• Alabama will play its second of two road games in the final week of the regular season when it heads to Nashville to take on the Vanderbilt Commodores on Sunday.

• Sunday's game marks the 39th overall between the two schools and the first this season.

• The Commodores currently hold a 27-11 advantage in the series, which includes an 82-66 victory last season in Tuscaloosa.

• Last time out, the Tide dropped an 81-40 decision at Auburn. Alabama finished the game with 29 turnovers of which Auburn scored 37 points off of.

• The Tigers shot 49.2 percent (30-for-61) from the floor and 55.6 percent (10-for-18) from three-point range, while the Tide was 31.8 percent (14-for-44) for the game.

• Junior Jessica Merritt led Alabama in scoring with 15 points, while freshman Aneesah Daniels was the Tide's leader in rebounds with nine.

• On the season, Alabama is led in scoring by sophomore Jasmine Robinson, who averages 11.2 points per game. She is followed by junior Meghan Perkins with 9.6 points per contest.

• Perkins is also the Tide's leader in rebounds with 5.4 boards per game, while Daniels follows closely behind with 5.1 rebounds per game.

• Vanderbilt enters Sunday's game having dropped its last two contests by a combined 12 points, with both games on the road. The Commodores fell 70-61 at Kentucky on Monday night and followed that up with a 69-66 loss at LSU on Thursday.

• In Thursday's game against the Lady Tigers, Vanderbilt was led in scoring by sophomore Christina Foggie, who had 17 points. Sophomore Jasmine Lister added 14 and junior Elan Brown contributed 12.

• As a team, the Commodores only had 21 rebounds, compared to 41 rebounds by LSU.

• Vanderbilt currently has four players averaging double-digit points, led by Foggie's 17.9 point-per-game contribution. That mark is also good for No. 1 in scoring in the SEC. She is followed by Lister (12.0 ppg), junior Tiffany Clarke (11.9 ppg) and sophomore Stephanie Holzer (11.0 ppg).

• Clarke and Holzer lead the Commodores in rebounds with averages of 7.5 and 7.1 boards, respectively.

• Lister leads the team, as well as the SEC, in assists per game, handing out 5.4 per contest.

EARLY SIGNEES

EMILY DAVIS

6-1 • Guard • Enterprise, Ala. • Enterprise HS
Starter for Enterprise High School since her freshman season ... where she has averaged 8.8 points, 3.9 rebounds 2.4 assists and 1.3 steals per game throughout her career ... Last season, put up bigger numbers all around, averaging 13.1 points, 6.6 rebounds and 4.5 assists per outing ... helped catapult the Lady Cats to 28 wins, setting a new school record, as well as a trip to the South Central Regional for the first time in program history ... Davis is also a standout volleyball and soccer player

NIKKI HEGSTETTER

6-2 • Forward • Kennesaw, Ga. • Harrison HS
Steady fixture in the Harrison High School basketball starting lineup since her freshman season ... Last season, led the team in nearly every category finishing with 13.5 points, 11.1 rebounds, 3.2 steals, 3.1 assists and 1.2 blocks per game ... Following her junior season, Hegstetter was selected to the Atlanta Journal Constitution Metro All-Area Girls Team as well as the All-Region First Team.

JASMINE STEELE

5-2 • Guard • Birmingham, Ala. • Midfield HS
Helped guide Midfield High School to three-straight Class 4A championship titles and an appearance in the state finals last season ... Steele, who has averaged 15.0 points, 6.0 assists, 6.0 rebounds and 5.0 steals per game, was the 2011 Birmingham News Metro Girls Player of the Year and a member of the All-Metro First Team ... earned the 4A Tournament MVP award as a sophomore and followed that up with a spot on the all-tournament team as a junior.

INJURIES AROUND IN 2012: The Crimson Tide has had to deal with a series of injuries throughout the season, making gameplanning for both practices and games a challenge. Four of Alabama's 11 current active players, including Kyra Crosby, Jessica Merritt, Shafontaye Myers and Kristin Bush, have logged a combined 28 missed games. Due to the injuries, and availability of certain players, the Tide has started 13 different lineups thus far.

RUSSELL ENDS CAREER; RECEIVES MEDICAL DISQUALIFICATION: Senior Ericka Russell has received a medical disqualification due to previous knee injuries, which has ended her career for the Crimson Tide, Alabama head coach Wendell Hudson announced on Tuesday, January 17. Russell, a 5-7 guard from Tuscaloosa, was a steady fixture in the Tide lineup since joining the squad in 2008. She started in all but 11 games throughout her career and became the 23rd member of Alabama's 1,000 Point Club on November 12, 2011, against Nicholls State. She earned Most Valuable Player honors at the 2011 Paradise Jam after averaging 17.7 points per game, including a season-high 29 against Old Dominion. Russell finishes her career as one of the best three-point shooters in program history, ranking fourth in three-point field goals made (212) as well as three-point field goals attempted (709).

DANIELS EARNS SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK NOD: Tide Freshman Aneesah Daniels had a productive trip at the 2011 Paradise Jam, earning her Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week honors on November 28. The Decatur, Ga., native scored a career-high 13 points in Alabama's overtime win against Seton Hall. Eleven of the Tide's final 18 points came from Daniels in the victory. She also had a pair of offensive rebounds to keep the ball in Alabama's possession in overtime with less than 19 seconds on the clock. Daniels played a career-high 24 minutes against Seton Hall and averaged 8.3 points and 5.5 rebounds during the trip to the tournament.

RUSSELL JOINS 1,000 POINT CLUB: In the Tide's season opener against Nicholls State, senior Ericka Russell notched the 1,000th point of her career at the Capstone. The milestone came at the 12:24 mark of the second half when Russell connected on a three-pointer to give her her 11th point of the contest. She became the 23rd member, ironically the same number she wears on her jersey, of Alabama's 1,000 Point Club.

RUSSELL NAMED TO PRESEASON ALL-SEC SECOND TEAM: Senior Ericka Russell was selected to the preseason All-Southeastern Conference Second Team by league coaches. This marks the second all-conference nod for Russell in her career, as she was named to the 2009 All-Freshman Team.

GAME 1: ALABAMA 72, NICHOLLS STATE 51

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Junior Meghan Perkins scored 13 points to lead the Alabama women's basketball team to a 72-51 victory over Nicholls State in Foster Auditorium on Saturday. The Crimson Tide opens its season with a 1-0 record, while the Colonels dip to 0-1.

"I thought our intensity level picked up during the second half," said Alabama head coach Wendell Hudson. "I don't know if it's first game jitters or whatever you want to call it. The first five minutes in the first half we did not have that intensity level like we've had in practice and the exhibition game. You can see this team has a lot of potential though. We have the chance to have a really good basketball team."

The first half was back-and-forth between the Tide and the Colonels, with the teams trading baskets on several possessions. Alabama led 29-25 going into the break.

Alabama started off the second on a 14-4 run and led by as many as 21 points in the half. Senior Ericka Russell finished with 11 points, nine of them coming in the second half on three-pointers, leading to her 1,000th career point. Juniors Celiscia Farmer and Kyra Crosby and sophomore Kristin Lee added nine points each. Farmer also had eight boards for the Tide.

For the game, Alabama scored 22 points off 19 Colonels turnovers. The Tide also had tremendous help from the bench, with its reserves contributing 34 of Alabama's 72 points. Freshman Aneesh Daniels added seven points and was the leading rebounder with 10 boards.

GAME 2: CENTRAL ARKANSAS 58, ALABAMA 46

CONWAY, Ark. - The women's basketball team suffered its first loss of the 2011-12 season, falling 58-46 at Central Arkansas on Tuesday at the Farris Center. The Crimson Tide is now 1-1 on the season, while the Sugar Bears improve to 2-0.

Central Arkansas capitalized on its 18 trips to the free throw line, scoring 22 points from the stripe, while also collecting 23 offensive boards resulting in 21 second-chance points.

"We did not play very good basketball tonight," said Alabama head coach Wendell Hudson. "We gave up 23 offensive rebounds and had 24 turnovers. This team is going through a little bit of growing pains together. We just could not get five people on the same page tonight. Like I told the team after the game, two games does not make up a season. When we play together, we are a pretty good basketball team."

Sophomore Jasmine Robinson finished as Alabama's leading scorer with 13 points, while also adding a game-high four steals. Junior Kyra Crosby collected a team-best seven rebounds in addition to three thefts.

A free throw by Robinson got the Tide on the board first at the 17:40 mark, however neither team was able to get much going offensively in the early part of the game. Alabama would hold onto the lead until a pair of free throws put the Sugar Bears in front 8-7 with 8:58 to go. Central Arkansas extended its lead to as many as eight in the half, taking advantage of eight trips to the free throw line. The Tide pulled within two with 15 seconds to play thanks to an 8-2 run, but a last second put-back for the Sugar Bears gave Central Arkansas a 24-20 lead at the break.

Despite being down at the half, Alabama did end up with a better shooting percentage from the floor, going 9-for-31 (29.0 percent), while Central Arkansas was 6-for-29 (20.7 percent).

The Tide scored three points to open the second to close the gap to one point, but two more quick trips to the free throw line for the Sugar Bears put the lead back at five with 17:27 on the clock. Central Arkansas would take its first double-digit advantage of the game at the 7:23 mark, leading 44-34. Alabama would come within eight, but would not get any closer for the duration of the game.

GAME 3: ALABAMA 78, NORTHWESTERN STATE 52

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Junior guard Meghan Perkins, playing in just her third game for the Crimson Tide, scored a career-high 22 points to lead the Alabama women's basketball team to a 78-52 victory over the Northwestern State Lady Demons on Friday at Foster Auditorium. With the win, the Crimson Tide improves to 2-1 while Northwestern State falls to 1-2.

Sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson also notched a new career-high, scoring 20 points to go along with a game-high six assists, while senior guard Ericka Russell added 15 points for the Tide.

Alabama led by as many as 31 points in the second half after leading 42-23 at halftime. For the game, the Tide forced 29 turnovers, turning those into 24 points while outscoring the Lady Demons 36-18 on points in the paint. Alabama led for 39 of the game's 40 minutes.

"We got a lot better tonight by sharing the basketball," said Alabama head coach Wendell Hudson. "We had 18 assists and 19 turnovers in the game, but we'll take that because the team was trying to make the extra pass. I like that a lot. The most impressive thing we did though is play with a lot of attention. We didn't come out too fast. We came out strong and played consistently. We shared the basketball a lot and were able to get the ball to our center. When you share the basketball, you're able to play better basketball. We played with a sense of urgency, and we'll continue to keep getting better throughout the season."

Leading 8-6 at the 15:06 juncture of the first half, the Tide embarked on a 15-3 run over a five-and-a-half minute stretch to take a commanding 23-9 lead. From there, Alabama would build upon its advantage, stretching the lead to as much as 20 points at the 3:02 mark of the half before settling on a 42-23 halftime advantage. Robinson, Perkins and Russell combined for 32 of the Tide's 42 first half points.

The Lady Demons cut the margin to 53-38 over the first five minutes of the second half, but would not get any closer the rest of the way. A 13-2 Alabama run, spanning a little over six minutes of the half, gave the Tide a healthy 66-40 advantage from which it would coast to victory.

In addition to her game-high and career-high of 22 points, Perkins also added a game-high nine rebounds, while junior guard/forward Erin Hogue totaled a career-high eight rebounds for the Tide.

Senior guard Jordy James led the Lady Demons with 13 points.

GAME 4: ALABAMA 67, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 34

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Alabama women's basketball team improved to 3-1 after downing Georgia Southern on Monday at Foster Auditorium, 67-34. The Crimson Tide was paced by senior Ericka Russell, who led all scorers with 15 points, and sophomore Jasmine Robinson, who chipped in 14 points.

"I thought our intensity level was the best that we've had since I've been here," said Alabama head coach Wendell Hudson. "For 40 minutes, the intensity level was where it should have been. Defensively, we dominated the basketball game."

Alabama got off to a quick start, scoring the game's first seven points, and never looked back. With seven minutes left in the first half, Georgia Southern cut the Alabama lead to 11, then Alabama shot back with an 18-0 run, going into halftime up 44-18.

The Tide came out of the locker room ready to play after the halftime break, and held the Eagles scoreless until the 13:55 mark of play, going on a 6-0 run to start the half. Alabama extended its lead all the way out to 36, before closing the game with a 33-point victory, 67-34.

Alabama out-rebounded Georgia Southern by the tune of 44 to 31, tallying 17 offensive boards in the process, as well. The Tide's defense was especially stifling, forcing 25 turnovers and held Georgia Southern to just 34 points, and a 20.0 field goal percentage (8-for-40).

Georgia Southern was paced by sophomore forward Aishya Wofford, with 10 points. Wofford was the only Georgia Southern player in double figures. With the loss, Georgia Southern drops to 1-3 on the season.

GAME 5: OLD DOMINION 77, ALABAMA 76

ST. THOMAS, USVI - The women's basketball team (3-2) fought back from a 15-point deficit, but the comeback would come up just short as the Crimson Tide fell 77-76 to Old Dominion (1-4) in game one of the 2011 Paradise Jam on Thursday. Senior Ericka Russell scored 29 points, one shy of her career high, to lead all scorers.

Old Dominion led 9-5 early until a pair of threes from Russell put Alabama on top, 11-9, at the 16:50 mark. From there, the Lady Monarchs embarked on a 16-2 run over the next five minutes, taking as much as a 15-point lead. The Tide fought back late in the half, however, outscoring Old Dominion 19-7 in the over the final five minutes to cut its deficit to two, 46-44, heading into the break.

Russell led all scorers over the opening 20 minutes, tallying 17 points, 12 of which came from three-point range.

Alabama came out in the second half with the same intensity it ended with in the first, and soon tied the game at 50. From there, a four-point swing in favor of the Tide put the crimson and white up 54-50 with 15:34 remaining. The duration of the game saw six ties and nine lead changes, but the most crucial would come with 1.2 seconds left in the game as the Lady Monarchs' Rebecca Allison connected on a jumper to give Old Dominion the one-point win.

For the game, the Lady Monarchs shot 57.4 percent from the floor, including 68.2 percent in the first half, while the Tide went 35.7 percent for the game. Alabama forced 28 Old Dominion turnovers that resulted in 23 points and had 16 steals compared to the Lady Monarchs' six.

GAME 6: ALABAMA 62, SETON HALL 56 (OT)

ST. THOMAS, USVI - Freshman Aneeshah Daniels led four Crimson Tide players in double figures to lift the Alabama women's basketball team to a 62-56 overtime victory against Seton Hall on Friday at the 2011 Paradise Jam. Eleven of the Tide's final 18 points came from Daniels as did a pair of offensive rebounds with less than 19 seconds remaining in the bonus period to keep the ball in Alabama's possession down the stretch.

Joining Daniels in double figures was senior Ericka Russell with 12, sophomore Jasmine Robinson with 11 and sophomore Khristin Lee with 10. Junior Erin Hogue came up big defensively for the Tide, roping in 10 rebounds and three steals.

Seton Hall struck first with a basket at the 19:06 mark to take the early lead. Russell countered with a three-pointer on the next possession to put Alabama in front 3-2. The game would go back and forth over the duration of the half, but it would be the Pirates holding a two-point edge at halftime, 26-24.

Seton Hall's Brittany Morris buried a three with just over two minutes played in the second, giving the Pirates their largest lead of the game. Russell then scored five consecutive points to even the score at 29 with 16:50 to play. Daniels would give the Tide its first lead in nearly 17 minutes, scoring a free throw at the 15:07 mark. From there, Alabama embarked on a 14-4 run to take a 43-33 lead. Seton Hall responded, outscoring the Tide 14-6 to pull within two with 2:44 remaining in regulation. Alabama stayed in front until another three from a wide-open Morris went through the net with 30 seconds to go.

In overtime, Daniels connected on a pair of free throws with just over one minute played to put the Tide on top. The Pirates tied the score with their only basket from the floor in overtime on the ensuing possession, settling for one additional free throw for the remainder of the game. Alabama would tack on an additional seven points.

The Tide had 10 steals in the game compared to Seton Hall's one and forced 29 Pirate turnovers, while only committing 12.

GAME 7: ALABAMA 67, LOUISIANA TECH 59

ST. THOMAS, USVI - The Alabama women's basketball team won the 2011 Paradise Jam Island Division with a 67-59 victory over Louisiana Tech on Saturday. Senior Ericka Russell was named Tournament MVP, while sophomore Jasmine Robinson earned All-Tournament honors.

Robinson finished with a game-high 19 points, while Russell added 12 and sophomore Khristin Lee another 11. Junior Erin Hogue had a game-best 18 rebounds in addition to nine points.

"Jasmine played a great game and really kept us in it during the first half," added Hudson. "Erin came up with some key rebounds, especially late in the game. She deserves a lot of credit for the way she played defensively today."

Louisiana Tech (2-4) struck first with a basket 15 seconds into the game. Alabama (5-2) then scored five of the next six points to take a lead it would hold onto for the duration of the game. The Crimson Tide used a 15-3 run over the next seven minutes to pull in front 20-8 at the 11:34 mark. The Lady Techsters threatened late in the first, pulling within seven, but would not get any closer in the half, as Alabama would head into the break with a 36-28.

Louisiana Tech opened the second with a three to cut the Alabama lead to five, but Robinson would respond with a three of her own on the ensuing possession to bring the lead out to six. The Lady Techsters would battle to chip the deficit down to two at 47-45, but the Tide would go on to score seven unanswered points for the nine-point advantage with 8:28 to go. Alabama remained in front and hit key free throws down the stretch for the victory.

For the game, Alabama had 41 rebounds, including 16 on the offensive end, and 14 steals. The Tide forced 23 Lady Techster turnovers, while committing just 12.

GAME 8: ALABAMA 69, SOUTHEASTERN LA. 56

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Alabama women's basketball team improved to 6-2 on the season with a 69-56 victory over the Southeastern Louisiana Lions at Foster Auditorium on Friday night.

Five Alabama players registered double figures in a balanced Crimson Tide attack, including junior guard/forward Erin Hogue who notched her first career double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds.

"Erin is just outstanding people," said Alabama head coach Wendell Hudson. "You look at her stat line, and we'll take 11 rebounds and 10 points every night. Erin is playing with a lot of energy, and she is getting better and better."

Sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson led Alabama with 13 points, while junior guard Jessica Merritt totaled a career-high 12 points. Senior guard Ericka Russell and freshman forward Aneesah Daniels scored 12 and 10 points, respectively, for the Tide.

Alabama led by as many as 20 points and never trailed throughout the contest. After holding a 33-26 halftime lead, the Tide used an 11-0 run early in the second half to grab a 54-34 lead and take control of the game. The Lions never got any closer than 15 until the final margin.

Alabama scored 21 points off 17 Southeastern Louisiana turnovers, while allowing just four points off 10 turnovers. Furthermore, the Lions were able to connect on just 2-of-20 from beyond the arc.

After building a 14-10 advantage midway through the first half, the Tide went on an 11-4 run spanning 4:37 to take a 25-14 lead at the 7:11 juncture. Six different Alabama players contributed to the scoring run. From there, Southeastern Louisiana cut the lead to four at 28-24 before the Tide upped the lead to 33-26 at the half.

A pair of back-to-back three-pointers by Robinson gave Alabama a quick 39-26 lead less than two minutes into the second half before the Lions were able to cut into the margin, and pull within nine points, 43-34, at the 15:04 mark of the half.

From there, though, the Tide took over, embarking on the game-deciding 11-0 run to take an insurmountable 20-point lead midway through the half before closing it out.

GAME 9: ALABAMA 80, KANSAS 76

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Sophomore Jasmine Robinson scored a career-high 24 points to lead the Alabama women's basketball team past Kansas, 80-76, on Sunday at Foster Auditorium. With the win, the Crimson Tide improved to 7-2 on the season, while the Jayhawks collected their first loss and now stand at 7-1 overall.

Joining Robinson in double-figures were juniors Meghan Perkins and Jessica Merritt, who added 17 and 12, respectively. Freshman Aneesah Daniels pulled down a game-best, and career-high, 13 rebounds, in addition to nine points.

Kansas took the early lead, scoring the first bucket of the game at the 18:22 mark, but Robinson would counter on the next possession to even the score at 2. Alabama would take its first lead of the game with 15:58 to go in the first as Robinson buried a three-pointer to give the Tide the 5-4 edge. Alabama remained in front, holding as much as a 12-point lead in the half. The Tide would head into the break up 43-33 over the Jayhawks.

Kansas strung together an 8-4 run to open the second, cutting its deficit to six at the 17:12 mark. Alabama responded, however, extending its lead out to 13 with a fast-break layup from senior Ericka Russell with 10:36 to play. The Jayhawks would go on to score the next eight straight, bringing the lead down to five, before a Russell three-pointer with 6:21 to go took the lead back out to eight. Kansas would threaten again late in the

GAME 10: NORTH TEXAS 69, ALABAMA 63

DENTON, Texas - The women's basketball team (7-3) dropped a 69-63 decision at North Texas (7-2) on Wednesday. Junior Kyra Crosby, in her first appearance since Nov. 15, led the Crimson Tide in scoring with 13 points, while junior Erin Hogue had a team-high six rebounds.

The game started out close before a 12-3 run midway through the half put Alabama in front 19-10. From there, the Mean Green went on a run of its own, outscoring the Tide 12-2 over the next four minutes and would continue to hold the edge at halftime, leading 32-30 thanks to a last-second layup.

In the second, Alabama would manage to grab a brief one-point lead after scoring the first three points, before North Texas embarked on a 16-5 run that put the Mean Green up by 10, its largest lead of the game, with 12:24 to play. The Tide was able to even the score at 56 at the 5:26 mark, thanks to a pair of free throws from junior Meghan Perkins, but Alabama would not be able to pass the Mean Green down the stretch.

Joining Crosby with double-figure points was junior Jessica Merritt and sophomores Shafontaye Myers and Jasmine Robinson, with 12 and 11 points, respectively. Sophomore Shafontaye Myers had a game-high four assists, while Merritt came up with a team-best two steals.

Alabama shot 40.7 percent (24-59) from the floor, but was hampered by poor free throw shooting, making just 42.3 percent (11-26) of its attempts. In addition, the Tide was outrebounded 45-31 by the Mean Green, giving up 17 offensive boards to North Texas.

GAME 11: NC STATE 79, ALABAMA 57

RALEIGH, N.C. - The women's basketball team suffered a 79-57 loss at NC State on Sunday in Reynolds Coliseum. With the loss, the Crimson Tide falls to 7-4 on the season, while the Wolfpack improves to 6-2 overall.

Junior Jessica Merritt and sophomores Shafontaye Myers and Jasmine Robinson each had 11 points to lead Alabama in scoring. Junior Erin Hogue and Myers tallied four rebounds apiece for the Tide on the boards.

Alabama was unable to get much going early offensively and committed a handful of costly turnovers resulting in points for NC State. The Wolfpack continued to pull away from the Tide, leading by 11 at the 7:42 mark. Alabama came within four points with 3:57 to play, however a 16-5 run by NC State to end the extended the Wolfpack lead out to 15 at the break.

NC State scored seven unanswered points to open the second half, setting the score at 48-26 with 18:53 remaining. The Wolfpack continued to lead for the duration of the game, going ahead by as many as 34.

For the game, NC State out-rebounded Alabama 52-26, while the Wolfpack also collected 46 points in the paint compared to the Tide's 22. In addition, Alabama committed 21 turnovers in the loss.

GAME 12: ALABAMA 64, ALABAMA STATE 54

MONTGOMERY, Ala. - Sophomore Jasmine Robinson scored a game-high 19 points to lead the Crimson Tide to a 64-54 victory over Alabama State at the Dunn-Oliver Acadome on Saturday. With the win, Alabama improves to 8-4 on the season, while the Lady Hornets drop to 2-5 overall.

Alabama finished the game with 39 attempts from the free throw line, where the Tide scored 27 of its points. Alabama out-rebounded Alabama State 45-33 and had nine steals compared to the Lady Hornets' three.

Robinson was joined in double figures by sophomore Shafontaye Myers and freshman Aneesah Daniels, who added 16 and 10 points, respectively. The Tide was led on the boards by junior Erin Hogue as she pulled down a game-best nine rebounds. Myers was also very active on defense collecting four steals in the contest.

Alabama State opened the game with back-to-back threes to take hold of the lead early. Alabama had a trio of free throws but did not score its first basket from the floor until the 12:55 mark thanks to a layup from Daniels. The Lady Hornets led by as many as nine in the half before a 14-4 run by the Tide, capped off by six straight points from Myers, gave Alabama its first lead of the night. The Tide would head into halftime with a 32-26 advantage. Eighteen of Alabama's 32 first-half points were scored from the free throw line.

Alabama State started the second half with four unanswered points to cut its deficit to two, but Alabama would respond, extending its lead out to seven within the next two minutes. From there, the Lady Hornets would come within two on several occasions, but would not come any closer.

GAME 13: ALABAMA 65, PRESBYTERIAN 47

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The women's basketball team improved to 9-4 on the season with a 65-47 victory over the Presbyterian Blue Hose on Monday at Foster Auditorium.

Junior guard/forward Erin Hogue scored a career-high 16 points to lead a balanced Crimson Tide scoring attack that saw Alabama put four players in double-digits. Senior guard Ericka Russell and sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson each scored 11 points while junior guard Meghan Perkins added 10.

The Tide outscored Presbyterian 44-19 in a dominant second half performance that followed up a somewhat sluggish first half. Alabama shot 17-of-27 (63 percent) from the field in the second half after connecting on just 6-of-24 (25 percent) in the first half. For the game, Alabama held a 28-16 advantage on points in the paint, a 25-11 advantage in points off turnovers and a 24-6 difference in bench points. The 44 points are the most the Tide have scored in a second half this season.

"The second half we came out and scored 44 points compared to our 21 in the first 20 minutes," added Hudson. "I won't take anything away from the way we played in the second half and the effort we put out there."

Trailing 28-21 at halftime, the Tide opened the second half strong, utilizing a 10-2 run over a nearly five-minute stretch to grab a 31-30 advantage. Two quick buckets by Presbyterian gave the Blue Hose the lead right back at 34-31 for a brief measure before Alabama embarked on a game-changing 18-2 run over the next 5:16 of the half.

A three-pointer by Russell got things going as the Tide reeled off nine consecutive points to take a 40-34 lead, from which it would further expound into a 49-36 advantage at the 7:40 mark of the half. From there, Alabama added to the lead even more, pushing the margin to as much as 17 on two occasions before settling on the 18-point final margin.

GAME 14: ALABAMA 80, AIR FORCE 45

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The women's basketball team improved to 10-4 on the season, closing out the 2011 calendar year with an 80-45 victory over the Air Force Falcons on Friday night at Foster Auditorium.

Junior guard Meghan Perkins notched the first double-double of her Alabama career, scoring a game-high 19 points to go along with a game-high 10 rebounds. Junior forward Kyra Crosby tied her career-high with 13 points, while freshman forward Aneeshah Daniels, sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson and junior guard Celiscia Farmer each added eight points apiece for the Crimson Tide.

The Tide led for 39 of the game's 40 minutes, setting a new season-high rebounding mark with 55, while tying its season-high point total of 80. Alabama forced 23 Air Force turnovers, of which it converted into 18 points, while outscoring the Falcons by a margin of 40-6 on points in the paint. The Tide also enjoyed an 18-2 edge on fast break points.

With the score tied 13-13 midway through the first half, Alabama mounted a 13-0 run over a two minute span, cashing in on several Air Force mistakes, to pull in front 26-13 at the 5:03 mark of the half. From there, the Tide would build the lead even further, increasing the margin to as much as 16 points in the latter stages of the half before settling on a 37-22 advantage at intermission.

Following the break, Alabama embarked on a 16-2 run over the first 7:18 of the half to take a commanding 53-24 lead. During the stretch, the Tide enjoyed an over 3:1 ratio on shots taken (25 to 8), while getting 10 of the 16 points from its bench players.

After an Air Force basket briefly cut the lead to 27 points, Alabama utilized another game-changing run to put the contest completely out of reach. The Tide outscored the Falcons 19-7 over a six-and-a-half minute stretch to take its biggest lead of the game, 72-33, at the 5:36 mark. From there, Alabama would enjoy a cushion of no less than 33 points en route to a 35-point victory.

GAME 15: SOUTH CAROLINA 68, ALABAMA 42

COLUMBIA, S.C. - The Alabama women's basketball team opened Southeastern Conference play with a 68-42 loss to South Carolina on Sunday in Colonial Life Arena. The Crimson Tide is now 10-5 on the season, while the Gamecocks improve to 12-2 overall.

Sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson led all scorers with 16 points, all of which were scored in the second half. She was followed by senior guard Ericka Russell, who added nine points. Russell and sophomore guard Shafontaye Myers also collected three steals apiece.

In her first career start, Myers chipped in a jumper 20 seconds into the game to put Alabama ahead early. The Tide and Gamecocks traded baskets over the next couple minutes before South Carolina embarked on a 12-0 run to take the 18-6 lead with 10:32 to play in the half. Junior forward Kyra Crosby ended the scoring drought for Alabama one minute later with a wide-open layup off the feed from junior guard Jessica Merritt. The Gamecocks would lead by as many as 14 and held a 12-point lead going into halftime with a 27-15 advantage.

The Tide connected on 29.2 percent of its attempts from the floor in the first half (7-for-24), while South Carolina hit 39.4 percent of its shots (13-for-33). The Gamecocks out-rebounded Alabama 21-13, which included nine offensive rebounds resulting in 11 second chance points, and scored nine points off turnovers.

The Tide would score first in the second half thanks to a jumper from junior guard Meghan Perkins following the steal from Myers. From there, South Carolina went on a 7-0 run over a three-minute span, setting the score at 34-17. Alabama scored the next four straight, but the Gamecocks would respond again with 9-1 run, extending its lead out to 21. The Tide cut the margin down to 17 on several occasions, but was unable to get any closer.

For the game, Alabama was 37.5 percent from the floor (18-for-48), while South Carolina finished at 46.6 percent (27-for-58). In addition, the Gamecocks pulled down 38 rebounds compared to the Tide's 22 boards. South Carolina had 41 points produced from its bench, while Alabama had just four.

GAME 16: AUBURN 65, ALABAMA 55

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Alabama Crimson Tide fell to the Auburn Tigers, 65-55, in women's basketball action Thursday night at Foster Auditorium. With the loss, Alabama falls to 10-6 on the season, 0-2 in Southeastern Conference play. Auburn improves to 9-6 overall and 1-1 in the league.

Sophomore guard Shafontaye Myers led the Tide with 13 points, while senior guard Ericka Russell added 12 points for Alabama. Junior forward Erin Hogue grabbed nine boards to lead the Tide in rebounding.

Alabama jumped out to an early 11-3 lead, but the Tigers would fight their way back and tie the game with just under two minutes remaining in the first. Hogue made a basket before the end of the half to put the Tide up 26-24 at the break.

The second half started with Alabama and Auburn trading baskets and the lead. Both teams were plagued by turnovers, each ending the game with 18. Alabama had 10 steals in the game, while Auburn had six. Auburn was finally able to pull ahead of the Tide around the 10:00 mark of the second half. Thought the Tide would pull within two on a three-pointer by Russell, the Tigers would hold on for a 65-55 victory.

Auburn was led by sophomore forward Tyrese Tanner, who had 20 points. Freshman guard Hasina Muhammad added 12 points, and junior forward Blanche Alverson chipped in 11 points. Alverson and senior center Chantel Hilliard were the leading rebounders for the Tigers, each grabbing seven boards.

GAME 17: LSU 84, ALABAMA 40

BATON ROUGE, La. - The women's basketball team suffered an 84-40 loss at LSU on Sunday to fall to 10-7 on the season and 0-3 against Southeastern Conference opponents, while the Tigers improved to 12-3 overall and 3-0 in league play. Alabama struggled offensively against LSU in addition to having just eight active players available in the game.

The Tide finished the game 15.2 percent (10-for-66) from the floor, while the Tigers were 60.4 percent on their attempts (32-for-53).

The Tide was led in scoring by junior Erin Hogue, who collected 10 points. Junior Meghan Perkins would end up with a career-high 12 rebounds.

LSU scored the first nine points of the game, which included a pair of three pointers, before sophomore Khristin Lee connected on Alabama's first points at the 16:55 mark. The Tigers continued to build upon their lead throughout the duration of the half and went into the break with a 26-point advantage. Alabama was able to cut LSU's lead down to nine as Perkins went coast-to-coast with the steal and layup. From that point, however, the Tigers would outscore the Tide 19-4 to end the half.

LSU was 63.3 percent from the floor during the first 20 minutes of the game, hitting 19 of its 30 attempts, while Alabama managed to hit five of its 29 attempts, good for 17.2 percent. In addition, the Tigers score 24 points in the paint compared to the Tide's two.

LSU continued to out-produce Alabama in scoring as the Tigers put up 19 points compared to the Tide's six during the first nine minutes of the half. LSU's largest lead would come at the 6:50 mark when it went ahead by 45.

GAME 18: MISSISSIPPI STATE 66, ALABAMA 61

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Despite getting 32 points from its bench, the Alabama women's basketball team fell to Mississippi State, 66-61, at Foster Auditorium on Thursday evening. With the loss, the Crimson Tide falls to 10-8 overall and 0-4 in the Southeastern Conference, while Mississippi State improves to 11-5 and 1-2 in league play.

After a slow start with early ties and lead changes, Alabama took advantage of Mississippi State's 10 turnovers by scoring 12 second chance points. The Tide also took advantage of the Lady Bulldogs' foul trouble, making 12 of its 15 free throws. Alabama went into the break with a 41-34 lead.

The Lady Bulldogs would not make it easy for the Tide, putting together several second-half runs. They nearly erased Alabama's lead in the first five minutes of second half play, but Alabama would answer. Finally, Mississippi State was able to put together enough of a run to tie the game, and then took the lead in the final minutes on a three-pointer by Kendra Grant. The Lady Bulldogs would go on to make two free throws to seal the victory.

Junior guard Celiscia Farmer came off the bench to lead Alabama with 15 points. Sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson and junior forward Kyra Crosby each added 11 points. Junior guard Meghan Perkins led the Crimson Tide's rebounding efforts with seven boards, while Farmer grabbed five rebounds.

The Lady Bulldogs were led by senior guard Diamber Johnson, who scored 22 points. Senior guard Porsha Porter, freshman guard Kendra Grant and senior center Catina Bett all scored in double digits for Mississippi State, adding 16, 13 and 11 points, respectively. Mississippi State's rebounding was led by freshman center Martha Alwal and Porter, who had each had five rebounds.

GAME 19: MISSISSIPPI 69, ALABAMA 55

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Alabama Crimson Tide fell to the Mississippi Rebels, 69-55, in women's basketball action Sunday afternoon at Foster Auditorium. Alabama was led in scoring by junior forward Kyra Crosby with 14 points, while sophomore guard Jasmine Robinson added 12 points. Sophomore guard Khristin Lee led the Tide in rebounding with eight boards as well as assists with seven.

After a close back-and-forth beginning, Mississippi pulled away from the Tide, building as much as a 13 point lead with six and a half minutes left in the first half. Alabama would put together a run to close the gap and would go into halftime trailing 38-31.

The Tide would come out to make the first basket of the second half, but the Rebels would answer with two baskets of their own. A jumper by Robinson at the 15:48 mark cut Alabama's deficit down to four, but from there, Mississippi would go on to score nine unanswered points. The Rebels outscored the Tide 31-24 in the second half, and would win by 14.

Mississippi was led in scoring by sophomore guard Valencia McFarland, who finished with 25 points. Leading the Rebels with nine rebounds was freshman forward Tia Faleru.

GAME 20: FLORIDA 61, ALABAMA 37

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - The women's basketball team dropped a 61-37 decision at Florida on Thursday evening in the O'Connell Center. With the loss, the Crimson Tide drops to 10-10 on the season and 0-6 versus Southeastern Conference opponents, while the Gators improve to 13-6 overall and 3-3 against league foes.

Florida got on the board first with a pair of free throws less than a minute into the game. Alabama would tie it up on the alternating possession and soon take the lead, going on a 5-2 run over the next two minutes. The Tide would go scoreless over the next five minutes, allowing the Gators to get back in the game and eventually go back in front with 12:19 remaining in the first. From there, Florida would go on to outscore Alabama 25-10 to close out the half.

The Tide had 12 first half turnover, resulting in 16 points for the Gators. In addition, Florida connected on four of its nine three-point attempts, while Alabama knocked down one of its six tries from long range.

The Gators continued to outscore the Tide in the second half, going ahead by as many as 27 in the game.

For the game, Florida shot 39.7 percent from the floor (25-for-63), while Alabama was 24.6 percent (16-for-65) from the floor. The Gators out-rebounded the Tide 51-39, including 19 offensive boards.

GAME 21: TENNESSEE 86, ALABAMA 58

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Crimson Tide fell to the seventh-ranked Tennessee Lady Volunteers, 86-56, in Foster Auditorium on Thursday night. With the loss, the Tide falls to 10-11 overall and 0-7 in Southeastern Conference play, while the Lady Vols improve to 15-5 overall and 6-1 against league foes.

Junior forward Kyra Crosby led the Tide with 15 points, while junior guard Meghan Perkins finished with eight points and a team-best seven rebounds.

After falling behind early, Alabama mounted a comeback that saw the Tide behind 16-10 seven minutes into the game. Tennessee would score 12 of the next 14 points however, and the Tide would pull no closer in the game. Both teams traded buckets before Alabama closed the gap to trail 47-32 at the half.

The Lady Vols hit a three-pointer to open the second half, but the Tide was able to cut into the lead to trail 52-40 with just under 17 minutes to play. Tennessee answered the Tide's run, and continued to pull away in the half. The Lady Vols would take their largest lead with 2:32 remaining when they went ahead by 33.

Tennessee was led by senior forward Shekinna Stricklen with 14 points. Senior forward Glory Johnson finished with 13 points and eight rebounds, while freshman point guard Ariel Massengale led the Lady Vols with 11 assists.

GAME 22: KENTUCKY 82, ALABAMA 68

LEXINGTON, Ky. - The women's basketball team fell, 82-68, at No. 6 Kentucky on Sunday in Memorial Coliseum. The Crimson Tide was able to pull within 11 after trailing by as many as 25 points, but was unable to get any closer. With the loss, Alabama moves to 10-12 overall and 0-8 against Southeastern Conference opponents, while the Wildcats improve to 20-2 on the season and 9-0 versus league foes.

Junior Kyra Crosby and sophomore Jasmine Robinson led Alabama in scoring with 14 points apiece. Sophomore Kristin Lee followed closely with 12 points, in addition to six rebounds, two assists and a pair of steals.

Kentucky won the opening tip and drove straight to the hoop to get on the board first. Alabama scored the next five points to lead early on, however the Wildcats would jump back in front moments later. The Tide took the lead back at the 15:05 mark following a pair of free throws from Crosby. From there, Kentucky would go on to outscore Alabama 36-18 in the half and would head into the break with a 46-29 advantage.

The Wildcats continued to hold a significant buffer in scoring until a 24-11 run by the Tide spanning just over six minutes brought Alabama within 11 of Kentucky with 7:40 to play. The Wildcats scored the next five points to extend their lead out to 16, but the Tide answered back and cut it down to 11 on two more occasions. Alabama would come no closer, however, as Kentucky outscored the Tide 9-6 down the stretch.

For the game, Kentucky shot 45.7 percent (32-for-70) compared to Alabama's 37.5 percent (24-for-64) performance. Neither team shot well from the free throw line as the Tide went 18-for-32 (56.3 percent), while the Wildcats were 10-for-21 (47.6 percent) from the stripe.

Alabama's 68 points were the second-most given up by Kentucky in SEC play this season.

GAME 23: ARKANSAS 70, ALABAMA 52

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - The women's basketball team (10-13, 0-9 SEC) dropped a 70-52 decision at Arkansas (17-5, 6-4 SEC) on Thursday night in Bud Walton Arena. The Crimson Tide finished the game 13-of-48 from the floor and had 23 points from the free throw line.

Alabama was led in scoring by junior Kyra Crosby, who finished with 14 points. She was followed by junior Jessica Merritt with 12 points and sophomore Jasmine Robinson, who added 10 points. Merritt also tallied a team-best eight rebounds.

Neither team was able to get anything going offensively early on as it took nearly three minutes for the first points to be scored, which went to Merritt. The next four minutes saw three lead changes with the final going in Arkansas' favor at the 13:07 mark off a three-pointer. From there, the Tide would go scoreless from the floor for the next nine minutes, allowing the Razorbacks to lead by as many as 13 points in the half. Arkansas went into the break leading 26-16. Eight of Alabama's final 10 points of the half were scored from the free throw line.

The Razorbacks continued to outscore the Tide in the second putting up 21 points to Alabama's five over the first six minutes of the half. All of Alabama's five points during that stretch were scored from the free throw line as the Tide did not get its first shot from the floor until the 13:04 mark. The Razorbacks posted their largest lead of the contest at the 9:20 mark, going up by 30.

For the game, Arkansas was 40.8 percent from the floor, hitting 29 of its 71 attempts. The Razorbacks also out-rebounded the Tide 53-32 in the contest.

GAME 24: GEORGIA 81, ALABAMA 66

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Despite a close first half, Alabama (10-14, 0-10 SEC) fell to No. 20 Georgia (18-6, 7-4 SEC), 81-66, at Foster Auditorium on Sunday afternoon. The Crimson Tide had 16 offensive rebounds that led to 16 second-chance points and blocked five shots in the game.

Junior Jessica Merritt, who earned her second career start, scored the Tide's first two baskets, but Georgia jumped out to an early 10-4 lead. Despite getting down early, Alabama pulled ahead on a three-pointer by sophomore Shafontaye Myers at the 5:41 mark of the first half. Georgia then went on a 12-6 run to close out the half but a last second basket by junior Meghan Perkins pulled the Tide within five points. Alabama trailed 36-31 at halftime.

Alabama kept Georgia within their reach to start off the second half, but the Lady Bulldogs started to pull away halfway through the half and would lead by as many as 20 points. The Tide's 15 turnovers led to 11 Georgia points. The Tide was outscored 36-34 in the paint. The Lady Bulldogs also held in the edge at the free throw line, making 14 of 24, while Alabama went 9 for 13.

Alabama's leading scorers were Myers and Perkins, who had 16 points apiece. Sophomore Jasmine Robinson added 11 points for the Tide, while Merritt chipped in nine points. Perkins had eight rebounds to lead the Tide, while Robinson and junior Erin Hogue each grabbed five boards.

GAME 28: SOUTH CAROLINA 69, ALABAMA 55

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Sophomore Jasmine Robinson scored a game-high 17 points in Alabama's loss to No. 25 South Carolina in Foster Auditorium on Sunday afternoon. With the loss, Alabama stands at 12-16 overall and 2-12 in Southeastern Conference play, while South Carolina improves to 20-7 and 9-5 in the SEC.

After a close opening seven minutes, senior Markeshia Grant hit back-to-back threes to put the Gamecocks ahead 15-8. South Carolina continued to build a lead, going up by as many as 16 points. A three-point play by sophomore Khristin Lee would get the Tide within 10 points with 1:31 left in the first half, but Alabama would go into halftime down 38-26.

South Carolina opened the second half with a three-point basket, but Robinson would answer with her own three-pointer. The Gamecocks went up by as many as 18 in the second half, but a basket by Lee would pull the Tide within nine points with 35 seconds left in the game. Though Alabama's offense struggled, with the Tide shooting just 27 percent from the field for the game, its defense caused 21 South Carolina turnovers, two of those being shot clock violations.

In addition to Robinson's 17 points, junior Kyra Crosby had her first double-double of the season, scoring 11 points and grabbing 10 rebounds. Junior Meghan Perkins chipped in nine points and grabbed six boards. Lee grabbed eight rebounds, while junior Jessica Merritt had five rebounds.

South Carolina was led by senior La'Keisha Sutton, who had 13 points and seven rebounds. Grant finished with 11 points for the Gamecocks, nine of which came from three-pointers. Junior Ieasia Walker added 10 points. Freshman Aleighsa Welch and senior Charenee Stephens grabbed five boards apiece for the Gamecocks.
