If a Consultant has achieved multiple Elite ranks since July 2023, they will only be recognized on stage as the highest rank they reached. The cornerstone recognition necklace for the highest rank achieved will be awarded on stage, with any additional cornerstone recognition necklaces earned being shipped to the Consultant following the event.

Cornerstone recognition necklaces for each Elite rank achieved between July 2023 and May 2024 will be shipped following the event to those who were not in attendance.

Elite Consultants who have not advanced in rank since July of 2023 will not be recognized during the Black & White Recognition Gala (with the exception of those who hold our highest rank, Iconic Impressionista).

Those who will be walking the runway will be invited to attend an Elite runway practice. The date and time of the runway practice will be provided closer to the event. No spouses, business partners, or team members will be admitted. If an eligible Consultant does not attend runway practice, they will be prohibited from being on stage during the Black & White Recognition Gala but will have their cornerstone recognition necklace shipped to them following the event.
