the team presented Jones her diploma at breakfast at the hotel. Jones and Pedersen both hold their degrees as Pedersen earned hers in sports administration in Spring 2015. Coach Fargas boasts a 100% graduation rate of student-athletes who have exhausted their eligibility in her four seasons at LSU. Pedersen is working on a master's degree in sport pedagogy.

Moncrief and Mitchell Out For The Year

Junior Raigyne Moncrief and freshman Ayana Mitchell both had surgery the week following Thanksgiving and are out for the remainder of the season. Moncrief, a Preseason All-SEC Second Team pick, started the first three games of the season and averaged 10.3 points and 7.0 rebounds per game during that span. Mitchell started the season opener versus Wake Forest and was a perfect 6-of-6 from the field while scoring 14 points and pulling down five rebounds. She missed the UL-Monroe game and was limited versus Little Rock and Long Beach State (avg. just 10 min. in those 2 games). She averaged 6.3 points and 3.7 rebounds in her three games of action.

Two Lady Tigers Started First 12 Games

Injuries to Raigyne Moncrief, Ayana Mitchell and Anne Pedersen forced a shift in the starting lineup this season. Juniors Alexis Hyder and Rina Hill started the first 12 games, but Hyder's streak was snapped when she did not start versus Samford. Hill is now the only Lady Tiger to start every game this season.

Pedersen had started the first seven games but missed the Maine and Texas Southern games after suffering an injury against Marist the day before the Maine contest. Pedersen started 24 consecutive games dating back to the midpoint of last season. The streak was snapped when she returned to the lineup for the UCSB game, but did not get the starting nod. Pedersen came in off the bench and had her best game so far this season against Rutgers with 11 points off a 5-of-7 shooting effort from the field. She returned to the starting lineup against UConn, and has started the last five-straight games.

Bethel Earns LSWA Honor Following Career Effort Against UCSB

Senior forward Akilah Bethel was named co-player of the week by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) on Dec. 14, following a career effort against UCSB. Bethel scored a career-high 18 points in LSU's 68-50 win over UC Santa Barbara. In the win, Bethel led the Lady Tigers in points (18), rebounds (9), assists (5) and steals (4). The five assists and four steals as well as her eight field goals made in the game tied career marks.

The Baltimore, Md., native has scored in double figures in six of the last 12 games, including a 16-point effort against Ole Miss. She averages 8.7 points and 5.9 rebounds a game this season, while also leading LSU in steals with 30.

Lady Tigers Add Walk-ons To Roster Following Tryout

This year's roster has taken a hit from injuries and the Lady Tigers were down to seven to eight healthy players dressed out for many of the non-league games. Coach Nikki Fargas held a tryout on Dec. 10 and added four walk-ons to the roster. One walk-on who was eligible for the Rutgers/UConn road swing was Constance Quinn, who is currently a member of the LSU softball team. Quinn is from Hattiesburg, Miss., and will be a junior this year. She played 63 games, making 60 starts in 2015. She started 48 games at second base, and was named to the 2015 NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional Team.

Quinn came in off the bench late in the fourth quarter against Rutgers and in just three minutes of action, she registered a steal and an assist. Two days later against UConn, she played nine minutes of the fourth quarter and hauled in one rebound. Quinn has played at least five minutes in four of the last five games.

Kayla Lee, a freshman from Ponchatoula, La., was cleared to play against Samford but did not see action. She prepped at Ponchatoula HS. Amber Jones of Hammond, La., was dressed out for the first time against Ole Miss. She is a junior who prepped at Hammond High Magnet School. During the 2011-12 season, she averaged 11.0 points and 3.7 rebounds a game. Also on the roster for the Ole Miss game was Ashley Humbles, a junior from New Orleans, La. Humbles has played two seasons at Concordia University.

Lee and Humbles entered the Ole Miss game in the final minute of the contest. Humbles tallied a rebound and was whistled for a turnover in her first meeting.

Lady Tigers Take Care of Ball Versus Marist/TSU

In the win over Marist, LSU turned the ball over just four times and two games later against Texas Southern, the Lady Tigers coughed the ball up just six times. Last season, LSU turned the ball over 10 or fewer times in four games. The four turnovers against Marist was the lowest since LSU gave up just three turnovers against Arkansas on Feb. 28, 2008. The Lady Tigers recorded their third sub-10 turnover game against Samford, tallying just nine miscues in that loss.

Jenna Deemer is averaging a low of 0.81 turnovers per game. She had not coughed up the ball in four-straight games (110 minutes of action) but that streak was snapped when she turned the ball over a single time against Rutgers.

Hyder Records Consecutive Double-Doubles

Junior Alexis Hyder recorded back-to-back double-doubles in the second and third days of the Gulf Coast Showcase over the Thanksgiving break. Against Marist, Hyder scored a season-best 19 points and also hauled in 14 rebounds in the win. A day later, in the loss to Maine, Hyder scored 13 points and tallied 11 rebounds. For the tournament, Hyder scored 40 points and pulled down 31 rebounds. Hyder missed her third consecutive double-double after scoring 13 and hauling in nine rebounds in the win over Texas Southern. She continues to lead the team in rebounding with 7.5 boards per game.

Shanice Norton Makes First Career Start

Freshman Shanice Norton made her first start against Maine in the final day of the Gulf Coast Showcase with senior Anne Pedersen out with an injury she suffered the day before against Marist. The Lady Tigers were down to just eight players dressed out for the game with Raigyne Moncrief and Ayana Mitchell also out with injuries. Norton played a season-high 32 minutes in the win over Marist and hauled in a season-best eight rebounds. She was held scoreless and logged three rebounds in 29 minutes against Maine. Norton started again versus Texas Southern and had the best game of her short career with a team-leading 15 points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals. She was a perfect 4-of-4 from the free-throw line.

Pedersen was back in the lineup against UCSB, but Norton received the starting nod for the third-straight game, and registered six rebounds and four points against the Gauchos. Norton also started versus Rutgers and was held scoreless by the Scarlet Knights. She came in off the bench versus UConn and posted six points and three rebounds. She has started the last four games against Samford, Alabama, Ole Miss and Texas A&M. She posted eight points and eight rebounds in the win over the Rebels.

Lady Tigers Get Biggest Win Since 2011

LSU opened December with a 50-point (86-36) win over Texas Southern at home for their largest victory since defeating Arkansas-Pine Bluff by 52 (80-28) on Nov. 21, 2011. The last time the Lady Tigers held an opponent below 40 points was a 51-39 win over Alabama on Feb. 8 of last season.

LSU Hits 87.5% From Free-Throw Line Vs TSU

The Lady Tigers hit a season-best 87.5 percent (21-24) of their free-throw shots against Texas Southern. This was the second time this season that LSU had hit at least 20 free throws, with the other contest being a 20-of-25 mark against UL-Monroe. In all of last season, LSU hit 20 or more free throws twice. While they took only seven free-throw shots against UConn, LSU was a perfect 7-of-7 from the line in that game. One game later, the Lady Tigers were 6-of-6 versus Samford.

Lady Tigers Take Sixth in Showcase

With a win over Marist and losses to Purdue and Maine, the injury-plagued Lady Tigers squad finished the Gulf Coast Showcase in sixth place. LSU outrebounded its three opponents 106-99, and forced its tourney foes to turn the ball over 46 times. The Lady Tigers only coughed up the ball 30 times, including just four times against Marist. The last time that LSU had fewer than five turnovers in a single game was three versus Arkansas on Feb. 28, 2008.

Bethel Scores Career High Vs Purdue

Senior Akilah Bethel scored a then career-high 17 points in the loss to Purdue in the first round of the Gulf Coast Showcase. Bethel was 8-of-10 from the field and also led the team in rebounds with nine, eight of which were defensive boards. Bethel has started all but one game for the Lady Tigers this season, and leads the team in steals with 24. She scored in double figures in four-consecutive games with 10 vs Tulane, 17 vs Purdue, 13 vs Marist and 11 vs Maine, before Texas Southern held her to just seven points.

Bethel set a new career mark with 18 points against UCSB on Dec. 13. She was 8-of-14 from the field and 2-of-5 from the free-throw line.

Deemer Posts 19 Points In Hometown

Jenna Deemer is LSU's only player from Louisiana and she returned to her hometown of New Orleans to face Tulane earlier this season. She registered a team-leading 19 points in the loss to the Green Wave. She led LSU in scoring in three consecutive games, registering 19 versus both Little Rock and Tulane, and 17 against Long Beach State. She was held to just four points off a 1-of-6 shooting mark by Purdue in the first game of the Gulf Coast Showcase.

Deemer leads the Lady Tigers in scoring with 10.1 points per game and has hit 28 of LSU's 38 three pointers this season. Heading into the Ole Miss game, was the first week that Deemer's average has dipped below 10.0 ppg. In the previous three games, she was just 2-of-18 from the field. She moved her average up above 10.0 ppg with a 19-point showing against the Rebels.

Jones Giving Quality Minutes Off Bench

Ann Jones scored a career-high 14 points in the Long Beach State game off a 6-of-9 shooting effort from the field and a 2-of-4 effort from the free-throw line. Her previous career high was 12 points against Jackson State last season. She also led the team in blocks with two and was second for LSU in rebounding with eight boards. In the previous game against Little Rock, she logged a career-best four blocks.

Deemer Gets First Start of Season vs LBSU

Jenna Deemer started the Long Beach State game in place of Raigyne Moncrief. It was Deemer's first start of the season and the second of the sophomore's career. Her previous start was against UC-Santa Barbara last year. She made her second start against Tulane and tied her season-best mark with 19 points and hit a career-high six free throws in the game. Deemer has started nine of 16 games for the Lady Tigers this season.

Deemer Leads LSU in Scoring Three Straight Games

Jenna Deemer scored 19 against Little Rock, 17 against Long Beach and 19 versus Tulane to mark the second time in her short career that she has scored in double digits in three consecutive games. She also achieved this against UC Santa Barbara (13), UNC Greensboro (15) and Miami (17) last year.

Deemer Posts Career-High Six Treys Versus Little Rock

Sophomore guard Jenna Deemer sunk a career-best six three pointers to propel LSU to the 57-51 win over Little Rock on the road. Deemer's nine three-point attempts was a career high, with her previous mark being six attempts, which she registered three times last season. The New Orleans native hit a half-court shot at the first quarter buzzer to give LSU a 14-10 lead heading into the second period.

Deemer's 19 points against Little Rock was the second-highest scoring output of her career. She scored 22 versus Ole Miss on Jan. 29, 2015. She hit 19 points a second time this season, against Tulane; and a third time versus Ole Miss.

Jones Blocks Career-Best Four Shots Versus Trojans

Senior forward Ann Jones recorded a career-best four blocked shots in the win over Little Rock. It was the second time in her career that she has registered multiple blocks in a game. Jones' four blocks was the most for a Lady Tiger since Shanece McKinney posted five blocks in the second round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament against West Virginia. She posted another game of multiple blocks with two in the win over Long Beach State.

Lady Tigers From the Line

After hitting just 43.5 percent (10-23) of their free throws in the season-opening loss at Wake Forest, the Lady Tigers recovered with an 80.0 percent (20-25) shooting clip from the charity stripe against ULM.

For the year, LSU is 173-of-262 (66.0%) from the free-throw line. They hit 75% (9-12) from the line against LBSU and 81.3% (13-16) against Tulane but struggled in the Gulf Coast Showcase, capitalizing on just 25 of their 47 attempts (53.2%) from the line. They picked up their average with a 21-of-24 effort against Texas Southern.

Rina Hill hit an impressive 8-of-8 free-throw shots in the win over Texas Southern.

Hyder Tallies First LSU Double-Double Versus UL-Monroe

Junior transfer Alexis Hyder recorded her first double-double as a Lady Tiger against UL-Monroe. Hyder posted 15 points and 15 rebounds in the overtime victory. She was 5-of-9 from the field and hit all five of her free-throw shots. Hyder transferred to LSU from North Texas and sat out the 2014-15 season due to NCAA transfer rules. Hyder leads the Lady Tigers in rebounding through 16 games with an average of 7.5 boards per game.

Lady Tigers Add Three For 2016-17

The Lady Tigers have added post Faustine Aifuwa, guard Jaelyn Richard-Harris and forward Yasmine Bidikuindila for the 2016-17 season. Considered one of the top centers in the nation, Aifuwa is a 6-foot-5 player from Dacula High School in Dacula, Ga. She averages 14 points, 12.6 rebounds, and 4.5 blocks per game. Richard-Harris is a 5-foot-4 guard who should add to the Lady Tigers' up-tempo game. She signed with LSU out of Dekaney High School in Houston, Texas, where she averages 11.0 points, 7.3 assists and 4.0 steals per game. A native of Montreal, Quebec, Canada, Bidikuindila gives the Lady Tigers added size in the front court at 6-foot-6. She originally signed with Providence College in December 2013 while attending Champlain College Saint-Lambert in Quebec, Canada. Coach Fargas said this about the class: "This is one of the best classes that we have signed in the years that we have been here. The leadership of all three of these players is going to add to the nucleus that we have returning next year."
