What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit F.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Dane County, Wisconsin. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Wisconsin than in your own state.
2. Sales Performance Requirement. You must maintain minimum sales performance levels. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Mandatory Minimum Payment. You must make mandatory minimum royalty payments or advertising contributions regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make these payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
4. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the State Specific Addenda (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ITEM 1. THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document, the Franchisor, Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC will be identified as “CFSF” or “We” or “Franchisor.” “You” means the legal entity and its owners (collectively), who buy the franchise to own and operate a Chefs For Seniors Franchised Business.

CFSF, a Wisconsin limited liability company formed on June 6, 2017, is in the business of selling franchises under the name “Chefs For Seniors.” CFSF’s primary business is offering and selling franchises. The agents for service of process of CFSF are listed on Exhibit G.

CFSF’s Parent Company

Our parent is Chefs For Seniors, Inc. (“CFSI”). Chefs For Seniors, LLC, was a limited liability company organized in Wisconsin on June 13, 2013. In May of 2016, Chef for Seniors, LLC converted to a Delaware corporation under the name Chefs For Seniors, Inc. The principal address and telephone number of CFSI are the same as ours.

CFSF’s Predecessors

CFSF has no predecessors that must be disclosed in this disclosure document.

CFSF’s Affiliates

CFSI is both our parent and our affiliate. CFSI has since August of 2013 to the present operated a Chefs For Seniors business in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Florida. CFSI owns the trademarks and service marks “Chefs For Seniors.” CFSF has entered into a License Agreement dated June 14, 2017 with Chefs For Seniors, Inc. (“Licensor”) to operate a franchise company whose franchisees conduct businesses under the trademarks and service marks “Chefs For Seniors,” plus logos, designs, and such other trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols (“Marks”) as we may authorize, and the Proprietary System developed by CFSI.

The principal place of business of Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC and Chefs For Seniors, Inc. is 2169 Southern Ct., Cottage Grove, WI 53527.

Description of the Franchise

The Franchisees, themselves or through hired chefs (“Chef”), plan and prepare menus with their elderly Clientele (“Clients”), which are customized to their unique tastes and dietary concerns. The Franchisees meet with their Clients according to a schedule determined by the Franchisee and the Client, typically weekly, bi-weekly, or as needed. The day the Franchisees meet with their Clients is called the “Service Day.” On the Service Day, the Chef shops at a local grocery store and purchases all necessary ingredients to prepare the menu items for the Client. The Chef takes those ingredients, along with a “toolbox” of kitchen equipment, into the Client’s home and prepares make-ahead meals during a two (2)-hour visit. While in the home, the Chefs provide companionship and make the experience enjoyable for the Client. Once the meals are prepared, the Chef packages them in containers, labels them, and stores them in the Client’s refrigerator and/or freezer. Then, the Chef plans the Client's menu for the following Service Day.

The franchised businesses ("Franchised Businesses") will be operated in accordance with our required formats, systems, methods of distribution, standards and procedures, and trade dress, all of which we may improve, further develop or otherwise modify from time to time ("System").

A "Basic Territory" consists of approximately 50,000 people over the age of 62, an "Extended Territory" consists of approximately 100,000 50,000 people over the age of 62, and a "Regional Territory" consists of approximately 150,000 50,000 people over the age of 62. The size of your Territory will determine your initial Franchise Fee and other aspects of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

The market for the Chefs For Seniors services include 50,000 people over the age of 62 who live on their own and who struggle to prepare meals for themselves.

The market for our services is emerging, as food preparation services for people over the age of 62 are becoming more in demand. You will be in competition with others who offer and provide meals to persons in their homes. We are not aware of any other businesses catered to people over the age of 62 that offer customized meal preparation in the homes of the clients. However, you may be in competition with meal delivery services such as Seattle Sutton's, Meals on Wheels, and restaurants that offer delivery service. In addition, some non-medical home care agencies will offer meal preparation as part of their companion services.

There are no regulations specific to our business. You must comply with all local, state and federal health and sanitation laws in operating your Chefs For Seniors Franchised Business. As a preparer of food and beverage items, your activities are regulated by, and you are solely responsible for complying with, at your own expense, laws relating to food safety, including having a current food handler's license. You may be regulated by the Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") and the United States Department of Agriculture and those federal and state laws and regulations relating to food handling and preparation. You should consult your own attorney to determine which laws apply to you.

Franchisee must be a corporate entity, partnership, or limited liability company. All individuals who have an ownership interest in the Franchisee entity must personally guarantee the obligations of Franchisee.

ITEM 8. RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

As of the issuance date of this disclosure document we do not have any proprietary items or private label items. If we develop proprietary items or private label items, you must obtain all your proprietary items and private label items from us or our designated supplier. You must obtain Jobber software for schedule your clients from www.getjobber.com. Your Jobber account will be connected to our account.

In addition, you must use the following approved suppliers:

Gusto or QuickBooks Payroll for payroll;

ServSafe for Food Manager certification;

Veracity Insurance Solutions, LLC for business liability insurance;

Vistaprint for marketing materials.

You must purchase food items from established grocery businesses that have permanent retail space. You are prohibited from purchasing food items from farmers markets, bulk unbranded food distributors, or mail order companies (e.g. Amazon).

We are currently an approved supplier, but not the only approved supplier, of local advertising, marketing and promotion through our Local Digital Ads Program (See Item 11). We will pay the total amount you contribute to the Local Digital Ads Program (either the Grand Opening Advertising Fee or other amounts you choose to contribute) directly to providers of digital advertising (e.g. Google, Facebook).

You must use other items, materials and supplies that conform to our minimum specifications and quality standards and/or are purchased from suppliers we approve from time to time (which may include us and/or our Affiliates). We provide our specifications and quality standards in our Operations Manual.

We may furnish you sample recipes and menus for you to use in your Franchised Business, but you are not required to use them. You may develop your own recipes and menus.

As of the date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, there are no other goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer systems or real estate which you must purchase from us or any designees. However, we reserve the right to require you to purchase additional items from us or our designated source in the future. We or our affiliates may derive revenue or other material consideration from your purchases from us or our designated source in the future.

In our fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, neither we nor our affiliate derived revenue from the purchase of goods and services by our Franchisees.

As of the issuance date of this disclosure document we did not derive any revenue or other material consideration from your purchases or leases.

These purchases which must be made in accordance with our specifications or from suppliers we approve represents approximately 10% to 20% of your total purchases in establishing your Franchised Business and approximately 2% to 10% of your total expenses in operating the Franchised Business.

We may modify the minimum standards and specifications and/or the list of approved brands and/or suppliers. If you propose to use or offer any food products or beverages, other products or services, ingredients or supplies which do not comply with our then-current minimum standards or specifications or which are purchased from a supplier that has not been approved, you shall first notify us in writing and submit sufficient information, specifications and samples concerning such item or supplier for determination by us as to whether such item complies with our specifications and standards, and/or whether the supplier meets our approved supplier criteria. We do not make our criteria for approving suppliers available to franchisees. We shall, within 30 days, notify you whether or not such proposed item or supplier is approved. We may from time to time prescribe procedures for submission of requests for approval of items or suppliers and obligations which approved suppliers must assume (which may be incorporated into a written agreement to be executed by approved suppliers). We may impose limits on the number of suppliers and/or brands for any ingredient or food or beverage product used or served by the Franchised Business. We reserve the right to require that suppliers we approve agree to pay us a rebate on purchases made by franchisees.

We reserve the right to revoke our approval of any products or suppliers previously authorized at any time upon written notice to you, provided that you may continue to offer and sell all remaining on-hand or ordered non-cancelable inventory of such products or from such suppliers as of the date of receipt of written notice from us. All your subsequent purchases must be from approved suppliers. We may conduct market research and testing to determine consumer trends and the salability of new food and beverage products and services. You must cooperate by participating in our market research programs, test marketing of new services and products in the Franchised Business, Client feedback programs, and providing us with timely reports and other relevant information regarding such market research.

There are no approved suppliers in which any of our officers or any officers of an Affiliate, or a director of either the Franchisor or Affiliate, have an ownership interest.

There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives. We do not negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees, but we reserve the right to do so in the future. We do not provide material benefits to you based on your purchase of particular products or services or use of particular suppliers.

Insurance

During the term of the Franchise, you must maintain in force, under policies of insurance issued by carriers we approve, comprehensive general liability and property damage insurance against claims for bodily and personal injury, death and property damage caused by or occurring in conjunction with the operation of the Franchised Business, or otherwise in conjunction with the conduct of business by Franchisee pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, under one or more policies of insurance containing coverage for:

- (a) General Liability of $1,000,000 per occurrence/$2,000,000 General Aggregate with no limitation to coverage for Products & Completed Operations or premises where operations may be conducted;
- (b) $1,000,000 Commercial Auto Liability which shall be carried on a Hired and Non-Owned basis (the Hired and Non-Owned basis designation is only required if you have chef employees);

- (d) Workers Compensation including Employers Liability in the limit of no less than $500,000.

The cost of insurance will vary based on the types and limits of the insurance you purchase and other factors affecting risk exposure. We may periodically increase the amounts of coverage required under such insurance policies and require different or additional kinds of insurance at any time, including excess liability insurance, to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards or other relevant changes in circumstances.

Each insurance policy described in this Section shall be issued by an approved supplier. We have approved Associated Agencies, Inc. for your insurance. Each insurance policy shall name Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC. (whose Principal Office address is 2169 Southern Ct., Cottage Grove, WI 53527) as additional insured on a primary and noncontributory basis, with respect to policies secured, and shall provide for 30 days' prior written notice to us of any material modification, cancellation or expiration of such policy, unless prohibited by local insurance regulation. The designation of your Territory occurs prior to your signing the Franchise Agreement; if we cannot agree on your Territory, then you do not become a franchisee. (Sections 1 and 3.b.i., Rider A).

You may operate your Franchised Business from any location, whether it is your home or a commercial location. We do not approve your location. The only requirement is that you must furnish us the address of a physical location ("Business Address") where you maintain your business records relating to the Franchised Business, and where we send you Notice. (Paragraph 3.a.)

We lend you an Operations Manual (the "Manual"). The Table of Contents of the Operations Manual is attached as Exhibit H. As of the issuance date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, the total number of pages in the Operations Manual is 196. (Paragraph 4.d.)

We furnish an initial training program which is described in more detail later in this Item (Paragraph 4.a).

Such guidance shall, in our discretion, be furnished in or supplemented by our Operations Manual (the “Manual”), Franchisee intranet, bulletins, written reports and recommendations, other written materials, and/or telephonic consultations or consultations at our offices. We will make no separate charge to you for customary operating assistance. However, we reserve the right to charge you reasonable fees if our assistance is required due to your failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard or operating procedure we prescribe, or the operating assistance you request is in excess of that normally provided by us. We will, at our option and at your request, furnish you assistance in your location, provided you pay us our applicable per diem fee plus travel, lodging, and meal expenses. (Paragraph 4.c.).

We will defend you in any legal proceeding brought against you by reason of your proper use of the Marks (Paragraph 5.f).

We may conduct market research and testing to determine consumer trends and the salability of new products and services (Paragraph 9.b).

We may delegate to a third party some or all of the ongoing services listed above.

Marketing and Promotion

There is no separate national or regional Marketing Fund or Advertising Fund to which you must contribute. We will conduct marketing and related programs as we in our sole discretion deem appropriate. We will direct all marketing programs in our sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used therein, and the geographic, market, and media placement and allocation of marketing expenditures. We make no representations or guarantees regarding the results of our marketing programs as they related to your Franchised Business.

There is no advertising council composed of franchisees that advises us on advertising policies.

Local Advertising.

You must conduct a Grand Opening marketing campaign within the first 12 months after opening for business. (Paragraph 10.b.i.). The minimum amount you must spend on your Grand Opening advertising during the first twelve (12) months of operation is $5,000.

In addition, on an ongoing basis, you must spend not less than 2% of your Gross Revenues on local advertising and promotion (“Local Advertising Expenditure”). You must submit to us, on a quarterly basis, receipts, invoices, and other documentation to verify compliance with this requirement. You acknowledge that the 2% is a minimum requirement, and we recommend additional expenditures by you on local advertising. (Paragraph 10.b.iii.)

You may, at your option, pay all or a portion of your Local Advertising Expenditure to us to conduct digital advertising on your behalf (“Local Digital Ads Program”). (Paragraph 10.c.)

You must obtain our prior approval of both the content and context of your advertising, including the placement, medium, specific programming, and other details where advertising will run. Prior to your use, you must submit to us for approval samples of all local advertising and promotional materials not prepared or previously approved by us. If we do not furnish you written disapproval within 15 days from the date of our receipt of such materials, we shall be deemed to have given the required approval. You shall not use any advertising or promotional material that we have disapproved. (Paragraph 10.b.v.)

We will establish, own, and monitor all Social Media postings for your Franchised Business. You may participate in the content and maintenance of Social Media for your Franchised business, including advertising your page and posting content, but only in accordance with our guidelines and subject to our right to alter or delete postings you make. You are strictly prohibited from creating a Social Media account or posting anything on Social Media sites involving your Franchised Business or that uses our Marks, except as provided above in this paragraph. We reserve the right to require you to obtain our approval of any message involving your Franchised Business or that uses our Marks that you send or post over Social Media. (Paragraph 9.n.)

Site Selection and Franchised Business Opening

Other than the designation of your Territory, we do not approve the location of your Franchised Business. (Paragraph 3.a.)

The estimated length of time from the date the Franchise Agreement is signed to the opening of the Franchised Business ranges from 2 to 8 weeks. You must commence the Franchised Business within 150 days from the date of the Franchise Agreement. If you fail to commence the Franchised

Business within the 150-day period, then the Franchise Agreement may be terminated upon our giving written notice to you. Factors affecting this length of time include obtaining required permits and licenses, obtaining Manager Food Safety Certification through ServSafe, purchase of supplies, obtaining insurance, and successful completion of the initial training program.

The estimated annual expense you will incur for optional or required maintenance for the computer system is $50 to $100. Maintenance includes updating antivirus software and Microsoft Office to the current version. The hardware and software manufacturers have no obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates.

We will have independent access to the information that will be stored in your computer, through your client database, which uses our scheduling software system. We reserve the right to access other information and data pertaining to the Franchised Business produced by and/or Franchised Business on your computer system.

We use email for many of our communications with our franchisees. You must use the email account we assign to you, and to pay a monthly email fee. You must maintain in the Franchised Business at all times during the term of this Agreement, the email account we assign you. ITEM 12. TERRITORY

You will receive an exclusive territory (“Territory”). A “Basic Territory” consists of approximately 50,000 people age 62+. An “Extended Territory” consists of approximately 100,000 people age 62+, and a “Regional Territory” consists of approximately 150,000 people age 62+. You and we mutually agree upon your territory, including its type, based on your goals and financial capabilities.

You are not required to operate your Franchised Business out of a commercial space. You may at your option operate out of your home. We do not evaluate or approve the location of your Franchised Business, nor do we require it to be located within your Territory. The only requirement is that you furnish us the address of a physical location (“Business Address”) where you maintain your business records relating to the Franchised Business, and where we send you Notice.

You are prohibited from marketing, soliciting, or providing meal preparation services for Clients located outside the geographic boundaries of your Territory. The sole exception to this prohibition applies only if all the following conditions are met:

The area in which you market or solicit Clients is not the Territory of another Chefs For Senior franchisee; at the point that your Gross Revenues reach the level of $3,000, then at least 80% of your Gross Revenues must be generated from Clients who are located within your Territory; and upon another Chefs For Seniors franchisee acquiring a franchise whose territory includes the locations of any Clients for whom you are providing meal preparation services, you must immediately turn such Clients over to such franchisee, without any compensation to you.

We will not franchise or operate any other business that provides similar services under the Chefs For Senior marks or under different marks, within your Territory. However, we have the right to grant such other franchises outside of the Territory. In addition, if we obtain National Accounts, and you fail to provide services to National Account Clients located within your Territory, we may assign those Clients to another franchisee, or provide services to them ourselves or through an Affiliate.

As we authorize, and only in accordance with our specifications and requirements, you may solicit for business, promote the business, and/or offer and sell products authorized under this Agreement through the use of the internet or Social Media.

You may not modify your Territory under any circumstances unless you purchase Blocks to increase your Territory. A “Block” is defined as a geographic area containing approximately 50,000 people over the age of 62. We use census zip code data from data.census.gov to determine the geographic area. You may purchase Blocks (of approximately 50,000 people over the age of 62 each) in addition to your initial Territory under the following conditions:

Each additional Block you purchase must be contiguous with your then-existing Territory.

You must obtain our prior written approval of the boundaries of any additional Blocks you wish to purchase. We may in our sole and absolute discretion withhold such approval of the boundaries of your proposed additional Blocks.

You must pay us a fee of $7,500 per additional Block.

We have the absolute right to refuse to sell you additional Blocks.

There are no circumstances that permit us to modify your Territory.

You are restricted solely to the providing of meal preparation services to individual Clients in their homes. You are expressly prohibited from preparing meals in any location other than in the home of the Client for whom you are preparing meals.

Except as otherwise provided herein, we (on behalf of ourselves and our Affiliates) retain the right, in our sole discretion and without granting any rights to you:

to operate, or to grant other persons the right to operate, Franchised Businesses at any location outside your Territory on such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate;

to sell the products and services both within and outside your Territory, authorized for Franchised Businesses under the Marks or other trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols through similar or dissimilar channels of distribution and pursuant to such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate, and both within and outside your territory, to sell products and services which do not comprise a part of the System. Those products and services which comprise a part of the System are delineated and set forth in detail in the Chefs For Seniors Manual.

We are not required to pay you any compensation for soliciting and/or conducting business within your Territory as described immediately above.

You have no options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises in any other locations.

Continuation of territorial exclusivity and or your operation at the franchised location is dependent upon you attaining the Minimum Gross Revenues. Within 12 months of commencing the Franchised Business, you must generate the $1,500.00 minimum Gross Revenues ("Minimum Gross Revenues") throughout the term of this Franchise.

In the event you fail, following notice and an opportunity to cure within 90 days, to generate the required Minimum Gross Revenues, we have the right, at our discretion, to terminate your Franchise Agreement.

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates have established franchised, company-owned, or affiliated-owned Franchised Businesses selling similar products or services under different service marks and trademarks, but we reserve the right to do so in the future.

ITEM 13. TRADEMARKS

Under the Franchise Agreement, we grant you the right to use the trademarks and service marks listed below, and other such trademarks, service marks, and commercial symbols as we authorize from time to time (collectively, the “Marks”).

Our affiliate registered the following design mark on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) on January 9, 2018 as Registration No. 5,374,611. CFSF previously derived the right to use the Mark under a License Agreement dated June 14, 2017 (“License Agreement”) with our parent, CFSI, the previous owner of the Mark. CFSI assigned the Mark to CFSF on December 16, 2021.

There are no effective material determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or court, any pending interference, opposition, or cancellation proceedings involving any of the above-referenced Trademarks. There are no other agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of the Trademarks listed in this section in a manner material to you. There are no infringing uses or superior previous rights known to us that can materially affect your use of the Trademarks in this state of any other state in which the franchised business is to be located. There is no pending material federal or state court litigation regarding our use or ownership rights in any Trademark.

Except as otherwise stated above, there are no agreements currently in effect which significantly limit the rights of us to use or license the use of the above mentioned trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes, or other commercial symbols in any manner material to the franchise.

There are no infringing uses actually known to us which could materially affect your use of such trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols in the state in which your Franchised Business is to be located.

We have the right to require you to use new marks and to discontinue or modify your use of any name or commercial symbol. If it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole discretion, for us and/or you to modify or discontinue use of any Mark and/or use 1 or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, you agree to do so within a reasonable time after notice by us. In the event we require you to discontinue the use of any name or commercial symbol and to use a substitute mark or commercial symbol, our sole obligation will be to reimburse you your out-of-pocket expenses of complying with this obligation.

Under the Franchise Agreement, you acknowledge that your right to use the Marks is derived solely from the Franchise Agreement and is limited to the operation of the Franchised Business under and in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and all applicable standards and operating procedures prescribed by us from time to time. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by you constitutes an infringement of our rights in and to the Marks. You agree that your use of the Marks and any good will established thereby inure to the exclusive benefit of us, and you acknowledge that the Franchise Agreement does not confer any good will or other interests in the Marks upon you. You may not any time during the Franchise Agreement or after its termination or expiration, contest the validity of ownership of any of the marks or assist any others in contesting the validity or ownership of any of the Marks.

You specifically agree to use the Marks as the sole identification of the Franchised Business, but you must identify yourself as the independent owner in the manner prescribed by us. You may not use any mark as part of any corporate or trade name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, nicknames, terms, designs or symbols, or in any modified form (including, without limitation, any local or special adaptations or artistic variations of any of the Marks), nor may you use any Mark in connection with the sale of any unauthorized product or service or in any other manner not expressly authorized in writing by us. We will provide you with a Facebook account for your Chefs For Seniors Franchised Business for which you will be the Editor and we will be an Administrator. Additionally, you may display your position as a Chefs For Seniors Franchised Business Owner on your personal LinkedIn profile. Other than described above, you agree not to register the Marks on the internet or any other electronic service, including Social Media and smart phone marketing applications. With our prior written approval, you may use the Marks online for specific uses, including online directories, Google AdWords, Facebook content and ads, display ads, and other online ads. You are strictly prohibited from creating or maintaining a website for your Franchised Business, or a website that uses our Marks. We have the sole right to create, establish, own, and control the website for your Franchised Business. You agree to display the Marks prominently and in the manner prescribed by us on signs, forms, and other materials and articles. Further, you agree to give such notices of trademark or service mark ownership or registration and copyrights as we specify and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law. Any and all uses of the Marks will be subject to our prior written approval, and a request for such approval will include such information and samples as we may require. You may not use the name "Chefs For Seniors" or a derivative of that name in your corporate or other formal name.

Under the Franchise Agreement you must notify us immediately in writing of any apparent infringement or of challenge to your use of any Mark, or claim by any person other than us or our affiliates of any rights in any Mark or any similar trade name, trademark or service mark of which you become aware. You may not communicate with any person other than us and our counsel in connection with such infringement, challenge or claim. We have sole discretion to take such action as it deems appropriate and the right to control exclusively any litigation, U. S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or any other administrative proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any Mark. You further agree under the Franchise Agreement to sign any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance and do whatever may be necessary or advisable to protect and maintain the interests of us in any such litigation, U. S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or other administrative proceedings or otherwise to protect and maintain the interests of us in the Marks.

We agree to indemnify you against and to reimburse you for all direct, but not consequential (including, but not limited to, loss of revenue and/or profits), damages for which you are held liable in any proceedings arising out of the use of any Mark under and in compliance with the Franchise Agreement, and for all costs reasonably incurred by you in the defense of any such claim brought against it or in any such proceeding in which it is named as a party, provided that you have timely notified us of such claim or proceeding and have otherwise complied with the Franchise Agreement.

ITEM 14. PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Except as noted below, we do not own any rights in or to any patents or copyrights which are material to the Franchise. We and our affiliates claim copyrights in its Operations Manual and related materials used in the operation of the Franchise. Such copyrights have not been registered with the United States Registrar of Copyrights but have been protected under the copyright laws of the United States by virtue of our and our affiliates placing the appropriate notice of copyright on such items. You may use the Manual and materials during the term of your Franchise Agreement.

There are currently no effective determinations of the United States Copyright Office or any court regarding any of our copyrights, nor are there any currently effective agreements between us and third parties pertaining to our copyrights that will or may significantly limit your use of our copyrighted materials. Furthermore, there are no infringing uses actually known to us which could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials in any state where the Franchise is to be located. We are not obligated under any agreement to protect or defend its copyrights.

To preserve and enhance the reputation and goodwill associated with our Marks, and to maintain uniform standards of operation for franchisees, you must operate the Franchise in full compliance with the Operations Manual as amended from time to time. You also understand that the Manual and other training and operational aids contain certain proprietary and confidential information and remain the property of us and our affiliates. There will be no duplication or any disclosure of the proprietary and confidential information, except to your employees on a need-to-know basis, and you must take all reasonable precautions prescribed from time to time by us to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of proprietary information of us and our affiliates. You must keep copies of the Manual current by inserting the updates furnished by us on an ongoing basis, and, in the event of any dispute as to Manual's contents, our master copy shall control.

ITEM 15. OBLIGATION OF FRANCHISEE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

We require the majority owner of the Franchisee entity to be an owner-operator, which means the majority owner must supervise and personally manage the Franchised Business and be involved in its day-to-day operations, as well as marketing efforts.

We require you to have your employees sign a separate written agreement with the Franchisee entity incorporating nondisclosure and noncompetition clauses in a form satisfactory to us, including naming us as an intended third-party beneficiary. An example of an agreement we currently consider satisfactory, including provisions to confirm our ownership of Ideas (as defined in Section 6.c. of the Franchise Agreement) is the Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement attached to the Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit C. The requirement for the Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement between you and your employees, including the provision that makes us an intended third party beneficiary, shall not create an employee or joint employee relationship between us and your employees, nor does it constitute control by us over your employees' conditions of employment.

Franchisee must be a corporation, limited liability company (LLC), or partnership. All owners of the corporation, LLC or partnership must agree jointly and severally to guarantee the obligations of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement and must sign Rider C to the Franchise Agreement (Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations).

ITEM 16. RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You are not permitted to sell, distribute or use any products or other items not approved by us for the uniform operation of all Chefs For Seniors Franchised Businesses. If you have a commercial location, your premises may not be used for any business purpose other than the operation of the Franchised Business as we authorize. We have the right to add additional authorized services and products that you must offer. There are no limits on our rights to make product or service changes.

You are restricted solely to the providing of meal preparation services to individual Clients in their homes. You are expressly prohibited from preparing meals in any location other than in the home of the Client for whom you are preparing meals.

As we authorize, and only in accordance with our specifications and requirements, you may solicit for business, promote the business, and/or offer and sell products authorized under this Agreement through the use of the internet or Social Media.

We may furnish you sample recipes and menus for you to use in your Franchised Business, but you are not required to use them. You may develop your own recipes and menus.

You must not discriminate in your dealings with customers (in the services or products you provide, in the access to your services and products, or by refusing to provide services and products) on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, national origin or disability, and you must comply with our antidiscrimination standards.

We have the right to establish a price floor and ceiling that will apply to your Territory. You have the right, within that floor and ceiling, to determine the prices you charge for your services. If you wish to charge prices either below the floor or above the ceiling, you must obtain our prior written approval.

RECITALS:

A. We operate a franchise company whose franchisees conduct businesses under our trademarks and service marks “Chefs for Seniors,” plus logos, designs, and such other trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols (“Marks”) as we may authorize from time to time. The franchised businesses (“Franchised Businesses”) will be operated in accordance with our required formats, systems, methods of distribution, standards and procedures, and trade dress, all of which we may improve, further develop or otherwise modify from time to time (“System”).

B. Our Franchisees, themselves or through hired chefs (“Chef”), plan and prepare menus with their elderly Clientele (“Clients”), which are customized to their unique tastes and dietary concerns. The Franchisees meet with their Clients according to a schedule determined by the Franchisee and the Client, typically weekly, bi-weekly, or as needed. The day the Franchisees meet with their Clients is called the “Service Day.” On the Service Day, the Chef shops at a local grocery store and purchases all necessary ingredients to prepare the menu items for the Client. The Chef takes those ingredients, along with a “toolbox” of kitchen equipment, into the Client’s home and prepares make-ahead meals during a two (2)-hour visit. While in the home, the Chefs provide companionship and make the experience enjoyable for the Client. Once the meals are prepared, the Chef packages them in containers, labels them, and stores them in the Client’s refrigerator and/or freezer. Then, the Chef plans the Client’s menu for the following Service Day.

You may not at any time copy any part of the Operations Manual, or remove any Manual from your Business Address.

5. MARKS.

- a. Ownership and Goodwill of Marks. Your right to use the Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to the conduct of business pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable specifications, standards and operating procedures we prescribe from time to time during the Term. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by you shall constitute an infringement of the rights of Franchisor in and to the Marks. At our sole option, we may pursue the remedies available under trademark counterfeiting laws, in addition to or instead of trademark infringement. You agree that your usage of the Marks and any goodwill established thereby shall inure to the exclusive benefit of Franchisor, and you acknowledge that this Agreement does not confer on you any goodwill or other interests in the Marks. You shall not, at any time during the term of this Agreement or after its termination or expiration, contest the validity or ownership of any of the Marks or assist any others in contesting the validity or ownership of any of the Marks. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Marks shall apply to any additional trademarks, service marks, logo forms and commercial symbols hereafter authorized for use by and licensed to you pursuant to this Agreement.

b. Limitations on Use of Marks. You agree to use the Marks as the sole identification of the Franchised Business, provided that you shall identify yourself as the independent owner thereof in the manner we prescribed. You shall not use any Mark as part of any corporate or trade name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, nicknames, terms, designs or symbols, or in any modified form (including any local or special adaptations or artistic variations of any of the Marks), nor may you use any Mark in connection with the sale of any unauthorized product or service or in any other manner not expressly authorized in writing by us. You agree to display the Marks prominently and in the manner we prescribed on signs, forms, and other materials and articles. Further, you agree to give such notices of trademark or service mark ownership or registration and copyrights as we specify and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law. Any and all uses of any of the Marks shall include such information and samples as we may require. You may not use “Chefs For Seniors” or a derivative thereof in its corporate, assumed, or other formal name.

c. In the event we deem it advisable, you shall file for and maintain a “certificate of trade name” in the county or other appropriate jurisdiction in which your Franchised Business is located. d. Notification of Infringements and Claims. You shall notify us immediately in writing of any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of any Mark, or claim by any person other than us or our Affiliates of any rights in any Mark or any similar trade name, trademark, or service mark of which you become aware. You shall not communicate with any person other than Franchisor and their counsel in connection with any such infringement, challenge or claim. We have sole discretion to take such action as they deem appropriate and to control exclusively any litigation, U. S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or any other administrative proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any Mark. - e. Discontinuance of Use of Marks. If it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole discretion, for Franchisor and/or Franchisee to modify or discontinue use of any Mark, and/or use one or more substitute trademarks or service marks, you agree to comply therewith, at your expense, within a reasonable time after notice thereof by us. We are not obligated to reimburse you for your expenses of complying with these obligations.
- f. Indemnification of Franchisee. We agree to indemnify you against and to reimburse you for all direct, but not consequential (including loss of revenue and/or profits), damages for which you are held liable in any proceeding arising out of the use of any Mark pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement, and for all costs you reasonably incur in the defense of any such claim brought against you or in any such proceeding in which you are named as a party, provided that you have timely notified us of such claim or proceeding and have otherwise complied with this Agreement, and that we shall have the right to defend any such claim. If we defend such claim, we shall have no obligation to indemnify or reimburse you with respect to any fees or disbursements of any attorney you retain.

6. PROPRIETARY INFORMATION.

- a. The Proprietary Information. We possess certain proprietary information, some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law (“the Proprietary Information”) relating to developing and operating Chefs For Seniors Franchised Businesses, including:

Territory designation criteria;

training and operations materials;

methods, formats, specifications, standards, systems, procedures, sales and marketing techniques, knowledge, and experience used in developing and operating Chefs For Seniors Franchised Businesses;

marketing and advertising programs for Chefs For Seniors Franchised Businesses; knowledge of, specifications for, and suppliers of products and supplies;

Client data and Client lists, including names, addresses and other information;

knowledge of the operating results and financial performance of Chefs For Seniors Franchised Businesses other than your Franchised Business; and graphic designs, proprietary software, and related intellectual property

Any and all information, processes or techniques, which we designate as confidential or proprietary, shall be deemed Proprietary Information. We may disclose the Proprietary Information to you through furnishing Franchisee forms, information regarding development and operation of the Franchised Business, training programs, the Operations Manual, and through guidance furnished to you during the term of this Agreement.

Proprietary Information does not include information, knowledge, or know-how which you can demonstrate lawfully came to your attention before we provided it to you directly or indirectly; which, at the time we disclosed it to you, already had lawfully become generally known in the industry through publication or communication by others (without violating an obligation to us); or which, after we disclosed it to you, lawfully becomes generally known in the industry through publication or communication by others (without violating an obligation to us). However, if we designate any material as Proprietary Information, anyone who claims that it is not Proprietary Information must prove that one of the exclusions provided in this paragraph is fulfilled.

- b. Limitations on Your Use. You acknowledge and agree that you will not acquire any interest in the Proprietary Information, other than the right to utilize the same in the development and operation of the Franchised Business pursuant to this Agreement and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or other agreements between Franchisee and Franchisor or our Affiliates, and that the use or duplication of the Proprietary Information in any other business would constitute an unfair method of competition. You hereby agree that you and your affiliates, officers, directors, partners and all owners of any interest in Franchisee and/or the Franchised Business: (a) will not use the Proprietary Information in any other business or capacity; (b) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Proprietary Information during and after the Term; (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Proprietary Information disclosed in written, visual, electronic, auditory or any other form; and (d) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures we prescribe to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Proprietary Information including restrictions on disclosure thereof to employees and the use of a separate written agreement with employees and agents incorporating nondisclosure and noncompetition clauses in a form satisfactory to us, including naming us as an intended third party beneficiary. In connection with this obligation, you shall notify us of the name and address of each affiliate, officer, director, partner, supervisory employee and owner of Franchisee and shall update such information whenever necessary. Such notification shall contain and have annexed thereto a copy of the written agreement executed by the individual at the time such individual acquires an interest in or becomes associated with or employed by Franchisee, in which such individual consents to be bound by the restrictive covenants contained in said agreement and to our and your enforcement of such covenants. An example of a separate written agreement currently considered satisfactory to us, including provisions to confirm our ownership of Ideas, is the Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement attached to the Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit C. You are solely responsible for making certain that the terms of said Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement are enforceable in your state, and if your legal counsel advises revisions to comply with the laws of the state in which you conduct business, you shall furnish us a copy of the revised document prior to using it with any of your employees. You shall retain all written Confidentiality and Non-competition Agreements with your business records for the time period specified in the Manual or under applicable law. You shall enforce all covenants and give us notice of any breach or suspected breach of which you have knowledge. The requirement for the Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement between Franchisee and its employees, including the provision that makes us an intended third party beneficiary, shall not create an employee or joint employee relationship between us and your employees, nor does it constitute control by us over your employees' conditions of employment. The obligations of Franchisee pursuant to this Paragraph 6.b. shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

- c. Innovations. All ideas, concepts, techniques, and marketing, advertising or other materials ("Ideas") relating to a Chefs For Seniors business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed to be our sole and exclusive property, part of our System, and works made-for-hire for us. To the extent that any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for us, by this paragraph you assign ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to us and agree to take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to evidence our ownership or to help us in this regard. You agree that we shall have the perpetual right to use and authorize other Chefs For Seniors Franchised Businesses to use such ideas, concepts, methods and techniques without further consideration to you.

- d. Client List and Client Data. Client Lists and Client Data are included in "Proprietary Information" as defined in Paragraph 6.a. above. The list of Clients ("Client Lists") that you service during the term of this Franchise Agreement, and the information relating to said Clients ("Client Data") are our Proprietary Information and property. At the expiration or termination of this Franchise Agreement for any reason, you must promptly turn over to us the entire list of Clients and you will make no further use of that list for any purpose whatsoever. You also agree that Client Data is our sole and exclusive property. Your use of Client Data shall be by virtue of this limited license from us. Your license to use the Client Data is limited to the operation of your Franchised Business during the term of this Agreement. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, you will transmit to us, all Client Lists, Client Data and copies thereof.

7. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES.

- a. Independent Contractors. It is understood and agreed by the parties that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, that Franchisee and Franchisor are independent contractors, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either party a general or special agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee or servant of the other for any purpose. You and we agree that no training, assistance or supervision, which we may give or offer to you will defeat our relationship as independent contractors. We will not be liable for damages to any person or property arising directly or indirectly out of your operation of the Franchised Business. We will not be liable for taxes levied upon you or your Franchised Business. You acknowledge our training, guidance, advice and recommendations, your obligations under this Agreement and the standards or specifications we require are imposed not for the purpose of exercising control you or your operations, but rather are for the limited purposes of protecting our proprietary marks, goodwill and brand consistency.

- b. Your Obligations. You shall conspicuously identify yourself in all dealings with Clients, suppliers, and others as the owner of the Franchised Business under a Franchise granted from us, and shall place such notices of independent ownership on such forms, business cards, stationery, advertising and other materials as we may require. We have not authorized or empowered you to use the Marks except as provided by this Agreement, and you shall not employ any Mark in signing any contract, check, purchase agreement, negotiable instrument or other legal obligation without our prior written consent or employ any Mark in a manner that may result in our liability for your indebtedness or obligation.

- c. Negation of Liability. Neither we nor you shall make any express or implied agreements, guaranties or representations or incur any debt in the name of or on behalf of the other or represent that our relationship is other than that of franchisor and franchisee. Neither we nor you shall be obligated by or have any liability under any agreements or representations made by the other. We shall have no liability or obligation for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of your operation of the Franchised Business, whether or not caused by your negligent or willful action or failure to act. We shall have no liability for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, property or other taxes of Franchisee or the Franchised Business.

- d. Costs and Attorneys' Fees. If we incur attorney's fees in connection with collecting delinquent payments from you and/or enforcing compliance with this Agreement (whether or not legal proceedings are filed), you shall reimburse us our reasonable legal fees and costs so incurred. If a claim for amounts owed by you to us is asserted in any judicial proceeding or appeal thereof, the party prevailing in such proceeding shall be entitled to reimbursement of its costs and expenses including reasonable accounting, legal and attorneys' fees.
- e. Governing Law/Consent to Jurisdiction. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other federal law, this Agreement and the Franchise shall be governed by the laws of the State where our Principal Offices are located, without reference to its choice of law principles. You agree that we have the right to institute any action against you to enforce the provisions of this Agreement in any state or federal court of general jurisdiction in the State where our Principal Offices are located, and you irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection you may have to either the jurisdiction or venue of such courts. You further agree that the state or federal courts of general jurisdiction in the State where our Principal Offices are located are the exclusive venues where you may bring litigation. The parties further agree that, in the event of such litigation, they will not contest or challenge the jurisdiction or venue of such courts.
- f. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party irrevocably waives trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by either party.
- g. Limitations of Claims. Except for claims against you concerning the under-reporting of gross revenue and/or the payment of monies due us from you, any and all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the relationship among the parties hereto shall be barred unless an action or legal proceeding is commenced within one (1) year from the date either party knew of the facts giving rise to such claims. In addition, you must give us written notice of at least fourteen (14) days prior to filing litigation. In the event you fail to give said notice, we are entitled to dismissal of the action, without prejudice, and you must reimburse us our costs and expenses incurred in connection with the action.

- h. Waiver of Punitive Damages. Each party irrevocably waives exemplary or punitive damages.
- i. Waiver of Class Action. Franchisor and Franchisee agree that litigation shall be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide, basis, that only Franchisor (and its affiliates and their respective owners, officers, directors, agents and employees, as applicable) and Franchisee (and its affiliates and their respective owners, officers and directors, as applicable) may be the parties to any litigation proceeding described in this Section, and that no such litigation proceeding may be consolidated with any other litigation proceeding involving Franchisor and/or any other person.
- j. Binding Effect. This Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto, and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, assigns and successors in interest.
- k. Modification. This Agreement shall not be modified except by written agreement signed by both Franchisee and Franchisor. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, we may modify the Operations Manual pursuant to Paragraph 4.c.
- l. Construction. The preambles and riders are a part of this Agreement, which constitutes the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no other oral, electronic, or written understandings or agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Provided, however, nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim our representations made in the franchise disclosure document. Except as provided in Paragraph 7.d. (Indemnification), nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity not a party hereto. Except where this Agreement expressly obligates us reasonably to approve or not unreasonably to withhold its approval of any action or request by you, we have the absolute right to refuse any request by you or to withhold our approval of any action or omission by you. The headings of the several sections and paragraphs hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such sections or paragraphs. Any policies that we adopt and implement from time to time, including policies to guide us in our decision-making, are subject to change, are not a part of this Agreement, and are not binding on us. The term “attorneys’ fees” shall include reasonable legal fees, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand or claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce the obligations of this Agreement. The term “Affiliate” as used herein is applicable to any company directly or indirectly owned or controlled by Franchisor, under common control with Franchisor or any principal of Franchisor. References to a “controlling interest” in Franchisee shall mean more than fifty percent (50+%) of the voting control of Franchisee. The term “Franchisee” as used herein is applicable to one or more persons, a corporation, an LLC, or a partnership, as the case may be, and the singular usage includes the plural and the masculine and neuter usages include the other and the feminine. The term “including” means “including but not limited to” and “including, without limitation.” The term “prescribes” means “prescribes from time to time.” This Agreement may be executed in multiple copies, each of which shall be deemed an original. The language of all provisions of this Franchise Agreement shall be construed simply according to its fair meaning and not strictly against the Franchisor or the Franchisee. It is the desire and intent of the parties that the provisions of this Franchise Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent possible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Whenever this Agreement or any related agreement grants, confers or reserves to us the right to take action, refrain from taking action, grant or withhold our consent or grant or withhold our approval, unless the provision specifically states otherwise, we will have the right to engage in such activity at our option taking into consideration our assessment of the long term interests of the System overall. Franchisee and Franchisor recognize, and any court or judge is affirmatively advised, that if those activities and/or decisions are supported by our business judgment, neither said court, said judge, nor any other person reviewing those activities or decisions will substitute his, her or its judgment for our judgment. When the terms of this Agreement specifically require that we not unreasonably withhold our approval or consent, if you are in default or breach under this Agreement, any withholding of our approval or consent will be considered reasonable.

- m. Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence of this Agreement.
- n. Waiver of Collateral Estoppel. The parties agree that they should each be able to settle, mediate, litigate, arbitrate, or compromise disputes in which they are involved with third parties, without having the disposition of such disputes directly affect the contract or relationship between the parties. Franchisor and Franchisee therefore each agree that a decision of a court of law in litigation to which one of them is not a party shall not in any manner prevent the person that was a party to such action from making similar arguments, or taking similar positions, in any action between Franchisor and Franchisee. The parties, therefore, waive the right to assert the principles of collateral estoppel in any action between the parties to this Franchise Agreement so that one party is prevented from raising against the other party to this Franchise Agreement the loss by that party of a similar claim or defense in another action.

19. NOTICES AND PAYMENTS. All notices permitted or required under this Agreement or the Operations Manual must be in writing. Email transmissions are considered written notice, provided that the sender confirms transmission of said email transmission. “Confirming transmission” is accomplished by the sender printing a paper copy showing that the document was sent via email, and upon request by the recipient, furnishing said paper copy to the recipient. Verbal, oral, or in-person communications are not considered effective notice, unless the sender follows up on said communications in writing. Notices shall be deemed delivered (a) at the time if delivered in person; (b) the day of transmission if by email, provided that the transmission is done on a business day during the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Madison, Wisconsin time; otherwise, delivery is the next business day; (c) one (1) business day after being placed in the hands of a commercial courier service for overnight delivery; or (d) three (3) business days after placement in the United States Mail by Registered or Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, postage prepaid and addressed to the parties as follows:

- (a) Name: _____
(b) Postal Address: _____

or at the most current Principal Office address of which the notifying party has been notified. Any required payment or report not actually received by us during regular business hours on the date due (or postmarked by postal authorities at least two (2) days prior thereto) shall be deemed delinquent.

Any notice that we send to you may be sent only to the one (1) person identified above, even if Franchisee has multiple owners. You acknowledge and agree that notice to the person identified above constitutes notice to Franchisee and to all the owners of Franchisee.

20. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS and REPRESENTATIONS. You acknowledge and/or represent the following:

- a. That you accept the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain our high standards of quality and service and thereby to protect and preserve the goodwill of the Marks and the System;
- b. That we are primarily engaged in the business of licensing rights and are not engaged in the business of owning or operating a “Chefs For Seniors Business.”

provided or rights licensed to such persons; and you agree that we and/or our affiliates will be entitled to such profits and consideration; and

g. You further represent to us, as an inducement to its entry into this Agreement, that you have made no misrepresentations in obtaining the Franchise.

21. EXECUTIVE ORDER 13224. To enable us to comply with U.S. Executive Order 13224, you hereby represent and warrant to us that neither Franchisee, nor any of its equity owners, directors, officers, employees, representatives, and agents (collectively, the “Included People”): (a) is, or is owned or controlled by, a suspected terrorist or foreign terrorist, as those terms are used, contemplated, and/or implied in Executive Order 13224, and (b) to the best of your knowledge, has any of the Included People been designated a suspected terrorist or foreign terrorist as those terms are used, contemplated, and/or implied in Executive Order 13224.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made as of _____, 20____. The parties to this Agreement are _____ ("Employer") and _____, an individual ("Employee").

RECITALS:

A. Employer is a Franchisee of Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC ("CFSF"), a Wisconsin Limited Liability Company (LLC), pursuant to a Franchise Agreement ("Franchise Agreement") with CFSF. CFSF is in the business of operating a franchise distribution system related to owning and operating certain Franchised Business under the name "Chefs For Senior" pursuant to the Franchise Agreement. In connection with Employer's business, Employer will be using various techniques, systems, procedures, standards, manuals, data, specifications, and other materials, all of which are considered the proprietary and confidential information ("Proprietary Information") of CFSF.

B. Employer will also develop or acquire the right to the use of important information relating to the identity of its clients, the nature and amount of their purchases, pricing practices, receipts, recipes, menus, the identity of suppliers, sales volumes, costs, expenses and other information. All of the above methods, materials and information are referred to as "Confidential Information."

C. During the course of Employee's employment with Employer, Employee will have access and learn from Employer much or all of the Proprietary Information and the Confidential Information.

D. In light of the above facts and for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Importance of Proprietary Information and Confidential Information. Employee acknowledges that: (a) Employee has learned and/or will learn Proprietary Information and Confidential Information during Employee's employment with Employer; (b) this Proprietary Information and Confidential Information is an important asset of Employer; and (c) it is important to keep the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information confidential in order for Employer to protect its business and to maintain its competitive advantage.

2. Agreement to Maintain Confidentiality. Employee agrees that both during and after the termination of Employee's employment with Employer, Employee will: (a) guard and protect the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information so it does not fall into the hands of Employer's competitors or potential competitors; (b) refrain from using the Proprietary Information or Confidential Information for Employee's own benefit or that of any other person or entity; (c) refrain from disclosing the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information to any other person or entity, unless authorized by Employer. Employee agrees that "use" and "disclosure" of the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information include use and disclosure through memorization, and not only through use or disclosure of written material.

3. Exceptions. Employer agrees that the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information does not include information which Employee can demonstrate came to Employee's attention before Employee learned from Employer or which has become, through disclosure by others, "public domain" information (i.e., information freely available to everyone).

4. Return of Materials. If Employee's relationship with Employer ends for any reason, Employee agrees to immediately return to Employer any of the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information in Employee's possession or under Employee's control.

5. Non-Competition. Employee agrees that in order to guard against the improper use of the Proprietary Information and Confidential Information and to avoid unfair competition with Employer, Employee will not:

a. during the term of this Agreement and for a period of eighteen (18) months following the termination of Employee's employment with Employer, for whatever reason, within the Employer's Franchise Territory or within thirty (30) miles of the outside boundary of Employer's Franchise Territory, or within the territory of any other franchisee of Franchisor or of any company-owned or Affiliate-owned Chefs For Seniors business, or within thirty (30) miles of the outside boundary of the territory of any other franchisee of Franchisor, or of any company-owned or Affiliate-owned Chefs For Seniors business, directly or indirectly, manage, operate, control, be employed by, participate in or be connected in any manner with the ownership, management, control, or operation of Competitive Business. Employer's Franchise Territory is described on which Exhibit A to this Agreement. Employer or CFSF will furnish Employee a list of territories of other franchised, company-owned, and affiliated-owned Chefs For Seniors businesses upon termination of Employee's employment by Employer. The term "Competitive Business" shall mean the preparation of individualized meals either outside or within the home of the Clients, for consumption by the Clients in their homes. "Competitive Business" shall not include commercial restaurants.

b. during the term of this Agreement, and for a period eighteen (18) months following the termination of Employee's employment with Employer, for whatever reason, either directly or indirectly, for Employee's own account, or as an employee, consultant, partner, joint venturer, owner, officer, director or stockholder of any person, firm, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or any other entity or in any other capacity, in any way, assist in soliciting, diverting, taking away or interfering with any of Employer's business, customers, trade or patronage.

c. The Employee agrees the restrictive covenants set forth above should not be construed to prevent Employee from being gainfully employed either in a non-competing business anywhere, or in a competing business that is outside the geographical limitation set forth in paragraph 5.a., or after the restricted time period set forth in paragraphs 5.a and 5.b.

6. Discoveries, Inventions and Improvements. Employee agrees that because of Employee's employment with Employer, Employee may from time to time develop discoveries, inventions, improvements and ideas (collectively called "New Ideas") relating to Employer's business. Employee agrees to disclose Employee's New Ideas to Employer and agrees that any of those New Ideas that are applicable to Employer's business will belong solely to Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC.

7. Remedies. Employee agrees that in order to protect Employer's interests if there is a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, Employer will be entitled to obtain, in addition to any other remedy, a temporary or permanent injunction and consent order for specific performance of this Agreement, without being required to furnish a bond or other security. If an injunction is issued, but is later vacated, Employee agrees to waive any claim for damages as a result of the issuance of the injunction. Employee agrees that if Employee has any claims or causes of action against Employer arising out of Employee's employment with Employer, such claims or causes of action will not constitute defenses to Employer's enforcement of this Agreement. Employee further agrees to indemnify and hold Employer harmless from any loss or expense (including attorney's fees) Employer incurs as a result of Employee's breach of this Agreement.

8. Enforceability. Employer and Employee both agree that if any provision of this Agreement is deemed too restrictive in scope, it will be deemed modified to be enforceable to the greatest extent permitted by law.

9. Third Party Beneficiary. The parties acknowledge and agree that Employer's franchisor, Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC, is an intended third party beneficiary of this Agreement, and accordingly, that said Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC, as well as Employer, shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this Agreement against Employee. Neither this Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement between Employer and Employee, nor this Paragraph 9, which makes Franchisor an intended third-party beneficiary, constitutes control by Franchisor over the Employee's conditions of employment, or creates an employee or joint employee relationship between Chefs For Seniors Franchising, LLC and Employee.

10. Waiver. If at any time with respect to any particular incident or breach, Employer or CFSF does not exercise its rights under this or any similar Agreement, it will not preclude Employer or CFSF from doing so in any same or similar situation that subsequently occurs.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members

Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC

We have audited the financial statements of Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statement of operations and changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

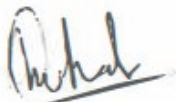

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC 's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC 's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

CHEFS FOR SENIORS FRANCHISING, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. THE COMPANY- Chefs for Seniors Franchising, LLC (“the company”) is a Wisconsin limited liability corporation that was formed in June 2016 to offer franchises to operate as a chef service for elder population. The food is prepared in client’s location and the chef provide companionship and meals.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting-The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under the accrual method, revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when a liability is incurred, without regard to disbursement of cash.

Franchise Arrangements-The Company's franchise arrangements generally include a license which provides for payments of initial fees as well as continuing royalties to the Company based upon a percentage of sales. Under this arrangement, franchisees are granted the right to operate a Sunbleivable Franchise for a specified number of years.

Concentration of Credit Risk-Financial instruments that potentially expose the Company to concentration of credit risk primarily consist of cash and cash equivalents. The balances in the Company’s cash accounts did not exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Company’s (FDIC) insurance limit of $250,000. The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents with accredited financial institutions.

Use of Estimates-The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could vary from those estimates.

Taxes on Income-The Company has elected to be taxed as a limited liability corporation for federal and state income tax purposes. Income and expenses for the Company pass through directly to the member and is reported on its corporate income tax returns.

2. REVENUE RECOGNITION

In May 2014, the FASB issued a new accounting standard ASU No. 2014-09, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)”, that attempts to establish a uniform basis for recording revenue to virtually all industries’ financial statements. The revenue standard’s core principle is to recognize revenue when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration expected to be received for those goods or services. Additionally, the new guidance requires enhanced disclosure to help financial statement users better understand the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of the revenue recorded. The Company adopted the standard commencing as of January 1, 2019, using the retrospective transition method.

The new standard changed how the Company records initial franchise fees from franchisees, and brand development fees. Under Legacy GAAP, franchise fees, which are non-refundable, were recognized as income when substantially all services to be performed by the Company and conditions relating to the sale of the franchise were performed or satisfied, which generally occurred when the franchisee commenced operations.

2. REVENUE RECOGNITION (cont'd)

The new standard requires that the franchise fee received from customers be allocated to performance obligation completed. The following services (“performance obligations”) are typically provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchise location.

- Training of the franchisee’s personnel
- Preparation and distribution of manuals and similar material concerning operations, administration, and record keeping
- Bookkeeping, information technology, and advisory services, including setting up the franchisee’s records and advising the franchisee about income, and taxes or about regulations affecting the franchisee’s business
- Inspection, testing, and other quality control programs.

The transaction price attributable to distinct performance obligations is recognized as the performance obligations are satisfied. The portion of the franchise fee, if any, that is not attributable to a performance obligation is amortized over the life of the related franchise agreement.

4. CONTRACT LIABILITY

In compliance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) new accounting standards for revenue recognition (“Topic 606”), the Company records its non-refundable franchise fees, net of amounts earned based on allowable performance obligations, as deferred revenues, to be recognized over the life of the franchise agreement. The non-refundable franchise fees received but not yet earned as of December 31, 2022, and 2021, were $95,983 and $115,524 respectively.

5. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company evaluates events that have occurred after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements are issued. Based upon the evaluation, the Company did not identify any recognized or non-recognized subsequent events that would have required further adjustment or disclosure in the financial statements. Subsequent events have been evaluated through February 28, 2024, the date the financial statements have been available

The Franchise Disclosure Document is amended by the addition of the following:

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.1000 RCW shall prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in Washington or in a place as mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release of waiver of rights executed by a franchisee shall not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable by a franchisor against an employee of the franchisee unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). Pursuant to RCW 49.62.030, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable by a franchisor against an independent contractor of the franchisee unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or a franchisee or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the Franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until (a) the Franchisor has met all pre-opening obligations that franchisee is entitled to under the franchise agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document and (b) Franchisee is open for business.

The Item 6 disclosure on “Additional Fee if you Transfer to our Existing Prospect” and Section 14.b.ii.(k) of the franchise agreement are deleted as inapplicable.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming any reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

CHEFS FOR SENIORS FRANCHISING, LLC ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

The Item 6 disclosure on “Additional Fee if you Transfer to our Existing Prospect” and Section 14.b.ii.(k) of the franchise agreement are deleted as inapplicable.

Section 14.b.ii(l) is deleted in its entirety.

Section 18.b.ii is revised as follows:

We make no warranties or guaranties ~~upon which you may rely~~, and assume no liability or obligation to you, by granting any waiver, approval or consent to you, or by reason of any neglect, delay or denial of any request therefor.

Section 18.g is revised as follows:

Limitations of Claims. Except for claims against you concerning the under-reporting of gross revenue and/or the payment of monies due us from you, any and all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the relationship among the parties hereto shall be barred unless an action or legal proceeding is commenced within one (1) year from the date either party knew of the facts giving rise to such claims. ~~In addition, you must give us written notice of at least fourteen (14) days prior to filing litigation. In the event you fail~~

~~to give said notice, we are entitled to dismissal of the action, without prejudice, and you must reimburse us our costs and expenses incurred in connection with the action.~~

Exhibit B (“Disclosure Acknowledgement Statement”) is revised to include the addition of the following: “This Acknowledgement Statement does not waive any liability the franchisor may have under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder.

Exhibit I (“General Release”) is revised to include the addition of the following: “This General Release does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder.”

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The State of Washington has imposed a financial condition under which the initial franchise fees due will be deferred until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations under the Franchise Agreement and the franchise is open for business.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming any reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
