News & Notes

LETTING IT FLY

The Bisons have been letting it fly from deep so far this season, averaging 23.1 attempts from three point land through their first 10 games. They have averaged 7.5 makes in those games which puts them fourth in the ASUN in that category behind North Alabama, FGCU, and Eastern Kentucky in non-conference competition. They have converted on 32.5 percent of those attempts good for fifth in the conference.

SORRENTINO EFFECT

Through 10 games this season Aleah Sorrentino has caused problems for opposing defenses. The transfer from the University of Mississippi leads the team and is currently third in the ASUN in scoring at 15.6 points per contest. She also ranks seventh in the conference in rebounds with 7.8 board for game.

HOLCOMB'S SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Jalyn Holcomb has gotten off to a strong start to her senior campaign. Holcomb averaged 10.2 point per game a year ago and was the leading return from a season ago. She has been a dynamic scorer for the Bisons thus far averaging 15.4 points per game which ranks fourth in the ASUN and second on the team behind Sorrentino. She has particularly done her damage from the three point line as she's knocked down 20 three pointers which is tied for the most on the team. Earlier in the season she tied her career high with 28 points versus Northern Kentucky.

THE ROTATION

The Bisons rotate 7-9 players each game with an 11-man roster. Freshman guard Molly Heard and sophomore guard Clairia McGowan are typically the first two players off the bench and provided solid production for their squad. McGowan puts in 8.6 points per contest while Heard averages 7.5 points per game. McGowan sees the floor 25.7 minutes a game which is fifth on the team.

NEWCOMERS & NEW ROLES

This year's roster is full of newcomers that are playing in their first season with the Herd. The roster is combined of four freshman and two transfer that continue to play significant minutes. With new faces comes new roles as the team continues to progress and gel into their roles as the season moves on.

WEEKLY AWARDS

Two Bisons have earned weekly ASUN awards this season. Senior Jalyn Holcomb was named ASUN Player of the Week for her performance at the beginning of the season where she averaged 23 points per contest while shooting 47.1 percent from deep in the first three ball games. In a matchup with Northern Kentucky, Holcomb tied her career-high with 28 points in the loss and then followed that act with a 25 points outing to earn conference recognition. Aleah Sorrentino was named ASUN Newcomer of the Week for her play this past weekend. She averaged a team-best 12.7 points per game to go along with 7.7 rebounds to help the Bisons go 2-1 during that week with wins against Western Kentucky and Oakwood. Sorrentino and Holcomb are the two leading scores on this year's squad thus far and both rank in the top four in points per game in the conference.

MUSIC CITY MATCHUP

The Bisons and Commodores have squared off six times in their history with the Commodores taking each of the previous meetings. The first matchup took place on March 20, 2004 where Vanderbilt defeated Lipscomb at Memorial Gymnasium 76-45. This battle marks Coach Lauren Sumski's first crack at taking down the Commodores as the last meeting took place in 2017 before her tenure at Lipscomb.

20-Point Performances

Four Bisons have reached the 20-point mark so far this season. Aleah Sorrentino has notched 20 points three times this season with her highest point total being 27 against North Kentucky. Jalyn Holcomb has scored 20 or more points three times this season with her highest coming against North Kentucky where she put in 28 to tie a career high. Bella Vinson joined the 20 ball club twice this season notching her career high with 21 against Mississippi Valley State. Kamil Collier rounds out the 20 point scores as she put up an impressive 25 points and 16 rebounds the last time the Bisons were at Allen Arena against Oakwood.

Lauren Sumski

Sumski joined the Lipscomb Bisons in the spring of 2019 as the first-ever female to lead the program in the Division I era.

In her first season at the helm of the program, Sumski improved the Bisons record by three wins, doubled their ASUN win total, and led Jalyn Holcomb to earning the program's first-ever ASUN Freshman of the Year award.

Sumski came to Lipscomb after serving as head coach for the Rhodes College women's basketball team where she compiled a 35-21 overall record in her first head coaching tenure.

At the age of 27 when she was hired she became one of the youngest head coaches in the country across all Divisions.

In her first season at the helm Sumski led the Lynx to an 18-9 overall record, which was a 13-game turnaround from the previous season's 5-21 mark. It was the third largest improvement among all Division III teams in 2016-17.

In her second season she led Rhodes to 17-12 record and a Southern Athletic Association Tournament Championship. The Lynx knocked off the SAA regular season champion Millsaps in the semifinals and then took down the defending tournament champion Oglethorpe in the title game to earn Rhodes its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2015.

Sumski graduated from Rhodes in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in biology with a concentration in pre-medicine, before earning her master's degree in education with a sports administration emphasis in 2016.

Rated the 28th-best high school prospect in the nation by ESPNU Hoopsgurlz 100, Sumski committed to the University of Tennessee and played one season under the legendary Pat Summitt in 2010-11.

She played in 19 games for the SEC champions and was named to the All-SEC Academic team.

After dealing with injuries as a freshman in Knoxville, Sumski transferred back home and played her final three seasons with Rhodes where she rewrote the record books. In her final two years with the Lynx she helped lead the team to a combined 50-8 record, setting the school's record with 25 wins in each season.

Her teams won the SAA regular season and tournament titles in both seasons and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each where they picked up two first-round wins.

During her career, Sumski was a two-time WBCA All-American, a National Player of the year finalist, a SAA Player of the Year, a two-time SAA Tournament MVP, and an academic honor roll member.

Sumski led the nation in points per minute and finished second in the nation in scoring after averaging 25.6 points and 7.3 rebounds per game as a senior, where she led the Lynx to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and their first-ever DIII national ranking. In her junior campaign, she averaged 20.2 points and 8.6 rebounds.

She finished her career with 1,373 points and set the school record for points in a season (692), free throws made (180) and single season per game average.

Passing on numerous professional basketball playing opportunities, Sumski decided to pursue a career in coaching. After graduating from Rhodes, Sumski was awarded her first coaching opportunity as an assistant coach on Mark Campbell's staff at Union University in August of 2014.

Sumski was also a highly-decorated high school player at Lausanne Collegiate School in Memphis. She was named a national high school All-American, earned two state titles and was a two-time Tennessee Miss Basketball. She averaged 15.7 points, 8.6 rebounds, 6.6 assists and 5.8 steals per game for her career and posted 90 double-doubles, seven triple-doubles and one quadruple-double.

Sumski is married to her husband Chris, who served as an assistant coach on her staff at Rhodes and here at Lipscomb.
