What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit J.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk be highlighted:

Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Franchise Agreement requires you to resolve disputes with us by litigation in our home state (currently North Carolina). Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to litigate with us in our home state than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

The Franchisor

To simplify the language in this disclosure document “we” or “us” means Bojangles Opco, LLC, the franchisor. “You” or “your” means the purchaser of the franchise. If the purchaser of the franchise is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or another entity form, “you” or “your” means both the purchaser and the persons who own the entity.

Bojangles Opco, LLC is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on February 3, 2020 with a principal business address at 9432 Southern Pine Boulevard, Charlotte, North Carolina 28273. We do business under the service marks and trade names “Bojangles®”, “Bojangles’®”, “Bojangles’ Famous Chicken ‘n Biscuits®”, and “Bojangles Express®”. Our agents for service of process in various states are listed in Exhibit J.

We became the franchisor of the Bojangles restaurant system and began offering franchises for the right to develop and operate Bojangles Restaurants in the United States on October 6, 2020, as part of the Securitization Transaction, which is described below. Through our parents, predecessors and affiliates, we began operating Bojangles Restaurants in 1977. As of December 31, 2023, there were 813 Restaurants in operation, of which 528 were franchised Restaurants in the United States and 285 were company-operated Restaurants in the United States (which are operated and managed for us by our indirect parent, Bojangles’ Restaurants, Inc. (“BRI”). In this disclosure document, we refer to the Restaurants owned by us or our affiliates as “company-operated Restaurants”. We also contract with foodservice operators for retailing opportunities and the sale of Bojangles products in venues such as sports arenas, stadiums, college campuses, race tracks and other nontraditional venues for Bojangles branded food and drinks. We have not offered franchises in any other line of business and do not conduct any other kind of business.

Our Parents, Predecessors and Affiliates

We are a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Bojangles Issuer, LLC (“Bojangles Issuer”), a Delaware limited liability company. Bojangles Issuer is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bojangles Guarantor, LLC (“Bojangles Guarantor”), a Delaware limited liability company. Bojangles Issuer and Bojangles Guarantor share our principal business address and were organized as part of the Securitization Transaction described below.

Bojangles’ International, LLC (“BIL”) is the direct parent of Bojangles Guarantor and one of our indirect parent companies. BIL is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on March 26, 1998 and shares our principal business address. From April 1, 1998 until immediately prior to the Closing Date noted below for the Securitization Transaction, BIL offered franchises for the right to develop and operate Bojangles Restaurants. BIL is our predecessor, as we obtained the majority of our franchise assets from it through the Securitization Transaction noted below, along with additional assets that we received from BRI and other affiliates relating to company-operated Restaurants and leases for Bojangles Restaurant locations. BIL continues to own the international Proprietary Marks (as defined below) and serve as the franchisor of three franchised international Bojangles Restaurants. BIL does not operate Bojangles Restaurants or conduct any other kind of business and has not offered franchises other than for Bojangles Restaurants as noted above.

Bojangles’ of America, Inc., a North Carolina corporation, was incorporated on May 11, 1976 and, as a result of a merger in 1982, it became Bojangles’ of America, Inc., a Nevada corporation. On August 30, 1990, BJ Acquisition Corp. acquired all the trademarks and service marks associated with the Bojangles restaurant system, together with other assets owned or controlled by Bojangles' of America, Inc. and Bojangles' Corporation, and assumed the interests of Bojangles' of America, Inc. under each of the then-existing Bojangles Restaurant franchise agreements. On March 9, 1993, BJ Acquisition Corp. changed its name to Bojangles' Restaurants, Inc. BRI, a Delaware corporation, is a direct parent of BIL and one of our parent companies and also shares our principal business address. BRI has operated and managed Bojangles Restaurants since August 30, 1990. From August 30, 1990 to March 31, 1998, BRI offered franchises similar to the franchises offered by this disclosure document. BRI provides services to Bojangles Restaurant franchisees on our behalf under a management agreement with us as further described below.

Our indirect parent company is Bojangles', Inc. (successor by name change to BHI Holding Corp. and successor by merger to BHI Intermediate Holding Corp.), a Delaware corporation, which also shares our principal business address. Bojangles', Inc. has never offered franchises in any line of business, does not operate any Bojangles Restaurants and does not provide any services to our franchisees. Bojangles', Inc.'s parent is Walker Parent, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Walker Parent"), which has its principal business address at 107 Grand Street, 7th Floor, New York, New York 10013. Walker Parent has never offered franchises in any line of business, does not operate any Bojangles Restaurants, and does not provide any services to our franchisees. On January 28, 2019, Bojangles', Inc. completed its merger with Walker Parent and Walker Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Walker Parent ("Merger Sub"). Upon completion of the merger, Merger Sub merged with and into Bojangles', Inc., and Bojangles', Inc. continued as the surviving corporation and continued its existence under the law of the State of Delaware.

Securitization Transaction

On or about October 6, 2020 (the "Closing Date"), Bojangles', Inc. and various of its direct and indirect subsidiaries, including BRI and BIL, closed a securitization transaction involving the Bojangles brand (the "Securitization Transaction"). As part of the Securitization Transaction, BRI, BIL, and certain other subsidiaries of Walker Parent contributed certain of their assets, real and personal property and equipment and related leases and subleases, notes and indebtedness of franchisees, and the business and related agreements concerning sourcing and sales of goods and services, to us. As part of the Securitization Transaction, all existing U.S. Franchise Agreements, Development Agreements, and related agreements for Restaurants were transferred to us, and we became the franchisor of all existing and future domestic Development Agreements, Franchise Agreements and other related agreements. Ownership and control of all U.S. trademarks and certain intellectual property relating to the operation of Restaurants in the U.S. were also transferred to us. All of the assets, including intellectual property, necessary to make the offering described in this disclosure document were conveyed to us.

As of the Closing Date of the Securitization Transaction, BRI entered into a management agreement with us to act as our manager (the "Manager"). The primary responsibilities and activities of BRI as Manager include administering collections of payments due to us, managing our assets, and performing various franchising, marketing, development, real estate, intellectual property, operational oversight, and reporting services on our behalf, which includes support and services that are provided to Bojangles franchisees under their Development Agreements and Franchise Agreements. BRI also manages and operates any company-operated Restaurants that we or our affiliates own or may develop in the future. BRI also acts as our franchise sales broker. We pay management fees to BRI for these services. However, as the franchisor, we are responsible and accountable to you to make sure that all services we promise to perform under your Development Agreement and Franchise Agreement or other agreement you sign with us are performed in compliance with the applicable agreement, regardless of who performs these services on our behalf.

Bojangles Restaurants

Bojangles Restaurants are characterized by our unique system, which includes unique exterior and interior design, color schemes, and layout, including specially designed decor and furnishings; a special selection of menu items, largely prepared “from scratch”; procedures and techniques for food and beverage preparation; prompt and courteous service; a clean, wholesome atmosphere; methods for inventory, operating, cash, and financial controls; a training school using special teaching techniques, course instruction, and manuals; and unique advertising and promotional programs and materials (the “Bojangles System”). We will continue to improve and develop the Bojangles System.

The Bojangles System is identified by certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems and indicia of origin, including the marks “Bojangles®”, “Bojangles’®”, “Bojangles’ Famous Chicken ‘n Biscuits®”, and “Bojangles’ Express®” that we currently designate and may designate in writing in the future for use with the Bojangles System (the “Proprietary Marks”) and certain unique trade dress, including but not limited to specific color schemes, patterns, design, decor, furnishings and layout, that we now or hereafter use in connection with the Bojangles System (the “Trade Dress”).

Bojangles Restaurants offer different menus of quality food products in different geographic areas of the country, including a more limited menu not offering breakfast all day nor bone-in chicken. Bojangles Restaurant menus may emphasize a special selection of breakfast items such as buttermilk biscuits with chicken filet, steak, sausage, country ham, bacon, egg, cheese, jelly, and/or melted butter. During lunch and dinner hours, the menus may feature bone-in chicken and boneless chicken tenders in certain markets (“Bone-In Chicken Menu”) or boneless chicken tenders with no bone-in chicken in other markets (“Boneless Chicken Only Menu”) served with side orders such as homemade biscuits, Bojangles’ Dirty Rice®, Bojangles’ Seasoned Fries, Bojangles’ Cajun Pintos®, Bojangles’ Cajun Gravy, baked mac & cheese, coleslaw, chicken sandwiches, Cajun Filet Biscuit®, Chicken Supremes®, Homestyle Tenders, salads, Bo-Tato Rounds®, soft drinks, Bojangles’ Legendary Iced Tea®, Bo’Town Roasters® coffee, cold brew iced coffee, dressed coffee, sweet potato pies, cinnamon biscuits, milkshakes, and/or Bo-Berry Biscuits®. We will advise you of the required menu based on your geographic area where you intend to open your Bojangles Restaurant.

A typical Bojangles Restaurant will be free-standing in an urban or suburban location, with direct access to a major “going-to-work” traffic artery, in order to benefit from Bojangles’ significant breakfast business. Bojangles Restaurants use one of several standard building plans. Our standard traditional Restaurant building plans range from approximately 2,500 to 3,200 square feet. On a case-by-case basis we may permit building plans of approximately 1,400 to 3,900 square feet. We update these plans periodically to incorporate improvements in systems, layout and design. You are responsible for engaging, at your expense, a licensed architect, that is approved by us, to adapt these plans for local use and to obtain architect sealing/signing of these standard building plans at your expense. On a case-by-case basis, we may permit non-standard conversions of existing buildings, shopping center and in-line locations, food court, shopping mall or convenience store locations, subject to our approval of detailed conversion plans. Restaurant buildings are generally constructed of wood or metal studs and brick and stucco. There are a variety of specially designed decor packages available.

A Restaurant located in or attached to a convenience store or other structure such as a shopping mall, food court, travel plaza, grocery or department store, college campus, airport location, stadium, or other non-traditional location that is substantially smaller than our standard traditional restaurant is referred to as a “Bojangles Express Restaurant”. A Bojangles Express Restaurant may be developed by modification/conversion of an existing convenience store layout or incorporated as part of the original plan for a combination convenience store and the Bojangles Express Restaurant or by modification/conversion of the existing layout of another structure such as a shopping mall, food court, college campus, airport location, or stadium or as part of the original plan for such structure. Bojangles Express Restaurant locations vary in size from 800 to 3,800 square feet, although the Bojangles Express Restaurant location may be part of a larger structure or complex.

We may provide preliminary equipment layout and equipment schedule but we do not provide architecturally prepared plans for development of Bojangles Express Restaurants. You are responsible for developing such plans at your expense with an architect approved by us and such plans will be subject to our review and approval. All plans for modification/conversion and original plans and decor for new development are subject to our approval. The menu for a Bojangles Express Restaurant may not include all of the menu items offered in our full-size freestanding Restaurants, and instead may have a limited number of items selected from our larger approved menu. If you develop a Bojangles Express Restaurant, we typically will require you to refrain from selling or offering for sale from the convenience store or other structure outside of the Bojangles Express Restaurant items offered for sale from the Bojangles Express Restaurant and, generally, freshly prepared foods. In addition, we may require you to refrain from selling or offering for sale from the convenience store or other structure any adult books or magazines, pornographic materials, other items featuring nudity or sexual activity or any sexually oriented devices.

The Franchise and Development Rights Offered

When you are evaluating whether to purchase a Bojangles franchise, you will acquire confidential information about the System. You must sign a Confidentiality Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit G.1, before we will provide access to this information.

You must be a corporation or a limited liability company, as approved by us, to be eligible to buy a franchise. We may offer you a development agreement (the “Development Agreement”), the form of which is attached as Exhibit A, which grants you the right to establish and operate a specific number of Restaurants in an “Assigned Area” as described in Item 12. We individually negotiate the number of Restaurants that you may develop under each Development Agreement; however, you must agree to develop at least two Restaurants. When you sign the Development Agreement, you will sign our current form of franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), the form of which is attached as Exhibit B, or Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement, the form of which is attached as Exhibit D. For each additional Restaurant that you develop under the Development Agreement, no later than 30 days after we approve the site for the Restaurant, you must sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement or Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement (which may differ from the forms included as Exhibits B and D).

We also offer franchise agreements without a prior Development Agreement which grant you the right to establish and operate one franchised Restaurant in a specific market (the “Individual Franchise Agreement”), the form of which is attached as Exhibit C.

We also offer franchise agreements with or without a prior Development Agreement which grant you the right to establish and operate one franchised Restaurant within or attached to a convenience store or other structure such as a shopping mall, food court, college campus, airport location or stadium (the “Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement”), the form of which is attached as Exhibit D. We may offer a Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement that offers a limited-menu because of space restrictions or other limitations.

For full-size Restaurants we may offer you a renewal franchise agreement which grants you the right to continue operating your existing full-size franchised Restaurant upon expiration of your Franchise Agreement or Individual Franchise Agreement and upon satisfaction of the renewal conditions stated in your Franchise Agreement or Individual Franchise Agreement (the “Renewal Franchise Agreement”), the form of which is attached as Exhibit E.

Unless otherwise stated, references in this disclosure document to “the Franchise Agreement” or “the Agreements” apply to the Franchise Agreement, Individual Franchise Agreement, Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement and Renewal Franchise Agreement.

Before entering into a Development Agreement or a Franchise Agreement, you must sign a Confidentiality Agreement, the form of which is attached as Exhibit G.2, and a Letter of Intent, the form of which is attached as Exhibit H.

Market and Competition

The restaurant business, particularly the quick service restaurant business, is highly competitive and is often affected by changes in taste and eating habits of the public and by local and national economic conditions. The principal basis of competition in the industry is the quality and price of the food products offered, but name identification, site selection, speed of service, advertising, and attractiveness of facilities are also important. Your competition will include other quick service restaurants, some of which may be located close to your Restaurant, including national and regional restaurant chains, as well as secondary competition, including coffee shops, budget restaurants, grocery stores offering prepared foods and convenience stores which serve hot food. In addition, competition for management and other operating personnel is intense within the industry. Sales are generally seasonally affected and may be lower during winter months and may be affected generally by weather conditions, and in some areas with seasonal traffic (for example, vacation areas) sales may be particularly seasonal in nature.

Industry-Specific Regulations

We are not aware of any laws or regulations applicable to a Bojangles Restaurant that would not apply to restaurant businesses generally. You must comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws and regulations, including health, sanitation, food handling, food preparation, waste disposal, smoking restrictions, alcoholic beverage restrictions, discrimination, labor, employment, sexual harassment and advertising laws. Your Restaurant will be subject to local health inspection authorities which govern the handling of food, temperatures and other health considerations. Federal law requires chain retail food establishments with more than 20 locations to disclose the number of calories of each standard menu item on the menu and menu boards, make additional written nutritional information available to customers on request and provide a statement on menu boards about the availability of additional information. In some states or municipalities or other political subdivisions there may be local regulations that limit trans-fats in foods offered for sale, or that require posting of calorie content or other nutritional information. There are other laws and regulations applicable to businesses generally (such as the Americans with Disabilities Act) with which you must comply. You should consult with your attorney concerning these and other laws and ordinances that may affect the operations of your Restaurant.

LITIGATION

Pending Matter

Bojangles' of America Franchisee Association, Inc. v. Bojangles Opco, LLC, Case No. 24-CVS-3738 (N.C. Super. Ct., Guilford Cty.) (the "Guilford County Case") and Bojangles Restaurants, Inc. and Bojangles Opco, LLC v. Bojangles' of America Franchisee Association, Inc. and Berkowitz Pollack Brant, Case No. 24-CV018004-590 (N.C. Super Ct., Mecklenburg Cty.) (the "Mecklenburg County Case). On March 4, 2024, Bojangles' of America Franchisee Association ("BFA"), which is a franchisee association whose members operate Bojangles restaurants, filed a complaint in the Guilford County Case against us asserting claims for breach of an oral agreement and commission of unfair and deceptive trade practices in violation of NC Gen. Stat. § 75-1.1. The complaint seeks: (i) an order of specific performance compelling us to provide information to the BFA to complete an audit of the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund and an audit of an Accrual Account under a Master Distribution Agreement between our affiliate, Bojangles Restaurants, Inc., and McLane Foodservice, Inc. ("McLane"), a supplier to Bojangles restaurants; (ii) a declaration that the BFA has a right to conduct an annual audit of the Marketing Development Fund and the Accrual Account; and (iii) a determination that our actions with respect to the audit constitute an unfair and deceptive trade practices giving rise to a claim for attorneys' fees. The complaint does not seek any monetary damages from us. We intend to vigorously defend against these claims. On March 15, 2024, we filed a motion to seal the complaint and its exhibits because they disclose confidential and proprietary information about the Bojangles system. The court granted our motion on March 18, 2024 and sealed the complaint and its exhibits and ordered the plaintiffs to file redacted versions. The plaintiffs filed redacted versions without first conferring with us and failed to fully redact our confidential and proprietary information. On April 4, 2024, we moved to dismiss the complaint. On April 19, 2024, we submitted a motion to compel the plaintiffs to redact specific portions of the complaint and the exhibits to the complaint in their entirety. We and BRI filed the Mecklenburg County case on April 19, 2024 against the BFA's accounting firm, Berkowitz Pollack Brant, for violating a Confidential Disclosure Agreement with BRI, against the BFA for tortiously interfering with the Confidential Disclosure Agreement by inducing the accounting firm to share our confidential information with the BFA in violation of the Confidential Disclosure Agreement, and against both the accounting firm and the BFA for conspiring to violate the Confidential Disclosure Agreement.

Concluded Matters

William J. Gordon, Jr., Wilgo Bo, LLC, Wilgo Bo Stoneport, LLC, Wilgo Bo Pantops, LLC, Wilgo Bo Winchester Gateway, LLC, Wilgo Bo Hollymead, LLC, Wilgo Bo Winchester Round Hill, LLC, and Wilgo Bo Staunton, LLC v. Bojangles' International, LLC (Civil Action No. 3:20-cv-0060-MOC-DSC). United States District Court, Western District of North Carolina. On January 28, 2020, Wilgo Bo, LLC (“Wilgo Bo”) and its owner, William J. Gordon, Jr. (“Gordon”) and six other entities owned by Gordon (the “Sublessor Entities”) filed a complaint against BIL asserting, among other things, that BIL is liable for violations of the North Carolina Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices Act and for fraudulent concealment, for making negligent misrepresentations, for breach of fiduciary duties, and for constructive fraud in connection with alleged misrepresentations and omissions in both BIL’s Franchise Disclosure Document and in communications with Wilgo Bo during the sales process. Wilgo Bo, Gordon and the Sublessor Entities (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) sought damages in excess of $21 million, along with treble damages, rescission of the franchise agreements, punitive damages, and their attorneys’ fees and costs. BIL filed an answer to the complaint on March 17, 2020 and denied the allegations made by the Plaintiffs, denied that the complaint stated any viable claim against BIL, and denied the Plaintiffs’ claim to any of the requested relief. After discovery concluded, BIL moved for summary judgment on all claims. Prior to the court resolving BIL’s motion, on January 18, 2022, the parties agreed to a confidential settlement in which Wilgo Bo, Gordon and the Sublessor Entities agreed to dismiss all of their claims and BIL agreed to reduce Wilgo Bo’s royalty percentage for a two-year period and extend Wilgo Bo’s former exclusive territorial rights surrounding its six restaurants for an additional year, which territorial exclusivity will not be transferable to a potential buyer of Wilgo Bo’s business. The parties filed a stipulated dismissal of the case on January 25, 2022.

Reba Purdessy v. Bojangles', Inc., et al. (Case No. 1:18-cv-11649). United States District Court, Southern District of New York, filed December 13, 2018. A purported Bojangles', Inc. stockholder (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and purportedly on behalf of a class of Bojangles', Inc. stockholders (the “Purported Class”), filed an action against Bojangles', Inc. and its then Board of Directors (the “Prior Board”). Plaintiff alleged, among other things, that the Prior Board authorized the filing of a proxy statement (the “Proxy”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission that failed to disclose material information necessary for the stockholders to consider the proposed merger (the “Proposed Merger”) between Bojangles', Inc., on the one hand, and Durational Capital Management LP, The Jordan Company, L.P., TEI Investment Pte. Ltd., Walker Parent, Inc., and Walker Merger Sub, Inc., on the other hand, pursuant to which Bojangles', Inc. stockholders would receive $16.10 in cash for each share of Bojangles', Inc. stock they own (the “Merger Consideration”). Plaintiff also alleged that the Merger Consideration represented inadequate compensation for Bojangles', Inc. stockholders. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff purported to state claims for violations of Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder, and violations of Section 20 of the Exchange Act. Plaintiff sought class certification and appointment as the class representative. Plaintiff also sought preliminary injunctive relief enjoining the Proposed Merger until the purported material information is disclosed to stockholders, rescission of the Proposed Merger, to the extent already implemented, or an unspecified amount of rescissory damages, together with other unspecified damages and costs.

Without admitting any wrongdoing, or that any supplemental disclosure was required to be made, Bojangles', Inc. made certain supplemental disclosures in a Form 8-K that filed with the SEC on December 31, 2018. After the supplemental disclosures were filed, Plaintiff filed an amended complaint that continued to assert disclosure claims related to the proxy and challenge the adequacy of the merger consideration. Plaintiff thereafter obtained discovery relating to whether the disclosed financial projections fully and properly accounted for Bojangles' restaurant portfolio optimization plan announced in July 2018. After reviewing the discovery, Plaintiff agreed to dismiss its claims as moot. Bojangles', Inc. agreed to pay a mootness fee of $75,000 in October 2019 for full satisfaction of any claims by Plaintiff or Plaintiff's counsel for fees, expenses or costs. The matter was thereafter dismissed as moot on October 30, 2019.

Other than these four actions, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4 BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 5 INITIAL FEES

Development Fee

You must pay a development fee of $10,000 for each Restaurant that we authorize you to develop when you sign the Development Agreement regardless of whether you actually develop Restaurants after that time. You must sign one Development Agreement per state. When you sign the Development Agreement, you also will sign a Franchise Agreement for the first Restaurant that you plan to develop.

The development fee is fully earned and non-refundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses we incur in entering into the Development Agreement and for our lost or deferred opportunity to enter into the Development Agreement with others.

During our previous fiscal year, the development fee paid to us for each Restaurant under applicable development agreements was $10,000 for our standard development.

Franchise Fee

Under the Franchise Agreement, you must pay a franchise fee of $35,000 by the construction commencement deadline of the traditional Restaurant that you agreed to develop according to the development schedule in your Development Agreement. We will credit the development fee that you paid for each Restaurant that you develop under the Development Agreement against the franchise fee that you pay for that Restaurant if you sign the Franchise Agreement and pay the applicable franchise fee by the time you commence construction of the Restaurant.

The franchise fee for each Individual Franchise Agreement is $35,000 and is payable upon execution of the Individual Franchise Agreement.

You must pay a franchise fee of $20,000 when you sign the Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement for a Bojangles Express Restaurant.

All franchise fees are fully earned and non-refundable when paid.

Some franchisees may be "grandfathered" under earlier agreements that establish franchise fees, royalties and contributions to the Marketing Development Fund in amounts less than described in this disclosure document.

During our previous fiscal year, the franchise fee paid us for each Bojangles Express Restaurant was $20,000 and the franchise fee paid to us for all other Restaurants ranged from $25,000 (for certain franchisees grandfathered into previously negotiated terms) to $35,000 per Restaurant.

Extension Fee

You may submit a written request to us for an extension of up to six months of the site approval deadline, construction commencement deadline and/or opening deadline for a Restaurant. You must pay us a lump-sum extension fee in the amount of $2,500 when you submit an extension request, which we must receive at least 14 calendar days before the occurrence of the deadline date. We assume for purposes of this Item 5 (and for the minimum investment amount in Item 7 below) that you will not require any extensions on the opening timeline for a Restaurant.

Development Incentive Program for Minorities, Women and Veterans

In order to encourage the development of franchised Bojangles Restaurants by persons who are part of certain historically underrepresented groups, we have implemented a Development Incentive Program for Minorities, Women and Veterans (the “DIP Program”). To be eligible to participate in the DIP Program, you must meet the following conditions: (1) you must sign a Development Agreement no later than December 31, 2024 to develop and operate at least three Bojangles Restaurants; (2) you must sign a Development Incentive Program Addendum to your Development Agreement and Franchise Agreement (see Exhibit P-1); (3) Eligible Persons (as defined below) must hold at least 51% of your ownership interests; (4) you may not be participating in any other incentive programs that we offer; and (5) you and your affiliates must be in full compliance with any agreements you have entered into with us and/or our affiliates.

Under the DIP Program, we will: (1) reduce the franchise fee by 50% for the first two DIP Qualifying Restaurants (as defined below) that you develop under the Development Agreement; and (2) reduce the royalty fee you pay for each DIP Qualifying Restaurant you develop under the Development Agreement according to the following schedule:

Year Following Opening Date of Qualifying Restaurant	Applicable Royalty Fee Reduction (to be subtracted from the standard royalty fee)
Year One	3% of Gross Sales of the Restaurant
Year Two	2% of Gross Sales of the Restaurant
Year Three	1% of Gross Sales of the Restaurant
Year Four and Onward	Standard royalty fee rate set forth in the Franchise Agreement

The following definitions apply to this program:

1. “Eligible Person” means an individual who is: (i) a URM (as defined below); (ii) a woman; and/or (iii) a Veteran (as defined below).
2. “DIP Qualifying Restaurant” means a new Restaurant you develop on a site approved by us within the deadlines set forth in your Development Agreement.
3. “URM” means a United States citizen presenting documentation from a federal or state certification body to establish at least twenty-five percent (25%) minimum origins as follows:

- African American – origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa;
 - Hispanic – origins in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Central and South American, or other Spanish or Portuguese cultures;
 - Native American – American Indian, Eskimo, Aleut or Native Hawaiian, and regarded as such by the community of which the person claims to be a part. Additionally, Native Americans must be documented members of a North American tribe, band or otherwise organized group of native people who are indigenous to the continental United States for which proof can be provided through a Native American Blood Degree Certificate (i.e., tribal registry letter and/or tribal roll register number);
 - Asian Pacific: origins in the Pacific Islands, China, Taiwan, Korea, Japan, Thailand, Burma, Cambodia, Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore or Philippines; and
 - Subcontinent Asian: origins in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, the Maldives Islands, Nepal or Sri Lanka.
4. “Veteran” means a person who has provided us with a DD Form 214 or other adequate documentation, as determined by us, demonstrating honorable discharge from the United States military.

We may terminate your participation in the DIP Program if: (1) Eligible Persons no longer hold at least 51% of your ownership interests; or (2) you fail to comply with the Development Agreement, Franchise Agreement(s), or any other agreement that you have entered into with us or our affiliates. If we terminate your participation in the DIP Program, you must immediately pay us the difference of any reduced franchise fee you received under the DIP Program. You must also immediately begin paying us the standard royalty rate specified in your Franchise Agreement.

Equipment Reimbursement Incentive Program

We also have implemented an Equipment Reimbursement Incentive Program (the “ERI Program”). If you are eligible to participate in the ERI Program, we or one of our affiliates, as directed by us, will reimburse you for up to $300,000 of your equipment costs relating to the development of each new ERI Qualifying Restaurant (as defined below) within thirty (30) days after (i) the opening of the ERI Qualifying Restaurant; and (ii) our receipt of supporting invoice(s) from you, satisfactory to us, confirming the total equipment cost you paid for the equipment required to be installed in the ERI Qualifying Restaurant.

In order to participate in the ERI Program, you must meet the following conditions: (1) you must sign a new development agreement with Bojangles no later than December 31, 2024 (the “Development Agreement”) to develop and operate at least three new Bojangles restaurants; (2) you must sign an Equipment Reimbursement Incentive Program Addendum to your Development Agreement and Franchise Agreement (see Exhibit P-2); (3) you may not be participating in any other incentive programs under any other development agreements with us or our affiliates nor receive any other monetary concessions from us or our affiliates; (4) if you sign multiple new development agreements with us simultaneously or in the same year, the ERI Program will only apply to your development agreement that has the most store commitments listed therein; and (5) you and your affiliates must be in full compliance with any agreements you have entered into with us and/or our affiliates.

If you are eligible to participate in the ERI Program, the number of ERI Qualifying Restaurants eligible for reimbursement will vary depending on the number of development commitments under your Development Agreement, as described in the table below:

Number of Total Development Commitments under Development Agreement:	Reimbursement Applied to the following ERI Qualifying Restaurants only:
3 or 4	1 st and 2 nd ERI Qualifying Restaurants only
5 or more	1 st , 2 nd and 5 th ERI Qualifying Restaurants only

An “ERI Qualifying Restaurant” is a new Bojangles restaurant: (1) opened by you in the Assigned Area noted in your Development Agreement within four years (if your qualifying Development Agreement is for three or four new restaurants) or within five years (if your Development Agreement is for five or more new restaurants), respectively, after the effective date of your Development Agreement; (2) that is located on a site approved by us; (3) that is in compliance with the deadlines set forth on the Development Schedule attached to your Development Agreement and opened within the timelines set forth therein; and (4) for which a signed Franchise Agreement has been fully executed by us, on our approved form.

Our ERI Program is contingent on you remaining current with all royalty fee payments and all other financial or monetary obligations owed to us and our affiliates under any Franchise Agreement with us and any other agreements you have entered into with us and/or our affiliates. We may terminate your participation in the ERI Program if you fail to comply with the terms of your Development Agreement, Franchise Agreement(s), or any other agreement that you have entered into with us and/or our affiliates. If we terminate your participation in the ERI Program, we will have no obligation to reimburse you for any equipment costs related to the development of future Bojangles restaurants. The ERI Program will expire on December 31, 2024.

Franchisee Referral Fees

If an existing Bojangles franchisee meets our eligibility requirements and refers a new prospective franchisee to us that ultimately signs an Individual Franchise Agreement or a Development Agreement with us no later than December 31, 2024 agreeing to develop, open and operate at least one Bojangles restaurant, then we will pay the referring franchisee $10,000 within 30 days after the new franchisee opens their first Bojangles restaurant in full compliance with the deadlines in the Individual Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement, as applicable.

Taxes	Our expenses	Within 30 days of receipt of invoice	You must reimburse us for any sales tax, gross receipts tax, or similar tax imposed on us with respect to any payments you make to us, unless the tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by us.

² “Gross Sales” includes all revenue from the sale of all services and products related to the franchised Restaurant, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit; provided, however, that Gross Sales shall not include any sales taxes or other taxes that you collect from customers for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority. You must submit to us, by the 15th day of each month during the term of the Franchise Agreement, beginning with the opening of your Restaurant, a statistical report and statement of receipts in a form prescribed by us, accurately stating the amount of all Gross Sales during the preceding month, and such other data or information as we may require.

³ If you qualify for the Development Incentive Program for Minorities, Women and Veterans the royalty fee you will pay under the Franchise Agreement may be reduced for a period of three years from the date your Restaurant opens for business as described in Item 5.

⁴ Except as discussed below, you will be required to sign an Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement, a form of which is attached as Exhibit F, for a particular Designated Market Area (“DMA”). The initial organization of a new cooperative and continuation of its activities typically require a vote of 51% of the participating Restaurants. Some existing Advertising Expense Sharing Agreements require a vote of 85% of participating Restaurants to commence and continue activities. A new franchisee who opens a Restaurant in a DMA in which the Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement in use requires a vote of 85% of participating Restaurants may be required to sign a similar agreement. Other new franchisees may be required to sign an Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement that requires a vote of 51% of participating Restaurants. The terms of your Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement may not be as favorable as those of other members of the co-op.

A new franchisee may be required to pay a pre-set percentage of Gross Sales into the cooperative or directly to us in lieu of participation in a cooperative without regard to voting percentages. We may exempt certain new franchisees from membership or full participation in a cooperative if, in our discretion, a Restaurant may receive inadequate benefit from cooperative advertising. We may also move a Restaurant’s participation in one cooperative to another if, in our discretion, a Restaurant may receive a greater benefit in another DMA’s cooperative.

Generally, each full-size free-standing Restaurant in a cooperative, including company-operated Restaurants, has one vote in the cooperative, except that we may acquire the voting power of particular franchisees in a cooperative by agreement. In a DMA that contains both traditional, free-standing Restaurants and Bojangles Express Restaurants, we may require a franchisee to sign an Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement that gives one-half vote per Restaurant for Bojangles Express Restaurants.

The DMAs where we have majority voting power in the cooperative are: Birmingham, Alabama; Orlando, Florida; Lexington, Kentucky; Louisville, Kentucky; Charlotte, North Carolina; Greensboro-High Point-Winston Salem, North Carolina (also known as Triad); Wilmington, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; Columbia, South Carolina; Chattanooga, Tennessee; Nashville, Tennessee; and Dallas, Texas. In all markets, including those in which we have a majority of votes, we may require up to a 2% contribution if we believe it is necessary to support advertising in the DMA. Therefore, in those DMAs, the initial organization of the cooperative and continuation of its activities and all material decisions requiring a vote of the cooperative may be controlled by us.

Generally, required cooperative advertising contributions for each Restaurant are a maximum of 2% of Gross Sales. Advertising contributions required under Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement are paid to the cooperative and are non-refundable.

We may, in our discretion, grant to a franchisee entering a DMA with a pre-existing cooperative a period of time in which such franchisee shall not be obligated to pay any amount into the cooperative or to permit an offset against cooperative contributions for certain types of advertising.

ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT

You will be required to make various expenditures in addition to the payments described above in Items 5 and 6 in connection with commencing operation of a Restaurant. The following tables set forth the range of expenditures we anticipate as reasonable for the total initial investment, which may be required to establish a traditional Restaurant and a Bojangles Express Restaurant, but subject to variations according to location and site. Our standard traditional Restaurant building plan ranges from 1,400 to 3,900 square feet. Bojangles Express Restaurants are located in or attached to a convenience store or other structure such as a shopping mall, food court, travel plaza, grocery or department store, college campus, airport location, stadium, or other non-traditional location that is substantially smaller than our standard traditional Restaurants. Except for security deposits, all payments should be assumed to be non-refundable. All payments are expected to be determined prior to opening of the Restaurant itself, except for costs.

¹ Franchise Fee. The franchise fee for each Restaurant developed under a Development Agreement or for each Restaurant developed under an Individual Franchise Agreement is $35,000 and is further described in Item 5. If you sign a Development Agreement, the only investment required under that Development Agreement is payment of the Development Fee which is described in Item 5. You must agree to develop at least two Bojangles Restaurants if you sign a Development Agreement.

³ Pre-opening salaries, travel, living expenses during initial training You will incur expenses associated with sending five to seven people and your Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner to our initial training program. For this training program, we provide instructors and instructional materials, but you will need to arrange transportation, food and lodging for yourself and employees. The cost will depend on the distance you must travel and the type of accommodations you choose and will range from $205 to $225 per day per person in training. In addition, you must pay any wages due employees during training. The estimate does not include salaries for your Managing Owner or Principal Operating Officer or Partner. See Item 11 for additional information regarding our training program.

⁴ Site Selection. You must submit information about proposed sites to us on forms or in the manner we designate. Before submission, you must carefully evaluate each site, determine that it meets our established criteria for Restaurant sites and determine that it may be acquired or leased by you. We ordinarily require the submission of studies which may include such factors as traffic flow and count, location of competing businesses, population level and trends, commercial, industrial, office, institutional, and residential development, and median income and age. The estimate excludes the cost of land, permitting and broker's fees and will vary depending upon the number of sites, the extent of the required investigation by you and the location of the sites in relation to your office. The low end of the estimate presumes that you already own the site and do not engage a broker or a third party for site investigation.

You should consult a real estate professional in your geographic area before purchasing a franchise. Typically, an acre of land with approximately 160 feet of frontage is needed for the Restaurant and adjacent parking areas. Real estate costs vary considerably depending on the location. The rent for unimproved property may range from approximately $8,000 to $15,000 or more per month. You may be required to pay the first and last months' lease payments as a security deposit when you sign your lease. Lease expenses also may include common area maintenance, insurance, taxes, fixed rent that may escalate, percentage rent based on the Restaurant's Gross Sales, and other charges related to the Restaurant.

Some of our company-operated and franchised Restaurants are developed as build to suit arrangements where the landlord builds the Restaurant in accordance with our approved plans and specifications and our rental rates incorporate the building and related improvements costs, land cost, site costs, soft costs and any other costs, fees or expenses associated with construction of the building plus an annual capitalization rate of such costs. A build to suit lease rate based on our company-operated estimates may range from approximately $12,600 to $16,000 per month with an assumed lease rate based on the estimated building and site improvements costs (comprised of site work plus soft costs) as set forth in the table above (excluding the cost of real estate and financing costs for purposes of this calculation since they vary widely) with an estimated capitalization rate ranging from 6.75% to 7%. Your lease rate may be less or more than this based on the costs and expenses your landlord will incur in building your Restaurant and your capitalization rate may vary based on your own creditworthiness.

⁷ Soft costs. These costs include required building permits, impact fees, taxes, bonds, licenses and other fees, which can vary dramatically depending on the location, as well as legal, accounting, administrative, permitting, architectural, design and miscellaneous other professional fees that you may incur before you open for business.

⁸Equipment, furniture, signage and fixtures. You must purchase or lease certain items of equipment including kitchen and serving line equipment, point of sale system and related software, a decor package, refrigeration and installation, point of sale materials, a sound system, a safe, digital interior and drive-thru menu boards, miscellaneous smallwares, equipment and signage. If a high rise (interstate) sign is used, the equipment cost will be on the high-end of the range. You may be able to convert an existing restaurant property with hood systems and a walk-in cooler and walk-in freezer which may lower the cost of equipment acquisition. We require that for your first Bojangles Restaurant you pay in full for the equipment package and avoid equipment financing. We may, at our option, extend this requirement for additional Restaurants that you develop.

¹⁰Utility deposits and business licenses. Generally, you will need to submit deposits for utilities. The amount of the deposits will vary depending upon the practices of the utility companies. Generally, these deposits are refundable under the utility company’s terms. The locality in which you place your Restaurant may also require a business license which may require you to pay a fee. There may also be impact fees or other like development fees charged by the municipal authority or utility company.

¹¹Additional funds (3 months initial phase). You will need capital to support on-going and miscellaneous expenses to the extent these costs are not covered by sales revenue. New businesses often generate a negative cash flow for some period of time. These figures are an estimate of the additional funds that you may require for operating expenses during the initial three months of business. They include payroll, taxes, insurance, food, paper, supplies, utilities, point of sale system maintenance and support fees, licenses and permits, bank charges and repair and maintenance expenses. They do not include advertising or royalty fee payments made to us. They also do not include real estate or leasehold costs. These figures are estimates, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on factors such as: the size of your Restaurant; how closely you follow our methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business acumen; financing costs; local economic conditions; the local market for restaurants; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period.

¹²Total. We relied on our affiliate’s experience in operating Bojangles Restaurants and outside sources of consultation to derive our estimates for these additional funds. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor, a certified public accountant with relevant industry experience and/or your attorney before making any decision to purchase the franchise. We do not offer any financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment.

¹ Franchise Fee. The franchise fee for a Bojangles Express Restaurant is $20,000 and is further described in Item 5.

If you currently own the structure in which the Bojangles Express Restaurant is located, you may have no greater insurance costs or you may have some additional insurance costs for the improvements and for liability coverage. Your insurance costs may be less than those shown here if you are able to incorporate your Bojangles Express Restaurant insurance costs in your current insurance coverage for the facility and for liability insurance coverage.

³ Pre-opening salaries, travel, living expenses during initial training. You will incur expenses associated with sending five to seven people and your Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner to our initial training program. For this training program, we provide instructors and instructional materials, but you will need to arrange for transportation, food and lodging for yourself and employees. The cost will depend on the distance you must travel and the type of accommodations you choose and will range from $205 to $225 per day per person in training. In addition, you must pay any wages due employees during training. The expenses associated with the Bojangles Express Restaurants generally will involve the training of fewer managers than those required in a traditional Bojangles Restaurant. The estimate does not include salaries for your Managing Owner or Principal Operating Officer or Partner. See Item 11 for additional information regarding our training program.

⁴ Upfitting costs. The costs for upfitting an existing facility to accommodate a Bojangles Express Restaurant will vary depending on several factors, including whether an existing food or deli type facility is being converted, whether a drive-thru window is being added to the facility if none exists, the square footage and dimensions of the Bojangles Express Restaurant, which may vary from approximately 800 square feet to 3,800 square feet, whether a seating addition is added, the size required for the kitchen depending on the menu format adopted for the Bojangles Express Restaurant and the existence of adequate hood systems and HVAC. In some cases, part of the upfitting cost may be paid by the landlord with the expectation of increased rents based upon a percentage of sales.

⁵ Equipment, furniture, signage and fixtures. You must purchase or lease certain items of equipment including kitchen and serving line equipment, point of sale system and related software, a decor package, refrigeration and installation, point of sale materials, a sound system, a safe, digital interior and drive-thru (if required) menu boards, miscellaneous smallwares and equipment and signage. The equipment package required for a Bojangles Express Restaurant will vary depending on factors, including the presence of existing food service or deli type facilities, the square footage and anticipated volumes of the Bojangles Express Restaurant, the menu format adopted for the Bojangles Express Restaurant and the addition of a drive-thru window. We require that for your first Bojangles Restaurant you pay in full for the equipment package and avoid equipment financing. We may, at our option, extend this requirement for additional Restaurants that you develop.

⁷ Utility deposits and business licenses. Generally, you will need to submit deposits for utilities. The amount of the deposits will vary depending upon the practices of the utility companies. Generally, these deposits are refundable under the utility company's terms. The locality in which you place your Restaurant may also require a business license which may require you to pay a fee. There may also be impact fees or other like development fees charged by the municipal authority or utility company.

⁸ Additional funds (3 months initial phase). You will need capital to support on-going and miscellaneous expenses to the extent these costs are not covered by sales revenue. New businesses often generate a negative cash flow for some period of time. These figures are an estimate of the additional funds that you may require for operating expenses during the initial three months of business. They include payroll, taxes, insurance, food, paper, supplies, utilities, point of sale system maintenance and support fees, licenses and permits, bank charges and repair and maintenance expenses. They do not include advertising or royalty fee payments made to us. They also do not include real estate or leasehold costs. These figures are estimates, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on factors such as: the size of your Bojangles Express Restaurant; how closely you follow our methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business acumen; financing costs; local economic conditions; the local market for restaurants; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period.

⁹ Real estate acquisition or leasehold costs. We cannot estimate your initial investment for acquiring or leasing real estate for a Bojangles Express Restaurant as that cost varies based on multiple factors. If you currently own the building in which a Bojangles Express Restaurant is placed, you will not incur any additional rental costs. If you lease space within a facility owned by a third party landlord your monthly rental will vary and may require percentage rent based on Restaurant Gross Sales. The cost of renovation of the facility for inclusion of the Bojangles Express Restaurant in some cases may be paid in whole or in part by the owner of the facility, which will generally increase the amount of rent required. If utilities, taxes and insurance for casualty to the facility are included within the rent, the rents may also be higher than the amounts shown. Typical retail rents vary within different markets, depending on a variety of factors, including, geographic location, type of venue, build to suit costs or landlord passthroughs of various development costs, which can all have an impact on the rental rate. Pre-opening rent figures will vary and can be paid for a certain number of months before being open to the public. For example, if pre-opening rent is required for three months prior to opening to the public, it may range from approximately $12,000 to $25,500 or more, depending on your rental rate and negotiated terms impacting your rental rate.

¹⁰ Total. We relied on our affiliate's experience in operating Bojangles Express Restaurants and outside sources of consultation to derive our estimates for these additional funds. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor, a certified public accountant with relevant industry experience and/or your attorney before making any decision to purchase the franchise. We do not offer any financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

To ensure that the highest degree of quality and service is maintained, you must operate your Restaurant in strict conformity with the methods, standards, and specifications that we periodically prescribe in the Manual (defined below) or otherwise in writing.

Products and Suppliers

You must purchase proprietary seasonings and specially formulated pre-prepared mixes that are required ingredients of various menu items from our designated suppliers in addition to other proprietary products available only to Restaurants that are part of the Bojangles System. There are other products that may not be exclusively proprietary to the Bojangles System but that are produced or purchased according to our specification and direction including bone-in chicken (offered in certain markets), pork, dairy and produce products, and coffee and tea products. In certain markets, Bojangles Restaurants may offer the Boneless Chicken Only Menu with a different or more limited menu, and may not serve breakfast all day. You must purchase only approved and designated items, and you may not purchase any item not specifically approved by us. You may purchase all items only from approved and designated suppliers and using only those distribution providers that we approve and designate. We will make a list of our approved suppliers and distributors available to you upon request.

Pepsi-Cola currently is our exclusive supplier of beverages for cola and most other soft drinks ("Post-Mix Products") throughout the domestic Bojangles System for new franchisees. You must, as a condition to becoming a Bojangles franchisee, offer for sale at the Restaurant Pepsi-Cola Post-Mix Products unless your Restaurant is located within an entertainment and sports venue or food-court that does not sell Pepsi fountain products or is part of a multi-brand operation that shares a single fountain beverage station that does not sell Pepsi fountain products. Certain existing Bojangles franchisees may be exempt from the requirement to purchase the Pepsi-Cola Post-Mix Products.

You must purchase all other food items including soft drinks and other beverages, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, supplies, materials, and other items used or offered for sale at the Restaurant solely from approved suppliers (including manufacturers, distributors, and other sources) who demonstrate, to our continuing reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our then-current standards and specifications for such items; who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply your needs promptly and reliably; and who have been approved by us in writing and not thereafter disapproved.

The cost of food items, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, supplies, materials, and other items and the cost of distribution of these items from approved vendors may vary among franchised Restaurants and company-operated Restaurants. These variations in cost are due to various factors, including the geographic proximity of your Restaurant to the supplier's distribution center, the number of deliveries scheduled to your area each week and actual transportation costs. Our distributors may charge surcharges or other costs that are not equally charged to other franchisees or company-operated Restaurants, particularly if your restaurants are not close to other Restaurants or far from a central distribution location. In evaluating which approved suppliers you wish to purchase from, you may want to take these factors into consideration. You will be required to enter into a distribution agreement with McLane Foodservice, Inc. or Sysco Corporation (or its designated affiliate) as our currently designated general distributors, depending on the geographic market where your Restaurant will be located.

If you desire to purchase products from suppliers other than our approved suppliers or distributors, you must submit or have the proposed supplier submit to our Supply Chain Department at our principal place of business a written request for approval together with such evidence of conformity with our specifications as we may reasonably require. We will have sole discretion to determine whether the proposed supplier will be approved. We will have the right to require that our representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered for evaluation and testing either to us or to an independent testing facility designated by us. You or the supplier must pay us a charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the evaluation and testing. This includes costs of travel and time of personnel that we estimate to be $4,800. If the review involves product testing, we estimate the cost to be an additional $8,100. We estimate the time necessary to approve a supplier after receipt of all necessary information to be 60 to 120 days. We will, within 120 days after your request, notify you of our approval or disapproval of the proposed supplier. You must not sell or offer for sale any products of the proposed supplier until you receive our written approval of the proposed supplier. You must use products purchased from approved suppliers solely for the purpose of operating your Restaurant and not for any other purpose.

Our criteria for supplier approval include: (1) adequate quality controls assuring ability to consistently produce product of desired quality in flavor, size, appearance and texture, (2) sufficiently high sanitation rating of facility producing product, (3) financial stability, (4) ability to consistently and promptly produce desired quality and quantity of product, (5) full compliance with all government regulations and specifications, (6) positive reputation in restaurant community and ethical operation of organization; and (7) competitive pricing.

You must permit us or our agent, at any reasonable time, to remove samples of food or non-food items from your inventory, or from the Restaurant, without payment, in amounts reasonably necessary for testing by us in independent laboratories, to determine whether the samples meet our then-current standards and specifications. You must bear the cost of such testing if the supplier of the item has not previously been approved by us or if the sample fails to conform with our specifications.

Formulae for proprietary seasonings and specially formulated pre-prepared mixes are not available to you or other franchisees. Standards and specifications for other food and paper products are not uniformly issued to franchisees. We determine the standards and specifications for those food and paper products, sometimes in consultation with suppliers, to assure our desired quality of ingredients, size, flavor and appearance and our desired quantities for each product. We formulate and modify standards and specifications through consumer research and internal product testing.

We may from time to time revoke our approval of particular products or suppliers when we determine in our sole discretion that those products or suppliers no longer meet our standards. Upon your receipt of notice of such revocation, you must stop selling any disapproved products and stop purchasing from any disapproved supplier.

Neither we nor any of our affiliates are approved suppliers of food or other products for Bojangles Restaurants and you are not obligated to purchase or lease any goods, services or real estate from us or any of our affiliates. None of our officers owns an interest in any of our suppliers; however, a member of the board of directors of Walker Parent, Gary Vaynerchuk, owns an interest in Sasha Group, LLC, a company we retained to provide creative agency services, including digital media and creative services.

During fiscal year 2023 we earned rental income from various franchisees in the total amount of $8,721,176 for 64 leased Restaurants.

We estimate that purchases and leases that are subject to our standards and specifications will represent approximately 100% of the cost of all purchases and leases of goods and services to establish your Restaurant and 100% of the cost of all purchases and leases of goods and services to operate your Restaurant.

We do not currently have purchasing or distribution cooperatives, but we reserve the right to establish them.

Purchase Agreements, Allowances and Rebates

We negotiate purchase arrangements with some suppliers for your benefit including price and discount amounts available to you, to us and to the Bojangles System. We may use consultants to assist us in negotiating supply chain agreements or hedging arrangements and in those certain situations consulting fees may be included in food and product costs charged to the Bojangles System. We receive rebates or volume discounts from some suppliers on some orders of products, which rebates or discounts are based on the volume of products we purchase for company-operated Restaurants and which are typically a set percentage of the total purchase. Generally, these same percentage discounts or rebates are available and paid directly to you from the supplier when you purchase the same products. We also have entered into arrangements with several beverage suppliers that have agreed to pay rebates or commissions to us based on purchases made by franchised and company-operated Restaurants. These rebates and commissions are usually based on the amount of product ordered. The amount of these rebates range on average from $0.31 to $0.72 per gallon of syrup. We deposit some of these rebates and commissions in the Marketing Development Fund. Rebates based on system-wide purchasing volumes may not include purchases made by certain franchised restaurants that are exempt from the above purchasing requirements.

Lease Requirements

You must obtain our written approval of the terms of any lease or mortgage for any site on which a Restaurant is to be developed. The lease or mortgage must permit assignment to us in the event of default by you under the lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or any agreement between you and us. The documents must provide, in form and substance satisfactory to us, provisions for quiet enjoyment, subordination, and mutual attornment. Leases and mortgages must be bona fide and provide financial terms consistent with those prevalent in the area. Leases must also provide for a term not less than the term of the Franchise Agreement for the Restaurant to be developed on the site. You must use your best efforts to obtain an option to renew the Lease on stated financial terms which, if exercised, will, when added to the initial term, be for a period of not less than an additional twenty years. As part of the Franchise Agreement, you and your landlord must execute the Addendum to the Lease Agreement, which is Exhibit D to the Franchise Agreement, that provides, in pertinent part, the requirement that the landlord provide us notice of any default and permits us to assume the lease, at our option, upon your default of your lease obligations.

Computer System

You must purchase and use the computer hardware and software system described in Item 11. You may also be required to acquire equipment for offering for sale and accepting gift cards and credit cards and to work with our approved credit card and gift card program vendors. You will be required to receive communication from us on a variety of subjects on an on-going basis by email. You will be required to use an email address that we provide as part of the Bojangles System as a means of receiving information from us.

Insurance

You must procure and maintain insurance for the Restaurant as follows:

1. Worker's compensation in an amount at least in the statutory requirements for the state in which the Restaurant is located, with employers' liability limits of at least $500,000 per occurrence for bodily injury by accident and disease;

2. Comprehensive general liability insurance, including products liability and broad form contractual liability insurance in an amount of not less than $5,000,000 per occurrence. Your liability coverage may be primary and non-contributory. Insurance carriers must be an insurance company with at least an A- class rating and VIII financial size according to A.M. Best and if not available then according to Moody's or Standard and Poor's.

3. Property insurance on ISO special form, covering the building with 100% replacement cost coverage, less a commercially reasonable deductible. Coverage must include flood and earthquake if the location is in a high hazard zone.

4. All policies of insurance, including general liability insurance, shall name Bojangles Opco, LLC, Bojangles' Restaurants, Inc. (in its capacity as Manager under a Management Agreement with Bojangles Opco, LLC) and their respective affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective partners, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, representatives, and employees as additional insureds or loss payees, as may be applicable, on the policies; shall provide that the policy cannot be cancelled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to us; and shall specify that copies of all notices shall be sent to us. You must furnish us with copies of all policies or certificates evidencing insurance in force as required. Evidence of payment of premiums shall be delivered to us at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration dates of each existing insurance policy; and

5. Such additional insurance covering such additional risks or providing such higher limits as we may reasonably request.

We consider a variety of factors when determining whether to renew or grant additional franchises. Among the factors we consider is compliance with the requirements described above.

FINANCING

We do not offer direct or indirect financing. We do not guarantee your note, lease or obligation.

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

We may provide any of the services described in this Item 11 through our affiliate, BRI, and its employees.

Pre-Opening Obligations

Before you open your Restaurant, we will:

1. If you sign a Development Agreement with us, designate your number of Restaurants, which shall be at least two Restaurants, and your Assigned Area for development of Restaurants (Development Agreement, Section I.A.), and approve or disapprove the specific location of each Restaurant (Development Agreement Section I.A.; Franchise Agreement Section I.A.; Individual Franchise Agreement Section I.A.; Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Section I.A.).
2. Provide reasonable site selection assistance and counseling upon your request. We will approve your site or disapprove your site with comments as to why it was disapproved within 45 days of our receipt of your application for site approval (Development Agreement Section IV.A.; Individual Franchise Agreement Section V.A.; Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Section V.A.).
3. Approve or disapprove your mortgage, deed of trust or lease with comments as to any disapproval within 20 days of our receipt of a copy of it. We may waive this requirement in our discretion. (Development Agreement Section IV.B.; Individual Franchise Agreement Section V.B.; Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Section V.B.).

4. Upon receipt of a copy of an executed lease or copy of an executed unconditional contract to purchase the site (or deed if you own the site), provide preliminary plans and specifications for the construction of a standard, free-standing Restaurant building for use by you and your architects in preparation of final plans and specifications for the Restaurant to be constructed; however, we do not provide any plans or specifications under our Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement. You must engage an architect that is approved by us to prepare such plans and you will then submit them to us for approval. (Development Agreement Section IV.D.; Individual Franchise Agreement Section V.D.).
5. Provide an initial training program as described below to instruct you as to the procedures and techniques to be used at the Restaurant (Franchise Agreement/Individual Franchise Agreement/Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Section III.A.).
6. Provide a copy of written or electronic manuals, memoranda, procedures, policies and other communications created by us (collectively the “Manual”) on loan (Franchise Agreement/Individual Franchise Agreement/Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Section III.E.). As of the date of this disclosure document, there are approximately 1,452 pages in the Manual. The table of contents of the Manual is attached as Exhibit M to this disclosure document. The Manual may be provided to you by electronic access rather than physical, written copy. We may provide additional publications and memoranda by email electronic transmission, in written form, or by electronic access to Bojangles intranet system (“Portal”) to which franchisees have access. These communications, publications and advisories are all part of the Manual.
7. Provide to you advice and consultation in connection with the operation of the Restaurant and new developments, techniques, and improvements in areas of restaurant management, food preparation, sales promotion, and service which may be provided by us by sending our employees or representatives to the Restaurant, by providing publications, other written materials, electronic learning content, or videos or by conducting meetings or seminars (Franchise Agreement/Individual Franchise Agreement/Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Sections III.B. and E.).

We are not obligated by the Franchise Agreement, or any other agreement, to provide any other supervision, assistance or services prior to the opening of your Restaurant.

Continuing Obligations

During the operation of your Restaurant we will:

1. Provide such training programs from time to time as we may deem appropriate (Franchise Agreement/Individual Franchise Agreement/Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement/Renewal Franchise Agreement Section III.A.).
2. Provide to you advice and consultation in connection with the operation of the Restaurant and new developments, techniques, and improvements in areas of restaurant management, food preparation, sales promotion, and service which may be provided by us by sending our employees or representatives to the Restaurant, by providing publications, other written materials, electronic learning content, or videos or by conducting meetings or seminars. Some or all of these publications or programs may be provided electronically by us and not by printed or physical documents (Franchise Agreement/Individual Franchise Agreement/Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement/Renewal Franchise Agreement Sections III.B. and E.).

3. Provide to you advice and assistance in local advertising from time to time and, at your expense, promotional materials for local advertising (Franchise Agreement Sections III.C. and XI.D. and F.; Individual Franchise Agreement Sections III.C. and XII.D. and F.; Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Sections III.C. and XIII.D. and F.; Renewal Franchise Agreement Sections III.C. and XI.D. and F.).
4. Develop advertising materials and direct advertising programs for the Marketing Development Fund with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs (Franchise Agreement Sections III.D. and XI.; Individual Franchise Agreement Sections III.D. and XII.; Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Sections III.D. and XIII.; Renewal Franchise Agreement Sections III.D. and XI.).
5. Provide as we deem advisable revisions periodically of the contents of written operating materials (Franchise Agreement Section VIII.D.; Individual Franchise Agreement Section IX.D.; Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement Section X.D.; Renewal Franchise Agreement Section VIII.D.).
6. Perform, as we deem advisable, inspections of the Restaurant, and evaluations of products sold and services rendered (Franchise Agreement/Individual Franchise Agreement/Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement/Renewal Franchise Agreement Section III.F.).

We are not obligated by the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement to provide any other supervision, assistance or services in connection with the on-going operation of your Restaurant.

Site Selection

The Development Agreement will grant you either an Assigned Area within which to establish and operate your Restaurants at specific locations to be designated in separate Franchise Agreements or at specific locations at which you may operate Restaurants under the authority of specific Franchise Agreements. The Individual Franchise Agreement and Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement when not associated with a Development Agreement will grant you an assigned location to be determined under procedures established in each of those agreements for the establishment and operation of your Restaurant.

You must propose, before your acquisition by lease or purchase of any site, the site for a Restaurant for our approval on forms or in the manner that we designate. You may submit a site to us only after you have carefully evaluated the site, determined that it meets the criteria for Restaurant sites which we have communicated to you, and determined that you may acquire or lease it. If we do not approve a site you submit, you will not be permitted to develop a Restaurant on the site. We will review your application for site approval, and, within 45 days of our receipt of your application, we will either approve or reject the proposed site in our sole discretion with comments concerning the reasons for rejection if applicable. If you do not obtain our approval of a site prior to the site approval deadline in the Franchise Agreement (if you have signed a Franchise Agreement) and the Development Agreement, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement. We may consider the following factors, among others, in reviewing sites: population around the location, traffic counts on roads serving the location, signage available under local regulations, visibility of the location from nearby roads, ease of ingress and egress, speed limits on adjoining roads, parking, on site traffic flow, drive-thru layout, building elevations, demographic information, existence of nearby traffic generators (such as shopping centers, schools and hospitals), existence of population and commercial growth and potential impact to surrounding Bojangles Restaurants.

If you are developing the Restaurant under a Development Agreement, when we approve your site, we will send you a site approval letter. Thereafter, you will receive our then current disclosure document and Franchise Agreement and related documents for your Restaurant. You must sign the Franchise Agreement and related documents within 30 days after your receipt of the site approval letter.

It is our experience that after an acceptable site has been located and a Franchise Agreement executed, it takes approximately 15 months (negotiating, documentation, permitting and construction) before a Restaurant is ready to open for business. Factors that may affect the time period from execution of the Agreement to the opening of the Restaurant include ability to obtain a lease, financing or building permits, zoning and local ordinances, weather conditions, shortages or delayed installation of equipment, fixtures and signs.

If you sign a Development Agreement, you must: (1) commence construction of and pay the franchise fee for each Restaurant by the earlier of the construction commencement deadline in the development schedule in the Development Agreement or within 270 days after site approval as required by the Franchise Agreement for the Restaurant; and (2) construct, furnish and open the Restaurant by the earlier of the opening deadline in the development schedule in the Development Agreement or within 180 days after the start of construction as required by the Franchise Agreement for the Restaurant. If you execute a Franchise Agreement, Individual Franchise Agreement or Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement not associated with a Development Agreement, you must obtain our approval of a site within 180 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement, commence construction within 270 days after site approval, and complete construction of the Restaurant and open for business within 180 days after the start of construction.

You may request an extension of the site approval deadline, construction commencement deadline, and opening deadline for a Restaurant if you submit your request at least 14 days before the deadline and pay the extension fee. Upon review, we may grant your extension request in our sole discretion. If we grant an extension on any deadline, we will determine the length of the extension at our sole option. We may consider a variety of factors in whether to grant an extension, including the diligence you have shown in developing the Restaurant. If we reject your extension request, then we will refund the extension fee to you. Extensions do not change any deadlines other than the particular deadline then being adjusted by the extension that is the subject of your request.

Generally, you will purchase or lease your Restaurant location from independent third parties.

POS System

For each Restaurant, you must purchase the point of sale system, components, computer system, related software and other peripherals that we designate (collectively, the “POS System”) from our approved vendor, Xenial, Inc. New franchisees who do not currently operate any Bojangles Restaurants are required to use our designated POS System. In addition, new franchisees who do not currently operate any Bojangles Restaurants are required to purchase their network package from our approved vendor, Xenial, Inc. at an estimated cost of $17,000. The network package includes firewalls, wireless access points, routers, switches and high speed communications (which includes cable, DSL, fiber, or other telecommunications connections). Existing franchisees who operate Bojangles Restaurants are currently permitted to continue to use other point of sale systems and network packages previously acquired and in use and may be permitted to do so for limited time periods going forward. These point of sale systems must be kept updated and franchisees must be able to support them. Eventually all older systems will be required to be replaced with the POS System designated by us. We have the right to test any point of sale and computer systems in the Restaurants for possible future use and approval.

As of the date of this disclosure document, the quoted cost from Xenial, Inc. for the POS System for a traditional full-size Restaurant with four terminals is $38,000, plus applicable taxes and shipping. A digital menu board system including both interior and exterior boards and configured for a dual lane drive thru will cost an additional $60,000. The cost of the POS System may change and, depending on the size and configuration of your Restaurant, there may be optional components and services included in this estimate that increase or decrease your costs. In the future, we may also add or change the list of approved systems and vendors, components, software and services. The estimated costs of the POS System are included in the estimated equipment costs in Item 7.

There are ongoing required maintenance and support services that may be acquired on an annual basis from the vendor of the POS System. The costs of these annual programs may also change and may be affected by certain optional services you elect. You may be required to upgrade to the most current version of software and hardware as these become available. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and costs of your obligation to upgrade the POS system. As of the date of this disclosure document, the costs of those annual support services that you will have to pay, as quoted by Xenial, Inc. for the POS System are $753 for software update maintenance, $889 for menu maintenance-configuration, $1,231 for help desk and telephone support, and $2,160 for network monitoring and maintenance costs.

The types of data generated and stored by your POS System, computer and software systems include transaction detail, method of payment, time keeping, POS System operator, payroll and hours, human resource statistical information, inventory information, menu-mix and cash management. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access to this information, and it is our intent in the near future to create programs that provide direct independent access to inventory and menu-mix information (i.e. inventory purchased, inventory received, inventory transferred and inventory disposal or waste) and transaction sales information (i.e. detailed transaction information, coupon usage and payment methods for each transaction). All systems and franchisees will be required to provide us with independent direct access to the foregoing information. We reserve the right to access other information in the future.

You are required to be compliant with the most current Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard as well as any other industry, legal or vendor standards and requirements. To protect our customers and the Bojangles System from a potential credit card breach, you must comply with EMV Chip Card and terminal requirements as outlined by the payment card industry.

Training

You must designate an individual to serve as your Managing Owner and your Principal Operating Officer if you are a corporation or Principal Operating Partner if you are a limited liability company. For the qualifications required of a Managing Owner and a Principal Operating Officer or Partner, see Item 15. Before opening the Restaurant, your Managing Owner and your Principal Operating Officer or Partner (if he/she has not previously attended our initial training program), and such number of your Restaurant managers as we designate must attend and complete (and any other of your Restaurant employees may attend and complete) the initial training program that we offer. After opening your Restaurant, any person employed by you in the position of Restaurant manager, and each Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner, if he/she has not already attended our initial training program, must attend and complete, and any other of your Restaurant employees may attend and complete, the initial training program.

Your Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, Restaurant managers and other Restaurant employees must also attend other required courses, seminars, and other training programs as we may periodically designate in Charlotte, North Carolina or elsewhere at our discretion. We will provide, at no charge to you, instructors and training materials for all required training programs; and you or your employees will be responsible for all other expenses incurred by them in connection with any training programs, including the cost of transportation, lodging and meals (which are estimated to be approximately $205 to $225 per day), the cost of required uniform shirts (approximately $25 each) and wages.

Your Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, Restaurant managers, and other Restaurant employees may also attend such optional training programs and seminars as we may offer from time to time. You must pay to us, for each person attending such a program, the training fee, if any, then charged by us. If any training fee is imposed by us, the training fee will be in addition to any other expenses incurred by the persons attending training.

We currently provide training in our company-operated Restaurants and our training center (“Bojangles University” or “Bo-U”) located at 9432 Southern Pine Boulevard in Charlotte, North Carolina. The training location will be set at our discretion. The initial training program for your Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall be, at our discretion, no less than 13 weeks for a highly experienced individual in the quick service restaurant industry and up to 26 weeks. The initial training program for your Managing Owner may also be reduced to two weeks, at our discretion, if your Principal Operating Officer or Partner is a highly experienced individual in the quick service restaurant industry and completes our required training for Principal Operating Officers and Partners. Your Managing Owner may also serve as your Principal Operating Officer or Partner. The initial training program for managers is approximately seven weeks in duration consisting of classroom instruction and on-the-job training and is conducted approximately ten times per year. We bear the cost of maintaining Bo-U, including the overhead costs of training, training tools and staff salaries.

Training should be scheduled so that your trainees graduate from the initial training program approximately two weeks before the Restaurant opens. Each trainee must complete the training program to our satisfaction in order to be certified as a Bojangles Restaurant manager.

The subjects covered in our training program are described below:

We may provide on-site opening assistance at no additional charge to you. Our current policy is that for your first Restaurant, we will provide one to four support personnel on site for ten days, with one to two of our opening personnel to remain an additional six days without additional cost to you. For your second Restaurant opening, it is our current policy to provide one to four on-site personnel for a total of ten days without additional cost to you. It is also our current policy not to provide on-site personnel for Restaurant openings after the opening of your second Restaurant. If you request additional on-site personnel support for a Restaurant opening or at any time beyond these policies, we will charge you $2,500 per person per week. We are not required to send personnel to your Restaurant as part of our training or ongoing support obligations. The level of support as to the number of personnel, the length of time those personnel remain, the number of Restaurant openings requiring the presence of our personnel or the per person cost of additional support may change at our discretion.

Advertising

Local and Regional Advertising.

Advertising, and the standardization of Bojangles System advertising, is important to the goodwill and the public image of the Bojangles System. You must spend at least 3% of the Gross Sales of your Restaurant on local and regional media advertising, in addition to any other advertising contribution required as discussed below. You must demonstrate on a quarterly basis, to our reasonable satisfaction, that you have made such expenditures. This advertising shall include radio, television, magazine, newspaper, billboard campaigns, digital and social media, search engine listings, print, direct mail and other forms of advertising media and public relations activities but shall not include the costs of advertising production, production of other marketing materials, cost of food promotion, point of purchase materials, telephone book advertising, stationery, or Restaurant indoor or outdoor site location signs. We may offer periodically to provide, upon your request and at your expense, approved local advertising and promotional plans and materials. We may require that some or all of this spending requirement be made by participation with us or other franchisees in advertising cooperative organizations or programs or by direct payments made to us as a contribution to our media spending outside of any cooperative organization or program. You must pay us $125 each month for each Restaurant that you operate, for payment to our approved digital channel vendors that power our mobile application and website, collect customer data, and customize customer advertising materials and local advertising programs for your restaurant trading area, including digital exclusives. This amount may change from time to time based on the fees charged by our vendors and the number of participating Restaurants in the Bojangles System. This amount qualifies towards the 3% of Gross Sales you are required to spend for Local Marketing. Franchisees operating before May 1, 1989 may have different contractual obligations and reduced local and regional advertising requirements.

If you fail to make or report the required advertising expenditures, we may require you to make payment directly to us or it may be drafted by us from your account for spending by us at our discretion on behalf of our Proprietary Marks and the Bojangles System. Any payments made to us that are not spent during the fiscal year received may be carried forward for use in the next fiscal year.

All advertising by you in any medium, including electronic media and internet advertising, must be conducted in a dignified manner and must conform to such standards and requirements as we may specify periodically in writing. You must submit to us (through the mail, return receipt requested), for our prior written approval, samples of all advertising and promotional plans and materials that you desire to use and that have not been prepared or previously approved by us. You shall not use any advertising or promotional plans and materials that have not received our prior written approval.

Marketing Development Fund.

You must contribute monthly an amount equal to 1% of the Gross Sales of your Restaurant during the prior month to the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund (the "Fund") for advertising and promotional purposes. Some franchisees operating under different forms of agreement may not be required to make payments into the Fund equivalent to your payments. The Fund will be maintained and administered by us or our designee as follows:

1. We will direct the creation of all advertising programs, with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs. The Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the trade names, trademarks, and service marks which are designated as part of the Bojangles System for the benefit of the Bojangles System through research and the creation of marketing materials. We are not obligated, in administering the Fund, to make expenditures for you which are equivalent or proportionate to your contribution, or to ensure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from Fund expenditures.

2. We will, for each of our company-operated Restaurants, make contributions to the Fund equal to the contributions required of comparable franchised Restaurants within the Bojangles System so that our average contribution for each company-operated Restaurant will be equal to the average contribution per franchised Restaurant. This average per Restaurant contribution for franchised Restaurants will be calculated by dividing the total contributions of franchisees to the Fund by the total number of franchised Restaurants. Our total contribution to the Fund will equal this average per Restaurant contribution multiplied by our total number of company-operated Restaurants. In addition, we may contribute promotional rebates we receive from suppliers to the Fund.

3. All contributions to the Fund will be used exclusively for advertising and promotion of the Bojangles System (including the cost of preparing and conducting television, radio, print, billboard advertising campaigns, social and digital media, and public relations activities; conducting research; employing advertising agencies and other specialists to assist in those activities; preparing and providing promotional materials and other point of purchase marketing materials to franchisees in the Bojangles System; and system-wide, regional or market promotions). No sums paid by you or other franchisees to the Fund will be used to defray any of our general operating expenses except for such reasonable administrative expenses and overhead, if any, as we may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs, including conducting market research, preparing marketing and advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund.

4. We are not required to spend all advertising contributions to the Fund in the fiscal year in which they accrue. However, any funds accrued and not spent in the fiscal year received shall be carried forward for use as provided in Paragraph 3 and are not returned to the contributors. We do not maintain separate bookkeeping accounts for the Fund, and the Fund is not audited separately. The Fund is reviewed as part of our annual audit. You may receive an annual accounting of expenditures of the Fund upon written request to us at the following address: Bojangles Opco, LLC, c/o Bojangles' Restaurants, Inc., 9432 Southern Pine Boulevard, Charlotte, North Carolina 28273, Attention: Marketing.

5. During the 2023 fiscal year, 53% of the monies in the Fund were spent on production of marketing materials, 27% for marketing promotions, 7% on media research (i.e. Nielsen Audio reports) and marketing research, and 13% on administrative expenses (expenses arising from storage, distribution and management of fulfillment house for point of purchase materials, costs of implementation and support of the system-wide gift card program and a portion of marketing employee salaries and expenses). During our last fiscal year, company-operated Restaurants contributed 35% of the total payments to the Fund and franchised Restaurants contributed 65% of the total payments to the Fund.

The coverage of the media in which advertising is distributed is local and regional in scope and is limited to those locales and regions where we or our franchisees operate Restaurants. We do not pay for media placement for you. You are required to purchase and place media advertising in your own local or through an active advertising cooperative, if there is one. We do not have an active national advertising program at this time. We use our in-house Marketing and Communications Department and external advertising and PR agencies to produce and place our advertising materials. Currently, there is no advertising council composed of franchisees that advises us on advertising policies.

Cooperative Advertising.

We have the right to require you to participate along with other franchisees in regional cooperative advertising organizations or programs established currently or in the future by us or other franchisees for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Bojangles System. Each cooperative must be organized and must operate from a written governing document, the Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement (the general form of which is attached as Exhibit F to this disclosure document, however, we may modify this form for a Restaurant in a DMA in which we have company-operated Restaurants) (the "Expense Sharing Agreement"). Except as otherwise provided below, at the time you execute a Franchise Agreement or Individual Franchise Agreement or Bojangles Express Franchise Agreement, you will be required to execute the Expense Sharing Agreement.

Each Expense Sharing Agreement establishes a DMA membership composed of (1) franchisees owning a Restaurant(s) within a particular DMA, (2) each franchisee that is a franchisee upon the date of execution of the Expense Sharing Agreement and who may have elected to become a member of a particular DMA under specific provisions in the Expense Sharing Agreement allowing that election, and (3) us and our affiliates as to each DMA in which we own a Restaurant. A DMA is a geographical area designated as a television Designated Market Area by the Nielsen Ratings Company. (For purposes of radio advertising, this geographical area is designated as a radio area of dominant influence or ADI by Nielsen Audio.) An "Eligible DMA" is a DMA with two or more members.

The following provisions apply generally to cooperatives:

1. Each cooperative will elect a chairman who has the authority to call and conduct meetings, to collect contributions from members and deposit the funds, as trustee, in a bank account and to have signature authority over such funds, to bring collection actions to collect delinquent contributions and to perform general administrative and accounting functions. The chairman may be elected for one year or until his successor has been duly elected. A majority vote of the membership may remove the chairman at any time.

2. The membership of the cooperative may periodically designate or appoint an individual or committee to supervise or to conduct the advertising functions for the cooperative. The membership may employ an advertising agency or individual for a period not greater than one year to carry out some or all of the advertising functions for the cooperative. A vote of 51% of the membership present and voting at an annual or special meeting of the cooperative will be required for such employment or for extending the term of the employment beyond one year; however, in some markets in which there are pre-existing franchised Restaurants, cooperative arrangements with new franchisees may require 85% of the votes.

3. Upon each question that may come before the membership for vote, each member shall be entitled to one vote for each Restaurant owned by that member and located within the DMA or transferred franchisee into the DMA by election under specific provisions of the Expense Sharing Agreement. All matters voted on require a majority vote of the members unless provided otherwise in the Expense Sharing Agreement. If a DMA contains both Bojangles Express Restaurants and freestanding, independent Restaurants, we may change the nature of membership of Bojangles Express Restaurants by giving written notice to all members granting Bojangles Express Restaurants one-half vote and full-size, freestanding Restaurants one vote each. In DMAs in which there are company-operated Restaurants, we may acquire the voting rights of some franchisees which may give us voting control of the cooperative. As a condition to the sale of existing company-operated Restaurants, we may retain the voting rights of the transferred Restaurants in the cooperative.

4. Cooperative advertising may include marketing programs using television, radio, print, mail out, billboards or other media or means.

5. Cooperative contributions will be set by the cooperative and shall not exceed 2% of the Gross Sales of a Restaurant without the unanimous consent of the membership or unless you agree to a greater percentage at the time you purchase existing Restaurants from our affiliate. The rates of contribution by the members may not be uniform among all members. Required contributions shall be paid on a monthly basis on or before the 15th day of the month immediately following the calendar month in respect to which such contribution is being made. If any member fails to make the required contributions within 10 days after the due date, such member shall not be entitled to vote upon any cooperative matters until the amounts are paid.

6. Each cooperative shall maintain records reflecting all contributions made or due to be made by members and all expenditures. The chairman may employ an independent accounting firm for the purpose of compiling, maintaining, and recording records of the financial transactions of the cooperative. The agreement does not require that records of financial statements be audited. The availability of financial records is controlled by the voting membership of the cooperative.

7. All amounts contributed by a member for cooperative advertising shall, to the extent expended for local advertising, be an allowable local advertising expense which shall be prorated among the members in proportion to their contributions, and each member's pro-rated amount shall be taken into full account in determining that member's fulfillment of its local advertising requirement under the Franchise Agreement.

See Item 6 for the contribution rates for cooperatives. We retain the right to dissolve any cooperative in our discretion.

Special Promotions.

We may establish or introduce certain national, regional, or local promotions, campaigns, contests, special or limited offers, and other programs, including as related to new products, services or other programs (collectively, the “Special Promotions”) to further promote Bojangles and the Bojangles System. We will consult with our Franchise Advisory Council regarding upcoming Special Promotions. Under the Franchise Agreement, you are required to implement our requirements regarding the Special Promotions. You are solely responsible for any costs and expenses associated with the Special Promotions, including the purchase of any inventory or supplies needed or required to implement the Special Promotions. We may also require you to participate in multi-channel marketing platforms approved by us (the “Multi-Channel Programs”) to further promote Bojangles and the Bojangles System. The Multi-Channel Programs will require your cooperation and participation, including for you to refrain from certain channels of marketing and distribution, and to pay commissions or referral fees. We will designate the multi-channel platform, method and timing of payment, and any outside agencies for the Multi-Channel Programs. To the extent permitted by applicable law, you will comply with any price restriction that we may promulgate in connection with the Special Promotions and the Multi-Channel Programs.

No advertising contributions or expenditures set forth in this Item 11 paid by you or other franchisees are used for the solicitation for the sale of franchises.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Development Agreement

If we sign a Development Agreement with you, we will grant you a territory in which you are allowed to develop Restaurants. The territory is referred to as an Assigned Area in the Development Agreement. The Assigned Area will be described by street boundaries or political subdivisions or may designate certain locations, intersections or market areas. The Assigned Area will be negotiated individually with you. The Assigned Area and the individual franchise locations will be based upon relevant factors including population, traffic patterns, trade areas and proximity to business generators such as schools and hospitals, and your ability to develop the Assigned Area in a timely manner. You must always obtain our approval for each specific Restaurant location within the Assigned Area. If we approve the location, a franchise is granted for that specific location only and we will sign a Franchise Agreement with you for that location. You do not receive any territorial rights under the Franchise Agreement.

Since we retain certain rights mentioned below within your Assigned Area, you will not receive an exclusive territory; you may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Your right to develop Restaurants in the Assigned Area will be for a limited time and be subject to your compliance with the terms of your Development Agreement and our retained rights. After the expiration or early termination of the Development Agreement you will no longer have exclusive rights to develop or operate in the Assigned Area. You do not have the right to open and operate any Restaurants in excess of the number of Restaurants specified in the Development Agreement. The Development Agreement does not grant options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises beyond those listed in the development schedule.

During the term of the Development Agreement, if you are in full compliance with all agreements with us, we will not establish, nor license anyone other than you to establish, any new Bojangles Restaurant under the System in your Assigned Area. However, we and our affiliates retain the right, among others, on any terms and conditions we deem advisable, and without granting you any rights therein: (1) to establish and operate and license others to establish and operate Bojangles Restaurants at any location outside your Assigned Area; (2) to establish and operate or license others to establish and operate Bojangles Restaurants at any location within your Assigned Area after the expiration or termination of your development schedule or your Development Agreement; (3) operate, and license others to operate, Bojangles Restaurants utilizing the System in your Assigned Area that are located: (i) in airports, train stations, bus stations, transportation centers, travel plazas, stadiums, arenas, convention centers, military facilities, gas stations, convenience stores, schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, theme parks, office buildings, food courts, venues in which foodservice is or may be provided by a master concessionaire or contract foodservice provider, Indian reservations, casinos or any similar captive market location; or (ii) within one (1) mile along each side of interstate highways located within your Assigned Area. We also retain the right to offer goods and services associated with the Proprietary Marks throughout the System including any Assigned Area, including without limitation, the right to sell the same or similar products that are authorized for sale at Bojangles Restaurants under the Proprietary Marks or under other trademarks or trade dress and through any other channel of distribution, whether such channel of distribution is now in existence or is hereafter developed and whether at retail or wholesale including, without limitation, sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, carts or kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets, grocery stores, restaurants, institutional customers, ghost kitchens, club stores and any other outlet or method of distribution, pursuant to any terms and conditions as we may deem appropriate.

We and other Bojangles franchisees are not restricted from soliciting sales inside your Assigned Area. The development rights granted to you in an Assigned Area are not dependent upon your achievement of a certain sales volume or any other contingency. However, in the event of certain defaults, including your failure to meet the development schedule, we may, in addition to any other remedies we may have, terminate, or reduce the area of, the territorial rights granted to you.

Franchise Agreement

If you sign a Franchise Agreement, you will receive the right to establish one Restaurant in a specific location and you will not receive any protected territory around that location. You must receive our prior written permission before relocating any Restaurant. Our approval will be based upon a variety of factors including the viability of the then-current location, whether the proposed location is outside of your Assigned Area (if applicable), and the characteristics and demographics relating to the proposed location (including number of households, household income, number of licensed drivers and number of businesses) and the proximity of other Bojangles Restaurants to the proposed location.

We and our affiliates retain the right to purchase, merge with, acquire or become associated with any business of any kind under other systems and/or trademarks and/or develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Proprietary Marks, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to you.

Neither we nor any of our affiliates has established, or presently intends to establish other restaurants or alternate channels of distribution for sale of similar products or services under a different trade name or trademark, but we reserve the right to do so. You may not use alternative distribution channels to make sales outside or inside an Assigned Area and you will receive no compensation for our sales through alternative distribution channels.

You may only solicit sales and orders, fulfill orders, and prepare and sell food from your Restaurant locations; and you may deliver food only to customers at your Restaurant locations; however, you are not restricted from advertising outside your location if all sales are made from your Restaurant locations.

TRADEMARKS

Development Agreement

The Development Agreement does not grant any right to use or to license others to use the Proprietary Marks for the Bojangles System.

We are the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks. The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to use the Proprietary Marks designated by us only in a manner authorized and permitted by us and only for the operation of your Restaurant at the location authorized in the Franchise Agreement or in advertising for the Restaurant. Under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, you must not use the Proprietary Marks as part of your corporate or other legal name.

Under the Franchise Agreement, you receive a license to use the following principal trademarks and service marks that we have registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”). All required affidavits of continued use have been filed and accepted.

Except for the Franchise Agreement itself, there are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our right to use or license others to use our Proprietary Marks that are material to any franchise.

In the event that litigation involving the principal trademarks is instituted or threatened against you, and you promptly notify us, we will conduct the defense and bear the expense of such litigation, and will be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in our sole discretion, we may decide. You must cooperate fully with us in defending or settling such litigation.

The right to use the principal trademarks granted in the Franchise Agreement is non-exclusive. We, therefore, have and retain the rights, among others:

1. To use the principal trademarks in connection with selling products and services;
2. To grant other licenses for the principal trademarks, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees; and
3. To develop and establish other systems using the same or similar principal trademarks, or any other principal trademarks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to you.

There is no currently effective determination of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state, or any court, nor any pending interference, opposition, or cancellation proceeding, nor any pending material litigation involving the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes, or other commercial symbols which are relevant to their use in the state in which any Restaurant is to be located or elsewhere.

There are no superior prior rights or infringing uses actually known to us that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks in the state in which any Restaurant is to be located. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to preserve and protect our ownership in and validity of the principal trademarks.

You must promptly notify us of any suspected unauthorized use of the principal trademarks and of any litigation involving the principal trademarks that is threatened or instituted against you. We are not obligated by the Franchise Agreement, nor otherwise, to protect any rights granted to you to use the principal trademarks or to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition with respect to them. We have the sole right to direct and control any administrative proceeding or litigation involving the principal trademarks, including any settlement.

We reserve the right to modify or discontinue principal trademarks or substitute different principal trademarks for use in identifying the Bojangles System and the businesses operating under it at our sole discretion and will have no obligation or liability to you as a result of any modification, discontinuance or substitution.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

As of the date of this disclosure document, we do not own any patents or patent applications that are material to your Restaurant or the Bojangles System.

We claim copyright protection in our building prototype plans and specifications, advertising and promotional materials, websites, social media sites, artistic designs and a variety of forms and programs. The information contained in these items may be used only with our permission, and at our direction. We also own business and technical information, such as our Manual, training materials, market research, formulas, patterns, programs, devices, compilations of information, methods, techniques, and processes that we maintain as trade secrets. We have not registered those materials with the United States Registrar of Copyrights.

You must operate your Restaurant in accordance with the Manual. The Manual may be provided to you by electronic access rather than physical, written copy. You must treat the Manual, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of your Restaurant, and the information contained in them, as confidential, and must use reasonable efforts to maintain this information as secret and confidential. You must not copy, duplicate, record or otherwise reproduce these materials, in whole or in part, or otherwise make them available to any unauthorized person. We may periodically revise the contents of the Manual, and you must comply with each new or changed standard. You must ensure that the Manual is kept current at all times. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by us at our home office shall be controlling.

You must notify us immediately if you learn about an infringement on our and your use of any item that may be copyrighted by us. However, we are not obligated by the Franchise Agreement, nor otherwise, to protect any rights that may be granted to you or to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition with respect to them.

In the event that litigation involving any items that may be copyrighted is instituted or threatened against you, you must promptly notify us. We will conduct the defense and bear the expense of such litigation, and will be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in our sole discretion, we may decide. You must cooperate fully with us in defending or settling such litigation.

If we decide to add, modify or discontinue the use of a proprietary item, whether or not we claim a copyright in such item, you must also do so and we will have no obligation or liability to you as a result of any addition, modification or discontinuance of the use of a proprietary item.

Confidential Information

You must not, during the term of the Development Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of any other person, partnership, association, or corporation, any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of Bojangles Restaurants including techniques, recipes, formulas, processes, procedures, designs, financial information, and information contained in the Manual. You may divulge confidential information only to those of your employees who must have access to it in order to operate your Restaurant, and you must take such precautions as we deem necessary to ensure that your employees keep such information in confidence. You must not use any proprietary or confidential information including any processes, procedures, recipes and formulas, or the Proprietary Marks, for any purpose other than the operation of the Restaurant and you must take all steps necessary to prevent any other use of these items.

We will disclose proprietary recipes and preparation methods to you necessary to operate a Bojangles Restaurant, but we are not required to disclose contents of proprietary seasonings, ingredients and mixes that are purchased from approved suppliers.

ITEM 15 OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You must be a corporation or a limited liability company composed solely of no more than six shareholders/members who are natural persons and not corporations, limited liability companies, or any other legal entities in order to be a developer or franchisee. You must complete an Affidavit of Ownership, the form of which is attached as Exhibit I, when you sign the Development Agreement and/or Franchise Agreement. You may not form separate legal entities to operate your individual Restaurants. In addition, you cannot be owned by two owners who each own 50% of your ownership interests.

Your Managing Owner will be the person with whom we will communicate and will have the authority to bind you with respect to all financial, operational and legal matters related to the Franchised Business and your Development Agreements and Franchise Agreements with us. The Managing Owner shall own a majority of your equity interests during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. If you do not have an owner with a majority equity interest, the Managing Owner shall own the next highest percentage equity interest during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. The same individual may serve as your Managing Owner of all the franchised Restaurants controlled by you. The Managing Owner may also serve as your Principal Operating Officer or Principal Operating Partner as described below provided that the Managing Owner meets the criteria for both positions independently.

Your Principal Operating Officer or Partner must devote his or her full time and best efforts to the supervision and conduct of the Restaurants that you develop and operate and must own at least a 10% of your equity interests during the entire period that s/he serves as Principal Operating Officer or Partner. The same individual may serve as your Principal Operating Officer or Partner of all the franchised Restaurants controlled by you.

Your Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner must: (1) successfully complete our initial training program; (2) execute the Development Agreement and Franchise Agreement and be individually bound by all your obligations under those agreements; and (3) be approved by us. If a Managing Owner or Principal Operating Officer or Partner is unable or elects not to continue to meet his or her obligations as Managing Owner or Principal Operating Officer or Partner, or if, in our sole discretion, a Managing Owner or Principal Operating Officer or Partner no longer qualifies to act as such, you must promptly designate another Managing Owner and/or Principal Operating Officer or Partner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Your replacement Managing Owner and/or Principal Operating Officer or Partner must successfully complete our initial training program within 180 days after being appointed.

The franchised Restaurant must at all times be under the direct, on premises supervision of a Restaurant manager who has satisfactorily completed our initial training program. You must also maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff, including fully-trained manager, assistant managers and shift leaders for the Restaurant. We impose no limitations as to who you may hire as the Restaurant manager, except that you must comply with all applicable laws and that you must not harm the goodwill associated with the Bojangles System and the Proprietary Marks (this requirement may affect who you hire as your manager).

In entering into the Franchise Agreement with us, you will acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions of your Restaurant including, without limitation, decisions or actions related to hiring, firing, training, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, scheduling benefits, recordkeeping, supervision, and discipline of employees. You will further agree that we will not be deemed a joint employer with you for any reason. If we incur any cost, expense, loss, or damage as a result of any your actions or omissions or your employees, including any that relate to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, you must fully indemnify us for such cost, expense, loss, or damage.

Your Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, Restaurant manager and other Restaurant employees may be required to enter into an agreement not to compete with Restaurants under the Bojangles System and an agreement not to reveal confidential information obtained in the course of their employment with you. See Item 17 for a description of these obligations.

Each individual who owns an interest in you must sign a Guarantee agreeing to be bound by all the terms and conditions of the Development Agreement and Franchise Agreement, as applicable, including any amendments and to unconditionally guarantee the payment of all liabilities incurred by you, as franchisee, at any time and must sign as additional signatories the Franchise Agreement.

ITEM 16 RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must use the Restaurant premises solely for the operation of the Restaurant and keep the Restaurant open and in normal operation for such minimum hours and days as we may periodically specify or approve in writing. You must not use, or permit the use of, the Restaurant premises for any other purpose or activity at any time without first obtaining our written consent. You may sell Bojangles products only at the Restaurant location specified in the Franchise Agreement.

You must meet and maintain the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Restaurant. To ensure that the highest degree of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service is maintained, you must operate the Restaurant in strict conformity with such methods, standards, and specifications as we may periodically require in the Manual or otherwise in writing. You must also maintain in sufficient supply and use at all times only such ingredients, products, materials, supplies, and paper goods as conform to our standards and specifications, and you must not deviate from those standards and specifications by the use or offer of non-conforming items, without our prior written consent.

You must offer and sell all menu items, products and services as we have expressly approved for sale in writing and which are part of the Bojangles System as well as all menu items, products and services that we incorporate into the Bojangles System in the future. You must not deviate from our standards and specifications without our prior written consent. You must discontinue selling and offering for sale any menu items, products or services, which we may, in our discretion, disapprove in writing at any time. We have the right to change the types of authorized menu items, goods and services, and there are no limits on our rights to make changes. For example, in certain markets, Bojangles Restaurants may only offer the Boneless Chicken Only Menu.

You must offer all services that we may require including, for example, acceptance of specified credit and debit cards; use, acceptance and participation in our gift card programs, and all other System promotions, local marketing, contests and other Restaurant and System services and activities.

If you develop a Bojangles Express Restaurant, we typically will require you to refrain from selling from the convenience store or other structure outside of the Bojangles Express Restaurant items offered for sale from the Bojangles Express Restaurant and generally will require you to refrain from selling freshly prepared food items outside the Bojangles Express Restaurant. In addition, we typically will require you to refrain from selling from the convenience store or other structure any adult books or magazines, pornographic materials, other items featuring nudity or sexual activity or any sexually oriented devices.

For a description of your restrictions on some purchases, see Item 8 of this disclosure document.

PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to disclose information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-operated outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

I. FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2023

The following tables reflect information about the past financial performance of franchised and company-operated full-size traditional Bojangles restaurants (“Full-Size Restaurants”) with the Bone-In Chicken Menu, company-operated Full-Size Restaurants with the Boneless Chicken Only Menu, and franchised and company-operated Express Restaurants that were operated continuously for the period from December 26, 2022 to December 31, 2023 (“Fiscal Year 2023”), which includes 53 weeks. The system-wide Gross Sales of all franchised and company-operated Restaurants for Fiscal Year 2023 were $1,781,138,964.

Annual sales shown for franchised Restaurants may be based on our fiscal calendar or calendar months depending on how a particular franchisee has reported sales. Restaurants outside the United States and all special event concession operations are not included in any of the disclosures contained in Item 19.

Expenses shown are only for company-operated Restaurants.

The information contained in this Item 19 refers to specific franchised and company-operated Restaurants and should not be considered as the actual or potential sales or costs that will be achieved by your Restaurant. A new franchisee's individual financial results may differ from the results stated in this financial performance representation.

“Gross Sales” used in all Tables include revenue received by the applicable Restaurant but excludes all sales tax and non-cash discounts; or more simply, Gross Sales are cash and credit sales received by franchised and company-operated Restaurants. All Food and Supplies and Restaurant Labor (including payroll taxes and benefits) expenses are shown as a percentage of Gross Sales from company-operated Restaurants.

2. The company-operated Restaurants referenced above were managed by our affiliates during the last three years.

Exhibit L contains a list of all current operational franchisees and the address and telephone number of each of their restaurants as of December 31, 2023, and the name, city and state and current business telephone number (or if unknown, the last known home telephone number) of every franchisee who has had an outlet terminated, canceled, not renewed or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily ceased to do business under the franchise agreement during the most recently completed fiscal year or who has not communicated with us within 10 weeks of the disclosure document issuance date. If you buy this franchise, your contract information may be disclosed to other buyers when you leave the franchise system.

In some instances, during the last three fiscal years, current and former franchisees signed provisions restricting their ability to speak openly about their experience with Bojangles. You may wish to speak with current and former franchisees, but be aware that not all such franchisees will be able to communicate with you. Specifically, in conjunction with settlement agreements, workout agreements and certain amendments to franchise and development agreements, some former and current franchisees have signed confidentiality agreements.

Our predecessor created and we continue to sponsor a Franchise Advisory Council (“Council”) which advises us on various matters. We appoint the majority of members of the Council from corporate staff and four franchisees appointed by us. The Bojangles Franchise Association may appoint four of the Council’s members. Except as appointed by us or the Bojangles Franchise Association, franchisees do not have a right of membership or right of direct participation in the Council.

The Bojangles Franchise Association is an independent franchise association. Its address and telephone number are Bojangles’ of America Franchise Association, Inc., Attn: Kristal K. Beaver, its Executive Director, P.O. Box 277, Kinston, North Carolina 28502, (770) 891-1118 (the Association does not have an email address or web address). We are not aware of any other independent association of franchisees.

BOJANGLES DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Development Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of Effective Date identified on the signature page to this Agreement between BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Franchisor”), and the entity identified as “Developer” on the signature page of this Agreement.

WHEREAS, Franchisor, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort, and money, has developed and owns a unique and distinctive system (“Bojangles System” or “System”) relating to the establishment and operation of fast service restaurants;

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the Bojangles System include, without limitation, distinctive exterior and interior design, color schemes and layout, including specially designed decor and furnishings; a special selection of menu items largely prepared “from scratch”; procedures and techniques for food and beverage preparation; prompt and courteous service in a clean, wholesome atmosphere; methods of inventory, operating, cash and financial controls and systems for such controls; a training school utilizing special teaching techniques, course instruction and manuals; and unique advertising and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved, and further developed by Franchisor from time to time;

WHEREAS, Franchisor identifies the Bojangles System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems and indicia of origin, including but not limited to the marks “BOJANGLES®”, “BOJANGLES’®” and “BOJANGLES’ FAMOUS CHICKEN ‘N BISCUITS ®”, and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated (and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing) for use in connection with the Bojangles System (“Proprietary Marks”) and certain unique trade dress, including but not limited to specific color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout, now or hereafter used by Franchisor in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Trade Dress”);

WHEREAS, Franchisor continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks and Trade Dress in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed thereunder and under the System, and to represent the System’s high standards of quality, appearance, and service; and

WHEREAS, Developer wishes to obtain certain development rights to operate Bojangles restaurants (“Restaurant(s)”) under the Bojangles System in the assigned area described in Exhibit A of this Development Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments of each party to the other party set forth herein, hereby agree as follows:

I. GRANT

A. Franchisor hereby grants to Developer, pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, development rights to obtain licenses to establish and operate the number of Restaurants set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement, and to use the Bojangles System solely in connection therewith, at specific locations to be designated in separate franchise agreements (“Franchise Agreement(s)”) executed as provided in Paragraph IV.E. hereof, and pursuant to the schedule set forth in Exhibit A (“Development Schedule”). Each Restaurant developed hereunder shall be located in the area described in Exhibit A (“Assigned Area”).

B. This Agreement is not a Franchise Agreement, and does not grant to Developer any right to use the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress or the System.

C. Developer shall have no right under this Agreement and has no right under any other agreements to license others under the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress or Bojangles System.

D. During the term of this Agreement and provided that Developer is in full compliance with all terms and conditions of all Franchise and Development Agreements between Developer and Franchisor and is current on all obligations due to Franchisor, Franchisor shall not establish, nor license anyone other than Developer to establish, any new Bojangles Restaurant under the System in the Assigned Area. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisor and its affiliates retain all rights with respect to Bojangles Restaurants, the Proprietary Marks, the sale of similar or dissimilar products and services to those offered at Bojangles Restaurants, and any other activities Franchisor deems appropriate whenever and wherever Franchisor desires, including the right, among others, to:

(1) establish and operate and license others to establish and operate Bojangles Restaurants at any location outside the Assigned Area;

(2) establish and operate or license others to establish and operate Bojangles Restaurants at any location within the Assigned Area after the expiration or termination of this Agreement; and

(3) operate, and license others to operate, Bojangles Restaurants utilizing the System within the Assigned Area that are located: (i) in airports, train stations, bus stations, transportation centers, travel plazas, stadiums, arenas, convention centers, military facilities, gas stations, convenience stores, schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, theme parks, office buildings, food courts, venues in which foodservice is or may be provided by a master concessionaire or contract foodservice provider, Indian reservations, casinos or any similar captive market location; or (ii) within one (1) mile along each side of interstate highways located within the Assigned Area.

(4) Franchisor also reserves the right to offer goods and services associated with the Proprietary Marks throughout the System including the Assigned Area, including without limitation, the right to sell the same or similar products that are authorized for sale at Bojangles Restaurants under the Proprietary Marks or under other trademarks or trade dress and through any other channel of distribution, whether such channel of distribution is now in existence or is hereafter developed and whether at retail or wholesale including, without limitation, sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, carts or kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets, grocery stores, restaurants, institutional customers, ghost kitchens, club stores and any other outlet or method of distribution, pursuant to any terms and conditions as Franchisor may deem appropriate.

II. DEVELOPMENT FEE

A. In consideration of the development rights granted herein, Developer has paid to Franchisor a development fee in the amount set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement, receipt of which is acknowledged by Franchisor, which fee has been fully earned by Franchisor and is nonrefundable, in consideration of the administrative and other expenses incurred by Franchisor and for the development opportunities lost or deferred as a result of the rights granted Developer herein.

B. Developer shall receive a credit in the amount set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement for each Restaurant for which the applicable Franchise Agreement is executed within the time period specified under Paragraph IV.E. hereof, which credit Developer may deduct from the franchise fee paid to Franchisor.

III. DEVELOPER ORGANIZATION AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

A. Developer shall be a corporation or a limited liability company composed solely of no more than six (6) shareholders/members who are individuals and not corporations, limited liability companies, or any other legal entities, and shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Developer shall be organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation or organization;

(2) Developer shall be qualified to do business in all states in which its business activities or the nature of the properties owned by it requires such qualification;

(3) Developer shall be newly organized and its Articles of Incorporation or Charter, or if Developer is a limited liability company, Developer's Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement, shall at all times provide that Developer was organized and has authority only to develop, own and operate Bojangles restaurants; and that Developer shall not engage or invest in any business other than development, ownership and operation of Bojangles restaurants; [For Bojangles Express Restaurants, delete Paragraph III.A.(3) and substitute the following: "Developer shall be authorized to develop, own and operate Bojangles restaurants and shall be authorized to enter into this Agreement."]

(4) If Developer is a corporation, copies of Developer's Articles of Incorporation or Charter, Bylaws, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(5) If Developer is a limited liability company, copies of Developer's Articles of Organization, Operating Agreement and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the consent of all limited liability company members authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement.

(6) Developer shall maintain stop-transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any equity securities; and each stock certificate of Developer, or other evidence of ownership if Developer is a limited liability company, shall have the following legend conspicuously endorsed upon its face:

The shares represented by this certificate, or other evidence of ownership if Developer is a limited liability company, are subject to the terms of an agreement dated [date] between [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] and BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC, which, inter alia, restricts transfer, restricts activities in which [name of issuing corporation] may engage, and imposes restrictions on shareholders or members.

[For Bojangles Express Restaurants, delete Paragraph III.A.(6)]

(7) Developer shall sign each Franchise Agreement for the Restaurants developed hereunder and may not form separate legal entities to operate the Restaurants. Developer shall not be owned by two (2) owners who each own fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests in Developer. Developer shall maintain a current list of all owners of record, including all members if Developer is a limited liability company, and all beneficial owners of any class of securities of Developer and shall furnish the list to Franchisor at such time as Franchisor may request.

(8) At the date of execution of each Franchise Agreement executed pursuant hereto, Developer shall have, with respect to the Restaurant referred to in such Franchise Agreement, a ratio of debt to equity no greater than 1.5 to 1. Calculation of a debt to equity ratio for purposes hereof shall exclude equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of land and building, but shall include equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of equipment and inventory, training, franchise fees, start-up costs, initial point of purchase materials, landscaping, signage, and prepaid expenses. Developer shall, prior to the execution of each such Franchise Agreement, furnish Franchisor with evidence, satisfactory to Franchisor in its sole discretion, of its compliance with the requirement set forth in this paragraph.

[For Bojangles Express Restaurants, delete Paragraph III.B.]

B. Developer agrees to pay in full, and not lease or finance the equipment and fixtures in its first Bojangles restaurant.

IV. DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE, SITE SELECTION AND MANNER FOR EXERCISING DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

A. During the term of this Agreement, Developer shall develop, open and continuously operate in the Assigned Area the number of Restaurants specified in the Development Schedule. By the “Site Approval Deadline” noted in the Development Schedule for each Restaurant, Developer must: (i) locate a site for the Restaurant, (ii) obtain Franchisor’s written approval of the site; (iii) provide Franchisor with the form letter of intent, proposed lease or purchase agreement for the site; and (iv) execute Franchisor’s required form Franchise Agreement for the site. Upon request by Developer, Franchisor shall provide reasonable site selection assistance and counseling to Developer. Developer shall propose sites for approval by Franchisor on forms or in the manner designated from time to time by Franchisor. A site shall only be submitted to Franchisor after Developer has carefully evaluated the site, determined that it meets the criteria for Restaurant sites which Franchisor has communicated to Developer, and determined that it may be acquired or leased by Developer. Franchisor shall review the application for site approval; and, within forty-five (45) days of Franchisor's receipt of the application, Franchisor shall approve the proposed site or reject the site with comments as to why it was rejected. Franchisor reserves the right to reject any site proposed by Developer if Developer or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer or its affiliates): fail to demonstrate adequate financial resources and operational readiness to develop the site and operate the Restaurant, including adequate sources of capital; are not in good standing under this Agreement, any other agreements between Developer or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer or its affiliates) and Franchisor or its affiliates; or fail to adhere to any manuals, policies and/or procedures implemented by Franchisor in connection with other agreements between Franchisor and Developer or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer or its affiliates), including without limitation as related to operational standards.

B. Developer must obtain the written approval of Franchisor with respect to the terms of any lease or mortgage with respect to each site to be developed as a Restaurant under this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days after Franchisor's approval of a site, Developer shall notify Franchisor of the closing date if the site is to be obtained by purchase; and provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed mortgage or deed of trust if a mortgage loan is contemplated; or, if the site is to be obtained by lease, provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed lease. Within twenty (20) days thereafter, Franchisor shall send notice of approval or notice of rejection with comments. Developer shall, as promptly as possible after receipt of approval, complete acquisition or leasing of the site; and in any event shall complete acquisition or leasing of the approved site within ninety (90) days after receiving Franchisor's written approval of the site.

C. Any lease or mortgage for a Restaurant site must permit assignment of the lease, mortgage, or deed of trust to Franchisor or its designees in the event of default by Developer of the lease, mortgage, deed of trust, this Agreement, or any other agreement with Franchisor; and must provide, in form and substance satisfactory to Franchisor, for quiet enjoyment, subordination and mutual attornment. Leases and mortgages must be bona fide, and provide financial terms consistent with those prevalent in the area. Leases shall provide for a term not less than the term of the respective Franchise Agreement. Developer shall use its best efforts to obtain therein an option to renew on stated financial terms, which if exercised will, with the initial term, be for a period of not less than an additional twenty (20) years. Unless waived in writing by Franchisor, any lease for a Restaurant site shall contain provisions that satisfy the requirements set forth in the Addendum to Lease Agreement attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C during the entire term of the lease, including any renewal terms. [For Bojangles Express Restaurants, delete the last two sentences of this Paragraph IV.C.]

D. Upon receipt of a copy of an executed lease or a copy of an executed unconditional contract to purchase the site (or a deed if the site is owned by Developer), Franchisor will provide Developer with preliminary plans and specifications for the construction of a Bojangles standard, free-standing restaurant building for use by Developer and its architect, that must be approved by Franchisor, in preparation of final plans and specifications for the Restaurant to be constructed on the site. Developer shall bear the cost of any modifications to the preliminary plans and specifications provided to Developer by Franchisor. Final plans and specifications must be approved by Franchisor before the start of construction. Developer shall obtain, at its cost, the necessary permits required to construct the Restaurant and shall meet all other applicable requirements established by local statute, local ordinance or otherwise. By the earlier of the period prescribed in the Franchise Agreement or the “Construction Commencement Deadline” noted in the Development Schedule, whichever is shorter, Developer must (i) provide Franchisor with documentation satisfactory to Franchisor to confirm Developer’s leasehold interest (including, without limitation, the executed Addendum to Lease Agreement form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C) or ownership interest in the site; (ii) obtain Franchisor’s prior written approval of Developer’s Restaurant plans, (iii) obtain the insurance coverage required by Franchisor for the Restaurant; (iv) pay Franchisor’s then-current franchise fee; and (v) commence construction of the Restaurant. Promptly after approval by Franchisor of Developer’s final plans and specifications, Developer shall complete construction of the Restaurant and open for business by the earlier of the period prescribed in the Franchise Agreement or the “Opening Deadline” noted in the Development Schedule, whichever is shorter. [For Bojangles Express Restaurants, delete the first and second sentences of Paragraph IV.D. and substitute in their place the following: “Developer shall obtain and shall bear all costs associated with the development of plans and specifications for the construction of the Restaurant including those for any interior and exterior modifications or additions to the building or other structure where the Restaurant shall be located.” Also, delete the fourth sentence and substitute the following in place thereof: “In addition, all signage on the convenience store or other structure’s premises relating to the Bojangles restaurant must be approved by the Franchisor. Developer shall obtain, at its cost, the necessary permits required to construct the Restaurant and required in connection with any signage related to the Restaurant and shall meet all other applicable requirements established by local statute, local ordinance or otherwise.”]

E. Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, Franchisor and Developer shall execute Franchisor’s current form of Franchise Agreement. When Franchisor approves the site for the first Restaurant, the parties will amend the Franchise Agreement to include the identification of the site. For each additional Restaurant developed under this Agreement, no later than the thirty (30) days after Developer receives Franchisor’s site approval letter, Developer shall execute a Franchise Agreement for that Restaurant. The Franchise Agreement for each additional Restaurant developed hereunder shall be the form of Franchise Agreement being offered to new franchisees by Franchisor at the time each development right is exercised. Developer shall pay Franchisor’s then-current franchise fee for each Restaurant when required under each Franchise Agreement.

F. Strict compliance with the Development Schedule is essential to this Agreement. Any failure by Developer in fulfilling its obligations to meet the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline or Opening Deadline for any Restaurant when required by the Development Schedule shall constitute a material, non-curable breach of this Agreement permitting Franchisor immediately to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to Developer. Time is of the essence.

G. Developer may submit a written request to Franchisor for an extension of up to six (6) months of the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and/or Opening Deadline for a Restaurant as required in the Development Schedule. Developer must pay Franchisor a lump-sum extension fee in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($2,500.00) when Developer submits an extension request to compensate Franchisor for its costs, expenses and lost opportunities related to the proposed extension. Franchisor must receive Developer's extension request at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the occurrence of the deadline date. Upon review, Franchisor may grant Developer, in Franchisor's sole discretion, an extension of the applicable deadline(s) for a Restaurant. If Franchisor grants an extension on any deadline, Franchisor will determine the length of the extension at its sole option. Franchisor may consider a variety of factors in whether to grant an extension, including the diligence Developer has shown in developing the Restaurant. If Franchisor rejects Developer's extension request, then Franchisor will refund the extension fee to Developer. Extensions do not change any deadline(s) included in the Development Schedule, other than the particular deadline(s) then being adjusted by the extension for the particular Restaurant that is the subject of Developer's request.

V. TERM

A. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder shall expire as of the earlier of (i) the date the last Restaurant required to be developed under the Development Schedule opens for business; or (ii) the Opening Deadline for the last Restaurant required to be developed under the Development Schedule.

B. This Agreement does not grant Developer the right to open and operate Restaurants in addition to the number of Restaurants specified in the Development Schedule.

VI. DUTIES OF DEVELOPER

A. Developer shall comply with all terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

B. Developer shall designate an individual to serve as Developer's "Managing Owner", subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Managing Owner shall own a majority equity interest in Developer during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. If Developer does not have an owner with a majority equity interest, the Managing Owner shall own the next highest percentage equity interest in Developer during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner;

(2) The Managing Owner will be the person with whom Franchisor will communicate and will have the authority to bind Developer with respect to all financial, operational and legal matters related to the Restaurants and this Agreement. The Managing Owner may also serve as Developer's Principal Operating Officer or Principal Operating Partner as defined below provided that the Managing Owner meets the criteria for both positions independently;

(3) The Managing Owner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor under the Franchise Agreements for the Restaurants;

(4) The Managing Owner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Developer hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Managing Owner unless approved by Franchisor;
and

(6) The Managing Owner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Managing Owner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his/her obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Managing Owner no longer qualifies to act as such, Developer shall promptly designate another Managing Owner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Developer's replacement Managing Owner must successfully complete the initial training program offered by Franchisor under the Franchise Agreements for the Restaurants within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Developer's Managing Owner.

C. Developer shall designate an individual to serve as the "Principal Operating Officer" of Developer, or if Developer is a limited liability company, it shall designate an individual to serve as "Principal Operating Partner" of Developer, and the Restaurants developed pursuant to this Agreement, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall own an equity interest of at least ten percent (10%) in Developer during the entire period he serves as Principal Operating Officer or Partner;

(2) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall devote full time and best efforts to the supervision and conduct of the Restaurants developed hereunder;

(3) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor under the Franchise Agreements for the Restaurants;

(4) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Developer hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Principal Operating Officer or Partner unless approved by Franchisor; and

(6) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Principal Operating Officer or Partner is unable, or elects not to meet his obligations under this Agreement, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Principal Operating Officer or Partner no longer qualifies to act as such, Developer shall promptly designate another Principal Operating Officer or Partner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Developer's replacement Principal Operating Officer or Partner must successfully complete the initial training program offered by Franchisor under the Franchise Agreements for the Restaurants within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Developer's Principal Operating Officer or Partner.

D. Developer shall provide to Franchisor such financial information as Franchisor may reasonably request concerning Developer and any shareholders or members, subsidiaries or affiliates of Developer owning, directly or indirectly, any interest in Developer or in any Restaurant.

E. Developer shall provide Franchisor with an unaudited quarterly statement of profit or loss and a balance sheet of Developer within thirty (30) days following the end of each quarter of Developer's fiscal year. Developer shall also provide to Franchisor a year-end statement of profit or loss and balance sheet prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles certified by the Chief Financial Officer of Developer and, upon written request of Franchisor, such year-end statements shall be certified by an independent certified public accounting firm acceptable to Franchisor. All year-end statements shall be provided to Franchisor within ninety (90) days following the end of Developer's fiscal year.

F. Developer shall comply with all requirements of federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations.

G. Upon execution of this Agreement, Developer (on behalf of itself and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), and all other persons or entities acting on their behalf or claiming under any of them) (collectively, "Developer Releasors") hereby waives and releases any claims, whether known or unknown, which any Developer Releasor, may have against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), individually, together and in any combination (collectively, the "Franchisor Parties") from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, vested or contingent, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which any or all of the Developer Releasors now own or hold, or have at any time owned or held, or may at any time own or hold against the Franchisor Parties, arising prior to and including the Effective Date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Claims"). Developer represents and warrants that: (1) it is aware that it may in the future learn of facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of this paragraph, but that nonetheless, it is its intention to fully, finally, and forever settle and release all Claims; and (2) it has not assigned any Claims released by this paragraph. Developer, on behalf of itself and the Developer Releasors, further covenants not to sue any of the Franchisor Parties on any of the Claims released by this paragraph. Developer agrees that fair consideration has been given by Franchisor for this release and it fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete, and final release of all Claims.

VII. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

A. Developer shall not, during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of any other person, persons, partnership, association, corporation or limited liability company any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Restaurants developed hereunder which may be communicated to Developer or of which Developer may be apprised by virtue of Developer's operation under the terms of this Agreement or other agreements entered into with Franchisor. Developer shall divulge such confidential information only to such of its employees as must have access to it in order to operate the Restaurants developed hereunder, and Developer shall take such precautions as Franchisor deems necessary to ensure that Developer's employees retain such information in confidence. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement, except information which Developer can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Franchisor; or which, at the time of disclosure by Franchisor to Developer, had become a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others; or which, after disclosure to Developer by Franchisor, becomes a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others.

B. Developer hereby acknowledges that under the Franchise Agreement(s) executed pursuant hereto, Franchisor will provide Developer with access to and training in processes and procedures of a proprietary nature and will provide Developer with access to and the right to use recipes and formulas, manuals, logos, designs, trademarks, trade names and other proprietary information in connection with Developer's development and operation of the Bojangles restaurant. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Developer shall not at any time, whether during the term of this Agreement or Franchise Agreement(s) executed pursuant hereto or after expiration or earlier termination of any or all of them, disclose any information obtained through such training or from any materials provided by Franchisor to Developer and pertaining to the Bojangles System to any third party other than employees of Developer directly involved in the operations of the Restaurant. Further, Developer agrees that during the term of this Agreement, and Franchise Agreement(s) executed pursuant hereto and after expiration or earlier termination of any or all of them, it shall not use any of such information or proprietary marks, including but not limited to processes, procedures, recipes and formulas, for any purpose other than the operation of the Bojangles restaurant and will take all steps necessary to prevent any other use of them. Without limiting the foregoing, Developer specifically agrees that it shall not during the term of this agreement or Franchise Agreement(s) executed pursuant hereto or after expiration or earlier termination of any or all of them, offer for sale at any location, other than a Restaurant being then operated pursuant to a specific Franchise Agreement then in effect, any food or drink products prepared using in whole or part the procedures, processes, techniques, recipes or formulas provided by Franchisor to Developer.

C. Developer acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph VII. will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor, and Developer agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph VII.

VIII. DEFAULT

A. The rights granted to Developer in this Agreement have been granted in reliance on Developer's representations and assurances, among others, that the conditions set forth in Paragraphs I. and IV. of this Development Agreement will be met by Developer in a timely manner.

B. Developer shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein shall automatically terminate without notice to Developer, if Developer shall become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Developer or such a petition is filed against Developer and not opposed by Developer; or if Developer is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; or if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Developer or other custodian for Developer's business or assets is filed and consented to by Developer; or if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Developer's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; or if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law should be instituted by or against Developer.

C. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, Developer shall be deemed to be in default and Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, without affording Developer any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Developer, or instead of terminating Developer, Franchisor may, at its discretion, elect any of the remedies set forth in Paragraph VIII.E. hereof:

(1) If Developer fails to comply with the Development Schedule with respect to any Restaurant to be developed within the time specified in the Development Schedule;

(2) If Developer or any shareholder or member of Developer is convicted of a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of Franchisor, adversely to affect the System, the Proprietary Marks or the Trade Dress, the goodwill associated therewith, or Franchisor's interest therein;

(3) If Developer or any shareholder or member of Developer purports to transfer any interest in this Agreement, any rights hereunder, including but not limited to any rights to develop any restaurants under this Agreement or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Developer to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Paragraph IX. of this Agreement;

(4) If Developer knowingly maintains false books or records, or knowingly submits any false reports to Franchisor;

(5) If any Franchise Agreement, development agreement or any other agreement entered into by Franchisor or its affiliates and Developer or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer or its affiliates) is terminated based upon Developer's or its affiliates' (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer's or its affiliates') default thereunder;

(6) If Developer or any franchisee under a Franchise Agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement ceases to operate or otherwise abandons, or attempts to cease to operate or abandon, any Restaurant or enters into an agreement to sell, or sells, or purports or attempts to sell, the real property upon which the Restaurant is situated, or substantially all right, title and interest in and to the Restaurant or real property lease, or substantially all of the assets of Developer, of the franchisee, or of any Restaurant, without Franchisor's prior written consent; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, Franchisor may, in lieu of immediate termination of this Agreement, request from Developer and the franchisee, a statement of intentions and assurances that no event in breach of this Agreement is so contemplated, which statement and assurances shall be delivered in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of Franchisor's request. In addition, Franchisor may request, and Developer and the franchisee shall provide within five (5) business days thereafter, a performance bond from Developer and the franchisee, the amount of such bond and the issuing entity to be solely at Franchisor's reasonable discretion;

(7) If Developer, after curing a default pursuant to Paragraph VIII.D. hereof, commits the same, or a substantially similar, default again within one hundred eighty (180) days after the prior default occurred, whether or not cured after notice; or

(8) If Developer repeatedly is in default under Paragraph VIII.D. hereof for failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, whether or not cured after notice.

(9) [For Bojangles Express Restaurants, add the following: “If Developer or any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Developer shall, without the prior written consent of Developer, make any transfer that alone or together with other previous, simultaneous or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in Developer to an entity or parent, subsidiary or affiliate thereof which is a competitor of Franchisor.”]

D. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs VIII.B. and VIII.C. of this Agreement, Developer shall have ten (10) days for a monetary default and thirty (30) days for any other default after its receipt from Franchisor of a written Notice of Default within which to remedy any default hereunder and to provide evidence thereof to Franchisor. If any such default is not cured within that time, or such longer period as applicable law may require, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon Developer’s receipt of notice from Franchisor after the expiration of the ten (10) day or thirty (30) day period, as applicable, or such longer period as applicable law may require. In lieu of termination, Franchisor may, at its discretion, elect any of the remedies set forth in Paragraph VIII.E. hereof. Developer shall be in default hereunder:

(1) If Developer fails to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement or fails to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith;

(2) If a final judgment against Developer remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless supersedeas bond is filed);

(3) If Developer is dissolved, execution is levied against Developer’s business or property, or suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against any Restaurant or equipment situated therein is instituted against Developer and not dismissed or bonded off within sixty (60) days;

(4) If the real or personal property of any Restaurant of Developer is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal, or constable; or

(5) If an approved transfer of a controlling interest in Developer is not effected within the prescribed period following the death or mental incapacity of a shareholder or member of Developer, as required by Paragraph IX. D. hereof.

E. Within sixty (60) days after any default of Developer under Paragraphs VIII.B. or VIII.C. hereof, or within ninety (90) days after a default of Developer which is not cured pursuant to Paragraph VIII.D. hereof, in addition to the right to terminate described in those paragraphs, Franchisor, in its discretion, may elect to do any one or more of the following (provided, however, that upon a default as set forth in Paragraph VIII. C. (1), and provided that no other defaults have occurred and are continuing, Franchisor may exercise only those remedies set forth in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (4) below):

(1) Reduce the number of Restaurants which Developer may establish pursuant to Paragraph I. of this Agreement;

(2) Terminate the territorial exclusivity granted Developer in Paragraph I.B. hereof, or reduce the area of territorial exclusivity granted Developer hereunder;

(3) Terminate all Franchise Agreements, development agreements or any other agreements entered into between Franchisor and Developer or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer or its affiliates), thereby obligating Developer or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Developer or its affiliates) to cease operating Restaurants under the Bojangles System, to deidentify the Restaurants from the Bojangles System, and to comply with all obligations upon termination or expiration set forth in the Franchise Agreements;

(4) Terminate this Development Agreement, as a result of which Developer shall have no further rights to develop and construct Restaurants, but permit Developer to continue to own and operate any and all Restaurants already operating hereunder so long as Developer is in full compliance with any and all terms and conditions of all franchise agreements entered into pursuant to this Development Agreement; and

(5) Purchase the assets of all, but not less than all, Restaurants that Developer has opened under this Development Agreement, but this remedy shall only be available to Franchisor upon the following circumstances:

(a) If Developer or any shareholder or member of Developer transfers or purports or attempts to transfer any interest in this Agreement, any rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Developer to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Paragraph IX of this Agreement;

(b) If Developer or any franchisee under a Franchise Agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement ceases to operate or otherwise abandons, or attempts to cease to operate or abandon, any Restaurant or enters into an agreement to sell or otherwise transfer, or sells or otherwise transfers, or purports or attempts to sell or otherwise transfer, the real property upon which the Restaurant is situated, or substantially all right, title and interest in and to the Restaurant or real property lease, or substantially all of the assets of Developer, of the franchisee or of any Restaurant, without Franchisor's prior written consent, and Developer and the franchisee have failed to give adequate assurances and provide the performance bond as provided in Paragraph VIII. C. (6).

If Developer leases the Restaurant building and land on which the Restaurant is situated, Franchisor shall have the right to purchase the leasehold and other assets owned by Developer relating to the Restaurant for an amount equal to the higher of (i) the net tangible book value (which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements) of the assets owned by Developer relating to the Restaurant, including the leasehold improvements, equipment, inventory and supplies, and excluding unamortized franchise and development fees, good will and all other intangible assets; or (ii) an amount calculated as follows:

A	B	C
If gross sales for each Restaurant for the 12 months immediately preceding termination are:	Multiply the gross sales by:	and subtract the following from the product of A and B:
Up to $750,000	$.40	All debts and liabilities of Developer to Franchisor, or to third parties (excluding lease obligation to third parties) which are being assumed by Franchisor.
$900,001 or more	$.55

The amount as computed above shall be payable twenty percent (20%) on closing with the principal balance payable in three (3) equal payments due annually on the anniversary of the purchase with interest on the unpaid principal balance payable on the due date of each principal payment at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum. Undisclosed or matured contingent liabilities which are paid by Franchisor after payment of the twenty percent (20%) down shall be deducted from the next installment(s) due, together with interest thereon from the date paid at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum over the prime rate of Bank of America on the date such payment is made.

If Developer owns the land on which the Restaurant to be purchased by Franchisor is situated, Franchisor shall have the right, at its discretion, either to purchase or lease the land and Restaurant building. If Franchisor elects to purchase, Developer shall sell the land, building, equipment, inventory, and supplies to Franchisor at the higher of (i) their depreciated net tangible book value, which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements, or (ii) an amount to be determined in accordance with the table in Paragraph VIII.E.(5)(b) above. If Franchisor elects to lease, Developer shall lease the land and building to Franchisor on Franchisor's then-standard lease form for Bojangles restaurant sites operated by Franchisor, and Franchisor shall purchase the equipment, inventory and supplies at their depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above. Net annual rental payments (payable monthly after taxes and expenses) shall be equal to the higher of fourteen percent (14%) of the depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above, of the land and Restaurant building, or six and one-half percent (6 ½%) of gross sales to the extent that gross sales do not exceed the amount of gross sales for the twelve (12) months preceding the commencement of occupancy by Franchisor, and five percent (5%) of gross sales that exceed that amount.

[For Bojangles Express Restaurants, delete Paragraph VIII.E.(5) in its entirety.]

F. Upon termination of this Agreement, Developer shall have no right to establish or operate any Restaurant for which a Franchise Agreement has not been executed by Franchisor and delivered to Developer at the time of termination; and Franchisor shall be entitled to establish, and to license others to establish, Restaurants in the Assigned Area except as may be otherwise provided under any other agreement which is then in effect between Franchisor and Developer.

G. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor is exclusive of any other right or remedy provided or permitted by law or in equity.

H. Each Restaurant shall be leased by Developer, and the lease of each Restaurant shall provide the following provisions:

Lessor shall provide to Bojangles Opco, LLC (“Franchisor”) copies of any notices sent to Lessee, including any notice of default. In the event of a default by Lessee and notice to Lessee and Franchisor of such default by Lessee, Franchisor may, but shall not be required to, cure Lessee’s default on the same terms and conditions permitted Lessee under the Lease. In the event Franchisor notifies Lessee that Lessee is in default under provisions of its Franchise Agreement and that the Franchise Agreement has been terminated, Lessor will permit the assignment of the Lease to Franchisor without requiring further consent of Lessor; provided that if Franchisor then assumes Lessee’s obligations under the Lease Franchisor shall promptly notify Lessor. Nothing herein shall be construed to require Franchisor to assume the obligations of Lessee under the Lease. Franchisor may enforce these provisions as a third party beneficiary under the Lease. Lessor shall not amend or delete these provisions from the Lease without Franchisor’s written consent.

IX. TRANSFER

A. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity.

B. Transfer by Developer is limited as follows:

(1) Developer understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Developer and its shareholders or members, and that Franchisor has granted this Agreement in reliance on Developer’s business skill and financial capacity, and the business skill, financial capacity and personal character of Developer’s shareholders or members. Accordingly, neither Developer nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Developer’s interest in this Agreement, nor any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns any interest in this Agreement or in Developer shall sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise encumber any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, any rights or obligations hereunder or in Developer without the prior written consent of Franchisor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any such proposed transfer shall be subject, where applicable, to Franchisor’s option to purchase set forth in Paragraph IX.C. hereof. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of Franchisor required by this Paragraph IX. shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which Franchisor may then terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph VIII.C. of this Agreement.

(2) If a transfer, alone or together with other previous, simultaneous, or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in Developer, interest in this Agreement, any rights or obligations hereunder or any Restaurant developed under this Agreement, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, if it does not elect to exercise its option to purchase set forth in Paragraph IX.C. hereof, require any or all of the following as conditions of its approval:

(a) All of Developer's accrued and outstanding monetary obligations to third parties and all accrued and outstanding obligations to Franchisor or any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Franchisor shall have been satisfied;

(b) Developer shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereto or successor hereof, or any other agreement between Developer and Franchisor, its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates;

(c) The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its officers, directors, shareholders or members, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances; and shall agree to remain liable to Franchisor for all affirmative obligations, covenants, and agreements contained herein for two (2) years following the effective date of transfer (or, if transferor retains a purchase money interest in the transferred business, for a period greater than two (2) years, until the interest is extinguished) or for such shorter period as Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, determine;

(d) The transferee shall enter into a written assignment, under seal and in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Developer's obligations under this Agreement; and, if the obligations of Developer were guaranteed by the transferor, the transferee shall guarantee the performance of all such obligations in writing in a form satisfactory to Franchisor;

(e) The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the transferee meets Franchisor's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the business which is the subject of this Agreement (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to develop Restaurants hereunder;

(f) At Franchisor's option, the transferee shall execute (and/or, upon Franchisor's request, shall cause all interested parties to execute), for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, either Franchisor's then-current standard form of development agreement or an agreement in the form of this Agreement, as Franchisor determines, together with a guarantee of such agreement executed by all shareholders or members of the transferee, provided that the development schedule and assigned area of such agreement shall be the same as in this Agreement, and such other ancillary agreements as Franchisor may require;

(g) At the transferee's expense, transferee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner and managers shall complete any training and certification programs then in effect for developers upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor may reasonably require; and

(h) Developer shall pay to Franchisor a transfer fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Restaurant, which constitutes Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting expenses) in connection with Franchisor's review of the application to transfer.

(i) The transferee shall acquire, in addition to the development rights provided for in this Agreement, all of the Restaurants opened pursuant to this Development Agreement and all of Developer's rights granted under all of its Franchise Agreements with Franchisor.

(3) Developer shall grant no security interest in this Agreement or in any Restaurant developed hereunder (other than a pledge of assets to secure a bona fide loan made or credit extended in connection with acquisition of the assets pledged) unless the secured party agrees that in the event of any default by Developer under any documents related to the security interest, Franchisor shall have the right and option to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to such secured party.

(4) Developer acknowledges and agrees that each condition which must be met by the transferee is necessary to assure such transferee's full performance of the obligations hereunder.

(5) [For Bojangles Express Restaurants insert the following: "Nothing contained in this Development Agreement shall prevent or prohibit Developer from selling, assigning, transferring, conveying, giving away, pledging, mortgaging, granting security interests in or otherwise encumbering Developer's real property interests, including but not limited to fee or leasehold interests in any land or buildings, or Developer's interests in other hard assets, including any equipment and furnishings, but excluding any items which bear any of Franchisor's logos, trademarks, trade names or other proprietary marks.]

C. In the event that a quick-service food competitor of Franchisor acquires a controlling interest in Developer without Franchisor's prior written consent, Franchisor shall have the right at its option to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder without affording Developer any opportunity to cure the default upon ninety (90) days written notice to Developer."

D. Franchisor shall have the option to purchase any interest in the Restaurant or this Agreement as follows:

(1) Developer and shareholders or members of Developer who desire to accept a bona fide offer from a third party to purchase an interest in Developer or in this Agreement shall provide Franchisor with all of the terms of the proposed transfer in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the proposed date of transfer. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of such written notification, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party, net of any finders or brokers fees which any third party would be obligated to pay. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, closing on such purchase must occur within thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor does not exercise its option to purchase, Developer and shareholders or members of Developer may proceed to consummate a transfer to a third party if they have complied with the conditions of this Paragraph IX. If Franchisor did not exercise its option to purchase, any material change in the terms of the third party's offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same option to purchase by Franchisor as in the case of an initial offer. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Paragraph IX.C. shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Paragraph IX. with respect to a proposed transfer.

(2) In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that Franchisor is not in a position to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then Franchisor may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash.

E. Upon the death or mental incapacity of any person with a direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in Developer, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall transfer the interest to a third party, including shareholder(s) or member(s) of Developer, approved by Franchisor within twelve (12) months after such death or mental incapacity or, if legal proceedings make transfer within twelve (12) months not feasible, within such longer period as may be reasonable under the circumstances. Such transfer, including, without limitation, transfer by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. If an approved transfer has not been made within the aforementioned period, Franchisor shall have the option to purchase all (but not less than all) of the Restaurants developed by Developer hereunder at fair market value, and thereupon terminate this Agreement. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the Restaurants and terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, closing of the transaction shall take place as promptly as possible after Franchisor exercises its option to purchase, and the parties reach agreement concerning the fair market value of the Restaurants. Payment will be made in four (4) installments, the first of which shall be made at the time of closing and the remaining three (3) installments shall each be made at one (1) year intervals from the date of the first payment. Interest shall be payable on the unpaid portion of the purchase price on the due date of each installment of principal at the prime rate of Bank of America on the date of Franchisor's election to purchase the Restaurants. If the parties are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Restaurants, then the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration in Charlotte, North Carolina, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

F. Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Developer, interest in this Agreement or rights or obligations hereunder or any Restaurant developed under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

G. Developer acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph IX. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Developer agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph IX.

X. COVENANTS

A. Developer acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Developer will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including, without limitation, information relating to the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System. In addition, Developer acknowledges its obligation to develop Restaurants hereunder. Accordingly, Developer covenants that:

(1) During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Developer and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation or limited liability company:

(a) Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Restaurants to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Trade Dress and the System; or

(b) Own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(i) Any restaurant business which: (a) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants; and (b) is located within the Assigned Area or within ten (10) miles from any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction; or

(ii) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (a) within the Assigned Area; or (b) within ten (10) miles from the site of any Restaurant developed hereunder or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction.

(2) During the continuing uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Developer and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(a) Any restaurant business which: (i) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants; and (ii) is located within ten (10) miles from the site of any Restaurant developed hereunder or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement; or

(b) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (i) within ten (10) miles from the site of any Restaurant developed hereunder or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, or (ii) within a designated market area within which any of the Assigned Area is situated.

B. Paragraph X.A. shall not apply to ownership by Developer of less than two percent (2%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any corporation which is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

C. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Paragraph X. is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Developer expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Paragraph X.

D. Developer understands and acknowledges that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Paragraph X.A. or any portion thereof, without Developer's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Developer of written notice thereof; and Developer agrees that it shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

E. Developer expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have now or in the future against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Paragraph X.

F. Developer acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph X. would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Developer agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph X.

G. At the request of Franchisor, Developer shall obtain and deliver to Franchisor executed covenants similar in substance to those set forth in this Paragraph X. (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Developer) from the following persons: all officers, directors, or members, and holders of the securities of Developer, and of any corporation or limited liability company directly or indirectly controlling, or controlled by, Developer. Every covenant required by this Paragraph X.G. shall be in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, including, without limitation, specific identification of Franchisor as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Failure by Developer to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Paragraph X.G. or to deliver the covenant to Franchisor shall constitute a default under Paragraph VIII.D. hereof.

XI. FORCE MAJEURE

If the performance of any obligation under this Agreement is prevented or delayed, in whole or in part, by reason of force majeure, or the consequence thereof, affecting the parties hereto or the rights granted hereunder, such force majeure to include but not be limited to acts of God, fire, flood, governmental restrictions, lockouts or labor disputes, then the affected party shall be given such additional time as is reasonable to perform in view of the nature and extent of the force majeure; provided, however, that events constituting a force majeure hereunder which delay the opening of a Restaurant to be developed hereunder shall not change the dates set forth in the Development Schedule by which additional Restaurants shall be opened and operating.

XII. NOTICES

All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (a) on the day delivered, if delivered personally or (b) three (3) business days after being mailed, if mailed first class, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, (c) one (1) business day after being mailed, if sent via a reputable overnight courier service, or (d) at the time delivered via computer transmission or electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission, addressed to the respective parties at the addresses shown on Exhibit A to this Agreement. Any party may give notice of a change of address by written notice given as provided in this paragraph.

XIII. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them; that Developer is an independent contractor; and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Neither this Agreement nor Franchisor's course of conduct is intended, nor may anything in this Agreement (nor Franchisor's course of conduct) be construed to state or imply that Franchisor is the joint employer of Developer's employees and/or independent contractors, nor vice versa.

B. Developer shall hold itself out to the public to be an independent contractor operating pursuant to this Agreement. Developer agrees to take such actions as shall be necessary to that end.

C. Developer understands and agrees that nothing in this Agreement authorizes Developer to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on Franchisor's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in Franchisor's name; and that Franchisor shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder as a result of, any such action, or by reason of any act or omission of Developer or any claim or judgment arising therefrom. Developer shall indemnify and hold Franchisor and Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders, members, and employees harmless against any and all such claims arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with, Developer's activities hereunder, as well as the costs, including attorneys' fees, of defending against them.

XIV. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

A. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Franchisor, Developer shall make a timely written request to Franchisor therefor, and, such approval or consent shall be obtained in writing.

B. Franchisor makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Developer may rely and assumes no liability or obligation to Developer by providing any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion to Developer in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

C. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Developer under any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions hereof shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, duty, or power as against Developer, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Developer. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding breach by Developer of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

XV. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

A. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable; and if, for any reason, any portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible, and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

B. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Developer, Franchisor, Franchisor's officers, directors, and employees, and such of Developer's and Franchisor's respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by Paragraph IX. hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

C. Developer and each of its shareholders or members expressly agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which Franchisor is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

D. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

E. All references herein to the masculine, neuter, or singular shall be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter, or plural, where applicable, and all acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements, and obligations herein made or undertaken by Developer shall be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Developer.

F. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

XVI. ENTIRE AGREEMENT - APPLICABLE LAW

A. This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the Exhibit(s) hereto, constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between Franchisor and Developer concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements. No representations have induced Developer to execute this Agreement except for those contained in this Agreement, the Exhibits and the Franchise Disclosure Document. No amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing; provided, however, that a writing signed by Developer need not be signed by any of its shareholders or members except to the extent, if any, that such writing would increase the amount of such shareholder's or member's financial obligations. Further, no modification, amendment, waiver, discharge or termination of any obligation of Developer, and no other matter or termination of any nature or kind whatsoever, including without limitation any release of Developer from any such obligation, shall release any shareholder or member of any guaranty obligation given or made by him under this Agreement or otherwise, whether or not such shareholder or member has notice thereof, all rights to notice or to consent being expressly waived hereby.

B. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Franchisor in the State of North Carolina, and shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law; provided, however, that if any of the provisions of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of North Carolina, then such provisions shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which the principal office of Developer is located.

C. The parties agree that any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, shall be brought within the State of North Carolina and do hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

D. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Developer by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed to be, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

E. In the event of any action at law or in equity to secure or protect rights under or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable counsel fees together with court costs and expenses incurred in connection with the litigation.

F. THE PARTIES WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST EACH OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN THEM, EACH SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

G. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN, ANY CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR COLLECTIVE ACTION MATTERS, AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE, CLASS MEMBER OR AN OPT-IN PARTY, ACT AS A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL, OR JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS WITH CLAIMS OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY.

H. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, AND/OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY.

I. Except for payments owed by one party to the other, and unless prohibited by applicable law, any legal action or proceeding (including the offer and sale of a franchise to Developer) brought or instituted with respect to any dispute arising from or related to this Agreement or with respect to any breach of the terms of this Agreement must be brought or instituted within a period of two (2) years from the date on which the party asserting the claim knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the claim.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed, and delivered this Agreement as of the Effective Date, which is _____.

BOJANGLES RESTAURANT FORM OF ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS ADDENDUM is executed as of this ___ day of _____, _____, by and between _____ (“Franchisee”) and _____ (“Landlord”), as an addendum to the lease, as modified, amended, supplemented, renewed and/or extended from time to time as contemplated herein, (“Lease”) for the premises located at _____, State of _____ (“Premises”) dated as of _____, ____.

Franchisee has entered into a Bojangles Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) with Bojangles Opco, LLC (“Franchisor”) for the operation of a Bojangles restaurant at the Premises, and as a requirement thereof, the lease for the Premises must contain the provisions contained in this Addendum.

Landlord and Franchisee agree that the terms contained herein shall supersede any terms to the contrary set forth in the Lease.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of mutual covenants set forth herein, the execution and delivery of the Lease, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Franchisee hereby agree as follows:

1. Landlord shall deliver to Franchisor a copy of any notice of default or termination of the Lease at the same time such notice is delivered to Franchisee.
2. Franchisee hereby assigns to Franchisor, with Landlord’s irrevocable and unconditional consent, all of Franchisee’s rights, title and interests to and under the Lease upon any termination, expiration, or non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement, but no such assignment shall be effective unless: (a) the Franchise Agreement is terminated, not renewed, or expires without renewal or Franchisor has exercised its option to purchase the Restaurant under the Franchise Agreement, as applicable; and (b) Franchisor notifies the Franchisee and Landlord in writing that Franchisor assumes Franchisee’s obligations under the Lease.

7. Landlord and Franchisee acknowledge that if the Franchise Agreement expires (without renewal) or is terminated or not renewed, Franchisee is obligated to de-identify the Premises as a Bojangles restaurant, at its sole cost and expense. WHEREAS, Franchisor, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort, and money, has developed and owns a unique and distinctive system (hereinafter “System” or “Bojangles System”) relating to the establishment and operation of fast service restaurants;

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, distinctive exterior and interior design, color schemes and layout, including specially designed decor and furnishings; a special selection of menu items largely prepared “from scratch”; procedures and techniques for food and beverage preparation; prompt and courteous service in a clean, wholesome atmosphere; methods of inventory, operating, cash and financial controls and systems for such controls; a training school utilizing special teaching techniques, course instruction and manuals; and unique advertising and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved, and further developed by Franchisor from time to time;

WHEREAS, Franchisor identifies the Bojangles System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to the marks “BOJANGLES®”, “BOJANGLES’®” and “BOJANGLES’ FAMOUS CHICKEN ‘N BISCUITS®”, and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated (and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing) for use in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Proprietary Marks”) and certain unique trade dress, including but not limited to specific color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout, now or hereafter used by Franchisor in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Trade Dress”);

WHEREAS, Franchisor continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks and Trade Dress in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed thereunder and under the Bojangles System, and to represent the Bojangles System’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service;

WHEREAS, Franchisee desires to enter into the business of operating a Bojangles restaurant under the Bojangles System and wishes to obtain a franchise from Franchisor for that purpose, as well as to receive the training and other assistance provided by Franchisor in connection therewith; and

WHEREAS, Franchisee understands and acknowledges the importance of Franchisor’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service and the necessity of operating the business franchised hereunder in conformity with Franchisor’s standards and specifications.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments of each party to the other party set forth herein, hereby agree as follows:

I. GRANT

A. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee, upon the terms and conditions herein contained, the right and franchise, and Franchisee undertakes the obligation, to operate a Bojangles restaurant (hereinafter referred to as “Restaurant” or “Franchised Business”) and to use solely in connection therewith the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress and the Bojangles System, as they may be changed, improved, and further developed from time to time, only at the location set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

B. Franchisee acknowledges that this franchise is non-exclusive and is granted subject to the terms of Paragraph VII.C.(6) and VII.F.(6) hereof.

II. TERM AND RENEWAL

A. Except as otherwise provided herein, the initial term of this Agreement shall expire twenty (20) years from the date the Restaurant first opens for business; provided, however, that if Franchisee’s approved location is leased, this Agreement shall expire at the earlier of twenty (20) years from the date the Restaurant first opens for business or upon expiration or termination of the initial term of the lease.

B. Franchisee may, at its option, renew this Agreement for two (2) additional consecutive terms of ten (10) years each, provided that Franchisee is in substantial compliance with the terms of this Agreement. In order to be eligible to renew this Agreement, Franchisee must meet the following conditions:

(1) Franchisee has given Franchisor written notice of its election to renew not less than six (6) months nor more than nine (9) months prior to the end of the applicable term;

(2) Franchisee has made or has provided for, in a manner satisfactory to Franchisor, such renovation and modernization of the Restaurant premises as Franchisor may reasonably require, including, without limitation, renovation of signs, furnishings, fixtures, and decor, to reflect the then-current standards and image of the Bojangles System.

(3) Franchisee has met Franchisor’s standards for renewal, including as set forth in the Manual or otherwise in writing, and must not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement between Franchisee and/or its affiliates and/or any of their respective beneficial owners and Franchisor and/or its affiliates either at the time of giving notice of renewal to Franchisor or during the remainder of the term of this Agreement;

(4) Franchisee has satisfied all monetary obligations owed by Franchisee to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates;

(5) Franchisee shall have presented satisfactory evidence that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the approved location for the applicable renewal term;

(6) Franchisee shall have executed Franchisor’s then-current form of franchise agreement, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and the terms of which may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty fee and advertising contribution; provided, however, that Franchisee shall pay, in lieu of a Franchise Fee (as defined in Section IV.A), a renewal fee equal to fifty percent (50%) of the then-current Franchise Fee;

(7) Franchisee shall execute a general release, in a form prescribed by Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents, and employees; and

(8) Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's then-current qualification and training requirements.

III. DUTIES OF FRANCHISOR

A. Franchisor shall provide an initial training program to instruct Franchisee and other franchisees as to the procedures and techniques to be utilized at the Restaurant in order to ensure that Franchisee becomes completely familiar with the Bojangles System, and shall make available such other training programs as it deems appropriate. All training provided by Franchisor shall be subject to the terms set forth in Paragraph VI.F. of this Agreement.

B. Franchisor shall advise and consult with Franchisee in connection with the operation of the Restaurant and new developments, techniques and improvements in areas of restaurant management, food preparation, sales promotion and service. Franchisor may provide the foregoing assistance by sending its employees or representatives to the Restaurant, by providing publications, other written materials, electronic learning content, videos or by conducting meetings or seminars. Some or all of these publications or programs may be provided by electronic access by Franchisor and not by printed or physical documents.

C. Franchisor shall make available, from time to time, advice and assistance in local advertising and, at Franchisee's expense, promotional materials for local advertising by Franchisee. Franchisor shall have the right to review and approve or disapprove all advertising and promotional materials which Franchisee proposes to use, pursuant to Paragraph XI.F. hereof.

D. Franchisor shall develop advertising materials under the terms of Paragraph XI. hereof.

E. Franchisor shall provide to Franchisee, on loan, either one printed copy of the Manual as more fully described in Paragraph VIII. hereof ("Manual"), or provide Franchisee with electronic access to the Manual.

F. In the interest of maintaining high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service, Franchisor shall conduct, as it deems advisable, inspections of the Restaurant, and evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the Restaurant.

IV. FEES

A. By the Construction Commencement Deadline (as hereinafter defined), Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a franchise fee in the amount set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement (the “Franchise Fee”), which sum shall be deemed fully earned when paid and nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by Franchisor in granting this franchise and for Franchisor’s lost or deferred opportunity to franchise others.

B. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a continuing monthly royalty fee in an amount equal to four percent (4%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant, as defined in Paragraph IV.E. hereof.

C. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a monthly advertising contribution, for use by the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund established by Franchisor, as provided in Paragraph XI.E. hereof, in an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant.

D. All monthly payments required by this Paragraph IV. shall be paid to Franchisor by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month on Gross Sales made during the preceding month, and shall be submitted to Franchisor together with any reports or statements required under Paragraph X.B. hereof.

E. Franchisor reserves the right to require that all payments required by this Agreement be directly drafted by Franchisor from Franchisee’s account. Any payment or report not actually received by Franchisor on or before such date shall be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid at the equivalent of one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Entitlement to such interest shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

F. As used in this Agreement, “Gross Sales” shall include all revenue from the sale of all services and products related to the Franchised Business, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit; provided, however, that “Gross Sales” shall not include any sales taxes or other taxes collected from customers by Franchisee for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority.

V. FRANCHISEE ORGANIZATION AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

A. Franchisee shall be a corporation or a limited liability company composed solely of no more than six (6) shareholders/members who are individuals and not corporations, limited liability companies or any other legal entities, and shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Franchisee shall be organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation or organization;

(2) Franchisee shall be qualified to do business in all states in which its business activities or the nature of the properties owned by it requires such qualification;

(3) Franchisee’s Articles of Incorporation or Charter, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, Franchisee’s Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement shall at all times provide that Franchisee was organized and has authority only to develop, own and operate Bojangles restaurants; and that Franchisee shall not engage or invest in any business other than development, ownership and operation of Bojangles restaurants;

(4) If Franchisee is a corporation, copies of Franchisee's Articles of Incorporation or Charter, Bylaws, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee is a limited liability company, copies of Franchisee's Articles of Organization, Operating Agreement, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the Consent of all limited liability company members authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(6) Franchisee shall maintain stop-transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any equity securities; and each stock certificate of Franchisee, or other evidence of ownership if Franchisee is a limited liability company, shall have the following legend conspicuously endorsed upon its face:

The shares represented by this certificate, or other evidence of ownership if Franchisee is a limited liability company, are subject to the terms of an agreement dated [date] between [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] and BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC, which, inter alia, restricts transfer, restricts activities in which [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] may engage, and imposes restrictions on shareholders or members.

(7) Franchisee shall not be owned by two (2) owners who each own fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests in Franchisee. Franchisee shall maintain a current list of all owners of record, including all members if Franchisee is a limited liability company, and all beneficial owners of any class of securities of Franchisee and shall furnish the list to Franchisor at such time as Franchisor may request.

B. As of the Effective Date, Franchisee shall have, with respect to the Restaurant, a ratio of debt to equity no greater than 1.5 to 1. Calculation of a debt to equity ratio for purposes hereof shall exclude equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of land and building, but shall include equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of equipment and inventory, training, the Franchise Fee, start-up costs, initial point of purchase materials, landscaping, signage and prepaid expenses. Franchisee shall, prior to the execution of this Agreement, furnish Franchisor with evidence, satisfactory to Franchisor in its sole discretion, of its compliance with the requirement set forth in this paragraph.

C. Franchisee agrees to pay in full, and not lease or finance the equipment and fixtures in its first Bojangles restaurant.

VI. DUTIES OF FRANCHISEE

A. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that every detail of the Franchised Business is important to Franchisee, Franchisor, and other franchisees and developers of Franchisor, in order to develop and maintain high operating standards, to increase the demand for the services and products sold by all franchisees, and to protect Franchisor's reputation and goodwill.

B. Upon execution of this Agreement, Franchisee (on behalf of itself and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), and all other persons or entities acting on their behalf or claiming under any of them) (collectively, "Franchisee Releasors") hereby waives and releases any claims, whether known or unknown, which any Franchisee Releasor, may have against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), individually, together and in any combination (collectively, the "Franchisor Parties") from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, vested or contingent, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which any or all of the Franchisee Releasors now own or hold, or have at any time owned or held, or may at any time own or hold against the Franchisor Parties, arising prior to and including the Effective Date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Claims"). Franchisee represents and warrants that: (1) it is aware that it may in the future learn of facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of this paragraph, but that nonetheless, it is its intention to fully, finally, and forever settle and release all Claims; and (2) it has not assigned any Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the Franchisee Releasors, further covenants not to sue any of the Franchisor Parties on any of the Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee agrees that fair consideration has been given by Franchisor for this release and it fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete, and final release of all Claims.

C. If Franchisor has not approved the site of the Restaurant prior to the Effective Date, then Franchisee must obtain the written approval of Franchisor for the site of the Restaurant developed under this Agreement by the "Site Approval Deadline", which is the date that is the earlier of: (1) one hundred eighty (180) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement; or (2) the site approval deadline set forth in the development schedule of the Development Agreement pursuant to which the Restaurant is to be developed.

(1) Upon request by Franchisee, Franchisor shall provide reasonable site selection assistance and counseling to Franchisee. Franchisee shall propose sites for approval by Franchisor on forms or in the manner designated from time to time by Franchisor. A site shall only be submitted to Franchisor after Franchisee has carefully evaluated the site and determined that it meets the criteria for Restaurant sites which Franchisor has communicated to Franchisee. Franchisor shall review the application for site approval; and within forty-five (45) days of Franchisor's receipt of the application, Franchisor shall approve the proposed site or reject the site with comments as to why it was rejected. Franchisor reserves the right to reject any site proposed by Franchisee if Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates): fail to demonstrate adequate financial resources and operational readiness to develop the site and operate the Restaurant, including adequate sources of capital; are not in good standing under this Agreement, any other agreements between Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) and Franchisor or its affiliates; or fail to adhere to any manuals, policies and/or procedures implemented by Franchisor in connection with other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates), including without limitation as related to operational standards.

(2) Franchisee must obtain the written approval of Franchisor with respect to the terms of any lease or mortgage with respect to the site to be developed as a Restaurant under this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days after Franchisor's approval of a site, Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of the closing date if the site is to be obtained by purchase; and provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed mortgage or deed of trust if a mortgage loan is contemplated; or, if the site is to be obtained by lease, provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed lease. Within twenty (20) days thereafter, Franchisor shall send notice of approval or notice of rejection with comments. Franchisee shall, as promptly as possible after receipt of approval, complete acquisition or leasing of the site; and in any event shall complete acquisition or leasing of the approved site within ninety (90) days after receiving Franchisor's written approval of the site.

(3) Any lease or mortgage for the Restaurant site must permit assignment of the lease, mortgage, or deed of trust to Franchisor or its designees in the event of default by Franchisee of the lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or this Agreement; and must provide, in form and substance satisfactory to Franchisor, for quiet enjoyment, subordination and mutual attornment. Any lease or mortgage for the Restaurant site must be bona fide, and provide financial terms consistent with those prevalent in the area. Any lease for the Restaurant shall provide for a term not less than the term of this Agreement. Franchisee shall use its best efforts to obtain in any lease an option to renew on stated financial terms, which if exercised will, with the initial term, be for a period of not less than twenty (20) years. Unless waived in writing by Franchisor, any lease for the Restaurant site shall contain provisions that satisfy the requirements set forth in the Addendum to Lease Agreement attached to this Agreement as Exhibit D during the entire term of the lease, including any renewal terms.

(4) Upon receipt of a copy of an executed lease or a copy of an executed unconditional contract to purchase the site (or a deed if the site is owned by Franchisee), Franchisor will provide Franchisee with preliminary plans and specifications for the construction of a Bojangles standard, free-standing restaurant building for use by Franchisee and its architect, which must be approved by Franchisor, in preparation of final plans and specifications for the Restaurant to be constructed on the site. Franchisee shall bear the cost of any modifications to the preliminary plans and specifications provided to Franchisee by Franchisor. Final plans and specifications must be approved by Franchisor before the start of construction. Franchisee shall obtain, at its cost, the necessary permits required to construct the Restaurant and shall meet all other applicable requirements established by local statute, local ordinance or otherwise.

(5) Franchisee shall commence construction of the Restaurant and pay the Franchise Fee by the "Construction Commencement Deadline", which is the date that is the earlier of: (1) two hundred seventy (270) days after the date of Franchisor's written site approval notice; or (2) the construction commencement deadline set forth in the development schedule of the Development Agreement pursuant to which the Restaurant is to be developed. Franchisee shall construct, furnish, and open the Restaurant by the "Opening Deadline", which is the date that is the earlier of: (1) one hundred eighty (180) days after the commencement of construction; or (2) the opening date set forth in the development schedule of the Development Agreement pursuant to which the Restaurant is to be developed. Prior to opening for business, Franchisee shall comply with all pre-opening requirements set forth in this Agreement and in the Manual or as otherwise required by Franchisor in writing.

(6) Strict compliance with the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and Opening Deadline is essential to this Agreement. Any failure by Franchisee in fulfilling its obligations to meet the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline or Opening Deadline shall constitute a material, non-curable breach of this Agreement permitting Franchisor immediately to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to Franchisee. Time is of the essence.

(7) Franchisee may submit a written request to Franchisor for an extension of up to six (6) months of the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and/or Opening Deadline for the Restaurant. Franchisee must pay Franchisor a lump-sum extension fee in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($2,500.00) when Franchisee submits an extension request to compensate Franchisor for its costs, expenses and lost opportunities related to the proposed extension. Franchisor must receive Franchisee's extension request at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the occurrence of the deadline date. Upon review, Franchisor may grant Franchisee, in Franchisor's sole discretion, an extension of the applicable deadline(s) for a Restaurant. If Franchisor grants an extension on any deadline, Franchisor will determine the length of the extension at its sole option. Franchisor may consider a variety of factors in whether to grant an extension, including the diligence Franchisee has shown in developing the Restaurant. If Franchisor rejects Franchisee's extension request, then Franchisor will refund the extension fee to Franchisee. Extensions do not change any deadlines other than the particular deadline then being adjusted by the extension that is the subject of Franchisee's request.

D. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as Franchisee's "Managing Owner", subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Managing Owner shall own a majority equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. If Franchisee does not have an owner with a majority equity interest, the Managing Owner shall own the next highest percentage equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner;

(2) The Managing Owner will be the person with whom Franchisor will communicate and will have the authority to bind Franchisee with respect to all financial, operational and legal matters related to the Franchised Business and this Agreement. The Managing Owner may also serve as Franchisee's Principal Operating Officer or Principal Operating Partner as defined below provided that the Managing Owner meets the criteria for both positions independently;

(3) The Managing Owner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Managing Owner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Managing Owner unless approved by Franchisor;
and

(6) The Managing Owner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Managing Owner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his/her obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Managing Owner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Managing Owner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee's replacement Managing Owner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Managing Owner.

E. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as the "Principal Operating Officer" of Franchisee, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, it shall designate an individual to serve as "Principal Operating Partner" subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall own an equity interest of at least ten percent (10%) in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Principal Operating Officer or Partner;

(2) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall devote full time and best efforts to the supervision and conduct of the Franchised Business and any other Bojangles restaurants which may be operated by Franchisee;

(3) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Principal Operating Officer or Partner unless approved by Franchisor; and

(6) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Principal Operating Officer or Partner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Principal Operating Officer or Partner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Principal Operating Officer or Partner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee's replacement Principal Operating Officer or Partner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Principal Operating Officer or Partner.

F. Franchisee agrees that it is important to the operation of the System and the Restaurant that Franchisee and Franchisee's employees receive such training as Franchisor may require, and to that end agrees as follows:

(1) Prior to the opening of the Restaurant, the Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner, if they have not each previously attended the initial training program, and such number of Franchisee's managers as Franchisor shall designate, shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor. At Franchisee's expense, the Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner and Franchisee's managers and other employees shall also attend such courses, seminars, and other training programs as Franchisor may require from time to time. Franchisor shall provide instructors and training materials for all required training programs; and Franchisee or its employees shall be responsible for any and all other expenses incurred by them in connection with any training programs, including, without limitation, the cost of transportation, lodging, meals, and wages. Any person subsequently employed by Franchisee in the position of manager and each subsequent Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, such initial training program as Franchisor may require within one hundred eighty (180) days after being employed or appointed.

(2) Franchisee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, managers and other employees may also attend such optional training programs and seminars as Franchisor may offer from time to time. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor, for each person attending such a program, the training fee, if any, then charged by Franchisor. If any such training fee is imposed by Franchisor, the training fee shall be in addition to any other expenses incurred by the persons attending training as provided in Paragraph VI.F.(1) hereof.

G. Franchisee shall use the Restaurant premises solely for the operation of the Franchised Business; shall keep the Franchised Business open and in normal operation for such minimum hours and days as Franchisor may from time to time specify in the Manual or as Franchisor may otherwise approve in writing; and shall refrain from using or permitting the use of the premises for any other purpose or activity at any time without first obtaining the written consent of Franchisor.

H. Franchisee shall maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff, including at least one fully trained manager on duty at the Restaurant at all times, in sufficient numbers so as to operate the Restaurant efficiently and effectively. Franchisee shall hire all employees of the Restaurant and be exclusively responsible for the terms of their employment and compensation, and for the proper training of such employees in the operation of the Restaurant, in human resources and customer relations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions of the Restaurant including, without limitation, decisions or actions related to hiring, firing, training, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, scheduling benefits, recordkeeping, supervision, and discipline of employees, and such decisions or actions shall not be, nor be deemed to be, a decision or action of Franchisor. The parties agree that Franchisor shall not be deemed a joint employer with Franchisee for any reason. If Franchisor incurs any cost, expense, loss, or damage as a result of any actions or omissions of Franchisee or Franchisee's employees, including any that relate to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, Franchisee will fully indemnify Franchisor for such cost, expense, loss, or damage. Franchisee shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that its employees preserve good customer relations, wear uniforms of such color, design and other specifications as Franchisor may designate from time to time, present a neat and clean appearance, and render competent and courteous service to Restaurant customers.

I. Franchisee shall meet and maintain the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Restaurant.

J. To insure that the highest degree of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service is maintained, Franchisee shall operate the Restaurant in strict conformity with such methods, standards, and specifications as Franchisor may from time to time prescribe in the Manual or otherwise in writing. Franchisee agrees:

(1) To operate the Restaurant in a clean, wholesome manner in compliance with Franchisor's prescribed standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service;

(2) To maintain in sufficient supply, and to use at all times, only such ingredients, products, materials, supplies, and paper goods as conform with Franchisor's standards and specifications, and to refrain from deviating therefrom by the use or offer of nonconforming items, without Franchisor's prior written consent;

(3) To sell or offer for sale only such menu items, products, and services as have been expressly approved for sale in writing by Franchisor; to sell or offer for sale all types of menu items, products, and services specified by Franchisor; to refrain from any deviation from Franchisor's standards and specifications without Franchisor's prior written consent; and to discontinue selling and offering for sale any menu items, products, or services which Franchisor may, in its discretion, disapprove in writing at any time;

(4) To employ only those methods of food handling and preparation as Franchisor may specify in the Manual, or otherwise designate from time to time;

(5) To permit Franchisor or its agents, at any reasonable time, to remove samples of food or non-food items from Franchisee's inventory, or from the Restaurant, without payment therefor, in amounts reasonably necessary for testing by Franchisor or an independent laboratory to determine whether said samples meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications. In addition to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement, Franchisor may require Franchisee to bear the cost of such testing if the supplier of the item has not previously been approved by Franchisor or if the sample fails to conform with Franchisor's specifications; and

(6) To purchase and install, at Franchisee's expense, all fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, and signs as Franchisor may reasonably direct from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing; and to refrain from installing or permitting to be installed on or about the Restaurant premises, without Franchisor's prior written consent, any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, signs, games, vending machines, or other items not previously approved as meeting Franchisor's standards and specifications.

K. Franchisee shall comply with all requirements of federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations.

L. Franchisee shall purchase all food items, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, supplies, materials, and other items used or offered for sale at the Restaurant solely from suppliers (including manufacturers, distributors and other sources) who demonstrate, to the continuing reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, the ability to meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications for such items; who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply Franchisee's needs promptly and reliably; and who have been approved in writing by Franchisor and not thereafter disapproved. If Franchisee desires to purchase any products from an unapproved supplier, Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor a written request for such approval, or shall request the supplier itself to do so, and Franchisor, in its sole discretion, shall determine whether such supplier shall be approved. Franchisor shall have the right to require that its representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered to Franchisor or to an independent laboratory designated by Franchisor for testing. A charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the inspection and the actual cost of the test shall be paid by Franchisee or the supplier. Franchisor reserves the right, at its option, to re-inspect the facilities and products of any such approved supplier and to revoke its approval upon the supplier's failure to continue to meet any of Franchisor's then-current criteria.

M. Franchisee shall require all advertising and promotional materials, signs, decorations, paper goods (including disposable food containers, napkins, and menus), all forms and stationery used in the Franchised Business, and other items which may be designated by Franchisor to bear the Proprietary Marks in the form, color, location, and manner prescribed by Franchisor.

N. Franchisee shall maintain the Restaurant in a high degree of sanitation, repair, and condition, and in connection therewith shall make such additions, alterations, repairs, and replacements thereto (but, if of a substantial nature, not without Franchisor's prior written consent) as may be required for that purpose, including, without limitation, such periodic repainting or replacement of signs, furnishings, equipment, and decor in the manner and at the times which Franchisor may reasonably direct; provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be required to undertake a major remodeling of the kitchen and interior and exterior decor of the Restaurant more than once in any five (5) year period.

O. Franchisee shall, where applicable, keep the parking area for the Restaurant well-lighted, and maintain the parking area for the exclusive use of Restaurant customers.

P. Franchisee shall grant Franchisor and its agents the right to enter upon the Restaurant premises at any time for the purpose of conducting inspections; shall cooperate with Franchisor's representatives in such inspections by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request; and, upon notice from Franchisor or its agents and without limiting Franchisor's other rights under this Agreement, shall take such steps as may be necessary to correct immediately any deficiencies detected during any such inspection. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to correct such deficiencies within a reasonable time as determined by Franchisor, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) to correct such deficiencies and to charge Franchisee a reasonable fee for Franchisor's expenses in so acting, payable by Franchisee immediately upon demand. The foregoing shall be in addition to such other remedies as Franchisor may have.

Q. Without limiting any other provision or requirement of the Agreement, Franchisee agrees to sell only those beverage product brands specified by Franchisor, including all soft drinks and cola products. Franchisor specifically retains the right to make additions or changes to the beverage product brands offered by Franchisee.

R. Franchisee agrees to utilize the e-mail address provided by Franchisor and to utilize the Bojangles electronic portal, and review its content regularly for purposes of receiving updates, notice of Manual or policy changes and other communications from Franchisor.

S. If Franchisee develops any new concepts, processes or improvements relating to the System, whether or not pursuant to a Franchisor authorized test, Franchisee promptly shall notify Franchisor and provide Franchisor with all information regarding the new concept, process or improvement, all of which shall become the property of Franchisor and its affiliates and which may be incorporated into the System without any payment to Franchisee. Franchisee, at its expense, promptly shall take all actions deemed necessary or desirable by Franchisor to vest in Franchisor all ownership of such concepts, processes or improvements. Franchisee shall not implement any new concept, process or improvement in the Restaurant without Franchisor's prior written approval. Testing of any new concept, process or improvement must be conducted under specified "test parameters" that may govern among other things the duration of the test and validation of results as set forth by Franchisor. Any testing of a new product, process or improvement must be deemed safe by Franchisor prior to implementation.

T. Franchisee shall comply with all other requirements set forth in this Agreement.

F. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Trade Dress and the goodwill associated with and symbolized by it;

(2) The Trade Dress is valid and serves to identify the System and those who are authorized to operate under the System;

(3) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Franchisor's ownership of the Trade Dress;

(4) Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Trade Dress, except pursuant to the license granted by this Agreement;

(5) Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress in its franchised operation under the System shall inure solely and exclusively to Franchisor's benefit, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the System or the Trade Dress; and

(6) The right and license of the Trade Dress granted hereunder to Franchisee is nonexclusive, and Franchisor thus has and retains the rights, among others:

(a) To use the Trade Dress itself in connection with selling products and services;

(b) To grant other licenses for the Trade Dress, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees; and

(c) To develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Trade Dress, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee.

G. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph VII. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph VII.

VIII. CONFIDENTIAL MANUAL

A. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor and to maintain high standards of operation under Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Franchisee shall conduct its business in accordance with the Manual, one copy of which Franchisee acknowledges having received by electronic access or written copy on loan from Franchisor for the term of this Agreement. The Manual shall include manuals, memoranda, procedures, policies and other communications created by Franchisor that are posted on the Bojangles electronic portal or otherwise communicated to Franchisee in writing by email or hardcopy, whether or not noted as "Manual". If a posting is made to the Bojangles electronic portal, Franchisee shall be deemed to have notice of any changes or supplements to the Manual. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any required standards set forth in this Agreement and the Manual exist to protect Franchisor's interests in the System and the Proprietary Marks and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to Franchisee (including the day-to-day operation of the Restaurant and the conduct and management of Franchisee's employees).

B. Franchisee shall at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Franchised Business, and the information contained therein, as confidential, and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, nor otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person.

C. The Manual shall at all times remain the sole property of Franchisor.

D. Franchisor may from time to time revise the contents of the Manual, and Franchisee expressly agrees to comply with each new or changed standard.

E. Franchisee shall continuously review changes to the Manual as posted on the Bojangles electronic portal, and to otherwise keep current with the Manual. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by Franchisor at Franchisor's home office shall be controlling.

IX. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

A. Franchisee shall not, during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of any other person, persons, partnership, association, corporation or limited liability company any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Franchised Business which may be communicated to Franchisee or of which Franchisee may be apprised by virtue of Franchisee's operation under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee shall divulge such confidential information only to such of its employees as must have access to it in order to operate the Franchised Business, and Franchisee shall take such precautions as Franchisor deems necessary to ensure that Franchisee's employees retain such information in confidence. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement, except information which Franchisee can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Franchisor; or which, at the time of disclosure by Franchisor to Franchisee, had become a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others; or which, after disclosure to Franchisee by Franchisor, becomes a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others.

B. Franchisee hereby acknowledges that pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisor will provide Franchisee with access to and training in processes and procedures of a proprietary nature and will provide Franchisee with access to and the right to use recipes and formulas, the Manual, logos, designs, trademarks, trade names and other proprietary information in connection with Franchisee's development and operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee shall not at any time, whether during the term of this Agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, disclose any information obtained through such training or from any materials provided by Franchisor to Franchisee and pertaining to the Bojangles System to any third party other than employees of Franchisee directly involved in the operations of the Restaurant. Further, Franchisee agrees that during the term of this Agreement and after its expiration or earlier termination, it shall not use any of such information or proprietary marks, including but not limited to any processes, procedures, recipes and formulas, for any purpose other than the operation of the Restaurant and will take all steps necessary to prevent any other use of them. Without limiting the foregoing, Franchisee specifically agrees that it shall not during the term of this agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, offer for sale at any location, other than during the term of this Agreement the Restaurant being operated at that time pursuant to this Agreement, any food or drink products prepared using in whole or part the procedures, processes, techniques, recipes or formulas provided by Franchisor to Franchisee.

C. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph IX. will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph IX.

X. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS

A. Franchisee shall maintain during the term of this Agreement, and shall preserve for at least five (5) years from the dates of their preparation, full, complete, and accurate books, records, and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in the form and manner prescribed by Franchisor from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

B. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor, no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month during the term of this Agreement, after the opening of the Franchised Business, a statistical report and statement of receipts, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, accurately reflecting all Gross Sales during the preceding month and such other data or information as Franchisor may require.

C. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, submit to Franchisor, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, an unaudited balance sheet of the Franchised Business and a statement of profit or loss for the preceding quarter within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter of Franchisee's fiscal year. Each such statement shall be signed by Franchisee's treasurer or chief financial officer attesting that it is true and correct.

D. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, provide to Franchisor a statement of profit or loss and a year-end balance sheet prepared and certified by Franchisee's chief financial officer and, upon written request by Franchisor, by an independent certified public accountant satisfactory to Franchisor, within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Franchised Business during the term hereof, showing the results of operations of the Franchised Business during said fiscal year. Franchisee's chief financial officer shall attest that the financial statements present fairly the financial position of Franchisee and the results of operations of the Franchised Business during the period covered. Franchisor shall have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to require that Franchisee submit audited statements for any fiscal year or any period or periods of a fiscal year of Franchisee during the term of this Agreement, and to require Franchisee to cause its independent certified public accountant to consult with Franchisor, at Franchisee's expense, concerning the financial statements provided by Franchisee.

E. Franchisee and its shareholders shall also submit to Franchisor, for review or auditing, such other forms, reports, records, information, and data as Franchisor may reasonably designate, in the form and at the times and places reasonably required by Franchisor, upon request and as specified from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

F. Franchisor or its designated agents shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine and copy, at Franchisor's expense, the books, records, and tax returns of Franchisee. Franchisor shall also have the right, at any time, to have an independent audit made of the books of Franchisee. If an inspection should reveal that any payments have been understated in any report to Franchisor, then Franchisee shall immediately pay to Franchisor the amount understated upon demand, in addition to interest from the date such amount was due until paid, at one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If an inspection discloses an understatement in any report of five percent (5%) or more, Franchisee shall, in addition, reimburse Franchisor for any and all costs and expenses connected with the inspection (including, without limitation, reasonable accounting and attorneys' fees). The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XI. ADVERTISING

Recognizing the value of advertising, and the importance of the standardization of advertising programs to the furtherance of the goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, the parties agree as follows:

A. Franchisee shall spend not less than three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Franchised Business on local and regional media advertising, in addition to any advertising contribution required under Paragraphs IV.C. and XI.E. hereof. Franchisee shall demonstrate on a quarterly basis, to the reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, that Franchisee has made such expenditures. Such advertising shall include radio, television, magazine, newspaper, billboard campaigns, print, direct mail and other forms of advertising media and public relations activities but shall not include the costs of advertising production, production of other marketing materials, cost of food promotion, point of purchase materials, telephone book advertising, stationery, or restaurant indoor or outdoor site location signs.

B. Recognizing the value of cooperative national and regional advertising and marketing, and the importance of standardizing such programs to further enhance the national goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, Franchisor reserves the right and may in its sole discretion require Franchisee to participate along with other franchisees in regional cooperative advertising organizations or programs, established from time to time currently or in the future by Franchisor or by other franchisees for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Bojangles System. In the event of the formation of such cooperative advertising groups, and Franchisee's participation therein, Franchisor shall permit Franchisee to credit a portion of the amount required to be expended for local and regional advertising in Paragraph XI.A. above to any regional program established by any such cooperative arrangement.

C. If Franchisee has failed to make or report the expenditure of the three percent (3%) of Gross Sales as required in Paragraph XI.A. above in any quarter or if Franchisee shall fail to participate in a cooperative advertising program after request by Franchisor as required in Paragraph XI.B. above, Franchisee shall thereafter, after written notice by Franchisor, pay to Franchisor three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant. Franchisor may then in its sole discretion contribute such amounts to any franchisee cooperative organization that operates in part or all of Franchisee's market area or Franchisor may expend such funds to create advertising that in Franchisor's sole determination will promote the Proprietary Marks and/or System in Franchisee's market area.

D. Franchisor may offer from time to time to provide, upon Franchisee's request and at Franchisee's expense, approved local advertising and promotional plans and materials.

E. Franchisee agrees to make contributions to the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund (hereinafter "Fund") as required under Paragraph IV.C. hereof. The Fund shall be maintained and administered by Franchisor or its designee, as follows:

(1) Franchisor shall direct the creation of all advertising programs, with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that the Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the trade names, trademarks, and service marks which are designated as part of the System for the benefit of the System through research and the creation of marketing materials; and that Franchisor and its designee undertake no obligation, in administering the Fund, to make expenditures which are equivalent or proportionate to a franchisee's contribution, or to insure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from Fund expenditures. Franchisee is aware that there may be some franchisees operating under different forms of agreement and who may not be required to make payments into the Fund equivalent to Franchisee's payments.

(2) Franchisor shall, for each of its company-owned Bojangles restaurants, make contributions to the Fund equivalent to the contributions required of comparable franchised Bojangles restaurants within the Bojangles System so that Franchisor's average contribution for each company-owned Restaurant will be equal to the average contribution per franchisee-owned Restaurant. This average per Restaurant contribution for franchisee-owned Restaurants will be calculated by dividing the total contributions of franchisees to the Fund by the total number of franchisee-owned Restaurants. Franchisor's total contribution to the Fund will equal this average per Restaurant contribution multiplied by Franchisor's total number of company-owned Restaurants; and

(3) All contributions to the Fund shall be used exclusively for advertising and promotion of the Bojangles System (including, without limitation, the cost of preparing and conducting television, radio, print, and billboard advertising campaigns and other public relations activities; conducting research; employing advertising agencies and other specialists to assist therein; and preparing and providing promotional brochures and other point of purchase marketing materials to franchisees in the Bojangles System). All sums paid by Franchisee and other franchisees to the Fund shall not be used to defray any of Franchisor's general operating expenses except for such reasonable administrative expenses and overhead, if any, as Franchisor may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs, including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing marketing and advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund.

F. All advertising by Franchisee in any medium shall be conducted in a dignified manner and shall conform to such standards and requirements as Franchisor may specify from time to time in writing. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor (through the mail, return receipt requested, electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission or through next business day delivery), for its prior written approval, samples of all advertising and promotional plans and materials that Franchisee desires to use and that have not been prepared or previously approved by Franchisor. Franchisee shall not use any advertising or promotional plans and materials that have not received Franchisor's prior written approval. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Franchisor may establish or introduce certain national, regional, or local promotions, campaigns, contests, special or limited offers, and other programs, including as related to new products, services or other programs (collectively, the "Special Promotions"). Franchisor will consult with Franchisor's Franchise Advisory Council regarding upcoming Special Promotions. Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's implementation requirements regarding the Special Promotions. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for any costs and expenses associated with the Special Promotions, including the purchase of any inventory or supplies needed or required to implement the Special Promotions. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Special Promotions.

G. Franchisor may require Franchisee to participate in multi-channel marketing platforms approved by Franchisor (the "Multi-Channel Programs"). The Multi-Channel Programs will require Franchisee's cooperation and participation, including, without limitation, Franchisee refraining from certain channels of marketing and distribution, and Franchisee's payment of commissions or referral fees. Franchisor will designate the multi-channel platform, method and timing of payment, and any outside agencies for the Multi-Channel Programs. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Multi-Channel Programs.

XII. INSURANCE

A. Franchisee shall maintain insurance in force as follows:

(1) Worker's compensation in an amount at least in the statutory requirements for the state in which the Restaurant is located, with employers' liability limits of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) per occurrence for bodily injury by accident and disease;

(2) Comprehensive general liability insurance, including products liability and broad form contractual liability insurance in an amount of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) per occurrence. Franchisee's liability coverage may be primary and non-contributory. Insurance carriers must be an insurance company with at least an A- class rating and VIII financial size according to A.M. Best and if not available then according to Moody's or Standard and Poor's.

(3) Property insurance on ISO special form, covering the building with 100% replacement cost coverage, less a commercially reasonable deductible. Coverage must include flood and earthquake if the location is in a high hazard zone.

(4) All policies of insurance, including general liability insurance, shall name Bojangles Opco, LLC, Bojangles' Restaurants Inc. (in its capacity as Manager under a Management Agreement with Bojangles Opco, LLC), and their respective affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective partners, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, representatives, and employees as additional insureds or loss payees, as may be applicable, on the policies; shall provide that the policy cannot be cancelled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Franchisor; and shall specify that copies of all notices shall be sent to Franchisor. Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with copies of all policies or certificates evidencing insurance in force as required herein. Evidence of payment of premiums shall be delivered to Franchisor at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration dates of each existing insurance policy; and

(5) Such additional insurance covering such additional risks or providing such higher limits as Franchisor may reasonably request.

B. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, as such requirements may be revised from time to time by Franchisor in the Manual or otherwise in writing, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) immediately to procure such insurance and to charge same to Franchisee, which charges, together with a reasonable fee for Franchisor's time and expenses in so acting, shall be payable by Franchisee immediately upon notice. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XIII. TRANSFER

A. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity.

B. Transfer by Franchisee of the right to operate the restaurant, or any interest in this Agreement, in the franchise rights and license rights, and/or in Franchisee are limited as follows:

(1) Franchisee's authority to transfer any interest under this Agreement is also subject to the terms of any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee, including a Development Agreement, which may impose additional conditions and limitations on Franchisee's right to transfer its interest under this Agreement.

(2) Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and its shareholders or members, and that Franchisor has granted this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill and financial capacity, and the business skill, financial capacity and personal character of Franchisee's shareholders or members. Accordingly, neither Franchisee nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement, nor any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns any interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee shall sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise encumber any direct or indirect interest in the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder or any obligations hereunder or in Franchisee without the prior written consent of Franchisor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any such proposed transfer shall be subject, where applicable, to Franchisor's option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XIII.C. herein. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of Franchisor required by this Paragraph XIII.B.(2) shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which Franchisor may then terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph XIV.B. of this Agreement.

(3) If a transfer, alone or together with other previous, simultaneous, or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or in the franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder, or in Franchisee, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, if it does not elect to exercise its option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XIII.C. herein, require any or all of the following as conditions of its approval:

(a) All of Franchisee's accrued and outstanding monetary obligations to third parties and all accrued and outstanding obligations to Franchisor, or any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Franchisor shall have been satisfied;

(b) Franchisee shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereto or successor hereof, or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates;

(c) The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its officers, directors, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances; and shall agree to remain liable to Franchisor for all affirmative obligations, covenants, and agreements contained herein for two (2) years following the effective date of transfer (or, if transferor retains a purchase money interest in the transferred business, for a period greater than two (2) years, until the interest is extinguished) or for such shorter period as Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, determine;

(d) The transferee shall enter into a written assignment, under seal and in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee's

obligations under this Agreement; and, if the obligations of Franchisee were guaranteed by the transferor, the transferee shall guarantee the performance of all such obligations in writing in a form satisfactory to Franchisor;

(e) The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the transferee meets Franchisor's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business herein (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Franchised Business;

(f) At Franchisor's option, the transferee shall execute (and/or, upon Franchisor's request, shall cause all interested parties to execute), for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, the then-current standard form of franchise agreement being offered to new System franchisees and other ancillary agreements, including a guarantee of such agreement executed by all shareholders of the transferee, as Franchisor may require for the Franchised Business, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which agreements may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty rate and advertising contribution; provided, however, that the transferee shall not be required to pay an initial Franchise Fee;

(g) At Franchisor's sole discretion, the transferee, at its expense, shall upgrade the Restaurant to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of System restaurants, and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time specified by Franchisor;

(h) Franchisee shall remain liable for all of its obligations to Franchisor in connection with the Franchised Business prior to the effective date of the transfer, and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability;

(i) At the transferee's expense, transferee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, and managers, shall complete any training and certification programs then in effect for franchisees upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor may reasonably require; and

(j) Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a transfer fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Restaurant, which constitutes Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting expenses) in connection with Franchisor's review of the application to transfer.

(4) Franchisee shall grant no security interest in this Agreement or in the Franchised Business (other than a pledge of assets to secure a bona fide loan made or credit extended in connection with acquisition of the assets pledged) unless the secured party agrees that in the event of any default by Franchisee under any documents related to the security interest, Franchisor shall have the right and option to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to such secured party.

(5) Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that each condition which must be met by transferee is necessary to assure such transferee's full performance of the obligations hereunder.

C. Franchisor shall have the option to purchase any interest in the Restaurant or this Agreement as follows:

(1) Any party holding any direct or indirect interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement or in Franchisee who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a party other than Franchisor to purchase such interest, if a transfer of that interest alone or together with other previous, simultaneous or proposed transfers would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee, shall provide Franchisor with all of the terms of the proposed transfer in writing at least sixty (60) days prior to the proposed date of transfer. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of all documentation necessary, in Franchisor's sole but reasonable opinion, to evaluate the terms of the proposed transfer, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party, net of any finders or brokers fees which any third party would be obligated to pay. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, closing on such purchase must occur within thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor does not exercise its option to purchase, Franchisee or shareholders of Franchisee may proceed to consummate a transfer to a third party if they have complied with the conditions of this Paragraph XIII. If Franchisor did not exercise its option to purchase, any material change in the terms of the third party's offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same option to purchase by Franchisor as in the case of an initial offer. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Paragraph XIII.C. shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Paragraph XIII. with respect to a proposed transfer.

(2) In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that Franchisor is not in a position to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then Franchisor may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash.

D. Upon the death or mental incapacity of any person with a direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in Franchisee, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall transfer the interest to a third party, including shareholder(s) or member(s) of Franchisee, approved by Franchisor within twelve (12) months after such death or mental incapacity, or, if legal proceedings make transfer within twelve (12) months not feasible, within such longer period as may be reasonable under the circumstances. Such transfer, including, without limitation, transfer by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. If an approved transfer has not been made within the aforementioned period, Franchisor shall have the option to purchase the Franchised Business at fair market value, and thereupon terminate this Agreement. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the Franchised Business and terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, closing of the transaction shall take place as promptly as possible after Franchisor exercises its option to purchase, and the parties reach agreement concerning the fair market value of the Franchised Business. Payment will be made in four (4) installments, the first of which shall be made at the time of closing and the remaining three (3) installments shall each be made at one (1) year intervals from the date of the first payment. Interest shall be payable on the unpaid portion of the purchase price on the due date of each installment of principal at the prime rate of Bank of America on the date of Franchisor's election to purchase the Franchised Business. If the parties are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Franchised Business, then the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration in Charlotte, North Carolina, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

E. Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Franchisee, rights to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement or any license or franchise rights granted hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XIII. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XIII.

XIV. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

A. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein shall automatically terminate without notice to Franchisee, if Franchisee shall become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee or such a petition is filed against Franchisee and not opposed by Franchisee; or if Franchisee is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; or if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's business or assets is filed and consented to by Franchisee; or if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Franchisee's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; or if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law should be instituted by or against Franchisee.

B. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default and Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Franchisee:

(1) If Franchisee fails to: obtain Franchisor's approval of a site for the Restaurant by the Site Approval Deadline; commence construction of the Restaurant and pay the Franchise Fee by the Construction Commencement Deadline; or construct, furnish, and open the Restaurant by the Opening Deadline;

(2) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee is convicted of a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of Franchisor, adversely to affect the System, the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress the goodwill associated therewith, or Franchisor's interest therein;

(3) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee purports to transfer any interest in this Agreement, any rights hereunder, including but not limited to any rights to operate the Restaurant, franchise and license rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Franchisee to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Paragraph XIII. of this Agreement;

(4) If, contrary to the terms of Paragraph VIII. or IX. hereof, Franchisee discloses or divulges the contents of the Manual or other confidential information provided to Franchisee by Franchisor;

(5) If Franchisee knowingly maintains false books or records, or knowingly submits any false reports to Franchisor;

(6) If Franchisee, or any shareholder or member of Franchisee, violates Paragraph VII. hereof by making any unauthorized use of any name, trademark, service mark, or other Proprietary Mark or Trade Dress of Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee shall cause, suffer, or permit (voluntarily or involuntarily) its right to or possession of the premises on which the Restaurant is located to be terminated prematurely for any cause whatsoever; or if Franchisee shall be in material default under the lease for the premises on which the Restaurant is located, or shall be in material default under any mortgage with respect to the property on which the Restaurant is located, provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be in breach of this provision if a condemnation proceeding affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated occurs which makes it impossible or infeasible for Franchisee to continue to operate the Restaurant at its present location, and within thirty (30) days after the final condemnation determination Franchisee provides Franchisor with notice of its intention to open, and within one (1) year of the final condemnation determination opens, a substitute Restaurant on a new site approved by Franchisor;

(8) If Franchisee ceases to operate or otherwise abandons, or attempts to cease to operate or abandon, the Restaurant or enters into an agreement to sell, or sells, or purports or attempts to sell, the real property upon which the Restaurant is situated, or substantially all right, title and interest in and to the Restaurant or real property lease, or substantially all of the assets of Franchisee or of the Restaurant, without Franchisor's prior written consent; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, Franchisor may, in lieu of immediate termination of this Agreement, request from Franchisee, a statement of intentions and assurances that no event in breach of this Agreement is so contemplated, which statement and assurances shall be delivered in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of Franchisor's request. In addition Franchisor may request, and Franchisee shall provide within five (5) business days thereafter, a performance bond from Franchisee, the amount of such bond and the issuing entity to be solely at Franchisor's reasonable discretion.

(9) If any other Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement for Bojangles restaurants or any other agreements with Franchisor or its affiliates entered into by Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) is terminated based upon Franchisee's or its affiliates' (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee's or its affiliates') default thereunder;

(10) If Franchisee, after curing a default pursuant to Paragraph XIV.C. hereof, commits the same, or a substantially similar, default again within one hundred eighty (180) days after the prior default occurred, whether or not cured after notice; or

(11) If Franchisee repeatedly is in default under Paragraph XIV.C. hereof for failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, whether or not cured after notice.

C. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs XIV.A. and XIV.B. of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have ten (10) days for a monetary default and thirty (30) days for any other default after its receipt from Franchisor of a written notice of default within which to remedy any default hereunder and to provide evidence thereof to Franchisor. If any such default is not cured within that time, or such longer period as applicable law may require, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon Franchisee's receipt of notice from Franchisor after the expiration of the ten (10) day or thirty (30) day period, as applicable, or such longer period as applicable law may require. Franchisee shall be in default hereunder for any failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, including any matter enumerated in this Paragraph XIV.C., as it may from time to time reasonably be supplemented by the Manual, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Such defaults shall include, for example, but without limitation, the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects promptly to pay any monies owing to Franchisor or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates when due, or to submit the financial or other information required by Franchisor under this Agreement;

(2) If Franchisee fails to pay or fails repeatedly to make prompt payment of undisputed amounts due to its suppliers, landlord, equipment lessors, or other third parties;

(3) If Franchisee fails to maintain the Restaurant in a good, clean and wholesome manner, or fails to maintain or observe any of the other standards or procedures prescribed by Franchisor in this Agreement, the Manual, or otherwise in writing;

(4) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects to obtain Franchisor's prior written approval or consent as required by this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee denies Franchisor or its designee the right to inspect the Restaurant at reasonable times;

(6) If Franchisee engages in any business or markets any service or product under a name or mark which, in Franchisor's opinion, is confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks or uses the Trade Dress other than in connection with the Restaurant or uses any of Franchisor's products, procedures or methods in any other operation not authorized by Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee fails to comply with the in-term covenants in Paragraph XVI.A. hereof;

(8) If a final judgment against Franchisee remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless supersedeas bond is filed);

(9) If Franchisee is dissolved, execution is levied against Franchisee’s business or property, suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Franchised Business or equipment situated therein is instituted against Franchisee and not dismissed or bonded off within sixty (60) days, or the real or personal property of the Franchised Business is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal or constable;

(10) If an approved transfer of a controlling interest in Franchisee is not effected within the prescribed period following the death or mental incapacity of a shareholder or member of Franchisee, as required by Paragraph XIII.D. hereof; or

(11) If Franchisee’s Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, or Restaurant managers fail to timely attend and successfully complete the initial training program or any other training programs required by Franchisor.

D. In the event that this Agreement is terminated on account of Franchisee’s default, Franchisor shall have the option, within sixty (60) days after the date of termination (or longer if the provisions of Paragraph XIV.D.(3) are applicable), to purchase or lease the Franchised Business subject to the following terms and subject to the terms of the Development Agreement entered into between Franchisee and Franchisor:

(1) If Franchisee leases the Restaurant building and land on which the Restaurant is situated, Franchisor shall have the right to purchase the leasehold and other assets owned by Franchisee relating to the Restaurant for an amount equal to the higher of (i) the net tangible book value (which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements) of the assets owned by Franchisee relating to the Restaurant, including the leasehold improvements, equipment, inventory and supplies, and excluding unamortized franchise and development fees, good will and all other intangible assets; or (ii) an amount calculated as follows:

A	B	C
If Gross Sales for the Restaurant for the 12 months immediately preceding termination are:	Multiply the Gross Sales by:	and subtract the following from the product of A and B:
up to $750,000	$.40	All debts and liabilities of Franchisee to Franchisor, or to third parties (excluding lease obligations to third parties) which are being assumed by Franchisor.
$750,001--$900,000	$.50
$900,001 or more	$.55

The amount as computed above shall be payable twenty percent (20%) on closing with the principal balance payable in three (3) equal payments due annually on the anniversary of the purchase with interest on the unpaid principal balance payable on the due date of each principal payment at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum. Undisclosed or matured contingent liabilities which are paid by Franchisor after payment of the twenty percent (20%) down shall be deducted from the next installment(s) due, together with interest thereon from the date paid at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum over the prime rate of Bank of America on the date such payment is made.

(2) If Franchisee owns the land on which the Restaurant to be purchased by Franchisor is situated, Franchisor shall have the right, at its discretion, either to purchase or lease the land and Restaurant building. If Franchisor elects to purchase, Franchisee shall sell the land, building, equipment, inventory, and supplies to Franchisor at the higher of (i) their depreciated net tangible book value, which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements, or (ii) an amount to be determined in accordance with the table in Paragraph XIV.D.(1) above. If Franchisor elects to lease, Franchisee shall lease the land and building to Franchisor on Franchisor's then-standard lease form for Bojangles restaurant sites operated by Franchisor, and Franchisor shall purchase the equipment, inventory and supplies at their depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above. Net annual rental payments (payable monthly after taxes and expenses) shall be equal to the higher of fourteen percent (14%) of the depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above, of the land and Restaurant building, or six and one-half percent (6½%) of Gross Sales to the extent that Gross Sales do not exceed the amount of Gross Sales for the twelve (12) months preceding the commencement of occupancy by Franchisor, and five percent (5%) of Gross Sales that exceed that amount.

(3) Franchisor shall exercise its right to purchase the Franchised Business by the later of sixty (60) days after the date of termination, the date it takes possession of the Restaurant pursuant to Paragraph XIV.E. hereof, or ten (10) days after the date upon which any litigation contesting the validity of the termination is finally adjudicated. If Franchisor has taken possession of the Restaurant, it shall exercise its right to purchase the Restaurant or vacate the premises by the end of the foregoing period.

E. In order to maintain continuous operation of the Restaurant and to promote the best interests of the System, in the event this Agreement is terminated, Franchisor shall have the right immediately upon termination to enter and take possession of and operate the Restaurant. Nothing herein contained in Paragraph XIV.E shall be intended to give Franchisor control of Franchisee's employees.

F. In the event that this Agreement is terminated and Franchisee contests the validity of the termination, the party that operates the Restaurant during the period commencing with the date that notice of termination was given and ending with the date upon which a final notice and nonappealable judgment resolving the issue is entered, shall operate the Restaurant for the benefit of the prevailing party in such contest, and shall account for, and pay over, any profits earned during said period to the other party, if such other party is the party that prevails.

G. Upon termination of this Agreement owing to default by Franchisee, Franchisee shall not remove any furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment or other property or leasehold improvements from the Restaurant premises until expiration of the period within which Franchisor may exercise its right to purchase the Restaurant. If Franchisor does not elect to purchase the Restaurant it may nevertheless elect, within ninety (90) days of the date of termination, to purchase Franchisee's furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment, leasehold improvements and other property or any portion thereof for a sum equal to the fair market value of such property. If the parties cannot agree on a fair market value within a reasonable time, an independent appraiser shall be designated by Franchisor, and the appraiser's determination shall be binding. Any property so purchased by Franchisor shall be delivered to Franchisor's representative at the Restaurant premises on a date specified in the purchase notice by Franchisor not more than five (5) days after delivery of the purchase notice or at such other time as may be reasonable in the circumstances. If Franchisor elects to exercise any right to purchase herein provided, it shall have the right to set off all amounts due from Franchisee, and the cost of the appraisal, if any, against any payment therefor.

H. Upon expiration of this Agreement or termination resulting from any condemnation proceedings affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated, within sixty (60) days prior to the date specified for expiration or takeover by any public authority, Franchisee shall not remove any furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment and other property or leasehold improvements. Franchisor may, upon written notice at least thirty (30) days prior to such date, notify Franchisee of its intention to purchase all or any portion of the furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment and other chattels for a sum equal to the fair market value of such property. Determination of fair market value and the terms of delivery shall be as specified in Paragraph XIV.G. hereof.

XV. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted hereunder to Franchisee shall forthwith terminate, and:

A. Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business, and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold itself out as a present or former franchisee of Franchisor.

B. Franchisee shall immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures and techniques associated with the System; the Proprietary Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, and devices and any Trade Dress associated with the System. In particular, Franchisee shall follow Franchisor's instructions to deidentify the Restaurant from the System, including removal or modification of structural features of the Restaurant including, but not limited to, the distinctive roof, interior and exterior color combinations and designs, and shall cease to use, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms, and any other articles which display the Proprietary Marks.

C. Franchisee shall take such action as may be necessary to cancel any assumed name or equivalent registration which contains any Proprietary Mark or any other service mark or trademark of Franchisor, and Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with evidence satisfactory to Franchisor of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

D. Franchisee agrees, in the event it continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception, or which is likely to dilute Franchisor's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks, and further agrees not to utilize any Trade Dress or designation of origin or description or representation which falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Franchisor constituting unfair competition.

E. Franchisee shall promptly pay all sums owing to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates. In the event of termination for any default of Franchisee, such sums shall include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor as a result of the default, which obligation shall give rise to and remain, until paid in full, a lien in favor of Franchisor against any and all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures, and inventory owned by Franchisee and on the premises operated hereunder at the time of default.

F. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Paragraph XV.

G. Franchisee shall immediately deliver to Franchisor all manuals, including the Manual, records, files, instructions, correspondence, all materials related to operating the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, brochures, agreements, invoices, and any and all other materials relating to the operation of the Franchised Business in Franchisee's possession, and all copies thereof (all of which are acknowledged to be Franchisor's property), and shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing, except Franchisee's copy of this Agreement and of any correspondence between the parties and any other documents which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law.

H. Franchisee shall comply with any surviving covenants contained in Paragraph XVI. of this Agreement.

XVI. COVENANTS

A. Franchisee acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including, without limitation, information relating to the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System. Accordingly, Franchisee covenants that:

(1) During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation or limited liability company:

(a) Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Restaurant to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Trade Dress and the System; or

(b) Own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(i) Any restaurant business which: (a) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants; and (b) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction; or

(ii) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (a) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction, or (b) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

(2) During the continuing uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(a) Any restaurant business which: (i) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, and (ii) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement; or

(b) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (i) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, or (ii) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

B. Paragraph XVI.A. shall not apply to ownership by Franchisee of less than two percent (2%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any corporation which is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

C. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Paragraph XVI. is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Paragraph XVI.

D. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Paragraph XVI.A. or any portion thereof, without Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof; and Franchisee agrees that it shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

E. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have now or in the future against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Paragraph XVI.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XVI. would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XVI.

G. At the request of Franchisor, Franchisee shall obtain and deliver to Franchisor executed covenants similar in substance to those set forth in this Paragraph XVI. (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Franchisee) from the following persons: all officers, directors, or members, and holders of the securities of Franchisee, and of any corporation or limited liability company directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by Franchisee. Every covenant required by this Paragraph XVI.G. shall be in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, including, without limitation, specific identification of Franchisor as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Failure by Franchisee to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Paragraph XVI.G. or to deliver the covenant to Franchisor shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

XVII. FORCE MAJEURE

If the performance of any obligation under this Agreement is prevented or delayed, in whole or in part, by reason of force majeure, or the consequence thereof, affecting the parties hereto or the rights granted hereunder, such force majeure to include but not be limited to acts of God, fire, flood, governmental restrictions, lockouts or labor disputes, then the affected party shall be given such additional time as is reasonable to perform in view of the nature and extent of the force majeure.

XVIII. TAXES, PERMITS, AND INDEBTEDNESS

A. Franchisee shall promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including, without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Franchisee in the conduct of the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor an amount equal to any sales tax, gross receipts tax, or similar tax imposed on Franchisor with respect to any payments to Franchisor required under this Agreement, unless the tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by Franchisor.

B. In the event of any bona fide dispute as to Franchisee's liability for taxes assessed or other indebtedness, Franchisee may contest the validity or the amount of the tax or indebtedness in accordance with procedures of the taxing authority or applicable law; however, in no event shall Franchisee permit a tax sale or seizure by levy of execution or similar writ or warrant, or attachment by a creditor, to occur against the premises of the Franchised Business, or any improvements thereon.

C. Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations, and shall timely obtain any and all permits, certificates, or licenses necessary for the full and proper conduct of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, licenses to do business, fictitious name registrations, sales tax permits, and fire clearances.

D. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of the commencement of any action, suit, or proceeding, and of the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award, or decree of any court, agency, or other governmental instrumentality, which may adversely affect the operation or financial condition of the Franchised Business.

XIX. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, that Franchisee is an independent contractor, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Neither this Agreement nor Franchisor's course of conduct is intended, nor may anything in this Agreement (nor Franchisor's course of conduct) be construed to state or imply that Franchisor is the joint employer of Franchisee's employees and/or independent contractors, nor vice versa.

B. During the term of this Agreement and any extensions thereof, Franchisee shall hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the Franchised Business pursuant to a franchise from Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to take such action as may be necessary to do so, including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place in the Restaurant, the content of which Franchisor reserves the right to specify.

C. It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Agreement authorizes Franchisee to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on Franchisor's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in Franchisor's name, and that Franchisor shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder as a result of, any such action, or by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee in its conduct of the Franchised Business or any claim or judgment arising therefrom. Franchisee shall indemnify and hold Franchisor and Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders, and employees harmless against any and all claims arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with, Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, as well as the costs, including attorneys' fees, of defending against them.

XX. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

A. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Franchisor, Franchisee shall make a timely written request to Franchisor therefor, and such approval or consent shall be obtained in writing.

B. Franchisor makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Franchisee may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Franchisee by providing any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion to Franchisee in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

C. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Franchisee under any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions hereof shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, duty, or power as against Franchisee, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Franchisee. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding breach by Franchisee of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

XXI. NOTICES

All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (a) on the day delivered, if delivered personally or (b) three (3) business days after being mailed, if mailed first class, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, (c) one (1) business day after being mailed, if sent via a reputable overnight courier service, or (d) at the time delivered via computer transmission or electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission, addressed to the respective parties at the addresses shown on Exhibit A to this Agreement. Any party may give notice of a change of address by written notice given as provided in this paragraph.

XXII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the exhibits(s) hereto constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements. No representations have induced Franchisee to execute this Agreement except for those contained in this Agreement, the exhibits and the Franchise Disclosure Document. No amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing; provided, however, that a writing signed by Franchisee need not be signed by any of its shareholders or members except to the extent, if any, that such writing would increase the amount of such shareholder's or member's financial obligations. Further, no modification, amendment, waiver, discharge or termination of any obligation of Franchisee, and no other matter or termination of any nature or kind whatsoever, including without limitation any release of Franchisee from any such obligation, shall release any shareholder or member of any guaranty obligation given or made by him under this Agreement or otherwise, whether or not such shareholder or member has notice thereof, all rights to notice or to consent being expressly waived hereby.

XXIII. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

A. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable; and if, for any reason, any portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provisions herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible; and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

B. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Franchisee, Franchisor, Franchisor's officers, directors, and employees, and such of Franchisee's and Franchisor's respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by Paragraph XIII. hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

C. Franchisee and each of its shareholders or members expressly agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which Franchisor is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

D. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

E. All references herein to the masculine, neuter, or singular shall be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter, or plural, where applicable, and all acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements, and obligations herein made or undertaken by Franchisee shall be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Franchisee.

F. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

XXIV. APPLICABLE LAW

A. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Franchisor in the State of North Carolina, and shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law; provided, however, that if any of the provisions of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of North Carolina, then such provisions shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which the principal office of Franchisee is located.

B. The parties agree that any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, shall be brought within the State of North Carolina and do hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

C. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Franchisee by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed to be, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

D. Nothing herein contained shall bar Franchisor's right to obtain injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause it loss or damages, under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions.

E. In the event of any action at law or in equity to secure or protect rights under or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable counsel fees together with court costs and expenses incurred in connection with the litigation.

F. THE PARTIES WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST EACH OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN THEM, EACH SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

G. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN, ANY CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR COLLECTIVE ACTION MATTERS, AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE, CLASS MEMBER OR AN OPT-IN PARTY, ACT AS A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL, OR JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS WITH CLAIMS OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY.

H. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, AND/OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY.

I. Except for payments owed by one party to the other, and unless prohibited by applicable law, any legal action or proceeding (including the offer and sale of a franchise to Franchisee) brought or instituted with respect to any dispute arising from or related to this Agreement or with respect to any breach of the terms of this Agreement must be brought or instituted within a period of two (2) years from the date on which the party asserting the claim knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the claim.

FORM OF ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

BOJANGLES RESTAURANT FORM OF ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS ADDENDUM is executed as of this ___ day of _____, _____, by and between _____ (“Franchisee”) and _____ (“Landlord”), as an addendum to the lease, as modified, amended, supplemented, renewed and/or extended from time to time as contemplated herein, (“Lease”) for the premises located at _____, State of _____ (“Premises”) dated as of _____, ____.

Franchisee has entered into a Bojangles Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) with Bojangles Opco, LLC (“Franchisor”) for the operation of a Bojangles restaurant at the Premises, and as a requirement thereof, the lease for the Premises must contain the provisions contained in this Addendum.

Landlord and Franchisee agree that the terms contained herein shall supersede any terms to the contrary set forth in the Lease.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of mutual covenants set forth herein, the execution and delivery of the Lease, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Franchisee hereby agree as follows:

1. Landlord shall deliver to Franchisor a copy of any notice of default or termination of the Lease at the same time such notice is delivered to Franchisee.
2. Franchisee hereby assigns to Franchisor, with Landlord’s irrevocable and unconditional consent, all of Franchisee’s rights, title and interests to and under the Lease upon any termination, expiration, or non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement, but no such assignment shall be effective unless: (a) the Franchise Agreement is terminated, not renewed, or expires without renewal or Franchisor has exercised its option to purchase the Restaurant under the Franchise Agreement, as applicable; and (b) Franchisor notifies Franchisee and Landlord in writing that Franchisor assumes Franchisee’s obligations under the Lease.

6. If Franchisor assumes the Lease, as provided above, Franchisor may, without Landlord’s prior consent, further assign the Lease to (a) an affiliate of Franchisor or as part of Franchisor’s financing or refinancing of its assets; or (b) to an approved franchisee of Franchisor to operate the Bojangles restaurant at the Premises provided that the following criteria are met: (a) Franchisor has an established franchising program for Bojangles restaurants; and (b) the proposed franchisee has met Franchisor's applicable requirements and has executed a franchise agreement with Franchisor. Upon such assignment to a franchisee of Franchisor, Franchisor shall be released from any further liability under the terms and conditions of the Lease.

7. Landlord and Franchisee acknowledge that if the Franchise Agreement expires (without renewal) or is terminated or not renewed, Franchisee is obligated to de-identify the Premises as a Bojangles restaurant, at its sole cost and expense. WHEREAS, Franchisor, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort, and money, has developed and owns a unique and distinctive system (hereinafter “System” or “Bojangles System”) relating to the establishment and operation of fast service restaurants;

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, distinctive exterior and interior design, color schemes and layout, including specially designed decor and furnishings; a special selection of menu items largely prepared “from scratch”; procedures and techniques for food and beverage preparation; prompt and courteous service in a clean, wholesome atmosphere; methods of inventory, operating, cash and financial controls and systems for such controls; a training school utilizing special teaching techniques, course instruction and manuals; and unique advertising and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved, and further developed by Franchisor from time to time;

WHEREAS, Franchisor identifies the Bojangles System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to the marks “BOJANGLES®”, “BOJANGLES’®” and “BOJANGLES’ FAMOUS CHICKEN ‘N BISCUITS®”, and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated (and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing) for use in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Proprietary Marks”) and certain unique trade dress, including but not limited to specific color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout, now or hereafter used by Franchisor in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Trade Dress”);

WHEREAS, Franchisor continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks and Trade Dress in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed thereunder and under the Bojangles System, and to represent the Bojangles System’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service;

WHEREAS, Franchisee desires to enter into the business of operating a Bojangles restaurant under the Bojangles System and wishes to obtain a franchise from Franchisor for that purpose, as well as to receive the training and other assistance provided by Franchisor in connection therewith; and

WHEREAS, Franchisee understands and acknowledges the importance of Franchisor’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service and the necessity of operating the business franchised hereunder in conformity with Franchisor’s standards and specifications.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments of each party to the other party set forth herein, hereby agree as follows:

I. GRANT

A. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee, upon the terms and conditions herein contained, the right and franchise, and Franchisee undertakes the obligation, to operate a Bojangles restaurant (hereinafter referred to as “Restaurant” or “Franchised Business”) and to use solely in connection therewith the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress and the Bojangles System, as they may be changed, improved, and further developed from time to time, only at the location set forth in Exhibit A hereto, which location shall conform to the site selection provisions of Paragraph V. of this Agreement.

B. Franchisee acknowledges that this franchise is non-exclusive and is granted subject to the terms of Paragraph VIII.C.(6) and VIII.F.(6) hereof.

II. TERM AND RENEWAL

A. Except as otherwise provided herein, the initial term of this Agreement shall expire twenty (20) years from the date the Restaurant first opens for business; provided, however, that if Franchisee’s approved location is leased, this Agreement shall expire at the earlier of twenty (20) years from the date the Restaurant first opens for business or upon expiration or termination of the initial term of the lease.

B. Franchisee may, at its option, renew this Agreement for two (2) additional consecutive terms of ten (10) years each, provided that Franchisee is in substantial compliance with the terms of this Agreement. In order to be eligible to renew this Agreement, Franchisee must meet the following conditions:

(1) Franchisee has given Franchisor written notice of its election to renew not less than six (6) months nor more than nine (9) months prior to the end of the applicable term;

(2) Franchisee has made or has provided for, in a manner satisfactory to Franchisor, such renovation and modernization of the Restaurant premises as Franchisor may reasonably require, including, without limitation, renovation of signs, furnishings, fixtures, and decor, to reflect the then-current standards and image of the Bojangles System.

(3) Franchisee has met Franchisor’s standards for renewal, including as set forth in the Manual or otherwise in writing, and must not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement between Franchisee and/or its affiliates and/or any of their respective beneficial owners and Franchisor and/or its affiliates either at the time of giving notice of renewal to Franchisor or during the remainder of the term of this Agreement;

(4) Franchisee has satisfied all monetary obligations owed by Franchisee to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates;

(5) Franchisee shall have presented satisfactory evidence that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the approved location for the applicable renewal term;

(6) Franchisee shall have executed Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and the terms of which may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty fee and advertising contribution; provided, however, that Franchisee shall pay, in lieu of a franchise fee, a renewal fee equal to fifty percent (50%) of the then-current franchise fee;

(7) Franchisee shall execute a general release, in a form prescribed by Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents, and employees; and

(8) Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's then-current qualification and training requirements.

III. DUTIES OF FRANCHISOR

A. Franchisor shall provide an initial training program to instruct Franchisee and other franchisees as to the procedures and techniques to be utilized at the Restaurant in order to ensure that Franchisee becomes completely familiar with the Bojangles System, and shall make available such other training programs as Franchisor deems appropriate. All training provided by Franchisor shall be subject to the terms set forth in Paragraph VII.E. of this Agreement.

B. Franchisor shall advise and consult with Franchisee in connection with the operation of the Restaurant and new developments, techniques and improvements in areas of restaurant management, food preparation, sales promotion and service. Franchisor may provide the foregoing assistance by sending its employees or representatives to the Restaurant, by providing publications, other written materials, electronic learning content, videos or by conducting meetings or seminars. Some or all of these publications or programs may be provided by electronic access by Franchisor and not by printed or physical documents.

C. Franchisor shall make available, from time to time, advice and assistance in local advertising and, at Franchisee's expense, promotional materials for local advertising by Franchisee. Franchisor shall have the right to review and approve or disapprove all advertising and promotional materials which Franchisee proposes to use, pursuant to Paragraph XII.F. hereof.

D. Franchisor shall develop advertising materials under the terms of Paragraph XII. hereof.

E. Franchisor shall provide to Franchisee, on loan, either one printed copy of the Manual as more fully described in Paragraph IX. hereof ("Manual"), or provide Franchisee with electronic access to the Manual.

F. In the interest of maintaining high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service, Franchisor shall conduct, as it deems advisable, inspections of the Restaurant, and evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the Restaurant.

IV. FEES

A. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a franchise fee at the time this Agreement is executed in the amount set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement, which sum shall be deemed fully earned and nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by Franchisor in granting this franchise and for Franchisor's lost or deferred opportunity to franchise others.

B. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a continuing monthly royalty fee in an amount equal to four percent (4%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant, as defined in Paragraph IV.E. hereof.

C. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a monthly advertising contribution, for use by the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund established by Franchisor, as provided in Paragraph XII.E. hereof, in an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant.

D. All monthly payments required by this Paragraph IV. shall be paid to Franchisor by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month on Gross Sales made during the preceding month, and shall be submitted to Franchisor together with any reports or statements required under Paragraph XI.B. hereof.

E. Franchisor reserves the right to require that all payments required under this Agreement be directly drafted by Franchisor from Franchisee's account. Any payment or report not actually received by Franchisor on or before such date shall be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid at the equivalent of one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Entitlement to such interest shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

F. As used in this Agreement, "Gross Sales" shall include all revenue from the sale of all services and products related to the Franchised Business, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit; provided, however, that "Gross Sales" shall not include any sales taxes or other taxes collected from customers by Franchisee for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority.

V. SITE SELECTION

A. If Franchisor has not approved the site of the Restaurant prior to the Effective Date, then Franchisee must obtain the written approval of Franchisor for the site of the Restaurant developed under this Agreement within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement ("Site Approval Deadline"). Upon request by Franchisee, Franchisor shall provide reasonable site selection assistance and counseling to Franchisee. Franchisee shall propose sites for approval by Franchisor on forms or in the manner designated from time to time by Franchisor. A site shall only be submitted to Franchisor after Franchisee has carefully evaluated the site and determined that it meets the criteria for Restaurant sites which Franchisor has communicated to Franchisee. Franchisor shall review the application for site approval; and within forty-five (45) days of Franchisor's receipt of the application, Franchisor shall approve the proposed site or reject the site with comments as to why it was rejected. Franchisor reserves the right to reject any site proposed by Franchisee if Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates): fail to demonstrate adequate financial resources and operational readiness to develop the site and operate the Restaurant, including adequate sources of capital; are not in good standing under this Agreement, any other agreements between Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) and Franchisor or its affiliates; or fail to adhere to any manuals, policies and/or procedures implemented by Franchisor in connection with other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates), including without limitation as related to operational standards.

B. Franchisee must obtain the written approval of Franchisor with respect to the terms of any lease or mortgage with respect to the site to be developed as a Restaurant under this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days after Franchisor's approval of a site, Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of the closing date if the site is to be obtained by purchase; and provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed mortgage or deed of trust if a mortgage loan is contemplated; or, if the site is to be obtained by lease, provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed lease. Within twenty (20) days thereafter, Franchisor shall send notice of approval or notice of rejection with comments. Franchisee shall, as promptly as possible after receipt of approval, complete acquisition or leasing of the site; and in any event shall complete acquisition or leasing of the approved site within ninety (90) days after receiving Franchisor's written approval of the site.

C. Any lease or mortgage for a Restaurant site must permit assignment of the lease, mortgage, or deed of trust to Franchisor or its designees in the event of default by Franchisee of the lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or this Agreement; and must provide, in form and substance satisfactory to Franchisor, for quiet enjoyment, subordination and mutual attornment. Any lease or mortgage for the Restaurant site must be bona fide, and provide financial terms consistent with those prevalent in the area. Any lease for the Restaurant shall provide for a term not less than the term of this Agreement. Franchisee shall use its best efforts to obtain in any lease an option to renew on stated financial terms, which if exercised will, with the initial term, be for a period of not less than twenty (20) years. Unless waived in writing by Franchisor, any lease for the Restaurant site shall contain provisions that satisfy the requirements set forth in the Addendum to Lease Agreement attached to this Agreement as Exhibit D during the entire term of the lease, including any renewal terms.

D. Upon receipt of a copy of an executed lease or a copy of an executed unconditional contract to purchase the site (or a deed if the site is owned by Franchisee), Franchisor will provide Franchisee with preliminary plans and specifications for the construction of a Bojangles standard, free-standing restaurant building for use by Franchisee and its architect, which must be approved by Franchisor, in preparation of final plans and specifications for the Restaurant to be constructed on the site. Franchisee shall bear the cost of any modifications to the preliminary plans and specifications provided to Franchisee by Franchisor. Final plans and specifications must be approved by Franchisor before the start of construction. Franchisee shall obtain, at its cost, the necessary permits required to construct the Restaurant and shall meet all other applicable requirements established by local statute, local ordinance or otherwise. Franchisee shall commence construction of the Restaurant within two hundred seventy (270) days after the date of Franchisor's written site approval notice ("Construction Commencement Deadline"). Franchisee shall construct, furnish, and open the Restaurant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the commencement of construction (“Opening Deadline”). Prior to opening for business, Franchisee shall comply with all pre-opening requirements set forth in this Agreement and in the Manual or as otherwise required by Franchisor in writing.

E. Strict compliance with the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and Opening Deadline is essential to this Agreement. Any failure by Franchisee in fulfilling its obligations to meet the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline or Opening Deadline shall constitute a material, non-curable breach of this Agreement permitting Franchisor immediately to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to Franchisee. Time is of the essence.

F. Franchisee may submit a written request to Franchisor for an extension of up to six (6) months of the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and/or Opening Deadline for the Restaurant. Franchisee must pay Franchisor a lump-sum extension fee in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($2,500.00) when Franchisee submits an extension request to compensate Franchisor for its costs, expenses and lost opportunities related to the proposed extension. Franchisor must receive Franchisee’s extension request at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the occurrence of the deadline date. Upon review, Franchisor may grant Franchisee, in Franchisor’s sole discretion, an extension of the applicable deadline(s) for the Restaurant. If Franchisor grants an extension on any deadline, Franchisor will determine the length of the extension at its sole option. Franchisor may consider a variety of factors in whether to grant an extension, including the diligence Franchisee has shown in developing the Restaurant. If Franchisor rejects Franchisee’s extension request, then Franchisor will refund the extension fee to Franchisee. Extensions do not change any deadlines other than the particular deadline then being adjusted by the extension that is the subject of Franchisee’s request.

VI. FRANCHISEE ORGANIZATION AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

A. Franchisee shall be a corporation or a limited liability company composed solely of no more than six (6) shareholders/members who are individuals and not corporations, limited liability companies or any other legal entities, and shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Franchisee shall be organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation or organization;

(2) Franchisee shall be qualified to do business in all states in which its business activities or the nature of the properties owned by it requires such qualification;

(3) Franchisee’s Articles of Incorporation or Charter, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, Franchisee’s Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement shall at all times provide that Franchisee was organized and has authority only to develop, own and operate Bojangles restaurants; and that Franchisee shall not engage or invest in any business other than development, ownership and operation of Bojangles restaurants;

(4) If Franchisee is a corporation, copies of Franchisee’s Articles of Incorporation or Charter, Bylaws, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee is a limited liability company, copies of Franchisee's Articles of Organization, Operating Agreement, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the Consent of all limited liability company members authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(6) Franchisee shall maintain stop-transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any equity securities; and each stock certificate of Franchisee, or other evidence of ownership if Franchisee is a limited liability company, shall have the following legend conspicuously endorsed upon its face:

The shares represented by this certificate, or other evidence of ownership if Franchisee is a limited liability company, are subject to the terms of an agreement dated [date] between [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] and BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC, which, inter alia, restricts transfer, restricts activities in which [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] may engage, and imposes restrictions on shareholders or members.

(7) Franchisee shall not be owned by two (2) owners who each own fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests in Franchisee. Franchisee shall maintain a current list of all owners of record, including all members if Franchisee is a limited liability company, and all beneficial owners of any class of securities of Franchisee and shall furnish the list to Franchisor at such time as Franchisor may request.

B. As of the Effective Date, Franchisee shall have, with respect to the Restaurant, a ratio of debt to equity no greater than 1.5 to 1. Calculation of a debt to equity ratio for purposes hereof shall exclude equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of land and building, but shall include equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of equipment and inventory, training, franchise fees, start-up costs, initial point of purchase materials, landscaping, signage and prepaid expenses. Franchisee shall, prior to the execution of this Agreement, furnish Franchisor with evidence, satisfactory to Franchisor in its sole discretion, of its compliance with the requirement set forth in this paragraph.

C. Franchisee agrees to pay in full, and not lease or finance the equipment and fixtures in its first Bojangles restaurant.

VII. DUTIES OF FRANCHISEE

A. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that every detail of the Franchised Business is important to Franchisee, Franchisor, and other franchisees and developers of Franchisor, in order to develop and maintain high operating standards, to increase the demand for the services and products sold by all franchisees, and to protect Franchisor's reputation and goodwill.

B. Upon execution of this Agreement, Franchisee (on behalf of itself and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), and all other persons or entities acting on their behalf or claiming under any of them) (collectively, “Franchisee Releasors”) hereby waives and releases any claims, whether known or unknown, which any Franchisee Releasor, may have against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), individually, together and in any combination (collectively, the “Franchisor Parties”) from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, vested or contingent, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which any or all of the Franchisee Releasors now own or hold, or have at any time owned or held, or may at any time own or hold against the Franchisor Parties, arising prior to and including the Effective Date of this Agreement (collectively, the “Claims”). Franchisee represents and warrants that: (1) it is aware that it may in the future learn of facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of this paragraph, but that nonetheless, it is its intention to fully, finally, and forever settle and release all Claims; and (2) it has not assigned any Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the Franchisee Releasors, further covenants not to sue any of the Franchisor Parties on any of the Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee agrees that fair consideration has been given by Franchisor for this release and it fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete, and final release of all Claims.

C. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as Franchisee’s “Managing Owner”, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Managing Owner shall own a majority equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. If Franchisee does not have an owner with a majority equity interest, the Managing Owner shall own the next highest percentage equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner;

(2) The Managing Owner will be the person with whom Franchisor will communicate and will have the authority to bind Franchisee with respect to all financial, operational and legal matters related to the Franchised Business and this Agreement. The Managing Owner may also serve as Franchisee’s Principal Operating Officer or Principal Operating Partner as defined below provided that the Managing Owner meets the criteria for both positions independently;

(3) The Managing Owner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor’s satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Managing Owner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Managing Owner unless approved by Franchisor; and

(6) The Managing Owner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Managing Owner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his/her obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor’s sole discretion, the Managing Owner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Managing Owner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee's replacement Managing Owner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Managing Owner.

D. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as the "Principal Operating Officer" of Franchisee, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, it shall designate an individual to serve as "Principal Operating Partner" subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall own an equity interest of at least ten percent (10%) in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Principal Operating Officer or Partner;

(2) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall devote full time and best efforts to the supervision and conduct of the Franchised Business and any other Bojangles restaurants which may be operated by Franchisee;

(3) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Principal Operating Officer or Partner unless approved by Franchisor; and

(6) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Principal Operating Officer or Partner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Principal Operating Officer or Partner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Principal Operating Officer or Partner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee's replacement Principal Operating Officer or Partner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Principal Operating Officer or Partner.

E. Franchisee agrees that it is important to the operation of the System and the Restaurant that Franchisee and Franchisee's employees receive such training as Franchisor may require, and to that end agrees as follows:

(1) Prior to the opening of the Restaurant, the Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner, if they have not each previously attended the initial training program, and such number of Franchisee's managers as Franchisor shall designate, shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor. At Franchisee's expense, the Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner and Franchisee's managers and other employees shall also attend such courses, seminars, and other training programs as Franchisor may require from time to time. Franchisor shall provide instructors and training materials for all required training programs; and Franchisee or its employees shall be responsible for any and all other expenses incurred by them in connection with any training programs, including, without limitation, the cost of transportation, lodging, meals, and wages. Any person subsequently employed by Franchisee in the position of manager and each subsequent Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, such initial training program as Franchisor may require within one hundred eighty (180) days after being employed or appointed.

(2) Franchisee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, managers and other employees may also attend such optional training programs and seminars as Franchisor may offer from time to time. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor, for each person attending such a program, the training fee, if any, then charged by Franchisor. If any such training fee is imposed by Franchisor, the training fee shall be in addition to any other expenses incurred by the persons attending training as provided in Paragraph VII.E.(1) hereof.

F. Franchisee shall use the Restaurant premises solely for the operation of the Franchised Business; shall keep the Franchised Business open and in normal operation for such minimum hours and days as Franchisor may from time to time specify in the Manual or as Franchisor may otherwise approve in writing; and shall refrain from using or permitting the use of the premises for any other purpose or activity at any time without first obtaining the written consent of Franchisor.

G. Franchisee shall maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff, including at least one fully trained manager on duty at the Restaurant at all times, in sufficient numbers so as to operate the Restaurant efficiently and effectively. Franchisee shall hire all employees of the Restaurant and be exclusively responsible for the terms of their employment and compensation, and for the proper training of such employees in the operation of the Restaurant, in human resources and customer relations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions of the Restaurant including, without limitation, decisions or actions related to hiring, firing, training, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, scheduling benefits, recordkeeping, supervision, and discipline of employees, and such decisions or actions shall not be, nor be deemed to be, a decision or action of Franchisor. The parties agree that Franchisor shall not be deemed a joint employer with Franchisee for any reason. If Franchisor incurs any cost, expense, loss, or damage as a result of any actions or omissions of Franchisee or Franchisee's employees, including any that relate to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, Franchisee will fully indemnify Franchisor for such cost, expense, loss, or damage. Franchisee shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that its employees preserve good customer relations, wear uniforms of such color, design and other specifications as Franchisor may designate from time to time, present a neat and clean appearance, and render competent and courteous service to Restaurant customers.

H. Franchisee shall meet and maintain the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Restaurant.

I. To insure that the highest degree of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service is maintained, Franchisee shall operate the Restaurant in strict conformity with such methods, standards, and specifications as Franchisor may from time to time prescribe in the Manual or otherwise in writing. Franchisee agrees:

(1) To operate the Restaurant in a clean, wholesome manner in compliance with Franchisor's prescribed standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service;

(2) To maintain in sufficient supply, and to use at all times, only such ingredients, products, materials, supplies, and paper goods as conform with Franchisor's standards and specifications, and to refrain from deviating therefrom by the use or offer of nonconforming items, without Franchisor's prior written consent;

(3) To sell or offer for sale only such menu items, products, and services as have been expressly approved for sale in writing by Franchisor; to sell or offer for sale all types of menu items, products, and services specified by Franchisor; to refrain from any deviation from Franchisor's standards and specifications without Franchisor's prior written consent; and to discontinue selling and offering for sale any menu items, products, or services which Franchisor may, in its discretion, disapprove in writing at any time;

(4) To employ only those methods of food handling and preparation as Franchisor may specify in the Manual, or otherwise designate from time to time;

(5) To permit Franchisor or its agents, at any reasonable time, to remove samples of food or non-food items from Franchisee's inventory, or from the Restaurant, without payment therefor, in amounts reasonably necessary for testing by Franchisor or an independent laboratory to determine whether said samples meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications. In addition to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement, Franchisor may require Franchisee to bear the cost of such testing if the supplier of the item has not previously been approved by Franchisor or if the sample fails to conform with Franchisor's specifications; and

(6) To purchase and install, at Franchisee's expense, all fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, and signs as Franchisor may reasonably direct from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing; and to refrain from installing or permitting to be installed on or about the Restaurant premises, without Franchisor's prior written consent, any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, signs, games, vending machines, or other items not previously approved as meeting Franchisor's standards and specifications.

J. Franchisee shall comply with all requirements of federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations.

K. Franchisee shall purchase all food items, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, supplies, materials, and other items used or offered for sale at the Restaurant solely from suppliers (including manufacturers, distributors and other sources) who demonstrate, to the continuing reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, the ability to meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications for such items; who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply Franchisee's needs promptly and reliably; and who have been approved in writing by Franchisor and not thereafter disapproved. If Franchisee desires to purchase any products from an unapproved supplier, Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor a written request for such approval, or shall request the supplier itself to do so, and Franchisor, in its sole discretion, shall determine whether such supplier shall be approved. Franchisor shall have the right to require that its representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered to Franchisor or to an independent laboratory designated by Franchisor for testing. A charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the inspection and the actual cost of the test shall be paid by Franchisee or the supplier. Franchisor reserves the right, at its option, to re-inspect the facilities and products of any such approved supplier and to revoke its approval upon the supplier's failure to continue to meet any of Franchisor's then-current criteria.

L. Franchisee shall require all advertising and promotional materials, signs, decorations, paper goods (including disposable food containers, napkins, and menus), all forms and stationery used in the Franchised Business, and other items which may be designated by Franchisor to bear the Proprietary Marks in the form, color, location, and manner prescribed by Franchisor.

M. Franchisee shall maintain the Restaurant in a high degree of sanitation, repair, and condition, and in connection therewith shall make such additions, alterations, repairs, and replacements thereto (but, if of a substantial nature, not without Franchisor's prior written consent) as may be required for that purpose, including, without limitation, such periodic repainting or replacement of signs, furnishings, equipment, and decor in the manner and at the times which Franchisor may reasonably direct; provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be required to undertake a major remodeling of the kitchen and interior and exterior decor of the Restaurant more than once in any five (5) year period.

N. Franchisee shall, where applicable, keep the parking area for the Restaurant well-lighted, and maintain the parking area for the exclusive use of Restaurant customers.

O. Franchisee shall grant Franchisor and its agents the right to enter upon the Restaurant premises at any time for the purpose of conducting inspections; shall cooperate with Franchisor's representatives in such inspections by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request; and, upon notice from Franchisor or its agents and without limiting Franchisor's other rights under this Agreement, shall take such steps as may be necessary to correct immediately any deficiencies detected during any such inspection. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to correct such deficiencies within a reasonable time as determined by Franchisor, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) to correct such deficiencies and to charge Franchisee a reasonable fee for Franchisor's expenses in so acting, payable by Franchisee immediately upon demand. The foregoing shall be in addition to such other remedies as Franchisor may have.

P. Without limiting any other provision or requirement of the Agreement, Franchisee agrees to sell only those beverage product brands specified by Franchisor, including all soft drinks and cola products. Franchisor specifically retains the right to make additions or changes to the beverage product brands offered by Franchisee.

Q. Franchisee agrees to utilize the e-mail address provided by Franchisor and to utilize the Bojangles electronic portal, and review its content regularly for purposes of receiving updates, notice of Manual or policy changes and other communications from Franchisor.

R. If Franchisee develops any new concepts, processes or improvements relating to the System, whether or not pursuant to a Franchisor authorized test, Franchisee promptly shall notify Franchisor and provide Franchisor with all information regarding the new concept, process or improvement, all of which shall become the property of Franchisor and its affiliates and which may be incorporated into the System without any payment to Franchisee. Franchisee, at its expense, promptly shall take all actions deemed necessary or desirable by Franchisor to vest in Franchisor all ownership of such concepts, processes or improvements. Franchisee shall not implement any new concept, process or improvement in the Restaurant without Franchisor's prior written approval. Testing of any new concept, process or improvement must be conducted under specified "test parameters" that may govern among other things the duration of the test and validation of results as set forth by Franchisor. Any testing of a new product, process or improvement must be deemed safe by Franchisor prior to implementation.

S. Franchisee shall comply with all other requirements set forth in this Agreement.

VIII. PROPRIETARY MARKS AND TRADE DRESS

A. Franchisor represents with respect to the Proprietary Marks that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks;

(2) Franchisor has taken and will take all steps reasonably necessary to preserve and protect the ownership and validity in and of the Proprietary Marks; and

(3) Franchisor will permit Franchisee and other franchisees to use the Proprietary Marks only in accordance with the System and the standards and specifications attendant thereto which underlie the goodwill associated with and symbolized by the Proprietary Marks.

B. With respect to Franchisee's licensed use of the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that:

(1) Franchisee shall use only the Proprietary Marks designated by Franchisor, and shall use them only in the manner authorized and permitted by Franchisor;

(2) Franchisee shall use the Proprietary Marks only for the operation of the Franchised Business and only at the location authorized hereunder, or in advertising for the Franchised Business;

(3) Unless otherwise authorized or required by Franchisor in writing, Franchisee shall operate and advertise the Franchised Business only under the name "BOJANGLES®" Restaurant," "BOJANGLES'®" Restaurant or "BOJANGLES' FAMOUS CHICKEN 'N BISCUITS®" Restaurant, as specified by Franchisor, without prefix or suffix;

(4) During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall identify itself as the owner of the Franchised Business in conjunction with any use of the Proprietary Marks, including, but not limited to, uses on invoices, order forms, receipts, and contracts, and shall display a notice to that effect in such content and form and at such conspicuous locations on the premises of the Franchised Business as Franchisor may designate in writing;

(5) Franchisee's right to use the Proprietary Marks is limited to the term of this Agreement and shall automatically cease upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use thereof, including, but not limited to, sublicensing a use of the Proprietary Marks, shall constitute an infringement of Franchisor's rights and a default under this Agreement;

(6) During the term of this Agreement and continuing after its expiration or earlier termination, Franchisee shall not use the Proprietary Marks to incur any obligation or indebtedness on behalf of Franchisor;

(7) During the term of this Agreement and continuing after its expiration or earlier termination, Franchisee shall not use the Proprietary Marks as part of its corporate or other legal name;

(9) In the event that litigation involving the Proprietary Marks is instituted or threatened against Franchisee, Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor. Franchisor shall conduct the defense, and bear the expense of such litigation, but shall be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in its sole discretion, it may decide upon. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with Franchisor in defending or settling such litigation.

C. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks and the goodwill associated with and symbolized by them;

(2) The Proprietary Marks are valid and serve to identify the System and those who are authorized to operate under the System;

(3) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Franchisor's ownership of the Proprietary Marks;

(4) Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Proprietary Marks, except pursuant to the license granted by this Agreement;

(5) Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks in its franchised operation under the System shall inure solely and exclusively to Franchisor's benefit, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the System or the Proprietary Marks; and

(6) The right and license of the Proprietary Marks granted hereunder to Franchisee is nonexclusive, and Franchisor and its affiliates thus have and retain the rights, among others:

(a) To use the Proprietary Marks itself in connection with selling products and services;

(b) To grant other licenses for the Proprietary Marks, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees;

(c) To purchase, merge with, acquire or become associated with any business of any kind under other systems and/or trademarks and/or develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Proprietary Marks, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee; and

(d) To sell the same or similar products that are authorized for sale at Bojangles Restaurants under the Proprietary Marks or under other trademarks or trade dress and through any other channel of distribution, whether such channel of distribution is now in existence or is hereafter developed and whether at retail or wholesale including, without limitation, sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, carts or kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets, grocery stores, restaurants, institutional customers, ghost kitchens, club stores and any other outlet or method of distribution, pursuant to any terms and conditions as Franchisor may deem appropriate.

(7) Franchisor reserves the right to substitute different Proprietary Marks for use in identifying the System and the businesses operating thereunder.

D. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that Franchisor has developed certain unique Trade Dress as part of the Bojangles System, including but not limited to color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout.

E. With respect to Franchisee's licensed use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that:

(1) Franchisees shall use only the Trade Dress designated by Franchisor, and shall use it only in the manner authorized and permitted by Franchisor.

(2) Franchisee shall use the Trade Dress only for the operation of the Franchised Business and only at the location authorized hereunder or in advertising for the Franchised Business.

(3) Franchisee's right to use the Trade Dress is limited to the term of this Agreement and shall automatically cease upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use thereof, including but not limited to sublicensing a use of the Trade Dress, shall constitute an infringement of Franchisor's rights and a default under this Agreement.

(4) In the event that litigation involving the Trade Dress is instituted or threatened against Franchisee, Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor. Franchisor shall conduct the defense, and bear the expense of such litigation, but shall be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in its sole discretion, it may decide upon. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with Franchisor in defending or settling such litigation.

F. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Trade Dress and the goodwill associated with and symbolized by it;

(2) The Trade Dress is valid and serves to identify the System and those who are authorized to operate under the System;

(3) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Franchisor's ownership of the Trade Dress;

(4) Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Trade Dress, except pursuant to the license granted by this Agreement;

(5) Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress in its franchised operation under the System shall inure solely and exclusively to Franchisor's benefit, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the System or the Trade Dress; and

(6) The right and license of the Trade Dress granted hereunder to Franchisee is nonexclusive, and Franchisor thus has and retains the rights, among others:

(a) To use the Trade Dress itself in connection with selling products and services;

(b) To grant other licenses for the Trade Dress, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees; and

(c) To develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Trade Dress, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee.

G. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph VIII. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph VIII.

IX. CONFIDENTIAL MANUAL

A. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor and to maintain high standards of operation under Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Franchisee shall conduct its business in accordance with the Manual, one copy of which Franchisee acknowledges having received by electronic access or written copy on loan from Franchisor for the term of this Agreement. The Manual shall include manuals, memoranda, procedures, policies and other communications created by Franchisor that are posted on the Bojangles electronic portal or otherwise communicated to Franchisee in writing by email or hardcopy, whether or not noted as "Manual". If a posting is made to the Bojangles electronic portal, Franchisee shall be deemed to have notice of any changes or supplements to the Manual. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any required standards set forth in this Agreement and the Manual exist to protect Franchisor's interests in the System and the Proprietary Marks and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to Franchisee (including the day-to-day operation of the Restaurant and the conduct and management of Franchisee's employees).

B. Franchisee shall at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Franchised Business, and the information contained therein, as confidential, and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, nor otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person.

C. The Manual shall at all times remain the sole property of Franchisor.

D. Franchisor may from time to time revise the contents of the Manual, and Franchisee expressly agrees to comply with each new or changed standard.

E. Franchisee shall continuously review changes to the Manual as posted on the Bojangles electronic portal, and to otherwise keep current with the Manual. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by Franchisor at Franchisor's home office shall be controlling.

X. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

A. Franchisee shall not, during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of any other person, persons, partnership, association, corporation or limited liability company any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Franchised Business which may be communicated to Franchisee or of which Franchisee may be apprised by virtue of Franchisee's operation under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee shall divulge such confidential information only to such of its employees as must have access to it in order to operate the Franchised Business, and Franchisee shall take such precautions as Franchisor deems necessary to ensure that Franchisee's employees retain such information in confidence. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement, except information which Franchisee can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Franchisor; or which, at the time of disclosure by Franchisor to Franchisee, had become a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others; or which, after disclosure to Franchisee by Franchisor, becomes a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others.

B. Franchisee hereby acknowledges that pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisor will provide Franchisee with access to and training in processes and procedures of a proprietary nature and will provide Franchisee with access to and the right to use recipes and formulas, the Manual, logos, designs, trademarks, trade names and other proprietary information in connection with Franchisee's development and operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee shall not at any time, whether during the term of this Agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, disclose any information obtained through such training or from any materials provided by Franchisor to Franchisee and pertaining to the Bojangles System to any third party other than employees of Franchisee directly involved in the operations of the Restaurant. Further, Franchisee agrees that during the term of this Agreement and after its expiration or earlier termination, it shall not use any of such information or proprietary marks, including but not limited to any processes, procedures, recipes and formulas, for any purpose other than the operation of the Restaurant and will take all steps necessary to prevent any other use of them. Without limiting the foregoing, Franchisee specifically agrees that it shall not during the term of this agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, offer for sale at any location, other than during the term of this Agreement the Restaurant being operated at that time pursuant to this Agreement, any food or drink products prepared using in whole or part the procedures, processes, techniques, recipes or formulas provided by Franchisor to Franchisee.

C. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph X. will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph X.

XI. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS

A. Franchisee shall maintain during the term of this Agreement, and shall preserve for at least five (5) years from the dates of their preparation, full, complete, and accurate books, records, and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in the form and manner prescribed by Franchisor from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

B. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor, no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month during the term of this Agreement, after the opening of the Franchised Business, a statistical report and statement of receipts, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, accurately reflecting all Gross Sales during the preceding month and such other data or information as Franchisor may require.

C. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, submit to Franchisor, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, an unaudited balance sheet of the Franchised Business and a statement of profit or loss for the preceding quarter within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter of Franchisee's fiscal year. Each such statement shall be signed by Franchisee's treasurer or chief financial officer attesting that it is true and correct.

D. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, provide to Franchisor a statement of profit or loss and a year-end balance sheet prepared and certified by Franchisee's chief financial officer and, upon written request by Franchisor, by an independent certified public accountant satisfactory to Franchisor, within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Franchised Business during the term hereof, showing the results of operations of the Franchised Business during said fiscal year. Franchisee's chief financial officer shall attest that the financial statements present fairly the financial position of Franchisee and the results of operations of the Franchised Business during the period covered. Franchisor shall have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to require that Franchisee submit audited statements for any fiscal year or any period or periods of a fiscal year of Franchisee during the term of this Agreement, and to require Franchisee to cause its independent certified public accountant to consult with Franchisor, at Franchisee's expense, concerning the financial statements provided by Franchisee.

E. Franchisee and its shareholders shall also submit to Franchisor, for review or auditing, such other forms, reports, records, information, and data as Franchisor may reasonably designate, in the form and at the times and places reasonably required by Franchisor, upon request and as specified from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

F. Franchisor or its designated agents shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine and copy, at Franchisor's expense, the books, records, and tax returns of Franchisee. Franchisor shall also have the right, at any time, to have an independent audit made of the books of Franchisee. If an inspection should reveal that any payments have been understated in any report to Franchisor, then Franchisee shall immediately pay to Franchisor the amount understated upon demand, in addition to interest from the date such amount was due until paid, at one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If an inspection discloses an understatement in any report of five percent (5%) or more, Franchisee shall, in addition, reimburse Franchisor for any and all costs and expenses connected with the inspection (including, without limitation, reasonable accounting and attorneys' fees). The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XII. ADVERTISING

Recognizing the value of advertising, and the importance of the standardization of advertising programs to the furtherance of the goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, the parties agree as follows:

A. Franchisee shall spend not less than three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Franchised Business on local and regional media advertising, in addition to any advertising contribution required under Paragraphs IV.C. and XII.E. hereof. Franchisee shall demonstrate on a quarterly basis, to the reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, that Franchisee has made such expenditures. Such advertising shall include radio, television, magazine, newspaper, billboard campaigns, print, direct mail and other forms of advertising media and public relations activities but shall not include the costs of advertising production, production of other marketing materials, cost of food promotion, point of purchase materials, telephone book advertising, stationery, or restaurant indoor or outdoor site location signs.

B. Recognizing the value of cooperative national and regional advertising and marketing, and the importance of standardizing such programs to further enhance the national goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, Franchisor reserves the right and may in its sole discretion require Franchisee to participate along with other franchisees in regional cooperative advertising organizations or programs, established from time to time currently or in the future by Franchisor or by other franchisees for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Bojangles System. In the event of the formation of such cooperative advertising groups, and Franchisee's participation therein, Franchisor shall permit Franchisee to credit a portion of the amount required to be expended for local and regional advertising in Paragraph XII.A. above to any regional program established by any such cooperative arrangement.

C. If Franchisee has failed to make or report the expenditure of the three percent (3%) of Gross Sales as required in Paragraph XII.A. above in any quarter or if Franchisee shall fail to participate in a cooperative advertising program after request by Franchisor as required in Paragraph XII.B. above, Franchisee shall thereafter, after written notice by Franchisor, pay to Franchisor three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant. Franchisor may then in its sole discretion contribute such amounts to any franchisee cooperative organization that operates in part or all of Franchisee's market area or Franchisor may expend such funds to create advertising that in Franchisor's sole determination will promote the Proprietary Marks and/or System in Franchisee's market area.

D. Franchisor may offer from time to time to provide, upon Franchisee's request and at Franchisee's expense, approved local advertising and promotional plans and materials.

E. Franchisee agrees to make contributions to the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund (hereinafter "Fund") as required under Paragraph IV.C. hereof. The Fund shall be maintained and administered by Franchisor or its designee, as follows:

(1) Franchisor shall direct the creation of all advertising programs, with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that the Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the trade names, trademarks, and service marks which are designated as part of the System for the benefit of the System through research and the creation of marketing materials; and that Franchisor and its designee undertake no obligation, in administering the Fund, to make expenditures which are equivalent or proportionate to a franchisee's contribution, or to insure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from Fund expenditures. Franchisee is aware that there may be some franchisees operating under different forms of agreement and who may not be required to make payments into the Fund equivalent to Franchisee's payments.

(2) Franchisor shall, for each of its company-owned Bojangles restaurants, make contributions to the Fund equivalent to the contributions required of comparable franchised Bojangles restaurants within the Bojangles System so that Franchisor's average contribution for each company-owned Restaurant will be equal to the average contribution per franchisee-owned Restaurant. This average per Restaurant contribution for franchisee-owned Restaurants will be calculated by dividing the total contributions of franchisees to the Fund by the total number of franchisee-owned Restaurants. Franchisor's total contribution to the Fund will equal this average

(3) All contributions to the Fund shall be used exclusively for advertising and promotion of the Bojangles System (including, without limitation, the cost of preparing and conducting television, radio, print, and billboard advertising campaigns and other public relations activities; conducting research; employing advertising agencies and other specialists to assist therein; and preparing and providing promotional brochures and other point of purchase marketing materials to franchisees in the Bojangles System). All sums paid by Franchisee and other franchisees to the Fund shall not be used to defray any of Franchisor's general operating expenses except for such reasonable administrative expenses and overhead, if any, as Franchisor may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs, including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing marketing and advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund.

F. All advertising by Franchisee in any medium shall be conducted in a dignified manner and shall conform to such standards and requirements as Franchisor may specify from time to time in writing. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor (through the mail, return receipt requested, electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission or through next business day delivery), for its prior written approval, samples of all advertising and promotional plans and materials that Franchisee desires to use and that have not been prepared or previously approved by Franchisor. Franchisee shall not use any advertising or promotional plans and materials that have not received Franchisor's prior written approval. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Franchisor may establish or introduce certain national, regional, or local promotions, campaigns, contests, special or limited offers, and other programs, including as related to new products, services or other programs (collectively, the "Special Promotions"). Franchisor will consult with Franchisor's Franchise Advisory Council regarding upcoming Special Promotions. Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's implementation requirements regarding the Special Promotions. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for any costs and expenses associated with the Special Promotions, including the purchase of any inventory or supplies needed or required to implement the Special Promotions. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Special Promotions.

G. Franchisor may require Franchisee to participate in multi-channel marketing platforms approved by Franchisor (the "Multi-Channel Programs"). The Multi-Channel Programs will require Franchisee's cooperation and participation, including, without limitation, Franchisee refraining from certain channels of marketing and distribution, and Franchisee's payment of commissions or referral fees. Franchisor will designate the multi-channel platform, method and timing of payment, and any outside agencies for the Multi-Channel Programs. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Multi-Channel Programs.

XIII. INSURANCE

A. Franchisee shall maintain insurance in force as follows:

(1) Worker's compensation in an amount at least in the statutory requirements for the state in which the Restaurant is located, with employers' liability limits of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) per occurrence for bodily injury by accident and disease;

(2) Comprehensive general liability insurance, including products liability and broad form contractual liability insurance in an amount of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) per occurrence. Franchisee's liability coverage may be primary and non-contributory. Insurance carriers must be an insurance company with at least an A- class rating and VIII financial size according to A.M. Best and if not available then according to Moody's or Standard and Poor's.

(3) Property insurance on ISO special form, covering the building with 100% replacement cost coverage, less a commercially reasonable deductible. Coverage must include flood and earthquake if the location is in a high hazard zone.

(4) All policies of insurance, including general liability insurance, shall name Bojangles Opco, LLC, Bojangles' Restaurants Inc. (in its capacity as Manager under a Management Agreement with Bojangles Opco, LLC), and their respective affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective partners, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, representatives, and employees as additional insureds or loss payees, as may be applicable, on the policies; shall provide that the policy cannot be cancelled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Franchisor; and shall specify that copies of all notices shall be sent to Franchisor. Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with copies of all policies or certificates evidencing insurance in force as required herein. Evidence of payment of premiums shall be delivered to Franchisor at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration dates of each existing insurance policy; and

(5) Such additional insurance covering such additional risks or providing such higher limits as Franchisor may reasonably request.

B. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, as such requirements may be revised from time to time by Franchisor in the Manual or otherwise in writing, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) immediately to procure such insurance and to charge same to Franchisee, which charges, together with a reasonable fee for Franchisor's time and expenses in so acting, shall be payable by Franchisee immediately upon notice. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XIV. TRANSFER

A. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity.

B. Transfer by Franchisee of the right to operate the restaurant, or any interest in this Agreement, the franchise rights and license rights, and/or in Franchisee are limited as follows:

(1) Franchisee's authority to transfer any interest under this Agreement is also subject to the terms of any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee, including a development agreement, which may impose additional conditions and limitations on Franchisee's right to transfer its interest under this Agreement.

(2) Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and its shareholders or members, and that Franchisor has granted this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill and financial capacity, and the business skill, financial capacity and personal character of Franchisee's shareholders or members. Accordingly, neither Franchisee nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement, nor any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns any interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee shall sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise encumber any direct or indirect interest in the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder or any obligations hereunder, or in Franchisee without the prior written consent of Franchisor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any such proposed transfer shall be subject, where applicable, to Franchisor's option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XIV.C. herein. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of Franchisor required by this Paragraph XIV.B.(2) shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which Franchisor may then terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph XV.B. of this Agreement.

(3) If a transfer, alone or together with other previous, simultaneous, or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or in the franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder, or in Franchisee, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, if it does not elect to exercise its option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XIV.C. herein, require any or all of the following as conditions of its approval:

(a) All of Franchisee's accrued and outstanding monetary obligations to third parties and all accrued and outstanding obligations to Franchisor, or any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Franchisor shall have been satisfied;

(b) Franchisee shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereto or successor hereof, or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates;

(c) The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its officers, directors, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances; and shall agree to remain liable to Franchisor for all affirmative obligations, covenants, and agreements contained herein for two (2) years following the effective date of transfer (or, if transferor retains a purchase money interest in the transferred business, for a period greater than two (2) years, until the interest is extinguished) or for such shorter period as Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, determine;

(d) The transferee shall enter into a written assignment, under seal and in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee's

obligations under this Agreement; and, if the obligations of Franchisee were guaranteed by the transferor, the transferee shall guarantee the performance of all such obligations in writing in a form satisfactory to Franchisor;

(e) The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the transferee meets Franchisor's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business herein (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Franchised Business;

(f) At Franchisor's option, the transferee shall execute (and/or, upon Franchisor's request, shall cause all interested parties to execute), for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, the then-current standard form of franchise agreement being offered to new System franchisees and other ancillary agreements, including a guarantee of such agreement executed by all shareholders of the transferee, as Franchisor may require for the Franchised Business, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which agreements may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty rate and advertising contribution; provided, however, that the transferee shall not be required to pay an initial franchise fee;

(g) At Franchisor's sole discretion, the transferee, at its expense, shall upgrade the Restaurant to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of System restaurants, and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time specified by Franchisor;

(h) Franchisee shall remain liable for all of its obligations to Franchisor in connection with the Franchised Business prior to the effective date of the transfer, and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability;

(i) At the transferee's expense, transferee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, and managers, shall complete any training and certification programs then in effect for franchisees upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor may reasonably require; and

(j) Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a transfer fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Restaurant, which constitutes Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting expenses) in connection with Franchisor's review of the application to transfer.

(4) Franchisee shall grant no security interest in this Agreement or in the Franchised Business (other than a pledge of assets to secure a bona fide loan made or credit extended in connection with acquisition of the assets pledged) unless the secured party agrees that in the event of any default by Franchisee under any documents related to the security interest, Franchisor shall have the right and option to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to such secured party.

(5) Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that each condition which must be met by transferee is necessary to assure such transferee's full performance of the obligations hereunder.

C. Franchisor shall have the option to purchase any interest in the Restaurant or this Agreement as follows:

(1) Any party holding any direct or indirect interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement or in Franchisee who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a party other than Franchisor to purchase such interest, if a transfer of that interest alone or together with other previous, simultaneous or proposed transfers would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee, shall provide Franchisor with all of the terms of the proposed transfer in writing at least sixty (60) days prior to the proposed date of transfer. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of all documentation necessary, in Franchisor's sole but reasonable opinion, to evaluate the terms of the proposed transfer, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party, net of any finders or brokers fees which any third party would be obligated to pay. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, closing on such purchase must occur within thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor does not exercise its option to purchase, Franchisee or shareholders of Franchisee may proceed to consummate a transfer to a third party if they have complied with the conditions of this Paragraph XIV. If Franchisor did not exercise its option to purchase, any material change in the terms of the third party's offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same option to purchase by Franchisor as in the case of an initial offer. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Paragraph XIV.C. shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Paragraph XIV. with respect to a proposed transfer.

(2) In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that Franchisor is not in a position to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then Franchisor may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash.

D. Upon the death or mental incapacity of any person with a direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in Franchisee, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall transfer the interest to a third party, including shareholder(s) or member(s) of Franchisee, approved by Franchisor within twelve (12) months after such death or mental incapacity, or, if legal proceedings make transfer within twelve (12) months not feasible, within such longer period as may be reasonable under the circumstances. Such transfer, including, without limitation, transfer by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. If an approved transfer has not been made within the aforementioned period, Franchisor shall have the option to purchase the Franchised Business at fair market value, and thereupon terminate this Agreement. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the Franchised Business and terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, closing of the transaction shall take place as promptly as possible after Franchisor exercises its option to purchase, and the parties reach agreement concerning the fair market value of the Franchised Business. Payment will be made in four (4) installments, the first of which shall be made at the time of closing and the remaining three (3) installments shall each be made at one (1) year intervals from the date of the first payment. Interest shall be payable on the unpaid portion of the purchase price on the due date of each installment of principal at the prime rate of Bank of America on the date of Franchisor's election to purchase the Franchised Business. If the parties are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Franchised Business, then the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration in Charlotte, North Carolina, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

E. Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Franchisee, rights to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement or any license or franchise rights granted hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XIV. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XIV.

XV. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

A. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein shall automatically terminate without notice to Franchisee, if Franchisee shall become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee or such a petition is filed against Franchisee and not opposed by Franchisee; or if Franchisee is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; or if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's business or assets is filed and consented to by Franchisee; or if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Franchisee's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; or if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law should be instituted by or against Franchisee.

B. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default and Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Franchisee:

(1) If Franchisee fails to: obtain Franchisor's approval of a site for the Restaurant by the Site Approval Deadline; commence construction of the Restaurant by the Construction Commencement Deadline; or construct, furnish, and open the Restaurant by the Opening Deadline;

(2) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee is convicted of a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of Franchisor, adversely to affect the System, the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress, the goodwill associated therewith, or Franchisor's interest therein;

(3) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee purports to transfer any interest in this Agreement, any rights hereunder, including but not limited to any rights to operate the Restaurant, franchise and license rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Franchisee to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Paragraph XIV. of this Agreement;

(4) If, contrary to the terms of Paragraph IX. or X. hereof, Franchisee discloses or divulges the contents of the Manual or other confidential information provided to Franchisee by Franchisor;

(5) If Franchisee knowingly maintains false books or records, or knowingly submits any false reports to Franchisor;

(6) If Franchisee, or any shareholder or member of Franchisee, violates Paragraph VIII. hereof by making any unauthorized use of any name, trademark, service mark, or other Proprietary Mark or Trade Dress of Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee shall cause, suffer, or permit (voluntarily or involuntarily) its right to or possession of the premises on which the Restaurant is located to be terminated prematurely for any cause whatsoever; or if Franchisee shall be in material default under the lease for the premises on which the Restaurant is located, or shall be in material default under any mortgage with respect to the property on which the Restaurant is located, provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be in breach of this provision if a condemnation proceeding affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated occurs which makes it impossible or infeasible for Franchisee to continue to operate the Restaurant at its present location, and within thirty (30) days after the final condemnation determination Franchisee provides Franchisor with notice of its intention to open, and within one (1) year of the final condemnation determination opens, a substitute Restaurant on a new site approved by Franchisor;

(8) If Franchisee ceases to operate or otherwise abandons, or attempts to cease to operate or abandon, the Restaurant or enters into an agreement to sell, or sells, or purports or attempts to sell, the real property upon which the Restaurant is situated, or substantially all right, title and interest in and to the Restaurant or real property lease, or substantially all of the assets of Franchisee or of the Restaurant, without Franchisor's prior written consent; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, Franchisor may, in lieu of immediate termination of this Agreement, request from Franchisee, a statement of intentions and assurances that no event in breach of this Agreement is so contemplated, which statement and assurances shall be delivered in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of Franchisor's request. In addition, Franchisor may request, and Franchisee shall provide within five (5) business days thereafter, a performance bond from Franchisee, the amount of such bond and the issuing entity to be solely at Franchisor's reasonable discretion.

(9) If any other Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement for Bojangles restaurants or any other agreements with Franchisor or its affiliates entered into by Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) is terminated based upon Franchisee's or its affiliates' (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee's or its affiliates') default thereunder;

(10) If Franchisee, after curing a default pursuant to Paragraph XV.C. hereof, commits the same, or a substantially similar, default again within one hundred eighty (180) days after the prior default occurred, whether or not cured after notice; or

(11) If Franchisee repeatedly is in default under Paragraph XV.C. hereof for failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, whether or not cured after notice.

C. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs XV.A. and XV.B. of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have ten (10) days for a monetary default and thirty (30) days for any other default after its receipt from Franchisor of a written notice of default within which to remedy any default hereunder and to provide evidence thereof to Franchisor. If any such default is not cured within that time, or such longer period as applicable law may require, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon Franchisee's receipt of notice from Franchisor after the expiration of the ten (10) day or thirty (30) day period, as applicable, or such longer period as applicable law may require. Franchisee shall be in default hereunder for any failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, including any matter enumerated in this Paragraph XV.C., as it may from time to time reasonably be supplemented by the Manual, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Such defaults shall include, for example, but without limitation, the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects promptly to pay any monies owing to Franchisor or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates when due, or to submit the financial or other information required by Franchisor under this Agreement;

(2) If Franchisee fails to pay or fails repeatedly to make prompt payment of undisputed amounts due to its suppliers, landlord, equipment lessors, or other third parties;

(3) If Franchisee fails to maintain the Restaurant in a good, clean and wholesome manner, or fails to maintain or observe any of the other standards or procedures prescribed by Franchisor in this Agreement, the Manual, or otherwise in writing;

(4) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects to obtain Franchisor's prior written approval or consent as required by this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee denies Franchisor or its designee the right to inspect the Restaurant at reasonable times;

(6) If Franchisee engages in any business or markets any service or product under a name or mark which, in Franchisor's opinion, is confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks or uses the Trade Dress other than in connection with the Restaurant or uses any of Franchisor's products, procedures or methods in any other operation not authorized by Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee fails to comply with the in-term covenants in Paragraph XVII.A. hereof;

(8) If a final judgment against Franchisee remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless supersedeas bond is filed);

(9) If Franchisee is dissolved, execution is levied against Franchisee’s business or property, suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Franchised Business or equipment situated therein is instituted against Franchisee and not dismissed or bonded off within sixty (60) days, or the real or personal property of the Franchised Business is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal or constable;

(10) If an approved transfer of a controlling interest in Franchisee is not effected within the prescribed period following the death or mental incapacity of a shareholder or member of Franchisee, as required by Paragraph XIV.D. hereof; or

(11) If Franchisee’s Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, or Restaurant managers fail to timely attend and successfully complete the initial training program or any other training programs required by Franchisor.

D. In the event that this Agreement is terminated on account of Franchisee’s default, Franchisor shall have the option, within sixty (60) days after the date of termination (or longer if the provisions of Paragraph XV.D.(3) are applicable), to purchase or lease the Franchised Business subject to the following terms and subject to the terms of the Development Agreement entered into between Franchisee and Franchisor:

(1) If Franchisee leases the Restaurant building and land on which the Restaurant is situated, Franchisor shall have the right to purchase the leasehold and other assets owned by Franchisee relating to the Restaurant for an amount equal to the higher of (i) the net tangible book value (which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements) of the assets owned by Franchisee relating to the Restaurant, including the leasehold improvements, equipment, inventory and supplies, and excluding unamortized franchise and development fees, good will and all other intangible assets; or (ii) an amount calculated as follows:

A	B	C
If Gross Sales for the Restaurant for the 12 months immediately preceding termination are:	Multiply the Gross Sales by:	and subtract the following from the product of A and B:
up to $750,000	$.40	All debts and liabilities of Franchisee to Franchisor, or to third parties (excluding lease obligations to third parties) which are being assumed by Franchisor.
$900,001 or more	$.55

The amount as computed above shall be payable twenty percent (20%) on closing with the principal balance payable in three (3) equal payments due annually on the anniversary of the purchase with interest on the unpaid principal balance payable on the due date of each principal payment at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum. Undisclosed or matured contingent liabilities which are paid by Franchisor after payment of the twenty percent (20%) down shall be deducted from the next installment(s) due, together with interest thereon from the date paid at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum over the prime rate of Bank of America on the date such payment is made.

(2) If Franchisee owns the land on which the Restaurant to be purchased by Franchisor is situated, Franchisor shall have the right, at its discretion, either to purchase or lease the land and Restaurant building. If Franchisor elects to purchase, Franchisee shall sell the land, building, equipment, inventory, and supplies to Franchisor at the higher of (i) their depreciated net tangible book value, which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements, or (ii) an amount to be determined in accordance with the table in Paragraph XV.D.(1) above. If Franchisor elects to lease, Franchisee shall lease the land and building to Franchisor on Franchisor's then-standard lease form for Bojangles restaurant sites operated by Franchisor, and Franchisor shall purchase the equipment, inventory and supplies at their depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above. Net annual rental payments (payable monthly after taxes and expenses) shall be equal to the higher of fourteen percent (14%) of the depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above, of the land and Restaurant building, or six and one-half percent (6½%) of Gross Sales to the extent that Gross Sales do not exceed the amount of Gross Sales for the twelve (12) months preceding the commencement of occupancy by Franchisor, and five percent (5%) of Gross Sales that exceed that amount.

(3) Franchisor shall exercise its right to purchase the Franchised Business by the later of sixty (60) days after the date of termination, the date it takes possession of the Restaurant pursuant to Paragraph XV.E. hereof, or ten (10) days after the date upon which any litigation contesting the validity of the termination is finally adjudicated. If Franchisor has taken possession of the Restaurant, it shall exercise its right to purchase the Restaurant or vacate the premises by the end of the foregoing period.

E. In order to maintain continuous operation of the Restaurant and to promote the best interests of the System, in the event this Agreement is terminated, Franchisor shall have the right immediately upon termination to enter and take possession of and operate the Restaurant. Nothing herein contained in Paragraph XV.E. shall be intended to give Franchisor control of Franchisee's employees.

F. In the event that this Agreement is terminated and Franchisee contests the validity of the termination, the party that operates the Restaurant during the period commencing with the date that notice of termination was given and ending with the date upon which a final notice and nonappealable judgment resolving the issue is entered, shall operate the Restaurant for the benefit of the prevailing party in such contest, and shall account for, and pay over, any profits earned during said period to the other party, if such other party is the party that prevails.

G. Upon termination of this Agreement owing to default by Franchisee, Franchisee shall not remove any furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment or other property or leasehold improvements from the Restaurant premises until expiration of the period within which Franchisor may exercise its right to purchase the Restaurant. If Franchisor does not elect to purchase the Restaurant it may nevertheless elect, within ninety (90) days of the date of termination, to purchase Franchisee's furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment, leasehold improvements and other property or any portion thereof for a sum equal to the fair market value of such property. If the parties cannot agree on a fair market value within a reasonable time, an independent appraiser shall be designated by Franchisor, and the appraiser's determination shall be binding. Any property so purchased by Franchisor shall be delivered to Franchisor's representative at the Restaurant premises on a date specified in the purchase notice by Franchisor not more than five (5) days after delivery of the purchase notice or at such other time as may be reasonable in the circumstances. If Franchisor elects to exercise any right to purchase herein provided, it shall have the right to set off all amounts due from Franchisee, and the cost of the appraisal, if any, against any payment therefor.

H. Upon expiration of this Agreement or termination resulting from any condemnation proceedings affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated, within sixty (60) days prior to the date specified for expiration or takeover by any public authority, Franchisee shall not remove any furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment and other property or leasehold improvements. Franchisor may, upon written notice at least thirty (30) days prior to such date, notify Franchisee of its intention to purchase all or any portion of the furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment and other chattels for a sum equal to the fair market value of such property. Determination of fair market value and the terms of delivery shall be as specified in Paragraph XV.G. hereof.

XVI. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted hereunder to Franchisee shall forthwith terminate, and:

A. Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business, and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold itself out as a present or former franchisee of Franchisor.

B. Franchisee shall immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures and techniques associated with the System; the Proprietary Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, and devices and any Trade Dress associated with the System. In particular, Franchisee shall follow Franchisor's instructions to deidentify the Restaurant from the System, including removal or modification of structural features of the Restaurant including, but not limited to, the distinctive roof, interior and exterior color combinations and designs, and shall cease to use, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms, and any other articles which display the Proprietary Marks.

C. Franchisee shall take such action as may be necessary to cancel any assumed name or equivalent registration which contains any Proprietary Mark or any other service mark or trademark of Franchisor and Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with evidence satisfactory to Franchisor of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

D. Franchisee agrees, in the event it continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception, or which is likely to dilute Franchisor's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks, and further agrees not to utilize any Trade Dress or designation of origin or description or representation which falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Franchisor constituting unfair competition.

E. Franchisee shall promptly pay all sums owing to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates. In the event of termination for any default of Franchisee, such sums shall include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor as a result of the default, which obligation shall give rise to and remain, until paid in full, a lien in favor of Franchisor against any and all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures, and inventory owned by Franchisee and on the premises operated hereunder at the time of default.

F. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Paragraph XVI.

G. Franchisee shall immediately deliver to Franchisor all manuals, including the Manual, records, files, instructions, correspondence, all materials related to operating the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, brochures, agreements, invoices, and any and all other materials relating to the operation of the Franchised Business in Franchisee's possession, and all copies thereof (all of which are acknowledged to be Franchisor's property), and shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing, except Franchisee's copy of this Agreement and of any correspondence between the parties and any other documents which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law.

H. Franchisee shall comply with any surviving covenants contained in Paragraph XVII. of this Agreement.

XVII. COVENANTS

A. Franchisee acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including, without limitation, information relating to the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System. Accordingly, Franchisee covenants that:

(1) During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation or limited liability company:

(a) Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Restaurant to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Trade Dress and the System; or

(b) Own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(i) Any restaurant business which: (a) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants; and (b) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction; or

(ii) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (a) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction, or (b) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

(2) During the continuing uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(a) Any restaurant business which: (i) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, and (ii) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement; or

(b) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (i) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, or (ii) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

B. Paragraph XVII.A. shall not apply to ownership by Franchisee of less than two percent (2%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any corporation which is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

C. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Paragraph XVII. is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Paragraph XVII.

D. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Paragraph XVII.A. or any portion thereof, without Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof; and Franchisee agrees that it shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

E. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have now or in the future against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Paragraph XVII.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XVII. would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XVII.

G. At the request of Franchisor, Franchisee shall obtain and deliver to Franchisor executed covenants similar in substance to those set forth in this Paragraph XVII. (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Franchisee) from the following persons: all officers, directors, or members, and holders of the securities of Franchisee, and of any corporation or limited liability company directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by Franchisee. Every covenant required by this Paragraph XVII.G. shall be in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, including, without limitation, specific identification of Franchisor as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Failure by Franchisee to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Paragraph XVII.G. or to deliver the covenant to Franchisor shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

XVIII. FORCE MAJEURE

If the performance of any obligation under this Agreement is prevented or delayed, in whole or in part, by reason of force majeure, or the consequence thereof, affecting the parties hereto or the rights granted hereunder, such force majeure to include but not be limited to acts of God, fire, flood, governmental restrictions, lockouts or labor disputes, then the affected party shall be given such additional time as is reasonable to perform in view of the nature and extent of the force majeure.

XIX. TAXES, PERMITS, AND INDEBTEDNESS

A. Franchisee shall promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including, without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Franchisee in the conduct of the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor an amount equal to any sales tax, gross receipts tax, or similar tax imposed on Franchisor with respect to any payments to Franchisor required under this Agreement, unless the tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by Franchisor.

B. In the event of any bona fide dispute as to Franchisee's liability for taxes assessed or other indebtedness, Franchisee may contest the validity or the amount of the tax or indebtedness in accordance with procedures of the taxing authority or applicable law; however, in no event shall Franchisee permit a tax sale or seizure by levy of execution or similar writ or warrant, or attachment by a creditor, to occur against the premises of the Franchised Business, or any improvements thereon.

C. Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations, and shall timely obtain any and all permits, certificates, or licenses necessary for the full and proper conduct of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, licenses to do business, fictitious name registrations, sales tax permits, and fire clearances.

D. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of the commencement of any action, suit, or proceeding, and of the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award, or decree of any court, agency, or other governmental instrumentality, which may adversely affect the operation or financial condition of the Franchised Business.

XX. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, that Franchisee is an independent contractor, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Neither this Agreement nor Franchisor's course of conduct is intended, nor may anything in this Agreement (nor Franchisor's course of conduct) be construed to state or imply that Franchisor is the joint employer of Franchisee's employees and/or independent contractors, nor vice versa.

B. During the term of this Agreement and any extensions thereof, Franchisee shall hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the Franchised Business pursuant to a franchise from Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to take such action as may be necessary to do so, including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place in the Restaurant, the content of which Franchisor reserves the right to specify.

C. It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Agreement authorizes Franchisee to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on Franchisor's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in Franchisor's name, and that Franchisor shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder as a result of, any such action, or by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee in its conduct of the Franchised Business or any claim or judgment arising therefrom. Franchisee shall indemnify and hold Franchisor and Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders, and employees harmless against any and all claims arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with, Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, as well as the costs, including attorneys' fees, of defending against them.

XXI. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

A. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Franchisor, Franchisee shall make a timely written request to Franchisor therefor, and such approval or consent shall be obtained in writing.

B. Franchisor makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Franchisee may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Franchisee by providing any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion to Franchisee in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

C. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Franchisee under any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions hereof shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, duty, or power as against Franchisee, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Franchisee. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding breach by Franchisee of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

XXII. NOTICES

All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (a) on the day delivered, if delivered personally or (b) three (3) business days after being mailed, if mailed first class, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, (c) one (1) business day after being mailed, if sent via a reputable overnight courier service, or (d) at the time delivered via computer transmission or electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission, addressed to the respective parties at the addresses shown on Exhibit A to this Agreement. Any party may give notice of a change of address by written notice given as provided in this paragraph.

XXIII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements. No representations have induced Franchisee to execute this Agreement except for those contained in this Agreement, the exhibits and the Franchise Disclosure Document. No amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing; provided, however, that a writing signed by Franchisee need not be signed by any of its shareholders or members except to the extent, if any, that such writing would increase the amount of such shareholder's or member's financial obligations. Further, no modification, amendment, waiver, discharge or termination of any obligation of Franchisee, and no other matter or termination of any nature or kind whatsoever, including without limitation any release of Franchisee from any such obligation, shall release any shareholder or member of any guaranty obligation given or made by him under this Agreement or otherwise, whether or not such shareholder or member has notice thereof, all rights to notice or to consent being expressly waived hereby.

XXIV. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

A. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable; and if, for any reason, any portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provisions herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible; and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

B. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Franchisee, Franchisor, Franchisor's officers, directors, and employees, and such of Franchisee's and Franchisor's respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by Paragraph XIV. hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

C. Franchisee and each of its shareholders or members expressly agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which Franchisor is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

D. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

E. All references herein to the masculine, neuter, or singular shall be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter, or plural, where applicable, and all acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements, and obligations herein made or undertaken by Franchisee shall be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Franchisee.

F. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

XXV. APPLICABLE LAW

A. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Franchisor in the State of North Carolina, and shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law; provided, however, that if any of the provisions of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of North Carolina, then such provisions shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which the principal office of Franchisee is located.

B. The parties agree that any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, shall be brought within the State of North Carolina and do hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

C. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Franchisee by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed to be, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

D. Nothing herein contained shall bar Franchisor's right to obtain injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause it loss or damages, under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions.

E. In the event of any action at law or in equity to secure or protect rights under or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable counsel fees together with court costs and expenses incurred in connection with the litigation.

F. THE PARTIES WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST EACH OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN THEM, EACH SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

G. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN, ANY CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR COLLECTIVE ACTION MATTERS, AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE, CLASS MEMBER OR AN OPT-IN PARTY, ACT AS A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL, OR JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS WITH CLAIMS OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY.

H. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, AND/OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY.

I. Except for payments owed by one party to the other, and unless prohibited by applicable law, any legal action or proceeding (including the offer and sale of a franchise to Franchisee) brought or instituted with respect to any dispute arising from or related to this Agreement or with respect to any breach of the terms of this Agreement must be brought or instituted within a period of two (2) years from the date on which the party asserting the claim knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the claim.

FORM OF ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

BOJANGLES RESTAURANT FORM OF ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS ADDENDUM is executed as of this ___ day of _____, _____, by and between _____ (“Franchisee”) and _____ (“Landlord”), as an addendum to the lease, as modified, amended, supplemented, renewed and/or extended from time to time as contemplated herein, (“Lease”) for the premises located at _____, State of _____ (“Premises”) dated as of _____, ____.

Franchisee has entered into a Bojangles Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) with Bojangles Opco, LLC (“Franchisor”) for the operation of a Bojangles restaurant at the Premises, and as a requirement thereof, the lease for the Premises must contain the provisions contained in this Addendum.

Landlord and Franchisee agree that the terms contained herein shall supersede any terms to the contrary set forth in the Lease.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of mutual covenants set forth herein, the execution and delivery of the Lease, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Franchisee hereby agree as follows:

1. Landlord shall deliver to Franchisor a copy of any notice of default or termination of the Lease at the same time such notice is delivered to Franchisee.
2. Franchisee hereby assigns to Franchisor, with Landlord’s irrevocable and unconditional consent, all of Franchisee’s rights, title and interests to and under the Lease upon any termination, expiration, or non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement, but no such assignment shall be effective unless: (a) the Franchise Agreement is terminated, not renewed, or expires without renewal or Franchisor has exercised its option to purchase the Restaurant under the Franchise Agreement, as applicable; and (b) Franchisor notifies Franchisee and Landlord in writing that Franchisor assumes Franchisee’s obligations under the Lease.
3. Franchisor shall have the right, but not the obligation, upon giving written notice of its election to Franchisee and Landlord, to cure any breach of the Lease and, if so stated in the notice, to also succeed to Franchisee’s rights, title and interests thereunder.

5. Franchisee and Landlord acknowledge and agree that Franchisor shall have no liability or obligation whatsoever under the Lease unless and until Franchisor assumes the Lease in writing pursuant to Section 2 or Section 3, above.
6. If Franchisor assumes the Lease, as provided above, Franchisor may, without Landlord’s prior consent, further assign the Lease to (a) an affiliate of Franchisor or as part of Franchisor’s financing or refinancing of its assets; or (b) to an approved franchisee of Franchisor to operate the Bojangles restaurant at the Premises provided that the following criteria are met: (a) Franchisor has an established franchising program for Bojangles restaurants; and (b) the proposed franchisee has met Franchisor's applicable requirements and has executed a franchise agreement with Franchisor. Upon such assignment to a franchisee of Franchisor, Franchisor shall be released from any further liability under the terms and conditions of the Lease.

7. Landlord and Franchisee acknowledge that if the Franchise Agreement expires (without renewal) or is terminated or not renewed, Franchisee is obligated to de-identify the Premises as a Bojangles restaurant, at its sole cost and expense. Landlord and Franchisee shall permit Franchisor, its employees or agents, to enter the Premises and remove signs (both interior and exterior), décor and materials displaying any marks, designs or logos owned by Franchisor in the event Franchisee fails to timely do so.

WHEREAS, Franchisor, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort, and money, has developed and owns a unique and distinctive system (hereinafter “System” or “Bojangles System”) relating to the establishment and operation of fast service restaurants;

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, distinctive exterior and interior design, color schemes and layout, including specially designed decor and furnishings; a special selection of menu items largely prepared “from scratch”; procedures and techniques for food and beverage preparation; prompt and courteous service in a clean, wholesome atmosphere; methods of inventory, operating, cash and financial controls and systems for such controls; a training school utilizing special teaching techniques, course instruction and manuals; and unique advertising and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved, and further developed by Franchisor from time to time;

WHEREAS, Franchisor identifies the Bojangles System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to the marks “BOJANGLES®”, “BOJANGLES’®”, “BOJANGLES’ FAMOUS CHICKEN ‘N BISCUITS®”, “BOJANGLES EXPRESS®”, “BO-TO-GO®” and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated (and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing) for use in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Proprietary Marks”) and certain unique trade dress, including but not limited to specific color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout, now or hereafter used by Franchisor in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Trade Dress”);

WHEREAS, Franchisor continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks and Trade Dress in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed thereunder and under the Bojangles System, and to represent the Bojangles System’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service;

WHEREAS, Franchisee desires to enter into the business of operating a Bojangles restaurant under the Bojangles System and wishes to obtain a franchise from Franchisor for that purpose, as well as to receive the training and other assistance provided by Franchisor in connection therewith; and

WHEREAS, Franchisee understands and acknowledges the importance of Franchisor’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service and the necessity of operating the business franchised hereunder in conformity with Franchisor’s standards and specifications.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments of each party to the other party set forth herein, hereby agree as follows:

I. GRANT

A. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee, upon the terms and conditions herein contained, the right and franchise, and Franchisee undertakes the obligation, to operate a Bojangles restaurant located within a portion of an existing structure (hereinafter referred to as “Restaurant” or “Franchised Business”) and to use solely in connection therewith the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress and the Bojangles System, as they may be changed, improved, and further developed from time to time, only at the location set forth in Exhibit A hereto, which location shall conform to the site selection provisions of the related Development Agreement, or in the event this Agreement is not associated with a Development Agreement, which location shall conform to the site selection provisions of Paragraph V of this Agreement.

B. Franchisee acknowledges that this franchise is non-exclusive and is granted subject to the terms of Paragraph IX.C.(6) and IX.F.(6) hereof.

II. TERM

Except as otherwise provided herein, the initial term of this Agreement shall expire ten (10) years from the date the Restaurant first opens for business; provided, however, that if Franchisee’s approved location is leased, this Agreement shall expire at the earlier of ten (10) years from the date the Restaurant first opens for business or upon expiration or termination of the initial term of the lease.

III. DUTIES OF FRANCHISOR

A. Franchisor shall provide an initial training program to instruct Franchisee and other franchisees as to the procedures and techniques to be utilized at the Restaurant in order to ensure that Franchisee becomes completely familiar with the Bojangles System, and shall make available such other training programs as Franchisor deems appropriate. All training provided by Franchisor shall be subject to the terms set forth in Paragraph VIII.E. of this Agreement.

B. Franchisor shall advise and consult with Franchisee in connection with the operation of the Restaurant and new developments, techniques and improvements in areas of restaurant management, food preparation, sales promotion and service. Franchisor may provide the foregoing assistance by sending its employees or representatives to the Restaurant, by providing publications, other written materials, electronic learning content, videos or by conducting meetings or seminars. Some or all of these publications or programs may be provided by electronic access by Franchisor and not by printed or physical documents.

C. Franchisor shall make available, from time to time, advice and assistance in local advertising and, at Franchisee’s expense, promotional materials for local advertising by Franchisee. Franchisor shall have the right to review and approve or disapprove all advertising and promotional materials which Franchisee proposes to use in connection with its operation of the Restaurant, pursuant to Paragraph XIII.F. hereof.

D. Franchisor shall develop advertising materials under the terms of Paragraph XIII. hereof.

E. Franchisor shall provide to Franchisee, on loan, either one printed copy of the Manual as more fully described in Paragraph X. hereof (“Manual”), or provide Franchisee with electronic access to the Manual.

F. In the interest of maintaining high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service, Franchisor shall conduct, as it deems advisable, inspections of the Restaurant, and evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the Restaurant.

IV. FEES

A. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a franchise fee at the time this Agreement is executed in the amount set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement, which sum shall be deemed fully earned when paid and nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by Franchisor in granting this franchise and for Franchisor’s lost or deferred opportunity to franchise others.

B. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a continuing monthly royalty fee in an amount equal to four percent (4%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant, as defined in Paragraph IV.E. hereof.

C. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a monthly advertising contribution, for use by the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund established by Franchisor, as provided in Paragraph XIII.E. hereof, in an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant.

D. All monthly payments required by this Paragraph IV. shall be paid to Franchisor by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month on Gross Sales made during the preceding month, and shall be submitted to Franchisor together with any reports or statements required under Paragraph XII.B. hereof.

E. Franchisor reserves the right to require that all monthly payments required by this Agreement be directly drafted by Franchisor from Franchisee’s account. Any payment or report not actually received by Franchisor on or before such date shall be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid at the equivalent of one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Entitlement to such interest shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

F. As used in this Agreement, “Gross Sales” shall include all revenue from the sale of all services and products related to the Franchised Business, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit; provided, however, that “Gross Sales” shall not include any sales taxes or other taxes collected from customers by Franchisee for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority.

V. SITE SELECTION

A. If Franchisor has not approved the site of the Restaurant developed under this Agreement prior to the Effective Date, then Franchisee must obtain the written approval of Franchisor for the site of the Restaurant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement (“Site Approval Deadline”); however, if the Restaurant is developed pursuant to a Development Agreement, the Site Approval Deadline shall be the earlier of: (1) the date which is one hundred eighty (180) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement; or (2) the site approval deadline set forth in the development schedule of the Development Agreement. Upon request by Franchisee, Franchisor shall provide reasonable site selection assistance and counseling to Franchisee. Franchisee shall propose sites for approval by Franchisor on forms or in the manner designated from time to time by Franchisor. A site shall only be submitted to Franchisor after Franchisee has carefully evaluated the site and determined that it meets the criteria for Restaurant sites which Franchisor has communicated to Franchisee. Franchisor shall review the application for site approval; and within forty-five (45) days of Franchisor’s receipt of the application, Franchisor shall approve the proposed site or reject the site with comments as to why it was rejected. Franchisor reserves the right to reject any site proposed by Franchisee if Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates): fail to demonstrate adequate financial resources and operational readiness to develop the site and operate the Restaurant, including adequate sources of capital; are not in good standing under this Agreement, any other agreements between Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) and Franchisor or its affiliates; or fail to adhere to any manuals, policies and/or procedures implemented by Franchisor in connection with other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates), including without limitation as related to operational standards.

B. Franchisee must obtain the written approval of Franchisor with respect to the terms of any lease or mortgage with respect to the site to be developed as a Restaurant under this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days after Franchisor’s approval of a site, Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of the closing date if the site is to be obtained by purchase; and provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed mortgage or deed of trust if a mortgage loan is contemplated; or, if the site is to be obtained by lease, provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed lease. Within twenty (20) days thereafter, Franchisor shall send notice of approval or notice of rejection with comments. Franchisee shall, as promptly as possible after receipt of approval, complete acquisition or leasing of the site; and in any event shall complete acquisition or leasing of the approved site within ninety (90) days after receiving Franchisor’s written approval of the site.

C. Any lease or mortgage for a Restaurant site must permit assignment of the lease, mortgage, or deed of trust to Franchisor or its designees in the event of default by Franchisee of the lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or this Agreement; and must provide, in form and substance satisfactory to Franchisor, for quiet enjoyment, subordination and mutual attornment. Any lease or mortgage for the Restaurant site must be bona fide, and provide financial terms consistent with those prevalent in the area. Any lease for the Restaurant shall provide for a term of not less than ten (10) years. Unless waived in writing by Franchisor, any lease for the Restaurant site shall contain provisions that satisfy the requirements set forth in the Addendum to Lease Agreement attached to this Agreement as Exhibit D during the entire term of the lease, including any renewal terms.

VI. CONSTRUCTION OF RESTAURANT

A. Franchisee shall obtain and shall bear all costs associated with the development of plans and specifications for the construction of the Restaurant including those for any interior and exterior modifications or additions to the building or other structure where the Restaurant shall be located.

B. Final plans and specifications must be approved by Franchisor before the start of construction. In addition, all signage on the convenience store or other structure's premises relating to the Bojangles restaurant must be approved by the Franchisor. Franchisee shall obtain, at its cost, the necessary permits required to construct the Restaurant and required in connection with any signage related to the Restaurant and shall meet all other applicable requirements established by local statute, local ordinance or otherwise. Franchisee shall commence construction of the Restaurant within two hundred seventy (270) days after the date of Franchisor's written site approval notice ("Construction Commencement Deadline"); however, if the Restaurant is developed pursuant to a Development Agreement, the Construction Commencement Deadline shall be the earlier of: (1) the date which is two hundred seventy (270) days after the date of Franchisor's written site approval notice; or (2) the construction commencement deadline set forth in the development schedule of the Development Agreement. Franchisee shall construct, furnish, and open the Restaurant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the commencement of construction ("Opening Deadline"); however, if the Restaurant is developed pursuant to a Development Agreement, the Opening Deadline shall be the earlier of: (1) the date which is one hundred eighty (180) days after the commencement of construction; or (2) the opening deadline set forth in the development schedule of the Development Agreement. Prior to opening for business, Franchisee shall comply with all pre-opening requirements set forth in this Agreement and in the Manual or as otherwise required by Franchisor in writing.

C. Strict compliance with the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and Opening Deadline is essential to this Agreement. Any failure by Franchisee in fulfilling its obligations to meet the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline or Opening Deadline shall constitute a material, non-curable breach of this Agreement permitting Franchisor immediately to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to Franchisee. Time is of the essence.

D. Franchisee may submit a written request to Franchisor for an extension of up to six (6) months of the Site Approval Deadline, Construction Commencement Deadline and/or Opening Deadline for the Restaurant. Franchisee must pay Franchisor a lump-sum extension fee in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($2,500.00) when Franchisee submits an extension request to compensate Franchisor for its costs, expenses and lost opportunities related to the proposed extension. Franchisor must receive Franchisee's extension request at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the occurrence of the deadline date. Upon review, Franchisor may grant Franchisee, in Franchisor's sole discretion, an extension of the applicable deadline(s) for a Restaurant. If Franchisor grants an extension on any deadline, Franchisor will determine the length of the extension at its sole option. Franchisor may consider a variety of factors in whether to grant an extension, including the diligence Franchisee has shown in developing the Restaurant. If Franchisor rejects Franchisee's extension request, then Franchisor will refund the extension fee to Franchisee. Extensions do not change any deadlines other than the particular deadline then being adjusted by the extension that is the subject of Franchisee's request.

VII. FRANCHISEE ORGANIZATION AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Franchisee shall be a corporation or a limited liability company composed solely of no more than six (6) shareholders/members who are individuals and not corporations, limited liability companies or any other legal entities, and shall comply with the following requirements:

VIII. DUTIES OF FRANCHISEE

A. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that every detail of the Franchised Business is important to Franchisee, Franchisor, and other franchisees and developers of Franchisor, in order to develop and maintain high operating standards, to increase the demand for the services and products sold by all franchisees, and to protect Franchisor's reputation and goodwill.

B. Upon execution of this Agreement, Franchisee (on behalf of itself and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), and all other persons or entities acting on their behalf or claiming under any of them) (collectively, "Franchisee Releasors") hereby waives and releases any claims, whether known or unknown, which any Franchisee Releasor, may have against Franchisor and its parents, Franchisee represents and warrants that: (1) it is aware that it may in the future learn of facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of this paragraph, but that nonetheless, it is its intention to fully, finally, and forever settle and release all Claims; and (2) it has not assigned any Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the Franchisee Releasors, further covenants not to sue any of the Franchisor Parties on any of the Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee agrees that fair consideration has been given by Franchisor for this release and it fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete, and final release of all Claims.

C. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as Franchisee’s “Managing Owner”, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Managing Owner shall own a majority equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. If Franchisee does not have an owner with a majority equity interest, the Managing Owner shall own the next highest percentage equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner;

(2) The Managing Owner will be the person with whom Franchisor will communicate and will have the authority to bind Franchisee with respect to all financial, operational and legal matters related to the Franchised Business and this Agreement. The Managing Owner may also serve as Franchisee’s Principal Operating Officer or Principal Operating Partner as defined below provided that the Managing Owner meets the criteria for both positions independently;

(3) The Managing Owner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor’s satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Managing Owner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Managing Owner unless approved by Franchisor;
and

(6) The Managing Owner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Managing Owner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his/her obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor’s sole discretion, the Managing Owner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Managing Owner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee’s replacement Managing Owner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Managing Owner.

D. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as the "Principal Operating Officer" of Franchisee, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, it shall designate an individual to serve as "Principal Operating Partner" subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall own an equity interest of at least ten percent (10%) in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Principal Operating Officer or Partner;

Franchisee's replacement Principal Operating Officer or Partner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Principal Operating Officer or Partner.

E. Franchisee agrees that it is important to the operation of the System and the Restaurant that Franchisee and Franchisee's employees receive such training as Franchisor may require, and to that end agrees as follows:

(1) Prior to the opening of the Restaurant, the Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner, if they have not each previously attended the initial training program, and such number of Franchisee's managers as Franchisor shall designate, shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor. At Franchisee's expense, the Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner and Franchisee's managers and other employees who work in the Restaurant shall also attend such courses, seminars, and other training programs as Franchisor may require from time to time. Franchisor shall provide instructors and training materials for all required training programs; and Franchisee or its employees shall be responsible for any and all other expenses incurred by them in connection with any training programs, including, without limitation, the cost of transportation, lodging, meals, and wages. Any person subsequently employed by Franchisee in the position of manager of the Restaurant and each subsequent Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, such initial training program as Franchisor may require within one hundred eighty (180) days after being employed or appointed.

(2) Franchisee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, managers and other employees who work in the Restaurant may also attend such optional training programs and seminars as Franchisor may offer from time to time. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor, for each person attending such a program, the training fee, if any, then charged by Franchisor. If any such training fee is imposed by Franchisor, the training fee shall be in addition to any other expenses incurred by the persons attending training as provided in Paragraph VIII.E(1) hereof.

F. Franchisee shall use the Restaurant premises, which are a portion of another structure, solely for the operation of the Franchised Business; shall keep the Franchised Business open and in normal operation for such minimum hours and days as Franchisor may from time to time specify in the Manual or as Franchisor may otherwise approve in writing; and shall refrain from using or permitting the use of the Restaurant premises for any other purpose or activity at any time without first obtaining the written consent of Franchisor.

G. Franchisee shall maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff, including at least one fully trained manager on duty at the Restaurant at all times, in sufficient numbers so as to operate the Restaurant efficiently and effectively. Franchisee shall hire all employees of the Restaurant and be exclusively responsible for the terms of their employment and compensation, and for the proper training of such employees in the operation of the Restaurant, in human resources and customer relations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions of the Restaurant including, without limitation, decisions or actions related to hiring, firing, training, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, scheduling benefits, recordkeeping, supervision, and discipline of employees, and such decisions or actions shall not be, nor be deemed to be, a decision or action of Franchisor. The parties agree that Franchisor shall not be deemed a joint employer with Franchisee for any reason. If Franchisor incurs any cost, expense, loss, or damage as a result of any actions or omissions of Franchisee or Franchisee's employees, including any that relate to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, Franchisee will fully indemnify Franchisor for such cost, expense, loss, or damage. Franchisee shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that its employees preserve good customer relations, wear uniforms of such color, design and other specifications as Franchisor may designate from time to time, present a neat and clean appearance, and render competent and courteous service to Restaurant customers.

H. Franchisee shall meet and maintain the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Restaurant.

I. To insure that the highest degree of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service is maintained, Franchisee shall operate the Restaurant in strict conformity with such methods, standards, and specifications as Franchisor may from time to time prescribe in the Manual or otherwise in writing. Franchisee agrees:

(1) To operate the Restaurant in a clean, wholesome manner in compliance with Franchisor's prescribed standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service;

(2) To maintain in the Restaurant in sufficient supply, and to use in the Restaurant at all times, only such ingredients, products, materials, supplies, and paper goods as conform with Franchisor's standards and specifications, and to refrain from deviating therefrom by the use or offer of nonconforming items, without Franchisor's prior written consent;

(3) To sell or offer for sale in the Restaurant only such menu items, products, and services as have been expressly approved for sale in writing by Franchisor; to sell or offer for sale in the Restaurant all types of menu items, products, and services specified by Franchisor including Bojangles tea, coffee and fountain drinks; to refrain from any deviation from Franchisor's standards and specifications without Franchisor's prior written consent; and to discontinue selling and offering for sale in the Restaurant any menu items, products, or services which Franchisor may, in its discretion, disapprove in writing at any time. Further, Franchisee shall not sell from the convenience store or other structure in which the Restaurant is located outside of the Restaurant Area items offered for sale from the Restaurant or other freshly prepared food and Franchisee shall not sell or offer for sale from the convenience store or other structure in which the Restaurant is located, any adult books or magazines, pornographic materials or other items featuring nudity or sexual activity or any sexually-oriented devices.

(4) To employ in the Restaurant only those methods of food handling and preparation as Franchisor may specify in the Manual, or otherwise designate from time to time;

(5) To permit Franchisor or its agents, at any reasonable time, to remove samples of food or non-food items from Franchisee's inventory of the Restaurant, or from the Restaurant, without payment therefor, in amounts reasonably necessary for testing by Franchisor or an independent laboratory to determine whether said samples meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications. In addition to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement, Franchisor may require Franchisee to bear the cost of such testing if the supplier of the item has not previously been approved by Franchisor or if the sample fails to conform with Franchisor's specifications; and

(6) To purchase and install in the Restaurant, at Franchisee's expense, all fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, and signs as Franchisor may reasonably direct from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing; and to refrain from installing or permitting to be installed on or about the Restaurant premises, without Franchisor's prior written consent, any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, signs, games, vending machines, or other items not previously approved as meeting Franchisor's standards and specifications; and to refrain from installing or permitting to be installed on or about the convenience store or other structure's premises any signs, awnings or other structures advertising the Bojangles restaurant or displaying any of the Franchisor's logos or trade names without Franchisor's prior written consent.

J. Franchisee shall comply with all requirements of federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations.

K. Franchisee shall purchase all food items, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, supplies, materials, and other items used or offered for sale at the Restaurant solely from suppliers (including manufacturers, distributors and other sources) who demonstrate, to the continuing reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, the ability to meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications for such items; who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply Franchisee's needs promptly and reliably; and who have been approved in writing by Franchisor and not thereafter disapproved. If Franchisee desires to purchase any products to be used or offered for sale in the Restaurant from an unapproved supplier, Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor a written request for such approval, or shall request the supplier itself to do so, and Franchisor, in its sole discretion, shall determine whether such supplier shall be approved. Franchisor shall have the right to require that its representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered to Franchisor or to an independent laboratory designated by Franchisor for testing. A charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the inspection and the actual cost of the test shall be paid by Franchisee or the supplier. Franchisor reserves the right, at its option, to re-inspect the facilities and products of any such approved supplier and to revoke its approval upon the supplier's failure to continue to meet any of Franchisor's then-current criteria.

L. Franchisee shall require all advertising and promotional materials, signs, decorations, paper goods (including disposable food containers, napkins, and menus), all forms and stationery used in the Franchised Business, and other items which may be designated by Franchisor to bear the Proprietary Marks in the form, color, location, and manner prescribed by Franchisor.

M. Franchisee shall maintain the Restaurant in a high degree of sanitation, repair, and condition, and in connection therewith shall make such additions, alterations, repairs, and replacements thereto (but, if of a substantial nature, not without Franchisor's prior written consent) as may be required for that purpose, including, without limitation, such periodic repainting or replacement of signs, furnishings, equipment, and decor in the manner and at the times which Franchisor may reasonably direct; provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be required to undertake a major remodeling of the kitchen, interior decor of the Restaurant and exterior decor located on the convenience store or other structure's premises and related to the Restaurant, including but not limited to signs and awnings, more than once in any five (5) year period.

N. Franchisee shall keep the parking area for the convenience store or other structure in which the Restaurant is located well-lighted, and maintain the parking spaces for the exclusive use of the customers of the Restaurant and convenience store or other structure in which the Restaurant is located.

O. Franchisee shall grant Franchisor and its agents the right to enter upon the Restaurant premises at any time for the purpose of conducting inspections; shall cooperate with Franchisor's representatives in such inspections by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request; and, upon notice from Franchisor or its agents and without limiting Franchisor's other rights under this Agreement, shall take such steps as may be necessary to correct immediately any deficiencies detected during any such inspection. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to correct such deficiencies within a reasonable time as determined by Franchisor, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) to correct such deficiencies and to charge Franchisee a reasonable fee for Franchisor's expenses in so acting, payable by Franchisee immediately upon demand. The foregoing shall be in addition to such other remedies as Franchisor may have.

P. Without limiting any other provision or requirement of the Agreement, Franchisee agrees to sell only those beverage product brands specified by Franchisor, including all soft drinks and cola products. Franchisor specifically retains the right to make additions or changes to the beverage product brands offered by Franchisee.

Q. Franchisee agrees to utilize the e-mail address provided by Franchisor and to utilize the Bojangles electronic portal, and review its content regularly for purposes of receiving updates, notice of Manual or policy changes and other communications from Franchisor.

R. If Franchisee develops any new concepts, processes or improvements relating to the System, whether or not pursuant to a Franchisor authorized test, Franchisee promptly shall notify Franchisor and provide Franchisor with all information regarding the new concept, process or improvement, all of which shall become the property of Franchisor and its affiliates and which may be incorporated into the System without any payment to Franchisee. Franchisee, at its expense, promptly shall take all actions deemed necessary or desirable by Franchisor to vest in Franchisor all ownership of such concepts, processes or improvements. Franchisee shall not implement any new concept, process or improvement in the Restaurant without Franchisor's prior written approval. Testing of any new concept, process or improvement must be conducted under specified "test parameters" that may govern among other things the duration of the test and validation of results as set forth by Franchisor. Any testing of a new product, process or improvement must be deemed safe by Franchisor prior to implementation.

S. Franchisee shall comply with all other requirements set forth in this Agreement.

(c) To purchase, merge with, acquire or become associated with any business of any kind under other systems and/or trademarks and/or develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Proprietary Marks, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee; and

(d) To sell the same or similar products that are authorized for sale at Bojangles Restaurants under the Proprietary Marks or under other trademarks or trade dress and through any other channel of distribution, whether such channel of distribution is now in existence or is hereafter developed and whether at retail or wholesale including, without limitation, sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, carts or kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets, grocery stores, restaurants, institutional customers, ghost kitchens, club stores and any other outlet or method of distribution, pursuant to any terms and conditions as Franchisor may deem appropriate.

(7) Franchisor reserves the right to substitute different Proprietary Marks for use in identifying the System and the businesses operating thereunder.

D. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that Franchisor has developed certain unique Trade Dress as part of the Bojangles System, including but not limited to color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout.

E. With respect to Franchisee's licensed use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that:

(1) Franchisees shall use only the Trade Dress designated by Franchisor, and shall use it only in the manner authorized and permitted by Franchisor.

(2) Franchisee shall use the Trade Dress only for the operation of the Franchised Business and only at the location authorized hereunder or in advertising for the Franchised Business.

(3) Franchisee's right to use the Trade Dress is limited to the term of this Agreement and shall automatically cease upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use thereof, including but not limited to sublicensing a use of the Trade Dress, shall constitute an infringement of Franchisor's rights and a default under this Agreement.

(4) In the event that litigation involving the Trade Dress is instituted or threatened against Franchisee, Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor. Franchisor shall conduct the defense, and bear the expense of such litigation, but shall be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in its sole discretion, it may decide upon. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with Franchisor in defending or settling such litigation.

F. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Trade Dress and the goodwill associated with and symbolized by it;

(2) The Trade Dress is valid and serves to identify the System and those who are authorized to operate under the System;

(3) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Franchisor's ownership of the Trade Dress;

(4) Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Trade Dress, except pursuant to the license granted by this Agreement;

(5) Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress in its franchised operation under the System shall inure solely and exclusively to Franchisor's benefit, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the System or the Trade Dress; and

(6) The right and license of the Trade Dress granted hereunder to Franchisee is nonexclusive, and Franchisor thus has and retains the rights, among others:

(a) To use the Trade Dress itself in connection with selling products and services;

(b) To grant other licenses for the Trade Dress, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees; and

(c) To develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Trade Dress, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee.

G. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph IX. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph IX.

X. CONFIDENTIAL MANUAL

A. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor and to maintain high standards of operation under Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Franchisee shall conduct its business in accordance with the Manual, one copy of which Franchisee acknowledges having received by electronic access or written copy on loan from Franchisor for the term of this Agreement. The Manual shall include manuals, memoranda, procedures, policies and other communications created by Franchisor that are posted on the Bojangles electronic portal or otherwise communicated to Franchisee in writing by email or hardcopy, whether or not noted as "Manual". If a posting is made to the Bojangles electronic portal, Franchisee shall be deemed to have notice of any changes or supplements to the Manual. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any required standards set forth in this Agreement and the Manual exist to protect Franchisor's interests in the System and the Proprietary Marks and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to Franchisee (including the day-to-day operation of the Restaurant and the conduct and management of Franchisee's employees).

B. Franchisee shall at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Franchised Business, and the information contained therein, as confidential, and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, nor otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person.

C. The Manual shall at all times remain the sole property of Franchisor.

D. Franchisor may from time to time revise the contents of the Manual, and Franchisee expressly agrees to comply with each new or changed standard.

E. Franchisee and its shareholders and members shall continuously review changes to the Manual as posted in the Bojangles electronic portal, and to otherwise keep current with the Manual. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by Franchisor at Franchisor's home office shall be controlling.

XI. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

A. Franchisee shall not, during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of any other person, persons, partnership, association, corporation or limited liability company any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Franchised Business which may be communicated to Franchisee or of which Franchisee may be apprised by virtue of Franchisee's operation under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee shall divulge such confidential information only to such of its employees as must have access to it in order to operate the Franchised Business, and Franchisee shall take such precautions as Franchisor deems necessary to ensure that Franchisee's employees retain such information in confidence. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement, except information which Franchisee can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Franchisor; or which, at the time of disclosure by Franchisor to Franchisee, had become a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others; or which, after disclosure to Franchisee by Franchisor, becomes a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others.

B. Franchisee hereby acknowledges that pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisor will provide Franchisee with access to and training in processes and procedures of a proprietary nature and will provide Franchisee with access to and the right to use recipes and formulas, the Manual, logos, designs, trademarks, trade names and other proprietary information in connection with Franchisee's development and operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee shall not at any time, whether during the term of this Agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, disclose any information obtained through such training or from any materials provided by Franchisor to Franchisee and pertaining to the Bojangles System to any third party other than employees of Franchisee directly involved in the operations of the Restaurant. Further, Franchisee agrees that during the term of this Agreement and after its expiration or earlier termination, it shall not use any of such information or proprietary marks, including but not limited to any processes, procedures, recipes and formulas, for any purpose other than the operation of the Restaurant and will take all steps necessary to prevent any other use of them. Without limiting the foregoing, Franchisee specifically agrees that it shall not during the term of this agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, offer for sale at any location, other than the Restaurant being operated at that time pursuant to this Agreement, any food or drink products prepared using in whole or part the procedures, processes, techniques, recipes or formulas provided by Franchisor to Franchisee.

C. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XI. will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XI.

XII. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS

A. Franchisee shall maintain during the term of this Agreement, and shall preserve for at least five (5) years from the dates of their preparation, full, complete, and accurate books, records, and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in the form and manner prescribed by Franchisor from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

B. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor, no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month during the term of this Agreement, after the opening of the Franchised Business, a statistical report and statement of receipts, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, accurately reflecting all Gross Sales during the preceding month and such other data or information as Franchisor may require.

C. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, submit to Franchisor, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, an unaudited balance sheet of the Franchised Business and a statement of profit or loss for the preceding quarter within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter of Franchisee's fiscal year. Each such statement shall be signed by Franchisee's treasurer or chief financial officer attesting that it is true and correct.

D. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, provide to Franchisor a statement of profit or loss and a year-end balance sheet prepared and certified by Franchisee's chief financial officer and, upon written request by Franchisor, by an independent certified public accountant satisfactory to Franchisor, within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Franchised Business during the term hereof, showing the results of operations of the Franchised Business during said fiscal year. Franchisee's chief financial officer shall attest that the financial statements present fairly the financial position of Franchisee and the results of operations of the Franchised Business during the period covered. Franchisor shall have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to require that Franchisee submit audited statements for any fiscal year or any period or periods of a fiscal year of Franchisee during the term of this Agreement, and to require Franchisee to cause its independent certified public accountant to consult with Franchisor, at Franchisee's expense, concerning the financial statements provided by Franchisee.

E. Franchisee shall also submit to Franchisor, for review or auditing, such other forms, reports, records, information, and data as Franchisor may reasonably designate, in the form and at the times and places reasonably required by Franchisor, upon request and as specified from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

F. Franchisor or its designated agents shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine and copy, at Franchisor's expense, the books, records, and tax returns of Franchisee. Franchisor shall also have the right, at any time, to have an independent audit made of the books of Franchisee. If an inspection should reveal that any payments have been understated in any report to Franchisor, then Franchisee shall immediately pay to Franchisor the amount understated upon demand, in addition to interest from the date such amount was due until paid, at one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If an inspection discloses an understatement in any report of five percent (5%) or more, Franchisee shall, in addition, reimburse Franchisor for any and all costs and expenses connected with the inspection (including, without limitation, reasonable accounting and attorneys' fees). The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XIII. ADVERTISING

Recognizing the value of advertising, and the importance of the standardization of advertising programs to the furtherance of the goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, the parties agree as follows:

A. Franchisee shall spend not less than three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Franchised Business on local and regional media advertising, in addition to any advertising contribution required under Paragraphs IV.C. and XIII.E. hereof. Franchisee shall demonstrate on a quarterly basis, to the reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, that Franchisee has made such expenditures. Such advertising shall include radio, television, magazine, newspaper, billboard campaigns, print, direct mail and other forms of advertising media and public relations activities but shall not include the costs of advertising production, production of other marketing materials, cost of food promotion, point of purchase materials, telephone book advertising, stationery, or restaurant indoor or outdoor site location signs.

B. Recognizing the value of cooperative national and regional advertising and marketing, and the importance of standardizing such programs to further enhance the national goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, Franchisor reserves the right and may in its sole discretion require Franchisee to participate along with other franchisees in regional cooperative advertising organizations or programs, established from time to time currently or in the future by Franchisor or by other franchisees for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Bojangles System. In the event of the formation of such cooperative advertising groups, and Franchisee's participation therein, Franchisor shall permit Franchisee to credit a portion of the amount required to be expended for local and regional advertising in Paragraph XIII.A. above to any regional program established by any such cooperative arrangement.

C. If Franchisee has failed to make or report the expenditure of the three percent (3%) of Gross Sales as required in Paragraph XIII.A. above in any quarter or if Franchisee shall fail to participate in a cooperative advertising program after request by Franchisor as required in Paragraph XIII.B. above, Franchisee shall thereafter, after written notice by Franchisor, pay to Franchisor three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant. Franchisor may then in its sole discretion contribute such amounts to any franchisee cooperative organization that operates in part or all of Franchisee's market area or Franchisor may expend such funds to create advertising that in Franchisor's sole determination will promote the Proprietary Marks and/or System in Franchisee's market area.

D. Franchisor may offer from time to time to provide, upon Franchisee's request and at Franchisee's expense, approved local advertising and promotional plans and materials.

E. Franchisee agrees to make contributions to the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund (hereinafter "Fund") as required under Paragraph IV.C. hereof. The Fund shall be maintained and administered by Franchisor or its designee, as follows:

(1) Franchisor shall direct the creation of all advertising programs, with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that the Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the trade names, trademarks, and service marks which are designated as part of the System for the benefit of the System through research and the creation of marketing materials; and that Franchisor and its designee undertake no obligation, in administering the Fund, to make expenditures which are equivalent or proportionate to a franchisee's contribution, or to insure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from Fund expenditures. Franchisee is aware that there may be some franchisees operating under different forms of agreement and who may not be required to make payments into the Fund equivalent to Franchisee's payments.

(2) Franchisor shall, for each of its company-owned Bojangles restaurants, make contributions to the Fund equivalent to the contributions required of comparable franchised Bojangles restaurants within the Bojangles System so that Franchisor's average contribution for each company-owned Restaurant will be equal to the average contribution per franchise-owned Restaurant. This average per Restaurant contribution for franchise-owned Restaurants will be calculated by dividing the total contributions of franchisees to the Fund by the total number of franchise-owned Restaurants. Franchisor's total contribution to the Fund will equal this average per Restaurant contribution multiplied by Franchisor's total number of company-owned Restaurants; and

(3) All contributions to the Fund shall be used exclusively for advertising and promotion of the Bojangles System (including, without limitation, the cost of preparing and conducting television, radio, print, and billboard advertising campaigns and other public relations activities; conducting research; employing advertising agencies and other specialists to assist therein; and preparing and providing promotional brochures and other point of purchase marketing materials to franchisees in the Bojangles System). All sums paid by Franchisee and other franchisees to the Fund shall not be used to defray any of Franchisor's general operating expenses except for such reasonable administrative expenses and overhead, if any, as Franchisor may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs, including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing marketing and advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund.

F. All advertising by Franchisee in any medium shall be conducted in a dignified manner and shall conform to such standards and requirements as Franchisor may specify from time to time in writing. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor (through the mail, return receipt requested, electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission or through next business day delivery), for its prior written approval, samples of all advertising and promotional plans and materials that Franchisee desires to use and that have not been prepared or previously approved by Franchisor. Franchisee shall not use any advertising or promotional plans and materials that have not received Franchisor's prior written approval. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Franchisor may establish or introduce certain national, regional, or local promotions, campaigns, contests, special or limited offers, and other programs, including as related to new products, services or other programs (collectively, the "Special Promotions"). Franchisor will consult with Franchisor's Franchise Advisory Council regarding upcoming Special Promotions. Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's implementation requirements regarding the Special Promotions. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for any costs and expenses associated with the Special Promotions, including the purchase of any inventory or supplies needed or required to implement the Special Promotions. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Special Promotions.

G. Franchisor may require Franchisee to participate in multi-channel marketing platforms approved by Franchisor (the "Multi-Channel Programs"). The Multi-Channel Programs will require Franchisee's cooperation and participation, including, without limitation, Franchisee refraining from certain channels of marketing and distribution, and Franchisee's payment of commissions or referral fees. Franchisor will designate the multi-channel platform, method and timing of payment, and any outside agencies for the Multi-Channel Programs. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Multi-Channel Programs.

XIV. INSURANCE

A. Franchisee shall maintain insurance in force as follows:

(1) Worker's compensation in an amount at least in the statutory requirements for the state in which the Restaurant is located, with employers' liability limits of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) per occurrence for bodily injury by accident and disease;

(2) Comprehensive general liability insurance, including products liability and broad form contractual liability insurance in an amount of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) per occurrence. Franchisee's liability coverage may be primary and non-contributory. Insurance carriers must be an insurance company with at least an A- class rating and VIII financial size according to A.M. Best and if not available then according to Moody's or Standard and Poor's.

(3) Property insurance on ISO special form, covering the building with 100% replacement cost coverage, less a commercially reasonable deductible. Coverage must include flood and earthquake if the location is in a high hazard zone.

(4) All policies of insurance, including general liability insurance, shall name Bojangles Opco, LLC, Bojangles' Restaurants Inc. (in its capacity as Manager under a Management Agreement with Bojangles Opco, LLC), and their respective affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective partners, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, representatives, and employees as additional insureds or loss payees, as may be applicable, on the policies; shall provide that the policy cannot be cancelled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Franchisor; and shall specify that copies of all notices shall be sent to Franchisor. Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with copies of all policies or certificates evidencing insurance in force as required herein. Evidence of payment of premiums shall be delivered to Franchisor at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration dates of each existing insurance policy; and

(5) Such additional insurance covering such additional risks or providing such higher limits as Franchisor may reasonably request.

B. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, as such requirements may be revised from time to time by Franchisor in the Manual or otherwise in writing, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) immediately to procure such insurance and to charge same to Franchisee, which charges, together with a reasonable fee for Franchisor's time and expenses in so acting, shall be payable by Franchisee immediately upon notice. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XV. TRANSFER

A. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity.

B. Transfer by Franchisee of the right to operate the restaurant, or any interest in this Agreement, the franchise rights and license rights, and/or in Franchisee are limited as follows:

(1) Franchisee's authority to transfer any interest under this Agreement is also subject to the terms of any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee, including a development agreement associated with this Agreement, which may impose additional conditions and limitations on Franchisee's right to transfer its interest under this Agreement.

(2) Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and its shareholders or members, and that Franchisor has granted this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill and financial capacity, and the business skill, financial capacity and personal character of Franchisee's shareholders or members. Accordingly, neither Franchisee nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement, nor any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns any interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee shall sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, grant a security interest in or otherwise encumber any direct or indirect right to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement or franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder or any obligations hereunder or in Franchisee, without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Any such proposed transfer shall be subject, where applicable, to Franchisor's option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XV.D. herein. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of Franchisor required by this Paragraph XV.B.(2) shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which Franchisor may then terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph XVI.B. of this Agreement.

(3) If a transfer, alone or together with other previous, simultaneous, or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the right to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or in the franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder, or in Franchisee, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, if it does not elect to exercise its option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XV.D. herein, require any or all of the following as conditions of its approval:

(a) All of Franchisee's accrued and outstanding monetary obligations to third parties and all accrued and outstanding obligations to Franchisor, or any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Franchisor shall have been satisfied;

(b) Franchisee shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereto or successor hereof, or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates;

(c) The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its officers, directors, shareholders or members, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances; and shall agree to remain liable to Franchisor for all affirmative obligations, covenants, and agreements contained herein for two (2) years following the effective date of transfer (or, if transferor retains a purchase money interest in the transferred business, for a period greater than two (2) years, until the interest is extinguished) or for such shorter period as Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, determine;

(d) The transferee shall enter into a written assignment, under seal and in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement; and, if the obligations of Franchisee were guaranteed by the transferor, the transferee shall guarantee the performance of all such obligations in writing in a form satisfactory to Franchisor;

(e) The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the transferee meets Franchisor's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business herein (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Franchised Business;

(f) At Franchisor's option, the transferee shall execute (and/or, upon Franchisor's request, shall cause all interested parties to execute), for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, the then-current standard form of franchise agreement being offered to new System franchisees and other ancillary agreements, including a guarantee of such agreement executed by all shareholders or members of the transferee, as Franchisor may require for the Franchised Business, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which agreements may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty rate and advertising contribution; provided, however, that the transferee shall not be required to pay an initial franchise fee;

(g) At Franchisor's sole discretion, the transferee, at its expense, shall upgrade the Restaurant to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of System Restaurants, and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time specified by Franchisor;

(h) Franchisee shall remain liable for all of its obligations to Franchisor in connection with the Franchised Business prior to the effective date of the transfer, and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability;

(i) At the transferee's expense, transferee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, and managers, shall complete any training and certification programs then in effect for franchisees upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor may reasonably require; and

(j) Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a transfer fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Restaurant, which constitutes Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting expenses) in connection with Franchisor's review of the application to transfer.

(4) Franchisee shall grant no security interest in this Agreement or in the Franchised Business (other than a pledge of assets to secure a bona fide loan made or credit extended in connection with acquisition of the assets pledged) unless the secured party agrees that in the event of any default by Franchisee under any documents related to the security interest, Franchisor shall have the right and option to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to such secured party.

(5) Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that each condition which must be met by transferee is necessary to assure such transferee's full performance of the obligations hereunder.

(6) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent or prohibit Franchisee from selling, assigning, transferring, conveying, giving away, pledging, mortgaging, granting security interests in or otherwise encumbering Franchisee's real property interests, including but not limited to fee or leasehold interests in any land or buildings, or Franchisee's interests in other hard assets, including any equipment and furnishings, but excluding any items which bear any of Franchisor's logos, trademarks, trade names or other proprietary marks.

C. In the event that a quick-service food competitor of Franchisor acquires a controlling interest in Franchisee without Franchisor's prior written consent, Franchisor shall have the right at its option to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default upon ninety (90) days written notice to Franchisee.

D. Franchisor shall have the option to purchase any interest in the Restaurant or this Agreement as follows:

(1) Any party holding any direct or indirect interest in the rights to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement or in franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a party other than Franchisor to purchase such interest, if a transfer of that interest alone or together with other previous, simultaneous or proposed transfers would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the rights to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder, shall provide Franchisor with all of the terms of the proposed transfer in writing at least sixty (60) days prior to the proposed date of transfer. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of all documentation necessary, in Franchisor's sole but reasonable opinion, to evaluate the terms of the proposed transfer, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party, net of any finders or brokers fees which any third party would be obligated to pay. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, closing on such purchase must occur within thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor does not exercise its option to purchase, Franchisee or shareholders or members of Franchisee may proceed to consummate a transfer to a third party if they have complied with the conditions of this Paragraph XV. If Franchisor did not exercise its option to purchase, any material change in the terms of the third party's offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same option to purchase by Franchisor as in the case of an initial offer. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Paragraph XV.D. shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Paragraph XV. with respect to a proposed transfer.

(2) In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that Franchisor is not in a position to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then Franchisor may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash.

E. Upon the death or mental incapacity of any person with a direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in Franchisee, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall transfer the interest to a third party, including shareholder(s) or member(s) of Franchisee, approved by Franchisor within twelve (12) months after such death or mental incapacity, or, if legal proceedings make transfer within twelve (12) months not feasible, within such longer period as may be reasonable under the circumstances. Such transfer, including, without limitation, transfer by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. If an approved transfer has not been made within the aforementioned period, Franchisor shall have the option to purchase the Franchised Business at fair market value, and thereupon terminate this Agreement. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the Franchised Business and terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, closing of the transaction shall take place as promptly as possible after Franchisor exercises its option to purchase, and the parties reach agreement concerning the fair market value of the Franchised Business. Payment will be made in four (4) installments, the first of which shall be made at the time of closing and the remaining three (3) installments shall each be made at one (1) year intervals from the date of the first payment. Interest shall be payable on the unpaid portion of the purchase price on the due date of each installment of principal at the prime rate of Bank of America on the date of Franchisor's election to purchase the Franchised Business. If the parties are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Franchised Business, then the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration in Charlotte, North Carolina, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

F. Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Franchisee, rights to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement or any license or franchise rights granted hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

G. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XV. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XV.

XVI. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

A. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein shall automatically terminate without notice to Franchisee, if Franchisee shall become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee or such a petition is filed against Franchisee and not opposed by Franchisee; or if Franchisee is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; or if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's business or assets is filed and consented to by Franchisee; or if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Franchisee's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; or if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law should be instituted by or against Franchisee.

B. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default and Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Franchisee:

(1) If Franchisee fails to: obtain Franchisor's approval of a site for the Restaurant by the Site Approval Deadline; commence construction of the Restaurant by the Construction Commencement Deadline; or construct, furnish, and open the Restaurant by the Opening Deadline;

(2) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee is convicted of a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of Franchisor, adversely to affect the System, the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress, the goodwill associated therewith, or Franchisor's interest therein;

(3) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee purports to transfer any interest in this Agreement, any rights hereunder, including but not limited to any rights to operate the Restaurant, franchise and license rights or obligations under this Agreement or to any interest in Franchisee to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Paragraph XV. of this Agreement;

(4) If Franchisee or any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Franchisee shall, without the prior written consent of Franchisor, make any transfer that alone or together with other previous, simultaneous or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in Franchisee to an entity or parent, subsidiary or affiliate thereof which is a competitor of Franchisor.

(5) If, contrary to the terms of Paragraph X. or XI. hereof, Franchisee discloses or divulges the contents of the Manual or other confidential information provided to Franchisee by Franchisor;

(6) If Franchisee knowingly maintains false books or records, or knowingly submits any false reports to Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee, or any shareholder or member of Franchisee, violates Paragraph IX. hereof by making any unauthorized use of any name, trademark, service mark, or other Proprietary Mark or Trade Dress of Franchisor;

(8) If Franchisee shall cause, suffer, or permit (voluntarily or involuntarily) its right to or possession of the premises on which the Restaurant is located to be terminated prematurely for any cause whatsoever; or if Franchisee shall be in material default under the lease for the premises on which the Restaurant is located, or shall be in material default under any mortgage with respect to the property on which the Restaurant is located, provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be in breach of this provision if a condemnation proceeding affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated occurs which makes it impossible or infeasible for Franchisee to continue to operate the Restaurant at its present location, and within thirty (30) days after the final condemnation determination Franchisee provides Franchisor with notice of its intention to open, and within one (1) year of the final condemnation determination opens, a substitute Restaurant on a new site approved by Franchisor;

(9) If Franchisee ceases to operate or otherwise abandons, or attempts to cease to operate or abandon, the Restaurant or enters into an agreement to sell, or sells, or purports or attempts to sell, the real property upon which the Restaurant is situated, or substantially all right, title and interest in and to the Restaurant or real property lease, or substantially all of the assets of Franchisee or of the Restaurant, without Franchisor's prior written consent; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, Franchisor may, in lieu of immediate termination of this Agreement, request from Franchisee, a statement of intentions and assurances that no event in breach of this Agreement is so contemplated, which statement and assurances shall be delivered in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of Franchisor's request. In addition Franchisor may request, and Franchisee shall provide within five (5) business days thereafter, a performance bond from Franchisee, the amount of such bond and the issuing entity to be solely at Franchisor's reasonable discretion.

(10) If any other Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement for Bojangles restaurants or any other agreements with Franchisor or its affiliates entered into by Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) is terminated based upon Franchisee's or its affiliates' (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee's or its affiliates') default thereunder;

(11) If Franchisee, after curing a default pursuant to Paragraph XVI.C. hereof, commits the same, or a substantially similar, default again within one hundred eighty (180) days after the prior default occurred, whether or not cured after notice;

(12) If Franchisee repeatedly is in default under Paragraph XVI.C. hereof for failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, whether or not cured after notice; or

C. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs XVI.A. and XVI.B. of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have ten (10) days for a monetary default and thirty (30) days for any other default after its receipt from Franchisor of a written notice of default within which to remedy any default hereunder and to provide evidence thereof to Franchisor. If any such default is not cured within that time, or such longer period as applicable law may require, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon Franchisee's receipt of notice from Franchisor after the expiration of the ten (10) day or thirty (30) day period, as applicable, or such longer period as applicable law may require. Franchisee shall be in default hereunder for any failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, including any matter enumerated in this Paragraph XVI.C., as it may from time to time reasonably be supplemented by the Manual, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Such defaults shall include, for example, but without limitation, the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects promptly to pay any monies owing to Franchisor or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates when due, or to submit the financial or other information required by Franchisor under this Agreement;

(2) If Franchisee fails to pay or fails repeatedly to make prompt payment of undisputed amounts due to its suppliers, landlord, equipment lessors, or other third parties;

(3) If Franchisee fails to maintain the Restaurant in a good, clean and wholesome manner, or fails to maintain or observe any of the other standards or procedures prescribed by Franchisor in this Agreement, the Manual, or otherwise in writing;

(4) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects to obtain Franchisor's prior written approval or consent as required by this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee denies Franchisor or its designee the right to inspect the Restaurant at reasonable times;

(6) If Franchisee engages in any business or markets any service or product under a name or mark which, in Franchisor's opinion, is confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks or uses the Trade Dress other than in connection with the Restaurant or uses any of Franchisor's products, procedures or methods in any other operation not authorized by Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee fails to comply with the interim covenants in Paragraph XVIII.A. hereof;

(8) If a final judgment against Franchisee remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless supersedeas bond is filed);

(9) If Franchisee is dissolved, execution is levied against Franchisee's business or property, suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Franchised Business or equipment situated therein is instituted against Franchisee and not dismissed or bonded off within sixty (60) days, or the real or personal property of the Franchised Business is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal or constable;

(10) If an approved transfer of a controlling interest in Franchisee is not effected within the prescribed period following the death or mental incapacity of a shareholder or member of Franchisee, as required by Paragraph XV.E. hereof; or

(11) If Franchisee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, or Restaurant managers fail to timely attend and successfully complete the initial training program or any other training programs required by Franchisor.

D. In the event that this Agreement is terminated and Franchisee contests the validity of the termination, the party that operates the Restaurant during the period commencing with the date that notice of termination was given and ending with the date upon which a final notice and nonappealable judgment resolving the issue is entered, shall operate the Restaurant for the benefit of the prevailing party in such contest, and shall account for, and pay over, any profits earned during said period to the other party, if such other party is the party that prevails.

XVII. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted hereunder to Franchisee shall forthwith terminate, and:

A. Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business, and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold itself out as a present or former franchisee of Franchisor.

B. Franchisee shall immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures and techniques associated with the System; the Proprietary Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, and devices and any Trade Dress associated with the System. In particular, Franchisee shall follow Franchisor's instructions to deidentify the Restaurant from the System, including removal or modification of structural features of the Restaurant including, but not limited to, the distinctive roof, interior and exterior color combinations and designs, and shall cease to use, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms, and any other articles which display the Proprietary Marks.

C. Franchisee shall take such action as may be necessary to cancel any assumed name or equivalent registration which contains any Proprietary Mark or any other service mark or trademark of Franchisor, and Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with evidence satisfactory to Franchisor of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

D. Franchisee agrees, in the event it continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception, or which is likely to dilute Franchisor's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks, and further agrees not to utilize any Trade Dress or designation of origin or description or representation which falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Franchisor constituting unfair competition.

E. Franchisee shall promptly pay all sums owing to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates. In the event of termination for any default of Franchisee, such sums shall include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor as a result of the default, which obligation shall give rise to and remain, until paid in full, a lien in favor of Franchisor against any and all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures, and inventory owned by Franchisee and on the premises operated hereunder at the time of default.

F. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Paragraph XVII.

G. Franchisee shall immediately deliver to Franchisor all manuals, including the Manual, records, files, instructions, correspondence, all materials related to operating the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, brochures, agreements, invoices, and any and all other materials relating to the operation of the Franchised Business in Franchisee's possession, and all copies thereof (all of which are acknowledged to be Franchisor's property), and shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing, except Franchisee's copy of this Agreement and of any correspondence between the parties and any other documents which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law.

H. Franchisee shall comply with any surviving covenants contained in Paragraph XVIII. of this Agreement.

XVIII. COVENANTS

A. Franchisee acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including, without limitation, information relating to the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System. Accordingly, Franchisee covenants that:

(1) During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation or limited liability company:

(a) Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Restaurant to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Trade Dress and the System; or

(b) Own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(i) Any restaurant business which: (a) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants; and (b) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction; or

(ii) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (a) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction, or (b) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

(2) During the continuing uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(a) Any restaurant business which: (i) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, and (ii) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement; or

(b) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (i) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, or (ii) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

(3) During the term of this Agreement and for a period of three (3) years from and after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, neither Franchisee nor any of its shareholders, members or affiliates shall engage in any food service operations at or from the site or facility at which the Restaurant is located, including but not limited to restaurant and catering services, that offer for sale products competing with Franchisor's primary products of chicken and/or biscuits.

B. Paragraph XVIII.A. shall not apply to ownership by Franchisee of less than two percent (2%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any corporation which is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

C. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Paragraph XVIII. is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Paragraph XVIII.

D. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Paragraph XVIII.A. or any portion thereof, without Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof; and Franchisee agrees that it shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

E. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have now or in the future against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Paragraph XVIII.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XVIII. would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XVIII.

G. At the request of Franchisor, Franchisee shall obtain and deliver to Franchisor executed covenants similar in substance to those set forth in this Paragraph XVIII. (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Franchisee) from the following persons: all officers or members with access to any of Franchisor's processes, procedures, recipes, specialized techniques or any other proprietary information of Franchisor, directors, or members and holders of the securities of Franchisee, and from any corporation, limited liability company or entity directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by Franchisee. Every covenant required by this Paragraph XVIII.F. shall be in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, including, without limitation, specific identification of Franchisor as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Failure by Franchisee to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Paragraph XVIII.F. or to deliver the covenant to Franchisor shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

XIX. FORCE MAJEURE

If the performance of any obligation under this Agreement is prevented or delayed, in whole or in part, by reason of force majeure, or the consequence thereof, affecting the parties hereto or the rights granted hereunder, such force majeure to include but not be limited to acts of God, fire, flood, governmental restrictions, lockouts or labor disputes, then the affected party shall be given such additional time as is reasonable to perform in view of the nature and extent of the force majeure.

XX. TAXES, PERMITS, AND INDEBTEDNESS

A. Franchisee shall promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including, without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Franchisee in the conduct of the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor an amount equal to any sales tax, gross receipts tax, or similar tax imposed on Franchisor with respect to any payments to Franchisor required under this Agreement, unless the tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by Franchisor.

B. In the event of any bona fide dispute as to Franchisee's liability for taxes assessed or other indebtedness, Franchisee may contest the validity or the amount of the tax or indebtedness in accordance with procedures of the taxing authority or applicable law; however, in no event shall Franchisee permit a tax sale or seizure by levy of execution or similar writ or warrant, or attachment by a creditor, to occur against the premises of the Franchised Business, or any improvements thereon.

C. Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations, and shall timely obtain any and all permits, certificates, or licenses necessary for the full and proper conduct of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, licenses to do business, fictitious name registrations, sales tax permits, and fire clearances.

D. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of the commencement of any action, suit, or proceeding, and of the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award, or decree of any court, agency, or other governmental instrumentality, which may adversely affect the operation or financial condition of the Franchised Business.

XXI. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, that Franchisee is an independent contractor, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Neither this Agreement nor Franchisor's course of conduct is intended, nor may anything in this Agreement (nor Franchisor's course of conduct) be construed to state or imply that Franchisor is the joint employer of Franchisee's employees and/or independent contractors, nor vice versa.

B. During the term of this Agreement and any extensions thereof, Franchisee shall hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the Franchised Business pursuant to a franchise from Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to take such action as may be necessary to do so, including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place in the Restaurant, the content of which Franchisor reserves the right to specify.

C. It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Agreement authorizes Franchisee to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on Franchisor's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in Franchisor's name, and that Franchisor shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder as a result of, any such action, or by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee in its conduct of the Franchised Business or any claim or judgment arising therefrom. Franchisee shall indemnify and hold Franchisor and Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders or members, and employees harmless against any and all claims arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with, Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, as well as the costs, including attorneys' fees, of defending against them.

XXII. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

A. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Franchisor, Franchisee shall make a timely written request to Franchisor therefor, and such approval or consent shall be obtained in writing.

B. Franchisor makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Franchisee may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Franchisee by providing any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion to Franchisee in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

C. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Franchisee under any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions hereof shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, duty, or power as against Franchisee, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Franchisee. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding breach by Franchisee of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

XXIII. NOTICES

All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (a) on the day delivered, if delivered personally or (b) three (3) business days after being mailed, if mailed first class, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, (c) one (1) business day after being mailed, if sent via a reputable overnight courier service, or (d) at the time delivered via computer transmission or electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission, addressed to the respective parties at the addresses shown on Exhibit A to this Agreement. Any party may give notice of a change of address by written notice given as provided in this paragraph.

XXIV. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements. No representations have induced Franchisee to execute this Agreement except for those contained in this Agreement, the exhibits and the Franchise Disclosure Document. No amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing; provided, however, that a writing signed by Franchisee need not be signed by any of its shareholders or members except to the extent, if any, that such writing would increase the amount of such shareholder's or member's financial obligations. Further, no modification, amendment, waiver, discharge or termination of any obligation of Franchisee, and no other matter or termination of any nature or kind whatsoever, including without limitation any release of Franchisee from any such obligation, shall release any shareholder or member of any guaranty obligation given or made by him under this Agreement or otherwise, whether or not such shareholder or member has notice thereof, all rights to notice or to consent being expressly waived hereby.

XXV. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

A. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable; and if, for any reason, any portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provisions herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible; and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

B. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Franchisee, Franchisor, Franchisor's officers, directors, and employees, and such of Franchisee's and Franchisor's respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by Paragraph XV. hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

C. Franchisee and each of its shareholders or members expressly agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which Franchisor is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

D. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

E. All references herein to the masculine, neuter, or singular shall be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter, or plural, where applicable, and all acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements, and obligations herein made or undertaken by Franchisee shall be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Franchisee.

F. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

XXVI. APPLICABLE LAW

A. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Franchisor in the State of North Carolina, and shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law; provided, however, that if any of the provisions of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of North Carolina, then such provisions shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which the principal office of Franchisee is located.

B. The parties agree that any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, shall be brought within the State of North Carolina and do hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

C. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Franchisee by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed to be, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

D. Nothing herein contained shall bar Franchisor's right to obtain injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause it loss or damages, under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions.

E. In the event of any action at law or in equity to secure or protect rights under or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable counsel fees together with court costs and expenses incurred in connection with the litigation.

F. THE PARTIES WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST EACH OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN THEM, EACH SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

G. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN, ANY CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR COLLECTIVE ACTION MATTERS, AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE, CLASS MEMBER OR AN OPT-IN PARTY, ACT AS A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL, OR JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS WITH CLAIMS OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY.

H. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, AND/OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY.

I. Except for payments owed by one party to the other, and unless prohibited by applicable law, any legal action or proceeding (including the offer and sale of a franchise to Franchisee) brought or instituted with respect to any dispute arising from or related to this Agreement or with respect to any breach of the terms of this Agreement must be brought or instituted within a period of two (2) years from the date on which the party asserting the claim knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the claim.

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, distinctive exterior and interior design, color schemes and layout, including specially designed decor and furnishings; a special selection of menu items largely prepared “from scratch”; procedures and techniques for food and beverage preparation; prompt and courteous service in a clean, wholesome atmosphere; methods of inventory, operating, cash and financial controls and systems for such controls; a training school utilizing special teaching techniques, course instruction and manuals; and unique advertising and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved, and further developed by Franchisor from time to time;

WHEREAS, Franchisor identifies the Bojangles System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to the marks “BOJANGLES®”, “BOJANGLES’®” and “BOJANGLES’ FAMOUS CHICKEN ‘N BISCUITS®”, and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated (and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing) for use in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Proprietary Marks”) and certain unique trade dress, including but not limited to specific color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout, now or hereafter used by Franchisor in connection with the Bojangles System (hereinafter referred to as “Trade Dress”);

WHEREAS, Franchisor continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks and Trade Dress in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed thereunder and under the Bojangles System, and to represent the Bojangles System’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service;

WHEREAS, Franchisee desires to renew its franchise to operate a Bojangles restaurant under the Bojangles System and wishes to obtain a franchise from Franchisor for that purpose, as well as to receive the training and other assistance provided by Franchisor in connection therewith; and

WHEREAS, Franchisee understands and acknowledges the importance of Franchisor’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service and the necessity of operating the business franchised hereunder in conformity with Franchisor’s standards and specifications.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments of each party to the other party set forth herein, hereby agree as follows:

I. GRANT

A. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee, upon the terms and conditions herein contained, a renewal of the right to operate a Bojangles restaurant, and Franchisee undertakes the obligation, to operate a Bojangles restaurant (hereinafter referred to as “Restaurant” or “Franchised Business”) and to use solely in connection therewith the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress and the Bojangles System, as they may be changed, improved, and further developed from time to time, only at the location set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

B. Franchisee acknowledges that this franchise is non-exclusive and is granted subject to the terms of Paragraph VII.C.(6) and VII.F.(6) hereof.

C. This Agreement supersedes and replaces the terms of any franchise agreement or license agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, or any of its predecessors for the franchise or license of a Bojangles restaurant at the location set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

II. TERM AND RENEWAL

A. Except as otherwise provided herein, the initial term of this Agreement shall expire ten (10) years from the Effective Date; provided, however, that if Franchisee’s approved location is leased, this Agreement shall expire at the earlier of ten (10) years from the Effective Date or upon expiration or termination of the initial term of the lease.

B. [Franchisee may, at its option, renew this Agreement for ____ (____) additional consecutive term of ____ (____) years, provided that Franchisee is in substantial compliance with the terms of this Agreement. In order to be eligible to renew this Agreement, Franchisee must meet the following conditions:

(1) Franchisee has given Franchisor written notice of its election to renew not less than six (6) months nor more than nine (9) months prior to the end of the applicable term;

(2) Franchisee has made or has provided for, in a manner satisfactory to Franchisor, such renovation and modernization of the Restaurant premises as Franchisor may reasonably require, including, without limitation, renovation of signs, furnishings, fixtures, and decor, to reflect the then-current standards and image of the Bojangles System.

(3) Franchisee has met Franchisor’s standards for renewal, including as set forth in the Manual or otherwise in writing, and must not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement between Franchisee and/or its affiliates and/or any of their respective beneficial owners and Franchisor and/or its affiliates either at the time of giving notice of renewal to Franchisor or during the remainder of the term of this Agreement;

(4) Franchisee has satisfied all monetary obligations owed by Franchisee to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates;

(5) Franchisee shall have presented satisfactory evidence that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the approved location for the applicable renewal term;

(6) Franchisee shall have executed Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and the terms of which may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty fee and advertising contribution; provided, however, that Franchisee shall pay, in lieu of a franchise fee, a renewal fee equal to fifty percent (50%) of the then-current franchise fee;

(7) Franchisee shall execute a general release, in a form prescribed by Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents, and employees; and

(8) Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's then-current qualification and training requirements.]

III. DUTIES OF FRANCHISOR

A. Franchisor shall make available such training programs as it deems appropriate. All training provided by Franchisor shall be subject to the terms set forth in Paragraph VI.E. of this Agreement.

B. Franchisor shall advise and consult with Franchisee in connection with the operation of the Restaurant and new developments, techniques and improvements in areas of restaurant management, food preparation, sales promotion and service. Franchisor may provide the foregoing assistance by sending its employees or representatives to the Restaurant, by providing publications, other written materials, electronic learning content, videos or by conducting meetings or seminars. Some or all of these publications or programs may be provided by electronic access by Franchisor and not by printed or physical documents.

C. Franchisor shall make available, from time to time, advice and assistance in local advertising and, at Franchisee's expense, promotional materials for local advertising by Franchisee. Franchisor shall have the right to review and approve or disapprove all advertising and promotional materials which Franchisee proposes to use, pursuant to Paragraph XI.F. hereof.

D. Franchisor shall develop advertising materials under the terms of Paragraph XI. hereof.

E. Unless previously provided, Franchisor shall provide to Franchisee, on loan, either one printed copy of the Manual as more fully described in Paragraph VIII. hereof ("Manual"), or provide Franchisee with electronic access to the Manual.

F. In the interest of maintaining high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service, Franchisor shall conduct, as it deems advisable, inspections of the Restaurant, and evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the Restaurant.

IV. FEES

A. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a franchise renewal fee at the time this Agreement is executed in the amount set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement, which sum shall be deemed fully earned and nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by Franchisor in renewing Franchisee's franchise and for Franchisor's lost or deferred opportunity to franchise others.

B. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a continuing monthly royalty fee in an amount equal to four percent (4%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant, as defined in Paragraph IV.E. hereof.

C. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a monthly advertising contribution, for use by the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund established by Franchisor, as provided in Paragraph XI.E. hereof, in an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant.

D. All monthly payments required by this Paragraph IV. shall be paid to Franchisor by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month on Gross Sales made during the preceding month, and shall be submitted to Franchisor together with any reports or statements required under Paragraph X.B. hereof.

E. Franchisor reserves the right to require that all monthly payments required by this Agreement be directly drafted by Franchisor from Franchisee's account. Any payment or report not actually received by Franchisor on or before such date shall be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid at the equivalent of one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Entitlement to such interest shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

F. As used in this Agreement, "Gross Sales" shall include all revenue from the sale of all services and products related to the Franchised Business, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit; provided, however, that "Gross Sales" shall not include any sales taxes or other taxes collected from customers by Franchisee for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority.

V. FRANCHISEE ORGANIZATION AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

A. Franchisee shall be a corporation or a limited liability company composed solely of no more than six (6) shareholders/members who are individuals and not corporations, limited liability companies or any other legal entities, and shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Franchisee shall be organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation or organization;

(2) Franchisee shall be qualified to do business in all states in which its business activities or the nature of the properties owned by it requires such qualification;

(3) Franchisee's Articles of Incorporation or Charter, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, Franchisee's Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement shall at all times provide that Franchisee was organized and has authority only to develop, own and operate Bojangles restaurants; and that Franchisee shall not engage or invest in any business other than development, ownership and operation of Bojangles restaurants;

(4) If Franchisee is a corporation, copies of Franchisee's Articles of Incorporation or Charter, Bylaws, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee is a limited liability company, copies of Franchisee's Articles of Organization, Operating Agreement, and other governing documents, and any amendments thereto, including the Consent of all limited liability company members authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be furnished to Franchisor on or before execution of this Agreement;

(6) Franchisee shall maintain stop-transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any equity securities; and each stock certificate of Franchisee, or other evidence of ownership if Franchisee is a limited liability company, shall have the following legend conspicuously endorsed upon its face:

The shares represented by this certificate, or other evidence of ownership if Franchisee is a limited liability company, are subject to the terms of an agreement dated [date] between [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] and BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC, which, inter alia, restricts transfer, restricts activities in which [name of issuing corporation or limited liability company] may engage, and imposes restrictions on shareholders or members.

(7) Franchisee shall not be owned by two (2) owners who each own fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests in Franchisee. Franchisee shall maintain a current list of all owners of record, including all members if Franchisee is a limited liability company, and all beneficial owners of any class of securities of Franchisee and shall furnish the list to Franchisor at such time as Franchisor may request.

B. As of the Effective Date, Franchisee shall have, with respect to the Restaurant, a ratio of debt to equity no greater than 1.5 to 1. Calculation of a debt to equity ratio for purposes hereof shall exclude equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of land and building, but shall include equity interests in, and debts incurred as a result of, the acquisition of equipment and inventory, training, franchise fees, start-up costs, initial point of purchase materials, landscaping, signage and prepaid expenses. Franchisee shall, prior to the execution of this Agreement, furnish Franchisor with evidence, satisfactory to Franchisor in its sole discretion, of its compliance with the requirement set forth in this paragraph.

VI. DUTIES OF FRANCHISEE

A. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that every detail of the Franchised Business is important to Franchisee, Franchisor, and other franchisees and developers of Franchisor, in order to develop and maintain high operating standards, to increase the demand for the services and products sold by all franchisees, and to protect Franchisor's reputation and goodwill.

B. Upon execution of this Agreement, Franchisee (on behalf of itself and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), and all other persons or entities acting on their behalf or claiming under any of them) (collectively, "Franchisee Releasers") hereby waives and releases any claims, whether known or unknown, which any Franchisee Releaser, may have against Franchisor and its parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, employees, successors, and assigns (in their corporate and individual capacities), individually, together and in any combination (collectively, the "Franchisor Parties") from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, vested or contingent, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which any or all of the Franchisee Releasers now own or hold, or have at any time owned or held, or may at any time own or hold against the Franchisor Parties, arising prior to and including the Effective Date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Claims"). Franchisee represents and warrants that: (1) it is aware that it may in the future learn of facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of this paragraph, but that nonetheless, it is its intention to fully, finally, and forever settle and release all Claims; and (2) it has not assigned any Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the Franchisee Releasers, further covenants not to sue any of the Franchisor Parties on any of the Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee agrees that fair consideration has been given by Franchisor for this release and it fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete, and final release of all Claims.

C. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as Franchisee's "Managing Owner", subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Managing Owner shall own a majority equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner. If Franchisee does not have an owner with a majority equity interest, the Managing Owner shall own the next highest percentage equity interest in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Managing Owner;

(2) The Managing Owner will be the person with whom Franchisor will communicate and will have the authority to bind Franchisee with respect to all financial, operational and legal matters related to the Franchised Business and this Agreement. The Managing Owner may also serve as Franchisee's Principal Operating Officer or Principal Operating Partner as defined below provided that the Managing Owner meets the criteria for both positions independently;

(3) The Managing Owner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Managing Owner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Managing Owner unless approved by Franchisor;
and

(6) The Managing Owner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Managing Owner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his/her obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Managing Owner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Managing Owner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee's replacement Managing Owner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Managing Owner.

D. Franchisee shall designate an individual to serve as the "Principal Operating Officer" of Franchisee, or if Franchisee is a limited liability company, it shall designate an individual to serve as "Principal Operating Partner" subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall own an equity interest of at least ten percent (10%) in Franchisee during the entire period s/he serves as Principal Operating Officer or Partner;

(2) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall devote full time and best efforts to the supervision and conduct of the Franchised Business and any other Bojangles restaurants which may be operated by Franchisee;

(3) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner must attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the initial training program offered by Franchisor;

(4) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall execute this Agreement, and shall be individually bound by all obligations of Franchisee hereunder;

(5) No person shall become a Principal Operating Officer or Partner unless approved by Franchisor; and

(6) The Principal Operating Officer or Partner as of the Effective Date is identified on Exhibit A. If the Principal Operating Officer or Partner is unable, or elects not, to continue to meet his obligations hereunder, or if, in Franchisor's sole discretion, the Principal Operating Officer or Partner no longer qualifies to act as such, Franchisee shall promptly designate another Principal Operating Officer or Partner subject to the same conditions and qualifications listed above. Franchisee's replacement Principal Operating Officer or Partner must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program within one hundred eighty (180) days after being appointed as Franchisee's Principal Operating Officer or Partner.

E. Franchisee agrees that it is important to the operation of the System and the Restaurant that Franchisee and Franchisee's employees receive such training as Franchisor may require, and to that end agrees as follows:

(1) At Franchisee's expense, Franchisee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, managers and other employees shall attend such courses, seminars, and other training programs as Franchisor may require from time to time. Franchisor shall provide instructors and training materials for all required training programs; and Franchisee or its employees shall be responsible for any and all other expenses incurred by them in connection with any training programs, including, without limitation, the cost of transportation, lodging, meals, and wages. Any person subsequently employed by Franchisee in the position of manager and each subsequent Managing Owner and Principal Operating Officer or Partner shall attend and successfully complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, such initial training program as Franchisor may require within one hundred eighty (180) days after being employed or appointed.

(2) Franchisee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, managers and other employees may also attend such optional training programs and seminars as Franchisor may offer from time to time. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor, for each person attending such a program, the training fee, if any, then charged by Franchisor. If any such training fee is imposed by Franchisor, the training fee shall be in addition to any other expenses incurred by the persons attending training as provided in Paragraph VI.E.(1) hereof.

F. Franchisee shall use the Restaurant premises solely for the operation of the Franchised Business; shall keep the Franchised Business open and in normal operation for such minimum hours and days as Franchisor may from time to time specify in the Manual or as Franchisor may otherwise approve in writing; and shall refrain from using or permitting the use of the premises for any other purpose or activity at any time without first obtaining the written consent of Franchisor.

G. Franchisee shall maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff, including at least one fully trained manager on duty at the Restaurant at all times, in sufficient numbers so as to operate the Restaurant efficiently and effectively. Franchisee shall hire all employees of the Restaurant and be exclusively responsible for the terms of their employment and compensation, and for the proper training of such employees in the operation of the Restaurant, in human resources and customer relations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions of the Restaurant including, without limitation, decisions or actions related to hiring, firing, training, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, scheduling benefits, recordkeeping, supervision, and discipline of employees, and such decisions or actions shall not be, nor be deemed to be, a decision or action of Franchisor. The parties agree that Franchisor shall not be deemed a joint employer with Franchisee for any reason. If Franchisor incurs any cost, expense, loss, or damage as a result of any actions or omissions of Franchisee or Franchisee's employees, including any that relate to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, Franchisee will fully indemnify Franchisor for such cost, expense, loss, or damage. Franchisee shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that its employees preserve good customer relations, wear uniforms of such color, design and other specifications as Franchisor may designate from time to time, present a neat and clean appearance, and render competent and courteous service to Restaurant customers.

H. Franchisee shall meet and maintain the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Restaurant.

I. To insure that the highest degree of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service is maintained, Franchisee shall operate the Restaurant in strict conformity with such methods, standards, and specifications as Franchisor may from time to time prescribe in the Manual or otherwise in writing. Franchisee agrees:

(1) To operate the Restaurant in a clean, wholesome manner in compliance with Franchisor's prescribed standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service;

(2) To maintain in sufficient supply, and to use at all times, only such ingredients, products, materials, supplies, and paper goods as conform with Franchisor's standards and specifications, and to refrain from deviating therefrom by the use or offer of nonconforming items, without Franchisor's prior written consent;

(3) To sell or offer for sale only such menu items, products, and services as have been expressly approved for sale in writing by Franchisor; to sell or offer for sale all types of menu items, products, and services specified by Franchisor; to refrain from any deviation from Franchisor's standards and specifications without Franchisor's prior written consent; and to discontinue selling and offering for sale any menu items, products, or services which Franchisor may, in its discretion, disapprove in writing at any time;

(4) To employ only those methods of food handling and preparation as Franchisor may specify in the Manual, or otherwise designate from time to time;

(5) To permit Franchisor or its agents, at any reasonable time, to remove samples of food or non-food items from Franchisee's inventory, or from the Restaurant, without payment therefor, in amounts reasonably necessary for testing by Franchisor or an independent laboratory to determine whether said samples meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications. In addition to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement, Franchisor may require Franchisee to bear the cost of such testing if the supplier of the item has not previously been approved by Franchisor or if the sample fails to conform with Franchisor's specifications; and

(6) To purchase and install, at Franchisee's expense, all fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, and signs as Franchisor may reasonably direct from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing; and to refrain from installing or permitting to be installed on or about the Restaurant premises, without Franchisor's prior written consent, any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor, signs, games, vending machines, or other items not previously approved as meeting Franchisor's standards and specifications.

J. Franchisee shall comply with all requirements of federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations.

K. Franchisee shall purchase all food items, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, supplies, materials, and other items used or offered for sale at the Restaurant solely from suppliers (including manufacturers, distributors and other sources) who demonstrate, to the continuing reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, the ability to meet Franchisor's then-current standards and specifications for such items; who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply Franchisee's needs promptly and reliably; and who have been approved in writing by Franchisor and not thereafter disapproved. If Franchisee desires to purchase any products from an unapproved supplier, Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor a written request for such approval, or shall request the supplier itself to do so, and Franchisor, in its sole discretion, shall determine whether such supplier shall be approved. Franchisor shall have the right to require that its representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered to Franchisor or to an independent laboratory designated by Franchisor for testing. A charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the inspection and the actual cost of the test shall be paid by Franchisee or the supplier. Franchisor reserves the right, at its option, to re-inspect the facilities and products of any such approved supplier and to revoke its approval upon the supplier's failure to continue to meet any of Franchisor's then-current criteria.

L. Franchisee shall require all advertising and promotional materials, signs, decorations, paper goods (including disposable food containers, napkins, and menus), all forms and stationery used in the Franchised Business, and other items which may be designated by Franchisor to bear the Proprietary Marks in the form, color, location, and manner prescribed by Franchisor.

M. Franchisee shall maintain the Restaurant in a high degree of sanitation, repair, and condition, and in connection therewith shall make such additions, alterations, repairs, and replacements thereto (but, if of a substantial nature, not without Franchisor's prior written consent) as may be required for that purpose, including, without limitation, such periodic repainting or replacement of signs, furnishings, equipment, and decor in the manner and at the times which Franchisor may reasonably direct; provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be required to undertake a major remodeling of the kitchen and interior and exterior decor of the Restaurant more than once in any five (5) year period.

N. Franchisee shall, where applicable, keep the parking area for the Restaurant well-lighted, and maintain the parking area for the exclusive use of Restaurant customers.

O. Franchisee shall grant Franchisor and its agents the right to enter upon the Restaurant premises at any time for the purpose of conducting inspections; shall cooperate with Franchisor's representatives in such inspections by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request; and, upon notice from Franchisor or its agents and without limiting Franchisor's other rights under this Agreement, shall take such steps as may be necessary to correct immediately any deficiencies detected during any such inspection. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to correct such deficiencies within a reasonable time as determined by Franchisor, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) to correct such deficiencies and to charge Franchisee a reasonable fee for Franchisor's expenses in so acting, payable by Franchisee immediately upon demand. The foregoing shall be in addition to such other remedies as Franchisor may have.

P. Without limiting any other provision or requirement of the Agreement, Franchisee agrees to sell only those beverage product brands specified by Franchisor, including all soft drinks and cola products. Franchisor specifically retains the right to make additions or changes to the beverage product brands offered by Franchisee.

Q. Franchisee agrees to utilize the e-mail address provided by Franchisor and to utilize the Bojangles electronic portal, and review its content regularly for purposes of receiving updates, notice of Manual or policy changes and other communications from Franchisor.

R. If Franchisee develops any new concepts, processes or improvements relating to the System, whether or not pursuant to a Franchisor authorized test, Franchisee promptly shall notify Franchisor and provide Franchisor with all information regarding the new concept, process or improvement, all of which shall become the property of Franchisor and its affiliates and which may be incorporated into the System without any payment to Franchisee. Franchisee, at its expense, promptly shall take all actions deemed necessary or desirable by Franchisor to vest in Franchisor all ownership of such concepts, processes or improvements. Franchisee shall not implement any new concept, process or improvement in the Restaurant without Franchisor's prior written approval. Testing of any new concept, process or improvement must be conducted under specified "test parameters" that may govern among other things the duration of the test and validation of results as set forth by Franchisor. Any testing of a new product, process or improvement must be deemed safe by Franchisor prior to implementation.

S. Franchisee shall comply with all other requirements set forth in this Agreement.

VII. PROPRIETARY MARKS AND TRADE DRESS

A. Franchisor represents with respect to the Proprietary Marks that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks;

(2) Franchisor has taken and will take all steps reasonably necessary to preserve and protect the ownership and validity in and of the Proprietary Marks; and

(3) Franchisor will permit Franchisee and other franchisees to use the Proprietary Marks only in accordance with the System and the standards and specifications attendant thereto which underlie the goodwill associated with and symbolized by the Proprietary Marks.

B. With respect to Franchisee's licensed use of the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that:

(1) Franchisee shall use only the Proprietary Marks designated by Franchisor, and shall use them only in the manner authorized and permitted by Franchisor;

(2) Franchisee shall use the Proprietary Marks only for the operation of the Franchised Business and only at the location authorized hereunder, or in advertising for the Franchised Business;

(3) Unless otherwise authorized or required by Franchisor in writing, Franchisee shall operate and advertise the Franchised Business only under the name "BOJANGLES®" Restaurant, "BOJANGLES'®" Restaurant or "BOJANGLES' FAMOUS CHICKEN 'N BISCUITS®" Restaurant, as specified by Franchisor, without prefix or suffix;

(4) During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall identify itself as the owner of the Franchised Business in conjunction with any use of the Proprietary Marks, including, but not limited to, uses on invoices, order forms, receipts, and contracts, and shall display a notice to that effect in such content and form and at such conspicuous locations on the premises of the Franchised Business as Franchisor may designate in writing;

(5) Franchisee's right to use the Proprietary Marks is limited to the term of this Agreement and shall automatically cease upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use thereof, including, but not limited to, sublicensing a use of the Proprietary Marks, shall constitute an infringement of Franchisor's rights and a default under this Agreement;

(6) During the term of this Agreement and continuing after its expiration or earlier termination, Franchisee shall not use the Proprietary Marks to incur any obligation or indebtedness on behalf of Franchisor;

(7) During the term of this Agreement and continuing after its expiration or earlier termination, Franchisee shall not use the Proprietary Marks as part of its corporate or other legal name;

(8) Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's instructions in filing and maintaining the requisite trade name or fictitious name registrations, and shall execute any documents deemed necessary by Franchisor or its counsel to obtain protection for the Proprietary Marks or to maintain their continued validity and enforceability; and

(9) In the event that litigation involving the Proprietary Marks is instituted or threatened against Franchisee, Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor. Franchisor shall conduct the defense, and bear the expense of such litigation, but shall be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in its sole discretion, it may decide upon. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with Franchisor in defending or settling such litigation.

C. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks and the goodwill associated with and symbolized by them;

(2) The Proprietary Marks are valid and serve to identify the System and those who are authorized to operate under the System;

(3) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Franchisor's ownership of the Proprietary Marks;

(4) Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Proprietary Marks, except pursuant to the license granted by this Agreement;

(5) Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks in its franchised operation under the System shall inure solely and exclusively to Franchisor's benefit, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the System or the Proprietary Marks; and

(6) The right and license of the Proprietary Marks granted hereunder to Franchisee is nonexclusive, and Franchisor and its affiliates thus have and retain the rights, among others:

(a) To use the Proprietary Marks itself in connection with selling products and services;

(b) To grant other licenses for the Proprietary Marks, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees;

(c) To purchase, merge with, acquire or become associated with any business of any kind under other systems and/or trademarks and/or develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Proprietary Marks, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee; and

(d) To sell the same or similar products that are authorized for sale at Bojangles Restaurants under the Proprietary Marks or under other trademarks or trade dress and through any other channel of distribution, whether such channel of distribution is now in existence or is hereafter developed and whether at retail or wholesale including, without limitation, sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, carts or kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets, grocery stores, restaurants, institutional customers, ghost kitchens, club stores and any other outlet or method of distribution, pursuant to any terms and conditions as Franchisor may deem appropriate.

(7) Franchisor reserves the right to substitute different Proprietary Marks for use in identifying the System and the businesses operating thereunder.

D. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that Franchisor has developed certain unique Trade Dress as part of the Bojangles System, including but not limited to color schemes, patterns, designs, decor, furnishings and layout.

E. With respect to Franchisee's licensed use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that:

(1) Franchisees shall use only the Trade Dress designated by Franchisor, and shall use it only in the manner authorized and permitted by Franchisor.

(2) Franchisee shall use the Trade Dress only for the operation of the Franchised Business and only at the location authorized hereunder or in advertising for the Franchised Business.

(3) Franchisee's right to use the Trade Dress is limited to the term of this Agreement and shall automatically cease upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use thereof, including but not limited to sublicensing a use of the Trade Dress, shall constitute an infringement of Franchisor's rights and a default under this Agreement.

(4) In the event that litigation involving the Trade Dress is instituted or threatened against Franchisee, Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor. Franchisor shall conduct the defense, and bear the expense of such litigation, but shall be entitled to settle or otherwise dispose of the litigation on terms which, in its sole discretion, it may decide upon. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with Franchisor in defending or settling such litigation.

F. Franchisee expressly understands and acknowledges that:

(1) Franchisor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Trade Dress and the goodwill associated with and symbolized by it;

(2) The Trade Dress is valid and serves to identify the System and those who are authorized to operate under the System;

(3) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity or Franchisor's ownership of the Trade Dress;

(4) Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Trade Dress, except pursuant to the license granted by this Agreement;

(5) Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Trade Dress in its franchised operation under the System shall inure solely and exclusively to Franchisor's benefit, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the System or the Trade Dress; and

(6) The right and license of the Trade Dress granted hereunder to Franchisee is nonexclusive, and Franchisor thus has and retains the rights, among others:

(a) To use the Trade Dress itself in connection with selling products and services;

(b) To grant other licenses for the Trade Dress, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees; and

(c) To develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Trade Dress, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises thereto without providing any rights therein to Franchisee.

G. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph VII. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph VII.

VIII. CONFIDENTIAL MANUAL

A. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor and to maintain high standards of operation under Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Franchisee shall conduct its business in accordance with the Manual, one copy of which Franchisee acknowledges having received by electronic access or written copy on loan from Franchisor for the term of this Agreement. The Manual shall include manuals, memoranda, procedures, policies and other communications created by Franchisor that are posted on the Bojangles electronic portal or otherwise communicated to Franchisee in writing by email or hardcopy, whether or not noted as "Manual". If a posting is made to the Bojangles electronic portal, Franchisee shall be deemed to have notice of any changes or supplements to the Manual. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any required standards set forth in this Agreement and the Manual exist to protect Franchisor's interests in the System and the Proprietary Marks and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to Franchisee (including the day-to-day operation of the Restaurant and the conduct and management of Franchisee's employees).

B. Franchisee shall at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Franchised Business, and the information contained therein, as confidential, and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, nor otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person.

C. The Manual shall at all times remain the sole property of Franchisor.

D. Franchisor may from time to time revise the contents of the Manual, and Franchisee expressly agrees to comply with each new or changed standard.

E. Franchisee shall continuously review changes to the Manual as posted on the Bojangles electronic portal, and to otherwise keep current with the Manual. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by Franchisor at Franchisor's home office shall be controlling.

IX. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

A. Franchisee shall not, during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of any other person, persons, partnership, association, corporation or limited liability company any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Franchised Business which may be communicated to Franchisee or of which Franchisee may be apprised by virtue of Franchisee's operation under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee shall divulge such confidential information only to such of its employees as must have access to it in order to operate the Franchised Business, and Franchisee shall take such precautions as Franchisor deems necessary to ensure that Franchisee's employees retain such information in confidence. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement, except information which Franchisee can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Franchisor; or which, at the time of disclosure by Franchisor to Franchisee, had become a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others; or which, after disclosure to Franchisee by Franchisor, becomes a part of the public domain, through publication or communication by others.

B. Franchisee hereby acknowledges that pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisor will provide Franchisee with access to and training in processes and procedures of a proprietary nature and will provide Franchisee with access to and the right to use recipes and formulas, the Manual, logos, designs, trademarks, trade names and other proprietary information in connection with Franchisee's development and operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee shall not at any time, whether during the term of this Agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, disclose any information obtained through such training or from any materials provided by Franchisor to Franchisee and pertaining to the Bojangles System to any third party other than employees of Franchisee directly involved in the operations of the Restaurant. Further, Franchisee agrees that during the term of this Agreement and after its expiration or earlier termination, it shall not use any of such information or proprietary marks, including but not limited to any processes, procedures, recipes and formulas, for any purpose other than the operation of the Restaurant and will take all steps necessary to prevent any other use of them. Without limiting the foregoing, Franchisee specifically agrees that it shall not during the term of this agreement or after its expiration or earlier termination, offer for sale at any location, other than during the term of this Agreement the Restaurant being operated at that time pursuant to this Agreement, any food or drink products prepared using in whole or part the procedures, processes, techniques, recipes or formulas provided by Franchisor to Franchisee.

C. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph IX. will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph IX.

X. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS

A. Franchisee shall maintain during the term of this Agreement, and shall preserve for at least five (5) years from the dates of their preparation, full, complete, and accurate books, records, and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in the form and manner prescribed by Franchisor from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

B. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor, no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month during the term of this Agreement, after the opening of the Franchised Business, a statistical report and statement of receipts, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, accurately reflecting all Gross Sales during the preceding month and such other data or information as Franchisor may require.

C. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, submit to Franchisor, in the form prescribed by Franchisor, an unaudited balance sheet of the Franchised Business and a statement of profit or loss for the preceding quarter within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter of Franchisee's fiscal year. Each such statement shall be signed by Franchisee's treasurer or chief financial officer attesting that it is true and correct.

D. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, provide to Franchisor a statement of profit or loss and a year-end balance sheet prepared and certified by Franchisee's chief financial officer and, upon written request by Franchisor, by an independent certified public accountant satisfactory to Franchisor, within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Franchised Business during the term hereof, showing the results of operations of the Franchised Business during said fiscal year. Franchisee's chief financial officer shall attest that the financial statements present fairly the financial position of Franchisee and the results of operations of the Franchised Business during the period covered. Franchisor shall have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to require that Franchisee submit audited statements for any fiscal year or any period or periods of a fiscal year of Franchisee during the term of this Agreement, and to require Franchisee to cause its independent certified public accountant to consult with Franchisor, at Franchisee's expense, concerning the financial statements provided by Franchisee.

E. Franchisee and its shareholders shall also submit to Franchisor, for review or auditing, such other forms, reports, records, information, and data as Franchisor may reasonably designate, in the form and at the times and places reasonably required by Franchisor, upon request and as specified from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing.

F. Franchisor or its designated agents shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine and copy, at Franchisor's expense, the books, records, and tax returns of Franchisee. Franchisor shall also have the right, at any time, to have an independent audit made of the books of Franchisee. If an inspection should reveal that any payments have been understated in any report to Franchisor, then Franchisee shall immediately pay to Franchisor the amount understated upon demand, in addition to interest from the date such amount was due until paid, at one and one-half percent (1½%) per month compounded monthly, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If an inspection discloses an understatement in any report of five percent (5%) or more, Franchisee shall, in addition, reimburse Franchisor for any and all costs and expenses connected with the inspection (including, without limitation, reasonable accounting and attorneys' fees). The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XI. ADVERTISING

Recognizing the value of advertising, and the importance of the standardization of advertising programs to the furtherance of the goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, the parties agree as follows:

A. Franchisee shall spend not less than three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Franchised Business on local and regional media advertising, in addition to any advertising contribution required under Paragraphs IV.C. and XI.E. hereof. Franchisee shall demonstrate on a quarterly basis, to the reasonable satisfaction of Franchisor, that Franchisee has made such expenditures. Such advertising shall include radio, television, magazine, newspaper, billboard campaigns, print, direct mail and other forms of advertising media and public relations activities but shall not include the costs of advertising production, production of other marketing materials, cost of food promotion, point of purchase materials, telephone book advertising, stationery, or restaurant indoor or outdoor site location signs.

B. Recognizing the value of cooperative national and regional advertising and marketing, and the importance of standardizing such programs to further enhance the national goodwill and public image of the Bojangles System, Franchisor reserves the right and may in its sole discretion require Franchisee to participate along with other franchisees in regional cooperative advertising organizations or programs, established from time to time currently or in the future by Franchisor or by other franchisees for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Bojangles System. In the event of the formation of such cooperative advertising groups, and Franchisee's participation therein, Franchisor shall permit Franchisee to credit a portion of the amount required to be expended for local and regional advertising in Paragraph XI.A. above to any regional program established by any such cooperative arrangement.

C. If Franchisee has failed to make or report the expenditure of the three percent (3%) of Gross Sales as required in Paragraph XI.A. above in any quarter or if Franchisee shall fail to participate in a cooperative advertising program after request by Franchisor as required in Paragraph XI.B. above, Franchisee shall thereafter, after written notice by Franchisor, pay to Franchisor three percent (3%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant. Franchisor may then in its sole discretion contribute such amounts to any franchisee cooperative organization that operates in part or all of Franchisee's market area or Franchisor may expend such funds to create advertising that in Franchisor's sole determination will promote the Proprietary Marks and/or System in Franchisee's market area.

D. Franchisor may offer from time to time to provide, upon Franchisee's request and at Franchisee's expense, approved local advertising and promotional plans and materials.

E. Franchisee agrees to make contributions to the Bojangles Marketing Development Fund (hereinafter "Fund") as required under Paragraph IV.C. hereof. The Fund shall be maintained and administered by Franchisor or its designee, as follows:

(1) Franchisor shall direct the creation of all advertising programs, with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that the Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the trade names, trademarks, and service marks which are designated as part of the System for the benefit of the System through research and the creation of marketing materials; and that Franchisor and its designee undertake no obligation, in administering the Fund, to make expenditures which are equivalent or proportionate to a franchisee's contribution, or to insure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from Fund expenditures. Franchisee is aware that there may be some franchisees operating under different forms of agreement and who may not be required to make payments into the Fund equivalent to Franchisee's payments.

(2) Franchisor shall, for each of its company-owned Bojangles restaurants, make contributions to the Fund equivalent to the contributions required of comparable franchised Bojangles restaurants within the Bojangles System so that Franchisor's average contribution for each company-owned Restaurant will be equal to the average contribution per franchisee-owned Restaurant. This average per Restaurant contribution for franchisee-owned Restaurants will be calculated by dividing the total contributions of franchisees to the Fund by the total number of franchisee-owned Restaurants. Franchisor's total contribution to the Fund will equal this average

(3) All contributions to the Fund shall be used exclusively for advertising and promotion of the Bojangles System (including, without limitation, the cost of preparing and conducting television, radio, print, and billboard advertising campaigns and other public relations activities; conducting research; employing advertising agencies and other specialists to assist therein; and preparing and providing promotional brochures and other point of purchase marketing materials to franchisees in the Bojangles System). All sums paid by Franchisee and other franchisees to the Fund shall not be used to defray any of Franchisor's general operating expenses except for such reasonable administrative expenses and overhead, if any, as Franchisor may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs, including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing marketing and advertising materials, and collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund.

F. All advertising by Franchisee in any medium shall be conducted in a dignified manner and shall conform to such standards and requirements as Franchisor may specify from time to time in writing. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor (through the mail, return receipt requested, electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission or through next business day delivery), for its prior written approval, samples of all advertising and promotional plans and materials that Franchisee desires to use and that have not been prepared or previously approved by Franchisor. Franchisee shall not use any advertising or promotional plans and materials that have not received Franchisor's prior written approval. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Franchisor may establish or introduce certain national, regional, or local promotions, campaigns, contests, special or limited offers, and other programs, including as related to new products, services or other programs (collectively, the "Special Promotions"). Franchisor will consult with Franchisor's Franchise Advisory Council regarding upcoming Special Promotions. Franchisee shall comply with Franchisor's implementation requirements regarding the Special Promotions. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for any costs and expenses associated with the Special Promotions, including the purchase of any inventory or supplies needed or required to implement the Special Promotions. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Special Promotions.

G. Franchisor may require Franchisee to participate in multi-channel marketing platforms approved by Franchisor (the "Multi-Channel Programs"). The Multi-Channel Programs will require Franchisee's cooperation and participation, including, without limitation, Franchisee refraining from certain channels of marketing and distribution, and Franchisee's payment of commissions or referral fees. Franchisor will designate the multi-channel platform, method and timing of payment, and any outside agencies for the Multi-Channel Programs. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee will comply with any price restriction that Franchisor may promulgate in connection with the Multi-Channel Programs.

XII. INSURANCE

A. Franchisee shall maintain insurance in force as follows:

(1) Worker's compensation in an amount at least in the statutory requirements for the state in which the Restaurant is located, with employers' liability limits of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) per occurrence for bodily injury by accident and disease;

(2) Comprehensive general liability insurance, including products liability and broad form contractual liability insurance in an amount of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) per occurrence. Franchisee's liability coverage may be primary and non-contributory. Insurance carriers must be an insurance company with at least an A- class rating and VIII financial size according to A.M. Best and if not available then according to Moody's or Standard and Poor's.

(3) Property insurance on ISO special form, covering the building with 100% replacement cost coverage, less a commercially reasonable deductible. Coverage must include flood and earthquake if the location is in a high hazard zone.

(4) All policies of insurance, including general liability insurance, shall name Bojangles Opco, LLC, Bojangles' Restaurants Inc. (in its capacity as Manager under a Management Agreement with Bojangles Opco, LLC), and their respective affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective partners, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, representatives, and employees as additional insureds or loss payees, as may be applicable, on the policies; shall provide that the policy cannot be cancelled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Franchisor; and shall specify that copies of all notices shall be sent to Franchisor. Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with copies of all policies or certificates evidencing insurance in force as required herein. Evidence of payment of premiums shall be delivered to Franchisor at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration dates of each existing insurance policy; and

(5) Such additional insurance covering such additional risks or providing such higher limits as Franchisor may reasonably request.

B. Should Franchisee, for any reason, fail to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, as such requirements may be revised from time to time by Franchisor in the Manual or otherwise in writing, Franchisor shall have the right and authority (without, however, any obligation to do so) immediately to procure such insurance and to charge same to Franchisee, which charges, together with a reasonable fee for Franchisor's time and expenses in so acting, shall be payable by Franchisee immediately upon notice. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies Franchisor may have.

XIII. TRANSFER

A. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity.

B. Transfer by Franchisee of the right to operate the restaurant, or any interest in this Agreement, in the franchise rights and license rights, and/or in Franchisee are limited as follows:

(1) Franchisee's authority to transfer any interest under this Agreement is also subject to the terms of any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee, including a development agreement, which may impose additional conditions and limitations on Franchisee's right to transfer its interest under this Agreement.

(2) Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and its shareholders or members, and that Franchisor has granted this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill and financial capacity, and the business skill, financial capacity and personal character of Franchisee's shareholders or members. Accordingly, neither Franchisee nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement, nor any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other legal entity which directly or indirectly owns any interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee shall sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise encumber any direct or indirect interest in the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder or any obligations hereunder, or in Franchisee without the prior written consent of Franchisor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any such proposed transfer shall be subject, where applicable, to Franchisor's option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XIII.C. herein. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of Franchisor required by this Paragraph XIII.B.(2) shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which Franchisor may then terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph XIV.B. of this Agreement.

(3) If a transfer, alone or together with other previous, simultaneous, or proposed transfers, would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement, or in the franchise rights or license rights granted hereunder, or in Franchisee, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, if it does not elect to exercise its option to purchase set forth in Paragraph XIII.C. herein, require any or all of the following as conditions of its approval:

(a) All of Franchisee's accrued and outstanding monetary obligations to third parties and all accrued and outstanding obligations to Franchisor, or any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Franchisor shall have been satisfied;

(b) Franchisee shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereto or successor hereof, or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates;

(c) The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its officers, directors, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances; and shall agree to remain liable to Franchisor for all affirmative obligations, covenants, and agreements contained herein for two (2) years following the effective date of transfer (or, if transferor retains a purchase money interest in the transferred business, for a period greater than two (2) years, until the interest is extinguished) or for such shorter period as Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, determine;

(d) The transferee shall enter into a written assignment, under seal and in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement; and, if the obligations of Franchisee were guaranteed by the transferor, the transferee shall guarantee the performance of all such obligations in writing in a form satisfactory to Franchisor;

(e) The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the transferee meets Franchisor's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business herein (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Franchised Business;

(f) At Franchisor's option, the transferee shall execute (and/or, upon Franchisor's request, shall cause all interested parties to execute), for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, the then-current standard form of franchise agreement being offered to new System franchisees and other ancillary agreements, including a guarantee of such agreement executed by all shareholders of the transferee, as Franchisor may require for the Franchised Business, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which agreements may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty rate and advertising contribution; provided, however, that the transferee shall not be required to pay an initial franchise fee;

(g) At Franchisor's sole discretion, the transferee, at its expense, shall upgrade the Restaurant to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of System restaurants, and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time specified by Franchisor;

(h) Franchisee shall remain liable for all of its obligations to Franchisor in connection with the Franchised Business prior to the effective date of the transfer, and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability;

(i) At the transferee's expense, transferee's Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, and managers, shall complete any training and certification programs then in effect for franchisees upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor may reasonably require; and

(j) Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a transfer fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Restaurant, which constitutes Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting expenses) in connection with Franchisor's review of the application to transfer.

(4) Franchisee shall grant no security interest in this Agreement or in the Franchised Business (other than a pledge of assets to secure a bona fide loan made or credit extended in connection with acquisition of the assets pledged) unless the secured party agrees that in the event of any default by Franchisee under any documents related to the security interest, Franchisor shall have the right and option to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to such secured party.

(5) Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that each condition which must be met by transferee is necessary to assure such transferee's full performance of the obligations hereunder.

C. Franchisor shall have the option to purchase any interest in the Restaurant or this Agreement as follows:

(1) Any party holding any direct or indirect interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement or in Franchisee who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a party other than Franchisor to purchase such interest, if a transfer of that interest alone or together with other previous, simultaneous or proposed transfers would have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Restaurant, in this Agreement, or in Franchisee, shall provide Franchisor with all of the terms of the proposed transfer in writing at least sixty (60) days prior to the proposed date of transfer. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of all documentation necessary, in Franchisor's sole but reasonable opinion, to evaluate the terms of the proposed transfer, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party, net of any finders or brokers fees which any third party would be obligated to pay. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, closing on such purchase must occur within thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor does not exercise its option to purchase, Franchisee or shareholders of Franchisee may proceed to consummate a transfer to a third party if they have complied with the conditions of this Paragraph XIII. If Franchisor did not exercise its option to purchase, any material change in the terms of the third party's offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same option to purchase by Franchisor as in the case of an initial offer. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Paragraph XIII.C. shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Paragraph XIII. with respect to a proposed transfer.

(2) In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that Franchisor is not in a position to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then Franchisor may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash.

D. Upon the death or mental incapacity of any person with a direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in Franchisee, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall transfer the interest to a third party, including shareholder(s) or member(s) of Franchisee, approved by Franchisor within twelve (12) months after such death or mental incapacity, or, if legal proceedings make transfer within twelve (12) months not feasible, within such longer period as may be reasonable under the circumstances. Such transfer, including, without limitation, transfer by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. If an approved transfer has not been made within the aforementioned period, Franchisor shall have the option to purchase the Franchised Business at fair market value, and thereupon terminate this Agreement. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase the Franchised Business and terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, closing of the transaction shall take place as promptly as possible after Franchisor exercises its option to purchase, and the parties reach agreement concerning the fair market value of the Franchised Business. Payment will be made in four (4) installments, the first of which shall be made at the time of closing and the remaining three (3) installments shall each be made at one (1) year intervals from the date of the first payment. Interest shall be payable on the unpaid portion of the purchase price on the due date of each installment of principal at the prime rate of Bank of America on the date of Franchisor's election to purchase the Franchised Business. If the parties are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Franchised Business, then the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration in Charlotte, North Carolina, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

E. Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Franchisee, rights to operate the Restaurant, interest in this Agreement or any license or franchise rights granted hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XIII. will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XIII.

XIV. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

A. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein shall automatically terminate without notice to Franchisee, if Franchisee shall become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee or such a petition is filed against Franchisee and not opposed by Franchisee; or if Franchisee is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; or if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's business or assets is filed and consented to by Franchisee; or if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Franchisee's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; or if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law should be instituted by or against Franchisee.

B. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default and Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Franchisee:

(1) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee is convicted of a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of Franchisor, adversely to affect the System, the Proprietary Marks, the Trade Dress, the goodwill associated therewith, or Franchisor's interest therein;

(2) If Franchisee or any shareholder or member of Franchisee purports to transfer any interest in this Agreement, any rights hereunder, including but not limited to any rights to operate the Restaurant, franchise and license rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Franchisee to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Paragraph XIII. of this Agreement;

(3) If, contrary to the terms of Paragraph VIII. or IX. hereof, Franchisee discloses or divulges the contents of the Manual or other confidential information provided to Franchisee by Franchisor;

(4) If Franchisee knowingly maintains false books or records, or knowingly submits any false reports to Franchisor;

(5) If Franchisee, or any shareholder or member of Franchisee, violates Paragraph VII. hereof by making any unauthorized use of any name, trademark, service mark, or other Proprietary Mark or Trade Dress of Franchisor;

(6) If Franchisee shall cause, suffer, or permit (voluntarily or involuntarily) its right to or possession of the premises on which the Restaurant is located to be terminated prematurely for any cause whatsoever; or if Franchisee shall be in material default under the lease for the premises on which the Restaurant is located, or shall be in material default under any mortgage with respect to the property on which the Restaurant is located, provided, however, that Franchisee shall not be in breach of this provision if a condemnation proceeding affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated occurs which makes it impossible or infeasible for Franchisee to continue to operate the Restaurant at its present location, and within thirty (30) days after the final condemnation determination Franchisee provides Franchisor with notice of its intention to open, and within one (1) year of the final condemnation determination opens, a substitute Restaurant on a new site approved by Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee ceases to operate or otherwise abandons, or attempts to cease to operate or abandon, the Restaurant or enters into an agreement to sell, or sells, or purports or attempts to sell, the real property upon which the Restaurant is situated, or substantially all right, title and interest in and to the Restaurant or real property lease, or substantially all of the assets of Franchisee or of the Restaurant, without Franchisor's prior written consent; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events, Franchisor may, in lieu of immediate termination of this Agreement, request from Franchisee, a statement of intentions and assurances that no event in breach of this Agreement is so contemplated, which statement and assurances shall be delivered in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of Franchisor's request. In addition Franchisor may request, and Franchisee shall provide within five (5) business days thereafter, a performance bond from Franchisee, the amount of such bond and the issuing entity to be solely at Franchisor's reasonable discretion.

(8) If any other Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement for Bojangles restaurants or any other agreements with Franchisor or its affiliates entered into by Franchisee or its affiliates (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee or its affiliates) is terminated based upon Franchisee's or its affiliates' (or any beneficial owner(s) of Franchisee's or its affiliates') default thereunder;

(9) If Franchisee, after curing a default pursuant to Paragraph XIV.C. hereof, commits the same, or a substantially similar, default again within one hundred eighty (180) days after the prior default occurred, whether or not cured after notice; or

(10) If Franchisee repeatedly is in default under Paragraph XIV.C. hereof for failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, whether or not cured after notice.

C. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs XIV.A. and XIV.B. of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have ten (10) days for a monetary default and thirty (30) days for any other default after its receipt from Franchisor of a written notice of default within which to remedy any default hereunder and to provide evidence thereof to Franchisor. If any such default is not cured within that time, or such longer period as applicable law may require, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon Franchisee's receipt of notice from Franchisor after the expiration of the ten (10) day or thirty (30) day period, as applicable, or such longer period as applicable law may require. Franchisee shall be in default hereunder for any failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, including any matter enumerated in this Paragraph XIV.C., as it may from time to time reasonably be supplemented by the Manual, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Such defaults shall include, for example, but without limitation, the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects promptly to pay any monies owing to Franchisor or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates when due, or to submit the financial or other information required by Franchisor under this Agreement;

(2) If Franchisee fails to pay or fails repeatedly to make prompt payment of undisputed amounts due to its suppliers, landlord, equipment lessors, or other third parties;

(3) If Franchisee fails to maintain the Restaurant in a good, clean and wholesome manner, or fails to maintain or observe any of the other standards or procedures prescribed by Franchisor in this Agreement, the Manual, or otherwise in writing;

(4) If Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects to obtain Franchisor's prior written approval or consent as required by this Agreement;

(5) If Franchisee denies Franchisor or its designee the right to inspect the Restaurant at reasonable times;

(6) If Franchisee engages in any business or markets any service or product under a name or mark which, in Franchisor's opinion, is confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks or uses the Trade Dress other than in connection with the Restaurant or uses any of Franchisor's products, procedures or methods in any other operation not authorized by Franchisor;

(7) If Franchisee fails to comply with the in-term covenants in Paragraph XVI.A. hereof;

(8) If a final judgment against Franchisee remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless supersedeas bond is filed);

(9) If Franchisee is dissolved, execution is levied against Franchisee’s business or property, suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Franchised Business or equipment situated therein is instituted against Franchisee and not dismissed or bonded off within sixty (60) days, or the real or personal property of the Franchised Business is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal or constable;

(10) If an approved transfer of a controlling interest in Franchisee is not effected within the prescribed period following the death or mental incapacity of a shareholder or member of Franchisee, as required by Paragraph XIII.D. hereof; or

(11) If Franchisee’s Managing Owner, Principal Operating Officer or Partner, or Restaurant managers fail to timely attend and successfully complete any training programs required by Franchisor.

D. In the event that this Agreement is terminated on account of Franchisee’s default, Franchisor shall have the option, within sixty (60) days after the date of termination (or longer if the provisions of Paragraph XIV.D.(3) are applicable), to purchase or lease the Franchised Business subject to the following terms and subject to the terms of the Development Agreement entered into between Franchisee and Franchisor:

(1) If Franchisee leases the Restaurant building and land on which the Restaurant is situated, Franchisor shall have the right to purchase the leasehold and other assets owned by Franchisee relating to the Restaurant for an amount equal to the higher of (i) the net tangible book value (which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements) of the assets owned by Franchisee relating to the Restaurant, including the leasehold improvements, equipment, inventory and supplies, and excluding unamortized franchise and development fees, good will and all other intangible assets; or (ii) an amount calculated as follows:

A	B	C
If Gross Sales for the Restaurant for the 12 months immediately preceding termination are:	Multiply the Gross Sales by:	and subtract the following from the product of A and B:
up to $750,000	$.40	All debts and liabilities of Franchisee to Franchisor, or to third parties (excluding lease obligations to third parties) which are being assumed by Franchisor.
$900,001 or more	$.55

The amount as computed above shall be payable twenty percent (20%) on closing with the principal balance payable in three (3) equal payments due annually on the anniversary of the purchase with interest on the unpaid principal balance payable on the due date of each principal payment at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum. Undisclosed or matured contingent liabilities which are paid by Franchisor after payment of the twenty percent (20%) down shall be deducted from the next installment(s) due, together with interest thereon from the date paid at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum over the prime rate of Bank of America on the date such payment is made.

(2) If Franchisee owns the land on which the Restaurant to be purchased by Franchisor is situated, Franchisor shall have the right, at its discretion, either to purchase or lease the land and Restaurant building. If Franchisor elects to purchase, Franchisee shall sell the land, building, equipment, inventory, and supplies to Franchisor at the higher of (i) their depreciated net tangible book value, which shall be the cost of the Restaurant building, land and equipment reduced by accumulated depreciation, utilizing the straight-line method of depreciation using a useful life of 5 years for all equipment, 7 years for seating and decor, 10 years for signs, paving and HVAC and 20 years for the building and other improvements, or (ii) an amount to be determined in accordance with the table in Paragraph XIV.D.(1) above. If Franchisor elects to lease, Franchisee shall lease the land and building to Franchisor on Franchisor's then-standard lease form for Bojangles restaurant sites operated by Franchisor, and Franchisor shall purchase the equipment, inventory and supplies at their depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above. Net annual rental payments (payable monthly after taxes and expenses) shall be equal to the higher of fourteen percent (14%) of the depreciated net tangible book value, as defined above, of the land and Restaurant building, or six and one-half percent (6½%) of Gross Sales to the extent that Gross Sales do not exceed the amount of Gross Sales for the twelve (12) months preceding the commencement of occupancy by Franchisor, and five percent (5%) of Gross Sales that exceed that amount.

(3) Franchisor shall exercise its right to purchase the Franchised Business by the later of sixty (60) days after the date of termination, the date it takes possession of the Restaurant pursuant to Paragraph XIV.E. hereof, or ten (10) days after the date upon which any litigation contesting the validity of the termination is finally adjudicated. If Franchisor has taken possession of the Restaurant, it shall exercise its right to purchase the Restaurant or vacate the premises by the end of the foregoing period.

E. In order to maintain continuous operation of the Restaurant and to promote the best interests of the System, in the event this Agreement is terminated, Franchisor shall have the right immediately upon termination to enter and take possession of and operate the Restaurant. Nothing herein contained in Paragraph XIV.E. shall be intended to give Franchisor control of Franchisee's employees.

F. In the event that this Agreement is terminated and Franchisee contests the validity of the termination, the party that operates the Restaurant during the period commencing with the date that notice of termination was given and ending with the date upon which a final notice and nonappealable judgment resolving the issue is entered, shall operate the Restaurant for the benefit of the prevailing party in such contest, and shall account for, and pay over, any profits earned during said period to the other party, if such other party is the party that prevails.

G. Upon termination of this Agreement owing to default by Franchisee, Franchisee shall not remove any furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment or other property or leasehold improvements from the Restaurant premises until expiration of the period within which Franchisor may exercise its right to purchase the Restaurant. If Franchisor does not elect to purchase the Restaurant it may nevertheless elect, within ninety (90) days of the date of termination, to purchase Franchisee's furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment, leasehold improvements and other property or any portion thereof for a sum equal to the fair market value of such property. If the parties cannot agree on a fair market value within a reasonable time, an independent appraiser shall be designated by Franchisor, and the appraiser's determination shall be binding. Any property so purchased by Franchisor shall be delivered to Franchisor's representative at the Restaurant premises on a date specified in the purchase notice by Franchisor not more than five (5) days after delivery of the purchase notice or at such other time as may be reasonable in the circumstances. If Franchisor elects to exercise any right to purchase herein provided, it shall have the right to set off all amounts due from Franchisee, and the cost of the appraisal, if any, against any payment therefor.

H. Upon expiration of this Agreement or termination resulting from any condemnation proceedings affecting the premises upon which the Restaurant is situated, within sixty (60) days prior to the date specified for expiration or takeover by any public authority, Franchisee shall not remove any furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment and other property or leasehold improvements. Franchisor may, upon written notice at least thirty (30) days prior to such date, notify Franchisee of its intention to purchase all or any portion of the furniture, fixtures, signs, equipment and other chattels for a sum equal to the fair market value of such property. Determination of fair market value and the terms of delivery shall be as specified in Paragraph XIV.G. hereof.

XV. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted hereunder to Franchisee shall forthwith terminate, and:

A. Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business, and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold itself out as a present or former franchisee of Franchisor.

B. Franchisee shall immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures and techniques associated with the System; the Proprietary Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, and devices and any Trade Dress associated with the System. In particular, Franchisee shall follow Franchisor's instructions to deidentify the Restaurant from the System, including removal or modification of structural features of the Restaurant including, but not limited to, the distinctive roof, interior and exterior color combinations and designs, and shall cease to use, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms, and any other articles which display the Proprietary Marks.

C. Franchisee shall take such action as may be necessary to cancel any assumed name or equivalent registration which contains any Proprietary Mark or any other service mark or trademark of Franchisor and Franchisee shall furnish Franchisor with evidence satisfactory to Franchisor of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

D. Franchisee agrees, in the event it continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception, or which is likely to dilute Franchisor's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks, and further agrees not to utilize any Trade Dress or designation of origin or description or representation which falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Franchisor constituting unfair competition.

E. Franchisee shall promptly pay all sums owing to Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates. In the event of termination for any default of Franchisee, such sums shall include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor as a result of the default, which obligation shall give rise to and remain, until paid in full, a lien in favor of Franchisor against any and all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures, and inventory owned by Franchisee and on the premises operated hereunder at the time of default.

F. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Paragraph XV.

G. Franchisee shall immediately deliver to Franchisor all manuals, including the Manual, records, files, instructions, correspondence, all materials related to operating the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, brochures, agreements, invoices, and any and all other materials relating to the operation of the Franchised Business in Franchisee's possession, and all copies thereof (all of which are acknowledged to be Franchisor's property), and shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing, except Franchisee's copy of this Agreement and of any correspondence between the parties and any other documents which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law.

H. Franchisee shall comply with any surviving covenants contained in Paragraph XVI. of this Agreement.

XVI. COVENANTS

A. Franchisee acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including, without limitation, information relating to the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System. Accordingly, Franchisee covenants that:

(1) During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation or limited liability company:

(a) Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Restaurant to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Trade Dress and the System; or

(b) Own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(i) Any restaurant business which: (a) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants; and (b) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction; or

(ii) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (a) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction, or (b) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

(2) During the continuing uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee and its shareholders or members shall not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, own, maintain, advise, help, invest in, make loans to, be employed by, be the landlord of, engage in, or have any interest in:

(a) Any restaurant business which: (i) competes with any Bojangles restaurant or which sells fried chicken, biscuits and/or biscuit sandwiches, or other items which are featured menu items at Bojangles restaurants as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, and (ii) is located within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement; or

(b) Any fast food restaurant business which is located (i) within ten (10) miles from the Restaurant or any Bojangles restaurant that is open, planned for construction, or under construction as of the termination or expiration of this Agreement, or (ii) within the designated market area within which the Restaurant is situated.

B. Paragraph XVI.A. shall not apply to ownership by Franchisee of less than two percent (2%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any corporation which is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

C. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Paragraph XVI. is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Paragraph XVI.

D. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Paragraph XVI.A. or any portion thereof, without Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof; and Franchisee agrees that it shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

E. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have now or in the future against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Paragraph XVI.

F. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph XVI. would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Paragraph XVI.

G. At the request of Franchisor, Franchisee shall obtain and deliver to Franchisor executed covenants similar in substance to those set forth in this Paragraph XVI. (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Franchisee) from the following persons: all officers, directors, or members, and holders of the securities of Franchisee, and of any corporation or limited liability company directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by Franchisee. Every covenant required by this Paragraph XVI.G. shall be in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, including, without limitation, specific identification of Franchisor as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Failure by Franchisee to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Paragraph XVI.G. or to deliver the covenant to Franchisor shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

XVII. FORCE MAJEURE

If the performance of any obligation under this Agreement is prevented or delayed, in whole or in part, by reason of force majeure, or the consequence thereof, affecting the parties hereto or the rights granted hereunder, such force majeure to include but not be limited to acts of God, fire, flood, governmental restrictions, lockouts or labor disputes, then the affected party shall be given such additional time as is reasonable to perform in view of the nature and extent of the force majeure.

XVIII. TAXES, PERMITS, AND INDEBTEDNESS

A. Franchisee shall promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including, without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Franchisee in the conduct of the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor an amount equal to any sales tax, gross receipts tax, or similar tax imposed on Franchisor with respect to any payments to Franchisor required under this Agreement, unless the tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by Franchisor.

B. In the event of any bona fide dispute as to Franchisee's liability for taxes assessed or other indebtedness, Franchisee may contest the validity or the amount of the tax or indebtedness in accordance with procedures of the taxing authority or applicable law; however, in no event shall Franchisee permit a tax sale or seizure by levy of execution or similar writ or warrant, or attachment by a creditor, to occur against the premises of the Franchised Business, or any improvements thereon.

C. Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations, and shall timely obtain any and all permits, certificates, or licenses necessary for the full and proper conduct of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, licenses to do business, fictitious name registrations, sales tax permits, and fire clearances.

D. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of the commencement of any action, suit, or proceeding, and of the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award, or decree of any court, agency, or other governmental instrumentality, which may adversely affect the operation or financial condition of the Franchised Business.

XIX. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, that Franchisee is an independent contractor, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Neither this Agreement nor Franchisor's course of conduct is intended, nor may anything in this Agreement (nor Franchisor's course of conduct) be construed to state or imply that Franchisor is the joint employer of Franchisee's employees and/or independent contractors, nor vice versa.

B. During the term of this Agreement and any extensions thereof, Franchisee shall hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the Franchised Business pursuant to a franchise from Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to take such action as may be necessary to do so, including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place in the Restaurant, the content of which Franchisor reserves the right to specify.

C. It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Agreement authorizes Franchisee to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on Franchisor's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in Franchisor's name, and that Franchisor shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder as a result of, any such action, or by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee in its conduct of the Franchised Business or any claim or judgment arising therefrom. Franchisee shall indemnify and hold Franchisor and Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders, and employees harmless against any and all claims arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with, Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, as well as the costs, including attorneys' fees, of defending against them.

XX. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

A. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Franchisor, Franchisee shall make a timely written request to Franchisor therefor, and such approval or consent shall be obtained in writing.

B. Franchisor makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Franchisee may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Franchisee by providing any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion to Franchisee in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

C. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Franchisee under any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions hereof shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, duty, or power as against Franchisee, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Franchisee. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding breach by Franchisee of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

XXI. NOTICES

All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (a) on the day delivered, if delivered personally or (b) three (3) business days after being mailed, if mailed first class, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, (c) one (1) business day after being mailed, if sent via a reputable overnight courier service, or (d) at the time delivered via computer transmission or electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission, addressed to the respective parties at the addresses shown on Exhibit A to this Agreement. Any party may give notice of a change of address by written notice given as provided in this paragraph.

XXII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements. No representations have induced Franchisee to execute this Agreement except for those contained in this Agreement, the exhibits and the Franchise Disclosure Document. No amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing; provided, however, that a writing signed by Franchisee need not be signed by any of its shareholders or members except to the extent, if any, that such writing would increase the amount of such shareholder's or member's financial obligations. Further, no modification, amendment, waiver, discharge or termination of any obligation of Franchisee, and no other matter or termination of any nature or kind whatsoever, including without limitation any release of Franchisee from any such obligation, shall release any shareholder or member of any guaranty obligation given or made by him under this Agreement or otherwise, whether or not such shareholder or member has notice thereof, all rights to notice or to consent being expressly waived hereby.

XXIII. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

A. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable; and if, for any reason, any portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provisions herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible; and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid portion, paragraph, section, part, term, and/or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

B. Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Franchisee, Franchisor, Franchisor's officers, directors, and employees, and such of Franchisee's and Franchisor's respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by Paragraph XIII. hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

C. Franchisee and each of its shareholders or members expressly agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which Franchisor is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

D. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

E. All references herein to the masculine, neuter, or singular shall be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter, or plural, where applicable, and all acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements, and obligations herein made or undertaken by Franchisee shall be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Franchisee.

F. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

XXIV. APPLICABLE LAW

A. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Franchisor in the State of North Carolina, and shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law; provided, however, that if any of the provisions of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of North Carolina, then such provisions shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which the principal office of Franchisee is located.

B. The parties agree that any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, shall be brought within the State of North Carolina and do hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

C. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Franchisee by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed to be, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

D. Nothing herein contained shall bar Franchisor's right to obtain injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause it loss or damages, under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions.

E. In the event of any action at law or in equity to secure or protect rights under or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable counsel fees together with court costs and expenses incurred in connection with the litigation.

F. THE PARTIES WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST EACH OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN THEM, EACH SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

G. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN, ANY CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR COLLECTIVE ACTION MATTERS, AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE, CLASS MEMBER OR AN OPT-IN PARTY, ACT AS A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL, OR JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS WITH CLAIMS OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY.

H. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, AND/OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY.

I. Except for payments owed by one party to the other, and unless prohibited by applicable law, any legal action or proceeding (including the offer and sale of a franchise to Franchisee) brought or instituted with respect to any dispute arising from or related to this Agreement or with respect to any breach of the terms of this Agreement must be brought or instituted within a period of two (2) years from the date on which the party asserting the claim knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the claim.

ADVERTISING EXPENSE SHARING AGREEMENT

ADVERTISING EXPENSE SHARING AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into as of _____ by and between Bojangles Opco, LLC and the undersigned, being franchise owners presently engaged in the operation of Bojangles Restaurants and all future franchise owners who may hereafter engage in the operation of Bojangles Restaurants and hereafter adopt this Agreement.

WITNESSETH:

THAT WHEREAS, Franchisor and the undersigned Franchisees acknowledge and agree that it is or may in the future be in their mutual best interests for them to cooperate in advertising throughout the particular television designated market area influence in which their respective Bojangles franchise restaurants are located, in particular at such time as they shall determine to use television as an advertising media; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that by said cooperative efforts all of them will be able to afford greater and more effective exposure of their products and business to the general public than otherwise might be possible; and

WHEREAS, the parties agree that through said cooperative advertising efforts they may be able to increase the sales and profitability of their Bojangles Restaurants; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have agreed on a structure and manner for carrying out said cooperative efforts, all as hereinafter more particularly set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties to this Advertising Expense Sharing Agreement in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable considerations in hand paid each to the other, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, do hereby agree and covenant as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS: Throughout this Agreement, terms listed in this paragraph shall be defined as follows:

a. "DMA" shall mean that geographical area designated as a television marketing designated market area by the Nielsen Ratings Company. In the event any such geographical area shall be changed by Nielsen Ratings Company after execution of this Agreement, such change shall not be considered for purposes of this Agreement (including the determination of DMA Membership under this Agreement) until the next Transfer Date occurring after such change.

b. "DMA Advertising" shall mean the initiation and execution within a DMA of marketing programs specifically as they relate to (but not limited to) television media advertising for the mutual and equitable benefit of the DMA Membership. Such advertising may also include marketing programs using radio, print, mail out, billboards, or other media or means.

c. “DMA Member” or “Member” is (i) each Franchisee owning a Restaurant within a particular DMA that has entered into or adopted this Agreement, (ii) each Initial Franchisee who may have elected to become a member of a particular DMA under paragraph 13 hereof, and (iii) Franchisor as to each DMA in which Franchisor owns a Restaurant.

d. “DMA Membership” or “Membership” is all of the Members of a particular DMA.

e. “Adoption Agreement” shall mean an agreement executed by a Franchisee after the execution of this Agreement pursuant to which such Franchisee becomes a party to this Agreement and agrees to be bound by the terms of this Agreement.

f. “Advertising Period” shall mean the period of time from an Initiation Date to a Termination Date.

g. “Agreement” shall mean the agreement set forth herein.

h. “Eligible DMA” is a DMA with two or more members (an DMA which is not an Eligible DMA upon the execution of this Agreement due to its having less than two members shall become an Eligible DMA at such later time as it may have two or more members).

i. “Franchisee” means a person, corporation, or other business entity operating or owning one or more Bojangles Restaurants pursuant to a Franchise Agreement between such Franchisee and Bojangles Opco, LLC or one of its predecessors in interest.

j. “Franchisor” means Bojangles Opco, LLC.

k. “Initial Franchisee” is a person, corporation, or other legal entity that is a Franchisee upon the date of execution of this Agreement, or is a corporation or other legal entity owned (either entirely or partially by virtue of stock ownership, partnership interest, or other interest) by a person or persons who owns (either entirely or partially by virtue of stock ownership, partnership interest, or other interest) a corporation or other legal entity that is a Franchisee upon the date of execution of this Agreement.

l. “Initiation Date” shall mean the date upon which the Membership of a DMA shall have voted to initiate DMA advertising as provided in paragraph 4 hereof.

m. “Local Advertising” shall mean advertising including radio, television, magazine, newspaper, billboard, campaigns, print, direct mail, and other forms of advertising media and public relation activities, but shall not include the costs of advertising production, production of other marketing materials, or food promotion.

n. “Restaurant” means a Bojangles restaurant.

o. “Subsequent Franchisee” is a person, corporation, or other legal entity that becomes a Franchisee after the execution of this Agreement.

p. "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Membership of a DMA shall have voted to discontinue DMA advertising or shall have failed to vote to continue DMA advertising as provided in paragraph 4 hereof.

q. "Transfer Date" shall be June 1 of each year.

2. MEETINGS: The Membership of each Eligible DMA shall conduct meetings as follows:

a. Initial Meeting - Each Eligible DMA shall conduct an initial meeting of its Membership at such time and place as such Membership may mutually agree, or in the absence of such agreement, at such time and place as may be designated by Franchisor, but in either event, within 60 days from the date of this Agreement. The first order of business at the initial meeting shall be the election of a chairman for the DMA.

b. Annual Meetings - Each Eligible DMA shall conduct an annual meeting on each anniversary of its initial meeting (or the first business day thereafter if such anniversary date shall be a weekend or a holiday).

c. Special Meetings - Special meetings of an Eligible DMA may be called by the chairman at such times as the chairman may determine, and shall be called by the chairman upon the request of at least 30% of the Members of the DMA. Such Special Meetings may be held at such time and place as may be designated by the chairman or a majority of the Membership.

d. Conduct of Meetings - The meetings shall be presided over by the chairman and shall be conducted pursuant to Robert's Rules of Order.

e. Telephone Meetings - The chairman may provide that any of the Membership meetings called for herein be held by means of conference telephone calls in lieu of an actual physical meeting. Notice requirements for a telephone meeting shall be the same as for any other meeting.

f. Informal Action - Any action which may be taken by the Membership hereunder at a meeting may be informally agreed to by the Membership without meeting provided such agreement shall be reflected in a written consent signed by each Member.

g. Voting - Upon each question that may come before the Membership of a DMA for vote, each Member of such DMA shall be entitled to (i) one vote for each Restaurant owned by such Member and located within the DMA (unless such Restaurant has been transferred to another DMA as provided in paragraph 13), and (ii) in the case of a Member who is an Initial Franchisee, one vote for each Restaurant such Initial Franchisee has elected to transfer into the DMA by an election pursuant to paragraph 13 that shall then be in effect at the time such vote is taken. Any Member of the DMA shall be entitled to designate a proxy to attend meetings and vote on behalf of such member provided the designation of such proxy shall be in writing and be delivered to the chairman of the DMA at the time of such meeting or vote. All matters voted on by the Membership shall require a majority vote of the Members of the DMA voting in person or by proxy except where provided otherwise in this Agreement.

h. Quorum - The presence, in person or by proxy, of Members entitled to cast 51% of the votes in a DMA shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a lesser number may adjourn to some future date not less than ten nor more than 30 days later, and in the event of such adjournment, the chairman shall give at least five days notice by mail to each Member entitled to vote who was absent from such meeting.

3. NOTICE OF MEETINGS: The chairman shall give each Member of the DMA at least ten days notice of any annual or special meeting of the Membership, which notice shall be in writing and shall state the place, date, and time of such meeting. The notice required by this paragraph may be waived by a written waiver signed by all of the Members of a DMA or by any Member, and shall be deemed waived by a Member as to any meeting at which such Member shall be present in person or by proxy.

4. ACTIVATION: At the initial and at each annual meeting the Membership shall, and at any special meeting the Membership may, vote upon the question of activating DMA Advertising if DMA Advertising shall not be then activated for the DMA, or if DMA Advertising shall then be activated, whether to continue such activation. DMA Advertising shall be initiated or continued only if approved by 51% of the DMA Membership voting upon the question; however, other Members in the DMA may have different provisions that permit them not to participate in the DMA except upon a greater vote. In lieu of membership in the DMA, Franchisor may require Express Units to pay up to two percent (2%) of gross sales to Franchisor to offset, in part, spending of Franchisor in the DMA, without admitting Express Units as voting members of the DMA.

5. CONTRIBUTIONS: Except during a DMA Advertising Period, no DMA Advertising shall be conducted and no contributions shall be required of the DMA Membership except pro rata reimbursement (computed on a per Restaurant basis) for reasonable and necessary administrative expenses incurred by the chairman in fulfillment of his duties. During any DMA Advertising Period, the Membership shall contribute to the costs of DMA Advertising an amount equal to _____ percent (____ %) of the gross sales (defined as set forth in the Bojangles Franchise Agreement) of each such Member's Restaurants located within the DMA or transferred to the DMA; provided however, that the Membership may require contributions that exceed two percent (2%) of such gross sales upon unanimous consent of the Membership as provided in paragraph 21 of this Agreement).

Such contributions shall be paid on a monthly basis on or before the 15th day of the month immediately following the calendar month in respect to which such contribution is being made. Franchisor reserves the right to require that contributions be directly drafted by Franchisor from Franchisee's account.

6. FAILURE TO MAKE REQUIRED CONTRIBUTIONS: In the event any Member shall fail to make the contributions required hereunder within 10 days after the due date thereof, such Member shall not be entitled to vote upon any DMA matters until such amounts shall be paid, and in addition, the chairman, the Franchisor, or any Member of the DMA is hereby authorized and empowered to bring such collection action as may be necessary to collect such delinquent contributions, and in the event any such collection action shall be necessary, in addition to such delinquent contribution, such delinquent Member shall also be liable to the party incurring same for the reasonable expenses incurred in such collection, including reasonable attorney's fees (such expenses shall be reimbursed to the party incurring same).

7. EXPENDITURE OF CONTRIBUTIONS: All funds contributed by DMA Members shall be expended solely for advertising and marketing within that DMA, including without limitation, (i) direct costs for measurable media for television, radio, billboard, direct mail, newspaper, and print advertising, including time charges, agency commissions, and associated costs; and (ii) out-of-pocket expenses directly incurred and related to the cost of such advertising and administration of the DMA Advertising. All contributions required hereunder by the Members of a DMA shall be paid over to the chairman or to such other person, corporation, or legal entity as may from time to time be designated by a majority vote of the Membership. Such funds shall be deposited in a bank account designated by the person, corporation, or legal entity directed herein to receive same in an account in such person, corporation, or other legal entity's name as trustee for the [REDACTED] Cooperative Advertising Pool. The chairman and/or such other persons as may be designated from time to time by the Membership of the DMA shall have signature authority over such funds.

8. CHAIRMAN: The chairman shall be elected for a term of one year or until his successor has been duly elected. The chairman may be removed at any time by a majority vote of the DMA Membership.

9. ADVERTISING AGENCIES: The Membership of a DMA may employ an advertising agency or individual to carry out some or all of the DMA Advertising functions for the DMA set forth herein. Such employment shall be for a period not to exceed one year. A vote of 51% of the DMA Membership present and voting at an annual or special meeting of the DMA shall be required for such employment or for extending the term of such employment beyond the one year period set forth herein.

10. INDEMNIFICATION: Each of the Members of each DMA do hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless Franchisor in respect to all losses, claims, or liabilities that may result from actions of such Member's DMA, including without limitation, the nonpayment of media sources (except no indemnity is intended as to any contributions which may be due from Franchisor as a DMA Member).

11. OVERALL STRATEGY: The functions set forth hereunder shall be carried out in such manner as to comply with the overall marketing strategies and guidelines of Franchisor for use of the Bojangles trademark and logo. All DMA Advertising, in any media, shall be conducted in a dignified manner and shall conform to such standards and requirements as Franchisor may specify from time to time in writing. Franchisor may, at its option, require that any advertising be submitted to Franchisor for its prior written approval. Each DMA Member agrees that advertising created by or for DMA Advertising and advertising utilized by the DMA Membership shall be subject to all applicable provisions contained in the Franchise Agreements, including without limitation, those provisions governing the ownership and use of proprietary marks. Any trademark, service mark, or copyright utilized or created in the DMA Advertising under this Agreement shall be the property of Franchisor.

12. DMA RECORDS: Each DMA shall maintain records as to any DMA Advertising Period reflecting all contributions made or due to be made by Members and all expenditures of same. The chairman may employ an independent accounting firm on behalf of the DMA Membership for the purpose of compiling, maintaining, and recording records of the financial transactions of the DMA.

13. TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP: Any Initial Franchisee who is a member of a DMA owning Restaurants in more than one DMA may elect to have all or any of such Restaurants located in one DMA be transferred to such other DMA in which such Initial Franchisee shall also have Restaurants located. Upon such transfer, such transferred Restaurants shall for all purposes hereunder (including, without limitation, voting and contributions) be treated as if located within the DMA to which such Restaurants are transferred. Prior to the Initial Meeting of the DMA Membership, such transfer shall be effective upon such transferring Initial Franchisee giving written notice of such transfer to all Members of the DMA from which and to which such Restaurants are transferred. Any such transfer made after the Initial Meetings of the DMA Membership shall be effective upon written notice to the chairman of the DMA to which and from which such Restaurant or Restaurants are transferred. The right of transfer given hereunder to an Initial Franchisee shall be continuing for so long as such Initial Franchisee remains a Franchisee and may be exercised repeatedly irrespective of prior transfers; provided however, any such transfer after the Initial Meetings of DMA Membership called for herein shall be effective only as of the Transfer Date next following the date such elections shall have been made by such Initial Franchisee. Provided further, nothing herein shall authorize the transfer of a Restaurant to any DMA except a DMA which may be adjacent to the DMA in which such Restaurant is physically located. Provided further, no transfer shall be allowed of a Restaurant into a DMA if the county in which such Restaurant is physically located receives a substantially higher percentage of coverage (according to Nielsen Ratings) from television stations located in the DMA in which such Restaurant is physically located than from TV stations located in the DMA to which such transfer is sought. No Initial Franchisee shall be entitled to make any transfer of Restaurants from one DMA to another hereunder unless such Initial Franchisee shall be current in its obligations to make DMA contributions at the time of such transfer.

14. NONELIGIBLE DMAs: Any DMA which is not an Eligible DMA under this Agreement will not carry out any of the functions called for herein until such time as it may become an Eligible DMA, and no Franchisee shall have any duties or obligations hereunder in respect to any Restaurants owned by him in such DMA unless and until such Restaurants be transferred under the terms hereunder to an Eligible DMA of which such Franchisee is a member.

15. FRANCHISOR'S RIGHT TO DISCONTINUE DMA ADVERTISING: Notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, Franchisor may in its discretion discontinue the operation of cooperative advertising programs within the DMA and require the return of all funds to each respective contributor to the extent these funds have not been expended or obligations created. Mandatory discontinuance of cooperative advertising within a DMA may be implemented by Franchisor upon written notice to each Member. If Franchisor shall require discontinuance of DMA advertising the Chairman shall promptly return all funds of DMA Members to each contributor except for those funds necessary to pay obligations incurred to pay for advertising within the DMA. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit Franchisor's rights under the terms of any franchise agreement or other agreement pertaining to any franchisee which is a Member under this Agreement.

16. BOJANGLES EXPRESS UNIT: As long as a DMA contains only Bojangles Express units ("Express Units") (as determined by the form of Franchise Agreement executed by a Franchisee) each Express Unit shall have full voting rights and DMA Membership as provided in this Agreement. If, however, a DMA contains both Express Units and free-standing independent units ("Non-Express Units"), then Franchisor may change the nature of DMA Membership of the Express Units by giving written notice to all DMA Members to require contribution to the DMA Membership in the amount required of other DMA Members, not to exceed two percent (2%) of gross sales but granting Express Unit Members one-half vote for each Express Unit within the DMA.

17. INCORPORATION: The Membership of a DMA may, by a majority vote of its Members voting on the question at an annual or special meeting of the Membership, elect to form a corporation under the Nonprofit Corporation Act of the state in which a majority of the Members' Restaurants in such DMA are located, for the purpose of carrying out the DMA Advertising function set forth herein. In the event of such incorporation, the charter and/or by-laws as appropriate shall be consistent with the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation, the amount of DMA advertising contributions by the Members, the expenditures of such contributions, and the requirements contained in this Agreement as to greater than majority votes being required as to certain actions.

18. REPORTS FROM MEMBERS: Each Member of a DMA shall, during any Advertising Period, submit to the chairman of the DMA or such other person as the DMA Membership may have designated, reports reflecting the gross sales of each Restaurant owned by such Member that is located in the DMA or that has been transferred to the DMA. Such reports shall be made in such form and shall be due at such time as may be from time to time determined by the chairman of the DMA.

19. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS: The Membership of a DMA may from time to time designate or appoint an individual or committee to supervise or to conduct the DMA Advertising functions provided for in this Agreement.

20. ADVERTISING CONTRACT: Prior to a DMA being incorporated pursuant to paragraph 17 above, all advertising agency, media, or other contract approved by the Membership of a DMA for purposes of carrying out the DMA Advertising functions set forth herein shall be executed by each Member of the DMA, and each such Member of the DMA does hereby agree to execute all such contracts as may be duly approved by the Membership in the manner provided in this Agreement.

21. INCREASE IN CONTRIBUTIONS: The contributions required to be paid by the Members of any DMA hereunder shall not be increased over the two percent (2%) of gross sales limitation set forth in paragraph 5 hereof except pursuant to the unanimous consent of all Members of the DMA as to which such increase applies.

22. CREDIT FOR ADVERTISING EXPENSE: All amounts contributed by a Member for DMA advertising hereunder shall, to the extent the same shall be expended for Local Advertising, be an allowable Local Advertising expense which shall be prorated among the DMA Members in proportion to their contributions, and each Member's pro-rated amount shall be taken into full account in determining such Member's fulfillment of its Local Advertising requirement as set forth in their respective Bojangles franchise agreements for those Restaurants operating in the DMA covered by this Agreement.

23. INDEPENDENT PRICING: Each Franchisee shall determine its own prices independently of each other Franchisee and shall otherwise be in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

24. COUNTERPARTS: This Agreement is being executed in multiple counterparts and in three (3) copies of each counterpart, each such counterpart shall be executed by the Franchisor and one or more of the Franchisees, and upon such execution, all of said counterparts shall be considered as one contract, binding upon all parties thereto. Upon such execution of the aforesaid multiple copies, one of such copies shall be retained by the Franchisor for its own use, one shall be retained by the Franchisor and be delivered to the chairman of the DMA as to which the Franchisee parties to each such contract copy shall be a member, and one copy shall be retained by the Franchisee signing same.

25. OTHER AGREEMENTS: Some franchisees may have executed other versions of this Agreement or may have a grandfathered right to sign other version of this Agreement, which may provide, among other things, for lesser rates of co-operative contribution or may contain other terms. The undersigned Franchisee agrees to be bound to the terms of this Agreement and acknowledges that the performance of other Members may be governed by other forms of agreement.

B. Treatment of Confidential Information. Recipient acknowledges, understands and agrees that the Confidential Information: (1) is the exclusive and confidential property of Franchisor or any of the Franchisor Parties and incorporates trade secrets and copyrights owned by them; (2) gives the Franchisor Parties some competitive business advantage or the opportunity of obtaining such an advantage, the disclosure of which could be detrimental to the interests of the Franchisor Parties; and (3) is not generally known by non-Franchisor Party personnel. Recipient shall at all times treat the Confidential Information in accordance with this Agreement.

Recipient agrees that neither Franchisor nor the Franchisor Parties nor any of their respective representatives shall have any liability to Recipient, Recipient’s representatives or any other person resulting from the use of the Confidential Information.

D. No License. This Agreement entitles Recipient to use the Confidential Information solely in connection with Recipient’s exploration of the opportunity to purchase a Franchise. No license, express or implied, in the Confidential Information is granted to Recipient other than to use the Confidential Information in the manner and to the extent authorized by this Agreement. Except for the obligations of Recipient set forth in this Agreement, neither Recipient nor Franchisor shall be under any obligation to enter into any additional agreements and/or contractual obligations with the other of any nature whatsoever as a result of this Agreement, including, without limitation, with respect to the possible sale of a Franchise.

Franchisor's affairs and business. In view of the foregoing, Recipient agrees that it is reasonable and necessary that Recipient agree, while this Agreement is in effect, to the following:

A. No Disclosure. Recipient shall use the Confidential Information solely for purposes of evaluating whether or not Recipient will purchase a Franchise. Recipient shall not disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity without Franchisor's prior written consent (in which case such person or entity must sign a Confidentiality Agreement with Franchisor) and agrees to protect the Confidential Information against unauthorized disclosure using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as Recipient uses to protect Recipient's confidential information. Without in any way limiting the generality of Recipient's obligations under this Agreement, Recipient acknowledges and agrees that in no event will Recipient disclose any of the Confidential Information to any of Franchisor's competitors.

B. No Use, Copying or Transfer. D. Exceptions. The covenants in Sections 2.A and 2.B shall not apply to any of the following: (1) disclosure pursuant to a valid order of a court or other governmental body, provided that Recipient shall first have given written notice to Franchisor and shall give Franchisor a reasonable opportunity to interpose an objection or obtain a protective order; or (2) disclosure in litigation related to the enforcement of this Agreement and/or any other agreement between Recipient and Franchisor subject to any protective order that may be entered by the court. All Confidential Information disclosed in accordance with this Section 2.D. may only be provided by Recipient under a protective order entered by the applicable court or governmental body.

No such waiver shall be effective unless in writing and then only to the extent expressly set forth in writing.

4. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (1) on the day delivered, if delivered personally or (2) three (3) business days after being mailed, if mailed first class, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, (3) one (1) business day after being mailed, if sent via a reputable overnight courier service, or (4) at the time delivered via computer transmission or electronic mail if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission, addressed to the respective parties at the

5. Enforcement.

A. Governing Law. This Agreement and any claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be governed by and will be construed exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina (without regard to North Carolina conflicts of law principles).

B. Choice of Forum. Each Party consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court located in the State of North Carolina, Mecklenburg County, for any actions, suits or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

C. Injunctive Relief. Recipient understands that any violation of this Agreement will cause Franchisor immediate and irreparable harm which money damages cannot adequately remedy. Therefore, Recipient agrees that, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by Recipient, Franchisor shall be entitled to injunctive relief (both preliminary and permanent) restraining that breach and/or to specific performance without showing or proving actual damages and without posting any bond or security. Any equitable remedies sought by Franchisor shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all remedies and rights that Franchisor otherwise may have arising under applicable law or by virtue of any breach of this Agreement.

D. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Recipient hereby acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor's affiliates are an intended third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement with the right to enforce it, independently or jointly with Franchisor.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration, of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years; and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) the failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) the fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) the unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) the failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS DISCLOSURE ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Any questions regarding these Additional Disclosures shall be directed to the Michigan Attorney General's Office, Corporate Oversight Division, Franchise Section, 525 West Ottawa Street, G. Mennen Williams Building, 1st Floor, Lansing, Michigan 48913, (517) 355-7567.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures. The following statements are added to Item 17:

1. The North Dakota Securities Commissioner has held the following to be unfair, unjust, or inequitable to North Dakota franchisees (Section 51-19-09, N.D.C.C.):
 - A. Restrictive Covenants: Franchise disclosure documents which disclose the existence of covenants restricting competition contrary to Section 9-08-06, N.D.C.C., without further disclosing that such covenants will be subject to this statute.
 - B. Situs of Arbitration Proceedings: Franchise agreements providing that the parties must agree to arbitrate disputes at a location that is remote from the site of the franchisee's business.
 - C. Restriction on Forum: Requiring North Dakota franchisees to consent to the jurisdiction of courts outside of North Dakota.
 - D. Liquidated Damages and Termination Penalties: Requiring North Dakota franchisees to consent to liquidated damages or termination penalties.
 - E. Applicable Laws: Franchise agreements which specify that any claims arising under the North Dakota franchise law will be governed by the laws of a state other than North Dakota.
 - F. Waiver of Trial by Jury: Requiring North Dakota franchisees to consent to the waiver of a trial by jury.
 - G. Waiver of Exemplary and Punitive Damages: Requiring North Dakota franchisees to consent to a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages.
 - H. General Release: Requiring North Dakota franchisees to execute a general release of claims as a condition of renewal or transfer of a franchise.
 - I. Limitation of Claims: Requiring that North Dakota franchisees to consent to a limitation of claims. The statute of limitations under North Dakota law applies.
 - J. Enforcement of Agreement: Requiring that North Dakota franchisees to pay all costs and expenses incurred by the franchisor in enforcing the agreement. The prevailing party in any enforcement action is entitled to recover all costs and expenses including attorney's fees.
2. Each provision of the Additional Disclosures shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional requirements of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, with respect to each such provision, are met independent of the Additional Disclosures. The Additional Disclosures shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional requirements are not met.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

1. Item 17, Additional Disclosure. The following statement is added to Item 17:

Section 19-28.1-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act provides that: “A provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.”

The provisions of this Additional Disclosure shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Law are met independently without reference to this Additional Disclosure.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY THE COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

1. Termination, Item 17. The following is added to Item 17.h:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

2. Contracts, Item 22. The following is added to Item 22:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

These Additional Disclosures shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act are met independently, without reference to these Additional Disclosures.

REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Item 17, Additional Disclosures. The following statements are added to Item 17:

1. You have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement upon any grounds permitted by law.
2. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
3. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
4. A franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
5. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.
8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

Item 22, Additional Disclosure. The following statements are added to Item 22:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The provisions of these Additional Disclosures shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act are met independently without reference to these Additional Disclosures.

ADDENDUM TO THE BOJANGLES DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT REQUIRED FOR WASHINGTON FRANCHISEES

This Addendum to the Bojangles Development Agreement dated _____ (“Development Agreement”) between BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC (“Franchisor”) and _____ (“Developer”) is entered into simultaneously with the execution of the Development Agreement.

1. The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, and are incorporated into, the Development Agreement. This Addendum is being executed because: (A) the offer or sale of a franchise to Developer was made in the State of Washington; (B) Developer is a resident of the State of Washington; and/or (C) the Assigned Area will be located in the State of Washington.
2. The state of Washington has a statute, the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100.180 (“Act”), which may supersede this Agreement in Developer’s relationship with Franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of the franchise. There also may be court decisions that may supersede this Agreement in Developer’s relationship with Franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of Developer’s franchise.
3. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Act shall prevail.
4. Developer may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Act, in Washington.
5. A release or waiver of rights executed by Developer may not include rights under the Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect Franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of Developer, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of Developer under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the Development Agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits Franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting Developer from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of Franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of Franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the Development Agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
9. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
10. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Development Agreement.
11. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Development Agreement remains unmodified in full force and effect.
12. This Addendum may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Addendum by electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Addendum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed and delivered this Addendum to the Development Agreement on the same date as the Development Agreement was executed.

ADDENDUM TO THE BOJANGLES FRANCHISE AGREEMENT REQUIRED FOR WASHINGTON FRANCHISEES

This Addendum to the Bojangles [Individual] [Express] [Renewal] Franchise Agreement dated _____ (“Franchise Agreement”) between BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC (“Franchisor”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) is entered into simultaneously with the execution of the Franchise Agreement.

1. The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, and are incorporated into, the Franchise Agreement. This Addendum is being executed because: (A) the offer or sale of a franchise to Franchisee was made in the State of Washington; (B) Franchisee is a resident of the State of Washington; and/or (C) the Restaurant will be located and/or operated in the State of Washington.
2. The state of Washington has a statute, the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100.180 (“Act”), which may supersede this Agreement in Franchisee’s relationship with Franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of the franchise. There also may be court decisions that may supersede this Agreement in Franchisee’s relationship with Franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of Franchisee’s franchise.
3. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Act shall prevail.
4. Franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Act, in Washington.
5. A release or waiver of rights executed by Franchisee may not include rights under the Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect Franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of Franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of Franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits Franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting Franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of Franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of Franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
9. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
10. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.
11. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified in full force and effect.
12. This Addendum may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Addendum by electronic transmission (including an electronic signature platform such as DocuSign or the transmission of a scanned PDF document) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Addendum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed and delivered this Addendum to the Franchise Agreement on the same date as the Franchise Agreement was executed.

Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Summary of Significant Operations and Accounting Policies

Organization and Operations

Bojangles Opco, LLC (“Opco”, the “Company”, “we”, “us” or “our”), a Delaware limited liability company, was formed on February 3, 2020. Opco is a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Bojangles Issuer, LLC (“Issuer”), which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Bojangles Guarantor, LLC (“Guarantor”). Opco, Issuer, and Guarantor are collectively referred to as the “Securitization Entities”, and all other affiliated entities are referred to as the “Non-Securitization Entities”. The indirect corporate parent of Guarantor is Bojangles’ Restaurants, Inc. (“BRI”), and the indirect corporate parent of BRI is Walker Parent, Inc. (“Parent”). Parent was formed on January 29, 2019, as a result of a merger between Walker Holdings, LLC and Bojangles’, Inc. The Securitization Entities are special purpose, bankruptcy remote entities that hold substantially all of the restaurant businesses, franchising assets, real estate and other productive assets of BRI and its subsidiaries. BRI, together with certain other Non-Securitization Entities, acts as the manager (the “Manager”) by managing and servicing the assets, performing certain franchising, marketing, real estate, intellectual property and operating and reporting services on behalf of the Securitization Entities.

The Securitization Entities were formed in connection with a contemplated whole business securitization transaction (the “Securitization Transaction”), which was completed on October 6, 2020. In conjunction with the Securitization Transaction, BRI and certain other Non-Securitization Entities contributed substantially all of their revenue generating assets in respect to the franchisor and restaurant operator of the Bojangles limited-service restaurant concept, apart from international franchise rights and international intellectual property rights, to Guarantor. Guarantor then contributed all of its assets and liabilities to Issuer. Issuer then contributed all of its assets and liabilities received from Guarantor to Opco. Following the initial contribution, subsequent domestic licenses and franchises sold under the Bojangles trade name are sold by Opco. As this transaction represented an asset transfer among entities under common control, it was accounted for by the Company at historical carrying values. The Non-Securitization Entities applied the historical cost approach in the allocation of intangible assets contributed to the Company which were created as a result of Parent’s formation.

The Company is a single member LLC and is governed by the March 2, 2020 Limited Liability Company Agreement of Bojangles Opco, LLC, as subsequently amended and restated on October 6, 2020 (the “Amended and Restated LLC Agreement”). In accordance with the Amended and Restated LLC Agreement, the Company’s member and officers shall not be obligated for any of the Company’s debts, obligations or liabilities.

As of December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, there were 285, 281 and 277 Company-operated restaurants and 528, 507 and 496 domestic independent franchised restaurants operating under the Bojangles® name, respectively. The Company’s franchising activity is regulated by the laws of the various states in which it is registered to sell franchises, as well as rules promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission. The legislation and rules, among other things, establish minimum disclosure requirements to a prospective franchisee and require periodic registration by the Company with state administrative agencies.

Restaurants closed reflects permanent closures and excludes any temporary closures for items such as remodels, scrape and rebuilds, casualty events, severe weather conditions or any other short-term closure. A relocation results in a closure and an opening. During 2023, no Company-operated closures and one franchisee closure was related to a relocation. During 2022, three Company-operated closures and three franchisee closures were related to relocations. There were no company-operated or franchisee closures related to relocations during 2021.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices of the United States of America ("GAAP").

Fiscal Year

The Company operates on a 52- or 53-week fiscal year ending on the last Sunday of December. The accompanying financial statements are presented as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022 and for the 53-week fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 and the 52-week fiscal years ended December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021.

For the Years Ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021

Use of Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, the actual amounts could differ from those estimates. Any adjustments applied to estimated amounts are recognized in the fiscal year in which such adjustments are determined.

Business Combinations

We account for business combinations using the acquisition method. As of the acquisition date, the acquirer recognizes, separately from goodwill, the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, and any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree. Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the cost of acquisition over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred, measured at acquisition date fair value and the amount of any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree. If the cost of acquisition is lower than the fair value of the net identifiable assets, the difference is recognized in profit or loss. Acquisition costs are expensed as incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents.

Accounts and Vendor Receivables and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivables consist of franchisee receivables, which are recorded at invoiced amounts, and other receivables. Royalty receivables are recorded at amounts earned based upon rates set forth in the related franchise agreements.

Vendor receivables consist of amounts due from certain beverage vendors related to long-term beverage supply agreements. Pursuant to the terms of these arrangements, marketing rebates are provided to the Company from the beverage vendors based upon the volume of purchases for Company-operated restaurants. For Company-operated restaurants, these incentives are recognized as earned throughout the year and are classified as a reduction of Company-operated restaurant food and supplies costs in the accompanying statements of income.

The Company maintains allowances, which management believes are adequate to absorb estimated credit losses to be incurred in realizing the recorded amounts of its accounts and vendor receivables. These allowances are determined by management based primarily on an analysis of collectability of individual accounts, historical trends and current economic conditions in accordance with ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses, which was adopted as of December 26, 2022 and did not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements. On a continuing basis, management analyzes delinquent receivables, and once these receivables are determined to be uncollectible, they are written off either against an existing allowance account or as a direct charge to the accompanying statements of income.

Inventories, Net

Inventories, net consist of food and paper products and are stated at lower of cost or net realizable value. The cost of inventories is determined on a first-in, first-out basis. The Company maintains a provision for inventory spoilage. Marketing and maintenance supplies are expensed as purchased.

Notes to Financial Statements

For the Years Ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment, and purchased intangible assets subject to depreciation and amortization, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable.

If circumstances require a long-lived asset or asset group be tested for possible impairment, the Company first compares undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by that asset or asset group to its carrying value. If the carrying value of the long-lived asset or asset group is not recoverable on an undiscounted cash flow basis, an impairment is recognized to the extent that the carrying value exceeds its fair value. Fair value is determined through various valuation techniques, including discounted cash flow models, quoted market values and third-party independent appraisals, as considered necessary.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Finance leases are recorded at the lesser of the estimated fair value or the present value of amounts due under the lease. The Company reviews for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that carrying amounts may not be recoverable through future undiscounted cash flows. Impairment charges result primarily from the carrying value of Company-operated restaurant assets exceeding the estimated fair market value.

Provisions for depreciation are made using the straight-line method over an asset's estimated useful life: up to 40 years for buildings; up to 5 years for furniture, fixtures and equipment; up to 5 years for computer hardware and software; and in the case of leasehold improvements and finance lease assets, the lesser of the economic life of the asset or the lease term.

Leases

The Company accounts for leases under ASC 842, Leases.

The Company leases restaurant land and buildings and certain restaurant and computer equipment. We define a lease term as the initial term of the lease, plus any renewals covered by bargain renewal options or that are reasonably assured of exercise because nonrenewal would create an economic penalty. Additionally, we review leases for which we are involved in construction to determine whether build-to-suit and sale-leaseback criteria are met.

We determine if an arrangement is a lease at inception or modification of a contract and classify each lease as either an operating or finance lease at commencement. Leases that are economically similar to the purchase of assets are generally classified as finance leases; otherwise, the leases are classified as operating leases. The Company only reassesses lease classifications subsequent to commencement upon a change in the expected lease term or modification of the contract. Finance and operating lease assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term, and lease obligations represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. These assets and obligations are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of lease payments, net of incentives, over the lease term. The Company's lease terms include option periods to extend the lease when it is reasonably certain that those options will be exercised. Options to extend have varying rates and terms for each lease. Generally, the Company's lease contracts do not provide a readily determinable implicit rate, and therefore, the Company uses an estimated incremental borrowing rate as of the lease commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The estimate of the incremental borrowing rate reflects considerations such as market rates for the Company's outstanding collateralized debt, interpolations of rates for leases with terms that differ from the outstanding debt, and market rates for debt of companies with similar credit ratings. The lease asset also reflects any prepaid rent, initial direct costs incurred, and lease incentives received.

Bojangles Opco, LLC

Assets we acquire as lessee under finance leases are stated at the lower of the present value of future lease payments or fair market value at the date of inception of the lease. Finance lease assets are amortized using the straight-line method over the shorter of the useful life of the asset or the underlying lease term.

We record rent expense and income from operating leases that contain rent holidays or scheduled rent increases on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Contingent rentals are generally based on sales levels in excess of stipulated amounts, and thus are not considered lease payments at lease inception. Leases with an initial expected term of 12 months or less are not recorded in the accompanying balance sheets and the related lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Indefinite-Lived Intangible Assets

Indefinite-lived intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recorded at fair value as of the acquisition date and primarily consist of the Bojangles brand (the "Brand"). The Company accounts for the Brand under ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, which requires that indefinite-lived intangible assets are not amortized but tested for impairment at least annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired.

The Company performs its annual impairment review of the Brand at December 1, first using the qualitative assessment then quantitative assessment if impairment is determined to be more likely than not. A quantitative assessment is performed by comparing the carrying value of the Brand to the estimated fair value of the Brand. An impairment occurs if the carrying amount of the Brand exceeds the estimated fair value. No qualitative impairment indicators were identified for the Brand in the Company's 2023, 2022 or 2021 assessments.

The Company has determined that no triggering event existed during the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, and further impairment evaluation is not required.

Goodwill and Other Intangibles, Net—Definite-Lived

Definite-lived intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recorded at fair value as of the acquisition date and primarily consist of goodwill and franchise rights. Goodwill represents the excess of the consideration paid for businesses acquired by the Company over the fair value of the identifiable net assets at the dates of acquisitions. The Company follows the accounting alternative documented in Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2014-02, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other (Topic 350) to account for goodwill. Goodwill is amortized on a straight-line basis over 10 years. Franchise rights represent the ability to generate a specific earnings stream associated exclusively with the Company's franchise agreements. Franchise rights are amortized on a straight-line basis over the weighted average life of 30 years based on the franchise agreements.

Income Taxes

Under the Internal Revenue Code, a limited liability company may be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. As a direct result of our corporate structure and the Securitization Transaction, the Securitization Entities are each a limited liability company that is disregarded as an entity separate from its indirect owners, Parent and BRI, for federal and state income tax purposes, and are not jointly and severally liable for any income taxes owed by the parent corporate entities. Further, no tax sharing agreement exists, or is expected to exist, between the Company and its indirect parent companies that would require the Company to directly or indirectly reimburse its indirect parent companies for taxes related to its operations. Therefore, taxable income or loss is includable in the income tax returns of its members. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal or state income taxes in the accompanying financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). The Company generates revenues from two primary sources: (i) retail sales at Company-operated restaurants; and (ii) franchise revenues, consisting of royalties based on a percentage of sales reported by franchise restaurants, properties and equipment rental revenues and initial and renewal franchise license fees.

Company-Operated Restaurant Revenues

Revenues of Company-operated restaurants are primarily recognized as customers pay for products at the point of sale. Company-operated restaurant revenues also include amounts paid to the Company for products upon delivery to the customer and do not include delivery fees charged to the customer by third-party delivery providers. The Company reports Company-operated restaurant revenues net of sales and use taxes collected from customers and remitted to governmental taxing authorities.

Franchise Revenues

Initial and renewal franchise license fees are payable by the franchisee upon the execution of a new franchise agreement or renewal of an existing franchise agreement. Under franchise agreements, the Company provides franchisees with (a) a franchise license, which includes a nonexclusive license to our intellectual property for the duration of the franchise agreement and where the Company or an affiliate manages a marketing or co-op advertising fund, advertising and promotion management, (b) pre-opening services, such as training and inspections, and (c) ongoing services, such as development of training materials and menu items and restaurant monitoring and inspections. The services that the Company provides are highly interrelated and dependent on the franchise license, so the Company does not consider the services to be individually distinct and therefore accounts for them as a single performance obligation. The performance obligation is satisfied by providing a right to use the Company's intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement. Accordingly, initial and renewal franchise fees are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective agreement.

Prior to entering into a franchise agreement for a new restaurant, the Company may enter into a development agreement with the franchisee. The Company's performance obligation under development agreements generally consists of an obligation to grant exclusive development rights within a specified geography and over a stated term. These development rights are not distinct from franchise agreements and are creditable towards the initial franchise license fee, so upfront fees paid by franchisees for exclusive development rights are deferred and allocated to the appropriate franchise restaurant when the franchise agreement is executed or if the development agreement is terminated.

Franchise royalty revenues represents sales-based royalties that are related entirely to the Company's performance obligation under the franchise agreement. Continuing franchise royalty revenues are based on a percentage of monthly sales, generally ranging from 3% to 5% and are recognized on the accrual basis as franchise sales occur. In certain circumstances, the Company may defer, reduce or waive franchise license fees and/or reduce the franchise royalty percentage for a period of time.

Property and equipment rental revenues include revenues from properties and equipment we lease or sublease to franchisees, which are accounted for in accordance with applicable accounting guidance for leases.

Store Opening Costs

All costs, both direct and indirect, incurred to open Company-operated stores, such as new employee training, initial print materials, marketing, payroll expenses and rent incurred in connection with new restaurant openings are expensed in the period incurred.

Advertising Costs

Company-operated restaurants and franchised restaurants contribute to various advertising funds managed by BRI. During the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, the Company contributed $23,074, $20,613 and $20,414, respectively, to advertising funds managed by BRI. As these advertising funds are not managed by the Company, any contributions received directly from franchisees and subsequently remitted to BRI are recorded net of a corresponding expense in our statements of income.

3. Fair Value Measurements

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

- Cash and cash equivalents, trade accounts and vendor receivables, other assets (nonderivatives), trade accounts payable, and accrued expenses (nonderivatives): The carrying amounts, at face value or cost plus accrued interest, approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.
- Property, plant and equipment: Fair value measurements are based on Level 3 inputs, including appraisals or sales prices of comparable assets and estimates of future cash flows. Property, plant and equipment is measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis and is subject to fair value adjustments only in certain circumstances, for example, when there is evidence of impairment. Impairment charges are measured based on the amount by which the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their fair value. If the Company concludes that impairment exists, the carrying amount is reduced to fair value.

11. Commitments and Contingencies

Guarantee of Affiliated Parties Indebtedness

On October 6, 2020, Issuer completed the Securitization Transaction resulting in the issuance of $415,000 of Series 2020-1 3.832% Class A-2 Senior Secured Notes (the "Class A-2 Notes") and $40,000 of Series 2020-1 Variable Funding Class A-1 Senior Secured Notes (the "Variable Funding Notes" and together with the Class A-2 Notes, the "Senior Notes"). The Class A-2 Notes and Variable Funding Notes were issued pursuant to the indenture governing the Senior Notes (the "Indenture").

The Variable Funding Notes provide for a maximum outstanding principal amount of $40,000 and include a letter of credit subfacility. Under the provisions of the Variable Funding Notes, any outstanding borrowings bear interest at a variable rate, and the Issuer is obligated to pay certain commitment and other fees related to undrawn amounts and any outstanding letters of credit. The Variable Funding Notes mature in October 2024 but contain options for renewal for an additional 12-month term (subject to certain conditions, including a minimum debt service coverage ratio). As of December 31, 2023, there was a $10,000 outstanding borrowing bearing interest at 9.45%, $4,700 of outstanding letters of credit, and remaining availability of $25,300 under the Variable Funding Notes.

The Class A-2 Notes bear interest at 3.832% and require quarterly interest payments and, unless a nonamortization test is satisfied, quarterly principal payments totaling $4,150 per year. Issuer was not required to, and elected not to, make a principal payment on the Class A-2 notes on January 20, 2024.

While the Class A-2 Notes are structured to provide for a five-year anticipated term, they have a legal final maturity date of October 2050. We expect to refinance the Class A-2 Notes with another long-term financing at or before the anticipated repayment date of October 2025. However, in the event that we do not refinance the Class A-2 Notes in full by the anticipated repayment date, the Class A-2 Notes are subject to contingent additional interest at an interest rate of at least 5% per annum, and principal payments will accelerate until the debt is paid in full. As of December 31, 2023, the Class A-2 Notes outstanding principal balance was $407,738.

The Senior Notes are collateralized by substantially all of the assets of Issuer and collateralized by substantially all of the assets of and guaranteed by both Guarantor and Opco. The Senior Notes are not secured, collateralized or guaranteed by the Non-Securitization Entities. The net proceeds from the Securitization Transaction, after transaction expenses, were distributed to BRI to repay all of its previously outstanding term and revolving debt and certain capital lease obligations and to terminate all commitments thereunder, as well as for general corporate purposes. The Issuer is dependent on distributions from Opco for sufficient cash flows to service the Senior Notes.

The Indenture requires that the Securitization Entities report and remit weekly cash flows of the Securitization Entities to the trustee of the Senior Notes. The weekly cash flows are subject to priorities of payment that provide for the payment of funds to specific reserve accounts for debt service and other specified purposes set forth in the Indenture. The amount of weekly cash flow, if any, that exceeds the amounts required by the priorities of payment is generally remitted to BRI in the form of an equity distribution.

Letters of Credit

Pursuant to its Variable Funding Notes, Issuer may borrow up to $40,000 for senior secured revolving facility loans, swingline loans and letters of credit. As of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, Issuer had a standby letter of credit outstanding under the Variable Funding Notes in the amount of $4,700. This outstanding letter of credit is for the benefit of the holders of the Senior Notes as an interest reserve required by the Indenture.

Litigation

The Company is subject to various claims and litigation that arise in the normal course of business. Management is of the opinion that, although the outcome of the litigation cannot be predicted with any certainty, the ultimate liability, if any, will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Certain financial instruments potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. These financial instruments consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents and accounts and vendor receivables. The Company places its cash and cash equivalents with high-credit, quality financial institutions. At times, the balances in the accounts exceed the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Concentration of credit risk with respect to receivables is primarily limited to franchisees, which are primarily located in the southeastern United States and certain vendors. Royalty revenues from three franchisees accounted for approximately 50%, 48% and 47% of the Company's total franchise royalty revenues for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively. Royalty and franchise fee accounts receivable from three franchisees accounted for approximately 54% and 56% of the Company's gross royalty and franchise fee accounts receivable as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, respectively. The Company continually evaluates and monitors the credit history of its franchisees and believes it has an adequate allowance for credit losses.

The total employer matching expense related to the plan was $593, $530 and $521 for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively.

In addition, Issuer contributed to the Company property and equipment acquired with a portion of the proceeds from the sale of refranchised assets. Property and equipment indirectly contributed by BRI and directly contributed by Issuer are disclosed in the noncash investing and financing activities in Note 13.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management and Board of Directors of Walker Parent, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Walker Parent, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, and the related consolidated statements of operations, of stockholder's equity and of cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2023, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2023 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control- related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Description of Business and Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business and Organization

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Walker Parent, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries (the “Company”, “Bojangles”, “we” or “our”). Walker Parent, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Walker Intermediate Holdings, Inc. (“Holdings”), was formed in October 2018 with the express purpose of entering into a merger agreement to purchase 100% of outstanding shares of Bojangles’ Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries. On January 28, 2019, Holdings, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Walker Parent, Inc., purchased all the outstanding stock of Bojangles’ Inc. (the “Merger”). The Company operates, develops and franchises limited-service restaurants principally in the Southeastern United States.

As of December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, there were 285, 281 and 277 Company-operated restaurants and 531, 510 and 499 independent franchised restaurants operating under the Bojangles® name, respectively. The Company’s franchising activity is regulated by the laws of the various states in which it is registered to sell franchises, as well as rules promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission. The legislation and rules, among other things, establish minimum disclosure requirements to a prospective franchisee and require periodic registration by the Company with state administrative agencies.

The following is the change in number of Bojangles’ franchised, Company-operated and system-wide restaurants for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021:

Restaurants closed reflects permanent closures and excludes any temporary closures for items such as remodels, scrape and rebuilds, casualty events, severe weather conditions or any other short-term closure. A relocation results in a closure and an opening. During 2023, no Company-operated closures and two franchisee closures were related to relocations. During 2022, three Company-operated closures and three franchisee closures were related to relocations. There were no company-operated or franchisee closures related to relocations during 2021.

Basis of Presentation and Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices of the United States of America ("GAAP") and include our accounts and the accounts of our consolidated subsidiaries. The Company consolidates entities in which we have a controlling financial interest, the usual condition of which is ownership of a majority voting interest. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

Fiscal Year

The Company operates on a 52- or 53-week fiscal year ending on the last Sunday of December. The accompanying consolidated financial statements are presented as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022 and for the 53-week fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 and the 52-week fiscal years ended December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021.

Use of Accounting Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, the actual amounts could differ from those estimates. Any adjustments applied to estimated amounts are recognized in the fiscal year in which such adjustments are determined.

Business Combinations

We account for business combinations using the acquisition method. As of the acquisition date, the acquirer recognizes, separately from goodwill, the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, and any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree. Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the cost of acquisition over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred, measured at acquisition date fair value and the amount of any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree. If the cost of acquisition is lower than the fair value of the net identifiable assets, the difference is recognized in profit or loss. Acquisition costs are expensed as incurred.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs to the extent possible. The Company determines fair value based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability in the principal or most advantageous market. When considering market participant assumptions in fair value measurements, the following fair value hierarchy distinguishes between observable and unobservable inputs, which are categorized in one of the following levels:

Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities accessible to the reporting entity at the measurement date.

Walker Parent, Inc. and Subsidiaries

Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows

For the Years Ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021

(dollars in thousands, except par values and per unit values)

- Level 2 Other than quoted prices included in Level 1, inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

- Level 3 Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability used to measure fair value to the extent that observable inputs are not available, thereby allowing for situations in which there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date.

In instances whereby inputs used to measure fair value fall into different levels in the above fair value hierarchy, fair value measurements in their entirety are categorized based on the lowest level input that is significant to the valuation. The Company's assessment of the significance of particular inputs to these fair value measurements requires judgment and considers factors specific to each asset or liability.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash consisted of cash that is held by the trustee of our Senior Notes to be used for debt service payments on our Senior Notes see Note 10.

Accounts and Vendor Receivables and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivables consist of franchisee receivables, which are recorded at invoiced amounts, and other receivables. Royalty and marketing and co-op advertising contribution receivables are recorded at amounts earned based upon rates set forth in the related franchise agreements.

Vendor receivables consist of amounts due from certain beverage vendors related to long-term beverage supply agreements. Pursuant to the terms of these arrangements, marketing rebates are provided to the Company from the beverage vendors based upon the volume of purchases for Company-operated restaurants. For Company-operated restaurants, these incentives are recognized as earned throughout the year and are classified as a reduction of Company-operated restaurant food and supplies costs in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

The Company maintains allowances, which management believes are adequate to absorb estimated credit losses to be incurred in realizing the recorded amounts of its accounts and vendor receivables. These allowances are determined by management based primarily on an analysis of collectability of individual accounts, historical trends and current economic conditions in accordance with ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses, which was adopted as of December 26, 2022 and did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements. On a continuing basis, management analyzes delinquent receivables, and once these receivables are determined to be uncollectible, they are written off either against an existing allowance account or as a direct charge to the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Inventories, Net

Inventories, net consist of food and paper products and are stated at lower of cost or net realizable value. The cost of inventories is determined on a first-in, first-out basis. The Company maintains a provision for inventory spoilage. Marketing and maintenance supplies are expensed as purchased.

(dollars in thousands, except par values and per unit values)

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company and its franchisees are subject to price risk related to material commodity costs. In the normal course of business, under procedures established by the Company's financial risk management framework, the Company may enter into derivative contracts to manage changes in material commodity prices in order to protect the gross margin of sales for the entire Bojangles' brand. The Company does not enter into derivative contracts for speculative or investment purposes. There were no derivatives held by the Company as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022.

The Company's contracts, which expired in 2021, met the applicable criteria to qualify for the "normal purchases or normal sales" exemption in Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 815, Derivatives and Hedging. Therefore, the hedging accounting requirements are not applicable to these contracts.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment, and purchased intangible assets subject to depreciation and amortization, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable.

If circumstances require a long-lived asset or asset group be tested for possible impairment, the Company first compares undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by that asset or asset group to its carrying value. If the carrying value of the long-lived asset or asset group is not recoverable on an undiscounted cash flow basis, an impairment is recognized to the extent that the carrying value exceeds its fair value. Fair value is determined through various valuation techniques, including discounted cash flow models, quoted market values and third-party independent appraisals, as considered necessary.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Finance leases are recorded at the lesser of the estimated fair value or the present value of amounts due under the lease. The Company reviews for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that carrying amounts may not be recoverable through future undiscounted cash flows. Impairment charges result primarily from the carrying value of Company-operated restaurant assets exceeding the estimated fair market value.

Provisions for depreciation are made using the straight-line method over an asset's estimated useful life: up to 40 years for buildings; up to 5 years for furniture, fixtures and equipment; up to 5 years for computer hardware and software; and in the case of leasehold improvements and finance lease assets, the lesser of the economic life of the asset or the lease term.

Leases

The Company accounts for leases under ASC 842, Leases.

The Company leases restaurant land and buildings, certain restaurant, office and computer equipment, office space and vehicles. We define a lease term as the initial term of the lease, plus any renewals covered by bargain renewal options or that are reasonably assured of exercise because nonrenewal would create an economic penalty. Additionally, we review leases for which we are involved in construction to determine whether build-to-suit and sale-leaseback criteria are met.

Walker Parent, Inc. and Subsidiaries

Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows

(dollars in thousands, except par values and per unit values)

We determine if an arrangement is a lease at inception or modification of a contract and classify each lease as either an operating or finance lease at commencement. Leases that are economically similar to the purchase of assets are generally classified as finance leases; otherwise, the leases are classified as operating leases. The Company only reassesses lease classifications subsequent to commencement upon a change in the expected lease term or modification of the contract. Finance and operating lease assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term, and lease obligations represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. These assets and obligations are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of lease payments, net of incentives, over the lease term. The Company's lease terms include option periods to extend the lease when it is reasonably certain that those options will be exercised. Options to extend have varying rates and terms for each lease. Generally, the Company's lease contracts do not provide a readily determinable implicit rate, and therefore, the Company uses an estimated incremental borrowing rate as of the lease commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The estimate of the incremental borrowing rate reflects considerations such as market rates for the Company's outstanding collateralized debt, interpolations of rates for leases with terms that differ from the outstanding debt, and market rates for debt of companies with similar credit ratings. The lease asset also reflects any prepaid rent, initial direct costs incurred, and lease incentives received.

Assets we acquire as lessee under finance leases are stated at the lower of the present value of future lease payments or fair market value at the date of inception of the lease. Finance lease assets are amortized using the straight-line method over the shorter of the useful life of the asset or the underlying lease term.

We record rent expense and income from operating leases that contain rent holidays or scheduled rent increases on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Contingent rentals are generally based on sales levels in excess of stipulated amounts, and thus are not considered lease payments at lease inception. Leases with an initial expected term of 12 months or less are not recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and the related lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Indefinite-Lived Intangible Assets

Indefinite-lived intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recorded at fair value as of the acquisition date and primarily consist of the Bojangles brand (the "Brand"). The Company accounts for the Brand under ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, which requires that indefinite-lived intangible assets are not amortized but tested for impairment at least annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired.

The Company performs its annual impairment review of the Brand at December 1, first using the qualitative assessment then quantitative assessment if impairment is determined to be more likely than not. A quantitative assessment is performed by comparing the carrying value of the Brand to the estimated fair value of the Brand. An impairment occurs if the carrying amount of the Brand exceeds the estimated fair value. No qualitative impairment indicators were identified for the Brand in the Company's 2023, 2022, or 2021 assessments.

The Company has determined that no triggering event existed during the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, and further impairment evaluation is not required.

Goodwill and Other Intangibles, Net—Definite-Lived

Definite-lived intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recorded at fair value as of the acquisition date and primarily consist of goodwill and franchise rights. Goodwill represents the excess of the consideration paid for businesses acquired by the Company over the fair value of the identifiable net assets at the dates of acquisitions. The Company follows the accounting alternative documented in Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2014-02, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other (Topic 350) to account for goodwill. Goodwill is amortized on a straight-line basis over 10 years. Franchise rights represent the ability to generate a specific earnings stream associated exclusively with the Company’s franchise agreements. Franchise rights are amortized on a straight-line basis over the weighted average life of 30 years based on the franchise agreements.

Income Taxes

Amounts in the consolidated financial statements related to income taxes are calculated using the principles of ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carry forwards. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred income tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

We recognize positions taken, or expected to be taken, in a tax return in the accompanying consolidated financial statements when it is more likely than not (i.e., a likelihood of more than fifty percent) that the position would be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. A recognized tax position is then measured at the largest amount of benefit with greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. The Company records interest related to uncertain tax positions in interest expense and penalties in general and administrative expenses. The Company’s uncertain tax positions are not significant.

The consolidated subsidiaries include entities that are treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. The Company’s consolidated financial statements have looked through the partnership and presented deferred taxes on the underlying assets and liabilities of its wholly- owned subsidiaries, including the partnerships.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (“ASC 606”). The Company generates revenues from two primary sources: (i) retail sales at Company-operated restaurants; and (ii) franchise revenues, consisting of royalties based on a percentage of sales reported by franchise restaurants, funds contributed by franchisees to the marketing and co-op advertising funds actively managed by the Company, properties and equipment rental revenues and initial and renewal franchise license fees.

Company-Operated Restaurant Revenues

Revenues of Company-operated restaurants are primarily recognized as customers pay for products at the point of sale. Company-operated restaurant revenues also include amounts paid to the Company for products upon delivery to the customer and do not include delivery fees charged to the customer by third-party delivery providers. The Company reports Company-operated restaurant revenues net of sales and use taxes collected from customers and remitted to governmental taxing authorities.

Franchise Revenues

The Company grants individual restaurant franchises to operators in exchange for initial franchise license fees and continuing royalty payments.

Initial and renewal franchise license fees are payable by the franchisee upon the execution of a new franchise agreement or renewal of an existing franchise agreement. Under franchise agreements, the Company provides franchisees with (a) a franchise license, which includes a nonexclusive license to our intellectual property for the duration of the franchise agreement and where the Company manages a marketing or co-op advertising fund, advertising and promotion management, (b) pre-opening services, such as training and inspections, and (c) ongoing services, such as development of training materials and menu items and restaurant monitoring and inspections. The services that the Company provides are highly interrelated and dependent on the franchise license, so the Company does not consider the services to be individually distinct and therefore accounts for them as a single performance obligation. The performance obligation is satisfied by providing a right to use the Company's intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement. Accordingly, initial and renewal franchise fees are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective agreement.

Prior to entering into a franchise agreement for a new restaurant, the Company may enter into a development agreement with the franchisee. The Company's performance obligation under development agreements generally consists of an obligation to grant exclusive development rights within a specified geography and over a stated term. These development rights are not distinct from franchise agreements and are creditable towards the initial franchise license fee, so upfront fees paid by franchisees for exclusive development rights are deferred and allocated to the appropriate franchise restaurant when the franchise agreement is executed or if the development agreement is terminated.

Franchise royalty revenues represents sales-based royalties that are related entirely to the Company's performance obligation under the franchise agreement. Continuing franchise royalty revenues are based on a percentage of monthly sales, generally ranging from 3% to 5% for franchisees operating within the United States of America and 5% for franchisees with operations in other countries and are recognized on the accrual basis as franchise sales occur. In certain circumstances, the Company may defer, reduce or waive franchise license fees and/or reduce the franchise royalty percentage for a period of time.

Franchise contributions to marketing and co-op advertising funds managed by the Company are calculated as a percentage of franchise restaurant sales or based on a fixed monthly fee per restaurant. Franchise marketing and co-op advertising fund contribution revenues generally represent sales-based or fixed monthly fee amounts that are related entirely to the Company's performance obligation under the franchise agreement and are recognized as franchise sales occur. Franchisees may receive cash and/or noncash incentives or concessions, which are accounted for as a variable consideration. Revenue is recognized net of variable consideration when the performance obligation has been satisfied. See Advertising Costs for additional information.

Property and equipment rental revenues include revenues from properties and equipment we lease or sublease to franchisees, which are accounted for in accordance with applicable accounting guidance for leases.

Store Opening Costs

All costs, both direct and indirect, incurred to open Company-operated stores, such as new employee training, initial print materials, marketing, payroll expenses and rent incurred in connection with new restaurant openings are expensed in the period incurred.

Advertising Costs

Company-operated restaurants and franchised restaurants contribute to various advertising funds that we manage. All domestic franchise restaurants contribute to the marketing development fund managed by the Company. Franchisees contributed $8,728, $7,389, and $6,719 to the marketing development fund for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively. The marketing development fund had $360 and $2,597 in unspent funds from both franchise and Company contributions included in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, respectively. Many franchise restaurants also contribute to various co-operative advertising funds, most of which are actively managed by the Company. Franchisees contributed a total of $10,310, $9,063, and $8,532 to various co-operative advertising funds that are actively managed by the Company for years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021. The cooperative advertising funds actively managed by the Company had unspent amounts of $2,818 and $2,824 as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, respectively, which are included in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Advertising and promotional costs incurred by the Company are expensed in the period incurred.

Employee Benefit Plans

The Company has adopted a defined contribution plan (the "401(k) Plan"). Under the provisions of the plan, the Company currently matches 50% of the first 5% of salaries and wages contributed by eligible employees to the 401(k) Plan. Participants are 100% vested in their own contributions.

The Company's rabbi trust plan is a nonqualified deferred compensation plan, which allows certain eligible employees to defer a portion of their base salary and variable compensation each plan year. To offset its obligation, the Company has established fully funded participant directed investment accounts.

Share-Based Compensation

Under the provisions of ASC 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation, compensation is recorded for awards of shares based on the fair value of the share units at the date of grant, net of estimated forfeitures, less any amount that the employee is required to pay.

The fair value of each share award is estimated using a Black-Scholes-Merton option-pricing model. The fair value of share-based compensation is amortized either on the graded vesting attribution method or on the cliff share-based vesting attribution method depending on the specific award.

2. Refranchising of Company-Operated Restaurants

16 Restaurant Refranchising Transaction

During the year ended December 26, 2021, the Company sold the assets of 16 Company-operated Bojangles restaurants located in South Carolina to an existing franchisee. The group of restaurants sold was deemed to be a business. The cash consideration received was $16,551, and we also collected franchise and development fees of $1,005. As required by the Indenture governing the Senior Notes, $11,973 of the cash consideration received was reinvested in eligible assets.

The gain on this refranchising transaction is included in restaurant closures and refranchising costs, net of gains and related asset write-downs within other operating expenses on the consolidated statements of operations and is calculated as follows:

The group of restaurants sold was deemed to be a business. The cash consideration received was $12,540, and we also collected franchise and development fees of $1,540. These 40 restaurants are classified as To-Be-Refranchised in the Indenture governing the Senior Notes. Accordingly, the Company was not required to use any portion of the proceeds for reinvestment or to make a principal payment on the Class A-2 Notes.

The loss on this refranchising transaction is included in restaurant closures and refranchising costs, net of gains and related asset write-downs within other operating expenses on the consolidated statements of operations and is calculated as follows:

3. Fair Value Measurements

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

- Cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, trade accounts and vendor receivables, other assets (nonderivatives), trade accounts payable, and accrued expenses (nonderivatives): The carrying amounts, at face value or cost plus accrued interest, approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.
- Property, plant, and equipment: Fair value measurements are based on Level 3 inputs, including appraisals or sales prices of comparable assets and estimates of future cash flows. Property, plant, and equipment is measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis and is subject to fair value adjustments only in certain circumstances, for example, when there is evidence of impairment. Impairment charges are measured based on the amount by which the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their fair value. If the Company concludes that impairment exists, the carrying amount is reduced to fair value.
- Long-term debt: The carrying values of the Company's short-term variable rate debt approximate the fair values because of the short-term nature of these instruments. The estimated fair value and carrying value of the Class A-2 Notes were $380,264 and $403,848, respectively, as of December 31, 2023. The fair value was estimated using market quotes and calculations provided by a third-party investment banking institution. The market in which the Class A-2 Notes trade is not considered an active market.

The following table presents financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis, which include derivatives and certain investments:

	Quoted Prices In active Markets for Identical Instruments (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Fair Value
Fair value measurement as of December 31, 2023
Investments for nonqualified deferred compensation plan (included with other noncurrent assets in the consolidated balance sheets)	$ 1,169	$ -	$ -	$ 1,169
Fair value measurement as of as of December 25, 2022
Investments for nonqualified deferred compensation plan (included with other noncurrent assets in the consolidated balance sheets)	$ 1,096	$ -	$ -	$ 1,096

The Company's investments for the nonqualified deferred compensation plan are comprised of investments held in a rabbi trust and intended to fund a portion of the Company's current and future deferred compensation obligations. These investments consist of money market funds and mutual funds and the fair value measurements are derived using quoted prices in active markets for the specific funds which are based on Level 1 inputs of the fair value hierarchy.

All derivatives, whether designated as hedging relationships or not, are required to be recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets at fair value. The changes in fair value related to these derivative contracts are recognized in earnings as they occur. The Company recorded net gains on the derivative contracts designated as derivatives of $0, $0, and $298 for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively. These gains are included in gain on commodity hedging contracts in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Senior Notes

On October 6, 2020, we completed a whole business securitization transaction (the “Securitization Transaction”). In conjunction with the Securitization Transaction, Bojangles Issuer, LLC (the “Issuer”), our indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, issued an aggregate principal amount of $415,000 Series 2020-1 3.832% Class A-2 Senior Secured Notes with an anticipated repayment date of October 2025 and a legal final maturity date of October 2050 (the “Class A-2 Notes”) and $40,000 Series 2020-1 Variable Funding Class A-1 Senior Secured Notes due October 2024 (the “Variable Funding Notes”) and together with the Class A-2 Notes, the “Senior Notes”). The Class A-2 Notes and Variable Funding Notes were issued pursuant to the indenture governing the Senior Notes (the “Indenture”). The Indenture allows the Issuer to issue additional series of notes in the future subject to certain conditions.

The Variable Funding Notes provide for senior secured revolving facility loans, and subfacilities for swingline loans and letters of credit, in an aggregate amount of up to $40,000. The Variable Funding Notes mature in October 2024 but contain options for renewal for an additional 12-month term (subject to certain conditions, including a minimum debt service coverage ratio). Prior to May 1, 2023 the Variable Funding Notes bore interest at a variable interest rate equal to (a) a commercial paper rate plus 3.78%, (b) the greater of (i) the prime rate or (ii) the federal funds rate plus 0.50% or (iii) the Eurodollar rate plus 1.00%. On May 1, 2023, the Company amended the Variable Funding Notes as a result of the discontinuance of a published Eurodollar rate. The amended Variable Funding Notes bear interest at 3.78% plus the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR”) rate and a reserve rate of 0.25%. The Variable Funding Notes require us to pay a commitment fee of 0.50% per annum for unused commitments and letter of credit fees of 3.78% per annum on our outstanding noncash collateralized letters of credit. Interest and other fees on the Variable Funding Notes are due quarterly in arrears on the 20th day of each January, April, July and October. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company borrowed and repaid $10,000 under the Variable Funding Notes. During the year ended December 25, 2022, the Company borrowed $10,000 under the Variable Funding Notes. As of December 31, 2023, there was a $10,000 outstanding borrowing bearing interest at 9.45%, $4,700 of outstanding letters of credit, and remaining availability of $25,300 under our Variable Funding Notes. As of December 25, 2022, there was a $10,000 outstanding borrowing bearing interest at 8.15%, $4,700 of outstanding letters of credit, and remaining availability of $25,300 under our Variable Funding Notes.

The Class A-2 Notes require scheduled quarterly principal payments of $1,038, totaling $4,150 per year, and bear interest at a rate of 3.832% per annum, payable quarterly in arrears on the 20th day of each January, April, July and October. If certain conditions are met, including a maximum leverage ratio for the Issuer and its subsidiary and immediate holding company (collectively, the “Securitization Entities”) of 5.0x of total indebtedness to net cash flow, each as defined in the Indenture, we may elect not to make the scheduled principal payments on the Class A-2 Notes. The Company was not required to, and elected not to, make a principal payment on the Class A-2 notes on January 20, 2024.

While the Class A-2 Notes are structured to provide for a five-year anticipated term, they have a legal final maturity date of October 2050. We expect to refinance the Class A-2 Notes with another long-term financing at or before the anticipated repayment date of October 2025. However, in the event that we do not refinance the Class A-2 Notes in full by the anticipated repayment date, the Class A-2 Notes are subject to contingent additional interest at an interest rate of at least 5% per annum, and principal payments will accelerate until the debt is paid in full.

The Senior Notes are collateralized by substantially all assets of the Securitization Entities and guaranteed by the Securitization Entities but are not guaranteed by or collateralized with the assets of Walker Parent, Inc. or its other subsidiaries, including Bojangles Restaurants, Inc (“BRI”). The Indenture requires that the Securitization Entities report and remit weekly cash flows of the Securitization Entities to the trustee of the Senior Notes. The weekly cash flows are subject to priorities of payment that provide for the payment of funds to specific reserve accounts for debt service and other specified purposes set forth in the Indenture. The amount of weekly cash flow, if any, that exceeds the amounts required by the priorities of payment is generally remitted to BRI in the form of an equity distribution.

The Senior Notes are subject to a series of covenants and restrictions customary for transactions of this type, including (i) required actions to better secure collateral upon the occurrence of certain performance-related events, (ii) application of certain disposition proceeds as note prepayments after a set time is allowed for reinvestment, (iii) maintenance of specified reserve accounts, (iv) maintenance of certain debt service coverage ratios, (v) indemnification payments for defective or ineffective collateral, and (vi) covenants relating to record keeping, access to information and similar matters. If certain covenants or restrictions are not met, the Senior Notes are subject to accelerated repayment events and events of default. Although management does not anticipate an event of default, if any such event occurred and was not cured within any applicable cure period, the unpaid amounts outstanding could become immediately due and payable.

In assessing the realizability of deferred income tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred income tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax income assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred income tax liabilities and projected future taxable income in making this assessment. Based upon the level of historical taxable income and projections of future taxable income over the periods in which the deferred income tax assets are deductible, management believes it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefits of these deductible differences and accordingly has not recorded a reserve as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in interest expense and general and administrative expenses, respectively. Uncertain tax positions and related interest and penalties on uncertain tax positions for the years ended December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022 were not significant.

The Company is subject to U.S. federal income tax, as well as income tax of multiple state jurisdictions. The U.S. federal and material state and local tax statutes of limitations generally remain open for the fiscal years 2015 and forward.

13. Commitments and Contingencies

Litigation

The Company is subject to various claims and litigation that arise in the normal course of business. Management is of the opinion that, although the outcome of the litigation cannot be predicted with any certainty, the ultimate liability, if any, will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Letters of Credit

Pursuant to our Variable Funding Notes, we may borrow up to $40,000 for senior secured revolving facility loans, swingline loans and letters of credit see Note 1). As of December 31, 2023, we had a standby letter of credit outstanding under our Variable Funding Notes in the amount of $4,700. This outstanding letter of credit is for the benefit of the holders of the Senior Notes as an interest reserve required by the Indenture.

Concentration of Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the exposure to loss resulting from changes in the level of interest rates and the spread between different interest rates. Interest rate risk is highly sensitive due to many factors, including U.S. monetary and tax policies, U.S. and international economic factors and other factors beyond our control. The Variable Funding Notes have floating interest rates. The Company is exposed to changes in the level of interest rates and to changes in the relationship or spread between interest rates for our floating rate debt. The Company's floating rate debt will require payments based on a variable interest rate index such as SOFR. Therefore, increases in interest rates may reduce the Company's net income by increasing the cost of the Company's debt.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Certain financial instruments potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. These financial instruments consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents and accounts and vendor receivables. The Company places its cash and cash equivalents with high-credit, quality financial institutions. At times, the balances in the accounts exceed the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Concentration of credit risk with respect to receivables is primarily limited to franchisees, which are primarily located in the southeastern United States and certain vendors. Royalty revenues from three franchisees accounted for approximately 50%, 48% and 47% of the Company's total franchise royalty revenues for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively. Royalty and franchise fee accounts receivable from three franchisees accounted for approximately 54% and 56% of the Company's gross royalty and franchise fee accounts receivable as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, respectively. The Company continually evaluates and monitors the credit history of its franchisees and believes it has an adequate allowance for credit losses.

Concentration of Commodity Price Risk

The Company purchases certain products that are affected by commodity prices and are, therefore, subject to price volatility caused by weather, market conditions and other factors which are not considered predictable or within our control. Although these products are subject to changes in commodity prices, certain purchasing contracts or pricing arrangements contain risk management techniques designed to minimize price volatility.

The purchasing contracts and pricing arrangements we use may result in unconditional purchase obligations, which are not reflected in our accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Typically, the Company uses these types of purchasing techniques to control costs as an alternative to directly managing financial instruments to hedge commodity prices. In many cases, the Company believes it will be able to address material commodity cost increases by adjusting our menu pricing, promotional mix, or changing our product delivery strategy. However, increases in commodity prices, without adjustments to our menu prices, could increase food and supplies costs as a percentage of Company-operated restaurant revenues and customers may react negatively to increases in our menu prices which could adversely impact customer traffic and revenues. In addition, the Company may seek to mitigate some of its commodity price risk by entering into commodity derivatives contracts.

Sponsorships

The Company has entered into various sponsorship agreements with original terms of up to ten years to receive certain advertising rights, the use of certain advertising territories, and vendor products as defined in the agreements. These amounts are reflected as operating costs within Company-operated restaurant operating expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations, generally in the year in which the amounts are incurred.

14. Employee Benefit Plans

401(k) Plan

The Company's 401(k) Plan covers employees meeting certain age and service requirements as defined in the plan. Participants can make pretax contributions to the plan. Under the provisions of the plan, the Company currently matches 50% of the first 5% of salaries and wages contributed to the 401(k) Plan. Participants are 100% vested in their own contributions. The total employer matching expense related to the plan was $828, $820 and $735 for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021, respectively.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company maintains a rabbi trust to invest compensation deferred under our nonqualified deferred compensation plan and fund future deferred compensation obligations. The rabbi trust is subject to creditor claims in the event of insolvency, but the assets held in the rabbi trust are not otherwise available for general corporate purposes. This plan allows eligible participants to defer compensation. Deferred compensation, net of accumulated earnings and/or losses on the participant-directed investment options, is distributable in cash at employee specified dates or upon retirement, death, disability or termination from the plan.

Realized and unrealized gains and losses on these securities are recorded in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations and offset changes in deferred compensation liabilities to participants. There was no impact to the accompanying consolidated statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2023, December 25, 2022 and December 26, 2021. The assets of the plan were $1,169 and $1,096 as of December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022, respectively, are included in noncurrent assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

15. Share-Based Compensation Plan

Under the Incentive Unit Award Agreement (the "Plan"), the board of managers of Walker Holdings, LLC ("WHLLC") has granted Class B Share-Based Unit awards ("Unit Awards") to officers, directors, employees, and consultants of the Company and its subsidiaries. These Unit Awards are held at the WHLLC entity level. There are up to 432,628 Class B Partnership Units available for issuance under the Plan. At December 31, 2023, there were 26,401 additional Unit Awards available for grant under the Plan. The term of each Unit Award is determined by the board of directors or committee designated by the board at the time of grant, subject to the approval of WHLLC. Vested

Unit Awards can be converted to Class A-2 share-based units upon payment of a per unit conversion price. The per unit conversion price is determined by the board of directors or committee designated by the board on the date of grant.

The fair value of each Unit Award is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes-Merton option-pricing model. No dividends are expected to be paid over the contractual term of the award, resulting in the use of a zero expected dividend rate. Volatility was estimated based on the average historical volatility of similar entities with publicly traded shares. The expected term for Unit Awards granted is derived using the “simplified” method, in accordance with SEC guidance.

The risk-free rate for the expected term of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve at the date of grant.

The assumptions used for grants made during the years ended December 31, 2023 and December 25, 2022 are as follows:

Vested Unit Awards, if any, can be converted to Class A-2 share-based units upon payment of the unit conversion price.

The weighted-average fair value of the Time-based Awards on the dates of the grant ranged in value from $30.14 to $60.40. The weighted-average fair value of the Performance-based Awards on the date of grant ranged from $6.13 to $59.63 depending on the outcome of the performance objectives.

As of December 31, 2023, there was $2,406 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to Time-based Awards, which is expected to be recognized over a remaining weighted average period of approximately 3.1 years. As of December 31, 2023, there was approximately $5,098 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to Performance-based Awards. These Performance-based Awards will vest and become exercisable only upon the achievement of certain market and performance conditions indicated in the share-based unit award grant.

ADDENDUM

DEVELOPMENT INCENTIVE PROGRAM ADDENDUM
TO THE BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR MINORITIES, WOMEN AND VETERANS

This Development Incentive Program Addendum (this “Addendum”) to the Bojangles Opco, LLC Development Agreement dated as of _____ (the “Development Agreement”) is made as of _____, by and between BOJANGLES OPCO, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Franchisor”), and _____, a [State] [Entity Type] (“Developer”).

RECITALS

In order to encourage the development of franchised Bojangles restaurants (“Restaurants”) by persons who are part of certain historically underrepresented groups, Franchisor has implemented a development incentive program (the “Program”).

Pursuant to the Development Agreement, Developer has agreed to develop and open three (3) or more Restaurants in the Assigned Area in accordance with the Development Schedule.

Franchisor and Developer are entering into this Addendum to modify the Development Agreement and to provide for Developer’s receipt of the Program benefits offered by Franchisor pursuant to the Program.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, agreements and obligations set forth below, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Defined Terms. As used in this Addendum, the following terms shall have the applicable meanings:

A. “Eligible Person” shall mean an individual who is: (i) a URM; (ii) a woman; and/or (iii) a Veteran.

B. “Qualifying Restaurant” shall mean a new Restaurant developed by Developer on a site approved by Franchisor within the deadlines set forth on the Development Schedule.

C. “URM” shall mean a United States citizen presenting documentation from a federal or state certification body to establish at least twenty-five percent (25%) minimum origins as follows:

- (1) African-American – origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa;
- (2) Hispanic – origins in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Central and South American, or other Spanish or Portuguese cultures;
- (3) Native American – American Indian, Eskimo, Aleut or Native Hawaiian, and regarded as such by the community of which the person claims to be a part.

Additionally, Native Americans must be documented members of a North American tribe, band or otherwise organized group of native people who are indigenous to the continental United States for which proof can be provided through a Native American Blood Degree Certificate (i.e., tribal registry letter and/or tribal roll register number);

(4) Asian Pacific: origins in the Pacific Islands, China, Taiwan, Korea, Japan, Thailand, Burma, Cambodia, Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore or Philippines; and

(5) Subcontinent Asian: origins in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, the Maldives Islands, Nepal or Sri Lanka.

D. “Veteran” shall mean a person who has provided Franchisor with a DD Form 214 or other adequate documentation, as determined by Franchisor, demonstrating honorable discharge from the United States military.

2. Program Eligibility. In order to be eligible to receive, and continue receiving, the development incentive benefits of the Program, Developer acknowledges and agrees that it must satisfy the following conditions:

A. Holders of at least a fifty-one percent (51%) ownership interest in Developer must be Eligible Persons;

B. Developer must have signed the Development Agreement no later than December 31, 2024; and

C. Developer may not participate in any other incentive programs under the Development Agreement;

D. Developer and/or its affiliates must be in full compliance with the terms of the Development Agreement, any Franchise Agreement and any other agreement with Franchisor and/or its affiliates.

3. Program Benefits

A. Franchise Fee Reduction. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section II.B. of the Development Agreement, for the first two (2) Qualifying Restaurants Developer develops pursuant to the Development Agreement and the Program, Franchisor shall reduce the franchise fee payable under the applicable Franchise Agreement by fifty percent (50%) (the “Franchise Fee Reduction”).

B. Royalty Fee Reduction. Following the opening date of each Qualifying Restaurant that Developer develops pursuant to the Development Agreement and the Program, Developer shall pay a reduced royalty fee for that Qualifying Restaurant (the “Royalty Fee Reduction”) for a period of three (3) years according to the following rate schedule:

Year Following Opening Date of Qualifying Restaurant	Applicable Royalty Fee Reduction (to be subtracted from the standard royalty fee)
Year One	3% of Gross Sales of the Restaurant
Year Two	2% of Gross Sales of the Restaurant
Year Three	1% of Gross Sales of the Restaurant
Year Four and Onward	Standard royalty fee rate set forth in the Franchise Agreement

By way of example, if the royalty fee due under the Franchise Agreement for the Qualifying Restaurant is 4% of Gross Sales, in Year One, the royalty fee due would be 1% of Gross Sales; in Year Two, the royalty fee due would be 2% of Gross Sales; in Year Three, the royalty fee due would be 3% of Gross Sales; and in Year Four and onward, the royalty fee due would be 4% of Gross Sales.

4. Compliance with Development Procedures. With respect to each Qualifying Restaurant developed pursuant to the Program, Developer agrees to: (A) comply with Franchisor’s then current site submittal review and approval process; and (B) execute Franchisor’s standard form of Development Incentive Program Addendum to the Bojangles Opco, LLC Franchise Agreement to reflect the Program incentives in the form attached as Exhibit A to this Addendum.

5. Termination of Addendum.

A. Grounds for Termination. This Addendum, and the development incentives offered pursuant to this Addendum, shall terminate without notice to Developer, and without any opportunity to cure, if:

- (1) Any Eligible Person transfers their ownership interests in Developer and, as a result, holders of less than a fifty-one percent (51%) ownership interest in Developer remain as Eligible Persons;
- (2) Developer fails to open any Restaurant on or before the applicable date set forth in the Development Schedule;
- (3) Developer and/or any of Developer’s affiliates receive a written notice of default under the Development Agreement, any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates and fail to cure the default within the applicable cure period, if any.

B. Effect of Termination. If this Addendum is terminated, then:

- (1) Developer will not be entitled to receive any further development incentives under the Program, including the Franchise Fee Reduction and the Royalty Fee Reduction for future Restaurants that Developer develops;
- (2) The Developer must immediately pay Franchisor an amount equal to the Franchise Fee Reduction Developer received for any Qualifying Restaurant; and

(3) The Royalty Fee Reduction for any Qualifying Restaurant will immediately terminate and Developer must immediately begin paying Franchisor a royalty fee at the standard rate specified in the Franchise Agreement for the Qualifying Restaurant.

6. Miscellaneous.

A. Advice of Counsel. Each party represents and warrants to the other party that it had the full and complete opportunity to review this document with an attorney of its own choosing in connection with considering the terms of this Addendum, and in evaluating whether or not to enter into this Addendum.

C. Capitalized Terms. Any capitalized term that is not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given it in the Development Agreement.

D. Limited Modification. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Development Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

E. Counterparts and Electronic Signature. This Addendum may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. (2) The Royalty Fee Reduction will immediately terminate and Franchisee must immediately begin paying franchisor a royalty fee at the standard rate set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

Franchisee represents and warrants that: (1) they are aware that they may in the future learn of facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of this paragraph, but that nonetheless, it is their intention to fully, finally, and forever settle and release all Claims; and (2) they have not assigned any Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the Franchisee Releasers, further covenants not to sue any of the Franchisor Parties on any of the Claims released by this paragraph. Franchisee agrees that fair consideration has been given by Franchisor for this release and Franchisee fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete, and final release of all Claims.

[Add for California Franchisees; delete otherwise] Franchisee expressly waives and relinquishes all rights and benefits which either Franchisee may now have or may in the future have under and by virtue of California Civil Code Section 1542. Franchisee does so understanding the significance and consequence of such specific waiver. Section 1542 provides that “[a] general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.”]
