WOLVERINE BITES

» The University of Michigan baseball team (49-20) went 3-0 through its half of the College World Series bracket and will advance to the best-of-three Finals series against Vanderbilt this week.

» The College World Series Finals are set to begin on Monday (June 24) and continue on Tuesday (June 25) with an if-necessary game scheduled for Wednesday (June 26). All games are slated to begin at 6 p.m. CT and will air on ESPN.

» The CWS Finals appearance marks Michigan's first since the NCAA adopted the best-of-three format in 2003. The Wolverines have made it to the College World Series title game twice in program history (1953 and '62), and emerged victorious both times.

» The Wolverines and the Commodores have not met since the 2007 season, when Michigan upset national seed and host Vanderbilt in the Nashville Regional to advance to the Super Regionals. Michigan pitching coach Chris Fetter was a member of the Wolverines' team at the time, while head coach Erik Bakich was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt.

» Michigan rapped 14 hits and took 12 walks as it defeated No. 8-ranked Texas Tech, 15-3, on Friday (June 21). U-M scored at least one run in all but one inning, and the five-run sixth broke the game open for the Wolverines after a scoreless fifth. The Maize and Blue set a record for runs in a game in Michigan CWS history and drove in 10 of their 15 runs with two outs.

» Senior Jimmy Kerr knocked in three runs on four hits in Friday's win (June 21), which included a bunt single, an RBI double and two solo home runs.

Sophomore Jesse Franklin led the Maize and Blue with four RBI on three hits and a walk, and tied Chris Sabo ('83) and Casey Close ('83) for most RBI in a CWS game for the Wolverines. Additionally, eight of nine Michigan starters recorded a hit or scored a run in the effort.

» Friday's victory over Texas Tech also marked the 12th win of the season for junior starting pitcher Karl Kauffmann (12-6). He is now tied for the single-season school wins record set by Rich Stoll in 1982 and duplicated by Stoll in 1983.

» Michigan defeated Florida State on Monday (June 17) to remain in the winner's bracket of the CWS. Junior starting pitcher Tommy Henry pitched a complete game shutout and scattered just three hits with 10 strikeouts in the effort.

» Sophomore Jesse Franklin knocked his 13th homer of the season against Florida State (June 17) a bomb over the right field wall on just the second pitch of the game. The solo shot marked the 100th home run at TD Ameritrade Park in College World Series history. With 23 career home runs in just his sophomore season, Franklin ranks 15th all-time at Michigan.

» With 10 strikeouts through nine innings of work in a win over Florida State (June 17), junior lefty Tommy Henry broke Michigan's single season strikeout record previously owned by Oliver Jaskie (2017) and Jim Burton (1970) - both of whom had 119. Henry has struck out 127 batters so far this season and ranks sixth in program history with 243 career Ks.

» The Wolverines used early offense and solid pitching performances from starter Karl Kauffmann and Jeff Criswell to defeat Texas Tech, 5-3, in the first game of the CWS (June 15). The Red Raiders had two men on base and brought the winning run to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with two outs, but Criswell got a big strikeout to end the game and helped push Michigan to its first win in Omaha since the 1983 season. The win over TTU also marked the first in Michigan history.

» Michigan handed Texas Tech starter Micah Dallas (7-2) both of his only two losses on the season with two victories during the CWS. The Wolverines chased Dallas from the game after three innings in the CWS opener (June 15), and sent Texas Tech to the bullpen after just one inning on Friday (June 21). Both starts included a season-high four runs allowed for the Red Raiders ace.

» Michigan's lineup has shined in the NCAA postseason, as starting pitchers from both No. 1-seed UCLA (Ryan Garcia, 10-1) and No. 8-seed Texas Tech (Micah Dallas, 7-2) suffered their first losses of the season at the hands of the Wolverines.

» Michigan is appearing in the College World Series for the eighth time in program history. Owners of two national championships (1953, 1962), U-M also advanced to Omaha, Nebraska, in 1978 (fifth place), 1980 (fifth), 1981 (seventh), 1983 (third) and 1984 (seventh).

» Michigan owns an all-time NCAA Tournament record of 69-49 (.585), including a 52-34 (.605) mark during regional play, and a 2-3 mark (.400) during super regional action. The Wolverines have advanced to the College World Series seven times previously, most recently in 1984, and won national titles in 1953 and 1962.

» The Super Regional berth marked Michigan's second in program history (modern format) and first since 2007. Prior to the three-game set at UCLA, Michigan was 0-2 all-time in Super Regional games. The Wolverines are now 2-3 all-time.

» Michigan is 12-4 in neutral site games this year, including 5-2 when playing at TD Ameritrade Park in the postseason, which includes five games in the Big Ten Conference Tournament. The Wolverine offense is hitting at a combined .291 clip in neutral games, while the pitching staff boasts a 3.41 earned run average.

» Head coach Erik Bakich was named the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) National Coach of the Year, the organization announced Saturday morning (June 15) at TD Ameritrade Park. Bakich is currently in the midst of his seventh season as Michigan's head coach and his 10th year as a head coach overall in Division I.

» The No. 1 -ranked Bruins evened the NCAA Super Regional series on Saturday (June 8) as UCLA upended Michigan, 5-4, in a 12-inning affair, but Michigan won the winner-take-all contest on Sunday (June 9) with a 4-2 victory to advance to the College World Series.

» Michigan defeated UCLA, 3-2, in the Super Regional weekend opener on June 7 behind a combined pitching effort from junior Karl Kauffmann and sophomore Jeff Criswell. Sophomore outfielder Jesse Franklin gave Michigan the lead with a 2-RBI single in the third inning, and sophomore designated hitter Jordan Nwogu drove in the eventual game-winning run with a sacrifice fly in the eighth.

» Prior to the Super Regional, Michigan was one of just nine teams with a win over UCLA this season (March 8), and the Bruins were ranked No. 1 in numerous Division I baseball polls for the majority of the 2019 campaign. After winning the Super Regional over the

No. 1-seeded Bruins, Michigan is the only team this season to defeat UCLA more than once. Additionally, the Bruins lost just two games all year to a left-handed starter, and both losses came at the hands of junior Tommy Henry.

» With two appearances at UCLA in the NCAA Super Regional, redshirt junior Ben Keizer broke Michigan's single season record for appearances (previously 31). Keizer has appeared 33 times this season, and owns a 4-1 record with two saves, including one in U-M's win at No. 1-seeded UCLA to advance to the College World Series.

» Between a trip to Kentucky in the last week of the regular season (May 14) and Michigan's trip to the College World Series, the Wolverines spent just five nights at home in Ann Arbor. In that time, Michigan players and staff travelled approximately 8,575 miles, with trips to Lexington, Lincoln, Omaha, Corvallis, Los Angeles, and back to Omaha.

» The Maize and Blue won the Corvallis Regional with a victory over Creighton in the winner-take-all game (June 2). Michigan stormed back from an early deficit to take the game by a 17-6 score.

» Michigan started the NCAA Tournament with a 6-0 shutout victory of Creighton on Friday (May 31), and defeated Cincinnati, 10-4, on Saturday (June 1) to remain in the winner's bracket. The Wolverines then lost to Creighton, 11-7, on Sunday (June 2), but responded Monday (June 3) with a resounding 17-6 win over Creighton in the winner-take-all game to clinch a trip to the NCAA Super Regional.

» Senior infielder Jimmy Kerr was named the Corvallis Regional Most Outstanding Player following the Wolverines' victory in the regional championship (June 2). The lefty hitter went 5-for-16 over the weekend with four home runs for a 1.063 slugging percentage and a .313 batting average. He also led Michigan with seven runs scored.

» Along with Kerr, junior outfielder Christan Bullock and junior right-handed pitcher Karl Kauffmann were also named to the Corvallis Regional All-Tournament Team. Bullock hit .357 over the four games, while Kauffmann earned a win in the weekend opener with 8.2 scoreless innings pitched.

» Michigan's starting weekend rotation of Kauffmann, sophomore Jeff Criswell, and junior Tommy Henry shined during the Corvallis Regional. Through the first three games, the trio combined to allow just six walks and six earned runs through 23.2 innings for an impressive 2.28 earned run average. They also struck out 23 batters.

» The Michigan offense posted a .315 team batting average and scored 41 runs through four games during the Corvallis Regional (May 31-June 3). Wolverine hitters knocked 20 hits for extra bases - including eight home runs - for a .575 team slugging percentage and out-scored its opponents by 19 runs.

» Freshman Riley Bertram stepped-in at shortstop during the Corvallis Regional due to an injury and contributed seven hits in 15 at-bats after hitting 3-for-12 in the regular season. On Saturday vs. Cincinnati (June 2), and in his first career start, he was 4-for-4 with a double, HBP and a run scored. He followed up with two doubles and three RBI on Sunday (June 2), then scored a career-high two runs on Monday (June 3) in the regional title game.

» Jordan Nwogu hit his third leadoff home run of the year on June 1 vs. Cincinnati in the second game of the Corvallis Regional. The sophomore designated hitter has 12 homers on the season and leads the Wolverines with a .439 on-base percentage.

» A shutout win over Creighton (May 31) was the ninth in Michigan NCAA Tournament history, with the last coming on May 22, 1987, against Rider. It also marked the 12th time that Michigan has opened an NCAA Tournament with a victory.

» The Wolverines are making their third NCAA Tournament appearance under head coach Erik

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Bakich and 24th overall. The at-large selection is Michigan's second since 2017, though the Wolverines advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2015 by way of winning the Big Ten Tournament, which serves as an automatic qualifier.

» Michigan has four players with at least 10 home runs [, Jimmy Kerr (14), Jesse Franklin (13), Jordan Brewer (12), Jordan Nwogu (12)], marking the first time since the 1985 season that four Wolverines have reached double figures. That year's team was 55-10 and advanced to the Starkville Regional final behind the longball prowess of Mike Watters (17), Casey Close (16), Barry Larkin (16) and Ken Hayward (13).

2019 MLB DRAFT
» Moments after winning Monday's game to advance to the program's second-ever NCAA Super Regional, Michigan had two players selected in the Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft. Juniors Tommy Henry (74th pick, Arizona Diamondbacks) and Karl Kauffmann (77th pick, Colorado Rockies) were selected in the Competitive Balance "B" Round on Monday night (June 3), just moments apart and immediately following the team's championship photo.

» Junior outfielder Jordan Brewer (106th pick, Houston Astros) was taken in the third round on Tuesday afternoon (June 4) prior to the team's departure from Corvallis down to Los Angeles for the Super Regional.

» On Wednesday (June 5), junior Jack Weisenburger (614th pick, Oakland A's) went in the 20th round while the team was training at UCLA.

» Also on Wednesday (June 5), following a weight lifting session at a local gym senior Jimmy Kerr (982nd pick, Detroit Tigers) was drafted in the 33rd round while on the team bus.

» Freshman right-hander Willie Weiss was named to the Collegiate Baseball Magazine Freshman All-America Team on June 5 as a relief pitcher.

» The Wolverines (16-7 B1G) finished just one half game out of first place in the Big Ten Conference standings this season. Indiana (17-7 B1G), which defeated Michigan twice during a three game set in the second-to-last weekend of the regular season, took home the regular-season conference title, while Nebraska, which eliminated Michigan from the Big Ten Conference Tournament on Saturday (May 25), won the tournament title to earn the Big Ten's automatic bid. Prior to the season, the Wolverines were picked by the league's coaches to finish second in the Big Ten this year.

» A victory over Illinois in the second game of the Big Ten Tournament (May 23) marked Michigan's 40th win of the season. Prior to the 2019 campaign, U-M had compiled 40 wins just 13 times in modern history. The 40-win mark is the second for Coach Bakich in his head coaching career; the first came during the 2017 season, in which Michigan also advanced to the NCAA Tournament with an at-large bid.

» Michigan's offense led Big Ten opponents this season in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, runs scored, hits, walks, doubles, stolen bases, and sacrifice flies.

» The Wolverines' 3.40 earned run average currently leads the Big Ten Conference and ranks ninth-best in the nation. The pitching staff has also combined for a conference-most eight shutout victories, which ranks third-most in the country.

» Michigan's leadoff batter has reached base and scored to start 20 games this season with the Wolverines going on to win 18 of them. Michigan has hit four leadoff home runs this season (Nwogu 3, Thomas 1).

» Michigan earned its highest ranking(s) of the season at the beginning of March after winning eight games to start the 2019 season. The Wolverines have been ranked or receiving votes in the national polls each week dating back to the preseason rankings.

» Sophomore Jack Blomgren snapped a 33-game streak of reaching base safely during Michigan's loss to Ohio State in the opening round of the Big Ten Tournament (May 22). An All-Big Ten conference second team selection, Blomgren currently ranks second on the team with a .411 on-base percentage.

» A loss to Indiana on May 10 snapped a 13-game win streak for Michigan, which ranked longest in the NCAA at the time. The streak included victories over Ohio State, Bowling Green, Michigan State, and Eastern Michigan, as well as series sweeps of Northwestern, Rutgers, and Maryland. The Wolverines made history during the 2018 campaign with an impressive 20-game win streak through March and April, which marked the third-longest win streak in program history.

» Michigan wrapped up the home portion of its season with a 22-4 record when playing inside the Wilpon Complex. The Wolverines dropped the Friday and Saturday games (May 10-11) of their final home series against Indiana, but ended the weekend with a thrilling 11-inning 6-5 victory over the Hoosiers on Senior Day (May 12).

» Junior-college transfer Jordan Brewer snapped his 32-game reached-base streak against Michigan state on May 7 when he failed to reach base via hit, walk, or hit by pitch. The outfielder knocked in a run and scored one of his own when he reached first base by a fielder's choice in both the seventh and eighth innings. Brewer jump-started a new streak the following day (May 8) with three hits in a 10-1 rout of Eastern Michigan.

» With a save in a win at Maryland (May 3), freshman righty Willie Weiss clinched his ninth save of the year and now ranks third all-time for saves in a single season. Set in 2014 by Tampa Bay Rays prospect Jacob Cronenworth and tied in 2017 by Jackson Lamb, Michigan's all-time record for saves in a single season is 12.

» Junior right-handed pitcher Karl Kauffmann earned Big Ten Pitcher of the week honors to close out the month of April following eight shutout innings in a win against Rutgers on April 26. Kauffmann allowed just two hits and a walk, while striking out five batters in his first Friday start of the season.

» Two more Wolverines made their career debuts during Michigan's home-opening weekend, as both Jack White and Walker Cleveland made pitching appearances in a 23-2 rout of Manhattan on Friday (March 15). White threw one full inning and faced the minimum three batters, while Cleveland tossed a third of an inning and got a groundout with just two pitches.

» Michigan posted a 3-4 record during its annual spring break trip to California, which was highlighted by an upset win over No. 2-ranked UCLA as well as a series win at Cal State Northridge.

» Junior lefty Tommy Henry earned his second consecutive Big Ten Pitcher of the Week award following eight shutout innings in a win at Cal State Northridge on March 1. Henry threw another efficient game, using 90 pitches to strike out 12 batters against just three hits and a walk.

» Junior left-handed pitcher Tommy Henry earned Big Ten and NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week honors on Feb. 25 after an impressive performance in a 2-0 shutout at The Citadel (Feb. 22). The lefty pitched a complete-game, one-hit shutout against the Bulldogs and struck out a career-high 13 batters in the process. He faced the minimum 27 batters and did so in quick fashion, throwing just 88 pitches in the game.

» Two more Wolverines made their collegiate debuts at The Citadel as freshmen Keaton Carratini and Riley Bertram each appeared in Game 2 of the weekend series (Feb. 23). Carratini drew a walk in his first-ever plate appearance, while Bertram had an at bat and took the field at the shortstop position late in the game.

» The Maize and Blue opened up the 2019 season with a three-game series against Binghamton in Port St. Lucie, Florida, where the Wolverines picked up three wins. The series marked the fourth straight year that

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Michigan began its season at First Data Field, as the Wolverines have played a series at the home of the Mets' High-A affiliate every season since 2007.

» Several players enjoyed impressive Michigan debuts over the season-opening weekend in Port St. Lucie, Fla., including junior-transfer Jordan Brewer as well as freshman Isaiah Paige, Willie Weiss, and Jack Van Remortel. Brewer demonstrated electric athleticism in playing both right field and first base while batting 4-for-9 (.444) with two doubles and two stolen bases. After red-shirting as a true freshman in 2018, Paige turned in a three-inning save in his debut in the season opener (Feb. 15), allowing one hit. Willie Weiss, the 2018 Oregon Gatorade Player of the Year, came out of the bullpen in Game 2 of the series against Binghamton (Feb. 16) and struck out the side around a leadoff single to earn a save in his debut. Van Remortel earned a sharp single and an RBI in his first collegiate at bat in Game 3 (Feb. 17) of the series.

» Michigan was picked by the league's coaches to finish second in the Big Ten Conference preseason poll this season. Additionally, junior Dominic Clementi as well as sophomores Jesse Franklin and Jordan Nwogu were named three of the conference's Players to Watch. Baseball America picked the Wolverines to win the conference.

» Coming off a 33-21 season in 2018 that included the program's sixth-straight Big Ten Tournament appearance, Michigan returned 24 players to this year's squad. Despite losing key players to graduation and the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft, the future looks bright for Michigan's oldest athletic program, which celebrates its 153rd season this year.

» After spending the first four weeks on the road and playing 15 contests across Florida, South Carolina, and California, the Maize and Blue hosted Manhattan for a four-game series (March 14-17) in its home opener in mid-March. The Wolverines swept the four-game set and out-scored the Jaspers 48 runs to 10.

» The Wolverines faced six 2018 NCAA Tournament teams in 2019 regular season for a total of 12 contests against regional competitors. Michigan also played 26 games at home this season inside the Wilpon Complex, home of Ray Fisher Stadium.

» Michigan was the lone program in the Big Ten Conference to earn a ranking in all six preseason polls. The Wolverines topped out at a No. 17 ranking in the D1Baseball poll, and were ranked in the top-25 by Perfect Game, Baseball America, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), and USA Today prior to the start of the season. Michigan also earned a top-40 preseason ranking by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

» Led by 14 upperclassmen, Michigan's oldest team on campus is celebrating its 153rd season this year. Through 153 years of baseball, Michigan has captured two College World Series titles, making eight College World Series appearances and earning 24 selections to the NCAA Tournament. Additionally, Michigan has had 179 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft.

» With sophomore Ben Dragani out for the season due to injury, Michigan returned two-thirds of its three-man weekend pitching rotation in juniors Tommy Henry and Karl Kauffmann. The Wolverines looked to sophomore Jeff Criswell to fill the gap in the starting rotation against Binghamton. Criswell led the Michigan bullpen last season with 24 appearances.

» The Maize and Blue finished in the top five in the Big Ten Conference in multiple offensive statistical categories for the 2018 season, including batting average, on-base percentage, runs scored, hits, doubles, triples, and stolen bases. The Wolverine pitching staff was strong and reliable in 2018, posting a 3.46 team earned run average to finish third in the Big Ten and 23rd in the nation. Michigan also led the conference with a league-low opponent batting average (.229) as well as the fewest hits (404) and home runs (22) allowed.

» The 2018 season featured a 20-game win streak for the Wolverines, which went down in the record books as the third-longest in program history. The streak, which occurred between March 16 and April 22, included six series sweeps and an 11-0 start in Big Ten action.

» Michigan posted an 18-3 record at the Wilpon Complex during the 2018 campaign, including a string of 16 consecutive wins at home during the team's 20-game win streak.

2019 STAFF CHANGES
In addition to 11 newcomers on the field, Michigan's coaching and support staff underwent changes in the off-season. Michigan alumnus and former infielder Michael Brdar was promoted from program assistant to volunteer assistant coach, and the Wolverines hired former Toledo assistant coach Ryan Chipka as the team's new program assistant.

2018 RECAP
The University of Michigan baseball program ended the 2018 campaign with its fifth straight 30-win season under head coach Erik Bakich and its sixth consecutive postseason appearance in the Big Ten Conference Tournament. The season was highlighted by a 20-game win streak that stretched from March to April and marked the program's third-longest win streak in history.

CHASING HISTORY
Michigan opened its 153rd season with a 2,917-1,714-39 overall record, which ranks third-most for wins in college baseball history. The Wolverines are also making their 24th NCAA Tournament appearance and are seeking the program's third national championship.

NEW BLUE
The Maize and Blue added 11 players to its roster in the off-season, including 10 freshmen and one junior college transfer. Hailing from nine different states, the Wolverine recruiting class boasts six pitchers, two catchers, two infielders, and one outfielder.

THE MICHIGAN SCHEDULE
Of Michigan's 56 scheduled regular-season contests, 26 games were played at the Wolverines' home field at Ray Fisher Stadium, including 13 during the month of April. Prior to Michigan's first home contest, however, the Wolverines kicked off the 2019 campaign with a four-week, 14-game road swing, traveling to Florida, South Carolina, and California.

THE RECRUITING TRAIL
Though Michigan's roster has a significant amount of Michigan-natives, the Wolverine roster boasts 35 players from 12 different states. The Maize and Blue hail predominantly from Michigan (9), Wisconsin (6), and California (6), with five players from Illinois and two from both Washington and Indiana. The Wolverine squad also features student-athletes from Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Maryland, Massachusetts, and Oregon.

EARLY SEASON TRAVELS
Prior to a cancellation due to rain, the Wolverines were set to being the 2019 season with contests against eight different teams in three different states, logging 8,780 miles before playing at home for the first time. Here is a complete breakdown of the team's scheduled travel during the first four weeks of the season:

COACHING STAFF

Erik Bakich Head Coach (7th Season at Michigan)

Erik Bakich was announced as the 19th head coach in the history of Michigan baseball on June 27, 2012 and completed his sixth season with the program in 2018.

Bakich finished his sixth season at Michigan in 2018, posting a 33-21 overall record and a third-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. The season was highlighted by a 20-game win streak that stretched from March to April and marked the program's third-longest win streak in history. The 2018 campaign also featured an 18-3 record at the Wilpon Complex, which marked the program's best win percentage (.857) since the complex was dedicated in 2008. Following a strong regular season, the Wolverines advanced to the Big Ten Tournament for the sixth-straight season under Bakich.

After losing 15 players at the close of the 2017 season, Bakich and the coaching staff brought in a highly touted incoming class of 14, including 12 freshmen and two junior college transfers. The recruiting class was ranked No. 10 in the nation by Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, marking the highest ranking ever for a Big Ten recruiting class. The incoming class played an important role in the team's success in 2018, as Michigan newcomers went on to capture seven freshman all-America awards in addition to six Big Ten Conference postseason accolades.

In his fifth year with the Maize and Blue, Bakich guided the Wolverines to a 42-17 record and a second place finish in the Big Ten Conference, leading Michigan to its 23rd NCAA Tournament appearance in program history and its first at-large berth since 2007. With 40 wins for the first time since 2008, the season was also highlighted by a program record eight All-Big Ten selections, including five first team selections (Oliver Jaskie, Jackson Lamb, Ako Thomas, Michael Brdar, and Drew Lugbauer), two third team selections (Mac Lozer and Johnny Slater), and one All-Freshman Team selection (Tommy Henry). The 2017 campaign also featured a 23-5 record at the Wilpon Complex, which marked the program's best win percentage (.821) since the complex was dedicated in 2008 and helped to attract three of the top-ten largest crowds in program history. The impressive season culminated with the most Major League Baseball draft picks in the country and in Michigan history, as eleven players (Jaskie, Lugbauer, Brdar, Slater, Lozer, Ryan Nutof, Harrison Wenson, Bryan Pall, Jake Bivens, Michael Hendrickson, and Grant Reuss) were selected by and signed with their respective professional teams. In addition to on-field success, the campaign also featured six Academic All-Big Ten selections, one Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, and one CoSIDA Academic All-Region selection.

The 2016 campaign featured a 36-21 overall record for the Wolverines, who were left out of the NCAA Tournament despite defeating two top-25 teams and executing series sweeps of seven different opponents. At the close of the 2016 season, Michigan had garnered five All-Big Ten selections and five Major League Draft picks (Brett Adcock, Carmen Benedetti, Evan Hill, Jackson Lamb, and Harrison Wenson), which marked the program's most the 2012 season. Academically, the season was highlighted by its first CoSIDA Academic All-America selection since 2005 in Cody Bruder, six Academic All-Big Ten selections, and one Big Ten Distinguished Scholar award.

The 2015 season was an exciting one for Michigan, as the Wolverines won the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to a regional for the first time since 2008. Michigan won 39 games in 2015, highlighted by a four-game sweep of the Big Ten Tournament and a runner-up finish in the NCAA Louisville Regional. Bakich coached a first team All-American in Carmen Benedetti (NCBWA) and five All-Big Ten honorees, including first team selections in Benedetti and Jackson Glines. Michigan had four players named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team, including Freshman of the Year Jake Bivens. Three Wolverines (Jacob Cronenworth, Glines and Travis Maezes) were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft while Michigan now has eight Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans, the most in the nation in that three-year span.

The 2014 edition of the Michigan baseball team won 30 games and finished in a tie for fourth place in the Big Ten Conference. U-M also advanced to the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament, winning a pair of games in that tournament for the first time since 2008. Bakich coached a pair of All-Big Ten honorees (Jackson Glines - 2nd, Travis Maezes - 3rd) and four Academic All-Big Ten selections. Juniors James Bourque and Trent Szkutnik were both picked in the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft and freshman Brett Adcock and Carmen Benedetti were named to both the Big Ten All-Freshman and the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America teams.

In Bakich's first season in Ann Arbor, he guided the Maize and Blue to 29 wins and 14-10 record in the Big Ten, good for a tie for fifth place. That was a seven-game overall and a six-game conference improvement from 2012. Also, the Wolverines returned to the Big Ten Tournament for the first time since 2010. Bakich coached three All-Big Ten honorees (Michael O'Neill - 1st, Jacob Cronenworth - 2nd, Cole Martin - 3rd) and four Academic All-Big Ten selections. O'Neill also was an ABCA All-Mideast Region first team selection and a third round pick by the New York Yankees in the MLB First-Year Player Draft. A trio of freshmen (Cronenworth, Travis Maezes and Evan Hill) earned Big Ten All-Freshman team honors and were Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans.

Bakich came to Ann Arbor after spending three years as the head coach at the University of Maryland. He led the Terrapins to a 32-24 record in 2012, which was a 15-win improvement from his first season in College Park. Maryland started the season by taking 2-of-3 games at UCLA, which went on to earn a No. 2 national seed and a berth in the College World Series. The Terps also enjoyed wins over Purdue, East Carolina and St. John's in the non-conference slate and North Carolina, Virginia, Miami, N.C. State and Florida State in Atlantic Coast Conference action. Maryland had a 3.21 team earned-run average, which was third in the ACC. Bakich also had four players drafted from the 2012 team in this year's MLB First-Year Player Draft, including Alfredo Rodriguez, who was picked in the 17th round by the Milwaukee Brewers.

COACH + SUPPORT STAFF

Nick Schnabel Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator

7th Season at Michigan

- Recruited Michigan's 15-man incoming class in 2018 - perhaps the most highly-touted class in program history - which was ranked No. 10 by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and marked the highest ranking a Big Ten class has ever earned.
- Came to Michigan with Erik Bakich after serving as the hitting instructor, infield coach and recruiting coordinator at East Carolina for three seasons.
- Mentored six All-Conference USA selections during his three seasons with the Pirates.
- Also spent two seasons at Liberty as the hitting instructor and recruiting coordinator and a pair of seasons at the U.S. Military Academy, serving as Army's hitting instructor and working with the infielders.

Chris Fetter Assistant Coach/Pitching

2nd Season at Michigan

- Guided Michigan pitchers to a 3.46 earned run average during the 2018 campaign, which ranked 23rd-best in the nation and third-lowest in the Big Ten. The Wolverines also finished atop the conference with just 7.64 hits allowed per game, which ranked 12th in the country.
- Came to Michigan in the summer of 2017 after serving as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Los Angeles Dodgers.
- Four-year letterwinner at Michigan and All-American; ranks first in the U-M Baseball record book for innings pitched (332.1)
- Previously coached at Ball State University (2016), where he guided the Cardinals to a 4.31 team earned run average, which ranked second in the Mid-American Conference.

Michael Brdar Volunteer Coach

2nd Season at Michigan (1st as Volunteer Coach)

- Came to Michigan in January of 2018 as the team's program assistant before being elevated to Volunteer Assistant Coach in the summer of 2018.
- Graduated from Michigan in 2017 after spending two years as the team's shortstop. As a senior in 2017, he led Michigan with a .351 batting average and was named an All-Big Ten First Team selection.
- Was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 36th round of the 2017 draft and played one season of rookie ball before returning to Michigan.

Wayne Welton Director of Operations

8th Season at Michigan

- Was the Wolverines' volunteer coach in 2012 and transitioned to the role of Director of Operations in 2013.
- Was the head baseball coach at Chelsea High School in Chelsea, Mich., for 32 years, where he had a record of 767-357-11 and a 1991 Class B state title.
- Was the Director of Athletics at Chelsea for 22 years, guiding 24 varsity programs with 90-plus coaches. He was named the Regional Athletic Director of the Year by the MIAAA in 2010.

Jeremy Kelch Video Coordinator/Player Development

5th Season at Michigan

- Joined the Michigan staff in 2014 and is responsible for providing player development plans for student-athletes as well as training student managers in video operations and scouting strategy.
- Helps to provide the coaching staff with statistical analysis of in-game situations and opportunities for player growth.
- Spent 14 seasons with the Detroit Tigers as a video coordinator and advance scout.

Ryan Chipka Program Assistant

1st Season at Michigan

- Came to Michigan in the fall of 2018 after serving as an assistant coach at the University of Toledo for the 2018 season.
- Was the Director of Player Development and Scouting at Norfolk State University in 2017.
