What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit “A”.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The license agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by litigation only in Georgia. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to litigate with the franchisor in Georgia than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.’s Agents for Service of Process. A list of our agents for service of process in various states is contained in Exhibit “A” to this Disclosure Document.

Chick-fil-A’s Business: Chick-fil-A’s principal business is the development of a system of retail quick-service restaurants specializing in a boneless breast of chicken sandwich. Most of these restaurants are operated by franchised operators who are independent contractors. Chick-fil-A franchised operators (which include individuals and business entities) are sometimes referred to in this Disclosure Document as “Operators”. Chick-fil-A also operates various Chick-fil-A and other restaurants itself from time to time and may do so in the future directly or through its affiliates and subsidiaries. Chick-fil-A also has granted licenses to Chick-fil-A licensees (“Licensees”) and continues to offer licenses to prospective Licensees who have access to certain non-traditional locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar captive audience locations (“Licensed Sites”) to sell Chick-fil-A brand products at these locations (“Licensed Units”). The limited-menu, quick-service restaurants operated by Chick-fil-A, its affiliates and subsidiaries, its franchised Operators and its Licensees are sometimes referred to in this Disclosure Document as “Chick-fil-A Restaurants.”

Franchised Operator and company and affiliate owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants are established in free-standing locations (“free-standing units”) as well as in non-free-standing locations, including mall and in-line units (sometimes referred to collectively as “mall units”), locations which are drive through only (“drive-thru only units”) and non-traditional locations where Chick-fil-A has direct access to the owners or managers of the location premises and can conduct a restaurant business or concession without the need to utilize Licensees or prospective Licensees (“Captive Venue units”). Mall units are generally located in shopping malls and shopping centers. In-line units are generally located in shopping centers, office buildings and downtown areas. As its name implies, a drive-thru only unit does not provide eat-in, dining room service. Captive Venue units are generally located in office buildings, big-box stores, downtown areas, schools, universities, sports stadiums, theme parks and other similar captive audience locations. Captive Venue units may feature and serve only a limited number of menu items, and may be seasonal or open limited hours. Chick-fil-A offers its franchises to prospective Operators under a different Disclosure Document.

This Disclosure Document addresses and concerns the offering of a license to a prospective Chick-fil-A Licensee. As set forth above, the person who becomes a Chick-fil-A Licensee will be referred to as “you” or “Licensee” throughout this Disclosure Document.

Most Licensees commence operating new Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. Chick-fil-A seeks prospective Licensees on a continuing basis and offers some of them the right to become Licensees depending on their qualifications, and the availability of a suitable Licensed Site or the suitability of the Licensed Site proposed by the Licensee.

The Chick-fil-A[®] Licensed Unit: A Chick-fil-A Restaurant is a limited-menu, quick-service restaurant with its primary product being a boneless breast of chicken sandwich known as a Chick-fil-A[®] Chicken Sandwich. In addition to the Chick-fil-A[®] Chicken Sandwich, menu items at a Chick-fil-A Restaurant include the Chick-fil-A[®] Spicy Chicken Sandwich, Chick-fil-A[®] Grilled Chicken Sandwich, Chick-fil-A[®] Nuggets, Chick-fil-A Chick-n-Strips[®] Cool Wrap[®], Chick-fil-A Waffle Potato Fries[®], salads and soft drinks, as well as hand-spun milkshakes, Chick-fil-A[®] Lemonade and a variety of breakfast items, including our Chick-fil-A[®] Chicken Biscuit, Egg White Grill, Hash Brown Scramble Burrito, Chick-n-Minis[®], and berry parfait items.

Chick-fil-A's relationship with its Licensees is governed and defined by a written license agreement which is referred to in this Disclosure Document as a "License Agreement". Chick-fil-A Licensed Units are established in existing facilities such as cafeterias and food courts or operated from custom facades, counter areas or other retail facilities located in Licensed Sites to which you have access or control. You may own a Licensed Site, or lease a Licensed Site from a third party, and operate the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit directly ("Self-Operators"). Alternatively, you may provide food service at a Licensed Site through a contractual arrangement with the owner or lessee (a "Third Party") of the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit as part of providing such food service to the Third Party at the Licensed Site ("Food Service Providers"). If you act as a Food Service Provider, you may utilize persons in the operation of the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit who are employees of the Third Party. In such instances, you will be subject to certain additional requirements under the License Agreement for Food Service Providers to which Self-Operators are not subject. Other than these additional requirements for Food Service Providers, which are discussed in this Disclosure Document, the terms of the License Agreement signed by Food Service Providers and the terms of the License Agreement signed by Self-Operators are the same. Both the License Agreement for Self-Operators and the License Agreement for Food Service Providers are attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibits "B-1" and "B-2," respectively. Unless otherwise noted in this Disclosure Document, the term "License Agreement" includes both of these versions of the License Agreement and the term "you" includes both Self-Operator Licensees and Food Service Provider Licensees.

In order to become a Licensee, you will be required to sign a License Agreement (Exhibits "B-1" and "B-2") and agree to operate your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit in full compliance with Chick-fil-A's standards and specifications. You will initially be licensed to operate a single Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Once you begin operating your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, Chick-fil-A may offer you the opportunity to operate one or more additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units at the same or a different Licensed Site. Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate an additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and reserves the right to never offer you the opportunity to operate an additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. The terms and conditions for operating any additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit offered to you by Chick-fil-A after your first Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, if any, will be governed by your License Agreement or, alternatively as a condition of Chick-fil-A's approval, a new, separate, then-current form of License Agreement for each such additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, and the payment of an initial license fee for each such additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, if Chick-fil-A generally requires prospective licensees to pay an initial license fee in executing its then-current License Agreement.

Although Chick-fil-A, its franchised Operators and its Licensees market Chick-fil-A brand products broadly, we find that the typical Chick-fil-A customer is in the 18-44 age group. We believe that the market for Chick-fil-A products in the broader Sunbelt region from Pennsylvania south through Texas is relatively developed. The market for Chick-fil-A brand products is developing in other parts of the United States. As a general matter, sales of Chick-fil-A brand products are not seasonal. However, you may experience higher or lower sales during certain seasons of the year depending on the nature of the business or other activities conducted at the Licensed Site at which your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit is located.

Applicable Laws and Regulations. Your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit will be subject to laws, rules and regulations affecting businesses generally. You will be required to comply with all such laws, rules and regulations that apply to businesses generally, including, without limitation, public health laws, tax laws and regulations, labor, employment and wage and hour laws and regulations, insurance laws and regulations, privacy laws, regulations, and industry standards, business licensing requirements, immigration and homeland security laws, restrictions against smoking in public places and restaurants, the public posting of notices regarding nutritional information, health hazards, fire safety, general emergency preparedness, rules regarding the proper use, storage and disposal of waste materials, insecticides, and other hazardous materials, standards regarding employee health and safety, sexual harassment laws and any other federal, state and local regulations and ordinances which may be in effect. As a food service business, your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit may be subject to additional laws, rules and regulations regulating the storage, preparation, packaging, labeling and sale of food and beverages to the public, food safety, refuse and sanitation standards and procedures for waste materials and packaging, nutritional claims or other types of advertising, menu or product labeling or information, and the use or maintenance of equipment involved in the preparation of frozen drinks and other products. You must ensure that your computerized point-of-sale systems (the "POS Systems") and your credit card processing terminals (whichever are responsible for processing credit card transactions) are in compliance with the most current Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards ("PCI-DSS"). You also must comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations relating to the collection, use, and security of personal information and comply with any privacy policies or data protection and breach response policies we periodically may establish. It is your responsibility to comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations that may affect your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, and to obtain and comply with all licenses and licensing requirements necessary for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit to open and operate. We encourage you to investigate and make inquiries regarding all these laws.

Competition. You will compete with other quick-service restaurants located near your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, including possibly other Chick-fil-A Restaurants (including other Licensed Units) located in or marketing in the geographic vicinity of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, as well as any other quick-service restaurants or other food service operations located at the Licensed Site at which your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit is established. Primary competition for Licensed Units is from franchised and other food service operations located at the Licensed Site in which your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit may be located. In some cases, competition may also arise from other restaurants and food service operations located outside of the immediate premises of your Licensed Site. These restaurants and food service operations may be associated with national or regional chains (whether or not franchised) or may be local, independent or institutional restaurant locations.

Prior Business Experience: S. Truett Cathy, the Founder of Chick-fil-A, opened his first restaurant, the Dwarf Grill, in Hapeville, Georgia, in April 1946. Item 3

LITIGATION

David Stephens and Kaitlyn Strawn, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., (Case No. 1:23-cv-00964, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia). On March 6, 2023, two Chick-fil-A brand restaurant customers filed a complaint against Chick-fil-A alleging that we failed to properly secure and safeguard the personally identifiable information (“PII”) of users of Chick-fil-A’s One program and their PII was compromised as a result of an automated cybersecurity attack that impacted Chick-fil-A One members’ accounts between December 18, 2022 and February 12, 2023 (the “Data Incident”). The complaint also alleged that Chick-fil-A issued a statement assuring customers that the fraudulent activity on their accounts was not the result of a compromise of Chick-fil-A’s internal systems and waited too long to notify affected customers. Plaintiffs asserted claims against Chick-fil-A for negligence, breach of implied contract, negligence per se, and violations of Georgia’s Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act. Plaintiffs bring their claims on behalf of themselves and a putative class of similarly situated Chick-fil-A brand restaurant customers. Plaintiffs sought class certification, equitable relief, injunctive relief, monetary damages, interest, and further relief. On June 2, 2023, the original two Plaintiffs and a third new Plaintiff, who was also a Chick-fil-A brand restaurant customer, filed an amended complaint essentially alleging the same claims and seeking the same relief as set forth in the original complaint. On July 3, 2023, Chick-fil-A moved to compel arbitration of Plaintiffs’ claims in the amended complaint. The parties agreed to settle the case on an individual basis (not a class basis) to minimize potential litigation expense and distraction. On November 19, 2023, the parties entered into a Confidential Settlement Agreement and Release under which Chick-fil-A agreed to pay in total $210,000, which included a payment of $2,500 to each of the five Plaintiffs (i.e., the three Plaintiffs named in the amended complaint plus two additional Plaintiffs identified by Plaintiffs’ counsel during the course of the litigation), with the remainder of the settlement funds covering Plaintiffs’ counsel’s fees and expenses. In exchange, Plaintiffs provided a full release of all claims relating to the Data Incident and a covenant not to sue, and the three Plaintiffs named in the amended complaint agreed to dismiss their claims with prejudice. On December 7, 2023, the three named Plaintiffs filed a notice of voluntary dismissal with prejudice and the case was dismissed with prejudice.

Mayheu v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., No. 2022CV365400, Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, filed on May 24, 2022, as amended on June 7, 2022, August 5, 2022 and September 29, 2023 (consolidating class action complaint to add other plaintiffs) (the “Mayheu Action”).

Pittman and Ukpere v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., No. 1:21-cv-8041, United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (appealed to the Second Circuit as Case No. 22-1862), filed on September 28, 2021, as amended on December 13, 2021 (the “Pittman Action”).

Ukpere v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., No. 2:22-cv-5397, United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, filed on September 2, 2022; removed from the Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex County, Case Number MID-L-003792 (collectively, the “Ukpere Action”).

Goldstein v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., No. 1:22-cv-21897, United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, filed on June 21, 2022, as amended on August 11, 2022; removed from the Circuit Court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida, Case No. 2022-009265-CA-01 (collectively, the “Goldstein Action”).

Ortega v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., No. 2:21-cv-845, United States District Court for the Eastern District of California, filed on May 10, 2021, as amended on November 15, 2021; removed from Sacramento Superior Court, Case No. 34-2021-00296245 (collectively, the “Ortega Action”).

Chick-fil-A is a defendant in five different putative class actions brought on behalf of persons who made a Chick-fil-A delivery order through the Chick-fil-A mobile application (the “Chick-fil-A App”) or website between November 1, 2019 and April 30, 2021 from a Chick-fil-A restaurant location in the states of Georgia, Florida, New York, New Jersey, and California. Plaintiffs claim that Chick-fil-A misrepresents the cost of delivery by charging a delivery fee and not disclosing that menu prices for delivery are higher than in-store prices. Chick-fil-A denied any liability with respect to these cases and the claims being asserted. Only Chick-fil-A has been sued in these lawsuits; no franchisees have been named as defendants. On July 7, 2023, the plaintiffs and Chick-fil-A entered into a proposed Class Action Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement Agreement”). The Pittman Action, the Ukpere Action, the Goldstein Action, and the Ortega Action were consolidated with the Mayheu Action for settlement purposes on September 29, 2023. In the consolidated complaint filed in the Mayheu Action, Plaintiffs assert claims for the following: negligent misrepresentation (on behalf of all classes), violation of Georgia’s Unfair Business Practices (on behalf of a Georgia class), violation of New York Consumer Fraud Act (on behalf of a New York class), violation of New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act (on behalf of a New Jersey class), violation of Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (on behalf of a Florida class), violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law (on behalf of a California class), violation of California’s Consumer Legal Remedies Act (on behalf of a California class), and violation of California’s False Advertising Law (on behalf of a California class). All plaintiffs in the Actions seek actual and statutory damages and declaratory judgments. On September 29, 2023, a Settlement Agreement was submitted to the court in the Mayheu Action along with an Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Proposed Class Action Settlement, which the court granted on October 2, 2023, preliminarily approving the proposed class action settlement and conditionally certifying a class and five geographically based subclasses for settlement purposes only. On February 1, 2024, the parties on behalf of themselves and the members of the settlement class and subclasses applied for an order finally approving the Settlement Agreement and made application for the award of attorneys’ fees, costs and service awards. A Fairness Hearing for Final Approval was held on February 29, 2024, and the court in the Mayheu Action entered an Order Granting Final Approval of the Proposed Class Action Settlement on the same day. Once the Settlement Agreement becomes effective pursuant to its terms, each member of the settlement class and settlement subclasses will be deemed to have released Chick-fil-A for the claims, Chick-fil-A will pay the remaining funds owed (for a total of $4,400,000) into a settlement fund. From that fund, class counsel will be awarded $880,000 in requested attorneys’ fees and $15,579.32 in requested litigation costs, approved administrative costs will be paid, and the lead plaintiffs will receive service awards of $5,000.00 each. In addition, from the fund, the claims administrator will make payments of $29.25 to those class members who submitted valid claim forms and elected cash payments, and the remainder of the settlement fund will be distributed to Feeding America or Hunger Initiative (as directed by Chick-fil-A). Finally, the claims administrator will also provide a list of class members who submitted valid claim forms and elected gift card payments to Chick-fil-A, and Chick-fil-A (through CFA Servco) will distribute electronic gift cards to each in the amount of $29.25.

Other than these actions, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item

Item 4

BANKRUPTCY

On February 17, 2020, Pier 1 Imports, Inc. (“Pier 1”), having a principal place of business at 100 Pier 1 Place, Fort Worth, Texas 76192, filed a petition under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (In re Pier 1 Imports, Inc., Petition #: 20-30805-KRH). Pier 1 is not the franchisor nor an affiliate of the franchisor. Cheryl Bachelder, who joined our Board of Directors in April 2019, had served as Interim Chief Executive Officer of Pier 1 from December 2018 through November 2019. Pier 1 closed its stores and liquidated its assets and is in the process of distributing the proceeds to creditors in accordance with the priorities in the Bankruptcy Code. The matter is still pending.

Other than this action, no bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Item 5

Our affiliate CFA Supply may be your distributor for all or some of these items if you are in a location CFA Supply services. If CFA Supply is your distributor, the payments you will make to CFA Supply for any of the opening inventory of food products, ingredients, and supplies are estimated to range from approximately $15,000 to $65,000, but will not be due until after your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit opens.

Notes:

- The preceding table describes the costs of initial investment for a Licensed Unit operated by a Self-Operator and a Food Service Provider, including the custom facades, counter areas, or other retail facilities. Chick-fil-A Licensed Units are established in existing facilities such as cafeterias and food courts or operated from other facilities located at Licensed Sites to which you have access. Thus, certain expenses, such as security deposits, cost of insurance and lease or sublease payments cannot be estimated by Chick-fil-A and may vary greatly among Licensees. You should consider these expenses in addition to those described in the table above in deciding whether to become a Licensee.

2. Licensees do not purchase all of their Opening Inventory and Supplies from Chick-fil-A or designated suppliers, Licensees do not provide Chick-fil-A with their total costs for these items, and Licensees' actual costs are likely to vary greatly. Accordingly, Chick-fil-A does not know the actual amounts spent by its Licensees on these items and can only provide an estimate of these costs based on its own experience. Chick-fil-A's estimate is based on its own experience in establishing similar operations.
3. Chick-fil-A sometimes sells equipment to its Licensees. You will be required to purchase certain proprietary and other equipment from Chick-fil-A or a Chick-fil-A approved supplier for use at your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s). Chick-fil-A has based this estimate on its own experience in establishing similar operations.
4. Licensees' build-out costs are only an estimate and vary greatly depending upon a variety of factors, including the particular location of the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Chick-fil-A has based this estimate on its own experience in establishing similar operations.
5. Prior to opening the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and upon any renovation or remodeling of the Licensed Unit, you will be required to obtain architectural and other applicable construction drawings from third parties.
6. In addition, Chick-fil-A estimates that you will need additional funds for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. This estimate reflects the costs you can expect to pay in your first three months of operation and includes your expenses, as well as the cost of repairs, maintenance and utilities. Please note that, because several Licensees operate multiple concepts and food service operations at their Licensed Site(s), you may experience costs that are different than the level of expenditures set forth above. Chick-fil-A has based this estimate on its own over 50 years of experience in establishing similar operations. The exact amount required for additional funds will vary from operation to operation and cannot be estimated with certainty for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Approved Supplies and Suppliers: Chick-fil-A has an interest in the proprietary seasoning used in the preparation of certain Chick-fil-A brand chicken products. Chick-fil-A purchases the seasoning from the producers of the seasoning and has it shipped directly to Chick-fil-A's authorized or approved poultry suppliers. These poultry suppliers then apply the seasoning to most of the chicken products sold to the Licensees. Payments to Chick-fil-A for the proprietary seasoning are received from the poultry supplier when the chicken is sold to Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s). Currently, Chick-fil-A is receiving payments of approximately $.06 per pound of seasoned chicken, which amount includes a payment to Chick-fil-A for its proprietary interest in the seasoning, and which amount may vary and otherwise change due to among other things food costs and product initiatives.

Chick-fil-A also has an interest in the proprietary seasoned coater used in the preparation of most Chick-fil-A brand chicken products. The seasoned coater is purchased by Chick-fil-A from the producer and is shipped directly to Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s). Payments to Chick-fil-A for the proprietary seasoned coater are received from the distributor(s) of the seasoned coater when the seasoned coater is purchased by the distributor(s) from Chick-fil-A. The distributor(s) then sells the seasoned coater to the Licensees. Your cost for the seasoned coater depends on a pricing formula that includes a markup by Chick-fil-A that may change. Based upon the cost of ingredients to Chick-fil-A (including any freight charges paid to the producer) your cost will fluctuate.

Our affiliate CFA Supply is a distributor approved to carry food products, ingredients, and supplies for franchised, licensed, and company and affiliate owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants. CFA Supply may be the only approved primary distributor serving the geographic area in which it operates. CFA Supply began operations in July 2019. If your Licensed Unit is in a location CFA Supply services, your cost for the food products, ingredients, and supplies depends on a pricing formula CFA Supply determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that includes, among other factors, a distribution fee and an allowance for fuel and freight costs from the CFA Supply warehouse to the Licensed Units and Chick-fil-A Restaurants it will supply.

Our affiliate Bay Center produces Chick-fil-A branded lemon juice that is a proprietary principal ingredient used to produce proprietary Chick-fil-A branded lemonade. Bay Center is an approved supplier to supply lemon juice to Chick-fil-A Restaurants in geographic areas where it operates. Bay Center may be the only approved supplier of lemon juice for the geographic area where it operates. Bay Center began operations in 2020. The lemon juice is purchased by Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s) from Bay Center and is shipped by Bay Center directly to Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s). The distributor(s) pays Bay Center for the proprietary lemon juice when the lemon juice is purchased by the distributor(s). The distributor(s) then sells the lemon juice to the Licensees. If your Licensed Unit is in a location Bay Center supplies your cost for the lemon juice depends on a pricing formula Bay Center determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that includes a markup by Bay Center that may change. Based upon the cost of ingredients to Bay Center (including any freight charges) your cost will fluctuate.

Chick-fil-A reserves the right to require you to purchase the signage, fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment and other features of the building or premises of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit from suppliers approved in advance by Chick-fil-A. With respect to your initial Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, Chick-fil-A may exercise its right by delivering written notice to you promptly upon the execution of the License Agreement by Chick-fil-A. With respect to any additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units granted after your initial Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, if any, Chick-fil-A may exercise its right by delivering written notice to you promptly after approval of the additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) as indicated on the site description form for such additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s). Chick-fil-A may appoint as many or as few approved suppliers as it reasonably deems appropriate and such approved suppliers may in some instances include or be limited to Chick-fil-A.

Except as Chick-fil-A may otherwise approve in writing in advance, you must purchase all of the following items from suppliers who are approved in advance by Chick-fil-A: all present and future items of food and drink, all items of non-food inventory intended for sale to or use by your customers, all ingredients, food products, produce, mixes, spices, cooking aides, wrappings, food and beverage containers, certain other designated items necessary for maintaining and cleaning your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, certain proprietary marketing and promotional materials and other items bearing our trademarks, and all other items necessary or optional for preparing products sold in your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and all bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, coffee lids, napkins, cartons, utensils, customer goodwill items and other food and beverage containers and customer convenience items that display one or more of Chick-fil-A's proprietary marks or that are sold or used in at least 25% of the then existing Chick-fil-A Restaurants and other facilities selling any or all of Chick-fil-A's then-approved products even if such items do not display any of Chick-fil-A's proprietary marks. Chick-fil-A may appoint as many or as few approved suppliers as it reasonably deems appropriate and such approved suppliers may in some instances include or be limited to Chick-fil-A. You may not buy from any supplier that we have not yet approved in writing, and you must stop buying from any supplier who we approve initially, but later disapprove. For purposes of this Item 8, a “supplier” may be a manufacturer, distributor or wholesale/retail establishment which carries the product. A “manufacturer” makes the product or provides the service; a “distributor” acquires the product from the manufacturer and ships the product to you.

In order to, among other things, take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing, Chick-fil-A negotiates and enters into certain system-wide purchase and distribution arrangements with suppliers for many supplies, ingredients, food and beverage products, produce and other items and services used in, or in connection with the operation of, Chick-fil-A Restaurants including Licensed Units. Among its approved suppliers, Chick-fil-A encourages and reserves the right to require its Licensees to use its system-wide purchase and distribution programs for their purchases of most supplies, ingredients, food and beverage products, produce, other items and services necessary for operating and promoting a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. When considering whether to approve any particular supplier or to enter into any particular arrangement, Chick-fil-A considers, among other things, the following factors: whether the supplier can show, to our reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our then-current standards and specifications; whether the supplier has adequate quality controls and capacity to meet the Chick-fil-A system’s needs promptly and reliably; and whether the supplier’s approval or the particular supplier arrangement would enable the Chick-fil-A system as a whole, in our sole and exclusive business judgment, to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing.

In some circumstances, for example with respect to certain produce, bread and other product purchases for some Chick-fil-A Licensed Units located in some geographic areas, we may require that you make such purchases locally. Under these circumstances, we may require that you seek local suppliers for perishable items like as bread and produce, but we reserve the right to approve your sources for these items in accordance with our then-current standards and specifications.

We have not adopted specific criteria to evaluate or approve alternative suppliers for the goods and services which you must purchase from Chick-fil-A-approved sources. We deal with requests for approval of alternative suppliers of goods on a case-by-case basis. If we receive requests for alternative suppliers for items that are not Chick-fil-A trade secret items or items that do not use our trademarks, we will provide a Licensee the standards and specifications for the item and will consider permitting sourcing from alternative suppliers consistent with the standards and specifications. However, we reserve the right to designate only one supplier or a limited number of suppliers for certain items (including, without limitation, the physical distribution of products, soft drinks, ingredients, etc.) in order to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing. We also reserve the right to not approve or disapprove any supplier if, among other things: (1) the supplier cannot show, to our reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our then-current standards and specifications; (2) the supplier cannot show, to our reasonable satisfaction, adequate quality controls and capacity to meet the Chick-fil-A system’s needs promptly and reliably; or (3) Chick-fil-A determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that the supplier’s approval would impact negatively upon the Chick-fil-A system’s ability, as a whole, to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing. Finally, we reserve the right to conditionally approve a supplier or to limit our approval of a supplier to certain products, restaurants or circumstances.

We stock certain non-proprietary items such as small wares and operating supplies, utensils and other goods which are made available to you for your convenience. We also stock certain proprietary items, including marketing and promotional materials and other items bearing our trademarks, and other proprietary items which we may make available to you for your convenience, and are used by you in local advertising, marketing and promotions, and in your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Though we are not the sole authorized supplier of most of these items, you are likely to purchase them from us for convenience and/or price savings. Currently, the cost to Licensees for warehouse goods is our cost plus approximately 2.5%, which amount may include a payment to Chick-fil-A for a portion of its costs associated with the processing and storage of the goods and shipping the goods from the supplier to Chick-fil-A’s warehouse. Licensees are also charged for the shipping costs from our warehouse to their Licensed Units. Chick-fil-A may change the warehouse program, and any associated costs and charges to Licensees, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment. You also may or may not receive from us a rebate on your purchase of some beverage products (and possibly other products in the future).

We and our affiliates are currently the only approved suppliers of certain products and services and approved suppliers of other products and services, as described above, to both Licensees and Operators. These products and services include proprietary seasoning, proprietary seasoned coater, distribution services, and certain proprietary equipment and other items. We and our affiliates are also currently the only approved suppliers of certain products and services and approved suppliers of other products and services for our Operators, which include premises leases, sublicenses of non-traditional unit concession premises, subleases of food trucks, leases of marketing assets, equipment, furniture and fixtures, business services, small wares, utensils, operating supplies, promotional goods, advertising support and services, and certain insurance coverages for which premiums are paid to Chick-fil-A or through Chick-fil-A acting as administrator (which do not include worker's compensation insurance, general liability insurance, auto liability, and employment practices). We may change our approved suppliers and sole approved supplier designations at any time in the exercise of our sole and exclusive business judgment. We and our affiliates may in the future be an approved supplier or designated sole supplier for any additional or different products or services you may or must purchase. As an approved supplier or designated sole supplier, we and our affiliates may obtain revenue from you and make a profit.

In the year ended December 31, 2023, our total consolidated revenues from (i) Operator and Licensee purchases of the proprietary seasoning, seasoned coater, business services and operating supplies, utensils, and promotional goods, and (ii) Operator leases of the premises, sublicenses of Captive Venue unit concession premises, subleases of food trucks, leases of marketing assets, equipment, furniture, and fixtures was $1,712,086,073 or 21.70% of our total consolidated revenues of $7,888,050,587. We did not offer advertising and support services to Operators for a fee in 2023 and did not have any revenue for providing those services in 2023. In 2023, our affiliate CFA Supply, an approved distributor to carry food products, ingredients, and supplies to Chick-fil-A Restaurants, received $1,092,371,226 from purchases made by Operators and Licensees in geographic areas it serviced which is included in our consolidated revenues. In 2023, our affiliate Bay Center received $151,696,356 (not including any markup added by the distributor(s) at the time of resale) from purchases made by Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s) for distribution of lemon juice to Operators and Licensees in geographic areas it serviced which is included in our consolidated revenues.

We estimate that your total purchases and leases from approved or designated suppliers will represent approximately 50% to 80% of your overall purchases and leases in operating your Licensed Unit and 30% to 67% of your overall purchases and leases in establishing your Licensed Unit. The national advertising fund we administer also receives contributions from certain designated suppliers of up to approximately 33% of Operator purchases from these suppliers. Chick-fil-A may receive forms of compensation directly or indirectly from approved or designated suppliers, which compensation may be in lieu of or in addition to the seasoning, coater and national advertising fund contributions and the incentives described above.

Specifications and Standards: The foundation of each Chick-fil-A Restaurant including each Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and the essence of your License Agreement is your adherence to Chick-fil-A's minimum standards, guidelines and specifications. Every component of Chick-fil-A Restaurant's operating system is important to Chick-fil-A and to the operation of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit as a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Accordingly, you must operate your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit in full compliance with Chick-fil-A's minimum standards and guidelines for service, food safety, sanitation, quality of products, employee dress, appearance and conduct and other aspects of the operation of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. These minimum standards and guidelines are specified in Chick-fil-A's orientation and operations manuals and materials, and other confidential information provided by us to you. To meet our standards, you must, among other things, purchase or lease goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, leasehold improvements, insurance and inventory from various suppliers (including, without limitation, Chick-fil-A) in accordance with our standards and specifications.

We review our specifications and standards when necessary, and we release any modified specifications or standards to you when you need to be familiar with them. In order to protect against possible infringement, we will release specifications or standards dealing with trade secrets or proprietary information only to those suppliers we think are necessary. We reserve the right to be the sole designator of any product, ingredient or other item that requires knowledge of any of our trade secrets or other confidential or proprietary information. We have no obligation to release any of our trade secrets, confidential information or other proprietary information to any proposed alternative supplier.

You must also comply with our sales reporting procedures and other administrative standards. These currently require you to submit financial reports and other items to us including Weekly Product Sales Reports, Daily Product Sales Reports and Calendar Month Sales Summary Reports.

There is no practice in effect by which Chick-fil-A provides material benefits to you, such as a right of renewal or the granting of additional licenses, based upon your use of designated or approved suppliers, although your license is subject to termination if you do not use the designated suppliers with whom Chick-fil-A has exclusive contractual arrangements, or you use suppliers not approved by Chick-fil-A.

The requirements described in this Item represent the Chick-fil-A system at the present time. However, Chick-fil-A retains the right to change these requirements, including any single source requirements, as the Chick-fil-A system evolves over time and the needs of the Chick-fil-A system change.

There are currently no buying or distribution cooperatives for Licensees.

FINANCING

Neither Chick-fil-A, nor any affiliate of Chick-fil-A, either directly or indirectly, offers any financing arrangements to Licensees. Chick-fil-A does not receive any direct or indirect payments for placing financing, nor does Chick-fil-A guarantee your obligations to third parties. Chick-fil-A does not offer financing of equipment or other expenditures that require you to waive notice, confess judgment or waive a defense against Chick-fil-A.

Whether you can obtain financing will depend on a variety of factors, including your own creditworthiness, the type of security you can offer, the policies of lending institutions and the availability of commercial credit generally.

Item 11

FRANCHISOR’S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Chick-fil-A is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open your Licensed Unit(s), Chick-fil-A will:

- (i) provide training to two management-level employees (Licensee Orientation), and two on-site management-level employees (Licensee Operational Training) for each Licensed Site (Section 5.1); and
- (ii) provide electronically and lend a copy of the operations, training and orientation manuals and other materials to you. Chick-fil-A charges $500 to replace lost or destroyed manuals (Section 6.5).

During your operation of the Licensed Unit(s), Chick-fil-A will:

- (i) provide electronically and make available a copy of the operations, training and orientation manuals and other materials to you as a guide for operating the Licensed Unit(s) (Section 6.5);

- (ii) in its sole business judgment, may make available to you, from time to time, such additional advice and assistance as you may reasonably request or Chick-fil-A may deem necessary, including assistance or advice regarding the operation of the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s), additional training and sales building (Section 5.2); and
- (iii) at an additional charge, sponsor initial training programs for additional management-level employees (Section 5.1).

If you are granted the right to operate additional Licensed Sites under your License Agreement, for each additional Licensed Site, Chick-fil-A will provide the same assistance as described above.

Advertising: Chick-fil-A is not required to spend any certain amount on advertising in your geographic area or at your Licensed Site(s). Under the License Agreement, Chick-fil-A does not charge you advertising fees or require you to contribute to advertising fees to a local or regional fund. Under the License Agreement, you are required at all times during the term of the License Agreement and at your own cost to use diligent efforts to advance the reputation of Chick-fil-A, and Chick-fil-A's brand products and to develop and enhance consumer awareness of Chick-fil-A's products and proprietary marks. In doing so, you must use only those materials approved or supplied by Chick-fil-A.

Chick-fil-A does not require any expenditures of monies by its Licensees to an advertising cooperative or any advertising fund. As part of Chick-fil-A's local, regional or national marketing efforts, Licensees are required to honor coupons for food items (and some drink items in some locations) at their respective Licensed Units, for which the Licensees may receive food, paper and distribution cost reimbursement from Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A's advertising accounts, if any, are not trust funds and Chick-fil-A is not your fiduciary with respect to any advertising funds. Chick-fil-A is not required to ensure that any Operator or Licensee benefits directly or pro rata from the expenditure of any advertising funds.

Chick-fil-A may, to the extent it is able, assist you in any of the above matters on an informal basis.

Selection of Location: Upon execution of a License Agreement, a prospective Licensee is granted the right to operate a Licensed Unit at a specific Licensed Site location. Your Licensed Site location must be approved by Chick-fil-A prior to you opening your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Additionally, Licensees may be granted the right to operate additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units under the License Agreement at additional Licensed Site locations selected by you and approved by us for which Chick-fil-A does not require that you sign a new, separate then-current form of License Agreement and pay an initial license fee. However, Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate or to approve any additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units and expressly reserves the right not to offer you the opportunity to operate or to approve any additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. For further information on Chick-fil-A's grant of additional Licensed Site locations, see Item 12 below.

Chick-fil-A licenses and continues to offer licenses to prospective Chick-fil-A Licensees from time to time who have access to Licensed Sites, which are locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar locations. Accordingly, you have the sole responsibility to select and must select the Licensed Site for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) and the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site, subject to Chick-fil-A's prior approval. Chick-fil-A's approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site is not a representation that the Licensed Unit(s) operated at the Licensed Site will be profitable or safe for your customers or employees or other personnel of yours or of any Third Party.

Hardware and Software System: Chick-fil-A does not supply, purchase, recommend or require specific computer equipment for Licensees at this time, but reserves the right to do so in the future as set forth in the License Agreement. You must choose to obtain and use a point-of-sale (POS) hardware and software system and a management PC for use in your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Under the License Agreement, we reserve the right to specify and, if we do, you must purchase and use the computers, POS equipment and systems including broadband internet access, credit card, debit card and gift card processing systems, systems which take, process, route and deliver orders or receive payment, and technology for communicating with customers and to collect, process and store customer data at your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit that we specify. Chick-fil-A may provide certain on-line updates, reports and other information to its Licensees from time to time. You will also need to have access to a computer and the Internet in order to obtain this information. For informational purposes only, Chick-fil-A Restaurants typically use a POS system with accompanying software, which perform standard electronic cash register support, kitchen display systems, time clock, and financial and reporting functions. Other hardware and software systems that perform the same or substantially similar functions may be purchased by a Licensee. You may choose to pay a fee to third parties you choose for technical support of the hardware and software system used in your Licensed Unit. With respect to franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurants, such fees range from $9,500 per year to $20,000 per year for high-speed Internet access, equipment support and software upgrades, and are dependent upon the type of system used in the Restaurant.

At present, Chick-fil-A does not plan to have independent access to any data compiled by the hardware and software system used in your Licensed Unit. Under the License Agreement, we may require your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit in the future to transmit POS data and other restaurant system data to us through data reporting systems offered through vendors approved by us. These data reporting systems would collect data from a POS system and other restaurant systems, consolidate the data, and transmit it to us in formats required by us. You may be required to sign an authorization form allowing your data reporting system vendor to release the data to us and to incur costs for the data reporting systems (including set-up and annual fees).

Length of Time to Licensed Unit Opening: You must open your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within 360 days of the approval of the site by Chick-fil-A. It is Chick-fil-A's experience that the typical length of time between the signing of a License Agreement and the opening of the Licensee's Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit is approximately three to nine months. The actual length of this period will depend upon such factors as the length of time necessary for completion of construction, making leasehold improvements and remodeling, installing equipment, fixtures and furnishings, procuring initial inventories and other similar matters, and may vary widely under some circumstances.

Initial Training Program: Chick-fil-A's initial training program for Licensees is comprised of two components, an in-person cultural experience (the "In-Person Cultural Experience") and a virtual training experience ("Virtual Licensee Training").

The In-Person Cultural Experience is comprised of two days of in-person learning at the Chick-fil-A Support Center: Buffington in Atlanta, GA. Attending leaders tour the Chick-fil-A campus, engage in classroom activities and discussions, and learn about Chick-fil-A history, culture, values, and our customer strategies. Chick-fil-A's initial training program for Licensees has various attendance and satisfactory completion requirements. Chick-fil-A, based on its business judgement, may require (i) the highest-level on-site management leader associated with the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit (e.g., a Food Service Director-level leader) (the "Highest-Level Leader"), (ii) the on-site management leader responsible for the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and multiple other concepts (e.g., a Retail Manager-level leader) (the "Multi-Concept Leader"), (iii) the dedicated on-site management leader responsible for the operation of the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit (e.g., the "Retail Manager") (the "Dedicated Chick-fil-A Leader"), and (iv) one additional on-site management leader responsible for the operation of the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit (e.g., the "Food Service Director") (the "Additional Chick-fil-A Leader") to attend and complete to Chick-fil-A's satisfaction the In-Person Cultural Experience.

Satisfactory completion of the two-day In-Person Cultural Experience satisfies the initial training requirement for the Highest-Level Leader and, as applicable, any Multi-Concept Leader of each Chick-fil-A Unit required to attend on behalf of the Licensee. All the other Licensee Leaders, who are required to complete training, must first complete the two-day In-Person Cultural Experience followed by the Virtual Licensee Training, each of which must be completed to Chick-fil-A's satisfaction.

Virtual Licensee Training is conducted via the Zoom video conferencing platform and is broadcast from the Chick-fil-A Support Center: Buffington in Atlanta, GA. Virtual Licensee Training lasts 5 days (see training schedule, below). The actual location, topics and length of the program varies. The program currently utilized by Chick-fil-A covers most aspects of operations, food preparation, accounting, maintenance, purchasing, policies and certain other applicable topics. The training program begins at a specific time and date to be determined by Chick-fil-A. Completing the five-day Virtual Licensee Training is the second of the two initial training requirements for the two solely-dedicated Chick-fil-A Unit Leaders associated with each Chick-fil-A Unit, the Dedicated Chick-fil-A Leader and the Additional Chick-fil-A Leader.

Satisfactory completion of the 2-day In-Person Cultural Experience and the 5-day Virtual Licensee Training will result in initial certification as a Licensee Leader valid for five (5) years from the date of completion of the last certification. As part of the Chick-fil-A Licensee Training requirements, each Licensee Leader required to be trained must be recertified every five years for the Licensee to stay in compliance.

You must, at all times, employ at each Licensed Site the appropriate number of leaders who have completed to Chick-fil-A's satisfaction the Licensee Training Program. Your employees are not employees of Chick-fil-A and will not be compensated by Chick-fil-A for or during any training described in this Item.

The virtual training program is conducted by Chick-fil-A's Licensee training staff, which is directed by Mr. Bill Dunphy. The program's principal instructional materials are the Chick-fil-A digital training resources which include procedures, instructional videos, other materials. Other employees of Chick-fil-A and certain Operator Consultants participate in the training program in their respective areas of expertise. Mr. Dunphy has over thirty years of experience with Chick-fil-A in the restaurant field.

Chick-fil-A waives any tuition fee for the first two employees from each new Licensed site opening to attend the full class consisting of both the 2-day In-Person Experience and the 5-day Virtual Licensee Training program. However, you are responsible for any travel, room, living and other expenses, wages and workers compensation coverage of your employees attending either the 2-day In-Person Experience or, as applicable, the 5-day Virtual Licensee Training program. Chick-fil-A provides no compensation to your employees for attendance at or during any training described in this Item. With respect to new or additional personnel that you send or are required to send to Chick-fil-A's 2-day In-Person Experience only or both the 2-day In-Person Experience plus the 5-day Virtual Licensee Training, you will be required to pay Chick-fil-A tuition in the amount of $250 per employee for the 2-day In-Person Experience only or $400 per employee for both the 2-day In-Person Experience and the 5-day Virtual Licensee Training program.

Licensee Training in all subjects is conducted approximately 8 times each year (2 per quarter). Chick-fil-A intends, though is not obligated, to prepare and offer various seminars and conferences to Licensees from time to time in addition to its initial training program. Discussions at these seminars will likely feature topics such as sales techniques, brand standards, marketing programs, and other matters. All details concerning any such programs, if offered, such as time, location, duration, cost assessment and other matters, will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Chick-fil-A may under the terms of the License Agreement require the participation of Licensees or their designated managers in such programs. Chick-fil-A considers all information distributed at its training programs and seminars to be confidential and subject to the restrictions described under the “Proprietary Information” subheading in Item 14 below.

In addition, Chick-fil-A may at its election, but is not obligated to, offer various programs to or permit the adoption of programs by Licensees to use in promoting or marketing products or for other business purposes that are not expressly set forth in the License Agreement. All details concerning any of these programs, such as purpose, timing, implementation, cost sharing and other matters, will be determined by Chick-fil-A on a case-by-case basis.

After initial ~~virtual~~ training, you must train any managerial personnel that you may hire to assist in operating your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s). Subject to your obligations under the License Agreement regarding confidentiality, you may use Chick-fil-A’s digital training resources and materials in the training.

The total number of pages in the orientation and operations manuals is 165.

TERRITORY

You will be expressly granted the limited right to operate one Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit at one specific Licensed Site location designated by Chick-fil-A. The rights granted to you under the License Agreement are limited to your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit location only. You will neither acquire nor have any right to use, or to license the use of, any name, mark or other intellectual property right, except as granted to you under the License Agreement in connection with the operation of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit at the specific location designated by Chick-fil-A.

You will not receive an exclusive or protected territory, express or implied. The License Agreement contains no exclusive grant, exclusive area, exclusive territorial rights, protected territory or right for you to exclude, disapprove, control or impose conditions on the location, development or operation of current or future Chick-fil-A Restaurants including Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. The sales and customer trading patterns that a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit experiences at any particular time are subject to change by reason of many factors, including our ongoing development of Chick-fil-A Restaurants including Chick-fil-A Licensed Units, and Licensees do not have a right and should not expect that these patterns will never change. Chick-fil-A has the right to establish other Chick-fil-A Licensed Units or Operator-run or company-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants both within and outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit location, and reserves the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing both within and outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit location. During the term of your License Agreement, however, Chick-fil-A will not operate or grant other parties the right to operate any other Chick-fil-A Licensed Units or Operator-run or company-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants at the exact same Licensed Site as the Licensed Site where you operate your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit (or, for example, where the Licensed Site is an airport, at the exact same retail area within the Licensed Site). Any internal policies that we may develop, apply and modify periodically in connection with decisions to develop new Chick-fil-A Restaurants including Chick-fil-A Licensed Units do not grant you any contract rights, are not part of your contract, and do not modify or affect Chick-fil-A's or your contract rights and obligations under the License Agreement. Chick-fil-A's internal programs and policies are subject to change or cancellation at any time by Chick-fil-A.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other licensees or franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Our affiliates may also own and operate Chick-fil-A Restaurants or control competitive brands. We are not required to pay you if we exercise any of the rights specified above outside or inside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your Chick-fil-A Licensed Site. We do not restrict you from soliciting or accepting authorized food and beverage orders from outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your Chick-fil-A Licensed Site (subject to your ability to comply with then-current requirements and standards), but you do not have the right to use other unapproved channels of distribution to make sales outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your Chick-fil-A Licensed Site.

You may not relocate your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit without Chick-fil-A's prior written consent. If you wish to operate a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit in another location instead of the Licensed Site of your existing Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, Chick-fil-A may, but is under no obligation to, allow you to relocate to another Licensed Site to establish another Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit. Licensees who relocate in this manner may be required to execute new License Agreements.

If during the term of the License Agreement, you determine that you would (yourself or through a Third-Party Operator) like to operate additional proposed Chick-fil-A Licensed Units at additional Licensed Sites, you must notify Chick-fil-A promptly of each such proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Site and convey to Chick-fil-A all information about the proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Site requested by Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A shall have the option to reject or tentatively accept the proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Site, pending Chick-fil-A's completion of a site visit and any further investigative activities it deems necessary or appropriate. You must arrange for Chick-fil-A to have access to each proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Site so that Chick-fil-A can conduct an assessment of the Licensed Site. After Chick-fil-A has completed the site visit, you must complete a site description form for the proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Site and submit it to Chick-fil-A for final approval. Chick-fil-A shall have 10 business days from the date it receives the completed site description form to approve or reject the proposed additional Chick-fil-

A Licensed Site. Chick-fil-A may reject your proposal for additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Sites if Chick-fil-A in its sole discretion determines that: (i) the proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Sites are unsuitable for operating Chick-fil-A Licensed Units; (ii) the proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Sites reflect inappropriately on Chick-fil-A or the Chick-fil-A System; or (iii) the lease, facility, use, occupancy or ownership arrangements with respect to the proposed additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Sites do not comply with Chick-fil-A's requirements. However, Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units and reserves the right under Section 3 of the License Agreement not to offer you the opportunity to operate additional Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. As a condition to Chick-fil-A's approval of each proposed additional Licensed Site, Chick-fil-A may require, in its sole discretion, that you: (i) execute a new, separate License Agreement for each such additional Licensed Site; and (ii) pay an initial license fee for each such additional Licensed Site.

Certain affiliates of Chick-fil-A operate certain Dwarf House restaurants and Truett's Grill restaurants, which are licensed to sell Chick-fil-A products. The Dwarf House restaurants are modeled after the Dwarf Grill restaurant first opened by S. Truett Cathy in Hapeville, Georgia, in 1946. (The eighteen Dwarf House and Truett's Grill restaurants that currently exist are, directly or indirectly, owned by the family of our founder, S. Truett Cathy.) Depending on the proximity of a Dwarf House or Truett's Grill restaurant to your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, a Dwarf House or Truett's Grill restaurant may compete with your licensed business.

As described above, Chick-fil-A licenses Chick-fil-A Licensees and continues to offer licenses to prospective Licensees who have access to certain non-traditional locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar captive audience locations to sell Chick-fil-A brand products at these locations. Chick-fil-A also grants franchises to franchised Operators and continues to offer franchises to prospective franchised Operators to operate franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurants as free-standing units, mall and in-line units, drive-thru only units and captive venue units. Captive Venue units may be established at non-traditional locations such as in office buildings, big-box stores, downtown areas, schools, universities, sports stadiums, theme parks and other similar captive audience locations. Depending on the proximity of other Chick-fil-A Licensed Units or other Chick-fil-A Restaurants to your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit or other Chick-fil-A Restaurant may compete with your licensed business. Chick-fil-A has never offered a franchise other than for a Licensed Unit or a franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant in the same or any other line of business, although it reserves the right to do so whether by acquisition or start-up.

Chick-fil-A may operate or license others to operate any business competitive with the business of its Operators and/or its Licensees under a name other than Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A is currently conducting a test of its affiliate New Mile Ventures, LLC's delivery kitchen concept called Little Blue Menu[®] featuring several new virtual restaurants as well as offering Chick-fil-A products. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, Chick-fil-A has not formulated any plans or policies to operate or license others to operate any business under a different name, but Chick-fil-A or its affiliates may establish other or similar businesses at some future date.

As described in Item 13, CFA Properties has licensed to Chick-fil-A the right to use the trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and confidential information, and the right to make, use, offer for sale and sell the inventions of each patent and patent application, in operating Chick-fil-A Restaurants, and to sublicense them to Chick-fil-A's Licensees, under a license agreement. The initial term of the license agreement is one year and then renews automatically for additional one-year periods unless written notice is given at least 90 days prior to the end of the existing term by either party. Either party may terminate the license agreement with cause if the other party fails to cure a material breach. Except as described, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A's right to use or sublicense the use of any CFA Properties patents.

Chick-fil-A has no actual knowledge of any court proceeding or decision, any pending infringement or validity challenge, or any other pending material litigation involving any CFA Properties patent.

Chick-fil-A has the sole right to protect and enforce any or all of CFA Properties' patents at Chick-fil-A's own expense, including the patent assets listed above. CFA Properties may protect its intellectual property by filing applications, including patent applications. Chick-fil-A has the sole right to determine to file a patent application, continue or end prosecution of a pending patent application, and/or to continue or end payment of maintenance fees for any patent. You must notify Chick-fil-A immediately when you learn about possible infringement of a CFA Properties patent and/or inventions of any CFA Properties patent application. The License Agreement does not require Chick-fil-A to take affirmative action when notified of these possible infringements. You must cooperate with us in defending patents, but we have no obligation to pay to you any damages and costs recovered in such a suit or proceeding, nor are we required to participate in your defense in any suit or proceeding involving patents. Upon any termination of your License Agreement, you must immediately cease all use of CFA Properties' patents and/or the inventions of patent applications.

Chick-fil-A does not actually know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of any CFA Properties patent and/or the inventions of patent applications.

Proprietary Information: As also described in Item 13, CFA Properties owns proprietary rights to, and has licensed to Chick-fil-A the right to use and to sublicense others to use, a number of the products that Chick-fil-A sells and the ingredients and preparation techniques and methods used in preparing them, as well as all development and research records, market research data and information contained in Chick-fil-A's operations, marketing or orientation manuals, or other materials or documents given to you by Chick-fil-A or treated by Chick-fil-A as confidential. Chick-fil-A's seasoning and seasoned coater are two of these primary proprietary items.

The License Agreement requires you to acknowledge that you are likely to be given access to Chick-fil-A's trade secrets, confidential information and other proprietary matters, that this information is proprietary and that its protection is necessary for the proficient and standardized operation of all Chick-fil-A Restaurants.

The License Agreement further requires you to agree that you will not, during the time you are operating a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit or at any time afterward, without the express prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, publish or disclose to anyone or use other than as approved or required by Chick-fil-A, any of Chick-fil-A's confidential information that is a trade secret under the License Agreement, including under any mandated definition under laws and decisions of the State of Georgia, or that is a trade secret of CFA Properties under any mandated definition under laws and decisions of the State of Delaware. Trade secrets include information or data of or about Chick-fil-A (including confidential business information, technical or non-technical data, formulas, patterns, compilations, programs, devices, methods, techniques, drawings, processes, financial data, financial plans, product plans, lists of actual or potential licensees and franchised operators, customers or suppliers) that: (a) derives economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and (b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. You must also abide by the same covenant as to Chick-fil-A's other confidential information, but only during the term of your License Agreement and for a period of two years following any expiration or termination of that Agreement (or in the case of your employees who are managers or supervisors of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) during the term of employment and for a period of three years thereafter). If you are a Food Service Provider, you are required to obtain similar covenants from any Third Party involved in the operation of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, the employees of such Third Parties who will be involved in the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and all other persons working in your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit operated by a Third Party.

Except for the license between CFA Properties and Chick-fil-A described above, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A's right to use or sublicense the use of any CFA Properties trade secrets, confidential information and other proprietary matters.

Copyrights: Every CFA Properties original work of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression is protected by copyright law. Chick-fil-A has the sole right to determine whether to register any copyright-protected work. For example, CFA Properties owns copyrights in the orientation and operations manuals and materials as well as video tapes used in training and other items, including, without limitation, certain advertising, promotional and marketing items and materials which CFA Properties has licensed to Chick-fil-A for its own use and to sublicense to others to use.

There currently are no effective determinations of the United States Copyright Office (Library of Congress) or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials. Except for the license between CFA Properties and Chick-fil-A described above, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A's right to use or sublicense the use of any CFA Properties copyrighted materials. Further, there are no infringing uses actually known to us which could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials in any state.

Item 18

PUBLIC FIGURES

Chick-fil-A does not use any public figure to promote its franchises.

Item 19

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

As of December 31, 2023, there were approximately 2,964 domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants open and operating, including approximately 2,552 domestic company-operated and franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants and 412 domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. The domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants which are operated by Chick-fil-A and Chick-fil-A Operators, and their annual sales volumes are not the subject of these Financial Performance Representations.

As of December 31, 2023, all 412 domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units were being operated by independent, franchised Licensees. Approximately 384 of those 412 domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units being operated by Licensees had been open for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2023 and had been operated by Licensees during the entire year. The 384 domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units that had been open for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2023 and their annual sales volumes are the subject of these Financial Performance Representations and discussed below.

In 2023, of the 384 domestic Licensed Units open for at least one full calendar year, 300 Licensed Units are located on college or university campuses. The median annual sales volume of domestic Licensed Units located on college or university campuses that were open at least one year as of December 31, 2023 was $1,110,784 and the average annual sales volume was $1,327,108 with 115 of the 300 or 38% that did as well or better than $1,327,108 in annual sales. The highest and lowest annual sales volume for these college and university Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit locations open for at least one full calendar year in 2023 was $5,618,437 and $220,113, respectively. Approximately 11% of these locations had annual sales volumes less than $500,000; approximately 17% had annual sales volumes between $500,000 and $750,000; approximately 15% had annual sales volumes between $750,000 and $1,000,000; approximately 40% had annual sales volumes between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000; and approximately 17% had annual sales volumes in excess of $2,000,000.

In 2023, of the 384 domestic Licensed Units open for at least one full calendar year, 84 Licensed Units are located at hospitals, businesses, industries or airports. The median annual sales volume of domestic Licensed Units located at hospitals, businesses, industries or airports that were open at least one year as of December 31, 2023 was $2,735,551, and the average annual sales volume was $3,278,264 with 35 of the 84 or 42% that did as well or better than $3,278,264 in annual sales. The highest and lowest annual sales volume for these hospital, business, industry and airport Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit locations open for at least one full calendar year in 2023 was $10,642,104 and $125,154, respectively. Approximately 11% of these locations had annual sales volumes less than $1,000,000; approximately 28% had annual sales volumes between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000; approximately 29% had annual sales volumes between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000; and approximately 32% had annual sales volumes in excess of $4,000,000.

During the calendar year ending December 31, 2023, 4 domestic Licensed Units located on college or university campuses permanently closed, of which 0 had been open for less than 12 months, and 4 domestic Licensed Units located at a hospital, business, industry or airport permanently closed, of which 0 had been open for less than 12 months.

For purposes of the financial performance representations set forth above, the term “annual sales volume” includes a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit’s entire gross receipts (excluding only sales taxes levied upon retail sales and payable over to the appropriate governmental authority) from all sales at, from or related to the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit during the applicable calendar year, whether for cash or on a charge, credit or time basis, including sales and services (i) where orders originate and/or are accepted at or in the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit, or (ii) pursuant to telephone or other similar orders received or filled at or in the Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit.

The financial performance representations set forth above are based upon a total of 385 domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units that were open for at least one year as of December 31, 2023, of which 301 were located on college or university campuses and 84 were located at hospitals, businesses, industries or airports. Both domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units located on college or university campuses and domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units located at hospitals, businesses, industries or airports are similar with respect to their operations and receive similar services from Chick-fil-A. Because domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units located on college or university campuses and domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units located at hospitals, businesses, industries or airports achieve generally different levels of financial performance, financial performance representations have been included for each type of unit in order to provide information relevant to prospective Licensees.

Some Chick-fil-A Licensed Units have sold this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you’ll sell as much.

You are urged to consult with appropriate financial, business and legal advisors in connection with the information set forth in this analysis.

A new Licensee’s individual financial results may differ from the results stated in the Financial Performance Representations for the reasons stated below.

The Financial Performance Representations do not reflect the costs of sales or operating expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. The best source of cost and expense data may be from Licensees and former Licensees, some of whom may be listed in Item 20.

Individual Licensees are likely to experience annual sales volume variations. A Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit’s physical location within any particular geographic area, a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit’s physical location among different geographic areas of the country, the operational skill and the management methods employed by a Licensee, and menu price variations may significantly affect the sales realized in any given operation.

Written substantiation of the data used in preparing the Financial Performance Representations will be made available to you upon reasonable request.

Chick-fil-A may provide you with supplemental information relating to the projected sales of a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit at a specific location (the “Supplemental Information”). Any such Supplemental Information will be in writing and will explain how it differs from the information contained in this Item 19.

Other than the preceding Financial Performance Representations and any Supplemental Information provided to you, as described above, Chick-fil-A does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. With regard to an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Chris Arbery, Officer VP, Legal – Employment, Franchise and Litigation, telephone number (404) 765-8000, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

A list of Licensees and the addresses and telephone numbers of their outlets as of December 31, 2023, is attached as Exhibit “E” to this Disclosure Document. Also included in Exhibit “E” is a list of the names of all Operators and the addresses and telephone numbers of their Chick-fil-A Restaurants as of December 31, 2023. Chick-fil-A owned and operated restaurants are also included in this list and are identified by the designation “TMP.” See Item 1 for description of, and differences between, the franchised Operator-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants and Licensed Units.

A list of the names, city and state, and business telephone number of every Licensee who has had a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit terminated, canceled, not renewed or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily ceased to do business under a Chick-fil-A License Agreement during fiscal year 2023 or who has not communicated with us within ten weeks of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document is attached as Exhibit “F.” If you buy this franchise, your contact information may be disclosed to other buyers when you leave the Chick-fil-A franchise system.

If the license being offered relates to a Chick-fil-A Restaurant that is a company or affiliate-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurant that was previously a franchised Operator owned outlet or Licensed Unit, Chick-fil-A will provide you with a Supplemental Item 20 Disclosure regarding the Chick-fil-A Restaurant's past five years of operation. The Supplemental Item 20 Disclosure will list the name, city and state, and current business phone number of each previous owner of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant during the prior five-year period, the beginning and ending date of each person's respective ownership of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant, the reason for each change in ownership, and when Chick-fil-A retained control of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant.

During the last three years, we have not signed any confidentiality clauses with any current or former Licensees which would restrict them from speaking openly with you about their experiences with us. However, in some instances during the last three fiscal years, former Chick-fil-A Restaurant Operators have signed provisions restricting their ability to speak openly about their experiences with us. You may want to speak with current and former Licensees and Operators, but be aware that not all Operators will be able to communicate with you.

CONTRACTS

The following agreements are attached as exhibits to this Disclosure Document:

- Exhibit "B-2" License Agreement for Licensees who are Food Service Providers
- Exhibit "D" Table of Contents of Chick-fil-A Manuals
- Exhibit "G" State Specific Addenda and Agreement Amendments

Chick-fil-A does not lease or otherwise provide the Licensed Sites for the various Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. As a result, the leases, if any, for the various Chick-fil-A Licensed Units vary substantially from Licensed Site to Licensed Site because of the different requirements of landlords and property owners. Accordingly, there is no model lease form that can be said to be a typical lease by which a Licensee will be bound. In every instance, the Licensee will be bound by the terms and conditions of the instruments that affect the subject site.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT BEGIN ON THE FOLLOWING PAGE. THIS AGREEMENT ALSO CONTAINS SEVERAL ATTACHED SCHEDULES, THE PAGES OF WHICH ARE NOT NUMBERED.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

BACKGROUND

A. CFA originated and owns the rights to a distinctive system (defined below as the “CFA System”) for marketing, preparing and selling certain chicken and other food products (defined in Section 1.1 (k) below as the “Products”).

B. Licensee would like to license from CFA the right to use the CFA System to sell certain of the Products from kiosks, mobile carts, custom facades, counter areas or other retail facilities.

C. CFA is willing to grant Licensee such a license subject to Licensee’s full compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including Licensee’s willingness to exercise its license rights only in full accordance with the Chick-fil-A Culture (as defined in Section 6.1).

SECTION 1 -- DEFINITIONS

1.1 Defined Terms and Phrases. This Section 1.1 sets forth the definition of certain terms used in this Agreement. Other definitions are found elsewhere in this Agreement. Defined terms may be used in the singular or plural.

(a) “Additional Site” means any additional Site where CFA and Licensee agree, after the Effective Date, for Licensee to establish and operate Unit(s) pursuant to Section 3.1 for which CFA does not require that Licensee execute a new, separate then-current form of License Agreement.

(b) “Authorized Products” means those Products that Licensee is licensed (or in the future may be licensed) by CFA to sell from a particular Unit.

(c) “CFA” and “Chick-fil-A” are defined in the preamble; “CFA” and “Chick-fil-A” also include any assignees, designees or successors or assigns of Chick-fil-A, Inc.

(d) “CFA System” means CFA’s proprietary system for marketing, preparing and selling the Products, as CFA may further develop from time to time. The CFA System includes, among other things, Chick-fil-A’s: food preparation recipes; food presentation methods; food service techniques, such as quick service operation; signs, menus and advertising materials; sales facility and equipment designs, specifications and layout; the Chick-fil-A Culture; and certain Intellectual Property owned by CFA’s affiliate, CFA Properties, Inc. (“CFA Properties”).

(e) “Confidential Information” means valuable and proprietary confidential business information or data of or about a Party or CFA Properties other than “Trade Secrets” (as defined in Section 1.1(o) below). “Confidential Information” of CFA also includes any items specifically designated as a Trade Secret of CFA in Section 7.2 that are ultimately determined under applicable law not to constitute a “trade secret” but that otherwise meet the definition of Confidential Information. LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES AND

AGREES THAT THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT ARE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION OF CFA.

(f) “Gross Receipts” for any period for a particular Unit means Licensee’s entire gross receipts as determined according to generally accepted accounting principles (excluding only sales taxes or value added taxes levied upon retail sales and payable over to the appropriate governmental authority) from all sales of Products, goods, wares and merchandise and from all services performed at, from or in connection with or through the Unit during such period, whether for cash, check or on a charge, credit, time basis or otherwise, including (a) sales originating from orders accepted by Licensee at or away from the Unit, or placed by telephone, fax, delivery/mobile app, requisition or other similar means (collectively “Sales Channels”) or other similar means received or filled at the Unit and (b) any assumed gross revenues of Licensee for purposes of any loss of profits insurance claim. “Gross Receipts” shall not include (i) any refunds to customers previously included in Gross Receipts, and (ii) meals given at any Retail Area to employees of Licensee that work in a Unit at the Retail Area incident to their employment.

(g) “Ingredients” means every ingredient, mix, spice, cooking aid, wrapping, food container and all other items necessary or optional for preparing the Products for sale.

(h) “Initial Sites” means the Site(s) existing as of the Effective Date.

(i) “Intellectual Property” means collectively (i) registered and unregistered copyrights, copyright registrations and applications, (ii) Proprietary Marks (as defined in Section 1.1(1)), and other registered and unregistered trademarks and service marks, trademark and service marks registrations and applications, moral rights, and any other rights to any form or medium of expression, (iii) Trade Secrets (as defined in Section 1.1(o)), privacy rights, and any other protection for confidential information or ideas, (iv) inventions, patents, patent registrations and patent applications, (v) any other material, information or theories which are protectable or registrable under common law or any of the copyright, trademark, patent, Trade Secret, confidentiality or other similar laws of any State and the United States, and (vi) any other similar rights or interests, recognized by applicable law.

(j) “Manual” means collectively the operations, training and orientation manuals prepared by or on behalf of CFA that CFA will provide to Licensee as a guide for operating the Units and all other written, electronic, audiotaped or videotaped materials prepared by or on behalf of CFA for the same or a related purpose and delivered or made available to Licensee pursuant to Section 6.5, plus any amendments or additions thereto and any and all non-English language versions thereof (whether prepared by or on behalf of CFA or Licensee).

(k) “Products” means all present and future items of food and drink and all non-food inventory intended by CFA to be sold to or used by Chick-fil-A customers generally, including the Authorized Products.

(l) “Proprietary Marks” means collectively currently existing and future service marks, trademarks, trade names, trade dress (including product package designs), symbols, slogans, emblems, logos, insignias, external and internal building designs and architectural features, and combinations of the foregoing, which CFA Properties has licensed to CFA for its own use and to sublicense others to use with the CFA System, including those service marks, trademarks and trade names listed on Addendum A.

(m) “Site” means the building or facility in which the Unit is located. The “Site” of a Unit not located in a building or facility shall be deemed to be the physical location of the Unit.

(n) “Retail Area” means the retail area or food court located at or within a Site.

(o) “Trade Secrets” means information or data of or about a Party or CFA Properties (including, but not limited to, confidential business information, technical or non-technical data, formulas, recipes, patterns, compilations, programs, devices, methods, techniques, drawings, processes, financial data, financial plans, product plans, lists of actual or potential customers or suppliers) that: (a) derives economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and (b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. To the extent that applicable law mandates a definition of “trade secret” inconsistent with the foregoing definition, then the foregoing definition shall be construed in such a manner as to be consistent with the mandated definition under applicable law.

(p) “Unit” means each Chick-fil-A facility, kiosk, mobile cart, custom facade, counter area or other retail facility from which Licensee is licensed to sell Products pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 2 -- GRANT AND TERM OF LICENSE

2.1 License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, CFA grants to Licensee, and Licensee accepts, a non-transferable, non-exclusive license (the “License”) during the License Term (as defined in Section 2.5) to: (a) establish and operate a Unit at each Site approved by CFA and licensed to Licensee by CFA, including the Initial Sites and any Additional Sites that may be approved by CFA pursuant to Section 3.1 for which CFA does not require that Licensee execute a new, separate then-current form of License Agreement; (b) sell the Authorized Products from the Units; (c) use the Proprietary Marks and the CFA System solely for the sale of the Authorized Products from the Units, and (d) advertise the Units to the public, consistent with CFA advertising policies. Licensee and CFA shall complete CFA’s then current version of its “Site Description Form” in the form of Exhibit 2 hereto, for each Site from which Licensee is authorized to operate a Unit. These completed Site Description Forms shall be maintained by CFA and their contents are deemed incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

2.2 Menus. The core menu for licensed units is set forth on Addendum B. The core menu applicable to each Unit, which may be modified, amended or otherwise supplemented by the Parties from time to time pursuant to mutual agreement, is set forth on the Site

Description Form for the Site from which Licensee is authorized to operate such Unit.

2.3 License Not Exclusive. Licensee acknowledges that the rights licensed and granted to it in this Agreement are not exclusive. CFA reserves the right to operate or to grant parties other than Licensee the right to operate Units or other Chick-fil-A restaurants at any location. CFA also reserves the right to use the Proprietary Marks in connection with, or to operate directly or to license the operation of, any business other than Units at any location. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the License Term (as defined in Section 2.5), CFA shall not operate or grant other parties the right to operate Units or other Chick-fil-A restaurants from any Site where Licensee operates a Unit.

2.4 Limitation of License Rights. Except as is otherwise permitted under this Agreement, the License and rights granted Licensee in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of Licensee and Licensee shall not grant any third party not directly affiliated with Licensee the right to use the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System to sell any products or services from any location. CFA reserves to itself all other rights not granted expressly to Licensee under this Agreement.

2.5 License Term. The initial term of the License granted Licensee pursuant to this Section 2 (the “License Term”) shall begin on the Effective Date and shall end on the date that is ____ (___) years after the Effective Date (the “Initial Termination Date”), subject to its earlier termination pursuant to Section 8. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that: (1) Licensee, under this Agreement, has no right either to extend or renew the License Term or to be offered or granted a new license agreement by CFA upon the Initial Termination Date; and (2) CFA is under no obligation under this Agreement either to extend or renew the License Term or to offer or grant a new license agreement to Licensee upon the Initial Termination Date. Any decision by CFA to offer Licensee the opportunity to enter into a new license agreement regarding the License granted in this Section 2 for a period of time beyond the Initial Termination Date: (1) shall be made in the exercise of CFA’s sole and exclusive business judgment (which may include, without limitation, its assessment of Licensee’s performance under and adherence to the terms of this Agreement, Licensee’s ability to continue to operate at the Sites, and the past economic and operational performance of the Units); (2) may be extended or otherwise made in the form of CFA’s then-current form of license agreement (which may include new terms, conditions and fees); and (3) is not and shall not be deemed to be a part of this Agreement. The License Term shall include any modifications to the initial term of the License agreed to by CFA in writing.

SECTION 3 -- SITES

3.1 Additional Sites. If during the License Term Licensee determines that it would like to operate Units at Additional Sites, it shall notify CFA promptly of each such proposed Additional Site and shall convey to CFA all information about the proposed Additional Site requested by CFA. CFA is under no obligation to offer Licensee the opportunity to operate Units at Additional Sites, and CFA reserves the right under Section 3 hereof not to offer Licensee the opportunity to operate Units at Additional Sites. CFA shall have the option to reject or tentatively accept the proposed Additional Site, pending CFA’s completion of a site visit and any further investigative activities it deems necessary or appropriate. Licensee shall arrange for CFA to have access to each proposed Additional Site so that CFA can conduct an assessment of the Site. After CFA has completed the site visit, Licensee shall complete a Site Description Form for the proposed Additional Site and submit it to CFA for final approval. CFA shall have ten (10) business days from the date it receives the completed Site Description Form to approve or reject the proposed Additional Site. CFA may reject Licensee's proposal for Additional Sites if CFA determines, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, that: (i) the proposed Additional Sites are unsuitable for operating Units; (ii) the proposed Additional Sites reflect inappropriately on CFA or the CFA System; or (iii) the lease facility, use, occupancy or ownership arrangements with respect to the proposed Additional Sites do not comply with the requirements of Section 6.8. As a condition to CFA's approval of each Additional Site, CFA may require, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, that: (i) Licensee execute a new, separate then-current form of License Agreement for each such Additional Site; and (ii) Licensee pay an initial license fee for each such Additional Site, if CFA generally requires prospective licensees to pay an initial license fee in executing its then-current License Agreement.

3.2 Responsibility. Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee has the sole responsibility for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. Approval by CFA of Sites shall not constitute a representation or warranty by CFA that the Units operated at the Sites will be profitable or safe for customers or employees or other personnel of Licensee. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA's prior written consent.

SECTION 4 -- FEES

4.1 License Fees and Other Fees. Addendum C sets forth license fees and certain other fees that Licensee shall pay CFA in consideration of the various rights granted to Licensee under this Agreement and the timing and procedures for paying such license fees and other fees. Licensee agrees to pay all such license fees and other fees as and when they are due and in accordance with all CFA policies.

SECTION 5 -- TRAINING AND ASSISTANCE

5.1 Training. Before Licensee can begin operating a Unit, it must send at least two (2) management-level employees from the Site, whose duties include management or supervision of Licensee's employees at the Unit, to an initial Licensee training program sponsored by CFA and these employees must complete the program to CFA's satisfaction. Before Licensee can begin operating a Unit, Licensee must also send at least two (2) or, at Chick-fil-A's sole election and option, one (1) other senior management-level employee from the Unit, whose duties may also include management or supervision of Licensee's employees at the Unit, to the in person cultural experience portion of the Licensee initial training program designated by CFA and these employees must complete that portion of the program to CFA's satisfaction. CFA shall determine the location, method and means, time, content and length of the training program. CFA shall waive a tuition charge for the first two (2) such management-level employees attending the training program from the Site. Additional employees may attend the training program if there is space available in the program and Licensee pays the tuition (as set by CFA on Addendum C) for the program. Licensee shall be responsible for the travel, room, living and other expenses, wages, benefits and workers compensation coverage incurred by employees attending the training program. Licensee shall ensure that, at all times during the License Term, at least two (2) management-level employees at a Site whose duties include management or supervision of Licensee's employees at the Unit shall have attended and completed to CFA's satisfaction all then required components of the Licensee training program. As part of the Chick-fil-A Licensee training requirements, each Licensee designated manager required to be trained pursuant to this Section must be recertified every five years in order for Licensee to stay in compliance.

5.2 Additional Assistance. CFA, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, may make available to Licensee, from time to time, such additional advice and assistance as Licensee may reasonably request or CFA may deem necessary, including assistance or advice regarding the operation of the Units, additional training and sales building.

SECTION 6 -- OPERATION OF THE UNITS

6.1 Corporate Culture. Licensee acknowledges the unique corporate environment, culture, reputation and goodwill, including, for example, the Sunday closing policy, that have evolved as an integral part of the CFA System (the "Chick-fil-A Culture"). Accordingly, Licensee agrees that it shall exercise its rights and License granted to it pursuant to this Agreement in a manner consistent with the reputation and goodwill of Chick-fil-A and the Chick-fil-A Culture.

6.2 Uniformity. Licensee acknowledges that the CFA System is a unique and unified approach to selling the Products and that, subject to Section 10.8(b), compliance with CFA's standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures for operating the Units is necessary to maintain the general uniformity upon which part of the goodwill of CFA and the CFA System depend. Accordingly, subject to Section 10.8(b), Licensee shall conduct the operations of the Units in compliance with all of CFA's standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures, including those set forth in this Agreement or the Manual, unless CFA has given Licensee its prior written consent to do otherwise. Licensee recognizes and agrees that CFA from time to time may change or modify its standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures and agrees to accept, comply with and otherwise conform to all such changes or modifications (and shall make all reasonable expenditures necessary for such acceptance, compliance and conformance) within a reasonable period of time after Licensee's receipt of notice of such changes or modifications.

6.3 Standards of Operation. Licensee shall:

- (a) operate each Unit in a clean, safe and orderly manner, providing courteous, first-class service to the public in compliance with all CFA service standards and initiatives;

(d) prevent the operation of any Unit, and refrain from using the Proprietary Marks in advertising or promotion, in such a way as to impair the value or reputation of the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System;

(e) prevent the use of any Unit for any immoral or illegal purpose or for any other purpose, business activity, use or function that is not expressly authorized by this Agreement or otherwise approved in writing in advance by CFA and, to the extent Licensee controls the operation of the Sites, prevent the use of any Site for any illegal purpose or any purpose inconsistent with the Chick-fil-A Culture;

(f) stay familiar and comply with all requirements in the Manual;

(g) not operate any Unit or otherwise sell the Products from any Unit on Sundays or on Christmas Day;

(h) hire, determine the compensation and benefits for, establish schedules and duties for, train, manage and supervise, discipline, terminate, promote, timely pay all wages, benefits and employee-related liabilities for, determine staffing levels, tasks to be performed and workplace safety rules for a sufficient number of employees to operate properly each Unit and otherwise to perform Licensee's duties hereunder, all of which employees shall be employed by and be the sole and exclusive responsibility of Licensee;

(i) maintain at all times a sufficient inventory of Products, Ingredients and supplies to meet customers' demand for the Products sold at each Unit;

(j) pay on a timely basis (i) for all Products, Ingredients, supplies and other goods and services purchased by Licensee for use in connection with the operation of each Unit, (ii) all national, federal, state and local income, sales, withholding, value added and other taxes for which Licensee is liable under a federal, state or local government under any law, statute, ordinance or regulation, and (iii) any debt service on any debt incurred to finance the operation of any Unit;

(k) comply with all supra-national, national, federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances and regulations affecting the operation of the Sites and the Units, including without limitation health, sanitation, fire, safety, environmental, employment, labor and immigration laws, statutes, ordinances and regulations, including without limitation with regard to discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wage and hour, youth employment, medical and family leave, military leave, paid sick leave or other paid time off, gender-pay differences, workplace and worker safety, food and beverage handling, preparation and safety, occupational hazards and health, and consumer protection, as well as all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations regarding the privacy, security and handling of customer and employee or other confidential personal data and information.

(l) timely obtain, maintain, pay for and avoid revocation or suspension of any and all licenses, permits, consents, certificates and registrations necessary or appropriate for Licensee to prepare or operate the Sites and the Units in compliance with all laws, statutes, ordinances and regulations and other provisions of this Agreement;

(m) not operate any Site or any Unit in a manner that presents a health or safety hazard to its customers or creates an environmental hazard;

(n) refrain from performing any act which could be reasonably likely to damage or cause harm to the reputation, goodwill or credit of any Unit, the Proprietary Marks, the CFA System, CFA or the Chick-fil-A Culture;

(o) sell all Products in a manner which is not detrimental to CFA's reputation or the positioning of the Products in the market;

(p) have all employees working in Chick-fil-A Units wear only the approved Chick-fil-A uniform attire, and shall not permit any employee to wear the Chick-fil-A uniform attire in any non-Chick-fil-A operation;

(q) to the extent permitted by applicable law, comply with all restrictions on maximum prices of Products as required by CFA in writing from time to time during the License Term; and

(r) comply at all times with all applicable current and future laws, standards, rules, regulations, or any equivalent thereof relating to data privacy, personal data and data protection, as well as the then most current Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard ("PCI-DSS") requirements (as they may be modified from time to time or as successor standards are adopted) and the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act, for safeguarding each Unit's customer data, and use best efforts at and otherwise in connection with the operation of each Unit to maintain data security and protect each Unit against identity theft and theft or misuse of personal information and customer data.

6.4 Confidentiality Agreement. In order to give CFA appropriate protection for its Confidential Information and Trade Secrets, Licensee shall require its managers and supervisors involved in the Units to sign a Confidentiality Agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit 1.

6.5 Operations Manual. CFA shall provide electronically and lend a copy of the Manual to Licensee for each Site during the License Term for any Unit located at such Site, which copy Licensee shall keep on the premises of the Sites in a secure location. Licensee shall notify CFA immediately if the Manual or access to the Manual is lost, compromised or destroyed, and CFA shall send a replacement Manual or access to Licensee. Licensee shall pay CFA a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each replacement Manual. The Manual, including all new, updated and superseded pages and content, shall at all times remain the property of CFA. Licensee shall return the Manual to CFA within three (3) business days of the expiration or any termination of the License Term of all Units located at the Site. CFA may amend and update the Manual as it deems necessary or appropriate and send new pages or completely revised manuals to Licensee, at no cost to Licensee. Licensee agrees to insert immediately all new pages in their proper places and to remove the superseded pages at the same time and return the superseded pages and/or replaced manuals to CFA within three (3) business days of the receipt by Licensee of the new pages or revised manuals. The Manual is intended to further the purposes of this Agreement and Licensee shall operate the Units to be in full compliance with all requirements in the Manual. In addition, any changes in the Manual made by CFA during the License Term shall be incorporated into the Manual automatically as of the date updated provisions are deemed received by Licensee pursuant to the notice provisions of Section 11.2. In the event of a conflict between the Manual and this Agreement, this Agreement shall prevail.

6.6 Consumer Awareness. Licensee shall at all times during the term of this Agreement, at its own cost, use diligent efforts to advance the reputation of CFA and the Products and to enhance consumer awareness of the Products and the Proprietary Marks. Licensee shall use only advertising and promotional materials, programs and techniques that are consistent with the Chick-fil-A Culture and that comply with any CFA advertising guidelines that may be disseminated from time to time.

6.7 Preparation and Modification of the Units. Licensee shall purchase, lease, maintain and replace all equipment and signage for the Units necessary in order to comply with CFA's then-current standards at Licensee's own cost and directly from an approved supplier in accordance with this Section 6.7. Licensee shall be responsible for all installation and space conversion and shall bear the cost of all required smallwares. Licensee shall be responsible for supplying all necessary working drawings and plans for construction, remodeling or renovation of the Sites (the "Drawings") required to prepare the Units for operation, and shall submit such Drawings to CFA prior to their use. Unless within twenty (20) business days of receipt of the Drawings from Licensee (verified by post office returned receipt or overnight delivery service notification of delivery (signature required)) CFA notifies Licensee of CFA's disapproval of such Drawings, the Drawings will be deemed to have been approved by CFA. Licensee shall build, renovate or remodel the Sites, as the case may be, only in accordance with such plans as they are supplied, or approved, by CFA. To the extent any Unit has been operated by Licensee prior to the date of this Agreement pursuant to a license with CFA, or this Agreement is renewed or extended by operation of law beyond the Initial Termination Date, Licensee shall refurbish and remodel at CFA's option and direction each such Unit to Chick-fil-A's then-current standards, specifications, policies and designs for the development and operation of a Chick-fil-A licensed unit in accordance with Sections 6.2, 6.7 and 6.8 of this Agreement. As between CFA and Licensee, CFA shall be the sole and exclusive owner of all proprietary elements of the Drawings and the renderings on the Drawings, whether or not they are prepared by or on behalf of CFA, although Licensee shall be entitled to retain a copy of the Drawings (provided that Licensee may not disclose the Drawings to any third parties or use the Drawings for a purpose not in conjunction with CFA). To the extent that the Drawings are prepared by or on behalf of Licensee, Licensee shall be solely responsible for providing any third-party service provider with timely payment for such Drawings, and Licensee hereby assigns and agrees to assign or to procure the assignment of all Intellectual Property rights therein, including without limitation copyright and all rights to sue for past infringement, at no cost to CFA. Licensee shall not, without the prior written consent of CFA, adversely modify the appearance of the Units in any way or make any modification of the Sites that is reasonably likely to affect materially the Proprietary Marks.

6.8 Building and Premises Standards. CFA shall have the right to require Licensee to purchase the signage, fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment and other features of the building or premises of the Units from suppliers approved in advance by CFA. With respect to the Initial Sites, CFA may exercise such right by delivering written notice to Licensee promptly upon the execution of this Agreement by CFA; with respect to Additional Sites, CFA may exercise such right by delivering written notice to Licensee promptly after approval of the Additional Sites as indicated on the Site Description Form for such Additional Site. Licensee acknowledges that CFA may appoint as many or as few approved suppliers as it reasonably deems appropriate and that such approved suppliers may in some instances include or be limited to CFA (in which case CFA may receive payments as allowed by Section 6.10).

6.9 Standards for Products and Supplies.

(a) Licensee may only sell in a Unit the Authorized Products for that Unit. Licensee shall at all times during the License Term offer for sale at each Unit all Products on the Unit Core Menu approved by CFA for that Unit. Licensee shall not under any circumstances sell any other products or conduct any other business in or from the Units or sell the Products from any location other than the Units, unless approved in advance in writing by CFA.

(b) In preparing Products for sale in the Units, Licensee agrees to use only the ingredients, techniques and procedures designated or approved in advance by CFA. Licensee may offer only such Products in the proportions, appearance and packaging as may periodically be specified by CFA. Licensee agrees that all Products offered for sale in the Units shall comply with CFA's standards and specifications of quality, portion, taste and appearance and agrees to refrain from selling in the Units any Products that fail to meet such standards and specifications.

(c) Except as CFA may otherwise approve in writing in advance, Licensee shall utilize in the Units only those paper products (e.g. bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, napkins or cartons) or utensils or customer goodwill items and other food and beverage containers and customer convenience items that display one or more of the Proprietary Marks.

(d) Except as CFA may otherwise approve in writing in advance, Licensee shall purchase from CFA or suppliers approved in advance by CFA all Products and Ingredients, and all bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, napkins, cartons, utensils, customer goodwill items and other food and beverage containers and customer convenience items that display one or more of the Proprietary Marks or that are sold or used in at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the then existing CFA restaurants and other facilities selling any or all of the Products even if such items do not display any of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee acknowledges that CFA may appoint as many or as few approved suppliers as it reasonably deems appropriate and that such approved suppliers may in some instances include or be limited to CFA (in which case CFA may receive payments as allowed by Section 6.10).

6.10 Payments to CFA. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that CFA shall have the right to charge and receive payments such as those set forth in Addendum C for or on account of sales of goods or services to or for the benefit of Licensee as CFA reasonably deems appropriate, including without limitation: (a) from Licensee directly when Licensee purchases such goods or services directly from CFA or its authorized distributor(s); or (b) from any other person or entity in the supply chain when Licensee purchases the goods or services from a supplier. Licensee agrees that such payments may be or contain a profit to CFA. Licensee shall reimburse CFA promptly (and in any event within thirty (30) days of receipt of invoice from CFA) for any expenses incurred by CFA on behalf of or for Licensee, and Licensee shall pay interest to CFA on any amounts not paid within such thirty (30) day period in an amount equal to twelve percent (12%) per annum or the highest amount permitted under law if less than twelve percent (12%) per annum.

6.11 Insurance. Licensee, at its own expense, shall procure before the commencement of operation of any Unit, maintain in full force and effect at all times during the License Term, and not allow to be cancelled, lapsed, suspended or modified, Commercial General liability insurance covering each Unit for liability arising from premises, operations, personal injury, products/completed operations, and liability assumed under an insured contract. All insurance coverage required by this Section 6.11 shall be maintained under one or more insurance policies containing minimum liability protection of three million dollars ($3,000,000) per occurrence. All insurance policies required by this Section 6.11 shall be issued by an insurance company licensed and approved by the Insurance Commissioner (or similar official) in the jurisdiction in which the covered Units are located and have a minimum A.M. Best rating and financial size class of A -VII. Licensee must notify CFA prior to canceling or not renewing any coverage. Licensee shall be the principal beneficiary of such Commercial General liability insurance policies but shall designate CFA as an additional insured on all such policies and arrange to show this designation via endorsement and on all certificates of coverage and shall forward the endorsement/certificates of coverage to CFA within thirty (30) calendar days of procuring such insurance but in any event before opening a covered Unit. Licensee shall provide annually an updated certificate of insurance with applicable endorsements within 30 days of their policy renewal. Licensee's insurance obligations in this Section 6.11 shall not be limited in any way because of any insurance that CFA may maintain.

6.12 Point of Sale, Data and Reporting Requirements.

(a) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that, in support of CFA's operation and development of the CFA System, it is desirable for CFA to collect certain limited financial, operational, and statistical information concerning the Units. Licensee further acknowledges its responsibility and obligation to submit any such information requested by CFA within such timeframes as may be reasonably established by CFA from time to time. Accordingly, Licensee agrees to obtain, maintain and use at its sole cost and expense at all times computer hardware and software, including computer, point of sale, and other electronic information systems, a high-speed Internet connection, and all equipment components and software approved by CFA and otherwise necessary for Licensee to meet all functionality, performance and informational requirements specified by CFA, as the same may be required and modified by CFA in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time (collectively, the "POS Systems"). The functionality, performance and informational requirements specified by CFA for the POS Systems may include, without limitation, the ability to accept and process all transactions at the Units (such as for example mobile ordering and payment systems and other related technology), to transmit point of sale data to CFA or allow and effect CFA to poll same as and when CFA deems desirable and appropriate, and to facilitate Licensee's participation in any gift card, customer loyalty, affinity and similar programs established by CFA as CFA deems appropriate and desirable for Licensee to participate in from time to time. CFA shall have the right to designate a single source (who may be CFA or its affiliate) from whom Licensee must purchase certain components or the entire POS Systems, related licenses and technology, and related support services. Licensee bears responsibility for the proper functioning of the POS Systems and ensuring it is operational at all times including access to the Internet and any extranet that may be established. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "poll" or "polling" means any process acceptable to CFA by which information or data about the Units may be transmitted to or from the POS Systems or other system operated by Licensee or its agent into a computer or system operated by CFA or its agents in the manner and format prescribed by CFA from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, CFA may poll for information including, without limitation, daily sales data, daily transaction level data, sales per visit and products and combination of products sold, otherwise known as product mix data or "PMIX", and inventory data. Licensee shall also furnish to CFA the reports and documents relating to Licensee's operation of the Units as described on Addendum D, as the same may be modified by CFA in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time.

(b) If any information provided pursuant to this Section demonstrates an underpayment of any License Fee, Licensee shall pay any and all sums due together with interest and costs as described in Section 6.13(d). If the information demonstrates an overpayment, it shall be credited to Licensee's account.

(c) If Licensee learns of an incident that may be a breach of the security of Licensee's POS Systems or other computer systems as defined under Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.82 or any other applicable data breach notification law, Licensee must immediately notify CFA of the facts that are known about the incident (a "Data Breach"). Although Licensee is and shall remain responsible for complying with all data breach notification laws and standards applicable to Licensee and the Units, Licensee will cooperate and coordinate with CFA regarding such incidents where notification to individuals is required before individuals are notified so that CFA can be aware of and be prepared to address issues that may affect the Proprietary Marks and the System and be in a position to support Licensee where CFA deems advisable and possible. In the event of an actual or suspected Data Breach, Licensee agrees to cooperate with CFA and to provide CFA with any access and information CFA may reasonably request to conduct its own investigation and support CFA's own remediation efforts. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall relieve Licensee of Licensee's obligation to comply with applicable laws, regulations, rules, standards or any equivalent thereof concerning an actual or suspected Data Breach or Licensee's sole responsibility for any costs or financial losses Licensee incurs or remedial actions that Licensee must take as a result of an actual or suspected Data Breach.

6.13 Maintenance of Records, Inspections and Audits.

(a) Licensee shall maintain detailed written and electronic records of Licensee's licensed operations (including, but not limited to, any reports required on Addendum D) and all of its books and records shall be maintained according to generally accepted accounting principles. Licensee shall preserve these books and records for at least three (3) years after the close of Licensee's fiscal year to which they relate. CFA has the right to determine whether Licensee is complying with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the requirements in the Manual. Accordingly, Licensee shall ensure that CFA or its designated representatives shall have the right at any time during business hours to: (i) enter upon and inspect the building and premises of the Units or offices and inspect and audit any records located or stored there relating to the Units; (ii) inspect, audit and photocopy the business records, bookkeeping and accounting records, operating records, operating reports, correspondence and general business records of the Units, and the other forms and information and supporting records which Licensee is required to submit to CFA hereunder; and (iii) inspect and observe the standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures being utilized by Licensee in the operation of the Units. CFA shall give Licensee at least seventy-two (72) hours prior notice before entering the premises or performing any inspections under clause (i) or (ii) above; however, CFA may act without notice under clause (iii) above or if CFA has a reasonable basis to believe that Licensee has materially violated any term of this Agreement. Licensee shall ensure that it and all other relevant parties fully cooperate with CFA or its designated representatives making any such inspection or conducting or supervising any such audit, and shall ensure that CFA or its designated representatives are permitted to take photographs of the building and premises of the Units and to interview customers and employees of Licensee.

(b) In the event that any of the books and records relating to a Unit are located other than at the Site associated with the Unit, Licensee shall ensure that CFA shall have the same rights to enter such other location and inspect and copy such books and records as is provided in Section 6.13(a). In the event that a Unit is located at a Site to which access is restricted or at which the taking of photographs or interview of customers is restricted, or some or all of the books and records relating to a Unit are located at a place to which access is restricted, Licensee shall diligently assist and facilitate CFA in obtaining access to such Sites or place to conduct any inspection or audit of such Units or the records relating thereto. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a Site or place to which "access is restricted" refers to a Site or place access to which is not within the control of Licensee or is otherwise restricted by an unrelated third party.

(c) Following any inspection, examination or audit of a Unit, CFA may prepare a list of non-compliant items and other deficiencies in Licensee's operation of the Unit and deliver the list to Licensee. Licensee must thereafter use diligent efforts to correct such non-compliant items and other deficiencies, including taking such actions as CFA may reasonably direct Licensee to take, in order to bring itself and the operation of the Unit into full compliance with this Agreement. Licensee must be in full compliance with every provision of this Agreement within thirty (30) calendar days following delivery of such list of deficiencies by CFA to Licensee.

(d) If any inspection reveals that Gross Receipts reported are less than the actual Gross Receipts ascertained by such inspection, Licensee shall immediately pay CFA the additional amount of License Fee and other fees owed to CFA by reason of such understatement, together with interest of twelve percent (12%) per annum or the highest rate permitted by law if less than twelve percent (12%) per annum. If any report or statement prepared by Licensee understates Gross Receipts by more than five percent (5%) of the actual Gross Receipts, Licensee shall, in addition to making the payment provided for in the immediately preceding sentence, pay and reimburse CFA for any and all expenses incurred in connection with ascertaining the understatement, including, but not limited to, reasonable accounting and legal fees. Such payment shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies CFA may have under this Agreement or under law or at equity. If any such inspection, examination or audit discloses an overpayment of License Fees, the amount overpaid shall be credited to Licensee's account.

SECTION 7 -- PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

7.1 Ownership of Rights. CFA Properties has granted CFA a license to use and to sublicense others to use the Proprietary Marks and other Intellectual Property owned by CFA Properties, including, but not limited to, in the manner contemplated by this Agreement. Licensee agrees that all references in this Agreement regarding all rights and benefits of ownership and the use of the Proprietary Marks and such other Intellectual Property are understood to run and inure, and it is understood and agreed that such rights and benefits will run and inure, to CFA Properties or CFA, as applicable, or their respective successors in interest, as owner or licensee, as applicable. The Parties acknowledge that CFA Properties owns and shall retain all ownership of Intellectual Property associated with the Proprietary Marks and the CFA System. To the extent Licensee has or later obtains any Intellectual Property rights in the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System, by operation of law or otherwise, Licensee hereby agrees to assign all such rights exclusively to CFA Properties or, at CFA's election, CFA's designee, and agrees to take any further action requested by CFA to effectuate such an assignment.

7.2 Non-Disclosure Covenant. Each Party acknowledges that it may be exposed to certain Confidential Information and Trade Secrets of the other Party during the License Term, and that its unauthorized use, publication or disclosure of such information or data could cause immediate and irreparable harm to such other Party. Accordingly, except to the extent that it is necessary to use such information or data to perform its express obligations under this Agreement, neither Party shall (and each Party shall take diligent measures to ensure that none of its employees, other personnel, agents or advisors shall), without the express prior written consent of the other Party, redistribute, market, publish, disclose or divulge to any other person or entity, or use or modify for use, directly or indirectly in any way for any person or entity: (a) any of the other Party's Confidential Information during the License Term and for a period of two (2) years after the termination of the License Term; or (b) any of the other Party's Trade Secrets at any time during which such information shall constitute a Trade Secret (before or after termination of the License Term). The Parties acknowledge and agree that CFA's Trade Secrets include, but are not limited to: Product formulations, recipes and Ingredients; Product marketing and promotional techniques and plans; financial data and plans; lists of actual and prospective Chick-fil-A licensees, franchised operators, and suppliers; and any components of the CFA System that fall within the definition of "Trade Secret." THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT CFA'S CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION INCLUDES, BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO: THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS

AGREEMENT; THE CONTENTS OF THE MANUAL (EXCEPT FOR ANY INFORMATION IN THE MANUAL THAT WOULD CONSTITUTE A “TRADE SECRET” OF CFA); AND ANY COMPONENT OF THE CFA SYSTEM THAT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A “TRADE SECRET” BUT THAT OTHERWISE MEETS THE DEFINITION OF “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.”

7.3 Limitations on Competition.

(a) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that, given CFA’s substantial investment in the CFA System and given Licensee’s substantial access to CFA’s Confidential Information and Trade Secrets, it is reasonable for Licensee to agree to refrain from certain competitive activities during and for a reasonable time after the License Term.

(b) Without CFA’s prior written permission, Licensee shall not, during the period of time that it is operating a Unit, anywhere within the Site associated with the Unit, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with or through any other party, sell any nationally or regionally branded chicken products or any products that are the same as or substantially similar in nature and in presentation to any Products offered for sale at the Unit pursuant to the CFA System.

(c) Without CFA’s prior written permission, for twelve (12) months after Licensee ceases operating or having the right to operate a Unit (such a Unit being referred to as a “Closed Unit”), Licensee shall not from the space where the Closed Unit was located, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with or through any other party, sell any nationally or regionally branded chicken products or any products that are the same as or substantially similar in nature and in presentation to any Products previously offered for sale at the Closed Unit pursuant to the CFA System.

(d) If Licensee violates any covenant in this Section 7.3, it shall be presumed that Licensee has used Confidential Information and Trade Secrets of CFA in violation of Section 7.2.

(e) If any court or other tribunal having jurisdiction to determine the validity or enforceability of any provision contained in this Section 7 determines that it would be invalid or unenforceable as written, in whole or in part, then the provisions of this Section 7 shall be deemed to be modified to the extent or in the manner as is necessary in order for those provisions to be valid and enforceable to the greatest extent possible.

7.4 Use of Proprietary Marks.

(a) Licensee acknowledges that the Proprietary Marks are valid and are the exclusive and valuable property of CFA Properties; that CFA has the right to use, and to sublicense others to use, the Proprietary Marks; and that only duly authorized licensees have the right to use the Proprietary Marks. Licensee further acknowledges that any use by Licensee of the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement is solely in its role as a licensee of CFA. Licensee shall not use the Proprietary Marks in any manner, either directly or through any other person or entity, other than as necessary to operate the Units. Licensee shall not use any other trademark or service mark (including without limitation any non-English language version) in conjunction with any of the Proprietary Marks without the prior written consent of CFA, nor shall Licensee use or allow the use of any other trademark or service mark in connection with the Units. Licensee further covenants that it will not contest or aid in the contest of the validity of, or ownership of, or CFA’s right to use and to license others to use, the Proprietary Marks, nor take or knowingly permit any other action which will or could in any way prejudice or harm any or all of the Proprietary Marks or CFA Properties’ ownership thereof, or CFA’s right to use and to license others to use the Proprietary Marks. Licensee expressly agrees that it will not adopt or use, or aid a third party in adopting or using, any trademark or service mark that is similar to, imitative of or likely to be confused with any of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee also covenants that it will affix such symbols as “TM”, SM, “®”, or the equivalent, next to or in conjunction with all of its uses of the Proprietary Marks, as appropriate or necessary, or as directed by CFA, in order to protect all of CFA’s rights therein. Any and all goodwill arising out of Licensee’s use of any or all of the Proprietary Marks shall inure to the benefit of CFA Properties and shall be and remain the exclusive property of CFA Properties. Where required by CFA, Licensee shall be recorded as a registered user or licensee with the trademarks registry or other appropriate authority in respect of one or more of the Proprietary Marks for any or all of the relevant goods or services or Licensee shall cause other filings to be made having a goal similar to the foregoing, and Licensee shall sign all documents and do all acts to assist CFA for any or all such purposes.

(b) Licensee shall always use the Proprietary Marks in accordance with applicable standards and specifications set by CFA. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that CFA shall have the right to review, and approve or disapprove, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, any and all uses of the Proprietary Marks by Licensee on or in connection with any goods and in all media and in connection with all services (which right will also extend to the quality of such goods and services). Licensee agrees to cease or alter any use of the Proprietary Marks which fails to conform with all applicable standards and specifications set by CFA or which CFA deems in its sole and exclusive business judgment to be otherwise unacceptable.

(c) Licensee agrees to advise promptly and fully CFA of all knowledge it has or acquires concerning any use of a trade name, trademark, service mark or other mark that may infringe upon any of the Proprietary Marks, but CFA or its designee retains the exclusive right and authority to protect or defend the Proprietary Marks; provided, however, that CFA or its designee shall not be obligated to defend any or all of the Proprietary Marks and may determine not to defend any or all of them for any reason whatsoever; and provided, further, that CFA does not warrant the validity of any or all of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee does agree, however, at the cost of CFA, to be a named party in any demand, suit or action which CFA may determine to institute in connection with such matters and otherwise to cooperate as CFA reasonably requests in any defense or other protection of the Proprietary Marks. Any and all damages and costs recovered shall be for the sole account of CFA.

(d) If it appears to CFA that protection of one or more of the Proprietary Marks is no longer viable, either commercially or legally, CFA has the right to relinquish such Proprietary Mark and, at its election, to adopt another mark in the relinquished mark’s place. In such event, Licensee agrees to cooperate with CFA in changing all signage, literature, supplies and the like to adapt the Units. Licensee shall not use the mark CHICK-FIL-A or any words identical or similar to any Proprietary Mark in its corporate or other name.

(e) Licensee specifically acknowledges and agrees that it has no right to and shall not establish a Website (as defined below), nor offer, promote or sell any products or services, or make any use of the Proprietary Marks through the Internet without CFA's prior written approval. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that CFA is under no obligation to grant such consent to Licensee and, as a condition to granting any such consent, CFA shall have the right to establish such requirements as CFA deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, the requirement that Licensee's only presence on the Internet involving, using or otherwise in any association with the Proprietary Marks shall be through a webpage established by CFA on CFA's webpage or Website. As used in this Agreement, the term "Website" means an interactive electronic document, contained in a network of computers linked by communications software, including, without limitation, the Internet and World Wide Web home pages. Any webpage or Website proposed or established by Licensee involving, using or otherwise in any association with the Proprietary Marks shall otherwise be deemed to be a use of the Proprietary Marks under this Agreement, and will be subject to, among other things, CFA's approval and then-current policies, procedures, standards and requirements under this Section 7.4, including the subparts above.

7.5 Copyrights. Licensee acknowledges that the Manual is an original work of authorship owned by CFA Properties, which has been published with the appropriate notice of copyright and is accordingly protected by the United States Copyright Law 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. and any and all other applicable copyright laws. Licensee shall not alter or modify the Manual without the prior written consent of the copyright owner.

7.6 Acknowledgment. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that its covenants set forth in this Section 7 are reasonable as to time, scope and territory given CFA's need to protect its Trade Secrets and Confidential Information, particularly given the complexity and competitive nature of the food service industry, and that, if Licensee's relationship with CFA under this Agreement ends, Licensee has sufficient resources to find alternative, commensurate business in its respective fields of expertise that would not violate Section 7. Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that the covenants set forth in this Section 7 and the rights and remedies conferred on CFA under this Agreement are essential elements of this Agreement and that without their inclusion, CFA would not have entered into this Agreement.

SECTION 8 -- TERMINATION OF LICENSE

8.1 Termination by Licensee.

(a) Any one or more of the following shall be a "Licensee Termination Event": (i) CFA's breach of any one or more of its material covenants in this Agreement; or (ii) the incorrectness or untruth of any one or more of CFA's material representations or warranties in this Agreement.

(b) Upon the occurrence of a Licensee Termination Event described in Section 8.1(a)(i), Licensee may serve CFA with written notice specifying the nature of the CFA breach, and upon the expiration of thirty (30) calendar days, if CFA shall have failed to cure or correct the CFA breach, then Licensee may terminate the License Term by serving a written notice of termination upon CFA, with such termination to be effective upon receipt by CFA. If the CFA breach is of such a nature that it cannot be completely cured or corrected within the thirty-day period, and if CFA shall have diligently commenced and continued curing or correcting the CFA breach within the thirty-day period, then the thirty-day period shall be extended as long as reasonably necessary for CFA, using its best commercial efforts, to cure or correct completely the CFA breach.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Licensee Termination Event described in Sections 8.1(a)(ii), Licensee may terminate the License Term after providing at least ten (10) calendar days' written notice of termination to CFA with such termination to be effective upon the tenth calendar day following receipt by CFA.

8.2 Termination by CFA.

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events shall be a "CFA Termination Event": (i) Licensee breaches or otherwise fails to comply with any one or more of its material duties or covenants in this Agreement (including without limitation, any one or more of its duties and obligations under Sections 4, 6 and 7 of this Agreement); (ii) any one or more of Licensee's material representations or warranties in this Agreement are untrue; (iii) Licensee or any of its principals, officers, directors, owners, employees or other personnel, agents or contractors (collectively "Licensee Parties") takes any action, or fails to take any action, which action or failure to act, damages, or in the estimation of CFA has damaged or is likely to damage, the goodwill or reputation of CFA or is inconsistent with the Chick-fil-A Culture, the CFA System or the environment or reputation of CFA; (iv) Licensee fails to open a Unit during the hours and days of operation specified by CFA for that Unit or Licensee opens a Unit on Sunday or Christmas Day; (v) Licensee, or any Licensee Party involved, directly or indirectly, with any Unit, is convicted of or pleads nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude or is convicted of or pleads nolo contendere to any other crime or offense that could reasonably be expected to affect adversely the reputation or goodwill of CFA, the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System; (vi) Licensee or any Licensee Party converts or embezzles any funds or property of CFA or third parties or engages in any conduct that is fraudulent, unfair, unethical or a deceptive practice; (vii) Licensee makes a willful material misrepresentation, verbally or in writing, or fails to make a material disclosure, to CFA or any national, federal, state or local governmental authority related to a Unit; (viii) continuance, in whole or in part, of the operation of any Unit or of the License granted to Licensee hereunder, is frustrated in purpose or materially impaired by any national, federal, state or local law, statute, ruling, ordinance or regulation, or interpretation thereof (collectively a "Law"), or by the actions of any civil or military authority purporting to act thereunder, or by acts of God, war or civil disorders, or by the existence or declaration of a pandemic or epidemic, or by labor union activity; (ix) Licensee submits to CFA on two (2) or more occasions a report which understates Gross Receipts by more than five percent (5%); (x) Licensee files, or consents by answer or otherwise to the filing against it of, a petition for relief, reorganization, or arrangement or any other petition in bankruptcy, for liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction; (xi) Licensee makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or consents to or is the subject of the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers of itself or of any substantial part of its properties; (xii) Licensee is adjudicated insolvent or is liquidated, dissolved or wound-up; (xiii) a court or other governmental agency of competent jurisdiction enters an order appointing a custodian, receiver or trustee, or an officer with similar powers, with respect to Licensee or any substantial part of the properties of Licensee, or an order for relief is entered in any case or proceeding for liquidation or reorganization, or otherwise to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction, relative to Licensee, or ordering the dissolution, winding-up or liquidation of Licensee, or a petition for such relief is filed against Licensee and not dismissed or stayed within sixty (60) calendar days; (xiv) Licensee's lease, license, facility, use, occupancy arrangements for, or ownership of any Site terminates, or Licensee otherwise loses the ability to operate any Unit at or from any Site; (xv) by virtue of this Agreement or its relationship with Licensee, CFA becomes subject to government regulations as a government contractor or subcontractor or applicable Law is determined to require that any Unit be operated in a manner inconsistent with CFA's normal operating procedures or the Chick-fil-A Culture; (xvi) the building or premises of a Site or the Unit at that Site is not operated or maintained in a manner consistent with the standards of a first-class food service facility or the Chick-fil-A Culture or a threat or danger to public health or safety results from the construction, maintenance or operation of the Unit; (xvii) Licensee fails to make timely payment to CFA of any amounts it is required to pay CFA under this Agreement; or (xviii) Licensee commits three (3) or more defaults under this Agreement in any fifty-two (52) week period, irrespective of the timing of each such default and irrespective of whether each such default has been cured after notice.

(b) Upon the occurrence of any one or more CFA Termination Events described in Sections 8.2(a)(i) (other than with respect to a breach by Licensee of Section 7.2, 7.3 or 7.4), 8.2(a)(viii), 8.2(a)(xiv) or 8.2(a)(xvi) CFA may serve Licensee with written notice specifying the nature of the CFA Termination Event, and upon the expiration of thirty (30) calendar days, if Licensee shall have failed to cure or correct the CFA Termination Event, then CFA may terminate the License Term by serving a written notice of termination upon Licensee, which termination shall be effective upon receipt by Licensee of the notice. If the CFA Termination Event by its nature requires the involvement of third-party vendors or providers of necessary goods or services in order to effectuate a cure and cannot be completely cured or corrected by Licensee using its best commercial efforts within such thirty (30) day period, then such thirty (30) day period shall be extended for as long as reasonably necessary for Licensee, using its best commercial efforts, to complete the curing of the CFA Termination Event.

(c) Upon the occurrence of any one or more CFA Termination Events other than those described in Section 8.2(b), CFA may terminate the License Term with such termination to be effective upon Licensee's receipt of written notice of termination from CFA. Licensee will not have an opportunity to cure these Licensee Termination Events. In the event CFA has the right to terminate the License Term under this Section 8.2(c), CFA may elect to, but shall not be obligated to, (i) give Licensee a right to cure or correct any CFA Termination Event that CFA deems is appropriately curable, or, alternatively, (iii) if Licensee is licensed to operate more than one Unit, CFA may terminate the License Term with respect to one or more, but less than all, of the Units that Licensee is then licensed to operate.

8.3 Licensee's Obligations Upon Expiration or Termination.

(a) Upon the expiration or termination of the License Term, or the expiration or termination of the License Term with respect to one or more, but not all, Units, for any reason pursuant to Section 8.1 or Section 8.2, all rights of Licensee to operate the affected Units and to use, display, access or advertise the CFA System, the Proprietary Marks, CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, and any other items or things constituting the Intellectual Property of CFA Properties as defined in Section 1.1(i), at the affected Units, shall cease, and the License granted to Licensee in Section 2.1 with respect to those Units shall immediately terminate.

(b) Once a Unit is terminated either through expiration or termination of the License Term or the termination of the License Term with respect to a particular Unit or otherwise, Licensee shall immediately take one of the following actions with respect to any equipment, inventory, signage or other items from the Unit constituting inventions, patents, trade dress, Trade Secrets or Confidential Information of CFA or which display one or more of the Proprietary Marks (the "Equipment"): (i) Licensee shall transfer any such Equipment from the terminated Unit to another Unit then being operated by Licensee; or if Licensee cannot take the action described in (i), then Licensee shall, at CFA's option, either (ii) sell the Equipment to CFA at its then-current fair market value as determined by CFA in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment and CFA shall have the right to purchase the Equipment accordingly, or (iii) grant CFA full and unfettered access to the Equipment and a license to remove, alter or obliterate any aspect, item, segment or portion of the Equipment that constitutes or includes licensed inventions, patents, trade dress, Trade Secrets or Confidential Information or which displays one or more of the Proprietary Marks. If CFA purchases the Equipment, Licensee shall deliver such purchased Equipment to CFA free and clear of all liens, charges, encumbrances and security interests promptly upon purchase by CFA. If Licensee transfers the Equipment to another Unit, Licensee shall bear all costs and expenses of transporting such Equipment. Once this Unit expires or is terminated, Licensee shall not under any circumstances advertise for sale or otherwise display or depict any of the Equipment as being for sale using any of the Proprietary Marks or any of CFA's trade dress (including, without limitation, CFA's storefront, word marks, logos, countertop, poster and menu board designs) absent the prior written consent of CFA, which consent Licensee acknowledges may be withheld by CFA in its sole and exclusive business judgment. Further, once this Unit expires or is terminated, Licensee shall not under any circumstances make, use, sell or offer for sale any Equipment that would constitute infringement of CFA Properties' Intellectual Property, should CFA Properties maintain non-exhausted Intellectual Property rights in such Equipment.

(c) Also upon the expiration or termination of the License Term for any reason, Licensee agrees: (i) to cease immediately using any and all of the CFA System, the Proprietary Marks, CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, and any other items or things constituting the Intellectual Property of CFA Properties, and to cease immediately operating the Units and if the term of the lease, license or occupancy arrangement for or ownership of the Sites extends beyond such expiration or termination of the License Term, Licensee shall convert the location at each Site where a Unit was operated to a different type of use; (ii) to deliver immediately to CFA or its designee, at Licensee's expense, the Manual, all materials, data compilations or other things constituting or containing CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, all advertising contracts and property of CFA in Licensee's possession and all materials, data compilations or other things in Licensee's possession which relate to the operation of the Units (including without limitation Products and Ingredients and all bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, napkins, cartons, utensils, customer goodwill items, other food containers and customer convenience items and other goods that display one or more of the Proprietary Marks, to the extent required by CFA under Section 8.3(b) above), excepting only Licensee's copy of this Agreement, Licensee's tax and personal financial records and copies of any correspondence between CFA and Licensee. CFA agrees to assist Licensee to bring about an immediate, effective, complete and orderly transfer of the items set forth above to CFA or its designee; (iii) to execute any and all agreements and other documents deemed necessary or appropriate by CFA to effectuate such expiration or termination (including without limitation cancellation of any registration or filing made under the last sentence of Section 7.4(a) in a prompt and timely manner and to effectuate cancellation, change or transfer of business names, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, email addresses, and Internet domain names, addresses, user names or search terms, or other like items, as applicable and as deemed necessary or appropriate by CFA; (iv) to pay immediately all debts it owes CFA and to pay immediately all debts arising from the operation of the Units or other performance of Licensee's responsibilities under the terms of this Agreement; (v) not to advertise or hold itself out in connection with the operation of any competing business or the sale of any Equipment or other things as having been formerly connected with CFA or to have formerly operated a Unit; and (vi) to make such changes to the Sites and to the Units as CFA may request so as to distinguish the Sites from any other Units. In this regard, Licensee shall, without limiting the generality of the previous sentence, dismantle or otherwise remove from the building and premises of the Units all signage bearing any of the Proprietary Marks and deliver to CFA, pursuant to Section 8.3(b) above, all of such signage.

(d) In the event that the License Term is terminated with respect to one or more, but not all, of the Units, the provisions of this Section 8.3 shall apply only to such terminated Units.

SECTION 9 -- ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER

9.1 Assignment by CFA. CFA may sell, transfer and assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person, firm or corporation. CFA shall not remain liable for the performance of, and shall automatically be released from, any obligations under this Agreement subsequent to any such assignment. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 9.1 to the contrary, CFA may, in its sole and exclusive business judgment and without the consent of Licensee, pledge or assign its right to receive license fees hereunder, to any creditor, as security for indebtedness. In the event of an assignment or assignments (but not a pledge or pledges) pursuant to this Section by CFA to an unrelated third party, Licensee reserves the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) calendar days' prior written notice.

9.2 Limitations on Transfer by Licensee.

Licensee acknowledges and agrees that its rights and duties under this Agreement are personal to Licensee and that CFA has granted the License hereunder to Licensee in reliance upon Licensee's character, skill, experience, business ability and financial qualifications. Therefore, Licensee shall not assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise in any manner, except upon prior written approval of CFA and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and any attempt by Licensee to do so shall be null and void. Licensee shall not change the business form or entity which owns or through which Licensee operates the Units, either directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of CFA.

SECTION 10 -- MISCELLANEOUS LEGAL MATTERS

10.1 Separate and Independent Business Owner. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the relationship of the parties created pursuant to this Agreement is intended by each party to this Agreement to be and is that of a franchised license between CFA and Licensee, who is a separate and independent business owner, whether a person or entity, and neither party (nor any of their respective employees, agents, or representatives) shall incur any claim, debt, liability or obligation, other than as specifically set forth in this Agreement, to any person or entity, including without limitation the other party, for any action or omission undertaken pursuant to or as a result of this Agreement or under any other circumstances. The parties acknowledge and agree that the creation of the above-described relationship and each party's respective ability to perform and to be legally recognized as being in and having the relationship as set forth above and not another during the License Term is part of the essence and a principal purpose of this Agreement.

(a) Nothing in this Agreement makes or shall be deemed to make in law or fact Licensee (or any individual whose salary, wages or other compensation was or is to be paid by Licensee) a general or special agent, partner, legal representative, fiduciary, joint venturer, joint employer, co-employer or employee with or of CFA. In all public records in Licensee's relationship with all other persons or entities, and in any document, Licensee agrees to indicate clearly the independent ownership and operation by Licensee of the Units. Licensee shall not make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations or incur any debt or obligation in CFA's name or on its behalf or represent that the relationship of the parties hereto is anything other than that of a franchisor and franchised licensee who are separate and independent businesses. CFA will not be obligated by or have any liability under any agreements made by Licensee with any third party or for any representations made by Licensee to any third party. Licensee shall, upon commencement of Licensee's duties at the Site of any Unit and periodically thereafter, inform each employee that CFA is not such employee's employer. Licensee further agrees to hold itself out to the public as a separate and independent business owner operating the Units pursuant to a franchised license with CFA. Licensee agrees to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to do so, including with regard to signage, forms, solicitations, business cards, stationery, advertising, third-party communications and other materials.

(b) Although CFA retains the right to establish and modify the CFA System and Manual, Licensee has and shall retain the sole responsibility for and authority to control the day-to-day management and operation of the Units and implementing and maintaining the CFA System and the Manual at the Units. Licensee further acknowledges and agrees, that the various standards, requirements, specifications and procedures of the CFA System, whether set forth in the Manual or otherwise, do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that CFA controls or has the authority or right to control any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of the Units, but only constitute standards Licensee must adhere to when exercising Licensee's own sole control of the day-to-day operations of the Units.

(c) CFA and Licensee recognize and agree that Licensee's employees are exclusively employed and will remain exclusively employed at all times during the Term of this Agreement by the Licensee and CFA does not and will not employ, co-employ or jointly employ Licensee's employees [delete -at the Site], and does not and will not control or have the authority or right to directly or indirectly control labor or employment matters for Licensee and that Licensee, and not CFA, is solely responsible for controlling and has the sole authority and right to control the terms and conditions of employment for the Units and Licensee's employees, including but not limited to hiring, determining compensation and benefits for, establishing schedules and employment duties for, training, managing, supervising, disciplining, promoting, terminating, paying all wages, benefits and employee-related liabilities for, determining staffing levels, tasks to be performed and workplace and safety rules for such employees.

~~(d) Licensee hereby irrevocably affirms, attests and covenants Licensee's belief, agreement, understanding and intent that Licensee's employees are employed and will remain employed at all times during the Term of this Agreement by Licensee and in no fashion is any such employee of Licensee either jointly employed or co-employed by CFA. Licensee further affirms, attests and covenants Licensee's belief, agreement, understanding and intent that each of Licensee's employees is and shall remain under the exclusive control of Licensee and never under the direct or indirect control of CFA in any manner whatsoever.~~

(e) Licensee and CFA acknowledge that any covenants or other duties imposed upon Licensee by this Agreement are not intended to control or otherwise affect the time, manner or method of Licensee's day-to-day operation of the Units but rather to ensure that: (i) the image of the Units, as ultimately seen and judged by its customers, is as positive as possible and therefore such that the Units can be operated for the greatest mutual benefit of Licensee and CFA; (ii) the Trade Secrets, the Confidential Information, Intellectual Property and other proprietary rights of CFA and CFA Properties are adequately protected; and (iii) all CFA's standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures, including those set forth in this Agreement and the Manual are maintained in order to ensure that all customers receive a consistent brand experience, and Licensee has the capability to meet and be in full compliance with CFA's food safety and product quality standards.

10.2 Equitable Remedies. Licensee acknowledges, agrees and warrants that any breach or threatened breach by Licensee of any of the material terms of this Agreement, including without limitation a breach of the provisions of Sections 6, 7, 8 or 9, would result in irreparable damage and harm to CFA that would be difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in such event, CFA shall be entitled, if it so elects, in addition to any other remedies available to it under this Agreement or at law, to immediate equitable relief therefor, including without limitation, an injunction or an order for specific performance. Nothing in this Section 10 shall be deemed to limit CFA's remedies at law or in equity for any breach by Licensee of any provision of this Agreement. Furthermore, nothing in this Section 10 or otherwise contained in this Agreement shall limit, abridge or modify the rights of CFA in and to its Intellectual Property, including its Trade Secrets, Confidential Information and the Proprietary Marks under any applicable national, federal, state, or local trade secret, trade name, trademark, service mark, patent, copyright, unfair competition, license or other law.

10.3 Indemnification. To the extent that applicable law prohibits either Party from making the indemnification covered by this Section 10.3, then to that extent, against the Party that is thus prohibited, this Section 10.3 shall not be effective, and the other Party's indemnification obligation under this Section 10.3 shall be similarly reduced, so that each Party's obligations under this Section 10.3 are roughly equal. Each of CFA and Licensee (as applicable, the "Indemnitor") shall and does hereby hold harmless and indemnify the other Party and its officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates, parent, subsidiaries, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Indemnitee"), from and against any and all claims, counterclaims, suits, demands, debts, costs, liabilities, expenses, setoffs, liens, attachments, judgments, actions and causes of action arising out of (i) the untruth or breach of any of the Indemnitor's representations or warranties in this Agreement, or (ii) a breach by the Indemnitor of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) the negligent or intentionally wrongful acts or omissions of the Indemnitor or any of its officers, directors, shareholders, agents or employees (including, in the case of Licensee, the unauthorized, unlicensed or otherwise unpermitted or improper operation or condition of any part of the Units or the Sites); and the Indemnitor shall reimburse the Indemnitee for any and all costs, damages, penalties and expenses, including without limitation attorneys' and advisors' fees, costs of investigation and court costs that the Indemnitee incurs by reason of or due to any such acts or omissions by the Indemnitor. The indemnities herein shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding any expiration or termination of the License Term.

10.4 Cumulative Rights and Remedies. All rights and remedies of the Parties under this Agreement shall be cumulative.

10.5 Choice of Law. This Agreement was made and took effect when accepted and executed by CFA in the State of Georgia. All rights, duties and obligations of the parties hereto arising out of or relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced solely under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they now exist and hereafter may be amended or changed from time to time (except and without reference to any conflict of law principles, rules and decisions), including without limitation all controversies, disputes and claims of any nature between the Parties arising out of or relating to the validity, performance, interpretation, enforcement, termination or expiration of this Agreement, and any other aspect of the Parties' agreement or relationship. The laws of the State of Georgia shall prevail and otherwise be applied to all such disputes in the event of any conflict of laws.

10.6 Litigation. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Licensee has and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with CFA at its offices in the State of Georgia, where CFA's decision-making authority is vested and where its license program operations are conducted and supervised. The Parties agree that if a controversy or claim between them arises out of or relates to this Agreement or the relationship between Licensee and CFA and results in threatened or pending litigation, then the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, United States of America, and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such matter, and each Party hereby submits and consents to the jurisdiction of each such courts, and each Party hereby agrees to commence, conduct and conclude such matters only in such courts. The Parties further acknowledge and agree that the courts identified above are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the relationship between Licensee and CFA, and agree not to claim, assert or argue that such courts do not have jurisdiction or are inconvenient forums. Licensee hereby waives any and all objections to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of the Fulton County, Georgia Superior Court and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, and further waives any and all objections to the jurisdiction of and venue in such courts, in and for all cases and controversies relating to or arising out of this Agreement and/or the relationship between Licensee and CFA. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision governs except that claims for injunctive relief may be brought by CFA in any appropriate jurisdiction where Licensee is located. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision also shall not restrict the ability of any Party to enforce any judgment, award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction or to obtain the full faith and credit of any judgment, award or order obtained. If either Party files suit or claim to collect sums from or to enforce its rights or any covenant under this Agreement (the "Claiming Party") against the other Party, then the Claiming Party, in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder, shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses incurred in connection with such collection or other action, should the Claiming Party prevail in such suit or claim, including without limitation attorneys' and advisors' fees, court costs and other expenses of litigation.

10.7 Third Party Claims. Licensee agrees to notify immediately CFA of the existence of (and forward to CFA copies of relevant documents, if any, within ten (10) days of its receipt of them) any and all actual or threatened demands, claims, notices, suits, actions or other legal processes served on or otherwise coming to the attention of Licensee that would or could affect any Units, the CFA System, CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, the Proprietary Marks or CFA in general. CFA may, at its option, control any or all such disputes and litigation and Licensee will, at its own expense if it is a named party, or at CFA's expense if it is not, extend its full cooperation in all such matters.

10.8 Caveats.

(a) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that it has entered into this Agreement after making an independent investigation of CFA's operations and not in reliance upon any representative or projected gross revenues, volume, earnings or profits which Licensee might be expected to realize, and that CFA has not made any representation, which is not expressly set forth herein, to induce

Licensee to accept the License and execute this Agreement. Licensee represents and warrants that it acknowledges that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors. CFA DOES NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT CFA DID NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, AS TO THE POTENTIAL SUCCESS, EARNINGS, REVENUES OR PROFITS OF THE UNITS THAT WILL BE OPERATED BY LICENSEE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

(b) Because complete and detailed uniformity in the operation and appearance of all Units may not be possible or practical in the many varying conditions in which Units will be operated, CFA reserves the right and privilege, which it may exercise in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to vary the terms or conditions of a license agreement (including without limitation the fees to be paid by a licensee) or the standards, specifications, methods, techniques or procedures applicable to the operation of a Unit for any other of its licensees based upon the differing physical, business, demographic or other conditions existing in the particular area in which such Unit is located or upon the differing personal abilities, aptitudes, experiences or financial qualifications of such licensees. Licensee acknowledges that it will not be entitled to receive any such variance allowed to any of CFA's other licensees.

10.9 Disclaimer. CFA, FOR ITSELF, ITS AFFILIATES, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES CONCERNING ANY GOODS OR SERVICES SOLD OR APPROVED BY IT, OR THE LICENSE GRANTED BY IT, OR ADVICE, GUIDANCE, APPROVAL OR DIRECTIONS RENDERED BY IT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY WARRANTIES AS TO MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AVAILABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY OR PRICING. LICENSEE AGREES NOT TO MAKE ANY STATEMENT, REPRESENTATION OR CLAIM OR TO GIVE ANY WARRANTY TO THE CONTRARY TO ANY CUSTOMER OR POTENTIAL CUSTOMER OR ANY OTHER PARTY.

SECTION 11 -- GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.1 No Implied Waiver.

(a) Failure of either Party at any time to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect such Party's right to require full performance of that provision at any time thereafter, and the waiver by either Party of a breach of any provision shall not be taken or held to be a waiver of any subsequent breach thereof or a waiver of a breach of any other provision of this Agreement or as nullifying the effectiveness of such provision or any other provision.

(b) The failure of either Party to seek redress for any violation of this Agreement or to take action based upon a Licensee or CFA Termination Event, as the case may be, or to insist upon the strict performance of any condition of this Agreement, shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a Termination Event or violation of this Agreement, from having all the force and effect of an original Termination Event or violation. The receipt or acceptance by either Party of any fees or other payments with knowledge of a Termination Event or violation of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any such relief with respect to such Termination Event or violation. No provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived by either Party unless such waiver be in writing signed by the Party. No payment by either Party or receipt or acceptance by the other Party of a lesser amount than the amount required to be paid shall be deemed to be other than on account of the correct payment.

11.2 Procedure for Notice. Any notice permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed so delivered (and thus also be deemed to have been received by the addressee thereof) on the day of hand delivery, one (1) business day after being sent by facsimile with electronic verification of receipt being received by the sending Party (with an identical copy of any telefaxed materials being sent as well by first class mail) or overnight delivery service (with notification of delivery) or three (3) business days after being placed in the United States mail for delivery within the United States by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, returned receipt requested addressed to the recipient at the address set forth on the signature page to this Agreement, unless that Party shall have given written notice of change of address to the sending Party.

11.3 Severability; Binding Upon Assigns; Further Assurances. If any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be declared invalid or ineffectual by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions hereof shall nonetheless remain valid and shall continue in full force and effect. If it shall be impossible to continue such other provisions of this Agreement in full force and effect after the excision of the provision or provisions so declared invalid or ineffectual, then CFA and Licensee each undertake and agree that they will, upon demand of CFA, make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments which CFA deems necessary or appropriate to accomplish lawfully such continuance. It is the intention of the Parties that this provision may be enforced in equity in addition to and not to the exclusion of any other remedies which may be available to the Parties to this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and its benefits shall inure to, Licensee and its successors and assigns (subject to the provisions of Section 9) and to CFA and its successors and assigns. From time to time during the License Term, Licensee, upon receipt of the written request of CFA, agrees to execute such other documents or instruments as CFA may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate to carry out and complete the terms hereof.

11.4 Headings, Addenda, Exhibits. The captions and headings of the Sections or other subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience and reference only and shall have no effect on the meaning of the Agreement. References to Sections, Addenda and Exhibits refer to sections, addenda and exhibits of this Agreement. All Addenda and Exhibits and other attachments to this Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

11.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, with such counterparts together constituting one and the same instrument.

11.6 Personal Pronouns; Plurals. Each personal pronoun used herein, whether masculine, feminine or neuter, shall include the other gender or genders as the context requires or permits. Each plural or singular verb shall include the other number as the context requires or permits.

11.7 Continued Effectiveness of This Agreement. Except for provisions relating only to the License granted to Licensee under Section 2, this Agreement shall remain effective until neither Party has any further obligation to the other Party under this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that a number of their obligations (for example, Licensee's obligations under Sections 7, 8 and 10) extend beyond the expiration or termination of the License Term.

11.8 Conflicts. This Agreement shall control in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and any other agreements Licensee may make with respect to the Units.

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. No other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement except that Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD were made by either Party and none shall have any force or effect with reference to this Agreement. No officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

11.10 U.S. Executive Order Representation. Licensee represents and warrants that it has not been designated as a suspected terrorist under U.S. Executive Order 13224.

11.11 Miscellaneous. Words of inclusion used in this Agreement (such as "including") shall not be deemed to be words of limitation, such that any items or things listed as "included" in another class of items or things shall not be construed as excluding other items or things not expressly mentioned. Both Parties acknowledge and agree that they have actively participated in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. Licensee agrees to promptly execute amendments to any Addenda, from time to time during the License Term, to reflect changes in the information set forth on the Addenda as of the Effective Date.

- (f) “Gross Receipts” for any period for a particular Unit means Licensee’s entire gross receipts as determined according to generally accepted accounting principles (excluding only sales taxes or value added taxes levied upon retail sales and payable over to the appropriate governmental authority) from all sales of Products, goods, wares and merchandise and from all services performed at, from or in connection with or through the Unit during such period, whether for cash, check or on a charge, credit, time basis or otherwise, including (a) sales originating from orders accepted by Licensee at or away from the Unit, or placed by telephone, fax, delivery/mobile app, requisition or other similar means (collectively “Sales Channels”) or other similar means received or filled at the Unit and (b) any assumed gross revenues of Licensee for purposes of any loss of profits insurance claim. “Gross Receipts” shall not include (i) any refunds to customers previously included in Gross Receipts, and (ii) meals given at any Retail Area to employees of Licensee that work in a Unit at the Retail Area incident to their employment.

- (j) “Manual” means collectively the operations, training and orientation manuals prepared by or on behalf of CFA that CFA will provide to Licensee as a guide for operating the Units and all other written, electronic, audiotaped or videotaped materials prepared by or on behalf of CFA for the same or a related purpose and delivered or made

To the extent that applicable law mandates a definition of “trade secret” inconsistent with the foregoing definition, then the foregoing definition shall be construed in such a manner as to be consistent with the mandated definition under applicable law.
- (p) “Unit” means each Chick-fil-A facility, kiosk, mobile cart, custom facade, counter area or other retail facility from which Licensee is licensed to sell Products pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 2--GRANT AND TERM OF LICENSE

2.1 License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, CFA grants to Licensee, and Licensee accepts, a non-transferable, non-exclusive license (the “License”) during the License Term (as defined in Section 2.5), directly or through “Third Party Operators” as provided in Section 2.6, to: (a) establish and operate a Unit at each Site approved by CFA and licensed to Licensee by CFA, including the Initial Sites and any Additional Sites that may be approved by CFA pursuant to Section 3.1 for which CFA does not require that Licensee execute a new, separate then-current form of License Agreement; (b) sell the Authorized Products from the Units; (c) use the Proprietary Marks and the CFA System solely for the sale of the Authorized Products from the Units, and (d) advertise the Units to the public, consistent with CFA advertising policies. Licensee and CFA shall complete CFA’s then current version of its “Site Description Form” in the form of Exhibit 2 hereto for each Site from which Licensee is authorized to operate a Unit. These completed Site Description Forms shall be maintained by CFA and their contents are deemed incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

2.2 Menus. The core menu for licensed units is set forth on Addendum B. The core menu applicable to each Unit, which may be modified, amended or otherwise supplemented by the Parties from time to time pursuant to mutual agreement, is set forth on the Site Description Form for the Site from which Licensee is authorized to operate such Unit.

2.3 License Not Exclusive. Licensee acknowledges that the rights licensed and granted to it in this Agreement are not exclusive. CFA reserves the right to operate or to grant parties other than Licensee the right to operate Units or other Chick-fil-A restaurants at any location. CFA also reserves the right to use the Proprietary Marks in connection with, or to operate directly or to license the operation of, any business other than Units at any location. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the License Term (as defined in Section 2.5), CFA shall not operate or grant other parties the right to operate Units or other Chick-fil-A restaurants from any Site where Licensee operates a Unit.

2.4 Limitation of License Rights. Except as is otherwise permitted under this Agreement (including Section 2.6), the License and rights granted Licensee in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of Licensee and Licensee shall not grant any third party not directly affiliated with Licensee the right to use the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System to sell any products or services from any location. CFA reserves to itself all other rights not granted expressly to Licensee under this Agreement.

2.5 License Term. The initial term of the License granted Licensee pursuant to this Section 2 (the “License Term”) shall begin on the Effective Date and shall end on the date that is ___ () years after the Effective Date (the “Initial Termination Date”), subject to its earlier termination pursuant to Section 8. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that: (1) Licensee, under this Agreement, has no right either to extend or renew the License Term or to be offered or granted a new license agreement by CFA upon the Initial Termination Date; and (2) CFA is under no obligation under this Agreement either to extend or renew the License Term or to offer or grant a new license agreement to Licensee upon the Initial Termination Date. Any decision by CFA to offer Licensee the opportunity to enter into a new license agreement regarding the License granted in this Section 2 for a period of time beyond the Initial Termination Date: (1) shall be made in the exercise of CFA’s sole and exclusive business judgment (which may include, without limitation, its assessment of Licensee’s performance under and adherence to the terms of this Agreement, Licensee's ability to continue to operate at the Sites, and the past economic and operational performance of the Units); (2) may be extended or otherwise made in the form of CFA's then-current form of license agreement (which may include new terms, conditions and fees); and (3) is not and shall not be deemed to be a part of this Agreement. The License Term shall include any modifications to the initial term of the License agreed to by CFA in writing.

2.6 Third Party Operators. Licensee may enter into a food service or management relationship with third parties ("Third Party Operators") for the Third Party Operators to operate one or more Units if the following conditions are satisfied before the Third Party Operators are given any rights with respect to Chick-fil-A products: (i) the Third Party Operators and all Third Party Operator personnel and all other persons working in a Unit operated by a Third Party Operator ("Third Party Personnel") must have signed a Chick-fil-A "Confidentiality Agreement" in the form of Exhibit 1; and (ii) CFA must have approved the Third Party Operator arrangement in writing.

- (a) Administrative Matters. CFA will supply Licensee with a supply of Confidentiality Agreement forms, pre-signed by CFA. Licensee shall maintain all signed Confidentiality Agreements in an organized and secure manner. Licensee shall provide CFA with original executed copies of each Confidentiality Agreement upon request of CFA. At the end of each calendar year during the License Term, Licensee shall provide CFA with a list of all parties who have signed (or are required to sign under this Section 2.6) a Confidentiality Agreement.
- (b) Rationale for Section 2.6 Requirements. The Parties acknowledge that the requirements set forth in this Section 2.6 are designed to make sure that every party involved in the operation of a Unit or the sale of Products as a result of this Agreement are legally bound to CFA to comply with all applicable Chick-fil-A standards, policies and procedures. Licensee accepts responsibility for making sure that all such parties including Third Party Operators and all persons working in Units operated by the Third Party Operators comply with all such standards, policies and procedures (including but not limited to those set forth in the Confidentiality Agreement and the Manual). Licensee shall, in appropriate cases, take legal action (or cooperate with CFA in any legal action taken by CFA) to enforce compliance with or address breaches or threatened breaches of any such standards, policies and procedures by such Third Party Operators and their employees.

SECTION 3--SITES

3.1 Additional Sites. If during the License Term Licensee determines that it would (itself or through Third Party Operators) like to operate Units at Additional Sites, it shall notify CFA promptly of each such proposed Additional Site and shall convey to CFA all information about the proposed Additional Site requested by CFA. CFA is under no obligation to offer Licensee the opportunity to operate Units at Additional Sites, and CFA reserves the right under Section 3 hereof not to offer Licensee the opportunity to operate Units at Additional Sites. CFA shall have the option to reject or tentatively accept the proposed Additional Site, pending CFA's completion of a site visit and any further investigative activities it deems necessary or appropriate. Licensee shall arrange for CFA to have access to each proposed Additional Site so that CFA can conduct an assessment of the Site. After CFA has completed the site visit, Licensee shall complete a Site Description Form for the proposed Additional Site and submit it to CFA for final approval. CFA shall have ten (10) business days from the date it receives the completed Site Description Form to approve or reject the proposed Additional Site. CFA may reject Licensee's proposal for Additional Sites if CFA determines, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, that: (i) the proposed Additional Sites are unsuitable for operating Units; (ii) the proposed Additional Sites reflect inappropriately on CFA or the CFA System; or (iii) the lease, facility, use, occupancy or ownership arrangements with respect to the proposed Additional Sites do not comply with the requirements of Section 6.8. As a condition to CFA's approval of each Additional Site, CFA may require, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, that: (i) Licensee execute a new, separate then-current form of License Agreement for each such Additional Site; and (ii) Licensee pay an initial license fee for each such Additional Site, if CFA generally requires prospective licensees to pay an initial license fee in executing its then-current License Agreement.

3.2 Responsibility. Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee has the sole responsibility for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. Approval by CFA of Sites shall not constitute a representation or warranty by CFA that the Units operated at the Sites will be profitable or safe for customers or employees or other personnel of Licensee or Third Party Operator. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA's prior written consent.

SECTION 4--FEES

4.1 License Fees and Other Fees. Addendum C sets forth license fees and certain other fees that Licensee shall pay CFA in consideration of the various rights granted to Licensee under this Agreement and the timing and procedures for paying such license fees and other fees. Licensee agrees to pay all such license fees and other fees as and when they are due and in accordance with all CFA policies.

SECTION 5--TRAINING AND ASSISTANCE

5.1 Training. Before Licensee can begin operating a Unit, it must send at least two (2) management-level personnel from the Site, whose duties include management or supervision of Licensee's employees at the Unit, to an initial Licensee training program sponsored by CFA and these individuals must complete the program to CFA's satisfaction. Before Licensee can begin operating a Unit, Licensee must also send at least two (2) or, at Chick-fil-A's sole election and option, one (1) other senior management-level employee from the Unit, whose duties may also include management or supervision of Licensee's employees at the Unit, to the in person cultural experience portion of the Licensee initial training program designated by CFA and these employees must complete that portion of the program to CFA's satisfaction. CFA shall determine the location, time, content and length of the training program. CFA shall waive a tuition charge for the first two (2) such management-level personnel attending the training program from the Site. Additional personnel may attend the training program if there is space available in the program and Licensee pays the tuition (as set by CFA on Addendum C) for the program. Licensee shall be responsible for the travel, room, living and other expenses, wages, benefits and workers compensation coverage incurred by personnel attending the training program. Licensee shall ensure that, at all times during the License Term, at least two (2) management-level personnel at a Site whose duties include management or supervision of Licensee's employees at the Unit shall have attended and completed to CFA's satisfaction all then required components of the Licensee training program. As part of the Chick-fil-A Licensee training requirements, each Licensee designated manager required to be trained pursuant to this Section must be recertified every five years in order for Licensee to stay in compliance.

5.2 Additional Assistance. CFA, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, may make available to Licensee, from time to time, such additional advice and assistance as Licensee may reasonably request or CFA may deem necessary, including assistance or advice regarding the operation of the Units, additional training and sales building.

SECTION 6--OPERATION OF THE UNITS

6.1 Corporate Culture. Licensee acknowledges the unique corporate environment, culture, reputation and goodwill, including, for example, the Sunday closing policy, that have evolved as an integral part of the CFA System (the "Chick-fil-A Culture"). Accordingly, Licensee agrees that it shall exercise its rights and License granted to it pursuant to this Agreement in a manner consistent with the reputation and goodwill of Chick-fil-A and the Chick-fil-A Culture.

6.2 Uniformity. Licensee acknowledges that the CFA System is a unique and unified approach to selling the Products and that, subject to Section 10.8(b), compliance with CFA's standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures for operating the Units is necessary to maintain the general uniformity upon which part of the goodwill of CFA and the CFA System depend. Accordingly, subject to Section 10.8(b), Licensee shall conduct the operations of the Units in compliance with all of CFA's standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures, including those set forth in this Agreement or the Manual, unless CFA has given Licensee its prior written consent to do otherwise. Licensee recognizes and agrees that CFA from time to time may change or modify its standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures and agrees to accept, comply with and otherwise conform to all such changes or modifications (and shall make all reasonable expenditures necessary for such acceptance, compliance and conformance) within a reasonable period of time after Licensee's receipt of notice of such changes or modifications.

6.3 Standards of Operation. Licensee shall and, with respect to Units operated by Third Party Operators, Licensee shall make sure that every Third Party Operator shall:

- (c) advertise, market, promote and merchandise the business of each Unit by the use of the Proprietary Marks in accordance with Sections 6.6 and 7;
- (d) prevent the operation of any Unit, and refrain from using the Proprietary Marks in advertising or promotion, in such a way as to impair the value or reputation of the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System;
- (e) prevent the use of any Unit for any immoral or illegal purpose or for any other purpose, business activity, use or function that is not expressly authorized by this Agreement or otherwise approved in writing in advance by CFA and, to the extent Licensee controls the operation of the Sites, prevent the use of any Site for any illegal purpose or any purpose inconsistent with the Chick-fil-A Culture;
- (f) stay familiar and comply with all requirements in the Manual;
- (g) not operate any Unit or otherwise sell the Products from any Unit on Sundays or on Christmas Day;

- (j) pay on a timely basis (i) for all Products, Ingredients, supplies and other goods and services purchased by Licensee for use in connection with the operation of each Unit, (ii) all national, federal, state and local income, sales, withholding, value added and other taxes for which Licensee is liable under a federal, state or local government under any law, statute, ordinance or regulation, and (iii) any debt service on any debt incurred to finance the operation of any Unit;
- (k) comply with all supra-national, national, federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances and regulations affecting the operation of the Sites and the Units, including without limitation health, sanitation, fire, safety, environmental, employment, labor and immigration laws, statutes, ordinances and regulations, including without limitation with regard to discrimination, harassment, retaliation,

- (o) sell all Products in a manner which is not detrimental to CFA's reputation or the positioning of the Products in the market;

6.4 Confidentiality Agreement. In order to give CFA appropriate protection for its Confidential Information and Trade Secrets, Licensee shall require its managers and supervisors involved in the Units to sign a Confidentiality Agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit 1.

6.5 Operations Manual. CFA shall provide electronically and lend a copy of the Manual to Licensee for each Site during the License Term for any Unit located at such Site, which copy Licensee shall ensure is kept on the premises of the Sites in a secure location. Licensee shall notify CFA immediately if the Manual or access to the Manual is lost, compromised or destroyed, and CFA shall send a replacement Manual or access to Licensee. Licensee shall pay CFA a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each replacement Manual. The Manual, including all new, updated and superseded pages and content, shall at all times remain the property of CFA. Licensee shall return the Manual to CFA within three (3) business days of the expiration or any termination of the License Term of all Units located at the Site. CFA may amend and update the Manual as it deems necessary or appropriate and send new pages or completely revised manuals to Licensee, at no cost to Licensee. Licensee agrees to insert immediately all new pages in their proper places and to remove the superseded pages at the same time and return the superseded pages and/or replaced manuals to CFA within three (3) business days of the receipt by Licensee of the new pages or revised manuals. The Manual is intended to further the purposes of this Agreement and Licensee shall operate the Units to be in full compliance with all requirements in the Manual. In addition, any changes in the Manual made by CFA during the License Term shall be incorporated into the Manual automatically as of the date updated provisions are deemed received by Licensee pursuant to the notice provisions of Section 11.2. In the event of a conflict between the Manual and this Agreement, this Agreement shall prevail.

6.6 Consumer Awareness. Licensee shall at all times during the term of this Agreement, at its own cost, use diligent efforts to advance the reputation of CFA and the Products and to enhance consumer awareness of the Products and the Proprietary Marks. Licensee shall use only advertising and promotional materials, programs and techniques that are consistent with the Chick-fil-A Culture and that comply with any CFA advertising guidelines that may be disseminated from time to time.

6.7 Preparation and Modification of the Units. Licensee shall purchase, lease, maintain and replace all equipment and signage for the Units necessary in order to comply with CFA's then-current standards at Licensee's own cost and directly from an approved supplier in accordance with this Section 6.7. Licensee shall be responsible for all installation and space conversion and shall bear the cost of all required smallwares. Licensee shall be responsible for supplying all necessary working drawings and plans for construction, remodeling or renovation of the Sites (the "Drawings") required to prepare the Units for operation, and shall submit such Drawings to CFA prior to their use. Unless within twenty (20) business days of receipt of the Drawings from Licensee (verified by post office returned receipt or overnight delivery service notification of delivery (signature required)) CFA notifies Licensee of CFA's disapproval of such Drawings, the Drawings will be deemed to have been approved by CFA. Licensee shall build, renovate or remodel the Sites, as the case may be, only in accordance with such plans as they are supplied, or approved, by CFA. To the extent any Unit has been operated by Licensee prior to the date of this Agreement pursuant to a license with CFA, or this Agreement is renewed or extended by operation of law beyond the Initial Termination Date, Licensee shall refurbish and remodel at CFA's option and direction each such Unit to Chick-fil-A's then-current standards, specifications, policies and designs for the development and operation of a Chick-fil-A licensed unit in accordance with Sections 6.2, 6.7 and 6.8 of this Agreement. As between CFA and Licensee, CFA shall be the sole and exclusive owner of all proprietary elements of the Drawings and the renderings on the Drawings, whether or not they are prepared by or on behalf of CFA, although Licensee shall be entitled to retain a copy of the Drawings (provided that Licensee may not disclose the Drawings to any third parties or use the Drawings for a purpose not in conjunction with CFA). To the extent that the Drawings are prepared by or on behalf of Licensee, Licensee shall be solely responsible for providing any third-party service provider with timely payment for such Drawings, and Licensee hereby assigns and agrees to assign or to procure the assignment of all Intellectual Property rights therein, including without limitation copyright and all rights to sue for past infringement, at no cost to CFA. Licensee shall not, without the prior written consent of CFA, adversely modify the appearance of the Units in any way or make any modification of the Sites that is reasonably likely to affect materially the Proprietary Marks.

6.8 Building and Premises Standards. CFA shall have the right to require Licensee to purchase the signage, fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment and other features of the building or premises of the Units from suppliers approved in advance by CFA. With respect to the Initial Sites, CFA may exercise such right by delivering written notice to Licensee promptly upon the execution of this Agreement by CFA; with respect to Additional Sites, CFA may exercise such right by delivering written notice to Licensee promptly after approval of the Additional Sites as indicated on the Site Description Form for such Additional Site. Licensee acknowledges that CFA may appoint as many or as few approved suppliers as it reasonably deems appropriate and that such approved suppliers may in some instances include or be limited to CFA (in which case CFA may receive payments as allowed by Section 6.10).

6.9 Standards for Products and Supplies.

- (a) Licensee may only sell in a Unit the Authorized Products for that Unit. Licensee shall at all times during the License Term offer for sale at each Unit all Products on the Unit Core Menu approved by CFA for that Unit. Licensee shall not under any circumstances sell any other products or conduct any other business in or from the Units or sell the Products from any location other than the Units, unless approved in advance in writing by CFA.
- (b) In preparing Products for sale in the Units, Licensee agrees to use only the ingredients, techniques and procedures designated or approved in advance by CFA. Licensee may offer only such Products in the proportions, appearance and packaging as may periodically be specified by CFA. Licensee agrees that all Products offered for sale in the Units shall comply with CFA's standards and specifications of quality, portion, taste and appearance and agrees to refrain from selling in the Units any Products that fail to meet such standards and specifications.

- (c) Except as CFA may otherwise approve in writing in advance, Licensee shall utilize in the Units only those paper products (e.g. bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, napkins or cartons) or utensils or customer goodwill items and other food and beverage containers and customer convenience items that display one or more of the Proprietary Marks.
- (d) Except as CFA may otherwise approve in writing in advance, Licensee shall purchase from CFA or suppliers approved in advance by CFA all Products and Ingredients, and all bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, napkins, cartons, utensils, customer goodwill items and other food and beverage containers and customer convenience items that display one or more of the Proprietary Marks or that are sold or used in at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the then existing CFA restaurants and other facilities selling any or all of the Products even if such items do not display any of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee acknowledges that CFA may appoint as many or as few approved suppliers as it reasonably deems appropriate and that such approved suppliers may in some instances include or be limited to CFA (in which case CFA may receive payments as allowed by Section 6.10).

6.10 Payments to CFA. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that CFA shall have the right to charge and receive payments such as those set forth in Addendum C for or on account of sales of goods or services to or for the benefit of Licensee as CFA reasonably deems appropriate, including without limitation: (a) from Licensee directly when Licensee purchases such goods or services directly from CFA or its authorized distributor(s); or (b) from any other person or entity in the supply chain when Licensee purchases the goods or services from a supplier. Licensee agrees that such payments may be or contain a profit to CFA. Licensee shall reimburse CFA promptly (and in any event within thirty (30) days of receipt of invoice from CFA) for any expenses incurred by CFA on behalf of or for Licensee, and Licensee shall pay interest to CFA on any amounts not paid within such thirty (30) day period in an amount equal to twelve percent (12%) per annum or the highest amount permitted under law if less than twelve percent (12%) per annum.

6.11 Insurance. Licensee, at its own expense, shall procure before the commencement of operation of any Unit, maintain in full force and effect at all times during the License Term, and not allow to be cancelled, lapsed, suspended or modified, Commercial General liability insurance covering each Unit for liability arising from premises, operations, personal injury, products/completed operations, and liability assumed under an insured contract. All insurance coverage required by this Section 6.11 shall be maintained under one or more insurance policies containing minimum liability protection of three million dollars ($3,000,000) per occurrence. All insurance policies required by this Section 6.11 shall be issued by an insurance company licensed and approved by the Insurance Commissioner (or similar official) in the jurisdiction in which the covered Units are located and have a minimum A.M. Best rating and financial size class of A -VII. Licensee must notify CFA prior to canceling or not renewing any coverage. Licensee shall be the principal beneficiary of such Commercial General liability insurance policies but shall designate CFA as an additional insured on all such policies and arrange to show this designation via endorsement and on all certificates of coverage and shall forward the endorsement/certificates of coverage to CFA within thirty (30) calendar days of procuring such insurance but in any event before opening a covered Unit. Licensee shall provide annually an updated certificate of insurance with applicable endorsements within 30 days of their policy renewal. Licensee's insurance obligations in this Section 6.11 shall not be limited in any way because of any insurance that CFA may maintain.

6.12 Point of Sale, Data and Reporting Requirements.

- (a) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that, in support of CFA's operation and development of the CFA System, it is desirable for CFA to collect certain limited financial, operational, and statistical information concerning the Units. Licensee further acknowledges its responsibility and obligation to submit any such information requested by CFA within such timeframes as may be reasonably established by CFA from time to time. Accordingly, Licensee agrees to obtain, maintain and use at its sole cost and expense at all times computer hardware and software, including computer, point of sale, and other electronic information systems, a high-speed Internet connection, and all equipment components and software approved by CFA and otherwise necessary for Licensee to meet all functionality, performance and informational requirements specified by CFA, as the same may be required and modified by CFA in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time (collectively, the "POS Systems"). The functionality, performance and informational requirements specified by CFA for the POS Systems may include, without limitation, the ability to accept and process all transactions at the Units (such as for example mobile ordering and payment systems and other related technology), to transmit point of sale data to CFA or allow and effect CFA to poll same as and when CFA deems desirable and appropriate, and to facilitate Licensee's participation in any gift card, customer loyalty, affinity and similar programs established by CFA as CFA deems appropriate and desirable for Licensee to participate in from time to time. CFA shall have the right to designate a single source (who may be CFA or its affiliate) from whom Licensee must purchase certain components or the entire POS Systems, related licenses and technology, and related support services. Licensee bears responsibility for the proper functioning of the POS Systems and ensuring it is operational at all times including access to the Internet and any extranet that may be established. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "poll" or "polling" means any process acceptable to CFA by which information or data about the Units may be transmitted to or from the POS Systems or other system operated by Licensee or its agent into a computer or system operated by CFA or its agents in the manner and format prescribed by CFA from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, CFA may poll for information including, without limitation, daily sales data, daily transaction level data, sales per visit and products and combination of products sold, otherwise known as product mix data or "PMIX", and inventory data. Licensee shall also furnish to CFA the reports and documents relating to Licensee's operation of the Units as described on Addendum D, as the same may be modified by CFA in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time.

- (b) If any information provided pursuant to this Section demonstrates an underpayment of any License Fee, Licensee shall pay any and all sums due together with interest and costs as described in Section 6.13(d). If the information demonstrates an overpayment, it shall be credited to Licensee's account.
- (c) If Licensee learns of an incident that may be a breach of the security of Licensee's POS Systems or other computer systems as defined under Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.82 or any other applicable data breach notification law, Licensee must immediately notify CFA of the facts that are known about the incident (a "Data Breach"). Although Licensee is and shall remain responsible for complying with all data breach notification laws and standards applicable to Licensee and the Units, Licensee will cooperate and coordinate with CFA regarding such incidents where notification to individuals is required before individuals are notified so that CFA can be aware of and be prepared to address issues that may affect the Proprietary Marks and the System and be in a position to support Licensee where CFA deems advisable and possible. In the event of an actual or suspected Data Breach, Licensee agrees to cooperate with CFA and to provide CFA with any access and information CFA may reasonably request to conduct its own investigation and support CFA's own remediation efforts. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall relieve Licensee of Licensee's obligation to comply with applicable laws, regulations, rules, standards or any equivalent thereof concerning an actual or suspected Data Breach or Licensee's sole responsibility for any costs or financial losses Licensee incurs or remedial actions that Licensee must take as a result of an actual or suspected Data Breach.

6.13 Maintenance of Records, Inspections and Audits.

- (a) Licensee shall maintain detailed written and electronic records of Licensee's licensed operations (including, but not limited to, any reports required on Addendum D) and all of its books and records shall be maintained according to generally accepted accounting principles. Licensee shall preserve these books and records for at least three (3) years after the close of Licensee's fiscal year to which they relate. CFA has the right to determine whether Licensee is complying with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the requirements in the Manual. Accordingly, Licensee shall ensure that CFA or its designated representatives shall have the right at any time during business hours to: (i) enter upon and inspect the building and premises of the Units or offices and inspect and audit any records located or stored there relating to the Units;

(ii) inspect, audit and photocopy the business records, bookkeeping and accounting records, operating records, operating reports, correspondence and general business records of the Units, and the other forms and information and supporting records which Licensee is required to submit to CFA hereunder; and (iii) inspect and observe the standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures being utilized by Licensee in the operation of the Units. CFA shall give Licensee at least seventy-two (72) hours prior notice before entering the premises or performing any inspections under clause (i) or (ii) above; however, CFA may act without notice under clause (iii) above or if CFA has a reasonable basis to believe that Licensee has materially violated any term of this Agreement. Licensee shall ensure that it, any Third Party Operators and all other relevant parties fully cooperate with CFA or its designated representatives making any such inspection or conducting or supervising any such audit, and shall ensure that CFA or its designated representatives are permitted to take photographs of the building and premises of the Units and to interview customers of and personnel working in the Units.

- (b) In the event that any of the books and records relating to a Unit are located other than at the Site associated with the Unit, Licensee shall ensure that CFA shall have the same rights to enter such other location and inspect and copy such books and records as is provided in Section 6.13(a). In the event that a Unit is located at a Site to which access is restricted or at which the taking of photographs or interview of customers is restricted, or some or all of the books and records relating to a Unit are located at a place to which access is restricted, Licensee shall diligently assist and facilitate CFA in obtaining access to such Sites or place to conduct any inspection or audit of such Units or the records relating thereto. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a Site or place to which “access is restricted” refers to a Site or place access to which is not within the control of Licensee or is otherwise restricted by an unrelated third party.
- (c) Following any inspection, examination or audit of a Unit, CFA may prepare a list of non-compliant items and other deficiencies in Licensee’s (or a Third Party Operator’s) operation of the Unit and deliver the list to Licensee. Licensee must thereafter use diligent efforts to correct such non-compliant items and other deficiencies, including taking such actions as CFA may reasonably direct Licensee to take, in order to bring itself and the operation of the Unit into full compliance with this Agreement. Licensee must be in full compliance with every provision of this Agreement within thirty (30) calendar days following delivery of such list of deficiencies by CFA to Licensee.
- (d) If any inspection reveals that Gross Receipts reported are less than the actual Gross Receipts ascertained by such inspection, Licensee shall immediately pay CFA the additional amount of License Fee and other fees owed to CFA by reason of such understatement, together with interest of twelve percent (12%) per annum or the highest rate permitted by law if less than twelve percent (12%) per annum. If any report or statement prepared by Licensee understates Gross Receipts by more than five percent (5%) of the actual Gross Receipts, Licensee shall, in addition to making the payment provided for in the immediately preceding sentence, pay and reimburse CFA for any and all expenses incurred in connection with ascertaining the understatement, including, but not limited to, reasonable accounting and legal fees. Such payment shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies CFA may have under this Agreement or under law or at equity. If any such inspection, examination or audit discloses an overpayment of License Fees, the amount overpaid shall be credited to Licensee’s account.

SECTION 7--PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

7.1 Ownership of Rights. CFA Properties has granted CFA a license to use and to sublicense others to use the Proprietary Marks and other Intellectual Property owned by CFA Properties, including, but not limited to, in the manner contemplated by this Agreement. Licensee agrees that all references in this Agreement regarding all rights and benefits of ownership and the use of the Proprietary Marks and such other Intellectual Property are understood to run and inure, and it is understood and agreed that such rights and benefits will run and inure, to CFA Properties or CFA, as applicable, or their respective successors in interest, as owner or licensee, as applicable. The Parties acknowledge that CFA Properties owns and shall retain all ownership of Intellectual Property associated with the Proprietary Marks and the CFA System. To the extent Licensee has or later obtains any Intellectual Property rights in the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System, by operation of law or otherwise, Licensee hereby agrees to assign all such rights exclusively to CFA Properties or, at CFA’s election, CFA’s designee, and agrees to take any further action requested by CFA to effectuate such an assignment.

7.2 Non-Disclosure Covenant. Each Party acknowledges that it may be exposed to certain Confidential Information and Trade Secrets of the other Party during the License Term, and that its unauthorized use, publication or disclosure of such information or data could cause immediate and irreparable harm to such other Party. Accordingly, except to the extent that it is necessary to use such information or data to perform its express obligations under this Agreement, neither Party shall (and each Party shall take diligent measures to ensure that none of its employees, other personnel, agents or advisors, or in the case of Licensee, any Third Party Operator or any Third Party Personnel, shall), without the express prior written consent of the other Party, redistribute, market, publish, disclose or divulge to any other person or entity, or use or modify for use, directly or indirectly in any way for any person or entity: (a) any of the other Party’s Confidential Information during the License Term and for a period of two (2) years after the termination of the License Term; or (b) any of the other Party’s Trade Secrets at any time during which such information shall constitute a Trade Secret (before or after termination of the License Term). The Parties acknowledge and agree that CFA’s Trade Secrets include, but are not limited to: Product formulations, recipes and Ingredients; Product marketing and promotional techniques and plans; financial data and plans; lists of actual and prospective Chick-fil-A licensees, franchised operators, and suppliers; and any components of the CFA System that fall within the definition of “Trade Secret.” THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT CFA’S CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION INCLUDES, BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO: THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT; THE CONTENTS OF THE MANUAL (EXCEPT FOR ANY INFORMATION IN THE MANUAL THAT WOULD CONSTITUTE A “TRADE SECRET” OF CFA); AND ANY COMPONENT OF THE CFA SYSTEM THAT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A “TRADE SECRET” BUT THAT OTHERWISE MEETS THE DEFINITION OF “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.”

7.3 Limitations on Competition.

- (a) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that, given CFA’s substantial investment in the CFA System and given Licensee’s and each Third Party Operator’s substantial access to CFA’s Confidential Information and Trade Secrets, it is reasonable for Licensee and each Third Party Operator to agree to refrain from certain competitive activities during and for a reasonable time after the License Term.
- (b) Without CFA’s prior written permission, Licensee shall not, and shall ensure that each Third Party Operator shall not, during the period of time that it is operating a Unit, anywhere within the Site associated with the Unit, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with or through any other party, sell any nationally or regionally branded chicken products or any products that are the same as or substantially similar in nature and in presentation to any Products offered for sale at the Unit pursuant to the CFA System.
- (c) Without CFA’s prior written permission, for twelve (12) months after Licensee ceases operating or having the right to operate a Unit (such a Unit being referred to as a “Closed Unit”), Licensee shall not, and shall ensure that each Third Party Operator shall not, from the space where the Closed Unit was located, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with or through any other party, sell any nationally or regionally branded chicken products or any products that are the same as or substantially similar in nature and in presentation to any Products previously offered for sale at the Closed Unit pursuant to the CFA System.
- (d) If Licensee violates any covenant in this Section 7.3, it shall be presumed that Licensee has used Confidential Information and Trade Secrets of CFA in violation of Section 7.2.
- (e) If any court or other tribunal having jurisdiction to determine the validity or enforceability of any provision contained in this Section 7 determines that it would be invalid or unenforceable as written, in whole or in part, then the provisions of this Section 7 shall be deemed to be modified to the extent or in the manner as is necessary in order for those provisions to be valid and enforceable to the greatest extent possible.

7.4 Use of Proprietary Marks.

- (a) Licensee acknowledges that the Proprietary Marks are valid and are the exclusive and valuable property of CFA Properties; that CFA has the right to use, and to sublicense others to use, the Proprietary Marks; and that only duly authorized licensees have the right to use the Proprietary Marks. Licensee further acknowledges that any use by Licensee of the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement is solely in its role as a licensee of CFA. Licensee shall not use the Proprietary Marks in any manner, either directly or through any other person or entity, other than as necessary to operate the Units. Licensee shall not use any other trademark or service mark (including without limitation any non-English language version) in conjunction with any of the Proprietary Marks without the prior written consent of CFA, nor shall Licensee use or allow the use of any other trademark or service mark in connection with the Units. Licensee further covenants that it will not contest or aid in the contest of the validity of, or ownership of, or CFA’s right to use and to license others to use, the Proprietary Marks, nor take or knowingly permit any other action which will or could in any way prejudice or harm any or all of the Proprietary Marks or CFA Properties’ ownership thereof, or CFA’s right to use and to license others to use the Proprietary Marks. Licensee expressly agrees that it will not adopt or use, or aid a third party in adopting or using, any trademark or service mark that is similar to, imitative of or likely to be confused with any of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee also covenants that it will affix such symbols as “TM”, SM, “®”, or the equivalent, next to or in conjunction with all of its uses of the Proprietary Marks, as appropriate or necessary, or as directed by CFA, in order to protect all of CFA’s rights therein. Any and all goodwill arising out of Licensee’s use of any or all of the Proprietary Marks shall inure to the benefit of CFA Properties and shall be and remain the exclusive property of CFA Properties. Where required by CFA, Licensee shall be recorded as a registered user or licensee with the trademarks registry or other appropriate authority in respect of one or more of the Proprietary Marks for any or all of the relevant goods or services or Licensee shall cause other filings to be made having a goal similar to the foregoing, and Licensee shall sign all documents and do all acts to assist CFA for any or all such purposes.
- (b) Licensee shall always use the Proprietary Marks in accordance with applicable standards and specifications set by CFA. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that CFA shall have the right to review, and approve or disapprove, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, any and all uses of the Proprietary Marks by Licensee on or in connection with any goods and in all media and in connection with all services (which right will also extend to the quality of such goods and services). Licensee agrees to cease or alter any use of the Proprietary Marks which fails to conform with all applicable standards and specifications set by CFA or which CFA deems in its sole and exclusive business judgment to be otherwise unacceptable.

- (c) Licensee agrees to advise promptly and fully CFA of all knowledge it has or acquires concerning any use of a trade name, trademark, service mark or other mark that may infringe upon any of the Proprietary Marks, but CFA or its designee retains the exclusive right and authority to protect or defend the Proprietary Marks; provided, however, that CFA or its designee shall not be obligated to defend any or all of the Proprietary Marks and may determine not to defend any or all of them for any reason whatsoever; and provided, further, that CFA does not warrant the validity of any or all of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee does agree, however, at the cost of CFA, to be a named party in any demand, suit or action which CFA may determine to institute in connection with such matters and otherwise to cooperate as CFA reasonably requests in any defense or other protection of the Proprietary Marks. Any and all damages and costs recovered shall be for the sole account of CFA.
- (d) If it appears to CFA that protection of one or more of the Proprietary Marks is no longer viable, either commercially or legally, CFA has the right to relinquish such Proprietary Mark and, at its election, to adopt another mark in the relinquished mark's place. In such event, Licensee agrees to cooperate with CFA in changing all signage, literature, supplies and the like to adapt the Units. Licensee shall not use the mark CHICK-FIL-A or any words identical or similar to any Proprietary Mark in its corporate or other name.
- (e) Licensee specifically acknowledges and agrees that it has no right to and shall not establish a Website (as defined below), nor offer, promote or sell any products or services, or make any use of the Proprietary Marks through the Internet without CFA's prior written approval. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that CFA is under no obligation to grant such consent to Licensee and, as a condition to granting any such consent, CFA shall have the right to establish such requirements as CFA deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, the requirement that Licensee's only presence on the Internet involving, using or otherwise in any association with the Proprietary Marks shall be through a webpage established by CFA on CFA's webpage or Website. As used in this Agreement, the term "Website" means an interactive electronic document, contained in a network of computers linked by communications software, including, without limitation, the Internet and World Wide Web home pages. Any webpage or Website proposed or established by Licensee involving, using or otherwise in any association with the Proprietary Marks shall otherwise be deemed to be a use of the Proprietary Marks under this Agreement, and will be subject to, among other things, CFA's approval and then-current policies, procedures, standards and requirements under this Section 7.4, including the subparts above.

7.5 Copyrights. Licensee acknowledges that the Manual is an original work of authorship owned by CFA Properties, which has been published with the appropriate notice of copyright and is accordingly protected by the United States Copyright Law 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., and any and all other applicable copyright laws. Licensee shall not alter or modify the Manual without the prior written consent of the copyright owner.

7.6 Acknowledgment. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that its covenants set forth in this Section 7 are reasonable as to time, scope and territory given CFA's need to protect its Trade Secrets and Confidential Information, particularly given the complexity and competitive nature of the food service industry, and that, if Licensee's relationship with CFA under this Agreement ends, Licensee has sufficient resources to find alternative, commensurate business in its respective fields of expertise that would not violate Section 7. Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that the covenants set forth in this Section 7 and the rights and remedies conferred on CFA under this Agreement are essential elements of this Agreement and that without their inclusion, CFA would not have entered into this Agreement.

SECTION 8--TERMINATION OF LICENSE

8.1 Termination by Licensee.

- (a) Any one or more of the following shall be a "Licensee Termination Event": (i) CFA's breach of any one or more of its material covenants in this Agreement; or (ii) the incorrectness or untruth of any one or more of CFA's material representations or warranties in this Agreement.
- (b) Upon the occurrence of a Licensee Termination Event described in Section 8.1(a)(i), Licensee may serve CFA with written notice specifying the nature of the CFA breach, and upon the expiration of thirty (30) calendar days, if CFA shall have failed to cure or correct the CFA breach, then Licensee may terminate the License Term by serving a written notice of termination upon CFA, with such termination to be effective upon receipt by CFA. If the CFA breach is of such a nature that it cannot be completely cured or corrected within the thirty-day period, and if CFA shall have diligently commenced and continued curing or correcting the CFA breach within the thirty-day period, then the thirty-day period shall be extended as long as reasonably necessary for CFA, using its best commercial efforts, to cure or correct completely the CFA breach.
- (c) Upon the occurrence of a Licensee Termination Event described in Sections 8.1(a)(ii), Licensee may terminate the License Term after providing at least ten (10) calendar days' written notice of termination to CFA with such termination to be effective upon the tenth calendar day following receipt by CFA.

8.2 Termination by CFA.

- (a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events shall be a "CFA Termination Event": (i) Licensee breaches or otherwise fails to comply with any one or more of its material duties or covenants in this Agreement (including, without limitation, any one or more of its duties and obligations under Sections 4, 6 and 7 of this Agreement) or a Third Party Operator or Third Party Personnel breaches or otherwise fails to comply with any obligation under the Confidentiality Agreement; (ii) any one or more of Licensee's material representations or warranties in this Agreement are untrue; (iii) each of Licensee or any Third Party Operator or any of their respective principals, officers, directors, owners, employees or other Third Party Personnel, agents or contractors (collectively "Licensee Parties") takes any action, or fails to take any action, which action or failure to act, damages, or in the estimation of CFA has damaged or is likely to damage, the goodwill or reputation of CFA or is inconsistent with the Chick-fil-A Culture, the CFA System or the environment or reputation of CFA; (iv) Licensee or a Third Party Operator fails to open a Unit during the hours and days of operation specified by CFA for that Unit or Licensee opens a Unit on Sunday or Christmas Day; (v) Licensee, or any Licensee Party involved, directly or indirectly, with any Unit, is convicted of or pleads nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude or is convicted of or pleads nolo contendere to any other crime or offense that could reasonably be expected to affect adversely the reputation or goodwill of CFA, the Proprietary Marks or the CFA System; (vi) Licensee or any Licensee Party converts or embezzles any funds or property of CFA or third parties or engages in any conduct that is fraudulent, unfair, unethical or a deceptive practice; (vii) Licensee makes a willful material misrepresentation, verbally or in writing, or fails to make a material disclosure, to CFA or any national, federal, state or local governmental authority related to a Unit; (viii) continuance, in whole or in part, of the operation of any Unit or of the License granted to Licensee hereunder, is frustrated in purpose or materially impaired by any national, federal, state or local law, statute, ruling, ordinance or regulation, or interpretation thereof (collectively a "Law"), or by the actions of any civil or military authority purporting to act thereunder, or by acts of God, war or civil disorders, or by the existence or declaration of a pandemic or epidemic, or by labor union activity; (ix) Licensee submits to CFA on two (2) or more occasions a report which understates Gross Receipts by more than five percent (5%); (x) Licensee files, or consents by answer or otherwise to the filing against it of, a petition for relief, reorganization, or arrangement or any other petition in bankruptcy, for liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction; (xi) Licensee makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or consents to or is the subject of the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers of itself or of any substantial part of its properties; (xii) Licensee is adjudicated insolvent or is liquidated, dissolved or wound-up; (xiii) a court or other governmental agency of competent jurisdiction enters an order appointing a custodian, receiver or trustee, or an officer with similar powers, with respect to Licensee or any substantial part of the properties of Licensee, or an order for relief is entered in any case or proceeding for liquidation or reorganization, or otherwise to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction, relative to Licensee, or ordering the dissolution, winding-up or liquidation of Licensee, or a petition for such relief is filed against Licensee and not dismissed or stayed within sixty (60) calendar days; (xiv) Licensee's lease, license, facility, use, occupancy arrangements for, or ownership of any Site terminates, or Licensee otherwise loses the ability to operate any Unit at or from any Site; (xv) by virtue of this Agreement or its relationship with Licensee, CFA becomes subject to government regulations as a government contractor or subcontractor or applicable Law is determined to require that any Unit be operated in a manner inconsistent with CFA's normal operating procedures or the Chick-fil-A Culture; (xvi) the building or premises of a Site or the Unit at that Site is not operated or maintained in a manner consistent with the standards of a first-class food service facility or the Chick-fil-A Culture or a threat or danger to public health or safety results from the construction, maintenance or operation of the Unit; (xvii) Licensee fails to make timely payment to CFA of any amounts it is required to pay CFA under this Agreement; or (xviii) Licensee commits three (3) or more defaults under this Agreement in any fifty-two (52) week period, irrespective of the timing of each such default and irrespective of whether each such default has been cured after notice. For purposes of this Section, the obligations of Licensee with respect to the operation of a Unit shall also be deemed to be obligations of any Third Party Operator and its personnel involved in the operation of a Unit (such that, for example, a material breach by a Third Party Operator of a CFA operational requirement shall be deemed to be a breach by Licensee).

- (b) Upon the occurrence of any one or more CFA Termination Events described in Sections 8.2(a)(i) (other than with respect to a breach by Licensee of Section 7.2, 7.3 or 7.4), 8.2(a)(viii), 8.2(a)(xiv) or 8.2(a)(xvi) CFA may serve Licensee with written notice specifying the nature of the CFA Termination Event, and upon the expiration of thirty (30) calendar days, if Licensee shall have failed to cure or correct the CFA Termination Event, then CFA may terminate the License Term by serving a written notice of termination upon Licensee, which termination shall be effective upon receipt by Licensee of the notice. If the CFA Termination Event by its nature requires the involvement of third-party vendors or providers of necessary goods or services in order to effectuate a cure and cannot be completely cured or corrected by Licensee using its best commercial efforts within such thirty (30) day period, then such thirty (30) day period shall be extended for as long as reasonably necessary for Licensee, using its best commercial efforts, to complete the curing of the CFA Termination Event.
- (c) Upon the occurrence of any one or more CFA Termination Events other than those described in Section 8.2(b), CFA may terminate the License Term with such termination to be effective upon Licensee's receipt of written notice of termination from CFA. Licensee will not have an opportunity to cure these Licensee Termination Events. In the event CFA has the right to terminate the License Term under this Section 8.2(c), CFA may elect to, but shall not be obligated to, (i) give Licensee a right to cure or correct any CFA Termination Event that CFA deems is appropriately curable, or, alternatively, (iii) if Licensee is licensed to operate more than one Unit, CFA may terminate the License Term with respect to one or more, but less than all, of the Units that Licensee is then licensed to operate.

8.3 Licensee's Obligations Upon Expiration or Termination.

(a) Upon the expiration or termination of the License Term, or the expiration or termination of the License Term with respect to one or more, but not all, Units, for any reason pursuant to Section 8.1 or Section 8.2, all rights of Licensee to operate the affected Units and to use, display, access or advertise the CFA System, the Proprietary Marks, CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, and any other items or things constituting the Intellectual Property of CFA Properties as defined in Section 1.1(i), at the affected Units, shall cease, and the License granted to Licensee in Section 2.1 with respect to those Units shall immediately terminate.

(b) Once a Unit is terminated either through expiration or termination of the License Term or the termination of the License Term with respect to a particular Unit or otherwise, Licensee shall immediately take one of the following actions with respect to any equipment, inventory, signage or other items from the Unit constituting inventions, patents, trade dress, Trade Secrets or Confidential Information of CFA or which display one or more of the Proprietary Marks (the "Equipment"): (i) Licensee shall transfer any such Equipment from the terminated Unit to another Unit then being operated by Licensee; or if Licensee cannot take the action described in (i), then Licensee shall, at CFA's option, either (ii) sell the Equipment to CFA at its then-current fair market value as determined by CFA in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment and CFA shall have the right to purchase the Equipment accordingly, or (iii) grant CFA full and unfettered access to the Equipment and a license to remove, alter or obliterate any aspect, item, segment or portion of the Equipment that constitutes or includes licensed inventions, patents, trade dress, Trade Secrets or Confidential Information or which displays one or more of the Proprietary Marks. If CFA purchases the Equipment, Licensee shall deliver such purchased Equipment to CFA free and clear of all liens, charges, encumbrances and security interests promptly upon purchase by CFA. If Licensee transfers the Equipment to another Unit, Licensee shall bear all costs and expenses of transporting such Equipment. Once this Unit expires or is terminated, Licensee shall not under any circumstances advertise for sale or otherwise display or depict any of the Equipment as being for sale using any of the Proprietary Marks or any of CFA's trade dress (including, without limitation, CFA's storefront, word marks, logos, countertop, poster and menu board designs) absent the prior written consent of CFA, which consent Licensee acknowledges may be withheld by CFA in its sole and exclusive business judgment. Further, once this Unit expires or is terminated, Licensee shall not under any circumstances make, use, sell or offer for sale any Equipment that would constitute infringement of CFA Properties' Intellectual Property, should CFA Properties maintain non-exhausted Intellectual Property rights in such Equipment.

(c) Also upon the expiration or termination of the License Term for any reason, Licensee agrees: (i) to cease immediately using any and all of the CFA System, the Proprietary Marks, CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, and any other items or things constituting the Intellectual Property of CFA Properties, and to cease immediately operating the Units and if the term of the lease, license or occupancy arrangement for or ownership of the Sites extends beyond such expiration or termination of the License Term, Licensee shall convert the location at each Site where a Unit was operated to a different type of use; (ii) to deliver immediately to CFA or its designee, at Licensee's expense, the Manual, all materials, data compilations or other things constituting or containing CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, all advertising contracts and property of CFA in Licensee's possession and all materials, data compilations or other things in Licensee's possession which relate to the operation of the Units (including without limitation Products and Ingredients and all bags, boxes, wrappers, cups, napkins, cartons, utensils, customer goodwill items, other food containers and customer convenience items and other goods that display one or more of the Proprietary Marks, to the extent required by CFA under Section 8.3(b) above), excepting only Licensee's copy of this Agreement, Licensee's tax and personal financial records and copies of any correspondence between CFA and Licensee. CFA agrees to assist Licensee to bring about an immediate, effective, complete and orderly transfer of the items set forth above to CFA or its designee; (iii) to execute any and all agreements and other documents deemed necessary or appropriate by CFA to effectuate such expiration or termination (including without limitation cancellation of any registration or filing made under the last sentence of Section 7.4(a)) in a prompt and timely manner and to effectuate cancellation, change or transfer of business names, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, email addresses, and Internet domain names, addresses, user names or search terms, or other like things, as applicable and as deemed necessary or appropriate by CFA; (iv) to pay immediately all debts it owes CFA and to pay immediately all debts arising from the operation of the Units or other performance of Licensee's responsibilities under the terms of this Agreement; (v) not to advertise or hold itself out in connection with the operation of any competing business or the sale of any Equipment or other things as having been formerly connected with CFA or to have formerly operated a Unit; and (vi) to make such changes to the Sites and to the Units as CFA may request so as to distinguish the Sites from any other Units. In this regard, Licensee shall, without limiting the generality of the previous sentence, dismantle or otherwise remove from the building and premises of the Units all signage bearing any of the Proprietary Marks and deliver to CFA, pursuant to Section 8.3(b) above, all of such signage.

(d) In the event that the License Term is terminated with respect to one or more, but not all, of the Units, the provisions of this Section 8.3 shall apply only to such terminated Units.

SECTION 9--ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER

9.1 Assignment by CFA. CFA may sell, transfer and assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person, firm or corporation. CFA shall not remain liable for the performance of, and shall automatically be released from, any obligations under this Agreement subsequent to any such assignment. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 9.1 to the contrary, CFA may, in its sole and exclusive business judgment and without the consent of Licensee, pledge or assign its right to receive license fees hereunder, to any creditor, as security for indebtedness. In the event of an assignment or assignments (but not a pledge or pledges) pursuant to this Section by CFA to an unrelated third party, Licensee reserves the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) calendar days' prior written notice.

9.2 Limitations on Transfer by Licensee. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that its rights and duties under this Agreement are personal to Licensee and that CFA has granted the License hereunder to Licensee in reliance upon Licensee's character, skill, experience, business ability and financial qualifications. Therefore, Licensee shall not assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise in any manner, except upon prior written approval of CFA and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and any attempt by Licensee to do so shall be null and void. Licensee shall not change the business form or entity which owns or through which Licensee operates the Units, either directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of CFA.

SECTION 10--MISCELLANEOUS LEGAL MATTERS

10.1 Separate and Independent Business Owner. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the relationship of the parties created pursuant to this Agreement is intended by each party to this Agreement to be and is that of a franchised license between CFA and Licensee, who is a separate and independent business owner, whether a person or entity, and neither party (nor any of their respective employees, agents, or representatives) shall incur any claim, debt, liability or obligation, other than as specifically set forth in this Agreement, to any person or entity, including without limitation the other party, for any action or omission undertaken pursuant to or as a result of this Agreement or under any other circumstances. The parties acknowledge and agree that the creation of the above-described relationship and each party's respective ability to perform and to be legally recognized as being in and having the relationship as set forth above and not another during the License Term is part of the essence and a principal purpose of this Agreement.

- (a) Nothing in this Agreement makes or shall be deemed to make in law or fact Licensee (or any individual whose salary, wages or other compensation was or is to be paid by Licensee) a general or special agent, partner, legal representative, fiduciary, joint venturer, joint employer, co-employer or employee with or of CFA. In all public records in Licensee's relationship with all other persons or entities, and in any document, Licensee agrees to indicate clearly the independent ownership and operation by Licensee of the Units. Licensee shall not make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations or incur any debt or obligation in CFA's name or on its behalf or represent that the relationship of the parties hereto is anything other than that of a franchisor and franchised licensee who are separate and independent businesses. CFA will not be obligated by or have any liability under any agreements made by Licensee with any third party or for any representations made by Licensee to any third party. Licensee shall, upon commencement of Licensee's duties at the Site of any Unit and periodically thereafter, inform each employee that CFA is not such employee's employer. Licensee further agrees to hold itself out to the public as a separate and independent business owner operating the Units pursuant to a franchised license with CFA. Licensee agrees to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to do so, including with regard to signage, forms, solicitations, business cards, stationery, advertising, third-party communications and other materials.

- (b) Although CFA retains the right to establish and modify the CFA System and Manual, Licensee has and shall retain the sole responsibility for and authority to control the day-to-day management and operation of the Units and implementing and maintaining the CFA System and the Manual at the Units. Licensee further acknowledges and agrees, that the various standards, requirements, specifications and procedures of the CFA System, whether set forth in the Manual or otherwise, do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that CFA controls or has the authority or right to control any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of the Units, but only constitute standards Licensee must adhere to when exercising Licensee's own sole control of the day-to-day operations of the Units.
- (c) CFA and Licensee recognize and agree that Licensee's employees are exclusively employed and will remain exclusively employed at all times during the Term of this Agreement by the Licensee and CFA does not and will not employ, co-employ or jointly employ Licensee's employees [delete -at the Site], and does not and will not control or have the authority or right to directly or indirectly control labor or employment matters for Licensee and that Licensee, and not CFA, is solely responsible for controlling and has the sole authority and right to control the terms and conditions of employment for the Units and Licensee's employees, including but not limited to hiring, determining compensation and benefits for, establishing schedules and employment duties for, training, managing, supervising, disciplining, promoting, terminating, paying all wages, benefits and employee-related liabilities for, determining staffing levels, tasks to be performed and workplace and safety rules for such employees.
- ~~(d) Licensee hereby irrevocably affirms, attests and covenants Licensee's belief, agreement, understanding and intent that Licensee's employees are employed and will remain employed at all times during the Term of this Agreement by Licensee and in no fashion is any such employee of Licensee either jointly employed or co-employed by CFA. Licensee further affirms, attests and covenants Licensee's belief, agreement, understanding and intent that each of Licensee's employees is and shall remain under the exclusive control of Licensee and never under the direct or indirect control of CFA in any manner whatsoever.~~

- (e) Licensee and CFA acknowledge that any covenants or other duties imposed upon Licensee by this Agreement are not intended to control or otherwise affect the time, manner or method of Licensee's day-to-day operation of the Units but rather to ensure that: (i) the image of the Units, as ultimately seen and judged by its customers, is as positive as possible and therefore such that the Units can be operated for the greatest mutual benefit of Licensee and CFA; (ii) the Trade Secrets, the Confidential Information, Intellectual Property and other proprietary rights of CFA and CFA Properties are adequately protected; and (iii) all CFA's standards, specifications, methods, techniques and procedures, including those set forth in this Agreement and the Manual are maintained in order to ensure that all customers receive a consistent brand experience, and Licensee has the capability to meet and be in full compliance with CFA's food safety and product quality standards.

10.2 Equitable Remedies. Licensee acknowledges, agrees and warrants that any breach or threatened breach by Licensee of any of the material terms of this Agreement, including without limitation a breach of the provisions of Sections 6, 7, 8 or 9, would result in irreparable damage and harm to CFA that would be difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in such event, CFA shall be entitled, if it so elects, in addition to any other remedies available to it under this Agreement or at law, to immediate equitable relief therefor, including without limitation, an injunction or an order for specific performance. Nothing in this Section 10 shall be deemed to limit CFA's remedies at law or in equity for any breach by Licensee of any provision of this Agreement. Furthermore, nothing in this Section 10 or otherwise contained in this Agreement shall limit, abridge or modify the rights of CFA in and to its Intellectual Property, including its Trade Secrets, Confidential Information and the Proprietary Marks under any applicable national, federal, state, or local trade secret, trade name, trademark, service mark, patent, copyright, unfair competition, license or other law.

10.3 Indemnification. To the extent that applicable law prohibits either Party from making the indemnification covered by this Section 10.3, then to that extent, against the Party that is thus prohibited, this Section 10.3 shall not be effective, and the other Party's indemnification obligation under this Section 10.3 shall be similarly reduced, so that each Party's obligations under this Section 10.3 are roughly equal. Each of CFA and Licensee (as applicable, the "Indemnitor") shall and does hereby hold harmless and indemnify the other Party and its officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates, parent, subsidiaries, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Indemnitee"), from and against any and all claims, counterclaims, suits, demands, debts, costs, liabilities, expenses, setoffs, liens, attachments, judgments, actions and causes of action arising out of (i) the untruth or breach of any of the Indemnitor's representations or warranties in this Agreement, or (ii) a breach by the Indemnitor of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) the negligent or intentionally wrongful acts or omissions of the Indemnitor or any of its officers, directors, shareholders, agents or employees (including, in the case of Licensee, the unauthorized, unlicensed or otherwise unpermitted or improper operation or condition of any part of the Units or the Sites); and the Indemnitor shall reimburse the Indemnitee for any and all costs, damages, penalties and expenses, including without limitation attorneys' and advisors' fees, costs of investigation and court costs that the Indemnitee incurs by reason of or due to any such acts or omissions by the Indemnitor. The indemnities herein shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding any expiration or termination of the License Term.

10.4 Cumulative Rights and Remedies. All rights and remedies of the Parties under this Agreement shall be cumulative.

10.5 Choice of Law. This Agreement was made and took effect when accepted and executed by CFA in the State of Georgia. All rights, duties and obligations of the parties hereto arising out of or relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced solely under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they now exist and hereafter may be amended or changed from time to time (except and without reference to any conflict of law principles, rules and decisions), including without limitation all controversies, disputes and claims of any nature between the Parties arising out of or relating to the validity, performance, interpretation, enforcement, termination or expiration of this Agreement, and any other aspect of the Parties' agreement or relationship. The laws of the State of Georgia shall prevail and otherwise be applied to all such disputes in the event of any conflict of laws.

10.6 Litigation. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Licensee has and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with CFA at its offices in the State of Georgia, where CFA's decision-making authority is vested and where its license program operations are conducted and supervised. The Parties agree that if a controversy or claim between them arises out of or relates to this Agreement or the relationship between Licensee and CFA and results in threatened or pending litigation, then the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, United States of America, and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such matter, and each Party hereby submits and consents to the jurisdiction of each such courts, and each Party hereby agrees to commence, conduct and conclude such matters only in such courts. The Parties further acknowledge and agree that the courts identified above are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the relationship between Licensee and CFA, and agree not to claim, assert or argue that such courts do not have jurisdiction or are inconvenient forums. Licensee hereby waives any and all objections to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of the Fulton County, Georgia Superior Court and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, and further waives any and all objections to the jurisdiction of and venue in such courts, in and for all cases and controversies relating to or arising out of this Agreement and/or the relationship between Licensee and CFA. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision governs except that claims for injunctive relief may be brought by CFA in any appropriate jurisdiction where Licensee is located. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision also shall not restrict the ability of any Party to enforce any judgment, award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction or to obtain the full faith and credit of any judgment, award or order obtained. If either Party files suit or claim to collect sums from or to enforce its rights or any covenant under this Agreement (the "Claiming Party") against the other Party, then the Claiming Party, in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder, shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses incurred in connection with such collection or other action, should the Claiming Party prevail in such suit or claim, including without limitation attorneys' and advisors' fees, court costs and other expenses of litigation.

10.7 Third Party Claims. Licensee agrees to notify immediately CFA of the existence of (and forward to CFA copies of relevant documents, if any, within ten (10) days of its receipt of them) any and all actual or threatened demands, claims, notices, suits, actions or other legal processes served on or otherwise coming to the attention of Licensee that would or could affect any Units, the CFA System, CFA's Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, the Proprietary Marks or CFA in general. CFA may, at its option, control any or all such disputes and litigation and Licensee will, at its own expense if it is a named party, or at CFA's expense if it is not, extend its full cooperation in all such matters.

10.8 Caveats.

- (a) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that it has entered into this Agreement after making an independent investigation of CFA's operations and not in reliance upon any representative or projected gross revenues, volume, earnings or profits which Licensee might be expected to realize, and that CFA has not made any representation, which is not expressly set forth herein, to induce Licensee to accept the License and execute this Agreement. Licensee represents and warrants that it acknowledges that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors. CFA DOES NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT CFA DID NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, AS TO THE POTENTIAL SUCCESS, EARNINGS, REVENUES OR PROFITS OF THE UNITS THAT WILL BE OPERATED BY LICENSEE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.
- (b) Because complete and detailed uniformity in the operation and appearance of all Units may not be possible or practical in the many varying conditions in which Units will be operated, CFA reserves the right and privilege, which it may exercise in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to vary the terms or conditions of a license agreement (including without limitation the fees to be paid by a licensee) or the standards, specifications, methods, techniques or procedures applicable to the operation of a Unit for any other of its licensees based upon the differing physical, business, demographic or other conditions existing in the particular area in which such Unit is located or upon the differing personal abilities, aptitudes, experiences or financial qualifications of such licensees. Licensee acknowledges that it will not be entitled to receive any such variance allowed to any of CFA's other licensees.

10.9 Disclaimer. CFA, FOR ITSELF, ITS AFFILIATES, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES CONCERNING ANY GOODS OR SERVICES SOLD OR APPROVED BY IT, OR THE LICENSE GRANTED BY IT, OR ADVICE, GUIDANCE, APPROVAL OR DIRECTIONS RENDERED BY IT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY WARRANTIES AS TO MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AVAILABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY OR PRICING. LICENSEE AGREES NOT TO MAKE ANY STATEMENT, REPRESENTATION OR CLAIM OR TO GIVE ANY WARRANTY TO THE CONTRARY TO ANY CUSTOMER OR POTENTIAL CUSTOMER OR ANY OTHER PARTY.

SECTION 11--GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.1 No Implied Waiver.

- (a) Failure of either Party at any time to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect such Party's right to require full performance of that provision at any time thereafter, and the waiver by either Party of a breach of any provision shall not be taken or held to be a waiver of any subsequent breach thereof or a waiver of a breach of any other provision of this Agreement or as nullifying the effectiveness of such provision or any other provision.
- (b) The failure of either Party to seek redress for any violation of this Agreement or to take action based upon a Licensee or CFA Termination Event, as the case may be, or to insist upon the strict performance of any condition of this Agreement, shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a Termination Event or violation of this Agreement, from having all the force and effect of an original Termination Event or violation. The receipt or acceptance by either Party of any fees or other payments with knowledge of a Termination Event or violation of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any such relief with respect to such Termination Event or violation. No provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived by either Party unless such waiver be in writing signed by the Party. No payment by either Party or receipt or acceptance by the other Party of a lesser amount than the amount required to be paid shall be deemed to be other than on account of the correct payment.

11.2 Procedure for Notice. Any notice permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed so delivered (and thus also be deemed to have been received by the addressee thereof) on the day of hand delivery, one (1) business day after being sent by facsimile with electronic verification of receipt being received by the sending Party (with an identical copy of any telefaxed materials being sent as well by first class mail) or overnight delivery service (with notification of delivery) or three (3) business days after being placed in the United States mail for delivery within the United States by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, returned receipt requested addressed to the recipient at the address set forth on the signature page to this Agreement, unless that Party shall have given written notice of change of address to the sending Party.

11.3 Severability; Binding Upon Assigns; Further Assurances.

If any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be declared invalid or ineffectual by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions hereof shall nonetheless remain valid and shall continue in full force and effect. If it shall be impossible to continue such other provisions of this Agreement in full force and effect after the excision of the provision or provisions so declared invalid or ineffectual, then CFA and Licensee each undertake and agree that they will, upon demand of CFA, make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments which CFA deems necessary or appropriate to accomplish lawfully such continuance. It is the intention of the Parties that this provision may be enforced in equity in addition to and not to the exclusion of any other remedies which may be available to the Parties to this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and its benefits shall inure to, Licensee and its successors and assigns (subject to the provisions of Section 9) and to CFA and its successors and assigns. From time to time during the License Term, Licensee, upon receipt of the written request of CFA, agrees to execute such other documents or instruments as CFA may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate to carry out and complete the terms hereof.

11.4 Headings, Addenda, Exhibits. The captions and headings of the Sections or other subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience and reference only and shall have no effect on the meaning of the Agreement. References to Sections, Addenda and Exhibits refer to sections, addenda and exhibits of this Agreement. All Addenda and Exhibits and other attachments to this Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

11.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, with such counterparts together constituting one and the same instrument.

11.6 Personal Pronouns; Plurals. Each personal pronoun used herein, whether masculine, feminine or neuter, shall include the other gender or genders as the context requires or permits. Each plural or singular verb shall include the other number as the context requires or permits.

11.7 Continued Effectiveness of This Agreement. Except for provisions relating only to the License granted to Licensee under Section 2, this Agreement shall remain effective until neither Party has any further obligation to the other Party under this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that a number of their obligations (for example, Licensee's obligations under Sections 7, 8 and 10) extend beyond the expiration or termination of the License Term.

11.8 Conflicts. This Agreement shall control in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and any other agreements Licensee may make with respect to the Units.

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. No other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement except that Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD were made by either Party and none shall have any force or effect with reference to this Agreement. No officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

11.10 U.S. Executive Order Representation.

Licensee represents and warrants that it has not been designated as a suspected terrorist under U.S. Executive Order 13224.

11.11 Miscellaneous.

Words of inclusion used in this Agreement (such as "including") shall not be deemed to be words of limitation, such that any items or things listed as "included" in another class of items or things shall not be construed as excluding other items or things not expressly mentioned. Both Parties acknowledge and agree that they have actively participated in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. Licensee agrees to promptly execute amendments to any Addenda, from time to time during the License Term, to reflect changes in the information set forth on the Addenda as of the Effective Date.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Board of Directors of Chick-fil-A, Inc.:

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Chick-fil-A, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings, stockholders’ equity and cash flows for the three years then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Chick-fil-A, Inc. and subsidiaries (collectively referred to as “the Company”, “we”, and “our”) provides consulting services and leases property, equipment, and leasehold improvements to franchisees of Chick-fil-A restaurants. The Company is primarily a franchisor, however during periods where a restaurant is without a franchisee, the Company operates the restaurant on a temporary basis as a company-operated location. Our franchised and company-operated restaurants are located in 48 states throughout the United States and District of Columbia.

As of December 31, 2023, the Company operates franchised locations outside of the United States, currently in Canada and Puerto Rico. The Company is actively exploring opportunities to continue franchised restaurant growth in Canada and Puerto Rico as well as opportunities to continue expansion into other international locations in the future.

At December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, there were 2,576, 2,429, and 2,325 franchised and company-operated Chick-fil-A restaurants, respectively. Total system-wide sales generated from these restaurants during the years ended 2023, 2022, and 2021 approximated $21,585,752,000, $18,814,024,000, and $16,673,679,000, respectively.

The Company also licenses our brand through strategic partnerships with contract food service management companies. There were 414, 395, and 392 outlets operating as of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, respectively, the majority of which are located in airports and on college campuses. The Company’s licensed operating outlets are located throughout the United States and District of Columbia.

Additionally, the Company operates distribution centers to provide restaurants with ingredients, packaging, and other supplies. The Company currently operates distribution centers throughout the United States and plans to continue expanding our distribution capabilities by opening additional distribution centers in the future.

The Company operates a production facility in Valencia, California to produce and package freshly squeezed and pasteurized lemon juice for sale and distribution to our restaurants. The production facility currently supplies lemon juice for Chick-fil-A restaurants chainwide.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. (“U.S. GAAP”). The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Chick-fil-A, Inc. and our wholly owned subsidiaries, and those subsidiaries in which we have a controlling financial interest. Investments in other entities where we do not have a controlling financial interest, but where we exert significant influence are accounted for in our consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. See Note 11 for additional information regarding the Company’s equity method investments. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Basis of Presentation

The Company has adopted the practice of presenting an unclassified balance sheet which, in the opinion of management, more appropriately reflects the nature of the Company’s operations.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management of the Company to make a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and income and expenses and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's results of operations are impacted by certain risks and uncertainties, including general economic conditions which may either positively or negatively impact sales at our franchised and company-operated restaurant locations.

Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

Reference Rate Reform

In March 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2020-04, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848): Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting. ASU 2020-04, combined with all subsequent amendments (collectively, ASC 848) provides optional expedients and exceptions to simplify the accounting for contracts, hedging relationships, and other transactions affected by reference rate reform that meet certain criteria. ASC 848 applies to contracts entered into prior to or existing on December 31, 2024 and allows for elections to be made at different points in time. The Company elected to adopt certain expedients made available by this ASU for both our amended Credit Facilities as well as our interest rate swap arrangements. Refer to Note 5 for additional details.

Pension Benefit Arrangements

The Company adopted ASU 2018-14, Compensation-Retirement Benefits-Defined Benefit Plans-General (Subtopic 715-20): Disclosure Framework-Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Defined Benefit Plans on January 1, 2022. ASU 2018-14 adds, removes and clarifies the disclosure requirements for employers that sponsor defined benefit pension or other postretirement plans. Adoption of this ASU did not have a significant impact on the Company's disclosures.

Current Expected Credit Losses

The Company adopted ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurements of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments and related clarifications and improvements (collectively, ASC 326) on January 1, 2023 using a modified retrospective approach. ASC 326 replaces the incurred loss impairment methodology in prior U.S. GAAP with a methodology that instead reflects a current estimate of all expected credit losses on financial assets, including receivables. ASC 326 requires that the Company measure and recognize expected credit losses at the time the asset is recorded, while considering a broader range of information to estimate credit losses including country specific macroeconomic conditions that correlate with historical loss experience, delinquency trends and aging behavior of receivables, among others. Upon adoption of ASC 326 the Company recorded an increase to our allowance for credit losses of approximately $1,217,000 with a corresponding adjustment to retained earnings, which is recorded net of an approximately $296,000 deferred income tax impact. The cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings is reflected in the accompanying consolidated statement of stockholders' equity for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Recently Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

Income Taxes

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, which requires that an entity, on an annual basis, disclose additional income tax information, primarily related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid disclosures. The amendment in the ASU is intended to enhance the transparency and decision usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in this Update are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2025. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the new standard on our consolidated financial statements.

Recognition of Revenue and Income

Revenue and income are presented in the following categories: (1) Revenue and income from restaurants, (2) Product sales, and (3) Other income.

Recognition of Revenue and Income from Restaurants

Revenue and income from restaurants on the accompanying statements of comprehensive earnings consist of (1) fees earned from restaurant franchisees, less franchisee incentives and reimbursements, (2) rental income earned under leases of real estate and equipment to the Company's franchisees, (3) sales from company-operated restaurants and (4) fees earned from our licensee partner arrangements.

The Company's franchise agreement requires franchisees to pay an initial upfront fee as well as continuing rent and royalty payments. The Company's continuing royalties from franchisees are comprised of a base operating service fee and an additional operating service fee, collectively referred to as the "franchise fees". Domestically, the base operating service fee is calculated as 15% of franchised restaurant sales, less amounts charged to franchisees for equipment rentals and business services fees. For the years ending December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company recorded total consolidated base operating service fees of approximately $3,047,244,000, $2,636,463,000, and $2,342,515,000, respectively. The additional operating service fee is calculated as 50% of the net profit of franchised restaurants, as defined by the franchise agreement. For the years ending December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company recorded total consolidated additional operating service fees of approximately $1,179,506,000, $935,145,000, and $1,173,441,000, respectively. The franchise fees are charged to franchisees monthly and the Company recognizes revenue over time as underlying restaurant sales occur.

The Company offers various incentive programs to franchisees. The Company records the costs of certain franchisee incentives as reductions of franchise fee revenue in the period the incentives are earned. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company recorded total franchisee incentives of $61,824,000, $35,968,000, and $94,377,000, respectively. For the year ended December 31, 2021, franchisee incentives included amounts awarded to certain qualifying franchisees through varying relief programs established in response to the negative impacts of COVID-19 on restaurant operations.

The Company either purchases and develops our free-standing restaurants or leases the real estate and/or retail space from third-party developers under long-term lease agreements. Domestically, the Company leases or subleases these properties to franchisees under month-to-month lease arrangements and payments due from franchisees are subject to a cap equal to 6% of restaurant sales. The Company additionally purchases or leases equipment and leases or subleases to franchisees on a month-to-month basis. Both real estate and equipment rental payments are charged to franchisees monthly. Income earned under the Company's franchisee lease arrangements is recorded within Rental income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings and is recognized in accordance with ASC 842, Leases. See Note 10 for additional information.

Additionally, the Company incurs property tax charges associated with our restaurant real estate and equipment and passes such charges to franchisees for reimbursement. The Company presents property tax expenses and the associated franchisee reimbursements gross on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company recognized property tax income of approximately $95,000,000, $85,402,000, and $77,507,000, respectively, within Rental income on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

All restaurants temporarily without a franchisee are considered company-operated restaurants. Sales and expenses relating to company-operated restaurants are reflected in the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings for the period operated. Revenue is recognized at the point-of-sale net of sales-related taxes.

Royalties earned from the Company's brand license arrangements are calculated based on a percentage of licensed restaurant sales and the Company recognizes revenue over time as the underlying sales occur.

Recognition of Product Sales

Product sales on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings consist of sales of the Company's proprietary products and sales earned through the Company's distribution and lemon juice production operations.

The Company earns revenue from the sale of certain proprietary products to our distribution partners under third-party supply arrangements. The Company recognizes revenue from the sales of our proprietary products at the point in time our customers control the products pursuant to the terms of the respective contractual agreement.

For our proprietary product arrangements, the Company follows the principal-agent model under ASC 606, which provides a control-based model for determining whether an entity acts as a principal or an agent to a transaction. An entity is deemed the principal in a transaction if it obtains control of the specified goods or services before they are transferred to the customer. An entity is deemed an agent if it does not control the specified goods or services before they are transferred to the customer. The Company records income and associated costs gross on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings in arrangements where we were deemed to be the principal. If deemed agent to the transaction, the Company records income net of the associated costs on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

Additionally, the Company generates revenue from our distribution and lemon juice production operations. For our distribution operations, the Company generates revenue through the sale of goods to our restaurant franchisees and licensees, and revenue is recognized at the point in time that control of the underlying goods transfers pursuant to our respective supply agreements. As of December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, our distributions centers provided services to 556, 410, and 230 restaurant locations, respectively. Our lemon juice operations generate revenue primarily through the sale of lemon juice for distribution to our restaurant franchisees and licensees.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

Revenue is recognized at the point in time when control of the purchased goods transfers to the customer pursuant to the terms of the respective agreements. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 the Company recognized revenues related to our distribution and lemon juice production operations of approximately $1,239,917,000, $768,969,000, and $491,863,000, respectively.

Recognition of Other Income

Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings is primarily comprised of (1) gift card program revenues, (2) advertising revenues and (3) investment and interest income.

The Company sells gift cards domestically through our franchisees, certain select retailers, and our website. Gift cards are redeemable in our franchised and company-operated restaurant locations. The Company manages the gift card program and collects all funds from the activation of gift cards and reimburses franchisees for the fulfillment of gift cards redeemed in their restaurants. The Company acts as an agent in this relationship and records proceeds from gift card sales net of the associated reimbursements to franchisees following gift card redemption. A contract liability for unredeemed gift cards is included in Trade payables and other in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets for all periods presented. There are no expiration dates on the outstanding, unredeemed gift card balances. While outstanding gift card balances do not expire, the likelihood of redemption may be determined to be remote for certain cards due to long periods of inactivity. The Company recognizes gift card breakage revenue over time in proportion to the pattern of gift card redemptions exercised by our customers.

Refer to the table below for a rollforward of the Company's contract liability balance associated with unredeemed gift cards for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

	Contract Liability

The Company provides franchisees national advertising services through our third-party advertising agency arrangements. These advertising activities primarily include national television, digital, radio and campaign social media advertisements. In certain cases, franchisees may elect to contribute to a fund to participate in certain additional national media activities to be fulfilled by the Company. Proceeds from franchisee contributions are retained by the Company to fund such national advertising costs as they become due and payable. The Company recognizes advertising expenses and the related franchisee contributions for certain national advertising services gross on our consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Advertising revenues are recognized over time as the advertising services are delivered to franchisees. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, the Company recorded advertising revenues of approximately $41,804,000, $39,382,000, and $33,387,000, respectively, within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. The contract liability related to the Company's franchisee advertising services is reflected in Restaurant activity liability on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and was approximately $15,859,000 and $16,159,000 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Additionally, Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings includes gains and/or losses earned on certain investments administered through a Rabbi Trust, interest income on the Company's short-term investments, and other miscellaneous income/loss not subject to ASC 606. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, the Company recorded net income/(losses) of approximately $111,101,000, ($18,788,000), and $50,060,000, respectively, within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings, which represents amounts that are not subject to the scope of ASC 606.

Pension, Postretirement, and Postemployment Benefits Plans

The Company accounts for pension, postretirement and postemployment benefit plans in accordance with the provisions of ASC 715, Compensation-Retirement Benefits. The standard requires, among other things, the recognition of the funded status of each defined benefit pension plan, retiree health care and other postretirement benefit plans and postemployment benefit plans on the balance sheet. Each overfunded plan is recognized as an asset and each underfunded plan is recognized as a liability. The initial impact of the standard due to unrecognized prior service costs or credits and net actuarial gains or losses as well as subsequent changes in the funded status is recognized as a component of Accumulated other comprehensive loss in stockholders' equity. See Note 6 for additional information.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and all liquid investments purchased with a remaining maturity of 90 days or less at the date of acquisition. Investments with maturities greater than 90 days following date of acquisition are recorded within Investments on the accompanying balance sheets. Cash equivalents as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 consist of cash deposits, money market funds, and US Treasury bills. The cost of these investments approximates their fair value. The Company's cash balance is held with several different financial institutions, for which the related cash balances may exceed amounts federally insured during the year. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts, and management believes that the Company mitigates its risk by utilizing major financial institutions.

The Company has reclassified checks issued but not yet presented for payment as Trade payable and other in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Outstanding checks totaled approximately $63,939,000 and $80,479,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on either a weighted-average cost or standard cost basis. Our inventories consist primarily of ingredients, packaging, and other supplies for sale to our restaurant franchisees. For our lemon juice production operations, the Company's inventory consists of both raw materials, which includes primarily lemons, and finished goods, which includes lemon juice and other lemon byproducts.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Cost includes all direct costs necessary to acquire and prepare assets for use, including internal labor. Expenditures for significant improvements are capitalized while expenditures for minor replacements, maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Interest is capitalized on borrowings during the active construction period of qualifying capital assets. Capitalized interest is added to the cost of the asset and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Depreciation expense of property and equipment is calculated by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Leasehold improvement assets are amortized over the shorter of the related lease life or their estimated useful lives.

Estimated useful lives of property and equipment are as follows:

	Estimated Useful Lives
Corporate property and equipment:
Buildings and leasehold improvements	10-40 years
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	3-20 years
Transportation	4-10 years
Computer hardware and software	3 or 5 years
Restaurant property and equipment:
Buildings and leasehold improvements	10-20 years
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	3-10 years

The Company records right-of-use assets associated with our commenced lease agreements within Property and equipment on the accompanying consolidated balances sheet. Refer to the “Leases” discussion below for the Company’s policy related to the accounting for our right-of-use lease assets.

Leases

The Company is engaged in a significant amount of leasing activity, both as a lessee and as a lessor. A detailed description of the nature of the Company’s leasing arrangements is included in Note 10.

Lessee Accounting

We classify leases as either operating or finance leases at the lease commencement date, which is the date we take control of the underlying leased asset. The Company’s real estate lease agreements often contain tenant improvement allowances, rent holidays, rent escalation clauses and/or contingent rent provisions. We have lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, which are accounted for together as a single lease component for all underlying classes of assets with the exception of restaurant IT equipment and the Company’s restaurant real estate leases where we are also a lessor.

The Company records a right-of-use asset and lease liability for each operating and finance lease with a contractual term greater than 12 months at the time of lease commencement. We do not record leases with an initial term of 12 months or less on our consolidated balance sheets but continue to record lease expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Many of the Company’s leases include options to renew at our sole discretion. Such renewal options are included in the concluded lease term when they are determined to be reasonably certain of exercise.

The Company’s operating and finance lease liabilities represent the present value of future lease payments over the concluded lease term. We cannot determine the interest rate implicit in each of our leases. Therefore, the Company uses an incremental borrowing rate to calculate the lease liability that reflects the rate of interest we expect to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms. We consider a combination of factors, including our credit-adjusted interest rate, the lease term, and the effect of adjusting the rate to reflect consideration of collateral. Our credit adjusted borrowing rate takes into consideration interest rates we pay on our unsecured long-term notes as well as other relevant market factors.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

The right-of-use asset balance is measured at the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for lease payments made at or before lease commencement, initial direct costs and any tenant improvement allowances received. For operating leases, we recognize expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. The recorded right-of-use asset is reduced over the lease term by the recognized straight-line lease expense less the amount of accretion of the lease liability determined using the effective interest method. For finance leases, right-of-use assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the useful life of the leased asset or the lease term, with amortization expense recorded within Depreciation and amortization on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Interest expense on each finance lease liability is recognized utilizing the effective interest method and is recorded within Interest on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

For several of our real estate leases, the Company is involved in the development and construction of our leased assets. For such leases, we do not control the construction period asset in accordance with ASC 842 and are therefore required to determine whether our construction period costs represent costs to use the lessor's asset or represent costs related to the Company's own assets. Construction costs associated with the right to use the lessor's asset are recorded initially to prepaid rent during the construction period and are subsequently measured as part of the right-of-use lease asset upon lease commencement. Construction costs associated with the Company's own assets are recorded initially as construction in progress and are subsequently recorded as leasehold improvements upon lease commencement.

Lessor Accounting

As described in the Revenue and Income section above, the Company serves as a lessor/sublessor primarily to our restaurant franchisees for the lease of restaurant real estate and restaurant equipment. Our franchisee lease agreements are month-to-month and are therefore treated as a short-term lease under ASC 842 and no asset or liability is recognized on the accompanying statements of financial position. Rental and subrental income are recorded within Rental income in our consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings and are recognized as amounts are earned and charged to franchisees each month.

Employee Incentive Compensation and Accrued Compensated Absences

The Company maintains an employee incentive compensation plan for all full-time employees. Incentive compensation for participating employees is calculated based on a portion of the revenue received from restaurants.

The Company also has in place an accrued compensated absence policy under which employees accrue compensated absence time as services are rendered throughout the year. Under this policy, employees are permitted to carry a certain number of accrued and unused hours into the subsequent year. The Company records a liability for accrued but unused compensated absence time based on individual compensation rates in effect during the year, inclusive of incentive compensation if applicable and estimable. The liability for accrued compensated absences was approximately $83,379,000 and $68,461,000 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and is recorded within Accrued expenses and obligations on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with ASC 360 Property, Plant, and Equipment, long-lived assets held and used in operations are required to be assessed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets held and used in operations is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated over the remaining life of the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value. Impairment charges recorded for assets held and used in operations were immaterial for all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Long-lived assets meeting the criteria to be reported as held for sale in accordance with ASC 360 are reported at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell and are no longer depreciated. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, assets classified as held-for-sale are not material to the consolidated financial statements.

Advertising

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Total advertising expenses were approximately $209,792,000, $180,807,000, and $155,967,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021 respectively, and is recorded within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. For the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, total reported advertising expense includes approximately $41,804,000, $39,382,000, and $33,387,000 in certain franchisee reimbursed national advertising costs. Refer to the Recognition of Revenue and Income section above for additional details.

The Company receives vendor rebates that we either pass along to our restaurant franchisees or utilize to fund certain, specified advertising expenses. The Company reflects such rebates on a net basis in the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings for all periods presented.

Income Taxes

The Company files a consolidated federal income tax return.

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes, which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. The standard prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The interpretation requires that the Company recognize in its financial statements the impact of a tax position if that position is more likely than not of being sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position.

The Company accounts for income taxes using an asset and liability approach. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Changes in tax rates and tax laws are accounted for in the period of enactment. The Company has elected to reclassify any tax effects stranded in accumulated other comprehensive income as a result of a change in income tax rates to retained earnings.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Treasury Stock

The Company accounts for share repurchases using the par value method under which the repurchase price is charged to additional paid-in capital up to the amount of the original issue proceeds of the repurchased shares. When the repurchase price is greater than the original issue proceeds, the excess is charged to retained earnings. Repurchased shares that are not subsequently retired are recorded on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as Treasury stock at their par value. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company held 14,382,928 non-voting common shares as treasury stock.

Preferred Stock

During 2023, the Company issued 2,733,225 shares of $0.01 par value, Series A preferred stock in a one-for-one exchange for the Company's $0.01 par value non-voting common stock. Immediately following the exchange transaction, the Company retired the redeemed non-voting common shares. The Series A preferred stock is non-voting, non-convertible and non-redeemable by the holder and has a stated liquidation preference of $196 per share. The Company recorded the preferred stock at fair value on the issuance date with the difference between the fair value and par value reflected in Additional paid-in capital on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Each share of Series A preferred stock entitles the holder to a 7.0% annual cumulative dividend, payable quarterly on the preferred stock's stated liquidation preference. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had declared but unpaid dividends on our outstanding Series A preferred stock of approximately $9,375,000, which is recorded within Dividends payable on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Company-Owned Life Insurance

Company-owned life insurance represents insurance on the lives of certain individuals who have provided positive consent allowing the Company to be the beneficiary of such policies. The Company is the primary beneficiary of the insurance policies and incurs recurring premium payments to keep the policies active. Increases in the cash surrender value of the policies are recorded as reductions of the related cost of the insurance policies, and such costs are recorded within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Company-owned life insurance is recorded on the consolidated balance sheets at the cash surrender value of the policies which materially approximates fair value.

Self-Insurance

Beginning in 2023, the Company is primarily self-insured for certain employee-related welfare benefits. Self-insurance accruals are primarily based on the actuarially estimated cost of claims, which includes historical claims experience, demographic factors, severity factors and other relevant information. Costs are recognized in the period the claim is incurred, and the financial statement accruals include an estimate of claims incurred but not yet reported. The Company has stop-loss coverage to limit our exposure to any significant exposure on a per claim basis. The Company presents the accruals related to our self-insurance net of expected stop-loss recoveries when conditions for offsetting pursuant to ASC 210, Balance Sheet are met. Where the conditions for offsetting under ASC 210 are not met, the Company presents the self-insurance accruals separate from the related stop-loss receivables.

Derivatives and Financial Instruments

The carrying amount of the Company's financial instruments approximates their fair value. The fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. U.S. GAAP establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). These tiers include:

- Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets;
- Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets or quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and
- Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions, such as valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

For all periods presented, the recorded carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses and obligations approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Investments are recorded at fair value in accordance with the fair value hierarchy above. The Company determines the classification within the hierarchy based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

A significant portion of the Company's pension and postretirement benefit plan assets have been measured at fair value using net asset value ("NAV") as a practical expedient, as permitted under ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. Refer to Note 6 for additional details.

The Company records derivative financial instruments on the balance sheet at their respective fair values. The Company accounts for derivative financial instruments in accordance with ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, which allows all changes in fair value of highly effective cash flow hedges to be recorded in other comprehensive earnings (loss). Additionally, ASC 815 allows for ongoing qualitative considerations of hedge effectiveness, provided certain conditions are met.

During 2023, the Company unwound our LIBOR benchmarked interest rate swap contracts that were previously designated as cash flow hedges under ASC 815. Prior to unwinding, these hedges were deemed to be highly effective in offsetting changes in our future expected cash flows under our floating interest rate, LIBOR benchmarked debt. Changes to the fair value were recorded through accumulated other comprehensive income and reclassified into interest expense in the same period in which the hedged transaction is recognized in earnings. Refer to Note 5 for additional detail on the unwind of the Company's interest rate swap contracts.

The Company also enters into other derivative arrangements, primarily options and swap contracts, as a way to hedge our exposure to fluctuations in certain commodity prices. The Company elects to treat these derivative instruments as economic hedges and does not apply the hedge accounting provisions of ASC 815. As a result, the Company records each derivative instrument on the balance sheet at its fair value with the entire change in fair value reported in earnings each reporting period. For certain commodity derivatives, we incur premiums to our counterparties upon execution of the derivative contract. Such premiums are recorded on the balance sheet and are subsequently measured at fair value with subsequent changes in fair value reflected in earnings. As of December 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded a derivative (liability)/asset of approximately ($2,882,000) and $17,933,000, respectively, within Prepaid expenses and other assets on the accompanying consolidated balances sheets. Total (losses)/income recorded on our commodity derivative instruments was approximately ($10,825,000), $13,903,000, and $642,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, respectively, and is recorded within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

2. Due to Restaurant Franchisees

The balance due to restaurant franchisees reflects the net result primarily of the following activities: cash deposits and credit card settlements made into the Company’s bank account; disbursements made by franchisees that have been presented for payment; other unpaid obligations of the restaurants, the largest of which is franchisee profits from restaurant operations; and expenses paid by the Company on behalf of the franchisees.

3. Restaurant Activity Liability

Restaurant activity liability is comprised of amounts payable to third parties (not franchisees) that originated in the restaurants. Amounts due to restaurant vendors and tax authorities are included here, along with accruals funded by restaurant markets for market or chain-wide purchases of products and services at the discretion of franchisee representatives.

4. Accrued Expenses and Obligations

Accrued expenses and obligations as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 consisted of the following:

Salaries, incentives and deferred compensation	$ 570,327,732	$ 489,631,200

Credit Facilities

On September 24, 2021, the Company refinanced and replaced our existing credit facilities (“2018 Credit Facilities”) and entered into a new credit agreement (“2021 Credit Facilities”) with a syndicate of lenders, with Wells Fargo Bank N.A. serving as administrative agent, swingline lender and issuing lender. The 2021 Credit Facilities provide for a $200,000,000 term loan (“Term Loan”) and a revolving credit facility (“Revolving Facility”) with a maximum commitment of $800,000,000. Upon closing of the 2021 Credit Facilities, the Company drew $100,000,000 on our available Revolving Facility. The proceeds from the 2021 Credit Facilities were used, in part, to pay off the outstanding principal balance of $187,500,000 and accrued interest under the 2018 Credit Facilities and to pay related financing fees and expenses in connection with the 2021 Credit Facilities. The refinance and replacement of our 2018 Credit Facilities qualified as a debt modification pursuant to ASC 470 and as such, no gain or loss has been recognized on the transaction.

In October 2020, the Company amended and restated our 2018 Credit Facilities to add fallback language specifying how a replacement interest rate will be determined following the phase out of LIBOR as a result of reference rate reform. The Company adopted the expedients available in ASC 848 to account for the modification of our 2018 Credit Facilities.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

In May 2023, the Company amended our 2021 Credit Facilities to replace 1-month LIBOR as the referenced benchmark interest rate with the Secured Overnight Financing Rate CME Term Option 1 Month ("1-month Term SOFR"). All other terms and conditions under our 2021 Credit Facilities, including applicable credit margins, loan maturity dates, and restrictive covenants were not revised as a result of this amendment. The Company again elected to apply the available expedients under ASC 848 to account for the Credit Facilities amendment as a modification. The Company did not recognize gain or loss in connection with the amendment. Lender and third-party fees incurred as result of the amendment were not material.

The Term Loan matures on September 24, 2026. Principal payments on the Term Loan commenced September 30, 2023 and are payable quarterly thereafter at scheduled amounts, with the remaining unpaid balance due at maturity. Following the 2021 Credit Facilities amendment in May 2023, the Term Loan bears interest at the floating 1-month Term SOFR plus a margin ranging between 0.800% and 1.000%. Interest payments on the Term Loan are due and payable at the end of each calendar month.

The Revolving Facility matures on September 24, 2026 and provides for borrowings up to a maximum commitment of $800,000,000. Following the 2021 Credit Facilities amendment in May 2023, the Revolving Facility bears interest at floating 1-month SOFR plus a margin between 0.875% and 1.125%. Interest payments on the Revolving Facility are due and payable at the end of each calendar month. During 2022, the Company repaid the outstanding $100,000,000 balance under the Revolving Facility, which is reflected within the accompanying statements of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2022. The Company did not draw on our available Revolving Facility during 2023.

The 2021 Credit Facilities contain certain restrictive covenants relating to, among other things, limitations on indebtedness, transactions with affiliates, sales of assets and certain investments. In addition, the 2021 Credit Facilities include a financial covenant relating to the Company's consolidated leverage ratio. As of December 31, 2023, the Company was in compliance with all restrictive covenants.

Related Party Note

In November 2018, the Company repurchased shares of our non-voting common stock from a related party through the issuance of a note payable ("Related Party Note" or "Note") and initial payment of approximately $35,238,000. The Related Party Note has a face amount of approximately $750,070,000, bears interest at a fixed annual rate of 4.75% and has a term of 25 years, maturing on November 30, 2043. The Related Party Note requires the Company to pledge the repurchased non-voting common shares to the related party as collateral for the Note. The Company is required to hold the repurchased shares as treasury stock until the Note is fully repaid. The Related Party Note requires compliance with certain nonfinancial covenants and as of December 31, 2023, the Company is in compliance with all such covenants.

Senior Notes

In October 2020, the Company entered into a Note Purchase Agreement and sold to certain purchasers $1,700,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of senior notes (collectively "Senior Notes"), the proceeds of which were used to finance the repurchase of certain of the Company's outstanding, non-voting common shares. The Senior Notes mature in tranches with maturity dates ranging from October 2023 to October 2030. The Senior Notes bear interest at fixed interest rates ranging between 1.48% and 2.09%, with interest payments due semiannually in April and October each year. The Senior Notes may be prepaid at any time subject to a make-whole premium, as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement. The Note Purchase Agreement contains certain restrictive covenants relating to, among other things, limitations on indebtedness, transactions with affiliates, sales of assets and certain investments. In addition, the Note Purchase Agreement includes a financial covenant relating to the Company's consolidated leverage ratio. As of December 31, 2023, the Company was in compliance with all debt covenants.

Interest Rate Swaps

In June 2018, the Company entered into two, $50,000,000 notional amount interest rate swap contracts: one 7-year interest rate swap with a June 2025 termination date and one 10-year interest rate swap with a June 2028 termination date. The interest rate swaps were used to effectively fix the interest rate on a portion of our floating-rate Credit Facilities, including forecasted future issuances. Under the two swap contracts, the Company paid interest at a weighted average annual rate of 2.92% and received interest at the prevailing 1-month LIBOR rate. The Company designated the swaps as cash flow hedges, and both were deemed to be highly effective in offsetting changes in our future expected cash flows due to the fluctuation in the 1-month LIBOR rate through termination.

For the years ended December 31, 2022, and 2021, the Company reported income/(loss) in Other comprehensive earnings (loss) of approximately $12,044,000, and 6,322,000, respectively, as a result of recording the swaps at their determined fair values. As of December 31, 2022, the Company reported a hedge asset related to our interest rate swaps of approximately 3,576,000.

In May 2023, in connection with the amendment to our 2021 Credit Facilities to transition from LIBOR to 1-month Term SOFR, the Company elected to unwind our two interest rate swap contracts in exchange for the receipt of a $3,500,000 swap unwind fee. In accordance with ASC 815, the Company derecognized the related hedge assets as of the unwind date and reclassified all amounts previously recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income to interest expense. Transaction fees incurred related to the unwind of our two interest rate swaps were not material.

6. Employee Benefit Plans

The Company has a qualified contributory profit sharing plan covering substantially all employees. The Company matches dollar-for-dollar up to 5% of eligible compensation contributed by each employee. The Company recorded contribution expense of approximately $37,637,000, $28,377,000, and $23,867,000 during the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively, reflected within Selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

The Company also has a qualified defined benefit pension plan covering certain eligible employees. The plan provides a defined benefit based on years of service and highest average compensation during a five-year period. The plan includes an early retirement provision which provides an unreduced benefit to participants retiring after reaching age 55 and 20 years of service. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the qualified defined benefit plan had an underfunded balance of approximately $117,050,000 and $119,389,000, respectively, reflected within Accrued expenses and obligations on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. During 2023, 2022, and 2021 the Company made total funding payments of approximately $31,360,000, $43,097,000, and $30,700,000 respectively.

The Company additionally provides an unfunded, nonqualified, deferred compensation plan (“EDC plan”) for a select group of employees earning amounts in excess of that allowed for tax-deductible funding under existing Internal Revenue Service regulations. The EDC plan includes a supplemental benefit which is offered to supplement the qualified, defined benefit pension plan. Benefits under this nonqualified arrangement are consistent with those offered under the defined benefit pension plan. The Company recognized compensation expense in connection with the EDC plan of approximately $6,519,000, $8,676,000, and $10,527,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively, reflected within Selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Amounts accrued under the EDC plan totaled approximately $51,156,000 and $76,899,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, reflected within Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

The EDC plan also includes a defined contribution benefit that allows employees the option of making voluntary contributions of between 5% and 15% of their annual salary (in excess of IRS maximum compensation income limits) to the plan to which the Company matches the employees’ contributions dollar-for-dollar up to 5%. Contributions made to the plan are invested and administered through a Rabbi Trust. The trust cannot be revoked by the Company; however, the assets are subject to claims of general creditors. Amounts accrued under this plan were approximately $398,260,000 and $334,570,000 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and are included in Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Plan assets invested through the Rabbi Trust consist primarily of equity (mutual funds) and fixed income securities, materially all of which qualify as Level 1 assets within the fair value hierarchy. All securities invested through the Rabbi Trust are classified as trading securities and have been reflected at their fair market value in Investments on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022. Income/(loss) recognized on investments held under the Rabbi Trust were approximately $57,590,000, ($59,660,000), and $46,622,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, respectively, and are included within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

Certain members of senior management are participants in a supplemental executive retirement plan ("SERP") provided by the Company. Participants vest in the SERP upon remaining in the employ of the Company until the later of attaining age 55 or completion of 20 years of service. Retirement benefits are calculated based upon formulas in each SERP agreement and are in the form of a monthly payment upon retirement and a death benefit payable to a beneficiary designated by each participant. This plan is closed to new entrants. The Company recognized compensation expense of approximately $954,000, $1,157,000, and $1,223,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively, in connection with the SERP. Amounts accrued under the SERP totaled approximately $20,010,000 and $18,333,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and are recorded as salaries, incentives, and deferred compensation within Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Additionally, the Company has a postretirement health care plan for eligible employees. Those employees who retire at age 55 and older with 20 years of continuous full-time service or those hired at Director level and above (Senior Director level and above if hired on or after January 1, 2023) who retire with 10 years of continuous full-time service may participate and may cover eligible dependents. There is no premium contributed by the participants. The Company recognized compensation expense in connection with the postretirement health care plan of approximately $34,052,000, $34,745,000, and $26,362,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, respectively, reflected within Selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Amounts accrued under the postretirement health care plan totaled approximately $233,533,000 and $186,662,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and are included within Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

In 2023, the Company offered a voluntary early retirement option to certain participants of the qualified defined benefit and EDC plans. Pursuant to ASC 715, settlement accounting was triggered for the EDC plan, which resulted in an interim remeasurement as of July 31, 2023. A subsequent remeasurement was performed as of December 31, 2023 for a lump sum payment received by one participant in December 2023. As a result of the settlements, the Company recognized a settlement loss of approximately $1,470,000 in 2023 which is reflected as a component of total pension expense.

The early retirement option further provided all electing employees company-paid postretirement health benefits, including for those not otherwise eligible under the Plan's standard eligibility provisions. These additional benefits granted to employees not otherwise eligible are deemed special termination benefits under ASC 715, which requires the recognition of an expense in the period the employees irrevocably accept the offer and the benefit is reasonably estimable. The Company recognized one-time special termination benefit expenses related to the postretirement healthcare plans of approximately $2,449,000 in 2023.

The following table sets forth the plan's funded status and amounts recognized in the Company's consolidated balance sheets at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Plan Assets

Plan assets are invested using a total rate of return approach to preserve asset values, diversify risk and achieve the expected long-term rate of return. The Company's expected long-term rate of return on plan assets assumption of 7.0% for each of the fiscal years presented in these financial statements was determined using a weighted average approach considering the mix of plan assets at the determination date and long-term forward-looking expected returns for each asset category. Plan assets allocated by asset category approximate target allocations, and consist of equity securities (39.2%), fixed income securities (37.3%), cash and cash equivalents (14.9%), alternative investments and derivative instruments (8.3%) and private equity (0.3%) as of December 31, 2023.

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the fair values of the investments as of December 31, 2023 and 2022. Certain investments do not have readily determinable fair values and as such, have been measured using NAV as a practical expedient, as permitted under ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. Such investments have not been categorized in the fair value hierarchy but have been provided in the following tables to provide a reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the total value of plan assets.

Fair market values of plan assets are determined based on the nature of the asset category.

Level 1 Inputs are based upon unadjusted quoted prices for identical instruments traded in active markets.

Level 2 Observable inputs, the value of the fund(s) is the sum of the private investment funds held in the fund.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

Level 3 Unobservable inputs, the fund is a limited partnership that invests in private equity funds, real estate and other limited partnerships. Valuation may be subject to estimates.

Investments in investment companies are valued at fair value. Fair values are determined utilizing the NAV supplied by, or on behalf of, management of each investment company, which is in accordance with the practical expedient as defined by ASC 820. NAVs received by, or on behalf of, management of each investment company are based on the fair value of the investment company's underlying investments in accordance with policies established by management of each investment company, as described in each of their financial statements and offering memorandum. The redemption period for each class of investments measured using NAV as a practical expedient generally requires between zero- and five-days' notice.

The plan's objective is to achieve a consistent total rate of return (income, appreciation, and reinvested funds) that will equal or exceed the actuarial assumption with aversion to significant volatility. The following is the target asset allocation:

	Minimum	Maximum
Public equity	22.5%	59.5%
Long duration fixed income	30.0%	50.0%
Non-core fixed income	2.5%	28.0%
Real assets	0.0%	14.0%
Alternative risk premia	0.0%	7.0%
Tactical tilts	0.0%	7.0%
Cash	0.0%	21.0%

Contributions

The Company expects to contribute approximately $22,421,000 to the qualified plan during fiscal year 2024.

Benefits

The Company's expected future benefit payments are as follows:

	$ 375,244,801	$ 17,980,307	$ 393,225,108

Income tax expense differs from the amount computed by applying the federal statutory rate of 21% to earnings before income taxes due to the following: (1) state income taxes, (2) state tax credits and (3) permanent differences, consisting primarily of nondeductible meals and entertainment and nondeductible officer's life insurance.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities presented in the consolidated financial statements and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Deferred tax assets aggregated $1,475,099,000 and $1,374,238,000 and deferred tax liabilities aggregated $1,927,456,000 and $1,754,152,100 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the principal components of deferred tax assets include differences between federal and state basis of property, plant and equipment, advance payments, and certain accruals related to deferred compensation, postretirement health benefits, and leases. The principal components of deferred tax liabilities are related to property, plant and equipment, leases, and accrued pension benefits.

No valuation allowance was recorded against the Company's U.S. federal and state deferred tax assets at December 31, 2023 or 2022. The Company's management believes it is more likely than not that the existing U.S. federal and state gross deferred tax assets will reverse during periods in which the deferred tax liabilities reverse or in which the Company generates net taxable income.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021

The Company had foreign deferred tax assets of $8,502,000 and $3,902,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, which consist primarily of net operating loss carryforwards. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, a full valuation allowance was recorded against our foreign deferred tax assets. The Company's management has considered all available positive and negative evidence to determine whether it will generate sufficient future taxable income to utilize the foreign deferred tax assets. A significant piece of objective negative evidence evaluated were the losses incurred from 2019 to 2023. Such objective evidence limits the ability to consider other subjective evidence, such as projections of future foreign taxable income. If or when recognized, the tax benefits related to any reversal of the valuation allowance against these foreign deferred tax assets will be accounted for as a reduction of income tax expense in the period such reversal occurs.

The Company notes that it currently does not have undistributed earnings due to losses in its foreign jurisdictions.

The Company had accrued interest related to unrecognized tax benefits of $3,917,000 and $2,889,000 recorded on our consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, of which $1,028,000 and $1,033,000 was recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings as Income tax expense, respectively. The Company's policy is to record potential penalties and interest related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company files federal, state, and foreign income tax returns in jurisdictions with varying statutes of limitations. As of December 31, 2023, the 2020 through 2023 tax years generally remain subject to examination by federal and most state tax authorities.

The Company does not expect any significant change in unrecognized tax benefits during the next twelve months.

related to the performance of the agreed upon services were approximately $6,787,000, $5,629,000, and $5,644,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, respectively.

10. Leases

The Company is the lessee in a significant real estate portfolio related to our free-standing and mall restaurant locations. The Company's leases are structured either as ground leases, where we lease the land and subsequently construct the restaurant, or as space leases, where we lease the land along with the respective building space. Our restaurant real estate leases, exclusive of traditional mall leases, are generally long-term in nature, with non-cancellable, base lease terms ranging between 10 and 20 years and typically provide for periodic rent escalations and optional renewal periods. Rent escalations vary between leases but commonly occur every five years at an escalation rate between 10% and 12%. Lease renewal options are generally exercisable at the Company's sole discretion and are typically structured to occur in multiple five-year increments.

The Company's traditional mall leases generally have shorter lease terms, usually less than ten years, and typically do not contain as many optional renewal periods as the Company's free standing restaurant leases. In addition to fixed minimum monthly lease payments, some of the Company's leases, primarily those in our traditional mall spaces, provide for contingent rentals that are calculated based on certain achieved restaurant sales thresholds. Due to the variable nature of these payments, they are typically not included in the measurement of the lease asset and liability and are included as a component of variable lease expense.

The Company leases or subleases each franchised restaurant location to restaurant franchisees under month-to-month lease agreements. Under the Company's domestic franchisee lease agreements, rent paid by franchisees to the Company for the use of real estate is subject to a maximum of 6% of restaurant sales. The Company also leases or subleases equipment to restaurant franchisees under month-to-month lease agreements. Equipment rental charges are determined based upon the restaurant concept type and are charged to franchisees monthly. The Company recognizes rental and subrental income within Rental income on the accompanying statements of comprehensive earnings. In accordance with ASC 842, the Company reports right-of-use assets subject to sublease to restaurant franchisees separately from other right-of-use assets on our accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

In addition to restaurant real estate, the Company additionally leases real estate for certain of our corporate office locations, distribution and manufacturing facilities related to our distribution and lemon juicing production operations, as well as certain restaurant and corporate office equipment. Our real estate leases for corporate office locations, distribution and manufacturing facilities are generally long-term in nature, with non-cancellable, base lease terms ranging between 10 and 20 years and typically provide for optional renewal periods. Our equipment leases for use in corporate offices, distribution and manufacturing facilities, and restaurants have terms and conditions varying depending on the nature of the equipment.

The following table summarizes the components of the Company's lease cost:

For each of these transactions, the Company does not derecognize the underlying real estate asset and recognizes a financing obligation liability equal to the proceeds from sale less selling costs. The Company subsequently classifies and measures the asset

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Premiums paid by the Company to the trust were paid directly by the trust to the health insurance providers who funded the full cost of all reported health insurance claims as losses become due and payable. As a result, the Company was liable only for our monthly premium payments to the trust and did not accrue for incurred but unreported insurance claims.

Accrued liabilities under our self-insurance plan are recorded based on actuarial estimates of the ultimate costs to settle known claims as well as estimates for claims incurred but not yet reported as of the balance sheet date. Insurance accruals additionally include plan administrative costs as well as amounts due and payable to the Company under certain pharmacy rebate programs.

STATE SPECIFIC ADDENDA AND AGREEMENT AMENDMENTS

ADDENDUM TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT FOR PROSPECTIVE LICENSEES
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation requires that certain provisions contained in franchise documents be amended to be consistent with California law, including the California Franchise Investment Law, CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE Section 31000 et seq., and the California Franchise Relations Act, CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE Section 20000 et seq. To the extent that the Franchise Disclosure Document for use in the State of California contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

1. The following is added as the last paragraph to the cover page of the Disclosure Document:

OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION at www.dfpi.ca.gov.

2. In Item 3, “Litigation” shall be amended by the addition of the following paragraphs:

Pursuant to California law, Item 3 does not include any information regarding the arrest of any person(s) that did not result in a conviction or plea of nolo contendere.

Neither Chick-fil-A, nor any person identified in Item 2 above, is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange (as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78a, et seq.) suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange.

3. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

4. Item 11, “Franchisor’s Assistance, Advertising, Computer Systems and Training,” under the heading “Selection of Location,” shall be amended by modifying the last sentence of the second paragraph under that heading so that the second paragraph shall read as follows:

Chick-fil-A licenses and continues to offer licenses to prospective Chick-fil-A Licensees from time to time who have access to Licensed Sites, which are locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar locations. Accordingly, you have the sole responsibility to select and must select the Licensed Site for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) and the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site, subject to Chick-fil-A’s prior approval. Chick-fil-A’s approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets Chick-fil-A’s then current minimum standards for site approval.

5. The Item 17 table for the Franchise Agreement, item t, under the subheading “Integration/merger clause*” shall be amended to read as follows:

t. Integration/merger clause*	11	Only the terms of the License Agreement, including all schedules, exhibits and ancillary agreements are binding (subject to applicable state law, see Exhibit “G”). We caution you not to rely upon any promises or statements not in the License Agreement or in this Disclosure Document. You may rely on our representations in this Disclosure Document, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements. All of the provisions above may not be enforceable under California law. We nevertheless reserve the right to attempt to enforce all of the provisions listed above.
-------------------------------	----	---

6. Item 17, “Renewal Termination, Transfer and Dispute Resolution,” shall be amended by the addition of the following paragraph(s) at the conclusion of the Item:

The following notice is required to be inserted in this Franchise Disclosure Document by the State of California whenever an applicable provision is included in a franchise agreement. Chick-fil-A reserves the right to attempt to enforce all of the provisions listed below in which Chick-fil-A indicates that the “provision may not be enforceable under California law.”

The License Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.).

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning non-renewal, transfer and termination of the License Agreement. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to you concerning termination of the License Agreement. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to you concerning termination of the License Agreement upon certain bankruptcy-related events. To the extent the License Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

If the License Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the expiration or termination of the License Agreement, this provision may not be enforceable under California law.

If the License Agreement requires payment of liquidated damages that are inconsistent with California Civil Code Section 1671, the liquidated damages provision may not be enforceable under California law.

If the License Agreement requires litigation, arbitration, or mediation to be conducted in a forum other than the State of California, this provision may not be enforceable under California law.

If the License Agreement requires that it be governed by a state's law, other than the State of California, this provision may not be enforceable under California law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Each provision of this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional and any other requirements of the California law applicable to the provision are met independent of and without reference to this Addendum. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or any other requirements are not met.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC. LICENSE AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In recognition of the requirements of California law, including the California Franchise Investment Law, CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE Section 31000 et seq., and the California Franchise Relations Act, CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE Section 20000 et seq., the parties to the Chick-fil-A, Inc. License Agreement (the "License Agreement"), dated as of _____, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Section 8.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Termination by CFA," shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

The License Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.).

2. Section 2.5 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "License Term," and Section 8.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Termination by CFA," shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the Licensee concerning non-renewal, transfer and termination of the License Agreement. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to the Licensee concerning termination of the License Agreement. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to the Licensee concerning termination of the License Agreement upon certain bankruptcy-related events. To the extent the License Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

3. Section 7.3 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Restrictive Covenant" or "Limitation in Use of Space," shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

The License Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the expiration or termination of the License Agreement. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

4. Section 10.6 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Litigation," shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

The License Agreement requires litigation to be conducted in a forum other than the State of California. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

5. Section 10.5 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Choice of Law," shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

The License Agreement requires that it be governed by a state's law, other than the State of California. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

6. Chick-fil-A reserves the right to attempt to enforce all of the provisions set forth in the License Agreement listed above in which the parties have indicated that the "provision may not be enforceable under California law."

7. Section 3.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Responsibility," shall be amended by deleting Section 3.2 and replacing it with the following:

3.2 Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee shall be solely responsible for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. CFA's approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets CFA's then current minimum standards for site approval. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA's prior written consent.

8. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Caveats," shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

10.8 (a) Based on its experience, CFA believes and therefore states that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors.

9. The following is added as a new section 10.10 to the License Agreement:

10.10 No Statement, Questionnaire, or Acknowledgement. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

10. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Entire Agreement; Modification," shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

11. The parties acknowledge and agree that each provision of this Amendment to the License Agreement shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional (and any other then-current requirements) of the California Law applicable to the provision are met independent of and without reference to this Amendment. This Amendment shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional requirements (or any other then-current requirements) are not met.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed, and delivered this California Amendment to the License Agreement on the same date as that on which the License Agreement was executed.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
LICENSE AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF HAWAII

In recognition of the requirements of the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law, Hawaii Revised Statutes, Title 26, Chapter 482E, Sections 482E-1 31000 et seq., the parties to the attached Chick-fil-A, Inc. License Agreement (the "License Agreement"), dated as of _____, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Section 3.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Responsibility," shall be amended by deleting Section 3.2 and replacing it with the following:

3.2 Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee shall be solely responsible for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. CFA's approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets CFA's then current minimum standards for site approval. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA's prior written consent.

2. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Caveats," shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

10.8 (a) Based on its experience, CFA believes and therefore states that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors.

3. The following is added as a new section 10.10 to the License Agreement:

10.10 No Statement, Questionnaire, or Acknowledgement. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

4. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Entire Agreement; Modification," shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

5. Each provision of this Amendment shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law are met independently without reference to this Amendment. If any of the provisions of this Section concerning termination or non-renewal are inconsistent with Sections 19 or 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act of 1987, then said Illinois law shall apply.

2. Section 3.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Responsibility," shall be amended by deleting Section 3.2 and replacing it with the following:

3.2 Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee shall be solely responsible for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. CFA's approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets CFA's then current minimum standards for site approval. The Parties further acknowledge and agree that such courts are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relating to this Agreement and that those courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction for such litigation arising under the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act of 1987. If either Party files suit to collect sums due under this Agreement, then the first Party, in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder, shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses incurred in connection with such collection, including without limitation attorneys' fees and advisors' fees, court costs and other expenses of litigation, if the suing Party prevails in such suit.

Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

8. Each provision of this Amendment shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act of 1987 are met independently without reference to this Amendment. If the License Agreement requires the application of Georgia law, the requirement shall not be interpreted to limit any rights Licensee may have to bring a lawsuit for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. Item 17, “Renewal Termination, Transfer and Dispute Resolution,” shall be amended by the addition of the following paragraph(s) at the conclusion of the Item:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. Each provision of this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional requirements and any other requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, with respect to each such provision, are met independent of and without reference to this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
LICENSE AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MARYLAND

In recognition of the requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, Md. Code Ann. Bus. Reg. Sections 4-201 – 14-233 (1994), the parties to the attached Chick-fil-A, Inc. License Agreement, dated as of _____, (the “License Agreement”), do hereby agree as follows:

1. Section 3.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Responsibility,” shall be amended by deleting Section 3.2 and replacing it with the following:

3.2 Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee shall be solely responsible for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. CFA’s approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets CFA’s then current minimum standards for site approval. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA’s prior written consent.

2. Section 10.5 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Choice of Law,” shall be supplemented by the following language:

If the License Agreement requires the application of Georgia law, the requirement shall not be interpreted to limit any rights Licensee may have to bring a lawsuit for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

3. Section 10.6 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Litigation,” shall be supplemented by the following language:

If the License Agreement requires litigation to be conducted in a forum other than the State of Maryland, the requirement shall not be interpreted to limit any rights Licensee may have under Section 14-216(c)(25) of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law to bring suit in the State of Maryland.

4. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Caveats,” shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

10.8 (a) Based on its experience, CFA believes and therefore states that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors.

5. The following is added as a new section 10.10 to the License Agreement:

10.10 No Statement, Questionnaire, or Acknowledgement. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Entire Agreement; Modification,” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA’s representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee’s entry into this Agreement (the “FDD”). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA’s rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

Nothing in the License Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim or require Licensee to waive reliance on any representation made in the FDD received by the Licensee.

7. Each provision of this Amendment shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional requirements and any other requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, with respect to each such provision, are met independent of and without reference to this Amendment. This Amendment shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Maryland Amendment to the License Agreement in duplicate on the date first above written.

2. The fifth paragraph under Item 13 shall be deleted in its entirety, and the following language shall be added in lieu thereof:

CFA Properties and Chick-fil-A have the sole and exclusive right to protect any or all of the trademarks listed above at their own expense. You must notify Chick-fil-A immediately when you learn about possible infringement of CFA Properties’ trademarks. If the License Agreement and/or Franchise Disclosure Document contain(s) a provision that is inconsistent with the Minnesota Franchise Act, the provisions of the License Agreement will be superseded by the Minnesota Franchise Act's requirements and shall have no force or effect.

4. The Item 17 table for the Franchise Agreement, item t, under the subheading "Integration/merger clause*" shall be amended to read as follows:

5. Item 17 for the License Agreement shall be amended by the addition of the following language at the conclusion of the provision entitled "Choice of law:"

If the License Agreement and/or Franchise Disclosure Document require(s) that it be governed by a state's law, other than the state of Minnesota, those provisions shall not in any way abrogate or reduce any rights of the Licensee as provided for in the Minnesota Franchise Act, including the right to submit matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota.

6. Item 17 shall be amended by the addition of the following language at the conclusion of the provision entitled "Choice of forum:"

If the License Agreement and/or Franchise Disclosure Document requires the Licensee to sue Chick-fil-A outside of the state of Minnesota, those provisions shall not in any way abrogate or reduce any rights of the Licensee as provided for in the Minnesota Franchise Act, including the right to submit matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota.

7. Item 17 shall be amended by the addition of the following language at the end of the item:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
LICENSE AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

In recognition of the requirements of the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§ 80C.01 through 80C.22, and of the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder by the Minnesota Commissioner of Commerce, Minn Rules. §§ 2860.0100 through 2860.9930 (collectively, the “Minnesota Franchise Act”), the parties to the attached Chick-fil-A, Inc. The Minnesota Franchise Act provides licensees with certain termination, renewal and transfer rights. In sum, Minn. Stat. § 80C.14 (subd. 3, 4, and 5) currently requires, except in certain specified cases, that a licensee be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days’ notice of intent not to renew the License Agreement, and that consent to the transfer of the license not be unreasonably withheld. CFA does not warrant the validity of any or all of the Proprietary Marks. Licensee does agree, however, at the cost of CFA, to be a named party in any demand, suit or action which CFA may determine to institute in connection with such matters and otherwise to cooperate as CFA reasonably requests in any defense or other protection of the Proprietary Marks. Any and all damages and costs recovered shall be for the sole account of CFA. If CFA, in its sole business judgment, determines that Licensee has not used the Proprietary Marks in accordance with this Agreement, the cost of such defense, including the cost of any judgment or settlement, shall be borne by Licensee.

If the License Agreement requires the Licensee to sue Chick-fil-A outside of the state of Minnesota, those provisions shall not in any way abrogate or reduce any rights of the Licensee as provided for in the Minnesota Franchise Act, including the right to submit matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota.

7. The following is added as a new section 10.10 to the License Agreement:

10.10 No Statement, Questionnaire, or Acknowledgement. 5. Section 10.5 of the Agreement, under the heading "Choice of Law," shall be supplemented as follows:

This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed under the laws relating to the construction and interpretation of contracts of the State of Georgia, without regard to any conflict of law statute or doctrine applicable in the State of Georgia, except that the above choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon Licensee by General Business Law of New York State, Sections 680-695.

6. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Caveats," shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
NEW YORK AMENDMENT TO THE LICENSE AGREEMENT

10.8 (a) Based on its experience, CFA believes and therefore states that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors.

7. The following is added as a new section 10.10 to the License Agreement:

10.10 No Statement, Questionnaire, or Acknowledgement. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

8. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Entire Agreement; Modification,” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the “FDD”). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA

9. Section 11.11 of the Agreement, under the heading “Miscellaneous,” shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language at the end of the Section, which shall be considered an integral part of the Agreement:

To the extent that the License Agreement requires the Licensee to sign a release or to acknowledge facts that would negate or remove from judicial or administrative review any statement, misrepresentation or action that would violate New York law, including New York General Business Law, Article 33, Sections 680 – 695, or a rule or order under the law, the release or acknowledgment of fact will be void with respect to claims arising under New York law. All rights the Licensee enjoys and any causes of action arising in the Licensee's favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued under the law remain in force, it being the intent that the non-waiver provisions of Sections 687.4 and 687.5 of the New York General Business Law be satisfied.

10. Each provision of this Amendment to the License Agreement shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of New York General Business Law, Article 33, Section 680 through 695, and of the Codes, Rules, and Regulations of the State of New York, Title 13, Chapter VII, Section 200.1 through 201.16 are met independently without reference to this Amendment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed, and delivered this New York Amendment to the License Agreement on the same date as that on which the License Agreement was executed.

Accordingly, you have the sole responsibility to select and must select the Licensed Site for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) and the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site, subject to Chick-fil-A’s prior approval. Chick-fil-A’s approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets Chick-fil-A’s then current minimum standards for site approval.

2. Item 17.r provision entitled “Non-competition covenants after the franchise is terminated or expires” shall be supplemented with the following language:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Each provision of this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, N.D. Cent. Code, §§ 51-19-01 through 51-19-17, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, are met independently without reference to this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
LICENSE AGREEMENT

1. Section 3.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Responsibility," shall be amended by deleting Section 3.2 and replacing it with the following:

3.2 Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee shall be solely responsible for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. CFA's approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets CFA's then current minimum standards for site approval. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA's prior written consent.

2. Section 10.5 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Choice of Law," shall be deleted in its entirety, and the following language shall be added in lieu thereof:

This agreement is made pursuant to and shall be interpreted under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they now exist and hereafter may be amended or changed from time to time. 4. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Caveats," shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Entire Agreement; Modification,” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the “FDD”). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA’s rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

7. This Amendment shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

3. Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is supplemented by adding the following at the end of the Item:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

4. Each provision of this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, §§13.1-557 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, are met independently without reference to this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
LICENSE AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF VIRGINIA

In recognition of the requirements of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, §§13.1-557 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, and Rule 21VAC5-110-10 et seq., the parties to the attached Chick-fil-A, Inc. License Agreement (the “License Agreement”), dated as of _____, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Section 3.2 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Responsibility,” shall be amended by deleting Section 3.2 and replacing it with the following:

3.2 Notwithstanding Section 3.1, Licensee shall be solely responsible for the selection of any Sites and the location of Units there. CFA’s approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets CFA’s then current minimum standards for site approval. Licensee may not move the location of any Unit, from the Site with which it was originally associated, without CFA’s prior written consent.

2. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Caveats,” shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

10.8 (a) Based on its experience, CFA believes and therefore states that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors.

3. The following is added as a new section 10.10 to the License Agreement:

10.10 No Statement, Questionnaire, or Acknowledgement. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

4. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled “Entire Agreement; Modification,” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the “FDD”). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. Further, this Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by Licensee and a duly authorized officer of CFA, subject to CFA's rights in Sections 6.2 and 6.5, and no change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind CFA unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of CFA.

5. Each provision of this Amendment shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, §§13.1-557 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, are met independently without reference to this Amendment. This Amendment shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Virginia Amendment to the License Agreement in duplicate on the date first above written.

ADDENDUM TO THE CHICK-FIL-A, INC.
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT FOR PROSPECTIVE LICENSEES
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In recognition of the requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, §§ 19.100.10 through 19.100.940, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Prospective Licensees of Chick-fil-A, Inc. for use in the state of Washington shall be amended to include the following:

1. Item 11, “Franchisor’s Assistance, Advertising, Computer Systems and Training,” under the heading “Selection of Location,” shall be amended by modifying the last sentence of the second paragraph under that heading so that the second paragraph shall read as follows:

Chick-fil-A licenses and continues to offer licenses to prospective Chick-fil-A Licensees from time to time who have access to Licensed Sites, which are locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar locations. Accordingly, you have the sole responsibility to select and must select the Licensed Site for your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) and the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site, subject to Chick-fil-A’s prior approval. Chick-fil-A’s approval of a Licensed Site or the location of your Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit(s) within the Chick-fil-A Licensed Site shall only mean that the prospective Licensed Unit(s) to be operated at the Licensed Site meets Chick-fil-A’s then current minimum standards for site approval.

2. The Item 17 table for the Franchise Agreement, item t, under the subheading “Integration/merger clause*” shall be amended to read as follows:

t. Integration/merger clause*	11	Only the terms of the License Agreement, including all schedules, exhibits and ancillary agreements are binding (subject to applicable state law, see Exhibit “G”). We caution you not to rely upon any promises or statements not in the License Agreement or in this Disclosure Document. You may rely on our representations in this Disclosure Document, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements. All of the provisions above may not be enforceable under California law. We nevertheless reserve the right to attempt to enforce all of the provisions listed above.
-------------------------------	----	---

3. Item 17 shall be supplemented with the following language:

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

4. Each provision of this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, are met independently without reference to this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

5. Section 7.3 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Limitations on Competition," shall be amended by adding the following language at the end of the Section:

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

6. Section 10.8(a) of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Caveats," shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

10.8 (a) Based on its experience, CFA believes and therefore states that the success of the business venture contemplated to be undertaken by Licensee by virtue of this Agreement is speculative and depends to a large extent upon the ability of Licensee as an independent business entity and its active participation in the affairs of the Units, as well as other factors.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

8. Section 11.9 of the License Agreement, under the heading entitled "Entire Agreement; Modification," shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

11.9 Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement (together with the Addenda and the Exhibits and other attachments hereto and any and all guarantees hereof) constitutes the entire, complete and integrated Agreement between CFA and Licensee concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all previous negotiations and agreements between them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Subject to the requirements of applicable state law, no other representations have induced Licensee to sign this Agreement. Licensee may rely on CFA's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that CFA delivered to Licensee, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with Licensee's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). CFA cautions the Licensee not to rely on any representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD because, among other things, no officer, employee, or other servant or agent of CFA is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD.
