TEAM NOTES

Limbaugh in his first season

Vanderbilt head coach Scott Limbaugh will appear in his first SEC Championship as head coach of the Commodores. Before his arrival in Nashville, Limbaugh was an assistant coach at Alabama for five seasons, where he helped guide the Tide to five NCAA Regionals, two regional championships, four NCAA Championship appearances, and a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championship in 2012.

Dores win three tournaments in 2012-13

Vanderbilt claimed their first team championship since 2010 in their own Mason Rudolph Championship in the fall of 2012, and proceeded to win two more team titles in the 2012-13 campaign, the most for a Vanderbilt team in a single season in the history of the program. The Commodores also won the ASU Fall Beach Classic and the Jim West Intercollegiate, and finished in the top five at the Jack Nicklaus Invitational (2nd), the Samford Intercollegiate (2nd), and the Memphis Intercollegiate (5th).

Vanderbilt and the SEC Championship

The Commodores finished ninth in the 2012 SEC Championship, and will be competing in their 48th SEC Championship. Vanderbilt's best all-time finish was a fourth-place finish in 2004.

Stewart Leads Commodores

Sophomore Hunter Stewart is Vanderbilt's leading golfer this season with a stroke average of 73.14, and won his first collegiate individual championship at the Samford Intercollegiate March 4-5. He also has four top five finishes and five top 10's. Junior Charlie Ewing posted top five at the ASU Fall Beach Classic, while sophomores Ben Fogler (ASU Fall Beach Classic) and Jordan Janico (Memphis Intercollegiate) also carded top fives.

Youthful 'Dores

Most of Vanderbilt's starts this season have come from freshmen and sophomores - 119 to be exact. In fact, freshmen and sophomores accounted for 70.4% of the team's rounds in 2012-13.

Scott Limbaugh, Head Coach

Scott Limbaugh, who as the assistant coach at the University of Alabama played a major role in one of collegiate golf's most dominating runs, has brought his experience and enthusiasm to the Commodore men's golf team after being hired as the head coach in June of 2012. After his first season at the helm, his successful ways have continued at Vanderbilt, with the Commodores winning three team tournaments in his first season, the most in a single season in Commodore men's golf history.

The Commodores captured three team tournaments - the ASU Fall Beach Classic, the Jim West Intercollegiate, and their own Mason Rudolph Championship - in 2012-13, and Vanderbilt's first victory at their own tournament since 2002. The win at the Mason was the team's first championship since 2009.

"We believe our men's golf program can become one of the nation's elite and with Scott Limbaugh's experience in successfully recruiting and coaching at the highest level, we have found just the leader to make that happen," said Vanderbilt's Vice Chancellor for Student Athletics and Affairs David Williams. "He is dynamic and energizes the room. We were not only impressed with his golf resume but during his time at Alabama, Tide golfers earned several major academic achievement awards. We couldn't be more excited with his addition to our university and our golf community."

Prior to his arrival in Nashville, Limbaugh spent the last five seasons serving as the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach for the SEC and national powerhouse Crimson Tide, who finished as the NCAA runner-up (2012), captured SEC championships in two seasons (2008, 2012) and won two NCAA East Regional titles (2009, 2012). Alabama has also been to four NCAA Championships and claimed 20 team tournament titles during his tenure.

“I believe that Vanderbilt is a special place and we can build champions on and off the golf course,” said Limbaugh after his hire. “There are many things that attracted me to Vanderbilt: First of all, Vanderbilt is a great university and Nashville is such an awesome location. We will have the opportunity to build champions in the classroom, on the golf course, and have young people that represent Vanderbilt in a way that Vanderbilt needs to be represented.”

Individually, Limbaugh has helped mentor 10 All-Americans on the course, with three of those being first-team selections (Michael Thompson, 2008; Bud Cauley, 2009, 2010, 2011; Justin Thomas, 2012). Thomas, who was recruited by Limbaugh, claimed the prestigious Jack Nicklaus and Phil Mickelson awards this year, while also earning SEC Player of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year honors. He has also coached one Walker Cup team member (Bud Cauley), three Palmer Cup members (Michael Thompson, Bud Cauley, Justin Thomas), one other SEC Player of the Year (Michael Thompson, 2008), and two additional SEC Freshmen of the Year (Bud Cauley, 2009; Cory Whitsett, 2011).

Off the course and in the classroom, Limbaugh also helped recruit and tutor some of the nation's best. In 2012, he coached the NCAA Elite 89 winner in Whitsett, and in 2008, Joseph Sykora claimed the H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Student-Athlete of the Year honor. In all, he has coached 17 Academic All-SEC team members and three Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) All-America Scholar members.

Coach Limbaugh with assistant coach Dusty Smith.

Limbaugh is considered one of the nation's best recruiters. On the recruiting trail, Alabama recruited two of the top-ranked junior golfers in America in his tenure with the Crimson Tide (Bud Cauley (2008) and Bobby Wyatt (2010)), one U.S. Junior Amateur Champion (Cory Whitsett, 2010), and six American Junior Golf Association All-Americans. The Crimson Tide, according to Golfweek, also landed three top 10 recruiting classes (2008, 2010, 2011) in his time in Tuscaloosa.

A 2003 Huntingdon College (Ala.) graduate, Limbaugh played for the Hawks for two seasons after helping lead Central Alabama Community College to two NCAA Junior College National Championships. Limbaugh was a co-captain on that 2000 National Champion team for Central Alabama. As a golfer at Huntingdon, he competed at nationals and was team captain in 2002. After his playing career was over, Limbaugh was hired as an assistant coach at his alma mater and was elevated to head coach in June of 2004, where he served until Alabama men's golf hired him as an assistant in 2007.

Limbaugh, a Childersburg, Ala., native, was the 2005-06 Eaton/Golf Pride South Region NCAA Division III Coach of the Year. He coached Huntingdon to a fourth-place NCAA Division III men's golf finish in 2007, which was its best finish in school history. It was Huntingdon's third straight NCAA appearance as Limbaugh's teams qualified in all three of his seasons as head coach.

His first Huntingdon team in 2005 finished ninth before the 2006 team finished 15th. His 2006 team was ranked No. 1 for almost the entire season in Division III.

He produced three All-Americans during his time at Huntingdon, including Alex Balog, Jacob Collinsworth and Matt Mahanic. Collinsworth was a first-team selection after finishing second individually at the NCAA Division III Championships.

Limbaugh and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Malley (2), and Annie, who was born in January of 2013.

COACHING STAFF

Dusty Smith, Assistant Coach

Dusty Smith joined the Vanderbilt men's golf staff in the summer of 2011. Smith had previously served as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Lamar University for three seasons before his arrival in Nashville.

Smith is the Commodores' recruiting coordinator and is in charge of the annual Vanderbilt Golf Camp at Legends Club every summer and also spearheads Vanderbilt's golf fundraiser, Vanderbilt Golf Day, every spring.

Smith, a former Ping All-American, served as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Lamar, his alma mater.

During Smith's three years at Lamar, the Cardinals men's team won the 2009 Southland Conference Championship and finished second in 2011, advancing to the NCAA Regional at Virginia Tech in May. Smith helped lead eight men's golfers to the All-Southland Conference team during his tenure, and also coached Southland Conference Player of the Year M.J. Daffue in 2011.

The Lady Cardinals picked up six tournament victories in his tenure at Lamar, and finished second in the 2011 Southland Conference Tournament. Five Lady Cardinal golfers earned All-SLC honors, with Therese Nilsson (2009) and Stine Pedersen (2011) being named the SLC Academic Student-Athlete of the Year for women's golf.

"I'm very excited and this is a great opportunity for me," said Smith. "It was hard to leave my alma mater, and Lamar is, and will always be, a very special place to me. But, to get an opportunity to coach at an outstanding institution like Vanderbilt and in a great conference like the SEC was too good for me to pass up."

A native of The Woodlands, Smith earned honorable mention Ping All-America honors as a junior at Lamar after tying for 10th at the NCAA Championships. The following year, Smith earned All-Southland Conference honors for the third time as Lamar finished third at the NCAA Championships.

Smith, who helped The Woodlands High School win the 2002 Class 5A state championship, is a 2007 graduate of Lamar with a degree in business administration.

Smith resides in Nashville with his wife Janie.
