VANDERBILT QUICK HITS

- With five regular season games remaining, VU is tied in 10th in the SEC standings. The Commodores are aiming for one of 10 spots in the SEC Tournament, which they last qualified for in 2010.
- The Commodores are 4-2-3 in their last nine games, with their only losses to Top 10 teams Texas A&M and Florida.
- Coach Darren Ambrose enters his first season as head coach after spending the previous 15 at Penn, where he won 148 games and was the program's all-time winningest coach. Ambrose picked up his 150th career victory with a 1-0 win over familiar Ivy League foe Dartmouth on Sept. 4.
- SEC All-Freshman Lydia Simmons has emerged as a scoring threat. After leading the team in assists last year, the redshirt sophomore has scored the first four goals of her career to lead the team. She also has an assist for a team-high nine points.
- Junior All-SEC forward Simone Charley shares the team lead in points with nine thanks to three goals and three assists. The three-time All-American in the triple jump is the team's active leader in career goals with 17.
- In June, redshirt junior Lina Granados represented Colombia in the Women's World Cup in Canada, making the 23-player roster.

COACH DARREN AMBROSE

Darren Ambrose enters his first season at Vanderbilt after a successful run at the University of Pennsylvania.

Ambrose spent the last 15 years as the head coach at Penn, and was the program's all-time winningest coach. He is the sixth head coach in the history of the program.

In 15 years at Penn, Ambrose compiled an impressive record of 148-71-35, including a 54-34-17 mark in the Ivy League. His teams reached the NCAA Tournament three times and won three Ivy League championships. His teams finished in the top three of the Ivy League in 10 of his 15 seasons, including seven of the past eight years.

Ambrose never had a losing season at Penn as the Quakers averaged nearly 10 wins a year under his watch. He coached the team's first two All-Americans as well as its first NSCAA Scholar All-America, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, Ivy League Player of the Year, Ivy League Defensive Player of the Year and Ivy League Rookies of the Year. In addition, Ambrose was at the helm for all of Penn's Ivy League championships (2001, 2007, 2010), three of its four NCAA Championship berths (2001, 2007, 2010), and an ECAC title in 2000.

Under Ambrose, more than 80 percent of the Penn women's soccer players have graduated with GPAs above 3.0, and Penn is the only Ivy League program to have earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award each of the last 14 years.

Prior to Penn, Ambrose served as an assistant coach at Florida State, Rhodes College (in Memphis) and Connecticut. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in management accounting from USC-Spartanburg, where he played goalie and was the Division II National Player of the Year in 1992-93. He received his master's degree in sports administration from Memphis in 1995.

Ambrose, who was born in Sheffield, England, lives with his wife, Sherry, and their two daughters, Madison and Ainsley.

VANDERBILT SOCCER

SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

The Commodores split the weekend with a road trip on Friday to No. 20 Kentucky before coming home on Sunday to face Arkansas.

The Wildcats are 9-2-2 and 3-1-1 in the SEC for a tie for third with Missouri in the league standings. They jumped into the national rankings this week after tying No. 12 Florida 1-1 on the road last Friday.

Zoe Swift and Michaela Dooley lead the Wildcat attack with four goals and four assists apiece. Courtney Raetzman is dangerous in the midfield with seven assists, which is tied for the most in the SEC. UK spreads it around on offense with eight players with multiple goals, and six have at least three.

Vanderbilt is 14-15 against Kentucky all-time, with the teams last meeting in 2013. VU last beat the Wildcats in 2009.

Arkansas enters Sunday's matchup with a 5-6-1 record and 1-3-1 mark in league play. The Razorbacks are led by Claire Kelley, who has six goals and two assists. Erika Miller is one of the league's top distributors with five assists. Arkansas, though, is missing one of its top scorers as Ashleigh Ellenwood suffered a leg injury just seven games in after she scored six goals in the first five games.

Vanderbilt is 18-9-1 all-time against the Razorbacks. But Arkansas has won the last two matches, including a 1-0 decision in 2014.

WEEKLY REPORT

Vanderbilt picked up a point in its lone SEC game last week.

The Commodores battled LSU to a scoreless tie last Friday in Baton Rouge, La., after two overtimes and 110 minutes of play.

Vanderbilt had just seven shots in its second straight tie. The Commodores mustered just one shot on goal. On the flip side, LSU had 11 shots, but Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami kept the Tigers off the board.

Ogunsami made six saves to stop all six shots on goal by LSU. It marked Vanderbilt and Ogunsami's third shutout of the season.

GLIMPSE OF THE 'DORES

Vanderbilt, in its 29th women's soccer season, returns 15 letterwinners and eight starters from a team that went 7-10-2 overall and 2-7-2 in SEC play. Among those returning are All-SEC junior forward Simone Charley, who led the team with nine goals last year, and midfielder Lydia Simmons, who was named SEC All-Freshman. Goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami also returns after starting all 19 games as a freshman and leading the SEC with 113 saves.

In addition to Ogunsami, senior captain Erin Myers, senior Kelsey Tillman and junior Claire Anderson started all 19 games in 2014.

Myers, a midfielder/defender, has started all 58 games of her career.

The Commodores return 56 percent of last year's goal scorers. Both goalkeepers are back, as Ogunsami and senior Shannon Morrish combined for six shutouts.

The squad welcomes eight newcomers. Six freshmen arrive, plus a pair of transfers from the ACC — defender Danae O'Halloran from North Carolina and midfielder Kacy Scarpa, who played for national champ Florida State.

SIM CITY

Simone Charley enters the second half of what has so far been a superb two-sport college career. The 5-foot-8 junior forward from Hoover, Ala., leads active VU players with 17 career goals, including a team-high nine last year.

She accounted for seven of the team's nine goals in league play and scored six goals in her last six games. She was named First Team All-SEC and All-South Region Second Team last year. She has scored a team-high three goals this season, with two game-winners, in addition to a team-high three assists.

Charley also is a standout on the track as a three-time All-American. She placed fourth at the NCAA Indoor Championships and then reached the podium at the NCAA Outdoor Championships with a third-place finish in June. In the process, she leapt 44-3.25, breaking her own school record.

SIMMONS EMERGES AS SCORING THREAT

Midfielder Lydia Simmons earned SEC All-Freshman honors last year for her work as a field general and as the team's top distributor with three assists. But this year she has also emerged as a scoring threat.

Simmons leads the team with four goals and nine points. Before this season, she hadn't scored a goal, but she notched three in the first four games of September.

The redshirt sophomore from Londonderry, N.H., booted her first career goal in a 1-0 victory against Dartmouth on Sept. 4. She followed up the next weekend with another goal from just outside the box in a 2-1 victory over Mississippi State. On Sept. 13, she tied she hooked in a corner kick in a 1-1 tie against High Point. She then scored her team-high fourth goal of the season on Sept. 25 against Florida with a shot with her right foot in the 27th minute.

TASTING THE WORLD CUP

Redshirt junior Lina Granados made the 23-player roster for Colombia at the Women's World Cup in June in Canada and traveled with the team during its four games. Colombia advanced out of pool play for the first time and fell to the United States, the eventual champ.

Granados hails from Ashburn, Va., but has dual citizenship as she was born in Bogota, Colombia. She has played for the Colombia Football Federation since she was 15, and has played in international tournaments three times. She has made her first five career starts in the last five games.

MORRISH BEGINS NURSING SCHOOL

Senior goalkeeper Shannon Morrish will be juggling not only soccer and her final year of undergraduate studies this fall but also nursing school. Morrish, a native of Bradenton, Fla., entered Vanderbilt University's School of Nursing on Aug. 17. She is pursuing a master's degree in adult/gerontology acute care. She'll be a registered nurse after the first year and complete the requirements to be certified as a nurse practitioner by May 2017.

NEW FACES MAKE DEBUTS

Several players have made their Vanderbilt debuts this season.

Transfers Danae O'Halloran (North Carolina) and Kacy Scarpa (Florida State) have been key cogs in the starting lineup. O'Halloran, a redshirt sophomore, has started all 12 games on defense. Scarpa has been solid at holding midfielder, starting 11 games and missing VU's bout against No. 9 Florida to a concussion.

In addition, transfer Carley Bogan (William & Mary) has played in five games off the bench. The redshirt sophomore walked on to the team after the first week of the season. Freshman Kelsey Carrier has played in all 12 games.

Fellow freshmen Maggie Clemmons, Megan Henry and Hannah Menard have made their VU debuts but are currently sidelined due to injury.

CAPTAIN CONSISTENCY

Since the start of the 2012 season, there has been one constant in the Commodores' lineup — Erin Myers.

The senior, who has played midfield and now center back, has started every game of her career. The three-year captain has started all 72 games.

Coach Darren Ambrose calls Myers, a native of Armonk, N.Y., the heart and soul of the team as she is one of the most vocal leaders.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Vanderbilt dominated possession and the stat sheet, but the Commodores fell short in their season opener and coach Darren Ambrose's debut.

Miami-Ohio scored in the 80th minute to hand Vanderbilt a 1-0 loss on Friday night at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The Commodores outshot the Redhawks 22-8, with 13 shots on goal, but none found the back of the net.

Haley Walter scored the lone goal in with 10 minutes left in the game on an assist from Courtney Evans. Walter nudged a shot off the feet of Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami, who tried to cut down Walter's angle, and the ball bounced up into the goal.

It was a tough loss for Vanderbilt (0-1) and Ambrose, who was coaching his first game as Commodores head coach after spending the previous 15 years at Penn. VU outshot Miami 16-4 in the first half and a couple of solid looks that were snuffed out.

Simone Charley, who led the team with 12 shots and seven on goal, nearly put the Commodores in front in the 19th minute. On a breakaway, Charley aimed a shot toward the right corner. But Miami goalkeeper Vic Maniaci got enough of her mitt on the ball that it deflected off the near post. It was one of Maniaci's 11 saves.

Twice Vanderbilt had empty nets in the first half, but Miami defenders knocked the ball away. Off a corner kick, Charley headed the ball toward the goal. Vanderbilt defender got a foot on it and steered it toward the net but Redhawks defender was right there on the goal line to keep the shot from going in. Lina Granados also had a chance as she beat Maniaci to her left just inside the five yard-mark, but the ball was cleared by a defender at the goal line.

CINCINNATI – Allowing a second-half goal and failing to score doomed the Vanderbilt soccer team for the second straight game.

The Commodores surrendered a goal in the 67th minute that proved to be the difference in a 1-0 loss to Cincinnati on Sunday afternoon at Gettler Stadium. Vanderbilt (0-2) mustered just three shots for the game. The Bearcats (1-1) started off slow, too, with just two shots in the first half. But they become more aggressive in the second half, firing off 12 shots.

"I don't think we showed enough heart and I don't think we showed enough fight," Vanderbilt coach Darren Ambrose said. "If that is the defining character of this team, we've got a long way to go. We have to be better in certain aspects of the game. But the bottom line is you've got to want to win more than the other team. Today, Cincinnati, to their credit, wanted to win more than we did."

Vanderbilt gave up a goal on a ball that was sent into Jaycie Brown, who got ahead of the defense and slotted it past Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami – who had five saves.

Senior Taylor Elliott had the team's best look in the first half. She settled the ball after heading it and tried to slip a shot past Cincinnati goalkeeper Sam Pavlika but a defender was there at the line to knock it away. Later in the half, redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons fired in a free kick from 25 yards out that Pavlika had to jump and swat away. Vanderbilt's lone shot attempt in the second half by Simone Charley's was immediately blocked.

SPOKANE, Wash. – After just missing a chance to put the game away in regulation, Simone Charley made sure to quickly end it in overtime.

Charley scored her second of two goals on the night in the 94th minute off an assist from Keegan Thimons to lift Vanderbilt to a 3-2 victory over Gonzaga in overtime on Friday. The Commodores scored their first three goals of the year en route to picking up their first win of the season and first victory under first-year coach Darren Ambrose.

Up 2-1, Charley nearly iced the game in the 88th minute, but her breakaway attempt bounced off the far post. In the 90th minute, with less than 30 seconds remaining, Gonzaga tied the game to force overtime.

But the Commodores (1-2) regrouped to pick up a huge road win. Less than four minutes into overtime, Thimons sent a long pass down the sideline and over the defense toward Charley. The junior All-SEC forward raced to the ball, redirected toward the net and laced a shot into the left corner past Gonzaga goalkeeper Christie Tombari.

Charley notched the second multi-goal game of her career and Thimons, a senior, recorded her first career assist. Sophomore Cristina De Zeeuw also scored and redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons and junior Sasha Gray added assists.

SEATTLE – Vanderbilt's trip to the Pacific Northwest ended with a damper.

The Commodores suffered a 3-1 loss to Seattle University on Sunday afternoon at Championship Field. The Redhawks scored all three goals in the first half as Vanderbilt (1-3) lost the second leg of a two-game trip in Washington.

After a thrilling overtime victory over Gonzaga on Friday night, the Commodores couldn't find the back of the net until late in the second half against the Redhawks, who reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament last year.

Seattle (2-2) jumped in front in the 17th minute. Summer Mason's initial shot was blocked by Kelsey Tillman, but Mason followed up with a cross that bounced off a Vanderbilt defender and past goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami.

About four minutes later the lead increased as Karli White raced into the box and tapped in a cross from the right side into the middle of the net. Seattle capped off the scoring in the 38th minute when Julia Moravec headed in a goal off a cross from the left side into the bottom left corner, past an outstretched Ogunsami.

The Commodores' lone goal came in the 87th minute on an own goal by Seattle. Senior Jamie Kator sent a corner kick into the box and a leaping Redhawk defender headed into the net.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Fittingly, Vanderbilt head coach Darren Ambrose's 150th career victory came against a foe from the league where he accumulated a huge chunk of those wins.

Sophomore midfielder Lydia Simmons scored her first career goal in the 41st minute to lift Vanderbilt to a 1-0 victory over Dartmouth on Friday night at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. It was win No. 150 for Ambrose, who compiled 148 wins when he was at Penn the last 15 years and competing against Dartmouth and the rest of the Ivy League. More than a third of his victories (55) have come against Ivy League foes.

Though he was the all-time winningest coach at Penn, Ambrose picked up just his second win as Vanderbilt's head coach and first at home with Friday night's win over Dartmouth (1-1). On Thursday night after practice, Ambrose told his team it would mean a lot to beat Dartmouth because of his time in the Ivy League. The Commodores (2-3) responded with arguably their most complete effort of the season to boost their coach to the milestone victory.

Simmons booted her first career goal in the 41st minute after a corner kick from Jamie Kator bounced off the head of Simone Charley and ricocheted off the foot of a Dartmouth defender. The ball rolled just outside of the box and toward Simmons, who drove into the shot and smashed the ball into the top right corner.

It was enough for the Commodores, who outshot Dartmouth 17-8. Only three of the Big Green's shots were on goal, though. Led by strong defensive performances from Cristina De Zeeuw and Danae O'Halloran, Dartmouth never mounted a serious threat.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Before Sunday's game, Lipscomb hadn't allowed a goal or suffered a loss.

Vanderbilt changed that.

Sasha Gray and Claire Anderson each scored their first goals of the season to lift the Commodores to a 2-0 victory over the Bisons on a balmy Sunday afternoon at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The Commodores (3-3) picked up their second straight victory and posted their second consecutive shutout to reach .500 for the first time this season. Gray's fifth career goal in the 27th minute proved to be all the Commodores needed against a previously stingy Lipscomb defense.

For 605 minutes this season, the Bisons (4-1-2) had held opponents scoreless. Their six straight shutouts to open the season are an Atlantic Sun record. Vanderbilt outshot Lipscomb 20-9 and controlled the pace of the game. Gray grabbed a pass from Lydia Simmons down the sideline in the near corner and race toward the box. Gray, a junior, turned the corner and sailed in a shot about eight yards out just inside the near post.

Anderson gave the Commodores more than an enough insurance with her first career goal in the 75th minute. The Commodores were stout again, allowing just two shots on goal. Sophomore Christiana Ogunsami had two saves and notched her second shutout of the season. Vanderbilt last allowed a goal against Seattle University a week ago in the 37th minute. The Commodores haven't surrendered a goal in 233 minutes.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — A slight delay couldn't slow down the Vanderbilt soccer team's winning streak.

Thanks to an early second-half goal by Simone Charley the Commodores picked up a 2-1 victory over Mississippi State on Friday night for their third straight win and fourth in five games. Vanderbilt also won its SEC opener for the first time since 2005.

The start of the game was delayed by 20 minutes due to a bank of lights at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex that malfunctioned after heavy storms swept through the area earlier in the afternoon. But Vanderbilt (4-3, 1-0 SEC) shook off the delay to match its longest winning streak in four years.

Sophomore midfielder Lydia Simmons scored her second goal of the season just four minutes in. Simmons smashed a shot from the top right wing just outside of the box over goalkeeper Tanya de Souza and into the top center of the net. Mississippi State (1-5-1, 0-1) responded just four minutes later when Kiley Martens followed up on shot that Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami initially saved. Martens knocked the ball away from Ogunsami and tapped in the rebound to tie the game 1-1 in the eighth minute.

The Commodores had chances to pull ahead with 12 shots in the first half, including nine on goal. But de Souza was spectacular in goal for the Bulldogs, posting eight of her 10 saves before halftime.

In the 47th minute, though, shortly after halftime, Charley scored her team-leading third goal of the season that would stand up as the game-winner. Jamie Kator, who just a minute before had two cracks at the goal on a penalty kick, sent in a cross to Charley just inside the box. Charley then scored her 17th career goal.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Vanderbilt and High Point traded goals in the first half, but that would be the end of the scoring for the day.

The Commodores tied the Panthers 1-1 after 90 minutes and two 10-minute overtimes on Sunday at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The draw kept Vanderbilt from extending its season-high three-game winning streak as a four-game homestand came to an end.

Lydia Simmons scored the lone goal for the Commodores (4-3-1) in the 10th minute. The redshirt sophomore hooked in a corner kick from the right side that tapped off High Point goalkeeper Alex Persiani's glove and right under the crossbar and into the net. It was Simmons' third goal of the season, tying her with Simone Charley for most on the team.

High Point (4-1-3), which won the Big South Tournament last year and made the NCAA Tournament, tied the game in the 32nd minute, also scoring off a corner kick. After a deflection into the box, Bailey Beattie headed the ball toward the goal and Michele Micciche came sliding in and knocked in a goal just inside the far post.

Vanderbilt had numerous chances to pull ahead before and after High Point's goal as they fired off 21 shots, including 10 on goal. High Point mustered just seven shots, with only one shot on goal - Micciche's equalizer. It was High Point's second tie this season against an SEC foe, also drawing even with Georgia.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – Against one of the best teams in the country, in a hostile environment and on a nationally televised stage, the Vanderbilt soccer team sent a warning to the rest of the Southeastern Conference.

The Commodores put together arguably one of their best performances of the season, falling just short in a 1-0 loss to No. 5 Texas A&M on Friday night in front of 2,851 fans at Ellis Field and many more watching around the nation on the SEC Network.

The Aggies, a Final Four team a year ago, scored in the 70th minute to hold off the upset-minded Commodores and snap their four-game unbeaten streak.

Vanderbilt outshot the Aggies 12-9 (with seven shots on goal) and won the corner kick battle 8-2. The Commodores created seven corner kick opportunities before A&M registered its first. Redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons led the way with four shots, while Lina Granados, Jamie Kator and Kacy Scarpa each had two shots.

From the start, Vanderbilt (4-4-1, 1-1 SEC) controlled possession and snuffed out opportunities by the Aggies, who made the Final Four a year ago and swept the SEC regular-season and tournament titles. The league's second highest scoring offense had just four shots at halftime.

Texas A&M (8-1, 2-0 SEC) scored with 20 minutes left. Haley Pounds sent in a cross from the right side, 25 yards out and into the box. The ball bounced into the box and past Texas A&M's Ally Watt, who tried to deflect the shot. The run by Watt threw off the Commodores as the ball slipped into the bottom left corner. It was the team's first loss since falling to Seattle University on Aug. 30.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Facing a quick turnaround after a road match at No. 5 Texas A&M on Friday, Vanderbilt's soccer team started slowly against Evansville Sunday at the VU Soccer Complex before scoring the game's final two goals for a 2-1 victory.

Vanderbilt (5-4-1) controlled the pace of play for much of the game and maintained possession on Evansville's side of the pitch majority of the time as the Purple Aces played back to negate Vanderbilt's speed advantage.

But it was Evansville (2-7-1) that seized momentum early on with a goal just 6:40 into the match. The goal came off the foot of Caitie Dierkes, who drilled a shot past starting goalkeeper Shannon Morrish. Dierkes was assisted by Jordin Campbell's center from the right side of the box.

The score would remain the same until the 38th minute when Simone Charley set up a pretty goal by Taylor Elliott. Working on the left side of the box, Charley held off a defender long enough to center the ball to a streaking Elliott, who buried the ball past Simone Busby for the equalizer.

Vanderbilt's decisive goal came at the 69:35 mark of the second half when Lina Granados made a quick move with the ball at the top of the box and blasted a shot to the left side of the net, which Busby made a diving save on. However, Busby didn't hold onto the ball and Jamie Kator was there to punch it into the back of the net.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – For the second straight Friday, the Vanderbilt soccer team threw a scare into a Top 10 foe.

The Commodores hung with No. 9 Florida, even taking the lead in the first half before falling short in a 3-2 loss at the VU Soccer Complex on a rain-drenched Friday night.

Similar to a 1-0 loss to No. 5 Texas A&M last week, Vanderbilt showed it belonged on the same field as the Gators, who were the preseason pick to win the SEC. Last year, the Commodores lost to A&M and Florida – both Top 10 teams then as well – by a combined score of 12-3, conceding six goals to both. That margin closed to 4-2 this season, with a pair of one-goal losses and, in both games, Vanderbilt went into halftime tied with its opponent.

Florida (8-2, 2-1 SEC) scored first with a goal by Sarah Troccoli that went off VU goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsumi's glove, deflected off the inside of the right post and in.

But the Commodores (5-5-1, 1-2) didn't back down. Two goals within less than two minutes of each other put Vanderbilt in front. Both were set up All-SEC forward Simone Charley. Both passes that ended in goals went in the direction of Taylor Elliott. In the 25th minute, Elliott settled in Charley's assist and struck the ball with her right foot, slipping a shot just inside the near post for her second goal in as many games.

Less than two minutes later, in the 27th minute, Charley again centered a pass toward Elliott. This time the ball went off the back of a Florida defender and right to Lydia Simmons, who one-timed the ball out of the air and into the net for her fourth goal.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — An early second-half goal by Tennessee might have caught the Vanderbilt soccer team off guard, but it didn't sink the Commodores.

Senior midfielder Jamie Kator scored in the 74th minute as Vanderbilt battled back to tie the Vols 1-1 after two overtimes on Sunday at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. Kator's goal on a free kick helped Vanderbilt salvage a point after UT scored just 35 seconds into the second half.

The Commodores (5-5-2, 1-2-1 SEC) knotted the game up after Simone Charley drew several defenders and a foul just outside the box. This set up Kator, who took the free kick after misdirection from midfielder Lydia Simmons. Kator stepped up and drove the ball with her right foot. The shot soared through a Tennessee wall, which Vanderbilt's Kacy Scarpa helped disrupt, and off the glove of Vols goalkeeper Julie Eckel and into the bottom right corner of the net.

It was only the fifth goal Tennessee (5-1-5, 1-1-2) has allowed all year, and the second goal of the season for Kator. The Vols had taken a 1-0 lead in the 46th minute when Katie Cousins won a loose ball and booted a shot from 20 yards out off the far post and in.

Only three players came off the bench for the Commodores, who have had eight players miss games this year due to injury. Nine players logged more than 100 minutes for Vanderbilt.

BATON ROUGE, La. — The Vanderbilt soccer team picked up its first shutout in SEC play this season.

But the Commodores could not scratch across a goal either in a scoreless tie to LSU on the road on Friday night. Sophomore goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami made six saves for her third shutout of the season as Vanderbilt picked up its second straight tie.

Still, the Commodores salvaged an all important point. Through five league games the 'Dores (5-5-3, 1-2-2 SEC) have five points for 10th place in the SEC standings.

"It was a fairly uneventful game overall," Vanderbilt coach Darren Ambrose said. "I thought we clearly had the better of the game in the first half. They had the better of the second. Though we defended very well we lacked any kind of punch in the final third. They sat a lot of players behind the ball and we struggled to break them down, which was disappointing.

"It's good to see a shutout, but I think the team overall is disappointed to not walk away with three points."

Vanderbilt controlled the tempo in the first half with three shots and seven corner kicks.

LSU (7-3-3, 1-3-1) didn't muster a corner kick until the second half and was outgained in that category 12-5. The Tigers, however, had eight shots after halftime and won the shooting battle 11-7.

Only one Vanderbilt shot — by redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons — was on goal. The Tigers put six shots on goal but Ogunsami stopped all six.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — In another sign of a growing program under first-year coach Darren Ambrose, the Vanderbilt soccer team once again showed a nationally ranked team it was more than up to the challenge.

The defense and goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami withstood 25 shots from No. 20 Kentucky and made sure none found the back of the net in a scoreless tie after two overtimes on Friday night.

The Commodores, who are trying to make the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2010, now have six points in SEC play. With five league games remaining, VU is tied for 10th place with Georgia. The top 10 teams make the SEC Tournament, which will be held from Nov. 2-8 in Orange Beach, Ala.

Vanderbilt (5-5-4, 1-2-3 SEC) recorded its third straight tie for a 4-2-4 record in its last 10 games. The only two losses during the stretch were to Top 10 foes Texas A&M and Florida — both one-goal losses. The Commodores were outshot 25-7 by Kentucky (9-2-3, 3-1-2). But the Wildcats only managed nine shots on goal. Vanderbilt's defense, led by the steady play of three-year captain Erin Myers, Cristina De Zeeuw, Kelsey Tillman and Danae O'Halloran, bothered UK all night and forced wayward shots.

When the chances did loom near goal, Ogunsami was there. The sophomore posted her fourth shutout of the year with eight saves. She closed out the game with two big saves in the final minutes of the second overtime, including a great stop diving to her left. She also had some help near the end of regulation when Tillman and the defense cleared a shot near the goal line for a team save.
