What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends that franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit I.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments to be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risk(s) to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and additional territory option agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation or litigation only in Georgia. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost you more to mediate or litigate with us in Georgia than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Sales Performance Required. You must maintain minimum sales performance levels. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise, and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Item 1

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this disclosure document, “FCI”, “Floorcoverings International”, “our” or “we” means Floorcoverings International, Ltd. “You” means the person(s), partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity who buys the franchise (including its individual owners).

The Franchisor and Parents

Floorcoverings International, Ltd. is a Georgia corporation established in February 1998 with corporate offices located at 5390 Triangle Parkway, Suite 125, Norcross, Georgia 30092; the telephone number is (800) 955-4324. FCI is a subsidiary of FS Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation, which has its principal business address at 2621 Van Buren Avenue, Suite 550A, Audubon, PA 19403. FS Brands, Inc. is a subsidiary of FirstService CAM Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation, with an address at 103 Foulk Road, Suite 202, Wilmington, DE 19803, which in turn is owned by FirstService Corporation, an Ontario corporation, with an address of 1255 Bay Street, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario M5R 2A9, Canada. We do business as “Floor Coverings International” and “FCI.” Our agents for service of process are disclosed in Exhibit J of this disclosure document.

We have offered franchises in the mobile retail floor covering business since our incorporation in February 1998. We do not offer and have not offered franchises for any other business. Currently, neither FCI nor our affiliates operate Floor Coverings International® businesses of the kind being offered to you as described in this disclosure document. We do not have any predecessors required to be disclosed in this Item.

The Franchise Offered

We sell a mobile retail floor coverings franchise business for both soft and hard flooring products (the “Franchised Business”) under the terms of a Franchise Agreement included in this disclosure document as Exhibit A (the “Franchise Agreement”).

You are required to establish a studio (office/warehouse). Each Franchised Business includes the right to use our name, service marks and business methods (the “License”) in a protected territory (a “Designated Market Area” or “DMA”). A DMA generally encompasses between 50,000 and 80,000 single family dwellings. Under the Franchise Agreement, you may only offer, sell and/or perform the following: carpeting, hard and soft floor covering products in residential dwellings that have less than five units/apartments or condominiums, as well as individual residential apartments or condominiums, townhomes, single family homes, or light commercial office space of less than 5,000 square feet provided (i) such work is not subject to the National Account Program, and (ii) the total aggregate contract amount does not exceed $50,000 for any one particular job (collectively, “Residential Services”).

FCI has a National Account Program in which FCI has the exclusive right to negotiate and enter into agreements to provide services to National Account customers. FCI may offer you the option to perform such work in the DMA, but it may also provide such services itself or contract with a third-party including another FCI franchisee to perform such services in the DMA. Qualified franchisees must enter into FCI's then-current form of National Account Lead Referral Program Participation Agreement to receive leads from FCI and provide services to National Account customers. Further, we may offer qualified franchisees the right to perform services for any particular residential job in which the aggregate contract amount exceeds $50,000 ("Commercial Services"), and any other flooring services not specifically identified as Residential Services above, including but not limited to any business or other commercial building, hotel or academic institution, upon the payment of a one time, non-refundable Commercial Services Licensing Fee, signing our Commercial Services Addendum, and the completion of our Commercial Training Program and such other conditions as we require. FCI franchisees operating a commercial services franchise are permitted to offer and sell their Commercial Services in the DMA. See Item 12 for more information about FCI's National Account Program and Commercial Services.

From time to time, FCI may establish certain programs for the benefit of its franchisees and the FCI System whereby FCI franchisees will be permitted to offer, sell and perform certain flooring services in accordance with the specifications described in any particular program established by FCI ("Program Services"). Franchisee's participation in any particular program will be subject to the terms and conditions of such program.

We will provide you with training and assistance in marketing, sales, advertising, staffing, product selection, operational procedures, and financial administration. As the owner of a mobile floor coverings and window treatments business, you will operate from a design-consultation studio from which you and your team will service your local market. No prior experience is required, although we reserve the right to award franchises at our sole discretion. As a franchisee, you and your team take samples of floor coverings and window treatments (the "Franchised Products and Services") to your customer's home or business, where you help them select floorcovering and/or window treatment type, color, and style best suited to your customer's furniture and color scheme. When your customer places an order, you telephone the order to a designated mill or mill manufacturer representative or other supplier and schedule installation by a qualified installer. You will compete with fixed location retail facilities and department stores as well as other mobile floor covering businesses that offer similar floor covering and window treatment products and services.

Multi-Territory Program

In addition to our single unit offering, we grant qualified individuals the right to own and operate multiple (usually two or three) Franchised Businesses through an Additional Territory Option Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit E to this Disclosure Document. You must sign our then current form of Franchise Agreement for each additional Franchised Business acquired under the Additional Territory Option Agreement.

Laws, Licenses and Permits

In California, all persons who install or contract for the installation of floorcovering must obtain a contractor's license. The classification is Class C – Specialty Contractor, and the specific flooring license is C-15. Sellers of installed carpet who hold a retail furniture dealer's license, however, are exempt (see California Business and Professions Code, Section 7058(d)). You can obtain further information regarding the California contractor's license at <http://www.cslb.ca.gov/>. FCI is not aware of any other laws or regulations in any state which are specifically applicable to the sale or installation of carpet or other floor covering products, but we recommend that you conduct your own investigation to determine if any such laws or regulations are applicable to your Franchised Business. Various states, including Arizona, Florida and Nevada have contractors' licensing laws, which apply generally to persons defined as "contractors" under applicable law. In addition, various states including California, Florida, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, and West Virginia have laws which regulate the terms of home improvement contracts with customers. As of 2010, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's lead-based paint renovation, repair and painting regulations require contractors performing certain renovation work in homes, childcare facilities, and schools built before 1978 to be certified and follow certain specific work practices to prevent lead contamination (see 40 C.F.R. Part 745). You can obtain further information regarding the EPA regulation and its application at www.epa.gov/lead/pubs/renovation.htm. You will need to investigate the scope of those laws in your state to determine whether you will need to obtain some form of license or certification. Other laws regulating businesses in general may also apply to your Franchised Business. You are solely responsible for investigating all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and your cost to comply with such laws and regulations, and you should do so before purchasing a franchise from us. We strongly suggest that you consult with an attorney, consultant and/or financial advisor regarding such regulations prior to purchasing a franchise from us.

The minimum Continuing Royalty Fee for all options set forth herein begins on the date that the first Franchised Business commenced operations.

- (2) The Initial Franchise Fee is $50,000.

- (4) See Item 5 for the contents of the Opening Package, the fee for which is paid prior to attending training.

the size of your DMA and your business plan, in FCI-approved local advertising within 4 months following training. Your total investment will depend on your vehicle lease arrangements and the costs will be higher if you choose to purchase a vehicle instead. Your vehicle will be customized by designated custom outfitters of FCI whose services include wrapping and installation of the interior racking system. See Item 8 for further details.
- (10) We will provide you with the Opening Package (see note 4 above). You will need to purchase certain items locally, including a laptop computer and software, tablet device, required software, printer/copier/fax machine, and a credit card authorization machine (see Item 11).

- (12) This amount estimates the expenses you will incur during the first 6 months of operations, including taxes, and office, paper and cleaning supplies. In addition, these expenses assume you pay the minimum monthly Advertising Contribution and Continuing Royalty Fees, and do not suggest or imply that you will generate any specific level of sales. These expenses assume you directly operate the Franchised Business and do not include payroll costs. This estimate for additional funds is based on our years of experience in this business, as well as information we receive from our franchisees.
- (13) This total is an estimate of your initial investment and is based on our estimate of average costs and prevailing market conditions. You should review this amount carefully with a business advisor before deciding to purchase the franchise. Item 8

RESTRICTIONS AND SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

You must buy your supplies, flooring product and equipment that you use in the Franchised Business from us or an approved supplier. The complete list of all approved suppliers is given to you in training and is contained in our Operations Manual. No officer of FCI owns an interest in any approved suppliers. See Item 1 of this disclosure document for more details about our affiliates.

Product. We have negotiated purchase arrangements with our approved carpeting/broadloom, hardwood, resilient flooring, tile, and luxury vinyl suppliers who have agreed to sell their products directly to you. We have made arrangements with vinyl, hardwood and laminate flooring suppliers for you to buy their products through their distributors. We provide certain administrative, marketing, technical and advisory services and data to these suppliers for which we may receive merchandising allowances of 0% to 6% for some of the products you purchase. The purchase of floor covering products will represent 20% to 45% of your overall purchases in operating the Franchised Business.

Supplies and Samples. FCI derives revenue from the sale of supplies, samples, and miscellaneous products to franchisees. The cost of these supplies and equipment represents 10% to 25% of your total purchases in establishing your franchise. The purchase of supplies and samples from FCI or other suppliers will represent 1% to 10% of your overall purchases in operating the Franchised Business.

FCI has the right to establish designated and approved suppliers for other products and services offered in connection with the Franchised Business. Currently, FCI is the only supplier for the Opening Package described in Items 5 and 7 above. If you wish to purchase any item for which FCI has established approved suppliers from an unapproved supplier, you must make a written request to FCI and furnish to FCI any information it may reasonably need to evaluate the proposed supplier. FCI will make a good faith effort to notify you of its approval within 15 days of receiving such information. FCI's failure to approve a supplier within this 15-day period will constitute disapproval of the proposed supplier. FCI has the right to revoke approval of an item which no longer meets its criteria or does not serve the needs of the franchise network as a whole. Currently, there are no fees in connection with securing supplier approval.

To maintain the high quality and uniformity of System services and products, and to enhance the Franchised Business' image, FCI has established standards and specifications for other products, services, fixtures and equipment. Standards and specifications are provided to franchisees by way of amendments to the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. FCI does not issue its standards and specifications to approved suppliers. In some cases, FCI may specify particular brand names and model numbers (e.g., for equipment). Items for which FCI has issued specifications may be purchased from any supplier who sells the items meeting the specifications. If you want to revise a specification or add a new item, FCI will consider the request, but is not obligated to make a change. FCI has the right to add or revise categories of items, which are subject to requirements or restrictions on purchases, and may also modify its specifications in its discretion. FCI reserves the right to specify all items utilized in the operation of the Franchised Business.

As of our fiscal year ended December 31, 2022, we derived $5,778,429 or 29.67% of our total revenue of $19,477,189 from required purchases and leases.

While Lipscomb & Pitts is our suggested insurance carrier, you may arrange insurance with any carrier as long as the insurance carrier is licensed in the state or province in which your Franchised Business is located and carries a rating of A+ or better by A.M. Best Co.

We have negotiated volume rebates with several carpet mills and other flooring manufacturers under a “Franchise Product Rebate Program.” In 2022, Shaw paid a rebate of 0-4% of purchases; Daltile a rebate of 4%; Krause a rebate of 2-6%; Armstrong a rebate of 0-5%; Godfrey Hirst a rebate of 0-4%; US Floors a rebate of 0-4%; and other suppliers paid a rebate between 0-4%. We may, from time to time, share with franchisees who are in good standing under their franchise agreements and who provide all necessary information the product rebate that we have negotiated with manufacturers under this program. You may receive some benefit from dealing with other suggested suppliers simply because of the volume of business they do with our franchisees, since they may offer better prices than other suppliers. Except as discussed above, we do not provide other material benefits to you based on your use of our designated or suggested suppliers.

You must have an e-mail address, a personal laptop computer to maintain access to the Internet and our FCI intranet (“FCI Floor-1-1”), and a portable printer. You may purchase the computer and hardware accessories from any of a number of computer equipment suppliers. You must also obtain two licenses for our proprietary software, InspireNet and InspireNet Mobile. You are also required to maintain high speed (DSL or equivalent) internet service from an internet service provider, together with an internet browser and a Floorcoveringsinternational.com e-mail address (provided to you) to communicate with FCI, customers and third-party vendors. If we change the minimum requirements for computer hardware or software, you must upgrade your system to meet those new requirements. (Franchise Agreement, Article V, S). Please see Item 11 of this disclosure document for more information regarding our computer hardware/software requirements.

If you want to use advertising materials that you develop, you must submit them to us for approval before using them. (Franchise Agreement, Article V, D).

On-Going Obligations. While you are operating your business, FCI will provide you with the following. Except as listed below, we are not contractually bound to provide any assistance to you.

1. Operations Manual. We will provide you with a copy of our confidential Operations Manual. Portions of our manual are printed while others are available on our online library. We also will provide you with printed and online training and documentation for use with our proprietary software system. The current IT online training and documentation covers some of the following: creating a new customer, creating calendar entries, designing a room, free form design, using product catalog, do it yourself room design, creating an estimate, creating a proposal, and viewing reports.

2. Ongoing Training. In addition to the post-opening training described elsewhere in this Item, we will also make available further training for the Franchised Products and Services which will either be provided in a classroom/workshop environment or via video tapes. We also will provide training for any new Franchised Products and Services we introduce. You must pay for any travel and daily living expenses for this extra training. We may charge a reasonable fee for this additional training to offset our costs. (Franchise Agreement, Article IV, E).

Brand Funds. We may spend funds in the Brand Fund ("Brand Fund"), at our discretion, for any activities intended to build the strength of the FCI brand, including national, regional, or local media or other market techniques or programs designed to communicate the services of franchisees to the public, as well as on technology or other programs that improve the quality of the services provided to FCI customers. In addition, we may spend funds in the Brand Fund on market research and development, public relations programs, test or target marketing, the conducting of surveys, brand development and promotion, consulting and other related services to train franchisees on marketing or other brand-building techniques, creative and production costs, merchandising and merchandising program development, development and implementation of new technology, reimbursement to us for reasonable accounting, administrative (including the actual cost of salaries and benefits paid to our employees engaged in administration of the Brand Fund), and legal expenses associated with the Brand Fund, or for other purposes deemed appropriate by us to enhance and promote the general recognition of the FCI System and marks. We will determine and budget the specific use of the Brand Fund. We do not currently have any company or affiliate-owned businesses to contribute to the Brand Fund, but if we establish any affiliate-owned businesses they will contribute to the Brand Fund on the same terms as our franchisees. We have created a franchisee advisory council comprised of franchisees to provide us with feedback regarding System changes. Members of the council are nominated by franchisees and approved by us. The council serves in an advisory capacity only, and we have the power to form, change, or dissolve the council. We are not obligated to spend Brand Fund dollars in any specific territory (national, regional or local) and contributions you make will not necessarily mean that Brand Fund advertising will influence your DMA. (Franchise Agreement, Article III, D). The Brand Fund is not audited but financial information about the Brand Fund is available annually, and we will provide it to you or make it available to you upon written request. Our accounting and marketing departments administer the Brand Fund. None of the Brand Fund is spent on advertising the sale of franchises. In the event any funds are not allocated at the end of a year, they will remain in the Brand Fund and will be used for the purposes described above. Franchisees contribute 3% of Gross Sales (the Brand Contribution) to the Brand Fund. (Franchise Agreement, Article III, C). Items 6 and 8 of this disclosure document contain other information about advertising. We will provide you with sample ad slicks and you cannot use any advertising or promotional materials unless we approve them. If you want to use advertising materials that you develop, you must submit them to us for approval. (Franchise Agreement, V, D.) On or before January 31 of each year, you must provide us with itemization and proof of advertising and an accounting of the monies that you have spent for approved local advertising for the preceding calendar year (January through December). If you do not spend the minimum 6% amount, you shall pay to us any balance between the 6% required amount and what you actually spent during the year. Additionally, we have the right to designate any geographical area for purposes of establishing a regional advertising and promotional cooperative (“Cooperative”), and to determine whether a Cooperative is applicable to your Franchised Business. You must comply with all guidelines and requirements applicable to the Cooperative, as set forth by us or by the Cooperative itself. (Franchise Agreement, Article V, D.) Currently, there are Cooperatives in the Atlanta, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Phoenix, Charlotte, Dallas, Houston, and Milwaukee markets. We estimate the cost to purchase the computer equipment to range between $2,000 and $10,000. You must also obtain licenses for our proprietary software InspireNet and InspireNet Mobile (see Item 7 and Item 5 for more information as to costs). There is a monthly software access fee and an annual software upgrade fee (see Item 6 for more information on these costs). If we change the minimum requirements for computer hardware or software, you must upgrade your system to meet those new requirements. (Franchise Agreement, Article V, S). There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this requirement. We currently do not have independent access to operational and financial information produced by your computer system, but we may obtain access to this information in the future. We recommend that you use QuickBooks® Pro to track the finances of your business.

Optional Services. We currently provide the following optional services, although we are not obligated to do so under the Franchise Agreement:

Toll Free Help Line. Our Franchise Support Department currently provides and maintains a telephone inquiry line for technical advice, product information, marketing assistance, and other information as franchisees may request in the day-to-day operation of the Franchised Business. This telephone service is free throughout the continental United States and Canada.

Convention. We have an annual convention of franchisees, which you are required to attend. We may charge a reasonable fee and you will pay for your own lodging, meals and transportation to and from location.

Examples of information provided on the FCI Floor-1-1: weekly newsletter, price lists, product updates, FCI manuals, operational forms, marketing support programs and training event calendar. FCI Floor-1-1 also allows each franchisee to participate in “forum discussions” and communicate with FCI and other franchisees via an internal e-mail system.

Site Selection. We require our franchisees to establish a Studio location (office/warehouse). You are solely responsible for selecting a site for your Studio. You must maintain your Studio at a location within your DMA that is approved by us, which approval will be based on your demonstration that the site contains sufficient space to maintain the Studio requirements. You should obtain site approval prior to attending training. We have the right to review, evaluate and approve proposed leases for your Studio prior to execution of the lease. You must deliver to us an executed copy of the lease within 15 calendar days of execution of the Lease. Neither our review of the lease nor our acceptance of the site that you have selected for your Studio constitutes a representation or guarantee that you will succeed at the selected Studio or an expression of our opinion regarding the terms of the lease. Your failure to obtain an appropriate Studio within 60 days of the execution of the Franchise Agreement is considered a breach of the Franchise Agreement and may give rise to termination of the Franchise Agreement by us.

Development Time. Typically, you will be in business as soon as you finish the home study course and successfully complete your FCI Academy training program at our headquarters. Most of our franchisees complete training and are in business within several weeks of signing their franchise agreement. If you enter into an Additional Territory Option Agreement, you must follow the time periods for opening set forth in your Additional Territory Option Agreement.

Item 12

TERRITORY

Franchise Agreement

When you sign the Franchise Agreement, we grant you a protected License for a Designated Market Area (DMA) which corresponds to one or more postal codes and will contain between 50,000 and 80,000 single family dwellings. You may participate in selecting contiguous zip codes to make up the DMA for your License. If the zip codes are not already licensed, and upon FCI's approval, you may purchase the License. You have certain protected rights within the DMA, subject to the terms set forth below, insofar as FCI may not award other Licenses in your DMA and may not operate a company-owned License in your DMA. FCI retains the right to establish itself, or to grant to others the right to establish, FCI businesses outside of your DMA.

So long as you are in compliance with your Franchise Agreement you may advertise, solicit for or provide Franchised Products and Services outside your DMA (but not within another franchisee's DMA) as long as such solicitation and marketing activity is in accordance with FCI's then current standards and procedures. Except as set forth below, you may not advertise or solicit within another franchisee's DMA in any manner including, via targeted online marketing, mailing campaigns, doorhangers, B2B2C marketing and participation in a networking group. You may participate in a home show located within another franchisee's DMA, however any leads generated by participation in a home show outside of your DMA must be referred to the franchisee, if any, that has rights to the DMA within which the lead resides. Any home show lead in an open DMA may be serviced by any franchisee participating in the home show.

Subject to your compliance with the foregoing restriction on advertising and solicitations, you may service clients outside of your DMA, including those located within another franchisee's DMA. FCI reserves the right to revise these standards and procedures from time to time in its sole discretion, and any such changes will be incorporated in the Operations Manual.

FCI also has the right to distribute products using the Proprietary Marks in your DMA in the manner and through other channels of distribution as FCI determines in its sole discretion. These alternative channels of distribution may include home improvement stores, hardware stores, home shows, the internet or mail order. FCI has the sole right as to any distribution arrangements relating to these channels. You have no right: (i) to distribute products through such alternative channels of distribution; or (ii) to share in the distribution proceeds received by any party. In addition, FCI has the exclusive right to negotiate and enter into agreements or approve forms of agreements to provide services to any business which owns, manages, controls or otherwise has responsibility for buildings or common services in more than 10 locations whose presence is not confined within any one franchisee's designated territory (a "National Account"). After FCI signs a contract with a National Account, FCI may, at its option, provide you the opportunity to perform the services under the National Account contract. Qualified franchisees must enter into FCI's then-current form of National Account Lead Referral Program Participation Agreement to receive leads from FCI and provide services to National Account customers. If FCI chooses, or if you choose not to provide services to the National Account, FCI may provide the services directly itself, its affiliate, or through another franchisee or third-party even if the job site is within your DMA without compensation to you. Notwithstanding any restrictions on advertising and soliciting within another franchisee's DMA, you may solicit leads from referral sources that constitute National Accounts as defined above and perform work referred thereby, regardless of where such work is performed.

Further, FCI may offer qualified existing franchisees the right to perform Commercial Services, and any other flooring services not specifically identified as Residential Services above, including but not limited to any business or other commercial building, hotel or academic institution, upon the payment of a one-time, non-refundable Commercial Services Licensing Fee, signing our Commercial Services Addendum, and the completion of our Commercial Training Program and such other conditions as we may require. FCI franchisees operating a commercial services franchise are permitted to offer, sell and perform their Commercial Services in the DMA without compensation to you.

Until you become qualified to perform Commercial Services, you shall have no right to Commercial Services contracts, or any other product or service not specifically defined as Residential Services, within the DMA and FCI or FCI Commercial Services Qualified franchisees may perform Commercial Services contracts within the DMA using FCI's Proprietary Marks. Except as set forth above with respect to certain Residential Services, you acknowledge that FCI may offer and perform, or license other franchisees the right to offer and perform, any approved products and/or services at any location within or outside the DMA under the Proprietary Marks, including but not limited to National Accounts, Commercial Services and any other non-Residential Services or unsolicited Residential Services. For this reason, you will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

From time to time, FCI may establish certain programs for the benefit of its franchisees and the FCI System whereby FCI franchisees will be permitted to offer, sell and perform certain flooring services in accordance with the specifications described in any particular program established by FCI ("Program Services"). Franchisee's participation in any particular program will be subject to the terms and conditions of such program.

To keep your DMA, you must comply with the terms of the Franchise Agreement and satisfy the performance criteria described in Article V.M. You must achieve minimum “Gross Sales” of: $200,000 during the first twelve (12) full or partial months of operation; $300,000 during months thirteen (13) through twenty-four (24) of operations; $400,000 in months twenty-five (25) through thirty-six (36) of operations; and grow by $100,000 or 10% each year thereafter, whichever is greater. The performance criteria in any form of renewal franchise agreement will be based on your previous obligations and not reset to $200,000.

Your territorial rights within the DMA, and your Franchise Agreement, may be terminated if you do not achieve the performance criteria or otherwise breach the terms of the Franchise Agreement. You may relocate your office to a new approved location within the DMA, at your expense, if you lose the right to possess the premises through no fault of your own, or if the office is destroyed by vandalism, fire or act of God. FCI will approve the new site if it meets FCI’s site selection criteria. You have no right to relocate the office without FCI’s prior written consent.

The Franchise Agreement does not give you a right of first refusal or any other right to buy additional Licenses in postal codes contiguous to your DMA, but you may enter into an Additional Territory Option Agreement.

Additional Territory Option Agreement

We grant Additional Territory Option Agreements for the right to own and operate multiple Franchised Businesses in an exclusive designated area (“Option Area”) according to a mandatory development schedule. The geographic size of the Option Area(s) will depend upon the number of Franchised Businesses you and we agree to open. The Option Area(s) will constitute a protected DMA during the term of the Additional Territory Option Agreement, further, you will be provided a DMA per the terms of each Franchise Agreement you sign as set forth herein. If the Additional Territory Option Agreement is terminated, you will have no further rights in or to the Option Area(s).

Each additional Franchise Agreement must be executed per the “Option Schedule” set forth in the Additional Territory Option Agreement, which will specify the number of Franchise Agreements to be signed and the time frames within which they must be signed (24-months from the date of your first franchise agreement unless otherwise agreed). Failure to comply with the Option Schedule, including ceasing to operate Franchised Businesses open during the term of the Additional Territory Option Agreement, will result in termination of the Additional Territory Option Agreement. In the event that you fail to meet the Option Schedule and the Additional Territory Option Agreement is terminated, you will retain your rights to any Franchised Businesses for which you have (a) executed Franchise Agreements; and (b) made all appropriate payments to us.

In order to exercise an option under the Additional Territory Option Agreement, you must: (a) be fully compliant with the terms of the Additional Territory Option Agreement and any other agreements with us, our affiliates, and our approved and designated suppliers, and have complied with those agreements during their respective terms; (b) not be in default of any Franchise Agreements you enter into during the term of your Additional Territory Option Agreement; and (c) have satisfied all monetary obligations you owe to us or our affiliates and approved vendors. In addition, you must have averaged 10 customer proposals per week (“PPW”) in 8 of the last 12 weeks leading up to your 24th months of business in order to exercise the option for an additional Franchised Business and 15 PPW in 8 of the last 12 weeks leading up to your 24th month of business in order to exercise an option for a second additional Franchised Business. We will require you to sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement for each Franchise Agreement to be executed under an Additional Territory Option Agreement.

If you execute an Additional Territory Option Agreement, the minimum performance criteria described in Article V.M. is modified during the term of the Additional Territory Option Agreement to match the number of territory options you obtained under the Additional Territory Option Agreement, such that the minimum “Gross Sales” required each year are multiplied by the number of territory options. The performance criteria in any subsequent Franchise Agreement entered into under an Additional Territory Option Agreement will reflect operations as beginning on the date the first Franchised Business commenced operations. If an option is not exercised, the minimum performance criteria in any existing Franchise Agreement(s) will be revised to reflect the number of Franchise Agreements that were executed.

Item 18

PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise.

Item 19

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is any reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial information that differs from that included in Item 19 may only be given if (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Background

This Item sets forth certain historical data submitted by our franchisees. As set forth in each table below, this Item discloses certain information for each of the Reporting Franchisees, and not for discrete businesses or territories. Some Reporting Franchisees may own more than one business and/or operate in more than one territory. Written substantiation of the data used in preparing this information will be made available upon reasonable request. We have not audited this information, nor independently verified this information. The information is for the period of January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2022 (the "Measurement Period"). This Item presents certain information for our 149 US franchisees that were open for the full measurement period, and excludes information from 63 franchisees that were not open for the full measurement period, as well as 3 franchisees that (i) do not report using our current standard software, or use it inconsistently, and thus for whom we do not have complete sales data, or (ii) do not operate the franchise as a full time venture.

Gross Revenue Produced, Gross Revenue Landed and Average Job Information

This Table presents the Gross Revenue Produced, Gross Revenue Landed and certain Job Information as reported to us by our 109 U.S. franchisees that were open and operating for more than 24 months as of December 31, 2022, and for whom we have complete sales data (the “Reporting Franchisees”). This table excludes franchises (a) who had not been open and operating for a full 24 months as of December 31, 2022, (b) for whom we do not have complete sales data, and (c) that do not operate the franchise as a full-time venture. For the purposes of this Item 19, a franchisee is deemed to have operated less than full time if the franchisee was not operating for at least one full calendar month during the Measurement Period. Data for startup Franchisees who were not open and operating for a full 24 months as of December 31, 2022, was excluded from this Table. The following table presents the average Gross Revenue Produced, Gross Revenue Landed and certain Job Information for the 109 Reporting Franchisees during the Measurement Period. We have broken down the data into five groups (each, a “Group”) based on the Reporting Franchisees’ Gross Revenue Produced, as further described below.

Notes:

1. Gross Revenue Produced is defined as a franchisee’s total sales invoices or other items or services billed to the customer for all “Completed Sales”, less discounts, cancellations or returns by FCI. Sales of products and services are deemed to be Completed Sales for purposes of reporting to FCI when the franchisee completes the final installation of all products or services sold to the customer.

2. Gross Revenue Landed is defined as Gross Revenue Produced (except as set forth below), plus the total sales invoices or services billed to customers for all ongoing jobs where franchisee has not yet completed final installation but has been engaged by the customer and has begun to provide the products and services requested. Specifically omitted from Gross Revenue Landed is any amount of Gross Revenue Produced from the provision of products or services which were ordered, invoiced or first billed for during the preceding calendar year (2021).

3. The Average Gross Revenue Produced and Gross Revenue Landed for each Group is defined as the sum of the Gross Revenue Produced/Landed of the Reporting Franchisees in each Group divided by the number of Reporting Franchisees in each Group.

4. Leads are all inquiries that the franchisee received from potential customers to provide the approved products and services.

5. Proposals is the number of estimates, bids and other proposals generated and delivered by a franchisee to provide products and/or services to customers.

6. Average Job Size is defined as the total Gross Revenue Produced of all jobs in each operating category divided by the number of jobs performed by franchisees in each operating category.

7. Average Success Rate is the average percentage of jobs landed over the number of first proposals.

8. Average Slippage Rate is the average percentage of Proposals over the number of Leads.

9. Gross Margin is the percentage of profit in the jobs performed by franchisees, which is calculated by subtracting product and installation costs from revenue, dividing the result by revenue, and converting into a percentage.

10. As of December 31, 2022, twelve (12) Reporting Franchisees operated in two (2) or more discrete territories, and over one hundred (100) franchisees operate outside of their territories in areas that in many cases are as large as, or larger than, the total area served by franchisees operating in two separate territories. In addition, almost all of the Reporting Franchisees were awarded DMAs that are larger than a single unit’s DMA offered in this disclosure document. The smallest Reporting Franchisee DMA was 29,577 single family homes and the largest was 615,246 single family homes. The average was 175,855 and the median DMA was 150,934 single family homes. 41 of the 109 Reporting Franchisees had DMA’s larger than the average (38%).

The following table presents the Average Job Size, Success Rate, Slippage Rate, and Gross Margin for 40 of our franchisees open less than two years but more than one year, and 109 of our franchisees open and operating for more than two years, as of December 31, 2022, that reported data in these categories to us. This table excludes franchises (a) who had not been open and operating for a full year as of December 31, 2022, (b) for franchisees who do not report using our current standard software, or use it inconsistently, and thus for whom we do not have complete sales data, and (c) that do not operate the franchise as a full-time venture.

FLOOR COVERINGS INTERNATIONAL®
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and between Floorcoverings International, Ltd., a Georgia corporation (“FCI”), whose address is 5390 Triangle Parkway, Suite 125, Norcross, Georgia 30092 and the Franchisee identified in the Data Sheet (“You”). The information contained in the Data Sheet is incorporated into this Agreement.

BACKGROUND

A. Through the expenditure of money, time and effort, FCI has developed a distinct and proprietary business format for the operation of a professional business for the marketing of carpeting, window treatments and all other hard and soft floor covering products and any other products and services that FCI may designate in the future (the “System”), the distinguishing characteristics of which include proprietary operating procedures and standards and specifications for products and services, as amended from time to time in FCI’s sole discretion.

B. The System is identified by proprietary trademarks, service marks, trade dress, logos and other indicia of origin including, without limitation, the trade name and service marks: “Floor Coverings International”; “Floor Coverings International/The Flooring Store at Your Door”; and “FCI” (collectively the “Proprietary Marks”).

C. FCI offers franchises to qualified individuals for the right to use the System and Proprietary Marks within designated territories (the “Business”).

D. You have applied to FCI for the right to operate a Business pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and FCI has approved your application in reliance upon all of the representations made in your application, including those concerning your financial resources, your business experience and interests, and the manner in which the franchise will be owned and operated.

E. You acknowledge that you have read this Agreement and FCI's Franchise Disclosure Document, and that you have been given an opportunity to obtain clarification of any provision that you did not understand. You also understand and agree that the terms and conditions in this Agreement are necessary to maintain FCI's high standards of quality and service, and the uniformity of those standards at all FCI Businesses.

AGREEMENT

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE I: GRANT OF RIGHT

A. Grant. FCI grants to you, and you hereby accept, a non-exclusive franchise to establish and operate one Business pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, you may only offer, sell and/or perform the following: carpeting, window treatments, painting and ancillary repair work, hard and soft floor covering products (the “Authorized Services”) in (i) residential dwellings that contain less than five (5) units/apartments or condominiums, (ii) individual residential apartments or condominiums, (iii) single family homes, (iv) townhomes, or (v) light commercial services defined as commercial office space of less than 5,000 square feet (collectively, “Residential Services”); provided, however, such Residential Services shall not be performed for (a) any National Account customers, as defined in Article I.D, and (b) any contracts that exceed $50,000 in the aggregate for any one particular job. This Agreement does not grant you the right to establish additional Businesses.

B. Designated Marketing Area. You shall operate your Business only within the designated marketing area (“DMA”) identified in, or (if the parties have not agreed upon a DMA at the time this Agreement is signed) to be identified, in the Data Sheet and DMA Addendum attached as Exhibit A-1 (the “Designated Territory”). You may not advertise or solicit clients or leads, except through National Account lead referral sources, within another franchisee’s DMA unless such solicitation or marketing activity is in accordance with FCI’s then current standards and procedures. Subject to the policies and procedures set forth in the Operations Manual, you may be permitted to provide services to customers located in an open DMA. Commercial Services Qualified Franchisees may advertise and market Commercial Services through the development of personal contacts and calls to prospective customers but FCI, through the Brand Fund or otherwise, has the sole and exclusive right to advertise and/or market Commercial Services through broadcast media, national publications or trade shows. During the term of this Agreement, so long as you are in substantial compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, FCI will not establish or locate, or grant any third party the right to establish or locate, another FCI Business offering or performing Residential Services using the System and Proprietary Marks within the DMA, except as set forth in Article I.D. and I.E. below. You acknowledge and agree that other franchisees may provide Residential or Commercial Services within your DMA, subject to such franchisee’s compliance with FCI’s policies restricting advertisements and solicitations. This Agreement does not grant you any other territorial rights.

C. Reservation of Rights and Alternative Channels of Distribution. FCI retains the right to establish itself, or to grant others the right to establish, FCI Businesses outside the DMA. You acknowledge and agree that certain of FCI’s or its affiliates’ products, whether now existing or developed in the future, may be distributed in the DMA by FCI, its affiliates, its franchisees, licensees or designees, in such manner and through such channels of distribution as FCI, in its sole discretion, shall determine. Such alternative channels of distribution shall include, but are not limited to, sales of any products offered hereunder using the Proprietary Marks through the Internet or mail order. FCI reserves the right, among others, as to any distribution arrangements relating thereto. You understand that this Agreement grants you no rights: (i) to distribute such products as described in this section; or (ii) to share in any of the proceeds received by any such party therefrom.

D. National Accounts. The term National Account means any entity, customer, contract, or business which on its own behalf or through agents, franchisees or other third parties owns, manages, controls or otherwise has responsibility for 10 or more businesses whose presence is not confined within any one particular designated DMA.

1. FCI shall have the exclusive right, unless otherwise specifically delegated in writing, on behalf of itself, you, and/or other franchisees utilizing the Proprietary Marks, to negotiate and enter into agreements or approve forms of agreement to provide services to National Account customers, licensees or franchisees including locations within the DMA. Franchisee may not solicit or service any entity, customer, contract or site that is a National Account, as defined in the Franchise Agreement, whether within or outside the DMA, without FCI’s prior written approval, which may be conditioned on such terms and conditions as FCI deems fit in its sole discretion, including FCI’s right to exclusively negotiate the terms of any National Account, set additional training requirements and set the fees due FCI for services rendered in connection with any National Account contract.

2. Following the execution of a contract with or the acceptance of a bid by a National Account customer which contemplates the provision of services to one or more National Account customer location within the DMA, FCI may, at its option, provide you the option to perform such services pursuant to the terms and conditions of the National Account contract or on such terms and conditions as FCI in its discretion determines. In order to service any National Account customers, you must enter into FCI’s then-current form of National Account participation agreement, the terms of which will govern all National Account work.

3. If FCI so chooses, or if you elect not to provide services to a National Account customer in conformity with the terms and conditions of the National Account bid or contract, FCI shall have the right, exercisable in its sole discretion, to:

i. provide, directly or through any other licensee or franchisee utilizing the

Proprietary Marks, services to the National Account customer location(s) within the DMA on the terms and conditions contained in the National Account bid or contract; and/or

ii. contract with another party to provide such services to the National Account customer location(s) within the DMA on the terms and conditions contained in the National Account bid or contract between FCI and the National Account customer, utilizing the Proprietary Marks or any other trademarks, service marks or trade names.

4. Neither the direct provision by FCI (or a franchisee, licensee, or agent of FCI) of services to National Account customers as authorized in Article I.D(3)(i) above, nor FCI's contracting with another party to provide such services as authorized Article I.D(3)(ii) above, shall constitute a violation of Article I.B of this Agreement relating to the DMA. You disclaim any compensation or consideration for work performed by others in the DMA pursuant to this section.

E. Commercial Services. The term Commercial Services means any particular residential job in which the total aggregate contract amount exceeds $50,000, whether or not it also constitutes a National Account as defined above, and any other flooring services not specifically identified as Residential Services above, including but not limited to any business or other commercial building, hotel or academic institution. In addition, Commercial Services include those jobs in which the total aggregate contract amount is less than $50,000, when the franchisee is performing the Authorized Services (i) in a nonresidential structure or nonresidential leasehold except for commercial office space of less than 5,000 square feet which is defined above as Residential Services; (ii) in a residential dwelling that contains more than five (5) units/apartments; (iii) as an extension of a job that originated in Franchisee's DMA; and (iv) for a Commercial Account. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Commercial Account" means any entity, customer or contract or business which on its own behalf or through agents, franchisees or other third parties owns, manages, controls or otherwise has responsibility for between 2 and 9 businesses whose presence is not confined within any one DMA.

1. Franchisee, upon payment to FCI of the then current one time non-refundable Commercial Services Licensing Fee, execution of FCI's Commercial Services Addendum and completion of FCI's Commercial Services Training Program and such other requirements as FCI from time to time may require, will be authorized to offer, sell and perform Commercial Services ("Commercial Services Qualified") for any entity, customer, contract or business, exclusive of a National Account anywhere within the United States, including Franchisee's DMA and the DMA or other franchisees, including the DMA of other Commercial Services Qualified franchisees. Accordingly, Franchisee acknowledges that other Commercial Services Qualified franchisees may perform Commercial Services within Franchisee's DMA using FCI's Proprietary Marks.

2. Franchisee acknowledges and expressly understands and agrees that until such time as Franchisee becomes Commercial Services Qualified, Franchisee shall have no right to Commercial Services contracts, or any other product or service not specifically defined as Residential Services, within the DMA and FCI or FCI Commercial Services Qualified franchisees may perform Commercial Services contracts within the DMA using FCI's Proprietary Marks. Except for Residential Services, Franchisee acknowledges that FCI may offer and perform, or license other franchisees the right to offer and perform, any approved products and/or services at any location within or outside the DMA under the Proprietary Marks, including but not limited to National Accounts, Commercial Services and any other non-Residential Services. You disclaim any compensation or consideration for work performed by others in the DMA pursuant to this section.

3. In cases where the Commercial Services are to be performed outside of Franchisee's DMA, Franchisee must, prior to accepting such work, notify FCI in writing and submit a written proposal describing the work Franchisee wishes to perform and the location of the job site, if applicable, and then obtain FCI's written consent to perform such work, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. Franchisee acknowledges that certain FCI system franchisees have DMAs which provide for exclusive territories that would prohibit Franchisee from performing Commercial Services within their DMA and that FCI may withhold its consent for Franchisee to perform such work as a result.

F. Program Services. From time to time, FCI may establish certain programs for the benefit of its franchisees and the FCI System whereby FCI franchisees will be permitted to offer, sell and perform certain flooring services in accordance with the specifications described in any particular program established by FCI from time to time. Franchisee's participation in any particular program will be subject to the terms and conditions of such program.

ARTICLE II: TERM AND RENEWAL

A. Initial Term. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the term of this Agreement shall be for a period of ten (10) years from the effective date hereof, as indicated on the Data Sheet. If this Agreement is executed as an Additional Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, then the term of this Agreement shall be deemed to have commenced with the effective date of the first franchise agreement and will run concurrent with it.

B. Renewal. You will have the right to renew its License for the Business for two additional five (5) year terms, provided you meets the following conditions:

1. You shall have delivered to FCI written notice, at least ninety (90) days, but not more than one hundred eighty (180) days, before the expiration of the term of this Agreement, of your election to renew;

2. You shall execute FCI's then current form of Franchise Agreement. The then current form of Franchise Agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and terms, and may contain commitments and obligations that differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, an increased Continuing Royalty or Brand Fund contribution;

3. You shall execute a general release in a format designated by FCI;

4. You must not be in default of any of your obligations to FCI;

5. As of the date of renewal, you must be in possession of all required vehicles, equipment, floorcovering samples, window treatment samples and other items required for operation of the Business, and all such items must conform to or comply with FCI's then current standards, specifications and requirements;

6. You and your employees must successfully complete any additional or refresher training then required by FCI; and

7. You must pay FCI a renewal fee in the amount of $2,500.

ARTICLE III: INITIAL AND CONTINUING FEES

A. Initial Franchise Fee. In consideration of the rights granted to you under this Agreement, you agree to pay to FCI an Initial Franchise Fee equal to Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) for a DMA ranging from 50,000 to 80,000 single family dwellings. If this Agreement is executed as an Additional Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, no Initial Franchise Fee will be charged.

The Initial Franchise Fee is payable at the time of the execution of this Agreement and are fully earned and nonrefundable upon payment, regardless of whether this Agreement is subsequently terminated, and is not contingent or conditioned on our performance of any pre-opening obligations. If you are a veteran that qualifies for the VetFran Program, your Initial Franchise Fee will be discounted by ten percent (10%).

B. Continuing Royalty Fees.

1. In addition to the Initial Franchise Fee and Territory Fee (if applicable), you shall pay FCI a monthly continuing royalty fee in an amount equal to: (a) five percent (5%) of Gross Sales or (b) a minimum of $833 per month in your first twelve (12) months of operations (whole or partial), $1,250 per month for months thirteen (13) through twenty four (24) of operations, or $1,667 per month thereafter (“Continuing Royalty Fee”). If this Agreement is executed as the First Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, the minimum Continuing Royalty Fee is modified during the term of the Additional Territory Option Agreement to match the number of options you obtained under the Additional Territory Option Agreement, such that the minimum Continuing Royalty Fee required each month is multiplied by the number of options. If an option is not exercised, the minimum Continuing Royalty Fee in this Agreement is modified to reflect the number of Franchise Agreements that were executed under the Additional Territory Option Agreement. If this Agreement is an Additional Franchise Agreement, under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, the minimum Continuing Royalty Fee set forth herein begins on the date that the first Business commenced operations.

2. “Gross Sales,” as used in this Agreement, shall be defined as the total of your sales invoices or other items or services billed to the customer for all “Completed Sales” during a given month, less any discounts, cancellations or returns allowed by FCI. In the event that Franchisee participates in any discount promotion, including but not limited to Groupon or similar sales promotions, Gross Sales will include the full retail value of the goods or services rendered to the customer before any discounts or commissions. Sales of products and services shall be deemed to be “Completed Sales” for purposes of reporting and payment to FCI when you complete the final installation of all products and/or services sold to the customer. Continuing Royalty Fees shall be payable on a monthly basis on all Completed Sales made by you during the preceding calendar month and shall be submitted to FCI with all sales reports and documentation required by FCI. Continuing Royalty Fees and all required sales reports and other documentation FCI prescribes must be received by FCI no later than the ninth (9th) day of each month for all Completed Sales during the preceding calendar month.

3. Your failure to pay monthly Continuing Royalty Fees to FCI within five (5) business days of the due date for such payment shall be a material breach of this Agreement.

4. Except as prohibited by applicable local, state, or federal laws, FCI reserves the right to apply any amount FCI receives from or on behalf of you first to Continuing Royalty Fees, and then to B.F. Contributions (as defined below), then due and owing. FCI also reserves the right to require you to sign a security agreement or other documents that allow FCI to hold a security interest in the payment obligations you owe to FCI.

5. The monthly period for determining Continuing Royalty Fee calculations and payments shall be defined as the calendar month.

C. Brand Fund Contribution.

1. In addition to the other fees and charges provided herein, you shall pay to FCI a Brand Fund Contribution (the “B.F. Contribution”) in an amount equal to three percent (3%) of Gross Sales.

2. The terms and conditions applicable to your payment of B.F. Contributions shall be as set forth in Article III.B.

3. FCI shall have the right to spend Brand Fund monies, as it deems appropriate on any activities intended to build the strength of the FCI brand, including national, regional, or local media or other market techniques or programs designed to communicate the services of Floor Coverings International franchisees to the public, as well as on technology or other programs that improve the quality of the services provided to FCI customers. In addition, FCI may spend Brand Fund monies for market research and development, public relations programs, test or target marketing, the conducting of surveys, brand development and promotion, consulting and other related services to train franchisees on marketing or other brand-building techniques, creative and production costs, merchandising and merchandising program development, development and implementation of new technology, reimbursement to FCI for reasonable accounting, administrative (including the actual cost of salaries and benefits paid to FCI employees engaged in administration of the Brand Fund), and legal expenses associated with the Brand Fund, or for other purposes deemed appropriate by FCI to enhance and promote the general recognition of the Floor Coverings International System and Floor Coverings International Proprietary Marks.

4. FCI has the sole right to determine and budget the specific use of the Brand Fund for the purposes set forth herein. You acknowledge that Brand Fund monies may be expended by FCI in any territory (national, regional, or local) without any requirement that any amount be expended for advertising in your DMA or that any expenditures from the Brand Fund be apportioned based on the amount of your B.F. Contributions, or by other formula or system. FCI shall in no event be deemed a fiduciary of you for or with respect to the Brand Fund or any other aspects of the System.

5. Franchisee agrees that any inquiries that FCI receives from potential customers for Commercial Services as a result of such promotion and marketing efforts (the "Leads") may be distributed by FCI to any Commercial Services Qualified franchisees in accordance with the FCI's policy regarding the distribution of Leads, as such policy may be amended from time to time. FCI does not represent or warrant that it will distribute any minimum number of Leads to you and you disclaim any right to receive compensation or consideration for any Lead or work performed by other Commercial Services Qualified franchisees pursuant to the FCI's Lead policy and Franchisee waives any claims in connection with the distribution of Leads and any compensation or consideration arising out of those Leads.

D. Dishonored Check Fee. FCI may charge you a fee of $25.00 for each check issued to FCI by you for monthly Continuing Royalty Fees, B.F. Contributions or other fees or payments due to FCI pursuant to this Agreement ("Payments"), which is dishonored by the financial institution on which the check is drawn.

E. Late Fee; Interest Charges. FCI may charge you a fee of $25.00 for each Monthly Report you are required to submit to FCI that is not postmarked by the ninth (9th) day of the month in which it is due. In addition to any late fee, you shall pay FCI interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1½%) per month or the maximum rate allowed under applicable law, whichever is less, on all past due Payments from the date due until the date payment in full is received by FCI.

F. Opening Package. You shall, no later than thirty (30) days prior to attending FCI Academy, pay FCI the then-current sum for the "Opening Package" of goods and services described in FCI's Franchise Disclosure Document.

G. Payments by Direct Bank Transfer. FCI shall have the right to require that you make all Payments by direct electronic bank transfer of funds ("Direct Transfer"). You will, from time to time during the term of this Agreement, execute such documents as may reasonably be required by FCI, FCI's bank or your bank to provide your authority and direction to its bank authorizing Direct Transfers. Such authorizations will permit FCI to designate the amount to be drafted or transferred from your account and to adjust such amount from time to time to the amount of the Payments due from you. If you fail at any time to provide required sales reports to FCI, FCI may debit your bank account for the same amount as the most recent debit to your bank account that was based on actual Gross Sales provided by you. You will, at all times during the term of this Agreement, maintain a balance in your bank account sufficient to allow the appropriate amount to be debited from your account for the Payments due to FCI.

ARTICLE IV: OBLIGATIONS OF FCI

A. Designated Marketing Area (DMA). FCI shall designate the marketing area which will serve as your DMA.

FCI shall provide initial FCI Academy training for you (or your principal shareholder or owner) and one other individual who is one of your principals or employees. FCI reserves the right to charge its then-current training fee for each additional individual requiring training on your behalf. The cost of FCI Academy training is included in the Initial Franchise Fee. You will be responsible, however, for all travel, lodging and related expenses incurred by your personnel in connection with attending the FCI Academy training.

E. On-going Training. In addition to the FCI Academy training, FCI shall make available to you additional training in marketing, sales, advertising, product selection, operational procedures and financial administration. The ultimate form, content and extent of the training, programs, and assistance shall be determined by FCI.

F. Operations and Marketing Updates. FCI shall, from time to time, update information and revise operations and marketing materials as new and improved products, methods, systems, and procedures are adopted for use in the FCI System.

G. Approved Suppliers. FCI shall provide approved suppliers and vendors of products, equipment, supplies and services for use and resale in connection with the operation of the Business.

H. Advertising Approval. FCI shall review all advertising materials submitted by you and shall approve or deny use of such advertising materials at FCI’s sole discretion.

ARTICLE V: FRANCHISEE’S OBLIGATIONS

A. Promotion. You shall use your best efforts throughout the entire term of this Agreement to actively promote the Products and Services within the DMA, and to maintain and enhance whenever possible Floor Coverings International business relations, goodwill, and reputation with customers, suppliers, and others.

B. Use, Display and Ownership of Proprietary Marks.

1. You shall use and display the Proprietary Marks on all signage and printed materials used in connection with the Business. You shall use and display the Proprietary Marks only in the form and manner specified by FCI in or on any advertising, telephone listings, publicity, sales promotions, signs, the FCI Vehicle, letterhead, stationery, image apparel, or other materials used in connection with the Business.

You shall only use the Proprietary Marks in connection with operating the Business and shall not use any Proprietary Marks in whole or in part for any purpose or in conjunction with any product, service or business not designated by FCI as part of the System.

2. You acknowledge and agree that the Proprietary Marks and the System licensed hereunder are owned exclusively by FCI and except for the limited rights of use expressly provided in this Agreement, you acquire no right, title, or interest therein.

3. You acknowledge that any and all goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks and the System inures exclusively to the benefit of FCI. Upon termination of this Agreement, no monetary amount shall be attributable to you for any goodwill associated with your use of the System or the Proprietary Marks.

4. You shall not attempt to file or register any of the Proprietary Marks, in whole or in part, in your own name or the name of any other person, firm, association, or corporation, nor shall you use any of the Proprietary Marks, in whole or in part, as a part of a corporate or partnership name. You will not use or register any of the Proprietary Marks, in whole or in part, as an e-mail address or Internet domain name.

5. You shall not, during the term of this Agreement and after termination or expiration of this Agreement, contest or dispute the validity, enforceability or ownership of the Proprietary Marks or the System or take any actions that might dilute the goodwill associated therewith.

6. You shall immediately notify FCI upon becoming aware of any unauthorized use of or legal action involving the Proprietary Marks or the System and shall cooperate in FCI's prosecution or defense of any such action. FCI shall defend you in any infringement action in which you are named as a defendant solely because the plaintiff or claimant alleges that you does not have the right to use the Proprietary Marks or the System, provided that you has at all times used the Proprietary Marks and System in accordance with FCI's requirements and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and provided further that you has tendered defense of the action to FCI within seven (7) days of your receipt of a summons and complaint in the action.

C. Initial Advertising Obligation. You shall spend at least Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000) but may be required by us to spend up to Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000), in FCI-approved local advertising within a four-month period following your completion of the FCI Academy training program. You must spend at least $25,000 of this obligation prior to opening as FCI may direct. You will use FCI's designated vendor and FCI's approved local advertising plan in conducting such local advertising for your Business. If this Agreement is executed as an Additional Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, no further initial advertising obligation is required.

D. Required Local Expenditures: Approved Advertising. You must use your best efforts to advertise the Business in the DMA and participate in any local marketing and promotional programs FCI establishes from time to time. In addition to the B.F. Contribution and the $40,000 to $60,000 initial advertising obligation, you are required to spend a minimum amount equal to six percent (6%) of Gross Sales on approved local marketing and promotion in the DMA. On or before January 31 of each year, you must provide FCI with itemization and proof of advertising and an accounting of the monies that you have spent for approved local advertising for the preceding calendar year (January through December). If you do not spend the minimum 6% amount, you shall pay to FCI any balance between the 6% required amount and what you actually spent during the year. This payment is due on or before January 31, and FCI may spend the monies in any way it desires. You shall use only FCI approved advertising in any media placement, promotion or solicitation materials employed by the Business. If you desire to publish any sales, advertising or promotional materials other than as described in Article V.C. (for which you must use FCI's approved local advertising vendor and plan), you shall obtain FCI's written consent at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of each such publication. FCI's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Additionally, FCI shall have the right to designate any geographical area for purposes of establishing a regional advertising and promotional cooperative (“Cooperative”), and to determine whether a Cooperative is applicable to your Business. If a Cooperative has been established applicable to your Business at the time you begin operating under this Agreement, you must immediately become a member of such Cooperative and make the required contribution to the Cooperative’s fund. If a Cooperative applicable to your Business is established at any later time during the term of this Agreement, you must become a member of such Cooperative no later than thirty (30) days after the date on which the Cooperative begins operation. You must comply with all guidelines and requirements applicable to the Cooperative, as set forth by FCI or by the Cooperative itself. FCI may require a Cooperative to be formed, changed, dissolved, or merged in its sole and absolute discretion.

E. FCI Vehicle. You shall acquire and maintain a FCI vehicle meeting FCI’s specifications (“FCI Vehicle”), that may change from time to time, suitable for carrying samples to the customer’s home or business; shall maintain the FCI Vehicle according to the standards established by FCI from time to time. You shall, from time to time, upon the request of FCI, submit documentation to FCI concerning the exterior condition of your FCI Vehicle. Such documentation shall consist of four photographs taken within two (2) weeks of submission, one of each view (front, rear, and sides) of the FCI Vehicle. If FCI deems that the FCI Vehicle is not in good physical appearance and condition, FCI shall promptly notify you of the requirement to purchase an FCI Vehicle that meets FCI standards and specifications. FCI shall not unreasonably deny consent to the use of a vehicle. If this Agreement is executed as an Additional Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, an additional Vehicle is not required, but you must have sufficient Vehicles to meet customer demand or otherwise as FCI requires in the Operations Manual.

F. Customer Relations and Refund Policies; Customer Information. You shall comply with all customer relations, guarantee and refund policies, which may be established from time to time by FCI in writing. You shall not issue any product or service guarantees except for manufacturers’ guarantees and any guarantees prescribed by FCI. You must provide FCI with an up-to-date customer list, copies of customer sales invoices, and work order information in the form FCI prescribes, including, but not limited to, FCI’s intranet or required software, as further described in Article V.T. FCI has the right to contact the customers to ascertain your quality of work and the level of customer satisfaction. FCI owns the customer lists and accounts and licenses you to use them during the term of this Agreement. You may not use the customer lists or account information for any purpose whatsoever other than in the normal conduct of the Business.

G. Publicity. You agree to allow FCI to use your name and photographic likeness of any type, including film, video tape, or photograph, in publicity of the System, without compensation to you.

H. Location.

1. You must, at your expense, provide the premises where the Business will be located. You must operate the Business out of an office space, and FCI must consent to your office location. Your office must be located in the DMA. The office (including any showroom that you establish) must be maintained and operated in accordance with the specifications and standards that FCI establishes periodically pertaining to signage, fixtures, accessory features and design and layout. You are solely responsible for obtaining all necessary permits and/or licenses for the location. You must not use the office and showroom premises for any purpose other than the operation of the Business without FCI’s prior written approval. If this Agreement is executed as an Additional Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, you will not be required to open or maintain additional office space, but you must open any showrooms as may otherwise be required by FCI in the Operations Manual.

2. Within 60 days of the execution of this Agreement, and we suggest prior to attending training, you shall obtain a site from which to maintain your office within your DMA by (i) entering into a lease or sublease with the owner of a site or the prime tenant having possession of a site which is mutually acceptable to you and FCI; or (ii) purchasing real estate which is mutually acceptable to you and FCI. Upon location of a proposed site, you must provide FCI such site information as FCI may reasonably request to evaluate the proposed site for compliance with FCI’s then-current site selection criteria. FCI will notify you of its acceptance or rejection of the proposed site within 30 days after receiving all requested information. FCI's acceptance of a site does not constitute any representation or guarantee concerning the site's viability or success. You are solely responsible for selecting a site for the operation of your Business. You must deliver to us an executed copy of the lease within 15 calendar days of execution of the lease.

3. FCI will permit you to relocate your office to a new approved location within the DMA, at your expense, if you lose the right to possess the premises through no fault of your own, or if the office is destroyed by vandalism, fire or act of God. FCI will approve the new site if it meets FCI's site selection criteria. You have no right to relocate the office without FCI's prior written consent.

I. Confidentiality. You shall not directly or indirectly reveal the contents of any portion of the System, trade secrets, manual, home study program, training manual, bulletin, Business, promotional plan, newsletter, report or publication except to your employees who require such information to fulfill their duties and have signed a Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement in the form attached to this Agreement before receiving any such information.

J. Training and Certification.

1. You shall successfully complete the FCI Academy training program and receive from FCI competency certification prior to providing any Products and Services or otherwise operating the Business. You and your employees, partners or agents who provide Products and Services shall participate in such further training as FCI may require from time to time to maintain FCI's standards in connection with the operation of the Business.

2. You must participate annually in (i) any training or consultation with an FCI Franchise Support Manager as FCI may determine; (ii) at least one (1) regional training session that FCI holds for franchisees; and (iii) FCI's annual franchise convention. FCI may charge a reasonable fee for the regional training and convention.

K. Authorized Products and Services and Approved Suppliers. You must offer all authorized products and services and only those products and services that FCI specifies. FCI has the right to require you to purchase or lease any products including, without limitation, supplies, inventory items and equipment from designated or approved suppliers as well as to enter into service agreements with approved vendors (the "Authorized Products and Services"). FCI has the right to add, eliminate, modify and substitute any of the Authorized Products and Services or the designated suppliers in its sole discretion. If you wish to offer any product or service that FCI has not authorized or to acquire items or services from an unapproved supplier, you must request FCI's approval in writing and provide FCI all information it may reasonably need to evaluate the proposed product, service or supplier. FCI will make a good faith effort to notify you of its approval within 15 days of receiving such information. FCI's failure to approve a product, service or supplier within this 15-day period will constitute disapproval of the proposed product, service or supplier. If FCI approves your request to offer a new product or service or to acquire items from a new supplier, such approval will be only for the specific product, service or supplier for which approval was granted.

L. Compliance with Standards and Specifications. The Business shall at all times emulate the image intended for the System including, without limitation, its high standards of quality, cleanliness, convenience and courteous services. You shall comply with all of FCI's standards and specifications for, among other things, inventory, supplies, equipment and Business appearance, as they are disclosed to you in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. You shall purchase and place or erect, at your expense, all signs and interior and exterior graphics and only such signs and interior and exterior graphics, as well as vehicle signage, as FCI may from time to time prescribe for use by System franchisees.

M. Minimum Performance Standards. You shall use your full-time best efforts in promoting the Floor Coverings International Products and Services within the DMA. You make this commitment with the understanding that the application of your best efforts is required for the benefit of you as well as the entire Floor Coverings International franchise network. You must achieve minimum Gross Sales of: $200,000 during the first twelve (12) full or partial months of operation; $300,000 during months thirteen (13) through twenty four (24) of operations; $400,000 in months twenty five (25) through thirty six (36) of operations; and by $100,000 from the prior base year's minimum or 10%, whichever is greater, each year thereafter (by way of example, the minimum performance criteria in your 6th year of business will be the greater of $700,000 or a 10% increase over your 5th year Gross Sales, whichever is greater). Upon any renewal of the franchise, your minimum performance standard will be based on your previous obligations and not reset to $200,000.

If this Agreement is executed as the First Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, the minimum performance criteria described in this Article V.M. is modified during the term of the Additional Territory Option Agreement to match the number of options you obtained under the Additional Territory Option Agreement, such that the minimum "Gross Sales" required each year are multiplied by the number of options. If an option is not exercised, the minimum performance criteria in this Agreement is modified to reflect the number of Franchise Agreements that were executed under the Additional Territory Option Agreement. If this Agreement is an Additional Franchise Agreement, under an Additional Territory Option Agreement, the minimum performance criteria in set forth in this Article V.M. shall reflect the date that the first Business commenced operations.

N. Insurance. You shall obtain and maintain at your sole cost and expense, and keep in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement, commercial vehicle, and comprehensive general liability insurance in the amount of $1,000,000 each with respect to your Business operations, with FCI as additional named insured. The insurance carrier must be licensed in the State or Province in which the Business is located and must carry a rating of A+ or better by A.M. Best Co. FCI shall have the opportunity to approve the insurance carrier. You shall provide FCI with certificates of insurance within thirty (30) days of the opening of your Business, or at any other time thereafter as FCI may request. Further, you shall procure and maintain workers' compensation insurance coverage for all employees in accordance with applicable state law requirements.

O. Telephone Line Requirements; Central Telephone Service. You shall use two (2) telephone lines dedicated exclusively to the operation of the Business and answered "Floor Coverings International." You shall maintain a receptionist or answering service at all times during normal business hours (9-5). You shall have a telephone voice mail system for non-business hours. You shall participate in, and share with other Floor Coverings International franchisees the proportionate costs (including, but not limited to, telephone line charges, answering services, Yellow Pages advertising and listings, general advertising and clerical costs associated with the collection and distribution of all telephone messages), of a central telephone service. Applicability and timing of the initial installation of the central telephone service shall be at the sole discretion of FCI.

P. Personnel Management. You shall be solely responsible for properly training your employees (which shall include the obligation to send employees to FCI mandated training programs), providing your employees with FCI approved image apparel, and complying with all applicable federal, state, and local laws regulating your work force. You shall pay all contributions, taxes, and assessments on payrolls or other charges under all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including withholding from wages from your employees where required. You shall comply with all federal, state, local laws and regulations regarding compensation, hours of work or other conditions of employment including, but not limited to, all laws and regulations regarding minimum compensation, overtime pay, Title VII, equal employment opportunities or any other similar requirements.

Q. Product Sample Updates. You shall, at your expense, update your product samples and carpet sample boards as and when directed by FCI and shall at all times maintain a set of all product samples, as designated by FCI, which represents the complete then current FCI line of floor covering and window treatment products.

R. Post Office Changes to DMA. You shall notify FCI within one (1) week of any adjustment by the United States Postal Service to the Postal Codes that comprise the DMA. FCI reserves the right to amend or modify this Agreement as may be necessary to modify the boundaries of the DMA as a result of any such changes, FCI's determination of the modified DMA shall be final and conclusive.

S. Computer Hardware and Software. You shall, at your expense, obtain and maintain such computer hardware, peripherals and software, including financial reporting software and any proprietary FCI software programs, as may be designated by FCI from time to time as being required for the operation of the Business. You must lease any proprietary FCI software programs from FCI or its designated third-party supplier, which software will remain the confidential property of FCI or the third-party supplier. You and FCI will enter into Franchisor's standard form computer software license agreement in connection with your use of any proprietary FCI software programs. FCI will have the right, upon sixty (60) days' notice, to charge you a reasonable monthly fee for computer software maintenance and support that FCI or its designee may provide to you respecting such proprietary software. You will be required to use, and at FCI's discretion, pay for all future updates, supplements and modifications to the computer hardware peripherals and software designated by FCI. You shall, at your expense, maintain high-speed (DSL or equivalent) Internet access and an e-mail address throughout the term of this Agreement, in accordance with FCI requirements, for purposes of communication with FCI and other franchisees and to obtain access to FCI's intranet resources and information. You will not establish a website or home page on the Internet ("Home Page") or otherwise advertise on the Internet or any other public computer network in connection with the Business, including any profile on Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, LinkedIn, Plaxo, YouTube or any other social media and/or networking site, without the prior written consent of FCI. All features of any proposed Home page, including its domain name, content, format, and links to other websites, must be approved by FCI prior to activation of the home page. Your home page must advertise only your Business, and all content and information that you maintains on the Home page will at all times be subject to the provisions of this Agreement, including provisions of this Agreement relating to trademark usage, conditions on the business to be conducted by you pursuant to this Agreement, advertising approval, confidentiality, and product and service limitations. You will not link your Home page to any Internet site other than FCI Internet home page without FCI prior written approval.

T. Annual Convention. You must attend FCI's annual convention each year. FCI may charge a fee and you will be responsible for paying for your own lodging, meals and transportation to and from the convention.

ARTICLE VI: NONCOMPETE OBLIGATIONS

A. During the Term of this Agreement. During the term of this Agreement, neither you nor any of your principals shall, directly or indirectly, through corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, trusts, associations, joint ventures, or other unincorporated businesses, perform any services for, engage in or acquire, participate or have any financial or other interest in any other business offering carpeting, window treatments, hard and soft floor covering products or other services or products offered by FCI Businesses; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to the operation of any other FCI franchised business pursuant to a valid franchise agreement with FCI.

B. After the Term of this Agreement. For a period of 2 years following termination or expiration of this Agreement, or the termination of any principal's interest in the Business, neither you nor any of your principals shall, directly or indirectly, through corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, trusts, associations, joint ventures, or other unincorporated businesses, perform any services for, engage in or acquire, participate or have any financial or other interest in any other business offering carpeting, window treatments, hard and soft floor covering products or other services or products offered by FCI Businesses: (1) within the DMA; (2) within a 25 mile area surrounding the perimeter of the DMA; (3) within a 10 mile radius of any FCI Business in existence on the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement; or (4) within a 10 mile radius of the location of any National Account or Commercial Services job that Franchisee performed during the term of this Agreement. However, this provision shall not apply to the operation of any other FCI Business franchised business pursuant to a valid franchise agreement with FCI. The aforesaid 2-year period shall be tolled during any period of noncompliance.

For a period of two (2) years after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause, neither you, nor your partners or shareholders or any member of your immediate family members or your partners or shareholders shall, directly or indirectly, for yourself or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation solicit business from then existing or prospective FCI National Accounts or customers with whom your former FCI franchise did business in the preceding 5 years for any related or competitive business purpose nor solicit any employee of FCI or any other FCI System franchisee to discontinue his employment.

For a period of two (2) years after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause, neither you, nor your partners or shareholders or any member of your immediate family or your partners or shareholders shall, directly or indirectly, for yourself or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, or have any interest in any company which engages in any business competing in whole or in part with FCI franchisees, solicits work for FCI franchisees which otherwise would fall under the National Account Program, or which grants franchises or licenses for any business competing in whole or in part with Franchisor.

C. Publicly-Owned Entity. This section shall not apply to you or any other person subject to this section's ownership of a beneficial interest of less than five percent (5%) in the outstanding securities or partnership interests in any publicly-held entity.

D. Spouses and Immediate Family Members. It shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement if your spouse or children engage in any of the prohibited conduct.

E. Reformation. It is the intention of the parties that this section be enforced to the fullest extent possible. If a court shall determine that it is not enforceable as drawn, then it shall be reformed and enforced to the fullest extent lawful in the jurisdiction.

Your failure to allow FCI to inspect, examine and/or audit your Business and Financial Records shall be a material breach of this Agreement.

2. Any inspection, examination or audit by FCI of your Business and Financial Records shall be the expense of FCI unless the inspection, examination or audit is deemed necessary by FCI due to your failure to prepare or forward required reports, or if an inspection, examination or audit discloses an understatement in any payment of three percent (3%) or more. In either such event, you shall, in addition to repaying any unreported or understated amount with all interest accrued thereon, reimburse FCI for any and all costs and expenses connected with the inspection, examination or audit, including, without limitation, travel, lodging, and wage expenses and reasonable accounting and legal costs. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies FCI may have.

ARTICLE VIII: TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST

A. Your Right To Transfer.

1. You understand and acknowledge that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to you (or, in the case of a corporate or partnership you, to your partners, officers or shareholders), and that FCI has entered into this Agreement with you in reliance upon individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability, and financial capacity of you. Accordingly, neither this Agreement nor any part of the Business (or any interest therein granted pursuant to this Agreement) may be transferred without the prior written approval of FCI. Any attempted or purported transfer without prior written approval from FCI shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and shall convey no rights to or interests in this Agreement or in the Business to the purported transferee.

2. As used in this Agreement, the term “transfer” shall mean and include the voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, assignment, sale or other transfer by you of:

FCI may accept the offer in writing at any time within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the written offer by you. If FCI accepts the offer, FCI and you shall close the transfer transaction, on the terms and conditions stated in the offer, within sixty (60) days of acceptance by FCI. If FCI declines or does not accept the offer within that time period, you may, subject to the conditions set forth in this Article VIII, transfer such interest to the third party, at the price and on the terms offered to FCI. If the transfer of such interest is not closed by you within six (6) months from the date of the offer to FCI, then you must re-communicate the offer to sell to FCI before closing any transfer to any third party.

C. Approval Procedure.

1. FCI shall not unreasonably withhold approval of a proposed transfer that meets all the applicable requirements of this Article VIII.C. You acknowledge that FCI entered into this Agreement in reliance upon and in consideration of the personal qualifications and representations of you if you are an individual, or of those individuals who will actively and substantially participate in the operations of the Business if you are a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, and therefor acknowledge that the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Article VIII are reasonable and necessary to protect FCI, the System, the Proprietary Marks and other Floor Coverings International franchisees.

e. The transferee and its shareholders, partners or members must sign a new franchise agreement in the standard form then being offered by FCI, together with a personal guaranty of the transferee's obligations under the franchise agreement, and enter into its own technology licenses as may be required by new FCI Businesses at the tie of transfer;

i. You and your shareholders, partners or members must execute such agreements as FCI may reasonably require evidencing their continuing obligations under the noncompetition and nondisclosure provisions of this Agreement;

j. You pay any broker commission or other costs that may be due or required arising from the transfer; and

k. You and your shareholders, partners or members must execute an agreement with FCI providing that all obligations of the transferee to make installment payments of the purchase price or interest thereon to you shall be subordinate to the transferee's obligations to pay Continuing Royalty Fees, B.F. Contributions, and other amounts to FCI and to suppliers of Products and Services to be sold by the Business.

D. Transfer to a Spouse or Child. In the event of a transfer of a controlling interest in the Business to the spouse or a child of yours, the transfer fee set forth in Article VIII.C.2.f shall not be assessed.

E. Transfer Upon Death or Disability. Upon your death or permanent disability as defined under the Social Security Act, the executor, administrator, conservator, or other personal representative of you shall transfer your interest in this Agreement to a third party only upon approval of FCI. If your interest is not transferred within a reasonable time, FCI may terminate this Agreement.

F. Transfer to your Corporation. If you are an individual and desire to assign your rights under this Agreement to a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, and if all of the following conditions are met, FCI will consent to the transfer without assessing the transfer fee set forth in Article VIII.C.2.f:

a. The individual or individuals who executed this Agreement must remain the owner(s) of not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total voting capital shares, partnership interests or membership interests of the entity;

b. The corporation, partnership or limited liability company will conduct only the Business;

c. Each officer, director, and holder of ten (10) or more percent of the entity's issued and outstanding shares, partnership interests or membership interests shall execute a personal guarantee of the entity's contractual and financial obligations, together with a nondisclosure and noncompetition agreement, both in the standard form that FCI requires. All such personal guarantors agree to be bound by the restrictions upon Franchisee's activities upon transfer, termination or expiration and nonrenewal of this Agreement as if each were an individual party to this Agreement in his or her individual capacity;

d. Each certificate representing shares, partnership interests, or membership interests clearly indicates that the ownership interest represented by the certificate is subject to the terms of this Agreement; and

e. The entity's internal governing documents reflect that the shares or ownership interest are so restricted.

G. FCI Right To Transfer. This Agreement and all rights hereunder may be unilaterally assigned and transferred by FCI without the approval of you. FCI will provide you with written notice of assignment after the assignment has been completed, and the assignee will be required to fully perform all obligations of FCI under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX: VIOLATION AND TERMINATION

A. Automatic Termination. You shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement and all rights granted to you hereunder shall terminate automatically without notice to you upon the occurrence of any of the following:

ARTICLE X: RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF PARTIES UPON EXPIRATION, TERMINATION OR NON-RENEWAL

A. Your Obligations. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, and regardless of any dispute which may exist between the parties, you shall:

1. Immediately: (a) cease using and thereafter abstain from using all aspects of the System and Proprietary Marks in all respects, as well as all signs, structures, vehicles, and forms of advertising indicative of FCI or the Business or the Products and Services offered by the Businesses, and you will not thereafter conduct or promote any business under any name or in any manner that might tend to give the general public the impression that you are continuing to operate as a franchisee of FCI; (b) make or cause to be made such changes in your signs, buildings, vehicles and structures as FCI shall reasonably direct to effectively distinguish them in appearance from those used in the Businesses; (c) assign to FCI all telephone numbers used in directory listings and advertising in which any of the Proprietary Marks are used; (d) terminate any assumed name registration which you may have maintained authorizing use of the Proprietary Marks; and (e) terminate or cease using all domain names or e-mail addresses maintained by you which contain any aspects of the System or the Proprietary Marks, and delete all content containing the Proprietary Marks or any references to FCI or the Floor Coverings International Businesses from any Home page maintained by you;

2. Within ten (10) days, ship all customer lists, contracts and other customer information FCI requests, all product samples, printed forms, advertising pieces and manuals bearing the Proprietary Marks, (all of which are acknowledged by you to be the property of FCI) and photographic proof of FCI Vehicle de-stripping, freight prepaid, in good condition, to an address designated by FCI; and

3. Pay to FCI, as directed, within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration such Initial Franchise Fee, Territory Fee, Continuing Royalty Fees, B.F. Contribution, amounts owed for purchases by you, interest due on any of the foregoing, and all other amounts which are then due and unpaid. Nothing herein shall prevent FCI from pursuing damages for a breach of your obligations hereunder.

B. FCI Rights. FCI shall have the right to audit your Business and Financial Records in accordance with Article VII.B following expiration or termination of this Agreement. FCI also has the right to enforce its rights under any form of security agreement. If you shall fail or omit to take or cause to be taken any of the actions required pursuant to this Article, then FCI shall have the right but not the obligation to enter upon the Business premises without being deemed guilty of trespass or any other tort, and shall have the right to make such changes or cause them to be made at the expense of you, which expense you shall pay to FCI on demand. This right includes authority to communicate directly with the companies which furnish telephone line service or directory publishing (printed and electronic) to enforce your agreement to transfer all telephone numbers and directory listings to FCI. You agree to reimburse FCI for all costs, expenses and legal fees incurred by FCI in enforcing your obligations under this Article.

C. Post Term Competition. Following expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, you and your partners or members, if you are a partnership or limited liability company, your officers, directors, and shareholders if you are a corporation, shall comply in all respects with the nondisclosure and noncompetition provisions of Article V.I and Article VI of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI: INDEMNIFICATION

You will indemnify and hold FCI harmless against, and will reimburse FCI for, all damages for which FCI is held liable and for all costs incurred by FCI in the defense of any claim or action brought against FCI arising from, in connection with, arising out of, or as a result of your negligence, your wrongdoing or the operation of the Business including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, investigation expenses, court costs, deposition expenses, and travel and living expenses. You will indemnify FCI, without limitation, for all claims and damages arising from, out of, in connection with, or as a result of: (a) any personal injury, property damage, commercial loss or environmental contamination resulting from any act or omission of you or your employees, agents or representatives; (b) any failure on the part of you to comply with any requirement of any laws or any governmental authority; and, (c) any failure of you to pay any of your obligations to any person or entity; (d) any failure of you to comply with any requirement or condition of this Agreement or any other agreement with FCI; (e) any misfeasance or malfeasance by you; and (f) any tort. FCI will have the right to defend any claim made against it arising from, as a result of, in connection with or out of your negligence or the operation of the Business. You will pay all attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred by FCI in enforcing any term, condition or provision of this Agreement or in enjoining any violation of this Agreement by you. The indemnification and other obligations contained herein will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A. Mediation.

1. At FCI's option, all claims or disputes between you and FCI or its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, or agents arising out of, or in any way relating to, this Agreement, or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising out of this agreement, shall be submitted first to mediation, in Norcross, Georgia under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with the AAA's Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. Before commencing any legal action against FCI or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute, you must submit a notice to FCI, which specifies, in detail, the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute. FCI will have a period of 30 days following receipt of such notice within which to notify you as to whether FCI or its affiliates elect to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation. You may not commence any action against FCI or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute in any court unless FCI fails to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation, or such mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator(s) that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by FCI. The parties shall each bear their own costs of mediation and shall share equally the filing fee imposed by AAA and the mediator's fees. FCI's right to mediation, as set forth herein, may be specifically enforced by FCI.

2. FCI shall not be required to first attempt to mediate a controversy, dispute or claim against you through mediation as set forth in Article XII.A(1) if such controversy, dispute or claim concerns an allegation by FCI that you have violated (or threatens to violate, or poses an imminent risk of violating):

- i. any of FCI's federally protected intellectual property rights in the FCI Proprietary Marks, the FCI System or in any of FCI's Confidential Information;
- ii. Any claims pertaining to or arising out of or pertaining to any warranty issued;
or
- iii. any of the restrictive covenants contained in this Agreement.

B. Third Party Beneficiaries. FCI's officers, directors, shareholders, agents and/or employees are express third party beneficiaries of this Agreement and the mediation provisions contained herein, each having authority to specifically enforce the right to mediate claims asserted against such person(s) by you.

C. Injunctive Relief. Nothing contained in this Agreement herein shall prevent FCI from applying to or obtaining from any court having jurisdiction, without bond, a writ of attachment, temporary injunction, preliminary injunction and/or other emergency relief available to safeguard and protect FCI's interest prior to the filing of any proceeding or pending the trial or handing down of a decision or award pursuant to any proceeding conducted hereunder.

D. Jurisdiction and Venue. With respect to any proceeding not subject to, or unresolved by, mediation, the parties agree that any action at law or in equity instituted against either party to this Agreement shall be commenced only in the Georgia State Court having jurisdiction over Norcross, Georgia or the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

E. Jury Trial and Class Action Waiver. The parties hereby agree to waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or equity, regardless of which party brings suit. This waiver shall apply to any matter whatsoever between the parties hereto which arises out of or is related in any way to this Agreement, the performance of either party, and/or your purchase from FCI of the franchise and/or any goods or services. The parties agree that all proceedings will be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide basis, and that any proceeding between you, your guarantors, and FCI or its affiliates or employees may not be consolidated with any other proceeding between FCI and any other person or entity.

F. Waiver of Punitive Damages. You waive to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to or claim for any punitive, exemplary, incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages (including, without limitation, lost profits) which you may have against us arising out of any cause whatsoever (whether such cause be based in contract, negligence, strict liability, other tort or otherwise) and agree that in the event of a dispute, your recovery shall be limited to actual damages. If any other term of this Agreement is found or determined to be unconscionable or unenforceable for any reason, the foregoing provisions shall continue in full force and effect, including, without limitation, the waiver of any right to claim any consequential damages.

G. Attorneys' Fees. If either party institutes any judicial proceeding to enforce any monetary or nonmonetary obligations or to interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall, upon final judgment, be entitled to recover all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred with such proceeding.

ARTICLE XIII: RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

You are and shall be considered an independent contractor with entire control and direction of your Business and operations, subject only to the conditions and obligations established by this Agreement. No agency, employment, joint venture, or partnership is created by this Agreement nor is it intended that any third-party beneficiary or fiduciary relationship is hereby established. Your Business is separate and apart from any that may be operated by FCI. No party to this Agreement shall make representations tending to create apparent agency, employment, or partnership. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, no party shall have authority to act for another in any manner to create obligations or debts binding on the other, and no party will be responsible for any obligations or expenses whatsoever of another. Neither you nor any person performing any duties or engaged in any work at the request of you shall be deemed an employee or agent of FCI. You shall decide what price to charge for your Products and Services. Such prices should be reasonably competitive in your local market area. Even though this Agreement contains provisions requiring you to operate your Business in compliance with the System: (i) FCI and FCI's affiliates do not have actual or apparent authority to control the day-to-day conduct and operation of your Business or employment decisions; and (ii) you and FCI do not intend for FCI or FCI's affiliates to incur any liability in connection with or arising from your use of the System or the operation of the Business, whether or not in accordance with the Operations Manuals.

ARTICLE XIV: MISCELLANEOUS

A. Construction. All references herein to the singular or plural shall be construed to include the other where applicable, and the masculine or feminine to include the other and neuter genders; and all covenants, agreements and obligations herein assumed by you shall be deemed to be joint and several covenants, agreements and obligations of the several persons named herein as you; or, if you are a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, then all covenants, agreements and obligations herein assumed by you shall be deemed to be joint and several covenants, agreements and obligations of you and the individual or individuals signing on behalf of you.

B. Severability. All provisions of this Agreement are severable, and this Agreement will be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein, and partially valid and enforceable provisions will be enforced to the extent valid and enforceable. The provisions of any valid, applicable law or rule requiring a greater prior notice of the termination of or refusal to renew this Agreement than is required hereunder or the taking of some action not required hereunder, or if under any applicable and binding law of any jurisdiction, any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the prior notice or other action required by such law or rule will be substituted for the notice requirements hereof, or such invalid or unenforceable provision will be modified to the extent required to be valid and enforceable.

C. Effect of Waivers. No waiver by FCI of any default in performance on the part of you, time being of the essence hereof and of the performance hereunder, or like waiver by FCI of any breach or series of breaches, or any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement, and no practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or a waiver of the same or different terms, covenants, or conditions.

D. Remedies. If FCI commences any action in law or in equity against you to secure or protect the rights or remedies of FCI under this Agreement, FCI shall be entitled to recover as part of any judgment entered therein in its favor reasonable costs of collection or litigation, as the case may be, including but not limited to legal fees and reasonable legal expenses of outside counsel, court costs, investigative fees, mediation fees, in-house counsel and legal assistant costs and damages. Neither this remedy nor any other remedy exercised by FCI shall be deemed exclusive, but FCI shall be entitled to exercise cumulatively any and all remedies available in law or in equity, including injunctive relief and its exercise of any one right or remedy shall not preclude it from exercising any other right or remedy. This Article XIV.D shall apply to causes of action arising before, during and after the term of this Agreement.

E. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and may be given by personal service or by forwarding a copy thereof by facsimile, certified mail (return receipt requested) or Federal Express or similar overnight delivery service, postage or shipping costs fully prepaid, in a sealed envelope, addressed to FCI or you, as the case may be, at the address that appears on the Data Sheet for you or Page 2 of this Agreement for FCI. The addresses hereby given for the service of notice may be changed at any time by any party through written notice given to the other as herein provided. Notices will be deemed to have been received on the date of actual delivery or receipt where a signed receipt or affidavit of service is obtained, on the business day following the day of transmission in the case of facsimile delivery, or on the fourth (4th) business day after deposit in the United States mail.

F. Successors. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the successors and assignees of FCI, and to the heirs, administrators and executors and permitted successors and assignees of you.

G. Independent Covenants. All covenants in this Agreement are independent and absolute. You shall not withhold payment of any charges, B.F. Contributions, Continuing Royalty Fees, or other amounts due FCI on grounds of alleged non-performance by FCI.

H. Time Limitations. You agree that any claim arising out of this Agreement, whether for rescission, damages or any other type of remedy at law or in equity, shall be brought to FCI's attention by written notice within one (1) year from the date the act or failure to act by any person occurred. If written notice of a claim is not given within the one (1) year period, then the alleged breach or violation will not be deemed to be a breach or violation of this Agreement and cannot be asserted as a claim or defense in any mediation or other action between the parties.

I. Modifications. You recognize and agree that from time to time FCI may reasonably change the System presently identified with the Proprietary Marks under any conditions and to any extent which FCI in its sole and absolute discretion may deem advisable to meet the demands of the industry, to protect its Proprietary Marks, to improve the quality of the System, or for other valid business purpose. Accordingly, FCI may adopt and use new or modified Proprietary Marks, copyrighted materials, products, equipment or techniques, without liability to you and you agree to comply with such modifications.

J. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the exhibits attached hereto and the documents referred to herein presented to you, shall be construed together and constitute the entire, full and complete Agreement between FCI and you concerning the subject matter hereof, and it shall supersede any and all prior and existing agreements, either oral or in writing, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof; there are no representations, inducements, promises, or agreements, oral or otherwise, between the parties not embodied herein that are of any force or effect with reference to this Agreement or otherwise. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by FCI in the Franchise Disclosure Document. No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on any party unless set forth in writing and executed by all parties.

K. Financing. FCI does not represent that you will qualify for FCI Vehicle leasing or financing. FCI does not warrant that you or your customers will qualify under standards set by credit granting financial institutions or leasing companies. FCI does not represent that carpet manufacturers will grant a line of credit to you or your customers. Any failure of you or your customers to secure such leasing, financing or financing arrangements shall not subject this Agreement to rescission or subject FCI to any costs, refunds, or penalties. You acknowledge that decisions of credit granting firms are beyond the control of the parties to this Agreement and holds FCI harmless for the results of such decisions.

L. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be deemed to have been made in the State of Georgia and shall be construed according to the laws of Georgia.

M. Acknowledgments. You acknowledge that:

1. You have received, read and understand this Agreement and the attachments hereto; FCI has fully and adequately explained the provisions hereof to your satisfaction; and you has been accorded sufficient time and opportunity (as may be required by state and federal law) to consider this Agreement and to consult with advisors of your own choosing concerning the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.

2. FCI expressly disclaims making, and you acknowledge that it has not received any warranty, promise, or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential Gross Sales, volume, profits, or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement.

3. You expressly acknowledge that it is solely responsible for the operation of the Business, and that the success of the Business contemplated to be undertaken by you depends to a large extent upon the ability of you or your partners, officers or shareholders as independent businessperson(s) and upon your efforts, skill, business background and sales.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, intending to be legally bound hereby, have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the effective date indicated on page 1 of this Agreement.

Transferor and Transferor Guarantors, for themselves and all persons and entities claiming by, through, or under them, hereby release, acquit and forever discharge Franchisor and its present and former officers, employees, shareholders, directors, agents, servants, representatives, affiliates, successors and assigns (the "Franchisor Releasees") from all obligations, claims, debts, demands, covenants, contracts, promises, agreements, liabilities, costs, attorneys' fees, actions or causes of action whatsoever, whether known or unknown, which they, by themselves, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, persons, partnership or corporation, has, had or claims to have against the Franchisor Releasees including those arising out of or related to the offer, sale, or execution of the Franchise Agreement, the franchise relationship and the Franchise Agreement, the Franchised Business, the transfer contemplated in this Agreement, and any other franchise-related statute, law or regulation that is applicable to the parties' relationship.

6. Confidentiality. The parties shall not reveal or disclose (or permit others to reveal or disclose) the existence of this Agreement, or the terms hereof, to any other person, firm, corporation, company, or entity now or at any time in the future unless the Franchisor consents to such disclosure in writing; provided, however, that such parties may disclose the terms of this Agreement to their auditors, accountants, tax advisors and/or legal counsel only to the extent required for professional advice from those sources, and such parties may also disclose the terms of this Agreement pursuant to a valid subpoena or if otherwise required by law.

7. Severability. In case any covenant, condition, term or provision contained in this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, in whole or in part, by judgment, order or decree of any court or other judicial tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the validity of the remaining covenants, conditions, terms and provisions contained in this Agreement, and the validity of the remaining part of any term or provision held to be partially invalid, illegal or unenforceable, shall in no way be affected, prejudiced, or disturbed thereby.

8. Integration; Waiver or Modification. This Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede any and all previous agreements between the parties, whether written or oral, with respect to such subject matter. No waiver or modification of this Agreement or of any covenant, condition or limitation contained in this Agreement shall be valid unless in writing and duly executed by the party to be charged therewith.

9. Applicable Law, Binding Effect and Venue. The parties agree and acknowledge that the governing law, dispute resolution and venue provisions of the Franchise Agreement shall also govern this Agreement.

10. Attorneys' Fees. If Transferor, Transferor Guarantors, Transferee or Transferee Guarantors are in breach or default of any obligation under this Agreement or any related agreement between any of such parties and Franchisor, and Franchisor engages an attorney to enforce Franchisor's rights (whether or not formal judicial proceedings are initiated), such breaching or defaulting party shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and litigation expenses that Franchisor incurs. If Transferor, Transferor Guarantors, Transferee or Transferee Guarantors institute any legal action to interpret or enforce the terms of this Agreement against Franchisor, and such party's claim in such action is denied or the action is dismissed, Franchisor is entitled to recover Franchisor's reasonable attorneys' fees, and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred in defending against same, and to have such an amount awarded as part of the judgment in the proceeding.

11. Further Assurances. Each of the parties hereto agree that they shall sign such additional and supplemental documents as may be necessary to implement the transactions contemplated pursuant to this Agreement when requested to do so by any party to this Agreement.

12. Multiple Copies or Counterparts of Agreement. The original and one or more copies of this Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties hereto. In such event, all of such executed copies shall have the same force and effect as the executed original and all of such counterparts taken together shall have the effect of a fully executed original.

The FCI System also may contain similarly protected licensed proprietary material of third parties. FCI retains all rights in and to the FCI System, including (without limitation) all copyright and other intellectual property and proprietary rights worldwide. Franchisee and all Authorized Users shall not access or use the FCI System, in whole or in part, except as expressly permitted under this Agreement.

4. Permitted Use of FCI System. The FCI System may be used by the Franchisee and Franchisee’s Authorized Users for the sole purposes of operating the Franchise as follows:

Access: Franchisee and Authorized Users may access the FCI System for their individual use solely in connection with Franchisee’s business. Access to the FCI System is at the sole discretion of FCI and can be terminated at any time.

Unauthorized Use: Franchisee shall not knowingly permit anyone other than Authorized Users to access or use the FCI System or the User Data.

No Modification of FCI System: Franchisee shall not modify or create any derivative work of the FCI System.

Removal of FCI Marks and Copyright Notice: Franchisee may not remove, obscure or modify any copyright or other notices included in any content from the FCI System.

5. Payment Terms. In consideration of Franchisee's use of the FCI System, Franchisee shall pay FCI as set forth in Exhibit A, which is attached hereto. The fees set forth in Exhibit A are subject to change upon notice from FCI.

6. Non-Disclosure. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the FCI System and User Data are proprietary and confidential to FCI, and that Franchisee shall not disclose the foregoing, in whole or in part, to any third party, except as expressly permitted herein. Franchisee shall take commercially reasonable measures to protect the FCI System and User Data against disclosures and use in violation of this Agreement. This obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

7. Franchisee Obligations to Control Authorized Users. In the event of any unauthorized use of the FCI System or any User Data by an Authorized User, Franchisee shall immediately notify FCI, and Franchisee shall no longer provide such Authorized User with access to the FCI System and/or User Data.

8. Limited Warranty. FCI warrants that it has the right to license the rights granted under this Agreement and that it has obtained any and all necessary permissions from third parties for materials used on the FCI System. Except for the express warranties stated herein, access to the and functionality of the FCI System are provided on an "as is" basis, and FCI disclaims any and all other warranties, conditions, or representations (express, implied, oral or written), relating to use of the FCI System or any part thereof, including, without limitation, any and all implied warranties of quality, accuracy, completeness, currency, performance, merchantability, non- infringement or fitness for a particular purpose. FCI DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE FCI SYSTEM IS ERROR-FREE IN CONTENT. FCI makes no warranties respecting any harm that may be caused by the transmission of a computer virus, worm, time bomb, logic bomb or other such computer program. Licensor further expressly disclaims any warranty or representation to Authorized Users, or to any third party.

9. Enforcement of Terms. Franchisee acknowledges that the FCI System and User Data are highly proprietary in nature and that unauthorized copying, transfer, use or disclosure may cause FCI or its licensors irreparable injury that cannot be adequately compensated for by means of monetary damages. Franchisee agrees that any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement by Franchisee, or any subscriber or Authorized User, may be enforced by FCI by means of equitable relief (including, but not limited to, injunctive relief) in addition to any other available rights and remedies.

10. Indemnification. The Franchisee agrees to indemnify, defend and hold FCI harmless from and against any loss, damage, costs, liability and expenses (including reasonable legal and professional fees) arising out of any claim or legal action taken against FCI related to or in any way connected with any use of the FCI System by the Franchisee or any failure by the Franchisee to perform its obligations in relation to this Agreement.

11. Term of Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated by FCI at any time. Otherwise, this Agreement will remain in-force as long as the Franchise Agreement between Franchisee and FCI remains in-force. Upon the termination of this Agreement, Franchisee shall immediately cease all use of the FCI System and User Data and shall return all copies thereof in its possession or control to FCI.

12. Choice of Law; Integration. This Agreement, and the rights of the parties hereto, shall be governed by, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia as such laws apply to agreements among Georgia residents made and to be performed entirely within the State of Georgia. Any action in respect of, or concerning, this agreement shall be litigated solely in Cobb County, Georgia, and both parties consent to jurisdiction of the person and venue solely in Cobb County, Georgia. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby.

ADDITIONAL TERRITORY OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS ADDITIONAL TERRITORY OPTION AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is made and entered into on _____, 20__, by and between Floorcoverings International, Ltd., a Georgia corporation with its principal place of business at 5390 Triangle Parkway, Suite 125, Norcross, GA 30092 (“FCI”), and _____, an individual residing at _____, or _____, a _____ with its principal place of business at _____ (“Developer”).

BACKGROUND

A. Contemporaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Developer and FCI entered into FCI’s current form of single-unit franchise agreement (the “First Franchise Agreement”) for the right to establish and operate a single Floor Coverings International franchised business (the “First Franchised Business”).

B. FCI offers qualified franchisees the right and option to open and operate additional Floor Coverings International franchised businesses (collectively, the “Additional Franchised Businesses”) during the time periods set forth below and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

C. Developer wishes to purchase an option to establish and operate Additional Franchised Business(es) under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. GRANT OF OPTION AND EXECUTION DEADLINES

1.1 Grant. Upon the execution of this Agreement, Developer will pay FCI an Additional Territory Fee equal to $40,000 for one (1) Additional Franchised Businesses or $80,000 for two (2) Additional Franchised Businesses (the “Additional Territory Fee(s)”). The Additional Territory Fee is in addition to the Initial Franchise Fee you will pay upon executing the First Franchise Agreement and Developer will not be charged an Initial Franchise Fee on Additional Franchise Agreements executed under this Agreement. The Additional Territory Fee is deemed fully earned upon payment and is nonrefundable under any circumstances. If you are a veteran that qualifies for the VetFran Program, your Additional Territory Fee(s) will be discounted by ten percent (10%).

The option territories granted under this Section 1.1, set forth in Exhibit “A” (the “Option Area(s)”) will constitute a protected DMA during the term of this Agreement (refer to Section 3.2 below); provided, further, you will be provided a DMA per the terms of each Franchise Agreement you sign as set forth herein. If this Agreement is terminated, you will have no further right in or to the Option Area(s).

1.2 Eligibility. Developer must purchase this option and execute this Agreement contemporaneously with Developer’s execution of the First Franchise Agreement.

1.3 Option Deadlines. Developer must exercise its option(s) to acquire the Additional Franchised Businesses in accordance with the following schedule (“Option Schedule”):

Time to Exercise Option(s) (“Option Period”)	Number of Franchise Agreements to be Executed Under the Additional Territory Option Agreement	Number of Franchise Agreements to be Signed upon the Option Period	Cumulative Number of Franchised Agreements signed Upon Option Period
Developer shall open the First Franchised Business within 180 days from the date the First	1	1	1

Franchise Agreement is executed.
Option Territory 1 Date: _____, 20__ (24 Months from completion of initial training)		1	2
Option Territory 2 Date: _____, 20__ (24 Months from completion of initial training)		1	3

2. EXERCISE OF OPTION.

2.1 Conditions in Order to Exercise Option. In order to open each Additional Franchised Business, Developer must satisfy all of the following conditions, upon the exercise of each option:

(a) Execute FCI's then-current form of franchise agreement for that Additional Franchised Business (each, an "Additional Franchise Agreement");

(b) Developer must not default under this Agreement, or any other agreement with FCI, including any other franchise agreement, and must have fully and faithfully performed all of Developer's material obligations under any such agreements throughout their respective terms;

(c) Developer has achieved the minimum performance criteria as set forth in the First Franchise Agreement, and any subsequent franchise agreement;

(d) Neither this Agreement, the First Franchise Agreement, nor any other agreement FCI has entered into with Developer has been terminated by FCI;

(e) Developer has timely paid any fees or other monies due to FCI as and when due under the terms of the First Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with FCI;

(f) There has been no change in the effective control of Developer (by way of change in share ownership, membership or partnership interest, or otherwise) without FCI's written consent;

(g) Developer's personnel have successfully completed FCI's training programs; and

(h) Developer must have averaged 10 customer proposals per week ("PPW") in 8 of the last 12 weeks leading up to their 24th month of business in order to exercise the option for the Second Franchised Business and 15 PPW in 8 of the last 12 weeks leading up to their 24th month of business in order to exercise the option for a Third Franchised Business.

3. ASSIGNMENT, TERM AND TERMINATION.

3.1 Assignment. Developer's rights under this Agreement are personal to Developer and Developer may not sell, transfer, or assign any right granted herein without FCI's prior written consent, which may be withheld in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding, if Developer is an individual or a partnership, Developer has the right to assign its rights under this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company that is wholly owned by Developer according to the same terms and conditions as provided in the First Franchise Agreement. FCI has the right to assign this Agreement in whole or in part in its sole discretion.

3.2 Term. This Agreement will commence as of the date it is fully-executed and, unless earlier terminated by FCI, will expire on the last day of the calendar month that the final Franchised Business is required to have an executed franchise agreement under the Option Period.

3.3 Termination. This Agreement will automatically terminate if Developer fails, or is ineligible to, exercise an option upon an applicable Option Period, as set forth in Section 2.1. In addition, FCI will have the right, at its option, to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted to Developer hereunder, without affording Developer any opportunity to cure such default, effective upon written notice to Developer, upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) if Developer becomes insolvent or is adjudicated bankrupt, or if any action is taken by Developer, or by others against Developer, under any insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization act, or if Developer makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or a receiver is appointed by Developer; or (ii) if the First Franchise Agreement or any Additional Franchise Agreement that is entered into under this Agreement is terminated or subject to termination by FCI, pursuant to the terms of that Franchise Agreement.

4. CHOICE OF LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

4.1 Choice of Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia (without reference to its conflict of laws principles).

4.2 Internal Dispute Resolution. Developer must first bring any claim or dispute between Developer and FCI to FCI's President and CEO after providing notice as set forth in Section 5.3 below. Developer must exhaust this internal dispute resolution procedure before Developer may bring Developer's dispute before a third party. This agreement to first attempt resolution of disputes internally will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

4.3 Mediation. At FCI's option, all claims or disputes between Developer and FCI (or its affiliates, officers directors, employees or agents) arising out of, or in any way relating to, this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Developer and FCI (or its affiliates), or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising from such agreement, which are not first resolved through the internal dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 4.2 above, will be submitted first to mediation to take place in Norcross, Georgia under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with AAA's Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. Before commencing any legal action against FCI or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute, Developer must submit a notice to FCI, which specifies, in detail, the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute. FCI will have a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice within which to notify Developer as to whether FCI or its affiliates elect to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation. Developer may not commence any action against FCI or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute in any court unless FCI fails to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation, or such mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator(s) that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by FCI. FCI's right to mediation, as set forth herein, may be specifically enforced by FCI. Each party will bear its own cost of mediation and FCI and Developer will share mediator fees equally. This agreement to mediate will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. The parties agree that there will be no multi-party or class action mediation. The parties will not be required to first attempt to mediate a controversy, dispute, or claim through mediation as set forth in this Section 4.3 if such controversy, dispute, or claim concerns an allegation that a party has violated (or threatens to violate, or poses an imminent risk of violating): (i) any federally protected intellectual property rights in the Proprietary Marks, the System, or in any Confidential Information or other confidential information; or (ii) any claims pertaining to or arising out of any warranty issued; or (ii) any of the restrictive covenants contained in a Franchise Agreement.

4.4 Injunctive Relief, Selection of Venue and Class Action Waiver. Nothing contained in this Agreement will prevent FCI from applying to and obtaining from any court having jurisdiction a writ of attachment, a temporary injunction, preliminary injunction and/or other emergency relief available to safeguard and protect FCI's interests. If injunctive relief is granted, Developer's only remedy will be the court's dissolution of the injunctive relief. If the injunctive relief was wrongfully issued, Developer expressly waives all claims for damages Developer incurred as a result of the wrongful issuance. The parties expressly agree to the jurisdiction and venue of any court of general jurisdiction closest to FCI's then-current corporate headquarters or, if appropriate, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. Developer acknowledges that this Agreement has been entered into in the State of Georgia, and that Developer is to receive valuable and continuing services emanating from FCI's headquarters in Georgia, including but not limited to training, assistance, support and the development of the System. In recognition of such services and their origin, Developer hereby irrevocably consents to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Georgia set forth above. The parties agree that all proceedings will be conducted on an individual, not a multi-party or class-wide basis, and that any proceeding between Developer, Developer's guarantors, and FCI or its affiliates or employees may not be consolidated with any other proceeding between FCI and any other person or entity.

4.5 Third Party Beneficiaries. FCI's affiliates, officers, directors, shareholders, agents and/or employees are express third party beneficiaries of the provisions of this Agreement, including the mediation provisions set forth in this Section 4, each having authority to specifically enforce the right to mediate claims asserted against such person(s) by Developer.

4.6 Prior Notice of Claims. As a condition precedent to commencing an action for damages or for violation or breach of this Agreement, Developer must notify FCI within 30 days after the occurrence of the violation or breach, and failure to timely give such notice will preclude any claim for damages.

4.7 No Right to Offset. Developer is prohibited from withholding all or any part of any payment to FCI or any of its affiliates on the grounds of FCI's alleged nonperformance or as an offset against any amount FCI or any of FCI's affiliates allegedly may owe Developer under this Agreement or any related agreements.

4.8 Limitation of Action. Developer further agrees that no cause of action arising out of or under this Agreement may be maintained by Developer against FCI unless brought before the expiration of one (1) year after the act, transaction or occurrence upon which such action is based or the expiration of one (1) year after Developer becomes aware of the facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that Developer may have a claim against FCI hereunder, whichever occurs sooner, and that any action not brought within this period will be barred as a claim, counterclaim, defense, or set-off. Developer hereby waives the right to obtain any remedy based on alleged fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit by FCI, including, without limitation, rescission of this Agreement, in any mediation, judicial, or other adjudicatory proceeding arising hereunder, except upon a ground expressly provided in this Agreement, or pursuant to any right expressly granted by any applicable statute expressly regulating the sale of franchises, or any regulation or rules promulgated thereunder.

4.9 Waiver of Punitive Damages. Except as provided for in this Section 4.9, Developer hereby waives to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to or claim for any punitive, exemplary, incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages (including, without limitation, lost profits) against FCI arising out of any cause whatsoever (whether such cause be based in contract, negligence, strict liability, other tort or otherwise) and agrees that in the event of a dispute, that Developer's recovery is limited to actual damages. If any other term of this Agreement is found or determined to be unconscionable or unenforceable for any reason, the foregoing provisions will continue in full force and effect, including, without limitation, the waiver of any right to claim any consequential damages.

4.10 Jury Trial Waiver. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR EQUITY, REGARDLESS OF WHICH PARTY BRINGS SUIT. THIS WAIVER WILL APPLY TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO WHICH ARISES OUT OF OR IS RELATED IN ANY WAY TO THIS AGREEMENT, FRANCHISES DEVELOPED PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT AND/OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND/OR DEVELOPER PURCHASE OF GOODS OR SERVICES FROM FCI OR FCI'S AFFILIATES.

5. MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to any time fixed for performance of any requirement set forth in this Agreement.

5.2 Acknowledgment. Developer acknowledges that this Agreement is not a franchise agreement and does not confer upon Developer any rights to use FCI's Proprietary Marks or its System.

5.3 Notices. Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered, sent by registered mail, or sent by other means which affords the sender evidence of delivery or rejected delivery including, without limitation, private delivery or courier service, but which shall not include electronic communication, such as e-mail, to the respective parties at the following addresses, unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

Notices to FCI: Floorcoverings International, Ltd.
 5390 Triangle Parkway, Suite 125
 Norcross, GA 30092
 Attn: President

Notices to Developer: _____

 Attn: _____

Any notice by a means which affords the sender evidence of delivery or rejected delivery shall be deemed to have been given and received at the date and time of receipt or rejected delivery.

5.4 No Third-Party Rights. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement or the First Franchise Agreement, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor will be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Developer, FCI, and such of FCI's respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated (and, as to Developer, permitted) by the First Franchise Agreement, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

5.5 Indemnification. Developer shall indemnify and hold harmless FCI and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors and employees against any and all claims, losses, costs, expenses, liabilities and damages arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with Developer's operations hereunder, Developer's operation of the Franchised Businesses, or Developer's breach of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, those alleged to be caused by FCI's negligence, unless (and then only to the extent that) the claims, obligations, and damages are determined to be caused solely by FCI's gross negligence or willful misconduct according to a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court or arbitrator with competent jurisdiction, as well as the costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, of defending against them. In the event FCI incurs any costs or expenses, including, without limitation, legal fees, travel expenses, and other charges, in connection with any proceeding involving Developer in which FCI is not a party, Developer shall reimburse FCI for all such costs and expenses promptly upon presentation of invoices. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Developer's indemnification and hold harmless obligations under this Section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude FCI from choosing its own legal counsel to represent it in any lawsuit, arbitration, or other dispute resolution.

5.6 Nonwaiver. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on FCI's part to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Developer or any other franchisee under any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement, and no custom or practice by the parties at variance with the terms of this Agreement, will constitute a waiver of FCI's right to enforce any such right, option, duty, or power as against Developer, or as to subsequent breach or default by Developer. If FCI accepts late payments from Developer or any payments due, that will not be deemed to be FCI's waiver of any earlier or later breach by Developer of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

5.7 Severability. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each portion, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement will be considered severable. If for any reason, any section, part, term, and/or provision in this Agreement is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such will not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms, and/or provisions of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible; and the latter will continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties to this Agreement; and said invalid portions, sections, parts, terms, and/or provisions will be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

5.8 Construction of Language. Any term defined in the First Franchise Agreement which is not defined in this Agreement will be ascribed the meaning given to it in the First Franchise Agreement. The language of this Agreement will be construed according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. All words in this Agreement refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If more than one party or person is referred to as Developer, their obligations and liabilities must be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation.

5.9 Successors. References to “FCI” or “Developer” include the respective parties’ successors, assigns or transferees, subject to the limitations of Section 3.1 of this Agreement.

5.10 Additional Documentation. Developer must from time to time, subsequent to the date first set forth above, at FCI’s request and without further consideration, execute and deliver such other documentation or agreement and take such other action as FCI may reasonably require in order to effectuate the transactions contemplated in this Agreement. In the event that Developer fails to comply with the provisions of this Section, Developer hereby appoints FCI as Developer’s attorney-in-fact to execute any and all documents on Developer’s behalf, reasonably necessary to effectuate the transactions contemplated herein.

5.11 No Right to Offset. Developer may not withhold all or any part of any payment to FCI or any of its affiliates on the grounds of the alleged nonperformance of FCI or any of its affiliates or as an offset against any amount FCI or any of its affiliates may owe or allegedly owe Developer under this Agreement or any related agreements.

5.12 State Law Applies. If any provision of this Agreement, including but not limited to its provisions for transfer, renewal, termination, notice of termination, or cure rights, is inconsistent with any valid law or regulation of the state in which Developer’s First Franchised Business is located, then the valid law or regulation of that state applicable to the franchised business will supersede any provision of this Agreement that is less favorable to Developer.

5.13 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties concerning the purchase and operation of the Additional Franchised Businesses; no promises, inducements or representations (other than those in the Franchise Disclosure Document) not contained in this Agreement have been made, nor will any be of any force or effect, or binding on the parties. Except for those changes that FCI is permitted to make unilaterally under this Agreement, no amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing. FCI reserves the right to change FCI’s policies, procedures, standards, specifications or manuals at FCI’s discretion. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any Additional Franchise Agreement(s) or the First Franchise Agreement, the terms, conditions and intent of this Agreement will control. Nothing in this Agreement, or any related agreement, is intended to disclaim any of the representations FCI made to Developer in the Franchise Disclosure Document that FCI provided to Developer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly signed and delivered this Agreement in duplicate on the day and year first above written.

Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and

(expressed in US dollars)

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Stockholders of FS Brands, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of FS Brands, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021, and the related consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income, consolidated statements of changes in stockholders’ equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for the years then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAS”). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

FS Brands, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021

(expressed in US dollars)

1 Nature of business operations

FS Brands, Inc. (the Company), incorporated on March 31, 2010, is a 97.18% owned subsidiary of FS Property Services (U.S.) Inc. (the parent), which is indirectly a 100% owned subsidiary of FirstService Corporation (the ultimate parent), a publicly owned, diversified real estate services company.

Through the following subsidiaries, CertaPro Painters Ltd., Paul Davis Restoration, Inc., California Closet Company, Inc., Pillar to Post, Inc. and Floor Coverings International, Ltd., the Company's principal function is the recruiting, training and operation of franchise systems throughout the United States. In addition, the Company controls 20 California Closet franchises and 11 Paul Davis Restoration franchises.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as at the dates of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. The most significant estimates made by management relate to the collectability of accounts receivable and notes receivable, the initial determination of fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations and the assessment of potential impairment of goodwill and intangible assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries are eliminated on consolidation.

Revenue recognition and unearned revenue

The Company accounts for a contract with a customer when there is approval and commitment from both parties, the rights of the parties are identified, payment terms are identified, the contract has commercial substance and the collectability of consideration is probable. The Company measures revenue based on consideration specified in the contract of each customer and recognizes revenue as the performance obligations are satisfied by transferring the control of the service or product to a customer.

- Franchisor operations

The Company operates several franchise systems. Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the term of the franchise agreement. Royalty revenue is recognized based on a contracted percentage of franchisee revenue, as reported by the franchisees. Revenue from administrative and other support services, as applicable, is recognized as the services are provided.

FS Brands, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021

(expressed in US dollars)

The Company's franchise systems operate marketing funds on behalf of franchisees. Advertising fund contributions from franchisees and advertising fund expenditures are reported on a gross basis in the Company's consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income. To the extent that contributions received exceed advertising expenditures, the excess amount is accrued and offset as a deferred liability, whereas any expenditures in excess of contributions are expensed as incurred. As such, advertising fund contributions and the related revenue and expenses may be reported in a different period.

- Revenue from construction contracts and service operations other than franchisor operations

Revenue is recognized at the time the service is rendered. Certain services, including but not limited to construction contracts and real estate project management work-in-process, are recognized over time based on percentage of completion, a ratio of actual costs to total estimated contract costs. In cases where anticipated costs to complete a project exceed the revenue to be recognized, a provision for the additional estimated losses is recorded in the period in which the loss becomes apparent. Amounts received from customers in advance of services being provided are recorded as unearned revenue when received.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all investments readily convertible into cash and having an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents include money market funds and time deposits, which are carried at cost and approximate fair value.

Restricted cash

Restricted cash comprises cash restricted for marketing fund use. The Company is in custody of the cash received from franchisees for use in franchisee marketing funds.

Per the guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) on restricted cash (Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-18), the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows explain the change during the period in the total of cash and cash equivalents and amounts generally described as restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents. The Company's restricted cash balance consists primarily of cash related to our marketing funds.

Inventories

Inventories consist of finished products, accessories and components of closet and workspace systems, painting kits, film and supplies held for resale. Inventories are valued at the lower of cost (first in, first out) and net realizable value. Work-in-process inventory relates to construction contracts in process and is accounted for using the percentage of completion method.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, except for leasehold improvements, which are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the useful life of the asset or the remaining lease term.

FS Brands, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021

(expressed in US dollars)

Maintenance and repairs are expensed to operations as incurred, while betterments and additions are capitalized. On sale or retirement, the cost of the property and the related accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and any resulting gains or losses are reflected in income.

Goodwill and intangible assets

Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination and is not subject to amortization.

Intangible assets are recorded at a fair value on the date they are acquired and are amortized using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Customer relationships	4 to 20 years
Trademark	15 to 30 years
Franchise agreements	pattern of use

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually, on August 1, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the asset might be impaired, in which case the carrying amount of the asset is written down to fair value. Impairment of goodwill is tested at the reporting unit level. Impairment is tested by first assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. Where it is determined to be more likely than not that its fair value is greater than its carrying amount, no further testing is required. When the qualitative analysis is not sufficient to support that the fair value exceeds the carrying amount, a goodwill impairment test is performed. The Company also has an unconditional option to bypass the qualitative assessment for any reporting unit in any period and proceed directly to performing a quantitative goodwill impairment test. The Company may resume performing the qualitative assessment in any subsequent period. A quantitative goodwill impairment test is performed by comparing the fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value, including goodwill. Fair value is estimated using a market multiple method, which estimates market multiples of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) for comparable entities with similar operations and economic characteristics. Significant assumptions used in estimating the fair value of each reporting unit include the market multiples of EBITDA.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company reviews the carrying amount of its long-lived assets including, but not limited to, property and equipment and intangible and other assets, if events or changes in circumstances indicate the asset might be impaired. The carrying amount of a long-lived asset group is considered impaired when the undiscounted cash flow from such asset group is estimated to be less than its carrying amount. In that event, a loss is recognized as the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds its fair value. Fair value is determined primarily using the anticipated cash flows discounted at a rate commensurate with the risk involved. Losses on long-lived asset groups to be disposed of would be determined in a similar manner, except that fair value would be reduced by any costs of disposal.

(expressed in US dollars)

Deferred revenue and customer deposits

Deferred revenue represents payments received in connection with services to be provided in the future and is recognized when the services have been provided. Customer deposits represent payments received as deposits in connection with California Closet products to be installed.

Leases

The Company has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components and has elected to account for each lease component (e.g., fixed rent payments) separately from the non-lease components (e.g., common-area maintenance costs). The Company has also elected not to recognize the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less. Leases are recognized on the balance sheets when the lease term commences, and the associated lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Income taxes

Income tax has been provided using the asset and liability method whereby deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future income tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements or income tax returns. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to reverse, be recovered or be settled. The effect on deferred income tax assets and liabilities of a change in income tax rates is recognized in earnings in the period in which the change occurs. A valuation allowance is recorded unless it is more likely than not that realization of a deferred income tax asset will occur based on available evidence.

Non-controlling interests

The non-controlling interests are considered to be redeemable securities and accordingly are recorded at the greater of (i) the redemption amount; or (ii) the amount initially recorded as redeemable non-controlling interest at the date of inception of the minority equity position. This amount is recorded in the “mezzanine” section of the consolidated balance sheets, outside of stockholders’ equity. Changes in the redeemable non-controlling interests amount are recognized immediately as they occur.

Fair value measurements

Fair value measurements are measured using inputs from the three levels of the fair value hierarchy. The classification within the hierarchy is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The three levels are as follows:

Level 1 – quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

FS Brands, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021

(expressed in US dollars)

Level 2 – observable market based inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; and

Level 3 – unobservable inputs.

Concentrations

The Company’s financial instruments exposed to credit risk include cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable and notes receivable. The Company places its cash, restricted cash and cash equivalents with institutions of high creditworthiness. Management routinely assesses the collectability of its accounts receivable and notes receivable and its credit risk is limited due to the dispersion of the customer base comprising the receivables.

3 Revenue from contracts with customers

Franchise fee revenue recognized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2022, which was included in deferred revenue at the beginning of the period, was $4,416,416 (2021 – $4,189,800). These fees are recognized over the life of the underlying franchise agreement, usually between 5 – 10 years.

The majority of current unearned revenue as at December 31, 2021 was recognized into income during 2022.

External broker costs and employee sales commissions in obtaining new franchisees are capitalized in accordance with the revenue standard and are amortized over the life of the underlying franchise agreement. Costs amortized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2022 were $1,953,819 (2021 – $1,979,515). The closing amount of the capitalized costs to obtain contracts on the balance sheets as at December 31, 2022 was $8,601,730 (2021 – $7,295,196). There were no impairment losses recognized related to those assets in 2021.

Disaggregated revenue is as follows:

	Twelve months ended December 31
	2022	2021

Point in time	625,511,188	499,635,473

The number of years with open tax audits varies depending on the tax jurisdiction. The Company's taxing jurisdiction is the United States of America. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to US federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2015.

The Company does not currently expect any material impact on earnings to result from the resolution of matters relating to open taxation years; however, actual settlements may differ from amounts accrued. Currently, it is not reasonably possible to determine whether unrecognized tax benefits will increase or decrease within the next 12 months with respect to settlements of tax audits. The Company has made its current estimates on facts and circumstances known to date and cannot predict subsequent or changed facts and circumstances that could affect its current estimates.

These agreements allow the Company to call the NCI at a price determined with the use of a formula price, which is usually equal to a fixed multiple of average annual net income before extraordinary items, income taxes, interest, depreciation and amortization. The agreements also have redemption features, which allow the owners of the NCI to put their equity into the Company at the same price, subject to certain limitations. The formula price is referred to as the redemption amount and may be settled in cash or with the ultimate parent's shares. The redemption amount as at December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021 was $53,347,171 (2021 – $28,256,350).

Notes receivable include amounts due from franchisees and non-controlling stockholders. Notes payable include amounts due to vendors in connection with business acquisitions. The fair values of these instruments are determined using a valuation model with prevailing interest rates obtained from third parties. The inputs are unobservable and thus classified as Level 3 and relate to future cash flows and discount rates, which requires the Company to develop its own assumptions.

16 Defined contribution pension plan

The Company contributed $2,998,964 (2021 – $2,356,024) to its 401(k) plan during the year, which has been recorded as an expense in each of the respective years.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Stockholders of FS Brands, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of FS Brands, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, and the related consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income, consolidated statements of changes in stockholders’ equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for the years then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

“PwC” refers to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, an Ontario limited liability partnership.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

FS Brands, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020

(expressed in US dollars)

1 Nature of business operations

FS Brands, Inc. (the Company), incorporated on March 31, 2010, is a 97.18% owned subsidiary of FS Property Services (U.S.) Inc. (the parent), which is indirectly a 100% owned subsidiary of FirstService Corporation (the ultimate parent), a publicly owned, diversified real estate services company.

Through the following subsidiaries, CertaPro Painters Ltd., Paul Davis Restoration, Inc., California Closet Company, Inc., Pillar to Post, Inc. and Floor Coverings International, Ltd., the Company's principal function is the recruiting, training and operation of franchise systems throughout the United States. In addition, the Company controls 20 California Closet franchises and 11 Paul Davis Restoration franchises.

2 Risk and uncertainties

Currently, one of the most significant risks and uncertainties is the potential adverse effect of the current pandemic of the novel coronavirus, or COVID-19. The COVID-19 pandemic in North America has had an impact on most of the Company's operations, particularly its service lines tied to home improvement. All of its businesses have been designated essential services in most of their geographic regions. The various "stay-at-home" and social distancing measures continue to impact the Company's ability to operate on the premises of its residential and commercial customers. Although many regions where the Company operates have re-opened, it is challenging to predict the financial performance in upcoming reporting periods with reasonable accuracy due to the lack of visibility around the duration and severity of the crisis and its dynamic changes.

3 Summary of significant accounting policies

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as at the dates of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. The most significant estimates made by management relate to the collectability of accounts receivable and notes receivable, reserves for uncertain tax positions, the initial determination of fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations and the assessment of potential impairment of goodwill and intangible assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries are eliminated on consolidation.

FS Brands, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020

(expressed in US dollars)

Revenue recognition and unearned revenue

The Company accounts for a contract with a customer when there is approval and commitment from both parties, the rights of the parties are identified, payment terms are identified, the contract has commercial substance and the collectability of consideration is probable. The Company measures revenue based on consideration specified in the contract of each customer and recognizes revenue as the performance obligations are satisfied by transferring the control of the service or product to a customer.

- Franchisor operations

The Company operates several franchise systems. Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the term of the franchise agreement. Royalty revenue is recognized based on a contracted percentage of franchisee revenue, as reported by the franchisees. Revenue from administrative and other support services, as applicable, is recognized as the services are provided.

The Company's franchise systems operate marketing funds on behalf of franchisees. Advertising fund contributions from franchisees and advertising fund expenditures are reported on a gross basis in the Company's consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income. To the extent that contributions received exceed advertising expenditures, the excess amount is accrued and offset as a deferred liability, whereas any expenditures in excess of contributions are expensed as incurred. As such, advertising fund contributions and the related revenue and expenses may be reported in a different period.

- Revenue from construction contracts and service operations other than franchisor operations

Revenue is recognized at the time the service is rendered. Certain services, including but not limited to construction contracts and real estate project management work-in-process, are recognized over time based on percentage of completion, a ratio of actual costs to total estimated contract costs. In cases where anticipated costs to complete a project exceed the revenue to be recognized, a provision for the additional estimated losses is recorded in the period when the loss becomes apparent. Amounts received from customers in advance of services being provided are recorded as unearned revenue when received.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all investments readily convertible into cash and having an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents include money market funds and time deposits, which are carried at cost and approximate fair value.

Restricted cash

Restricted cash comprises cash restricted for marketing fund use. The Company is in custody of the cash received from franchisees for use in franchisee marketing funds.

Per the guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) on restricted cash (Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-18), the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows explain the change during the period in the total of cash and cash equivalents and amounts generally described as restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents. The Company's restricted cash balance consists primarily of cash related to our marketing funds.

FS Brands, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(expressed in US dollars)

Inventories

Inventories consist of finished products, accessories and components of closet and workspace systems, painting kits, film and supplies held for resale. Inventories are valued at the lower of cost (first in, first out) and net realizable value. Work-in-progress inventory relates to construction contracts in process and is accounted for using the percentage of completion method.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, except for leasehold improvements, which are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the useful life of the asset or the remaining lease term.

Maintenance and repairs are expensed to operations as incurred, while betterments and additions are capitalized. On sale or retirement, the cost of the property and the related accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and any resulting gains or losses are reflected in income.

Goodwill and intangible assets

Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination and is not subject to amortization.

Intangible assets are recorded at a fair value on the date they are acquired and are amortized using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Customer relationships	4 to 20 years
Trademark	15 to 30 years
Franchise agreements	pattern of use

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually, on August 1, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the asset might be impaired, in which case the carrying amount of the asset is written down to fair value. Impairment of goodwill is tested at the reporting unit level. Impairment is tested by first assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. Where it is determined to be more likely than not that its fair value is greater than its carrying amount, no further testing is required. When the qualitative analysis is not sufficient to support that the fair value exceeds the carrying amount, a goodwill impairment test is performed.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company reviews the carrying amount of its long-lived assets including, but not limited to, property and equipment and intangible and other assets, if events or changes in circumstances indicate the asset might be impaired. The carrying amount of a long-lived asset group is considered impaired when the undiscounted cash flow from such asset group is estimated to be less than its carrying amount. In that event, a loss is recognized as the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds its fair value. Fair value is determined primarily using the anticipated cash flows discounted at a rate commensurate with the risk involved. Losses on long-lived asset groups to be disposed of would be determined in a similar manner, except that fair value would be reduced by any costs of disposal.

FS Brands, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020

(expressed in US dollars)

Deferred revenue and customer deposits

Deferred revenue represents payments received in connection with services to be provided in the future and is recognized when the services have been provided. Customer deposits represent payments received as deposits in connection with California Closet products to be installed.

Leases

The Company adopted ASU 842, Leases, as of January 1, 2019 using the modified retrospective approach. In addition, the Company elected the package of practical expedients permitted under the transition guidance within the new standard, which, among other things, allowed the Company to carry forward the historical lease classification.

The Company has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components and has elected to account for each lease component (e.g., fixed rent payments) separately from the non-lease components (e.g., common-area maintenance costs). The Company has also elected not to recognize the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less. Leases are recognized on the balance sheet when the lease term commences, and the associated lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Income taxes

Income tax has been provided using the asset and liability method whereby deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future income tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements or income tax returns. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to reverse, be recovered or be settled. The effect on deferred income tax assets and liabilities of a change in income tax rates is recognized in earnings in the period in which the change occurs. A valuation allowance is recorded unless it is more likely than not that realization of a deferred income tax asset will occur based on available evidence.

Non-controlling interests

The non-controlling interests are considered to be redeemable securities and accordingly are recorded at the greater of (i) the redemption amount; or (ii) the amount initially recorded as a non-controlling interest at the date of inception of the minority equity position. This amount is recorded in the mezzanine section of the consolidated balance sheet, outside of stockholders' equity. Changes in the non-controlling interests amount are recognized immediately as they occur.

Fair value measurements

Fair value measurements are measured using inputs from the three levels of the fair value hierarchy. The classification within the hierarchy is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The three levels are as follows:

Level 1 – quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 – observable market based inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; and

Level 3 – unobservable inputs.

Concentrations

The Company's financial instruments exposed to credit risk include cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable and notes receivable. The Company places its cash, restricted cash and cash equivalents with institutions of high creditworthiness. Management routinely assesses the collectability of its accounts receivable and notes receivable and its credit risk is limited due to the dispersion of the customer base comprising the receivables.

4 Revenue from contracts with customers

Franchise fee revenue recognized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2021 that was included in deferred revenue at the beginning of the period was $4,189,800 (2020 – $3,894,494). These fees are recognized over the life of the underlying franchise agreement, usually between 5 – 10 years.

External broker costs and employee sales commissions in obtaining new franchisees are capitalized in accordance with the revenue standard and are amortized over the life of the underlying franchise agreement. Costs amortized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2021 were $1,979,515 (2020 – $1,888,243). The closing amount of the capitalized costs to obtain contracts on the balance sheet as at December 31, 2021 was $7,295,196 (2020 – $7,156,920). There were no impairment losses recognized related to those assets in 2021.

Disaggregated revenue is as follows:

	Twelve months ended December 31
	2021	2020
	$	$
Revenue recognized
Point in time	499,635,473	414,423,823
Over time	4,815,123	4,517,636

The Company disaggregates revenue by point in time and over time.

The agreements also have redemption features, which allow the owners of the NCI to put their equity into the Company at the same price, subject to certain limitations. The formula price is referred to as the redemption amount and may be settled in cash or with the ultimate parent's shares. The redemption amount as at December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020 is $28,256,350 (2020 – $18,767,098).

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchises from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

(i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchise unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation or endorsement by the attorney general.

NORTH DAKOTA ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

For franchises and franchisees subject to the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, the following information supersedes or supplements, as the case maybe, the corresponding disclosures in the main body of the text of the Franchise Disclosure Document.

1. Item 17 is amended by the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein;

(a) Covenants not to compete upon termination or expiration of a franchise agreement are generally unenforceable in North Dakota, except in certain instances as provided by law.

(b) Any provision in the Franchise Agreement which designates jurisdiction or venue or requires the franchisee to agree to jurisdiction or venue in a forum outside of North Dakota is void with respect to any cause of action which is otherwise enforceable in North Dakota.

(c) Any provision in the Franchise Agreement which requires a franchisee to waive his or her right to a jury trial has been determined to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

(d) Any provision requiring a franchisee to sign a general release upon renewal of the franchise agreement has been determined to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

(e) Any provision in the Franchise Agreement requiring a franchisee to agree to the arbitration or mediation of disputes at a location that is remote from the site of the franchisee's business has been determined to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

(f) Apart from civil liability as set forth in Section 51-19-12 of the N.D.C.C., which is limited to violations of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law (registration and fraud), the liability of the franchisor to a franchisee is based largely on contract law. Despite the fact that those provisions are not contained in the franchise investment law, those provisions contain substantive rights intended to be afforded to North Dakota residents and it is unfair to franchise investors to require them to waive their rights under North Dakota Law.

(g) Any provision in the Franchise Agreement requiring that the Franchise Agreement be construed according to the laws of a state other than North Dakota are unfair, unjust or inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

(h) Any provision in the Franchise Agreement requiring a franchisee to consent to termination or liquidated damages is unfair, unjust or inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

(i) Any provision in the Franchise Agreement requiring a franchisee to consent to a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages is unfair, unjust or inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute "reasonable cause," as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

ADVERTISING CO-OP AMENDMENT

AGREEMENT TO MODIFY FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Agreement to Modify Franchise Agreement (“Agreement”) is made this _____ day of _____, 202_ (“Effective Date”), by and between: (i) Floor Coverings International, Ltd., a Georgia corporation with a business address at 5390 Triangle Parkway, Suite 125, Norcross, Georgia 30092 (“Franchisor”); and (ii) _____ (“Franchisee”), owner of _____ (“DMA”). At times, Franchisor and Franchisee will collectively be referred to as “Parties.”

BACKGROUND

A. On or around _____, Franchisor and Franchisee entered into a franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), pursuant to which Franchisee obtained the right and undertook the obligation to own and operate a Floor Coverings International franchised business (“Franchised Business”) within a defined geographical area in or around _____ (“DMA”).

B. The Parties acknowledge the benefit(s) of franchisees, who operate in close proximity to each other, collaborating with each other to increase the visibility of Franchisor’s brand in the local market.

C. The Parties acknowledge that pooling resources can have a greater impact on marketing efforts than each individual franchisee can achieve independently.

D. The Parties acknowledge that the effective operation of a franchise cooperative involves alignment of purpose and goals as well as trust and transparency between its members.

E. For these reasons, Franchisee wishes to participate in _____ cooperative (“Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative”) subject and pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree to modify the Franchise Agreement between them as follows:

1. Background; Definitions.

a. The Parties agree and acknowledge that the Background portion of this Agreement, including all definitions, representations and provisions set forth therein, is hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth in this Section.

b. For purposes of this Agreement, if a capitalized term in this Agreement is not specifically defined herein, that term will be afforded the same definition that the term is afforded in the Franchise Agreement, as applicable.

2. Franchisee Acknowledgment. Franchisee acknowledges that: (a) advertising and marketing are necessary to the successful operation of the Franchised Business to build brand awareness and increase market share; (b) advertising and marketing by other Franchisor franchisees within Franchisee's DMA directly benefits the Franchised Business; and (c) Franchisee shall cooperate, participate, and comply with the rules of the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative.

3. Default. Franchisee agrees that should Franchisee be in default of any monetary obligation due to the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative, or should Franchisee fail to participate in any local advertising or marketing program and make payment for it, then Franchisee shall be subject to a delinquency charge and pay interest at the highest contract rate permitted by law to be computed in addition to Franchisee's actual billing, plus any legal costs and attorneys' fees incurred in the event a suit must be commenced against Franchisee because of a violation of this Agreement. Further, Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that a breach of Franchisee's obligations to the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative shall constitute a breach of Franchisee's Franchise Agreement.

4. Reporting. Franchisee agrees to submit information required per the Franchise Agreement to administer the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative and will submit such information to Franchisor as required from time to time and in the form required by Franchisor.

5. Term; Payment; Allocation.

a. Franchisee agrees and understands that it shall participate in the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative for a period equal to the duration of the Franchise Agreement and any renewal thereof.

b. Franchisee shall be responsible for the payment of advertising and marketing on this local level as determined by the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative and approved by Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges the benefit that Franchisee is deriving and will derive from participating in the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative and Franchisee's responsibility for payment shall begin on the Effective Date of this Agreement. Franchisee further agrees to execute any agreement presently in use by the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative.

c. Any payment that Franchisee makes to the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative shall be credited against Franchisee's Local Marketing requirement, as set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

6. Collection; Disbursement; Franchisor Contribution.

a. Franchisee agrees to make all such payments to Franchisor, who will separately account for such funds, and Franchisor shall disburse such funds as determined by the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative. Franchisor shall collect Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative contributions in a similar manner as used to collect the monthly Royalty payments and to hold contributions in an account for the sole benefit of the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative. Franchisor shall provide quarterly statements of Advertising Cooperative financials, including income, expenses, and interest.

b. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, contribute to the Advertising Cooperative.

7. Quorum; Voting.

a. A quorum is required to conduct business for the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative and a quorum will be considered 3/4 of the members of such Advertising Cooperative.

b. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the above amount may be changed by the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative by a vote of 75% or more of its members in good standing with the Advertising & Merchandising Cooperative and with Franchisor, and as approved by Franchisor and Franchisee agrees to be bound by any such change.

c. Each Franchisee Member will get one (1) vote through its Representative. Franchisee Members who operate under multiple franchise agreements or operate in multiple Designated Marketing Areas (each, a "DMA") will only get one (1) total vote through its Representative. For illustration purposes, if a Franchisee Member has multiple franchise agreements or operates in multiple DMAs within the Cooperative Area under different entities, if there is common control between the entities, the Franchisee Member will only receive one (1) vote through its Representative.

d. For every $1,000,000 a Franchisee Member generates in Gross Sales during the prior calendar year, such Franchisee Member will receive one (1) additional vote through its Representative for the entire following calendar year. For illustration purposes, if a Franchisee Member generates $3,000,000 in Gross Sales in the DMA(s) that it operates within the Cooperative Area during the 2020 calendar year, such Franchisee Member, through its Representative, is entitled to receive four (4) votes total for the entire 2021 calendar year, pursuant to the terms of the Bylaws.

8. Counterparts. The parties agree that a signed copy of this Agreement may be delivered by fax or other electronic means, such as email transmission, to a party's email address, and such electronic copy shall be valid and binding as an original signed copy of this Agreement.

9. Bylaws. Both Franchisor and Franchisee agree to be bound by the BYLAWS FOR _____ ADVERTISING AND MERCHANDISING COOPERATIVE OF FLOOR COVERINGS INTERNATIONAL.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, have duly executed and delivered this Agreement on the date first written above.
