We offer you a franchise to operate a TKK Fried Chicken business, which is a quick-service restaurant specializing in Asian style crispy fried chicken and sweet potato fries. We also offer a multi-unit franchise under which you agree to open and operate a specified number of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants over an agreed period of time within an agreed geographic area.

The total investment necessary to begin operation of a franchised TKK Fried Chicken business is $375,000 to $698,000 for a standard TKK Fried Chicken restaurant, $272,500 to $356,500 for a non-traditional unit, and $192,000 to $238,500 for a TKK Express franchise. This includes $60,000 to $65,000 that you must pay to us or our affiliate for a standard unit, $42,500 for a non-traditional unit, and $30,000 to $32,500 for a TKK Express unit.

The multi-unit agreement must cover at least three single unit franchises. If you sign a multi-unit agreement covering three units, your total initial investment will be $425,000 to $748,000 if your first franchise under the agreement is a standard unit, $322,500 to $406,500 if your first franchise is a non-traditional unit, and $242,000 to $288,500 if your first unit is a TKK Express unit. This includes $110,000 to $115,000 that you must pay to us or our affiliate if your first franchise under the multi-unit agreement is a standard unit, $92,500 if your first franchise is a non-traditional unit, and $80,000 to $82,500 if your first franchise is a TKK Express unit. If you sign an agreement for more than three units, you will pay us or our affiliate an additional $12,500 for each unit you agree to develop after your third unit, and this amount will be added to your total initial investment.

What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risks be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and multi-unit agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by litigation only in New York. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to litigate with the franchisor in New York than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.
3. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" pages for your state (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

No other affiliates offer franchises in any line of business or provide products or services to our franchisees. Neither we nor any predecessor or affiliate other than KF Tea Franchising LLC offers or has offered franchises in other lines of business.

The Franchise

The first TTK Fried Chicken restaurant opened in Taipei City, Taiwan, in 1974. Today, there are approximately 70 TTK Fried Chicken restaurants in Taiwan and 6 in China.

We offer the right to own and operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant at a location that you choose and we approve. Each TTK Fried Chicken restaurant offers Asian style super crispy fried chicken, our signature sweet potato fries, and soft drinks. All of the chicken and other items sold at TTK Fried Chicken restaurants are prepared in accordance with our recipes using our ingredients and other specified or authorized ingredients, and using equipment we supply or specify. You may also offer take-out and delivery service from the restaurant.

We offer two types of TTK Fried Chicken franchises in addition to our standard unit offering. We call one the “non-traditional” unit. A non-traditional unit is one located in an airport, hotel or resort, military installation, school or university campus, train station, subway station, casino, theme park, sports stadium, enclosed shopping mall or similar location that we designate as a non-traditional unit.

In addition, we offer the “TKK Express” unit, which has a more limited menu and requires less equipment than a standard unit and less of an initial investment.

The terms of the franchise are contained in our franchise agreement, a form of which is attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit F2. The franchise agreement gives you the right to operate a single TTK Fried Chicken restaurant. The agreement includes your grant to us of a security interest in the assets of the franchised business to secure payment of your obligations to us.

In addition to single-concept TTK Fried Chicken locations, we offer dual branding with Kung Fu Tea shops. Dual-branded franchised businesses must sign franchise agreements and dual concept addenda with us and with our affiliate, KF Tea Franchising LLC, which offers Kung Fu Tea franchises using a separate franchise disclosure document.

We also offer a multi-unit franchise granting you a defined geographic area within which you agree to open and operate a specified number of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants within a specified period of time. If you participate in this program, you will sign a multi-unit agreement in the form attached in Exhibit F7, which will describe your development area and your development schedule and other obligations. The minimum number of restaurant franchises you must open and operate under a multi-unit agreement is three. For each TTK Fried Chicken restaurant you open under the multi-unit agreement, you will sign a separate franchise agreement promptly after we approve the site for the restaurant. Each franchise agreement after your first agreement will be the then-current version, which may be different from the form of franchise agreement in this offering.

If you are a Kung Fu Tea franchisee in the U.S., you qualify for a special offer. Each Kung Fu Tea franchisee that signs a TTK Fried Chicken franchise agreement will pay a reduced initial fee of $25,000 for a standard unit instead of $37,500. (See Item 5.)

The Market and the Competition

The quick-service restaurant (QSR) market is well-established and highly competitive. Consumers want taste, price and quality. Other competitive factors include name identification, site location, quality and speed of service, consistency and attractiveness of the facilities. You will compete with other quick-service restaurants located near your franchised TTK Fried Chicken restaurant. They include local companies and regional, national and international chains. TTK Fried Chicken restaurants are open for business all year round. They serve people of all ages.

Laws and Regulations

You must comply with all federal, state and local laws and regulations applicable to the operation of your franchised business. These include laws affecting businesses generally, such as:

- business licensing requirements, zoning, permitting and other requirements for the location, construction of the premises of your business, including access by persons with disabilities;
- tax laws, employment and workers' compensation laws;
- laws protecting the health, safety and welfare of your employees and customers, such as laws governing food preparation, handling and service, and sanitary conditions; laws requiring the public posting of nutritional information; restrictions on smoking; and regulations dealing with fire safety and design, maintenance and operation; and
- laws that regulate advertising.

There may be other laws applicable to your business. You should consult with your attorney about applicable laws in your area before you sign any binding document or make any investment in the franchise. These laws vary from one location to another and can change over time. The procedures and the difficulty and cost of obtaining the required licenses and of complying with the applicable laws vary greatly from area to area.

INITIAL FEES

Initial Franchise Fee

We offer three different types of franchises, each with the following initial fee:

- $37,500 for a standard TKK Fried Chicken restaurant
- $25,000 for a non-traditional unit
- $20,000 for a TKK Express unit

For the standard unit, we offer a discounted initial fee of $25,000 if (i) you are a Kung Fu Tea franchisee, (ii) you are already TKK Fried Chicken franchisee at another location, or (iii) you are buying a Kung Fu Tea franchise together with a TKK Fried Chicken franchise.

A non-traditional unit is one located in an airport, hotel or resort, military installation, school or university campus, train station, subway station, casino, theme park, sports stadium, enclosed shopping mall or similar location that we designate as a non-traditional unit.

A TKK Express restaurant has a more limited menu and requires less equipment than a standard TKK Fried Chicken restaurant.

These initial fees are uniform to all single unit franchisees but may be negotiated for multi-unit franchisees depending on the size of their territory and the number of franchises they agree to develop.

You pay the initial franchise fee in one lump sum when you sign the franchise agreement, less any deposit that you may have paid to us. The initial franchise fee is not refundable under any circumstances.

Before we enter into a franchise agreement with you, but after 14 days (and at least 10 business days) have passed from the date you receive this franchise disclosure document, and in order to conduct further evaluation of your qualifications to become one of our franchisees, we may ask you to enter into a franchise deposit agreement. We may enter into a franchise deposit agreement with you if you have not yet identified a site but you want to know that we will give you priority to become a franchisee in a geographic area that interests you. If you sign a franchise deposit agreement with us, you will submit to us a $5,000 deposit which we will credit against your initial franchise fee when you sign the franchise agreement. The deposit is not refundable unless we reject your application for any reason before we commence our evaluation. Your deposit will be used to cover some of our costs in evaluating you if you do not sign a franchise agreement. The franchise deposit agreement does not confer any franchise rights upon you.

Initial Training Fee

Before your initial training begins, you will pay us $12,500 to cover our costs of an initial two-week training program for a standard unit or a nontraditional unit. The initial training fee for a TKK Express unit is $5,000 to $7,500.

If you are opening a dual-concept franchise in which your franchised TKK Fried Chicken standard, non-traditional or Express location will also be a Kung Fu Tea shop, you will pay a total initial training fee of $15,000 to cover both concepts, with this payment being paid in equal amounts of $7,500 to us and $7,500 to our affiliate, KF Tea Franchising LLC.

We require this initial training only for your first franchise location. You pay this training fee in one lump sum before the training begins, which is approximately five weeks before the projected opening date of the franchised business. The training fee is not refundable.

Initial Supplies

You must purchase from Arms Global Inc. an initial supply of breading, seasoning, frying powders and marinating sauce for the fried chicken, as well as our special wrap mix, cups, and other items we specify. The cost of these items is $10,000 to $15,000 for a standard unit and $5,000 for a non-traditional or TKK Express unit. This payment is not refundable.

Development Fee

If you sign a multi-unit agreement (which must cover at least three units), you will pay us a development fee for the right to open and operate multiple franchise units. The development fee will essentially be an advance payment of the initial fees of all the units you agree to open after your first unit, as reflected in the development schedule of your multi-unit agreement. The amount of the development fee will vary depending on the number of units stated in the development schedule, and this fee may be negotiated for multi-unit franchisees depending on the size of their territory and the number of franchises to be developed, and the background and financial capabilities of the developer.

The development fee for three units is $50,000. A typical development fee for a larger number of units would be equal to $50,000 plus $12,500 for each unit you agree to develop after the third unit under the development schedule. You pay the development fee in one lump sum when you sign the multi-unit agreement. At the same time, you will sign the first franchise agreement under the multi-unit agreement and you will pay the initial fees described above. The development fee is not refundable regardless of the number of units you open.

Based on the above numbers, as shown in the table below, if you sign a multi-unit agreement covering three units, the initial amounts you will pay to us and our affiliates are as follows:

First unit type	Standard	Non-traditional	TKK Express
Initial fee	$37,500	$25,000	$20,000
Initial training	$12,500	$12,500	$5,000 to $7,500
Initial supplies	$10,000 to $15,000	$5,000	$5,000
First unit total	$60,000 to $65,000	$42,500	$30,000 to $32,500
Development Fee	$50,000	$50,000	$50,000
Total	$110,000 to $115,000	$92,500	$80,000 to $82,500

Note 1: The initial fee is not refundable. For the standard unit, we offer a discounted initial fee of $25,000 if (i) you are a Kung Fu Tea franchisee, (ii) you are already TKK Fried Chicken franchisee at another location, or (iii) you are buying a Kung Fu Tea franchise together with a TKK Fried Chicken franchise.

Note 2: We require initial training only when you open your first TKK Fried Chicken restaurant. The initial training fee is $12,500 for a standard or a non-traditional location, or $5,000 to $7,500 for a TKK Express franchise. If you are opening a dual-concept franchise in which your franchised TKK Fried Chicken standard, non-traditional or Express location will also be a Kung Fu Tea shop, you will pay a total initial training fee of $15,000 to cover both concepts, with this payment being paid in equal amounts of $7,500 to us and $7,500 to our affiliate, KF Tea Franchising LLC. This fee is not refundable.

Note 3: See Item 11 for information concerning the required computer, software and point of sale systems.

Note 4: The actual amount you pay under the lease will vary depending on the size of the annual rent, your ability to negotiate with the landlord and the prevailing rental rates in the geographic area of the restaurant. The recommended size of a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant is between 1,500 and 2,500 square feet.

Note 5: The cost of leasehold improvements will vary as a function of (i) the size and configuration of the premises; (ii) pre-construction costs (e.g., demolition of existing walls and removal of existing improvements and fixtures) based on the condition of the premises; (iii) the availability and prices of materials; (iv) prices of labor and price differences among contractors; and (v) geography and the location of the premises.

Note 6: You must purchase from Arms Global Inc. an initial supply of breading, seasoning, frying powders and marinating sauce for the fried chicken, as well as our special wrap mix, cups, and other items we specify. This payment is not refundable.

Note 7: This represents the costs of activities for marketing and advertising before your franchise is open and during the grand opening phase. We will guide you through this process. All strategies and actions taken and materials used must be approved by us and must be consistent with the TKK Fried Chicken style guide section of our operations manual.

Note 8: See Item 8 for a description of the types of insurance you must maintain.

Note 9: This covers travel, lodging and meals for selected staff for initial training in New York, as well as the salaries of employees you will have working before opening.

Note 10: Your attorney should review the franchise documents and the lease, and may also assist you in forming an entity to be the franchisee.

Note 11: These amounts are our estimate of the amount needed to cover your expenses for the start-up phase of your business. They include payroll, utilities, telephone service and other costs. The amounts are based on the experience of our affiliate in opening and operating its own TKK Fried Chicken restaurants.

Note 12: These figures are estimates. We cannot assure you that you will not have additional expenses in starting the franchised business. These amounts do not include any estimates for debt service.

The amount of the development fee for three units is $50,000, which is essentially a prepayment of the initial fee for the second and third units. A typical development fee for a larger number of units would be equal to $50,000 plus $12,500 for each additional agreed unit after the third unit. The $12,500 fee is a discounted prepayment of the initial fee for each unit you agree to develop after the first three units. You pay the development fee in one lump sum when you sign the multi-unit agreement together with the initial fee for your first franchise. The development fee is not refundable under any circumstances, regardless of whether you open all of the restaurants in your development schedule.

You will sign your first franchise agreement at the time you sign the multi-unit agreement. You will pay us the $12,500 training fee only for the first restaurant.

Note 14: Estimates of the other items that constitute your initial investment for the first TKK Fried Chicken restaurant you open under the multi-unit agreement appear in the tables above.

Item 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Purchases

You must purchase most of your supplies from our affiliate, Arms Global Inc., as described in Item 5.

All technology devices, apps and services that you purchase or lease and use must also comply with our requirements, which may include specific items from specific suppliers. You must purchase the scanner that will enable you to accept purchases from customers who use the LevelUp app to earn loyalty rewards, as described in Item 11. You purchase the scanner from SCVNGR, Inc., doing business as LevelUp. See www.thelevelup.com.

We require you to purchase all breading, seasoning, frying powders and marinating sauce from Arms Global Inc., as well as our special wrap mix, cups and other items we specify. You must buy reasonable quantities of these products to meet the demands of your customers. You may not purchase these items from any other supplier.

In 2023, Arms Global Inc. received $434,413 based on sales to our franchisees, which represented less than 1% of the total 2023 revenues of Arms Global Inc. of $38,818,365 based on the company's internal books and records.

We specify all items of equipment that you must use in your franchised business. You must purchase this equipment from suppliers we specify. Our current supplier for most equipment is WebstaurantStore from Clark's National Account. See www.webstaurantstore.com/restaurant-equipment.html.

We require you to sell soft drinks that we specify or approve.

We also require you to purchase one or more TVs to be mounted on the wall to display the menu that we provide through Chromecast. The TV must meet our specifications but can be purchased from any supplier.

Your purchases of chicken and other foods that we do not supply must meet our specifications and can be purchased from any supplier.

We do not require you to use delivery platforms and services (such as Grubhub, Uber Eats, DoorDash or Postmates). However, if you do, the services and suppliers you use must comply with our requirements.

We estimate that approximately 15% to 20% of your expenditures for leases and purchases in establishing your TKK Fried Chicken restaurant and 25% to 35% of your expenditures in operating the restaurant on an ongoing basis will be for goods and services that are subject to sourcing restrictions, meaning goods and services that must be from a designated or approved supplier or otherwise meet our standards or specifications.

You may not install on or about your TKK Fried Chicken restaurant any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, decor items, signs or other items without our written consent or that do not meet our standards and specifications.

We will provide you with our manuals, style guides and various supplemental bulletins and notices that will contain the specifications, standards and restrictions on your purchase of products and services, and a list of designated and approved suppliers.

None of our officers owns an interest in any supplier other than our affiliate Arms Global Inc.

Rebates and Discounts

We may derive revenue in the form of commissions or rebates that third party suppliers pay to us based on their sales of certain products to you. Rebates will not increase the price you pay for the products you purchase. We may use the rebates to subsidize some of our operating costs. We have not yet received any rebates from any supplier. We do not yet know the amount of any rebates we may receive in the future.

We may receive discounts on equipment and other items, which we are not obligated to pass on to you. We may negotiate other purchase agreements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees, but we are under no obligation to do so.

Approval Process

If you wish to use any item or supplier we have not previously designated or approved, you must submit to us a written request for such approval, or request the supplier to do so. We will give such approval only if, in our sole discretion, we determine that such item and supplier meet all of our standards and specifications. We have the right to require that our representatives be permitted to inspect the suppliers' facilities and that specifications, photographs and samples from the supplier be delivered, at our option, either to us or to an independent laboratory designated by us for testing. You will bear the cost of such testing but we do not charge a fee for our own testing or for supplier or product approval. We will endeavor to begin an investigation of the proposed supplier or product within 30 days of your request. We will notify you within 10 days after we complete our investigation whether we approve the proposed supplier or product.

We reserve the right to re-inspect the facilities and products of any approved supplier and to revoke our approval if the supplier fails to continue to meet any of our then-current criteria and specifications. Our supplier approval procedure does not obligate us to approve any particular supplier. We do not make our criteria for approving suppliers available to franchisees.

Computer Equipment

You must purchase computers with internet access and all of the software and hardware we require. See Item 11 for information concerning the required computer, software and point of sale systems.

Lease

You must submit to us for our approval a copy of the proposed lease for your franchised restaurant before it is signed. We will not approve the lease unless it permits your interest in the lease to be assigned to us or our assignee if the franchise agreement terminates or expires.

Insurance

You must obtain and maintain insurance policies protecting you, TKK Franchising LLC and Arms Global Inc. as additional insureds on a primary non-contributory basis to the general liability policy and the auto liability policy. The additional insureds should be listed on the certificate as follows: TKK Franchising LLC and Arms Global Inc. and their officers, directors, partners, shareholders, members, subsidiaries and affiliates, agents, employees, successors and assigns. These policies must include the coverage we require, which currently includes: (a) "all risk" or "special" property insurance covering all real and personal property and equipment on a replacement costs basis, including business interruption and extra expense insurance on an actual loss sustained basis; (b) comprehensive general liability insurance, including products and completed operations in an amount of not less than the following combined single limits: $2,000,000 per occurrence, $2,000,000 personal and advertising injury, $2,000,000 completed operations/ products aggregate, $2,000,000 aggregate per location; (c) employment practices liability coverage with a limit of $100,000 per occurrence and in the aggregate; (d) automobile liability coverage, including coverage of owned, non-owned rented or hired vehicles with coverage in amounts not less than $1,000,000 combined single limit; and (e) workers' compensation insurance for statutory limits and employer's liability insurance in an amount not less than $1,000,000. You and your insurers must agree to waive rights of subrogation against us. At least 10 days before you are required to carry insurance, and after that at least 30 days before the expiration of any policy, you must deliver to us certificates of insurance evidencing the proper types and minimum amounts of required coverage, and evidence of the waiver.

If you fail to maintain the required insurance, we or our designee may obtain the insurance for you and charge you for the premium costs plus a 25% service charge for acquiring the insurance. Each year we may unilaterally modify the insurance minimum coverage requirements which may include an increase to the minimum coverage requirements to reflect changes in inflation or as market conditions warrant.

Purchasing or Distribution Cooperatives

There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives as of the date of this disclosure document. We may establish national or regional purchasing or distribution programs for the purchase or distribution of certain goods, materials or supplies at reduced prices. If a purchasing or distribution program is established for the region where your TTK Fried Chicken restaurant business is located, you must participate in the program.

Other

We do not provide material benefits to you or withhold material benefits from you (such as renewal rights or the right to open additional franchised TTK Fried Chicken restaurants) based on whether or not you purchase through the sources we designate or approve. You receive the benefit of knowing that designated or approved sources and products meet our quality standards, and you may benefit from favorable prices based on volume purchases by our franchisees. On the other hand, any purchases you make of unapproved products or from unapproved suppliers in violation of the franchise agreement will entitle us to collect a fine (described in Item 6) and to terminate your franchise agreement.

If you request our assistance in purchasing any equipment or supplies, we may charge you our usual fee for such assistance.

See Item 16 for restrictions on what you may sell in the context of your franchised business.

Before Opening

Before you open your franchised business, we will provide the following assistance:

1. We review site proposals you submit to us and approve, reject or provide comments to you regarding each proposal. We do not own locations and lease them to franchisees. But we may assign our own lease of a location to you or sublease the space to you. We review the proposed lease to be sure that it allows us certain rights in the event of your default. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.2.1 and 1.2.2.)

2. We provide you with a design package, including a sample layout for the interior of a typical TTK Fried Chicken restaurant with a set of typical preliminary plans and equipment and décor specifications. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.2.7.) We may require you to use specific suppliers for the floor plan and three-dimensional rendering of your franchised restaurant. We review, comment on and approve your final plans and specifications when they are satisfactory to us, and we consult with you on the construction and equipping of the franchised restaurant. You are responsible for construction and conforming the premises to local ordinances and building codes, and for obtaining required permits. We make a final inspection of the franchised restaurant after you complete its construction. We may require any corrections and modifications we deem necessary to bring the franchised restaurant into compliance with accepted plans, equipment, designs and specifications.
3. We give you access to our confidential operations manual and supplementary materials, which we revise periodically. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.4.1.) The manual remains our property. As of the date of this disclosure document, the manual contains approximately 40 pages. We may modify the manual from time to time, but the modifications will not alter your status and rights under the franchise agreement. The table of contents of the manual is attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit E.
4. Our affiliate, Arms Global, Inc., provides you with your initial supply of breading, seasoning, frying powders and marinating sauce for the fried chicken, as well as our special wrap mix, cups, and other items we specify. 4. We provide standards and lists of approved suppliers and distributors for your use in the acquisition of equipment, inventory, materials, supplies and furnishings for your franchised restaurant. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.3.)
5. We create, develop, and place advertising and promotional programs designed to promote and enhance all TKK Fried Chicken restaurant businesses and, if we deem necessary, test marketing and market research activities, for the benefit of the TKK Fried Chicken franchise system. We will administer the marketing fund, and cooperatives if they are formed, as described below. We coordinate a customer loyalty program using the LevelUp app described below. We will review all advertising materials you submit to us for your use in local advertising. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.)
6. We maintain a website to advertise and promote TKK Fried Chicken restaurant businesses. Your location will be included in a list of TKK Fried Chicken restaurant locations on the TKK Fried Chicken website. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.8.)
7. Our representatives will be available at all reasonable times to you for consultation by telephone concerning all aspects of operating the franchised business, upon reasonable notice, including the institution of proper administrative, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control, supervisory and general operating procedures for the effective operation of a franchised business. We may charge you a reasonable fee for providing on-site assistance at your request. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.8.)
8. We provide such other assistance and support as we may deem necessary or desirable to assist you in connection with the operation of the franchised business. Operations assistance may consist of advice and guidance in the form of a franchisee newsletter or internet postings on our franchisee website and other updates and written materials.

Advertising

National and Regional Advertising

We require you to pay us a marketing fee in an amount equal to 2% of the gross sales of the franchised business each month during the term of the franchise agreement as a contribution to the marketing fund. (Franchise Agreement, Section 2.1.5.)

We maintain and direct regional advertising and any national advertising we may do in the future, all of which will be financed by the marketing fund. We may establish an entity to operate the marketing fund, but we do not now have such an entity. We will account for any such fund separately from our other funds and we will not use it to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for reasonable salaries, administrative costs, travel expenses and overhead as we may incur in activities related to the administration of the marketing fund and its programs. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.7.4 through 1.7.10.)

The marketing fund may be used to pay the costs of producing video, audio and written advertising materials, administering national and regional advertising and engaging advertising, promotion and advertising agencies to assist us, website development and maintenance, toll-free telephone costs, and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising, promotion and marketing activities. Such advertising may use any form of media, including direct mail, print ads, radio and television. The source of the advertising may be our in-house advertising department or an outside advertising agency. If we or our affiliates provide in-house advertising department services, we or our affiliates may be reasonably compensated from the marketing fund. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.6.)

Any amount of marketing fees that we do not spend in the year they accrue will be carried forward and included in the following year's marketing budget. Contributions to the marketing fund will not be used to sell additional franchises, although we may use materials resulting from such contributions on the system website (discussed below), which may advertise the TTK Fried Chicken franchise opportunity.

Although we will endeavor to use the marketing fund to develop advertising programs and to place advertising that will benefit all franchisees, we cannot ensure that expenditures from the marketing fund in any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to contributions to the fund by franchisees operating in the geographic area or that your franchised business will benefit directly or in proportion to your contribution to the fund. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.9.) We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in your area or territory.

Our company or affiliate owned TTK Fried Chicken restaurant businesses will not be required to contribute to the marketing fund on the same basis as TTK Fried Chicken franchisees.

Upon your written request, we will provide to you an accounting of the marketing fees we collected in the prior year, showing the allocation of our advertising expenditures. Advertising receipts and expenditures are administered by us and are not audited. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.7.) We did not collect marketing fees in 2023, so we cannot provide a breakdown of how advertising funds were used in 2023.

You must participate in all promotion campaigns, advertising, loyalty programs, and other programs we periodically establish or approve, whether on a national, regional or local basis. We have established a customer loyalty program using the LevelUp mobile app described below. We may charge you a technology fee of up to $350 per month to compensate us for our management of the customer loyalty program. The current fee is $140 per month, which you pay to us and we pay to LevelUp.

There is no advertising council composed of franchisees that advises us on advertising policies. But we have the power to form, change or dissolve advertising councils. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.6.13.)

Advertising Cooperatives

We do not require you as of the date of this disclosure document to participate in any local or regional advertising cooperatives. However, we have the right to establish and coordinate cooperative advertising and sales programs, customer satisfaction programs and similar programs from time to time among TTK Fried Chicken franchisees. We may require you to participate in such programs on an equitable basis with other participants. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.11.)

Local Advertising

We do not require you to engage in any local advertising or to spend any minimum amount of money on local advertising. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.2.)

You may develop local advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost, following advertising criteria that we establish. We must approve the advertising materials in advance. All materials you use in local advertising, promotions and public relations must conform to our standards which are outlined in our operating manual. All such materials must be clear, factual and not misleading. You agree to submit to us, before you use them, samples of all materials you intend to use that we have not prepared or previously approved. We will endeavor to approve or disapprove the advertising materials within 15 days after we receive it from you, but we are not required to do so within this timeframe. If we have not notified you of disapproval within 15 days after your submission for approval, the materials will be considered approved. If we approve, we may withdraw our approval at any time for future use of such materials. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.7.3.)

Website

We maintain a system website, and we may establish other websites, to advertise, market and promote the TTK Fried Chicken restaurants and the TTK Fried Chicken franchise opportunity. We maintain the system website. We may use the marketing fund assets to develop, maintain and update those parts of the system website that promote the TTK Fried Chicken restaurants. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.7.6 and 1.8.1.)

We may also maintain an extranet or portal for TTK Fried Chicken franchisees where we post best practices, resource materials, training materials, financial benchmarking information and other information of value to franchisees. We may also use this portal to give you access to a customized software system for reporting and related operational functions, which we may revise and develop from time to time. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.8.3.)

We must approve all Internet advertising you do. We will endeavor to approve or disapprove such advertising within 15 days after we receive it from you. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.7.3 and 1.7.12.)

Site Selection

You are responsible for selecting the site for your franchised business. You must independently evaluate and investigate the proposed site. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.2.1 and 1.2.2.) We must approve the site before you enter into lease negotiations. We do not have a time limit for our approval or disapproval of the site. We may take as long as 60 days to approve the site. Our failure to agree with you on a site or to reach agreement in a timely manner can result in your inability to open the restaurant for business within nine months after the date of your franchise agreement, which can result in the termination of your agreement.

The site will be indicated in Schedule A of the franchise agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.1.3.) In evaluating the site, we may inspect the site and we may consider a variety of factors, including lease obligations, demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, character and attractiveness of the neighborhood, competing outlets and the proximity to other TTK Fried Chicken restaurants.

You will be solely responsible for negotiating and complying with the terms of the lease. We must review the lease before you sign it to ensure that our minimum lease requirements have been met. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.2.5.) We may condition our approval of the lease upon inclusion in the lease of the lease addendum in the form of Exhibit F4 to this disclosure document. We are not responsible for review of the lease for any terms other than those contained in the lease addendum. You should consult with an attorney who is experienced in reviewing retail leases.

We recommend that you sign the lease (or site purchase agreement) shortly after we sign the franchise agreement. You must submit a copy of the signed lease or site purchase agreement to us after both parties sign.

If you sign a multi-unit agreement, we must also approve the site for each future unit you will develop and we will assign the territory for each franchise agreement. We will do so using our then-current standards for sites and territories.

You may not relocate your franchised TKK Fried Chicken restaurant without first obtaining our written consent. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.2.11.) We will consider both the reasons for your requested relocation and the attributes of the proposed new site. Relocation will require a new build-out, renovation to the current standards and design, lease modification, franchise agreement changes and a fee to cover our costs and expenses.

Time of Opening

We estimate that the time from the signing of the franchise agreement or the first payment of any amount to us and the opening your franchised business will be approximately six to nine months. This time may be shorter or longer depending on the time necessary to negotiate the lease and obtain financing and the permits and licenses for the construction and operation of the restaurant. This time may also depend on the time required to complete construction or remodeling as it may be affected by weather conditions, shortages, delivery schedules, and other similar factors.

We may terminate the franchise agreement if you do not open the restaurant for business within nine months after the date of your franchise agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.2.10 and 5.2.2.3.)

Computer and Point of Sale Systems

You must purchase your point of sale system from Arms Global Inc. Aside from the point of sale system, we do not specify the brand or model of computer or printers you must use, but any computer you use must be industry-standard and meet our specifications, and we may specify brands or models in the future. Your printer or printers must have the ability to print customer receipts at the point of sale and stickers for use on cups to identify the beverages being served. You may obtain the computer equipment from any vendors so long as the vendors meet our requirements. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.3.5.)

Your systems must be Internet-connected via broadband at all times and interfaced with our system to enable us to electronically access your daily receipts figures from our headquarters at any time. In other words, we will have independent access to the information generated and stored in your cash register or computer systems. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.3.6.) There are no contractual limitations on our right to access this information.

We will manage the license with the point-of-sale provider we select for the system of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants nationally. Our current point-of-sale provider is Revel (revelsystems.com). You will pay such provider its standard fee for such license, which is currently approximately $50 per month. This monthly fee includes all required updates and upgrades to the system.

You must also be equipped to accept electronic payments wirelessly from customers using their cell phones and the LevelUp app, which allows customers to accumulate reward points each time they make a purchase. The LevelUp platform is an online service provided by SCVNGR, Inc. See www.the-levelup.com. We charge you a monthly technology fee of $140 which subsidizes your use of the LevelUp service. This monthly fee may increase to as much as $350 over the term of your franchise agreement. You will also pay processing fees of 2.5% per transaction to LevelUp and an additional 7.25% per transaction to us which is credited toward one free drink for every twelve drinks the customer purchases using the LevelUp app, as well as merchandise in our rewards program and other promotions we do through the LevelUp app,

We do not require that you engage any other third-party vendor to maintain your computer system. But if you do, any updates or upgrades will be at your expense. The cost of maintaining, updating or upgrading your computer system or its components in addition to the point-of-sale maintenance might range from nothing to as much as $2,000 in any year. It will depend on local costs of computer maintenance services in your area and technological developments that we cannot predict. We may also require upgrades in accordance with the terms of the franchise agreement. There is no limitation on the frequency or cost of such upgrades.

The cost of the required computer, point of sale system and printer is approximately $4,500 to $6,500.

Training Program

Before you sign the franchise agreement, we ask you to designate the managing owner, who will supervise the operation of the business, and an operating manager, who will manage the day-to-day operation of the business. The managing owner must be an owner of an equity or voting interest in your business whom we approve. Your managing owner and operating manager may be the same person. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.5.1 and 1.5.2.)

Before you open your first franchised restaurant for business, we require your managing owner and your operating manager to attend and complete our initial two-week training program to our satisfaction. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.3.) We conduct this training at one of our company or affiliate locations in the New York City area.

We charge an initial training fee of $12,500 before you open your first TKK Fried Chicken standard or nontraditional unit. The initial training fee for a TKK Express unit is $5,000 to $7,500. You must also pay the compensation and travel, lodging and meal expenses of those who attend.

If your managing owner or the second person who attends initial training does not satisfactorily complete the initial training program or if we determine that such person cannot satisfactorily complete the training program, you will be required to designate a replacement to satisfactorily complete the training. If your TKK Fried Chicken restaurant has been operating and your managing owner ceases active management or work at your business, then a replacement managing owner acceptable to us must be appointed and trained to our satisfaction within 30 days. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.6.)

We will charge an additional fee of $180 per day per employee plus travel and living expenses for our personnel if we provide any training at your request that is not mandatory. We do not charge for training related to the introduction of new or updated products, classes, methods or procedures, or for refresher courses or other mandatory training unless we require training because your personnel are not meeting our standards. If any review indicates noncompliance with any system standards or if we receive negative customer feedback, we may require previously trained and experienced managers and employees to attend refresher training courses at such times and locations as we designate, and we may send our personnel to your franchised business for training. In these cases, we may also charge a fee, currently $180 per day per employee plus travel and living expenses for our personnel. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.7.) When we do not charge for training, you must nevertheless pay the travel and living expenses and salaries of your personnel who attend. Refresher courses will take place at one of our company or affiliate locations in the New York City area. The duration, frequency and content of refresher courses will be similar to the initial training program described below.

We conduct initial training approximately four weeks before the projected opening date of your franchise and it must be completed at least ten days before the opening date. Scheduled refresher training will be available before the opening date.

The instructors will be employees of our company or one of our affiliates with at least one year of experience in the subjects they teach and at least one year of experience working in our company or one of our affiliates.

Initial training programs will be offered at various times during the year depending on the number of new franchisees entering the system, the numbers of replacement personnel who need training, and the timing of the scheduled openings of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants.

The instructional materials consist of our manual and other materials we prepare for this program, including videos, advertising materials and detailed protocols, checklists and reports.

The following table provides detailed information about the initial training program.

Item 12

TERRITORY

Franchise Agreement

You will not receive an exclusive territory under the single unit franchise agreement. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

We do grant you a territory within which we will not establish another TTK Fried Chicken restaurant, whether franchised or company-owned. The size of the territory for standard TTK Fried Chicken unit will be equal to the lesser of: (1) a one-mile radius around the restaurant and (2) a smaller specified radius surrounding the restaurant encompassing a population (residential and workplace combined) of approximately 50,000 people. We may reduce the boundaries of the territory upon notice to you at any time if the population of the territory exceeds 50,000 people.

The territory for a non-traditional unit will be the specific airport, hotel, resort, military installation, school or university campus, train station, subway station, casino, theme park, sports stadium enclosed shopping mall or similar location in which the restaurant is located; or a part of such location, such as a particular airport terminal.

If you purchase a franchise for a standard unit, we also retain the right to establish TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in non-traditional venues within your territory. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.1.6.2.)

You may not relocate the business without first obtaining our written consent. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.2.11.)

You may operate delivery service within your territory or arrange for such service with a third-party service provider such as Uber Eats, Grubhub, Door Dash, Postmates or another delivery service company prescribed or approved by us. You may also offer take-out and catering service to customers in your territory. Such sales will be included in gross sales for all purposes, including your reports, royalties and advertising fund calculations. You may not market or sell outside of your territory in any manner or do any Internet advertising without our prior written approval, which we may withhold in our discretion. You may promote the business through social media and similar means as long as such promotion is consistent with guidelines we issue from time to time.

We retain the right, without payment to you, to sell products under the TKK FRIED CHICKEN trademark to grocery stores, supermarkets and other channels of distribution within your territory at any time, and to customers anywhere, including in your territory, through our website. We do not pay any compensation to you when we solicit or accept orders from within your territory.

In the event that we merge with, acquire or are acquired by another company that competes with us, we and our affiliates reserve the right to offer and sell and authorize others to offer and sell competing products and services under any other names and marks while your franchise agreement is in effect.

You do not receive the right to acquire additional franchises or to establish or operate another TKK Fried Chicken restaurant business unless you enter into a separate franchise agreement or multi-unit agreement with us.

There is no minimum sales quota.

Multi-Unit Franchise

You will also not receive an exclusive territory under the multi-unit agreement. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Under the multi-unit offering, we assign a defined geographic area within which you must develop and operate a specified number of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants (at least three units) within a specified period of time. The development area may be one city, one or more counties, one or more states, or some other defined area. It will be described in Schedule A of your multi-unit agreement. The territory will be large enough to accommodate the number of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in your development schedule, based on our market studies.

You will sign your first franchise agreement under the multi-unit agreement at the time you sign the multi-unit agreement. For each subsequent TKK Fried Chicken restaurant you will open under the multi-unit agreement you will sign a separate Franchise Agreement in the then-current form. We must approve the site for each future unit you will develop, and we will assign the territory that each franchise agreement will cover. We will evaluate and determine the site and territory for each future unit you develop using our then-current standards for sites and territories.

Under the multi-unit agreement, we will not open or operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant in your territory and we will not grant to any other person or entity the right to open or operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant in your territory, except that we retain the right to establish TTK Fried Chicken restaurants in non-traditional venues such as airports, hotels and resorts, military installations, school and university campuses, train stations and subway stations, casinos, theme parks, sports stadiums, shopping malls and similar locations that we designate as non-traditional venues, within or outside your territory. (Multi-Unit Agreement, Section 1.8.2.)

We retain certain other rights in your territory as well. We may sell any products under the Marks and any other trademarks to grocery stores, supermarkets and other channels of distribution at any time, and directly to customers anywhere through our website. We also retain the right to acquire and operate any business under a different trademark at any location and to continue to operate that business under trademarks other than our trademarks. In the event that we merge with, acquire or are acquired by another company that competes with us, we reserve the right to offer and sell and authorize others to offer and sell competing products and services under any other names and marks while your multi-unit agreement is in effect.

In order for you to maintain your rights in the territory under the multi-unit agreement, you must meet minimum requirements contained in Schedule B of the agreement (the development schedule). The development schedule requires that a specified minimum number of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants be opened in the time periods specified in the agreement. The development requirements are determined based on our market studies of the territory and our discussions with you. The smallest development schedule will typically call for the development of at least three TTK Fried Chicken restaurants over a period of two years. Your failure to adhere to the development schedule gives us the right to terminate the multi-unit agreement upon notice to you with immediate effect. (Multi-Unit Agreement, Section 5.2.1.2.) Your failure to adhere to the development schedule also gives us the right, instead of terminating the agreement, to reduce the size of your territory or reduce the number of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants to be opened. (Multi-Unit Agreement, Section 5.3.2.1.)

Your multi-unit agreement will expire at the end of its term. (Multi-Unit Agreement, Section 5.1.) Your territorial rights under the multi-unit agreement end when the multi-unit agreement expires.

You maintain rights to your territory during the term of your multi-unit agreement even if the population increases.

You do not receive the right to acquire additional territories, or to develop franchises outside of your territory, unless you enter into another multi-unit agreement or franchise agreement with us.

Item 13

TRADEMARKS

We grant you the right to operate a franchise under the name TTK FRIED CHICKEN and the logo shown on the cover of this disclosure document. You may also use our other current or future Marks in the operation of your franchise. By Marks we mean trade names, trademarks, service marks and logos used to identify your TTK Fried Chicken franchised business.

Our affiliate, TTK International Inc., owns the following trademarks, which are registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"):

Mark	Registration No.	Registration Date
	5,633,607	December 18, 2018
	5,716,604	April 2, 2019
	5,769,620	June 4, 2019
KWA KWA BAO	5,965,756	January 21, 2020

Because these trademarks have not yet been registered for five years, no Section 8 or 14 affidavit has been filed. TKK International Inc. intends to file all required affidavits and renewals as they become due.

We have an exclusive license from TKK International Inc. to use these trademarks to grant franchises anywhere in the U.S. for the operation of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants. This license remains in effect for as long as we remain a part of the group of companies owned or controlled by or under common ownership and control with TKK International Inc. or until the license agreement is sooner terminated (i) by mutual consent, or (ii) by TKK International Inc. based on our breach of the agreement, or (iii) by our decision to terminate without cause. Upon termination of the license agreement from TKK International Inc. to us, TKK International Inc. will either assume our role as your franchisor or assign your franchise agreement to another entity that will be your franchisor.

There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our right to use or license the Marks in any manner material to the franchise. We know of no infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks.

There are no determinations of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or court, or any pending interference, opposition or cancellation proceedings or pending material litigation involving any of the Marks that is relevant to their ownership or use in the states in which the franchised business is to be located.

You must immediately notify us of any apparent infringement of the Marks or challenge to your use of any of the Marks or claim by any person of any rights in any of the Marks. You are not permitted to communicate with any person other than us or our designated affiliate, their counsel and your counsel involving any infringement, challenge or claim. We can take action and have the right to exclusively control any litigation or Patent and Trademark Office or other administrative or agency proceeding caused by any infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any of the Marks. You must execute any and all documents, and do what may, in our counsel's opinion, be necessary or advisable to protect our interests in any litigation or Patent and Trademark Office or other administrative or agency proceeding or to otherwise protect and maintain our interests and the interests of any other person or entity having an interest in the Marks. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1.5.)

We will indemnify you against and reimburse you for all damages for which you are held liable for your use of any of the Marks, provided that you give us timely notice of such claim or proceeding, you give us sole control over the defense and settlement, and you have otherwise complied with the terms of the franchise agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.2.2.)

Except as stated above, we are not obligated by the franchise agreement to protect any rights granted to you to use the Marks or to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition with respect to them. Although we are not contractually obligated to protect the Marks or your right to use them, as a matter of corporate policy, we intend to defend the Marks vigorously.

You may not use the Marks as a part of your corporate or other legal name, and you must comply with our instructions in filing and maintaining trade name or fictitious name registrations. You must execute any documents we require to protect the Marks or to maintain their continued validity and enforceability. In addition, you may not directly or indirectly contest the validity of our rights in and to the Marks. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 3.1.2 and 3.1.3.)

You may not own a domain name that includes "TKK" or "T.K.K.". You must use only such email addresses as we authorize, and you must comply with policies we establish from time to time for your use of email and any web portal we create. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.3.6, 1.7.12 and 1.8.3.)

We may require you, at your expense, to discontinue or modify your use of any of the Marks or to use one or more additional or substitute Marks if we determine that an addition or substitution will benefit the TKK Fried Chicken franchise system. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1.4.)

Item 14

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Patents and Copyrights

We do not own any patents that are material to your franchised business or the TKK Fried Chicken franchise system.

We and our affiliates also claim all rights and interests, including all copyrights, to the information contained in the manuals, computer programs, advertising materials, the TKK Fried Chicken website and all our communications to you in writing or otherwise setting forth our standards, requirements, operating procedures or policies relating to the operation of a TKK Fried Chicken franchise, as well as any revisions and additions to these materials. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1.1.) We have not registered the copyrights in any of these materials.

Proprietary Information

Your knowledge of the operation of the franchised business, including the courses and other specifications, standards and operating procedures, is derived from information that we disclose to you. This information, including the information contained in the manuals and the information presented during training, is confidential material owned by us. Our confidential information includes our product recipes; our methods of operation; our sales and marketing techniques; our planned marketing and advertising programs; the content of our training and assistance; the contents of the Manual; the operating results and financial performance of other TKK Fried Chicken franchisees; all customer lists and other information we receive from you; and user names and passwords allowing access to protected areas on our website or computer network. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.2.1.)

We and our affiliates also claim ownership of all demographic data and customer lists generated by your activity as a franchisee. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.2.1.)

You must maintain the absolute confidentiality of this proprietary information during and after the term of the franchise agreement and you cannot disclose, sell or use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by us. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.2.2.) You may use such information only in furtherance of the franchised business.

Each manager of your franchised business and each person who receives training from us or otherwise has access to our confidential information, and each owner of your business if you are a legal entity, must sign a written agreement that contains similar nondisclosure obligations. See Item 15.

You must notify us promptly in writing if you learn about any unauthorized use of our copyrights or proprietary information. We are not obligated to take any action, but we will respond to this information as we think appropriate. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1.5.)

All improvements in the TKK Fried Chicken restaurant system that you develop will become our property. We will have the sole right to protect such improvements in our name or in the name of any of our affiliates by means of copyright, patent, trade secret or trademark law. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.4.3.) You must promptly disclose all such improvements to us.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Your franchise agreement will specify who will be the “managing owner” of your franchised business and who will be your “operating manager”. Your operating manager must devote his or her full working time, attention and effort to the franchised business and provide direct, day-to-day supervision of the operation. The operating manager may not take on other business responsibilities that would be inconsistent with the operational requirements of the franchised business or contrary to its best interest. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.2.) Your managing owner must be an owner of an equity or voting interest in your business whom we approve. Your managing owner is responsible for overseeing and supervising the operation of the franchised business, but we do not require your managing owner to devote his or her full working time to the franchised business unless the managing owner is also the operating manager. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.1.) The managing owner and operating manager may be the same person.

Before your TKK Fried Chicken restaurant opens for business, we require that your managing owner and operating manager attend and complete our initial training program to our satisfaction. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.5.3. See Item 11.)

If at any time your TKK Fried Chicken restaurant is not being managed by a managing owner or operating manager who has attended and completed our initial training program to our satisfaction, we are authorized, but not required, to appoint a manager to maintain operations on your behalf. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.5.6 and 2.1.7.8.)

Our appointment of a manager does not relieve you of your obligations under the franchise agreement. We will not be liable for any debts, losses, costs or expenses incurred during any period in which we manage the franchised business. We have the right to charge a reasonable service fee for such management services, and we may cease providing such services at any time. (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.2.8.)

Each owner of your company must sign a guaranty and assumption of obligations in a form acceptable to us. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.1.7.) We may also require the spouse of any signatory to sign, in our discretion. Any breach of this guaranty by any such owner or spouse will be deemed a breach of this Agreement.

Each manager of your franchised business and each person who receives training from us or otherwise has access to our confidential information who has not signed the guaranty described in the preceding paragraph must sign a written confidentiality and noncompetition agreement with your company in a form acceptable to us. Any breach of such undertaking by any such person will be deemed a breach of the franchise agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.5.9 and 3.2.2.)

We do not impose any other restrictions on your managers.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer for sale in your franchised business all of the products, services and menu items we specify, and you may not sell any products, services or menu items that we do not specify or approve. (Franchise Agreement, Section 1.1.4.) You must prepare and serve these products in accordance with our requirements. You must not deviate from our standards and specifications without first obtaining our written consent. Upon notice from us given at any time, you must discontinue offering for sale any items, products or services we may disapprove or discontinue.

Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors and Member TKK Franchising LLC

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of TKK Franchising LLC (a New York Limited Liability Company) (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of income and member's equity and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of TKK Franchising LLC as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of TKK Franchising LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibility of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about TKK Franchising LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of TKK Franchising LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about TKK Franchising LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The Company was formed in September 2018 as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of New York. 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation and Use of Estimates

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

The functional and reporting currency of the Company is the U.S. Dollar.

New Accounting Pronouncement

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued an accounting pronouncement related to the measurement of credit losses on financial instruments. This pronouncement and subsequently issued Accounting Standards Updates, clarified certain provisions of the new guidance, changed the impairment model for most financial assets and required the use of an “expected loss” model for instruments measured at amortized cost. Under this model, entities are required to estimate the lifetime expected credit losses on such instruments and record an allowance to offset the amortized cost basis of the financial asset, resulting in a net presentation of the amount expected to be collected on the financial asset. The adoption of this guidance on January 1, 2023 did not have a material effect on its financial statements.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows U.S. GAAP revenue recognition guidance (“Topic 606”). As shown on the accompanying statements of income and member’s equity, the Company has several revenue sources derived from franchise agreements which include an initial nonrefundable deposit, nonrecurring franchise and training fees, and continuing royalty and marketing fees. The Company has concluded that each of its contracts with franchisees include multiple performance obligations, which are generally all satisfied over time.

Potential franchisees are typically requested to pay a $5,000 nonrefundable deposit to the Company before signing franchise agreements. The $5,000 is nonrefundable, even if the franchise agreement is not signed, and the store is not opened. If the store is opened, the $5,000 deposit is applied to the franchise fee as noted below.

Once a new franchisee has signed their respective franchise agreement, they are required to pay a nonrefundable franchise fee and a nonrefundable training fee. The initial franchise fee is $37,500, however in some cases whereby the franchisee has multiple locations or operates a non-traditional unit, the initial franchise fee is $20,000 or $25,000. In addition, the Company requires an up-front $5,000 to $10,000 training fee for first time franchisees to cover its costs of an initial three-week training program. Initial franchise fees and deposits are recognized over the length of the respective franchise agreements, as the Company considers its performance obligation to be the providing of branding and licenses, and assistance in operations of a franchise over the term of the franchise agreement. Nonrefundable deposits received for franchise agreements are recognized in full once the Company and potential franchise determine that no franchise agreement will be signed and a store will not be opened. Unamortized revenues on franchise agreements which are not fulfilled, through the franchise store closing prior to the expiration of their agreement, are recognized in full when the store closes and the franchise agreement is annulled. The Company recognizes training fee revenue upon completion of the distinct performance obligation, which is the provision of training services. Such training services are generally performed over a period not exceeding one month.

Percentage royalty and marketing fees are generally based on a franchisees’ gross sales, as defined in the respective franchise agreement. Royalty and marketing fee income is billed to franchisees monthly and recognized as revenue when earned.

The Company recognizes substantially all its revenue over time including: franchise fees over the term of the respective franchise agreements, training fees over the training period, and royalty and marketing fees on a monthly basis over the franchise agreement term. There were no marketing fees billed or earned in 2023, 2022 or 2021.

Fees collected in advance of franchise agreements being signed and active are deferred until earned. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, deferred franchisee revenue will be amortized in operating revenue over the life of the respective franchise agreement, which are generally 10 years.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount the Company expects to collect. The Company recognizes the allowance for credit losses at inception of the receivable and reassesses at every reporting date based on the asset's expected collectability. The allowance is based on multiple factors including historical experience, the credit quality of the tenant base, the aging of such receivables and current macroeconomic conditions, as well as expectations of conditions in the future, if applicable. The Company's allowance for credit losses is based on the assessment of the collectability of assets pooled together with similar risk characteristics.

The Company records a provision for expected credit losses by using the best information available to make its evaluation, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if there are significant changes in economic conditions. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, management determined an allowance for credit loss was not required.

Marketing and Advertising

Costs associated with products, including advertising and other brand promotional activities, are expensed as incurred. Marketing and advertising costs amounted to $11,725 (2022: $17,636 and 2021: $49,038) for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Income Taxes

Net income or losses of the Company is reported individually by the member for income tax purposes and, accordingly, no provision for income taxes is reflected in the financial statements. The Company is responsible for payment of New York City unincorporated business tax.

Uncertain Tax Positions

U.S. GAAP requires an evaluation of tax positions taken by the Company and recognition of a liability in the financial statements if the Company has taken uncertain tax positions that more likely-than-not would not be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Tax years since 2020 remain open to examination by most taxing authorities. There are no examinations currently in progress.

Reclassifications

Certain information contained in the Company's 2022 and 2021 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2023 presentation.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through April 24, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined that there were no subsequent events or transactions which would require recognition or disclosure, other than disclosed in these financial statements.

3. Financial Instruments

The Company, as part of its operations, carries a number of financial instruments. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency, credit, liquidity or other price risks arising from these financial instruments except as otherwise disclosed.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is subject to credit risk through its accounts receivable, consisting primarily of amounts due from franchisees for marketing and royalty fee income. The financial condition of these franchisees is largely dependent upon the underlying business trends of the brands and the market conditions within the quick food and beverage industry.

This concentration of credit risk is mitigated, in part, by the large number of franchisees and the short-term nature of the marketing and royalty fee receivables.

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Corporation to concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents on deposit with financial institutions. Deposits held at financial institutions insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") are insured up to $250,000. At times, cash balances may exceed the FDIC limit. As of December 31, 2023, the Corporation's balance of cash and cash equivalents balance on deposit were below $250,000.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company is exposed to liquidity risk arising primarily from accounts payable and accrued expenses, and due to related parties.

As of December 31, 2023 there was $37,000 due from a related party. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022 there was $18,000 and $6,000 due to a related party, respectively.

Effective January 1, 2021, the Company entered into an arrangement with two affiliated entities whereby the Company pays $2,000 per franchisee for the cost of ingredients and supplies used during the training period. The training fees incurred amounted to $4,000 for the year ended December 31, 2021.

5. Commitments and Contingencies

From time to time, the Company may become subject to legal proceedings or claims that arise in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, no such claims exist at December 31, 2023. During 2023, an action was brought against the Company alleging copyright infringement of a protected image. The Company denied any infringement, however agreed to pay $18,000 to settle the dispute which is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying 2023 statement of statement of income.

TKK FRIED CHICKEN
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT effective as of _____, 20__ between TKK FRANCHISING LLC, a New York limited liability company (referred to in this Agreement as “we” or “us”), and _____, a _____ [indicate type of entity and state of formation] (referred to in this Agreement as “you” or “your company”).

We and our affiliated companies have developed a system (the “System”) for the operation of quick-service restaurants specializing in crispy fried chicken and sweet potato fries (the “TKK Fried Chicken restaurants”).

TKK Fried Chicken restaurants operate under the trademark TKK FRIED CHICKEN and other trademarks described in our franchise disclosure document, and we may create, use and license additional trademarks or substitute different trademarks in the future in conjunction with the operation of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants (collectively, the “Marks”).

You have applied for a franchise to open, own and operate a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant at a specified location, and we are pleased to grant such franchise to you on the terms and conditions set forth below.

Accordingly, you and we agree as follows:

ARTICLE I – GRANT AND OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE

Section 1.1 – Grant of Rights

1.1.1 Grant of Rights. We grant to you the right, and you undertake the obligation, to operate a franchised TKK Fried Chicken restaurant (the “Franchised Business”) at the location stated in Schedule A to this Agreement (the “Site”) in accordance with the System Standards (as defined in Section 1.4.1 below) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

1.1.2 Territory. So long as you are not in default under this Agreement, we will not operate or grant others the right to operate a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant within the geographic area surrounding the Site as described in Schedule A (the “Territory”) during the Term of this Agreement, except as set forth in Section 1.1.6. The Territory is equal to the lesser of: (i) a one mile radius around the Site and (ii) an area designated by us encompassing a population (residential and workplace) of 50,000 people. We may reduce the boundaries of the Territory upon notice to you at any time if the population of the Territory exceeds 50,000 people. If the Site is located in a non-traditional venue (as described in Section 1.1.6.2 and as indicated in Schedule A), then your rights will apply to the specific airport, hotel, resort, military installation, school or university campus, train station, subway station, casino, theme park, sports stadium enclosed shopping mall or similar location in which the restaurant is located; or a part of such location, such as a particular airport terminal.

1.1.3 Single Site. You must operate the Franchised Business only at the Site, or if the Site is not described in Schedule A, then at a location approved by us in writing that is within the geographic area described in Schedule A. You may not relocate the Franchised Business or operate the Franchised Business from any location other than the Site without our prior written approval in accordance with Section 1.2.11. You do not have the right to grant subfranchises of the rights granted under this Agreement. The grant of this franchise does not give you the right to receive additional franchises from us.

1.1.4 Products and Services Offered. You must offer and sell in the Franchised Business all of the products, services and menu items we specify. You may not sell under the Marks or in the Franchised Business any products, services or menu items we do not specify or approve for use with the System. If you desire to sell any products, services or menu items that we have not specified or approved, you must request our approval in accordance with Section 1.3.2, and you may not sell any such item without our written approval. All of your modifications or customizations of the products, services or menu items you offer or sell must be first approved by us and will become, in our discretion, part of the System Standards (as defined in Section 1.4.1). We may specify a new required product, service or menu item upon at least 30 days' prior notice to you. Upon oral, email or written notice from us given at any time, you must discontinue offering for sale any product, service or menu item we may disapprove or discontinue. In addition to our right to terminate this Agreement, we have the right to assess our then current prohibited product or service fee in the event you continue offering unapproved products, services or menu items after your receipt of oral, email or written notice from us advising you to cease sales of such product or service.

1.1.5 Manner of Sale. In addition to your service to customers on-premises at the Site, you may also offer catering, take-out, delivery and special events within the Territory, provided that each customer receives fresh products, and further provided that all receipts from such sales are processed through the point of sale system described in Section 1.3.5. Any third-party delivery service that you use must be prescribed or approved by us. You may not sell any products from the Site to other restaurants or to food wholesalers or retailers, such as convenience shops, grocery shops or others, for resale. You may not supply product to charities or others for resale or discount the sale of unsold product that is not fresh.

1.1.6 Rights We Reserve. We and our affiliates retain all rights not specifically granted to you under this Agreement. These rights include, without limitation, the right:

1.1.6.1 to establish TTK Fried Chicken restaurants, whether franchised or company or affiliate owned, anywhere outside the Territory;

1.1.6.2 to establish TTK Fried Chicken restaurants in non-traditional venues, such as airports, hotels and resorts, military installations, school and university campuses, train stations and subway stations, casinos, theme parks, sports stadiums and enclosed shopping malls, within or outside the Territory (but not within the Territory if the Site is located in a non-traditional venue);

1.1.6.3 to sell any products under the Marks and any other trademarks through other channels of distribution, such as grocery stores, supermarkets or similar outlets for resale at any time, within or outside the Territory, and directly to customers through our website; and

1.1.6.4 to acquire and operate or to commence and operate any business under a trademark other than the Marks at any location.

1.1.7 Guaranty. Our grant of this franchise is made in reliance on the personal attributes of your company's owners and managers named in Schedule A. Each person who now or later owns or acquires, either legally or beneficially, any equity or voting interest in your company (the "Guarantor" or "Guarantors"), must execute and deliver to us a guaranty and assumption of obligations agreement in a form acceptable to us (the "Guaranty"). We may require the spouse of any or all Guarantors to sign the Guaranty in our discretion. If any owner is an entity, we have the right to have the Guaranty executed by individuals who have an indirect ownership interest in your company and their spouses, if applicable. Transfers of interest are restricted in accordance with Article IV. Upon our request at any time, you will furnish to us a list of all holders of legal and beneficial interests in your company, together with descriptions of the type of interests owned and the percentage ownership, and the names, addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers of the owners, certified as correct in the manner we specify. If any of your company's general partners, managers, officers or directors ceases to serve as such or if any new person becomes a general partner, manager, officer or director after the date of this Agreement, you will notify us of such change within 10 days. Any breach of a Guaranty will be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement.

Section 1.2 – Site Selection and Development; Opening

1.2.1 Site Selection. You are solely responsible for selecting the Site for the Franchised Business. We merely approve the Site if it is acceptable to us. Within 90 days after the date of this Agreement, you must, at your expense, complete the arrangements to lease or purchase the approved premises for the Franchised Business (the “Restaurant Premises”).

1.2.2 No Assurance. You acknowledge that neither our recommendation nor our approval of the Site nor any information regarding the Site we communicate to you constitutes a guarantee, assurance, representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, as to the suitability of the Site for a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant or its successful operation or profitability. You acknowledge that your acceptance of the franchise is based on your own independent investigation of the suitability of the Site.

1.2.3 Your Role as Property Owner or Tenant. Except as you and we may otherwise agree in writing, each lease, purchase and loan agreement related to the development, opening and operation of the Franchised Business (i) will be entered into by and in the name of your company as tenant, purchaser or borrower and (ii) will not be entered into by or in the name of any of your affiliates or any other person or entity, as tenant, purchaser or borrower.

1.2.4 Our Role as Landlord or Lease Assignor. If we or any of our affiliates own the Restaurant Premises, we will lease the Restaurant Premises for the term of this Agreement (excluding renewals) at fair market value. If you sublease the Restaurant Premises from us or our affiliate, you agree to execute our then current form of sublease and if you are an entity, you agree to have each of your owners execute our then current form of guaranty. If we or one of our affiliates elects to assign an existing lease to you and you desire to obtain an assignment of the existing lease, unless we otherwise agree, you will arrange for our release or the release of our affiliate, as assignor, from all obligations under the assigned lease as of the date of the assignment.

1.2.5 Lease from a Third Party Landlord. If neither we nor any of our affiliates owns the Restaurant Premises and we have not assigned an existing lease to you, you must submit your proposed lease of the Restaurant Premises (the “Lease”) to us for our prior written approval as to its form. Any Lease or Lease renewal must contain the following provisions:

1.2.5.1. The permitted use of the Restaurant Premises will be limited to the operation of a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant.

1.2.5.2. You are permitted to use and install the trademarks, trade dress, signage and related features associated with the System that we may prescribe.

1.2.5.3. The landlord will provide us with copies of any written notice of default under the Lease sent to you concurrently with the landlord’s delivery of such notice to you. Such notice must grant to us the right (but not the obligation) to cure any default under the Lease (should you fail to do so) within 15 days after the expiration of the period in which you may cure the default.

1.2.5.4. You and the landlord will, at our request, execute a lease addendum in a form substantially similar to the lease addendum form set forth in our then current franchise disclosure document, consenting to the Collateral Assignment of Lease contained in Section 2.3.2, of this Agreement, granting to us or our assignee the right to succeed to your rights and obligations under the Lease in the event that this Agreement is terminated for any reason or expires without a renewal agreement, or if you commit any breach of the Lease that could lead to termination of the lease.

1.2.5.5. The landlord will grant to us the right (but will not delegate to us the obligation), to assume the Lease upon the expiration of this Agreement or its termination for any reason. In such event, we will give the landlord notice of our assumption of the lease, and in exchange for the landlord's agreement to recognize us as the new tenant under the Lease, we will agree thereafter to be bound by the terms of the lease. We will have the right to assign our interest in the Lease to an approved franchisee and we will have no further liability or obligation under the lease after such assignment. Unless and until we agree in writing to assume the Lease, we will have no liability or obligation under the lease. In any event, you will be solely responsible to the landlord for all debts, payments and other obligations under the Lease that were incurred before we or another franchisee actually takes possession of the Restaurant Premises.

1.2.5.6. The landlord will not accept your voluntary surrender of the Lease without prior notice to us. You and the landlord will not renew or extend the term of the Lease, nor amend, modify or alter the Lease, without our written consent. You may not assign your interest in the Lease nor sublet all or any portion of the Restaurant Premises without our written consent.

We are not responsible for reviewing and negotiating the Lease on your behalf. You acknowledge that we have advised you to have an attorney review, evaluate and negotiate the Lease. If we do not have a copy of the signed Lease, you must deliver such copy to us within 14 days after it is signed by you and the landlord. Once signed, you agree not to terminate the Lease or modify or amend any of the provisions of the Lease without our prior written consent, which we may withhold in our discretion.

1.2.6 Purchase of the Site. If you propose to purchase the real property constituting the Site, the form of any purchase agreement with the seller and any related documents, and the form of any loan agreement or mortgage related to the Site must be approved by us before you sign them. If you already own the real property constituting the Site, the form of any loan agreement or mortgage related to the Site that you propose to sign on or after the date of this Agreement must be approved by us before you sign it. Our consent to such documents may be conditioned upon the inclusion of various terms and conditions, including a requirement that the lender or mortgagee will provide us with copies of any written notice of deficiency or default under the terms of the loan or mortgage sent to you concurrently with the lender's or mortgagee's delivery of such notice to you. Such notice must grant to us the right (but not the obligation) to cure any default under the loan or mortgage (should you fail to do so) within 15 days after the expiration of the period in which you may cure the default. Once the purchase contract and loan agreement or mortgage is signed, you must deliver to us a copy of the signed documents within 14 days after they are signed.

1.2.7 Site Development. You are solely responsible, at your own expense, for obtaining any necessary financing and all building, utility, sign, business and other permits and licenses required to operate the Franchised Business, and for constructing all required improvements to the Site and decorating the Restaurant Premises in compliance with plans and specifications we have prescribed or approved. We will furnish you with mandatory and suggested specifications and layouts for a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant, including requirements for dimensions, design, image, interior layout, décor, equipment, fixtures, furnishings and signs, which items will be supplied either by us or by suppliers we specify or approve. You (or your landlord on your behalf) must engage an architect to prepare all required construction plans and specifications to comply with all applicable ordinances, building codes and permit requirements and with all lease or sublease requirements and restrictions, if any. You must submit construction plans and specifications to us for approval before construction of improvements to the Site commences. Such plans must include a three-dimensional rendering of the completed shop, acceptable to us, prepared by your architect or designer. We may require you to use specific suppliers for the floor plan and three-dimensional rendering of your franchised restaurant. You understand that you may modify our mandatory specifications only to the extent required to comply with applicable ordinances, building codes and permit requirements, and only with our prior written approval. In addition, you must engage a qualified interior designer and you must submit all design plans to us for our approval in advance, unless, in our discretion, we decide to supply to you our own design package for your purchase. You must also submit to us proofs of all signage for the Franchised Business for our approval in accordance with Section 1.7.1 before you produce such signage.

1.2.8 Menu Boards and Formats. We will have the right to prescribe and subsequently vary one or more menus and menu boards and formats to be used in the Franchised Business. The menu boards and formats may include requirements concerning organization, graphics, product descriptions, illustrations and other matters related to the menu. Prescribed menu boards and formats may vary depending on the region, market size or other factors we deem to be relevant.

1.2.9 Conditions to Opening. You may not begin commercial operations of the Franchised Business until:

1.2.9.1 all of your obligations pursuant to Sections 1.2.5, 1.2.6 and 1.2.7, as applicable, are fulfilled;

1.2.9.2 we determine that the Restaurant Premises have been constructed, furnished, equipped and decorated in accordance with our requirements;

1.2.9.3 the Managing Owner and Operating Manager (described in Section 1.5) have completed the initial training to our satisfaction;

1.2.9.4 the initial franchise fee and all other amounts due to us and our affiliates have been paid in full;

1.2.9.5 you have furnished us with certificates of insurance and copies of all insurance policies or such other evidence of insurance coverage as we reasonably request, as well as with copies of all bonds that may be required under state or local law; and

1.2.9.6 we have given you our written approval of the opening. We may grant or withhold such approval in our discretion.

1.2.10 Time of Opening. You agree to begin commercial operations of the Franchised Business no later than nine months after the date of this Agreement. You acknowledge that time is of the essence.

1.2.11 Relocation. If you need to relocate the Site, you must submit to us a written proposal identifying for our approval at least one potential Site in the Territory, in the format we require, together with any other information we request. Following receipt of your written site proposal, we may make an on-site visit to the proposed Site at our expense if we believe that such a visit is necessary or desirable, although we are not required to make an on-site visit. We do not charge for the initial on-site evaluation, but we may charge for each additional on-site evaluation a reasonable fee plus our reasonable costs. In evaluating potential sites, you agree to consider our site selection criteria, which we will provide to you at your request. We will not unreasonably withhold or delay our approval of any site that meets our standards. Relocation will require a new build-out, renovation to the then current standards and design, lease modification, franchise agreement changes and a fee (as stated in Section 2.1.7.1) to cover our costs and expenses.

Section 1.3 – Equipment; Supplies; Computer System

1.3.1 Equipment and Supplies. You agree to use in the operation of the Franchised Business only those brands and models or types of equipment, supplies, furniture, signs and other products and services that we have designated or approved for TTK Fried Chicken restaurants as meeting our specifications and standards. You will sign a supply agreement acceptable to us with our affiliate, Arms Global Inc., simultaneously with your signing of this Agreement. We may require that you obtain equipment, fixtures, supplies, furniture, signs and other products and services only from Arms Global Inc. and other suppliers we specify or approve from time to time. All technology devices, apps and services that you purchase or lease and use must also comply with our requirements, which may include specific items from specific suppliers. We may negotiate purchase agreements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees, but we are under no obligation to do so. We are not obligated to pass on to you any discounts we receive from suppliers. You agree to maintain an inventory of food and beverage products sufficient to meet the daily demands of the Franchised Business for all items specified in the menu.

1.3.2 Approval of Supplies and Suppliers. If you propose to purchase any brand or model of equipment, supplies, furniture, signs or other products or services that are not then designated or approved by us, or to purchase from any supplier that is not then designated or approved by us, you must first notify us and submit to us sufficient written specifications, photographs, drawings, samples and other information we request to enable us to determine whether the proposed brand, model or supplier complies with our specifications and standards. We will have the right to require that our representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered either to us or to a third party designated by us for review and testing. We will use reasonable efforts to begin an investigation of the proposed supplier or product within 30 days of your request. We will notify you within 10 days after we complete our investigation whether we approve the proposed supplier or product. We are under no obligation to investigate or approve any supplies or supplier you request. If we do not approve the supplies or supplier within 60 days after your request, we will be deemed to have denied your request. We reserve the right to revoke our approval for any reason. We will not be required to approve any particular supplier nor to make available to you or to any prospective supplier any of our standards or specifications. In addition to our right to terminate this Agreement, we have the right to assess our then current prohibited product or service fee in the event you continue to purchase unapproved products or services after your receipt of oral, email or written notice from us advising you to cease your purchase of such products or services.

1.3.3 Compensation from Suppliers. We reserve the right to receive rebates, credits and other compensation from suppliers we designate or approve to provide goods or services to you based upon the purchases by you and other franchisees of goods and services from such suppliers. We may use such compensation for any purpose we deem appropriate, including to subsidize our operating costs.

1.3.4 Purchasing or Distribution Cooperatives. We may establish national or regional purchasing or distribution programs for the purchase or distribution of certain goods, materials or supplies at reduced prices. You agree to participate in any purchasing or distribution cooperatives that we may establish for the region where your Franchised Business is located.

1.3.5 Point of Sale, Surveillance and Computer Systems. You agree to install, maintain and use in the Franchised Business such computer hardware, software, point-of-sale, cash register and surveillance systems as we specify from time to time, using suppliers we specify or approve from time to time. We may require you to incur costs to purchase, lease and license computer hardware and software and to obtain service and support, and to maintain such systems and to upgrade and make such changes to such systems as we may specify in writing. We may manage the license with the point-of-sale provider we select for the system of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants nationally, and you agree to pay such provider's fee for such license either to us or to the provider, as we specify. We may change the point-of-sale provider in our discretion. You must also be equipped to accept electronic payments wirelessly from customers using their cell phones and such app as we may require, which may allow customers to accumulate reward points each time they make a purchase. You acknowledge that we cannot estimate the future costs that other providers may charge for the computer hardware, software, or surveillance systems or their maintenance or upgrades, or additions or modifications to these systems, and that these costs may not be fully amortizable over the remaining term of this Agreement. We have the right to charge a reasonable systems fee for software or systems modifications and enhancements specifically made for us that we license to you and other maintenance and support services that we or our affiliates furnish to you.

1.3.6 Electronic Communications. You agree to maintain adequate telephone service for the Franchised Business, including a dedicated telephone line with voicemail dedicated to the Franchised Business, and a high speed Internet connection. You agree to use in the Franchised Business only such email addresses as we authorize and you will comply with such policies as we prescribe from time to time for email use. We have the right to establish requirements that will permit us, as often as we deem appropriate, to access your computer system and to retrieve all information relating to the Franchised Business.

1.3.7 Operations Data. We will have continuing access to and use of all operations data, including specific products sold and other sales data, customer lists (including the name, address, telephone number and email address of each customer), surveillance video and all other content and data you collect or store on your computer and surveillance system. We will periodically establish policies with respect to the use of such content and data, and you agree to comply with such policies. If we determine based on this data or any other evidence that you are using in the Franchised Business raw materials for the production of food products for sale to customers from any supplier other than Arms Global Inc. without our approval, we may instruct Arms Global Inc. to begin supplying such raw materials to you in quantities generally equal to the demonstrated shortfall in your orders. We will inform you that we have so instructed Arms Global Inc., and you agree to pay Arms Global all amounts invoiced by Arms Global for such materials.

1.3.8 No Warranty. We disclaim all express and implied warranties concerning any approved goods, materials or services, including, without limitation, any warranties as to merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, availability, quality, pricing or profitability.

Section 1.4 – System Standards

1.4.1 Manuals; System Standards. During the term of this Agreement, we will give you access to the confidential operations manual, training and other materials that we generally furnish to franchisees from time to time for use in operating a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant (the “Manual”), in such media as we select, whether hard copy, through a secure Internet portal or otherwise. The Manual and the bulletins and other written materials we provide to you will contain mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, operating procedures, policies, methods and rules (“System Standards”) that we prescribe from time to time for the operation of a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant and information relating to your other obligations under this Agreement. The Manual is and will remain at all times our sole property. You acknowledge that the Manual contains confidential information that is highly valuable to us. You will protect the confidentiality of such information in accordance with Section 3.2.

1.4.2 System Modifications by Us. We may modify or change the System Standards from time to time, and upon notice to you, we may make additions to, deletions from or revisions in the Manual to reflect such modifications or changes. Such modifications or changes may include, for example, the addition or discontinuation of products and services that you are required to sell at the Franchised Business, and may obligate you to invest additional capital in the Franchised Business (“Capital Modifications”). No modification or change that we make will alter your rights or obligations under this Agreement. We will not obligate you to make any Capital Modification that you cannot reasonably amortize during the remaining term of this Agreement and with respect to leasehold improvements over the remaining term of the Lease, unless we agree to extend the term of this Agreement or unless such investment is necessary in order to comply with applicable laws. You agree to adopt or comply with each new or changed procedure, policy, method and requirement as promptly as practicable after notice from us, and in any event within the time period we reasonably require.

1.4.3 System Modifications by You. You agree not to implement any modification or change in the System Standards or in the Franchised Business without our prior written approval, which we may withhold in our discretion. If you or any of your employees makes an improvement to the System Standards or in the Franchised Business, such improvement will be our property. All recipe and menu changes you submit to us for our consideration and approval will become our property. We will have the right to use such improvements and recipe and menu changes anywhere and authorize our affiliates and other franchisees to use them. You assign to us all rights to such improvements and you agree to sign any documents and to require that your employees sign any documents that we may reasonably request from time to time to evidence such assignment.

Section 1.5 – Personnel; Training and Support

1.5.1 Managing Owner. The “Managing Owner” of your company is the person named as such in Schedule A. The Managing Owner is the primary person who will represent your company in your dealings with us and who will be responsible for overseeing and supervising the operation of the Franchised Business. The Managing Owner must be an owner of an equity interest in your business whom we approve. You agree that a shareholder, member or partner will serve as your Managing Owner throughout the term of this Agreement. If you are a sole proprietorship, you are the Managing Owner. You may not replace the Managing Owner without our prior written approval, which we may condition on, among other things, attendance and satisfactory completion by the prospective new Managing Owner of our initial training program at your expense.

1.5.2 Operating Manager. You will appoint at least one “Operating Manager”. The Managing Owner and Operating Manager may be the same person. Your Operating Manager may but need not be an owner of your company. You will ensure that the day-to-day operation of the Franchised Business is always actively managed by an Operating Manager who has attended and successfully completed such training as we may require from time to time. The Operating Manager will actively devote his or her full working time, attention and effort to the Franchised Business and provide direct, day to-day supervision of the operation of the Franchised Business. The Operating Manager will ensure at all times the proper levels of customer service in accordance with the Manual and this Agreement.

1.5.3 Initial Training. Before you begin operating the Franchised Business, we will train your Managing Owner and Operating Manager in the operation of a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant. We require this training only for your first franchise location. We charge for this training in accordance with Section 2.1.2. The Managing Owner and Operating Manager must complete the initial training to our satisfaction before the Franchised Business opens. At your request and if space is available, we will train additional personnel of your company at our then-current rate. You must pay the compensation and travel and living expenses of all of your personnel who attend our training, regardless of whether we charge you a fee for such training. The training program consists of approximately 80 hours of training at our headquarters in New York City. We will endeavor to time the commencement of your training program so that it is completed at least 10 days before the scheduled opening of the Franchised Business.

1.5.4 Opening Assistance. We will provide pre-opening and opening training, supervision and assistance at your Franchised Business by one of our representatives for a period in our discretion of approximately 80 hours or two weeks.

1.5.5 Ongoing Training. At your request, and if we agree, we will furnish additional training. We may charge our then-current fees and expenses for additional or remedial training that is not mandatory or that we require because your personnel are not meeting our standards. We do not charge for mandatory training other than initial training except as described in this Section 1.5.5 or in Section 1.5.6. Our fees and expenses will vary based on the staff, location, and type of training. If any inspection of the Franchised Business indicates noncompliance with any System Standards or if we receive negative customer feedback, we may require previously trained and experienced managers and employees to attend refresher training courses at such times and locations as we designate, and we may send our personnel to your Franchised Business to administer the training. In such event, you agree to pay our then current fees for training and travel and living expenses for our personnel.

1.5.6 Replacement Manager. If the Managing Owner or Operating Manager does not satisfactorily complete the initial training program or if we determine that such person cannot satisfactorily complete the training program, or if the Managing Owner or Operating Manager ceases to act as such, then we must train, at your expense, a qualified replacement (who must be reasonably acceptable to us) within 30 days. Pending the appointment and training of a new Managing Owner or Operating Manager or if, in our judgment, the Franchised Business is not being managed properly, we have the right, but not the obligation, to manage the Franchised Business and require you to pay in the manner described in Section 4.2.8.

1.5.7 Ongoing Support. We will provide support and guidance from time to time in the operation of the Franchised Business, either in person, by telephone, by email or in writing, through newsletters, franchisee group meetings or other means. We will provide regular operational reviews and advise you from time to time regarding the operation of the Franchised Business based on reports you submit to us and inspections or observations we make, to ensure compliance with the System Standards and to recommend improvements. At your request, and if we agree, we will furnish additional on-site guidance and assistance and, in such case, we may require you to pay our then-current fees and expenses. Your failure to implement any corrective action we require will constitute a material breach of this Agreement and may result in termination pursuant to Section 5.2.

1.5.8 Conferences. We may hold franchisee conferences from time to time to discuss ongoing changes in the industry, sales techniques, performance standards and other subjects. The Managing Owner of your company must attend these conferences. You will be responsible for the travel and living expenses of your Managing Owner and any other attendees from your company. We may charge you and other franchisees a fee sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of such conferences. These conferences will be held at a location we select.

1.5.9 Undertakings by Your Personnel. You agree to take appropriate steps to advise all of your employees and contractors of your obligations under this Agreement and to ensure compliance by all of your employees and contractors with our standards and our confidentiality and noncompete requirements. Each manager of the Franchised Business and each person who receives or otherwise has access to Confidential Information (as defined in Section 3.2.1) who has not signed the Guaranty described in Section 1.1.7 must sign a written confidentiality agreement with your company in a form acceptable to us before having access to Confidential Information. At our request, you will submit to us a copy of all such written agreements. You will ensure that each such person complies with the terms of such agreement during the period that he or she is employed by you. Any breach of such agreement by any such person will be deemed a breach of this Agreement.

1.5.10 Staff and Training. You will maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff in numbers sufficient to promptly service customers in accordance with the System Standards. You will ensure that all members of your staff receive the training and any certification we require from sources we approve, at your expense. We may require or permit you to implement, at your expense, programs for the training of some or all of your managers and other employees. Before you implement any such program, we must certify that the program meets our standards. We may require you to obtain re-certification of your training programs from time to time, and we may withhold certification if we determine, in our discretion, that your training programs do not meet our standards.

1.5.11 Employer Obligations. You will have sole authority and control over the day-to-day operations of the Franchised Business and its employees. You will be solely responsible for recruiting and hiring the persons you employ to operate the Franchised Business. You will employ only persons of good character who will at all times conduct themselves in a competent and courteous manner in accordance with the image and reputation of the TTK Fried Chicken brand. You will also be responsible for their training, wages, taxes, benefits, safety, work schedules, work conditions, assignments, discipline and termination. You specifically agree to comply with all workplace related laws. At no time will you or your employees be deemed to be employees of ours or of any or our affiliates. We will have no right or obligation to direct your employees.

Section 1.6 – Operation of the Franchised Business

1.6.1 Compliance with System Standards. You agree to operate the Franchised Business in strict accordance with all System Standards in effect from time to time. You understand and acknowledge that every detail of the Franchised Business is important to you, to us and to other TTK Fried Chicken restaurant franchisees in order to develop and maintain high operating standards, to increase the demand for the services and products sold by all franchisees, and to protect the reputation and goodwill of the TTK Fried Chicken restaurant brand.

1.6.2 Customer Service. You will provide prompt, courteous and efficient service to all customers and treat all customers with respect. You will give prompt attention to all complaints from dissatisfied customers, if any, and use your best efforts to resolve such complaints as quickly as practicable, giving the customer the benefit of the doubt whenever feasible. You will provide customer service training to your employees. If we determine in our sole discretion that our intervention is necessary or desirable to protect the System or the goodwill associated with the System, or if we believe that you have failed adequately to address or resolve any customer complaints, we may, without your consent, resolve any complaints and charge you an amount sufficient to cover our reasonable costs and expenses in resolving the customer complaints, which amount you will pay us immediately on demand.

1.6.3 Maintaining Goodwill. You will do nothing that, in our reasonable opinion, tends to discredit the Marks or the System or to bring either into disrepute, or that might diminish or affect adversely our reputation or the goodwill of the TTK Fried Chicken system. This obligation will survive this Agreement and continue in effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement or your transfer in accordance with Article IV.

1.6.4 Compliance with Laws. You will comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in the operation of the Franchised Business and pay all taxes when due.

1.6.5 Health and Safety Standards. You will meet and maintain a high degree of sanitation and safety at the Restaurant Premises and the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Franchised Business. In this connection you agree as follows:

1.6.5.1 If the municipality in which the Franchised Business is located maintains a rating system for or relating to the sanitary conditions of food establishments, you must maintain the highest rating possible for the Franchised Business. If you receive an inspection report or a warning, citation or notice that results in or may result in a lowering of such rating, you must provide us with a copy of such report, warning, citation or notice within 24 hours after you receive it. You agree to take immediate steps to restore the highest rating for the Franchised Business and to seek a reinspection or appeal as soon as possible in order to restore such rating.

1.6.5.2 If you receive an inspection report or a warning, citation, certificate or notice that requires you to repair, replace or further sanitize any item at the Restaurant Premises within 72 hours, you must provide us with a copy of such report, warning, citation, certificate or notice within 24 hours after you receive it.

1.6.5.3 In all cases not described in Sections 1.6.5.1 or 1.6.5.2, you will furnish us, within five days after you receive it, a copy of each inspection report, warning, citation, certificate, notice and rating resulting from an inspection conducted by any federal, state, county or municipal agency with jurisdiction over the Franchised Business.

1.6.5.4 You will notify us within 48 hours of the occurrence of any accident or injury that may adversely affect the operation of the Franchised Business or your financial condition, or that may give rise to liability or a claim against you or us.

1.6.6 Maintaining the Premises. You will at all times maintain the Restaurant Premises in excellent repair and condition. You will make such additions, alterations, repairs and replacements as may be required for that purpose, including, without limitation, such periodic repainting and replacement of obsolete signs, furnishings, equipment and décor as we may reasonably direct.

1.6.7 Remedial Work. If we notify you of remedial work that is necessary to correct an unhealthy or unsafe condition and you fail to commence such work in good faith or to complete such work within the period specified in our notice, we will have the right, in addition to all other remedies, but not the obligation, to enter the Restaurant Premises and complete the required repair or corrective work on your behalf. We will have no liability to you for any work performed. If we perform such work, we may require that you pay us in accordance with Section 2.1.7.6.

1.6.8 Remodeling. In addition to the requirements of Sections 1.6.6 and 1.6.7, we will require you periodically to make reasonable capital expenditures to remodel, modernize and redecorate the Restaurant Premises so that such premises reflect the then-current image of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants. All remodeling, modernization and redecoration will be deemed to be Capital Modifications as defined in Section 1.4.2, and they must be done in accordance with our standards as modified from time to time and with our prior written approval. We may require you to make additional Capital Modifications as a condition to renewal pursuant to Section 5.1.2.6. You will complete all required Capital Modifications within the time period we reasonably require in our written notice.

1.6.9 Use of the Premises. You will use the Restaurant Premises solely for the operation of the Franchised Business. You will not use the Restaurant Premises for any other purpose or activity during the term of this Agreement.

1.6.10 Hours of Operation. You agree to keep the Franchised Business operating during such hours and days as we may specify from time to time or, if different, during such hours as the Lease may require.

1.6.11 Payment Cards. You will honor all credit, charge, courtesy or cash cards or other credit devices we specify. You will also comply with the then current Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI/DSS) as those standards may be revised by the PCI Security Standards Council, LLC (see www.pcisecuritystandards.org) or successor organization, including (i) implementing (at your expense) all security requirements that the PCI Security Standards Council (or its successor) requires of a merchant that accepts payment by credit and/or debit cards, and (ii) participating in (at your expense) a standardized PCI/DSS compliance program that is provided by a PCI/DSS vendor, in each case, approved by us in our discretion. In the event you are unable to demonstrate full compliance, we may require you to engage the services of an approved vendor to assist you to demonstrate full compliance on an ongoing basis. Additionally, we may require you to use, and directly contract with, certain approved third-party vendors, and in some cases a single approved third-party vendor, for some or all of your managed firewall, other technology security compliance and card brand or government requirements related to the transmission and processing of credit card transactions and information. You will immediately notify us if you become aware of any breach, or suspected breach, of card holder data, Personally Identifiable Information (PII), confidential information, or trade secrets related to the Franchised Business, whether notice is provided by your credit card processor, by law enforcement or by any other party.

1.6.12 Entity Requirements. All certificates representing stock, membership or other ownership interests in your company must contain a legend stating that transfer of such stock, membership or other ownership interest is limited by the provisions of this Agreement. Your company's business must be confined to owning and operating the Franchised Business, and we may require you to include this restriction in your company's organizational documents. Upon our request, you will deliver to us copies of all organizational documents of your company, including articles of incorporation, by-laws, shareholders' agreement, limited liability company articles and operating agreement, partnership agreement, and any certificates we may request certifying any resolution of directors. Your company must remain in good standing throughout the term of this Agreement in its state of formation and, if different, in the state in which your Franchised Business is located.

1.6.13 Franchisee Advisory Council. We reserve the right to create one or more "Franchisee Advisory Councils" for the purpose of fostering communication among and between franchisees and us, and to advise us in establishing, modifying or discussing various policies applicable to TTK Fried Chicken franchisees. Franchisee Advisory Councils may also advise us with respect to advertising, public relations and marketing programs. If and when a Franchisee Advisory Council is created, we may require you to participate in its meetings and programs. A Franchisee Advisory Council may advise and make recommendations but will not act as a policy-making board and will have no authority whatsoever. We will determine or approve the rules under which any Franchisee Advisory Council functions. We may change the rules at any time and we may dissolve any Franchisee Advisory Council at any time. We may require you to pay dues to a Franchisee Advisory Council and you will pay all costs and expenses you incur in connection with your participation in any Franchisee Advisory Council, including the costs of transportation, lodging and meals.

1.6.14 Customer Evaluations. We reserve the right to institute programs for auditing customer satisfaction and other quality control measures, and to require you to pay the cost of such programs. You agree to present to your customers such evaluation forms as we periodically prescribe and to participate and request your customers to participate in any surveys performed by us or on our behalf.

1.6.15 Inspections. During the term of this Agreement, we or our designated representatives will have the right, at any time during your regular business hours, without prior notice to you, to enter upon the Restaurant Premises to inspect the premises; observe, photograph and videotape the operations of the Franchised Business for such periods as we deem necessary; remove samples of any products, materials or supplies for review and analysis; and to interview your personnel and customers. You agree to cooperate fully with us and our representatives during all inspections, observations, photographing, videotaping, product sample removal and interviews; and to take all steps reasonably necessary to correct any deficiencies in your compliance with System Standards or this Agreement within the time we specify. Your failure to implement any corrective action we require or your failure to pass two sequential inspections will constitute a material breach of this Agreement and may result in termination pursuant to Section 5.2. In addition to our right to terminate this Agreement, we have the right to assess a fee equal to our then current prohibited product fee in the event you continue to be out of compliance with the System Standards after your receipt of oral, email or written notice from us advising you of the nature of your default and requesting you to comply.

1.6.16 Prices. We reserve the right to require you to comply with reasonable and lawful restrictions on prices of specific menu items or goods or services offered and sold by the Franchised Business as required in the Manual or as we otherwise reasonably direct in writing from time to time.

1.6.17 Payments to Suppliers. You agree to pay all of your suppliers promptly in accordance with their payment terms and to comply in all other respects with your contractual obligations to third parties.

Section 1.7 - Advertising, Promotion and Marketing

1.7.1 Signage. You will post prominent signage relating to the Franchised Business in easily-seen locations both inside and outside the Restaurant Premises. We will prescribe or approve from time to time in writing the size, form, color scheme, content and location of all such signage. You agree to display and maintain signs reflecting the current image of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants. You also agree to post any signs we designate to reflect the fact that you are a franchisee and the fact that franchise opportunities are available to others. You agree to discontinue the use of and destroy such signs as we declare to be obsolete within the reasonable time that we specify for such destruction, which will not be less than 30 days. Because of the importance of the TTK Fried Chicken restaurant image, you grant to us the right to enter the Restaurant Premises to remove and destroy unapproved or obsolete signs in the event that you have failed to do so within the time we specify.

1.7.2 Local Advertising and Marketing. In addition to your obligation to participate in our national and regional marketing programs in accordance with Section 1.7.4, you agree to use all reasonable efforts to promote the Franchised Business in the Territory. You are responsible at your expense for providing local advertising, marketing, promotional and public relations programs and activities for the Franchised Business. We may require you to spend in each year an amount equal to up to 2% of your Gross Sales on local advertising.

1.7.3 Local Advertising Materials. We will create in-store point of sale materials and a toolkit of approved advertising that we will furnish to you for your use. All other materials you use in local advertising, marketing, promotional and public relations programs and activities must conform to such standards and guidelines as we may specify from time to time. All such materials must be clear, factual and not misleading. You agree to submit to us, before you use them, samples of all materials you intend to use that we have not prepared or previously approved. We will endeavor to deliver to you our written approval or disapproval within 15 days after our receipt of such materials, but we will not be liable for any delay. If we have not notified you of disapproval within 15 days after your submission for approval, the materials will be considered approved. We may withdraw our approval at any time. If we withdraw our approval, you will immediately cease the use, distribution and dissemination of such material. Any advertising, marketing or sales concepts, programs or materials that you propose or develop for the Franchised Business and we approve may be used by us and by our affiliates and other franchisees without any compensation to you. You agree to use all point of sale materials that we may supply to you from time to time, in the manner we prescribe.

1.7.4 National and Regional Marketing. We or our designee will exclusively maintain and administer any national and regional advertising, public relations and marketing programs and market research, including without limitation the System Website described in Section 1.8.1 and all programs financed by the Marketing Fund, as described below. You agree to participate in all national and regional programs we specify from time to time in the manner we specify.

1.7.5 Marketing Fund. We have established a public relations and advertising fund (the "Marketing Fund"), subsidized by fees paid by TTK Fried Chicken restaurant franchisees, for such advertising, promotion, marketing and public relations programs and materials as we deem necessary or appropriate. You agree to contribute to the Marketing Fund in accordance with Section 2.1.5. TTK Fried Chicken restaurants that we or our affiliate own will not be required to contribute to the Marketing Fund.

1.7.6 Use of the Marketing Fund. The Marketing Fund will be used to enhance the recognition of the Marks and the patronage of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants nationally or regionally. We or our designee will have sole discretion over all matters relating to the Marketing Fund, including without limitation the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used, and the geographic, market and media placement and allocation. The Marketing Fund may be used to pay the costs of preparing and producing video, audio and written advertising materials; administering national and regional advertising programs, and engaging advertising, promotion and marketing agencies to assist us; website development and maintenance; toll-free telephone costs; and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising, promotion and marketing activities, as well as personnel costs attributable to advertising and marketing. The Marketing Fund will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for such reasonable salaries, administrative costs, travel expenses and overhead as we may incur in activities related to the administration of the Marketing Fund and its programs, including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing advertising, promotion and marketing materials and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Marketing Fund. The Marketing Fund will not be used to sell franchises, although we may use materials financed by the Marketing Fund on the System Website (defined in Section 1.8.1), which may advertise the Kung Fu Tea franchise opportunity. The source of the advertising may be our in-house advertising department or an outside advertising agency. If we or our affiliates provide in-house advertising department services, we or our affiliates may be compensated from the Marketing Fund provided that such compensation is reasonable.

1.7.7 Accounting for the Marketing Fund. We will separately account for the Marketing Fund monies, but we may commingle such monies with our other monies or maintain the Marketing Fund monies in one or more separate accounts, in our discretion. We may spend on behalf of the Marketing Fund in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contribution of all TTK Fried Chicken restaurants to the Marketing Fund in that year, and the Marketing Fund may borrow from us or others at reasonable interest rates to cover deficits or invest any surplus for future use. All interest earned on monies contributed to the Marketing Fund will be used to pay advertising costs before other assets of the Marketing Fund are expended. We will prepare annually, or cause to be prepared, a report or reports of the operations of the Marketing Fund. We will furnish such report to you for the most recent year upon your written request.

1.7.8 Marketing Fund Entity. We have the right, but not the obligation, to establish a separate entity to operate the Marketing Fund at any time. Any such entity will have all of the rights and duties with respect to the Marketing Fund that we have under this section. The Marketing Fund will not be deemed a trust, and we will have no fiduciary obligation to you in connection with the collection or administration of the Marketing Fund.

1.7.9 Distribution of Advertising Expenditures. Although we will endeavor to use the Marketing Fund to develop advertising and marketing materials and programs and to place advertising that will benefit all TTK Fried Chicken restaurants, we undertake no obligation to ensure that expenditures by the Marketing Fund will benefit all TTK Fried Chicken restaurants equally nor in proportion to contributions.

1.7.10 Termination of Marketing Fund. We reserve the right to defer, reduce or suspend contributions to the Marketing Fund, and, upon 30 days' prior notice to you, to suspend operations of the Marketing Fund for one or more periods of any length, and to terminate (and, if terminated, to reinstate) the Marketing Fund (and, if suspended, deferred or reduced, to reinstate such contributions). If the Marketing Fund is terminated, all unspent monies, if any, on the date of termination will be distributed to TTK Fried Chicken restaurants in proportion to their respective contributions to the Marketing Fund during the preceding twelve month period.

1.7.11 Cooperative Advertising. We have the right, in our sole discretion, to establish an advertising cooperative ("Ad Co-op") in any designated market area, as defined by Nielsen Media Research, Inc. ("DMA"). In addition, an Ad Co-op for the DMA in which the Franchised Business is located may be established upon the favorable vote of the owners of all TTK Fried Chicken restaurants (including non-franchised restaurants) within the same DMA. Each owner will be entitled to cast one vote for each restaurant owned and operated by that owner within such DMA. If 80% of all votes entitled to be cast vote in favor of establishing an Ad Co-op, then such Ad Co-op shall be formed.

1.7.12 Internet Advertising. Any Internet advertising you do must be submitted to us in advance for our approval in the manner described in Section 1.7.3. We may withhold our approval in our discretion. You may not own an Internet domain name that includes any of the Marks or variations of any of the Marks.

1.7.13 Social Media. You may promote the Franchised Business through social media and similar means provided that such promotion is consistent with the System Standards. If any of your employees, owners, officers, directors or managers posts objectionable content is posted to a social media website, you will have 12 hours after notice from us to remove such content provided that it is capable of removal. If you fail to remove the objectionable content within this 12-hour period, we will have the right to terminate this Agreement. You agree to check for social media postings of your employees from time to time to be sure that any comments they write are permitted and are consistent with our policies.

1.7.14 Coupons, Customer Loyalty and Gift Cards and Apps. You agree to participate in each gift card, customer loyalty card, mobile app and other similar program that we periodically establish or approve for use at TKK Fried Chicken restaurants either in your area or nationally, for all franchised TKK Fried Chicken restaurants that you or any affiliate of yours owns. You agree to timely execute and deliver such agreements and other documents as we may reasonably require to facilitate such programs. You will not initiate any such program yourself without our prior written approval, which we may withhold in our discretion. You will distribute customer loyalty cards and sell and issue gift cards and redeem (without an offset against Royalty payments) coupons, customer loyalty cards and gift cards in accordance with procedures and policies we specify in the Manual or otherwise in writing. We will manage any customer loyalty mobile app or program with the provider we select for the system of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in your area or nationally. You agree to pay the provider's fee for such service.

1.7.15 Advertising the Sale of Franchises. We have the right to advertise the TKK Fried Chicken franchise opportunity on the menu and in your Franchised Business.

1.7.16 Public Relations. You agree to refer all inquiries from news reporters regarding the Franchised Business or the System to the person we designate as the public relations spokesperson for the TKK Fried Chicken brand. You may not discuss any aspect of the Franchised Business or the System with any news reporter without our prior written approval in each instance.

Section 1.8 – Website and Portal

1.8.1 System Website. We maintain one or more websites to advertise, market and promote TKK Fried Chicken restaurants and the TKK Fried Chicken franchise opportunity (the "System Website"). The System Website lists the locations of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants. We own all intellectual property and other rights in the System Website and all information it contains.

1.8.2 Promotion of the System Website. All advertising, marketing and promotional materials that you develop for the Franchised Business must promote the System Website's domain name in the manner we designate.

1.8.3 Web Portal. In addition to the System Website, we may (but we will not be obligated to) maintain a secure web portal, extranet or other system for all TKK Fried Chicken restaurant franchisees that can be accessed only by means of user names and passwords and will not be available to the general public. We may use this portal, extranet or system to provide support for franchisees and to allow for online franchise discussion groups. You agree both during and after the term of this Agreement not to disclose your means of access to such portal to any person or entity who is not under your direct supervision and who does not have a need to have access. You agree to inform all persons under your supervision of this obligation of confidentiality. You further agree to comply with all guidelines and policies we establish from time to time for the use of this portal, extranet or system.

ARTICLE II – FEES; PAYMENTS; RECORDS; INSPECTIONS

Section 2.1 – Fees and Reports

2.1.1 Initial Fee. Upon your signing of this Agreement, you will pay us the initial fee indicated in Schedule A. The amount of any deposit already paid will be credited toward the initial fee. The initial fee is fully earned at the time we grant the franchise and is not refundable under any circumstances.

2.1.2 Training Fee. Before you begin initial training, you will pay us a training fee of $12,500 for a standard or a non-traditional location, or $5,000 to $7,500 for a TKK Express franchise as we determine. We require this fee and the initial training only for your first franchise location.

2.1.3 Royalty. You agree to pay us a royalty (“Royalty”) in the amount of 5% of the Gross Sales (as defined below) of the Franchised Business each Accounting Period (defined below).

2.1.4 Definition of Gross Sales. As used in this Agreement, the term “Gross Sales” or “Gross Sales of the Franchised Business” means all sales made in the operation of the Franchised Business, whether collected or not, including, but not limited to, all amounts you receive at or away from the Restaurant Premises, whether from cash, check, credit or debit card (with no deduction for credit card charges), near field communications (such as Apple Pay or Google Pay), proceeds of any business interruption insurance policies, and revenue from any other source. It does not include sales taxes collected from customers for payment to the appropriate taxing authorities or amounts refunded or credited to customers.

2.1.5 Definition of Accounting Period. “Accounting Period” means the specific period that we designate from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing for purposes of your financial reporting and payment obligations described in this Agreement. The Accounting Period may be a calendar month, but we may change the Accounting Period or designate different Accounting Periods for different purposes in our discretion as changes the System Standards pursuant to Section 1.4.2.

2.1.6 Marketing Fee. You agree to pay us a marketing fee each Accounting Period in the amount of 2% of the Gross Sales of the Franchised Business each Accounting Period (the “Marketing Fee”). The Marketing Fee finances the Marketing Fund described in Section 1.7.5.

2.1.7 Technology Fee. At the time you start paying the monthly Royalty, you will also pay us a monthly technology fee of $140 to $350 as we specify from time to time. The technology fee pays for your use of our customer rewards program platform and such other technology services as we may require you to use. The technology fee may be higher than $350 a month in order to cover the third-party cost of the technology if such cost exceeds $350 per month.

2.1.8 Other Fees. In addition to any fees described elsewhere in this Agreement, you agree to pay us the following fees upon the occurrence of the following events:

2.1.8.1 If you relocate the Franchised Business with our approval pursuant to Section 1.2.7, we may charge you a relocation fee of $5,000 plus any reasonable expenses we incur.

2.1.8.2 If we obtain insurance on your behalf in accordance with Section 6.3.7, you will pay us an amount equal to the premiums and related costs for the required insurance in full upon receipt of the invoice, plus a 25% service charge.

2.1.8.3 If we provide additional or remedial training that is not mandatory or that we require because your personnel are not meeting our standards, or if you request and we agree to furnish additional on-site training, guidance or assistance in accordance with Sections 1.5.5 or 1.5.7, we may charge our then-current fees and expenses.

2.1.8.4 If we provide customer service in accordance with Section 1.6.2 because of your failure adequately to address or resolve any customer complaints, we may charge you our reasonable costs and expenses in resolving such complaints;

2.1.8.5 If we perform work to correct an unhealthy or unsafe condition at your TKK Fried Chicken restaurant because you fail to perform the work after we notify you pursuant to Section 1.6.7, we may require you to pay for labor and materials plus a 25% service charge and an amount sufficient to reimburse us for our actual direct costs to supervise, perform and inspect the work and procure any replacement items, including labor, materials, transportation, lodging, meals, contractor fees and other direct expenses, all of which will be due and payable upon your receipt of our invoice.

2.1.8.6 If we perform an inspection or audit that is made necessary by your failure to furnish any information we require or if an audit or inspection reveals an understatement of Gross Sales greater than 2%, then we may require you to reimburse us for the reasonable cost of such inspection or audit in accordance with Section 2.2.6.

2.1.8.7 If you transfer the Franchised Business with our consent pursuant to Section 4.2, you agree to pay us a transfer fee of $5,000 plus a re-training fee of $5,000. The re-training fee is for a five-day training course that we provide to the buyer of the Franchised Business.

2.1.8.8 If the Operating Manager ceases active management of the Franchised Business or if the Franchised Business is not being managed properly, then pending the appointment and training of a new Operating Manager, we may appoint a manager until you appoint a trained replacement manager and we may require you to pay in the manner described in Section 4.2.8.

2.1.8.9 If you renew the franchise pursuant to Section 5.1.2, you agree to pay us our then-current renewal fee, which will not exceed the greater of $10,000 or 25% of the then-current initial franchise fee.

2.1.8.10 If any required payment you make to us is rejected by your bank because of insufficient funds, you will pay us $50 for each occurrence.

2.1.8.11 If you continue to sell or purchase an unauthorized product or service or you continue to be out of compliance with the System Standards after we have notified you to cease such sales or purchases or to comply with the System Standards, you will pay us our then current fee pursuant to Section 1.1.4 or 1.6.15. Such fee as of the date of this Agreement is $300 per day. You acknowledge and agree that your continued sale or purchase of unauthorized products or services or your continued noncompliance with System Standards after we have notified you to cease will cause us to incur damages, the actual amount of which would be speculative and difficult to calculate. You acknowledge that $300 per day from the date you receive our notice is a fair and reasonable estimate of the foreseeable damages that we are likely to incur.

2.1.8.12 If we hold franchisee conferences as described in Section 1.5.8, we may charge you a fee sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of such conferences.

2.1.9 Inflation. Fees stated in this Section 2.1 as dollar amounts may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in the Metropolitan Area Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers from the date of this Agreement, as published by the U.S. Department of Labor, or a successor index.

2.1.10 Reports. You will submit to us an electronic report within three days after the end of each Accounting Period setting forth your true and correct Gross Sales for such Accounting Period in such detail and in such manner as we require from time to time. We have the right, upon notice to you, to require you to submit to us in digital format, (i) monthly and annual balance sheets and income statements for the Franchised Business, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, in the format we prescribe, and verified as correct in the manner we prescribe from time to time; and (ii) reviewed financial statements prepared annually.

2.1.11 Payment. You will pay us the Royalty and Marketing Fee for each Accounting Period at the time you submit each report to us in accordance with Section 2.1.10, based on Gross Sales during the most recent Accounting Period. You will pay us for all other amounts upon your receipt of our invoice, including but not limited to reimbursements to us for amounts we spend on your behalf, amounts you incur for training, and purchases we make at your request or that we make on your behalf. Time is of the essence with respect to all payments you are to make to us. You will pay all sums owed to us or to any of our affiliates electronically through one or more depository transfer accounts or using such methods as we may designate in the Manual or otherwise in writing. At our request, you agree to execute such documents as we determine are necessary for us to process electronic funds transfers from your designated bank account for payment of the fees you owe to us. You will bear all costs to establish and maintain the required electronic payment system, and all bank service charges. You will comply with our procedures for electronic payment, which we may modify from time to time, including the maintenance of such minimum bank account balance as we specify from time to time.

2.1.12 Interest on Late Payments. Any payment that is not made by the date it is due will be subject to interest at the rate of 1.5% per month or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less. If no due date is stated, interest begins to run 10 days after billing. Your failure to pay all amounts when due constitutes grounds for termination of this Agreement, as provided in Section 5.2.2.4. Interest will accrue whether or not we exercise our right to terminate. You acknowledge that this subsection does not constitute our agreement to accept any delay in payments or our commitment to extend credit to you or otherwise finance your operation of the Franchised Business.

2.1.13 No Setoff. Your obligations to make payments in accordance with this Agreement and any other agreement with us or any of our affiliates with respect to the Franchised Business are not subject to any abatement, reduction, setoff, defense or counterclaim due or alleged to be due for any past, present or future claim that you have or may have against us or any of our affiliates.

2.1.14 Application of Payments. All payments you make to us will be applied in such order as we may designate from time to time, regardless of any designation you may make with respect to the application of such payments, even if you specifically make payment conditional on our acceptance of your designated application or instructions.

2.1.15 Taxes. In the event that we are required to collect and pay any sales or use tax from you for payment to any tax authority based on your purchase of the franchise or any items relating to the franchise, or based on any continuing payments you make to us under this Agreement, you will pay such amounts to us upon receipt of our invoice.

2.1.16 Failure to Report. If you fail to report your Gross Sales for any period, we may debit your account for 120% of the Royalty and Marketing Fee that we debited for the previous period. After we have determined the correct Gross Sales for such period, we will debit your account for any shortfall or credit your account against future payments if the amount paid exceeds the amount owed.

Section 2.2 – Records; Inspection

2.2.1 Records. You agree to maintain at the Restaurant Premises full, complete and accurate records of the Franchised Business. You will maintain bookkeeping, accounting and records retention systems conforming to the requirements that we prescribe from time to time, and such other records as we prescribe from time to time relating to the operations of the Franchised Business. You agree to maintain and to furnish to us upon request complete copies of all income, sales, value added, use and service tax returns, and employee withholding, workers' compensation and similar reports filed by you reflecting activities of the Franchised Business. You agree to preserve all records described in this Section 2.2.1 for a period of at least five years after their creation, or such longer period as may be required by law, during both the term and each renewal term of this Agreement and following the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

2.2.2 Access to Systems. We may use the computer and point of sale systems described in Section 1.3.5 to collect electronically the reports referred to in Section 2.1.10 and the records referred to in Section 2.2.1. We may use the content and data generated by the surveillance system described in Section 1.3.7 for any purpose, including to monitor customer service and the operation of the Franchised Business. We have the right to establish requirements that will permit us, as often as we deem appropriate, to access all cash registers, surveillance and computer terminals and your computer system and to retrieve all information relating to the Franchised Business.

2.2.3 Right to Inspect. During the term of this Agreement, we or our designated representatives will also have the right, at any time during your regular business hours, without prior notice to you, to enter upon the Restaurant Premises to inspect the books and records of the Franchised Business and take excerpts. You agree to cooperate fully with us and our representatives during all such inspections.

2.2.4 Right to Audit. We have the right at any time during your regular business hours, without prior notice to you, to inspect and audit the records of the Franchised Business, or to cause such records to be inspected and audited. This right includes the right to access your computer systems.

2.2.5 Discrepancies. If any inspection or audit demonstrates an understatement of Gross Sales, you will pay the deficiency to us within 15 days after you receive the inspection or audit report.

2.2.6 Cost. All inspections and audits will be at our expense; but if an inspection or audit is made necessary by your failure to furnish, or your delay in furnishing, reports, supporting records, other information or financial statements we require, or if an understatement of Gross Sales for the period of any audit or inspection is determined by any such audit or inspection to be greater than 2%, you agree, within 15 days after our request, to reimburse us for the cost of such inspection or audit, including, without limitation, legal and accounting fees, and the travel expenses, including lodging, meals and per diem charges of the inspecting or auditing personnel. These remedies are in addition to our other remedies and rights under this Agreement and applicable law.

2.2.7 Survival of Inspection and Audit Rights. Our rights to inspect the books and records of the Franchised Business and to take excerpts, and to audit the Franchised Business, will continue for a period of six months following the expiration or termination of this Agreement; but we may only inspect such books and records or perform any such audit following the expiration or termination of this Agreement upon at least 24 hours' prior notice to you.

2.2.8 Disclosure of Your Financial Information. We have the right to disclose data we receive from you regarding the Franchised Business without identifying you. If we are required by law to disclose any data we receive from you regarding the Franchised Business and such disclosure will identify you, we will notify you of the disclosure to be made and, if you request, endeavor to obtain legally binding assurance that those who receive such disclosure will be bound by an obligation of confidentiality. We also have the right to disclose data regarding the Franchised Business to any prospective transferee of the Franchised Business you identify to us.

Section 2.3 – Security Interest

2.3.1 Grant of Security Interest. As security for the payment of all amounts you owe us from time to time under this Agreement and all other agreements between you and us, and your performance of all of your obligations under such agreements, you hereby grant to us a security interest in all of the assets of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, all inventory, equipment, furniture and fixtures, as well as all proceeds from their sale and the related insurance (the "Collateral"). You warrant and represent that the security interest granted hereby is prior to all other security interests in the Collateral except bona fide purchase money security interests, or security interests held by financial institutions, if any, each of which is subject to our prior approval. Our security interest will be subordinate to any security interest held by a bank pursuant to Small Business Administration (SBA financing of the Franchised Business. You agree not to remove the Collateral, or any portion of the Collateral, from the Restaurant Premises without our prior written consent.

2.3.2 Collateral Assignment of Lease. In addition to granting us a security interest in the Collateral, pursuant to Section 2.3.1 above, you hereby grant to us a security interest in and to the Lease (“Collateral Assignment of Lease”), and all of your rights, title and interests in and to the Lease, as further security for the payment of all amounts you owe us from time to time under this Agreement and all other agreements between you and us. In the event of a breach or default by you under the terms of the Lease, or, in the event we make any payment to the landlord under the Lease as a result of your breach of the Lease, then such payment by us, or such breach or default by you, will at our option be deemed to be an immediate default under this Agreement, and we will be entitled to take possession of the Restaurant Premises and to assume all of your rights, title and interests in and to the Lease and to all other remedies described in this Agreement or at law or in equity, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies we might have under any other agreements or under other applicable law. This Collateral Assignment of Lease will constitute a lien on your interest in and to the Lease until satisfaction in full of all amounts owed by you to us. You agree to obtain the landlord’s consent to this Collateral Assignment of Lease by having the landlord execute a lease addendum in the form contained in our franchise disclosure document.

2.3.3 Remedies.

2.3.3.1 Upon the occurrence of any event entitling us to terminate this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, we will have all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code of the state in which the Franchised Business is located, including, without limitation, the right to take possession of the Collateral.

2.3.3.2 In addition to the remedies set forth in Section 2.3.3.1 above, in the event of a default by you under the terms of the Lease or under this Agreement, we will be entitled to exercise any one or more of the following additional remedies in our sole discretion:

- (i) without notice and with or without process of law, to enter upon and take and maintain possession of the Restaurant Premises, together with all Collateral and all of your books, records, papers and accounts, and to assume all of your rights, title and interests in and to the Lease;
- (ii) as your attorney-in-fact, or in our own name, to hold, operate, manage and control the Franchised Business with full power to use such measures as we deem proper or necessary to cure such default;
- (iii) to cancel, terminate or disaffirm any unauthorized agreement, sublease or subordinated lien, to make all necessary or proper repairs, replacements, alterations, additions, and improvements to the Restaurant Premises;
- (iv) to insure and reinsure the same for all risks incidental to our possession, operation and management thereof; and
- (v) to terminate this Agreement as of the date of your default under the Lease.

2.3.4 Filings. You authorize us, without further notice to or consent by you, to file any records or other documents as we reasonably deem necessary to perfect, continue, amend or terminate our security interest in the Collateral. In connection with our security interest in the Lease, you agree to obtain the landlord’s consent to the Collateral Assignment of Lease by having the landlord execute a TKK Lease Addendum in a form satisfactory to us.

2.3.5 Election of Remedies. The remedies set forth in this Section 2.3.3 do not exclude any of our other remedies under this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us. No exercise by us of any of our rights under this Section 2.3 will cure, waive or affect any default under this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us. No inaction or partial exercise by us of our rights will be construed as a waiver of any of our rights and remedies and no waiver by us of any such rights and remedies shall be construed as a waiver by us of any future rights and remedies.

2.3.6 Grants of Security Interests to Others. We must approve in advance and in writing any grant you make to any third party of a security interest in or encumbrance of any assets of the Franchised Business, including without limitation the Collateral or the Lease. We will not unreasonably withhold our consent to any such grant made in connection with financing for the development or operation of the Franchised Business or equipment leasing, if such financing satisfies our requirements, which may include execution of agreements by us, you and the secured creditor, in a form satisfactory to us, making any such security interest subordinate to the one you have granted to us pursuant to this Section 2.3.

2.3.7 Survival. The security interest created by this Section 2.3 will survive the termination or the expiration and nonrenewal of this Agreement and remain in effect until all of your monetary obligations to us are satisfied in full.

ARTICLE III - PROPRIETARY RIGHTS; CONFIDENTIALITY; NONCOMPETITION

Section 3.1 – Our Copyrights and Trademarks

3.1.1 Our Copyrights. We and our affiliates are the sole owners of all copyrights in the Manual and all supplemental materials, and other materials identified as ours that we provide to you, and in all advertising and promotional material created by or for us. You may not copy any such materials, nor create derivative works of any such materials, except as we specifically authorize or permit.

3.1.2 Our Trademarks. Your right to use the Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to your operation of the Franchised Business at and from the Restaurant Premises pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement and all System Standards. Your unauthorized use of the Marks will be a breach of this Agreement and an infringement of our rights in and to the Marks. You acknowledge and agree that your use of the Marks and any goodwill established by such use will be exclusively for our benefit and that this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Marks upon you (other than the right to operate the Franchised Business in compliance with this Agreement). You will not contest or assist others in contesting our right to use the Marks.

3.1.3 Proper Use of the Marks. You may not use the Marks except as authorized under this Agreement. You understand that any use of the Marks other than as expressly authorized by this Agreement, without our prior written consent, may constitute infringement and that your right to use the Marks does not extend beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement. You agree to use the Marks as the sole identification of the Franchised Business, except that you agree to identify yourself as the independent owner of the Franchised Business in the manner we prescribe. You may not use any of the Marks or any word similar to any of the Marks as part of any corporate or legal business name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols (other than logos licensed to you under this Agreement), or in any modified form, nor may you use any Mark in connection with the performance or sale of any unauthorized products or services or in any other manner we have not expressly authorized in writing. You may not use any Mark as part of a domain name or electronic address of a website. You agree to display the Marks prominently in the manner we prescribe at the Franchised Business and on business forms and advertising materials. You agree to give such notices of trademark registrations and our ownership of the Marks as we specify from time to time and to obtain any fictitious or assumed business name registrations required under applicable law.

3.1.4 Modifying the Marks. We will have the right to modify or change the Marks from time to time upon written notice to you specifically referring to this Agreement and describing such modification or change. Such right will include the right to use a trademark that is entirely different from “TKK Fried Chicken” and the right to require you to use one or more additional logos and marks; but we will make all such changes in the Marks only for good faith marketing, trademark or other reasons on a uniform basis for all TKK Fried Chicken franchisees in the U.S. You agree, upon notice from us, to regard each such modified, changed, new or additional trademark as being within the definition of “Marks” under this Agreement, and to adopt and use each such trademark at your expense in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. We will not be obligated to reimburse you for any loss of revenue or expenses caused by any such modification or change.

3.1.5 Infringement. You agree to notify us of any apparent infringement of any Mark or of any of our copyrights, by any third party, as soon as such apparent infringement comes to your attention, and to notify us immediately of any challenge to your use of any Mark and of any claim by any person of any rights in any Mark, and you agree not to communicate with any person other than us, our attorneys and your attorneys in connection with any such infringement, challenge or claim. We have sole discretion to take such action as we deem appropriate with respect to such apparent infringement, challenge or claim and the right to control exclusively any litigation, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or any other administrative proceeding arising out of any such infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any Mark or our copyrights. You agree not to initiate any such action or proceeding, but to cooperate with us in any such action or proceeding and sign any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance and do such acts and things as may be necessary or advisable, in the opinion of our attorneys, to protect and maintain our interests in any litigation or any proceeding at the Patent and Trademark Office, or otherwise to protect and maintain our interests in the Marks or copyrights. In the event any sum is recovered based on our claim of infringement, we will have the exclusive right to such recovery.

Section 3.2 – Confidentiality of Our Information

3.2.1 Confidential Information. We possess and will continue to develop and acquire certain confidential information relating to the development and operation of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants (“Confidential Information”). Confidential Information means information that is not generally available to the public and that has commercial value to us or to the Franchised Business, or that is personally identifiable information of customers. “Confidential Information” includes, without limitation:

- 3.2.1.1 product recipes, mixes and formulas;
- 3.2.1.2 the contents of the Manuals and all supplemental materials;
- 3.2.1.3 the content of our training and assistance;
- 3.2.1.4 site selection criteria;

- 3.2.1.6 customer lists;
- 3.2.1.7 planned advertising and marketing programs;
- 3.2.1.8 current, past and planned research, development and test programs for products, services and operations;

3.2.1.11 the videos and images recorded by the surveillance system (except to the extent necessary to prove wrongful acts);

3.2.1.12 user names and passwords allowing access to protected areas on our website or computer network; and

3.2.1.13 all improvements and modifications to the System Standards or in the Franchised Business developed by you or your personnel.

You will not acquire any interest in any Confidential Information other than the right to use Confidential Information disclosed to you to enable you to operate the Franchised Business during the term of this Agreement.

3.2.2 Nondisclosure and Non-Use. At all times both during the term and after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, (i) you will keep all Confidential Information in the strictest confidence and you will not disclose any Confidential Information to any person other than your employees, agents or representatives who have a legitimate need to know such information and who are informed of this obligation of confidentiality and have signed either a Guaranty as described in Section 1.1.7 or a written confidentiality agreement with your company in a form acceptable to us, and (ii) you will not use any Confidential Information except for the purpose of fulfilling your obligations under this Agreement. You will immediately notify us upon discovering any loss or unauthorized disclosure by any of your owners, managers, employees, contractors, agents or representatives of any Confidential Information.

3.2.3 Isolated Disclosures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we will not deem you to be in default of this Agreement as a result of isolated incidents of disclosure of Confidential Information by an employee other than an owner, provided that you have taken reasonable steps to prevent such disclosure, including but not limited to the steps a reasonable and prudent owner of confidential and proprietary information would take to prevent disclosure of such information by his or her employees, and further provided that you pursue all reasonable legal and equitable remedies against such employee for such disclosure of Confidential information.

3.2.4 Exceptions. The obligations of confidentiality and non-use described above will not apply to information that: (i) you can clearly show was known to you on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to you by us; (ii) is or becomes generally known among Competitive Businesses (as defined in Section 3.3.1) in the U.S. other than through disclosure by you or any of your employees, contractors, agents or representatives; or (iii) you can clearly show was received by you on a nonconfidential basis from a third party that is not prohibited from disclosing such information by a legal, contractual or fiduciary obligation.

3.2.5 Disclosures Required by Law. In the event that you become legally compelled to disclose any Confidential Information, you will (i) promptly notify us that such information is required to be disclosed, (ii) use your best efforts to obtain legally binding assurance that all those who receive disclosure of such information are bound by an obligation of confidentiality, and (iii) disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that your legal counsel advises is legally required to be disclosed.

3.2.6 Return of Information. Upon our request, you will promptly return to us all Confidential Information and all copies in your possession or under your control, and you will destroy all copies on your computers, disks and other digital storage devices.

Section 3.3 – Noncompetition

3.3.1 Definition of Competitive Business. As used in this Agreement, the term “Competitive Business” means any quick-service restaurant business in which fried chicken is a key menu item (other than a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant operated under a franchise agreement with us or our affiliate). The restrictions of this section will not apply to the ownership, solely as an investment, of publicly traded securities that constitute less than 1% of a class of ownership interests of the issuing company.

3.3.2 Noncompetition During the Term. You agree that during the term of this Agreement and any renewal of this Agreement, you will not, directly or indirectly (through one of your company's affiliates or owners or a member of the immediate family of any owner), either (i) have a direct or indirect interest in a Competitive Business located or operating anywhere in the U.S. or in any other country in which a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant operates; (ii) perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for a Competitive Business, wherever located or operating; or (iii) divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Franchised Business to any Competitive Business in any manner.

3.3.3 Noncompetition After Termination. Upon the expiration and nonrenewal of this Agreement, your termination of this Agreement without cause, our termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms and conditions, or your Transfer (as defined in Section 4.2.2), you and your company's owners agree for a period of two years following such expiration, termination or transfer, that you will not, directly or indirectly (through one of your company's affiliates or owners or a member of the immediate family of any owner), either (i) have a direct or indirect ownership interest in a Competitive Business located or operating within 5 miles of the Site or of any TKK Fried Chicken restaurant anywhere in the world at the time of such expiration, termination or Transfer; (ii) perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for any such Competitive Business; or (iii) divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Franchised Business to any competitor in any manner.

3.3.4 Reasonableness of Restrictions. You acknowledge that the time and geographical limitations in Sections 3.3.2 and 3.3.3 are reasonable and do not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect our goodwill or other business interests. If any of the limitation in such sections is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or governmental agency, then such limitation will be deemed to be reduced as necessary to enable the court or agency to enforce such limitation to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law.

ARTICLE IV - TRANSFER

Section 4.1 – Transfer by Us

We may sell, assign or transfer our rights and obligations under this Agreement to any party, without your approval and without prior notice to you, provided that the buyer, assignee or transferee agrees in writing to assume all of our obligations under this Agreement. We will not be liable for obligations of the transferee arising after the date of transfer.

Section 4.2 – Transfer by You

4.2.1 No Transfer Without Our Approval. This Agreement is personal to you. We have granted the franchise to you in reliance upon our perceptions of your (or your company's owners') individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, business ability and financial capacity. Accordingly, you may make no Transfer (as defined below) without our prior written approval. Any purported Transfer without such approval will be a breach of this Agreement and will entitle us to terminate this Agreement as provided below. Our consent to a Transfer does not constitute a representation as to the fairness of the terms of any contract between you or your company's owners and the transferee, a guaranty of the successful operation of the Franchised Business by the transferee or a waiver of any claims we may have against you or your company's owners or of our right to demand the transferee's compliance with any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement.

4.2.2 Definition of Transfer. As used in this Agreement, the term “Transfer” means your (or your company’s owners’) voluntary, involuntary, direct or indirect assignment, sale, gift, pledge or other disposition of: (i) any legal or beneficial ownership or voting interest in your company; (ii) this Agreement; (iii) any material asset of the Franchised Business; or (iv) the lease or ownership of the Restaurant Premises (unless we agree to a relocation or unless the transfer of ownership does not affect your leasehold rights and obligations). “Transfer” also includes: (v) the merger or consolidation of your company; (vi) the issuance of additional securities or other ownership or voting interests of your company; and (vii) the admission or departure of a partner or owner; (viii) transfers resulting from proceedings under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or any similar law; (ix) transfers resulting from divorce; and (x) any grant of a security interest to a third party without our approval.

4.2.3 Notice of Transfer. You agree to notify us of any planned Transfer, and to provide us with any information we may reasonably request in order to permit us to evaluate the planned Transfer. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal under Section 4.3, we agree not to unreasonably withhold our approval of a Transfer. If we approve the Transfer, then you will be free, for 90 days following such approval, to effect the Transfer to the person or persons approved by us.

4.2.4 Conditions to Transfer. The following conditions will apply with respect to any Transfer except as described in Section 4.2.3:

4.2.4.1 The proposed transferee, its managers, directors, officers and owners, must be individuals of good character with sufficient business experience, aptitude, and financial resources to operate the Franchised Business and otherwise meet our then applicable standards for a new TKK Fried Chicken restaurant franchisee.

4.2.4.2 The proposed transferee may not be or be owned directly or indirectly by a Competitive Business, nor may any of the proposed transferee’s managers, directors, officers or owners perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for a Competitive Business.

4.2.4.3 You will cure any default under this Agreement that we will have notified to you.

4.2.4.4 You will pay all fees and any other amounts then owed to us or our affiliates.

4.2.4.5 If any Lease requires it, the landlord must consent to the assignment of the Lease to the transferee.

4.2.4.6 You or the transferee will pay us a nonrefundable transfer fee described in Section 2.1.8.6.

4.2.4.7 We may require that the transferee or your company under ownership by the transferee, at the time of closing, enter into our then current form of franchise agreement amended to shorten the initial term to conform to the remaining term of this Agreement and to remove the requirement to pay the initial fee, and each Guarantor under the new franchise agreement will have signed our then-current form of guaranty.

4.2.4.8 You and we will execute a written Consent to Transfer Agreement terminating this Agreement or an amendment to this Agreement acknowledging a change in ownership. Any such agreement or amendment must be in a form satisfactory to us and may include a general release of any claims against us and our affiliates and an acknowledgment of your obligations following the Transfer.

4.2.4.9 You will upgrade and remodel the Restaurant Premises as we may require to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of a new franchised business then being established, and you will complete the upgrading and remodeling within the time specified by us.

4.2.4.10 We will have approved the material terms and conditions of such transfer and determined that the price and terms of payment will not adversely affect the transferee's operation of the Franchised Business.

4.2.4.11 If you or your owners finance any part of the sale price of the transferred interest, you or your owners will have agreed that all of the transferee's obligations pursuant to any promissory notes, agreements or security interests are subordinate to the transferee's obligation to pay Royalties, Marketing Fees and other amounts due to us.

4.2.4.12 After our authorization of the Transfer and your compliance with all of the requirements listed above, you will give us not less than five business days' written notice of the date, time and place of the closing of such Transfer, and you will give us an opportunity to have a representative present at the closing.

4.2.4.13 If the transaction is brokered by a third-party or by one of our authorized sales representatives, you or the proposed transferee will be responsible for paying broker fees at the same commission rate that we pay such broker or sales representatives.

4.2.4.14 If the transaction is a securities offering as described in Section 4.2.9, you must pay us the greater of: (i) 50% of our then-current initial franchise fee; or (ii) our reasonable costs and expenses associated with reviewing the proposed offering.

4.2.5 Transfer to a Company you Control. Upon prior notice to us and the signing by the relevant parties of assignment documents acceptable to us, you may transfer this Agreement to an entity that conducts no business other than the Franchised Business in which you maintain management control and of which you or all of the owners of your company own and control 100% of the equity and voting power, provided that all assets of the Franchised Business are owned, and the entire Franchised Business is conducted by, a single entity. The requirements of Sections 4.2.4.6 through 4.2.4.13 will not apply to any such transfer. You will remain personally liable under this Agreement after such Transfer by signing a Guaranty as described in Section 1.1.7.

4.2.6 Transfer Upon Death or Disability. You or your executor or other personal representative must promptly notify us in the event of the death or disability of the Managing Owner. Any transfer upon death or disability will be subject to the same terms and conditions as those that apply to other transfers, as described in Sections 4.2.1 through 4.2.4; but you or your executor or other personal representative will have a period of 12 months in which to effect a transfer acceptable to us in the event of death, and six months in the event of disability. The Managing Owner must be replaced with a new Managing Owner acceptable to us. As used in this Agreement, the term "disability" means a mental, emotional or physical injury, illness, incapacity, disability or impairment that is reasonably expected to prevent or actually does prevent a person from performing the obligations set forth in this Agreement for more than 30 days. A person's disability for purposes of this section will be determined by a licensed practicing physician selected by us upon examination of such person or, if such person refuses to be examined, then such person will automatically be deemed disabled for purposes of this section as of the date of refusal. We will pay the cost of the examination to the extent it is not covered by insurance.

4.2.7 Operation of the Franchised Business Upon Death or Disability. Upon the death or disability of the Managing Owner, you or such deceased or disabled owner's executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or other personal representative must within a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of death or disability, appoint a Managing Owner to operate the Franchised Business. Such Managing Owner will be required to complete our training at your expense. Pending the appointment and training of a Managing Owner or if, in our judgment, the Franchised Business is not being managed properly, we have the right, but not the obligation, to manage the Franchised Business ourselves or through another franchisee. You will pay us or such other franchisee for such services in accordance with our or such other franchisee's then current fees.

4.2.8 Transitional Management Costs. In the event that we manage the Franchised Business pursuant to Section 4.2.7 or Section 1.5.7, all funds from the operation of the Franchised Business during the management by our appointed manager will be kept in a separate account, and all expenses of the Franchised Business, including compensation, other costs and travel and living expenses of our manager, will be charged to this account. We will also have the right to charge a reasonable management fee (in addition to the Royalty and Marketing Fee and other fees payable under this Agreement) during the period that our appointed manager manages the Franchised Business. Operation of the Franchised Business during any such period will be on your behalf. We will not be liable to you or your company's owners for any debts, losses or obligations incurred by the Franchised Business or to any of your suppliers for any products, materials, supplies or services the Franchised Business purchased during any period it is managed by our appointed manager.

4.2.9 Securities Offerings. You agree to submit to us, for our review, all materials for an offering or exempt private placement of stock or partnership or other interests in your company or any of your affiliates that are required by federal or state law before such materials are filed with any government agency and before they are used. We may require that such materials contain a written statement, prescribed by us, indicating that we are not participating in such offering in any way. You and all other participants in the offering must fully indemnify us and our subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns, and our and their respective members, managers, directors, officers, shareholders, partners, agents and representatives in connection with the offering. For each proposed offering, you will reimburse us for our reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting fees) of reviewing the proposed offering. You will give us written notice at least 30 days before the date that any offering or other transaction described in this Section 4.2.9 commences. Any such offering will be subject to all of the other provisions of this Section 4.2.

Section 4.3 – Our Right of First Refusal

4.3.1 Notice of Third Party Offer. If you or any of your company's owners at any time desire to sell, assign or transfer for consideration this Agreement and the other assets of the Franchised Business or the ownership of your company to anyone other than as described in Section 4.3.4, you will obtain and immediately submit to us a true and complete copy of a bona fide written offer from the third party that desires to acquire your company or its assets (the "Third Party Offer"). The Third Party Offer must include the names of all owners of any entity offeror and the names of all partners of any partnership offeror or, in the case of a publicly-held entity, copies of the most current quarterly report and Form 10K. The Third Party Offer must contain details of the payment terms of the proposed sale and the source and terms of any financing of the proposed purchase price, and may not include or be contingent upon the purchase of assets other than those related to the Franchised Business.

4.3.2 Exercise of Our Right of First Refusal. We will have the right, exercisable by notice delivered to you or your company's selling owner or owners within 30 days after the date of our receipt of a copy of the Third Party Offer and all other information we request, to purchase such interest for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in the Third Party Offer, provided that (i) we may substitute cash for any form of payment proposed in such offer; and (ii) we will have at least 60 days after giving notice of our election to prepare for closing. If we exercise our right of first refusal, the seller and we will execute a written agreement, in a form satisfactory to us, acknowledging the seller's continuing obligations. We may require the seller to sign a general release of any claims against us and our affiliates. If you own the Restaurant Premises, we or our assignee or affiliate will only have a right to lease the Restaurant Premises for the remaining term of the Franchise Agreement, excluding renewals, at fair market value.

4.3.3 Consequence of Nonexercise of Our Right of First Refusal. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal, you or your owners may complete the sale to such purchaser pursuant to and on the exact terms of such offer, subject to our approval of the transfer as provided in Section 4.2; but if the sale to such purchaser is not completed within 120 days after delivery of the Third Party Offer to us, or if there is a material change in the terms of the sale (which you agree promptly to communicate to us), we will have an additional right of first refusal during the thirty day period following either the expiration of such 120-day period or the notice to us of the material changes in the terms of the sale, either on the terms originally offered (following such 120-day period) or the modified terms (following notice to us of material changes in the terms of the sale), at our option.

4.3.4 Exceptions. Our right of first refusal will not apply to transfers from one current owner of your company to another current owner unless the Managing Owner is transferring his or her ownership. In addition, our right of first refusal will not apply to any partial sale of your company or its assets. We will not have the right to become a partial owner of your company. You must nevertheless notify us before any transfer between owners or any partial transfer of ownership interest takes place.

ARTICLE V - TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 5.1 - Term and Renewal

5.1.1 Initial Term. This Agreement will be effective as of the date set forth in the opening paragraph of this Agreement. The initial term of this Agreement will expire on the date specified in Schedule A, but if no expiration date appears in Schedule A, then the initial term of this Agreement will expire 10 years after the date set forth in the opening paragraph of this Agreement, or in the case of a transfer from a prior TTK franchisee, the initial term will expire upon the expiration date of the transferor's franchise agreement. If a current lease or sublease will expire before the expiration of this Agreement, you may attempt to obtain a replacement lease or sublease. We will have the right to approve any proposed replacement lease or sublease as otherwise provided in Section 1.2.5. If you are unable to obtain a replacement lease or sublease that meets our approval before the current lease or sublease expires, (i) you have the right to terminate this Agreement, subject to your compliance with all notice provisions and post-term obligations set forth in this Agreement, or (ii) we have the right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.2. In addition, if the current lease or sublease is terminated for any reason before it expires, we have the right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.2.

5.1.2 Renewal. You will have the right to acquire a successor franchise for a term of 10 years, provided that you comply with the following conditions:

5.1.2.1 you will have given us notice of your desire to acquire a successor franchise ("Renewal Notice") not less than twelve months nor more than eighteen months before the end of the then-current term;

5.1.2.2 you and your affiliated companies must not be in default under this Agreement or any other agreement with us or any of our affiliates at the time you give your Renewal Notice, or if you are in default, you have cured such default in the manner described below;

5.1.2.3 you comply with our then-current financial qualifications and training requirements for new TTK Fried Chicken restaurant franchises;

5.1.2.4 you must not have received more than three notices of default during any 24 month period during the term of this Agreement, whether or not such defaults have been cured;

5.1.2.5 you present evidence to us that you have the right to remain in possession of the Restaurant Premises for the duration of the term of the successor franchise agreement, or you obtain our approval of a new location for the Franchised Business for the duration of the successor franchise term;

5.1.2.6 to comply with our then-current standards in effect for new TKK Fried Chicken restaurant franchises, at your cost and expense, you remodel and refurbish the Restaurant Premises, and you repair or replace equipment (including electronic cash register or computer hardware or software systems), signs, interior and exterior decor items, fixtures, furnishings, catering or delivery vehicles, if applicable, supplies and other products and materials required for the operation of the Franchised Business as we may reasonably require, and you obtain any new or additional equipment, fixtures, supplies and other products and materials that we may reasonably require;

5.1.2.7 if we require, you execute a general release, in a form prescribed by us, of any and all claims against us and our affiliates and their respective members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents and employees; and

5.1.2.8 you execute our then-current standard form of franchise agreement, which agreement will supersede this Agreement in all respects; but you will not be required to pay the initial fee stated in the successor franchise agreement. Instead, you will pay us the renewal fee referred to in Section 2.1.8.8. You understand that the successor franchise agreement may contain materially different terms than this Agreement, including, but not limited to, increased fees.

If you or any of your affiliated companies are in default under this Agreement or any other agreement with us or any of our affiliates at the time you give your Renewal Notice, we will give you notice, not more than 30 days after receipt by us of your Renewal Notice, of such default, and we will give you 30 days to cure. In the event that you fail to cure in that period, or in the event that any other condition set forth in this Section 5.1.2 is not satisfied, your right to renew will terminate. Nothing in this Section 5.1.2 will limit our right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.2.2 or 5.2.3.

5.1.3 Hold Over. If you do not sign a new franchise agreement before the term of this Agreement expires and you continue to accept the benefits of this Agreement after this Agreement expires, then at our option, we may treat this Agreement either as: (i) expired as of the date of expiration, with you then being deemed to be operating without a franchise in violation of our rights; or (ii) continued on a month-to-month basis (the "Interim Period") until either (A) both you and we sign a new franchise agreement or (B) either you or we give at least 30 days' prior written notice to the other party of your or our intention to terminate the Interim Period, in which case the Interim Period and this Agreement will terminate on the date specified in the notice, which will not be more than 60 days following the date of the notice unless both parties so agree. All of your obligations will remain in full force and effect during the Interim Period as if this Agreement had not expired.

Section 5.2 - Termination

5.2.1 Termination by You. You may terminate this Agreement upon at least 90 days' notice to us without cause, provided that you comply fully with your obligations under this Agreement during such 90-day period, you pay all amounts owing to us and our affiliates, including the payment of liquidated damages pursuant to Section 5.3.5, and you comply with your post-term obligations under Article III. In the event that you claim that we have materially breached this Agreement, you will provide us with written notice of such claim within twelve months of its occurrence, specifically enumerating all alleged deficiencies and providing us with an opportunity to cure, which will in no event be less than 90 days from the date of our receipt of the notice. Your failure to give such notice will constitute a waiver of your right to terminate on the basis of such breach.

5.2.2 Termination by Us Upon Notice. We may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to you with immediate effect if:

5.2.2.1 you or any of your company's owners have made any material misrepresentation or omission in connection with your application for and purchase of the franchise;

5.2.2.2 your Managing Owner fails to complete the initial training to our satisfaction in accordance with Section 1.5.3;

5.2.2.12 a threat or danger to public health or safety results from the construction or maintenance of the premises or from the operation of the Franchised Business, or you violate any health, safety or sanitation law, ordinance or regulation and do not begin to correct such noncompliance or violation immediately, and completely correct such noncompliance or violation within 72 hours after written notice of such threat, danger, noncompliance or violation is delivered to you;

5.2.2.20 you fail to operate the Franchised Business for three consecutive business days, unless the Franchised Business has been closed for a purpose we have approved or because of casualty;

5.2.2.21 you fail to pay when due any federal or state income, service, sales, withholding or other taxes due in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business, unless you are contesting your liability for such taxes in good faith or you have received an extension from the applicable government agency of the time within which to make such payments;

5.2.2.22 you commit two or more defaults under this Agreement in any period of 12 consecutive months, whether or not each such default has been cured after notice was delivered to you;

5.2.3 Termination After Cure Period. Except as set forth in Section 5.2.2, you will have 30 days after receipt of written notice from us of a material default in which to remedy the default and provide evidence of that remedy to us. If any such default is not cured within that time, this Agreement will terminate without further notice to you effective immediately upon expiration of that time unless we notify you otherwise in writing.

5.2.4 Relationship Laws. Notwithstanding the provisions described in this Section 5.2, if any valid, applicable law or regulation limits our right to terminate this Agreement or requires different or longer notice periods than those set forth in this Agreement, this Section 5.2 is deemed amended to conform to the minimum notice periods or restrictions upon termination required by such law or regulation. We will not however, be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of such laws or regulations in any action, arbitration, hearing or dispute relating to this Agreement or the termination of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 - Consequences of Termination

5.3.1 General Consequences. Upon the expiration of this Agreement or its termination for any reason:

5.3.1.1 all rights and licenses granted to you under this Agreement will immediately terminate;

5.3.1.2 you will remit to us, within 15 days of such expiration or termination, or on such later date that the amounts due to us are determined, such Royalties and Marketing Fees, amounts owed for purchases from us, interest due and all other amounts owed to us that are then unpaid, and you will submit to us any reports and other information you may be required to submit to us with respect to the operation of the Franchised Business up to the date of expiration or termination;

5.3.1.3 you will deliver to us, within 15 days of such expiration or termination, a complete list of all customers in your possession or under your control, current as of the effective date of termination or expiration, including the name, address, telephone number and email address of each customer;

5.3.1.4 you will cease to use the Marks in any way, cease referring to or identifying yourself as a TKK Fried Chicken franchisee and remove all such identifying materials from the Restaurant Premises, unless we instruct you otherwise;

5.3.1.5 you will take such action as may be required to cancel all fictitious or assumed name or equivalent registrations or domain name registrations relating to your use of any Marks;

5.3.1.6 you will promptly return to us or deliver to us or otherwise dispose of as we may instruct, the Manual, and all supplemental materials, amendments, revisions and copies of the Manual (including copies stored electronically), as well as all other Confidential Information and all

copies of such information in your possession or under your control, and all printed materials containing any Mark, and you will remove and destroy all copies from your computers and other electronic storage media, and you will allow us, without liability to you or to third parties, to remove all such items from the Franchised Business; and

5.3.1.7 you will assign to us or our designee all of your right, title and interest in and to your telephone numbers, websites, domain names and meta tags associated with the Mark (the "Listings") and you will notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of your right to use any of the Listings, and that you authorize the transfer of the Listings to us or our designee.

5.3.2 Right to Purchase Assets. Upon the expiration of this Agreement or its termination for any reason, if we elect not to offer or you elect not to accept, a successor franchise, we will have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase some or all of the assets of the Franchised Business, including any furnishings, fixtures, equipment, signs, inventory, supplies and marketing materials and all other items, including the leasehold rights (subject to any rights of approval retained by the owner of the Restaurant Premises) to or ownership of the Restaurant Premises. The purchase price for such assets will be their fair market value as agreed by you and us or, if we are unable to agree, as determined in the manner described in Section 5.3.4. Before exercising our purchase right under this section, we will have the right to enter the Restaurant Premises during reasonable hours to inspect the assets. If we elect to exercise our purchase right under this section, we will give you written notice of our intent to do so within 30 days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement. We will have the right to offset all amounts you owe to us or our affiliates against any payment due to you under this section. We have the unrestricted right to assign this option to purchase the Franchised Business. We will be entitled to all customary warranties and representations in connection with our asset purchase, including, without limitation, representations and warranties as to ownership and condition of and title to assets; liens and encumbrances on assets; validity of contracts and agreements; and liabilities affecting the assets, contingent or otherwise. This provision will also apply in the event of death or disability under Section 4.2.6.

5.3.3 Leasehold Rights. If we exercise our right to assume your lease, you agree at our election: (i) to assign your leasehold interest in the Restaurant Premises to us; or (ii) if you are unable to assign your leasehold interest, to enter into a sublease at a fair market rental for the remainder of the lease term on the same terms (including renewal option) as the prime lease; or (iii) if you own the Restaurant Premises, to lease the premises to us at a reasonable commercial rent and according to terms comparable with rental terms for similar leased property in the marketplace where the Site is located.

5.3.4 Purchase Price and Closing. If we exercise our right to purchase substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business:

5.3.4.1, the purchase price will be the fair market value of the assets of the Franchised Business, determined in a manner consistent with reasonable depreciation of the leasehold improvements, equipment, fixtures, furnishings, signs, materials and supplies. The fair market value of the Franchised Business will include the goodwill you have developed in the market that is independent of the goodwill of the Marks and the franchise system. The length of the remaining term of the lease or sublease of the Restaurant Premises, if any, and the age and condition of the improvements, equipment, fixtures, furnishings, décor and signs will also be considered in determining the fair market value. We may exclude from the assets purchased cash or its equivalent and any leasehold improvements, equipment, fixtures, furnishings, signs, materials and supplies that are not necessary or appropriate to the operation of the Franchised Business or that we have not approved as meeting our standards, and the purchase price will reflect such exclusions.

5.3.4.2 If we and you are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Franchised Business or the Site, or the fair rental value of the Restaurant Premises, such fair market value or fair rental value will be determined by one independent appraiser agreed to by you and us. If we fail to agree on an appraiser within 30 days after our notice to you of our intent to purchase such assets, then each party will name its own reputable appraiser within seven days thereafter, and the average of their determinations will be binding. If one appraiser is chosen, then the parties will share the cost of the appraiser equally. If two appraisers are used, each party will pay its own appraisal fees. You and we will instruct the appraiser or appraisers to complete their appraisal within 30 days after their appointment.

5.3.4.3 The closing of the purchase described in this section will take place not later than 90 days after the determination of the purchase price. We will pay the purchase price at the closing, but we have the right to set off against the purchase price any and all amounts you or your company's owners owe to us. At the closing, you agree to deliver instruments transferring to us (i) good and merchantable title to the assets purchased, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, with all sales and other transfer taxes paid by you; (ii) all licenses and permits of the Franchised Business that are assignable; and (iii) a leasehold interest in (or unencumbered title to) the Restaurant Premises and the improvements to such premises.

5.3.5 Liquidated Damages. The following provisions will apply if this Agreement is terminated before it expires pursuant to Section 5.2.1, 5.2.2 or 5.2.3 and we do not exercise our right to purchase substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business pursuant to Section 5.3.4:

5.3.5.1 You agree that your termination of this Agreement before it expires pursuant to Section 5.2.1, or our termination based on your material breach pursuant to Section 5.2.2 or 5.2.3, will deprive us of the benefit of the bargain we are entitled to receive under this Agreement. As a result, if this Agreement is terminated after the Franchised Business opens, you must pay us, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, a lump-sum equal to the average monthly Royalty you owed us during the 24 months before the termination date multiplied by the lesser of 36 or the number of months in the remainder of the term. If less than 24 months have lapsed between the date the Franchised Business opened and the effective date of termination, the liquidated damages will be the average monthly Royalty during the time between the opening date and the termination date, multiplied by 36 or such lesser number of months that remain in the term. If the termination occurs before the opening date, you will forfeit the initial fee paid and you will not owe us any liquidated damages.

5.3.5.2 You will pay all amounts stated in Section 5.3.5.1 within 30 days after the effective date of termination of this Agreement. You agree, and you direct any party construing this Agreement to conclusively presume, that the damages stated in Section 5.3.5.1: (i) are true liquidated damages; (ii) are intended to compensate us for the harm we will suffer; (iii) are not a penalty; (iv) are a reasonable estimate of our probable loss resulting from your default, viewed as of the termination date; and (v) will be in addition to all other rights we have to obtain legal or equitable relief.

6.3.4 Changes in Coverage Requirements. Each year we may unilaterally modify the insurance minimum coverage requirements by delivery to you of written notice of the change, which may include an

If we obtain such insurance on your behalf, we may require you to pay us the charges described in Section 2.1.7.2.

6.3.8 No Effect on Indemnity. Nothing in this Section 6.3 will relieve you of liability under the indemnity provisions in Section 6.2.

ARTICLE VII - MISCELLANEOUS

Section 7.1 – Relationship of the Parties. You are an independent contractor and not an agent of ours. You will have no power or authority to make any commitment or enter into any contract or agreement obligating or purporting to obligate us, and you will not hold yourself out as having such power or authority. Nothing in this Agreement imposes a fiduciary duty upon us. You agree to conspicuously identify yourself in all dealings with customers, suppliers, public officials, your employees and others as the owner of an independent business under a franchise from us and to place such notices of independent ownership on such forms, business cards, stationery, advertising and other materials as we require from time to time.

Section 7.2 – Reasonable Business Judgment. You acknowledge that the long-term interests of the network of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants, and our company and its owners, taken together, require that we have the latitude to make business decisions with respect to the franchise system. The ultimate responsibility to make decisions with respect to the franchise system and the System Standards is vested in us because we, you and all TKK Fried Chicken franchisees have a collective interest in working within a franchise system that can quickly adjust to changing business conditions, including changes in the competitive environment, new laws and regulations, and emerging business opportunities. We have this right even if, at times, a particular decision adversely affects you. We will not be required to consider your particular economic or other circumstances or to disregard our own economic or other business interest when making decisions under this Agreement.

Section 7.3 – Injunctive Relief. You understand that your covenants set forth in Article III constitute essential elements of this Agreement. If you fail to comply strictly with any such covenants, we will suffer irreparable harm and will have a cause of action for damages or injunctive relief or both against you in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 7.4 – Severability. If any restrictive covenant in this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable because its duration is too long or its scope is too broad, you and we agree that the court making such determination will have the power to reduce the duration or scope in such a manner that the remaining revised covenant will be valid and enforceable. Each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement is prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such prohibition or invalidity will not invalidate the remainder of such provisions long as the resulting provision remains consistent with the parties' original intent. If it is impossible to so modify the provision, such provision will be deleted from this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction for any reason, the parties will continue to be bound by the remainder of this Agreement; provided, that if any provision of the Agreement that we, in our sole discretion, determine to be material, is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, we reserve the right to terminate this Agreement.

Section 7.5 – No Waiver of Rights. No delay or failure to exercise any right or remedy provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to be a waiver of such right or remedy or acquiescence in the event giving rise to such right or remedy. No waiver will be binding unless contained in a writing signed by the party waiving its rights. Any waiver is limited to the specific situation in which it is given and no waiver of any breach or default under this Agreement will be construed as a waiver of any earlier or succeeding breach or default.

Section 7.6 – Notices. All notices, requests, consents and other communications required or permitted by this Agreement (except oral or email notices for the purchase or sale of unauthorized products under Sections 1.1.4, 1.3.2 or 1.6.15) will be in writing and will be delivered by hand, overnight delivery service, or registered or certified first class mail, to the following address, or such other address as either party, by like notice, designates with respect to its own address:

If to us: TKK Franchising LLC
589 8th Ave., 17th Floor
New York, NY 10018

If to you: The address indicated in Schedule A either in the manner described above in this Section 7.6 or by email or other method indicated in Schedule A which shall include electronic confirmation of delivery.

Any such notice, request, consent or other communication will be deemed given and be effective upon receipt at such address.

Section 7.7 – Affiliates. As used in this Agreement, the term “affiliate” of party means a company directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with such party. “Control” of another company, as used in this Agreement, means the ownership of or the power to vote, directly or indirectly through majority-owned companies, more than 50% of the voting stock or voting rights of such other company.

Section 7.8 – Limitation of Actions. Except as otherwise stated in this Section 7.8, any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by either party against the other must be brought or asserted before the expiration of the earlier of: (i) the time period for bringing an action under any applicable statute of limitations; (ii) one year after the date upon which a party discovered, or should have discovered, the facts giving rise to the claim; or (iii) two years after the first act or omission giving rise to the alleged claim. Claims and actions not brought within such time period will be irrevocably barred. Claims by us of your underreporting of sales, claims for your failure to pay monies owed or for indemnification, and claims for your infringement of any Marks will be subject only to the applicable statute of limitations.

Section 7.9 – Waiver of Punitive Damages and Jury Trial. Except for your obligation to indemnify us for third party claims under Section 6.2, we and you each waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to or claim of any punitive or exemplary damages against the other party, and we and you agree that any recovery in a dispute between us will be limited to equitable relief and to the recovery of actual damages sustained. We and you irrevocably waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of us.

Section 7.10 – No Class Actions. Any litigation and any arbitration will be conducted and resolved on an individual basis only and not a class-wide, multiple plaintiff or similar basis. No such proceeding will be consolidated with any other proceeding involving any other person, except for disputes involving affiliates of the parties.

Section 7.11 – Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within the State of New York, without regard to New York’s conflict of laws principles; but nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to extend the application of the New York Franchise Act to the sale of franchises outside of the State of New York.

Section 7.12 – Jurisdiction and Venue. You irrevocably consent to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the city in which our principal office is located at the time suit is filed (or a city within 25 miles of such office). If we assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement, all legal actions between the parties will be venued exclusively in a state or federal court in the judicial district in which the assignee’s or transferee’s principal offices are located at the time the suit is filed. You hereby waive, to the full extent permitted by law, defenses based on jurisdiction, venue and forum non conveniens. You further consent to service of process in any action by registered mail, return receipt requested, or by any other means permitted by law.

Section 7.13 – Costs and Expenses. In any legal action arising out of or pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the relationship between us, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees). Attorneys’ fees include, without limitation, reasonable legal fees charged by attorneys, paralegal fees, and costs and disbursements, whether incurred in preparation for or in contemplation of the filing of a written demand or claim, or in the course of an action, hearing or proceeding to enforce the obligations of the parties to this Agreement.

Section 7.14 – Entire Agreement. This Agreement and all related agreements executed simultaneously with this Agreement constitute the entire understanding of the parties and supersede any and all prior oral or written agreements between you and us on the matters contained in this Agreement; but nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you. Except for changes permitted under this Agreement to be made unilaterally by us, no amendment to this Agreement will be binding unless such amendment is in writing and executed by the parties.

The parties have signed this Agreement on the dates set forth below, with effect as of the effective date as stated in the opening paragraph of this Agreement.

Therefore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, Landlord, Tenant and Franchisor agree as follows:

1. Signage. So long as Tenant complies with the terms of the Lease and applicable law, Landlord consents to Tenant’s use of the proprietary signs, distinctive exterior and interior designs, colors and layouts, and the trademarks prescribed by Franchisor, and upon expiration or the earlier termination of the Lease, consents to permit Tenant, at Tenant’s expense, to remove all such items, so long as Tenant makes repairs to the Leased Premises caused by such removal.
2. Consent to Collateral Assignment & Assumption of Lease by Franchisor. Landlord consents to the collateral assignment of the Lease from Tenant to Franchisor. Landlord acknowledges that the Franchise Agreement grants Franchisor the right, but not the obligation, to assume the Lease in the event of a default by Tenant under the terms of the Lease or under the Franchise Agreement. Upon any such assumption of the Lease by Franchisor, Franchisor will give Landlord notice of the assumption of the Lease and Franchisor will thereafter be bound by all of the terms and conditions in the Lease. Upon receipt of such notice, Landlord agrees to recognize Franchisor as the new tenant under the Lease, without the signing by Tenant of an assignment and assumption agreement. Unless and until Franchisor exercises its rights under the Franchise Agreement and the provisions of this Addendum and agrees in writing to assume the Lease, Franchisor will have no liability or obligation under the Lease.
3. Notice. Landlord will deliver to Franchisor copies of any and all default notices or notice of termination sent to Tenant relating to the Leased Premises at the same time that such letters or notices are sent to Tenant. Franchisor’s address for any such notice is as follows:

TKK Franchising LLC
589 8th Ave., 17th Floor
New York, NY 10018

In the event that the notice is a default notice and Tenant fails to timely cure the default described in the notice, Franchisor shall have a fifteen day period to cure Tenant’s default. Franchisor shall have the option, but not the obligation, to effect a cure before Landlord exercises any remedies; provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right to exercise any rights and remedies available at law, in equity, or under the Lease if Franchisor fails to cure such default within such fifteen day period. Franchisor's election to cure shall not be deemed an election to assume the Lease, unless and until Franchisor expressly does so in writing. If Franchisor elects not to cure the breach or default or fails to cure such default within the time periods prescribed herein, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant in the manner provided in the Lease but will have no remedy against Franchisor.

4. Refranchising. At any time following Franchisor's election to take an assignment of Tenant's rights under the Lease, Franchisor may, upon written notice to Landlord, assign the Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to an affiliate of Franchisor approved by Landlord or to a franchisee approved by Franchisor and Landlord, without charge or penalty, so long as Landlord approves of such affiliate or franchisee in writing in advance. Landlord's consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Upon an assignment, Franchisor shall be released from any further obligations under the Lease. Landlord agrees to execute written documentation confirming any such assignment and release in a form reasonably acceptable to Landlord.
5. Additional Covenants. Tenant and Landlord agree that they will not amend, modify, or alter any other Lease term without Franchisor's prior written consent. Tenant may not assign its interest in the Lease, nor sublet all or any portion of the Leased Premises, without Franchisor's prior written consent.
6. De-Identification. Upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisor will have the right to cause a de-identification of the Leased Premises by entering to make any modifications and to remove signs and fixtures to protect the franchise system, as determined by Franchisor in its sole discretion, without being guilty of trespass or liable for any tort; provided, however, in no event shall Franchisor have the right to make any alterations to the Leased Premises which affect the structure or the building systems serving the Leased Premises, and provided further, that prior to the commencement of any such work, Franchisor shall deliver to Landlord plans for such work, which plans shall be subject to the prior, written approval of Landlord. Franchisor agrees to repair any damage to the Leased Premises or the property of which it is a part caused by such entry, modifications and removals.
7. Effect. This Addendum supplements the Lease and shall apply during the entire term of the Lease, including any renewal terms. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Lease and the terms set forth in this Addendum, the terms set forth in this Addendum will govern and control as between Landlord and Franchisor, but the Lease shall control as between Landlord and Tenant. This Addendum will be binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of, the parties and their successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives.
8. Counterparts & Execution. This Addendum may be executed in counterparts, and each copy so executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original. Each of the persons executing this Addendum on behalf of each party represents and warrants that such party has the full right, power and authority to execute and deliver this Addendum and that each person signing on such party's behalf is authorized to do so.

[Signatures on next page]

ARMS GLOBAL INC.

TKK SUPPLY AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT dated as of _____, between ARMS GLOBAL INC., a New York corporation (“Arms Global”), and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

Franchisee is entering into or has entered into one or more franchise agreements (each referred to as the “Franchise Agreement”) with Arms Global’s affiliate, TKK Franchising LLC, a New York limited liability company. Under each Franchise Agreement, TKK Franchising LLC grants to Franchisee the right and license to open and operate a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant at a specified location (the “Franchised Restaurant”). TKK Fried Chicken restaurants are quick-service restaurants specializing in crispy fried chicken and sweet potato fries. The Franchise Agreement provides that Arms Global will supply to Franchisee certain equipment (“Equipment”), furniture, fixtures, supplies, signs and other products and services that Franchisee will use in the franchised business (collectively “Products”).

Therefore, the parties agree as follows:

1. SUPPLY OF PRODUCTS AND EQUIPMENT

1.1 Sole Supplier. Franchisee will purchase the Equipment and the Products solely from Arms Global or such other source as TKK Franchising LLC may specify or approve in writing.

1.2 Orders. Franchisee will place orders for Equipment and Products by fax, telephone or e-mail, or such other method as Arms Global permits. Franchisee will place no individual Product order for less than such minimum amount that Arms Global specifies from time to time in writing. Orders will be for no more than a reasonable quantity of Products for resale at the Franchised Restaurant or Restaurants, as determined by Arms Global. Each order will constitute a separate contract of sale.

1.3 Prices. The prices to Franchisee for all Equipment and Products will be those listed in Arms Global’s price list as issued by Arms Global from time to time. Arms Global may change its prices at any time upon prior notice to Franchisee. The prices applicable to any specific order will be those in effect at the time the order is placed. Prices do not include the cost of delivery and insurance to Franchisee from an Arms Global warehouse in the U.S. or, if applicable, from a U.S. port of entry. Prices for delivery and insurance from an Arms Global warehouse in the U.S. or from a U.S. port of entry will be stated separately upon Arms Global’s confirmation of each order. Arms Global will endeavor to source the Equipment and Products in a manner that is the most economical to Franchisee and allows for the fastest delivery. When appropriate, an Arms Global representative will offer Franchisee choices in this regard.

1.4 Payment. Franchisee will pay Arms Global for each order in full in advance in such manner as Arms Global specifies. Arms Global has the right at any time, upon reasonable notice to Franchisee, to require that Franchisee pay all sums owed to Arms Global or to any of its affiliates electronically through one or more depository transfer accounts or using such methods as Arms Global may designate in writing. At the request of Arms Global, Franchisee agrees to execute such documents as Arms Global determines are necessary for Arms Global to process electronic funds transfers from Franchisee’s designated bank account for payment of the fees Franchisee owes to Arms Global. Franchisee will bear all costs to establish and maintain the required electronic payment system, and all bank processing fees and service charges. Franchisee will comply with Arms Global’s procedures for electronic payment, which Arms Global may modify from time to time, including the maintenance of such minimum bank account balance as Arms Global specify from time to time.

1.5 Delivery. Arms Global will make all arrangements for shipping Equipment and Products to Franchisee either from the Arms Global facility in the U.S. or from a port of entry in the U.S., as determined by Arms Global. Unless Franchisee requests a specific carrier, shipments will be made by a carrier selected by Arms Global. Shipments sourced from abroad may take six to eight weeks to deliver to Franchisee from the date ordered. Arms Global will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure the timely delivery of the quantities of Equipment and Products ordered by Franchisee from time to time; provided, however, that Arms Global will not be liable for any delay or default in any shipment. In addition to the cost of the Equipment and Products referred to in Section 1.3, Franchisee will bear the cost of freight, insurance, taxes and any other costs that may be incurred from an Arms Global warehouse in the U.S. or from the port of entry to Franchisee.

1.6 Interest on Late Payments. If any payment Franchisee makes to Arms Global is rejected by Franchisee's bank because of insufficient funds, Franchisee will pay Arms Global $50 for each occurrence. In addition, Franchisee will pay interest at the rate of one and one-half (1½ %) percent per month or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less, on all unpaid balances.

2. Use of Equipment and Products

2.1 Resale at the Franchised Restaurant. Franchisee agrees that all Equipment and Products purchased by Franchisee from Arms Global will be used by Franchisee only in its franchised TKK Fried Chicken business at the Franchised Restaurant or Restaurants designated in the purchase order.

2.2 Non-Diversion. Franchisee will not sell any of the Equipment or Products to any other person or entity except in accordance with TKK Franchising LLC's policies as notified to Franchisee from time to time.

2.3 Personnel. Franchisee will inform Franchisee's employees of the restrictions contained in Sections 2.1 and 2.2, and will inform its new employees of such restrictions from time to time as long as this Agreement continues in effect.

3. Warranties

3.1 Limited Warranty. Arms Global extends the manufacturer's warranty on all Equipment it sells to Franchisee. In the absence of a manufacturer's warranty, Arms Global warrants to Franchisee that all Equipment and Products sold pursuant to this Agreement will be free from defects in manufacture.

3.2 Defective Products. If Franchisee receives any Equipment or Product that is defective or damaged, or if the shipment is incomplete, Franchisee will notify Arms Global within 48 hours after Franchisee's receipt of the Equipment or Products. Upon verification, Arms Global will send replacement Equipment or Products to Franchisee at no charge. Arms Global will not accept the return of any Equipment or Products without Arms Global's prior written approval. The remedies set forth in this Section 3.2 constitute the sole and exclusive remedies available to Franchisee for breach of warranty or for shortage or damaged Equipment or Products.

3.3 No Consequential Damages. EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS WARRANTY SET FORTH ABOVE, ARMS GLOBAL MAKES NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE. IN NO EVENT WILL ARMS GLOBAL BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR OTHER DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF WARRANTY. IN NO EVENT WILL THE LIABILITY OF ARMS GLOBAL FOR ANY DAMAGES EXCEED THE PRICE PAID BY FRANCHISEE, REGARDLESS OF THE CLAIM.

4. Term and Termination

4.1 Term and Termination. This Agreement will become effective as of the date first above written and will continue in effect with respect to each Franchised Restaurant for so long as the Franchise Agreement for such Franchised Restaurant remains in effect unless this Agreement is sooner terminated by mutual consent or pursuant to Section 4.2. This Agreement will terminate automatically with respect to each Franchised Restaurant upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement for such Franchised Restaurant.

4.2 Termination by Either Party. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party with immediate effect in the event that the other party (i) breaches a material provision of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty days after notice from the nonbreaching party, which notice will specifically refer to this provision, or (ii) becomes insolvent or is unable to pay its debts as they become due, is adjudicated a bankrupt, or a petition in bankruptcy or reorganization is filed by or against it and any such petition is not discharged within sixty days after it is filed, or a permanent or temporary receiver or trustee for all or substantially all of such party's property is appointed by any court, or if such party makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors or an arrangement pursuant to any bankruptcy law.

4.3 Consequences of Termination. Upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason, Franchisee will tender to Arms Global all unsold and unused inventory of Products and all Equipment purchased by Franchisee from Arms Global. Arms Global will reimburse Franchisee for all Products (other than furniture, fixtures and signs) that are in good and usable condition at the purchase price minus a 20% restocking fee. Arms Global will have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase some or all of the Equipment, furniture, fixtures and signs. The purchase price will be its fair market value as agreed by the parties or, if they are unable to agree, as determined by one independent appraiser agreed to by the parties. The parties will share the cost of the appraiser equally. Before exercising its purchase right under this section, Arms Global will have the right to enter the premises of the Franchised Business during reasonable hours to inspect the Equipment and Products. If Arms Global elects to exercise its purchase right under this section, Arms Global will give Franchisee written notice of its intent to do so within 30 days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement. Arms Global will have the right to offset all amounts Franchisee owes to Arms Global or its affiliates (including Franchisor) against any payment due to Franchisee under this section.

5. Miscellaneous

5.1 Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Franchisee. Franchisee may not assign or transfer this Agreement except in conjunction with a Transfer in accordance with the terms of the Franchise Agreement. Arms Global may assign this Agreement to any party upon written notice to Franchisee.

5.2 Franchise Agreement. As a condition to Arms Global's obligations under this Agreement, Franchisee will enter into at least one Franchise Agreement. Arms Global will not be obligated to supply any Products pursuant to this Agreement until the Franchise Agreement has been signed by both parties to such agreement.

5.3 Compliance. Franchisee will comply with each Franchise Agreement and with all applicable local, state and federal laws.

5.4 Independent Contractor. This Agreement does not appoint either party as the agent or legal representative of the other party for any purpose whatsoever. Neither party is granted any right or authority to assume or to create any obligation or responsibility, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of the other party, unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing.

5.5 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision is prohibited by or is declared invalid under applicable law, such prohibition or invalidity will not invalidate the remainder of such provision or the other provisions of this Agreement.

5.6 No Waiver of Rights. No delay or failure to exercise any right or remedy provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to be a waiver of such right or remedy or acquiescence in the event giving rise to such right or remedy. No waiver will be binding unless contained in a writing signed by the party waiving its rights. Any waiver is limited to the specific situation in which it is given and no waiver of any breach or default under this Agreement will be construed as a waiver of any earlier or succeeding breach or default.

TKK FRANCHISING LLC
MULTI-UNIT AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT effective as of _____, between TKK FRANCHISING LLC, a New York limited liability company (referred to in this Agreement as “we” or “us”), and _____, a _____ [indicate type of entity and state of formation] (referred to in this Agreement as “you” or “your company” or “Developer”).

We and our affiliated companies have developed a system (the “System”) for the operation of quick-service restaurants specializing in crispy fried chicken and sweet potato fries (the “TKK Fried Chicken restaurants”).

TKK Fried Chicken restaurants operate under the trademark TKK FRIED CHICKEN and other trademarks described in our franchise disclosure document, and we may create, use and license additional trademarks or substitute different trademarks in the future in conjunction with the operation of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants (collectively, the “Marks”).

You have applied for a franchise to open, own and operate an agreed number of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in an agreed geographic area under an agreed timetable, and we desire to grant to you the right to do so on the terms and conditions set forth below.

Accordingly, you and we agree as follows:

ARTICLE I – GRANT OF RIGHTS TO YOU

Section 1.1 – Grant of Rights. We grant to you the right, and you undertake the obligation, under the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, to open and operate TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in the geographic area described in Schedule A (the “Territory”) in accordance with the development schedule contained in Schedule B (the “Development Schedule”). The rights granted by this Agreement are limited to the Territory. This Agreement does not confer any rights outside of the Territory.

Section 1.2 – Development Schedule. You or your Affiliate will open the first TKK Fried Chicken restaurant under the Development Schedule no later than nine months after the date of this Agreement. You agree to open or arrange for the opening of subsequent TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in accordance with the Development Schedule. In this connection, you acknowledge that time is of the essence.

Section 1.3 – Franchise Agreements. Before you begin to develop a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant at any specific location, you or your Affiliate (as defined below) will enter into our then-current standard form of franchise agreement setting forth the terms and conditions under which you or your Affiliate will open and operate the TKK Fried Chicken restaurant. This standard form may vary from the form we currently use, except that the initial fee for franchise agreements to be signed by you or your Affiliate will be the amount set forth Schedule B of this Agreement.

Section 1.4 – Affiliates. At your request, we will permit the franchise agreement for any TKK Fried Chicken restaurant in the Territory to be executed by an entity formed by you to develop and operate the TKK Fried Chicken restaurant (“Affiliate”), provided all of the following conditions are met: (a) you or your owners have management control of the Affiliate; (b) you or your owners own (i) more than 50% of the voting securities of an Affiliate that is a corporation, (ii) more than a 50% membership interest in an Affiliate that is a limited liability company, or (iii) all of the general partnership interests of an Affiliate that is a partnership; (c) the Affiliate conducts no business other than the operation of the TKK Fried Chicken restaurant; (d) you and your owners agree to assume full and unconditional liability for, and agree to perform all obligations contained in the franchise agreement; and (e) all owners of your Affiliate possess a good moral character, as determined by us, and you provide us all reasonably requested information to permit us to make such a determination.

Section 1.5 – Exclusivity. Because we reserve certain rights in the Territory as described in, Section 1.8, your rights in the Territory are not exclusive. However, except as provided in Section 1.8 and unless we have modified your rights in accordance with Section 5.3.2, during the term of this Agreement, neither we nor any of our affiliates will (a) open or operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant in the Territory, or (b) grant to any other person or entity the right to open or operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant located in the Territory or the right to grant franchises to open and operate TTK Fried Chicken restaurants located in the Territory.

Section 1.6 – No Trademark License. This grant of multi-unit rights is not a trademark license. This Agreement by itself does not permit you to own or operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant. The right to own and operate a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant is only granted pursuant to a signed franchise agreement. This Agreement also does not give you the right to offer, sell or negotiate the sale of TTK Fried Chicken restaurant franchises to any third party.

Section 1.7 – Business Entity. If you are a business entity, or if this Agreement is assigned to a business entity, such entity will conduct no business other than the business contemplated by this Agreement and under any executed franchise agreement. All owners of such business entity will represent and warrant their percentage ownership interest in the entity. The articles of incorporation, articles of organization, partnership agreement and other organizational documents of such business entity shall recite that the issuance and transfer of any interest in such entity is subject to the restrictions set forth in this Agreement. All issued and outstanding stock, share or membership certificates, if any, of such entity shall bear a legend referring to the restrictions in this Agreement. You will not conduct any public offering of such entity's securities unless we consent in writing to such offering.

Section 1.8 – Rights We Reserve. We retain all rights not specifically granted to you under this Agreement. These rights include the right:

1.8.1 to establish TTK Fried Chicken restaurants, whether franchised or company owned, anywhere outside the Territory;

1.8.2 to establish TTK Fried Chicken restaurants in non-traditional venues such as airports, hotels and resorts, military installations, school and university campuses, casinos, theme parks and sports stadiums and enclosed shopping malls, within or outside the Territory (but not in a non-traditional venue in which a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant of yours is located);;

1.8.3 to sell any products under the Marks or other trademarks to grocery stores, supermarkets or other channels of distribution at any time, and directly to customers through our website; and

1.8.4 to acquire and operate any business under a different trademark at any location and to continue to operate that business under trademarks other than the Marks.

Section 1.9 – Personal Undertaking. Our grant of rights under this Agreement is made in reliance on the personal attributes of your company's owners and managers named in Schedule C. If your company is a legal entity such as a corporation or limited liability company rather than a sole proprietorship or general partnership, then our grant of rights under this Agreement is made on the condition that each person who now or later owns or acquires, either legally or beneficially, any equity or voting interest in your company (the "Guarantor" or "Guarantors") must execute and deliver to us a personal undertaking in the form attached as Schedule D (the "Guaranty"). We may require the spouse of any or all Guarantors to sign the Guaranty in our discretion. Transfers of interest are restricted in accordance with Article IV. Upon our request at any time, you will furnish us with a list of all holders of legal and beneficial interests in your company, together with descriptions of the type of interests owned and the percentage ownership, and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of the owners, certified as correct in the manner we specify. If any of your company's general partners, managers, officers or directors ceases to serve as such or if any new person becomes a general partner, manager, officer or director after the date of this Agreement, you will notify us of such change within 10 days. Any breach of a Guaranty will be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II – FEES

Section 2.1 – Development Fee. You will pay us a development fee (the “Development Fee”). The amount of the Development Fee is equal to the initial fee for three franchises. For Non-Traditional Units, it is $75,000 ($25,000 multiplied by 3). For Standard Units, it is $87,000 ($37,000 for the first unit and $25,000 for each of the next two units). The Development Fee is an advance payment of the Initial Fee payable upon execution of each of the first three franchise agreements you execute pursuant to this Agreement. This fee is payable in full by certified check or wire transfer upon your execution of this Agreement. The Development Fee is fully earned when received by us and is not refundable under any circumstances. It compensates us for our expenses and administrative costs, and for our lost or deferred opportunity to grant rights to others for the Territory.

Section 2.2 – Initial Fees for Franchise Agreements. The initial fee for each franchise agreement that you enter into for a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant franchise in the Territory under this Agreement after the first three units will be the then-current initial fee payable by any multi-unit franchise owner.

ARTICLE III – CONFIDENTIALITY; NONCOMPETITION

Section 3.1 – Confidentiality of Our Information

3.1.1 Confidential Information. We possess and will continue to develop and acquire certain confidential information relating to the development and operation of TKK Fried Chicken restaurants (“Confidential Information”). Confidential Information means information that is not generally available to the public and that has commercial value to us or to the Franchised Business, or that is personally identifiable information of customers. Confidential Information includes, without limitation:

Section 3.2 – Noncompetition

3.2.1 Definition of Competitive Business. As used in this Agreement, the term “Competitive Business” means any business that operates, or grants franchises or licenses to others to operate, a quick-service restaurant business in which fried chicken is a key menu item (other than a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant operated under a franchise agreement with us or our affiliate). The restrictions of this section will not apply to the ownership, solely as an investment, of publicly traded securities that constitute less than 1% of a class of ownership interests of the issuing company.

3.2.2 Agreement Not to Compete. You agree that during the term of this Agreement (and thereafter pursuant to Section 3.2.3), you will not, directly or indirectly (through one of your company’s affiliates or owners or a member of the immediate family of any owner), either (i) have a direct or indirect interest in a Competitive Business located or operating anywhere in the U.S. or in any other country in which a TTK Fried Chicken restaurant operates; (ii) perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for a Competitive Business, wherever located or operating; or (iii) divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Franchised Business to any competitor in any manner.

3.2.3 Noncompetition After Termination. Upon the expiration and nonrenewal of this Agreement, your termination of this Agreement without cause, our termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms and conditions, or your transfer in accordance with Article IV, you and your company’s owners agree for a period of two years following such expiration, termination or transfer, that you will not, directly or indirectly (through one of your company’s affiliates or owners or a member of the immediate family of any owner), either (i) have a direct or indirect ownership interest in a Competitive Business located or operating within 5 miles of any TTK Fried Chicken restaurant anywhere in the world at the time of such expiration, termination or transfer; (ii) perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for any such Competitive Business; or (iii) divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Franchised Business to any competitor in any manner.

3.2.4 Reasonableness of Restrictions. You acknowledge that the time and geographical limitations in Sections 3.2.2 and 3.2.3 are reasonable and do not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect our goodwill or other business interests. If any of the limitation in such sections is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or governmental agency, then such limitation will be deemed to be reduced as necessary to enable the court or agency to enforce such limitation to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law.

ARTICLE IV – TRANSFER

Section 4.1 – Transfer by Us. We may sell, assign or transfer our rights and obligations under this Agreement to any party, without the approval of or prior notice to you, provided that the buyer, assignee or transferee agrees in writing to assume all of our obligations under this Agreement. We will not be liable for obligations of the transferee arising after the date of transfer.

Section 4.2 – Transfer by You

4.2.1 No Transfer Without Our Approval. This Agreement is personal to you. We have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon our perception of your (or your company’s owner’s) individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, business ability and financial capacity. Accordingly, you may only transfer your rights and obligations under this Agreement if: (i) at least 50% of the total number of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants to be opened under this Agreement are open and operating at the time of the proposed transfer;

(ii) you obtain our prior written consent; and (iii) in the case of an asset transfer, (A) you transfer all of your rights and interests under all franchise agreements for TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in the Territory in accordance with the terms of those agreements, and (B) the transferee, at our election, must sign the then-current franchise agreement for all transferred TKK Fried Chicken restaurants. Our consent to a Transfer does not constitute a representation as to the fairness of the terms of any contract between you or your company's owners and the transferee, a guaranty of the success by the transferee or a waiver of any claims we may have against you or your company's owners or of our right to demand the transferee's compliance with any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement.

4.2.2 Definition of Transfer. As used in this Agreement, the term "Transfer" means your (or your company's owners') voluntary, involuntary, direct or indirect assignment, sale, gift, pledge or other disposition of any legal or beneficial interest in: (i) this Agreement; (ii) your company, whether in the form of equity or a voting interest; or (iii) franchise agreements for TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in the Territory. "Transfer" also includes: (i) the merger or consolidation of your company; (ii) the issuance of additional securities or other ownership interests of your company; and (iii) the admission or departure of a partner or owner. It includes transfers resulting from proceedings under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or any similar law, and transfers resulting from divorce.

4.2.3 Notice of Transfer. You agree to notify us of any planned Transfer, and to provide us with any information we may reasonably request in order to permit us to evaluate the planned Transfer. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal under Section 4.3, we agree not to unreasonably withhold our approval of a Transfer. If we approve the Transfer, then you will be free, for 90 days following such approval, to effect the Transfer to the person or persons approved by us.

4.2.4 Conditions to Transfer. The following conditions will apply with respect to any Transfer other than a Transfer described in Section 4.2.5:

4.2.4.1 The proposed transferee, its managers, directors, officers and owners, must be individuals of good character with sufficient business experience, aptitude, and financial resources to operate the Franchised Business and otherwise meet our then applicable standards for a new TKK Fried Chicken restaurant developer.

4.2.4.2 The proposed transferee may not be or be owned directly or indirectly by a Competitive Business, nor may any of the proposed transferee's managers, directors, officers or owners perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for a Competitive Business.

4.2.4.3 You will cure any default under this Agreement and each franchise agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement that we will have notified to you.

4.2.4.4 You will pay all fees and any other amounts then owed to us and our affiliates under this Agreement and each franchise agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement.

4.2.4.5 You or the transferee will pay us a nonrefundable transfer fee of $10,000.

4.2.4.6 The transferee or its designated personnel will have completed such training as we may require, to our satisfaction.

4.2.4.7 Each transferor will sign an agreement, in a form acceptable to us, acknowledging a continuing obligation after such transfer to comply with the requirements of Section 3.2.3.

4.2.4.8 We will have approved the material terms and conditions of such transfer, and we may require you to sign a general release of any claims against us and our affiliates.

4.2.4.9 After our authorization of the Transfer and your compliance with all of the requirements listed above, you will give us not less than five business days' written notice of the date, time and place of the closing of such Transfer, and you will give us an opportunity to have a representative present.

4.2.4.10 If the transaction is brokered by a third-party or by one of our authorized sales representatives, you or the proposed transferee will be responsible for paying broker fees at the same commission rate that we pay such broker or sales representatives.

4.2.4.11 If the transaction is a securities offering as described in Section 4.2.7, you must pay us the greater of: (i) 50% of our then-current initial franchise fee; or (ii) our reasonable costs and expenses associated with reviewing the proposed offering.

4.2.5 Transfer to a Company you Control. Upon prior notice to us and the signing by the relevant parties of assignment documents acceptable to us, you may transfer this Agreement to an entity: (i) that conducts no business other than the business described in this Agreement; (ii) in which you maintain management control; and (iii) of which you own and control 100% of the equity and voting power. The requirements of Sections 4.2.4.5 through 4.2.4.8 will not apply to any such transfer. You or your company's owners will remain personally liable under this Agreement after such Transfer by signing a Guaranty as described in Section 1.9.

4.2.6 Transfer Upon Death or Disability. You or your executor or other personal representative must promptly notify us in the event of your death or disability or, if your company is an entity, the death or disability of the owner of a 10% or greater interest in your company. Any transfer upon death or disability will be subject to the same terms and conditions as those that apply to other transfers, as described in Sections 4.2.1 through 4.2.4; but you or your executor or other personal representative will have a period of 12 months in which to effect a transfer acceptable to us in the event of death, and six months in the event of disability. As used in this Agreement, the term "disability" means a mental, emotional or physical injury, illness, incapacity, disability or impairment that is reasonably expected to prevent or actually does prevent a person from performing the obligations set forth in this Agreement for at least six consecutive months. A person's disability for purposes of this section will be determined by a licensed practicing physician selected by us upon examination of such person or, if such person refuses to be examined, then such person will automatically be deemed disabled for purposes of this section as of the date of refusal. We will pay the cost of the examination.

4.2.7 Securities Offerings. You agree to submit to us, for our review, all materials for an offering or exempt private placement of stock or partnership or other interests in your company or any of your affiliates that are required by federal or state law before such materials are filed with any government agency and before they are used. We may require such materials to contain a written statement, prescribed by us, indicating that we are not participating in such offering in any way. You and all other participants in the offering must fully indemnify us and our subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns, and our and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, partners, agents and representatives in connection with the offering. For each proposed offering, you will reimburse us for our reasonable costs and expenses (including legal and accounting fees) for reviewing the proposed offering. You will give us written notice at least 30 days before the date that any offering or other transaction described in this Section 4.2.7 commences. Any such offering will be subject to all of the other provisions of this Section 4.2.

Section 4.3 – Our Right of First Refusal.

4.3.1 Notice of Third Party Offer. If you or any of your company's owners at any time desire to sell, assign or transfer for consideration this Agreement or the ownership of your company to anyone other than as described in Section 4.3.4, you will obtain and immediately submit to us a true and complete copy of a bona fide written offer from the third party that desires to acquire your company or its assets (the “Third Party Offer”). The Third Party Offer must include lists of the record and beneficial owners of any entity offeror and all partners of any partnership offeror and, in the case of a publicly-held entity, copies of the most current annual and quarterly reports and Form 10K. The Third Party Offer must contain details of the payment terms of the proposed sale and the source and terms of any financing of the proposed purchase price, and may not include or be contingent upon the purchase of assets of yours or your company’s owner other than those related to the business described in this Agreement.

4.3.2 Exercise of Our Right of First Refusal. We will have the right, exercisable by notice delivered to you or your company’s selling owner or owners within 30 days after the date of our receipt of a copy of the Third Party Offer and all other information we request, to purchase such interest for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in the Third Party Offer, provided that (i) we may substitute cash for any form of payment proposed in such offer; and (ii) we will have at least 60 days after giving notice of our election to prepare for closing. If we exercise our right of first refusal, the seller and we will execute a written agreement, in a form satisfactory to us, acknowledging the seller’s continuing obligations. We may require the seller to sign a general release of any claims against us and our affiliates.

4.3.3 Consequence of Nonexercise of Our Right of First Refusal. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal, you or your owners may complete the sale to such purchaser pursuant to and on the exact terms of such offer, subject to our approval of the transfer as provided in Section 4.2; but if the sale to such purchaser is not completed within 120 days after delivery of the Third Party Offer to us, or if there is a material change in the terms of the sale (which you agree promptly to communicate to us), we will have an additional right of first refusal during the thirty day period following either the expiration of such 120-day period or the notice to us of the material changes in the terms of the sale, either on the terms originally offered or the modified terms, at our option.

4.3.4 Exceptions. Our right of first refusal will not apply to transfers from one current owner of your company to another current owner. In addition, our right of first refusal will not apply to any partial sale of your company or its assets. We will not have the right to become a partial owner of your company.

ARTICLE V – TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 5.1 – Term. This Agreement will be effective as of the date first above written and, unless sooner terminated as provided in this Agreement, will continue in effect for a term of ten years. This Agreement has no renewal term.

Section 5.2 – Termination.

5.2.1 Termination by Us Upon Notice. We may terminate this Agreement and your right to develop TKK Fried Chicken restaurants in the Territory, effective upon notice to you with immediate effect, if:

5.2.1.1 you or any of your company’s owners have made any material misrepresentation or omission in connection with your application to enter into this Agreement;

5.2.1.2 you fail to meet your obligations under the Development Schedule;

5.2.1.3 you or any of your company’s owners or Affiliates or their owners materially breaches any obligation under Articles III or IV;

5.2.1.4 you or your Affiliate remains in default beyond the applicable cure period under any franchise agreement for a TKK Fried Chicken restaurant or any such agreement is terminated for any reason;

5.2.1.5 you or your Affiliate or the owners of your company or your Affiliate are or have been convicted by a trial court of, or plead guilty or have pleaded no contest to, a felony or any other crime or offense, or engage in any dishonest or unethical conduct, that may adversely affect the reputation of the business, the TTK Fried Chicken restaurants or the goodwill associated with our trademarks; or

5.2.1.6 you or any of your Affiliates make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or admit in writing your insolvency or inability to pay your debts generally as they become due; you consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee or liquidator of all or a substantial part of your property; or any order appointing a receiver, trustee or liquidator of your company is not vacated within 30 days following the entry of such order.

5.2.2 Termination After Cure Period. Except as set forth in Section 5.2.1, you will have 30 days after receipt of written notice of default from us in which to remedy the default and provide evidence of that remedy to us. If any such default is not cured within that time, this Agreement will terminate without further notice to you effective immediately upon expiration of that time unless we notify you otherwise in writing.

5.2.3 Relationship Laws. Notwithstanding the provisions described in this Section 5.2, if any valid, applicable law or regulation limits our right to terminate this Agreement or requires different or longer notice periods than those set forth herein, Section 5.2 is deemed amended to conform to the minimum notice periods or restrictions upon termination required by such rules and regulations. We will not however, be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of such laws or regulations in any action, arbitration, hearing or dispute relating to this Agreement or the termination of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 – Consequences of and Alternatives to Termination.

5.3.1 Consequences of Termination. Upon the expiration of this Agreement or its termination for any reason, all rights granted to you under this Agreement will immediately terminate; and you will have no further right to develop or open TTK Fried Chicken restaurants in the Territory. A default under this Agreement is not a default under any individual TTK Fried Chicken restaurant franchise agreement.

5.3.2. Other Remedies. If we are entitled to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.2, we will have the unrestricted right, in our discretion, to undertake any one or more of the following actions upon notice to you with immediate effect instead of terminating this Agreement:

5.3.2.1 we may reduce the size of the Territory in a manner determined solely by us; and

5.3.2.2 we may modify the Development Schedule by reducing the number of TTK Fried Chicken restaurants to be opened or changing the time periods for opening, or both, as determined solely by us.

Any such action will be without prejudice to our right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.2.

ARTICLE VI - REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.1 – Representations and Warranties. You represent and warrant as follows:

6.1.1 Accuracy. All statements you have made and all materials you have submitted to us in connection with your application to become a franchisee are accurate and you have made no misrepresentations or material omissions.

6.1.2 No Conflicts. You are under no obligation or restriction, nor will you assume any obligation or restriction, that would in any way interfere or be inconsistent with, or present a conflict of interest concerning, the services that are the subject of this Agreement or the rights and obligations of the parties.

6.1.3 Good Standing. Your company is duly incorporated, organized or formed and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation.

6.1.4 Authority. Your company has the power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

We will have the right to participate in the defense, with counsel of our own choice and at our own expense, of any action that may give rise to your obligation to indemnify, and to reject any settlement that might adversely affect us.

6.2.2 Notice of Claim; Survival. We will give you notice of any claim that may require indemnification promptly after we learn of such claim. The rights and obligations of the parties under this Section 6.2 will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and remain in effect for a period of three years thereafter.

ARTICLE VII - MISCELLANEOUS

Section 7.1 – Injunctive Relief. You understand that your covenants set forth in Article III constitute essential elements of this Agreement. If you fail to comply strictly with any such covenants, we will suffer irreparable harm and will have a cause of action for damages or injunctive relief or both against you in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 7.2 – Severability. If any restrictive covenant in this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable because its duration is too long or its scope is too broad, you and we agree that the court making such determination will have the power to reduce the duration or scope in such a manner that the remaining revised covenant will be valid and enforceable. Each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement is prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such prohibition or invalidity will not invalidate the remainder of such provision as long as the resulting provision remains consistent with the parties' original intent. If it is impossible to so modify the provision, such provision will be deleted from this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction for any reason, the parties will continue to be bound by the remainder of this Agreement; provided, that if any provision of the Agreement that we, in our sole discretion, determine to be material, is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, we reserve the right to terminate this Agreement.

Section 7.3 – No Waiver of Rights. No delay or failure to exercise any right or remedy provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to be a waiver of such right or remedy or acquiescence in the event giving rise to such right or remedy. No waiver will be binding unless contained in a writing signed by the party waiving its rights. Any waiver is limited to the specific situation in which it is given and no waiver of any breach or default under this Agreement will be construed as a waiver of any earlier or succeeding breach or default.

Section 7.4 – Notices. All notices, requests, consents and other communications required or permitted by this Agreement will be in writing and will be delivered by hand or overnight delivery service to the following address, or such other address as either party, by like notice, designates with respect to its own address:

If to us: TKK Franchising LLC

New York, NY 10018

If to you: The address indicated in Schedule C either in the manner described above in this Section 7.4 or by email or other method indicated in Schedule A which shall include electronic confirmation of delivery.

Any such notice, request, consent or other communication will be deemed given and be effective upon receipt at such address.

Section 7.5 – Limitation of Actions. Any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by either party against the other must be brought or asserted before the expiration of the earlier of: (i) the time period for bringing an action under any applicable statute of limitations; (ii) one year after the date upon which a party discovered, or should have discovered, the facts giving rise to the claim; or (iii) two years after the first act or omission giving rise to the alleged claim. Claims and actions not brought within such time period will be irrevocably barred.

Section 7.6 – Waiver of Punitive Damages and Jury Trial. Except for your obligation to indemnify us for third party claims under Section 6.2, we and you each waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to or claim of any punitive or exemplary damages against the other party, and agree that any recovery in a dispute between us will be limited to equitable relief and to the recovery of actual damages sustained. We and you irrevocably waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of us.

Section 7.7 – Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within the State of New York, without regard to New York’s conflict of laws principles; but nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to extend the application of the New York Franchise Act to the sale of franchises outside of the State of New York.

Section 7.8 – Jurisdiction and Venue. You irrevocably consent to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the city in which our principal office is located at the time suit is filed (or a city within 25 miles of such office). If we assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement, all legal actions between the parties will be venued exclusively in a state or federal court in the judicial district in which the assignee’s or transferee’s principal offices are located at the time the suit is filed. You hereby waive, to the full extent permitted by law, defenses based on jurisdiction, venue and forum non conveniens. You further consent to service of process in any action by any means permitted by law.

Section 7.9 – Costs and Expenses. In any legal action arising out of or pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the relationship between us, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees). Attorneys’ fees include, without limitation, reasonable legal fees charged by attorneys, paralegal fees, and costs and disbursements, whether incurred in preparation for or in contemplation of the filing of a written demand or claim, or in the course of an action, hearing or proceeding to enforce the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

Section 7.10 – Entire Agreement. This Agreement and all ancillary agreements executed simultaneously with this Agreement, constitute the entire understanding of the parties and supersede any and all prior oral or written agreements between you and us on the matters contained in this Agreement; but nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you. Except for changes permitted under this Agreement to be made unilaterally by us, no amendment to this Agreement will be binding unless such amendment is in writing and executed by the parties.

The parties have signed this Agreement on the dates set forth below, with effect as of the effective date as stated in the opening paragraph of this Agreement.

CONSENT TO TRANSFER AGREEMENT

[Sale of Assets – Before or at Closing]

AGREEMENT dated as of _____, by and among _____, a _____ [limited liability company] [corporation], (“Buyer”); _____, a _____ [limited liability company] [corporation] (“Seller”); _____, residing at _____ and _____, residing at _____, the members of Seller (collectively “Seller’s Owners”); and _____, the members of Seller; and TKK FRANCHISING LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“we” or “us”).

1. Purpose of this Agreement. Buyer entered into an agreement with Seller dated _____ (the “Purchase Agreement”) to purchase from Seller the franchise rights and other assets of Seller’s TKK Fried Chicken franchised business located at _____ (the “Site”). Buyer and Seller understand that any transfer of the franchise rights requires our prior consent pursuant to the franchise agreement between us and Seller dated as of _____ (the “Original Franchise Agreement”), which agreement states additional conditions to a transfer in Section 4.2.4. This Agreement is being signed at or before the closing described in the Purchase Agreement (the “Closing”).

2. Conditional Consent to Transfer. We consent to the transfer of the franchise rights and other assets from Seller to Buyer pursuant to the Purchase Agreement provided that (i) all of the conditions described in Section 4.2.4 of the Original Franchise Agreement are satisfied, (ii) Buyer signs a new franchise agreement with us (the “New Franchise Agreement”) to replace the Original Franchise Agreement, (iii) [the][each] owner[s] of Buyer signs a personal guarantee of Buyer’s obligations under the new franchise agreement, (iv) we receive payment of the $5,000 transfer fee referred to in Section 2.1.6.7 of the Original Franchise Agreement; (v) Buyer signs a new supply agreement with our affiliate, Arms Global Inc., and (vi) the Closing occurs within 90 days from the date of this Agreement. If the Closing does not take place within this 90-day period, then any subsequent transfer will require a new consent from us.

3. Successor Franchise Agreement. Upon the signing of the New Franchise Agreement, a new guaranty from Buyer’s owner or owners, and a new supply agreement, the Original Franchise Agreement will terminate and all of Seller’s rights under the Original Franchise Agreement will end.

4. Release. Seller and Seller’s Owners hereby release, discharge and hold harmless us and our past and present affiliated companies, successors, assignees and each of our and their past and present members, managers, directors, officers employees, agents, attorneys, owners, shareholders, partners, designees and representatives, from any and all debts, losses, damages, expenses, claims, demands, actions, causes of action, liabilities, costs or obligations arising from or in any way connected with the ownership or operation of the Franchised Business at the Site before the date of this Agreement, which Seller may have had, now has or may hereafter discover, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen.

5. Continuing Obligations. After the Closing, and provided that Seller has complied with its obligations under Paragraph 2 above, Seller and Seller’s Owners will be relieved of all of their in-term obligations under their personal guaranties with the exception of any unfulfilled in-term obligations that we have not yet discovered; provided, however, that Seller and Seller’s Owners acknowledge that the transfer of the assets of the franchised business from Seller to Buyer will not terminate their post-term obligations under the Original Franchise Agreement. The post-term obligations include the obligations not to disclose any of our confidential information and not to compete with us, as set forth in Sections 3.2 and 3.3 of the Original Franchise Agreement.

6. We Make No Representations. Buyer acknowledges that the transfer of the Franchise Agreement has not been effected by or through any of our efforts. In entering into the Purchase Agreement, Buyer each acknowledges that Buyer has not relied on any representation from us or any of our representatives other than the content of the current TKK Fried Chicken franchise disclosure document, that Buyer has had the opportunity to consult with Buyer's own financial, accounting and legal advisors, and that Buyer has independently satisfied itself that all of the terms and conditions of the sale and purchase, including, without limitation, the purchase price, are satisfactory and acceptable to Buyer.

7. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

8. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within the State of New York, without regard to New York's conflict of laws principles; but nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to extend the application of the New York Franchise Sales Act to the sale of franchises outside of the State of New York.

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM

OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.GOV.

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

Section 31125 of the Franchise Investment Law requires us to give to you a disclosure document approved by the Commissioner of Corporations before we ask you to consider a material modification of your franchise agreement.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Neither the franchisor nor any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

Item 5 – INITIAL FEES

The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation requires that the franchisor defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until the franchisor has completed all its pre-opening obligations and the franchise is open for business. For any development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fee attributable to a specific unit is deferred until that unit is open.

Item 6 – OTHER FEES

The maximum interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

Item 17 – RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

According to Item 17r, the Franchise Agreement requires you not to compete with us for a period of two years after the agreement is terminated or expires. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

According to Item 17v, the Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Agreement provide that litigation must take place in New York, NY. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

According to Item 17w, the Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Agreement provide that New York law applies. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043).

Section 5.2.2.24 of the Franchise Agreement and Section 5.2.1.6 of the Multi-Unit Agreement allow us to terminate if you become insolvent or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by you or filed against and consented to by you or not dismissed within 30 days. These provisions may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law. (11 U.S.C.A. § 101 et seq.)

MICHIGAN ADDENDUM

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS APPLY ONLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

(a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.

(b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.

(e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

(i) The failure of the proposed franchisee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisor shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

IN ADDITION, NOTHING IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT(S) CAN ABROGATE OR REDUCE ANY OF YOUR RIGHTS AS PROVIDED FOR IN MINNESOTA STATUTES, CHAPTER 80C, OR YOUR RIGHTS TO ANY PROCEDURE, FORUM, OR REMEDIES PROVIDED FOR BY THE LAWS OF THE JURISDICTION.

Item 17 – RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with MINNESOTA STATUTES, SECTION 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4, and 5 which require (except in certain specified cases) that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement; and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

The Consent to Transfer Agreement and the Renewal Addendum (Exhibits F3 and F4), referred to in Items 17c and 17m, each contains a general release. Minnesota Rule 2860.4400D prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release. Accordingly, this requirement will not apply in Minnesota.

The agreements you sign give us the right to obtain injunctive relief in certain cases. (Section 7.3 of the Franchise Agreement and Section 4.2 of the Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement.) Under Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J, a franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. Accordingly, these provisions are understood to mean that we have the right to seek injunctive relief.

The pages that follow constitute additions to the Franchise Agreement and the Consent to Transfer Agreement for Minnesota, and a new renewal addendum.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM

Item 5 – INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE

Based upon the franchisor's financial condition, the Securities Division of the Washington Department of Financial Services has required a financial assurance pursuant to RCW 19.100.050. Therefore, all initial fees and payments owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement as described in WAC 460-80-460. The initial fee for each multi-unit agreement will be pro-rated such that the franchisee will pay the franchisor the fees proportionally upon the opening of each unit franchise.

Item 17 – RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
