

Position: Sustainability Manager

Period & Start date: Full time - ASAP

Experience: 2+yrs

Salary: Competitive + Stock options (will vary according to the years of experience / profile)

The role

You will be leading the relationship with our tree planting partners, making sure we have the highest standards, ethics and general approach towards our planting activities. You will learn about the way we do our tree planting and make sure you grow your knowledge in the domain.

You must maintain the relationship with our board of experts in tropical forestry and make sure that we keep on improving our monitoring activities. The role involves scouting for new tree planting partners and documenting all the activities on the open source platform restor.eco

You will also use the images / videos that we receive to provide content to the marketing team and the users on the mobile app. It's important to stay on the lookout for certifications to prove our strong approach to tree planting. That also means maintaining close ties with each of our planting partners and attending CSR events.

You will monitor and oversee all our UK tree planting activities and any carbon offsetting processes related to all of our planting sites.

Finally, you will be responsible for leading the production of our annual impact report.

Please note we may ask you to do additional ad-hoc tasks as required by your manager. You may request to have interns in your team to support in any work you have. You will be responsible for the hiring and training of such interns.

What we look for / would love to see:

- Be able to get along with virtually anyone / make them feel comfortable
- Self-entrepreneur, you're ready to spend time to find the right answer
- Persistent in re-engaging with partners to get the information you need
- Genuine interest and knowledge of the sustainability space
- Independent and risk taker
- Not taking no for an answer
- Passion for our goal and strong desire to be part of the mission

What you'll get:

- Work with the co-founders, serial entrepreneurs who founded and sold businesses valued £100m+
