>> Mikayla Blakes' 24 points against Queens extended her double-digit scoring streak to 55 games, which is the third-longest active streak in NCAA Division I. It also pushed her consecutive-games streak with 20-plus points to 17 games, which leads all active NCAA Division I players.

>> The Dores have won 30-straight nonconference home games dating back to the 2022-23 season. Under head coach Shea Ralph, Vanderbilt is 43-3 inside Memorial Gym against non-league teams. Overall, Vandy is 66-21 at home in six seasons under Ralph.

>> Vandy and Morehead State will play for the third time in a series that dates back to the 1982-83 season. The Commodores are 2-0 against the Eagles and 1-0 in home games. It will be the first time Vanderbilt and Morehead State tip off in 38 seasons, as the last contest took place Dec. 16, 1989, at Memorial Gym, where the Dores posted a 92-46 victory. DORE NOTES

GAME COVERAGE

Monday's contest against Morehead State streams live on SEC Network+ via the Watch ESPN app, with Alex Gould and Vanderbilt Hall of Famer Carolyn Peck on the call.

Fans can also listen to Andrew Selover call all the action locally on 94.9 The Fan and on the Vanderbilt Commodores app outside of Nashville.

50TH SEASON OF COMMODORES WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The 2026-27 campaign makes the 50th season that Vanderbilt has sponsored varsity-level women's basketball. The Commodores' first varsity season came in 1977-78 and competed in the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), the precursor to NCAA women's basketball.

Vanderbilt is 961-560 (.632) coming into Season 50. The Dores are 911-505 (.643) at the NCAA Division I level, which began in the 1981-82 season.

TOTAL TEAM EFFORT

In back-to-back games, Vanderbilt has had all 12 Commodores who played score at least one point. The Dores have had five player score 10-plus points in consecutive games to begin the 2026-27 season.

RECORD-SETTING OFFENSE

Vanderbilt has registered 100 or more points in back-to-back games to start the 2026-27 season. It is the first time in school history the Dores have opened a campaign with two consecutive 100-point games.

HIGH-OCTANE

Through two games, Vanderbilt ranks seventh in the nation in scoring at 106.0 points per game. The Commodores have scored 100-plus points in consecutive games for the first time since the 1994-95 campaign, when Vandy scored 107 points in back-to-back games against Mississippi State (Jan. 29) and DePaul (Jan. 31).

BLAKES CLIMBING UP VANDY'S ALL-TIME SCORING LIST

Mikayla Blakes enters Monday needing five points to pass Christina Foggie (1,743 points; 2011-14) for seventh on Vanderbilt's all-time scoring list. She needs 36 points to move into sixth, currently held by Carla Thomas (1,774 points; 2004-07).

HIGH EFFICIENCY

Vanderbilt ranks fifth nationally in field goal percentage at 59.2 perent, a mark that also leads the SEC. The Commodores hold the second-highest team field goal percentage for a team from a power conference in the season opener.

Vandy shot 62.5 percent field goal percentage in the season-opening win, which was the second-highest any team in the nation shot on opening day of the 2026-27 season.

BATMAN AND ROBIN BACK FOR MORE

The Nation's Best Backcourt is on full display to open the 2026-27 season opener. Junior Mikayla Blakes and Aubrey Galvan have combined to average 40.0 points and 13.0 assists per game through two contests.

Together, the guards posted a 59.6 percent field goal percentage (31-of-52), while Blakes and Galvan each had seven steals this season.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE OPENER

Sophomore Aubrey Galvan collected her third career double-double to open the 2026-27 campaign, as she had 16 points and 11 assists. Her 11 assists were tied for the most by an NCAA Division I player on Opening Day of the 2026-27 season, while she was one of six players to have 10-plus assists nationwide.

DORE NOTES

The Columbus, Ohio, native showed no signs of rust, as Greene scored a team-high 19 points off the bench and hit a team-best five 3-pointers. It was the 13th time that Greene has registered double-digit points in a reserve role.

HOME COOKING

The Commodores have won 20-consecutive games at Memorial Gym dating back to the 2024-25, which is the longest home winning streak for Vanderbilt this century.

Vandy is coming off its first undefeated season at Memorial Gym, as the Dores went a perfect 18-0 in 2025-26. The Dores are 65-21 are home under head coach Shea Ralph, and 40-9 since the start of 2023-24.

DORE NOTES

NATION'S BEST BACKCOURT RETURNS FOR ACT 2

Last season, Vanderbilt's guard combo of Mikayla Blakes and Aubrey Galvan took the nation by storm to help the Commodores reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in 17 years.

The duo were named to the 2026-27 Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy Women's College Player of the Year Watch List, making Vanderbilt one of nine schools to have multiple players named to the 50-person list.

For Blakes, it is her second time being named to the Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy Women's College Player of the Year Watch List, as she was a finalist last season. It is Galvan's first selection to any preseason player of the year watch list of her career by any publication.

Blakes, the reigning SEC Player of the Year, had a record-setting sophomore campaign in 2025-26, as she set the SEC single-season scoring record with 918 points. Her 918 points in 2025-26 also set the NCAA sophomore scoring record. She was named Anne Meyers Drysdale Shooting Guard of the Year after she averaged 30.5 points per game in SEC contests. She scored 30 or more points in 12 league games, making her the first SEC player this century to accomplish the feat.

Galvan, the reigning SEC Freshman of the Year, led all NCAA freshmen in assists (193) and assists per game (5.7). She was the only freshman to score 30 points in an SEC game with a career-high 30-point performance vs. Oklahoma. She averaged 13.5 points, 5.7 assists, 3.4 rebounds and 2.6 steals per game. Galvan ended her rookie campaign by being selected to the NCAA Fort Worth Region 1 All-Tournament team.

HIGH EXPECTATIONS

The Commodores are ranked No. 8 in The Associated Press Top 25 and No. 9 in the USA TODAY/Women's Basketball Coaches Association Preseason Poll.

Vanderbilt enters the 2026-27 campaign with a top-10 ranking in both major women's basketball polls for the first time since 2001-02, opening at No. 3 that season. It is also the first time since 2002-03 that the Dores have held a top-10 preseason ranking in either poll, as they were No. 9 in the USA TODAY Sports/WBCA Coaches Poll to begin that season.

The 2026-27 preseason rankings extend Vanderbilt's streak of consecutive appearances in the AP Top 25 and the USA TODAY/WBCA Coaches Poll to 22 polls, after the Commodores were featured in the top 25 in every poll last season. It is the longest stretch for Vandy since appearing in 34 straight polls from Feb. 11, 2008, to Jan. 4, 2019.

Vandy ended the 2025-26 season ranked No. 10 in the AP Top 25 and No. 8 in the USA TODAY/WBCA Coaches Poll after a 29-5 campaign in which the Commodores advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2008-09. It marked the first time since 2001-02 that Vanderbilt ended a season as a consensus top-10 team.

READY TO REPEAT

Mikayla Blakes was selected as the preseason SEC Player of the Year by the league's coaches and media, along with USA Today. A season ago, the 5-8 guard became the second Commodore to win SEC Player of the Year honors after becoming the first SEC player this century to average over 30 points per game in league play.

PRESEASON SEC HONORS

Mikayla Blakes, Aubrey Galvan and Mia Woolfolk earned preseason All-SEC honors. Blakes, one of five unanimous selections to the preseason All-SEC first team, picked up her third SEC Preseason Player of the Year honor ahead of the 2026-27 campaign. The Somerset, New Jersey, native also earned the distinction from the SEC media and USA TODAY Sports on Oct. 12.

Galvan joined Blakes on the preseason All-SEC first team, while Woolfolk was voted to the preseason All-SEC second team.

The Commodores were one of three schools with multiple players on the preseason first-team all-conference honors. Vandy's three total preseason All-SEC selections were second-most in the league, trailing only South Carolina's five.

ENCORE PRESENTATION FOR SHOOTING GUARD OF THE YEAR

Mikayla Blakes will seek to successfully defend her title as the nation's top shooting guard, as on Tuesday the 14-time All-American was named to the preseason watch list for the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award, part of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame's Starting 5.

Blakes highlights the 20-player preseason watch list for the nation's top honor for shooting guards. The Somerset, New Jersey, native was the 2025-26 Ann Meyers Drysdale Award recipient after she led the nation in scoring at 27.0 points per game and collected an NCAA Division I-best 13 games with 30 points or more. The guard became Vanderbilt's first Naismith Starting 5 award winner in program history. Blakes will look to become the second two-time winner of the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award, which dates back to the 2017-18 season.

DEL ROSARIO NAMED TO THE LISA LELISE AWARD WATCH LIST

Ssenior Aalyah Del Rosario was named to the Lisa Leslie Center of the Year Award preseason watch list, part of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame's Starting 5 awards. The 6-6 center was named to the preseason watch list for the center of the year for the second consecutive season.

WELCOME FREHMEN

Ralph has brought in the highest-rated freshman class of her tenure at Vanderbilt. The incoming freshmen Jhai Johnson, Olivia Jones and Sther Ubaka were ranked No. 11 by ESPN and No. 16 by 247 Sports.

Jones, out of Long Island Lutheran in New York, is consensus 5-star recruit in the 2026 class, as every major recruiting outlet has her ranked inside the top 20 nationally. The guard is the second-highest rated signee Ralph has landed at Vanderbilt and the fifth 5-star recruit to sign at Vandy under the sixth-year head coach.

Johnson, a 6-4 forward out of Oakland Tech in Oakland, California, is a 4-star recruit and a consensus top-100 recruit in the class of 2026 by every major women's basketball recruiting outlet. Scored 1,487 career points, pulled down 984 rebounds, and blocked 192 shots at the high school level. She also collected 47 double-doubles and one triple-double.

Ubaka, a 6-1 forward out of Sao Paulo, Brazil. She has been in the United States for the last two seasons, where she played at the DME Academy in Daytona, Florida. Member of Brazil's national program and played in six events since 2022. She is the first Brazilian-born player in program history.

IMPACT TRANSFERS

The reigning consensus National Coach of the Year also brought in three high-impact NCAA Division I transfers, Vernell Atamah from Northwestern State, Mia Woolfolk from Georgia and Saniyah Glenn-Bello from Harvard.

Atamah is the reigning Southland Conference Player of the Year. In 2025-

26, the 6-0 guard led the Southland in scoring at 19.2 points per game, ranked 29th nationally in scoring. She also ranked 11th nationally in 3-pointers made per game at 2.9, while her 93 made 3-point field goals were 17th-most in all of NCAA Division I last season.

Woolfolk was a starter at Georgia over the last two seasons. She earned

All-SEC freshman team honors in 2024-25 and was recently named a preseason All-SEC second team selection by the league's coaches.

Glenn-Bello comes to Music City after a four-year career at Harvard. The 6-1 defensive stalwart had her best season of her career last season, as she averaged 11.1 points. She led the team in blocks (37) and ranked second in steals (48) and third in assists (61).

30-FOR-30-FOR-30-FOR-30-FOR-30

Last season Mikayla Blakes had five-straight 30-point performances against ranked teams from Feb. 5 to Feb. 26, 2026. The Vanderbilt guard is only the second NCAA Division I player this century to have five-straight 30-point games against ranked teams in the same season, joining Iowa's Megan Gustafson (6; 2018-19).

MIKAYLA'S RECORD-SETTING 1,000 POINTS

Mikayla Blakes became the fastest Vanderbilt and SEC women's basketball player in the NCAA era to score 1,000 career points with a 28-point outing against Virginia on Dec. 3. Blakes accomplished the feat in 42 games, breaking the previous school record of 57 games held by Chantelle Anderson.

The Vanderbilt All-American is the ninth NCAA women's basketball player to score 1,000 career points in 42 games or fewer since the 1981-82 season. Overall, Blakes is the 13th women's college basketball player to reach the 1,000-point plateau in 42 games or less.

MEMORIAL GYMNASIUM

Memorial Gymnasium, the Southeastern Conference's most historic venue for college basketball, serves as the home court for the Vanderbilt Commodores. Dedicated in 1952 as a memorial to all Vanderbilt men and women who served in World War II, the arena was built as a combination gymnasium and concert hall by the late master architect Edwin Keeble. Decades later, the unique style of Memorial Gym—with its benches on the baselines, a playing court that sits above portions of the crowd and deafening acoustics—continues to make the Commodores' home a dreaded stop for opponents.

"Memorial Magic," with its capacity crowds, overflowing student section and lively pep band, have assisted in numerous Commodore victories. In the stands, fans across middle Tennessee have helped Memorial Gymnasium rank among the NCAA's top 30 attendance leaders on numerous occasions.

In all, Memorial Gym has been expanded three times. Constructed with a seating capacity of 6,583, the University saw its first need to increase seating in 1965 with the addition of two north-side balconies. Two years later, a pair of balancing balconies were erected on the south side of the gym and dubbed "The Balconies That Clyde Lee Built."

Capacity has fluctuated throughout the history of the building. It reached its highest number of 15,646 in 1969 when 4,000 seats were added in the east and west ends. When chairback seats in the end zones and suites on the north side were installed in the late 1990s capacity lowered to 14,168. Shortly thereafter, university officials removed portions of media press row on the south side in an effort to expand the student section by nearly 150 seats. Official capacity is now 14,326.

SHEA RALPH

HEAD COACH

Sixth Season
UConn • '01

Shea Ralph was named Vanderbilt women's basketball's sixth head coach on April 13, 2021. The 2026-27 campaign marks her sixth season leading the Commodores.

In just six seasons, Ralph has restored Vanderbilt to a place among the elite in women's college basketball and guided the Commodores to record-breaking achievements. In addition to recruiting elite student-athletes to play a collaborative style built on trust and accountability, she has fostered an environment that allows each individual to grow.

The seven-time NCAA champion ended the Dores' 10-year March Madness drought in her third season at the helm (2023-24), and she has now guided Vandy to three straight NCAA Tournaments (2024-26). The current March Madness streak marks Vanderbilt's longest since earning 15-straight bids from 1999-2014.

The Fayetteville, North Carolina, native and UConn graduate is 102-64 (.614) during her five seasons in the Music City. Vanderbilt has gone 74-26 (.740) over the last three seasons, which includes 30 victories over SEC teams during that time. Ralph has collected 11 wins over ranked teams at Vanderbilt, and she is the only Commodore women's basketball head coach to defeat in-state rival Tennessee three straight times.

Ralph became the first head coach in program history to be named SEC Coach of the Year, as in 2025-26 she guided the Commodores to a 29-5 season, a school-record 13-win SEC campaign, a top-five ranking and a Sweet 16 appearance.

She is the first Vandy women's basketball head coach to be named a consensus national coach of the year. Ralph was selected as the country's top head coach in 2025-26 by the Associated Press, WBCA, USBWA and Naismith Awards. Additionally, Ralph was named coach of the year by seven different national outlets. She joins Jim Foster (1992-93; WBCA) as the only Vanderbilt women's basketball head coaches to earn a national coach of the year honor.

Ralph's keen eye for talent and her holistic approach in player development have helped several players flourish to new heights during their time as Commodores.

Since arriving in Music City, Vanderbilt has had a national player of the year finalist, two players earn three All-American selections, an SEC Player of the Year, two SEC Freshman of the Year honorees and the school's first national freshman of the year recipient. Additionally, in 2025-26, the Commodores became just the fourth SEC program to have an SEC Coach of the Year, SEC Player of the Year (Mikayla Blakes) and SEC Freshman of the Year (Aubrey Galvan) in the same season.

In 2024-25, the head coach developed Mikayla Blakes and Khamil Pierre to All-American status. Blakes went on to become the program's first WBCA Tamika Catchings National Freshman of the Year award winner, in addition to being named the Dores' third SEC Freshman of the Year. A season later, Blakes was named unanimous first-team All-American and became the school's second SEC Player of the Year after leading the nation in scoring. Aubrey Galvan gave Vanderbilt its second-straight SEC Freshman of the Year honor in 2025-26.

Ralph has coached a total of three All-SEC players in Mikayla Blakes (1st – 2024-25, 2025-26), Iyana Moore (2nd -2023-24) and Caja Harbison (2nd – 2022-23) and has had five Commodores selected to the All-SEC Freshman Team. Additionally, 11 student-athletes selected to the SEC Winter Academic Honor Roll during her tenure.

Memorial Magic has returned under Ralph. The Commodores are 43-9 at Memorial Gymnasium over the last three seasons. Vanderbilt won a school-record 18 home games in 2025-26, posting the school's first undefeated campaign at Memorial Gym. Vandy has seen its attendance increase each season under Ralph, as the Commodores have ranked inside the top 35 nationally in average attendance in each of the last two seasons coming into the 2026-27 campaign.

In her fifth season at the helm in 2025-26, Ralph took a Vanderbilt team that returned just one starter from a season ago to the most successful regular season in school history and a top-10 national ranking. The Commodores went 29-5 overall and posted a school-record 27 regular-season victories. The Dores went 13-3 in SEC games, as the 13 victories set the school record for most conference wins in a season and tied for second in the SEC, matching the best conference finish in program history. The 29 overall wins are third-most in school history, only behind the school record of 30 set by the 1992-93 and 2001-02 teams.

Ralph guided Vanderbilt to a top-five ranking in both the AP Top 25 and the USA Today/WBCA coaches poll for the first time since the 2001-02 season, as the Commodores were ranked as high as No. 4 in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll and No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25. The Commodores spent seven weeks inside the top five, while Vanderbilt was ranked in the top 10 in both polls for 12 consecutive weeks to close the season. The Dores concluded the 2025-26 season ranked No. 8 in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll and No. 10 in the AP Top 25, the first time Vanderbilt has ended a season ranked inside the top 10 in both polls since 2001-02.

In her fourth season in 2024-25, Ralph guided the Commodores to a 22-11 overall record and an 8-8 mark in SEC play. She led Vanderbilt to its second straight NCAA Tournament, earning an at-large bid as the No. 7 seed in the Birmingham Region 2.

Ralph developed the nation's best backcourt during the 2025-26 season. Mikayla Blakes was named the SEC Player of the Year, while first-year point guard Aubrey Galvan was selected as SEC Freshman of the Year. Additionally, Blakes was a consensus first-team All-American and finalist for the Honda Award, Naismith Player of the Year and Wade Trophy.

Vanderbilt went 23-10 in Year 3 under Ralph's direction, as the Commodores made their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since the 2013-14 campaign.

Ralph orchestrated one of the biggest turnarounds in program history during the 2023-24 season. The 23 wins marked an 11-win improvement from the previous season, which is the second-largest win improvement from one season to the next in program history.

Vanderbilt was hit hard with a plethora of preseason injuries to begin Ralph's second season. She was able to rally the Commodores and record a second-straight double-digit win season, marking the first time in six years that Vandy has posted back-to-back double-digit win campaigns.

In her inaugural season, Ralph led Vanderbilt to its first postseason appearance since 2014. The Commodores reached the third round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT), their longest postseason run since 2013. Vanderbilt also recorded its first SEC Tournament victory in six years when it defeated Texas A&M 85-69 on March 2, 2022.

A seven-time national champion as a student-athlete or coach, Ralph arrived at Vanderbilt after spending the previous 13 seasons as an assistant coach alongside Geno Auriemma at the University of Connecticut. While serving as a coach at her alma mater, Ralph helped guide the Huskies to 12 Final Four appearances and six national championships, including a record four consecutive titles from 2013-16.

Ralph was an instrumental figure in recruiting and player development with the Huskies. She mentored standouts like Paige Bueckers, who in 2020-21 became the first freshman to sweep the major national player-of-the-year awards: the Naismith Trophy, Associated Press Player of the Year, USBWA National Player of the Year, Lieberman Award and Wooden Award.
In all, Ralph worked with 21 WNBA draft picks at UConn, including nine top-five picks and three No. 1 overall selections: Tina Charles, Maya Moore and Breanna Stewart.

Before returning to UConn as an assistant, Ralph spent five seasons at the University of Pittsburgh from 2003-08. She was instrumental in a period of unprecedented success, helping the Panthers improve from single-digit victories to at least 22 victories in each of her final three seasons. Pitt also reached the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history in 2008.

As one of the most celebrated student-athletes in women's basketball history, Ralph ranks eighth in UConn's storied record book with 1,678 points. She also ranks among the program's all-time top 10 in career assists (456), steals (252) and field goal percentage (57.9). Ralph graduated from Connecticut in 2001 with a degree in exercise physiology.

In leading UConn to a national championship in 2000, Ralph was named an All-American and Big East Player of the Year. She was selected as the most valuable player in the 2000 NCAA Women's Final Four. She also won the Honda Award, presented to the premier female student-athlete in 12 collegiate sports, and the "Sports Illustrated for Women" Player of the Year.

Ralph was selected by the Utah Starzz in the 2001 WNBA Draft, but was unable to pursue a professional career due to a knee injury.

Ralph and her husband, Tom Garrick, have one daughter, Maysen. Currently a member of the Vanderbilt coaching staff, Garrick served as head coach of the UMass-Lowell women's basketball program from 2018-21 and previously served as a Vanderbilt assistant from 2009-15.

HIGH-OCTANE OPENER

Nashville, Tenn. – The No. 8/9-ranked Vanderbilt women's basketball team posted its highest point total this century to kick off the 2026-27 campaign, as the Commodores collected a 112-53 victory over Lipscomb at Memorial Gymnasium Monday afternoon.

Vandy's high-octane offense set the program record for most points scored in a season opener. The 112 points scored on Monday are the most in a game for the Dores since a 116-point output against Hampton Nov. 29, 1998, at Memorial Gym. Overall, the 112 points registered on Monday are tied for the sixth-most Vanderbilt has scored in a contest in school history.

The victory puts Vanderbilt at 1-0 for the sixth consecutive season. Vanderbilt head coach Shea Ralph is the only person in program history to lead the Dores to six straight season-opening victories.

All-American Mikayla Blakes was dominant and efficient to open her junior campaign. The reigning SEC Player of the Year collected a game-best 27 points, nine rebounds and six assists in 27 minutes played. The guard shot a blistering 61.1 percent from the field and added a team-best four steals and two blocks to her stat line against the Bisons.

Blakes' performance on Monday marked the eighth time in her career she has registered 20-plus points, 5-plus rebounds and 5-plus assists in a game. It is the second time she has accomplished the feat against Lipscomb, as she had 23 points, five assists and five rebounds versus the Bison in her first collegiate game on Nov. 4, 2024.

Sophomore Aubrey Galvan got her sophomore season started on a high note as well. The point guard dished out a game-high 11 assists to go along with 16 points to post her third career double-double. It is the fourth time Galvan has had 10 or more assists in a contest, while the Deerfield, Illinois, native did not commit a turnover in 26 minutes of action.

In total, Vanderbilt had five players tally double-figure points in Monday's season-opening victory. All 12 Dores who saw the court against Lipscomb scored at least one point.

Junior Mia Woolfolk had 15 points to go along with five rebounds, and shot 60 percent from the field (6-of-10) in her Commodore debut. Senior Madison Greene tallied 19 points and went 7-of-10 in 21 minutes off the bench, while senior Aiyana Mitchell scored 10 points and five rebounds playing 12 minutes in a reserve role.

COMMODORES DETHRONE QUEENS

Nashville, Tenn. – The No. 8/9-ranked Vanderbilt women's basketball team used a record-setting first half to cruise to a 100-42 victory over Queens Wednesday night at Memorial Gymnasium.

The Commodores set the program record for most points scored in any half, as Vandy held a 73-11 lead going into halftime. The Dores used the longest scoring run of the Shea Ralph era to build the 62-point advantage in the first half, as Vanderbilt went on a 34-0 run that spanned between the first and second quarters.

The 62-point lead for the Dores at the end of 20 minutes of play marked the widest scoring margin that Vanderbilt has had in a half in program history. The 73 points over the first two quarters are the second-most scored by an SEC team in any half in this century.

Vanderbilt registered 100 or more points for the second straight game to open the 2026-27 campaign, as the Commodores scored a 112-53 victory over Lipscomb in Monday's season opener. It marks the first time since the 1994-95 campaign that Vandy has tallied 100 points in back-to-back games.

All-American Mikayla Blakes was once again extremely efficient in another 20-plus-point outing, as she scored a game-high 24 points and shot 52.9 percent from the floor. The Somerset, New Jersey, native added five rebounds, three assists and three steals to her stat line in 23 minutes of action.

Blakes' 24 points extended her consecutive games streak with 20 or more points to 17 straight games dating back to last season. It is the longest streak among active NCAA Division I players. She also pushes her overall double-digit scoring streak to 55 games, the third-longest active streak in NCAA Division I.

The Dores had five players score double-digit points in Wednesday's victory. Junior Mia Woolfolk followed Blakes with 16 points to push her double-figure scoring streak to 15 games. The forward shot 77.8 percent from the floor, making seven of her nine shots from the field.

Freshman Olivia Jones registered a career-high 15 points to go along with a team-best four steals in 22 minutes. Sophomore Aubrey Galvan scored 13 points and had a game-high six assists in 21 minutes, and senior Aiyana Mitchell tallied 10 points in 10 minutes off the bench.

For the second consecutive game, all 12 Vanderbilt players who played on Wednesday scored.

The Commodores shot 55.7 percent from the field and made 10 3-point field goals in the victory. Vanderbilt held a 55-18 edge in points off turnovers, as the Dores had 23 steals and forced the Royals into 36 miscues.
