What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit D.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Kansas. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Kansas than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

2. Sales Performance. You may be required to meet a minimum performance standard. Your inability to meet these requirements may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Spousal Liability. Your spouse may be required to sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement, even if your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse’s marital and personal assets (perhaps including your house) at risk if your franchise fails.

ITEM 1

THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

The Franchisor

To simplify the language in this franchise disclosure document, “We”, “Us”, or “NEXTAFF” means Nextaff Group, LLC, the franchisor. “You” means the person that buys the franchise. If you are a corporation or a limited liability company, certain provisions of this franchise disclosure document also apply to your owners and are noted.

NEXTAFF is a Kansas limited liability company that was originally formed under the name Nextaff, LLC on July 26, 2002. On August 1, 2016, the assets of Nextaff, LLC were acquired by Malone Nextaff, LLC, a Kentucky limited liability company that was formed on July 5, 2016. Malone Nextaff, LLC changed its name to Nextaff Group, LLC on November 4, 2019. On December 28, 2021, Nextaff Group, LLC filed a Certificate of Domestication to become a Kansas limited liability company.

We began offering franchises on February 10, 2004.

Parents, Predecessors and Affiliates

We do not have a parent company.

Our predecessor was Nextaff, LLC. On July 31, 2016, Nextaff Group, LLC purchased certain assets, including all the franchise contracts and the NEXTAFF trade names, from Nextaff, LLC. Nextaff, LLC operated as the franchisor from 2002 through 2016.

Agents for Service of Process

Our agents for service of process in certain states are listed in Exhibit C.

Description of the Franchise

NEXTAFF offers franchises for the operation of a NEXTAFF Office, which may be either a conversion of an existing staffing agency or a new unit. To qualify for a Conversion Office, you must be operating an existing independent staffing business for at least one year and have earned Gross Revenue of at least $500,000 (See Item 6 for definition of “Gross Revenue”).

The franchise offered is for the right to operate a NEXTAFF Office that provides temporary staffing services such temporary, temp-to-hire and direct hire (the “Services”). Each NEXTAFF Office recruits (non-internal temporary) individuals (the “Field Employees”) to fulfill the Services directly to clients of each NEXTAFF Office. When we use the “Client” we mean customers of the Franchised Business that retain, hire and/or enter into an agreement with you for services and shall further include all affiliate companies of client and its successors and assigns (the “Client”).

The “System” includes distinctive signage, interior and exterior design and decor, uniform standards, specifications and procedures for operation of the Office and uniformity of services, and management and financial procedures, initial and ongoing training and assistance, all of which may be changed and further developed, in our discretion. (See Items 7, 11, 13 and 14).

You will be granted the right, within your Territory, to own and operate a NEXTAFF Office offering the Services and utilizing our System and certain proprietary trademarks, domain names, service marks and other commercial symbols, including without limitation NEXTAFF™ (collectively, the “Licensed Marks”). NEXTAFF grants you the use of the Licensed Marks and its business methods to promote identification of the Services and use of the programs developed by NEXTAFF. Your main business objective is to find and secure prospective clients and potential Field Employees.

For the Services, we, or a service provider of our sole choice, will employ the Field Employee and provide payroll services and support functions for the Field Employees of your NEXTAFF Office. We will require that you perform day-to-day tasks with respect to hiring and management of Field Employees. You will bill clients directly for the services provided by Field Employees of your NEXTAFF Office. We, or a service provider of our sole choice, will then collect all amounts due from clients, reimburse ourselves for Direct Payroll Costs that we incur, retain our Royalty Fee, fund the Collateral Reserve and Marketing Fund, pay any non-compliance weekly finance charge due, as each of those items are further described below in Item 6. We will then transfer the remaining balance to you. As further described below in Item 6, we require that you guarantee the collection of all accounts receivables generated by your Office and we establish and fund the Collateral Reserve to secure your obligation to guarantee those accounts receivable.

In addition to the Franchise Agreement, as part of our financing arrangements with our lenders, you will be required to sign a Security Agreement which is attached as Exhibit H.

Competition

The market for the Services is highly competitive and your competition could include other national brands and local brands with one or multiple locations in your area. Sales are not typically seasonal.

Industry Regulations

Many states have implemented state laws and regulations governing the staffing industry. You must review with your legal counsel the state laws and regulations that affect the operation of your NEXTAFF Office and which may regulate the staffing industry in your state. You must operate your NEXTAFF Office in compliance with state laws and regulations. You are responsible for compliance with all state laws and regulations.

In addition to the laws mentioned above, certain laws govern businesses generally, such as Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Federal Wage and Hour Law, and the Occupation, Health and Safety Act and other similar laws that regulate the relationships between employers and employees.

All payments which you make directly to us are nonrefundable under any circumstance. This may or may not be true for payments made to third parties.

Note 2. NEXTAFF charges a Royalty Fee based on Gross Wages instead of Gross Revenue because it is easier for a franchisee to determine their cost of sales. As part of the Payroll Services Program (described more fully in Item 8), NEXTAFF receives payments directly from clients and reimburses itself for Field Employees' wages and any other Direct Payroll Costs (as defined below) and retains the Royalty Fee, your contribution to the Collateral Reserve and Marketing Fund, any non-compliance weekly finance charge and any costs incurred by us for pre-employment assessment profiles for Field Employees of your Office.

The amount of the percentage for the Royalty Fee is adjusted January 1st of each calendar year based on your prior year's Gross Wages. Once a lower Royalty Fee percentage is achieved it will not be increased in the future.

Current franchisees, conversion franchisees or licensees have entered into agreements with us that require them to pay fees that are different than the percentages set forth above for the Royalty Fee. These fees range from 3% - 6% of their Gross Revenue. Except for these franchisees, all royalties and fees are uniformly imposed on all franchisees.

Direct Payroll Costs are costs related to the employment of Field Employees and include, but may not be limited to, the wages earned by Field Employees based upon the work hours reported, plus all credits and taxes due, the employer's share of federal social security taxes, federal and state unemployment tax contributions, worker's compensation insurance premiums, disability insurance premiums, taxes on health and welfare payments, premiums on comprehensive liability for Field Employees, fidelity bonding insurance, errors and omissions insurance, and professional liability insurance premiums, administrative fees for processing of Field Employees payroll services and any other bank fees, payroll related taxes, sales tax and insurance premiums (including premiums, costs and penalties under the Affordable Care Act) related to Field Employees. Direct Payroll Costs may also include costs imposed in the future by government agencies that relate directly to any Field Employees.

Note 3. The Collateral Reserve is an asset of NEXTAFF but is tracked and maintained, on a franchisee-by-franchisee basis, so that the amount withheld from each franchisee's accounts receivable may be used to:

- (i) offset uncollected amounts of at least $2,500 per occurrence from clients of that franchisee;
- (ii) cover costs incurred of at least $2,500 per occurrence from the Modified Duty or Return to Work Worker's Compensation Program;
- (ii) fund any insurance deductible charges of at least $2,500 per occurrence the franchisee may incur; and
- (iv) cover any deductible charges of at least $2,500 per occurrence related to EPLI and Errors & Omissions policies.

Any balance remaining in the Collateral Reserve less any uncollected amounts from accounts receivable generated by your NEXTAFF Office will be paid to you without interest within 90 days after the termination of the Franchise Agreement.

You must collect unpaid accounts receivable. NEXTAFF may, but is not obligated to, assist you in collecting unpaid accounts receivable. Any uncollectible accounts will be charged against your Collateral Reserve. In the event your Collateral Reserve is insufficient, we may, but are not obligated to, loan you the amount of the uncollectible accounts outstanding. Each loan to you shall bear interest from the date of issuance at the lesser of the prime rate plus 5% compounded annually or the highest rate permitted by applicable law. In addition, we may set-off any amount you owe to us against any amount we owe to you.

To secure this Guaranty, we may deduct a portion of the amounts that we collect from these accounts receivable and hold those funds as collateral security for your payment and performance of the guaranty.

The Collateral Reserve is not for day-to-day expenditures – nor is it for small occurrences. The Collateral Reserve can only be used for items that are a minimum of $2500.

Note 4. We charge technology fees on behalf of our third-party vendors. Optional technologies are: Staffing Referrals $95 per month per user; ZoomInfo $231.50 per month per office.

Note 5. We renegotiate our rates with these third-party service providers annually. The service providers may change and rates may decrease, increase or remain the same. In certain instances, the rates may increase or stay the same, but with an increase in the products and/or services supplied by the third-party service providers to the Offices. Indeed Resume' is optional, the cost is $120/month per user for 30 credits or $300/month for 100 credits.

Note 6. A change of location, transfer or an opening of a new location must be approved by NEXTAFF in writing. Approval will not be reasonably withheld.

Note 7. We charge you the following amounts for General Liability, EPLI and E&O insurance for your Field Employees: .165% of Gross Wages for commercial and information technology; and .308% of Gross Wages for healthcare. We charge the following amounts for Credit Insurance: .125% of Sales. You must also acquire certain levels of insurance as required by the Franchise Agreement. If you fail to maintain these levels, we may obtain insurance coverage on your behalf and bill you for the cost of related premiums.

Total	$121,838	$156,938

Note 1. We describe the initial franchise fee, and when the fee is payable, in Item 5. For a new office, the initial franchise fee is $49,000. If you are a veteran of the United States Armed Forces, the initial franchise is 39,200. If you are an employee of a NEXTAFF Office immediately before signing a Franchise Agreement, for a minimum of 24 months, the initial franchise fee is $24,500.

Note 2. You must lease, buy or construct a building for an Office. If you buy or build an Office, the costs will vary depending on the size, condition and location of the premises, the price difference between various vendors and contractors, the price of the land, construction and labor costs, the price of materials, and shipping distance from vendors. All construction materials and fixtures must be in compliance with plans and specifications of NEXTAFF. In addition, local zoning ordinances and regulations may require alterations to the typical plans and specifications, which will affect the cost of construction. These costs are normally paid to third parties before the opening of the Office, or in installments over a period of time, depending on the type of financing arrangement you are able to obtain. NEXTAFF has based this estimate on leasing the location and estimates that you will need to lease premises of approximately 800 square feet to 1,500 square feet for an Office.

Note 3. The range of estimated initial investment represents the estimated cost of leasehold improvements for a leased location in line. These costs may be reduced if you are able to have the owner/landlord of the premises incur the costs for all or a percentage of the leasehold improvements. Changes in the economy, local prices of labor and materials, negotiation with and selection of appropriate consultants and contractors with appropriate contracts, your timely preparation of appropriate plans and specifications, the quality of supervision and management and inflation will all contribute to your costs for leasehold improvements, construction and remodeling. Additional factors that may significantly affect these costs include, without limitation, (1) the condition of the existing structure; (2) the configuration of the premises; and (3) the geographic location of the Office. All leasehold improvements, construction and remodeling must be in compliance with plans and specifications of NEXTAFF. In addition, local zoning ordinances and regulations may require alterations to the typical plans and specifications, which could affect costs.

Note 4. The cost of purchasing signs will also depend on if you have a retail or office location. You must purchase your internal sign from us. The cost of the internal sign is included in your Launch Fee (Note 8). You may purchase exterior approved signs from our preferred vendors. Payment for these items will typically be made before the opening of the Office or in installments over a period of time depending on the type of financing arrangement you are able to obtain.

Note 5. The furnishings and fixtures should be in compliance with the specifications and suggestions of NEXTAFF. Payment for these items will typically be made before the opening of the Office.

Note 6. Computer System will include computers, copier, facsimile machine and printer. Payment for these items will typically be made before the opening of the Office or in installments over a period of time depending on the type of financing arrangement you are able to obtain.

Note 7. You must maintain certain minimum levels of property and liability insurance as specified in the Franchise Agreement. Insurance costs are based on the annual insurance premium.

Note 8. NEXTAFF has developed a Launch Fee to simplify some of the upfront expenses. The following items are included in the Launch Fee: a) 12 weeks of direct mailer materials and costs to 120 prospects; b) the internal Nextaff sign; c) Nextaff promotional and marketing materials; d) your initial press release e) your initial search engine optimization (SEO) package and f) your first year of bookkeeping services. Nextaff has a specific marketing plan for opening an office that NEXTAFF will coordinate and implement. This amount also includes your first 12 weeks of appointment setting calls by our internal sales support staff.

Note 9. Miscellaneous costs and expenses including travel, employee training costs and other normal and customary operational expenses are typically paid to third parties as incurred. These expenses are estimates and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the Office. Your costs may vary depending on, among other things, your management skill, your sales experience and abilities and local economic conditions.

Note 10. This includes estimated additional funds for the first 6 months of operation for operating expenses such as rent, staff salaries, utilities, recruiting expenses, marketing expenses. We have based our estimates of initial investments on the operations of the staffing offices formerly operated by Mr. Daniel and Mr. Windmiller and information provided from recently opened offices. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire the franchise. Your costs will depend on how much you follow our methods and procedures, your management and sales skills, and your office's sales activities during the initial period. Your costs may be higher in certain demographic areas where employment costs and standard of living costs are substantially above the national average. We do not guarantee financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment. The availability in terms of financing depend on many factors, including the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness and collateral, and lending policies of financial institutions from which you request a loan.

Total	$1 to $40,000

Note 1. Our initial franchise fee for a Conversion Office is $1.00.

Note 2. As a conversion franchisee we assume that you are currently in business providing some, if not all, of the Services (as defined in Item 1) and that you will incur minimal, if any, additional expenses for purchase or lease of the NEXTAFF Office.

Note 3. The range of estimated initial investment represents the estimated cost of leasehold improvements for a leased location in line. Remodeling, construction and leasehold improvements will range from $0 to $2,500. These costs may be reduced if you are able to have the owner/landlord of the premises incur the costs for all or a percentage of the leasehold improvements. Changes in the economy, local prices of labor and materials, negotiation with and selection of appropriate consultants and contractors with appropriate contracts, your timely preparation of appropriate plans and specifications, the quality of supervision and management and inflation will all contribute to your costs for leasehold improvements, construction and remodeling. Additional factors that may significantly affect these costs include, without limitation, (1) the condition of the existing structure; (2) the configuration of the premises; and (3) the geographic location of the Office. All leasehold improvements, construction and remodeling must be in compliance with plans and specifications of NEXTAFF. In addition, local zoning ordinances and regulations may require alterations to the typical plans and specifications, which could affect costs.

Note 4. The cost of purchasing signs may vary as a result of price differences between vendors and shipping distances from vendors. You may purchase or lease approved signs from our preferred vendors. Payment for these items will typically be made before the opening of the Office or in installments over a period of time depending on the type of financing arrangement you are able to obtain.

Note 5. As a conversion franchisee we assume that you are currently in business providing some, if not all, of the Services (as defined in Item 1) and that you will already have some of the equipment, furniture and fixtures necessary to operate your NEXTAFF Office. The low estimate assumes that your existing equipment, furniture and fixtures meet the current standards and will require minimum improvement, repair or replacement. The high estimate assumes you may have some of these items but will need to purchase or lease a significant number of items to meet NEXTAFF's standards. Equipment will include computers, phones, copier, facsimile machine and printer.

Note 6. You must maintain certain minimum levels of property and liability insurance as specified in the Franchise Agreement. Insurance costs are based on financing the annual insurance premium, and only reflect the first three months of payments.

Note 7. Miscellaneous costs and expenses, including vehicle lease/purchase, sales tax and license/title costs, licensing, local permits, employee compensation, employee training costs and other normal and customary operational expenses are typically paid to third parties as incurred. As a conversion franchisee we assume that you are currently in business providing the Services (as defined in Item 1) and already have the licensing, local permits and most, if not all, of the employee compensation in place.

Note 8. As a conversion franchisee we assume that you are currently in business providing some, if not all, of the Services (as defined in Item 1). There should be minimal, if any, additional costs to you for the first three months of operation of a NEXTAFF Office. The additional costs, if any, will vary depending upon the size of your NEXTAFF Office, number of employees, location, your insurance requirements, purchase/lease of a vehicle, including sales tax and licensing costs, and other factors relating specifically to your NEXTAFF Office. NEXTAFF cannot guarantee this amount will be sufficient.

We have based our estimates of initial investments on the operations of the Kansas City and Denver staffing offices formerly operated by Mr. Daniel and Mr. Windmiller and from feedback from newly opened offices.

ITEM 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

In the paragraphs below, when we refer to a “vendor”, we mean any supplier that you must use or that we recommend you use, and payment for products and services is made by you directly to the vendor; when we refer to a “service provider”, we mean any supplier that we engage on your behalf to provide services and products to you and for which you pay us for the cost of those services.

Payroll Services Program

In order to reduce your overall payroll costs and maintain the quality and uniformity of the System, you must process your payroll through us and/or through our designated payroll service provider.

Each week you must enter your payroll data on our web-based software. Once your payroll data has been submitted, we process that payroll by providing you with the following services:

- processing and payment of all direct deposit payroll checks and paycards;
- processing and payment of all local, state and federal employment and income taxes;
- processing and payment of both state and federal unemployment insurances;
- processing and payment of worker’s compensation insurance; and
- processing and payment of other various insurances, garnishments and deductions.

We make an initial determination of your workers’ compensation rates based upon loss costs by class code published by the Scopes Manual and Classification Guidelines published by the National Council on Compensation Insurance. There is no guarantee that our initial determination on class codes and costs will be the same as the carrier’s final determination at the final audit period. While we will provide our best effort to accurately determine codes – the ultimate decision is made by the carrier auditor or adjustor. In the event, the carrier changes a class code or cost – the cost will be your responsibility. Your worker’s compensation claims are tracked along with all other franchisees and you may be required to pay a portion of the workers’ compensation claims and employment practices liability claims paid by us for your Field Employees. The deductible for worker’s compensation has ranged from $1000 to $5,000. The deductible for employment practices liability insurance has ranged from $25,000 to $50,000. The deductibles are paid on your behalf by us and then billed back to you and are your responsibility. We may adjust your rates based on your claim frequency and claim amounts on an annual basis. You must participate in our Risk Management Program and Return to Work Program, both of which are intended to reduce the amount of worker’s compensation costs. If you fail to participate, we may charge you any direct costs associated with that non-compliance which could include but is not limited to modified duty wages. You must report all work-related accidents or illness to us within 24 hours after they occur. If you fail to do so, we may charge you 1.5 times the amount that would otherwise be your maximum share of expenses related to any claims.

We make an initial determination of your unemployment rates based upon the greater of (a) the “new employer rate” or the “initial rate” set by each state or (b) our current rate. Your unemployment claims are tracked along with all other franchisees. We may adjust your rates based on your claim frequency and claim amounts on an annual basis. You must participate in our Unemployment Programs, which are intended to reduce the amount of unemployment claims by Field Employees. You must assist on all unemployment hearing and cases.

We fund all the Direct Payroll Costs which typically average in a range from 65% to 80% of your Gross Revenue. You are responsible for sending invoices to each client. Payments for those invoices must be sent directly to us. Once we collect payments on these invoices, we will reimburse ourselves for the Direct Payroll Costs initially funded by us and we will retain any of the fees and charges payable to us which are set forth in Item 6. On each Friday, we will then pay you the balance for collections from the previous Wednesday through Tuesday.

Our involvement in the payroll process and/or the use of a designated service provider should allow you to focus on developing new clients and recruiting additional candidates.

NEXTAFF Office

Except as described below, you are not obligated to purchase or lease from us or from any designated sources any items used in the establishment or operation of the Office. We will provide a list of our required standards and specifications for the operation of your NEXTAFF Office, as contained in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing, in order to protect and maintain the quality and uniformity of the System. You must strictly comply with our standards and specifications.

You must use only approved vendors designated by us, in our sole discretion, for direct mail marketing and to acquire or license for the software used to prepare and process your payroll for your Field Employees:

We do not currently receive any compensation for purchases from these approved vendors, but we reserve the right to do so in the future.

In addition, to the vendors described above, we require that you purchase the following items from us and we will contract with a service provider to provide these services to you:

- Avionte Applicant Tracking and Payroll Software;
- LIGHTCAST Software;
- Microsoft Office
- Indoor NEXTAFF signage; and
- Certain promotional material

We specify our currently approved vendors in our Operations Manual.

You must hire and continue to employ on a full-time dedicated sales development representative. If you do not have such a salesperson or dedicated appointment setting vendor in place, we may require you to use one of our appointment-setting service providers and you must pay us the costs associated with your use of such service providers.

If you want to buy or lease any item or service that we have not yet evaluated or approved or want to buy or lease from the supplier that we have not yet approved or designated, you must first send us, in writing, sufficient information, specifications, and samples so that we can determine whether that item or service complies with our standards and specification and/or whether the supplier meets our approved supplier criteria. We may charge you or the supplier a reasonable fee for the valuation and decide within a reasonable time (generally no more than 30 days) whether or not we approve or disapprove the item or service. We periodically will establish procedures for your request and may limit the number of approved items, services or suppliers, as we determine in our sole discretion.

Supplier approval might depend on product quality, delivery frequency and reliability or on service standards or financial capability or customer relation or concentration of purchases with limited suppliers to obtain better prices and service, and/or a supplier's willingness to pay us or our affiliate for the right to do business with our system. We may inspect a proposed supplier's facilities during or after the approval process to make sure that the supplier meets our standards. If it does not, we may revoke our approval by notifying the supplier and you in writing. We have no obligation to approve any request for a new supplier, or for a new product or service.

We do negotiate discounted pricing from these vendors for the benefit of our franchisees. We do not receive any benefit for the negotiated discount pricing. Other than these discounts, you will not receive any material benefits from either the vendor or from us resulting from your use of these approved vendors.

We do not issue or make available our criteria for vendors to you or any other franchisee. For all other vendors, we furnish the names of preferred vendors for certain items, but you are not required to use these vendors and we receive no compensation for these purchases.

You are restricted to selling and offering only the Services that we have specifically approved in writing. We have and may continue to develop new Services for the System that are proprietary to the System and which may be identified by the Licensed Marks. To maintain the uniformity of the Services within the System, it is mutually beneficial for us to control the development and roll out of these Services. Therefore, if such services become a part of the System, you must use our proprietary Services and/or an approved vendor we designate.

You must provide signage at your NEXTAFF Office identifying you as an independent contractor and a franchisee of the System. You must place this identification in the manner and form we require in writing periodically, on all contracts, forms, business cards, timesheets, letterhead, invoices, advertisements, marketing materials and other information disseminated to the public in a manner and form as we may require. We have a preferred vendor for the purchase of these items, but you are not required to use this vendor.

The cost of all purchases from our approved vendors is approximately five percent (5%) of all purchases by you in establishing your NEXTAFF Office and five percent (5%) of all purchases by you in operating your NEXTAFF Office.

Your NEXTAFF Office must be decorated in a manner and style in compliance with our specifications and requirements and in a manner and style that conveys good taste and professionalism. You must use in the operation of your NEXTAFF Office only those types of furniture, office materials, fixtures, computers, equipment and signage that we have approved for NEXTAFF Offices as meeting our specifications and standards for appearance, function and performance. We develop the standards and specifications in our sole discretion. These specifications and standards are not issued to you or to vendors. However, approved types of furniture, materials, fixtures, equipment and signage are communicated to you periodically in writing.

In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022, we received no revenue from approved vendors or service providers.

All the Direct Payroll Costs that we collected were paid to Field Employees or other third parties on behalf of the applicable franchisee. We did not receive any revenue from our collection of Direct Payroll Costs on behalf of our franchisees.

Other than as described above, we do not provide material benefits to you based on your use of designated or approved vendors or service providers.

We do not currently receive any compensation for purchases from designated or approved vendors or service providers, but we reserve the right to do so in the future.

None of our officers owns any interest in any of the approved vendors or service providers.

There are currently no purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

ITEM 10
FINANCING

Except as described below, neither we nor any agent or affiliate, offers direct or indirect financing to you, guarantees any of your notes, leases or other obligations, or has any practice or intent to sell, assign or discount to a third party all or part of any of your financing arrangements.

As described above in Item 1, we own and collect all amounts due from the clients of your Office and employ the Field Employees of your NEXTAFF Office and pay the payroll due to those Field Employees on your behalf. In the staffing industry, this practice is often referred to as “financing” your payroll because we make these payments on your behalf. While this arrangement is not the typical financing arrangement contemplated by Item 10 of the FTC Franchise Rule or the NASAA Guidelines, we wish to make you aware that we “finance” your payroll in this manner as that term is customarily used in the staffing industry.

For existing franchisees that have operated for more than one year purchasing additional locations, NEXTAFF may finance a part of the initial franchise fees as follows:

SUMMARY OF FINANCING
Item Financed Note 1	Source of Financing	Down Payment	Amount Financed	Terms (Months)	Interest Rate	Monthly Payment	Security Required	Liability Upon Default	Loss of Legal Right Upon Default Note 2
Initial Franchise Fee on additional locations	NEXTAFF	25%	[Up to the amount of the initial franchise fee]	1 location – 12 months 2 locations – 24 months 3 locations – 36 months	Prime + 2%	Varies	None	None	[Termination of Franchise Agreement]

Notes

Note 1. NEXTAFF will consider financing additional initial franchise fees on the basis of past performance and approval of an Expansion Territory Application.

Note 2. NEXTAFF does not offer financing that requires you to waive notice, confess judgment, or waive a defense against us.

Other than the above, we do not know whether you will be able to obtain financing for all or part of your investment and, if so, the terms of the financing. We do not receive direct or indirect payments for placing financing.

ITEM 11

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

1. Pre-Opening Obligations

a. Development of a New Office

We must approve the site you select for any new Office. We will notify you of our approval or disapproval within 14 days after we receive all information, we request for site approval (Franchise Agreement, Section 3). We generally consider the following factors in determining whether a site is approved: general location, traffic patterns, parking, size, and competitor analysis. If you fail to select a site in accordance with our requirements, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

After a site has been approved, we will furnish you with specifications for your Office including specific requirements for signage and decor. We will also consult and otherwise assist you in making the premises of your site fit our specifications as well as conform to any local laws and regulations (Section 9 of Franchise Agreement).

b. Pre-Opening Support

NEXTAFF will provide you with the services of one employee of NEXTAFF for four days at your location for supervisory guidance regarding the sales, recruiting and operations of the Office. NEXTAFF has the right to determine the time or times this person is available to assist you (Paragraph C, Section 4 of the Franchise Agreement).

c. Dedicated Account Manager

You must hire a dedicated account manager / employee recruiter before opening your Office and this person must be someone other than the designated salesperson. We typically do not permit a franchisee who is an individual to serve in the role of dedicated account manager because we believe that the franchisee must be focused on sales to be successful.

d. Dedicated Sales Development Representative

You must hire a dedicated sales development representative before opening your Office and this person must be someone other than the designated salesperson.

e. Pre-Opening Training

NEXTAFF furnishes, and you, your account manager and business development representative must attend, an initial training program on the operation of the Office. The details of the entire training program are described in more detail below. We do not charge a fee for the initial training program, but you are solely responsible for the compensation, travel, lodging and living expenses you and your account manager and your business development representative incur while attending the initial training program or any supplemental or refresher training programs.

f. Supplemental Training

NEXTAFF currently does not, but reserves the right to, require you and your internal employees to attend and successfully complete additional training we deem necessary, should your NEXTAFF Office not meet the minimum performance standards and specifications.

2. Time for Opening an Office:

a. New Permanent Office

The typical time between signing a Franchise Agreement and opening a NEXTAFF Office is 8-12 weeks. These time periods may vary depending upon factors including your ability to secure financing and non-payment of the initial franchise fees. If you do not have your permanent Office open within 6 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

b. Conversion to NEXTAFF Office.

If you operate an existing staffing office, we estimate that it will take from one to three months for the conversion of your existing staffing office to a NEXTAFF Office, but the interval may vary depending upon factors including completion of the improvements to the premises. If you do not convert your existing office to a NEXTAFF Office within the time specified in Exhibit A to the Franchise Agreement, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

3. During the Operation of your Office

a. Operating Assistance.

We will assist you as we deem appropriate in the overall operation of your Office in the following areas:

- (i) Establishment and operation of administrative, bookkeeping, accounting, marketing, sales and general operating procedures for the proper operation of a NEXTAFF Office;
- (ii) Additional services we authorize for sale to customers;
- (iii) Marketing materials and advertising research data;
- (iv) Employment relations; and
- (v) Marketing assistance and sales promotion programs, formulating and implementing advertising and promotional programs.

We may also furnish guidance in our Operations Manual and informal bulletins and other written materials and consultations by phone or at our offices or your Office. We will advise you of operating problems that we discover based on our routine inspections or through other examinations of your business operations (Paragraph D, Section 4 of Franchise Agreement).

b. Payroll Services Program.

As part of our Payroll Services Program, NEXTAFF will administer all accounting details and provide support services concerning payroll and payroll taxes for Field Employees. NEXTAFF does use a payroll service provider for some of these services.

You will bill clients for the Field Employees furnished by you and clients will be instructed to remit payment directly to NEXTAFF and you must enter your Field Employees payroll data on a weekly basis into our web-based software, including Field Employees pay and hours of work during each pay period. We will ensure that your payroll is processed and that all Field Employees are paid by Direct Deposit or Paycard. We do not issue physical payroll checks unless required by your state. We will provide the following payroll related functions:

- (i) Processing, filing and payment of all local, state, and federal employment taxes;
- (ii) Processing, filing and payment of both state and federal unemployment insurance;
- (iii) Processing of all unemployment claims;
- (iv) Processing and payment of worker's compensation insurance;
- (v) Oversight of all worker's compensation claims;
- (vi) processing and payment of other various insurance, garnishments and deductions; and
- (vii) processing and payment of all direct deposit, payroll checks and paycards.

c. Billing and Collecting Accounts Receivables.

You must bill your clients and collect unpaid accounts receivable. We may, but are not obligated to, assist you in collecting your unpaid accounts receivable. Any bad debt accounts will be charged to you and your portion of the Collateral Reserve (Item 6, Note 3 and Paragraph B, Section 8 of Franchise Agreement). In the event your portion of the Collateral Reserve is insufficient, we may, but are not obligated to, loan you the amount of the uncollectible accounts receivable outstanding. Each loan to you will bear interest from the date of issuance at the lesser of the Prime rate plus five percent (5%) compounded annually or the highest rate permitted by applicable law. In addition, we may set-off against any amount we owe to you any amount you owe to us.

d. Additional Personnel in Your Office.

You must have two full time employees, in addition to yourself, on staff the first day you open for business. Before the one-year anniversary of the date you open for business in your permanent Office (or convert to a NEXTAFF Office for conversion franchisees), it is recommended you or your designated manager complete the Certified Staffing Professional program issued through the American Staffing Association.

4. Advertising Program:

a. Marketing Fund.

We direct all Marketing Fund programs, with sole discretion over the creative concepts, over the development of advertising and marketing and public relations materials, over the media used and the placement and allocation of all advertising, marketing and public relations materials. We have the right to determine, in its sole discretion, the composition of any geographic territory and market areas for the development and implementation of advertising, marketing or public relations programs. The Marketing Fund's programs and activities are intended to maximize the public's awareness of all NEXTAFF Offices and we are under no obligation to ensure that you or any other Franchisee shall benefit directly or pro rata from the placement of such advertising, marketing or public relations programs and activities (Paragraph A, Section 10 of Franchise Agreement).

On the first Friday of the seventh month after signing your franchise agreement, you must contribute to the Marketing Fund a minimum amount equal to the greater of $100 per week or .75% of Gross Wages. Your required contributions to the Marketing Fund are subject to annual increases in our sole discretion up to a maximum of the greater of $100 per week or 1% of Gross Wages. All contributions to the Marketing Fund are paid to us for utilization by us for the Marketing Fund activities and programs and will be collected weekly. We reserve the right to retain your required monthly contribution to the Marketing Fund from the balance payable to you as described in Item 6.

The media which the advertising may be disseminated includes, without limitation, print, point of purchase, radio, television, direct mail, electronic and billboard. The media coverage may be local, regional or national as we determine in our sole discretion. The creative development of advertising, marketing and public relations materials may be developed by us with our employees or by utilization of advertising or public relations agencies or consultants, as we determine in our sole discretion. You may purchase the advertising, marketing and public relations materials, direct mail materials, merchandising materials and any other materials or promotional items produced by the Marketing Fund (Paragraph A, Section 10 of Franchise Agreement).

The Marketing Fund may be used to meet all costs and expenses relating to the following programs and activities:

- (i) Maintaining, administering, directing and preparing national, regional or local advertising materials, website development, or public relations materials and activities, including, without limitation, the cost of preparing all advertising and solicitation materials, programs and public relations materials and the creative concepts, the cost of conducting any advertising, marketing or public relations program or activity, the cost of preparing television, direct mail, magazine, billboard, newspaper, internet or any other media programs and activities;
- (ii) Employing advertising agencies or utilizing our administrative personnel to perform advertising, marketing and public relations services, including the creative concepts;
- (iii) Developing promotional brochures and advertising materials;
- (iv) Conducting market research, testing and development of new services;

- (v) Reimbursement of our administrative and personnel costs and the salaries and overhead associated with advertising, marketing, telemarketing, public relations, market research, product development and payment for consultants providing services and any expenses related thereto;
- (vi) Any other advertising, marketing or public relations program designated by us and the development of any materials for any of these programs;
- (vii) Any software or Software as a Service (SAAS) related to marketing;
- (viii) Any dues for memberships in but not limited to American Staffing Association, Staffing Industry Analysts, National Federation of Independent Businesses, US Chamber of Commerce, International Franchise Association; and staffing and franchise roundtable and networking groups; and
- (ix) Any expenses, including travel, related to Franchisee convention.

The Marketing Fund is not our asset and is not a trust. We have no fiduciary obligation to you to administer the Marketing Fund. We may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contributions of franchisees to the Marketing Fund in that year. We may make loans to the Marketing Fund and if done so, the Marketing Fund will be required to pay that amount back to us. We will cause the Marketing Fund to invest any surplus for future use by the Marketing Fund.

We will account for the Marketing Fund separately and it will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for salaries, administrative costs and overhead that we may incur in the development of advertising, marketing and public relations materials and in activities related to the administration or direction of the Marketing Fund or in the administration or direction of any of its programs and activities as outlined above, and for collecting and accounting for contributions to the Marketing Fund. NEXTAFF will prepare an annual report of the usage of the Marketing fund which will be made available to you by April of each year for the preceding year's expenditures. If, at the end of any fiscal year, there is a surplus in the Marketing Fund, we will use the surplus to payback any outstanding liabilities pertaining to the Marketing Fund. If any surplus remains after the outstanding liabilities are paid, that surplus will be carried over to the next year's Marketing Fund.

Although the Marketing Fund is intended to be perpetual, we may terminate the Marketing Fund at any time in our sole discretion. The Marketing Fund will not be terminated until all contributions paid to the Marketing Fund have been expended for the activities of the Marketing Fund.

We will prepare an unaudited annual report of the operations of the Marketing Fund, which will be available to you upon reasonable request.

During the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022, the Contributions were spent as follows: .56% on communications, 4.38% on consulting, 4.85% on content development and design, 17.04% on the franchise conference, 1.08% on general marketing, 6.45% on industry membership dues, 13.62% on lead services, 15.07% on marketing salaries; 4.38% on social media and press releases, 32.06% on software as a service and .51% on website hosting.

b. Local Advertising Spend

You are not required to spend any minimum amount on local advertising; however, local classified ads are recommended for candidate recruiting (Paragraph B, Section 10 of Franchise Agreement).

c. Local or Regional Advertising Cooperatives

NEXTAFF does not currently have any plans to establish an advertising cooperative but reserves the right to do so in the future.

d. Advertising Approval

You must submit to us for our prior written approval, samples of all advertising and promotional materials not prepared or previously approved by us. This does not apply to help wanted classified advertising. If written approval is not granted within five business days from the date of our receipt of such materials, the materials will be deemed to have been approved. You may not use any advertising or promotional materials that have not been approved by us (Paragraph D, Section 10 of Franchise Agreement).

e. Advertising Council

We do not have a franchisee advertising council that advises us on advertising policies.

5. Computer Hardware and Software

You must obtain and use the computer hardware and software complying with specifications that we periodically establish, including hardware components, staffing software, accounting software, printers, and other computer-related accessories (the “Computer System”). You will use the Computer System to maintain and operate the NEXTAFF Office equipment and related technology. The Computer System may store some data and information about the NEXTAFF Office clients, finances and operations based on information you input. You also must have a functioning email address so that we can send you notices and otherwise communicate with you by this method. We do not have access to the information generated by the Computer System.

The following table lists the minimum Computer System requirements:

Component	Minimum Required	Recommended
Computers	1 PC per internal employee and 1 application kiosk	1 PC per internal employee, additional laptop for owner and 2 application kiosks
CPU Processor Speed	Intel (or equivalent) 2.4 gigahertz (GHz) processor or higher as required for local Microsoft Office applications	Intel (or equivalent) 3.0 gigahertz (GHz) processor or higher
Memory	4 gigabyte (GB) of RAM	8+ gigabyte (GB) of RAM
Hard Disk	250 gigabytes (GB) Hard Drive available disk space for file storage.	500 gigabyte (GB) of Hard Drive available disk space

Printer	1 Black/White network laser printer	1 Color laser network laser (multi-function) Copy/Scan/Print duplex printer

If you are a conversion franchisee, we assume that you are currently in business providing some, if not all, of the Services and that you currently own some, if not all, of the computer equipment necessary to operate a NEXTAFF Office. For a conversion franchisee, the cost of the Computer System will be in a range of $0 to $3,800.

If you are a new unit franchisee, we assume you will need to purchase a majority, if not all, of the computer equipment necessary to operate a NEXTAFF Office. For a new unit franchisee, the cost of the Computer System will be in a range of $4,434 to $5,423.

You may obtain the computer hardware from any vendor so long as it meets our requirements. Industry standards are constantly changing which affects the price of the Computer System.

As set forth below, you must obtain certain computer software from a vendor approved by us. Avionte' is currently the only approved vendor for the Staffing ATS Software ($156 per month, per user, plus $5.99 per month per active field employee on assignment). LIGHTCAST is currently a required supplier of the Workforce Market Data Platform software ($125 per month, per office). You are required to use Microsoft Office software ($28 per month per user for an E3 user license).

At this time, we do not require but allow you to opt in for Indeed Resume', (which can range from $120/month/user for 30 credits to $300/month/user for 100 credits) and/or Staffing Referrals ($95/month). If you choose to opt-in, we will collect the fees from you and remit to the vendor. Indeed Resume' is a monthly resume sourcing database subscription and Staffing Referrals is a platform that tracks referral campaign performance and automates field employee referrals.

You must purchase QuickBooks Plus, which is a cloud-based product and does not require software ($40 per month, per user). All fees regarding the Internet based QuickBooks software will be your sole responsibility.

You may obtain Internet based services through any Internet service provider for which you will pay a monthly fee. The payment of all costs incurred regarding Internet based services is your sole responsibility. The amount of any applicable third-party service fees is unknown and may vary depending on the Internet service provider you choose, and the services offered.

The computer system will transmit sales, billed time and other payroll related information to us electronically and must be made available to us not less than once a week on Wednesday at 8:00AM Central Time.

Despite your obligation to buy, use, and maintain the Computer System according to our standards and specifications, you have sole and complete responsibility for the acquisition, operation, maintenance, upgrading of the computer system, and obtaining an Internet service provider. Neither we, nor any affiliate or third party, is obligated to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates for the computer system. We currently do not require that you purchase a maintenance, repair, upgrade or update service contract for the computer system, but we reserve the right to do so in the future. We reserve the right to change the computer system requirements at any time.

6. Operations Manual.

NEXTAFF provides to you, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, access to its electronic Operations Manual, which may consist of one or more handbooks or manuals, and other written materials (collectively the “Operations Manual”) for NEXTAFF Offices. NEXTAFF may furnish the Operations Manual electronically in its discretion. The Operations Manual contains mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by NEXTAFF for NEXTAFF Offices and information relative to your other obligations. NEXTAFF has the right to modify the Operations Manual to reflect changes in products, services, specifications, standards and operating procedures, including marketing techniques, of a NEXTAFF Office. No addition or modification may alter your fundamental status and rights. You must keep one copy of the Operations Manual current and the master copy of the Operations Manual maintained by NEXTAFF at its principal office controls if there is a dispute relative to the contents of the Operations Manual (Paragraph H, Section 4 of Franchise Agreement).

Upon your request, before purchasing a franchise, you may view the Table of Contents of the Operations Manual.

ITEM 12

TERRITORY

The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to operate a NEXTAFF Office from a physical location that we approve within a defined industry vertical. The three distinct industry verticals are (1) "Commercial", which includes Industrial, Office, Clerical, Administrative, Professional and Managerial, (2) "Healthcare", which includes clinical healthcare positions, and (3) "Technology", which includes Engineering, Scientific & Information Technology).

For Commercial and Healthcare verticals, you will receive a defined geographic area, which is determined by boundaries established by county and/or zip codes and/or other boundary limitations that will be detailed to you prior to signing the Franchise Agreement (the "Territory"). The Territory (including the designated industry vertical) and the physical location of the Office is set forth in Exhibit A to the Franchise Agreement.

For Commercial and Healthcare verticals, your Territory will be an exclusive territory with respect to the industry vertical that you are granted. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, if you are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and any other agreements you and your affiliates may have with us and our affiliates, we will not open or authorize another person to open a Nextaff Office or provide the Services or sell the Services in your industry vertical within your Territory. Similarly, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, you will not be permitted to open a Nextaff Office or provide the Services or sell the Services outside your industry vertical or outside the geographic area that constitutes your Territory.

You will not receive an exclusive territory with respect to any industry vertical that is outside of the industry vertical granted to you in your Territory, and you may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets we own or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control with respect to any industry vertical that is outside of the industry vertical granted to you in your Territory.

You must operate the NEXTAFF Office only at the approved location, and you cannot relocate the NEXTAFF Office without first obtaining our written consent. In deciding whether or not to approve the relocation of your Office, we generally consider the general location, traffic patterns, parking, size, and competitor analysis. You may not establish or operate another NEXTAFF Office unless you enter into a separate Franchise Agreement for that NEXTAFF Office.

We reserve the following rights:

- (1) To operate or to grant other persons not in your industry vertical the right to operate NEXTAFF Offices at locations and on terms and conditions as we determine within the geographic area that is included in your Territory; and
- (2) To advertise and promote and to authorize other persons the right to advertise and promote the System within and outside your Territory; and
- (3) To create, operate, maintain, modify or discontinue the use of websites using the Licensed Marks.

We are not required to pay you if we exercise any of these rights.

For Technology vertical, you will not receive an exclusive territory and will be required to sign Exhibit K – Technology Vertical Addendum which will grant you the right to operate a Nextaff Office in the Technology vertical but will not provide any territorial protection..

In Exhibit C attached to your Franchise Agreement, we establish certain Minimum Performance Standards for your Territory. The Minimum Performance Standards may vary based on the characteristics of the Territory but will generally require that you generate a specific minimum Gross Wages per year. After your first full year of operation, if you fail to meet the Minimum Performance Standards set forth in the Franchise Agreement at Exhibit C you are in default of the Franchise Agreement and subject to the loss of certain other rights, such as a reduction in the size of your Territory, and/or the termination of this Franchise Agreement (Section 1 of Franchise Agreement). Upon renewal, the Minimum Performance Standards (described above) may be modified. Depending on the demographics of the Territory at the time of renewal, and on our standards for exclusive areas at the time of renewal, if the Territory originally granted to you is larger than the area we are then granting to new franchisees, we may require you to accept an increase in Minimum Performance Standards which is more than originally granted for the initial term of your Franchise Agreement.

You have no options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

ITEM 14

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

No patents are material to the franchise. NEXTAFF claims copyrights in the Operations Manual, advertising and marketing materials and similar items used in operating your NEXTAFF Office. NEXTAFF has not registered these copyrights with the U.S. Register of Copyrights but need not do so at this time to protect them. ITEM 15

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

Before opening your Office, you must hire a dedicated account manager/employee recruiter and this person must be someone other than the designated salesperson. We do not permit a franchisee who is an individual to serve in the role of dedicated account manager because we believe that the franchisee must be focused on sales to be successful. You must also hire a dedicated sales development representative.

The Office must at all times be under your direct, day-to-day, full-time supervision (or, if you are a partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, a managing partner, shareholder, or managing member who NEXTAFF approves and who satisfactorily completes the training program) or an operating manager who NEXTAFF approves and who satisfactorily completes the NEXTAFF training program. If an operating manager supervises the Office, you (or the managing partner, shareholder or managing member) must remain active in overseeing the operations of the Office conducted under the supervision of the manager, unless the Minimum Performance Standards have been achieved (see Item 12 and Exhibit C of Franchise Agreement). NEXTAFF must approve the hiring of any operating manager. Your equity owners (or your spouse) may be required to sign our Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations as a personal guarantee of the obligations of the Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

The person who is responsible for the day-to-day supervision of the Office (i.e., the managing partner, shareholder, managing member, or the approved manager) assumes responsibilities on a full-time basis and may not engage in any other business or other activity, directly or indirectly, that requires any significant management responsibility, time commitments, or otherwise may conflict with your obligations.

The person who is responsible for the day-to-day supervision of the Office is required to be physically located at the premises during operating hours. The person who is responsible for the day-to-day supervision of the office is not required to own an equity interest in the Office.

If at any time you do not manage the Office (or if you are a partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, the managing partner, shareholder, or managing member) or an approved manager who satisfactorily completes NEXTAFF training program does not manage the Office, NEXTAFF is authorized, but is not required, to immediately appoint a manager to maintain the operations of the Office on your behalf. NEXTAFF appointment of a manager of the Office does not relieve you of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement or constitute a waiver of NEXTAFF right to terminate the franchise. NEXTAFF is not liable for any debts, losses, costs or expenses you incur in the operation of the Office or to any of your creditors for any products, materials, supplies or services purchased or provided by the Office while it is managed by a NEXTAFF appointed manager. NEXTAFF has the right to charge a reasonable fee for management services and to cease to provide management services at any time.

All ideas, concepts, techniques and materials concerning a NEXTAFF Office, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed to be our sole and exclusive property and part of our system, and a work made-for-hire for us. To the extent any item does not qualify as a “work made-for-hire” for us, you assign ownership of that item and all related rights to that item, to us and must take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to show our ownership or to help us obtain intellectual property rights in the item.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s franchise rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buyer; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

This financial performance representation discloses historical information regarding the average and median Gross Revenue, Gross Wages, Gross Profit and Gross Profit Percentage (all terms defined below) for 24 Offices open and operating during the entire 12-month period ending December 31, 2022 (the “Measurement Period”). These include 22 franchisee-owned Offices and 2 company-owned offices (“Traditional Offices”) that are substantially similar to the Nextaff Offices that you will operate under the Franchise Agreement.

These results exclude Offices that either:

(1) did not operate for the entire Measurement Period, of which six locations met this criterion. or

Break-Even Analysis/Reporting Survey

We conducted a survey of our Traditional Offices that have opened since 2017 regarding their time to break-even. We asked the question: “how long did it take your office to ‘break-even’ (in months) when measured on a month-to-month basis. By ‘break-even,’ we mean that the Gross Revenue of the Office exceeds all the costs and expenses when measured on a monthly basis.”

Based on our survey, 15 of the 20 Traditional Offices responded. The average break-even response was 8.43 months. The Median response was 8 months. The range was between 3 months and 15 months.

- Note: It was up to each respondent to determine the starting point of the measurement period. We did not ask to base their answer on signing the franchise agreement or upon opening. That was left to the determination of the respondent.

Capital Investment/Reporting Survey

We conducted a survey of our Traditional Offices that have opened since 2017 to determine the amount of investment capital that it took each Office to achieve “break-even” when measured on a month-to-month basis. We asked the question: “how much capital did you have to invest before your office reached ‘break-even’ when measured on a month-to-month basis. By ‘break-even,’ we mean that the Gross Revenue of the Office exceeds all the costs and expenses when measured on a monthly basis.”

Based on our survey, 15 of 20 Traditional Offices responded. The average response was $106,000. The Median response was $100,000. The range was between $60,000 and $189,528.

NOTE:

From 2018 through December 31, 2020, Malone Solutions was an affiliate of the franchisor due to the common ownership of the franchisor and Malone Solutions. At the beginning of the 2020 calendar year, Malone Solutions operated sixty (60) staffing locations under the Malone Solutions brand. These businesses were identified by the franchisor in Item 20 of prior versions of the FDD as being sixty (60) of the sixty-one (61) company-owned outlets.

On December 31, 2020, the franchisor entered into a redemption transaction with some of its ownership group and, as a result of that transaction, the franchisor and Malone Solutions were no longer affiliates and were not affiliates during any portion of the 2021 calendar year.

During the 2018 through December 31, 2020 time period, the one (1) company-owned outlet owned directly by the franchisor has remained open and operating and is included in this Item 20.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
Nextaff Group, LLC
Overland Park, Kansas

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Nextaff Group, LLC, which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2022, and the related statements of operations and members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Nextaff Group, LLC, as of December 31, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Nextaff Group, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1, the Company has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Update 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

401 West Main Street, Suite 1100 Louisville, Kentucky 40202 tel: 502.583.0248 fax: 502.589.1680 www.jnmcpa.com

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Nextaff Group, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Nextaff Group, LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgement, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Nextaff Group, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NEXTAFF GROUP, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations

Nextaff Group, LLC (the Company) is a franchisor which sells and provides support services to individual franchisees in the human resources industry. The Company provides support services to franchisees operating in nineteen states. The Company was formed on August 1, 2016 when it acquired the assets of Nextaff, LLC. As a limited liability company, the members' liability is limited to their capital investment. 13 franchises were sold in 2022, 20 were in development at December 31, 2022, and a total of 34 units were in operation at December 31, 2022.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

The Company maintains its cash balances in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed coverage provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant risk on bank deposits.

Trade receivables and allowance for uncollectible accounts

Trade receivables are carried at their net realizable value. Trade credit is generally extended on a short-term basis of 30 to 60 days and does not bear interest. In 2022, the Company began charging interest to franchisees on customer invoices over 60 days. Interest income is recognized when charged. The Company's trade receivables are due from customers throughout the United States. Accounts will be written off as uncollectible after all collection efforts have been exhausted or when management determines it is no longer reasonable to expect payment from the customer.

The Company uses the allowance method to account for uncollectible accounts receivable. Management maintains an allowance for potential credit losses based on its assessment of the current status of the customer accounts.

Notes receivable

Notes receivable are generally extended for a period of 12 to 60 months to franchisees to fund the purchase of franchises, do not bear interest, and are unsecured. The Company makes annual assessments of the expected realization of notes receivable based upon the financial condition of the franchisees. An allowance for uncollectible notes receivable is recognized in the amount of any impaired loans. The Company considers notes receivable to be fully collectible and therefore no allowance has been recorded as of December 31, 2022.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. When property or equipment is retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost is removed from the asset account and the related accumulated depreciation is adjusted with the difference being charged to income. Depreciation expense is provided for by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	5-7 years
Office equipment and software	3-5 years

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2022 was $10,926.

Goodwill

The Company has classified $690,030 in excess of the purchase price of Nextaff, LLC over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired as goodwill. The goodwill is being amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of ten years. Amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 2022 was $69,003 and is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statement of operations and members' equity.

When a triggering event occurs, the Company is required to evaluate goodwill for any impairment and adjust it to reflect any impairment losses. Management tests for impairment by comparing the fair value of the entity to the carrying value (book value). Fair value is determined based on the history and nature of the business; the economic outlook for the entity and the industry; and the earnings capacity and financial condition of the entity compared to industry standards, all of which include significant unobservable inputs. For the year ended December 31, 2022 there have been no events to trigger the testing for goodwill impairment.

Leases

Recently Adopted Accounting Guidance

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued guidance (Accounting Standards Codification [ASC] 842, Leases) to increase transparency and comparability among organizations by requiring the recognition of right-of-use (ROU) assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet. Most prominent among the changes in the standard is the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities by lessees for those leases classified as operating leases. Under the standard, disclosures are required to meet the objective of enabling users of financial statements to assess the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases.

The Company adopted the standard effective January 1, 2022 and recognized and measured leases existing at, or entered into after, January 1, 2022 (the beginning of the period of adoption) with certain practical expedients available.

The Company elected the available practical expedients to account for existing capital leases and operating leases as finance leases and operating leases, respectively, under the new guidance, without reassessing (a) whether the contracts contain leases under the new standard, (b) whether classification of capital leases or operating leases would be different in accordance with the new guidance, or (c) whether the unamortized initial direct costs before transition adjustments would have met the definition of initial direct costs in the new guidance at lease commencement.

As a result of the adoption of the new lease accounting guidance, the Company recognized on January 1, 2022, a lease liability of $1,238,894, which represents the present value of the remaining operating lease payments of $1,484,145, discounted using its incremental borrowing rate of 4.5%, and a right-of-use asset of $1,238,894.

The standard had a material impact on the Company's balance sheet but did not have an impact on its statement of operations, nor statement of cash flows. The most significant impact was the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities for operating leases, while its accounting for finance leases remained substantially unchanged.

The Company leases office space. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating leases are included in operating lease right-of-use (ROU) assets, short-term operating lease liabilities, and long-term operating lease liabilities on the balance sheet.

ROU assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Operating lease ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. As most of the leases do not provide an implicit rate, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The operating lease ROU asset also includes any lease payments made and excludes lease incentives. The lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain the option will be exercised. Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company's lease agreements do not contain any material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

The Company has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, which are generally accounted for separately. For its leases, the Company accounts for the lease and non-lease components as a single lease component. For arrangements accounted for as a single lease component, there may be variability in future lease payments as the amount of the non-lease components is typically revised from one period to the next. These variable lease payments, which are primarily comprised of operating expenses for the building that are passed on from the lessor in proportion to the space leased, are recognized in operating expenses in the period in which the obligation for those payments was incurred.

The Company has elected to apply the short-term lease exemption to its underlying assets. In 2022, there are only a small number of leases that qualify for the exemption. The short-term lease cost recognized and disclosed for those leases in 2022 is $1,516, and there are no remaining lease payments due in 2023.

In 2022, the Company sublet a portion of its office space to third parties. The lease and sublease portfolio consisted of operating leases with franchisees for office space within the Company's office. All subleases ended in 2022. Sublease income recognized and disclosed for those leases in 2022 is $27,290.

Income taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and state jurisdictions. Accordingly, no income taxes are provided in the financial statements since the taxable income is reported by the members on their individual tax returns.

The Company's accounting policy provides that a tax expense/benefit from an uncertain tax position may be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits. Management believes the Company has no uncertain tax positions resulting in an accrual of tax expense or benefit.

The Company recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. The Company did not recognize any interest or penalties during the year ended December 31, 2022.

The Company's federal and state income tax returns are subject to examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those returns. In general, the federal income tax returns have a three-year statute of limitations, and the state income tax returns have a four-year statute of limitations.

Revenue recognition

Performance obligations

The Company's principal source of revenues are from staffing placements generated by the franchisees. The Company also records the related staffing expenses. Although these staffing expenses are funded by the franchisees, accounting guidance requires the Company to report these fees on a gross basis as both revenue and expense. The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation of providing the staffing placements to the franchisees. A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good or service to a customer.

The performance obligations related to royalty fees, which are a percentage of staffing placements, are recognized as revenues when the underlying sales occur. Marketing fees are also determined as a percentage of staffing placements and are intended to reimburse the Company for expenses associated with marketing and advertising and other related services.

The performance obligations for initial franchise fees consist of pre-opening services including site selection for the new franchise and training for the franchisee, including new owners, sales, operations and back-office training. The Company has elected to recognize revenue from initial franchise fees as a single performance obligation in accordance with the practical expedient identified in ASU 2021-02. The Company receives non-refundable initial franchise fees when the franchise contract has been entered into, which are recognized as revenues when the performance obligation of pre-opening services has been substantially performed, typically within the first four months after the franchise agreement is signed.

Significant judgments

The Company has made judgments regarding transaction price, including but not limited to site selection and training. When determined to be significant in the context of the contract, these items are considered in the valuation of transaction price at contract inception or modification, as appropriate.

Multiple performance obligations

Revenues generated by staffing placements are recognized at the time of the staffing placement. Royalty fees are a percentage of staffing placements and are recognized as revenues when the underlying sales occur. The Company receives a non-refundable franchise fee from the franchisee and recognizes the revenues at the time site selection and training for the new franchise are completed.

Disaggregation of revenue

Revenues from contracts with customers include staffing revenue and royalty fees, which are recognized at a point in time. Revenues that are satisfied over time include franchise fees from initial franchise contracts. Revenues for the year ended December 31, 2022 are as follows:

Staffing revenues	$ 67,966,341
Royalty fees	3,090,147

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Nextaff Group, LLC, which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2021, and the related statements of operations and members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Nextaff Group, LLC, as of December 31, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Nextaff Group, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Nextaff Group, LLC 's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgement, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Nextaff Group, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

As a limited liability company, the members' liability is limited to their capital investment. 16 franchises were sold in 2021, 16 were in development at December 31, 2021, and a total of 29 units were in operation at December 31, 2021.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

The Company maintains its cash balances in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed coverage provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant risk on bank deposits.

Trade receivables and allowance for uncollectible accounts

Trade receivables are carried at their net realizable value. Trade credit is generally extended on a short-term basis of 30 to 60 days and does not bear interest. The Company's trade receivables are due from customers throughout the United States. Accounts will be written off as uncollectible after all collection efforts have been exhausted or when management determines it is no longer reasonable to expect payment from the customer.

The Company uses the allowance method to account for uncollectible accounts receivable. Management maintains an allowance for potential credit losses based on its assessment of the current status of the customer accounts.

Notes receivables

Notes receivable are generally extended for a period of 12 to 60 months to franchisees to fund the purchase of franchises, do not bear interest, and are unsecured. The Company makes annual assessments of the expected realization of notes receivable based upon the financial condition of the franchisees. An allowance for uncollectible notes receivable is recognized in the amount of any impaired loans. The Company considers notes receivable to be fully collectible and therefore no allowance has been recorded as of December 31, 2021.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. When property or equipment is retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost is removed from the asset account and the related accumulated depreciation is adjusted with the difference being charged to income. Depreciation expense is provided for by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	5-7 years
Office equipment and software	3-5 years

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2021 was $11,153.

Goodwill

The Company has classified $690,030 in excess of the purchase price of Nextaff, LLC over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired as goodwill. The goodwill is being amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of ten years. Amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 2021 was $73,203 and is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statement of operations and members' equity.

When a triggering event occurs, the Company is required to evaluate goodwill for any impairment and adjust it to reflect any impairment losses. Management tests for impairment by comparing the fair value of the entity to the carrying value (book value). Fair value is determined based on the history and nature of the business; the economic outlook for the entity and the industry; and the earnings capacity and financial condition of the entity compared to industry standards, all of which include significant unobservable inputs. For the year ended December 31, 2021 there have been no events to trigger the testing for goodwill impairment.

Income taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and state and local jurisdictions. Accordingly, no income taxes are provided in the financial statements since the taxable income is reported by the members on their individual tax returns.

The Company's accounting policy provides that a tax expense/benefit from an uncertain tax position may be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits. Management believes the Company has no uncertain tax positions resulting in an accrual of tax expense or benefit.

The Company recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. The Company did not recognize any interest or penalties during the year ended December 31, 2021.

The Company's federal and state income tax returns are subject to examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those returns. In general, the federal income tax returns have a three-year statute of limitations, and the state income tax returns have a four-year statute of limitations.

Revenue recognition

Performance obligations

The Company's principal source of revenues are from staffing placements generated by the franchisees. The Company also records the related staffing expenses. Although these staffing expenses are funded by the franchisees, accounting guidance requires the Company to report these fees on a gross basis as both revenue and expense. The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation of providing the staffing placements to the franchisees. A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good or service to a customer.

The performance obligations related to royalty fees, which are a percentage of staffing placements, are recognized as revenues when the underlying sales occur. Marketing fees are also determined as a percentage of staffing placements and are intended to reimburse the Company for expenses associated with marketing and advertising and other related services.

The performance obligations for initial franchise fees consist of pre-opening services including site selection for the new franchise and training for the franchisee, including new owners, sales, operations and back-office training. The Company has elected to recognize revenue from initial franchise fees as a single performance obligation in accordance with the practical expedient identified in ASU 2021-02. The Company receives non-refundable initial franchise fees when the franchise contract has been entered into, which are recognized as revenues when the performance obligation of pre-opening services has been substantially performed, typically within the first four months after the franchise agreement is signed. The Company received $470,200 for initial franchise fees during the year ended December 31, 2021, of which $242,583 was recognized in the current year, and $227,617 was recorded as deferred revenue.

Significant judgments

The Company has made judgments regarding transaction price, including but not limited to site selection and training. When determined to be significant in the context of the contract, these items are considered in the valuation of transaction price at contract inception or modification, as appropriate.

Multiple performance obligations

Revenues generated by staffing placements are recognized at the time of the staffing placement. Royalty fees are a percentage of staffing placements and are recognized as revenues when the underlying sales occur. The Company receives a non-refundable franchise fee from the franchisee and recognizes the revenues at the time site selection and training for the new franchise are completed.

Disaggregation of revenue

Revenues from contracts with customers include staffing revenue, royalty fees, and franchisor-owned staffing revenues which are recognized at a point in time. Revenues that are satisfied over time include franchise fees from initial franchise contracts. Revenues for the year ended December 31, 2021 are as follows:

Staffing revenues	$ 52,246,879
Royalty fees	2,465,897
Franchise fees	242,583
Revenues	$ 54,955,359

Contract assets

Contract assets include unbilled receivables on trade receivables. The balance in contract assets was $1,051,753 and $554,534 as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Contract liabilities

Contract liabilities included deferred revenue. Deferred revenue consists of non-refundable franchise fees for unopened franchises where pre-opening services have not been performed. The balance in contract liabilities was $227,617 and zero as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Advertising costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in general and administrative expenses. Advertising costs for the year ended December 31, 2021 were $209,143.

Recent accounting pronouncement

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases. The standard requires all leases with lease terms over 12 months to be capitalized as a right-of-use asset and lease liability on the balance sheet at the date of lease commencement. Leases will be classified as either finance or operating. This distinction will be relevant for the pattern of expense recognition in the statement of income. This standard will be effective for the year ending December 31, 2022.

Management is currently in the process of evaluating the impact of the adoption of this ASU on the financial statements.

Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 22, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

As of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, there were no additional franchisor-owned franchise activities.

Subsequent to year-end, the maximum amount to be advanced is limited to the lesser of (1) $9,000,000 or (2) 90% of the total amount of undisputed accounts receivable.

Note 8. Long-term Debt

In 2020, the Company received a $149,900 Economic Injury Disaster Loan from the United States Small Business Administration (SBA). The loan was secured by substantially all assets of the Company. The loan carried an interest rate of 3.75% and was payable in monthly installments of interest and principal over a period of 30 years, beginning one year from the distribution date. The note was paid in full during the year ended December 31, 2021.

On December 30, 2020, the Company signed a $500,000 promissory note agreement with a bank. The note bears interest at a rate of prime plus 4% (7.25% at December 31, 2021) and is payable in monthly installments of principal and interest, starting February 1, 2021, over a period of three years. The bank is entitled to withhold any amounts owed under the line of credit (discussed above) against installments due under this note. The note is personally guaranteed by the members.

Note 9. Subleases

2023	172,997

2025	179,587
2026	182,982
Thereafter	217,615
	$ 1,099,238

Note 11. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is party to various legal actions arising in the ordinary course of its business. In management's opinion, the Company has sufficient contract rights and/or adequate legal defenses regarding these actions and does not believe they will materially affect the Company's operations or financial position.

During 2020, the Company adopted a provision of the Coronavirus, Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act which allowed employers the opportunity to defer payment of the employer's share of Social Security tax (6.2%) for any payroll paid between March 27, 2020 and December 31, 2020. The Company paid 50% of the deferred employer taxes during the year ended December 31, 2021, and the remaining 50% is due on December 31, 2022. There is no penalty for early repayment. The total deferred employer tax as of December 31, 2021 was $368,248 and is included in accrued expenses on the balance sheet.

Note 12. Risks and Uncertainties

Local, U.S., and world governments have encouraged self-isolation to curtail the spread of the global pandemic, coronavirus disease (COVID-19), by mandating temporary work stoppage in many sectors and imposing limitations on travel and size and duration of group meetings. Most industries are experiencing disruption to business operations and the impact of reduced consumer spending. There is unprecedented uncertainty surrounding the duration of the pandemic, its potential economic ramifications, and any government actions to mitigate them. Accordingly, while management cannot quantify the financial and other impact to the Company as of March 22, 2022, management believes that a material impact on the Company's financial position and results of future operations is reasonably possible.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations

Nextaff Group, LLC (the Company) is a franchisor which sells and provides support services to individual franchisees in the human resources industry. The Company provides support services to franchisees operating in sixteen states. In addition, the Company operates as a staffing provider by providing services which include short-term staffing assignments, contract staffing, staff augmentation, long-term or indefinite-term onsite management and direct placement. The Company was formed on August 1, 2016 when it acquired the assets of Nextaff, LLC. As a limited liability company, the members' liability is limited to their capital investment. Four franchises were sold in 2020, five were in development at December 31, 2020, and a total of 24 units were in operation at December 31, 2020.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Trade receivables and allowance for uncollectible accounts

Trade receivables are carried at their net realizable value. Trade credit is generally extended on a short-term basis of 30 to 60 days and does not bear interest. The Company's trade receivables are due from customers throughout the United States. Accounts will be written off as uncollectible after all collection efforts have been exhausted or when management determines it is no longer reasonable to expect payment from the customer.

The Company uses the allowance method to account for uncollectible accounts receivable. Management maintains an allowance for potential credit losses based on its assessment of the current status of the customer accounts.

Notes receivables

Notes receivable are generally extended for a period of 12 to 36 months to franchisees to fund the purchase of franchises, do not bear interest, and are unsecured. The Company makes annual assessments of the expected realization of notes receivable based upon the financial condition of the franchisees. An allowance for uncollectible notes receivable is recognized in the amount of any impaired loans. The Company considers notes receivable to be fully collectible and therefore no allowance has been recorded as of December 31, 2020.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. When property or equipment is retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost is removed from the asset account and the related accumulated depreciation is adjusted with the difference being charged to income. Depreciation expense is provided for by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	5-7 years
Office equipment and software	3-5 years

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $3,342.

Goodwill

The Company has classified $690,030 in excess of the purchase price of Nextaff, LLC over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired as goodwill. The Company also repurchased a franchisee and has recorded $30,000 of excess cash paid over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired to repurchase the franchise.

Goodwill consists of the following as of December 31, 2020:

Balance, beginning of year	$ 720,030
Accumulated amortization	(309,888)
Balance, end of year	$ 410,142

The goodwill is being amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of ten years. Amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $72,003 and is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statement of operations and members' equity.

When a triggering event occurs, the Company is required to evaluate goodwill for any impairment and adjust it to reflect any impairment losses. Management tests for impairment by comparing the fair value of the entity to the carrying value (book value). Fair value is determined based on the history and nature of the business; the economic outlook for the entity and the industry; and the earnings capacity and financial condition of the entity compared to industry standards, all of which include significant unobservable inputs. For the year ended December 31, 2020 there have been no events to trigger the testing for goodwill impairment.

Income taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and state and local jurisdictions. Accordingly, no income taxes are provided in the financial statements since the taxable income is reported by the members on their individual tax returns.

The Company's accounting policy provides that a tax expense/benefit from an uncertain tax position may be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits. Management believes the Company has no uncertain tax positions resulting in an accrual of tax expense or benefit.

The Company recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. The Company did not recognize any interest or penalties during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The Company's federal and state income tax returns are subject to examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those returns. In general, the federal income tax returns have a three year statute of limitations, and the state income tax returns have a four year statute of limitations.

Revenue recognition

Adoption of accounting pronouncements

The Company adopted ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers as of January 1, 2020. The new standard replaces existing revenue recognition rules with a single comprehensive model to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers.

The Company applied the new standard to all customer contracts as of January 1, 2020 using a modified retrospective method. Under this method, the new accounting standard is applied to the most recent contract period presented, recognizing the cumulative effect of the accounting as an adjustment to the beginning balance of members' equity. The adoption of ASU 2014-09 had no material impact on earnings or equity of the Company.

The Company also adopted ASU 2021-02, Franchisors—Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606): Practical Expedient. The amendments in ASU 2021-02 provide a practical expedient related to FASB Accounting Standards Codification (FASB ASC) 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, that permit franchisors to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchisee as distinct from the franchise. Additionally, amendments in ASU 2021-02 provide an accounting policy election to recognize the pre-opening services as a single performance obligation.

Performance obligations

The Company's principal source of revenues are from staffing placements generated by the franchisees. The Company also records the related staffing expenses. Although these staffing expenses are funded by the franchisees, accounting guidance requires the Company to report these fees on a gross basis as both revenues and expense. The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation of providing the staffing placements to the franchisees. A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good or service to a customer.

The performance obligations related to royalty fees, which are a percentage of staffing placements, are recognized as revenues when the underlying sales occur. Marketing fees are also determined as a percentage of staffing placements and are intended to reimburse the Company for expenses associated with marketing and advertising and other related services.

The Company receives non-refundable initial franchise fees when the franchise contract has been entered into, which are recognized as revenues as the performance obligations such as site selection and training have been substantially performed. The Company received $104,000 for initial franchise fees during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The Company also earns revenues from a franchisor-owned franchise (Overland Park). Revenues are recognized upon the completion of staffing placements for customers of Overland Park. The statement of operations and members' equity include the following amounts for the franchisor-owned franchise during the year ended December 31, 2020:

Revenues	$ 1,150,010
Expenses:
Cost of revenues	1,083,605
General and administrative expenses	201,454
Net loss	$ (135,049)

Significant judgments

Revenues from franchise fees received are recognized as performance obligations of the franchise contract are completed. Performance obligations include the Company's site selection for the new franchise and training for the franchisee, including new owners, sales, operations and back-office training. These performance obligations are usually completed within the first four months after the franchise agreement is signed.

The Company has made judgments regarding transaction price, including but not limited to site selection and training. When determined to be significant in the context of the contract, these items are considered in the valuation of transaction price at contract inception or modification, as appropriate.

Multiple performance obligations

Revenues generated by staffing placements are recognized at the time of the staffing placement. Royalty fees are a percentage of staffing placements and are recognized as revenues when the underlying sales occur. The Company receives a non-refundable franchise fee from the franchisee and recognizes the revenues at the time site selection and training for the new franchise are completed. The Company also recognizes revenue from a franchisor-owned franchise, at the time of the staffing placements.

Staffing revenues	$ 23,500,625
Franchisor-owned franchise revenues	1,150,010
Royalty fees	1,073,498

Advertising costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in general and administrative expenses. Advertising costs for the year ended December 31, 2020 were $79,751.

Recent accounting pronouncement

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases. The standard requires all leases with lease terms over 12 months to be capitalized as a right-of-use asset and lease liability on the balance sheet at the date of lease commencement. Leases will be classified as either finance or operating. This distinction will be relevant for the pattern of expense recognition in the statement of income. This standard will be effective for the year ending December 31, 2022.

Management is currently in the process of evaluating the impact of the adoption of this ASU on the financial statements.

Subsequent events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through April 14, 2021, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 7. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is party to various legal actions arising in the ordinary course of its business. In management's opinion, the Company has sufficient contract rights and/or adequate legal defenses regarding these actions and does not believe they will materially affect the Company's operations or financial position.

During the year ended December 31, 2020, there was a redemption of certain members' interests. A final redemption of the remaining units of the minority members is required within 30 days of receiving legal release from the forgivable loan (see Note 8).

During 2020, the Company adopted a provision of the Coronavirus, Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act which allowed employers the opportunity to defer payment of the employer's share of Social Security tax (6.2%) for any payroll paid between March 27, 2020 and December 31, 2020. The Company will have until December 31, 2021, to pay 50% of the deferred employer taxes, and the remaining 50% is due on December 31, 2022. There is no penalty for early repayment. The total deferred employer tax as of December 31, 2020 was $736,500 and is included in accrued expenses on the balance sheet.

On December 30, 2020, the Company entered into a financing agreement with a bank. The maximum amount to be advanced is limited to 90% of the total amount of undisputed accounts receivable. The financing agreement is secured by substantially all assets of the Company and is personally guaranteed by the two majority members. Amounts advanced bear interest at prime plus 1% with a minimum rate of 3.25% (4.25% at December 31, 2020). There was no balance due as of December 31, 2020.

On December 30, 2020, the Company signed a $500,000 promissory note agreement with a bank. The note bears interest at a rate of prime plus 4% (7.25% at December 31, 2020) and is payable in monthly installments of principal and interest, starting February 1, 2021, over a period of three years. The bank is entitled to withhold any amounts owed under the financing agreement (discussed above) against installments due under this note. The note is personally guaranteed by the two majority members. The note was funded on February 1, 2021.

Future maturities under this commitment are as follows:

Years ending December 31:
2021	$ 141,446
2022	165,377
2023	177,774
2024	15,403
	$ 500,000

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 8. Forgivable Loan

In April 2020, the Company applied for and was granted a forgivable loan of $2,720,800 from the SBA Payroll Protection Program (PPP). Under the CARES Act, subject to limitations, as defined, the loan may be partially or fully forgiven, depending on specified actual payroll and other qualified costs for the covered period following receipt of the loan. Any amount not forgiven will be payable in 17 monthly installments of principal and interest at 1% and will be unsecured. The Company has accounted for the forgivable loan as a government grant in accordance with IAS 20, as permitted by FASB ASC 105, which permits considering a nonauthoritative source when the accounting for the transaction is not specified in the FASB ASC. The Company has recognized forgiveness of debt since it expects to meet all conditions for forgiveness of the PPP loan. As such, in accordance with IAS 20, the Company has recognized $2,720,800 of the forgivable loan proceeds as other income during the year ended December 31, 2020, based on payroll and other qualified expenses.

Note 9. Risks and Uncertainties

Local, U.S., and world governments have encouraged self-isolation to curtail the spread of the global pandemic, coronavirus disease (COVID-19), by mandating temporary work stoppage in many sectors and imposing limitations on travel and size and duration of group meetings. Most industries are experiencing disruption to business operations and the impact of reduced consumer spending. There is unprecedented uncertainty surrounding the duration of the pandemic, its potential economic ramifications, and any government actions to mitigate them. Accordingly, while management cannot quantify the financial and other impact to the Company as of April 14, 2021, management believes that a material impact on the Company's financial position and results of future operations is reasonably possible.

To the Members of
Nextaff Group, LLC
Louisville, Kentucky

We have audited the financial statements of Nextaff Group, LLC (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2020, and we will issue our report thereon dated April 14, 2021. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our letter to you dated February 23, 2021. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Matters

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Company are described in Note 1 to the financial statements. As described in Note 1, the Company changed accounting policies related to revenue recognition by adopting FASB Accounting Standards Updates No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers and No. 2021-02, Franchisors—Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606): Practical Expedient, in 2020. The policies were applied using a modified retrospective method. Under this method, the new accounting standard is applied to the most recent contract period presented, recognizing the cumulative effect of the accounting as an adjustment to the beginning balance of members' equity. We noted no transactions entered into by the Company during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was:

Management's estimate of the allowance for uncollectible accounts is based on management's estimate of the potential credit losses based on its assessment of the current status of the customer accounts. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the collateral reserve in determining that it is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. The attached schedule summarizes the uncorrected misstatement of the financial statements. Management has determined that its effect is immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole. The second attached schedule summarizes the misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures that were corrected by management.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated April 14, 2021.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Company's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Company's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Matters

With respect to the supplementary information accompanying the financial statements, we made certain inquiries of management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the information is appropriate and complete in relation to our audit of the financial statements. We compared and reconciled the supplementary information to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves.

This information is intended solely for the use of Members and management of Nextaff Group, LLC and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

WHEREAS, Franchisor, as a result of the expenditure of time and funds has developed and owns a distinct system (as defined below) relating to the operation of a Nextaff Office (as defined below) that provides temporary staffing services including the identification, evaluation and acquisition of quality talent;

WHEREAS, Franchisor grants to persons who meet Franchisor’s qualifications a Franchise (as defined below) to own and operate a Nextaff Office in a geographic area utilizing Franchisor’s Licensed Marks;

WHEREAS, Franchisee acknowledges that he has conducted an independent investigation of the business contemplated by this Agreement and recognizes that, like any other business, the nature of the business conducted by Franchisee may evolve and change over time, that an investment in a Nextaff Office involves business risks and that the success of the venture is largely dependent upon Franchisee’s business abilities and efforts;

WHEREAS, Franchisee has applied for a franchise to own and operate a Nextaff Office at the premises identified in Section 2, and the application has been approved by Franchisor in reliance upon all of the representations made.

A. Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement, Franchisor grants Franchisee the right and license to own and operate a Nextaff Office (the “Franchise”) within the Territory set forth on Exhibit A. The industry vertical for the Territory and the physical location of the Nextaff Office is also set forth on Exhibit A. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, during the Term (as defined below), provided Franchisee is in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, Franchisor will not open or authorize another person to open a Nextaff Office or provide the Services or sell the Services in your industry vertical within the Territory. The initial term of this Agreement is for five (5) years, commencing on the date of this Agreement (the “Initial Term” and collectively with any Renewal Term, as provided in Section 16, the “Term”). The Franchise is specifically limited to the right to provide the Services and sell and maintain client relationships for the Services in accordance with this Agreement. Franchisor has the absolute right to determine the scope of permissible services to be offered by Franchisee as part of the Nextaff Office, and Franchisee shall not offer any services as part of the Nextaff Office that Franchisor has not approved in advance in writing.

B. Notwithstanding the above, Franchisor (on behalf of itself and its affiliates) retains the right, in its sole discretion and without granting any rights to Franchisee:

(1) To operate or to grant other persons outside your Territory the right to operate Nextaff Offices at locations and on terms and conditions as we determine within the geographic area that is included within your Territory but in other industry verticals that are not included within your Territory;

(3) To create, operate, maintain, modify or discontinue the use of websites using the Licensed Marks.

C. 3. CONVERSION OFFICE

If Franchisee is Conversion Office, then Franchisor shall reduce the initial franchise fee in Section 9A to $1. Franchisee assumes all costs, liabilities, expenses and responsibilities for converting its existing business to the Nextaff Office. Franchisor will furnish Franchisee with Specifications for the Nextaff Office, including Franchisor's recommendations for dimensions, interior design and layout of the premises. Franchisee must obtain all required permits and licenses necessary to operate the Nextaff Office in accordance with Franchisor's Specifications. Franchisee shall also establish filing and accounting control systems conforming to the requirements prescribed by Franchisor. Franchisor will provide reasonable consultation services in connection with Franchisee's conversion to the Nextaff Office. Franchisee agrees to complete the conversion to the Nextaff Office within the time period set forth in Exhibit A.

4. PHYSICAL LOCATION OF NEXTAFF OFFICE

Franchisor must approve the site Franchisee selects for any new Office. Franchisor will notify Franchisee of Franchisor's approval or disapproval within 14 days after Franchisor receives all information Franchisor requests for site approval. The Operations Manual will specify Franchisor's requirements for site approval. If Franchisee fails to select a site in accordance with Franchisor's requirements, Franchisor may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

After a site has been approved, Franchisor will furnish Franchisee with Specifications for the Nextaff Office including specific requirements for signage and decor. Franchisor will also consult and otherwise assist Franchisee in making the premises of Franchisee's site fit Franchisor's Specifications as well as conform to any local laws and regulations.

If Franchisee's lease for the premises of the Nextaff Office expires or terminates without it being Franchisee's fault, or, if in the judgment of Franchisor and Franchisee, there is a change in the character of the location of the Nextaff Office sufficiently detrimental to its business potential to warrant its relocation, Franchisor will grant permission for relocation of the Nextaff Office to a location approved by Franchisor. Any relocation shall be at Franchisee's sole expense, and Franchisee must pay Franchisor any direct costs to compensate Franchisor for services Franchisor renders to Franchisee in connection with relocation.

Franchisee must obtain Franchisor's approval before opening a new location within the Territory. If Franchisor grants permission, Franchisee must pay Franchisor any direct costs for services rendered by Franchisor in connection with the new location.

5. OPERATION OF NEXTAFF OFFICE

A. TRAINING

Before the conversion to the Nextaff Office, Franchisor will furnish, and Franchisee or a Principal who has been approved by Franchisor and any manager of the Nextaff Office who has been approved by the Franchisor must attend and successfully complete, an initial training program on the operation of the Nextaff Office. This training will be furnished at a place and time Franchisor designates. Franchisee is solely responsible for the compensation, travel, lodging and living expenses incurred in connection with attendance at training programs. If Franchisee believes Franchisor has failed to adequately provide such training and other assistance, Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within 30 days following the conversion to the Nextaff Office. Absent such timely notice, Franchisee shall be deemed to conclusively acknowledge that all such training and assistance were sufficient and satisfactory in Franchisee's judgment.

The initial training program consists of: (i) 45.80 hours of online training; (ii) 35 hours of classroom training conducted at the offices affiliated with Franchisor in Overland Park, Kansas; and (iii) 100 hours of office launch and on-the-job training conducted at Franchisee's Nextaff Office and via zoom calls and/or telephone. However, Franchisor may require Franchisee or its approved manager to continue training for up to an additional time of 10 days. The training program includes instruction relating to the operation of the Nextaff Office, including, understanding temporary, temp-to-hire and executive placement services, client service, accountability for sales and marketing, comprehensive marketing and sales programs, employee scheduling, employee recruitment and methods of controlling operating costs. Training is offered throughout the year and is scheduled depending upon the number of franchisees requesting Training. Training for Franchisee must be conducted within three months of execution of this Agreement.

Franchisor reserves the right to evaluate the abilities and qualification of Franchisee (or its representatives, as the case may be) during the initial training program. The evaluation may include a variety of tests to assess aptitude for operating a Nextaff Office. If Franchisor determines, in its sole discretion, that Franchisor's requirements are not met, Franchisor shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and refund the initial franchise fee to Franchisee.

If, during any training program, Franchisor determines that any manager is not qualified to manage the office, Franchisor will notify Franchisee, and Franchisee may select and enroll an approved substitute manager in the training program, who must attend and successfully complete the initial training program.

If, during any training program, Franchisee determines that Franchisee's experience, personal abilities and qualifications should excuse Franchisee from certain sections of training Franchisee may request in writing to do so. If Franchisor determines, in our sole discretion, that Franchisee does meet Franchisor's qualifications, Franchisor may grant that waiver.

After the conversion to the Nextaff Office, Franchisor shall provide training (subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by Franchisor as to frequency and time) to any new approved manager of the office. Franchisor has the right to assess reasonable charges for the training. Franchisor has the right to require that Franchisee (or the managing partner, shareholder or managing member) and any manager(s) and assistant manager(s) attend supplemental and refresher training programs during the term of the Franchise Agreement, to be furnished at a time and place Franchisor designates.

B. FIELD EMPLOYEES AND INTERNAL EMPLOYEES

During the term of this Agreement, Franchisor authorizes Franchisee to act as Franchisor's agent for purposes of recruiting, screening, selecting, marketing, training, assigning and deploying the temporary placed individuals ("Field Employees") who will perform the Services for clients of the Nextaff Office. Franchisee shall direct the temporary assignment of Field Employees to each client or job site.

Franchisor shall be the sole employer for all Field Employees. Franchisee shall require that each Field Employee complete all employment documents required by Franchisor prior to beginning work at any client location. In accordance with this Agreement, Franchisor shall pay all wages to all Field Employees and shall issue a form W-2 to each Field Employee for the wages paid to such Field Employee during each calendar year (or part hereof). With respect to Field Employees, Franchisor will be responsible for all employment-related administration, reporting and regulatory compliance, and will respond to employment-related claims, including workers' compensation and unemployment compensation claims and will file new hire reports, manage garnishment deductions and payments, and administer any health or insurance benefit programs offered through or sponsored by Franchisor for Field Employees. After consultation with Franchisee, Franchisor shall have the right to terminate any Associate.

Franchisee will require each Field Employee to comply with Franchisor's employment policies and standards set forth in Franchisor's then-current Field Employee Handbook. Franchisor authorizes Franchisee to review, complete and maintain all required employment documents (i.e., form W-4, application, and form I-9) on Franchisor's behalf and subject to the terms of this Agreement: (i) determine hourly wages for each Field Employee in accordance with applicable law and market demands (no lower than the state and federal minimum hourly wages); (ii) communicate terms of employment; (iii) collect and maintain all new hire paperwork; and (iv) determine client assignments for Field Employee. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement, Franchisee shall have no other authority or right to act as the agent of Franchisor.

Franchisee shall employ all full and part-time internal staff individuals (the "Internal Employees") that Franchisee deems necessary to administer the Services being provided by the Field Employees and shall maintain a staff of Internal Employees sufficient to operate the Nextaff Office in accordance with Franchisor's standards. Franchisee is solely responsible for setting compensation and securing insurance for Internal Employees, and, except for training Franchisor provided under this Agreement, for the training, supervision, conduct and actions of each Internal Employee. Franchisee shall ensure that each Internal Employee: (i) is familiar with the relationship between Franchisor and Franchisee set forth in this Agreement; (ii) is familiar with the employment-related laws and regulations that relate to their job responsibilities in the state(s) where the Nextaff Office is being operated; (iii) understands the basic operation of the Franchise Business and Franchisor's standards, policies, procedures and requirements as they pertain to the Internal Employee's job duties and responsibilities including any work related accident, illness or injury, any unemployment claim or garnishment notice or any other official or legal communication pertaining to Field Employees. Franchisor has no obligation under this Agreement with regard to any Internal Employee's day-to-day job performance. Franchisee shall require all Internal Employees to sign an acknowledgement stating they are aware they are employed by the Franchisee and not the Franchisor.

Franchisee shall pay all wages, taxes, workers compensation and any other insurance, and any other expenses for Internal Employees. Franchisee may request Franchisor's assistance to coordinate and/or arrange for payroll processing for the Internal Employees by a third-party vendor, but Franchisor will not be an employer for any Internal Employee and will have no employer responsibility or liability with respect to Internal Employees.

Franchisee shall provide prompt written notice to Franchisor of the termination of any Internal Employee who has access to confidential accounts or password-protected areas and shall hold Franchisor harmless from all liability whatsoever for any loss or damages, including any loss of data or any security or confidentiality breach, caused by a current or former Internal Employee using access or accounts established by or for Franchisee or at Franchisee's request.

Franchisee shall, and shall cause all of its Internal Employees to, do all of the following:

- (i) Follow the employment practices contained in the Operations Manual and in this Agreement as they apply to Field Employees, Internal Employees, and the Nextaff Office;

- (ii) Directly control (as Franchisor's agent) the selection and hiring of all Field Employees, including a one-on-one, pre-hire interview with each Associate, and not delegate or assign this responsibility to any client, customer, contractor or other person or entity;
- (iii) Comply with all applicable local, state, and federal laws and regulations, including the Immigration Reform and Control Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, EEOC guidelines, state and federal Wage and Hour laws;
- (iv) Develop, maintain and produce upon request basic job descriptions for all client positions in which Field Employees are working;
- (v) Use, in the hiring and management of the Field Employees, only those forms, manuals, policy statements, performance appraisals, disciplinary forms, personnel reports and agreements that Franchisor has either provided to Franchisee or specifically approved in advance; and
- (vi) Maintain complete and accurate records, including physical personnel files on each Associate.
- (vii) Sign an acknowledgement that states they are employees of the Franchisee and not the Franchisor.

Unless Franchisee otherwise notifies Franchisor in writing, Franchisor has the right to rely and to act on all service requests, direction and information provided by Franchisee or any Internal Employee, or other employees or designated contractors acting on Franchisee's behalf, regarding Services, payment and billing information, hours worked and any other matter relating to this Agreement or the operation of the Nextstaff Office.

C. INITIAL ASSISTANCE AND DATA CONVERSION

For Conversion Franchisees, franchisor shall provide Franchisee with the services of one employee of Franchisor for 32 hours for supervisory guidance in connection with the initial operation of the Nextstaff Office. Franchisor has the right to determine the time or times at which the employee is available to Franchisee.

As part of the initial setup of the Nextstaff Office, Franchisor will convert basic employee and client records from Franchisee's existing database to Franchisor's information systems. The employee records converted by Franchisor will include current employee names, contact information (address, phone, e-mail), employee tax filing status and tax exemptions, employee status code, hire date and a single field containing employee notes. The client records converted by Franchisor will include name, contact information, billing and worksite addresses and the name and telephone number for at least one individual representative of each client. Franchisor will not convert historic detail on paychecks and invoices created in another computer application or system. At least eight (8) weeks in advance of the time for completion of conversion set forth on Exhibit A, Franchisee will provide Franchisor with all data to be converted in a compatible, electronic format (Excel, txt, csv, etc.) with clear labeling of all fields. If Franchisee requests additional data or information be converted, or fails to provide electronic data in a timely manner, Franchisee may charge Franchisee an additional fee for such additional services provided or costs incurred.

D. OPERATING ASSISTANCE

Franchisor may advise Franchisee of operating problems of the Nextaff Office disclosed by reports submitted to, or inspections made by, Franchisor. Franchisor will furnish Franchisee assistance in the operation of the Nextaff Office, as it deems appropriate, which may consist of:

- (1) Operating procedures;
- (2) Additional services that are designated by Franchisor as Services authorized for sale by Franchisee;
- (3) Marketing materials and advertising research data;
- (4) Employee relations;
- (5) Marketing assistance and sales promotion programs; and
- (6) Administrative, bookkeeping, accounting, marketing/sales and general operating procedures.

E. FIELD EMPLOYEE PAYROLL PROCESSING

Franchisee must enter its payroll data, including its Field Employees pay rate and hours of employment, on a weekly basis into Franchisor's web-based software or through a designated payroll service provider selected by Franchisor in its sole discretion. Franchisee shall comply with all the requirements for such payroll data in the Operations Manual, as defined below in Section 5H. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor will rely on the data Franchisee enters into the payroll system and by entering such data into the payroll system, Franchisee is representing that: (1) it has reviewed and approved the payroll information entered; (2) the information is accurate; and (3) such information, as well as the status of each Field Employee as either exempt or non-exempt and as either a W-2 employee or an independent contractor, complies with the requirements of Internal Revenue Service and all applicable laws. After Franchisee submits the payroll data for Field Employees placed by Franchisee, Franchisor will provide processing and payment of the following items for each Associate:

- (1) all wages including all direct deposit payroll checks and paycards;
- (2) all local, state and federal income and employment taxes;
- (3) all state and federal unemployment insurance and unemployment claims;

F. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

For purposes of this Agreement, "Accounts Receivable" means any obligation on the part of any client, or other individual or organization, to pay or compensate in any way, which arises from any staffing service provided by a Field Employee deployed by Franchisee or from any related product or service. All Accounts Receivable are from their inception, and will remain, the sole and exclusive property of Franchisor, and Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor owns the entire interest in all Accounts Receivable. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it never had, and does not now or in the future have, any right, title, interest in or claim to any Accounts Receivable. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor has entered or will enter financing arrangements with third party lenders pursuant to which it will, among other things, grant to such lenders a security interest and lien upon the Accounts Receivable to secure Franchisor's obligations to such lenders. In addition to this Agreement, as part of Franchisor's financing arrangements with its lenders, Franchisee may be required to sign a Security Agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit D. To induce such lenders to extend financing to Franchisor, Franchisee shall not make any claim against any such lender or its interest in the Accounts Receivable. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing and to further evidence the intention of the parties hereto, Franchisee hereby sells, assigns and transfers to Franchisor all of Franchisee's right, title and interest in and to any accounts and all proceeds thereof in respect of goods or services provided to clients of Franchisee which, notwithstanding the terms and conditions of this Agreement, may be determined to be Franchisee's property or in which Franchisee is determined to have an interest. To the extent that any determination is made by any court or other party that Franchisee has an ownership interest of any kind in any Accounts Receivable, as additional security for all obligations that Franchisee owes to Franchisor, Franchisee hereby grants Franchisor a first priority security interest in (i) the Accounts Receivable, whether now-existing or arising hereafter, whether in the nature of accounts for services or otherwise, (ii) any checks, instruments, cash or other amounts received as payments under or in connection with the Accounts Receivable, and (iii) all proceeds thereof.

Franchisee will send invoices to each client receiving Services from the Nextstaff Office which will direct the client to pay the amount of each invoice directly to Franchisor. All invoices to clients must be prepared on forms approved by Franchisor through Franchisor's web-based software or Franchisor's designated vendor. Franchisee will deliver all invoices to clients on a timely basis. After Franchisor collects payments on these invoices, Franchisor will retain the amount necessary to reimburse Franchisor for all Direct Payroll Costs incurred and for any other fees, charges or set offs set forth in Section 9 of this Agreement, and Franchisor will retain the Royalty Fees. Franchisor will then remit the balance to Franchisee.

Franchisee shall gather the information required by Franchisor for all new Services clients, worksites and jobs to which Field Employees may be assigned and shall physically visit and inspect each client worksite at or before the time any Field Employee begins performing job duties at the worksite and identify any risks present in the workplace or associated with such client or worksite, except for work comp class code 8810. As a condition precedent to Franchisor's obligation to pay Franchisee as provided in the preceding paragraph, Franchisee must provide Franchisor with the information it requires with respect to the client's legal name, client's employer identification number (EIN), type of business, job duties and descriptions, safety and worksite hazards and appropriate documentation of the terms and conditions under which the Services are being performed. Franchisee shall obtain Franchisor's consent before providing any Services to (i) any party affiliated with Franchisee or (ii) any party which Franchisee has any reason to believe is financially insolvent or employing any illegal, unsafe or unethical business practices. Franchisee shall retain all client and worksite documentation for at least one year after the last payroll is completed to any Field Employee assigned to that client and shall make all such documentation available to Franchisor upon request. Franchisee shall indemnify Franchisor from all liabilities from claims that arise as a result of false, misleading or incomplete client information provided to Franchisor by Franchisee.

If Franchisee receives a payment from any client directly, Franchisee will promptly forward such payment directly to Franchisor for processing as provided in this Agreement. If Franchisee fails to promptly forward such payment or takes any action with respect to such payment (such as depositing the payment or using the proceeds), Franchisor has the right to assess a 10% non-compliance processing surcharge to Franchisee for failing to forward such payment directly to Franchisor.

Franchisor is permitted to limit or decline credit to clients that Franchisor determines have credit risks that are unacceptable to Franchisor.

G. FRANCHISOR INSURANCE PROGRAMS

Since Franchisor is the employer of the Field Employees, Franchisor will maintain, administer and pay for workers' compensation insurance. In addition, to the extent other employer insurance (including employment practices liability insurance) covers Franchisee actions when acting as Franchisor's agent under this Agreement is available to Franchisor and such coverage is practical and cost effective, Franchisor will maintain such insurance. Franchisor will provide safety, risk management, and loss control programs and systems, along with manuals, forms and instructions for use in the Nextaff Office. Franchisor will select all insurance carriers and related service providers and will be responsible for administering workers' compensation, unemployment and other employment claims relating to Field Employees. Franchisee acknowledges that there may be a deductible associated with claims made under any insurance policy, and Franchisee shall pay or fund the cost of any applicable deductible for each claim under such policy made by Franchisee.

(1) Risk Management Program. As a condition precedent to Franchisor's obligations and commitments to provide the insurance programs set forth in this Agreement, Franchisee must cooperate and participate in Franchisor's Risk Management Program ("RMP") which includes training, consultation, client underwriting requirements, safety requirements, post-accident procedures and a return-to-work program. Franchisee shall complete an initial evaluation and training session within ninety (90) days after the conversion date. Thereafter, Franchisor shall have the right to conduct periodic site evaluations, consultations and procedural reviews. In accordance with the RMP, Franchisee shall determine the basic ability, competence, qualifications and appropriateness of each Field Employee for each client, worksite and job position. If Franchisee fails to participate, Franchisor may charge Franchisee any direct costs associated with the non-compliance which could include but is not limited to modified duty wages.

(2) Return-to-Work Program. Franchisee shall support and participate in Franchisor's Return to Work Program which is designed to re-activate ill or injured claimants and find and coordinate restricted duty assignments for such claimants. If Franchisee fails to cooperate in the Return-to-Work Program by finding suitable work assignments for claimants who have been released for restricted work duty, Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to pay wages to such claimants and charge Franchisee for all Direct Payroll Costs related to such claimants.

(3) Work Comp Claims Costs Sharing. During the term of the Agreement, Franchisor may charge Franchisee for a portion of all Workers' Compensation claims costs actually paid by Franchisor or its insurers in relation to any injury to, or illness of, any Field Employee (the "Claims Costs"). If Franchisor charges Franchisee, Franchisee is responsible for the actual amount paid by Franchisor on all claims up to the then current deductible. Detail (treatment, provider, etc.) on the specific claim expense(s) will be available to Franchisee upon request. When a work-related accident or illness is reported to Franchisor more than 24 hours after it is first reported to Franchisee, Franchisee's share of the cost of any resulting claim(s) shall be 1.5 times the amount that would otherwise be Franchisee's maximum share.

(4) Work Comp Classification.

(a) Determining Class Code. All wages paid to Field Employees shall have a Workers' Compensation classification (a "Class") associated with them. In every case, the Class will be assigned in accordance with the Scopes Manual and Classification Guidelines published by the National Council on Compensation Insurance (the "NCCI") or the equivalent state-published guidelines where NCCI classifications do not apply. Any dispute over a Class shall be resolved by a classification specialist at the NCCI or the governing state agency. Franchisee is responsible for understanding the nature and general business function of each job position and each client and/or worksite where Field Employees are assigned and shall provide to Franchisor all information necessary to properly identify the appropriate Class. Such information shall be communicated in writing, or by means and on forms provided by Franchisor. By providing client and/or worksite information, Franchisee is representing that such information is complete and accurate to the best knowledge of Franchisee.

(b) Misclassification. If Franchisee intentionally misclassifies a client or worksite or provides false or incomplete information to Franchisor as the basis for payroll classification or client activation, such action is a material breach of this Agreement. In addition, if Franchisor misclassifies payroll based on erroneous or incomplete client, worksite or job information provided by Franchisee, Franchisee shall be responsible for any additional Workers' Compensation expense which may have accrued on payroll previously issued on the incorrect Class code, plus a penalty equal to 100% of the difference between the Workers' compensation expense accrued and the expense that would have been accrued under the correct classification.

(5) Workers' Comp Expenses.

(a) Initial Determination. In states with competitive pricing of Workers' Compensation insurance, the allocation for Workers' Compensation expense that is included in calculations of Direct Payroll Costs shall be based upon loss costs by class code in effect as of the date of this Agreement unless otherwise specified in writing ("Loss Costs") as published by NCCI, or by the responsible state rating bureau in states for which NCCI does not publish loss costs. In states that administer Workers' Compensation rates, Workers' Compensation premiums will be based upon the state-published rates by class code.

(b) Subsequent Years. After 15 months of operation under the Agreement, measured from the date of the first payroll made to Field Employees under this Agreement, if the annualized allocation for Workers' Compensation expense included in Direct Payroll Costs of Field Employees for the Nextaff Office meets minimum volume requirements, new multipliers will be calculated based upon the then-current published Loss Costs and actual Workers' Compensation losses associated with the Nextaff Office. Multipliers will be established in accordance with Franchisor's standard methods and calculations and the data supporting those multipliers will be provided to Franchisee. Each multiplier established shall remain in effect for at least one year, subject to subparagraph (d) below. Franchisee acknowledges that the purpose for the rate multiplier is to allocate the costs of Workers' Compensation insurance to the Nextaff Office based on the actual claims and loss experience related to the clients and Field Employees of the Nextaff Office.

(c) Multiplier Changes. Loss Cost multipliers or rate multipliers are established to ensure that all projected Loss Costs are adequately funded. When new multipliers are calculated, the published Loss Costs or manual rates in effect at that time will be used to determine the allocation of Workers' Compensation costs. If published Loss Costs or manual rates should change after Franchisee's multipliers have been calculated, Franchisee's multiplier and rates will not be affected and will not change until the next annual calculation scheduled under this Agreement.

(d) Basis for Expenses. Workers' Compensation expenses will be established for payroll associated with the Nextaff Office based on information Franchisee provides for historic Workers' Compensation losses, payroll states and classifications for payroll previously incurred or projected by Franchisee and projected by Franchisor. If any of that information should change materially, including effective average risk levels (mix of business defined as total premiums divided by total subject payroll), or if actual exposures vary substantially from projections, Franchisor shall have the right in its sole discretion to change Workers' Compensation rates upon thirty (30) days' advance notice to Franchisee.

H. OPERATIONS MANUAL

Franchisor provides to Franchisee, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, access to its electronic operations manual, which may consist of one or more handbooks or manuals, and other written materials (collectively, the "Operations Manual") for the operation of Nextaff Offices, containing mandatory and suggested Specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by Franchisor and information relative to other obligations of Franchisee. Franchisor has the right to add to, and otherwise modify, the Operations Manual to reflect changes in the scope of permissible Services to be offered or sold by Franchisee, and other Specifications, standards and operating procedures of a Nextaff Office, provided that no addition or modification alters Franchisee's fundamental status and rights. Franchisee must keep his copy of the Operations Manual current, and the master copy of the Operations Manual maintained by Franchisor at its principal office controls if there is a dispute relative to the contents of the Operations Manual.

6. LICENSED MARKS

A. OWNERSHIP AND GOODWILL OF LICENSED MARKS

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee has no interest whatsoever in or to the Licensed Marks and that Franchisee's right to use the Licensed Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to Franchisee's operation of the Nextaff Office in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable Specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by Franchisor during the term of the Franchise. Any unauthorized use of the Licensed Marks by Franchisee constitutes an infringement of the rights of Franchisor and its licensor in and to the Licensed Marks.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that usage of the Licensed Marks and any goodwill associated with the Licensed Marks exclusively benefits Franchisor and its licensor, and that this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Licensed Marks upon Franchisee. Franchisee must not, at any time during the term of this Agreement or after its termination or expiration, contest the validity or ownership of any of the Licensed Marks or assist any other person in contesting the validity or ownership of any of the Licensed Marks.

All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Licensed Marks apply to any additional trademarks, service marks, logo forms and commercial symbols authorized by Franchisor for use by Franchisee and licensed to Franchisee.

B. LIMITATIONS ON FRANCHISEE'S USE OF LICENSED MARKS

Franchisee agrees to use the Licensed Marks as the sole identification of the Nextaff Office, but Franchisee must identify himself as the independent owner in the manner prescribed by Franchisor. Franchisee must not use any Licensed Mark as part of any corporate or trade name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols, or in any modified form, nor may Franchisee use any Licensed Mark in the sale of any unauthorized product or service or in any other manner not expressly authorized in writing by Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to display the Licensed Marks prominently and, in the manner, prescribed by Franchisor on signs, forms and any other indicia of the operation of the Office. Further, Franchisee agrees to give notices of trademark and service mark registrations and copyrights as Franchisor specifies and to obtain fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law.

C. RESTRICTIONS ON INTERNET AND WEBSITE USE

Franchisor retains the sole right to advertise the System on the Internet and to create, operate, maintain, modify, or discontinue the use of, a website using the Licensed Marks. Franchisee shall not, without Franchisor's written approval: (a) link or frame Franchisor's web site; (b) conduct any business of the Franchise or offer to sell or advertise any of the Services on the worldwide web; or (c) create or register any Internet domain name in connection with the Franchise.

Franchisor has registered the domain name "nextaff.com." Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor is the lawful and sole owner of the domain name "nextaff.com" which domain name incorporates Franchisor's trademark NEXTAFF®. Franchisee agrees not to register the trademark NEXTAFF® or any of the Licensed Marks now or hereafter owned by Franchisor or any abbreviation, acronym or variation of the Licensed Marks, or any other name that could be deemed confusingly similar, as Internet domain names, including, but not limited to, generic and country code top level domain names available at the present time or in the future.

D. NOTIFICATION OF INFRINGEMENTS AND CLAIMS

Franchisee must notify Franchisor immediately in writing of any apparent infringement of, or challenge to, Franchisee's use of any Licensed Mark, or claim by any person of any rights in any Licensed Mark or any similar trade name, trademark or service mark of which Franchisee becomes aware. Franchisee must not communicate with any person other than Franchisor and its counsel regarding any infringement, challenge or claim. Franchisor and/or its licensor has sole discretion to take any action it deems appropriate and the right to exclusively control any litigation, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or other administrative proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any Licensed Mark. Franchisee agrees to execute all documents, render assistance and do all acts and things as may, in the opinion of Franchisor's counsel, be advisable to protect and maintain the interests of Franchisor and/or its licensor in any litigation, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or other administrative proceeding or to otherwise protect and maintain the interests of Franchisor and/or its licensor in the Licensed Marks.

E. INDEMNIFICATION OF FRANCHISEE/DISCONTINUANCE OF USE OF LICENSED MARKS

Franchisor agrees to indemnify Franchisee against, and to reimburse Franchisee for, all damages for which he is held liable in any proceeding in which Franchisee's use of any Licensed Mark is held to constitute trademark infringement, unfair competition, or dilution, and for all costs reasonably incurred by Franchisee in the defense of any claim brought against him or in any proceeding in which he is named as a party, if Franchisee has timely notified Franchisor of the claim or proceeding and has otherwise complied with this Agreement and that Franchisor has the right to defend any claim. If Franchisor defends the claim, Franchisor has no obligation to indemnify or reimburse Franchisee with respect to any fees or disbursements of any attorney retained by Franchisee.

If it becomes advisable at any time, in Franchisor's sole discretion, for Franchisor and/or Franchisee to modify or discontinue use of any Licensed Mark, and/or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, Franchisee agrees to comply within a reasonable time after notice by Franchisor, and the sole liability and obligation of Franchisor in any event shall be to reimburse Franchisee for the out-of-pocket costs of complying with this obligation.

7. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Franchisor possesses certain confidential information consisting of the methods, techniques, formats, Specifications, procedures, information, systems and knowledge of and experience in the operation and franchising of Nextaff Offices (the "Confidential Information"). Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the information Franchisee now has or obtains in the future concerning the System and the concepts and methods of promotion and operation of the Nextaff Office are derived from Franchisor pursuant to this Agreement and that such Confidential Information may constitute a Trade Secret of Franchisor. For purposes of this Agreement, "Trade Secrets" shall mean information or data about Franchisor or about the operation of the Nextaff Office or about any of its services or products, including, but not limited to, technical or non-technical data, methods, techniques, processes, financial data, financial plans, marketing plans, services and promotional plans, lists of vendors and approved vendors, customer lists, customer contracts, that (a) derive economic value, actual or potential, from not generally being known to or generally ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can obtain economic value from their disclosure or use; and (b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. Franchisor discloses the Confidential Information and Trade Secrets to Franchisee in furnishing Franchisee the training program, the Operations Manual and the guidance furnished to Franchisee in the operation of the Nextaff Office during the term of this agreement. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it and its Principals do not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, other than the right to utilize them in the operation of the Nextaff Office during the term of the Franchise and that the use or duplication of the Confidential Information or Trade Secrets in any other business constitutes an unfair method of competition. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Confidential Information and the Trade Secrets are proprietary to Franchisor and are disclosed to Franchisee solely on the condition that Franchisee agrees and Franchisee does agree that it and its Principals:

- (1) will not ever use the Confidential Information or Trade Secrets in any other business capacity;
- (2) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information and Trade Secrets during and after the term of the Franchise;
- (3) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information or Trade Secrets disclosed in written form;
- (4) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures prescribed by Franchisor to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, including restrictions on disclosure to others. Franchisor discloses the Confidential Information to Franchisee in furnishing Franchisee the training program, the Operations Manual and in guidance furnished to Franchisee during the term of the Franchise.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee does not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in the development and operation of the Nextaff Office during the term of the Franchise Agreement, and that the use or duplication of the Confidential Information in any other business constitutes an unfair method of competition. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Confidential Information is proprietary and is a Trade Secret of Franchisor and is disclosed to Franchisee solely on the condition that Franchisee agrees, and Franchisee does hereby agree, that Franchisee:

- (5) will not use the Confidential Information in any other business or capacity;
- (6) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information during and after the term of the Franchise;
- (7) will not make any unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written form;
- (8) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures prescribed by Franchisor to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information, including restrictions on disclosure to employees of the Nextaff Office and the use of nondisclosure and noncompetition clauses in employment agreements; and
- (9) will sign the Confidentiality Agreement set forth in Exhibit B or such other form as Franchisor may require and will require all Principals, managers, assistant managers and employees who have access to the Confidential Information to sign such agreement.

If Franchisee obtains Franchisor's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, the restrictions on Franchisee's disclosure and use of the Confidential Information shall not apply to (a) information, processes or techniques which are or become generally known in the professional hiring industry, other than through disclosure (whether deliberate or inadvertent) by Franchisee; or (b) disclosure of Confidential Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent Franchisee is legally compelled to disclose information, provided Franchisee uses its best efforts, and affords Franchisor the opportunity, to obtain an appropriate protective order or other insurance satisfactory to Franchisor of confidential treatment for the information required to be so disclosed.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor would be unable to protect its Trade Secrets against unauthorized use or disclosure and would be unable to encourage a free exchange of ideas and information among Nextaff Offices if Franchise owners of Nextaff Offices were permitted to hold interests in any other similar businesses providing or selling the Services. Therefore, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, neither Franchisee, any shareholder, partner, or member (if Franchisee is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company), nor any member of his or their immediate families may have any interest as an owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any other similar office providing or selling any Services offered by a Nextaff Office, except for a Nextaff Office operated under franchise agreements granted by Franchisor and the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent one percent or less of that class of securities. For purposes of this Agreement, immediate family means spouse and children.

Franchisee agrees that Franchisor has the perpetual right to use and authorize other Nextaff Offices to use, and Franchisee must fully and promptly disclose to Franchisor, all ideas, concepts, methods and techniques relating to the development and/or operation of a Nextaff Office conceived or developed by Franchisee and/or its employees during the term of this Agreement.

8. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES/INDEMNIFICATION

It is understood and agreed by the parties that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, that Franchisor and Franchisee are independent contractors and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either party a general or special agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venture, partner, employee or servant of the other for any purpose.

Franchisee must conspicuously identify himself at the premises of the Nextaff Office and in all dealings with clients, lessors, contractors, vendors, public officials and others as the owner of the Nextaff Office under a Franchise Agreement with Franchisor and must place other notices of independent ownership on signs, forms, stationery, advertising and other materials as Franchisor requires.

Franchisor has not authorized or empowered Franchisee to use the Licensed Marks except as provided by this Agreement, and Franchisee must not employ any Licensed Mark in signing any contract, lease, mortgage, check, purchase agreement, negotiable instrument or other legal obligation without the prior written consent of Franchisor or employ any Licensed Mark in a manner that is likely to result in liability of Franchisor for Franchisee's indebtedness or obligations.

Neither Franchisor nor Franchisee shall make any express or implied agreements, guaranties or representations, or incur any debt, in the name of or on behalf of the other or represent that their relationship is other than franchisor and franchisee, and neither Franchisor nor Franchisee is obligated by or has any liability under any agreements or representations made by the other that are not expressly authorized, nor is Franchisor obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of the operation of the Nextaff Office, whether or not caused by Franchisee's negligent or willful action or failure to act.

Franchisee agrees to indemnify and hold Franchisor and its subsidiaries, affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents and assignees harmless from and against, and to reimburse them for, any loss, liability, claims, taxes or damages (actual or consequential) and all reasonable costs and expenses of defending any claim brought against any of them or any action in which any of them is named as a party (including reasonable accountants', attorneys' and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses) which any of them may suffer, sustain or incur by reason of, arising from or in connection with, Franchisee's ownership or operation of the Office, unless the loss, liability or damage is solely due to the negligence of Franchisor.

Each party shall hold harmless and indemnify the other party from and against any and all liabilities, claims, losses, costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, fines and penalties) which the other party may incur or become liable for as a result of any acts, errors, omissions or negligence of the indemnifying party, including any violation of federal, state and local laws, regulations, ordinances or rules including, without limitation, the following:

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; The Civil Rights Act of 1991; The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; The Rehabilitation Act of 1973; The National Labor Relations Act; The Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938; The Americans with Disabilities Act; The Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; The Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974; The Veterans Reemployment Rights Act of 1970; The Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970; Workers Adjustment Retraining and Notification Act; The Equal Pay Act of 1963; Older Workers Benefit

Protection Act; Executive Order 11246; 42 U.S.C. Sections 1881, 1982, 1983, 1985, 1987 and 1988; Illinois Human Rights Act; Alabama Code Section 25-5-11; and any other state or federal statute, executive order, regulation, ordinance, or provision of the United States Constitution, regulating or applying to employment or equal employment opportunity.

The indemnities and assumptions of the liabilities and the obligations continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

9. FRANCHISE FEES; COLLATERAL RESERVE; GUARANTY

A. INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE

Franchisee must pay Franchisor an initial franchise fee equal to $49,000 upon the execution of this Agreement, provided that Franchisor shall reduce the initial franchise fee under the following circumstances:

- (1) If Franchisee has been an employee of a NEXTAFF Office for a minimum of 24 months immediately before signing this Agreement, the initial franchise fee is $24,500;
- (2) If a franchisee is a veteran of the United States Armed Forces, the initial franchise fee $39,200;
- (3) If Franchisee is purchasing more than one Franchised Business or has more than one Territory, Franchisor may reduce the initial franchise fee for each additional location or territory; and
- (4) If the Nextaff Office qualifies as a Conversion Office, the initial franchise fee is $1.

The initial franchise fee must be paid at the time the Franchise Agreement is signed and is fully earned by Franchisor upon execution of this Agreement and is nonrefundable.

B. LAUNCH FEE

Franchisee must pay Franchisor a launch fee in the amount of $13,367. The following items are included in the Launch Fee: a) 12 weeks of direct mailer materials and appointment setting calls to 120 prospects; b) the internal Nextaff sign; c) Nextaff marketing and promotional giveaways; d) your initial press release; e) your initial search engine optimization (SEO) package and f) your first year of bookkeeping services. Nextaff has a specific marketing plan for opening an office that NEXTAFF will coordinate and implement. The launch fee must be paid at the time the Franchise Agreement is signed and is fully earned by Franchisor upon execution of this Agreement and is nonrefundable.

C. ROYALTY FEES

Franchisor shall retain, on a weekly basis, a non-refundable royalty fee (the "Royalty Fee") equal to the sum of the Gross Wages, Buyout Payments and Direct Hire Payments (all as defined below) multiplied by a percentage set forth in the following table where the percentage is determined based on the Gross Wages paid to the Field Employees of the Franchisee during the preceding calendar year:

PRECEDING 12 MONTHS' GROSS WAGES	ROYALTY FEE
$0 to $1million -	8.00%
$1m to $2m -	7.75%
$2m to $3m -	7.50%
$3m to $4m -	7.25%
$4m to $5m -	7.00%
$5m to $6m -	6.75%
$6m to $7m -	6.50%
$7m to $8m -	6.25%
more than $8m-	6.00%

The percentage of Gross Wages paid as a Royalty Fee shall be adjusted on January 1st based on the Gross Wages during the preceding calendar year, provided however, that once Franchisee achieves a certain level of Gross Wages that corresponds to a particular percentage in the table above during any particular year, the percentage paid as a Royalty Fee will not increase in subsequent years due to lower levels of Gross Wages in any of those subsequent years.

As described in Section 5, clients of Franchisee will make payments on invoices for all Services provided by Franchisee directly to Franchisor. Franchisor will use the Gross Revenue collected by Franchisor from Franchisee's clients' payments to (i) pay Direct Payroll Costs (as defined in Section 1); (ii) fund the Collateral Reserve (as defined below in Section 9.H.), (iii) satisfy any Weekly Finance Charges (as defined below in Section 9.G.), (iv) contribute any amounts due to the Marketing Fund as set forth in Section 11, paragraph A, (v) reimburse Franchisor for any costs incurred for the pre-employment assessment profiles for Field Employees and (vi) fund the payment of all Royalty Fees due Franchisor. Franchisor will then remit the balance to Franchisee after the amounts above have been subtracted from Gross Revenue collected by Franchisor. The Royalty Fee is waived for the first six months from the date of the Franchise Agreement. Beginning with the seventh month from the date of the Franchise Agreement, the Royalty Fee is due on Friday of each week for the Gross Wages for the previous week.

D. TECHNOLOGY FEES

Franchisee must pay monthly technology fees as follows: (i) $156.00 per month per user, plus $5.99 per month per active field employee on assignment for Avionte; (ii) $28 per month per user for Microsoft E3 users; (iv) $125 per month per office for LIGHTCAST software. The fees will be billed to Franchisee by Franchisor. Franchisor will remit the fees to the software service provider on Franchisee's behalf. Franchisor reserves the right to pass along the costs of any price increases received by these vendors.

E. REIMBURSEMENT FOR APPOINTMENT PROVIDER COSTS

If Franchisee is not meeting the minimum performance standards and specifications and does not have a sales development representative or dedicated appointment setting vendor in place, Franchisor may require Franchisee to use one of Franchisor's appointment setting service providers and pay the costs associated with Franchisee's use of such service provider.

F. ONLINE RECRUITING SOFTWARE OR JOB BOARD USER FEES

Franchisor reserves the right to charge Franchisee a fee for online recruiting software or job board user fees, based on user fees charged by the service provider.

G. FRANCHISEE GUARANTY

Franchisee hereby guarantees the collection of the Accounts Receivable generated from the Nextaff Office including, without limitation, all charges for Services (the “Franchisee Guaranty”). If an invoice remains outstanding for 90 days or more after the original invoice date, Franchisor shall have the right to charge Franchisee for the entire amount of the Direct Payroll Costs incurred by Franchisor related to the outstanding invoice. Franchisee agrees that this guaranty is a guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection, and that its obligations under this guaranty shall be primary, absolute and unconditional, irrespective of, and unaffected by:

- (1) the genuineness, validity, regularity, enforceability or any future amendment of, or change in this Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument to which Franchisee or any client of Franchisee is or may become a party;
- (2) the absence of any action to enforce this Agreement or the waiver or consent by Franchisor with respect to any of the provisions thereof;
- (3) the existence, value or condition of, or failure to perfect Franchisor’s lien against any collateral for this Agreement or any Accounts Receivable or any action, or the absence of any action, by Franchisor in respect thereof (including, without limitation, the release of any such security); or
- (4) the insolvency of any client of Franchisee; or
- (5) any other action or circumstances which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor.

In addition to the foregoing waivers contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 9.G., Franchisee waives and agrees that it shall not at any time insist upon, plead or in any manner whatever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any appraisal, valuation, stay, extension, marshaling of assets or redemption laws, or exemption, whether now or at any time hereafter in force, which may delay, prevent or otherwise affect the performance by Franchisee of its obligations under, or the enforcement by Franchisor of, this Agreement. Franchisee hereby waives diligence, presentment and demand (whether for non-payment or protest or of acceptance, maturity, extension of time, change in nature or form of the obligations hereunder, acceptance of further security, release of further security, composition or agreement arrived at as to the amount of, or the terms of, the Accounts Receivable, notice of adverse change in the financial condition of any client of Franchisee or any other fact which might increase the risk to Franchisee) with respect to any of the Accounts Receivable or all other demands whatsoever and waives the benefit of all provisions of law which are or might be in conflict with the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee represents that, as of the date of this Agreement, its obligations under this Agreement are not subject to any counterclaims, offsets or defenses against Franchisor.

Franchisee hereby acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may at any time or from time to time, with or without the consent of, or notice to, Franchisee:

- (6) change or extend the manner, place or terms of payment of, or renew or alter all or any portion of, the Accounts Receivable;
- (7) take any action under or in respect of the Accounts Receivable in the exercise of any remedy, power or privilege relating thereto or available to it at law, equity or otherwise, or waive or refrain from exercising any such remedies, powers or privileges;

(8) amend or modify, in any manner whatsoever, any document evidencing or relating to any Account Receivable;

(9) extend or waive the time for any client of Franchisee in connection with its performance of, or compliance with, any term, covenant or agreement on its part to be performed or observed under any document evidencing or relating to any Account Receivable, or waive such performance or compliance or consent to a failure of, or departure from, such performance or compliance;

(10) take and hold collateral for the payment of the Accounts Receivable guaranteed hereby or sell, exchange, release, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property pledged, mortgaged or conveyed, or in which Franchisor has been granted a lien, to secure any Account Receivable; and

(11) release anyone who may be liable in any manner for the payment of any Account Receivable; and Franchisor shall not incur any liability to Franchisee as a result thereof, and no such action shall impair or release the rights of Franchisor against Franchisee under this Agreement.

H. NON-COMPLIANCE WEEKLY FINANCE CHARGE

For client accounts over 60 days old, Franchisor will charge Franchisee a non-compliance weekly Finance Charge of .192% on the amount of the account over 60 days old, until collected, written off or charged back, unless specifically agreed to in writing.

I. COLLATERAL RESERVE

(1) To secure the Franchisee Guaranty (as defined above in Section 9.G.), Franchisor may deduct a portion of the amounts collected from Accounts Receivable (the “Collateral Reserve Deduction”) and hold such funds (without any obligation to segregate such funds from its own funds) as collateral security (the “Collateral Reserve”) for the payment and performance of the Franchisee Guaranty. The Collateral Reserve Fee is waived for the first six months from the date of the Franchise Agreement.

The “Collateral Reserve Balance” for Franchisee is the amount held by Franchisor that represents the aggregate amount of all Collateral Reserve Deductions collected from Franchisee minus all amounts that must be paid or incurred by Franchisor on Franchisee’s behalf for uncollected Accounts Receivable. The Collateral Reserve Balance will not be segregated and will be retained by Franchisor. Franchisor will maintain a ledger of the amount of Collateral Reserve Balance for Franchisee, and absent manifest error, such ledger shall be deemed conclusive proof of the amount of the Collateral Reserve Balance for Franchisee. The Collateral Reserve Balance is not a deposit account. Currently the maximum amount of Collateral Reserve Deduction equals one-half percent (0.5%) of Gross Wages and is collected by Franchisor until the Collateral Reserve Balance for Franchisee is equal to or greater than $10,000. Once Franchisee’s Collateral Reserve Balance equals or exceeds $10,000, the Collateral Reserve Deduction shall be reduced to zero. Franchisor has the right to increase the minimum required Collateral Reserve Balance for Franchisee up to a maximum amount of $25,000. The Collateral Reserve Balance can be used to offset uncollected amounts or deductibles of at least $2,500 per occurrence.

(2) No interest will be credited to Franchisee with respect to its Collateral Reserve Balance. Franchisor is entitled to keep all the profit or interest derived from the use of the Collateral Reserve. Franchisee will not be permitted to receive any portion of the Collateral Reserve until this Agreement is terminated and all direct, indirect, contingent and non-contingent obligations of Franchisee to Franchisor have been satisfied.

(3) Upon any default by Franchisee under this Agreement or under any other agreement with Franchisor, Franchisor may immediately setoff, recoup and apply against any obligations of Franchisee hereunder (including the Franchisee Guaranty) any and all amounts held as Collateral Reserve.

(4) Franchisee hereby grants Franchisor a first priority security interest in (A) the Collateral Reserve, whether now existing or arising hereafter, and regardless of whether the Collateral Reserve is classified in whole or in part as an account, money, general intangible or other personal property, (B) any checks, instruments, cash or other amounts received as payments retained as Collateral Reserve, and (C) all proceeds thereof.

(5) Any balance remaining in the Collateral Reserve less any uncollected amounts from accounts receivable generated by your NEXTAFF Office will be paid to you without interest within 90 days after the termination of the Franchise Agreement.

The collateral granted to Franchisor in Section 9(C) of this Agreement is sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Collateral". Franchisee authorizes Franchisor to file financing statements in wherever Franchisor deems appropriate to perfect the security interests granted to Franchisor in the Collateral. A. Franchisee covenants that, during the term of this Franchise Agreement, Franchisee shall devote full time, energy and best efforts to meet its obligation under this Agreement and shall require its managers to devote full time energy and best efforts to the operation of the Nextaff Office.

B. Franchisee specifically acknowledges, pursuant to this Agreement, that (i) Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training, Trade Secrets and Confidential Information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operation and other methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System, which are beyond Franchisee's present skills and experience, (ii) such training, Trade Secrets and Confidential Information provide a competitive advantage and will be valuable to Franchisee in the development and operation of the Nextaff Office, and (iii) gaining access to such training, Trade Secrets and Confidential Information are a primary reason for entering into this Agreement. In consideration for all of the above, Franchisee covenants that during the term of this Agreement, Franchisee and Franchisee's Principals shall not, either directly or indirectly, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership or any other entity:

(1) Divert, or attempt to divert, any business or client of the Nextaff Office with respect to Services to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Licensed Marks and the System;

(2) Except with respect to Nextaff Offices operated under franchise agreements between Franchisee and its affiliates, and Franchisor or its affiliates, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have an ownership interest, in (including any right to share in revenues or profits) in any Competitive Business located within the United States without written approval of Franchisor; or

(3) Employ or seek to employ any person employed by Franchisor or by any other franchisee of Franchisor or otherwise, directly or indirectly, induce those persons to leave their employment, except with the express written permission of Franchisor, in its sole discretion.

C. In further consideration for the training, Trade Secrets, and Confidential Information described above, Franchisee covenants that with respect to Franchisee and its Principals, commencing upon the earlier of the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement or the transfer of all of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, Franchisee and Franchisee's Principals shall not, directly or indirectly, or through or on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, limited liability company or corporation:

(1) Divert, or attempt to divert any business or a client of the Nextaff Office with respect to Services to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Licensed Marks and the System;

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, employ, or seek to employ any person who is employed by Franchisor (or by any of its affiliates or by any other franchisee), or otherwise directly or indirectly induce such person to leave that person's employment; or

(3) Own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have an ownership interest (including any right to share in revenues or profits) in any Competitive Business that is located within or operated within or that is intended to be located or operated within the Territory granted Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement, or in any Competitive Business that is located or operated within or that is intended to be located within the Territory of any other franchisee within the System or within a 60 mile radius of the location of any existing NEXTAFF Office.

D. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Competitive Business" means any business that (i) provides or sells any Service provided or sold by a NEXTAFF Office.

E. The above provisions do not apply to Franchisee's ownership of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held company, if the interest is held for investment only and Franchisee's total holdings do not constitute more than 1% of the outstanding securities of the corporation.

F. The parties agree that each of the covenants herein shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 14 is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 14. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims that they may have against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Section 14. Franchisee acknowledges that a violation of any covenant in this Section 14 would cause irreparable damage to Franchisor, the exact amount of which may not be subject to reasonable or accurate ascertainment. If any covenant is violated, Franchisor may seek injunctive relief to restrain Franchisee, or anyone acting for or on Franchisee's behalf, from violating covenants or any other remedies to which Franchisor may then be entitled. If Franchisor prevails in any suit to enforce any provision, Franchisor is entitled to receive, in addition to any relief or remedy granted, the cost of bringing the suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees. The covenants set forth in this Section 14 survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT

A. BY THE FRANCHISOR

Franchisor may transfer or assign all or any part of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any assignee or other successor without the consent of Franchisee or any of its Principals.

B. FRANCHISEE MAY NOT ASSIGN OR SELL SUBSTANTIALLY ALL OF ITS ASSETS WITHOUT APPROVAL OF THE FRANCHISOR

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and its Principals and that Franchisor has granted the Franchise in reliance upon the collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability and financial capacity of Franchisee and its Principals. Unless otherwise specifically permitted by this Agreement, any assignment, sale, conveyance, pledge, sublicense or sub-franchise arrangement or any other attempted transfer (in each case a "Transfer"), either directly or indirectly, of (1) any interest in this Franchise Agreement, (2) any interest in the Franchise or the Nextaff Office, (3) any of the assets of Franchisee related to the operation of the Franchise or the Nextaff Office, (4) any or all of the ownership interests in Franchisee or any Principal (including by merger or consolidation, by issuance of additional securities, by conversion, by creation of an additional interest, through a divorce proceeding, by will or transfer in trust or the laws of the intestate succession) without the prior written approval of Franchisor constitutes a breach of this Agreement and will be void and have no effect and will convey no rights to or interests in this Agreement, the Nextaff Office or the assets of Franchisee related to the operation of the Franchise.

C. CONDITIONS FOR APPROVAL OF ASSIGNMENT OR SALE OF ASSETS

If Franchisee and the Principals are in full compliance with this Agreement, Franchisor shall not unreasonably withhold its approval of any Transfer, provided that the proposed assignee, buyer, or other transferee (the "Transferee") is of good moral character and has sufficient business experience, aptitude and financial resources to own and operate the Nextaff Office and otherwise meets Franchisor's then-applicable standards for franchisees, and, further provided, that Franchisor may require that any one or more of the following conditions be met before, or concurrently with, the effective date of the assignment or sale of assets or other interest in Franchisee:

- (1) All of the obligations of Franchisee or its Principals incurred in connection with this Agreement have been assumed by the Transferee;
- (2) Franchisee has paid royalty fees and any other, amounts owed by Franchisee to Franchisor which are then due and unpaid;
- (3) The Transferee agrees to successfully complete the training program required of new franchisees;
- (4) If required, the lessor of the premises of the Nextaff Office has consented to the Transfer;
- (5) The Transferee (and, if transferee is an entity, its Principals) must, at Franchisor's option, execute and agree to be bound by: (a) an assignment and assumption agreement satisfactory to Franchisor, where the Transferee assumes the obligations of Franchisee or the Principal (as the case may be); or (b) the then-current form of franchise agreement and ancillary agreements as are then customarily used by Franchisor to grant franchises for NEXTAFF Offices, which shall provide for the same fees as provided in this Agreement and for a term equal to the remaining Term of this Agreement;
- (6) Franchisee or the Transferee pays to Franchisor the Franchisor's then-current standard assignment fee to defray expenses incurred by Franchisor in connection with the Transfer, including training of the Transferee, legal and accounting fees, credit and other investigation charges and evaluation of the Transferee and the terms of the Transfer in an amount equal to the greater of: (i) five percent of the sales price or (ii) $10,000 provided, however, there is not an assignment fee due upon transfer to heirs, immediate family members or a revocable trust;

(7) Except to the extent limited or prohibited by applicable law, Franchisee, and each of the Principals involved in the Transfer, executes a general release, in form and substance satisfactory to Franchisor, releasing Franchisor of any and all claims such parties may have against Franchisor and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents;

(8) Franchisor approves the material terms and conditions of the Transfer and determines that the price and terms of payment are not so burdensome as to materially affect the future operations of the Nextaff Office by the transferee(s), provided that Franchisor's approval shall not be unreasonably withheld;

(9) Franchisee (and each Principal involved in the Transfer) executes a non-competition covenant in favor of Franchisor and the Transferee, agreeing that for a minimum period of two years, commencing on the effective date of the assignment or sale of assets, Franchisee (and each such Principal) will not have any direct or indirect interest as an owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business (as defined above in Section 14.B.) located or operating within a radius of 60 miles of the Nextaff Office or a radius of 60 miles of any other Nextaff Office in operation on the effective date of assignment or sale of assets, except for Nextaff Offices operated under franchise agreements granted by Franchisor and the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent one percent or less of that class of stock; and

(10) Franchisee enters into an agreement with Franchisor agreeing to subordinate any of Franchisee's rights against Transferee (such as for a deferred purchase price payment) to Transferee's obligations to Franchisor (such as for royalty fees and advertising contributions).

Franchisor's consent to a Transfer does not constitute a waiver of any claims it has against the Franchisee, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement by the Transferee.

D. DEATH OR DISABILITY OF FRANCHISEE

Upon the death or permanent disability of Franchisee (or a Principal who has been approved as the manager of the Franchise), the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative, or the remaining Principals, must appoint a competent manager within a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days, from the date of death or permanent disability. The person appointed must be approved by Franchisor and must complete Franchisor's training program. If the Nextaff Office is not being managed by a manager approved by Franchisor within 30 days after Franchisee's death or permanent disability, Franchisor is authorized, but is not required, to immediately appoint a manager to maintain the operations of the Nextaff Office for and on Franchisee's behalf until an approved assignee is able to assume the management and operation of the Nextaff Office. Franchisor's appointment of a manager of the Nextaff Office does not relieve Franchisee of Franchisee's obligations, and Franchisor is not liable for any debts, losses, costs or expenses incurred in the operations of the Nextaff Office or to any creditor of Franchisee for any products, materials, supplies or services purchased by the Nextaff Office while it is managed by Franchisor's appointed manager. Franchisor has the right to charge a reasonable fee for management services and to cease to provide management services at any time.

Upon the death or permanent disability of Franchisee (or any Principal who has been approved as the manager of the Franchise), the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative must transfer the interest of such person within a reasonable time, not to exceed twelve (12) months from the date of death or permanent disability to a person approved by Franchisor. Approval of such a transfer will not be unreasonably withheld. Transfers, including transfers by devise or inheritance, are subject to all the terms and conditions for assignments and transfers contained in Paragraphs B and C of this Section 15. Failure to transfer this interest within the twelve (12) month time period constitutes grounds for termination under Section 17 of this Agreement.

E. ASSIGNMENT TO AN ENTITY CONTROLLED BY FRANCHISEE

Upon 30 days' prior written notice to Franchisor, this Agreement and the assets and liabilities of the Nextaff Office may be assigned, by an agreement in form and substance approved by Franchisor, to an entity that conducts no business other than the operation of the Nextaff Office (or other Nextaff Office under franchise agreements granted by Franchisor), which is actively managed by Franchisee and in which Franchisee owns and controls not less than 51% of the voting power of the equity interests for such entity. Any such assignment does not relieve Franchisee's obligations, and Franchisee remains jointly and severally liable for all such obligations. The organizational documents of such entity must restrict the transfer of its equity interests in accordance with Paragraphs B and C of this Section 15 of this Agreement and all issued and outstanding equity certificates must bear a legend reflecting or referring to the restrictions of Paragraphs B and C of this Section 15. There is no assignment fee due for such a transfer to such an entity if the conditions of this paragraph E are satisfied.

Any person or entity that becomes a Principal must execute an agreement in form and substance furnished or approved by Franchisor undertaking to be bound jointly and severally by all provisions of this Agreement. Franchisee must furnish to Franchisor at any time upon request a certified copy of its organizational documents and a list, in a form Franchisor requires, of all persons having a beneficial ownership interest of 10% or more in Franchisee, reflecting their respective ownership interests in Franchisee. Partners, owners and spouses with an equitable interest in Franchisee must sign the Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations Agreement.

F. PUBLIC OR PRIVATE OFFERINGS

If Franchisee (or any of its Principals), subject to the restrictions and conditions of transfer contained in this Section 15, attempts to raise or secure funds by the sale of securities (including common or preferred stock, bonds, debentures or general or limited partnership interests) in Franchisee or any affiliate of Franchisee, Franchisee, recognizing that the written information used may reflect upon Franchisor, agrees to submit any written information to Franchisor before its inclusion in any registration statement, prospectus or similar franchise disclosure document, offering circular or memorandum and to obtain the written consent of Franchisor to the method of financing before any offering or sale of securities. The written consent of Franchisor pursuant to this Paragraph F does not imply or constitute the approval of Franchisor with respect to the method of financing, the offering literature submitted to Franchisor or any other aspect of the offering. No information respecting Franchisor or any of its affiliates shall be included in any securities disclosure document, unless information has been furnished by Franchisor, in writing, pursuant to Franchisee's written request, in which Franchisee states the specific purpose for which the information is to be used. Should Franchisor, in its sole discretion, object to any reference to Franchisor or any of its affiliates or any of their businesses in the offering literature or prospectus, the literature or prospectus must not be used unless and until the objections of Franchisor are withdrawn. Franchisor assumes no responsibility for the offering whatsoever.

The prospectus or other literature utilized in any offering must contain the following language in bold-face type on the first textual page:

“NEITHER NEXTAFF GROUP, LLC NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES IS DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY THE ISSUER OF THE SECURITIES OFFERED. NEITHER NEXTAFF GROUP, LLC NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES ASSUMES ANY RESPONSIBILITY WITH RESPECT TO THIS OFFERING AND/OR THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THE INFORMATION SET FORTH, INCLUDING ANY STATEMENTS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THEM. NEITHER NEXTAFF GROUP, LLC NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES ENDORSES OR MAKES ANY RECOMMENDATION WITH RESPECT TO THE INVESTMENT CONTEMPLATED BY THIS OFFERING.”

Franchisee and each of its owners agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Franchisor and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents, from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) incurred in the defense of claims, demands or liabilities, arising from the offer or sale of securities, whether asserted by a purchaser of any security or by a governmental agency. Franchisor has the right (but not the obligation) to defend any claims, demands or liabilities and/or to participate in the defense of any action to which Franchisor or any of its affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors, employees or agents is named as a party.

G. THE FRANCHISOR’S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

If Franchisee or any Principal at any time attempts to sell or to transfer for consideration the Franchise, the Nextaff Office or an ownership interest in Franchisee, Franchisee or such Principal must submit a bona fide, executed written offer from a responsible and fully disclosed purchaser and must submit an exact copy of the offer to Franchisor. Franchisor has the right, exercisable by written notice delivered to Franchisee or such Principal within 30 days from the date of delivery of an exact copy of the offer to Franchisor, to purchase the interest which is the subject of the offer for the price and on terms contained in the offer, provided that Franchisor may substitute cash for any form of payment proposed in the offer and has a minimum of 60 days to prepare for closing. If Franchisor does not exercise this right of first refusal, Franchisee or such Principal may complete the sale to purchaser pursuant to and on the terms of the offer, in accordance with Paragraphs B and C of this Section 15, provided that if the sale to purchaser is not completed within one hundred twenty (120) days after delivery of the terms of the original offer to Franchisor, or if there is a material change in the terms of such offer, Franchisor shall again have the right of first refusal set forth above.

16. RENEWAL OF FRANCHISE

A. FRANCHISEE’S RIGHT TO RENEW

If, upon expiration of the Initial Term (or a Renewal Term, if applicable), Franchisee has substantially complied with all provisions of the Franchise Agreement and any other related agreements and is not currently in default under any such provision and agrees to update the premises in compliance with Specifications then applicable to new Nextaff Offices, then Franchisee has the right to renew the Franchise for up to four additional five-year terms (each a “Renewal Term”).

B. NOTICE OF RENEWAL AND NONRENEWAL

In order for Franchisee to have the right to renew set forth in Section 16.A, Franchisee must give Franchisor written notice of Franchisee’s desire to renew at least one hundred eighty (180) days before the expiration of this Agreement. If Franchisor does not receive such written notice from Franchisee, this Franchise will expire at the end of the Initial Term. If Franchisor does receive such written notice from Franchisee, then Franchisor will determine whether Franchisee has satisfied the conditions for renewal set forth in Section 16. If Franchisor determines that Franchisee has not satisfied such conditions, Franchisor will give Franchisee written notice (the “Notice of Nonrenewal”) of its determination at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the expiration of the Initial Term. The Notice of Nonrenewal will state the reasons for Franchisor’s determination.

If the reasons stated in the Notice of Nonrenewal include Franchisee’s insolvency, or the occurrence of an assignment for the benefit of creditors by Franchisee or Franchisee’s filing of a petition in bankruptcy or matters which cannot by their nature be cured, then the Notice of Nonrenewal is effective upon delivery and the Franchise will expire at the end of the Initial Term and be subject to Section 16.D. If the reason given for nonrenewal is Franchisee’s nonpayment of sums due under the Franchise Agreement to Franchisor and its affiliates, Franchisee has 10 days from Franchisee’s receipt of the Notice of Nonrenewal in which to cure such default by payment of all sums, including interest due, in compliance with the terms of this Agreement to Franchisor. Except as provided above, if the reasons cited in the Notice of Nonrenewal are curable and in fact cured, as determined by Franchisor, within 60 days of the Notice of Nonrenewal, then Franchisee will be allowed to renew in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. If the reason cited in the Notice of Nonrenewal are capable but Franchisee fails to cure, as determined by Franchisor, then the Franchise will expire at the end of the Initial Term and be subject to Section 16.D.

C. RENEWAL AGREEMENTS/RELEASES

To renew the Franchise, Franchisee (and its Principals) must execute the form of and be bound by the Franchise Agreement and ancillary agreements as are then customarily used by Franchisor in the grant of franchises for the ownership and operation of Nextaff Offices (with appropriate modifications to reflect the fact that the agreement relates to the grant of a renewal franchise) which may provide for one or more of the following: (1) greater expenditures for advertising and promotion, or (2) increases in the Minimum Performance Standards, which are different than those set forth in this Agreement. Upon each renewal, Franchisee shall become eligible for a reduced royalty fee according to the following adjustments to the Royalty Fee Percentage Table set forth in Section 9.B.:

PEAK 12 MONTH GROSS WAGES	1ST RENEWAL ROYALTY FEE	2ND RENEWAL ROYALTY FEE	3RD RENEWAL ROYALTY FEE	4TH RENEWAL ROYALTY FEE
$0 to $1m -	7.75%	7.50%	7.25%	7.00%
$1m to $2m -	7.50%	7.25%	7.00%	6.75%
$2m to $3m -	7.25%	7.00%	6.75%	6.50%
$3m to $4m -	7.00%	6.75%	6.50%	6.25%
$4m to $5m -	6.75%	6.50%	6.25%	6.00%
$5m to $6m -	6.50%	6.25%	6.00%	5.75%
$6m to $7m -	6.25%	6.00%	5.75%	5.50%
$7m to $8m -	6.00%	5.75%	5.50%	5.25%
more than $8m -	5.75%	5.50%	5.25%	5.00%

In addition, Franchisee (and its Principals) must, if requested by Franchisor and as permitted by applicable law, execute general releases, in form and substance satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents. Failure by Franchisee and its owners to sign agreement(s) and releases within 30 days after delivery to Franchisee is deemed an election by Franchisee not to renew the Franchise.

D. EXPIRED AGREEMENT

If Franchisee does not sign a new then-current franchise agreement and initiate and comply with the renewal procedures outlined in this Section 16, prior to the expiration of this Franchise and continues to accept the benefits of this Franchise Agreement after the expiration of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term, then at the option of Franchisor this Franchise Agreement may be treated either as:

(1) expired as of the date of expiration with Franchisee then operating without the right to do so and in violation of Franchisor's rights; or

(2) continued on a month-to-month basis (the "Interim Period") until Franchisor or Franchisee provides the other party with written notice of such party's intention to terminate the Interim Period, in which case the Interim Period will terminate 30 days after receipt of the notice to terminate the Interim Period. In the latter case, all obligations of Franchisee shall remain in full force and effect during the Interim Period as if this Franchise Agreement had not expired, and all obligations and restrictions imposed upon Franchisee on the expiration of this Franchise Agreement shall be deemed to take effect upon the termination of the Interim Period.

17. TERMINATION OF THE FRANCHISE

A. Franchisee shall be in default under this Agreement and all rights granted herein shall terminate immediately upon written notice of termination, without an opportunity for Franchisee to cure the cause of termination, if Franchisee does any of the following:

(1) Franchisee is declared bankrupt or judicially determined to be insolvent, or all or a substantial part of the assets thereof are assigned to or for the benefit of any creditor, or the Franchisee admits its inability to pay its debts as they become due; or

(2) Franchisee abandons the Franchise by failing to operate the Nextaff Office for five (5) consecutive business days in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; or

(3) Franchisee has made any material misrepresentation relating to the acquisition of the Nextaff Office or Franchisee engages in conduct which reflects materially and unfavorably upon the operation and reputation of the System; or

(4) Franchisee fails, for a period of 10 days after notification of noncompliance, to comply with any federal, state or local law or regulation applicable to the operation of the Nextaff Office; or

(5) Franchisee fails on more than three (3) separate occasions within any twelve (12) month consecutive period to comply with a material provision of this Agreement, whether or not failure to comply is corrected after notice is sent to Franchisee; or

(6) The Nextaff Office is seized, taken over or foreclosed by a government official in the exercise of its duties, or seized, taken over or foreclosed by a creditor, lienholder or lessor, provided that a final judgment against Franchisee remains unsatisfied for 30 days (unless a supersedes or other appeal bond has been filed); or a levy of execution has been made upon the Nextaff Office or upon the property used in the Nextaff Office and it is not discharged within five (5) days of such levy;

(7) The Franchisee is convicted of a felony or any other criminal misconduct which is relevant to the operation of the Nextaff Office.

B. Franchisor has the right to terminate this Agreement by providing Franchisee 30 days' prior written notice of the termination, said notice stating the reasons for the termination constituting good cause. For purposes of this Agreement, good cause includes any one of the breaches set forth below, or any other material breach of this Agreement, or Franchisee's failure to comply substantially with essential and reasonable requirements imposed upon Franchisee by Franchisor. The notice of termination shall give Franchisee 30 days in which to cure the matters giving rise to the good cause, which is the basis of the termination. The termination is effective upon the expiration of the 30 day notice period and Franchisee's failure to cure any breach or Franchisee's failure to comply substantially with the essential and reasonable requirements imposed upon Franchisee by Franchisor, in accordance with the provisions set forth below, during this 30 day notice period. It is a material breach of this Agreement and constitutes good cause for termination if Franchisee (or its owners, or shareholders, or partners or members, if Franchisee is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company) and/or the managers do any one of the following:

(1) Fails to obtain lawful possession of an approved location for the Nextaff Office as provided in Exhibit A to this Agreement, or fails to develop the Nextaff Office or failure to open the Nextaff Office for business as provided this Agreement, or fails to satisfactorily complete the training program as provided in this Agreement;

(2) Abandons, or surrenders, or transfers control of, or loses the right to occupy the premises of the Nextaff Office, or fails to obtain an alternative site, or fails to actively operate the Nextaff Office, or if Franchisee is a limited partnership, terminates a general partnership interest;

(3) Fails to attend any supplemental or refresher training programs required pursuant to Paragraph A, Section 5 of this Agreement;

(4) Makes an unauthorized assignment or transfer of this Agreement, the Nextaff Office or an ownership interest in Franchisee;

(5) Makes any unauthorized use of the Licensed Marks or unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information or Operations Manual;

(6) Fails to timely pay royalty fees or other payments due to Franchisor or its affiliates;

(7) Fails to timely pay amounts due to persons other than Franchisor or its affiliates;

(8) Fails to timely submit when due financial statements, reports or other data information or supporting records;

(9) Abandons, surrenders, transfers control or fails to actively operate the Nextaff Office;

(10) Suffers cancellation of or fails to renew or extend the lease or sublease for or otherwise fails to maintain possession of the premises of the Office;

(11) Fails to maintain or suffers cancellation of any insurance policy required under this Agreement;

(12) Violates any of the covenants contained in this Agreement;

(13) Fails to comply with any other provision of this Agreement or any mandatory specification, or standard or operating procedure prescribed by Franchisor, including any procedure or requirement set forth in the Operations Manual or any standard relating to uniformity and quality of services, image or client service or treatment; or

(14) Fails to meet the Minimum Performance Standards set forth in Exhibit C.

C. Failure of Franchisee to cure a material default of this Agreement within the specified time, or a longer period of time as applicable law may require, will result in the termination of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

18. RIGHTS OF THE FRANCHISOR AND OBLIGATIONS OF FRANCHISEE UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION OF THE FRANCHISE

A. CEASE TO OPERATE THE NEXTAFF OFFICE

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon expiration of this Agreement without renewal, Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Nextaff Office and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold itself out as a present or former Franchisee of Franchisor. Within 15 days after the effective date of any termination or expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay all Royalty Fees, Buyout Fees, and all other amounts due (including any interest due) to Franchisor and its affiliates which are then unpaid. Franchisee must contemporaneously, with payment, furnish a complete accounting of all amounts owed to Franchisor and to its affiliates.

B. DISCONTINUANCE OF USE OF LICENSED MARKS

After termination, Franchisee will not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner identify its business or the premises used for the operation of the Nextaff Office as a current or former NEXTAFF location, or identify itself as a franchisee (or former franchisee) of NEXTAFF or as otherwise associated with Franchisor, or use in any manner any of the Licensed Marks, or any colorable imitation of the Licensed Marks, or any other indicia of NEXTAFF, in any manner or for any purpose, or utilize for any purpose any trade name, trademark, service mark or other commercial symbol that suggests or indicates a connection or association with Franchisor. Franchisee must promptly remove from its place of business, and discontinue using for any purpose, any and all signs, fixtures, furniture, posters, furnishings, equipment, advertising materials, stationery, supplies, forms and other articles which display any of the Licensed Marks or any distinctive features associated with NEXTAFF.

Furthermore, Franchisee must, at his expense, immediately make all modifications or alterations as may be necessary to distinguish the former Nextaff Office so clearly from its former appearance and from other NEXTAFF locations to prevent any possibility of confusion by the public (including removal of all distinctive physical and structural features identifying NEXTAFF locations and removal of all distinctive signs and emblems). Franchisee must, at his expense, make specific additional changes as Franchisor reasonably requests for this purpose. If Franchisee fails to initiate immediately or complete alterations within a period of time Franchisor deems appropriate, Franchisee agrees that Franchisor or its designated agents may enter the premises of the former Nextaff Office and adjacent areas at any time to make alterations, at Franchisee's sole risk and expense, without responsibility for any actual or consequential damages to Franchisee's property or others, and without liability for trespass or other tort or criminal act. Franchisee expressly acknowledges that its failure to make alterations will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor and consents to entry, at Franchisee's expense, of any ex-parte order by any court of competent jurisdiction authorizing Franchisor or its agents to take action, if Franchisor seeks an order.

C. CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATIONS AND TRANSFER OF TELEPHONE NUMBERS

Upon termination or expiration (without renewal) of this Agreement, Franchisee will promptly:

- (1) Take any action as may be required to cancel all fictitious or assumed names or equivalent registrations relating to his use of any of the Licensed Marks; and
- (2) Notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of Franchisee's right to use any telephone number and any regular, classified or other telephone directory listings associated with the Licensed Marks and to authorize transfer of same to or at the direction of Franchisor.

Franchisee acknowledges that as between Franchisor and Franchisee, Franchisor has the sole right to and interest in all telephone numbers and directory listings associated with the Licensed Marks, and Franchisee authorizes Franchisor, and appoints Franchisor and any officer of Franchisor as his attorney-in-fact, to direct the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer same to Franchisor or at its direction, should Franchisee fail or refuse to do so, the telephone company and all listing agencies may accept that direction or this Agreement as conclusive of the exclusive right of Franchisor in those telephone numbers and directory listings and its authority to direct their transfer.

Franchisee will furnish to Franchisor within 30 days after the effective date of any such termination or expiration evidence satisfactory to Franchisor of Franchisee's compliance with the foregoing obligations.

D. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Franchisee agrees that upon termination or expiration (without renewal) or transfer of this Agreement, he will maintain the confidentiality and immediately cease to use in any business or otherwise the Confidential Information of Franchisor disclosed to Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement and return to Franchisor all copies of the Operations Manual which have been loaned to him by Franchisor. In addition, if any such Confidential Information constitutes a Trade Secret, such information shall be treated in confidence for at least as long as such information.

E. COOPERATION WITH FRANCHISOR

F. CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS

All obligations of Franchisor and Franchisee which expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement continue in full force and effect subsequent to its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied or expire.

19. ENFORCEMENT

A. SEVERABILITY AND SUBSTITUTION OF VALID PROVISIONS

Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each section, paragraph, term and provision of this Agreement, is considered severable and if, for any reason, any portion of this Agreement is held to be invalid, contrary to, or in conflict with any applicable present or future law or regulation in a final, unappealable ruling issued by any court, agency or tribunal with competent jurisdiction in a proceeding to which Franchisor is a party, that ruling shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, other portions of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible, which shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties to this Agreement, although any portion held to be invalid is deemed not to be a part of this Agreement from the date the time for appeal expires, if Franchisee is a party, otherwise upon Franchisee's receipt of a notice of non-enforcement from Franchisor.

If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination of this Agreement than is required in this Agreement, or the taking of some other action not required, or if under any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction, any provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed by Franchisor is invalid or unenforceable, the prior notice and/or other action required by law or rule shall be substituted for the comparable provisions, and Franchisor has the right, in its sole discretion, to modify the invalid or unenforceable provision, specification, standard or operating procedure to the extent required to be valid and enforceable. Franchisee agrees to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is prescribed within the terms of any provision of this Agreement, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions, or any specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed by Franchisor, any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unenforceable in a final decision to which Franchisor is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with a court order. Modifications to this Agreement are effective only in that jurisdiction, unless Franchisor elects to give them greater applicability, and this Agreement shall be enforced as originally made and entered into in all other jurisdictions.

B. WAIVER OF OBLIGATIONS

Franchisor may, by written instrument, unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon Franchisee under this Agreement and Franchisee may, by written instrument, unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon Franchisor under this Agreement, effective upon delivery of written notice to the other or other effective date stated in the notice of waiver. Whenever this Agreement requires Franchisor's prior approval or consent, Franchisee must make a timely written request, and approval must be obtained in writing.

Franchisor makes no warranties or guaranties upon which Franchisee may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Franchisee, by granting any waiver, approval or consent to Franchisee, or by reason of any neglect, delay or denial of any request. Any waiver granted by Franchisor is without prejudice to any other rights Franchisor may have, is subject to continuing review by Franchisor, and may be revoked, in Franchisor's sole discretion, at any time and for any reason, effective upon delivery to Franchisee of 10 days' prior written notice.

Franchisor and Franchisee shall not be deemed to have waived or impaired any right, power or option reserved by this Agreement (including the right to demand exact compliance with every term, condition and covenant, or to declare any breach to be a default and to terminate the Franchise before the expiration of its term), by virtue of (i) any custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms of this Agreement; (ii) any failure, refusal or neglect of Franchisor or Franchisee to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon exact compliance by the other with its obligations including any mandatory specification, standard or operating procedure; (iii) any waiver, forbearance, delay, failure or omission by Franchisor to exercise any right, power or option, whether of the same, similar or different nature, with respect to other Nextaff Offices, or (iv) the acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due from Franchisee after any breach of this Agreement.

Neither Franchisor nor Franchisee is liable for loss or damage or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement if its failure to perform its obligations results from: (1) transportation shortages, inadequate supply of labor, material or energy, or the voluntary foregoing of the right to acquire or use any of the foregoing in order to accommodate or comply with the orders, requests, regulations, recommendations or instructions of any federal, state or municipal government or any department or agency; (2) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement or instruction of any federal, state, or municipal government or any department or agency; (3) acts of God; (4) acts or omissions of the other party; (5) fires, strikes, embargoes, war or riot; or (6) any other similar event or cause. Any delay resulting from any of those causes extends performance accordingly or excuses performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable.

C. SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE/INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Nothing in this Agreement bars Franchisor's right to obtain specific performance of the provisions of this Agreement and injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause it loss or damage, under customary equity rules, including applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions. Franchisee agrees that Franchisor may have injunctive relief, upon due notice, in addition to further and other relief as may be available at equity or law. Franchisee has remedies as may be available at equity or law, including the dissolution of injunction if the entry of injunction is vacated.

D. RIGHTS OF PARTIES ARE CUMULATIVE

The rights of Franchisor and Franchisee under this Agreement are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by Franchisor or Franchisee of any right or remedy precludes the exercise or enforcement by Franchisor or Franchisee of any other right or remedy which Franchisor or Franchisee is entitled by law to enforce.

E. COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES

If a claim for amounts owed by Franchisee to Franchisor or any of its affiliates is asserted in any legal proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction or arbitration, or if Franchisor is required to enforce this Agreement in a judicial or arbitration proceeding, the Franchisor is entitled to reimbursement of its costs and expenses incurred, including reasonable accounting and legal fees.

F. MEDIATION

The parties agree to submit any claim, controversy or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement (and attachments) or the relationship created by this Agreement to non-binding mediation prior to bringing such claim, controversy or dispute to arbitration or to a court. The mediation shall be conducted either through an individual mediator or a mediator appointed by a mediation services organization or body, experienced in the mediation of disputes between franchisors and franchisees, agreed upon by the parties and, failing such agreement within a reasonable period of time after either party has notified the other of its desire to seek mediation of any claim, controversy or dispute (not to exceed fifteen (15) days) through the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its rules governing mediation, at Franchisor's corporate headquarters in Overland Park, Kansas. The costs and expenses of mediation, including compensation of the mediator, shall be borne by the parties equally. If the parties are unable to resolve the claim, controversy or dispute within 90 days after conferring with the mediator, then either party may submit such claim, controversy or dispute to a court in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may bring an action (1) for monies owed, (2) for injunctive relief, or (3) involving the possession or disposition of, or other relief relating to, real property in a court having jurisdiction, without submitting such action to mediation.

G. GOVERNING LAW

To the extent not inconsistent with applicable law, this Agreement and the offer and sale of the Franchise is governed by the substantive laws (and expressly excluding the choice of law) of the state of Kansas.

H. MUTUAL CONSIDERATION

Franchisee and the Franchisor acknowledge that the Agreement between the parties regarding applicable state law and forum set forth above provides each of the parties with the mutual benefit of uniform interpretation of this Agreement and any dispute arising out of this Agreement or the parties' relationship created by this Agreement. If any other term of the Agreement is found or determined to be unconscionable or unenforceable for any reason, the foregoing provision of waiver by agreement of punitive, exemplary, incidental, indirect, special, consequential or other damages (including, without limitation, loss of profits) shall continue in full force and effect.

N. CONSTRUCTION/INTEGRATION CLAUSE

This Agreement, all exhibits to this Agreement and all ancillary agreements executed contemporaneously with this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with reference to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede any and all prior negotiations, undertakings, representations, and agreements; provided, however, that nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations Franchisor made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that Franchisor furnished to Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee is entering into this Agreement, and all ancillary agreements executed contemporaneously with this Agreement, as a result of Franchisee's own independent investigation of the Nextaff Office and not as a result of any representations about Franchisor made by Franchisor's shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, independent contractors, attorneys, or franchisees, which are contrary to the terms set forth in this Agreement or Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document given to Franchisee pursuant to applicable law, and Franchisee further represents and warrants that:

TECHNOLOGY VERTICAL ADDENDUM

TECHNOLOGY VERTICAL ADDENDUM TO NEXTAFF FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (this “Addendum”) is made on _____ by and between Nextaff Group, LLC, a Kansas limited liability company (“Franchisor”), and _____ (“Franchisee”).

Recitals

A. Concurrently with the execution of this Addendum, the parties have entered into a Nextaff Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) regarding Franchisee’s ownership and operation of a Nextaff Office in the Technology vertical. Capitalized terms used herein, unless expressly otherwise provided, shall have the meanings set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

B. The parties desire to amend the Franchise Agreement as set forth in this Addendum to document the fact that the Franchisee will only receive territory protection with respect to the establishment of another physical location within its Territory and will not receive any territory protection with respect to the services provided or sold within the Territory.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and for other good and valuable consideration the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

Agreement

1. Revisions to Franchise Agreement. Section 2 of the Franchise Agreement is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

“A. Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement, Franchisor grants Franchisee the right and license to own and operate a Nextaff Office (the “Franchise”). The industry vertical and the physical location of the Nextaff Office is set forth on Exhibit A. If Franchisee complies with the provisions of this Agreement, Franchisor will not open, or authorize another person to open, a Nextaff Office in your industry vertical within the Territory. The initial term of this Agreement is for five (5) years, commencing on the date of this Agreement (the “Initial Term” and collectively with any Renewal Term, as provided in Section 16, the “Term”). The Franchise is specifically limited to the right to provide the Services and sell and maintain client relationships for the Services in accordance with this Agreement. Franchisor has the absolute right to determine the scope of permissible services to be offered by Franchisee as part of the Nextaff Office, and Franchisee shall not offer any services as part of the Nextaff Office that Franchisor has not approved in advance in writing.

B. Notwithstanding the above, Franchisor (on behalf of itself and its affiliates) retains the right, in its sole discretion and without granting any rights to Franchisee:

(1) To open, or grant other persons the right to open, a Nextaff Office (a) outside the Territory and (b) within the geographic area that is included within your Territory but in other industry verticals that are not included in your Territory;

(2) To grant other persons the right to provide the Services or sell the Services in the Technology vertical anywhere including within the Territory;

(3) To advertise and promote and to authorize other persons the right to advertise and promote the System; and

(4) To create, operate, maintain, modify or discontinue the use of websites using the Licensed Marks.

C. The right granted in Section 2.A is contingent upon the compliance by Franchisee with minimum performance standards (the “Minimum Performance Standards”) set forth in Exhibit C which is attached to this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that after the first full year of operation, the failure of Franchisee to meet the Minimum Performance Standards for any calendar year is a material default of this Agreement and gives rise to Franchisor’s right to terminate Franchisee’s rights or terminate this Agreement under Section 17.B.

2. Effect of Addendum. Except as expressly amended by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum shall control. No other agreements concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, oral or otherwise, unless expressly referred to and referenced herein, shall be deemed to exist or to bind any of the parties hereto. All prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings and representations relating to the subject matter hereof are merged and are expressly superseded by this Addendum and the agreements expressly referenced herein. This Addendum cannot be amended, modified or changed except by written instrument signed by all of the parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have executed, sealed and delivered this Addendum in duplicate on the date recited in the first paragraph.

STATE ADDENDA

NEXTAFF GROUP, LLC
ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AND FRANCHISE
AGREEMENT
FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

California Franchise Investment Law requires a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the Franchise be delivered together with the FDD.

California Corporations Code Section 31125 requires us to give to you a FDD approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation before we ask you to consider a material modification of your Franchise Agreement.

The Franchise Agreement may contain provisions requiring binding arbitration with the costs being awarded to the prevailing party. The arbitration will occur in Franchisor's Choice of Law State. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Agreements restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California. The Franchise Agreement may contain a mediation provision. If so, the parties shall each bear their own costs of mediation and shall share equally the filing fee and the mediator's fees.

The Franchise Agreement requires the application of the law of Franchisor's Choice of Law State. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

Neither Franchisor nor any other person listed in Item 2 of the FDD is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Agreements contain a provision that is inconsistent with the California Franchise Investment Law, the California Franchise Investment Law will control.

The Franchise Agreement may provide for termination upon bankruptcy. Any such provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. SEC. 101 et seq.).

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete provision which extends beyond the termination of the Franchise. Such provisions may not be enforceable under California law.

Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable. Any such provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement may not be enforceable.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043).

ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
FOR THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

In recognition of the requirements of the Minnesota Franchise Act, Sections 80C.01-80C.22, and the Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J, the Franchise Disclosure Document of Home Instead, Inc. for use in the State of Minnesota shall be amended as follows:

Cover Page, Item 5 and Item 7, Additional Disclosure

The Minnesota Department of Commerce has required that payment of the initial franchise fee be deferred until you have completed your initial training and open your first Office for business.

State Cover Page and Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document shall abrogate or reduce any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or the franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

Item 13, Additional Disclosures:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that a franchisor indemnify Minnesota Franchisees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of the franchisor's trademark infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. The franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of a franchisor's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the franchise agreement, and as the condition to an indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to the franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to the franchisor. If the franchisor accepts tender of defense, the franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any condition, stipulation or provision, including any choice of law provision, purporting to bind any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of the State of Minnesota or in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in the State of Minnesota to waive compliance or which has the effect of waiving compliance with any provision of the Minnesota Franchise Law is void.

The franchisor will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subds. 3, 4 and 5, which requires, except in certain specified cases, that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure), 180 days' notice for nonrenewal of the Franchise Agreement, and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

Minnesota Rule 2860.4400D prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§80C.01 – 80C.22.

The limitations of claims section must comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.17, subd. 5.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce has required that payment of the initial franchise fee be deferred until Franchisee has completed the initial training and opens the first Office for business.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, Franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 4 which requires that except for certain specified cases, Franchisee be given 180 days' notice for non-renewal of this Franchise Agreement.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that Franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the Franchisee's use of franchisor's trademarks ("Marks") infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of Franchisee's use of franchisor's trademark but Franchisor shall indemnify Franchisee for claims against Franchisee solely as it relates to Franchisee's use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor's standards. As a further condition to indemnification, Franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If Franchisor accepts tender of defense, Franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, Franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by Franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the Franchisee; (2) the conviction of the Franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the Franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the Franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce Franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of Franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims Franchisee may have against Franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Franchisee consents to Franchisor seeking injunctive relief without the necessity of showing actual or threatened harm. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.

Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.
