

Perez Plumbing serve both residential and commercial plumbing in Los Angeles and its surrounding areas. From residential water heater repair and drain cleaning, to high rise plumbing repairs, we are there for your all of your plumbing needs.

Is there a difference?

Some plumbers only work for new constructions. They aren't adept at unclogging drains. Others only unclog drains, they aren't qualified for new construction plumbing. Some plumbers only work in repipes and others only install fixtures. But when you need a plumber that specializes in 100% of all professional plumbing repairs remodels, and construction you need to call us

There when you need us!
