

Position: Sustainability & Media Management Intern [Remote]

Time Commitment: Expected approx. 15hrs/week [Conversion to Full Time possible]

Period: 6 months

Start date: ASAP

Treeapp Overview

Treeapp enables its users to plant a tree for free every day in a few seconds. How does it work? We work with organisations to promote their sustainable products & services to our users. These organisations fund the planting of trees, which is facilitated by our international NGOs partners. Try it here on iOS or here on Android.

History

Treeapp (thetreeapp.org) was founded because our team realised the devastating state of our environment. Since 2019 our team has been growing in order to reverse effects of environmental degradation and climate change. By using Treeapp, anyone can make a positive impact, by planting trees on their phone every day.

What we look for

The perfect candidate will have a strong interest in producing content for users on our app & working on managing our planting sites. We are looking for someone who is results-driven, enjoys creating content and is structured and agile in their approach to help manage our planting site administration. Ideally, a final year student in management / business / humanities or a related field.

What you will do

- Work closely with the NGO operations team to manage our tree planting reporting system
- Create content surrounding our planting sites shown on our app
- Maintain the media database for our B2B partners
- Be innovative in bringing our tree planting closer to our users!

What you'll get

- Join a fast-growing start-up that has reached 'Hottest App' & 'App of the Day' on the App Store as well as 'Top 10 Downloads' on the Play Store
- Work with both co-founders, serial entrepreneurs who founded businesses valued £30mIn+
- Introduction & connections to key stakeholders in the environmental industry
- Get first-hand experience in the sustainability sector
- Monthly drinks on the founders (when quarantine is over!) & covered travel costs
- Opportunity to convert the internship into a full-time role and join our growing team
