THE STORYLINE

- The University of Florida football team will travel to Nashville for its final conference road trip to face the Vanderbilt Commodores at 6:00 p.m. on ESPNU.
- Florida (5-0, 4-0 SEC) is coming off of a huge win over No. 4/3 LSU at home, scoring 14 unanswered points in the second half to secure the victory, 14-6, and improved to 4-0 in the SEC. UF only had three SEC wins all of last season.
- The Gators continue to dominate the second half. UF is the only team in the nation that has allowed zero fourth-quarter points, outscoring opponents 41-0 in the final period.
- Vanderbilt (2-3, 1-2 SEC) got a conference road win at Missouri last week, defeating the Tigers, 19-15.
- The Gators are looking for their 22nd win in a row over the - Commodores, a streak dating back to 1989. The last Vanderbilt win over UF was in 1988, when VU upset No. 20 Florida, 24-9, in Nashville.

- Florida RB Mike Gillislee was named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week against LSU, rushing for 146 yards and two TD. He ranks first in the SEC and 18th nationally with 109.6 rushing yards per game and has 7 TD.
- The Gators moved up to No. 4 in the AP poll and No. 6 in the USA Today/Coaches poll. No. 4 marks UF's highest ranking since the 2010 preseason poll (ranked No. 4), and is its highest regular-season ranking since the 2009 season when it ranked No. 1 after the regular season.

LAST TIME OUT

Mike Gillislee scored a pair of second-half touchdowns and Florida rallied in the second half once again for a 14-6 victory over LSU in a match-up of top 10 teams at The Swamp.

LSU led early, getting a pair of field goals from Drew Alleman, but for the third time in four SEC games, the Gators made the necessary adjustments in the locker room and seized control in the second half.

After trailing 6-0 at the half, the Gators took their second drive of the third quarter and marched 85 yards on eight plays to take the lead on Gillislee's 12-yard touchdown run. The Gators came up with another long, well-executed drive of 77 yards on 11 plays and got a second 12-yard touchdown run from Gillislee to take a 14-6 lead with 13:18 left in the game, all the scoring they would need.

After posting just 47 yards of offense in the first half, Florida finished with 237, including 176 on the ground against an LSU defense that entered allowing 86 yards per game on the ground. Gillislee finished with 146 yards on a career-high 34 carries.

The two teams combined for just 128 yards of offense in the first half – 81 by LSU and 47 by Florida. Gator punter Kyle Christy pinned the Tigers inside their own 10-yard line three times in the first half. After LSU's opening drive, Florida forced the Tigers to five three-and-outs, an interception by Jaylen Watkins and a critical stop after LSU took over at the Gators' 7-yard line.

LSU took the opening kick and moved 64 yards on 10 plays. Zach Mettenberger hit 4-of-5 passes on the opening drive for 47 yards, including a 20-yarder to Spencer Ware and a 13-yard pass to Nic Jacobs.

Facing a third-and-10 at the UF 21-yard line, Mettenberger hit J.C. Copeland with a 7-yard gain but he came up shy of the first down. Moments later, Alleman connected from 31 yards out to give the Tigers a 3-0 lead with 10:48 left in the first quarter.

Watkins intercepted Mettenberger in LSU territory and returned it to the Tigers' 38, but Florida could not sustain a drive and was forced to punt.

On its next drive, Florida appeared poised to tie the game, marching to the LSU 22-yard line. Driskel hit Jordan Reed for a 14-yard pass, then also came up with runs of 17 and 10 yards to march the Gators into scoring position. The drive was halted, however, when Driskel hit Frankie Hammond with a short pass, and Hammond took a strong hit from Kevin Minter and fumbled. LSU recovered and ended the Gator threat.

With just over two minutes remaining in the half, disaster struck for the Gators. Bennie Logan sacked Driskel, who fumbled, and LSU's Barkevious Mingo recovered at the UF 7, setting up the Tigers second score. After a strong defensive stand by the Gators, Alleman trotted on for a 21-yard field goal with :24 left in the half that sent the game into the locker room with LSU leading, 6-0.

The defensive stand for the Gators was a possible turning point, as despite the Gators' offensive struggles, they trailed by less than a touchdown heading into the locker room, a deficit that could have been worse.

On the Gators' second possession of the second half, Driskel hit Jordan Reed with a 14-yard slant on the first play. Gillislee capped the 85-yard drive with his 12-yard touchdown run to give Florida its first lead.

On the ensuing drive, LSU appeared to respond strongly. Mettenberger hit Odell Beckham with a 56-yard pass to the Florida 23-yard line but appeared to fumble. The review showed that Matt Elam forced the ball out and De'Ante Saunders recovered and the threat was ended.

The Gators then rode Gillislee all the way to the end zone again, as his second 12-yard touchdown run of the game capped an 11-play, 77-yard drive that ate up nearly six minutes off the clock to grab a 14-6 lead early in the fourth quarter.

Florida controlled the ball for 37:24 overall and most of the second half. The Gators got the ball back with just under four minutes remaining and ran the clock down to :20 before punting. LSU got the ball back with :09 left and attempted one last trick play but a lateral was fumbled, Florida fell on it and came up with its first win over a top-five team since 2009.

AUBURN 23, NO. 1 FLORIDA 20

(Auburn, Ala.)

The last time that Florida played on this date, Auburn's Damon Duval, the kicker with a penchant for game-winning kicks, booted a 44-yard field with 10 seconds left in the game and the unranked Tigers upset the top-ranked Gators, 23-20, on a windy night in Jordan-Hare Stadium. It was the third game in a row that Duval hit a game-winning field goal. Rex Grossman hit Jabar Gaffney for an 80-yard touchdown that tied the game with 12:09 to play in the fourth quarter, but neither team could add points until Duval got a chance with 10 seconds left.

FROM THE LAST GAME

TEAM

- Florida improved to 5-0 for the first time since 2009.
- At 4-0, the Gators have surpassed their SEC win total of three from last season already.
- UF's victory snapped LSU's seven-game winning streak against the SEC Eastern Division, along with the Tigers' nation-leading 18-game regular-season winning streak.
- For head coach Will Muschamp, Saturday's win marked his first over a top-five team as head coach at Florida.
- Muschamp now has two wins over ranked teams after defeating then-No. 23 Tennessee and No. 3 LSU.
- The Gators did not allow their opponent to score in the second half for the third time this year (Texas A&M and Kentucky).
- Two straight games that the Gators have not surrendered a touchdown.
- Florida maintained its clean fourth-quarter slate, having now outscored its opponents, 41-0, in the 4th quarter as the only FBS team this year that hasn't allowed a point in the fourth quarter.
- Florida has outscored its opponents, 78-13, in the second half this season.
- The Gators improved to 3-0 in 2012 when trailing at the half. In those three games (Texas A&M, Tennessee, LSU), Florida has outscored the opponent, 51-6, in the second half.
- After accumulating just 47 yards of total offense in the first half, the Gators racked up 127 yards in the third quarter alone, maintaining possession of the ball for 11:27, compared to LSU's 3:33. Florida finished the evening with 237 yards, including 61 yards through the air and 176 on the ground — 146 of those from senior running back Mike Gillislee.
- Florida ran 25-straight rushing plays to end the game, starting with Gillislee's third-quarter score with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter through the end of the game.
- The Florida defense has totaled at least one interception in every game thus far in 2012, with a season-best three against Kentucky two weeks ago.
- In research dating back to 1996, Florida's 61 passing yards mark the lowest single-game output, while marking the fourth time under 100 yards. The Gator victory was Florida's second during that span with under 100 passing yards (96 yards vs. Tennessee Sept. 20, 2008; 30-6 win).
- The Gators dominated the time of possession: 37:24-22:46, winning the battle in all four quarters.
- UF had the ball for 11:27 in the third quarter and 20:19 in the second half.
- Florida was 2-for-2 in the red zone with two touchdowns.
- The Gators were +1 in turnover margin (three turnovers forced, two committed).

OFFENSE

- Mike Gillislee carried a career-high 34 times for 146 yards (4.3 avg.) and notched a pair of rushing touchdowns for the third time this year. It was his third 100-yard rushing effort of the year (148 vs. Bowling Green; 115 vs. Tennessee).
- Before today, the last time LSU allowed an individual from the opposing team to rush for 100 or more yards was Jan. 7, 2011, in the Cotton Bowl, when Texas A&M's Cyrus Gray tallied 100.
- Gillislee's 146 yards were the most for an individual versus LSU since Arkansas' Knile Davis ran for 152 against the Tigers on Nov. 27, 2010.
- Gillislee's 146 yards were the most for a Gator on the ground against LSU since 1996, and the most since Jeff Demps racked up 129 against the Tigers in 2008.

- Jeff Driskel did not throw any interceptions for the fourth time in five games this year and was 8-for-12 with 61 yards.
- With three catches for 60 yards, Jordan Reed has had three or more receptions in every game this year.
- The Gators were 7-for-14 on third-down conversions — 4-of-8 in the first half and 3-of-6 in the second half.

DEFENSE

- The Gator defense held LSU to 200 yards of total offense, its lowest output this season, while also preventing LSU from scoring a touchdown for the first time this season — last accomplished when Alabama held the Tigers scoreless in the BCS title game with just 92 yards of total offense.
- Florida's defense limited LSU to 0-for-7 on third downs in the first half. The Tigers finished the evening 1-for-13 and converted for the first time on third down with approximately 11:30 remaining in the fourth quarter.
- It marked the first time since FSU game last season that Florida has held an opponent to under 50 yards rushing.
- Florida limited LSU to 8 first downs in the game — just 1 on the ground, 4 passing and 3 via penalty.
- Florida's eight first downs allowed is tied for the second fewest vs. a ranked team in school history. UF gave up seven vs. No. 6 Tennessee on Sept. 19, 1998. UF also gave up eight vs. No. 4 Auburn on Nov. 3, 1990, and eight vs. No. 1 Ohio State on Jan. 8, 2007.
- Half of the Tigers' first downs came in the opening quarter.
- LSU rushed 25 times for 42 net yards (1.7 avg.), with a long of 13 on the day.
- The Gators forced two fumbles by Odell Beckham and recovered them both (Pop Saunders in the third quarter and Neiron Ball in the fourth).
- Florida's four sacks were a season high.
- Four different Gators recorded a sack for a total loss of 19 yards, including Jon Bostic, Josh Evans, Lerentee McCray and Damien Jacobs all with one sack apiece.
- UF had six tackles for a loss of 23 yards — second-highest total in a game this year (7.0 at Texas A&M).
- After LSU ran 10 plays on its first drive of the game, Florida held the Tigers to three plays or less on seven of their final 11 drives.
- Junior defensive back Jaylen Watkins picked off LSU quarterback Zach Mettenberger with 13:15 on the clock in the second quarter for his second-consecutive game with an interception and bringing his career total to three.
- Junior defensive back Matt Elam totaled seven tackles (all solo) to lead the Gators, while also forcing a fumble that led to Florida's second score of the day.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Sophomore punter Kyle Christy pinned LSU inside the 10-yard line on three of his four punts in the first half, including a season-long 61-yarder in the first quarter.
- Christy also booted 51, 53 and 57-yarders Saturday afternoon and now owns 15 total punts of beyond 50-yards in his Gator career, including two over 60 (61 vs. LSU 2012; 67 vs. Auburn 2011).
- Christy's four 50-yarders against the Tigers marked a career high — he also has two other games in his career with three 50-yarders — last against Tennessee.
- The Gators surrendered 22 punt return yards on 4 returns (5.5).

DEFENSIVE LINE

- The Gators look to get more pressure from the defensive line this season under the direction of defensive coordinator Dan Quinn and defensive line coach Bryant Young. In 2010, UF had just 21 sacks, the fewest for a Florida team since 2002 (20 sacks). In 2011, Florida totaled 28 sacks and set a season high with six sacks against Ohio State in the Gator Bowl. With a season-high four sacks against LSU, UF has had 19 sacks in the past 7 games, including 9 this season.
- Quinn came to UF after serving as the defensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks for two seasons. Florida looked to bring a lot of pressure from the defensive line, as the Seahawks ranked sixth in the NFC in total sacks (37.0), with 24.0 of them coming from the defensive line. Seattle had 13 different players record at least one sack in 2010, led by end Chris Clemons, who ranked seventh in the NFC with 11.0 sacks.
- The 2012 defensive line is led by a veteran group of players. Senior OMAR HUNTER and junior SHARRIF FLOYD have combined for 40 career starts and anchor the interior of the line. Junior DOMINIQUE EASLEY has 16 starts in his career and plays both inside and outside on the line. Junior RONALD POWELL has 13 career starts but tore his ACL in the spring game and is sidelined.
- Floyd is second on the Gators with 3.5 TFL and had 1.5 TFL and four tackles at Tennessee. He has 18 tackles on the season, the second-most among defensive linemen.
- Easley came through with the Gators' first sack of the year against Bowling Green, had six tackles in the win at Texas A&M and two quarterback hurries in Knoxville.
- Hunter has 23 career starts (11 in 2009, 6 in 2010, 1 in 2011, 5 in 2012), the third-most among Florida defenders. Following his career-high 8 tackles against Kentucky, he was named the SEC's Defensive Lineman of the Week. Hunter has 90 total tackles in his career and 7 TFL.
- Senior LERENTEE MCCRAY has 10 career starts at linebacker but has moved to the BUCK position. McCray came through with a key third-down sack in the fourth quarter at Texas A&M and also forced a fumble, then notched his first career interception and had a 25-yard return to set up the Gators' first TD at Tennessee. McCray also pressured Tyler Bray into throwing his second interception of the game in the third quarter. He added four tackles and a sack against LSU.
- Redshirt junior EARL OKINE, who saw action in all 13 games last year, has collected five tackles on the season.
- Sophomore LEON ORR set a career high with four tackles in the shutout of UK, two of which went for losses, and chipped in with two in the win over LSU.
- Junior college transfer DAMIEN JACOBS enrolled at Florida last January and participated in spring practices. He will bolster the interior of the line by providing added depth in 2012.

LINEBACKERS

- The linebacker group is led by JON BOSTIC and JELANI JENKINS who provide solid, veteran leadership for the defense. Bostic has started 24 games in his career at middle linebacker, while Jenkins has 25 career starts at weakside linebacker.
- Bostic began the season with a game-high eight tackles against Bowling Green before adding five tackles and team-best two TFL with one sack at Texas A&M and five tackles at Tennessee. He has 197 tackles, 17.5 tackles-for-loss, 6.5 sacks and three picks in his career.
- Jenkins totaled 5 tackles and 1.0 TFL through the first two games before suffering an injury early against Texas A&M. He returned to action against LSU.
- Sophomore MICHAEL TAYLOR had a season-best six tackles at Texas A&M, none bigger than nine-yard sack late in the second quarter which knocked the Aggies out of field-goal range. He had five tackles vs. LSU and had his second career interception against Kentucky.
- True freshman ANTONIO MORRISON enrolled in January of 2012 and participated in spring practice. He contributed right away with three tackles in the season opener. In his SEC debut, Morrison tied for second on the Gators with six tackles (five solo). He made his first career start at Tennessee and responded with five tackles, including one for a loss, before adding two more tackles against Kentucky.
- Junior DARRIN KITCHENS and sophomore NEIRON BALL split time at the SAM linebacker spot when the defense is in its regular package. Ball has 6 tackles and recovered a fumble to seal the win over LSU and Kitchens has 4 on the season.
- Ball returned to the team after sitting out the 2011 season with a medical hardship.

SECONDARY

- Junior MATT ELAM is third on the Gators with 26 tackles, including a game-high 10 at Tennessee and team-best seven vs. LSU, when he forced a game-changing fumble in the third quarter. He has 3 TFL and 2 PBU.
- Sophomore MARCUS ROBERSON (6 PBU, 1 INT) and junior JAYLEN WATKINS (5 PBU, 2 INT) are tied for second in the SEC with seven passes defended.
- Watkins had a pick against LSU and his 26-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter versus Kentucky made it five-consecutive years that the Gators have scored a non-offensive touchdown against the Wildcats. He has appeared in 28 games with 11 career starts, totaling 53 tackles, and he is second on the team with five pass breakups this year.
- In addition, Watkins' INT return marked the eighth-straight year that UF has returned a pick for an INT (dating back to 2004 season) and the Gators have returned one for six in 13 of the last 14 seasons.
- Junior CODY RIGGS forced a Bowling Green fumble on a punt return in the fourth quarter and had three tackles at Texas A&M. Riggs is sidelined for 2-3 weeks with a foot injury.
- Senior JOSH EVANS, who has 16 career starts, leads the squad 31 tackles (20 solo). Evans had a team-best 8 tackles at Texas A&M, 5 of which were solo, and had 7 at Tennessee. He has at least 5 tackles in every Gator contest this season and had a sack in the win over LSU.
- Sophomore LOUCHEIZ PURIFOY has moved into the defensive backfield rotation in 2012 after starring at special teams in 2011. Last season, Purifoy had a team-leading 22 special teams tackles as a true freshman and he made his first career start in the opener against BG.
- DE'ANTE SAUNDERS returned to action against Tennessee after missing the first two games. He had one tackle against the Vols and had his first pick of the season against Kentucky, which he returned 29 yards. Saunders had two tackles and a fumble recovery versus LSU.
- Florida had 22 interceptions in 2010, tied for 4th in the nation, 9 of which were returned for 30-plus yards, including 4 TD. Florida's 538 interception return yards were the most in the country in 2010.

- Before missing a 52-yard attempt in the second quarter against Alabama last October, Sturgis had made 14-straight field goals dating back to 2010 (a streak that was third in school history). The school record for consecutive field goals made is 17, set by Bobby Raymond in 1984.

- He became the sixth kicker in UF history to make at least three 50-yard field goals in his career (Berj Yepremian, 4; Jeff Chandler, Matt Leach, Chris Perkins and David Posey each had 3). Sturgis tied Yepremian for the top spot with a 55-yarder in the second quarter against Vanderbilt and passed him with a 55-yarder against Furman last season.
- Sturgis handles kickoffs for the Gators and has 28 kicks for 1,790 yards and a 63.9 average this year, with 14 touchbacks and 1 out of bounds.
- BRAD PHILLIPS stepped in for Sturgis against Georgia last year and was 2-for-3 on field goals, making kicks of 43 and 40 yards after missing from 38 yards on the Gators' opening drive.

RETURN GAME

- Florida was the only school in nation to have two different players with a 99-yard kick return for touchdowns in 2011, as Jeff Demps had one against Georgia and ANDRE DEBOSE broke off a long scoring run versus Ohio State.
- Debose was one of four players nationally to have a punt return (career-long 32 yards) and a kick return (38 yards) longer than 30 yards on the opening weekend of the college football season.
- UF was one of six schools in the nation to have two different players with a KOR for TD during the 2011 season, joining Arkansas, Auburn, Minnesota, TCU and UNLV.
- After never having two kick returns for touchdowns in the same year in school history prior to 2010, Florida had multiple kickoff returns for TDs in 2010 and 2011. In fact, the Gators had just nine KOR for TD in school history prior to 2009 season and have five since.
- UF's five kick returns for scores since 2009 is tied for seventh-best total in the nation and the Gators' four KOR in the last three years is tied for third-best with Auburn, New Mexico, New Mexico State, Oklahoma State, Toledo and UCF behind Arizona State (6) and Kansas State (5).
- In 2010, the Gators ranked sixth in the nation in kickoff return average (26.3 yds/return). Debose returned two kicks for TD, tied for second-most in the country, and averaged 28.0 yards per kick return, 15th-best in the nation and second-best in the SEC.
- Debose returned 19 kicks last season for 495 yards (26.1 avg.), including a 63-yarder against Georgia and a 99-yard touchdown return against Ohio State.
- Named the Most Valuable Player of the Gator Bowl, Debose's 99-yard TD in the second quarter was the longest play in the bowl's history and his third kickoff return for a score established a UF career mark.
- In 2010, Debose recorded an 88-yard kickoff return for a TD against LSU, marking the first for UF since Brandon James took one back in the 2009 season opener against Charleston Southern. Debose became the second freshman in UF history to have a kickoff return for a TD, joining Bo Carroll, who accomplished the feat in 1997.
- Debose then took the opening kickoff vs. South Carolina back for a 99-yard TD, setting a UF single-season record with his second kickoff return for a TD and tying the school's career record (Bo Carroll, Stacey Simmons).
- Debose tied the UF single-game record with 159 kickoff return yards vs. South Carolina (Tony Lomack, vs. Kentucky, Nov. 18, 1989) in 2010. Debose's 154 vs. LSU in 2010 marked the third-highest single-game total in UF history. Chris Rainey totaled 148 vs. Georgia in 2011, which is the fourth-highest in team history.
- SOLOMON PATTON had a season-high 33-yard kickoff return against Alabama last October and also had career highs in kick returns (5) and kick return yardage (132) versus the Crimson Tide. He had 10 returns for 241 yards last season (24.1 avg.).

BLOCKED KICKS

- Florida has blocked six kicks in Will Muschamp's first 18 games as a head coach. SOLOMON PATTON blocked an FAU punt in the 2011 season opener that was returned 22 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the school-record seventh-straight year that the Gators had returned a punt for a TD via a block or return. It marked the second-straight contest that Patton had blocked a punt (2011 Outback Bowl vs. Penn State).
- SHARRIF FLOYD collected his first career block by swatting a 32-yard FG attempt by Vanderbilt. It was the Gators' first field-goal block last year and first since versus Kentucky in 2010. DOMINIQUE EASLEY notched his first-ever block by getting his hand on a Furman punt last year.

FAMILY TRADITION

- JOHN CROFOOT, who serves as the holder on the field-goal unit, and younger brother, KYLE CROFOOT, are the fourth and fifth members of the Crofoot family to serve as special-teamers at SEC schools, following brothers Clayton (Auburn, 2008-09), Chas (Auburn, 2004-05) and Ike (South Carolina, 2003-06).

TITLE CENTRAL

Florida is one of two schools in the nation to win three outright national titles since 1990. The 2006 and 2008 national championships were decided in the BCS National Championship Game, and Florida was the unanimous pick in all four major polls in 1996. Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011) and Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997) have also won three national titles in that time frame, but the Huskers' 1997 title was split with Michigan.

- The crowd of 90,888 for the UF-Alabama game on Oct. 1, 2011, was the second-highest single-game total in school history and the most since 90,885 watched the Orange and Blue face South Carolina on Nov. 13, 2010.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Florida is the only school in the Southeastern Conference to have two inductees into the NFL Hall of Fame since 2001.

Former Gator running back Emmitt Smith was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Aug. 7, 2010, following Gator great Jack Youngblood into the elite fraternity.

Smith was a three-time All-American at UF from 1987-89. He established 58 school records in three seasons, including a career rushing mark of 3,928. Following his junior season with the Gators, Smith was a first-round selection in the 1990 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. He finished his career with 18,355 rushing yards and 164 rushing TD, both of which are NFL records. He was named the honorary captain for the 2011 UF vs. Tennessee game.

Youngblood, regarded as the best defensive end in UF history, became the first Gator enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He was named to the All-SEC team of the decade for the 1970s and was the Most Outstanding Player at the 1971 Senior Bowl. He went on to be a five-time All-Pro player for the L.A. Rams. Youngblood appeared in a Rams' record 201 consecutive games and only missed one game in his 14 seasons, that one coming in his final season in 1984.

UF'S LEGENDARY STATUS

NATION'S ELITE

- No other school has captured a national title while facing the nation's toughest schedule. According to NCAA statistics, Florida has done so twice, in 1996 and 2006, and also won the 2008 title facing the second-toughest schedule in the country. UF was one of two schools (Arkansas) to face a top-10 strength of schedule four times from 2006-10.
- UF is the only school to claim three national championships in the past 13 years. The Gators have also played in the national championship game four times in the past 14 years.
- Florida is one of only two schools in the nation with three quarterbacks to win the Heisman Trophy and one of two schools nationally to have multiple Heisman winners since 1996.
- Florida is the only school in the nation to post 100 wins during each of the last two decades. UF won 102 games in the 1990s and 100 games in the 2000s. UF is one of only three schools in NCAA history to win 100 or more games in two different decades.
- The Gators won at least nine games for a period of 12-consecutive years (1990-2001), something only three schools in major college history have done and no other SEC school has done.
- Florida became one of six schools in major college history to win 100 games during a decade, producing a 102-22-1 record in the 1990s. UF again reached that benchmark in the 2000s, going 100-30.
- UF is the only school in modern major college history to score 500 or more points for a period of four-straight years (1993-96).
- Florida is one of two schools to have a player selected in the first round of the NFL Draft for nine-consecutive years, with a Gator being tabbed each year from 1983-91 (Miami, 14 years, 1995-2008).
- UF is one of only four schools in the nation to have multiple recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly the Draddy Trophy), which is presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. (Brad Culpepper, '91; Danny Wuerffel, '96; Tim Tebow, '09)
- UF is the only school in the nation to have a Heisman Trophy recipient who also received the Campbell Trophy. Wuerffel accomplished both in 1996, while Tebow earned the Heisman in 2007 and the Campbell in 2009.

SEC ELITE

- Florida is one of two SEC schools to have three Heisman Trophy winners: Steve Spurrier (1966), Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Tim Tebow (2007).
- No other SEC school has won at least 10 games for a period of six-consecutive years (1993-98), something only three schools in major college history have done.
- The Gators are the only SEC team to rank in the top 15 of the final polls for 12-straight years, and only four have done it in major college football history.
- The Gators have the best league record over a 100-SEC-game span, going 87-13 in SEC play from the beginning of the 1990 season through the seventh conference game of 2001.
- Florida is only one of two schools in SEC history to claim four league championships in a row (1993-96). Florida has played in 10 of the 19 SEC Championship Games that have been held, winning seven.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"It's going to be a challenge, of course, but I'm ready for everything. I'm just so blessed and honored too, because when I was at Florida, I played against Andre Caldwell, Louis Murphy and Percy Harvin every day in practice. So playing versus those dudes definitely got me ready for the next level. I think just being able to play against that type of talent will just transfer over and help the transition a whole lot easier."

HEAD COACH WILL MUSCHAMP

When athletic director Jeremy Foley began his search for the University of Florida's next head football coach, he knew exactly what he was looking for in a coach: someone familiar with the Southeastern Conference, a coach who had competed on the big stage, a relentless recruiter who was familiar with the state of Florida and the SEC and someone with energy and passion. From the very beginning, the search honed in on one person and on December 11, 2010, former Gainesville native Will Muschamp was introduced by Foley as the 23rd head coach in Florida football history.

Muschamp, 41, came to UF after being the coach-in-waiting and defensive coordinator at the University of Texas since November 2008. He brings 16 years of coaching experience with him, including 12 years in the SEC, eight as a coach and four as a player at the University of Georgia. Muschamp has also served as defensive coordinator at Auburn University (2006-07) and LSU (2002-04); he was LSU's linebackers coach in 2001) and was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. The son of a football coach, he turned down appointments at West Point and Annapolis to become a four-year letterman as a safety at the University of Georgia from 1991-94, where he was voted defensive co-captain as a senior.

Not only does Muschamp, a highly-respected coach among both his peers and his players, bring collegiate and National Football League experience back to Gainesville, he also brings a wealth of big-game experience. He has coached in two national championship games, winning the ultimate prize in 2003 while defensive coordinator at LSU, and coached in a third BCS bowl game following the 2008 season, when Texas won the Fiesta Bowl. In addition to his national championship past, Muschamp has coached in the SEC Championship Game twice and in the Big 12 Championship Game once, coming out on the winning side in each of those three contests.

Muschamp's first season in Gainesville produced the school's 24th consecutive winning season and its 32nd consecutive season of .500 football or better, the longest streaks in the nation. With the victory over Ohio State in the TaxSayer.com Gator Bowl, UF established a school record with its fourth straight bowl win. Muschamp's first squad will go down as one of the youngest in school history; 15 true freshmen and 52 underclassmen saw action – the second most in school history.

UF finished the year with 72 scholarship players, including four walk-ons who were awarded scholarships in August prior to start of the season. The Gators opened fall camp with just nine scholarship seniors.

Despite returning 37 combined starts on the defensive side of the ball, the fewest in the SEC, Muschamp's defense ranked second in the nation in third down conversion defense (.273) – the best national ranking in school history. Florida allowed just 166.8 yards per game passing to rank seventh nationally and permitted just 299.5 yards per game to rank eighth nationally.

In his five seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's defenses ranked among the nation's top 10 in total defense every single year, while always maintaining a top-15 rating in scoring defense, including three times inside the top 10.

In four of his eight seasons overall as a Division I defensive coordinator, the high-energy coach's team has allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and has twice led the nation in rushing defense while yielding less than 75 rushing yards per game. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to pace the nation.

From 2008-10 under Muschamp's guidance, the Texas defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks for 949 yards lost. His unit also ranked in the top 10 nationally during the same time frame in several other major categories, allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth), 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all of which are Big 12 bests during that span. He also helped the Longhorns' defense to top-20 rankings during his tenure at Texas, with 650 first downs allowed (18th) and a 114.3 pass efficiency defense (20th).

In 2009, the Texas Longhorns advanced to the BCS National Championship Game as Muschamp's charges gave up just 73.1 rushing yards per game, the best figure by any BCS school from 2008-10. The Longhorns also led the nation in 2009 in third-down defense (26.5 percent), turnovers created (37, tied with Ohio University) and interceptions (25) as Texas claimed the Big 12 championship in 2009.

Under Muschamp's tutelage at Texas, Brian Orakpo claimed the 2008 Rotary Lombardi Award (lineman of the year), Bronko Nagurski Trophy (most outstanding defensive player) and Ted Hendricks Award (top defensive end), while the Longhorns' defense saw Sergio Kindle become the first player in college football history to be named a finalist for both the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and the Hendricks Award. Earl Thomas also earned finalist honors for the Jim Thorpe Award in 2009.

In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined eight players drafted, including seven in the first four rounds and two first-rounders in Orakpo and Thomas.

In a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 2006-07, Muschamp's defense ranked third in the nation in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and fourth in the nation pass defense (170.7 pass yards per game). During the same time frame, Auburn ranked third in the SEC in total defense by holding opponents to 295.1 yards per game.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU as the linebackers coach for one season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 yards per game). The Tigers allowed just 19 touchdowns all season in 2003, three less than the next closest competitor nationally.

Between his positions at LSU and Auburn, Muschamp spent a season with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2005 as Assistant Head Coach for Defense. He helped the Dolphins finish second in the league with 49 sacks, while leading Miami to top-10 finishes with 4.7 yards per play (seventh), 3.7 yards per rush (seventh) and 6.0 yards per pass (ninth).

The 1994 graduate of the University of Georgia moved immediately into coaching following his collegiate playing career, working as a graduate assistant at Auburn from 1995-96, earning his master's degree in 1996. He became a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving on to his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season, where he helped the Blazers to a 10-2 record and the Gulf South Conference championship with an 8-1 league mark.

In his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain for his senior season. He also earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

Muschamp and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Jackson and Whit.

GAME 1

NO. 23/23 FLORIDA 27, BOWLING GREEN 14

September 1, 2012

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 84,704

Florida scored the game's final 13 points en route to a 27-14 victory over Bowling Green. With the game tied at 14-14 in the third quarter, UF got a pair of field goals from Caleb Sturgis and a 50-yard touchdown reception from Frankie Hammond to pull away and extend the nation's second-longest streak of opening-day victories to 23. Following the Gators' opening possession of the game, Bowling Green took over at its own 11 and mounted the first sustained drive, marching 89 yards in 12 plays and taking 5:36 off the clock. Falcon quarterback Matt Schilz connected on 7-of-9 passes on the drive, including a 22-yarder to Alex Bayer and an 18-yarder to Chris Gallon that set Bowling Green up at the Gators' 2-yard line. Pettigrew scored from a yard out to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead with 1:17 left in the opening quarter. The Gators responded with a 13-play, 85-yard drive that took 6:48 and culminated with Gillislee's 15-yard touchdown. His score came a play after head coach Will Muschamp gambled on 4th-and-1 at the Bowling Green 17-yard line and got a 2-yard gain from Hunter Joyer. The Gators got 75 of the yards on the drive on the ground, including 44 from Gillislee. A defensive stand by the Gators forced another punt. Gillislee wasted little time taking advantage of good field position, bursting around the right end for a 38-yard score on the first offensive snap of the drive to give the Gators their first lead of the season. Bowling Green tried to cut into the lead before the end of the half, but Stephen Stein missed a 31-yard field goal and the score remained 14-7. The Falcons marched 55 yards in eight plays in the third quarter to tie the game on Samuel's 12-yard touchdown run. The drive was aided by a fake punt for a first down that moved the ball inside the 30-yard line and sustained the drive. Florida forced another punt, which was shanked out of bounds at the Falcons' 18-yard line. Sturgis hit a 34-yard field goal with 6:03 remaining in the third quarter and the Gators regained the lead, 17-14. Bowling Green marched deep into UF territory on the following drive, but Stein missed from 29 yards out. After nearly three quarters of turnover-free football for both teams, Omarius Hines fumbled and Bowling Green took over at the Gators' 30-yard line. Facing a 3rd and 3 at the Gators' 23-yard line on the opening play of the fourth quarter, however, Schilz's pass was tipped and intercepted by Marcus Roberson, who returned it 31 yards to the UF 47-yard line. Moments later, Hammond hauled in a short pass from Driskel on 3rd and 7 at midfield and did the rest himself, taking it 50 yards to extend the Gators' lead to 24-14 with 13:18 to go. Sturgis made it 27-14 with 8:28 remaining, booming a 51-yard field goal, extending his school record with his sixth career field goal of 50+ yards.

GAME 2

NO. 24/23 FLORIDA 20, TEXAS A&M 17

September 8, 2012

Kyle Field | College Station, TX

Attendance: 87,114

It was a tale of two halves, but it added up to Florida taking its SEC opener at Texas A&M, 20-17, in front of a boisterous crowd at Kyle Field in College Station. For the second-straight week, Florida scored the game's final 13 points, this time erasing a 17-7 second-quarter deficit. Mike Gillislee had a pair of touchdown runs, including a 12-yarder early in the fourth quarter to give the Gators the lead for good, while Caleb Sturgis helped Florida erase a 10-point deficit with a pair of field goals. The Aggies, in their first game as an SEC program, took the opening kick and marched 65 yards in 15 plays to grab the lead on a Taylor Bertolet field goal from 27 yards. Johnny Manziel, the first freshman to start the season opener at A&M since 1944, completed 6-of-8 passes for 33 yards and ran twice for 19 yards on the opening drive. Sophomore quarterback Jeff Driskel, making his first career start under center, led the Gators on a 13-play, 75-yard drive to take the lead. Facing a 3rd-and-11, Driskel hit Frankie Hammond for a 17-yard gain to the Texas A&M 46 that helped propel the drive. Facing a 4th-and-1 at the Aggies' 16-yard line, the Gators lined up for a field goal but faked it and Trey Burton got the first down and additional yardage was tacked on for a face mask. Two plays later, Gillislee gave the Gators a 7-3 lead. The Aggies came right back, however, as Manziel marched A&M 81 yards in 13 plays to grab a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter. Manziel raced in from 11 yards out to cap the drive as the Aggies regained the lead with 13:39 left in the first half. After forcing the first punt of the game by the Gators, the Aggies got the ball back and again kept the Gators off balance. Manziel used play-action to hit Mike Evans for a 27-yard gain down the right sideline to put the Aggies at the UF 13-yard line. Moments later, Christine Michael scored from 1-yard out to give the Aggies a 17-7 lead with 7:01 left in the half. Manziel was near-flawless in the first half, finishing 16-of-20 passing for 141 yards and rushing nine times for 41 yards. Needing a big response, the Gators got some momentum back with a nine-play, 37-yard drive that ended with a 51-yard field goal from Sturgis, the seventh career field goal of 50+ yards for the senior, extending his school record. The field goal was set up by a 30-yard pass play from Driskel to Jordan Reed. Florida received the kickoff in the second half and went 67 yards on 10 plays before Sturgis kicked a 25-yard field goal to cut the lead to 17-13. The UF defense held the Aggies to just 28 yards of offense in the third quarter, forcing three punts in the quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, Driskel hit Omarius Hines for a 39-yard pass down the right sideline, setting up the Gators at the A&M 18-yard line. Gillislee scored moments later, dancing along the sideline from 12 yards out to make it 20-17. After exchanging punts, the Gators got the ball with 3:13 remaining while Texas A&M had all three timeouts remaining. UF was able to pound the ball and run the clock out, preserving the victory. After piling up 269 yards of offense in the first half, A&M managed just 65 the remainder of the game.

GAME 3

NO. 18/17 FLORIDA 37, NO. 23/RV TENNESSEE 20

September 15, 2012

Neyland Stadium | Knoxville, TN

Attendance: 102,435

Trey Burton, Jordan Reed and Frankie Hammond scored touchdowns as the Gators exploded for 24-straight points to take a 37-20 decision over Tennessee before an electric crowd at Neyland Stadium. With the win, the Gators rallied in the second half on the road for the second-consecutive week and sent the Vols to their first defeat of the year. It was Florida's eighth-straight win in the series. Burton took a direct snap from center, sprinted to his right and raced a career-long 80 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 20 late in the third quarter. The touchdown was Burton's second of the night and marked the longest run of his career. It keyed a night in which Florida exploded for a season-high 555 yards of total offense (336 rushing, 219 passing). Shortly after Matt Elam intercepted Tennessee quarterback Tyler Bray, Jeff Driskel hooked up with Reed on a beautiful 23-yard pass to the left corner of the end zone to give the Gators the lead. Mike Gillislee set up the touchdown with a 45-yard run into UT territory and went over the century mark again, finishing with 115 yards on 18 carries. Driskel then found Hammond for a short pass that he turned up-field and ran away from the Vols' defense en route to a 75-yard touchdown strike to give the Gators a two-touchdown lead. Caleb Sturgis added his third field goal of the night, a 49-yarder with 6:44 remaining, to give Florida a 37-20 lead, capping a run of 24-straight points after trailing much of the first three quarters. A.J. Johnson scored on a 1-yard touchdown run midway through the third quarter to give Tennessee a 20-13 lead, but UT kicker Derrick Brodus struck the upright on his point-after attempt to keep the Gators within a touchdown on the scoreboard. Burton evened it and the Reed-Driskel combo put UF in front. Sturgis ended the first half with a 20-yard field goal and started the second with a 25-yarder after the Gators stalled on two drives inside of the Tennessee 10-yard line. UT grabbed a 14-7 lead when Bray found tight end Michael Rivera in the back of the end zone for a 6-yard touchdown strike that marked his second TD pass of the game. On that drive, the Vols converted three third downs - all on Bray passes - during a 16-play, 76-yard march, capped when Bray found Rivera in the end zone. Earlier, Bray hit Cordarrelle Patterson for a 2-yard touchdown pass late in the first period to tie the game at 7. The drive was sparked by a 42-yard reception from Justin Hunter, then followed by a 15-yard pass interference call. That UT touchdown evened things after Lerentee McCray's first career interception, plus his 25-yard return. Burton lined up behind center, took a direct snap and sprinted around left end for a 14-yard TD run to give UF a 7-0 lead midway through the opening period. On the previous play, Driskel hit Reed for 20 yards to move the Gators into scoring position. Driskel looked by far the most comfortable of his young career, finishing 14-of-20 passing for 219 yards and a pair of touchdown passes. He added eight carries for 81 yards. Just as noteworthy, the Gators' signal-caller was not sacked once on the day.

GAME 4

NO. 14/14 FLORIDA 38, KENTUCKY 0

September 22, 2012

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 87,102

Back at home for the first time in three weeks, Florida (4-0, 3-0 SEC) shook off some early rust to run away from Kentucky (1-3, 0-1 SEC), 38-0, giving the Gators their 26th-straight win in the series. For UF, it was its first shutout since defeating UAB, 39-0, in week two last year, and its first shutout of an SEC opponent since defeating Mississippi State, 52-0, on Sept. 29, 2001. Florida got its scoring from a 27-yard field goal from Caleb Sturgis, 1-yard touchdown runs from Mike Gillislee, Jeff Driskel and Jacoby Brissett, a 26-yard interception return by Jaylen Watkins and a 19-yard reception by Quinton Dunbar. The Gators had a 27-yard field goal from Sturgis to grab the game's first points with 5:18 left in the first quarter, covering 49 yards on five plays. After Craig McIntosh's 54-yard field-goal attempt went wide left, the Gators took advantage of the miss, marching 63 yards on 10 plays and taking 5:02 off the clock. Driskel connected with Frankie Hammond on a 24-yard pass over the middle to move the Gators into Kentucky territory. After a 5-yard completion to Hunter Joyer on third down gave the Gators a first-and-goal at the Kentucky 1-yard line, Gillislee carried it in for a score on the next play for his fifth rushing touchdown of the season, giving the Gators a 10-0 lead with 12:04 left in the half. The Wildcats got the ball back but facing a 3rd-and-7, Morgan Newton's pass was intercepted by De'Ante Saunders and returned 29 yards to the Kentucky 23. The Gators were unable to take advantage, however, as Driskel took a shot at the end zone and the result was his first interception of the year. Capping a stretch of three-straight possessions with a pick, Watkins stepped in front of the Wildcat receiver and read Newton's pass perfectly, grabbing the interception and returning it 26 yards to give the Gators a 17-0 lead with 8:24 left in the half. Getting the ball back late in the half, Driskel engineered an impressive drive, marching the Gators 76 yards in seven plays and using just 1:18 off the clock. Driskel hit Jordan Reed with a 34-yard pass over the middle and then a personal foul tacked on 15 more yards to the Kentucky 19-yard line. Moments later, Driskel hit Dunbar with a 19-yard strike to close out the first-half scoring. As the second half began, it was more of the same, as Driskel led the Gators on another long drive that ate up a large chunk of the third quarter. UF marched 72 yards on 15 plays and took 9:03 off the clock on the drive, capped by a 1-yard touchdown run by Driskel. As the fourth quarter arrived and with the game in hand, head coach Will Muschamp called on Brissett at quarterback, as the sophomore saw his first action since the week one win over Bowling Green. Brissett capped a 9-play, 47-yard drive with a 1-yard keeper with 6:47 left to make it 38-0. Florida had near perfect balance offensively, getting 403 yards of total offense with 203 yards passing and 200 yards rushing.

GAME 5NO. 10/11 FLORIDA 14, NO. 3/4 LSU 6

October 6, 2012

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 90,824

Mike Gillislee scored a pair of second-half touchdowns and No. 10/11 Florida (5-0, 4-0 SEC) rallied in the second half for a 14-6 victory over No. 3/4 LSU (5-1, 1-1 SEC) in a match-up of top-10 teams. LSU led early, getting a pair of field goals from Drew Alleman, but, for the third time in four SEC games, the Gators made the necessary adjustments in the locker room and seized control in the second half. After trailing 6-0, UF took its second drive of the third quarter and marched 85 yards on eight plays to take the lead on Gillislee's 12-yard touchdown run. The Gators came up with another long, well executed drive of 77 yards on 11 plays and got a second 12-yard touchdown run from Gillislee to take a 14-6 lead with 13:18 left in the game, all the scoring they would need. After posting just 47 yards of offense in the first half, Florida finished with 237, including 176 on the ground against an LSU defense that entered allowing 86 rushing yards per game. Gillislee finished with 146 yards on a career-high 34 carries. Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, as defense and special teams dominated. The teams combined for just 128 yards of offense in the first half—81 by LSU and 47 by Florida. Gator punter Kyle Christy pinned the Tigers inside of their own 10-yard line three times in the first half. After LSU's opening drive, Florida forced the Tigers to five three-and-outs, an interception by Jaylen Watkins and a critical stop after LSU took over at the Gators' 7-yard line. LSU took the opening kick and moved 64 yards on 10 plays, mixing efficient passing and timely running. Alleman connected from 31 yards out to give the Tigers a 3-0 lead with 10:48 left in the first quarter. After starting out with an efficient drive, Zach Mettenberger completed just seven of his final 20 passes, finishing 11-of-25 for 161 yards and a pick. The Gators missed a golden opportunity in the second quarter after Watkins intercepted Mettenberger in LSU territory and returned it to the Tigers' 38. However, Florida marched backwards and was forced to punt. UF appeared poised to at worst tie the game, marching to the LSU 22-yard line. The drive was halted, however, when Jeff Driskel hit Frankie Hammond with a short pass, and Hammond took a shot from Kevin Minter and fumbled, with LSU recovering. Late in the first half, disaster struck for the Gators. Driskel didn't unload the ball and was sacked by Bennie Logan. A fumble by Driskel caused the ball to roll to UF's 7-yard line, where Barkevious Mingo recovered, setting up the Tigers' second score. After a strong defensive stand by the Gators, Alleman made a 21-yard field goal with :24 left in the half that gave LSU a 6-0 lead. On the Gators' second possession of the second half, Gillislee capped the 85-yard drive with a 12-yard touchdown run to give Florida its first lead. On the next drive, Mettenberger hit Odell Beckham with a 56-yard pass to the Florida 23-yard line but appeared to fumble.
