What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from your franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, which requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state may also have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Franchise Agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation and arbitration, only in Utah. Out-of-state mediation and arbitration may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Utah than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the Franchise Agreement, even if your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This Guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets (potentially including your house) at risk if your franchise fails.
3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make royalty and minimum advertising payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
4. Short Operating History. The Franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history.
5. Inventory Control. You must maintain the Minimum Inventory Levels stipulated in the Franchise Agreement. Your inability to make these purchases or to maintain required inventory levels at all times may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
6. Termination. If your store is not open within 18 months of signing the Franchise Agreement, Franchisor may terminate the Agreement without granting you an opportunity to cure (Franchise Agreement Section 3.02).

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Item 1: THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Disclosure Document, "Uptown Cheapskate ", "UC", "we", "us", and "our" means Uptown Cheapskate Franchise System, LLC, the franchisor. "You" and "your" means the person (if you are a sole proprietor, general partner, or personal guarantor of the Franchise Agreement) or entity (if you are a limited liability company, limited partnership, or a corporation) that purchases the Franchise and becomes a Franchisee. If you are a limited liability company, limited partnership, or other entity, "you" may also refer to your owners.

Franchisor, Predecessor, Parent, and Affiliates

Franchisor and Predecessor

We were organized as a limited liability company on July 15, 2022 under the laws of the State of Delaware. Our principal place of business is 39 E. Eagle Ridge Drive, #100, North Salt Lake, Utah 84054. We conduct business under the name of Uptown Cheapskate Franchise System, LLC and Uptown Cheapskate. We are not involved in any other business activities, nor does UC offer franchises in other lines of business.

We acquired the franchise assets related to the Uptown Cheapskate system on September 30, 2022, as the result of a transaction between BaseCamp Parent, LLC and our predecessor, Uptown Cheapskate, LLC ("UCF"). Following the transaction, BaseCamp Parent, LLC contributed all of the acquired assets down into its wholly-owned subsidiary, BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC, which, in turn, contributed those assets down into its wholly-owned subsidiary BaseCamp Franchising, LLC. The acquired franchise agreements associated with the Uptown Cheapskate franchise were subsequently contributed down into Uptown Cheapskate Franchise System, LLC, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of BaseCamp Franchising, LLC.

UCF opened the first Uptown Cheapskate company-owned store on February 26, 2009, and was the franchisor of the Uptown Cheapskate franchise system from September 2008 to September 2022. UCF was a Utah limited liability company, and had the same principal place of business as us. It was not involved in any other business activities, nor did UCF offer franchises in other lines of business.

We franchise the right to use our Marks and System to sell used and new teen and young adult products to the public. "Marks" means such service marks, trademarks, trade dress, trade names, logos and commercial symbols, and all configurations and derivations, as may presently exist, or which may be modified, changed, or acquired by us or our affiliates, in connection with the operation of an Uptown Cheapskate store. "System" means the business system, concept, methodology and format to purchase, market and sell used and new teen and young adult products. The System includes, but is not limited to: market evaluation, site selection and leasing strategies, store design, layout and fixturing schemes, store opening, advertising, merchandising, purchasing and sales techniques, technology, customer and community relations, financing and accounting strategies, management policies and procedures, and training programs, and may be modified from time to time. All stores operating within the franchise system use the name Uptown Cheapskate. We intend to continue to do business under the names "Uptown Cheapskate, LLC" and "Uptown Cheapskate". We began franchising in October 2022. We operate no Uptown Cheapskate stores but as of December 31, 2021, some of our predecessor's officers and founders, Scott Sloan and Chelsea Sloan Carroll, have ownership interests in various Uptown Cheapskate stores.

Parent and Affiliates

Our immediate parent is BaseCamp Franchising, LLC ("BaseCamp"). BaseCamp Franchising, LLC is wholly-owned by BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC, which is wholly-owned by BaseCamp Parent, LLC. All of these entities are limited liability companies formed on July 15, 2022, in Delaware, with a principal place of business at 39 E. Eagle Ridge Drive, #100, North Salt Lake, Utah 84054.

Our affiliate Kid to Kid Franchise System, LLC is a Delaware limited liability company formed on July 15, 2022 ("Kid to Kid" or "K2K"), and has the same principal address as us. K2K is a franchisor of a franchise system that sells used and new items for children and expecting mothers. While K2K stores target a different base of customers, their operations are similar to ours. Kid to Kid's predecessor, Kid to Kid Franchise System, Inc. had owned or managed at least one Kid to Kid children's resale store since November 1992, and offered franchises from February 1994 to September 2022. As of December 31, 2023, Kid to Kid had 116 franchise stores in the United States, Canada, Portugal, and Spain. Kid to Kid is not involved in any other business activities and does not offer franchises in any other lines of business.

BaseCamp provides support services to our franchisees and our affiliate Kid to Kid's franchisees, including operations support, tech support, software, marketing services, and bookkeeping services. BaseCamp is not involved in any other business activities, and does not offer franchises in any line of business.

Agent for Service of Process

Our agent for service of process is listed in Exhibit C of this Franchise Disclosure Document.

The Business We Offer

As a franchisee, you are granted the right to operate an Uptown Cheapskate store at a designated location and are promised that no other Uptown Cheapskate store will operate within at least five (5) miles' driving distance (as measured by Google Maps or another mapping service we may select) of your Store. You will receive assistance in market evaluation, site selection, store design, layout and fixture schemes, store opening, advertising, merchandising, purchasing and sales techniques, customer and community relations, policies and procedures, and training programs.

The general market for the franchise is resale, consignment, and retail clothing and related items. The market is fairly well developed. Goods are sold primarily to high school and college-aged teens and young adults, and sales are somewhat seasonal, similar to traditional retail, with heavier sales in the fall for Back to School and in the Spring season.

Applicable Regulations

There are no particular federal laws or regulations specific to the industry in which the franchise business operates, but some state and local governments regulate businesses which sell second-hand merchandise.

Competition

Your competitors may include specialty stores, department stores, discount stores, big-box stores, thrift stores, consignment stores, mail order vendors, internet merchants, and other resale stores.

Uptown Cheapskate franchisees purchase product primarily from customers in their communities. In most cases, the product is purchased outright rather than consigned. Customers primarily consist of teens and young adults.

Item 3: LITIGATION

Predecessor's Prior Actions

Maribeth Vanderbeck and M Three, Inc. v. Uptown Cheapskate, LLC, Kid to Kid Franchise System, Inc. and Basecamp Franchising, LLC. On August 11, 2014, Franchisee filed an arbitration claim against Uptown Cheapskate, LLC ("UCF"), Kid to Kid Franchise System, Inc. ("K2KF"), and the predecessor of Basecamp Franchising, LLC ("Predecessor Basecamp") seeking rescission of its franchise agreement and damages, alleging that our predecessor, UCF, made unlawful earnings claims and provided poor advice and support. UCF denied the allegations and defended its position in a binding arbitration action in Minnesota in October 2015. The arbitrator held on December 21, 2015, that "the evidence demonstrated that M Three (the franchisee) breached the franchise agreement and its obligations under the agreement" and that UCF was "entitled to terminate the franchise agreement." The arbitrator also found that UCF failed to advise M Three to seek legal counsel with respect to the lease it negotiated, and held that UCF, K2KF, and Predecessor Basecamp were jointly and severally liable to M Three in the amount of $186,750 to offset some of its rent obligations. The U.S. District Court of Minnesota confirmed the arbitration award Case No.: LLC File No.: 16-cv-00042 (Minn. U.T. filed January 7, 2016).

Other than this action, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Your franchise fee includes in-person training, as well as costs to cover an internship, for you and one other individual prior to opening your store. You must pay for travel, lodging, meals, compensation and incidental costs for you and your employee(s). To the extent you would like more than two people to attend training, the cost will be $1,000 per additional team member.

(2) These fees cover initial payments, such as first and last month's rent, and/or a security deposit, assuming that you will lease a space with approximately 4,500 square feet in a community shopping center. Security deposits and pre-rent payments vary according to the cost of your space. Base rent rates typically range from $10.00 per square foot to $30.00 per square foot per year depending on size, condition, location, and market conditions, although you may choose a location with a higher rental rate if you believe its sales potential justifies the greater cost. Note that your annual rent is not included as part of the Initial Investment outlined in this section. If you choose to purchase a building, you will likely pay more money up front for the down payment and real estate improvements, but the monthly real estate loan payments may be less than monthly rental fees.

(3) These fees cover leasehold improvements, assuming that you will lease a space with approximately 4,500 square feet in a community shopping center and that the landlord will pay for some, but not all of the improvements. Note that buildout costs can vary considerably based on the existing condition of a site, and as a result, you should carefully consider this variable when choosing a location for your Store.

(4) This range reflects the cost to purchase and install a sign that is at least 20" tall, as well as window graphics, in a typical community shopping center. Note that your sign must be as large as the landlord and city/county/jurisdiction allow, and your costs may be higher at those locations that permit you to display a larger sign or add a second or pylon sign.

(5) Signs which describe product categories and sizes or hours of business, window stickers, wall stickers, markdown signs, Uptown Cheapskate signs, point-of-sale signs, promotional images, restroom and fitting room signs, policy signs, and other signs displayed within or on the exterior of the store.

(6) These are estimated fixture costs assuming your Store Location will have approximately 4,500 square feet. They include the purchase of a sales and processing counter, storage cabinets, wall and floor fixtures, slat wall, shelves, shelf standards, shelf brackets, wall dividers, hardware, display hooks, and end cap bases. Fixture prices may vary but are typically $15.00 to $19.00 per square foot.

(7) This cost includes all computer hardware and equipment necessary to purchase, price, tag, and sell inventory, as well as track and report on sales, customers, vendors, inventory, accounts, and expenses (see Item 11). The purchase price (including estimated tax and shipping) as of April 2024 was $15,334.

(8) These costs include computer software necessary to purchase, price, tag, and sell inventory, track and report on sales, customers, vendors, inventory, accounts, and expenses. The purchase price for the BaseCamp Software Suite as of April 2024 was $10,000.

(9) Your grand opening promotion will have three phases: the Coming Soon phase, during which you will advertise that your Store will open in the coming months; the Open to Buy phase, during which you will advertise that you are purchasing product; and the Grand Opening phase, during which you will promote your grand opening. The minimum advertising expenditure you must make across these three phases is $20,000. If you are purchasing a store already in operation or a store that has been relocated but has not been temporarily closed for a meaningful period of time, you must spend $10,000 within two months following the grand reopening.

(10) You must have purchased, priced, tagged, and hung or displayed the greater of five (5) items per square foot of sales area or twelve thousand (12,000) items in gently-used, in-season inventory and the greater of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or Three Dollars ($3.00) per square foot of sales area in new product inventory ("Minimum Inventory"), the type, assortment, and quality of which are specified in the Training and Operations Tools. It typically takes eight (8) to ten (10) weeks to build the necessary inventory level, although it may take longer.

(11) This estimates loan fees to lenders and loan brokers, such as application fees, origination fees, packaging fees, underwriting fees, and administrative fees that are due at application and/or at loan closing.

(12) Supplies and miscellaneous expenses, including hangers, bags, tags, sensors, sensor towers, cleaning supplies, office supplies, and related items.

(13) This estimates the working capital required during the Open to Buy period and the period directly following your grand opening. It includes payroll expenses for store employees, facilities costs, utility payments, internet charges, and other operating expenses. This estimate does not include any financing costs associated with the purchase of the Franchise.

(14) This total is an estimate of your initial investment and expenses incurred during the pre-opening and Open to Buy periods. In compiling these estimates, we relied on our and our predecessor's years of combined experience since 2009. You should carefully review these estimates with your business advisor, accountant, real estate agent and attorney before making the decision to purchase a franchise.

Although we do not provide financing for your initial investment, our affiliate, BaseCamp may loan you money (see Exhibit J).

Apart from a lease deposit, which may be refundable at the end of your lease, none of the other costs, fees, and expenses incurred in your Initial Investment are refundable.

Item 8: RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Purchases

We provide specifications in the Training and Operations Tools for each item you are required or suggested to purchase or lease in establishing and operating your Store. These specifications include standards for reliability, performance, design, and appearance and have been developed by our Operations team with input from our franchisee advisory board.

Required and Approved Suppliers

You must purchase your computers and related equipment from Lenovo or Dell Computers or other suppliers, as we require and outline in the Computer Equipment List (see Franchise Agreement, Appendix "A"). You must purchase fixtures and other materials necessary to outfit your store from FC Dadson, Inc. and Carlson Fixtures. As part of the NMP and NSS, you must purchase marketing and advertising services from LaneTerralever, a full-service marketing firm based in Phoenix, AZ. You must also purchase the BaseCamp Software Suite, which currently includes the IMAP[™], Baseline[™] point-of-sale, and Q[™] software, from our affiliate BaseCamp.

The estimated proportion of these required purchases to all purchases of goods and services is between 25% and 35% in establishing your business and between 3% and 4% in operating it.

Approval of Alternative Suppliers

All other purchases may be made from any supplier you select, provided the product or service meets the specifications contained in the Training and Operations Tools and the detailed floorplan we will prepare for your Store (the "Final Plans"). In the Training and Operations Tools, we provide a general description, technical specifications, typical price, and suggested vendor(s) for each product or service you must purchase for your Store. We regularly test and evaluate the performance of those products in our corporate and franchise locations. When we find products and services that perform better than those specified in the Training and Operations Tools and the Final Plans, we may update our materials and send you the revised section, or revise the information in our web portal.

There is no fee or penalty for using a supplier that is not included in the Recommended Supplier List, nor is there any material benefit for using a supplier that is included on the list. However, we reserve the right to require you to purchase specific items from approved suppliers which we designate.

Affiliate's Revenue from Sales to Franchisees (Based on Most Recent Financial Statements)

We are not the supplier of any goods or services required to establish and operate your Store. Our affiliate BaseCamp does, however, help coordinate and process orders related to fixtures, computer hardware, and certain marketing services, and may charge a reasonable administrative fee for these activities. You must also purchase the BaseCamp Software Suite from our affiliate BaseCamp.

From January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023, we received the following revenue: $637,854 from technology and computer support (representing 35.9% of total revenue of $1,776,144), $287,648 from the bookkeeping service (representing 16.2% of total revenue), $258,733 from the marketing service (representing 14.6% of total revenue), and $24,878 from fixture administrative fees (representing 1.4% of total revenue).

The $10,000 purchase price for the BaseCamp Software Suite represents approximately 2% to 3% of the costs associated with opening your Store, and the Computer Support Fee is expected to average less than 1% of annual operating costs.

Except for the BaseCamp Software Suite, software maintenance and upgrades, tech support, marketing services, and bookkeeping services offered by our affiliate BaseCamp, there are no approved suppliers in which any of our officers, directors, principal owners or key employees owns any interest. Except for marketing and bookkeeping support and administration, as well as the administration of fixtures and computer hardware purchases, we receive no income or material consideration as a result of required purchases or leases.

Cooperatives

Except for Local Advertising Cooperatives (see Item 6), we have no purchasing or distribution cooperatives, but may, from time to time, purchase products and services in bulk and offer them to franchisees at the bulk rate or a reduced price.

Negotiated Prices

We periodically negotiate the prices and evaluate the quality, delivery time, flexibility, and service provided by suppliers. Suppliers which perform well in these areas are added to the Recommended Supplier List in our web portal, in the Training and Operations Tools and Final Plans. Suppliers that fail to perform consistently in any of these areas are removed from the Recommended Supplier List. From time to time, Recommended and Approved Supplier Lists are updated in our web portal.

Material Benefits

You will receive assistance in market evaluation, site selection, store design, layout and fixture schemes, advertising, merchandising, purchasing and sales techniques, customer and community relations, policies and procedures, and training programs.

Except for receiving a franchise-tested quality and service assurance that the product or service meets our Standards, you will not receive any material benefit if you buy from sources we recommend or mandate. However, we reserve the right to obtain rebates or other types of commissions from your purchases from approved suppliers.

Insurance

You must maintain the types of insurance in amounts that we may require. This insurance is in addition to any other insurance that may be required by applicable law, your landlord, or otherwise. The insurance must meet the following requirements:

- The insurance policies must name us and our parent as additional insureds.
- The insurance must be placed with an approved vendor and a carrier with a Best's Rating of "A+" or better.
- The insurance may not be subject to cancellation or any material change except after 30 days' written notice to us.
- The insurance policies must provide that even if you do not comply with the contract, or engage in other conduct, the insurance coverage will not be voided or otherwise affect the coverage afforded to us and our affiliates.
- The insurance policies must contain a waiver of subrogation in favor of us or our insurer.
- Minimum coverage requirements include: general liability insurance for not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence with a $2,000,000 annual aggregate limit; products and completed operations insurance for not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence with a $2,000,000 annual aggregate limit; personal and advertising injury insurance for not less than $1,000,000; tenant fire legal liability insurance for not less than $100,000; medical payments insurance for not less than $5,000; hired and non-owned auto liability insurance for not less than $1,000,000. You shall also keep in force, as applicable, combined single limit bodily injury and property damage insurance for not less than $1,000,000 for autos owned by your company. In addition, you must carry workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance for not less than $100,000 for bodily injury by accident (for each accident), not less than $500,000 for bodily injury by disease (aggregate limit), and not less than $100,000 for bodily injury by disease (each employee).

Note: The above section is a summary. Please see Franchise Agreement Section 2.09 for details. If you do not obtain or maintain the requisite coverage, we will have the right (but not the obligation) to pay any premium or obtain the required coverage on your behalf and charge you back for those premiums.

Item 10: FINANCING

We do not offer direct financing . However, if our affiliate BaseCamp decides to loan you money, the term, annual percentage rate, and monthly payment will depend on a number of factors that include, but are not limited to, your financial strength, your credit history, and the current prime rate (see Exhibit J). We do not guarantee any of your notes, lease commitments, or other obligations.

BaseCamp requires no down payment but you must pay an up-front documentation fee of $500, plus an annual interest rate (compounded monthly) that we determine. Amortized principal and interest payments are drawn from your account on the 20th day of each month over a term of 12, 24 or 36 months.

For example, if you borrowed $25,000 at 18% interest over 24 months, you would pay a documentation fee of $500, and 24 monthly payments of $1,248.10.

BaseCamp requires a security interest in the assets plus a personal guarantee signed by the Franchisee (or its owners if the Franchisee is an entity).

If you do not pay on time, BaseCamp can demand immediate payment of the outstanding balance, repossess the assets, and obtain court costs and attorney's fees if a collection action is necessary. You waive your rights to notice of a collection action and to assert any defenses to collection against us or BaseCamp.

We work with Wells Fargo, Key Bank, Lendio, BaseCamp, and other lenders to assist our franchisees with financing, but receive no direct or indirect payments from them for placing financing.

BaseCamp does not plan to sell your note to a third party but reserves the right to do so.

Item 11: FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Assistance

Before you open your business, we will:

- A. Assist you in the selection, leasing or purchase of your Store location. We generally do not own the premises you will lease, nor do we select the site or approve the area in which you will operate. Instead, we may make recommendations regarding proposed sites to you, your licensed real estate agent, or attorney (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 1.01 and 3.02). The factors we typically consider in evaluating a proposed site include: nearby population, traffic flows, competition, specific location attributes, area reputation, proximity of the store to other Uptown Cheapskate stores (which must exceed 5 miles' driving distance as measured by Google Maps or another mapping service we may select), rental rates, and terms. It typically takes 3 to 6 months to select a site and negotiate a lease;
- B. Consult with your draftsman or architect, who will draft and file plans to obtain the required permits for the remodeling of your store in compliance with our requirements, as well as all local, state, and federal regulations. These may include, but are not limited to, health, sanitation, sign, utility, and building codes (see Franchise Agreement - Section 3.03);
- C. Provide suggestions and input to your general contractor, who will construct, remodel, and decorate the premises;
- D. Provide you and up to one other person with 6 days of training and a 5-day internship (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 3.04 and 4.08);
- E. Provide you with written specifications, prices and recommended or required vendors for fixtures, computers, equipment, and other supplies after you notify us that you have leased or purchased your Store location (see Franchise Agreement - Section 3.03);

F. Provide access to our online portal and/or loan you a copy of our Training and Operations Tools, which contain specifications, standards, policies, and procedures relating to the establishment and operation of your business (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 4.01, and 4.03). The Training and Operations Tools are confidential and remain the sole property of Uptown Cheapskate. We may modify them from time to time, but any modification will not alter your status and rights under the Franchise Agreement (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.03);

G. Provide you (through our affiliate BaseCamp) with advice and support during regular business hours for the installation and use of your computer system (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.01); and

H. Provide you with on-site assistance the day before, the day of, and the day after your grand opening (see Franchise Agreement - Section 3.06; applies to a Franchisee's first store only).

The length of time between (a) the earlier of the signing of the Franchise Agreement or the first payment of fees for the Franchise, and (b) the opening of the business is typically eight (8) to twelve (12) months. If you fail to open your store 18 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement, we can, in our sole discretion, either reduce or eliminate your Protected Area and/or terminate the Franchise Agreement. This time period could be affected by numerous factors, such as the ability to obtain a lease, financing, building permits, zoning and local ordinances, weather conditions, the economy, shortages, travel restrictions, delayed installation of equipment, fixtures and signs, and other factors. You cannot open the Store to sell products until you have at least 900 vendors in your database and have purchased the Minimum Inventory described in Item 7.

Post-Opening Assistance

During the operation of the franchised business, we will assist you with:

A. Becoming familiar with the characteristics and features of the products and services you will be offering (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 3.05 and 4.01);

B. Providing training materials and best practices to utilize with your managers and employees (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 3.04, 4.08, 4.09);

C. Implementing potential modifications and improvements to the Uptown Cheapskate System, which we may make from time to time at our sole discretion (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 4.01 and 4.03);

D. POS-related computer technical support, through our affiliate BaseCamp. So long as you pay the Computer Support Fee and meet the Computer System Standards, this service is provided at no additional cost during regular business hours (see Computer Requirements below, Item 6, and Franchise Agreement - Section 4.01);

E. Purchasing and pricing strategies of the products and services you will be offering in certain circumstances (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.01); and

F. Administrative, operational, bookkeeping, accounting, reporting and inventory control procedures (see Franchise Agreement - Article 3, Sections 4.01, 4.03, 4.08, 4.12, 4.14, and 4.15). During the term of the Agreement, you may contact us at any time during business hours to discuss problems and ways to improve your Store. We may hold Refresher Trainings (which may be required if your sales do not meet or exceed the System average) and may hold annual and regional conferences or performance groups to discuss operational issues that may include: purchasing, pricing, inventory control, sales techniques, personnel, bookkeeping, accounting, marketing, merchandising procedures, or other subjects (see Franchise Agreement, Section 2.12). You must pay for your own travel, lodging, meal and living expenses. We may charge a reasonable registration or attendance fee to offset conference facility costs and may charge a pro-rated share of the conference facility expenses. Once you have signed a lease, you are required to attend the annual meeting each year, if it is held. Our annual meeting is typically held at or near the corporate headquarters, or at a hotel or resort. It typically takes place over four (4) days each year. Regional meetings and performance groups are typically held at a hotel in a market with multiple stores.

Advertising

You may advertise and promote your store through the following media: digital marketing (such as Instagram[®], Google Ads[®], Twitter[®], Facebook[®], TikTok[®], Pinterest[®]), email, SMS text messaging, television, radio, newsprint, billboards, bench signs, direct mail, flyers, and other media you choose with our prior written approval. Specific considerations include:

A. We may provide you with designs for electronic media such as digital ads, web pages and emails, upon your request. You may also receive designs for non-digital ads, posters, in-store signs, window displays, banners, radio and television spots and miscellaneous point-of-sale items (see Franchise Agreement - Section 2.05). You may also receive designs for business cards, envelopes, letterhead, bags, and other items as needed. You will receive access to an electronic copy of these materials at no charge. You must meet our requirements with respect to the music and videos broadcast within your Store (see Franchise Agreement – Section 4.01);

B. We and our franchisees create and place advertising ourselves and with the services of outside local and national agencies;

C. You may develop advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost using our style guide, which lists the approved fonts and images. We must approve the advertising materials in advance and in writing. We will respond to your request to use such advertising materials within seven (7) days of receipt. (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.04);

D. Uptown Cheapskate franchise owners have an Advisory Association in which you must participate (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.10). It establishes its own organizational rules but must grant each franchise store and corporate store one vote. The Advisory Association's purpose is to enhance communication between us and Uptown Cheapskate franchisees and to advise us in the development and placement of advertising. It has the power to administer itself and report to its members in the manner they see fit, subject to our approval. The Advisory Association may not charge its members fees, and we may form, change, or dissolve the Association if we choose;

E. You will be required to participate in the National Marketing Program ("NMP") following your grand opening:

- 1) Services: The NMP is designed to provide a turnkey solution for the management of certain advertising content and spend across several digital channels on your behalf (the "Advertising Services"). To provide the Advertising Services, we currently partner with LaneTerralover, LLC ("LaneTerralover"), who oversees the design, implementation, tracking, and optimization of marketing campaigns tailored to the promotional calendars and needs of the Franchise. The Advertising Services cover marketing strategies and core brand messages deployed across several channels, including: (i) programmatic display; (ii) paid social media; and (iii) paid search. The Advertising Services are focused on driving customer traffic to your specific Store;
- 2) Required Expenditure: During the calendar year in which your Store opens, you must spend a minimum of $1,500 per month via the NMP (the "NMP Required Expenditure"). At the end of each calendar year, we will determine the NMP Required Expenditure that will apply for the subsequent calendar year, considering two alternatives: (i) if your Store has been open and generating sales for less than three full months, the NMP Required Expenditure will remain at $1,500 per month; or (ii) if your Store has been open and generating sales for more than three full months, the NMP Required Expenditure will be set at the lesser of (a) 2.5% of average monthly Gross Sales and (b) $2,500 per month. Within the second alternative, the calculation of average monthly Gross Sales (the "NMP Sales Benchmark") will consider average monthly Gross

Sales for your Store during the trailing twelve-month period, including only those months in which your Store was open and generating sales for the full month. Payment for all Advertising Services provided via the NMP must be made via automatic electronic transfer on the 20th of the month prior to the month that the Advertising Services are to be performed;

- 3) Minimum Advertising Expenditure: All expenditures made via the NMP will count towards the minimum Advertising Expenditure described below in Section K;

We reserve the right to work with agency partners of our choosing, including LaneTerralever and others, and generally to deliver the Advertising Services at our discretion.

F. You will be required to participate in the New Store Service (“NSS”) in advance of your grand opening or re-opening following the Transfer of a Store that had been temporarily closed:

- 1) Services: Similar to the NMP, the NSS is designed to provide a turnkey solution for the management of certain advertising strategies, particularly those in digital media, during the store opening process (the “Grand Opening Advertising Services”). Currently, LaneTerralever acts as our partner for the management of these Grand Opening Advertising Services, which are deployed across several channels, including: (i) paid social media; (ii) programmatic display; (iii) video pre-roll; and (iv) streaming audio. The Grand Opening Advertising Services are focused on driving awareness for and customer traffic to your specific Store;
- 2) Required Expenditure: You will be required to spend a minimum of $15,000 via the NSS, which will cover the three phases of the opening process: (i) Coming Soon, commencing soon after you sign your lease; (ii) Open to Buy, aligning with the period during which you are accumulating inventory in your store; and (iii) Grand Opening, the period leading up to your grand opening weekend. Payment for the Grand Opening Advertising Services will be due as a lump sum at least 2 weeks prior to the commencement of advertising during the Coming Soon phase and must be made by automatic electronic transfer;
- 3) Grand Opening Marketing Requirement: All expenditures made via the NSS will count towards the $20,000 Grand Opening Advertising requirement or $20,000 Transfer Store Marketing Requirement, as applicable;

We reserve the right to work with agency partners of our choosing, including LaneTerralEver and others, and generally to deliver the Grand Opening Advertising Services at our discretion.

G. At Uptown Cheapskate's discretion, you may be required to participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative in the Area of Dominant Influence ("ADI") if there are two or more stores in your market (see Franchise Agreement – Sections 2.06(e) and 4.11 and Appendix "G"). The ADI is determined by us with input from potential members of the cooperative. Currently, there is no requirement that any franchisee participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative, although franchisees may elect to form and participate in one at their discretion. We may change the requirements for a Local Advertising Cooperative at most once per year, including as it relates to the associated fees outlined below. If any changes are made, those changes will take effect during the next calendar year. Under such determination, Uptown Cheapskate may require Cooperative members to contribute to a trust account monthly "Cooperative Fees" equal to: (i) the greater of $2,000 or 4% of Gross Sales per month ("Minimum Monthly Base"), up to a maximum of $5,000 per month ("Maximum Monthly Ceiling"), less (ii) any NMP Required Expenditures. Please note that any such Cooperative Fees, if required, would count towards the minimum Advertising Expenditure requirement described below in Section K. If a requirement to participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative is instituted, the funds will be used to advertise the stores represented in the cooperative, build the Uptown Cheapskate brand, and perform all other organizational and administrative functions within the Cooperative;

H. Each store, whether owned by a franchisee or by Uptown Cheapskate, is required to contribute one-half of one percent (0.5%) of Gross Sales to the Marketing Fund in addition to the advertising requirement described below in Section K. The Marketing Fund is administered by our marketing and accounting personnel. Any remaining funds not spent in the fiscal year are carried over to the following fiscal year. We may make loans to the Marketing Fund bearing reasonable interest to cover any deficit of the Marketing Fund, and cause the Marketing Fund to invest in a surplus for future use by the Marketing Fund. Any separate account established for the Marketing Fund is not a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligations regarding any such account. An unaudited accounting of the receipts and disbursements of the Marketing Fund will be available upon written request to us 60 days after the end of each fiscal year;

From January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023, we made the following expenditures from the Marketing Fund:

Category:	Expenditure:
Production	83.8%
Media Placement	16.2%
Administrative Expenses	0.0%
TOTAL	100.0%

I. We may receive income from the Marketing Fund to offset our marketing-related administrative costs, in-house production, and marketing reimbursements. We use the Marketing Fund to create, test, and manage marketing materials and programs and to place advertising that primarily benefits the entire Uptown Cheapskate system. We are not required to spend any of these funds on advertising in the area in which your store is located (see Franchise Agreement - Section 2.05). Marketing materials created with Marketing Fund contributions may also be used in materials submitted to prospective franchisees as examples of our use of such funds to benefit franchisees (see Franchise Agreement - Section 2.05). None of these funds are used for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of a franchise;

J. In addition to the Marketing Fund Fee described above, you must invest at least Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) to advertise and promote the grand opening (or re-opening) of your store during the period commencing two (2) months prior to the store opening (or re-opening) and ending one (1) month after the store opens (or re-opens). In some markets, to successfully advertise your Coming Soon, Open to Buy, and Grand Opening periods may require a higher marketing budget. If you are purchasing a Store that is already operating that has not been temporarily closed (a "Transfer Store"), or relocating a Store, you must invest at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) in additional marketing over the first two (2) months from the date of ownership or relocation;

K. In addition to the Marketing Fund Fee and grand opening marketing requirement, you are required to spend the greater of $2,000 per month or 5.0% of Gross Sales ("Advertising Expenditure") to advertise and promote your Store. Note that any expenditures made via the NMP, as described in Section E above, will count towards this amount. Also, if you are required to participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative described in Section G above, those contributions will count toward your total advertising requirement, as well. You are required to report your Advertising Expenditures to us on the 15th day of the month following each calendar quarter. If during any reporting interval, you fail to report that you spent at least the required Advertising Expenditure during that prior six (6) month period, you shall make available for electronic withdrawal from your operating account into our account, for the next six (6) calendar months, a fee ("Advertising Penalty") equal to one percent (1%) of the Gross Sales for the prior calendar month. Funds disbursed to satisfy this Advertising Penalty do not count toward the Advertising Requirement for the contemporaneous periods. We may modify the Advertising Expenditures each year.

Franchise Assistance Awards

Our franchisees are generally helpful to franchise prospects that approach them with questions about purchasing an Uptown Cheapskate franchise. We appreciate that assistance and recognize that it can be a distraction to our franchisees. Under certain circumstances, we may provide our franchisees with a $50 gift card for responding to inquiries from prospective franchisees.

Computer Requirements

Uptown Cheapskate shall assist you with purchasing a computer system to manage your operations. As of April 2024, the computer system you are required to purchase is estimated to cost $15,334 and is described in Exhibit E of this Disclosure Document.

BaseCamp offers technical support during regular business hours for all BaseCamp software, which currently includes the Inventory Management Appraisal Program (IMAP™), the Baseline™ point-of-sale program, the Q™ program and QuickBooks®, for those franchisees that use the bookkeeping service, via telephone, internet chat, or other online communication provided that you meet the following Computer System Standards:

- A. Your computer system, including hardware and software components, back-up, networking, and anti-virus programs continue to meet our specifications;
- B. Your staff is reasonably trained in the operation of the computer system and is following standard procedures;
- C. You use any documented instructions that we have provided to self-resolve issues before calling or after receiving instruction;
- D. You participate in the support discussion(s) personally if requested by BaseCamp;
- E. Unattended access is set up and provides independent access to the Tech Team to log onto your computer at any time; and
- F. You leave your computers running 24 hours/day.

If you do not meet the Computer System Standards, you may purchase technical support from BaseCamp at its then-current rate, currently Fifty Dollars ($50) per hour, with a minimum Twenty-Five Dollar ($25) charge per session. Intuit®, (P.O. Box 1420, Downers Grove, Illinois, 60515), the provider of QuickBooks®, also provides free technical support via telephone.

You must upgrade and/or replace your computer software and the hardware necessary to run such software as we require (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 2.13 and 4.01), but the cost to maintain and upgrade the Baseline™, IMAP™, and Q™ is included in the Computer Support Fee you pay to BaseCamp.

The current components of the computer system are used as follows:

Software: We use six or more software programs, including Baseline™, IMAP™, Q™, Google Docs, Microsoft Office, and QuickBooks. Baseline™ is a custom program that generates invoices and tracks inventory, purchases, sales, customers, and Store performance. IMAP™ is a custom program that assists franchisees in the purchasing, management and pricing of inventory and reporting. Q™ is a custom program that facilitates the vendor check-in process for vendors who seek to sell merchandise to stores. Google Docs are used for collaborative operations management. Microsoft Office is used for correspondence, for reporting and analysis, and to summarize and report on management information. QuickBooks is a simplified yet powerful accounting program that works like a checkbook. We require independent access to the information generated and stored in the computer systems.

Hardware: The POS/Buying Stations are part of a system that assists you in pricing, purchasing, tagging, tracking, and selling inventory. You will be required to outfit your POS/Buying Stations with all requisite hardware needed to operate the system and software effectively. Credit Card Processing hardware enables you to conduct credit card transactions. An Office Computer provides us with direct access to your sales, inventory, and accounting data. We are not limited in the information we can extract from your computer via the internet or other computer-to-computer transmission.

Except for the BaseCamp Software Suite, which you must purchase from our affiliate BaseCamp, we do not provide you with any computer equipment or software but shall assist you in purchasing such equipment (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 2.13, 3.03, 3.06, 4.01), or leasing it through BaseCamp (see Item 10). Except for reasonable shipping and handling charges and a reasonable administration fee, where applicable, we receive no fee, special discount, or profit of any kind from your equipment. Our affiliate BaseCamp charges a $250 per month Computer Support Fee, and may charge an additional fee for any computer-related support you require if you fail to meet the Computer System Standards (see Franchise Agreement Section 2.13). BaseCamp is the sole vendor for the BaseCamp Software Suite that you must purchase.

Please see Item 6 for a disclosure of expenses and fees of a recurring nature.

The Training and Operations Tools are proprietary, confidential, and remain our property. We may modify or improve them from time to time, but the modifications will not alter your status and rights under the Franchise Agreement (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.03).

Currently, the Training and Operations Tools include:

For ease of use, the New Store Playbook links to a dedicated shared drive for each store, which contains a wide range of additional tools, templates, and resources.

The Annual Priorities book outlines key operational and marketing priorities for each month of the year. It is a valuable point of reference for owners, their managers, and their broader teams. You must pay for your travel, lodging, meals, employee compensation, and incidental expenses. We may charge a reasonable attendance fee to offset conference facility costs to attend such meetings and courses.

During any two successive years of operation, if you fail to exceed the average System sales, you are required to attend and complete a 6-Day Refresher Training, if offered. There is no cost for the training, but you are required to pay for the travel, lodging, meals, and incidental expenses related to the training (see Franchise Agreement – Section 3.04).

Store Internship

In addition to the 6-Day Training Program, you must complete an Internship to our satisfaction by working in a designated host Uptown Cheapskate store that we and you agree upon for at least forty (40) hours over five (5) consecutive business days. You may also choose to bring a Manager at no additional expense. There is no charge for the Internship itself, but you will be responsible for all transportation, meals, lodging, employee compensation and incidental expenses. To the extent you would like more than two of your team members to attend the Internship, the cost will be $1,000 per additional team member.

New Store Support

Our affiliate BaseCamp offers a variety of resources to assist you during the Store opening process. A considerable amount of that support is channeled through BaseCamp's six-person New Store team, whose primary point of focus is to help stores open according to their initial timeline and budget.

Once your Franchise Agreement is signed, you will be assigned a dedicated New Store Lead ("NSL"), who will help you navigate each phase of the opening process. The NSL will be available to answer questions and provide general assistance through your grand opening.

For first-time operators, the NSL will visit your Store around the time that you begin purchasing inventory (the "Open to Buy Visit"). The NSL will visit a second time around your grand opening, providing on-site assistance the day before, the day of, and the day following the grand opening.

For multi-unit operators and Transfer Stores, the NSL will provide dedicated support throughout the opening or transfer process, but in most cases, they will not provide on-site support. In those situations, you may purchase up to three (3) days of on-site support at our then-current rate (currently, $300/day) for the grand opening or grand reopening of the store. The supplemental on-site support rate is subject to change.

Item 12: TERRITORY

As an Uptown Cheapskate franchisee, you will receive an exclusive right to locate and operate a store in a specific location (the "Store Location"). Your right with respect to your Store Location includes a commitment by us not to permit the opening of another corporate or franchise Uptown Cheapskate store within five (5) miles' driving distance (as measured by Google Maps or another mapping service we select) of your Store Location (the "Protected Area"). Note that you may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control that are located outside of the Protected Area.

You may relocate your Store only with our prior written permission. If permission is granted, you must pay a Relocation Fee of $5,000 (see Franchise Agreement – Section 1.04) and bring the relocated Store up to our then-current system standards. Unless otherwise agreed to by addendum or amendment, you may not establish additional stores or franchises unless you purchase them from us (see Franchise Agreement – Section 1.01).

We and our affiliates retain all other rights, and may, among other things, on any terms and conditions we deem advisable, and without granting you any rights therein:

- (1) establish and license others to establish an Uptown Cheapskate store at any location outside the Protected Area, notwithstanding their proximity to your Store Location or their actual or potential impact on sales at your Store Location;
- (2) establish, acquire or operate, or license others to establish and operate, stores under other systems or other proprietary marks, which stores may offer or sell products or services that are different from the products and services offered by your Store, including stores associated with our affiliate K2K. Such stores may be located within or outside the Protected Area, notwithstanding such stores' proximity to your Store Location or their actual or potential impact on sales at your Store Location; and
- (3) sell and distribute, directly or indirectly, or license others to sell and distribute, directly or indirectly, any products, services or merchandise, from any location or to any purchaser (including, but not limited to, sales made at retail locations, via catalogue, mail order, and on the Internet), so long as such sales are not conducted from an Uptown Cheapskate located inside the Protected Area.

If you have not opened your store in 18 months, we have the right, in our sole discretion either reduce or eliminate your Protected Area and/or terminate the Franchise Agreement.

No minimum sales quota is needed to keep your territory, but you may be required to attend a 6-Day Refresher Training if your sales fail to meet the System average for two consecutive years. You maintain the rights to your franchise within the Term of this Agreement even if the population increases within the Protected Area.

After eighteen (18) months of operation, you must have acquired, and for the remainder of the Term you must maintain, at least six (6) items per square foot of sales area of gently used inventory and the greater of Four Dollars ($4) per square foot of sales area or Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) in new product inventory ("Minimum Inventory Levels"). For example, if you have leased a store with 4,000 sales area square feet, you must acquire and maintain at least 24,000 used product items and $16,000 of new product. Failure to meet these standards constitutes a default under the Franchise Agreement. We may modify the Minimum Inventory Levels from time to time.

Except for restrictions relating to the content of advertising (described in Section 4.04 of the Franchise Agreement), there are no restrictions placed on you, us, or our affiliates or other franchisees from using traditional or modern channels of distribution, including but not limited to the internet, social networks such as Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, and Twitter, catalog sales, print, radio, television, telemarketing, or other direct marketing to promote, advertise, solicit, establish, service, and maintain customers and potential customers in the communities surrounding the stores of you, us, or affiliates, or other franchisees. You may not seek compensation if a corporate store, affiliate or other franchisee solicits customers within your market (see Franchise Agreement Section 1.01).

We have not established company-owned or other similar franchise outlets (except Kid to Kid stores or other resale or retail-related affiliates) under a different trademark in or near markets where Uptown Cheapskate stores are currently operating.

Item 13: TRADEMARKS

We grant you the right to operate an Uptown Cheapskate store under the name Uptown Cheapskate. You may use our other current or future trademarks (the "Marks") to operate your store as we may designate. You must follow our rules when using these Marks. The Marks include trade names, trademarks, service marks and logos used to identify your Store, product, and services.

Our affiliate, BaseCamp Franchising, LLC, owns the following Marks registered on the Principal Register with the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") and it intends to file all required affidavits and renewals:

TRADEMARK	TYPE	REGISTRATION NUMBER (Serial Number)	REGISTRATION DATE (Application Date)
Uptown Cheapskate	Service Mark UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE (4) STANDARD CHARACTER MARK	3,636,254	June 9, 2009
Uptown Cheapskate in color	Service Mark  (4) STANDARD CHARACTER MARK	97-134,690	November 19, 2021

BaseCamp has granted us the perpetual right to use and sublicense others to use the principal Marks, as well as other Marks under a trademark license agreement with an effective date of September 30, 2022. BaseCamp may terminate the trademark agreement if any misuse of these Marks materially impairs the goodwill associated with these Marks, if we violate any provision of the license agreement or we do not comply with BaseCamp’s instruction concerning the quality of these Marks. If the trademark agreement is terminated, any then-existing sublicenses (franchises) will continue for the term of the sublicenses, provided that the sublicensees (franchisees) comply with all other terms of their franchise agreements. The trademark license agreement contains no other limitations.

With respect to our trademarks, there are no currently effective material determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or court; or any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings.

There is no pending material litigation regarding our use or ownership rights in any of our Marks. We have not received notice of any infringement, cancellation or opposition of or to our Marks. We know of no prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks in the state.

No agreements limit our right to use or license the use of our Marks.

You must notify us if anyone uses or challenges your or our use of any of the Marks. When we receive such notice, we may take any action we deem appropriate. We have the right to control any litigation or administrative proceeding relating to the Marks. We will indemnify and reimburse you for all damages for which you are held liable for your use of the Marks in accordance with the Franchise Agreement. While we are not required to defend you against a claim relating to using our Marks, we will pay all reasonable costs you incur in defense of such a claim, provided you used the Marks in accordance with the Franchise Agreement.

You agree that should we decide, as a result of a proceeding or settlement, or in our discretion, that it is advisable or necessary to modify or discontinue the use of any or all of the Marks, that you will modify or stop using the Marks without any obligation on our part at your sole expense.

You must not contest our right to our Marks.

We are not aware of superior or prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks in the state in which your store is to be located.

Item 14: PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

We do not own rights in, or licenses to, any patents, and do not have any pending patent applications, which have material to the franchise. You do not receive the right to use an item covered by a patent or copyright, but you may use the proprietary information in our Training and Operations Tools (see Item 11). Although neither we nor our affiliate BaseCamp has filed applications for copyright registrations for the Training and Operations Tools, Baseline™, IMAP™, or Q™, we claim copyrights and consider the information proprietary. We and BaseCamp may decide to file for copyright registrations in the future. Section 5.05 of the Franchise Agreement describes limitations on the use of these materials by you and your employees.

You acknowledge that we possess and shall possess in the future certain proprietary information, consisting of the Training and Operations Tools, as well as all concepts, methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, marketing approaches, ideas, research, improvements and materials, owned or developed by us and not otherwise publicly available, whether or not published or suitable for registration or copyright, and the goodwill associated with them, which is used in the operation of Uptown Cheapskate franchises (hereinafter "Proprietary Information"). We may, in our discretion, disclose the Proprietary Information to you in the Training and Operations Tools, in training, and in providing guidance and assistance to you in the operation of your Franchise.

You acknowledge that we possess and that we and you shall possess in the future, certain marketing information, consisting of names, addresses, telephone numbers, contact persons, purchase orders and other identifying information relating to customers, and vendors, information with respect to needs and requirements of customers and vendors, rate, cost, and price information, financial information with respect to our other stores and your business, personnel data relating to your and our Agents, confidential information contained in verbal or audio communication, files, interoffice documents, and other internal and external documents and correspondence prepared by or for you and us, which marketing information is not otherwise publicly available (hereafter the "Marketing Information"). We may, in our discretion, disclose the Marketing Information to you and other Franchisees in the Training and Operations Tools, in training, and in providing guidance, assistance, and support to you and other franchisees, but in no event shall we divulge any specific financial information or Marketing Information pertaining exclusively to a specific Uptown Cheapskate store to other parties or prospective franchisees without first obtaining the permission of the owner of that store.

You acknowledge and agree that you will not acquire any interest in the Proprietary Information or Marketing Information during or after the Term of this Agreement, other than the right to utilize it in the development and operation of the Franchise during the Term thereof, and that the use or duplication of the Proprietary Information and/or Marketing Information in any other business would constitute an unfair method of competition, that such information could be used to compete with and significantly injure us, BaseCamp, Kid to Kid, and/or other resale-related affiliates, and that such information has significant value to competitors of us, Kid to Kid, and/or other resale-related affiliates and that the relationship between such information, you, and us involves elements of personal service and trust.

You must promptly tell us when you learn about unauthorized use of this proprietary information. We are not obligated to defend you or take any action but may choose to do so. If we do become involved, we shall have the right to control the proceeding or litigation. We will indemnify you for losses brought by a third party concerning your use of this information. You must also agree not to contest our interest in these or our other trade secrets. If we decide to add, modify, or discontinue the use of an item, or process covered by a patent or copyright, you must also do so. Our sole obligation is to reimburse you for the tangible cost of complying with this obligation (see Franchise Agreement - Article 5).

We have no knowledge of any infringement of our proprietary information as of the effective date of this Uptown Cheapskate Franchise Disclosure Document.

Item 15: OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

If you are an individual, you must directly supervise your Uptown Cheapskate business while working in the Store full-time over a period of at least six (6) months after the Store opens or you take ownership following a transfer. If you are a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, the direct, on-site supervision for the first six (6) months of operations must be fulfilled by a person who owns at least 10% of the partnership, membership, or corporate equity. After the first six (6) months, or when you open an additional store, you or a manager who has successfully completed our training program must directly manage the business on-site (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.08). We recommend that your Store always be managed by a franchise owner on-site.

Each franchisee, manager, and associate must sign a written agreement to maintain confidentiality of the proprietary information and trade secrets described in Item 14 and to conform to the covenants not to compete described in Item 17 (see Franchise Agreement - Sections 5.05, 5.06). We require that both you and your spouse and/or domestic partner guarantee the Franchise Agreement.

If you are a limited liability company, limited partnership, or corporation, we require that at least one owner (the "Designated Representative") guarantee the performance of the entity by signing the guarantee contained at the end of the Franchise Agreement (see Exhibit A and Franchise Agreement - Section 9.02).

Item 16: RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must purchase and sell the following: used and new apparel items for teens and young adults, as well as footwear, accessories, and miscellaneous related items that we have approved for sale. If notified by us in writing, you may be required to sell additional products which we, in our sole discretion, determine that stores in our System shall sell. We also retain the right to limit or discontinue your sale of certain products and services. You cannot sell any other products or provide any other services other than those that we permit (see Franchise Agreement - Section 4.01)

As long as you comply with the marketing and promotion requirements outlined in Sections 4.01 and 4.03 of the Franchise Agreement, you are not restricted from soliciting any customers, no matter where they are located.

Item 19: FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATION

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Basis

The following charts were compiled from unaudited financial reports (using the accrual basis) submitted to us from 101 Uptown Cheapskate stores that operated in the United States during the period of November 1, 2022 through October 31, 2023. This reporting period varies from our fiscal year end of December 31, 2023. 127 stores were in operation during that period, and we received adequate reports from 101 that were in operation for the entire period. Stores that were open for less than 12 months were excluded from this report.

The first chart reflects performance across all 101 stores in the consideration set, while the subsequent four charts reflect average performance across quartiles, as determined by Gross Sales.

Assumptions

Our study of financial data provided by franchisees measured our franchisees' performance in a variety of different markets.

Written substantiation for the financial performance data will be made available to you upon reasonable request.

These financial statements have been prepared without an audit.

Notes (which apply to the above table and following four tables):

- (1) These numbers illustrate the range for individual stores for each line item. Since line items show different stores, the numbers do not total.
- (2) Gross Sales means all revenue from the franchise location and online sales, excluding sales or use tax. This term is defined in Item 6.
- (3) Cost of Goods Sold includes the costs and expenses related to retail items. This includes shrinkage (loss of product due to theft, donations, etc.) and markdowns.
- (4) Gross Profit means Gross Sales minus Cost of Goods Sold.
- (5) Franchise Royalty numbers do not equal 5.0% of gross sales due to certain incentives in place for multi-unit franchisees and the fact that charges for any given month are paid in the following month.
- (6) Administration includes insurance, credit card processing fees, bad debt, bank charges, checking account fees, equipment leasing, equipment repairs, licenses, dues, office supplies, payroll processing fees, property tax, security, training expense and travel expense.
- (7) Facility includes rent, CAM, repairs, ancillary charges, and utilities.
- (8) Sales Expense includes bags, tags, and related supplies.
- (9) Labor includes wages, taxes, and benefits, but does not include compensation received by owner.
- (10) Income before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and owner's compensation.

RECITALS

A. Uptown Cheapskate[®] has developed a business system, concept, methodology and format (the "System") to purchase, market and sell used and new teen and young adult products. The System includes, but is not limited to: market evaluation, site selection, store design, layout and fixturing schemes, advertising, product procurement, inventory management, merchandising, purchasing and sales techniques, customer and community relations, financing and accounting strategies, management policies and procedures, and training programs. The System may be updated from time to time.

B. As an Uptown Cheapskate franchisee, you are entitled to receive assistance (pursuant to Article 3) with the financing, business organization, management, marketing, site selection, construction, and fixturing of your Uptown Cheapskate business. This assistance ("Assistance") means providing you with suggestions, recommendations, and advice based on the experience of Uptown Cheapskate's associates who are familiar with the System. Our Assistance will help you establish and operate your business in conformity with the System standards. We make no guarantee that the information it provides is accurate or that it will result in your success. Review our suggestions, recommendations, and advice with your financial consultant, licensed real estate agent, architect, contractor, Certified Public Accountant, and attorney, as well as any other experts of your choosing, prior to making critical business decisions.

C. We have the right to license such service marks, trademarks, trade dress, trade names, logos and commercial symbols, and all configurations and derivations, as may presently exist, or which may be modified, changed, or acquired by us or our affiliates, in connection with the operation of an Uptown Cheapskate store (which marks and names are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Marks").

D. We have the right to promote and use the System and Marks and the right to authorize others, including franchisees, to promote and use the System and Marks.

E. You have applied to Uptown Cheapskate for one Uptown Cheapskate Franchise (the "Franchise"), as described in this Agreement. We have approved your application in reliance on your representations that you have the financial capacity, organizational ability, marketing experience, health, facilities, and interest to promote our image, goodwill and Marks, and the desire and commitment to meet the standards of performance in areas such as sales, promotion, personnel, training, financing, payment of obligations, and other areas set forth in this Agreement.

F. You acknowledge that you have carefully read this Agreement, as well as the attached Franchise Disclosure Document and attached exhibits, and that you have been given an opportunity to clarify any provision that you did not understand. You acknowledge that you understand and accept the terms, conditions, and promises contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain our high standards of quality and service and to protect our goodwill and the goodwill of our Marks.

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, and for other good and valuable consideration, the delivery, receipt, and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged; and according to the terms, conditions, promises, warranties, and representations found in this Agreement, you and Uptown Cheapskate mutually agree as follows:

1. GRANT, TERM, AND RENEWAL OF FRANCHISE

1.01 Grant and Acceptance.

Uptown Cheapskate grants to you, and you agree to open and operate, a Franchise for a store which shall be located at the following location ("Store Location"):

City of _____

County of _____, State of _____.

In the event you are unable to lease or purchase the Store Location described above (or subsequent locations you select), you shall, pursuant to Section 3.02, promptly lease or purchase another site which is located within ten (10) miles of the Store Location (as measured by Google Maps® or another mapping service we select) identified in Section 1.01 and at least five (5) miles (as measured by Google Maps® or another mapping service we select) from any other Uptown Cheapskate store, or a greater distance if the franchise agreement with an adjacent Uptown Cheapskate franchisee so provides. Note that we reserve the right to approve or disapprove the new location in our sole discretion. Once that site is leased or purchased, it shall become the Store Location for the purposes of this Agreement.

The Franchise includes: (a) the exclusive right to carry on business as an Uptown Cheapskate store at the Store Location; (b) the right to promote, advertise, solicit, establish, service, and maintain customers and potential customers (hereinafter "Customers") in the communities surrounding the Store Location; and (c) a license to operate the business, utilize the Marks, and promote and use the System in conjunction with the operation of the Franchise at the Store Location (the "Store"). By granting you a Franchise, we are not promising that other Uptown Cheapskate stores will not advertise to Customers nor draw Customers from your Store. Rather, we promise not to permit the opening of another corporate or franchise Uptown Cheapskate store within five (5) miles (as measured by Google Maps® or another mapping service we select) of your Store Location (the "Protected Area").

We and our affiliates retain all other rights, and may, among other things, on any terms and conditions we deem advisable, and without granting you any rights therein: (1) establish, and license others to establish, Uptown Cheapskate stores at any location outside the Protected Area, notwithstanding their proximity to your Store Location or their actual or potential impact on sales at your Store; (2) establish, acquire or operate, or license others to establish and operate, stores under other systems or other proprietary marks, including Kid to Kid (as defined below), which stores may offer or sell products or services that are different from the products and services offered by your Store, and which stores may be located within or outside the Protected Area, notwithstanding such stores' proximity to your Store Location or their actual or potential impact on sales at your Store; and (3) sell and distribute, directly or indirectly, or license others to sell and distribute, directly or indirectly, any products, services or merchandise, from any location or to any purchaser (including, but not limited to, sales made at retail locations, via catalogue, mail order, and on the Internet), so long as such sales are not conducted from an Uptown Cheapskate store located inside the Protected Area.

If you own another Uptown Cheapskate, Kid to Kid (as defined below), and/or another resale-related affiliate store, you agree to update all other franchise agreements to the current terms, conditions, promises, warranties, and representations found in this Agreement by signing the then-current form of the Franchise Agreement for all other stores you own. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirements of this subsection, your royalty rate may not increase, the expiration date of the initial agreement will not change, and you will not be required to meet the remodeling requirements until the expiration of each agreement.

"Kid to Kid" means our affiliate, Kid to Kid Franchise System, LLC, and the franchise it offers. This franchise system sells used and new items for children and expecting mothers.

1.02 Term.

This Agreement shall become effective once you and we have each signed it (the "Effective Date"), and this Agreement shall continue for a term of ten (10) years from the commencement date of the Lease you sign, or the possession date of the building you currently own or purchase for use as the Store Location (the "Term"). This Agreement may also be terminated pursuant to Article 7 or Section 11.03.

1.03 Renewal.

At the end of the Term, you may request that we renew this Agreement for an additional period of five (5) years. Such request must be made to us in writing at least six (6) months prior to the end of the Term of this Agreement. If we agree to renew, in the reasonable exercise of our discretion, you must:

(a) demonstrate that you have not been repeatedly in default, (as defined in Section 7.05(a)(8) below) and are not currently in default of any provision of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and Uptown Cheapskate, our subsidiaries or affiliates or other Uptown Cheapskate franchisees, and that you have substantially complied with all the terms and conditions of such agreements;

(b) demonstrate that all accounts with Uptown Cheapskate, vendors and other contractors are current;

(c) sign the then-current form of the Franchise Agreement. With the exception of the renewal fee described in item (d) below, this will require that you pay royalty, marketing fund, technical support, and other fees then currently charged to franchisees, immediately modify your operating processes to strictly align to the then-current System Standards, and within two months of the renewal, renovate, paint, and redecorate your Store, and modernize your fixtures and equipment to meet our then current Standards;

(d) pay a renewal fee equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the then-current initial Franchise Fee;

(e) sign a general release of claims and/or mutual termination and release any other document we reasonably require to terminate this Agreement—if such releases are permitted by the laws of your state;

(f) attend and complete to our satisfaction a Franchisee Training program for up to six (6) days within two (2) months of renewing—should we determine to hold one. There is no charge for you to attend this training, however, you are responsible for transportation, meals, lodging, compensation and incidental costs you and your employees incur. Training is conducted at our corporate office or at another location or locations we shall designate and at such times as we designate; and

(g) update the franchise agreements for all Uptown Cheapskate, Kid to Kid, and/or other resale-related affiliate stores that you own to the most up-to-date terms, conditions, promises, warranties, and representations by signing the then-current form of the Franchise Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for each of your other current franchise agreements, the royalty rate and expiration date will not change, and you will not be required to meet the remodeling requirements until the original expiration of each agreement or a transfer under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if you continue to operate your Store with our express or implied consent following the expiration of the Term of this Agreement, the continuation (“Continuation Term”) will be considered a month-to-month extension of this Agreement, unless otherwise set forth in writing. All provisions of this Agreement will apply while you continue to operate your Store during the Continuation Term, except that you shall pay a Royalty Fee equal to one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of the Royalty Fee required by Section 2.04 below. Under these circumstances only, this Agreement will then be terminable by either party on 30 days written notice to the other party.

1.04 Relocation and Expansion.

You agree that you will not use the Marks, directly or indirectly, relocate your Store, or operate or otherwise expand your Franchise beyond your Store Location, without our prior written consent.

If we consent to a relocation, (which may or may not result in an expansion) you agree to:

(a) pay us a relocation fee ("Relocation Fee") of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) and incur all costs of relocating;

(b) attend and complete to our satisfaction a Franchisee Training program for up to six (6) days—should we determine to hold one. There is no charge for you to attend this training, but you are responsible for transportation, meals, lodging, compensation and incidental costs you and your employees incur. Training is conducted at our corporate office or at another location or locations we shall designate and at such times as we designate;

(c) meet the minimum inventory level requirements outlined in Sections 3.05 and 4.01(m) below;

(d) meet all then-current franchise Standards outlined in Section 4.01 below;

(e) update the franchise agreements for all Uptown Cheapskate, Kid to Kid and/or other resale-related affiliate stores that you own to the most up-to-date terms, conditions, promises, warranties, and representations by signing the then-current form of the Franchise Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for each of your other current franchise agreements, the royalty rate and expiration date will not change, and you will not be required to meet the remodeling requirements until the expiration of each agreement; and

(f) spend at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) to advertise your Store in the new location during the first two (2) months after the relocation, as described in Section 2.06(a).

If we consent to an expansion at your existing location, you agree to:

(a) pay an expansion fee ("Expansion Fee") of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) and all other costs related to the expansion;

(b) meet the minimum inventory level requirements outlined in Sections 3.05 and 4.01(m) below; and

(c) meet all then-current franchise Standards outlined in Section 4.01 below.

2. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Franchise Fee.

You agree to pay Uptown Cheapskate a franchise fee ("Franchise Fee") of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) for the first Franchise and each subsequent franchise. The Franchise Fee shall be paid to us by check or by electronic transfer when you sign this Agreement and submit it for approval. When we receive the signed Agreement and Franchise Fee, and we accept and sign it, we shall provide you with the "Receipt for Franchise Fee" identical or similar to that shown in Appendix "B" which is attached to and made a part of this document. Note that if we have not received payment for the Franchise Fee within thirty (30) days of its execution, then this Agreement will automatically terminate; however, your obligations under the Agreement, including with regards to maintaining confidentiality of any proprietary information and trade secrets we have shared and with regards to the covenants not to compete, will remain in force as enumerated in this Agreement.

2.02 Advisory Association Fees.

The Advisory Association of franchisees does not charge its members fees.

2.03 Refund of Franchise Fee.

If we do not sign this Agreement and grant you a Franchise within ten (10) days after you submit it to us for approval, the entire Franchise Fee shall be immediately refunded.

2.04 Royalty Payments.

In consideration of the rights granted to you under this Agreement, you agree to report to us by the fifth (5th) day of each calendar month, and make available for withdrawal into our account by the tenth (10th) day of each calendar month, by ACH or other electronic method of our choosing, a royalty fee ("Royalty Fee") equal to 5.0% of Gross Sales for the prior calendar month.

We may, in our sole discretion, change the date that your Gross Sales report is due to us and the date that you must make the Royalty Fee available for electronic transfer. We may, upon notice to you, change the method of payment we require for any and all fees. If you fail to report your Gross Sales, we shall be entitled to withdraw Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) from your account as an "Estimated Royalty Fee". An adjustment between the Estimated Royalty Fee and the actual Royalty Fee owed shall be made during the following month's reporting and payment cycle.

Gross Sales ("Gross Sales") means the receipts from all sales conducted within, from or through your Store or sales of product procured in your Store, from vendors or suppliers who sell to your Store, or using our brands and Marks, together with the amount of all orders taken or received at the premises, whether such orders are filled at the premises or elsewhere. Gross Sales includes such sales as described above completed via the internet, phone or any other channel. Gross Sales shall not include the amount of any sales, use, or gross receipts tax imposed by any federal, state, municipal or governmental authority directly on sales and collected from Customers, provided that the amount thereof is added to the selling price or absorbed therein, and paid by you to such governmental authority. Gross Sales shall not include sales of merchandise for which cash has been refunded. The price of merchandise returned by Customers for exchange shall be deducted from Gross Sales provided that the price of the merchandise returned was originally included in Gross Sales and further provided that the sales price of merchandise delivered to the Customer in exchange shall be included in Gross Sales.

2.05 Marketing Fund.

(a) You agree to report to us by the fifth (5th) day of each calendar month and make available for electronic transfer into our account by the tenth (10th) day of each calendar month, a marketing fee ("Marketing Fund Fee") equal to one-half of one percent (0.5%) of the Gross Sales for the prior calendar month. We may, in our sole discretion, change the date upon which you must report and pay the Marketing Fund Fee.

(b) We shall hold the Marketing Fund Fee received from you together with amounts received from other franchisees and corporately owned stores in an account ("Marketing Fund") for the payment of costs associated with the creation, production, distribution, media placement, and administration of local, state and/or national advertising programs, market research, and public relations programs designed to promote and enhance the franchise System and the Marks, for reasonable accounting, bookkeeping, reporting, legal and other expenses incurred in administering the Marketing Fund and for any taxes levied on the Marketing Fund. We may receive income from the Marketing Fund to offset our marketing-related administrative costs, in-house production, and marketing reimbursements. The Marketing Fund shall be used in a manner that primarily benefits the entire Uptown Cheapskate system, although Marketing Funds may reasonably be spent to provide store or market-specific solutions. We are not required to spend any money on advertising in the area in which your Store is located. We shall determine the programs and media used in connection with the Marketing Fund in our sole discretion. Advertising programs, market research, and public relations programs which are created, conducted, and produced with the Marketing Fund may be used by us as examples of the use of such funds for the benefit of franchisees in materials submitted to prospective franchisees. All funds not expended during any fiscal year shall be carried over and may be used during the next fiscal year. We may make loans to the Marketing Fund bearing reasonable interest to cover any deficit of the Marketing Fund and cause the Marketing Fund to invest in a surplus for future use by the Marketing Fund. Any separate account established for the Marketing Fund is not a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligations regarding any such account.

(c) We will make available to you an unaudited accounting of the receipts and disbursements of the Marketing Fund upon written request by you 60 days after the end of each fiscal year.

2.06 Advertising Requirement, Advertising Penalty and Cooperative Fees.

(a) Grand Opening, Transferring Ownership, and Relocation. You agree to spend at least Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) to advertise and promote the grand opening (or re-opening) of your Store during the period commencing on the date you sign your lease (for new Stores) or Transfer agreement (for Stores that had been closed for a period and are therefore holding a grand reopening) and ending one (1) month after the Store opens (or re-opens). In some markets, successfully advertising your open-to-buy period and grand opening may require a higher marketing budget. If you are purchasing a store that is already operating and that has not been closed ("Transfer Store"), or a store that has been relocated, you must spend at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) within the first two (2) months following the Transfer date.

The expenditures described in this Subsection 2.06(a) are in addition to the requirements of the following Subsection 2.06(b).

(b) Advertising Expenditure and Penalty. You acknowledge that the regular, consistent advertising and promotion of your Franchise is essential to your success and the growth of the Uptown Cheapskate system. Accordingly, you agree to spend the greater of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) per month or five percent (5.0%) of Gross Sales for advertising and promotions ("Advertising Expenditure") during each calendar quarter. The Marketing Fund Fee described in Section 2.05, and the grand opening, re-opening, or Transfer Store marketing expenditures described in Subsection 2.06(a) are required in addition to the Advertising Expenditure.

We may modify the Advertising Expenditure and Penalty at the beginning of each calendar year.

You are required to report your Advertising Expenditures to us on the 15th day of the month following each calendar quarter. If during any reporting interval, you fail to report that you spent at least the required Advertising Expenditure during that prior calendar quarter, you shall make available for electronic withdrawal from your operating account, by the tenth (10th) day of each of the next six (6) calendar months, a fee ("Advertising Penalty") equal to one percent (1%) of the Gross Sales for the prior calendar month. Funds disbursed to satisfy this Advertising Penalty do not count toward the Advertising Requirement for the contemporaneous periods.

(c) National Marketing Program ("NMP"). Following your grand opening, you will be required to participate in the NMP, which is administered by our affiliate BaseCamp Franchising, LLC ("BaseCamp"):

(1) Services. The NMP is designed to provide a turnkey solution for the management of certain advertising content and spend across several digital channels on your behalf (the "Advertising Services"). To provide the Advertising Services, we have partnered with LaneTerralever, LLC ("LaneTerralever"), who oversees the design, implementation, tracking, and optimization of marketing campaigns tailored to the promotional calendars and needs of the Franchise. The Advertising Services cover marketing strategies and core brand messages deployed across several channels, including: (i) programmatic display; (ii) paid social media; and (iii) paid search. The Advertising Services are focused on driving customer traffic to your specific Store.

(2) Required Expenditure. During the calendar year in which your Store opens, you must spend a minimum of $1,500 per month via the NMP (the "NMP Required Expenditure"). At the end of each calendar year, we will determine the NMP Required Expenditure that will apply for the subsequent calendar year, considering two alternatives: (i) if your Store has been open and generating sales for less than three full months, the NMP Required Expenditure will remain at $1,500 per month; or (ii) if your Store has been open and generating sales for more than three full months, the NMP Required Expenditure will be set at the lesser of (a) 2.5% of average monthly Gross Sales and (b) $2,500 per month. Within the second alternative, the calculation of average monthly Gross Sales (the "NMP Sales Benchmark") will consider average monthly Gross Sales for your Store during the trailing twelve-month period, including only those months in which your Store was open and generating sales for the full month. Payment for all Advertising Services provided via the NMP must be made via automatic electronic transfer on the 20th of the month prior to the month that the Advertising Services are to be performed.

(3) Minimum Advertising Expenditure. All expenditures made via the NMP will count towards the minimum Advertising Expenditure described in Section 2.06(b).

We reserve the right to work with agency partners of our choosing, including LaneTerralover and others, and generally to deliver the Advertising Services at our discretion.

(d) New Store Service (“NSS”). Prior to your grand opening or re-opening following the Transfer of a Store that had been temporarily closed, you will be required to participate in the NSS, which is administered by our affiliate BaseCamp:

(1) Services. Similar to the NMP, the NSS is designed to provide a turnkey solution for the management of certain advertising strategies, particularly those in digital media, during the store opening process (the “Grand Opening Advertising Services”). LaneTerralover acts as our partner for the management of these Grand Opening Advertising Services, which are deployed across several channels, including: (i) paid social media; (ii) programmatic display; (iii) video pre-roll; and (iv) streaming audio. The Grand Opening Advertising Services are focused on driving awareness for and customer traffic to your specific Store;

(2) Required Expenditure. You will be required to spend $15,000 via the NSS, which will cover the three phases of the opening process: (i) Coming Soon, commencing soon after you sign your lease; (ii) Open to Buy, aligning with the period during which you are accumulating inventory in your store; and (iii) Grand Opening, the period leading up to your grand opening weekend. Payment for the Grand Opening Advertising Services will be due as a lump sum at least two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of advertising during the Coming Soon phase and must be made by automatic electronic transfer;

(3) Grand Opening Marketing Requirement: All expenditures made via the NSS will count towards the $20,000 Grand Opening Advertising requirement or $20,000 Transfer Store Marketing Requirement, as applicable;

We reserve the right to work with agency partners of our choosing, including LaneTerralover and others, and generally to deliver the Grand Opening Advertising Services at our discretion.

(e) At our discretion, you may be required to participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative in the Area of Dominant Influence (“ADI”) if there are two or more stores in your market. The ADI is determined by us with input from potential members of the cooperative. Currently, there is no requirement that any franchisee participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative, although franchisees may elect to form and participate in one at their discretion. We may change the requirements for a Local Advertising Cooperative at most once per year, including as it relates to the associated fees outlined below. If any changes are made, those changes will take effect during the next calendar year. Under such determination, we may require Cooperative members to contribute to a trust account monthly "Cooperative Fees" equal to: (i) the greater of $2,000 or 4% of Gross Sales per month ("Minimum Monthly Base"), up to a maximum of $5,000 per month ("Maximum Monthly Ceiling"), less (ii) any NMP Required Expenditures. Please note that any such Cooperative Fees, if required, would count towards the minimum Advertising Expenditure requirement described in Section 2.06(b). If a requirement to participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative is instituted, the funds will be used to advertise the stores represented in the cooperative, build the Uptown Cheapskate brand, and perform all other organizational and administrative functions within the Cooperative. For additional detail on Local Advertising Cooperatives, please see Section 4.11 and Appendix G of this Agreement;

If participation in a Local Advertising Cooperative is required, you shall make Cooperative Fees available to us for electronic withdrawal and deposit into an account under the control of the officers of your Cooperative or another party that they may designate.

2.07 Late Fees and Interest.

(a) Late Fees:

(1) Late Fee Amounts. For each failure to respond, communicate, or submit documents, including but not limited to executed lease agreements, legal documents, reports, QuickBooks® files, other files, backups, surveys, meeting registrations, questionnaires, insurance information, annual meeting registrations, and other relevant documents, whether in verbal, written, printed, electronic, or other form, at the time and in the manner we reasonably request, you shall pay a base late fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) each month (a "Base Late Fee"). This Base Late Fee shall increase by Fifty Dollars ($50) each month, until proof is given that such documents or reports have been provided. Late fees shall be paid by electronic withdrawal from your operating account on the day after such item is due.

(2) For Failure to Pay on Time. In the event that you fail to make the proper funds available for electronic withdrawal from your operating account by the tenth (10th) day of each calendar month, you agree to pay an additional fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) (a "Delayed Payment Fee") for each late payment. This Delayed Payment Fee shall increase by Fifty Dollars ($50) each month, until the associated payments have been made. These fees apply to all financial obligations: Royalty, Marketing Fund, NMP, Local Advertising Cooperative, NSS

Computer Support Fees, and any other invoices. Late fees shall be paid by electronic withdrawal from your operating account on the day after such item is due.

(b) Interest. Unpaid Royalty Fees, Marketing Fund Fees, Late Fees, and Delayed Payment Fees incurred or other sums due and owing to us shall bear interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest rate allowed by law in the state in which the Franchise is located, whichever is lower.

2.08 Payment of Obligations.

You agree to pay promptly when payments are due and be responsible for all expenses, costs, taxes, licenses, accounts payable, and indebtedness of any kind incurred or suffered by you or the Franchise in the conduct of business, including, but without limitation, business expenses related to: living, relocating, traveling, entertaining, clothing, marketing, advertising, administration, operations, inventory, consignment purchases, utilities, rent, insurance, associates, employees, benefits, law, accounting, computers, and other obligations of indebtedness (see Section 4.01, Compliance with Standards).

We collect all payments due to us via ACH and schedule withdrawals according to the dates specified in this Agreement. You agree to make the requisite funds available for withdrawals on the corresponding date each month or be subject to the Late Fees and other fees enumerated in Section 2.07. Further, you agree to execute our affiliate BaseCamp's "ACH Withdrawal Form" within thirty (30) days of opening the bank account associated with your Store.

2.09 Insurance.

Commencing on the date you take possession of your Store Location, and at all times during the Term of this Agreement, you shall pay for and keep in force, at a minimum, all amounts and types of insurance that we require and that are required by law. Minimum coverage requirements include: general liability insurance for not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence with a $2,000,000 annual aggregate limit; products and completed operations insurance for not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence with a $2,000,000 annual aggregate limit; personal and advertising injury insurance for not less than $1,000,000; tenant fire legal liability insurance for not less than $100,000; medical payments insurance for not less than $5,000; hired and non-owned auto liability insurance for not less than $1,000,000. You shall also keep in force, as applicable, combined single limit bodily injury and property damage insurance for not less than $1,000,000 for autos owned by your company. In addition, you must carry workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance for not less than $100,000 for bodily injury by accident (for each accident), not less than $500,000 for bodily injury by disease (aggregate limit), and not less than $100,000 for bodily injury by disease (each employee).

All insurance policies shall be issued by companies having not less than Best's A+ rating and shall name us and our affiliate BaseCamp as additional insureds, for the mutual and joint protection and benefit of both you and us. You shall promptly deliver to us insurance policies or certificates of coverage which shall designate the name and address of the issuer, the policy number, amount and provisions thereof. All policies shall contain a provision that the policy shall not be canceled, terminated, or materially or adversely modified without thirty (30) days' prior notice from the insurance company to us. You agree that at least ten (10) days before the expiration of any insurance policy, you will deliver to us either written evidence that the policy has been renewed or a certificate of coverage from another company. All policies shall provide that the insurance companies waive subrogation or consent to waiver of right of recovery against us. You hereby agree that you will not make any claim against us to recover any loss or damage covered by insurance. We may make, at our option, any necessary payments to keep any insurance required in this agreement in force if you fail to do so, and you shall immediately reimburse us for such payments. Your obligation to carry insurance shall not be reduced because of any insurance we may carry, nor shall any insurance we carry relieve you of liability under the indemnity provision in Section 2.16. We have the right to make changes to any amount and type of insurance we require you to have.

2.10 Renewal or Relocation Fees.

See Sections 1.03 and 1.04, respectively.

2.11 Transfer Fees.

Any party to whom you assign the Franchise shall agree to and shall pay us a transfer and training fee of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) if they are a new Uptown Cheapskate franchisee, and Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) if they are an existing Uptown Cheapskate franchisee, as a part of such transfer of the Franchise. See Section 6.03(d) below.

Additionally, if you transfer the Franchise to a person who had previously been identified by Uptown Cheapskate or our affiliates Kid to Kid or BaseCamp as a franchise prospect, and who was actively engaged in the discovery process (as documented by us), you shall pay us an additional fee of $10,000 (a "Finder's Fee") on top of the standard Transfer Fee.

2.12 Continuing Education and Annual Meeting Non-Attendance Penalty.

You recognize that in order to be a successful Uptown Cheapskate franchisee, you must continuously train, study, and learn more about the resale industry, the characteristics of your market, and your customers. We invest significant time, effort, and resources into the development and content of our annual meeting (“Annual Meeting”), regional meetings (“Regional Meetings”), and performance groups (“Performance Groups”). Active participation in these meetings can help improve your Store’s performance by sharpening your retail and business skills and providing opportunities to network with other franchisees. Accordingly, you agree to:

(a) Register for the Annual Meeting via the method we require by the registration deadline, which will be at least two (2) months after receiving the registration materials, or pay a Late Fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) per month until registration has been completed (see Subsection 2.07(a));

(b) Attend the Annual Meeting, if held, at the location and during the time of our choosing for typically four (4) days, but up to six (6) days, each year. You shall receive at least three (3) months’ notice of the Annual Meeting date and shall bear all the costs of attending, including, but not limited to transportation, transfers, lodging, meals, materials, incidental expenses, taxes, and tips. We may charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs of the meeting space if you choose not to stay at the hotel or other location we have selected. There shall be no additional charge for the activities and training we will provide at the Annual Meeting, but we may charge a reasonable registration or attendance fee to offset conference facility costs for you, your associates and employees attending;

(c) Make available for electronic withdrawal from your operating account by the tenth (10th) day of the month following each Annual Meeting, One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) (“Annual Meeting Non-Attendance Penalty”) for each store you own if you failed to attend the Annual Meeting for any reason other than sickness or a family emergency. Note that any exemptions must be reported to and approved by us in advance of the annual meeting. We may modify the Annual Meeting Non-Attendance Penalty at the beginning of each calendar year; and

(d) Make reasonable efforts to attend Regional Meetings and Performance Groups, which may be held by us from time to time.

2.13 Computer Software, Support Fee and Tech Support.

You recognize the need for a reliable, state-of-the-art computer software and hardware system to support the manageability and profitability of your Store. Upon signing a lease for your Store, you must purchase all necessary computer hardware and software, including all ancillary components thereof, that we designate. You must also comply with our Computer System Standards. Additionally, prior to opening, you must pay our affiliate BaseCamp a non-refundable fee of $10,000 to obtain a license to use the BaseCamp software suite, which includes IMAP™, Baseline™ POS, and Q™ software (the “Software Suite”).

Further, you agree to make available, and pay by electronic withdrawal from your operating account by the tenth (10th) day of each calendar month, a “Computer Support Fee” of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250), which entitles you to:

(a) Tech Support for the Software Suite and related hardware via telephone, internet chat, or other online communication delivered by BaseCamp at no additional cost, provided that you meet the Computer System Standards described in Subsection 4.01. You recognize that BaseCamp may not be able to solve all issues that you may encounter, and that outside help may be required at your own expense. If you do not meet the Computer System Standards, a Tech Support fee will be billed at Fifty Dollars ($50) per hour with a minimum charge of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25) per session; and

(b) The periodic development and upgrading of the BaseCamp Software Suite at no additional cost. See Subsection 4.01.

BaseCamp may modify the Computer Support Fee and hourly Tech Support rate annually.

2.14 Standards Violations Fees.

Should you receive notification of a Standards violation (as described in Section 4.02) and fail to act within fourteen (14) days to cure it, you will be charged a “Standards Violation Fee” of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) for the first month, which will increase by Fifty Dollars ($50) each subsequent month until proof is given that the violation has been cured. Standards Violation Fees may be withdrawn from your operating account by electronic means by us as soon as the day after they have been charged.

2.15 Bookkeeping Service Fee.

From your grand opening date through the first full year of operation, you will subscribe to the monthly bookkeeping service provided by our affiliate, BaseCamp, and pay a “Bookkeeping Service Fee” of Two Hundred and Twenty-Five Dollars ($225) per store by electronic withdrawal from your operating account on the 10th day of each month. BaseCamp may modify the Bookkeeping Service Fee at the beginning of each calendar year.

After the first year of operation, you may discontinue the service, but if you later fail to submit any required financial reports and required back-up data to us as provided by Section 4.12, you agree to subscribe to and pay for the BaseCamp bookkeeping service for the twelve (12) month period following your failure to submit such required reports.

2.16 Indemnification.

You shall, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, indemnify and hold us and our affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, members, managers, employees, and agents, harmless against any and all claims, obligations, and damages arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with this Agreement, your Store, Franchisee's operation of your Store, the business conducted under this Agreement, your and your employees' actions and inaction, or your breach of this Agreement, including, without limitation, those alleged to be caused by our negligence, as well as legal fees, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest on such fees, costs, and expenses), of defending against them, unless (and then only to the extent that) the claims, obligations, and damages are determined to be caused solely by our gross negligence or willful misconduct according to a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court or arbitrator with competent jurisdiction. In the event that we incur any costs or expenses, including, without limitation, legal fees, attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest on such fees, costs, and expenses), travel expenses, and other charges, in connection with any proceeding involving you in which we are not a party, you shall reimburse us for all such costs and expenses promptly upon presentation of invoices. You acknowledge and agree that your obligations to indemnify and hold us harmless under this Section 2.16 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

3. ESTABLISHMENT OF BUSINESS

3.01 Financing.

Upon the Effective Date of this Agreement, you shall immediately prepare, with our Assistance (as defined in Paragraph B of the Recitals), a "Projected Income Statement" and "Sources and Uses of Funds Statement" for your Franchise, leveraging the "Financial Planner" that we will provide to you. You shall then immediately apply for any additional financing you need to establish and operate your Franchise with the lending institution of your choice.

3.02 Site Selection.

Upon the Effective Date of this Agreement, you shall attempt to lease or purchase the Store Location identified in Section 1.01 above. We will assist you in identifying and hiring a qualified commercial real estate broker for your market. Please note that you will retain all authority to hire, retain, and/or fire any broker(s) you choose to work with during the site selection process. Although we are not licensed real estate brokers or attorneys, we may offer suggestions during the site selection and leasing process based on the knowledge and experience we have gained by assisting other franchisees. By helping you select a broker and offering suggestions, we are not promising that your business is likely to achieve any level of sales or profits. You are solely responsible for your real estate leasing and purchasing decisions.

GIVEN THE IMPORTANCE OF FINDING AN ACCEPTABLE SITE AND PURCHASING OR ENTERING INTO A FAVORABLE LEASE, WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO SEEK ADDITIONAL REAL ESTATE AND LEGAL ADVICE THROUGHOUT THIS PROCESS.

Note that your lease or sublease for the Store Location must be reviewed by us before its execution and must include certain standard language that we provide. You must also provide us with an executed copy of any lease for the Store Location. We make no guarantees concerning the success of the Store located on any site that has received our consent.

If, after a diligent effort, you are unsuccessful in leasing or purchasing the Store Location identified in Section 1.01, you shall promptly lease or purchase another store which is located within ten (10) miles of the Store Location (as measured by Google Maps[®] or another mapping service we select) identified in Section 1.01 and at least five (5) miles' driving distance (as measured by Google Maps[®] or another mapping service we select) from any other Uptown Cheapskate store, or a greater distance if the franchise agreement with an adjacent Uptown Cheapskate franchisee so provides. Note that we reserve the right to approve or disapprove the new location in our sole discretion. Within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the Effective Date, if you have been unsuccessful in leasing or purchasing an adequate location, pursuant to Section 7.03 below, or you have not obtained financing, you may request that this Agreement be terminated.

If your Store is not open within eighteen (18) months of the Effective Date, we may, in our sole discretion, either reduce or eliminate your Protected Area or terminate this Agreement upon notice to you without granting you an opportunity to cure.

3.03 Construction, Remodeling, and Fixturing.

You are responsible for providing accurate measurements of the Store Location you have purchased or leased, as all plans will be based on those measurements. Any costs related to modifications of the plans or construction costs to make changes to meet Franchise Standards related to errors in measurement will be borne by you. Within six (6) weeks of notifying us in writing that you have purchased or leased a Store Location, and have included in that communication accurate measurements of the Store Location you have leased or purchased, we shall provide you with a fixture layout plan, a fixture list, a supply list, and an equipment list, which shall describe the number, type and configuration of the fixtures, equipment, and supplies that you must purchase and install and/or use in your Store. With our assistance, you shall diligently and promptly (and in a manner that meets the requirements of Sections 4.01 and 4.03):

(a) contract with a registered architect or draftsman to prepare plans and specifications for constructing, remodeling, or decorating the premises, which comply with all federal, state, and local regulations including health, sanitation, sign, utility, and building codes;

(b) contract with a licensed general contractor to file plans and construct, remodel, and/or decorate the premises according to the plans and specifications in a professional and first-class workmanlike manner. Nothing in this section shall prevent you from participating in the work performed in your space provided that a general contractor oversees and guarantees such work; and

(c) purchase or lease and install all furniture, fixtures, equipment, flooring, signage, supplies, and other items that are identified in Section 4.01, Appendix "A", or the Training and Operations Tools described in Section 4.03, or that are otherwise necessary for the operation of your Store.

3.04 Training and Internship.

(a) Prior to opening the Store to purchase or sell inventory:

(i) You must designate one of your owners as manager ("Manager"), who shall be responsible for its day-to-day operations (Section 4.08 (a)).

(ii) The Manager and another owner or employee, should you choose to have another person join, shall attend and complete to our satisfaction our six (6) day training program ("Training"). There is no charge for Training, but you are responsible for the transportation, meals, lodging, compensation and incidental costs for you, your employees and Managers for such training. Training is conducted at our corporate office or at another location and at a time as we designate.

(iii) The Manager must complete an "Internship" to our satisfaction by working in an existing Uptown Cheapskate store in the Salt Lake City area, or another approved Uptown Cheapskate store located elsewhere for at least forty

(40) hours over five (5) business days. The location, time, and schedule of the Internship shall be mutually agreed upon by the Manager, Uptown Cheapskate and the management of the store in which the Internship will take place. There is no charge for the Internship itself, but you shall be responsible for all transportation, meals, lodging, compensation, and incidental costs related to it. Neither you nor the Manager shall receive compensation from us or the franchisee for the Internship.

(b) If during the second full calendar year of operation, and any calendar year thereafter, the sales of your Store do not exceed the average System sales, you may be required to attend and complete to our satisfaction (should we decide to hold it) a six (6) day Training program at the time and location we schedule, provided we give you at least sixty (60) days advance notice. Failure to make time to attend reasonably scheduled and offered Trainings over a ninety (90) day period is a default of this Agreement. There is no charge for Training but you are responsible for the transportation, meals, lodging, compensation and incidental costs for you and your team members and Managers associated with such training.

3.05 Initial Inventory Purchase.

After you have completed Training and the Internship, you have substantially completed the installation of your fixtures and improvements described in Sections 3.03, 4.01(f) and the Training and Operations Tools (Section 4.03), and you have purchased and received your computer equipment described in Section 4.01(h) and Appendix “A”, you shall commence purchasing inventory in your Store. HAVING ADEQUATE INVENTORY IN YOUR STORE IS CRITICAL TO YOUR SUCCESS, and as a result, you shall not open or reopen your Store to sell product until you have acquired at least nine hundred (900) new vendors in your database, and you have purchased, priced, tagged, and hung or displayed the greater of five (5) items per square foot of Sales Area or twelve thousand (12,000) items in gently-used, in-season inventory, and the greater of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or Three Dollars ($3.00) per square foot of new product inventory (“Minimum Inventory”)—the type, assortment, and quality of which are specified in Section 4.01(n) and the Inventory Section of the Manual.

3.06 Pre-Opening Operational Assistance.

During the store opening process, our affiliate BaseCamp will assign a dedicated representative (a “New Store Lead” or “NSL”) to help you navigate the various phases and milestones. For first-time franchisees, the NSL will visit your Store twice: first around the time that you initially open to begin purchasing inventory (your “Open to Buy Date”), and second to help you on-site the day before, the day of, and the day following the grand opening of your Store. For multi-unit franchisees and Transfer Stores, the NSL will provide dedicated support remotely but will not provide on-site support. In those instances, you may purchase up to three (3) days of on-site support at a rate of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) per day (the “On-Site Support Rate”) in connection with your grand opening or reopening. The On-Site Support Rate may be adjusted each year. Except for providing you with the pre-opening support described above, as well as a fixture layout plan, fixture list, supply list, equipment list, training, systems, and checklists, and the Assistance identified in Sections 3.01, 3.02, and 3.03 of this Agreement, we are not responsible for establishing or operating your business. However, you may contact us and liaise with your NSL during regular business hours for advice on operational issues.

4. OPERATIONS AND PROCEDURES

4.01 Compliance with Standards.

You understand the benefit of, and agree to comply fully with, all franchise standards, approaches, specifications, operating procedures and rules (collectively the “Standards”), prescribed and modified by us from time to time. These Standards, which are contained in the Training and Operations Tools (see Section 4.03) and other resources, may be modified from time to time in other verbal, electronic, or written communications from us to you, and may relate to all the following items:

- (a) Performance guidelines, goals, and training;
- (b) Operation, administration, bookkeeping, accounting, general function, and safety of the Franchise;
- (c) Representations, statements, warranties and guarantees regarding services and products offered by you, Uptown Cheapskate, and other franchisees;
- (d) Qualifications, conduct, demeanor, dress, use and condition of uniforms, grooming, and general appearance of you and your team;
- (e) Our and BaseCamp’s “Code of Conduct”, which requires you to treat fellow franchisees, Uptown Cheapskate and BaseCamp staff, vendors, and customers with professionalism and respect at all times;
- (f) Size, layout, configuration, decor, presentation, condition, neatness, and cleanliness of your Store. You recognize the importance of keeping the interior and exterior look, feel, and function of your Store current with the trends and styles in the fashion industry—which are constantly changing. We periodically modify our Standards to better meet consumer preferences. Accordingly, you agree to remodel your Store within ninety (90) days after we send you written notice, provided, however, you are not required to spend more than fifty percent (50%) of your initial fixture and fit-up costs for remodeling every five (5) years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you are required to upgrade and remodel your Store to meet current Standards upon renewal, relocation or the exercise of any option;

(g) Type, number, style, function, arrangement, use, and condition, of your Fixtures;

(h) Type, number, style, function, arrangement, use, and condition, of your equipment. You specifically agree to purchase or lease the computer and cash drawer system described in Appendix "A", and to upgrade and/or replace all computer software (and the hardware, components, and accessories necessary to run such software) related to purchasing, selling, inventory management, reporting, financial and accounting controls, when and how we request (in sum, a "System Upgrade"). You agree to comply with all Uptown Cheapskate, BaseCamp, and vendor credit card policies, as well as the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards ("PCI DSS") as they may be revised and modified by the Payment Card Industry Security Standards Council or its successor organization, FACTA and any other card payment standards we may specify.

So long as you pay the Computer Support Fee described in Section 2.13 above, BaseCamp will, at no additional cost:

(1) periodically develop, upgrade and maintain the Software Suite. You shall, however, bear all costs associated with upgrading other software, as well as all hardware, component, and accessory modifications; and

(2) provide Tech Support for the Software Suite and related hardware via telephone, intranet or other online communication during BaseCamp's regular business hours, or, for emergencies, during non-business hours, provided that you meet our "Computer System Standards", which are summarized below:

- Your computer system, including hardware and software components, back-up, networking, and anti-virus programs, continue to meet our specifications;
- Your staff is reasonably trained in the operation of the computer system and is following standard procedures;
- You use any documented instructions that we have provided to self-resolve issues before calling;

- You personally participate in the support discussion(s) with the tech team, if requested by us or BaseCamp;
- Unattended access is set up for the tech team to log on to your computer at any time; and
- Your computers are left running 24 hours per day.

If you do not meet the Computer System Standards, you may purchase technical support from BaseCamp at the rate of Fifty Dollars ($50) per hour (which is subject to change) with a minimum charge of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25) per session.

You agree to obtain, maintain, and use at your cost, and subject to our specifications: high-speed hardline internet access from the Store, an e-mail address, and a Store website that links to the Uptown Cheapskate website;

(i) Keeping the Store open to customers for both the purchase and sale of merchandise according to the minimum store hours we establish (the "Minimum Store Hours"). Currently, the Minimum Store Hours are as follows: 10:00am until 8:00pm from Monday through Friday, and 11:00am until 5:00pm on Sunday. Note that you may choose to open your store for additional hours beyond the Minimum Store Hours. You agree to accept and purchase product, and to advertise that you accept and purchase product, whenever your Store is open; further, you agree to purchase products for all seasons, all year, every day your Store is open, for all hours that your Store is open, including during the Open to Buy period (collectively, the "Buying Requirements"). Within these Buying Requirements, you may require that customers return the next day to retrieve their payout (a "Drop-Off") if the vend is initiated within one (1) hour of Store closing; otherwise, you must accommodate all customers who wish to have their vend completed within the same day.

Please note that any deviations from the above Standards must be approved by us in writing. We may periodically modify the Minimum Store Hours and Buying Requirements and will notify you of any such modifications;

(j) Marketing, text-message programs, advertising, promotion, display, merchandising, interior and exterior signage. You agree to participate in, and pay for, any gift card, in-store music, email marketing, text marketing, and digital marketing programs, if any, that we implement, and to use the approved vendors we designate for broadcast media placement and online advertising. You agree to obtain and hold appropriate licenses to broadcast movies, videos, music, television, and other media we may request. You promise to adhere to the System requirements with respect to the neutrality of messages, which are designed to avoid offending Customers and potential Customers on the basis of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or political views;

You must also request and receive our written approval prior to placing an order for exterior signage and graphics.

(k) Use of forms and reports;

(l) Treatment and procedures relating to Customers and vendors, including the handling of complaints;

(m) Building and enhancing the reputation of and trade demand for your Store, the System and its Marks;

(n) Amount, assortment, quality, condition, style, size, brand, and purchase and sales price of inventory. MAINTAINING ADEQUATE INVENTORY IS AMONG THE MOST IMPORTANT KEYS TO YOUR SUCCESS. You must purchase and sell used and new teen and young adult clothing and miscellaneous related items. We reserve the right to modify these requirements from time to time;

After eighteen (18) months of operation you must have acquired, and for the remainder of the Term you must maintain, at least six (6) items per square foot of sales area of gently-used inventory and the greater of Four Dollars ($4) per square foot of sales area or Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) in new product inventory ("Minimum Inventory Levels"). For example, if you have leased a store with 4,000 sales area square feet, you must acquire and maintain at least 24,000 used product items and $16,000 of new product. We may modify the Minimum Inventory Levels from time to time.

You may also be required to sell additional products which we, in our discretion, determine that stores in our System shall sell. We also retain the right to limit or discontinue your sale of certain products and services. You agree to learn and implement our buying, processing, sale, and markdown policies, and to align those procedures to conform with other Uptown Cheapskate stores, especially those in your market.

(o) Readiness of your Store to open (or reopen) for business. You agree that prior to the grand opening or reopening of your Store, or the resumption of business within a store that has been transferred or remodeled, and as a condition of opening or reopening, we must certify that your Store is in substantial compliance with our Standards and the Training and Operations Tools (as defined in Section 4.03 below). In determining whether your Store is in substantial compliance, we may consider, but are not limited to, considering Subsections "a" through "n" of this Section 4.01;

(p) Requirement that you make modest and reasonable efforts to assist us and any affiliates in the marketing of our and their franchise opportunities, including, without limitation, via media such as the internet, social media, in-store signage, sales bags, direct mail pieces, radio and television campaigns, counter displays, and links in customer e-mail, digital marketing, social media, and other relevant channels; and

(q) Requirement that you join and maintain membership in the retailer's association operating within your state, and operate in compliance with any applicable second-hand dealer's laws and ordinances.

All Standards shall be reasonable and be designed to help you in the development of your Store and to build the Uptown Cheapskate brand as we deem prudent and appropriate. Without limiting the foregoing, you promise that upon notice from us, you shall immediately take all steps necessary to modify your operation and correct any deviation from the Standards.

You and we acknowledge that in order for the Franchise to adapt to the market, take advantage of technology, and improve its tactics and processes, our System must evolve. Accordingly, we reserve the right to modify the Standards as we deem appropriate. We also reserve the right to specify the source of supply of specific products and services, and to obtain and retain benefits, such as rebates or commissions from suppliers.

During the Term of this Agreement, you may contact us during our regular business hours to discuss operational issues and to receive Assistance in how to meet the Standards and improve the performance of your Store.

4.02 Standards Violations.

Should you violate a Standard, we may notify you to correct the violation within fourteen (14) days as described in Section 2.14. Continued non-compliance will result in the assessment of a Standards Violation Fee for each violation of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) by electronic withdrawal from your operating account on the day after such item is charged. Standards Violation Fees will be assessed and increased by Fifty Dollars ($50) every month until you provide proof that the violation has been cured. Repeated Standards violations may affect your rights under this Agreement (See Section 7.05(a)(8)).

4.03 Training and Operations Tools.

For the term of this Agreement, we shall give you access to "Training and Operations Tools" which consist of online training modules, manuals in printed or electronic form, a New Store Playbook and related tools, an Annual Priorities Workbook, and other documents, videos and forms on our intranet site. These materials contain mandatory Standards and suggested techniques based on best practices we have observed across our system. All Training and Operations Tools are proprietary, confidential, and remain the property of Uptown Cheapskate. You may not permit others to view, listen to, or copy them. We reserve the right to add to, delete, and modify the Training and Operations Tools from time to time to improve the standards of service, product quality, or the efficient operation of the Franchise, and to protect or maintain the goodwill associated with the Marks or to meet competition, provided that no such addition or modification shall alter your fundamental status and rights under this Agreement.

The provisions of the Training and Operations Tools, as modified by us from time to time, and the mandatory Standards contained in them, shall constitute provisions of this Agreement as if fully set forth herein. You agree to operate the Franchise in compliance with the Training and Operations Tools.

4.04 Promotion.

You agree to conduct your business ethically, in good faith, and in a manner that will promote good relations with your Customers, associates, other franchisees, and the community. You agree to use your best efforts to promote, advertise, solicit to, and establish, maintain and serve Customers at your Store Location. See Section 2.06, Advertising Requirement for additional detail. You shall accurately and truthfully characterize, promote and market the services and products sold by the Franchise in the manner we set forth, and shall not make any representations, statements, warranties or guarantees in conflict therewith or in addition thereto. In the event that you make representations, statements, warranties, or guarantees in conflict with or in addition to those we set forth in the Training and Operations Tools or in other communications, you shall be solely responsible for the resulting liability and shall reimburse and hold us harmless for any losses, costs, expenses, attorney's fees or other liabilities we incur as a result thereof.

You shall use the marketing, text messaging program, advertising, promotional materials, tools and services prepared and/or furnished by us to promote your Franchise. They may include, but are not limited to, designs for electronic media such as digital ads, web pages and emails, non-digital ads, posters, in-store signs, window displays, banners, radio and television spots and miscellaneous point-of-sale items, as well as designs for business cards, envelopes, letterhead, and bags. You will receive an electronic copy of all digital material at no charge, although you must pay duplication costs for printed copies. These materials, tools and services shall be developed and produced by our in-house advertising department, or by a local, regional or national advertising agency with which we, in our sole discretion, may contract.

You agree to implement required promotional programs, offers, and discounts as directed by the Franchise and promotional programs, offers, and discounts as agreed to by your Local Advertising Cooperative, if participation in one is required.

You may advertise and promote your Store through the following media: internet, social media, digital marketing, SMS text messaging, email, television, radio, newsprint, billboards, bench signs, direct mail, flyers and other media you choose with our prior written approval.

If you wish to use marketing, advertising, and promotional materials, or tools and services that we do not furnish, you shall first submit such items to us and receive our written approval before using them—which shall be granted or denied within seven (7) days. We may also offer to produce the request for a fee. You agree to pay all costs, including production, of any marketing, advertising, and promotional materials and tools—for services that we do not normally furnish.

4.05 Promotion of Other Products or Services.

You shall not directly or indirectly promote, market, or sell to Customers products and services that are not described in Subsection 4.01(n) of this Agreement, the Training and Operations Tools, or other written or electronic communication with us without our prior written approval.

4.06 Proper Authority.

You hereby covenant, promise, represent, and warrant that you have legal rights in the form of licenses, permits, certificates, and other authority, which grant you the rights and privileges described or contemplated in this Agreement, and that you are authorized to sign and execute this Agreement.

4.07 Laws and Licenses.

You shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, ordinances and regulations, including, without limitation, all government regulations relating to franchising, solicitations and sales, marketing, advertising, packaging, labeling, occupational hazards and health, consumer protection, unfair and deceptive practices, trade regulation, workers' compensation, unemployment insurance and withholding taxes, social security taxes, sales and use taxes, property taxes and other taxes and obligations. You will, at your own expense, comply with all ordinances and regulations, including any and all licensing and bonding requirements, as well as the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA"), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA"), the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act ("FACTA"), and the National Automated Clearinghouse Association ("NACHA") and associated regulations (collectively “Privacy Laws”). No music, videos, or television may be played in the Store unless the appropriate licenses are obtained. You must comply with any applicable secondhand dealer laws or ordinances, and you shall not knowingly purchase or sell counterfeit items. Selling or attempting to sell such items constitutes a default of this Agreement subject to a Standards Violation Fee described in Section 2.14. You agree to promptly furnish us with copies of all reports or warnings issued by any governmental agency or official which reflect or indicate your noncompliance or less than full compliance with any applicable law, rule or regulation. You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any costs or liability that may result from a violation of this Section by you or your employees or representatives, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney’s fees and disbursements incurred in defending any civil, criminal or administrative action brought against us or our affiliates and representatives as a result of a violation of this Section.

If the California Privacy Act (“CCPA”), Cal. Civ Code § 1798.100, et seq., or any federal or state privacy law applies to the Franchise, whenever and to the extent you operate as a “Service Provider” under the CCPA or in a similar capacity under any federal or state privacy law, you represent, warrant, and covenant that:

- (a) You will not sell, make available, or otherwise disclose any Customer Information to any third party for valuable consideration;
- (b) You will retain, use, or disclose Customer Information only for the specific purpose of performing the services specified in this Agreement, and not for any commercial or noncommercial purpose other than providing the services specified in this Agreement;
- (c) You will not retain, use, or disclose Customer Information outside of the direct business relationship between Franchisee and Franchisor;
- (d) You will delete any Customer Information upon our request unless you can prove that such request is subject to an exception under applicable law; and
- (e) You acknowledge and agree that Franchisor may modify the aforementioned restrictions by written notice to you, including by adding other similar privacy restrictions that may be required under other state or federal privacy laws.

4.08 Management.

Within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement and through the remainder of the Term, you must designate a Manager for your Store. You must carefully monitor and be responsible for the performance of the Manager and their replacement(s).

For the first six months after the Store opens to sell product or, in the case of a transfer, after you have assumed ownership of the Store, the Franchise must be under the full-time direction of a Manager who:

- (a) owns at least ten percent (10%) of the Franchise;
- (b) has been approved beforehand by us in writing or electronic communication; and
- (c) shall have completed the New Franchisee Online Training on the BaseCamp Training Portal, our six (6) day in-person Training program, a five (5) day forty (40) hour Internship, and subsequent training modules and proficiency tests in accordance with this Agreement. We do not charge an additional fee for the training of the initial Manager and up to one other owner or agent, but you are responsible for travel, living, food, compensation, and all other expenses incurred during Training and the Internship. We reserve the right to charge a tuition fee of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) for the training of each additional Manager, owner or representative in attendance beyond the initial group of two;

For the full duration of the Term of this Agreement, including the first six (6) months and afterwards, the Franchise must be under the full-time direction of a Manager who:

- (a) shall, during their period as Manager, devote their full time, attention, and energies to the performance of their duties under this Agreement and as directed by you; and
- (b) shall have executed, upon our request, an agreement drafted by us agreeing not to divulge any trade secrets, to keep confidential all proprietary information and marketing information, including the Training and Operations Tools, as defined by this Agreement, and to comply with the terms of the Covenant Not To Compete prescribed in Section 5.06.

Note that all persons employed in the operation of the Franchise that are not owners in the Franchise are employed solely by you as Franchisee. They have no affiliation with Uptown Cheapskate or our affiliates and you, as Franchisee, must in your sole discretion make all employment-related decisions regarding your team.

4.09 Associates.

You will hire all employees of the Store (“Associates”) and be exclusively responsible for the terms of their employment, scheduling, benefits, disciplining, compensation, termination, and all other personnel decisions. You shall employ and train competent sales Associates who are familiar with, or who are capable and willing to become familiar with, the features and advantages of our products and services, and can effectively demonstrate and explain such features and advantages to potential Customers and vendors. You shall require that your Associates attend or otherwise participate in training sessions provided by you in accordance with training standards and procedures we prescribe from time to time. If any Associates receive training material provided by us or our affiliates, note that in all cases, such training material is intended to communicate best practices that we have observed to correlate with successful Store operations. You agree that you are responsible for the ultimate direction of all activities of your Associates with regards to their employment in your Store. You agree that all Associates shall observe the highest standards of professionalism, prompt service, and courtesy to existing and potential customers, vendors, franchisees, and Uptown Cheapskate representatives, and shall be attired as designated in the Training and Operations Tools.

You shall register each new employee on the BaseCamp Training Portal as part of the new-hire onboarding process, and monitor their progress in completing all required training modules based on their responsibility within the timeframe outlined in the Training and Operations Tools. As indicated above, these materials provide a range of best practices for you and your Associates to consider.

You shall enter into a written agreement with each of your Associates, partners, spouses and other immediate non-minor family members, in a form we provide, and maintain a copy of each executed agreement, which:

(a) provides for termination of such agreement and relationship as they relate to the Franchise upon termination of this Agreement;

(b) prohibits each from selling or promoting the sale of products and services which could be sold in an Uptown Cheapskate store, or from selling products purchased in or through Uptown Cheapskate, or purchased from vendors or suppliers who have provided or provide product to your Store; and

(c) prohibits them from divulging any trade secrets and requires that they keep confidential all proprietary information and marketing information, including the Training and Operations Tools, as defined by this Agreement, and information contained within basecampcentral.com or any other intranet we provide, and comply with the terms of the Covenant Not To Compete prescribed in Section 5.06.

You promise to notify us when the relationship with a partner or spouse ends. You further agree to deactivate passwords and prevent access to System accounts for such individuals, as well as any Associate whose employment is terminated.

4.10 Advisory Association.

You agree to participate in our advisory association, consisting of representatives from each Uptown Cheapskate store (the "Advisory Association"). Its primary purpose is to advance communication between Uptown Cheapskate and its franchisees, and offer support to meet their needs and goals. Upon the majority vote of its members, the Advisory Association may engage in promotional, educational, and community service activities, and adopt rules and procedures for its operations. However, the Advisory Association may not levy assessments against you or other members for incurred expenses. Franchisees are entitled to one vote for each store they own. For the purposes of this Section, stores we own, if any, are granted no different status than Franchisee-owned stores. Advisory Association members and their elected representatives are responsible for administration of the Association. All such activities and expenses shall be subject to our prior written approval, which may not be unreasonably withheld. Your fundamental rights under this Agreement cannot be diminished by the actions of the Advisory Association. We retain the right to create, change, or dissolve the Advisory Association.

4.11 Local Advertising Cooperative.

You agree that Uptown Cheapskate may require you to join and participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative and pay those fees described in Subsection 2.06(e) above when there are two (2) or more stores in the Area of Dominant Influence ("ADI") where your Store is located, as we determine. Currently, there is no requirement that any franchisee participate in a Local Advertising Cooperative, although franchisees may elect to form and participate in one at their discretion. We may determine to require participation in a Local Advertising Cooperative once per year, with any change to take effect during the next calendar year. Under such determination, note that:

(a) Fees collected by us from members of the Cooperative shall be promptly deposited into an account controlled by its officers or agents. Each Uptown Cheapskate store within the ADI shall be entitled to one vote to determine how to allocate funds. In the event that votes by members of the Local Advertising Cooperative are equal, we may cast an additional, decisive vote;

(b) The Local Advertising Cooperative shall operate subject to the rules set forth in Appendix "G" (which we may reasonably modify from time to time) and may purchase advertising for its ADI, engage in test marketing, conduct surveys on advertising effectiveness, produce advertisements and commercials, develop public relations campaigns and promotions, and pay its own accounting and administrative expenses. It shall prepare a marketing budget and an annual report, which shall be made available for the review of its members, prospective franchisees, and to us;

(c) We shall retain the right to approve decisions made by the Local Advertising Cooperative or to create, change, or dissolve it to ensure that all its members are treated fairly and that its actions are consistent with the Standards outlined in Section 4.01. We shall require that company owned stores participate in the cooperative on the same basis as franchisees.

4.12 Reports, Records, and Bookkeeping.

You shall promptly and accurately complete such reports and forms, and establish a bookkeeping, accounting and record system as we prescribe, and shall deliver all such reports, forms, and records to us in the manner, whether by post, email, internet or computer modem transmission, and to the places we specify, or be subject to a late fee outlined in Section 2.07. You agree that we may utilize any information we collect at our discretion and agree to adhere to the reporting periods and methods we prescribe in providing financial and other information. You specifically agree to report to us:

(a) by the fifth (5th) day of each calendar month, the Sales/On Hand Report for the preceding month (see Sections 2.04 and 2.05) by providing access to the IMAP™ program operating in your computers;

(b) by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month following the calendar quarter (April, July, October, January—with an annual summary due each January 15th), electronic backups of your QuickBooks® files. We may later decide to request that this report is submitted monthly. If you fail to submit to us accurate and up-to-date backups of your files as we require, you agree to subscribe to the BaseCamp Booking Service for the next twelve (12) months and pay the subscription fee it charges by electronic withdrawal from your operating account on tenth (10th) day of each calendar month;

(c) by the first day of December each calendar year, a complete cash flow forecast and Marketing Expenditure Overview for the upcoming year;

(d) by the fifteenth (15th) of January, April, July, and October, the Advertising Expenditures made for the preceding three (3) full calendar months (See Section 2.06(b)); and

(e) all operational, financial, inventory, sales, marketing, customer, or other information we request from time to time. You specifically grant to us independent access to such data or information via internet at any time we reasonably request.

4.13 Notices.

All notices required or permitted to be given by this Agreement must be made in writing and delivered by mail, in person, or by email. Mailed notices shall be addressed to the parties as their addresses appear on the first page of this Agreement, unless written notice is given of a change of address. In that event, notices shall be mailed to the party at the new address. Emailed notices shall be sent to the Store-issued email address.

4.14 Inspections.

In order to assist you in maintaining the standards of operation established by us and to ensure your compliance with this Agreement, you grant us, or our representatives, the right at any time and without prior notice to you, to inspect the Franchise, the offices, places of business and assets, and all business records, including, but not limited to, sales reports, billings, account records, customer lists, potential customer lists, financial statements, tax returns, purchase orders, invoices, payroll records, check stubs, tax records and other records and documents of all types of the Franchise, and to take a physical inventory of the assets of the Franchise. Such inspections shall be conducted at our expense; provided that if we are required to make two (2) inspections in connection with your failure to comply with this Agreement, we shall have the right to charge you for the costs of making all further inspections in connection with such failure to comply, including, without limitation, the charges of any independent certified public accountants and the travel expenses, room, board and compensation of us, our employees, and other representatives involved therewith.

4.15 Audits.

We and our representatives shall have the right to audit and copy or cause to be audited or copied all business records, including, but not limited to, sales reports, inventory records, other reports, customer lists, potential customer lists, financial statements, tax returns, purchase orders, invoices, payroll records, check stubs, tax records, reports, statements and returns required under Section 4.12, and other records and documents of all types of the Franchise. For this purpose, all such business records (including state and local sales tax reports and federal, state, and local income tax returns) shall be made available to us or our representatives upon request. In the event that any such audit discloses an understatement of your Gross Sales for any period or periods, you shall pay to us within two (2) days after receipt of the audit report, a Royalty Fee equal to thirteen and one-half percent (13.5%) and a Marketing Fund Fee equal to one and one-half percent (1.5%) of such understatement plus late fees and interest due thereon (see Section 2.07). In the event that such understatement for any period or periods shall be one percent (1%) or more of your Gross Sales for such period or periods, you shall reimburse us for the cost of the audit, including all charges of any independent certified public accountants and the travel expenses, room, board and compensation of us, our employees, or other representatives involved therewith.

4.16 Variances.

We may approve exceptions or changes to the Standards that we, in our sole discretion, believe are necessary or desirable under the prevailing circumstances. You understand that you have no right to object to any such modifications of the Standards, and that any exception or change from the Standards for your activities must be approved in advance by us in writing.

5. PROTECTION OF RIGHTS AND INFORMATION

5.01 Ownership of Marks.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an assignment or grant to you of any right, title or interest in or to the Marks, it being understood that we reserve all rights relating thereto. You recognize the great value of the goodwill associated with the Marks and acknowledge that the Marks and all rights therein and goodwill pertaining thereto belong exclusively to us. You agree that your every use of the Marks shall inure to our benefit and that you shall not at any time acquire rights in the Marks by virtue of any use you make of the Marks. You shall use each Mark only in full compliance with such rules as we prescribe. You shall not use any Mark as part of any corporate or other name, while this Agreement is in effect and after its termination, except as we may consent otherwise in writing, whether with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols, nor may you use any Marks in connection with the sale of any unauthorized product or service or in any other manner that we have not explicitly authorized. Any consent or authorization given under the preceding sentence shall be deemed revoked upon termination of this Agreement. You agree that you will not, while this Agreement is in effect and thereafter, attack the title or any of our rights in and to the Marks, or attack the validity of this license for the use of the Marks, or do anything which could jeopardize or diminish our rights to or the value of the Marks.

5.02 Protection of Marks.

You shall immediately notify us of any infringement of or challenge to your or our use of any Marks or claim by any person or entity of any rights in any Mark. We shall have sole discretion to take such action as we deem appropriate and the right to exclusively control any litigation or Patent and Trademark Office or other proceeding arising out of any such infringement, challenge or claim relating to such Marks, and you agree to execute any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance and take such actions as may, in the opinion of our counsel, be necessary or advisable to protect and maintain our interests in any such litigation or Patent and Trademark Office or other proceeding or to otherwise protect and maintain our interest in the Marks. We agree to indemnify you against and to reimburse you for all damages for which you are held liable in any proceeding arising out of the use of any Mark in compliance with this Agreement and for all costs reasonably incurred by you in the defense of any such claim brought against you.

5.03 Use of Marks in Advertising.

You agree that during the term of this Agreement:

(a) the Franchise shall be operated under the name used in the Marks and that all signs and advertising shall prominently display the Marks;

(b) all names under which you do business must be approved in writing by us before use. In conjunction with the Marks, your own name must be displayed conspicuously on all licenses and permits required for the operation of the Franchise, on all tax returns, on all stationery and business cards, and on all contractual agreements you enter into. The format for the display of your own name in conjunction with the Marks must be approved in writing by us before use.

(c) all stationery, business cards and contractual agreements entered into by you must conspicuously state "This Uptown Cheapskate Franchise is Independently Owned and Operated." You shall install a sign in your Store which reads: "This store is an independent Franchise and is owned and operated by [insert your name]."

5.04 Change of Marks.

You agree that if it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole discretion, for us to modify or discontinue the use of any or all of the Marks and/or use one or more additional Marks to substitute for any or all of the Marks, you will do so at your sole expense without any obligation on our part with respect thereto.

5.05 Protection of Information.

(a) You acknowledge that we possess and shall possess in the future certain proprietary information, consisting of the Training and Operations Tools, as well as all concepts, methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, technology, marketing approaches, ideas, research, improvements and materials, owned or developed by us and not otherwise publicly available, whether or not published or suitable for registration or copyright, and the goodwill associated with them, which is used in the operation of Uptown Cheapskate franchises (hereinafter "Proprietary Information"). We may, in our discretion, disclose the Proprietary Information to you in the Training and Operations Tools, in other training materials and communications, and in providing guidance and assistance to you in the operation of your Franchise.

(b) You acknowledge that we possess and that we and you shall possess in the future, certain information, consisting of names, addresses, telephone numbers, contact persons, purchase orders and other identifying information relating to Customers and vendors, information with respect to needs and requirements of Customers and vendors, rate, cost, and price information, financial information with respect to our other stores and your business, personnel data relating to you, your employees and representatives, confidential information contained in verbal or audio communication, files, interoffice documents, and other internal and external documents and correspondence prepared by or for you and us, which constitute marketing information that is not otherwise publicly available (hereafter the "Marketing Information").

(c) You acknowledge and agree that you will not acquire any interest in the Proprietary Information or Marketing Information during or after the Term of this Agreement, other than the right to utilize it in the development and operation of the Franchise during the Term thereof, and that the use or duplication of the Proprietary Information and/or Marketing Information in any other business would constitute an unfair method of competition, that such information could be used to compete with and significantly injure us, Kid to Kid and/or other resale-related affiliates, that such information has significant value to competitors of us, Kid to Kid and/or other resale-related affiliates, and that the relationship between such information, you, and us involves elements of personal service and trust. You acknowledge and agree that the Proprietary Information and Marketing Information are our trade secrets and are disclosed to you on the condition that you will:

(1) not use the Proprietary Information or Marketing Information in any other business or capacity during the term of this Agreement or at any time thereafter;

(2) maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Proprietary Information and Marketing Information during the term of this Agreement and thereafter;

(3) not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Proprietary Information or Marketing Information disclosed or held in written, audio, video, or digital form; and

(4) adopt and implement all reasonable procedures we prescribe from time to time to prevent the unauthorized use or disclosure, as described in parts (1) through (3) above, of the Proprietary Information and Marketing Information, including, without limitation, restrictions on disclosure to and by your employees and the use of nondisclosure and non-competition clauses in employment agreements with each of such persons who have access to the Proprietary Information and Marketing Information.

5.06 Covenant Not To Compete.

You acknowledge that this Agreement will give you access to valuable and Proprietary Information regarding the System, including our business development strategy and the operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods of an Uptown Cheapskate store. You agree that during the term of this Agreement, you will not, without our prior written consent, either directly or indirectly through any other person or entity:

(a) Own, manage, engage in, be employed by, advise, make loans to, consult for, rent or lease to, or have any other interest in any business that operates, or grants franchises or licenses to operate, a store, or a similar business that offers new or used teen or young adult clothes and products substantially similar to those then offered by an Uptown Cheapskate store (a "Competitive Business");

(b) Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer, or potential business or customer, to any Competitive Business; or

(c) In any manner interfere with, disturb, disrupt, impair, diminish, or otherwise jeopardize our business or that of our affiliates or any of our franchisees.

For two (2) years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement or an approved transfer to a new franchisee, you agree that you may not directly or indirectly own, manage, engage in, be employed by, advise, make loans to, consult for, rent or lease to, or have any other interest in, any Competitive Business that is, or intends to operate: (i) at your Store Location; (ii) within the Protected Area; (iii) within a fifteen (15) mile radius of your Protected Area; or (iv) within a fifteen (15) mile radius of any other Uptown Cheapskate store operating or under construction to operate under the System as of the time that the obligations under this Section 5.06 commence, except as permitted by any franchise agreements that remain in effect between you and us. You agree that the length of time in this Section 5.06 will be tolled for any period during which you are in breach of the covenants set forth in this Section 5.06, or any other period during which we seek to enforce this Agreement.

You will cause all owners (and their spouses) to personally bind themselves to this Section 5.06 by signing this Agreement and/or the attached Guarantee and Assumption of Risk attached as Appendix "D" to this Agreement. With respect to your owners and their spouses, the time period in this Section 5.06 will run from the expiration, termination, or transfer of this Agreement or from the termination of the owner's relationship with you, whichever occurs first. You must also require and obtain execution of covenants similar to those set forth in Section 5.05 regarding Proprietary Information, and this Section 5.06 (as modified to apply to an individual), from any or all of the following persons: your officers, directors, and employees. These persons and the owners and their spouses are each a "Restricted Party". Your failure to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Section 5.06 will constitute a default under this Agreement.

You may not attempt to circumvent these restrictions by engaging in prohibited activity indirectly through any other person or entity (including through a spouse, parent, sibling, or child).

You agree that the existence of any claim you may have against us, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to our enforcement of this Section 5.06. You agree to pay all costs and expenses that we reasonably incur in enforcing this Section 5.06, including reasonable attorneys' fees. You acknowledge that a violation of the terms of this Section 5.06 would result in irreparable injury to us for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Accordingly, you consent to the issuance of an injunction prohibiting any conduct in violation of the terms of this Section 5.06. Such injunctive relief will be in addition to any other remedies that we may have.

If any restriction in this Section 5.06 is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited, and/or length of time, but would be enforceable if modified, you and we agree that the covenant will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction whose law determines the covenant's validity. Specifically, if any part of these restrictions is found to be unreasonable in time or distance, each month of time or mile of distance may be deemed a separate unit so that the time or distance may be reduced by appropriate order of the court to the amount deemed reasonable.

The terms of this Section 5.06 will survive the termination, expiration, or any Transfer of this Agreement. The parties agree this Section 5.06 will be construed as independent of any other provision of this Agreement.

6. SALE OR TRANSFER

6.01 Transfer by Uptown Cheapskate.

We have the unrestricted right to transfer or assign all or any part of our rights and/or our obligations under this Agreement to any person or legal entity without your consent. You agree that we will have no liability after the effective date of transfer or assignment for the performance of, or for any failure to perform, any obligations we have transferred. We also have the absolute right to delegate the performance of any of our duties or obligations or assign any of our benefits under this Agreement to third parties that are not parties to an agreement with you.

6.02 Transfer by You.

This Agreement and the Franchise are personal to you and neither the Agreement, the Franchise, nor any part of the ownership of Franchise (which shall mean and include voting stock, securities convertible thereto, and proprietorship, general partnership, and limited liability company interests), or the assets of the Franchise, may be voluntarily, involuntarily, directly or indirectly assigned or otherwise transferred or encumbered by you or its owners (including without limitation, by will, declaration of or transfer in trust or the laws of intestate succession or by operation of law) without our prior written approval, and any such assignment, transfer, or encumbrance without such approval shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. We may void any unauthorized assignment, transfer, encumbrance or similar action by you. This Agreement does not give you the right to grant a distributorship, franchise, sub-franchise or similar right.

6.03 Conditions for Approval.

We have the right to reasonably withhold our approval of any person or entity that would have actual, legal, or effective control over the Franchise, including any designated Manager, (see also Section 4.08), upon a sale, exchange, transfer or change of ownership. There are several considerations that will impact our approval of a sale, exchange or transfer or change of control or ownership of your Franchise, including, but not limited to:

(a) Compliance. That you have substantially performed your past and current obligations and duties under this Agreement and must not then be in breach or default hereunder.

(b) Payments. That we, your landlord, your lender, and all of your other creditors are paid the sums you owe them, under this and all other agreements, including, but not limited to, obligations incurred but otherwise payable in the future.

(c) Release. That you agree to remain liable for all obligations and events which occurred prior to the transfer and to continue to be bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement which apply after termination or transfer, and that you and the transferee execute a general release of any and all claims against us, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

(d) New Agreement and Fee. That the transferee or assignee executes a new franchise agreement and other agreements and documents, all as then customarily being used by us in granting franchises to other franchisees, except that the transferee shall pay us a transfer and training fee ("Transfer Fee") in the amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) if they are a new owner, and Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) if they are an existing qualified owner, in lieu of any Franchise Fee.

(e) Assumption of Liabilities. That the transferee agrees to assume all liabilities and obligations from the prior operation of the Franchise and comply with other reasonable requirements we may impose.

(f) Governmental Compliance. That the transfer complies with all applicable laws.

(g) Potential for Damage to Franchisor. That the transfer, in our reasonable determination, will not introduce an undue likelihood of damage to the Franchisor or its business performance.

(h) Transferee or Assignee. That, in our reasonable judgment, the transferee(s) or assignee(s):

(1) possess good moral character;

(2) have the experience, skills, and temperament required to successfully operate a franchise;

(3) have adequate financial resources and liquid capital with which to upgrade and update the store to comply with the following subsection (3) and to operate the Franchise;

(4) meet our then-applicable standards for franchises, which include, but are not limited to: store design and layout, fixtures, equipment, computers and related software, signage, supplies, and inventory;

(5) are not then operating, franchising or licensing the operation of any other similar businesses, and shall not in the future;

(6) have completed the training requirements outlined in Subsection 3.04(a); and

(7) update all other franchise agreements to the current terms, conditions, promises, warranties, and representations found in this Agreement by signing the then-current form of the Franchise Agreement for all other Uptown Cheapskate, Kid to Kid and/or other resale-related affiliate stores they own. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for any such other agreements, the royalty rate will not increase, the expiration date of the initial agreement will not change, and the time frame for the remodeling requirements shall not be altered from the original agreements.

(i) Documents. That you must provide us with, and receive our approval for, all documents to be executed by us and the proposed assignee or transferee at least thirty (30) days prior to execution.

6.04 Uptown Cheapskate's Right of First Refusal.

Notwithstanding anything in this Article 6 to the contrary, if you or any of the owners of the Franchise propose to sell the Franchise or part or all of the ownership of the Franchise, you or the owners shall obtain and deliver to us a bona fide executed written offer to purchase the Franchise which shall, for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of such offer, give us the right, which may be exercised by written notice to you, to purchase the Franchise or such ownership for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in such offer; provided that we may substitute equivalent cash for any form of payment proposed in such offer (a "Right of First Refusal"). If we do not exercise our Right of First Refusal, the offer may be accepted by you, subject to our prior written approval as provided in Section 6.03. If we do not exercise our Right of First Refusal as described above and the contract contained in such offer is not consummated within sixty (60) days of the date of the offer, we shall again have the Right of First Refusal described herein.

6.05 Ownership Changes.

If you are a partnership, limited liability company or corporation, you agree to notify us of any change of partnership, membership, or stock ownership interests while this Agreement is in effect, which, together with all prior changes, constitutes a change of ten percent (10%) or more. Any such change that, together with all prior changes, constitutes a change of fifty percent (50%) or more shall be considered a transfer subject to the provisions of Sections 6.02, 6.03, and 6.04 hereof, unless such transfers of ownership are between immediate family members. You agree to provide to us the necessary documentation to substantiate any such ownership changes.

6.06 Death or Disability.

In the event that you or any guarantor under Section 9.02 should die or become permanently disabled, the administrator, executor, conservator or other personal representative of such person shall transfer his or her interest within a reasonable time, not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or permanent disability, to a third party we approve. If the business is assumed by a spouse or family member, they are required to complete all training modules as outlined in Section 4.08(c) within six (6) months of the transfer. Such transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions for assignments and transfers contained in Section 6.03 of this Agreement (with the exception of Subsection 6.03(d), which shall be excluded), and unless transferred by gift, devise or inheritance, subject to the terms of 6.04 of this Agreement. Failure to so dispose of such interest within said period of the time shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. Our consent to an assignment of any interest, subject to the restrictions of this Section, shall not constitute a waiver of any claims we may have against the assignor, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of our rights to demand exact compliance with any of the terms or conditions of the Franchise by the assignee. Pending assignment, the Franchise shall be operated by a competent and trained Manager appointed by the assignee or the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of the deceased or permanently disabled owner or guarantor that we approve. If a competent and trained Manager is not so appointed and approved within sixty (60) days after the death or permanent disability of you or a guarantor, then you shall be deemed in breach of this Agreement.

7. BREACH, DEFAULT, AND TERMINATION

7.01 Expiration.

This Agreement may be terminated pursuant to this Article and Section 11.03 and it shall terminate automatically at the end of its Term as specified in Section 1.02 unless it is renewed pursuant to Section 1.03.

7.02 Mutual Consent.

This Agreement may be terminated by mutual written consent of you and Uptown Cheapskate.

7.03 Termination by You.

(a) Without Opening. If you make a diligent effort, but are unsuccessful in obtaining the financing you have disclosed to us as necessary to purchase the Franchise, or have been unsuccessful in leasing or purchasing a suitable Store

Location as set forth in Section 3.01 hereof, you may terminate this Agreement by notifying us in writing within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the Effective Date.

(b) After Opening. The parties recognize that when a store closes, Uptown Cheapskate, the System, and its customers are injured. If you desire to discontinue operating your Store for any reason, you are encouraged to sell it to another qualified buyer. If you close your Store after it has been opened, without our written permission or consent, you shall pay us within thirty (30) days of the closure, as liquidated damages for the premature termination of this Agreement and not as a penalty, an amount equal to the highest average monthly royalty owed by your Store for each of the past three (3) years multiplied by the number of months remaining under the terms of this Agreement. We agree that this amount of stipulated damages is reasonable because it approximates the amount of injury, and the actual injury is uncertain.

Example (where there are three years remaining under the Agreement):

	3 Years Ago	2 Years Ago	Last Year
Average Monthly Sales	$50,000	$65,000	$60,000
Average Monthly Royalties	$2,500	$3,250	$3,000

The liquidated damages from closing the Store would be $117,000: 36 months multiplied by $3,250.

7.04 Breach by Uptown Cheapskate.

If you are in compliance with this Agreement, you may terminate this Agreement for a material breach or a material default of the Agreement by Uptown Cheapskate thirty (30) days after giving Uptown Cheapskate notice of such intent, specifying the breach or default, if the breach or default remains uncured at the end of the 30-day period; provided, however, that if the nature of Uptown Cheapskate's breach or default is such that more than thirty (30) days are reasonably required for performance or cure, then Uptown Cheapskate shall not be in breach or default if it commences performance within the thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently continues and cures the breach or default. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a termination of this Agreement by you without complying with the foregoing requirements, or for any reason other than Uptown Cheapskate's breach of this Agreement and failure to cure within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice thereof, shall be deemed a termination by you without cause and not in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

7.05 Breach by You.

If you breach this Agreement under the following circumstances, we shall have all rights and remedies permitted by law or equity, including the right of termination:

(a) Without Notice. We may terminate this Agreement without giving advance notice and without giving an opportunity to cure for any of the following breaches or defaults:

(1) Criminal Acts. Your criminal conviction or plea of guilty or no contest to fraudulent conduct, a felony, or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;

(2) Unauthorized Transfer. A transfer in violation of Article 6 of this Agreement;

(3) Voluntary Bankruptcy. If you make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, are adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, file or acquiesce in the filing of a petition seeking reorganization or arrangement under any federal or state bankruptcy or insolvency law, or consent to or acquiesce in the appointment of a trustee or receiver for you or your Franchise. Note, however, that the provisions of this paragraph (3) shall apply only to the extent they are enforceable in the state in which you live;

(4) Involuntary Bankruptcy. If proceedings are commenced to have you adjudicated as bankrupt or to seek to reorganize you under state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency law, and such proceedings are not dismissed within ninety (90) days, or a trustee or receiver is appointed for you or the Franchise without your consent and the appointment is not vacated within ninety (90) days;

(5) Bankruptcy of Guarantor, Partner, or Member. The occurrence of any event in items (3) and (4) above involving any guarantor, general partner (if you are a partnership), or member (if you are a limited liability company) under Section 9.02, but only if a new guarantor, partner or member is not substituted and approved in writing by us within thirty (30) days;

(6) Liens. Levy of a writ of attachment or execution or the placement of other liens against you or any guarantor under section 9.02 or any of their assets which is not released or bonded against within thirty (30) days;

(7) Insolvency. The insolvency of you or any guarantor under Section 9.02 in either the bankruptcy or equitable sense;

(8) Repeated Breaches. Breach, default or failure to comply with this Agreement by you on three or more occasions within any twelve (12) month period during the term, whether or not any of such breaches, defaults or failures to comply are corrected after notice thereof is delivered to you and whether or not they are the same, similar or different;

(9) Misrepresentations or Fraud. Any misrepresentation, material omission, or false representation, statement, warranty, guaranty, report, or claim, or fraudulent, unethical or dishonest conduct, distortion, act of concealment, or attempt at any of the foregoing, made by you in connection with obtaining the Franchise or this Agreement, or with respect to this Agreement or performance hereunder to us, our other franchisees, your Customers, vendors, and suppliers, and the general public, whether or not injury or loss results;

(10) Unsatisfied Judgment. A judgment is obtained against you which remains unsatisfied for a period of more than thirty (30) days after all rights of appeal have been exhausted;

(11) Laws. Violation by you of any fair trade practices, consumer protection, trade regulation or similar laws, ordinances or regulations; or

(12) Understated Gross Sales. Submission within any two (2) year period of three (3) or more monthly, quarterly, or annual financial statements, reports, sales, income tax returns, or other reports to us that understate by two percent (2%) or more the Gross Sales or other material information they contain;

(b) With Notice. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, we may terminate this Agreement thirty (30) days after giving you written notice specifying the following breaches or defaults by you if they remain uncured at the end of the 30-day period:

(1) Nonpayment. Failure to pay when due any sum that is owed to us or our affiliates under this Agreement;

(2) Misconduct. Any misuse of the Marks, Proprietary Information or Marketing Information, or conduct which reflects unfavorably upon the operation or reputation of you, the Franchise, Uptown Cheapskate, or our other franchisees;

(3) Licensing. Failure of you or your employees to have any permit, license, or authorization necessary for the operation of the Franchise or for performance under this Agreement;

(4) Operating Procedures. Failure to adhere to any Standard, requirement, operating procedure or rule we prescribe in the Training and Operations Tools or elsewhere;

(5) Code of Conduct. Failure to treat us, fellow franchisees, or our affiliate BaseCamp's staff, vendors, or Customers with professionalism or respect;

or exhibiting to those individuals harassing language or behavior, whether it be sexual or non-sexual in nature, or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive workplace or relationship; or

(6) Others. Default, breach, or failure to comply with or perform any of your obligations, agreements, covenants, promises, representations, warranties or requirements under this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us.

8. RIGHTS AND DUTIES UPON TRANSFER OR TERMINATION

You agree that upon termination of this Agreement or upon the sale, transfer, or assignment of the Franchise or this Agreement by you, the following shall occur:

(a) Acceleration of Payments to Us and Others. All money you owe us, the Uptown Cheapskate Marketing Fund, and any other of your creditors arising from or related to the Franchise business, shall be immediately due and payable.

(b) Franchise Revoked. All rights and licenses granted to you under this Agreement shall terminate.

(c) Forfeiture of Funds. All funds held in connection with the NMP or NSS, the Local Advertising Cooperative, or other accounts shall be forfeited.

(d) Use of Marks. You shall cease using the Marks, including the use of any Mark as part of any corporate or other name, as well as all confidential information relating to the Franchise (including Proprietary Information and Marketing Information), and you shall cease doing business or in any manner identifying or advertising yourself as a franchisee of Uptown Cheapskate.

(e) Products and Supplies. You shall cease using and shall, upon our instructions, destroy or deliver to us (or another party we designate) all copyrighted material, Training and Operations Tools, and all other items which are our property.

(f) Signs. You shall immediately remove or destroy all signs, posters, sheets, placards, cards, nameplates, names or similar items which designate you as an authorized franchisee or which include any Mark.

(g) Telephone, Email, and Social Media. You shall cease using all telephone numbers, email and social media accounts or listings used in connection with the Franchise, transfer all such numbers, accounts and listings to us or another party we designate and promptly direct and authorize the vendors to make such transfers or, if we direct, to disconnect the numbers, and/or terminate service.

(h) Publications. You shall immediately notify and instruct publications and persons who may publish your name or the names of any of your employees as an authorized franchise of Uptown Cheapskate, to discontinue such listings.

(i) Registrations. Take such action as may be required to cancel all of your assumed names, business names, corporate names, trade names, trademarks, service marks and all equivalent registrations which use the Marks, in part or in whole.

(j) Modify Property. If you retain possession of any business properties, you shall make such alterations and modifications as are necessary to prevent identification as a franchise of Uptown Cheapskate.

(k) Custom Fixtures. We shall have the right to approve or deny the sale or transfer of custom designed racks, counters, bookcases, logo hangers, processing carts, and other fixtures.

(l) Power of Attorney. You hereby irrevocably appoint us as your attorney-in-fact to execute in your name and on your behalf all documents necessary to discontinue your use of the Marks.

(m) Non-competition, Proprietary Information, and Marketing Information. You shall continue to be bound by all of the provisions of Sections 5.05 and 5.06 hereof.

(n) Execution of Documents. You shall comply with all applicable laws and shall execute and deliver all documents necessary to vest title and ownership to us or our nominee, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except those assumed by us.

(o) Delivery of Documents. You shall deliver promptly to us or any party we designate, all files, memoranda, research, forms, tapes, videos, Proprietary Information, Marketing Information and other documents and information supplied to or developed or created by you in connection with the Franchise (including all copies of the foregoing) in your possession or control, and acknowledge that all such documents and information are and remain our sole and exclusive property.

(p) Discontinuance of Payments. We, rather than you, shall be entitled to all payments and compensation from Customers on sales made after the termination date.

(q) Notification to Landlord. You grant us the right to notify your landlord that the franchise agreement is terminated.

(r) Other Rights. We shall have all other appropriate rights and remedies permitted by this Agreement, whether at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, damages, injunctions, and restraining orders.

9. RELATIONSHIPS

9.01 Relationship of Parties.

You and we acknowledge that the relationship created under this Agreement is that of independent contractors. This Agreement does not create the relationship of principal and agent or employer and employee between the parties, and under no circumstances shall either party or their agents be considered the agents of the other party. Neither you nor we shall act or represent ourselves, directly or by implication, as agent or employee of the other, or in any manner assume or attempt to assume or create any obligation or make a contract, agreement, representation or warranty on behalf of or in the name of the other, except to the extent authorized in writing by the other, and except as otherwise specified in this Agreement. Except as provided in this Agreement, neither you nor we shall guarantee the obligations of the other or become obligated for the debts or expenses of the other. Neither you nor we shall share in the profits of the other, except as provided under this Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, you shall be responsible for the success, management and control of the Franchise business, including, without limitation, directing its daily operations, determining the specific means of achieving performance guidelines, directing and managing your Associates, paying all costs and expenses associated with the business, purchasing all necessary supplies, samples, inventory, products, materials and other items, and obtaining necessary financing and other matters.

9.02 Legal Entity of Franchisee.

If you are a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, or other business entity, or if this Agreement or the Franchise is assigned to a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, or other business entity, such corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, or other business entity shall conduct no business other than the Franchise and other franchises of Uptown Cheapskate under franchise agreements with us, as well as franchises of Kid to Kid and/or other resale-related affiliate stores, and shall not engage in any public offering of its securities unless we, in our sole discretion, consent to such offering.

All individuals, partnerships and their general partners, corporations and their officers, directors and shareholders, limited liability companies and their members, joint ventures and their individual joint venturers, businesses or entities, whether their interest is direct or indirect, shall, prior to the execution, assignment and/or transfer of this Agreement:

(a) execute this Agreement and be bound jointly and severally by all the provisions it contains;

(b) reveal, represent and warrant their percentage ownership interest in the Franchise and/or any entities, which may own it;

(c) warrant that they are all of the persons required to sign this Agreement pursuant to this Section and the rules governing their respective entities;

(d) furnish to us the financial information we require;

(e) sign a separate written consent to a credit check which is identical or similar to Appendix "C", which is attached to and made a part of this Agreement;

(f) agree to the restrictions and obligations placed on them by this Agreement (including without limitation, the restrictions on the transfer of their interests in the Franchise, confidentiality, and ability to compete);

(g) execute a separate written guarantee of your payments and performance under the terms of this Agreement on a form similar to that shown in Appendix "D", which is attached to and made a part of this Agreement; and

(h) provide us with the partnership or joint venture agreement, operating agreement, articles of incorporation, bylaws and other organizational documents of such partnerships, joint ventures, limited liability companies and corporations, which shall, to the extent permitted by law, recite that the issuance and transfer of any interest therein is subject to the restrictions of Article 6 hereof. All issued and outstanding partnership certificates, membership certificates, stock certificates of such entities must include a legend referring to the restrictions contained in this Agreement.

If you, as Franchisee, are an entity, then the beneficial owners of such entity must identify from among them a natural person to act as "Designated Representative". The Designated Representative shall have full authority to act on behalf of the Franchisee in all matters related to the performance of this Agreement. Uptown Cheapskate may rely upon any and all directions, elections, information and other communications from the Designated Representative as being made on behalf of the Franchisee, even if Uptown Cheapskate receives information from any other owner or person who claims to have an ownership interest in the Franchisee, or any other person whatsoever, which may be contrary to or different from the information provided by the Designated Representative. Uptown Cheapskate has no duty or obligation to inquire into or resolve any conflicting information provided by the Designated Representative and any other person on behalf of the Franchisee. Further, to the extent that any other beneficial owner of the Franchisee violates the terms of this Agreement, the Designated Representative will be responsible for helping to enforce all remedies and collecting and transmitting to Uptown Cheapskate all remuneration associated with the damages caused by such violations. To the extent the Designated Representative is unable to collect such remuneration, the Designated Representative will be held liable for those damages.

The Designated Representative must at all times beneficially own, either directly or indirectly, at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the Franchisee and, as a condition to this Agreement, must personally execute Appendix "D", which is attached to and made a part of this Agreement. If, during the Term of this Agreement, the Designated Representative is not able to continue to serve in their capacity as Designated Representative, the Franchisee shall promptly notify Uptown Cheapskate and, within thirty (30) days after the Designated Representative ceases to serve, provide evidence satisfactory to Uptown Cheapskate that owners of more than fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests in the Franchisee have designated a duly qualified replacement to act as Designated Representative from that point forward. Such replacement will also be required to execute Appendix "D" within thirty (30) days of appointment. Any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 9.02 shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, all beneficial owners of the Franchisee, whether they serve as Designated Representative or not, must agree to be subject to the terms of this Agreement, including and especially those outlined in Section 5.05 and Section 5.06.

9.03 Notice of Potential Profit.

We advise you that we and/or our affiliates periodically may make available to you goods, products and/or services for use in the Store, and may make a profit on the sale of such goods, products and/or services. We further advise you that we and our affiliates periodically may receive consideration from suppliers and manufacturers respecting sales of goods, products or services to you or in consideration for services provided or rights licensed to such persons. You agree that we and our affiliates will be entitled to such profits and consideration.

10. ENFORCEMENT

10.01 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Mediation. Except as otherwise stated in this Subsection 10.01(a), we reserve the right in our sole discretion to submit any claim, controversy or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement (and attachments) or the relationship created by this Agreement to non-binding mediation before bringing such claim, controversy or dispute to arbitration or to a court. The mediation will be conducted either through an individual mediator or a mediator appointed by a mediation services organization, experienced in the mediation of similar disputes as may arise between you and us, and such mediator will be agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree on a mediator or mediation services organization within fifteen (15) days after either party has notified the other of its desire to seek mediation, the dispute will be mediated by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) pursuant to its rules governing mediation, in the county where our headquarters is located. Before commencing any legal action against us with respect to any such claim or dispute, you must submit a notice to us, which specifies, in detail, the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute. We will have a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice within which to notify you as to whether we elect to exercise our option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation. You may not commence any action against us with respect to any such claim or dispute in any arbitration proceeding unless we fail to exercise our option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation, or such mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by us. The costs and expenses of mediation, including compensation of the mediator, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve the claim, controversy or dispute within sixty (60) days after conferring with the mediator, either party may submit such claim or controversy for binding arbitration as described in Subsection 10.01(b) below. We may bring an action under the applicable provisions of this Section 10, without first submitting the action to mediation under this Subsection 10.01(a), for injunctive relief or for monies you owe us.

(b) Arbitration. Except to the extent we elect to enforce the provisions of this Agreement by injunction as provided in Subsection 10.01(c) below, all disputes, claims and controversies between the parties arising under or in connection with this Agreement or the making, performance or interpretation thereof (including validity or enforceability of this Agreement or any provisions hereof, claims of fraud in the inducement, and other claims of fraud in the arbitrability of any matter) that have not been settled by or are not otherwise subject to mediation as described in Subsection 10.01(a) above will be resolved by arbitration on an individual basis under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act in the county where our headquarters is located. The proceedings will be conducted by a single arbitrator under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, or the rules of such other arbitration services organization as the parties otherwise may agree upon in writing, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision or the Federal Arbitration Act. The arbitrator will have a minimum of five (5) years' experience in franchising or distribution law and will have the right to award specific performance of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on all parties; provided, however, the arbitrator may not under any circumstances: (1) stay the effectiveness of any pending termination of this Agreement; (2) assess punitive or exemplary damages; or (3) make any award that extends, modifies or suspends any lawful term of this Agreement or any reasonable standard of business performance we establish. Any arbitration proceeding will be limited to controversies between you and us, and will not be expanded to include any other Uptown Cheapskate franchisee, Kid to Kid franchisee, or include any class action claims. This Section 10.01 will survive termination or nonrenewal of this Agreement. Judgment upon the award of an arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. During any arbitration proceeding, we and you will fully perform our respective obligations under this Agreement. The parties agree that all arbitration proceedings, including any arbitration award or ruling, will be confidential in nature, except as otherwise required by law or court order or as necessary to confirm, vacate or enforce the award and for disclosure in confidence to the parties' respective attorneys and tax advisors. The costs and expenses of arbitration, including compensation and expenses of the arbitrators, shall be borne exclusively by the non-prevailing party, including those incurred by the prevailing party.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding Subsections 10.01(a) and 10.01(b) above, you recognize that a single franchisee's failure to comply with the terms of its agreement could cause irreparable damage to us and/or to some or all other Uptown Cheapskate businesses. Therefore, if you breach or threaten to breach any of the terms of this Agreement, then, to the greatest extent permitted by applicable law, we will be entitled to an injunction restraining such breach and/or a decree of specific performance, without showing or proving any actual or irreparable damage and without the need to post bond for security, together with recovery of reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in obtaining such equitable relief, until such time as a final and binding determination is made by the arbitrator or the matter has been mutually deemed resolved.

(d) Venue. Subject to the provisions of Sections 10.01(a) and 10.01(b) above, any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to this Agreement or the relationship of the parties, must be brought exclusively in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction in the county where our headquarters is located. We also have the right to file any such suit against you in the federal or state court where the Store is located. Any such action will be conducted on an individual basis, and not as part of a consolidated, common, or class action, and you and your owners waive any and all rights to proceed on a consolidated, common, or class basis. Each of us and you irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive all rights to challenge personal jurisdiction and venue.

(e) Attorneys' Fees. The non-prevailing party will pay all costs, expenses, and interest, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that the prevailing party incurs in any action brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement or to enjoin any violation of this Agreement.

10.02 Waivers.

We assume no liability or obligation to you by granting any waiver, approval, and consent to you, or by reason of any neglect, delay or denial of any request therefore. No waiver of any breach of any agreement, condition, covenant, promise, representation, warranty or term in this Agreement shall constitute a continuing waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other agreement, condition, covenant, promise, representation, warranty or term. Any waiver of any provision of this Agreement must be written and signed by the waiving party to be enforceable.

Failure of either party to enforce any of the provisions of, or rights and elections associated with, this Agreement, or failure to exercise any election provided for within it, shall not be considered a waiver of such provisions, rights, or elections, or in any way affect the validity of this Agreement. The failure of you or Uptown Cheapskate to exercise any of the provisions, rights, or elections shall not preclude or prejudice such party from later enforcing or exercising the right or any other provisions, rights, or elections which it may have under this Agreement.

10.03 Mutual Waiver of Class Actions.

Any lawsuit, claim, counterclaim, or other action must be conducted only on an individual basis, and must not be as part of a consolidated, common, or class action. YOU HEREBY AGREE NOT TO SEEK JOINDER OF ANY OF YOUR CLAIMS WITH THOSE OF ANY OTHER PARTY.

10.04 Mutual Waiver of Jury Trial.

YOU AND WE IRREVOCABLY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, BROUGHT BY EITHER OF THEM AGAINST THE OTHER, WHETHER OR NOT THERE ARE OTHER PARTIES IN SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING.

10.05 Mutual Waiver of Punitive Damages.

EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 7.03(B), EACH OF US WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO LOST FUTURE PROFITS OR CLAIM OF PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, MULTIPLE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER IN ARBITRATION AND/OR LITIGATION AND AGREES TO BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED.

10.06 Time Period to Bring Claims.

Except as otherwise provided in this Section 10.06, and except for those claims brought under the indemnification in Article 16 or Section 2.16, any and all Claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship between you and us, or your operation of the Franchise brought by any party hereto against the other must be commenced before the expiration of the earlier of: (a) the time period for bringing an action under any applicable state or federal statute of limitations; (b) one (1) year after the date upon which a party discovered, or should have discovered, the facts giving rise to an alleged Claim; or (c) two (2) years after the first act or omission giving rise to an alleged Claim. In all other cases, it is expressly acknowledged and agreed by all parties that such Claims shall be irrevocably barred. Claims attributable to your underreporting of sales, and claims of your failure to pay monies owed and/or to provide indemnification, shall be subject only to the applicable state or federal statute of limitations. As used in this Section 10.06, "Claim" means any allegation, challenge, demand, cause of action, lawsuit, arbitration, dispute, controversy, investigation or administrative proceeding.

11. INTERPRETATION, MODIFICATION, AND SUBSTITUTION

11.01 Construction of Language.

The language of this Agreement shall be construed according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against either party. All words in this Agreement refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If you consist of more than one party or person, your obligations shall be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation.

The following provisions will apply to and govern the interpretation of this Agreement, the parties' rights under this Agreement and the relationship between the parties:

(a) Our Rights. Whenever this Agreement provides that we reserve or retain a certain right, that right is absolute and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Our Reasonable Business Judgment. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree or are required to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise reasonable business judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. A decision or action by us will be deemed to be the result of reasonable business judgment, even if other reasonable or arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended to promote or benefit the System generally. This holds even if the decision or action also promotes a financial or other individual interest of ours. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include enhancing the value of the Marks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization, and improving the competitive position of the System. Neither you nor any third party (including a trier of fact), will substitute their own judgment for our reasonable business judgment.

11.02 Governing Law.

Subject to our rights under federal trademark laws, this Agreement and the relationship between the parties shall be governed by and will be construed exclusively in accordance with the procedural and substantive laws of the State of Utah. Nothing in this Section 11.02 is intended by the parties to subject this Agreement to any franchise, business opportunity, antitrust consumer protection or similar law, rule or regulation to which this Agreement would not otherwise be subject. The parties agree that any state law or regulation applicable to the offer or sale of franchises or the franchise relationship will not apply unless the jurisdictional provisions are independently met. You waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and protections provided by any such franchise law or regulation.

11.03 Severability.

You and we agree that if any provision of this Agreement is capable of two constructions, one which would render the provision illegal, voidable or unenforceable and the other which would render the provision valid and enforceable, the provision shall have the meaning which is enforceable. If any provision of this Agreement is deemed to be invalid, inoperative or contrary to law for any reason, that provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to make it valid, operative and consistent with the law, or if it cannot be so modified, then severed and eliminated, and the remainder of the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect as if the Agreement had been signed with the invalid portion so modified or eliminated; provided, however, that if any part of this Agreement relating to payments to us or protection of the Marks, Proprietary Information or Marketing Information is declared invalid, unenforceable or contrary to law, then we, at our option, may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to you.

11.04 Entire Agreement.

The recitals are a part of this Agreement which constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter addressed within it, and all prior and contemporaneous statements, agreements, understandings, conditions, warranties and representations, whether written or oral, except to the extent otherwise set forth in this Agreement, as may relate to the Franchise, are hereby superseded by this Agreement. Nothing contained within this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

11.05 Modification.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, no provision contained within it may be altered, modified, amended or changed, in whole or in part, except within a written document executed by both you and us.

11.06 Successors.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Agreement shall be binding on the respective parties, their heirs, successors, assignees, transferees, grantees, executors, personal representatives, and administrators.

11.07 Cumulative Rights.

Your rights and our rights are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by you or us of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by you or us of any other right or remedy hereunder or to which the party is entitled by law or equity to enforce.

11.08 Acknowledgment of Receipt of Documents.

You acknowledge that you knowingly and truthfully executed Appendix "E", which is attached to this document and is made a part of it, or a document identical to it, and that in Appendix "E" you acknowledge various risks, agree to certain provisions, and acknowledge receipt of this Agreement together with all Appendixes and other documents as noted therein.

11.09 Further Acknowledgments.

YOU REPRESENT THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS AGREEMENT AND UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE'S FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT IN THEIR ENTIRETY, AND THAT YOU HAVE BEEN GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO CLARIFY ANY PROVISIONS AND INFORMATION THAT YOU DID NOT UNDERSTAND AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY OR OTHER PROFESSIONAL ADVISOR. YOU FURTHER REPRESENT THAT YOU UNDERSTAND THE TERMS, CONDITIONS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE FRANCHISE AND AGREE TO BE BOUND THEREBY.

NO PERSON HAS THE AUTHORITY TO BIND OR OBLIGATE UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE EXCEPT AN AUTHORIZED OFFICER OF UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE BY A WRITTEN DOCUMENT. NO REPRESENTATIONS, PROMISES, GUARANTEES OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WERE MADE BY UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE OR ITS REPRESENTATIVES EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. YOU UNDERSTAND THAT YOUR SUCCESS AS A FRANCHISEE WILL DEPEND ON YOUR OWN EFFORTS AND JUDGMENT, YOUR ABILITY TO FOLLOW FRANCHISE SYSTEMS, AND THE SERVICES OF THOSE YOU EMPLOY.

YOU UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE HAS NO OBLIGATION TO ACCEPT THIS AGREEMENT AND MAY REFUSE TO GRANT A FRANCHISE FOR ANY REASON, OR NO REASON, WITHOUT DISCLOSING THE BASIS FOR ITS DECISION. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT UNLESS AND UNTIL UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE NOTIFIES YOU IN WRITING THAT YOU HAVE BEEN GRANTED A FRANCHISE, YOU ARE NOT A FRANCHISEE AND MAY NOT RELY ON BECOMING A FRANCHISEE.

Each Co-op Member in good standing with UC is entitled to one vote for each store they own. Only Members who attend the meeting (either in person, virtually, or by telephone) may vote. Members who are not able to attend and have an approved absence (illness, emergency, work related travel) may vote by proxy by another cooperative member or their manager, or may attend and vote telephonically. Members who do not attend meetings are not entitled to vote on the issues discussed. Should a vote be required, a majority of votes are necessary. UC retains the right to create, change, or dissolve the Co-op to ensure that all Co-op Members are treated fairly and that its actions are consistent with franchise standards.

ARTICLE 5: CONTRIBUTIONS

Each Member hereby agrees to contribute a monthly "Cooperative Contribution" of four percent (4%) of Gross Sales for the prior calendar month, but in no even shall the Contribution be less than Minimum Cooperative Fee of $2,000 nor greater than the Maximum Cooperative Fee of $5,000. Gross Sales shall be reported to UC as required by Section 2 of the franchise agreement and the Contribution shall be available for electronic withdrawal and deposit into a Cooperative-controlled bank account by the twentieth (20th) day of each calendar month.

A majority of the Co-op Members shall determine how the Contributions shall be spent and the Co-op Officers shall ensure that those directives are carried out.

Co-op Officers shall be elected for two-year terms by a majority vote by the Members. If voting does not produce a majority, UC maintains the right to cast an additional vote. The officers and their duties shall be:

The President will create an agenda, prepare or coordinate materials, arrange for guest presentations, and oversee the meetings.

The primary purpose of the meetings will be to determine where to place marketing dollars to build store sales. Meetings will typically include presentations by outside vendors, allowing Members to explore cooperative marketing options including, but not limited to, outdoor advertising, television or radio, local magazines or publications, fairs, expos, social media management, digital advertising, search engine optimization, online reviews, etc. Meetings will typically also include discussion of best practices, management techniques, customer service tips, and exchange of ideas among Members. They may also include opportunities to place cooperative orders for new product, supplies, or purchase products on-site from local vendors.

A majority (i.e. at least 50%) of the Members shall be deemed to constitute a quorum for all purposes except as otherwise provided in Article 10, below.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec 101 et seq).

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the Franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California Law.

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

The Franchise Agreement requires arbitration in Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs for the mediator to be shared between the parties. Each party is responsible for their own witness and attorney's fees. Damages are limited to the termination of the Franchise Agreement and an award not to exceed the Franchise Fee paid.

Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 200409.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code §31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code §31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code §20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code §20000 through 20043).

Neither the franchisor, any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any National Securities Association of National Securities Exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 79 a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such Association or exchange.

Franchisor's affiliate BaseCamp Franchising, LLC does not have authority as a lender in California, and as a result, Exhibit J – Loan does not apply to franchises sold in California or to California residents.

The maximum interest rate to be charged in California is 10%.

Before the franchisor can ask you to materially modify your existing franchise agreement, Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the franchisor to file a material modification application with the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation that includes a disclosure document showing the existing terms and the proposed new terms of your franchise agreement. Once the application is registered, the franchisor must provide you with that disclosure document with an explanation that the changes are voluntary.

Revise 3.10.114.1(c)(1) - California Instructions for the UFOC, to add Corporations Code section 31119 language "14 DAYS PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT" at end of statement.

OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

The California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation requires that the franchisor defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until the franchisor has completed all its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement and franchisee is open for business. For any development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fee attributable to a specific unit is deferred until that unit is open.

No statement, questionnaire, disclaimer or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall be construed or interpreted as waiving any claim of fraud in the inducement, whether common law or statutory, or as disclaiming reliance on or the right to rely upon any statement made or information provided by any franchisor, broker or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor that was material inducement to a franchisee's investment. Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee's understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee's investment decision. This provision supersedes any other or inconsistent term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the Commissioner.

ILLINOIS ADDENDUM TO THE UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

There are "standards" applicable to your ability to receive Computer Support services and Technical Support from the Franchisor's affiliate. Make sure you understand the standards, along with the additional fees/expenses you will incur for each type of computer and technical support if you do not meet the standards.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document excluded in connection with the franchise.

MINNESOTA MODIFICATIONS TO THE
UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

State Cover Page and Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document shall abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

Franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. A court will determine if a bond is required.

Item 6, Additional Disclosure:

NSF checks are governed by Minn. Stat. 604.113, which puts a cap of $30 on service charges.

Item 13, Additional Disclosures:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that a franchisor indemnify Minnesota Franchisees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of the franchisor's trademark infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. The franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of a franchisor's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the franchise agreement, and as the condition to an indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to the franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to the franchisor. If the franchisor accepts tender of defense, the franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any condition, stipulation or provision, including any choice of law provision, purporting to bind any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of the State of Minnesota or in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in the State of Minnesota to waive compliance or which has the effect of waiving compliance with any provision of the Minnesota Franchise Law is void.

We will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subs. 3, 4 and 5, which requires, except in certain specified cases, that a franchisee be given 90 days notice of termination (with 60 days to cure), 180 days notice for nonrenewal of the Franchise Agreement, and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

Minnesota Rule 2860.4400D prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§80C.01 – 80C.22.

The limitations of claims section must comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.17, subd. 5.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 4 which requires that except for certain specified cases, that franchisee be given 180 days' notice for non-renewal of this Franchise Agreement.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of franchisor's trademarks ("Marks") infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of franchisor's trademark but franchisor shall indemnify franchisee for claims against franchisee solely as it relates to franchisee's use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor's standards. As a further condition to indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If franchisor accepts tender of defense, franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Franchisee consents to the franchisor seeking injunctive relief without the necessity of showing actual or threatened harm. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

4. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document excluded in connection with the franchise.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date Franchisor signs below.

NEW YORK MODIFICATIONS TO THE UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

The following additions and modifications to this franchise disclosure document have been made to clarify it.

- 1) The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THAT INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. IF YOU LEARN THAT ANYTHING IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT IS UNTRUE, CONTACT THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE APPROPRIATE STATE OR PROVINCIAL AUTHORITY. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

- 2) The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

With the exception of what is stated above, the following applies to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

- A. No such party has pending any administrative, criminal or material civil action (or significant number of civil actions irrespective of materiality) alleging a violation of any franchise law, antitrust or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, restraint of trade, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil, felony or misdemeanor allegations.
- B. No such party has any pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.
- C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree related to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3) The following is added to the end of the "Summary" sections of Item 17(c), titled "requirements for a franchisee to renew or extend," and Item 17(m), entitled "Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer":

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this provision that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4) The following language replaces the "Summary" section of Item 17(d), titled "Termination by franchisee": You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5) The following is added to the end of "Summary" sections of Item 17(v), titled "Choice of forum," and Item 17(w), titled "Choice of law":

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York

6) Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements—No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

- 7) Receipt—Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (1) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

STATE OF NEW YORK
FRANCHISE SALES AGENT STATEMENT

No other person other than those listed in Section 2 of the Disclosure Statement is a Franchise Salesman for Uptown Cheapskate®. Hence, all material required in this Statement is found in the Disclosure Statement.

NORTH DAKOTA MODIFICATIONS TO THE
UPTOWN CHEAPSKATE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, N.D. Cent. Code, §§51-19-01 – 51-19-17 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

Any release executed in connection with a renewal shall not apply to any claims that may arise under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Covenants not to compete during the term of and upon termination or expiration of the franchise agreement are enforceable only under certain conditions according to North Dakota law. If the Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that is inconsistent with North Dakota law, the covenant may be unenforceable.

The choice of law other than the State of North Dakota may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. If the laws of a state other than North Dakota govern, to the extent that such law conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will control.

The waiver of punitive or exemplary damages may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

The waiver of trial by jury may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

The requirement that arbitration be held outside the State of North Dakota may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Any mediation or arbitration will be held at a site agreeable to all parties.

The requirement that a franchisee consent to termination or liquidated damages has been determined by the Commissioner to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement states that franchisee must consent to the jurisdiction of courts located outside the State of North Dakota. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims. To the extent this requirement conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will apply.

Franchise Agreement stipulates that the franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by Franchisor in enforcing the agreement. For North Dakota franchisees, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees.

All initial fees and payments owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes all initial obligations owed to franchisee under the franchise agreement or other documents have been fulfilled by the franchisor and the franchisee has commenced doing business pursuant to the franchise agreement.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Uptown Cheapskate Franchise System, LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17.h.

WASHINGTON FRANCHISE AGREEMENT ADDENDUM AND ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The franchisor may use the services of franchise brokers to assist in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the Franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until (a) franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations to the franchisee, and (b) is open for business.

Section 9.03. The "profit and consideration" referenced in this section will comply with RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

Section 11.01(b). In accordance with RCW 19.100.180(1), revise entire subsection to the following:

"(b) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith."

Section 11.02. In accordance with RCW 19.100.180(2)(g) and RCW 19.100.220(2), Delete the last sentence of this section: "You waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and protections provided by any such franchise law or regulation."

The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this addendum.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries (a limited liability company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 and the related consolidated statements of operations and member's equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2023, and for the period from July 15, 2022 (inception) through December 31, 2022, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2023, and for the period from July 15, 2022 (inception) through December 31, 2022 are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

BASECAMP FRANCHISE HOLDINGS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(A Limited Liability Company)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31 2023, AND 2022

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF OPERATIONS

BaseCamp Franchise Holdings, LLC and Subsidiaries (the "Company" or "BaseCamp Holdings"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of BaseCamp Parent, LLC (the "Parent"), was formed on July 15, 2022, as a Delaware limited liability company to be the holding company for its wholly-owned subsidiary, BaseCamp Franchising, LLC ("BaseCamp") and BaseCamp's wholly-owned subsidiaries, Uptown Cheapskate Franchise System, LLC ("Uptown") and Kid to Kid Franchise System, LLC ("Kid to Kid").

BaseCamp was formed on July 15, 2022, as a Delaware limited liability company, to hold the Company's intellectual property as further described in Note 12, as well as to provide support services to Uptown, Kid to Kid and their respective franchisees.

Uptown was formed on July 15, 2022, as a Delaware limited liability company. Uptown is the franchisor of the Uptown Cheapskate name and system. Franchisees of Uptown operate businesses under the "Uptown Cheapskate" name and system, which is a retailer of used and new young adult, teen, and junior products.

Kid to Kid was formed on July 15, 2022, as a Delaware limited liability company. Kid to Kid is the franchisor of the Kid to Kid name and system. Franchisees of Kid to Kid operate businesses under the "Kid to Kid" name and system, which is a retailer of used and new children's products and maternity items.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of BaseCamp Holdings, BaseCamp, Uptown and Kid to Kid. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Basis of accounting

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Use of estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue and cost recognition

The Company derives substantially all its revenue from franchise agreements related to franchise fee revenue, transfer fees, royalty revenue, technology fees, bookkeeping fees, software fees, equipment fixture revenues, and marketing fund and service revenue. Additionally, the Company earns revenue for the facilitation of the sale of furniture and fixtures to the franchisees from a third-party supplier.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Franchise fees, royalties and other franchise-related fees

Contract consideration from franchisees consists primarily of initial or renewal franchise fees, sales-based royalties, sales-based marketing fund fees, technology fees, bookkeeping fees, software fees, and transfer fees by a franchisee for the transfer of their franchise unit to another franchisee. The initial franchise fees are nonrefundable and collectible when the underlying franchise agreement is signed by the franchisee. Sales-based royalties, sales-based marketing fund fees, technology fees and bookkeeping fees are payable monthly. Software fees are due from franchisees when the installation of the software occurs. Renewal and transfer fees are due from franchisees when an existing franchisee renews the franchise agreement for an additional term or when a transfer to a third party occurs, respectively.

The Company's primary performance obligation under the franchise agreement includes granting certain rights to the Company's intellectual property in addition to a variety of activities relating to opening a franchise unit. Those services include training and other such activities commonly referred to collectively as "pre-opening activities". Pre-opening activities consistent with those under the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2021-02, Franchisors—Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) ("ASU 2021-02"), are recognized as a single performance obligation. For all other pre-opening activities, if any, the Company will determine if a certain portion of those pre-opening activities provided is not brand specific and provides the franchisee with relevant general business information that is separate from the operation of a Company-branded franchise unit. The portion of pre-opening activities that is not brand specific will be deemed to be distinct, as it provides a benefit to the franchisee and is not highly interrelated to the use of the Company's intellectual property, and will therefore be accounted for as a separate performance obligation. All other pre-opening activities are highly interrelated to the use of the Company's intellectual property and will therefore be accounted for as a single performance obligation, which is satisfied by granting certain rights to use the Company's intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement.

The Company estimates the stand-alone selling price of pre-opening activities using an adjusted market assessment approach. The Company first allocates the initial franchise fees and the fixed consideration under the franchise agreement to the stand-alone selling price of the pre-opening activities and the residual, if any, to the right to access the Company's intellectual property. Consideration allocated to pre-opening activities, other than those included under ASU 2021-02, which are not brand specific is recognized ratably as those services are rendered. Consideration allocated to pre-opening activities that are not brand specific are recognized when those performance obligations are satisfied.

Initial and renewal franchise fees allocated to the right to access the Company's intellectual property are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective franchise agreement.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Franchise fees, royalties and other franchise-related fees (continued)

Royalties are earned as a percentage of franchisee gross sales ("sales-based royalties") over the term of the franchise agreement, as defined in each respective franchise agreement. Franchise royalties which represent sales-based royalties that are related entirely to the use of the Company's intellectual property are recognized as franchisee sales occur and the royalty is deemed collectible.

Marketing fund

The Company maintains a marketing fund established to collect and administer funds contributed for use in marketing programs for franchise units. Marketing fund income is collected from franchisees based on a percentage of franchisee gross sales. The Company has determined that it acts as a principal in the collection and administration of the marketing fund and therefore recognizes the revenues and expenses related to the marketing fund on a gross basis. The Company has determined that the right to access its intellectual property and administration of the marketing fund are highly interrelated and therefore will be accounted for as a single performance obligation. As a result, revenues from the marketing fund will represent sales-based revenue related to the funding of advertising and marketing initiatives to the benefit of the franchisees, which will be recognized as franchisee sales occur.

If marketing fund income exceeds the related marketing fund expenses in a reporting period, advertising costs will be accrued up to the amount of marketing fund revenues recognized.

Fixture equipment revenues

Revenues from the sale of fixture equipment are recognized when control of the promised good is transferred to the franchisee upon delivery. The Company has elected to treat shipping and handling as fulfillment activities and not as a separate performance obligation at the point of sale or at the time of delivery, which is when transfer of control to the franchisee occurs and the related revenue is recognized.

Cost of revenues in connection with the sale of fixtures for the year ended December 31, 2023, amounted to $228,411 and are included in "Selling, general, and administrative expenses excluding depreciation and amortization" in the accompanying statements of operations and changes in member's equity. Shipping costs amounted to $60,936 for the year ended December 31, 2023 and are included in the cost of revenues. There were no sales of fixture equipment for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Other revenues

The Company recognizes revenue from other fees and other services provided to the franchisees as a single performance obligation, when the services are rendered.

Incremental costs of obtaining a contract

The Company capitalizes direct and incremental costs, principally consisting of commissions, associated with the sale of franchises and amortizes them over the term of the franchise agreement.

(A Limited Liability Company)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31 2023, AND 2022

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Accounts receivable

The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts and changes in the allowance are included in selling, general and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of operations and member's equity. The Company assesses collectibility by reviewing its accounts receivable and its contract assets on a collective basis where similar risk characteristics exist. In determining the amount of the allowance for doubtful accounts, management considers historical collectibility and makes judgments about the creditworthiness of the pool of customers based on credit evaluations. Current market conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts of future economic conditions adjust the historical losses to determine the appropriate allowance for doubtful accounts. Uncollectible accounts are written off when all collection efforts have been exhausted.

Under the prior accounting rules, the Company evaluated the following factors when determining the collectibility of specific customer accounts: customer credit-worthiness, past transaction history with the customer, current economic industry trends, and changes in customer payment terms. The allowance for doubtful accounts was immaterial at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Income taxes

As a single-member limited liability company and, therefore, a disregarded entity for income tax purposes, the Company's assets and liabilities are combined with and included in the income tax return of the Parent. Accordingly, the accompanying consolidated financial statements do not include a provision or liability for federal, state or local income taxes.

Uncertain tax positions

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance, management assesses the likelihood that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information, including the technical merits of those positions, available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available or when an event occurs that requires a change. There were no uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Inventory

Inventory consists primarily of items held in stock for new store development. These items mainly consist of computers that are transferred at cost to new stores as they open. Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value, with cost determined using primarily the first-in, first-out basis.

Goodwill and other intangible assets

The Company accounts for goodwill in accordance with FASB ASC 350-20, Goodwill. Goodwill is amortized on a straight-line basis over a 10-year useful life. An accounting policy election was also made to test goodwill for impairment at the entity level.

The Company's other intangible assets consist of software and trademark assets that have a finite life of greater than one year.

BASECAMP FRANCHISE HOLDINGS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(A Limited Liability Company)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31 2023, AND 2022

Goodwill and other intangible assets with finite useful lives must be tested for impairment when an event occurs or circumstances change indicating that the fair value of the entity may be below its carrying amount (a "Triggering Event"). If no Triggering Event occurs, further impairment testing is not necessary. The Company determined that there were no Triggering Events for goodwill or intangible assets during the year ended December 31, 2023.

If a Triggering Event is identified, the quantitative goodwill impairment test is based upon a comparison of the estimated fair value of the Company to its carrying value. The fair values utilized in this evaluation would be estimated based upon future cash flow projections. An impairment charge is recognized for any amount by which the carrying amount of goodwill exceeds its implied fair value. Any impairment charges are reported as a separate line item within income from operations in the statement of operations and member's equity.

The quantitative impairment test for intangible assets with finite useful lives is based upon a comparison of the carrying amount of an intangible asset to the estimated future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the estimated future undiscounted net cash flows are less than the carrying amount of the asset, the asset is considered impaired. The impairment expense is determined by comparing the estimated fair value of the intangible asset to its carrying value, with any shortfall from fair value recognized as an expense.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed currently, while renewals and betterments that materially extend the life of an asset are capitalized. The cost of assets sold, retired, or otherwise disposed of, and the related allowance for depreciation, are eliminated from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized.

Depreciation is provided using the straight-line and various accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which are as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	5-7 years
Computer hardware	3 years

Impairment of long-lived assets

In accordance with FASB ASC 360, Property, Plant, and Equipment, the Company's long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment annually or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset in question may not be recoverable. If the sum of the expected future cash flows (undiscounted and without interest charges) is less than the carrying amount of the asset, the Company recognizes an impairment loss based on the estimated fair value of the asset. There were no indicators of impairment and, accordingly, no impairment charges were required for the year ended December 31, 2023 and for the period from July 15, 2022 (inception) through December 31, 2022.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at the inception of the contract. At the lease commencement date, each lease is evaluated to determine whether it will be classified as an operating or finance lease. For leases with a lease term of 12 months or less (a "Short-term" lease), any fixed lease payments are recognized on a straight-line basis over such term, and are not recognized on the consolidated balance sheets.

Lease terms include the noncancellable portion of the underlying leases along with any reasonably certain lease periods associated with available renewal periods, termination options and purchase options. The Company uses the risk-free discount rate when the rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable at the commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments.

Marketing advances

Marketing advances are marketing funds received from franchisees not yet remitted to marketing vendors. Franchisees have the option to contribute to additional marketing initiatives with approved marketing vendors by the Company. Funds received by the Company are remitted directly to the marketing vendors.

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and amounted to $112,006 and $51,176 for the year ended December 31, 2023 and for the period from July 15, 2022 (inception) through December 31, 2022, respectively.

Recently adopted accounting standards

In June 2016, FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments --Credit Losses (Topic 326) ("ASC 326"), along with subsequently issued related ASUs, requires financial assets (or groups of financial assets) measured at amortized cost basis to be presented at the net amount expected to be collected, among other provisions. ASC 326 eliminates the probable initial threshold for recognition of credit losses for financial assets recorded at amortized cost, which could result in earlier recognition of credit losses. It utilizes a lifetime expected credit loss measurement model for the recognition of credit losses at the time the financial asset is originated or acquired.

The Company's consolidated financial instruments include cash and accounts receivable. The expected credit losses are adjusted each period for changes in expected lifetime credit losses. The Company adopted ASC 326 using the modified retrospective method at the beginning of the year or January 1, 2023 and it did not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Subsequent events

In accordance with FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Company has evaluated subsequent events through April 4, 2024, the date on which these consolidated financial statements were available to be issued. There were no material subsequent events that required recognition or additional disclosure in the consolidated financial statements.

(A Limited Liability Company)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31 2023, AND 2022

NOTE 3. REORGANIZATION

On September 30, 2022, the Parent was assigned certain assets, including the marks, intellectual property, franchise agreements and other assets from Kid to Kid Franchise System, Inc., Uptown Cheapskate, LLC and BaseCamp Franchising LLC (collectively referred to as the "Predecessor Franchisors"). The Parent subsequently contributed all of the assets assigned from the Predecessor Franchisors to BaseCamp Holdings and BaseCamp Holdings contributed the assigned assets to BaseCamp. BaseCamp subsequently contributed the respective assigned franchise agreements to Kid to Kid and Uptown.

Subsequent to the contribution of the assigned assets, HPC BaseCamp Holdings, LLC ("HPC Holdings") acquired 60% of the equity of the Parent in exchange for a total consideration of $40,600,000, which consisted of $26,000,000 cash, $4,000,000 note payable more fully described in Note 10 and the fair value of additional payments to the Predecessor Franchisors based on the achievement of certain targets (the "Earn Out Payment") for the period from October 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024, which amounted to $10,600,000. The maximum Earn Out Payment is $12,000,000.

The Company treated the transaction as a business combination in accordance with the acquisition method of accounting pursuant to FASB ASC 805, Business Combination, and pushdown accounting was applied to record the fair value of the assets acquired by the Company. NOTE 5. CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Cash

The Company maintains accounts in major banks located in the United States of America, which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC"). At times, such balances may exceed the FDIC insurance limit. The Company has not experienced any losses on such accounts.

Accounts receivable

Concentrations of credit risk with respect to accounts receivable are limited because a large number of geographically diverse franchisees and their customers make up the Company's customer base, thus spreading the trade credit risk. At December 31, 2023, no franchisee represents greater than 10% of total accounts receivable. The Company controls credit risk through credit approvals, credit limits and monitoring procedures. The Company performs credit evaluations of its franchisees but generally does not require collateral to support accounts receivable.

NOTE 6. MARKETING AND COOPERATIVE FUNDS

Marketing fund

Pursuant to the structured form of the franchising arrangement, the Company reserves the right to collect marketing fund fees up to 0.5% of franchisees' reported sales. These funds are to be spent solely on advertising and related expenses for the benefit of the franchisees with a portion designated to offset the Company's administrative costs to administer the funds, all at the discretion of the Company. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had expended all amounts collected on behalf of its franchisees for advertising and marketing.

Franchisees will contribute the greater of $2,000 or 4% of their monthly gross revenue, with a maximum of $5,000. Expenditures of the local marketing cooperative will be determined by the members.

NOTE 7. REVENUES AND RELATED CONTRACT BALANCES

Disaggregated revenue

The Company derives its revenues from franchisees located throughout the United States and internationally. The economic risks of the Company's revenues will be dependent on the strength of the economy in the United States, and the Company's ability to collect on its contracts. The Company will disaggregate revenue from contracts with customers by timing of revenue recognition by type of revenue, as it believes this will best depict how the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows will be affected by economic factors.
