FIRST PITCH

Making the program's third NCAA Super Regional appearance in seven seasons, the eighth-ranked Louisville baseball team travels to Nashville, Tenn., for a showdown with No. 2 national seed Vanderbilt. The Super Regional opener is set for Saturday at 3 p.m., ET and will be televised nationally on ESPN, while game two of the best-of-three series is scheduled for Sunday at 4 p.m., ET on ESPN. If necessary, the deciding third game is set for Monday at 7 p.m., ET on ESPN2 with the winning team advancing to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

Live play-by-play of all of Louisville's postseason games can be heard on News/Talk 1570 AM and will also be available to subscribers of CardsTV online at GoCards.com. Live scoring will be available through the Gametracker feature on the baseball schedule page at GoCards.com.

NCAA SUPER REGIONAL OVERVIEW

Making its third NCAA Super Regional appearance in school history, Louisville split its first two chances to advance to the College World Series taking two of three at home against Oklahoma State in 2007 before dropping both games at Cal State Fullerton in 2009.

The 2013 NCAA Super Regional at Hawkins Field will mark the third time in the last five seasons Louisville and Vanderbilt have met in the postseason. In 2009, the Cardinals defeated the Commodores 5-3 in the title game of the NCAA Regional in Louisville, while a year later, VU earned a 3-2 victory in 10 innings over UofL to win the Louisville Regional rematch. Overall, Vanderbilt owns a 22-4 advantage in the all-time series. Complete series results listed on page 2.

LOUISVILLE NOTES AND TRENDS TO TRACK

- Louisville is making its seventh NCAA Championship appearance in school history and has a 17-15 record overall after last week's NCAA Regional.
- The Cardinals' 49 wins are just one shy of the school record of 50 set during the 2010 season.
- Among the nation's best pitching staffs entering the week, Louisville is fifth in the NCAA in ERA at 2.53 and first in strikeouts per nine innings with 9.6.
- The Cardinals are second in the nation in stolen bases with 147. Adam Engel paces UofL with 40 steals (third nationally) in 52 attempts.
- Louisville has allowed only 34 stolen bases in 60 attempts so far this season.
- UofL is 33-6 against righty starters and 16-6 against lefties this season.
- The Cards are 38-5 when scoring first, including 21-3 when scoring in the first inning.
- The Cardinals have allowed two or fewer earned runs in 34 of 61 games this season.
- UofL is 44-0 when leading after the eighth inning.
- Nick Ratajczak is the toughest player in the nation to strike out doing so just once every 29.6 at-bats.
- Louisville is fourth nationally in hit-by-pitch with 120. Coco Johnson (20 HBPs, 20th in NCAA) leads the way for the Cardinals, while Adam Engel, Nick Ratajczak and Ty Young have been hit 18 times each.
- With a 10-1 record overall, righty Jeff Thompson has won four of his last five starts. During that stretch, he has 37 strikeouts and a 2.57 in 35 innings pitched.
- Louisville is one of only four schools in the BCS era to win football, men's basketball and baseball conference titles in the same season. Those four schools include Stanford 1999-00, Texas 2005-06, Louisville 2012-13 and Kansas State 2012-13.

DAN MCDONNELL GETS 300TH WIN AS LOUISVILLE'S HEAD COACH

With Louisville's victory at Connecticut on May 12, head coach Dan McDonnell won his 300th career game with all of those coming with the Cardinals. McDonnell, in his seventh season leading the Louisville program, has guided the Cardinals to five 40-win seasons while putting this year's team in position to earn the program's sixth NCAA Regional berth in that span. McDonnell became the third coach in Louisville history to reach the 300-win plateau joining Lelo Prado and Dr. John Heldman Jr., and McDonnell is the fastest of the trio to reach that mark.

ABOUT MCDONNELL...

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series. Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a school record 47 wins during that 2007 season.

He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to three more NCAA appearances in 2008, 2009 and 2010, back-to-back BIG EAST Conference Tournament titles in 2008 and 2009 and back-to-back BIG EAST regular-season titles in 2009 and 2010. Louisville has hosted NCAA post-season baseball in three of the last six years, including one Super Regional and two Regionals. After the 2009 season concluded with Louisville advancing to an NCAA Super Regional for the second time in three years and a No. 14 national ranking by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, the 2010 season was highlighted by the Cardinals earning the program's first ever national seed (#7) for the NCAA Championships and a second straight NCAA Regional at Jim Patterson Stadium.

The BIG EAST titles and NCAA appearances are the perfect payoff for University of Louisville athletic director Tom Jurich, who secured the Port Chester, N.Y., native and his assistants with long-term contracts immediately after the team returned from Omaha in 2007. Just a year prior to that, it was immediately evident that he would be the next skipper of the Cardinals.

In McDonnell's first six seasons as head coach, Louisville ranked 11th nationally in wins with 258, including a school-record 50 wins in 2010. During that span, the Cardinals produced 13 All-Americans, 44 All-BIG EAST selections, four BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year winners and a pair of BIG EAST Player of the Year winners, while 26 Louisville players signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. During his playing days for the Bulldogs, McDonnell earned four letters, helping The Citadel to the 1990 College World Series, marking the first time a military school had made the trip to Omaha for the "Greatest show on dirt." He was a member of the All-Atlantic Regional team in Miami that same season.

As a second baseman, he was named first-team All-Southern Conference as a junior. He finished his career as the league's all-time leader in stolen bases with 99, a total that now places him fourth in school history. He is the school's all-time leader in walks, picking up 185 bases on balls, and is ninth in runs scored in Bulldog history with 165.

McDonnell is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP TRACKER: LOUISVILLE REGIONAL REVIEW

Louisville 12, Oklahoma State 3: Louisville clinched its third NCAA Super Regional berth in seven seasons after the top-seeded and eighth-ranked Cardinals closed out the 2013 Louisville Regional with a 12-3 victory over third-seeded Oklahoma State on Sunday evening at Jim Patterson Stadium. Leading the way for the Cardinals in Sunday's clincher was Coco Johnson, the Most Outstanding Player of the Louisville Regional, who was 2-for-4 with three RBI. On the mound, Joe Filomeno had his best outing as a Cardinal working a career best 3.1 innings of shutout relief while striking out four to earn his first collegiate win and move to 1-0 overall.

Louisville 6, Miami 4: Propelled by a six-run seventh inning, Louisville advanced to the championship round of the Louisville Regional with a 6-4 victory over Miami (Fla.) on Saturday night at Jim Patterson Stadium. Saturday's game turned in Louisville's favor in the seventh inning when the Cardinals flipped a one-run deficit into a five-run advantage after finally breaking through against Miami starter Bryan Radziewski. At the plate, five different Louisville players had one hit each while Nick Ratajczak (three RBI) and Cole Sturgeon had the Cardinals' only extra-base hits. On the mound, Jeff Thompson took a no-decision despite a terrific outing in his 15th start of the season allowing just one run on three hits with three strikeouts in 6.0+ innings.

Louisville 8, Bowling Green 3: Coco Johnson connected for a pair of home runs while Jeff Gardner added three hits as the Cardinals opened the 2013 NCAA Baseball Championship with an 8-3 win over Bowling Green on Friday night in the Louisville Regional at Jim Patterson Stadium. Johnson finished 3-for-4 with three RBI while delivering two home runs in a game for the second time this season. Gardner was 3-for-4 with a double, a triple, two RBI and a run scored. On the mound, Chad Green became just the seventh pitcher in school history to reach double figures in wins in a single season improving to 10-3 overall after allowing three runs on five hits with five strikeouts in 7.0+ innings.

JOHNSON NAMED MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER OF LOUISVILLE REGIONAL

Junior outfielder Coco Johnson was named Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 Louisville Regional and led four Cardinals earning NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team honors after UofL swept through the weekend at Patterson Stadium. In the three NCAA Regional games, Johnson hit .455 (5-for-11) with two home runs, six RBI and a stolen base to become the first Louisville player to earn MOP honors since Justin Marks in 2009.

Joining Johnson on the Louisville Regional All-Tournament Team were senior second baseman Nick Ratajczak, junior designated hitter Jeff Gardner and junior pitcher Jeff Thompson. Gardner hit .462 (6-for-13) with three doubles, a triple, three RBI and three runs scored in the trio of games, while Ratajczak hit .364 with two doubles and six RBI for the weekend. Despite earning a no-decision in the Cardinals' winner's bracket victory over Miami, Thompson pitched well allowing just one run on three hits with three strikeouts in 6.0+ innings as Louisville rallied late for the win.

LOUISVILLE AMONG 23 SCHOOLS WITH AT LEAST THREE SUPER REGIONALS IN THE LAST SEVEN SEASONS

With last week's NCAA Regional triumph at Jim Patterson Stadium, Louisville clinched its third NCAA Super Regional berth in the last seven seasons becoming one of just 23 schools to accomplish the feat. The list of schools with at least three Super Regional appearances in the last seven season includes Florida State with six, Arizona State, Cal State Fullerton, North Carolina and South Carolina with five each, Florida, LSU, North Carolina State, Rice, UCLA and Virginia with four each and Arkansas, Clemson, Louisville, Mississippi State, Oklahoma, Oregon State, Stanford, TCU, Texas, Texas A&M, UC Irvine and Vanderbilt with three each.

CARDINALS WIN FOURTH BIG EAST REGULAR SEASON TITLE IN FIVE YEARS

With the most impressive finish to a regular season in school history, Louisville clinched sole possession of the 2013 BIG EAST Conference regular season championship and won its 16th straight game overall with a 7-4 triumph over Pittsburgh on May 18. Matching the school record for regular season wins first set in 2010, the Cardinals improved to 46-10 overall and finished at 20-4 in conference. The 16-game winning streak was the second longest in school history. While winning four BIG EAST regular season titles in five seasons, the Cardinals earned season-ending series sweeps in three of those.

THOMPSON NAMED BIG EAST PITCHER OF THE YEAR; 10 CARDINALS EARN ALL-BIG EAST HONORS

Junior righthander Jeff Thompson was honored as BIG EAST Conference Pitcher of the Year while a school record-tying 10 Cardinals earned All-BIG EAST accolades during the BIG EAST baseball awards ceremony at the Sheraton Sand Key Resort on May 21. Joining Thompson as First Team All-BIG EAST selections were junior designated hitter Jeff Gardner and sophomore righty closer Nick Burdi. The Cardinals, who equaled last year's record-setting 10 All-BIG EAST selections, had four players named Second Team All-BIG EAST on Tuesday -- junior righthanded pitcher Chad Green, junior outfielder Coco Johnson, sophomore shortstop Sutton Whiting and junior third baseman Ty Young. Earning Third Team All-BIG EAST honors from Louisville were senior second baseman Nick Ratajczak and junior outfielders Adam Engel and Cole Sturgeon.

LOUISVILLE ENTERED NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP WITH TOP 10 RANKING

The Cardinals entered the NCAA Championship ranked as highly as No. 8 and no lower than 16th in the five major national polls. UofL, ranked in at least one national poll for 28 straight weeks in the regular season dating back to the 2012 preseason, was eighth in the Collegiate Baseball newspaper poll, 12th in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll, 13th in the NCBWA Top 30, 15th in the Baseball America Top 25 and 16th in the Perfect Game Top 25. Following two weeks outside the top 10, Louisville returned to a position it held for the first 10 weeks of the 2013 season on May 6.

PITCHING AND DEFENSE LED THE WAY IN 16-GAME WINNING STREAK

Closing the regular season with the second longest winning streak in school history, Louisville found success through strong pitching and consistent defense while winning 16 straight overall. During that span, the Cardinals had an ERA of just 2.00 (32 earned runs in 16 games) with 170 strikeouts and just 50 walks in 144.0 innings pitched. Opposing batters hit just .189 against the Cardinals in that stretch. Behind that great pitching was some stellar defense as Louisville committed only eight errors for a .987 fielding percentage.

LOUISVILLE AMONG SELECT COMPANY WITH ANOTHER 40-WIN SEASON

With the series-opening win at Connecticut on May 11, the Cardinals clinched their sixth 40-win season in Dan McDonnell's seven years as head coach. Entering the week, Louisville was one of only seven programs in the nation to accomplish the feat of six or more 40-win campaigns in the last seven seasons. Joining the Cardinals on that list are Florida State (7), Rice (7), South Carolina (7), Coastal Carolina (6), North Carolina (6) and TCU (6).

THOMPSON NAMED LOUISVILLE SLUGGER SECOND TEAM ALL-AMERICA, GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD SEMIFINALIST

On May 28, junior righty Jeff Thompson was among 30 players selected as semifinalists for the 2013 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award, while on May 30, he was named Louisville Slugger Second Team All-America by College Baseball newspaper. Entering this week's Super Regional, Thompson is 10-1 overall with a 2.06 ERA and 100 strikeouts in 96.1 innings pitched this season. Seven of his 15 starts have been scoreless outings and opposing batters are hitting just .173 against him. For his career, Thompson is 21-6 on the mound with a 2.90 ERA and 216 strikeouts in 214.1 innings pitched. He has struck out 12 batters in two outings this season -- Feb. 16 against USF and May 4 at Villanova. During the course of four straight starts, Thompson had a career best stretch of 28.0 shutout innings from March 9 to March 29.

BURDI INVITED TO USA BASEBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM

Sophomore righty Nick Burdi has been selected for the 2013 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team as announced on April 24. A native of Downers Grove, Ill., Burdi leads the Cardinals with 15 saves to go with a 0.83 ERA and 59 strikeouts in 26 relief appearances and 32.2 innings pitched this season. Opposing batters are hitting just .195 against the hard-throwing Burdi, who has a 3-3 record overall on the mound. Burdi is the sixth UofL player to earn an invitation to the USA Collegiate National Team. Previous Cardinals to participate in the selection process for Team USA include Ryan Wright (2010), Phil Wunderlich (2009), Tony Zych (2009), Justin Marks (2008) and Mark Jurich (2002). Training for the team is set for June 21-July 2 in Cary, N.C., at the USA Baseball National Training Complex. Team USA will travel to Japan from July 6-11 and is also scheduled to play Cuba from July 18-23 in the U.S.

GREEN SUCCESSFUL AND CONSISTENT AS CARDINALS' FRIDAY STARTER

Having never made a regular season weekend start when the 2013 season opened, junior righty Chad Green has handled the role as the Cards' Friday starter impressively throughout the season. With a 10-3 record overall, Green has a 2.22 ERA and 70 strikeouts to only 21 walks in 97.1 innings pitched. On Feb. 22, he allowed only one hit and issued just one walk with three strikeouts in seven shutout innings against Akron, while on May 3, he struck out a career best nine at Villanova. On May 11, he pitched eight shutout innings in a win at UConn.

YOUNG LEADS THE WAY FOR THE CARDINALS' OFFENSE

The Cardinals' top hitter last season, junior Ty Young is among the team leaders in numerous hitting categories for Louisville in 2013. With 61 games in the books, he enters the NCAA Super Regional as the Cardinals' leading hitter with a .349 average while also leading the team in RBI (57), triples (seven), runs scored (54) and on-base percentage (.435). A two-time All-BIG EAST selection, Young has started all 61 games in 2013 with 59 of those at third base.

LOUISVILLE PLAYS AGGRESSIVE ON THE BASES IN 2013

Louisville has surpassed last season's stolen bases total while remaining among the nation's best in that category ranking third with 147 in 189 attempts. Last season, the Cardinals had 96 stolen bases in 63 games, while the school record is 153 stolen bases in 71 games during the 2007 College World Series season. Ranking third nationally with 40 steals in 52 attempts, Adam Engel leads six Cardinals with nine or more stolen bases this season.

THREE BAGS AND A CLOUD OF DUST FOR THE CARDINALS

With their 26th triple of the season on June 2, the Cardinals (who rank sixth in the NCAA in triples) have already surpassed last season's total of 18 three-baggers. Seven players have at least two triples this season with Ty Young leading the way with seven, which places him sixth in the nation overall. Louisville's previous highest triple total in any of Dan McDonnell's first six seasons as head coach was 19 in 2009, while the lowest total was just nine in 2010. The school record for triples is 34 set in the 1980 and 1992 seasons.

LOUISVILLE CONTINUES ADDING TO SCHOOL SHUTOUT RECORD

After surpassing the previous school record for shutouts in a season with their eighth in a 4-0 win at EKU on May 7, the Cardinals added to that total with back-to-back shutouts in a doubleheader sweep at Connecticut on May 11. It marked the first time in school history Louisville had shut out an opponent in both games of nine-inning doubleheader. The Cardinals' only previous shutout sweeps of doubleheaders came in seven-inning games in 1981 against Cincinnati and in 1958 against Transylvania.

The 2007 College World Series team set the previous UofL shutouts record earning seven en route to advancing to Omaha. Overall, Louisville has 34 shutout wins under the direction of coach Dan McDonnell -- 10 in 2013, four in 2012, six in 2011, five in 2010, one each in 2009 and 2008 and seven in 2007. During that span, the Cards have been shutout just 10 times.

KIME WINS THREE STRAIGHT STARTS OVER 13 DAYS

Making a trio of starts from April 30-May 12, junior Dace Kime went 3-0 with 25 strikeouts while allowing just two runs in 18.2 dominant innings (0.96 ERA) in wins over WKU, Villanova and UConn. In the April 30 victory over WKU, Kime struck out six in five scoreless innings giving up just four hits, while five days later, he had a career-best 10 strikeouts allowing only one run on just three hits in a career-long seven innings against Villanova. On May 12, he struck out nine more and allowed only one run in 6.2 innings to finish the Cardinals' sweep of UConn. Overall, Kime is 5-1 with a 3.14 ERA and 79 strikeouts in 66.0 innings pitched this season.

WHITING HELPS PACE OFFENSE IN FIRST SEASON AS A STARTER

Entering 2013, sophomore infielder Sutton Whiting had never made a start while only playing in 20 games total. While being used as a pinch runner for most of his appearances as a freshman, Whiting was hitless in his only five at-bats. However, after a strong fall and even better preseason, Whiting earned the opening day start at shortstop and has been outstanding since. As one of the Cards' most consistent hitters with a .314 average, Whiting has chipped in with 29 RBI , 40 runs scored and 24 stolen bases while hitting in the No. 9 spot in the lineup.

GARDNER, BURDI SWEEP WEEKLY BIG EAST HONORS ON MAY 20

Jeff Gardner was named BIG EAST Player of the Week on May 20, while righty Nick Burdi was chosen as the BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week as the Cardinals swept the conference's weekly honors for the first time in school history. Gardner hit .333 with three home runs, a triple and seven RBI to lead the Cardinals to a 4-0 week. Gardner, who earned the weekly honor for the second time this season, was very good in the series sweep of No. 16 Pittsburgh connecting for all four extra-base hits and all seven RBI in the Cardinals' final series of the season. His best performance came in the game two win when he had two home runs and four RBI for Louisville, which has won 16 straight games overall.

Burdi earned three saves during the week, including two in the series sweep of Pittsburgh. After 1.1 innings of shutout relief in the Cardinals' win at Ohio State on May 14, the hard-throwing righty had another 1.1 of scoreless work in Louisville's series-opener against the Panthers. Burdi closed his stretch of three saves in five days with a scoreless ninth inning, including three strikeouts, in the Cards' closing victory against Pitt. In the three outings, Burdi had seven strikeouts in 3.2 innings of shutout relief.

FUNKHOUSER DELIVERS LOUISVILLE'S FIRST COMPLETE GAME SINCE 2010

After opening his career in impressive fashion allowing no earned runs in his first 21.1 innings, freshman righthander Kyle Funkhouser delivered one of the best starts of the season for the nationally ranked Cardinals on May 7 striking out a career best eight in a four-hit complete game shutout at Eastern Kentucky. Funkhouser did not issue a walk while scattering four singles to deliver the first complete game shutout for a Louisville player since Dean Kiekhefer's five-hit, 7-0 win over Villanova on April 2, 2010. He followed that performance by winning his second straight start in the Cardinals' 6-3 at Ohio State on May 14 to earn his fourth win. Overall, he is 5-1 a 2.25 ERA and 51 strikeouts in 52.0 innings pitched and 20 appearances this season.

GARDNER CHOSEN BIG EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK ON APRIL 22

Junior Jeff Gardner was selected as BIG EAST Player of the Week on April 22 following his outstanding work at the plate for the Cardinals. Gardner hit .692 (9-for-13) with two home runs, three doubles, six RBI and three runs scored in four games during the week of April 15-21. His best game came on April 16 when he was 4-for-4 with a home run, two doubles, four RBI and two runs scored to lead Louisville to a 12-5 road win over then-No. 15 Kentucky.

BURDI BRINGS HEAT TO JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Penciled in as the closer entering the 2013 season, sophomore righty Nick Burdi was impressive in his first ever save situation. With the Cards holding a one-run lead over Akron on Feb. 24, Burdi entered from the Patterson Stadium bullpen and promptly delivered 11 straight strikes to earn his first career save. His first three pitches registered at 100 mph on the stadium radar gun making him the first pitcher in the history of the ballpark to reach triple digits.

CARDINALS WIN INAUGURAL REDS COLLEGIATE INVITATIONAL AT GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK

Jeff Thompson pitched seven shutout innings while Jeff Gardner was 2-for-3 with three RBI as Louisville earned a 4-1 win over Cincinnati in the inaugural Reds Collegiate Invitational on April 6 at Great American Ball Park. The Cardinals' win, which followed the Reds' 11-inning loss to the Washington Nationals, was the first ever collegiate game played at Great American Ball Park. Cincinnati Reds Chief Operating Officer Phillip J. Castellini announced on Feb. 9 that the University of Cincinnati baseball team would host the University of Louisville in the inaugural Reds Collegiate Invitational. In a matchup between 2012 National League division champs, the Reds and Nationals played at 1:10 p.m., while the Cardinals and Bearcats followed 30 minutes after they concluded.

YOUNG NAMED BIG EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK ON APRIL 1

Junior Ty Young was selected as BIG EAST Baseball Player of the Week on April 1 after his impressive stretch of games the previous week for the Cardinals. Young hit .571 (8-for-14) with seven RBI, three triples, two walks, one double, four runs scored and two stolen bases as the Cardinals went 3-1 overall, including a three-game sweep of No. 15 Notre Dame. Hitting safely in all four games, Young's best performance came in the series-opening win over the Irish when he was 3-for-5 with a career best five RBI, two triples and a stolen base.

THOMPSON BIG EAST PITCHER OF THE WEEK TWICE IN 2013

Jeff Thompson has been named BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week two times this season with the first on Feb. 18 and the most recent on March 11. The first honor came following his dominant performance in the Cards' win over USF on Feb. 16. Thompson struck out a career best 12 batters while allowing just four hits in five innings en route to a 10-1 win for UofL over USF. He also set a BIG EAST/Big Ten Challenge record for single-game strikeouts. The second honor came after he allowed only two hits and struck out four in seven shutout innings in leading Louisville to a 6-0 series-clinching win over Alabama on March 9.

ENGEL NAMED BIG EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK ON FEB. 25

Adam Engel was named BIG EAST Baseball Player of the Week on Feb. 25 after his performances in the Cards' four wins the previous week. Engel had a terrific week hitting .400 (6-for-15) at the plate with two doubles, a triple, five RBI, six runs scored and eight stolen bases in eight attempts as the No. 4 Cardinals went 4-0 on the week. In the Feb. 24 series finale against Akron, Engel matched a school record and became just the fifth UofL player in school history to steal four bases in a game. Earlier in the week, Engel was 3-for-5 with four RBI, three runs scored and three stolen bases in a win over EKU on Feb. 20.

"THE SHIRT"

For Louisville baseball players, "The Shirt" has become a source of pride and accomplishment in the Cardinals' clubhouse. Awarded to a player who had an outstanding performance or made a key play in a Cards' victory, "The Shirt" was an honor coach Dan McDonnell introduced to the program in 2007.

Prior to each game, a new shirt hangs in the Cards' dugout with a number on the back of it representing the team's next win. Following the game, McDonnell awards the shirt to his key contributor for that Louisville victory. In the first season of "The Shirt", the Cards awarded 47 of them for their 47 wins and the players earned another 41 in 2008. In 2009, the U of L players equaled the 2007 total with 47 more shirts, while the 2010 season ended with a school record 50 wins.

The No. 50 shirt above was the final shirt awarded in the Cardinals' 2010 season, which ended with a school record 50 wins. The photo was taken prior to Louisville's NCAA Regional win over Vanderbilt at Jim Patterson Stadium.

For 2013, the message on "The Shirt" is "Help the Helper" and the way the shirt is distributed follows the theme of the book by the same title written by Kevin Pritchard and John Eliot. After Coach McDonnell awards the shirt to a player for his contribution on that day, that player then gives it to a teammate or member of the program who he believes is most deserving on that day. Below is the winners of "The Shirt" from Coach McDonnell and who those players then chose to be the final recepients of the award.

TEN CARDINALS MAKE LOUISVILLE DEBUTS EARLY IN 2013

Anthony Kidston and Kyle Funkhouser led a group of 10 players who made their Louisville baseball debuts during the first three weeks of the season. Two position players, junior Coco Johnson and freshman Danny Rosenbaum, and four pitchers, sophomore transfer lefty Kyle McGrath, redshirt freshman lefty Adam Schemenauer, Funkhouser and Kidston made their Louisville debuts during the season-opening BIG EAST/Big Ten Challenge. During week two, freshman righty Jordan Simons made his first collegiate appearance against EKU on Feb. 20, while junior catcher Aaron Gershenfeld, sophomore right-hander Brandon Alphin and freshman righty Jonah Philley all played for the first time during the sweep of Akron on Feb. 22-24.

CARDINALS FOURTH IN BASEBALL AMERICA PRESEASON TOP 25

The Louisville baseball program received its highest ranking in school history on Jan. 24 as the Cardinals were tabbed at No. 4 in the 2013 Baseball America Preseason Top 25. The Baseball America ranking was two spots better than UofL's previous best ever ranking of No. 6 following the Cards' College World Series appearance in 2007. Louisville's previous best preseason ranking was No. 8 in 2009 by Collegiate Baseball newspaper. In its final analysis of the Cards, Baseball America had this to say about Louisville in 2013: "The Cardinals reached a regional final at eventual national champion Arizona last year, and anything short of their first trip to Omaha since 2007 will be a disappointment this spring. This team is a legitimate championship contender."

LOUISVILLE PICKED TO WIN BIG EAST; FOUR CARDS ALL-BIG EAST

After winning three regular season conference titles in the last four years, Louisville was selected as the favorite to add to that total as the Cardinals were chosen to win the 2013 BIG EAST title by the league's head coaches. Louisville, which won a share of the 2012 BIG EAST title and advanced to an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in six seasons, received eight first-place votes and 98 points overall in the coaches' preseason poll. St. John's was second with three first-place votes and 82 points, while Notre Dame was third with 81 points. Connecticut was fourth with 74 points, while USF rounded out the top five with 67 points. The Cardinals also led all teams with four players named to the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team -- OF Adam Engel, DH Jeff Gardner, RHP Jeff Thompson and RHP Jared Ruxer.

WASSERMAN, ENGEL AND GARDNER NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Senior first baseman Zak Wasserman, junior outfielder Adam Engel and junior outfielder Jeff Gardner were selected as the 2013 Louisville baseball team captains. The selections were voted on by the Cardinal players and coaches. Wasserman hit .297 with six home runs, 27 RBI and 22 runs scored while playing in 60 games and making 45 starts last season. In his first three seasons in Louisville, Wasserman had a .277 career average at the plate in 86 starts and 147 games played overall.

Engel earned Second Team All-BIG EAST honors as a sophomore while hitting .308 with 37 stolen bases in 39 attempts, one home run, 43 runs scored and 18 RBI in 51 appearances and 50 starts. The 37 stolen bases ranked fifth nationally and were the second highest single season total in school history. Gardner was a Second Team All-BIG EAST selection at designated hitter last season while hitting .299 with two home runs, 34 RBI, 35 runs scored, nine doubles and two triples in 58 appearances and 47 starts. As a freshman in 2011, Gardner hit .333 with three home runs, 13 RBI and nine doubles in 35 games and was named to the BIG EAST Championship All-Tournament team.

MCDONNELL'S ALL-AMERICANS

In Dan McDonnell's seven seasons as head coach, the Louisville baseball program has produced 14 All-Americans, more than three times as many as what the program had prior to McDonnell's arrival. Below is the list of All-America honorees since Dan McDonnell was introduced prior to 2007.

LOUISVILLE IN THE MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL DRAFT

Since the hiring of head coach Dan McDonnell prior to the 2007 season, 26 Louisville players have signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including a school record nine Cardinals in 2010. Most recently, Louisville had three players selected and sign professional contracts in the 2012 MLB Draft. Those included pitcher Matt Koch, who went in the 3rd round (107th overall) to the New York Mets, pitcher Derek Self, who went in the 9th round (294th overall) to the Washington Nationals and pitcher Justin Amlung, who went in the 12th round (374th overall) to the Chicago Cubs. The 2013 MLB First-Year Player Draft is set for June 6-8 and the Cardinals should once again have a strong presence at the event.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall seating capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased permanent seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since its opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted two NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010) and one NCAA Super Regional (2007).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center and a cutting-edge scoreboard in right field featuring an LED matrix scoreboard and video screen.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same surface as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The exterior has elements that mirror U of L's nearby football facility

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices, while the basement of the building features three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound.

NCAA POSTSEASON HISTORY AT JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

The 2013 Louisville Regional marked the fourth time Jim Patterson Stadium hosted NCAA postseason games. Overall, the Cardinals are 11-4 all-time in postseason home games going 3-0 in this year's NCAA Regional, 2-2 in the 2010 NCAA Regional, 3-1 in the 2009 NCAA Regional and 2-1 in the 2007 NCAA Super Regional. In 2010, Louisville earned wins over Saint Louis and Vanderbilt in the first two games before dropping back-to-back contests to the Commodores in the championship round. In 2009, the Cardinals opened with wins over Indiana and Vanderbilt, dropped a title game matchup with Vandy before winning the Monday night rematch to advance to a Super Regional. In its 2007 Super Regional matchup with Oklahoma State, Louisville won the opener 9-0 and dropped game two 3-2 in 12 innings before winning 20-2 in the deciding third game to earn the program's first College World Series berth.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS: Named to Louisville Regional All-Tournament Team despite finishing with no-decision in Cardinals' NCAA Regional win over Miami while allowing just one run on only three hits in 6.0+ innings. Earned fourth consecutive win working seven innings allowing three runs on three hits with seven strikeouts in May 17 victory over Pittsburgh. Won third straight start and improved to 9-1 on the season after striking out seven in eight shutout innings in victory at UConn on May 11. Matched a career-high with 12 strikeouts working 6.1 innings to earn team-leading eighth win at Villanova on May 4. Improved to 7-1 on the season and earned career win No. 18 on April 27 after striking out eight while allowing two runs on five hits in 7.2 innings against Georgetown. Suffered first loss of the season on April 20 at St. John's allowing four runs on four hits with five strikeouts in 5.2 innings. Improved to 6-0 on the season posting sixth shutout in eight starts after scattering seven hits with nine strikeouts in seven scoreless innings to defeat Cincinnati at Great American Ball Park in inaugural Reds Collegiate Invitational on April 6. Suffered second straight no-decision and had consecutive shutout streak halted at 28.0 innings after allowing only one run on four hits with seven strikeouts in seven innings against No. 15 Notre Dame on March 29. Finished with a no-decision in Cards' March 23 win over Rutgers despite 6.1 innings of shutout work allowing only one hit with six strikeouts. Won fifth straight start earning second straight shutout with a career best eight innings of dominant baseball allowing only five hits with four strikeouts. Was victorius in fourth straight start after allowing just two hits with four strikeouts in seven shutout innings against Alabama on March 9. Earned BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week honors for the second time this season for his performance against the Crimson Tide. Won third straight start allowing two earned runs on season-low three hits with eight strikeouts in 6.2 innings of work against Kent State on March 1. Improved to 2-0 on the season with second straight shutout performance allowing only four hits with five strikeouts in six innings for the win against Akron on Feb. 23. Was named BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 18 after striking out a career best 12 in five shutout innings to earn the win against USF on opening weekend. Also set a BIG EAST/Big Ten Challenge record with the 12 strikeouts.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS: Singled, walked, had a RBI and scored once in NCAA Regional win over Miami. Went 2-for-4 with an RBI against Rutgers at BIG EAST Championship. Hit safely in all three games of the Cardinals' sweep of Pittsburgh. Had two doubles, two RBI and scored once in May 4 win at Villanova. Was 3-for-4 with a double and a run scored in finale of Cardinals' three-game sweep of Georgetown. Went 2-for-3 with two RBI for the Cardinals against No. 3 Vanderbilt on April 23. Was 2-for-3 with a double and a run scored in win over No. 15 Notre Dame on March 30 to complete weekend sweep. Provided game-winning RBI sac fly to left field in 2-1 walk-off win over Irish on March 29. Hit safely in both midweek wins over USC on March 19-20, including a 2-for-4 performance with two doubles, two runs scored and an RBI in series-opening win. Singled in each of the Cardinals' three wins over Xavier while adding two RBI in series-opening win over Musketeers on March 15. After slow start to the season at the plate, he connected for his first hit of 2013 on a two-strike, two-out, two-run single to right field to turn the momentum in the Cardinals' favor in the March 10 win over Alabama, which completed a weekend sweep. Appeared in all three games in season-opening weekend at BIG EAST/Big Ten Challenge.
