PRACTICE like a CHAMPION

James Franklin: 'Why Not Vanderbilt'

"We have very high standards and goals at Vanderbilt. We also have expectations of who we can be and what we can accomplish. We are not going to allow anyone to tell us any different!

"Instead of others asking why, I want to ask, "Why not. Why not Vanderbilt?" This university has everything in place to succeed: a great city, one of finest academic institutions in the nation and the greatest football conference. My message is the time is now."

Players' Quotes:

Chris Marve
Sr., linebacker

"As a team, we're grown a lot closer, no question. We've become a lot more like a family. There's just a lot more invested by everyone."

Colt Nichter
Jr., defensive tackle

"The whole mentality is different. We're all buying into the system. There's been a different level of focus and concentration."

Larry Smith
Sr., quarterback

"Everybody have gotten a lot closer. We're working harder than we've ever worked. Everybody is coming together as a team."

Wesley Johnson

Summer Workouts Prove Beneficial to Squad

Virtually the entire Commodore roster has been on campus this summer joining in the team's rigorous offseason conditioning.

For most of June, Director of Performance Enhancement Dwight Galt and his staff pushed nearly 90 team members through intense workouts. Even more players were participating in July workouts.

The players' response to the new staff and new methods has been rewarding to both Galt and Coach Franklin.

"I can't say enough about how the players have bought into Coach Galt's program. The results they are getting have been unbelievable. All the effort will be rewarded," Franklin said.

"I'm more than pleased. These young men have done everything that I've asked of them, and done it with great attitude. I'm seeing the results of what they are accomplishing and I think they're seeing it too," Galt said.

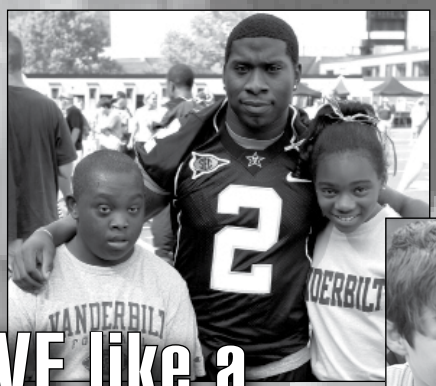

PLAY like a CHAMPION

Off the Field...

Vanderbilt Football will continue to emphasize academic excellence, and look to strengthen its recognition as a leader in classroom achievement.

Coach Franklin plans to broaden the team's reach within the Nashville community, hoping to participate in more outreach efforts on campus and in Middle Tennessee.

LIVE like a CHAMPION

ALL-STAR PROSPECTS

#13 Chris Marve

R-Sr., LB, Memphis, Tenn.

Named to watch lists for the Bednarik, Nagurski and Lott awards, Marve is a two-time All-SEC recipient. He enters the season as the league's active career leader with 306 total tackles. An excellent leader, Marve also has contributed seven forced fumbles in his career.

#21 Sean Richardson

Sr., Safety, Linden, Ala.

Richardson brings physicality and a nose for the football to Vanderbilt's defense at safety. Richardson ranks fourth among active SEC players with 193 career tackles. In 2010, he ranked second among SEC defensive backs with 98 total tackles. Richardson is also an excellent leader for the defense.

#67 Wesley Johnson

R-So., OT, Nashville, Tenn.

Johnson was named to the Coaches' Freshman All-SEC squad last year, impressing with his competitiveness and blocking abilities while playing as an undersized left tackle.

#74 T.J. Greenstone

R-Sr., DT, Lawrenceville, Ga.

A 2010 co-captain, Greenstone provides the Commodores with an athletic inside presence. Greenstone enters the season just one tackle shy of 100 for his career.

ALL-STAR PROSPECTS

#19 Casey Hayward
Sr., DB, Perry, Ga.

A preseason All-America and candidate for the Thorpe, Nagurski and Bednarik awards, Hayward ranked second in the SEC last year with six INTs and topped the league with 17 defensed passes.

#6 Brandon Barden
R-Sr., TE, Lincolnton, Ga.

A Mackey Award candidate, Brandon has more career receptions than any other SEC tight end. A second team All-SEC pick last year, Brandon enters his final season with 91 career catches, good for 991 yards and eight TDs.

#62 Ryan Seymour
R-Jr., OT, Kingsland, Ga.

#2 Zac Stacy
Jr., RB, Centreville, Ala.

For two years Stacy has played in the shadow of Vanderbilt's other junior back, Warren Norman. With nearly 1,000 career rushing yards, Stacy is on pace to become one of the team's all-time top rushers by the end of his career.

#5 Warren Norman
Jr., RB/RS, Stone Mtn., Ga.

The 2009 SEC Freshman of the Year topped the team with 459 rushing yards last year despite missing the last four games. He also averaged 25.4 yards as a kick returner.

Myron Lewis

ELEVEN COMMODORES ON ACTIVE NFL ROSTERS

Eleven former Vanderbilt standouts were on National Football League rosters at the conclusion of the 2010-11 season.

The list includes six former Commodores that ended the season as starters with their respective NFL teams: Earl Bennett, Jay Cutler, D.J. Moore and Chris Williams, all with Chicago; and Jonathan Goff of the New York Giants.

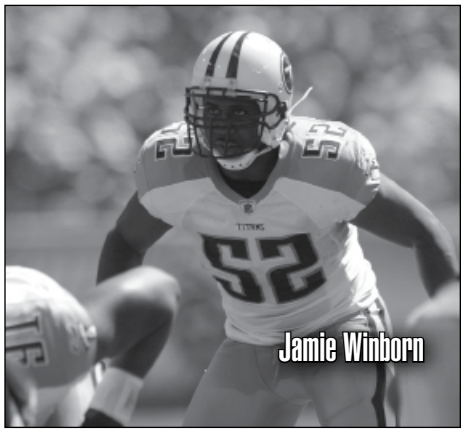

Several of the former Commodores put together career seasons last year. Goff earned 80 tackles in his first year as the Giants' starting middle linebacker. D.J. Moore blossomed in his second year as a big-play nickelback for the Bears' talented defense. Chicago teammate Earl Bennett set several career highs as a favorite receiving option for Bears quarterback and former Commodore standout Jay Cutler. Defensive back Myron Lewis impressed as a rookie in Tampa Bay, and witnessed his role increase with each week of the season.

'Dores on NFL Rosters

- Earl Bennett, WR, Chicago
- Jay Cutler, QB, Chicago
- Curtis Gatewood, LB, Arizona
- Jonathan Goff, LB, N.Y. Giants
- Jovan Haye, DT, Tennessee
- Reshard Langford, S, Kansas City
- Myron Lewis, DB, Tampa Bay
- D.J. Moore, DB, Chicago
- Thomas Welch, OT, Minnesota
- Chris Williams, OG, Chicago
- Jamie Winborn, LB, Tennessee

Jamie Winborn, a linebacker and special teams standout for the Tennessee Titans the last two years, just completed his 10th NFL season.

COMMODORES IN THE PROS

FOUR FORMER 'DORES START AS BEARS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

D.J. Moore Earl Bennett

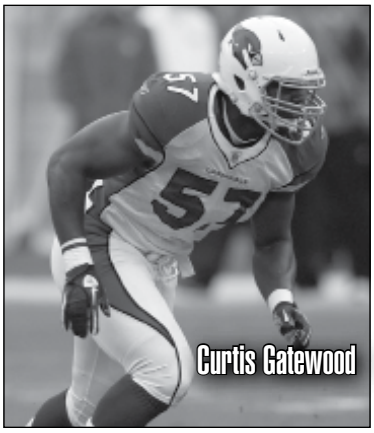

Four former Commodore standouts played key roles last year as the Chicago Bears advanced to their first NFC Championship Game in five years.

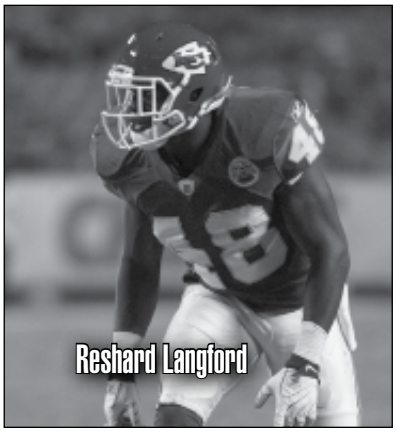

Jay Cutler threw for 3,274 yards and 23 touchdowns. His former Commodore target, wide receiver Earl Bennett, caught 46 passes.

Chris Williams, a first round pick of the Bears in 2008, protected Cutler as the starting left guard.

Former Commodore All-America D.J. Moore was a standout for the Bears in his first year as the starting nickelback. He contributed four interceptions and took his first fumble recovery 48 yards for a score.

Chris Williams Jay Cutler

Curtis Gatewood

THE BENEFIT OF PRO DAY

Safety Reshard Langford and defensive end/linebacker Curtis Gatewood are just two of many former Commodores who have benefited from impressive performances at Vanderbilt's annual Pro Day activities.

Professional scouts stage the Pro Day event on campus just weeks before the NFL Draft. It gives draft-eligible former Commodores a chance to showcase their skills to would-be NFL suitors through a series of agility tests and on-field drills.

Pro Day has helped numerous Commodores. Jay Cutler and Chris Williams solidified first-round grades with impressive workouts. Others like Langford and Gatewood eventually earned free agent deals with NFL clubs.

COMMODORE FOOTBALL: ACADEMIC LEADERS

The Vanderbilt football team continues to be an academic achievement leader in the Southeastern Conference and NCAA.

Vanderbilt topped the SEC in graduation success rates released in May 2011 by the NCAA. The program also ranked seventh nationally.

In 2008, the Commodore program received the American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award after graduating 95 percent of its 2001 recruiting class. It was the third time for Vanderbilt to claim the award.

SCENIC URBAN CAMPUS HOME TO UNIQUE EDUCATION

Located in the popular Midtown district of Nashville, Vanderbilt is regarded among the nation's finest universities. The private research university enrolled 6,970 undergraduate and 5,835 postgraduate students last year. Those students arrive on campus from all 50 states and nearly 100 countries.

The university was founded 138 years ago when shipping and rail magnate "Commodore" Cornelius Vanderbilt provided an initial $1 million endowment.

Vanderbilt is ranked among the top universities in America. In its popular annual "Best Colleges" edition, U.S. News & World Report most recently ranked Vanderbilt No. 17 among all national universities. The magazine also placed Vanderbilt No. 2 among schools located in the Southeast.

The campus is located 1.5 miles southwest of downtown Nashville on 330 pristine acres that was designated a national arboretum in 1988. Two focal areas of campus closed to vehicles – the Peabody campus and the collection of academic buildings surrounding Kirkland Hall that form the original campus – are frequently listed among the most beautiful college environments in the South.

Though located within walking distance of downtown activities, the quality of Vanderbilt life is reflected in much smaller, less public ways – running into friends while walking on campus, researching papers or grabbing a late-night snack with friends, choosing between a public policy lecture or athletic event, or having dinner at a professor's home.

Most Vanderbilt undergraduates live on campus during their time at the university. Thirty-four residential halls dot the campus, ranging from the four towers off West End Avenue to The Ingram Commons, a state-of-the-art complex for Vanderbilt's first-year students that has attracted national acclaim for its design and unique living experience.

Vanderbilt offers numerous degrees in four undergraduate colleges: the College of Arts and Science, Peabody College, School of Engineering and Blair School of Music.

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

It's a Fun City

Here's how one popular travel magazine rated Nashville:

- 1st No. 1 for affordable getaways
- 1st No. 1 for concert and live music venues
- 1st for affordable hotels
- 3rd list of America's friendliest cities
- 6th for safety

CITY OFFERS ARRAY OF ACTIVITIES

Vanderbilt's hometown of Nashville is a vibrant, engaging city known proudly as "Music City, U.S.A." Located little more than a mile from downtown, Vanderbilt students, faculty, staff and visitors frequently cite Nashville as one of the perks of the university.

From its scenic location along the Cumberland River, Nashville is a metropolitan place that proudly exudes all of the charm and hospitality one expects from a grand Southern capital city.

Boasting a metropolitan population of 1.5 million, Nashville enjoys a mild and pleasant climate with only a few days of the year having either very hot or very cold conditions. The majority of rain is confined to the spring months. The fall, with changing leaves at its peak and college football in the air, is a celebrated time throughout Tennessee.

Nashville's vibrancy stems from a diverse and youthful population, unique neighborhoods, abundance of parks and several distinct entertainment and business districts. The downtown blends state and municipal complexes with the popular Lower Broadway-Second Avenue entertainment district that draws tens of thousands of weekend visitors to an array of lively nightclubs, eateries and tourist attractions such as the Ryman Auditorium, Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, Bridgestone Arena, the Schermerhorn Symphony Center and Frist Center for the Visual Arts.

NASHVILLE: MUSIC FOR EVERYONE

Nashville is known worldwide for its rich musical heritage. It's also a city that offers an array of sporting attractions to rival any city its size in America.

Nashville wraps its arms around the music industry. And the stars definitely come out. This summer, U2 included the city on its tour. The band played before more than 48,000 fans packed into Vanderbilt Stadium over the July 4th weekend. Other artists such as Lil Wayne, Katy Perry, R. Kelly, Miley Cyrus and Bruce Springsteen jave thrilled Nashville audiences recently.

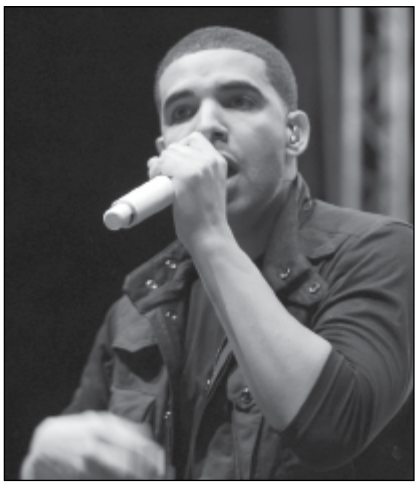

The biggest acts in country music, such as Taylor Swift, Keith Urban, Miranda Lambert, Tim McGraw and Faith Hill, and Lady Antebellum have staged recent shows in town.

In early June, Nashville residents can attend two massive musical events. The annual CMA Music Festival draws more than 50,000 fans to downtown for four days of concerts. As the city hosts the CMA Music Fest, Bonnaroo attracts nearly 100,000 spectators to a rural farm 90 minutes from the city.

Nashville is famous for its smaller music venues. The Ryman is a musical mecca for many artists. Several entertainment districts offer clubs tailored to varying musical tastes.

MUSIC CITY IS A SPORTS TOWN

NASHVILLE: SPORTS GALORE

Nashville is quickly becoming one of the nation's emerging cities as a sports host.

When it comes to sports, Nashville also appears bigger than its population.

Besides the full slate of Vanderbilt athletic events, Nashville is home to two successful professional teams: the NFL's Tennessee Titans and the NHL's Predators. Every Titans game features capacity crowds. The Predators have become Stanley Cup contenders and thoroughly entertain home crowds.

The downtown Bridgestone Arena ranks high among the nation's top multi-event venues. The arena serves as home to the Predators and as host to a wide array of other sporting and entertainment attractions. In the next two years, the 18,000-capacity venue will be the site the NCAA women's basketball Final Four, the SEC men's basketball tourney, and opening rounds of the NCAA men's basketball tourney.

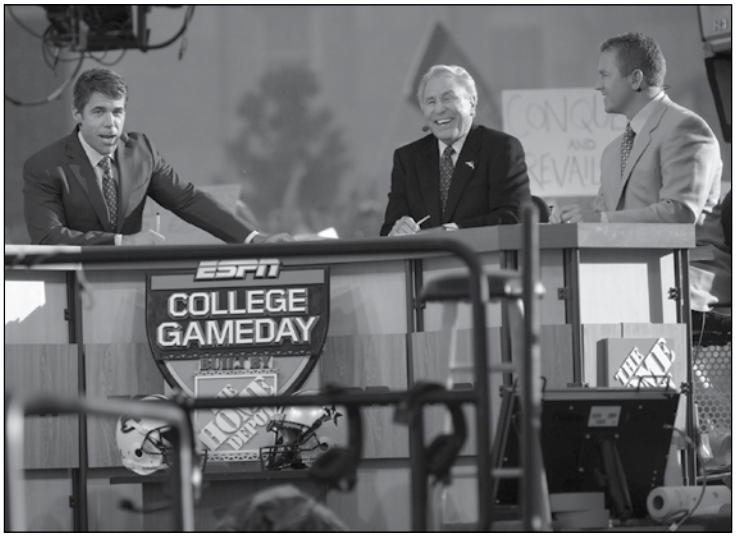

The city is also home to the Nashville Sounds, the Milwaukee Brewers' Triple-A baseball franchise.

Other sporting events featured on the region's calendar are Nationwide NASCAR races, steeplechase horse racing and the Music City Marathon.

THE SEC & MEDIA EXPOSURE

SEC FOOTBALL IS TV RATINGS HIT

On Oct. 4, 2008, Vanderbilt enjoyed one of its finest days of football. Sporting an undefeated record and facing a key home conference game with Auburn, ESPN's College GameDay aired live from the campus for the first time.

The broadcast and thrilling 14-13 Commodore victory before an ESPN primetime national television audience brought huge media attention to the university.

Vanderbilt Athletics, due in large part to the SEC's expansive television contract with ESPN and CBS, is drawing more and more media coverage.

Viewership and ratings on SEC games continued to expand in 2010. Six of the nation's ten most watched college games in 2010 were SEC pairings.

The highest ranked regular game was the finale between Alabama and Auburn. The highest ranked conference championship game was the Auburn-South Carolina clash in Atlanta. Three of the four largest audiences for bowls involved SEC teams.

THE SEC: WITHOUT PEER

Vanderbilt is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference. During the last five years, SEC football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and, perhaps, in college football history.

Remarkably, SEC teams have captured the last five BCS national championships.

How deep is the SEC quality? Those five consecutive national titles have been captured by four different teams: Alabama, Florida, LSU and Auburn

Since the BCS was created in 1998, the SEC has captured seven national titles, five more than any other league.

SEC teams are 7-0 in BCS national title games, and 8-2 in BCS bowl games since 2006.

The conference has also claimed five consecutive Associated Press national titles. This is the first time any league has accomplished the feat in the 75-year history of the AP poll.

Since 2006, the SEC is 30-16 in bowl games (.652). This includes Vanderbilt's win over Boston College in the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

The SEC had 38 players selected in the 2011 NFL draft, more than any other league. More former SEC players were on 2010 NFL rosters than any other conference.

Eight SEC players were selected in the first round of the 2011 draft, including the overall first pick and five players taken in the first six selection.

Three of the last four Heisman Trophy winners have come from schools in the Southeastern Conference.

THE SEC: SECOND TO NONE

TEAM OUTLOOK

p Vanderbilt football enters a new era this fall. When James Franklin took the helm in December, he promised to guide the Commodore football team to championship level competitor. This season, Franklin will lay the foundation for a great college football turnaround story.

"It's time that the football team reflects Vanderbilt University's commitment to excellence," the Commodore head coach said when he landed in Nashville for the announcement of his hiring.

Franklin's arrival generated excitement that has only swelled in advance of the team's home opener. On February 2, Franklin further stoked the community's enthusiasm for Vanderbilt football when he unveiled an impressive recruiting class that included 21 signees from 13 states. Many highly rated high school athletes jumped at the chance to play Franklin's brand of up tempo, high energy football.

During spring ball, Franklin worked with the team to install new systems on offense, defense and special teams, but also to establish what he calls a "championship mentality." Through a rigorous spring practice season, Franklin declined to create a depth chart. "We want to create as competitive an environment as possible. We want players to be fighting for their job," Franklin said in advance of the spring game.

Despite returning 21 starters from a year ago, Franklin has emphasized that players will need to work hard through preseason drills to claim their spot on the starting lineup.

Franklin and his players look forward to restoring energy to Vanderbilt Stadium when they take the field and jump start a tradition of excellence in football.

QUARTERBACK The quarterback position will undoubtedly invite the most speculation, conversation and scrutiny as the Elon opener approaches. Higher completion percentages and eliminating miscues will be a focus for this position. Five players will be fighting to take the snaps for the Dores this season: two-year starter Larry Smith, junior Jordan Rodgers, and freshman signees Josh Grady, Kris Kentera and Lafonte Thourogood.

Quarterback Larry Smith

Franklin noted that Smith "has all the tools you look for in a quarterback. He's physical and has an NFL arm. He also picks up concepts quickly and understands coverages." Smith showed across-the-board improvement during spring drills, throwing with more accuracy and confidence during the Black and Gold Spring Game. Rodgers, younger brother of 2011 Super Bowl MVP Aaron Rodgers, struggled with injuries during his first year on campus, but is expected to be healthy for camp in August.

The coaching staff will also closely monitor the preseason progress of the three quarterbacks signed in February.

Junior running backs Zac Stacy and Warren Norman celebrate a score

RUNNING BACKS The ground game will feature improved depth as a trio of returning juniors and a redshirt sophomore bring experience to the backfield. Warren Norman and Zac Stacy are on pace to enter the team's all-time Top 10 for rushing yards. In 2010, Norman and Stacy rushed for 459 and 331 yards, respectively. Both averaged over five yards per carry last year and bring speed, power, and big-play potential to the rushing attack. Wesley Tate impressed the new coaching staff during spring drills and brings greater size and power to the run game. Junior Micah Powell transitioned from linebacker and made great improvement during spring practice.

WIDE RECEIVERS Despite a campaign in 2010 plagued by youth and inexperience, the receiving corps will enter camp with improved confidence and experience.

Receiver Jordan Matthews

Receiver Jonathan Krause

receptions in 2009, but finished 2010 with only 25 catches. Redshirt senior Udom Umoh also had fewer receptions in 2010 than in 2009. Both finished spring drills poised for a rebound in 2011. Sophomores Jonathan Krause and Jordan Matthews ended 2010 as the teams' top receiving threats and capped spring ball with big catches in the Black and Gold Game. Several others will push for playing time during camp, including junior Jameson Sackey, redshirt junior Akeem Dunham, redshirt sophomore Brady Brown, redshirt freshman Chris Boyd, redshirt freshman Trent Pruitt and freshman signee Jacquese Kirk.

TIGHT ENDS Senior veteran Brandon Barden leads all SEC tight ends with 91 career receptions, earned all-conference honors in 2010 and should easily surpass the 1,000-yard mark for career receiving yards this season.

The Commodores will support Braden by improving depth at the position with the return of junior Austin Monahan and sophomore Mason Johnston. Both Monahan and Johnston missed time in 2010 due to injuries. Freshman signees Steven Scheu and Dillon van der Wal will also have an opportunity to to impact the position. Versatile sophomore Fitz Lassing will help out at tight end and fullback.

OFFENSIVE LINE In 2010, the Commodores replaced all five starters on the offensive line. This year, all five players will return looking to develop into a cohesive protective unit.

The line is anchored by a pair of talented tackles in redshirt junior Ryan Seymour and redshirt sophomore Wesley Johnson. Both come with experience and determination. The duo played virtually every snap last year and have committed to a rigorous strength and conditioning program. Seymour added speed by dropping 15 pounds, while Johnson gained strength and bulk. Redshirt freshmen Andrew Bridges and Chase White will provide depth at the tackle position.

At guard, redshirt senior Kyle Fischer and redshirt junior Jabo Burrow return and are expected to be on the field for the Commodores' first snap against Elon. Fischer has developed as a leader of the offensive line. Redshirt junior Caleb Welchans, sophomore Mylon Brown, and redshirt freshman Grant Ramsey are expected to compete at the guard position.

Sophomore Logan Stewart was a six-game starter at center in 2010. He enters preseason camp as the only snapper with in-game experience. Johnson, Seymour, Fischer, Welchans and Stewart have the versatility to play multiple line positions.

The Commodores will be aided by five newly signed line prospects: Jake Bernstein, James Lewis, Spencer Pulley, Joe Townsend, and Jose Valedon.

TEAM OUTLOOK

DEFENSIVE LINE The Commodores defense enters the 2011 season poised for an aggressive battle at the line of scrimmage. The defensive front returns most of the key 2010 contributors and adds a number of key prospects.

Redshirt junior Rob Lohr started every game as tackle last yea, ending the season with four sacks and eight tackles for a loss. Redshirt senior T.J. Greenstone battled injuries for most of 2010 and will likely play alongside Lohr at tackle.

Junior Colt Nichter, redshirt junior Josh Jelesky, sophomore Jared Morse, and redshirt junior Taylor Loftley return for the 2011 campaign on the heels of a successful spring. Nichter turned heads during the Black and Gold game with a pair of sacks and two pass deflections. Morse gained experience as a true freshman last year with appearances in seven games. Jelesky and Loftley also contributed in reserve roles in 2010.

Redshirt senior Tim Fugger leads the Commodore defensive ends. The two-year starter paced the SEC with four forced fumbles as a junior.

During spring drills redshirt freshman Kyle Woestmann registered one big play after another during the Black and Gold game and will compete with redshirt sophomore Walker May and redshirt junior Johnell Thomas for a starting job across from Fugger. Redshirt junior Dexter Daniels moved to defensive end in the spring and will compete for playing time.

Defensive end Tim Fugger

Marve is the first SEC linebacker to register over 100 tackles as a freshman and sophomore in a decade. Marve battled injuries as a junior but still finished with 80 tackles. Marve's accolades include a second straight second team All-SEC honor in 2010 and also a preseason all-league pick for 2011. He's been named to watch lists for several individual awards, including the Lott IMPACT, Nagurski and Bednarik trophies. Redshirt junior DeAndre Jones also will compete for time at the position.

At the outside linebacker positions, several returnees will compete for the starting roles, including redshirt juniors Archibald Barnes and Tristan Strong and sophomore Chase Garnham. Also expected to challenge for playing time are redshirt junior Al Owens and senior walk-on Bobby Jewell.

Jimmy Stewart and Darien Bryant are talented signees that could play either linebacker or end.

A preseason candidate for the Thorpe and Nagurski defensive awards, Hayward earned second team all-SEC honors in 2010 after topping the league with 17 deflections. He also ranked among the NCAA leaders with six interceptions.

On the opposite side, junior Eddie Foster started in 11 games in 2010, posted 53 tackles, and returned an interception for a touchdown against Ole Miss. Junior Trey Wilson stepped up during spring drills, showcasing his speed and impressive coverage ability.

Sophomores Steven Clark and Andre Hal played in every game last year and should continue to develop and compete for key roles.

SAFETIES Senior free safety Sean Richardson returns to lead the talented and deep group of safeties. Richardson was Vanderbilt's lead tackler in 2010 garnering 67 solo tackles and 98 total stops.

Sophomore Kenny Ladler started the final eight games at free safety and earned freshman All-SEC recognition from league coaches. He is expected to fill the role beside Richardson in the defensive backfield.

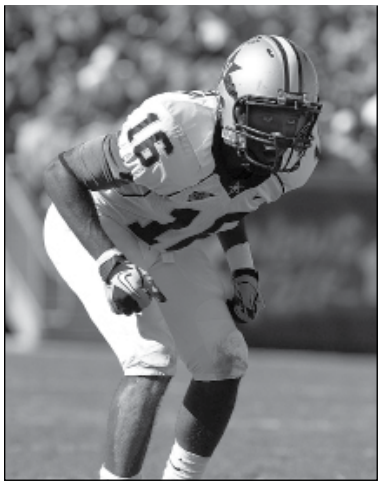

Several talented players will keep Richardson and Ladler fresh in supporting roles. Redshirt junior Eric Samuels posted 27 tackles in 2010 after moving to the defense from running back. Redshirt sophomore Javon Marshall moved to safety from cornerback during spring drills.

New signees Larry Franklin, Jahmel McIntosh and Andrew Williamson will get in on the action in 2011 as well.

Ryan Fowler	PK	Jr.	2L
Richard Kent	P	Jr.	1L
Carey Spear	PK	So	1L

PLACEKICKER Redshirt junior Ryan Fowler and sophomore Carey Spear are expected to compete for placekicking duties. As a two-year starter, Fowler has made 70 percent of his career field goal attempts, but hit just eight of 13 tries last year. Fowler looks to return to his 2009 form when he earned freshman All-SEC and freshman All-America recognition. Spear impressed coaches during spring drills with a powerful leg and improved accuracy. Walk-on junior Eric Frieman provides depth at the position.

PUNTER Junior Richard Kent performed admirably as a first-time punter in 2010, averaging 41.8 yards on a team-record 84 attempts. Kent's superb hang time allowed opponents to only average just 6.8 yards per return. Kent was also accurate, dropping 28 punts inside the opponent's end zone. Either Fowler and Spear are expected to serve as the second team punter.

RETURN SPECIALISTS The Commodores return an All-America candidate in kickoff returner Warren Norman. The junior has a 25.9-yard career average, and three returns for touchdowns. Other potential kickoff returners with collegiate experience are Trey Wilson, Eric Samuels and Andre Hal.

Zac Stacy, Jonathan Krause and John Cole have experience as punt returners. Cole topped the Commodores in 2010 with a 7.9-yard return average.

Named as the 27th head coach to guide the Commodores on Dec. 17, 2010, Franklin immediately began changing expectations within the program and inspiring a championship mentality with the entire Vanderbilt Football community. But, Franklin brings more than a positive outlook. Franklin's passion for the game, energetic coaching style, nationally-recognized recruiting prowess, and experience in developing highly productive offensive schemes will help fuel what Franklin believes will be one of the greatest turnarounds in college football.

Franklin's message is gaining momentum and producing results. On National Signing Day, Franklin announced a 21-player class that recruiting experts lauded as Vanderbilt's best in decades. Rivals.com has recognized Franklin as among the nation's top 25 recruiters. When spring practices began, Franklin motivated top effort and fostered the team's competitive spirit by working without a depth chart through the duration of the session. In April, an impressive audience watched a preview of the Commodores' new brand of football at the Black and Gold Spring Game. Franklin's enthusiasm is contagious and has energized the Vanderbilt fan base in anticipation of the home opener.

Franklin spent the last five seasons coordinating highly productive offensive units at top Division I programs. Most recently, Franklin served as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at the University of Maryland. In 2010, Maryland enjoyed an impressive one-year turnaround and contended for the Atlantic Coast Conference crown during their 9-4 campaign. Franklin's explosive offensive averaged 32.2 points and topped 50 points in three games. Disciplined and patient, the unit committed just 14 total turnovers as the Terps ranked fourth nationally in turnover margin.

Maryland redshirt freshman quarterback Danny O'Brien finished the season as one of the nation's most efficient signal callers, throwing for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns, and only eight interceptions after earning the starting job in the fourth game of the season. O'Brien earned ACC Rookie of the Year honors. Terrapin senior receiver Torrey Smith flourished under Franklin's system, finishing the year with 67 receptions, 1,055 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns en route to first team All-ACC honors. Smith was a second round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft.

In 2008, Franklin mentored six All-ACC offensive performers in his return to Maryland as offensive coordinator including 2009 first-round NFL draft pick, receiver Darius Heyward-Bey.

Franklin displayed his recruiting skill at Maryland, helping the Terrapins sign ten four-star recruits in the 2009 and 2010 classes.

Franklin's first experience as offensive coordinator produced similarly successful results. Franklin came to Maryland after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons as offensive coordinator at Kansas State University. He helped the Wildcats earn their first winning season in four years and a berth in the inaugural Texas

Bowl. In 2006, Franklin focused on mentoring talented true freshman quarterback Josh Freeman. In 2007, Franklin's offense produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-America wide receiver Jordy Nelson), and 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.

Today, Freeman and Nelson have found great success in the NFL. Freeman is the starting quarterback for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after being selected in the first round of the 2009 NFL Draft. Nelson grabbed a touchdown pass in the Green Bay Packers' victory in Super Bowl XLV.

Franklin spent the 2005 season coaching wide receivers for the Green Bay Packers under current Texas A&M coach Mike Sherman. During that season, wide receiver Donald Driver set new career-high marks with 86 receptions for 1,221.

"I noticed early on that he always saw the big picture. He didn't just coach his players on the field, but saw the need for them to be accountable off the field as well," Sherman said of his former assistant.

After his brief but successful NFL tenure, Franklin returned to college coaching for the opportunity to devise offensive schemes and gain in-game play calling experience at the coordinator level.

Franklin's opportunity with the most-storied team in the NFL came on the heels of a five-year role coaching wide receivers at the University of Maryland. During his tenure, the Terps earned three post-season berths including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. Franklin's role expanded to recruiting coordinator in 2003. Franklin delivered back-to back recruiting classes ranked in the Top-25 by Rivals.com.

Early in his career, Franklin committed himself to being a student of the game: gleaning strategies, tools and tips from great coaches at a variety of competitive levels. Franklin began his career in 1995 as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown (Pa.) University. Then, he returned to his alma mater, East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University learning the game from the defensive side of the ball coaching cornerbacks and safeties under veteran coach Denny Douds. Franklin earned a Division I position at James Madison University coaching wide receivers under head coach, Alex Wood.

In 1998, Franklin earned the opportunity to participate in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program. Franklin interned with the Minnesota Vikings, the Philadelphia Eagles and the Miami Dolphins. Franklin also worked with Mike Price coaching tight ends at Washington State in 1998. The following year, Franklin helped Idaho State rank among the NCAA's best in total offense as ISU's receivers coach.

Franklin developed a passion for the game as a four-year letter winning quarterback at East Stroudsburg. Franklin was a two-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference selection. As a senior, he garnered MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill Trophy nominee for Division II Player of the Year after setting seven school records, including single-season marks for total offense (3,128 yards), passing yards (2,568 yards) and touchdown passes (19).

Franklin earned a Bachelor's degree in psychology from East Stroudsburg in 1995 and a Master's degree in educational leadership from Washington State in 1999.

Franklin and his family have become fast fans of Nashville. He and his wife, Fumi, have two daughters, Addy, 4, and Shola, 3.

QUOTES ON COACH FRANKLIN

Raheem Morris

Mike Sherman

Jordy Nelson

"The hiring of Coach Franklin represents a new day for Vanderbilt football. He has my full support and commitment that we will help him create an environment where the successes on the field equal the university's extraordinary successes off the field. Coach Franklin will have an immediate and positive impact on our students, alumni, faculty, staff and broader Vanderbilt community, and I welcome him to Vanderbilt."

Nicholas Zeppos, Vanderbilt University Chancellor

"Coach Franklin is a first class coach, and a perfect fit for a university like Vanderbilt. He's a tremendous motivator of men, and inspires character in each of his players.

"Coach Franklin works really hard to be the best that he can be as a coach, and has the toughness to build up a program in the SEC. He will be a great representative of Vanderbilt University."

Raheem Morris, Tampa Bay Bucs Head Coach

"James Franklin worked for me in Green Bay. I noticed early on that he always saw the big picture. He didn't just coach his players on the field, but saw the need for them to be accountable off the field as well. He took an interest in every aspect of their lives and coached not just the player, but the person.

"Coach Franklin is a great hire. He will fall in line with the (Vanderbilt) value system as to what they expect from their athletes in all areas, as well as being totally committed to winning football games. I have no doubt he will have great success in Nashville."

Mike Sherman, Texas A&M Head Coach

"Coach Franklin has a lot of energy, a lot of passion for the game, and obviously knew what he was doing. He cared about his players and was a great family guy. Coach was intense, but yet had fun and like I said, he had his passion for the game, his love for the game and a love for his players, and he cares about his players like family. I know he'll do a great job and I think Vanderbilt will be very pleased with the guy they got."

Jordy Nelson, Green Bay WR; former Kansas State WR

"Coach has meant so much to me, both on and off the field. One of the best things that ever happened to me was getting to work with Coach Franklin."

"I was very raw, and needed development in really every area. Coach taught me proper footwork, how to better understand pass routes and schemes, just how to play the position. Truly, to this day, my fundamental foundation as a quarterback came from the time with him."

Josh Freeman, Tampa Bay QB; former Kansas State QB

COACHING EXPERIENCE:

2008-10 Maryland (assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
On December 23, 2007, Ralph Friedgen sways Franklin back to Maryland as the Terps' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. In February 2009, Freidgen designates Franklin as his successor at Maryland... The Terrapins go 9-4 overall in 2010, finishing second in the ACC's Atlantic Division and winning the Military Bowl... Quarterback Danny O'Brien earns ACC Rookie of the Year and Freshman All-America honors under Franklin's mentorship, ranking third nationally among freshmen in pass efficiency rating... O'Brien throws for 22 touchdowns against only eight picks after becoming the team's starter in Week Four... Franklin's 2010 offense ranks among the nation's best in limiting turnovers... Torrey Smith also flourishes in 2010, catching 67 passes for 1,055 yards to earn first-team All-ACC honors... For the fourth time in his career, Franklin also is honored as a Top 25 recruiter by Rivals.com for helping to secure a class that included a number of four-star athletes... In 2008, the Terps defeat four ranked teams en route to a win in the Humanitarian Bowl to cap an 8-5 record. Terp WR Darrius Heyward-Bey becomes No. 9 overall pick of the 2009 NFL Draft.

2006-07 Kansas State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
As K-State's offensive coordinator, Franklin helps the Wildcats to a 7-6 record in 2006, including a 45-42 win over No. 4 Texas. Kansas State also plays in the Texas Bowl, its first postseason appearance in three years... In 2007, under Franklin's guidance, K-State offense becomes first in team history to feature a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher in the same season.... QB Josh Freeman (eventual 2009 first-round pick of Tampa Bay) sets numerous school records, including 3,353 passing yards... WR Jordy Nelson becomes an All-America player by catching 122 passes, and is a high draft pick of the Packers... In 2011, he starts on Green Bay's world champion squad.

2000-04 Maryland (wide receivers/recruiting coordinator)
Franklin helps Maryland to three consecutive bowl appearances starting with the 2001 squad...Maryland also achieves three straight seasons of 10 wins or more (2001-03), including appearance in 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl...Terps followed Orange Bowl berth with 30-3 victory over Tennessee in 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and 41-7 win over West Virginia in 2003 Toyota Gator Bowl... Promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2003, Franklin delivers back-to-back recruiting classes that were ranked among the nation's Top 25.

1999 Idaho State (wide receivers)

1997 James Madison (wide receivers)

1996 East Stroudsburg (defensive backs)
Franklin returns to his alma mater, Division II East Stroudsburg.

NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Program
Franklin participates in the program in 1998, serving an internship with Miami. He also enjoyed stints with Philadelphia in 1999 and Minnesota in 2008.

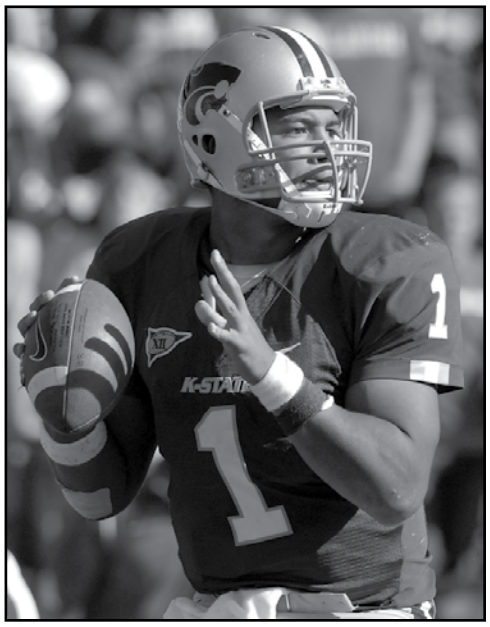

FRANKLIN: Noted QB Mentor

By hiring James Franklin as its head coach, Vanderbilt has one of the nation's top quarterback mentors guiding its program.

And Franklin believes the Commodores will succeed in developing future stars at the quarterback position.

"Maximizing the talents of our quarterbacks and doing a great job mentoring that position is critically important to the overall success of our team," Franklin said. "It is a priority with this coaching staff."

Kansas State all-time passing leader and 2009 first round draft pick Josh Freeman

Indeed, the new Commodore coach knows what it takes to become a top quarterback. An elite signal caller at the Division II level during his playing days, Franklin has surrounded himself with great quarterbacks since getting into the coaching ranks in the mid-1990s. His resume includes time with National Football League legends, a current pro starter in Tampa Bay's Josh Freeman, and others who have achieved individual and team successes.

"Coach (Franklin) has meant so much to me, both on and off the field," Freeman said. "One of the best things that ever happened to me was getting to work with Coach Franklin."

In three short years at Kansas State, Freeman evolved from a strong-armed prospect to the No. 17 overall NFL draft pick in 2009. In his last year paired with Franklin, Freeman emerged for the Wildcats, throwing for a team-record 3,353 yards along with 18 touchdowns.

Franklin's most recent pupil, Maryland's Danny O'Brien, blossomed as a redshirt freshman in 2010. Inserted into the Terrapins' starting lineup in the fourth game, O'Brien went on to garner Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Year honors after throwing for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and just eight interceptions.

O'Brien, also named as a first-team freshman All-American, was recruited by Franklin and swayed by the coach's knowledge of the quarterback position, competitive drive and enthusiasm.

Franklin pupil Danny O'Brien of Maryland was the ACC's Rookie of the Year and a Freshman All-American in 2010

"Coach was a big factor in my decision (to attend Maryland)," O'Brien said. "We have similar passion for the game and I thought he was the coach to mold me into the player I thought I could be."

Under Franklin's watch, O'Brien spent a year improving his mechanics, learning to break down film and getting a solid grasp of the offensive scheme. Then, when given the offensive reins last fall, O'Brien never looked back.

"Coach truly knows the position, and really taught me how to be a college quarterback and what it meant to have that role. Everything from watching film the proper way and leading our team to how I should carry myself, on and off the field," O'Brien said.

O'Brien's rise at Maryland mirrored that of Freeman at Kansas State.

"I was very raw, and needed development in really every area," Freeman said. "Coach taught me proper footwork, how to better understand pass routes and schemes, just how to play the position. Truly, to this day, my fundamental foundation as a quarterback came from the time with him."

Franklin mentored Freeman after spending the 2005 season at Green Bay coaching wide receivers. The Packer quarterback was none other than NFL all-time leading passer Brett Favre. Years earlier, through the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, Franklin also spent extended time with another passing legend, Miami hall of famer Dan Marino.

"I've enjoyed some unique coaching experiences, especially at the quarterback position, and learned from each opportunity," Franklin said. "Watching how Brett Favre went about his business and how he treated his profession helped me coach and prepare Josh at Kansas State. I was better prepared to help Danny (O'Brien) after working with Josh, and I'll be even more prepared to develop Commodore quarterbacks after working with Danny."

Franklin and his offensive staff will mentor a quarterback corps that includes senior Larry Smith and redshirt junior Jordan Rodgers. Three quarterback signees in the 2011 class will expand the roster this summer.

JAMES FRANKLIN

FRANKLIN INTRODUCED IN NASHVILLE ★ Dec. 17, 2010

James Franklin is introduced as Vanderbilt's 27th head football coach by Chancellor Nicholas Zeppos and Vice Chancellor for University Affairs and Athletics David Williams in a press conference held in the Board of Trust Room at Sarratt Student Center. At 39, the former assistant head coach/offensive coordinator at Maryland becomes the youngest Commodore head coach in nearly two decades.

FRANKLIN: "It's time that this football program starts reflecting everything else on this campus, and that's a commitment to excellence. I'm not a six-and-five guy, and I'm not a seven-and-five guy. There's going to be high expectations from day one. There is no part of this program that will settle. Everything we do will be about championships."

FRANKLIN ANNOUNCES OFFENSIVE STAFF ★ Jan. 13, 2011

The head coach announces the hirings of his offensive coaches, including new coordinator John Donovan, and Dwight Galt, the man who will guide the Commodores' conditioning program. He also names key administrators in the football office.

FRANKLIN: "We're really laying the foundation right now with the offensive staff, the administrative staff, the strength coach, to put together what my focus is on, which is to build the best staff in the country. When I say that, I'm talking about people that are passionate about being at Vanderbilt."

FRANKLIN INTRODUCED AT BASKETBALL GAME ★ Jan. 20, 2011

Franklin takes the floor during halftime of the men's basketball game against Ole Miss in Memorial Gymnasium, asking students and fans for their support for the football team in the coming months.

FRANKLIN: "We have a plan; we have a vision for what this program could be, but we can't do it alone. We need everybody's support. We need this community, we need this campus to come together and unite more than it ever has before."

FRANKLIN NAMES DEFENSIVE STAFF ★ Jan. 31, 2011

NATIONAL SIGNING DAY ★ Feb. 2, 2011

Fueled by a strong finish to recruiting, Franklin lands 21 signees coming from 13 states. The class, which includes a pair of 4-star prospects, is touted as Vanderbilt's most talented class in years.

FRANKLIN TO AUDIENCE OF FANS: "Basically, this staff was not going to take 'no' for an answer. We told every recruit that. We would go into their homes and tell them reasons they should come and tell their family. In the end, we would look them in the eye and tell them we weren't taking 'no' for an answer and they were coming to Vanderbilt."

FRANKLIN STAGES STUDENT TRYOUTS ★ Feb. 15, 2011

After visiting dorms and fraternity row, Franklin personally conducts tryouts for the Vanderbilt student body to make the team's spring roster. Seventeen students participated in the tryouts. Eventually, six students would join the team for spring drills.

FRANKLIN TO CANDIDATES: "As hard as you think this is going to be, it's going to be 10 times harder. I need you to say no matter how hard this is going to be, I want to be a part of this team."

FRANKLIN GUIDES SPRING DRILLS ★ March 18, 2011

Franklin oversees his first spring practice as head coach at the John Rich Practice Facility on campus. During the ensuing 14 practices, Franklin puts his stamp on the Commodore program: upbeat, energetic, disciplined, physical and positive.

FRANKLIN: "The energy is contagious. They know we're going to put them in position to be successful. We're going to push them extremely hard, but in a positive manner, and we're going to have fun doing it. I think the players are embracing what we're doing and have bought in."

THOUSANDS ATTEND SPRING GAME ★ April 17, 2011

The 'Dores conclude a month of drills with the Black and Gold Spring Game in Vanderbilt Stadium. The Black Team comes away with a 19-7 victory in front of a large and enthusiastic crowd. It marks the first spring intrasquad game on campus in more than 10 years. A fireworks display caps the spring finale.

FRANKLIN: "First of all, I haven't been here very long, as you guys know, but I was very pleased with the whole organization of everything. The weather – we planned that perfectly. The autograph session was very well attended. I got to interact with a lot of fans. We stayed healthy today. We had great fan support."

JOHN DONOVAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR; RUNNING BACKS

Offensive coordinator John Donovan came with James Franklin from the University of Maryland, where he helped develop some of the most explosive offenses in school history.

Franklin and Donovan were key offensive assistants under Ralph Friedgen at Maryland – Franklin serving as coordinator and Donovan working with running backs. After Franklin accepted the Vanderbilt post in December, Donovan called offensive plays during the Terrapins' impressive 51-20 Military Bowl victory. The resounding postseason win gave Maryland a 9-4 overall record – and ownership of one of the year's most successful college football turnarounds.

The 2010 Terrapins featured a powerful offensive attack that ranked second in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense with a 32.2-point average. The unit was also efficient with just 14 turnovers, allowing Maryland to rank No. 6 nationally in turnover margin.

Donovan's two top running backs in 2010, Davin Meggett and Da'Rel Scott, each topped 700 rushing yards.

The 2010 campaign was Donovan's fourth at Maryland working with running backs. In 2008, Scott enjoyed a breakout campaign with 1,133 rushing yards. It was the seventh highest single-season total in school history and helped Scott earn first team All-ACC honors.

Scott, selected by the New York Giants in the 2011 NFL Draft, also earned two Most Valuable Player awards after postseason Terrapin victories: following the overwhelming Military Bowl triumph over East Carolina in 2010 and following a Humanitarian Bowl win over Nevada in 2008.

Donovan mentored Maryland's quarterbacks in the 2006 and 2007 campaigns. In 2006, Donovan coached All-ACC quarterback Sam Hollenbach to his finest year as he threw for 2,371 yards and 15 touchdowns, and was named MVP of Maryland's Champs Sports Bowl victory over Purdue. In 2007, Chris Turner threw for nearly 2,000 yards in eight starts, finishing third in the ACC in passing efficiency, and helped the Terps knock off two Top 10 opponents.

Prior to taking over as running backs coach in 2005, Donovan served as Maryland's assistant recruiting coordinator under Friedgen, who hired Donovan as an offensive graduate assistant from 1998-2000 at Georgia Tech. Donovan also worked as an assistant secondary coach at Villanova in 1997, helping the Wildcats to a 12-1 mark.

A 1997 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Donovan was a three-year starter at defensive back for the Blue Jays, earning 12 career interceptions.

Donovan earned a Bachelor's in Sociology from Johns Hopkins in 1997. He later earned a Master's in Economics from Georgia Tech.

Donovan and his wife, Stacey, are the parents of a son, John Patrick, 5; and two daughters: Cate, 3, and Shea, 1.

BOB SHOOP

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR; SAFETIES

A 23-year veteran in the coaching ranks, Shoop comes to Nashville following a superb four-year tenure at William & Mary where the one-time Columbia head coach guided a remarkable transformation of the Tribe defense.

In 2010, W&M ranked among the top defenses in NCAA FCS football, limiting foes to just 16.7 points per game. In 2009, Shoop's defense helped the Tribe to an 11-3 campaign and an appearance in the FCS national semifinals.

NOTES: Shoop has been on the winning sideline of three classic college football rivalries: Army-Navy, Harvard-Yale and Boston College-Notre Dame.

The 2009 William & Mary defense was even better, ranking as one of the best in team history. It ended the year first nationally in rush defense (61.1 ypg) and second in both total defense (229.8 ypg) and scoring defense (12.1 ppg.).

Shoop's résumé spans two decades, including three stints as a defensive coordinator (Yale, 1994-96; Villanova, 1997; William & Mary, 2007-10) and three years as the head coach at Columbia (2003-05).

Prior to joining William & Mary, Shoop was at the University of Massachusetts, where he worked with the Minutemen's defensive backfield and helped the squad to an appearance in the NCAA Division I-AA championship game in 2006.

Prior to the season in Amherst, Shoop was head coach at Columbia. He produced 20 All-Ivy League selections during his tenure.

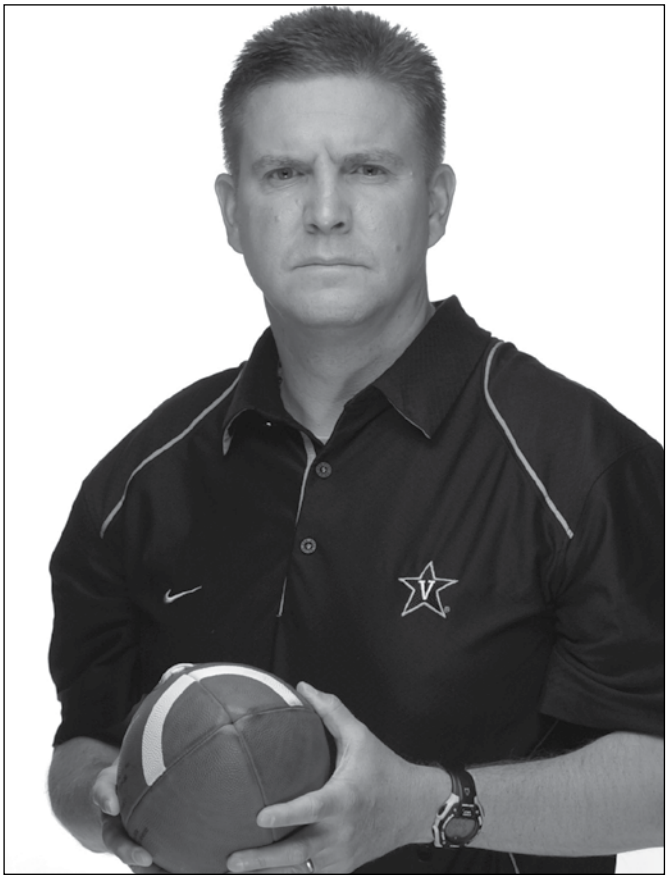

Before becoming Columbia's head coach, Shoop served as secondary coach at Boston College from 1999-2002. Shoop's units played a major role in the Eagles' success, helping Boston College to three bowl victories in his four years.

Shoop has Ivy League experience as an assistant coach at Yale (1989 and 1994-96) under legendary Hall of Fame coach Carmen Cozza. He also served stints as an assistant coach at Army (1998), Villanova, where he was defensive coordinator for the 12-1 1997 squad, and Northeastern (1991-93).

Shoop played collegiate football at Yale. He earned honorable mention All-Ivy accolades in 1987 as a receiver and was recognized with Yale Football's prestigious Robert Gardner Anderson Memorial Award for team spirit, dedication and leadership. He also earned four letters in baseball.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., Shoop was inducted into the Allegheny-Kiski Valley Sports Hall of Fame.

BRENT PRY

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR; LINEBACKERS

Pry joins the Commodore staff after one year at Georgia Southern where he helped guide the Eagles back to national prominence in the Division I FCS level as defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

Aided by Pry's stiff defensive unit, Georgia Southern advanced to the NCAA FCS national semifinals with a 10-5 overall record and also notched an important regular season victory over No. 1-ranked and multiple FCS national champion Appalachian State.

The defense under Pry contributed greatly to Georgia Southern's return to national prominence in 2010. The unit ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 18.5 points per game, and ninth in total defense, yielding just 286.9 yards per game.

NOTES: Coached in Sugar and Orange Bowls as graduate assistant at Va Tech. Coached Top Ten defenses at Georgia Southern and Western Carolina.

Pry joined Georgia Southern from the University of Memphis, where he served three years as the Tigers' defensive line coach.

At Memphis, he was part of a staff that guided the Tigers to two bowl games, and molded a defensive line in 2008 into one of the Conference USA's best.

From 2002-06, Pry served at Louisiana-Lafayette, holding positions of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. He coached the Ragin' Cajuns' linebackers for five years and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2004.

The 2005 Louisiana-Lafayette squad earned a Sun Belt Conference title and featured five players that eventually played in the NFL.

Pry was an assistant coach at Western Carolina from 1998-2001, mentoring the defensive line for two years, then secondary and special teams for two years. The 1998 WCU defense ranked ninth in the nation in total defense.

Pry also was a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech with the defensive line from 1995-98. The Hokies possessed one of the nation's top defenses in each of Pry's years on campus.

Pry began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University as an outside linebackers coach for the 1993 season. He then worked with defensive backs in 1994. During Pry's tenure, the East Stroudsburg offense was directed by a standout quarterback who currently serves as Vanderbilt's newest head coach.

A free safety at Maryville (Tenn.) College in 1988, Pry later transferred to the University of Buffalo, where he played under eventual NFL head coach Jim Haslett. Pry lettered in 1990, then suffered a career-ending injury in 1991, only to return as a student coach in 1992.

Pry is a second generation college football coach. His father, Jim, has coached at the college level for more than 30 years.

Pry and his wife, Amy, are the parents of a son, Colby, and two daughters, Madeline and Catherine.

CHARLES BANKINS

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR; TIGHT ENDS

Bankins served in both capacities for the last two years with Franklin at the University of Maryland. In 2010, Terrapin special teams played an instrumental part in one of the most impressive year-to-year turnarounds in the NCAA as Maryland improved seven games in the win column enroute to a 9-4 overall season. The Terps capped the season with an impressive victory in the Military Bowl and a Top 25 final ranking.

NOTES: Bankins has mentored quality special teams at the NFL, collegiate and high school levels. In 2010, Maryland punt returner Tony Logan averaged 18.8 yards, third in the NCAA.

Bankins, a graduate of James Madison University, has experience coaching offense, defense and special teams. He also has coached at three levels of football: the National Football League, collegiate and high school level.

In 2010, Bankins' demonstrated his special teams expertise by mentoring Maryland punt returner Tony Logan to first team All-ACC honors. Logan, who returned two punts for touchdowns, also topped the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 18.8-yard punt return average. That average also ranked third in the nation.

In 2009, another Bankins' standout at Maryland, Torrey Smith, earned All-ACC honors by breaking the conference single-season record for kickoff return yards that he established the previous year. Smith eventually became a second round pick of the Baltimore Ravens in the 2011 NFL Draft.

Bankins also groomed Nick Ferrara to freshman All-America honors as a placekicker in 2009. Ferrara converted on 18 of 25 field goals during the 2009 campaign.

Prior to working with Franklin at Maryland, Bankins enjoyed successes as an assistant under Mike London at the University of Richmond from 2007-08. In Bankins' final game as a Richmond coach, the Spiders claimed the 2008 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) national title with a victory over Montana.

Bankins oversaw Richmond's superb special teams in 2008 when the Spiders ranked 27th nationally in punt returns and 22nd in kickoff coverage. In 2007, one of Bankins' Richmond pupils, returner Justin Rogers, was named the conference's Special Teams Player of the Year after leading the league with a 30.4-yard kickoff return average.

A native of Leonardtown, Md., Bankins had two stints at Hampton University (2000-04; 2006) and spent 2005 with the St. Louis Rams. While serving as an assistant special teams coach in St. Louis, the Rams improved from 32nd to 17th in NFL special teams rankings.

He started coaching at his alma mater, Leonardtown H.S., in 1995.

Bankins played running back for James Madison, where he earned a bachelor's degree in speech communications in 1994. He earned a master's from Eastern Kentucky in 1998.

CHRIS BEATTY

OFFENSIVE RECRUITING COORDINATOR; WIDE RECEIVERS

Former West Virginia University offensive assistant Chris Beatty will mentor Vanderbilt wide receivers in 2011. Beatty also serves as the team's offensive recruiting coordinator.

For the last three years, Beatty served the Mountaineers in dual responsibilities as running backs/slot receivers coach and Director of Recruiting. During that span, Beatty played a key role in guiding West Virginia to three straight bowl appearances.

In 2010, Beatty helped West Virginia to a 9-4 overall record, a Big East Conference co-championship and an appearance in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando. In 2009, WVU finished with a 9-4 mark after facing Florida State in the Gator Bowl. In 2008, the Mountaineers were also 9-4 and capped the season with a 31-30 victory over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Beatty mentored two of the most productive offensive players in Mountaineer football history: running back Noel Devine and slot receiver/return specialist Jock Sanders.

Devine rushed for more than 3,600 yards under Beatty's guidance, twice earning All-Big East Conference honors. Devine concluded his Mountaineer career with more than 4,000 rushing yards, ranking fourth all-time in Big East history. Devine also finished as West Virginia's all-time leader in all-purpose yardage.

Sanders ranked as one of the Big East's most productive receivers, catching 195 passes with Beatty as his mentor. Sanders concluded his career as West Virginia's all-time leading receiver and second all-time in the Big East. He also posted a reception in 41 consecutive games.

Beatty joined West Virginia after mentoring Northern Illinois running backs in 2007. Beatty's top NIU pupil, sophomore Justin Anderson, rushed for 1,245 yards and eight touchdowns.

Beatty entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Hampton (Va.), helping the Pirates to the MEAC championship and appearance in the NCAA I-AA playoffs. He served the 2006 season as Hampton's offensive coordinator and quarterback/receivers coach.

Before joining the collegiate ranks, Beatty was a successful high school head coach. He directed Landstown H.S. in Virginia Beach to a 40-2 overall record and consecutive appearances in the Virginia 3A state title game. Beatty's 2004 squad captured the 3A state championship.

A native of Centreville, Va., Beatty was a standout wide receiver at East Tennessee State, leaving in 1994 as the Bucs' all-time leading receiver. An All-Southern Conference recipient as a senior, he played professionally for two Canadian Football League teams.

HERB HAND

OFFENSIVE LINE

Hand is the only coach from the 2010 Vanderbilt staff that continues to serve on the staff of first-year Commodore Head Coach James Franklin.

In 2010, Hand's offensive front at Vanderbilt lacked quantity and experience. Playing with less than 10 linemen for much of the season, Hand kept the unit together, getting the youthful corps to put together its best overall performances as the season came to a close.

NOTES: Hand has worked with some of the NCAA's most productive offenses. In 2007 and 2008, his offensive units at Tulsa were ranked No. 1 nationally, averaging more than 540 yards of total offense each season.

Prior to accepting the Vanderbilt offensive position, Hand worked three years at Tulsa, serving as an assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and line coach. Hand helped guide Tulsa to consecutive GMAC Bowl appearances behind one of the NCAA's most explosive spread offenses.

As Tulsa's co-offensive coordinator, Hand coached an offensive line that paved the way for the nation's top ranked offense in 2007 and 2008. He was also a finalist for national offensive line coach of the year in 2008.

Hand helped West Virginia to three Big East Conference championships and five straight postseason bowl games during the span, including a 36-35 victory over Southeastern Conference champion Georgia in the 2006 Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, West Virginia finished with an 11-2 record and was among the nation's top-10 teams for most of the season. Hand helped guide an offense that ranked second nationally in rushing, third in scoring, and fourth in total offense. A year earlier, WVU posted an 11-1 record and was ranked fifth nationally.

Prior to moving to West Virginia, Hand served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 1999-2000, as the Tigers participated in the 1999 Peach Bowl and 2000 Gator Bowl.

Before that, he was defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at Concord (W. Va.) College for two seasons (1997-98). From 1994-96, Hand served as defensive coordinator at another West Virginia college, Glenville State, where he helped coach the squad to three WVIAC Championships. Previously, Hand was a graduate assistant for three seasons (1991-93) at West Virginia Wesleyan where he coached the linebackers.

A 1990 Hamilton College graduate, Hand received his bachelor's in history. He also earned a master's in 1993 from West Virginia Wesleyan in business administration.

WESLEY MCGRIFF

DEFENSIVE RECRUITING COORDINATOR; DEFENSIVE BACKS

Former Miami Hurricanes assistant coach Wesley McGriff will mentor the Vanderbilt defensive backs in 2011 under Head Coach James Franklin. He also serves as the Commodores' defensive recruiting coordinator.

During a four-year tenure at Miami, McGriff mentored some of the ACC's top defensive backs. He coached former Hurricane All-America Kenny Phillips for two seasons, developing the hard-hitting safety into a 2009 first-round draft pick.

McGriff also mentored two other standouts at Miami: cornerback Brandon Harris and safety Ray-Ray Armstrong.

NOTES: Two recent McGriff pupils at Miami, Kenny Phillips and Brandon Harris, became high picks in the NFL Draft.

McGriff's ability to develop standouts also is evident in former Miami athlete Sam Shields. McGriff molded Shields from a receiver to a high-performing defensive back as a senior. This year, Shields started at cornerback for the Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers.

At Miami, McGriff's 2010 secondary played a key role in the Hurricanes' third straight winning season and its appearance in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. The unit helped Miami rank second nationally in pass defense allowing just 164.3 yards per game.

Before joining the Miami staff, McGriff served four years at Baylor as recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach. McGriff's ability to recruit also became apparent at Baylor. He was responsible for signing offensive lineman Jason Smith, who left Baylor as an All-America tackle and the No. 2 pick of the 2009 draft.

McGriff has SEC experience, serving 2001-02 on the Kentucky staff. Prior to his stint at Baylor, McGriff spent two seasons with the Wildcats, coaching running backs in 2001 and cornerbacks in 2002. One of his Kentucky pupils, Artose Pinner, led the SEC in rushing.

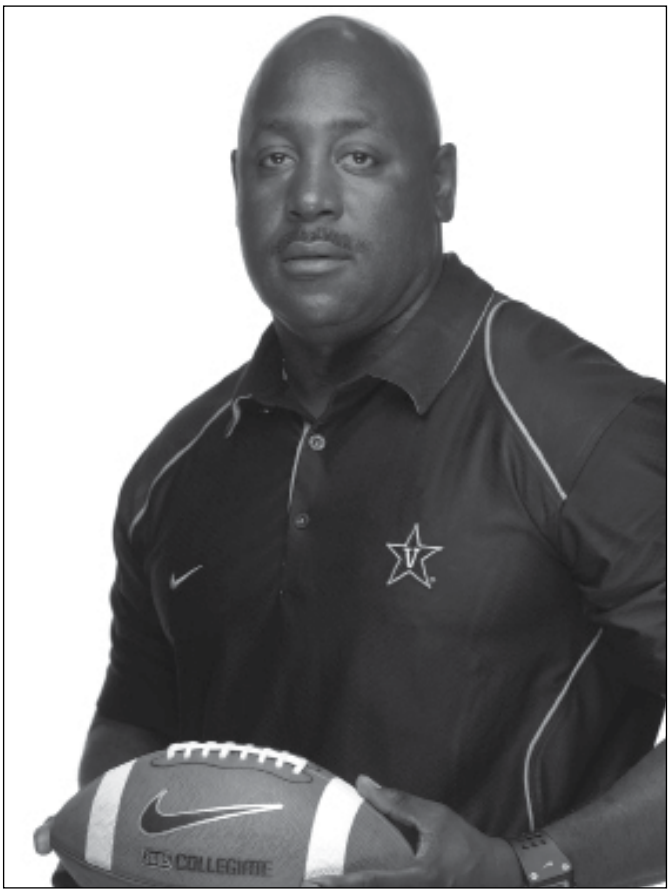

McGriff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Savannah State. He then served as Savannah State's defensive coordinator in 1993-94, and as the team's interim head coach for three months in spring 1993.

From 1995-1999, McGriff served as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kentucky State. As coordinator in 1995, McGriff helped Kentucky State become the No. 1-ranked defense in Division II. In 1997, they were the top-ranked pass defense. McGriff spent the 2000 campaign as the secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky.

McGriff played at South Carolina State for one year before transferring to Savannah State, where he started at linebacker for three seasons and was named the conference's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year.

McGriff was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001.

RICKY RAHNE

QUARTERBACKS

Former Kansas State offensive assistant coach Ricky Rahne will mentor Vanderbilt quarterbacks under Head Coach James Franklin.

Rahne, who enjoyed a record-breaking collegiate career as quarterback at Cornell University, worked previously with Franklin at K-State during the 2006-07 seasons. While on the Wildcat staff, Franklin and Rahne helped mentor talented quarterback Josh Freeman into an All-Big 12 signal caller and an eventual first-round National Football League draft pick.

Rahne served as a full-time member of the Kansas State coaching staff for the last four years. He held the position of tight ends coach under legendary Wildcat head coach Bill Snyder the last two years, after mentoring Kansas State running backs in 2007-08.

In 2010, Rahne helped Kansas State secure a berth in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium after a 7-5 regular season. The Wildcat offense averaged 33.6 points per game, ranking 22nd in the nation, and produced nearly 200 rushing yards per game.

In 2009, Rahne tutored first team All-Big 12 tight end Jeron Mastrud, who ranks second in school history in receptions among tight ends. Mastrud is a member of the Miami Dolphins.

Directing the Wildcat running backs from 2007-08, Rahne helped tutor All-Big 12 selection and current Pittsburgh Steeler James Johnson, who became the fastest Wildcat to rush for 1,000 yards in a season in 2007.

Rahne served as the Wildcats' offensive graduate assistant during the 2006 season, working closely with all aspects of the Kansas State offense. He also worked hand-in-hand with Franklin with Wildcat quarterbacks, and specifically helped develop a young Freeman into the team's starting quarterback.

Eventually, Freeman put together one of the greatest careers ever by a Kansas State signal caller and became a first-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Freeman just completed his second year as an NFL starter and is considered one of the league's future stars at quarterback.

Before joining the staff at Kansas State, Rahne spent the 2005 season as the running backs coach at Cornell, where he mentored first team All-Ivy League pick Luke Siwula. During 2005, Siwula had six 100-yard rushing games. He ended the year with 1,086 yards on the ground for the 10th-best single-season rushing total in Cornell history.

During the 2004 campaign, Rahne was a member of the coaching staff at Holy Cross, where he served as an assistant defensive line coach.

A native of Morrison, Colo., Rahne finished his career as Cornell's all-time leader in nearly every passing category and earned the team's MVP honors three times.

Rahne earned a bachelor's degree in industrial and labor relations from Cornell is 2002.

SEAN SPENCER

DEFENSIVE LINE

Former Bowling Green defensive assistant Sean Spencer serves as defensive line coach for the Commodores under Head Coach James Franklin.

During spring drills on campus, Spencer blended strong teaching skills with an enthusiastic coaching style that earned the respect of Commodore linemen.

Defensive tackle Chris Jones, Spencer's top pupil at Bowling Green in 2010, garnered six quarterback sacks, including 3.5 sacks in a win over Central Michigan that helped Jones earn National Defensive Lineman of the Week honors. Jones later also earned All-MAC Conference recognition.

NOTES: Spencer has mentored three defensive players who went on to become finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the top defensive player in NCAA FCS football.

In 2009, despite opening the season without a single returning starter on the defensive front, Spencer helped Bowling Green advance to the Humanitarian Bowl.

Spencer, who is starting his 11th year of defensive line coaching experience, also was the special teams coordinator at UMass in 2007 and 2008. Along with his special teams duties, Spencer also coached the defensive line for the Minutemen. In 2007 the Minutemen had 44 sacks, one of the top sack totals in the country, and were led by All-America and Buck Buchanan Award finalist David Burris.

Spencer mentored two special teams phenoms at UMass: kick returner Courtney Robinson and punter Brett Arnold. Robinson earned first team All-CAA honors after breaking the team's record for kick return yards. Arnold earned first team All-America honors.

Spencer spent the 2006 season at Hofstra University where he was the defensive line coach for the Pride. In the summer of 2006, Spencer took part in an NFL summer internship with the New York Jets.

Prior to Hofstra, Spencer served as linebackers coach at Villanova University in 2005 where he coached All-American Brian Hulea, who finished his career as the all-time tackler in the CAA.

Spencer also spent one season at the College of Holy Cross where he served as defensive line coach in 2004. Before his stint at Holy Cross, Spencer served as the defensive line coach at UMass from 2001 through 2003.

Spencer also coached at Trinity College from 1998 through 2000 where he was the running backs coach and pass game coordinator in 1999 before becoming the defensive line coach in 2000, Shippensburg University from 1996 to 1998 as running backs coach, and Wesleyan University from 1995 and 1996 as the receiver/tight ends coach.

DWIGHT GALT

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE ENHANCEMENT

Veteran University of Maryland Strength and Conditioning Director Dwight Galt serves as Director of Performance Enhancement with the Vanderbilt football squad in 2011. Galt accepted the conditioning position after James Franklin became Vanderbilt's head coach.

Galt comes to Vanderbilt from the Terrapins' program that experienced one of the NCAA's most impressive turnarounds in 2010 – a 9-4 campaign capped by an impressive 51-20 victory over East Carolina in the Military Bowl.

Several of Galt's former student-athletes have impressed pro scouts at the NFL Combine. In March, former Terp receiver/returner Torrey Smith and running back Da'Rel Scott were among the top overall performers at the combine. Later, Smith became a second round draft pick of the Baltimore Ravens while Scott was taken later by the N.Y. Giants.

Galt served as Director of Strength & Conditioning at Maryland for the last 17 years, and spent a total of 27 years with the Terrapins. He began at Maryland in 1984, working as an intern for then strength director Frank Costello. He assisted in the preparation of Atlantic Coast Conference championship football teams in 1984 and 1985 and also was the conditioning coach for the Terrapins' men's basketball program that featured phenom Len Bias.

After completing his master's in exercise physiology from Maryland in 1989, Galt was hired as a full-time assistant strength coach at Maryland. For the next five years, Galt worked with more than 500 Terrapin student-athletes.

Galt was named Maryland's Head Strength Coach in December 1993, with responsibility for the physical preparation of 27 Terrapin varsity sports – involving more than 700 student-athletes. His primary responsibility during the past 17 years has been the athletic preparation of the football program, though his primary duties also included the Maryland men's basketball program from 1989-2000.

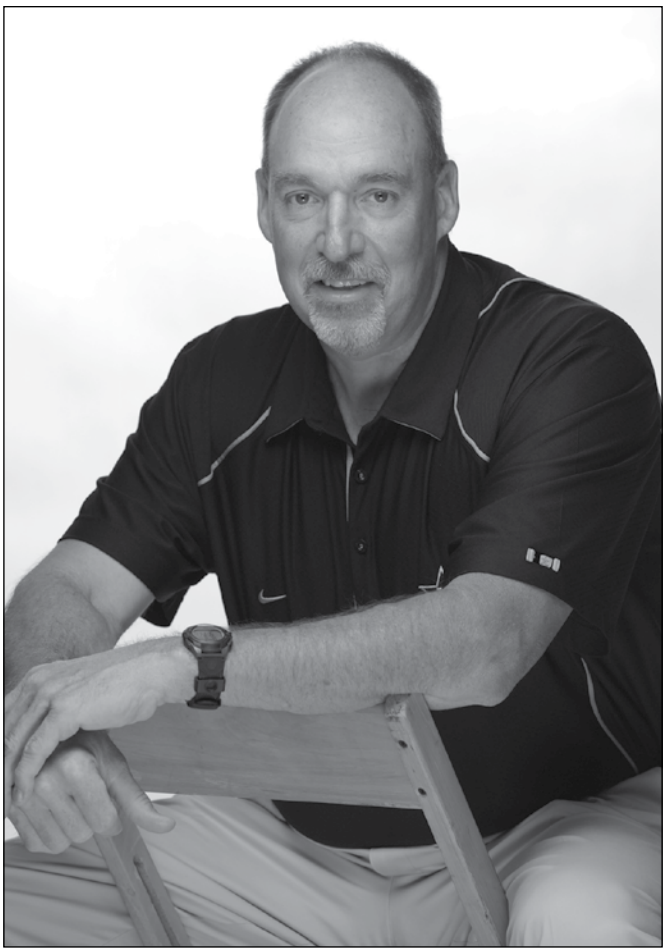

Throughout his Maryland career, Galt has been extremely fortunate to employ several superb assistants, including Evan Marcus, head strength coach at the Miami Dolphins; Kurtis Schultz, head strength coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; Ray Wright, head strength coach of the Washington Redskins; and Craig Fitzgerald, head strength coach at the University of South Carolina.

Galt and his wife, Janice, have been married for 31 years. They have four children: Angie, 28; Teri, 26; and 23-year-old twin sons, Dwight IV and Tommy.

Both daughters played intercollegiate sports: Angie as a softball catcher at Brown University; Teri as an all-conference soccer defender at Frostburg State (Md.) University. Both sons played football at Maryland and remain active in collegiate athletics: Dwight IV is a strength coach at the University of South Carolina; Tommy is an offensive graduate assistant at South Carolina.

KEVIN COLON
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF STUDENT ATHLETICS

A veteran of Vanderbilt Athletics, Kevin Colon enters his second year with administrative oversight of the Commodore football program.

Colon serves as Associate Director of Student Athletics. Colon's responsibilities include overseeing three other Vanderbilt varsity programs: baseball, women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and men's and women's cross country.

In June, Colon directed Vanderbilt's on-campus hosting of the NCAA baseball regional and super regionals, and was the team's official NCAA liaison at the College World Series.

A 14-year veteran of the department, Colon administered women's track and track, men's and women's cross country, women's swimming program and baseball prior to the 2010-11 fiscal year when he was promoted to the current position.

Colon came to Vanderbilt in 1998 to organize and direct the CHAMPS/Lifeskills program on campus. As CHAMPS/Lifeskills director, Colon directed student-athletes into an expanded role in giving back at Nashville area community efforts, focusing on mentoring local inner-city elementary school students and greater involvement in Nashville-based non-profits. More than a decade later, the program continues as the primary community outreach arm of Vanderbilt Athletics.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Colon served two years as Assistant Director of Student Services and academic advisor at Kansas State.

Colon earned an undergraduate degree in communications at Iowa State. He later earned a master's in higher education at Toledo.

Colon has a 14-year-old son, DuBois.

JEMAL GRIFFIN
FOOTBALL CHIEF OF STAFF

Jemal Griffin, the former Director of Football Operations at the University of Maryland, is in his first year as Chief of Staff of the Vanderbilt football program.

Griffin and first-year Commodore Head Coach James Franklin worked together as members of the Terrapins' athletic department, most recently with Griffin as operations director for the football team and Franklin holding the titles of assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

Griffin worked five years at Maryland. including the last three as operations director. He was responsible for the daily management of the Maryland football program, including team travel, budget management, team housing, fundraising and special events.

Griffin served as Maryland's assistant recruiting coordinator in 2006-07. During those two years, the Terps landed nine prep All-Americans and 31 others ranked among the top 100 nationally at their positions.

Prior to arriving at Maryland, Griffin spent seven years on the staff at Woodlawn H.S. in Baltimore. He started as a defensive coach in 1999, then was promoted in 2000 to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. Griffin coached two prep All-Americans, as well as many all-state and All-Metro players, at Woodlawn. The school earned two county 3A-4A titles and two Maryland 4A North championships during his tenure.

A native of Baltimore, Griffin earned his degree in management science from Coppin State. He was a four-year starter on the Eagles' baseball team, and named to the MEAC All-Tournament team as a senior.

Griffin and his wife, Carla, are the parents of two boys, Brandon and Joshua, and a daughter, Billie Grace.

MICHAEL HAZEL
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Michael Hazel enters his second year in the position of Director of Football Operations.

Previously, he served five years as Assistant Director of Football Operations during Bobby Johnson's coaching tenure on campus. Hazel also worked one year previously as a Vanderbilt defensive graduate assistant.

Hazel was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker and special teams contributor for Elon University in North Carolina. During his collegiate playing days, Hazel helped Elon to a 28-16 record as the program transitioned to the I-AA level.

A native of Easley, S.C., Hazel was an eight-time member of the Elon Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

In 2001, he earned a bachelor's in corporate communications from Elon. In 2004, he earned an MBA from Elon. Hazel completed a master's in education from Vanderbilt in 2007.

ANDY FRANK

MACKEY AWARD CANDIDATE

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Coming off a solid performance in spring drills, the 2010 All-SEC selection and Mackey Award preseason candidate will look to continue building on a career that should rank among the finest ever by a Commodore tight end. Barden needs 21 receptions and 501 receiving yards to become the team's all-time leader at the position. During spring, Barden also progressed as a blocking tight end.
2010 Started all 12 games at tight end in third season as key performer for Commodore offense... Minutes increased when fellow junior Austin Monahan and sophomore Mason Johnston went down with season-ending knee injuries...Topped squad in several receiving categories, including receptions (34) and receiving yards (425), with both representing single-season career highs... Named second team All-SEC by Associated Press after the season... Only receiver on squad to register a catch in every game, stretching his streak to 18 consecutive games with a reception... Had three or more catches in seven games, including matching previous career high with five receptions against LSU and Connecticut... Had four catches for 63 yards and a TD in opener vs. Northwestern... Had TD receptions against Connecticut and Arkansas... Matched career-long receptions (43 yards) against Tennessee... Finished season as team's active career leader in catches (91), receiving yards (991) and TD receptions (8).

Barden Career Highs:

RECEPTIONS: 5, on five occasions, most recently at Connecticut, 10/2/2010
RECEIVING YARDS: 67, at Tenn., 11/21/2009
LONGEST CATCH: 43, twice, most recently vs. Tennessee, 11/20/2010

2009 Played in every game and earned eight starting assignments at tight end... Entered season sharing minutes and starts with fellow sophomore Monahan... Role increased significantly when Monahan went down with knee injury against Georgia... Concluded year with single-season highs in receptions (29) and receiving yards (357)... Ranked second on team behind John Cole in both receiving categories... Set single-game career high with 67 receiving yards in finale at Tennessee... Matched previous game high in receptions (5) against both Georgia and Tennessee... Earned team's Offensive Player of the Week honor after 5-catch, 49-yard effort against Georgia that included 5-yard TD reception... Had two catches for 52 yards, including a career long reception of 43 yards, against South Carolina.
2008 Former high school quarterback developed into one of the team's top receiving targets in first year of action... Played in every game at tight end, starting final 10 games after Austin Monahan suffered season-ending injury... Finished season as top freshman receiving TE in nation with 28 receptions... Named by coaches to All-SEC Freshman squad... Earned Freshman All-America recognition... Also saw action on punt coverage units... Made quick impact on offense, catching key 31-yard TD pass in victory over South Carolina... Posted at least two receptions in seven of final eight games... Catch in back of end zone provided winning points in victory over Auburn...Contributed season-high five catches and 53 receiving yards vs. Duke... Also had four receptions and superb 1-yard catch and TD in win at Kentucky... Notched Commodores' lone score in season finale, catching 5-yard pass from QB Larry Smith... Had one catch for four yards in Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl victory.
2007 Did not play as redshirt freshman... Named Offensive Scout of the Week after Wake Forest game.
HIGH SCHOOL Versatile QB who helped pilot history-rich Georgia school to consecutive A state titles in 2005-06 seasons... As senior, passed for 520 yards, rushed for 604 yards and caught 10 passes for 181 yards... Played TE as sophomore... Named Most Valuable Player in baseball.

57 JABO BURROW

R-Jr. ★ Offensive Guard ★ 6-4 • 292
Morris, Ala. ★ Mortiner Jordan HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP A returning starter at guard who has played on the offensive line for just two seasons, Burrow is one of the unit's most physical lineman. Coaches expect Burrow will continue to progress as he develops more sound fundamentals and benefits from game experience.
2010 Working on the offensive line for the first full season, Burrow became a mainstay on the Commodore interior front... Athletic and agile, Burrow spent much of the season working with position coach Herb Hand getting a grasp on the responsibilities and techniques needed for effective play at the unfamiliar position... While seeing action in every game at left guard, Burrow also earned nine starting assignments for line corps that entered season lacking depth and game experience... First career start came in opener against Northwestern... Missed starts against Ole Miss, Connecticut and Eastern Michigan... Started last seven games of the year.
2008 Burrow redshirted this season, his first on the Vanderbilt campus... Worked as defensive end on practice squads.
HIGH SCHOOL Named postseason captain... Four-year varsity letter-winner; three-year starter at DE... Posted 138 total tackles and nine QB sacks as senior... Accumulated nearly 400 tackles in career... Helped squad to state playoffs in 2006... Two-time All-State and two-time area Defensive Player of the Year... Lettered in basketball, baseball and track... Regional winner of prestigious Bryant-Jordan Scholarship.

ACADEMICS Burrow is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

THE PLAYERS

83 JOHN COLE

R-Jr. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 5-11 • 180
Somerset, Ky. ★ Somerset HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Cole enters camp looking for an injury-free campaign after failing to get an opportunity to impress the new staff during spring drills. A smart route runner, Cole is the team's second leading active receiver and should battle several younger Commodores for a starting job at wideout. Cole also adds the ability to return punts on special teams.

2010 A mainstay in the Commodore passing game for the last two years, Cole played through pain to see action in all 12 games at WR... Started every game except South Carolina encounter when Commodores opened with two-TE set... Production fell off previous year levels... Concluded campaign second on the team – and tops among wideouts – with 25 receptions, good for 317 yards and one TD... Had four receptions (season high) on four occasions... Top effort came in victory over Eastern Michigan – four catches good for 103 yards... That performance included a career-long 57-yard TD catch.

2009 Played in 11 of 12 games... Started 10 games at wide receiver... Earned team's postseason MVP Receiver Award... Concluded year as team leader in receptions (36) and receiving yards (382)... Played last seven weeks with surgically repaired hand after suffering bone fracture against Rice... Shared team's Offensive Player of the Week honors after setting career highs in receptions (7) and receiving yards (67) at Rice... Also scored 31-yard reverse for touchdown on first career rush against Rice... Posted at least two receptions in nine games... Had five catches against both Army and Kentucky... Longest reception (21 yards against Kentucky) also resulted in first career touchdown pass reception.

2008 Expected to contribute at receiver, Cole only played in the season opener... Missed the final 12 games after sustaining a knee injury at Miami (Ohio)... Returned two punts for 22 yards, including a long of 13 yards at Miami, though did not have a catch.

Cole Career Highs:

RECEPTIONS: 7, at Rice, 9/26/2009
RECEIVING YARDS: 103 yards, vs. Eastern Michigan, 10/9/2010
LONGEST CATCH: 57 yards, vs. Eastern Michigan, 10/9/2010

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Concluded career as one of finest receivers in state history, setting receiving marks for single-season TDs (28), single-season yards (1,896), career TDs (69) and career yards (5,031)... Had 237 career receptions... Team enjoyed three straight 3A state playoff appearances... As senior, had 78 catches for 1,623 yards and 23 TDs... As junior, caught 86 passes for 1,896 yards and 28 TDs... Career included eight returns for TDs... Named to Gatorade's Kentucky Football Player of the Year and coaches' First Team All-State as senior... Two-time 3A-District 5 Player of the Year... Won state 100-meter title as senior.

ACADEMICS Cole is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development. He is a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient, earning recognition in 2008-10. Cole also earned CoSIDA District IV Academic All-America honors last year.

PERSONAL John Stanton Cole... Son of Stan and Gretchen Cole... Born on Oct. 31, 1989... Dad is physician... Youngest of four siblings, all of whom were involved with collegiate sports: Adam played basketball at Transylvania, Andy played baseball at Georgia Southern, Sarah ran track at Arkansas.

34 ANDREW EAST

R-Fr. ★ Snapper/Linebacker ★ 6-2 • 225
Indianapolis, Ind. ★ North Central HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP East saw extensive activity during Spring Ball as a prospective linebacker, but he is also essential to solid Commodore special teams as the likely snapper in punting situations. East will also get a close look as snapper on conversion attempts.
2010 East redshirted as a freshman, using the time to get stronger in the weight room... Showed potential as versatile snapper in fall practices.
HIGH SCHOOL Team captain... Three-year starter on defense and special teams for 5A Indianapolis area school... As senior, contributed 64 tackles and seven QB sacks as first-year starter at DE... As sophomore and junior, started at LB, posting 110 tackles as a junior... Named all-conference... Also started as long snapper... Named to the postseason Indiana North-South All-Star Classic... Lettered in varsity rugby... Received Indiana Academic All-State honors.
ACADEMICS East is working toward a degree in the School of Engineering.

72 KYLE FISCHER

R-Sr. ★ Offensive Guard ★ 6-6 • 308
Columbia, S.C. ★ Spring Valley HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP The team's only senior offensive lineman, Fischer took another step forward this spring, exiting the Black & Gold Game with improved fundamentals and confidence. Versatile enough to play guard or tackle, Fischer pleased the new staff by accepting a greater leadership role on the offensive front.
2010 Most experienced offensive lineman for the Commodores, Fischer started every game at right guard, gaining confidence and knowledge with each outing... Pushed consecutive starts streak to 17 games by finale... Performance improved during course of season... Along with LT Wesley Johnson, played virtually every offensive snap during the season... Entered year as team's only returning OL starter.
2009 Versatile lineman developed into starter on the offensive front as redshirt sophomore... Played in every game, seeing action at both guard positions... First of six starts came at right guard for an injured Eric Hensley at Army; then moved across to left guard to start the final five games in place of injured Ryan Custer... Played more than 90 percent of offensive snaps during second half of season.
2008 Earned starting assignments at both offensive tackle and guard in his first year as a contributor... Started final seven games of season: three at LT and four at LG... Played in every game... Named to All-SEC Freshman team by coaches... First career start came as LT at Georgia... Moved to starting LG for final three games, showing toughness and solid technique.

26 REGGIE FORD

So. ★ Defensive Back ★ 5-9 • 165
Nashville, Tenn. ★ Montgomery Bell

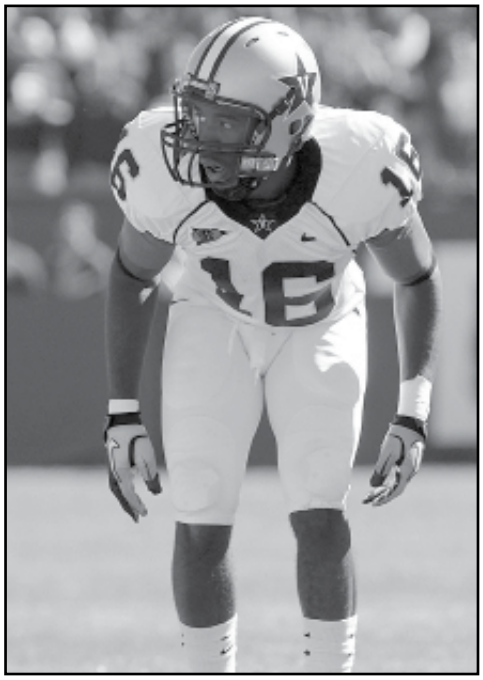

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP A second-year walk-on, Ford finished off an impressive spring performance with sure tackles and tight coverage at the Black and Gold Game. Though undersized, Ford could find his way into a contributing role at nickelback on long-yardage passing situations.
2010 Walk-on cornerback did not play, but impressed with a positive attitude and improving abilities on the practice field.
HIGH SCHOOL Three-year letterwinner for one of state's top private powers, playing safety and cornerback... Also lettered as sprinter in track.
ACADEMICS Ford is majoring in Economics from the College of Arts and Science. He is a 2010 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.
PERSONAL Reginald Dewayne Ford... Son of Tomeka Ford and Reggie Blair... Born on March 25, 1991... Has three brothers: Jarrett Love, Kevin Murphy, and Demorius Ford; and a sister, Secret Ford... Prep teammate of Vanderbilt OT Wesley Johnson and FB/TE Fitz Lassing.

16 EDDIE FOSTER

Jr. ★ Defensive Back ★ 5-10 • 170
Colleyville, Texas ★ Heritage HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP A starter in 2010, Foster will compete for the cornerback role opposite Casey Hayward. The fast-reacting Foster has worked to improve his ability to make sure tackles in the open field.
2010 As a second-year contributor, Foster became a consistent performer in the Commodore defensive secondary... Played in all 12 games, and earned starts in all but the season finale... Established single-season highs in virtually every stat category, including solo tackles (36), total tackles (53), tackles for loss (6) and passes defended (5)... Started the season in superb fashion, winning team's Offensive Player of the Week honor against Northwestern after producing three tackles for loss and career-high eight total tackles... Two weeks later, repeated the team achievement in win over Ole Miss by taking INT 21 yards for early TD and posting five tackles... Added two tackles for loss against Tennessee... Contributed forced fumble vs. Wake Forest.
2009 One of seven true freshmen to see action, Foster enjoyed more action than any other first-year Commodore defender... Played in every game, and earned starts against South Carolina, Georgia Tech, Florida and Kentucky... Used primarily as third defensive back in nickel defensive packages... Finished season with 17 total tackles, including 11 solo stops, two INTs, a QB sack and defended pass... Season high in tackles (4) came against South Carolina... Interceptions came against Rice and against Kentucky... Earned team's Specialist of the Week honor after effort against Florida.

48 RYAN FOWLER

R-Jr. ★ Placekicker ★ 5-10 • 172
Taylors, S.C. ★ Eastside HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Fowler will look to regain his form from 2009 when he tied a team mark with 16 field goals while converting at a 76 percent clip. Fowler is expected to compete with sophomore Carey Spear for the team's placekicking duties.

2010 Fowler saw less opportunities as second-year starting placekicker... Ended with 47 points scored... Converted on eight of 13 field goals (61.5 percent), making eight of nine from within 35 yards... Attempted only FG (conversion from 22 yards) in midseason seven-game stretch... Also converted on 23 of 24 extra point attempts.

2009 Selected as placekicker to SEC All-Freshman squad by every poll, including coaches, Sporting News, Phil Steele's and Rivals.com... Despite a slow start, Fowler came back to produce one of the finest seasons ever by a Commodore kicker during first year in role... Concluded season by converting 16 of 21 field goal attempts and all 20 extra point tries... Finished with 68 points scored, team's fifth highest total ever by kicker... Matched 25-year-old team record with 16 field goals... Became arguably SEC's most accurate kicker in last seven weeks of season, making 11 of last 12 field goal attempts... Was 7-of-7 from beyond 30 yards during that span... Hit field goals of 42 and 47 yards against Kentucky... Kicked three field goals against Rice and Tennessee... Made 41-yard field goal in closing seconds to send Army game into overtime... Earned or shared Specialist of the Week honors after kicking performances against Rice, Army, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Fowler Career Highs:

FGS IN GAME: 3, twice, most recently at Tennessee, 11/21/2009
LONGEST FG: 47, vs. Kentucky, 11/14/2009

2008 Fowler sat out his first year on campus as a redshirt, though he showed promise as a placekicker in fall practices.

42 TIM FUGGER

R-Sr. ★ Defensive End ★ 6-4 • 250
Oak Brook, Ill. ★ Montini HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP One of the team's most experienced defensive linemen, Fugger will likely hold down one of the starting roles at end as a fifth-year senior. The new staff expects Fugger to have a big-play impact on the field and provide veteran leadership to younger players at the position.

2010 Developed into one of team's most consistent defensive performers as second-year starter... Earned 10 starts at DE, while seeing action in every game... Finished year with single-season career highs in tackles (22), tackles for loss (30), quarterback sacks (3) and forced fumbles (4)... Ranked among SEC and NCAA leaders in forced fumbles... Registered a tackle in every game... Top performance might have come in season opener vs. Northwestern: four tackles, 1.5 QB sacks and forced fumble... Came up with forced fumbles in three of the four games.

Fugger Career Highs:

TOTAL TACKLES: 4, twice, most recently vs. Miss. State, 9/19/2009
SOLO TACKLES: 4, vs. Duke, 10/25/2008

2009 Moved into a key role on the defensive line after two-year starter Steven Stone was lost for two months after suffering a foot fracture in preseason camp... Played in all 12 games, earning eight starting assignments at defensive end before Stone reclaimed his role against Georgia Tech... Finished year with 21 total tackles, including 11 unassisted stops... Also posted two tackles for loss, including a quarterback sack and a fumble recovery... Set career high in solo tackles (3) at Army... Season high in total tackles (4) came against Mississippi State and Army... Fumble recovery came against Mississippi State... Also posted three tackles against SEC foes LSU, South Carolina and Florida.

- Fugger's bio continues from previous page -

2008 Slowed by injury to start the season, Fugger developed into one of the squad's top defensive ends as the season endured... Played in nine games, finishing with 14 total tackles, including eight solo stops... Posted four solo tackles, a career high, against Duke... Also contributed three tackles in win over Kentucky and season finale at Wake Forest... Forced first career fumble at Miss. State... Also contributed extra playing time in Commodores' Music City Bowl victory over Boston College.
2007 Did not see action as a redshirt freshman, spending year adding bulk and strength through team's conditioning program... Opened as tight end in preseason, moved to end just before opener.
HIGH SCHOOL Senior starter at TE and DE, helping Broncos to 14th straight 5A playoff berth... Named all-conference as TE.. Despite missing final three games, finished with 14 catches for 267 yards and two TDs... As DE, added 61 tackles and four sacks... Lettered in basketball and track as senior... As sophomore, played football at Bishop Kenny in Jacksonville.

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Greenstone looks to cap off a solid career with his finest season. The fifth-year senior is the team's most experienced interior defensive lineman, bringing effort, intensity and leadership to the Commodore unit. Greenstone is expected to compete with sophomore Jared Morse and Colt Nichter among others for a starting role at tackle.

2010 Leg injuries limited the production of the co-captain and starting defensive tackle... Injury kept Greenstone out of three games, and severely hindered his performance for reminder of season... Earned eight starts at DT... Finished the year with 28 total tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, one sack and two QB hurries... Opened with three tackles and a blocked FG attempt vs. Northwestern, helping earn Specialist of the Week honors... Followed season-opening effort with three tackles – and a QB sack – vs. LSU... After suffering the injury in Ole Miss game, Greenstone notched just three total tackles in following month... Impact was felt in final month of season Greenstone was able to play effectively on hurt ankle... Contributed at least four tackles in last four games, including a season-high seven-tackle performance at Kentucky.

Perry, Ga. ★ Perry HS

THORPE AND NAGURSKI AWARD CANDIDATE

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP A preseason All-America and candidate for the Thorpe and Bednarik awards, Hayward ranks among the Southeastern Conference's top returning defensive backs. Coming off a six-interception season in '10, Hayward spent the spring working with position coach Wesley McGriff to enhance coverage skills. The senior should serve as an anchor at cornerback and provide needed leadership in the Commodore secondary.

2010 One of the top defensive backs in the nation, Hayward continued his excellent play as a junior... Named second team All-SEC DB by both the league coaches and Associated Press writers... Started every game at cornerback, pushing his consecutive starts streak to 24 games... Put together his finest year in Commodore uniform, setting single-season highs in interceptions (6), solo tackles (59), total tackles (70) and passes defended (17)... Ranked first in SEC – and third in NCAA – in passes defended... Interception total ranked second in SEC – and tied for fifth nationally... Posted at least one pass defended in 10 of 12 games and at least three tackles in 11 of 12 games... Had eight tackles, including seven solo stops, to aid victory at Ole Miss... THE PLAYERS

2010 ALL-SEC FRESHMAN OFFENSIVE LINE

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Young but talented, Johnson is arguably the Commodores' most versatile lineman, possessing the skill to play all three positions. Showed solid skills at center last spring after moving to center for the Black & Gold Game. Still a bit undersized, Johnson is a superb technican and displays excellent understanding of team's new offensive scheme.

2009 Despite redshirting during first year of campus, Johnson impressed coaches and teammates with his athletism as an offensive line prospect... Showed coaches the ability to play all three positions on the offensive line... Named team's postseason Offensive Scout of the Year award, and also was singled out for his practice contributions after LSU game.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Three-year letterwinner on the offensive line... Two-time Division II-AA All-State recipient, including unanimous recognition in 2008... Finalist for Division II Lineman of the Year... Named Division II All-State team by sports writers... Helped MBA to state playoffs in 2008 and 13-0 state championship in 2007... Standout discus thrower.

ACADEMICS Johnson is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science, majoring in History. He is a 2010 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

PERSONAL Wesley Vadnais Johnson... Son of David and Arlene Johnson... Born Jan. 9, 1991... Oldest of three siblings: sister, Joanna, and brother, William... Dad works in employee benefits industry... Dad also played baseball at Louisiana Tech... Grandfather briefly played for Baltimore Colts.

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Johnston is expected to return for preseason camp healthy after missing contact during spring. As a redshirt freshman, Johnston was effective as a blocker and occasional receiving target from the tight end position. Johnston's return to action this year, along with that of Austin Monahan, gives the Commodores quality depth behind All-SEC tight end candidate Brandon Barden.

2010 Inserted after an injury to TE Austin Monahan, Johnston steadily improved in his first year on the field until suffering leg injury against Kentucky... Played in 10 games, and earned first career start vs. South Carolina... Had six receptions for 56 yards, including a TD catch in win over Eastern Michigan... Had three catches against Kentucky and two against Florida.

Johnston's Career Highs:

RECEPTIONS: 3, at Kentucky, 11/13/2010
REC. YARDS: 31, at Kentucky, 11/13/2010

2009 Contributed as scout team tight end while redshirting during first year on campus... Made team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Kentucky game.

HIGH SCHOOL Four-year varsity letterwinner... As senior, started at tight end for 14-0 Florida 2A champion squad... Finished 2008 with 24 receptions, good for 330 yards while also helping to produce pair of 1,000-yard rushers as quality blocker... Selected to Florida Times-Union's Super 24 squad... Bolles went 39-1 in last three years, winning pair of 2A titles.

ACADEMICS Johnston is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science, working toward a degree in History.

PERSONAL Karl Mason Johnston Jr... Son of Karl and Susan Johnston... Born Sept. 4, 1990... Has an older sister, Courtney, who plays volleyball at the University of North Carolina... Both parents are involved in real estate business... Enjoys scuba diving, surfing and skiing.

47 DEANDRE JONES

R-Jr. ★ Linebacker ★ 6-0 • 232
Memphis, Tenn. ★ University School

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Jones enters camp with arguably the best opportunity of his Commodore career to claim a substantial playing role at linebacker. A solid run-stopper, Jones brings plenty of experience to the corps. Though playing behind All-SEC candidate Chris Marve, Jones can potentially secure action at an outside linebacker slot. He also contributes effectively on coverage units.

2010 Slowed early in the season by injury, Jones came on during the campaign to contribute as reserve LB... Finished with single-season career high 13 tackles, including two tackles for loss... Played in seven games... Had career-high five tackles against Florida... Also registered pair of stops against Kentucky and Eastern Michigan.

2009 Played in several games as redshirt sophomore, developing into one of Commodores' most consistent special teams contributors... Late in the season, earned added snaps as interior linebacker... Posted pair of tackles in finale at Tennessee while seeing most action of the season... Finished with four tackles.

2008 Jones served his first year on campus as a redshirt, but impressed teammates and coaches with linebacking abilities... Named team's Defensive Scout of the Week after victory over Rice.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Started two years at safety before moving to LB... 2007 finalist for Division II-AA Mr. Football Lineman of the Year and All-State representative... As senior, contributed conference-high 76 tackles, and eight QB sacks, helping MUS to state playoffs... Played for 2004-05 state title teams.

R-Jr. ★ Punter ★ 6-2 • 198
Marietta, Ga. ★ Walton HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP After putting together one of the top seasons ever by a first-year Commodore punter, Kent returns this year firmly established at the position. Extremely busy in 2010, Kent used spring drills to focus on accuracy and leg strength.

2010 In first year as of action on the field, Kent became the nation's most active punter, setting new team mark with 84 boots... Ended season with 41.8-yard average, tops by a first-year Commodore punter in nearly a decade... One of SEC's most efficient punters, opponents returned less than 33 percent of Kent's attempts... Kent had more punts downed inside the opponent 20-yard line (27) than punts returned by opponents (26)... Teams averaged just 6.8 yards in punt returns vs. Commodores... Also had just 10 punts that reached the opponent end zone... Boomed punts of at least 50 yards in 10 of 12 games, including a career-long 61 yarder at Arkansas... Three-time recipient of team's Specialist of the Week honors; coming after punting efforts against LSU, Connecticut and South Carolina.

2009 Talented walk-on served second consecutive year as primary backup to senior punter Brett Upson... Did not see game action, but showed coaches plenty of leg strength and consistent form on practice field.

2008 Kent did not play as a freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL Played three years on varsity, starting as punter and placekicker for final two years... Helped squad to three AAAAA playoff berths... Averaged nearly 40 yards as senior... President of Spanish Club and vice president of school orchestra.

Memphis, Tenn. ★ White Station HS

LOTT, BEDNARIK, NAGURSKI AWARD PROSPECT

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP The Southeastern Conference's active career leader in tackles and the latest in a long line of standout Vanderbilt linebackers, Marve looks to cap his Commodore career with another superb campaign. The coaches will look to the Lott Impact Trophy, Nagurski and Bednarik awards to provide needed leadership to a young corps of linebackers.

2010 Dependable and physical linebacker continued his superb play for Commodore defense as a third-year starter... Started and played MLB in 11 of 12 games...Leg injury suffered at Connecticut forced Marve to sit out Eastern Michigan game, effectively ending his bid to post three consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more... Earned postseason second-team All-SEC recognition from coaches... Ended season sharing team lead with eight tackles for loss, second in total tackles (80) and third in solo tackles (49)... Opened year with 11-tackle effort vs. Northwestern... Contributed to win at Ole Miss with 10 tackles... Had 11 stops, including 1.5 tackles for loss, against Connecticut...Came back three weeks later to earn team's Defensive Player of the Week honors after 10-tackle effort at Arkansas... Posted two sacks and 10 tackles vs. Florida.

2009 Received team's Captain's Award and Most Valuable Linebacker Award at postseason banquet... Solid presence in middle of Commodore defense, Marve started every game at inside linebacker... Earned second team All-SEC by head coaches... Led the SEC with 10.1-tackle per game average... Tackle total (121) was second highest in conference, becoming first SEC player to produce more than 100... Marve become first SEC player since Vanderbilt's Jamie Winborn to post 100-plus tackles in freshman and sophomore seasons... Also topped the Commodores with 57 solo tackles and three forced fumbles... Also contributed 6.5 tackles for loss and a quarterback sack... Posted double-digit tackles in seven of 12 games... Produced at least four tackles in every game... Career highs in solo tackles (11) and total tackles (18) came against Georgia Tech... Also posted 15 tackles against Mississippi State and 13 tackles against Kentucky... In season opener, contributed quarterback sack and pair of forced fumbles in win over Western Carolina... Had 11 tackles and forced fumble at LSU and 11 tackles in finale at Tennessee.

TACKLES FOR LOSS: 2.5, vs. Duke, 10/25/2009
FORCED FUMBLES: 2, at LSU, 9/12/2009

2008 Became one of the team's top defenders as redshirt freshman linebacker... Punishing tackler with nose for the football... Started all 13 games at MLB... Topped the SEC with four forced fumbles... Named First Team Freshman All-American by The Sporting News and Rivals.com, and First Team Freshman All-SEC by league coaches... Topped the Commodores – and ranked among the NCAA's best – with 56 unassisted tackles... Also ranked second among 'Dores in QB hurries (3), third in total tackles (105), fourth in sacks (3) and fourth in tackles for loss (6.5)... Contributed at least five tackles in 12 games... Topped the defensive effort in Music City Bowl win with 10 total tackles vs. Boston College... Showed talent early, contributing a sack in win at Miami (Ohio)... Produced remarkable outing in victory at Ole Miss, posting 11 tackles and the defensive play of the game – a forced fumble at the Vanderbilt 1-yard line in the closing minutes recovered by a 'Dore teammate... Also was instrumental in another failed Ole Miss drive, making a key open-field tackle at the 1-yard line... Contributed 2.5 tackles for loss, a sack and 16 total tackles in losing effort against Duke... Virtually duplicated the feat against Tennessee – two tackles for loss, a sack and forced fumble, and nine tackles.

2007 Redshirted during first year on campus, but impressed as linebacker at practice... Team's Defensive Scout of the Week after win over Ole Miss.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year team captain and team MVP... Voted Tennessee 5A Mr. Football Lineman of the Year, first recipient ever from White Station... Named First Team All-State... Helped Spartans to 12-2 overall record in 2006 and 5A state semifinals... 5 WARREN NORMAN

Jr. ★ Running Back ★ 5-10 • 196
Stone Mountain, Ga. ★ Chamblee HS

2009 SEC FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

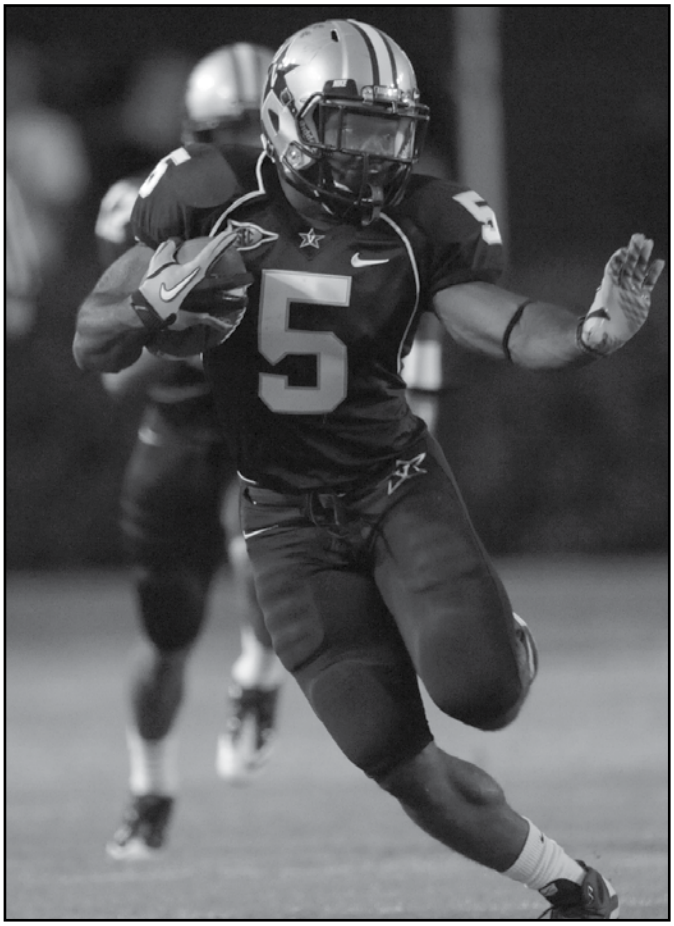

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP After missing contact last spring, Norman hopes to enter preseason camp healthy and ready to compete with Zac Stacy and Wesley Tate for the opening starting role at running back. The team's active career leader in rushing and all-purpose yards, Norman is a proven commodity as an effective rusher, receiving target out of the backfield, and game-changing return specialist.

2010 Commodores' versatile running back/return specialist put together solid campaign between preseason and late-season injuries... Made six starts at RB in eight appearances... Missed last four games after hurting hand late in Arkansas game... Despite injuries, Norman topped the Commodores with 459 rushing yards and shared team lead with four rushing TDs... Also caught 11 passes for 110 yards and continued outstanding results as kickoff returner, averaging 25.4 yards on 22 returns... Enters junior campaign ranked first on team charts in career KOR average (25.9 ypr) and sixth in career KOR yardage (1,608 yards)... Sparked win at Ole Miss with 111 rushing yards on 15 carries, including an 80-yarder for a TD that is tied for the second longest rush in team history... Also posted two rushing TDs and 75 yards in victory over Eastern Michigan.... Posted four rushes of 40 or more yards... Top effort as kickoff returner came at Connecticut – 162 total yards on four returns... That performance included a 72-yard return.

Norman Career Highs:

11 JORDAN RODGERS

R-Jr. ★ Quarterback ★ 6-2 • 205
Chico, Calif. ★ Butte JC/Pleasant Valley HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Rodgers enters camp with plenty to prove. Possessing excellent knowledge of the new scheme, the junior college transfer will compete with two-year starter Larry Smith for the team's signal-calling duties. Rodgers has also worked hard since spring drills to enter camp fully healthy for the first time since arriving on campus.

2010 Rodgers spent his first year on campus without seeing action at quarterback... Though he did not play, Rodgers traveled with the Commodore squad.

JUNIOR COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL Played QB for two years at Butte JC... Instrumental in helping Butte claim 2008 outright junior college national title, starting against five NorCal Conference opponents in Butte's 12-0 campaign, first undefeated season in school history... Threw for 810 yards and 10 TDs in 2008... As sophomore, broke Butte record with 2,512 yards of total offense, earning All-NorCal honors after throwing for 2,219 yards and 19 TDs... Earned academic honors at Butte... Started at QB as Pleasant Valley, helping team to 8-3-1 record and state sectionals as junior... Also lettered in basketball and track.

ACADEMICS Rodgers enrolled at Vanderbilt in January 2010, and is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development. He is a 2010 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

22 ERIC SAMUELS

Jr. ★ Safety ★ 6-0 • 195
Eustis, Fla. ★ Umatilla HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP One of the Commodores' top athletes, Samuels has the ability to contribute effectively as a defensive back, offensive weapon or return specialist. After playing two positions, it looks as if Samuels will focus as safety under the new coaching staff. He will compete with sophomores Kenny Ladler, Karl Butler and Andre Simmons among others at strong safety.
2010 Arguably team's most versatile player as sophomore, seeing action as defensive back, running back and kickoff return specialist... Played in all 12 games, though did not earn starting assignment... Opened season in defensive backfield, then added running back duties after injuries depleted rushing corps... Knack for being around ball as cornerback showed with 27 total tackles, including 15 solo stops... Also contributed pair of fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and three passes defensed... As kickoff returner, averaged 20.3 yards... Earned team's Specialist of the Week honor after performances against Arkansas and Tennessee... Had six tackles (a career high) at Arkansas... As RB, rushed for 43 yards on 10 carries... Rushed for 27 yards in finale vs. Wake Forest.
2009 One of seven true freshmen to see action, Samuels played in four games, contributing as reserve DB and on coverage units... Missed LSU and MSU games after suffering an injury during 19-yard INT return against Western Carolina... Sat out the final six games of season...Notched four total tackles, including three solo stops... In addition to pick against WCU, Samuels also added a fumble recovery... Shared team's top specialist honor after opener vs. WCU.
HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Three-year starter at RB and DB... Team's leading rusher, receiver and scorer as senior... Contributed 43 total tackles and three INTs in 2008... FRANKLIN: TRYOUTS FOR STUDENTS

Just weeks after accepting the Vanderbilt job, Coach Franklin visited dorms and fraternity houses promoting tryouts for students interested in being members of the football team. On Feb. 15, seven students participated in the tryouts. Six prospects made the cut and participated in spring practice: quarterback John Townsley, defensive backs Nick Aguirre, Jarron Lewis and Jarrett Wadler, and receivers Daniel Hagaman and Jeff Gendelman.

THE PLAYERS

ALL-SEC OFFENSIVE LINE CANDIDATE

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Seymour has All-Southeastern Conference talents and enters his fourth season as a Commodore off a superb Spring Practice and offseason conditioning effort. The tackle has all the skills needed to become an elite lineman as a third-year starter: excellent size, abundant strength and quality agility.

2010 As talented as any 'Dore offensive linemen, Seymour increasingly exhibited that ability during his second year in a Commodore uniform... After just one start the previous year, Seymour never lost his starting assignment at right tackle after claiming the role after the team's second game... Earned 10 consecutive starts... Athletically gifted for his size yet lacking extended game experience, Seymour matured during the course of the season.

2009 Named All-SEC Freshman by league coaches... Redshirt freshman played in eight games as first-year offensive lineman... Minutes expanded at left tackle as injuries impacted the offensive front... After playing sparingly in wins over Western Carolina and Rice, Seymour was inserted into the starting lineup against Georgia when tackle Thomas Welch sustained an injury... Through final six games, played nearly half of the team's offensive snaps... In first collegiate start at No. 1 Florida, played key role as line permitted no quarterback sacks by the talented Gator defensive front.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year starter for one of south Georgia's top programs... As starter at DE and OG, helped 2007 Wildcats to 12-2 record and AAAAA semifinals... As DE, contributed 50 tackles and pair of sacks... Named AAAAA First Team All-State and to Times-Union's Georgia "Super South 11" squad... Invited to play in Georgia High School All-Star Game... Two-time all-region.

ACADEMICS Seymour is majoring in Human and Organizational Development from the Peabody College.

PERSONAL Ryan Radeck Seymour... Son of Mark and Christine Seymour... Born on Feb. 7, 1990... Has an older sister, Laurel Ann... Dad is a program manager; mom is a banker... Seymour worked at local golf course in high school, and played on the Camden County varsity golf team.

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP A valuable freshman reserve at safety, Simmons enters camp looking to secure the top role behind two-year safety starter and All-SEC candidate Sean Richardson. The physical Simmons also should contribute on Commodore coverage units.

2010 One of five true freshmen to see action in the Commodore secondary, Simmons became known as a punishing tackler during practices and limited participation on Saturdays... Played in 10 of 12 games, missing road losses at Connecticut and Arkansas... Saw action as special teams contributor and reserve safety... Finished first campaign with four solo tackles.

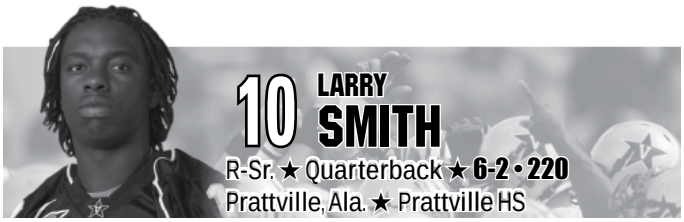

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain and team MVP... Two-year starter at safety... Helped 2009 squad to 7-5 record and second round of 6-AAA state playoffs... As senior, named All-State after posting 75 tackles and three INTs... Added 285 rushing yards and three TDs as H-back... Named to Washington Post's All-Metro team as kick returner after two early-season TDs... Also sprinter in track... Member of National Honor Society.

ACADEMICS Simmons is majoring in Human and Organizational Development from the Peabody College.

PERSONAL André Leigh Simmons... Son of Warren and Gwendolyn Simmons... Born Feb. 21, 1992 in Offenbach, Germany... Youngest of three brothers... Dad is an independent contractor; mom is a child development specialist... Dad played football at La.-Monroe... Eventually hopes to coach at collegiate level.

SIMMONS' CAREER DEFENSIVE STATISTICS

	TACKLES	TFL	INT	FF/FR	PBU

2010 Started for second consecutive season, with total career starts reaching 21 games... Brings athleticism and toughness to the position.... Started first 11 games, missing the finale to injury... Finished year with single-season career highs with 117 completions, 1,262 passing yards, six TD passes, 248 rushing yards and four rushing TDs... Threw just five interceptions... Was 19 of 33 for 240 yards and a score in opener vs. Northwestern, then completed 16 of 27 for 253 yards and two TDs in midseason win over Eastern Michigan... Combined for 221 yards and three scores at Connecticut,

2009 Given starting nod at conclusion of preseason camp, Smith started nine consecutive games until suffering a season-ending hamstring injury early in the Georgia Tech game... Struggled for much of first season as starter for offense that lacked experience at wide receiving positions, but was showing solid improvement at time of injury... Finished year with 106 completions in 227 attempts (46.7 percent) for 1,126 yards, four touchdowns and seven interceptions... Pass yardage total ranks No. 7 all-time among Commodore sophomore quarterbacks... Also rushed for 213 yards and two touchdowns in 85 attempts... Was injured running out-of-bounds on 35-yard rush, longest of the season... Completed 10 of 18 passes for 153 yards and a score in win over Western Carolina... Shared team's Offensive Player of the Week honors with receiver John Cole in win over Rice by setting career highs in completions (23) and passing yards (268)... In last complete outing, was 16 of 33 for 132 yards while rushing for 45 yards at South Carolina... Completed both pass attempts, one for a touchdown, in early stages of Georgia Tech game.

2008 Saw action in just two games – season finale at Wake Forest and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl – but made the most of his opportunities... First career start came in team's first postseason win in 53 years... Completed 10 of 17 passes for 121 yards against Boston College... Also had 10 rushing attempts for 25 yards against Eagles... Shared QB duties in bowl with senior Chris Nickson... Displayed talent and composure when inserted during the second half of Wake Forest game after injuries to Nickson and Mackenzi Adams, hitting on 9-17 for 46 yards... Directed the Commodores' only touchdown drive against the Deacs, connecting with Brandon Barden on 5-yard TD... Also rushed seven times for 23 yards.

2007 Did not see game action as a freshman... Impressed coaches as practice squad QB during fall... Named team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Miami (Ohio) win.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain for Alabama state champion... Three-year starter as dual-threat QB... Directed first undefeated season in Prattville history, concluding 15-0 campaign with MVP performance in win over Hoover for 6A title... Named state's all-classification Mr. Football as senior... Picked as All-America QB by Prep Nation, MaxPreps and EA Sports... Two-time All-State... Helped Prattville to 39-2 record from 2004-06, setting school marks with 6,011 passing yards and 54 TDs... Smith never lost regular season game as starter... In 2006, threw for 2,465 yards, 21 TDs and two INTs, earning 6A Back of the Year honors.

ACADEMICS Smith is enrolled in the Peabody College, working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Larry Darnell Smith, Jr... Son of Larry and Pamela Smith... Born Feb. 22, 1989 in Riverside, Calif... An only child... Hopes for a career in sports medicine... Dad is ROTC and aerospace science instructor; mom is computer technician... Has spent recent summers mentoring inner-city youth in east Nashville.

2 ZAC STACY

Jr. ★ Running Back ★ 5-9 • 208
Centreville, Ala. ★ Bibb County HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Closing in on 1,000 career rushing yards, Stacy should hold an important role in the Commodores' rushing game that is expected to also feature 2010 leading rusher Warren Norman and emerging sophomore Wesley Tate. Stacy is an excellent inside-the-tackles rusher, blending quick burst and physicality to the rush attack.
2010 Stacy continued as a productive offensive force for the Commodores until his season ended prematurely... Earned starts vs. SEC foes LSU, Georgia and Florida while playing in team's first nine games... Also participated as punt returner... Finished year as team's second leading rusher (331 yards)... Also had nine receptions for 32 yards... Earned team's Offensive Player of the Week honor in opener after rushing for 69 yards, including a 33-yard TD in the fourth quarter... Named Offensive Player of the Week for second time after rushing for 90 yards in win over Eastern Michigan... Contributed to win at Ole Miss with 46 rushing yards, including a TD from 35 yards that gave Vanderbilt its first score... That effort included a career-long 67-yard scoring jaunt.
2009 One of seven true freshmen to participate for Commodores... Formed superb freshman rushing duo with Norman... Earned four starting assignments as tailback and played in 10 games, missing Ole Miss and South Carolina outings with lingering ankle injury that also limited production against Mississippi State and Rice... Finished season as team's second leading rusher behind Norman with 478 yards and three touchdowns on 107 carries... Also caught seven passes for 72 yards as target out of the backfield... Started season with 133 rushing yards and touchdown in win over Western Carolina... That rushing total was most by Commodore during campaign... Rushed for 83 yards and pair of touchdowns against Georgia Tech... One score against Tech went for 62 yards, the longest rush by Commodore on the season... Also had 47-yard reception against Tech... Finished year returning punts at Tennessee, gaining 38 yards on three returns.
HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... First started at RB as freshman... As senior, rushed for 2,413 yards and scored 35 TDs, helping Bibb County to 10-2 mark and 4A playoffs... 4A Mr. Footbal finalist... Earned first team 4A All-State... As junior, rushed for 1,666 yards and 24 TDs. Two-time West Alabama Player of the Year... Ended career with 5,863 rushing yards and 76 total TDs.

60 LOGAN STEWART

So. ★ Center/Guard ★ 6-4 • 285
Boiling Springs S.C. ★ Boiling Springs HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Inserted into the starting lineup midway through his first year on campus, Stewart enters camp as the only Commodore with collegiate experience at center. Stewart also worked to improve strength and techniques during solid offseason conditioning effort. Stewart could get preseason competition from sophomore tackle Wesley Johnson, who saw action at center in spring drills, and at least one incoming freshman.

2010 One of 13 true freshmen to see action for the Commodores, Stewart experienced the most action by a first-year player on the offensive line... Became reliable contributor on OL known as tenacious blocker with excellent work habits... Inserted at center following a midseason injury to offensive co-captain Joey Bailey, Stewart never relinquished the assignment... Saw action at center in last eight games of season, earning six consecutive starts to conclude the year... First career start came against eventual SEC East champion South Carolina... With Stewart at center, the unit showed steady improvement during the second half of season.
HIGH SCHOOL Two-year starter... Started at left tackle for 2009 Bulldog squad that went 8-3 and played in powerful Region 2-4A conference...

Produced 49 pancake blocks as senior... Earned All-State and All-Region honors as senior... Played in Shriners Bowl of the Carolinas postseason game... Lettered as wrestler and thrower in track.

24 WESLEY TATE

R-So. ★ Running Back ★ 6-1 • 225
Hendersonville, Tenn. ★ Pope John Paul II

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP Coming off a solid performance in spring practice and strong offseason effort, Tate looks to make his biggest impact as a Commodore this season. Tate's blend of size and speeds brings a different dimension to the Commodore running game. He will compete with juniors Warren Norman and Zac Stacy for significant minutes.

2010 Physical running back showed potential as depth at running backs diminished during season because of injuries... As redshirt freshman, played in 11 of 12 games at RB... Concluded season with 140 rushing yards on 40 carries and 25 receiving yards... Had 30 rushing yards on 10 carries, several resulting in Commodore first downs, to aid victory at Ole Miss... Established career highs in rushing yards (41) and longest rush (22) against Florida... Also had 38 yards... Caught three passes, one good for 12 yards, against Tennessee.

2009 Tailback spent first year on campus as a redshirt... Travelled with team on road trips, but did not see game action... In preseason drills, formed formidable first-year tailback trio with co-freshmen Norman and Stacy... Impressed coaches and teammates with athleticism on the practice field... Named team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Florida game.

53 VINCE TAYLOR

R-Fr. ★ Defensive Tackle ★ 6-1 • 285
Hattiesburg, Miss. ★ Oak Grove HS

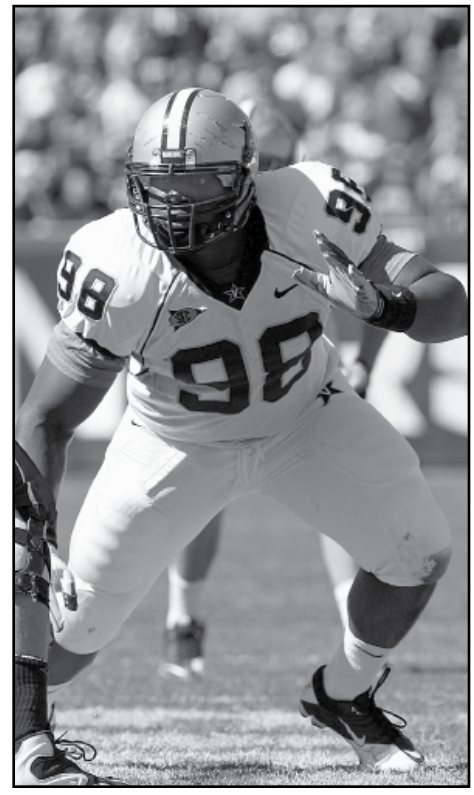

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP The redshirt freshman has exhibited the skill and potential to become a valuable contributor in the interior defense. Blessed with strength and quickness, Taylor has as much to gain from a productive camp as any defensive lineman. He is expected to compete with tackles Colt Nichter and Jared Morse among others for an open slot.
2010 Taylor did not play during his first year on campus... Coaches made decision to keep talented defensive tackle out for season after he suffered injury in preseason camp that lingered into early games of schedule.
HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Two-year starter at DT... As senior, helped Warriors to 5A state finals, contributing 97 solo tackles, 117 total tackles, 16 tackles for loss, seven QB sacks and a pair of fumble recoveries, returning one for a TD... Named first team All-State DT for all classifications by Jackson Clarion-Ledger... Impressed as DT in the Alabama-Mississippi Prep All-Star Game... Helped 2008 team to 12-2 mark and state semifinal berth, contributing eight sacks... Lettered as thrower in track & field.

4 UDOM UMOH

R-Sr. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 6-0 • 180
Fort Valley, Ga. ★ Peach Co. HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP A two-year starter, Umoh looks to close his Commodore career with his most productive season. A solid route-runner and excellent open-field blocker for the running game, Umoh will be asked to create more big plays as a wideout. He is likely to compete with several younger receivers, including sophomore Jordan Matthews and redshirt freshman Chris Boyd among others, for a starting role.

Umoh Career Highs:

RECEPTIONS: 5, at Rice, 9/26/2009
RECEIVING YARDS: 95, at Rice, 9/26/2009

2010 Played in 11 of 12 games, missing the season finale due to injury... Earned 10 starting assignments at wide receiver... A superb blocker from the WR position, Umoh also stood out on punt coverage units... Witnessed drop in production from previous year, concluding campaign with 12 receptions, good for 194 yards and two TDs... Averaged 16.2 yards per catch, a single-season career high... Named team's Offensive Player of the Week after performance at Connecticut: three catches, one going for a 48-yard TD... Followed the Connecticut effort with a 65-yard scoring strike in victory over Eastern Michigan, marking the team's longest catch of the year... Also contributed three receptions vs. Northwestern... Topped special teams with six tackles on punt coverage.

2009 Enjoyed best season in Commodore uniform as redshirt sophomore, earning starts in 11 of 12 games at wide receiver... Regarded as one of top blockers from receiver position and extremely productive on punt coverage units... Set career highs with 20 receptions and 267 receiving yards... Ranked third on team in catches and posted 13.4-yard per catch average, tops among wide receivers... Notched five catches for 95 yards in victory over Rice... Effort also included 54-yard hookup, longest of the season for the Commodores... Had three catches for 27 yards and first career TD against Ole Miss... Added 42-yard reception against Georgia Tech... Had three rushes for 26 yards... As special teams contributor, posted nine solo stops and 10 total tackles... Also shared team's Specialist of the Week honor after effort at Tennessee.

2008 Umoh saw action in every game in his first season, playing as receiver and special teams contributor... Broke through at WR in win over Boston College in the Music City Bowl, contributing team-high three receptions for 29 yards... The Music City Bowl catches were first of Umoh's collegiate career... One of the team's top blocking receivers... A standout on coverage units posting 10 total tackles, including four stops in the bowl.

2007 Impressed coaches as a freshman receiver, though redshirted in first year on campus... Earned team's postseason Offensive Scout MVP Award, and twice earned weekly offensive scout honors.

HIGH SCHOOL Talented receiver who helped Peach County to pair of AAA state titles... Named to AAA First Team All-State as senior; two-time all-area... In 2006, caught 64 passes for 1,058 yards and 14 TDs, including two scores in title win... Standout sprinter, with PR of 48.6 (400).

ACADEMICS Umoh is working toward a degree in English from the College of Arts and Science. He is a 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

78 CALEB WELCHANS

R-Jr. ★ Offensive Line ★ 6-5 • 300
Wildwood, Mo. ★ Lafayette HS

ENTERING PRESEASON CAMP After adding to his versatility last spring, Welchans enters preseason off an excellent summer conditioning effort. Adding spring experience at center will benefit Welchans as he works to claim a key role along the Commodore offensive line.

2009 In his first year of action, Welchans played in 10 of 12 games, contributing at right tackle following key injuries to the Commodore OL... Did not earn any starts, but saw substantial action as a reserve tackle as season developed... Initial snaps came at right tackle following season-ending injury to James Williams and struggles by others playing the position.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Two-year starter at OT and DT... Helped squad to 6A state quarterfinals as senior... Named first team 6A All-State.. As senior DT, contributed 41 tackles and three sacks... Three 52-feet PR in shot put.

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD WATCHES INTRASQUAD GAME

Vanderbilt capped its inaugural spring practice session under Head Coach James Franklin as the Black team topped the Gold team 19-7 in the Black and Gold Spring Game, held April 17 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

After the Gold team got on the board first with a 15-yard touchdown, the Black squad scored the game's final 19 points to secure the win.

An estimated crowd of 7,500 attended the first spring intrasquad game held staged by Vanderbilt in more than a decade. The game was sandwiched between an autograph session and a post-game fireworks show.

"First of all, I haven't been here very long, but I was very pleased with the whole organization of everything," Franklin said. "The autograph session was very well attended. I got to interact with a lot of fans. The big thing is that we stayed healthy. From top to bottom I was pleased."

The Black team was led by the quarterback-wide receiver combination of Larry Smith and Jordan Matthews. Smith finished the game 16-of-26 passing for 233 yards, one touchdown pass, one receiving touchdown and one interception. The touchdown pass was to Matthews, who had a game-high seven catches for 103 yards.

Placekicker Carey Spear answered the Gold team's lone touchdown with field goals of 31 and 22 yards in the first half to drawn the Black to within one point at 7-6.

Spear's second field goal came after a defensive stand by the Gold squad. An acrobatic 49-yard catch by wide receiver Jonathan Krause brought the Black to the 4-yard line, but the Gold defense held, with Nichter's pressure forcing an errant pass into the end zone by Smith.

The only score of the half came on the last play of the game -- which also proved to be the most exciting of the game. The final play was a reverse and eventual pass from running back Zac Stacy to Smith, who leaped in the endzone for the 10-yard touchdown as time expired.

The game was mostly dictated by the defense from both squads. Taking advantage of a fatigued offensive line that played both ways, each team compiled eight sacks and one interception.

Nichter compiled three stops for the Gold team, which included two sacks and two pass breakups. Linebacker Chase Garnham (Gold) led all players with eight tackles. For the Black squad, linebacker Andrew East had two sacks, and defensive end Kyle Woestmann had a sack and an interception.

Northwestern (23) at Vanderbilt (21)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (37,210) • Sept. 4, 2010 • CSS

NASHVILLE – Dan Persa threw for 222 yards and three touchdowns to three different receivers, and Northwestern beat Vanderbilt 23-21 in the regular season game between the Big Ten and the SEC.

This was Persa's first start with Mike Kafka now gone, and the junior was nearly perfect as he helped ruin the debut of Vanderbilt's new head coach Robbie Caldwell in the season opener for both teams.

Persa was 19 of 21 passing and he also led the Wildcats with 82 yards rushing.

Vanderbilt had plenty of chances to make Caldwell the first Commodores' coach to win his debut since 1997.

Larry Smith threw for 240 yards and a touchdown with Warren Norman and Zac Stacy each running for touchdowns. But the Commodores missed an extra point, a 48-yard field goal and were stopped on two 2-point conversions -- the last with 2:25 left on a bad snap.

Northwestern faced third-and-6 from its own 33 when Persa was hit a yard short of the first down marker by Vandy safety Jay Fullam. But officials flagged him for a high hit and a personal foul, allowing Northwestern to run out the clock even though it looked on replay as if Fullam simply put his shoulder into Persa's shoulder for the stop.

#16 LSU (27) at Vanderbilt (3)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (36,940) • Sept. 11, 2010 • ESPNU

NASHVILLE – LSU coach Les Miles still sees his Tigers making mistakes that must be corrected. His defense can only be counted on to cover up those problems for so long.

Stevan Ridley scored a 65-yard touchdown and ran for 144 of his career-high 159 yards in the second half, and the Tigers came up with six sacks in defeating Vanderbilt 27-3.

It was the Tigers' seventh straight win in this series in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

The Tigers nearly blew a 30-10 lead a week ago against North Carolina before knocking down a couple of last-second passes in the end zone to preserve a 30-24 victory. Ridley had a couple of turnovers in that game, but he helped the Tigers seal this victory with 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter.

Vanderbilt (28) at Ole Miss (14)

Vaught-Hemingway, Oxford Miss. (51,667) • Sept. 18, 2010 •SEC-TV

OXFORD, Miss. – Warren Norman rushed for 111 yards, including an 80-yard touchdown, as Vanderbilt beat Ole Miss 28-14 for coach Robbie Caldwell's first career win.

Vanderbilt (1-2, 1-1 Southeastern Conference) snapped a 10-game conference losing streak dating back to 2008. The 'Dores have beaten the Rebels four of the past six seasons.

It was Norman's third career 100-yard rushing game, and his first against an SEC opponent. The Commodores did most of their damage on the ground, rushing for 227 yards.

Vanderbilt lived off big plays all afternoon. The Commodores scored their first three touchdowns on 35-yard touchdown run by Zac Stacy, a 21-yard interception return by Eddie Foster and the biggest of all -- Norman's 80-yard touchdown run that gave them the lead for good.

Norman's touchdown came at a critical juncture. Ole Miss (1-2, 1-1) had just tied the scored at 14-14 when the 5-foot-10, 195-pound sophomore scored on Vanderbilt's first play from scrimmage, running untouched for the longest run of his career and the second-longest run in school history.

Vanderbilt (21) at Connecticut (40)

Rentschler Field, E. Hartford (40,000) • Oct. 2, 2010 •Big East TV

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. – Jordan Todman ran for 190 yards and two touchdowns to lead Connecticut to a 40-21 win over Vanderbilt, just the second win for the Big East over a BCS conference team this season.

Todman, who carried the ball 37 times, has now rushed for over 100 yards in seven of his last eight games. He missed last week's game against Buffalo with an injured left arm.

The Huskies (3-2) outscored the Commodores 19-0 in the second half, after holding a 21-21 halftime lead. Cornerback Blidi Wreh-Wilson put the game away when he stepped in front of receiver Akeem Dunham, returning the interception 44 yards for a touchdown midway through the fourth quarter to put the Huskies up 38-21.

Larry Smith threw for 157 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 64 yards to lead Vanderbilt (1-3). Running back Warren Norman had over 162 yards on kick returns.

GAME RECAPS

Vanderbilt (52), Eastern Michigan (6)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (33,107) • Oct. 9, 2010 • ESPNU

NASHVILLE – Quarterback Larry Smith threw for 253 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another as Vanderbilt rolled to a 52-6 victory over Eastern Michigan.

The Commodores (2-3) scored 24 points in the second quarter, including 17 in the last seven minutes of the half, as they snapped a nine-game losing streak at home.

Smith completed his last eight passes of the half, starting with a 65-yard catch-and-run touchdown to Udom Umoh with 4:21 to go. It was the longest play of both players' careers.

Eastern Michigan (0-6) has lost 18 straight, the second-longest streak in the Football Bowl Subdivision - with its last win coming on Nov. 28, 2008, against Central Michigan.

ATHENS, Ga. – Carlton Thomas ran for the first two touchdowns of his career, Aaron Murray passed for two touchdowns and Georgia welcomed new mascot Uga VIII by beating Vanderbilt 43-0.

Washaun Ealey led Georgia with 17 carries for 123 yards and a touchdown. Caleb King, who normally shares carries with Ealey, served the first game of his two-game suspension following his arrest for failing to pay a speeding ticket.

Georgia (3-4 overall, 2-3 SEC) took its second straight lopsided win after four straight losses. The Bulldogs beat Tennessee 41-14 the previous week.

Blair Walsh kicked two field goals for Georgia but missed from 31 yards in the fourth quarter to keep the Bulldogs from taking their largest margin of victory in the series.

#19 South Carolina (21) at Vanderbilt (7)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (33,425) • Oct. 23, 2010 • FSN

NASHVILLE – Brian Maddox rushed for a career-high 146 yards and the game-clinching touchdown to lead No. 19 South Carolina to a difficult 21-7 win over Vanderbilt, giving Steve Spurrier his 40th victory with the Gamecocks.

The win snapped South Carolina's seven-game Southeastern Conference road losing streak that dated back to 2008 and put the Gamecocks (5-2, 3-2) in first place in the SEC East. South Carolina had lost two of the last three to Vanderbilt (2-5, 1-3).

Maddox didn't carry the ball until South Carolina's fourth series with about 6 minutes left in the first half, replacing an ineffective Kenny Miles, who started in place of injured freshman Marcus Lattimore. And he wasn't much of a boost for the mistake-prone Gamecocks until the second half when he rushed for 48 yards on the game-changing drive midway through the third quarter.

Spurrier has struggled with the Commodores since moving to Columbia. The Gamecocks needed a fourth-quarter touchdown to beat Vanderbilt 14-10 last season and with Lattimore out South Carolina continued to struggle in the series.

Vanderbilt (14) at #19 Arkansas (49)

Razorback Stadium, Fayetteville (70,430) • Oct. 30, 2010 • FSN

It was that kind of night for the Arkansas quarterback, who set a school record with 409 yards passing in a 49-14 win over Vanderbilt.

Mallett topped his own record of 408 yards, set last year against Georgia, and finished 27 of 44 passing as the No. 19 Razorbacks (6-2, 3-2 Southeastern Conference) won their second straight game. The junior also threw for three touchdowns and connected with eight different receivers as Arkansas scored 43 straight points after trailing early.

Mallett missed parts of each of the past two games with injuries. He suffered a concussion in the first quarter of a loss at Auburn two weeks ago and left with a bruised throwing shoulder in the second half against Mississippi last week.

Florida (55) at Vanderbilt (14)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (33,848) • Nov. 6, 2010 • SEC-TV

NASHVILLE – The Florida Gators are back on track. Chris Rainey blocked two punts and caught a 40-yard touchdown pass from John Brantley as Florida defeated Vanderbilt 55-14.

The Gators (6-3, 4-3) will host the Gamecocks with the winner advancing to the SEC championship in Atlanta.

Vanderbilt (2-7, 1-5) lost its fourth straight, ensuring a second straight losing season under first-year coach Robbie Caldwell. The Commodores trailed 41-0 when Ryan van Rensberg blocked a punt Javon Marshall recovered and ran in for a touchdown.

The Gators started a little slow with a rare morning kick-off with a temperature of a chilly 44 degrees. But Florida still rolled up a season-high in points.

They also had season highs with 88 plays for 480 yards. The defense had four sacks and forced three turnovers in holding Vandy to 109 yards. Terron Saunders returned a fumble 45 yards for a TD and Solomon Patton returned a blocked punt 42 yards for another score. Mike Gillislee also had two TD runs of 3 and 43 yards.

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Randall Cobb ran for a career-high 170 yards and two touchdowns as Kentucky surged past Vanderbilt 38-20.

Cobb had touchdown runs of 5 and 73 yards to help the Wildcats (6-5, 2-5 Southeastern Conference) become bowl eligible for the fifth straight season. He finished with 279 total yards, breaking the school record for all-purpose yards in a single season in the process.

Derrick Locke ran for 145 yards and two scores in his first game in a month and quarterback Mike Hartline threw for 232 yards and a touchdown in his final home game.

Kennard Reeves rushed for a career-high 105 yards for the Commodores (2-8, 1-6), but Vanderbilt couldn't make a 13-10 halftime lead stand up.

Tennessee (24) at Vanderbilt (10)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (37,017) • Nov. 20, 2010 • CSS

NASHVILLE – Tauren Poole rushed for 99 yards and the game-clinching touchdown and Tennessee kept its slim bowl hopes alive under first-year coach Derek Dooley with a 24-10 win over Vanderbilt.

Vanderbilt (2-9, 1-7 Southeastern Conference) threatened with a late touchdown, but Tennessee (5-6, 2-5) sent the Commodores to their sixth straight loss when Poole took advantage of a failed onside kick to rip off a 28-yard touchdown run with 1:11 remaining.

Tennessee won its third straight game for the first time since 2007.

Tyler Bray threw for 232 yards, but struggled for the first time since taking over as starter three weeks ago with two interceptions. Bray got off to a fast start, and early on, looked like the fabulous freshman who guided Tennessee to 102 points in wins over Memphis and Mississippi by throwing for 648 yards with eight touchdowns and no interceptions.

Bray completed nine of his first 10 passes and gave the Volunteers a 14-0 lead midway through the second quarter with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Justin Hunter in the first quarter and a 20-yard scoring pass to Denarius Moore. He killed Tennessee's next two drives with interceptions, though, then had trouble connecting with his receivers the rest of the way, finishing 16 of 27.

Wake Forest (34) at Vanderbilt (13)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (21,338) • Nov. 27, 2010 • CSS

NASHVILLE – Josh Harris rushed for 138 yards and one touchdown and Wake Forest defeated Vanderbilt 34-13 in Robbie Caldwell's last game as Vanderbilt's head coach.

Caldwell announced he was stepping down earlier in the day, ending his short tenure at the helm.

Vanderbilt (2-10) ended the season on a seven-game losing streak, which is currently tied for the second-longest skid in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

It was the Commodores' second straight 10-loss season. They have had at least nine losses in six of the last 10 seasons. The Demon Deacons (3-9), who snapped a nine-game losing skid, were aided by several Vanderbilt special teams miscues. The Commodores missed two field goals (50 and 37 yards) and had two punts blocked.

Caldwell took over in mid-July for Bobby Johnson, who abruptly resigned. That gave Caldwell, who spent the previous eight seasons as Vanderbilt's offensive line coach, just seven weeks to prepare for the season opener.

The game marked the first time since Nov. 29, 2008 – also against Vanderbilt – that Wake Forest blocked two punts in one contest.

Nov. 27, 1890
On Thanksgiving, Vanderbilt plays its first game, topping nearby Peabody Normal School. Elliott Jones was coach and captain.

Dec. 7, 1897
After ending the season 6-0 and unscored upon, Vanderbilt agrees to host Virginia for the Southern Championship. The teams play to a classic 0-0 tie in front of 2,500 fans.

Scholars in Uniform
Two top players on the 1903 squad, John J. Tigert and Bob Blake, became Rhodes scholars after their playing days.

The "Commodores"

The "Point-A-Minute" Commodores
McGugin's first squad in 1904, left, went 9-0, outscoring its opponents by a remarkable 452-4 margin.

Nov. 24, 1906
The famed Carisle Indians fall 4-0 to the Commodores.

Nov. 7, 1908
The 'Dores win their 20th straight versus Southern Conference foes,16-9 over Tennessee.

Nov. 7, 1891
Vanderbilt and Sewanee, charter members of the Southern Intercollegiate Conference, play their first game. The rivalry, typically reserved for Thanksgiving Day, continues into WWII. When the series ended in 1944, Vanderbilt owned a 40-8-4 advantage.

Sept. 17, 1904
One-time Michigan star and recent law school grad Dan McGugin arrives as Vanderbilt's coach. By the time he retires, McGugin will become a legend of the sport.

The Golden Years
Dan McGugin's Commodores took on all comers, and rarely failed to deliver a victory. Traveling by rail across much of the nation, the program compiled a 124-30 record from 1904-22.

Overpowering Commodores

Playing the Texas State Fair
Before Oklahoma and Texas started the Red River Shootout, it was Vanderbilt vs. Texas at the Texas State Fair in Dallas. Vanderbilt won five of seven games with the Longhorns between 1921 and 1928.

Aug. 10, 1918
One of the greatest and most beloved Commodores of all-time, Irby "Rabbit" Curry, gave his life defending America in the skies over France. Curry was a standout quarterback from 1914-16, a scholar and student leader. As a senior, classmates elected him "Bachelor of Ugliness" – the highest award given to a male Vanderbilt undergrad.

Oct. 14, 1922
McGugin invites powerful Michigan as the Commodores' initial opponent in Dudley Field. The teams play to a 0-0 tie before a huge crowd. The tie was preserved when captain Jess Neely recovered a fumble near in Commodore goal.

McGugin's Assistants
Dan McGugin, middle, is shown in 1922 with new assistant Wallace Wade, far left, an eventual Hall of Famer. The 1922 team captain, Jess Neely, later became a legend.

Nov. 29, 1934
After three decades at the helm of Commodore football, Dan McGugin steps aside to become athletics director. He retired with a remarkable 197-55-19 record. He ranks among the NCAA Top 20 in all-time wins.

Oct. 23, 1937
Early in the game against No. 6 LSU, tackle Greer Ricketson took the ball cleverly hidden on the ground by the Vanderbilt quarterback and rambled 50 yards for a score. The 'Dores would win 7-6.

Looking Within to Replace a Legend

Sanders' 1941 Staff

Nov. 22, 1941
In his second year, Sanders returned the 'Dores to prominence. Their 7-0 win over Alabama on this date gave the team an 8-1 mark.

Defense After WWII

Oct. 16, 1948
After a 20-7 loss at No. 14 Ole Miss, Vanderbilt defeats Kentucky 26-7, starting an eight-game win streak. The Commodores outscored the eight opponents 307-26. By season's end, AP pollsters ranked Red Sanders' squad No. 12 in the nation.

Returning Nalley
Nobody could return a punt like Lee Nalley. From 1947-49, Nalley set numerous NCAA records, including running back five punts for touchdowns.

Oct. 7, 1950
Behind Nashville native and All-SEC quarterback Bill Wade, the Commodores beat No. 12 Alabama 27-22 in Mobile. The team reaches a No. 13 ranking.

Scoreless Ties
Competing on the road in 1958, the Commodores played to 0-0 ties at Alabama and Kentucky, and to a 6-6 draw at Florida.

Oct. 14, 1955
A 12-0 shutout of Chattanooga sparks Vanderbilt run that leads to the team's first bowl appearance. Gator Bowl officials paired the Commodores against No. 8 Auburn after Vanderbilt's 7-3 regular season.

Dec. 31, 1955
Bouyed by five fumble recoveries, the Commodores defeat Auburn 25-13 in the 11th annual Gator Bowl. The offensive attack was led by All-America halfback Charley Horton, at left, and quarterback Don Orr, who scored two touchdowns despite playing with a dislocated shoulder.

Nov. 28, 1964
A two-yard rushing touchdown by senior running back Bob Sullins – the first of his career – gives Vanderbilt its margin in a 7-0 victory over Tennessee.

Oct. 26, 1968
Trailing by a touchdown late vs. No. 15 Florida, John Miller hits Jim Cunningham on a 33-yard scoring strike to pull Vanderbilt even in an eventual 14-14 tie.

Oct. 11, 1969
Playing with a hurt shoulder, Watson Brown hits Jim Cunningham with game-winning 10-yard touchdown in Commodores' 14-10 victory over No. 13 Alabama.

Sept. 15, 1973

In 1973
In an early-season practice, assistant Bill Parcells wonders aloud if there's a punter among the team ranks. Tight end Barry Burton raises his hand, wins the job, and becomes an All-America in 1975.

Picture Day, 1974
Mammoth defensive end Dennis Harrison shares a moment with a young Commodore fan.

Oct. 12, 1974
Steve Sloan's Commodores show signs of progress, taking a 24-3 lead en route to 24-10 victory over No. 8 Florida.

Dec. 28, 1974
Played on a muddy day in Atlanta, the Peach Bowl (above) between Vanderbilt and Texas Tech was ruled by defense, as the Commodores and Red Raiders slugged to a 6-6 tie.

Nov. 29, 1975
Fred Pancoast's Commodores top Tennessee 17-14 in Knoxville to conclude a 7-4 season with four consecutive victories.

Nov. 18, 1978
Frank Mordica rushes for 321 rushes and five touchdowns in Vanderbilt's 41-27 victory over Air Force. Mordica's rush total remains a SEC record.

Sept. 12, 1981
Playing before a standing-room only crowd, the Commodores christen renovated Vanderbilt Stadium with a 23-17 victory over Maryland.

Oct. 9, 1982
All-SEC tackle Rob Monaco recovered a Vanderbilt fumble in the end zone for a game-winning touchdown to give the Commodores a 31-29 victory over No. 14 Florida.

Nov. 27, 1982
In a cold rain, Whit Taylor scores on an option rush with 3:00 left to give Vanderbilt a game-clinching lead in 28-21 victory over Tennessee. The win was the Commodores' fifth straight, and ensured a bowl bid.

Dec. 31, 1982
In a record-breaking offensive display, tailback Norman Jordan catches 20 passes from roommate Whit Taylor in Hall of Fame Bowl appearance.

Sept. 10, 1977

Sept. 29, 1984

The Commodores hand Alabama a 30-21 homecoming loss. After the win and a 4-0 start, AP pollsters give Vanderbilt a No. 17 ranking. All-America TE Chuck Scott, right, hauls in reception.

Sept. 6, 1986

Oct. 3, 1987

Chris Gaines, right, put together one of the finest individual defensive efforts in team history, contributed 37 total tackles against Tulane in the Superdome.

Oct. 15, 1988

Wearing new gold jerseys for the first time, linebacker Billy Cunningham contributes an interception and two sacks in Vanderbilt's 24-9 upset of No. 20 Florida.

1988

1988

"It's Showtime" featuring senior quarterback Eric Jones. Coming off a superb junior season, Vanderbilt initiates Heisman campaign for Jones as season approaches.

Oct. 19, 1991

Tailback Corey Harris takes an errant pitch by Marcus Wilson 51 yards for the deciding points in Vanderbilt's 27-24 victory over No. 17 Georgia. Harris and fellow running back Sam Chalmers both top 100 rushing yards in the Commodore win.

VANDERBILT ALL-AMERICANS

D.J. MOORE

DEF. BACK, 2008

Moore became the first Commodore defensive back to earn All-America honors in 25 years.

He earned second team recognition from the Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Rivals.com after a sensational junior season.

In 2008, he was the SEC's most versatile player, also seeing action as a running back, wide receiver and return specialist.

Moore's talents were apparent in several Commodore wins. In a late-season win at Kentucky, he achieved a truly rare feat with a 2-interception, 2-TD catch effort.

After three years, Moore entered the NFL draft. He was selected in the fourth round by the Bears.

EARL BENNETT

RECEIVER, 2006

As a sophomore in 2006, the product of Birmingham, Ala., was named third-team All-America by Rivals.com in 2006 after catching 82 passes in the regular season.

Bennett was a three-time All-SEC recipient.

JAMIE WINBORN

LINEBACKER, 1999

Winborn was named All-America by Football News following the 1999 season after leading the Commodores and the SEC with 141 tackles. It was the second straight year that Winborn led the league in tackles.

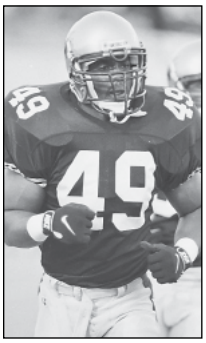

A two-time All-SEC Coaches selection, Winborn was the complete linebacker package in 1999. He was a run stopper who delivered punishing blows, making plays sideline to sideline.

He led the squad with a team-record 23 tackles for loss and was third in sacks with 5.5. His performance included a 20-tackle, two-sack effort against South Carolina.

Winborn was selected by the 49ers in the 2001 NFL Draft. He has played with the 49ers, Bucs, Broncos and Titans.

JAMIE DUNCAN

LINEBACKER, 1997

Duncan was a dominating linebackers and a player who always rose to the occasion.

In 1997, Duncan was named First Team All-America by the Football Writers Association. He was also named Second Team All-America by the Associated Press and Football News.

In 1997, he became the only Commodore player to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. He also received similar recognition from the Mobile Press Register.

As a junior, Duncan amassed 152 tackles, six sacks, 14 tackles for loss and five forced fumbles. He finished his career with 425 tackles. His effort against No. 1 Florida remains one of the best ever by a Commodore.

BILL MARINANGEL

PUNTER, 1996

Marinangel was eamed First Team All-America by the Sporting News in 1996 after topping the NCAA in punting.

Marinangel is perhaps best remembered for one heroic play in his senior year. In the second game against Alabama, Marinangel surprised the Tide special teams and 72,000 onlookers, as he took the snap from center, and then scampered 81 yards for an unbelievable and unlikely touchdown.

The run was the longest in the SEC that season and still stands as the longest in school history.

BOO MITCHELL

RECEIVER, 1988

In 1988, Mitchell was a Third Team All-America after compiling one of the finest seasons ever by a Commodore receiver.

Teaming with quarterback Eric Jones, Mitchell hauled in 78 catches for 1,213 yards and five touchdowns. The receiving yardage total remains a Vanderbilt team record and the SEC's seventh highest total ever. He surpassed 100 yards receiving in six games that season.

Mitchell ranks among team leaders in virtually every career receiving category. He tops the list, – and ranks third all-time in the SEC, with 2,964 receiving yards.

ALL-AMERICA CRITERIA

To be listed as an All-American in the Vanderbilt media guide, a player must have been selected to an All-America team by a national agency as defined in the NCAA Official Football Records Book. Current agencies that meet the criteria are the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation, SI.com and Rivals.com.

VANDERBILT ALL-AMERICANS

CHRIS GAINES

LINEBACKER, 1987

A Nashville native, Gaines was selected First Team Kodak All-America by the nation's football coaches. In 1987, he established an SEC single-season record for total tackles with 214.

Following the season, he was named Most Valuable Player of the Blue-Gray Game after racking up 18 tackles and was named Tennessee Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Gaines played two years in the NFL, then returned to Vanderbilt as an assistant football coach from 1995-97.

RICKY ANDERSON

PUNTER, 1984

Anderson arrived on campus as a walk-on. Four years later, he departed as the nation's top punter-kicker in the nation and a consensus All-American.

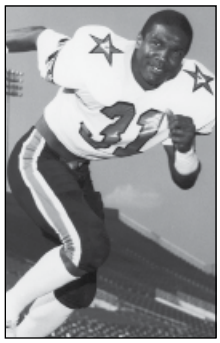

Anderson's senior season was remarkable. As a punter, he topped the nation with a 48.2-yard average. It remains as the highest yearly punting average ever in the SEC by more than a yard.

Anderson's 1984 campaign also is tied for seventh all-time in NCAA history.

Following the 1984 season, he was named a consensus First Team All-American and All-SEC selection.

Anderson holds several team kicking marks. Besides the single-season average record, his 82-yard punt against Georgia in 1984 remains the longest in team history.

Anderson's career average of 45.6 yards also ranks first, as does his single-season scoring total of 73 points in 1982. He also ranks third on the team's all-time scoring list with 192 points.

LEONARD COLEMAN

DEF. BACK, 1983

Coleman was named First Team All-America in 1983 by the Gannett News Service and was a Third Team All-America selection by the Associated Press.

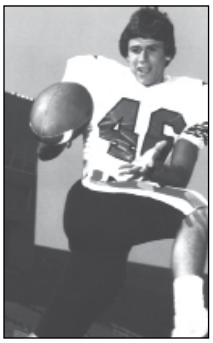

A consensus All-SEC selection, Coleman left Vanderbilt rated as the nation's No. 1 corner-back by NFL scouts.

Coleman was a four-year starter. As a freshman, he contributed four interceptions, including a team-record tying three picks in a victory over Chattanooga. At the time, his effort against Chattanooga also tied a SEC mark.

Coleman's efforts as a junior was a key for Vanderbilt's Hall of Fame Bowl season in 1982, including a pair of interceptions in the season-opening win over Memphis. He finished the year by setting a team mark with eight interceptions.

CHUCK SCOTT

TIGHT END, 1983

Early in his career, Scott struggled to make an impact at flanker. He just needed to switch positions.

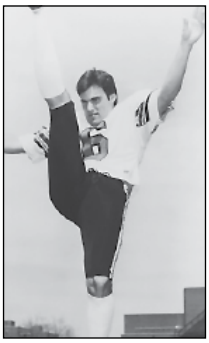

In 1983, Scott blossomed after moving to tight end. Scott hauled in 70 receptions and nine touchdowns to tie the existing NCAA record for catches by a tight end. He was named First Team All-America by The Sporting News.

A two-time Academic All-SEC selection, Scott ranks among the team leaders in several career receiving records. His 20 career touchdown receptions remains the second most in school history. Scott also ranks sixth all-time with 145 catches and fifth with 2,219 receiving yards.

Scott played three seasons in the NFL – with the Rams in 1985 and 1986, and Dallas in 1987.

JIM ARNOLD

PUNTER, 1982

Arnold became the first Vanderbilt kicking specialist to receive All-America honors, paving the way for several kicking standouts to follow in his footsteps.

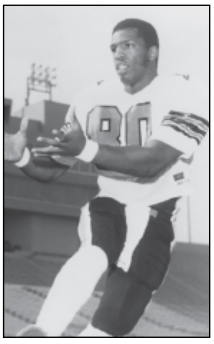

A native of Dalton, Ga., Arnold quickly impacted the squad, breaking the freshman mark with a 41.9-yard average. By the time he graduated, his coach, George McIntyre, was quoted as saying, "Jim's the best kicker in the country, pro or college."

As a senior in 1982, he was named to six All-America teams after averaging a then-record 45.8-yard average. He ended his career with a 43.9-yard average, and still holds the SEC mark with 277 punts.

Two of Arnold's punts remain among the 10 longest in Commodore history, including a 79-yarder at Ole Miss.

ALLAMA MATTHEWS

TIGHT END, 1982

Early in his Vanderbilt career, coaches tried the Matthews at safety and receiver. Once all parties settled on tight end, Matthews put together one of the finest receiving campaigns ever, helping spark the team's run to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

In 1982, Matthews was named First Team All-America by Football News after posting 61 receptions for 797 yards and 14 TDs, most ever by a Commodore. Later that season, Matthews was also named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club.

Matthews also earned First Team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press and United Press International in 1982.

Matthews was drafted and played three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons.

PRESTON BROWN

BACK, 1979

Brown, a product of Nashville, was named Third Team All-America as a senior after posting career receiving marks in 1979. He topped all league receivers with 52 catches, good for 786 yards and three touchdowns during the season.

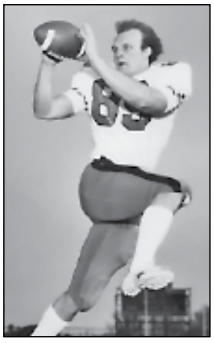

Brown's season was topped by three 100-yard receiving games, including a 175-yard output versus Ole Miss.

Brown also was a dynamic returner for the Commodores. He remains sixth on team's all-time leaders for kickoff returns and fifth in punt returns.

Brown also is tied for second all-time with three returns for touchdowns. His 100-yard kickoff return against Ole Miss in 1977 remains the longest in Commodore history.

He played three seasons for the New England Patriots and one year each for the New York Jets and Cleveland Browns.

BARRY BURTON

TIGHT END, 1974

As a junior in 1974, the Nashville native and Hillsboro High graduate helped the Commodores to a 7-4 regular season record and berth in the 1974 Peach Bown.

Following the season, he was named First Team All-America by Football News. He was also a First Team All-SEC pick that year.

Burton was a genuine triple-threat. In addition to receiving, he also ran the end-around, and handled punting duties. In 1974, Burton caught 22 passes for 378 yards and three touchdowns; ran 31 times for 307 yards and a score; and punted 54 times for a 40.2-yard average.

As a senior, Burton came back to catch a career-high 31 passes and two touchdowns. He topped the Commodores in receptions as a senior.

As a punter, Burton has two of the longest efforts in team: a 79-yarder versus Georgia in 1973 and a 78-yarder versus Kentucky in 1975.

BOB ASHER

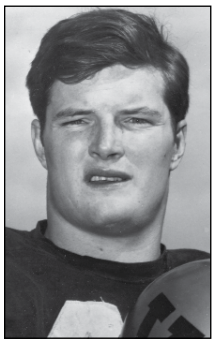

OFF. TACKLE, 1969

Virginia native Asher started every game of his three-year varsity Vanderbilt career, concluding with the Associated Press and NEA naming him to the First Team All-American squad at tackle.

Asher was known as an impenetrable pass blocker, regarded by observers as one of the top blocking tackles in school history. He also earned First Team All-SEC and All-South honors as a junior.

Following his college career, Asher played in the College All-Star Game, the Senior Bowl, the North-South Shrine Game and the Canadian American Bowl.

In 1970, he was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys. One of his teammates with the Cowboys was a former Vanderbilt teammate, defensive lineman Pat Toomay. Together, they played key roles in the Cowboy's 1971 squad that eventually won the Super Bowl.

CHIP HEALY

LINEBACKER, 1968

A linebacker from Chattanooga, Healy's All-America recognition as a defensive standout set the stage for numerous linebackers to follow in later years.

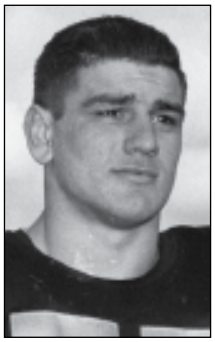

In 1968, Healy was named First Team All-American by the Central Press and Second Team All-American by The Sporting News.

Healy was also selected as a First Team All-SEC player as a sophomore.

Healy played superb defense as a junior after hurting his knee the previous spring. As a senior, Healy topped the team in tackles. He also posted six interceptions in his career.

Selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1968 draft, Healy played two seasons in the NFL.

GEORGE DIEDERICH

GUARD, 1958

Known to his teammates as "LuLu", Deiderich was a two-way line standout for the Commodores, culminating a Vanderbilt career by earning First Team All-America honors by Associated Press, the nation's coaches, Look Magazine, and the Football Writers Association of America.

He was also named First Team All-SEC in 1957 and 1958.

Deiderich played both offensive and defensive guard, though he specialized as a defensive lineman.

After his senior season, Deiderich represented the Commodores at the Senior Bowl. Drafted in the 23th round of the NFL Draft by the Rams, Deiderich decided to take his football talents north of the border. He played two season for the CFL's Montreal Alouettes.

CHARLEY HORTON

RUNNING BACK, 1955

Horton was named Third Team All-America by INS following a superb 1955 season in which he established a then-school mark of 12 touchdowns.

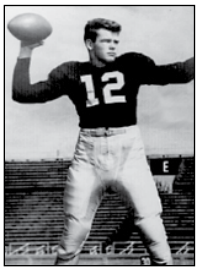

Horton's outstanding play at halfback propelled the Commodores to an 8-3 season and their first ever bowl game – a 25-13 win over No. 8 Auburn in the Gator Bowl.

Horton had a knack for getting the Commodores on the scoreboard, as he scored the first touchdown in seven of the 10 regular season contests in the 1955 season.

Though selected 11th overall by the Rams in the 1956 draft, Horton joined the military. After completing his service, Horton played in 1959 season with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts.

VANDERBILT ALL-AMERICANS

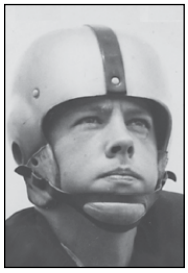

BILL WADE
QUARTERBACK, 1951

A Nashville legend, Wade was the 1951 SEC Player of the Year and a Second Team All-America by the AP, after completing 111 passes for 1,609 yards and 13 TDs.

He remains one of the team's most celebrated players. He remains the lone Vanderbilt player selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft – by the Los Angeles in 1952. He had a 14-year career with the Rams and Chicago, and led the Bears to the 1963 NFL title, rushing for two scores in a win over New York.

BOB WERCKLE
TACKLE, 1951

A New Jersey native, Werckle overcame injuries to become one of the team's finest linemen. In 1951, he was named as a Second Team All-America by INS and the AP.

By 1949, he was given little chance to succeed after twice breaking a leg in practice. By 1950, the injury jinx was beaten, with Werckle playing more minutes than any teammate. Across the South, Werckle was known for his blocking and tackling abilities.

In 1951, Werckle earned First Team All-SEC recognition after serving as a captain.

Werckle was selected in the NFL Draft by Detroit.

BUCKY CURTIS
RECEIVER, 1950

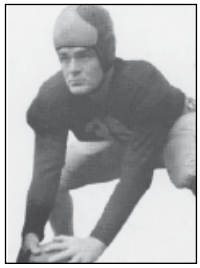

One of the team's first downfield receiving threats, Curtis was selected First Team All-American by the Football Writers, INS and Look Magazine in 1950.

He ranked among the nation's best receiving yardage in 1950. As a senior, Curtis led the team to a 7-4 record, and set a SEC mark with 791 receiving yards.

After his senior season, Curtis was named MVP of the Senior Bowl, and played in the College All-Star Game. He was selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by Cleveland.

He went on to serve four years in the Navy. Eventually, he played with Toronto of the CFL. In 1975, he received a Silver Anniversary Award by the NCAA.

BOB GUDE
CENTER, 1941

Gude was named to the Fox-Movietone All-America team in 1941.

CARL HINKLE
CENTER, 1937

Hinkle continued the Commodore tradition of quality centers. The 1937 captain was named First Team All-America by the Associated Press, Grantland Rice, and Liberty.

He was an ironman, playing every minute in seven games in 1937. Named the SEC's Most Valuable Player, Hinkle guided the squad within inches of the Rose Bowl.

Though selected by the Philadelphia in the 11th round of the 1938 NFL Draft, Hickle decided on another career path. After graduating from Vanderbilt, he entered West Point and earned the highest cadet honor. He then served with distinction in World War II.

Hinkle was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959.

PETE GRACEY
CENTER, 1932

A native of nearby Franklin, Clarence "Pete" Gracey was an anchor on both the offense and and defense fronts.

In 1932, he became the last of 13 All-America players mentored by legendary Coach Dan McGugin. While the last of McGugin's prize pupils, Gracey also ushered a decade of superb Vanderbilt centers, including Carl Hinkle and Bob Gude.

In Gracey's final season, he opened holes for such backs as Dixie Roberts and Larry Burton as a center. A possible unde-feated season ended in the finale when the 'Dores fell to Alabama.

A versatile athlete, he also lettered in baseball and basketball.

JOHN BROWN
GUARD, 1929

A senior captain, John Neil Brown was named First Team All-America by the nation's coaches. He also was a three-time All-Conference recipient.

Brown was a key contributor on the line for the 1926 Commodores. He missed 1927, only to return as a standout in 1928-29. One of his best defensive games came against Minnesota and legend Bronko Nagurski.

Brown also was a standout rightfielder on the baseball team.

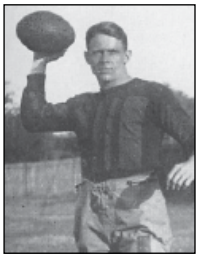

DICK ABERNATHY
END, 1928

Abernathy earned All-America honors as an end in 1928, helping the 'Dores to an 8-2 record.

Abernathy had a key 38-yard touchdown catch that enabled the Commodores to defeat visiting Colgate, 12-7.

A week later in Dallas, Abernathy blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone which would stand up to be the winning score in the Commodores' 13-12 win over Texas.

BILL SPEARS
QUARTERBACK, 1927

One of the team's top offensive players ever, Spears was a three-year starter at quarterback for some of McGugin's best Vanderbilt teams.

In 1927, he was selected First Team All-America by NEA and Associated Press.

In 1927, he guided the squad to an 8-1-2 record, including a win over Tulane when noted writer Blinkey Horn described Spears as "All-World" after a two-touchdown effort.

He was a significant contributor to Vanderbilt, serving on the Board of Trust from 1954 until his death in 1992.

HENRY WAKEFIELD
END, 1924

Known as "Hek," Wakefield was a two-way standout for McGugin's Commodores.

In 1924 was named First Team All-America by INS, Lawrence Perry, Outing and Billy Evans publications.

In 1922, Wakefield helped the 'Dores to a 8-0-1 campaign. He was a starter in the inaugural 0-0 game in Dudley Field against Michigan.

Wakefield starred on teams that went 26-5-4.

As injuries mounted in 1924, Wakefield was named captain. He quickly proved worthy of the honor, scoring twice in a win over Auburn, then defeating Georgia Tech with a 37-yard drop-kick field goal.

In the finale, he played every minute in a 16-0 win over Minnesota.

LYNN BOMAR
END, 1923

Bomar was named All-America by Walter Camp.

Known to fans as the "Blonde Bear," Bomar helped Vanderbilt to "the Championship of the South."

His athletic career ended in 1924 when he suffered a brain hemorrhage following a blow to the chin. Though temporarily in danger, he fully recovered and enjoyed a distinguished law enforcement career.

He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1956.

JOSH CODY
TACKLE, 1915-16, 1919

Cody is arguably the most decorated player in Vanderbilt history.

Known as a punishing blocker, Cody is the only Commodore ever to earn All-America honors in three different seasons. The Football Writers Association honored Cody after the 1915, 1916 and 1919 seasons by the Football Writers Association.

Cody was the main ingredient of a powerful offensive line that propelled Vanderbilt to 23 wins in 25 games. He sparked the McGugin's famous "point-a-minute" offense of 1915.

Cody was inducted into the National College Football Hall of Fame in 1970.

IRBY "RABBIT" CURRY
BACK, 1916

A legend in Vanderbilt history, Curry was superb on and off the field.

Small in stature, Curry's display of talent, heart and leadership and heart was cherished by Vanderbilt followers.

Selected as a Third Team All-America and All-Southern Conference pick in 1916, Curry was a field general at quarterback who displayed a knack for brilliant runs. The Texan guided the team to a 7-1-1 record in 1916 and directed the famous "Point-A-Minute" squad of 1915.

He was a gentleman and scholar athlete. Junior class president, Curry was elected as the school's prestigious Bachelor of Ugliness by the student body.

Unfortunately, Curry's life was cut short. Just two years after graduating, Curry died when his plane was shot down over France in WWI.

LEWIS HARDAGE
BACK, 1912

After transferring from Auburn to enter Dental School, Hardage was part of what observers called the Commodores' "fastest backfield."

Hardage starred on tremendous squads. As captain in 1911-12, he helped Vanderbilt go 16-2-1 overall, and their opponents 578-27.

Hardage earned Third Team All-America and All-Southern Conference recognition as a senior.

Hardage dominated several games in 1912, scoring 95 points for the squad that was the nation's top scoring team.

He also was a chief factor in a pair of early season blowouts, 105-0 over Bethel and 100-0 against Maryville. The total against Bethel remains a team record.

RAY MORRISON
QUARTERBACK, 1911

When Ray Morrison ended his career in 1911, Coach McGugin called him "the best I ever saw."

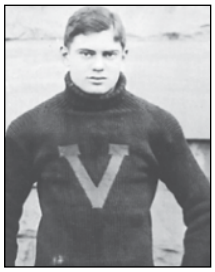

More than two decades later, a panel of local sportswriters tabbed Morrison as the 'Dores' top QB through its first 50 years.

An All-America in 1911, the slightly-built Morrison was a talented player and leader. In two years as a starter, Morrison guided the team to a 16-1-1 – the lone loss coming at powerful Michigan 9-8.

While McGugin served in the military during 1918, he was the team's interim coach. When McGugin retired in 1934, Morrison was his handpicked successor.

He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

W.E. METZER
GUARD, 1910

Nicknamed "Frog," Metzger was Dan McGugin's first great lineman, earning Third Team All-America recognition in 1910.

In 1909, Metzger was a sensation in the backfield, rushing for four scores to single-handedly beat Mercer 28-0, before suffering a leg fracture.

In 1910, he moved to the line, anchoring a unit that helped produce a 8-0-1 record. On defense, he assisted a unit that allowed only eight points.

Metzger shared the spotlight with QB Ray Morrison in 1911. He played brilliantly, helping the Commodores to a 8-1 record.

OWSLEY MANIER
BACK, 1906

Joining the team in Dan McGugin's first year on campus, Manier was a three-year starter and a big reason why Vanderbilt became an instant Southern power under McGugin.

As the team's top fullback, Manier was All-Southern and a Third Team All-America in 1906, becoming the first Commodore so honored.

He was an offensive machine for McGugin's 1906 squad, scoring three times against Kentucky and on five occasions in 78-0 victory over Alabama.

AUBURN 13

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Still hurting from a dislocated shoulder suffered in the Tennessee game, quarterback Don Orr scored two touchdowns and set up another as the Commodores defeated No. 8-ranked Auburn in the 11th Gator Bowl 25-13.

Vanderbilt's first score was set up when Orr recovered an Auburn fumble. Eight plays later, Joe Stephenson ran seven yards for the VU touchdown.

Auburn answered on a 38-yard TD pass from Howell Tubbs to Rob James in the second quarter, but the rest of the game belonged to the Black and Gold. On Vanderbilt's following possession, Orr carried the ball 44 yards to the Tigers' 28. He then passed to Joe Scales, who advanced to the Auburn 4-yard line. On the next play, Orr carried the ball over the line after a fake to fullback Phil King to give Vanderbilt a 13-7 lead at the half.

At the opening of the third quarter, Vanderbilt guard Sonny Tatum recovered an Auburn fumble, and the Commodores marched quickly into scoring position as Orr crossed the goal line for his second touchdown of the day to make the score 19-7. Both teams scored once more in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt's score came on a one-yard run off right tackle by Charley Horton.

Vanderbilt coach Art Guepe cleared his bench in the final minutes, using 38 of the 39 men dressed for the game. Capitalizing on Auburn's five fumbles and using an ailing quarterback, the Commodores captured its first bowl appearance.

TEXAS TECH 6
VANDERBILT 6

ATLANTA, Ga. – The 1974 Peach Bowl was a game with no champion but two winners, the Commodores and Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Despite the effective rushing of Red Raider tailback Larry Isaac and fullback Cliff Hoskins, the Commodore defense held Texas Tech without points in the first half and entered halftime with a 3-0 lead after Mark Adams kicked a 31-yard field goal with 10 minutes remaining.

Neither team was able to muster much offense in the third quarter, though Texas Tech did tie the score at 3-3 after a drive stalled at the Vanderbilt 16-yard line.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Commodores' freshman lineman Dennis Harrison stopped a deep Texas Tech threat by blocking a Red Raider field goal attempt. The Tech drive started following one of two Vanderbilt turnovers during the game.

After the blocked field goal, the Commodores responded with a possession that ended with Adams' second field goal of the day, a 26-yarder that resulted in a 6-3 Vanderbilt margin. However, Texas Tech tied the game at the 2:00 mark on a 35-yard field goal by Brian Hall. On its final drive, Vanderbilt could not move into scoring range.

The Commodore offense struggled much of the day, with quarterback David Lee hitting just five of 14 attempts. Running back Jamie O'Rourke had 76 rushing yards.

The limited offensive production from both teams resulted in numerous defensive and scoring records being set in the game.

VANDERBILT 28
AIR FORCE 36

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Without question, the Hall of Fame Bowl was one of college football's most exciting 1982 postseason games.

The game matched one of the nation's most potent aerial attacks featuring Vanderbilt All-SEC quarterback Whit Taylor and one of America's most devastating rushing attacks in the Falcons' vaunted option attack.

Offensively, this game lived up to the hype as 33 Hall of Fame records were broken and another eight were tied in Legion Field. Unfortunately for the Commodores, Air Force walked away the winner 36-28 after a remarkable fourth quarter comeback.

For three quarters, Whit Taylor was unstoppable. Connecting with a variety of wide receivers and running backs, Taylor's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a four-yarder to Norman Jordan, gave the Commodores a 28-17 margin entering the fourth quarter. Down by double digits, the Air Force Academy scored rushing touchdowns on three consecutive possessions to take the victory.

Taylor was named the Most Valuable Player, after completing a team-record 38 passes of 51 attempts for 452 yards, which remains as the second highest single-game passing yardage total in Vanderbilt history. Jordan's performance arguably was more remarkable. Though rushing for just four yards, Jordan hauled in 20 receptions for 173 yards and three touchdowns, breaking five Hall of Fame Bowl records.

BOSTON COLLEGE 14
VANDERBILT 16

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in exactly 53 years, with Bryant Hahnfeldt kicking a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left for a 16-14 win over #24 Boston College in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl held on New Year's Eve in Nashville's LP Field.

The Commodores hadn't played in a bowl since 1982 – the SEC's longest drought. The victory gave Vanderbilt (7-6) its first winning season since that season. This is just the fourth time in the past 50 years that Vanderbilt has won seven games in a season.

Hahnfeldt, a Nashville product playing his final game as a Commodore, matched a single-game career high with the three field goals. The Commodores also forced two interceptions while allowing none.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Vanderbilt, founded 138 years ago by a $1 million gift by Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, is one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning, a mid-size, private comprehensive research university that emphasizes undergraduate learning and living experiences.

Members of the undergraduate student body, including Commodore student-athletes, are outstanding academic achievers and active participants in Vanderbilt's 350-plus extracurricular organizations. They also compose the most diverse enrollment ever at Vanderbilt as the university continues to attract students from many ethnic, cultural, socio-economic, geographic and religious backgrounds.

Since its inception, the university has taken great pride in the quality of education – and quality of life – its students enjoy. Each of the four undergraduate colleges – College of Arts and Science, School of Engineering, Blair School of Music and Peabody College – attracts students with varying goals and dreams. Whichever school they enroll in, students receive a valuable and versatile education and are an integral part of the University's community of scholars.

At Vanderbilt, professors know their students' names and take an interest in students' ideas. Recognized globally for their research and scholarship prowess, faculty members believe in the importance of balancing professional pursuits with classroom instruction, and they value their relationships with students. Some of the world's leading scholars teach at Vanderbilt, helping students develop an academic program that meets individual objectives, and they encourage students to enhance primary areas of study by choosing among hundreds of elective courses, course-related internships, off-campus study and accelerated degree programs.

Through the Honor Code, student-directed service opportunities and campus programs, Vanderbilt students also consider moral and ethical issues and put the many facets of their lives into a personal framework of values.

At Vanderbilt, the big material resources are in place – beautiful grounds and buildings, well-equipped classrooms and labs, various options for housing and ample athletic and recreational facilities. Off campus, undergraduates have all the urban conveniences offered by one of America's top cities, Nashville. The city possesses a rare blend of big-city amenities and small-town charm.

Vanderbilt University Facts

- ★ Undergraduate enrollment of 6,879
- ★ Full-time faculty of 3,309
- ★ 22,500 university employees
- ★ Campus property includes 330 acres located west of downtown Nashville
- ★ More than 120,000 living alumni; 20,400 reside in Nashville

Though located within walking distance of downtown activities, the quality of Vanderbilt life is reflected in much smaller, less public ways – running into friends while walking on campus, researching papers or grabbing a late-night snack, choosing between a lecture or athletic event, or having dinner at a professor's home.

The University's student body has been coeducational since 1875. The original campus, which opened on 75 acres, witnessed a large expansion in 1979 when Vanderbilt merged with neighboring George Peabody College for Teachers.

THE INGRAM COMMONS: RARE LIVING EXPERIENCE FOR STUDENTS

The Martha Rivers Ingram Commons ranks among the finest on-campus living and learning experiences on the American higher education landscape.

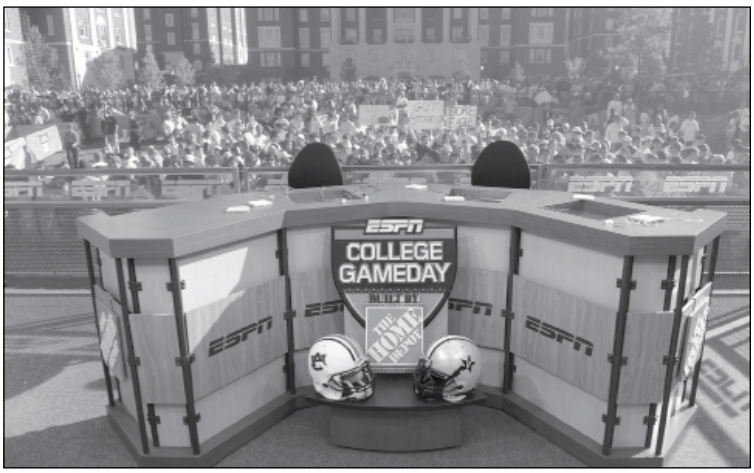

Consisting of 10 modern residential "houses" and a full-service Commons Center, the community serves as home to all first-year Vanderbilt undergraduates. Christened four years ago, The Ingram Commons is located in the southeast quadrant of Vanderbilt, on its Peabody campus.

The Ingram Commons also was showcased nearly three years ago when ESPN selected the site as its location for the popular College Football GameDay broadcast prior to airing the Vanderbilt's victory over Auburn on campus.

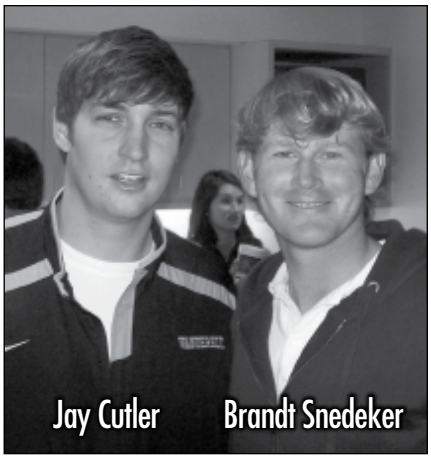

An experienced staff of student life professionals and undergraduate and graduate resident advisers assures the health, well-being, and safety of each member of The Ingram Commons community. Residents of each house are mentored by a member of the university faculty.

The showpiece Commons Center, a modern dining and activity hub surrounded by the residential houses, features a diverse selection of great food in the Eatery dining hall. The climate-controlled facility brings plenty of variety, ranging from the place to study with friends to hosting an occasional musical performance. The Commons Cafe also brings students, faculty and staff together for delicious food and social interaction.

Bringing scholars, leaders, teachers and students together to create a vibrant intellectual community is at the heart of The Ingram Commons mission.

NOTABLE VANDERBILT ALUMNI

Many of Vanderbilt's alumni are leaders in their chosen fields, including sports, business, engineering, science and medicine, public service, arts and entertainment, and education.

In sports, our alums are more abundant than ever: Buster Olney is ESPN's top baseball analyst; David Price was the American League starting pitcher in the 2010 MLB All-Star game; Brandt Snedeker won his second PGA Tour event in April and will contend for the Federal Express Cup this summer; Skip Bayless is co-host of an ESPN morning debate show; Kentuckian Arthur Hancock is a leading breeder of Kentucky Derby-caliber thoroughbreds; ; and four former Commodores started for the Chicago Bears that played in the 2011 NFC Championship Game.

From the halls of Congress, Lamar Alexander is one of the nation's most effective leaders as Tennessee's senior senator. Rear Admiral Nora Tyson commands America's newest aircraft carrier. Suspense enthusiasts gobble up James Patterson's newest thriller. Economist and Novel Peace Prize recipient Muhammad Yunus is taking his community-based Grameen Bank concept across the globe from Bangladesh. And in business and technology, Dr. Thomas Frist Jr., Cal Turner Jr., John Rich, Bill Samuels Jr., and John Ingram are just a few of many alums regarded as leaders of industry and commerce.

CHANCELLOR NICK ZEPPOS

Chancellor Nicholas S. Zeppos was raised in Milwaukee, where he spent many an afternoon watching the great Hank Aaron of the Braves slug home runs in the old County Stadium.

Named Vanderbilt's eighth chancellor in 2008, Zeppos has taken a keen interest in athletics at Vanderbilt during his more than two decades at the university.

"I don't do the operations," Zeppos said. "I don't call the plays, I don't throw the passes. I see my job as simply trying to do whatever I can to support all of the talented people who do these things."

This support has included the endorsement of an athletics capital improvement plan expected to surpass $50 million, which orchestrates efforts to improve the student experience for athletes and assists with recruiting.

"One thing I consider the ultimate compliment is when a coach calls me and says, 'I've got a couple of recruits here. Could you meet them?'" Zeppos added.

A distinguished legal scholar, teacher and executive, Zeppos served from 2002 to February 2008 as Vanderbilt's chief academic officer, overseeing the university's undergraduate, graduate and professional education programs and research in liberal arts and sciences, engineering, music, education, business, law, and divinity. As provost and vice chancellor, he chaired Vanderbilt's budgeting and capital planning council, as well as oversaw the dean of students and dean of admissions.

Zeppos has led a number of important initiatives at Vanderbilt, including the planning process for The Commons, a landmark transformation of the first-year experience; the Strategic Academic Planning Group; innovative efforts in undergraduate admissions and financial aid; and the development of new programs in Jewish studies, law and economics, and genetics, among others. Much of Vanderbilt's progress over the past decade has been fueled by the Shape the Future fundraising campaign, which Zeppos led to a successful conclusion in 2011, having raised more than $1.9 billion.

To further strengthen Vanderbilt's commitment to admitting undergraduates on the basis of accomplishment and achievement, rather than their ability to pay, in 2009, Zeppos significantly expanded the financial aid program. By replacing undergraduate need-based loans with grant and scholarship assistance, the university opened its doors wider to highly talented and qualified students of all economic, cultural and geographical backgrounds. The expanded aid program is funded by a combination of strategic budget allocations and the university's Opportunity Vanderbilt initiative, which has generated more than $108 million in endowment support.

Zeppos was recognized with five teaching awards at the law school before serving as an associate dean, associate provost, and provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs. He also served as interim chancellor for eight months prior to being formally appointed as Vanderbilt's eighth chancellor on March 1, 2008. He is a member of the 2010-11 executive committee of the Southeastern Conference.

In the Nashville community, Zeppos serves on the boards of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, the Nashville Alliance for Public Education, and the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board.

From 1982 to 1987, Zeppos practiced law in Washington, D.C., at the United States Department of Justice and at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, where he specialized in appellate litigation involving complex regulatory, statutory and constitutional matters.

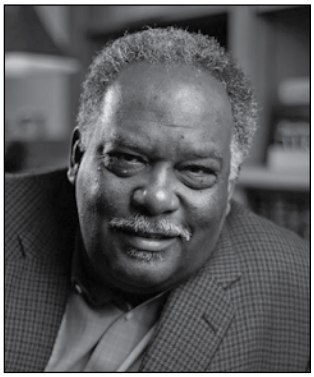

Zeppos is a 1979 magna cum laude graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he served as editor in chief of the Wisconsin Law Review and was selected as the outstanding graduate of his class. He studied history during his undergraduate years at the university, where he was a 1976 Phi Beta Kappa graduate.

He is married to Lydia A. Howarth, a graduate of the University of Chicago and Lawrence University, who is an editor. They have two sons, Benjamin and Nicholas.

VICE CHANCELLOR DAVID WILLIAMS II

Vice Chancellor of University Affairs and Athletics David Williams II guides the Vanderbilt Athletics program.

Last December, Williams demonstrated his leadership by orchestrating the thorough search that led to Maryland associate head coach James Franklin becoming Vanderbilt's 27th head football coach.

Whether supporting coaches and student-athletes, presiding over important athletic activities, or debating strategic policy changes in Commodore athletics, Williams plays a key leadership role in the administration of Vanderbilt Athletics.

Since 2003, Williams has guided Vanderbilt Athletics into a bold new direction. Under Williams, the Vanderbilt program has had many successes on and off the field of competition. Williams has directed an initiative to more fully integrate Commodore athletics into the total Vanderbilt student life experience.

Today, Williams has firmly placed his stamp on the program, and has positioned Vanderbilt Athletics among the most innovative in the nation. The cumulative grade point for Vanderbilt student-athletes has continued to improve through Williams' tenure, reaching its highest level in more than two decades. Competitive success, such as a trip to the College World Series and NCAA postseason appearances for nine varsity sports in 2011, is becoming an expectation on campus. Individual accomplishment has been increasing, with 11 Vanderbilt athletes being selected in the first round of their respective professional sports in the last seven years.

Williams has overseen the recruitment and hiring of eight outstanding head coaches. Williams also has addressed numerous facility upgrades, including an extensive refurbishing of Vanderbilt Stadium and football locker rooms, expansion of Hawkins Field, addition of new tennis courts and amenities at Brownlee O. Currey Center, and renovations in Memorial Gym. He has also started a program to allow more overseas travel and study for Commodore teams and student-athletes.

Athletics is but a small part of Williams' influential Vanderbilt role. Williams also serves as General Counsel directing a staff of 12 attorneys and Secretary of Vanderbilt and its nationally recognized Medical Center. In addition, he oversees the Office of Risk Management, Compliance and Conflict of Interest functions, and the operations of the Vanderbilt University Board of Trust.

Williams' campus activities also include a tenured full professorship at the School of Law, lecturing on Tax Law, Sports Law and Education Law. He has taught a class on Law and Higher Education at Peabody College, and occasion, courses in the undergraduate curriculum.

Williams has reached outside of the Vanderbilt community in the area of intercollegiate sports. Williams served as a member of the SEC team that negotiated the recent SEC/ESPN/CBS contract, and is beginning his second year of a three-year term on the NCAA Division I Academic Cabinet.

He also serves as Chairman of the NCAA Infraction Appeals Committee.

Williams was named Vice Chancellor, General Counsel and Secretary of Vanderbilt in 2000. His role moved toward administration of Vanderbilt student affairs and athletics in 2002.

Williams came to Vanderbilt after serving in numerous administrative roles at Ohio State over a 14-year period. When he accepted the Vanderbilt role, Williams was Vice President of Student and Urban/Community Affairs and Professor of Law at Ohio State.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Williams received a Bachelor of Science in Social Science and Master of Arts in Education from Northern Michigan University where he was a member of the track team. He also earned a Master of Business Administration and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Detroit, and an L.L.M. in taxation from New York University.

Before entering law school, Williams spent 10 years as a teacher and coach in the Detroit public school system.

Williams is active in the Nashville area community, serving as an executive member and director with several organizations. He is treasurer and finance committee chair of both the Nashville Symphony Board of Directors and Nashville Public Television. Some of Williams' other board memberships include the Nashville Sports Council, Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, Adventure Science Center, 100 Black Men of Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Rotary and Special Olympics Tennessee.

Williams also supports youth athletic programs in the Nashville community.

Professionally, Williams is an active member of the American Corporate Counsel Association, the National Association of College and University Attorneys and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Continuing Legal Education committee of both the Nashville Bar Association and the NACUA. As a member of ABA's Section of Business Law, Williams has served as a member of the Corporate Counsel Committee. He held terms on two prestigious legal committees – the ABA Standing Committee on Public Education and the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admissions Standards Review Committee.

He recently completed consecutive three-year terms as a member of the Nashville branch of the Atlanta Federal Reserve Board.

Williams also is a member of the American Law Institute, and a past member of the Harry Phillips Inn of Court. He has served on a number of ABA Accreditation site visits of law schools and has completed a term on the Membership Review Committee of the American Association of Law Schools. Williams has written, lectured and participated in many seminars on topics of tax law, sports law, law and education, and legal history. Williams recently completed a three-year term on the board of directors for the National Association for Colleges and University Attorneys. He is serving a second term on Nashville Mayor Karl Dean's Procurement Standards Board.

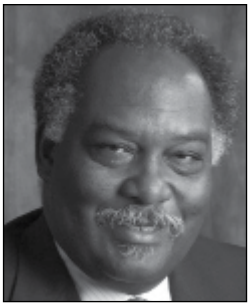

Williams has taught at the law schools of the University of Detroit, Capital University, the Ohio State University and Vanderbilt, and directed the Ohio State University Law Program in Oxford, England in 1992 and 1995. He was elected outstanding law professor at both the University of Detroit and Ohio State.

Williams and his wife, Gail, have two children: Samantha, who is a varsity swimmer and rising senior at Brown University, and Nicholas, who is an 11th grader at University School of Nashville and competes in cross country, basketball, track and soccer. His wife serves as the Associate Director of Community Relations at Vanderbilt, is president of the University School of Nashville Board of Trustees, and is the immediate past chair of the Metro Transit Authority. Two older children: Erika, who is a grade school teacher in Detroit, is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University; and David Williams III, a two-time graduate of Bowling Green State, is an academic counselor at Michigan State.

COACH FRANKLIN'S POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Franklin's post-game press conference is held immediately after he addresses the team. Only properly credentialled working media will be allowed into the conference.

Media wishing to participate in postgame interviews should meet at the elevator with 5:00 left in the game to be escorted to the south end zone area of the field.

The postgame press conference and interviews are held in Room 153 of McGugin Athletic Center. To attend, cross Jess Neely Drive and enter McGugin Center at the entrance marked "Press Conference Area." Once inside McGugin, enter the media room through either of the first two doors on your right.

PLAYER POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

The Vanderbilt Player Locker Room is closed to media. Up to five student-athletes will be made available for post-game interviews. These interviews will be conducted in the same room as Coach Franklin's post-game remarks. The players will enter this area when Franklin concludes with his press conference.

During Commodore home games, the visiting team interview room is located in the south endzone of the stadium. The entrance is located in the stadium tunnel. Vanderbilt athletic communications personnel will make every effort to provide quickie stats to the media.

WIRELESS IN PRESS BOX

The press box is equipped with wireless internet access for the working press. The only area to transmit for working photographers is in the press box. TV production crews can order phone lines in advance. To order, call the following phone number: (615) 343-2012.

SATELLITE FEEDS

Vanderbilt does not offer satellite feeds and teleconferencing of the Monday press gathering with Caldwell. Vanderbilt will provide a postgame highlight feed for any non-televised SEC game. Transmission info will be provided.

VANDERBILT'S RADIO NETWORK CREW

A Nashville native, Fisher enters his 14th season as the team's play-by-play announcer. He handles similar duties for Vanderbilt men's basketball and baseball. Fisher also serves as Vanderbilt Athletics' Director of Broadcasting.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Fisher was a television sports anchor in the Nashville market from 1987-96, with stints at WSMV-4 and WKRN-2. He also worked two years in public relations.

Gromos serves as Manager of Business Development for Turner Universal. He earned a mechanical engineering degree from Vanderbilt in 1990.

Ingram enters his 10th season providing sideline commentary. A respected member of the Nashville radio market, Ingram co-hosts a popular morning show on 104.5.

RADIO FLAGSHIP FOR VANDERBILT: NASHVILLE'S 97.1 CLASSIC HITS

Officials from Vanderbilt and WRQQ FM 97.1 announced the flagship agreement in March 2010. This marks the second straight season that 97.1 will air Vanderbilt games.

Weekly call-in shows with Commodore head coaches James Franklin and Kevin Stallings also air on 97.1 Classic Hits, as well as the daily Commodore Update with play-by-play announcer Joe Fisher.

VANDERBILT STADIUM

VANDERBILT STADIUM: HOME VENUE SINCE 1981

All of the Commodores' home games will be played in Vanderbilt Stadium, their on-campus venue for the last 30 years.

The stadium, with a capacity of 39,773, was opened in 1981 on the same site as Dudley Field, which stood at the corner of Jess Neely Drive and Natchez Trace since 1922. Though the old stadium was demolished prior to the 1981 project, the Commodores continue to play on the original Dudley Field surface.

In recent years, the stadium has been given an exterior renovation. An expansion concourse, two gate entrances and a plaza outside Gate 2 were introduced in 2009, one year after crews began an exterior paint and brick effort to unity the three largest athletic facilities on campus: Vanderbilt Stadium, Hawkins Field and Memorial Gymnasium.
