ABOUT US

WHO WE ARE:

Proscape Landscape Management is a full service commercial and residential landscaping and maintenance company in the Santa Fe and Albuquerque areas of New Mexico. We provide all aspects of landscaping under one roof, including: design, installation, maintenance, and irrigation. We are fully licensed, bonded and insured, with full commercial liability and worker's compensation.

OUR VISION:

Aesthetically pleasing landscaping solutions that reflect southwest sensibility and style, accompanied by our industry leading expertise in xeriscaping and water management.

WHAT WE DO:

We provide our landscaping services to both commercial and residential properties, including many homes, property management companies, gated communities, HOA's, condominium and apartment complexes, resorts, and a wide variety businesses and franchises in the Santa Fe/Albuquerque area,

WHAT SETS US APART:

We provide superlative customer service, attention to detail and an ongoing commitment to quality workmanship to ensure the highest degree of customer satisfaction.

We have built an impeccable reputation for landscaping in New Mexico based on our strong principles, and we look forward to demonstrating this to you in the future. We are eager to earn your business, and look forward to working with you to transform and maintain your property to the highest standards.

We pride ourselves on our high quality landscape and design services, reliability, honesty, dedication to excellent customer service and 24/7 on-call emergency assistance. Please feel free to contact us in order to further discuss how our services could be an asset to your property.

PROSCAPE QUALITY ASSURANCE:

Proscape Landscape Management operates a multi-tiered Quality Assurance Program to ensure that your property looks its very best, from the entrances to the far-off corners. We supervise ourselves and believe quality control is our responsibility, rather than that of the Property/Facility Manager or residents.

Our maintenance crews are held to the highest standards of courtesy and professionalism, and are trained to carry out all maintenance services with the least possible inconvenience to you, leaving your property pristine and clean on every visit.

If at any time you experience any issues or concerns, a quick call or email to our Property Account Specialists will direct our maintenance experts to address or correct any problems without delay. We will work with you to meet any challenge your property or schedule presents. Our Property Account Specialists are available to answer any questions or address any concerns you may have regarding your property.
