TEAM NOTES

Limbaugh finishes third season
Vanderbilt head coach Scott Limbaugh, who just finished his third season, led the Commodores to their third consecutive regional and second consecutive NCAA Championship for only the second time in the program's history. Vanderbilt finished second in the stroke play portion of the NCAA Championship for their best finish ever and finished in a tie for fifth in their first appearance in match play. Limbaugh was named as one of five finalists for the Dave Williams Collegiate Coach of the Year.

More on NCAA Championship
Vanderbilt had three players finish in the top 11 on the individual leaderboard - Hunter Stewart (T-2), Zack Jaworski (T-11), and Matthias Schwab (T-11).

Commodores finish season fourth
The Commodores finished the 2014-15 season as the fourth-best team in the country according to Golfstat, Vanderbilt's highest ranking ever.

Vanderbilt Championship history
The Commodores just finished their 10th regional and fifth NCAA Championship. Vanderbilt advanced to the NCAA Championship on four other occasions - in 2003, 2004, 2007, and 2014, with their previous-best finish coming at the 2014 event, when they finished in a tie for 16th. 2015 marked the second time in the program's history that Vanderbilt has advanced to two consecutive NCAA Championships.

All-Americans
Vanderbilt senior Hunter Stewart was named a GCAA First-Team All-American after his 2014-15 senior season and is only the second Commodore player to be honored on the first team, joining Brandt Snedeker in 2003. Sophomore Matthias Schwab was named to the third team, while junior Zack Jaworski was a honorable mention selection.

Stellar year for Commodores
Three of the top eight single-season stroke averages in the program's history have been registered this season, with senior Hunter Stewart leading the way with a 69.49 stroke average, the best-ever stroke average by a Vanderbilt player. Matthias Schwab has a 70.44 stroke average this season (3rd), and Theo Humphrey a 71.73 average (7th).

All-SEC Commodores
Stewart was named the SEC Player of the Year, the first-ever in the program's history, as well as the All-SEC First Team. Schwab was named to the All-SEC First Team, Jacobs was named to the second team, and Humphrey was named to the All-Freshman team and the All-SEC Second Team. The four All-SEC selections is the most ever for a Vanderbilt team.

Stewart putting it all in place
Senior Hunter Stewart's has had quite the 2014-15 campaign, posting the school's lowest-ever stroke average, registering 18 rounds in the 60's and winning three individual tournaments (Carmel Cup, Tavistock Collegiate, Mason Rudolph Championship). He posted a 19-round streak in the spring of par rounds or better. Stewart was named to the U.S. Palmer Cup team in 2015, and was also named as a semifinalist for the Ben Hogan Award. His worst finish of the season was a T-11 at the Nike Golf Collegiate.

Schwab coming on
Sophomore Matthias Schwab, who missed the fall season recovering from a back injury, emerged in the spring better than ever with four top fives and an individual title at the Mason Rudolph Championship. Schwab, who was named to the Palmer Cup European team, finished the season with eight rounds in the 60's.

Jacobs posts low round of the year
Junior Carson Jacobs carded a first-round 64 in the Dick's Collegiate Challenge Cup, the lowest by a Commodore this year. Jacobs had two top five finishes, including a runner-up finish at the Tavistock Collegiate, and one other top 10.

Dores not afraid to go low
In all this season, Vanderbilt has registered 51 combined rounds in the 60's and 23 rounds of 68 or better.

One team title
Vanderbilt's one team title came at their own Mason Rudolph Championship, where they defeated second-place Georgia Tech and Alabama by 11 shots. The Commodores have finished runner up in eight tournaments.

Scott Limbaugh, Head Coach

Scott Limbaugh, who spent five years as the assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at the University of Alabama and played a major role in one of collegiate golf's most dominating runs, brought his experience and enthusiasm to the Commodore men's golf team after behing hired as the head coach in June of 2012. His successful ways have continued at Vanderbilt.

Limbaugh, who finished his third season with the Commodores, has pushed the Vanderbilt program to new heights under his leadership. Since his arrival prior to the 2012 campaign, Vanderbilt has won six team tournaments, had seven medalist winners, garnered three consecutive NCAA Regional bids, and pushed the Commodores to back-to-back NCAA Championship appearances in 2014 and 2015 for only the second time in program history. He has also had one of his players participate in a PGA Tour event - Hunter Stewart in 2014 at the RBC Heritage, where he barely missed the cut, and placed Matthias Schwab on the All-Freshman Team in 2014, the first time a Vanderbilt golfer has been honored by the league since 2010.

In 2014-15, Vanderbilt had one of the most successful seasons in the history of the program, with Stewart leading the way by winning the SEC Player of the Year, the first by a Commodore men's golfer, and being named as a first-team All-SEC selection and a first-team All-American. Schwab was also named as an all-SEC first-team member and a third-team All-American by the GCAA, and Zack Jaworski was named an honorable mention All-American selection. Carson Jacobs was named to the All-SEC second team and Theo Humphrey to the All-SEC Freshman team. 2014-15 marked the most selections to the All-American and All-SEC teams in the history of the program. Astonishingly, Stewart, Schwab, Jacobs, and Humphrey have four of the top eight single-season stroke averages in the history of the program, with Stewart posting the program's all-time best stroke average at 69.49.

The Commodores also made a splash at the 2015 NCAA Championship, finishing in second place in stroke play competition before falling in the quarterfinals of match play to eventual national champion LSU in their first ever appearance in the Elite Eight. The exploits of the 2014-15 season earned Limbaugh a spot among the nation's top collegiate coaches when he was named one of five finalists for the Dave Williams

National Coach of the Year in the spring of 2015.

Prior to his arrival in Nashville, Limbaugh spent the last five seasons serving as the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach for the SEC and national powerhouse Crimson Tide,who finished as the NCAA runner-up (2012), captured SEC championships in two seasons (2008, 2012) and won two NCAA East Regional titles (2009, 2012). Alabama also played in four NCAA Championships and claimed 20 team tournament titles during his tenure.

"I believe that Vanderbilt is a special place and we can build champions on and off the golf course," said Limbaugh after his hire. "There are many things that attracted me to Vanderbilt: First of all, Vanderbilt is a great university and Nashville is such an awesome location. We will have the opportunity to build champions in the classroom, on the golf course, and have young people that represent Vanderbilt in a way that Vanderbilt needs to be represented."

Individually, Limbaugh has helped mentor 13 All-Americans on the course, with four of those being first-team selections (Michael Thompson, 2008; Bud Cauley, 2009, 2010, 2011; Justin Thomas, 2012; Hunter Stewart, 2015). Thomas, who was recruited by Limbaugh, claimed the prestigious Jack Nicklaus and Phil Mickelson awards, while also earning SEC Player of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year honors. He has also coached two Walker Cup team members (Bud Cauley, Hunter Stewart), five Palmer Cup members (Michael Thompson, Bud Cauley, Justin Thomas, Hunter Stewart, Matthias Schwab), three SEC Players of the Year (Michael Thompson, 2008; Thomas, 2012; Stewart, 2015), and two additional SEC Freshmen of the Year (Bud Cauley, 2009; Cory Whitsett, 2011).

Coach Limbaugh with assistant coach Dusty Smith.

Off the course and in the classroom, Limbaugh also helped recruit and tutor some of the nation's best. In 2012, he coached the NCAA Elite 89 winner in Whitsett, and in 2008, Joeseph Sykora claimed the H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Student-Athlete of the Year honor. In all, he has coached 58 Academic All-SEC team members and five Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) All-America Scholar members.

Limbaugh is considered one of the nation's best recruiters. On the recruiting trail, Alabama recruited two of the top-ranked junior golfers in America in his tenure with the Crimson Tide (Bud Cauley (2008) and Bobby Wyatt (2010)), one U.S. Junior Amateur Champion (Cory Whitsett, 2010), and six American Junior Golf Association All-Americans. The Crimson Tide, according to Golfweek, also landed three top 10 recruiting classes (2008, 2010, 2011) in his time in Tuscaloosa.

A 2003 Huntingdon College (Ala.) graduate, Limbaugh played for the Hawks for two seasons after helping lead Central Alabama Community College to two NCAA Junior College National Championships. Limbaugh was a co-captain on that 2000 National Champion team for Central Alabama. As a golfer at Huntingdon, he competed at nationals and was team captain in 2002. After his playing career was over, Limbaugh was hired as an assistant coach at his alma mater and was elevated to head coach in June of 2004, where he served until Alabama men's golf hired him as an assistant in 2007.

Limbaugh, a Childersburg, Ala., native, was the 2005-06 Eaton/Golf Pride South Region NCAA Division III Coach of the Year. He coached Huntingdon to a fourth-place NCAA Division III men's golf finish in 2007, which was its best finish in school history. It was Huntingdon's third straight NCAA appearance as Limbaugh's teams qualified in all three of his seasons as head coach.

His first Huntingdon team in 2005 finished ninth before the 2006 team finished 15th. His 2006 team was ranked No. 1 for almost the entire season in Division III.

He produced three All-Americans during his time at Huntingdon, including Alex Balog, Jacob Collinsworth and Matt Mahanic. Collinsworth was a first-team selection after finishing second individually at the NCAA Division III Championships.

Limbaugh and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Malley (4), and Annie (2).

COACHING STAFF

Dusty Smith, Assistant Coach

Dusty Smith joined the Vanderbilt men's golf staff in the summer of 2011. Smith had previously served as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Lamar University for three seasons before his arrival in Nashville.

Smith is the Commodores' recruiting coordinator and is in charge of the annual Vanderbilt Golf Camp at Legends Club every summer and also spearheads Vanderbilt's golf fundraiser, Vanderbilt Golf Day, every spring.

Smith has coached three All-Americans at Vanderbilt, including first-team All-American and 2015 SEC Player of the Year Hunter Stewart, and helped head coach Scott Limbaugh lead the Commodores to unparalleled heights as a program. Vanderbilt was ranked as the fifth-best team in the nation heading into the 2015 NCAA Championship, where the Commodores finished second in stroke play and tied for fifth in match play. It was Vanderbilt's best-ever finish at the championship and its first foray with match play, which pits the top eight teams from the four-round stroke-play competition.

Smith, a former Ping All-American, served as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Lamar, his alma mater.

During Smith's three years at Lamar, the Cardinals men's team won the 2009 Southland Conference Championship and finished second in 2011, advancing to the NCAA Regional at Virginia Tech in May. Smith helped lead eight men's golfers to the All-Southland Conference team during his tenure, and also coached Southland Conference Player of the Year M.J. Daffue in 2011.

The Lady Cardinals picked up six tournament victories in his tenure at Lamar, and finished second in the 2011 Southland Conference Tournament. Five Lady Cardinal golfers earned All-SLC honors, with Therese Nilsson (2009) and Stine Pedersen (2011) being named the SLC Academic Student-Athlete of the Year for women's golf.

"I'm very excited and this is a great opportunity for me," said Smith. "It was hard to leave my alma mater, and Lamar is, and will always be, a very special place to me. But, to get an opportunity to coach at an outstanding institution like Vanderbilt and in a great conference like the SEC was too good for me to pass up."

A native of The Woodlands, Smith earned honorable mention Ping All-America honors as a junior at Lamar after tying for 10th at the NCAA Championships. The following year, Smith earned All-Southland Conference honors for the third time as Lamar finished third at the NCAA Championships.

Smith, who helped The Woodlands High School win the 2002 Class 5A state championship, is a 2007 graduate of Lamar with a degree in business administration.
