What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit “A”.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by litigation only in Georgia. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to litigate with the franchisor in Georgia than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.’s Agents for Service of Process. A list of our agents for service of process in various states is contained in Exhibit “A” to this Disclosure Document.

Chick-fil-A’s Business: Chick-fil-A’s principal business is the development of a system of retail quick-service restaurants specializing in a boneless breast of chicken sandwich. Most of these restaurants are operated by franchised operators who are independent contractors. Chick-fil-A franchised operators (which include individuals and business entities) are sometimes referred to in this Disclosure Document as “Operators”. Chick-fil-A also operates various Chick-fil-A and other restaurants itself from time to time and may do so in the future directly or through its affiliates and subsidiaries. Chick-fil-A also has granted licenses to Chick-fil-A licensees (“Licensees”) and continues to offer licenses to prospective Licensees who have access to certain non-traditional locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar captive audience locations to sell Chick-fil-A brand products at these locations (“Licensed Units”). The limited-menu, quick-service restaurants operated by Chick-fil-A, its affiliates and subsidiaries, its franchised Operators and its Licensees are sometimes referred to in this Disclosure Document as “Chick-fil-A Restaurants.” Chick-fil-A offers licenses to operate Licensed Units under a separate Disclosure Document.

This Disclosure Document addresses and concerns the offering of a franchise to a prospective Chick-fil-A Operator. The person who becomes a franchised Chick-fil-A Operator will be referred to as “you” or “the Operator” throughout this Disclosure Document.

Some Chick-fil-A Operators commence operating new Chick-fil-A Restaurants and some Operators commence operating existing Chick-fil-A Restaurants. Chick-fil-A seeks prospective Operators on a continuing basis and offers some of them the right to become franchised Operators depending on their qualifications and the availability and location of restaurants needing an Operator.

The Chick-fil-A® Restaurant: A Chick-fil-A Restaurant is a limited-menu, quick-service restaurant with its primary product being a boneless breast of chicken sandwich known as a Chick-fil-A® Chicken Sandwich. In addition to the Chick-fil-A® Chicken Sandwich, menu items at a Chick-fil-A Restaurant include the Chick-fil-A® Spicy Chicken Sandwich, Chick-fil-A® Grilled Chicken Sandwich, Chick-fil-A® Nuggets, Chick-fil-A Chick-n-Strips® Cool Wrap®, Chick-fil-A Waffle Potato Fries®, salads and soft drinks, as well as hand-spun milkshakes, freshly squeezed lemonade and a variety of breakfast items, including our Chick-fil-A® Chicken Biscuit, Egg White Grill, Hash Brown Scramble Burrito, Chick-n-Minis®, and Greek Yogurt Parfait items.

Franchised Operator and company and affiliate owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants are established in free-standing locations (“free-standing units”) as well as in non-free-standing locations, including mall and in-line units (sometimes referred to collectively as “mall units”), locations which are drive through only (“drive-thru only units”) and non-traditional locations where Chick-fil-A has direct access to the owners or managers of the location premises and can conduct a restaurant business or concession without the need to utilize Licensees or prospective Licensees (“satellite units”). Mall units are generally located in shopping malls and shopping centers. In-line units are generally located in shopping centers, office buildings and downtown areas. As its name implies, a drive-thru only unit does not provide eat-in, dining room service.

Satellite units are generally located in office buildings, big-box stores, downtown areas, schools, universities, sports stadiums, theme parks and other similar captive audience locations. Satellite units may feature and serve only a limited number of menu items, and may be seasonal or open limited hours. There are some differences between the contractual relationships established for each type of unit described above, which are noted in this Disclosure Document.

Chick-fil-A's franchise relationship with its Operators is governed and defined by a written franchise agreement including its attached lease(s) (or other occupancy agreement(s) for satellite units), which is referred to in this Disclosure Document as a "Franchise Agreement". The lease(s) attached as an exhibit to, made a part of and incorporated by reference into your Franchise Agreement (the "Lease") governs your occupancy of each restaurant premises under the Franchise Agreement controlled by Chick-fil-A. In some instances where Chick-fil-A, as lessee under a prime lease or ground lease, subleases the Chick-fil-A Restaurant premises to an Operator, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A may be the landlord of the premises. As of this Disclosure Document's issuance date, Chick-fil-A is affiliated with the following entities that may lease a Chick-fil-A Restaurant site to Chick-fil-A for which you may be a sub-lessee: (1) CFA-NC Townridge Square LLC, a Georgia limited liability company formed on December 31, 1998, with an address of 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349, (2) CFA Real Property I, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company formed on June 26, 2007, with an address of 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349, and (3) FSU Holdings One, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company formed on December 7, 2007, with an address of 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349.

Satellite units are located in non-traditional restaurant premises and are typically governed by a concession agreement between Chick-fil-A (or its affiliate) and the owner or manager of the premises (the "Concession Agreement"). The Concession Agreement typically governs Chick-fil-A's occupancy of the satellite unit premises. Chick-fil-A sublicenses its rights and privileges under the Concession Agreement, and the Operator accepts the sublicense and agrees to faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations under the Concession Agreement under a concession sublicense agreement (the "Concession Sublicense Agreement"). The Concession Agreement is attached as an exhibit to the Concession Sublicense Agreement. The Concession Sublicense Agreement with its attached Concession Agreement is made a part of and incorporated by reference into your Franchise Agreement and substitutes for the Lease(s) as the occupancy agreement for any satellite unit premises you may operate.

Upon entering into a Franchise Agreement to become a franchised Operator of your first franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, a Chick-fil-A Operator pays an initial franchise fee of $10,000, of which $5,000 is deemed fully earned and non-refundable upon payment and $5,000 is deemed to be, and is maintained by Chick-fil-A as, an initial payment of working capital for the business(es) under the Franchise Agreement, with the expectation that the franchised Operator will make a substantial, personal investment of time directly operating, directing and otherwise supervising the Chick-fil-A Restaurant business (see Items 5, 6, 7 and 15). As more fully described in Item 6, you also must pay Chick-fil-A a "Base Operating Service Fee" of the amount by which fifteen percent of the gross receipts of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant exceeds the Chick-fil-A Restaurant's equipment rental fee (which rental fee will be based on the fair market rental value as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment and is currently $750 to $5,000 per month, exclusive of any applicable sales, use and property taxes, depending on the type of location (free-standing, in-line, drive-thru only, mall and satellite units) and any business services fee (which business services fee is currently $300 per month) plus any other business services fees (in amounts to be determined and charged from time to time), and an "Additional Operating Service Fee" of fifty percent of the Operator's net receipts for the Chick-fil-A Restaurant.

In addition, under the Lease attached as an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement (or, in the case of a satellite unit, the Concession Sublicense Agreement), a Chick-fil-A Operator leases from Chick-fil-A the equipment deemed necessary by Chick-fil-A for the Operator to operate the Chick-fil-A Restaurant. While specific items vary, the categories of equipment items leased by Chick-fil-A to each franchised Operator typically include restaurant equipment, dining area furniture and fixtures and other items necessary to operate a Chick-fil-A Restaurant. The categories of equipment items leased vary by type of unit; for example drive-thru only units, mall units and satellite units typically would not require dining area furniture and fixtures. The equipment rental for a satellite unit could be less than the amount stated above for a satellite unit, including if the owner or manager of the premises provides certain equipment, or more including if the venue is large. During the term of your Franchise Agreement, your ability to offer certain menu items, use certain signage, engage in certain promotions or marketing efforts, or have certain physical restaurant layouts or premises features at your Chick-fil-A Restaurant could be restricted or changed pursuant to the Lease (and, as applicable, any underlying prime lease or ground lease) or, in the case of any satellite unit, the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement, as may be amended or changed.

Although Chick-fil-A and its franchised Operators market Chick-fil-A brand products broadly, we find that the typical Chick-fil-A customer is in the 18-44 age group. We believe that the market for Chick-fil-A products in the broader Sunbelt region from Pennsylvania south through Texas is relatively developed. The market for Chick-fil-A brand products is developing in other parts of the United States. As a general matter, sales of Chick-fil-A brand products are not seasonal. However, if you operate a mall unit, you may experience higher sales during the holiday season when the mall is more crowded.

In order to become a franchised Operator of a single franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, you will be required to sign the Franchise Agreement (Exhibit "B") including the Lease(s) attached as an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement, or, in the case of any satellite unit, the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement incorporated by reference into your Franchise Agreement that substitutes for the Lease(s), and must agree to operate your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business in full compliance with Chick-fil-A's standards and specifications and comply with the requirements governing the occupancy of the restaurant premises. The forms of Franchise Agreement Chick-fil-A has used in the past and in other states may have terms and conditions different from the current form Chick-fil-A offers to you. Chick-fil-A reserves the right to revise the form and terms of the Franchise Agreement (including the Lease(s) and Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement) that Chick-fil-A offers in the future. The premises of any non-satellite franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business(es), whether your initial business or any additional Chick-fil A Restaurant(s) (discussed below) that are not satellite units will be either: (i) owned by Chick-fil-A, (ii) leased to Chick-fil-A pursuant to a prime lease or (iii) leased to Chick-fil-A pursuant to a ground lease, with Chick-fil-A owning the building located on the premises subject to the ground lease. Any prime lease or ground lease that is applicable to the premises will be attached to, made a part of and incorporated by reference into the Lease for the particular Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. The premises of any satellite franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business(es), whether your initial business or any additional Chick-fil A Restaurant business(es) that are satellite units, will be typically owned or managed by a third party that grants occupancy rights to Chick-fil-A (or its affiliate) pursuant to the Concession Agreement that Chick-fil-A sublicenses to you pursuant to the Concession Sublicense Agreement.

Once you have operated your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business for some period of time, Chick-fil-A may offer you the opportunity to operate one or more additional Chick-fil-A Restaurants. Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate an additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant and reserves the right to never offer you the opportunity to operate an additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant. The terms and conditions for operating any additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business offered to you by Chick-fil-A after your first Chick-fil-A Restaurant, if any, will be governed by your Franchise Agreement as amended by an additional business amendment (the "Additional Business Amendment"). Your occupancy of the additional restaurant premises will be governed by the Lease (and, as applicable, any underlying prime lease or ground lease) for the particular premises or, in the case of any satellite unit premises, the Concession Sublicense Agreement, together with its attached Concession Agreement, which will be incorporated by reference into your Franchise Agreement and substitutes for the Lease(s). Alternatively at Chick-fil-A's election, any additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business may be governed by a new, separate Franchise Agreement on Chick-fil-A's then-current form, including its attached Lease(s) (and, as applicable, any underlying prime lease or ground lease) or, in the case of any satellite unit, the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement.

To account for the different forms of occupancy agreements that are used for traditional locations and satellite units and other differences, two different forms of the Additional Business Amendment are attached as exhibits to the Franchise Agreement (which is attached as Exhibit B to this Disclosure Document). The form used for a traditional, non-satellite Chick-fil-A Restaurant business (the “Additional Business Amendment for Traditional Unit”) attaches the Lease (and, as applicable, any underlying prime lease or ground lease) as an exhibit. The form used for a non-traditional, satellite Chick-fil-A Restaurant business (the “Additional Business Amendment for Satellite”) attaches the Concession Sublicense Agreement as an exhibit, with its attached Concession Agreement. You will sign the form of the Additional Business Amendment that applies to the particular additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. In this Disclosure Document the term “Additional Business Amendment” refers to either the Additional Business Amendment for Traditional Unit or the Additional Business Amendment for Satellite, as applicable. As noted above, Chick-fil-A reserves the right to revise the form and terms of the Franchise Agreement that Chick-fil-A offers in the future, which in the case of an additional business will include the Additional Business Amendment, as well as the Franchise Agreement.

If you are signing the Franchise Agreement to become a franchised Operator of an initial business that is a satellite unit, instead of signing the Lease(s) attached as an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement, you will sign the Concession Sublicense Agreement (and its attached Concession Agreement) in the same form as attached to the Additional Business Amendment for Satellite. The form of Concession Sublicense Agreement attached to the Additional Business Amendment for Satellite is the applicable form whether the satellite unit is your initial business or an additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business.

Once you have operated your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business for some period of time, Chick-fil-A may offer you the opportunity to also operate one or more custom mobile food trucks to allow you to sell a limited menu of Chick-fil-A brand products at multiple pre-approved sales locations. Food trucks may service certain captive audience locations such as schools, universities, sports stadiums, office buildings, theme parks and the venues for music, art and sporting events, festivals and fairs, and other unique locations. Food trucks are currently offered to franchised Operators to operate only as an extension and part of an existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant location that can support the operation of the food truck by providing storage for ingredients and other inventories and serving as a commissary for the production or preparation of certain products or ingredients. Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate a food truck and reserves the right to never offer you the opportunity to operate a food truck. The terms and conditions for operating a food truck offered to you by Chick-fil-A in connection with an existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant you operate will be governed by your Franchise Agreement as amended by a food truck license agreement that governs your use of the food truck. Currently, in most cases, Chick-fil-A leases the food truck from a third party and you must sublease the food truck from Chick-fil-A. Your license to operate the food truck and the sublease to use and occupy the food truck are currently combined in a food truck license and sublease agreement, together with its attached third party food truck lease between Chick-fil-A and the third party (collectively, the “Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement”). When signed, the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, including its attached third party food truck lease, is incorporated in and made a part of the Franchise Agreement. The current form of the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement is attached as an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement (which is attached as Exhibit B to this Disclosure Document). As noted above, Chick-fil-A reserves the right to revise the form and terms of the Franchise Agreement that Chick-fil-A offers in the future, which in the case of food truck, will include the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, including its attached food truck lease, as well as the Franchise Agreement.

Applicable Laws and Regulations. Your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business will be subject to laws, rules and regulations affecting businesses generally. You will be required to comply with all such laws, rules and regulations that apply to businesses generally, including, without limitation, public health laws, tax laws and regulations, labor, employment and wage and hour laws and regulations, insurance laws and regulations, privacy laws, regulations, and industry standards, business licensing requirements, immigration and homeland security laws, restrictions against smoking in public places and restaurants, the public posting of notices regarding nutritional information, health hazards, fire safety, general emergency preparedness, rules regarding the proper use, storage and disposal of waste materials, insecticides, and other hazardous materials, standards regarding employee health and safety, sexual harassment laws and any other federal, state and local regulations and ordinances which may be in effect. As a food service business, your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business may be subject to additional laws, rules and regulations regulating the storage, preparation, packaging, labeling and sale of food and beverages to the public, food safety, refuse and sanitation standards and procedures for waste materials and packaging, nutritional claims or other types of advertising, menu or product labeling or information, and the use or maintenance of equipment involved in the preparation of frozen drinks and other products. It is your responsibility to comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations that may affect your Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, and to obtain and comply with all licenses and licensing requirements necessary for your Chick-fil-A Restaurant business to open and operate. We encourage you to investigate and make inquiries regarding all these laws.

If you are licensed to operate a food truck, you must obtain all local, state and federally required permits and licenses, including from the state Motor Vehicle Department and state and local Health Departments. Food trucks are subject to federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations governing their routes and operation, including zoning ordinances. Restrictions include where food trucks may park and for how long, proximity to other food businesses and schools, designated parking zones and/or banned districts, items permitted to be sold, the maximum number of licenses that may be issued, required associated commissary locations, may only serve customers if flagged down, mandatory GPS devices, and health and safety requirements. A food truck must also report and pay sales tax to each jurisdiction where it makes sales. It is your responsibility to comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations that may affect your food truck operation, and to obtain and comply with all licenses and licensing requirements necessary for your food truck to begin and continue operations. We encourage you to investigate and make inquiries regarding all these laws.

Competition. You will compete with other quick-service restaurants located near your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, including possibly other Chick-fil-A Restaurants and Licensed Units located or marketing in the geographic vicinity of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. Primary competition for mall and in-line Chick-fil-A Restaurants is from franchised and other food service operations located in the shopping malls or shopping centers in which your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business may be located. In some cases, competition may also arise from other restaurants in non-mall locations or other sites located outside of the immediate premises of your mall or in-line restaurant. These restaurants and food service operations may be associated with national or regional chains (whether or not franchised) or may be local, independent restaurant locations. If you operate a free-standing location, satellite or drive-thru only Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, you will experience generally similar types of competition.

Prior Business Experience: S. Truett Cathy, the Founder of Chick-fil-A, opened his first restaurant, the Dwarf Grill, in Hapeville, Georgia, in April 1946. The first Chick-fil-A Restaurant in a shopping mall opened for business on November 24, 1967, and the first free-standing Chick-fil-A Restaurant opened for business on April 16, 1986. Chick-fil-A has owned and operated Chick-fil-A Restaurants of the type to be operated by you as a franchisee since 1967.

The first Chick-fil-A Restaurant opened in a mall location was also the first Chick-fil-A Restaurant operated by an Operator. LITIGATION

David Stephens and Kaitlyn Strawn, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. Chick-fil-A, Inc., (Case No. 1:23-cv-00964, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia). On March 6, 2023, two Chick-fil-A customers filed a complaint against Chick-fil-A alleging that we failed to properly secure and safeguard the personally identifiable information (“PII”) of users of Chick-fil-A’ s One program and their PII was compromised as a result of an automated cybersecurity attack that impacted Chick-fil-A One members’ accounts between December 18, 2022 and February 12, 2023. The complaint also alleges that Chick-fil-A issued a statement assuring customers that the fraudulent activity on their accounts was not the result of a compromise of Chick-fil-A’ s internal systems and waited too long to notify affected customers. Plaintiffs assert claims against Chick-fil-A for negligence, breach of implied contract, negligence per se, and violations of Georgia’s Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act. Plaintiffs bring their claims on behalf of themselves and a putative class of similarly situated Chick-fil-A customers. Plaintiffs seek class certification, equitable relief, injunctive relief, monetary damages, interest, and further relief. Chick-fil-A intends to vigorously defend its interests in this action.

Other than this action, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item

The matter is still pending.

Other than this action, no bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

INITIAL FEES

You must pay an initial franchise fee of $10,000 payable in full when you sign the Franchise Agreement whether for a traditional location or a satellite unit. The initial franchise fee is considered fully earned and non-refundable upon payment, except that $5,000 of the initial franchise fee is deemed to be, and is maintained by Chick-fil-A as, an initial payment of working capital for the business(es) under the Franchise Agreement (“the working capital deposit”). You must always maintain the working capital deposit while you are a franchised Operator. Upon termination or non-renewal of your Franchise Agreement, Chick-fil-A will conduct a final reconciliation and you will receive the working capital deposit funds, minus any costs, expenses and then known losses incurred by Chick-fil-A on account of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business or your operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business that you failed to pay or that you paid but should not have paid. This process will be conducted in a method and manner determined by Chick-fil-A under its then-current restaurant close-out procedures (currently, within two and one-half months after termination or non-renewal).

Chick-fil-A may, but is not obligated to, offer you a license to operate one or more additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses under your Franchise Agreement. You must pay an additional franchise fee of $5,000 for each additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, whether for a traditional location or a satellite unit, payable in full when you sign the Additional Business Amendment attached as an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement. The additional franchise fee is considered fully earned and non-refundable upon payment.

Prior to the opening of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, you must obtain from Chick-fil-A the premises Lease for a traditional location or the Concession Sublicense Agreement for any satellite unit, each of which also includes the equipment lease. You must also obtain applicable insurance coverages elected by you or designated by Chick-fil-A, from Chick-fil-A or through Chick-fil-A acting as administrator (other than workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability insurance, and employment practices liability insurance), as described in Items 6, 7, 8 and 10. With regard to workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability insurance, and employment practices liability insurance you will obtain these coverages from the designated insurance carrier, and will get billed by and pay premiums to the insurance carrier. The payments you will make to Chick-fil-A directly or as the program administrator are estimated to range from approximately $4,000 to $150,000 annually, exclusive of any applicable sales, use and property taxes, but will not be due until after your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business opens.

Prior to the opening of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, you must also obtain almost all of the opening inventory of food products, ingredients, and supplies from an approved distributor. The cost of your purchases from our approved distributor will already reflect amounts the distributor paid to Chick-fil-A for Chick-fil-A's proprietary seasoning applied by Chick-fil-A's poultry suppliers to most of the Chick-fil-A brand chicken products and for Chick-fil-A's proprietary seasoned coater you apply yourself in the preparation of most Chick-fil-A brand chicken products and also amounts the distributor paid to our affiliate Bay Center for Chick-fil-A's proprietary lemon juice produced by Bay Center that is used to produce Chick-fil-A's proprietary branded lemonade if you are in a location Bay Center supplies. Our affiliate CFA Supply may be your distributor for all or some of these items if you are in a location CFA Supply services. If CFA Supply is your distributor, the payments you will make to CFA Supply for any of the opening inventory of food products, ingredients, and supplies are estimated to range from approximately $15,000 to $65,000, but will not be due until after your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business opens.

Except for the circumstances described in this Item 5, we do not refund any initial fee.

Notes:

1. These fees are imposed by Chick-fil-A and, except as expressly provided, are either (a) payable to Chick-fil-A, (b) payable to Chick-fil-A, as administrator, if determined by vote of Operators in your local or regional area, or (c) payable to the insurance company for premiums for workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance coverages. All fees are non-refundable and are imposed uniformly except as expressly provided below.
2. Under the Franchise Agreement, you are required to pay certain fees to Chick-fil-A out of your receipts calculated and due on a monthly basis according to a set formula. That formula is described below, but the definitions of certain terms used in the formula are provided first:
 - (a) "Gross Receipts" for a particular restaurant for each calendar month is your entire gross receipts from sales (excluding sales tax) with respect to the restaurant, including any associated food truck; any satellite unit that is an additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business and is accounted for as a separate restaurant;

- (b) “Operating Profit” for a particular restaurant for each calendar month is the amount by which Gross Receipts exceeds the ordinary and necessary expenses (as this term is reasonably determined by Chick-fil-A) incurred by you for the restaurant during the month; by way of example, for purposes of this calculation the following items shall not be ordinary and necessary expenses:
- (1) any amount you pay to yourself or, if you are approved to form and use an entity, the entity pays to you as compensation for services;
 - (2) any salary paid to any member of your family, to the extent the salary exceeds normal wages for similar work; and
 - (3) the “Base Operating Service Fee” (as defined below) and the “Additional Operating Service Fee” (as defined below);
- “Aggregate Operating Profit” for a calendar month is the sum of the Operating Profit for the month of all restaurants operated by you;
- (c) “Base Profit” for your first restaurant (the “Initial Business”) for each calendar month is $1,000; you are not entitled to Base Profit with respect to any additional restaurant;
- (d) “Base Operating Service Fee” for a particular restaurant for each calendar month is the amount by which 15% of the Gross Receipts for the month exceeds the monthly equipment rental payable and business services fee for the calendar month. Chick-fil-A allocates a portion of the Base Operating Service Fee as a royalty for the sublicense of intellectual property. “Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee” for a calendar month is the sum of the Base Operating Service Fee for the month of all restaurants operated by you;
- (e) “Net Profit for Initial Business” of the Initial Business for each calendar month is the difference between: (i) the Operating Profit for the month; and (ii) the sum of: [A] the Base Operating Service Fee for the month, [B] the Base Profit for the month, [C] the Base Profit Offsets, and [D] the Service Fee Offsets at the effective date of computation; “Net Profit for Additional Business” for a particular additional business (an “Additional Business”) for each calendar month is the difference between: (i) the Operating Profit for the Additional Business for the month and (ii) the Base Operating Service Fee for the Additional Business for the month;
- (f) “Additional Operating Service Fee” as to a particular restaurant for each calendar month is (i) in the case of the Initial Business, 50% of the Net Profit for Initial Business for the month or (ii) in the case of an Additional Business, 50% of the Net Profit for Additional Business for the month;
- (g) “Additional Profit” as to a particular restaurant for each calendar month is (i) in the case of the Initial Business, 50% of the Net Profit for Initial Business for the month or (ii) in the case of an Additional Business, 50% of the Net Profit for Additional Business for the month; “Aggregate Additional Profit” for each calendar month is the sum of the Additional Profit for the month of all restaurants operated by you;
- (h) “Extra Profit” for each calendar month is an advance on Additional Profit in the maximum amount of $1,500; you are not entitled to retain an Extra Profit with respect to any additional restaurants;
- (i) “Daily Deposit” as to a particular restaurant including any associated food truck, for each calendar day is your daily Gross Receipts as adjusted for minor cash expenditures, cash overages and shortages and other cash received;

- (j) “Base Profit Offsets” is a floating amount that is zero at the beginning of each calendar year and is: (i) increased from time to time during the calendar year by the amount of all Base Profits retained by you but not covered by Aggregate Operating Profit; and (ii) decreased from time to time during the calendar year when and to the extent subsequent Aggregate Operating Profit is sufficient to cover the Base Profits;
- (k) “Service Fee Offsets” is a floating amount that is zero at the beginning of each calendar year and is (i) increased from time to time during the calendar year by the amount of all Base Operating Service Fees that you do not pay to Chick-fil-A; and (ii) decreased from time to time during the calendar year when and to the extent that you pay the previously unpaid Base Operating Service Fees to Chick-fil-A; and
- (l) “Extra Offsets” is a floating amount that is zero at the beginning of each calendar year and is: (i) increased from time to time during the calendar year by the amount of all Extra Profits retained by you but not covered by the Aggregate Additional Profit; and (ii) decreased from time to time during the calendar year when and to the extent subsequent Aggregate Additional Profit is sufficient to cover the Extra Profits.

You pay Chick-fil-A from the Aggregate Operating Profit of the restaurants for each calendar month, an amount equal to the sum of the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee and the Aggregate Additional Operating Service Fee, and retain for yourself an amount equal to the sum of the Base Profit, Extra Profit and any Aggregate Additional Profit in excess of Extra Profit, less any Extra Offsets (not to exceed the Aggregate Additional Profit for the month). To the extent that your Aggregate Operating Profit for a month is not sufficient to fund all of these payment and retention items, you must disburse your Aggregate Operating Profit in the following order, until it is exhausted:

- (a) you retain for yourself the Base Profit;
- (b) you pay the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee;
- (c) you pay the Base Profit Offsets, the Service Fee Offsets and the Aggregate Additional Operating Service Fee; and
- (d) you retain for yourself the amount, if any, by which the Aggregate Additional Profit exceeds the Extra Offsets.

You may retain, however, on a monthly basis the full Base Profit and the Extra Profit, even if Aggregate Additional Profit for the month (less the Extra Offsets) is insufficient to cover these distribution items, and even if revenue is insufficient to cover the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee, the Base Profit Offsets, Service Fee Offsets and Aggregate Additional Operating Service Fee for the month. To the extent that Aggregate Operating Profit is insufficient to cover the full Base Profit and/or the Extra Profit when they are retained by you and the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee, future Aggregate Operating Profit during the calendar year must be allocated to cover existing arrearage of Base Profit, Extra Profit and/or Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee before you will be entitled to any future Additional Profit.

All of these calculation and payment concepts are set forth in detail in Section 14 of the Franchise Agreement.

Chick-fil-A may in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment offer certain additional marketing or other incentive funds and programs to one or more Operators in connection with certain special circumstances or situations that arise from time to time, such as assisting with brand-building in low awareness areas, including new markets, new locations, enhancing the physical premises of Chick-fil-A Restaurant facilities or other challenging situations which may have a detrimental effect on sales and profits. Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer these additional marketing or other incentive funds and programs or any other assistance of this type to you under any circumstances. Such additional marketing or other incentive funds and programs do not grant you any contract rights, are not part of your contract, and do not modify or affect Chick-fil-A's or your contract rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement. Chick-fil-A's internal programs and policies are subject to change or cancellation at any time by Chick-fil-A.

3. Between the first and fifteenth day of each month, Chick-fil-A prepares a fee calculation report for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business for the preceding month in order to determine the fees and other expenses to be paid from your Gross Receipts and, as part of the fee calculation process, calculates the fees and expenses according to the formula described in Note 2 above. Although calculated and due on a monthly basis, these fees and expenses are paid from Gross Receipts as expenses of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business to Chick-fil-A on either a monthly or pro rata/month to date daily basis. The expenses you pay to the insurance company related to the insurance premiums for workers' compensation and general liability coverages are also reflected on the fee calculation report. The Gross Receipts, fees and expenses of a food truck are accounted for and included in the fee calculation report of its associated Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. A separate fee calculation report is prepared for each Additional Business, including any satellite unit.
4. These fees are paid from Gross Receipts as expenses of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business as described in Note 2 and Note 3 above, except as described in Note 3. These amounts are exclusive of any applicable sales, use and property taxes.
5. Under the Franchise Agreement, you appoint Chick-fil-A as your agent to establish and administer a program for collecting and accounting for the receipts of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, and facilitating your payment of the rent, any equipment rental and any other payments or charges due pursuant to the Lease for the restaurant premises, as applicable certain of the insurance premiums elected by you or designated by Chick-fil-A, advertising contributions, any fees or charges pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, and other amounts owed to Chick-fil-A and/or suppliers by you. With regard to the workers' compensation, general liability insurance, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance program, you will get billed by and will pay the insurance carrier. At the same time, you remain responsible for assisting Chick-fil-A in its administration of the program for collecting and accounting for the receipts of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. For example, you must establish a cash handling system (including a bank account with allowance for banking-related fees to be paid and funds to be transferred therefrom by Chick-fil-A pursuant to the Franchise Agreement). You must deposit your Daily Deposit into your cash handling system each day prior to exiting the Restaurant and/or follow other procedures as designated from time to time by Chick-fil-A. In the event that approved cash handling system services are not provided in your geographic area or you otherwise are approved for an exemption from our then current cash handling system service requirements, you will be required to deposit the funds directly into a local bank account or a prescribed Chick-fil-A group bank account, or otherwise follow other procedures as designated from time to time by Chick-fil-A. You must transmit a report to Chick-fil-A at the end of each business day regarding the amount of the Daily Deposit for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, and Chick-fil-A will transfer that amount from your cash handling system bank account into Chick-fil-A's general account. If you operate a satellite unit and the premises owner or manager collects customer payments, certain of the above cash handling procedures (and fees) will not apply to you or may be reduced. Under the Franchise Agreement, you are responsible for paying your expenses and Chick-fil-A is authorized as your agent under the program to perform certain accounting functions and to facilitate other payments and disbursements of funds pursuant to the Franchise Agreement.

Chick-fil-A may maintain your funds in segregated, group and/or general bank account(s) that include your funds, other operators' funds and/or Chick-fil-A's funds. Chick-fil-A may use the funds at its election from time to time prior to your funds being disbursed pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, and if and only to the extent that Chick-fil-A does so, Chick-fil-A will pay interest on the used funds for the time period of their use at an interest rate and using an allocation method as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time; provided, however, that the interest rate for any applicable period shall not be less than the applicable Prime Rate as published in the Wall Street Journal for the same time period (the “Applicable Prime Rate”) and shall not be greater than the Applicable Prime Rate plus one percent. Any bank account(s) established or maintained by Chick-fil-A are not trust funds or trust accounts. No fiduciary or implied duties, relationships or covenants exist between Chick-fil-A and you arising out of or relating to the Franchise Agreement, the program, the account(s), the funds or their respective administration. Chick-fil-A only, and not you, is entitled to receive the earnings credits, interest and/or any other banking benefits, if any, earned, awarded or elected on the account(s) and the funds in the account(s).

6. Your lease payment will be based on the Lease, and any applicable prime lease or ground lease, for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business in a traditional location, and will vary depending on where your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business is located, the size of the premises, whether you are to operate a free-standing, mall or in-line restaurant, and other factors. The occupancy charge for a satellite unit is described in the following Note.

If Chick-fil-A owns the premises on which a Chick-fil-A Restaurant is operated, under the terms of the Lease, you will be a lessee of the premises and must comply with the obligations imposed by Chick-fil-A upon you as primary lessee of the premises. You will be required to make monthly payments to Chick-fil-A. The monthly payments will include all of the monthly base rent, percentage rent and any other extra or additional charges and rents due under the Lease.

If Chick-fil-A leases the premises on which a Chick-fil-A Restaurant is operated, under the terms of the Lease, you will be a sublessee of the premises and must comply with the obligations imposed on Chick-fil-A as the primary lessee of the premises and imposed by Chick-fil-A upon you as a sublessee. You will be required to make monthly payments to Chick-fil-A. The monthly payments will include all of the monthly base rent, percentage rent and any other extra or additional charges and rents due under the Lease.

The prime lease, ground lease and other related real estate documents for a site are subject to periodic amendment, renewal and/or renegotiation. As a result, the obligations imposed upon Chick-fil-A for a site may change from time to time and, as a result, the terms of your Lease with Chick-fil-A (including your monthly payments to Chick-fil-A, the base rent, percentage rent, taxes, common area maintenance (CAM) charges, and other additional or extra charges and rents) could also change. In addition, as a result of a periodic amendment, renewal and/or renegotiation of the prime lease, ground lease or other related real estate documents for the site, your rights and privileges to use and enjoy the premises could also change during the term of your Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), including with regard to signage, physical layout, parking, access, site and/or product related exclusives and other matters.

In certain instances, Chick-fil-A, or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A, may become the owner of the premises on which a Chick-fil-A Restaurant is operated as a result of the exercise of option rights under a ground lease or other type of acquisition. If this occurs during the term of your Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), your then-current sublease will terminate and you will become either: (1) a lessee of the premises and must comply with the obligations imposed by Chick-fil-A upon you as primary lessee of the premises, including making monthly lease and other payments to Chick-fil-A; or (2) a sublessee of the premises and must comply with the obligations imposed upon Chick-fil-A as primary lessee of the premises by Chick-fil-A’s affiliate acting as the landlord, including making monthly sublease and other payments to Chick-fil-A or Chick-fil-A’s affiliate, all as determined by Chick-fil-A in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment.

For a site that is owned by Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A), the calculation of monthly base rent for the site can generally be explained as follows -- the total amount invested by Chick-fil-A or its wholly-owned subsidiary in the acquisition of the land (including title premiums, endorsements, recording fees and other costs incurred) is added to the amounts invested by Chick-fil-A or its wholly-owned subsidiary for the building shell, then the sum is multiplied by a finance factor, and then that product is divided by twelve. Additionally, for a site that is owned by Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A), to the extent the calendar year-to-date gross receipts of a Chick-fil-A Restaurant business exceed a certain percentage rent breakpoint, you will be obligated to pay Chick-fil-A percentage rent.

For a site that is leased by Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A) pursuant to a ground lease, the calculation of monthly base rent for the site can generally be explained as follows -- the total amount invested by Chick-fil-A or its wholly-owned subsidiary in the acquisition of the land (including title premiums, endorsements, recording fees and other costs incurred) is added to the amounts invested by Chick-fil-A or its wholly-owned subsidiary for the building shell then the sum is multiplied by a finance factor. The product is then added to the total rent under the ground lease, and that sum is divided by twelve; provided, however, the monthly base rent could increase when and if, among other things, the rent under the ground lease increases. Additionally, for a site that is leased by Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A) pursuant to a ground lease, to the extent the calendar year-to-date gross receipts of a Chick-fil-A Restaurant business exceed a certain percentage rent breakpoint, you will be obligated to pay Chick-fil-A percentage rent.

For a site that is leased by Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A) for an in-line location, the calculation of monthly base rent for the site can generally be explained as follows -- the base rent payable to Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A) for the site is calculated per the terms of the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) which incorporates the prime lease. The monthly base rent could increase when and if, among other things, the rent under the prime lease increases pursuant to the terms of the prime lease. Additionally, for a site that is leased by Chick-fil-A (or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A) for an in-line location, to the extent the calendar year-to-date gross receipts of a Chick-fil-A Restaurant business exceed a certain percentage rent breakpoint, you will be obligated to pay Chick-fil-A percentage rent.

For a site that is leased by Chick-fil-A for a mall location, base rent and percentage rent (if any) are payable to Chick-fil-A for the site per the terms of the Franchise Agreement and the Lease which incorporates the prime lease. The base rent and percentage rent (if any) could increase when and if, among other things, the rent under the prime lease increases pursuant to the terms of the prime lease.

The percentages used in computing payments based on Gross Receipts have been determined by Chick-fil-A in consideration of the set of rights being granted by Chick-fil-A, the drawing power of a Chick-fil-A Restaurant, the value of the Chick-fil-A system as a whole, the ratio between our investment and your investment, potential rates of return on investment, the ratio between what we think might be our potential return and yours, the amount which we have at risk, and Chick-fil-A's interests in obtaining a profit in light of competitive conditions. All payments made by you to Chick-fil-A are part of a single financial arrangement between you and Chick-fil-A which, taken as a whole and without regard to any designation or description, reflect the value of the rights being made available to you by Chick-fil-A and the services being rendered by Chick-fil-A during the term of the Franchise Agreement including its attached Lease(s). The percentages may vary among Operators depending upon when a franchise or site was obtained or leased as well as other factors. In unusual circumstances which include special costs, the fees paid by you may be higher than those outlined in this Item 6.

Chick-fil-A may in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment cap or limit the lease payments of one or more Operators in connection with certain special circumstances or situations that arise from time to time. As a result, for example, the monthly payments for these Operators may not equal all of the monthly base rent and other extra or additional charges and rents set out in the prime lease or ground lease agreements between Chick-fil-A and the landlord for these sites. Chick-fil-A may also in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment cap or limit the amount of property tax or other additional charges that are assessed or passed through to and then become the individual responsibility of the Operator in connection with certain special circumstances or situations that arise from time to time. As a result, for example, the obligation actually passed through and charged to these Operators to pay property tax or other additional charges may not equal all of the property tax and other additional charges that are otherwise payable and not included in the lease payments. In other instances involving certain special circumstances or situations that arise from time to time, the property tax and other additional charges may be included in the lease payments and in those instances not charged or passed through separately as extra or additional charges to the Operator. Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer a cap or limit to you under any circumstances. Any cap or limit offered by Chick-fil-A to you from time to time does not grant you any contractual rights, is not part of your contract, and does not modify or affect Chick-fil-A's or your contractual rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement or the Lease. Chick-fil-A's internal programs and policies, including any cap or limit on lease payments, are subject to change or cancellation at any time in the future as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment.

Pursuant to a Chick-fil-A internal rent policy effective beginning January 1, 2015 (the "Rent Policy"), your rent for a franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant premises in a traditional location during the duration of the policy (excluding any equipment) will not exceed 6% of the annual Gross Receipts of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy does not extend to, affect or limit in any way, your obligation to pay any other monies or charges due under the Franchise Agreement or any additional charges and expenses due under any Lease. Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy has been established unilaterally as part of Chick-fil-A's internal working procedures. Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy is not a part of any contract between Chick-fil-A and you and does not create any rights or expectations for you under your Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), including the rent calculation report(s). Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy also does not amend, modify or affect any contract rights and obligations between Chick-fil-A and you as otherwise set forth in the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), including the rent calculation report(s). The application of Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy to individual situations may vary. Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy is subject to revocation and/or change at any time in the future as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment. Chick-fil-A's Rent Policy does not apply to occupancy charges for a satellite unit.

The rent figures reflected above in this Item 6 represent the lowest and highest approximate amounts of monthly rent paid by any single Chick-fil-A Operator during calendar year 2022 under the lease or sublease for the Operator's franchised traditional Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, including, where applicable, for percentage rent. In unusual circumstances which include special costs, the fees paid by you may be higher than those outlined in this Item 6. These circumstances may include certain high-cost sites.

7. If Chick-fil-A offers you a license to operate a Chick-fil-A Restaurant business under your Franchise Agreement as a satellite unit, you will pay an occupancy charge to the premises owner or manager under the Concession Agreement. We currently estimate the occupancy charge will be between 4% to 30% of Gross Receipts of the satellite unit, covering the charges for the right to occupy and use the premises (comparable to rent and any percentage rent), use of any owner/manager supplied equipment, owner/manager supplied services, and common area charges. The wide range of the estimated occupancy charge demonstrates that each satellite unit opportunity is unique and the economic terms of the particular Concession Agreement should be reviewed and evaluated carefully. The occupancy charge payable under the Concession Sublicense Agreement to the satellite unit premises owner or manager will vary depending on where your franchised satellite Chick-fil-A Restaurant business is located, the size of the premises, the equipment and services provided by the owner or manager of the premises, if any, and other factors. The occupancy charge may be payable and described in whole or in part similarly to rent as a percentage of Gross Receipts or stated dollar amount. Alternatively, the same charges may be described under a commission structure, where the owner or manager of the premises collects the Gross Receipts of the satellite unit from sales to customers and then distributes to you (or Chick-fil-A on your behalf) a “commission” where your commission is the balance of the Gross Receipts after the owner or manager of the premises subtracts the occupancy charge amount (and if applicable, any sales tax the owner or manager undertakes the responsibility to report and pay). The occupancy charge stated in the Concession Agreement is passed through to you dollar for dollar under the Concession Sublicense Agreement, with no markup and no cap. The Rent Policy does not apply, and any cap or limit on the amount of property tax or other additional charges Chick-fil-A may in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment offer in certain special circumstances may not apply, to occupancy charges payable for satellite units. The occupancy charge figures reflected above in this Item 6 represent the lowest and highest approximate percentage range of occupancy charge you will pay. The fees you pay may be higher than those outlined in this Item 6. These circumstances may include certain high-cost sites, special costs and unique venues.

8. If none of our vendors provide cash handling system services in the geographic area where your Chick-fil-A Restaurant business is located, you will not pay these fees and expenses to us. If your Chick-fil-A Restaurant business is located in a mall, office building or satellite location, you may not be required to pay these fees and expenses to us depending on a variety of factors, including the location of the mall or office building, its use restrictions and requirements, whether the owner or manager of the location collects customer payments, and other things. In these circumstances, you may incur similar fees and expenses by engaging a vendor directly or paying the vendor appointed by the owner or manager of the location or the owner or manager directly, to provide similar services.

TOTAL ESTIMATE OF INITIAL INVESTMENT	$518,385 to $2,803,435^{1,4}

Notes:

1. The preceding table describes the costs of initial investment for a Chick-fil-A Restaurant, whether a free-standing unit, mall unit, in-line unit, drive-thru only unit or satellite unit. There are some differences between the estimated initial investment for certain costs depending on the type of unit, which are noted in the following notes to this table. The initial investment for satellite units vary in particular from other types of units due to unique factors such as seasonal operations, unique operating hours, and limited access to sell to the public as a result of being located in spaces with ticketed/captive audiences. The initial investment for a satellite unit is estimated to fit under the high range of certain of the estimated costs in the preceding table, and is estimated to be less than the low range for certain of the estimated costs.

2. Once you have paid the $10,000 initial franchise fee for your initial franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, if you are offered the opportunity to operate an additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, whether a traditional location or a satellite unit, you will pay an additional franchise fee in the amount of $5,000 for each Additional Business. The initial franchise fee is considered fully earned and non-refundable upon payment, except that the $5,000 portion of the initial franchise fee that is maintained by Chick-fil-A as the working capital deposit is refundable as described in Item 5. The additional franchise fee is considered fully earned and non-refundable upon payment.

Although the $10,000 initial franchise fee (or the $5,000 additional franchise fee, if applicable), is the only initial out-of-pocket investment you will be required to make to begin operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business (or Additional Business under your Franchise Agreement), the other expenditures in the table will reduce the actual profits of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business and will affect the amount of your income.

3. These amounts are deducted from the Gross Receipts of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business as expenses. Although calculated and due on a monthly basis, these fees and expenses are paid from Gross Receipts as expenses of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business to Chick-fil-A on either a monthly or pro rata/month to date daily basis, except for the insurance premiums for workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance coverages. See Item 5 and Note 2 and Note 3 to the table in Item 6 and Note 5 below.

4. These amounts depend on where your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business will be located, the size of the premises, traditional location or satellite unit and other factors. The amount could be higher, for example, if your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business will be located in a flagship-type, urban facility in a large metropolitan market. If you operate a satellite unit in a non-traditional location, you will pay an occupancy charge instead of rent. We currently estimate the occupancy charge will range between 4% to 30% of Gross Receipts. The equipment rental for a satellite unit could be less than the amount stated above for a satellite unit, including if the owner or manager of the premises provides certain equipment, or more including if the venue is large.
5. As applicable you must obtain certain of the insurance coverages elected by you or designated by Chick-fil-A, from Chick-fil-A or through Chick-fil-A acting as administrator. With regard to the worker's compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance program, (i) you will obtain these coverages from the designated insurance carrier, (ii) will get billed by and will pay the insurance carrier, and (iii) as each month's premium payment will pay 1/12th of the premium cost for the calendar year. These amounts will not be due until after your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business opens.
6. This amount reflects the costs you can expect to pay in your first three months of operation and includes your expenses, as well as the cost of repairs, maintenance and utilities, but does not include any draws, disbursements or other distributions taken by you. In formulating these figures, Chick-fil-A has relied on its over 50 years of experience in the Chick-fil-A Restaurant business and on the financial performance of franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurants and company-operated Chick-fil-A Restaurants opened during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. The exact amount required for additional funds will vary from operation to operation and cannot be estimated with certainty for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Approved Supplies and Suppliers: Chick-fil-A has an interest in the proprietary seasoning used in the preparation of certain Chick-fil-A brand chicken products. Chick-fil-A purchases the seasoning from the producers of the seasoning and has it shipped directly to Chick-fil-A's authorized or approved poultry suppliers. These poultry suppliers then apply the seasoning to most of the chicken products sold to the Operators. Payments to Chick-fil-A for the proprietary seasoning are received from the poultry supplier when the chicken is sold to Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s). Currently, Chick-fil-A is receiving payments of approximately $.06 per pound of seasoned chicken, which amount includes a payment to Chick-fil-A for its proprietary interest in the seasoning, and which amount may vary and otherwise change due to among other things food costs and product initiatives.

Chick-fil-A also has an interest in the proprietary seasoned coater used in the preparation of most Chick-fil-A brand chicken products. The seasoned coater is purchased by Chick-fil-A from the producer and is shipped directly to Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s). Payments to Chick-fil-A for the proprietary seasoned coater are received from the distributor(s) of the seasoned coater when the seasoned coater is purchased by the distributor(s) from Chick-fil-A. The distributor(s) then sells the seasoned coater to the Operators. Your cost for the seasoned coater depends on a pricing formula that includes a markup by Chick-fil-A that may change. Based upon the cost of ingredients to Chick-fil-A (including any freight charges paid to the producer) your cost will fluctuate.

Our affiliate CFA Supply is a distributor approved to carry food products, ingredients, and supplies for franchised, licensed, and company and affiliate owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants. CFA Supply may be the only approved primary distributor serving the geographic area in which it operates. CFA Supply began operations in July 2019. If your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant is in a location CFA Supply services, your cost for the food products, ingredients, and supplies depends on a pricing formula CFA Supply determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that includes, among other factors, a distribution fee and an allowance for fuel and freight costs from the CFA Supply warehouse to the Chick-fil-A Restaurants it will supply.

Our affiliate Bay Center produces Chick-fil-A branded lemon juice that is a proprietary principal ingredient used to produce proprietary Chick-fil-A branded lemonade. Bay Center is an approved supplier to supply lemon juice to Chick-fil-A Restaurants in geographic areas it operates. Bay Center may be the only approved supplier of lemon juice for the geographic area where it operates. Bay Center began operations in 2020. The lemon juice is purchased by Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s) from Bay Center and is shipped by Bay Center directly to Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s). The distributor(s) pays Bay Center for the proprietary lemon juice when the lemon juice is purchased by the distributor(s). The distributor(s) then sells the lemon juice to the Operators. If your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant is in a location Bay Center supplies, your cost for the lemon juice depends on a pricing formula Bay Center determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that includes a markup by Bay Center that may change. Based upon the cost of ingredients to Bay Center (including any freight charges) your cost will fluctuate.

You must purchase all of the following items from suppliers who are approved in advance by Chick-fil-A: all present and future items of food and drink; all items of non-food inventory intended for sale to or use by your customers; all ingredients, food products, produce, mixes, spices, cooking aides, wrappings, food and beverage containers; certain other designated items necessary for maintaining and cleaning your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, certain proprietary marketing and promotional materials and other items bearing our trademarks, and all other items necessary or optional for preparing products sold in your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. We are exploring potential renewable energy sources to provide power to some Chick-fil-A Restaurants. We anticipate that solar panels will be installed at several Chick-fil-A Restaurants in the test of one or more renewable energy programs. If you participate in a renewable energy program in the future, equipment from suppliers we designate, which may include solar panels, may be installed at your Chick-fil-A Restaurant, and you may need to enroll in a supplemental power agreement with an energy provider we designate. You may not buy from any supplier that we have not yet approved in writing, and you must stop buying from any supplier who we approve initially, but later disapprove. For purposes of this Item 8, a "supplier" may be a manufacturer, distributor or wholesale/retail establishment which carries the product. A "manufacturer" makes the product or provides the service; a "distributor" acquires the product from the manufacturer and ships the product to you.

In order to, among other things, take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing, Chick-fil-A negotiates and enters into certain system-wide purchase and distribution arrangements with suppliers for many supplies, ingredients, food and beverage products, produce and other items and services used in, or in connection with the operation of, Chick-fil-A Restaurants. Among its approved suppliers, Chick-fil-A encourages and reserves the right to require its Operators to use its system-wide purchase and distribution programs for their purchases of most supplies, ingredients, food and beverage products, produce, other items and services necessary for operating and promoting a Chick-fil-A Restaurant. When considering whether to approve any particular supplier or to enter into any particular arrangement, Chick-fil-A considers, among other things, the following factors: whether the supplier can show, to our reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our then-current standards and specifications; whether the supplier has adequate quality controls and capacity to meet the Chick-fil-A system's needs promptly and reliably; and whether the supplier's approval or the particular supplier arrangement would enable the Chick-fil-A system as a whole, in our sole and exclusive business judgment, to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing.

In some circumstances, for example with respect to certain produce, bread and other product purchases for some Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in some geographic areas, we may require that you make purchases locally. Under these circumstances, we may require that you seek local suppliers for perishable items like bread and produce, but we reserve the right to approve your sources for these items in accordance with our then-current standards and specifications.

If you are operating a mall unit, we will negotiate and enter into a prime lease for the premises. In addition, we also negotiate and enter into prime leases for the free-standing and drive-thru only units which we do not own. In either case, you are a sublessee of the premises and must comply with the obligations imposed on Chick-fil-A as primary lessee of the premises. See Items 5 and 6 above. In some instances, Chick-fil-A will own the premises on which free-standing units are operated. Whether Chick-fil-A owns or leases the premises for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business in a traditional location, you are required to make lease payments directly to Chick-fil-A.

If you are operating a satellite unit, we will negotiate and enter into a Concession Agreement with the owner or manager of the premises, for the right to occupy and conduct the Chick-fil-A Restaurant business at the premises. You will enter into the Concession Sublicense Agreement with us and you will be a sub-licensee (technically a sub-concessionaire) of the premises and must comply with the obligations imposed on Chick-fil-A as primary licensee (technically concessionaire) of the premises. See Items 5 and 6 above.

If you are operating a food truck as an extension and part of an existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant location, you will enter into the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement with us. Currently, in most cases, Chick-fil-A leases the food truck from a third party and you must sublease the food truck from Chick-fil-A. You must comply with the obligations imposed on Chick-fil-A as primary lessee of the food truck. See Items 5 and 6 above. You will pay Chick-fil-A the food truck usage fee under the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement in lieu of the lease rental payment due from Chick-fil-A to the third party lessor under the third party food truck lease.

Chick-fil-A sometimes purchases marketing assets on behalf of participating Operators in a market with the primary goal of use of the items by the participating Operators for marketing activation. Examples of marketing assets include branded activation units, spectacular cow creatives, and branded props. The Operators within the geographic area reimburse Chick-fil-A for the amount of the purchase price and the expenses of the marketing asset from the local or regional advertising fees they contribute. Each participating Operator enters into a lease agreement with Chick-fil-A for the right to participate in the shared use of the related marketing asset.

We will provide you with most or all of the equipment (and other property necessary to operate your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, including the kitchen appliances and equipment), and dining area furniture and fixtures. In exchange for your use of our equipment, furniture, and fixtures under the Lease, you will be required to make rental payments to us based on the fair market rental value as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment, currently in the amount of $750 to $5,000 per month depending on the type of location (free-standing, drive-thru only, mall or satellite unit), exclusive of any applicable sales, use and property taxes. In some circumstances, you may decide to purchase additional items of approved small wares, operating supplies, utensils, equipment and other goods in order to maximize the sales and profit potential of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. The equipment rental for a satellite unit could be less than the amount stated above for a satellite unit, including if the owner or manager of the premises provides certain equipment, or more including if the venue is large.

Under the Franchise Agreement, between the first and fifteenth day of each month, we prepare a fee calculation report for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, and calculate the fees and other expenses to be paid by you out of your revenues according to a set formula. (See Item 6, Note 2 for a description of this formula). Prior to revenue disposition, a monthly business services fee, currently $300, will be deducted from your Gross Receipts as an expense of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, as payment to us for provision of other business-related services.

You must purchase minimum levels of certain types of designated insurance through our approved insurance programs if offered or, if not offered, approved third-party vendors, including workers' compensation, commercial general liability, auto liability, employment practices liability insurance and excess/umbrella liability insurance with minimum limits of liability and other terms determined by us to provide certain minimum levels of coverage for your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business; and unemployment, social security disability and any other insurance coverage designated by us as required to be purchased through our approved insurance programs or by governmental authorities. To the extent offered and required, you must participate in our insurance programs, which meet these standards with a combination of insurance contracts and self-insurance. Under the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement, we may add to, increase or change your insurance requirements. Chick-fil-A does not receive any revenues from insurance purchased by you. As applicable, we simply rebill or pass through to you the cost of certain of the insurance premiums elected by you or designated by Chick-fil-A described above. With regard to the workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance program you will obtain these coverages from the designated insurance carrier, will get billed by and will pay the insurance carrier. The workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance program is described in greater detail below in this Item 8. It is currently the sole approved insurance program for the purchase of workers' compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance.

We have not adopted specific criteria to evaluate or approve alternative suppliers for the goods and services which you must purchase from Chick-fil-A-approved sources. We deal with requests for approval of alternative suppliers of goods on a case-by-case basis. If we receive requests for alternative suppliers for items that are not Chick-fil-A trade secret items or items that do not use our trademarks, we will provide an Operator the standards and specifications for the item and will consider permitting sourcing from alternative suppliers consistent with the standards and specifications. However, we reserve the right to designate only one supplier or a limited number of suppliers for certain items (including, without limitation, the physical distribution of products, soft drinks, ingredients, etc.) in order to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing. We also reserve the right to not approve or disapprove any supplier if among other things: (1) the supplier cannot show, to our reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our then-current standards and specifications; (2) the supplier cannot show, to our reasonable satisfaction, adequate quality controls and capacity to meet the Chick-fil-A system's needs promptly and reliably; or (3) Chick-fil-A determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that the supplier's approval would impact negatively upon the Chick-fil-A system's ability, as a whole, to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing. Finally, we reserve the right to conditionally approve a supplier or to limit our approval of a supplier to certain products, restaurants or circumstances.

We stock certain non-proprietary items such as small wares and operating supplies, utensils and other goods which are made available to you for your convenience. We also stock certain proprietary items, including marketing and promotional materials and other items bearing our trademarks, and other proprietary items which we may make available to you for your convenience, and are used by you in local advertising, marketing and promotions, and in your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant. Though we are not the sole authorized supplier of most of these items, you are likely to purchase them from us for convenience and/or price savings. Currently, the cost to Operators for warehouse goods is our cost plus approximately 2.5%, which amount may include a payment to Chick-fil-A for a portion of its costs associated with the processing and storage of the goods and shipping the goods from the supplier to Chick-fil-A's warehouse. Operators are also charged for the shipping costs from our warehouse to their franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurants. Chick-fil-A may change the warehouse program, and any associated costs and charges to Operators, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment. You also may or may not receive from us a rebate on your purchase of some beverage products (and possibly other products in the future).

Operators have traditionally engaged third party advertising agencies to provide certain additional advertising support and services. We may offer to provide advertising support and services to Operators at the local, store, market or regional advertising level on a formal basis for a fee through our in-house advertising agency as an alternative choice for Operators to third party advertising agencies. We hope to eliminate fragmented creative services enabling more uniform messaging system-wide while also potentially saving Operators both time and money. We are an approved supplier to supply advertising support and services to Chick-fil-A Restaurants in geographic areas where we are offering the services, but Operators will have the option to select and accept our services or not. We are not the only approved supplier of advertising support and services for the geographic area where we are offering the services.

We and our affiliates are currently the only approved suppliers of certain products and services and approved suppliers of other products and services, as described above. These products and services include proprietary seasoning, proprietary seasoned coater, distribution services, leases of the premises, sublicenses of satellite unit concession premises, subleases of food trucks, leases of marketing assets, equipment, furniture and fixtures, business services, small wares, utensils, operating supplies, promotional goods, advertising support and services and certain insurance coverages for which premiums are paid to Chick-fil-A or through Chick-fil-A acting as administrator (which do not include worker's compensation insurance and general liability insurance). We may change our approved suppliers and sole approved supplier designations at any time in the exercise of our sole and exclusive business judgment. We and our affiliates may in the future be an approved supplier or designated sole supplier for any additional or different products or services you may or must purchase. As an approved supplier or designated sole supplier, we and our affiliates may obtain revenue from you and make a profit.

In the year ended December 31, 2022, our total consolidated revenues from (i) Operator and Licensee purchases of the proprietary seasoning, seasoned coater, business services and operating supplies, utensils, and promotional goods, and (ii) Operator leases of the premises, sublicenses of satellite unit concession premises, subleases of food trucks, leases of marketing assets, equipment, furniture, and fixtures was $1,499,104,594 or 23.52% of our total consolidated revenues of $6,373,786,108. We did not offer advertising and support services for a fee in 2022 and did not have any revenue for providing those services in 2022. In 2022, our affiliate CFA Supply, an approved distributor to carry food products, ingredients, and supplies to Chick-fil-A Restaurants, received $628,698,904 from purchases made by Operators and Licensees in geographic areas it serviced which is included in our consolidated revenues. In 2022, our affiliate Bay Center received $142,998,427 (not including any markup added by the distributor(s) at the time of resale) from purchases made by Chick-fil-A's authorized distributor(s) for distribution of lemon juice to Operators and Licensees in geographic areas it serviced which is included in our consolidated revenues.

We estimate that your total purchases and leases from approved or designated suppliers will represent approximately 35% to 64% of your overall purchases and leases in operating your restaurant and 47% to 65% of your overall purchases and leases in establishing your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. The national advertising fund we administer also receives contributions from certain designated suppliers of up to approximately 35% of Operator purchases from these suppliers. Chick-fil-A may receive other forms of compensation directly or indirectly from approved or designated suppliers, which compensation may be in lieu of or in addition to the seasoning, coater and national advertising fund contributions and the incentives described above.

Specifications and Standards: The foundation of each Chick-fil-A Restaurant and Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit and the essence of your Franchise Agreement is your adherence to Chick-fil-A's minimum standards, guidelines and specifications. Every component of Chick-fil-A's restaurant operating system is important to Chick-fil-A and to the operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business as a Chick-fil-A Restaurant. Accordingly, you must operate your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business in full compliance with Chick-fil-A's minimum standards and guidelines for service, food safety, sanitation, quality of products, employee dress, appearance and conduct and other aspects of the operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. These minimum standards and guidelines are specified in Chick-fil-A's operations and training manuals and materials, and other confidential information provided by us to you. To meet our standards, you must, among other things, purchase or lease goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, leasehold improvements or inventory from various suppliers in accordance with our standards and specifications.

We review our specifications and standards when necessary, and we release any modified specifications or standards to you when you need to be familiar with them. In order to protect against possible infringement, we will release specifications or standards dealing with trade secrets or proprietary information only to those suppliers we think are necessary. We reserve the right to be the sole designator of any product, ingredient or other item that requires knowledge of any of our trade secrets or other confidential or proprietary information. We have no obligation to release any of our trade secrets, confidential information or other proprietary information to any proposed alternative supplier.

You must also comply with our sales reporting procedures and other administrative standards. These currently require you to submit financial reports and other items to us.

There is no practice in effect by which Chick-fil-A provides material benefits to you, such as a right of renewal or the granting of additional franchises, based upon your use of designated or approved suppliers, although your franchise is subject to termination if you do not use the designated suppliers with whom Chick-fil-A has exclusive contractual arrangements or you use suppliers not approved by Chick-fil-A.

The requirements described in this Item represent the Chick-fil-A system at the present time. However, Chick-fil-A retains the right to change these requirements, including any single source requirements, as the Chick-fil-A system evolves over time and the needs of the Chick-fil-A system change.

Cooperatives and Interests in Suppliers.

There are currently no buying or distribution cooperatives except for The Chicken Coop Incorporated Cell (“The Coop”). The Coop is a captive reinsurance company owned and controlled by franchised Operators, who are also its reinsureds. The Coop and its subsidiary, a risk purchasing group, were formed to enable Operators to purchase workers’ compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance collectively as a group rather than each Operator sourcing its own workers’ compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance coverages individually through its own insurance agents. The main benefits sought to be achieved from the pooling of Operator risks within a designated retention are to help contain franchised Operators’ overall premium costs, attempt to minimize dramatic premium shifts Operators may experience if adverse claims occur, and to be able to distribute to Operators any built up surplus generated by underwriting profits, subject to certain conditions described below.

Chick-fil-A, Inc. has no ownership interest in The Coop nor is it insured or reinsured by The Coop. Only Operators are reinsured through The Coop. The Operators are directly insured by a licensed insurance company (not affiliated with Chick-fil-A, Inc.) that through a designated retention, reinsures a portion of the covered risks to The Coop. Additional lines of coverage may be added in the future and may be included in the mandatory insurance program. The Coop is central to the workers’ compensation, general liability, auto liability, and employment practices liability insurance program in which all Operators must participate through the licensed independent insurance company that reinsures to the Coop (except that Operators in several states must obtain workers’ compensation insurance through a program required in their state). The states that currently require Operators to buy their workers’ compensation insurance via a State program include North Dakota, Ohio, Washington and Wyoming.

The Coop is governed by a Board of Directors elected by Operators. A majority of the members of the Board of Directors will be Operators (five in total) and consist of a number of members who will serve for a three-year term with additional members nominated by a third party not affiliated with Chick-fil-A.

Each Operator is a shareholder of The Coop and must sign a Participation Agreement in connection with its share ownership of The Coop. If an Operator’s relationship with Chick-fil-A ceases, the Operator’s share in The Coop will be redeemed by The Coop subject to certain terms and conditions.

The Board of Directors of The Coop (together with the board of directors of the independent sponsor) will decide when and if dividends will be paid. Any payment of dividends is subject to regulatory approval and reinsurance requirements and may not be paid unless certain terms and conditions are met.

Officers of Chick-fil-A do not own an interest in any privately held suppliers, or a material interest in any publicly-held suppliers to our Operators and Licensees, except certain officers of Chick-fil-A own an interest in Chick-fil-A and indirectly in our affiliates CFA Supply and Bay Center. Chick-fil-A is a supplier, and in the geographic areas where CFA Supply and Bay Center operate or will operate, they will be a supplier, and with respect to certain products and services, Chick-fil-A and CFA Supply and Bay Center in the geographic areas where CFA Supply and Bay Center operate or will operate, are or will be the sole approved suppliers of certain products and services to our Operators and Licensees.

FINANCING

Chick-fil-A leases and subleases traditional restaurant premises to its Operators. The business terms for these leases and subleases vary depending on the location of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant. If you lease the restaurant premises from us, the term of any Lease for the restaurant premises is the same as the term of your Franchise Agreement. If you sublease the premises from us, you will be required to comply with the terms of the prime lease or ground lease between Chick-fil-A and the landlord. The term of any sublease for the restaurant premises is the same as the term of your Franchise Agreement or the earlier expiration or termination of the lease between Chick-fil-A and the landlord, whichever is shorter. You will be required to make all rental payments to Chick-fil-A. The Lease attached as an exhibit to and a part of your Franchise Agreement governs your occupancy of the restaurant premises. See Items 5 and 6 for more information.

Chick-fil-A enters into Concession Agreements that govern the occupancy of non-traditional satellite unit premises with the owners or managers of the satellite unit premises. If Chick-fil-A offers you the opportunity to operate a satellite unit whether as your initial business or as an additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant, you and Chick-fil-A will enter into the Concession Sublicense Agreement in the form attached as an exhibit to the Additional Business Amendment for Satellite to your Franchise Agreement. The Concession Sublicense Agreement attaches the Concession Agreement (and, if applicable, any underlying prime lease or ground lease). In the case of any satellite unit, the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement incorporated by reference into your Franchise Agreement substitutes for the Lease(s) applicable to a traditional restaurant premises as to the satellite unit. Under the Concession Sublicense Agreement, Chick-fil-A sublicenses its rights and privileges under the Concession Agreement to you, and you accept the sublicense and agree to faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations under the Concession Agreement for the particular satellite premises. You will be a sub-licensee (technically a sub-concessionaire) of the premises. The business terms for these Concession Agreements vary depending on the location of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant. If you sublicense the rights to occupy the satellite restaurant premises from us, the term of the Concession Sublicense Agreement for the satellite restaurant premises is the same as the term of your Franchise Agreement or the earlier expiration or termination of the Concession Agreement, whichever is shorter. You will be required to comply with the terms of the Concession Agreement. In most instances you will make any payments due to the premises owner or manager under the Concession Agreement directly to Chick-fil-A and Chick-fil-A will remit payment to the premises owner or manager. Chick-fil-A will remain liable to the premises owner or manager under the Concession Agreement. See Items 5 and 6 for more information.

If Chick-fil-A offers you the opportunity to operate a food truck as an extension and part of an existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant location, the terms and conditions for operating the food truck will be governed by your Franchise Agreement as amended by the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement you will enter into with Chick-fil-A, with its attached food truck lease. Currently, in most cases, Chick-fil-A leases the food truck from a third party and you must sublease the food truck from Chick-fil-A. Under the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, Chick-fil-A licenses you to operate the food truck and subleases to you the right to use and occupy the food truck. You accept the license and sublease and agree to faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations under the third-party food truck lease. The term of the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement for the food truck is the same as the term of your Franchise Agreement or the earlier expiration or termination of the third-party food truck lease, whichever is shorter. You will be required to comply with the terms of the food truck lease. Chick-fil-A will pay the lease rental payment to the third party under the food truck lease and you will pay Chick-fil-A a food truck usage fee in lieu of making the lease rental payment described in the food truck lease. You will also pay directly to Chick-fil-A any payments other than the lease rental payment due under the food truck lease to the third party. Chick-fil-A will remain liable to the third party under the food truck lease. See Items 5 and 6 for more information.

Chick-fil-A provides extended payment terms for certain pre-opening expenditures under the Franchise Agreement and also rents equipment to its Operators under the Lease and under the Concession Sublicense Agreement for a satellite unit. The monthly equipment rental fee is based on the fair market rental value as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment, currently $750 to $5,000 per month depending on the type of location (free-standing, in-line, drive-thru only, mall or satellite units), exclusive of any applicable sales, use and property taxes, for each franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant operated by an Operator. The term of the extended payment terms for the pre-opening expenditures and the term of the equipment lease are the same as the term of your Franchise Agreement. The equipment rental for a satellite unit could be less than the amount stated above for a satellite unit, including if the owner or manager of the premises provides certain equipment, or more including if the venue is large.

Under the Franchise Agreement, Chick-fil-A will retain a security interest in any business equipment owned by you and your business. If Chick-fil-A allows you to assign the Franchise Agreement to a form of business entity then approved by Chick-fil-A, you must under the Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement that must be signed as a condition of any assignment attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit "B-1" for a corporation and Exhibit "B-2" for a limited liability company personally guarantee the Franchise Agreement, including its attached Lease(s) and any Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for satellite units. (Franchise Agreement, Section 21, Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement, Section 2, Additional Business Amendment (Business Entity), Section 8.) See Items 5, 6 and 15 for more information.

Upon default of your lease, sublease or sublicense obligations or equipment rental obligations under the Lease or Concession Sublicense Agreement for a satellite unit, your liability could include termination of your lease, sublease, sublicense or equipment rental, termination of the Franchise Agreement including its attached Lease(s) and/or any Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) and loss of franchise, and/or payment of entire unpaid amounts and interest, costs of recovery, cost of collection and attorneys' fees and/or reimbursement of Chick-fil-A's costs to perform the obligations you failed to perform together with interest. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 14.11 and 24; Lease, Section 10; Concession Sublicense Agreement, Sections 4 and 9; Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement, Section 6.6.) If you holdover or remain in occupancy of the premises for a non-satellite location after your Lease terminates or expires, the base rent and percentage rent will double, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, but payment will not waive

Chick-fil-A's other rights or remedies. (Lease, Section 11.) If you fail to perform your obligations under the Lease or for a satellite unit under the Concession Sublicense Agreement, including the Concession Agreement, Chick-fil-A may perform and you will reimburse Chick-fil-A's cost, together with interest. (Lease, Section 10.6; Concession Sublicense Agreement, Section 5). Upon default of your obligations under the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement for a food truck, your liability could include termination of the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, potentially termination of the Franchise Agreement including its attached Lease(s) and/or any Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) and loss of franchise, and/or payment of entire unpaid amounts and interest, costs of recovery, cost of collection and attorneys' fees and/or reimbursement of Chick-fil-A's costs to perform the obligations you failed to perform together with interest. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 14.11 and 24; Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, Section 14.)

You waive under the Lease, under the Concession Sublicense Agreement and under the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement the right to trial by jury, the right to pursue class claims and punitive and exemplary damage. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 28.12, 28.13, 28.15; Lease, Section 14.9; Concession Sublicense Agreement, Section 9; Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, Section 9.)

Under the Lease and under the Concession Sublicense Agreement, you waive the service of any notice of intention to re-enter or to institute legal proceedings and any and all rights to redeem the agreement or the Site, or to re-enter the Building or the Site, or to restore the operation of the agreement, after (i) re-entry by Chick-fil-A, (ii) any warrant to dispossess or judgment in ejection or (iii) any expiration or termination of the agreement and the term. If Chick-fil-A elects to recover possession by invoking judicial process, you waive and relinquish any and all protections and rights afforded a commercial tenant under Georgia law, including O.C.G.A. § 44-7-52 or similar law. (Lease, Section 12.2.; Concession Sublicense Agreement, Section 10.) You also waive under the Lease any emergency statutory or other statutory remedy. (Lease, Section 14.9).

In the formula for calculating the fees and expenses owed by each Operator's franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, Chick-fil-A indirectly finances your retention of your Base Profit and Extra Profit if your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business does not produce enough Aggregate Operating Profit to cover these draw items. The specific terms of this arrangement are described in Item 6 of this Disclosure Document.

Although Chick-fil-A has the right to do so, it has not in the past, and does not presently intend in the future to sell, assign or transfer any instrument executed by its Operators to a third party (except that some of Chick-fil-A's lenders may have a security interest in its Franchise Agreements and in its restaurant leases and concession agreements). Chick-fil-A has the right to make an assignment or a transfer; however, in that event, you could lose your defenses against Chick-fil-A as a result of Chick-fil-A's sale or assignment of your Franchise Agreement. (See Section 28 of the Franchise Agreement.)

Whether you can obtain financing will depend on a variety of factors, including your own creditworthiness, the type of security you can offer, the policies of lending institutions and the availability of commercial credit generally.

Except as disclosed in this Item 10, neither Chick-fil-A, nor any affiliate of Chick-fil-A, either directly or indirectly, offers any financing arrangements to Operators. Except as disclosed in this Item 10, Chick-fil-A does not receive any direct or indirect payments for placing financing, nor does Chick-fil-A guarantee your obligations to third parties. Chick-fil-A does not offer financing of equipment or other expenditures that require you to waive notice, confess judgment or waive a defense against Chick-fil-A.

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Chick-fil-A is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, Chick-fil-A will:

- (i) negotiate and execute a prime lease with the landlord of the premises if you are opening a mall or in-line (and in some cases free-standing) restaurant. For free-standing and drive-thru only units which are not leased, Chick-fil-A will acquire an interest in the property on which your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business will be located (See Section 2 of Lease). For satellite units, Chick-fil-A will acquire the right to conduct business and/or a license to operate one or more Chick-fil-A Restaurants at a non-traditional location which are owned and controlled by a third party (See Background Section B of Concession Sublicense Agreement);
- (ii) acquire most of the equipment and other property to be used in your operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business and will install the equipment at the restaurant's premises (See Section 4.1 of Franchise Agreement, Section 2 of Lease and Section 6 of the Concession Sublicense Agreement for a satellite unit); and
- (iii) provide training to you (See Section 16 of Franchise Agreement).

During your operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, Chick-fil-A will:

- (i) establish and administer a program for collecting and accounting for the sales receipts of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business and then facilitate your payment of the rent, any equipment rental and any other payments or charges due pursuant to the Lease or the Concession Sublicense Agreement (and its attached Concession Agreement) for the restaurant premises, certain insurance premiums, advertising contributions, any fees or charges pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and other amounts owed to Chick-fil-A and/or suppliers by you in the manner described in Item 6 of this Disclosure Document (See Section 14.12 of Franchise Agreement);
- (ii) provide certain business services in connection with the establishment, administration and disposition of the sales receipts of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business in the manner described in Item 6 of this Disclosure Document (See Section 14.12 of Franchise Agreement);
- (iii) furnish a fee calculation report to you each month containing specified financial information and calculations concerning the previous month's performance of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business and permit you to examine the financial records that you provide to Chick-fil-A during normal business hours (See Sections 15.1 and 15.2 of Franchise Agreement); and
- (iv) administer the use of any collected advertising fees, if any, for promotional activities, promotional materials, and national, regional and/or local advertising (See Section 17 of Franchise Agreement). Chick-fil-A's advertising program may include national, regional or local advertising in print, radio, television, out-of-home, and/or digital and social channels. Chick-fil-A's advertising is generated by in-house advertising talent and multiple agencies.

If you are granted the right to operate additional Chick-fil-A Restaurants under your Franchise Agreement, for each additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant Chick-fil-A will provide the same assistance as described above, except that Chick-fil-A will not provide initial Operator training to you again.

Advertising: Until June 30, 1989, Operators were required to pay 3¼% of Gross Receipts to the advertising fund, but effective July 1, 1989, the amount of this payment was reduced to 0% as a matter of policy. We do not presently require Operators to contribute to the advertising fund as a matter of internal policy, but we reserve the right to return and may return to the 3¼% or another program at any time. We expect you to implement local advertising; however, you must use only those materials approved or supplied by Chick-fil-A. Operators in the same market or geographical region, as determined by Chick-fil-A, sometimes cooperate with each other to implement local or regional advertising. However, Chick-fil-A does not fund local or regional advertising. Operator cooperation could also include leasing marketing assets, including branded activation units, spectacular cow creatives, and branded props from Chick-fil-A for shared use of the related asset. If a majority of the Operators in your area vote (or have previously voted) to implement a local or regional advertising fund or initiative, you will be required to participate and contribute to the fund or initiative. We administer the local or regional advertising funds, which are not audited. We will make the unaudited financial statements of your local or regional advertising fund available for your review upon your request. You and the other Operators in your area will establish the amount of the contribution by majority vote. As part of local, regional or national marketing efforts, Operators are periodically required to participate in temporary or permanent promotional campaigns, honor coupons and participate in giveaway promotions for food or drink items at their respective Chick-fil-A Restaurants, for which the Operators may not be reimbursed. You must participate in these promotional programs and campaigns and, at Chick-fil-A's election, your participation may be at your own cost, including the costs to purchase, lease and install all promotional campaign materials and devices, including counter cards, posters, banners, signs, photographs, give-away items and gift cards. Chick-fil-A owned restaurants contribute to any national and any local or regional advertising fund on the same basis as Operators. During fiscal year 2022, no funds were required to be contributed to a national advertising fund. Chick-fil-A is not required to spend any certain amount on advertising in your area. If Chick-fil-A requires you to contribute to the advertising fund or you contribute advertising fees to a local or regional fund and they are not all spent in the fiscal year in which they are charged, the remaining amounts are either returned or rolled over (depending upon the particular program) to the next year's budget. You will not receive a periodic accounting of how advertising fees are spent. Chick-fil-A's advertising accounts, if any, are not trust funds, and Chick-fil-A is not your fiduciary with respect to any advertising funds. Chick-fil-A is not required to ensure that any Operator benefits directly or pro rata from the expenditure of any advertising funds. (See Section 17 of Franchise Agreement).

Chick-fil-A may offer to provide optional advertising support and services to Operators at the local, store, market or regional advertising level on a formal basis for a fee through our in-house advertising agency as an alternative choice for Operators to third party advertising agencies. Operators have traditionally engaged third party advertising agencies to provide these same types of additional advertising support and services. We also have assisted Operators in the past with other advertising support and services, and to the extent we were able, on an informal basis and without charging any additional fees, including providing certain advice and creative resources to support local, store, market or regional advertising initiatives by Operators. For these other types of advertising support and services, we intend to continue providing a similar level of advertising services and support, to the extent we are able.

Selection of Location: Each franchised Operator is granted a license to operate a specific franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location selected and approved by us. Additionally, Operators may be granted a license to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses at locations selected and approved by us. However, Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses and expressly reserves the right not to offer you the opportunity to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses. Chick-fil-A selects the site of all Chick-fil-A Restaurants. Chick-fil-A Restaurants are located in, among other places, shopping malls and in-line units, free-standing locations, locations that are drive through only and non-traditional satellite locations. In selecting locations for free-standing units, in-line units, and mall units, Chick-fil-A bases its decisions on the availability and terms offered for the proposed site, demographic reports, traffic information, the identity of adjacent tenants and owners, the lease terms offered by landlords or other site suppliers, the sales terms offered by land sellers, and other factors relevant to the possible profitable operation of a Chick-fil-A Restaurant.

Hardware and Software System: Chick-fil-A will obtain a point-of-sale (POS) hardware and software system and a management PC for use in your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, which will be leased to you as part of your equipment rental. Chick-fil-A Restaurants typically use a POS system with accompanying software, which performs standard electronic cash register support, kitchen display systems, time clock and financial and reporting functions. Other hardware and software systems that perform the same or substantially similar functions may be provided by Chick-fil-A. You must pay fees for high-speed internet access for you and your customers, as applicable, if your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business is equipped with this service, and you must also pay a fee for technical support of the hardware and software system used in your Restaurant. These fees may range from $9,500 per year to $20,000 per year for high-speed internet access and equipment support and software upgrades and are dependent upon the type of system used in your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. Chick-fil-A will have independent access to the data compiled by the hardware and software system used in your Restaurant. If the owner or manager of the premises of a satellite unit you operate as an additional Chick-fil-A Restaurant provides a POS system with accompanying software, high-speed internet access or other equipment, software or support services that you must use at the satellite unit, the fees you pay to Chick-fil-A may be reduced and you may pay fees to the owner or manager of the satellite unit premises. Chick-fil-A may also not have independent access to the data compiled by the satellite unit's POS system.

Length of Time to Restaurant Opening: Chick-fil-A locates and purchases or leases or obtains occupancy rights for the premises of a proposed restaurant prior to the time that it seeks or contracts with an Operator for the operation of the particular restaurant. It is Chick-fil-A's experience that the typical length of time between the signing of a Franchise Agreement or Additional Business Amendment, or the payment of the initial franchise fee by the prospective Operator or an additional franchise fee, and the opening of the Operator's Chick-fil-A Restaurant, is approximately six to twelve weeks. The actual length of this period will depend upon such factors as the length of time necessary for completion of construction, making leasehold improvements and remodeling, installing equipment, fixtures and furnishings, procuring initial inventories and other similar matters, and may vary widely under some circumstances.

Initial Training Program: You must participate in an initial training program provided by Chick-fil-A. The program is in person and lasts approximately 3-4 weeks, but the actual location and length of the program varies. The program currently utilized by Chick-fil-A covers most aspects of operations, food preparation, accounting, service and customer relations, communications, maintenance, purchasing, planning, management styles, policies and marketing.

Each training program begins at a specific time and date to be determined by Chick-fil-A. Unless Chick-fil-A otherwise informs you, you must successfully complete your training prior to commencing the operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. Chick-fil-A pays for the cost and expense of providing this training program to each franchised Operator. You are not an employee of Chick-fil-A and will not be compensated by Chick-fil-A for or during any training described in this Item.

The training program is conducted by Chick-fil-A's professional training staff, which is directed by Ms. Keri Bilotti. The program's principal instructional materials are the Chick-fil-A operations and training manuals and other materials. Other employees of Chick-fil-A may participate in the training program in their respective areas of expertise. Ms. Bilotti has fifteen years of experience with Chick-fil-A in the restaurant field. Ms. Bilotti's relevant prior experiences is described in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document.

* “Hours of Classroom Training” represents time spent in a physical classroom at Chick-fil-A’s corporate headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. “Hours of “On the Job” Training” represents time spent in company operated restaurants and/or franchised restaurants of other franchised operators.

Training in all subjects is conducted approximately seven times each year. Chick-fil-A intends, though is not obligated, to prepare and offer various seminars and conferences to Operators in addition to its initial training program. Discussions at these seminars will likely feature topics such as sales techniques, performance standards, marketing programs, self-improvement techniques and other matters. All details concerning any programs, if offered, such as time, location, duration, cost assessment and other matters, will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Chick-fil-A may under the terms of the Franchise Agreement require the participation of Operators in these programs.

In addition, Chick-fil-A may at its election, but is not obligated to, offer various programs to or permit the adoption of programs by Operators to use in promoting or marketing products, recruiting and retaining restaurant personnel or for other purposes that are not expressly set forth in the Franchise Agreement. All details concerning any of these programs, such as purpose, timing, implementation, cost sharing and other matters, will be determined by Chick-fil-A on a case-by-case basis.

You must train any managerial personnel that you may hire to assist in operating your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. Subject to your obligations under the Franchise Agreement regarding confidentiality, you may use Chick-fil-A's proprietary operations and training manuals and materials in the training.

Operating Manual: The Tables of Contents of Chick-fil-A's proprietary operations and training manuals, showing the number of pages in each section, are attached for your review as Exhibit "D" to this Disclosure Document. The total number of pages in the operations and training manuals is 619.

TERRITORY

You will be granted the limited right to operate a Chick-fil-A Restaurant at a specific location designated by Chick-fil-A. The rights granted to you under the Franchise Agreement are limited to your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location only and any additional business locations designated under an Additional Business Amendment to the Franchise Agreement. If Chick-fil-A offers you the opportunity to operate a food truck as an extension and part of an existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant location, you will use and operate the food truck only at the locations registered and approved by Chick-fil-A under Chick-fil-A's then current programs, standards and procedures for food trucks. You will neither acquire nor have any right to use, or to license the use of, any name, mark or other intellectual property right, except as granted to you under the Franchise Agreement in connection with the operation of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business at the specific location(s) designated by Chick-fil-A.

You will not receive an exclusive or protected territory, express or implied. The Franchise Agreement contains no exclusive grant, exclusive area, exclusive territorial rights, protected territory or right for you to exclude, disapprove, control or impose conditions on the location, development or operation of current or future Chick-fil-A Restaurants. The sales and customer trading patterns that a Chick-fil-A Restaurant experiences at any particular time are subject to change by reason of many factors, including our ongoing development of Chick-fil-A Restaurants, and franchised Operators do not have a right and should not expect that these patterns will never change. Chick-fil-A has the right to establish other Operator-run, Licensee-run or company-owned or operated restaurants both within and outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location, and reserves the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing both within and outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location. Any internal policies that we may develop, apply and modify periodically in connection with decisions to develop new Chick-fil-A Restaurants do not grant you any contract rights, are not part of your contract, and do not modify or affect Chick-fil-A's or your contract rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement. Chick-fil-A's internal programs and policies are subject to change or cancellation at any time by Chick-fil-A.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees or licensees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Our affiliates may also own and operate Chick-fil-A Restaurants or control competitive brands. We are not required to pay you if we exercise any of the rights specified above outside or inside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location. We do not restrict you from soliciting or accepting authorized food and beverage orders from outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location (subject to your ability to comply with then-current requirements and standards), but you do not have the right to use other unapproved channels of distribution to make sales outside the geographic and customer trading pattern areas surrounding your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business location.

Only Chick-fil-A may decide to relocate a franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant. If you wish to operate a Chick-fil-A Restaurant in another location instead of your existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant, Chick-fil-A may, but is under no obligation to, grant you a franchise to operate a different Chick-fil-A Restaurant, if available. Operators who are granted a franchise for a different Chick-fil-A Restaurant in this manner are required to terminate their existing Franchise Agreement and to execute a new Franchise Agreement and pay the initial franchise fee due under the new Franchise Agreement. Operators may be granted the right to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses at locations selected and approved by Chick-fil-A. However, Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to offer you the opportunity to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses and reserves the right not to offer you the opportunity to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses.

Certain affiliates of Chick-fil-A operate certain Dwarf House restaurants and Truett's Grill restaurants, which are licensed to sell Chick-fil-A products. The Dwarf House restaurants are modeled after the Dwarf Grill restaurant first opened by S. Truett Cathy in Hapeville, Georgia, in 1946. (The eighteen Dwarf House and Truett's Grill restaurants that currently exist are, directly or indirectly, owned by the family of our founder, S. Truett Cathy.) Depending on the proximity of a Dwarf House or Truett's Grill restaurant to your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant, a Dwarf House or Truett's Grill restaurant may compete with your franchised business.

As described above, Chick-fil-A licenses Chick-fil-A Licensees and continues to offer licenses to prospective Licensees who have access to certain non-traditional locations such as schools, workplaces, universities, airports, hospitals and other similar captive audience locations to sell Chick-fil-A brand products at these locations. Chick-fil-A also grants licenses to franchised Operators and continues to offer licenses to prospective franchised Operators to operate franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurants as Satellite units in office buildings, big-box stores, downtown areas, schools, universities, sports stadiums, theme parks and other similar captive audience locations for which Chick-fil-A has obtained the rights to conduct a restaurant business or concession. Depending on the proximity of a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit or other Chick-fil-A Restaurant to your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant, a Chick-fil-A Licensed Unit or other Chick-fil-A Restaurant may compete with your franchised business. Chick-fil-A has never offered a franchise other than for a Licensed Unit or a franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant in the same or any other line of business, although it reserves the right to do so whether by acquisition or start-up.

Chick-fil-A may operate or license others to operate any business competitive with the business of its Operators and/or its Licensees under a name other than Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A is currently conducting a test of its affiliate New Mile Ventures, LLC's delivery kitchen concept called Little Blue Menu[®] featuring several new virtual restaurants as well as offering Chick-fil-A products. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, Chick-fil-A has not formulated any plans or policies to operate or license others to operate any business under a different name, but Chick-fil-A or its affiliates may establish other or similar businesses at some future date.

As of January 1, 2001, CFA Properties has licensed to Chick-fil-A the right to use the trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, confidential information, inventions and patents used in operating Chick-fil-A Restaurants, and to sublicense them to Chick-fil-A's Operators. The initial term of the license agreement is one year, and the term renews automatically for additional one-year periods unless written notice is given at least 90 days prior to the end of the existing term by either party. Either party may terminate the license agreement with cause if the other party fails to cure a material breach. Except as described, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A’s right to use or license the use of CFA Properties’ trademarks.

Chick-fil-A has the right to protect any or all of CFA Properties’ trademarks at its own expense, including those listed above. CFA Properties may seek to enhance the protection of any of its intellectual property by filing trademark applications. You must notify Chick-fil-A immediately when you learn about possible infringement of CFA Properties’ trademarks. You must cooperate with us in defending the trademarks, but we have no obligation to pay to you any damages or costs recovered in a suit or proceeding, nor are we required to participate in your defense in any suit or proceeding involving the trademarks. Upon any termination of your Franchise Agreement, you must immediately cease all use of CFA Properties’ trademarks.

As described in Item 13, CFA Properties has licensed to Chick-fil-A the right to use the trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, and confidential information, and the right to make, use, offer for sale and sell the inventions of each patent and patent application, in operating Chick-fil-A Restaurants, and to sublicense them to Chick-fil-A’s Operators. The initial term of the license agreement is one year and then renews automatically for additional one-year periods unless written notice is given at least 90 days prior to the end of the existing term by either party. Either party may terminate the license agreement with cause if the other party fails to cure a material breach. Except as described, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A’s right to use or sublicense the use of any CFA Properties patents.

Chick-fil-A has no actual knowledge of any court proceeding or decision, any pending infringement or validity challenge or any other pending material litigation involving any CFA Properties patent.

Chick-fil-A has the sole right to protect and enforce any or all of CFA Properties’ patents at Chick-fil-A’s own expense, including the patent assets listed above. CFA Properties may protect its intellectual property by filing applications, including patent applications. Chick-fil-A has the sole right to determine to file a patent application, continue or end prosecution of a pending patent application, and/or to continue or end payment of maintenance fees for any patent. You must notify Chick-fil-A immediately when you learn about possible infringement of a CFA Properties patent and/or inventions of any CFA Properties patent application. The Franchise Agreement does not require Chick-fil-A to take affirmative action when notified of these possible infringements. You must cooperate with us in defending patents, but we have no obligation to pay to you any damages and costs recovered in a suit or proceeding, nor are we required to participate in your defense in any suit or proceeding involving patents. Upon any termination of your Franchise Agreement, you must immediately cease all use of CFA Properties’ patents and/or the inventions of patent applications.

Chick-fil-A does not actually know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of any CFA Properties patent and/or the inventions of patent applications.

Proprietary Information: As also described in Item 13, CFA Properties owns proprietary rights to, and has licensed to Chick-fil-A the right to use and to sublicense others to use, a number of the products that Chick-fil-A sells and the ingredients and preparation techniques and methods used in preparing them, as well as all development and research records, market research data and information contained in Chick-fil-A's operations and training manuals, or other materials or documents given to you by Chick-fil-A or treated by Chick-fil-A as confidential. Chick-fil-A's seasoning and seasoned coater are two of these primary proprietary items.

The Franchise Agreement requires you to acknowledge that you are likely to be given access to Chick-fil-A's trade secrets, confidential information and other proprietary matters, that this information is proprietary and that its protection is necessary for the proficient and standardized operation of all Chick-fil-A Restaurants.

The Franchise Agreement further requires you to agree that you will not, during the time you are operating a Chick-fil-A Restaurant or at any time afterward, without the express prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, publish or disclose to anyone or use other than as approved or required by Chick-fil-A, any of Chick-fil-A's confidential information that is a trade secret under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia, or a trade secret of CFA Properties under the laws and decisions of the State of Delaware. You must also abide by the same covenant as to Chick-fil-A's other confidential information, but only during the term of your Franchise Agreement and for a period of two years following any expiration or termination of that Agreement.

Except for the license between CFA Properties and Chick-fil-A described above, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A's right to use or sublicense the use of any CFA Properties trade secrets, confidential information and other proprietary matters.

Copyrights: Every CFA Properties original work of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression is protected by copyright law. Chick-fil-A has the sole right to determine whether to register any copyright-protected work. For example, CFA Properties owns copyrights in the operations and training manuals and materials as well as video tapes used in training and other items, including, without limitation, certain advertising, promotional and marketing items and materials which CFA Properties has licensed to Chick-fil-A for its own use and to sublicense to others to use.

There currently are no effective determinations of the United States Copyright Office (Library of Congress) or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials. Except for the license between CFA Properties and Chick-fil-A described above, no other agreement limits Chick-fil-A's right to use or sublicense the use of any CFA Properties copyrighted materials. Further, there are no infringing uses actually known to us which could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials in any state.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Your Franchise Agreement requires you to devote your full time and personal best efforts to operate your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible and to diligently develop and promote the reputation and the goodwill of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, Chick-fil-A and CFA Properties' marks. This requirement will, for all practical purposes, require you to directly supervise your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business. As a result, you will have to keep free from conflicting enterprises or any other activities which would interfere with your exertion of your full time and personal best efforts to operate your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business.

In order to become a franchised Operator of his or her first franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, the Operator must sign the Franchise Agreement, including its attached Lease(s), in his or her individual capacity. Chick-fil-A may allow you to assign the Franchise Agreement to a single corporation, limited liability company or other form of business entity then approved by Chick-fil-A, which is formed solely for your convenience of ownership. Under the Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement that must be signed as a condition of any assignment, you must be the sole owner of the business entity (“Operator-Owner”) and must agree to continue to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Franchise Agreement, including its attached Lease(s). Additionally, the Operator-Owner must guarantee the full and faithful performance by the proposed transferee business entity. The proposed transferee business entity must assume all of the obligations of the Operator-Owner as the original Operator under the Franchise Agreement, including its attached Lease(s). The form of Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement you and the business entity must sign to confirm your continuing obligations and the business entity’s assumption of obligations to enable you to transfer your rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement as franchisee to a business entity is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit “B-1” for a corporation and Exhibit “B-2” for a limited liability company.

If Chick-fil-A offers you the opportunity to operate additional franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant businesses, you individually if you have not assigned the Franchise Agreement, or you as the Operator-Owner after you have assigned the Franchise Agreement to a business entity, will also be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Franchise Agreement and the Additional Business Amendment, including its attached Lease(s) or its attached Concession Sublicense Agreement for any satellite locations, together with the business entity. The forms of Additional Business Amendment you, or you and your business entity, if applicable, must sign to confirm your, and your business entity, if applicable, obligations under the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment, and if applicable the Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement, to enable you to add an additional restaurant under the Franchise Agreement are attached as the following addenda to the Franchise Agreement (which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit “B”): Addendum “1-A” for a Traditional Unit (Sole Proprietorship); Addendum “1-B” for a Traditional Unit (Business Entity); Addendum “2-A” for a Satellite (Sole Proprietorship); and Addendum “2-B” for a Satellite (Business Entity).

If Chick-fil-A offers you the opportunity to operate a food truck as an extension and part of an existing Chick-fil-A Restaurant location, you individually if you have not assigned the Franchise Agreement, or you as the Operator-Owner after you have assigned the Franchise Agreement to a business entity, will also be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, including its attached third party food truck lease. The forms of Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement you, or you and your business entity, if applicable, must sign for the Operator to operate a food truck are attached as the following addenda to the Franchise Agreement (which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit “B”): Addendum “3-A” for a Sole Proprietorship and Addendum “3-B” for a Business Entity.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

Chick-fil-A requires you to offer and sell only the Chick-fil-A brand products and other items that Chick-fil-A has approved. (See Item 8.) If you desire to sell other products in your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, you must request and receive written permission from Chick-fil-A before doing so. Under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, including its attached Lease(s) and its attached Concession Sublicense Agreement for any satellite unit, you are prohibited from using or occupying the premises of your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business for any purpose other than operating your franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business.

You must offer all products that Chick-fil-A designates as required for all Operators or for your particular franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant or associated food truck. For example, your ability to offer certain menu items could be restricted or changed pursuant to the Lease or in the case of any satellite unit, the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement (and, as applicable, any underlying prime lease or ground lease). Satellite units typically may feature and serve only a limited number of menu items which will be designated in the Concession Sublicense Agreement. Your ability to offer certain menu items could be restricted or changed pursuant to the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement and its attached Food Truck Lease. Chick-fil-A has the right during the term of the Franchise Agreement to add additional products to those which you are required to sell.

PUBLIC FIGURES

Chick-fil-A does not use any public figure to promote its franchises.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

As of December 31, 2022, there were approximately 2,806 domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants open and operating, including approximately 2,411 domestic company-operated and franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants and 395 domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units. The domestic Chick-fil-A Licensed Units, which are operated by Chick-fil-A Licensees, and their annual sales volumes are not the subject of these financial performance representations.

As of December 31, 2022, approximately 2,338 of the 2,411 domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants were being operated by Operators and 73 of the 2,411 domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants were being operated by Chick-fil-A or its affiliates. The domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants, which are operated or were operated at any time during calendar year 2022 by Chick-fil-A or its affiliates, and their annual sales volumes are not the subject of these financial performance representations.

Approximately 2,122 of those 2,338 domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants being operated by Operators had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022 and had been operated by Operators during the entire year. Of these 2,122 domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants operated by Operators, 15 were satellite units. Those 15 satellite units and their annual sales volumes are not the subject of these financial performance representations. The remaining 2,107 non-satellite domestic Chick-fil-A Restaurants that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022, and their annual sales volumes, are the subject of these financial performance representations and discussed below.

Approximately 182 of the 2,107 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022 were located in malls and approximately 1,925 of the 2,107 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022 were located in non-mall environments (e.g., free-standing or drive-thru only units).

In 2022, of the approximately 182 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in mall units that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022, the median annual sales volume was $2,694,009 and the average annual sales volume was $3,732,694, with 62 of the 182 or 34% that did as well or better than $3,732,694 in annual sales. The highest and lowest annual sales volume for these domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in mall units that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year in 2022 was $16,220,064 and $1,038,739, respectively. Approximately 32% had annual sales volumes less than $2,300,000; approximately 34% had annual sales volumes between $2,300,000 and $3,700,000; and approximately 34% had annual sales volumes in excess of $3,700,000.

In 2022, of the approximately 1,925 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in non-malls that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022, the median annual sales volume was $8,580,978 and the average annual sales volume was $8,675,749, with 919 of the 1,925 or 48% that did as well or better than $8,675,749 in annual sales. The highest and lowest annual sales volume for these domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in non-malls that had been open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year in 2022 was $16,985,395 and $2,151,516, respectively. Approximately 34% had annual sales volumes less than $7,600,000; approximately 33% had annual sales volumes between $7,600,000 and $9,500,000; and approximately 33% had annual sales volumes in excess of $9,500,000.

During the calendar year ending December 31, 2022, 4 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in mall units permanently closed, of which 0 had been open for less than 12 months, and 13 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in non-mall environments permanently closed, of which 0 had been open less than 12 months.

For purposes of the financial performance representations set forth above, the term “annual sales volume” includes a franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurant’s entire gross receipts (excluding only sales taxes levied upon retail sales and payable over to the appropriate governmental authority) from all sales at, from or related to the franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurant during the applicable calendar year, whether for cash or on a charge, credit or time basis, including sales and services (i) where orders originate and/or are accepted at, in or away from the franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurant, or (ii) pursuant to telephone or other similar orders received or filled at or in the franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurant.

The financial performance representations set forth above are based upon a total of 2,107 domestic non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants that were open and operated by Operators for at least one full calendar year as of December 31, 2022 and had been operated by Operators during the entire year, of which 182 were located in malls and 1,925 were located in non-mall environments. Both non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in malls and non-satellite franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in non-mall environments are similar with respect to their operations and receive similar services from Chick-fil-A. Because franchised non-satellite Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in malls and franchised non-satellite Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants located in non-mall environments achieve generally different levels of financial performance, financial performance representations have been included for each type of restaurant in order to provide information relevant to prospective Operators.

Some franchised Operator Chick-fil-A Restaurants have sold this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you’ll sell as much.

You are urged to consult with appropriate financial, business and legal advisors in connection with the information set forth in this analysis.

The Financial Performance Representations do not reflect the costs of sales or operating expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. The best source of cost and expense data may be from Operators and former Operators, some of whom may be listed in Item 20.

Written substantiation of the data used in preparing the financial performance representation will be made available to you upon reasonable request.

Chick-fil-A may provide you with supplemental information relating to the projected sales of a Chick-fil-A Restaurant at a specific location (the “Supplemental Information”). Any Supplemental Information will be in writing and will explain how it differs from the information contained in this Item 19.

Other than the preceding financial performance representations and any Supplemental Information provided to you, as described above, Chick-fil-A does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. With regard to an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Kelly D. Ludwick, Vice President, Legal - Employment, Franchising & Litigation, telephone number (404) 765-8000, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

2. For purposes of the above table, “Opened” reflects the total number of company-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants opened in each state during each fiscal year.
3. For purposes of the above table, “Outlets Reacquired from Franchisees” includes all instances where a Chick-fil-A Restaurant is transferred from an Operator to Chick-fil-A for any reason. These figures include, among other things, all instances where an Operator voluntarily terminates a Franchise Agreement in order to obtain a commitment to be franchised to operate a different Chick-fil-A Restaurant, the Franchise Agreement is terminated by Chick-fil-A, an Operator or by mutual consent, or an Operator otherwise leaves the Chick-fil-A system.

Note: Chick-fil-A does not intend to open any company-owned Chick-fil-A Licensed Units.

A list of the names of all Operators and the addresses and telephone numbers of their Chick-fil-A Restaurants as of December 31, 2022 are listed in Exhibit “E” to this Disclosure Document. Chick-fil-A owned and operated restaurants are also included in this list and are identified by the designation “TMP.” Also included in Exhibit “E” is a list of Licensees and the addresses and telephone numbers of their outlets as of December 31, 2022. See Item 1 for description of, and differences between, the franchised Operator-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurants and Licensed Units. A list of the names, city and state, and business telephone number (or, if unknown, the last known telephone number) of every Operator who has had a Chick-fil-A Restaurant business terminated, canceled, not renewed or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily ceased to do business under a Chick-fil-A franchise agreement during fiscal year 2022 or who has not communicated with us within ten weeks of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document is attached as Exhibit “F.” If you buy this franchise, your contact information may be disclosed to other buyers when you leave the Chick-fil-A franchise system.

If the franchise being offered relates to a franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business that is a company or affiliate-owned Chick-fil-A Restaurant unit that was previously a franchised outlet, Chick-fil-A will provide you with a Supplemental Item 20 Disclosure regarding the Chick-fil-A Restaurant unit’s past five years of operation. The Supplemental Item 20 Disclosure will list the name, city and state, and current business phone number of each previous owner of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant unit during the prior five-year period, the beginning and ending date of each person’s respective ownership of the franchised Chick-fil-A Restaurant business, the reason for each change in ownership, and when Chick-fil-A retained control of the Chick-fil-A Restaurant unit.

During the last three fiscal years, some former Operators have signed provisions restricting their ability to speak openly about their experiences with us. You may want to speak with current and former Operators, but be aware that not all such Operators will be able to communicate with you.

There are no franchisee associations required to be listed in this Disclosure Document.

Chick-fil-A’s prime leases and ground leases for the various Chick-fil-A Restaurant sites vary substantially from site to site because of the different requirements of landlords and property owners, so there is no model prime lease or ground lease form that will be attached to the Lease that can be said to be a typical prime lease or ground lease by which an Operator will be bound. The same is true for the forms of Concession Agreements for satellite units so that there is no model Concession Agreement form that will be attached to the Concession Sublicense Agreement. In every instance, the Operator will be bound by the terms and conditions of the instruments that affect the subject site.

BACKGROUND

A. Chick-fil-A has developed and licenses a restaurant system for, among other things, the marketing and franchising of a branded network of Chick-fil-A restaurants (as defined below, the “System”) and holds the right to authorize the adoption and licensed use of the System by third-parties at franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses.

B. Chick-fil-A desires to license and grant the Operator the rights necessary to own and operate a franchise regarding one or more restaurant businesses under certain valuable trade names, service marks and trademarks, including the trade name “Chick-fil-A,” and the Operator desires to own and operate each such restaurant business pursuant to the franchise granted in this Agreement, all subject to the terms and conditions below.

C. Chick-fil-A’s license and grant to the Operator of the rights necessary to own and operate a franchise pursuant to the terms and conditions below is part of a set of rights being granted by Chick-fil-A to the Operator under this Agreement to operate each such restaurant business pursuant to the franchise granted in this Agreement.

D. The license and rights granted by Chick-fil-A to the Operator to operate each such restaurant business are expressly set forth in this Agreement, including the applicable Operator Lease(s) or Concession Sublicense Agreement for Satellite Unit (and its attached Concession Agreement) attached to this Agreement or any Additional Business Amendment as an Exhibit, incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by reference.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the above recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties, each intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

SECTION 1 – DEFINITIONS

1.1 This Section 1.1 sets forth the definition of certain terms used in this Agreement. Other definitions are found elsewhere in this Agreement. Defined terms may be used in the singular or plural.

(a) “Additional Business” means any quick-service food Business, other than the Initial Business, to be operated at the Site set forth on the additional business amendment (the “Additional Business Amendment”) the forms of which are attached to this Agreement as Addendum “1-A” (Traditional Unit Sole Proprietorship), Addendum “1-B” (Traditional Unit Business Entity), Addendum “2-A” (Satellite Sole Proprietorship) and Addendum “2-B” (Satellite Business Entity) completed for the particular additional quick-service food Business pursuant to Section 2.6 below;

(b) “Businesses” means, collectively, the Initial Business and any Additional Business(es); “Business” means any one of the Businesses;

(c) “Commencement Date” with respect to a Business means the date on which the Operator begins the on-site day-to-day operation of the Business and otherwise commences discharging the Operator’s obligations operating such Business pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(d) “Concession Agreement” means the written concession agreement between Chick-fil-A and a third party owner or manager of the premises where a “Satellite Unit” (as defined below) is located pursuant to which the owner or manager of the premises grants Chick-fil-A a license to conduct a restaurant business or concession at the premise. If Chick-fil-A offers a license to the Operator to operate a Business as a Satellite Unit, which Chick-fil-A is not obligated to do, Chick-fil-A and the Operator will enter into a written concession sublicense agreement pursuant to which Chick-fil-A sublicenses its rights and privileges under the particular Concession Agreement, and the Operator accepts the sublicense and agrees to faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations under the Concession Agreement (the "Concession Sublicense Agreement") that governs the Operator's occupancy of the particular Satellite Unit premises. To the extent granted to Operator by CFA, the Concession Sublicense Agreement attaches the particular Concession Agreement for the particular Satellite Unit as an exhibit. In the case of a Business under this Agreement that is a Satellite Unit: (i) the signed Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement for any Initial Business that is a Satellite Unit shall be attached to this Agreement as Exhibit "A", in substitution for the Lease, and incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by this reference; and (ii) the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement for any Additional Business that is a Satellite Unit is attached as Exhibit "A" to the applicable Additional Business Amendment for Satellite and incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by this reference. To the extent granted to Operator by CFA, the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement is incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by this reference;

(e) "Food Trucks" means, individually and collectively, all custom food trucks, including equipment, furnishing and fixtures in and on the food truck authorized to be used to produce, hold and/or sell a limited menu of Products, now or hereafter operated under the Trade Name (as defined below) which are part of the System. If Chick-fil-A offers to the Operator a license to operate a Food Truck, which Chick-fil-A is not obligated to do, Chick-fil-A and the Operator will enter into a written license agreement pursuant to which Chick-fil-A licenses the operation of the Food Truck, and the Operator accepts the license and agrees to faithfully perform the Operator's obligations with regard to the Food Truck, (the "Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement"). Any Food Truck licensed by

Chick-fil-A to the Operator under this Agreement is an extension and part of the Operator's Business(es) and not a separate Restaurant or Business. The current forms of the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement are attached to this Agreement as Addendum "3-A" (Sole Proprietorship) and Addendum "3-B" (Business Entity) and the then-current form to be completed for the particular Food Truck pursuant to Section 2.8 below. To the extent granted to Operator by CFA, the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement includes provisions providing for Chick-fil-A to sublease the right to use and occupy the Food Truck to Operator if Chick-fil-A leases the Food Truck from a third party and grants a sublease to the Operator. The form of the lease between Chick-fil-A and the third party (the "Food Truck Lease") will be attached to the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement as an exhibit. To the extent granted to Operator by CFA, the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement and its attached Food Truck Lease is incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by this reference;

(f) "Guidelines" means the operations manuals, quality requirement manuals, the training manuals and all of the confidential policies, manuals, memos, plans, operating standards, programs, guidelines and aids prepared by Chick-fil-A and delivered or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time for or in connection with the Business, in paper, electronic or any other format, as such may be amended, changed, replaced or modified from time to time by Chick-fil-A (collectively, the "Manuals"), with the terms Guidelines, operations manuals, quality requirement manuals, training manuals and Manuals referring at all times to the most current and up-to-date master copy of all such confidential policies, manuals, memos, plans, operating standards, programs, guidelines and aids maintained by Chick-fil-A at its principal place of business;

(g) "Ingredients" means and include each and every ingredient, mix, spice, cooking aid, wrapping, food and beverage container and all other items of any kind or nature necessary or optional for preparing the Products and making same ready for sale to or use by customers of Restaurants;

(h) “Initial Business” means that certain quick-service food Business to be operated at the address listed on the cover page of this Agreement;

(b) the initial term of this Agreement with respect to an Additional Business shall begin on the date set forth on the applicable Additional Business Amendment and shall end on the thirty-first (31st) day of December of the same year.

Such initial term with respect to a Business, together with any and all extensions thereof pursuant to this Agreement, is sometimes referred to in this Agreement as the "Agreed Term" of such Business.

2.2 The Agreed Term, with respect to any Business being operated by the Operator at the end of such Agreed Term, shall be automatically extended, and this Agreement with respect to each such Business, thereby automatically renewed, for successive additional periods of one (1) year, unless written notice of intent not to renew is given by either party to this Agreement to the other at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of such Agreed Term.

2.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, may not renew this Agreement as to one or more or all of the Businesses upon giving written notice to the Operator at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of such Agreed Term, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator, if any one or more of the following events or circumstances should occur with respect to the Operator or any one or more of the Businesses: (i) the Operator has been placed on notice of the existence of a material default under this Agreement, and the default remains uncured at the end of such calendar year; (ii) the Operator has been placed on written notice during such calendar year of the existence of a dispute regarding revenues or payments (including, without limitation, as to fees, charges, expenses, draws, disbursements or distributions), and the dispute remains unresolved at the end of such calendar year; (iii) there has been an unauthorized transfer or attempt at transfer as defined or otherwise prohibited under this Agreement; (iv) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) has failed or been unable during such calendar year to devote full time and personal best efforts to the operation of the Businesses as required under this Agreement; or (v) any other event occurs which is grounds for terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 24.

The Operator's failure to provide timely notice to Chick-fil-A of a decision to either renew or not renew upon the changed terms and conditions offered shall be deemed to be an election by the Operator to terminate this Agreement at the end of such Agreed Term.

2.5 Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary:

(a) this Agreement with respect to a Business (the Site of which may be further subject to a Prime Lease or Ground Lease under the Lease for the Site in a traditional location or further subject to the Concession Agreement and any Prime Lease or Ground Lease under the Concession Sublicense Agreement for the Site that is a Satellite Unit) shall terminate automatically, without any notice to the Operator upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, or any applicable Prime Lease or Ground Lease or Concession Agreement and any Prime Lease or Ground Lease, as the case may be, for the Site of such Business; and

2.7 In the event that the Agreed Term of the Initial Business is terminated by either party to this Agreement or expires for any reason, and the Agreed Term of one or more Additional Businesses remains in effect hereunder, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to designate one of such Additional Businesses as the Initial Business for purposes of either: (i) continuing under this Agreement; or (ii) requiring the Operator to enter into a new Franchise Agreement. The designation shall be made in the exercise of Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment.

Any applicable Food Truck Lease shall be attached to the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement. Any fees, use or rental obligations, however designated, of the Operator with respect to any Food Truck shall be contained in this Agreement and the Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement and its attached Food Truck Lease, if applicable. Any completed Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, including its attached Food Truck Lease, as applicable, when executed by the Operator and Chick-fil-A on Chick-fil-A's then current form, shall be attached to, be an amendment of and shall constitute a part of this Agreement.

3.1 The Operator shall pay an initial franchise fee with respect to the Initial Business of Ten Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($10,000.00) (the "Initial Franchise Fee") upon the execution of this Agreement, which when paid to Chick-fil-A shall be deemed fully earned and non-refundable except as noted in this Agreement. During the Agreed Term for the Initial Business, Five Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($5,000.00) of the Initial Franchise Fee shall be deemed to be and maintained by Chick-fil-A as an initial payment of working capital for the Business(es) under this Agreement (the "working capital deposit"). The Operator must pay such sum to Chick-fil-A in cash or negotiable instrument upon the Operator's execution and delivery of this Agreement.

3.2 If Chick-fil-A offers to the Operator a license to operate one or more Additional Businesses under this Agreement pursuant to Section 2.6 hereof, the Operator shall pay an additional franchise fee with respect to each such Additional Business of Five Thousand Dollars and No/100 Dollars ($5,000.00) (an "Additional Franchise Fee"), which when paid to Chick-fil-A shall be deemed fully earned and non-refundable. The Operator must pay such sum to Chick-fil-A in cash or negotiable instrument upon the Operator's execution and delivery of the Additional Business Amendment for each such Additional Business.

3.3 If Chick-fil-A offers to the Operator a license to operate a different business as the initial business under a new Franchise Agreement, and this Agreement is terminated as part of the re-franchise process, the working capital deposit portion of the Initial Franchise Fee under this Agreement in the amount of Five Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($5,000.00) shall be carried over and applied toward the working capital deposit portion of the initial franchise fee payable under the new Franchise Agreement and the Operator shall pay the balance of the initial franchise fee due under the new Franchise Agreement in the manner provided in the new Franchise Agreement.

Chick-fil-A will deliver each Business to the Operator equipped with the Equipment and Leasehold Improvements (as defined in the Lease or the Concession Sublicense Agreement for the applicable Site) pursuant to the terms and conditions of such Lease or Concession Sublicense Agreement and this Agreement. The Operator shall be responsible for all expenses thereafter incurred in connection with the operation of each Business, except as may otherwise be set forth in this Agreement or mutually agreed upon between Chick-fil-A and the Operator.

4.2 Chick-fil-A hereby licenses and grants to the Operator, and the Operator hereby accepts, the right and limited license to use the Marks and Methods, but only in connection with each Business during its Agreed Term and only in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4.3 The Operator acknowledges that the rights licensed and granted to the Operator in this Agreement are limited and non-exclusive and accordingly that Chick-fil-A and its affiliates may: (i) at any time during the Agreed Term of any Business grant similar licenses to any other person or entity to operate a Restaurant or use the Marks at any place other than the Sites; and (ii) grant a similar license to any other person or entity to operate a Restaurant at any Site effective upon or following the termination of the Operator's franchise to operate the Business at the Site. This Agreement establishes and defines the Operator's franchise to operate each Business at the particular Site for such Business and no so-called "exclusive," "protected" or other territorial rights in the contiguous market area of such Business is hereby granted or inferred. All rights and licenses not expressly granted to the Operator under this Agreement are reserved exclusively by and unto Chick-fil-A.

SECTION 5 – DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY

Any damage to or loss of the Site, the Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, any other fixtures on or improvements to the Site, or any personal property of any person or entity, caused by any act or omission of the Operator, the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers, shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Operator. The Operator shall be solely and exclusively responsible for any and all liability of the Operator and/or Chick-fil-A for personal injury, damage or loss caused by or resulting from any act or omission of the Operator, the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers. This Section 5 is not intended to and does not convey any benefits to any third persons or entities.

SECTION 6 – CHARGES BILLED TO OR PAID BY CHICK-FIL-A

If any charge or cost which the Operator is obligated to pay pursuant to this Agreement is initially billed to or paid by Chick-fil-A, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to rebill such charge or cost to the Operator or seek reimbursement, as applicable. If Chick-fil-A rebills any such charge or cost to the Operator, the Operator hereby agrees to pay promptly the rebilled charge or cost directly to the appropriate business, governmental authority or other person or entity. If Chick-fil-A, at its election, pays any such charge or cost on behalf of the Operator, the Operator shall reimburse Chick-fil-A therefor immediately upon the Operator's receipt of Chick-fil-A's notification of having made such payment, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, either by issuing Chick-fil-A a check or by acknowledging and, to the extent required, approving Chick-fil-A's adjustments to the amounts owed by Chick-fil-A to the Operator or owed by the Operator to Chick-fil-A and paid pursuant to Section 14 hereof.

SECTION 7 – INSURANCE

7.1 With respect to each Business and Site, the Operator agrees to maintain in full force and effect during that portion of the Agreed Term of such Business following the Commencement Date of such Business, at the Operator's own expense, the following insurance for the Business and the Site:

(a) commercial general liability insurance with minimum limits of liability and other terms determined by Chick-fil-A from time to time to provide adequate coverage for the Business and the Site;

(b) commercial automobile liability insurance with minimum limits of liability and other terms determined by Chick-fil-A from time to time to provide adequate coverage for the Business and the Site;

(c) excess/umbrella liability insurance with minimum limits of liability and other terms determined by Chick-fil-A from time to time to provide adequate coverage for the Business and the Site

(d) worker's compensation, unemployment compensation, social security

7.2 Chick-fil-A may from time to time offer to the Operator and, to the extent offered and required, the Operator shall participate in programs of insurance designed to satisfy some or all of the Operator's insurance obligations under Section 7.1 above, through some combination of insurance contracts with outside insurance companies or a self-insurance program maintained by Chick-fil-A, all in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment. The Operator will pay for the cost of the Operator's participation in such programs, including without limitation insurance premiums, claim administration expenses and any other costs rebilled or passed through to the Operator by Chick-fil-A from time to time.

7.3 In the event that Chick-fil-A does not offer the Operator an insurance package or program, or the Operator is directed by Chick-fil-A to purchase directly insurance to satisfy some or all of the Operator's insurance obligations hereunder, all such policies of insurance procured by the Operator shall be issued by insurance companies with a rating classification of not less than A- and a financial size category of VII as rated in the most current available "Best's Insurance Reports," and licensed to do business in the state where the Site being insured is located and are otherwise acceptable to or approved by Chick-fil-A. The coverage under the Operator's insurance must and will be primary, and any other insurance available to or carried by Chick-fil-A will be non-contributory or excess. Except for any workers' compensation insurance procured by the Operator, all insurance procured by the Operator shall be endorsed to name Chick-fil-A and such other parties as may be required pursuant to the terms of any Lease, Prime Lease, Ground Lease or Concession Agreement, as additional insured parties entitling each such party to recover under said policies for any loss or damage occasioned to such party, or its respective servants, agents, employees and contractors, by reason of any negligence of the Operator, the Operator's servants, agents, employees or contractors. Additionally, all such policies procured by the Operator shall comply with the terms and conditions for such policies, if any, established by Chick-fil-A and otherwise contain endorsements providing that such policies may not be materially changed, amended or cancelled with respect to Chick-fil-A, except after thirty (30) days prior written notice from the insurance company to Chick-fil-A. All policies procured by the Operator hereunder shall contain an express waiver of any right to subrogation by the insurance company against Chick-fil-A, whether Chick-fil-A is named as an additional insured or not.

7.4 In the event that Chick-fil-A does not offer the Operator an insurance package, or the Operator is directed by Chick-fil-A to purchase directly insurance to satisfy some or all of the Operator's insurance obligations hereunder, the Operator shall deliver to Chick-fil-A, on or before the day the Operator begins operating a Business, duly executed certificates of insurance with respect to such Business and Site or, if required by Chick-fil-A, original policies, together with reasonably satisfactory evidence of payment of the premiums therefor. The Operator shall deliver similar documentation to Chick-fil-A upon renewals of such policy or policies not less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the term of any coverage thereunder. The minimum limits of insurance coverage the Operator is required to carry under this Agreement shall not limit the Operator's liability under any indemnification hereunder. Chick-fil-A has no duty to confirm the existence of such insurance or to monitor such certificates or original policies.

7.5 Chick-fil-A may from time to time, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, change or modify the minimum insurance requirements provided for hereunder, including without limitation to provide that the Operator purchase and maintain additional, greater or different types

In determining any required minimum types or levels of insurance or placing any required minimum insurance pursuant to this Agreement, Chick-fil-A makes no representations or warranties that such minimum coverage shall be adequate and assumes no responsibility for premium expenses nor guarantees payment for any losses sustained by the Operator.

7.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Operator's obligations under this Section 7 shall be in addition to any insurance and indemnity provisions contained in any Lease, Prime Lease, Ground Lease or Concession Agreement. Operator shall comply with all applicable insurance and indemnity provisions, including any minimum insurance requirement that may be higher than the level contained in this Agreement for a particular coverage.

SECTION 8 – TYPES OF FOOD TO BE SOLD

The Operator shall sell in each Business at retail only the Products or such other items of food, drink or otherwise as have been approved by Chick-fil-A in advance of their sale. If the Operator desires to sell other products in or from a Business, the Operator shall request and must receive written consent from Chick-fil-A to sell such products from such Business prior to doing so. Further, the Operator shall in the Operator's preparation of the Products for sale in the Businesses use only the Ingredients and the Methods or such alternative ingredients, mixes, spices, cooking aids, wrappings, food and beverage containers or other items and/or such alternative recipes or methods of preparation as have been approved by Chick-fil-A in advance of their use.

SECTION 9 – SOURCES OF SUPPLIES

9.1 The Operator must purchase and use only Products and Ingredients and, to the extent designated by Chick-fil-A, services, approved by Chick-fil-A and only from suppliers and/or distributors (the "Suppliers") approved by Chick-fil-A in advance of such purchase. In the event that Chick-fil-A determines, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, that any particular Product, Ingredient or designated service offered for sale by or otherwise purchased from any Supplier does not meet or no longer meets Chick-fil-A's Minimum Standards or Guidelines, or that Chick-fil-A's approval of the particular Product, Ingredient, or designated service, or of any Supplier, or the purchase, supply or distribution of any Product, Ingredient or designated service by any Supplier is withdrawn, the Operator shall immediately cease purchasing from the Supplier or, as applicable, cease using or purchasing the Product, Ingredient or designated service from such Supplier.

9.2 The Operator acknowledges and agrees that in order to, among other things, take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing, Chick-fil-A has the right to negotiate and enter into System-wide purchase and distribution arrangements with, among others, the Suppliers regarding Products, Ingredients, services and other supplies and items deemed necessary or desirable by Chick-fil-A for operating each Business. Among its Suppliers, Chick-fil-A encourages and has the right to require the Operator to use any such System-wide purchase and distribution programs and/or Suppliers for the Operator's purchases of most Products, Ingredients, services and other supplies and items deemed necessary or desirable by Chick-fil-A for operating each Business. When considering whether to approve any particular supplier or to enter into any particular arrangement, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to consider, among other things, whether the supplier can show, to Chick-fil-A's reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet Chick-fil-A's then-current standards and specifications, whether the supplier has adequate quality controls and capacity to meet the Chick-fil-A System's needs promptly and reliably, and whether the supplier's approval or the particular supplier arrangement would enable the Chick-fil-A System as a whole, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies and volume pricing.

SECTION 10 – LIMITATION ON ALTERNATIVES

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Chick-fil-A reserves the right to be the sole designator of the Suppliers of any Product, Ingredient or service which is, or the preparation of which requires knowledge of, any "Trade Secrets" or any "Confidential Information" (as such terms are defined in Section 18 below). Furthermore, Chick-fil-A shall have no obligation to release any Trade Secrets or Confidential Information to any supplier of a proposed alternative product, ingredient or other item of food, drink, service or otherwise or to any proposed alternative supplier.

SECTION 11 – PAYMENTS TO CHICK-FIL-A FOR PRODUCTS OR INGREDIENTS PURCHASED BY OPERATOR

11.1 The Operator acknowledges and agrees that among the Products and Ingredients purchased by the Operator from Chick-fil-A or a Supplier will be Chick-fil-A seasoning and Chick-fil-A seasoned coater, both of which are proprietary and trade secret products of Chick-fil-A used in the preparation of Products to be sold by the Operator to customers. The Operator agrees that Chick-fil-A shall have the right to receive payments for or on account of sales of such seasoning and seasoned coater and, at Chick-fil-A's option, other Products and Ingredients in such manner as Chick-fil-A deems appropriate, including without limitation: (i) from the Operator directly when the Operator purchases the seasoning, seasoned coater or other Product or Ingredient directly from Chick-fil-A or its authorized Suppliers; or (ii) from the person or entity in the supply chain who is the Operator's poultry or other authorized Supplier, or from some other person or entity in the supply chain, when the Operator purchases the chicken product from a Supplier with the seasoning on it, or other Products or Ingredients. Chick-fil-A shall determine the amounts of the payments to be received by Chick-fil-A for the seasoning, seasoned coater and, as applicable, other Products and Ingredients from time to time in its sole and exclusive business judgment. By way of example, but without limiting the foregoing: (i) Chick-fil-A often, but not always, determines the charges for the seasoning by reference to the costs of ingredients or by agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Supplier or other person or entity in the supply chain; and (ii) Chick-fil-A often, but not always, determines the charges for the seasoned coater by a percentage pricing formula applied to Chick-fil-A's costs for the ingredients of the seasoned coater. Chick-fil-A reserves the right to make a profit on any or all such sales of the seasoning, seasoned coater and other Products and Ingredients sold or distributed to the Operator.

11.2 The Operator expressly authorizes Chick-fil-A to develop other Products or Ingredients for which Chick-fil-A will be entitled to receive payments from the Operator or from Suppliers to the Operator in a similar manner as described in Section 11.1 above.

11.3 The Operator agrees to pay all charges and costs for Chick-fil-A seasoning and seasoned coater that may be charged by Chick-fil-A, the Operator's poultry Supplier or any other person or entity in the supply chain in accordance with Sections 11.1 and 11.2 above. Any and all payments to Chick-fil-A, either directly from the Operator or from the Operator's poultry Supplier or any other person or entity in the supply chain, for the seasoning or seasoned coater, or for any other Products or Ingredients as contemplated in Section 11.1 and 11.2 above, shall belong solely to Chick-fil-A. Such payments are not a part of the Gross Receipts, Operating Profit, Base Profit, Extra Profit, Additional Profit (as defined in Section 14.1 below) or any other form of profit, income or receipt in which the Operator has an interest (except to the extent that they are “ordinary and necessary expenses” as contemplated by Section 14.1(b) below, which defines Operating Profit).

SECTION 12 – STANDARDS OF CLEANLINESS, SANITATION AND BUSINESS CONDUCT

12.1 In order to protect the Marks, the public image of and all the goodwill associated with the Marks and the Chick-fil-A System as a whole, the high quality and uniform consistency of the Products, the sanitation of the Businesses and other mutual interests of the Operator and Chick-fil-A, the Operator covenants and agrees that with respect to each Business, during that portion the Agreed Term for a Business following the Commencement Date for such Business, the Operator shall:

(d) operate the Business in full compliance with the Guidelines, the Methods and such other methods and standards and specifications as Chick-fil-A may from time to time prescribe in the Manuals or otherwise in writing, which shall include, without limitation, complete compliance at all times with the Minimum Standards for service, cleanliness, sanitation, quality, type and consistency of Products and Ingredients, employee dress, appearance and conduct and all other aspects of the operation of the Business;

(e) exhibit the Trade Name at the Site as the name of the Business, and consistent with the parties’ franchise relationship hereunder, not use or display to the public, in any manner, any other name, trade name or business name that would be contrary to the mutual interests of the Operator and Chick-fil-A;

(f) hire, train, manage and pay such employees and other parties as the Operator desires or needs to assist in operating the Business and performing the Operator’s duties hereunder, which employees shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Operator as the employer of such employees;

You must comply with all such amendments, modifications and supplements as may be designated or prescribed by Chick-fil-A from time to time, even if those amendments, modifications and supplements require you to incur additional expenditures.

SECTION 13 – INSPECTION

13.1 In order to protect the Marks, the public image of and all goodwill associated with the Marks and the System as a whole, the high quality and uniform consistency of the Products, the cleanliness and sanitation of the Businesses and other interests of Chick-fil-A:

(a) Chick-fil-A, or its designee, shall have the right to inspect any Site at any time during normal Business hours, without notice to the Operator, to determine whether all aspects thereof are in compliance with all Minimum Standards, including, without limitation, quality, cleanliness, sanitation and operation, and that the Operator is otherwise in full compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(b) Chick-fil-A may at the time of any such inspection remove from any Site, without charge to itself, samples of any Products or Ingredients for testing by itself or its designee to ensure that such Products or Ingredients comply with all applicable Minimum Standards. The Operator shall bear the expense of such testing if: (i) the tested item was not a Product or Ingredient or had not been approved by Chick-fil-A in advance of the item's sale; (ii) the supplier of the tested item was not a Supplier or had not otherwise been approved by Chick-fil-A in advance of the item's purchase; (iii) the tested item had been prepared or was being prepared in a manner that was not a Method or had not otherwise been approved by Chick-fil-A in advance of the Method's use; or (iv) the tested item is determined not to be in compliance with any applicable Minimum Standard or provision of this Agreement; and

(c) Operator shall, upon notice from Chick-fil-A or its agent that any such inspected Site or tested item fails to conform to a Minimum Standard or any provision of this Agreement, immediately take any and all steps necessary to correct the cited deficiency, including without limitation immediately ceasing the use of any item, recipe or preparation or delivery method identified by Chick-fil-A as the source of the deficiency and substituting in its place a Product, Ingredient or Method, or otherwise immediately correcting any condition at the Site determined or deemed by Chick-fil-A to be unsanitary, unhealthy, unclean and/or otherwise non-compliant with any applicable Minimum Standard or provision of this Agreement.

13.2 Chick-fil-A may assess and impose fines and costs incurred against the Operator for any failure by the Operator to maintain all applicable Minimum Standards or otherwise comply with the terms and conditions hereof, which fines and costs incurred shall be paid to Chick-fil-A by the Operator as Chick-fil-A reasonably requires. Such fines and costs shall be in addition to any other rights or remedies Chick-fil-A may have.

SECTION 14 – CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF FEES AND OTHER OPERATOR COSTS AND EXPENSES

PREAMBLE: By way of introduction to this Section 14, but without limiting the legal efficacy of Sections 14.1 through 14.13 in any way whatsoever, this Preamble generally describes the concept behind the calculation and payment mechanism set forth in this Section 14 for the Businesses. Generally, after the Operator pays the Businesses' operating costs and expenses out of the Operator's receipts from the operation of the Businesses, the Operator shall pay fees and make certain disbursements from the Operator's remaining receipts on a monthly basis as follows:

(i) with respect to the Initial Business, the Operator retains or, as applicable, may pay to the Operator-Owner a draw, disbursement or other distribution (as defined below, the "Base Profit") equal to One Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($1,000.00);

(ii) the Operator pays Chick-fil-A a Base Operating Service Fee (as defined in Section 14.1(e) for each Business which is equal to fifteen percent (15%) of such Business's Gross Receipts (as defined below), minus the sum of any Equipment Rental (as defined in and pursuant to the terms of the applicable Lease for each Site) and any Business Services Fee (as defined below) paid by the Operator to Chick-fil-A for establishing and administering the program described under Section 14.12 below; and

(iii) the Operator pays Chick-fil-A fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the Operator's net receipts (as provided below).

For purposes of the calculations and payment mechanisms set forth in this Agreement, the Operator shall on a monthly basis retain the Base Profit, and may elect to retain an Extra Profit in any given month with respect to the Initial Business of One Thousand Five Hundred and No/100 Dollars ($1,500.00) as an advance on future profit. To the extent that the Operator's net receipts do not generate enough funds to cover the Base Profit and any Extra Profit when retained by the Operator and the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee (as defined below), the Operator's future receipts during that year must be allocated to cover any existing arrearage of Base Profit, Extra Profit and/or Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee before the Operator can retain any future Additional Profit (as defined below). The precise calculation and payment methods pursuant to which these general goals are implemented are set forth in Sections 14.2 through 14.9 below.

14.1 In addition to all other terms which are defined in this Agreement, the following terms, when used in this Agreement, shall have the following respective meanings:

(a) "Gross Receipts" as to a particular Business for each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of such Business following the Commencement Date of such Business means the Operator's entire gross receipts with respect to such Business (excluding only sales taxes levied upon retail sales and payable over to the appropriate governmental authority) from all sales at, from or related to the Site of such Business during such calendar month, whether for cash or on a charge, credit or time basis, including but not limited to such sales and services (i) where orders originate and/or are accepted by the Operator at, in or away from the Site of such Business, or (ii) pursuant to telephone, internet, online or other similar orders received or filled at or in such Site;

(b) "Operating Profit" as to a particular Business for each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of such Business following the Commencement Date of such Business means the amount by which Gross Receipts for such Business exceeds the ordinary and necessary expenses paid and incurred by the Operator during such calendar month in operating such Business; the term "ordinary and necessary expenses" shall have such meaning as Chick-fil-A reasonably determines from time to time; by way of example and without limitation such term shall not include the following items:

(i) any amount the Operator paid to himself or, as applicable, paid to the Operator-Owner as compensation for services or as a draw, disbursement or other distribution;

(ii) any salary, draw, disbursement or other distribution paid to any member of the Operator's or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's family, to the extent such amount is in excess of the amount of salary which would customarily be paid to an unrelated employee performing similar work or services; and

(iii) the "Base Operating Service Fee" and "Additional Operating Service Fee" (as defined below);

(c) "Aggregate Operating Profit" for a calendar month means the sum of the Operating Profit for such month of all Businesses operated by the Operator;

For purposes of the calculation and payment mechanisms set forth in this Agreement, the Operator shall not have the right to retain a Base Profit with respect to any Additional Business;

(e) "Base Operating Service Fee" as to a particular Business for each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of such Business following the Commencement Date of such Business means the amount by which fifteen percent (15%) of the Gross Receipts for such Business for such calendar month exceeds the Equipment Rental and the Business Services Fee for such Business payable by the Operator to Chick-fil-A for such calendar month;

(f) "Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee" for a calendar month means the sum of the Base Operating Service Fee for such month of all Businesses operated by the Operator;

(g) "Net Profit for Initial Business" of the Initial Business for each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of the Initial Business following the Commencement Date of the Initial Business means the difference between: (i) the Operating Profit for such calendar month; and (ii) the sum of: [A] the Base Operating Service Fee for such calendar month; [B] the Base Profit for such calendar month; [C] the Base Profit Offsets (as defined below) at the effective date of computation; and [D] the Service Fee Offsets (as defined below) at the effective date of computation;

(h) "Net Profit for Additional Business" for a particular Additional Business for each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term for such Additional Business following the Commencement Date for such Additional Business means the difference between: (i) the Operating Profit for such Additional Business for such calendar month and (ii) the Base Operating Service Fee for such Additional Business for such calendar month;

(i) "Aggregate Net Profit" for a calendar month means the Net Profit for Initial Business for such month plus the sum of the Net Profit for Additional Business for such month of all Additional Businesses operated by the Operator;

(j) "Additional Operating Service Fee" as to a particular Business for each calendar month of that portion of the Agreed Term of such Business following the Commencement Date of such Business means (i) in the case of the Initial Business, fifty

(m) “Aggregate Additional Profit” for a calendar month means the sum of the Additional Profit for such month of all Businesses operated by the Operator;

(n) “Extra Profit” for each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of the Initial Business following the Commencement Date of such Initial Business means any advance on Additional Profit in the maximum amount of One Thousand Five Hundred and No/100 Dollars ($1,500.00). For purposes of the calculation and payment mechanisms set forth in this Agreement, the Operator shall not have the right to retain an Extra Profit with respect to any Additional Business;

(o) “Base Profit Offsets” is a floating amount that is zero (-0-) at the Commencement Date of the Initial Business and at the beginning of each calendar year thereafter during such time as the Agreed Term of any Business remains in effect hereunder and is: (i) increased from time to time during each such calendar year by the amount of all Base Profit retained by the Operator but not covered by Aggregate Operating Profit; and (ii) decreased from time to time during each such calendar year when and to the extent subsequent Aggregate Operating Profit is sufficient to cover such Base Profit; all as set forth in Sections 14.3 through 14.9 below;

14.2 As set forth in and subject to Sections 14.3 through 14.10 below, the Operator shall pay Chick-fil-A, at Atlanta, Georgia, from the Aggregate Operating Profit of the Businesses for each calendar month the sum of the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee and the Aggregate Additional Operating Service Fee for such calendar month, and shall retain for himself an amount equal to the sum of the Base Profit for such calendar month, any Extra Profit for such calendar month and any Aggregate Additional Profit in excess of Extra Profit for such calendar month, less any Extra Offsets (not to exceed the Aggregate Additional Profit for such calendar month).

14.3 If the Aggregate Operating Profit for such calendar month is greater than or equal to the sum of: [A] the Base Profit; [B] the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee for such calendar month; [C] two times the Extra Profit; [D] two times the Extra Offsets; [E] the Base Profit Offsets; and [F] the Service Fee Offsets; then:

(a) the Operator shall have the right for purposes of the calculation and payment mechanisms set forth in this Agreement to retain:

(a) the Operator shall have the right for purposes of the calculation and payment mechanisms set forth in this Agreement to:

(i) retain the Base Profit; and

(ii) take the Extra Profit, thereby increasing the Extra Offsets as set forth in 14.7(e) below;

(b) the Operator shall pay to Chick-fil-A the sum of: (i) the Aggregate Base Operating Service Fee for such calendar month; and (ii) the amount by which: [A] the

14.8 If the Aggregate Operating Profit for such calendar month is less than the sum described in the heading of Section 14.7 above but is greater than or equal to the Base Profit; then:

(a) the Operator shall have the right for purposes of the calculation and payment mechanisms set forth in this Agreement to:

(i) retain the Base Profit;
and

(b) the Operator shall pay Chick-fil-A nothing;

14.10 The Operator agrees to pay to Chick-fil-A when due all required payments under this Agreement and any attached Lease(s) and as applicable Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), including without limitation the payments set forth in this Section 14.

(a) Pursuant to this Agreement and any then current policies that Chick-fil-A may establish from time to time, Chick-fil-A may, at the end of any calendar year during such time as the Agreed Term of any Business remains in effect hereunder, reduce the Base Operating Service Fee for such calendar year by the amount that the Extra Profit retained by the Operator for such year exceeds and is not covered by the Aggregate Additional Profit as of the end of such applicable calendar year.

(b) The amount of any draws, disbursements, payments or other distributions taken or otherwise received by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) that constitute excess distributions or other payments retained by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) not authorized hereunder shall be deemed an overdrawn balance under this Agreement (collectively "Overdrawn Balance"). Pursuant to this Agreement and any then current policies that Chick-fil-A may establish from time to time, the Operator shall upon demand by Chick-fil-A at the end of any calendar month or calendar year during such time as the Agreed Term of any Business remains in effect also pay to Chick-fil-A as required payments under this Agreement the amount of any and all then existing Overdrawn Balance that is not covered by the Aggregate Additional Profit as of the end of such applicable calendar month and/or calendar year.

14.11 All payments to be made by the Operator to Chick-fil-A for any calendar month hereunder shall accrue on a daily basis and shall be due and payable at Atlanta, Georgia at such time and in such manner (including without limitation on a daily basis during the month of accrual through interbank transfers) determined by Chick-fil-A pursuant to Section 14.12 below. In the event that the Operator is past due on the payment of any amount due Chick-fil-A under this Agreement, including without limitation Base Operating Service Fees, Additional Operating Service Fees, rental amounts and accrued interest or on account of any Overdrawn Balance, Chick-fil-A shall have the right at its option to require the Operator, to the extent permitted by law, to pay interest on any such past due amount for the period beginning with the original due date for payment to the date of actual payment at an annual rate equal to the highest rate allowed by law or, if there is no maximum rate permitted by law, then a rate equal to one and one-quarter percent (1.25%) per month. Such interest will be calculated on the basis of monthly compounding and the actual number of days elapsed divided by 365. Such interest shall be in addition to any other rights or remedies Chick-fil-A may have under this Agreement.

14.12 The Operator hereby appoints Chick-fil-A as its agent to establish and administer a program for collecting and accounting for the Operator's Gross Receipts, and facilitating the Operator's payment of the Rent, any Equipment Rental and any other payments or charges due pursuant to the Lease or any Concession Sublicense Agreement for each Site, or pursuant to any Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement, insurance premiums pursuant to Section 7 above, Advertising Contributions, any fees or charges pursuant to Section 14.13 below, and other amounts owed to Chick-fil-A and/or Suppliers by the Operator, in such a manner as Chick-fil-A reasonably deems necessary or appropriate from time to time to accomplish the calculations and the payments and retentions described in this Section 14. The Operator agrees to take such actions as Chick-fil-A reasonably requires in fulfilling its obligations pursuant to the previous sentence, including without limitation establishing and/or terminating a local bank account (with allowance for funds to be transferred therefrom by Chick-fil-A through an approved third-party bank or other financial institution), transmitting to Chick-fil-A financial and other information, preparing and delivering financial and other reports and writing checks, all as may be reasonably required by Chick-fil-A from time to time during the Agreed Terms of the Businesses. Chick-fil-A may assess reasonable fines and costs against the Operator for failing to comply with such requirements, which fines and costs shall be paid to Chick-fil-A by the Operator. Such fines and costs shall be in addition to any other rights or remedies Chick-fil-A may have. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A may maintain the Operator's funds in segregated, group and/or general bank account(s) that include the Operator's funds, other franchisees' funds and/or Chick-fil-A's funds, and may disburse such funds, subject to the terms hereof to the extent that such funds belong to the Operator, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment. The Operator may also disburse the Operator's funds from such bank account(s), subject to the terms hereof to the extent such funds belong to the Operator and only to the extent that such disbursement is otherwise expressly authorized in this Agreement. Chick-fil-A may use such funds at its election from time to time prior to the Operator's funds being disbursed pursuant to the terms hereof, and if and only to the extent that Chick-fil-A does so, Chick-fil-A will pay interest on such used funds for the time period of such use at an interest rate and using an allocation method as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time; provided, however, that such interest rate for any applicable period shall not be less than the applicable Prime Rate as published in the Wall Street Journal for the same time period (the "Applicable Prime Rate") and shall not be greater than the Applicable Prime Rate plus one percent. Any such bank account(s) established or maintained by Chick-fil-A are not trust funds or trust accounts. No fiduciary or implied duties, relationships or covenants exist between Chick-fil-A and the Operator arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the program, the account(s), the funds or their respective administration. Except as expressly set forth above in this Section 14.12, the Operator acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A only, and not the Operator, is entitled to receive the earnings credits, interest and/or any other banking benefits, if any, earned, awarded or elected from time to time on such account(s) and the funds in such account(s) as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment from time to time.

14.13 As it deems appropriate from time to time, Chick-fil-A may offer to the Operator, directly or indirectly through an approved Supplier, and the Operator shall utilize to the extent offered, other business services designed to complement Chick-fil-A's services pursuant to Section 14.12 above and to support, in whole or in part, the Operator's other accounting and business services needs. To the extent offered directly, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to charge and the Operator shall pay a fee in an amount to be determined by Chick-fil-A from time-to-time for such other business services ("Business Services Fee"). To the extent offered indirectly through a Supplier, the Operator will pay for the cost and expense of the Operator's use of such other business services, including without limitation any costs rebilled or passed through to the Operator by Chick-fil-A.

14.14 As set forth in Section 28.3 below, no failure by either party to this Agreement, at any time, or from time to time, to enforce the strict keeping and performance of the terms and conditions of this Section 14, nor any action or course of dealing by either party not consistent with the terms or conditions of this Section 14, shall constitute a contract modification or waiver of any such, or any other, term or condition at any future time, and shall not prevent such party from insisting on the strict keeping and performance of such, and all other, terms and conditions at the same and all later times.

SECTION 15 – REPORTS AND RECORDS

15.1 The Operator shall furnish to Chick-fil-A separate written or, at Chick-fil-A's election, electronic reports for each Business as and when required by Chick-fil-A pursuant to Section 14.12 above during that portion of the Agreed Term following the Commencement Date, which reports shall contain all financial and other information reasonably requested by Chick-fil-A, including without limitation all information relevant to or necessary for the computation of information to be furnished by Chick-fil-A to the Operator as provided below. For the purpose of calculating and facilitating the mechanism for the payment of the fees and expenses for the Businesses set forth in Section 14, Chick-fil-A will furnish a written fee calculation report to the Operator on or about the fifteenth (15th) day following the end of each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term following the Commencement Date, which report will set forth, as applicable, the Gross Receipts, Operating Profit, Base Profit, Extra Profit, Base Operating Service Fee, Net Profit for Initial Business, Additional Operating Service Fee and Additional Profit for such calendar month and such other information as Chick-fil-A deems necessary or appropriate (“Fee Calculation Report”).

15.2 The Operator shall send to Chick-fil-A, at its election, copies, electronic versions or the originals of all financial records concerning each Business and all transactions undertaken by the Operator in the operation of each Business so as to enable Chick-fil-A to accurately determine all amounts owed to it by the Operator (and vice-versa) hereunder, and to produce the Fee Calculation Report as described above. Chick-fil-A agrees to permit said records to be examined from time to time by the Operator during normal business hours. The Operator will maintain, as the case may be, the originals or complete duplicates of any files submitted to Chick-fil-A to the extent that the Operator deems necessary or appropriate.

15.3 The Operator agrees to abide by all applicable laws pertaining to the privacy of customers’ and employees’ information, including without limitation, transactional information (“Privacy Laws”). The Operator agrees to stay in full compliance with all of Chick-fil-A’s standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws. If there is a conflict between Chick-fil-A’s standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws and actual applicable law, the Operator shall comply with the requirements of applicable law. Other than as set forth in this Agreement, the Operator agrees not to publish, disseminate, implement, or use a data privacy policy inconsistent with Chick-fil-A’s policy.

15.4 During the Agreed Term of any Business, the Operator and the Operator’s employees may have access to and/or be required to use software and/or hardware, including but not limited to any computer and point of sale system installed at such Business, as Chick-fil-A may from time to time designate or otherwise require, whether owned or provided by Chick-fil-A, an affiliate or a third party. In connection with the access to and/or use of such software and/or hardware: (i) the Operator shall adopt and abide by, and shall cause Operator’s employees to adopt and abide by, any and all applicable policies, terms and conditions, and/or licenses as may be requested or required by Chick-fil-A to enable the Operator, and as applicable the Operator’s employees, to lawfully use any such software or hardware; and (ii) the Operator may from time to time be required to sign and/or otherwise acknowledge, and shall cause Operator’s employees to sign and/or otherwise acknowledge, such policies, terms of use and/or licenses. The Operator shall be responsible for any and all access to and/or use of such software and/or hardware by the Operator’s employees, including, without limitation, insuring the compliance of the Operator’s employees with all such applicable policies, terms and conditions, as well as obtaining all required Operator employee signatures and acknowledgments. As Chick-fil-A may from time to time designate or otherwise require, Chick-fil-A, an affiliate or a third party may provide hardware and software support and, in the event that such support is offered and provided, may charge the Operator a fee in connection with such services. The scope of the warranty for any designated hardware or software cannot be increased or changed by any written or oral information, advice, or assurances that Chick-fil-A or its employees or agents may provide to the Operator. In connection with providing software and/or hardware to the Operator for use by the Operator, and as applicable the Operator’s employees, or otherwise in connection with the Business, Chick-fil-A may have access to, and may use, certain data that the Operator collects from customers and potential customers in connection with the Businesses (“Customer Data”). The Operator acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A or its affiliate owns all Customer Data collected by or stored on Chick-fil-A platforms or systems. The Operator shall use any such Customer Data only in connection with operating the Businesses and only in accordance with the standards and policies that Chick-fil-A establishes from time to time, if any, and shall not sell, transfer, or use Customer Data for any purpose other than operating the Businesses and marketing the Businesses and the Products.

15.5 All reports and fee receivable reports, including but not limited to any Fee Calculation Report, furnished to the Operator by Chick-fil-A pursuant to Section 14 hereunder shall conclusively be deemed true and correct and binding upon the Operator and be incontestable, unless the Operator shall deliver to Chick-fil-A specific written objection to the contents of such a report, setting forth the specific transactions or items objected to and the basis of such objections, within six (6) months from the date such report was delivered, transmitted, or otherwise made available to the Operator. No action, suit, proceeding or claim arising out of or concerning any Fee Calculation Report or other fee receivable report rendered by Chick-fil-A hereunder may be brought or maintained against Chick-fil-A unless commenced within one (1) year after the date such report is delivered, transmitted or otherwise made available to the Operator; otherwise, the claim and the right to any remedy, if any, shall be deemed released, waived and otherwise lost.

SECTION 16 – TRAINING

In order to (i) attempt to achieve the most profitable possible operation by the Operator of the Businesses, (ii) protect the high quality and uniform consistency of the Products, and (iii) protect the reputation and goodwill of the Businesses, all other Restaurants, the Marks, Chick-fil-A and the System, Chick-fil-A will offer the Operator, an initial training program, the length, location, program and frequency of which shall be determined by Chick-fil-A, and the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) shall participate in and successfully complete the initial training program to Chick-fil-A’s satisfaction. In the event this Agreement is terminated as to all then-existing Businesses for any reason by the Operator at any time after the date hereof but prior to the one (1) year anniversary of the Commencement Date, if any, for the Initial Business (if the Initial Business is the Operator’s first Chick-fil-A Restaurant), the Operator shall reimburse Chick-fil-A upon request after such termination for all costs and expenses incurred by Chick-fil-A in the training of the Operator. The Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) may also be required to participate in other training programs, if any, offered by Chick-fil-A from time to time.

SECTION 17 – ADVERTISING

17.1 Chick-fil-A or its designee shall at Chick-fil-A’s election exclusively maintain and administer a fund (the “Fund”) for branding, advertising, marketing, promotional activities, promotional materials and public relations and/or national, regional and/or local branding, advertising, marketing, promotional activities and promotional materials for the Restaurants (the “Advertising”), and shall direct all Advertising (including, without limitation, the concepts, materials, endorsements and media used and the placement and allocation of all contributions to the Fund) pursuant to its sole and exclusive business judgment. To support the Advertising, the Operator, with respect to each Business, shall pay into the Fund each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of a Business following the Commencement Date of such Business, or on such other frequency and terms as Chick-fil-A shall determine, an amount to be determined by Chick-fil-A from time to time hereafter (the “Advertising Contributions”). Said

Advertising Contributions shall be part of the Fund and are nonrefundable.

17.2 The Fund may be maintained by Chick-fil-A on the Operator's books, as a separate bank account in Chick-fil-A's name, or in a segregated, group and/or general bank account(s) that include the Operator's funds, other franchisees' funds and/or Chick-fil-A's funds (provided Chick-fil-A maintains appropriate accounting procedures to distinguish between or among any such group or general bank account(s)), in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment. Any and all interest which may accrue or be earned on funds that are part of the Fund shall belong to Chick-fil-A and be to Chick-fil-A's benefit. The funds contributed to the Fund are not and shall not be considered to be trust funds and the account(s) maintaining such funds are not and shall not be considered to be trust accounts.

17.3 The Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Fund and the Advertising are intended to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the Marks and that Chick-fil-A or its designee(s), if any, may administer and use the Fund for national, regional and/or local branding, advertising, marketing, promotional activities, promotional materials, and public relations, including development and production of branding, advertising, marketing and promotional programs and materials, purchase of media, field marketing programs and activities, promotion, new product research and development, quality control, market research, talent fees, website development and maintenance, social networking sites, web-based advertising development, and trade shows. The Operator further agrees that Chick-fil-A may use the Fund to meet any and all Chick-fil-A and third-party costs and expenses incurred incident to the Advertising (including, without limitation, costs and expenses related to the formulation, development, production, media and conduct of such branding, advertising, marketing, promotion, public relations and the administration of the funds used therefor).

17.4 For each calendar month during that portion of the Agreed Term of a Business following the Commencement Date of such Business, Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment, may require the Operator to make expenditures on local branding, advertising, marketing, promotional activities and promotional materials ("Local Advertising") with respect to such Business in an amount equal to all or a portion of the Advertising Contributions which would otherwise be payable to the Fund by the Operator for such calendar month, said expenditures being in lieu of payment of such amount of Advertising Contributions and which amounts are non-refundable. Chick-fil-A may suspend or revoke any such requirement at any time, and upon such suspension or revocation and at Chick-fil-A's election, the Operator shall resume the Operator's payment each calendar month of the full amount of Advertising Contributions to the Fund. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A is not required to ensure that the Operator benefits directly or pro rata from the Advertising, the expenditure of any Advertising Contributions or the administration of the Fund.

17.5 In order to protect the "Trade Secrets" and the "Confidential Information" (as such terms are defined below in Section 18) and the Marks and other interests of Chick-fil-A, the Operator shall submit to Chick-fil-A for Chick-fil-A's prior approval (except with respect to prices to be charged) samples of all branding, advertising, marketing and promotional materials which the Operator intends to use in Local Advertising and which have not been prepared or previously approved by Chick-fil-A or its designated agent. Chick-fil-A may offer to the Operator, from time to time, for use in Local Advertising, marketing and customer educational plans and materials, including without limitation, television and radio commercial recordings, merchandising materials, sales aids, special promotions and similar advertising, marketing, training and educational materials, at a reasonable price, plus shipping and handling. Notwithstanding Chick-fil-A's prior approval of any branding, advertising, marketing or promotional materials, all materials which the Operator uses in Local Advertising must meet and comply with Chick-fil-A's then-current policies, procedures, standards and requirements for branding, advertising, marketing and promotional materials, as specified by Chick-fil-A from time to time.

17.6 The Operator specifically acknowledges and agrees the Operator has no right to and shall not establish a Website (as defined below), nor offer, promote or sell any products or services, or make any use of the Marks through or on the internet without Chick-fil-A's prior written approval. As a condition to granting any such consent, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to establish such requirements as Chick-fil-A deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, the requirement that the Operator's only presence on the internet shall be through a webpage established by Chick-fil-A on Chick-fil-A's webpage or Website. As used in this Agreement, the term Website means an interactive electronic document, contained in a network of computers linked by communications software, including, without limitation, the Internet and World Wide Web home pages. Any Website proposed or established by the Operator shall otherwise be deemed to be "Local Advertising" under this Agreement, and will be subject to, among other things, Chick-fil-A's approval and then-current policies, procedures, standards and requirements under this Section 17.

17.7 The Operator's use of any unapproved branding, advertising, marketing or promotional materials used in Local Marketing, or the Operator's use of any branding, advertising, marketing or promotional materials which otherwise do not comply with the policies, procedures, standards and requirements for such materials, as specified by Chick-fil-A from time to time, shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

17.8 From time to time, Chick-fil-A and/or the Fund may establish temporary or permanent promotional campaigns applicable to the Chick-fil-A System as a whole or to specific advertising market areas. The Operator must display promotional signs and materials and otherwise participate in any such promotional campaigns in the manner Chick-fil-A specifies. The Operator may, at Chick-fil-A's election, be required to participate in these promotional programs at the Operator's own cost, including the costs to purchase, lease and install all promotional campaign materials and devices, including but not limited to counter cards, posters, banners, signs, photographs, give-away items and gift cards.

17.9 The Operator shall allow Chick-fil-A and its representatives and agents to take photographs, videos or any electronic record of the Business and the Operator in connection with the Business and to interview the Operator. Chick-fil-A and its authorized third parties will have the exclusive right and license to use any such photograph, video, electronic record or other material prepared, and Chick-fil-A will not have any obligation to obtain the Operator's authorization, or to compensate the Operator in any manner, in connection with the use of these materials for advertising, training or other purposes. The Operator (and as applicable, the Operator-Owner) waives all claims related to publicity or privacy rights in these photos and, upon Chick-fil-A's request, will obtain waivers of all publicity or privacy rights from all applicable contractors and persons.

SECTION 18 – TRADE SECRETS AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

18.1 Notwithstanding other definitions set forth in this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" means all development and research manuals and records, market research, technical and other data, and preparation, installation or maintenance instructions or specifications relating directly to the Products and Equipment (except to the extent information as to any Product or Equipment purchased by Chick-fil-A from an independent supplier is known to the general public), the Ingredients or the Methods, all materials, information and data contained or otherwise set forth in the Manuals, Chick-fil-A's non-public Website(s) and intranet(s), information or computer systems, or otherwise distributed to the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) at a Chick-fil-A training program, seminar or workshop, and all other materials, information and data of Chick-fil-A treated by Chick-fil-A as confidential or proprietary, whether or not marked confidential, including, without limitation, any prototypes, developmental models or designs, test products or equipment. The term "Trade Secrets" means all Confidential Information that is either a trade secret of Chick-fil-A under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia, or a trade secret of CFA Properties under the laws and decisions of the State of Delaware, including without limitation, the Methods, certain Ingredients (including without limitation the Chick-fil-A seasoning and seasoned coater), and all other non-public Intellectual Property. To the extent that applicable law mandates a definition of "trade secret" inconsistent with the foregoing definition, then the foregoing definition shall be construed in such a manner as to be consistent with the mandated definition under applicable law.

18.2 The Operator hereby acknowledges, agrees and warrants that:

(a) during the Agreed Terms of the Businesses, the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) is likely to be given access to and to become acquainted with or aware of the Trade Secrets and certain Confidential Information;

(b) the Operator understands that the Trade Secrets and Confidential Information were developed, designed and refined by Chick-fil-A at substantial expense, over long periods of time, and that they are secret, confidential and unique to the extent Chick-fil-

A can make them such and that they all constitute the exclusive property of Chick-fil-A and/or CFA Properties; and

(c) the restaurant business is highly competitive and, as a result, the publication, disclosure, transfer, release or use of the Trade Secrets or Confidential Information, in any manner, except as required or authorized in writing by Chick-fil-A or otherwise permitted hereunder, would cause significant, irreparable and long-term damage to Chick-fil-A and CFA Properties.

18.3 The Operator covenants, agrees and warrants that the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) will not, during any Agreed Term or at any time after termination of any Agreed Term, without the express prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, publish, disclose, transfer, access, release or divulge to any individual or entity, or use other than as Chick-fil-A expressly authorizes or directs in writing, any Trade Secrets.

18.4 The Operator covenants, agrees and warrants that the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) will not, during any Agreed Term or at any time during a period of two (2) years from the first date that no Agreed Term remains in effect hereunder, without the express prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, publish, disclose, transfer, access, release or divulge to any individual or entity, or use other than as Chick-fil-A directs, any Confidential Information that does not otherwise constitute Trade Secrets.

18.5 The Operator agrees to disclose promptly to Chick-fil-A any idea, concept, technique or material concerning the Products, Methods or the operation of the Business, including any advertising materials, that the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) or any of the Operator's employees create in the operation of the Business or using the assets of the Business, including relating to any aspect of the Products, the Methods or any Trade Secrets or Confidential Information (collectively, “Ideas”). Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties shall own all rights in any and all Ideas. Any copyrightable Ideas discovered or prepared by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) are “works for hire” under the Copyright Act and Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties will be considered the author and owner of these copyrightable works. If Ideas do not qualify as works made for hire, by signing this Agreement, the Operator assigns to Chick-fil-A and CFA Properties ownership of any and all rights the Operator (and, as applicable, any Operator-Owner) may have, if any, in Ideas. Chick-fil-A and CFA Properties may use the Ideas and any other information provided by the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) in any manner deemed appropriate without compensation. The Operator will, upon request, promptly execute all applications, assignments, or other instruments that Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties deems necessary to apply for and obtain invention rights, patents, patent applications, letters patent, copyrights, trademarks, and reissues of any of these rights in the United States and foreign countries on Ideas and to confirm the assignment to Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties in this Section 18.5 of the sole and exclusive rights, title, and interest in and to the Operator's (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) right in and to Ideas.

SECTION 19 – USE OF THE MARKS

19.1 CFA Properties has granted Chick-fil-A a license to use and to sublicense others to use the Marks and the Intellectual Property owned by CFA Properties including, but not limited to, in the manner contemplated by this Agreement. The Operator agrees that all references in this Agreement regarding all rights and benefits of ownership and the use of the Marks and such other Intellectual Property are understood to run and inure, and it is understood and agreed that such rights and benefits will run and inure, to CFA Properties or Chick-fil-A, as applicable, or their respective successors in interest, as owner or licensee, as applicable.

19.2 The Operator specifically acknowledges and agrees that the Marks and all goodwill associated therewith in the United States of America and worldwide are the exclusive and valuable property of CFA Properties; that Chick-fil-A has the right to use, and to sublicense others to use, the Marks; and that any use of the Marks by the Operator is solely in the Operator's limited, non-exclusive role as a licensee of Chick-fil-A under this Agreement; and that any and all goodwill which might be deemed to have arisen or to arise in the future through the Operator's use of the Marks or other activities under this Agreement, inures directly and exclusively to the benefit of CFA Properties or Chick-fil-A, as applicable. The Operator shall not use the Marks in any manner, either directly or through any other person or entity, other than as specifically allowed by the terms hereof or as otherwise expressly approved or required by Chick-fil-A pursuant to the terms hereof. Chick-fil-A grants the Operator no other rights with respect to the Marks. The Operator further covenants and agrees that the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) will not take, nor knowingly permit, any action which will in any way prejudice or harm the Marks or ownership thereof, or Chick-fil-A's right to use and to license others to use the Marks.

19.3 Chick-fil-A shall have the right, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to protect and defend the Marks at its own expense. The Operator agrees to cooperate with Chick-fil-A in the defense and protection of the Marks and shall promptly and fully advise Chick-fil-A of all knowledge the Operator has concerning any use of a trade name, trademark or other mark that may infringe upon any of the Marks.

19.4 Upon termination of this Agreement with respect to all of the Businesses, for whatever reason, the Operator shall abandon at once any and all use of the Marks for any purpose whatsoever.

SECTION 20 – COMPETITION

20.1 The Operator covenants, agrees and warrants that during any Agreed Term, the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) will not own or be employed or engaged by any individual or entity as a manager, operator or supervisory employee of any other fast food or quick-service restaurant(s) located at or within five (5) miles of any Site under this Agreement; provided, however, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) from being employed in the operation of the Businesses or owning the Operator if an entity.

20.2 The Operator covenants, agrees and warrants that for a continuous period of one (1) year from the first date that no Agreed Term remains in effect hereunder the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) will not own or otherwise be employed or engaged by any individual or entity as a manager, operator or supervisory employee of any fast food or quick-service restaurant(s) located at or within five (5) miles of any Site under this Agreement, other than another Restaurant under an effective franchise agreement with Chick-fil-A. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that, by reason of Chick-fil-A's investment of time and money to develop the System and in the Operator's receipt of training, the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) has obtained and possesses specialized skills, information and abilities regarding Chick-fil-A, the operation of a Restaurant and the System as a result of entering into this Agreement and thereafter becoming trained to be and being an Operator hereunder.

20.3 The Operator further covenants, agrees and warrants that the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) have the skill and/or experience necessary to earn a living in a business or job other than the operation of a Restaurant or a similar establishment, and that the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) would not be prevented or prohibited from being employed and earning a living upon termination of this Agreement if the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) were prohibited from engaging in a business competitive with Chick-fil-A as set forth above.

20.4 If any court or other tribunal having jurisdiction to determine the validity or enforceability of any provision contained in this Section 20 determines that it would be invalid or unenforceable as written, in whole or in part, then the provisions of this Section 20 may and should be modified to the extent or in the manner as is necessary in order for those provisions to be valid and enforceable to the greatest extent possible.

SECTION 21 – TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST

21.1 If the Operator is an individual and a signatory to this Agreement in his or her individual capacity, Chick-fil-A may allow the Operator to assign this Agreement to a single corporation, limited liability company or other form of business entity then approved by Chick-fil-A, if the Operator makes a written request to Chick-fil-A and complies with all of the provisions of this Section 21. The Operator acknowledges, agrees and warrants that Chick-fil-A's consent to any proposed transfer shall be in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment and as such Chick-fil-A may refuse to consent for any reason whatsoever, and Chick-fil-A's consent shall otherwise be conditioned on the Operator meeting Chick-fil-A's then current requirements, which may include without limitation all or any of the following:

(a) The proposed transferee business entity must be newly organized, without prior business activities, and must have organizational documents that clearly state that its activities are confined exclusively to the operation of franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses.

(b) The name of the proposed transferee business entity must not contain any of the Marks including, without limitation, the term “Chick-fil-A[®]” or “CFA”, or any other component(s) or derivative(s) of Chick-fil-A's Marks (including, without limitation, the term “Chick” or “fil”), as part of any entity name or other legal name of the proposed transferee business entity or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols. The name of the proposed transferee business entity must not contain any derogatory or non-professional terms.

(c) The Operator (and as applicable after any approved assignment, the Operator-Owner) must own and control 100% of the ownership interests in the proposed transferee business entity and act (i) as the sole director and principal executive officer of a corporation, or (ii) the sole member (of a member-managed limited liability company) or sole member and manager (of a manager-managed limited liability company) and principal executive officer, if applicable. The Operator (and as applicable after any approved assignment, the Operator-Owner) and the proposed transferee business entity must, jointly and severally, agree not to permit the issuance of any equity interests in the proposed transferee business entity to any person or entity other than the Operator (and as applicable after any approved assignment, the Operator-Owner), or to make, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, any direct or indirect subsequent pledge, sale, assignment, encumbrance, gift, transfer or hypothecation of any legal or beneficial equity interest in the proposed transferee business entity, this Agreement or any interest in the Businesses, or any right or obligations thereunder, either voluntarily or involuntarily, or by operation of law.

(d) The certificate of incorporation, by-laws, certificate of formation, operating or limited liability company agreement and other formation and organizational documents of the proposed transferee business entity, must recite in a form satisfactory to Chick-fil-A that the issuance and transfer of any securities is restricted by the terms of this Agreement, including this Section 21.

(e) Each stock certificate, certificate of membership interest or other equity interest must contain and conspicuously display a statement in a form satisfactory to Chick-fil-A that it is held subject to, and that further assignment, transfer, gift, pledge or hypothecation thereof is subject to, all restrictions imposed upon assignment by this Agreement. In addition, the organizational documents of the proposed transferee business entity must provide that further assignments, transfers, gifts, pledges or hypothecations of the equity interests are prohibited and otherwise subject to all restrictions imposed upon assignments and transfers in this Agreement.

(f) The Operator shall execute and deliver an Assignment and Consent to Assignment, in the form prescribed by Chick-fil-A (the “Assignment”).

(g) Under the Assignment, the Operator (and as applicable, the Operator-Owner) must agree to continue to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of this Agreement. Additionally, the Operator (and as applicable, the Operator-Owner) must guarantee the full and faithful performance by the proposed transferee business entity under this Agreement.

(h) Under the Assignment, the proposed transferee business entity must agree to be bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement and to assume and discharge all of the Operator's obligations hereunder.

(i) The Operator must provide Chick-fil-A with copies of all governing documents of the proposed transferee business entity (e.g., certificate of incorporation or organization, by-laws, stock certificates, operating agreement, membership certificates (if any), etc.) which must be reasonably satisfactory to Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment. The Operator will provide Chick-fil-A with copies of all such governing documents within 30 days following any request.

(j) The Operator must maintain the transferee business entity in good standing in the jurisdiction of its formation, and if applicable, also as a foreign business entity in the state in which the Business is located. The Operator will provide Chick-fil-A with evidence of good standing and legal existence within 30 days following any request.

(k) Under the Assignment, and after any approved assignment during the remaining Agreed Term for any Business, the Operator-Owner shall continue to devote his or her full time and personal best efforts to operating the Business to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible in a manner consistent with Chick-fil-A's operating standards and image in the community where the Business is located and in the nation as a whole, and to diligently develop and promote personally the reputation and the goodwill of the Business, the Marks and Chick-fil-A.

21.2 Except as expressly authorized and provided for above in this Section 21, this Agreement is not assignable or transferable in whole or in part by the Operator or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, by operation of law or otherwise. Accordingly, except as set forth above, the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) may not pledge, sell, assign, encumber, gift, transfer or hypothecate, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law, this Agreement nor any legal or beneficial interest in this Agreement, the Businesses, the Sites or the approved transferee business entity, to any person or entity, and the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) further may not assign the Operator's estate or interest in or sublet the Sites or the Businesses. No proposed pledge, sale, assignment, encumbrance, gift, transfer or hypothecation, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law or otherwise, of this Agreement, the Businesses, the Sites or any interest in any approved transferee business entity shall be made or of any force and effect without Chick-fil-A's written consent and the Operator's full and strict compliance with and performance of all the terms, conditions, representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of this Section 21 and Section 26.

21.3 At all times during the term of this Agreement, this Agreement, including any attached Lease(s) and any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), and all legal, beneficial or equity interest in this Agreement, any attached Lease(s) and any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), the Businesses and their operations, and the Sites must be in the name of the Operator including, if applicable, any transferee business entity that is approved by Chick-fil-A pursuant to the terms, conditions, representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of this Section 21 and Section 26 and expressly appointed and named by Chick-fil-A as the franchised Operator under this Agreement. Failure to comply with this Section 21 is a default of this Agreement and shall be grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement without opportunity to cure under Section 24.

21.4 Chick-fil-A shall have the right to transfer or assign this Agreement or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person or entity, at any time, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, and the benefits and obligations of Chick-fil-A hereunder shall inure to and be binding upon any such assigns. The Operator further acknowledges that Chick-fil-A can sell its assets, sell securities in a public offering or in a private placement, merge with, acquire, or be acquired by another person or entity, or undertake a refinancing, recapitalization, leveraged buy-out, or other economic or financial restructuring, without restriction and without affecting the Operator's obligations under this Agreement. The Operator specifically waives any claims, demands, or damages against Chick-fil-A and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders and employees, arising from or related to any transfer or other restructuring or reorganization Chick-fil-A or its affiliates may accomplish.

SECTION 22 – REMEDIES

22.1 The Operator, and as applicable, the Operator-Owner, acknowledge, agree and warrant that any unauthorized disclosure or misuse of the Trade Secrets and/or the Confidential Information or the Marks, failure of the Operator to vacate and permit the possession of the Site by Chick-fil-A upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, or other breach of the Operator's obligations under Sections 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24.5 or 24.6 of this Agreement would result in irreparable damage and harm to Chick-fil-A that could not be adequately compensated by money damages or other remedy at law. Accordingly, in the event of such unauthorized disclosure or misuse by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) of the Trade Secrets, the Confidential Information or the Marks, or the failure of the Operator to vacate and permit the possession of the Site by Chick-fil-A or, at Chick-fil-A's election, a new authorized Operator upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, or other breach of the Operator's obligations under Sections 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24.5 or 24.6, Chick-fil-A shall be entitled, if it so elects, in addition to any other remedies available to it, to immediate equitable relief therefor, including without limitation a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction which may include an order for specific performance. Further, if Chick-fil-A brings such an action for equitable relief, the Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, hereby waive the defense that Chick-fil-A has an adequate remedy at law.

22.2 Nothing in this Section 22 shall be deemed to limit Chick-fil-A's remedies at law or in equity for any breach by the Operator of any provision of this Agreement. Furthermore, nothing in this Section 22 or otherwise contained in this Agreement shall limit, abridge or modify the rights of Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties in and to the Trade Secrets and the Confidential Information under any applicable trade secret, trademark, patent, unfair competition or other law of any state or of the United States.

22.3 The Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, agree that in the event the enforceability of any of Sections 18, 19, 20 or 21 above (the "covenants") contained in this Agreement is (are) the subject of a legal dispute that does not initially result in an injunction to prevent the Operator's, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's breach or violation of any such covenants, but that does ultimately result in a decision by a court of competent jurisdiction that the covenant(s) is (are) enforceable, the time periods of such covenant(s) shall be deemed tolled upon the filing of the lawsuit until the dispute is finally resolved and all periods of appeal have expired. Nothing above changes that the Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, shall otherwise be required to comply with their respective obligations under this Agreement with regard to such restrictions during the time periods within which any tolling of such covenant(s) occurs.

SECTION 23 – RESTRICTIONS DEEMED REASONABLE

The Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, hereby acknowledge that the Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, have carefully considered the nature and extent of the restrictions upon the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and the rights and remedies conferred on Chick-fil-A under this Agreement, including without limitation those rights and remedies of Chick-fil-A set forth in Sections 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 above, and hereby agree that (i) the same are reasonably required and designed solely to protect proprietary and other important rights of Chick-fil-A and (ii) as such are reasonable in time, scope and territory. The Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, further acknowledge and agree that the restrictions upon the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and the rights and remedies conferred on Chick-fil-A under this Agreement are essential elements of this Agreement and that without their inclusion, Chick-fil-A would not have entered into this Agreement. The Operator represents and warrants that the Operator's signature appearing on this Agreement is genuine and freely and knowingly given, not based on any representations or statements of any kind made by any agent or representative of Chick-fil-A as to the legal or business consequences of this Agreement, but after the Operator has obtained all professional advice necessary for the Operator's full understanding of the consequences hereof.

SECTION 24 – TERMINATION

24.1 Notwithstanding any other remedies contained in this Agreement, Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, may terminate this Agreement as to one or more or all of the Businesses immediately upon giving notice thereof, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator, if any one or more of the following events or circumstances should occur with respect to the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner), or any one or more of the Businesses:

(a) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) or any of the Operator's employees commits an act or engages in public conduct which, in the exercise of Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, subjects Chick-fil-A, the Restaurants, the Marks, or the System to public scandal or ridicule or otherwise reflects materially and unfavorably upon Chick-fil-A, the Restaurants, the Marks, or the System;

(b) the Operator breaches, threatens to breach or fails to perform as specified in this Agreement any duty or obligation of the Operator pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including any attached Lease(s), any applicable Prime Lease, Ground Lease, Title Documents, any attached Concession Sublicense Agreements and its attached Concession Agreement (and any applicable Prime Lease, Ground Lease or Title Documents) for any Satellite Unit(s), any Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement and its attached Food Truck Lease, the Manuals, the Guidelines, or as may be required by any other operating standard or policy, including the Operator's failure to pay to Chick-fil-A any required payment due under this Agreement or any other agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator, including without limitation the payments set forth in Section 14 above, on the date such payment is due;

(c) the business of Chick-fil-A is discontinued;

(d) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) commits an act of fraud, embezzlement or theft against Chick-fil-A, its Suppliers, employees or agents, or intentionally underreports or understates Gross Receipts to Chick-fil-A;

(e) the Operator or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner files, or consents by answer or otherwise to the filing against the Operator or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner of, a petition for relief or any other petition in bankruptcy, or a petition to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction;

(f) the Operator or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or consents to the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers of himself/herself or of any substantial part of the Operator's or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's properties;

(g) the Operator or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner is adjudicated or becomes insolvent;

(h) a court or other governmental agency of competent jurisdiction enters an order appointing a custodian, receiver or trustee, or an officer with similar powers, with respect to the Operator or any substantial part of the Operator's (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) properties; or an order for relief is entered in any case for the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction, relative to the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner); or a petition for such relief is filed against the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and not dismissed or stayed within sixty (60) calendar days;

(i) material failure to comply with the Guidelines, including the Manuals, the Methods, the Minimum Standards or any of Chick-fil-A's other then-current policies, procedures, programs, and other standards and specifications, including, without limitation, those issued pursuant to Sections 12 and 14 above;

(j) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) fails to participate in or otherwise successfully complete the initial training program provided pursuant to Section 16 as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment;

(k) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) violates or otherwise fails to comply with the in-term covenant against competition set forth in Section 20;

(l) the Operator opens any Business on a Sunday or on Christmas Day;

(m) if the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) or anyone acting on either the Operator's or the Operator-Owner's behalf, interest or direction purports to transfer or assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third-party without Chick-fil-A's approval or otherwise meeting all of the terms, conditions and requirements set forth in Sections 21 and 26;

(n) continuance, in whole or in part, of the operation of any Business or of the license granted to the Operator under this Agreement, is frustrated in purpose or materially impaired by any national, federal, state or local law, statute, ruling, ordinance or regulation, or interpretation of any of the above (collectively a "Law"), or by the actions of any civil or military authority purporting to act under any Law, or by acts of God, war or civil disorders, or by the existence or declaration of a pandemic or epidemic, or by labor union activity; or

(o) any other event occurs which under applicable law is grounds for terminating this Agreement.

The Operator acknowledges and agrees that, if any one or more of the foregoing events or circumstances described in this Section 24.1 above do occur with respect to the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner), or any one or more of the Businesses, such event or circumstance shall constitute a material breach of, and a material default under, this Agreement and violate the essence of the Operator's obligations under this Agreement and, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies at law or in equity, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to terminate this Agreement as to one or more or all of the Businesses pursuant to the terms set forth above.

24.2 Either Chick-fil-A or the Operator, in the exercise of their respective sole business judgment, may terminate this Agreement as to one or more of the Businesses, without cause, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other; provided however, in the event this Agreement is terminated by the Operator pursuant to this Section 24.2, the effective date of such termination shall be the last day of any given calendar month immediately following the thirty (30) day notice period or such earlier date as agreed upon by the parties in writing.

24.3 Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, may terminate this Agreement as to one or more of the Businesses, without cause, immediately upon giving written notice to the Operator and paying him for each terminated Business the greater of: (i) One Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($1,000.00); or (ii) one-twelfth (1/12th) of the total amount of the Base Profit and Additional Profit paid or to be paid to the Operator for the twelve (12) full calendar months immediately preceding such termination (or, if the Operator actually operated such Business for fewer than twelve (12) full calendar months immediately preceding such termination, then the total amount of the Base Profit paid or to be paid to the Operator for such lesser period of actual operation divided by the number of full calendar months contained in such lesser period), as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, such amount being considered by both Chick-fil-A and the Operator to be a reasonable pre-estimate of the Operator's probable monetary losses under this Agreement, if any, which are difficult or impossible to calculate at the time of the execution of this Agreement. Such liquidated damages shall be deemed in full accord and satisfaction of any rights or claim which the Operator may have against Chick-fil-A arising out of or relating to such termination.

24.4 During either the period of time prior to the Commencement Date or the ninety (90) day period following the Commencement Date for the Initial Business, Chick-fil-A shall have the right and option to terminate this Agreement, without cause and for any reason, or no reason, immediately upon giving written notice to the Operator, and without payment of any consideration whatsoever.

24.5 If this Agreement is terminated under one of Sections 24.1 through 24.4 or otherwise terminates or expires, then the Lease or as applicable the Concession Sublicense Agreement for the applicable Site shall also immediately and automatically terminate and expire effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement, and Chick-fil-A shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of the Site of the terminated Business without further formality and without the necessity of any court action, dispossessory proceeding, or further notice or legal proceedings whatsoever. The Operator agrees to vacate the Site of such terminated Business immediately upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement and/or the accompanying Lease or Concession Sublicense Agreement for such Site, and to permit the peaceable possession of the Site by Chick-fil-A or, at Chick-fil-A's election, a new authorized Operator. If any applicable law or rule of any jurisdiction is deemed to require a greater notice of the termination or election not to renew this Agreement, or the taking of some other action with respect to the termination or election not to renew than is required in this Agreement, the prior notice or other action required by law or rule shall be substituted for the notice or other action required in this Agreement provided that the jurisdictional and other requirements of any such law or rule are met independently and without reference to this Section 24.5.

24.6 Upon the normal expiration of the Agreed Term of a particular Business, or upon the termination of this Agreement as to a particular Business for any reason, the Operator shall, with respect to such Business:

(a) immediately return to Chick-fil-A all of the Equipment;

(b) immediately pay Chick-fil-A the full amount of all sums due under this Agreement;

(c) immediately cease to communicate, divulge, use or access the Trade Secrets, the Confidential Information, the Marks, "Be Our Guest Cards", any confusingly similar names, marks, systems, insignia, symbols or other rights, procedures or methods or any other Intellectual Property;

(d) if all Businesses are terminated, immediately return the Manuals, and all other manuals, marketing materials (including without limitation, all "Be Our Guest Cards" in the Operator's possession), plans and specifications, designs, records, data, samples, models, programs, handbooks, codes, passwords or drawings relating to the Products, the Ingredients, the Guidelines, the Methods, the Minimum Standards, any other Intellectual Property or otherwise touching or concerning the operation of the Businesses; and

(e) take such actions as may be necessary to terminate any local bank account(s), execute and deliver any and all documentation relating to the termination of any other banking arrangement, credit card processing agreements, third party delivery agreements or any other arrangements established by the Operator pursuant to Section 14.12 hereof and to pay or otherwise satisfy all remaining fees and expenses accrued or anticipated to accrue in connection therewith through the bank account termination date.

24.7 Following the normal expiration of the Agreed Term, or following the termination of this Agreement for any reason, as to all the Businesses, Chick-fil-A shall repay to the Operator the working capital deposit paid by the Operator to Chick-fil-A pursuant to Section 3 above, less any expenses or then-known losses incurred by or imposed upon Chick-fil-A for or on account of the Businesses that should have been but were not paid or were paid but should not have been paid by the Operator. Chick-fil-A will make such payment to the Operator within such period of time following the expiration of the Agreed Terms, or the termination of all the Businesses as Chick-fil-A reasonably deems necessary or appropriate to determine the amount of all deductions, if any, from the repayment of such working capital deposit.

24.8 The obligations of the Operator, as well as the rights of Chick-fil-A, under Sections 5, 14, 15, 18 through 24 (inclusive), 26, 27 and 28 shall survive any expiration, termination or other cancellation of this Agreement.

SECTION 25 – FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP

25.1 The relationship of the parties created pursuant to this Agreement is intended by each party to this Agreement to be and is that of a franchise between Chick-fil-A and the Operator, who is an independent contractor and business person, and neither party shall incur any liability, other than as specifically set forth in this Agreement, to any person or entity, including without limitation the other party, for any action undertaken pursuant to or as a result of this Agreement. The parties acknowledge and agree that the creation of the above described relationship and each party's respective ability to perform and to be legally recognized as being in and having the relationship as set forth above during the term of this Agreement is part of the essence and a principal purpose of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement makes or shall be deemed to make the Operator (or any individual whose salary, wages or other compensation is to be paid by the Operator) an agent, partner, legal representative, joint venturer, joint employer or employee with or of Chick-fil-A. In all public records in the Operator's relationship with all other persons or entities, and in any document, the Operator agrees to indicate clearly the independent ownership and operation by the Operator of the Businesses. The Operator shall, upon commencement of the Operator's duties at the Site of any Business, inform each employee that Chick-fil-A is not such employee's employer. The Operator further agrees to hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the Businesses pursuant to a franchise with Chick-fil-A. The Operator agrees to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to do so.

25.2 The Operator and Chick-fil-A acknowledge that any covenants or other duties imposed upon the Operator by this Agreement are not intended to control or otherwise affect the time, manner or method of the Operator's day-to-day operation of the Businesses but rather to ensure that: (i) the image of the Businesses, as ultimately seen and judged by its customers, is as positive as possible and therefore such that the Businesses can be operated for the greatest mutual benefit of the Operator and Chick-fil-A; (ii) the Trade Secrets, the Confidential Information and other proprietary rights of Chick-fil-A and CFA Properties are adequately protected; and (iii) all Minimum Standards are maintained.

25.3 The Operator acknowledges that the Operator has conducted an independent investigation of the Businesses contemplated by this Agreement and recognizes that such Businesses involve risk and that the success of such Businesses is dependent upon the abilities and efforts of the Operator as an independent business person. Chick-fil-A expressly disclaims the making of, and the Operator acknowledges that the Operator has not received, any warranty, representation, claim or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential volume, profits, earnings or success of the Businesses contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 26 – REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

26.1 In order to induce the Operator to enter into this Agreement, Chick-fil-A hereby represents, warrants and agrees that:

(a) Chick-fil-A has the full power, authority, ability and the legal right to grant the rights, licenses and privileges conveyed to the Operator in this Agreement;

(b) to the best of Chick-fil-A's knowledge, the Operator's operation of the Businesses pursuant to this Agreement shall not infringe upon any proprietary right of any person or entity not a party to this Agreement; and

(c) to the best of Chick-fil-A's knowledge, there are no options, agreements or other licenses of any kind relating to the Businesses which would materially and adversely affect any right of the Operator under or pursuant to this Agreement.

26.2 In order to induce Chick-fil-A to enter into this Agreement, the Operator hereby acknowledges, represents, warrants and agrees that:

(a) the Operator has the full power, authority, ability and the legal right to execute, deliver and perform all provisions of this Agreement;

(b) neither the execution, delivery nor performance of this Agreement or any other agreements contemplated by this Agreement by the Operator will conflict with, or result in a breach of any term or provision of any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, non-competition covenant, or other contract or agreement to which the Operator is a party or by which the Operator is bound, or breach any order, writ, injunction or decree of any court, administrative agency or governmental body;

(c) one of the foundations of the Chick-fil-A System is Chick-fil-A's right and ability to select and have only the most qualified, approved individuals personally operate their respective Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses (either directly or through an approved entity) devoting full time and personal best efforts to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible in a manner consistent with Chick-fil-A's operating standards and image in the community in which each of their Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses is located and in the nation as a whole, and to diligently develop and personally promote the reputation and the goodwill of each of their Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses, the Marks, Chick-fil-A and the System;

(d) Chick-fil-A's operator selection and transfer approval processes and determinations, including without limitation the application of the processes to the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and others under or in connection with this Agreement, whether as part of the initial Operator selection process, the consideration and award of the Business or the rights to operate Additional Businesses or different franchises, or as otherwise may be required under this Agreement or by operation of law, are within the sole and exclusive business judgment of Chick-fil-A and may be exercised and made for any reason whatsoever, including by way of illustration Chick-fil-A's consideration of the following qualification and selection criteria: (i) work experience and aptitude; (ii) financial background and creditworthiness; (iii) character, including whether the Operator-candidate has good moral character pursuant to Chick-fil-A's then current criteria; (iv) ability to devote full-time and personal best efforts in operating the franchised business; (v) existing residency or ability to establish legal residency in the locality of the franchised business; (vi) the existence or absence of conflicting interests; (vii) no known superior or equal candidates available for the same franchised business opportunity; (viii) ability and eligibility to attend and successfully complete all required, then-current initial training; (ix) if an existing operator or operator-owner, the existence or absence of defaults and eligibility for the award of additional businesses pursuant to Chick-fil-A's then current policies and procedures; and (x) the operator-candidate otherwise meets Chick-fil-A's then-current standards and criteria for new franchisees and such other operator selection conditions and requirements as Chick-fil-A then applies in the case of an application for a new franchisee to operate a franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business;

(e) the franchise that is the subject of this Agreement and this Agreement itself are offered and granted by Chick-fil-A to the individual Operator personally who is a signatory below, are offered and granted at the conclusion of Chick-fil-A's operator selection process and in reliance on such individual's personal qualifications, experience, aptitude and the other qualifications and selection criteria as described in Section 26.2(c) above, as evaluated by Chick-fil-A, as well as such individual's personal commitment as the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) to devote his or her full time and personal best efforts to operating the Business(es) to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible, and to diligently develop and personally promote the reputation and the goodwill of the Business, the Marks, the System and Chick-fil-A, and, except as expressly provided in Section 21 above, may not be accepted by any other person, heir, successor, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, or transferred by assignment, will or operation of law;

(f) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) shall personally take all such actions as are necessary to operate the Businesses as contemplated in this Agreement and otherwise to comply fully with the Operator's duties and obligations under this Agreement;

(g) upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement as to any Business, the Operator will cooperate in making a transition of such Business and the Site for such Business to Chick-fil-A or, at Chick-fil-A's election, a new Operator thereof, so as to minimize damage to the Restaurant, the Marks and the System; and

(h) the Operator shall not make any untrue statements or engage in any unlawful acts which may be injurious to the Business, the Marks, Chick-fil-A or the System.

SECTION 27 – INDEMNIFICATION

If Chick-fil-A, or a subsequent Operator of any Business or a like business is subjected to any claim, demand or penalty or becomes a party to any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding by reason of (i) any claimed act or omission by the Operator or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees, (ii) any claimed violation of any law or ordinance by the Operator or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees, (iii) any damages allegedly resulting from a breach by the Operator of this Agreement, including any attached Lease(s) or Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) or Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement(s) or the Operator's obligations under Section 4 hereof, or (iv) any damages allegedly resulting from a willful misrepresentation by the Operator or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees to Chick-fil-A, then the Operator shall indemnify and hold Chick-fil-A, the Business, and any subsequent Operator of the Business or a like business harmless against all judgments, settlements, penalties, expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs and other costs of litigation or administrative proceedings incurred by or imposed on Chick-fil-A, the Business, the like business or the subsequent Operator of the Business. At the election of Chick-fil-A, the Business or a subsequent Operator of the Business or like business, the Operator shall also defend Chick-fil-A, the Business or such subsequent Operator of the Business or like business in any action or suit in which a plaintiff claims or seeks damages or other award of the type listed above, subject to the right of Chick-fil-A, the Business or the subsequent Operator of the Business or like business to approve counsel selected by the Operator and the conduct and resolution of any such litigation.

SECTION 28 – GENERAL PROVISIONS

28.1 All notices provided for in this Agreement shall be deemed given on the day of hand-delivery or overnight delivery or three (3) days after being sent by registered or certified mail, if sent from the United States, or by the equivalent thereof if sent from any other country or jurisdiction, return receipt requested, addressed to the party to be served at the following address:

If to Chick-fil-A:
Chick-fil-A, Inc.
5200 Buffington Road
Atlanta, Georgia 30349-2998
Attn: Legal Department - Notices

If to the Operator:
at the address set forth on the signature page

Or to such other address as may be designated by such party in a written notice to the other party.

28.2 This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified orally or by any course of dealing or performance and shall only be deemed amended, supplemented or otherwise modified by a further agreement in writing duly executed and delivered by both parties to this Agreement.

28.3 No failure by either party to this Agreement, at any time, or from time to time, to enforce the strict keeping and performance of any term or condition of this Agreement, nor any action or course of dealing or performance by either party not consistent with the terms and conditions hereof, shall constitute a waiver of any such, or any other, term or condition at any future time and shall not prevent such party from insisting on the strict keeping and performance of such, and all other, terms and conditions at the same and all later times.

28.4 Should a provision of this Agreement require judicial interpretation, it is agreed that the court interpreting or construing said provision shall not apply the assumption that the terms hereof shall be more strictly construed against the party preparing this Agreement, it being acknowledged that each party (i) has obtained all professional advice that such party deems necessary for the Operator's full understanding of the consequences hereof and (ii) thereafter voluntarily executed and entered into this Agreement.

28.5 Each and every provision of this Agreement is severable, and invalidity of one or more provisions shall not, in any way, affect the validity of this Agreement or any other provision hereof.

28.6 This Agreement, including any Lease(s), Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) and Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement(s) attached to this Agreement as an exhibit, incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement, and all documents, schedules, exhibits, and information specifically incorporated into this Agreement by reference, collectively constitute the complete and integrated agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements; no other representations have induced the Operator to sign this Agreement except that the Operator may rely on Chick-fil-A's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that Chick-fil-A delivered to the Operator, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with the Operator's entry into this Agreement (the "FDD"). No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement or in the FDD were made by either party and none shall have any effect with reference to this Agreement. No officer, employee, or other servant or agent of Chick-fil-A is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement or the FDD. No change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement shall bind Chick-fil-A unless in writing and signed by Chick-fil-A.

28.7 This Agreement shall not become valid against either party to this Agreement until it has been executed by the Operator and accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE OF THIS AGREEMENT.

28.8 The Operator shall comply, and assist Chick-fil-A to the fullest extent possible, in Chick-fil-A's efforts to comply with Anti-Terrorism Laws (as defined below). The Operator certifies, represents, and warrants that neither the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) nor the Operator's (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) property or interests is subject to being blocked under, and that they otherwise are not in violation of, any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws of the United States. "Anti-Terrorism Laws of the United States" means Executive Order 13224, issued by the President of the United States, the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act (USA PATRIOT Act) of 2001 (Public Law 107 56), and all other present and future federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, regulations, policies, lists, and other requirements of any governmental authority, addressing or in any way relating to terrorist acts and/or acts of war or related to individuals and entities who conspire to commit acts of terror against any persons, entities or government, or prohibiting corrupt business practices, money laundering or support of persons or entities who conspire to commit acts of terror against any person or government. Any violation of the Anti-Terrorism Laws by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner), or any blocking of the Operator's (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) assets under the Anti-Terrorism Laws, will constitute a material breach and good cause for immediate termination of this Agreement. The above provisions of this section constitute continuing representations and warranties, and the Operator shall notify us immediately in writing of the occurrence of any event or the development of any circumstance that might render the above representation and warranty false, inaccurate or misleading.

28.9 This Agreement is made and takes effect when accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. All rights, duties and obligations of the parties to this Agreement arising out of or relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced solely under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they exist on the effective date of this Agreement and thereafter may be amended or changed from time to time (except and without reference to any conflict of law principles, rules and decisions), including without limitation all controversies, disputes and claims of any nature between the parties arising out of or relating to the validity, performance, interpretation, enforcement, termination or expiration of this Agreement, including any Lease(s), Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) and Food Truck License and Sublease Agreement(s), which are attached to this Agreement as an exhibit, Chick-fil-A's right to enter upon and take possession of any Site, and any other aspect of the parties' agreement or relationship. The laws of the State of Georgia shall prevail and otherwise be applied to all such disputes in the event of any conflict of laws.

28.10 The Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator has and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with Chick-fil-A at its offices in the State of Georgia, where Chick-fil-A's decision-making authority is vested and where its System operations are conducted and supervised. The parties to this Agreement agree that if any controversy or claim between them arises out of or relates to this Agreement or the relationship between the Operator and Chick-fil-A and results in threatened or pending litigation, then the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division or, if no such jurisdiction exists or the case cannot otherwise be removed or heard in such court, the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such matters, each party hereby submits and consents to the jurisdiction of such courts, and each party hereby agrees to commence, conduct and conclude such matters only in such courts. The parties further acknowledge and agree that the courts identified above are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the relationship between the Operator and Chick-fil-A, and agree not to claim, assert or argue that such courts do not have jurisdiction or are inconvenient forums. THE OPERATOR HEREBY WAIVES ANY AND ALL OBJECTIONS TO THE EXCLUSIVE PERSONAL JURISDICTION OF THE FULTON COUNTY, GEORGIA SUPERIOR COURT AND THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA, ATLANTA DIVISION, AND FURTHER WAIVES ANY AND ALL OBJECTIONS TO THE JURISDICTION OF AND VENUE IN SUCH COURTS, IN AND FOR ALL CASES AND CONTROVERSIES RELATING TO OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT AND/OR THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE OPERATOR AND CHICK-FIL-A. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision governs except that claims for injunctive relief may be brought by Chick-fil-A in any appropriate jurisdiction where the Operator is located. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision also shall not restrict the ability of any party to enforce any judgment, award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction or to obtain the full faith and credit of any judgment, award or order obtained.

28.11 The parties acknowledge and agree that only a court that is a court of general jurisdiction may, and under no circumstances shall a magistrate court, justice of peace court, small claims court, housing court, eviction court, dispossessory court, or any other court that is not a court of general jurisdiction, determine any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the termination of this Agreement or Chick-fil-A's resulting right to enter upon and take possession of any Site, including but not limited to any claim or controversy regarding whether a termination of this Agreement was proper or effective under the Agreement's terms and applicable law.

28.12 A COURT MAY AWARD INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AS WELL AS DAMAGES, BUT WILL HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO AWARD PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGE.

28.13 THE OPERATOR AGREES TO LITIGATE ANY DISPUTE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT WITH CHICK-FIL-A ONLY ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS ONLY. THE OPERATOR AGREES THAT THE OPERATOR SHALL NOT CONSOLIDATE ANY DISPUTE WITH A CLAIM OF ANY OTHER FRANCHISED OPERATOR, INDIVIDUAL, OR ENTITY. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT NEITHER PARTY WILL PURSUE ANY CLASS CLAIMS IN ANY MEDIATION, ARBITRATION, OR LITIGATION FORUM AND THAT BOTH PARTIES WAIVE THE RIGHT TO PROCEED ON A CLASS-ACTION BASIS.

28.14 THE OPERATOR MAY SEEK DAMAGES OR ANY REMEDY UNDER LAW OR EQUITY ONLY AGAINST CHICK-FIL-A, INC. PARTNERS, SHAREHOLDERS, INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS AND EMPLOYEES OF CHICK-FIL-A, INC., AND ITS AFFILIATES SHALL NOT BE LIABLE AND MAY NOT BE NAMED AS A PARTY AND SHALL NOT BE LIABLE IN ANY PROCEEDING COMMENCED BY THE OPERATOR IF YOUR CLAIM ARISES OUT OF OR RELATES TO THIS AGREEMENT. THE OPERATOR

FURTHER AGREES THAT ALL OF THE FOREGOING PARTIES ARE INTENDED BENEFICIARIES OF THIS CLAUSE.

28.15 TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, CHICK-FIL-A AND THE OPERATOR, RESPECTIVELY, WAIVE ANY RIGHT CHICK-FIL-A OR THE OPERATOR MIGHT HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY ON ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER. CHICK-FIL-A AND THE OPERATOR, RESPECTIVELY, EACH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT CHICK-FIL-A AND THE OPERATOR, RESPECTIVELY HAVE HAD A FULL OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL CONCERNING THIS WAIVER, AND THAT THIS WAIVER IS INFORMED, VOLUNTARY, INTENTIONAL AND NOT THE RESULT OF UNEQUAL BARGAINING POWER.

28.16 The captions or headings of the Sections or other subdivisions hereof are inserted only for convenience and reference and shall have no effect on the meaning of the provisions hereof. Each personal pronoun used in this Agreement, whether masculine, feminine or neuter, shall include the other genders as the context requires or permits.

28.17 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall not be effective or binding upon either party until it is accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in Atlanta, Georgia.

28.18 Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Agreement, any consent or approval required to be obtained from Chick-fil-A may be granted by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment, which may take into account and consideration Chick-fil-

A's assessment of, among other things, the long term interests of the Chick-fil-A Marks and System overall. The Operator and Chick-fil-A recognize and agree, and any court or judge is affirmatively advised, that if Chick-fil-A's activities or decisions are supported by its business judgment, neither said court, said judge nor any other person reviewing those activities or decisions should or may substitute his, her or its judgment for Chick-fil-A's judgment. In any instance in which Chick-fil-A has expressly agreed in this Agreement or is found to be required by law not to act unreasonably or to act in any particular manner notwithstanding the express terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Operator hereby agrees that Chick-fil-A will not have acted unreasonably in withholding or denying its approval or consent if, without limitation, the Operator is not in full compliance with all of, or otherwise is in default or breach of any of, the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Operator hereby waives any claim for damages against or liability of Chick-fil-A that the Operator may have based upon any assertion that Chick-fil-A has unreasonably withheld, unreasonably conditioned or unreasonably delayed any consent or approval requested by the Operator, and the Operator's sole remedy shall be an action or proceeding to enforce any related provision or for specific performance, injunction or declaratory judgment and Chick-fil-A shall have no liability whatsoever to the Operator for its refusal or failure to give such consent or approval. The Operator's sole remedy for Chick-fil-A being deemed to have unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed consent or approval in such event shall be as provided in this Section.

1.2 Chick-fil-A and the Operator incorporate into this Lease the recitals set forth above as if set forth here in full.

SECTION 2 – SITE, TERM AND USE

2.1 Franchise Agreement. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that its possessory rights under this Lease are derivative of the Operator’s status as an Operator under the Franchise Agreement, and that such possessory rights will terminate automatically upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement. The Operator shall comply with and perform all of the terms, conditions and covenants of the Franchise Agreement. A breach of any of the terms, conditions or covenants of the Franchise Agreement by the Operator shall constitute a breach of this Lease.

2.2 Site. Effective as of the Commencement Date, Chick-fil-A hereby grants to the Operator a lease, or a sublease if there is a Prime Lease or a Ground Lease, for use and occupancy of the Site described in this Lease, which the Operator shall use and occupy solely for the Permitted Use. The Site, as well as Operator’s use and occupancy of the Site, is subject to any and all Title Documents and Requirements of Law.

2.3 Term. The Initial Term means the period of time commencing on the Commencement Date and, unless this Lease is terminated early in accordance with this Section 2.3, Section 2.1, Section 4, Section 6 or Section 10, ending on the Thirty-First day of December of the year in which the Commencement Date occurs. The Initial Term, together with any and all extensions thereof and subject to the rights for earlier termination or expiration pursuant to this Lease or the Franchise Agreement, is sometimes referred to in this Lease as the “Term.” Unless this Lease or the Franchise Agreement is terminated earlier, the Term of this Lease shall be automatically extended for successive additional periods of one (1) year, unless written notice of intent not to renew either the Franchise Agreement or this Lease is given by either party hereto to the other at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of then-current Term; provided, however, that this Lease may not be renewed if the Operator does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement or the Franchise Agreement is otherwise not renewed. Chick-fil-A reserves the right to change the terms and conditions of this Lease upon such a renewal by giving the Operator a written notice of such changed terms and conditions at least forty-five (45) days prior to the end of the then-current Term, in which case the Operator shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of such notice to decide and to notify Chick-fil-A in writing of the Operator’s decision to either renew upon the terms offered or not renew upon the terms offered. The Operator’s failure to provide timely notice to Chick-fil-A of a decision to either renew or not renew upon such changed terms and conditions shall be deemed to be an election by the Operator to terminate this Lease at the end of such Term. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, this Lease shall terminate automatically without any notice to the Operator (i) upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement or any applicable Prime Lease or Ground Lease, as the case may be, or (ii) if and when the Operator (or as applicable, the Operator-Owner (as that term is expressly defined in the Franchise Agreement)) dies or becomes disabled to the extent that the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) is unable to perform any of their respective obligations under this Lease or under the Franchise Agreement.

2.4 Use. The Operator shall use and occupy the Site solely for the Permitted Use, and shall open and operate the Business only on Monday through and including Saturday each week (excluding Christmas Day) during the minimum hours as may be required under the applicable Prime Lease or Ground Lease, if any, unless otherwise limited by state or local laws and ordinances, and shall otherwise observe and comply with the Franchise Agreement, as well as Chick-fil-A’s then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines as they may be modified from time to time concerning the hours of operation of the Business. The Operator shall not use, and shall not permit any person to use, any part of the Site in violation of this Lease, the Franchise Agreement, the Title Documents or Chick-fil-A’s then-current Minimum Standards and Guidelines. The Operator shall keep the Site in a clean and wholesome condition, and shall repair, maintain and conduct the Business on the Site in full compliance with this Lease and the Franchise Agreement, Chick-fil-A’s then-current Minimum Standards and Guidelines, and the Title Documents and Requirements of Law, all as modified from time to time. Unless Chick-fil-A is remodeling or re-building the Site pursuant to Section 5 of this Lease, the Operator shall continuously occupy the Site during the Term and shall not vacate or abandon the Site at any time during the Term. The Operator shall use only such fixtures, furnishings, signs, other leasehold improvements and similar items and supplies (collectively, the “Leasehold Improvements”) as meet all applicable then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines, and otherwise comply with the requirements of this Lease and the Franchise Agreement, unless otherwise approved in writing by Chick-fil-A in advance.

2.5 Prime Lease/Ground Lease. The Operator acknowledges that the Site may be subject to a Prime Lease or Ground Lease and the Operator further acknowledges that this Lease is subordinate to any such Prime Lease or Ground Lease. The Operator agrees to abide in all respects by the terms and conditions set forth in any such Prime Lease or Ground Lease, as the same may be amended or changed by Chick-fil-A and the prime lessor or ground lessor from time to time. Neither the Operator nor its employees, agents, contractors or invitees shall perform any act, neglect to perform any duty or fail to comply with any standard of conduct that would constitute a violation of this Lease, any Prime Lease or Ground Lease. It is the intent of the parties to enter into a sublease between Chick-fil-A and the Operator and not to make an assignment of the Prime Lease or Ground Lease, as the case may be, to the Operator. The parties further acknowledge that it is their intent that there be no merger of Chick-fil-A's interest in this Lease and fee title if Chick-fil-A acquires a fee interest in the Site at any time after the execution of this Lease.

2.6 Compliance With Title Documents and Requirements of Law. This Lease is subordinate to, and the Operator shall comply with, all applicable Title Documents and Requirements of Law. The Operator shall obtain, keep in full force and effect, and fully comply with all governmental licenses and permits which may be required for the Operator's use and occupancy of the Site and operation of the Business.

2.7 Changes in Terms of Prime Lease, Ground Lease or any Title Document. The Operator hereby acknowledges and agrees that, the Operator's use and enjoyment of the Site during the Term could be restricted or changed as a result of an amendment or modification to this Lease by Chick-fil-A (including, without limitation, an amendment or modification to any one or more of the Prime Lease, the Ground Lease, the Title Documents or the Rent Calculation Report) at any time during the Term, including under Section 3.4 below. Such amendments or modifications could include, without limitation, changes to the Operator's ability or right to offer menu items, use or place signage, engage in promotions or marketing efforts, have or enjoy interior or exterior physical restaurant layouts, designs, access, driveways, parking or other premises features and matters. The Operator consents and agrees to abide by, and specifically waives and releases any claim or demand the Operator has or may have under this Lease or otherwise arising out of or relating to, any such amendments or modifications to this Lease, the Prime Lease, the Ground Lease or the Title Documents (including, without limitation, with regard to any covenants or restrictions and any final, new or substituted Rent Calculation Report). Chick-fil-A shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Operator of any such amendment or modification impacting the Site and this Lease, but any delay or lack of such notice shall not affect the Operator's consent, agreement, waiver or release described above, or the validity or enforceability of any such amended or modified provision, as the same may be modified or amended by Chick-fil-A from time to time.

2.8 Equipment. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease and the Equipment Lease Addendum attached to this Lease as Exhibit D, which is incorporated in and made a part of this Lease by this reference, Chick-fil-A has delivered, or will deliver to the Site, the Equipment and other property described in the Equipment Lease Addendum.

2.9 Acceptance of the Site. By taking possession of the Site, the Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator has inspected the Site and the improvements thereon and found them to be in a safe, satisfactory, and completed condition.

2.10 Hazardous Materials. The Operator shall, at its sole cost, expense and liability, keep and maintain the Site in compliance with all local, state and federal environmental laws, ordinances, rules, regulations and orders of government authorities in effect now and in the future and all related directions of all public officers, including without limitation 42 U.S.C. §9601 et seq., 42 U.S.C. §6901 et seq., 49 U.S.C. §1801 et seq., 15 U.S.C. §2601 et seq., and local, state and federal regulations promulgated thereunder (all of the above being referred to collectively as "Environmental Laws"). During the Term, the Operator shall not use, or cause or permit any spills, discharges, or releases of, or treat, store, or dispose of, any hazardous, toxic, radioactive or polluting substances or solid waste, including without limitation any oil or petroleum products or any constituent, fraction or product thereof, any asbestos, mold, mildew, fungus or polychlorinated biphenyls, or any chemical liquids or solids (all of the above being referred to collectively as "Hazardous Materials"), provided that Operator shall be permitted to use Hazardous Materials commonly and typically used in the normal operation of the Business and such use is limited and fully complies with all applicable Environmental Laws. The Operator shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Chick-fil-A, its officers, directors, shareholders, partners, employees, agents, contractors, lenders, successors and assigns from and against any claim, liability, loss, cost, damage, expense, response or remedial action costs (including without limitation attorneys' fees, and costs of investigation or audit) relating in any way to: (i) the presence, use, handling, or storage at, on, off, or under the Site, or any spill, discharge or release from the Site, of any Hazardous Material during the Term; or (ii) any failure of the Site to comply with any applicable Environmental Law, unless such non-compliance results from the conduct of Chick-fil-A. The above indemnity shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

SECTION 3 – RENT

3.1 Base Rent and Percentage Rent. Commencing on the Commencement Date, the Operator shall on a timely basis, as rental upon the Site, without demand and without offset or deduction of any kind pay to Chick-fil-A the Base Rent, the Percentage Rent and all other amounts as may be set forth on or contemplated by the Rent Calculation Report attached to this Lease as Exhibit C and incorporated in and made a part of this Lease by this reference. The Percentage Rent payable by the Operator to Chick-fil-A shall be calculated based on all Gross Receipts (as defined in Section 3.2 below) of the Business except as otherwise specifically set forth in the Rent Calculation Report.

3.2 Gross Receipts. "Gross Receipts" of the Business for each calendar month during the Term of this Lease shall mean the Operator's entire gross receipts with respect to the Business (excluding only sales taxes levied upon retail sales and payable over to the appropriate governmental authority) from all sales at, from or related to the Site of the Business during such calendar month, whether for cash or on a charge, credit or time basis, including but not limited to such sales and services where orders originate or are accepted by the Operator (i) at, in or away from the Site of the Business, or

(ii) from telephone, internet, online, digital platform, or other similar orders.

3.3 Additional Charges and Expenses. Commencing on the Commencement Date, the Operator shall also promptly pay when due directly to the appropriate business, governmental authority or other person or entity, or to Chick-fil-A, as determined by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment, any and all costs and expenses of operating and maintaining the Site, including without limitation the following: (i) all charges, costs and expenses necessary to repair and maintain the Site in good condition and repair, including without limitation all expenses necessary for the maintenance and repair of all or any portion or component of any plumbing, electrical, HVAC, walk-in coolers, sprinkler, fire suppression, security, tel/data or other building systems; (ii) all charges, deposits and other costs for the establishment and maintenance of the utilities or other services provided or rendered in connection with the Site, including without limitation all expenses for electricity, gas, water, sewer, telephone, sanitation and waste services, and cleaning; (iii) all personal property taxes levied upon the fixtures, equipment and other improvements located on the Site; (iv) all real estate taxes and special and general assessments that are levied or assessed against the Site, including without limitation any tax which is levied or assessed against the rental, real or tangible personal property, and the Operator shall promptly reimburse Chick-fil-A for any similar tax which Chick-fil-A is required to pay or, in fact, does pay; (v) any charge or expense other than "rent" that might become due under a Prime Lease, a Ground Lease or a Title Document (including, but not limited to, service charges, common area maintenance (CAM) charges, taxes, association fees, promotion funds, advertising fees, and any other fees, dues and charges); (vi) applicable sales, use and other taxes that are levied or assessed against the Base Rent, Percentage Rent, all other amounts as may be set forth on or contemplated by the Rent Calculation Report, Additional Charges and Expenses (as defined below) and any of the Operator's other payment obligations described in this Lease; and (vii) any other charge or expense of any nature which Chick-fil-A may be required to pay by virtue of Chick-fil-A's interest in the Site (including, but not limited to, common area maintenance (CAM) charges, merchant's association's dues, promotion funds, advertising fees, utility charges, security fees, and other fees and taxes).

All of the above charges and expenses shall be deemed and collectively referred to as Additional Charges and Expenses hereunder and singularly are sometimes referred to in this Lease as an Additional Charge or Expense. The Operator agrees to provide to Chick-fil-A, if requested, copies of paid invoices and such other documentation evidencing payment of any such Additional Charge or Expense. If the Operator shall default in the payment of any obligation required to be paid by the Operator, then Chick-fil-A may, at its option, elect to pay the same together with any penalty or interest levied thereon, and the Operator shall be obligated to repay Chick-fil-A on demand for such payment as provided in Section 7 of this Lease.

3.4 Change to Rent Calculation Report. If at any time during the Term of this Lease, (i) the Building is demolished and reconstructed, (ii) the Building is refurbished or remodeled, or (iii) the Building or the Site becomes owned by Chick-fil-A after the Commencement Date, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to determine in its sole and exclusive business judgment a new Rent Calculation Report for the Site which will be substituted and attached to this Lease as a substitute Exhibit C and made a part of this Lease. Additionally, if all of the costs and expenses needed to prepare a Rent Calculation Report have not been accounted for as of the Commencement Date of this Lease, Chick-fil-A shall have the right in its sole and exclusive business judgment to prepare a final post-construction Rent Calculation Report for the Site which will be attached to this Lease as Exhibit C and made a part of this Lease. With respect to a Prime Lease or a Ground Lease that is renewed, renegotiated, amended or otherwise goes into effect after the Commencement Date, Chick-fil-A shall have the right in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment to negotiate and determine the terms and conditions of such Prime Lease and/or Ground Lease. Chick-fil-A shall attach any such new, renewed, amended or modified Prime Lease and/or Ground Lease to this Lease as a substitute Exhibit B and made a part of this Lease for the prior Prime Lease and/or Ground Lease and a revised Rent Calculation Report reflecting any such new, amended or modified terms and conditions shall be substituted and attached to this Lease by Chick-fil-A as a substitute Exhibit C for the prior Rent Calculation Report and made a part of this Lease. The Operator consents and agrees to abide by any such Prime Lease, Ground Lease or Rent Calculation Report.

3.5 Method of Payment. At the election of Chick-fil-A, the payment program described under Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement shall apply to the Operator's payment obligations with respect to the Base Rent, Percentage Rent, all other amounts as may be set forth on or contemplated by the Rent Calculation Report, Additional Charges and Expenses and any of the Operator's other payment obligations described in this Lease, and any adjustment or increases to the Operator's payment obligations, including any adjustment or increases as provided in Section 3.4 above.

SECTION 4 – CONDEMNATION

If the entire Site is condemned under eminent domain, or acquired in lieu of condemnation, this Lease shall terminate automatically without any further obligation or liability of Chick-fil-A to the Operator upon the earlier of the date when possession of the Site is required by the condemning authority, or such other earlier date as Chick-fil-A may specify in written notice to the Operator. All charges, draws, rentals, refundable deposits and all other costs and expenses by and between Chick-fil-A and the Operator as a result of the Business's operations up to such termination date will be credited, deducted and, where applicable, disbursed as otherwise set forth in this Lease and the Franchise Agreement. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator shall have no right to make a claim for the value of all or part of the Operator's interest, if any, in the Site pursuant to this Lease or the Business by reason of any condemnation. The Operator specifically waives and releases any claims for the value of all or part of the Business, Site, Building, fixtures and other improvements on the Site whether or not installed or paid for by Chick-fil-A or by the Operator. If only a part of the Site is condemned or acquired in lieu of condemnation and Chick-fil-A determines, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, that the operation of the Business or the Site is no longer economically feasible or desirable, Chick-fil-A may at any time elect to terminate this Lease by written notice to the Operator subject to the same terms and conditions set forth above. If Chick-fil-A does not elect to terminate this Lease upon a partial condemnation or acquisition in lieu of condemnation, subject to Chick-fil-A's receipt of condemnation proceeds in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of such repairs and alterations, Chick-fil-A shall with reasonable promptness make necessary repairs to and alterations of the improvements on the Site to restore it to a condition that will permit the continued operation of the Business.

SECTION 5 – RENOVATIONS AND REMODELS

5.1 Renovations and Remodels. If at any time Chick-fil-A determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that the Site should be remodeled, refurbished, rebuilt or relocated, Chick-fil-A, its agents and designees shall have the right to reenter the Site and to remodel, refurbish, rebuild or relocate the Business and/or the Site, in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then-current policies and procedures for the remodeling, refurbishing, rebuilding and relocating of sites, including without limitation making such site selection and design, structural, remodeling, redecoration and other modifications and changes to the Site, Leasehold Improvements, Equipment, design and décor, trade dress, color scheme and other things as Chick-fil-A deems necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, the Operator shall permit and cooperate with Chick-fil-A and its agents and designees to coordinate and complete, any such remodeling, refurbishment, rebuilding or relocating of the Site.

5.2 Prohibition on Operator Changes. The Operator shall not make any change in, alteration of, or addition to any part of the Site, or remove any fixtures or improvements, including without limitation the Equipment and the Leasehold Improvements. All buildings and improvements and all plumbing, heating, lighting, electrical and air conditioning fixtures and equipment and all property which, as of the Commencement Date, are the property of Chick-fil-A (including without limitation the Equipment and the Leasehold Improvements) or of the fee owner of the Site, are and shall remain a part of the real estate and be considered to be leased under this Lease.

SECTION 6 – DAMAGE TO SITE/ PERSONAL INJURY AND CASUALTY

6.1 Damage to Site/Personal Injury. Any damage to or loss of the Site, the Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, any other fixtures on or improvements to the Site, or any personal property of any person or entity, as well as any and all liability of the Operator and/or Chick-fil-A for personal injury or otherwise, caused by or resulting from any one or more of (i) the acts or omissions of the Operator or (ii) the acts or omissions of the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers, shall be the Operator's responsibility and otherwise shall be allocated pursuant to and governed by the terms and conditions of this Lease and Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement.

6.2 Casualty. If the Site is damaged by fire or any other casualty, Chick-fil-A shall, subject to any Prime Lease, Ground Lease or other underlying lease, within a reasonable time from the date of the damage or destruction, repair or replace the Site; provided, however, that Chick-fil-A shall have the right to terminate this Lease (and, in turn, the Franchise Agreement to which this Lease is attached and a part of) by providing the Operator notice in writing of such termination, and thereupon the Term shall expire, effective the date of the casualty, and the Operator shall vacate the Site and surrender the same to Chick-fil-A within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice. Chick-fil-A also shall have the right, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to limit its rebuild or restoration of the Site hereunder to (i) the extent of the net insurance proceeds recovered by Chick-fil-A, or (ii) Chick-fil-A's restoration obligations under the Ground Lease or Prime Lease, as applicable. The Operator hereby expressly waives and releases any and all claims against Chick-fil-A for damages in case of Chick-fil-A's failure to rebuild or restore in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The Operator's sole remedy for any such failure by Chick-fil-A to rebuild or restore shall be to elect to terminate the Franchise Agreement (which will effect a simultaneous termination of this Lease) as of the date of occurrence of the damage or destruction. If the Building and other improvements are not repaired, restored or replaced, for any reason, all proceeds of any all-risk coverage or other like insurance applicable to the Building and other permanent improvements shall be due and payable to Chick-fil-A. The Operator agrees to execute and deliver any release or other document Chick-fil-A may request for Chick-fil-A to obtain the release or control of the proceeds.

SECTION 7 – CHARGES BILLED TO OR PAID BY CHICK-FIL-A

If any Additional Charge or Expense which the Operator is obligated to pay pursuant to this Lease is initially billed to or paid by Chick-fil-A, Chick-fil-A shall have the right to rebill such charge or cost to the Operator. If Chick-fil-A rebills any such Additional Charge or Expense to the Operator, the Operator shall pay promptly the rebilled charge or cost directly to the appropriate business, governmental authority or other person or entity. If Chick-fil-A, at its election, pays any such Additional Charge or Expense on behalf of the Operator, the Operator shall reimburse Chick-fil-A immediately upon the Operator's receipt of Chick-fil-A's written notice of having made such payment, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, either by (i) issuing Chick-fil-A a check or (ii) acknowledging and, to the extent required, approving Chick-fil-A's adjustments to the amounts owed by Chick-fil-A to the Operator or owed by the Operator to Chick-fil-A under the Franchise Agreement.

SECTION 8 – INSURANCE

8.1 Required Minimum Insurance Coverage. The Operator acknowledges the insurance requirements set forth in Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement and covenants and agrees to maintain in full force and effect during the entire Term, at the Operator's own expense, insurance on the Site and for the operation of the Business as set forth and otherwise required pursuant to Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement, subject to any additional or greater coverage requirements and terms and conditions under any Prime Lease or Ground Lease. Chick-fil-A may from time to time, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, offer or require different or modified insurance programs, coverages or terms and, upon notice of such changed programs, coverages, terms or other requirements, the Operator agrees to maintain in full force and effect during the remaining Term, at the Operator's own expense, such insurance on the Site and the operation of the Business as set forth and otherwise then required pursuant to Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement.

8.2 Placement and Policies of Insurance. If the Operator fails to obtain the required insurance, Chick-fil-A may at its option, but is not obligated to, purchase such insurance, and may add the premiums paid by Chick-fil-A to the Additional Charges and Expenses. Additionally, Chick-fil-A may elect, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, and the Operator may authorize Chick-fil-A from time to time to purchase and administer the required minimum insurance on the Operator's behalf. In any event, by placing any required minimum insurance, Chick-fil-A assumes no responsibility for premium expenses nor guarantees payment for any losses sustained by the Operator.

8.3 Limited Waiver of Covered Claims. Chick-fil-A and the Operator each hereby agree and hereby waive any and all rights of recovery against each other for loss or damage occurring to the Site or any of Chick-fil-A's or the Operator's property located at the Site regardless of the cause of such loss or damage to the extent that the loss or damage is covered by the injured party's insurance or the insurance the injured party is required to carry under this Lease, whichever is greater (without regard to any deductible provision in any policy). This waiver does not apply to claims caused by a party's willful misconduct. This waiver also applies to each party's directors, officers, employees, shareholders, members and agents.

SECTION 9 – INSPECTION

Chick-fil-A, or its designee, shall have the right to enter and inspect the Site at any time on any Business Day, without notice to the Operator, to determine whether the Operator and all aspects of the Site thereof are in compliance with this Lease and all then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines as described and/or defined in the Franchise Agreement.

SECTION 10 – DEFAULT, TERMINATION AND REMEDIES

10.1 Default. In addition to the termination provisions in Section 2.1, Section 2.3, Section 4 and Section 6 of this Lease, this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted are subject to the limitation that upon the occurrence, at any time prior to or during the Term, of any one or more Events of Default (as such term is defined below) the Operator shall be in default under this Lease and Chick-fil-A shall have the right and, at its election, may terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 10.2 below without any prejudice to any other remedy available to Chick-fil-A at law or in equity. The following events (referred to as "Events of Default") shall each be an event of default by Operator under this Lease:

(i) the Operator defaults in the payment of any installment of Rent, Additional Charges and Expenses or any other sum due under this Lease;

(ii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) defaults in any of the covenants, agreements, conditions or undertakings to be performed, observed or complied with by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) under this Lease other than the payment of Rent, Additional Charges and Expenses or any other sum due under this Lease, and other than any other Event of Default listed in this Section 10.1, and such default continues for ten (10) days after notice in writing to the Operator;

(iii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) attempts or otherwise purports to assign or encumber this Lease (or the Operator's estate or interest in this Lease or in the Site) to or to sublet or allow occupancy of the Site by a third party without the express written consent and approval of Chick-fil-A, and if applicable, of any third party landlord, contrary to Section 14.5 below;

(iv) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) violates, breaches or otherwise defaults in any of the terms of the Franchise Agreement or the Franchise Agreement terminates by lapse of time or otherwise;

(v) the Operator or any of its officers, directors, members, employees, agents or contractors (including, without limitation, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) performs any act, neglects to perform any duty or fails to comply with any standard of conduct that would constitute a violation or default (or threatens to violate or default) under the Prime Lease, the Ground Lease or any Title Document (or any document related to any of the above);

(vi) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) files, or consents by answer or otherwise to the filing against Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) of, a petition for relief or any other petition in bankruptcy, or any proceeding in bankruptcy or under any insolvency law for liquidation, reorganization or rearrangement of the Operator's (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) affairs;

(vii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or consents to the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers of for the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) or of any substantial part of the Operator's (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) property;

(viii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) is adjudicated or become insolvent;

(ix) a court or other governmental agency of competent jurisdiction enters an order appointing a custodian, receiver or trustee, or an officer with similar powers, with respect to the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) or any substantial part of the Operator's (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner's) business or assets, or an order for relief is entered in any case for the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction relative to the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner), or a petition for such relief is filed against the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and not dismissed or stayed within sixty (60) calendar days; or

(x) the Operator vacates or abandons the Site.

10.2 Termination. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default as set forth in Section 10.1 above, Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, shall have the right, upon its election, to terminate this Lease immediately and to declare the Term of this Lease ended upon giving notice thereof, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator. If this Lease is terminated under this Section 10.2 or otherwise terminates or expires, then the Franchise Agreement shall also immediately and automatically terminate or expire (i) in full if the Business at the Site is then the only Business under the Franchise Agreement, or (ii) in part as to the Business at the Site if the Business at the Site is not then the only Business under the Franchise Agreement, and at the election of Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, as to one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement, effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Lease, and Chick-fil-A shall have the right to re-enter upon and take possession of the Site without further formality and without the necessity of any court action, dispossessory proceeding, or further notice or legal proceedings whatsoever. It is also expressly acknowledged and agreed by Chick-fil-A and the Operator that the termination, expiration, or revocation of the Franchise Agreement by either party for any reason, either in whole or in part, shall also terminate this Lease effective immediately, without further notice being required.

10.3 Duties Upon Termination or Expiration. Upon the termination or expiration of one or both of this Lease or the Franchise Agreement for any reason, the Operator shall (i) immediately return to Chick-fil-A all of the Equipment; (ii) immediately pay Chick-fil-A the full amount of all sums due and owing under this Lease; (iii) remove all of Operator's personal property, if any, from the Site and shall repair any resulting damage to the Site; and (iv) quit and surrender the Site to Chick-fil-A broom clean, in good order and condition, ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire or other casualty excepted.

10.4 Duty to Vacate. The Operator shall vacate the Site of such terminated Business and return to Chick-fil-A all of the Equipment immediately upon the termination or expiration of one or both of this Lease or the Franchise Agreement, and permit the peaceable possession of the Site by Chick-fil-A or, at Chick-fil-A's election, a new authorized operator. Should the Operator fail to do so, Chick-fil-A may re-enter, expel, remove and put out the Operator and all persons occupying the Site under the Operator, using such force as may be reasonably necessary in so doing, and repossess the Site. Such re-entry and repossession shall not be deemed a forfeiture of any past due Rent or Additional Charges and Expenses to be paid hereunder and shall not terminate any covenants to be performed by the Operator during the Term of this Lease.

10.5 Irreparable Harm. The Operator acknowledges, agrees and warrants that the failure of the Operator to vacate and permit the possession of the Site by Chick-fil-A upon a termination or expiration of one or both of this Lease or the Franchise Agreement, or upon an Event of Default pursuant to the terms of one or both of this Lease or the Franchise Agreement, would result in irreparable damage and harm to Chick-fil-A that could not be adequately compensated by money damages or other remedy at law. Accordingly, in the event of the failure of the Operator to so vacate and permit the possession of the Site by Chick-fil-A upon termination or expiration of one or both of this Lease or the Franchise Agreement, or other breach of this Lease or the Franchise Agreement by the Operator, Chick-fil-A shall be entitled, if it so elects, in addition to any other remedies available to it, to immediate equitable relief therefor, including without limitation a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction which may include an order for specific performance. If Chick-fil-A brings such an action for equitable relief, the Operator hereby waives any defense that Chick-fil-A has an adequate remedy at law.

10.6 Right to Perform for the Operator. If the Operator fails to perform any of its obligations under this Lease, Chick-fil-A, at its option, may (but is not required to) do the same or cause the same to be done, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies of Chick-fil-A. The cost incurred by Chick-fil-A in connection with such performance by Chick-fil-A shall be an additional charge due from the Operator to Chick-fil-A, together with Interest (as defined in Section 10.7 below) thereon.

10.7 Interest on Amounts Due. In the event that the Operator is past due on the payment of any amount due Chick-fil-A under this Lease, including without limitation any Rent or Additional Charges and Expenses, Chick-fil-A shall have the right at its option to require the Operator, to the extent permitted by law, to pay interest on any such past due amount for the period beginning with the original due date for payment to the date of actual payment at an annual rate equal to the highest rate allowed by law or, if there is no maximum rate permitted by law, then a rate equal to one and one-quarter percent (1.25%) per month (“Interest”). Such Interest shall be calculated on a monthly compounding basis using the actual number of days elapsed divided by 365. Such Interest shall be in addition to any other rights or remedies Chick-fil-A may have under this Lease.

10.8 Remedies Not Mutually Exclusive. The remedies in this Lease granted to Chick-fil-A will not be exclusive or mutually exclusive, and Chick-fil-A will have such other remedies against the Operator as may be permitted in law or in equity at any time. Any exercise of a right of termination by Chick-fil-A will not be construed to eliminate any right of Chick-fil-A to damages on account of any default of the Operator, including without limitation damages for Rent and Additional Charges and Expenses otherwise due under this Lease.

10.9 Survival. The obligations of the Operator, as well as the rights of Chick-fil-A, under Sections 3, 6 and 10 through 14 (inclusive) shall survive any expiration, termination or other cancellation of this Lease.

SECTION 11 – HOLDOVER

The Operator shall not holdover or remain in occupancy beyond the expiration or termination of this Lease. If the Operator remains in occupancy beyond the expiration or termination of this Lease, such holdover shall be deemed a tenancy at sufferance by the Operator upon the same conditions as are provided for in this Lease (except the Operator shall be required to stop using the Marks and to de-identify the Site as required under the Franchise Agreement and applicable law) but with Base Rent and Percentage Rent for the period of such holding over being double (2x) the Base Rent and Percentage Rent last paid by the Operator during the Term of this Lease, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, such amount being considered by both Chick-fil-A and the Operator to be a reasonable pre-estimate of Chick-fil-A’s probable monetary losses under this Lease, which are difficult or impossible to calculate at the time of the execution of this Lease. Such amounts shall be calculated on a per diem basis. Chick-fil-A’s acceptance of any Rent or liquidated damages after holding over begins shall not be deemed a renewal of this Lease nor be deemed to create a new tenancy of any kind. Neither this provision nor the acceptance of any liquidated damages hereunder shall waive Chick-fil-A’s rights of re-entry or any other rights or remedies under this Lease or the Franchise Agreement (including, but not limited to, injunctive or other equitable relief). The Operator’s obligations under this Section shall survive the expiration or other termination of this Lease. In addition, the Operator shall pay Chick-fil-A for all damages (including, but not limited to, consequential damages) sustained by reason of the Operator’s retention of possession of the Site after the end of the Term.

SECTION 12 – INDEMNIFICATION AND WAIVER

12.1 Indemnification. If Chick-fil-A, or a subsequent operator of the Business or a like business on the Site is subjected to any claim, demand or penalty, or becomes a party to any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding by reason of (i) any claimed act or omission by the Operator or the Operator’s agents, contractors or employees, (ii) any claimed violation of any Requirements of Law by the Operator or the Operator’s agents, contractors or employees, (iii) any damages allegedly resulting from a breach by the Operator of this Lease, (iv) any damages allegedly resulting from a willful misrepresentation to Chick-fil-A by the Operator or the Operator’s agents, contractors or employees, or (v) any act occurring on the Site during the Term, then the Operator shall indemnify and hold harmless Chick-fil-A and any subsequent operator of the Business or a like business against all judgments, settlements, penalties, expenses, attorneys’ fees, court costs and other costs of litigation or administrative proceedings incurred by or imposed on Chick-fil-A or any subsequent operator of the Business or a like business. At the election of Chick-fil-A or any subsequent operator of the Business or a like business, the Operator shall also defend Chick-fil-A or such subsequent operator in any action or suit in which a party claims or seeks damages or other award of the type listed above, subject to the rights of any one or more of Chick-fil-A or the subsequent operator of the Business or a like business to approve counsel selected by the Operator and the conduct and resolution of any such action or suit.

12.2 Waiver. The Operator waives the service of any notice of intention to re-enter or to institute legal proceedings to that end which otherwise might be required to be given under any present or future law. The Operator shall not have, and hereby expressly waives, any and all rights which are or may be conferred upon the Operator by any present or future law to redeem this Lease or the Site, or to re-enter the Building or the Site, or to restore the operation of this Lease, after (i) re-entry by Chick-fil-A, (ii) any warrant to dispossess or judgment in ejection or (iii) any expiration or termination of this Lease and the Term, whether such dispossession, re-entry, expiration or termination of this Lease and the Term is by operation of law or pursuant to the provisions of this Lease. If Chick-fil-A shall acquire possession without judicial proceedings, it shall be deemed a re-entry within the meaning of that word as used in this Lease and not a technical or legal definition. In the event that Chick-fil-A elects to recover possession by invoking judicial process, the Operator acknowledges that the Site is to be used for commercial purposes, and the Operator expressly waives and relinquishes any and all protections and rights afforded a commercial tenant under Georgia law, including without limitation O.C.G.A. § 44-7-52, or any law of like import now or in the future in effect or applicable, if any.

SECTION 13 – SUBORDINATION

13.1 Lease Is Subordinate. This Lease and all of the Operator’s rights, title and interest under this Lease are and shall be subject, subordinated and inferior to the lien of any and all mortgages and other security instruments and to the rights of all parties under any sale and leaseback of the Site which Chick-fil-A or any grantee of Chick-fil-A (collectively, the "Fee Owner") has or may place upon the Site and the improvements thereon, in the same manner and to the same extent as if this Lease had been executed subsequent to the execution, delivery and recording of such mortgage or other security instruments or of the deed and lease under such sale and leaseback. Any such mortgages or other security instruments are declared to be superior to the interest of the Operator in this Lease.

13.2 Duty to Assist Sale and Leaseback Arrangements. The subordination of this Lease to any mortgage or other security instruments or to any lease under a sale and leaseback arrangement shall be automatic and self-operative, and no special instrument of subordination shall be necessary. Without limiting such automatic and self-operative subordinations, however, the Operator will, on demand, execute without expense to the Fee Owner, any and all instruments that Fee Owner may deem necessary to evidence the subordination of this Lease and all rights in this Lease to the lien of any such mortgage or to any such lease under a sale and leaseback arrangement.

13.3 Duty to Provide Written Instruments. The Operator shall, without charge, within ten (10) days after request (time being of the essence) by Chick-fil-A, any holder of a mortgage or other security interest encumbering the Site, the prime landlord or the ground lessor, deliver a written instrument to the requesting party, certifying to the requesting party and any other party designated by such requesting party: (i) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there has been any modification, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified by any such modifications; (ii) whether the Term of this Lease has commenced, Rent has become payable thereunder, and the Operator has accepted possession of the Site; (iii) whether the Operator has any defenses or offsets against the enforcement of any of the terms of this Lease and any modification of this Lease, and, if so, specifying the same; (iv) the dates to which the Base Rent, Percentage Rent, Additional Charges and Expenses, and other charges under this Lease, have been paid; (v) whether or not Chick-fil-A is in default of its obligations hereunder and whether the Operator has made any claim against Chick-fil-A under this Lease, and if so, the nature thereof and the dollar amount, if any, of such claim; (vi) that the Site is used only for the purpose set forth in this Lease and is not in violation of any Requirements of Law; and (vii) to such other matters as the requesting party may reasonably request.

SECTION 14 – GENERAL PROVISIONS

14.1 Notice. All notices provided for in this Lease shall be in writing and deemed to have been delivered on the day of hand-delivery, overnight delivery or three (3) days after being sent by registered or certified mail, if sent from the United States, or by the equivalent thereof if sent from any other country or jurisdiction, return receipt requested, addressed to the party to be served at the following address:

If to Chick-fil-A:

5200 Buffington Road
Atlanta, Georgia 30349-2998

If to Operator:

At the address set forth on the signature page of this Lease or otherwise then in effect as the Notice address under this Lease. With a copy to the address set forth on the signature page of the Franchise Agreement or otherwise then in effect as the notice address under the Franchise Agreement if such address is not the same notice address required under this Lease.

Or to such other address as may be designated by either party in a written notice to the other party.

14.2 Amendment. This Lease may not be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified orally or by any course of dealing or performance and shall only be deemed amended, supplemented or otherwise modified by a further agreement in writing duly executed and delivered by Chick-fil-A and the Operator; provided, however, Chick-fil-A may amend or modify this Lease and its Exhibits from time to time as expressly provided for in this Lease. No attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Lease shall bind Chick-fil-A unless in writing and signed by Chick-fil-A.

14.3 No Waiver. No failure by either party to this Lease, at any time, or from time to time, to enforce the strict keeping and performance of any term or condition of this Lease, nor any action or course of dealing or performance not consistent with the terms and conditions of this Lease, shall constitute a waiver of any such, or any other, term or condition at any future time and shall not prevent such party from insisting on the strict keeping and performance of such, and all other, terms and conditions at the same and all later times. The rights in this Lease to receive, collect or sue for any Rent, Additional Charges and Expenses, monies or payments, or to enforce the terms, covenants, provisions and conditions of this Lease, or to prevent the breach or non-observance thereof, or to exercise any right or remedy in this Lease, shall not in any way affect the right or power of Chick-fil-A to declare the Term ended and to terminate this Lease because of any default in or breach of any of the terms, covenants, provisions or conditions of this Lease. No failure by either party to declare a default immediately upon its occurrence, nor any delay by either party in taking action for a default, nor Chick-fil-A's acceptance of Rent, Additional Charges and Expenses or other amounts due with knowledge of a default by the Operator, shall constitute a waiver of the default, nor shall it constitute an estoppel. No payment by the Operator or receipt by Chick-fil-A of an amount less than the Rent and Additional Charges and Expenses required hereunder shall be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated rent, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction. Chick-fil-A may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Chick-fil-A's right to recover the balance of such rent and other charges and expenses or to pursue any other remedy provided for in this Lease. Chick-fil-A may at its option use the program established and administered from time to time pursuant to Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement to accomplish the payment and retention of all amounts due Chick-fil-A and third-parties pursuant to this Lease.

14.4 Severability. Each and every provision of this Lease is severable, and invalidity of one or more provisions shall not, in any way, affect the validity of this Lease or any other provision of this Lease. If any material term of this Lease is stricken or declared invalid, Chick-fil-A reserves the right to terminate this Lease at its option and in its sole and exclusive business judgment. Should any provision of this Lease require judicial interpretation, the terms of this Lease shall not be more strictly construed against either party.

14.5 Assignment. The Franchise Agreement and this related Lease, and the franchise that is the subject thereof, were offered and granted by Chick-fil-A to the individual Operator personally who is the original signatory to the Franchise Agreement, were offered and granted at the conclusion of Chick-fil-A's operator selection process and in reliance on such individual's personal qualifications, experience, aptitude and the other qualifications and selection criteria described in Section 26.2(c) of the Franchise Agreement as evaluated by Chick-fil-A. Except as expressly provided under Section 21 of the Franchise Agreement and this related Lease, neither this Lease nor the Operator's estate or interest in this Lease may be accepted by any other person, heir, successor, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, or transferred by assignment, will or operation of law.

The Operator and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner shall not without the express written consent and approval of Chick-fil-A:

- (i) assign or permit to be assigned this Lease or the Operator's estate or interest in this Lease or in the Site to any person or entity;
- (ii) sublet the Site, or mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber the Operator's interest in this Lease or the Site; or
- (iii) permit or facilitate in any way occupancy of the Site by any person or entity other than the Operator.

The transfer (or transfers in the aggregate) of an interest in the Franchise Agreement or the Operator (if Operator is an entity) shall be deemed an attempted assignment of this Lease and is strictly prohibited hereunder.

Any attempted assignment of this Lease (or the Operator's estate or interest in this Lease or in the Site) or sublet by the Operator shall be void and of no force or effect, and no purported assignment or sublet shall release the Operator from any of its obligations under this Lease. Chick-fil-A has the right to assign this Lease to any person or entity in its sole and exclusive business judgment, and the benefits and obligations of Chick-fil-A hereunder shall inure to and be binding upon any such assigns. The covenants and obligations of the Operator hereunder shall extend to and be binding upon the administrators, executors, heirs, and assigns and successors of the Operator and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, provided, however, that any such purported assignee shall not receive the benefits of this Lease unless Chick-fil-A has consented in writing to such purported assignment, which consent Chick-fil-A may withhold for any reason whatsoever in its sole and exclusive business judgment under this Lease and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement.

14.6 Entire Agreement. This Lease and the Franchise Agreement to which it is attached, and all documents, schedules, exhibits, and information specifically incorporated into this Lease and the Franchise Agreement by reference, collectively constitute the complete and integrated agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator concerning the subject matter of the Business and this Lease and supersede all prior agreements between the parties. No other representations or statements of any kind have induced the Operator to sign this Lease except that the Operator may rely on Chick-fil-A's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that Chick-fil-A delivered to the Operator, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with the Operator's entry into this Lease (the "FDD"). No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Lease, the Franchise Agreement or in the FDD were made by either party and none shall have any effect with reference to this Lease. No officer, employee, or other servant or agent of Chick-fil-A is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Lease, the Franchise Agreement or the FDD. No change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Lease shall bind Chick-fil-A unless in writing and signed by Chick-fil-A.

14.7 Effectiveness; Time is of Essence; Independent Contractor. This Lease shall not become valid against either party hereto until it has been executed by the Operator and accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to the due performance of the terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Lease, provided, however, that no delay or failure to enforce any of the provisions contained in this Lease and no conduct or statement shall waive or affect any of Chick-fil-A's rights hereunder. The Operator shall have no authority, express or implied, to act as agent of Chick-fil-A or any of its affiliates for any purpose. The Operator is, and shall remain, an independent contractor responsible for all obligations and liabilities, directly or indirectly, resulting from the operation of the Business located on the Site. All agreements, covenants and indemnifications contained in this Lease or made in writing pursuant to the terms of this Lease by or on behalf of the Operator shall be deemed material and shall survive expiration or sooner termination of this Lease.

14.8 Governing Law. This Lease is made and takes effect when accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. All rights, duties and obligations of the parties hereto arising out of or relating to the subject matter of this Lease shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced solely under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they exist on the effective date of this Lease and thereafter may be amended or changed from time to time (except and without reference to any conflict of law principles, rules and decisions), including without limitation all controversies, disputes and claims of any nature between the parties arising out of or relating to the validity, performance, interpretation, enforcement, termination or expiration of this Lease or any related lease or sublease under this Lease, Chick-fil-A's right to enter upon and take possession of any Site, and any other aspect of the parties' agreement or relationship. The laws of the State of Georgia shall prevail and otherwise be applied to all such disputes in the event of any conflict of laws.

14.9 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, CHICK-FIL-A AND THE OPERATOR HEREBY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED TO THIS LEASE, THE RELATIONSHIP OF CHICK-FIL-A AND THE OPERATOR, THE OPERATOR'S USE OR OCCUPANCY OF THE SITE, AND/OR ANY OTHER CLAIMS, AND ANY EMERGENCY STATUTORY OR ANY OTHER STATUTORY REMEDY WITH RESPECT THERETO. If Chick-fil-A commences any summary proceeding, or any other proceeding or action to recover possession of the Site, the Operator hereby waives the provisions of any law relating to notice and/or delay in levy of execution for possession or any law of like import now or hereafter in effect. The Operator shall not interpose any counterclaim or claim for set-off of whatever nature or description in any such action or proceeding, except for statutory mandatory counterclaims.

14.10 Venue. The Operator has and shall continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with Chick-fil-A at its offices in the State of Georgia, where Chick-fil-A's decision-making authority is vested and where its System operations are conducted and supervised. If any controversy or claim between the parties arises out of or relates to this Lease or the relationship between the Operator and Chick-fil-A and results in threatened or pending litigation, then the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division or, if no such jurisdiction exists or the case cannot otherwise be removed or heard in such court, the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such matters, each party hereby submits and consents to the jurisdiction of such courts, and each party shall commence, conduct and conclude such matters only in such courts. The parties further acknowledge and agree that the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia or the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division identified above are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relate to this Lease or the relationship between the Operator and Chick-fil-A, and agree not to claim, assert or argue that such courts do not have jurisdiction or are inconvenient forums. The Operator hereby waives any and all objections to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of the Fulton County, Georgia Superior Court and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, and further waives any and all objections to the jurisdiction of and venue in such courts, in and for all cases and controversies relating to or arising out of this Lease and/or the relationship between the Operator and Chick-fil-A. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision governs except that claims for injunctive relief may be brought by Chick-fil-A in any appropriate jurisdiction where the Operator is located. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision also shall not restrict the ability of any party to enforce any judgment, award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction or to obtain the full faith and credit of any judgment, award or order obtained.

14.11 Court of General Jurisdiction. Only a court that is a court of general jurisdiction may, and under no circumstances shall a magistrate court, justice of peace court, small claims court, housing court, eviction court, dispossessory court, or any other court that is not a court of general jurisdiction, determine any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the termination of this Lease or Chick-fil-A's resulting right to enter upon and take possession of the Site, including but not limited to any claim or controversy regarding whether a termination of this Lease was proper or effective under this Lease's terms and applicable law.

14.12 Recordation. The Operator shall not record this Lease or any notice, memorandum or short-form version of this Lease without the prior written consent of Chick-fil-A. If Chick-fil-A desires to record any notice, memorandum or short form version of this Lease, the Operator shall promptly execute the same upon request.

14.13 Counterparts. This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

14.14 Force Majeure. Whenever a period of time is prescribed for the taking of an action by Chick-fil-A or the Operator (other than the payment of Rent or Additional Charges and Expenses, the Operator's payment of any monetary amount or the Operator's performance of any obligation that can be satisfied by the payment of a commercially reasonable amount of money), the period of time for the performance of such action shall be extended by the number of days that the performance is actually delayed due to strikes, acts of God, shortages of labor or materials, war, terrorist acts, civil disturbances, pandemic or epidemic and other causes beyond the reasonable control of the performing party ("Force Majeure"). The above Force Majeure provision shall not apply to, or result in, an extension of the Term of this Lease nor apply to any of Operator's obligations to vacate the Building and the Site upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, nor any other obligations under Sections 10 and 11 of this Lease. The Operator may not rely on the above Force Majeure provision unless it notifies Chick-fil-A of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event within ten (10) days following its occurrence.

14.15 No Encumbrances. Nothing in this Lease shall authorize the Operator to do any act which shall in any way encumber the interest or estate of Chick-fil-A or the estate of Fee Owner in the Site if Chick-fil-A is not the Fee Owner. The Operator shall not permit the Site to become subject to any claim by lien or encumbrance, and the Operator shall immediately pursue in good faith its legal remedies to remove a lien on the Site. If any lien is filed against the Site or the Operator's interest in this Lease, at Chick-fil-A's option, the Operator shall either pay the amount of the lien in full or shall provide for a non-cancelable bond acceptable by Chick-fil-A, in an amount deemed sufficient by Chick-fil-A to protect the interest of Chick-fil-A and any mortgagee or holder of other security interest from any loss resulting from such lien.

14.16 Standard for Consent. Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Lease, any consent or approval required to be obtained from Chick-fil-A may be granted by Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive business judgment, which may take into account and consideration Chick-fil-A's assessment of, among other things, the long term interests of the Chick-fil-A Marks, the Site and the System overall. The Operator and Chick-fil-A recognize and agree, and any court or judge is affirmatively advised, that if Chick-fil-A's activities or decisions are supported by its business judgment, neither said court, said judge nor any other person reviewing those activities or decisions should or may substitute his, her or its judgment for Chick-fil-A's judgment. In any instance in which Chick-fil-A has expressly agreed in this Lease or is found to be required by law not to act unreasonably or to act in any particular manner notwithstanding the express terms and conditions of this Lease and/or the Franchise Agreement, the Operator hereby agrees that Chick-fil-A will not have acted unreasonably in withholding or denying its approval or consent if, without limitation, the Operator is not in full compliance with all of, or otherwise is in default or breach of any of, the terms and conditions of this Lease and/or the related Franchise Agreement. The Operator hereby waives any claim for damages against or liability of Chick-fil-A that the Operator may have based upon any assertion that Chick-fil-A has unreasonably withheld, unreasonably conditioned or unreasonably delayed any consent or approval requested by the Operator, and the Operator's sole remedy shall be an action or proceeding to enforce any related provision or for specific performance, injunction or declaratory judgment and Chick-fil-A shall have no liability whatsoever to the Operator for its refusal or failure to give such consent or approval. The Operator's sole remedy for Chick-fil-A being deemed to have unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed consent or approval in such event shall be as provided in this Section.

14.17 The Article and Section headings in this Lease are included for convenience of reference only and will not constitute a part of this Lease for any other purpose.

Additional Notes:

Ground Lease and Calculation of Base Rent and Percentage Rent

This Site is subject to an underlying Ground Lease (attached as Exhibit "B" hereto), under which the ground lessee is Chick-fil-A or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chick-fil-A. The calculation of monthly Base Rent for this Site can generally be explained as follows -- the total amount invested by Chick-fil-A or its wholly-owned subsidiary in the acquisition of the land (including title premiums, endorsements, recording fees and other such costs incurred) is added to the amounts invested by Chick-fil-A or its wholly-owned subsidiary for a building shell, then the sum is multiplied by a finance factor. The product is then added to the total rent under the Ground Lease, and that sum is divided by twelve; provided, however, the monthly Base Rent could increase when and if, among other things, the final costs for the development of the Site and Building are determined or the rent or other charges under the Ground Lease increases.

To the extent the calendar year-to-date Gross Receipts (as such term is defined in Section 3.2 of this Lease) of your franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business exceed the Year-To-Date Percentage Rent Breakpoint (as such term is defined below), you will be obligated to pay Chick-fil-A Percentage Rent in the amount of six percent (6%) of all Gross Receipts over the Year-To-Date Percentage Rent Breakpoint. For the purposes of this Rent Calculation Report, Year-To-Date Percentage Rent Breakpoint shall mean the Annual Percentage Rent Breakpoint prorated on a daily basis for the number of days that have elapsed in any given calendar year.

Ground Lease

The underlying Ground Lease for this Site is subject to amendment, renewal and/or renegotiation with the ground lessor for the Site during the term of your Franchise Agreement and this Lease. As a result, your monthly Lease payments to Chick-fil-A could change, including, without limitation, the calculation of Base Rent, Percentage Rent, and Additional Charges and Expenses (as such term is defined in Section 1 and as more specifically described in Section 3.3 of this Lease) (which include, without limitation, taxes, common area maintenance (CAM) charges, and other additional or extra charges and rents).

Commencement Date

Your actual Commencement Date may vary from the projected Commencement Date. The projected Commencement Date may not necessarily be during the first year of the term under the Ground Lease or any other applicable document. Base Rent and Percentage Rent terms may increase, decrease or otherwise change if the actual Commencement Date varies from the projected Commencement Date and/or in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Franchise Agreement and this Lease (which incorporates the Ground Lease).

Franchise Agreement and Lease Control

The notes are added as a summary explanation. You should refer to the Franchise Agreement and this Lease (and specifically the Ground Lease attached as Exhibit "B" to this Lease) to review specific terms and provisions. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the information provided in this Rent Calculation Report or this Lease, the terms of this Lease shall govern and control.

EQUIPMENT LEASE ADDENDUM

Exhibit D to Lease

Equipment Lease for _____ Restaurants

2. Chick-fil-A rents to the Operator, and the Operator rents from Chick-fil-A, commencing on the Commencement Date, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Equipment listed on Schedule 1 attached to this Equipment Lease Addendum and made a part of this Equipment Lease Addendum (together with any replacements of and additions or accessions to the original equipment). The Operator agrees that Chick-fil-A shall have the right, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to substitute comparable Equipment for that which is listed on Schedule 1. The Operator shall keep and maintain the Equipment only at the Site, unless otherwise approved in writing by Chick-fil-A, may use the Equipment only in connection with the Operator's operation of the Business at the Site, shall service and repair the Equipment in order to maintain the Equipment's appearance and good working condition, and shall not make any changes, alterations or additions thereto without the prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, all in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards, Guidelines and other policies and procedures as may be amended by Chick-fil-A from time to time. In servicing and repairing the Equipment, the Operator shall solely use suppliers and vendors that demonstrate the ability to meet Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines for such items and that possess adequate quality controls, experience and capacity to service and repair the Equipment and otherwise supply the Operator's needs promptly, accurately and reliably. In the exercise of Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, Chick-fil-A may deliver used Equipment to the Site or leave Equipment at the Site which had been used at the Site prior to the date of this Lease.

3. Commencing on the Commencement Date, the Operator shall pay to Chick-fil-A, in Atlanta, Georgia, a monthly rental for the Equipment based on its then current fair market rental which Chick-fil-A has in its sole and exclusive business judgment initially determined to be _____ and No/100 Dollars ($_____.00) (the "Equipment Rental"). Chick-fil-A shall have the right from time to time to re-determine the Equipment Rental in its sole and exclusive business judgment based on the then current fair market rental value for the Equipment due to additions, subtractions, and modifications to the Equipment, market factors, inflation, passage of time or otherwise, and to update the Equipment Rental to an amount based on the then determined, current fair market rental, which will be set forth in a revised Equipment Lease Addendum and substituted and attached to this Lease as Exhibit D and made a part of this Equipment Lease Addendum. At Chick-fil-A's election, the program described in Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement shall apply to the Operator's payment obligations described in this Equipment Lease Addendum with respect to the Equipment and any other payment obligations of the Operator hereunder, and any adjustment or increases thereto.

4. Commencing on the Commencement Date, the Operator shall timely pay directly to the appropriate business, governmental entity or other person or entity any and all costs and expenses of operating and maintaining the Equipment for the Business during the Term of the Lease, including without limitation the following:

- (i) all charges, costs and expenses necessary to maintain the Equipment in good condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;
- (ii) all taxes, levies and charges assessed against the Equipment and/or against the Operator or Chick-fil-A in respect of the Equipment, including but not limited to any property tax or any sales or use tax assessed on the Equipment Rental; and
- (iii) all charges and costs of all ordinary repairs to the Equipment.

5. If in the sole and exclusive business judgment of Chick-fil-A any Equipment becomes worn out due to normal wear and tear and such Equipment cannot reasonably be repaired, then Chick-fil-A will replace such Equipment at its own expense. The Operator is responsible for and must replace at the Operator's own expense any and all equipment or other items not listed on Schedule 1 but used in the operation of the Business, as and to the extent such equipment and other items become worn out.

Subject to their terms and conditions, as modified by this Amendment, the Agreement and the Assignment are in full force and effect as of the date of this Amendment, and shall remain in full force and effect.
8. Pursuant to the Assignment and this Amendment, the Operator-Owner agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Amendment and the Lease attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Lease. Nothing contained in this Amendment shall be deemed to relieve the Operator-Owner of any of his/her obligations contained in the Assignment or the Agreement. The Operator-Owner further agrees to, and by this instrument does hereby, guarantee the performance by the Operator, in the same manner and with the same recourse against the Operator-Owner, as if the Operator-Owner were the Operator, of all of the Operator's obligations, commitments, duties and liabilities under the Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Amendment and the Lease attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Lease. Without limiting the foregoing, the Operator-Owner irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to Chick-fil-A that: (i) the Operator shall pay all amounts to be paid and otherwise comply with all provisions of the Agreement or any other agreements with Chick-fil-A or its affiliates concerning the operation of the Businesses; and (ii) if the Operator defaults in making any such payments or complying with any such provisions, the Operator-Owner shall pay forthwith upon demand all amounts due and owing Chick-fil-A and all damages that may arise as a result of any such non-compliance.

9. Any violation or breach by the Operator-Owner of any term or condition of the Assignment or the Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Amendment and the Lease attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Lease, shall also constitute a violation and breach of the same term or condition by the Operator, a default by the Operator under said Assignment and Agreement and, pursuant to its terms, grounds for termination and/or non-renewal of the Agreement, this Amendment and the franchise granted under such Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Chick-fil-A, Inc., the Operator and the Owner-Operator, intending to be legally bound, have duly executed and delivered this Amendment as of the day and year first above written.

EXHIBIT "A" TO ADDITIONAL BUSINESS AMENDMENT FOR SATELLITE

CONCESSION SUBLICENSE AGREEMENT

THIS CONCESSION SUBLICENSE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") for the Chick-fil-A Restaurant Site described in this Agreement is made by and between CHICK-FIL-A, INC., a Georgia corporation, as sublicensor or concessionaire having its principal business address at 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349-2998 ("Chick-fil-A"), and _____, a _____, as sublicensee or sub-concessionaire (the "Operator"), and will be effective as of the ____ day of _____, 20__.

BACKGROUND

A. Chick-fil-A is currently a party to a certain concession agreement attached as Exhibit C as it may be amended from time to time together with all its exhibits and schedules (the "Concession Agreement") with the third party owner or manager of the Site identified in the Concession Agreement ("Concessionor"). Under the Concession Agreement, Concessionor granted Chick-fil-A the right to conduct a restaurant business and/or a license to operate one or more Chick-fil-A concessions at the Site, consisting of the concession location(s) identified in the data sheet attached as Exhibit A as it may be amended from time to time (individually and collectively, the "Concession Location(s)"). The Site is sometimes also referred to in this Agreement as the "Concession Location(s)."

B. The Operator (i) is a franchised Chick-fil-A[®] Restaurant business operator holding a valid Franchise Agreement (together with its attached Lease(s) and in the case of any Satellite Unit(s), its attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) and their attached Concession Agreement(s), any other existing Additional Business Amendment(s), and all other exhibits and amendments, collectively the "Franchise Agreement") and is entering into this Agreement the same date that the Additional Business Amendment for Satellite to which this Agreement is attached (the "Additional Business Amendment") to operate the Satellite Unit (as defined below) as an Additional Business; or (ii) is entering into the Franchise Agreement to which this Agreement is attached as of the same date that this Agreement shall be effective in order to operate the Satellite Unit as the Initial Business (the Franchise Agreement, this attached Agreement and all other exhibits and amendments, collectively the "Franchise Agreement").

C. Chick-fil-A desires to sublicense its rights and privileges under the Concession Agreement to the Operator, and the Operator desires to accept the sublicense and faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations under the Concession Agreement as part of a set of rights granted by Chick-fil-A to the Operator under the Franchise Agreement to operate a certain quick-service food business at the Concession Location(s) as a Business that is a Satellite Unit under the trade name "Chick-fil-A" pursuant to the Franchise Agreement. The Business that is operated pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment if applicable, and this Agreement, is sometimes also referred to in this Agreement as the "Satellite Unit."

D. This Agreement, its attached Concession Agreement and (if applicable) the Additional Business Amendment to which they are attached are a part of and are incorporated by reference into the Franchise Agreement. If the Satellite Unit is an Additional Business under the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement is the applicable Exhibit "A" to the Additional Business Amendment that is used for Satellite Units in place of any Lease for the Satellite Unit. If the Satellite Unit is the Initial Business under the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement is the applicable Exhibit "A" to the Franchise Agreement that is used for Satellite Units in in place of any Lease for the Satellite Unit.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the above recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Recitals; Definitions. The parties incorporate into this Agreement the recitals under the Background section above as if stated here in full. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement, including in Exhibit A, Exhibit B and Exhibit C as they may be amended from time to time, which are incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by this reference, will have the meanings given to them in the Franchise Agreement and the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable).

2. Sublicense; Use; Operator Duty to Perform Under Concession Agreement.

(a) As of the effective date of this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) and this Agreement, Chick-fil-A grants a limited sublicense or subconcession (collectively, "sublicense") to the Operator of all of its rights and privileges under the Concession Agreement to use and occupy the Site solely for the Business that is a Satellite Unit during the Agreed Term of this Agreement (as defined in Section 4), selling only such products and operating in such a manner as permitted and authorized pursuant to the Franchise Agreement ("Permitted Use"). The limited sublicense is non-exclusive, and no so-called "exclusive," "protected" or other territorial rights in the Site, the Satellite Unit, the Concession Location(s), or the contiguous market area around the Concession Location(s) are granted or inferred. All rights and licenses not expressly granted to the Operator under the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) and this Agreement are reserved exclusively by and unto Chick-fil-A.

(b) The Operator accepts the above grant of the limited sublicense and agrees to be bound by and observe and faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations, agreements, commitments, duties and liabilities as if the Operator is the licensee or concessionaire under the Concession Agreement, except as otherwise agreed by Chick-fil-A and the Operator and stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. Notwithstanding the above, Chick-fil-A will provide and install the Equipment and any additional Equipment pursuant to Section 6 of this Agreement.

(c) The Operator acknowledges and agrees that its rights under this Agreement are derivative of the Operator's status as an Operator under the Franchise Agreement and that these rights will terminate automatically upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement. The Operator will comply with and perform all of the terms, conditions and covenants of the Franchise Agreement. A breach of any of the terms, conditions or covenants of the Franchise Agreement by the Operator will constitute a breach of this Agreement. Neither the Operator nor its employees, agents, contractors or invitees will perform any act, neglect to perform any duty or fail to comply with any standard of conduct, with respect to the franchised Businesses and/or with respect to the Satellite Unit, that would constitute a violation of this Agreement, the Concession Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, as applicable.

(d) The Operator will use and occupy the Site solely for the Permitted Use. The Site, as well as the Operator's use and occupancy of the Site, is subject to the terms and conditions in the Concession Agreement, and any and all agreements or instruments now or in the future of record or otherwise affecting title to or otherwise affecting title to or use of the Site, including any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents, which will be attached as exhibit(s) to the Concession Agreement. The Operator will open and operate the Business only on Monday through and including Saturday each week (excluding Christmas Day) during the minimum hours as may be required under the Concession Agreement and any applicable prime lease, ground lease or other title documents, unless otherwise limited by state or local laws and ordinances, and will otherwise observe and abide by the Franchise Agreement, as well as Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines as they may be modified from time to time concerning the hours of operation of the Business. The Operator will not use, and will not permit any person to use, any part of the Site in violation of this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement and any applicable prime lease, ground lease or other title documents or Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards and Guidelines. The Operator will keep the Site in a clean and wholesome condition, and will repair, maintain and conduct the Satellite Unit on the Site in full compliance with this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement and any applicable prime lease, ground lease or other title documents or Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards and Guidelines, all as modified from time to time. Unless Chick-fil-A (or Concessionor) is remodeling or re-building the Site pursuant to Subsection 3(e) of this Agreement, the Operator will continuously occupy the Site during the Agreed Term and will not vacate or abandon the Site at any time during the Agreed Term, except during designated periods if the use of the Site is seasonal or otherwise limited to certain periods under the Concession Agreement. The Operator will continuously occupy the Site during the applicable periods during the Agreed Term and will not vacate or abandon the Site at any time during the applicable periods during the Agreed Term. The Operator will use only such fixtures, furnishings, signs, other leasehold improvements and similar items and supplies (collectively, the "Leasehold Improvements") as meet all applicable then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines, and otherwise conform to the requirements of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, unless otherwise approved in writing by Chick-fil-A in advance.

(e) The Operator will use and occupy the Site in compliance with all laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, orders and regulations of governmental authorities in effect from time to time, applicable to or affecting the occupancy, operation and maintenance of the Business or the Site, including all applicable federal, state, county, municipal and local health, safety and sanitation laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, orders and regulations, wage and hours laws, zoning and building code restrictions, the Americans with Disabilities Act, fire, environmental laws, and all directions of all public officers applicable to the any one or more of the Site, the Business or the Operator. Environmental laws include 42 U.S.C. §9601 et seq., 42 U.S.C. §6901 et seq., 49 U.S.C. §1801 et seq., 15 U.S.C. §2601 et seq., and local, state and federal regulations promulgated under these federal statutes.

(f) The Operator hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Operator's operation of the Site during the Term of this Agreement could be restricted or changed as a result of an amendment or modification to the Concession Agreement either entered into by Chick-fil-A in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment with Concessionor or otherwise binding on Chick-fil-A (including without limitation an amendment or modification to any one or more of any prime lease, ground lease, or other title documents or the manner of calculating the use/occupancy fee payable to Concessionor as provided for under the Concession Agreement and summarized on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. These amendments or modifications could include changes to the Operator's ability or right to offer menu items, use or place signage, engage in promotions or marketing efforts, have or enjoy interior or exterior physical restaurant layouts, designs, access, driveways, parking or other premises features and matters. The Operator consents and agrees to abide by, and specifically waives and releases any claim or demand the Operator has or may have under the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement or otherwise arising out of or relating to, any amendments or modifications to the Concession Agreement (including with regard to any covenants or restrictions and any final, new or substituted fees payable to Concessionor). Chick-fil-A will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Operator of any amendment or modification impacting the Site, but any delay or lack of notice will not affect the Operator's consent, agreement, waiver or release granted above, or the validity or enforceability of any amended or modified provision agreed to by Chick-fil-A and Concessionor from time to time.

(g) The Operator will not make any agreement with Concessionor which does or could modify, amend, cancel or terminate the Concession Agreement.

(h) Chick-fil-A and the Operator acknowledge and agree that the actual title of the Concession Agreement may differ from the words “Concession Agreement” and the definitions assigned to Chick-fil-A as licensee or concessionaire and to Concessionor may also differ from the terms used in this Agreement, but for purposes of this Agreement the terms “Concession Agreement,” “Concessionor” and “Concessionaire” will be used to refer to the corresponding title and terms actually used in the Concession Agreement.

(i) Chick-fil-A is sublicensing to the Operator, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, only those rights acquired by Chick-fil-A by virtue of the Concession Agreement. The Concession Agreement describes Concessionor's duties which Concessionor, and not Chick-fil-A, is obligated to perform. If Concessionor fails to perform its duties under the Concession Agreement, the Operator must send Chick-fil-A written notice describing Concessionor's default in detail. Upon receipt of the notice, Chick-fil-A will then promptly notify Concessionor and demand performance of the Concession Agreement. In the event the Operator wishes to engage the services of an attorney to settle any disputes arising out of the Concession Agreement, all fees and costs will be borne by the Operator, it being understood that Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to bring or defend any action brought by or against the Operator or Concessionor.

(j) The Operator acknowledges that there may be certain provisions in the Concession Agreement, including any provision against competition among the licensees or concessionaries of the overall premises in which the Site is located, requiring performance by other licensees or concessionaries within the premises or by the Concessionor. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any breach or default of any of these provisions by any other licensees or concessionaries within the overall premises or by the Concessionor, or for Concessionor's failure, inability (whether temporary or indefinite), or simple refusal, to enforce any of these provisions. The Operator further acknowledges that Chick-fil-A will have no obligation whatsoever to require Concessionor to enforce any provision against any other licensees or concessionaires.

(k) This Agreement is not and shall not be interpreted or deemed to be an assignment of the Concession Agreement to the Operator. It is the express intent of the parties to enter into a sublicense or subconcession agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator and not to make an assignment of the Concession Agreement to the Operator.

3. Operator Warranties and Obligations.

(a) The Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner pursuant to the Assignment and Consent to Assignment (the “Assignment”) and the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), each represents and warrants to Chick-fil-A that the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner will not contravene any certificate of incorporation or certificate of formation, by-laws, operating agreement, law or regulation or agreement applicable to the Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner, or this Agreement or the Concession Agreement. The Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner each further covenants and agrees to comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the Operator and the Operator-Owner, respectively, during the Term in conjunction with the Operator's or as applicable the Operator-Owner's performance of the Concession Agreement as sublicensee or subconcessionaire.

(b) By taking possession of the Site, the Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator has inspected the Site and the improvements on the Site and found them to be in a safe, satisfactory, and completed condition. The Site, including the Equipment and the Leasehold Improvements in and on the Site, are provided to Operator by Chick-fil-A and/or Consignor “AS IS” and “WHERE IS” and without any warranty of any kind from Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A expressly disclaims any representations or warranties, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, with respect to the Site, including the Equipment and the Leasehold Improvements, including, without limitation, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

(c) The menu of Products that may be offered, sold and distributed from the Concession Location(s) will be limited to the Products authorized under the Concession Agreement and stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. If stated in Exhibit A, certain Products sold or distributed from the Concession Location(s) identified in Exhibit A may be freshly produced at the Concession Location(s), while other Products or the components of other Products identified in Exhibit A must be freshly produced in the Business identified in Exhibit A, which will serve as a commissary for the Concession Location(s), and delivered to the Concession Location(s) via approved Temperature Management System (TMS) bags. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, only Products that are approved for sale in the Chick-fil-A System (and specifically approved for sale at the Concession Location(s)) may be sold from, produced and/or held in the Concession Location(s). Products or components of Products freshly produced at the Concession Location(s) may only be sold or distributed from the Concession Location(s) and may not be sold, delivered, or given away to the Operator's Business identified in Exhibit A, any other Business(es) which the Operator has the right to operate under the Franchise Agreement (if any), to customers or consumers located elsewhere or to other Chick-fil-A[®] franchisees.

(d) Product production and the manner of delivery, storage and holding of Product, Product components and Ingredients, at, in or between the Concession Location(s) and the Business, if applicable, will be performed according to Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards, including any Guidelines for Satellite Unit locations established by Chick-fil-A, and delivered to or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time. The provisions, terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement concerning the sources for purchase of Products and Ingredients will apply to the sources of Products and Ingredients to supply the Concession Location(s). Any transportation of Products, Ingredients, promotional items, and other items by the Operator will comply with and will otherwise abide by all applicable health, sanitation, food handling, food transportation and insurance requirements provided by law, the requirements contained in the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement and as otherwise required by Chick-fil-A (whichever provides the most stringent requirements).

(e) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Concession Agreement, if at any time Chick-fil-A or Concessionor determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that the Site should be remodeled, refurbished, rebuilt or relocated, Chick-fil-A, Concessionor, or as applicable, their respective agents and designees will have the right to reenter the Site and to remodel, refurbish, rebuild or relocate the Business and/or the Site, in accordance with Chick-fil-A's and/or Concessionor's then-current policies and procedures for the remodeling, refurbishing, rebuilding and relocating of sites, including without limitation making such site selection and design, structural, remodeling, redecoration and other modifications and changes to the Site, Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, design and décor, trade dress, color scheme and other things as Chick-fil-A and/or Concessionor deems necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement and/or the Concession Agreement, the Operator will permit and cooperate with Chick-fil-A and/or Concessionor and their respective agents and designees to coordinate and complete, any such remodeling, refurbishment, rebuilding or relocating of the Site.

(f) The Operator will not make or permit any change in, alteration of, or addition to any part of the Site, or remove any Leasehold Improvements or any of the Equipment, unless required by or agreed to by Chick-fil-A and/or as applicable Concessionor as provided in the Concession Agreement. All buildings and improvements and all plumbing, heating, lighting, electrical and air conditioning fixtures and equipment and all property which, as of the Effective Date, are the property of Chick-fil-A (including the Equipment) or of Concessionor or the fee owner of the Site, are and will remain the property of the respective owner and considered to be leased or sublicensed under this Agreement.

(g) The Operator acknowledges the insurance requirements set forth in Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement and covenants and agrees to maintain in full force and effect during the entire Agreed Term, at the Operator's own expense, insurance on the Site and for the operation of the Satellite Unit as set forth and otherwise required pursuant to Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement, including any changes or modifications, subject to any additional or greater coverage requirements and terms and conditions under the Concession Agreement or any prime lease or ground lease. If the Operator fails to obtain the required insurance, Chick-fil-A may at its option, but is not obligated to, purchase the insurance, and the Operator will reimburse Chick-fil-A pursuant to Subsection 5(f). Additionally, Chick-fil-A may elect, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, and the Operator may authorize Chick-fil-A from time to time to purchase and administer the required minimum insurance on the Operator's behalf. In any event, by placing any required minimum insurance, Chick-fil-A assumes no responsibility for coverage or premium expenses nor guarantees coverage or payment for any losses sustained by the Operator.

(h) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Concession Agreement, Chick-fil-A and its designees will have the right to enter and inspect the Site at any time on any Business Day, without notice to the Operator, to insure that the Operator and all aspects of the Site are in compliance with this Agreement, the Concession Agreement and all then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines as described and/or defined in the Franchise Agreement.

(i) The Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner reaffirms the provisions of Section 25.3 of the Franchise Agreement as applicable to the Satellite Unit, and each acknowledges and agrees that the Satellite Unit involves risk, and the success or lack of success of any particular Chick-fil-A Business is unknown. The Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner each has made its own independent determination of the viability of and within this particular location and is not relying on any representations or claims whatsoever as to the actual or prospective profitability, ease of operation, success or failure, costs to construct, of this or any other Chick-fil-A concession restaurant business located within Concessionor's premises.

4. Term; Termination.

(a) Unless earlier terminated as provided in this Agreement or in the Franchise Agreement, the initial term of this Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit (the "Initial Term") will commence as of the Effective Date of this Agreement and will end on the Thirty-First day of December of the year in which the Effective Date occurs. The Initial Term, together with any and all extensions of the Initial Term and subject to the rights for earlier termination or expiration pursuant to this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, is sometimes referred to in this Agreement as the "Agreed Term" or the "Term." Unless this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement or the Concession Agreement is terminated earlier, the Agreed Term of this Agreement will be automatically extended for successive additional periods of one (1) year, unless written notice of intent not to renew either the Franchise Agreement or this Agreement is given by either party to the other at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the Agreed Term; provided however, this Agreement may not be renewed if the Operator does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement or does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit or the Franchise Agreement is otherwise terminated or not renewed, as provided in Section 2.3 of the Franchise Agreement. In addition to Chick-fil-A's right to amend or modify the Concession Agreement pursuant to this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will have the right to change the terms and conditions of this Agreement upon a renewal pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Franchise Agreement by giving the Operator a written notice of the changed terms and conditions at least forty-five (45) days prior to the end of the then-current Term, in which case the Operator will have fifteen (15) days from the date of the notice to decide and to notify Chick-

fil-A in writing of the Operator's decision to either renew or not renew upon the changed terms and conditions offered. The Operator's failure to provide timely notice to Chick-fil-A of a decision to either renew or not renew upon the changed terms and conditions offered will be deemed to be an election by the Operator to terminate this Agreement at the end of such Agreed Term.

(b) The rights granted under this Agreement are contingent upon the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), this Agreement and the Concession Agreement being in full force and effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit, the Site of which is subject to the Concession Agreement and may be subordinate and further subject to any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents attached as exhibits to the Concession Agreement, will terminate automatically, without any notice to the Operator upon (i) the expiration or earlier termination of the Concession Agreement, or any applicable prime lease or ground lease for the Site; (ii) the termination, expiration, closure or loss of the Concession Location(s); or (iii) the termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement or the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable). Chick-fil-A will have the sole right in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment whether to exercise any termination rights or renewal rights under the Concession Agreement and whether to negotiate and agree upon any renewal terms, which may result in amendments or modifications to the Concession Agreement, including those described in Subsection 2(f).

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in addition to the above, this Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit will terminate automatically without any notice to the Operator if and when the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) dies or becomes disabled to the extent that the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) is unable to perform the obligations required under the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement.

(d) If: (i) the Operator does not diligently make application for and pursue the required permits and licenses to operate the Satellite Unit; and/or (ii) the Operator does not open the Concession Location(s) within forty-five (45) days after Chick-fil-A completed its obligation to provide and install the Equipment and any additional Equipment pursuant to Subsection 6(a) and the Equipment Lease Addendum attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B and after Concessionor completed construction and development of the Concession Location(s) and access to the Concession Location(s) was provided by Concessionor (or earlier time period required under the Concession Agreement for commencement of operation of the Satellite Unit), then the Operator will be in material default under this Agreement and Chick-fil-A may terminate this Agreement upon ten (10) days' written notice.

(e) In addition to the termination provisions elsewhere in this Agreement, including in this Section 4, this Agreement and the term and license granted in this Agreement are subject to the limitation that upon the occurrence, at any time prior to or during the Term, of any one or more Events of Default (as defined below), the Operator is in default under this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will have the right and, at its election, may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Subsection 4(f) below without any prejudice to any other remedy available to Chick-fil-A at law or in equity. The following events (referred to as "Events of Default") will each be an event of default by the Operator under this Agreement: (i) the Operator defaults in the payment of any installment of the Use/Occupancy Charge, the Equipment Rental or any other sum due under this Agreement; (ii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) defaults in any of the covenants, agreements, conditions or undertakings to be performed, observed or complied with by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) under this Agreement other than the payment of the Use/Occupancy Charge, the Equipment Rental or any other sum due under this Agreement, and other than any other Event of Default listed in this Subsection 4(e), and such default continues for ten (10) days after notice in writing to the Operator; (iii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) attempts or otherwise purports to assign or encumber this Agreement (or the Operator's interest in this Agreement or in the Site) to or to sublet or allow occupancy of the Site by a third party without the express written consent and approval of

Chick-fil-A, and Concessionor, contrary to Section 9 below; (iv) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) violates, breaches or otherwise defaults in any of the terms of the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement or the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), or the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement or the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) terminates or expires by lapse of time or otherwise; (v) the Operator or any of its officers, directors, members, employees, agents or contractors (including, without limitation, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) performs any act, neglects to perform any duty or fails to comply with any standard of conduct that would constitute a violation or default (or threatens to violate or default) under the Concession Agreement, any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents (or any document related to any of the above); (vi) the Operator vacates or abandons the Site.

(f) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default as set forth in Subsection 4(e) above, Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, will have the right, upon its election, to terminate this Agreement immediately and to declare the Term of this Agreement ended upon delivering written notice of termination to Operator, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator. If this Agreement is terminated under this Subsection 4(f) or otherwise terminates or expires, then (1) the Franchise Agreement will also immediately and automatically terminate or expire as to the Satellite Unit effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement and at the election of Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, as to one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement, effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement upon delivering written notice of termination to Operator, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator; and (2) Chick-fil-A will have the right to re-enter upon and take possession of the Site without further formality and without the necessity of any court action, dispossessory proceeding, or further notice or legal proceedings whatsoever. Chick-fil-A and the Operator also expressly acknowledge and agree that the termination, expiration, or revocation of the Franchise Agreement by either party for any reason, either in whole or in part, will also terminate this Agreement effective immediately, without further notice being required.

(g) Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Operator will quit and surrender the premises of the Concession Location(s) to Chick-fil-A but the Operator will remain liable for the balance of the Use/Occupancy Charge, the Equipment Rental or any other sum due under this Agreement to Chick-fil-A or any payments due Concessionor as provided in the Concession Agreement and/or in this Agreement. The Operator agrees that upon default Concessionor may demand, receive and collect any monies due or falling due after the default without in any manner affecting the status of the default or any notice of suit, action, order or judgment related to the default. Upon termination of the Concession Agreement and/or this Agreement, any payment made by the Operator to Chick-fil-A or Concessionaire or any court will not: (i) reinstate, continue or extend the term of this Agreement; (ii) affect any notice previously given to the Operator; or (iii) operate as a waiver of the right of Chick-fil-A to obtain access to and possession of the Concession Location(s) by proper suit, action, proceeding or remedy. All monies collected will be deemed to be payments made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or applied toward any outstanding balances owed by the Operator.

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or in the Franchise Agreement, the terms of this Agreement and the Operator's use, occupancy, maintenance, repair and restoration of the Site are subject and subordinate to the terms, covenants, conditions, agreements and requirements of the Concession Agreement and any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents attached as exhibit(s) to the Concession Agreement. The Operator must not commit or permit to be committed on or with regard to the Site any act or omission that will violate any term or condition of the Concession Agreement or any attached prime lease, ground lease or other title documents. Chick-fil-A may exercise any and all remedies available to Concessionor under the Concession Agreement in order for

Chick-fil-A to enforce its rights under this Agreement, in addition to any other remedies provided under this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement or available at law or in equity.

5. Use/Occupancy Charge to Concessionor; Payments to Chick-fil-A.

(a) Except as specifically provided for under the Concession Agreement and stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, the Operator agrees to directly make all payments to Concessionor for use/occupancy of the Concession Location(s) required under the Concession Agreement in the manner required (collectively, the "Use/Occupancy Charge"). The Use/Occupancy Charge may be described as a use/occupancy fee, rent, license fees, service fees or otherwise. Alternatively, Concessionor may collect the Gross Receipts of the Satellite Unit from sales to customers and then distribute to the Operator (or Chick-fil-A on the Operator's behalf) a "commission," where the commission is the balance of the Gross Receipts after Concessionor subtracts the Use/Occupancy Charge amount (and if applicable, any sales tax Concessionor undertakes the responsibility to report and pay). The Use/Occupancy Charge is summarized on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. Except as specifically stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, as between Chick-fil-A and the Operator, Chick-fil-A will not have any monetary obligation to Concessionor under this Agreement. If the Operator is late in making any payment or fails to make any payment due to Concessionor under the Concession Agreement, the Operator will indemnify and hold harmless Chick-fil-A pursuant to Section 10 of this Agreement.

(b) At the election of Chick-fil-A, the payment program described under Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement will apply to the Operator's payment obligations with respect to the Use/Occupancy Charge and any of the Operator's other payment obligations described in the Concession Agreement, and any adjustment or increases to the Operator's payment obligations.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Concession Agreement, as between Chick-fil-A and the Operator, all Gross Receipts generated as a result of sales from the Satellite Unit, will be deemed to be Gross Receipts of the Operator, and the Operator and not Chick-fil-A will have sole responsibility for payment of any sales, use, or excise tax, any apportioned personal property tax or any other tax arising from the Satellite Unit, the sale and distribution of Products and promotional items, the lease of the Equipment and/or the presence of the Equipment at the Satellite Unit, directly or through Concessionor. The parties acknowledge and agree that sales, use, or similar taxes may be due and payable even when Products and promotional items are given away and not sold.

(d) Gross Receipts generated as a result of sales from the Satellite Unit will be accounted for on a separate Fee Calculation Report for the Satellite Unit. Except as specifically stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, the Fee Calculation Report will also reflect the calculation and payment of all fees and other operating costs and expenses related to the operation of the Satellite Unit that are due and will be calculated under the terms of the Franchise Agreement. Chick-fil-A will have the right and Operator authorizes Chick-fil-A to account for the Gross Receipts, fees, operating costs, expenses and taxes incurred with respect to the Satellite Unit and to make calculations and allocations to Operator's Businesses as may be required under the Franchise Agreement and in order to effectuate the terms of the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement and to produce the Fee Calculation Report for each of Operator's Businesses.

(e) The Operator understands and agrees that the Operator's obligation to furnish and send reports and records pursuant to Section 15.1 and Section 15.2 of the Franchise Agreement applies to the Satellite Unit and includes all reports and records designated by Chick-fil-A that the Operator furnishes to or receives from Concessionor. The Operator authorizes Chick-fil-A to request and receive any reports and records it designates relating to the Satellite Unit directly from Concessionor.

(f) If any charge, fee, cost or expense which the Operator is obligated to pay pursuant to this Agreement or the Concession Agreement is initially billed to or paid by Chick-fil-A, Chick-fil-A will have the right to rebill the amount to the Operator. If Chick-fil-A rebills any amount to the Operator, the Operator will pay promptly the rebilled charge, fee, cost or expense directly to the appropriate business, governmental authority or other person or entity. If Chick-fil-A, at its election, pays any charge, fee, cost or expense on behalf of the Operator, the Operator will reimburse Chick-fil-A immediately upon the Operator's receipt of Chick-fil-A's written notice of having made the payment, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, either by (i) issuing Chick-fil-A a check or (ii) acknowledging and, to the extent required, approving Chick-fil-A's adjustments to the amounts owed by Chick-fil-A to the Operator or owed by the Operator to Chick-fil-A under the Franchise Agreement.

(g) If the Operator fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or under the Concession Agreement, Chick-fil-A, at its option, may (but is not required to) do the same or cause the same to be done, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies of Chick-fil-A. The cost incurred by Chick-fil-A in connection with such performance by Chick-fil-A will be an additional charge due from the Operator to Chick-fil-A, together with interest for the period beginning with the original due incurred to the date of actual payment at an annual rate equal to the highest rate allowed by law or, if there is no maximum rate permitted by law, then a rate equal to one and one-quarter percent (1.25%) per month. Interest will be calculated on the basis of monthly compounding and the actual number of days elapsed divided by 365. Interest will be in addition to any other rights or remedies Chick-fil-A may have under this Agreement.

6. Leased Equipment and Fee.

(a) Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Equipment Lease Addendum attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B as it may be amended from time to time, Chick-fil-A has delivered, or will deliver to the Site, the Equipment (as defined below) and other property described in the Equipment Lease Addendum solely for use in the operation of the Satellite Unit. "Equipment" means the equipment and other property delivered, or to be delivered to the Site, by Chick-fil-A as described in the Equipment Lease Addendum together with any replacements of and additions or accessions to the original equipment.

(b) In consideration of the lease of the Equipment, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A when due, the Equipment Rental stated in Exhibit B.

7. Default; Termination and Expiration. In addition to the termination and expiration provisions in Section 2 and Section 4 of this Agreement, this Agreement and the rights granted under this Agreement may be terminated for a default under this Agreement or the Concession Agreement in the manner provided in the Franchise Agreement or the Concession Agreement. A default by the Operator under the Concession Agreement will also be a default under this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement. Subject to Section 8 of this Agreement, if this Agreement is terminated or expires, then the Franchise Agreement shall also immediately and automatically terminate or expire as to the Satellite Unit, and at the election of Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, as to one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement, effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement upon delivering written notice of termination to Operator, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator. The rights granted under this Agreement, including the sublicense granted in Subsection 2(a) of this Agreement, will also immediately and automatically terminate or expire effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement, and Chick-fil-A will have the right to enter upon and take possession of the Site and the Satellite Unit without further formality and without the necessity of any court action, dispossession proceeding, or further notice or legal proceedings whatsoever. The Operator agrees to vacate the Site and the Satellite Unit immediately upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the Concession Agreement and the accompanying sublicense and to permit the peaceable possession of the Site and the Satellite Unit by Chick-fil-A or, at Chick-fil-A's election, a Chick-fil-A affiliate or another Chick-fil-A franchisee. Chick-fil-A may operate the Concession Location(s) directly or through an affiliate or may offer the right to operate the Concession Location(s) to another franchisee.

8. Survival. Upon the termination, expiration, or suspension of this Agreement, all obligations under this Agreement and under the Franchise Agreement that expressly or by their nature are intended to survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any limitations of liability, and the Operator's and if applicable, the Operator-Owner's reporting, payment and indemnification obligations to Chick-fil-A (as well as any like obligations under the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Assignment, which were incorporated by reference into this Agreement and the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), will survive the termination, expiration or suspension of this Agreement.

9. Compliance with Franchise Agreement and the Assignment. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the Operator, and if applicable, the Operator-Owner, respectively, will comply with all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Assignment with respect to this Agreement, the Site and the Satellite Unit, even if not specifically described or referred to in this Agreement. As a reminder, but in no way limiting the application of all of the other provisions of the Franchise Agreement, the provisions of the Franchise Agreement include: Article 5 DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY, Article 7 INSURANCE, Article 12 STANDARDS OF CLEANLINESS, SANITATION AND BUSINESS CONDUCT, Article 18 TRADE SECRETS AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, Article 19 USE OF THE MARKS, Article 21 TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST, Article 22 REMEDIES, Article 24 TERMINATION, Article 25 FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP, Article 27 INDEMNIFICATION, and Article 28 GENERAL PROVISIONS. Article 28 GENERAL PROVISIONS includes provisions with regard to notices as set forth in subsection 28.1, the parties' choice of Georgia law and a Georgia forum to resolve their disputes as set forth in subsection 28.9 and subsection 28.10, the waiver of any right to trial by jury as set forth in subsection 28.15 and Operator's agreement not to pursue any class claims as set forth in subsection 28.13. Pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Additional Business Amendment to which this Agreement is attached, these and all of the other applicable provisions of the Franchise Agreement will be read to apply also to this Agreement. To the extent that there is a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Assignment, the express terms of this Agreement will control with respect to the Permitted Use authorized under this Agreement and the limited sublicense granted for the Permitted Use. In addition, the Operator must not do anything in connection with the Site or the Satellite Unit that would adversely impact Chick-fil-A's reputation or image in the community and will not use or conduct operations from the Site on Sunday or Christmas Day. Chick-fil-A has the right to assign this Agreement to any person or entity in its sole and exclusive business judgment, and the benefits and obligations of Chick-fil-A under this Agreement will inure to and be binding upon any such assigns. The Operator may not lend, sublicense, subcontract, encumber or in any way transfer or assign the Site, the Satellite Unit or any of the Equipment, Leasehold Improvements or any rights under this Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) or the Concession Agreement, or transfer any interest in the Operator (if Operator is an entity), except as may be permitted under the Franchise Agreement. Chick-fil-A will retain all rights attendant to or associated with the ownership of the Equipment and license or sublease of the Site, including the right to depreciate the improvements and the Equipment at the Site for tax, accounting and all other purposes.

10. Indemnification and Waiver.

(a) If Chick-fil-A, or a subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit or a like business on the Site is subjected to any claim, demand or penalty or becomes a party to any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding by reason of (i) any claimed act or omission by the Operator, if applicable the Operator-Owner or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees regarding or relating to the Concession Location(s) or any of the customers, agents, contractors or employees of Concessionor or the Concession Location(s); (ii) any claimed violation of any law or ordinance by the Operator, if applicable the Operator-Owner or its agents, contractors or employees regarding or relating to the Concession Location(s) or any of the customers, agents, contractors or employees of Concessionor or the Concession Location(s); (iii) any damages allegedly resulting from a breach by the Operator and/or if applicable the Operator-Owner of this Agreement or the Concession Agreement; (iv) any damages allegedly resulting from a willful misrepresentation by the Operator, if applicable the Operator-Owner or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees to Chick-fil-A or Concessionor; or (v) any personal injury, death or otherwise, allegedly caused by or resulting from the negligent or intentional action or misfeasance of the Operator, the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers or if applicable the Operator-Owner; then the Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner jointly and severally, will indemnify and hold harmless Chick-fil-A and any subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit against all judgments, settlements, penalties, expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs and other costs of litigation or administrative proceedings incurred by or imposed on Chick-fil-A.

(b) At the election of Chick-fil-A or any subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit, the Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner will also defend Chick-fil-A or the subsequent operator in any action or suit in which a plaintiff claims or seeks damages or other award of the type listed above, subject to the rights of any one or more of Chick-fil-A or the subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit to control the litigation. The parties expressly understood and agreed that the covenants, agreements and services to be rendered and performed by the Operator under this Section 10 will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, whether voluntary or involuntary, with or without cause, and are special, unique, and of an extraordinary character.

(c) The Operator's and if applicable the Operator-Owner's obligations under this section will apply with respect to, among other things, the Satellite Unit, the Site, the Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, in and on the Site, and any personal property of any person or entity, any personal injury or death, any claim, demand or penalty, and any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding arising out of or relating to or in connection with the Site, the Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, the Concession Agreement or this Agreement, as applicable, all of which will be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Operator. This section is not intended to and does not convey any benefits to any third party and does not prevent the Operator from seeking indemnification from another third party whose actions, or the actions of the third party's employee, were the source of any injury, damage or loss.

(d) The Operator's obligations under this section will be in addition to any indemnity and insurance provisions contained in the Concession Agreement and in the Franchise Agreement.

(e) The Operator waives the service of any notice of intention to re-enter or to institute legal proceedings to that end which otherwise might be required to be given under any present or future law. The Operator will not have, and hereby expressly waives, any and all rights which are or may be conferred upon the Operator by any present or future law to redeem this Agreement or the Site, or to re-enter the Site, or to restore the operation of this Agreement, after (i) re-entry by Chick-fil-A, (ii) any warrant to dispossess or judgment in ejection or (iii) any expiration or termination of this Agreement and the Agreed Term, whether such dispossession, re-entry, expiration or termination of this Agreement and the Agreed Term is by operation of law or pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement. If Chick-fil-A acquires possession without judicial proceedings, it will be deemed a re-entry within the meaning of that word as used in this Agreement and not a technical or legal definition. In the event that Chick-fil-A elects to recover possession by invoking judicial process, the Operator acknowledges that the Site is to be used for commercial purposes, and the Operator expressly waives and relinquishes any and all protections and rights afforded a commercial tenant under Georgia law, including without limitation O.C.G.A. § 44-7-52, if applicable, or any law of like import now or in the future in effect or applicable, if any.

11. Effectiveness; Time is of Essence; Independent Contractor. This Agreement will not become valid against either party hereto until it has been executed by the Operator and accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to the due performance of the terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement, provided, however, that no delay or failure to enforce any of the provisions contained in this Agreement and no conduct or statement will waive or affect any of Chick-fil-A's rights under this Agreement. The Operator will have no authority, express or implied, to act as agent of Chick-fil-A or any of its affiliates for any purpose. The Operator is, and will remain, an independent contractor responsible for all obligations and liabilities, directly or indirectly, resulting from the operation of the Satellite Unit located on the Site. All agreements, covenants and indemnifications contained in this Agreement or made in writing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement by or on behalf of the Operator will be deemed material and will survive expiration or sooner termination of this Agreement.

12. Execution; Entire Agreement; Counterparts.

(a) The parties acknowledge and agree that the data sheet attached as Exhibit A as it may be amended from time to time is complete and accurate and forms a part of this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement, including its exhibits and amendments, including the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, the Equipment Lease Addendum attached as Exhibit B, and the Concession Agreement attached as Exhibit C, as well as the Franchise Agreement, the Assignment (if applicable) and if applicable the Additional Business Amendment to which this Agreement is attached, and all documents, schedules, exhibits, and information specifically incorporated into this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement by reference, collectively constitute the complete and integrated agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, the operation of the Satellite Unit as a Business and the Concession Agreement, and supersede all prior agreements between the parties. No other representations or statements of any kind have induced the Operator to sign this Agreement except that the Operator may rely on Chick-fil-A's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that Chick-fil-A delivered to the Operator, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with the Operator's entry into the Franchise Agreement and if applicable this Agreement (the "FDD"). No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement (including the attached Concession Agreement), the Franchise Agreement, the Assignment (if applicable), the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) or in the FDD were made by either party and none will have any effect with reference to this Agreement. No officer, employee, or other servant or agent of Chick-fil-A is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement (including the attached Concession Agreement), the Franchise Agreement, the Assignment (if applicable), the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) or in the FDD. No change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement will bind Chick-fil-A unless in writing and signed by Chick-fil-A.

(c) This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and at various times and at various places by the several parties, all of which counterparts taken together will be deemed as one original. Executed copies of this Agreement, whether delivered by electronic transmission or otherwise, will be deemed to be as effective as original signatures.

13. Severability. Each and every provision of this Agreement is severable, and invalidity of one or more provisions will not, in any way, affect the validity of this Agreement or any other provision of this Agreement. If any phrase, clause or provision in this Agreement is deemed to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, to the extent permitted by applicable law, it will not be stricken in its entirety and held totally void and unenforceable, but will remain effective to the maximum extent permissible.

14. Captions. The section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and will not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(Per Concession Location)

EQUIPMENT LEASE ADDENDUM

1. Chick-fil-A rents to the Operator, and the Operator rents from Chick-fil-A, commencing on the Effective Date, upon the terms and conditions stated below, the Equipment listed on Schedule 1 attached to this Equipment Lease Addendum (together with any replacements and additions or accessions to Schedule 1). The Operator agrees that Chick-fil-A will have the right, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to substitute comparable Equipment for that which is listed on Schedule 1. The Operator will keep and maintain the Equipment only at the Concession Location(s), unless otherwise approved in writing by Chick-fil-A, may use the Equipment only in connection with the Operator's operation of the Concession Location(s), will service and repair the Equipment in order to maintain the Equipment's appearance and good working condition, and will not make any changes, alterations or additions to the Equipment without the prior written consent of Chick-fil-A and if applicable, Concessionor, all in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards, Guidelines and other policies and procedures as may be amended by Chick-fil-A from time to time. In servicing and repairing the Equipment, the Operator will solely use suppliers and vendors that demonstrate the ability to meet Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines for the items and that possess adequate quality controls, experience and capacity to service and repair the Equipment and otherwise supply the Operator's needs promptly, accurately and reliably, provided that the Operator will also comply with the Concession Agreement. In the event of any conflict between Concessionor's requirements and Chick-fil-A's requirements, the Operator will notify Chick-fil-A before having any service or repair work performed. In the exercise of Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, Chick-fil-A may deliver used Equipment to the Concession Location(s) or leave Equipment at the Concession Location(s) which had been used at the Concession Location(s) prior to the date of this Agreement.

2. Commencing on the Effective Date, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A, in Atlanta, Georgia, a monthly rental for the Equipment based on its then current fair market rental which Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive judgment initially determined to be Seven Hundred Fifty and No/100 Dollars ($750.00) (the "Equipment Rental"). Chick-fil-A will have the right from time to time to re-determine the Equipment Rental in its sole and exclusive business judgment based on the then current fair market rental value for the Equipment due to additions, subtractions, and modifications to the Equipment, market factors, inflation, passage of time or otherwise, and to update the Equipment Rental to an amount based on the then determined, current fair market rental, which will be set forth in a revised Equipment Lease Addendum and substituted and attached to this Agreement as revised Exhibit B. At Chick-fil-A's election, the program described in Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement will apply to the Operator's payment obligations described in this Agreement with respect to the Equipment and any other payment obligations of the Operator under this Agreement, and any adjustment or increases to the Operator's payment obligations.

3. Commencing on the Effective Date, the Operator will timely pay directly to the appropriate business, governmental entity or other person or entity any and all costs and expenses of operating and maintaining the Equipment for the Concession Location(s) during the Term of the Concession Agreement, including the following:

- (i) all charges, costs and expenses necessary to maintain the Equipment in good condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;
- (ii) all taxes, levies and charges assessed against the Equipment and/or against the Operator or Chick-fil-A in respect of the Equipment, including but not limited to any property tax or any sales or use tax assessed on the Equipment Rental; and

(iii) all charges and costs of all ordinary repairs to the Equipment.

4. If in the sole and exclusive business judgment of Chick-fil-A any Equipment becomes worn out due to normal wear and tear and the affected Equipment cannot reasonably be repaired, then Chick-fil-A will replace the affected Equipment at its own expense. The Operator is responsible for and must replace at the Operator's own expense any and all equipment or other items not listed on Schedule 1 but used in the operation of the Concession Location(s), as and to the extent any of this equipment and other related items become worn out. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Operator due to any inability to use or any interruption in the use of the Equipment or any other Concession Location(s) equipment, furnishings or fixtures.

5. The Operator and the Operator-Owner hereby agree that the Additional Business described above shall be governed by the terms of the Agreement and the Assignment, as amended by this Amendment. Pursuant to Section 2.6 of the Agreement, the Concession Agreement and any Prime Lease, Ground Lease or other rental obligations of the Operator with respect to the Additional Business shall be attached to the Concession Sublicense Agreement for the Additional Business which is attached as Exhibit "A" to this Amendment.
6. This Amendment, including the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Concession Sublicense Agreement, shall be attached to, incorporated in, and become and constitute a part of the Agreement. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Amendment, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement.
7. Operator and the Operator-Owner acknowledge and agree to all of their respective obligations under the Assignment and the Agreement as if entered into, undertaken and otherwise made again this day (with this Amendment, including the Concession Sublicense Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Concession Sublicense Agreement) and reaffirm the continuing existence and validity of the Agreement and the Assignment. Subject to their terms and conditions, as modified by this Amendment, the Agreement and the Assignment are in full force and effect as of the date of this Amendment, and shall remain in full force and effect.
8. Pursuant to the Assignment and this Amendment, the Operator-Owner agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Amendment and the Concession Sublicense Agreement including its attached Concession Agreement attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Concession Sublicense Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the Operator-Owner irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to Chick-fil-A that: (i) the Operator shall pay all amounts to be paid and otherwise comply with all provisions of the Agreement or any other agreements with Chick-fil-A or its affiliates concerning the operation of the Businesses; and (ii) if the Operator defaults in making any such payments or complying with any such provisions, the Operator-Owner shall pay forthwith upon demand all amounts due and owing Chick-fil-A and all damages that may arise as a result of any such non-compliance.

9. Any violation or breach by the Operator-Owner of any term or condition of the Assignment or the Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Amendment and the Concession Sublicense Agreement attached as Exhibit "A" and any other exhibits to the Concession Sublicense Agreement, shall also constitute a violation and breach of the same term or condition by the Operator, a default by the Operator under said Assignment and Agreement and, pursuant to its terms, grounds for termination and/or non-renewal of the Agreement, this Amendment and the franchise granted under such Agreement.

CONCESSION SUBLICENSE AGREEMENT

THIS CONCESSION SUBLICENSE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") for the Chick-fil-A Restaurant Site described in this Agreement is made by and between CHICK-FIL-A, INC., a Georgia corporation, as sublicensor or concessionaire having its principal business address at 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349-2998 ("Chick-fil-A"), and _____, a _____, as sublicensee or sub-concessionaire (the "Operator"), and will be effective as of the ____ day of _____, 20__.

BACKGROUND

A. Chick-fil-A is currently a party to a certain concession agreement attached as Exhibit C as it may be amended from time to time together with all its exhibits and schedules (the "Concession Agreement") with the third party owner or manager of the Site identified in the Concession Agreement ("Concessionor"). Under the Concession Agreement, Concessionor granted Chick-fil-A the right to conduct a restaurant business and/or a license to operate one or more Chick-fil-A concessions at the Site, consisting of the concession location(s) identified in the data sheet attached as Exhibit A as it may be amended from time to time (individually and collectively, the "Concession Location(s)"). The Site is sometimes also referred to in this Agreement as the "Concession Location(s)."

B. The Operator (i) is a franchised Chick-fil-A[®] Restaurant business operator holding a valid Franchise Agreement (together with its attached Lease(s) and in the case of any Satellite Unit(s), its attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) and their attached Concession Agreement(s), any other existing Additional Business Amendment(s), and all other exhibits and amendments, collectively the "Franchise Agreement") and is entering into this Agreement the same date that the Additional Business Amendment for Satellite to which this Agreement is attached (the "Additional Business Amendment") to operate the Satellite Unit (as defined below) as an Additional Business; or (ii) is entering into the Franchise Agreement to which this Agreement is attached as of the same date that this Agreement shall be effective in order to operate the Satellite Unit as the Initial Business (the Franchise Agreement, this attached Agreement and all other exhibits and amendments, collectively the "Franchise Agreement").

C. Chick-fil-A desires to sublicense its rights and privileges under the Concession Agreement to the Operator, and the Operator desires to accept the sublicense and faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations under the Concession Agreement as part of a set of rights granted by Chick-fil-A to the Operator under the Franchise Agreement to operate a certain quick-service food business at the Concession Location(s) as a Business that is a Satellite Unit under the trade name "Chick-fil-A" pursuant to the Franchise Agreement. The Business that is operated pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment if applicable, and this Agreement, is sometimes also referred to in this Agreement as the "Satellite Unit."

D. This Agreement, its attached Concession Agreement and (if applicable) the Additional Business Amendment to which they are attached are a part of and are incorporated by reference into the Franchise Agreement. If the Satellite Unit is an Additional Business under the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement is the applicable Exhibit "A" to the Additional Business Amendment that is used for Satellite Units in place of any Lease for the Satellite Unit. If the Satellite Unit is the Initial Business under the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement and its attached Concession Agreement is the applicable Exhibit "A" to the Franchise Agreement that is used for Satellite Units in in place of any Lease for the Satellite Unit.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the above recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Recitals; Definitions. The parties incorporate into this Agreement the recitals under the Background section above as if stated here in full. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement, including in Exhibit A, Exhibit B and Exhibit C as they may be amended from time to time, which are incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement by this reference, will have the meanings given to them in the Franchise Agreement and the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable).

2. Sublicense; Use; Operator Duty to Perform Under Concession Agreement.

(a) As of the effective date of this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) and this Agreement, Chick-fil-A grants a limited sublicense or subconcession (collectively, "sublicense") to the Operator of all of its rights and privileges under the Concession Agreement to use and occupy the Site solely for the Business that is a Satellite Unit during the Agreed Term of this Agreement (as defined in Section 4), selling only such products and operating in such a manner as permitted and authorized pursuant to the Franchise Agreement ("Permitted Use"). The limited sublicense is non-exclusive, and no so-called "exclusive," "protected" or other territorial rights in the Site, the Satellite Unit, the Concession Location(s), or the contiguous market area around the Concession Location(s) are granted or inferred. All rights and licenses not expressly granted to the Operator under the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) and this Agreement are reserved exclusively by and unto Chick-fil-A.

(b) The Operator accepts the above grant of the limited sublicense and agrees to be bound by and observe and faithfully perform Chick-fil-A's obligations, agreements, commitments, duties and liabilities as if the Operator is the licensee or concessionaire under the Concession Agreement, except as otherwise agreed by Chick-fil-A and the Operator and stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. Notwithstanding the above, Chick-fil-A will provide and install the Equipment and any additional Equipment pursuant to Section 6 of this Agreement.

(c) The Operator acknowledges and agrees that its rights under this Agreement are derivative of the Operator's status as an Operator under the Franchise Agreement and that these rights will terminate automatically upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement. The Operator will comply with and perform all of the terms, conditions and covenants of the Franchise Agreement. A breach of any of the terms, conditions or covenants of the Franchise Agreement by the Operator will constitute a breach of this Agreement. Neither the Operator nor its employees, agents, contractors or invitees will perform any act, neglect to perform any duty or fail to comply with any standard of conduct, with respect to the franchised Businesses and/or with respect to the Satellite Unit, that would constitute a violation of this Agreement, the Concession Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, as applicable.

(d) The Operator will use and occupy the Site solely for the Permitted Use. The Site, as well as the Operator's use and occupancy of the Site, is subject to the terms and conditions in the Concession Agreement, and any and all agreements or instruments now or in the future of record or otherwise affecting title to or otherwise affecting title to or use of the Site, including any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents, which will be attached as exhibit(s) to the Concession Agreement. The Operator will open and operate the Business only on Monday through and including Saturday each week (excluding Christmas Day) during the minimum hours as may be required under the Concession Agreement and any applicable prime lease, ground lease or other title documents, unless otherwise limited by state or local laws and ordinances, and will otherwise observe and abide by the Franchise Agreement, as well as Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines as they may be modified from time to time concerning the hours of operation of the Business. The Operator will not use, and will not permit any person to use, any part of the Site in violation of this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement and any applicable prime lease, ground lease or other title documents or Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards and Guidelines. The Operator will keep the Site in a clean and wholesome condition, and will repair, maintain and conduct the Satellite Unit on the Site in full compliance with this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement and any applicable prime lease, ground lease or other title documents or Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards and Guidelines, all as modified from time to time. Unless Chick-fil-A (or Concessionor) is remodeling or re-building the Site pursuant to Subsection 3(e) of this Agreement, the Operator will continuously occupy the Site during the Agreed Term and will not vacate or abandon the Site at any time during the Agreed Term, except during designated periods if the use of the Site is seasonal or otherwise limited to certain periods under the Concession Agreement. The Operator will continuously occupy the Site during the applicable periods during the Agreed Term and will not vacate or abandon the Site at any time during the applicable periods during the Agreed Term. The Operator will use only such fixtures, furnishings, signs, other leasehold improvements and similar items and supplies (collectively, the "Leasehold Improvements") as meet all applicable then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines, and otherwise conform to the requirements of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, unless otherwise approved in writing by Chick-fil-A in advance.

(e) The Operator will use and occupy the Site in compliance with all laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, orders and regulations of governmental authorities in effect from time to time, applicable to or affecting the occupancy, operation and maintenance of the Business or the Site, including all applicable federal, state, county, municipal and local health, safety and sanitation laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, orders and regulations, wage and hours laws, zoning and building code restrictions, the Americans with Disabilities Act, fire, environmental laws, and all directions of all public officers applicable to the any one or more of the Site, the Business or the Operator. Environmental laws include 42 U.S.C. §9601 et seq., 42 U.S.C. §6901 et seq., 49 U.S.C. §1801 et seq., 15 U.S.C. §2601 et seq., and local, state and federal regulations promulgated under these federal statutes.

(f) The Operator hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Operator's operation of the Site during the Term of this Agreement could be restricted or changed as a result of an amendment or modification to the Concession Agreement either entered into by Chick-fil-A in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment with Concessionor or otherwise binding on Chick-fil-A (including without limitation an amendment or modification to any one or more of any prime lease, ground lease, or other title documents or the manner of calculating the use/occupancy fee payable to Concessionor as provided for under the Concession Agreement and summarized on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. These amendments or modifications could include changes to the Operator's ability or right to offer menu items, use or place signage, engage in promotions or marketing efforts, have or enjoy interior or exterior physical restaurant layouts, designs, access, driveways, parking or other premises features and matters. The Operator consents and agrees to abide by, and specifically waives and releases any claim or demand the Operator has or may have under the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement or otherwise arising out of or relating to, any amendments or modifications to the Concession Agreement (including with regard to any covenants or restrictions and any final, new or substituted fees payable to Concessionor). Chick-fil-A will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Operator of any amendment or modification impacting the Site, but any delay or lack of notice will not affect the Operator's consent, agreement, waiver or release granted above, or the validity or enforceability of any amended or modified provision agreed to by Chick-fil-A and Concessionor from time to time.

(g) The Operator will not make any agreement with Concessionor which does or could modify, amend, cancel or terminate the Concession Agreement.

(h) Chick-fil-A and the Operator acknowledge and agree that the actual title of the Concession Agreement may differ from the words “Concession Agreement” and the definitions assigned to Chick-fil-A as licensee or concessionaire and to Concessionor may also differ from the terms used in this Agreement, but for purposes of this Agreement the terms “Concession Agreement,” “Concessionor” and “Concessionaire” will be used to refer to the corresponding title and terms actually used in the Concession Agreement.

(i) Chick-fil-A is sublicensing to the Operator, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, only those rights acquired by Chick-fil-A by virtue of the Concession Agreement. The Concession Agreement describes Concessionor's duties which Concessionor, and not Chick-fil-A, is obligated to perform. If Concessionor fails to perform its duties under the Concession Agreement, the Operator must send Chick-fil-A written notice describing Concessionor's default in detail. Upon receipt of the notice, Chick-fil-A will then promptly notify Concessionor and demand performance of the Concession Agreement. In the event the Operator wishes to engage the services of an attorney to settle any disputes arising out of the Concession Agreement, all fees and costs will be borne by the Operator, it being understood that Chick-fil-A is under no obligation to bring or defend any action brought by or against the Operator or Concessionor.

(j) The Operator acknowledges that there may be certain provisions in the Concession Agreement, including any provision against competition among the licensees or concessionaries of the overall premises in which the Site is located, requiring performance by other licensees or concessionaries within the premises or by the Concessionor. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any breach or default of any of these provisions by any other licensees or concessionaries within the overall premises or by the Concessionor, or for Concessionor's failure, inability (whether temporary or indefinite), or simple refusal, to enforce any of these provisions. The Operator further acknowledges that Chick-fil-A will have no obligation whatsoever to require Concessionor to enforce any provision against any other licensees or concessionaires.

(k) This Agreement is not and shall not be interpreted or deemed to be an assignment of the Concession Agreement to the Operator. It is the express intent of the parties to enter into a sublicense or subconcession agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator and not to make an assignment of the Concession Agreement to the Operator.

3. Operator Warranties and Obligations.

(a) The Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner pursuant to the Assignment and Consent to Assignment (the “Assignment”) and the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), each represents and warrants to Chick-fil-A that the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner will not contravene any certificate of incorporation or certificate of formation, by-laws, operating agreement, law or regulation or agreement applicable to the Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner, or this Agreement or the Concession Agreement. The Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner each further covenants and agrees to comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the Operator and the Operator-Owner, respectively, during the Term in conjunction with the Operator's or as applicable the Operator-Owner's performance of the Concession Agreement as sublicensee or subconcessionaire.

(b) By taking possession of the Site, the Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator has inspected the Site and the improvements on the Site and found them to be in a safe, satisfactory, and completed condition. The Site, including the Equipment and the Leasehold Improvements in and on the Site, are provided to Operator by Chick-fil-A and/or Consignor “AS IS” and “WHERE IS” and without any warranty of any kind from Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A expressly disclaims any representations or warranties, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, with respect to the Site, including the Equipment and the Leasehold Improvements, including, without limitation, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

(c) The menu of Products that may be offered, sold and distributed from the Concession Location(s) will be limited to the Products authorized under the Concession Agreement and stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. If stated in Exhibit A, certain Products sold or distributed from the Concession Location(s) identified in Exhibit A may be freshly produced at the Concession Location(s), while other Products or the components of other Products identified in Exhibit A must be freshly produced in the Business identified in Exhibit A, which will serve as a commissary for the Concession Location(s), and delivered to the Concession Location(s) via approved Temperature Management System (TMS) bags. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, only Products that are approved for sale in the Chick-fil-A System (and specifically approved for sale at the Concession Location(s)) may be sold from, produced and/or held in the Concession Location(s). Products or components of Products freshly produced at the Concession Location(s) may only be sold or distributed from the Concession Location(s) and may not be sold, delivered, or given away to the Operator's Business identified in Exhibit A, any other Business(es) which the Operator has the right to operate under the Franchise Agreement (if any), to customers or consumers located elsewhere or to other Chick-fil-A[®] franchisees.

(d) Product production and the manner of delivery, storage and holding of Product, Product components and Ingredients, at, in or between the Concession Location(s) and the Business, if applicable, will be performed according to Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards, including any Guidelines for Satellite Unit locations established by Chick-fil-A, and delivered to or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time. The provisions, terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement concerning the sources for purchase of Products and Ingredients will apply to the sources of Products and Ingredients to supply the Concession Location(s). Any transportation of Products, Ingredients, promotional items, and other items by the Operator will comply with and will otherwise abide by all applicable health, sanitation, food handling, food transportation and insurance requirements provided by law, the requirements contained in the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement and as otherwise required by Chick-fil-A (whichever provides the most stringent requirements).

(e) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Concession Agreement, if at any time Chick-fil-A or Concessionor determines in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment that the Site should be remodeled, refurbished, rebuilt or relocated, Chick-fil-A, Concessionor, or as applicable, their respective agents and designees will have the right to reenter the Site and to remodel, refurbish, rebuild or relocate the Business and/or the Site, in accordance with Chick-fil-A's and/or Concessionor's then-current policies and procedures for the remodeling, refurbishing, rebuilding and relocating of sites, including without limitation making such site selection and design, structural, remodeling, redecoration and other modifications and changes to the Site, Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, design and décor, trade dress, color scheme and other things as Chick-fil-A and/or Concessionor deems necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement and/or the Concession Agreement, the Operator will permit and cooperate with Chick-fil-A and/or Concessionor and their respective agents and designees to coordinate and complete, any such remodeling, refurbishment, rebuilding or relocating of the Site.

(f) The Operator will not make or permit any change in, alteration of, or addition to any part of the Site, or remove any Leasehold Improvements or any of the Equipment, unless required by or agreed to by Chick-fil-A and/or as applicable Concessionor as provided in the Concession Agreement. All buildings and improvements and all plumbing, heating, lighting, electrical and air conditioning fixtures and equipment and all property which, as of the Effective Date, are the property of Chick-fil-A (including the Equipment) or of Concessionor or the fee owner of the Site, are and will remain the property of the respective owner and considered to be leased or sublicensed under this Agreement.

(g) The Operator acknowledges the insurance requirements set forth in Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement and covenants and agrees to maintain in full force and effect during the entire Agreed Term, at the Operator's own expense, insurance on the Site and for the operation of the Satellite Unit as set forth and otherwise required pursuant to Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement, including any changes or modifications, subject to any additional or greater coverage requirements and terms and conditions under the Concession Agreement or any prime lease or ground lease. If the Operator fails to obtain the required insurance, Chick-fil-A may at its option, but is not obligated to, purchase the insurance, and the Operator will reimburse Chick-fil-A pursuant to Subsection 5(f). Additionally, Chick-fil-A may elect, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, and the Operator may authorize Chick-fil-A from time to time to purchase and administer the required minimum insurance on the Operator's behalf. In any event, by placing any required minimum insurance, Chick-fil-A assumes no responsibility for coverage or premium expenses nor guarantees coverage or payment for any losses sustained by the Operator.

(h) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Concession Agreement, Chick-fil-A and its designees will have the right to enter and inspect the Site at any time on any Business Day, without notice to the Operator, to insure that the Operator and all aspects of the Site are in compliance with this Agreement, the Concession Agreement and all then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines as described and/or defined in the Franchise Agreement.

(i) The Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner reaffirms the provisions of Section 25.3 of the Franchise Agreement as applicable to the Satellite Unit, and each acknowledges and agrees that the Satellite Unit involves risk, and the success or lack of success of any particular Chick-fil-A Business is unknown. The Operator and if applicable, the Operator-Owner each has made its own independent determination of the viability of and within this particular location and is not relying on any representations or claims whatsoever as to the actual or prospective profitability, ease of operation, success or failure, costs to construct, of this or any other Chick-fil-A concession restaurant business located within Concessionor's premises.

4. Term; Termination.

(a) Unless earlier terminated as provided in this Agreement or in the Franchise Agreement, the initial term of this Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit (the "Initial Term") will commence as of the Effective Date of this Agreement and will end on the Thirty-First day of December of the year in which the Effective Date occurs. The Initial Term, together with any and all extensions of the Initial Term and subject to the rights for earlier termination or expiration pursuant to this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, is sometimes referred to in this Agreement as the "Agreed Term" or the "Term." Unless this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement or the Concession Agreement is terminated earlier, the Agreed Term of this Agreement will be automatically extended for successive additional periods of one (1) year, unless written notice of intent not to renew either the Franchise Agreement or this Agreement is given by either party to the other at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the Agreed Term; provided however, this Agreement may not be renewed if the Operator does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement or does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit or the Franchise Agreement is otherwise terminated or not renewed, as provided in Section 2.3 of the Franchise Agreement. In addition to Chick-fil-A's right to amend or modify the Concession Agreement pursuant to this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will have the right to change the terms and conditions of this Agreement upon a renewal pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Franchise Agreement by giving the Operator a written notice of the changed terms and conditions at least forty-five (45) days prior to the end of the then-current Term, in which case the Operator will have fifteen (15) days from the date of the notice to decide and to notify Chick-

fil-A in writing of the Operator's decision to either renew or not renew upon the changed terms and conditions offered. The Operator's failure to provide timely notice to Chick-fil-A of a decision to either renew or not renew upon the changed terms and conditions offered will be deemed to be an election by the Operator to terminate this Agreement at the end of such Agreed Term.

(b) The rights granted under this Agreement are contingent upon the Franchise Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), this Agreement and the Concession Agreement being in full force and effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit, the Site of which is subject to the Concession Agreement and may be subordinate and further subject to any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents attached as exhibits to the Concession Agreement, will terminate automatically, without any notice to the Operator upon (i) the expiration or earlier termination of the Concession Agreement, or any applicable prime lease or ground lease for the Site; (ii) the termination, expiration, closure or loss of the Concession Location(s); or (iii) the termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement or the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable). Chick-fil-A will have the sole right in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment whether to exercise any termination rights or renewal rights under the Concession Agreement and whether to negotiate and agree upon any renewal terms, which may result in amendments or modifications to the Concession Agreement, including those described in Subsection 2(f).

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in addition to the above, this Agreement with respect to the Satellite Unit will terminate automatically without any notice to the Operator if and when the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) dies or becomes disabled to the extent that the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) is unable to perform the obligations required under the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement.

(d) If: (i) the Operator does not diligently make application for and pursue the required permits and licenses to operate the Satellite Unit; and/or (ii) the Operator does not open the Concession Location(s) within forty-five (45) days after Chick-fil-A completed its obligation to provide and install the Equipment and any additional Equipment pursuant to Subsection 6(a) and the Equipment Lease Addendum attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B and after Concessionor completed construction and development of the Concession Location(s) and access to the Concession Location(s) was provided by Concessionor (or earlier time period required under the Concession Agreement for commencement of operation of the Satellite Unit), then the Operator will be in material default under this Agreement and Chick-fil-A may terminate this Agreement upon ten (10) days' written notice.

(e) In addition to the termination provisions elsewhere in this Agreement, including in this Section 4, this Agreement and the term and license granted in this Agreement are subject to the limitation that upon the occurrence, at any time prior to or during the Term, of any one or more Events of Default (as defined below), the Operator is in default under this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will have the right and, at its election, may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Subsection 4(f) below without any prejudice to any other remedy available to Chick-fil-A at law or in equity. The following events (referred to as "Events of Default") will each be an event of default by the Operator under this Agreement: (i) the Operator defaults in the payment of any installment of the Use/Occupancy Charge, the Equipment Rental or any other sum due under this Agreement; (ii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) defaults in any of the covenants, agreements, conditions or undertakings to be performed, observed or complied with by the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) under this Agreement other than the payment of the Use/Occupancy Charge, the Equipment Rental or any other sum due under this Agreement, and other than any other Event of Default listed in this Subsection 4(e), and such default continues for ten (10) days after notice in writing to the Operator; (iii) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) attempts or otherwise purports to assign or encumber this Agreement (or the Operator's interest in this Agreement or in the Site) to or to sublet or allow occupancy of the Site by a third party without the express written consent and approval of

Chick-fil-A, and Concessionor, contrary to Section 9 below; (iv) the Operator (or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) violates, breaches or otherwise defaults in any of the terms of the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement or the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), or the Franchise Agreement, the Concession Agreement or the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) terminates or expires by lapse of time or otherwise; (v) the Operator or any of its officers, directors, members, employees, agents or contractors (including, without limitation, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) performs any act, neglects to perform any duty or fails comply with to any standard of conduct that would constitute a violation or default (or threatens to violate or default) under the Concession Agreement, any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents (or any document related to any of the above); (vi) the Operator vacates or abandons the Site.

(f) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default as set forth in Subsection 4(e) above, Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, will have the right, upon its election, to terminate this Agreement immediately and to declare the Term of this Agreement ended upon delivering written notice of termination to Operator, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator. If this Agreement is terminated under this Subsection 4(f) or otherwise terminates or expires, then (1) the Franchise Agreement will also immediately and automatically terminate or expire as to the Satellite Unit effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement and at the election of Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, as to one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement, effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement upon delivering written notice of termination to Operator, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator; and (2) Chick-fil-A will have the right to re-enter upon and take possession of the Site without further formality and without the necessity of any court action, dispossessory proceeding, or further notice or legal proceedings whatsoever. Chick-fil-A and the Operator also expressly acknowledge and agree that the termination, expiration, or revocation of the Franchise Agreement by either party for any reason, either in whole or in part, will also terminate this Agreement effective immediately, without further notice being required.

(g) Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Operator will quit and surrender the premises of the Concession Location(s) to Chick-fil-A but the Operator will remain liable for the balance of the Use/Occupancy Charge, the Equipment Rental or any other sum due under this Agreement to Chick-fil-A or any payments due Concessionor as provided in the Concession Agreement and/or in this Agreement. The Operator agrees that upon default Concessionor may demand, receive and collect any monies due or falling due after the default without in any manner affecting the status of the default or any notice of suit, action, order or judgment related to the default. Upon termination of the Concession Agreement and/or this Agreement, any payment made by the Operator to Chick-fil-A or Concessionaire or any court will not: (i) reinstate, continue or extend the term of this Agreement; (ii) affect any notice previously given to the Operator; or (iii) operate as a waiver of the right of Chick-fil-A to obtain access to and possession of the Concession Location(s) by proper suit, action, proceeding or remedy. All monies collected will be deemed to be payments made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or applied toward any outstanding balances owed by the Operator.

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or in the Franchise Agreement, the terms of this Agreement and the Operator's use, occupancy, maintenance, repair and restoration of the Site are subject and subordinate to the terms, covenants, conditions, agreements and requirements of the Concession Agreement and any prime lease, ground lease or other title documents attached as exhibit(s) to the Concession Agreement. The Operator must not commit or permit to be committed on or with regard to the Site any act or omission that will violate any term or condition of the Concession Agreement or any attached prime lease, ground lease or other title documents. Chick-fil-A may exercise any and all remedies available to Concessionor under the Concession Agreement in order for

Chick-fil-A to enforce its rights under this Agreement, in addition to any other remedies provided under this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement or available at law or in equity.

5. Use/Occupancy Charge to Concessionor; Payments to Chick-fil-A.

(a) Except as specifically provided for under the Concession Agreement and stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, the Operator agrees to directly make all payments to Concessionor for use/occupancy of the Concession Location(s) required under the Concession Agreement in the manner required (collectively, the "Use/Occupancy Charge"). The Use/Occupancy Charge may be described as a use/occupancy fee, rent, license fees, service fees or otherwise. Alternatively, Concessionor may collect the Gross Receipts of the Satellite Unit from sales to customers and then distribute to the Operator (or Chick-fil-A on the Operator's behalf) a "commission," where the commission is the balance of the Gross Receipts after Concessionor subtracts the Use/Occupancy Charge amount (and if applicable, any sales tax Concessionor undertakes the responsibility to report and pay). The Use/Occupancy Charge is summarized on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A. Except as specifically stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, as between Chick-fil-A and the Operator, Chick-fil-A will not have any monetary obligation to Concessionor under this Agreement. If the Operator is late in making any payment or fails to make any payment due to Concessionor under the Concession Agreement, the Operator will indemnify and hold harmless Chick-fil-A pursuant to Section 10 of this Agreement.

(b) At the election of Chick-fil-A, the payment program described under Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement will apply to the Operator's payment obligations with respect to the Use/Occupancy Charge and any of the Operator's other payment obligations described in the Concession Agreement, and any adjustment or increases to the Operator's payment obligations.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Concession Agreement, as between Chick-fil-A and the Operator, all Gross Receipts generated as a result of sales from the Satellite Unit, will be deemed to be Gross Receipts of the Operator, and the Operator and not Chick-fil-A will have sole responsibility for payment of any sales, use, or excise tax, any apportioned personal property tax or any other tax arising from the Satellite Unit, the sale and distribution of Products and promotional items, the lease of the Equipment and/or the presence of the Equipment at the Satellite Unit, directly or through Concessionor. The parties acknowledge and agree that sales, use, or similar taxes may be due and payable even when Products and promotional items are given away and not sold.

(d) Gross Receipts generated as a result of sales from the Satellite Unit will be accounted for on a separate Fee Calculation Report for the Satellite Unit. Except as specifically stated on the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, the Fee Calculation Report will also reflect the calculation and payment of all fees and other operating costs and expenses related to the operation of the Satellite Unit that are due and will be calculated under the terms of the Franchise Agreement. Chick-fil-A will have the right and Operator authorizes Chick-fil-A to account for the Gross Receipts, fees, operating costs, expenses and taxes incurred with respect to the Satellite Unit and to make calculations and allocations to Operator's Businesses as may be required under the Franchise Agreement and in order to effectuate the terms of the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement and to produce the Fee Calculation Report for each of Operator's Businesses.

(e) The Operator understands and agrees that the Operator's obligation to furnish and send reports and records pursuant to Section 15.1 and Section 15.2 of the Franchise Agreement applies to the Satellite Unit and includes all reports and records designated by Chick-fil-A that the Operator furnishes to or receives from Concessionor. The Operator authorizes Chick-fil-A to request and receive any reports and records it designates relating to the Satellite Unit directly from Concessionor.

(f) If any charge, fee, cost or expense which the Operator is obligated to pay pursuant to this Agreement or the Concession Agreement is initially billed to or paid by Chick-fil-A, Chick-fil-A will have the right to rebill the amount to the Operator. If Chick-fil-A rebills any amount to the Operator, the Operator will pay promptly the rebilled charge, fee, cost or expense directly to the appropriate business, governmental authority or other person or entity. If Chick-fil-A, at its election, pays any charge, fee, cost or expense on behalf of the Operator, the Operator will reimburse Chick-fil-A immediately upon the Operator's receipt of Chick-fil-A's written notice of having made the payment, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, either by (i) issuing Chick-fil-A a check or (ii) acknowledging and, to the extent required, approving Chick-fil-A's adjustments to the amounts owed by Chick-fil-A to the Operator or owed by the Operator to Chick-fil-A under the Franchise Agreement.

(g) If the Operator fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or under the Concession Agreement, Chick-fil-A, at its option, may (but is not required to) do the same or cause the same to be done, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies of Chick-fil-A. The cost incurred by Chick-fil-A in connection with such performance by Chick-fil-A will be an additional charge due from the Operator to Chick-fil-A, together with interest for the period beginning with the original due incurred to the date of actual payment at an annual rate equal to the highest rate allowed by law or, if there is no maximum rate permitted by law, then a rate equal to one and one-quarter percent (1.25%) per month. Interest will be calculated on the basis of monthly compounding and the actual number of days elapsed divided by 365. Interest will be in addition to any other rights or remedies Chick-fil-A may have under this Agreement.

6. Leased Equipment and Fee.

(a) Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Equipment Lease Addendum attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B as it may be amended from time to time, Chick-fil-A has delivered, or will deliver to the Site, the Equipment (as defined below) and other property described in the Equipment Lease Addendum solely for use in the operation of the Satellite Unit. "Equipment" means the equipment and other property delivered, or to be delivered to the Site, by Chick-fil-A as described in the Equipment Lease Addendum together with any replacements of and additions or accessions to the original equipment.

(b) In consideration of the lease of the Equipment, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A when due, the Equipment Rental stated in Exhibit B.

7. Default; Termination and Expiration. In addition to the termination and expiration provisions in Section 2 and Section 4 of this Agreement, this Agreement and the rights granted under this Agreement may be terminated for a default under this Agreement or the Concession Agreement in the manner provided in the Franchise Agreement or the Concession Agreement. A default by the Operator under the Concession Agreement will also be a default under this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement. Subject to Section 8 of this Agreement, if this Agreement is terminated or expires, then the Franchise Agreement shall also immediately and automatically terminate or expire as to the Satellite Unit, and at the election of Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, as to one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement, effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement upon delivering written notice of termination to Operator, without any further obligation or liability to the Operator. The rights granted under this Agreement, including the sublicense granted in Subsection 2(a) of this Agreement, will also immediately and automatically terminate or expire effective as of the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement, and Chick-fil-A will have the right to enter upon and take possession of the Site and the Satellite Unit without further formality and without the necessity of any court action, dispossession proceeding, or further notice or legal proceedings whatsoever. The Operator agrees to vacate the Site and the Satellite Unit immediately upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the Concession Agreement and the accompanying sublicense and to permit the peaceable possession of the Site and the Satellite Unit by Chick-fil-A or, at Chick-fil-A's election, a Chick-fil-A affiliate or another Chick-fil-A franchisee. Chick-fil-A may operate the Concession Location(s) directly or through an affiliate or may offer the right to operate the Concession Location(s) to another franchisee.

8. Survival. Upon the termination, expiration, or suspension of this Agreement, all obligations under this Agreement and under the Franchise Agreement that expressly or by their nature are intended to survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any limitations of liability, and the Operator's and if applicable, the Operator-Owner's reporting, payment and indemnification obligations to Chick-fil-A (as well as any like obligations under the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Assignment, which were incorporated by reference into this Agreement and the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable), will survive the termination, expiration or suspension of this Agreement.

9. Compliance with Franchise Agreement and the Assignment. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the Operator, and if applicable, the Operator-Owner, respectively, will comply with all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Assignment with respect to this Agreement, the Site and the Satellite Unit, even if not specifically described or referred to in this Agreement. As a reminder, but in no way limiting the application of all of the other provisions of the Franchise Agreement, the provisions of the Franchise Agreement include: Article 5 DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY, Article 7 INSURANCE, Article 12 STANDARDS OF CLEANLINESS, SANITATION AND BUSINESS CONDUCT, Article 18 TRADE SECRETS AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, Article 19 USE OF THE MARKS, Article 21 TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST, Article 22 REMEDIES, Article 24 TERMINATION, Article 25 FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP, Article 27 INDEMNIFICATION, and Article 28 GENERAL PROVISIONS. Article 28 GENERAL PROVISIONS includes provisions with regard to notices as set forth in subsection 28.1, the parties' choice of Georgia law and a Georgia forum to resolve their disputes as set forth in subsection 28.9 and subsection 28.10, the waiver of any right to trial by jury as set forth in subsection 28.15 and Operator's agreement not to pursue any class claims as set forth in subsection 28.13. Pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Additional Business Amendment to which this Agreement is attached, these and all of the other applicable provisions of the Franchise Agreement will be read to apply also to this Agreement. To the extent that there is a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement and if applicable the Assignment, the express terms of this Agreement will control with respect to the Permitted Use authorized under this Agreement and the limited sublicense granted for the Permitted Use. In addition, the Operator must not do anything in connection with the Site or the Satellite Unit that would adversely impact Chick-fil-A's reputation or image in the community and will not use or conduct operations from the Site on Sunday or Christmas Day. Chick-fil-A has the right to assign this Agreement to any person or entity in its sole and exclusive business judgment, and the benefits and obligations of Chick-fil-A under this Agreement will inure to and be binding upon any such assigns. The Operator may not lend, sublicense, subcontract, encumber or in any way transfer or assign the Site, the Satellite Unit or any of the Equipment, Leasehold Improvements or any rights under this Agreement, the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) or the Concession Agreement, or transfer any interest in the Operator (if Operator is an entity), except as may be permitted under the Franchise Agreement. Chick-fil-A will retain all rights attendant to or associated with the ownership of the Equipment and license or sublease of the Site, including the right to depreciate the improvements and the Equipment at the Site for tax, accounting and all other purposes.

10. Indemnification and Waiver.

(a) If Chick-fil-A, or a subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit or a like business on the Site is subjected to any claim, demand or penalty or becomes a party to any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding by reason of (i) any claimed act or omission by the Operator, if applicable the Operator-Owner or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees regarding or relating to the Concession Location(s) or any of the customers, agents, contractors or employees of Concessionor or the Concession Location(s); (ii) any claimed violation of any law or ordinance by the Operator, if applicable the Operator-Owner or its agents, contractors or employees regarding or relating to the Concession Location(s) or any of the customers, agents, contractors or employees of Concessionor or the Concession Location(s); (iii) any damages allegedly resulting from a breach by the Operator and/or if applicable the Operator-Owner of this Agreement or the Concession Agreement; (iv) any damages allegedly resulting from a willful misrepresentation by the Operator, if applicable the Operator-Owner or the Operator's agents, contractors or employees to Chick-fil-A or Concessionor; or (v) any personal injury, death or otherwise, allegedly caused by or resulting from the negligent or intentional action or misfeasance of the Operator, the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers or if applicable the Operator-Owner; then the Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner jointly and severally, will indemnify and hold harmless Chick-fil-A and any subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit against all judgments, settlements, penalties, expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs and other costs of litigation or administrative proceedings incurred by or imposed on Chick-fil-A.

(b) At the election of Chick-fil-A or any subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit, the Operator and if applicable the Operator-Owner will also defend Chick-fil-A or the subsequent operator in any action or suit in which a plaintiff claims or seeks damages or other award of the type listed above, subject to the rights of any one or more of Chick-fil-A or the subsequent operator of the Satellite Unit to control the litigation. The parties expressly understood and agreed that the covenants, agreements and services to be rendered and performed by the Operator under this Section 10 will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, whether voluntary or involuntary, with or without cause, and are special, unique, and of an extraordinary character.

(c) The Operator's and if applicable the Operator-Owner's obligations under this section will apply with respect to, among other things, the Satellite Unit, the Site, the Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, in and on the Site, and any personal property of any person or entity, any personal injury or death, any claim, demand or penalty, and any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding arising out of or relating to or in connection with the Site, the Equipment, the Leasehold Improvements, the Concession Agreement or this Agreement, as applicable, all of which will be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Operator. This section is not intended to and does not convey any benefits to any third party and does not prevent the Operator from seeking indemnification from another third party whose actions, or the actions of the third party's employee, were the source of any injury, damage or loss.

(d) The Operator's obligations under this section will be in addition to any indemnity and insurance provisions contained in the Concession Agreement and in the Franchise Agreement.

(e) The Operator waives the service of any notice of intention to re-enter or to institute legal proceedings to that end which otherwise might be required to be given under any present or future law. The Operator will not have, and hereby expressly waives, any and all rights which are or may be conferred upon the Operator by any present or future law to redeem this Agreement or the Site, or to re-enter the Site, or to restore the operation of this Agreement, after (i) re-entry by Chick-fil-A, (ii) any warrant to dispossess or judgment in ejection or (iii) any expiration or termination of this Agreement and the Agreed Term, whether such dispossession, re-entry, expiration or termination of this Agreement and the Agreed Term is by operation of law or pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement. If Chick-fil-A acquires possession without judicial proceedings, it will be deemed a re-entry within the meaning of that word as used in this Agreement and not a technical or legal definition. In the event that Chick-fil-A elects to recover possession by invoking judicial process, the Operator acknowledges that the Site is to be used for commercial purposes, and the Operator expressly waives and relinquishes any and all protections and rights afforded a commercial tenant under Georgia law, including without limitation O.C.G.A. § 44-7-52, if applicable, or any law of like import now or in the future in effect or applicable, if any.

11. Effectiveness; Time is of Essence; Independent Contractor. This Agreement will not become valid against either party hereto until it has been executed by the Operator and accepted and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to the due performance of the terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement, provided, however, that no delay or failure to enforce any of the provisions contained in this Agreement and no conduct or statement will waive or affect any of Chick-fil-A's rights under this Agreement. The Operator will have no authority, express or implied, to act as agent of Chick-fil-A or any of its affiliates for any purpose. The Operator is, and will remain, an independent contractor responsible for all obligations and liabilities, directly or indirectly, resulting from the operation of the Satellite Unit located on the Site. All agreements, covenants and indemnifications contained in this Agreement or made in writing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement by or on behalf of the Operator will be deemed material and will survive expiration or sooner termination of this Agreement.

12. Execution; Entire Agreement; Counterparts.

(a) The parties acknowledge and agree that the data sheet attached as Exhibit A as it may be amended from time to time is complete and accurate and forms a part of this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement, including its exhibits and amendments, including the data sheet attached as Exhibit A, the Equipment Lease Addendum attached as Exhibit B, and the Concession Agreement attached as Exhibit C, as well as the Franchise Agreement, the Assignment (if applicable) and if applicable the Additional Business Amendment to which this Agreement is attached, and all documents, schedules, exhibits, and information specifically incorporated into this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement by reference, collectively constitute the complete and integrated agreement between Chick-fil-A and the Operator concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, the operation of the Satellite Unit as a Business and the Concession Agreement, and supersede all prior agreements between the parties. No other representations or statements of any kind have induced the Operator to sign this Agreement except that the Operator may rely on Chick-fil-A's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document that Chick-fil-A delivered to the Operator, including its exhibits and any amendments or supplements, in connection with the Operator's entry into the Franchise Agreement and if applicable this Agreement (the "FDD"). No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in or attached to this Agreement (including the attached Concession Agreement), the Franchise Agreement, the Assignment (if applicable), the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) or in the FDD were made by either party and none will have any effect with reference to this Agreement. No officer, employee, or other servant or agent of Chick-fil-A is authorized to make any representation, warranty, or other promise not contained in this Agreement (including the attached Concession Agreement), the Franchise Agreement, the Assignment (if applicable), the Additional Business Amendment (if applicable) or in the FDD. No change, termination, or attempted waiver or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement will bind Chick-fil-A unless in writing and signed by Chick-fil-A.

(c) This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and at various times and at various places by the several parties, all of which counterparts taken together will be deemed as one original. Executed copies of this Agreement, whether delivered by electronic transmission or otherwise, will be deemed to be as effective as original signatures.

13. Severability. Each and every provision of this Agreement is severable, and invalidity of one or more provisions will not, in any way, affect the validity of this Agreement or any other provision of this Agreement. If any phrase, clause or provision in this Agreement is deemed to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, to the extent permitted by applicable law, it will not be stricken in its entirety and held totally void and unenforceable, but will remain effective to the maximum extent permissible.

14. Captions. The section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and will not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

EQUIPMENT LEASE ADDENDUM

EQUIPMENT LEASE ADDENDUM

1. Chick-fil-A rents to the Operator, and the Operator rents from Chick-fil-A, commencing on the Effective Date, upon the terms and conditions stated below, the Equipment listed on Schedule 1 attached to this Equipment Lease Addendum (together with any replacements and additions or accessions to Schedule 1). The Operator agrees that Chick-fil-A will have the right, in its sole and exclusive business judgment, to substitute comparable Equipment for that which is listed on Schedule 1. The Operator will keep and maintain the Equipment only at the Concession Location(s), unless otherwise approved in writing by Chick-fil-A, may use the Equipment only in connection with the Operator's operation of the Concession Location(s), will service and repair the Equipment in order to maintain the Equipment's appearance and good working condition, and will not make any changes, alterations or additions to the Equipment without the prior written consent of Chick-fil-A and if applicable, Concessionor, all in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards, Guidelines and other policies and procedures as may be amended by Chick-fil-A from time to time. In servicing and repairing the Equipment, the Operator will solely use suppliers and vendors that demonstrate the ability to meet Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards and Guidelines for the items and that possess adequate quality controls, experience and capacity to service and repair the Equipment and otherwise supply the Operator's needs promptly, accurately and reliably, provided that the Operator will also comply with the Concession Agreement. In the event of any conflict between Concessionor's requirements and Chick-fil-A's requirements, the Operator will notify Chick-fil-A before having any service or repair work performed. In the exercise of Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, Chick-fil-A may deliver used Equipment to the Concession Location(s) or leave Equipment at the Concession Location(s) which had been used at the Concession Location(s) prior to the date of this Agreement.

2. Commencing on the Effective Date, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A, in Atlanta, Georgia, a monthly rental for the Equipment based on its then current fair market rental which Chick-fil-A in its sole and exclusive judgment initially determined to be Seven Hundred Fifty and No/100 Dollars ($750.00) (the "Equipment Rental"). Chick-fil-A will have the right from time to time to re-determine the Equipment Rental in its sole and exclusive business judgment based on the then current fair market rental value for the Equipment due to additions, subtractions, and modifications to the Equipment, market factors, inflation, passage of time or otherwise, and to update the Equipment Rental to an amount based on the then determined, current fair market rental, which will be set forth in a revised Equipment Lease Addendum and substituted and attached to this Agreement as revised Exhibit B. At Chick-fil-A's election, the program described in Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement will apply to the Operator's payment obligations described in this Agreement with respect to the Equipment and any other payment obligations of the Operator under this Agreement, and any adjustment or increases to the Operator's payment obligations.

3. Commencing on the Effective Date, the Operator will timely pay directly to the appropriate business, governmental entity or other person or entity any and all costs and expenses of operating and maintaining the Equipment for the Concession Location(s) during the Term of the Concession Agreement, including the following:

- (iv) all charges, costs and expenses necessary to maintain the Equipment in good condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;
- (v) all taxes, levies and charges assessed against the Equipment and/or against the Operator or Chick-fil-A in respect of the Equipment, including but not limited to any property tax or any sales or use tax assessed on the Equipment Rental; and

(vi) all charges and costs of all ordinary repairs to the Equipment.

4. If in the sole and exclusive business judgment of Chick-fil-A any Equipment becomes worn out due to normal wear and tear and the affected Equipment cannot reasonably be repaired, then Chick-fil-A will replace the affected Equipment at its own expense. The Operator is responsible for and must replace at the Operator's own expense any and all equipment or other items not listed on Schedule 1 but used in the operation of the Concession Location(s), as and to the extent any of this equipment and other related items become worn out. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Operator due to any inability to use or any interruption in the use of the Equipment or any other Concession Location(s) equipment, furnishings or fixtures.

ADDENDUM “3-A” TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

FOOD TRUCK LICENSE AND SUBLEASE AGREEMENT (Sole Proprietorship)

THIS FOOD TRUCK LICENSE AND SUBLEASE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and will be effective as of _____, 20__, by and between CHICK-FIL-A, INC., a Georgia corporation, having its principal business address at 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349-2998 (“Chick-fil-A”), and its franchisee _____ (the “Operator”).

BACKGROUND

A. Chick-fil-A and the Operator into a Franchise Agreement with its attached Lease, Additional Business Amendments(s), if any, and all other exhibits (the “Franchise Agreement”), which governs and defines the parties’ relationship and operation of the Business(es), including the Business designated in the Food Truck License Summary (as defined in Section 1) attached as Exhibit A (the “Business”).

B. Chick-fil-A is developing a mobile food truck program (the “Food Truck Program”) and has leased a custom food truck, including equipment, furnishing and fixtures in and on the food truck (the “Food Truck”) to produce, hold and/or sell a limited menu of Chick-fil-A® Products.

C. Pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, Chick-fil-A and the Operator desire to amend and otherwise reaffirm the terms of the Franchise Agreement pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the grant to the Operator of the authority to conduct sales activities from the Food Truck as an extension of the Business and the grant of a sublease of the right to use and occupy the Food Truck, and to otherwise continue their respective performance under the Franchise Agreement.

AGREEMENT

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE ABOVE recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, as well as in the Franchise Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Definitions; Recitals. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement, including in the Food Truck License Summary Form attached as Exhibit A, as it may be amended from time to time (the “Food Truck License Summary”), will have the meanings given to them in the Franchise Agreement. The parties incorporate into this Agreement the recitals set forth above as if set forth here in full.
2. License; Term.
 - a. License. Chick-fil-A grants to the Operator, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, the limited license to use and operate the Food Truck using the Trade Name, the Marks and the System, as may be modified by Chick-fil-A from time to time (including generally or for the Food Truck Program specifically), and the limited license and grant to conduct the Licensed Use (as defined below) as an extension and part of the Business (collectively the “License”), and the Operator accepts the grant of the License.
 - b. No Exclusive Territorial Rights. The License is expressly limited to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and is further subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Franchise Agreement. The License is non-exclusive, and no so-called “exclusive,” “protected” or other territorial rights in the Sales Locations (as defined below) or any market areas surrounding or otherwise contiguous with any Sales Location are granted, implied or to be inferred. All rights and licenses not expressly granted to the Operator under this Agreement are reserved exclusively by and unto Chick-fil-A.

- c. Term. Unless earlier terminated as provided in this Agreement, including pursuant to Section 4.e or Section 14 or as stated on the Food Truck License Summary, or pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, the initial term of this Agreement (the “Initial Term”) will commence as of the Effective Date of this Agreement and will end on the Thirty-First day of December of the year in which the Effective Date occurs. The Initial Term, together with any and all extensions of the Initial Term and subject to the rights for earlier termination or expiration pursuant to this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, is sometimes referred to in this Agreement as the “Term.” Unless this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement or the Food Truck Lease (as defined below) is terminated earlier, the Term of this Agreement will be automatically extended for successive additional periods of one (1) year, unless written notice of intent not to renew either the Franchise Agreement or this Agreement is given by either party to the other at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the Term; provided, however, that this Agreement may not be renewed if the Operator does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement or does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement with respect to the Business or the Franchise Agreement is terminated or otherwise not renewed, as provided in Section 2.3 of the Franchise Agreement. In addition to Chick-fil-A’s right to amend or modify the Food Truck Lease pursuant to this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will have the right to change the terms and conditions of this Agreement upon a renewal of the Franchise Agreement pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Franchise Agreement (and renewal of this Agreement) by giving the Operator a written notice of the changed terms and conditions at least forty-five (45) days prior to the end of the then-current Term, in which case the Operator will have fifteen (15) days from the date of the notice to decide and to notify Chick-fil-A in writing of the Operator’s decision to either renew or not renew this Agreement upon the changed terms and conditions offered. The Operator’s failure to provide timely notice to Chick-fil-A of a decision to either renew or not renew this Agreement upon the changed terms and conditions offered will be deemed to be an election by the Operator to terminate this Agreement at the end of such Term.
3. Licensed Use. The Food Truck will be used for the sole purpose of operating the Food Truck as an extension and part of the Business to produce, hold, sell and distribute certain Products to customers from the Food Truck at the Sales Locations (as defined in Section 5) for the Term pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, including the limited License and the Food Truck License Summary (the “Licensed Use”). The Operator will use the Food Truck solely for the Licensed Use and for no other purpose.
4. Food Truck Lease; Sublease. During the Term, and subject to the terms of this Agreement, Chick-fil-A grants to Operator a sublease for the use and occupancy of the Food Truck. The Operator’s use of the Food Truck is subject to all applicable laws, rules and regulations and the lease attached as Exhibit “B” to this Agreement and any other exhibits to the attached lease (the “Food Truck Lease”), made a part of this Agreement by this reference. The Operator agrees to use and operate the Food Truck in accordance with the Food Truck Lease and otherwise comply in all respects with the terms and conditions of the Food Truck Lease, as the same may be amended or changed by Chick-fil-A (as prime lessee) and Banc of America Leasing & Capital or its permitted assignee (as prime lessor) (“BALC”), from time to time:
 - a. Compliance with Agreements. Neither the Operator nor its employees, agents, contractors or invitees will perform any act, neglect to perform any duty or fail to comply with any standard

- of conduct that would constitute a violation of the Food Truck Lease, this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement;
- b. No Further Subleases; No Amendments. Operator will not enter into any lease agreements or other agreements allowing parties other than Operator or Chick-fil-A rights concerning possession, use, operation, or control of the Food Truck without the prior written approval of Chick-fil-A and, as determined by Chick-fil-A, BALC, and Chick-fil-A and will not modify amend or extend the time for payment or performance in any material respect of its obligations under any agreement relating to Operator's use of the Food Truck without the express prior written consent of BALC;
 - c. Subordination. The rights of the Operator in and to the Food Truck will be subject and subordinate to the rights of BALC under the Food Truck Lease as provided in the Food Truck Lease, and the Operator will not assert or claim any right, title or interest as the owner or holder of legal or equitable title to the Food Truck, including any of its equipment, furnishing and fixtures (except proprietary equipment and equipment installed to customize the Food Truck for operation as an extension of a franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business, subject to the rights of Chick-fil-A);
 - d. Payments. Subject to the terms of Section 7(c) of this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will pay the lease rental payment described in the Food Truck Lease directly to BALC per the terms of the Food Truck Lease;
 - e. Termination. The Food Truck Lease and all of the Operator's rights in and to the use and possession of the Food Truck will terminate, at the option of BALC, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Food Truck Lease by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Food Truck Lease or otherwise, and the Operator will thereupon return the Food Truck to Chick-fil-A or at Chick-fil-A's election and direction to BALC in accordance with all of the terms and provisions of the Food Truck Lease and of this Agreement;
 - f. Cost of Performance. If the Operator fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, including under the attached Food Truck Lease, Chick-fil-A, at its option, may (but is not required to) do the same or cause the same to be done, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies of Chick-fil-A. The cost incurred by Chick-fil-A in connection with performance by Chick-fil-A will be an additional charge due from the Operator to Chick-fil-A, together with interest pursuant to Section 14.11 of the Franchise Agreement.
5. Sales Location and Hours of Operation. For each proposed instance of a Licensed Use of the Food Truck, the Operator will complete and submit Chick-fil-A's then current registration form ("Registration Form") and otherwise follow the registration process established for Food Trucks under Chick-fil-A's then current policies and procedures for such programs, including obtaining approval prior to the commencement of the Licensed Use at each proposed Sales Location. During the Term, the Operator will use and operate the Food Truck to produce and/or sell and distribute Products only at the locations registered and approved pursuant to Chick-fil-A's Additional Distribution Point program (individually, a "Sales Location" and collectively, the "Sales Locations") and during the hours of operation specified in the applicable Registration Form for each Sales Location.
 6. Delivery and Availability of Food Truck. On or around the commencement date specified in the Food Truck License Summary (the "Commencement Date"), Chick-fil-A or its designee will deliver the Food Truck to the Operator for the Licensed Use pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement. If (a) the Franchise Agreement terminates or expires, (b) the Operator is in default under the Franchise Agreement, or (c) other aspects of the Business change affecting the Operator's ability to perform the Operator's obligations under this Agreement, including the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, as determined by Chick-fil-A in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, then Chick-fil-A will have the right to terminate this Agreement and the Operator will bear any and all risk arising from or related to the termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Operator further acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A has the right, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, to terminate or suspend this Agreement or temporarily suspend or interrupt the Food Truck Program at any time for any reason or for no reason, including without limitation, to use the Food Truck at another location and/or for a different purpose (an "Alternate Use"). For example, but without limiting the preceding sentence, Chick-fil-A may elect to use or have its designee use the Food Truck for food or other product distribution in the event of a natural disaster, weather event, pandemic, epidemic or other like disaster or event. In the event that Chick-fil-A elects to use or have its designee use the Food Truck for an Alternate Use, the Operator's obligations under this Agreement, including under the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, will be suspended, and the Operator's sole and exclusive remedy will be the return of the Food Truck following the Alternate Use for the remainder of the Term, without any right to an extension. Chick-fil-A will have no other liability if the Food Truck is not furnished or otherwise made available to the Operator.

7. Operator's Obligations. The Operator will have the following obligations and responsibilities with regard to the operation and use of the Food Truck:

a. Menu of Products.

- i. The menu of Products that may be offered, sold and distributed from the Food Truck in connection with this Agreement will be limited to the Products set forth and otherwise referenced in the Food Truck License Summary.
- ii. The menu of Products that may be produced on, and offered, sold and distributed from, the Food Truck, will be limited to the Products set forth and otherwise referenced in the Food Truck License Summary.
- iii. The menu of Products to be produced and/or sold and distributed at individual Sales Locations will be as set forth on the applicable Registration Form for each Sales Location.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, only Products that are approved for sale in the Chick-fil-A system may be sold from the Food Truck. Products produced and/or held in the Food Truck may only be sold or distributed from the Food Truck at the Sales Locations and may not be sold, delivered, or given away to the Operator's Business, any other Business(es) to which the Operator has the right to operate pursuant to the Franchise Agreement (if any) to customers or consumers located elsewhere or to other Chick-fil-A® franchisees.

b. Commissary; Source of Supplies. As set forth above in Section 7.a. of this Agreement, certain Products sold or distributed from the Food Truck may be freshly produced in the Food Truck, while other Products or the components of other Products must be freshly produced in the Business, which will serve as a commissary for the Food Truck, and delivered to the Food Truck via approved Temperature Management System (TMS) bags. For each Sales Location, whether a Product or Product component may be produced in the Food Truck or may only be produced in the Business and then delivered to the Food Truck as set forth above will be specified in the Registration Form applicable to such individual Sales Location. Product production and the manner of delivery, storage and holding of Product, Product components and Ingredients, at, in or between the Food Truck and the Business, will be performed according to Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards, including any Guidelines for food trucks prepared by Chick-fil-A and delivered to or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time. The provisions, terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement concerning the sources for purchase of Products and Ingredients will apply to the sources of Products and Ingredients to supply the Food Truck. Any transportation of Products, Ingredients, promotional items, and other items by the Operator or otherwise will comply with and will otherwise abide by all applicable health, sanitation, food handling, food transportation and insurance requirements provided by law, the requirements contained in the Franchise Agreement, the Food Truck Lease and as otherwise required by Chick-fil-A (whichever provides the most stringent requirements). Without limiting the above, the Operator will not (and will not allow others to) transport any hazardous materials or anything other than Products, Ingredients, promotional items, and other items necessary for the safe, sanitary, and efficient operation of the Food Truck.

- c. Payment of Food Truck Usage Fee. In consideration of the License granted in this Agreement and to compensate Chick-fil-A for the use of the Food Truck under the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A when due the usage fee(s) as set forth in the Food Truck License Summary (the "Usage Fee"), which will be in lieu of the lease rental payment described in the Food Truck Lease payable by Chick-fil-A to BALC. Chick-fil-A shall have the right from time to time to re-determine the Food Truck Usage Fee in its sole and exclusive business judgment based on the then current fair market rental value for the Food Truck due to additions, subtractions and modifications to the Food Truck, additional or different charges or other changes under the Food Truck Lease, market factors, inflation, passage of time or otherwise, and to update the Food Truck Usage Fee to an amount based on the then determined, current fair market rental, which will be set forth in a revised Food Truck License Summary Form and substituted and attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A and made a part of this Agreement. At Chick-fil-A's election, the program described in Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement shall apply to the Operator's payment obligations described in this Agreement with respect to the Food Truck and any other payment obligations of the Operator hereunder, and any adjustment or increases thereto.
- d. Additional Fees, Costs and Expenses. All additional fees, costs and expenses associated with the operation and use of the Food Truck, participation in the Food Truck Program and the Licensed Use will be borne by the Operator, either made by the Operator directly or reimbursed to Chick-fil-A, as applicable, and will include, among other things, all Products, Ingredients and all other food and drink items, cleaning and office supplies, equipment and all other things purchased by the Operator for use in the operation of the Food Truck, all labor expense and wages for staffing and servicing the Food Truck and its operations and any other costs and/or expenses incurred in connection with the operation and use of the Food Truck and participation in the Food Truck Program, including payments due under the Food Truck Lease (other than the lease rental payment).
- e. Payment of Taxes. Payment of any sales, use or excise tax, any apportioned personal property tax or any other tax arising from the Licensed Use, the Sales Locations, the sale and distribution of Products and promotional items, the sublease of the Food Truck or the presence of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations, will be made by the Operator, directly or reimbursed to Chick-fil-A, as applicable. The parties acknowledge and agree that sales, use, or similar taxes may be due and payable even when Products and promotional items are given away and not sold.
- f. Marketing and Advertising. All promotional items used in connection with the Food Truck, including the use of any social networking sites and web-based advertising, will constitute marketing and advertising materials pursuant to the provisions, terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement and will be subject to Chick-fil-A's review and prior approval.

- g. Other Food Truck Program-Related Agreements. Negotiation and signature of any agreements or other arrangements regarding the use of the Food Truck for the Licensed Use will be the responsibility of and be performed by the Operator. The Operator will have no authority to bind Chick-fil-A by contract or otherwise to any agreement with a third party. The Operator will ensure that all aspects of the Sales Locations and the use of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations comply with and satisfy Chick-fil-A's Minimum Standards, including any Guidelines for the Food Truck Program prepared by Chick-fil-A and delivered to or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time. Chick-fil-A's grant of the License for the Licensed Use is not a guaranty, recommendation, warranty or endorsement by Chick-fil-A that the Licensed Use will prove beneficial for the Operator or that the terms of any agreement for the use of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations are advantageous to the Operator.
- h. Sale of Products; Gross Receipts. Gross receipts generated as a result of sales from the Food Truck will be included in the Gross Receipts of the Operator's Business pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and will otherwise be treated as sales occurring outside of the Restaurant in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then-current standards and procedures. Further, the Operator agrees to maintain separate books and records to track the gross receipts, operating costs and expenses resulting from the operation of the Food Truck. The Operator agrees to maintain such books and records for at least five (5) years and provide them to Chick-fil-A's Tax Department, if required, upon a sales tax audit.
- i. Food Truck Staffing. The Operator will provide employees from the Business to fulfill the Operator's staffing needs for the proper use and operation of the Food Truck. All employees will be employed, trained and supervised by the Operator. Chick-fil-A will have no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the selection, supervision, disciplining, scheduling, conduct, payment, benefits or compensation of the Operator's employees at any time, and the Operator's employees will not be employees nor shared or joint employees of Chick-fil-A.
- j. Food Truck Operations and Procedures; Training of Employees.
 - i. Prior to the commencement of operations of the Food Truck by the Operator under this Agreement and prior to the training of the Operator's employees, the Operator will participate in any walk-thru meetings or sessions offered by Chick-fil-A and otherwise will establish a thorough understanding of the safe and proper operation, including driving, of the Food Truck, its equipment and food storage and preparation procedures including, without limitation, any food safety and cleaning/sanitizing procedures for the Food Truck, and use of the Business as a commissary to support the operation of the Food Truck. Prior to the commencement of operations of the Food Truck, the Operator will train the Operator's production team members and other employees who will be staffing and otherwise servicing the Food Truck, in the safe operation and use of the Food Truck and its equipment, food storage, preparation procedures and care and maintenance. The Operator and the Operator's employees are not permitted or authorized to and will not change, modify or reconfigure the Food Truck or its equipment or authorize any third party to do so at any time without Chick-fil-A's review and prior approval. The Operator is solely responsible for ensuring that the Food Truck's operations are conducted with reasonable care and that all prudent safety procedures that apply to the operation or other use of the Food Truck are followed.
 - ii. The Operator and any other individual, who drives the Food Truck, must satisfy (A) all state and local requirements for operation of a commercial food truck, (B) all insurer requirements for operation of the Food Truck, and (C) the following minimum requirements to be allowed to drive the Food Truck (unless state and local or insurance requirements are more restrictive, in which case such state, local or insurance requirements will apply): (i) at least twenty-one years of age; (ii) holds a valid driver's license, a copy of which is maintained by the Operator, and (iii) has no history of serious violations within the last five years and no more than two moving violations in the last three years, based upon the Operator's review of the driver's Motor Vehicle Record for the applicable period stated in this clause. The Operator will ensure that a pre-inspection and a post-inspection of the Food Truck are completed and a complete and current record of such inspections is maintained. Inspection components include, but are not limited to, properly working lights, signals and horn, wipers, mirrors and safety belts, tire tread acceptable, no glass chips/cracks that can hinder vision, doors close and lock, body of vehicle is intact (bumpers, etc.). For purposes of clause (iii) above, "two moving violations" will include, without limitation, speeding, failure to signal, improper passing, following too close, careless driving, not wearing a safety belt, expired tags and plates as well as no proof of insurance, and "serious violations" will include, without limitation, any alcohol related violation, racing/speed contest, reckless driving, vehicular homicide or assault, conviction of a crime involving a motor vehicle, eluding or attempting to elude a police officer, hit and run, etc.

- k. Food Truck Condition and Return. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, the Operator will (i) make the Food Truck available to Chick-fil-A or its designee at such time and location as directed by Chick-fil-A in accordance with all terms, provisions and requirements of the Food Truck Lease and in a clean and neat condition, and in as good order and repair and in the same condition as existed immediately prior to the Operator's operation and use of the Food Truck, normal wear and tear excepted, (ii) remove all personal property from the Food Truck, and (iii) clean and remove all debris and trash from the Food Truck. Any personal property not removed will be deemed conclusively abandoned and may be removed and disposed of by Chick-fil-A, without compensation to the Operator. In the event the Operator fails to return the Food Truck in such condition and at such time and location as directed by Chick-fil-A, the Operator will reimburse Chick-fil-A for all costs and expenses incurred in connection with returning the Food Truck to the good order, condition and repair as existed immediately prior to the Operator's operation and use of the Food Truck, normal wear and tear excepted.
- l. Insurance and Insurance Fee. In consideration of the insurance expense incurred by Chick-fil-A to cover the Food Truck and its contents and inventory, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A a monthly insurance fee, as set forth in the Food Truck License Summary (the "Food Truck Insurance Fee"); the Insurance Fee does not cover any Operator-owned contents or inventory. The Operator will obtain and maintain in full force and effect, at the Operator's own expense, any additional insurance coverage which may be necessary or required (i) to operate the Food Truck, and (ii) under the Food Truck Lease, the Franchise Agreement, applicable law or otherwise. The Operator will provide Chick-fil-A immediate notice of (A) any casualty loss (that is, loss or damage to the Food Truck) that may result in an insurance claim and (B) any liability claim (that is, any injury to any person or damage to any property in any way involving the Food Truck). The Operator will cooperate fully with Chick-fil-A in the reporting, investigation, adjustment, and settlement of any insurance coverage claims arising from the Food Truck.
- m. Reporting of Other Information. The parties acknowledge and agree that one of the metrics to be recorded is the performance of the Food Truck based on where, how and when it was/is deployed for use at the Sales Locations. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that due to the developing stage of the Food Truck Program, Chick-fil-A may require the reporting of additional or different information regarding the Operator's use and operation of the Food Truck and more detailed or different information regarding the sales and cost performance of the Food Truck than is usual or otherwise customary at present with regard to a Chick-fil-A - Restaurant. The Operator will provide such reports and other information regarding Gross Receipts and the costs, expenses and taxes incurred in connection with the operation and use of the Food Truck and the Sales Locations, and such other information Chick-fil-A may request from time to time.

- n. Approvals, Licenses, Permits; Compliance with Law. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, the Operator, at the Operator's sole cost and expense, will seek as soon as practicable and will obtain and maintain at all times during the Term of this Agreement all necessary regulatory approvals, licenses, and permits for and applicable to the operation of the Food Truck for the Licensed Use at the Sales Locations. The Operator will comply with and obey all applicable laws, rules and regulations.
 - o. Cooperation. The Operator, at the Operator's sole cost and expense, will cooperate with Chick-fil-A as necessary for the Operator and/or Chick-fil-A to fulfill their respective duties and obligations under this Agreement and the Food Truck Lease.
8. Additional Terms. Chick-fil-A will have the following rights, obligations, and responsibilities with regard to the operation and use of the Food Truck during the term of this Agreement:
- a. Delivery of Food Truck. Subject to Sections 6 and 14, Chick-fil-A will deliver the Food Truck to the Operator for the Licensed Use pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Operator due to a delay or failure to deliver the Food Truck in any event whatsoever, regardless of whether such delay or failure is within Chick-fil-A's control. Without limiting the above, Chick-fil-A will have no liability for any delay or failure to deliver resulting from fire, act of God, destruction or damage to the Food Truck, weather conditions, strike, labor dispute, delay in transportation, governmental requirements or any other cause beyond Chick-fil-A's control.
 - b. Use of Reported Information. Chick-fil-A will have the right and the Operator authorizes Chick-fil-A to account for the Gross Receipts, fees, costs, expenses and taxes incurred and to make calculations and allocations to the Operator's Business as may be authorized or otherwise required under the Franchise Agreement and in order to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.
9. Compliance with Franchise Agreement. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the Operator will comply with all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement with regard to the Food Truck and the Licensed Use even if not specifically described or referred to in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, Section 5 DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY, Section 12 STANDARDS OF CLEANLINESS, SANITATION AND BUSINESS CONDUCT, Section 18 TRADE SECRETS AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, Section 19 USE OF THE MARKS, Section 24 TERMINATION, Section 25 FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP, Section 27 INDEMNIFICATION, and Section 28 GENERAL PROVISIONS (including, without limitation, with regard to the parties' choice of Georgia law and a Georgia forum to resolve their disputes as set forth in Section 28.10 thereof, the waiver of any right to trial by jury as set forth in Section 28.15 thereof and the Operator's agreement not to pursue any class claims as set forth in Section 28.13 thereof), and such provisions will be read to apply also to this Agreement. To the extent that there is a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, the express terms of this Agreement will control with respect to the Licensed Use authorized under this Agreement and the limited License granted for the Licensed Use. In addition, the Operator must not do anything in connection with the Sales Locations or the Food Truck that would adversely impact Chick-fil-A's reputation or image in the community and will not use or conduct operations from the Food Truck on Sunday or Christmas Day.

10. Sole and Exclusive Property of Chick-fil-A; Confidential Information and Ideas. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Food Truck Program, including but not limited to the development of the Food Truck and the program, this Agreement (and any of its terms), the Food Truck Lease (and any of its terms), the design and specifications, menu selection, marketing methods and strategies (including social media), sales, cost, data and analysis relating to the Food Truck Agreement, and any Guidelines and Methods developed for the Food Truck are the sole and exclusive property of Chick-fil-A, and constitute Intellectual Property and Confidential Information under the Franchise Agreement. The Operator will not acquire any ownership interest or other right in and to the Food Truck Program, the Food Truck, its equipment, furnishing and fixtures, associated Guidelines and Methods, Intellectual Property or Confidential Information, except for the temporary right and License to operate the Food Truck for the Licensed Use at the Sales Locations as expressly provided in this Agreement. Under Section 18.5 of the Franchise Agreement, any idea, concept, technique or material concerning the Food Truck and the Food Truck Program, including any advertising materials and social networking accounts, that the Operator or any of the Operator's employees create in the operation or servicing of the Food Truck or conduct of the Food Truck Program as contemplated by this Agreement, will be Ideas, and Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties will own all rights in any and all Ideas. The Operator may not lend, sublicense, subcontract, sublease, encumber or in any way transfer or assign the Food Truck or any of the Food Truck's equipment, furnishings, or fixtures or any rights under this Agreement. Chick-fil-A will retain all rights attendant to or associated with the lease of the Food Truck, including, without limitation, the right to depreciate the Food Truck for tax, accounting and all other purposes.
11. No Warranties. The Food Truck provided to the Operator by Chick-fil-A pursuant to the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement is furnished "AS IS" and "WHERE IS" and without any warranty of any kind by or from Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A expressly disclaims any representations or warranties, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, with respect to the Food Truck and this Agreement, including, without limitation, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.
12. Storage; Maintenance; Repair. The Operator, (a) may use the Food Truck only in compliance with the Food Truck Lease and only in connection with the Operator's operation of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations, (b) will store and maintain the Food Truck at the Operator's Business when not in use at a Sales Location (c) will service and repair the Food Truck in order to maintain its appearance and good working condition according to best industry practices, manufacturer's specifications, and using reputable and established service and repair vendors, and (d) will not make any changes, alterations or additions to the Food Truck without prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, and all in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards, Guidelines and other policies and procedures as may be amended by Chick-fil-A from time to time. In servicing and repairing the Food Truck and its equipment, furnishings and fixtures, the Operator will solely use suppliers and vendors that demonstrate the ability to meet Chick-fil-A's then Minimum Standards and Guidelines and that possess adequate quality controls, experience and capacity to service and repair the item and otherwise supply the Operator's needs promptly, accurately and reliably. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Operator due to any inability to use or any interruption in the use of the Food Truck or any of its equipment, furnishings or fixtures. The Operator agrees to provide Chick-fil-A with monthly (or with such greater frequency that Chick-fil-A may from time-to-time require) reports detailing (i) the mileage of the Food Truck for such time period, (ii) any damage incurred with respect to the Food Truck, and (iii) any maintenance or repairs performed with respect to the Food Truck. The Operator's obligation to provide such reports does not satisfy the Operator's obligations under the Food Truck Lease, and it is the Operator's obligation to ensure that all required maintenance is performed on the Food Trucks per the terms of the Food Truck Lease and this Agreement, including the requirements that (x) all such maintenance and repairs must be performed by a factory authorized maintenance individual with the authority to sign the maintenance, service and/or repair log and (y) records of all work performed on the Food Truck must be dated and signed by the appropriate authority.

13. Indemnification; Damage to Property; Personal Injury.

- a. The Operator will be solely and exclusively responsible for any damage to or loss caused by a breach of this Agreement or the Food Truck Lease, the negligent or intentional action or misfeasance of the Operator or the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers as if provided for and included under Section 5 DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY of the Franchise Agreement, which will apply in full to this Agreement. Furthermore, the Operator will be solely and exclusively responsible for any and all liability of the Operator and/or Chick-fil-A, for (i) personal injury, death or otherwise, and (ii) damage to personal property or real property caused by or resulting from the negligent or intentional action or misfeasance of the Operator, the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers. In addition, the Operator will be solely and exclusively responsible for any and all liability of BALC as provided in the Food Truck Lease.
- b. The Operator does hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Chick-fil-A and any subsequent operator of the Food Truck or a like business at the Sales Location and/or BALC as provided in the Food Truck Lease, against all judgments, settlements, penalties, expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs and other costs of litigation or administrative proceedings incurred by or imposed on Chick-fil-A or any subsequent operator of the Food Truck or a like business at the Sales Location as if provided for and included under Section 27 INDEMNIFICATION of the Franchise Agreement, which will apply in full to this Agreement and the use and operation of the Food Truck, including without limitation in the event of any damage, loss or claim described in this Section 13.

The Operator's obligations under Subsections 13.a. and b. above (and Sections 5 and 27 of the Franchise Agreement) will apply with respect to, among other things, the Sales Location, the Food Truck and any personal property of any person or entity, any personal injury or death, any claim, demand or penalty, and any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding arising out of or relating to or in connection with the Sales Locations, the Food Truck or this Agreement, as applicable, all of which will be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Operator. This section is not intended to and does not convey any benefits to any third party and does not prevent the Operator or Chick-fil-A from seeking indemnification from another third party whose actions, or the actions of such third party's employee, were the source of any injury, damage or loss. This section is in addition to any obligations of the Operator to BALC and others that may be named in the Food Truck Lease.

14. Default; Termination.

- a. The rights granted under this Agreement are contingent upon the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement, including the Food Truck Lease, being in full force and effect and the Operator otherwise being in good standing at the effective date of this Agreement and at all times during the term of this Agreement. If prior to the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement is terminated or expires with respect to the Business or the Food Truck Lease is terminated or expires, this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, will automatically terminate or expire at the same time. If the Franchise Agreement is in default at the effective date of this Agreement or at any time during the term of this Agreement (and has not been terminated), such default will also constitute a default by the Operator under this Agreement, and Chick-fil-A may terminate the Operator's rights under this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, or suspend such rights until the default is cured.

- b. This Agreement and the rights granted hereunder may be terminated for a default under this Agreement, including a default under the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement by reason of a default of the Food Truck Lease, without also terminating the Franchise Agreement, provided that Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, shall have the right at its election to also terminate the Franchise Agreement as to the Business and one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement by providing written notice to the Operator pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement. Subject to Section 15, this Agreement and the rights granted under this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement (but not the obligations the Operator has undertaken thereunder, which will survive until the Operator has fully performed the same), will expire automatically upon Chick-fil-A retaking possession of the Food Truck following the expiration or termination of this Agreement and the Operator's fulfillment of the Operator's obligations under this Agreement, including under the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Operator further acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A has the right, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, to terminate this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4, and/or the Food Truck Program at any time for any reason or for no reason.
- c. The Operator will bear any and all risk arising from or related to termination of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Operator will remain liable for the then current outstanding balance of the Food Truck Usage Fee, the Food Truck Insurance Fee and any other payments due Chick-fil-A or BALC as provided in the Food Truck Lease and/or in this Agreement. The Operator agrees that upon default BALC may demand, receive and collect any monies due or falling due after the default without in any manner affecting the status of the default or any notice of suit, action, order or judgment related to the default. Upon termination of the Food Truck Lease and/or this Agreement, any payment made by the Operator to Chick-fil-A or BALC or any court will not: (i) reinstate, continue or extend the term of this Agreement; (ii) affect any notice previously given to the Operator; or (iii) operate as a waiver of the right of Chick-fil-A to obtain possession of the Food Truck by proper suit, action, proceeding or remedy. All monies collected will be deemed to be payments made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or applied toward any outstanding balances owed by the Operator.

15. Survival. Upon the termination, expiration, or suspension of this Agreement as provided in Section 14, all obligations under this Agreement, including under the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement and also including without limitation the obligations under the Franchise Agreement which are incorporated by reference into this Agreement, that expressly or by their nature are intended to survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, including, but not limited to, limitations of liability, and the Operator's reporting, payment and indemnification obligations to Chick-fil-A and/or BALC, will survive the termination, expiration or suspension of this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, the Food Truck Lease, and the termination of the Franchise Agreement, if applicable.

16. Communications; Notices; Designated Contact. All notices provided for in this Agreement will be deemed given on the day of hand-delivery or overnight delivery or three (3) days after being sent by registered or certified mail, if sent from the United States, or by the equivalent thereof if sent from other country or jurisdiction, return receipt requested, address to the party to be served at the following address:

Or to such other address as may be designated by such party in a written notice to the other party.

17. Not Independent Franchise. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator's participation in the Food Truck Program and the grant of the License to use the Food Truck at the Sales Location pursuant to this Agreement is made upon the request of and as an accommodation to the Operator in connection with the Franchise Agreement and the Business, and is entirely voluntary on the part of the Operator and does not constitute an independent or separate franchise or franchise agreement.
18. Affirmation of Franchise Agreement. The Operator acknowledges, affirms and agrees to all of the covenants and obligations under the Franchise Agreement as if entered into, undertaken and otherwise made again this day and reaffirms the continuing existence and validity of the Franchise Agreement. The Operator covenants that, subject to its terms and conditions, the Franchise Agreement is in full force and effect as of the date of this Agreement, and will remain in full force and effect, subject to its terms.
19. Acceptance of Risk of Food Truck Program. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A is in the development stages of the Food Truck Program and that participation in the Food Truck Program under this Agreement involves substantial risks. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that the Operator is aware of the risks and that the Operator agrees to bear the risk of the success or failure of the Food Truck Program and the Food Truck in reliance solely on the Operator's own business judgment.
20. Execution; Counterparts. The parties acknowledge and agree that, (i) the Food Truck License Summary is complete and accurate and forms a part of this Agreement; and (ii) this Agreement, including the Food Truck License Summary and the Food Truck Lease, as well as the Franchise Agreement as referenced in this Agreement, contain the entire agreement between the parties as to the subject matter hereof and fully supersedes all prior understandings, written or oral, between the parties regarding such subject matter. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and at various times and at various places by the several parties to this Agreement, all of which counterparts taken together will be deemed as one original. Executed copies of this Agreement, whether delivered by electronic transmission or otherwise, will be deemed to be as effective as original signatures.

Exhibit "B"

Food Truck Lease

ADDENDUM “3-B” TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

FOOD TRUCK LICENSE AND SUBLEASE AGREEMENT (Business Entity)

THIS FOOD TRUCK LICENSE AND SUBLEASE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and will be effective as of _____, 20__, by and between CHICK-FIL-A, INC., a Georgia corporation, having its principal business address at 5200 Buffington Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349-2998 (“Chick-fil-A”), its franchisee, _____, a _____[corporation][limited liability company] (the “Operator”) and _____, the original signatory to the Franchise Agreement (as defined below) in his/her individual capacity as the approved Operator thereunder (the “Operator-Owner”).

BACKGROUND

A. Chick-fil-A and the Operator-Owner into a Franchise Agreement with its attached Lease, Additional Business Amendments(s), if any, and all other exhibits (the “Franchise Agreement”), which governs and defines the parties’ relationship and operation of the Business(es), including the Business designated in the Food Truck License Summary (as defined in Section 1) attached as Exhibit A (the “Business”).

B. The Operator-Owner, after obtaining all required approvals and consents under the Franchise Agreement transferred and assigned his or her interest in the Franchise Agreement and the Business(es) for their remaining respective Agreed Terms to the Operator, an entity formed by the Operator-Owner for his or her convenience of ownership, pursuant to the terms and conditions of an Assignment and Consent to Assignment (the “Assignment”).

C. Chick-fil-A is developing a mobile food truck program (the “Food Truck Program”) and has leased a custom food truck, including equipment, furnishing and fixtures in and on the food truck (the “Food Truck”) to produce, hold and/or sell a limited menu of Chick-fil-A® Products.

D. Pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, Chick-fil-A, the Operator and the Operator-Owner desire to amend and otherwise reaffirm the terms of the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the grant to the Operator of the authority to conduct sales activities from the Food Truck as an extension of the Business and the grant of a sublease of the right to use and occupy the Food Truck, and to otherwise continue their respective performance under the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment.

AGREEMENT

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE ABOVE recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, as well as in the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Definitions; Recitals. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement, including in the Food Truck License Summary Form attached as Exhibit A, as it may be amended from time to time (the “Food Truck License Summary”), will have the meanings given to them in the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment. The parties incorporate into this Agreement the recitals set forth above as if set forth here in full.

2. License; Term.

- a. License. Chick-fil-A grants to the Operator, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, the limited license to use and operate the Food Truck using the Trade Name, the Marks and the System, as may be modified by Chick-fil-A from time to time (including generally or for the Food Truck Program specifically), and the limited license and grant to conduct the Licensed Use (as defined below) as an extension and part of the Business (collectively the “License”), and the Operator accepts the grant of the License.
 - b. No Exclusive Territorial Rights. The License is expressly limited to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and is further subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Franchise Agreement. The License is non-exclusive, and no so-called “exclusive,” “protected” or other territorial rights in the Sales Locations (as defined below) or any market areas surrounding or otherwise contiguous with any Sales Location are granted, implied or to be inferred. All rights and licenses not expressly granted to the Operator under this Agreement are reserved exclusively by and unto Chick-fil-A.
 - c. Term. Unless earlier terminated as provided in this Agreement, including pursuant to Section 4.e or Section 14 or as stated on the Food Truck License Summary, or pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, the initial term of this Agreement (the “Initial Term”) will commence as of the Effective Date of this Agreement and will end on the Thirty-First day of December of the year in which the Effective Date occurs. The Initial Term, together with any and all extensions of the Initial Term and subject to the rights for earlier termination or expiration pursuant to this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement, is sometimes referred to in this Agreement as the “Term.” Unless this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement or the Food Truck Lease (as defined below) is terminated earlier, the Term of this Agreement will be automatically extended for successive additional periods of one (1) year, unless written notice of intent not to renew either the Franchise Agreement or this Agreement is given by either party to the other at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the Term; provided, however, that this Agreement may not be renewed if the Operator does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement or does not have the right to renew the Franchise Agreement with respect to the Business or the Franchise Agreement is terminated or otherwise not renewed, as provided in Section 2.3 of the Franchise Agreement. In addition to Chick-fil-A’s right to amend or modify the Food Truck Lease pursuant to this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will have the right to change the terms and conditions of this Agreement upon a renewal of the Franchise Agreement pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Franchise Agreement (and renewal of this Agreement) by giving the Operator a written notice of the changed terms and conditions at least forty-five (45) days prior to the end of the then-current Term, in which case the Operator will have fifteen (15) days from the date of the notice to decide and to notify Chick-fil-A in writing of the Operator’s decision to either renew or not renew this Agreement upon the changed terms and conditions offered. The Operator’s failure to provide timely notice to Chick-fil-A of a decision to either renew or not renew this Agreement upon the changed terms and conditions offered will be deemed to be an election by the Operator to terminate this Agreement at the end of such Term.
3. Licensed Use. The Food Truck will be used for the sole purpose of operating the Food Truck as an extension and part of the Business to produce, hold, sell and distribute certain Products to customers from the Food Truck at the Sales Locations (as defined in Section 5) for the Term pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, including the limited License and the Food Truck License Summary (the “Licensed Use”). The Operator will use the Food Truck solely for the Licensed Use and for no other purpose.
 4. Food Truck Lease; Sublease. During the Term, and subject to the terms of this Agreement, Chick-fil-A grants to Operator a sublease for the use and occupancy of the Food Truck. The Operator’s use of the Food Truck is subject to all applicable laws, rules and regulations and the lease attached as Exhibit “B” to this Agreement and any other exhibits to the attached lease (the “Food Truck Lease”), made a part of this Agreement by this reference. The Operator agrees to use and operate the Food Truck in accordance with the Food Truck Lease and otherwise comply in all respects with the terms and conditions of the Food Truck Lease, as the same may be amended or changed by Chick-fil-A (as prime lessee) and Banc of America Leasing & Capital or its permitted assignee (as prime lessor) (“BALC”), from time to time:

- a. Compliance with Agreements. Neither the Operator nor its employees, agents, contractors or invitees will perform any act, neglect to perform any duty or fail to comply with any standard of conduct that would constitute a violation of the Food Truck Lease, this Agreement or the Franchise Agreement;
 - b. No Further Subleases; No Amendments. Operator will not enter into any lease agreements or other agreements allowing parties other than Operator or Chick-fil-A rights concerning possession, use, operation, or control of the Food Truck without the prior written approval of Chick-fil-A and, as determined by Chick-fil-A, BALC, and Chick-fil-A and will not modify amend or extend the time for payment or performance in any material respect of its obligations under any agreement relating to Operator’s use of the Food Truck without the express prior written consent of BALC;
 - c. Subordination. The rights of the Operator in and to the Food Truck will be subject and subordinate to the rights of BALC under the Food Truck Lease as provided in the Food Truck Lease, and the Operator will not assert or claim any right, title or interest as the owner or holder of legal or equitable title to the Food Truck, including any of its equipment, furnishing and fixtures (except proprietary equipment and equipment installed to customize the Food Truck for operation as an extension of a franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business, subject to the rights of Chick-fil-A);
 - d. Payments. Subject to the terms of Section 7(c) of this Agreement, Chick-fil-A will pay the lease rental payment described in the Food Truck Lease directly to BALC per the terms of the Food Truck Lease;
 - e. Termination. The Food Truck Lease and all of the Operator's rights in and to the use and possession of the Food Truck will terminate, at the option of BALC, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Food Truck Lease by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Food Truck Lease or otherwise, and the Operator will thereupon return the Food Truck to Chick-fil-A or at Chick-fil-A’s election and direction to BALC in accordance with all of the terms and provisions of the Food Truck Lease and of this Agreement;
 - f. Cost of Performance. If the Operator fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, including under the attached Food Truck Lease, Chick-fil-A, at its option, may (but is not required to) do the same or cause the same to be done, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies of Chick-fil-A. The cost incurred by Chick-fil-A in connection with performance by Chick-fil-A will be an additional charge due from the Operator to Chick-fil-A, together with interest pursuant to Section 14.11 of the Franchise Agreement.
5. Sales Location and Hours of Operation. For each proposed instance of a Licensed Use of the Food Truck, the Operator will complete and submit Chick-fil-A’s then current registration form (“Registration Form”) and otherwise follow the registration process established for Food Trucks under Chick-fil-A’s then current policies and procedures for such programs, including obtaining approval prior to the commencement of the Licensed Use at each proposed Sales Location. During the Term, the Operator will use and operate the Food Truck to produce and/or sell and distribute Products only at the locations registered and approved pursuant to Chick-fil-A's Additional Distribution Point program (individually, a "Sales Location" and collectively, the "Sales Locations") and during the hours of operation specified in the applicable Registration Form for each Sales Location.

6. Delivery and Availability of Food Truck. On or around the commencement date specified in the Food Truck License Summary (the "Commencement Date"), Chick-fil-A will deliver the Food Truck to the Operator for the Licensed Use pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement. If (a) the Franchise Agreement terminates or expires, (b) the Operator is in default under the Franchise Agreement, or (c) other aspects of the Business change affecting the Operator's ability to perform the Operator's obligations under this Agreement, including the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, as determined by Chick-fil-A in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, then Chick-fil-A will have the right to terminate this Agreement and the Operator will bear any and all risk arising from or related to the termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Operator further acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A has the right, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, to terminate or suspend this Agreement or temporarily suspend or interrupt the Food Truck Program at any time for any reason or for no reason, including without limitation, to use the Food Truck at another location and/or for a different purpose (an "Alternate Use"). For example, but without limiting the preceding sentence, Chick-fil-A may elect to use or have its designee use the Food Truck for food or other product distribution in the event of a natural disaster, weather event, pandemic, epidemic or other like disaster or event. In the event that Chick-fil-A elects to use or have its designee use the Food Truck for an Alternate Use, the Operator's obligations under this Agreement, including under the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, will be suspended, and the Operator's sole and exclusive remedy will be the return of the Food Truck following the Alternate Use for the remainder of the Term, without any right to an extension. Chick-fil-A will have no other liability if the Food Truck is not furnished or otherwise made available to the Operator.
7. Operator's Obligations. The Operator will have the following obligations and responsibilities with regard to the operation and use of the Food Truck:
 - a. Menu of Products.
 - i. The menu of Products that may be offered, sold and distributed from the Food Truck in connection with this Agreement will be limited to the Products set forth and otherwise referenced in the Food Truck License Summary.
 - ii. The menu of Products that may be produced on, and offered, sold and distributed from, the Food Truck, will be limited to the Products set forth and otherwise referenced in the Food Truck License Summary.
 - iii. The menu of Products to be produced and/or sold and distributed at individual Sales Locations will be as set forth on the applicable Registration Form for each Sales Location.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, only Products that are approved for sale in the Chick-fil-A system may be sold from the Food Truck. Products produced and/or held in the Food Truck may only be sold or distributed from the Food Truck at the Sales Locations and may not be sold, delivered, or given away to the Operator's Business, any other Business(es) to which the Operator has the right to operate pursuant to the Franchise Agreement (if any) to customers or consumers located elsewhere or to other Chick-fil-A® franchisees.

- b. Commissary; Source of Supplies. As set forth above in Section 7.a. of this Agreement, certain Products sold or distributed from the Food Truck may be freshly produced in the Food Truck, while other Products or the components of other Products must be freshly produced in the Business, which will serve as a commissary for the Food Truck, and delivered to the Food Truck via approved Temperature Management System (TMS) bags. For each Sales Location, whether a Product or Product component may be produced in the Food Truck or may only be produced in the Business and then delivered to the Food Truck as set forth above will be specified in the Registration Form applicable to such individual Sales Location. Product production and the manner of delivery, storage and holding of Product, Product components and Ingredients, at, in or between the Food Truck and the Business, will be performed according to Chick-fil-A's then-current Minimum Standards, including any Guidelines for food trucks prepared by Chick-fil-A and delivered to or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time. The provisions, terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement concerning the sources for purchase of Products and Ingredients will apply to the sources of Products and Ingredients to supply the Food Truck. Any transportation of Products, Ingredients, promotional items, and other items by the Operator or otherwise will comply with and will otherwise abide by all applicable health, sanitation, food handling, food transportation and insurance requirements provided by law, the requirements contained in the Franchise Agreement, the Food Truck Lease and as otherwise required by Chick-fil-A (whichever provides the most stringent requirements). Without limiting the above, the Operator will not (and will not allow others to) transport any hazardous materials or anything other than Products, Ingredients, promotional items, and other items necessary for the safe, sanitary, and efficient operation of the Food Truck.
- c. Payment of Food Truck Usage Fee. In consideration of the License granted in this Agreement and to compensate Chick-fil-A for the use of the Food Truck under the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A when due the usage fee(s) as set forth in the Food Truck License Summary (the "Usage Fee"), which will be in lieu of the lease rental payment described in the Food Truck Lease payable by Chick-fil-A to BALC. Chick-fil-A shall have the right from time to time to re-determine the Food Truck Usage Fee in its sole and exclusive business judgment based on the then current fair market rental value for the Food Truck due to additions, subtractions and modifications to the Food Truck, additional or different charges or other changes under the Food Truck Lease, market factors, inflation, passage of time or otherwise, and to update the Food Truck Usage Fee to an amount based on the then determined, current fair market rental, which will be set forth in a revised Food Truck License Summary Form and substituted and attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A and made a part of this Agreement. At Chick-fil-A's election, the program described in Section 14.12 of the Franchise Agreement shall apply to the Operator's payment obligations described in this Agreement with respect to the Food Truck and any other payment obligations of the Operator hereunder, and any adjustment or increases thereto.
- d. Additional Fees, Costs and Expenses. All additional fees, costs and expenses associated with the operation and use of the Food Truck, participation in the Food Truck Program and the Licensed Use will be borne by the Operator, either made by the Operator directly or reimbursed to Chick-fil-A, as applicable, and will include, among other things, all Products, Ingredients and all other food and drink items, cleaning and office supplies, equipment and all other things purchased by the Operator for use in the operation of the Food Truck, all labor expense and wages for staffing and servicing the Food Truck and its operations and any other costs and/or expenses incurred in connection with the operation and use of the Food Truck and participation in the Food Truck Program, including payments due under the Food Truck Lease (other than the lease rental payment).

- e. Payment of Taxes. Payment of any sales, use or excise tax, any apportioned personal property tax or any other tax arising from the Licensed Use, the Sales Locations, the sale and distribution of Products and promotional items, the sublease of the Food Truck or the presence of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations, will be made by the Operator, directly or reimbursed to Chick-fil-A, as applicable. The parties acknowledge and agree that sales, use, or similar taxes may be due and payable even when Products and promotional items are given away and not sold.
- f. Marketing and Advertising. All promotional items used in connection with the Food Truck, including the use of any social networking sites and web-based advertising, will constitute marketing and advertising materials pursuant to the provisions, terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement and will be subject to Chick-fil-A's review and prior approval.
- g. Other Food Truck Program-Related Agreements. Negotiation and signature of any agreements or other arrangements regarding the use of the Food Truck for the Licensed Use will be the responsibility of and be performed by the Operator. The Operator will have no authority to bind Chick-fil-A by contract or otherwise to any agreement with a third party. The Operator will ensure that all aspects of the Sales Locations and the use of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations comply with and satisfy Chick-fil-A's Minimum Standards, including any Guidelines for the Food Truck Program prepared by Chick-fil-A and delivered to or otherwise made available to the Operator from time to time. Chick-fil-A's grant of the License for the Licensed Use is not a guaranty, recommendation, warranty or endorsement by Chick-fil-A that the Licensed Use will prove beneficial for the Operator or that the terms of any agreement for the use of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations are advantageous to the Operator.
- h. Sale of Products; Gross Receipts. Gross receipts generated as a result of sales from the Food Truck will be included in the Gross Receipts of the Operator's Business pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and will otherwise be treated as sales occurring outside of the Restaurant in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then-current standards and procedures. Further, the Operator agrees to maintain separate books and records to track the gross receipts, operating costs and expenses resulting from the operation of the Food Truck. The Operator agrees to maintain such books and records for at least five (5) years and provide them to Chick-fil-A's Tax Department, if required, upon a sales tax audit.
- i. Food Truck Staffing. The Operator will provide employees from the Business to fulfill the Operator's staffing needs for the proper use and operation of the Food Truck. All employees will be employed, trained and supervised by the Operator. Chick-fil-A will have no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the selection, supervision, disciplining, scheduling, conduct, payment, benefits or compensation of the Operator's employees at any time, and the Operator's employees will not be employees nor shared or joint employees of Chick-fil-A.
- j. Food Truck Operations and Procedures; Training of Employees.
 - i. Prior to the commencement of operations of the Food Truck by the Operator under this Agreement and prior to the training of the Operator's employees, the Operator will participate in any walk-thru meetings or sessions offered by Chick-fil-A and otherwise will establish a thorough understanding of the safe and proper operation, including driving, of the Food Truck, its equipment and food storage and preparation procedures including, without limitation, any food safety and cleaning/sanitizing procedures for the Food Truck, and use of the Business as a commissary to support the operation of the Food Truck. Prior to the commencement of operations of the Food Truck, the Operator will train the Operator's production team members and other employees who will be staffing and otherwise servicing the Food Truck, in the safe operation and use of the Food Truck and its equipment, food storage, preparation procedures and care and maintenance. The Operator and the Operator's employees are not permitted or authorized to and will not change, modify or reconfigure the Food Truck or its equipment or authorize any third party to do so at any time without Chick-fil-A's review and prior approval. The Operator is solely responsible for ensuring that the Food Truck's operations are conducted with reasonable care and that all prudent safety procedures that apply to the operation or other use of the Food Truck are followed.

- ii. The Operator and any other individual, who drives the Food Truck, must satisfy (A) all state and local requirements for operation of a commercial food truck, (B) all insurer requirements for operation of the Food Truck, and (C) the following minimum requirements to be allowed to drive the Food Truck (unless state and local or insurance requirements are more restrictive, in which case such state, local or insurance requirements will apply): (i) at least twenty-one years of age; (ii) holds a valid driver's license, a copy of which is maintained by the Operator, and (iii) has no history of serious violations within the last five years and no more than two moving violations in the last three years, based upon the Operator's review of the driver's Motor Vehicle Record for the applicable period stated in this clause. The Operator will ensure that a pre-inspection and a post-inspection of the Food Truck are completed and a complete and current record of such inspections is maintained. Inspection components include, but are not limited to, properly working lights, signals and horn, wipers, mirrors and safety belts, tire tread acceptable, no glass chips/cracks that can hinder vision, doors close and lock, body of vehicle is intact (bumpers, etc.). For purposes of clause (iii) above, "two moving violations" will include, without limitation, speeding, failure to signal, improper passing, following too close, careless driving, not wearing a safety belt, expired tags and plates as well as no proof of insurance, and "serious violations" will include, without limitation, any alcohol related violation, racing/speed contest, reckless driving, vehicular homicide or assault, conviction of a crime involving a motor vehicle, eluding or attempting to elude a police officer, hit and run, etc.
- k. Food Truck Condition and Return. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, the Operator will (i) make the Food Truck available to Chick-fil-A or its designee at such time and location as directed by Chick-fil-A in accordance with all terms, provisions and requirements of the Food Truck Lease and in a clean and neat condition, and in as good order and repair and in the same condition as existed immediately prior to the Operator's operation and use of the Food Truck, normal wear and tear excepted, (ii) remove all personal property from the Food Truck, and (iii) clean and remove all debris and trash from the Food Truck. Any personal property not removed will be deemed conclusively abandoned and may be removed and disposed of by Chick-fil-A, without compensation to the Operator. In the event the Operator fails to return the Food Truck in such condition and at such time and location as directed by Chick-fil-A, the Operator will reimburse Chick-fil-A for all costs and expenses incurred in connection with returning the Food Truck to the good order, condition and repair as existed immediately prior to the Operator's operation and use of the Food Truck, normal wear and tear excepted.
- l. Insurance and Insurance Fee. In consideration of the insurance expense incurred by Chick-fil-A to cover the Food Truck and its contents and inventory, the Operator will pay to Chick-fil-A a monthly insurance fee, as set forth in the Food Truck License Summary (the "Food Truck Insurance Fee"); the Insurance Fee does not cover any Operator-owned contents or inventory. The Operator will obtain and maintain in full force and effect, at the Operator's own expense, any additional insurance coverage which may be necessary or required (i) to operate the Food Truck, and (ii) under the Food Truck Lease, the Franchise Agreement, applicable law or otherwise. The Operator will provide Chick-fil-A immediate notice of (A) any casualty loss (that is, loss or damage to the Food Truck) that may result in an insurance claim and (B) any - liability claim (that is, any injury to any person or damage to any property in any way involving the Food Truck). The Operator will cooperate fully with Chick-fil-A in the reporting, investigation, adjustment, and settlement of any insurance coverage claims arising from the Food Truck.

- m. Reporting of Other Information. The parties acknowledge and agree that one of the metrics to be recorded is the performance of the Food Truck based on where, how and when it was/is deployed for use at the Sales Locations. The Operator acknowledges and agrees that due to the developing stage of the Food Truck Program, Chick-fil-A may require the reporting of additional or different information regarding the Operator's use and operation of the Food Truck and more detailed or different information regarding the sales and cost performance of the Food Truck than is usual or otherwise customary at present with regard to a Chick-fil-A Restaurant. The Operator will provide such reports and other information regarding Gross Receipts and the costs, expenses and taxes incurred in connection with the operation and use of the Food Truck and the Sales Locations, and such other information Chick-fil-A may request from time to time.
 - n. Approvals, Licenses, Permits; Compliance with Law. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, the Operator, at the Operator's sole cost and expense, will seek as soon as practicable and will obtain and maintain at all times during the Term of this Agreement all necessary regulatory approvals, licenses, and permits for and applicable to the operation of the Food Truck for the Licensed Use at the Sales Locations. The Operator will comply with and obey all applicable laws, rules and regulations.
 - o. Cooperation. The Operator, at the Operator's sole cost and expense, will cooperate with Chick-fil-A as necessary for the Operator and/or Chick-fil-A to fulfill their respective duties and obligations under this Agreement and the Food Truck Lease.
8. Additional Terms. Chick-fil-A will have the following rights, obligations, and responsibilities with regard to the operation and use of the Food Truck during the term of this Agreement:
- c. Delivery of Food Truck. Subject to Sections 6 and 14, Chick-fil-A will deliver the Food Truck to the Operator for the Licensed Use pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Operator due to a delay or failure to deliver the Food Truck in any event whatsoever, regardless of whether such delay or failure is within Chick-fil-A's control. Without limiting the above, Chick-fil-A will have no liability for any delay or failure to deliver resulting from fire, act of God, destruction or damage to the Food Truck, weather conditions, strike, labor dispute, delay in transportation, governmental requirements or any other cause beyond Chick-fil-A's control.
 - d. Use of Reported Information. Chick-fil-A will have the right and the Operator authorizes Chick-fil-A to account for the Gross Receipts, fees, costs, expenses and taxes incurred and to make calculations and allocations to the Operator's Business as may be authorized or otherwise required under the Franchise Agreement and in order to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.
9. Compliance with Franchise Agreement. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the Operator will comply with all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement with regard to the Food Truck and the Licensed Use even if not specifically described or referred to in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, Section 5 DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY, Section 12 STANDARDS OF CLEANLINESS, SANITATION AND BUSINESS CONDUCT, Section 18 TRADE SECRETS AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, Section 19 USE OF THE MARKS, Section 24 TERMINATION, Section 25 FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP, Section 27 INDEMNIFICATION, and Section 28 GENERAL PROVISIONS (including, without limitation, with regard to the parties' choice of Georgia law and a Georgia forum to resolve their disputes as set forth in Section 28.10 thereof, the waiver of any right to trial by jury as set forth in Section 28.15 thereof and the Operator's agreement not to pursue any class claims as set forth in Section 28.13 thereof), and such provisions will be read to apply also to this Agreement. To the extent that there is a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement, the express terms of this Agreement will control with respect to the Licensed Use authorized under this Agreement and the limited License granted for the Licensed Use. In addition, the Operator and the Operator-Owner must not do anything in connection with the Sales Locations or the Food Truck that would adversely impact Chick-fil-A's reputation or image in the community and will not use or conduct operations from the Food Truck on Sunday or Christmas Day.

10. Sole and Exclusive Property of Chick-fil-A; Confidential Information and Ideas. The Operator and the Operator-Owner acknowledge and agree that the Food Truck Program, including but not limited to the development of the Food Truck and the program, this Agreement (and any of its terms), the Food Truck Lease (and any of its terms), the design and specifications, menu selection, marketing methods and strategies (including social media), sales, cost, data and analysis relating to the Food Truck Agreement, and any Guidelines and Methods developed for the Food Truck are the sole and exclusive property of Chick-fil-A, and constitute Intellectual Property and Confidential Information under the Franchise Agreement. The Operator and the Operator-Owner will not acquire any ownership interest or other right in and to the Food Truck Program, the Food Truck, its equipment, furnishing and fixtures, associated Guidelines and Methods, Intellectual Property or Confidential Information, except for the temporary right and License to operate the Food Truck for the Licensed Use at the Sales Locations as expressly provided in this Agreement. Under Section 18.5 of the Franchise Agreement, any idea, concept, technique or material concerning the Food Truck and the Food Truck Program, including any advertising materials and social networking accounts, that the Operator, the Operator-Owner or any of the Operator's employees create in the operation or servicing of the Food Truck or conduct of the Food Truck Program as contemplated by this Agreement, will be Ideas, and Chick-fil-A or CFA Properties will own all rights in any and all Ideas. The Operator may not lend, sublicense, subcontract, sublease, encumber or in any way transfer or assign the Food Truck or any of the Food Truck's equipment, furnishings, or fixtures or any rights under this Agreement. Chick-fil-A will retain all rights attendant to or associated with the lease of the Food Truck, including, without limitation, the right to depreciate the Food Truck for tax, accounting and all other purposes.
11. No Warranties. The Food Truck provided to the Operator by Chick-fil-A pursuant to the sublease of the Food Truck Lease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement is furnished "AS IS" and "WHERE IS" and without any warranty of any kind by or from Chick-fil-A. Chick-fil-A expressly disclaims any representations or warranties, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, with respect to the Food Truck and this Agreement, including, without limitation, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.
12. Storage; Maintenance; Repair. The Operator, (a) may use the Food Truck only in compliance with the Food Truck Lease and only in connection with the Operator's operation of the Food Truck at the Sales Locations, (b) will store and maintain the Food Truck at the Operator's Business when not in use at a Sales Location (c) will service and repair the Food Truck in order to maintain its appearance and good working condition according to best industry practices, manufacturer's specifications, and using reputable and established service and repair vendors, and (d) will not make any changes, alterations or additions to the Food Truck without prior written consent of Chick-fil-A, and all in accordance with Chick-fil-A's then current Minimum Standards, Guidelines and other policies and procedures as may be amended by Chick-fil-A from time to time. In servicing and repairing the Food Truck and its equipment, furnishings and fixtures, the Operator will solely use suppliers and vendors that demonstrate the ability to meet Chick-fil-A's then Minimum Standards and Guidelines and that possess adequate quality controls, experience and capacity to service and repair the item and otherwise supply the Operator's needs promptly, accurately and reliably. Chick-fil-A will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Operator due to any inability to use or any interruption in the use of the Food Truck or any of its equipment, furnishings or fixtures. The Operator agrees to provide Chick-fil-A with monthly (or with such greater frequency that Chick-fil-A may from time-to-time require) reports detailing (i) the mileage of the Food Truck for such time period, (ii) any damage incurred with respect to the Food Truck, and (iii) any maintenance or repairs performed with respect to the Food Truck. The Operator's obligation to provide such reports does not satisfy the Operator's obligations under the Food Truck Lease, and it is the Operator's obligation to ensure that all required maintenance is performed on the Food Trucks per the terms of the Food Truck Lease and this Agreement, including the requirements that (x) all such maintenance and repairs must be performed by a factory authorized maintenance individual with the authority to sign the maintenance, service and/or repair log and (y) records of all work performed on the Food Truck must be dated and signed by the appropriate authority.

13. Indemnification; Damage to Property; Personal Injury.

- a. The Operator and the Operator-Owner will be solely and exclusively responsible for any damage to or loss caused by a breach of this Agreement or the Food Truck Lease, the negligent or intentional action or misfeasance of the Operator or the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers as if provided for and included under Section 5 DAMAGE TO SITE, EQUIPMENT OR LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS, PERSONAL INJURY of the Franchise Agreement, which will apply in full to this Agreement. Furthermore, the Operator and the Operator-Owner will be solely and exclusively responsible for any and all liability of the Operator and/or Chick-fil-A, for (i) personal injury, death or otherwise, and (ii) damage to personal property or real property caused by or resulting from the negligent or intentional action or misfeasance of the Operator, the Operator-Owner, the Operator's employees, agents, contractors, invitees or customers. In addition, the Operator and the Operator-Owner will be solely and exclusively responsible for any and all liability of BALC as provided in the Food Truck Lease.
- b. The Operator and the Operator-Owner do hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Chick-fil-A and any subsequent operator of the Food Truck or a like business at the Sales Location and/or BALC as provided in the Food Truck Lease, against all judgments, settlements, penalties, expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs and other costs of litigation or administrative proceedings incurred by or imposed on Chick-fil-A or any subsequent operator of the Food Truck or a like business at the Sales Location as if provided for and included under Section 27 INDEMNIFICATION of the Franchise Agreement, which will apply in full to this Agreement and the use and operation of the Food Truck, including without limitation in the event of any damage, loss or claim described in this Section 13.

The Operator's and the Operator-Owner's obligations under Subsections 13.a. and b. above (and Sections 5 and 27 of the Franchise Agreement) will apply with respect to, among other things, the Sales Location, the Food Truck and any personal property of any person or entity, any personal injury or death, any claim, demand or penalty, and any suit or other judicial or administrative proceeding arising out of or relating to or in connection with the Sales Locations, the Food Truck or this Agreement, as applicable, all of which will be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Operator and the Operator-Owner. This section is not intended to and does not convey any benefits to any third party and does not prevent the Operator or Chick-fil-A from seeking indemnification from another third party whose actions, or the actions of such third party's employee, were the source of any injury, damage or loss. This section is in addition to any obligations of the Operator and the Operator-Owner to BALC and others that may be named in the Food Truck Lease.

14. Default; Termination.

- a. The rights granted under this Agreement are contingent upon the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement, including the Food Truck Lease, being in full force and effect and the Operator otherwise being in good standing at the effective date of this Agreement and at all times during the term of this Agreement. If prior to the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement is terminated or expires with respect to the Business or the Food Truck Lease is terminated or expires, this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, will automatically terminate or expire at the same time. If the Franchise Agreement is in default at the effective date of this Agreement or at any time during the term of this Agreement (and has not been terminated), such default will also constitute a default by the Operator under this Agreement, and Chick-fil-A may terminate the Operator's rights under this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, or suspend such rights until the default is cured.
- b. This Agreement and the rights granted hereunder may be terminated for a default under this Agreement, including a default under the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement by reason of a default of the Food Truck Lease, without also terminating the Franchise Agreement, provided that Chick-fil-A, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive business judgment, shall have the right at its election to also terminate the Franchise Agreement as to the Business and one or more or all of any other of the Businesses operated under the Franchise Agreement by providing written notice to the Operator pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement. Subject to Section 15, this Agreement and the rights granted under this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement (but not the obligations the Operator has undertaken thereunder, which will survive until the Operator has fully performed the same), will expire automatically upon Chick-fil-A retaking possession of the Food Truck following the expiration or termination of this Agreement and the Operator's fulfillment of the Operator's obligations under this Agreement, including under the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Operator further acknowledges and agrees that Chick-fil-A has the right, in Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment, to terminate this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4, and/or the Food Truck Program at any time for any reason or for no reason.
- c. The Operator will bear any and all risk arising from or related to termination of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Operator will remain liable for the then current outstanding balance of the Food Truck Usage Fee, the Food Truck Insurance Fee and any other payments due Chick-fil-A or BALC as provided in the Food Truck Lease and/or in this Agreement. The Operator agrees that upon default BALC may demand, receive and collect any monies due or falling due after the default without in any manner affecting the status of the default or any notice of suit, action, order or judgment related to the default. Upon termination of the Food Truck Lease and/or this Agreement, any payment made by the Operator to Chick-fil-A or BALC or any court will not: (i) reinstate, continue or extend the term of this Agreement; (ii) affect any notice previously given to the Operator; or (iii) operate as a waiver of the right of Chick-fil-A to obtain possession of the Food Truck by proper suit, action, proceeding or remedy. All monies collected will be deemed to be payments made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or applied toward any outstanding balances owed by the Operator.

15. Survival. Upon the termination, expiration, or suspension of this Agreement as provided in Section 14, all obligations under this Agreement, including under the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement and also including without limitation the obligations under the Franchise Agreement which are incorporated by reference into this Agreement, that expressly or by their nature are intended to survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the Franchise

Agreement, including, but not limited to, limitations of liability, and the Operator's reporting, payment and indemnification obligations to Chick-fil-A and/or BALC, will survive the termination, expiration or suspension of this Agreement, including the sublease granted in Section 4 of this Agreement, the Food Truck Lease, and the termination of the Franchise Agreement, if applicable.

16. Communications; Notices; Designated Contact. All notices provided for in this Agreement will be deemed given on the day of hand-delivery or overnight delivery or three (3) days after being sent by registered or certified mail, if sent from the United States, or by the equivalent thereof if sent from other country or jurisdiction, return receipt requested, address to the party to be served at the following address:

If to Chick-fil-A:

Attn: Lynette E. Smith

If to the Operator and/or the Operator-Owner:
At the address set forth on the signature page of the Franchise Agreement

Or to such other address as may be designated by such party in a written notice to the other party.

17. Not Independent Franchise. The Operator and the Operator-Owner acknowledge and agree that the Operator's participation in the Food Truck Program and the grant of the License to use the Food Truck at the Sales Location pursuant to this Agreement is made upon the request of and as an accommodation to the Operator and the Operator-Owner in connection with the Franchise Agreement and the Business, and is entirely voluntary on the part of the Operator and the Operator-Owner and does not constitute an independent or separate franchise or franchise agreement.
18. Affirmation of Franchise Agreement and the Assignment. The Operator and the Operator-Owner acknowledge, affirm and agree to all of their respective covenants and obligations under the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment as if entered into, undertaken and otherwise made again this day (with this Agreement, including the Food Truck License Summary and the Food Truck Lease) and reaffirm the continuing existence and validity of the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment. The Operator and the Operator-Owner covenant that, subject to their terms and conditions as modified by this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment are in full force and effect as of the date of this Agreement, and will remain in full force and effect, subject to their terms.
19. Operator-Owner Guaranty. Pursuant to the Assignment and this Agreement, the Operator-Owner agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Franchise Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Agreement (including the Food Truck License Summary and the Food Truck Lease). Nothing contained in this Agreement will be deemed to relieve the Operator-Owner of any of the Operator-Owner's obligations contained in the Assignment or the Franchise Agreement. The Operator-Owner further agrees to, and by this instrument does hereby guarantee the performance by the Operator, in the same manner and with the same recourse against the Operator-Owner, as if the Operator-Owner were the Operator, of all of the Operator's obligations, commitments, duties and liabilities under the Franchise Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Agreement (including the Food Truck License Summary and the Food Truck Lease). Without limiting the above, the Operator-Owner irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to Chick-fil-A: (i) that the Operator will pay all amounts to be paid and otherwise comply with all provisions of the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement or any other agreements with Chick-fil-A or its affiliates concerning the operation of the Businesses, including the Food Truck; and (ii) that if the Operator defaults in making any of these payments or complying with any of these provisions, the Operator-Owner will pay immediately upon demand all amounts due and owing Chick-fil-A and all damages that may arise as a result of the Operator's non-compliance.

20. Cross-Default. Any violation or breach by the Operator-Owner of any term or condition of the Assignment or the Franchise Agreement, including without limitation the provisions contained in this Agreement (including the Food Truck License Summary and the Food Truck Lease), will also constitute a violation and breach of the same term or condition by the Operator, a default by the Operator under the Assignment and the Franchise Agreement and, under its terms, grounds for termination and/or non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement and the franchise granted under the Franchise Agreement.
21. Acceptance of Risk of Food Truck Program. The Operator and the Operator-Owner acknowledge and agree that Chick-fil-A is in the development stages of the Food Truck Program and that participation in the Food Truck Program under this Agreement involves substantial risks. The Operator and the Operator-Owner acknowledge and agree that the Operator and the Operator-Owner are aware of the risks and that the Operator and the Operator-Owner agree to bear the risk of the success or failure of the Food Truck Program and the Food Truck in reliance solely on the Operator and the Operator-Owner's own business judgment.
22. Execution; Counterparts. The parties acknowledge and agree that, (i) the Food Truck License Summary is complete and accurate and forms a part of this Agreement; and (ii) this Agreement, including the Food Truck License Summary and the Food Truck Lease, as well as the Franchise Agreement and the Assignment as referenced in this Agreement, contain the entire agreement between the parties as to the subject matter hereof and fully supersedes all prior understandings, written or oral, between the parties regarding such subject matter. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and at various times and at various places by the several parties to this Agreement, all of which counterparts taken together will be deemed as one original. Executed copies of this Agreement, whether delivered by electronic transmission or otherwise, will be deemed to be as effective as original signatures.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Chick-fil-A and Assignor are parties to a Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) dated _____, including any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) (collectively, the “Franchise”) with Chick-fil-A granting Assignor the right to operate, as the Operator, the Initial Business and the Additional Business(es), if any (individually and collectively referred to as the “Business”), at the Site(s), pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Franchise; and

WHEREAS, Assignor has formed and organized Assignee for the purpose of owning and operating the Business; and

WHEREAS, Assignor desires to transfer all of Assignor’s right, title and interest in the Franchise to Assignee; and

WHEREAS, all parties to the Assignment acknowledge that Chick-fil-A’s consent to any transfer is required under the Franchise, and is necessary to ensure Chick-fil-A’s right and ability to select and have only the most qualified, approved individuals personally operate the respective franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible in a manner consistent with Chick-fil-A’s Minimum Standards, Guidelines and image in the community in which such businesses are located and in the nation as a whole, and to diligently develop and personally promote the reputation and the goodwill of each of the businesses, the Marks, Chick-fil-A, and the System.

NOW, THEREFORE, FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION OF the promises, covenants, warranties and representations herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties to the Assignment, each intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

SECTION 1 – ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION

1.1 As of the Effective Date, Assignor, in consideration of $10.00 and other good and valuable consideration, hereby assigns, transfers and sets over to Assignee all the right, title and interest of Assignor in and to the Franchise, including the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) identified above, and any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), and the Business, including any and all rights and benefits awarded or earned resulting from and arising under Chick-fil-A’s

Symbol of Success, Champions Club, or other similar programs, subject to the terms and conditions therein.

1.2 Assignee hereby assumes all of Assignor’s duties, obligations, agreements, commitments and liabilities under the Franchise, including the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) identified above, and any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), and under or otherwise in connection with the Business, including under Chick-fil-A’s Symbol of Success, Champions Club, or other similar programs and any related Buy Back or other agreements,, and agrees to be bound by and observe and faithfully perform all of the obligations, agreements, commitments and duties of the Operator thereunder with the same force and effect as if the Franchise were originally written with Assignee as the Operator.

SECTION 2 – CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS AND GUARANTY OF ASSIGNOR

2.1 Assignor agrees to continue to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Franchise, and that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Assignor of any of its obligations contained in the Franchise. Assignor further agrees to, and by this instrument does hereby, guarantee the performance by Assignee of all of Assignee’s obligations, commitments, duties and liabilities under the Franchise, in the same manner, to the same degree and with the same recourse against Assignor as if Assignor were the Operator. Without limiting the foregoing, Assignor irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to Chick-fil-A: (i) that Assignee shall pay all amounts to be paid and otherwise comply with all provisions of the Franchise or any other agreements with Chick-fil-A or its affiliates concerning the operation of the Business; and (ii) that if Assignee defaults in making any such payments or complying with any such provisions, Assignor shall pay forthwith upon demand all amounts due and owing to Chick-fil-A under the Franchise and all damages that may arise as a result of any such non-compliance. Any violation or breach by Assignor of any term or condition of the Assignment or the Franchise shall also constitute a violation and breach of the same term or condition by Assignee, a default by Assignee under said Assignment or Franchise and, pursuant to its terms, grounds for termination and/or non-renewal of the Franchise.

2.2 After the Effective Date, Assignor shall continue to devote his or her full time and personal best efforts to operating the Business to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible in a manner consistent with Chick-fil-A’s Minimum Standards, Guidelines and image in the community in which the Business is located and in the nation as a whole, and to diligently developing and personally promoting the reputation and the goodwill of the Business, the Marks, Chick-fil-A, and the System. Assignee and Assignor shall engage only in the operation of the Business, and no other business.

SECTION 3 – ENTITY NAME

Assignor and Assignee acknowledge and agree that they shall not use Chick-fil-A's Marks (including, without limitation, the term "Chick-fil-A" or "CFA"), or any other component(s) or derivative(s) of Chick-fil-A's Marks (including, without limitation, the term "Chick" or "fil"), as part of any corporate name or other legal name of Assignee or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols. The name of Assignee must not contain any derogatory or non-professional terms.

SECTION 4 – LIMITATIONS ON TRANSFER

4.1. Assignor and Assignee, jointly and severally, agree, represent and warrant that they shall not make nor permit any subsequent assignment, pledge, sale, assignment, encumbrance, gift, transfer or hypothecation of the Franchise, the Business or any rights or obligations under the Franchise, whether directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law.

4.2. Assignor and Assignee, jointly and severally, acknowledge and agree that the transfer of an interest in Assignee will in substance constitute an assignment of Assignee's interest in the Business, including the Franchise, which Assignor and Assignee have agreed not to transfer. Assignor and Assignee, jointly and severally, further agree, represent and warrant that (i) Assignor is the only person with a legal, beneficial or equity interest in Assignee; (ii) the extent of such legal, beneficial or equity interest is one hundred percent (100%); and (iii) there are no obligations or intentions to issue additional legal, beneficial or equity interests in Assignee. Assignee and Assignor, jointly and severally, agree, represent and warrant that they shall not make nor permit, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law, the issuance, pledge or sale of stock in Assignee or any other legal, beneficial or equity interests in Assignee to be issued, pledged or sold to a person or entity other than Assignor nor make nor permit any stock in Assignee or any other legal, beneficial or equity interest in Assignee, in whole or in part, subsequently to be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or otherwise hypothecated, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. As used in this Agreement, the term "equity interest(s)" shall include direct or indirect interest in the equity of Assignee or the business risk of the Business including, but not limited to, interests allegedly denominated as debt but which in substance encompass the type of risk-taking interest described herein.

SECTION 5 – INDUCEMENTS AND CONDITIONS TO CONSENT

(a) Chick-fil-A has relied upon, and agreed to execute the Assignment based upon, the agreements, representations, warranties and guaranty executed and undertaken by Assignor and Assignee.

(b) The granting of this consent is in no way an approval by Chick-fil-A of the legal sufficiency of the formation and organizational documents or any other documents pertaining to Assignee, and insofar as the terms of same may conflict with or contradict the terms of the Assignment, said terms are expressly disclaimed.

(c) Assignor shall maintain stop-transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any equity securities; Assignor shall include the following provision in the by-laws pertaining to Assignee:

(1) Neither the stock in the Corporation nor any other legal, beneficial or equity interest in the Corporation shall be issued, pledged or sold to a person or entity other than the initial sole stockholder, nor shall any stock in the Corporation nor any other legal, beneficial or equity interest in the Corporation, in whole or in part, be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or otherwise hypothecated, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. Any and all stock issuances and transfers are also subject to the terms of the Franchise and any attached Lease(s), any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement relating to the Franchise Agreement and other applicable agreements, for each franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business operated by the Corporation. As used herein, the term "legal, beneficial or equity interest(s)" shall include direct or indirect interest(s) in the equity of the Corporation or the business risk of the franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business(es) operated by the Corporation, including, but not limited to, interests allegedly denominated as debt, but which in substance encompass the type of risk-taking interest described herein.

(2) All certificates representing stock in the Corporation during the term of the Franchise shall have affixed to them a legend substantially in the following form:

“Neither this stock nor any legal or beneficial interest thereof shall be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or hypothecated, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. Any and all stock issuances and transfers are subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement and any attached Lease(s), any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), any Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement relating to the Franchise Agreement and other applicable agreements, for each franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business operated by the Corporation.”

(3) In addition, each stock certificate of Assignee shall contain and conspicuously display the following statement:

Neither this stock nor any legal or beneficial interest thereof shall be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or hypothecated, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. Any and all stock issuances and transfers are subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement and any attached Lease(s), any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement relating to the Franchise Agreement and other applicable agreements, for each franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business operated by the Corporation.

(d) The granting of the Assignment to Assignee is not a consent to any proposed future transfer of any interest in Assignee to beneficiaries upon the attainment of a certain age or other condition.

5.2 Granting consent to the Assignment does not constitute approval of any stockholder or officer of Assignee as an approved Operator or the Operator under the Franchise except as to the particular stockholder that is a previous signatory to the Franchise in his or her individual capacity as the approved Operator thereunder and who is listed on Exhibit A attached to the Assignment and made a part of the Assignment. Assignor and Assignee agree that a breach of the Assignment shall constitute a breach of the Franchise and shall entitle Chick-fil-A to enforce all rights and remedies available to it including termination of the Franchise and the Assignment.

5.3 Pursuant to Section 2.5(b) of the Franchise Agreement and Section 2.3 of each attached Lease to the Franchise Agreement and Section 4(c) of any Concession Sublicense Agreement for a Satellite Unit attached to any Additional Business Amendment for a Satellite, if and when Assignor dies or becomes disabled to the extent that Assignor is unable to perform his or her obligations under the Franchise or the Assignment, then the Franchise and the Assignment shall automatically terminate without any notice to Assignor or Assignee and the Assignment shall automatically be deemed null and void.

5.4 Assignor and Assignee hereby agree to promptly provide Chick-fil-A copies of the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, stock certificates or other agreements pertaining to Assignee and the holder(s) of all legal and beneficial interest in Assignee upon the written request of Chick-fil-A.

5.5 Assignor and Assignee agree that Chick-fil-A at any time during normal business hours may examine, review and copy any and all of each of their individual or corporate records, books, financial records, tax returns or other documents relating to Assignee for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Franchise and the Assignment.

5.6 Assignor and Assignee agree that upon breach of any of the conditions, representations, agreements or warranties contained herein, they and each of them shall be subject, among all other remedies available by law or hereunder, to all relief and remedies granted to Chick-fil-A by the Franchise and the Assignment.

5.7 Chick-fil-A may review any of Assignee's organizational documents for purposes of determining whether they meet Chick-fil-A's then current requirements only. Therefore, the Assignment does not constitute an approval by Chick-fil-A for any other purpose or from any other perspective of any documents relating to Assignee. If any of those documents conflict with or contradict the provisions of the Assignment or Chick-fil-A's Operator selection or ownership criteria, requirements or policies, Chick-fil-A will not be bound by those documents and the provisions of the Assignment and Franchise shall control.

5.8 Assignor and Assignee acknowledge and agree that: (i) Chick-fil-A has not provided any legal, tax or other advice in connection with the Assignment; (ii) Chick-fil-A's approval of the Assignment does not constitute legal or tax advice; and (iii) Chick-fil-A has not reviewed or evaluated the validity of Assignee.

SECTION 6 – MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 The parties' respective successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives shall be bound by the terms and conditions of the Assignment. All obligations, agreements, representations and warranties made by more than one party herein shall be joint and several whether or not stipulated in the relevant paragraph herein.

6.2 All terms and conditions of the Franchise remain in full force and effect, except as modified by the Assignment. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in the Assignment shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Franchise.

6.3 Assignor and Assignee agree that all notices to Assignee shall be made pursuant to Section 28.1 of the Franchise Agreement and, as applicable, Section 14.1 of each attached Lease to the Franchise Agreement and shall be delivered to Assignee, at Assignor's address, listed on the cover page of the Assignment as provided for under the Franchise Agreement and, as applicable, the attached Lease(s) to the Franchise Agreement and any Concession Sublicense Agreement for a Satellite Unit attached to any Additional Business Amendment for a Satellite.

6.4 The Assignment, together with the Franchise, including the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) and any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), including any Additional Business Amendment for a Satellite and its attached Concession Sublicense Agreement, shall constitute the entire integrated agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein and may be changed, modified or amended only by a written instrument executed by all parties to the Assignment.

6.5 In the enforcement of any of its rights against Assignor, Chick-fil-A may proceed as if Assignor were the primary obligor under the Franchise. Assignor waives any right to require Chick-fil-A to first proceed against Assignee or to proceed against or exhaust any rights or security (if any) held by Chick-fil-A or to pursue any other remedy available to it before proceeding against Assignor. No dealings between Chick-fil-A and Assignee shall exonerate, release, discharge or in any way reduce the obligations of Assignor hereunder, in whole or in part and in particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Chick-fil-A may modify or amend the Franchise, grant any indulgence, release, postponement or extension of time, waive any term or condition of the Franchise, or any obligation of Assignee, take or release any securities or other guarantees for the performance by Assignee of any of its obligations, and otherwise transact with and/or pursue its remedies against Assignee as Chick-fil-A may elect without affecting, lessening or limiting in any way the liability of Assignor. Notwithstanding any assignment for the general benefit of creditors or any bankruptcy or other act of insolvency by Assignee and notwithstanding any rejection, disaffirmance or disclaimer of the Assignment or the Franchise, Assignor shall continue to be fully liable under the Franchise and the Assignment.

6.6 If Chick-fil-A institutes any action at law or in equity against the Operator or retains the services of legal counsel to secure, defend or protect its rights under or to enforce the terms of the Assignment, Chick-fil-A shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys', expert and investigative fees, incurred in securing, defending and protecting its rights and enforcing the terms of the Assignment.

6.7 Each and every provision of the Assignment is severable, and invalidity of one or more provisions shall not, in any way, affect the validity of the Franchise, or the Assignment or any other provision hereof.

6.8 The Assignment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

6.9 The Assignment shall not become valid, binding or effective upon any party to the Assignment unless and until it is accepted, made and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. All rights, duties and obligations of the parties to the Assignment arising out of or relating to the subject matter of the Assignment shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced solely under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they exist as of the Effective Date and thereafter may be amended or changed from time to time (except and without reference to any conflict of law principles, rules and decisions), including without limitation all controversies, disputes and claims of any nature between the parties arising out of or relating to the validity, performance, interpretation, enforcement, termination or expiration of the Assignment or the Franchise, and any other aspect of the parties' agreement or relationship. The laws of the State of Georgia shall prevail and otherwise be applied to all such disputes in the event of any conflict of laws.

6.10 Assignor and Assignee acknowledge and agree that they each have and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with Chick-fil-A at its offices in the State of Georgia, where

Chick-fil-A's decision-making authority is vested and where its franchise System operations are conducted and supervised. The parties to the Assignment agree that if any controversy or claim between them arises out of or relates to the Assignment, the Franchise or the relationship between or among Assignor, Assignee and Chick-fil-A and results in threatened or pending litigation, then the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division or, in the event there is no such jurisdiction or the case cannot otherwise be removed or heard in such court, the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such matters, each party hereby submits and consents to the jurisdiction of such courts, and each party hereby agrees to commence, conduct and conclude such matters only in such courts. The parties further acknowledge and agree that the courts identified above are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relate to the Assignment, the Franchise or the relationship between or among Assignor, Assignee and Chick-fil-A, and agree not to claim, assert or argue that such courts do not have jurisdiction or are inconvenient forums. Assignor and Assignee hereby waive any and all objections to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of the Fulton County, Georgia Superior Court and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, and further waive any and all objections to the jurisdiction of and venue in such courts, in and for all cases and controversies relating to or arising out of the Assignment, the Franchise and/or the relationship between or among Assignor, Assignee and Chick-fil-A. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision governs except that claims for injunctive relief may be brought by Chick-fil-A in any appropriate jurisdiction where Assignor and/or Assignee are located. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision also shall not restrict the ability of any party to enforce any judgment, award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction or to obtain the full faith and credit of any judgment, award or order obtained.

6.11. The obligations of Assignor and Assignee, as well as the rights of Chick-fil-A, under the Assignment shall survive any expiration, termination or other cancellation of the Franchise or the Assignment.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Chick-fil-A and Assignor are parties to a Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) dated _____, including any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) (collectively, the “Franchise”) with Chick-fil-A granting Assignor the right to operate, as the Operator, the Initial Business and the Additional Business(es), if any (individually and collectively referred to as the “Business”), at the Site(s), pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Franchise; and

WHEREAS, Assignor has formed and organized Assignee for the purpose of owning and operating the Business; and

WHEREAS, Assignor desires to transfer all of Assignor’s right, title and interest in the Franchise to Assignee; and

WHEREAS, all parties to the Assignment acknowledge that Chick-fil-A’s consent to any transfer is required under the Franchise, and is necessary to ensure Chick-fil-A’s right and ability to select and have only the most qualified, approved individuals personally operate the respective franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant businesses to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible in a manner consistent with Chick-fil-A’s Minimum Standards, Guidelines and image in the community in which such businesses are located and in the nation as a whole, and to diligently develop and personally promote the reputation and the goodwill of each of the businesses, the Marks, Chick-fil-A, and the System.

NOW, THEREFORE, FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION OF the promises, covenants, warranties and representations herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties to the Assignment, each intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

SECTION 1 – ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION

1.1 As of the Effective Date, Assignor, in consideration of $10.00 and other good and valuable consideration, hereby assigns, transfers and sets over to Assignee all the right, title and interest of Assignor in and to the Franchise, including the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) identified above, and any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), and the Business, including any and all rights and benefits awarded or earned resulting from and arising under Chick-fil-A’s

Symbol of Success, Champions Club, or other similar programs, subject to the terms and conditions therein.

1.2 Assignee hereby assumes all of Assignor’s duties, obligations, agreements, commitments and liabilities under the Franchise, including the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) identified above, and any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), and under or otherwise in connection with the Business, including under Chick-fil-A’s Symbol of Success, Champions Club, or other similar programs and any related Buy Back or other agreements,, and agrees to be bound by and observe and faithfully perform all of the obligations, agreements, commitments and duties of the Operator thereunder with the same force and effect as if the Franchise were originally written with Assignee as the Operator.

SECTION 2 – CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS AND GUARANTY OF ASSIGNOR

2.1 Assignor agrees to continue to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every term and condition of the Franchise, and that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Assignor of any of its obligations contained in the Franchise. Assignor further agrees to, and by this instrument does hereby, guarantee the performance by Assignee of all of Assignee’s obligations, commitments, duties and liabilities under the Franchise, in the same manner, to the same degree and with the same recourse against Assignor as if Assignor were the Operator. Without limiting the foregoing, Assignor irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to Chick-fil-A: (i) that Assignee shall pay all amounts to be paid and otherwise comply with all provisions of the Franchise or any other agreements with Chick-fil-A or its affiliates concerning the operation of the Business; and (ii) that if Assignee defaults in making any such payments or complying with any such provisions, Assignor shall pay forthwith upon demand all amounts due and owing to Chick-fil-A under the Franchise and all damages that may arise as a result of any such non-compliance. Any violation or breach by Assignor of any term or condition of the Assignment or the Franchise shall also constitute a violation and breach of the same term or condition by Assignee, a default by Assignee under said Assignment or Franchise and, pursuant to its terms, grounds for termination and/or non-renewal of the Franchise.

2.2 After the Effective Date, Assignor shall continue to devote his or her full time and personal best efforts to operating the Business to attempt to achieve the highest sales and profits possible in a manner consistent with Chick-fil-A’s Minimum Standards, Guidelines and image in the community in which the Business is located and in the nation as a whole, and to diligently developing and personally promoting the reputation and the goodwill of the Business, the Marks, Chick-fil-A, and the System. Assignee and Assignor shall engage only in the operation of the Business, and no other business.

SECTION 3 – ENTITY NAME

Assignor and Assignee acknowledge and agree that they shall not use Chick-fil-A's Marks (including, without limitation, the term "Chick-fil-A" or "CFA"), or any other component(s) or derivative(s) of Chick-fil-A's Marks (including, without limitation, the term "Chick" or "fil"), as part of any corporate name or other legal name of Assignee or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols. The name of Assignee must not contain any derogatory or non-professional terms.

SECTION 4 – LIMITATIONS ON TRANSFER

4.1 Assignor and Assignee, jointly and severally, agree, represent and warrant that they shall not make nor permit any subsequent assignment, pledge, sale, assignment, encumbrance, gift, transfer or hypothecation of the Franchise, the Business or any rights or obligations under the Franchise, whether directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law.

4.2 Assignor and Assignee, jointly and severally, acknowledge and agree that the transfer of an interest in Assignee will in substance constitute an assignment of Assignee's interest in the Business, including the Franchise, which Assignor and Assignee have agreed not to transfer. Assignor, Assignee and the Member(s), jointly and severally, further agree, represent and warrant that: (i) Assignor is the only person with a legal, beneficial or equity interest in Assignee; (ii) the extent of such legal, beneficial or equity interest is one hundred percent (100%); and (iii) there are no obligations or intentions to issue additional legal, beneficial or equity interests in Assignee. Assignee and Assignor, jointly and severally, agree, represent and warrant that they shall not make nor permit, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law, the issuance, pledge or sale of new membership units in Assignee or any other legal, beneficial or equity interests in Assignee to be issued, pledged or sold to a person or entity other than Assignor nor make nor permit any membership interest in Assignee or any other legal, beneficial or equity interest in Assignee, in whole or in part, subsequently to be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or otherwise hypothecated, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. As used in this Agreement, the term "equity interest(s)" shall include direct or indirect interest in the equity of Assignee or the business risk of the Business including, but not limited to, interests allegedly denominated as debt but which in substance encompass the type of risk-taking interest described herein.

SECTION 5 – INDUCEMENTS AND CONDITIONS TO CONSENT

5.1 Chick-fil-A hereby consents to the assignment of the Franchise upon the following conditions only:

(a) Chick-fil-A has relied upon, and agreed to execute the Assignment based upon, the agreements, representations, warranties and guaranty executed and undertaken by Assignor and Assignee.

(b) The granting of this consent is in no way an approval by Chick-fil-A of the legal sufficiency of the formation and organizational documents or any other documents pertaining to Assignee and insofar as the terms of same may conflict with or contradict the terms of the Assignment said terms are expressly disclaimed.

(c) Assignor shall maintain stop-transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any equity securities; Assignor shall include the following provision in the limited liability company operating agreement pertaining to Assignee:

(1) Neither the membership interests in the Company nor any other legal, beneficial or equity interest in the Company shall be issued, pledged or sold to a person or entity other than the initial sole member, nor shall any membership interests in the Company nor any other legal, beneficial or equity interest in the Company, in whole or in part, be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or otherwise hypothecated, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. Any and all issuances of membership interests and transfers are also subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement and any attached Leases, any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement relating to the Franchise Agreement and other applicable agreements, for each franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business operated by the Company. As used herein, the term "legal, beneficial or equity interest(s)" shall include direct or indirect interest(s) in the equity of the Company or the business risk of the franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business(es) operated by the Company, including, but not limited to, interests allegedly denominated as debt, but which in substance encompass the type of risk-taking interest described herein.

(2) All certificates representing membership interests in the Company during the term of the Franchise shall have affixed to them a legend substantially in the following form:

“Neither this membership interest nor any legal or beneficial interest thereof shall be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or hypothecated, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. Any and all issuances of membership interests and transfers are subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement and any attached Lease(s), any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), any Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement relating to the Franchise Agreement and other applicable agreements, for each franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business operated by the Company.”

(3) In addition, each membership certificate of Assignee shall contain and conspicuously display the following statement:

Neither this membership interest nor any legal or beneficial interest thereof shall be pledged, sold, assigned, encumbered, given, transferred or hypothecated, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, voluntarily or involuntarily, including by will, trust or other instrument, or by operation of law. Any and all issuances of membership interests and transfers are subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement and any attached Lease(s), any attached Concession Sublicense Agreement(s) for any Satellite Unit(s), any Assignment and Consent to Assignment Agreement relating to the Franchise Agreement and other applicable agreements, for each franchised Chick-fil-A restaurant business operated by the Company.

(d) The granting of the Assignment to Assignee is not a consent to any proposed future transfer of any interest in Assignee to beneficiaries upon the attainment of a certain age or other condition.

5.2 Granting consent to the Assignment does not constitute approval of any member or officer of Assignee as an approved Operator or the Operator under the Franchise except as to the particular member that is a previous signatory to the Franchise in his or her individual capacity as the approved Operator thereunder and who is listed on Exhibit A attached to the Assignment and made a part of the Assignment. Assignor and Assignee agree that a breach of the Assignment shall constitute a breach of the Franchise and shall entitle Chick-fil-A to enforce all rights and remedies available to it including termination of the Franchise and the Assignment.

5.3 Pursuant to Section 2.5(b) of the Franchise Agreement and Section 2.3 of each attached Lease to the Franchise Agreement and Section 4(c) of any Concession Sublicense Agreement for a Satellite Unit attached to any Additional Business Amendment for a Satellite, if and when Assignor dies or becomes disabled to the extent that Assignor is unable to perform his or her obligations under the Franchise or the Assignment, then the Franchise and the Assignment shall automatically terminate without any notice to Assignor or Assignee and the Assignment shall automatically be deemed null and void.

5.4 Assignor and Assignee hereby agree to promptly provide Chick-fil-A copies of the articles of organization and the limited liability company operating agreement of Assignee and all the holders of all legal and beneficial interest in Assignee upon the written request of Chick-fil-A.

5.5 Assignor and Assignee agree that Chick-fil-A at any time during normal business hours may examine, review and copy any and all of each of their individual or entity records, books, financial records, tax returns or other documents relating to Assignee for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Franchise and the Assignment.

5.6 Assignor and Assignee agree that upon breach of any of the conditions, representations, agreements or warranties contained herein, they and each of them shall be subject, among all other remedies available by law or hereunder, to all relief and remedies granted to Chick-fil-A by the Franchise and the Assignment.

5.7 Chick-fil-A may review any of Assignee's organizational documents for purposes of determining whether they meet Chick-fil-A's then current requirements only. Therefore, the Assignment does not constitute an approval by Chick-fil-A for any other purpose or from any other perspective of any documents relating to Assignee. If any of those documents conflict with or contradict the provisions of the Assignment or Chick-fil-A's Operator selection or ownership criteria, requirements or policies, Chick-fil-A will not be bound by those documents and the provisions of the Assignment and Franchise shall control.

5.8 Assignor and Assignee acknowledge and agree that: (i) Chick-fil-A has not provided any legal, tax or other advice in connection with the Assignment; (ii) Chick-fil-A's approval of the Assignment does not constitute legal or tax advice; and (iii) Chick-fil-A has not reviewed or evaluated the validity of Assignee.

SECTION 6 – MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 The parties' respective successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives shall be bound by the terms and conditions of the Assignment. All obligations, agreements, representations and warranties made by more than one party herein shall be joint and several whether or not stipulated in the relevant paragraph herein.

6.2 All terms and conditions of the Franchise remain in full force and effect, except as modified by the Assignment. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in the Assignment shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Franchise.

6.3 Assignor and Assignee agree that all notices to Assignee shall be made pursuant to Section 28.1 of the Franchise Agreement and, as applicable, Section 14.1 of each attached Lease to the Franchise Agreement and shall be delivered to Assignee, at Assignor's address, listed on the cover page of the Assignment as provided for under the Franchise Agreement and, as applicable, the attached Lease(s) to the Franchise Agreement and any Concession Sublicense Agreement for a Satellite Unit attached to any Additional Business Amendment for a Satellite.

6.4 The Assignment, together with the Franchise, including the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s) and any amendments and exhibits to the Franchise Agreement and its attached Lease(s), including any Additional Business Amendment for a Satellite and its attached Concession Sublicense Agreement, shall constitute the entire integrated agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein and may be changed, modified or amended only by a written instrument executed by all parties to the Assignment.

6.5 In the enforcement of any of its rights against Assignor, Chick-fil-A may proceed as if Assignor were the primary obligor under the Franchise. Assignor waives any right to require Chick-fil-A to first proceed against Assignee or to proceed against or exhaust any rights or security (if any) held by Chick-fil-A or to pursue any other remedy available to it before proceeding against Assignor. No dealings between Chick-fil-A and Assignee shall exonerate, release, discharge or in any way reduce the obligations of Assignor hereunder, in whole or in part and in particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Chick-fil-A may modify or amend the Franchise, grant any indulgence, release, postponement or extension of time, waive any term or condition of the Franchise, or any obligation of Assignee, take or release any securities or other guarantees for the performance by Assignee of any of its obligations, and otherwise transact with and/or pursue its remedies against Assignee as Chick-fil-A may elect without affecting, lessening or limiting in any way the liability of Assignor. Notwithstanding any assignment for the general benefit of creditors or any bankruptcy or other act of insolvency by Assignee and notwithstanding any rejection, disaffirmance or disclaimer of the Assignment or the Franchise, Assignor shall continue to be fully liable under the Franchise and the Assignment.

6.6 If Chick-fil-A institutes any action at law or in equity against the Operator or retains the services of legal counsel to secure, defend or protect its rights under or to enforce the terms of the Assignment, Chick-fil-A shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys', expert and investigative fees, incurred in securing, defending and protecting its rights and enforcing the terms of the Assignment.

6.7 Each and every provision of the Assignment is severable, and invalidity of one or more provisions shall not, in any way, affect the validity of the Franchise, or the Assignment or any other provision hereof.

6.8 The Assignment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

6.9 The Assignment shall not become valid, binding or effective upon any party to the Assignment unless and until it is accepted, made and executed by Chick-fil-A in the State of Georgia. All rights, duties and obligations of the parties to the Assignment arising out of or relating to the subject matter of the Assignment shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced solely under the laws and decisions of the State of Georgia as they exist as of the Effective Date and thereafter may be amended or changed from time to time (except and without reference to any conflict of law principles, rules and decisions), including without limitation all controversies, disputes and claims of any nature between the parties arising out of or relating to the validity, performance, interpretation, enforcement, termination or expiration of the Assignment or the Franchise, and any other aspect of the parties' agreement or relationship. The laws of the State of Georgia shall prevail and otherwise be applied to all such disputes in the event of any conflict of laws.

6.10 Assignor and Assignee acknowledge and agree that they each have and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with Chick-fil-A at its offices in the State of Georgia, where Chick-fil-A's decision-making authority is vested and where its franchise System operations are conducted and supervised. The parties to the Assignment agree that if any controversy or claim between them arises out of or relates to the Assignment, the Franchise or the relationship between or among Assignor, Assignee and Chick-fil-A and results in threatened or pending litigation, then the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division or, in the event there is no such jurisdiction or the case cannot otherwise be removed or heard in such court, the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such matters, each party hereby submits and consents to the jurisdiction of such courts, and each party hereby agrees to commence, conduct and conclude such matters only in such courts. The parties further acknowledge and agree that the courts identified above are convenient forums for the litigation of any controversy or claim which may arise out of or relate to the Assignment, the Franchise or the relationship between or among Assignor, Assignee and Chick-fil-A, and agree not to claim, assert or argue that such courts do not have jurisdiction or are inconvenient forums. Assignor and Assignee hereby waive any and all objections to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of the Fulton County, Georgia Superior Court and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, and further waive any and all objections to the jurisdiction of and venue in such courts, in and for all cases and controversies relating to or arising out of the Assignment, the Franchise and/or the relationship between or among Assignor, Assignee and Chick-fil-A. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision governs except that claims for injunctive relief may be brought by Chick-fil-A in any appropriate jurisdiction where Assignor and/or Assignee are located. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision also shall not restrict the ability of any party to enforce any judgment, award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction or to obtain the full faith and credit of any judgment, award or order obtained.

6.11 The obligations of Assignor and Assignee, as well as the rights of Chick-fil-A, under the Assignment shall survive any expiration, termination or other cancellation of the Franchise or the Assignment.

Report of Independent Auditors

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Chick-fil-A, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings, stockholders’ equity and cash flows for each of the three years then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Chick-fil-A, Inc. and subsidiaries (collectively referred to as “the Company”, “we”, and “our”) provides consulting services and leases property, equipment, and leasehold improvements to franchisees of Chick-fil-A restaurants. The Company is primarily a franchisor, however during periods where a restaurant is without a franchisee, the Company operates the restaurant on a temporary basis as a company-operated location. Our franchised and company-operated restaurants are located in 48 states throughout the United States and District of Columbia.

As of December 31, 2022, the Company operates ten franchised locations outside of the United States, seven of which are in Canada and three in Puerto Rico. The Company is actively exploring opportunities to continue franchised restaurant growth in Canada and Puerto Rico as well as opportunities to continue expansion into other international locations in the future.

At December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, there were 2,429, 2,325, and 2,219 franchised and company-operated Chick-fil-A restaurants, respectively. Total system-wide sales generated from these restaurants during the years ended 2022, 2021, and 2020 approximated $18,814,024,000, $16,673,679,000, and $13,703,568,000, respectively.

The Company also licenses our brand through strategic partnerships with contract food service management companies. There were 395, 392, and 389 outlets operating as of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, respectively, the majority of which are located in airports and on college campuses. The Company’s licensed operating outlets are located throughout the United States and District of Columbia.

Additionally, the Company has developed our own distribution capabilities to provide restaurants with ingredients, packaging, and other supplies. The Company currently operates two full-scale distribution facilities (“regional distribution centers”) and one smaller-scale distribution facility (“market distribution center”). The Company plans to continue expanding our distribution capabilities by opening additional distribution centers. The Company plans to open one additional market distribution center in 2023 and two additional regional distribution centers in 2024.

The Company operates a production facility in Valencia, California to produce freshly squeezed and pasteurized lemon juice for sale and distribution to our restaurants. The production facility opened in September 2020 and currently supplies lemon juice for Chick-fil-A restaurants chainwide.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. (“U.S. GAAP”). The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Chick-fil-A, Inc. and our wholly owned subsidiaries, and those subsidiaries in which we have a controlling financial interest. Investments in other entities where we do not have a controlling financial interest, but where we exert significant influence are accounted for in our consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. See Note 11 for additional information regarding the Company’s equity method investments. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Basis of Presentation

The Company has adopted the practice of presenting an unclassified balance sheet which, in the opinion of management, more appropriately reflects the nature of the Company’s operations.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

Effective in 2022, the Company changed the presentation of several items on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings to better align with the operations of the business. Revenue and income from restaurants now include sales from company operated restaurants and fees earned from our contract food service licensee partners which had been included within Other sales, including company-operated restaurant sales and Other income in previous reporting periods, respectively. Additionally, Selling, general, and administrative expenses now include charitable giving and scholarships, which had been disclosed in a separate line item in previous years. The Company reclassified prior period results to conform with the current period presentation. These reclassifications only impacted presentation on the accompanying statements of comprehensive earnings and did not have any impact on the consolidated financial results for any period presented.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management of the Company to make a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and income and expenses and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's results of operations are impacted by certain risks and uncertainties, including general economic conditions which may either positively or negatively impact sales at our franchised and company-operated restaurant locations.

Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

Lease Accounting

The Company adopted ASU 2016-02, Leases on January 1, 2021. ASU 2016-02, along with subsequent clarifications and improvements (collectively, ASC 842), supersedes all existing guidance on leases. ASC 842 requires lessees to recognize a liability for lease obligations, which represents the discounted obligation to make future lease payments, and a corresponding right-of-use asset on the consolidated balance sheets. The guidance requires disclosure of key information about leasing arrangements that is intended to give financial statement users the ability to assess the amount, timing, and potential uncertainty of cash flows related to leases.

The Company elected the optional transition method to apply the standard as of the effective date and therefore, we have not applied the standard to the comparative periods presented on our consolidated financial statements. The Company also elected the package of transition expedients available for expired or existing contracts, which allows the carry-forward of historical assessments of (1) whether contracts are or contain leases, (2) lease classification, and (3) initial direct costs. We have elected to not apply the hindsight expedient when adopting ASC 842.

Reference Rate Reform

In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU No. 2020-04, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848): Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting. ASU 2020-04 provides optional expedients and exceptions to simplify the accounting for contracts, hedging relationships, and other transactions affected by reference rate reform that meet certain criteria. In December 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-06, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848) Deferral of Sunset Date of Topic 848, which extends the applicability of ASC 848 to contracts entered into prior to or existing on December 31, 2024 and allows for elections to be made at different points in time. The Company elected to adopt certain expedients made available by this ASU as of the effective date for both our amended Credit Facilities as well as our interest rate swap arrangements. Refer to Note 5 for additional details.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

Pension Benefit Arrangements

The Company adopted ASU 2018-14, Compensation-Retirement Benefits-Defined Benefit Plans-General (Subtopic 715-20): Disclosure Framework-Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Defined Benefit Plans on January 1, 2022. ASU 2018-14 adds, removes and clarifies the disclosure requirements for employers that sponsor defined benefit pension or other postretirement plans. Adoption of this ASU did not have a significant impact on the Company's disclosures.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

Current Expected Credit Loss

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurements of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. ASU 2016-13, along with subsequent clarifications and improvements (collectively, ASC 326), replaces the incurred loss impairment methodology in prior U.S. GAAP with a methodology that instead reflects a current estimate of all expected credit losses on financial assets, including receivables. ASC 326 requires that the Company measure and recognize expected credit losses at the time the asset is recorded, while considering a broader range of information to estimate credit losses including country specific macroeconomic conditions that correlate with historical loss experience, delinquency trends and aging behavior of receivables, among others. ASC 326 is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2023. We are currently evaluating the impact of this standard on our consolidated financial statements.

Recognition of Revenue and Income

Revenue and income are presented in the following categories: (1) Revenue and income from restaurants, (2) Product sales, and (3) Other income.

Recognition of Revenue and Income from Restaurants

Revenue and income from restaurants on the accompanying statements of comprehensive earnings consist of (1) fees earned from restaurant franchisees, less franchisee incentives and reimbursements, (2) rental income earned from leases of real estate and equipment to franchisees, (3) sales from company-operated restaurants and (4) fees earned from our licensee partner arrangements.

The Company's franchise agreement requires franchisees to pay an initial upfront fee as well as continuing rent and royalty payments. The Company's continuing royalties from domestic franchisees are comprised of a base operating service fee and an additional operating service fee, collectively referred to as the "franchise fees". The base operating service fee is calculated as 15% of franchised restaurant sales, less amounts charged to franchisees for equipment rentals and business services fees. For the years ending December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company recorded total base operating service fees of approximately $2,636,463,000, $2,342,515,000, and $1,916,656,000, respectively. The additional operating service fee is calculated as 50% of the net profit of franchised restaurants, as defined by the franchise agreement. For domestic restaurants with net losses (after deduction of the base operating service fee and a base profit to be retained by the franchisee), it has been the Company's practice to reduce the base operating service fee to the extent necessary to reduce the net operating loss of the restaurant to zero at the end of the calendar year. For the years ending December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company recorded total additional operating service fees of approximately $935,145,000, $1,173,441,000, and $867,326,000, respectively. The franchise fees are charged to franchisees monthly and the Company recognizes revenue over time as underlying restaurant sales occur.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company offers various incentive programs to franchisees. The Company records the costs of certain franchisee incentives as reductions of franchise fee revenue in the period the incentives are earned. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company recorded total franchisee incentives of $35,968,000, $94,377,000, and $162,151,000, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, franchisee incentives included amounts awarded to certain qualifying franchisees through varying relief programs established in response to the negative impacts of COVID-19 on restaurant operations.

The Company either purchases and develops our free-standing restaurants or leases the land and retail space from third-party developers under long-term lease agreements. Domestically, the Company leases or subleases these properties to franchisees under month-to-month lease arrangements and payments due from franchisees are subject to a cap equal to 6% of restaurant sales. The Company additionally purchases or leases equipment and leases or subleases to franchisees on a month-to-month basis. Both real estate and equipment rental payments are charged to franchisees monthly. Income generated from the Company's franchisee lease arrangements is recorded within Rental income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings and is recognized in accordance with ASC 842, Leases. See Note 10 for additional information.

Additionally, the Company incurs property tax charges for our restaurant real estate and equipment and passes such charges to franchisees for reimbursement. The Company presents property tax expenses and the associated franchisee reimbursements gross on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company recognized property tax income of approximately $85,402,000, $77,507,000, and $69,567,000, respectively, within Rental income on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

All restaurants temporarily without a franchisee are considered company-operated restaurants. Sales and expenses relating to company-operated restaurants are reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements for the period operated and are reported net of sales-related taxes. Revenue is recognized as sales are generated at the point of sale.

Royalties earned from the Company's brand license arrangements are calculated based on a percentage of sales, which ranges between 7% and 10%, and the Company recognizes revenue over time as the underlying sales occur.

Recognition of Product Sales

Product sales on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive income consist of sales of the Company's proprietary products and sales earned through the Company's distribution and lemon juice production operations.

The Company earns revenue from the sale of certain proprietary products to our distribution partners under third-party supply arrangements. The Company recognizes revenue from the sales of our proprietary products at the point in time our customers take delivery of the products pursuant to the terms of the respective contractual agreement.

For our proprietary product arrangements, the Company follows the principal agent model under ASC 606, which provides a control-based model for determining whether an entity acts as a principal or an agent to a transaction. An entity is deemed the principal in a transaction if it obtains control of the specified goods or services before they are transferred to the customer. An entity is deemed an agent if it does not control the specified goods or services before they are transferred to the customer. The Company records income and associated costs gross on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings in arrangements where we were deemed to be the principal. If deemed agent to the transaction, the Company records income net of the associated costs on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

Additionally, the Company generates revenue from our distribution and lemon juice production operations. Our distribution operations derive revenue through the sale of goods to our franchisees, and revenue is recognized at the point in time that control of the underlying goods transfers pursuant to our respective supply agreements. As of December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, our distribution centers provided services to 410, 230, and 20 restaurant locations, respectively. Our lemon juice operations derive revenue through the sale of lemon juice to our distributors. Revenue is recognized at the point in time when control of the purchased goods transfers to the customer pursuant to the terms of the respective agreements. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020 the Company recognized revenues related to our distribution and lemon juice production operations of approximately $768,969,000, $491,863,000, and $125,098,000, respectively.

Recognition of Other Income

Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings is primarily comprised of (1) gift card program revenues, (2) advertising revenues and (3) investment and interest income.

The Company sells gift cards domestically through our franchisees, certain select retailers, and our website. The gift cards are redeemable in our franchised and company-operated restaurant locations. The Company manages the gift card program and collects all funds from the activation of gift cards and reimburses franchisees for the fulfillment of redeemed gift cards in their restaurants. The Company acts as an agent in this relationship and records proceeds from gift card sales net of the associated reimbursements to franchisees following gift card redemption. A contract liability for unredeemed gift cards is included in Trade payables and other in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets for all periods presented. There are no expiration dates on the outstanding, unredeemed gift card balances. While outstanding gift card balances do not expire, the likelihood of redemption may be determined to be remote for certain cards due to long periods of inactivity. The Company recognizes gift card breakage revenue over time in proportion to the pattern of gift card redemptions exercised by our customers. Refer to the table below for a rollforward of the Company's contract liability balance associated with unredeemed gift cards for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021.

The Company provides franchisees national advertising services through our third-party advertising agency arrangements. These advertising activities primarily include national television, digital, radio and campaign social media advertisements. In certain cases, franchisees may elect to contribute to a fund to participate in certain additional national media activities to be fulfilled by the Company. Proceeds from franchisee contributions are retained by the Company to fund such national advertising costs as they become due and payable. The Company recognizes advertising expenses and the related franchisee contributions for certain national advertising services gross on our consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Advertising revenues are recognized over time as the advertising services are delivered to franchisees. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, the Company recorded advertising revenues of approximately $39,382,000, $33,387,000, and $21,576,000, respectively, within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. The contract liability related to the Company's franchisee advertising services is reflected in Restaurant activity liability on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and was approximately $16,159,000 and $17,217,000 as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Additionally, Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings includes gains and/or losses earned on certain investments administered through a Rabbi Trust, interest income on the Company's short-term investments, and other miscellaneous income/loss not subject to ASC 606. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, the Company recorded net (losses)/income of approximately ($18,788,000), $50,060,000, and $34,892,000, respectively, within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings, which represents amounts that are not subject to the scope of ASC 606.

Pension, Postretirement, and Postemployment Benefits Plans

The Company accounts for pension, postretirement and postemployment benefit plans in accordance with the provisions of ASC 715, Compensation-Retirement Benefits. The standard requires, among other things, the recognition of the funded status of each defined benefit pension plan, retiree health care and other postretirement benefit plans and postemployment benefit plans on the balance sheet. Each overfunded plan is recognized as an asset and each underfunded plan is recognized as a liability. The initial impact of the standard due to unrecognized prior service costs or credits and net actuarial gains or losses as well as subsequent changes in the funded status is recognized as a component of Accumulated other comprehensive loss in stockholders' equity. See Note 6 for additional information.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and all liquid investments purchased with a remaining maturity of 90 days or less at the date of acquisition. Cash equivalents as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 consist of cash deposits, money market funds, and US Treasury bills. The cost of these investments approximates their fair value.

The Company has reclassified checks issued but not yet presented for payment as Trade payable and other in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Outstanding checks totaled approximately $80,479,000 and $22,259,000 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on either a weighted-average cost or standard cost basis. Our inventories consist primarily of ingredients, packaging, and other supplies for sale to our restaurant franchisees. For our lemon juice production operations, the Company's inventory consists of both raw materials, which includes primarily lemons, and finished goods, which includes lemon juice and other lemon byproducts.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Cost includes all direct costs necessary to acquire and prepare assets for use, including internal labor. Expenditures for significant improvements are capitalized while expenditures for minor replacements, maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Interest is capitalized on borrowings during the active construction period of qualifying capital assets. Capitalized interest is added to the cost of the asset and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Depreciation expense of property and equipment is calculated by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Leasehold improvement assets are amortized over the shorter of the related lease life or their estimated useful lives.

Estimated useful lives of property and equipment are as follows:

	Estimated Useful Lives
Buildings and leasehold improvements	10-40 years
Office furniture, fixtures, and equipment	3-20 years
Restaurant fixtures and equipment	7 years
Transportation	4-10 years
Computer hardware and software	3 or 5 years

Beginning in 2021 following our adoption of ASC 842, the Company records right-of-use assets associated with our commenced lease agreements within Property and equipment on the accompanying consolidated balances sheet. Refer to the "Leases" discussion below for the Company's policy related to the accounting for our right-of-use lease assets.

Leases

The Company is engaged in a significant amount of leasing activity, both as a lessee and as a lessor. A detailed description of the nature of the Company's leasing arrangements is included in Note 10. The Company adopted ASC 842 effective January 1, 2021 and elected not to apply the standard to comparative periods in our accompanying financial statements. As such, we have included our lease accounting policies under both ASC 842 as well as previous leasing guidance below.

Lessee Accounting – ASC 842

We classify leases as either operating or finance leases at the commencement date of the lease, which is the date we take control of the underlying asset. The Company's real estate lease agreements often contain tenant improvement allowances, rent holidays, rent escalation clauses and/or contingent rent provisions. We have lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, which are accounted for together as a single lease component for all underlying classes of assets with the exception of the Company's restaurant real estate leases where we are also a lessor.

The Company records a right-of-use asset and lease liability for each operating and finance lease with a contractual term greater than 12 months at the time of lease commencement. We do not record leases with an initial term of 12 months or less on our consolidated balance sheets but continue to record lease expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Many of the Company's leases include options to renew at our sole discretion. Such renewal options are included in the concluded lease term when they are determined to be reasonably certain of exercise.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company's operating and finance lease liabilities represent the present value of future lease payments over the concluded lease term. We cannot determine the interest rate implicit in each of our leases. Therefore, the Company uses an incremental borrowing rate to calculate the lease liability that reflects the rate of interest we expect to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms. We consider a combination of factors, including our credit-adjusted interest rate, the lease term, and the effect of adjusting the rate to reflect consideration of collateral. Our credit adjusted borrowing rate takes into consideration interest rates we pay on our unsecured long-term notes as well as other relevant market factors.

The right-of-use asset balance is measured at the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for lease payments made at or before the lease commencement date, initial direct costs and any tenant improvement allowances received. For operating leases, we recognize expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. The recorded right-of-use asset is reduced over the lease term by the recognized straight-line lease expense less the amount of accretion of the lease liability determined using the effective interest method. For finance leases, right-of-use assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the useful life of the leased asset or the lease term, with amortization expense recorded within Depreciation and amortization on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Interest expense on each finance lease liability is recognized utilizing the effective interest method and is recorded within Interest on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

For several of our restaurant real estate leases, the Company is involved in the construction of our leased assets. For such leases, we do not control the construction period asset in accordance with ASC 842 and are therefore required to determine whether our construction period costs represent costs to use the lessor's asset or represent costs related to the Company's own assets. Construction costs associated with the right to use the lessor's asset are recorded initially to prepaid rent during the construction period and are subsequently measured as part of the right-of-use lease asset upon lease commencement. Construction costs associated with the Company's own assets are recorded initially as construction in progress and are subsequently recorded as leasehold improvements upon lease commencement.

Lessee Accounting – Previous Lease Guidance

For reporting periods prior to 2021, the Company classified our leases as either operating or capital leases at the inception of the lease. For leases classified as operating, the Company reported rental expense within Selling, general, and administrative expenses in the accompanying statements of comprehensive earnings. The total amount of rental payments due over the operating lease term was charged to rent expense on a straight-line basis over the concluded term of the lease, which included any renewal options reasonably assured of being exercised. The difference between rent expense recorded and the amount paid was recorded as a deferred rent obligation, which was included in Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

For leases classified as capital leases, the Company recorded a capital lease asset and liability equal to the present value of minimum lease payments, discounted using the Company's incremental borrowing rate. The recorded capital lease asset was limited to the lesser of the fair value of the leased asset if determined to be less than the present value of future lease payments. Capital lease assets were depreciated using the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term, including any renewal options that were reasonably assured of being exercised, or the estimated useful life of the asset. The capital lease liability was amortized using the effective interest method over the term of the lease, with interest expense on the capital lease liability recorded to Interest on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

Prior to the adoption of ASC 842, the Company was deemed to be the accounting owner in certain build-to-suit lease arrangements due to our level of involvement during the construction of the leased asset. In such instances, we recorded an asset for construction costs incurred and a corresponding financing obligation for the estimated construction costs financed by the landlord. Due to our level of continuing involvement with the leased property during the lease term, we were not permitted to apply sale-leaseback accounting following construction completion and, as a result, retained the asset and financing obligation liability on our balance sheet. Following construction, the recorded construction period assets were classified in a manner consistent with our other owned assets and were depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The recorded financing obligation was amortized using the effective interest method, with future lease payments allocated between interest expense and reduction of the recorded financing obligation.

Lessor Accounting

As described in the Revenue and Income section above, the Company serves as a lessor/sublessor to our restaurant franchisees for the lease of restaurant real estate and restaurant equipment. Due to the month-to-month nature of our franchisee lease agreements, the adoption of ASC 842 did not have a material impact on the Company's lessor accounting. Rental and subrental income is recorded within Rental income in our consolidated statements of comprehensive income as amounts are earned and charged to franchisees each month.

Employee Incentive Compensation and Accrued Compensated Absences

The Company maintains an employee incentive compensation plan for all full-time employees. Incentive compensation for participating employees is calculated based on a portion of the revenue received from restaurants.

The Company also has in place an accrued compensated absence policy under which employees may carry a certain number of vacation hours into the subsequent year. The Company records a liability for this amount based on individual compensation rates in effect during the year, inclusive of incentive compensation if applicable and estimable. The liability for accrued compensated absences was approximately $68,461,000 and $77,354,000 as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and is recorded within Accrued expenses and obligations on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with ASC 360 Property, Plant, and Equipment, long-lived assets held and used in operations are required to be assessed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated over the remaining life of the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value. Impairment charges recorded for assets held and used in operations were immaterial for all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

Long-lived assets meeting the criteria to be reported as held for sale in accordance with ASC 360 are reported at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell and are no longer depreciated. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, assets classified as held-for-sale are not material to the consolidated financial statements.

Advertising

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Total advertising expenses were approximately $180,807,000, $155,967,000, and $130,862,000 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020 respectively, and is recorded within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, total reported advertising expense includes approximately $39,382,000, $33,387,000, and $21,576,000 in certain franchisee reimbursed national advertising costs. Refer to the Recognition of Revenue and Income section above for additional details.

The Company receives vendor rebates for certain advertising spend that we pass along to our restaurant franchisees. The Company has reflected such rebates on a net basis in the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings for all periods presented.

Income Taxes

The Company files a consolidated federal income tax return.

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes, which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. The standard prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The interpretation requires that the Company recognize in its financial statements the impact of a tax position if that position is more likely than not of being sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position.

The Company accounts for income taxes using an asset and liability approach. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Changes in tax rates and tax laws are accounted for in the period of enactment

Treasury Stock

The Company accounts for share repurchases using the par value method under which the repurchase price is charged to additional paid-in capital up to the amount of the original issue proceeds of the repurchased shares. When the repurchase price is greater than the original issue proceeds, the excess is charged to retained earnings. Repurchased shares that are not subsequently retired are recorded on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as Treasury stock at their par value. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company held 14,382,928 non-voting common shares as treasury stock.

Company-Owned Life Insurance

Company-owned life insurance represents insurance on the lives of certain individuals who have provided positive consent allowing the Company to be the beneficiary of such policies. The Company is the primary beneficiary of the insurance policies and incurs recurring premium payments to keep the policies active. Increases in the cash surrender value of the policies are recorded as reductions of the related cost of the insurance policies, and such costs are recorded within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. Company-owned life insurance is recorded on the consolidated balance sheets at the cash surrender value of the policies which materially approximates fair value.

Derivatives and Financial Instruments

The carrying amount of the Company's financial instruments approximates their fair value. The fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. U.S. GAAP establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). These tiers include:

- Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets;
- Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets or quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and
- Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions, such as valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

For all periods presented, the recorded carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses and obligations approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Investments are recorded at fair value in accordance with the fair value hierarchy above. The Company determines the classification within the hierarchy based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

A significant portion of the Company's pension and postretirement benefit plan assets have been measured at fair value using net asset value ("NAV") as a practical expedient, as permitted under ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. Refer to Note 6 for additional details.

The Company records derivative financial instruments on the balance sheet at their respective fair values. The Company accounts for derivative financial instruments in accordance with ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, which allows all changes in fair value of highly effective cash flow hedges to be recorded in other comprehensive earnings (loss). Additionally, ASC 815 allows for ongoing qualitative considerations of hedge effectiveness, provided certain conditions are met.

We currently have interest rate swap contracts designated as cash flow hedges under ASC 815. These hedges are deemed to be highly effective in offsetting changes in our future expected cash flows under our floating interest rate debt. Changes to the fair value are recorded through accumulated other comprehensive income and reclassified into interest expense in the same period in which the hedged transaction is recognized in earnings. As of the date of these financial statements, we expect our interest rate swaps to continue to remain highly effective. The Refer to Note 5 for details on the Company's adoption of ASU 2020-04 in response to reference rate reform.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.

The Company also enters into other derivative arrangements, primarily options and swap contracts, as a way to hedge our exposure to fluctuations in certain commodity prices. The Company elects to treat these derivative instruments as economic hedges and does not apply the hedge accounting provisions of ASC 815. As a result, the Company records each derivative instrument on the balance sheet at its fair value with the entire change in fair value reported in earnings each reporting period. For certain commodity derivatives, we incur premiums to our counterparties upon execution of the derivative contract. Such premiums are recorded on the balance sheet and are subsequently measured at fair value with subsequent changes in fair value reflected in earnings. As of December 2022 and 2021, the Company recorded a derivative asset of approximately $17,933,000 and $642,000, respectively, within Prepaid expenses and other assets on the accompanying consolidated balances sheets. Total income recorded on our commodity derivative instruments for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 was approximately $13,903,000 and $642,000, respectively, and is recorded within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

2. Due to Restaurant Franchisees

The balance due to franchisees reflects the net result primarily of the following activities: cash deposits and credit card settlements made into the Company's account; disbursements made by franchisees that have been presented for payment; other unpaid obligations of the restaurants, the largest of which is franchisee profits from restaurant operations; and expenses paid by the Company on behalf of the franchisees.

3. Restaurant Activity Liability

Restaurant activity liability is comprised of amounts payable to third parties (not franchisees) that originated in the restaurants. Amounts due to restaurant vendors and tax authorities are included here, along with accruals funded by restaurant markets for market or chain-wide purchases of products and services at the discretion of franchisee representatives.

4. Accrued Expenses and Obligations

Accrued expenses and obligations as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 consisted of the following:

Credit Facilities

On September 24, 2021, the Company refinanced and replaced our existing credit facilities (“2018 Credit Facilities”) and entered into a new credit agreement (“2021 Credit Facilities”) with a syndicate of lenders, with Wells Fargo Bank N.A. serving as administrative agent, swingline lender and issuing lender. The 2021 Credit Facilities provide for a $200,000,000 term loan (“Term Loan”) and a revolving credit facility (“Revolving Facility”) with a maximum commitment of $800,000,000. Upon closing of the 2021 Credit Facilities, the Company drew $100,000,000 on our available Revolving Facility. The proceeds from the 2021 Credit Facilities were used, in part, to pay off the outstanding principal balance of $187,500,000 and accrued interest under the 2018 Credit Facilities and to pay related financing fees and expenses in connection with the 2021 Credit Facilities. The refinance and replacement of our 2018 Credit Facilities qualified as a debt modification pursuant to ASC 470 and as such, no gain or loss has been recognized on the transaction.

The Term Loan matures on September 24, 2026. Principal payments on the Term Loan commence September 30, 2023 and are payable quarterly thereafter at scheduled amounts, with the balance due at maturity. The Term Loan bears interest at the floating 1-month London Interbank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”) plus a margin ranging between 0.800% and 1.000%. Interest payments on the Term Loan are due and payable at the end of each calendar month.

The Revolving Facility matures on September 24, 2026 and provides for borrowings of a maximum commitment of $800,000,000. The Revolving Facility bears interest at floating 1-month LIBOR plus a margin between 0.875% and 1.125%. Interest payments on the Revolving Facility are due and payable at the end of each calendar month. During 2022, the Company repaid the outstanding $100,000,000 balance under the Revolving Facility, which is reflected within the accompanying statements of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2022. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company had $0 and $100,000,000, respectively, outstanding under our Revolving Facility.

In October 2020, the Company amended and restated our 2018 Credit Facilities to add fallback language specifying how a replacement interest rate will be determined following the phase out of LIBOR as a result of reference rate reform. The Company adopted the expedients available in ASU 2020-04 to account for the modification of our 2018 Credit Facilities. The LIBOR fallback language has been included in our 2021 Credit Facilities, and as of December 31, 2022, the Company has not yet transitioned from LIBOR as our benchmark interest rate.

The 2021 Credit Facilities contain certain restrictive covenants relating to, among other things, limitations on indebtedness, transactions with affiliates, sales of assets and certain investments. In addition, the 2021 Credit Facilities include a financial covenant relating to the Company’s consolidated leverage ratio. As of December 31, 2022, the Company was in compliance with all debt covenants.

One-Year Term Loan

In April 2020 and in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Company entered into a new credit agreement with a syndicate of lenders, with Wells Fargo Bank N.A. serving as administrative agent, sole lead arranger, and sole bookrunner. The credit agreement, as amended in October 2020, provided for a $153,000,000, one-year term loan maturing April 17, 2021 bearing interest at floating 1-month LIBOR plus a margin of 1.75%. The Company repaid the total outstanding principal in December 2020, which is reflected in the accompanying consolidated statement of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2020.

Related Party Note

In November 2018, the Company repurchased shares of our non-voting common stock from a related party through the issuance of a note payable (“Related Party Note” or “Note”) and initial payment of approximately $35,238,000. The Related Party Note has a face amount of approximately $750,070,000, bears interest at a fixed annual rate of 4.75% and has a term of 25 years, maturing on November 30, 2043. The Related Party Note requires the Company to pledge the repurchased common shares to the related party as collateral for the Note. The Company is required to hold the repurchased shares as treasury stock until the Note is fully repaid. The Related Party Note requires compliance with certain nonfinancial covenants and as of December 31, 2022, the Company is in compliance with all such covenants.

Senior Notes

In October 2020, the Company entered into a Note Purchase Agreement and sold to certain purchasers $1,700,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of senior notes (collectively “Senior Notes”), the proceeds of which were used to finance the repurchase of certain of the Company’s outstanding, non-voting common shares. The Senior Notes mature in tranches with maturity dates ranging from October 2023 to October 2030. The Senior Notes bear interest at fixed interest rates ranging between 1.48% and 2.09%, with interest payments due semiannually in April and October each year. The Senior Notes may be prepaid at any time subject to a make-whole premium, as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement. The Note Purchase Agreement contains certain restrictive covenants relating to, among other things, limitations on indebtedness, transactions with affiliates, sales of assets and certain investments. In addition, the Note Purchase Agreement includes a financial covenant relating to the Company’s consolidated leverage ratio. As of December 31, 2022, the Company was in compliance with all debt covenants.

Interest Rate Swaps

The Company currently uses interest rate swaps to effectively fix the interest rate on a portion of our floating-rate Credit Facilities, including forecasted future issuances. In June 2018, the Company entered into two, $50,000,000 notional amount interest rate swap contracts: one 7-year interest rate swap with a June 2025 termination date and one 10-year interest rate swap with a June 2028 termination date. Under the two swap contracts, the Company pays interest at a weighted average annual rate of 2.92% and receives interest at the prevailing 1-month LIBOR rate. The Company has designated the swaps as cash flow hedges, and both were deemed to be highly effective in offsetting changes in our future expected cash flows due to the fluctuation in the 1-month LIBOR rate.

Effective in 2020, the Company elected to adopt ASU 2020-04 to assert probability of the hedged interest transactions regardless of any expected modification in terms related to reference rate reform and applied the expedients in ASC 848 in assessing hedge effectiveness. The Company plans to adopt the remaining expedients, as applicable, when the interest rate swap contracts are modified at a future date. Such modification is expected to be commensurate with the transition in benchmark interest rate under our 2021 Credit Facilities.

For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company reported income/(loss) in Other comprehensive earnings (loss) of approximately $12,044,000, $6,322,000, and ($6,314,000), respectively, as a result of recording the swaps at their determined fair values. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company reported an asset (liability) related to our interest rate swaps of approximately $3,576,000 and ($8,468,000), respectively.

The Company's contributions amounted to approximately $28,377,000, $23,867,000, and $19,559,000 during the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

The Company also has a qualified defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all employees. The plan provides a defined benefit based on years of service and highest average compensation during a five-year period. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the qualified defined benefit plan had an underfunded balance of approximately $119,389,000 and $101,791,000, respectively, reflected within Accrued expenses and obligations on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. The Company additionally provides an unfunded, nonqualified, deferred compensation plan ("EDC plan") for a select group of employees earning amounts in excess of that allowed for tax-deductible funding under existing Internal Revenue Service regulations. The EDC plan includes a supplemental benefit which is offered to supplement the qualified, defined benefit pension plan. Benefits under this nonqualified arrangement are consistent with those offered under the defined benefit pension plan. The Company recognized compensation expense of approximately $8,676,000, $10,527,000, and $6,654,000 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, in connection with the EDC plan. Amounts accrued under the EDC plan totaled approximately $76,899,000 and $92,078,000 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, reflected within Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

The EDC plan also includes a defined contribution benefit that allows employees the option of making voluntary contributions of between 5% and 15% of their annual salary (in excess of IRS maximum compensation income limits) to the plan to which the Company matches the employees' contributions dollar-for-dollar up to 5%. Contributions made to the plan are invested and administered through a Rabbi Trust. The trust cannot be revoked by the Company; however, the assets are subject to claims of general creditors. Amounts accrued under this plan were approximately $334,570,000 and $359,149,000 as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and are included in Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Plan assets invested through the Rabbi Trust consisted primarily of equity (mutual funds) and fixed income securities, materially all of which qualify as Level 1 assets within the fair value hierarchy. All securities invested through the Rabbi Trust are classified as trading securities and have been reflected at their fair market value in Investments on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and 2021. (Losses)/income on investments held under the Rabbi Trust were approximately ($59,660,000), $46,622,000, and $33,681,000 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, respectively, and are included within Other income on the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

Certain members of senior management are participants in a supplemental executive retirement plan ("SERP") provided by the Company. Participants vest in the SERP upon remaining in the employ of the Company until the later of attaining age 55 or completion of 20 years of service. Retirement benefits are calculated based upon formulas in each SERP agreement and are in the form of a monthly payment upon retirement and a death benefit payable to a beneficiary designated by each participant. This plan is closed to new entrants. The Company recognized compensation expense of approximately $1,157,000, $1,223,000, and $1,430,000 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, in connection with the SERP. Amounts accrued under the SERP totaled approximately $18,333,000 and $23,939,000 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and are recorded as salaries, incentives, and deferred compensation within Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Additionally, the Company has a postretirement health care plan for eligible employees. Those employees who retire at age 55 and older with 20 years of continuous full-time service or those hired at Director level and above (Senior Director level and above if hired on or after January 1, 2023) who retire with 10 years of continuous full-time service may participate and may cover eligible dependents. There is no premium contributed by the participants. The Company recognized compensation expense of approximately $34,745,000, $26,362,000, and $16,321,000 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, in connection with the postretirement health care plan. Amounts accrued under the postretirement health care plan totaled approximately $186,662,000 and $223,665,000 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and are included within Accrued expenses and obligations in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

In 2022, the Company approved an amendment to enhance the early retirement provision in the qualified defined benefit plan, EDC plan, and postretirement medical plan. Effective January 1, 2023, the enhanced early retirement benefit will provide an unreduced benefit in the qualified defined benefit plan and EDC plan as well as fully paid retiree health premiums to participants retiring after reaching age 55 and 20 years of service; this benefit was previously available to those retiring after reaching age 62 and 20 years of service. As a result of the amendment, the Company was required to remeasure plan obligations and expense for the qualified defined benefit plan and EDC plan as of July 2022 and remeasure the plan obligation and expense for the postretirement healthcare plan as of August 2022. The plan amendments resulted in increases of the benefit obligation for the pension plans and postretirement medical plans of approximately $43,144,000 and $8,717,000, respectively.

The actuarial loss for the year ended December 31, 2021 was primarily due to changes in assumptions related to employee salaries and termination rates, offset by an increase in the discount rate from 2020 to 2021.

(2) Plan amendment/new entrants amounts for the year ended December 31, 2022 primarily relate to the plan amendment discussed in the section above.

Plan Assets

Plan assets are invested using a total rate of return approach to preserve asset values, diversify risk and achieve the expected long-term rate of return. The Company's expected long-term rate of return on plan assets assumption of 7.0% for each of the fiscal years presented in these financial statements was determined using a weighted average approach considering the mix of plan assets at the determination date and long-term forward-looking expected returns for each asset category. Plan assets allocated by asset category approximate target allocations, and consist of equity securities (41.2%), fixed income securities (42.7%), cash and cash equivalents (12.0%), alternative investments and derivative instruments (3.8%) and private equity (0.3%) as of December 31, 2022.

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the fair values of the investments as of December 31, 2022 and 2021. Certain investments do not have readily determinable fair values and as such, have been measured using NAV as a practical expedient, as permitted under ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. Such investments have not been categorized in the fair value hierarchy but have been provided in the following tables to provide a reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the total value of plan assets.

Fair market values of plan assets are determined based on the nature of the asset category.

Level 1 Inputs are based upon unadjusted quoted prices for identical instruments traded in active markets.

Level 2 Observable inputs, the value of the fund(s) is the sum of the private investment funds held in the fund.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

Level 3 Unobservable inputs, the fund is a limited partnership that invests in private equity funds, real estate and other limited partnerships. Valuation may be subject to estimates.

Investments in investment companies are valued at fair value. Fair values are determined utilizing the NAV supplied by, or on behalf of, management of each investment company, which is in accordance with the practical expedient as defined by ASC 820. NAVs received by, or on behalf of, management of each investment company are based on the fair value of the investment company's underlying investments in accordance with policies established by management of each investment company, as described in each of their financial statements and offering memorandum. The redemption period for each class of investments measured using NAV as a practical expedient generally requires between zero- and five-days' notice.

The plan's objective is to achieve a consistent total rate of return (income, appreciation, and reinvested funds) that will equal or exceed the actuarial assumption with aversion to significant volatility. The following is the target asset allocation:

	Minimum	Maximum
Public equity	22.5%	59.5%
Long duration fixed income	30.0%	50.0%
Non-core fixed income	2.5%	28.0%
Real assets	0.0%	14.0%
Alternative risk premia	0.0%	7.0%
Tactical tilts	0.0%	7.0%
Cash	0.0%	21.0%

Contributions

The Company expects to contribute approximately $31,360,000 to the qualified plan during fiscal year 2023.

Income tax expense differs from the amount computed by applying the federal statutory rate of 21% to earnings before income taxes due to the following: (1) state income taxes, (2) state tax credits and (3) permanent differences, consisting primarily of nondeductible meals and entertainment and nondeductible officer's life insurance.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities presented in the consolidated financial statements and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Deferred tax assets aggregated $1,374,238,000 and $1,236,363,000 and deferred tax liabilities aggregated $1,754,152,000 and $1,510,689,100 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the principal components of deferred tax assets include differences between federal and state basis of property, plant and equipment, advance payments, and certain accruals related to deferred compensation, postretirement health benefits, and leases. The principal components of deferred tax liabilities are related to property, plant and equipment, leases, and accrued pension benefits.

No valuation allowance was recorded against the Company's U.S. federal and state deferred tax assets at December 31, 2022 or 2021. The Company's management believes it is more likely than not that the existing U.S. federal and state gross deferred tax assets will reverse during periods in which the deferred tax liabilities reverse or in which the Company generates net taxable income.

Chick-fil-A, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

The Company had foreign deferred tax assets of $3,902,000 and $2,695,000 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, which consist primarily of net operating loss carryforwards. At December 31, 2022 and 2021, a full valuation allowance was recorded against our foreign deferred tax assets. The Company's management has considered all available positive and negative evidence to determine whether it will generate sufficient future taxable income to utilize the foreign deferred tax assets. A significant piece of objective negative evidence evaluated were the losses incurred from 2019 to 2022. Such objective evidence limits the ability to consider other subjective evidence, such as projections of future foreign taxable income. If or when recognized, the tax benefits related to any reversal of the valuation allowance against these foreign deferred tax assets will be accounted for as a reduction of income tax expense in the period such reversal occurs.

The Company notes that it currently does not have undistributed earnings due to losses in its foreign jurisdictions.

The Company had accrued interest related to unrecognized tax benefits of $2,889,000 and $1,856,000 recorded on our consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, of which $1,033,000 and $205,000 was recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings as Income tax expense, respectively. The Company's policy is to record potential penalties and interest related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company files federal, state, and foreign income tax returns in jurisdictions with varying statutes of limitations. As of December 31, 2022, the 2019 through 2022 tax years generally remain subject to examination by federal and most state tax authorities.

The Company does not expect any significant change in unrecognized tax benefits during the next twelve months.

9. Related-Party Transactions

The Company provides accounting, tax, consulting, and other related services to certain of our related-party affiliates. We are reimbursed for all payroll and other operating costs associated with the performance of such services through the payment of an administration fee. This administration fee is recognized when earned and is recorded in Other income within the accompanying consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings. In total, amounts earned related to the performance of the agreed upon services were approximately $5,629,000, $5,644,000, and $5,692,000 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, respectively.

One of the Company's principal shareholders owns a substantial interest in a company which sold fixtures to the Company aggregating approximately $23,092,000, $20,097,000, and $15,621,000, during the years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

10. Leases

The Company is the lessee in a significant real estate portfolio related to our free-standing and mall restaurant locations. The Company's leases are structured either as ground leases, where we lease the land and subsequently construct the restaurant, or as space leases, where we lease the land along with the respective building space. Our restaurant real estate leases, exclusive of traditional mall leases, are generally long-term in nature, with non-cancellable, base lease terms ranging between 10 and 20 years and typically provide for periodic rent escalations and optional renewal periods. Rent escalations vary between leases but commonly occur every five years at an escalation rate between 10% and 12%. Lease renewal options are generally exercisable at the Company's sole discretion and are typically structured to occur in multiple five-year increments.

The Company's traditional mall leases generally have shorter lease terms, usually less than ten years, and typically do not contain as many optional renewal periods as the Company's free standing restaurant leases. In addition to fixed minimum monthly lease payments, some of the Company's leases, primarily those in our traditional mall spaces, provide for contingent rentals that are calculated based on certain achieved restaurant sales thresholds. Due to the variable nature of these payments, they are typically not included in the measurement of the lease asset and liability and are included as a component of variable lease expense.

The Company leases or subleases each franchised restaurant location to restaurant franchisees under month-to-month lease agreements. Under the Company's domestic franchisee lease agreements, rent paid by franchisees to the Company for the use of real estate is subject to a maximum of 6% of restaurant sales. The Company also leases or subleases equipment to restaurant franchisees under month-to-month lease agreements. Equipment rental charges are determined based upon the restaurant concept type and are charged to franchisees monthly. The Company recognizes rental and subrental income within Rental income on the accompanying statements of comprehensive earnings. In accordance with ASC 842, the Company reports right-of-use assets subject to sublease to restaurant franchisees separately from other right-of-use assets on our accompanying consolidated balances sheets.

In addition to the Company's restaurant real estate lease portfolio, we additionally lease real estate for certain of our corporate office locations, distribution and manufacturing facilities related to our restaurant distribution and lemon juicing production operations, as well as certain restaurant and corporate office equipment. Our real estate leases for corporate office locations, distribution and manufacturing facilities are generally long-term in nature, with non-cancellable, base lease terms ranging between 10 and 20 years and typically provide for optional renewal periods.

The Company has also entered into sale and leaseback transactions for certain of our real estate assets where we are not permitted to recognize a sale due to our continued control of the leased real estate following sale. For each of these transactions, the Company does not derecognize the underlying real estate asset and recognizes a financing obligation liability equal to the proceeds from sale less selling costs. The Company subsequently classifies and measures the asset consistent with our policy for our other owned assets. The recorded financing obligation is amortized using the effective interest method, with future lease payments allocated between interest expense and reduction of the recorded financing obligation. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company has liabilities related to failed sale-leaseback transactions of approximately

11. Equity Method Investments

The Company accounts for our equity investments where we own a non-controlling interest, but exercise significant influence, under the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method of accounting, our original cost of the investment is adjusted for our share of equity in the earnings (loss) of the equity investee and reduced by dividends and distributions of capital received.

In January 2018, the Company executed a subscription agreement with Westside Future Fund, Inc. whereby the Company subscribed for a limited liability company interest in WFF Real Estate Investment Fund, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company ("WFF"). WFF is a social impact fund organized in 2017 and is intended to make investments in real estate projects with the purpose of revitalizing target neighborhoods in Atlanta, GA. 12. Health Insurance

Through the period ending December 31, 2021, the Company participated in a health insurance trust along with certain affiliated entities to fund medical, dental, vision and other related insurance benefits to certain eligible employees. The Company's restaurant franchisees historically participated in the trust but terminated their participation effective December 31, 2020. Premiums were paid to the health insurance trust by participating entities on behalf of their enrolled employees. Premiums paid to the health insurance trust by the Company totaled approximately $54,385,000 and $47,031,000 during 2021 and 2020, respectively, with such amounts recorded within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings for all periods presented. These premiums accounted for approximately 85% and 32% of the total amount paid to the health insurance trust by all participating entities during 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Premiums paid by the Company to the trust were paid directly by the trust to the health insurance providers who funded the full cost of all reported health insurance claims as losses become due and payable. As a result, the Company was liable only for our monthly premium payments to the trust and did not accrue for incurred but unreported insurance claims.

Effective December 31, 2021, the health insurance trust was dissolved and all remaining funds were disbursed to the respective insurance providers. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company participated in a single employer health insurance plan and paid health insurance premiums directly to our health insurance provider who funded the full cost of all reported health insurance claims as losses become due and payable. The Company paid health insurance premiums of approximately $72,572,000 for the year ending December 31, 2022 with such amounts recorded within Selling, general and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of comprehensive earnings.

Beginning January 1, 2023, the Company is primarily self-insured for our employee health insurance. The Company contracts with a third-party administrator to supervise and administer the program.

3. Section 19 of the Franchise Agreement, under the heading entitled “Competition,” shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

4. Section 23 of the Franchise Agreement, under the heading entitled “Restrictions Deemed Reasonable” shall be amended by deleting the remainder of the final sentence beginning “not based on any representations”, so that Section 23 reads as follows:

The Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, hereby acknowledge that the Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, have carefully considered the nature and extent of the restrictions upon the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and the rights and remedies conferred on Chick-fil-A under this Agreement, including without limitation those rights and

The Operator, and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, further acknowledge and agree that the restrictions upon the Operator (and, as applicable, the Operator-Owner) and the rights and remedies conferred on Chick-fil-A under this Agreement are essential elements of this Agreement and that without their inclusion, Chick-fil-A would not have entered into this Agreement. The Operator represents and warrants that the Operator's signature appearing on this Agreement is genuine and freely and knowingly given.

Nothing contained in this Section 21.5 shall in any way be deemed to impair Chick-fil-A's sole and exclusive business judgment in considering, approving or disapproving any request to transfer or assign the interest. If the Operator or, as applicable, the Operator-Owner, does not accept the offer within 90 days of the date of the offer and thereafter close within 30 days after acceptance, or modifies the offer or terms of sale in any way, the offer or purchase and sale document, as modified if applicable, must be resubmitted to Chick-fil-A and Chick-fil-A will again have 60 days to exercise the right of first refusal. Chick-fil-A's failure to exercise its right of first refusal shall not be deemed a waiver of future rights of first refusal. Any transfer or assignment or attempted transfer or assignment of the interest other than a transfer or assignment to any approved transferee business entity pursuant to the terms, conditions, representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of this Section 21 and Section 26, without first giving Chick-fil-A the right of first refusal described in this Section 21.5 shall be void and of no force or effect.

3. Item 17 shall be supplemented with the following language:

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

4. Each provision of this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional and other requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, are met independently without reference to this Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional or other requirements are not met.
