What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisors to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, see the agency information in Exhibit E.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risks be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Oklahoma. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Oklahoma than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Disclosures” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Questionnaires and Acknowledgments

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The Franchise Offered

We offer to enter into a franchise agreement (the "Franchise Agreement") with qualified entities or persons ("You" or "Your") that wish to establish and operate an Express Employment Professionals Business. In this Disclosure Document, "You" means the individual or legal entity with whom We enter into a Franchise Agreement. The term "You" also refers to the direct and indirect owners of a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or limited liability partnership that signs a Franchise Agreement as the "franchisee." If the franchisee is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or limited liability partnership, We will require all owners, shareholders, partners, or members, who have a direct or indirect beneficial interest, to personally sign the guarantee provision in the Franchise Agreement guaranteeing the legal entity's obligation under the Franchise Agreement. Furthermore, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, and any renewal, We require the principal owner to maintain at least a 51% ownership interest.

Under the Franchise Agreement, We will grant You the right and license (the "Franchise" or "Express Employment Professionals Business") to use the name Express Employment Professionals and its variations that We approve in writing, and to use other associated names, trade names, trademarks, copyrights, insignia, and service marks as provided for in the Franchise Agreement, and attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit A (the "Proprietary Marks"). The Franchise granted is only and exclusively for the operation of an Express Employment Professionals Business within a boundary line described in the Franchise Agreement (the "Territory"), and for a term of 5 years. You can only operate the Express Employment Professionals Business at and from the location identified in the Franchise Agreement. You may, however, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, open branch offices within the boundary line of Your Territory (each, a "Branch Office"). For each Branch Office, You must enter into a Branch Office Addendum, a form of which is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit D.

In addition, You may also set up recruiting stations ("Recruiting Stations") within the boundary line of Your Territory by signing a Recruiting Station Addendum, which is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit E. The Recruiting Stations are temporary in nature. They are set up to supplement Your Express Employment Professionals Business' recruiting efforts under circumstances such as special skill or worker shortage, special client demands or requirements, seasonal demand or other temporary conditions. You are not allowed to display any signage containing the Proprietary Marks at Your Recruiting Station without Our specific prior written approval.

There are two kinds of services offered by the Express Employment Professionals Businesses: temporary staffing services ("Temporary Staffing") and direct hire services ("Direct Hire"). Your Express Employment Professionals Business must offer Temporary Staffing services. The term "Associates" refer to the persons You send to the client's business from the Temporary Staffing portion of the Express Employment Professionals Business. You will have the option, with Our approval, to operate the Direct Hire portion of the Express Employment Professionals Business. Under the Franchise Agreement, You have the option to provide Temporary Staffing and Direct Hire for individuals who provide services in legal, finance, accounting, engineering, technology, marketing, and management professions and other professions that require advanced education, certification and/or training ("SRG Services"). These services must be operated through the Express Specialized Recruitment Group brand or other brand names that We designate. Unless we otherwise approve, in our discretion, You may exercise the option only if You have owned and operated Your Franchise a minimum of 12 months and by notifying Us in writing that You have exercised Your option to perform the SRG Services in Your Territory before Your 36th month of operating Your Franchise. This delay is to provide You time to fully understand and to have operational the non-Professional Service portions of Your Franchise before adding the SRG Services business.

As used in this Disclosure Document, a "Traditional Model" refers to an Express Employment Professionals Business that provides Temporary Staffing and/or Direct Hire services for non-professionals and may not offer SRG Services. An "SRG Model" refers to an Express Employment Professionals Business that offers SRG Services (i.e., Temporary Staffing and/or Direct Hire services for individuals who provide services in legal, finance, accounting, engineering, technology, marketing, and management professions and other professions that require advanced education, certification and/or training).

Express has designated some territories, and may designate additional territories, generally located in major metropolitan areas and comprised of higher levels of professional staffing business, as "SRG Model Markets". We require franchisees operating under the SRG Model to employ additional staff in compliance with Our minimum staffing requirements. Additionally, franchisees to whom We grant the right to provide SRG Services should generally anticipate higher operating costs, partially attributable to operating in a major metropolitan market.

You must operate the Express Employment Professionals Business in strict compliance with the system, procedures, methods, policies and requirements prescribed in The Manual (as defined below). We will make available to You one copy of The Manual.

The candidate must also meet other standards and qualifications that We may require. Once fees have been paid in full, We will enter into an agreement with the franchisee to provide financing. Loans will be made based on certain criteria as We may establish in our discretion. Please see Item 10 below for information regarding the loan terms under the BTO program.

Once they have completed their initial training course with Us, We will refund them one-half of the initial franchise fee that they have paid. We will refund the remaining one-half of the paid initial franchise fee if they satisfy certain requirements that We may establish. Currently, the requirements include billing 16 or more clients in a single week or generating $65,000 in Gross Margin in the first 26 weeks of the franchisee's operation of its Express Employment Professionals Business.

We started offering the Conversion Program in 2008. The Conversion Program is designed to offer qualified independent staffing firms the opportunity to become Our franchisees. To participate, the candidate must be the owner/operator of an existing independent staffing firm and meet other standards and qualifications that We may establish. Competition

The employment service market is mature. The market for the temporary staffing services includes any employer who hires or could benefit from hiring temporary or seasonal employees or contract employees to meet the changing technical needs of the business market. The market for direct hire services includes individuals looking for a job, and individuals who are presently employed but looking for a better job or for middle to upper management positions. You may have to compete with other businesses, including franchised operations, national chains and independently owned companies offering that provide all or part of the same services that We have to offer to Our clients. There are also local employment agencies that offer these services. In general, sales in the employment staffing service market are not seasonal.

Changes in local and national economic conditions may affect this industry and are generally difficult to predict. You will face other business risks that could have an adverse effect on Your Franchise, including pricing policies of competitors, changes to laws or regulations, changes in demand, new technologies and other competition from businesses that provide related services.

ITEM 3 LITIGATION

Actions Involving the Franchise Relationship

Express Services, Inc. v. Don G. King, et al. (United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma, Case No. CIV-15-1181-R).

On October 19, 2015, We commenced a declaratory judgment action in the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma against Southern Staffing, Inc., a franchisee of Ours, and Don G. King and Emily D. S. King, the owners of Southern Staffing, Inc. We subsequently added an additional defendant, Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc., which is owned by Don G. King. We alleged generally that Don G. King, in violation of the Franchise Agreement and Developer Agreement, had improperly formed a competing business, was using unauthorized software at his Franchise, had improperly and directly solicited Our clients and employee associates to change employment (using confidential information obtained as Our franchisee and as Our developer), and used Our name, trademarks, and service marks to falsely endorse and promote the competing business and to falsely pass off the competing business as a collaboration and partnership with Us.

The defendants also alleged several affirmative defenses and counterclaims against Us, asserting that We breached the Franchise Agreement by allegedly failing to permit the defendants to attend meetings and training programs, allegedly failing to enforce Our agreements with our franchisees, allegedly requiring the defendants to purchase goods and services from sources designated by Us, and allegedly failing to offer requisite guidance and assistance. The defendants also alleged that We breached the Developer Agreement when We ceased making payments totaling $288,000 due to Mr. King's breaches of the Franchise Agreement and Developer Agreement.

On February 23, 2017, the Court allowed Impact Workforce Technologies to intervene in the lawsuit. Impact Workforce Technologies generally alleged that We tortiously interfered with its potential contract to sell a computer software program to The Stoller Group which is owned by William H. Stoller, a shareholder of Ours.

The parties entered into a Settlement Agreement, dated as of June 7, 2018 (the "King Settlement Agreement"), to settle and resolve this action and the three actions discussed below. Under the King Settlement Agreement, (1) We obtained and filed a judgment against Don and Emily King, Southern Staffing, Inc., Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc. and the other related entities and their affiliates (the "King Parties") for approximately $9 million, but agreed not to enforce and execute upon the judgment as long as the King Parties do not breach the King Settlement Agreement, (2) all agreements between Us and the King Parties were terminated, (3) King's franchise offices were closed and transferred to Us, (4) We leased or subleased from King the former franchise offices and the related furniture, fixtures and equipment for approximately $800,000, and (5) King agreed to certain non-competition and non-solicitation covenants.

Express Franchise Services, L.P. v. Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc., et al. (United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Case No. 3:16-cv-147-TCB).

On September 19, 2016, We commenced an action in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia against Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc. and eleven limited liability companies named Impact Outsourcing Solutions I-XI (collectively with Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc., "IOS"). Don G. King, the owner of Southern Staffing, Inc., a franchisee of Ours, also owns IOS. We alleged generally service mark infringement, false designation of origin, unfair competition, and unfair and deceptive trade practices related to the defendants' use of Our marks in connection with their Impact Outsourcing Solutions staffing, recruiting, and human resource services business. As discussed above, we resolved and settled this matter as provided in the King Settlement Agreement.

Express Services, Inc. d/b/a Express Employment Professionals v. Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc. (Superior Court of Spalding County, State of Georgia, Case No. 17V-0703).

On July 17, 2017, We filed a lawsuit against Impact Outsourcing Solutions, Inc. ("Impact"), in the Superior Court of Spalding County, State of Georgia. We alleged generally that Don G. King, through his company Impact, had systematically solicited Our clients, Associates, and employees to move to Impact. We alleged generally claims for tortious interference with contractual relations, tortious interference with business relations, and temporary and permanent injunctive relief. Impact filed an Answer denying all of Our allegations and asserted counterclaims for setoff and unjust enrichment claiming that We benefited from Impact's promotions. As discussed above, we resolved and settled this matter as provided in the King Settlement Agreement.

Don G. King, Emily D.S. King, and Southern Staffing, Inc. v. Express Services, Inc. d/b/a Express Employment Professionals (United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma, Case No. CIV-17-833-M).

On August 3, 2017, Mr. King, Mrs. King and Southern Staffing, Inc. filed a lawsuit against Us in the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma. Plaintiffs alleged they received a bona fide offer to sell their franchise from a former employee and that We wrongfully refused to recognize the offer as a bona fide offer. As discussed above, we resolved and settled this matter as provided in the King Settlement Agreement.

SYDLYNN Professional SVCS, Inc. v. Express Services, Inc. (United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma, Case No. CIV-20-774-C).

On August 5, 2020, Sydlynn Professional Services, Inc. ("Sydlynn"), one of our franchisees, filed a civil complaint for damages in Oklahoma City, OK asserting claims for fraud, misrepresentation, and breach of the franchise agreement against Us. Sydlynn alleges that We misrepresented the quality and characteristics of the territory purchased, that We suppressed facts regarding the characteristics of the territory purchased, that We concealed material information about the territory purchased, and that we breached the franchise agreement by failing to provide a qualified corporate representative to assist the franchisee.

The parties entered into a Settlement Agreement, dated as of July 6, 2021 (the Sydlynn Settlement Agreement), to settle and resolve this action. Under the Sydlynn Settlement Agreement, (1) We specifically denied any fraud, misrepresentation, or breach of the franchise agreement, (2) all agreements between Us and the Sydlynn parties were terminated, (3) Sydlynn's franchise office was closed, and (4) Sydlynn agreed to certain non-competition and non-solicitation covenants. The terms of the Sydlynn Settlement Agreement resulted in a non-material, non-recurring charge to Our income for 2021.

Prior Actions

William H. Stoller, et al. v. Robert A. Funk, et al. (United States District Court, Western District of Oklahoma, Case No. CV-11-1144-M).

On October 11, 2011, William H. Stoller, individually and as trustee of the William H. Stoller Trust, which is a shareholder of Ours, commenced this action as a derivative action on behalf of Us against Robert A. Funk, both individually and in his capacity as trustee of the Robert A. Funk Trust, along with two other directors. Among other allegations, Mr. Stoller asserted a number of claims as shareholder derivative claims on Our behalf, including claims based on alleged breach of fiduciary duty, waste and mismanagement of corporate assets, misappropriation of corporate assets, and conversion of corporate assets. Mr. Stoller requested damages, including punitive damages; an order requiring Us to discontinue paying for Mr. Funk's personal obligations; an accounting; an order to remove Mr. Funk as a director and officer; an order to appoint Mr. Stoller as Our chief executive officer and chairman of the board; injunctive relief; and other relief.

On March 6, 2014, the District Court entered Administrative Closing Orders in both of the cases, based on representations of the parties that they had reached agreement on a general framework for the resolution of all issues. The cases were administratively closed, and all further proceedings were stricken from the court docket.

Express Services, Inc. v. William H. Stoller, et al. (Oklahoma County District Court, Case No. CJ-2012-2977).

On May 16, 2012, We commenced this action against William Stoller, individually and in his capacity as trustee of the William H. Stoller Trust, FS2 Group, L.L.C., HS2 Group, L.L.C., DS2 Group, L.L.C. and The Stoller Group, Inc. We sought a declaratory judgment with respect to (a) Mr. Stoller's rights and Our rights under certain agreements between Us and Mr. Stoller, (b) whether franchises owned by Mr. Stoller have been validly terminated, and (c) whether We may sell franchises in territories where Mr. Stoller claims an exclusive right to sell franchises. We also asserted a number of claims for damages, including claims for breach of contract, tortious breach of contract, tortious interference with prospective business relationships, and unjust enrichment based upon alleged actions by the defendants. We also alleged that Mr. Stoller, as guarantor of the Franchisee Defendants' obligations under their respective franchise agreements, is obligated to Us for all damages resulting from the breaches of the defendants' franchise agreements. The defendants took a number of procedural actions and filed a number of motions, including a motion to dismiss the case and a motion to stay the proceedings. The court denied those motions, but determined that Robert A. Funk is a necessary party to the proceeding.

On May 19, 2014, We entered into a Confidential General Release and Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") with William H. Stoller, Robert A. Funk, Robert E. Fellingner, and Jeri B. Craig. Under the Settlement Agreement, the parties agreed to settle and dismiss all three actions disclosed above.

Under the Settlement Agreement, Mr. Funk will remain Our CEO and Chairman of the Board through the April 1, 2018. Mr. Stoller will continue as Vice Chairman of the Board and became Our President and Chairman of the Executive Committee. On April 1, 2018, Mr.

Stoller will assume the role of CEO and Chairman of the Board and Mr. Funk will become President, Chairman of the Executive Committee and Vice Chairman of the Board.

Also, W. Anthony Bostwick, D. Keith McFall, Corban T. Benton and Elaine Brink (each of whom was named Executive Vice President) joined Mr. Funk and Mr. Stoller as members of the Executive Committee. Additionally, at the time, Our Board of Directors was to consist of four members including Robert A. Funk, William H. Stoller, Robert A. Funk, Jr., and Jeffrey B. Baker.

In connection with the Settlement Agreement, We purchased the UU Bar Ranch in Colfax and Mora counties, New Mexico, from Robert A. Funk and assumed all outstanding debt obligations on the UU Bar Ranch, for a purchase price of approximately $50,000,000. As consideration, We agreed to restructure debts owed and outstanding to Us by Mr. Funk.

The terms of the Settlement Agreement resulted in a material, non-recurring charge to Our income for 2014.

Michael Stoddart v. Express Services, Inc., Phillips & Associates, Inc. and Western Wine Services, Inc. (United States District Court for the Eastern District of California, Case No. 2:12-cv-01054-KJM-CKD)

On March 13, 2012, Michael Stoddart (an Associate of Ours) commenced this putative class action against Us, Phillips & Associates, Inc. (Our franchisee), and Western Wine (Our franchisee's client), in the California Superior Court for Solano County. On April 20, 2012, defendants removed the complaint to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California. The plaintiff asserted claims against all three defendants including: (1) failure to provide off-duty meal periods, (2) failure to pay final wages due upon termination, (3) failure to provide accurate wage statements; (4) failure to maintain accurate records, (5) unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent business practices under Business and Professions Code section 17200, and (6) penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). Plaintiff asserts that the proposed class period spans from March 13, 2008 to the present and the PAGA period spans from February 8, 2011 to the present. Plaintiff alleges a putative class that consists of over 80,000 current and former Associates that performed work on behalf of the clients of Our franchisees during the putative class period.

In September 2014, without admitting liability of any nature, We began a process of offering modest individual settlements to all current and former Associates of Ours who worked assignments with Western Wine during the putative class period. To date, approximately 310 of approximately 650 current and former Associates have accepted the settlement offer and released all claims asserted in the complaint.

The parties mediated the claims and reached an agreement to release all proposed class claims. On March 9, 2018, plaintiff filed a motion for preliminary approval of the class action settlement. Then on February 1, 2019, the Court denied the motion but plaintiff has stated he will file a renewed motion for approval of the settlement.

Plaintiff filed A Renewed Motion For Preliminary Approval of the class action settlement on December 19, 2019 to address the Court's requested changes. The Renewed Motion was heard on February 7, 2020. The Court requested that Plaintiff file supplemental briefing on the issue of commonality and would issue a decision sometime after the briefing was filed. The Court granted preliminary approval on December 4, 2020. Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement was granted on December 3, 2021.

Robert A. Funk v. Express Services, Inc. and William H. Stoller (Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services in Denver Colorado, Case No. 23575)

On December 21, 2018, Mr. Funk, one of Our two founding shareholders, filed an arbitration proceeding with the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (JAMS) in Denver, Colorado, asserting claims for breach of contract against Us and Mr. Stoller, the other of Our two founding shareholders. Mr. Funk contended that We breached the May 19, 2014 Amended and Restated Shareholders' Agreement among Mr. Funk, Mr. Stoller and Us as a result of Our practices of calculating quarterly and year-end tax distributions payable to the founding shareholders. Mr. Funk alleged that the Shareholders' Agreement required that We not take into account, in calculating tax distributions, certain deductions to and credits against taxable income. According to Mr. Funk, Our practices resulted in a significant undercalculation and underpayment of tax distributions due to both him and Mr. Stoller. We and Mr. Stoller denied Mr. Funk's claims.

Mr. Funk claimed that he was owed approximately $41 million in past tax distributions plus accrued interest thereon.

On December 27, 2020, We entered into a 2020 Confidential General Release and Settlement Agreement (the "2020 Settlement Agreement") with William H. Stoller, the William H. Stoller Trust, the William H. Stoller Dynasty Trust, Robert A. Funk, the Funk ESI Stock Trust, and the Robert A. Funk Trust. Under the 2020 Settlement Agreement, the parties agreed to settle and dismiss both actions disclosed above.

The terms of the 2020 Settlement Agreement resulted in a material, non-recurring distribution to Mr. Stoller and Mr. Funk, an adjustment to the method of calculation and payment of specific tax distributions to Mr. Stoller and Mr. Funk going forward, and a one-time payment of previously agreed upon deferred compensation to Mr. Stoller.

Currently Effective Injunctive or Restrictive Orders

In re: Franchise No Poaching Provisions (Express Services, Inc. d/b/a Express Employment Professionals) (King County Superior Court, State of Washington, Case No. 19-2-04312-1 SEA).

On September 7, 2018, We received a Civil Investigative Demand from the Washington Attorney General to produce documents and respond to questions about Our inclusion of "no-poach" provisions in Our franchise agreement which restrict Our franchisees' ability to hire or solicit employees of Ours or of Our franchisees. The Washington Attorney General asserted that these provisions constitute a contract, combination, or conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.030, and We deny such assertion. Nevertheless, We entered into an Assurance of Discontinuance (the "AOD") with the Washington Attorney General. We agreed not to include the no-poach provisions in Our future franchise agreements, not to enforce the no-poach provisions of Our current franchise agreements, and to notify Our current franchisees of the AOD. The State of Washington and Washington Attorney General agreed not to file suit or take any further investigative or enforcement action against Us with respect to the no-poach provisions. On February 15, 2019, the King County Superior Court, State of Washington, approved the AOD and closed this matter.

Other than the above actions and settlement, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

The money paid into the Claim/Indemnity Plan belongs to the franchisees and will only be used to pay covered Claim/Deductibles or to reimburse Us if We pay a Claim/Deductible in excess of the funds collected at that time. If the Claim/Indemnity Plan is terminated, any money after any reimbursement due Us, will be returned to the Franchisees.

The Claim/Indemnity Plan only applies if You have followed the policies and procedures contained in The Manual, or as provided to You.

You will not create bills or statements to clients, but must use Your best efforts to collect bills generated by Us in accordance with the policies and procedures in The Manual. If payment of any bill is made payable to You, payment must be deemed to have been received in trust for Us, and You will not deposit or convert the funds received and must immediately forward the same, properly endorsed, to Us.

We will remit to You Your portion of the Gross Receipts, which will be 90% of the Gross Receipts.

The term "Gross Receipts" shall mean the total of all money and other remuneration received on Your Direct Hire business conducted in accordance with the Franchise Agreement at the location specified; the term "Gross Receipts" shall not include bona fide discounts for promotional programs recommended by Us, refunds or any amount collected and paid to any federal, state, municipal or governmental authorities under the provisions of any Sales Tax Act or similar act of governmental authorities.

You are responsible for and must pay all taxes applicable to the Gross Receipts to the applicable taxing authority (whether described as a fee, license, registration, qualification, authorization, permit, tax, or other charge or assessment, and whether based on a flat fee, net profits, gross sales, gross receipts, payroll, number of employees, value of real or personal property, or other method) and any applicable penalties and/or interest associated therewith. If We pay any tax on Your behalf We will reduce Your portion of the Gross Receipts by the amount of such payment.

6. Please refer to Note 3 regarding "Express Advertising/Marketing Fund." Further details about the Fund, as well as applicable advertising and promotional requirements, can be found in Item 11, under the subheading "Advertising."
7. The term "Total Billings" means the total of Temporary Staffing Billings and Direct Hire Billings. "Temporary Staffing Billings" means the total of all money and other things of value received on Your Temporary Staffing portion of the business conducted in accordance with the Franchise Agreement at the location specified, excluding bona fide discounts for promotional programs recommended by Us, client refunds, or any amount collected and paid to any federal, state, municipal or governmental authorities under the provisions of any Sales Tax Act or similar act of governmental authorities. "Accounting Period" means the period as designated by Us, which may be modified by Us, in Our discretion, upon written notice to You. Currently, an Accounting Period means a four- or five-week period as designated by Us.

We have the right to require You to make these payments by EFT (electronic fund transfer). You must comply with the payment and reporting procedures specified by Us in The Manual.

Notes to Item 7 Chart:

Please read the following notes together with the chart above.

Please note that We do not offer direct or indirect financing to You for any items, except for “Computer Systems” as described below in Item 10. The availability and terms of financing from other sources will likely depend on factors such as the availability of financing generally, Your creditworthiness, Your business operations, and lending institutions’ policies.

Except as described below, all fees and amounts that You must pay to Us are non-refundable. For any amounts paid to third parties, the availability and conditions under which You may obtain refunds will depend on the terms offered by those third-party suppliers.

There are no advertising or other cooperatives in existence as of the date of this Disclosure Document.

1. INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE. The Initial Franchise Fee is $40,000 and is paid when You sign the Franchise Agreement. If you enter into the Developing Market Incentive Addendum with Us, We will waive Your Initial Franchise Fee. We may offer discounts to qualified veterans, or qualified franchisees who are opening additional Express Employment Professionals Businesses. Please see Item 5 for details. The initial franchise fee is not refundable, except (1) for new franchisees awarded new Territories under the New Franchisee Incentive Program, $25,000 of the initial franchise fee is refundable; and (2) for qualified staffing industry employees that participate in the IPP, half of the initial franchise fee is refundable upon completion of initial training and the remaining half is refundable upon the satisfaction of certain requirements established by Us from time to time. Currently, the requirements include billing 16 or more clients in a single week or generating $65,000 in Gross Margin in the first 26 weeks of the franchisee's operation of its Express Employment Professionals Business.

2. LEASE AND DEPOSIT. You must establish and maintain an office within Your Territory from which to conduct the Express Employment Professionals Business. You must maintain the office in a safe, orderly, and clean state, presenting a businesslike appearance, and keep it properly staffed, furnished, and identified as an Express Employment Professionals office. The office must be located in a place suitable for interviewing Associates and candidates and for meeting the general public and customers. Any deviation from the suggested interior layout and design provided to You by Us for establishing Your new business must be approved in advance in writing. We expect that You will need approximately 1,000 to 1,500 square feet for the office for the Traditional Model and approximately 1,200 to 1,500 square feet for the SRG Model. Lease costs will vary with the real estate costs in each market. We estimate that Your lease costs will be between $23/square foot and $28/square foot per year for the Traditional Model and between $45/square foot and $60/square foot per year for the SRG Model. The estimates included in the chart are for one month's rent.

You are responsible for obtaining all necessary permits or licenses necessary for the site renovation and operation of the Express Employment Professionals Business.

Prepaid rent and security deposits are generally required by landlords. Based on Our experience, We have found that prepaid rent is generally non-refundable. Security or other deposits may be refundable either in full or in part, depending on Your lease or contract.

3. LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS. Leasehold improvements will vary with many factors, including the size and conditions of the premises. Financing may be available through lessors or third parties. If You finance, You will incur financing costs.
4. TRAINING COSTS. "Training Costs" include the costs You will incur when You and/or Your employees attend Our initial training program, the salaries of Your employees before the Express Employment Professionals Business opens, as well as advanced sales and recruiting training with respect to the SRG Model. We will provide initial training program of up to 1 week in Oklahoma City, OK, and 2 weeks at Your office location or another location as We designate, to train You to operate the Express Employment Professionals Business. We will pay the cost of transportation and lodging while You are in attendance at the classroom training in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and, if applicable, Your field training designation, for a maximum of 2 people. Meals, incidental expenses, and any changes made to transportation plans are Your responsibility.
5. OFFICE SUPPLIES. The estimates for this line item reflect the costs of various office supplies You will need in connection with the operation of the Express Employment Professionals Business, including paper, business cards, stationery, envelopes, etc. The estimates included in the chart are for Your initial setup.
6. OFFICE EQUIPMENT. Equipment costs include costs of various office equipment You will need to operate the Express Employment Professionals Business.

7. COMPUTER SYSTEM AND REQUIRED SOFTWARE. You must incur the costs of obtaining and installing the Computer System and Required Software as We specify. In 2022, 21% of our new franchisees financed the purchase of the computer system and software through Us. The average monthly expense, principal and interest, was $403.64, combined Traditional Model and SRG Model offices. For further details, please refer to Item 11, under the subheading "Computer System and Required Software." SRG Model offices frequently invest between $4,000 and $6,000 for sales, recruiting, and data mining applications per year.
8. FURNITURE AND FIXTURE. The estimate is for the furniture and fixtures You will need to operate the Express Employment Professionals Business, such as: desks, chairs, file cabinets, etc.
9. SIGNS. You must purchase and display a sign which complies with Our specifications, if sign rights can be secured at Your approved location. All signs on doors, windows, or walls must conform to Our regulations. The cost of signs will vary from location to location depending on lease requirements, ordinances and restrictions, competition, and related factors. Signage will include interior and exterior signs.
10. INSURANCE. This is an estimate of Your initial insurance premium for required insurance. You must acquire and maintain in effect insurance of the types and in at least the amounts which may be prescribed in The Manual, and disability insurance if required by applicable law. For further details, please see Item 8, under the subheading "Insurance."
11. PROFESSIONAL SERVICE FEES. We believe that it is important for You to consult with Your own accountant, attorney, risk management and/or business advisor before making any decision to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Us. You should also use an attorney or other business advisor to review any lease or other agreements that You enter in connection with Your Express Employment Professionals Business or other independent business relationship.
12. ADDITIONAL FUNDS. You will need additional capital to support on-going expenses, such as payroll and utilities, insurance, lease, licenses, supplies, and miscellaneous expenses. SRG Model offices frequently invest between $4,000 and $6,000 for sales, recruiting, and data mining applications per year. New businesses often generate a negative cash flow. We estimate that the amount given will be sufficient to cover on-going expenses for the start-up phase of the business, which We estimate to be 9 months.

Your credit history could impact the amount (and cost) of funds needed during the start-up phase. If You have no credit history or a weak credit history suppliers may give You less favorable lending and payment terms, which might increase the amount of funds You will need during this period. You will need to have staff on-hand before opening to prepare the Express Employment Professionals Business for opening, training, orientation, and related purposes.

13. TOTAL. In compiling this chart, we relied on Our experience in the employee service business and information from Our franchisees. The figures in the chart and the explanatory notes are only estimates. Your actual costs may vary considerably, depending, for example, on factors such as: local economic conditions; the local market; the prevailing wage rate; competition; the sales level achieved during the initial period of operation; and Your management and training experience, skill, and business acumen. Additional operating expenses will be incurred in connection with the ongoing operation of Your Express Employment Professionals Business and periodic reinvestment will be necessary following the initial start-up phase for leasehold improvements, equipment, fixtures, and other assets.

You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise. You should take into account the cash outlays and probable losses that You may incur while You are trying to get established. Extensive start-up costs may be involved, depending upon Your circumstances.

14. BRANCH OFFICE FEE. You may, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, open Branch Offices within Your Territory. For each Branch Office, You must sign a Branch Office Addendum and pay a Branch Office Fee of $3,000. Please refer to Item 6 for more details.
15. RECRUITING STATION FEE. You may, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, open Recruiting Stations within Your Territory. For each Recruiting Station, You must sign a Recruiting Station Addendum and pay a Recruiting Station Fee of $300. Please refer to Item 6 for more details.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTION ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICE

To ensure that optimal quality and service is maintained, You must operate the Express Employment Professionals Business in accordance with the methods, standards, and specifications as We may prescribe in The Manual or otherwise in writing.

If You are not an Opt-out Franchisee, We (or Our designee) will provide payroll services with respect to the Associates. If You are an Opt-out Franchisee, as discussed in Item 1 above, You must employ a Payroll Company approved by Us to process the payroll of Your Associates.

You must use the forms, stationery, business cards, advertising matter, signage, brochures and supplies of a size, color, material, typestyle, layout, and quality approved by Us, now required by Us, or as they may be revised or amended by Us. We have developed standards and specifications for Computer System and Required Software, signs, stationery, business cards, office supplies, etc. We will furnish these standards to You in The Manual or otherwise in writing. You must purchase only the products and services meeting those specifications and standards.

We will make available to You a list of approved suppliers. You may not buy from any supplier that We have not yet approved in writing, and You must stop buying from any supplier who We approve, but later disapprove. Currently, We and some of Our affiliates are approved suppliers for certain items, including the Computer System, travel services, promotional items, etc.

Robert A. Funk has ownership interest in Our affiliate Express Clydesdales, LLC.

When considering whether to approve any particular possible supplier, We will consider (among others) the following factors: whether the supplier can show, to Our reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet Our then-current standards and specifications; whether the supplier has adequate quality controls and capacity to supply the system's needs promptly and reliably; and whether the supplier's approval would enable the System, in Our sole opinion, to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing. We will make Our criteria for supplier approval available to You upon request. We do not charge a fee for reviewing potential suppliers, and will typically notify You of Our approval or disapproval within 45 days after We receive the complete information that we require. We reserve the right, at Our option, to revoke Our approval if the item or supplier does not continue to meet any of Our then current criteria.

We may designate a single distributor or supplier for any product, service, equipment, supply or material and may approve a supplier or distributor only as to certain products. The designated supplier may be Us or an affiliate of Ours. Currently, You are not required to purchase any products or services from Us or any of Our affiliates (other than the Required Software, and advertising, discussed below).

We do not negotiate purchasing programs with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees. There are no purchasing or advertising cooperatives.

We estimate that Your purchases in accordance with Our specifications will represent approximately 30% to 40% of Your total purchases in connection with Your establishment of the Express Employment Professionals Business, and 5% to 10% of Your total purchases in connection with Your continuing operation of the Express Employment Professionals Business.

Revenue Based on Franchisee Purchases

We and Our affiliates may receive payments from suppliers on account of the suppliers' dealings with You and other franchisees, and may use any amounts received without restriction and for any purpose We and Our affiliates deem appropriate. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, We have not received and do not intend to receive any payments of this nature.

Background Checks

When clients request background checks, You must use approved background-check vendors that we designate. Currently, Our approved vendors for background checks are CICS Employment Services, Inc. ("CICS"), Global Safety Network, Inc. ("GSN"), and S2Verify, LLC ("S2Verify"). They are the exclusive vendors for background checks, unless the client requests a different vendor and the vendor meets certain criteria that We, in Our sole discretion, determine. We or Our affiliates may have an opportunity to receive rebates or revenue sharing based on the volume of purchases or payments for background checks obtained by franchisees from approved vendors. We have not received, and We do not anticipate receiving in the near future, any rebates or revenue, directly or indirectly, from CICS, GSN or S2Verify on account of franchisee purchases and payments for background checks. We have negotiated purchase arrangements, including price terms, with CICS, GSN and S2Verify for background screening services, for the benefit of Our franchisees.

Computer System and Required Software

You must install and use the Computer System and Required Software, which are described in more details in Item 11, under the subheading "Computer System and Required Software." The estimated costs are described in Item 6 and 7.

Advertising

We will provide marketing and advertising materials and special campaigns and promotional programs as may be developed by Us and deemed to be helpful for Your Express Employment Professionals Business. Please see Item 11 for further details on "Advertising."

Insurance

Upon taking possession of the business You will acquire and maintain in effect insurance of the types and in at least the amounts which may be prescribed in The Manual, and disability insurance if required by applicable law. We will assist You to arrange for insurance coverage as set out in The Manual.

As of the date of this Disclosure Document, Our insurance requirements include the following, but we may change these requirements in our discretion:

- Property Insurance: Replacement Cost value with Personal Property "special form" coverage. If You are in a flood zone, You must have flood insurance. Note: Insure furniture, equipment and software upon delivery.
- Liability Insurance: Commercial General Liability coverage with limits of $1,000,000 for bodily injury and property damage, including employees' non-owned automobile liability, arising from Franchise employees' vehicles.
- Fidelity/Crime Bond: $5,000 for theft, disappearance, and destruction on the franchise premises; $5,000 for theft, disappearance, and destruction off the franchise premises; $5,000 employee blanket dishonesty, covering dishonest acts committed by franchise employees. The deductible for each loss under the above coverage must be no greater than $1,000.
- Errors & Omissions: Staffing Consultant's Errors and Omissions with $1,000,000 in limits with a deductible no greater than $1,000 for direct hire placements.
- Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability: As required by state statute (for franchise staff personnel).

You will name Us as an additional insured on the Property Insurance and Liability Insurance policies as it relates to the operation of the business only, and shall furnish Us with duplicate policies or certificates evidencing insurance in force as required before taking possession of the business. The policy or policies shall be written by an insurance company satisfactory to Us. All Your required insurance as it applies to Your indemnity of Us shall be considered primary to any insurance carried by Us.

Workers' Compensation Insurance for Associates

The premium for the Workers' Compensation Insurance is determined by Your Express Employment Professionals Business's Workers' Compensation modifier, which in turn depends on the claim history of Your Express Employment Professionals Business. The claim history may be affected by Your daily decisions in selecting clients and their types of business.

We will arrange Workers' Compensation Insurance to cover the Associates. Some states (currently, North Dakota and Wyoming) have a state agency that sells all workers' compensation insurance in that state. If Your Express Employment Professionals Business is in one of these states, the modifier will be the average of all Express Employment Professionals Businesses in that state.

If You are an Opt-out Franchisee, You are responsible for arranging the Workers' Compensation Insurance for all of Your Associates and other employees. You must name us as an additional insured on the Workers' Compensation Insurance policies, and You must pay the deposit premium and the earned premium required to maintain the coverage.

Telephone

You must register the telephone number(s) used in the Express Employment Professionals Business with the telephone company as Express Employment Professionals and answer in a way as to identify them as the Express Employment Professionals telephones. This telephone service shall have a minimum of 4 lines, and You will refrain from transacting or advertising any other business using that telephone service. Telephone listing and numbers and social media accounts are Our property. Bills should be rendered to Us at the local office address but paid by You. You will refrain from changing the address or telephone numbers of Your business without first obtaining prior approval in writing from Us.

We do not provide any material benefits to You based on Your use of the approved suppliers. However, We do consider a variety of factors when determining whether to renew the Franchise Agreement, grant Branch Office, or grant additional franchises. Among the factors We consider is the compliance with the requirements described above.

Neither the Franchise Agreement, nor any other agreement, requires Us to provide any other assistance or services to You during the operation of the Express Employment Professionals Business.

Advertising

The term "Advertising" includes all advertising, identification and promotional materials of any kind, including print and broadcast advertisements; direct mail materials, catalogues or brochures; internet banners, advertisements or other promotional communications; press releases; business cards; and any other communications which We deem "advertising" in The Manual or otherwise.

We will provide marketing and advertising materials and special sales campaigns and promotional programs as may be developed by Us and deemed to be helpful for Your Franchise.

You may only use any advertising materials or any advertising or promotional messages in connection with the promotion of Your Franchise which We have either provided to You, or have previously been approved by Us in writing. Except for advertising materials We provide to You, You agree to submit to Us, before dissemination, any proposed advertising for Our approval. We may withhold this approval for any reason.

You and We will jointly contribute 1% of the Gross Margin to a national advertising fund denoted as the Express Advertising/Marketing Fund (the "Fund"). We will pay Our 40% of 1% of the Gross Margin to the Fund on a monthly basis. We will withhold 60% of the 1% of the Gross Margin from Your portion of the Gross Margin due to You and pay this directly to the Fund. This contribution is uniform for all franchisees.

During Your first 24 months of operations as a new franchisee the Fund will reimburse You for one-half of the advertising monies expended to promote the Express Employment Professionals Business up to a dollar level to be calculated quarterly as $150.00 per quarter per 1,000 hours per week average (the "Advertising Reimbursement"). Example: 0-1,000 hours = $150.00, 1,001-2,000 hours = $300.00, 2,001-3,000 hours = $450.00, etc. If You do not file a claim with the Fund for reimbursement within 60 days after the end of any quarter, You waive any right You have for Advertising Reimbursement from the Fund for that quarter.

Although not required under the Franchise Agreement, we recommend that, before the opening and during Your first 30 days of operation of Your Express Employment Professionals Business, You conduct a grand opening advertising program in Your local market.

We will direct all advertising programs with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and media used in the programs. The Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the Proprietary Marks for the benefit of the franchise. In administering the Fund, We and Our designees undertake no obligation to make expenditures for You which are equivalent or proportionate to Your contribution, or in Your Territory. The source of advertising may be an in-house advertising department or national or regional agency. Media coverage may be local or national. If not all amounts are spent during a particular year, they will be carried forward into the next year.

The Fund and all earnings shall be used exclusively to provide the Advertising Reimbursement and to meet any and all costs of maintaining, administering, directing and preparing advertising. All sums paid by You to the Fund shall be maintained in a separate account from Our funds and shall not be used to defray any of Our general operating expenses, except for reasonable administrative costs and overhead, if any, as We may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs for You, including conducting market research, preparing marketing and advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund; and the Fund and its earnings shall not inure to Our benefit. The Fund will not be used for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of Franchises.

Although We intend the Fund to be of perpetual duration, We maintain the right to terminate the Fund. The Fund shall not be terminated, however, until all monies in the Fund have been expended for advertising and promotional purposes. You will have no interest in the Fund or in any of the monies held in the fund.

We do not intend to operate company-owned locations, but if We do, they will be required to contribute to the Fund on the same basis upon which similarly-stated franchisees contribute to the Fund. During the last fiscal year (2022), the Fund spent 3.54% of its income on Public Relations Promotions ($228,315), 86.97% on Media Placement ($5,605,259), 9.49% on Advertising Production ($611,346), and 0.00% for general and administrative expenses ($0). Any funds not expended in the year they were collected will be carried forward to the next year and be placed in the Funds budget. You may obtain an accounting for the above Fund by submitting a request for a copy of the annual accounting to Our Chief Financial Officer. The Fund is not subject to an independent audit.

Websites (as defined below) and Social Media Accounts are considered as "advertising" under the Franchise Agreement, and are subject (among other things) to Our review and prior written approval before they may be used (as described above). As used in the Franchise Agreement, the term "Website" means a group of related documents that can be accessed through a common Internet address. The term Website includes, but is not limited to, Internet and World Wide Web home pages. In connection with any Website or Social Media Account, the Franchise Agreement provides that You may not establish a Website or Social Media Account, nor may You offer, promote, or sell any products or services, or make any use of the Proprietary Marks, through the Internet without our prior written approval. As a condition to granting any such consent, we will have the right to establish any requirement that we deem appropriate, including among other things a requirement that Your only presence on the Internet will be through one or more web-pages that we establish on our website.

We do not have a franchisee advertising council.

Computer System and Required Software

We will have the right to specify or require that certain brands, types, makes, and/or models of communications, computer systems, and hardware to be used by, between, or among Express Employment Professionals Businesses, including: (a) front office, back office and point of sale systems, data, audio, video, and voice storage, retrieval, and transmission systems for use at offices, between or among offices, and between and among You and Us; (b) physical, electronic, and other security systems; (c) printers and other peripheral devices; (d) archival back-up systems; and (e) internet access mode (e.g., form of telecommunications connection) and speed (collectively, the "Computer System").

We will have the right, but not the obligation, to develop or have developed for it, or to designate: (a) computer software programs and accounting system software that franchisees must use in connection with the Computer System ("Required Software"), which We will install; (b) updates, supplements, modifications, or enhancements to the Required Software, which We will install; (c) the tangible media upon which You will record data; and (d) the database file structure of Your Computer System.

You must install and use the Computer System and Required Software. You will make available appropriate resources and/or make available time to facilitate the upgrades and other changes to the Computer System and Required Software as We may reasonably request in writing (collectively, "Computer System Upgrades"). Upgrades to the Computer System and Required Software will be based on technological advances and Our business needs. You will be required to maintain a manufacturer's maintenance agreement on the Computer System while the Computer System is in service. You will comply with all specifications issued by Us with respect to the Computer System and the Required Software, and with respect to Computer System Upgrades. You will also afford Us unimpeded access to Your Computer System and Required Software as We may request, in the manner, form, and at the times requested by Us.

Except as described above, the Computer System and Required Software are not proprietary to Us. We are the approved supplier of the Computer System. You are required to purchase the Computer System through Us. We may, in Our sole discretion, provide financing. For further details on financing, please see Item 10.

You must install, maintain, and at all times operate the Computer System and Required Software that We may specify in The Manual or otherwise in writing, which specifications We may periodically change. The following is a general description of the current configuration of the Computer System and the Required Software. You will find more detailed specifications in Our Manual.

We will make available to You one copy of The Manual. Upon the expiration or termination of the Agreement, You must return The Manual to Us. The Manual, as revised, will remain Our property at all times. You agree to ensure that Your copy of The Manual is current and up to date. The term "Manual" shall mean all manuals, guides, policies, procedures, and written communications and directives from Us related to Your franchise and includes but is not limited to the following:

- The Expressway Manual – A handbook that provides You with step-by-step instructions and checklists to opening Your new office from the time You sign the Agreement through the first week You actually open Your office.
- The Sales and Operating Manual – A manual that contains Our policies and procedures about the three key elements of the Express system, including information about how to sell, recruit and service clients to operate an Express Employment Professionals Business.

- The Brand Guide

We may utilize bulletins, notices, newsletters and other forms of communication to You. Whether or not formally made a part of The Manual, such communications shall be treated as though they were part of The Manual, and shall operate to express Our instructions and requirements.

We may merge components, add additional components or otherwise revise The Manual as We deem appropriate.

To meet unpredictable changes in the conditions under which We operate, including technological, demographic, economic and competitive, it may be necessary to make changes to the system. Those changes will be reflected in changes to The Manual. We reserve the right to make changes, by additions, deletions, or revisions. You agree that The Manual, as so revised, will be equally binding as The Manual as it exists on the date of execution of this Agreement.

You and Your employees will treat The Manual and the information contained in it as confidential, and use all reasonable efforts to preserve that confidentiality.

The table of contents of Our current Manual is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit H.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Your Territory will be specified in the Franchise Agreement and will have a minimum of 30,000 jobs based on results from GbBIS, a division of Intelligent Direct Inc. A copy of the GbBis report will be attached to Your Franchise Agreement with Us.

You must have an office in Your Territory. You may relocate Your office so long as the new location is within Your Territory. In the event of relocation, Your Territory will remain unchanged.

With the exception of Direct Hire Services and the potential reversion of the SRG Services rights to Us, under the Franchise Agreement, You are granted an exclusive territory. As a result of the potential reversion or termination of the SRG Services rights and/or other franchisee’s Direct Hire Services, You could face competition from Us or other franchisees. However, You are granted certain territorial protections as described in this Item.

As long as You perform Your duties under the Franchise Agreement, are not in default under the Franchise Agreement, and have maintained Your offices as required, We will not establish, except as otherwise described below, other third-party franchises or company-owned outlets selling or leasing the same products or services under the same or different trade name(s) or trademark(s) in Your Territory during the term of the Franchise Agreement.

Except as described below, we will refer all leads and inquiries for personnel services that We receive from client business locations within Your Territory to You, whether through Internet, telephone or otherwise. You must only send Associates to client business locations within Your Territory. You must not send Associates to a client business location in another Franchisee's granted territory even if the client is located within Your Territory. If You violate these restrictions, We may charge You a special fee, as specified in The Manual, as liquidated damages. All clients serviced by You will be Our clients and not Yours. With Our written approval, You may send Associates to a client's business location in a territory that has not been granted to another Franchisee (an open territory). Sending Associates to a client business location in an open territory does not give You any rights to operate in the open territory, except as specifically approved. If You provide Associates to a client business location in an open territory that is subsequently sold to an Express franchisee, You may continue servicing that client for up to one year from the date in which the other franchisee opens its Franchise in the formerly open territory, during which time You will introduce the new Franchisee to the client. At the end of one year You will (a) relinquish the client business location to the other franchisee who acquired the open territory, (b) notify the client that further requests for Associates should be directed to the new Franchisee and, (c) You will be required to coordinate the transfer of the Associates at the client business location to the new Franchisee in such a manner as to minimize the impact of the transfer on the client business location. Your failure to comply with these requirements constitutes a default under the Franchise Agreement, and We will have the rights specified in the Franchise Agreement, including the right to charge You a special fee, as specified in The Manual, as liquidated damages.

You must not market or sell to potential clients located outside Your Territory without Our written approval. You must not establish or operate a business under the Proprietary Marks in a different or additional territory, unless We grant You an additional Franchise, or We amend the Franchise Agreement.

We may, in our discretion, agree with You to amend the Franchise Agreement to permit You to establish and operate a Franchise in a different or additional territory, Our approval is subject to the following: (a) You must obtain Our approval of Your Expansion Application (as provided for in The Manual) to the Vice President of Franchising; (b) You must be in the Circle of Excellence the year prior to Your request or You are on track to achieve Circle of Excellence during the year of Your request to open an additional franchise territory; (c) We are not in receipt of Your non-renewal notice; and (d) You must adhere to the transfer of ownership requirements set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

You will only have the right to operate the Franchise subject to the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement. We specifically reserve all other rights, now and in the future, to Ourselves and Our affiliates, including:

- (1) To establish franchised or company-owned outlets, under the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, outside Your Territory.
- (2) To establish franchised or company-owned outlets, within Your Territory, so long as the services being provided are not personnel placement services, but are other services (such as recordkeeping, payroll services or accounting); or to enter into other arrangements with third parties in order to provide such services.

- (3) To establish franchised or company-owned businesses, within the boundary line of Your Territory, using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, that provide Temporary Staffing Services and Direct Hire Services, in each case, for Professionals; provided, however, that We will establish or franchise a business using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, that provides Temporary Staffing Services and Direct Hire Services for Professionals only if You do not timely exercise Your rights to the SRG Services within the SRG Option Period, or fail to meet the SRG Services performance requirements set forth in the franchise agreement, or otherwise notify Us in writing of Your waiver of Your right to perform the SRG Services.
- (4) Within or outside Your Territory, to develop additional or different personnel placement services, or to develop an application of personnel placement services for particular categories of clients, and incorporate such services or such applications into the Express Employment Professionals business being granted to You by the Franchise Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions which are made applicable to those new services or applications at the time of their introduction; or to develop a new franchise or license for such new service; provided, however, that We will not offer to issue said franchise or license within Your Territory unless We have previously offered it to You and You have rejected it; or not accepted it within 90 days of Our offer.
- (5) To purchase, merge, acquire or be acquired by an existing personnel service or any other business, and to operate, franchise or license those businesses outside Your Territory operating under the Proprietary Marks or any other marks following the purchase, merger, acquisition or affiliation.
- (6) To negotiate national contracts with certain customers. If We do, and You participate in these programs, You will be required to charge such customers in accordance with the rates set forth in those contracts.

We may periodically adjust and modify the Your Territory, as We reasonably determine to be necessary or appropriate, in order to more properly or more accurately describe the boundaries or area; correct inaccuracies or discrepancies in boundaries; conform the boundaries to areas that We identified as within Your Territory at the time of signing Your Franchise Agreement; or clarify, correct, or better describe the boundary line or area based on physical, political, or topographical characteristics, including changes to those characteristics that may occur at any time after You execute the Franchise Agreement. Adjustments may result in a reduction of the area comprising Your Territory, but Your Territory will have, following the adjustment, a minimum of 30,000 jobs. Any adjustment will be effective immediately when We give You written notice describing the adjusted Territory.

You do not have the right to establish additional Franchises and You will not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional Franchises.

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates, operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those You will offer. However, the Franchise Agreement does not prohibit us from doing so.

Minimum Performance Standards

Your failure to meet the Minimum Performance Standards in subsections (a) or (b) below for two or more consecutive quarters or as set forth in subsection (c) below for any two or more calendar quarters in any 12-month period will, at Our option, constitute a default under the Franchise Agreement, for which We can terminate the Franchise Agreement. We will notify You in writing of the occurrence of any event of default based on Your failure to meet the Minimum Performance Standards, which are as follows:

- a. Open more than 12 months but less than 24 months: a combined total of Gross Margin and Gross Receipts of at least $50,000 per fiscal quarter provided however, You must have a minimum Gross Margin of $41,500.
- b. Open more than 24 months but less than 36 months: a combined total of Gross Margin and Gross Receipts of at least $70,000 per fiscal quarter provided however, You must have a minimum Gross Margin of $85,100.
- c. Open more than 36 months: a combined total of Gross Margin and Gross Receipts of at least $118,750 per fiscal quarter provided however, You must have a minimum Gross Margin of $98,750.

We may increase or change the Minimum Performance Standards at any time in Our discretion, but We may not increase the minimum Gross Margin during any 12-month period by more than the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, U.S. City Average, for all items, 1982-84=100.

In addition, once You have exercised Your right to perform the SRG Services, You must be consistently averaging a minimum of $10,000 in Gross Margin weekly solely attributable to Your SRG Services no later than 24 months following Your entry into the then-current SRG Services training system. If You do not maintain the minimum Gross Margin, we may terminate all rights to the SRG Services portion of Your Franchise. Thereafter, we will have the right to perform or re-sell to a third party the SRG Services within Your Territory without compensation to You.

Except as described above, continuation of Your Territorial protections do not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration or other contingency, and, except as described above, Your Territory may not be altered.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

Under the Franchise Agreement, We grant You the right to use Proprietary Marks within Your Territory. As disclosed in Item 1, Our affiliate, Alamo, is the owner of the Proprietary Marks. Alamo does not have federal registrations for certain principal marks. Therefore, these principal marks do not have many legal benefits and rights as a federally registered trademark. If Our right to use the trademark is challenged, You may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase Your expenses.

Alamo has timely filed, or intends to timely file, with the USPTO all required affidavits of use and renewal applications, when due, for the Proprietary Marks. There are no currently effective material determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state, or any court, and no pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceeding, or any pending material litigation, involving the Proprietary Marks.

Through a license agreement with Alamo (the “TM Agreement”), We hold an exclusive license to use, and to license others to use, the Proprietary Marks in the manner contemplated by the Franchise Agreement. The TM Agreement has a term of one year, and will be automatically renewed for continuous and consecutive one-year terms, so long as We comply with all of the terms and conditions of the TM Agreement. Alamo and We do not intend to terminate the TM Agreement, unless the Proprietary Marks are transferred to Us or one of Our affiliates with whom We will enter into a trademark license agreement. Other than the TM Agreement, there is no agreement in effect which significantly limits Our rights to use or license the Proprietary Marks in any state in a manner material to the franchisee, and We know of no superior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect Your use of the Proprietary Marks in any state.

Your right to use the Proprietary Marks is limited to the uses that are authorized under the Franchise Agreement, and any unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks will infringe upon Our rights.

1. You will not register or attempt to register any part of them as any part of Your company or corporate name, or that of any other person, firm or corporation.
2. You will use the Proprietary Marks only for the operation of the Franchise and, except as explicitly permitted by Us in writing, only in connection with offices located within Your Territory.
3. You will not use the Proprietary Marks to incur any obligation or indebtedness on behalf of Us.
4. You will comply with Our instructions in filing and maintaining any requisite trade name or fictitious name registrations, and will execute any documents deemed necessary by Us to obtain protection for the Proprietary Marks or maintain their continued validity and enforceability.

5. If You secure any rights whatever, in any jurisdiction, to any Proprietary Mark, You will immediately notify Us and, upon written request, will immediately assign all Your right, title and interest thereto to Us.

6. You will affix the Proprietary Marks on the office, signs, stationery, advertising, sales/promotional material and other items in the fashion We designate in The Manual or otherwise. You will display the Proprietary Marks, trade names and trademarks, insignia, logos, slogans and service marks pursuant to the requirements set forth in The Manual. You may not use any trade names and trademarks, insignia, logos, slogans or service marks, other than the Proprietary Marks, in connection with Your Franchise without Our advance written approval.

Use of the trade names or trademarks pursuant to this Agreement does not give You any ownership interest or other interest in or to the trade names or trademarks, except the nonexclusive franchise granted. The right and license of the Proprietary Marks granted hereunder to You is non-exclusive, and We thus have and retain the rights, among others:

1. To use the Proprietary Marks in connection with selling products and services;
2. To grant other franchises for the trade names and trademarks, in addition to those already granted to existing franchisees;
3. To require You sign any certificate, consent, release or other instrument that may be necessary or desirable for Us or any of Our franchisees to utilize the Proprietary Marks, or any other names, trade names and trademarks, insignia, logos, slogans and service marks that was furnished or approved by Us for the operation of offices outside Your Territory; and
4. To control and approve Your domain names, URLs, and electronic addresses.

You will promptly notify Us of any unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks or marks that may be similar or infringing, as well as any challenge to the Proprietary Marks. You acknowledge that We have the sole right to direct and control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving the ownership or validity of the Proprietary rights, including any settlement thereof. Pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, We have the right, but not the obligation, to take action against uses by others that may constitute infringement of the Proprietary Marks. If We undertake the defense or prosecution of any litigation relating to the Proprietary Marks, You will agree to execute any and all documents and to do such acts and things as may, in Our opinion, be necessary to carry out such defense or prosecution, including becoming a nominal party to any legal action.

We reserve the right, under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, to discontinue any of the Proprietary Marks or substitute different proprietary marks for use in identifying the Express Employment Professionals business at Our sole discretion.

ITEM 19
FRANCHISE PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet You are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

The following information is an historic financial performance representation about the system's existing franchised units and subsets of those units. The information includes the historic Sales, Gross Receipts and Gross Margin of existing franchised units and subsets of those units. The tables below exclude information on units owned directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by Robert A. Funk and William H. Stoller (company-owned units).

Some units have sold this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you'll sell as much. If you rely upon our figures, you must accept the risk of not doing as well.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the following financial performance representations, We do not make any representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised units/outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If You are purchasing an existing unit/outlet, however, We may provide You with the actual records of that unit/outlet. If You receive any other financial performance information or projections of Your future income, You should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Diane Carter, 9701 Boardwalk Blvd., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73162, 800-652-6400 ext. 4380, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

EXPRESS SERVICES, INC.
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Franchise Agreement (this “Agreement”) is made this _____ day of _____, 20____, by and between Express Services, Inc., a Colorado corporation, (“we,” “us,” or “our”), and _____ (“you” or “your”).

We hold the right to effective and valuable names, methods, and procedures for operating and training people in the operation of an Express Employment Professionals® business that offers staffing services, including temporary help, temporary staffing, contract staffing, flexible staffing, evaluation hire, temp-to-hire, personnel or department outsourcing, recruiting, long-term staffing and any and all other staffing services other than Direct Hire Services (“Temporary Staffing Services”) and recruiting and placing candidates in full-time core positions with client companies for a fee (“Direct Hire Services”).

We offer to franchise these rights and provide other services to you as specifically established in this Agreement and The Manual (as defined in Section 13.1).

You desire to obtain the benefits, rights, and services that we offer and to operate an Express Franchise (as defined in Section 1.1) under the terms provided in this Agreement.

1. Grant of Franchise; Proprietary Marks

1.1. Grant of Franchise. We grant you the right, and you accept the obligation, to operate a franchise (an “Express Franchise”), within the boundary lines of your Territory (as defined in Section 2.1), during the entire Term (as defined in Section 3.1) under the mark “Express Employment Professionals®” and variations of that name and mark that we approve in writing, and all names, trade names, trademarks, service marks, copyrights, insignia, logos, slogans, colors, signs and commercial symbols associated with the names specified in this Agreement and only for the operation of the franchise provided by this Agreement (collectively, the “Proprietary Marks”) that provides Temporary Staffing Services and Direct Hire Services, in each case, including Professionals (the “Services”). “Professionals” as used herein are individuals who provide services in legal, finance, accounting, engineering, technology, marketing, and management professions and other professions that require advanced education, certification and/or training as determined by us from time to time in our sole discretion. You agree to use only the Proprietary Marks in connection with the operation of your Express Franchise and to use such Proprietary Marks strictly in accordance with the standards, rules, and procedures we require.

1.2. Express Specialized Recruiting Services. Your rights to provide Services with respect to Professionals (“SRG Services”) under this Agreement shall be an option exercisable by you pursuant to this paragraph which shall be operated through the Specialized Recruitment Group, an Express Employment Professionals Company (“SRG”) brand or other brand name that we may determine, from time to time. Unless otherwise approved by us, in our discretion, You may exercise your option to operate the SRG Services only if you have owned and operated your Express Franchise a minimum of twelve (12) months by notifying us in writing that you have exercised your option to perform the SRG Services in your Territory before your thirty-sixth (36) month of operating your Express Franchise (the “SRG Option Period”). This delay is to provide you time to fully understand and to have operational the non-Professional Service portions of Your Express Franchise before adding the SRG Services business. Once you have exercised your right to perform the SRG Services, you must be consistently averaging a minimum of $10,000 in Gross Margin weekly solely attributable to your SRG Services no later than twenty-four (24) months following your entry into the then-current SRG Services training system. Since the SRG Services represent a separate line of operation, you must have a dedicated SRG team lead as one of your internal employees. This may be you, but if you choose to operate in the capacity of the SRG team lead, you must have a separate dedicated and trained manager for your non-Professional Services. You or your SRG team lead must attend the SRG training class which is held virtually or at a location we determine and a minimum of two (2) days, plus additional ongoing online trainings. You will also send your SRG recruiters to our SRG business process class which is held virtually or at a location we determine and a minimum of five (5) days. You will be responsible for your and your employees' transportation, lodging, meals and incidental expenses incurred while attending these training sessions. So long as the SRG Option Period has not lapsed or you have elected to perform the SRG Services and are in compliance with all requirements of this Agreement with respect to the SRG Services any reference herein to Services shall include the SRG Services. If (a) you elect not to timely exercise your option to perform the SRG Services during the SRG Option Period or (b) you do not meet the minimum performance requirements or other applicable requirements for the SRG Services as set forth in this Agreement, you waive, and/or we may terminate (without terminating your rights hereunder with respect to all non-Professional Services) all rights to the SRG Services portion of your Express Franchise, in which case all such rights shall automatically revert to us. Thereafter, upon your waiver and/or our termination, we will have the right to perform or re-sell to a third party the SRG Services within your Territory without compensation to you and any reference in this Agreement to Services shall expressly exclude the SRG Services.

1.3. Limited License to Use the Proprietary Marks. You understand and agree that we are the exclusive licensee of the Proprietary Marks licensed to you under this Agreement and all current and future Proprietary Marks we have an interest in or we permit you to use, and that nothing in this Agreement will give you any right, title or interest in or to any of the Proprietary Marks except as a mere privilege and license, during the Term. You understand and acknowledge that the limited license to use the Proprietary Marks granted by this Agreement applies only to the Proprietary Marks shown in Exhibit A, if we do not subsequently designate them as being withdrawn from use, together with those we may later designate in The Manual.

1.4. Our Rights in the Proprietary Marks. You may not represent in any manner that you have acquired any ownership or equitable rights in any of the Proprietary Marks by virtue of the limited license granted under this Agreement, or by virtue of your use of any of the Proprietary Marks. Our rights in the Proprietary Marks are not limited to the specific presentation or configuration of any of them, but extend to all combinations and displays of the words and/or design elements and to translations in any language. Our rights in and to the Proprietary Marks are not limited to such rights as may be conferred by registration or applications for registrations but instead include extensive common law and other rights in the Proprietary Marks.

1.5. Your Use of the Proprietary Marks.

(a) You will not register or attempt to register or use the Proprietary Marks or any part of them as any part of your company or business name, or that of any other person or entity.

(b) You will use the Proprietary Marks solely and exclusively in the operation of your Express Franchise and, except as we specifically permit in writing, only in connection with an Express Employment Professionals® office (each an “Express Office”) located within the boundary line of your Territory.

(c) Your right to use the Proprietary Marks is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use or alteration of the Proprietary Marks in any way will constitute an infringement of our rights.

(d) You will not use the Proprietary Marks to incur any obligation or indebtedness on our behalf.

(e) You will comply with our instructions in filing and maintaining any required trade name or fictitious name registrations, and you agree to execute any documents that we deem necessary to obtain protection of the Proprietary Marks or maintain their continued validity and enforceability.

(f) If you secure any rights of any kind in any jurisdiction to any Proprietary Marks, you will immediately notify us and, upon our request, you will immediately assign all your right, title and interest thereto to us or our designee.

(g) You agree to use, display, affix, or include the Proprietary Marks on the marketing, advertising, sales, and promotional material, office signs, stationery, invoices, electronic media (including your website) and other items in the manner we designate in The Manual. You may not use any names, trade names, trademarks, service marks, copyrights, insignia, logos, slogans, colors, signs or other commercial symbols, other than the Proprietary Marks, in connection with your Express Franchise without our advance written approval.

1.6. Ownership of the Proprietary Marks.

(a) Alamo Franchise Services, LLC (“Alamo”), our affiliate, is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks and the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks. Through a license with Alamo, we hold an exclusive license to use, and to license others to use, the Proprietary Marks. Any and all goodwill arising from your use of the Proprietary Marks will inure solely and exclusively to Alamo’s benefit, and is Alamo’s property. You will not use any Proprietary Mark in connection with any statement or material that may, in our judgment, be in bad taste or inconsistent with our public image, or tend to bring disparagement, ridicule or scorn upon us, any of Proprietary Marks, or the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks. Upon expiration, termination, or cancellation of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount will be assigned as attributable to any goodwill associated with your operation of the Express Franchise or use of the Proprietary Marks.

(b) The Proprietary Marks are valid and serve to identify us and those who are authorized to use the Proprietary Marks.

(c) You will not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Alamo's ownership of the Proprietary Marks, nor will you directly or indirectly contest the validity of the trademark license and rights granted to us by Alamo.

1.7. Non-Exclusive License of the Proprietary Marks. Use of the Proprietary Marks does not give you any ownership interest or other interest in the Proprietary Marks, except the franchise granted in this Agreement. The right and license of the Proprietary Marks granted hereunder to you is non-exclusive, and we thus have and retain the rights, among others to use the Proprietary Marks in connection with selling products and services and to grant licenses and Express Franchises to others to use the Proprietary Marks, in addition to those already granted to existing franchisees. You will sign any certificate, consent, release or other instrument that may be necessary or desirable for us or any of our franchisees to utilize the Proprietary Marks, or any other names, trade names, trademarks, service marks, insignia, logos, slogans, colors, signs, and commercial symbols that were furnished or approved by us for the operation of Express Offices outside the boundary line of your Territory. Domain names, URLs, and electronic addresses including electronic mail addresses, and use of the Proprietary Marks in connection therewith and/or in any electronic media, including social media accounts, will be subject to our control and approval as further detailed in Section 10.

1.8. Refinements. Any improvements, enhancements, marketing and advertising or public relations programs, marks, domain names, inventions or modifications developed or adopted by you during the Term ("Refinements") even if not authorized by us, which relate in any way to the operation of an Express Franchises or our business, will be our exclusive property, and you disclaim any right, title or interest therein. Further, you will immediately disclose to us any Refinements you develop or adopt. If we elect to file for a trademark, patent, copyright, domain name registration or other intellectual property protection relating to any such Refinements (at our sole discretion and expense), you will execute such documents and provide us with such information as we may reasonably request in order to perfect such a filing.

1.9. Legal Proceedings Concerning the Proprietary Marks.

(a) You will promptly notify us of any unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks or marks that may be similar or infringing, as well as any challenge to the Proprietary Marks. You acknowledge that we have the sole right to direct and control any proceedings or litigation involving the ownership, infringement or validity of the Proprietary Marks, including any settlement thereof. We have the right, but not the obligation, to take action against uses by others that may constitute infringement of the Proprietary Marks.

(b) If we undertake the defense or prosecution of any proceeding or litigation relating to the Proprietary Marks, you will cooperate with us, and execute any and all documents and to do such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out such defense or prosecution, including becoming a nominal party to any legal action.

(c) We reserve the right to discontinue any of the Proprietary Marks or substitute different proprietary marks for use in identifying Express Franchises at our sole discretion. You shall comply with our directions with respect to any discontinued or substitute Proprietary Marks within thirty (30) calendar days after notice. We are not required to reimburse you for any expenses that you incur in discontinuing or modifying the use of any Proprietary Mark or for any expenditures made by you to promote a discontinued or substitute Proprietary Mark.

(d) We will indemnify you for any damages you suffer as a result of a third party claim of infringement based on your use of any of the Proprietary Marks in accordance with this Agreement or The Manual, including the costs you incur in connection with transitioning away, if necessary, as a result of any such claims, from the use of the Proprietary Marks to the use of other names, trade names, trademarks, service marks, copyrights, insignia, logos, slogans, colors, signs and other commercial symbols that we may designate in our sole discretion.

2. Territory

2.1. Grant of Territory. In accordance with the terms of this Agreement, we grant to you the right to operate an Express Franchise at a location within the boundary line of the territory described on Exhibit B (the “Territory”). Exhibit B includes a description of the Territory and the location of your Express Office. Your Territory will have, at the time we sign this Agreement, a minimum of 30,000 jobs. We do not guarantee any specific number of available job placements within the boundary of your Territory, or that any specific employers or businesses are located or based within the boundaries of your Territory.

2.2. Exclusivity of Territory. Except as otherwise provided for herein, during the Term, provided that you perform your duties under this Agreement, are not in default, and have maintained your Express Offices as required, we will not establish within the boundaries of your Territory, other Express Franchises or company-owned businesses which provide Services, whether under the same or different names, trade names, trademarks, service marks, copyrights, insignia, logos, slogans, colors, signs, or other commercial symbols.

2.3. Associates; Client Business Locations; Open Territories.

(a) You will send associates (“associates”) only to client business locations within the boundary line of Your Territory.

(b) You will not send associates to a client business location within the boundary line of another Franchisee’s territory even if the client is located within the boundary line of your Territory, or if the associate will be working from home or another location within the boundary line of your Territory but for a client business location within the boundary line of another Franchisee’s territory. If you violate the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.3(a), we may charge you a special fee, as specified in The Manual, as liquidated damages. You acknowledge that actual damages likely to result from a breach of this provision are difficult to estimate on the date of this Agreement and that the amount of the liquidated damages is a reasonable estimate of those actual damages. Your payment of liquidated damages would serve to compensate us for any breach of your obligations under this provision, and the liquidated damages would not constitute a penalty.

(c) You may send associates to a client’s business location in a territory or area that has not been granted to another franchisee (an “open territory”) only with our written approval. Sending associates to a client business location in an open territory does not establish any rights of you to the open territory. If you provide associates to a client business location in an open territory which subsequently is sold to another franchisee, you can continue servicing that client for up to one year from the date on which the other franchisee opens its Express Office in the formerly open territory, during which time you will introduce the other franchisee to your client. At the end of that one-year period, you will (i) relinquish the client business location to the other franchisee who acquired the open territory, (ii) notify the client that further requests for associates should be directed to the other franchisee, and (iii) coordinate the transfer of the associates at the client business location to the other franchisee in such a manner as to minimize the impact of the transfer on the client business location. If you violate the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.3(b), we may charge you a special fee, as specified in The Manual, as liquidated damages. You acknowledge that actual damages likely to result from a breach of this provision are difficult to estimate on the date of this Agreement and that the amount of the liquidated damages is a reasonable estimate of those actual damages on the date of this Agreement. Your payment of liquidated damages would serve to compensate us for any breach by you of your obligations under this provision, and the liquidated damages would not constitute a penalty.

(d) You may not market or sell to potential clients located outside the boundary line of your Territory without our prior written approval. You may not establish physical associate recruiting stations or locations, hold in-person associate recruiting events, or otherwise establish any type of physical recruiting presence outside the boundary line of your Territory without (i) the prior written approval of the owner of the territory in which you wish to establish a physical recruiting presence, and (ii) our prior written approval. Your failure to comply with the requirements of this provision will constitute a material default under this Agreement.

(e) All clients serviced by you will be our clients.

2.4. Different or Additional Territories. You may not establish or operate a business using the Proprietary Marks in a different or additional territory or area without our prior written consent and unless (i) we grant you an additional franchise, or (ii) we include the additional territory or area in an addendum to this Agreement.

(a) We may, in our discretion, agree with you to amend this Agreement to permit you to establish and operate a business using the Proprietary Marks in a different or additional territory if:

(i) You were in the Circle of Excellence the year prior to your request to open an additional franchise territory or you are on track to achieve Circle of Excellence during the year of your request;

(ii) You obtain our approval of your Expansion Application;

(iii) You have not sent us and we have not received a non-renewal notice from you;

(iv) You adhere to the transfer of ownership requirements set forth in this Agreement; and

(v) You are not in default under this Agreement.

2.5. Our Reserved Rights. You will only have the right to operate the Express Franchise subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. We specifically reserve all other rights, now and in the future, to ourselves and our affiliates, including but not limited to the following:

(a) To establish franchised or company-owned businesses, using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, outside the boundary line of your Territory.

(b) To establish franchised or company-owned businesses operations, within the boundary line of your Territory, using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, so long as the services being provided are not the Services, but are other services (such as recordkeeping, payroll services, or accounting); or to enter into arrangements with others in order to provide such other services.

(c) To establish franchised or company-owned businesses, within the boundary line of your Territory, using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, that provide Temporary Staffing Services and Direct Hire Services, in each case, for Professionals; provided, however, that we will establish or franchise a business using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise, that provides Temporary Staffing Services and Direct Hire Services for Professionals only if you do not timely exercise your rights to the SRG Services within the SRG Option Period, fail to meet the SRG Services performance requirements set forth herein, notify us in writing of your waiver of your right to perform the SRG Services or we otherwise terminate your option to provide SRG Services.

(d) Within or outside the boundary line of your Territory, to develop additional or different personnel placement services, or to develop an application of personnel placement services for particular categories of clients, and incorporate such services or such applications into the Express Franchise business being granted to you by this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions which are made applicable to those new services or applications at the time of their introduction; or to develop a new franchise or license for such new service; provided, however, that we will not offer to issue said franchise or license within the boundary line of your Territory unless we have previously offered it to you and you have rejected it or not accepted it within 90 days of our offer.

(e) To purchase, merge, acquire or be acquired by an existing personnel service or any other business, and to operate, franchise or license those businesses outside the boundary line of your Territory using the Proprietary Marks or any other marks following the purchase, merger, acquisition, or acquisition.

(f) To periodically adjust and modify the boundary line of your Territory, as we reasonably determine to be necessary or appropriate, in order to more properly or more accurately describe the boundaries or area; correct inaccuracies or discrepancies in boundaries; conform the boundaries to areas that we identified as within the boundary line of your Territory at the time of signing this Agreement; or clarify, correct, or better describe the boundary line or area based on physical, political, or topographical characteristics, including changes to those characteristics that may occur at any time after you execute this Agreement. Adjustments may result in a reduction of the area comprising the Territory, but the Territory will have, immediately after the adjustment, a minimum of 30,000 jobs. Any adjustment will be effective immediately our written notice to you describing the adjusted boundary line of your Territory.

3.1. Initial Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall be five (5) years from the date of this Agreement, unless sooner terminated or cancelled as provided in this Agreement.

(xiv) If the sale, assignment, or transfer to a third party is consummated, it shall not be effective unless and until the then-current franchise agreement by and between us and the purchaser has been executed and delivered, all monies then due and owing to us by you including the transfer fee required above have been paid, all your defaults under this Agreement have been cured, and you have executed a general release of all claims against us arising out of or related to this Agreement and your operations and performance under it.

(xv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 14, we, at our sole option, may, before the signing of a bona fide written offer or purchase agreement, (a) require prospective or proposed purchasers of your business to be interviewed by us at our principal executive office, without expense to us, to determine, in our sole discretion, if such prospective or proposed purchaser would be approved as a franchisee if the proposed sale is consummated, and (b) require language to be placed in the proposed purchase agreement acknowledging our rights to approve a prospective purchaser as a franchisee in our sole discretion.

If the transferee is a third party, then all the requirements of Section 14.6(b) shall apply, and a transfer fee as prescribed in Section 14.6(b)(x) will be charged. "Permanent Disability" will mean any physical, emotional, or mental injury, illness, or incapacity that would prevent a person from performing the obligations set forth in this Agreement for at least six consecutive months and from which condition recovery within six consecutive months from the date of determination of Permanent Disability is unlikely. (c) Procedure for Arbitration. The arbitration provisions are self-executing and shall remain in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement. If either party fails to appear at any properly noticed arbitration proceeding, an award may be entered against such party by default or otherwise, notwithstanding such failure to appear. With respect to any Dispute, (i) arbitration proceedings shall be conducted before three arbitrators, one of which shall be chosen by you and one by us, and the third of which shall be selected by the two chosen arbitrators; and (ii) the parties agree to a time limit of twelve (12) months to reach a final determination for any such proceeding as measured from the date that a notice of arbitration is filed in the AAA. If the two chosen arbitrators are unable to agree upon a third arbitrator within fourteen (14) days after the Dispute has been submitted to arbitration, either you or we may petition the AAA to appoint the third arbitrator. The parties agree that the arbitrator(s) shall have the power to award all forms of relief including but not limited to damages, injunctive relief, preliminary injunctive relief, temporary restraining orders, and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses to any party in such arbitration.

(d) Excluded Controversies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, at our election, the provisions of Section 18.6 and Sections 18.11(a) through Section 18.11(c) shall not apply to any controversies relating to any fee due us or our affiliates; any promissory note payments due to us or our affiliate; any trade payables due to us or our affiliate as a result of the purchase of any equipment, goods, or supplies (collectively, "Excluded Controversies"). At our election, the provisions of Section 18.6 and Sections 18.11(a) through Section 18.11(c) shall also not apply to any controversies relating to the use and protection of the Proprietary Marks or the Express Employment Professionals® system, including our right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for appropriate injunctive relief, temporary restraining orders, or other procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction to obtain interim relief when deemed necessary by such court to preserve the status quo or prevent irreparable injury pending resolution by arbitration of the actual dispute.

(e) Waiver of Consolidated, Representative or Class Actions. The parties agree that arbitration will be conducted on an individual basis and not in a class, consolidated or representative action, and only we (any officer, director, manager, employee, agent, or representative of ours or any of our affiliates, as applicable) and you may be parties to any arbitration, and that no such arbitration proceeding may be consolidated or joined with another arbitration proceeding involving you and us and/or any other person. The foregoing sentence is an integral provision of the arbitration procedures set forth in this Section 18.11 and may not be severed herefrom notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement.

(f) Time Limitation for Commencing Proceedings. Any claim relating to a Dispute must be commenced within one year from the expiration or termination of this Agreement, or from the act or omission complained of, whichever occurs first.

(g) Survival of Provisions. The provisions of this Section 18.11 shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

19. General

19.1. Our Independent Contractor. You are an independent contractor. The relationship between you and us is one of franchisee and franchisor. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to constitute you as our employee, agent or representative or to constitute you and us as partners, or joint venturers, legal representatives, general or special agents, employees or servants of the other for any purpose. We do not have a fiduciary duty to you. You will not have the power to obligate us for any expenses, liability or other obligations, other than wages to associates you place, without our prior written approval.

19.2. Your Employees and Independent Contractors. Neither you nor any individual whose compensation for service you pay is in any way, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication construed to be an employee of ours for any purpose, and particularly as to any tax or contributions or requirement or withholding levied or fixed by any city, state, or federal agency. We will not have the power to hire or fire your employees.

19.3. Our Franchisee. You will conspicuously identify yourself at your Express Office and in all dealings with clients, contractors, suppliers, public officials and others as an independent Franchisee of ours and will place other notices of independent ownership on forms, stationery and other materials as we may require.

19.4. No Agency. Except as otherwise expressly authorized by this Agreement, neither party will make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations in the name of or on behalf of the other party, or represent the relationship between us and you as other than that of franchisor and franchisee. We do not assume any liability, and will not be considered liable, for any agreements, representations, or warranties made by you which are not expressly authorized under this Agreement. We will not be obligated for any damages to any person or property which directly or indirectly arise from or relate to your operation of the Express Franchise.

19.5. No Liability for Your Obligations. We do not assume any liability, and will not be considered liable, for any agreements, representations, or warranties that you make that are not specifically authorized in this Agreement. Neither we nor any of our affiliated companies will be liable for any of your acts, omissions, debts, or other obligations, including any obligations that arise from or relate to your operation of the franchised business.

Notices to us

shall be addressed to Our principal offices, 9701 Boardwalk, Oklahoma City, OK 73162 or other address that We may designate in writing. Notices to you shall be addressed to you at the address we maintain in our records. Either party may change the address for notices by sending notice as provided in this Section 19.6.

19.7. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended orally, but may be amended only by a written instrument signed by the parties. You acknowledge and agree that no oral promises or declarations were made to you and that our obligations are confined exclusively to the terms in this Agreement

19.8. Control in a Crisis. If an event occurs in the operation of your Express Franchise that has or, in our judgment, may cause harm or injury to clients or associates or adversely affect the image or reputation of Express Employment Professionals® (collectively “Crisis Situations”), You will: (a) where necessary, immediately contact appropriate authorities and emergency care providers to assist in addressing the harm or injury, and (b) immediately inform us by telephone of the Crisis Situation. You must refrain from making any internal or external announcements, including communications with the news media, regarding the Crisis Situation. To the extent we consider it appropriate, we may control the manner in which the Crisis Situation is handled, including conducting all communication with the news media, providing or arranging care or assistance for injured persons, or even temporarily closing the Express Franchise. You acknowledge that, in directing the management of any Crisis Situation, we may engage the services of attorneys, experts, public relations, and other professionals as we consider appropriate. You and your employees must cooperate fully with us in these efforts and activities and will be bound by all further Crisis Situation procedures we may develop. The indemnification provisions of this Agreement will include any and all expenses we may incur from our exercise of rights in this Section 19.8.

19.9. Patriot Act Compliance. You represent, warrant, and certify to us that neither you nor any of your directors, officers, shareholders, partners, managers, members, employees, or agents, nor any of your affiliates or their directors, officers, shareholders, partners, managers, members, employees, or agents, nor any other direct or indirect interest holder of any of the preceding: (a) are or have been listed on any Government Lists; (b) are or have been determined by any competent authority to be subject to the prohibitions contained in Presidential Executive Order No. 13224 (Sept. 23, 2001), or any other similar prohibitions contained in the rules and regulations of the Office of Foreign Assets Control, United States Department of the Treasury (“OFAC”) or in any related enabling legislation or other Presidential Executive Orders; (c) have been indicted for or convicted of any felony involving a crime or crimes of moral turpitude or for any offenses under the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the “USA Patriot Act”); (d) are or have been under investigation by any governmental authority (as defined below) for alleged criminal activity; or (e) have or have had a reputation in the community for criminal or unethical behavior. “Government Lists” means the “Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List” maintained by OFAC; any other list of terrorists, terrorist organizations, or narcotics traffickers maintained pursuant to any of the Rules and Regulations of OFAC; or any similar list maintained by the United States Department of State, the United States Department of Commerce, or any other governmental authority, or pursuant to any Executive Order of the President of the United States.

19.10. Owners' Guaranty. Each of your owners, partners, shareholders, or members who own any portion of the equitable interest of you must execute and deliver the Owners' Guaranty attached to this Agreement. All such owners agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement and agree to perform all of the duties and obligations required of you and agree to personally guarantee all of your obligations set forth in this Agreement. Any guarantor shall not transfer, assign, or pledge any of its shares of capital stock or other interest in you without our prior written consent. Your liability, as well as the liability of each of your owners, partners, shareholders, or members, shall be joint and several.

19.11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, and all exhibits, appendices and ancillary agreements executed contemporaneously with this Agreement including, without limitation, The Manual, constitute the entire agreement between you and us, oral and written, and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations and agreements; and shall not be modified or amended except in writing signed by the parties; provided, however, that nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you. You acknowledge and agree that you are entering into this Agreement, and all ancillary agreements executed contemporaneously with this Agreement, as a result of your own independent investigation of the Express Franchise.

19.12. Binding Effect. The provisions shall be binding upon the parties and their heirs, administrators, executors, survivors and/or successors and assigns.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of us. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Owners' Guaranty

This Owner's Guaranty (this "Guaranty") is made by the undersigned individuals (the "Guarantors") in favor of Express Services, Inc., a Colorado corporation ("We," "Us," or "Our"), in connection with the Franchise Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the "Franchise Agreement"), by and between Us and _____ ("Franchisee").

In consideration of, and as an inducement to, the execution of the Franchise Agreement by Us, each of the Guarantors hereby, jointly and severally, (1) personally and unconditionally guarantees to Us, and Our successors and assigns, that Franchisee shall punctually pay and perform each and every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement, and (2) agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every provision in the Franchise Agreement to the same extent as Franchisee and as if Guarantor were the Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement. This Guaranty shall remain in effect as long as any obligation under the Franchise Agreement or any obligation of Franchisee to you relating to the business franchised under the Franchise Agreement remains unperformed or unsatisfied. To the extent any provisions of the Franchise Agreement survive its termination or cancellation, this Guaranty shall likewise survive its termination or cancellation.

Each Guarantor waives: (1) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Us of these undertakings; (2) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligation guaranteed; (3) protest and notice of default to any person with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligation guaranteed; (4) any right he or she may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person as a condition of liability; and (5) the defense of the statute of limitations in any action hereunder or for the collection of any indebtedness or the performance of any obligation hereby guaranteed.

Each Guarantor consents and agrees that: (1) his or her liability under this Guaranty shall be direct, immediate, and independent of the liability of, and shall be joint and several with, Franchisee and any other Guarantor; (2) he or she shall render any payment or performance required of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement upon demand if Franchisee fails or refuses punctually to do so; (3) his or her liability shall not be contingent or conditioned upon pursuit by Us of any remedy against Franchisee or any other person; (4) his or her liability shall not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which We may grant to Franchisee or to any other person, including the acceptance of any partial payment or performance, or the compromise or release of any claims, or (b) any bankruptcy of Franchisee; (5) this Guaranty shall be continuing and irrevocable as long as any obligation of Franchisee or Guarantor under the Franchise Agreement or this Guaranty remains unperformed or unsatisfied; (6) he or she is bound by the restrictive covenants (including those related to confidentiality, non-competition, and non-solicitation), indemnification, arbitration and dispute resolution, and all other provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement to the same extent as Franchisee and as if Guarantor were the Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement and that such provisions are reasonable; (7) at Our request, Guarantor will provide to Us updated financial information as may be necessary, in Our discretion, to demonstrate his or her ability to satisfy the obligations of the Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement; and (8) he or she will pay all costs and expenses (including court and arbitration costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by Us in enforcing or attempting to enforce this Guaranty.

We may separately enforce this Guaranty directly against any of the Guarantors without the joinder of any other party or parties and without first having sought relief against the Franchisee, any other Guarantor, or any other party or parties.

This Guaranty shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, Oklahoma law.

The Guarantors have executed and delivered this Guaranty contemporaneously with the execution of the Franchise Agreement by Franchisee.

(f) Taking of the Property. Any creditor or governmental agency tries to take any of the property or any other of my property in which Lender has a lien. This includes taking of, garnishing of or levying on my accounts with Lender. This includes all accounts I hold jointly with someone else and all accounts I may open in the future. 2. LINE OF CREDIT. During the term hereof, Lender hereby agrees to make periodic loans to the Borrower to a total principal amount at any one time outstanding, not to exceed Four Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($450,000.00) ("Maximum Amount"). During the term hereof, from time to time Borrower may notify the Lender of its need to borrow funds pursuant to this Agreement. Within five (5) business days of receipt of such notice from the Borrower seeking to borrow funds, the Lender will review and if approved forward such funds to the Borrower up to, but not in excess of, the Maximum Amount in the aggregate. On the Maturity Date, without demand or notice, Borrower shall make a final payment of all outstanding and unpaid principal and all accrued and unpaid interest, and costs and expenses then due and owing under this Note. - (d) You shall not subordinate to any other obligation Your obligation to pay Us the Royalty and/or any other fee or charge payable to Us, whether under this Agreement or otherwise.
- (e) *Any payment or report not actually received by Us (or the Express Advertising/Marketing Fund) on or before such date shall be deemed overdue. If inspection discloses that Flexible Staff Billings and/or Career Placement Billings actually exceeded the amount submitted by You by an amount equal to three percent (3%) or more of the Flexible Staff Billings and/or Career Placement Billings originally reported to Us, You will bear the cost of inspection and audit. Acceptance by Us of interest and/or penalty payments due from You because of understatement by You of the aforementioned Flexible Staff Billings and/or Career Placement Billings shall not be considered a waiver of any of Our rights or remedies under this Agreement. - (b) We will direct all marketing/advertising programs with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and media used in the programs. You acknowledge that the Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the Proprietary Marks for the benefit of the franchise and that We and its designees undertake no obligation in administering the Fund to make expenditures for You which are equivalent or proportionate to Your contribution.

- (c) The Fund and all earnings shall be used exclusively to provide the reimbursement in Section 12.3(a) and to meet any and all costs of maintaining, administering, directing and preparing marketing/advertising. All sums paid by You to the Fund shall be maintained in a separate account from Our funds and shall not be used to defray any of Our general operating expenses, except for reasonable administrative costs and overhead, if any, as We may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and marketing/advertising programs for You, including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing marketing and marketing/advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund; and the Fund and its earnings shall not inure to Our benefit.
- (d) Although We intend the Fund to be of perpetual duration, We maintain the right to terminate the Fund. The Fund shall not be terminated, however, until all monies in the Fund have been expended for marketing/advertising and promotional purposes.
- (e) You will have no interest in the Fund or in any of the monies from time to time held in the fund.

7. Termination. Section 15 of the Franchise Agreement, "Termination," shall be revised as follows:

7.1 Section 15.3.(a)(i) shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

We agree to notify You in writing of the occurrence of any event of default specified in this paragraph.

7.2 Section 15 shall be further revised by the addition of the following:

(g). If You and/or Your Payroll Company fail to timely pay associates, or fail to comply with any applicable federal, state, or local law relating to labor and employment matters.

ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR EXTENDHR SERVICES

THIS ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR EXTENDHR SERVICES (this “Addendum”) is made and entered into effective as of _____, 20__ (the “Effective Date”), by and among Express Services, Inc., a Colorado corporation (“Express”), ExtendHR, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“ExtendHR”), and _____ (“Franchisee”).

A. Express, through its subsidiary, ExtendHR, is now able to offer temporary staffing and related services (collectively, the “ExtendHR Services”) to clients located in the State of _____.

B. Franchisee is a franchisee of Express pursuant to that certain franchise agreement by and between Express and Franchisee dated _____ (the “Franchise Agreement”). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

C. Express and Franchisee desire to offer and provide the ExtendHR Services to clients located in Franchisee’s granted Territory as defined in the Franchise Agreement (the “Territory”) through ExtendHR, and the parties desire to memorialize certain agreements with respect to the ExtendHR Services offered and provided to clients located in Franchisee’s Territory through ExtendHR, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Addendum.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises hereafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which the parties hereby acknowledge, the parties agree as follows:

1. ExtendHR Services. Express and/or Franchisee shall be entitled to offer and provide the ExtendHR Services to clients located in Franchisee’s Territory (each a “Client” and collectively, the “Clients”) through ExtendHR, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Addendum. Franchisee agrees that Express, through ExtendHR, shall be permitted to offer and provide the ExtendHR Services in Franchisee’s Territory under the Franchise Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Addendum.

2. Fees from ExtendHR Services. The fees paid by the Clients for the ExtendHR Services will be split between ExtendHR and Franchisee based on the Gross Margin percentages set forth in the Franchise Agreement. However, the Gross Margin for the ExtendHR Services (the “ExtendHR Gross Margin”) will not be calculated in the same manner in which the Gross Margin for temporary staffing services is calculated under the Franchise Agreement. The ExtendHR Gross Margin will be computed based on the fees paid by Clients for ExtendHR Services, less any and all expenses incurred by Express and/or ExtendHR in providing the ExtendHR Services (e.g., third-party payroll processing fees, VMS fees, costs of collection, associate benefit expenses, etc.) (the “ExtendHR Gross Margin Calculation Method”). The parties agree that the ExtendHR Gross Margin will be calculated using the ExtendHR Gross Margin Calculation Method. Any portion of the fees for ExtendHR Services payable to Express shall be deducted on a monthly basis as a line item from Franchisee’s portion of the Gross Margin payable to Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

3. Bonus Calculations. Each of Express and Franchisee acknowledge and agree that the ExtendHR Gross Margin amounts shall not be included for purposes of Franchisee’s bonus calculations, Circle of Excellence, or any other sales, gross margin, or other Express reward or bonus program.

4. Form of ExtendHR Services Agreement for Clients. In order for Franchisee to offer and provide ExtendHR Services to a Client, Franchisee must have the Client sign and deliver a services agreement in a form either (a) provided by Express or (b) reviewed and approved by Express prior to execution.

5. Term; Termination. The term of this Addendum shall continue for so long as Express, through ExtendHR, is willing and able to offer ExtendHR Services in Franchisee's Territory. If at any time Express makes the determination, in its sole discretion, to cease offering ExtendHR Services in Franchisee's Territory, or is unable to offer ExtendHR Services in Franchisee's Territory for any reason, this Addendum shall terminate immediately upon Express providing notice of such event to Franchisee, and following such termination Franchisee shall promptly take actions necessary to terminate any contracts for ExtendHR Services with a Client in accordance with the terms of such contracts.

6. Franchise Agreement; Full Force and Effect. In all respects, the Franchise Agreement remains in full force and effect and Express and Franchisee hereby reaffirm each and every representation, warranty, agreement, covenant and condition made in the Franchise Agreement as if and to the same extent as if made on the Effective Date.

7. No Assignment; Binding Effect. No party may assign its rights or delegate its duties under this Addendum without the prior written consent of the other parties. This Addendum shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, Express, ExtendHR and Franchisee and their respective legal representatives, successors, and permitted assigns.

8. Amendment; Governing Law. The parties may modify this Addendum only by an amendment or another agreement in writing which is signed by the parties. This Addendum shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

9. Counterparts. This Addendum may be executed by the parties in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement. Counterparts may be delivered by facsimile or other electronic transmission and any such executed counterpart shall be deemed an original.

10. Agreement and Acceptance by Express and ExtendHR. This Addendum shall be deemed accepted, executed and delivered by Express and ExtendHR upon execution and delivery of this Addendum by Franchisee to Express.

This Addendum was executed and delivered as of the Effective Date.

PROMISSORY NOTE

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

For value received, _____, with a notice address of _____ (“Borrower”), promises to pay to the order of EXPRESS SERVICES, INC., a Colorado corporation (“Lender”), having its principal office at 9701 Boardwalk Boulevard, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73162, the principal sum of _____ together with interest thereon from _____ at a fixed annual rate of _____% per annum until paid in full.

Payment Schedule. Borrower shall pay principal and interest in 36 monthly installments of _____ beginning _____, 20____ and on the same day of each month thereafter with the final payment of principal, accrued interest, fees and other charges owing to Lender due on the Maturity Date, as indicated on Exhibit A attached hereto. Borrower shall have the right to prepay this Note in whole at any time without premium or penalty, but with interest to the date of payment on the amount prepaid. Borrower agrees that the payments due on this note may be made by deduction from Borrower’s portion of Gross Margin or any other funds or credits in Lender’s possession. If Borrower’s portion of Gross Margin is insufficient to pay the monthly payment, Borrower will immediately pay the difference.

Default. At the option of Lender, the unpaid balance of this Note, and all other obligations of Borrower to Lender now existing or hereafter arising, shall become immediately due and payable without notice or demand on the occurrence or existence of any of the following events or conditions: (a) any payment required by this Note or any other note or obligation of Borrower to Lender or to others is not made when due; (b) any default occurs in the performance of any covenant, obligation, warranty or provision contained in this Note or any other note, commitment or obligation of Borrower to Lender, including without limitation, Borrower’s Franchise Agreement with Lender dated _____; (c) any warranty, representation, financial information or statement made or furnished to Lender by or on behalf of Borrower proves to have been false in any material respect when made or furnished; or (d) any bankruptcy, reorganization, debt arrangement or other case or proceeding under any bankruptcy or insolvency law is commenced in respect to either Borrower.

Attorney’s Fees. Borrower agrees that if, and as often as, this Note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection or to defend or enforce any of the Lender’s rights hereunder, Borrower shall pay Lender’s reasonable attorney’s fees, together with all court costs and other expenses incurred and paid by Lender.

Waivers by Borrower. Borrower waives presentment for payment, protest and notice of nonpayment. Borrower consents to any extension of time (whether one or more) of payment hereof, any renewal (whether one or more) hereof, and any release of any party liable for payment of this obligation. Any such extension, renewal or release may be made without notice to such party and without discharging such party’s liability hereunder.

Governing Law. This Note is made under and governed by the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

Waivers by Lender. The failure of the Lender to exercise any of the remedies or options set forth in this Note shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise the same or any other remedy at any subsequent time in respect to the same or any other event of default. The acceptance by the Lender of any payment which is less than the total of all amounts due and payable at the time of such payment shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise any of the foregoing remedies or options at that time or any subsequent time, or nullify any prior exercise of any such remedy or option, without the express consent of the Lender.

Compliance with Law. Borrower and Lender intend and believe that each provision in this Note complies with all applicable local, state and federal laws and judicial decisions. However, if any provision in this Note is found by a court of law to be in violation of any applicable local, state or federal ordinance, statute, law, administrative or judicial decision, or public policy, and if such court should declare such provision to be illegal, invalid, unlawful, void or unenforceable as written, then it is the intent of all parties hereto that such provision shall be given force to the fullest possible extent that they are legal, valid and enforceable, that the remainder of this Note shall be construed as if such illegal, invalid, unlawful, void or unenforceable provision was not contained herein, and that the rights, obligations and interest of Borrower and Lender under the remainder of this Note shall continue in full force and effect.

Lender's Records Evidence of Amount Owning. The records of the Lender shall be prima facie evidence of the amount owing on this Note. This Note may be assigned by Lender without the prior consent of Borrower.

Right of Set Off. The Lender may set off against any and all amounts owed by the Borrower to the Lender pursuant to this Note, any and all amounts owed by the Lender to the Borrower in the form of Borrower's portion of Gross Margin, credits, entitlements or other, whether such amounts are owing pursuant to an agreement made between the Lender and the Borrower, a statute, the common law or otherwise. For greater certainty, the Borrower agrees that any payments due hereunder may be made by deduction from any amounts owed from time to time by the Lender to the Borrower, at the Lender's sole discretion.

The undersigned Borrower has executed this instrument effective the date set forth above.

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, __, a/an _____ [state type (i.e., Oklahoma limited liability company)] (“Borrower”) is justly indebted to Lender in the sum of _____ with interest thereon, according to the terms of the Promissory Note of even date herewith (the “Note”) in the face amount of $ _____ (the “Loan”);

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the extension of the Loan by Lender to the Borrower and the benefits to be derived by Guarantor therefrom, it is agreed as follows:

1. Guarantor guarantees to Lender the absolute, complete and punctual performance of the agreements contained in the Note, including, without limitation, the payment of all principal and interest now or hereafter owing by the Borrower thereunder. Guarantor's obligation hereunder is an absolute, unconditional, continuing guaranty of payment and performance by the Borrower and will not terminate until the Borrower has paid in full all amounts owing to Lender and performed all of the Borrower's obligations under the Note.

2. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be released, reduced, impaired or affected by the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:

(i) Any renewal, extension, modification, rearrangement or assignment of the Note, either with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor, or any adjustment, indulgence, forbearance or compromise that may be granted or given by Lender to any party.

(ii) Any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Lender to take or prosecute any action in connection with any of the indebtedness of the Borrower to Lender.

(iii) Any failure of Lender to notify Guarantor of any renewal, extension, modification, rearrangement or assignment of the Loan guaranteed hereby, or any part thereof, or of any other action taken or refrained from being taken by Lender against the Borrower or any new agreement between Lender and the Borrower, it being understood that Lender shall not be required to give Guarantor any notice of any kind under any circumstances whatsoever with respect to or in connection with the Loan hereby guaranteed.

4. Except as provided in paragraph 3 of this Agreement, Guarantor hereby waives diligence, presentment, protest, notice of dishonor, demand for payment, notice of nonpayment or nonperformance, notice of acceptance of this Agreement and all other notices of any nature in connection with the exercise of Lender's rights under the Note or this Agreement. Performance by Guarantor hereunder will not entitle Guarantor to any payment by the Borrower under any claim for contribution, indemnification, subrogation or otherwise. Guarantor waives all rights to setoffs and counterclaims against Lender and agrees that any rights which Guarantor might now or hereafter hold against the Borrower will be subordinate, junior and inferior to all rights which Lender might now or hereafter hold against the Borrower.

5. Guarantor agrees that in any action brought to enforce this Agreement, Guarantor will pay to Lender the reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and expenses incurred by Lender.

6. Nothing herein contained will limit Lender in exercising any rights held under the Note. In the event of any default under the Note or this Agreement, Lender will be entitled to selectively and successively enforce any one or more of the rights held by Lender and such action will not be deemed a waiver of any other right held by Lender. All of the remedies of Lender under this Agreement, or the Note are cumulative and not alternative.

7. This Agreement has been negotiated in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, and is intended to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oklahoma. Guarantor consents to the venue and jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, in any action arising under this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect or application for any reason, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provisions herein contained and such other provisions will remain in full force and effect. This Agreement will be binding on Guarantor and all heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of Guarantor and will inure to the benefit of Lender and all successors and assigns of Lender. Guarantor consents to the assignment of all or any portion of the rights of Lender hereunder in connection with any assignment of the rights of Lender under the Note without notice to Guarantor. If this Agreement is executed by more than one person, each term herein contained will be jointly and severally binding on each such person. Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
Express Services, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Express Services, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 25, 2022, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 25, 2022 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Other Matter

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The Supplemental System Wide Information shown on page 4 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management, is marked "unaudited" and has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on it.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit of the Company. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

Nature of operations: The Company provides temporary help services and permanent placement services, including executive recruiting, to a diversified group of customers through franchises doing business as Express Employment Professionals and Frontline Recruitment Group. The Company pays the temporary employees' payroll, related payroll taxes, and insurance costs, and handles customer billings and collections. The franchises receive a share of gross margin from the Company based on a contractual percentage of the gross profit (sales of temporary help services less payroll, payroll taxes, and insurance costs). Royalties are paid to the Company based on fees billed by the franchises for permanent placement services.

Through its franchises, the Company provides temporary help services such as clerical, professional, and light industrial to customers located throughout the United States. The Company grants credit to these customers generally on an unsecured basis consistent with industry practice. In addition, the Company has franchise agreements in Canada, South Africa and Australia. In 2022, 2021 and 2020, approximately 99% of the Company's operations were in the United States and Canada.

Fiscal year: The Company operates on a 52-53 week fiscal year ending the last Sunday of December. Fiscal years 2022, 2021 and 2020 each include 52 weeks.

Variable interest entities: The Company evaluates its variable interests in variable interest entities (VIE) and consolidates VIEs when the Company is the primary beneficiary. The Company determines whether it is the primary beneficiary of each VIE based on its assessment of whether the Company possesses both (i) the power to direct the activities that most significantly affect the VIE's economic performance and (ii) the obligation to absorb losses that could be significant to the VIE or the right to receive benefits that could be significant to the VIE. The Company reevaluates the accounting for its VIEs upon the occurrence of events that could change the primary beneficiary conclusion. The maximum risk of loss related to the Company's VIEs is limited to the carrying value of its investment in such entities. The Company has determined that it is the primary beneficiary of one VIE which is described in Note 4.

Management estimates: The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates recorded by the Company include fair value of investments, reserve for loss and loss adjustments (for workers' compensation), discount rate used in the calculation of accrued termination benefits, accrued liabilities (for litigation, claims and assessments), contingencies, allowance for uncollectible receivables and the useful lives of property and equipment.

Revenue recognition: The Company derives its revenue from three segments: temporary help services, permanent placement and franchise fees. The Company accounts for revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which the Company adopted on December 31, 2018. As a result, revenues are recognized when control of the promised services are transferred to customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those services. Revenues are recorded net of any sales, value added, or similar taxes collected from customers.

Express Services, Inc.

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

Sales of temporary help services are recognized over time as the services are performed by the temporary employees using the measure of time (e.g., hours, days, weeks of service provided) which most accurately depicts the progress towards completion of each performance obligation. The associated costs of these services and share of gross margin due to the franchisees is simultaneously recognized with the related revenue. The Company has elected to account for pre-opening services to franchisees as a single performance obligation. As such, franchise fees are recognized as revenue at a point in time which is when the franchisee completes the Company-sponsored training course. Royalties from permanent placement services are recognized when the qualified candidate is placed.

Customer payments are typically due within 10 days of invoicing but may be shorter or longer depending on contract terms. Management does not assess whether a contract has a significant financing component if the expectation at contract inception is that the period between payment by the customer and the transfer of the services to the customer will be less than one year. The Company does not have any significant financing components or extended payment terms.

Revenues from sales of services and the related direct costs are recorded in accordance with the accounting guidance on reporting revenue gross as a principal versus net as an agent. When ESI is the principal, the Company demonstrates control over the service by being the employer of record for the individuals performing the service, by being primarily responsible to customers and having a level of discretion in establishing pricing in which the gross amount is recorded as revenues.

Certain client contracts have variable consideration, including credits, sales allowances, or other similar items that generally reduce the transaction price. Variable consideration is estimated using whichever method, either the expected value method or most likely amount method, better predicts the amount of consideration to which the Company will become entitled, based on the terms of the client contract and historical evidence. These amounts may be constrained and are only included in revenues to the extent a significant reversal is not expected when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved. The Company's variable consideration amounts are not material.

Allowance for doubtful accounts: The Company does not bear significant risk related to its trade accounts receivable as collection of outstanding receivables is ultimately the responsibility of franchisees. Franchisees contribute to an individual reserve fund which uncollectible accounts are charged against. If a reserve balance goes negative, the Company charges interest on the balance and will deduct commissions from the franchisee until the reserve balance returns to a positive position. The Company monitors these reserve balances and adjusts reserve limits based on credit risk of specific customers, historical trends and other information. The Company establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon factors surrounding credit risk of specific customers, historical trends and other information. In addition, the Company also reviews a customer's credit history before extending credit.

Cash and cash equivalents: The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of 90 days or less at acquisition to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, cash held in banks, money market funds, money market mutual funds, certificates of deposit and commercial paper.

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

Restricted cash and cash equivalents: Restricted cash and cash equivalents serve as collateral, under an assumption reinsurance agreement with various insurance companies, for the Company's deductible liability for workers' compensation loss for policy years September 30, 2004 through September 30, 2011 (see reserve for loss and loss adjustment in Note 1). Restricted cash and cash equivalents is comprised of a money market mutual fund.

Concentration of credit risk: Cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and cash equivalents, available-for-sale securities, restricted available-for-sale securities and equity securities are financial instruments that are potentially subject to concentrations of credit risk. The Company's deposits are primarily in accounts at large financial institutions and amounts exceed federally insured limits. The Company believes it is not exposed to significant credit risk due to the financial strength of the depository institutions in which the funds are held.

Non-equity investments and restricted investments: The Company is required to classify its non-equity investments into one of three categories (i.e., trading securities, available-for-sale securities or held to maturity). During the years ended December 25, 2022, December 26, 2021 and December 27, 2020, the Company has determined that all of its non-equity investments should be classified as available-for-sale. As a result of this assessment, all debt securities, including those determined to be, and classified as, cash equivalents, restricted cash equivalents, available-for-sale securities and restricted available-for-sale securities are reported at fair market value with the changes in unrealized holding gains and losses recognized as a separate component of other comprehensive income, net of tax, with unrealized holding gains and losses at year-end reported in accumulated other comprehensive income.

Realized gains and losses on sales of securities, including other than temporary impairment, are determined using the specific identification method, on a trade date basis, and included in net income in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income. Investment income consists of dividend and interest income including amortization of premiums and discounts and unrealized holding gains and losses on equity securities. Interest is recognized on the accrual basis. Premiums and discounts on investments in debt securities are deferred and amortized to income over the term of the investment (maturity for discount, call date for premium). Amortization is calculated using the scientific (constant yield) method. The amortization period for premiums reflects estimates of the period over which repayment of principal of the securities is expected to occur (call date).

Non-equity securities that are considered other than temporarily impaired, and that the Company does not intend to sell and will not be required to sell prior to recovery of the amortized cost basis, the Company separates the amount of the impairment into the amount that is credit related (credit loss component) and the amount due to all other factors. The credit loss component is recognized in earnings and is the difference between the non-equity security's amortized cost basis and the present value of its expected future cash flows discounted at the security's effective yield. The remaining difference between the non-equity security's fair value and the present value of future expected cash flows is due to factors that are not credit related and, therefore, is not required to be recognized as losses in the income statement but is recognized in other comprehensive income.

Declines in the fair value of non-equity securities deemed other than temporary are recognized as a realized loss in other comprehensive income. The Company primarily evaluates all investments held at year-end by the following criteria. The Company reviews all investments for individual securities in which the fair value is less than its cost by 20% or more and has been in a 20% loss position for more than one year. The Company also assesses whether it intends to sell or it is more likely than not that it will be required to sell a security before recovery of its amortized cost basis less any current period credit losses.

Express Services, Inc.

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

Debt securities meeting these criteria are further revaluated based on the rating of the bond and the ability of the Company to hold the bond until maturity at year-end. No investments were determined to be other than temporarily impaired; however, no assurances can be made that the Company will be able to recover unrealized investment losses in the future. In the event management subsequently determines certain investments to be other than temporarily impaired, the amount of the impairment will be reclassified from other comprehensive income to realized investment losses (and reported in other income); however, there will be no impact to the Company's financial position.

Restricted investments serve as collateral, under an assumption reinsurance agreement with various insurance companies, for the Company's deductible liability for workers' compensation loss for policy years September 30, 2004 through September 30, 2011 (see reserve for loss and loss adjustment in Note 1).

Equity securities: Equity investments are comprised of exchange-traded funds. Equity investments with readily determinable fair market values are reported at fair market value with changes in fair value recognized in net income and reported in net unrealized gains (losses) on equity securities in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Equity investments without readily determinable fair market values are reported at cost, minus impairment, if any, plus or minus changes resulting from observable price changes in orderly transactions for the identical or a similar investment of the same issuer. At December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, the Company has one equity investment, in Avionte Holdings, LLC (Avionte), with a carrying value of $3,948,000 and $2,467,000 respectively, which is included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheets with changes in fair value recognized in net income and reported in other income (expense) in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income. The Company recognized a gain on its investment in Avionte, as the result of an observable price change, of $1,481,000 and $0 for the years ended December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively. The Company has a 17.58% ownership interest in Avionte at December 25, 2022.

Property and equipment: Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost or, in the case of assets under capital leases, at the present value of future minimum lease payments. The Company capitalizes costs of internally developed software during the development stage, including external consulting costs, cost of software licenses and internal payroll and payroll-related costs for employees who are directly associated with a software project. Upgrades and enhancements are capitalized if they result in added functionality. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 3 to 39 years. Assets acquired under capital leases are amortized over the lesser of the lease term or useful life, depending on the terms of the lease agreement, using the straight-line method. Repairs, minor replacements and maintenance are charged to general and administrative expense.

Leases: The Company adopted ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) on December 27, 2021 using the modified retrospective approach. The Company elected to apply the modified retrospective approach that allowed it to continue applying the guidance in effect, at the time of adoption, in the comparative periods presented in the consolidated balance sheets and recognize a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings on the date of adoption. The Company elected the package of practical expedients, which permits it not to reassess under the new standard the prior conclusions about lease identification, lease classification and initial direct costs. Lastly, the Company elected the short-term lease practical expedients allowed under the standard.

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

At inception of a contract, the Company determines whether an arrangement is or contains a lease. For all leases, the Company determines the classification as either operating leases or financing leases. Operating lease assets ($311,000 at December 25, 2022) are included in other assets and operating lease liabilities ($316,000 at December 25, 2022) are included in accounts payable and other accrued expenses in the consolidated balance sheets. The Company currently has no financing leases.

Lease recognition occurs at the commencement date and lease liability amounts are based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. The lease term may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. The Company has elected to utilize the risk-free rate as the discount rate for all classes of leases, rather than the interest rate implicit in the lease, or the Company's incremental borrowing rate. The risk-free rate is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve rate, for a period comparable to the lease term, in determining the present value of lease payments. Right of use assets represent the Company's right to use underlying assets for the lease term and operating lease liabilities represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments under the lease. Right of use assets also include any lease payments made prior to the commencement date and exclude lease incentives received. Operating lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Management has elected to account for lease agreements with both lease and nonlease components together as a single lease component.

Due to immateriality of the Company's lease portfolio, management has omitted the additional lease disclosures required by Topic 842, Leases.

Impairment of long-lived assets: The Company reviews long-lived assets, including intangibles, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. No impairment adjustments were required for the years ended December 25, 2022 or December 26, 2021.

Business combinations and asset acquisitions: The Company follows ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations, including evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as acquisitions (or disposals) of assets or businesses by applying a screen. The screen requires that when substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired (or disposed of) is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets the set is not a business. When a transaction is determined to be a business combination, the Company recognizes the assets acquired, liabilities assumed, contractual contingencies, and contingent consideration at their fair value on the acquisition date and acquisition-related costs are recognized separately from the acquisition and expensed as incurred.

The Company also elected to adopt the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-18, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Accounting for Identifiable Intangible Assets in a Business Combination. This update allows an entity that has also adopted ASU No. 2014-02, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Accounting for Goodwill, to no longer recognize separately from goodwill (1) customer-related intangible assets, unless they are capable of being sold or licensed independently from the other assets of the business and (2) noncompetition agreements.

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

Goodwill: The Company recognizes goodwill for the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the identifiable net assets of the business acquired in accordance with ASU No. 2014-02, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Accounting for Goodwill, which provides an accounting alternative for private companies related to the subsequent accounting for goodwill. As a result, the Company amortizes goodwill on a straight-line basis over a period of 10 years, or less than 10 years if the Company determines that another lesser useful life is more appropriate. Also pursuant to the accounting alternative, (1) upon adoption, the Company elected to test goodwill for impairment at the entity level and (2) will test goodwill for impairment only upon the occurrence of an event or circumstance that may indicate the fair value of the entity is less than its carrying amount. If events or circumstances are present that may indicate the fair value of the entity is less than its carrying value, the Company performs an impairment test as required by Topic 350 and any impairment resulting from the application of the test is immediately recognized in the Company's consolidated statements of comprehensive income. The Company recognized no impairment for the years ended December 25, 2022, December 26, 2021 or December 27, 2020.

Intangible assets—noncompete: The Company recognizes defensive assets as they are developed in connection with contractual noncompete arrangements with certain Company field representatives (developers) and corresponding liabilities for termination benefits to be paid to the developers (see accounting policy for accrued termination benefits). The developers' realization of the termination benefits is contingent upon their adherence to the terms of the noncompete arrangements. Upon termination of the developer, the intangible asset is amortized over the lesser of the contractual noncompete period or the period during which the developer is considered to be a competitive threat. At December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, the noncompete intangible asset related to active developers, and not yet subject to amortization, totaled $12,363,000 and $12,074,000, respectively. The weighted-average amortization period for terminated developers is three years at December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, and the gross noncompete intangible asset subject to amortization is $11,204,000 and $10,781,000, respectively, and accumulated amortization is $9,781,000 and $8,743,000, respectively, after removal of intangibles which were fully amortized in prior years. Amortization expense was $1,038,000, $1,514,000 and $1,054,000 for the years ended December 25, 2022, December 26, 2021 and December 27, 2020, respectively. At December 25, 2022, future amortization expense relating to terminated developers is estimated to be $1,007,000 in 2023, $230,000 in 2024 and $186,000 in 2025.

Accrued termination benefits: The Company recognizes a liability and related expense for contractual termination benefits when it is probable employees will be entitled to benefits and the amount can reasonably be estimated. The amount recognized is equal to the present value of the estimated future payments. The Company's current obligations include amounts due to its developers (see accounting policy for intangible assets—noncompete), amounts due to key employees for retention bonuses and term expiration bonuses and severance. The developer obligations are paid over a seven-year period commencing upon termination. The retention bonus is payable on a specified future date if the employee remains employed by the Company through that date. The term expiration bonus is to be paid in 24 equal monthly installments commencing upon employee termination, if the individual remains actively employed by the Company through a specified date. Obligations for severance benefits are accrued when an employee terminates and the Company determines that such amounts are due to the employee. Severance benefits are generally payable in 24 equal monthly installments. See Note 13 for additional information.

Deferred compensation: The Company's deferred compensation liability consists of a deferred compensation plan to reward and provide incentives to key management employees. The Company recognizes a liability and related expense for deferred compensation when employees are vested. For the deferred compensation plan, employees are awarded units and entitled to receive compensation in the future based on certain defined valuations and earnings of the Company. Participants vest in their units at various rates (immediately and/or over a four-year or five-year period) and are entitled to receive payments, subject to certain restrictions and conditions of employment, over a seven-year period or other period specified in the agreement, generally upon their retirement, termination, death or disability. See Note 13 for additional information.

Reserve for loss and loss adjustment: The Company and its subsidiaries are insured for temporary workers' compensation through EPIC. There is a deductible liability for policy year ended September 30, 2020 of $1,250,000, and policy years ended September 30, 2021, 2022 and 2023 of $2,000,000 with no aggregate limit on specific claims. EPIC also, beginning October 1, 2021 for policy years ending September 30, 2023 and 2022, insures the Company and its subsidiaries for its employment practices liability with a $500,000 deductible and a $3,000,000 per claim and aggregate limit under a direct policy written by another insurance company. The Company's franchisees also share in the risks related to workers compensation through premiums charged to the franchisees by the Company and a reduction of gross profit to be allocated between the Company and its franchisees. As a consolidated subsidiary of the Company, EPIC's reserves for workers' compensation claims are reflected in the consolidated balance sheets. Claims in excess of the deductible liabilities are covered by a stop loss policy. The Company recognized loss and loss adjustment expense of $77,590,000, $76,554,000 and $64,176,000 for the years ended December 25, 2022, December 26, 2021 and December 27, 2020, respectively, which is included in costs of temporary help services expense in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Reserve for loss and loss adjustments represent known claims and incurred but not reported claims, which in total represent the estimated ultimate net cost of all unpaid claims incurred through year-end. The reserve for loss and loss adjustments, which are actuarially determined, are estimated using individual case basis valuations and statistical analysis. The actuarial reserves are determined using a weighted average of six development methods. The actuarial approach has not changed significantly from prior periods. The estimates are subject to the effect of trends in loss severity and frequency. Claim frequency is determined on an individual claimant basis. EPIC's reserves inherently have a large amount of variability. Future claim costs may be influenced by changes in the economy, court rulings, or other unknown factors. As a result of this variability, actual development may vary, possibly substantially, from the amounts recorded in the consolidated financial statements. Although considerable vulnerability is inherent in such estimates, management believes that the reserves for loss and loss adjustments are adequate. The estimates are continually reviewed and adjusted as necessary, as experience develops, or new information becomes known; such adjustments are included in cost of temporary help services (expense). The estimates are not discounted for expected investment rates of return.

In 2013, EPIC entered into an assumption reinsurance agreement with various insurance companies to reinsure the Company's deductible liability for the policy years ended September 30, 2004 through September 30, 2011. The agreement covers the first dollar of loss for all periods covered up to $250,000 for the policy year ended September 30, 2004 and $500,000 for policy years from October 1, 2004 to September 30, 2011.

Note 1. Summary of Business Operations and Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies (Continued)

Income taxes: The Company has elected to be taxed for U.S. Federal, and to the extent applicable, U.S. State purposes under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, federal income tax liabilities relating to the Company's profits are the stockholders' responsibility; therefore, no provision has been made for federal income taxes. Certain of the Company's subsidiaries are taxed based on the respective entity's profits due to their incorporated status. With the exception of EPIC, no provision for federal deferred income taxes for these entities has been recorded in the accompanying consolidated financial statements as their operations and taxable income or loss are not material. Certain states and foreign taxing authorities do not recognize the Subchapter S election or the Company has elected to be taxed at the entity level. For these states, income taxes are the Company's responsibility. The Company's state and foreign income taxes are not material.

EPIC's income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method; therefore, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amounts expected to be realized.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with U.S. GAAP, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition of uncertain tax positions taken in a tax return. The interpretation also provides guidance on recognition, derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. The Company applies a more likely than not recognition threshold for all tax uncertainties. Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements to comply with the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes.

Fair value disclosures of financial instruments: The Company follows the provisions of the FASB ASC, Fair Value Measurements (ASC 820). ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs that are derived from or corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

Comprehensive income: Comprehensive income consists of net income and other comprehensive income, which consists of unrealized foreign currency translation gains and losses that result from the translation of the assets and liabilities of the Company's foreign subsidiaries from their local currencies to U.S. dollars and net unrealized holding gains and losses on available-for-sale securities. The Company includes all unrealized gains and losses on investments classified as available for sale in comprehensive income.

Foreign currency translation: For operations outside the U.S. that prepare financial statements in currencies other than U.S. dollars, the Company translates the financial statements into U.S. dollars. Results of operations and cash flows are translated at average exchange rates during the period, and assets and liabilities are translated at end of period exchange rates. The effects of exchange rate fluctuations on translating foreign currency assets and liabilities into U.S. dollars are included in other comprehensive income. Changes in interest rates and currency exchange rates expose the Company to market risk. The Company manages exposure to these risks by monitoring available financing alternatives, as well as through development and application of credit granting policies.

New accounting pronouncements—adopted during current period: In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This guidance affects any entity that enters into a lease transaction. The primary change from this guidance is that the lessee should recognize the assets and liabilities that arise from all leases over 12 months in length. If the lease is 12 months or less in length, a lessee is permitted to make an accounting policy election by class of underlying asset not to recognize lease assets and liabilities. If this election is made, the lessee should recognize the lease expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. In November 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-09, Leases (Topic 842): Discount Rate for Lessees That Are Not Public Business Entities, which allows lessees to make an accounting policy election by class of underlying asset, rather than on an entity-wide basis, to use a risk-free rate as the discount rate when measuring and classifying leases. On December 27, 2021, the Company adopted Topic 842 using the modified retrospective approach and elected the package of transition practical expedients as well as the discount rate practical expedient. See leases in Note 1.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-15, Goodwill and Other—Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Customer’s Accounting for Implementation Costs Incurred in a Cloud Computing Arrangement that is a Service Contract (ASU 2018-15). In discussing the topic of cloud computing accounting, ASU 2018-15 aligns the accounting for costs incurred to implement a cloud computing arrangement that is a service arrangement with the guidance on capitalizing costs associated with developing or obtaining internal-use software. On December 27, 2021, the Company adopted ASU 2018-15 prospectively and cloud computing implementation costs incurred on or after December 27, 2021 are included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheets and are presented within operating cash flows. As of December 25, 2022, capitalized implementation costs for cloud computing arrangements were not material. The adoption did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in ASC 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. The new standard became effective for the Company on December 27, 2021 and had no significant impact on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

In January 2020, the FASB issued ASU No. 2020-01, Investments—Equity Securities (Topic 321), Investments—Equity Method and Joint Ventures (Topic 323), and Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815)—Clarifying the Interactions between Topic 321, Topic 323, and Topic 815. This ASU among other things clarifies that a company should consider observable transactions that require a company to either apply or discontinue the equity method of accounting under Topic 323, Investments—Equity Method and Joint Ventures, for the purposes of applying the measurement alternative in accordance with Topic 321 immediately before applying or upon discontinuing the equity method. The new ASU clarifies that, when determining the accounting for certain forward contracts and purchased options a company should not consider, whether upon settlement or exercise, if the underlying securities would be accounted for under the equity method or fair value option. The new standard became effective for the Company on December 27, 2021 and had no significant impact on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

New accounting pronouncements—issued but not yet adopted: In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which creates a new credit impairment standard for financial assets measured at amortized cost and available-for-sale debt securities. The ASU requires financial assets measured at amortized cost (including loans, trade receivables and held-to-maturity debt securities) to be presented at the net amount expected to be collected, through an allowance for credit losses that are expected to occur over the remaining life of the asset, rather than incurred losses. The ASU requires that credit losses on available-for-sale debt securities be presented as an allowance rather than as a direct write-down. The measurement of credit losses for newly recognized financial assets (other than certain purchased assets) and subsequent changes in the allowance for credit losses are recorded in the statement of income as the amounts expected to be collected change. In May 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-05, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Targeted Transition Relief, which provide entities that have certain instruments within the scope of Subtopic 326-20, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses—Measured at Amortized Cost, with an option to irrevocably elect the fair value option in Subtopic 825-10, Financial Instruments—Overall, applied on an instrument-by-instrument basis for eligible instruments, upon adoption of Topic 326. The fair value option election does not apply to held-to-maturity debt securities. An entity that elects the fair value option should subsequently apply the guidance in Subtopics 820-10, Fair Value Measurement—Overall, and 825-10. In March 2022, the FASB issues ASU 2022-02, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326), which eliminates the accounting guidance for TDRs by creditors in Subtopic 310-40, Receivables—Troubled Debt Restructurings by Creditors, while enhancing disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancings and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. Specifically, rather than applying the recognition and measurement guidance for TDRs, an entity must apply the loan refinancing and restructuring guidance in paragraphs 310-20-35-9 through 35-11 to determine whether a modification results in a new loan or a continuation of an existing loan. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. The Company has evaluated the effects adoption of this guidance will have on its financial statements and does not believe it will have a material impact.

Subsequent events: Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 21, 2023, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued. See Note 15 for disclosed subsequent events.

Trade	$ 340,493,000	$ 376,714,000

	$ 403,972,000	$ 450,426,000

Note 4. Business Combination

On December 29, 2021, the Company acquired a variable interest in Reflik, Inc. (Reflik) in the form of 80.81% of the outstanding common voting shares of Reflik. Reflik operates as a talent crowdsourcing platform that companies across the United States use to hire top talent. The Company has concluded that Reflik is a variable interest entity and that the Company is the primary beneficiary because it controls the most significant activities of Reflik, controls the majority of the board of directors of Reflik and holds a majority financial interest in Reflik. This acquisition has been accounted for as a business combination.

The following table summarizes the consideration transferred and the acquisition-date estimated fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, as well as the fair value of the non-controlling interest at the acquisition date:

Fair value of consideration transferred:
Cash	$ 8,363,000
Fair value of the non-controlling interest in Reflik	$ 1,985,000
Fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 937,000
Accounts (trade) receivable	868,000
Prepaid expenses and other current assets	24,000
Property and equipment, net of accumulated depreciation	265,000
Accounts payable and other accrued liabilities	(969,000)
Net identifiable net assets acquired	$ 1,125,000
Goodwill	$ 9,223,000

The goodwill arising from the acquisition consists largely of expected synergies within the staffing industry which is expected to allow the Company to expand its permanent placement services by leveraging synergies within the staffing industry. Goodwill is not expected to be deductible for income tax purposes.

The Company recognized the remaining 19.19% non-controlling interest in Reflik at fair value as of the acquisition date. The fair value of the non-controlling interest was determined by extrapolating the consideration transferred for the controlling interest to the fair value of the non-controlling interest, adjusted for inclusion of the put and call options and a discount to consider the non-marketable, non-controlling holding.

The fair value of accounts receivable approximates the gross contractual cash flows to be received of approximately $866,000 which are expected to be fully collected based on the Company's best estimate.

The Company recognized transaction related expenses of $595,000 related to the acquisition of Reflik which have been included within general and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

As part of the acquisition, the Company and the minority shareholder agreed to certain put and call options with regard to the remaining 19.19% interest in Reflik retained by the minority shareholder. For a 36-month period commencing on the first anniversary of the closing date, the minority shareholder may exercise a put option to sell their remaining interest in Reflik to the Company and the Company is irrevocably obligated to purchase such shares. In addition, for a 12-month period commencing at the end of the 36-month period of the put option, the Company has a call option to purchase any remaining shares owned by the minority shareholder. The consideration exchanged, per share in the event of a put or call option, is calculated using an agreed upon enterprise value of Reflik as defined in the stock purchase agreement.

The Company determined that neither the call option nor the put option meet the definition of a derivative under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging as the stock purchase agreement does not allow for contractual net settlement, the options cannot be settled outside the stock purchase agreement through a market mechanism, and the underlying shares are deemed illiquid as they are not publicly traded and thus not considered readily convertible to cash. Additionally, the settlement price for both options is based upon a predefined calculation tied to the enterprise value of Reflik rather than a fixed price. As such, the Company has concluded that the call option and put option are embedded within the non-controlling interest and therefore do not represent freestanding instruments.

Interest income from debt investments in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income for the years ended December 25, 2022, December 26, 2021 and December 27, 2020, is comprised of dividends and interest, net of premium and discount amortization and totals $3,676,000, $3,134,000 and $4,253,000, respectively. Proceeds from sales of debt securities, including sales of debt securities classified as cash equivalents and restricted cash equivalents, totaled $1,117,711, $3,298,000 and $3,993,000, resulting in gross realized gains of $26,000, $214,000 and $4,000 and gross realized (losses) of $30,000, $3,000 and $0 for the years ended December 25, 2022, December 26, 2021 and December 27, 2020, respectively. As dividends and net realized gains (losses) are not material to the financial statements, they are included in interest income in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Note 6. Fair Value Measurements

The methods and assumptions used to estimate the fair value of assets and liabilities in the financial statements, including a description of the methodologies used for the classifications within the fair value hierarchy, are as follows:

Equities, U.S. Treasury notes, corporate obligations, municipal bonds, certificates of deposit, commercial paper, and money market mutual funds: The Company gives highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets at the measurement date (Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy). If quoted market prices are not available, the fair values are estimated using pricing models, quoted prices of securities with similar characteristics, or discounted cash flows (Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy).

Limitations: Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instrument. These estimates do not reflect any premium or discount that could result from offering for sale at one time the Company's entire holdings of a particular financial instrument nor do they reflect income taxes on differences between fair value and tax basis of the assets. Because no established exchange exists for a significant portion of the Company's financial instruments, fair value estimates are based on judgments regarding future expected loss experience, current economic conditions, risk characteristics of various financial instruments, and other factors. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Note 12. Related Parties

The Company's stockholders own franchises and have entered into franchise agreements with the Company under the same terms as those of other franchisees except that the stockholders have entered into a founders' agreement whereby the Company does not share in the gross margin for stockholder franchises and therefore the Company has no economic interest in the stockholder franchises. As the Company has no economic interest in the founders' franchises, the gross revenues and related expenses of founder franchises are not included in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income; however, the accounts receivable and accrued expenses are reflected in the consolidated balance sheets. As a result of the founders franchises, the Company's consolidated balance sheets include accounts receivable of $44,469,000 and $49,940,000, related party reserve for loss and loss adjustments of $0 and $1,170,000, franchisee share of gross margin and other payables to franchisees of $1,737,000 and $1,485,000, accrued payroll and payroll taxes of $9,245,000 and $9,652,000, and accounts payable and other accrued liabilities of $612,000 and $177,000 at December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively, that are attributable to the founders franchises.

Company contributions under these plans are made at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Contributions to the defined contribution plan may not exceed the amount deductible for income tax purposes. Contributions to the plans were approximately $1,095,000, $973,000 and $874,000 for fiscal years 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Discretionary incentive plan: The Company sponsors a discretionary incentive program for employees deemed by the Internal Revenue Service as highly compensated employees (HCEs). Company contributions under this plan are based on the HCEs' eligible compensation and years of service and ranges from 5% to 7.5%. HCEs vest in their contributions 20% after two years and then an additional 20% for each of the next four years, becoming fully vested after six years of service. The vested portion of the HCE's account is distributed to them each January based on the vested balance as of the immediately prior December 31, net of any previous distributions. The Company has accrued liabilities of $3,510,000 and $3,542,000 for this obligation in accounts payable and other accrued liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets at December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively.

Note 14. Commitments, Contingencies and Uncertainties

Legal matters: The Company is subject to litigation and claims arising in the ordinary course of business. Some of these claims are preliminary and contain unresolved issues, such as class certification or the ability to pursue common and uncommon claims. In the opinion of management and its legal counsel, the outcome of all such matters that are not currently reflected or disclosed in the financial statements is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows; however, as the ultimate outcome of such matters cannot be determined, it is possible that settlement could result in a material adverse impact to the Company.

Shareholder distributions: The shareholders' have entered into an agreement which specifies the manner and timing in which future stockholder distributions, including tax distributions, are to be calculated, made and paid. In addition to specified minimum distributions, the agreement, specifies criteria for contingent distributions based on cash reserve minimums and EBITDA as defined in the agreement. These minimums and contingent distributions commenced during the year-ended December 26, 2021. When the criteria for these additional contingent distributions are met, the Company considers the distributions to be declared as of the end of the fiscal year to which they relate, as that is when the Company becomes obligated to pay the additional distributions. The Company has accrued stockholder distributions payable of $25,697,000 and $33,246,000 at December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively.

Founder's exemption obligation: As discussed in Note 12, the stockholders of the Company own other franchises and have entered into a founders' exemption agreement that provides for the stockholders to retain their entire gross margin, among other things. Upon the twentieth anniversary of the death of either stockholder, the Company will be required to pay to the deceased stockholder's estate the then fair market value of the founder's exemption right, at which time the exemption will effectively cease, and the Company will be entitled to a share of gross profits from the founder's franchises, similar to the Company's arrangements with third party franchises. This contingent obligation cannot be reasonably estimated at December 25, 2022.

Note 15. Subsequent Events

On March 13, 2023, the Company received notice of intent from the noncontrolling interest holder of Reflik to exercise the put option, to sell the Company 50% of the outstanding shares of Reflik owned by the noncontrolling interest holder, in accordance with the stock purchase agreement described in Note 4. Washington Disclosure

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

Washington Franchise Agreement Addendum

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this addendum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed and delivered this Washington Addendum to the Franchise Agreement.
