What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit E.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by litigation. You are not required to sue the franchisor only in the state of Georgia, but the franchisor can sue you in the state of Georgia. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to litigate with the franchisor in the state, county and judicial district in which the franchisor's principal place of business is then located than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT PURSUANT TO THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN LICENSE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE LICENSE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

(a) A prohibition on the right of a licensee to join an association of licensees.

(b) A requirement that a licensee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which deprives licensee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a licensee, after entering into a license agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(c) A provision that permits Holiday to terminate a license prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the licensee to comply with any lawful provision of the License Agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(d) A provision that permits Holiday to refuse to renew a license without fairly compensating the licensee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the licensee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to Holiday and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the licensed business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if (i) the term of the license is less than 5 years and (ii) the licensee is prohibited by the license or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising of other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the license or the licensee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of Holiday's intent not to renew the license.

(e) A provision that permits Holiday to refuse to renew a license on terms generally available to other licensees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the licensee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits Holiday to refuse to permit a transfer or ownership of a license, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent Holiday from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the license. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to

(i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet Holiday's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of Holiday or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the licensee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to Holiday or to cure any default in the License Agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the licensee to resell to Holiday items that are not uniquely identified with Holiday. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to Holiday a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a license on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants Holiday the right to acquire the assets of a license for the market or appraised value of such assets if the licensee has breached the lawful provisions of the License Agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits Holiday to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the licensee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual service.

(j) No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a licensee in connection with the commencement of the license relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by Holiday, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of Holiday. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the license.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING THIS NOTICE SHOULD BE DIRECTED TO THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, CONSUMER PROTECTION DIVISION, ATTN.: FRANCHISE, 670 LAW BLDG., LANSING, MICHIGAN 48913, (517) 373-7117.

ITEM 1THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

This disclosure document refers to the franchisor, Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, as “Holiday” and to the licensee as “you.” If you are a corporation, partnership or other entity, the word “you” may also include owners or partners of the licensee.

Some of these facilities are branded as Holiday Inn Express, Staybridge Suites or Candlewood Suites hotels.

Holiday’s agents for service of process in the states whose franchise laws require Holiday to name a state agency as agent for service are shown on Exhibit D.

HOLIDAY’S BUSINESS:

Holiday offers and grants licenses under the terms of a License Agreement (the “License”). The License described in this disclosure document provides for the establishment and operation of an EVEN brand hotel (each a "Hotel").

The Hotel you operate will be part of a system which is appropriate for your Hotel brand (the "Brand System"). The Brand System is designed to provide distinctive, high quality hotel service to the public, and includes, among other things, those service marks and copyrights, trademarks, domain names, and similar intellectual property rights that Holiday designates; standards, specifications and policies for construction, furnishings, operation, appearance and service of the Hotel, standards and specifications for interior and exterior design and décor, and other requirements (the "Standards"); access through Holiday to the technology systems, loyalty programs, sales and catering system and other related systems; access through Holiday to multiple call centers and central reservations offices around the world handling reservations; access through Holiday to brand marketing services and distribution marketing services including global advertising and publicity and other marketing programs and materials; training programs and materials; a guest loyalty program; and other elements. Its principal place of business is in the United Kingdom at 1 Windsor Dials, Arthur Road, Windsor, Berkshire, SL4 1RS UK.

Certain trademarks associated with the various hotel brands disclosed in this disclosure document are owned by SCH's affiliate, Six Continents Limited ("SCL"). SCL's principal business address is in the United Kingdom at 1 Windsor Dials, Arthur Road, Windsor, Berkshire, SL4 1RS UK.

SCH has granted - - pursuant to a master license agreement (originally entered into between each party's respective predecessor) which was amended and restated most recently on January 1, 2024 (the "Master License") - - Holiday the right to franchise and operate the Holiday Inn®, Holiday Inn Express®, Holiday Inn® Resort, Crowne Plaza® Hotels & Resorts, Staybridge Suites®, Candlewood Suites®, Hotel Indigo®, EVEN® Hotels, voco® Hotels, Vignette Collection™, avid® hotels, InterContinental® Hotels & Resorts, Atwell Suites™, and Garner™ hotels systems in the United States and Canada. Under the terms of the Master License, certain fees paid by licensees, other than the royalties and related fees, are payable to SCH, and either SCH or Holiday may collect those amounts from licensees. Also under the Master License, SCH is required to provide Holiday and its licensees with central marketing, reservation and training services.

SCH has also offered licenses outside of North America for the Crowne Plaza®, Holiday Inn Express® and Holiday Inn® hotel brand groups since April 1997 (and its predecessors engaged in such activities before that time, commencing originally in May 1988). In November 2010, SCH assigned some of its international licenses to certain affiliates of Holiday, as follows: InterContinental Hotels Group (Asia Pacific) Pte Ltd, a Singapore company, with a registered business address of 230 Victoria Street #13-00 Bugis Junction Towers, Singapore 188024, Singapore and IHG Japan Management LLC, a Japanese company, with a registered business address of 20th Floor, Toranomon Kotohira Tower, 2-8, Toranomon 1-chome, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan. Holiday's affiliate, IHG Franchising, LLC ("IHGFL"), has offered licenses for Kimpton® Hotels & Restaurants since September 2018. As of the date of this disclosure document, there are 11 licensed Kimpton® Hotels & Restaurants which are open for business in the United States. IHGFL does not operate businesses of the type licensed; however, certain of its affiliates manage such businesses and as of the date of this disclosure document, there are 59 managed Kimpton® Hotels & Restaurants worldwide. IHGFL's address is Three Ravinia Drive, Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30346.

Except as set forth above, neither Holiday nor any of its parents or affiliates has offered licenses for any other line of business. Holiday does not operate businesses of the type being licensed, but its affiliates do. However, Holiday and its affiliates reserve the right to enter into any future business activities.

Holiday's affiliate, IHG Technology Solutions LLC, provides services related to the procurement, installation, training, use and maintenance of PMS equipment and software (see below). The address for IHG Technology Solutions LLC is Three Ravinia Drive, Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30346.

Holiday has had no predecessor in the ten -year period prior to the issuance date of this disclosure document.

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT, RESERVATION SYSTEM, & PAYMENT CARD PROCESSING SYSTEM:

SCH owns or licenses (in the case of certain software) and administers a computerized reservation network, the "Reservation System," revenue management system, and a cloud-based network. Components of the Reservation System, revenue management system, and cloud-based network operate under the name of IHG Concerto™ ("IHG Concerto™"). All hotels must be linked to the aforementioned central Reservation System, including all system enhancements and upgrades such as the revenue management system ("RMS", which is fully integrated with IHG Concerto™) or such successor systems as SCH may designate. Hardware, software and network systems required to connect to the Reservation System must be fully operational when the hotel opens, with appropriate management and staff trained and competent to operate the Reservation System at all times.

SCH requires each Hotel to obtain and install an approved Property Management System ("PMS"). As of the date of this disclosure document, the Oracle America, Inc. Opera solution is the only approved PMS. The Opera PMS Software is supplied by Oracle America, Inc. ("Oracle"). In addition, a front office protection service (FastConnect SD-WAN, currently provided by AT&T) is required as part of the PMS deployment (see Items 8 and 11 of this disclosure document for a detailed description of the systems).

You must enter into the Master Technology Services Agreement ("MTSA") (attached as Exhibit C to this disclosure document) with IHG Technology Solutions LLC in order to access and communicate with the Reservation System; an Opera license or hosting agreement (which are available upon request) with Oracle for the software, installation, training, use and maintenance of the PMS software; and a contract with AT&T for the FastConnect SD-WAN service in the form attached as Exhibit H-8 to this disclosure document.

In June 2022, SCH entered into an Equipment Refresh and Integration Services Agreement with Hewlett-Packard Inc. ("HP") for deployment and procurement services for the hotel PMS. Pursuant to that agreement, HP will provide PMS hardware, software and deployment services at your Hotel. In 2021, SCH entered into a NextGen Payment ("NGP") Installation Services Agreement with HP for the procurement and installation services of a credit card solution. Pursuant to that agreement, HP will provide hardware, software, and installation services at your hotel. You must enter into HP Joinder Agreements in order to obtain the PMS hardware, software and deployment services, and the NGP solution at your Hotel. Copies of the HP Joinder Agreements can be found within Exhibit C to this disclosure document.

SCH may install one or more "private network" connecting services, security service, or another solution as specified, for use in communicating with the Reservation System or PMS.

IHG Concerto™ is a technology platform designed to enable many capabilities, such as reservations, digital check-in, stay enhancements, guest complaints, rate management, inventory management and yielding, interactive homepage, and other front desk capabilities. The IHG Concerto™ platform is also designed to support effective management of Hotel Content and quick response to Guest Relations issues.

SCH administers a computerized payment card processing program, NextGen Payments ("NGP") (formerly referred to as Secured Payment Solutions ("SPS")). NGP is a data security process designed to remove certain credit card information from SCH's systems. Using PCI certified payment terminals, credit card data will be encrypted and converted to tokens before entering the PMS. SCH has contracted with FreedomPay to provide the tokenization application services. All hotels are required to use NGP or such successor payments program as may be implemented by SCH. Hardware and software systems required to connect must be fully operational when the hotel opens, with appropriate management and staff trained and competent to operate NGP at all times. Each licensee will be required to enter into a merchant processing application and agreement with Fiserv, the SCH-approved merchant service provider, and a participation agreement with FreedomPay and SCH (see Exhibit H-4).

CONDOMINIUM AND TIMESHARING PROJECTS:

Holiday may consider granting a license in connection with a condominium or timesharing hotel development project. Because such projects are complex and unique, each project must be considered by Holiday individually. Holiday will determine, according to the unique facts of each proposed development, to what extent variations and additions to the License terms and provisions, including without limitation additional royalties and other fees, are warranted. Therefore, it is probable that Holiday will vary materially License terms and provisions for condominium or timesharing hotel developments, but at this time there is no formal program or guidelines with general applicability.

In September 2008, Holiday entered into license agreements and other agreements (which were subsequently amended in 2019) with Holiday Inn Club Vacations Incorporated (formerly known as Orange Lake Country Club, Inc.) and certain of its affiliates (collectively, "HICV"). Among other things, the agreements provide for HICV's use of the Holiday Inn Club Vacations® brand in connection with the branding of certain timeshare resorts developed and/or operated by HICV and the sales and marketing of timeshare interests in such resorts, and the agreements permit HICV to use the Holiday Inn Club® service mark in connection with the branding and operation of HICV's timeshare exchange program. The licensing arrangement grants HICV certain exclusive rights to use the Holiday Inn Club Vacations® and Holiday Inn Club® service marks (the "Service Marks") within the United States and certain other territories and prohibits Holiday from franchising the Holiday Inn Club Vacations® brand or allowing third parties to use the Service Marks while HICV's exclusivity rights are in effect, subject to the conditions of the licensing arrangement. Accordingly, Holiday does not offer licenses involving timeshare properties. As of the date of this disclosure document, HICV's exclusivity rights were in effect and Holiday and HICV had entered into license agreements for the branding by HICV of twenty-eight timeshare resorts located within the United States. All of those resorts were developed and/or are operated by HICV.

THE MARKET:

The market for hotel services is highly developed. The lodging industry is very competitive. You will compete with a wide range of facilities offering various types of lodging and related services (including other hotel brands that Holiday or its affiliates license or manage). These facilities include various other types of operations, some of which belong to large national and international companies. Your ability to compete in your market will depend upon factors such as your geographic area, specific site location, general economic conditions and the capabilities of your management and service team.

INDUSTRY-SPECIFIC REGULATIONS:

You must comply with a number of federal, state and local laws which apply generally to hotel businesses. These include laws affecting zoning and construction, public accommodations, accessibility by persons with disabilities, service of alcoholic beverages, health and safety, food storage and preparation, labor, data security and privacy. Many of these laws vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. We do not represent that you will have the ability to procure any required license, permit, certificate, or other governmental authorization that may be necessary or required for you to carry out the activities contemplated by the License Agreement. It is your responsibility to learn about and comply with all applicable laws.

These laws include (among others) the following:

Health and Sanitation. Most states have regulations or statutes governing the lodging business and related services. Many state and local authorities require licensing of lodging businesses to assure compliance with health and sanitation codes. Health related laws affect the use of linens, towels, and glassware and food preparation and service, among other things.

It is your sole responsibility to research and comply with all applicable laws, rules, and orders of any government authority concerning health and sanitation. Holiday reserves the right to make any adjustments to our services as it may determine necessary, in its sole judgement, from time to time in order to protect health and safety. These adjustments may include, by way of example but without limitation, suspending in-person gatherings such as training, meetings and conferences; instead, such events may be conducted virtually.

Facility Operations. Lodging facilities are subject to state innkeepers' laws that may (i) allow innkeepers to impose liens against the possessions of guests who do not pay their bills; (ii) limit the liability of innkeepers regarding guests' valuables; (iii) require posting of house rules and room rates in each room or near the registration area; (iv) require registration of guests and proof of identity at check-in, and retention of records for a specified period of time; (v) limit the right of innkeepers to refuse lodging to certain guests; and (vi) limit the right of innkeepers to evict guests in certain circumstances. Applicable federal and state civil rights laws prohibit discrimination in hotels on the basis of race, creed, color or national origin. Some states prohibit "overbooking" and require innkeepers to find other accommodations if the guest has paid a deposit. Some states and municipalities have also enacted laws and regulations governing non-smoking areas and guest rooms.

Persons with Disabilities. The Americans With Disabilities Act ("ADA") requires hotels located in the United States that are newly constructed or altered on or after March 15, 2012 to be compliant with the provisions of the ADA (28 CFR Part 36) and all of the requirements of the 2010 ADA Standards for Accessible Design contained in 28 CFR Part 36, Subpart D and 36 CFR Part 1191, Appendices B and D (the "2010 Standards"). Hotels constructed or altered between September 15, 2010 and March 15, 2012 may comply with either the 2010 Standards or the prior 1991 ADA Standards for Accessible Design ("1991 Standards"), but a hotel must use the selected standards for all elements in the entire facility. If elements in hotels existing before September 15, 2010 already comply with corresponding elements in the 1991 Standards and are not being altered, hotels are not required to make changes to those elements to bring them into compliance with the 2010 Standards until such time as those elements are altered. The ADA, 2010 Standards and 1991 Standards contain certain specific criteria for accessibility of public spaces and elements in hotels as well as room design, auxiliary equipment in rooms, and distribution of rooms designated as accessible for guests with disabilities. The ADA, 2010 Standards and 1991 Standards also set forth various operational requirements for hotels and reservation system requirements. These reservation system requirements have been incorporated into the Reservation System and the Standards. You are responsible for on-going compliance with the ADA, applicable design standards, and related local, state and federal laws and regulations at your hotel. The entire text of the ADA, 2010 Standards, and 1991 Standards are available through IHG Merlin, the internet-based information delivery service for Brand System hotels, as well as www.ada.gov. Note that ADA compliance is not included in the plan review process for EVEN® Hotels.

Telephone Charges. Federal and state laws and regulations affect the re-offering of local, intrastate, and long-distance telephone services in hotel guest rooms and at coin box telephones. Surcharges on local and intrastate calls are regulated or prohibited in some states.

Atlanta Hospitality Investment, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company, and Mohammad Sarower Hossain, individually v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, DeKalb County, Georgia Superior Court, Civ. Action No. 23-CV-9509 (October 31, 2023).

Plaintiffs are the licensee and guarantor with respect to a former Holiday Inn® & Suites hotel. Plaintiffs filed their initial petition for declaratory judgment on October 31, 2023 and an amended petition on December 7, 2023. The plaintiffs ceased operating the hotel as a Holiday Inn® & Suites hotel and de-identified the hotel without Holiday’s permission long before the October 15, 2041 expiration date of the license agreement. The amended petition alleges that Holiday made certain misrepresentations to plaintiffs in advance of the execution of the license agreement but asserted no claim for damages. The amended petition seeks a declaratory judgment finding that Holiday’s license agreement is unconscionable and unenforceable, that the liquidated damages clause is an unenforceable penalty, and that the defendants are not liable to Holiday for ceasing to operate the hotel as a Holiday Inn® & Suites and de-identifying the hotel. On February 2, 2024, Holiday filed an answer and counterclaims against the plaintiffs, asserting claims for breach of the license agreement and associated guaranty related to licensee’s ceasing operating the hotel as a Holiday Inn® & Suites hotel and deidentifying the hotel long before its scheduled expiration date. Holiday’s counterclaims seek liquidated damages, other unpaid amounts owed under the license, interest and attorneys’ fees, exceeding $2.1 million total. Holiday believes plaintiffs are entitled to none of the relief sought in their petition for declaratory relief and that Holiday is entitled to judgment in the amounts sought in its counterclaims.

Ahijit Vasani a/k/a Andy Vasani, Bhavna Vasani a/k/a Becky Vasani, Innvite Hospitality Group, LLC v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, Surati Investment, LLC, Raiyan Rab, Numarix Real Estate Services, LLC, Mark Wolfe, Equity Central Realty, LLC, Court of Common Pleas, Lucas County, Ohio, Case No. G-4801-CI-0202303085-000 (July 17, 2023)

Plaintiffs or entities associated with them purchased a Holiday Inn Express hotel in 2018. Plaintiffs claim that, in connection with the sale process related to the Hotel, they were misled into believing the scope of work required by the change of ownership license agreement for the hotel would be lighter in scope and less expensive than what it turned out to be. On July 17, 2023, Plaintiffs filed an initial complaint against Holiday asserting claims for breach of contract, promissory estoppel, unjust enrichment, fraud, and civil conspiracy and seeking compensatory and punitive damages, costs, and attorney’s fees. The plaintiffs filed an amended complaint on October 12, 2023, which asserted the same claims against Holiday and sought the same relief as the initial complaint. The amended complaint asserted claims for breach of contract, promissory estoppel, unjust enrichment, fraud and civil conspiracy and seeks compensatory and punitive damages, costs and attorneys’ fees. On February 2, 2023, Holiday filed a motion to transfer for venue and motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim. On December 28, 2023, the Ohio court entered an order holding that the forum selection clause in the Holiday Inn Express license agreement required the case to be adjudicated in Georgia, and stayed the proceeding for sixty days to allow the plaintiffs to recommence the case in Georgia, ordering them to inform the Court when they did so. Holiday's motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim was held in abeyance for the same 60 day period. The plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal of the trial court's December 28, 2023 order on January 26, 2024. Holiday believes both the appeal, and the underlying claims asserted in the case, lack merit, and is defending vigorously.

Park 80 Hotels, LLC, PL Hotels, LLC, Mayur Patel, JSK Exton LLC, Jay Z. Kuber Hospitality, Inc., Parmattma Corporation and Synergy Hotels, LLC, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC and Six Continents Hotels, Inc. d/b/a InterContinental Hotels Group and IHG Technology Solutions, LLC, Case 1:22-cv-03709-LMM (N.D.Ga. Sep. 15, 2022)

The original complaint was filed in this action on September 15, 2022, and an amended complaint was filed on November 22, 2022. The putative class action lawsuit brought on behalf of putative classes of Holiday licensees relates to an unauthorized access to certain of IHG's systems by third party bad actors that resulted in a temporary disruption of certain services which plaintiffs allege had a negative impact on their businesses. The suit asserts causes of action for breach of contract, violations of the Georgia Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, Negligence, Negligence Per Se, unjust enrichment, and seeks damages in an unspecified amount, expenses of litigation, and declaratory and injunctive relief. Holiday, SCH and IHG Technology Solutions, LLC believe the allegations to be meritless and are defending vigorously. Holiday, SCH and IHG Technology Solutions, LLC filed a motion to dismiss all claims on December 2, 2022. The Court ruled on the motion to dismiss on February 8, 2024, finding that Plaintiffs' complaint was a shotgun pleading and requiring Plaintiffs to replead their allegations within 21 days. The plaintiffs filed their second amended complaint on February 29, 2024 which did not materially change the relief sought. Holiday, SCH and IHG Technology Solutions, LLC filed a renewed motion to dismiss all claims on March 14, 2024.

TJM Columbus, LLC d/b/a Crowne Plaza-Columbus North and TJM Syracuse, LLC d/b/a Crowne Plaza Syracuse v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC and Six Continents Hotels, Inc. d/b/a InterContinental Hotels Group, DeKalb County, Georgia Superior Court, Civ. Action No. 22-cv-5181 (May 23, 2022)

Plaintiffs are Crowne Plaza® licensees (for the Crowne Plaza® Columbus North – Worthington and the Crowne Plaza® Syracuse, respectively). Plaintiffs assert a breach of contract claim against Holiday and SCH related to a proposed sale of the subject hotels to a developer that intended to convert the subject hotels out of the Crowne Plaza® system. The Plaintiffs assert that Holiday breached the Plaintiffs' license agreements by improperly interfering with the contemplated transaction, including by contacting the potential purchaser and informing the potential purchaser that Holiday would not approve the proposed conversion transaction. The plaintiffs also assert causes of action related to Holiday and SCH allegedly imposing required vendors on its licensees and receiving improper "kickbacks" from such vendors. Plaintiffs specifically assert causes of action under Georgia's RICO statute, breach of contract, declaratory judgment, fraud in the inducement and violations of the New York State Franchise Act (as to the Syracuse plaintiff) based on these theories. The lawsuit seeks actual damages, treble damages, rescission of the subject license agreements, declaratory judgment, interest, and expenses of litigation. On June 24, 2022, Holiday and SCH filed a notice of removal removing the case to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. The case was assigned case number 1:22-cv-2541-VMC. Holiday believes the allegations and the lawsuit to be meritless is defending vigorously. On July 1, 2022, Holiday and SCH filed a motion to dismiss all claims. On March 29, 2023, the Court granted the motion to dismiss as to the fraud and RICO claims. The Court remanded the action to the Georgia Superior Court without evaluating the remaining state law claims. On May 5, 2023, Holiday and SCH filed a motion to dismiss the remainder of the claims in the Georgia Superior Court, which the court denied on July 31, 2023. As its basis for denying such motion to dismiss, the court found that "Holiday and SCH's motion to dismiss relies[ied] on exhibits attached to the pleadings when there are in fact no exhibits or attachments to either the Complaint or the Answer, only to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss and their Reply Brief." Holiday and SCH filed a motion for summary judgment with respect to all remaining claims on September 14, 2023. Before the court ruled on that motion, the defendants filed an amended complaint on December 6, 2023. The amended complaint asserts claims for breach of contract, declaratory judgment, fraud in the inducement, and violations of the Georgia Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, all premised on allegations related to the above-reference contemplated sale transaction and/or alleged misrepresentations contained in Holiday's Franchise Disclosure Documents and elsewhere related to vendors and suppliers and Holiday's procurement program generally. The amended complaint seeks actual and punitive damages, rescission of the subject license agreements, injunctive relief and the recovery of expenses and attorneys' fees. In light of the amended complaint and the new claims asserted therein, Holiday and SCH filed a notice of removal removing the case to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia on January 4, 2024. The District Court case number is 1:24-cv-00055-VMC. The plaintiffs moved to remand the case back to Superior Court on January 8, 2024. Holiday and SCH moved to dismiss all claims in the amended complaint on January 11, 2024. Both motions remain pending.

Holiday, SCH, and the IHG Owner's Association were named defendants in seven class action lawsuits filed in 2021 by putative classes of Holiday licensees in Connecticut, Louisiana, New Jersey, New Mexico, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas. Each of the lawsuits allege that Holiday and SCH engages in unlawful and otherwise improper franchise business practices, including, imposing unreasonable products, services and requirements and receiving improper kickbacks from required purchases. Specifically, the lawsuits assert causes of action including breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, breach of fiduciary duty, declaratory judgment, violation of the Sherman Act, and a demand for an accounting. The New Jersey and Pennsylvania class action lawsuits have since been dismissed. Neither Holiday nor SCH paid any amounts in connection with the dismissal of these class action lawsuits. The five lawsuits that remain are:

- Park 80 Hotels LLC, a Louisiana limited liability company, PL Hotels, LLC, a Louisiana limited liability company, individually, and on behalf of a class of similarly situated individuals and entities v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, Six Continents Hotels, Inc. D/b/a Intercontinental Hotels Group and IHG Owners Association, Inc., United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, Civil Action No. 2:21-cv-974 (May 19, 2021) (this case was transferred to the Northern District of Georgia on November 9, 2021 and has been assigned Civil Action No. 1:21-cv-04650-ELR).
- Aaron Hotel Group, LLC, a Connecticut limited liability company, individually, and on behalf of a class of similarly situated individuals and entities v. - Synergy Hotels, LLC, an Ohio Limited Liability Company, on behalf of itself and all those similarly situated v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, Six Continents Hotels, Inc. D/b/a InterContinental Hotels Group and IHG Owners Association, Inc., United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Civil Action No. 2:21-cv-03248-MHW-KAJ (June 7, 2021) (this case was transferred to the Northern District of Georgia on December 17, 2021 and has been assigned Civil Action No. 1:21-cv-05164-MHC).

- (5) 110 Sunport LLC, a New Mexico Limited Liability Company, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, Six Continents Hotels, Inc. d/b/a Intercontinental Hotels Group, Civil Action No. 1:21-cv-00844 D.N.M. August 26, 2021) (this case was transferred to the Northern District of Georgia on February 3, 2022 and has been assigned Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00456-ELR).

The foregoing five actions have been transferred to the Northern District of Georgia and the parties are in the process of jointly proposing that those cases be consolidated, and Holiday and SCH understand that the plaintiffs intend to file a single, amended complaint. On May 23, 2022, Holiday and SCH filed a motion to dismiss all claims. On February 16, 2023, the Court granted the motion to dismiss in part, dismissing the majority of the claims asserted by the Plaintiffs. The surviving claims are (i) one breach of contract claim which alleges that Holiday and SCH breached their express and implied duties under the applicable license agreements because Plaintiffs allege that the requirements therein that Holiday and SCH maintain “an IHG Owners Association represented as a means for licensees to consider and discuss, and make recommendations on common problems relating to the operation of Brand System Hotels which Holiday will seek the advice of and to promote the best interests of all persons using the Brand System,” are false and illusory, (ii) one claim alleging that Holiday and SCH violated the Georgia Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act by misrepresenting the characteristics of certain aspects of their systems, requirements and services primarily related to required vendors, products and services, and (iii) the demands for an accounting and attorneys’ fees. Holiday believes the remaining claims and allegations to be meritless and continues to defend vigorously. On March 6, 2023, the Plaintiffs filed a motion for reconsideration of the Court’s order dismissing the majority of the claims asserted by the plaintiffs, which the Court denied on August 4, 2023. The fact discovery period in the case has closed and the expert discovery period closed on February 7, 2024. Holiday and SCH filed a motion for summary judgment on all remaining claims on February 21, 2024. Plaintiffs filed a motion for class certification the same day. On March 13, 2024, Holiday and SCH filed their opposition to class certification and a motion to exclude Plaintiffs’ expert, and Plaintiffs filed a response to Holiday and SCH’s summary judgment motion. Holiday and SCH believe the remaining claims and allegations are meritless and are defending vigorously..

Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC v. Niranjan Khatiwala, Nimesh D. Vesuwala and Mayur N. Khatiwala, State Court of Dekalb County, Georgia, Civil Action File No. 20A83898 (December 11, 2020).

On December 11, 2020, Holiday filed a lawsuit against the defendants seeking liquidated damages and unpaid system fees owed under a Crowne Plaza® license agreement that Holiday terminated as a result of the licensee’s failure to pay amounts owed to Holiday under the agreement. On April 30, 2021, the defendants filed counterclaims against Holiday alleging Holiday imposed unreasonable renovation requirements on the licensee related to the subject hotel and required renovations outside the scope of the requirements of the applicable agreements. The defendants asserted claims for breach of contract, breach of quasi-contract, negligent misrepresentation, promissory estoppel, and attorneys’ fees. Holiday believes the allegations to be meritless and is defending vigorously. On June 1, 2021, Holiday filed a motion to dismiss all of the Defendants’ counterclaims, which motion remains pending. On April 18, 2022, the State Court transferred the case, including Holiday’s pending motion to dismiss, to the Superior Court of DeKalb, County Georgia because the Defendants’ counterclaims include an equitable claim that requires Superior Court Jurisdiction. The case is currently pending in the Superior Court of DeKalb County, Georgia under Civil Action No. 22CV4560.

Scion Hotels LLC vs. Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC, United States District Court, New Jersey, Civil Action File No. 2:21-cv-02276-MCA-MAH (February 18, 2021)

Scion Hotels LLC (“Scion”), a New Jersey licensee of a Holiday Inn hotel, filed a civil complaint against Holiday to obtain damages for violation of the New Jersey Franchise Practices Act in allegedly wrongfully imposing unreasonable standards of performance upon Scion and then wrongfully refusing to renew its license agreement. Scion’s allegations initially focused on the alleged concealment of Holiday’s intent to convert a nearby 400-room Ramada Plaza to a full-service Holiday Inn (completed in January 2020), proposed licensing of a nearby Hampton Inn as a Holiday Inn Express, and purported refusal to extend the existing license agreement with Scion upon its expiration on April 21, 2021. Scion acquired the existing Holiday Inn and signed a remaining term (22-month) license agreement with IHG on June 4, 2019. Scion alleges that it would not have acquired the hotel had it known Holiday's intentions. On April 9, 2021, Scion filed an amended complaint which removed the previously asserted allegations regarding alleged fraudulent concealment on the part of Holiday. The amended complaint asserts causes of action for Wrongful Non-Renewal under the New Jersey Franchise Practices Act, Constructive Termination under the New Jersey Franchise Practices Act, and Unreasonable Standards of Performance Under the New Jersey Franchise Practices Act. Scion alleges damages of no less than $10 million. The parties have completed fact and expert discovery, and Holiday filed a motion for summary judgment on all claims on April 28, 2023, which has been fully briefed, and the parties are awaiting the Court's ruling. Holiday believes the allegations to be meritless and is defending vigorously.

On December 21, 2007, Astoria Enterprises ("Astoria"), a former Licensee, filed suit against Holiday demanding $541,000 in damages for failing to renew or extend an existing license beyond its original termination date and for loss of reputation. According to Astoria, Holiday's refusal to renew the License was wrongful and commercially unreasonable. Holiday filed an answer denying any liability, and discovery is ongoing. Holiday intends to defend the allegations vigorously.

Marina di Castello SpA v. IHG Hotels Limited, Court of Santa Maria Capua Vetere, Italy, Docket No. 4307/27 (November 22, 2013).

The former licensee of the Holiday Inn Resort Naples - Castel Volturno hotel and the Crowne Plaza Caserta hotel issued a claim against IHG Hotels Limited ("IHGHL"), brought in the Court of Santa Maria Capua Vetere, seeking to have the Court: 1) declare that the arbitration provisions in the license agreements are invalid; 2) determine whether or not IHGHL's conduct has resulted in damages to the licensee of circa €3,000,000; 3) determine that IHGHL owes the licensee €1,467,316 in respect of excess fees paid to IHGHL (plus interest) re: the Holiday Inn Castel Volturno hotel and €325,027 in respect of excess fees paid to IHGHL (plus interest) re: the Crowne Plaza Caserta hotel; and 4) award licensee's costs in respect of the claim. IHGHL terminated the license agreements for both hotels in March 2013 for non-payment of fees of €373,000 and an early termination payment of €800,000 under the license agreement for the Crowne Plaza Caserta hotel and fees of €190,000 and an early termination payment of €417,000 under the license agreement for the Holiday Inn Resort Naples - Castel Volturno hotel. A hearing was held on January 24, 2022 and IHG submitted its final brief on September 9, 2022. On September 11, 2023, the Court of Santa Maria Capua Vetere issued its decision which entirely supported IHGHL's objections to the former licensee's claims. Notably, the Court declared the validity and enforceability of the arbitration provisions and, consequently, the Court's lack of jurisdiction. In October 2023 the former licensee filed an appeal which is now pending.

SCH filed an answer denying the claims and requesting dismissal for failure to prosecute. SCH intends to defend against this claim vigorously.

Holiday currently designates Oracle America, Inc. as the Property Management System (“PMS”) provider and requires you to operate on the Opera or Opera Xpress PMS software (see Items 1, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 11). The estimated costs for the equipment configuration, installation, software and training will vary depending on the number of guest rooms and technology needs at your Hotel. We estimate that the cost for a premise-based PMS installation and the purchase of required hardware devices (i.e., workstations and printers) will range from $64,000 to $75,000 for a hotel with 1-100 rooms; $83,000 to $96,000 for a hotel with 101-175 rooms; $97,000 to $130,000 for a hotel with 176-250 rooms; $124,000 to $187,000 for a hotel with 251-350 rooms; and $196,000 or greater for a hotel with 351 rooms or more. Once available, all new hotels, conversions and renovation properties must have their Property Management System (PMS) hosted in an SCH-approved data center or cloud facility. Once available, existing Hotels which need to replace hardware and upgrade software must also move to an SCH-approved Property Management System (PMS) that is hosted in a data center or cloud facility. This hosted option is priced differently from the premise-based option and requires each Hotel to pay for license/support fees directly to the PMS provider. We estimate that the cost for the hosted PMS installation and the purchase of required hardware devices (i.e., workstations and printers) will range from $50,000 to $57,000 for a hotel with 1-100 rooms; $52,000 to $66,000 for a hotel with 101-175 rooms; $56,000 to $80,000 for a hotel with 176-250 rooms; $76,000 to $95,000 for a hotel with 251-350 rooms; and $96,000 or greater for a hotel with 351 rooms or more.

All Hotels will require a custom quote at the time the deployment process begins to better determine estimated costs. You must pay these costs before any goods or services are delivered to the Hotel. These cost estimates include: the basic hardware for the PMS and access to the Reservation System, the basic software, the installation of equipment and software and initial training for your employees on how to use the PMS with the Reservation System, and the purchase, installation of and training for the NGP, or such successor payments program as may be implemented by SCH, equipment and software. These estimated costs do not include other training, additional equipment, additional software, additional operational manuals, shipping and handling, taxes, insurance, or food, travel and lodging expenses of your employees, vendor employees, SCH employees or contractors who install the PMS and Reservation System equipment and software at your Hotel and train your employees to use them, or the cost of internal hotel cabling or infrastructure. SCH requires that you refresh PMS hardware/software every 48 months.

Holiday may consider requests to alter the requirements described in this Item. Holiday will only consider changes under special circumstances and any changes must comply with applicable laws.

Unless otherwise specifically noted above, all initial fees are payable (in full) prior to your Hotel opening, are fully earned when paid and are not refundable under any circumstances.

Note 1. Payments, Gross Rooms Revenue. Holiday can require you to make any payments due to Holiday to its parents, affiliates, subsidiaries or other designees. For example, many charges and fees shown on the table above are currently payable to SCH. Unless otherwise stated, all charges and fees on the table above are nonrefundable and uniformly applied to new Brand System licensees; however, in instances that Holiday considers appropriate, Holiday may waive some or all of these fees. The fees set forth in this Item 6 represent Holiday's current fees, but are subject to change as Holiday, its parents, affiliates, subsidiaries and/or other designees may amend from time to time; at all times you are responsible for the then-current fees imposed.

"GRR or "Gross Rooms Revenue" means the gross revenue and receipts of every kind attributable to or payable for rental of guest rooms/suites at the Hotel including, but not limited to, no-show revenue, early departure or late check-out fees, attrition or cancellation fees, any mandatory fee or surcharge charged to all or substantially all guests renting a room (including resort fees, although inclusion of such fees or surcharges does not constitute approval by Holiday of such fees and surcharges, which may be limited or prohibited) any awards, judgments or settlements representing payment for loss of room sales and any other revenues allocable to rooms revenue under the Uniform System of Accounting for the Lodging Industry, Eleventh Revised Edition, 2014, as published by the American Hotel & Lodging Association Educational Institute, or any later edition, revision, or replacement that may be designated by Holiday. No deductions shall be allowed for charge backs, credit card service charges, commissions, uncollectible amounts or similar items. Charges for any item, including telephone charges, entertainment, the cost of any food and beverage items, room service or other items provided or made available to a guest as an incident of a guest room/suite rental is not considered a deduction from GRR. Holiday may require you to settle all outstanding obligations payable to Holiday by direct account debit, electronic funds transfer, or other similar technology designed to accomplish the same purpose. Holiday may also charge royalties on revenues from any activity that you provide at the Hotel by mutual agreement with Holiday if such activity: (i) is not offered at Brand System Hotels generally (at the time you enter into the License) and is likely to benefit significantly from, or be identified significantly with, the EVEN brand name or other aspects of the Brand System; or (ii) is designed by or developed by Holiday. Certain fees paid by licensees, other than the royalties and related fees, are payable to SCH and either SCH or Holiday may collect those amounts from licensees.

For purposes of calculating the pre-opening liquidated damages set forth in paragraph 13.J of the License, "mature hotels" means hotels which were open for two full years or longer; were licensed or, alternatively, owned and/or managed by Holiday or one of its affiliates, and; were not in financial or quality default of their applicable license or management agreement obligations as of the applicable date.

Royalty in case of Casualty: If your Hotel is closed because of damage due to fire or other casualty, then during the time that your Hotel is closed, you will pay to Holiday (instead of all other Brand System fees under Paragraph 3.B of the License) a royalty of 2% of GRR based on the average GRR for the 12 months preceding the date of closing, or if your Hotel has not been operating in the Brand System for 12 months, then for this purpose the GRR will be based on the average monthly GRR for the period that the Hotel has been operating in the Brand System.

Note 2: Services Contribution: You, all other Brand System licensees and all Hotels that Holiday's affiliates own or manage must pay a Services Contribution as specified in this Item, in Item 11, and paragraph 3.B of the License. Holiday will use these funds as it determines to develop, support and/or administer marketing, reservations and training programs. The Services Contribution cannot be used to cover the cost of maintenance, repair, modernization, renovation, or upgrading of your Hotel. Holiday and its affiliates are not responsible for any of these costs. Besides being used in developing, supporting and/or administering marketing, reservations and training programs, funds from Services Contributions will typically be invested in activities that strengthen the brand such as awareness advertising, research, and the development of new or improved services, but may also include tactical marketing initiatives more focused on short term revenue enhancement and seasonal marketing programs. The Services Contributions do not include costs which you incur in the acquisition, installation or maintenance of reservations services, equipment or training, or costs associated with seasonal enhancements such as seasonal scents, sounds, tastes or in your own marketing activities. Holiday can change the Services Contribution from time to time. Holiday may, on 30 days advance written notice, at any time during the term of your License, and from time to time, increase the Services Contribution by up to 1% of GRR. If Holiday increases the Services Contribution in this way, then Holiday cannot make another discretionary increase again for 24 months after the start of a prior increase. Holiday may increase the Services Contribution by a maximum of 2% of GRR over the term of your License.

Note 3: Loyalty Programs: Your Hotel must participate in the loyalty program (the "Loyalty Program") for as long as SCH chooses to market a Loyalty Program. As of the date of this disclosure document, the Loyalty Program is marketed to consumers under the names "IHG One Rewards", "InterContinental Ambassador", and "IHG® Business Rewards". You must pay the Initial Marketing Contribution and Loyalty Program Contribution to SCH for the Loyalty Program. The Initial Marketing Contribution is payable when your Hotel first enters the Brand System. The Loyalty Program is an incentive program which rewards members with awards for frequent qualifying stays at all Brand System Hotels (and, as described in Holiday's separate disclosure documents, for Holiday Inn, Holiday Inn Express, Holiday Inn Resort, Crowne Plaza, InterContinental Hotels & Resorts, Vignette Collection, EVEN Hotels, Garner hotels, avid® hotels, Hotel Indigo, Atwell Suites, Candlewood Suites and Staybridge Suites hotels as well as other hotel brands within the SCH hotel portfolio (including Kimpton® Hotels & Restaurants)).

The Loyalty Program includes alliances with airline frequent flyer programs and other Holiday brands. Through these alliances, Loyalty Program members may choose to collect and convert their Loyalty Program points into airline miles or choose to collect miles automatically with each stay. SCH may add to or delete airlines and alliances within other industries from the Loyalty Program.

SCH's Global Sales & Marketing department has established marketing relationships with airlines, rental car companies, banks and other types of companies, some of which include co-branding with IHG One Rewards. These alliances may produce revenue and income for SCH that do not result from any required purchases that you make.

The Loyalty Program Contribution is currently 4.75% of Qualifying Full Folio Revenue and 1.425% of Qualifying Room and Meeting Revenue. SCH can change these percentages in its sole judgment. Qualifying Full Folio Revenue includes: (a) Qualifying Room Rates (defined below), (b) charges for food and beverage, telephone, laundry and pay-per-view movies, including applicable taxes, when charged to the member's room regardless of whether a Qualifying Room Rate was paid, and (c) at the Hotel's discretion any other items charged to the member's room not defined in the previous items (a) or (b). Property management systems certified as compatible by the SCH Information Technology department provide Full Folio Revenue data to the Loyalty Program through an automated interface.

Qualifying Room Rates include, for example: (1) non-discounted rates; (2) standard corporate rates; (3) leisure rates; (4) government rates; (5) Corporate Gold rates and worldwide sales negotiated rates; (6) conference and meeting rates; and (7) individual Hotel contract rates. If discounts on rates (6) and (7) exceed 30% of the Hotel's published rates, the Hotel may exclude the awarding of IHG One Rewards points for these discounted room rates. All negotiated group rates for business bookings are Qualifying rates. Guest rooms booked as part of a group, meeting or event block where the individual guest pays their own charges (room and incidentals) will qualify for points.

Qualifying Room and Meeting Revenue includes Hotel revenue from accommodation (room only booked on behalf of others via the IHG Business Rewards) and/or Hotel revenue from rental of guest rooms, meetings, social, or catered events to include revenue from meeting room hire, food and beverage, and/or other revenue associated with the meeting or event at the Hotel's discretion (formerly known as IHG® Meeting Rewards). IHG® Business Rewards points are capped at 60,000 per meeting or event, while the Hotel has sole discretion to award more than 60,000 points for any such meeting or event. At three points per dollar payable at 1.425%, the amount contributed to the Loyalty Program is capped at $285 per event, however the Hotel has discretion to award more than 60,000 points at the same 1.425% assessment rate ($0.00475 per point).

In 2022, the Loyalty Program was extended until December 31, 2027, by a vote of all principal correspondents of Holiday-licensed Hotels in good standing. Under this extension, Loyalty Program members can accumulate points through December 31, 2027, and may redeem them through June 30, 2028. If the Loyalty Program is extended beyond December 31, 2027, the foregoing dates will also be extended. Loyalty Program points will expire on a monthly basis for any Loyalty Program accounts which have been inactive during the prior rolling 12-month period, excluding accounts in certain membership tiers, for which one benefit is the non-expiration of points.

Votes on changes to the Loyalty Program Contribution or other Loyalty Program elements requiring a vote of Brand System licensees will be counted on a "negative option basis", which means that those Hotels which do not respond by the specified voting deadline will have their votes counted as a vote for approval of the proposed change(s).

Hotels are required to allocate a certain percentage of their rooms inventory for reward night redemption by members of the Loyalty Program. The reimbursement amounts that Hotels will receive when members redeem their points for rewards stays is specified by the Loyalty Program. SCH reserves the right to modify the Loyalty Program at any time, including, without limitation, the costs, the reward night redemption reimbursement amounts and the calculation factors.

Note 4: Marketing: You must also participate in all other marketing and sales programs and policies that Holiday requires of its Brand System licensees. To participate in certain marketing programs and to comply with the Standards, you may be required to buy advertising materials, products, services, equipment or supplies or other proprietary materials, and you may have to offer promotions or services to guests that may result in expenses or costs to you. Sometimes, these advertising and proprietary materials will be available for purchase through Holiday or its affiliates.

You may also choose to participate in local and regional marketing programs, advertising cooperatives and related activities, but only at your expense and subject to Holiday's requirements. Holiday may impose reasonable charges for advertising materials you choose to order from it for these programs and activities.

Note 5: Third-Party Distribution Connection Fees: Holiday requires that all Brand System Hotels participate in the IHG Commission Services ("ICS") program and the Global Distribution System ("GDS"). ICS was the first centralized commission payment program in the industry, and currently has approximately 165,000 participating travel agencies in 52 countries. SCH will provide you with a monthly invoice detailing all commissions and Distribution Connection fees that SCH pays for you. As a participant in ICS, you are automatically enrolled in the GDS, which provides reservation linkage with the three current major GDS – Travelport, Sabre, and Amadeus. You must pay a GDS fee for any reservation through the GDS that is not cancelled. The GDS Fee is currently set at $6.40 per reservation and is subject to change. Additionally, alternative connections may be developed between SCH and vendors which may be subject to transaction fees. Alternative connection transaction fees (such as the Direct Connect Fee and the Travel Management Company ("TMC") Direct Connect Fee) are determined by the cost of maintaining the connections to the pertinent third-party distributors, including fees they charge. The Direct Connect fee is currently set at $1.75 per reservation and is subject to change. The TMC Direct Connect fee is currently set at $5.00 per reservation and is subject to change. The GDS fee and TMC Direct Connect fee are mutually exclusive. This means that a hotel can be charged one or the other, but not both. You may pay all travel agent commission program fees, including commissions, by direct debit through Onyx Commission Processing. If you decline this option, you must pay SCH $2.00 per commissionable transaction billed in addition to the commission (unless you participate in IHG Secure Pay). Onyx rebates SCH 3.05% of commissions collected for their members and 3.50% of the total commission paid for most non-members, which is used to help offset the cost of operating the ICS program. These amounts are subject to change without notice. Additionally, ICS may be used as a mechanism to bill for other SCH programs such as IHG Voice Reservation Service cross-sell fees. The programs in which SCH uses ICS for billing may change from time to time.

IHG Ignite Program: All hotels are automatically enrolled in the IHG Ignite Program (“IHG Ignite”). However, Hotels can opt-out if they do not want to participate in IHG Ignite. If they opt out, they will not be included in any of IHG Ignite’s marketing programs. IHG Ignite is designed to be a performance-based and self-funded Internet Marketing program that generates increased revenue potential for Hotels. IHG Ignite markets the Brand System through SCH direct digital channels (SCH branded web sites and the SCH Mobile App). Internet users can click on advertising placed by SCH and be linked to SCH’s Internet reservations page or the SCH Mobile App to make reservations. Participating Hotels must pay SCH a commission equal to 2.75% of the revenue from consumed direct digital bookings, excluding employee rates, IHG One Rewards nights and rooms booked under certain other rate codes. No GDS fee will be charged for these IHG Ignite transactions. A portion of the commissions paid by Hotels will be used by SCH to satisfy financial obligations to associated media companies and publishers which provided the advertising placements to SCH. Specific commission payment levels for each associated media company and publisher vary based on size, strategic value, and actual or potential revenue contribution.

TMC Revenue Program: Travel Management Company (“TMC”, formerly known as Business Travel Agency (“BTA”)) refers to a subset of agencies that account for a significant portion of all travel delivered to Hotels via travel agencies. TMC Revenue Programs are pay-for-performance marketing programs designed by SCH to drive incremental revenue and improve market share with SCH travel agency partners. The key focus of these programs is to reward agencies for increasing market share by driving non-negotiated rate and/or corporate contracted business to Hotels. Hotels pay a 2.25% override fee (in addition to standard travel agency commission) for qualifying consumed room nights only over the base amount, up to a maximum of $25,000 per year). Fees are paid through the ICS. SCH negotiates and executes a centralized global contract on behalf of all Hotels in the system. All Hotels are automatically enrolled in TMC; however, Hotels can opt-out if they do not want to participate in TMC prior to the start of the new program year.

IHG Business Edge Program: All hotels are automatically enrolled in the IHG Business Edge Program (“IHGBE”); however, hotels can opt-out if they do not want to participate in IHGBE. If they opt out, they will receive no bookings from IHGBE. The IHG Business Edge Program is designed to generate incremental revenue from mid-market and local accounts to IHG hotels by developing new accounts. Hotels agree to honor the discount percentage that is attached to the account. Discounts are based on the room revenue spend of the IHGBE client and calculated off the Best Flexible Rate (“BFR”). The Best Flexible Rate is the best and least restrictive publicly available rate for that room type at the time of reservation. Discounts range from 4.0% to 14.5% off BFR, and are subject to change. Hotels agree to pay a booking fee equal to 4% of the consumed transient room revenue for all IHGBE accounts booked at the IHGBE program rate. Hotels agree to pay any GDS or Third -Party fees associated with IHGBE clients.

Groups & Meetings (“G&M”) Fee: The 4% fee applies to definite room revenue sourced through MeetingBroker, even if the MeetingBroker status is not listed as “Definite”. If the “Definite” consumed revenue has not been updated in MeetingBroker at the time of billing, the fee will apply to the contracted or “presumed” room revenue (i.e., the number of room nights and room rate that were agreed upon when contracted). The funds collected through the Groups & Meetings Fee are reinvested into improving G&M tools and programs. Hotels agree to pay commissions due to third-parties sourcing through MeetingBroker. There is a $15,000 cap on the year-over-year increase in fees and a $30,000 fee limit per booking. New hotels entering the system will have the fee cap applied after their first year of operation as an IHG hotel.

Groups & Meetings TMC (“G&M TMC”) Fee: The fee applies to definite room revenue sourced through MeetingBroker, even if the MeetingBroker status is not listed as “definite”. If the definite consumed or “actual” revenue is not updated in MeetingBroker at the time of billing, the fee will apply to the contracted or “agreed” room revenue. The fee percentage is 2% globally for BCD M&E, CWT M&E and AMEX GBT. G&M TMC Revenue Programs are pay-for-performance marketing programs designed by SCH to drive incremental revenue and improve market share with SCH travel agency partners specifically in the Groups and Meetings space. The key focus of these programs is to reward agencies for increasing market share by driving groups and meetings business to Hotels. Hotels agree to pay the standard commissions due to third -parties sourcing through MeetingBroker in addition to the G&M TMC Fee.

Note 6: Technology Services Fee: Holiday will use the Technology Services Fee to provide technology services, such as satellite communications services to the Hotel, including IHG Concerto™. Holiday may increase the Technology Services Fee in an amount it judges to be reasonable, but not by more than 10% of the fee in effect at the beginning of the year. Except as specifically stated in the Master Technology Services Agreement, the Technology Services Fee does not include the costs of installation, maintenance or repair of technology equipment or training at the Hotel. IHG Concerto™ is a technology platform designed to enable many capabilities, including reservations, rate management, inventory management and yielding, guest relations and an interactive homepage. Your General Manager and front office staff must have access to IHG Concerto™ and complete necessary web-based training including; Get to know IHG Concerto™, IHG Concerto Home Page Overview, and Digital Check-In Training, all available at no cost.

Note 7. Revenue Management System: Hotels must use a Revenue Management System: either IHG Concerto™, Yielding & Price Optimization or Revenue Analytics’ N2Pricing.

Both of the Revenue Management Systems use hotel historical data, future bookings and other leading indicator data sources to create a detailed forecast of future business for your Hotel over the next 50 weeks.

These systems help hotels determine the best daily prices and inventory controls. The system integrates the demand forecast, publicly available competitive rates, and price sensitivity to make optimal recommendations for its hotels.

These are used in the sales process from GRS or PMS and all direct (CRO, Brand Website) and indirect channels (such as GDS or online travel agencies (OTA)). Costs of between $30 and $120 per month may apply for competitive rate insight shopping. For Hotels currently subscribed to RevenueStrategy360, these costs may be waived.

Note 8: Technology Systems:

Property Management System: Currently, Brand System Hotels must use the Opera PMS solution (see Items 1, 8 and 11). You must also obtain ongoing maintenance and support for the required PMS software, including upgrades and new versions (see Items 8 and 11) and other software including operating system upgrades and endpoint protection software. The endpoint protection software is part of the Total Protection for Network (ToPS), which will be administered and managed by AT&T via the FastConnect SD-WAN solution. The PMS Provider will bill you and collect the fee from you for the required PMS software support and the PMS Provider provides the support. You must also obtain ongoing equipment maintenance for the PMS hardware as arranged through either SCH or an approved vendor. The costs will vary according to your technology needs and the costs listed on the table are estimates.

The PMS Provider will provide you with a third-party license and/or hosting agreement for the use of the PMS software. Therefore, you must sign a third-party license and/or hosting agreement with Oracle America, Inc., the PMS provider for Opera, or with any other PMS provider designated by SCH (see Items 1, 8 and 11), which will be prepared for you after you complete the Oracle New Account Setup Form, the form of which is attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit H-7. This license agreement includes on-going maintenance and support for the PMS software. The PMS Provider will bill you annually for the support fee. The PMS Provider may not increase the maintenance and support fee more than once during any calendar year. The estimated license/support fees for the Hosted PMS will be $4,500 to $8,000 for a hotel with 1-100 rooms; $8,000 to $18,000 for a hotel with 101-175 rooms; $14,500 to $38,000 for a hotel with 176-250 rooms; $38,000 to $52,000 for a hotel with 251-350 rooms; and, $52,000 or greater for a hotel with 351 rooms or more. You must also pay support fees for the other components of property-level systems, such as PMS equipment maintenance, and for other systems which interface to the Opera PMS system; such as the telecommunications system, the electronic door locking and keycard system, and the specialized sales software. Hardware and software maintenance fees may vary based on the number of rooms at the Hotel. The fees for local and long-distance telephone service and line charges are not included in the estimated fees on the chart. The costs will vary according to your technology needs, and the costs listed on the chart are an estimate.

Next-Gen Solutions: Upon activation of the NGP program at your Hotel, you will enter into a Next-Gen Payment Agreement with SCH (See Exhibit H-4). SCH will immediately bill you monthly and administer support for the hardware and software. All Hotels are required to use NGP or such successor payments program as may be implemented by SCH. Pursuant to the terms of the Next-Gen Payment Agreement, licensee will be liable for payment to IHG of an early termination fee for any reason equal to (x) 50% of the NGP monthly fee, multiplied by (y) the remaining monthly payments in the term.

Each licensee will be required to enter into a merchant processing application and agreement with Fiserv, the SCH-approved merchant service provider, and a participation agreement with - SCH (see Exhibit H-4). Your monthly NGP fee may increase according to the terms of the NGP agreement signed at install (no more than a 5% increase from your original quoted rate), based on increases in costs incurred by SCH to provide the service. The exact amount of the fee will be defined on the quote received prior to installation.

Guest Internet Access: For Guest Internet Access ("GIA") Bandwidth (IHG Connect), a Hotel will be required to utilize an approved SCH-certified provider and enter into a participation agreement with an approved provider (see Item 8 and the form of agreement attached as Exhibit H-5 to this disclosure document). Monthly service fees will vary based on regional telecommunication or cable company sources. Hotels with existing contracts with bandwidth providers must allow such contracts to expire or terminate by their own terms and not allow them to renew, by giving appropriate notice as soon as the terms of those contracts permit. If the contract term will extend more than one year after the effective date of the respective Standard, and the Hotel has a right to terminate for convenience (without cause) and without payment of any fees, then the Hotel must exercise that right so that the contract terminates within that year. If a Hotel leaves the IHG Brand System while its IHG Connect Participation Agreement is still in effect, the licensee shall be liable for payments to IHG of an early termination fee equal to (X) the number of months remaining on the term of the IHG Connect Participation Agreement multiplied by (Y) the monthly fees due under the IHG Connect Participation Agreement. Such payment is due within 30 days following the termination date and all equipment must be returned to the vendor within 30 days of circuit disconnection or the hotel will be subject to hardware costs. It is recommended that all Participation Agreement are renewed on or before the expiration of the Participation Agreement to avoid any disruption in service or unexpected price increases. Price increases are determined by the provider. All vendor equipment must be returned to the vendor within 30 days of the circuit disconnection or the Hotel will be subject to fees covering the cost of such hardware (i.e., Managed Router, NIDS, etc.).

For Guest Internet Access (“GIA”) Hardware (IHG Connect), a hotel will be required to install approved Wi-Fi related equipment, use an approved SCH-certified integrator to install the equipment, and enter into a participation agreement with an approved integrator (see the form agreement attached as Exhibit H-6 and Item 8). Monthly service fees will include a base per-room fee for guest support and a variable fee for meeting room support based on the number of meeting rooms and the amount of meeting space that exceeds 2,000 square feet. Hotels with existing contracts with hardware providers must allow such contracts to expire or terminate by their own terms and not allow them to renew, by giving appropriate notice as soon as the terms of those contracts permit. If the contract term will extend more than one year after the effective date of the respective Standard, and the hotel has a right to terminate for convenience (without cause) and without payment of any fees, then the hotel must exercise that right so that the contract terminates within that year. Hotels will need to renew software licensing for Wi-Fi hardware within five years of the original purchase claim date, on a specified date and then every five years thereafter.

Software license renewal costs vary greatly and could range from $3,000 to $200,000. These costs are dependent on whether the existing equipment claimed at the location remains active at the time of renewal.

Hotels will be required to purchase new hardware equipment (MXs, Switch and APS) and any other auxiliary equipment) generally at the of the eighth year from the original purchased claim date. All equipment which has reached their End-of-Life (EOL) are required to be replaced immediately. Hardware refresh costs vary greatly and could range from $110 to $96,000. These costs are dependent on whether the existing equipment claimed at the location remains active at the time of the refresh.

In-Room Entertainment: All hotels are required to install and maintain In-Room Entertainment Hardware. Your Hotel will be required to install approved TV sets and/or Set Top Boxes (“STBs”) that are compatible with the Standards, use an approved SCH-certified integrator to install the equipment, connect guest room TVs to the data port behind the TV that connects to a switch using an ethernet cable, and must enter into an agreement with one of them. Monthly service fees will include a base per-room fee for guest support. Hotels with existing contracts with In-Room Entertainment providers must allow such contracts to expire or terminate by their own terms and not allow them to renew, by giving appropriate notice as soon as the terms of those contracts permit. If the contract term will extend more than one year after the effective date of the Standards, and the Hotel has a right to terminate for convenience (without cause) and without payment of any fees, then the Hotel must exercise that right so that the contract terminates within that year.

Employee Safety Devices: Hotels are responsible for installing an alert system that enables employees to notify Hotel management of an emergency with the push of a button (“Employee Safety Devices”). The Employee Safety Devices must be available to all employees that work in guest rooms, must instantly signal guest room and guest floor location when activated, must continuously update guest room and guest floor location, must be tested every six months, and must be utilized in accordance with federal, state, and local laws. In addition, all new employees, including contract and temporary, must receive training on the Employee Safety Devices, within the first 14 days of employment. Employee Safety Devices must be procured and installed by an approved supplier and meet defined requirements set forth in the Standards. You may be required to sign a participation agreement with an approved vendor for these services.

Public Access Computers: Hotels are required to install designated workstations and a multi-function printer, providing complementary internet access to hotel guests, in the Business Center (“Public Access Computers”). The Public Access Computers must be available 24 hours a day, must utilize SCH-approved security protection software and must include enrollment in a 24x7 support program offered by an SCH-approved vendor. In addition, all Public Access Computers are required to be refreshed every four years, a minimum of one computer must have Microsoft Office, and all must operate at the same or greater bandwidth port speed as other internet enabled devices on the Guest Internet Access network. You may be required to sign a participation agreement with an approved vendor for these services.

F&B POS: Upon execution of an F&B Point of Sale (“POS”) system, you will pay to an approved vendor maintenance and support in the cloud environment and for the hardware. While the monthly fee is anticipated to be $45.00 per month per workstation, this fee can vary depending on the approved vendor you select.

Note 9: Training: The IHG Learning Program is a learner-centric approach designed to promote a positive culture of learning. Each Hotel must participate in the IHG Learning Program. The 2024 annual subscription fee for EVEN hotels is $3,500. The 2024 annual subscription fee for EVEN hotels will be prorated based on the month that your Hotel opens.

Learning is categorized as “core”, “value-add”, and “specialist” learning based on a tiered approach to learner development, where each tier builds on the knowledge learned from the previous one. Learning categorized as “core” is included within the subscription model and includes critical learning designed to effectively onboard team members, support the operational needs of a hotel, and comply with brand standards to deliver a branded guest experience. “Value-add” and “specialist” learning, designed to enhance and elevate hotel and individual’s performance and is available at the discretion of the hotel, at an additional charge. Any such additional charges are subject to change.

Hotels should allocate annual pre-determined amounts per full-time employee for optional value-add and specialist courses: Managers/Department Heads - $650; Assistant Managers/Supervisors - $450; Frontline colleagues - $250. Where this amount exceeds 2% of your total salaries and wages budget, the Learning & Development allocation should be capped at 2% of your Hotel’s total salaries and wages budget. This estimated budget amount is required for the consumption of IHG Value-Add and Specialist learning offers and the personal development of hotel employees through other various training programs, which also includes virtual and e-learning. We have provided these figures only so that we can help provide an estimate of costs; however, you will always be the only party – even with any estimates reflected in this FDD – that sets your staff’s wages, salaries, and terms of employment, and we will not play any role in helping you set your staff’s wages, salaries, or terms of employment.

The Licensee (or, if Licensee is not an individual, a representative of Licensee) and the General Manager must attend the IHG® Americas Investors Premium Conference and must pay the registration fee of up to $2,500 per attendee regardless of attendance plus travel and expenses. These conferences are generally held biennially but are subject to adjustment. The Licensee (or, if Licensee is not an individual, a representative of Licensee) and General Manager must attend breakout sessions designated by EVEN Hotels as relevant to their hotel(s).

Note 10. Tax on Sales/Gross Receipts: You must pay Holiday an amount equal to any sales, gross receipts or similar tax that may be imposed on Holiday and calculated solely on payments required under the License, unless the tax is an optional alternative to an income tax otherwise payable by Holiday.

Note 11: Standard Application Fee for Room Additions: Holiday charges a standard Additional Room Application Fee for applications for approval of any guest rooms to be added to the Hotel (presently, $500 per additional guest room). If you withdraw the room addition application before Holiday approves it, or if Holiday denies the application, then Holiday will refund the Additional Room Application Fee, less direct expenses it incurred. Holiday may require upgrading of your existing facility as a condition of approving a room or suite addition application. You may apply for an extension of the deadline for completion of the room or suite addition, and you must pay an extension fee. Fees for room additions and for extensions of room addition deadlines become non-refundable if Holiday approves your request. Holiday must approve your extension request in writing and such approval is not automatic. You must pay any expenses Holiday incurs in processing the extension request.

Note 12: Re-licensing or Change of Ownership Application Fees & Realignment/Name Change; Brand Conversion Processing Fee: If you apply for re-licensing or change of ownership, you must pay Holiday a Re-licensing Application Fee or Change of Ownership Application Fee, as the case may be. If Holiday denies the re-licensing or change of ownership application, Holiday will retain $15,000 and refund the balance of the Re-licensing Application Fee or Change of Ownership Application Fee to you. Fees may vary for licenses with terms of 60 months or less. If your license agreement requires an amendment in order to change the name of the Licensee entity or realignment of the ownership interests, you must pay Holiday a Name Change Realignment Fee of $5,000.00.

Note 13. Public Offering or Private Placement Processing Fee: If you propose a securities offering requiring registration under any federal or state securities law, you must apply to Holiday for approval of the offering and pay Holiday a non-refundable securities offering fee of $25,000 when you apply.

Note 14. Audit/Interest: If an audit by Holiday discloses a deficiency in any payment and the deficiency is not offset by overpayment, you must immediately pay Holiday the deficiency and an audit fee of $3,000. If the audit does not result in a deficiency being assessed, then you will not pay an audit fee. Amounts not paid when due will accrue interest, beginning on the first day of the following month, at 1.5% per month or the maximum interest permitted by law.

Note 15. Indemnification: You must indemnify Holiday, its parents and its subsidiaries and affiliates (including SCH) and their officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns against, hold them harmless from, and promptly reimburse them for all payments of money (including fines, damages, legal fees and expenses) by reason of any claim, demand, tax, penalty, or judicial or administrative investigation or proceeding whenever asserted or filed (even where negligence of Holiday and/or its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates is alleged) arising from any claimed occurrence at the Hotel or any act, omission or obligation of yours or anyone associated or affiliated with you or the Hotel. At the election of Holiday, you will also defend Holiday and/or its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates and their officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns against same. In any event, Holiday will have the right, through counsel of its choice, to control any matter to the extent it could directly or indirectly affect Holiday and/or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates or their officers, directors, employees, agents, successors or assigns. You agree to pay Holiday all expenses including attorneys' fees and court costs, incurred by Holiday, its parent, subsidiaries or affiliates, and their successors and assigns as a result of any claimed occurrence or to remedy any defaults of or enforce any rights under the License, to effect termination of the License or to collect any amounts due under the License.

Note 16. PIP/Soft Goods; Custom Design Review, Noncompliance; Quality Programs: Holiday may charge you for all quality non-compliance, re-evaluations, and re-inspections at your Hotel that occur as a result of your Hotel's failure of any previous quality evaluation, your Hotel's failure under the guest satisfaction measurement system, your failure to complete PIP requirements by the specified interim or final milestone dates, your failure to complete the Bi-Monthly "The Operator's View" ("TOV") as mandated, your failure to cure non-compliance with incident reports, your failure to cure non-compliance with submission of certificates of compliances, or your failure to complete the Corrective Action Plan ("CAP") as may be required following a quality evaluation. In addition, you must pay the room and board of Holiday's inspector(s) on all of the quality Evaluations, re-evaluations, action planning visits and all other Quality-related visits as well as room and board and travel for all PIP or Custom Design Review Managers.

You must complete "The Operator's View" ("TOV") every other month or as it may be assigned to you on a mandatory basis. Failure to do so in any assigned month will result in an escalating assessment of up to $2,500 for each occurrence and may result in a visit from a Quality Department Representative.

You must complete all items in the Corrective Action Plan ("CAP") that is created during a quality evaluation, action plan visits, re-evaluations and re-inspection at your Hotel. Failure to do so in the timeline defined within the CAP will result in an escalating assessment of up to $7,500 and may result in a visit from a Quality Department Representative. In addition, you must pay the room and board of the Quality Department Representative(s) on all quality-related visits.

All Hotels that fall into any guest satisfaction measurement (currently known as “Guest Love”) that is at or below the “Reputable” threshold for more than six months may be placed in the Performance Compliance Program and must pay up to $13,500 for each 3-month period that the Hotel remains in such compliance program (payable in three consecutive monthly installments). Hotels in the Performance Compliance Program will be required to complete a Mandatory Improvement Plan which may include ongoing quality evaluations, required capital improvements and other actions as may be necessary to improve guest satisfaction.

Following implementation of the Standard Room Décor Program (“SRD Program”), if a custom design is used or if a non-contracted vendor product that was not reviewed by Holiday is found on the property, Holiday will charge a fee of $25,000 for any custom design review (“Custom Design Review”), which consists of $10,000 for guest room design review, $10,000 for public area review and $5,000 for exterior reviews.

If your hotel is subject to a PIP, you will incur a PIP Fee of $10,000 and your hotel will be inspected after the required completion date to verify satisfactory completion of the PIP. If the PIP is not completed to our satisfaction at the time of the inspection, you will be assessed a fee of $5,000 for the first re-inspection and any subsequent re-inspections we perform until the PIP work is completed to our satisfaction. You must also provide complimentary lodging at the hotel for the inspector performing a re-inspection. Your Hotel may also be assessed a fee of up to $5,000 in the event that any PIP milestones need to be extended.

Your hotel will receive communications about the scope of required Soft Goods and Case Goods renovation requirements and their due dates. If you fail to timely complete a required Soft Goods or Case Goods renovation, we may charge a renovation non-compliance fee up to $10,000. Your hotel will be inspected during and after the completion of the required renovation to verify satisfactory progress and completion. If your required renovation is not completed to our satisfaction at the time of inspection, the foregoing non-compliance fee will also be assessed for any extensions granted and any subsequent re-inspections we perform until the renovation work is completed to our satisfaction. You must also provide complimentary lodging at the hotel for the inspector performing an inspection or re-inspection of your renovation work.

Note 17: IHG Voice Reservation Service Program: Participation in the IHG Voice Reservation Service program is required. The IHG Voice Reservation Service program is a service whereby reservation calls to your Hotel will be referred to an offsite call center. Participation is defined as sending all rooms reservations calls to the IHG call center. Participation will be monitored for compliance to target benchmarks as available in IHG Voice Dashboard reports in the IHG Reporting platform. The offered services may include reservation services for all calls transferred from the Hotel including new reservations and modifications or cancellations of existing reservations; telephone connections between the Hotel and the reservation office; equipment, management and staffing for the reservation office; and monthly performance reports for the Hotel. These services will require you to pay additional fees (see Item 6 table) and you must sign the IHG Voice Reservation Service Agreement, attached as Exhibit H-2 to this disclosure document.

Note 18. IHG Commercial Services and IHG Revenue Services:

IHG Revenue Services is a service that includes but is not limited to (1) revenue management advisory services and (2) Yielding, Pricing & Inventory Management services performed in cooperation with your Hotel. IHG Commercial Services is a service that includes but is not limited to: (1) revenue management advisory services; (2) Yielding, Pricing & Inventory Management advisory services; (3) sales & property support advisory services; and (4) digital marketing and activation services performed in cooperation with your Hotel. This program combines IHG Revenue Services with additional commercial and field marketing services. From time to time, SCH may require that EVEN hotels participate in IHG Commercial and Revenue Services. These services will require you to pay additional fees and you must sign either the IHG Commercial Services Agreement or the IHG Revenue Services Agreement attached as Exhibit H-1 to this disclosure document, as applicable. The agreement terminates 12 months from the effective date or either party may terminate the agreement upon 90 days advance written notice. The agreement will also terminate if the Hotel participates with an uncertified third-party intermediary. The term is automatically renewed for successive one-year terms unless at least 30 days written notice is given before the end of the term.

If a Hotel is operated by a first time Holiday owner-operator or is converted from a competitor brand, the Hotel will be required to join IHG Commercial Services for a minimum of the first two years of operation of the Hotel. If you are licensing an EVEN Hotel for the first time you may be required to participate in the filed marketing offerings detailed in the IHG Commercial Services Agreement for the first twelve (12) months of operation as an EVEN Hotel. If a Hotel has applied for and received approval for a waiver, the waiver will be reviewed by Holiday on an annual basis. Waiver approval is also subject to review in circumstances such as a change of ownership, management company or key personnel at the Hotel. Hotels will still be required, at all times, to follow the applicable brand standards for Revenue Management Certification and Sales staffing. These requirements may vary for dual-brand Hotels.

Note 19. Guest Relations Fee: One Contact Resolution is a Guest Relations process that allows for increased guest satisfaction by empowering case managers to handle calls quickly. Your Hotel is expected to resolve any guest relations issues of a service or quality nature during the guest's stay. Post stay contacts of a service or quality nature will be resolved by Guest Relations case managers on behalf of the hotel, compensating the guest with up to one night's room fee and tax. The hotel must pay a $150 case management fee per incident as well as any applicable compensation to the guest. Hotels can earn a quarterly fee waiver on service and quality cases by achieving a Guest Relations Index in the top third of the Brand System. Any non-service or quality issues are referred to the Hotel for resolution.

Note 20. IHG One Rewards Measured Standards: IHG One Rewards Measured Standards are measured and enforced by the Loyalty Program to ensure consistency in the delivery of the program to its members. Standards are based on calendar quarter thresholds. Hotels are measured at the end of each calendar quarter for compliance. If a Hotel fails to meet the threshold for a quarter, it will have one quarter to cure. If a Hotel that has 300 rooms or less fails to cure, it will move to assessment and will be assessed a fee of $1,000 for each standard failed. If a Hotel fails in consecutive quarters, the assessment will escalate to $2,000 for a failed third quarter and $3,000 for a failed fourth quarter. The assessment is capped at $3,000 per quarter per standard. If a Hotel that has more than 300 rooms fails to cure, it will move to assessment and will be assessed a fee of $1,000 for each standard failed. If a Hotel fails in consecutive quarters, the assessment will escalate to $2,500 for a failed third quarter and $5,000 for a failed fourth quarter. The assessment is capped at $5,000 per quarter per standard.

All measured standards are evaluated and assessed individually.

Note 21. Employee Engagement Survey: Holiday may require your Hotel to participate in the brand's annual employee engagement survey and if so, you will be responsible for all charges associated with administering the program through the brand's designated third-party provider.

Note 22. Capital Reserve: Holiday may impose or change the capital reserve requirements for your Hotel from time to time. If Holiday requires a capital reserve (the "Capital Reserve"), you must establish a Capital Reserve account of up to 5% of Gross Revenue annually for capital expenditures and upgrading of the Hotel including renovation of public areas, guest rooms, guest room corridors and replacement of FF&E. The capital reserve, if required, must be funded monthly. Since the Capital Reserve may not be sufficient to maintain the Hotel as a first-class facility in accordance with the Standards, you must promptly provide any necessary additional funds to meet Holiday's product quality and consumer quality requirements. Holiday will give you at least ninety days' notice of any establishment or change in Capital Reserve requirements (see also paragraph 13.O of the License).

Note 23. New Development or Conversion Hotels: Extensions: Your License will require you to begin and complete construction by certain deadlines. You may apply for an extension of the deadlines, but you must pay an extension fee in connection with same. Holiday must approve your extension request in writing and such approval is not automatic. You must pay any expenses Holiday incurs in processing the extension request.

Note 24: Restaurant Concept; EVEN® Kitchen & Bar™ is a brand-defined, fast casual concept for the wellness-minded traveler that features cooked-to-order menu selections, retail offerings and a full-service bar in the evening. Seating and lighting in the lounge and eating areas are flexible to accommodate impromptu meetings during the day. Cashless transactions are handled directly at the EVEN® Kitchen & Bar order counter with cash transactions and overflow at the front desk.

General: Holiday can require you to settle all outstanding obligations by electronic funds transfer, direct debit or other similar technology designed to accomplish the same purpose. Except as described above, all monthly payments must be made to Holiday by the 15th day of the following month, in Atlanta, Georgia, in U.S. currency, unless otherwise specified by Holiday.

Holiday may consider requests to alter the requirements described in this Item. Holiday will only consider changes under special circumstances and any changes must comply with applicable laws.

The above chart does not reflect all of your expenses in opening the hotel, such as interest on construction loans, financing fees, appraisal fees, taxes or other similar costs. There may be other items which Holiday is unable to estimate. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the license. In Holiday's experience, hotels built in suburban locations have costs towards the lower half of these ranges while hotels built in urban locations have costs towards the high end of these ranges.

To Holiday's knowledge, none of the expenditures described above are refundable, unless otherwise indicated.

The initial investment varies depending on, among other things, size, land cost, construction costs, delays, contingencies, amenities and economic conditions.

Holiday does not offer any formal program for direct or indirect financing. Holiday, SCH or its affiliate, General Innkeeping Acceptance Corporation ("GIAC") may furnish loans or guaranties to licensees (see Item 10).

These estimates do not include the cost of land, and contingency funds or other items that Holiday cannot estimate.

NOTES:

Note 1: Certain fees paid by licensees are payable to Holiday, and either SCH or Holiday may collect those amounts from licensees.

Note 2: Since land values vary so dramatically, it is not possible for Holiday to estimate the amount required to purchase or lease the land necessary to operate the hotel. You can develop your own estimate by applying the acreage requirements to the local land sale or lease costs in the geographic area in which the hotel will be situated. The cost estimates listed above for construction of the building and for furniture, fixtures and equipment are for newly developed Hotels rather than conversions. Holiday requires that qualified design professionals prepare specifications and décor schemes for all furniture, fixtures, and equipment for your specific site. You must commission and pay your designers directly. Your land acquisition costs will vary depending upon a multitude of factors including whether the property is purchased or leased, the size and location of the property, and the availability of financing on commercially reasonable terms.

Note 3: Building construction costs vary greatly from state to state and region to region depending upon material, labor costs, and other variables. Construction costs may also vary depending upon soil and environmental conditions, availability of utilities to the site, and the topography of the site. The estimate does not take into account special local requirements such as earthquake requirements or impact fees, or specific local aesthetic requirements or remedial work that may be required to bring a building into regulatory compliance or within the Standards. All architects and designers must be approved by Holiday and must prepare plans for a specific site and construction type. You must commission and pay your architect and designers directly. Holiday may in the future require use of prototype plans, but Holiday does not currently provide or mandate them. Before commencing your architectural plans and specifications, you must attend a kick-off meeting for consultation and coordination with Holiday. Your plans and specifications must conform to the Standards and must be approved by Holiday before you begin construction. You must provide Holiday with periodic milestone updates of your development progress as required by Holiday.

Note 4: A model room is required for review and Holiday approval prior to ordering, purchasing and installation of guest room FF&E for both new build and conversion projects. The model room includes complete bathroom build out; complete bedroom area build out; floor, wall and ceiling finishes; and comes furnished with all OS&E, FF&E and design elements. Estimates for furniture, fixture and equipment expenses include costs for guest room and common space furniture, kitchen and bar equipment (both back of house and guest facing), fitness center equipment and in-hotel technology such as televisions and computers, and internet connection. The estimates do not include, however, any FF&E required for an extensive design to accommodate full kitchen/catering facilities, pool, spa, excessive outdoor or common space areas (e.g., courtyards).

Note 5: The estimates for this category include the base supply and stock of equipment and supplies necessary to begin operations of the hotel. Examples of these items would include: hardware, tools, linens, employee uniforms, housekeeping supplies, office and guestroom equipment, paper goods, office and cleaning supplies, shelving and storage, glass and chinaware, utensils, banquet equipment, amenities, among others.

Note 6:

PMS: The estimated cost of the Opera PMS assumes you purchase the equipment from or through SCH and includes the cost of the basic equipment installation and configuration; training in the use of the PMS; and IHG Concerto™ revenue functionality; and expenses for travel, meals and lodging related to the IHG Concerto™ training. The cost range for a Hosted PMS solution, including license/support fees, is between $70,500 and $118,000. The cost range for a Premise based PMS solution, not including license/support fees is between $97,000 and $130,000. These ranges do not include additional IHG Concerto™ training, additional hardware or software, the cost of additional Manuals (approximately $50 each), shipping and handling, insurance premiums or taxes. Hardware warranties are purchased at the initial time of procurement. Food, lodging and transportation expenses of your employees and/or Holiday employees and contractors are also not included and can range from $500 to $2,500 per person.

NGP Solution: The estimated cost of the NGP solution assumes you purchase the equipment from or through SCH and includes the cost of the basic equipment, installation and configuration; training in the use of the payment program devices and software, and expenses for travel, meals and lodging. Hardware warranties are purchased at the initial time of procurement.

Guest Internet Access: The Guest Internet Access (“GIA”) Hardware and Bandwidth (“IHG Connect”) estimates for infrastructure needs can vary greatly by location and building type. Actual costs for hardware can only be obtained once Integrator service provider site surveys are completed. Final costs are based on individual unique building and construction circumstances of a given property. The site survey will help determine the sizing, number of switches, number of access points, etc. through a WiFi heat map coverage diagram. You must purchase or lease all equipment from Integrators whose products and services meet Holiday’s specifications.

Actual costs for the Bandwidth are determined by the cost provided in the IHG Marketplace. Hotels will select the circuit and access size based on the minimum requirements set forth in the Standards. Bandwidth circuits are installed and required prior to GIA Hardware installation. If the serviceability area of the hotel requires special fiber construction beyond the budgeted construction, then the hotel may have to pay a direct fee for the additional construction cost directly fiber vendor for your Guest Internet Access Bandwidth. Each Hotel is responsible for detailing the demark for installation of fiber and equipment for Bandwidth service at the start of the Bandwidth circuit order. If the fiber order and its Right of Way (on property) construction to the demark is delayed due to Hotel site readiness, the Bandwidth order may be subject to cancellation and the Hotel may be subjected to cancellation fees ranging from $250 to $3,000 depending on the vendor. Upon circuit disconnection, all vendor equipment must be returned within 30 days or the Hotel will be subject to fees covering the cost of hardware (Managed Router, NIDS, etc.).

Keycard System: All EVEN[®] Hotels must utilize an approved Keycard System that meets brand requirements. The estimated initial cost for the Keycard System solution purchase and installation will range from $11,000 to $16,500 for a hotel with up to 100 rooms; $11,000 to $22,000 for a hotel with up to 200 rooms; $11,000 to $27,500 for a hotel with more than 200 rooms. This cost includes the server, key encoders, installation, and support. It does not include the cost of the locks for the doors themselves. You must obtain ongoing maintenance and support for the required Keycard System software, including upgrades and new versions. You must also obtain ongoing equipment maintenance for the Keycard System hardware. The Keycard System provider will bill and collect the fee from you for the required Keycard System hardware / software support. The costs will vary depending on the Hotel's specific technology needs, including the number of key encoders and servers at the Hotel. The Keycard System must interface with the Property Management System (PMS).

In-Room Entertainment: The estimated costs for In-Room Entertainment will be driven by the number of guest rooms, NUC device, Chromecast devices, set top boxes, installation costs, etc.

Employee Safety Devices: The estimated costs for Employee Safety Devices will vary based on the number of hotel rooms at a range of approximately $125 - $150 per room. Employee Safety Devices must be procured and installed by a SCH-approved vendor and meet defined requirements.

Other Technology Systems: The estimated costs for Technology Systems include the costs of telephone switch and installation and the on-property technology hardware systems such as the public area audio visual and music system, optional service optimization and devices for the Hotel service management system, security/CCTV systems, and business center equipment (including public access computer workstations, multi-function printers and SCH-approved protection software). You may be required to pay the costs associated with certain components of the Technology Systems to SCH as a pass through, whereby SCH will collect the amount due from licensees on behalf of, and remit same to, the suppliers.

The estimated costs for public access computers will vary based on the number of workstations and multi-function printers installed, as well as the vendor chosen. Public access computers must utilize SCH-approved protection software and include enrollment in a 24x7 support program offered by a SCH-approved vendor. You may be required to pay the costs associated with the public access computers to SCH as a pass through, whereby SCH will collect the amount due from licensees on behalf of, and remit same to, the suppliers.

EVEN[®] Hotels must also utilize an approved F&B POS solution. The estimated initial cost for the POS purchase and installation will range from $45,000 to $55,000 based on 5 outlets with 12 workstations & printers, 3 tablets & 5 kitchen/ bar printers, The pricing will increase with the installation of additional outlets & hardware. You must obtain ongoing maintenance and support for the application & all hardware. The costs will vary according to your technology needs.

Note 7: You will be responsible for contracting with a brand identified and approved hotel photography supplier to produce a minimum of fifteen brand specified hotel photographs for use in the brand and SCH sales and marketing materials. Additional photos may be required depending on room types, if rooms are sold with an attribute and for new room inventory types. Photographs must be completed in accordance with photography guidelines within 45 days of opening as an EVEN[®] Hotel, as well as within 45 days after significant hotel renovations.

Note 8: The Openings program provides services and training required to open a hotel in the Brand System. The related Preopening Support fee is $8,500 and covers support from license execution to hotel opening provided by the Hotel Lifecycle + Growth organization (including but not limited to Franchise Openings, Plan Review, Construction). In the event additional onsite training is required at the hotel, additional costs may be incurred which currently range from $1,500-$6,000 depending on the scope of additional learning needs for the hotel.

Your General Manager and front office staff must have access to IHG Concerto™ and complete necessary web-based training including: Get to know IHG Concerto™, IHG Concerto Home Page Overview, and Digital Check-In Training, all available at no cost.

The RAMP UP Program is an instructor-led training program that provides basic instruction on IHG Concerto™, the reservation process and revenue management. Your General Manager and other individuals designated as the system experts for your hotel must attend the Ramp Up program virtually or at an SCH designated location. There are no fees for your General Manager and your Hotel's designated system experts to attend this training. Participants from all hotels are responsible for their own expenses for travel, meals and lodging if they attend the workshop in person.

Note 9: Your General Manager, Front Office Manager, Director of Sales, Executive Housekeeper, F&B colleagues, and Hotel Experience Champion (or their equivalent roles) must each complete initial certification training. All required core certification training is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program. For in-person classes, you must pay for your trainees' travel expenses or any training expenses incurred from any optional or supplemental courses that your trainees attend. You may be required to purchase subsequent training materials.

Note 10: These fees will only apply if it is necessary to reschedule your hotel's opening date. In the event that you need to reschedule your opening, you may be charged a fee of up to $5,000 per extension. Holiday must approve your extension request in writing and you must pay any expenses Holiday incurs in processing the extension request.

Note 11: General Managers and designated Hotel Experience Champions must complete the Leading the Brand Training for new hotels certification to be held prior to hotel opening. The cost for the training event is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program. You may be required to purchase subsequent training materials to fulfill the ongoing training of new employees.

Note 12: The licenses and permits you must obtain to operate the hotel vary depending upon the state, county or other political subdivision in which the hotel is situated.

Note 13: The estimates for this category include charges imposed by your insurance carriers, attorneys, accountants, architects, engineers, interior designers and various technical services expenses. You are required to hire a professional interior designer. Your selection of a professional interior designer must be approved by Holiday before you commence construction of your hotel. The actual amount will depend solely upon arrangements you make, including whether your hotel is newly constructed or being converted.

Note 14: The security deposits you must pay to utilities, lessors, and vendors or suppliers of other products or services will depend on the location of the hotel.

Note 15: Holiday's specifications for the amount and type of insurance coverage required are in paragraph 8.B of the License. If you fail to procure or maintain the insurance coverages and limits set forth in paragraph 8.B, Holiday will have the right and authority (but not the obligation) to procure such insurance at your cost, including any costs incurred by Holiday for procurement and maintenance of such insurance. Holiday currently requires that you obtain a commercial general liability insurance policy (including coverage for product liability, completed operations, contractual liability, host liquor liability and fire legal liability) and business automobile liability insurance policy (including hired and non-owned liability) with single limit coverage for personal and bodily injury and property damage of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence naming Holiday, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as additional insureds. In connection with all construction at the Hotel, you must require your general contractor to maintain commercial general liability insurance (including coverage for product liability, completed operations and contractual liability) and business automobile liability insurance (including hired and non-owned liability) with limits of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence for personal and bodily injury and property damage naming Holiday, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as additional insureds. Holiday also requires you to maintain employment practices liability insurance (including coverage for harassment, discrimination and wrongful termination and covering defense and indemnity costs) naming Holiday, SCH and their parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as additional insureds with a minimum limit in the aggregate of $1,000,000. The holder of the liquor license must maintain liquor liability insurance with single limit coverage for personal and bodily injury and property damage of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence naming Holiday and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, (and the Licensee if applicable) as additional insureds. You must also obtain: (i) employer's liability with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence; (ii) worker's compensation insurance; (iii) business interruption insurance to ensure the royalties, Service Contributions and any other sums payable to us (the policy should insure against 'all risks' of physical loss or damage, and be endorsed to provide for payments to be made directly to Holiday). Liability insurance premiums for required coverages can vary depending on such factors as jurisdiction, exposures, type of hotels, loss history, location and size of hotels, payroll size and other factors.

Note 16: The EVEN® Hotels Food and Beverage concept, branded as EVEN Kitchen & Bar delivers food and beverage offerings, fresh filtered water, coffee/teas, healthier to indulgent food and snack options and bar beverages with a brand-specified Marketplace. Note 17: This estimates your initial operating expenses for three months after opening. These figures include opening advertising programs, payroll costs, royalties, Services Contribution payments, hardware/software support, utility charges, and other supply costs. These figures are estimates and Holiday cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on factors such as: how closely you follow Holiday's methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for EVEN® Hotels' services; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and sales level reached during the initial period.

Note 18: Holiday has collected data from its company-owned hotels to compile these estimates and has also relied upon over 50 years of experience in the hotel franchise industry. The above chart may not reflect all of your expenses in opening the Hotel. There may be other items which Holiday is unable to estimate. The estimates provided are reasonably based on our experience and the Standards. Estimates are based on a 131-guestroom Hotel. IHG makes no representations that your initial investment will come within the ranges shown above and cannot guarantee that additional costs will not be incurred due to variables outside of our knowledge and experience. The total estimated initial investment does not include variables such real estate costs, contingency fees, finance charges, interest or debt service obligations. You are encouraged to independently investigate the cost of such items and have such items reviewed carefully with business and legal advisors before purchasing the license.

ITEM 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Except as described below, you are not required to purchase or lease products or services from Holiday or its affiliates, or from suppliers approved by Holiday, or under Holiday's specifications.

Standards and Specifications:

You must build, design, furnish, equip, decorate and supply the Hotel subject to Holiday's approval of your plans. You must equip the Hotel with products which meet the Standards and specifications and prototype plans, including those described in the License, the Standards and any mandated Standard Room Décor Programs (see also Item 11). All modernization, renovation and upgrading of your Hotel must also meet the Standards and specifications. Holiday issues specifications by brand of product and in many instances by brand "or equivalent," by physical characteristics and by other methods, depending on the product or service involved. Holiday can make changes to the Standards. These changes will become binding on you as if originally set forth in the Standards. Holiday will provide you with an explanation of any change, in writing, at least 30 days before it goes into effect.

Holiday estimates that the Standards and specifications will apply to 90% to 95% of your purchases and leases. If you purchase or lease any equipment or supplies not previously approved by Holiday, you are required to submit a written request for Holiday's approval. Holiday reserves the right to require removal of any non-approved product installed at the Hotel. While Holiday has no obligation to respond within a certain time frame, it expects to do so within 45 to 60 days from receipt of your request. Holiday may require certain information, tests and inspections, at no expense to Holiday, as a condition of approval.

Under the Standard Room Décor ("SRD Program"), all EVEN Hotels must choose and install in all guestrooms and public space a design scheme provided under Holiday's established SRD program or, under limited circumstances, a custom design approved by Holiday, meeting all of Holiday's detailed quality specifications. For approved custom designs, you must pay the Custom Design Fee, provide samples to show that your proposed alternate products will meet Holiday's quality specifications and you must receive prior written approval from Holiday. A model room is required for both the established SRD program and if a custom design is permitted.

In some instances, Holiday receives a small commission from vendors' sales to offset Holiday's costs of implementing the SRD Program. These costs include professional design services for creating new décor schemes for Holiday's licensees, prototype room development and testing, specifications development, negotiating and contracting services for items that the licensee may buy through this program, web site updating and maintenance, and licensee support service expenses. The commission amounts to ½% to 3% for SRD items. The information below reflects operations as of the date of this disclosure document and is subject to change. Standard Room Décor commissions for the year ending December 31, 2023, were $5,660,000.

Holiday requires you to hire qualified, licensed, professional advisors in the form of a project team, which includes certified project managers, architects, interior designers, engineers, purchasing agents and any other related specialists when building or renovating an EVEN hotel. If you cannot find such licensed professional help, contact your Openings Regional Director. Any design work submitted by unqualified individuals hired by you will be rejected and your Hotel can be subject to Plan default, resulting in an assessment of fees under the terms of your License. The fee for such Plan default will be $5,000. At our sole discretion, you may be required to remove any product installed in your hotel that has not been approved by IHG (during its Custom Design Review) explicitly in writing before installation.

At the time Holiday and you sign a License and before your Hotel opens, SCH may determine to fund your purchases from approved suppliers and then invoice you. You must reimburse SCH for these purchases. If Holiday funds your purchase before your Hotel opens, Holiday will not receive fees from approved suppliers.

Suppliers:

If Holiday requires you to purchase equipment, furnishings, supplies or other products for the Hotel from a designated or approved supplier or service provider in the License, the Standards, or other communication to you, then you must purchase the mandated product unless you receive prior approval from Holiday to purchase such products from another source whose products meet such specifications.

Holiday can designate the designers, architects, contractors and suppliers who will provide brand specified products, such as fixtures or furniture, and services. You may otherwise purchase your equipment, furnishings and supplies for the Hotel from any source, provided that the products meet the specifications in the Standards, except for suppliers of certain components of the property-based technology and telecommunications systems and as may be noted elsewhere in this disclosure document. Holiday may provide you with information and recommendations concerning firms which offer products and services (which the License and/or the Standards require you to use) which are necessary and useful to the operation of a Hotel, or which meet the Standards and specifications. However, Holiday has no ongoing obligation to provide purchasing information to you, and Holiday's practice and approach to this activity may change at any time. Your License does not require Holiday to engage in or continue these voluntary activities. We cannot guarantee that any vendor will extend or maintain credit or payment terms (including us and any vendors that are our affiliates).

In furnishing supplier or service provider information and making recommendations, Holiday uses its business judgment regarding the long-term interests of the Brand System as a whole, based on its information at that time concerning quality, performance, competitive pricing and similar factors. However, by identifying or recommending a supplier or service provider, Holiday makes no warranty to you of these or any other factors. Your use of an identified or recommended supplier or service provider, selling products or services meeting the Standards and specifications may make it easier for you to comply with the Standards and specifications, but it is not a substitute for compliance.

While Holiday may, from time to time, communicate with you or your suppliers/service providers regarding supply/service provider issues and take steps to improve performance or resolve complaints, Holiday has no responsibility for the financial condition or performance of any supplier or service provider.

Suppliers may offer Holiday the opportunity to take advantage of funds to support co-op marketing, training and other services that support the Brand System at national and hotel levels. When these options are available and selected, Holiday uses these funds as designated, and to the extent possible to benefit the Brand System and the systems of Holiday's other brands which purchase from suppliers. SCH and its affiliates may enter agreements with suppliers and receive revenue attributable to purchases by licensees and by SCH and its affiliates.

Nothing in your License prevents Holiday from having an ownership interest in any other business, including firms providing products or services to you or providing procurement services to you. If Holiday has, or later acquires, an ownership interest in a product or service provider, Holiday has no obligation to maintain that interest or to refrain from disposing of it as Holiday sees fit.

No officer of Holiday currently owns any interest in an approved supplier or service provider.

SCH currently utilizes a mixed resource model for the supply chain management functions. In the future, the procurement program may be comprised solely of SCH employees. The procurement program develops and supports purchasing programs and provides Brand System licensees with several valuable services. You can contact the procurement program by mail c/o IHG Procurement Program, Three Ravinia Drive, Suite 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30346 or by telephone during normal business hours of Monday – Friday 8:30AM – 5:00PM at its toll-free support line 855-466-7877. Purchasing professionals will be available to assist you with any questions you may have regarding sourcing of products or services through the IHG Procurement Program.

IHG runs a procurement program, named the "IHG Procurement Program", with the endorsement of the IHG Owners Association. The IHG Procurement Program seeks to deliver value and lower cost purchasing opportunities and options to its customers ("Programs"), including Holiday's licensees, as explained below. You are, however, under no obligation to use the IHG Procurement Program.

If you become an IHG Procurement Program you will purchase goods and services directly from suppliers at the IHG Procurement Program's negotiated prices. The relationship between licensee and supplier is that of buyer and seller. You are not required to purchase from the IHG Procurement Program's suppliers or participate in the IHG Procurement Program in any way and you are free to purchase goods and services from any supplier, so long as the supplier fully complies with Holiday's and SCH's specifications and the Standards, unless Holiday requires you to purchase a product from a designated or approved supplier in the License, the Standards or other communication to you.

The IHG Procurement Program operates on a cost recovery basis with fees for both procurement and technical ordering transaction services included in the supplier invoiced price. Prices paid by licensees for goods and services as a participant of the IHG Procurement Program and/or under a Brand Standard/Specification Program will include up to a 6% cost recovery fee. These fees cover the resource, travel, technology and Program related costs for the IHG Procurement Program. Occasionally, the prices will include allowances and rebates paid to the IHG Procurement Program or licensees directly by suppliers on your purchases. Allowances and rebates received by the IHG Procurement Program or properties directly from suppliers will generally range from approximately 1% to 5% of the amount of the invoice price for the goods and services purchased by you from suppliers participating in the Programs. All supplier allowances and rebates will be fully transparent to the franchise buyers and distributed to the hotels either directly from suppliers or through the IHG Procurement Program administrative group.

Signage:

Your hotel must display a primary sign that meets Holiday's specifications. The total signage package, including all additional signage, must also meet Holiday's specifications and it must be purchased from a Holiday approved sign vendor. A post-installation inspection fee will be included in the price from the Holiday approved sign vendor. Only Holiday approved sign suppliers are authorized to manufacture and install exterior signage.

Reservation System and Computerized Enhancements:

You must purchase equipment, software and services for property-level technology and telecommunications systems from third-party vendors whom Holiday designates or who meet Holiday's specifications (see Item 11).

Long-Distance Telecommunications, Program Management Commissions and Miscellaneous Services:

SCH has negotiated rates which are on file with the Federal Communications Commission with certain providers of long-distance telecommunication services to Brand System licensees, such as AT&T and Verizon, in consideration for assistance, program support or other services SCH renders to the providers in connection with their sales to licensees. You do not have to use these providers.

Insurance:

Holiday's specifications for the amounts and types of required insurance coverage are specifically described in paragraph 8.B of the License. If you fail to procure or maintain the insurance coverages and limits set forth in paragraph 8.B, Holiday will have the right and authority (but not the obligation) to procure such insurance at your cost, including any costs incurred by Holiday for procurement and maintenance of such insurance. Holiday currently requires that you obtain a general liability insurance policy (including coverage for product liability, completed operations, contractual liability, host liquor liability and fire legal liability) and business automobile liability insurance policy (including hired and non-owned liability) with single limit coverage for personal and bodily injury and property damage of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence naming Holiday, SCH and their parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as additional insureds. In connection with all construction at the Hotel, you must require your general contractor to maintain commercial general liability insurance (including coverage for product liability, completed operations and contractual liability) and business automobile liability insurance (including hired and non-owned liability) with limits of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence for personal and bodily injury and property damage naming Holiday, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as additional insureds. Holiday also requires you to maintain employment practices liability insurance (including coverage for harassment, discrimination and wrongful termination and covering defense and indemnity costs). Holiday also requires that you obtain employment practices liability insurance with a limit of $1,000,000 per occurrence and in the aggregate. The holder of the liquor license must maintain liquor liability insurance with single limit coverage for personal and bodily injury and property damage of at least $15,000,000 for each occurrence naming Holiday and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, (and the Licensee if applicable) as additional insureds. You must also obtain: (i) employer's liability with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence; (ii) worker's compensation insurance; (iii) business interruption insurance to ensure the royalties, Service Contributions and any other sums payable to us (the policy should insure against 'all risks' of physical loss or damage, and be endorsed to provide for payments to be made directly to Holiday). The estimated costs for liability insurance premiums will vary depending on such factors as jurisdiction, exposures, type of Hotel, loss history, location and size of Hotel, payroll size and other factors.

“Private Network” Connecting Services:

You must purchase “private network” connecting services, or another solution Holiday specifies, for use in communicating with the Reservation System from Holiday’s designated vendor. Your Hotel’s private network will be connected to a fully managed router service with a certified interface to SCH’s proprietary systems.

Property Management System:

You must install the certified equipment specified for the PMS as required by SCH. You must request a waiver to use an alternative source. The PMS equipment is also used for accessing the Reservation System. PMS equipment software and maintenance are described in the Master Technology Services Agreement (Exhibit C). You must purchase PMS training, implementation, and hardware and software support services (see Item 6). You must also enter into a Joinder Agreement (can be found within Exhibit C) with Hewlett-Packard Inc. in order to obtain the PMS system, hardware, software and deployment services at your hotel and for the procurement and installation of hardware, software, and installation services of a credit card solution at your Hotel.

Hotels will operate a computerized property management system (PMS) that has been certified by SCH and must maintain the PMS in conformance with the Standards of SCH. The PMS must have a database schema and shell which is approved by SCH, in order for the interface from the PMS to the Reservation System to work correctly. Hotels will be responsible for establishing and maintaining proper application access control to align with Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI-DSS). Operating systems, database, and other programs must be maintained with current approved security patches that are fully supported by the software vendors. The PMS must be periodically updated and maintained to conform to SCH approved software versions, technology advancements and security requirements. This may require certain hardware and/or software components to be replaced or upgraded. At a minimum, the PMS hardware and software must be replaced at least every 48 months. PMS hardware includes server(s), workstations, printers, monitors, ups, back-up device, and associated network components.

In the twelve months ending December 31, 2023, SCH and its subsidiaries’ net revenue from license purchases of PMS and Reservation System equipment, software, training and support services (“information technology program purchases”) was $2,600,000, as indicated in the year-end financial statement of the Deployment Profit and Loss Statement for the Global Technology division. SCH retains a portion of the project management charges for licensee information technology program purchases.

Holiday estimates that more than 95% of the gross revenues from licensee information technology program purchases are therefore paid over directly to information technology program vendors and are not retained by SCH or Holiday. The financial information provided in the Profit and Loss Statement for the Global Technology division is not generally available to licensees.

SCH has selected Opera as the required property management system (“PMS”) to interface with and access the Reservation System for EVEN® Hotels. You must enter into a license agreement with the supplier for this PMS option. You must also obtain from the supplier of the PMS, for a fee, ongoing maintenance and support for all other PMS components, including software, hardware, the telecommunication systems, electronic door locking and keycard system, high speed Internet access and specialized sales software, including PMS software upgrades (see Item 11). Oracle America, Inc. is the PMS Provider for the Opera PMS.

You must also pay support fees for the other components of property-level systems, such as PMS equipment maintenance, and for other systems which interface to the Opera PMS system; such as the telecommunications system, the electronic door locking and keycard system, and the specialized sales software. Hardware and software maintenance fees may vary based on the number of rooms at the Hotel.

SCH’s criteria and procedures for approval of this required supplier of the PMS software and its ongoing maintenance and support are not readily available to Brand System licensees, but SCH will provide them at your request. SCH will notify you of any discontinuation of these services.

NextGen Payments:

SCH administers a computerized payment card processing program, NextGen Payments (“NGP”). NGP is a data security process designed to remove certain credit card information from IHG systems. Using PCI certified payment terminals, credit card data will be encrypted and converted to tokens before entering the PMS. SCH has contracted with FreedomPay to provide the tokenization application services. All hotels are required to use NGP or such successor payments program as may be implemented by SCH. Hardware and software systems required to connect must be fully operational when the hotel opens, with appropriate management and staff trained and competent to operate NGP at all times. Each licensee will be required to enter into a merchant processing application and agreement with Fiserv, the SCH-approved merchant service provider, and a participation agreement with FreedomPay and SCH (see Exhibit H-4).

Guest Internet Access – Bandwidth (IHG Connect):

For Guest Internet Access (“GIA”) Bandwidth, a hotel will be required to use an approved SCH-certified provider and to sign an IHG Direct Hotel Participation Agreement with such provider as may be approved by SCH from time to time, the form of which agreement is attached as Exhibit H-5 to this disclosure document. Estimates for infrastructure needs can vary greatly by location. Actual costs can only be obtained once vendor site surveys are completed, due to the unique building and construction circumstances of a given property.

Guest Internet Access – Hardware (IHG Connect):

For Guest Internet Access (“GIA”) Hardware, a hotel will be required to install SCH-approved Wi-Fi equipment and use an SCH-approved integrator (an “Integrator”) for the installation of Wi-Fi equipment. Estimates for infrastructure needs can vary greatly by location and building type. Due to unique building and construction of any given property, actual costs can only be obtained once Integrator site surveys are completed. The site survey will help determine the number and types of Wi-Fi equipment through a Wi-Fi heat map coverage diagram (see Item 7, Note 5).

Keycard System:

EVEN hotels must utilize an approved Keycard System that meets brand requirements. The estimated cost for the Keycard System will be $11,000 to $16,500 for a hotel with 100 rooms; $11,000 to $22,000 for a hotel with 200 rooms; $10,000 to $27,500 for a hotel with 300 rooms. This includes the server, key encoders, installation, and support. It does not include the cost of the locks for the doors themselves. You must obtain ongoing maintenance and support for the required Keycard System software, including upgrades and new versions. You must also obtain ongoing equipment maintenance for the Keycard System hardware. The Keycard System provider will bill and collect the fee from you for the required Keycard System hardware / software support. The costs will vary depending on the Hotel's specific technology needs, including the number of key encoders and servers at the Hotel. The Keycard System must interface with the Property Management System (PMS).

Televisions:

Hotels are required to provide televisions that meet the technical specification requirements and minimal diagonal screen size for in-room and public spaces.

In-Room Entertainment:

Hotels are required to install and maintain approved TV sets and/or STBs that are compatible with IHG Studio, use an approved SCH-certified integrator to install the equipment, connect guest room TVs to the data port behind the TV that connects to a switch using an ethernet cable, and must enter into an agreement with one of them. Monthly service fees will include a base per-room fee for guest support.

In the twelve months ending on December 31, 2023, SCH and its subsidiaries' net revenue from HBO service purchases was $550,018.50.

Employee Safety Devices:

Hotels are responsible for installing an alert system that enables employees to notify hotel management of an emergency with the push of a button ("Employee Safety Devices"). The Employee Safety Devices must be available to all employees that work in guest rooms, must instantly signal guest room and guest floor location when activated, must continuously update guest room and guest floor location, must be in accordance with any federal, state, or local laws, and must be tested every six months. In addition, all new employees, including contract and temporary, must receive training on the Employee Safety Devices within the first 14 days of employment. Employee Safety Devices must be procured and installed by an approved supplier and meet defined requirements set forth in the Standards. You may be required to sign a participation agreement with an approved vendor for these services.

Public Access Computers:

Hotels are required to install designated workstations and a multi-function printer, providing complementary internet access to hotel guests in the Business Center ("Public Access Computers"). The Public Access Computers must be available 24 hours a day, must utilize SCH-approved security protection software and must include enrollment in a 24x7 support program offered by an SCH-approved vendor. In addition, all Public Access Computers are required to be refreshed every four years, a minimum of one computer must have Microsoft Office, and all must operate at the same or greater bandwidth port speed as other internet enabled devices on the Guest Internet Access network. You may be required to sign a participation agreement with an approved vendor for these services.

IHG Global Cabling & Infrastructure Standards Basis of Design (BOD):

Hotels are required to adhere to the IHG Cable and Infrastructure Standards Basis of Design (BOD), as it provides clear guidance on the Cable and Infrastructure requirements for all IHG projects and properties. This BOD standard is a minimum requirement; however, it will still require project specific IT infrastructure Design Development (DD) and Construction Design (CD) packages to fully address the specific needs of each unique project and property. These designs must also fully comply with all areas of the BOD, and all other referenced and related IHG BOD documents and standards.

The requirements of this IHG Cable and Infrastructure Basis of Design (BOD), shall apply as the design and build-out basis for all IHG projects and properties, unless specifically indicated otherwise with advance written approval. The infrastructure design, materials and installation for each project must adhere to and fully comply with the most current versions of all applicable referenced standards and specifications, laws, rules, standards, regulations, codes and ordinances of the country, federal, state, local and any other authorities having jurisdiction. Where the codes and standards requirements of any BOD areas conflict with each other, or are more stringent than other applicable codes, rules, regulations, and ordinances, the more stringent specifications shall apply. Deviations from any BOD Cable and Infrastructure design and performance requirements must be submitted in advance and require written approval from IHG, prior to any materials being purchased, or installed. Any failure or deviations to fully comply with all aspects of this Cable and Infrastructure BOD must be corrected at no additional cost to IHG.

F&B POS System:

EVEN® Hotels brand hotels must utilize an approved POS solution, that meets brand requirements. The estimated initial cost for the POS purchase and installation will range from $35,000 to $45,000, and will include three standard outlets. Pricing will increase with the installation of additional outlets. You must obtain ongoing maintenance and support for the required POS software, including upgrades and new versions. The annual maintenance fee is estimated to be $3,500 to $5,000, based on a typical single brand installation. You must also obtain ongoing equipment maintenance for the POS hardware. The POS provider will bill and collect the fee from you for the required POS hardware / software support. The costs will vary based on the number of rooms at the hotel and according to your technology needs. The POS provider will provide you with a third-party license agreement for the use of the POS software. Therefore, you must sign a third party license agreement with the approved POS provider or with any other POS provider designated by SCH. This license agreement includes on-going maintenance and support for the POS software. The POS provider will bill you annually for the support fee. The POS provider may not increase the maintenance and support fee more than once during any calendar year. You must also pay support fees for the other components of property-level systems, such as POS equipment maintenance, and for other systems which interface to the POS; such as the PMS system, the Sales and Catering system or other specialized sales software. Hardware and software maintenance fees may vary based on the number of rooms at the hotel and your technology fees.

IHG Merlin System:

SCH has designed a communication service, (<http://ihgmerlin.com>) known as “IHG Merlin”, and its messaging tool, currently known as “Hotel Bulletin”, which are the primary means of sending information from Holiday and SCH to licensees and in some cases, this may be the only manner in which Holiday and SCH communicate with Hotels and licensees. IHG Merlin and Hotel Bulletin will require you to access the Internet via third-party computer network communications service (“Internet Service Provider” or “ISP”).

IHG Merlin is an electronic information library providing up-to-the-minute information and documentation from SCH at your fingertips. IHG Merlin was created solely for Holiday’s various brand groups of hotels and their employees. In some cases, information may be distributed to Brand System hotels only through IHG Merlin. Information may include: the Standards, PMS Manual, newsletters and informational memos from Holiday or SCH, Marketing Solicitations, etc.

To access IHG Merlin, you must select and pay a monthly fee for an ISP which meets the minimum specifications established by SCH. The monthly fee will include Internet access and support. This access will provide you with an e-mail account and access to sites on the Internet and World Wide Web. You may select an ISP from any source as long as it meets SCH’s exact specifications.

IHG Merlin requires a Microsoft Windows based (Windows 10 Professional or newer OS) PC and printer configured to SCH’s specifications. You may purchase the equipment from any source as long as it meets SCH’s exact specifications. SCH requires ongoing maintenance and support services of equipment that you may purchase from a third party.

IHG Merlin houses proprietary information to Holiday and its brands. Information you receive from IHG Merlin may be used exclusively in the performance of your rights and obligations under your License with Holiday regarding an IHG-branded hotel only. All such information must be treated as proprietary to Holiday and SCH and confidential. Your use and access to this information will be limited in accordance with Holiday's or SCH's express terms and conditions.

Coca-Cola® Agreement:

Pursuant to the Standards, Hotels located within the 50 United States (including the District of Columbia) are currently required to participate in the IHG|Coca-Cola® Beverage Program (the "Beverage Program"). You must sign a Participation Agreement with The Coca-Cola Company ("TCCC"), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit H-3, unless a waiver is granted by Holiday. Waivers may be granted by Holiday if your Hotel has a pre-existing beverage agreement with another supplier. Under the Beverage Program, participating Hotels are subject to the standards and requirements summarized below.

All participating Hotels are required to make available to guests a core set of TCCC bottled/canned beverages (subject to availability) that consists of Coca-Cola®, Diet Coke®, Sprite® and Coke Zero Sugar™. Hotels that serve fountain beverages are required to include Coca-Cola®, Diet Coke®, Sprite® and Coke Zero Sugar™. In addition, Hotels are required to serve Simply® Orange (a TCCC juice product). All non-alcoholic bottled/canned beverages (including waters), fountain beverages, and juices offered, served, or sold by your Hotel must be TCCC beverages, unless a permitted exception in your Hotel's Participation Agreement applies. All beverages displayed and offered in coolers and vending machines must be TCCC products, with limited exceptions for equipment owned by the Hotel. You may also be required to sign a lease agreement with TCCC for TCCC-provided equipment; a copy of which is included as part of Exhibit H-3. Hotels may not serve, offer, or display any products of PepsiCo.

All non-alcoholic beverages served at meetings or events hosted by your Hotel should be TCCC products, unless serving non-TCCC beverages was required by the client as a condition of booking the function. In such circumstances, serving competitive beverages is permitted; provided, that certain restrictions set forth in your Participation Agreement are followed. Third-party restaurant or bar outlets operating at the Hotel are not required to follow the Beverage Program but may do so at their discretion.

TCCC provides certain funding based on the volume of TCCC products sold in Brand System Hotels. Most of this funding is administered by a cross-functional Business Partnership Team with representatives from TCCC and SCH, who work to identify and execute opportunities to create value for TCCC and the Brand System. Some funding is received by SCH on behalf of the Brand System and utilized for the benefit of the Brand System and/or to promote the sale of TCCC beverages throughout the Brand System. In connection with such funding and as part of the Coca-Cola Beverage Program, Hotels are required to participate in various promotional programs and marketing activities as directed by SCH.

Additional requirements or restrictions in the Standards or the Participation Agreement may apply to your Hotel. Unless clearly covered by a permitted exception stated in your Participation Agreement, exemptions to the Standards relating to the Beverage Program or to requirements of the Hotel Participation Agreement require written approval from Holiday or SCH pursuant to the waiver application process.

Groups360:

We currently own an interest in Groups360 LLC ("Groups360"), which provides lead generation services, meeting advisory services, and marketing services to participating Hotels in our Brand System and other hospitality companies. Groups360 collects commissions from participating Hotels in our Brand System for providing such services. If participating Hotels meet certain thresholds, we will receive additional equity interests in the company. In 2023, Holiday did not receive any distributions or additional equity interests from Groups360 as a result of licensed hotel purchases, but IHG did record its pro-rata share of Groups360's losses in our financial statements.

OTHER PURCHASES:

Holiday or its affiliates may also offer you, on a non-exclusive basis, additional advertising materials, products, services, equipment or supplies. Holiday may earn a profit from these sales, but you have no obligation to purchase any of these products, services, equipment or supplies from Holiday or its affiliates. Holiday does not currently provide any material benefits (i.e., re-licensing or granting additional licenses) to a licensee based on its use of a designated or approved supply source.

FINANCING

Holiday does not offer any formal program for direct or indirect financing. Holiday, SCH or its affiliate, General Innkeeping Acceptance Corporation, ("GIAC") may furnish loans or guaranties to licensees. Holiday, SCH and GIAC consider making loans or guaranties under terms and conditions that would be negotiated on a case-by-case basis with the prospective licensee and any decision to make a loan or provide a guaranty would be made in the judgment of Holiday, SCH or GIAC alone, and conditioned upon approval of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors. It is your responsibility alone to obtain adequate financing for all expenses related to the development, opening and operation of the Hotel.

ITEM 11
FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

¹ In addition to your obligation to repair and maintain the hotel on an ongoing basis, and regardless whether Holiday has required you to establish a Capital Reserve, you must complete significant renovations of the Hotel, including, but not limited to, the public areas, guest rooms and guest room corridors. The mandatory renovations include replacement of Soft Goods at least every seven (7) years after such Soft Goods were installed and replacement of Case Goods at least every fourteen (14) years after such Case Goods were installed, although earlier or more frequent renovations or replacements may be required to maintain compliance with the Standards, quality and guest satisfaction programs or to remove risk of injury to persons or property and to comply with legal requirements.

If the Hotel experiences a change of ownership, the dates of these obligations may be adjusted at the time a change of ownership License is signed. You must submit your plans for such upgrading and remodeling to Holiday for its review and approval before you start upgrading or remodeling and upon completion of the upgrading or remodeling, you must provide to Holiday a written opinion from your architect, licensed professional engineer, or other third-party expert on the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") certifying that the hotel as renovated complies with the ADA and with any other applicable laws, codes, ordinances, or regulations governing accessibility to persons with disabilities.

Except as listed below, Holiday is not required to provide you with any assistance. Holiday can perform any or all of its obligations to you directly, or through its parents, affiliates, subsidiaries or other designees. For example, SCH performs many of the activities described in this disclosure document.

Assistance Before the Hotel Opens:

Holiday is not responsible for acquiring the site for the location of your Hotel (paragraph 1.A of the License). Holiday's representative may make a personal inspection of the site and the surrounding area. Although Holiday does not grant site approval, it may deny site approval for a hotel. Conforming the site to federal, state and local laws, ordinances, and building codes and obtaining required permits (e.g. health, sanitation, building, driveway, utility and sign permits, etc.) is your responsibility.

At least 210 days prior to ground break, you must submit preliminary plans. Holiday will approve your construction plans for conversion or new development if they meet the requirements of the License and the Standards. You may not start construction until you obtain Holiday's approval. Construction or remodeling costs and arrangements are your responsibility alone. Holiday may in the future require use of prototype plans, but Holiday does not currently provide or mandate them. You must commission and pay your architect directly.

At least 120 days prior to ground break, you must submit final plans, specifications and drawings for the Hotel, including its proposed equipment, furnishings, facilities and signs, with the detail and containing the information that Holiday requests, and to commence construction. Unless Holiday grants your request for an extension to your construction completion deadline, you must complete construction and furnishing and obtain Holiday's authorization to open a new development hotel for business within 18 months from the date of commencement of construction and within 24 months from the date of the License.

You may apply for an extension of the construction commencement or completion deadlines. Holiday will consider various factors which may influence your extension request, including the ability to obtain financing or building permits, zoning and local ordinances, weather conditions, shortages or delayed installation of equipment, fixtures and signs. Holiday's approval of extension requests is not automatic. You will be responsible for any expenses incurred by Holiday in processing the extension request. As Note 7 to Item 6 describes, there is a fee for extending these deadlines.

EVEN® Hotels Brand Standards:

Before you purchase a license, you will have the opportunity to review a copy of the Standards. Thereafter, Holiday may make the Standards available to you in hard paper copy, or, at Holiday's option, in digital, electronic or other computerized form. The Standards contain mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, and procedures. All EVEN® Hotels are subject to the Standards. Holiday will notify you of each change in the Standards at least 30 days before it goes into effect. These notifications can be by digital, electronic, computerized or other means. The Standards are confidential and remain Holiday's property and are protected by applicable copyright laws (see paragraphs 3, 4 and 12 of the License).

Specifications:

Before detailed construction documents are started by your architect, representatives of your Hotel must attend a kick-off meeting for consultation and coordination with Holiday. Various members of the EVEN® Hotels team will be present to review all related business plans, target markets for operation, and building plans as well as scheduled timelines for the completion of these plans to licensee. Members of the EVEN® Hotels team may include senior operations management and representatives from other areas, including, for example, sales and marketing, purchasing, information technology, and other license support systems. Holiday requires the following representatives of your Hotel to attend the kick-off meeting: Principal Contact (licensee), General Manager (if appointed), Designer and Architectural Representatives, General Contractor, and all other principals involved in the construction, development and marketing of the property. There is no charge for the kick-off meeting. However, you must pay your representatives' travel, lodging and living expenses.

Holiday will review your construction working drawings to check for compliance with the Standards. Holiday does not review the drawings for compliance with any local, state and federal law, including any obligations imposed by the Americans with Disabilities Act since this legal compliance is your responsibility.

Holiday provides written specifications for products and materials for you to use in the upgrading, construction and furnishing of the Hotel, in the form of a Product Improvement Plan or "PIP", which will be Attachment "B" to your License. The PIP provides: (i) specific renovations and alterations required to meet the requirements of the Standards and Holiday's quality requirements; (ii) specific dates by which you must submit plans and drawings; and (iii) beginning dates and interim milestone and completion dates for constructing the Hotel and for opening the Hotel for business. You must obtain Holiday's review and approval of your model room prior to ordering, purchasing and installation of guest room FF&E for new build and conversion projects. Any design work submitted by unqualified individuals hired by you will be rejected and your Hotel can be subject to Plan default, resulting in an assessment of fees under the terms of your License. The fee for such Plan default will be up to $5,000. You may be required to remove any non-approved product installed in your Hotel that has not been approved by IHG Plan Review before installation.

Holiday's Inspection Before Opening:

Holiday inspects and approves your Hotel before Holiday authorizes it to open, to confirm that you have completed all of the requirements under paragraph 13.J and/or Attachment "B" (the PIP) of the License. In the event that your Hotel fails its opening inspection or you need to reschedule your opening date or any visits that have not yet been made by Holiday, you may be charged a fee of up to $5,000 for each extension and/or additional visit.

Holiday must approve your extension request in writing and you must pay any expenses Holiday incurs in processing the extension request.

Holiday may authorize you to use the Brand System at the Hotel before completion of the construction, upgrading and renovation work (paragraph 13.J and Attachment "B" of the License) if you are in full compliance with the requirements of Attachment "B" of the License.

You may acquire the signage, furnishings, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies from any source that meets Holiday's specifications and receives IHG approval prior to purchase or installation. If the Brand Standards require the implementation of an IHG contracted design package, any alternate design or alternate vendor selections are subject to a Custom Design Review fee of up to $25,000. Holiday does not deliver or install any of these items. For your convenience, Holiday has approved certain suppliers meeting its specifications, but you do not have to use those suppliers except for suppliers of certain components of the property-based technology telecommunications systems, brand hallmarks and as noted elsewhere in this disclosure document (see Item 8).

Holiday estimates that the length of time between signing of the License and the opening of your new development Hotel will be 18 to 24 months under normal circumstances. For conversion hotels, the length of time between the signing of the License and the completion of construction or upgrading typically ranges from 12 to 15 months. However, each license is subject to the agreed upon construction commencement and completion (otherwise known as opening) dates contained in that specific license.

Other than the computerized property management and reservation system equipment (see below in this Item 11), Holiday and its affiliates do not deliver or install any of the construction items and/or furnishings. The factors that will affect the actual time needed include obtaining the financing, preparing final construction and site plans, securing necessary governmental approvals, constructing and furnishing the hotel and participating in the necessary initial training program.

Access to IHG Merlin:

Through the IHG Merlin Site, Holiday's parent, SCH, will provide documents, information and other materials including the Standards documentation; sales and marketing tools; information about operations; quality and brand initiatives; news and announcements that are pertinent to your brand, IHG and the hospitality industry; training tools and resources, and technology support information to you through a web portal that you will access on IHG Merlin (<http://www.ihgmerlin.com/>). Through this web portal, you will be able to access the forms and information that will assist you with opening and operating your Hotel. Your team will be able to access IHG Merlin regularly to use the sales tools and information resources that support your Hotel. You will be able to view and copy materials relating to the brand, the hotel Brand System and other industry information. You must agree to keep all materials you receive from this program confidential.

NOTES:

Note 1: Every General Manager must satisfactorily complete the IHG® General Manager Program Onboarding Level within the dates required per the Standards (see Items 5 and 7). Holiday also recommends that the General Manager obtains the Certified Hotel Administrator (CHA) designation from the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute (AHLEI). Holiday conducts General Manager training virtually, in Atlanta or at other designated regional locations. General Manager training focuses on areas of operation that are unique to the Brand System and to management functions. If the General Manager leaves the IHG system for more than one year and returns, they must complete the Onboarding Level of the IHG® General Manager Program within the first six months of starting in the role. All required core certification training is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program. For in-person classes, you must pay for your trainees' travel expenses or any training expenses incurred from any optional or supplemental courses that your trainees attend. Every General Manager must also attend annual retraining seminar(s) when designated by Holiday.

Hotels should allocate annual pre-determined amounts per full-time employee for optional value-add and specialist courses: Managers/Department Heads - $650; Assistant Managers/Supervisors - $450; Frontline colleagues - $250. Where the amount of the value-add and specialist training exceeds 2% of Total salaries and wages budget, hotels should cap their Learning & Development allocation at 2% of their Total salaries and wages budget. This estimated budget amount is required for the consumption of IHG Value-Add and Specialist learning offers and the personal development of hotel employees through other various training programs, which also includes virtual and e-learning. (We have provided these figures only so that we can help provide an estimate of costs; however, you will always be the only party – even with any estimates reflected in this FDD – that sets your staff's wages, salaries, and terms of employment, and we will not play any role in helping you set your staff's wages, salaries, or terms of employment.)

Note 2: Directors of Sales/Sales Manager/equivalent must also satisfactorily complete the appropriate sales initial certification training program for EVEN® Hotels within the dates required per the Standards. Holiday will conduct the initial certification training program at a location determined by Holiday. The training program focuses on areas of sales that are unique to the Brand System and to sales functions. All required core certification training is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program. (see Items 5 and 7). For in-person classes, you must pay for your trainees' travel expenses or any training expenses incurred from any optional or supplemental courses that your trainees attend.

Also, each replacement Director of Sales or Sales Manager must complete the Sales initial certification training program described above within the dates required per the Standards. In addition, your Director of Sales, Sales Manager or equivalent must complete annual retraining requirements as Holiday may designate.

Note 3: Front Office Managers/equivalent must satisfactorily complete the Front Office Manager Program within the dates required per the Standards. Holiday will conduct Front Office Manager Program at Holiday's corporate headquarters in Atlanta, GA or other designated location. All required core certification training is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program. For in-person classes, you must pay any travel, living and training expenses of your trainees.

General Managers and designated Hotel Experience Champions must also attend the Leading the Brand Training for new hotels to be held prior to hotel opening. The cost for the training event is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program.

The PMS provides a computerized front desk operation, and is designed to increase speed and productivity of front desk operational tasks (i.e., Check-In, Check-Out, Night-Audit, Housekeeping, Management Reports, etc.).

The IHG Concerto™ software and Revenue Management System (RMS) functionality with Price Optimization are proprietary to SCH, and must be used only in conjunction with the operation of the Reservation System and PMS in your Hotel. SCH will install, maintain and provide training and implementation support for IHG Concerto™. The RMS performs a task called "forecasting." Using data related to your hotel from past years and a snapshot of your future bookings, RMS creates a detailed forecast of future business for your hotel for the upcoming year. The RMS also produces inventory controls which are used in the sell process of your PMS and the Reservation System. The forecast and inventory controls are updated a minimum of once a day and sometimes more often depending on reservation activity. The hotel has access to RMS data via a User Interface, and therefore may view or change data as necessary.

There are four types of IHG Concerto™, Yielding & Price Optimization database builds: Standard (12 months of 2-way data), Proxy (90 days of 2-way data), NHOP (day of opening) and Early (during pre-sale, inventory defined). A Standard build needs a minimum of one year of consecutive 2-way data before activation. A Proxy build needs a minimum of 3 months of consecutive 2-way data and 9 months of data from a comparable hotel. A NHOP or Early build is available 1-60 days from the time the hotel's inventory is fully activated and defined in the reservation system.

IHG Concerto™ RMS functionality with Price Optimization creates pricing recommendations based on competitive pricing, hotel demand forecasting, and hotel booking activities. The integration of Competitive Data into RMS with Price Optimization may require a subscription fee to such competitive data.

Costs of between $30 and $120 may apply for competitive rate insight shopping. For hotels currently subscribing to RevenueStrategy360, these costs may be waived.

No rights of ownership in or to the IHG Concerto™ or any component of the PMS, including all component software and design features (including any software or equipment owned by third parties) are transferred to you or a hotel upon joining the Brand System. You will not acquire any rights to the IHG Concerto™, or any PMS component except a limited right to their access and use in accordance with the Master Technology Services Agreement and any third party software licenses, and the License during your term as a licensee in good standing.

You may install only approved system components and software, and no other computer hardware or software.

Holiday and SCH have the right, at any time, to require immediate upgrade, supplement or replacement of computers and/or peripheral equipment or software that they determine has become obsolete. Currently there are no contractual limitations on the frequency or cost of this upgrading, supplementing or replacement of equipment or software.

Holiday and SCH have independent access to the information and data collected by the PMS and Reservation System. There are currently no contractual limitations, other than confidentiality of guest history information, on Holiday's or SCH's right to access the information and data.

Note 4: Food and Beverage Managers/equivalent must satisfactorily complete the Food and Beverage certification Program within the dates required per the Standards. Holiday will conduct a Food and Beverage Program at Holiday's corporate headquarters in Atlanta, GA or other designated location. All required core certification training is included in the annual subscription for the IHG Learning Program. You must pay any travel, living and training-related expenses of your trainees.

The minimum experience of the instructors that is relevant to the subjects taught and Holiday's operations is from 5 to over 25 years. Holiday personnel or consultants will provide on-site consulting and/or training visits to your Hotel as needed. Topics for review and discussion may include the Reservation System, Revenue Management, Service Management, Marketing and Training Programs/Promotions, brand service delivery and other operational and customer service areas. The General Manager, department heads and designated staff will develop Market Analysis, Revenue Planning, Sales Planning, Service Planning strategies and action plans during visits. You will receive these for review and follow-up with your General Manager. Your Hotel must participate in the on-site consulting and/or training visits or workshops. The General Manager, designated department heads and designated staff must attend and participate. You must provide food, lodging, meeting accommodations, and equipment expenses for Holiday's designated trainers. Holiday develops operations and customer support training programs for staff at Hotels. The training is likely to include classroom, on-property and on the job training and will be mandatory.

In addition, you must pay a charge for the Brand Shadowing Program as designated by the brand (see Item 6). The General Manager and Guest Service Manager will be required to participate in a 3-5 day hand-on learning program at a designated EVEN® Hotel. Travel and living expenses are the responsibility of the attendee.

The Executive Housekeeper and the Food & Beverage Manager will be required to participate in a 1-3 day hands-on learning program at a designated EVEN® Hotel. Travel and living expenses are the responsibility of the attendee.

Holiday conducts training at periodic intervals depending upon the need and availability of trainees. Holiday's instructors are experienced within the industry and are trained to be effective instructors. You must pay all costs for attendance by your personnel in Holiday's courses. These costs include tuition, materials, travel and living expenses, whenever applicable.

Note 5: The Openings program provides services and training required to open a hotel in the Brand System, including Key Programs Training, post-opening support and other pre-opening consultations. The related Preopening Support Fee is $8,500 and covers pre-opening support, including select training, materials, and post-opening support.

The RAMP UP Program will familiarize you with the key IHG systems, sales, and marketing support crucial for a smooth hotel opening process. General Managers, operations and sales leaders attending this multi-day course will learn the key concepts of Revenue Management and how to position your hotel for the best profit, understand and have hands on practice using the components of the reservation system to sell your hotel to potential guests and know how to locate the IHG tools and resources available to your hotel to maximize occupancy during your ramp up time frame at your new hotel. Attendance is restricted to hotels within 30-45 days of opening with an invitation from your opening manager. IHG reserves the right to cancel your registration if the hotel does not meet the criteria for participation.

The RAMP UP Program is an instructor-led training program that provides basic instruction on IHG Concerto™, the reservation process and revenue management. Your General Manager and other individuals designated as the system experts for your hotel must attend the Ramp Up program virtually or at an SCH designated location. There are no fees for your General Manager and your Hotel's designated system experts to attend this training. Participants from all hotels are responsible for their own expenses for travel, meals and lodging if they attend the workshop in person.

The General Manager and entire hotel staff must also attend Key Programs Pre-Opening training at your property. A Holiday employee will visit your Hotel to assist in the Hotel's becoming a Crowne Plaza brand hotel. The Holiday employee may train all Hotel management/ supervisory staff to deliver information to line-level employees. Generally, training topics include: the Standards, guest service skills, marketing and loyalty programs, service planning, quality measurement and life safety and security.

Your General Manager and front office staff must have access to IHG Concerto™ and complete necessary web-based training including: Get to know IHG Concerto™, IHG Concerto Home Page Overview, and Digital Check-In Training, all available at no cost.

Note 6: Holiday's employees will provide on-site consulting and/or training visit(s) to your Hotel each year. During the visit(s), Holiday's employee will engage in the Focus consulting process. Topics will include, for example: the Reservations and channel Brand Systems, Revenue Management, Service Management, Marketing Programs/Promotions, IHG Concerto™ system and other operational and customer service areas. The General Manager, department heads and designated staff will develop Market Analysis, Revenue Planning, Sales Planning, Service Planning strategies and action plans during the on-site visit; you will receive these for review and follow-up with the General Manager after each on-site visit. Your Hotel must participate in the on-site consulting, with mandatory attendance and participation by the General Manager, designated department heads and designated staff and suggested attendance by representative of Licensee and/or owner. You must provide food, lodging, meeting room, and equipment expenses for Holiday's employees.

Note 7: If you are required to purchase subsequent training materials for any of the aforementioned training programs, Holiday estimates that such subsequent training materials will cost no more than a total of $5,000 per hotel for all trainees combined.

Other Assistance During the Operation of the Hotel:

After the opening of the Hotel (see paragraph 4 of the License), Holiday will:

(a) seek to maintain high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service at all hotels using the Brand System, to promote, protect and enhance the public image and reputation of the EVEN® Hotels brand name, and to increase the demand for services offered by the Brand System. Holiday's judgment in these matters will be controlling in all respects, and it will have wide latitude in making these judgments;

(b) provide required and optional training programs at various locations, including Holiday's principal place of business;

(c) provide access to reservation services, if you are in compliance with your material obligations under the License;

(d) use the Services Contribution for costs associated with advertising, promotion, publicity, market research, sales and marketing support, payroll and other sales and marketing programs and related activities, reservations and training programs, and disseminating marketing funds to the national media (including internet, mobile, radio, television and/or printed materials) through any of its independent national or regional advertising agencies;

(e) if Holiday determines to do so, communicate to you improvements and developments in the Brand System, including developments in reservation services, marketing operations, and administrative technical and support functions, facilities and programs. Holiday may enter into arrangements with any other entity for developments to the Brand System and may use any of these facilities, programs, services or personnel in connection with the Brand System or in connection with any business activities of its parents, subsidiaries, divisions or affiliates; and

(f) make available to you consultation and advice pertaining to problems you encounter in operations, facilities and marketing.

Services Contribution; Advertising, Marketing and Promotion:

Hotels that SCH owns and manages and all Brand System licensees must pay the Services Contributions specified in paragraph 3.B of the License and summarized in Item 6 of this disclosure document. Holiday will use these funds as it determines to develop, support and/or administer marketing, reservation and training programs. The Services Contribution cannot be used to cover the cost of maintenance, repair, modernization, renovation, or upgrading of your Hotel. Holiday and its affiliates are not responsible for any of these costs. Funds from Services Contributions will typically be invested in activities that strengthen the brand such as awareness advertising, research, and the development of new or improved services, but may include tactical marketing initiatives more focused on short term revenue enhancement and seasonal marketing programs. The Services Contributions do not include costs which you incur in the acquisition, installation or maintenance of reservations services, equipment or training, or in your own marketing activities. Holiday can change the Services Contribution from time to time. Holiday may, on 30 days advance written notice, at any time during the term of your License, and from time to time, increase the Services Contribution by up to 1% of Gross Rooms Revenue. If Holiday increases the Services Contribution in this way, then Holiday cannot make another discretionary increase again for 24 months after the start of a prior increase. Holiday may increase the Services Contribution by a maximum of 2% of Gross Rooms Revenue over the term of your License.

Funds used for marketing programs will be used for developing, preparing, producing, directing, administering, conducting, maintaining and disseminating advertising, marketing, promotional, and public relations materials, programs and campaigns, publishing a directory of hotels and conducting market research. Advertising conducted under Holiday's marketing programs may be national, regional or local in scope. Holiday will use all types of media that it determines are appropriate, including print, radio, television and outdoor billboards. Any advertising Holiday creates will be created either by its in-house advertising department or outside advertising agency.

The Loyalty Program and your required contributions to the Loyalty Program are described in Item 6. Holiday's Senior Vice President, Global Loyalty and Partnerships administers the Loyalty Program. The financial information of the Loyalty Program is included within an audited Statement of Revenues and Expenses that is made available for review to the appropriate IHG Owners Association's brand marketing committee under a confidentiality agreement, and is not generally available for distribution. In the most recently concluded twelve-month period ended December 31, 2023, the Loyalty Program contributions were used as follows: 80% on award costs, 14% on member communication/promotions, 4% on administrative expenses, and 2% on services from corporate allocations such as Information Technology Data Warehouse, and the Service Center.

The audited Statement of Revenues and Expenses will be prepared each year; however, it is not generally available for review by licensees, and Holiday does not provide periodic accounting reports.

Holiday pools Services Contributions from EVEN Hotels together with the Services Contributions from hotels operating under one or more of Holiday's and its affiliates' current and/or future portfolio of brands (see Item 1) ("IHG Portfolio Brands"). The Services Contributions will be distributed for marketing, reservations, and other related activities which, in Holiday's and its affiliates' sole business judgment, support marketing, reservations, IHG System Fund Activities (defined below), and other related functions and/or purposes on a local, regional, national, continental or international basis for all, or a group of, IHG Portfolio Brands. "IHG System Fund Activities" means various activities and arrangements organized and operated by Holiday and its affiliates to provide loyalty marketing services, distribution marketing services, brand marketing services and other marketing and related programs and services for Brand System Hotels and the IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels. Holiday has no obligation to spend any amounts on advertising in the vicinity of your Hotel nor does it have any obligation to expend any amounts for marketing or reservation services greater than the amounts it receives from licensees using the Brand System and the funds it contributes. Services Contributions are not intended to benefit any specific market or hotel. Holiday and its affiliates have no obligation to spend from Services Contributions, or otherwise, any amount fixed or proportionate to the amount of Services Contributions you pay, nor does Holiday or any of its affiliates have any obligation to ensure that you, your hotel, the EVEN Hotels brand or any other particular IHG Portfolio Brand or group of IHG Portfolio Brands benefit directly or proportionately from Services Contributions paid or expenditures made from collected Services Contributions. Holiday anticipates that all Services Contributions will be expended during the taxable year within which the contributions are made. Any year-end surplus or deficit sums are carried over to the following year. Holiday does not use any Services Contribution monies to promote the sale of licenses.

Hotels that SCH or its affiliates own and manage and all Brand System licensees must make the required Services Contribution in the amounts described in Item 6 (and paragraph 3.B of the License) as applicable to the particular Hotel brand group. In the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, 82.0% of the marketing funds went for media, advertising, promotions and marketing programs, 5.4% for sales, 1.8% for hotel performance support, 1.8% for administration (e.g., corporate functions) and 9.0% for other costs. Unless you participate in any optional marketing programs that Holiday may offer, neither Holiday nor its affiliates will receive payment from additional marketing contributions other than those mentioned in paragraph 3 of the License and Items 6 and 8 of this disclosure document.

Unless you participate in any optional marketing programs that Holiday may offer, neither Holiday nor its affiliates will receive payment from additional marketing contributions other than those mentioned in paragraph 3 of the License and Item 6 of this disclosure document.

You may conduct local and regional marketing programs and related activities, but only at your expense and subject to Holiday's requirements, such as proper usage of its trademarks, etc. Holiday may make reasonable charges for optional advertising materials that you order or use for these programs and activities. Your participation in a Hotel Marketing Association ("HMA") or Co-op Program is voluntary. HMAs and co-ops are marketing arrangements which licensees form to achieve greater marketing power through their combined resources within a common geographic area. Holiday does not currently intend to establish an advertising council composed of licensees or to establish local or regional advertising cooperatives. Consequently, Holiday will not, nor does it intend to, have any controlling voting power in any cooperatives, although it reserves the right to do so.

Reservation System, Revenue Management, Telecommunications Systems and Property Management Technology:

The property management system and telecommunications system include the following components, which you must purchase from designated third-party vendors or third-party vendors whose equipment and software meet Holiday's specifications:

- Access to the Reservation System, IHG Concerto™ and the GDS
- Access to the Revenue Management System (RMS) functionality through IHG Concerto™ platform
- Property Management System (PMS) hardware, software training and support from PMS Provider
- PMS interface to SCH systems
- All required workstations and printers
- Local area network and wide area network connectivity
- HSIA for hotel operations (front operations network)

- Access to IHG Merlin, the internet-based information delivery service for Holiday's various brand group hotels
- Presence on the hotel brand internet sites.
- Approved IHG Admin Program for personal computers and servers on the IHG Network.
- Tablet devices
- A computerized payment card processing program, NextGen Payments ("NGP") or such successor payments program as may be administered by SCH (see Item 8).

In connection with the PMS and IHG Concerto™, equipment and software, you must enter into the Master Technology Services Agreement with IHG Technology Solutions LLC (see Exhibit C). You must also purchase all private network connecting services equipment needed to communicate with the Reservation System from any vendor designated by Holiday.

At the same time you sign the Master Technology Services Agreement (Exhibit C), you must also enter into certain third party license agreements under which you receive a license to use certain software, including the PMS software from the PMS provider. You must also enter into support agreements with certain technology support vendors or their designated agents and pay the fees described in Item 6 for maintenance and support services. You must also enter into a Joinder Agreement (found within Exhibit C) with Hewlett-Packard Inc. for the use of the PMS system for your Hotel.

Currently, EVEN® Hotels must use the Opera property management system, Oracle America, Inc. ("Oracle") of 7301 Columbia Gateway Drive, Columbia, Maryland 21046-2289 (whose phone number is 443-285-8000) is the only supplier of the Opera software license and support service. As you will use the Opera property management system, before it is installed and activated, certain members of your staff may participate in e-learning prior to trainer's arrival on-site at the hotel. Once trainers arrive, the staff will receive on-site training and certification from Oracle America, Inc. in the use of the PMS. The staff that must be trained and certified varies with the size of your hotel. There is no additional cost for this training and certification – see the estimated costs for the equipment, installation, software and training for the PMS and Reservation System in Item 5 of this disclosure document.

Through one of more "Private network" connecting services, or another solution as specified, the PMS enables you to receive reservations from the Central Reservation Centers, or any other Hotel Indigo brand group Hotel, travel agencies and your own Hotel. The Reservation System software is proprietary to SCH. You may install only computers, components or peripheral devices and equipment meeting SCH's specifications for the PMS and Reservation System. You may obtain the hardware from SCH or any third -party vendor that meets SCH's specifications. You must periodically upgrade the equipment to accommodate enhanced versions of PMS, as provided in the Master Technology Services Agreement. SCH will provide or arrange for training and implementation support, as described in the Master Technology Services Agreement, and has entered into agreements with service providers for maintenance for the PMS. SCH or the provider will bill you for these services. See Item 7 for expenses relating to travel and on-site support.

IHG Communication to Brand System:

IHG's online system (<http://www.ihgmerlin.com>) and its messaging tool, currently known as Hotel Bulletin, is the primary means of sending information from Holiday and IHG to licensees, and in some cases, this may be the only manner in which Holiday and IHG communicate to Hotels and licensees.

Secondary means of communication may include, for example, correspondence through either expedited or standard mail delivery, multimedia platforms such as Video, CD and DVD, fax service, regional meetings and conferences, and personal meetings.

Web Sites:

Holiday may establish and operate websites, social media accounts, applications, keyword or ad word purchasing programs, or other means of digital advertising on the internet or any electronic communications network (collectively, "Digital Marketing"). Holiday will control all aspects of any Digital Marketing, including those related to the Hotel. Holiday will operate and maintain a website for IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels, which will include basic information related to the Hotel.

You may operate an independent website at your expense but it must follow the guidelines contained in the Standards for Independent Hotel Web Sites. If you choose to operate an independent website (which operation shall be at your own expense), you or your agent, must follow the guidelines contained in the Standards for independent websites (e.g. the Standards for Search Engine Marketing and the Standards for Email). Further, if Holiday is already marketing your Hotel via its global Performance Marketing programs, and if you choose to do additional online marketing for your independent website, you may be driving up your performance marketing costs and lowering your ROI because there may be two competing websites. You may not register any of the Marks (defined in Item 13), as part of any domain name or Uniform Resource Locator ("URL"), and/or display or use any of the marks or other intellectual property rights related to the Brand System or to any of the other brands licensed by Holiday in connection with any web site, without Holiday's advance written approval. You must comply with all of Holiday's web site requirements in connection with any web sites you develop and maintain relating to your Hotel.

Other than as described in this disclosure document, Holiday is not bound by the License or related agreements to provide supervision, assistance or services to you before opening or during operation of your Hotel.

TERRITORY

Holiday does not typically grant licenses for exclusive areas or territories. The License will be for a specific site only and for the licensing of one hotel. The License applies to the location specified in it and to no other location. You will not receive an exclusive territory. In special circumstances, when, in Holiday's judgment, special considerations warrant, Holiday may grant exclusive or protected areas within which it will not license another EVEN® Hotel; however in such cases the License would still be for a specific site only and for the licensing of one hotel only. You may face competition from other licensees, from hotels that Holiday or its affiliates own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that Holiday or its affiliates control.

You may not promote, implement or be responsible for any web site relating to your Hotel without Holiday's advance written approval. You may not register any of the Marks (defined in Item 13), as part of any domain name or Uniform Resource Locator (URL), and/or display or use any of the marks or other intellectual property rights related to the Brand System or to any of the other brands licensed by Holiday in connection with any web site, without Holiday's advance written approval. You must comply with all of Holiday's web site requirements in connection with any web sites you develop and maintain relating to your Hotel. The License does not otherwise limit the channels through which you may solicit customers for your Hotel.

The License does not limit Holiday's right or the rights of its parents, or any subsidiary or affiliate, to use or license the Brand System or any part of the Brand System, to engage in or license any business activity (including business activities referenced in Item 1 which sell similar products and services) or to license any other hotels (or any other hotel brands). These rights include, for example, the licensing, franchising, ownership, operation and/or management of lodging facilities and related activities under the names and marks associated with the Brand System and/or any other names and marks. There is no restriction in the License on Holiday's using any channel of distribution to solicit customers for Holiday's and its affiliates' hotels, whether operating under the marks licensed to you or other marks.

Holiday and its affiliates are not restricted from establishing other licenses or company-owned outlets or other channels of distribution through which services or licenses under different trademarks might be offered. The License creates no rights of any kind for you in these other hotel brands and/or businesses at any other location. The License grants you no options, rights of first refusal or other rights to acquire additional licenses.

Holiday licenses numerous hotel brands – see Item 1. Holiday may license other hotel brands in the future. There may currently be licensed, company-owned hotels or company-managed hotels operating under Holiday’s brands situated in or near your area. Holiday and its affiliates may establish new licensed, company-owned or company-managed hotels operating under Holiday’s brands in or near your area. You may compete with any other hotels operating under Holiday’s brands in or near your area. Hotels operating under Holiday’s brands (including the same brand as your Hotel) may solicit reservations from customers in your area for which you will receive no compensation.

Holiday uses the same principal business address for its operation of all its hotel brands and Holiday does not maintain physically separate offices for its various brands. Holiday does offer some physically separate training facilities for some hotel brands. There is no mechanism for resolving any conflicts that may arise between your Hotel and other licensed, company-owned hotels or company-managed hotels operating under Holiday’s brands. Any resolution of conflicts regarding location, customers, support or services will be entirely within the business judgment of Holiday and its affiliates.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

Holiday grants you the right to operate a hotel under the trade names, trademarks, service marks, trade dress and logos used to identify your hotel. In accordance with the Master License (see Item 1), Holiday has obtained from SCH, for a constantly renewing 25-year term, the right to use and license the use of marks associated with the Brand System. If either Holiday or SCH elect not to renew the Master License, expiration will take place 25 years from the date of the non-renewal notice.

The following trademarks, service marks, trade dress, trade names, logotypes, and other commercial symbols (“Marks”) are currently registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and all required affidavits and renewals, if any, have also been filed. All registrations are on the Principal Register unless otherwise indicated:

The "Marks" consist of the name and mark "EVEN" and the other service marks, trademarks, trade names, slogans, commercial symbols, logos, trade dress, copyrighted material and intellectual property associated with the Brand System, including those which Holiday may designate in the future and those which Holiday does not designate as withdrawn from use.

Other than the Master License Agreement (see Item 1) and the SCL License Agreements (see Item 1), there are no agreements currently in effect which may significantly limit Holiday's rights to use or license the use of its principal trademark, and it believes that there are no infringements of its principal trademark that could materially affect your use in this state or in the state where your hotel is located.

There are no effective determinations of the USPTO, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the Trademark Administrator of any state or any court, and no pending interference, no known infringing use or opposition or cancellation proceedings or any pending material litigation involving the Marks that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

The License restricts your use of the Marks, and you must use the Marks and all forms of identification that are seen by members of the consuming public or used to identify the hotel to actual or prospective consumers only in compliance with Holiday's requirements. The restrictions and requirements that limit your use of the Marks and identifications apply to all formats (including print, electronic and other media) and include domain names, Uniform Resource Locator ("URL"), and other identifications or elements used in electronic commerce. You may not register any of the Marks as part of any internet domain name or URL, and/or display or use any of the Marks or other intellectual property rights related to the Brand System in connection with any web site (see Item 11).

You may use the Marks only in connection with the operation of the Hotel during the License Term, following opening of the Hotel in the Brand System or at any earlier time that Holiday authorizes. You may use the Marks only in the manner that Holiday authorizes, and in no way that would tend to allow the Marks to become generic, lose their distinctiveness, become liable to mislead the public or be detrimental to or inconsistent with the good name, good will or favorable reputation and image of the Marks or Holiday. Under the License, any unauthorized or unpermitted use of the Marks will be considered infringement of Holiday's rights.

You must notify Holiday immediately when you learn of an infringement, or a challenge to your use of the Marks. You must also notify Holiday promptly of any objections, demands, controversies, allegations or actions asserted or taken by third parties involving any of the Marks or any part of the Brand System of which you become aware and of any potentially infringing or unauthorized uses of any of the Marks or any part of the Brand System of which you become aware. You must sign any documents Holiday or its counsel consider necessary to protect the Marks or any part of the Brand System and obtain or maintain their continued validity and enforceability. However, the License does not require Holiday to take action against infringers or to indemnify or defend you if you are a party to a proceeding involving the Marks.

SCH, Holiday and their affiliates have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by Holiday to you. Only SCH, Holiday and their affiliates have the right and responsibility to handle disputes concerning use of all or any part of the Brand System, at their expense. You must cooperate fully with SCH, Holiday and their affiliates in these matters. Any sums SCH, Holiday or their affiliates recover as a result of disputes with third parties regarding use of the Brand System is theirs. You may not initiate litigation against infringers to enforce or protect the Brand System.

If Holiday modifies or discontinues use of any of the Marks licensed to you as a result of any proceeding or settlement, then you must comply with Holiday's instructions in order to implement the modification or discontinuation. You will have no right to any compensation or other remedies from SCH, Holiday or any of its or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates or parents due to any modification or discontinuation of any of the Marks.

The naming of the Hotel is Holiday's sole decision. Unless Holiday otherwise agrees in writing, the name of the Hotel will be the name set forth at the beginning of the License. The name of the Hotel may not be changed except at Holiday's sole decision.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Holiday and/or its affiliates claim copyrights on the proprietary information in the Standards and certain computer software, forms, advertisements, promotional materials, printed materials, slogans, displays and other written materials. If you learn of any unauthorized disclosure or use of Holiday's proprietary information, you must inform Holiday immediately. Holiday and you must comply with each other's reasonable requirements concerning confidentiality of information.

On September 19, 2019 the USPTO issued SCH a utility patent for a "Universal Redemption Vehicle" (which vehicle supports the "Redeem Anywhere" concept) under Patent No. 10,417,645. This patent is valid until April 20, 2026.

There are no currently effective determinations or proceedings pending in the USPTO, the Copyright Office, or any court with respect to any copyright. y

The obligations of Holiday and you under the License to protect their respective rights to use the above-referenced copyrights parallel those described in Item 13 of this disclosure document pertaining to the Marks.

ITEM 15OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE LICENSED BUSINESS

Whether you are an individual, corporation, partnership or other entity, Holiday requires you to retain and exercise direct management control over the Hotel's business at all times unless otherwise approved by Holiday. However, Holiday does not require that you participate personally in the direct operation of the Hotel. Regardless of whether you or a third party management company operate your Hotel, both a duly qualified and experienced General Manager and Director of Sales employed by you or your management company must each work exclusively for your EVEN® Hotel at all times, and if you own more than one EVEN® Hotel or other hotels, you must have a separate, qualified General Manager and Director of Sales for each hotel. Holiday may include conditions in your License requiring you to hire a duly qualified and experienced (i) management company acceptable to Holiday or (ii) a General Manager or Director of Sales with at least two years prior experience in such position at a hotel operated under any of Holiday's upscale brands or at a hotel in a similar brand segment as the Hotel, as defined by Smith Travel Research, Inc. You must obtain Holiday's written consent before entering into any lease, management agreement or other similar arrangement for the operation of the hotel or any part of the hotel with any entity. Holiday may require that any management company you hire have experience in managing hotels similar to EVEN® Hotels.

If Holiday requires that you hire a management company to operate your hotel, it may require that you hire this company or person within a specific period of time either after signing your License or before the date your hotel opens in the Brand System. You must notify Holiday in the designated timeframe before hiring or changing your management company for any reason. These conditions would be determined by Holiday and contained in your License. Holiday may reject a proposed management company if Holiday determines that it is inexperienced in the hospitality business, generally unqualified to operate the hotel or unwilling or unable to: (1) comply with all requirements of Holiday under the License and the Standards, (2) cease operating the Hotel as an EVEN® Hotel once the License terminates, or (3) treat the terms of the License as superior over any conflicting terms in the agreement between you and your management company.

Holiday may determine that you are not qualified to operate the hotel, and if so, Holiday will require you to retain a management company to operate the hotel. Normally, Holiday does not require that you engage it or one of its affiliates as the management company in order to obtain a License. Occasionally, because of the distribution of company managed hotels in a particular geographic area, or other factors, Holiday may determine that the development or conversion of a hotel is appropriate only if one of its affiliates manages the hotel. In that case, Holiday may condition the granting of a License on one of its affiliates managing the Hotel.

You may hire a General Manager and all staff members and/or employees of your own choice without Holiday's advance approval; provided, however that your License may require a specified level of experience for such individuals. The General Manager and other department heads and staff, including Directors of Sales, must attend Holiday's training programs (see Item 11).

Holiday does not impose restrictions, nor does it require you to impose restrictions, on any of your employees. However, Holiday and you agree to comply with each other's reasonable requirements concerning confidentiality of information, and in particular, you may not disclose without Holiday's written permission information pertaining to Holiday's marketing and reservation programs that has not yet been disclosed to the public.

Holiday requires that any management agreement between you and a management company be in writing, and that the agreement contain certain provisions including, for example the following: the management company accepts, agrees to abide by, and is subject to all rules, regulations, inspections and requirements of Holiday; you and the management company will cease operating the hotel as an EVEN® Hotel if the License terminates; you and the management company must agree that the License prevails over the terms of the management agreement if there is any conflict in terms; you and the management company must agree that Holiday's consent to the management agreement or approval of the management company does not relieve you or any guarantor of any obligations under the License; and, you and the management company must keep the confidentiality of trade secrets described in Item 14, and follow the in-term covenants not to compete described in Item 17. Holiday may request at any time a copy of your management agreement for review to determine compliance with requirements of the License.

Holiday requires that you enter into an IHG Voice Reservation Services agreement with Holiday's parent SCH (see Item 6, Note 17 and Exhibit H-2).

Your obligation to hire a management company, General Manager or Director of Sales to operate the Hotel for you does not relieve you and any of your guarantors from liability to Holiday and IHG Technology Solutions LLC under the terms of the License, the Master Technology Services Agreement and any Guaranty.

Even though any management company must be acceptable to Holiday, you remain solely responsible for the selection, conduct and performance of any required management company, general manager and all staff members and employees and Holiday has no responsibilities or liability in connection with your selection and its, his or her conduct or performance.

Holiday does not require the on premises management company or General Manager to have an equity interest in the licensed business.

You or your management company, whichever may be applicable, will be the sole employer of the employees working at the Hotel. Holiday does not direct or control employment policies, discipline, recruitment or termination. You or your management company will be solely responsible for all employment decisions, regardless whether you have received guidance with respect to such matters from Holiday.

If you are an entity, then, based on Holiday's examination of your financial reports and the financial reports of any proposed guarantor, Holiday may require your shareholders, partners, members or affiliates to sign a "Guaranty" of the License, a copy of which appears as part of the License in Exhibit B to this disclosure document. This document guarantees immediate payment and performance of each of your duties, requirements and obligations under the License, both financial and nonfinancial, if you default.

ITEM 16RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE LICENSEE MAY SELL

You must provide the Hotel services described in Attachment "A" to your License and must ensure that no part of the Hotel or the Brand System is used to facilitate or promote a competing business. There are no restrictions as to the customers to whom you may sell guest rooms or other goods or services that are related to your hotel business.

ITEM 17RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

months from the Term Commencement Date to the termination date of the License. For purposes of this paragraph, “mature hotels” means Hotels which were open for two full years or longer; were licensed or, alternatively, owned and/or managed by Holiday or one of its affiliates; and, were not in financial or quality default of their applicable license or management agreement obligations as of the applicable date.

PUBLIC FIGURES

Holiday does not use any public figures to promote the sale of licenses. Public figures may appear in consumer marketing for the Brand System.

ITEM 19

IMPORTANT: The information above only set forth historic performance information for the 2023 fiscal year for existing Mature Hotels which were licensed or managed by us or one of our affiliates. Because your Hotel will not be a Mature Hotel, it is especially important for you not to rely on this information to project your future performance, which will likely differ from the results above. Even if you are acquiring a Mature Hotel through purchase or other transfer, your results will likely differ, due to the change of management, the passage of time, changed economic conditions and/or other factors. If you rely at all on the historic figures set forth above (and you are again cautioned not to utilize same to project your future performance), you must also accept the risk that your Hotel may not do as well.

Explanation/Important Notes:

In order to fully understand the information set forth above, you must understand their limitations.

To begin with, it is vital that you understand that the information set forth in this Item 19 is not meant in any fashion to constitute projections of your performance. To the contrary, we do not furnish - - or authorize any of our or our affiliates’ officers, employees or salespersons to furnish - - any oral or written economic projections for any licensed hotel, and you are specifically warned that should you nevertheless be furnished with any such projections, you must not rely on them in any fashion in determining whether to become our licensee. The information set forth above conveys only historic performance information for Mature Hotels for the fiscal year 2023.

Next, we can in no way warrant, represent, promise, predict or guarantee that you can or will attain any of the financial results set forth in the above charts. To the contrary, a new licensee’s financial results will likely differ from the results set forth in these charts and those differences may be material. Your results will vary from those set forth above depending on such factors as: the nature and extent of your competition; whether competitive hotels in your market are affiliated with any chains or other centralized reservation systems; the age and established customer base of competitive hotels; the in-room and common area facilities and amenities of your Hotel versus competitive hotels; whether your geographic area has a greater or lesser demand for hotel accommodations, which can turn on a number of factors; the frequency of business travel to/from your geographic area; whether your Hotel is situated at or near an airport; whether your Hotel is situated close to or remote from a central business district; whether your Hotel is situated in a geographic area that attracts vacation travelers; changed national, international, regional and local economic conditions; the type of hotel you operate; whether your Hotel offers food, beverage and/or convention and meeting services; whether your Hotel is situated near a college, resort attraction, theme park or other venue that generates lodging demand; the length of time your Hotel has been open to the public; the length of time your Hotel has been affiliated with us; the skill, experience and business acumen of your management and staff; prevailing economic conditions in your geographic area; the room rates you establish; the climate and weather conditions of your Hotel's geographic location; seasonality factors influencing any of the foregoing; and, whether or not your market is (or may become) oversaturated with guest lodging facilities.

The figures set forth above represent averages and are necessarily limited to the markets and attributes of the hotels identified. We do not claim or expect, nor should you expect, that you can or will achieve the same average ADR; occupancy; RevPAR; or, percentages of occupancy derived from reservations made through our Brand System, our IHG One Rewards, our and our affiliates' websites, our and our affiliates' central reservation offices or Global Distribution Systems.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you'll earn as much.

Further, you must understand that the information set forth in this Item 19 was largely derived from room rate, occupancy rate, number of available rooms and other data submitted to us by licensed and managed hotels and that we have not independently verified or audited this information.

We will make available to you upon request that methodologies, data bases and assumptions utilized by us in arriving at the information contained in the charts above.

Written substantiation for this financial performance representation is available upon reasonable request.

However, we are under no obligation to disclose to you specific information for any particular hotel. Again, you must note that information concerning licensed and managed hotels is based on unaudited information collected and submitted by our licensees and hotel managers, and neither we nor our affiliates have audited or otherwise independently verified this information.

While the charts above show information concerning average room rates, you set your own room rates.

The only information we will furnish to you regarding historic (never projected) hotel performance is that set forth in this Item 19 and in any "supplemental financial performance representation" directed to a particular location or circumstance which we may (but need not) elect to separately furnish to you. None of our officers, directors, employees or other representatives, regardless of position, is otherwise authorized to furnish to you, in writing or orally, any information regarding the historic, current, actual or potential sales, expenses, income or profits of licensed or non-licensed hotels other than the historic average information set forth above and any related supplemental financial performance representation we may elect to furnish to you. If you nevertheless receive any other such information from any individual purporting to act on our behalf, you are warned that you must not rely on it in any fashion whatsoever. Instead, we ask that you immediately contact us in writing at:

RECITALS

A. IHG owns and licenses the "Brand System" (as defined in paragraph 1.B. below). Licensee is the owner of the Hotel and has requested a license to use the Brand System to operate the Hotel as a Brand System Hotel (as defined in paragraph 1.B. below).

B. IHG shall grant to Licensee a non-exclusive license to operate the Hotel as a Brand System Hotel, subject to the terms of this License.

C. Guarantor(s) will provide the Guaranty.

D. In granting this non-exclusive license, IHG has relied upon the business skill, financial capacity, and character of Licensee and the Guaranty to be provided by the Guarantor(s).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promise and covenants in this License, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, IHG and Licensee agree as follows:

1. The License:

The Brand System is designed to provide a distinctive, high quality hotel service to the public under the name "EVEN® Hotels". High standards established by IHG are the essence of the Brand System. Future investments may be required of Licensee under this License. Licensee desires to enter into this License in order to obtain a license to use the Brand System in the operation of an EVEN Hotel located at the "Location" identified on Attachment "A" and defined in paragraph 2.A. below (the "Hotel").

A. The Hotel.

The Hotel comprises all structures, facilities, appurtenances, furniture, fixtures, equipment, entry and exit rights, parking, pools, landscaping and other areas from time to time located on the land identified by Licensee to IHG in anticipation of this License, or located on any land from time to time approved by IHG for additions, signs or other facilities. The Hotel must include the facilities listed on Attachment "A" hereto. No change in the number of approved guest rooms and no other significant change in the Hotel or in the manner in which the Hotel rooms and services are offered to the public (including timesharing and condominium hotel projects and other projects not involving short term stays by transient guests) may be made without IHG's written approval. Licensee represents that it is entitled to possession of the Hotel during the entire License Term without restrictions that would interfere with anything contemplated in this License. Throughout this License, the words "room" and "guest room" are intended to include the word "suites" unless otherwise indicated.

B. The Brand System.

The Brand System includes all elements which are designed to identify "EVEN® Hotels" to the public or are designed to be associated with those hotels or to contribute to such identification or association and all elements which identify or reflect the quality standards and business practices of such hotels, all as specified in this License or as designated from time to time by IHG. The Brand System at present includes, but is not limited to:

(1) the principal trade and/or service mark “EVEN® Hotels”, the service marks “IHG One Rewards” and “IHG Concerto™” and the other Marks (as defined in paragraph 6.B. (below) and intellectual property rights made available to licensees of the Brand System by reason of a license;

(2) standards, specifications and policies for construction, furnishings, operation, appearance and service of the Hotel, standards and specifications for interior and exterior design and décor, and other requirements as stated or referred to in this License and from time to time in IHG’s brand standards for Brand System hotels (the “Standards”) or in other communications to Licensee;

(3) registered and unregistered intellectual property, including without limitation copyrights, trademarks, service marks, logos, designs, know-how, confidential or proprietary information standards, specifications and policies for construction, furnishing, operation, appearance and service of hotels operating as Brand System hotels, and similar property rights;

(4) all rights to the domain names and other identifications or elements used in electronic commerce as may be designated from time to time by IHG in accordance with IHG’s specifications to be part of the Brand System;

(5) access through IHG to the technology systems, loyalty programs, sales and catering system and other related systems operated in accordance with specifications established by IHG;

(6) access through IHG to multiple call centres and central reservations offices around the world handling reservations;

(7) access through IHG to brand marketing services and distribution marketing services including global advertising and publicity and other marketing programs and materials;

(8) training programs and materials;

(9) a worldwide hotel distribution of Brand System hotels;

(10) a guest loyalty program (currently named IHG® One Rewards);

(11) a recognized presence on the internet;

(12) an e-commerce team and presence for the given IHG brand and other IHG brands on the internet;

(13) a global sales team;

(14) global market coverage; and

(15) programs for inspecting the hotel, measuring and assessing service and consumer opinion.

The Standards and all changes to the Standards may be presented in any format, including but not limited to print, electronic or other media. IHG has the right to periodically change the Brand System by adding, modifying, altering and/or deleting elements of the Brand System. “Brand System Hotel(s)” means the hotel(s) operated by IHG, an affiliate of IHG, or a licensee or franchisee of IHG under the EVEN Hotels in any of the fifty (50) states of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, or Canada, and does not include any other hotel operated under a different brand or any other business operation of IHG.

2. Grant of License:

IHG hereby grants to Licensee a limited, non-exclusive license to use the Brand System only at the Hotel, but only in accordance with this License and only during the “License Term” beginning with the Effective Date and terminating as provided under paragraph 11 hereof and Licensee accepts the right and obligation to operate the Hotel pursuant to the terms of this License. The License applies to the location of the Hotel specified in Attachment “A” hereof (the “Location”) and to no other location. Licensee acknowledges that IHG, its divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates and parents are and may in the future be engaged in other business activities, including, without limitation, activities involving transient lodging and related activities, and that Licensee is acquiring no rights hereunder other than the right to use the Brand System as specifically defined herein in accordance with the terms of this License.

This License does not limit IHG's right, or the rights of any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of IHG, to use or license the Brand System or any part or element thereof or to engage in or license any business activity at any other location, including, without limitation, the licensing, franchising, ownership, operation and/or management of lodging facilities and related activities under the names and Marks associated with the Brand System and/or any other names and marks. Licensee acknowledges that IHG's rights to use and/or license the Brand System, referenced immediately above, pre-date this License and are not limited or changed by the terms of this License. Licensee agrees that by acknowledging those rights, the parties do not intend to make IHG's exercise of such rights subject to rules applicable to contractual performance or the exercise of contractual discretion under this License.

3. Licensee's Responsibilities:

A. Operational and Other Requirements.

Throughout the entire License Term, Licensee will at its sole cost and expense:

- (1) maintain a high moral and ethical standard and atmosphere at the Hotel;
- (2) maintain the Hotel in a clean, safe and orderly manner and in first class condition;
- (3) provide efficient, courteous and high-quality service to the public in a clean, safe and orderly manner, including, without limitation, maintaining minimum product and service quality standards and scores for quality assurance and guest survey programs established and maintained by IHG, as such programs may be modified by IHG from time to time;
- (4) operate the Hotel 24 hours a day every day in accordance with the Standards, except as otherwise permitted by IHG in writing based on special circumstances;
- (5) strictly comply in all respects with the Standards (as they may from time to time be modified or revised by IHG) and with all other policies, procedures and requirements of IHG which may be from time to time communicated to Licensee (which communication, at IHG's option, may be in hard paper copy or digital, electronic or computerized form, and Licensee must pay any costs to retrieve, review, use or access such digital, electronic or computerized communication);
- (6) strictly comply with all of IHG's standards and specifications for goods and services used in the operation of the Hotel and other reasonable requirements to protect the Brand System and the Hotel from unreliable sources of supply;
- (7) strictly comply with IHG's requirements as to the:
 - (a) type of services and products that may be used, promoted or offered at the Hotel;
 - (b) type and quality of services and products that, to supplement services listed on Attachment "A", must be used, promoted or offered at the Hotel;
 - (c) use, display, style and type of signage and of all other forms of identification at or pertaining to the Hotel, including but not limited to any use of the EVEN Hotels name or any other of IHG's service marks, trademarks or copyrights (in all formats, including but not limited to print, electronic or other media) which are seen by members of the consuming public or used to identify the Hotel to actual or prospective consumers;
 - (d) directory and reservation service listings of the Hotel;
 - (e) training of Persons to be involved in the operation of the Hotel;

- (f) participation in all marketing, reservation service, advertising, training and operating programs designated by IHG as Brand System-wide (or area-wide) programs in the best interests of hotels using the Brand System including, without limitation, all guest frequency or loyalty programs related to the Brand System;
 - (g) maintenance, repair, appearance and condition of, and customer service at, the Hotel, including, without limitation, participation in all guest complaint programs and quality assurance programs established and maintained by IHG, as such programs may be modified by IHG from time to time;
 - (h) quality and types of services offered to customers at the Hotel; and
 - (i) maintenance of a capital reserve and adherence to capital reinvestment and renovation cycles (as further specified in paragraph 13.O. hereof and as IHG may supplement from time to time by the Standards);
- (8) use all technology services required by IHG;
 - (9) adopt all improvements or changes to the Brand System as may be designated by IHG from time to time;
 - (10) with respect to all aspects of this License and the Hotel and its ownership, development and operation, strictly comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, requirements, codes, orders, ordinances and standards of all governmental jurisdictions in which the Hotel is located or that are otherwise applicable to Licensee or the Hotel, pay timely all taxes and other governmental fees, assessments and impositions, and timely obtain and maintain throughout the License Term all governmental licenses, authorizations and permits necessary to own (or lease, as may be applicable) and operate the Hotel in accordance with the Brand System;
 - (11) strictly comply with IHG's requirements as to guest satisfaction and guest compliant programs, as such programs may be modified by IHG from time to time;
 - (12) permit inspection of the Hotel by IHG's representatives at any time and give them free lodging for such time as may be reasonably necessary to complete their inspections; and take all such steps as are necessary to incorporate into the Hotel operations any corrections and modifications IHG requires to maintain the Standards, as quickly as is reasonably possible;
 - (13) promote the Hotel on a local or regional basis subject to IHG's requirements as to form, content and prior approvals;
 - (14) ensure that no part of the Hotel or the Brand System is used to further, promote, or divert business to a competing business or other lodging facility (including, without limitation, hotels, vacation or timeshare facilities or any similar product sold on a periodic basis), except as IHG may approve for businesses or lodging facilities owned, licensed, operated or otherwise approved by IHG or its parents, divisions, subsidiaries, and affiliates;
 - (15) use every reasonable means to encourage use of EVEN Hotels facilities everywhere by the public;
 - (16) in all respects use Licensee's best efforts to reflect credit upon and create favorable public response to the name "EVEN Hotels";
 - (17) promptly pay to IHG all amounts due to IHG, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as royalties or charges, whether or not arising out of this License, or for goods or services purchased by Licensee for use at the Hotel; and

- (18) strictly comply with IHG's requirements concerning confidentiality of information; and, in particular, Licensee shall not disclose, without IHG's written permission, (i) information pertaining to IHG's marketing, reservations, quality assurance, guest loyalty and satisfaction, technology or other systems or programs that has not been intentionally disclosed to the public by IHG, (ii) any of the Standards, or (iii) any of the commercial terms or provisions of this License.

B. Fees.

For each month (or part of a month) during the License Term, Licensee will pay the fees set forth in this paragraph 3.B. to IHG, which shall be due to IHG by the "Due Date" (except as otherwise noted below including, without limitation, the Technology Services Fee which is payable monthly in advance). The term "Due Date" means the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month; but if the 15th day of the month falls on a weekend or bank holiday, then the Due Date shall be the next business day.

- (1) Application Fee. Licensee has paid IHG the nonrefundable Application Fee as set forth in Item 3 of Attachment "A").
- (2) Rooms Addition Fee. A standard application fee for additional guest rooms or suites, as set forth in IHG's then current franchise disclosure document for Brand System hotels, will be charged upon application for any guest rooms or suites to be added to the Hotel.
- (3) Royalty Fee. A monthly Royalty Fee in the amount set forth in Item 4 of Attachment "A". Licensee agrees and acknowledges that additional royalties may be charged on revenues from any activity if it is added at the Hotel by mutual agreement and it is not now offered at Brand System Hotels generally or it is designed or developed by or for IHG or its affiliates. The Royalty Fee is solely in consideration of our granting you the franchise conferred by this License and is not in exchange for any goods, services or assistance we may furnish you.
- (4) IHG System Fund Contribution. "IHG System Fund Contribution" means the assessments paid by Licensee, comprised of the Services Contribution and the Loyalty Program Contribution, for the IHG System Fund Activities (as defined in paragraph 4.G) to be provided by IHG and its Affiliates.
 - a. Services Contribution. A monthly Services Contribution in the amount set forth in Item 5 of Attachment "A". The Services Contribution will typically be invested by IHG in activities that, in IHG's sole business judgment as to the long-term interests of the Brand System, strengthen the brand such as awareness advertising, marketing, sales, guest services, reservations, standards, training programs, research, and the development of new or improved services, associated products and platforms, but may also include tactical marketing initiatives more focused on short term revenue enhancement and seasonal marketing programs. The Service Contribution cannot be used to cover the cost of maintenance, repair, modernization, renovation, or upgrading of the Hotel. The Services Contribution does not include costs that Licensee incurs in the acquisition, installation or maintenance of reservations services, equipment or training, or in Licensee's own marketing activities. IHG and its affiliates are not responsible for any of these costs.

The Services Contribution is subject to change by IHG from time to time. IHG may, on 30 days advance notice, at any time during the term of this License, and from time to time, increase the Services Contribution by up to 1% of Gross Rooms Revenue (as such term is defined on Attachment "A"). If IHG increases the Services Contribution in this way, then IHG cannot make another discretionary increase again for 24 months after the start of a prior increase. IHG may increase the Services Contribution by a maximum of 2% of Gross Rooms Revenue over the term of this License.
 - b. Loyalty Program Contribution. An Initial Loyalty Marketing Contribution and a monthly Loyalty Program Contribution, currently known as the "IHG One Rewards Fee” (or other guest loyalty and frequency program fee as it may be re-characterized from time to time) at the prevailing rate of GRR (as such term is defined on Attachment “A”) on qualifying room rates and other eligible hotel charges) for each night of a hotel stay on which IHG One Rewards points or frequency miles (related to an airline frequency alliance program) are required to be awarded by the terms of the IHG One Rewards program. The current prevailing rate is set forth in Item 5 of Attachment “A”. IHG may modify the amounts or the terms and conditions of the Initial Loyalty Marketing Contribution and the Loyalty Program Contribution from time to time in its sole discretion.

- (5) Technology Services Fee. A monthly Technology Services Fee as set forth in Item 6 of Attachment “A”. The Technology Services Fee will be used by IHG for provision of technology services, such as, but not limited to satellite communications services to the Hotel, plus such increases as IHG may judge reasonable, but in no case exceeding in any calendar year 10% of the fee in effect at the beginning of that year. The Technology Services Fee does not include the cost, installation, maintenance or repair of any technology equipment at the Hotel.
- (6) Travel Agent Commissions, Reimbursement and Additional Marketing Programs. All fees due for travel agent commission programs, including Electronic Commission Services and any Field Marketing Co-op programs attributable to the Hotel, and all fees due in connection with mandatory marketing, technology, guest satisfaction, quality assurance, training, new hotel opening and other systems and programs established by IHG, its parents, its subsidiaries or its affiliated entities relating to the Brand System; and an amount equal to any sales, trademark license, gross receipts or similar tax imposed on IHG and calculated solely on payments required hereunder, unless the tax is an optional alternative to an income tax otherwise payable by IHG.

Local and regional marketing programs and related activities may be conducted by Licensee, but only at Licensee’s expense and subject to IHG’s requirements and the Standards. Reasonable charges may be made for optional advertising materials ordered or supplied by IHG to Licensee for such programs and activities.

C. Additional Payment Terms.

IHG may, at its election at any time during the License Term, require Licensee to pay all outstanding fees by electronic funds transfer, direct account debit, ACH or other similar technology designed to accomplish the same purpose as may be designated by IHG. If IHG requires you to make payments by any of the foregoing methods, Licensee agrees to make its payment in compliance with those requirements and also to deposit and maintain at all times sufficient funds to cover all fees and payments that Licensee owes to IHG and its Affiliates in a segregated bank account that Licensee forms and maintains for the Hotel.

Licensee will operate the Hotel so as to maximize Gross Rooms Revenue of the Hotel consistent with sound marketing and industry practice and will not engage in any conduct that reduces Gross Rooms Revenue of the Hotel in order to further other business activities. Charges may be made for optional products or services accepted by Licensee from IHG, either in accordance with current practice or as developed in the future.

Each payment under paragraph 3.B., except the Rooms Addition Fee or other fee not determined from Gross Rooms Revenue, shall be accompanied by the monthly statement referred to in paragraph 7.A. IHG may apply any amounts received under this License to any amounts due under this License. If any amounts under this License are not paid when due, such non-payment shall constitute a breach of this License and, in addition, such unpaid amounts will accrue interest beginning on the first day of the month following the due date at 1½% per month or the maximum interest permitted by applicable law, whichever is less.

IHG has the right, in its sole judgment, to require Licensee to tender all or any part of the payments due to IHG under this License to IHG or one or more of IHG’s parents, subsidiaries, affiliated entities or other designees.

4. IHG's Responsibilities:

A. Training.

During the License Term, IHG will continue to specify and provide required and optional training services and programs at various locations and in various formats. A fee may be charged for certain required and optional training services. Travel, lodging and other expenses of Licensee and its employees will be borne by Licensee. Reasonable charges may also be assessed for training materials.

B. Reservation Services.

During the License Term, so long as Licensee is in full compliance with its obligations hereunder, IHG will afford Licensee access to reservation service for the Hotel on terms consistent with this License. However, IHG has no obligation to afford Licensee access to reservation service for the Hotel regarding reservations for any date after the expiration date of this License or for any date after the termination date established by IHG, following any applicable notice period or any applicable opportunity to cure.

C. Consultation on Operations, Facilities and Marketing.

During the License Term, IHG shall have the right (but not the obligation) to make available to Licensee consultation and advice in connection with operations, facilities and marketing. IHG may from time to time furnish to Licensee names of suppliers or recommend to Licensee suppliers of goods and services required or useful in the operation of the Hotel; however, IHG is not obligated to furnish any such names or to continue doing so, and Licensee is under no obligation to use any such supplier, unless expressly required to do so by the terms of this License, the Standards or otherwise. In identifying or recommending suppliers, IHG exercises its business judgment based on its information as of that date and its sense of the long-term interests of the Brand System. IHG's identification or recommendation of a supplier is not a warranty of the financial condition or performance of any supplier or of any other factor. Licensee's use of an identified or recommended supplier that sells products or services meeting IHG's standards and specifications may facilitate compliance with those standards and specifications, but it is not a substitute for Licensee's compliance obligations.

D. Maintenance of Standards.

IHG will seek to maintain high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, design and service at all hotels using the Brand System so as to promote, protect and enhance the public image and reputation of the EVEN Hotels name and to increase the demand for services offered by the Brand System. IHG's judgment in such matters shall be controlling in all respects, and it shall have wide latitude in making such judgments.

E. Application of Standards.

The Hotel and all other hotels operated under the Brand System will be subject to the Standards, as they may from time to time be modified or revised by IHG, including limited exceptions from compliance which may be made based on local conditions, type of hotel or special circumstances. The Standards and any modification to them can be delivered by IHG to Licensee in hard paper copy or, at IHG's option, be made available to Licensee in digital, electronic or other computerized form. If communicated in digital, electronic or other computerized form, Licensee must pay any costs to retrieve, review, use or access the Standards. The Standards are confidential and remain the property of IHG.

F. Other Arrangements for Marketing, Etc.

IHG may enter into arrangements for development, reservation services, marketing, operations, administrative, training, technical and support functions, facilities, programs, services and/or personnel with any other entity, and may use any facilities, programs, services or personnel used in connection with the Brand System, in connection with any business activities of its parents, subsidiaries, divisions or affiliates.

G. Use of Services Contribution.

IHG will make available and use Services Contribution funds (as may be computed on the basis generally applicable to licensees of the Brand System) for various activities, including IHG System Fund Activities. IHG is not obligated to expend funds for marketing, reservations or related services in excess of the amounts received from licensees using the Brand System and those funds made available by IHG as set forth above. Services Contribution funds are not intended to benefit any specific market or hotel. IHG and its affiliates have no obligations to spend from Services Contribution funds, or otherwise, any amount fixed or proportionate to the amount of Services Contributions Licensee pays, nor do IHG or its affiliates have any obligation to ensure that Licensee benefits directly or proportionately from Services Contributions paid or expenditures made from collected Services Contributions. Local and regional marketing programs and related activities may be conducted by Licensee but only at Licensee's expense and subject to IHG's requirements. Reasonable charges may be made for optional advertising materials ordered or used by Licensee for such programs and activities.

"IHG System Fund Activities" means various activities and arrangements organized and operated by IHG and its affiliates (as they deem appropriate, in their sole discretion) for the provision of loyalty marketing services, distribution marketing services, brand marketing services and other such marketing and related programs and services for Brand System Hotels and the IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels (as hereinafter defined). These activities may be conducted on a local, regional, national, continental or international basis for all, or a group of, IHG Portfolio Brand hotels. IHG and its affiliates may modify, in their absolute discretion, the IHG System Fund Activities from time to time. IHG System Fund Activities may include (within IHG's and its affiliates sole discretion) any purposes that benefit or include Brand System Hotels, as a whole, groups of Brand System Hotels, or other IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels. IHG and its affiliates have no obligation to ensure that any particular IHG Portfolio Brand Hotel, or particular group of Brand System Hotels, including the Hotel, benefits from the IHG System Fund Activities on a pro-rata or other basis or that the Hotel will benefit from the IHG System Fund Activities proportionate to the contributions paid by Licensee. "IHG Portfolio Brand Hotel(s)" means any hotel, other lodging facility, chain, brand or hotel system, however named, that is constructed, converted to or operated under any brands owned, controlled or under the direction of IHG and its affiliates, as they may be added to, deleted from or changed from time to time.

H. Performance of IHG's Obligations.

Licensee understands and agrees that IHG shall have the right to perform any or all of its obligations under this License directly or through IHG's parents, affiliates, subsidiaries or other designees.

5. Changes In The Standards:

Each change in the Standards shall be communicated in writing to Licensee at least 30 days before it goes into effect (which communication may be in hard paper copy or, at IHG's option, in digital, electronic or other computerized form, and if such communication is in digital, electronic or other computerized form, Licensee must pay any costs to retrieve, review, use or access same). IHG's designated internal franchise committee or subcommittee, must approve any such change and must determine, in the exercise of its business judgment, that the change was adopted in good faith and is consistent with the long-term overall interests of the Brand System.

6. Proprietary Rights:

A. Ownership of the Brand System.

Licensee acknowledges and agrees: (a) not to contest, either directly or indirectly, IHG's and its subsidiaries', affiliates' and parents' unrestricted and exclusive ownership of and right to use the Brand System and any element(s) or component(s) thereof; (b) that IHG or any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliated entities has the sole and exclusive right to grant licenses to use all or any element(s) or component(s) of the Brand System; and (c) that it will not take any action in derogation of such ownership and rights of IHG and any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliated entities. Licensee specifically agrees and acknowledges that IHG owns or is licensed to use the name and mark "EVEN[®]" and all other Marks, as defined in paragraph 6.B. below, and other elements associated with the Brand System or derived therefrom (including but not limited to domain names or other identifications or elements used in electronic commerce), together with the goodwill symbolized thereby, and that Licensee will not contest, directly or indirectly, the validity or ownership of the Marks or take any other action in derogation of such validity or ownership either during the term of this License or after its termination. All improvements, modifications and additions whenever made to or associated with the Brand System by the parties hereto or anyone else, and all service marks, trademarks, copyrights, and service mark, trademark, domain name or similar registrations at any time used, applied for or granted in connection with the Brand System, and all goodwill arising from Licensee's use of IHG's Marks and other intellectual property, including (without limitation) local goodwill, shall inure to the benefit of and become the property of IHG. Upon expiration or termination of this License, no monetary amount shall be assigned as attributable to any goodwill associated with Licensee's use of the Brand System or any element(s) or component(s) of the Brand System including any trademarks or service marks licensed hereunder.

B. Trademark Disputes.

The "Marks" means the name and mark "EVEN®", IHG One Rewards and IHG Concerto and their distinguishing characteristics and the other service marks, trademarks, trade names, slogans, commercial symbols, logos, trade dress, copyrighted material and intellectual property associated with the Brand System, including, without limitation, those which IHG may designate in the future for use and those which IHG does not designate as withdrawn from use. Licensee shall notify IHG immediately of (i) an infringement, or a challenge to Licensee's use of any of the Marks; (ii) any objections, demands, controversies, allegations or actions asserted or taken by third parties involving any of the Marks or any part of the Brand System of which Licensee becomes aware; and, (iii) any potentially infringing or unauthorized uses of any of the Marks or any part of the Brand System of which Licensee becomes aware. IHG, its parent or one of its affiliated entities will have the sole and exclusive right to handle disputes with third parties concerning use of all or any part of the Marks or Brand System, and Licensee will, at its reasonable expense, extend its full cooperation to IHG in all such matters. All recoveries made as a result of disputes with third parties regarding use of the Marks or Brand System or any part thereof shall be for the account of IHG. IHG need not initiate suit against alleged imitators or infringers, and may settle any dispute by grant of a license or otherwise. Licensee will not initiate any suit or proceeding against alleged imitators or infringers, or any other suit or proceeding to enforce or protect the Marks or Brand System.

C. Protection and Use of Name and the Marks.

Both parties will make every effort consistent with the foregoing to protect and maintain the Marks. Licensee agrees to execute any documents deemed necessary by IHG or its counsel to obtain or maintain protection for the Marks or any part of the Brand System or to maintain their continued validity and enforceability. Licensee agrees to use the Marks associated with the Brand System (i) only in connection with the operation of the Hotel during the License Term following the opening of the Hotel in the Brand System or at such earlier time as is expressly and specifically authorized by IHG, (ii) only in the manner expressly authorized by IHG and (iii) in no way that would tend to allow the Marks to become generic, lose their distinctiveness, become liable to mislead the public or be detrimental to or inconsistent with the good name, goodwill or favorable reputation and image of the Marks or IHG. Licensee acknowledges that any unauthorized, unpermitted or prohibited use of any of the Marks shall constitute infringement of IHG's rights. The restrictions and requirements that limit Licensee's use of the Marks and identifications apply to all formats (including print, electronic and other media) and include domain names, URL, and other identifications or elements used in electronic commerce.

D. Modification or Discontinuation of the Marks.

If IHG modifies or discontinues use of any of the Marks licensed under this License as a result of any proceeding or settlement or for any other reason, then Licensee agrees to comply with IHG's instructions in order to implement such modification or discontinuation. Licensee further agrees that it will have no right to any compensation or other remedies from IHG or any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliated entities as a consequence of any such modification or discontinuation.

E. Architectural Modifications.

If Licensee engages a third party, in compliance with the terms of this License to prepare modifications, additions, and/or improvements to any architectural drawings or architectural works which may be licensed to Licensee as part of the Brand System ("Architectural Modifications"), Licensee shall cause such third party (and all persons that work for or that provided services to that third party) to assign all copyrights in such Architectural Modifications to IHG in such form and manner as IHG may specify from time to time.

F. Digital Marketing.

IHG shall have the right (but not the obligation) to establish and operate websites, social media accounts, applications, keyword or ad word purchasing programs, or other means of digital advertising on the internet, any electronic communications network, and/or in any other digital format (collectively, "Digital Marketing"). IHG will have the right to control all aspects of any Digital Marketing, including those related to the Hotel. Licensee must engage a search engine optimization firm and search engine marketing firm as required by the Brand Standards. IHG will operate and maintain a website for IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels, which will include basic information related to the Hotel. Licensee further acknowledges that the www.ihg.com domain name is the sole property of IHG, and is one of the landing pages for other IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels. Licensee shall not, directly or indirectly, use, register, obtain or maintain a registration for any Internet domain name, address, social media or social network name or address, digital platform name, and/or any other designation that contains any Mark or any other mark that is, in IHG's sole opinion confusingly similar, to any of the Marks (including misspellings, abbreviations and initials). Upon IHG's request, Licensee must promptly take all steps to cancel or transfer to IHG or IHG's designee any such domain name, address, or other designation under its direct or indirect control, without payment of any compensation to Licensee. If IHG does permit Licensee to conduct any Digital Marketing, Licensee must comply with any policies, standards, guidelines, or content requirements established by IHG periodically and must immediately modify or delete any Digital Marketing that IHG determines, in its sole discretion, is not compliant with such policies, standards, guidelines, or requirements. IHG may withdraw its approval of any Digital Marketing at any time.

7. Data, Records and Audits:

A. Data.

As used in this paragraph 7.A., the following terms shall have the meanings set forth respectively after each:

"Excluded Personal Data" means any sensitive Personal Data (as defined by applicable Data Privacy Laws), government-assigned identifiers, health and/or medical data, and vehicle/parking data.

"Guest Data" means Personal Data of Hotel guests and other Hotel customers, including their reservations, purchases, preferences, and related information.

"IHG Marketing Data" means Personal Data in respect of any member of IHG's or its Affiliates' marketing or loyalty rewards program.

"IHG Personal Data" means IHG Marketing Data and any Personal Data, including Guest Data, collected by IHG or transmitted to IHG from Licensee.

"Licensee Personal Data" means any Personal Data collected by Licensee for which Licensee is an independent controller, Licensee employee Personal Data for which Licensee is the sole controller, and Excluded Personal Data for which Licensee is the sole controller. Licensee Personal Data does not include IHG Marketing Data.

(1) Use of Personal Data. "Personal Data" means that data, as defined by the Data Privacy Laws (as hereinafter defined), that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a natural living person or household. The term Personal Data also includes "Personal Information" as defined in applicable Data Privacy Laws. Personal Data is being disclosed only for the limited and specific purposes set forth in this License. Each party shall comply with its obligations and will provide the same level of privacy protection as required by the Data Privacy Laws and shall notify the other party if it makes a determination that it can no longer meet its obligations under the Data Privacy Laws with respect to its use of the other party's Personal Data. Each party shall have the right to take reasonable and appropriate steps to help ensure that any Personal Data that is licensed by either party to the other is used in a manner that is consistent with each party's respective obligations under the Data Privacy Laws and, upon written notice, may take reasonable and appropriate steps to stop and remediate unauthorized use of such licensed data. “Data Privacy Laws” means, to the extent applicable, the privacy and data protection laws and regulations applicable to the Personal Data about data subjects in the United States.

(2) Use of Licensee Personal Data. Licensee hereby grants to IHG and its affiliates a non-exclusive, worldwide, perpetual and royalty-free license to use (including the right to sublicense) the Licensee Personal Data (except for the Excluded Personal Data) free of charge, for the purposes of IHG’s performance of its obligations under this License, including, without limitation, the right to transfer Licensee Personal Data across national borders and to transfer Licensee Personal Data to third parties. IHG may retain a copy of Licensee Personal Data upon the termination or expiration of this License.

(3) Use of IHG Personal Data. Subject to the provisions of any applicable Data Privacy Laws, as between Licensee and IHG, all IHG Personal Data is the property of IHG, and IHG shall have the right to use and transfer such data on a worldwide basis during and after the License Term. During and after the License Term, Licensee shall have a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use any Guest Data stored in the Hotel’s property management system only for purposes of operating the Hotel; provided, that: (i) Licensee shall have no right to use the IHG Marketing Data except for the purpose of operating the Loyalty Program during the License Term, and Licensee must remove, or IHG and its affiliates shall have the right, at Licensee’s cost, to remove all IHG Marketing Data from the Hotel’s property management system and other Hotel records upon expiration or termination of this License; (ii) Licensee shall retain, use and transmit (and procure that any agent or representative of Licensee that manages the Hotel after the termination of this License retain, use and transmit) such Guest Data only (a) in accordance with all Data Privacy Laws, and (b) to the extent permitted pursuant to any consents obtained from the relevant guests, employees or other individuals (the parties acknowledging that IHG provides no warranty or guaranty regarding any such consents); (iii) Licensee shall not sell or transfer the IHG Personal Data including, but not limited, to any affiliate or other hotel of Licensee and will not combine IHG Personal Data with the Personal Data of any other hotel brand, company or operator; and (iv) Licensee may not use IHG Personal Data for any marketing purpose. With respect to IHG Marketing Data, Licensee will act as IHG’s processor and is prohibited from (x) “selling” or “sharing” it (as defined by Data Privacy Laws), (y) processing it for any purposes other than as expressly permitted by IHG, including any commercial purposes, or outside of Licensee’s direct business relationship with IHG, or (z) combining it with Personal Data Licensee receives from others or that it collects from its own interactions with consumers. Licensee may not engage any subprocessors to process IHG Marketing Data.

(4) Operating Data and Guest Data. “Operating Data” includes all information concerning Gross Rooms Revenue and Gross Revenue, other revenues generated at the Hotel, occupancy rates, reservation data and other information required by IHG that may be useful (in IHG’s sole business judgment) in connection with marketing, reservations, guest loyalty and satisfaction and other functions, purposes or requirements of IHG and its affiliates. Operating Data and Guest Data may be used by IHG for its reasonable purposes, including without limitation for company and industry reporting purposes. Licensee agrees that any Operating Data and any Guest Data provided by it pursuant to this License, as well as any other reports, data, information or material provided to IHG pursuant to or in connection with this License, shall be true and correct and not misleading and shall comply with all Standards, policies and requirements of IHG with respect to privacy and security of Operating Data and Guest Data of the Hotel. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that IHG may retrieve Operating Data, Guest Data, and Licensee Personal Data directly through the reservations system, via electronic transmission or automatic capture.

(5) Data Privacy Laws. Licensee will: (i) comply with all applicable Data Privacy Laws; (ii) comply with all of IHG’s requirements regarding data protection contained in the Standards or otherwise; (iii) refrain from any action or inaction that could cause IHG or its Affiliates to breach any of the Data Protection Laws; (iv) do and execute, or arrange to be done and executed, each act, document and thing necessary or desirable to keep IHG in compliance with any of the Data Protection Laws; (v) reimburse IHG for any and all costs incurred in connection with the breach by Licensee of such Data Privacy Laws or Brand Standards; (vi) immediately report to IHG the theft or loss of Personal Data or Guest Data; and (vii) permit IHG and its Affiliates to use any data or other information each of them gathers concerning Licensee, its Affiliates and/or the Hotel in connection with the establishment and operation of Brand System Hotels by IHG and its Affiliates. Licensee will implement commercially reasonable physical, administrative, and technical security controls for its processing of IHG Personal Data that are appropriate to the context and the risk of the Personal Data being processed.

B. Preparation and Maintenance of Records.

Licensee will, in a manner and form satisfactory to IHG and utilizing accounting and reporting standards as reasonably required by IHG, prepare on a current basis (and preserve for no less than four years or IHG's record retention requirements, whichever is longer), complete and accurate records concerning Gross Rooms Revenue and all financial, operating, marketing and other aspects of the Hotel. Licensee will maintain an accounting system which fully and accurately reflects all financial aspects of the Hotel and its business. Such records shall include but not be limited to books of account, tax returns, governmental reports, register tapes, daily reports, and complete quarterly and annual financial statements (profit and loss statements, balance sheets and cash flow statements). The requirement to preserve records as set forth herein shall continue beyond the expiration or sooner termination of the License Term.

C. Audit.

IHG may require Licensee to have the Hotel's Gross Rooms Revenue and/or monies due hereunder computed and certified as accurate. During the License Term and for two years afterward, IHG and its authorized agents will have the right to verify information required under this License by requesting, receiving, inspecting and auditing, at all reasonable times, any and all records referred to above wherever they may be located (or elsewhere if reasonably requested by IHG). If any such inspection or audit discloses a deficiency in any payments due hereunder, and the deficiency in any payment is not offset by overpayment, Licensee shall immediately pay to IHG the deficiency and interest thereon as provided in paragraph 3.C. along with an audit fee of $3,000, as such amount may be increased by IHG. No acceptance by IHG of any audit fee or deficiency payment shall be deemed to waive any right of IHG to pursue a default under the License by reason of such underpayment. If the audit does not result in a deficiency being assessed, then no audit fee will be assessed. If the audit discloses an overpayment, IHG will credit this overpayment, without interest, against future payments due from Licensee under this License or if this License has terminated promptly refund it, without interest to Licensee.

D. Annual Financial Statements.

If requested by IHG, Licensee will submit to IHG as soon as available but not later than 90 days after such request, and in a format as reasonably required by IHG, complete financial statements for the prior year. Licensee will certify them to be true and correct and to have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and the Uniform System, consistently applied, and any false certification will be a breach of this License.

8. Indemnity and Insurance:A. Indemnity.

Licensee will indemnify IHG, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliated entities and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Indemnitees") against, hold them harmless from, and promptly reimburse them for all payments of money (fines, damages, legal fees, expenses, settlement amounts, judgments, etc.) by reason of any claim, demand, tax, penalty, or judicial or administrative investigation, arbitration action or proceeding whenever asserted or filed (even where negligence of any of the Indemnitees is alleged), regardless of whether any of the foregoing is reduced to judgment, arising from any claimed occurrence at or related to the Hotel or any act, error, neglect, omission or obligation of Licensee or anyone associated or affiliated with Licensee or the Hotel. Licensee agrees to give IHG written notice of any such judicial or administrative investigation or proceeding or any other event that could be the basis for a claim for indemnification by any Indemnitee within three days of Licensee's knowledge of it. At the election of IHG, Licensee will also defend IHG and/or the other Indemnitees against the indemnified matters. In any event, IHG will have the right, through counsel of its choice, to control any matter to the extent it could directly or indirectly affect IHG and/or any of the other Indemnitees. IHG will have the right, at any time it considers appropriate, to offer, order, consent or agree to settlements or take any other remedial or corrective actions it considers expedient with respect to any action, suit, proceeding, claim, demand, inquiry or investigation if, in IHG's sole judgment, there are reasonable grounds to do so. Under no circumstance will IHG or any of the other Indemnitees be required to seek recovery from third parties or otherwise mitigate its or their losses to maintain a claim against Licensee. Licensee agrees that any failure to pursue recovery from third parties or mitigate loss will in no way reduce the amounts recoverable by IHG or any of the other Indemnitees from Licensee. Licensee agrees to pay IHG all expenses, including attorneys' fees and court costs, incurred by IHG or any of the other Indemnitees, and their successors and assigns, to remedy any defaults of or enforce or defend itself or any rights under this License (including without limitation any claim, cross-claim or counter-claim brought by Licensee), to effect termination of this License or collect any amounts due under this License.

B. Insurance.

During the License Term, Licensee will comply with all insurance requirements of any lease or mortgage covering the Hotel, and IHG's specifications for insurance as to the amount and type of coverage as may be reasonably specified by IHG from time to time in writing, and will in any event maintain on the Hotel as a minimum, the following insurance underwritten by a reputable insurer approved by IHG:

- (1) employer's liability with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence;
- (2) worker's compensation insurance;
- (3) employment practices liability insurance (including coverage for harassment, discrimination and wrongful termination and covering defense and indemnity costs) with a limit of $1,000,000 in the aggregate;
- (4) the holder of the liquor license will maintain liquor liability insurance with single limit coverage for personal and bodily injury and property damage of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence naming IHG and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates (and Licensee if applicable) as additional insureds; and
- (5) commercial general liability insurance (including coverage for product liability, completed operations, contractual liability, host liquor liability and fire legal liability) and business automobile liability insurance (including hired and non-owned liability) with single-limit coverage for personal and bodily injury and property damage of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence, naming IHG and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates as additional insureds. In connection with all construction at the Hotel during the License Term, Licensee will cause the general contractor to maintain commercial general liability insurance (including coverage for product liability, completed operations and contractual liability) and business automobile liability insurance (including hired and non-owned liability) with limits of at least $15,000,000 per occurrence for personal and bodily injury and property damage underwritten with insurers approved by IHG. IHG and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates will be named as additional insureds.
- (6) If multiple locations are insured on policies containing an aggregate limit, then the aggregate limit must apply on a per location aggregate basis.
- (7) Licensee will ensure the royalties, Services Contributions and any other sums payable to IHG are insured within the Licensee's business interruption insurance policy. The policy should insure against 'all risks' of physical loss or damage, and be endorsed to provide for payments to be made directly to IHG.
- (8) All policies must be written on a fully insured basis. Deductibles or self-insured retentions are subject to IHG's approval on an individual basis.

C. Evidence of Insurance.

At all times during the License Term, Licensee will furnish to IHG certificates of insurance evidencing the term and limits of coverage in force, names of applicable insurers and persons insured. Revised certificates of insurance shall be forwarded to IHG each time a change in coverage or insurance carrier is made by Licensee, and/or upon renewal of expired coverages. At IHG's option, Licensee may be required to provide certified insurance policy copies. If Licensee fails to procure or maintain the insurance coverages and limits set forth in paragraph 8.B., IHG will have the right and authority (but not the obligation) to procure such insurance at Licensee's cost, including any costs incurred by IHG for procurement and maintenance of such insurance.

9. Transfer:

A. Transfer by IHG.

IHG shall have the right to transfer or assign this License or any or all of IHG's rights, duties or obligations hereunder, in whole or in part, to any Person without requirement of prior notice to, or consent of, Licensee.

B. Transfers by Licensee.

Licensee represents, warrants and agrees (on behalf of itself and its owners, members, partners or stockholders of Licensee, if Licensee is a partnership, limited liability company, corporation or other legal entity (an "Entity")) that the ownership of Licensee set forth on Attachment "A" is current, complete and accurate. Without limiting IHG's rights or Licensee's obligations under this paragraph, upon the reasonable request of IHG, Licensee will submit to IHG evidence, in form and substance satisfactory to IHG, confirming the ownership information set forth on Attachment "A". Upon any Transfer under this Paragraph 10 or otherwise permitted by IHG, Licensee will provide a list of the names and addresses of any new owners, members, partners or stockholders of Licensee and update Attachment "A".

Licensee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this License are personal to Licensee, and that IHG has granted this License in reliance on the business skill, financial capacity, and personal character of Licensee (if Licensee is a natural person), and upon the owners, members, partners or stockholders of Licensee (if Licensee is an Entity). Accordingly, neither Licensee nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Licensee's interest in this License, nor any Person which directly or indirectly owns an Equity Interest (as that term is defined below) in Licensee or this License, may sell, assign, transfer, convey, exchange, pledge, mortgage, encumber, lease or give away (each of the foregoing shall describe a "Transfer"), any direct or indirect interest in this License or Equity Interest in Licensee, except as expressly provided in this License. Any purported Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, of any interest, collaterally or otherwise, in this License or any Equity Interest in Licensee not in accordance with the provisions of this License, shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this License, for which IHG may terminate this License without opportunity to cure pursuant to paragraph 11. C of this License.

- (1) The term "Equity Interest" means all forms of ownership, membership, stock, partnership or any other form of equity interests in legal entities or property, both legal and beneficial, voting and non-voting, including stock interests, partnership interests, limited liability company interests, joint tenancy interests, leasehold interests, proprietorship interests, trust beneficiary interests, proxy interests, power-of-attorney interests, and all options, warrants, and any other forms of interest evidencing ownership or Control. References in this License to "publicly traded Equity Interests" shall mean any Equity Interests which are traded on any securities exchange or are quoted in any publication or electronic reporting service maintained by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or any of its successors.
- (2) The term "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, estate, trust, unincorporated association, any national, provincial, state, county, tribal or municipal government or any bureau, office, department or agency thereof and any fiduciary acting in an agency capacity on behalf of any of the foregoing.
- (3) The term "Control" (and any form thereof, such as "controlling" or "controlled") means, with respect to any Person, the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power or ability to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of such Person.
- (4) If Licensee is an Entity, Licensee represents that the Equity Interests in Licensee are directly and (if applicable) indirectly owned, as shown in Attachment "A".
- (5) In computing changes of Equity Interests pursuant to this paragraph 9, limited partners will not be distinguished from general partners, and IHG's judgment will be final if there is any question as to the definition of Equity Interests or as to the computation of relative Equity Interests, including transfers of Equity Interests, the principal considerations being:

- (a) direct and indirect power to exercise control over the affairs of Licensee;
- (b) direct and indirect right to share in Licensee's profits; and
- (c) amounts directly or indirectly exposed at risk in Licensee's business.

C. Non-Control Transfers.

If Licensee is in compliance with this License then, Licensee and/or any of its Owners may consummate any Transfer of a direct or indirect non-Controlling Equity Interest in Licensee, or effect a transaction that does not result in a direct or indirect change of Control in Licensee, without IHG's consent, if: (a) Licensee notifies IHG in writing at least twenty (20) days before the Transfer's effective date; (b) Licensee provides IHG with the identity of the proposed transferee and its owners, together with all other related information reasonably requested by IHG and the proposed transferee and its owners meet IHG's then-current ownership criteria (including not being a Prohibited Person or a competitor of IHG); (c) such Transfer does not, whether in one transaction or a series of related transactions, result in the transfer or creation of a Controlling Equity Interest in Licensee; (d) such Transfer does not, whether in one transaction or a series of related transactions, result in the Transfer of all of Guarantor's Equity Interests in Licensee; and (e) Licensee and its Owners sign those agreements that IHG shall have the right to require in order to implement this paragraph. In addition, at IHG's request, Licensee and any such transferees shall execute (or re-execute) (x) a general release of any and all claims against IHG and its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees and (y) an amendment to this License that updates the ownership information in Attachment "A".

D. Transfers for Estate Planning; Upon Death or Mental Incapacity.

Licensee may, for estate planning, Transfer an Equity Interest in Licensee to a member of Licensee's immediate family (i.e., a spouse, parent, sibling, son, daughter, niece or nephew), or to a trust for the benefit of such immediate family member, or to a Person in which Licensee owns and controls a majority of the Equity Interests and voting power; provided, however, that prior to such transfer the following requirements are met: (a) adequate provision acceptable to IHG is made for the management of the Hotel; (b) the obligations of Licensee under this License are satisfied pending the Transfer; (c) the transferee executes IHG's then-current form of license agreement used to license Brand System Hotels for at least the unexpired portion of the Term (as determined by IHG), except that the fees charged thereunder shall be the same as those contained in this License (including any adjustments to such fees as may have been implemented from time to time in accordance with the terms of this License); (d) Licensee executes a termination agreement of this License on IHG's then-current form (which shall contain a general release of any and all claims of Licensee (and any of Licensee's Affiliates) against IHG and its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, managers, members, shareholders, agents and employees); and (e) each Guarantor acknowledges the Transfer and reaffirms its obligations under the Guaranty and, if required by IHG, Licensee provides additional guarantees, on IHG's then-current form (which shall contain a general release of any and all claims against IHG and its Affiliates (including, IHG), and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees), the performance of the new licensee's obligations under the newly executed license agreement.

Upon the death or mental incompetency of Licensee or any natural person with a Controlling Equity Interest in Licensee, such interest may be transferred in accordance with and subject to the terms of paragraph 9.F., provided that: (i) any such Transfer will be made within six (6) months of the date of death or mental incompetency, (ii) the obligations of Licensee under this License are satisfied pending the Transfer, and (iii) the Hotel will be continuously operated by Licensee or a management company approved by IHG.

E. Registration of a Proposed Transfer of Equity Interests.

Any public offering, private placement or other sale of securities in or by Licensee or the Hotel ("Securities") requires IHG's consent. All materials for the offer or sale of those Securities disseminated to any prospective purchaser thereof, filed with any governmental or quasigovernmental entity or intended for distribution to any form of media must be submitted to IHG for its review at least sixty (60) days before the date Licensee disseminates or distributes those materials or files them with any governmental agency, including any materials to be used in any offering exempt from registration under any securities laws.

Licensee must submit to IHG a non-refundable Twenty-Five Thousand Dollar ($25,000) processing fee with the offering materials and pay any additional costs IHG may incur in reviewing such materials, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Except as legally required to describe the Hotel in the offering materials, Licensee may not use any of the Marks or otherwise imply IHG's participation or that of its affiliates, officers, directors, members, managers and employees in such offering or its/their endorsement of any Securities or any Securities offering. IHG will have the right to approve any description of this License or Licensee's relationship with IHG, or any use of the Marks, contained in any prospectus, offering memorandum or other communications or materials used by Licensee in the sale or offer of any Securities. IHG's review of these documents will not in any way be considered IHG's agreement with any statements contained in those documents, including any projections, or IHG's acknowledgment or agreement that the documents comply with any applicable laws.

Licensee may not offer and/or sell any Securities unless Licensee clearly discloses to all purchasers and offerees in any and all Securities offer and/or sale materials that: (i) neither IHG, nor any of its affiliates, nor any of their respective officers, directors, managers, agents or employees, will in any way be deemed an issuer or underwriter of the Securities, as those terms are defined in applicable securities laws; (ii) neither IHG, its affiliates nor any of their respective officers, directors, managers, agents and employees will have any liability or responsibility for any financial statements, projections or other financial information contained in any prospectus, offering and solicitation material or similar written or oral communication; plays (or will play) any role in the offer or sale of Licensee's securities; has any responsibility for the creation or contents of any offering and/or solicitation materials (including any prospectus); in no fashion controls (or will control) Licensee's day-to-day business operations or any element or instrumentality thereof; that any individual or entity purchasing Securities must understand that its sole recourse for any alleged or actual impropriety relating to the offer and sale of such Securities and/or Licensee's operation of its business will be against Licensee (and/or, as may be applicable, the seller of such Securities); and, that in no event may such purchaser seek to impose liability arising from or related to such activity, directly or indirectly, upon any of IHG, its affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors, managers, agents or employees.

Licensee agrees that its obligations to indemnify and hold harmless IHG and the other indemnitees under paragraphs 8.A. and 13.K. of this License extends to and embraces liabilities arising from or relating to, directly or indirectly, any and every element of Licensee's offer and/or sale of Securities which Licensee may propose to or does engage in, including (without limitation) any statements, representations or warranties that Licensee and/or its affiliates may give to or receive from any proposed or actual purchaser of such Securities and/or any claim that Licensee, its affiliates and/or the officers, directors, managers, members, agents and employees of each of the foregoing, or Licensee's assignee, engaged in fraud, deceit, violation of securities laws or other illegality in connection with Licensee's proposed or actual offer and/or sale of Securities. As with all other indemnification obligations set forth in this License, this specific indemnification obligation will survive the termination or expiration of this License.

F. Control Transfers.

Notwithstanding any other term or provision of this License to the contrary, neither this License nor any right or interest herein is assignable or transferable by Licensee.

If Licensee (i) receives an offer to purchase or lease the Hotel or any portion thereof, (ii) desires to sell or lease the Hotel or any portion thereof, or (iii) wishes to convey the Hotel, Hotel site, or any interest in the Hotel or Licensee, Licensee shall give prompt written notice thereof to IHG, stating the identity of the prospective transferee, purchaser or lessee and the terms and conditions of the conveyance, including a copy of any proposed agreement and all other information with respect thereto, that IHG may reasonably require.

Any (i) transfer of Equity Interests in an Entity (other than a transfer expressly permitted hereunder) or (ii) transfer of all or a material part of the Hotel or Hotel site (if the Hotel or Hotel site is owned directly or indirectly by Licensee or by a natural person or Entity that owns any Equity Interest in Licensee), to a new owner shall constitute a change of ownership requiring submittal of an application for a new license.

- (1) IHG shall process such change of ownership application in accordance with IHG's then current procedures, criteria and requirements regarding fees, upgrading of the Hotel, financial capacity and guaranty requirements, curing of outstanding defaults, operational abilities and capabilities, prior business dealings, market feasibility and other factors deemed relevant by

- IHG. If such change of ownership application is approved by IHG, the new owner and IHG shall, upon termination of this License by IHG, enter into a new license agreement on IHG's then current form. The new license agreement shall contain IHG's then current terms (except for duration, which shall not be less than the remaining License Term but may be longer to reflect the new term agreed by IHG as part of the approval of the change in ownership of the Hotel), and if required by IHG, shall contain specified upgrading of the Hotel and other requirements.
- (2) Licensee must satisfy all of its accrued monetary obligations to IHG and its affiliates, including an amount equal to a reasonable estimate of the costs and fees not yet accumulated and/or invoiced, and will execute (on Licensee's behalf and on behalf of its affiliates), in a form prescribed by IHG, a general release of any and all claims against IHG and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees.
 - (3) If a change of ownership application for the proposed new owner is either (a) not submitted or (b) not approved by IHG, and the conveyance of the Hotel, Hotel site, or any Equity Interest in the Hotel or Equity Interest in Licensee to the proposed new owner occurs, then such transfer shall be considered an unauthorized transfer (an "Unauthorized Transfer"). If an Unauthorized Transfer occurs, it shall constitute a material breach of the License and an abandonment by Licensee of the franchise, and IHG shall be entitled to exercise all of its remedies under this License and applicable law, including, without limitation, its right to terminate this License pursuant to paragraph 11.C hereof.

G. Transfer of Real Estate.

If (i) the real property used in the operation of the Hotel is owned directly or indirectly by Licensee or by a natural person or an Entity that owns any Equity Interest in Licensee and (ii) Licensee or that natural person or Entity proposes to transfer all or a substantial part of such property to a third party, such transfer shall constitute a transfer under the provisions of this License requiring an application for a new license agreement, unless Licensee receives IHG's prior written consent for the transaction. Licensee may however, without IHG's consent, mortgage or otherwise grant a security interest in the real estate or other tangible assets of the Hotel (but specifically excluding this License or any right or interest herein) in connection with commercially reasonable financing for the Hotel with a third party bank or other commercial lending institution which is not a competitor of IHG or any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliated entities. The selling, offering for sale, or establishment or registration of any condominium, cooperative, flat, timeshare, fractional interest, or interval ownership or regime or any similar type of ownership or regime relating to all or any part of the Hotel is prohibited.

H. Management and Name of the Hotel.

Licensee must at all times retain and exercise direct management control over the Hotel's business. Licensee shall not enter into any lease, management agreement, or other similar arrangement for the operation of the Hotel or any part thereof (including, without limitation, retail, food and/or beverage service facilities) with any natural person or entity without the prior written consent of IHG in each instance. The approval by IHG of any such lease, management agreement or other similar arrangement for operation of the Hotel or any part thereof shall in no way relieve, reduce, mitigate or waive any of the responsibilities of Licensee under this License, it being understood that all such responsibilities shall at all times remain the obligation of Licensee. Licensee must provide IHG with all information requested by IHG from time to time regarding ownership, control and management of the Hotel and of Licensee.

Licensee must provide food and beverage service in the Hotel as required by the Standards. If Licensee, one of its affiliated entities or persons or a third party, operates a branded restaurant adjacent to or inside the Hotel to serve as the restaurant for the Hotel, in addition to all other requirements of this License, Licensee must ensure, regardless of any conflict between this License and the restaurant's brand standards or other obligations, that such affiliated entity or person or third party: (i) will operate the restaurant, with respect to guest life and safety standards, in compliance with the restaurant's brand standards, if any, and with all life and safety standards required by law or, if higher, by this License; (ii) will keep the restaurant open for meals during the hours required by IHG, (iii) will provide to Hotel guests all programs required by IHG, (iv) will allow Hotel guests eating in the restaurant or receiving room service from the restaurant to charge restaurant bills to their Hotel guest folio, (v) will not use or advertise any of the restaurant names, brands or trademarks together with the Marks unless specifically approved by IHG in writing, (vi) will honor at the restaurant all credit cards specified in the Standards and (vii) will include the restaurant in all guest satisfaction surveys and quality inspections and will allow IHG's inspection of the restaurant in accordance with this License and the Standards.

IHG has the exclusive right to name the Hotel. The name of the Hotel may not be changed unless IHG determines, at its election, to do so.

[Add for change of ownership licenses] Licensee must honor existing guest contracts for guest rooms and/or meetings. If Licensee fails to honor an existing guest room contract and or meeting contract, Licensee must "walk" or relocate all impacted guests to another hotel acceptable to the guests and Licensee must pay for the entire difference in cost between the Hotel and the replacement hotel for the entire stay of the guests and/or meeting, including tax and any additional transportation and communication costs resulting from Licensee's failure to honor the existing guest contract.

K. Employees of the Hotel.

Licensee must ensure suitable, qualified individuals are employed at the Hotel in such number as is sufficient to staff all positions at the Hotel in accordance with the Standards. None of Licensee's employees will be considered to be IHG's employees. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Licensee, or its management company engaged to operate the Hotel, as may be applicable, is the sole employer of the employees working at the Hotel and that IHG does not directly or indirectly control employment policies, discipline, recruitment or termination and that Licensee is solely responsible for all employment decisions, regardless of whether Licensee has received guidance with respect to such matters from IHG. Neither Licensee nor any of Licensee's employees whose compensation Licensee pays may in any way, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, be construed to be IHG's employee for any purpose, including but not limited to with respect to any mandated or other insurance coverage, tax or contributions, or requirements pertaining to withholdings, levied or fixed by any city, state or federal governmental agency. IHG will not have the power to hire or fire Licensee's employees. Licensee expressly agrees, and will never contend otherwise, that IHG's authority under this License to approve certain of Licensee's employees for qualification to perform certain functions for the Hotel does not directly or indirectly vest in IHG the power to hire, fire or control any such employee. Licensee further agrees that any such minimum requirements established by IHG are solely for the purpose of ensuring that the Hotel is at all times operated in accordance with the Standards and with the attributes of the Brand known to, and desired by, the consuming public and associated with the Marks. Moreover, Licensee agrees that any training provided by IHG for Licensee's employees is intended to impart to those employees, under Licensee's ultimate authority, the various procedures, protocols, systems and operations of the Hotel and in no fashion reflects any employment relationship between IHG and such employees. Finally, should it ever be asserted that IHG is the employer, joint employer or co-employer of any of Licensee's employees in any private or government investigation, action, proceeding, arbitration or other setting, Licensee irrevocably agrees to assist IHG in defending said allegation, including, if necessary, appearing at any venue requested by IHG to testify on IHG's behalf and, as may be necessary, submitting itself to depositions, other appearances and/or preparing affidavits dismissive of any allegation that IHG is the employer, joint employer or co-employer of any of Licensee's employees.

10. Condemnation And Casualty:

A. Condemnation.

Licensee shall, at the earliest possible time, give IHG full notice of any proposed taking of all or any part of the Hotel by eminent domain. If IHG acknowledges that the Hotel or a substantial part thereof is to be taken, IHG will give due and prompt consideration, without any obligation by either party, to changing the site of the Hotel to a nearby location selected by Licensee, and approved by IHG, as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event within four months of the taking; provided, that Licensee has promptly filed an application to change the Location of the Hotel. Such application would not require payment to IHG of any additional franchise application fee. If the condemnation of all or any material part of the Hotel building occurs in the last two years of the License Term, the License shall automatically terminate effective upon the date of the taking. If the new location and Licensee's application are approved by IHG, Licensee shall promptly execute an addendum to this License substituting the new location, and Licensee shall open a new hotel at the new location in accordance with IHG's specifications within two years of the closing of the Hotel if the new hotel is a new development or within one year of the closing of the Hotel if the new hotel is a conversion of an existing building and the new hotel will thenceforth be deemed to be the Hotel licensed under this License. If a condemnation takes place and a new hotel is not, for whatever reason, going to become the Hotel under this License (or if it is reasonably evident to IHG that such will be the case), the License will terminate forthwith upon notice thereof by IHG to Licensee and Licensee shall have no liability for the liquidated damages set forth in paragraph 11.E. of this License.

B. Casualty.

If the Hotel is damaged by fire or other casualty, Licensee will immediately notify IHG and expeditiously repair the damage; provided, however, if all or virtually all of the Hotel is destroyed by such fire or other casualty, either IHG or (unless caused by the intentional act of Licensee or its agent) Licensee may terminate this License by fifteen days prior notice to the other delivered within sixty days of the date of the fire or other casualty. If Licensee terminates this License in accordance with this provision, Licensee shall have no liability for the liquidated damages set forth in paragraph 11.E. of this License so long as neither Licensee nor any of its affiliates, principals, shareholders, members, partners or other owners, either directly or through another person or entity, develops, leases or operates the site as a hotel or other lodging or residential facility of any kind or sort for at least five years following the date of termination (or the originally scheduled termination date of this License, if earlier) other than pursuant to another license with IHG.

Unless the License is terminated properly pursuant to the foregoing provision, Licensee will close the Hotel if required by the extent of the damage or if otherwise required by IHG; will repair or rebuild the Hotel in accordance with IHG's Standards; will commence reconstruction within six months after the fire or other casualty; will expeditiously continue on an uninterrupted basis with such reconstruction; and will, if the Hotel was closed, reopen the Hotel for continuous business operations as soon as practicable (but in any event within twenty-four months after the fire or other casualty), giving IHG at least forty-five days advance notice of the date of reopening if the Hotel was closed. If the Hotel was closed, Licensee may not reopen the Hotel or promote or otherwise hold the Hotel out as a hotel in the Brand System unless and until IHG determines that the reconstruction is completed in accordance with IHG's then current Standards. If the Hotel is not required to be closed, all work to repair damage shall be conducted so as to minimize interference with the Hotel's operation and guests. If the damage is not repaired in accordance with this paragraph, the License will forthwith terminate upon notice thereof by IHG to Licensee and Licensee shall be responsible for full liquidated damages under paragraph 11.E. of this License. Notwithstanding anything else herein to the contrary, during the time the Hotel is closed, Licensee shall pay IHG a monthly royalty of 2% of Gross Rooms Revenue based on the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue for the preceding twelve months prior to the date of the fire or other casualty or, if the Hotel has not been in the Brand System for twelve months, based on the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue for the period during which the Hotel has been in operation in the Brand System. Said payment shall be in lieu of all other Brand System fees under paragraph 3.B. of this License.

C. No Extensions of Term.

Nothing in this paragraph 10 will or is intended to extend the License Term.

11. Termination:

A. License Term.

The License Term is stated in Item 2 of Attachment "A". This License is not renewable, and Licensee acknowledges and agrees that this License confers upon Licensee absolutely no rights of license renewal following the expiration of the License Term. The parties recognize the difficulty of ascertaining damages to IHG resulting from premature termination of the License, and have provided for liquidated damages which represent their best estimate as to the damages arising from the circumstances in which they are provided. Before or on the expiration or earlier termination of this License, IHG may give notice that the Hotel is leaving the Brand System and take any other action related to guests, travel agents, suppliers and all other persons affected by such expiration or termination.

B. Termination by IHG on Advance Notice.

- (1) In accordance with notice from IHG to Licensee, this License will terminate (without any further notice unless required by law), provided that:
 - (a) the notice is mailed at least 30 days (or longer, if required by law) in advance of the termination date;
 - (b) the notice reasonably identifies one or more breaches of Licensee's obligations; and
 - (c) the breach(es) are not fully remedied within the time period specified in the notice.
- (2) If Licensee shall have engaged in a violation of this License, for which a notice of termination was given and termination failed to take effect because the default was remedied during the then preceding 12 months, the period given to remedy defaults will, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law, thereafter be 10 days instead of 30 (provided, however, if there have been two or more violations of the License in the preceding twelve months for which notices of termination were given, upon the next violation, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the License may be terminated by IHG immediately upon notice).
- (3) In any judicial proceeding in which the validity of termination is at issue, IHG will not be limited to the reasons set forth in any notice sent under this paragraph.
- (4) If Licensee fails to cure its breach of its obligations timely and in the manner required by IHG, IHG may in its sole discretion suspend the Hotel from access to the Brand System. IHG may also in its sole discretion remove the Hotel's listing from any website services and divert reservations previously made for the Hotel to other Brand System Hotels or IHG Portfolio Brand Hotels. Licensee must pay all costs arising from suspension from the Brand System. IHG's election to suspend the Hotel from said access rather than terminate this License will not: (i) constitute a waiver of any breach by Licensee or of any rights IHG otherwise has to terminate the License; (ii) actual or constructive termination of this License; (iii) constitute an abandonment by IHG of this License; or (iv) entitle Licensee to any compensation of any kind for any alleged losses Licensee might incur as a result of said suspension.
- (5) IHG's notice of termination or suspension of services shall not relieve Licensee of its obligations under this License.

C. Immediate Termination by IHG.

This License may be terminated by IHG immediately (or at the earliest time permitted by applicable law) if:

- (1)
 - (a) Licensee or any guarantor of Licensee's obligations hereunder shall generally not pay its debts as they become due, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts, or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors;
 - (b) Licensee or any such guarantor shall commence any case, proceeding or other action seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its property;
 - (c) Licensee or any such guarantor shall take any corporate or other action to authorize any of the actions set forth above in paragraphs (a) or (b);
 - (d) any case, proceeding or other action against Licensee or any such guarantor shall be commenced seeking to have an order for relief entered against it as debtor, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official

- for it or for all or any substantial part of its property, and such case, proceeding or other action: (i) results in the entry of any order for relief against it which is not fully stayed within seven business days after the entry thereof or (ii) remains undismissed for a period of 45 days;
- (e) an attachment remains on all or a substantial part of the Hotel or of Licensee's or any such guarantor's assets for 30 days; or
 - (f) Licensee or any such guarantor fails, within 60 days of the date of entry of a final judgment or tax lien against Licensee or a guarantor of this License in any amount exceeding $50,000, to discharge, vacate or reverse the judgment or tax lien or to stay execution of it, or if appealed, to discharge the judgment within 30 days after a final decision in the appeal is rendered; or
- (2)
 - (a) Licensee voluntarily or involuntarily loses possession or the right to possession of all or a significant part of the Hotel, except as otherwise provided in paragraph 9;
 - (b) an Unauthorized Transfer, as that term is defined in paragraph 9.H.(6), occurs; or
 - (c) Licensee otherwise conducts itself in a manner than evidences an intent to abandon the franchise; or
 - (3) Licensee, or any entity or individual having a direct or indirect ownership interest in it, contests in any court or proceeding IHG's ownership of the Brand System or any part of it, or the validity of any of the Marks or other trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property associated with any of IHG's businesses; or
 - (4) A breach of paragraph 8 or paragraph 9 occurs; or
 - (5) Licensee fails to continue to identify the Hotel to the public as a Brand System hotel, engages in any action that violates IHG's proprietary rights under paragraph 6 or ceases to operate the Hotel as a Brand System hotel; or
 - (6) Any action is taken toward dissolving or liquidating Licensee or any guarantor hereunder, if it is an Entity, except for any such actions resulting from the death of a partner; or
 - (7) Licensee (or any principal stockholder, owner, member or partner of Licensee as the case may be) is, or is discovered to have been, convicted of a felony (or any other offense if it is likely to adversely reflect upon or affect the Hotel, the Brand System or IHG in any way); or
 - (8) Licensee maintains false books and records of account or submits false reports or information to IHG; or
 - (9) Licensee knowingly fails to comply with the requirements of the License and/or the Standards on safety, security, or privacy for its guests at the Hotel or on the reputation of the management, employees or operation of the Hotel, and such failure may significantly adversely reflect upon or affect the Hotel, the Brand System or IHG, its parents, subsidiaries and/or affiliates in any way; or
 - (10) A breach of paragraph 13.N. occurs; or
 - (11) Licensee uses any of the Marks before being authorized to do so by IHG; or
 - (12) Licensee uses any of the Marks in any manner prohibited, or not expressly authorized or permitted by this License; or
 - (13) Licensee refuses to allow, or to cooperate with, IHG's inspection or audit of the Hotel following a reasonable attempt by IHG to schedule during normal business hours.

D. De-Identification of Hotel Upon Termination.

Upon expiration or other termination of this License, all rights granted under this License will immediately terminate and Licensee will take whatever action is necessary to assure that no use is made of any part of the Brand System at or in connection with the Hotel after the License Term ends. This will involve, among other things, returning to IHG the Standards and all other materials proprietary to IHG, ceasing the use of the Marks and any other of IHG's trademarks or service marks, physical changes of distinctive Brand System features of the Hotel, including, but not limited to, removal of the primary freestanding sign down to the structural steel, as well as removal of any brand-mandated artwork, signage, graphics, and paint schemes (whether on walls, ceilings or floors) and all other actions required to preclude any possibility of confusion on the part of the public and to ensure that the Hotel is no longer using all or any part of the Brand System or otherwise holding itself out to the public as a Brand System hotel. In addition, Licensee must cancel any fictitious, trade, or assumed name or equivalent registration that contains any Marks or any variations thereof, and Licensee must furnish IHG with evidence satisfactory to IHG of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this License. Anything in this paragraph which is not done by Licensee within 30 days after expiration or termination of this License may be done at Licensee's expense by IHG or its agents who may enter upon the premises of the Hotel for that purpose.

E. Payment of Liquidated Damages.

The parties recognize the difficulty of ascertaining damages to IHG resulting from premature termination of this License, and have provided for liquidated damages, which liquidated damages represent the parties' best estimate as to the damages arising from the circumstances in which they are provided and which are only damages for the premature termination of this License, and not as a penalty or as damages for breaching this License or in lieu of any other payment. If the License is terminated pursuant to paragraphs 11.B. or 11.C. above, Licensee will promptly pay IHG, as liquidated damages, a lump sum equal to the total amounts required under paragraphs 3.B.(3) through 3.B.(6) during the 60 calendar months of operation preceding the termination, or such shorter period as equals the unexpired License Term at the time of termination, or, if the Hotel has not been in operation in the Brand System for 60 months, the greater of:

- (1) 60 times the monthly average of such amounts for the period during which the Hotel has been in operation in the Brand System, or
- (2) 60 times such amounts as are due for the one month preceding such termination.

IHG and Licensee acknowledge and agree that it would be difficult to determine the injury caused to IHG by termination of this License. IHG and Licensee therefore intend and agree the above liquidated damages calculation to be a reasonable estimate of IHG's probable loss and not a penalty or in lieu of any other payment.

12. Relationship Of Parties:

A. No Agency Relationship.

Licensee is an independent contractor. Neither party is the legal representative nor agent of, or has the power to obligate (or has the right to direct or supervise the daily affairs of) the other for any purpose whatsoever. IHG and Licensee expressly acknowledge that the relationship intended by them is a business relationship based entirely on and circumscribed by the express provisions of this License and that no partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary or employment relationship is intended or created by reason of this License. Licensee acknowledges and agrees, and will never contend otherwise, that Licensee alone will exercise day-to-day control over all operations, activities and elements of Licensee and the Hotel and that under no circumstance shall IHG do so or be deemed to do so. Licensee further acknowledges and agrees, and will never contend otherwise, that the various requirements, restrictions, prohibitions, specifications and procedures of the Brand System which Licensee is required to comply with under this License, whether set forth in the Standards or otherwise, do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that IHG controls any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of Licensee or the Hotel, which Licensee alone controls, but only constitute standards Licensee must adhere to when exercising its control of the day-to-day operations of Licensee and the Hotel.

B. Licensee's Notices to Public Concerning Independent Status.

Licensee will take such steps as are necessary and such steps as IHG may from time to time reasonably request to minimize the chance of a claim being made against IHG for anything that occurs at the Hotel or for acts, omissions or obligations of Licensee or anyone associated or affiliated with Licensee or the Hotel. Such steps may, for example, include giving notice in guest rooms, public rooms and advertisements and on business forms and stationery, etc., making clear to the public that IHG is not the owner or operator of the Hotel and is not accountable for what happens at the Hotel. Unless required by law, Licensee will not use IHG's name, the Marks or any other trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property owned or licensed by IHG or any of its affiliates or any similar words in its corporate, partnership, entity or trade name, nor authorize or permit such use by anyone else. Licensee will not use IHG's name, the Marks or any other trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property owned or licensed by IHG or any of its affiliates to incur any obligation or indebtedness on behalf of IHG.

Licensee shall not register IHG's name, the Marks or any other trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property owned or licensed by IHG or any of its affiliates as part of any internet domain name or Uniform Resource Locator (URL), and may not display or use any of the Marks or other intellectual property rights related to the Brand System in connection with any web site. Licensee shall not promote, maintain, implement or be responsible for any web site in connection with the licensed Hotel without the prior written approval of IHG, and if approved by IHG, any such web site shall comply with all of IHG's web site requirements as set forth in the Standards or otherwise.

13. Miscellaneous:A. Non-Exclusive Remedies; Severability and Interpretation.

The remedies provided in this License are not exclusive. In the event that all or any part of a provision of this License is held to be unenforceable, void or voidable as being contrary to the law or public policy of the United States or any other jurisdiction entitled to exercise authority hereunder, the affected provision of this License will be curtailed and limited only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirement of Applicable Law; the court may declare a reasonable modification of this License (but not any of its payment provisions) and the parties agree to be bound by and perform this License as so modified; and all remaining terms and provisions shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect, unless deletion of the subject term(s) or provision(s) is deemed unenforceable, void or voidable, impairs the consideration for this License in a manner which frustrates the purpose of the parties or makes performance commercially impracticable. In the event any term or provision of this License requires interpretation, such interpretation shall be based on the reasonable intention of the parties in the context of this transaction without interpreting any term or provision in favor of, or against, any party hereto by reason of the draftsmanship of the party or its position relative to the other party. Any action or proceeding to resolve a dispute shall be conducted on an individual basis, and not as part of a consolidated, common, representative, group, joint or class action.

B. (1) Binding Effect, Consent to Jurisdiction and Forum Selection, Choice of Law. This License shall become valid when executed and accepted by IHG in Atlanta, Georgia. It shall be deemed made and entered into in the State of Georgia. This License, all relations between the parties and, any and all disputes between the parties (and any of their respective affiliates, and/or owners, members, officers, directors or managers of each of the foregoing), whether based on contract, tort, statute or any other basis, shall be governed and construed under, and in accordance with, the laws and decisions (except any conflicts of law provisions) of the State of Georgia. In entering into this License, Licensee acknowledges that it has sought, voluntarily accepted and become associated with IHG, which is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia. Licensee hereby expressly and irrevocably submits itself to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division and the State and Superior Courts of DeKalb County, Georgia for the purpose of any and all disputes. Should Licensee initiate litigation against IHG, its parents, subsidiaries or one of its affiliated entities (a "Licensee Action"), Licensee must bring such Licensee Action in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division or the State and Superior Courts of DeKalb County, Georgia, which shall be the sole and exclusive forums for any Licensee Action whether based on contract, tort, statute or any other basis; provided, however, the foregoing will not constitute a waiver of any of Licensee's rights under any applicable franchise law of the state in which the Hotel is located. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IHG shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief in the federal or state courts either of Georgia or of the state of the Hotel's Location or of IHG's principal place of business.

(2) No Jury Trials. TO THE EXTENT EITHER IHG OR LICENSEE INITIATES LITIGATION RELATING TO THIS LICENSE OR ANY MATTER RELATING TO THEIR RELATIONSHIP, IHG AND LICENSEE IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE THEIR RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY. THIS WAIVER WILL APPLY TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION THAT ARE OR MIGHT BE INCLUDED IN SUCH ACTION, INCLUDING CLAIMS RELATED TO THE ENFORCEMENT OR INTERPRETATION OF THIS LICENSE, ALLEGATIONS OF STATE OR FEDERAL STATUTORY VIOLATIONS, FRAUD, MISREPRESENTATION, OR SIMILAR CAUSES OF ACTION, AND IN CONNECTION WITH ANY LEGAL ACTION INITIATED FOR THE RECOVERY OF DAMAGES BY EITHER PARTY.

(3) No Punitive Damages. IHG AND LICENSEE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT TO OR CLAIM FOR ANY PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL OR OTHER SIMILAR DAMAGES IN ANY LITIGATION, ACTION, CLAIM, SUIT, ARBITRATION, MEDIATION OR PROCEEDING, AT LAW OR EQUITY, ARISING OUT OF, PERTAINING TO OR IN ANY WAY ASSOCIATED WITH THIS LICENSE, OR ANY OTHER DOCUMENTS ENTERED INTO IN CONNECTION WITH THIS LICENSE, AND THE PARTIES COVENANT NEVER TO ADVANCE OR PURSUE ANY SUCH CLAIM FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE, ONLY ACTUAL DAMAGES SHALL BE SOUGHT AS RELIEF TO THE EXCLUSION OF ALL OTHERS.

(4) IHG's Right to Injunctive Relief. Licensee explicitly affirms and recognizes the unique value and secondary meaning attached to the Brand System and the Marks. Accordingly, Licensee agrees that any noncompliance by it with the terms of this License, or any unauthorized or improper use of the Brand System or the Marks by Licensee, will cause irreparable damage to IHG. Licensee therefore agrees that if Licensee engages in this non-compliance, or unauthorized and/or improper use of the Brand System or Marks, during or after the period of this License, IHG will be entitled to both temporary and permanent injunctive relief against Licensee from any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to all other remedies which IHG may have at law. Licensee consents to the entry of these temporary and permanent injunctions, without IHG being required to prove the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy, without being required to post a bond and without waiving any other rights or remedies at law or in equity.

(5) Licensee's Procurement of Consents. Licensee represents and warrants that it has secured from each of its affiliates and the owners, members, partners, officers, directors or managers of Licensee and its affiliates who do not execute this License, his/her/its express consent and irrevocable confirmation of the provisions under this License, including, without limitation, this paragraph 13.B.

C. Exclusive Benefit.

This License is exclusively for the benefit of the parties hereto, and it may not give rise to liability to a third party. No agreement between IHG and anyone else is for the benefit of Licensee.

D. Entire Agreement.

This agreement and all exhibits to this agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties related to the Hotel and supersede all previous negotiations between the parties pertaining to the licensing of the Hotel as a Brand System hotel. Nothing in this License or in any related agreement is intended, however, to disclaim any representations IHG made in the franchise disclosure document that IHG provided to Licensee. No change in this License will be valid unless in writing signed by both parties. No failure to require strict performance or to exercise any right or remedy hereunder will constitute a waiver of any rights hereunder or preclude requiring strict performance or exercising any right or remedy in the future.

E. IHG Withholding Consent.

- (1) In no event may Licensee make any claim for money damages based on any claim or assertion that IHG has unreasonably withheld, delayed and/or denied any consent or approval under this License. Licensee waives any such claim for damages. Licensee may not claim any such damages by way of setoff, counterclaim or defense. Licensee's sole remedy for such a claim will be an action or proceeding to enforce the subject License provision(s) for specific performance or for declaratory judgment.
- (2) IHG's consent, whenever required, may be withheld if any breach by Licensee exists under this License, without regard for any other basis for withholding such consent. Approvals and consents by IHG will not be effective unless evidenced by a writing duly executed on behalf of IHG.

F. Guarantor(s).

IHG shall require certain individuals or other entities (the "Guarantors") to guarantee all of Licensee's duties, requirements and obligations under this License, both financial and nonfinancial, by executing a guarantee substantially in the form attached hereto (the "Guaranty"). In the event of the death or bankruptcy of any Guarantor, IHG may require replacement guarantees sufficient in IHG's reasonable discretion to provide IHG with the same protection as IHG had originally bargained for. If Licensee is in breach or default under this License, IHG may proceed directly against each such individual and/or business entity Guarantor without first proceeding against Licensee and without proceeding against or naming in the action or proceeding any other such Guarantor. Licensee's obligations and those of each such Guarantor will be joint and several. Notice to or demand upon one such Guarantor will be considered notice to or demand upon Licensee and all such Guarantors. No notice or demand need be made to or upon all such Guarantors. The cessation of or release from liability of Licensee or any such Guarantor will not relieve Licensee or any other Guarantor, as applicable, from liability under this License, except to the extent that the breach or default has been remedied or money owed has been paid.

G. Notices.

Notices will be effective hereunder when and only when they are in writing and delivered personally or mailed by Federal Express or comparable overnight or express delivery service or by certified mail to the appropriate party at its address (in the case of IHG, to the address stated in Item 7 of Attachment "A"; and in the case of Licensee, to the address stated in Item 8 of Attachment "A") or to such person and at such address as may subsequently be designated by Licensee or IHG to the other. IHG may provide Licensee with electronic delivery of routine information, invoices, Brand Standards and other Brand System requirements and programs. IHG and Licensee will cooperate with each other to adapt to new technologies that may be available for the transmission of such information.

H. Authority.

Licensee represents and warrants to IHG that the entities and persons signing this License on behalf of Licensee are duly authorized to do so and to bind Licensee to enter into and perform this License. Licensee further represents and warrants to IHG that Licensee and the entities and persons signing this License on behalf of Licensee have obtained all necessary approvals and that their execution, delivery and performance of this License will not violate, create a default under or breach any charter, bylaws, agreement or other contract, license, permit, order or decree to which they are a party or to which they are subject or to which the Hotel is subject. If Licensee has not already done so prior to the execution of this License, Licensee agrees to submit to IHG by the date specified by IHG all of the documents and information that IHG required or requested in the license application and in connection with the licensing process. Licensee acknowledges that its breach of the representations and warranties in this paragraph; its failure to comply with IHG's requirements for the submission of information and documents; or any omission or misrepresentation of any material fact in the information or documents submitted to IHG in connection with the license application and/or the licensing process will constitute a material breach of Licensee's obligations under this License.

I. General Release and Covenant Not to Sue.

Licensee and its respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns, hereby release, remise and forever discharge IHG and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns from any and all claims, whether known or unknown, of any kind or nature, absolute or contingent, if any there be, at law or in equity, from the beginning of time to, and including, the date of IHG's execution of this License, and Licensee and its respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns do hereby covenant and agree that they will not institute any suit or action at law or otherwise against IHG, directly or indirectly relating to any claim released hereby by Licensee; provided, however, that nothing contained in this release is intended to disclaim or require Licensee to waive reliance on any representation that IHG made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that it provided to Licensee. This release and covenant not to sue shall survive the termination of this License. Licensee shall take whatever steps are necessary or appropriate to carry out the terms of this release and covenant not to sue upon IHG's request.

J. Performance of the Work; Termination Prior to Authorization to Use Brand System.

Licensee agrees to perform the construction, upgrading and renovation work, including, without limitation, the purchase of furniture, fixtures and equipment set forth on Attachment "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference (the "Work"). Licensee acknowledges that its agreement to perform the Work is an essential element of the consideration relied upon by IHG in entering into the License and agrees that Licensee may be authorized, in IHG's sole judgment, to use the Brand System at the Hotel prior to completion of the Work, but only during such time as Licensee is actively meeting its performance obligations in full compliance with the requirements of Attachment "B" of this License. Licensee shall not commence its operation of the Brand System, or any part thereof, at the Hotel unless and until it receives IHG's written authorization to do so. Licensee's failure to perform the Work in accordance with IHG's requirements and specifications (including the progress, milestone, completion and other dates specified in Attachment "B" of this License) shall constitute a material breach of Licensee's obligations under this License.

In order to complete the Work and as needed for any periodic renovations throughout the Term, Licensee will retain a qualified architect and interior designers and, based on the nature of the project, IHG may require that Licensee retain other specialty consultants. Licensee must obtain IHG's prior written consent before retaining or engaging any architect, interior designer for the Hotel, interior designer for any food and beverage outlet at the Hotel, and the project manager or general contractor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Such consultants shall be qualified to provide the services required for the Hotel project and maintain appropriate insurance coverages. IHG is not liable for the unsatisfactory performance of any such consultants or other persons retained by Licensee.

In the event IHG terminates this License due to Licensee's breach of any of its obligations under the License prior to the time that Licensee is authorized to use the Brand System at the Hotel, Licensee shall pay to IHG, as liquidated damages, a lump sum equal to the monthly average of all amounts that would have been payable to IHG under paragraphs 3.B.(3) through 3.B.(6) of this License assuming the Hotel had collected Gross Rooms Revenue based on the average daily revenue per available room for all "mature hotels" in the Brand System in the United States for the previous twelve (12) months, as determined by IHG, multiplied by the greater of (a) six (6) or (b) the number of full and partial months from the Effective Date to the termination date of this License. For purposes of this paragraph, "mature hotels" means hotels which were open for two full years or longer; were franchised or, alternatively, owned and/or managed by IHG or one of its affiliates; and, were not in financial or quality default of their applicable franchise or management agreement obligations as of the applicable date.

IHG and Licensee acknowledge and agree that it would be difficult to determine the injury caused to IHG by termination of this License. IHG and Licensee therefore intend and agree the above liquidated damages calculations to be a reasonable pre-estimate of IHG's probable loss and not as a penalty or in lieu of any other payment.

K. Reimbursement of Expenses.

Licensee agrees to pay IHG all expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, incurred by IHG, its parents, subsidiaries, affiliated entities, and their successors and assigns to remedy any defaults of or enforce or defend itself or any rights under this License (including without limitation any claim, cross-claim or counter-claim brought by Licensee), effect termination of this License or collect any amounts due under this License.

L. Business Judgment.

IHG and Licensee recognize and agree, and any mediator or judge is affirmatively advised, that certain provisions of this License describe the right of IHG to take (or refrain from taking) certain actions in the exercise of its business judgment as to the long-term overall interests of the Brand System, and/or upon its determination that the change was adopted in good faith and is consistent with the long-term overall interests of the Brand System. Where such judgment has been exercised by IHG, neither a mediator, nor a judge, nor any trier of fact, shall substitute his, her or their judgment for the judgment so exercised by IHG.

M. Descriptive Headings.

The descriptive headings in this License are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision in this License. The parties agree that when the terms “include” or “includes” are used in this License, those terms shall be understood to mean “including, but not limited to” in each instance.

N. Anti-Terrorism, Anti-Bribery and Trade Sanctions Compliance.

- (1) Licensee represents, warrants and covenants that neither it nor any entity or individual having a direct or indirect ownership interest in it, any guarantor of Licensee’s obligations under this License (“Guarantor”) nor any of Licensee’s affiliates nor any officer, director, employee, member, partner or shareholder of any of the foregoing, has been or is now:
 - (a) directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the government of any nation subject to trade sanctions or embargoes imposed by any of the Sanctioning Bodies (as defined below in sub-paragraph (4));
 - (b) acting on behalf of any government of any nation subject to the trade sanctions or embargoes imposed by any of the Sanctioning Bodies;
 - (c) identified by any of the Sanctioning Bodies as a Prohibited Person; and
 - (d) in violation of any applicable law relating to anti-money laundering, anti-terrorism, anti-bribery, trade sanctions or embargoes, narcotics, illegal immigration or human trafficking, including without limitation, the UK Bribery Act 2010, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the US Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (US Patriot Act) and related regulations and executive orders related to the foregoing laws (the “Relevant Laws”).
- (2) Licensee further warrants and represents and covenants that:
 - (a) Licensee, any Guarantor and any Person having a direct or indirect ownership in Licensee will comply with the Relevant Laws; and
 - (b) all individuals authorized to represent Licensee in carrying out its obligations under this License are eligible under applicable United States immigration laws to travel to the United States for training or any other purpose in carrying out Licensee’s obligations under this License.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph 13.N., “Person” means any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, estate, trust, unincorporated association, any national, provincial, state, county or municipal government or any bureau, office, department or agency thereof and any fiduciary acting in an agency capacity on behalf of any of the foregoing. “Prohibited Person” means any person identified by Her Majesty’s Treasury of the United Kingdom (“UK”), by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the Department of the Treasury of the United States (“US”) as a “specially designated national” or otherwise subject to sanction by the European Union (“EU”) and/or the United Nations (“UN”), (collectively, “Sanctioning Bodies”), or any other Person with whom IHG, or any of its affiliated companies, is otherwise prohibited from transacting business.

O. Capital Reserve; Capital Reinvestment and Renovation Cycles.

(1) IHG may require Licensee to establish a capital reserve (“Capital Reserve”) in an amount not in excess of 5% of Gross Revenue annually to be used for capital expenditures and the upgrading of the Hotel, including the renovation of public areas, guest rooms, guest room corridors, and the replacement of FF&E. IHG shall give Licensee no less than ninety (90) days’ notice of imposing such requirement to establish a Capital Reserve, as the same may be established or changed by IHG from time to time. In such event, Licensee must establish a Capital Reserve account funded monthly in a bank selected by Licensee. Licensee shall make expenditures from such account for the purposes hereinbefore specified in accordance with IHG’s requirements. Licensee acknowledges that the Capital Reserve may not be sufficient to maintain the Hotel as a first-class facility in accordance with the Standards, and Licensee shall promptly provide any necessary additional funds to meet IHG’s product quality and consumer quality requirements; as well as Licensee’s renovation obligations specified herein.

(2) Throughout the License Term, regardless of whether IHG has required Licensee to establish a Capital Reserve, Licensee must complete significant renovations of the Hotel, including, but not limited to, the public areas, guest rooms, and guest room corridors in order to maintain the Hotel as a first-class facility. These mandatory renovations include: (a) replacing Soft Goods at least every seven (7) years after such Soft Goods were installed and (b) replacing Case Goods at least every fourteen (14) years after such Case Goods were installed; and, if necessary replacing such Soft Goods and Case Goods more frequently in order to (i) maintain compliance with the Standards or IHG’s quality and guest satisfaction programs; (ii) remove risk of injury to persons or property; or (iii) ensure compliance with all applicable laws.

(3) Licensee must fund all ordinary and extraordinary maintenance and repair, capital improvements and renovations of the Hotel.

(4) For purposes of this paragraph 13.O. the following definitions apply:

- (a) “Gross Revenue” means all revenues and income of any nature derived directly or indirectly from the Hotel or from the use or operation thereof, including without limitation room sales; food and beverage sales; telephone, fax and internet revenues; rental or other payments from lessees, subleases, concessionaires and others occupying or using space or rendering services at the Hotel (but not the gross receipts of such lessees, subleases or concessionaires); and the actual cash proceeds of business interruption, use, occupancy or similar insurance.
- (b) “Soft Goods” means textile, fabric, vinyl and similar products used in finishing and decorating the Hotel, including its public areas, guest rooms, and guest room corridors, such as wall and floor coverings, window treatments, cornice or valance coverings, carpeting, bedspreads, lamps, lamp shades, artwork, decorative items, pictures, wall decorations, upholstery and all other unspecified items of the same class.
- (c) “Case Goods” means furniture and fixtures used in the Hotel, including its public areas, guest rooms, and guest room corridors, such as cabinets, shelves, chests, armoires, chairs, beds, headboards, desks, tables, mirrors, lighting fixtures and all other unspecified items of the same class.
- (d) “FF&E” means Case Goods, Soft Goods, signage, including exterior signage, and equipment (including telephone systems, printers, televisions, vending machines and computer hardware) as well as other improvements and personal property used in the operation of the Hotel except for those items which are generally classified as “operating supplies” or “operating equipment”.

(5) Licensee shall inform IHG of the dates of installation of Soft Goods and Case Goods in the Hotel, which dates IHG shall be entitled to verify.

(6) Licensee must submit its renovation plans for the Hotel to IHG for IHG's review and approval prior to starting any renovations. Licensee shall not start any renovations until IHG has approved the scope of the plans and the plans' compliance with the Standards.

(7) IHG shall have the right to require Licensee to make renovations to the Hotel to conform the Hotel's FF&E to the then-current Standards and brand design criteria.

P. No Waiver or Disclaimer by Licensee.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by Licensee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by IHG, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of IHG. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with this License.

Q. Counterparts.

This License may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original and all of which constitute one and the same instrument. IHG and Licensee hereby acknowledge and agree that electronic signatures, facsimile signatures or signatures transmitted by electronic mail in "pdf" format shall be legal and binding and shall have the same full force and effect as delivery of an original signed counterpart.

R. Right of First Refusal.

Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in this License, if Licensee receives an offer for, and wishes to sell the Hotel (including all or a portion of the Hotel, or the right, in any form other than a bona fide debt instrument, to receive income from the Hotel), Licensee shall give IHG written notice along with a complete copy of the offer ("ROFR Notice") within ten (10) days of its receipt and shall offer to sell the Hotel to IHG on the same terms and conditions as the offer; provided however, that if any portion of the consideration contemplated by the offer is in a form other than cash, Licensee shall agree to accept a cash payment of equivalent value, based on the market value of the non-cash consideration in Licensee's hands, in lieu of any non-cash consideration. IHG shall notify Licensee, within 30 days of its actual receipt of such notice, if it intends to accept Licensee's offer. Any acceptance of the offer by IHG shall be subject to compliance with any applicable laws and regulations which are a pre-condition to consummation of the transaction. IHG's acceptance may provide for preparation of a definitive agreement consistent with the offer and acceptance; however, such definitive agreement shall not be a condition precedent to an effective agreement between IHG and Licensee. If IHG has not given notice to Licensee that it intends to accept the offer, Licensee may proceed to sell the Hotel on the same terms and conditions contained in the offer notified to IHG without regard to this Right of First Refusal, but only if such sale is consummated within 150 days from the date of Licensee's notice to IHG. If such sale is not consummated within such 150-day period or if the terms of such sale differ materially from the terms and conditions presented in the ROFR Notice, then Licensee shall be required to deliver another ROFR Notice and again follow the process set forth above. In the event that IHG waives this Right of First Refusal in accordance with the terms set forth herein, then the sale of the Hotel to a purchaser other than IHG shall be subject to paragraph 9.H.

S. Management Company Requirement.

Notwithstanding Paragraph 9.J. of this License, the Hotel shall at all times be operated by a management company acceptable to IHG. IHG shall have the right to approve any proposed management company and to approve any contract with respect to the operation of the Hotel, and such management company's policies and procedures must comply with the Standards and the requirements of this License. The management of the Hotel by an acceptable management company must be continuous and uninterrupted during the term of the License. Licensee shall be in default under this paragraph if any of the preceding conditions are not met. Notwithstanding that the management company must be acceptable to IHG, Licensee acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for the selection, conduct and performance of the management of the Hotel and IHG has no responsibility or obligation in connection with such selection, conduct or performance. The management contract between Licensee and the management company must be acceptable to IHG and executed at least 180 days prior to the opening of the Hotel in the Brand System. If any approved management company stops operating the Hotel for the Licensee for any reason, Licensee must notify IHG immediately.

If there is a change in control of the management company or if the management company becomes a competitor of IHG (or an affiliate of a competitor) or a Prohibited Person (or an affiliate of a Prohibited Person), or if the management company becomes the principal operator for a competitor or if there is a material adverse change to the financial condition or operational capacity of the management company, Licensee will promptly notify IHG of any such event together with such additional information that IHG may reasonably request. Based on these changed circumstances, IHG may require Licensee to terminate its agreement with such management company and retain a replacement management company that will be subject to IHG's consent. After IHG receives such notice and any such additional information IHG reasonably requests, IHG will respond to Licensee within thirty (30) days. Furthermore, if Licensee's management company becomes unsuitable or unqualified to operate the Hotel as determined by IHG, in our sole discretion, or if the Hotel is not operated in compliance with IHG's guest satisfaction program, you may be required to retain a new Management Company that is acceptable to us within ninety (90) days.

7. Submit to IHG a pre-construction disability compliance certification signed by an architect with professional experience applying the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) and the ADA Standards, in the form of Attachment “C” (the “ADA Certificate”). Such certification must confirm the qualifications of the architect and that the Final Plans, as designed, comply with Title III of the ADA and any other applicable accessibility laws, ordinances or requirements.
8. Submit Preliminary Plans and Final Plans to IHG in Adobe Acrobat PDF format, in accordance with IHG’s electronic submittal guidelines, as outlined on www.ihgdesignconnect.com, along with hard copy samples for all finishes and fabrics.

Your design and construction team must attend a Design Immersion Session for training on the Brand System hallmarks, design philosophy and PIP/Plan Review process, before your architect and/or designer begins detailed construction and design plans. You must pay your travel, lodging and other miscellaneous expenses for these programs. You, your architect and general contractor must also attend a kick-off meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, or other locations that IHG may designate. There are no fees for the kick-off meeting; however you must pay for your travel, lodging and miscellaneous expenses.

Thereafter, no change shall be made to the Final Plans without the prior written consent of IHG. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the Final Plans have been approved, if in the course of actual construction any change in the Final Plans occurs, Licensee shall notify IHG promptly, and in no event later than ten (10) days after Licensee becomes aware of or should have been aware of any such change.

"Ground Break" means the completion of the Hotel building foundation through ground-level or the completion of the finished ground floor slab. Licensee must provide photo documentation of Ground Break to IHG within one day thereafter.
4. In addition, IHG Tech may immediately and without notice disconnect, disable, or otherwise prevent the use of Hardware and Software with the IHG Tech infrastructure if IHG Tech reasonably believes that a security incident related to such Hardware or Software, including an unauthorized disclosure of Guest Data, could occur, has occurred, or is occurring.

4. Modifications to Franchisee Environment. Franchisee will not operate its Hardware or Software, including making any modifications to its Hardware and Software, in any manner that may have a detrimental effect on Franchisee or IHG Tech operations. Such detrimental effects include rendering such Hardware or Software, or any IHG Tech Hardware or Software, inoperable or unresponsive, as determined by IHG Tech. In the event site preparation has not been completed to the reasonable satisfaction of IHG Tech in a timely manner, Franchisee will pay upon invoice from IHG Tech the amount of $2,600 (as such charge may be modified by IHG Tech from time to time). Proper site preparation is essential to the performance of the Hardware and no Hardware will be installed unless and until site preparation has been completed to the reasonable satisfaction of IHG Tech.

3. Installation. IHG Tech will notify Franchisee of the projected Hardware installation date and will schedule it to be installed at the Hotel. Any Software or Hardware installation delay caused by Franchisee will not affect Franchisee's obligation to pay any fees or amounts due under this Agreement. Franchisee will be responsible for the time and expenses of its employees, if any, required to assist in the installation of the Software or Hardware and additional expenses incurred by IHG Tech or Service Providers resulting from delays in installation caused by Franchisee or its employees or agents. Franchisee will pay the travel and related expenses of, and shall provide lodging and meals to, IHG Tech's and/or the Service Provider's personnel (or a reasonable per diem meal allowance). Franchisee will be responsible for the costs of any site preparation work that must be performed by IHG Tech or Service Providers, as well as the costs associated with the installation of any Hardware or Software not part of the Minimum Configuration. Franchisee will obtain, coordinate, and notify IHG Tech of the services of any external parties whose products or services Franchisee desires to connect to or interface with the reservation system or property management system, such as telephone switches, point-of-sale devices, and in-room movie or entertainment services. Delay by any communications company or any Hardware supplier in performing its obligations to IHG Tech will, for the duration of the delay, excuse any delay by IHG Tech with respect to these installation obligations.

4. Minimum Hardware Quantities. IHG reserves the right in its sole discretion to identify the number of each of the Hardware items required for operations at the Hotel.

5. WAN Installation Fee. Franchisee will pay the fee for the wide area network (WAN) installation according to IHG Tech's or a Service Provider's standard rates. Such fee will be payable upon the WAN installation.

Report of Independent Auditors

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of operations, of member's equity and of cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2023, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2023 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

On January 1, 2022, the Company entered into the eighth amended and restated master license agreement with Six Continents Hotels, Inc., formerly known as Bass Hotels & Resorts, Inc. The master license agreement (the “Agreement”) grants the Company the nonexclusive right to operate and license throughout the United States, Canada, and certain countries of the Caribbean systems designed to provide distinctive, high-quality lodging services to the public under Six Continents Hotels, Inc.’s brand names as described in Note 2 (the “Systems”). The Agreement has a constantly renewing 25-year term.

The Company acquired all nonexclusive rights granted under the original Agreement. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company pays 95% of all royalty and royalty-related fees received by the Company and 100% of all services contributions and other fees to Six Continents Hotels, Inc. All Company operating and administrative expenses are provided for by Six Continents Hotels, Inc. under the terms of the Agreement. In addition, pursuant to the Agreement, as amended, from January 1, 2022, the credit risk relating to royalty and royalty-related fees is attributable to Six Continents Hotels, Inc.

Basis of Presentation

The Company does not own or consolidate any other entity and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Six Continents Hotels, Inc. The Company's ultimate parent and controlling party is InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (IHG or the Parent). The financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows that might have occurred had the Company been a stand-alone entity not integrated into IHG's other operations.

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. All assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses in the accompanying financial statements have been derived from the separate records maintained by the Company with the exception of the allocation of certain expenses incurred by affiliated companies and the allocation of certain expenses from the Parent. Such allocations are not intended to represent the costs that would be or would have been incurred if the Company were a stand-alone operation.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include short-term, interest-bearing securities with original maturities of less than three months.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Allowance for Credit Losses

Accounts receivable arise from sales to a large number of customers. Accounts receivable are recorded at their original amount. Pursuant to the Agreement, from January 1, 2022, the allowance for any expected lifetime credit losses is attributable to the Company's parent and is not included in the Company's financial statements. As such, the balance of the allowance for expected credit losses at December 31, 2021 of $11,930,910 was released to the income statement in the year ended December 31, 2022.

Release for expected credit losses on January 1, 2022	(11,930,910)
Allowance for credit losses at December 31, 2022 and 2023	$ 0

Master License Agreement

The Company accounts for the Agreement in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 350-30, General Intangibles Other than Goodwill. In accordance with ASC 350-30-35-18, indefinite-lived intangible assets are reviewed annually for impairment. The Company has not recognized any impairment losses in respect of the Agreement for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer.

The Company disaggregates revenue from contracts with customers by type of agreement, being franchise royalty fees and OLCC fees, reflecting the differing nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of related revenue and cash flows. All fee revenue arises from a transfer to customers over time.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Franchise Royalty Fees

The Company's business comprises the franchising of hotels and resorts primarily under the following brands: Crowne Plaza, Holiday Inn, Holiday Inn Express, Staybridge Suites, Candlewood Suites, Hotel Indigo, EVEN Hotels, avid hotels, voco and Garner.

Under franchise agreements, the Company's performance obligation is to provide a license to use the Company's trademarks and other intellectual property. Franchise royalty fees are typically charged as a percentage of hotel gross rooms revenues and are treated as variable consideration, recognized as the underlying hotel revenues occur. Franchise royalty fees also include any liquidated damage settlements the Company receives from franchisees that terminate arrangements prior to expiration.

Application and re-licensing fees are not considered to be distinct from the franchise service and are recognized over the life of the related contract.

Under the Agreement, the Company is deemed to be acting as agent in the provision of these services and, as such, nets the license cost against revenue and reports a royalty fee equal to the 5% commission it earns through the Agreement.

The number of franchised hotels in operation during the year ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 is as follows:

	(Unaudited)
Franchised hotels at beginning of year	3,926	3,861	3,873
New franchises	87	93	146
Franchises removed	(39)	(28)	(158)
Franchised hotels at end of year	3,974	3,926	3,861

OLCC Fees

On September 10, 2008, the Company entered into a Master Development and Sales and Marketing Licensing Agreement with Orange Lake Country Club, Inc. (OLCC) and Global Access Exchange, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of OLCC, an unrelated party. Under that agreement and subsequent amendments, the Company licenses the Holiday Inn Club Vacation trademark to OLCC to allow the development of Holiday Inn-branded time-share resorts and the selling of time-share membership interests thereto under the Holiday Inn Club Vacation name. The agreement gives OLCC exclusive development rights for Holiday Inn-branded time-share resorts, subject to OLCC achieving certain development requirements. The current agreement, effective March 14, 2019, has a term of 100 years until December 31, 2118. Any time-share resort branded as a Holiday Inn Club Vacation time-share resort would be the subject of a separate site license agreement.

OLCC fees include a monthly payment by the time-share resorts equal to a percentage of the sales price for qualified time-share sales. In addition, OLCC fees include recurring monthly fees based on a percentage of gross rooms revenue for certain rooms used for transient reservations at the time-share resorts, subject to a minimum annual payment to the Company. OLCC fee revenue, being the 5% commission retained by the Company, is treated as variable consideration and recognized as the underlying time-share and room revenues occur. The Company recognized $1.6 million, $1.4 million and $1.2 million in fees from OLCC during the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Contract Assets

Amounts paid to hotel owners to secure franchise agreements (“key money”) are treated as consideration payable to a customer. A contract asset is recorded which is recognized as a deduction to franchise royalty fee revenue over the initial term of the agreement.

Typically, contract assets are not financial assets as they represent amounts paid at the beginning of a contract, and so are tested for impairment based upon future cash flows rather than with reference to expected credit losses. Contract assets are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. If the estimated undiscounted cash flows, before the payment of 95% royalty and royalty-related fees under the Agreement, are less than carrying value, an impairment loss is charged to the income statement based on the difference between the carrying value and the estimated fair value. Fair value is based on estimated discounted future cash flows. No impairment loss was recognized in any of the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 or 2021.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable approximates fair value due to the nature and short-term maturities of these instruments. These financial instruments are all non-interest bearing.

Due to the nature of the line of credit and the interest rate charged to its affiliate, the fair value of the instrument approximates its carrying value. Interest is accrued on the line of credit at the IRS applicable federal interest rate, compounded quarterly. There are no fees or related costs received in respect of the line of credit.

Income Taxes

The Company is not required to file a separate tax return as it is a limited liability company treated as a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes with all income tax liabilities and/or benefits of the Company being passed through to the members. The Company is included in the consolidated federal income tax return of InterContinental Hotels Group Operating Corp., its ultimate U.S. parent company. As such, no recognition of federal or state income taxes for the Company has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements.

3. Franchise Royalty Fees

The Company is deemed to be acting as an agent in the provision of services and, as such, nets the license cost against revenue and reports a franchise royalty fee equal to the 5% commission it earns through the Agreement (see Note 2).

In some instances the Company will pay, via an affiliate (see Note 4), amounts to hotel owners to secure franchise agreements. These assets are not subject to the Agreement, with 100% of the asset and revenue deduction being recorded within the Company. Franchise royalty revenue was reduced by $11.7 million, $9.8 million and $9.5 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

4. Related-Party Transactions

Six Continents Hotels, Inc. maintains certain marketing, reservation, and loyalty programs for the benefit of the Systems. Pursuant to the Master License Agreement, all Company assessments to franchisees relating to these programs are remitted to Six Continents Hotels, Inc. Such amounts are not reflected in franchise royalty fees (see Note 3). All amounts due to or from affiliates, other than a line of credit from an affiliate (see Note 5), are non-interest-bearing and have no stated maturity date.

Net payables to affiliates included in the balance sheets are $148.7 million and $85.0 million at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. These current amounts are of a working capital nature. Receivables from affiliates are considered to be fully recoverable on the basis of the Group's position (see Note 5).

During the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, contract assets, net of disposals, totaling $24.9 million, $33.0 million and $17.6 million, respectively, were paid for by an affiliated entity. An affiliated company has made commitments to pay key money on behalf of the Company.

Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC

5. Line of Credit Due from Affiliate

The line of credit facility is currently $1.0 billion with a maturity date of 31 March 2027 and accrues interest at the IRS applicable federal interest rate compounded monthly. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, $702.1 million and $599.2 million, respectively, remained receivable from Six Continents Hotels, Inc. These amounts include interest receivable. During the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, $27.8 million, $13.3 million and $0.9 million, respectively, were recognized as interest income on the line of credit. There have been no related fees and costs incurred on the line of credit in any of the years. On the maturity date, the entire outstanding principal balance, together with all accrued and unpaid interest, are due and payable in full.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc., is a wholly owned subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (“the Group”). The credit risk is judged to be low on the basis of the funds available within the Group, and its intention to make funds available to enable Six Continents Hotels, Inc. to meet its liabilities as they fall due for a period of at least 12 months from the date of issuance of these financial statements. The amount due on the line of credit is considered to be fully recoverable.

6. Financial Risk Management

The Group’s exposure to credit risk arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amount of each financial asset. Credit risk is minimized by operating a policy on the investment of surplus cash that generally restricts counterparties to those with a BBB- credit rating or better or those providing adequate security. The Group uses long-term credit ratings from S&P’s, Moody’s and Fitch Ratings as a basis for setting its counterparty limits.

Information on the Group’s treasury management policies, including information on covenants and debt facilities; processes for managing its capital; its financial risk management objectives; details of its financial instruments and hedging activities; and its exposures to liquidity risk and credit risk is also given in the Annual Report and Form 20-F 2023.

7. Commitments and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to certain claims and litigation, including unasserted claims. The Company, based on its current knowledge and discussions with its legal counsel, is of the opinion that such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position or results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

8. Subsequent Events

All subsequent events through March 28, 2024, the date these financial statements were available for issuance, have been evaluated.

Subsequent to the year-end, the Company entered into the ninth amended and restated master license agreement with Six Continents Hotels, Inc. The Agreement remains as described in Note 1, except for an amendment to the calculation of the licence fees payable by the Company. Pursuant to the Agreement, as amended, from January 1, 2024, the Company will deduct from the payment of royalty and royalty-related fees, 95% of all amortization of contract assets related to the Agreement which were previously recharged from Six Continents Hotels, Inc.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management of Six Continents Hotels, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Six Continents Hotels, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of net income, of comprehensive income, of changes in parent's investment and of cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2023, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the "consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2023 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Six Continents Hotels, Inc. (the “Company”) is a Delaware company and is a wholly owned subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (“IHG”) (the Parent) through InterContinental Hotels Limited (UK), Six Continents Limited (UK), Six Continents Hotels International Limited (UK), InterContinental (PB) 3 Limited (UK), InterContinental Hotels Group Operating Corp. (Delaware), IHC United States (Holdings) Corp. (Delaware), IHC Inter-Continental (Holdings) Corp. (Delaware), and Inter-Continental Hotels Corporation (Delaware), its immediate parent. The Company’s business comprises the ownership, leasing, managing and franchising of hotels and resorts primarily under the following brands: Crowne Plaza, Holiday Inn, Holiday Inn Express, Staybridge Suites, Candlewood Suites, Hotel Indigo, EVEN Hotels, Kimpton Hotels & Restaurants, InterContinental Hotels & Resorts, avid hotels, Atwell Suites, voco, Vignette and Garner. The Company also earns fees from a strategic partnership with Iberostar Hotels & Resorts. The Company’s principal assets are trademarks, franchise agreements, owned and leased hotels, management agreements, and equity-accounted investments. The InterContinental Hotels & Resorts brand is owned by the Company’s immediate parent, Inter-Continental Hotels Corporation (Delaware), which licenses the InterContinental Hotels & Resorts brand to one of the Company’s subsidiaries, Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC. The avid hotels, Atwell Suites, voco, Vignette and Garner brands are owned by Six Continents Limited, which licenses the brands to the Company. The Company in turn sub-licenses these brands to its subsidiary, Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC.

Basis of Presentation

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Parent. Accordingly, the Parent’s investment in the Company (Parent’s Investment on the consolidated balance sheets) is presented in lieu of stockholders’ equity. The financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows that might have occurred had the Company been a stand-alone entity not integrated into the Parent’s other operations.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (“U.S.”). All assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses in the accompanying consolidated financial statements have been derived from the separate records maintained by the Company except for the allocation of certain expenses incurred by affiliated companies (see Note 14). In certain cases, allocations do not represent the costs that would be or would have been incurred if the Company were a stand-alone operation.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned and majority owned subsidiaries which are controlled by the Company. Investments in companies and partnerships in which the Company has an ownership interest and exercises significant influence are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method of accounting, the Company’s investment is recorded at cost and adjusted by the Company’s share of profits and losses. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

An impairment loss is recognized in relation to investments accounted for under the equity method of accounting when it is determined that there has been an ‘other than temporary’ decline in the investment’s estimated fair value compared with its carrying value.

Parent’s Investment

The Company is formed as a Corporation, in which the Parent wholly-owns all ten shares outstanding. Certain intercompany balances with the Parent and subsidiaries of the Parent have been included in Parent’s Investment in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets (see Note 14). These balances are typically long-term in nature and interest-bearing. Receivables from and payables to affiliated companies that are considered to be of a working capital nature, including inter-region chargebacks, are shown in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as current assets (receivables from affiliates) and current liabilities (payables to affiliates). These working capital amounts are generally non-interest-bearing.

The Company holds a 41.0% interest in an affiliate, IHG International Partnership (“the Partnership”). The investment is an entity under common control within the group of entities wholly owned by the Parent (“the IHG Group”) and is included at cost within Parent’s Investment in the consolidated balance sheets since the Company’s initial investment did not result in a change in its net assets.

Variable Interest Entities

If an entity is determined to be a variable interest entity (“VIE”), it must be consolidated by the “primary beneficiary”, being the enterprise that has the power to direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact the entity’s economic performance, and the obligation to absorb losses of the entity that could potentially be significant to the VIE or the right to receive benefits from the entity that could potentially be significant to the VIE.

The Company’s evaluation as it relates to its various forms of arrangements focuses primarily on a review of the key terms of its equity investment agreements, management and franchise agreements to determine if any of these arrangements qualify as VIEs. In general, a VIE represents a structure used for business purposes that either does not have equity investors with voting rights, has investors with disproportionately few voting rights, or that has equity investors that do not provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support its activities.

The Company has evaluated the hotels in which it has a variable interest, generally in the form of investments, loans, guarantees, or equity. The Company determines if it is the primary beneficiary of the hotel by primarily considering qualitative factors; these include evaluating if the Company has the power to control the hotel and the obligation to absorb the losses and rights to receive the benefits that could potentially be significant to the entity. Variable interests generally exist when the Company has provided security deposits and/or performance guarantees to third party owners to secure management agreements. The Company has determined it is not the primary beneficiary of any entity in which it has a variable interest, with the exception of the Rabbi trust (see Deferred Compensation Plan Investments below), and therefore these entities are not consolidated in the Company’s financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to cash and subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash comprises funds segregated in separate accounts to satisfy insurance claims.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable arise from sales to a large number of customers. Accounts receivable are recorded at their original amount less an allowance for any expected lifetime credit losses. The lifetime credit losses are estimated by means of a provision matrix that is based on historical credit loss experience by region and number of days past due. For certain defined owner groups, for example those in financial distress, management may amend the historical credit loss period used to generate the credit loss percentage to better reflect the risk elements of that sub-category. Management also reviews relevant past events, current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts about the future in order to establish whether the loss rates implied by the provision matrix should be amended. In the normal course of business, the Company extends credit generally without requiring collateral.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment charges. Expenditures for replacements and major improvements are capitalized and depreciated.

Repair and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred. Land is not depreciated. Depreciation is recognized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets: buildings – 30 to 50 years, and furniture and equipment – 3 to 25 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of their estimated useful lives or the remaining lease term.

Sales of Real Estate

Sales of real estate are recorded when control of the asset transfers to the buyer, generally at the time the sale closes.

Recoverability of Property and Equipment

The Company evaluates property and equipment and other long-lived assets for recoverability when changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable; for example, when there are material adverse changes in projected revenues or expenses, significant underperformance relative to historical or projected operating results, and significant negative industry or economic trends. If indicators of impairment are present, estimated undiscounted future cash flows from related operations are compared with the current carrying values of the long-lived assets. If these assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds their fair value. Fair value is based on estimated discounted future cash flows.

Software

The Company capitalizes certain development costs associated with internal-use software, in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 350, Internal-use software, including external direct costs of materials and services and payroll costs for employees devoting time to a specially identified software project. Costs incurred during the preliminary project stage, as well as costs for maintenance and training, are expensed as incurred.

Capitalized software, which is included in property and equipment, is amortized to expense on a straight-line basis generally over a period of three to ten years depending on the useful life of the related asset.

The Company annually evaluates its software for recoverability and reassesses the ongoing value of its technology platform.

Deferred Compensation Plan Investments

The Company provides certain compensation arrangements in the United States through a Rabbi trust. The Rabbi trust is considered a variable interest entity, which the Company consolidates because the Company is its primary beneficiary. The marketable securities held by the trust are recorded at market value in accordance with ASC 320, Investments in debt and equity securities, and as such, unrealized gains and losses are reported in other comprehensive income except for other than temporary movements which are recognized in the consolidated statements of net income. The fair value of investments quoted on exchanges is based on closing market prices for the last trading day of the year. Non-quoted investments are carried at cost. Unrealized gains (losses) of $18.8 million, $(40.6) million and $(1.3) million net of tax, were recorded in other comprehensive income for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

The related deferred compensation plan liability is recorded in accordance with ASC 710, Compensation. The obligation is adjusted to reflect changes in the fair value of the amount owed to the employee, with the corresponding charge (or credit) recorded within the consolidated statements of net income.

Leases

On inception of a contract, the Company assesses whether it contains a lease. A contract contains a lease when it conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Company classifies a lease as a finance lease if it meets certain criteria or as an operating lease when it does not.

Lease contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Company allocates payments in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices and applies the lease accounting model only to lease components.

Assets held under finance leases are capitalized at the inception of the lease within 'property and equipment', with a corresponding liability being recognized for the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, the present value of the minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between the reduction of the lease liability and interest in the consolidated statements of net income to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Assets held under finance leases are amortized over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset or the lease term.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

For assets held under operating leases, the right to use the asset and the obligation under the lease to make payments are recognized on the consolidated balance sheets as a right-of-use asset and a lease liability.

The right-of-use asset recognized at lease commencement includes the amount of lease liability recognized, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the asset's estimated useful life and the lease term. Right-of-use assets are also adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities and are subject to impairment testing.

Where there are indicators of impairment, the recoverability of the related asset is reviewed by comparing the estimated future undiscounted cash flows to the net carrying value of the asset. If the asset is considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value. Fair value is based on estimated discounted future cash flows.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including 'in-substance fixed' payments) and variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, less any lease incentives receivable. In-substance fixed payments are payments that may, in form, contain variability but that, in-substance, are unavoidable. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease term includes periods subject to extension options which the Company is reasonably certain to exercise and excludes the effect of early termination options where the Company is reasonably certain that it will not exercise the option. Minimum lease payments include the cost of a purchase option if the Company is reasonably certain it will purchase the underlying asset after the lease term.

After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for lease payments made. The carrying amount of lease liabilities is re-measured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term or a change in the lease payments as a result of a rent review or change in the relevant index or rate.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC)

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

For operating leases, lease expense related to fixed payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term within 'property and other taxes, insurance and leases' in the consolidated statements of net income.

Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognized as an expense in the period over which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

The Company has opted not to apply the lease accounting model to leases which have a term of less than twelve months. Costs associated with these leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Sub-leases of the Company's assets are classified as operating leases when the risks and rewards of ownership are not substantially transferred to the sub-lessee. Rental income arising is accounted for on a straight-line basis in the consolidated statements of net income.

When a sub-lease is classified as a sales-type lease, the Company's interest in the lease is derecognized and replaced by a net investment in the lease receivable. Any difference between those amounts is recognized in the consolidated statements of net income. The net investment in the lease is presented within 'net investment in subleases' on the consolidated balance sheets and is initially recognized at the present value of lease payments receivable under the sublease, which is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for lease payments received.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets with Indefinite Lives

Goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives (trademarks) are not amortized but are tested for impairment at least annually and whenever events or circumstances occur to indicate that these intangible assets may be impaired.

Goodwill is assessed using a quantitative test, with any goodwill impairment recorded at the amount by which the reporting unit's carrying value exceeds its fair value and not to exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit.

The Company has one reporting unit reflecting the level at which results are reviewed and the similarity (considered for both economic and other qualitative factors) between the underlying components.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC)

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

The Company evaluates the carrying value of intangible assets with indefinite lives for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount exceeds the fair value, an impairment loss is recognized in the consolidated statements of net income to the amount of the difference.

Intangible Assets with Finite Lives

The cost of acquiring management agreements as part of a business combination is capitalized and amortized on a straight-line basis over the period of the management agreement, including any extension periods at the Company's option.

The Company evaluates the carrying value of these assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. If the estimated undiscounted cash flows are less than carrying value, an impairment loss is charged to the consolidated statements of net income based on the difference between the carrying value and the estimated fair value. Fair value is based on estimated discounted future cash flows.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer.

Fee business revenue

Under franchise agreements, the Company's performance obligation is to provide a license to use the Company's trademarks and other intellectual property. Franchise royalty fees are typically charged as a percentage of hotel gross rooms revenues and are treated as variable consideration, recognized as the underlying hotel revenues occur. Where the Company licenses brands from affiliates it is acting as agent and the license cost is deducted from the related fee revenue.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Under management agreements, the Company's performance obligation is to provide hotel management services and a license to use the Company's trademarks and other intellectual property. Base and incentive management fees are typically charged. Base management fees are typically a percentage of total hotel revenues and incentive management fees are generally based on the hotel's profitability or cash flows. Both are treated as variable consideration. Like franchise fees, base management fees are recognized as the underlying hotel revenues occur. Incentive management fees are recognized over time when it is considered highly probable that the related performance criteria for each annual period will be met, provided there is no expectation of a subsequent reversal of the revenue.

Application and re-licensing fees are not considered to be distinct from the franchise performance obligation and are recognized over the life of the related contract.

The number of franchised hotels in operation during the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 is:

		(Unaudited)
Franchised hotels at beginning of year	4,160	4,063	4,079
New franchises	99	127	155
Franchises removed	(41)	(30)	(171)
Franchised hotels at end of year	4,218	4,160	4,063

Revenue from hotel operations

At its owned and leased hotels, the Company's performance obligation is to provide accommodation and other goods and services to guests. Revenue includes rooms revenue and food and beverage sales, which are recognized when the rooms are occupied and food and beverages are sold. Guest deposits received in advance of hotel stays are recorded as deferred revenue on the consolidated balance sheets. They are recognized as revenue along with any balancing payment from the guest when the associated stay occurs, or are returned to the customer in the event of a cancellation.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC)

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Other revenue

Franchise and management agreements also contain a promise to provide technology support and network services to hotels. A monthly technology fee, based on either gross rooms revenue or the number of rooms in the hotel, is charged and recognized over time as these services are delivered. Technology fee income is included in other revenue. Other revenue also includes license and service fee income from affiliates which are recognized over time.

System Fund and reimbursable revenues

System Fund and other co-brand revenues

The Company operates a System Fund (the “Fund”) to collect and administer cash assessments from hotel owners for specified purposes of use including marketing, reservations and the Group’s loyalty program, IHG One Rewards. The Fund also benefits from proceeds from the sale of loyalty points under third-party co-branding arrangements. The Fund is not managed to generate a surplus or deficit for the Company over the longer term, but is managed for the benefit of the IHG System (hotels/rooms operating under franchise and management agreements together with IHG owned, leased and managed hotels/rooms, globally) with the objective of driving revenues for the hotels in the IHG System.

The growth in the loyalty program, IHG One Rewards, means that, although assessments are received from hotels up front when a member earns points, more revenue is deferred each year than is recognized in the Fund. This can lead to accounting losses in the Fund each year as the deferred revenue balance grows. During 2023 the Company recognized $554.0 million of revenues previously deferred as of December 31, 2022.

Under both franchise and management agreements, the Company is required to provide marketing and reservations services, as well as other centrally managed programs. These services are provided by the Fund and are funded by assessment fees. Costs are incurred and allocated to the Fund in accordance with the principles agreed with the IHG Owners Association (which represents the interests of more than 4,000 hotel owners and operators worldwide). The Company acts as principal in the provision of the services as the related expenses primarily comprise payroll and marketing expenses under contracts entered into by the Company. The assessment fees from hotel owners are generally levied as a percentage of hotel revenues and are recognized as those hotel revenues occur.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC)

Certain travel agency commission revenues within the Fund are recognized on a net basis, where it has been determined that the Company is acting as agent.

In respect of IHG One Rewards, the performance obligations are to arrange for the provision of future benefits to members on consumption of previously earned reward points and Milestone Rewards. Points are exchanged for reward nights at an IHG hotel or other goods or services provided by third parties. Milestone Rewards comprise points or other benefits such as upgrades and food and beverage vouchers.

Under its franchise and management agreements, the Company receives assessment fees based on total qualifying hotel revenue from IHG One Rewards members' hotel stays.

The Company's performance obligation is not satisfied in full until the member has consumed the relevant benefits. Accordingly, loyalty assessments are allocated between points and Milestone Rewards and deferred in an amount that reflects the stand-alone selling price of the future benefit to the member. Revenue is impacted by a "breakage" estimate of the benefits that will never be consumed. On an annual basis, the Company engages an external actuary who uses statistical formulae to assist in the estimate of the number of points that will never be consumed, which is adjusted to reflect actual experience up to the reporting date.

As materially all of the awards will be either consumed at IHG managed or franchised hotels owned by third parties, or exchanged for awards provided by third parties, the Company is deemed to be acting as agent on consumption and therefore recognizes the related revenue net of the cost of reimbursing the hotel or third party that is providing the benefit.

Performance obligations under the Company's co-brand credit card agreements comprise:

- a) arranging for the provision of future benefits to members who have earned points or free night certificates;
- b) marketing services; and
- c) providing the co-brand partner with the right to access the loyalty program.

Revenue from a) and b) are reported within 'System Fund and reimbursable revenues' and revenue from c) is recorded within 'fee business' revenue.

Fees from these agreements comprise fixed amounts normally payable at the beginning of the contract, and variable amounts paid on a monthly basis. Variable amounts are typically based on the number of points and free night certificates issued to members and the marketing services performed by the Company. Total fees are allocated to the performance obligations based on their estimated stand-alone selling prices. Revenue allocated to marketing and licensing obligations is recognized on a monthly basis as the obligations are satisfied. Revenue relating to points and free night certificates is recognized when the member has consumed the points or certificates at a participating hotel or has selected a reward from a third party, net of the cost of reimbursing the hotel or third party that is providing the benefit.

Judgment is required in estimating the stand-alone selling prices which are based upon generally accepted valuation methodologies regarding the value of the license provided and the number of points and certificates expected to be issued. However, the value of revenue recognized and the deferred revenue balance at the end of the year is not materially sensitive to changes in these assumptions.

Reimbursable revenues

In a managed property, the Company acts as employer of the general manager and other employees at the hotel and is entitled to reimbursement of these costs. The performance obligation is satisfied over time as the employees perform their duties, consistent with when reimbursement is received. Reimbursements for these services are shown as revenue with an equal matching employee cost, with no profit impact. Certain other costs relating to both managed and franchised hotels are also contractually reimbursable to the Company and, where the Company is deemed to be acting as principal in the provision of the related services, the revenue and cost are shown on a gross basis.

With effect from 2023, revenues and expenses from the System Fund are presented together with reimbursable revenue and expenses in the consolidated statements of net income for clarity of presentation, consistency with industry practice and to reflect the fact that neither of these are reported to IHG's Chief Operating Decision Maker and do not generate a profit or loss for the Company over the longer term.

Contract assets

Amounts paid to hotel owners to secure management and franchise agreements ('key money') are treated as consideration payable to a customer. A contract asset is recorded which is recognized as a deduction to fee business revenue over the initial term of the agreement. These assets are presented as 'Contract assets' in the consolidated balance sheets. In respect of key money, $84.4 million has been paid to owners and $18.6 million recognized in revenue during the year.

In limited cases, the Company may provide performance guarantees to third-party hotel owners. The expected value of payments under performance guarantees reduces the overall transaction price and is recognized as a deduction to revenue over the term of the agreement. Performance guarantee assets of $6.8 million and $6.9 million are included in contract assets on the consolidated balance sheets at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Typically, contract assets are not financial assets as they represent amounts paid by the Company at the beginning of a contract, and so are tested for impairment based upon estimated future cash flows rather than with reference to expected credit losses. Contract assets are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. If the estimated undiscounted cash flows are less than carrying value, an impairment loss is charged to the consolidated statements of net income based on the difference between the carrying value and the estimated fair value. Fair value is based on estimated discounted future cash flows.

Contract costs

Certain costs incurred to secure management and franchise agreements, typically developer commissions, are capitalized and are amortized over the initial term of the related contract. These costs are presented as 'Contract costs' in the consolidated balance sheets.

Contract costs are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable with reference to the future expected cash flows from the contract. If the estimated undiscounted cash flows are less than carrying value, an impairment loss is charged to the consolidated statements of net income based on the difference between the carrying value and the estimated fair value. Fair value is based on estimated discounted future cash flows.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred related to short term agreements. Payments made for long-term deals are recognized within 'prepaid and other current assets' on the consolidated balance sheets and spread over the term of the related agreement and benefit. The Company recognized advertising costs of $7.5 million, $8.5 million and $10.6 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively, within 'General and administrative expenses' on the consolidated statements of net income. Additional advertising costs of $329.9 million, $278.5 million and $72.3 million have been charged to the System Fund in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and are included in 'System Fund and reimbursable expenses' on the consolidated statements of net income.

Pension and Other Postretirement Benefits

Defined Benefit Plans

The determination of the Company's obligation and expense for pension and other postretirement benefits is dependent on the selection of certain actuarial assumptions, as described in Note 10.

The Company defers actual results that differ from its assumptions and amortizes the difference over future periods. Therefore, the differences generally affect the recognized expense, recorded obligation and funding requirements in future periods.

Defined Contribution Plans

Expenses for defined contribution plans are charged to operating expenses as payments become due.

1. Description of the Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Income Taxes

The Company records the amounts of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in its financial statements on its Parent's tax returns. Deferred income taxes are recorded based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect when these differences are expected to reverse. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in earnings in the period when the new tax rate is enacted. Interest and penalties are recognized on the 'interest expense – external' and 'other income (loss)' lines, respectively.

The Company reclassifies the amounts of taxes payable or refundable for the current year as non-shareholder capital contributions, which is shown as a component of the Parent's Investment.

The Company applies the provisions of ASC 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which prescribes criteria for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Benefits resulting from uncertain tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" threshold at the effective date are recognized, based on measurement as the largest benefit which has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being sustained upon examination by the tax authorities.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income is the change in Parent's Investment during the year that results from transactions with parties other than the Parent. Other comprehensive income (comprehensive income less net income) includes the effects of foreign currency translation, pension liability adjustments, and unrealized gains and losses on equity securities held in the Rabbi trust. The Company's comprehensive income is presented on the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The aggregate fair value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivables, and accounts payable as of December 31, 2023, approximates their carrying value due to their relatively short-term nature. Deferred compensation plan investments are recorded at market value as described on page 13 above.

Foreign Currency Translation

Balance sheet accounts are translated at the exchange rates in effect at each year end and income and expense accounts are translated at the weighted-average rates of exchange prevailing during the year.

The functional currency of entities operating outside of the U.S. is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the respective entity operates, unless it is considered a highly inflationary economy in which case the functional currency of that entity is U.S. dollars. Gains and losses from foreign exchange and the effect of exchange rate changes on intercompany transactions of a long-term investment nature are generally included in other comprehensive income. Gains and losses from foreign exchange rate changes related to intercompany receivables and payables of a working capital nature are reported separately on the consolidated statements of net income and amount to a net loss of $3.9 million, $3.1 million and $2.1 million in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Legal Contingencies

The Company is subject to various legal proceedings and claims, the outcomes of which are subject to many uncertainties inherent in litigation. A loss contingency is accrued by way of a charge to income if it is probable that an asset has been impaired or a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss /can be reasonably estimated. Disclosure of a contingency is required if there is at least a reasonable possibility that a loss has been incurred. The Company evaluates, among other factors, the degree of probability of an unfavorable outcome and the ability to make a reasonable estimate of the amount of the loss. Changes in these factors could materially impact the Company's financial position or its results of operations or cash flows.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Impact of Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

Adopted Accounting Standards

In 2019, the FASB revised the goodwill impairment testing guidance through its issuance of ASU 2017-04 to simplify impairment testing by eliminating the previous two step impairment process. Entities are required to apply a one-step quantitative test and record the amount of impairment as the excess of a reporting unit's carrying amount over its fair value. This guidance does not amend the optional qualitative assessment of goodwill impairment and the disclosure is effective for financial years beginning after December 15, 2022. There has been no effect on the consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of net income or financial statement disclosures.

Future Adoption of Accounting Standards

In March 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-01, Leases (Topic 842): Common Control Arrangements. This standard prioritizes monitoring and assisting stakeholders with the implementation of Topic 842 through its Post-Implementation Review (PIR) process, effective for financial years beginning after December 15, 2023. There are not expected to be any changes to the consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of net income or financial statement disclosures in future years.

8. Share-Based Compensation

Certain employees of the Company participate in share-based compensation arrangements that are granted by the Parent and result in the award of the Parent's stock. As the Parent is a UK-based company whose stock is traded in pounds sterling, some of the disclosures that follow are provided in pence. References to the "Board," "Executive Directors," and the "Remuneration Committee" relate to those of the Parent.

For awards that are classified as equity awards, the cost is recognized from the grant date over the requisite service period.

In 2023, the new Deferred Award Plan rules ("DAP") replaced the IHG Annual Performance Plan ("APP") and Long Term Incentive Plan ("LTIP") as a simplified, combined set of plan rules which govern the Company's discretionary incentive plans.

Awards granted under the DAP can consist of Deferred Annual Incentive ("DAI"), Long-Term Incentive ("LTI"), Restricted Stock Unit ("RSU") and other ad hoc awards.

The DAP rules were approved at the IHG Annual General Meeting on May 5, 2023, with all LTI and RSU awards granted after this date and DAI awards granted in respect of 2024 and future APP years being subject to the rules of the DAP. All previously granted awards will still be subject to the LTIP and APP rules respectively. In the transition to the DAP, there have been no changes to accounting for the awards.

Annual Performance / Deferred Annual Incentive Awards

Eligible employees (including Executive Directors) may receive all or part of their bonus in the form of deferred shares and/or receive one-off awards of shares. Deferred shares in relation to annual performance-related bonus plans are released on the third anniversary of the award date. Awards are conditional on the participants remaining in the employment of a participating company or leaving for a qualifying reason. The grant of deferred shares under the APP/DAP is at the discretion of the Remuneration Committee.

The number of shares is calculated by dividing a specific percentage of the participant's annual performance-related bonus award by the average of the middle market quoted prices on the three consecutive business days following the announcement of the IHG Group's results for the relevant financial year. A number of the Company's executives participated in the APP during 2023 and conditional rights over 125,496 (120,397 in 2022 and 48,081 in 2021) shares were awarded to participants. In 2023 this number included 52,109 (48,555 in 2022 and 48,081 in 2021) shares awarded as part of recruitment terms or for one-off individual performance-related awards.

Long Term Incentive Plan and Restricted Stock Units

Executive Directors and eligible employees may receive conditional share awards, which normally have a vesting period of three years, subject to continued employment. In addition, certain LTI awards made to Executive Directors of IHG are normally subject to a further two-year holding period after vesting.

LTI awards are subject to performance-based vesting conditions set by the IHG Remuneration Committee, which are normally measured over the vesting period.

Awards are normally made annually and, except in exceptional circumstances, will not exceed 3.5 or 5 times salary for eligible employees under the LTIP or DAP rules respectively. During 2023, conditional rights over 563,515 (588,479 in 2022 and 400,718 in 2021) shares were awarded to employees of the Company under the plan, comprising 132,546 performance-related awards (139,803 in 2022 and 116,034 in 2021) and 430,969 restricted stock units (448,676 in 2022 and 284,684 in 2021).

Colleague Share Plan

The Colleague Share Plan gives eligible corporate employees the opportunity to purchase shares up to an annual limit. After the end of the plan year, the participant will be awarded the right to receive one matching share for every purchased share (subject to continued employment). If the participant holds the purchased shares until the second anniversary of the end of the plan year, the conditional right to matching shares vests. The total fair value of the Colleague Share Plan is not significant.

Compensation Disclosures

The Company recognized share-based compensation expense of $32.2 million, $24.8 million and $22.2 million in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively. The expense relates to employees who have contracted employment with the Company. Defined Contribution Plans

The Company maintains a defined contribution savings plan. Under the plan, participating employees who have completed six months of service may elect to make pretax contributions to the plan from 1.0% up to 75.0% of their eligible earnings. Defined Benefit Plans

During 2018, the Company completed a termination of the US funded Inter-Continental Hotels Pension Plan (the Plan), which involved certain qualifying members receiving lump-sum cash-out payments of $20 million with the remaining pension obligations subject to a buy-out by Banner Life Insurance Company (Banner), a subsidiary of Legal and General America.

The Company continues to maintain the unfunded Inter-Continental Hotels Non-qualified Pension Plans and unfunded Inter-Continental Hotels Corporation Postretirement Medical, Dental, Vision and Death Benefit Plan, both of which are defined benefit plans. Both plans are closed to new members. A Retirement Committee, comprising senior Company employees and assisted by professional advisors as and when required, has responsibility for oversight of the plans.

The pension costs for the defined benefit plans are (in thousands):

10. Employee Benefit Plans (continued)

The major assumptions used in computing the benefit obligations were:

	2023	2022	2021	2023	2022	2021
Discount rate	4.7%	4.9%	2.4%	4.7%	4.9%	2.4%
Expected long-term rate of earnings increases	n/a	3.5%	3.5%	n/a	4.0%	4.0%

The assumed discount rates were determined by reference to published long-term bond indices at a maturity appropriate to the anticipated timing of expected benefit payments.

Mortality is the most significant demographic assumption. The current assumptions are based on rates from the Pri-2012 Mortality Study and Generationally Projected with Scale MP-[2021] mortality tables.

The assumed health care cost trend rates for medical and dental plans for 2023, 2022 and 2021 are:

Health care cost trend rate assumed for next year:
Pre 65 (ultimate rate reached in 2031)	7.8%	6.9%	6.2%
Post 65 (ultimate rate reached 2031)	8.6%	7.3%	6.5%
Ultimate rate that the cost rate trends to	4.5%	4.5%	4.5%

A one-percentage point increase in assumed health care costs trend rate would increase the accumulated post-employment benefit obligation as of December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, by $0.8 million, $0.8 million and $1.3 million, respectively.

A one-percentage point decrease in assumed health care costs trend rate would decrease the accumulated post-employment benefit obligations as of December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 by $0.8 million, $0.8 million and $1.2 million, respectively.

The change in service and interest cost components of net post-employment cost from such an increase/decrease would be less than $0.05 million in all years presented.

Settlement agreement

As part of an agreed settlement of a commercial dispute in relation to 111 East 48th Street, during the year ended December 31, 2022 the IHG Member was allocated expenses in excess of its actual percentage share which directly reduced its current interest in 111 East 48th Street. This resulted in $60.0 million of additional expenses being allocated to the IHG Member during 2022 (of which $41.2 million was allocated to IHG Management), with a current tax benefit of $15.3 million (of which $10.5 million was allocated to IHG Management) and, applying equity accounting to this additional share of expenses, reduced the IHG Member's investment to $0. In addition, a liability of $18.0 million was recognized by the IHG Member, of which $12.4 million was recognized by IHG Management and was included in 'other payables' on the consolidated balance sheet at December 31, 2022. The value of the liability is linked to the value of the hotel; increases in property value are attributed first to the IHG Member and are reflected as a reduction of the liability until it is reduced to $0. In 2023, the increase in fair value of the hotel (according to pricing opinions provided by a professional external valuer) resulted in a full reversal of the liability.

13. Income Taxes

The Company is not required to file a separate tax return but is included in the consolidated federal income tax return of InterContinental Hotels Group Operating Corp. (“IHGOP”), its ultimate U.S. parent company. The Company’s income tax provision and related tax asset and liability accounts are computed as if the Company filed a separate income tax return. The Company does not record inside basis differences on unconsolidated equity investments for C Corporations and instead evaluates the need to book the outside basis difference.

Under an intercompany agreement dated March 31, 2014, it was agreed that the Company's current income tax provisions as computed for these consolidated financial statements would be treated as non-shareholder capital contributions and shown as a component of the Parent's Investment. In accordance with the agreement, the Company’s current year income tax provisions of $251.0 million, $184.4 million and $136.7 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively, have been recorded as non-shareholder capital contributions within Parent's Investment. These amounts are disclosed as 'Capital contributions related to income tax provisions' in the consolidated statement of changes in Parent's Investment for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021.

Federal income tax returns filed by the tax-paying parent of the Company are open for examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years 2020 through 2022. The Company’s state income tax returns are open for examination by various state taxing authorities for years 2014 through 2022.

The Company accounts for taxes on Global Intangible Low-Taxed Income (“GILTI”) as period costs within provision for income taxes on the consolidated statements of net income.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of the Company’s deferred tax liabilities as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 are differences in book and tax bases of certain tangible and intangible assets, including trademarks and management agreements, together with deferred gains, pensions, deferred compensation plans, outside basis differences in investments and foreign tax credits. The net change during the year in the total valuation allowance is $4.6 million related to foreign tax credits.

The Company's effective tax rate of 23.58 percent differs from the U.S. Federal Income Tax rate of 21 percent due to taxes imposed by various state and foreign jurisdictions, credits for taxes paid to foreign jurisdictions, valuation allowance on foreign tax credits, permanent tax adjustments, including FDII deduction and System Fund, deferred tax liability adjustments, and changes in uncertain tax positions.

The Company operates, manages, and franchises hotels in a significant number of countries and consequently, a wide range of matters of interpretation of tax law arise in the normal course of business. Although reliance is placed on generally available interpretations in these countries, there is no certainty that the relevant tax authorities will agree with the Company's interpretation or that the Company's interpretation will be upheld. Consequently, it is possible that certain matters will be resolved adversely resulting in additional liabilities and cash tax settlements. The Company provides against all quantifiable tax exposures based upon best estimates and management's judgment in accordance with the requirements of ASC 740-10 concerning uncertain tax positions as described above.

13. Income Taxes (continued)

In addition to income taxes recognized in the consolidated statements of net income, in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, respectively, the Company recognized tax expense (income) of $7.1 million, $(12.6) million and $1.1 million in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company decreased its reserve for uncertain tax positions by $0.3 million, while during the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company decreased its reserve by $1.4 million and increased by $2.1 million respectively, for potential liabilities. The adjustment of these reserves affected the Company's effective tax rates by approximately 0.23%, 0.2% and 0.5% in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively. The Company does not expect any remaining uncertain tax positions will significantly increase or decrease within 12 months of the reporting date.

The Company has recorded $0 for interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in each of the three years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021.

The Company has recorded a deferred tax asset of $18.4 million related to foreign tax credit carryforwards, which expire in years 2029, 2032 and 2033. Realization is dependent on generating sufficient foreign source income while also not being limited by the foreign tax credit limitation prior to expiration of the credit carryforwards. The Company does not believe it is more likely than not that these deferred tax assets for foreign tax credit carryforwards will be fully realized in the future, therefore, a full valuation allowance is recorded. The deferred tax asset could be adjusted in the near term if estimates of future credit limitation changes during the carryforward periods.

In general, it is the Company's practice and intention to reinvest the earnings of its non-U.S. subsidiaries in those operations with the exception of certain subsidiaries under the Partnership. As of December 31, 2023, the Company estimates that it has an outside basis difference in non-U.S. subsidiaries of approximately $240.9 million, which includes the cumulative undistributed earnings of the Company's non-U.S. subsidiaries. The Company continues to be permanently reinvested in $18.2 million of the total outside basis difference and has recorded a deferred tax liability of $2.3 million associated with the non-permanently reinvested earnings.

13. Income Taxes (continued)

On August 16, 2022, the Inflation Reduction Act (“IRA”) was signed into law in the United States. Among other provisions, the IRA includes a 15% corporate minimum tax rate (“CAMT”) applied to certain large corporations but there would not be any additional tax at a consolidated level in 2023. A 1% excise tax on corporate stock repurchases made after December 31, 2022 was also enacted and the Company is waiting on further guidance to determine applicability.

14. Related-Party Transactions

Receivables from and payables to affiliated companies included in current assets and current liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets consist of the following at December 31, 2023 and 2022 (in thousands):

	2023	2022
Receivables from affiliates	$ 176,120	$ 206,768
Payables to affiliates	158,435	155,477

These current amounts are of a working capital nature and generally represent charge-backs between regions that are non-interest-bearing.

Other long-term receivables from and payables to affiliated companies which are generally interest-bearing are netted and included as an offset in Parent’s Investment in the consolidated balance sheets. Interest is paid on the balances with affiliates as due under the note agreements.

Interest income related to receivables from affiliates of $325.7 million, $193.8 million and $61.4 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively and interest expense related to payables to affiliates of $73.3 million, $52.6 million and $37.1 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively are presented on a net basis in the consolidated statements of net income.

As discussed in Note 8, certain employees of the Company participate in share-based compensation programs and are issued stock of IHG, the ultimate parent company of SCH, Inc.

This was superseded on January 1, 2019 by a one-year agreement with automatic one-year extension periods unless either party gives the other notice to terminate. The royalty payment under these agreements of $3.0 million, $2.8 million and $2.2 million was recognized as a deduction to fee business revenue in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

The Company recognized mark-up cost charged by affiliated companies of $16.2 million, $12.7 million and $10.7 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

As discussed in Note 13, amounts have been paid by IHGOP for the Company's current year income tax provisions of $251.0 million, $184.4 million and $136.7 million for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

14. Related-Party Transactions (continued)

These amounts are recorded in ‘receivables from and payables to affiliates’ within operating activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows . The ending balance in ‘payables to affiliates’ in the consolidated balance sheets is $0 as the amounts are then recorded as non-shareholder capital contributions.

15. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (an exit price). A three-tier fair value hierarchy is used to define the inputs used in measuring fair value. These tiers are: Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets; Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable; and Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions.

As of December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, the Company held certain assets and liabilities that are required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis. These are the defined benefit plans’ assets, preferred equity investments and the marketable securities and related liabilities of the Company’s Rabbi Trust.

16. Performance guarantees

From time to time, the Company will grant a performance guarantee to encourage property owners to enter into a management agreement. The Company has three outstanding guarantees at December 31, 2023 (four at December 31, 2022 and five at December 31, 2021), all provided by wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company.

Under these guarantees, amounts will become payable if performance hurdles, as defined in the relevant management agreements, are not met. The Company's maximum exposure under such guarantees was $13.1 million at December 31, 2023. Amounts will become payable if the performance hurdles are not met in future years.

17. Commitments and Contingencies

Loans

In limited cases, the Company may guarantee loans made to facilitate third-party ownership of hotels under franchise or management agreements with the Company. There were guarantees of $50.2 million and $49.7 million in place at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. The likelihood of a payment under any of the guarantees is currently considered to be not probable. The largest guarantee is $21.3 million at December 31, 2023 and 2022 and the underlying loan matures in 2029. Should the Company fund any amount under the guarantee, there is a cross-indemnity that the Company would seek to pursue for the other partners' share.

Litigation

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to certain claims and litigation, including unasserted claims. The Company, based on its current knowledge and discussions with its legal counsel, is of the opinion that such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position or results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

17. Commitments and Contingencies (continued)

2022 criminal unauthorized access to technology systems

On September 6, 2022, the Company announced that parts of the Group's technology systems had been subject to unauthorized activity causing disruption to IHG's booking channels and other applications. No evidence of unauthorized access to systems storing guest data was identified and precautionary regulatory notifications were filed and have been closed.

A class action has been filed, although alleged damages have not been specified. Given the uncertainty around the timing of the legal process and the quantum of any damages, it is not practicable to make a reliable estimate of the possible financial effect of any claims on the Company at this time.

The Company holds third-party insurance policies in respect of cyber risks. It is expected that any further payment of claims will be recoverable under insurance policies, subject to specific agreement with the insurance providers.

Other

The Company had outstanding letters of credit of $20.1 million and $17.1 million at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, mainly relating to self-insurance programs. The letters of credit do not have set expiry dates but are reviewed and amended as required.

In relation to external bank funding provided to 111 East 48th Street Holdings LLC (see Note 11), the Company has provided certain guarantees to the lenders as additional security for the loans. These guarantees include a guarantee of recourse obligations and an environmental indemnity. The guarantees are joint and several with the joint venture partner and re-allocated under a cross-indemnity such that any liability would be shared in accordance with the respective membership interests in 111 East 48th Street Holdings LLC.

In relation to a $40.0 mezzanine loan provided (see Note 11), if, as mezzanine lender, the Company forecloses on the borrower's ownership interests, the Company. (or a substitute) will need to provide a guarantee of completion, payment and recourse acts and have a specified net worth.

Six Continents Hotels, Inc.

17. Commitments and Contingencies (continued)

The Company has provided a guarantee in favor of InterContinental Hotels Corporation, an affiliated company, regarding the payment of an amount of $237.3 million owed by 111 East 48th Street Holdings LLC to InterContinental Hotels Corporation. There is a loan for the same amount from 111 East 48th Street Holdings LLC to another affiliate and the two loans are offset in the Parent's consolidated financial statements. As a result, no credit losses have been recorded related to this guarantee at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

In addition to the above, there are two other active guarantees which contain covenants. The company does not expect to breach any of these covenants.

18. Concentrations

The Company is required to disclose significant concentrations of its business consistent with the provisions of ASC 275, Risks and Uncertainties. The Company earned 39.2%, 38.1% and 42.5% of its management fee revenues from its five largest hotel owner group customers in the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

During the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, the Company recognized revenues from foreign operations in the amounts of $71.1 million, $54.5 million and $56.9 million, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, this represented 5.6%, 4.7% and 6.0%, respectively, of total revenues generated, excluding System Fund and reimbursables.

From time to time the Company has bank balances in excess of Federally Insured Deposit Limitations. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

19. Subsequent Events

All subsequent events through March 28, 2024, the date these financial statements were available for issuance, have been evaluated.

In the event of a "Change of Control" (defined as a change in total or complete ownership of the Hotel and/or in an event when new partial or majority ownership of the Hotel, whether by merger, investment, or acquisition, results in involvement of another party to the License Agreement that places SCH in a disadvantage if the existing terms of this Agreement are maintained), SCH may elect to terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Client. In the event of such termination by SCH only Sections 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14 and 18 herein shall survive such termination.
4. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon providing ninety (90) days prior written notice to the other party.
5. If Client is participating with a third party intermediary (TPI) that is not certified by SCH, even if Client has obtained a waiver to participate with said non-certified TPI, this agreement shall be terminated upon notice to Client.

If the default is not cured within thirty (30) days of the mailing of a termination notice, this Agreement will terminate. Provided, however, that if the non-monetary default at issue is not reasonably susceptible of being cured within such thirty (30) days, such thirty (30) day period shall be extended as reasonably necessary to allow the defaulting party to effect a cure, but in no event longer than a grace period of an additional thirty (30) days. If the defaulting party fails to cure its default within any applicable cure or grace period, the non-defaulting party may terminate this Agreement.

12. Complete Agreement.

This agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the matters covered herein. No other agreements, representations, warranties or other matters, oral or written, purportedly agreed to or represented by or on behalf of SCH by any of its employees or agents, or contained in any sales materials or brochures, shall be deemed to bind the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. Client acknowledges that it is entering into this Agreement solely on the basis of the representations contained herein.

13. Applicable Law.

19. Exclusivity.

SCH may provide similar services to other hotel owners. Client does not have an exclusive right to receive the Services from SCH.

20. Litigation Costs.

Background

- A. Client is the owner of the hotel known as the _____, located at _____ (Address) (the "Hotel"), and has the authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of the owner of the Hotel.
- B. Client operates the Hotel as a _____ brand hotel pursuant to the terms and conditions of a license agreement with an affiliate of SCH.
- C. SCH operates an Americas Region Revenue Management Department and Field Marketing Department, located at Three Ravinia Drive, Suite 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30346 ("Departments"), and has offered to have the Departments provide certain revenue management and field marketing services with respect to the Hotel subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Such services are hereinafter referred to as "Services." Client wishes to accept and participate in such Services with respect to the Hotel.

1. Services.

- 1.1. SCH agrees to perform for client the revenue management and field marketing services ("Services") listed in each order incorporated and attached hereto (each, an "Order"), and consistent with the terms of this Agreement, including the following:

- 1.1.1. Revenue Management: With respect to the revenue management services, Client understands and agrees that recommendations by the IHG Commercial Services team member/Revenue Manager may result in modifications to rates, inventory, yielding and content strategies in IHG Concerto. These recommendations will be discussed with Client's hotel managers, and on the instructions of the General Manager, Principal Correspondent, or other designated staff member, the IHG Revenue Manager will execute all changes in IHG Concerto systems within an agreed time frame. Therefore, active participation from hotel management is required in order to maximize the benefit of the IHG Premium Commercial Services. Client agrees that SCH shall have ready access to Client's staff and resources as necessary to perform SCH's Services provided for by this Agreement.

As with all our programs, regardless of any changes the IHG Commercial Services team member may make to hotel's rates, inventory, or similar settings, Client retains complete control over, and responsibility for, Client's hotel's rates, inventory and commercial performance, and may at any time override any changes made by the IHG Commercial Services team members. Client is also responsible and retain control over its group business, and participating in this program does not change the fact that Client is responsible for the hotel's success, financially and otherwise.

To participate in Premium Commercial Services, all hotels are required to be active participants in IHG Ignite and remain active for the duration of their agreement. Should hotel opt out of IHG Ignite, hotel will no longer be eligible to participate in the Premium Commercial Services.

1.1.2. Field Marketing: With respect to the field marketing services included as part of the Services contemplated herein, and as more specifically set forth in the Order, Client understands and agrees that recommendations by the Field Marketing Department may include suggested modifications to content on or within IHG's content management system, marketing recommendations, and consultation and implementation of digital marketing services on the Hotel's behalf. These recommendations will be discussed with the Hotel team, and where agreed by the Agent specified below, the Field Marketing Department will execute agreed changes in IHG's systems (or otherwise, as applicable) within an agreed time frame. Active Hotel participation is required in order to maximize the benefit of field marketing. Client agrees that SCH shall have ready access to Client's staff and resources as necessary for SCH to perform its services as required by this Agreement. Regardless of any changes the Field Marketing Department may suggest or make to the Hotel's content, Client retains complete control over, and responsibility for, the Hotel's content and marketing, and may at any time override any changes the Field Marketing Department makes.

2. Rate of Payment for Services.

Client agrees to pay SCH for Services in accordance with the applicable Order, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. At any time and for any reason it deems necessary, SCH may modify the pricing and such modifications shall become effective upon ninety (90) days' notice to Client.

3. Invoicing.

Client shall pay the amounts agreed in each Order upon receipt of invoices which shall be sent by SCH, and Client shall pay the amount of such invoices to SCH consistent with the timing requirements set forth in the applicable Order. Any fees or other amounts due under this Agreement not received by SCH on or before such invoice is due shall bear interest at the rate of one and a half percent (1.5%) per month, calculated on a daily basis, or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is lower, until paid in full.

4. Confidential Information.

Neither party hereto shall disclose to any non-party to the Agreement any confidential information of such other party, except that SCH shall have the right to disclose relevant Client information as necessary to perform the Services or where required pursuant to a subpoena, court order or other applicable law. Confidential information is information which relates to the other party's research, development, trade secrets, marketing plans, or business affairs, but does not include information which is generally known or easily ascertainable by non-parties.

5. Staff, Use and Hours of Operation.

Client is hereby contracting with SCH for the Services described above in Section 1 and in each attached Order, and SCH reserves the right to determine the method, manner and means by which the Services will be performed. The Services shall be performed by SCH or SCH's staff, and Client shall not be required to hire, supervise or pay any assistants to help SCH perform the Services under this Agreement.

SCH shall not be required to devote SCH's full time nor the full time of SCH's staff to the performance of the Services required hereunder, and it is acknowledged that SCH has other Clients within the SCH family of brands. The order or sequence in which the Services are to be performed shall be under the sole control of SCH. Except to the extent that SCH's Services must be performed on or with Client's computers or Client's existing software, and except to the extent specified in an Order, all materials used in providing the Services shall be provided by SCH.

Each of the parties hereto agrees that, while performing Services under this Agreement, and for a period of three (3) months following the termination of this Agreement, neither party will, except with the other party's written approval, solicit or offer employment to the other party's employees or staff engaged in any efforts under this Agreement.

SCH shall keep the Departments staffed and open for business during normal business hours in the U.S. Eastern time zone, excluding holidays.

6. Term of Agreement.

If the default is not cured within thirty (30) days of the mailing of a termination notice, this Agreement will terminate. Provided, however, that if the non-monetary default at issue is not reasonably susceptible of being cured within such thirty (30) days, such thirty (30) day period shall be extended as reasonably necessary to allow the defaulting party to effect a cure, but in no event longer than a grace period of an additional thirty (30) days. If the defaulting party fails to cure its default within any applicable cure or grace period, the non-defaulting party may terminate this Agreement.

10. Taxes.

Any and all taxes, except income taxes of SCH, imposed or assessed by reason of this contract or its performance, including but not limited to sales or use taxes, shall be paid by Client. Client and SCH specifically agree that SCH is not an employee of Client. In the event foreign, federal, state or local taxes are assessed on the Services and SCH has paid for such taxes, Client shall promptly reimburse SCH for all such taxes except for those taxes based on the income of SCH, SCH employees, or personnel provided by SCH pursuant to this Agreement.

11. Liability.

SCH warrants to Client that the analysis, data, and services to be delivered or rendered hereunder, will be of the kind and quality described in each Order and will be performed by qualified personnel.

12. Complete Agreement.

This Agreement, together with the applicable Order in each case, contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the matters covered herein. No other agreements, representations, warranties or other matters, oral or written, purportedly agreed to or represented by or on behalf of SCH by any of its employees or agents, or contained in any sales materials or brochures, shall be deemed to bind the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. Client acknowledges that it is entering into this Agreement solely on the basis of the representations contained herein.

Client shall not assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement or any of its interest in this Agreement without the prior written consent of SCH. Except for the prohibition on assignment contained in the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefits of the heirs, successors and assigns of the parties hereto.

18. Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement is declared to be illegal or unenforceable in a judicial proceeding, such provision shall be severed from this Agreement and shall be inoperative, and the remainder of the Agreement shall remain operative and binding on the Parties to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

19. No Exclusivity.

SCH may provide similar services to other hotel owners. Client does not have an exclusive right to receive the Services from SCH.

20. Litigation Costs.

EXHIBIT A-1 FOUNTAIN PROGRAM TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. AVAILABILITY

1.1 Company Fountain Beverages

The Hotels that serve Fountain Beverages will serve a core brand set of Company Fountain Beverages that consists of Coca-Cola®, Diet Coke®, Sprite® and Coke Zero™, and the remaining Company Fountain Beverages will be selected by Customer, subject to Company's approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. All Fountain Beverages served in the Hotels must be Company Fountain Beverages, except for the Fountain Beverage Permitted Exception. In addition, no Hotel may dedicate any valve on a Dispenser leased from Company to dispense tap water. For the avoidance of doubt, each Hotel shall be able to serve water on one valve per Dispenser through a Subtab Mechanism. Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to make a line of Company Fountain Syrups that is as broad as possible (based on local geography) available to each Hotel in order to allow Customer to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

1.2 Permitted Exception

Hotels in the State of Texas, subject to the Fair Share provisions described in Section 7 of this Exhibit A-1, may serve Dr Pepper®, but only on one valve per Dispenser per Hotel (the "Fountain Beverage Permitted Exception").

2. PRICING

During the Term, each Hotel will have the right to purchase Company Fountain Syrups from Company at Company's then-current published chain account prices, which prices are subject to change from time to time.

3. FOUNTAIN BEVERAGE PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Customer agrees comply with all of the following performance criteria:

- i. As applicable, include approved renditions of Company brands, trademarks and/or logos on menus and merchandise at point of order at each Hotel.
- ii. Beginning in calendar year 2021, and each Year of the Term thereafter, execute a minimum of two (2) promotional programs featuring Company Fountain Beverages as agreed upon by the parties.
- iii. Provide regular access to Company Beverage sales data.
- iv. Perform those additional Company Fountain Beverage marketing activities as directed by IHG.

4. EQUIPMENT PROGRAM

Where permitted by law, Company will lease to Customer without any additional charge during the Term the Dispensers owned by Company as follows: (i) for Hotels existing as of the Agreement Effective Date, the Dispensers that are currently installed, without extending the equipment lease term length of any such currently installed Dispensers, and (ii) for each Hotel that becomes a Hotel during the Term, the Dispensers reasonably necessary to enable such Hotel to dispense a quality Fountain Beverage. With respect to new and/or acquired hotels that become Hotels during the Term, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties, Dispensers will be placed in such new or acquired Hotel only if such Hotel is forecast to purchase a minimum of 400 gallons of Company's Fountain Syrups per Year. Customer will use commercially reasonable efforts to assist in the conversion of any Hotels purchasing less than 400 gallons of Company's Fountain Syrups per Year to a Bottle/Can Program as described in Exhibit A-3. No ice makers or water filters will be provided to any Hotel under this Agreement. Equipment innovations that require a separate agreement (such as Coca-Cola Freestyle) will also not be provided without a separate agreement. No Hotel will alter or add to any Dispenser provided by Company without Company's prior written consent.

In any state where a lease without any additional charge is not permitted (e.g., in Wisconsin) or Customer elects to lease additional Dispensers, such Dispensers will be leased to Customer at an annual lease rate calculated by multiplying the total installed cost of the additional Dispensers by the then-current lease factor. The lease factor currently in effect for Dispensers is 0.24. Should the lease factor change during the Term, any Dispenser installed after the change goes into effect will be subject to the new lease factor. For the avoidance of doubt, if the ownership and/or management of a Hotel changes, the then-current lease factor will remain in effect for that Hotel. Charges will be invoiced. Any unpaid invoices will be handled as follows (the "Unpaid Invoice Procedure"): All unpaid invoices by a Hotel will be subject to Company's payment/credit terms and conditions applicable to such Hotel. Furthermore, Company may refuse to deliver further any Company Beverages to the affected Hotel until the unpaid invoice is satisfied.

All Dispensers provided by Company will at all times remain the property of Company and are subject to the terms and conditions of the Lease except as specifically changed by the Program Terms and Conditions or the Standard Terms and Conditions of this Agreement.

At a minimum, equipment provided pursuant to this Exhibit A-1 shall include, at no cost to Customer in a quantity reasonably necessary for each Hotel:

Fountain Equipment (except in portable bars)
New Lines (as needed)
Bar Guns

5. SERVICE PROGRAM

Company will provide at no charge routine mechanical repair including line replacements and flavor changes/additions that are reasonable and necessary for Dispensers. Hotels must utilize Company's service network for such service. Any Special Service Calls are not considered routine service and will not be provided free of charge. Charges for Special Service Calls or for routine mechanical repair calls will be charged at Company's then current rates. Such charges will be invoiced. Charges will include labor, travel time, parts, and administrative costs. Any unpaid invoices by a Hotel will be handled in accordance with the Unpaid Invoice Procedure set forth above.

Company will not be obligated to provide service when it is prevented from doing so due to strikes, civil disturbances, unavailability of parts or other causes beyond the reasonable control of Company. Company will not be liable for damages of any kind arising out of delays in rendering service for such reasons. In such cases, the Hotels will continue to comply with the Agreement, but only to the extent reasonably possible under the circumstances.

6. FAIR SHARE

If Customer desires to serve Dr Pepper as set forth above in the Permitted Exception, an additional annual fair share lease charge of $300 for each one of those valves will be incurred. Charges will be invoiced to each Hotel. Any unpaid invoices by a Hotel will be handled in accordance with the Unpaid Invoice Procedure set forth above.

1.3 Permitted Exceptions

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Hotels may serve the following Competitive Beverages that are Juice (the “Juice Beverage Permitted Exceptions”): (i) juice that is freshly-squeezed on the premises; (ii) Juice provided by Royal Cup at only those Hotels operated under the Holiday Inn Express tradename; and (iii) Competitive Juice Beverages that Company and Six Continents Hotels, Inc. mutually agree may be served in the Hotels. If any Juice Permitted Exception becomes a Product of PepsiCo at a later date, that Competitive Beverage will no longer be deemed a Juice Permitted Exception.

2. PRICING

Company agrees that during the Term, Customer will have the right to purchase Juice from Company at Company’s then-current published chain account prices, which prices are subject to change from time to time. Further, for Minute Maid Frozen Concentrate Juice (a/k/a “Frozen Dispensed”) (“MMFD”), Company agrees to provide certain deviated pricing, as set forth below.

2.1 MMFD List Price Deviation

For MMFD, the amount of deviation from list price is shown below and will be applied on each Physical Case of MMFD that each Hotel purchases. List prices as of the date of this Agreement are as noted below and may fluctuate.

4/90 oz. Minute Maid® Orange Juice 5+1	$129.77	$29.68
4/90 oz. Minute Maid® Apple Juice 6+1	$125.11	$22.11
4/90 oz. Minute Maid® Orange Guava Passionfruit 5+1	$94.72	$13.25
4/90 oz. Minute Maid® Lemonade 6+1	$67.38	$14.95

2.2 Simply Juice Pricing

For Simply Juice, the current pricing for 6/52 oz. PET (bottled) packaging is $24.15 per Physical Case. Simply Juice price is quoted "FOB Distributor." Notwithstanding that Simply Juice is quoted "FOB Distributor", Company acknowledges and agrees that it shall bear the incremental costs of redistribution necessary to deliver the product to distribution centers; estimated to be $2.60 per Physical Case throughout the term.

3. JUICE BEVERAGE PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

To qualify for the program set forth in this Exhibit A-2, Customer must comply with all of the following performance criteria:

- i. As applicable, include approved renditions of Company Juice brands, trademarks and/or logos on menus and merchandising materials in each Hotel.
- ii. Perform those additional Company Juice marketing activities the parties mutually agree upon.

4. EQUIPMENT PROGRAM

For MMFD, Company will lease to Customer without any additional charge during the Term, the Company approved equipment reasonably necessary to enable such Hotels to dispense a quality Juice Beverage. Customer agrees that the only Beverages served on Company's Juice equipment provided by Company will be TCCC Juice brands. No ice makers or water filters will be provided to any Hotel under this Agreement. Equipment innovations that require a separate agreement (such as Coca-Cola Freestyle) will also not be provided without a separate agreement. No Hotel will alter or add to any equipment provided by Company without Company's prior written consent.

If Customer elects to lease additional equipment, such equipment will be leased to Customer at an annual lease rate calculated by multiplying the total installed cost of the additional equipment by the then-current lease factor. The lease factor currently in effect for equipment is 0.24. Should the lease factor change during the Term, any equipment installed after the change goes into effect will be subject to the new lease factor. For the avoidance of doubt, if the ownership and/or management of a Hotel changes, the then-current lease factor will remain in effect for that Hotel. Lease charges, if any, will be invoiced. Any unpaid invoices by a Hotel will be handled in accordance with the Unpaid Invoice Procedure defined in Exhibit A-1, Section 5. All equipment provided by Company will at all times remain the property of Company and are subject to the terms and conditions of the Lease except as specifically changed by any of the Program Terms and Conditions or Standard Terms and Conditions of this Agreement.

At a minimum, equipment provided pursuant to this Exhibit A-2 shall include at no cost to Customer in a quantity reasonably necessary for each Hotel:

5. SERVICE PROGRAM

Customer may use Company's service network without any additional charge for all ordinary course mechanical repairs reasonably needed for Juice equipment provided by Company. Service in respect of Juice equipment will be on the terms and conditions set forth in Section 6.1 of Exhibit A-1 attached to this Agreement.

EXHIBIT A-3

1. AVAILABILITY

Each Hotel will make available a core brand set of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages, subject to availability from Bottler, that consists of Coca-Cola®, Diet Coke®, Sprite® and Coke Zero™, and the remaining Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages will be selected by Customer, subject to Company's approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. All Bottle/Can Beverages served in the Hotels will be Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages, except for the Bottle/Can Beverage Permitted Exceptions defined below. Company and Bottler will use their commercially reasonable efforts to make a line of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages that is as broad as possible (based on local market) available to each Hotel in order to allow Customer to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. At a minimum, the Beverages listed in Section 3 below must be available to Hotels at the pricing made available under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Hotels may serve the following Competitive Beverages in Bottle/Can Beverage form (the "Bottle Can/Beverage Permitted Exceptions"): (i) Pellegrino bottled water; (ii) Fred brand bottled water at Kimpton hotels only; (iii) bottled water sold in a glass bottle, provided it is not a Product of PepsiCo, (iv) water offered to hotel guests on a complimentary basis, provided such water is not a Product of PepsiCo; and (v) up to 10% of the space allocated to Bottle/Can Beverages in Customer-owned Beverage coolers or displays may feature Competitive Beverages, provided that such brands are (i) not Products of PepsiCo, (ii) are not Sparkling Beverages, and (iii) are not Juice Beverages, except for those Beverages that are local, niche brands for which Company does not provide a product offering and may contain juice as an ingredient. If any Bottle/Can Beverage Permitted Exception becomes a Product of PepsiCo at a later date, that Competitive Beverage will no longer be deemed a Bottle/Can Beverage Permitted Exception, unless that Customer has an agreement with such Competitive Beverage supplier, in which such Competitive Beverage will be considered a Permitted Exception until the expiration of such agreement. Customer acknowledges that all Bottle/Can Beverages displayed in Bottler-owned Cold Drink Equipment must be a Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages.

2. PRICING

Effective during the time period commencing thirty (30) days after the date this Agreement is fully signed or the first day of the Term, whichever is later, and ending December 31, 2025, Bottler will charge no more than the price ceilings for the Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages identified in the table below. Price ceilings for all subsequent Years beyond what is set forth in the chart below, if any, will automatically increase 3% over the previous Year's price ceilings.

All price ceilings (i) are per standard Physical Case and do not include taxes, deposits, handling fees and recycling fees and any other government imposed fees or costs (ii) only apply to those Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages available to the Hotels as of the first day of the Term and (iii) apply only to the 48 contiguous states of the continental United States (i.e., excludes Hawaii and Alaska) and the District of Columbia.

All price ceilings quoted above are based on standard Physical Cases; however, some of the Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages may be sold in different case configurations. No matter how the Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages are sold to Customer, they are translated to the standard Physical Case equivalent for purposes of determining compliance with the price ceilings and funding amounts as well as for sales and financial reporting. For example, if a Bottler Bottle/Can Beverage that is 12 bottles to a standard Physical Case is sold to the Customer in a 15-count case, then the on-invoice 15 bottle case price would have to be divided by 15 and multiplied by 12 in order to determine if the price is in compliance with the applicable price ceiling quoted above.

Company or Bottler may at any time increase price ceilings by more than the amounts set forth above in the event of any substantial increase in a component of the cost of goods, manufacture or delivery of the Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages. Company will notify Customer thirty (30) days in advance prior to the date any such unscheduled price ceiling increases takes effect.

3. OWNER INCENTIVE FUNDING PROGRAM

3.1 Owner Incentive Funding

Company will provide an Owner Incentive Fund in the amounts set forth in the table above for all purchases of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages directly from Company or Bottler. No funding will be paid on purchases of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages from other sellers, distributors or retailers. Customer agrees to accept the case sales records of Bottler for purposes of determining funding earned hereunder absent manifest error. Bottler may from time to time offer special prices that are Dead-Net. In any such event, funding provided hereunder will not cause the Dead-Net price charged to the Customer to fall below such Dead-Net price or trade letter Dead-Net price. Funding will be deducted from invoices submitted to Customer.

3.2 Performance Criteria

To qualify for the pricing and funding set forth above, Customer must comply with the following performance criteria and all other material obligations applicable to Customer under this Agreement:

- i. Beginning in calendar year 2021, participate in a minimum of one (1) mutually agreed upon promotional activity each Year to promote the sale of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages at the Hotels. Customer agrees not to unreasonably withhold its consent to Company's and Bottler's proposed promotional activities. Customer will use commercially reasonable efforts to conduct a promotion in Year One as well, but the parties acknowledge such a promotion may not be commercially reasonable.
- ii. Customer and Bottler will mutually agree upon the number, types, and locations of Cold Drink Equipment that are generally reasonably required for the exclusive display of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages in each applicable Hotel, depending upon the size and the brand of the hotel. Cold Drink Equipment, if provided, will be placed in mutually agreed to high traffic locations, as defined by agreement of the parties. The specific location of such equipment will be subject to the agreement of Bottler and Customer.
- iii. Customer may also authorize the placement of (or maintain, if already in place) a mutually agreed upon number of Venders in any or all Hotels, depending upon the size and the brand of the hotel. The specific location of such equipment will be subject to the agreement of Bottler and Customer. All Venders placed at the Hotels may be operated on a full-service basis and serviced and stocked exclusively by Bottler in accordance with Bottler's standard full-service vending program for similarly-situated locations under similar competitive conditions in the applicable geographic area, or Venders may be serviced and stocked by a third party approved by Bottler, subject to the provisions of this Agreement.
- iv. Abide by any standard system minimum delivery size requirements established by Bottler.
- v. Perform those additional Bottler Bottle/Can Beverage marketing activities the parties mutually agreed upon.

4. EQUIPMENT

Bottler will provide each Hotel the Cold Drink Equipment described above at no cost to Customer, except as prohibited by law, rule or regulation, in which case the rent charged will be the lowest legal rate available from the Bottler. All Cold Drink Equipment will be identified by Bottler Bottle/Can Beverage trademarks and will remain the property of Bottler. Except where prohibited by law, all Cold Drink Equipment will exclusively dispense Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages and no items of any kind other than Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages may be stored, displayed or sold in, on or through the Cold Drink Equipment. Use of the Cold Drink Equipment will be in accordance with each Bottler's standard Equipment Placement Terms, and Customer agrees to abide by such terms. To the extent that such standard placement terms are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement will control. Bottler will have the right to relocate or remove some or all of the Cold Drink Equipment from a Hotel if Bottler determines the volume of Bottler Bottle/Can Beverages sold through such equipment justifies relocation or removal. Electrical installation costs and utilities for the Cold Drink Equipment will be at the expense of Customer. Customer represents and warrants that electrical service at the Hotels is proper and adequate for the installation of the Cold Drink Equipment, and Customer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Company and Bottler from any damages arising out of defective electrical services at Hotels.

5. SERVICE

Service for all the Cold Drink Equipment will be provided in accordance with the Equipment Placement terms.

Each piece of Equipment is leased commencing on its installation date (the "Commencement Date"). Equipment Lessee may request the removal of any Equipment upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Company, and in addition, Company may remove any piece of Equipment for any reason upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Customer. Removal of Equipment will not affect the term of any agreement between the parties. If this Lease is terminated with respect to any piece of Equipment for any reason, other than Company removing a piece of Equipment without cause under this section, prior to 100 months from the Commencement Date for that piece of Equipment, Equipment Lessee will pay Company the actual cost of removal (including standard shipping and handling charges) and remanufacturing of that Equipment, as well as the unamortized portion of the costs of (i) installation, (ii) non-serialized parts (e.g., pumps, racks and regulators) and other ancillary equipment. Collectively, removal costs and items (i) and (ii) are referred to as "unbundling costs." The terms of this Lease will continue in effect with respect to each piece of Equipment until the Equipment has been removed from Equipment Lessee's premises and will survive the expiration or termination of any agreement into which this Lease is incorporated.

2. RENT FOR THE EQUIPMENT. All equipment leased to Customer will be leased at an annual rate calculated by multiplying the total installed cost of equipment by the then-current lease factor, plus all applicable sales and use taxes, if any, as rent for the Equipment. Rent will be due monthly. At Company's discretion, Company may utilize funds due Customer to offset amounts due Company under this Lease. If Customer fails to pay, within 10 days of its due date, rent or any other amount required by this Lease to be paid to Company, Customer will pay to Company a late charge equal to five percent (5%) per month of such overdue payment, or such lesser amount that Company is entitled to receive under any applicable law.

3. TITLE TO THE EQUIPMENT. Title to the Equipment is, and will at all times remain, vested in Company. Equipment Lessee will have no right, title, or interest in or to the Equipment, except the right to quiet use of the Equipment in the ordinary course of its business as provided in this Lease. All parts added to the Equipment through alterations, repairs, additions or improvements will constitute accessions to, and will be considered an item of the Equipment and title to such will immediately vest in Company. Equipment Lessee agrees that Company may transfer or assign all or any part of Company's right, title and interest in or to any Equipment (in whole or in part) and this Lease, and any amounts due or to become due, to any third party ("Assignee") for any reason. Upon receipt of written notice from Company of such assignment, Equipment Lessee will perform all its obligations with respect to any such Equipment for the benefit of the applicable Assignee, and, if so directed, will pay any amounts due or to become due hereunder directly to the applicable Assignee or to any other party designated in writing by such Assignee.

4. USE OF EQUIPMENT. Equipment Lessee acknowledges that the rent does not fully compensate Company for its expenses concerning its research and development efforts designed to improve fountain equipment or in providing the Equipment to Equipment Lessee, and that Company provides the Equipment to Equipment Lessee for the purpose of dispensing products of The Coca-Cola Company. Therefore, Equipment Lessee agrees that if the Equipment is a dispenser, then the Equipment will be used for the purpose of dispensing fountain beverage products of The Coca-Cola Company, such as Coca-Cola®, diet Coke® and Sprite®, and in the State of Texas, the Permitted Exception set forth in Section 2.2 of Exhibit A-1. Customer further agrees not to dispense any product whose pungency could affect normal operation of the Equipment. In accordance with Company's Fair Share policy, Company will have the right to additional rent and charges for its costs of servicing such valve if any valve is used for a Competitive Beverage in accordance with Section 2.2 of Exhibit A-1 at a rate of not less than $300 per Dispenser per year. or Juice is served that is a Product of PepsiCo. This Section 4 will not apply within the State of Wisconsin.

5. INSPECTION AND NOTIFICATION. Without disrupting Equipment Lessee's regular business operations, Company will have the right during Equipment Lessee's regular business hours to inspect the Equipment at Equipment Lessee's premises or wherever the Equipment may be located and to review all records that relate to the Equipment. Equipment Lessee will promptly notify Company of all details arising out of any change in location of the Equipment, any alleged encumbrances thereon or any accident allegedly resulting from the use or operation thereof.

6. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER: CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT COMPANY IS NOT A MANUFACTURER OF THE EQUIPMENT AND THAT COMPANY HAS MADE NO REPRESENTATIONS OF ANY NATURE WHATSOEVER PERTAINING TO THE EQUIPMENT OR ITS PERFORMANCE, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING (WITHOUT LIMITATION) ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR ANY OTHER WARRANTIES RELATING TO THE DESIGN, CONDITION, QUALITY, CAPACITY, MATERIAL OR WORKMANSHIP OF THE EQUIPMENT OR ITS PERFORMANCE, OR ANY WARRANTY AGAINST INTERFERENCE OR INFRINGEMENT, OR ANY WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO PATENT RIGHTS, IF ANY, PERTAINING TO THE EQUIPMENT. COMPANY WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, ANY DIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL LOSSES, OR DAMAGES OF ANY NATURE WHATSOEVER, RESULTING FROM THE DELIVERY, INSTALLATION, MAINTENANCE, OPERATIONS, SERVICE OR USE OF ANY EQUIPMENT OR OTHERWISE. TO THE EXTENT THAT WARRANTIES EXIST FROM THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE EQUIPMENT AND TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY CONTRACT AND LAW, COMPANY WILL MAKE AVAILABLE TO EQUIPMENT LESSEE ANY APPLICABLE MANUFACTURER'S WARRANTY.

7. TAXES. Company will process payment of all assessments, license fees, taxes (including sales, use, excise, personal property, ad valorem, stamp, documentary and other taxes) and all other governmental charges, fees, fines or penalties whatsoever, imposed on Company as required by law, on or relating to the Equipment or the use, registration, rental, shipment, transportation, delivery, or operation thereof, and on or relating to this Agreement. As between Company and Participating System Hotel, Participating System Hotel bears the financial responsibility for all such charges, and Company retains the right to be reimbursed by Participating System Hotel for such charges.

8. DAILY MAINTENANCE. PSH Owner will, at its expense, keep the Equipment in good condition, and working order. PSH Owner will pay all costs incurred in connection with the daily maintenance and operation, and where required by law, ownership or possession of the Equipment during the term of this Lease. PSH Owner's sole recourse against Company with respect to service provided by Company or its agents to the Equipment is that Company will correct any defective workmanship at no additional charge to Customer, provided that Company is given prompt notification of any defective workmanship. Company will not be otherwise liable for negligent acts or omissions committed in regard to maintenance or repair of the Equipment and assumes no responsibility for incidental, consequential or special damages occasioned by such negligent acts or omissions.

9. RISK OF LOSS. All risk of loss, including damage, theft or destruction, to each item of Equipment will be borne by Equipment Lessee. No such loss, damage, theft or destruction of Equipment, in whole or in part, will impair the obligations of Equipment Lessee under this Lease, all of which will continue in full force and effect.

10. INDEMNITY. Equipment Lessee will indemnify The Coca-Cola Company and its affiliates and each of their officers, agents, employees, directors, shareholders, affiliates, successors, and assigns (hereinafter the "Indemnified Parties") against, and hold Indemnified Parties wholly harmless from, any and all claims, actions, suits, proceedings, demands, damages, and liabilities of whatever nature, and all costs and expenses, including without limitation Indemnified Parties' reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, relating to or in any way arising out of (a) the ordering, delivery, rejection, installation, purchase, leasing, maintenance, possession, use, operation, control or disposition of the Equipment or any portion thereof; (b) any act or omission of Equipment Lessee, including but not limited to any loss or damage to or sustained by the Indemnified Parties arising out of Equipment Lessee's failure to comply with all the terms and conditions of this Lease; (c) any claims for liability in tort with respect to the Equipment, excepting only to the degree such claims are the result of the Indemnified Parties' negligent or willful acts. Company will indemnify Customer and the owner and operator of each Participating System Hotel and their respective affiliates and each of their respective officers, agents, employees, directors, shareholders, affiliates, successors, and assigns (hereinafter the "PSH Indemnified Parties") against, and hold PSH Indemnified Parties wholly harmless from, any and all claims, actions, suits, proceedings, demands, damages, and liabilities of whatever nature, and all costs and expenses, including without limitation PSH Indemnified Parties' reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, relating to or in any way arising out of (a) any act or omission of Company resulting in any loss or damage to or sustained by the PSH Indemnified Parties arising out of Company's failure to comply with all the terms and conditions of this Lease.

11. DEFAULT. The occurrence of any of the following will constitute a "Default" by Equipment Lessee: (a) nonpayment by Equipment Lessee when due of any amount due and payable under this Lease; (b) failure of Equipment Lessee to comply with any provision of this Lease, and failure of Equipment Lessee to remedy, cure, or remove such failure within twenty (20) days after receipt of written notice thereof from Company; (c) any statement, representation, or warranty of Equipment Lessee to Company in this Lease that is untrue as of the date made; (d) Equipment Lessee's becoming insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or Equipment Lessee making an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or any proceeding, whether voluntary or involuntary, being instituted by or against Equipment Lessee alleging that Equipment Lessee is insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature; (e) appointment of a receiver, liquidator, trustee, custodian or other similar official for any of the Equipment or for any property in which Equipment Lessee has an interest; (f) seizure of any of the Equipment; (g) default by Equipment Lessee under the terms of any note, document, agreement or instrument evidencing an obligation of Equipment Lessee to Company or to any affiliate of The Coca-Cola Company, whether now existing or hereafter arising; or (h) Equipment Lessee taking any action with respect to the liquidation, dissolution, winding up or otherwise discontinuing the conduct of its business.

12. REMEDIES. Upon the occurrence of any Default or at any time thereafter during the continuance thereof, Company may terminate this Lease as to any or all items of Equipment, may enter Equipment Lessee's premises and retake possession of the Equipment at Equipment Lessee's expense, and will have all other remedies at law or in equity for breach of the Lease. Equipment Lessee acknowledges that in the event of a breach of Sections 4 or 5 or a failure or refusal of Equipment Lessee to relinquish possession of the Equipment in breach of this section 12 following termination or Default, Company's damages may be difficult or impossible to ascertain, and Equipment Lessee therefore agrees that Company will have the right to seek an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction restraining said breach and granting Company the right to immediate possession of the Equipment.

13. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES. If Equipment Lessee acts in violation of the prohibitions described in Section 3 of this Lease, or is unable or unwilling to return the Equipment to Company in good working order, normal usage wear and tear excepted, at the expiration or termination of the Lease, Equipment Lessee will pay as liquidated damages the total of: (i) the amount of past-due lease payments, if any, discounted accelerated future lease payments, and the value of Company's residual interest in the Equipment, plus (ii) all tax indemnities associated with the Equipment to which Company would have been entitled if Equipment Lessee had fully performed this Lease, plus (iii) costs, interest, and attorneys' fees incurred by Company due to Equipment Lessee's violation of Section 3 or its failure to return the Equipment to Company, minus (iv) any proceeds or offset from the release or sale of the Equipment by Company.

15. OTHER TERMS. Equipment Lessee represents and warrants that it complies with all applicable laws and regulations and all appropriate practices with respect to food safety including the storing, preparation and serving of food. Furthermore, Equipment Lessee acknowledges and agrees to comply with all equipment manufactures specifications and product dispensing and preparation instructions and specifications. No failure by Company to exercise and no delay in exercising any of Company's rights hereunder will operate as a waiver thereof; nor will any single or partial exercise of any right hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other rights. This Lease constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes all prior oral and written agreements between the parties governing the subject matter of this Lease; provided, however, that if Company and Equipment Lessee have entered into an agreement into which this Lease is incorporated, to the extent that any of the terms in this Lease conflict with the terms set forth in that agreement, the terms of that agreement will control. No agreement will be effective to amend this Lease unless such agreement is in writing and signed by the party to be charged thereby. Any notices permitted or required by this Lease will be in writing and mailed by certified mail or hand delivered, addressed to the respective addresses of the parties. All claims, actions or suits arising out of the Lease will be litigated in courts in either the State of Georgia or in the state of Equipment Lessee's principal place of business. Each party hereby consents to the jurisdiction of any local, state or federal court located within the State of Georgia and/or the state of Equipment Lessee's principal place of business, and designates the Secretary of State of the State as its agent for service of process. THIS LEASE WILL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA. Time is of the essence to each and all of the provisions of this Lease.

ADDITIONAL TERMS

1. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Competitive Beverages may be served at individual events or functions at any Hotel if the party booking the event or function requires as a condition of booking the event that Competitive Beverages be served. In such case, Competitive Beverages may be made available only in connection with and during such event or function; provided, however, that: (i) such Competitive Beverages are sold or made available only within the area being used for the event or function, (ii) any advertisements for such Competitive Beverages at the relevant Hotel will be reasonable under the circumstances and generally de minimis in nature (preferably, only within the booked space) and will not suggest that such Competitive Beverages are associated in any manner with Customer or the Hotel. Either Customer or the party booking the event or function will be responsible for all expenses in any way related to the service of Competitive Beverages, including the provision of equipment, if necessary. Each Hotel shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the incidence of Competitive Beverage services.
2. The parties acknowledge that there may be current or future third party tenants that are unaffiliated with Customer renting or leasing space at any Hotel and that elect to serve Competitive Beverages or are required to do so due to a binding agreement with a Competitive Beverage supplier (or another third party that has the authority to determine Beverage selection at such tenant's area). Such tenants' leased areas shall be excluded from the scope of this Agreement. Therefore, it shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement for such tenant(s) to serve or make available Competitive Beverages; provided, however, that: (i) such Competitive Beverages are sold or made available only within such tenant's leased space, (ii) any advertisements for such Competitive Beverages at the relevant Hotel will be reasonable under the circumstances and generally de minimis in nature (preferably, only within such tenant's leased space) and will not suggest that such Competitive Beverages are associated in any manner with Customer or the Hotel.
3. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if any practice in effect as of the Term Effective Date at any hotel that becomes a Hotel on or after the Term Effective Date is at variance with any practice proscribed by this Agreement (e.g., dispensing tap water out of a valve on a Dispenser), except if a Hotel is serving a Competitive Beverage, or any Competitive Beverage on a Company-owned Dispenser, such practice shall be grandfathered and permitted under this Agreement until such time as any associated equipment is replaced in accordance with this Agreement.

1.2. PIM Compliance: Hotel shall be responsible for procuring and maintaining, at its sole cost, all hardware, software and data communication and connectivity required to connect to the FreedomPay system and services (the “FreedomPay Solution”). Delivery of PCI-Validated Point-to-Point Encryption Secure Switching is subject to Hotel's compliance with the FreedomPay P2PE Instruction Manual (the “PIM”) and Hotel's acknowledgement of such compliance in the form set forth on Exhibit 1 to Attachment 1 (PIM Acknowledgement) to this Attachment. In the event Hotel does not comply with any obligation under the PIM, IHG may, but shall not be obligated, to perform any such obligation or otherwise mitigate such non-compliance, in which event IHG may charge Hotel reasonable fees to compensate IHG for such mitigation, including, without limitation, charging the then current list price for the applicable IHG services. Further, a failure to comply with the PIM or the requirements of Section 3 below will result in the disallowance of the benefits to Hotel described in the PIM.

1.3. Third Party Services. FreedomPay makes no representations or warranties, express or implied, as to any third-party services that FreedomPay enables or provides, including but not limited to fraud protection, 3-D Secure, DCC, loyalty or discount programs and/or any other ancillary services enabled or provided by FreedomPay in the future.

1.4. Hotel Products and Services. Hotel understands that the services are designed and provided for the sole purpose of facilitating the sale of Hotel's products and services and that FreedomPay is not responsible for the quality or quantity or other aspects of Hotel's products and services or those of any third party not under FreedomPay's control.

1.5. PIN keys and KSNs. Hotel shall be responsible for procuring from its acquiring bank any necessary PIN keys and KSNs needed to allow pin-debit payment card Transactions.

For Transactions submitted or reported after such time limit, FreedomPay will attempt to settle such Transactions if the data is available, but FreedomPay will have no liability to Hotel if it is unable to settle such Transactions.

1.7. Updates. FreedomPay may implement a hosted update on the FreedomPay Solution at such time as it determines, and Hotel shall have the flexibility to commence implementing non-hosted updates according to the schedule of IHG, which implementation shall be commenced no later than twelve (12) months after notice from FreedomPay and completed no later than twenty-four (24) months after such notice, unless such non-hosted update is required by Law, network requirements or PCI requirements, or other applicable authority, in such case Hotel shall implement such non-hosted update in accordance with the date required in such Law or requirement. If Hotel fails to implement any non-hosted update when required as set forth in this Section, FreedomPay reserves the right to terminate operational support for the prior release (even if Hotel continues to rely on the prior release) and will not be deemed in breach for doing so. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by IHG in its reasonable discretion, a FreedomPay update shall not degrade the performance, functioning or operation of the FreedomPay Solution and shall not cause the performance, functioning or operation of the FreedomPay Solution to fail to meet the requirements of this Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any FreedomPay updates that are required by Law, network requirements, PCI requirements, acquirer requirements, or a change introduced by, any governmental authority, any regulatory body, a processor or card brand.

1.10. SKU Level Data. The FreedomPay Solution requires full SKU level data to be transmitted with each Transaction, and accordingly, Hotel must configure its eCommerce system to pass through full SKU level data with each Transaction. Failure to provide such full SKU level data will adversely affect FreedomPay's systems and may result in suspension of Hotel's access to the FreedomPay Solution, unless Hotel remedies such failure within thirty (30) days.

1.11. Production Data. PCI rules prohibit the use of production data (i.e., live PANs) in testing and/or development. Accordingly, to the extent applicable, Hotel shall not use any production data in testing or development.

2. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

2.1. DISCLAIMERS OF LIABILITY FOR CERTAIN ACTIONS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ACTIONS ARE TAKEN BY OR ON BEHALF OF HOTEL, OR HOTEL REQUESTS THAT FREEDOMPAY TAKE ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ACTIONS ON BEHALF OF HOTEL, CERTAIN NEGATIVE CONSEQUENCES WILL FOLLOW AND FREEDOMPAY'S LIABILITY WILL BE FURTHER LIMITED, ALL AS DESCRIBED BELOW:

2.1.1. OFFLINE MODE DISABLEMENT DISCLAIMER. IF OFFLINE MODE IS DISABLED, INTERNAL NETWORKING ISSUES IN HOTEL'S SYSTEMS WILL MAKE SUCH SYSTEMS UNABLE TO ACCEPT CREDIT CARD TRANSACTIONS. FURTHER, IF FREEDOMPAY'S GATEWAY IS OFF-LINE OR OTHERWISE UNAVAILABLE, HOTEL WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ACCEPT CREDIT CARD TRANSACTIONS AT ALL (I.E., IN OFF-LINE MODE). FREEDOMPAY IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR FREEDOMPAY'S SYSTEMS DOWNTIME RESULTING FROM OFFLINE MODE BEING DISABLED, OR FOR ISSUES THAT ARE CAUSED BY HOTEL'S INTERNAL NETWORK OR SYSTEMS, CAUSING SUCH SYSTEMS TO GO OFFLINE, AND FREEDOMPAY'S SERVICE LEVELS WILL BE DEEMED NOT IMPACTED IN ANY WAY BY SUCH DOWNTIME. FOR CLARITY, IF OFFLINE MODE IS DISABLED, HOTEL WILL NOT BE ELIGIBLE FOR ANY REFUNDS OF FEES, AND FREEDOMPAY'S WARRANTIES ARE VOIDED.

2.1.2. CVV DISABLEMENT DISCLAIMER IF PROMPTING FOR THE CARD VERIFICATION VALUE ("CVV") IS DISABLED (FOR MANUAL TRANSACTIONS ONLY), HOTEL ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY INTERCHANGE DOWNGRADES RESULTING FROM SUCH CVV DISABLEMENT, AND ANY LIABILITY FOR INCREASED INTERCHANGE CHARGES AND MERCHANT SERVICES CHARGES RESULTING FROM SUCH CVV DISABLEMENT ARE THE SOLE OBLIGATION OF HOTEL, AND FREEDOMPAY SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY TO HOTEL FOR SUCH CHARGES.

2.1.3. PIN KEY DISCLAIMER. IF EITHER (a) HOTEL IS UNABLE TO OBTAIN THE PROPER KSN FROM THEIR ACQUIRING BANKS FOR ITS PIN KEY OR (b) FREEDOMPAY'S KEY INJECTION VENDOR DOES NOT HAVE THAT PIN KEY WITHIN ITS SYSTEM AND IT CANNOT BE OBTAINED PRIOR TO IMPLEMENTATION, ANY CONSUMER WHO PRESENTS A CHIP AND PIN CARD WILL BE REQUIRED TO UTILIZE CHIP AND SIGNATURE INSTEAD. CHIP AND SIGNATURE AND CHIP AND PIN ARE KNOWN AS "CARD VERIFICATION METHODS," OR "CVMs." EACH ISSUED CREDIT CARD HAS A PREFERRED CVM. IF THAT PREFERRED CVM IS NOT USED, THAT SPECIFIC TRANSACTION FALLS UNDER THE EMV LIABILITY SHIFT, MEANING IF THAT CONSUMER DISPUTES THE TRANSACTION THEN HOTEL MAY BE LIABLE FOR FRAUD OR CHARGEBACKS, EVEN THOUGH IT WAS AN EMV TRANSACTION. FREEDOMPAY IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY FRAUD OR CHARGEBACKS TO HOTEL IF A PIN KEY IS BE AVAILABLE FOR HOTEL'S IMPLEMENTATION.

2.1.4. CVM DISABLEMENT DISCLAIMER. HOTEL HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT HAS BEEN INFORMED AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT ANY DISABLEMENT OF THE PREFERRED CVM

REQUIREMENTS FOR CHIP CARDS; OR OTHER SUPPRESSING OF PREFERRED CVM REQUIREMENTS, IS AT HOTEL'S SOLE RISK AND FREEDOMPAY SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY TO HOTEL OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR FRAUD CLAIMS OR CHARGEBACKS; A FRAUD CLAIM WILL RESULT IN A LOST CHARGEBACK TO HOTEL DESPITE THE IMPLEMENTATION OF EMV BY FREEDOMPAY IN HOTEL'S SYSTEM, AND THAT AS SUCH, HOTEL ASSUMES ALL RISK THAT DISABLING PREFERRED CVM REQUIREMENTS ENTAILS, INCLUDING LIABILITY FOR THE CHARGEBACKS.

3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The license granted to Hotel in this Agreement is limited to facilitating the sale of Hotel's products and services and does not include any other rights of any type. FreedomPay owns all Remaining Rights. "Remaining Rights" means, except for the limited license granted to Hotel under this Agreement, all other rights in the FreedomPay Technology, including but not limited to, improvements, modifications, alterations, additions and deletions to any trademark, logo, copyright or other notices, legends, symbols, labels, displays, sounds, other media or characteristics on or in the FreedomPay Technology.

Attachment 2 – Third Party Terms
HPFS

Hotel acknowledges that IHG is providing certain equipment (such as Payment Devices) to Hotel for use as part of the Next-Gen Payments Solution (the “Equipment”), and HPFS is leasing and financing such Equipment to IHG. IHG will make such Equipment available to Hotel under the terms of this Agreement. Hotel agrees to the following Third Party Terms required by HPFS:

1. MISCELLANEOUS.

1.1. Equipment Use; Maintenance. Hotel shall (a) ensure that the Equipment is kept in good and proper working condition, normal wear and tear excepted, (b) not make any alterations or improvements to the Equipment without the prior written approval of the manufacturer, and (c) operate and maintain the Equipment in accordance with the user manuals and documentation, and any instructions issued by the manufacturer from time to time.

1.2. Equipment Location. Hotel shall not locate or relocate any Equipment without IHG’s prior written consent. IHG’s consent may be conditioned upon Hotel’s execution of a waiver agreement pursuant to which, among other things, the entity controlling the new location shall have waived any rights to the Equipment and agreed to surrender the Equipment to IHG or HPFS upon an event of default. Hotel shall confirm the Equipment location in writing to IHG upon IHG’s request.

1.3. Liens and Encumbrances. Hotel covenants that it will not pledge or encumber any of the Equipment or the interest of HPFS in the Equipment in any manner whatsoever nor create or permit to exist any levy, lien or encumbrance thereof or thereon except those created by or through HPFS. The Equipment shall remain the personal property of HPFS (during the initial 48-month Term) whether or not affixed to realty and shall not become a fixture or be made to become a part of any real property on which it is placed without the prior written consent of HPFS.

1.4. Risk of Loss; Insurance. Hotel assumes any and all risk of loss or damage to the Equipment until such Equipment is returned to and received by HPFS or IHG in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the IHG-HPFS agreement. Hotel agrees to keep the Equipment insured at the expense of Hotel against all risks of loss from any cause whatsoever, including without limitation, loss by fire (including extended coverage), theft and damage, and such insurance shall cover not less than the replacement value of the Equipment. Hotel shall name HPFS as a loss payee and an additional insured, as applicable, under such insurance policies.

1.5. Performance of Obligations. If Hotel fails to perform any of its obligations hereunder and the same constitutes an event of default, IHG (acting on behalf of HPFS) may, during the continuance of such default perform any act or make any payment that IHG deems reasonably necessary for the preservation of IHG’s or HPFS’s interests therein; provided, however, that the performance of any act or payment by IHG shall not be deemed a waiver or release of Hotel from the obligation at issue. All sums so paid by IHG shall be paid to IHG by Hotel immediately upon demand.

Further, a failure to comply with the PIM or the requirements of Section 3 below will result in the disallowance of the benefits to Hotel described in the PIM.

1.2. FreedomPay makes no representations or warranties, express or implied, as to any third-party services that FreedomPay enables or provides, including but not limited to fraud protection, 3-D Secure, DCC, loyalty or discount programs and/or any other ancillary services enabled or provided by FreedomPay in the future.

1.5. Hotel agrees that FreedomPay shall have no liability or obligation to Hotel for any transactions not submitted or reported to FreedomPay for settlement within sixty (60) days after the actual date of the transaction. For transactions submitted or reported after such time limit, FreedomPay will attempt to settle such transactions if the data is available, but FreedomPay will have no liability to Hotel if it is unable to settle such transactions.

1.6. FreedomPay may implement a hosted update on the FreedomPay system at such time as it determines, and (b) Hotel shall have the flexibility to commence implementing non-hosted updates according to IHG's schedule, which implementation shall be commenced no later than twelve (12) months after notice from FreedomPay and completed no later than twenty-four (24) months after such notice, unless such non-hosted update is required by law, network requirements or PCI requirements, or other applicable authority, in such case Hotel shall implement such non-hosted update in accordance with the date required in such law or requirement. 1.7. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by IHG in its reasonable discretion, a FreedomPay update shall not degrade the performance, functioning or operation of the FreedomPay solution and shall not cause the performance, functioning or operation of the Services to fail to meet the requirements of this Participation Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any FreedomPay updates that are required by law, network requirements, PCI requirements, acquirer requirements, or a change introduced by, any governmental authority, any regulatory body, a processor or card brand.

3.3. Force Majeure. Except as otherwise provided herein, neither Hotel, IHG, nor FreedomPay is liable for failing to fulfill its obligations (except for payment obligations) due to acts of God, acts of war, failure of utility or communications infrastructure, or other causes beyond the non-performing party's reasonable control. FreedomPay will not be liable for failing to fulfill its obligations if it is prohibited from doing so by any security or other measures, imposed by Hotel, restricting access to any equipment.

Security, Availability, and Confidentiality Statement

Overview

FreedomPay's commerce platform is designed to deliver transaction services to each of our customers. The FreedomPay infrastructure is physically located on servers in a dedicated or locked caged at one of the many data centers in the FreedomPay network. These data centers provide power, network and carrier services. FreedomPay owns, operates and is responsible for provisioning, monitoring, and managing the infrastructure, for providing support to FreedomPay customers.

Data Storage

Our platform was designed and optimized by us specifically to host transaction services and related applications and has multiple levels of redundancy built in. The applications and services themselves run on separate hardware nodes on which the data is stored. Application data that is collected is stored on separate storage devices with encryption employed for sensitive information.

Facilities

Access to the data centers is limited to authorized personnel only, as verified by identity verification measures. Physical security measures include: on-premises security guards, closed circuit video monitoring, and additional intrusion protection measures. Within the data centers, all equipment is stored securely with multiple security layers.

People and Access

Our support team maintains an account on all systems and applications for the purposes of maintenance and support. This support team accesses hosted applications and data only for purposes of application health monitoring and performing system or application maintenance, and upon customer request via our support system. Within FreedomPay, only authorized FreedomPay employees have access to application data. Authentication is done by only accepting incoming SSH connections from FreedomPay and internal data center IP addresses. Our transaction systems platform is designed to allow application data to be accessible only with appropriate credentials, such that one customer cannot access another customer's data without explicit knowledge of that other customer's login information. Customers are responsible for maintaining the security of their own login information.

Third Party Assurance

FreedomPay has successfully completed a SOC 2 Type II audit and has received an "unqualified" opinion from a third party attesting that FreedomPay's controls comply with the Trust Services Principles security, availability, and confidentiality framework issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), and the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) . FreedomPay's SOC 2 report provides information and independent assurance about our controls that affect the security, availability, and the confidentiality of the information processed by the systems that drive our products. The SOC 2 Type 2 report is the most stringent SOC type and includes a detailed description of our system; the evaluation criteria applicable to the principle(s) being reported on; our controls designed to meet these criteria; a written assertion by our management regarding the description and the design and operation of the controls; and the service auditor's opinion on whether the description is fairly presented and the controls are suitability designed and operating effectively. The report also includes the service auditor's description of tests performed and results of the tests.

Service Provider Obligations

FreedomPay is responsible for the merchant cardholder data that it possesses, processes, stores, or transmits on behalf of the customer, and will maintain compliance with all applicable PCI DSS requirements. Customers and clients are still responsible for the components of PCI compliance related to their location and related systems. Further, FreedomPay transmits cardholder and other sensitive authentication data to the customer's credit card processing provider to process transactions through the card networks. Customers are requested to notify us in the event that they experience issues that may affect the security, availability or confidentiality of the FreedomPay services they are utilizing.

2 Fee Schedule

The Fee Schedule set forth in Section 7 of your Application is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the Fee Schedule attached as Exhibit A. - 4.3 Client acknowledges and agrees that First Data may disclose the Agreement and all personal information of Client collected under the Agreement to IHG. Information disclosed may include Client's name, services purchased, monthly or annual usage, total billings, payment status, Transaction Data, and any other information Servicers may disclose under the Agreement or that is related to the Services.

EXHIBIT A

1 Servicers Fees

Client will pay First Data the fees described below for the Services ("Servicers Fees"). Servicers Fees are based on the Client's business methods and the types of transactions it will submit for processing that the Client disclosed to First Data. First Data may modify the Servicers Fees if the Client materially changes its business methods or the types of transactions that it submits for processing.

Servicers Fees	Amount	Driver
Authorization (Visa, Mastercard, Discover, DNP Card Types, American Express, and Debit Cards)	$0.013 ¹	per Authorization attempt
Transaction (Visa, Mastercard, Discover, DNP Card Types, American Express, and Debit Cards) ²	$0.065 ³	per transaction
Authorization (Voice) ⁴	$0.95	per call
Chargeback	Waived	per chargeback
ACH Deposit	Waived	per deposit
ACH Reject	$25.00	per rejection
Additional Authorization Fee for Dial Transactions	$0.005	per Authorization attempt via dial
Custom Development Fee	$200	per hour of development / coding

² This amount is charged for each transaction. Please note that neither Bank nor Processor settles American Express transactions. Depending on your structure for accepting Discover Cards and other DNP Card Types, either Processor or Discover (but not Bank) settles your Discover and DNP Card Type transactions.

³ Pursuant to the IHG Agreement, of the $0.065 Transaction Fee paid to Servicers for a transaction, $0.060 of such Transaction Fee is paid to IHG as the IHG Security Fee.

⁴ This fee is in addition to the applicable Authorization Fee and the applicable Transaction Fee.

2 Third Party Based Fees

Client will pay Processor all fees, fines, assessments, penalties, obligations, liabilities, adjustments, and other charges and amounts a Card Organization, Issuer, or other Third Party imposes, establishes, or sets that are related to Client's transactions, and all related costs and expenses ("Third Party Based Fees"). Card Organizations and other Third Parties may modify their Third Party Based Fees during the Term of the Agreement. Modifications to Third Party Based Fees will be effective on the dates set by the Card Organizations or other third parties.

Third Party Based Fees are in addition to the Servicers Fees and include, without limitation, the following:

Interchange (including any amounts associated with downgraded transactions)

Chargebacks (you are responsible for all transactions, or portions of transactions, that are charged back and all related amounts)

Excessive Chargebacks

Dues and Assessments

Access Fees

Debit Network Fees

Card Organization Pass Through Fees

Other Fees and Amounts (including Data Compromise Losses and other amounts arising from a Compromised Data Event)

[End of Exhibit A – Fee Schedule]

EXHIBIT B

1 Overview Of Agreement

- 1.1 These General Terms and Conditions Contain Important Information and Affect Your Legal Rights. Please read these General Terms and Conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) carefully. They contain important information and affect your and our legal rights and responsibilities. Capitalized terms are defined in Section 20 or elsewhere in these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.2 Our Agreement. Our agreement with you for the Services consists of: (a) your Application; (b) your MPA Addendum; (c) these Terms and Conditions; (d) the Your Payments Acceptance Guide; (e) the Fee Schedule any other Schedules (including Interchange Rate Schedules); and (f) any addenda, amendments, supplements, or Schedules to the foregoing, as each is modified and supplemented from time to time (each a “Contract Document” and collectively the “Agreement”). The Agreement governs your use of the Services. By signing the Application, you acknowledge and agree that you have read, and that you are bound by, the Agreement. No alterations to the Agreement will be accepted and, if made, any such alterations shall not apply.
- 1.3 Cards and Card Organizations. Cards present risks of loss and non-payment that are different than those with other payment systems, including risks related to Chargebacks and other Cardholder disputes. In deciding to accept Cards, you should be aware that you are also accepting these risks and that you are agreeing to comply with the rules and requirements of Visa®, Mastercard®, Discover®, American Express®, and other Card Organizations. With respect to Chargebacks – we do not decide which transactions are charged back and we do not control the ultimate resolution of Chargebacks. While we can attempt to reverse a Chargeback to the Issuer, we can only do so only if the Issuer agrees to accept it or the Card Organization requires the Issuer to do so after a formal appeal process. Sometimes, your customer may be able to successfully chargeback a Card transaction even though you have provided your goods or services and otherwise are legally entitled to payment from your customer. While you still may be able to pursue claims directly against that customer, neither we nor the Issuer will be responsible for such transactions. You are responsible for all Chargebacks and adjustments associated with the transactions that you submit for processing.
- 1.4 Card Types. Your Agreement indicates the types of payments you are enabled to accept. Depending on the equipment you are using to accept Card transactions, you may not be able to accept Debit Cards through use of a PIN.
- 1.5 Bank Responsibilities; Non-Bank Services. Notwithstanding anything in the Agreement to the contrary, Bank only provides, and its obligations and liability are limited to, sponsorship, settlement, and related Bank services for certain Card transactions, which do not include Non-Bank Card transactions or Non-Bank Services. Bank is not responsible for, and has no liability to you in any way with respect to, Non-Bank Card transactions or Non-Bank Services. See Section 16.1 for additional details.

2 Services And Third Party Services

- 2.1 The Services. The term “Services” means the activities we undertake to authorize, process, and settle Card transactions undertaken by Cardholders at your Locations, and all other equipment, products, and services we provide under the Agreement. Subject to Card Organization Rules, Services may be performed by Servicers, only Processor, our Affiliates, our agents, or our service providers. You may use the Services only for your own proper business purposes and only in accordance with the Agreement. You may not use the Services for personal, household, or non-commercial purposes.
- 2.2 Exclusivity. During the term of the Agreement, you will use us as your exclusive provider of all Services within the United States of America except with respect to POS terminal transactions initiated at parking, spa, gift shop, restaurant, bars, and lounge locations.
- 2.3 Service Records. We will retain legible copies of all transaction records in accordance with Applicable Law and Card Organization Rules. You must provide all Sales Drafts, Credit Drafts, and other transaction records requested by us within the time limits established by Card Organization Rules. We will provide all transaction records requested by you, to the extent such requests are reasonable, within the time limits established by Card Organization Rules.
- 2.4 Restrictions on Your Use of the Services. You shall not, and you shall not permit any Third Party to, do or attempt to do any of the following:
- (a) Sell, distribute, lease, license, sublicense, assign, or otherwise transfer or disseminate any part of the Services, Software, or Intellectual Property, or otherwise permit any Third Party to access or use the Services, Software, or Intellectual Property.
 - (b) Copy, modify, enhance, translate, supplement, derive source code or create derivative works from, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise reduce to human-readable form or attempt to reconstruct the Services, Software, or Intellectual Property (or any portion thereof or underlying ideas thereof).
 - (c) Use altered versions of the Services, Software, Intellectual Property, or any portion thereof; or use, operate, or combine any Services, Software, or Intellectual Property with other products, materials, or services in a manner inconsistent with the Agreement.

- (d) Use the Services, Software, or Intellectual Property, or any portion thereof, as a standalone or non-integrated program or in any other manner not contemplated by the Agreement.
- (e) Perform or attempt to perform any actions that would interfere with the proper working of the Services, prevent access to or use of the Services by other users, or, in our reasonable judgment, impose an unreasonably large or disproportional load on any platform or infrastructure that is used in connection with providing the Services.
- (f) Remove, modify, or relocate any copyright notice or other legend(s) denoting our or any Third Party's proprietary interests in the Services, Software, Documentation, or any other Intellectual Property.
- (g) Access or attempt to access Services, Software, or other Intellectual Property (or any portion thereof) that we do not make available for your use pursuant to the Agreement.
- (h) In connection with your use of the Services, award any prizes or offer any incentives that would invoke state or federal regulations governing online gambling, online lottery, lottery, sweepstakes, or contests of chance.

2.5 You Are Responsible for Your Merchant Account and Merchant Systems. You are exclusively responsible for: (a) all activity and transactions (including fraudulent activity and fraudulent transactions) that occur in connection with your Merchant Account or through your Merchant Systems, regardless of whether such activity and transactions are undertaken by authorized personnel, unauthorized personnel, Merchant Providers, or other Third Parties; (b) ensuring that the Merchant Account and Merchant Systems, including any point-of-sale equipment, terminals, and gateways, are used in accordance with the Agreement and are secure; and (c) implementing appropriate controls to prevent your authorized personnel, your unauthorized personnel, and Third Parties from submitting credits, voids, and other transactions that are not bona fide transactions. For avoidance of doubt, you are exclusively responsible and liable for: (x) all transactions sent to us for processing through your Merchant Account or Merchant Systems (including fraudulent transactions); (y) all use of the Services; and (z) all related Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, Chargebacks, and other amounts, whether arising from bona fide, unauthorized, or fraudulent activities or transactions.

2.6 Group Members.

- (a) Group Owner Benefits. We may provide you the Group Owner Benefits. Without prior notice to you, we may stop providing you the Group Owner Benefits if you cease being a Group Member, if the Group Owner Agreement is not in effect, or at the Group Owner's request.
- (b) Providing Information about You to the Group Owner and Third Parties. Subject to Card Organization Rules and Applicable Law, we may: (i) provide the Group Owner information we obtain about you, including information related to your business, owners, management, Card transactions (including Transaction Data), MID(s), and Merchant Account or related to the Services; and (ii) provide any such information to any Third Party at the Group Owner's request. You consent to our providing all such information to the Group Owner and to Third Parties, all of which may use such information for any lawful purpose.
- (c) New Group Owner Benefits. From time to time, the Group Owner and we may modify the Group Owner Agreement and the Group Owner Benefits in order to provide Group Members, including you, with new products or services ("New Group Owner Benefits") as part of the Group Owner program. You authorize us to modify the Services provided to you under the Agreement, and related fees and Agreement terms, upon notice to you, to the extent necessary to provide you any New Group Owner Benefits, and any such modifications shall not give rise to any termination right under Section 6.2 or under Section 19.7.
- (d) Following Group Owner's Instructions. From time to time, the Group Owner may ask or instruct us to provide the Services in a certain manner, in connection with certain communications, as part of a certain program, or as the Group Owner otherwise specifies ("Group Owner Instructions"). For example, Group Owner Instructions may ask us to follow certain Debit Card routing instructions or instruct us to set up Services in a certain manner. You consent to our providing you the Services in accordance with the Group Owner Instructions and you waive all claims you may have against us, and related losses, arising from our following the Group Owner Instructions.
- (e) Remitting Fees to Group Owner. Depending on our and your relationship with the Group Owner, certain fees that are assessed and collected pursuant to the Agreement may be assessed and collected on behalf of the Group Owner and remitted to the Group Owner. You authorize us to assess, collect, and remit to the Group Owner such fees.
- (f) Waiver of Liability. We are not responsible for determining whether you are a Group Member. We shall not have any liability to you in connection with any of our acts and omissions under this Section 2.6, regardless of whether you are or are not a Group Member. You waive all claims, suits, and causes of action against us, and all related losses, related to our acts and omissions under this Section 2.6.

2.7 Third Party Services. Third Party Services are not governed by the Agreement. We are not responsible for Third Party Services or for any provider of Third Party Services, even if we recommended them to you. With respect to Third Party Services, you are solely and exclusively responsible for: (a) determining whether Third Party Services can meet your needs and requirements; (b) reviewing, understanding, and complying with all terms and conditions for Third Party Services; (c) all fees, charges, and other amounts arising from Third Party Services, including any amounts you owe to Third Parties and any amounts that Third Parties owe to us or Card Organizations; (d) the integration and interaction between Third Party Services and our Services; (e) all acts and omissions of providers of Third Party Services; and (f) all other obligations and risks related to Third Party Services. If you download, access, or obtain any content through Third Party Services, you do so at your own risk. Providers of Third Party Services may have their own websites; we have no liability for such websites and any privacy policy we may have is not in effect when you visit such websites.

- 2.8 Integration of Third Party Services. You are solely responsible for obtaining any programming, technical support, and services needed for your systems to function with our systems, and for all related agreements, fees, and costs. This may include obtaining hardware, software, and internet data access from a Third Party. If a Service relies on online connectivity, you assume all risk, responsibility, and liability associated with transactions that you conduct while the Service is offline.

3 Card Organization Rules, Applicable Law, Your Payments Acceptance Guide, And Conflicts

- 3.1 Card Organization Rules. You must comply with the Card Organization Rules, including the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (“PCI DSS”), applicable to the Card types you accept. You are responsible for staying up to date with all changes to Card Organization Rules and maintaining compliance with Card Organization Rules. Card Organization Rules may be available on websites such as <https://usa.visa.com>, <http://www.mastercard.com/us/merchant/support/rules.html>, www.discovernetwork.com/en-us, and www.americanexpress.com/merchanttopguide, as links and their content may change from time to time.
- 3.2 Applicable Law. Each party is responsible for determining all Applicable Law that is applicable to it and for complying with all such Applicable Law in connection with the Agreement.
- 3.3 Your Payments Acceptance Guide. You agree to comply with the Your Payments Acceptance Guide, as it may change over time (“Your Payments Acceptance Guide”). The current Your Payments Acceptance Guide is available at www.businesstrack.com. To the extent of any inconsistencies between these Terms and Conditions and the Your Payments Acceptance Guide, these Terms and Conditions will govern.
- 3.4 Conflicts. For the avoidance of doubt, your use of the Services, the transactions you process, and all of your acts and omissions must comply with the Agreement, Applicable Law, and Card Organization Rules (including PCI DSS). If there is a conflict between Applicable Law, Card Organization Rules, and the Agreement, the conflict shall be governed in the following order of precedence: (1) Applicable Law; (2) Card Organization Rules; and (3) the Agreement.

4 Data Security and Third Parties Used by Client

The following is important information regarding the protection of Cardholder data. Please review carefully as failure to comply can result in substantial liabilities and termination of the Agreement.

4.1 Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard.

- (a) You Must Comply with PCI DSS. As part of your obligation to comply with Card Organization Rules, you are required to comply with PCI DSS. PCI DSS compliance is focused on Merchant Systems where Cardholder data can be accessed, processed, stored, or transmitted, including external connections into your network, connections to and from the authorization and settlement environment (e.g., connections for employee access or for devices such as firewalls and routers), and data repositories outside of the authorization and settlement environment. Information about PCI DSS can be found at www.pcisecuritystandards.org. You also are solely responsible for ensuring that all Merchant Providers, Merchant Systems, Third Parties, Third Party Services, equipment, and software that you use in connection with Card transactions comply with Card Organization Rules, including PCI DSS.
- (b) Non-Compliance. The Card Organizations or we may impose fines or penalties, or restrict you from accepting Cards, if it is determined that you are not compliant with the applicable data security requirements. Subject to Section 4.3, we may in our sole reasonable discretion suspend certain or all Services under the Agreement if we reasonably believe in good faith and based on evidence that an actual or suspected data security compromise has occurred, provided that we will use reasonable efforts to provide you advance written notice of such suspension, unless such notice is prohibited by Applicable Law or Card Organizations Rules. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to implement a workaround that allows you to continue receiving Card processing services from us during the suspension and we will remove the suspension and restore Services promptly after the threat has been resolved. If we reasonably believe in good faith and based on evidence that actual data security compromise has occurred which creates liability exposure for us, we may terminate the Agreement upon written notice to you.
- (c) We Must Comply with PCI DSS. We, and the systems and service providers we use, also must comply with PCI DSS and any additional Card Organization Rules applicable to our Services.

- 4.2 Compliance Audits. Each party may be subject to ongoing validation of its compliance with PCI DSS standards. Furthermore, if we suspect a breach of your compliance obligations under the Agreement, we retain the right to conduct an audit at your expense, performed by us or a Third Party designated by us to verify your compliance, or that of your agents or Merchant Providers.

- 4.3 Immediate Notice Required. If Transaction Data is known or suspected of having been accessed or retrieved by any unauthorized Third Party, you must contact us immediately and in no event more than 24 hours after becoming aware of such activity. If we become aware of any unauthorized access to the Transaction Data, we will contact you promptly after becoming aware of such activity, unless otherwise prohibited by Applicable Law or Card Organizations Rules.
- 4.4 Your Compromised Data Event. If a Compromised Data Event (as defined in Section 4.8) occurs or is suspected to have occurred, you must, at your own expense: (a) perform or cause to be performed an independent investigation, including a forensics analysis performed by a certified forensic vendor acceptable to us and the Card Organizations in accordance with Card Organization standards, of any data security breach of Cardholder data or Transaction Data; (b) provide a copy of the certified forensic vendor's final report regarding the incident to us and the Card Organizations; (c) perform or cause to be performed any remedial actions recommended by any such investigation; and (d) cooperate with us in the investigation and resolution of any security breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if required by a Card Organization, we will engage a forensic vendor approved by a Card Organization at your expense. You must cooperate with the forensic vendor so that it may immediately conduct an examination of your equipment and other Merchant Systems, and your and Merchant Providers' procedures and records, and so that it may issue a written report of its findings.
- 4.5 Our Data Security Event. If we are determined by a Card Organization to have breached our data security obligations under Applicable Law or the Card Organization Rules, resulting solely from our independent acts or omissions which results in the actual, unauthorized disclosure of personally identifiable consumer information, including but not limited to Cardholder data that is submitted to us by you hereunder, (a "Data Security Event"), we will be responsible for performing each of the actions set forth in subparts (a) and (c) of Section 4.4.
- 4.6 Merchant Providers.
- (a) Data Security Requirements Apply to Merchant Providers. The data security standards set forth in this Section 4 also apply to Merchant Providers. Before you engage any Merchant Provider, you must provide to us in writing the Merchant Provider's legal name, contact information, and intended function. You acknowledge and agree that you will not use, or provide Cardholder data access to, any Merchant Provider until you receive our approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) and, if required, confirmation of our registration of that Merchant Provider with applicable Card Organizations.
- (b) Merchant Provider Compliance. You must ensure that you and Merchant Providers: (i) comply with the registration process which can involve site inspections, background investigations, provision of financial statements, and any other information required by us or a Card Organization; (ii) comply with the periodic and other reporting required by a Card Organization; and (iii) comply with all applicable Card Organization Rules, including without limitation, those requiring security of Cardholder data. You may allow Merchant Providers access to Cardholder data only for purposes authorized under and in conformance with the Card Organization Rules. You are responsible for all our costs and expenses associated with our review, approval, certification (and recertification as may be required by us or the Card Organization Rules) and registration of any Merchant Providers.
- 4.7 Data Security Measures; Fraud. Security features such as CAPTCHA, velocity filters, the Address Verification Service, and requiring a Card Verification Code for Card Not Present Transactions can help combat fraud. Using AVS when submitting Authorization requests for Card Not Present Transactions can help you identify potentially fraudulent transactions and can help lower Card Organization interchange rates, but it does not guarantee a transaction is valid and the AVS response does not impact whether an Authorization request is approved or denied. We may charge you an AVS fee for any AVS request you submit, even if we are not able to provide a response to the request. You are responsible for all Chargebacks, Third Party Based Fees, Servicers Fees, and other amounts arising from fraudulent activity processed through your Merchant Systems and/or your Merchant Account (regardless of any AVS response that you receive).
- 4.8 Costs. If you or a Merchant Provider (or other Third Party used by you) are determined by any Card Organization, regardless of any forensic analysis or report, to be the likely source of any loss, disclosure, theft or compromise of Cardholder data or Card transaction information or are determined to have caused Cardholder data to be put at risk (together, "Compromised Data Events") and regardless of your belief that you have complied with the Card Organization Rules or any other security precautions and are not responsible for the Compromised Data Event, you must promptly pay us for all related expenses, claims, assessments, fines, losses, costs, penalties, and Issuer reimbursements imposed by the Card Organizations against us (together, "Data Compromise Losses"). In addition to the foregoing, you must also pay us promptly for all expenses and claims made by Issuers against us alleging your responsibility for the Compromised Data Event, apart from any claim procedures administered by the Card Organizations. We agree not to pass through to you any amounts imposed upon us by the Card Organizations in connection with our Data Security Event.

5 Settlement

- 5.1 Settlement Generally. We will be required to settle only Card transactions made using Cards of Card Organizations that (a) we support for full acquiring services and (b) you have elected to accept and we have approved. We will not be obligated to settle with you for any such Card transaction before we have settled for it with the related Card Organization.

- 5.2 Net Settlement. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing to the contrary, all Servicers Fees are deducted daily. All settlements to you for your transactions will be net of Credits, adjustments, Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, Chargebacks, and any other amounts then due from you.
- 5.3 Payments to You Are Provisional. All credits to your Settlement Account or other payments to you are provisional and are subject to, among other things, our right to deduct our fees provided no such amounts are disputed by you in good faith, our final audit, Chargebacks (including our related losses), and Third Party Based Fees (including fees, fines, and any other charges imposed on us by the Card Organizations due to your noncompliance with Card Organizations Rules). You agree that we may debit or credit your Settlement Account for any deficiencies, overages, fees, Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, pending Chargebacks, and any other amounts owed to us or any of our respective Affiliates, or we may deduct such amounts from settlement funds or other amounts due to you from us, or our respective Affiliates for Services provided under the Agreement. Alternatively, we may elect to invoice you for any such amounts, net due 30 days after your receipt of the invoice.
- 5.4 Good Faith Disputes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, if any amounts debited, credited, or otherwise deducted by us are disputed by you in good faith, we will use good faith efforts to work with you to resolve the dispute in a timely manner and promptly return any such disputed amounts that are owed to you.
- 5.5 Funding Delays. We will not be liable for any delays in receipt of funds or errors in debit and credit entries caused by you or any Third Party, including, without limitation, any delay in settlement funding for a Card transaction from a Card Organization to us.
- 5.6 Changes in Funding and Suspension of Funding. In addition to any other remedies available to us under the Agreement, you agree that should any Event of Default by Client set forth in Section 12.3 (subject to any available cure periods set forth in Section 12.3) occur, we may, with or without notice, change processing timing or accelerate payment terms and/or suspend credits or other payments of any and all funds, money, and amounts now due or hereafter to become due to you pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, until we have had reasonable opportunity to investigate such event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we will make reasonable efforts to notify you as promptly as practically possible of any such change or suspension.
- 5.7 Settlement Account Information. You acknowledge and agree that transfers to and from the Settlement Account shall be based on the account number and routing number supplied by you. We are not responsible for detecting errors in any Settlement Account information you provide, including the account numbers and routing numbers, even if any of those numbers do not correspond to the actual account or financial institution identified by name.
- 5.8 Secured Financial Accommodations. The Agreement is a contract whereby we are extending secured financial accommodations to you within the meaning of Section 395(c) of the U.S. bankruptcy code. Your right to receive any amounts due or to become due from us is expressly subject and subordinate to Chargeback, recoupment, setoff, lien, security interest and our rights to withhold settlement funds under the Agreement, without regard to whether such Chargeback, setoff, lien, security interest and the withholding of settlement funds rights are being applied to claims that are liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured or unmatured.

6 Fees; Adjustments; Collection Of Amounts Due

6.1 Your Payment of Fees and Other Amounts.

- (a) Servicers Fees, Card Organization Fees, and Other Third Party Based Fees. You agree to pay us all Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, Chargebacks, and other amounts arising in connection with the Agreement, including all fees and amounts described in the MPA Addendum, Fee Schedule, Interchange Rate Schedule, Card Organization program pricing schedules, or any other Schedule. For avoidance of doubt, this includes all fees and amounts imposed or established by any Card Organization related to your transactions.
- (b) Errors, Shipping and Handling, Taxes, and Other Amounts. As part of your obligations, you agree to pay and reimburse us for all funds and deposits erroneously credited to your Settlement Account or Merchant Account, all shipping and handling fees related to Equipment and Supplies, and all Taxes (and you authorize us, or our respective assigns, to increase the amount of any preauthorized payment to reflect any increases in Taxes, and you waive any requirement for notice of such increase). In addition, you are fully liable for any transactions that you accept from a Cardholder that are of a type, including a Card type, that you did not elect for your Merchant Account, and must pay us all related Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, and Chargebacks.
- (c) Sixty Day Limit for Certain Amounts. The following amounts shall be deemed waived by us if not charged or deducted by us within 60 days of the respective transaction date: (i) reversal of deposit posted to your account in error; (ii) debit for adjustments not previously posted; (iii) reversal of Credit for deposit previously posted; and (iv) debit for Chargeback never posted to your account.
- (d) Authorization Fees and Capture Fees. All Authorization fees will be charged for each transaction that you attempt to authorize. All capture fees will be charged for each transaction that you transmit to us for settlement. If you are being billed a combined fee for both the Authorization and capture of a transaction, the Authorization and capture must be submitted as a single transaction, otherwise the Authorization and the capture will each be charged separately. You are responsible for utilizing software or services that will correctly submit these transactions to achieve the combined billing

(e) Wire Fees. If you receive settlement funds by wire transfer, we may charge a wire transfer fee per wire.

- 6.2 Changes to Third Party Based Fees. The fees for Services set forth in the Agreement may be adjusted to reflect increases or new Third Party Based Fees. All such adjustments shall be your responsibility to pay and shall become effective upon the date any such change or addition is implemented by the applicable Card Organization or Third Party as specified in our notice to you.
- 6.3 ACH Debit and Credit Authorization. To the extent the Automated Clearing House (“ACH”) settlement process is used to effect debits or credits to your Settlement Account, you agree to be bound by the terms of the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, as in effect from time to time. You hereby authorize us to initiate credit and debit entries and adjustments to your Settlement Account through the ACH network and/or through direct instructions to the financial institution where your Settlement Account is maintained for amounts due under the Agreement (including any amounts due under this Section 6) and under any agreements with us or our respective Affiliates for any product or services, as well as for any credit entries in error. You hereby authorize the financial institution where your Settlement Account is maintained to effect all such debits and credits to your account. The ACH authorization under this Section 6.3 will remain in effect until (a) you have provided us at least 30 days’ prior written notice in accordance with Section 19.3 that you are terminating the authorization, and (b) either (i) all amounts due from you under the Agreement and under any other agreements you have with us or our Affiliates have been paid in full, or (ii) you have provided us an authorization to debit via ACH a replacement Settlement Account that is satisfactory to us in our sole discretion.
- 6.4 Our Obligations. We agree not to pass through to you any fees, fines, or other charges imposed on us by any Card Organization resulting from our acts or omissions in breach of the Agreement, or as a result of acts or omissions of our agents or other Third Parties engaged by us in connection with the Services.
- 6.5 Excessive Chargebacks. If your Chargeback percentage for any line of business exceeds the estimated industry Chargeback percentage, you shall, in addition to the Chargeback fees and any applicable Chargeback handling fees or fines, pay us an excessive Chargeback fee for all Chargebacks occurring in such month in such line(s) of business. Each estimated industry Chargeback percentage is subject to change from time to time by us in order to reflect changes in the industry Chargeback percentages reported by Visa, Mastercard or Discover. Your Chargeback percentage will be calculated as the larger of (a) the total Visa, Mastercard and Discover Chargeback items in any line of business in any calendar month divided by the number of Visa, Mastercard and Discover transactions in that line of business submitted that month, or (b) the total dollar amount of Visa, Mastercard and Discover Chargebacks in any line of business received in any calendar month divided by the total dollar amount of your Visa, Mastercard and Discover transactions in that line of business submitted in that month.
- 6.6 Review of Statements and Notice of Errors. You agree to promptly and carefully review statements or reports provided or made available to you (physically, electronically, or otherwise and whether provided by us or Third Parties on our behalf) reflecting Card transaction activity (including activity in the Merchant Account, Settlement Account, or Reserve Account), and our fees and charges for the Services and other amounts due to or from you. If you believe any discrepancies or errors exist, you must notify us in writing within ninety (90) days after the date of the related statement or reports. If you fail to notify us within such ninety (90) day period of any of such discrepancies or errors of which you are or reasonably should be aware, then we shall not have any obligation to investigate or effect any related adjustments, absent our gross negligence or willful misconduct. Any voluntary efforts by us to assist you in investigating such matters shall not create any obligation to continue such investigation or any future investigation. We may adjust your Merchant Account for good cause after such 90 day period.
- 6.7 Electronic Communications. With respect to any billing statements, reports, agreements, disclosures, notices, and other communications that you receive from us via electronic means, including via email or the internet (“Electronic Communications”), you are responsible for: (a) configuring Merchant Systems so that you can receive, access, and view Electronic Communications, including disabling spam filters and whitelisting domain names and email addresses; (b) the accuracy of, and all activity and communications under, your email addresses and accounts; (c) regularly monitoring and checking Electronic Communications; and (d) regularly monitoring and checking Business Track and any other websites, tools, and databases that contain information related to your Merchant Account. - 6.8 Test Messages and Automated Technology. You understand and agree that by disclosing your cell phone number, our service providers, American Express, and other Card Organizations may contact you at that number, including through the use of automatic technology or text, in connection with your Merchant Account. Your phone plan charges may apply.

- 6.9 Additional Information Regarding Interchange. The interchange rate schedule provides the most common interchange rates applicable to your transactions (“Interchange Rate Schedule”). Transactions may downgrade, resulting in higher interchange rates. You are responsible for all interchange fees as part of your responsibility for Third Party Based Fees. For more information on Visa’s and Mastercard’s interchange rates, please go to: www.visa.com/merchants and www.mastercard.us/merchants.

- 7.1 Chargebacks Generally. You must reimburse us for all transactions you submit that are charged back and all related amounts, including: (a) all Chargebacks; (b) all fees, fines, penalties, assessments, and other amounts related to disputing or arbitrating a Chargeback or failing to produce records within applicable time limits; and (c) all Chargeback Fees set forth on the Fee Schedule or elsewhere in the Agreement, regardless of whether a Chargeback is settled in your favor or the Cardholder’s favor.
- 7.2 Disputing Chargebacks. You may dispute a Chargeback as provided in the Card Organization Rules, including any requirements for timely submission. Our obligation to you respecting Chargeback disputes is limited to presenting your dispute to the appropriate Card Organization, to the limited extent required by Card Organization Rules. We will not engage in direct collection efforts against Cardholders on your behalf. The Your Payments Acceptance Guide contains additional details and requirements related to Chargebacks.

9 Confidentiality

- 9.1 Definition of Confidential Information. The term “Confidential Information” means all information of a party and its Affiliates that is not publicly available, including any of their strategic business information and capabilities; financial information; business plans and marketing strategies; pricing of the Services; documentation and portals related to Services; information related to information technology systems and processes; technical specifications; designs; processes and procedures; reports; source code; databases; information used in connection with logging onto, accessing, or using the Services; customer information (not including Cardholder data); the terms of the Agreement; and information that must be maintained as confidential by Applicable Law, and whether in oral, written, graphic, electronic, or other form, including all copies and derivatives thereof.
- 9.2 Protecting Confidential Information. The party receiving Confidential Information (“Recipient”) from the other party (“Discloser”) shall: (a) safeguard the Discloser’s Confidential Information using at least a reasonable degree of care; (b) limit access to the Discloser’s Confidential Information to the Recipient’s employees and service providers who (i) have an obligation of confidentiality to Recipient that is similar to Recipient’s confidentiality obligations to Discloser under this Section 9, and (ii) have a need to know the Discloser’s Confidential Information in connection with the Agreement; (c) not disclose or use the Discloser’s Confidential Information, except as permitted under Section 9.3 or elsewhere in the Agreement; and (d) at the Discloser’s request, return to Discloser or destroy all of Discloser’s Confidential Information in Recipient’s possession or control.

Discloser shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, in addition to all other available remedies, to redress any such breach.
- 9.6 Cardholder Data and Transaction Data. You must not use, disclose, store, sell, or disseminate any Cardholder data except: (a) to authorize, complete, and settle Card transactions; (b) to resolve Chargebacks; (c) to respond to requests for documentation related to Card transactions (such as a copy of a Sales Draft or other transaction source documents); or (d) as both required by valid court order, government agency order, or subpoena and compliant with Card Organization Rules. You acknowledge that you do not have and will not obtain ownership rights in any Cardholder data or Transaction Data.

10 Intellectual Property

- 10.1 Servicers’ Ownership. As among Servicers and Client, Servicers exclusively own all right, title, and interest (under federal, state, local, and international laws and under the laws of any other country, territory, or jurisdiction) in and to the: (a) Intellectual Property; (b) Technology; (c) Services; (d) Software; and (e) Documentation. You shall not take any action that is inconsistent with, or that challenges, the rights, title, and ownership set forth in this Section 10.1.
- 10.2 Your Limited License. We grant you a non-transferable, non-assignable, non-exclusive, limited, royalty-free, revocable license to access and use the Services, Software, and Documentation solely within the United States (excluding U.S. territories and possessions), solely for their intended purpose(s), solely for your business purpose(s) (not for any household or other non-commercial use), solely on systems that you own or license, and solely in accordance with the terms of the Agreement (“Limited License”). For the avoidance of doubt: (a) other than the Limited License, nothing in this Section 10.2 or the Agreement assigns, transfers, or creates any right, title, or interest for you (whether express or implied, or by estoppel or otherwise) in or to the Intellectual Property, Technology, Services, Software, or Documentation; and (b) all right, license, title and interests that are not expressly granted pursuant to the Limited License are expressly withheld. You obtain no rights (license or otherwise) to any Marks, brand names, or logos associated with any Services, or associated with us or our service providers. The Limited License shall immediately terminate on the earlier of (y) termination of the Agreement, and (z) termination of the Services related to such Limited License.

- 10.3 Documentation and Software. If Documentation is provided for a Service: (a) you must access and use such Service in accordance with such Documentation; and (b) you may use such Documentation only in connection with your access to and use of such Service. Software can only be used with certain computer operating systems and it is your responsibility to ensure that you have the appropriate hardware and software to use the Software. You are bound by all Software and other Intellectual Property terms and conditions of use and other license terms, whether provided by a Third Party (such as an Equipment manufacturer or Software owner) or by us.
- 10.4 Marks. You must comply with all Card Organization Rules, guidelines, and standards regarding Marks owned by any Card Organization, including those regarding use, display, and reproduction of Marks. Your use and display of any Card Organization Marks will terminate upon the earlier of: (a) termination of the Agreement; or (b) notice to you that the Card Organization has requested or required such termination. You may not use our Marks (or those of our Affiliates or Third Party service providers) in any manner, including in any advertisements, displays, or press releases, without our prior written consent. You shall not: (y) indicate that we or any Card Organization endorses your goods or services; or (z) use our Marks or the Marks of any Card Organization in any way that injures or diminishes the goodwill associated with the Marks.
- 10.5 Updates. At any time we may release updates to Software or Services (“Updates”), which you must install and integrate with your systems within 30 days of receipt. Failure to install Updates timely may impair the Software or Services. We have no liability for your failure to properly install the most current version of Software or any Update, and we have no obligation to provide support or services for outdated versions.
- 10.6 Transaction Data. You authorize us, our service providers, and our Third Party providers of payments products and services that are complementary to our services to use and disclose, within and outside of the United States, Transaction Data in connection with: (a) improving products and services; (b) making products and services (including analytics products and services) available to you, our other clients, and other merchants and Third Parties; and (c) for any other lawful reason. As part of our rights under this Section 10.6, we may in certain instances collect, aggregate, and use de-identified and aggregated Transaction Data. In addition, in the course of providing Services we may collect information related to activities on your network and Merchant Systems, including network configuration, TCP/IP packet headers and contents, log files, malicious codes, and Trojan horse information. You permit us to use such information, or aggregations of it, for any lawful purpose.

11 Assignment; Material Changes

- 11.1 Assignment by Client. If you transfer or assign the Agreement or any portion of it, or if you attempt to sublicense or otherwise transfer any licensed rights, in each case whether by operation of law or otherwise, without our prior written consent: (a) we may void such transfer, assignment, and/or sublicense; and (b) we may suspend the Services, declare an Event of Default, and exercise any of our other rights under the Agreement.
- 11.2 Material Changes. You will provide us reasonable advance written notice of any material change in the nature of your business (“Material Change”). Material Changes include any change in control or merger; any liquidation; any transfer or sale of substantially all of your assets; and any change that could materially affect the products or services you sell, your procedures for payments acceptance, or your fulfillment of obligations to Cardholders. If a Material Change occurs to which we do not consent in writing, we may suspend the Services, declare an Event of Default, or exercise any of our other rights under the Agreement.
- 11.3 Responsibility for Transactions. You are liable to us for all Chargebacks, Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, and other liabilities arising in connection with: (a) any Card transactions submitted to us for processing by any assignee or transferee of the Agreement (or any part of the Agreement) not previously approved as such by us; and (b) any Card transactions submitted to us following any Material Change not previously approved by us in writing. We may collect amounts owed under this Section 11.3 by setting off or recouping against settlement funds, debiting your Settlement Account, debiting a Reserve Account, or in any other manner we are permitted to collect any other amounts under the Agreement.
- 11.4 Assignment of Right to Receive Settlement Proceeds by Client. You may not enter into any agreement that would require the transfer of any payments or proceeds from Card transactions covered by the Agreement to the custody or control of any Third Party. You may not assign the right of payment under the Agreement to any Third Party. In the event that you make an assignment (or provide a security interest) of receivables covered by the Agreement, then we may, at our option, elect to (a) refuse to acknowledge such assignment unless accompanied by an authorization to initiate both debits and credits to the bank account of the assignee, (b) terminate the Agreement immediately, or (c) charge for any transfers that we are called upon to make manually to fulfill such an assignment at the rate of $100 per transfer.

- 11.5 Assignment by Us. Another Visa and Mastercard member may be substituted for Bank under whose sponsorship the Agreement is performed with respect to Visa and Mastercard transactions. Upon substitution, such other Visa and Mastercard member shall be responsible for all obligations required of Bank for Visa and Mastercard transactions, including without limitation, full responsibility for its Card program and such other obligations as may be expressly required by applicable Card Organization Rules. Subject to Card Organization Rules, we may assign or transfer the Agreement and our rights, duties, and obligations hereunder and/or delegate or subcontract our rights, duties, and obligations hereunder, in whole or in part, to any Third Party, whether in connection with a change in sponsorship, as set forth in the preceding paragraph, or otherwise, without your consent; provided, however that in the event we so assign or subcontract the Agreement, in whole or in part, we agree to provide you written notice of such assignment or subcontract (as applicable) as promptly as practicable following such assignment or subcontracting by us.
- 11.6 Permitted Assignments are Binding. Except as set forth elsewhere in this Section and as provided in the following sentence, the Agreement shall be binding upon successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns. No assignee for the benefit of creditors, custodian, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, debtor in possession, or other Third Party charged with taking custody of a party's assets or business, shall have any right to continue, assume or assign the Agreement.

12 Term; Termination; Events Of Default

- 12.1 When the Agreement Takes Effect. The Agreement becomes effective only when approved by our Credit Department ("Effective Date"). We reserve the right to immediately suspend or terminate your account and the Agreement if you fail to meet our credit policies even if your account has been activated to submit transactions prior to your approval by our Credit Department.
- 12.2 Term of the Agreement. The initial term of the Agreement begins on the Effective Date and continues for three (3) years ("Initial Term"), unless terminated earlier as provided herein. Thereafter, it shall continue on a month-to-month basis (each, an "Extended Term" and, together with the Initial Term, the "Term") until we or you terminate the Agreement upon written notice to the other as permitted under the Agreement. If you have an equipment lease, termination of the Agreement does not terminate that equipment lease. If you have rented equipment from us, termination of the Agreement does not relieve you of your obligation to make rental payments until the rented equipment is paid for in full or returned to us.
- 12.3 Events of Default. Each event set forth below is an "Event of Default":
- (a) A material adverse change in your business, financial condition, or business prospects.
 - (b) Any assignment of the Agreement by you in violation of Section 11.1.
 - (c) Any Material Change we did not consent to in violation of Section 11.2.
 - (d) Irregular Card sales by you, excessive Chargebacks, or any other circumstances which, in our sole discretion, may increase our exposure for your Chargebacks or otherwise present a financial or security risk to us.
 - (e) The occurrence of a Compromised Data Event (with respect to you) or a Data Security Event (with respect to us).
 - (f) Any of a party's representations, warranties, or covenants in the Agreement are breached in any respect.
 - (g) A party defaults in any material respect in the performance or observance of any term, condition, or agreement contained in the Agreement, including, without limitation, your default in the establishment or maintenance of funds in a Reserve Account, as detailed in Section 13.
 - (h) You default in the payment when due, of any material indebtedness for borrowed money.
 - (i) A party files a petition or have a petition filed by another party under the U.S. bankruptcy code or any other laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar arrangement for adjustment of debts; consent to or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner any petition filed against a party in an involuntary case under such laws; apply for or consent to, or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee or liquidator of a party or of a substantial part of a party's property; or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or take any action for the purpose of authorizing any of the foregoing.
 - (j) Your independent certified accountants shall refuse to deliver an unqualified opinion with respect to your annual financial statements and your consolidated subsidiaries.
 - (k) A violation by a party of any Applicable Law or Card Organization Rules, including the rules and regulations promulgated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") or a party's breach of Section 19.2.

Upon the occurrence of any other Event of Default, the Agreement may be terminated by the non-breaching party by giving written notice to the breaching party if the Event of Default remains uncured for thirty (30) days from the time the breaching party was first notified of the Event of Default, and upon such notice all undisputed amounts payable hereunder shall be due and payable on demand. If any Event of Default occurs, regardless of whether such Event of Default has been cured, each party may, in its sole discretion, exercise all of its rights and remedies under Applicable Law, and the Agreement including, without limitation, exercising its rights under Section 13.
- 12.5 Termination Related to the IHG Agreement. Processor and Six Continents Hotels, Inc. (“IHG”) are parties to that certain Merchant Services Referral Agreement dated October 16, 2014 (as supplemented and amended, the “IHG Agreement”). Upon expiration or termination of the IHG Agreement: (a) you may terminate the Agreement without penalty; and (b) you are entitled to receive Termination Assistance Services, unless the IHG Agreement is terminated by us for cause (in which case, we may choose whether to provide Termination Assistance Services in our discretion).
- 12.6 Effect of Termination. Upon expiration or termination of the Agreement:

You acknowledge that as long as you utilize the accounts you established prior to such filing, we will not be able to systematically segregate your post-filing transactions or prevent set-off of the pre-existing obligations. In that event, you will be responsible for submitting an accounting supporting any adjustments that you may claim.
- 12.7 MATCH Reporting. The Card Organizations often maintain merchant lists, such as the Member Alert To Control High-risk (Merchants) (“MATCH”), who have had their merchant agreements or Card acceptance rights terminated for cause. If the Agreement is terminated for cause by us due to an Event of Default by you, you acknowledge that we may be required to report your business name and the names and other information regarding your principals to the Card Organizations for inclusion on such list(s). You expressly agree and consent to such reporting if you are terminated as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default or for any reason specified as cause by Visa, Mastercard or Discover. Furthermore, you agree to waive and hold us harmless from and against any and all claims which you may have as a result of such reporting.
- 12.8 Termination Assistance. For up to ninety (90) days following the date of termination of the Agreement, and at your request, we will provide to you, at no additional charge (other than the Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, and other amounts due under the Agreement), such assistance, including the continued performance of the Services, as may be reasonably required to transition you from us to an alternative service provider (the “Termination Assistance Services”). As part of such Termination Assistance Services, we will provide continued access to our reporting system for Chargeback retrieval. We will hold funds pursuant to this Section 13.2 in master account(s) with your funds allocated to separate sub accounts. Unless specifically required by law, you shall not be entitled to interest on any funds held by us in a Reserve Account.

13.3 Payment of Amounts from Reserve Account; Deficiencies. We may collect any Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, Chargebacks, and other amounts (collectively in this Section 13.3, "all such amounts") arising in connection with the Agreement from the Reserve Account. If your funds in the Reserve Account are not sufficient to cover all such amounts, or if the funds in the Reserve Account have been released, you agree to promptly pay us all such amounts upon request. In addition, we may collect all such amounts in any manner we otherwise are permitted to collect amounts under the Agreement, including by net settling against your settlement funds, setting off against amounts owed to you, and debiting your Settlement Account.

13.5 Set-Off. In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under Applicable Law and not by way of limitation of any such rights, we are hereby authorized by you at any time and from time to time, without notice or demand to you or to any Third Party (any such notice and demand being hereby expressly waived), to set off, recoup, and to appropriate and apply any and all such funds against and on account of your obligations to us and our respective Affiliates under the Agreement and any other agreement with us our respective Affiliates for any related equipment or related services (including any check services), whether such obligations are liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured or unmatured. You agree to duly execute and deliver to us such instruments and documents as we may reasonably request to perfect and confirm the lien, security interest, right of set-off, recoupment and subordination set forth in the Agreement.

14 FINANCIAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

14.1 Providing Information. Upon request, you will provide us and our Affiliates, quarterly financial statements within 45 days after the end of each fiscal quarter and annual audited financial statements within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year. Such financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. You will also provide such other financial statements and other information concerning your business and your compliance with the terms and provisions of the Agreement as we may reasonably request. You authorize us and our respective Affiliates to obtain from credit agencies and any trade references provided by you financial and credit information relating to you in connection with our determination of whether to accept the Agreement and our continuing evaluation of your financial and credit status. We may also access and use information which you have provided to us under the Agreement. Upon reasonable request, you shall provide, and/or cause to be provided, to us and our respective Affiliates, or our respective representatives, regulators, or forensic examiners (as well as those of the Card Organizations), reasonable access to your records for the purpose of performing any inspection and/or copying of books and/or records deemed appropriate.

In addition, you agree to defend and hold FDSH Indemnitees harmless from and against third party claims to the extent covering Excluded Claims brought against the FDSH Indemnitees, and all related losses.

- 15.2 Indemnification by Us. Subject to the Liability Cap and the Damages Exclusion, we agree to indemnify you from, and defend and hold you harmless from and against, any third party claims brought against you and all related losses to the extent such claims result from or arise out of: (a) our material breach of our representations, warranties, or obligations set forth in the Agreement; (b) any claims initiated by our Affiliates or agents asserting rights under the Agreement; or (c) gross negligence or willful misconduct by us or our agents. For avoidance of doubt, the obligations under this Section 15.2 shall not apply to Bank with respect to Non-Bank Services.
- 15.3 Intellectual Property Infringement Indemnification. Processor will indemnify, defend, and hold you harmless from and against any third party claim alleging that the Services infringe or misappropriate any patent, copyright, trademark, service mark, trade secret, or other proprietary right (collectively for purposes of this Section 15.3, "Intellectual Property Rights") of such third party; provided that the foregoing indemnification under Section 15.3 shall not apply to that portion (and only that portion) of any third party claim that is caused by, results from, or arises out of: (a) your failure to use the Services as required under the Agreement; (b) your configuration, modification, or use of the Services in combination with other products or services (including software, equipment, or systems) that are not provided by Processor and that combination creates a process or method that is the causation for the infringement or misappropriation; (c) Processor's use of any designs, artwork, concepts, trademark specifications, or other copyrighted materials provided by you or on your behalf (including by IHG) in connection with the Agreement; or (d) Processor's custom development of the Services pursuant to a request by you or IHG and that development creates a process or method that is the causation for the infringement or misappropriation (the claims (or portions of claims) referred to in the foregoing clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) are herein referred to collectively as the "Excluded Claims"). 16 SPECIAL PROVISIONS REGARDING NON-BANK CARDS

16.1 Services Provided by Bank, Conveyed Transactions, and Non-Bank Services.

- (a) Services Provided by Bank. Bank only provides, and its obligations and liability are limited to, sponsorship, settlement, and related Bank services for certain Card transactions, which do not include Non-Bank Card transactions or Non-Bank Services. For avoidance of doubt, Bank is not a party to the Agreement with respect to, and does not have any responsibilities or liability with respect to, transactions that Processor sponsors and settles under the Agreement or Conveyed Transactions.
- (b) Non-Bank Services. Non-Bank Services are provided to you by Processor, not by Bank. Bank is not responsible for, and has no liability to you in any way with respect to, Non-Bank Services. The provisions of the Agreement regarding Discover Card transactions, American Express Card transactions, and other Non-Bank Services are an agreement solely between you and Processor. Non-Bank Services are subject to all terms and provisions of these Terms and Conditions. To the extent terms specific to a Non-Bank Service directly conflict with another provision of the Agreement, the terms specific to the Non-Bank Service will control with respect to such Non-Bank Service.
- (c) Conveyed Transactions. The following terms apply to Conveyed Transactions: (a) Processor (not Bank) will provide an Authorization response to Authorization requests; (b) Processor and Bank do not have any responsibility or liability for funding, sponsoring, or settling Conveyed Transactions; (c) you must enter into, and comply with the terms of, a separate agreement with the Card Organization or Issuer that settles Conveyed Transactions ("Issuer Agreement"), and must pursue directly with such Card Organization or Issuer all related claims and disputes; (d) the Card Organization or Issuer that settles Conveyed Transactions may charge additional fees and amounts, for which you are exclusively responsible and liable; and (e) if the Issuer Agreement has been terminated, suspended, or is not in effect, Processor does not have any obligation to provide any Services for Conveyed Transactions.
- (d) Fees. You shall pay us the fees for Conveyed Transactions and other Non-Bank Services as set forth on your Application, MPA Addendum, Fee Schedule, and/or other Schedules, or as we otherwise disclose to you. Fees for Non-Bank Services may be charged and collected in any manner that other Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, and other amounts may be charged and collected under the Agreement.

- (e) Discover. Services provided for transactions made with Cards branded by Discover, Diners Club International JCB, Union Pay, BCard, or any other Card Organizations subsequently designated by Discover (such Cards are “DNP Card Types” and such transactions are “DNP Transactions”) are Non-Bank Services. Depending on your Merchant Account, DNP Transactions may be sponsored and settled by either Processor or Discover. DNP Transactions that Discover sponsors and settles are Conveyed Transactions. DNP Transactions will be processed under and subject to Discover Card Organization Rules and the terms of the Agreement applicable to Discover Card acceptance and transactions, including, without limitation, the fees, rates, and interchange programs applicable thereto.
- (f) American Express. American Express transactions are funded by American Express. American Express will provide you with its own agreement that governs those transactions. We are not responsible for and assume no liability with regard to the funding and settlement of American Express transactions. American Express will charge additional fees for the services it provides.

17 DEBIT CARD TRANSACTIONS

- 17.1 Debit Card Transactions Generally; Debit Networks Used. Your Debit Card transactions are subject to the terms of the Agreement, Card Organization Rules (including those of Debit Networks), and Applicable Law. Subject to Applicable Law, we may choose any available Debit Network, including a Debit Network affiliated with us, when routing your Debit Network Transactions. The Debit Network used may not be the lowest cost Debit Network available. We may change Debit Networks used based on various factors, including availability, features, functionality, and our own business considerations. The Your Payments Acceptance Guide contains additional details and requirements related to your acceptance of Debit Cards.
- 17.2 Accepting Debit Cards. When a Debit Card is presented you must: (a) read the account number electronically from the magnetic stripe or chip for Debit Network transactions made via use of a PIN, and if the magnetic stripe or chip is unreadable for such a transaction you must request another form of payment; (b) honor all valid Debit Cards presented; and (c) not manually enter the Card account number for Debit Network transactions made via use of a PIN.

You irrevocably and unconditionally agree and submit to the jurisdiction of such North Carolina courts and waive any objection to the venue of such courts whether based on inconvenience of forum or other grounds.
- 18.3 Waiver of Jury Trial. ALL PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS THEY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING RELATING TO OR ARISING UNDER THE AGREEMENT.

19 OTHER TERMS

- 19.1 Force Majeure. No party shall be liable for any default or delay in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement (excluding your obligation to pay us Servicers Fees, Third Party Based Fees, Chargebacks, and other amounts related to Services provided and transactions processed under the Agreement, which obligation is not subject to this Section 19.1) if and to the extent such default or delay is caused, directly or indirectly, by: (i) fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature, or other acts of God; (ii) any terrorist attacks or outbreak or escalation of hostilities, war, riots, or civil disorders in any country; (iii) any act or omission of the other party or any government authority; (iv) any labor disputes (whether or not employees' demands are reasonable or within the party's power to satisfy); or (v) the nonperformance by a Third Party for any similar cause beyond the reasonable control of such party, including without limitation, failures or fluctuations in telecommunication or other equipment. In any such event, the non-performing party shall be excused from any further performance and observance of the obligations so affected only for as long as such circumstances prevail and such party continues to use commercially reasonable efforts to recommence performance or observance as soon as practicable.
- 19.2 Compliance with Laws. Each party is responsible for determining all Applicable Law that is applicable to it and for complying with all such Applicable Law in connection with the Agreement. You further agree to cooperate and provide information requested by Servicers, as Servicers determine necessary, to facilitate Servicers' compliance with Applicable Law, including without limitation the rules and regulations promulgated by OFAC and the USA PATRIOT Act. As part of your obligation to comply with Applicable Law, you agree not to use the Merchant Account and/or the Services for illegal transactions, for example, those prohibited by the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act, 31 U.S.C. Section 5361 et. seq., as may be amended from time to time or for processing and accepting transactions in certain jurisdictions pursuant to 31 CFR Part 500 et. seq. and other laws enforced by OFAC.
- 19.3 Notices; Contact Information. Except as otherwise specifically provided, all notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder (other than those involving normal operational matters relating to the processing of Card transactions) shall be in writing, and if to you, at your address appearing in the Application. Notices to Processor must be sent to FDS Holdings, Inc., 4000 Coral Ridge Drive, MS/CON- MER-B, Coral Springs, FL 33065, Attn: Merchant Services. Notice given in any other manner shall be effective when actually received. Notices sent to your last known address, as indicated in our records, shall constitute effective notice to you under the Agreement. Processor's Customer Service phone number is 833-692-5687.

- 19.4 Headings; Rules of Interpretation. The headings contained in these Terms and Conditions are for convenience of reference only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of these Terms and Conditions. Each definition used in the Agreement includes the singular and the plural, and reference to the neuter gender includes the masculine and feminine where appropriate. Reference to Applicable Law or regulation means such law or regulation as amended as of the time of determination and includes any successor laws and regulations. Except as otherwise stated, reference to "Section" or "Sections" means the sections of these Terms and Conditions. The words "including" or "includes" or similar terms used herein shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation", whether or not such additional words are actually set forth herein. Text enclosed in parentheses has the same effect as text that is not enclosed in parentheses.
- 19.5 Severability. The parties intend every provision of the Agreement to be severable. If any part of the Agreement is not enforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain valid and enforceable.
- 19.6 Entire Agreement; Waiver. The Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter thereof, and supersedes any previous agreements and understandings. A party's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of the Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or another term or condition.
- 19.7 Amendment. We may modify any provision of the Agreement by providing written notice to you. You may choose not to accept the requirements of any such change by terminating the Agreement within twenty (20) days of receiving notice. For purposes of this section, an electronic or "click-wrap" notice intended to modify or amend the Agreement and which you check "I Accept" or "I Agree" or otherwise accept through an electronic process, shall constitute in writing as required herein. This Section 19.7 does not apply to changes to Third Party Based Fees, which are governed by Section 6.2, or to changes made pursuant to Section 2.6. For avoidance of doubt, you do not have any termination right with respect to any changes to Third Party Based Fees or with respect to any changes made in connection with our rights under Section 2.6
- 19.8 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Our respective Affiliates and any Third Parties we use in providing the Services are third party beneficiaries of the Agreement and each of them may enforce its provisions as if it was a party hereto. Except as expressly provided in the Agreement, nothing in the Agreement is intended to confer upon any Third Party any rights or remedies and the parties do not intend for any Third Parties to be third party beneficiaries of the Agreement.
- 19.9 Reporting Information; Backup Withholding. Pursuant to Section 6050W of the Internal Revenue Code, merchant acquiring entities (like Bank) and Third Party settlement organizations are required to file an information return reflecting all payment card transactions and Third Party network transactions occurring in a calendar year. In addition, the Internal Revenue Code may require us to undertake backup withholding if you do not provide Bank with the correct name and TIN that you use when filing your income tax return that includes the transactions for your business. Accordingly, to avoid backup withholding, it is very important that you provide us with the correct name and TIN that you use when filing your tax return that includes the transactions for your business.
- 19.10 Card Organization Rules. The parties acknowledge that the Visa, Mastercard, and Discover Card Organization Rules give Visa, Mastercard, and Discover certain rights to require termination or modification of the Agreement with respect to transactions involving Visa, Mastercard, and Discover Cards (including DNP Card Types) and the Visa, Mastercard and Discover Card systems, and to investigate you. The parties also acknowledge that Issuers of other Cards, for which we perform services on your behalf, may have similar rights under their applicable Card Organization Rules with respect to the Agreement's applicability to transactions involving such other Cards.

IHG DIRECT PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

This Participation Agreement (“Participation Agreement”) is made between Six Continents Hotels, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“IHG”) and you (the “Participating Property”).

WHEREAS, IHG has negotiated contracts with certain suppliers of goods and services through relationship with group purchasing organizations and numerous other suppliers and distributors of goods and services (“Supplier or Suppliers”).

WHEREAS, IHG and Suppliers have agreed in certain instances that IHG may provide these goods and services to Participating Properties and the vehicle for doing so shall be entering into this Participation Agreement between IHG and the Participating Property.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the recitals above and the mutual covenants and obligations in this Participation Agreement, IHG and the Participating Property acknowledge and agree as follows:

1. Services. IHG shall facilitate the provision to the Participating Property of the services identified on Exhibit 1 hereto (“Services”) and further described in this Participation Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Participation Agreement. Participating Property agrees that it shall use the Services only as explicitly set forth in this Participation Agreement, including but not limited to limiting the use of Services to the specific property or properties set out in Exhibit 1.
2. Payments. Following the installation and acceptance of the Services by the Participating Property, IHG shall delivery an invoice to the Participating Property for the charges due for the provision of such Services (which may include charges for installation and other required set up). Unless otherwise set forth on Exhibit 1, all invoiced amounts shall be due immediately upon receipt and payment shall be made to IHG within fifteen (15) days from the receipt of invoice. IHG reserves the right in its sole reasonable discretion to assess a fee up to [three percent (3%)] of all purchased made hereunder.
 - a. As it relates to payments that the Participating Property owes to IHG hereunder, the Participating Property acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible to promptly and fully communicate to IHG the expected date by which the Participating Property will be ready for fiber, equipment and other installation required in connection with the provision of Services (“Site Ready Date”). In the event that the Participating Property misses or changes the Site Ready Date after IHG has communicated the Site Ready Date to the Supplier or the Supplier cannot reasonably access the site for the installation (collectively “Customer Not Ready or CNR”), the Participating Property may be assessed a fee in connection thereto, and such fee shall be paid as a part of the payment obligation to IHG as described herein.
 - b. In addition, if the Participating Property cancels the required installation for the provision of Services hereunder (“Site Cancellation”), the Participating Property may be assessed a cancellation fee in connection with the Site Cancellation (“Cancellation Fee”), and the Participating Property shall be responsible for the payment of such Cancellation Fee to IHG when due.

- c. For the purposes of this Participation Agreement, “Customer Not Ready” or “CNR” is defined as when the Participating Property’s demarcation point (i) is not reasonably available or otherwise ready for fiber delivery from the Supplier; (ii) is still under construction; (iii) does not have permanent power sources; (iv) secured with a door and lock; or (v) does not have fiber panel or rack unit ready in the location previously communicated to IHG or to the Supplier. The location of fiber panel or rack unit described in (v) shall be determined at the time when the Participating Property and Supplier perform a walkthrough on the site of the Participating Property prior to any work that the Supplier performs (“Walkthrough”) in connection with this Participation Agreement. Any fee assessed by the Supplier in connection with a CNR situation shall be paid promptly and in full by the Participating Property.
 - d. Furthermore, in the event that the Participating Property’s demarcation point is moved from the location agreed to by the Participating Property and the Supplier during the Walkthrough, any request to change or move the location of the demarcation point may result in a direct charge to the Participating Property to cover any and all additional capital expenditure expenses arising from any additional construction. Participating Property shall promptly and in full pay such direct charge to IHG when due.
3. Termination by IHG. IHG may immediately terminate this Participation Agreement at any time and for any reason, including the following:
- a. Participating Property is in default of any provision of an IHG License Agreement;
 - b. There is any “Transfer” (as defined in the IHG License Agreement) by the Participating Property of the ownership of the Participating Property or change in ownership of the Participating Property that occurs without the prior written consent of IHG or is unauthorized under the IHG License Agreement;
 - c. Participating Property sells that Participating Property to a third party;
 - d. Participating Property fails to comply with and/or breaches the confidentiality obligations set forth in Section 6 below; or
 - e. Participating Property fails to make payments as required by the terms of this Participating Agreement or any agreement with a Supplier.

Upon any expiration or termination of this Participating Agreement for any reason whatsoever, the Participating Property shall immediately destroy or return all goods or documents in its possession that are the property of IHG or its affiliate, and any documents containing confidential information together with all copies thereof as may be deemed reasonable by both parties, except for such copies as shall be required for Participating Property’s taxation or accounting records or as otherwise required by law.

4. Early Termination by Participating Property. A property may be considered no longer a Participating Property when it is de-flagged in the IHG internal system or is otherwise a no longer an IHG-branded property (“Deflagged Property”). On the date that the Participating Property becomes a Deflagged Property (“Deflagged Date”), the Participating Property is subject to pay early termination fees (“ETFs”) in connection with the Services set forth in Exhibit 1. ETFs are calculated based on the number of months remaining under the Participation Agreement times the monthly rate for the Services. At IHG’s reasonable, sole discretion, IHG may directly debit the amount of ETFs on the Deflagged Date from the account that is associated with the Participating Property at the time of Deflagged Date. ETFs fulfill the terms of the Participation Agreement and will be forwarded to the Participating Property's IHG Franchise Statement as such.

In addition, the Participating Property is responsible for the equipment in connection with the Services not returned to the Supplier after the Participating Property has been de-flagged. Once the Participating Property becomes a Deflagged Property, the Participating Property will be billed for the fees owed on the equipment within sixty (60) days from the de-flagged date in a manner that IHG chooses. Such fees will be returned to the Participating Property once IHG has confirmed that all of the associated equipment has been returned to the Supplier or to IHG.

Furthermore, if the Participating Property leaves the IHG System such that it is no longer an IHG-branded property while the Participation Agreement is still in effect, the Participating Property shall be liable for payment to IHG of ETFs equal to (X) the number of months remaining on the term of this Participation Agreement multiplied by (Y) the monthly fees due under the Participation Agreement. Such payment is due within thirty (30) days following the termination date.

5. Obligations. In the event of sale of the Participating Property to a third party, the seller of Participating Property shall take commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the purchaser of the Participating Property understands and assumes the remaining term of this Participation Agreement, if any, for the Services that the Participating Property receives under Exhibit 1. In the event that the seller of the Participating Property fails to notify the purchaser or the purchaser does not agree to assume the remaining term of this Participation Agreement, if any, as a part of the sale of the Participating Property, the undersigned acknowledges and agrees to assume any and all charges and fees associated with early termination of this Participation Agreement as a result of the sale, which shall be no more than the prorated amount of fees remaining on the 36-month term of this Participation Agreement.
6. Confidentiality. In consideration of Supplier and Participating Property disclosing to each other the confidential information about the prices of goods and services negotiated by IHG with Supplier and other confidential information pertaining to this Participation Agreement, the Participating Property agrees:
 - a. Not to use, disclose, share, or otherwise disseminate any information related to this Participation Agreement, including the confidential price information, for any purpose whatsoever other than strictly for the purpose of this Participation Agreement;
 - b. To disclose the price information only to those of its personnel who need access to the same for the purpose of this Participation Agreement, and otherwise to keep the prices and all confidential information strictly confidential and not permit any person access thereto;
 - c. Not to make any copies of documentation relating to this Participation Agreement, including price information, except strictly for the purpose of and to the extent necessary for the purpose of this Participation Agreement;
 - d. Upon termination of this Participation Agreement to return to Supplier and IHG all documentation relating hereto, including pricing information, in the possession or control of the Participating Property (including recipient personnel) and any copies of the information except for such copies as shall be required for Participating

- Property's taxation or accounting records or as otherwise required by law;
- e. Participating Property shall ensure that its affiliated companies comply with the provisions of this Section 6. THE BREACH BY PARTICIPATING OWNER OF THIS SECTION 6 SHALL BE DEEMED A MATERIAL BREACH OF THIS PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT INCAPABLE OF REMEDY ON THE PART OF PARTICIPATING PROPERTY;
 - f. If Participating Property becomes aware of any breach of this Section 6, it shall immediately give formal notice to Supplier (and IHG, where applicable), giving all available details of the breach and shall at its own cost take such steps as Supplier (and IHG, where applicable) may at Supplier's discretion (or IHG's discretion, where applicable) decide in order to minimize the loss which Supplier (and/or IHG, where applicable) may otherwise suffer as a result of such breach.
7. Intellectual Property. Participating Property acknowledges that any intellectual property (both registered and unregistered) that is developed by IHG in the provision of the Services shall remain the exclusive and sole property of IHG and its affiliate and may not be used by the Participating Property without the prior written consent of IHG.
 8. Assignment. Participating Property may not assign this Participation Agreement, nor any of its rights and/or obligations under it, nor purport to do so, nor hold any such rights in trust for any other person except to the extent required under Section 5, "Obligations", above.
 9. Release and Indemnity. PARTICIPATING PROPERTY, ITS PARENT, SUBSIDIARIES, AND AFFILIATES, AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE HEIRS, REPRESENTATIVES, DIRECTORS, AGENTS, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS HEREBY RELEASE, REMISE, AND FOREVER DISCHARGE IHG AND ITS PARENTS, SUBSIDIARIES AND AFFILIATES AND THEIR OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, SUCCESSORS, AND ASSIGNS (EACH HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO AS AN "INDEMNIFIED PARTY") FROM ANY AND ALL CLAIMS, WHETHER KNOWN OR UNKNOWN, OF ANY KIND OR NATURE, ABSOLUTE OR CONTINGENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, IN ANY WAY RELATING TO THE SERVICES OR THIS AGREEMENT.  11. Warranties Disclaimed. IHG DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND LIABILITIES WITH RESPECT TO ANY ASPECT OF ANY PRODUCTS OR SERVICES DELIVERED HEREUNDER, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING ANY

WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. IHG MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES REGARDING AVAILABILITY, SERVICE QUALITY OR OTHERWISE. IHG IS NOT AN AGENT OF THE PARTICIPATING PROPERTY OR ANY SUPPLIER.

12. No Other Promises. PARTICIPATING PROPERTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IHG HAS NOT MADE ANY PROMISES, REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR GUARANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER TO PARTICIPATING PROPERTY OR ANYONE ACTING ON PARTICIPATING PROPERTY'S BEHALF.
13. Compliance with Law. Participating Property is responsible for complying with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations that may apply to this Participation Agreement and any product or service purchased hereunder.
14. Choice of Law, Courts, and Dispute Resolution. This Participation Agreement shall be construed under the laws of the State of Georgia, without application of the principles of conflicts of laws thereof, provided the foregoing shall not constitute a waiver of any of Participating Property's rights under any applicable franchise relationship laws. The parties agree to submit any disputes first to at least a Senior Vice President or equivalent leadership level of each party, then to non-binding mediation, and if unsuccessful to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state courts of DeKalb County, Georgia or the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

17. Severability. If any provision of this Participation Agreement or the application of any provision hereof is held invalid, the remainder of this Participation Agreement and the application of such provision shall not be affected unless the provision held invalid shall substantially impair the benefits of the remaining portions of this Participation Agreement.

19. No Effect on Other Documents. This Participation Agreement does not modify or in any way amend any agreements between IHG and the Participating Property, including but not limited to any licensing agreement (including the IHG License Agreement) between thereto. This Participation Agreement has no bearing on, and in no way supersedes or affects any current or future default and termination notice concerning any agreements between IHG and the Participating Property, including but not limited to any licensing agreement between thereto, if any, issued by IHG or any of its affiliated companies relative to any Participating Property, nor does it affect Participating Property's obligation to comply at all times with the minimum quality and service requirements of IHG.

20. Publicity. IHG may use the name of the Participating Property and may include such names in aggregate information in connection with materials released to the public and to other third parties in connection with this Participation Agreement and for other purposes without the prior approval of Participating Property.

Eligible Participant Master Agreement Terms

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Overview of Documents. The Participation Agreement, these Eligible Participant Master Agreement Terms, and the following additional documents (collectively, the "Agreement") shall apply to all products and services AT&T provides Eligible Participant pursuant to this Agreement ("Services") and shall continue in effect so long as Services are provided under this Agreement:

- (a) Pricing Schedules. A "Pricing Schedule" means the Pricing Schedule excerpts in Attachment 2 to this Participation Agreement. A Pricing Schedule includes the Services and the pricing (including discounts and commitments, if applicable). A Statement of Work ("SOW") is attached to a Pricing Schedule, which includes the SOW term ("SOW Term").
- (b) Acceptable Use Policy. AT&T's Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") applies to (i) Services provided over or accessing the Internet and (ii) wireless (i.e., cellular) data and messaging Services. The AUP can be found at att.com/aup or other locations AT&T may designate.
- (c) Service Guides. The descriptions, pricing and other terms and conditions for a Service may be

1.2 Priority of Documents. The order of priority of these Eligible Participant Master Agreement Terms and the documents identified above: the applicable Pricing Schedule; these Eligible Participant Master Agreement Terms; the AUP; and Service Guides.

1.3 Revisions to Documents. Subject to Section 8.2(b) (Materially Adverse Impact), AT&T may revise Service Publications at any time.

2. AT&T DELIVERABLES

2.1 Services. AT&T will either provide or arrange to have an AT&T Affiliate provide Services to Eligible Participant and its Users, subject to the availability and operational limitations of systems, facilities, and equipment. Where required, an AT&T Affiliate authorized by the appropriate regulatory authority will be the service provider. If an applicable Service Publication expressly permits placement of an order for a Service under this Agreement without the execution of a Pricing Schedule, Eligible Participant may place such an order using AT&T's standard ordering processes (an "Order"), and upon acceptance by AT&T, the Order shall otherwise be deemed a Pricing Schedule under this Agreement for the Service ordered.

2.2 AT&T Equipment. Services may be provided using equipment owned by AT&T that is located at the Site ("AT&T Equipment"), but title to the AT&T Equipment will remain with AT&T. Eligible Participant must provide adequate space and electric power for the AT&T Equipment and keep the AT&T Equipment physically secure and free from liens and encumbrances. Eligible Participant will bear the risk of loss or damage to the AT&T Equipment (other than ordinary wear and tear), except to the extent caused by AT&T or its agents.

2.4 License and Other Terms. Software, Purchased Equipment and Third-Party Services may be provided subject to the terms of a separate license or other agreement between Eligible Participant and either the licensor, the third-party service provider or the manufacturer. Eligible Participant's execution of the Pricing Schedule for or placement of an Order for Software, Purchased Equipment or Third-Party Services is Eligible Participant's agreement to comply with such separate agreement. Unless a Service Publication specifies otherwise, AT&T's sole responsibility with respect to Third-Party Services is to place Eligible Participant's orders for Third-Party Services, except that AT&T may invoice and collect payment from Eligible Participant for the Third-Party Services.

3. ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT'S COOPERATION

3.1 Access Right. Eligible Participant will, during its regular business hours, allow AT&T access as reasonably required for the Services to property and equipment that Eligible Participant controls and will obtain at Eligible Participant's expense for AT&T as reasonably required for the Services to property controlled by third parties such as Eligible Participant's landlord. AT&T will coordinate with and, except in an emergency, obtain Eligible Participant's written consent to enter upon Eligible Participant's property and premises, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Access rights mean the right to construct, install, repair, maintain, replace, and remove access lines and network facilities and the right to use ancillary equipment space within a building for Eligible Participant's connection to AT&T's network. Eligible Participant must provide AT&T timely information and access to Eligible Participant's facilities and equipment as AT&T reasonably requires for the Services, subject to Eligible Participant's reasonable security policies. Eligible Participant will furnish any conduit, holes, wireways, wiring, plans, equipment, space, power/utilities, and other items as AT&T reasonably requires for the Services and will obtain any necessary licenses, permits and consents (including easements and rights-of-way). Eligible Participant will have the Site ready for AT&T to perform its work according to a mutually agreed schedule.

3.2 Safe Working Environment. Eligible Participant will ensure that the location at which AT&T installs, maintains, or provides Services is a safe and suitable working environment, free of known Hazardous Materials and reasonably suitable for the Services. "Hazardous Materials" mean any substance or material capable of posing an unreasonable risk to health, safety or property or whose use, transport, storage, handling, disposal, or release is regulated by any law related to pollution, to protection of air, water, or soil or to health and safety. AT&T shall have no obligation to perform work at a location that is not a suitable and safe working environment or to handle, remove or dispose of Hazardous Materials.

3.3 Users. "User" means anyone who uses or accesses any Service provided to Eligible Participant. Eligible Participant will cause Users to comply with this Agreement and is responsible for Users' use of any Service unless expressly provided to the contrary in an applicable Service Publication.

3.4 Resale of Services. Eligible Participant may not resell the Services or rebrand the Services for resale to third parties without AT&T's prior written consent.

4. PRICING AND BILLING

4.1 Pricing and SOW Term; Terms Applicable After End of SOW Term. The prices listed in the Pricing Schedule are stabilized until the end of the SOW Term and will apply in lieu of the corresponding prices set forth in the applicable Service Publication. No promotion, credit, discount, or waiver set forth in a Service Publication will apply. Unless Pricing Schedule states otherwise, at the end of the SOW Term, Eligible Participant may continue Service (subject to any applicable notice or other requirements in a Service Publication for Eligible Participant to terminate a Service Component) under a month-to-month service arrangement at the prices, terms, and conditions in effect on the last day of the SOW Term. Under the month-to-month services arrangement, any change in price and/or terms or conditions will be mutually agreed to with an amendment to Pricing Schedule.

4.2 Additional Charges and Taxes. Prices set forth in the Pricing Schedule are exclusive of and Eligible Participant will pay all taxes (excluding those on AT&T's net income), surcharges, recovery fees, customs clearances, duties, levies, shipping charges and other similar charges (and any associated interest and penalties resulting from Eligible Participant's failure to timely pay such taxes or similar charges) relating to the sale, transfer of ownership, installation, license, use or provision of the Services, except to the extent Eligible Participant provides a valid exemption certificate prior to the delivery of Services. To the extent required by law, Eligible Participant may withhold or deduct any applicable taxes from payments due to AT&T, provided that Eligible Participant will use reasonable commercial efforts to minimize any such taxes to the extent allowed by law or treaty and will furnish AT&T with such evidence as may be required by relevant taxing authorities to establish that such tax has been paid so that AT&T may claim any applicable credit.

4.3 Billing. Unless a Service Publication specifies otherwise, Eligible Participant's obligation to pay for a Service Component begins upon availability of the Service Component to Eligible Participant. Eligible Participant will pay AT&T without deduction, setoff, or delay for any reason (except for withholding taxes as provided in Section 4.2 - Additional Charges and Taxes or in Section 4.5 - Delayed Billing; Disputed Charges). At Eligible Participant's request, but subject to AT&T's consent (which may not be unreasonably withheld or withdrawn), Eligible Participant's Affiliates may be invoiced separately, and AT&T will accept payment from such Affiliates. Eligible Participant will be responsible for payment if Eligible Participant's Affiliates do not pay charges in accordance with this Agreement. AT&T may require Eligible Participant or its Affiliates to tender a deposit if AT&T determines, in its reasonable judgment, that Eligible Participant or its Affiliates are not creditworthy, and AT&T may apply such deposit to any charges owed.

4.4 Payments. Payment is due within 30 days after the date of the invoice and must refer to the invoice number. Charges must be paid in the currency specified in the invoice. Restrictive endorsements or other statements on checks are void. Eligible Participant will reimburse AT&T for all costs associated with collecting delinquent or dishonored payments, including reasonable attorneys' fees. AT&T may charge late payment fees at the lower of (a) 1.5% per month (18% per annum), or (b) the maximum rate allowed by law for overdue payments.

4.5 Delayed Billing; Disputed Charges. Eligible Participant will not be required to pay charges for Services initially invoiced more than twelve (12) months after close of the billing period in which the charges were incurred, except for calls assisted by an automated or live operator. Separate from the preceding sentence, if Eligible Participant disputes a charge, Eligible Participant will provide notice to AT&T specifically identifying the charge and the reason it is disputed within twelve (12) months after the date of the invoice in which the disputed charge initially appears, or Eligible Participant waives the right to dispute the charge. The portion of charges in dispute may be withheld and will not be considered overdue until AT&T completes its investigation of the dispute but Eligible Participant may incur late payment fees in accordance with Section 4.4 (Payments). Following AT&T's notice of the results of its investigation to Eligible Participant, payment of all properly due charges and properly accrued late payment fees must be made within ten (10) business days. Bona fide disputes concerning invoices shall be addressed by the appropriate AT&T billing dispute center pursuant to AT&T's established methods and procedures, after the dispute is referred to the billing dispute center by either Eligible Participant or Eligible Participant's account team. Following AT&T's notice of the results of its investigation to Eligible Participant, payment of all properly due charges must be made within ten (10) business days and AT&T will reverse any late payment fees that were invoiced in error.

Participation Agreement
AT&T Network Integration Services
(U.S.)

4.6 Credit Terms. AT&T retains a lien and purchase money security interest in each item of Purchased Equipment and Vendor Software until Eligible Participant pays all sums due. AT&T is authorized to sign and file a financing statement to perfect such security interest.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

5.1 Confidential Information. Confidential Information means: (a) information the parties or their Affiliates share with each other in connection with this Agreement or in anticipation of providing Services under this Agreement (including pricing or other proposals), but only to the extent identified as Confidential Information in writing; and (b) except as may be required by applicable law or regulation, the terms of this Agreement.

5.2 Obligations. A disclosing party's Confidential Information will, for a period of three (3) years following its disclosure to the other party (except in the case of software, for which the period is indefinite): (a) not be disclosed, except to the receiving party's employees, agents and contractors having a need-to-know (but only if such agents and contractors are not direct competitors of the other party and agree in writing to use and disclosure restrictions as restrictive as this Section 5) or to the extent authorized to be revealed by law, governmental authority or legal process (but only if such disclosure is limited to that which is so authorized and prompt notice is provided to the disclosing party to the extent practicable and not prohibited by law, governmental authority or legal process); (b) be held in confidence; and (c) be used only for purposes of using the Services, evaluating proposals for new services or performing this Agreement (including in the case of AT&T to detect fraud, to check quality and to operate, maintain and enhance the network and Services).

5.3 Exceptions. The restrictions in this Section 5 will not apply to any information that: (a) is independently developed by the receiving party without use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information; (b) is lawfully received by the receiving party free of any obligation to keep it confidential; or (c) becomes generally available to the public other than by breach of this Agreement.

5.4 Privacy. Each party is responsible for complying with the privacy laws applicable to its business. AT&T shall require its personnel, agents and contractors around the world who process Eligible Participant Personal Data to protect Eligible Participant Personal Data in accordance with the data protection laws and regulations in the jurisdiction, territory or region in which the Services are provided to or consumed by Eligible Participant that are applicable to AT&T's business. If Eligible Participant does not want AT&T to comprehend Eligible Participant data to which it may have access in performing Services, AT&T strongly recommends that Eligible Participant encrypt such data so that it will be unintelligible. Eligible Participant is responsible for obtaining consent from and giving notice to its Users, employees and agents regarding Eligible Participant's and AT&T's collection and use of the User, employee, or agent information in connection with a Service. Eligible Participant will only make accessible or provide Eligible Participant Personal Data to AT&T when it has the legal authority to do so. Unless otherwise directed by Eligible Participant in writing, if AT&T designates a dedicated account representative as Eligible Participant's primary contact with AT&T, Eligible Participant authorizes that representative to discuss and disclose Eligible Participant's proprietary network information to any employee or agent of Eligible Participant without a need for further authentication or authorization.

5.5 Upon Termination. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement for whatever reason, or upon request by the other party, each party shall immediately cease to handle such other party's Confidential Information and shall promptly return to the other party all such Confidential Information, or destroy the same, in accordance with such instructions as may be given by the other party at that time. The obligations set out in this section shall remain in force notwithstanding termination or expiration of the Agreement. The parties agree that each party has and shall maintain ownership of any intellectual property rights in its Confidential Information and no such rights will transfer in the absence of an appropriate license or other written agreement signed by both parties.

6. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY AND DISCLAIMERS

6.1 Limitation of Liability.

- (a) EITHER PARTY'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND THE OTHER PARTY'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR DAMAGES ON ACCOUNT OF ANY CLAIM ARISING OUT OF AND NOT DISCLAIMED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE:

(U.S.)

- (i) FOR BODILY INJURY, DEATH OR DAMAGE TO REAL PROPERTY OR TO TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY PROXIMATELY CAUSED BY A PARTY'S NEGLIGENCE, DIRECT DAMAGES;
 - (ii) FOR BREACH OF SECTION 5 (Confidential Information), SECTION 10.1 (Publicity) OR SECTION 10.2 (Trademarks), PROVEN DIRECT DAMAGES;
- FOR ANY THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS, THE REMEDIES AVAILABLE UNDER SECTION 7 (Third Party Claims);
- (iv) FOR CLAIMS ARISING FROM THE OTHER PARTY'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, PROVEN DAMAGES; OR
 - (v) FOR CLAIMS OTHER THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN SECTION 6.1(a)(i)-(iv), PROVEN DIRECT DAMAGES NOT TO EXCEED, ON A PER CLAIM OR IN THE AGGREGATE BASIS DURING ANY NINE (9) MONTH PERIOD, AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL NET CHARGES INCURRED BY ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT FOR THE AFFECTED SERVICE IN THE RELEVANT COUNTRY DURING THE NINE (9) MONTHS PRECEDING THE MONTH IN WHICH THE CLAIM AROSE
- (b) EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 7 (Third Party Claims) OR IN THE CASE OF A PARTY'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, NEITHER PARTY WILL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE, RELIANCE OR SPECIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION DAMAGES FOR LOST PROFITS, ADVANTAGE, SAVINGS OR REVENUES OR FOR INCREASED COST OF OPERATIONS.
 - (c) THE LIMITATIONS IN THIS SECTION 6 SHALL NOT LIMIT ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE PAYMENT OF ALL PROPERLY DUE CHARGES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

6.2 Disclaimer of Liability. AT&T WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO: INTEROPERABILITY, ACCESS OR INTERCONNECTION OF THE SERVICES WITH APPLICATIONS, DATA, EQUIPMENT, SERVICES, CONTENT OR NETWORKS PROVIDED BY ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT OR THIRD PARTIES; SERVICE DEFECTS, SERVICE LEVELS, DELAYS OR ANY SERVICE ERROR OR INTERRUPTION, INCLUDING INTERRUPTIONS OR ERRORS IN ROUTING OR COMPLETING ANY 911 OR OTHER EMERGENCY RESPONSE CALLS OR ANY OTHER CALLS OR TRANSMISSIONS (EXCEPT FOR CREDITS EXPLICITLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT); LOST OR ALTERED MESSAGES OR TRANSMISSIONS; OR UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS TO OR THEFT, ALTERATION, LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT'S (OR ITS AFFILIATES', USERS' OR THIRD PARTIES') APPLICATIONS, CONTENT, DATA, PROGRAMS, INFORMATION, NETWORKS OR SYSTEMS.

6.3 Disclaimer of Warranties. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THE AGREEMENT, AT&T MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED. In addition, AT&T SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY ARISING BY USAGE OF TRADE OR BY COURSE OF DEALING. FURTHER, AT&T MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT TELEPHONE CALLS OR OTHER TRANSMISSIONS WILL BE ROUTED OR COMPLETED WITHOUT ERROR OR INTERRUPTION (INCLUDING CALLS TO 911 OR ANY SIMILAR EMERGENCY RESPONSE NUMBER) AND MAKES NO GUARANTEE REGARDING NETWORK SECURITY, THE ENCRYPTION EMPLOYED BY ANY SERVICE, THE INTEGRITY OF ANY DATA THAT IS SENT, BACKED UP, STORED OR SUBJECT TO LOAD BALANCING OR THAT AT&T'S SECURITY PROCEDURES WILL PREVENT THE LOSS OR ALTERATION OF OR IMPROPER ACCESS TO ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT'S DATA AND INFORMATION.

6.4 Application and Survival. The disclaimer of warranties and limitations of liability set forth in this Agreement will apply regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, equity, tort, strict liability or otherwise, of whether damages were foreseeable and of whether a party was advised of the possibility of such damages and will apply so as to limit the liability of each party and its Affiliates and their respective employees, directors, subcontractors and suppliers. The limitations of liability and disclaimers set out in this Section 6 will survive failure of any exclusive remedies provided in this Agreement.

7. THIRD PARTY CLAIMS

7.1 AT&T's Obligations. AT&T agrees at its expense to defend and indemnify or and either to settle any third-party claim against Eligible Participant, its Affiliates and its and their respective employees, and directors or to pay all damages that a court finally awards against such parties for a claim alleging that a Service, provided to Eligible Participant under this Agreement infringes any patent, trademark, copyright or trade secret, but not where the claimed infringement arises out of or results from: (a) Eligible Participant's, its Affiliate's or a User's content; (b) modifications to the Service by Eligible Participant, its Affiliate or a third party, or combinations of the Service with any non-AT&T services or products by Eligible Participant or others; (c) AT&T's adherence to Eligible Participant's or its Affiliate's written requirements; or (d) use of a Service in violation of this Agreement.

7.2 Eligible Participant's Obligations. Eligible Participant agrees at its expense to defend and either to settle any third-party claim against AT&T, its Affiliates and its and their respective employees, directors, subcontractors and suppliers or to pay all damages that a court finally awards against such parties for a claim that: (a) is in connection with Eligible Participant's, its Affiliate's or a User's access to or use of the Services and the claim is not the responsibility of AT&T under Section 7.1; (b) alleges a material breach by Eligible Participant, its Affiliate or a User of a Software license agreement.

7.3 Infringing Services. Whenever AT&T is liable under Section 7.1, AT&T may at its option either procure the right for Eligible Participant to continue using, or may replace or modify, the Service so that it is non-infringing.

7.4 Notice and Cooperation. The party seeking defense or settlement of a third-party claim under this Section 7 will provide notice to the other party promptly upon learning of any claim for which defense or settlement may be sought, but failure to do so will have no effect except to the extent the other party is prejudiced by the delay. The party seeking defense or settlement will allow the other party to control the defense and settlement of the claim and will reasonably cooperate with the defense. The defending party will use counsel reasonably experienced in the subject matter at issue and will not settle a claim without the written consent of the party being defended, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, except that no consent will be required to settle a claim where relief against the party being defended is limited to monetary damages that are paid by the defending party under this Section 7.

8. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

8.1 Termination of Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated immediately upon notice by either party if the other party becomes insolvent, ceases to be a Property (in the case of Eligible Participant), is the subject of a bankruptcy petition, enters receivership or any state insolvency proceeding or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

8.2 Termination or Suspension. The following additional termination provisions apply:

- (a) Material Breach. If either party fails to perform or observe any material warranty, representation, term or condition of this Agreement, including non-payment of charges, and such failure continues unremedied for 30 days after receipt of notice, the aggrieved party may terminate (and AT&T may suspend and later terminate) the affected Service Components and, if the breach materially and adversely affects the entire Agreement, terminate (and AT&T may suspend and later terminate) the entire Agreement.
- (b) Materially Adverse Impact. If AT&T revises a Service Publication, the revision has a materially adverse impact on Eligible Participant and AT&T does not affect revisions that remedy such materially adverse impact within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice from Eligible Participant, then Eligible Participant may, as Eligible Participant's sole remedy, elect to terminate the affected Service Components on thirty (30) days' notice to AT&T, given not later than ninety (90) days after Eligible Participant first learns of the revision to the Service Publication. "Materially adverse impacts" do not include changes to non-stabilized pricing, changes required by governmental authority, or assessment of or changes to additional charges such as surcharges or taxes.
- (c) Fraud or Abuse. AT&T may terminate or suspend an affected Service or Service Component and, if the activity materially and adversely affects the entire Agreement, terminate or suspend the entire Agreement, immediately by providing Eligible Participant with as much advance notice as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances if Eligible Participant, in the course of breaching the Agreement: (i) commits a fraud upon AT&T; (ii) uses the Service to commit a fraud upon another party; (iii) unlawfully uses the Service; (iv) abuses or misuses AT&T's network or Service; or (v) interferes with another customer's use of AT&T's network or services.
- (d) Infringing Services. If the options described in Section 7.3 (Infringing Services) are not reasonably available, AT&T may at its option terminate the affected Services or Service Components without liability other than as stated in Section 7.1 (AT&T's Obligations).
- (e) Hazardous Materials. If AT&T encounters any Hazardous Materials at the Site, AT&T may terminate the affected Services or Service Components or may suspend performance until Eligible Participant removes and remediates the Hazardous Materials at Eligible Participant's expense in accordance with applicable law.

8.3 Effect of Termination.

- (a) Termination or suspension by either party of a Service or Service Component does not waive any other rights or remedies a party may have under this Agreement and will not affect the rights and obligations of the parties regarding any other Service or Service Component.
- (b) If a Service or Service Component is terminated, Eligible Participant will pay all amounts incurred prior to the effective date of termination.

3.1. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, Customer will have access to the Licensed Space 24 hours per day, every day of the year.

3.2. Customer will comply with the policies set out at the internet website <https://www.equinox.com/resources/product-documents/lbx-policies/> which are incorporated herein by reference (Policies). The Data Center owner may modify the Policies at any time(s) and Customer will be notified of such modifications to the Policies by making available the latest updated Policies on the said internet website, upon which such modification will be effective. Customer may terminate an Order for a Licensed Space if the Data Center owner modifies the Policies in a way that materially adversely affects Customer's use of the Services in such Licensed Space and Customer provides written notice of termination within seven (7) days from the date of the notice of modification of the Policies.

3.3. Customer will be responsible and liable for all acts or omissions of Customer's Authorized Persons, Accompanying Persons, and Associated Entities for any equipment or services not provided by AT&T. In turn, AT&T will be responsible and liable for all acts or omissions of its Authorized Persons, Accompanying Persons, and Associated Entities for the Services that AT&T provides to Customer.

3.4. This Pricing Schedule is not intended to and does not constitute a lease of any real or personal property or a grant of any other real property interest. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is only granted permission to access and use the Licensed Space in accordance with this Pricing Schedule. This Pricing Schedule is subject and subordinate to the leases for the building(s) in which the Licensed Space is located and all superior instruments to such leases. Customer's Equipment will not be construed as fixtures or fittings. As between Customer and AT&T, AT&T retains title to all parts and materials used or provided by AT&T in providing the Licensed Space and the performance of the Services.

3.5. AT&T shall endeavor to provide that the term of any lease under which AT&T holds Licensed Space does not expire or terminate prior to the last day of the applicable Order issued pursuant to this Pricing Schedule (Expiry Date). Without prejudice to any other right accrued or accruing to Customer under the terms hereof or at law, if AT&T's lease is terminated on a date earlier than the Expiry Date mentioned above, AT&T shall, at its sole cost, use commercially reasonable efforts to acquire such extensions from the landlord of the lease (Landlord) as are necessary to enable Customer to use the Licensed Space pursuant to these terms. If AT&T is unable to obtain such extensions, nothing in this Pricing Schedule shall prevent Customer from seeking to obtain or obtaining any extension of any such lease directly from the Landlord, and AT&T will be bound to any agreement with the Landlord to which AT&T and Customer mutually agree.

3.6. If AT&T's lease is terminated at any time prior to the Expiry Date noted in subsection 3.5. above, AT&T shall give Customer at least three (3) months' written notice prior to Customer being required to vacate the Licensed Space or as much notice as reasonably possible and shall:

3.6.1. At AT&T's sole expense, use all commercially reasonable efforts to assist Customer in finding a suitable alternative space for the housing of Customer Equipment in another space which is acceptable to Customer in its absolute discretion (New Premises);

3.6.2. At AT&T's sole expense, use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that Customer's relocation from the Licensed Space to the New Premises shall cause minimum possible disruption to the functioning of Customer Equipment and to any Services;

3.6.3. Pay all reasonable, actual out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by Customer in relation to the moving of the Customer Equipment to the New Premises (which costs shall include, without limitation, the cost of hardware, circuit provisioning and labor costs).

3.7. Customer shall not sublicense the Licensed Space.

4. INDEMNIFICATION

5.1. AT&T shall provide the Services in a professional and workmanlike manner and the Licensed Space shall be provided on an "as is" basis.

5.2. For purposes of this Pricing Schedule and Orders placed hereunder, any limit or cap on liability contained in the "Limitations of Liability" article of the Agreement is superseded by the following: EACH PARTY'S LIABILITY UNDER THIS PRICING SCHEDULE SHALL BE LIMITED TO PROVEN DIRECT DAMAGES NOT TO EXCEED ON A PER CLAIM OR AGGREGATE BASIS DURING ANY 12 MONTH PERIOD, AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL NET CHARGES INCURRED BY CUSTOMER FOR THE LICENSED SPACE DURING THE 9 MONTHS PRECEDING THE MONTH IN WHICH THE CLAIM AROSE. This shall not limit Customer's responsibility for the payment of all charges properly due under the Pricing Schedule.

6. INSURANCE

6.1. Customer agrees to maintain the following insurance, at its expense, during the Term, with insurers having a minimum AM Best rating of A-VII or S&P rating of A: (i) Commercial General Liability or Public Liability Insurance with a limit of US$2,000,000 per occurrence, US$4,000,000 in the aggregate (or the local currency equivalent), provided these limits may be achieved through a combination of primary and excess policies. Such insurance will include coverage for bodily injury and property damage; (ii) Workers' Compensation and Employer's Liability insurance where required by local statute; and (iii) All Risk Property Insurance on a replacement cost basis with limits adequate to cover the value of Customer's Equipment.

6.2. Customer will furnish AT&T with certificates of insurance upon request that evidence the minimum levels of insurance set forth herein, include AT&T as an additional insured or interested party on the Commercial General Liability or Public Liability policy and designate that Customer's required insurance is primary and non-contributory. Customer waives its insurers rights of subrogation on all policies referenced above. If not replaced, Customer will provide at least 30 days' prior written notice to AT&T of any non-renewal or cancellation of the policies referenced above. At Customer's option, Customer may provide the coverages required under this subparagraph through blanket policies of insurance.

6.3. The Parties agree that:

6.3.1. The failure of AT&T to demand such certificate of insurance or failure of AT&T to identify a deficiency will not be construed as a waiver of Customer's obligation to maintain the insurance required hereunder.

6.3.2. the insurance required hereunder does not represent that coverage and limits will necessarily be adequate to protect Customer, nor shall it be deemed as a limitation on Customer's liability to AT&T hereunder.

6.3.3. Customer may meet the required insurance coverages and limits with any combination of primary and Umbrella/Excess liability insurance; and 6.3.4. Customer is responsible for any deductible or self-insured retention.

7. TERM, TERMINATION AND SUSPENSION

7.1. This Pricing Schedule will commence on the Effective Date and will terminate on the date the last Order hereunder expires or is terminated.

7.2. After notice and cure periods specified below, AT&T may suspend the use of Licensed Space and/or provision of the Services if (i) Customer or Customer's Equipment interferes with the operation or maintenance of the Licensed Space or with one or more other customers' use thereof, and within a reasonable time, not to exceed four hours (or such shorter time if necessary in the event of an emergency which threatens the life or physical safety of persons in the Licensed Space) after being notified by email or phone, Customer fails to (a) cease such interference; (b) provide a plan that adequately ceases such interference; or (c) authorize AT&T to take action to cease such interference (billed at Smart Hands rates); or (ii) in AT&T's reasonable judgment, Customer or Customer's Equipment has the potential to interfere with AT&T's or the Data Center owner's operation or maintenance of the Licensed Space or with one or more of its other customers' use thereof, and within a reasonable time, not to exceed 48 hours after being notified by e-mail or phone, Customer fails to (1) resolve such potential interference; (2) provide a plan that adequately resolves such potential interference; or (3) authorize AT&T to take action to resolve such potential interference (billed at Smart Hands rates). If AT&T suspends the use of Licensed Space and Services pursuant to this Section 6.2., unless AT&T has subsequently terminated this Pricing Schedule as permitted hereunder, AT&T will reinstate use of Licensed Space and resume the discontinued Services as soon as reasonably practical after it is reasonably satisfied that Customer has cured the breach(es) which gave rise to the suspension; and AT&T may charge a reinstatement fee. Further, AT&T may terminate this Pricing Schedule if Customer's breach referred to above continues for at least five (5) days or occurs more than 3 times in any 12-month period.

Unless AT&T otherwise agrees in writing, failure to remove Customer's Equipment within fifteen (15) days from the termination of the applicable Order, or within thirty (30) days if the Order is terminated due to AT&T's material breach, will constitute abandonment of Customer's Equipment as that term is defined under the laws of the jurisdiction where the abandoned property is located, and AT&T will be entitled to pursue all available legal remedies, including without limitation and at Customer's risk and expense: (i) immediately removing Customer's Equipment and storing it at Customer's expense at an on-site or off-site location; (ii) shipping it to Customer; or (iii) upon twenty (20) days' prior written notice to Customer, liquidating it, and retaining the proceeds.

APPENDIX D: CLOUD EXCHANGE SERVICE

This Cloud Exchange Appendix (Appendix) supplements and sets forth additional terms and conditions governing the use and resale to Customer of the Ethernet Exchange (Cloud Exchange Service) by the Customer if ordered via Exhibit 1.

1. Description of the Cloud Exchange Service

AT&T will provide Customer access to an Ethernet switching infrastructure (individually and cumulatively, the Switch) and certain ports (Ports) on the Switch as specified on the Order (Exhibit 1 hereto) to allow Customer to interconnect its ethernet networks via an External Network to Network Interface (ENNI). The ENNI provides Customer the capability to exchange Ethernet frames with other customers.

The Cloud Exchange Service provides Customer the ENNI and a virtual circuit (Virtual Circuit) which is a logical Ethernet connection between two or more Ports on the Switch. Service fees will be listed on the Order, and if Customer requires additional Services, then the parties will utilize the Change Control process to contract for additional Services. Equinix shall at all times retain all title to and ownership of the Cloud Exchange Service. Customer will also have access to the Ethernet web portal for a variety of tasks, including the management of virtual network circuits.

This Appendix will apply to Customer's use of the Cloud Exchange Service and if Customer violates anything set forth herein, AT&T may take reasonable action to correct any problem such violation may cause, including suspending or, upon ten (10) days prior written notice, terminating Customer's use of the Cloud Exchange Service.

2. Customer Responsibilities

Customer must: (i) provide and maintain 24 hours each day, an email address and phone number for a primary contact, and an email address and phone number for an operations contact, which should include a role account e-mail address (e.g., for a network engineer or routing engineer); (ii) complete the Configuration Requirements Document (CRD) as soon as possible following execution of its first Order; (iii) comply with all reasonable technical specifications and applicable policies for the use of the Cloud Exchange Service as provided by AT&T from time to time and (iv) only connect equipment owned by Customer to the Switch.

Customer must not: (a) conduct any illegal activities through the Switch; (b) conduct any activity that interferes with or impairs the equipment or connectivity of any other customer on the Switch; (c) obtain or attempt to obtain unauthorized access to the Switch, or circumvent or attempt to circumvent any applicable security features; (d) connect any equipment that is not owned or controlled by Customer; or (e) reverse assemble, reverse compile or reverse engineer the Cloud Exchange Service, or otherwise attempt to discover any Cloud Exchange Service source code or underlying proprietary information.

Additionally, Customer is responsible for negotiating and executing its own interconnection agreements to exchange Ethernet frames with other customers and AT&T is not responsible for establishing or monitoring such relationships, whether bilateral or multilateral.

3. Disclaimer of Third-Party Actions and Control

AT&T does not and cannot control the flow of Ethernet frames beyond the Port or ENNI. Such flow depends in large part on the performance of Ethernet services provided or controlled by other customers. At times, actions or inactions caused by these other customers can produce situations in which some or all Customer's virtual circuits may be impaired or disrupted. Although AT&T will use commercially reasonable efforts to take actions it deems appropriate to remedy and avoid such events, AT&T cannot guarantee that they will not occur. Accordingly, AT&T disclaims any and all liability resulting from or related to such events. AT&T WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO: INTEROPERABILITY, ACCESS OR INTERCONNECTION OF THE SERVICES WITH APPLICATIONS, DATA, EQUIPMENT, SERVICES, CONTENT OR NETWORKS PROVIDED BY CUSTOMER OR THIRD PARTIES; SERVICE DEFECTS, SERVICE LEVELS, DELAYS OR ANY SERVICE ERROR OR INTERRUPTION, INCLUDING INTERRUPTIONS OR ERRORS IN ROUTING OR COMPLETING ANY 911 OR OTHER EMERGENCY RESPONSE CALLS OR ANY OTHER CALLS OR TRANSMISSIONS (EXCEPT FOR CREDITS EXPLICITLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT); LOST OR ALTERED MESSAGES OR TRANSMISSIONS; OR UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS TO OR THEFT, ALTERATION, LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF CUSTOMER'S (OR ITS AFFILIATES', USERS' OR THIRD PARTIES') APPLICATIONS, CONTENT, DATA, PROGRAMS, INFORMATION, NETWORKS OR SYSTEMS.

4. Service Level Objective

The purpose of this Service Level Objective (SLO) is to define the measurable performance levels for Cloud Exchange Service. The SLO is met when each individual Port and Virtual Circuit is available to pass ethernet frames 99.999% of the time during a billing month (SLO Threshold). For the purpose of this SLO, and subject to the last paragraph of this section, "Unavailability" is defined as the duration of unexcused or unplanned time in which any Port or Virtual Circuit prevents delivery of Customer's Ethernet frames, as measured from the time when AT&T receives Customer's notification of the incident, to the time the Service is no longer Unavailable as confirmed by AT&T.

APPENDIX D: CLOUD EXCHANGE SERVICE

In the event of a Chronic Outage, which is defined as five (5) SLO failure events within a thirty (30) day period, Customer may terminate the affected Cloud Exchange Service, without liability provided such termination notice is delivered to AT&T within thirty (30) days of the qualifying event. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the SLO shall not apply if the Unavailability is considered an "Excused Unavailability", which means it: (a) is caused by circumstances beyond AT&T's reasonable control; or (b) is caused by Customer's act or omission, or in the case of a virtual circuit, the act or omission of the customer or partner to whom the Customer connects; or (c) occurs during a scheduled maintenance window. Customer will be notified at least fourteen (14) days prior to any regularly scheduled maintenance and will be notified as soon as practicable before any emergency maintenance.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of California:

1. California Business and Professions Code, Sections 20000 through 20043, provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.
2. The License Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq).
3. The License Agreement contains a provision requiring application of the laws of Georgia. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
4. The License Agreement requires venue to be limited to Georgia. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
5. California Corporations Code, Section 31125, may require that we give you a disclosure document approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation before we ask you to consider a material modification of your License Agreement.
6. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE LICENSE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.
7. California Corporations Code, Section 31119, states that it is unlawful to sell any franchise/license in California that is subject to registration under this law without first providing to the prospective licensee, at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective licensee of any binding license or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the offering circular, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the license.
8. Neither Holiday nor any person or franchise broker disclosed in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.
9. Prospective licensees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a License Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

10. The License Agreement contains a provision requiring you to waive your right to punitive damages against Holiday any of its representatives, limiting your recovery to actual damages. Under California Corporations Code Section 31512, this provision may not be enforceable in California for any claims you may have under the California Franchise Investment Law.
11. To the extent mandated under California law, no statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of Holiday. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
12. This California addendum applies only if the California Franchise Investment Law and the California Franchise Relations Act would apply on their own, even if Holiday did not provide this addendum.

ILLINOIS ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise disclosure document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Illinois:

ITEM 17 RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. Notice Required By Law

THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH YOUR FRANCHISE CAN BE TERMINATED AND YOUR RIGHTS UPON NON-RENEWAL MAY BE AFFECTED BY ILLINOIS LAW, 815 ILCS 705/19 AND 705/20.

2. The provisions of the License Agreement and all other agreements concerning governing law, jurisdiction, venue and choice of law will not constitute a waiver of any right conferred upon Franchisee by the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act. The Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act will govern the Franchise Agreement with respect to Illinois franchisees.
3. Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act states that "any condition, stipulation, or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of this Act is void".
4. Your rights upon termination are set forth in Section 19 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

THE MARYLAND FRANCHISE REGISTRATION AND DISCLOSURE LAW

In recognition of the requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, the Franchise Disclosure Document for use in the State of Maryland shall be amended as follows:

1. The general release language contained in the License Agreement shall not relieve the Licensor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Maryland.
2. The License Agreement provides that it may be terminated immediately upon, among other things, the Licensee commencing any case, proceeding or other action seeking reorganization, etc. under any law relating to bankruptcy, etc. This provision may not be enforceable under federal law relating to bankruptcy.
3. The laws of the State of Maryland may supersede the License Agreement, including the areas of termination and renewal of the License.
4. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Laws must be brought within three years after the grant of the License.
5. Pursuant to the Interpretive Opinion “Adopting NASAA Statement of Policy Regarding the Use of Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgments” dated January 23, 2023 (the “Interpretive Opinion”), issued by the State of Maryland Office of the Attorney General Securities Division (the “Division”), the Division requires franchisors selling franchises that are subject to the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law to include the following statement in their franchise agreements: “No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.” Accordingly, any statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment in the License Agreement that is not permitted under the Interpretive Opinion is deleted in its entirety and shall have no force or effect.
6. This Maryland addendum applies only if the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law would apply on its own, even if Holiday did not provide this addendum.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document or Franchise Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply:

ITET 13 - TRADEMARKS

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that the Licensor (i.e., Holiday) indemnify Minnesota licensees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the Licensee's use of Holiday's trademark infringes trademark rights of the third party. Holiday does not indemnify against the consequences of Licensee's use of the Holiday's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the License, and, as a condition to indemnification, Licensee must provide notice to Holiday of any such claim within ten (10) days and tender the defense of the claim to Holiday. If Holiday accepts the tender of defense, Holiday has the right to manage the defense of the claim including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, and to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

ITEM 17 - RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Minn. Stat. §80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit the Franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring you to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the disclosure document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

No release language set forth in the franchise disclosure document, in Section 13.I. of the License Agreement or anywhere else in the License Agreement will relieve Holiday or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Minnesota.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, Holiday will comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.14, subdivisions 3, 4, and 5 which require, except in certain specified cases, that a licensee be given 90 days notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days notice for non-renewal of the License.

Liquidated damages and termination penalty provisions are deleted from Licenses issued in the State of Minnesota.

None of the explanatory statements made in Item 19 are meant to disclaim the credibility of the financial performance representations set forth therein or diminish licensee's right to rely on Item 19's representations, data and bases.

The term "licensee" is a term of art. Holiday's use of the term "licensee" throughout this disclosure document is not meant to (nor does it in any way) diminish the licensee's standing as a "franchisee" as that term is defined under Minnesota franchise law. Licensees are entitled to all rights and protections afforded to franchisees under Minnesota franchise law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

This Minnesota addendum applies only if the Minnesota franchise law, Minn. Stat. §80C.01, would apply on its own, even if Holiday did not provide this addendum.

NEW YORK ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Disclosure Document or Franchise Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold under the laws of the State of New York:

HOLIDAY MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE PROSPECTUS. HOWEVER, HOLIDAY CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE LICENSEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS PROSPECTUS.

HOLIDAY REPRESENTS THAT THE PROSPECTUS DOES NOT KNOWINGLY OMIT ANY MATERIAL FACT OR CONTAIN ANY UNTRUE STATEMENT OF A MATERIAL FACT.

ITEM 2. BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Item 2 of the Disclosure Document lists the directors, principal officers and other executives who will have management responsibility in connection with the operation of the Holiday's business relating to the licenses offered by this disclosure document, with a statement for each regarding his principal occupations over the past five years.

ITEM 3. LITIGATION

Except as disclosed in Item 3 of the FDD, neither Holiday, its affiliates nor any person named in Item 2 above has pending any administrative, criminal or material civil action (or a significant number of civil actions irrespective of materiality) alleging a violation of any franchise law, securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, restraint of trade, unfair or deceptive practices, misappropriation of property or comparable allegations.

Neither Holiday, its affiliates nor any person named in Item 2 above has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the ten year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of a misdemeanor or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or been held liable in a civil action by final judgment or been the subject of a material complaint or other legal proceeding, if such misdemeanor conviction or charge or civil action, complaint or other legal proceeding involved violation of any franchise law, securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, restraint of trade, unfair or deceptive practices, misappropriation of property or comparable allegations.

Except as disclosed in Item 3 of the FDD, neither Holiday, its affiliates, nor any person named in Item 2 above is subject to any currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to franchises in general or the license offered or under any federal or state franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law as a result of a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency.

ITEM 4. BANKRUPTCY

Neither Holiday nor any predecessor, affiliate, officer or general partner of Holiday has, during the ten year period immediately preceding the date of this disclosure document, (a) filed as debtor (or had filed against it) a petition to start an action under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code; (b) obtained a discharge of its debts under the bankruptcy code; or (c) was a principal officer of a company or a general partner in a partnership that either filed as a debtor (or had filed against it) a petition to start an action under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or that obtained a discharge of its debts under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code during or within 1 year after the officer or general partner of Holiday held this position in the company or partnership.

ITEM 17. RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. You may utilize whatever legal rights you may possess to suspend or discontinue operations due to a breach by the Franchisor and you may terminate the Agreement on any grounds available by law.

2. The requirements of Section 13.B of the License Agreement that you consent to the entry of an injunction are modified in the State of New York to provide only that you consent to the seeking of such an injunction.

NORTH DAKOTA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of North Dakota:

1. The laws of the State of North Dakota supersede any provisions of the License Agreement or Georgia law if such provisions are in conflict with North Dakota law. The License Agreement will be governed by North Dakota law, rather than Georgia law, as stated in Item 17(w) of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Paragraph 13.B of the License Agreement (“Binding Effect, Choice of Law, Consent to Jurisdiction and Forum Selection, No Jury Trials, No Punitive Damages and IHG’s Right to Injunctive Relief”).
2. Any provision in the License Agreement which designates jurisdiction or venue or requires the Licensee to agree to jurisdiction or venue, in a forum outside of North Dakota, is deleted from License Agreements issued in the State of North Dakota.
3. No release language set forth in the License Agreement shall relieve Holiday or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of North Dakota.
4. Item 17(i) of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Paragraph 11.E (“Payment of Liquidated Damages” of the License Agreement may require licensee to pay liquidated damages. This requirement is deleted from all License Agreements used in the State of North Dakota.
5. Item 17(v) of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Paragraph 13.B.1 of the License Agreement (“Binding Effect, Consent to Jurisdiction and Forum Selection, Choice of Law”) each require that the License agreements used in the State of North Dakota.
6. Paragraphs 13.B.2 and 13.B.3 of the License Agreement (“No Jury Trial and Punitive Damages”) requires the licensee to consent to a waiver of trial by jury and punitive damages. This requirement is deleted from all License Agreements used in the State of North Dakota.

RHODE ISLAND ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Rhode Island.

ITEM 17 RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

§19-28.1.-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act provides that "A provision in a License Agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act."

Any provision in the License which designates the governing law as that of any state other than the State of Rhode Island is deleted from Licenses issued in the State of Rhode Island.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Article 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17. h

Pursuant to Article 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement do not constitute "reasonable cause" as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Washington:

1. If any of the provisions in the franchise disclosure document or license agreement are inconsistent with the relationship provisions of RCW 19.100.180 or other requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, the provisions of the Act will prevail over the inconsistent provisions of the franchise disclosure document and franchise agreement with regard to any license sold in Washington.
2. In any arbitration or mediation involving a license purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
3. A release or waiver of rights executed by a licensee will not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the Franchise Agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, and rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
4. The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180 which may supersede the License Agreement in your relationship with Holiday including the areas of termination of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the License Agreement in your relationship with the Franchisor including the areas of termination of your franchise.
5. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW shall prevail.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Holiday will have no obligation upon the expiration of your License Agreement to offer the licensee a continued right to operate its Hotel, and the licensee may be required at that time to stop operating its Hotel and to comply with all post-termination obligations.
8. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.
9. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits Holiday from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WISCONSIN ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Wisconsin:

1. The following shall apply to License Agreements in the State of Wisconsin:
 - a. The Wisconsin Fair Dealership Act, Wisconsin Statutes, Chapter 135 shall apply to and govern the provisions of License Agreements issued in the State of Wisconsin.
 - b. That Act's requirement, including the requirements that, in certain circumstances, a franchisee receives ninety (90) days' notice of termination, cancellation or substantial change in competitive circumstances, and sixty (60) days to remedy claimed deficiencies, shall supersede the requirements of Article 12 of the License Agreement ("Termination") to the extent they may be inconsistent with the Act's requirements.

Amendment To
The Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC

The California Franchise Investment Law

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the above License Agreement ("License"), the following provisions shall supersede and apply to each License for an EVEN® Hotel issued in the State of California:

1. In accordance with the provisions under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.), paragraphs 11.C(1)(b) and (d) of the License shall be amended to include the following language: "Enforceability of this provision is a matter governed by Federal Bankruptcy Law and enforceability or nonenforceability is subject to that law and rulings of a court of competent jurisdiction."

2. California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the Licensee concerning termination or non-renewal of a License. If the License contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

4. The License and Guaranty require application of the laws of Georgia. In accordance with 5050.23 Sec. 310.114.1(c)(5)(B)(v), this provision may not be enforceable under California law.

5. With respect to franchises sold in California, a franchisor is prohibited from modifying a franchise agreement, or requiring a general release, in exchange for any assistance related to a declared state or federal emergency.

3. THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

(a) A prohibition on the right of a Licensee to join an association of licensees.

(b) A requirement that a Licensee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which deprives a Licensee of rights and protection provided in this act. This shall not preclude a Licensee, after entering into a License, from settling any and all claims.

(c) A provision that permits a Licensor to terminate a License prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the Licensee to comply with any lawful provision of the License and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(d) A provision that permits a Licensor to refuse to renew a License without fairly compensating the Licensee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the Licensee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the Licensor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the License is less than 5 years and (ii) the Licensee is prohibited by the License or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the License or the Licensee does not receive at least 6 months' advance notice of Licensor's intent not to renew the License.

(e) A provision that permits the Licensor to refuse to renew a License on terms generally available to other Licensees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the Licensee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a Licensor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a License, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a Licensor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

- (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the Licensor’s then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
- (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the Licensor or subfranchisor.
- (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
- (iv) The failure of the Licensee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the IHG or to cure any default in the License existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the Licensee to resell to the Licensor items that are not uniquely identified with the Licensor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a Licensor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the Licensor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the Licensee has breached the lawful provisions of the License and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the Licensor to directly or indirectly convey, assign or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the Licensee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

4. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures via DocuSign, .PDF file, facsimile, or other electronic format have the same force and effect as originals.

Michigan Amendment

Amendment To
The Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC
EVEN® Hotels License Agreement Pursuant To The Minnesota Franchise Act

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the above License Agreement ("License") the following provisions shall supersede and apply to each License for an EVEN® Hotel issued in the State of Minnesota:

1. The following language will appear at the end of paragraph 13.B of the License:

"Pursuant to Minn. State. Sec. 80C.21, this paragraph shall not in any way abrogate or reduce any rights of the Licensee as provided for in the Minnesota Statutes 1987, Chapter 80C, including, but not limited to, the right to submit matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota.

Minnesota law provides licensees with certain termination and non-renewal rights. Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.14 subdivisions 3, 4, and 5 require, except in certain specified cases, that a licensee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the License."

2. Section 6 of the License is amended by adding the following language:

"The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that IHG indemnify Minnesota licensees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the Licensee's use of IHG's trademark infringes trademark rights of the third party. IHG does not indemnify against the consequences of Licensee's use of IHG's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the License, and, as a condition to indemnification, Licensee must provide notice to IHG of any such claim within ten (10) days and tender the defense of the claim to IHG. If IHG accepts the tender of defense, IHG has the right to manage the defense of the claim including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, and to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim."

3. Liquidated damages and termination penalty provisions are deleted from Licenses issued in the State of Minnesota.

4. In accordance with the provision under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11.U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.), paragraphs 11.C(1)(b) and (d) of the License shall be amended to include the following language: "Enforceability of this provision is a matter governed by Federal Bankruptcy Law and enforceability or nonenforceability is subject to that law and rulings of a court of competent jurisdiction."

5. Minn. Stat. §80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring you to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the disclosure document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

6. No release language set forth in Section 13.I. of the License or anywhere else in the License Agreement will relieve IHG or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Minnesota.

7. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures via Conga Sign, DocuSign, .PDF file, facsimile, or other electronic format have the same force and effect as originals.

Virginia Amendment

Amendment To
The Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC
EVEN® Hotels License Agreement Pursuant To
The Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the above License Agreement ("License"), the following provisions shall supersede and apply to each License for an EVEN® Hotel issued in the State of Washington:

1. If any of the provisions in the franchise disclosure document or franchise agreement are inconsistent with the relationship provisions of RCW 19.100.180 or other requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, the provisions of the Act will prevail over the inconsistent provisions of the franchise disclosure document and franchise agreement with regard to any franchise sold in Washington.
2. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
3. A release or waiver of rights executed by a Franchisee will not include rights under the Washington Franchise Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the Franchise Agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, and rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
4. The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180 which may supersede the Franchise Agreement in your relationship with the Franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Franchise Agreement in your relationship with the Franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
5. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the Franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. The Licensor will have no obligation upon the termination of the License Agreement to offer the Franchisee a continued right to operate its EVEN® Business, and the Franchisee may be required at that time to stop operating its hotel as an EVEN® Hotel and to comply with all post-termination obligations.
8. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

- 9. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this Amendment.

Washington Amendment

Amendment To
The Holiday Hospitality Franchising, LLC
EVEN® Hotels License Agreement Pursuant To
The Wisconsin Franchise Investment Law

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the above License Agreement ("License"), the following provisions shall supersede and apply to each License for an EVEN® Hotel issued in the State of Wisconsin:

1. The Wisconsin Fair Dealership Act, Wisconsin Statutes, Chapter 135 shall apply to and govern the provisions of the License.

2. Section 135.04 of that Act's requirement includes the requirements that, in certain circumstances, a licensee receives ninety (90) days' notice of termination, cancellation, non-renewal or substantial change in competitive circumstances. The notice shall state all the reasons for termination, cancellation, nonrenewal or substantial change in competitive circumstances and shall provide that the Licensee has 60 days in which to rectify any claimed deficiency and shall supersede the requirements of paragraphs 11.B and C of the License to the extent they may be inconsistent with the Act's requirements. If the deficiency is rectified within 60 days, the notice shall be void. The above notice provisions shall not apply if the reason for termination, cancellation or nonrenewal is insolvency, the occurrence of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or bankruptcy. If the reason for termination, cancellation, nonrenewal or substantial change in competitive circumstances is nonpayment of sums due under the License, the Licensee shall be entitled to written notice of such default and shall have 10 days in which to remedy such default from the date of delivery or posting of such notice.

3. In accordance with the provision under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.), paragraphs 11.C(1)(b) and (d) of the License shall be amended to include the following language: "Enforceability of this provision is a matter governed by Federal Bankruptcy Law and enforceability or nonenforceability is subject to that law and rulings of a court of competent jurisdiction."

4. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures via Conga Sign, DocuSign, .PDF file, facsimile, or other electronic format have the same force and effect as originals.
