CFP RANKINGS: Alabama was slotted at No. 5 in the first release of the College Football Playoff rankings that were revealed on Nov. 3. The Crimson Tide has now appeared in all 73 installments of the rankings since their debut in 2014, including 67 appearances in the top 10 and 50 appearances in the top five. UA is joined by Ohio State as the only two programs to appear in all 73 editions of the rankings. This season, Alabama is 3-2 against teams in the committee's initial top 25, including wins at No. 6 Kentucky on Sept. 12, against No. 21 South Carolina on Sept. 26. and at No. 14 LSU last Saturday.

BUILDING A RESUME: Through the first 10 weeks of the season, Alabama has put together one of the top resumes in college football. According to ESPN, the Tide currently sits at third in the Football Power Index, while also holding the top strength of schedule and the fifth-best strength of record. UA owns a win over the team with the sixth-best strength of record, defeating Kentucky in Lexington on Sept. 12, 45-17. Alabama also holds three wins over teams ranked in the top 25 of the FPI, with wins at No. 7 LSU on Nov. 7, against No. 19 South Carolina on Sept. 26 and versus No. 24 Texas A&M on Oct. 24.

PASSING THE ROAD TESTS: Alabama is one of four teams in the country with multiple road wins against teams currently ranked inside the Associated Press Top 25, joined by Georgia, Ohio State and Oregon. The Tide defeated No. 13 Kentucky, 45-17, in Lexington on Sept. 12, although the Wildcats were unranked when the Week 2 contest was played. Most recently, UA defeated No. 24 LSU, 31-13, in Baton Rouge on Nov. 7 when the Tigers were slotted at No. 15 in the AP Poll. The Tide also holds a 56-23 win at then-No. 16 Mississippi State on Oct 3.

306 AND COUNTING: The Crimson Tide's No. 7 ranking in the Week 10 edition of the Associated Press Poll marked the 306th consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll, making UA just the second team in FBS history to feature in the poll for 300 or more weeks in a row. The Tide entered the AP Poll at the beginning of the 2008 season and has not exited since, nearly tripling the previous school record of 105 consecutive appearances under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s. Nebraska holds the longest streak of all-time at 348 straight weeks from 1981-2002. The Tide's current run is the longest active streak in college football as the 306 weeks nearly doubles second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 160 consecutive weeks.

ALABAMA IN THE AP SINCE 2008: Alabama began the 2008 season at No. 24 in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. The Crimson Tide opened the year with a dominant 34-10 win over then-No. 9 Clemson in Atlanta, and since that win over the Tigers, UA has not exited the 306 polls that have followed. According to the College Poll Archive, the Tide is the only team to be represented on all 306 editions of the poll from the start of the 2008 season to the current week. The next closest team is Ohio State with 291 appearances followed by Oklahoma at 264. Alabama has spent 90.8 percent of the 19 years ranked in the top 10. A whopping 73.2 percent of that time Alabama has been ranked in the top five. The Crimson Tide has also been ranked No. 1 a total of 110 times since 2008. Only 15 other teams have earned the No. 1 ranking over that time, with the second-most appearances coming from Georgia at 42, while Ohio State owns the third-most appearances at 29.

FRONT RUNNERS: Kalen DeBoer owns an impressive 54-4 (.931) record as an FBS head coach when his team is ahead at halftime. When leading after three quarters, DeBoer's teams hold a 54-3 (.947) mark. At Alabama, DeBoer has guided his teams to a 23-2 (.920) record when leading at halftime and a 24-1 (.960) record when taking a lead into the final frame. Below is a full breakdown of DeBoer's record as an FBS head coach when leading, trailing or tied at halftime and entering the fourth quarter.

Category	Alabama Record	FBS Record
Leading at Half	23-2	54-4
Trailing at Half	1-8	5-15
Tied at Half	3-0	5-0
Leading after 3Q	24-1	54-3
Trailing after 3Q	3-8	7-14
Tied after 3Q	0-1	3-2

YEAR THREE UNDER KDB: For the first time since his beginnings at Sioux Falls, Kalen DeBoer is now in the third year of a coaching tenure. DeBoer led the Cougars to a NAIA Championship appearance during his third season in Sioux Falls but only spent two years at both Fresno State and Washington before heading to the Capstone. In his second season in Tuscaloosa, DeBoer guided the Crimson Tide to an 11-win season and a College Football Playoff appearance.

EARLY BIRD GETS THE WIN: Since 2007, Alabama has played in 34 regular season games that have kicked off at Noon CT or earlier and holds a perfect 34-0 record in those matchups. Including bowl games in that span, Alabama has played 38 such contests and holds a 37-1 record in those games. The Crimson Tide is 2-0 in the early window this season, defeating East Carolina on Sept. 5 and winning at Mississippi State on Oct. 3.

ALABAMA HAS THE MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 226 games, which is the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. That sum is 16 more than Ohio State, who owns the next-closest win total over that stretch at 210.

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in 217 of 223 regular season games that have had national championship implications. The final three games of the 2010 campaign and the final three weeks of the 2022 schedule marked the only six regular season contests without direct national championship implications over the last 19 seasons.

2026 TEAM CAPTAINS: The Crimson Tide's 2026 team captains were announced after practice on Sept. 4. Zabien Brown, Ryan Coleman-Williams and Bray Hubbard were each named permanent team captains for this season. The three captains were selected by their teammates.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

RED ZONE RUNDOWN: The Crimson Tide has scored points on 34 of its 37 red zone trips through the first nine games of the season, including each of the first 28. Alabama has recorded 30 touchdowns – 19 rushing and 11 passing – and has also added four field goals.

HALFTIME HIGH NOTES: The Crimson Tide offense has been efficient in the final three minutes of the opening half, scoring seven touchdowns and two field goal in the late stages of the second quarter. The Tide defense also posted a pick-six in the final three minutes of the opening half against South Carolina, bringing Alabama's overall total to eight touchdowns. UA has posted points deep into the first half in seven of nine games thus far, including scores on its final drive of the half on five occasions. Overall, the second quarter has been the best for Alabama this season, posting its highest point total (130) and scoring margin (+66) across the four frames.

TALE OF TWO YEARS: The Alabama rushing attack has shown significant improvement from last season to this season through nine games. Below is a look at rushing statistics from 2025 and 2026 up to this point.

Category	2026	2025
Rushing Yardage	1,294	1,007
Rushing Attempts	304	288
Yards Per Carry	4.3	3.5
Yards Per Game	143.8	111.9
Rushing Touchdowns	20	10

RUSHING ATTACK: Alabama has scored 20 of its 37 offensive touchdowns on the ground through the first nine games of the season. Trae'shawn Brown and Keelon Russell lead the way with five scores each, while EJ Crowell and Daniel Hill are close behind at four touchdowns apiece. The Crimson Tide's 12 rushing touchdowns in SEC play this season has already surpassed last season's total in conference games (8). Overall, UA is one rushing touchdown shy of matching the 2025 team (21) that played 15 games.

GO-TO GUYS: The Alabama tight end room has been a key participant in the Crimson Tide's offensive efforts this season. Kaleb Edwards, Josh Ford and Marshall Pritchett have been frequent targets for the Tide when UA has needed to move the chains or find the end zone. Pritchett has been Keelon Russell's most-used target from the tight end room, totaling 12 first downs or touchdowns from his 20 receptions. Edwards is not far behind, with the sophomore turning 12 of his 17 receptions into first downs or touchdowns. Ford has been seldom used but has seen a near-perfect success rate, with four of his five receptions moving the chains or adding points to the scoreboard. Overall, Alabama tight ends have converted 63.6 percent (28-of-44) of their catches into either a first down or touchdown this season.

TIGHT END TOUCHDOWNS: Alabama tight ends Kaleb Edwards and Marshall Pritchett played a massive role in Alabama's 31-20 Homecoming victory against Texas A&M on Oct. 24. With the Tide trailing 20-17 entering the final frame, Edwards and Pritchett each caught a touchdown pass within five minutes of each other the flip the game on its head. It marked the first time since Sept. 6, 2025, against ULM that Alabama had two different tight ends find the end zone in the same game and the first time since Aug. 31, 2024, against Duke that the Tide has achieved the feat against a power conference team.

ON THE LINE: The Alabama offensive line has made significant improvements under Adrian Klemm and has excelled during the first half of the season on the way to earning a spot on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Watch List. The standout play at the line of scrimmage has helped the Tide increase its production in the ground game from a season ago while also protecting Keelon Russell in the backfield. The core group of Michael Carroll, Racin Delgatty, Jayvin James, Jackson Lloyd and William Sanders have started the majority of games for the Tide, with Tyrell Miller and Mal Waldrep Jr. stepping in when needed due to injuries. Delgatty has also been highlighted for his work at center with a nod on the Rimington Trophy Midseason Watch List.

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE: Through nine games, Alabama has completed 48 plays of 20-plus yards, including a season-high eight against South Carolina on Sept. 26. Keelon Russell has made the offense go, currently leading the SEC and slotting at 15th nationally with an average of 13.72 yards per completion. The signal-caller is also averaging 9.24 yards per pass attempt, good for second in the league and 13th in the FBS. In total, Russell has delivered 77 completions of over 10 yards. In a four-week stretch from Sept. 19 to Oct. 10, Russell accounted for seven touchdowns of over 20 yards, including six via the air and one on the ground.

PILING UP THE POINTS: For just the second time in school history, Alabama started the season by scoring at least 45 points in each of its first five games. The feat was only matched by the 2018 team that scored at least 45-plus points in six consecutive games to start their campaign. The Tide became the first FBS school since Oklahoma in 2019 to start a season by posting 45 points or more in five straight games. Alabama's 37.4 points per game through nine games currently sits as the 16th-highest mark in the FBS and second-best total in the SEC.

ALABAMA IN THE CFP

The College Football Playoff was introduced during the 2014 season with the first ever rankings being released on Oct. 28, 2014. The selection committee members meet weekly on Mondays and Tuesdays to produce the rankings. The committee's rankings are then announced on ESPN each Tuesday evening for the final six weeks of the season. Alabama has appeared at No. 1 a total of 24 times, the most of any program, and is one of only two teams to appear in every edition of the CFP rankings. The Crimson Tide holds the record for the most games played (16) and wins (10) in the history of the CFP and owns a 10-6 record in 16 overall College Football Playoff matchups. That mark includes 3-3 standing in CFP National Championship Games, claiming titles in 2015, 2017 and 2020.

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL

Alabama has been ranked in 918 of the 1,278 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 568-145-8 (.793) all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll. Alabama is also ranked in the AP Poll for the 306th consecutive week, topping its previous streak of 105 consecutive polls from 1991-97 under head coach Gene Stallings. The 306 consecutive weeks is the second-longest stretch by any program in the poll's history, trailing only Nebraska's all-time mark of 348 consecutive weeks. Alabama has started nine seasons at No. 1 (2022, 2021, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2013, 2010, 1978, 1966).

SINCE 2005 EVERYTHING BUT THE PREGAME MEAL

50 BURGER: Alabama scored 56 points against then-No. 16 Mississippi State in Starkville on Oct. 3, the highest scoring total for the Crimson Tide in a road game against a ranked opponent in program history. In fact, the Tide's 56 points are the most allowed in regulation by a homestanding team that is ranked inside the Associated Press Top 25 in SEC history.

GROUND GAME: Against Florida State on Sept. 19, Alabama rushed for 247 yards and three touchdowns, its best rushing performance against a power conference opponent since Nov. 9, 2024, at LSU (311 yards, six touchdowns). The Crimson Tide totaled 220 of its rushing yards in the second half of the contest, including 124 in the fourth quarter. The Tide was able to cement the win on a nine-play, 90-yard drive in the fourth quarter that included eight rushes for 80 yards and a touchdown from Trae'shawn Brown.

LIGHTNING STRUCK: Alabama's game against Florida State on Sept. 19 was delayed due to lightning on two different occasions – kickoff was delayed by an hour and 45 minutes and there was also a 34-minute suspension with 2:36 remaining in the second quarter. Trailing 21-6, the Crimson Tide scored a touchdown on the last play before the second delay and never looked back. Across the final 32:36 of the game, Alabama outscored Florida State, 44-15, including a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter after play resumed to lead 26-21 at halftime. In total, the Tide gained 388 of its 567 yards and scored points on all six completed possessions after the weather delay.

EFFICIENT HALVES: Alabama has scored on every completed drive of a half three times this season this season – the second half at Mississippi State on Oct. 3, the second half against Florida State on Sept. 19 and the first half in the season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5. Under Kalen DeBoer, the Crimson Tide have scored on every possession in a half five times, including on Sept. 6, 2025, against ULM, a game in which Alabama scored on all 11 possessions.

BALL PROTECTION: In the last 256 games (dating back to the start of the 2008 season), Alabama has turned the ball over only 276 times (148 fumbles, 129 interceptions) for an average of 1.08 turnovers per game. Since 2009, the Tide has turned the ball over only 259 times in 244 games (1.06/game). The 259 turnovers since 2009 includes 109 interceptions in 6,577 attempts (one interception every 60.3 attempts) by UA starting quarterbacks and 35 lost fumbles in 6,069 carries (one fumble lost every 173.4 carries) by the Tide's top two running backs.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: Alabama extended its school record for consecutive games with a score to 347 thanks to a 43-yard field goal from Conor Talty in the first quarter at LSU on Nov. 7. The Tide was last held off the scoreboard in a 9-0 loss to Auburn on Nov. 18, 2000. Alabama owns a 277-70 (.798) record over the course of the current streak.

OPENING DRIVE TOUCHDOWNS: The Crimson Tide has won 64 of its last 66 games when scoring a touchdown on the first offensive possession of the game. The most recent instance came on Oct. 3 at Mississippi State when Keelon Russell connected with Ryan Coleman-Williams for a 15-yard touchdown. Alabama's only two losses during the current stretch occurred at Florida State on Aug. 30 to open the 2025 season and at Texas A&M on Oct. 9, 2021.

400+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has gained 400-plus yards of total offense in 82 of its last 118 games, dating back to the start of the 2018 season. After only going over 400 yards five times in 2025, the Tide has eclipsed that mark in four games this year including 487 against East Carolina on Sept. 5, 567 vs. Florida State on Sept. 19, 489 vs. South Carolina on Sept. 26 and 483 at Mississippi State on Oct. 3. In the 36 instances where the offense did not go over 400 yards, the Tide is 25-11 overall.

500+ YARDS OF OFFENSE: Alabama has eclipsed 500 yards of offense in 63 games since the start of the 2015 season. The Tide gained 567 yards against Florida State on Sept. 19, its first game of over 500 yards in 2026. Under head coach Kalen DeBoer, the Tide has recorded six 500-plus yard performances in two-plus seasons, including three during the 2024 campaign and two during the 2025 season. The 2018 roster owns the Alabama single-season record with 12 games of 500-plus yards.

600+ YARDS OF OFFENSE: Alabama totaled 600 yards of offense in the 63-0 win over Western Kentucky to open the 2024 campaign. The 600-plus yard performance marked the 15th instance in program history that the Tide has been at or above 600 yards.

MOST PPG SINCE 2018: Alabama has produced an average of 39.6 points per game in 120 games since 2018, the highest scoring average among all Division I teams in that span. Ohio State owns the second-highest points per game mark over that time, managing a 39.5 points per game mark.

LIGHTING IT UP: Across his first nine starts, Keelon Russell has combined for at least 300 yards of offense in five games. Averaging 282.1 yards of total offense per game, Russell ranks 22nd in the FBS and fourth in the SEC in that category. The first-year quarterback has been efficient as a passer, holding a 165.1 passing rating and 67.3 completion percentage that rank 15th and 27th in the FBS, respectively. Russell has also tossed 18 touchdowns through the air – including at least three passing scores in five games this season – to rank second in the SEC and 18th in the FBS. The Duncanville, Texas, native's 2,263 passing yards also slot at 18th in the country in that category.

PLAYING LIKE A VET: Keelon Russell quickly matured during the first half of the 2026 campaign. In the first two games this season, Russell only accounted for two touchdowns (one passing, one rushing) compared to three turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble). In the four games that followed from Sept. 19 to Oct. 10, Russell totaled 14 touchdowns (11 passing, three rushing) and did not throw an interception. In a three-game stretch against Florida State on Sept. 19, South Carolina on Sept. 26 and at Mississippi State on Oct. 3, Russell accounted for at least 300 yards of offense, three passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown in each game – the first Alabama player in the last 30 years to achieve that feat. For his efforts, Russell was selected as a Midseason Second Team All-American by Sports Illustrated.

PRESIDENTIAL PERFORMANCES: Keelon Russell earned national recognition for his performances against Florida State and South Carolina, accounting for a combined 776 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns over the two-week span. Against the Seminoles on Sept. 19, Russell threw for 320 yards and three touchdowns on 23-of-30 passing while also adding 56 yards and a touchdown on the ground. For his performance, Russell was recognized as the Shaun Alexander Award Player of the Week. On Sept. 26 against the Gamecocks, the signal-caller amassed 365 yards and four touchdowns on 21-of-27 passing while also posting 35 yards and a score on the ground. His efforts against South Carolina were good enough for Player of the Week honors from the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. Russell became first Alabama quarterback since Tua Tagovailoa in 2018 with at least 300 yards passing, three passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown in back-to-back games.

STRONG START: Keelon Russell made his debut as Alabama's starting quarterback on Sept. 5, going 18-of-30 for 256 yards on the day. Russell added 86 rushing yards, accounting for 342 yards of total offense against the Pirates, the second-highest tally for an Alabama quarterback making his starting debut behind only Bryce Young (343). In the first half alone, Russell tallied 182 passing yards and 54 rushing yards, the most total yards of offense (236) in a single half for an Alabama quarterback making his starting debut.

YOUNG ONE: When Keelon Russell made his first career start on Sept. 5, he became Alabama's youngest opening day starter in nearly a decade. At 19 years, four months and 13 days, Russell became the Crimson Tide's first teenage QB1 since Jalen Hurts in 2016 (18 years, one month and four days).

FIRST YEAR STARTING QBs AT ALABAMA: With Keelon Russell winning the job in fall camp, the Crimson Tide features a first year starting quarterback for the second season in a row. A total of 10 quarterbacks have maintained their starting role for 10-plus games of a season in which they were named QB1 for the first time. Dating back to 2009, the list of 10 includes: Ty Simpson (2025), Jalen Milroe (2023), Bryce Young (2021), Mac Jones (2020), Tua Tagovailoa (2018), Jalen Hurts (2016), Jake Coker (2015), Blake Sims (2014), AJ McCarron (2011) and Greg McElroy (2009). All but McCarron and Simpson won an SEC Championship in their first season at quarterback. All 10 guided Alabama to the BCS National Championship Game or College Football Playoff while McElroy (2009), McCarron (2011), Coker (2015) and Jones (2020) led their teams to a national title.

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches' rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 36 seasons (1991-present) with US LBM coming on the title sponsor of the poll at the start of the 2023 season. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020 seasons. The Tide has compiled four UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and seven USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) coaches poll national titles.

ROUND THREE FOR RYAN: Ryan Coleman-Williams is averaging 76.71 all-purpose yards per game this season, including the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career against ECU on Sept. 5 (130). Coleman-Williams posted the third multi-touchdown game of his career on Sept. 26 against South Carolina, bringing a pair of 30-plus yard receptions to the house. The lone returning offensive starter for the Crimson Tide from 2025, Coleman-Williams has totaled 122 catches for 1,983 yards and 16 touchdowns, averaging 16.3 yards per catch and 58.3 yards per game, in 34 career contests. Below is a look at where Coleman-Williams' numbers rank:

7.	John Metchie III	2019-21	2,081
8.	Ozzie Newsome	1974-77	2,070
9.	Jaylen Waddle	2018-20	1,999
10.	RYAN COLEMAN-WILLIAMS	2024-Present	1,983

NEW JERSEY, SAME PLAYER: Ryan Coleman-Williams' jersey has a different look this season. After being known as Ryan Williams and wearing No. 2 during his first two seasons in Tuscaloosa, the star wideout honored his mother, Tiffany Coleman, by switching his last name to Coleman-Williams. The junior is also wearing No. 1 this season, the number he donned as a prep player at Saraland High School.

100-YARD RECEIVERS: Through nine games this season, Alabama has had three different receivers go for at least 100 yards in a game, surpassing last season's total of two across 15 games. Ryan Coleman-Willaims posted 130 yards on five catches in the season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5, Lotzeir Brooks recorded 101 yards on eight receptions against Florida State on Sept. 19 and Rico Scott tallied 156 yards from six receptions – the highest of any UA receiver this season – against Texas A&M on Oct. 24. Both Brooks and Coleman-Williams have each nearly had a second 100-yard game of the year, with the former posting 96 yards at Mississippi State on Oct. 3 and the latter going for 98 against South Carolina on Sept. 26.

RICO SUAVE: Rico Scott had a standout performance in a Homecoming victory against Texas A&M on Oct. 24. The junior totaled a career-high 156 yards on just six receptions for the Tide, the most by any UA receiver this season. Scott was able to rack up an impressive 58 yards after the catch on the day and surpassed his previous career high by exactly 100 yards. The 156-yard performance is the most by an Alabama receiver since Ryan Coleman-Williams tallied 165 yards against Wisconsin on Sept. 13, 2025.

BROOKS BROKE OUT: Lotzeir Brooks put together a career game against Florida State on Sept. 19, hauling in eight receptions for 101 yards, the first 100-yard receiving game of his career. Brooks quickly became a weapon for the Crimson Tide during his freshman season in 2025. The Millville, N.J., native saw time in 14 games last season, including one start, recording 32 catches for 441 yards and two touchdowns.

TWICE AS NICE: Freshman Cederian Morgan has made both of his receptions count this season, scoring touchdowns with each of his first two catches as a collegiate player. Both of Morgan's scores have been critical to Crimson Tide victories, as his first career reception against Florida State on Sept. 19 ignited a 15-point comeback and his second score at LSU on Nov. 7 put the Tide ahead by two scores in the fourth quarter.

RUN IT BACK: Trae'shawn Brown accounted for a pair of rushing touchdowns and Rico Scott scored two receiving touchdowns in Alabama's 56-23 win at Mississippi State on Oct. 3. Both players notched their first multi-touchdown game in Starkville and featured as the Tide had multiple scores from a rusher and a receiver in the same game for the first time since Aug. 31, 2024, against Western Kentucky (Jalen Milroe and Ryan Coleman-Williams)

BABY BACKS: Trae'shawn Brown and EJ Crowell have been critical to the Tide's improvement on the ground during their first season at the Capstone. At least one half of the freshman running back duo has scored in five games this season, including touchdown rushes from both players in each of the first three games. Brown has registered a team-leading 359 yards on 75 attempts and five touchdowns while Crowell has posted 239 yards on 32 attempts – good enough for a team-leading 6.8 yards per carry – and has found the end zone four times. Either Brown or Crowell has led the Tide in rushing yards five times this season, with the former pacing UA against Florida State on Sept. 19, Mississippi State on Oct. 3, Georgia on Oct. 10 and LSU on Nov. 7 and the latter leading the ground game against South Carolina on Sept. 26.

FRESHMAN FIRSTS: Trae'shawn Brown and EJ Crowell are the first freshmen in Alabama history to score a rushing touchdown in each of the first three games of their collegiate careers. Crowell's score against East Carolina on Sept. 5 was the first touchdown of the season for the Crimson Tide, making him the first freshman to post Alabama's opening touchdown of the year since Terry Grant in 2007.

DOWNHILL: Daniel Hill eclipsed the century mark for the first time in his career during Alabama's 45-17 win at Kentucky on Sept. 12, rushing for a career-high 104 yards on 18 carries while also scoring one touchdown. Hill averaged 5.8 yards per carry in the game and broke away for three runs of 10-plus yards, including a career-long 31-yard rush. A physical back, 85 of Hill's 104 rushing yards in the contest came after contact. Hill became the first Alabama player to rush for over 100 yards since Jam Miller (136) against Vanderbilt on Oct. 4, 2025.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

SECOND-HALF STRENGTH: The Alabama defense is allowing just 7.7 points per game in the second half this season, helping the Crimson Tide outscore its opponents 136-69 after halftime through the first nine games. The Tide put together a dominant second-half performance at Kentucky on Sept. 12, shutting out the Wildcats across the final two quarters. The Crimson Tide held UK to just 62 yards of offense and three first downs after halftime to help flip a 17-13 deficit into a 45-17 victory. The dominant showing was the fifth time a Kane Wommack defense has held an SEC opponent to zero points in a half.

GIMME THAT: Alabama has forced 21 turnovers (13 interceptions, eight fumbles) through its first nine games this season to lead the SEC and rank third in the country. At Mississippi State on Oct 3, the Crimson Tide forced four Bulldogs turnovers, a first for the Tide since Sept. 28, 2024, against Georgia. The Tide also forced three turnovers in three games this season – at Kentucky on Sept. 12, against Florida State on Sept. 19 and against Texas A&M on Oct. 24. The back-to-back three-turnover games against the Wildcats and Seminoles marked the first time Alabama has gained three takeaways in consecutive contests since 2024. The 21 turnovers through nine games are the Tide's highest total since 2012 (23). Alabama's +1.00 turnover margin is the second-best mark in the SEC and slots in at No. 8 in the FBS.

SPREADING THE LOVE: Out of Alabama's 21 forced turnovers this season, 13 different Alabama defenders have recovered the ball for the Crimson Tide, led by Luke Metz (two interceptions, two fumble recoveries) with four takeaways. Ivan Taylor (two interceptions, one fumble recovery) is not far behind at three total turnovers while Bray Hubbard, Dijon Lee Jr. and Red Morgan have each tallied a pair of picks. Zabien Brown, Isaia Faga, QB Reese, Noah Rogers and London Simmons each have one fumble recovery while Chuck McDonald III, Yhonzae Pierre and Caleb Woodson each have an interception.

JUMP STARTERS: In addition to its 21 takeaways, the Tide has also been able to force 10 turnovers on downs this season. From those 31 ensuing possessions, Alabama has scored 18 times and gone into victory formation three times. The Crimson Tide has converted its 21 turnovers into 87 points this season and has also produced 32 points from its 10 turnovers on downs. Four of the Tide's 10 turnovers on downs came in a road victory at LSU on Nov. 7, the most for UA in a game since Sept. 16, 2023, at USF.

NO FLY ZONE: Alabama has intercepted 13 passes this season, including at least one in each of its first nine games, leading the SEC and ranking fourth nationally. The 13 interceptions through nine games are tied with the 2015 and 2018 teams for the most by a Crimson Tide defense since 2012 (14). Against Florida State on Sept. 19, the Tide picked off three passes, its most in a game since Oct. 26, 2024, against Missouri (3). Eight different Tide defenders have picked off a pass this season, including Bray Hubbard, Dijon Lee Jr., Luke Metz, Red Morgan and Ivan Taylor with two apiece.

RETURN TO SENDER: Alabama returned an interception for a touchdown on five occasions this season, slotting at second all-time at UA for interceptions returned for touchdowns in a single season. The 2016 team holds the school record with six pick-sixes. The Crimson Tide currently leads the country in defensive touchdowns, with all five coming via the pick-six.

Interceptions Returned for Touchdowns

Player	Date and Opponent	Return Yards
Yhonzae Pierre	Sept. 5 vs. East Carolina	27 yards
Luke Metz	Sept. 12 at Kentucky	34 yards
Red Morgan	Sept. 26 vs. South Carolina	23 yards
Dijon Lee Jr.	Oct. 3 at Mississippi State	30 yards
Dijon Lee Jr.	Oct. 24 vs. Texas A&M	39 yards

TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS: Alabama has forced at least one turnover in 143 of the last 163 contests (dating back to the start of the 2015 season). During the current run, Alabama has forced 264 turnovers (167 interceptions, 97 fumbles) and returned 51 of those miscues for touchdowns.

BEND, DON'T BREAK: The Crimson Tide defense held LSU to 13 points in Baton Rouge on Nov. 7 despite giving up 457 yards of offense. In fact, Alabama was just the 15th FBS team since the turn of the century – and first since TCU in 2015 – to win a game by 18-plus points after being outgained by 175 or more yards. Much of this was due to the Tide's fourth-down defense, forcing Tiger turnovers on downs on all four tries in the game. The 0-of-4 fourth-down clip was the best output for the UA defense since holding Mississippi State to the same mark in 2016.

THREE-AND-OUTS: The Crimson Tide defense has forced its opponents into 23 three-and-outs this season, including at least three in four games. Against Texas A&M on Oct. 24, UA forced the Aggies into three-and-outs on all three of their drives in the fourth quarter. Trailing 20-17 to begin the frame, the defensive effort helped Alabama limit A&M to just 15 yards on their way to the 31-20 victory.

OWNING THE LINE: Alabama has held five of its opponents this season to under 100 yards rushing (East Carolina, -2; Kentucky, 63; Florida State, 94; Mississippi State, 18; LSU, 77). The Crimson Tide is currently allowing 104.6 rushing yards per game, a top-25 mark in the FBS.

TOUGH SLEDDING: The Alabama defense has been a force on third down, limiting its opponents to three or fewer third-down conversions in three games this season. In its season opener on Sept. 5, the Crimson Tide held ECU to 0-for-9 on third-down conversions in the game, the first time the Crimson Tide defense has shut out a team on third down since 2017 against Ole Miss. In league play, Alabama held Kentucky to a 1-for-14 clip on Sept. 12 and forced South Carolina to just three conversions on 14 tries on Sept. 26.

SACK ATTACK: The Alabama pass rush has been aided by a plethora of players along the defensive front, with 11 different defenders having recorded at least half a sack for the Tide, including six with more than 1.0. Devan Thompkins leads the way with 5.0 sacks, while Yhonzae Pierre is not far behind at 4.5. Terrance Green (3.5), Fatutoa Henry (3.5), Caleb Woodson (2.0) and London Simmons (2.0) round out the group of UA rushers with multiple sacks on the campaign.

SHUTOUTS SINCE 2007: Since 2007, Alabama has recorded 30 shutouts, including 13 in Southeastern Conference play. The Crimson Tide most recently kept Eastern Illinois off the scoreboard in its 56-0 win on Nov. 22, 2025. Earlier in the 2025 season, the Tide shut out ULM in a 73-0 win on Sept. 6. The win over the Warhawks was the largest margin of victory in a shutout in program history, surpassing the previous best of 66-0 against Cal on Sept. 15, 1973. The Crimson Tide defense has 13 more shutouts than its nearest competitor, with Ohio State's 17 shutouts the next-closest total in that span.

MAKING IT TOUGH: The Alabama defense allowed only 162 yards in the season-opening win over East Carolina on Sept. 5, the 63rd time since the start of the 2008 season that the Crimson Tide has held an opponent to under 200 yards.

POINTS AT A PREMIUM: The Alabama defense held East Carolina to just 10 points in the season opener on Sept. 5. It was the 114th time since 2007 that the Tide defense has surrendered 10 points or fewer in a game.

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no team has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama has surrendered only 448 touchdowns over the last 245 games. That is 30 fewer than second-place Iowa (478).

Fewest TDs Allowed (since 2009)

Team	Touchdowns
1. ALABAMA	448
2. Iowa	478
3. Wisconsin	510
4. Ohio State	511
5. Penn State	523

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Alabama's defense has been a force in the run game since 2007. In that span, UA has allowed the fewest rushing touchdowns in the nation at 187, a total that is 10 fewer than second-place Iowa (197).

Fewest Rushing Touchdowns Allowed (FBS teams since 2007)

1. ALABAMA	187
2. Iowa	197
3. Ohio State	232
4. Wisconsin	248
5. Utah	251

RUSHING DEFENSE: Alabama has surrendered only 47 individual 100-yard rushing performances dating back to the 2005 season, a mark that is the fewest in the nation.

Fewest 100-Yard Rushing Games Allowed (FBS teams since 2005)

1. ALABAMA	47

MUSTARRRRD: With his pick-sixes against Mississippi State on Oct. 3 and Texas A&M on Oct. 24, Dijon Lee Jr. tied the UA single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns with two. Lee Jr. is now tied with 12 different players, including his teammate, Zabien Brown, who achieved the feat last season. Joining Brown and Lee Jr. are Jordan Battle (2021), Shyheim Carter (2018), Minkah Fitzpatrick (2015 and 2016), Eddie Jackson (2015), Vinnie Sunseri (2013), C.J. Mosley (2010), Rashad Johnson (2008), Cedric Samuel (1995), Antonio Langham (1992), Bobby Johns (1966) and Hootie Ingram (1952).

THIS IS THE BRAY: Bray Hubbard has been a key to the success of the Alabama secondary for multiple seasons, helping him garner numerous preseason All-America nods in 2026. This year, Hubbard already has two interceptions to go with 51 tackles, including 0.5 for loss (-1 yard), two pass breakups, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry. In 2025, Hubbard totaled 79 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss (-23 yards) and two sacks (-20 yards). He added a team-leading four interceptions for 42 yards to go with a team-high tying six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and one quarterback hurry.

BALL HAWK: Bray Hubbard has recorded a pair of interceptions this season, bringing his career total to nine. The senior from Ocean Springs, Miss., is the first Crimson Tide player since Minkah Fitzpatrick (2015-17) to record at least nine career picks. With one more interception, Hubbard will become the first UA player since Robert Lester (2009-12, 14) with double-digit picks in a career.

BROWN ON LOCKDOWN: Zabien Brown has developed into one of the most dependable cornerbacks in the nation. After totaling a team-high six pass breakups in 2025, Brown has already tallied four this season to lead the Crimson Tide. The cornerback gained notoriety after recording a pair of crucial pick-sixes last season, including a 99-yard interception return for a score against then-No. 11/11 Tennessee on Oct. 18 and a 50-yard pick-six at then-No. 8/8/8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 in the College Football Playoff First Round game. Brown became just the 12th player in program history to return at least two interceptions for a touchdown in the same season and was the first Tide defender since Jordan Battle in 2021 to accomplish the feat.

DYNAMIC DUO: UA's new-look starting linebacker combination of Luke Metz and Caleb Woodson has led the Crimson Tide defense this season. The two players, both in their first year starting for Alabama, have combined for over one-fifth of the Tide's tackles this season (139-of-609, 22.8 percent). Woodson leads UA with 71 stops, including 4.5 for loss (-18 yards) and two sacks (-13 yards). The Virginia Tech transfer also has three pass breakups, two quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one interception this season. Metz is not far behind at 68 tackles, including 0.5 for loss (-1 yard), while also adding five quarterback hurries, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions.

GAME CHANGER: Devan Thompkins has totaled a pair of multi-sack performances this season, both on the road in SEC play. The fifth-year player got his first taste of SEC play in Alabama's 45-17 victory over Kentucky on Sept. 12, totaling six tackles, including two for loss (-12 yards) and two sacks. The USC transfer also added a forced fumble on one of his two sacks, setting up the Tide with a short field for the eventual go-ahead touchdown. His strip sack propelled Alabama to 26 unanswered points to close out the game. For his efforts in Lexington, Thompkins was named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week. At LSU on Nov. 7, Thompkins tallied sacks on both of his tackles in Baton Rouge to force a total loss of 16 yards. His fourth-quarter sack in Death Valley forced one of four turnovers on downs in the game. Thompkins' 4.0 sacks in league play is tied for the third-most in the conference.

BACKFIELD BANDIT: Fifth-year defensive lineman Fatutoa Henry had a breakout fourth-quarter performance against Texas A&M on Oct. 24. The junior college transfer tallied a pair of key sacks in the final frame to force a pair of three-and-outs and help the Tide preserve its lead. Henry entered the game with 1.5 sacks over the first seven games of the season and surpassed that total in one quarter alone, totaling 2.0 on the day and helping himself earn SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors.

NOT BAD, ROOK: Freshman Xavier Griffin put together a breakout performance at Mississippi State on Oct. 3, earning him multiple weekly honors. The first-year linebacker came off the bench in Alabama's first ranked matchup of the season and led the Tide in tackles with nine, including six solo stops. Griffin also posted one sack (-5 yards) – helping UA to its highest sack count of the season to date (5.0) – and a quarterback hurry. For his efforts against the Bulldogs, Griffin was recognized as SEC Co-Freshman of the Week and the Shaun Alexander Award Freshman of the Week. Griffin also earned a spot on the Midseason True Freshman All-America Team from On3.

NOT METZ-ING AROUND: Sophomore Luke Metz has been stellar in league play for the Tide, recording all four of his team-leading four turnovers against SEC foes and notching at least seven tackles in all seven conference games to this point. Wearing the green dot for the Tide, Metz delivered a team-leading 11 tackles and an interception in UA's win at LSU on Nov. 7. The sophomore added 13 tackles – a career-high – and added a fumble recovery against South Carolina on Sept. 26 and also recovered a fumble at Tennessee on Oct. 17. At Kentucky on Sept. 12, Metz returned an interception for a touchdown in the first quarter, the first takeaway and score of his career, while adding eight tackles. Metz' performance in Lexington helped him earn SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week, pairing with his teammate Caleb Woodson for the honors.

INTO THE WOODS: Caleb Woodson wasted no time adjusting to SEC play after transferring in from Virginia Tech, totaling double digit tackles in four of UA's seven conference games this season. In total, 65 of his 71 tackles this season have come against league foes – tying him for second in the SEC during conference play. Woodson posted a career-high 12 stops against Kentucky on Sept. 12 and South Carolina on Sept. 26, while also adding performances of 11 tackles at Tennessee on Oct. 17, 10 tackles against Texas A&M on Oct. 24 and narrowly missing double figures with nine tackles against Georgia on Oct. 10 and eight stops at LSU on Nov. 7. Woodson has led his team in stops on four different occasions this year. In addition to his 12 stops against Kentucky on Sept. 12, Woodson added two sacks (-13 yards) for a new career-high total. Prior to the game in Lexington, Woodson had only recorded two sacks in his entire career. The standout day earned Woodson recognition as SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week, splitting the honors with Luke Metz.

BIG PLAY YHONZAE: Yhonzae Pierre opened his season with a statement against East Carolina, returning an interception for a touchdown on Sept. 5. Pierre also totaled three tackles, including one for loss, and one sack in the contest, helping him earn the highest Pro Football Focus grade among edge rushers in Week 1 at 95.4. Pierre enjoyed a breakout season in 2025, totaling 52 tackles while leading all Alabama defenders with 14.5 tackles for loss (-102 yards), eight sacks (-81 yards) and nine quarterback pressures.

NEW LOOK LINE, NO PROBLEM: After returning zero starters on the defensive line from a year ago, Alabama's new-look defensive line group has made a statement in the early stages of the season. Newcomers Kedrick Bingley-Jones, Terrance Green, Devan Thompkins and Desmond Umeozulu have led the Crimson Tide at the line of scrimmage. Against East Carolina on Sept. 5, the quartet helped the Tide hold the Pirates to just two yards rushing. That total was the fewest that Alabama has surrendered in a game since holding Mississippi State to -2 rushing yards in 2021.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SPLIT SPECIALISTS: For the second time under Kalen DeBoer, the Crimson Tide kicking duties are being split amongst two players. Conor Talty is kicking field goals and extra points while Lorcan Quinn is handling kickoffs. In 2024, Talty was on kickoff duty and Graham Nicholson was in charge of field goals and extra points. The Tide are also splitting long snapping responsibilities, with Alex Rozier in charge of field goals and Ethan Stangle on the ball for punts.

TALTY TIME: Conor Talty has converted on 52-of-54 of his kicks this season, including every attempt across the first seven games of the season. Talty is 12-of-14 on field goal attempts, including seven from over 40 yards, and has connected on all 40 of his PAT tries. Talty had converted 59 kicks in a row from Nov. 22, 2025, to Oct. 24, 2026, including 15 consecutive field goals attempts, until his streak was broken with a missed field goal against Texas A&M. Talty's 76 points and 8.4 points per game slot him at third and the SEC and top-30 nationally. The Chicago native was recognized as the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for his career-high 14-point performance against FSU on Sept. 19 and was tabbed a Midseason Second Team All-American by The Athletic.

PUNTING PROWESS: This season, Alex Asparuhov has booted eight punts over 50 yards and dropped 14 kicks inside the 20, holding a net average of 43.19 yards per punt to rank second in the SEC and 12th in the FBS. Against Georgia on Oct. 10, Asparuhov landed all five of his kicks inside the 20-yard line. His performance against the Bulldogs helped the sophomore earn national recognition as part of the Ray Guy Award 'Ray's 8' of the Week. The UA punt coverage team has also been stellar this season, ranking second in the SEC and ninth in the FBS with 1.91 yards allowed per punt return.

The Crimson Tide owns a 64-19-4 all-time advantage, including a 30-13-2 mark in Nashville. After meeting annually for 50 seasons from 1953-2002, the two teams are set to meet for a third consecutive season for the first time in over two decades. The Tide has dominated the series as of late, winning 47 of the last 50 meetings since 1960. UA's 64 wins over the Commodores are the second-most victories over one opponent in school history, trailing only Mississippi State (87).

GENERAL NOTES

INGRAM TO THE HALL: Former Alabama running back Mark Ingram was selected to the 2026 National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2026. Ingram became the 28th former Crimson Tide player or coach to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame and is the third Alabama inductee since 2024, joining Antonio Langham (2024) and Nick Saban (2025). The formal induction ceremony will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2026, and the running back was honored in Tuscaloosa during Alabama's game against South Carolina on Sept. 26. Ingram played in 39 career games at Alabama, helping lead the Crimson Tide to a win in the 2010 BCS National Championship. He received the Heisman Trophy that same season in 2009, becoming the first player in program history to earn college football's most prestigious award. During that Heisman campaign, Ingram produced 1,658 rushing yards and 17 rushing scores.

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama has seen significant success on the field as of late and that success has coincided with the Tide's efforts in the classroom. The 2026 squad is no exception as the Crimson Tide entered the season with 15 student-athletes who already have their degree in-hand. The list of student-athletes wearing an SEC Graduate patch includes: Kedrick Bingley-Jones, MJ Chirgwin, Peyton Fox, Edric Hill, Fatutoa Henry, Bray Hubbard, Jah-Marien Latham, Danny Lewis Jr., Austin Mack, Yhonzae Pierre, Casey Poe, Keon Sabb, Ethan Stangle, Conor Talty and Devan Thompkins.

CHAMPIONS IN THE CLASSROOM: Alabama's achievements in the classroom have been most impressive during national title seasons. Those six squads (2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) included 139 student-athletes who had earned their degrees prior to game time.

TIDE THRIVES IN GSR: The University of Alabama matched its all-time high in overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 96 percent, a record that was set in 2024, in the most recent numbers that were released by the NCAA on Nov. 19, 2025. Alabama tied for tops among all Southeastern Conference schools and ranked seventh-best among NCAA Power Five public institutions. A total of 15 Crimson Tide athletics programs scored 90-or-better, with 10 earning perfect 100s. A collection of 11 teams led the SEC in their respective sport in the 2024-25 GSR figures, including 10 teams that scored 100. Football's score of 98 finished as not only the best in the SEC and fifth overall nationally but also as the highest GSR in program history. Only Long Island, Harvard, Northwestern and Wake Forest scored higher in football. The GSR measures graduation rates at Division I institutions. GSR is believed to be a more accurate measure of academic performance in athletics departments as it holds schools responsible for student-athletes transferring into the institutions and allows them to subtract student-athletes who leave their institutions prior to graduation but are otherwise academically eligible to compete. The average GSR for all NCAA Division I student-athletes is 90.

APR SUCCESS: According to the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) numbers that were announced by the NCAA in May of 2026, figures that cover the four-year period extending from the 2021-22 through 2024-25 school years, the Crimson Tide continued to score well above the national cutoff standard. The Crimson Tide boasted seven teams that led their respective sport in the SEC in APR numbers with eight UA squads setting or tying all-time program-high marks for the four-year average. Altogether, it adds up to an average APR score of 993 across the university's 21 sports. In fact, this year's report marks the fourth consecutive year Alabama's overall average score rated over a 992. The Crimson Tide football team led the nation with a perfect score of 1,000, a program best. In total, six Alabama teams totaled a perfect multiyear mark while 12 teams met the standard in a single year.

HUBBARD'S HELPFUL HAND: A staple in the community, Bray Hubbard has been nominated for Allstate AFCA Good Works Team while also being selected to the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List and earning recognition as a semifinalist for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award. Hubbard is one of the top contributors to the Crimson Tide's service efforts. A regular visitor to local elementary schools in the community, Hubbard has participated in the Read Across America initiative with Tuscaloosa County Schools. The senior is also a regular speaker at the Tuscaloosa Juvenile Detention Center and has taken part in Night to Shine, an unforgettable worldwide event centered on God's love, honoring and valuing people with special needs put on by the Tim Tebow Foundation Hubbard has also committed time to CrossingPoints, a campus organization that provides services to students with disabilities ages 18-21, as well as the West Alabama Food Bank. Hubbard is also an annual participant in Alabama Athletics' 'Halloween Extravaganza', a trick-or-treat event with all UA sports teams held inside the Hank Crisp Indoor Facility to provide a safe, family-friendly environment for local children ahead of the holiday. Graduating in three years with a degree in Sport Management and a 3.58 GPA, Hubbard has also been named a finalist for the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy.

ALABAMA-U.S. NAVY PARTNERSHIP: The University of Alabama announced on Sept. 3, 2025, a significant partnership with the U.S. Navy's Maritime Industrial Base (MIB) Program to expand workforce development opportunities across Alabama and strengthen America's shipbuilding industrial base. As part of the Build Giants initiative, the program's logo was featured on Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium during all home football games as well as in-venue messaging featuring former Alabama head football coach Nick Saban on the importance of the Build Giants Alabama initiative. The visibility highlighted a larger effort to connect Alabama's statewide talent with a critical workforce development program for the state and the country.

• DeBoer's coaching philosophy stresses the importance of class, integrity and academic success. He has a passion for bringing people together while building the total program. DeBoer believes in creating an environment that allows his players to thrive. He holds a deep commitment to developing the young men in his program and investing in them both on and off the field as they prepare for their next steps in life.

• During his 28 years in coaching, he has consistently prospered at multiple levels and in different roles, helping to build and revitalize programs while establishing a diverse network of contacts across the country, in both coaching and recruiting. Across his first 11 seasons as a head coach, DeBoer has accumulated a record of 124-20, which includes a 25-3 record in his previous stop with the Washington Huskies and three NAIA National Championships at Sioux Falls.

• Entering 2026, DeBoer owns a 20-6 record against Associated Press Top 25 teams across his six combined seasons at Fresno State, Washington and Alabama. His 20 victories stand as the second-most ranked wins among active head coaches to begin the '26 campaign.

• DeBoer led Alabama to an 11-4 overall record in 2025, including a 10-2 mark during the regular season and a 7-1 record in SEC play.

• The Crimson Tide earned a spot in the SEC Championship Game and eventually the College Football Playoff in '25, while notching the program's 28th 11-win season in program history and 17th 10-win season over the last 18 years.

• The Tide recorded five wins against AP Top 25 teams in 2025, including four in a row across four consecutive weeks to become the first program in SEC history to accomplish the feat. Under DeBoer's direction, UA also secured a CFP First Round victory at Oklahoma, overcoming an early 17-point deficit to tie for the third-largest comeback in program history and the largest comeback in CFP records.

• DeBoer took on an unprecedented challenge in his first season in Tuscaloosa, replacing arguably the greatest coach in the history of college football. The 2024 campaign saw the Crimson Tide finish 9-4, including a 3-1 record against ranked teams. DeBoer's nine victories matched Frank Thomas (1931) for the most wins by a first-year head coach in Alabama history.

• In 2023, he led Washington to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game with a victory over Texas in the Sugar Bowl. DeBoer's '23 group won the Pac-12 Championship and recorded the most wins in a season in program history (14). Additionally, he won the 2023 AP, AFCA, Eddie Robinson, George Munger, Walter Camp, Sporting News and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards.

• DeBoer became the first Washington coach to win 11-or-more games in consecutive seasons after going 11-2 in 2022 and 14-1 in 2023 and the first to win a bowl game in his initial season with the Huskies. That success resulted in back-to-back Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors. His Washington squads also went 10-1 against ranked teams.

• In his first year at UW, he led the Huskies to an 11-2 overall record after Washington finished 4-8 the previous year. They posted a 3-0 mark against ranked teams and a win over Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl. His Huskies swept their three Northwest rivals and finished in a tie for second in the Pac-12, while he was named Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year.

• Prior to his time at UW, DeBoer spent two seasons at Fresno State, which included the pandemic-shortened 2020 season. Under his guidance, the Bulldogs made great strides on both sides of the ball, posting a combined 12-6 record. Fresno was 4-8 in 2019.

• In 2021, Fresno State went 9-3 under DeBoer. The 2020 season saw the Bulldogs finish at 3-3 overall.

• Prior to Fresno, DeBoer was on staff at Indiana University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He helped guide the Hoosiers to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Gator Bowl. IU's eight victories in 2019 matched their highest wins total in 26 seasons, and IU ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten in total offense. Indiana averaged 432.8 yards of total offense per game, throwing for 302.4 yards per contest while rushing for 130.4.

• DeBoer joined then-head coach Jeff Tedford as the Fresno State offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2017. In two seasons in that role, DeBoer helped the Bulldogs to overall records of 10-4 (2017) and 12-2 (2018), along with two division titles, two bowl game victories and the Mountain West Conference Championship in 2018.

• After the 2009 season, he took a job at Southern Illinois as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2010 through 2013. He moved to Eastern Michigan as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2014 through 2016, helping the Eagles to their third-ever bowl-game berth in 2016.

• A school-record setting wide receiver at the University of Sioux Falls (S.D.), DeBoer later led his alma mater to three NAIA National Championships in five seasons as head coach, winning titles in 2006, 2008 and 2009, while also finishing as runner-up in 2007 and making the semifinals in his first season as head coach in 2005. During his five seasons at Sioux Falls, DeBoer compiled a 67-3 overall record, including a 49-1 mark in Great Plains Athletic Conference play. He was NAIA National Coach of the Year in each of his three championship seasons at USF.

• A 1998 graduate of Sioux Falls with a degree in secondary education, DeBoer was a record-setting football and baseball student-athlete. During his football career, he compiled 3,400 yards and 33 touchdowns on 234 career receptions – all school records at the time – and played on the 1996 NAIA Division II National Championship team.

• He also played baseball for the Cougars, batting .520 (still a school record) as a senior in 1998. His career average of .492 is tops in USF history, as are his 37 career homers and .944 slugging percentage.
