About Us

Welcome to Santa Fe EcoWood, the best local way to have high quality, eco-friendly firewood delivered right to your door. We are Santa Fe's premier firewood company, providing the largest selection of premium quality firewood, delivered consistently on time and with a smile. We carry a large selection of premier firewood, as well as kindling, firestarter and firewood bundles for camping excursions. All of our firewood is well seasoned, split and ready to burn.

Keeping it local is what makes Santa Fe so great and allows us to offer affordable pricing to all residents, businesses and non-profit groups in the area. We are a family owned company that works hard to deliver the very best wood products available and we even back up everything with 100% Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Our goal is to make you completely satisfied with your firewood purchase. Many of our customers have been with us for over a decade. When you become a Santa Fe EcoWood customer, you will receive unmatched customer service and high quality firewood.

Our premium firewood is measured, cut and delivered with the promise that you are getting the best wood available for heating, ambiance and cooking. Whether you need bundles or cords, kindling or specialty cuts, seasoned or green, no job is too small or too large.

In efforts to keep this precious resource abundant, for every firewood purchase, a portion of that purchase is donated to local environmental, animal rescue, and wildlife organizations.
