What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by arbitration and/or litigation only in Florida. Out-of-state arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Florida than in your own state.
2. Sales Performance Required. You must maintain minimum performance levels for printing and distribution. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise, and loss of your investment.
3. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk of your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

You will have an exclusive territory for your fishing magazine business (the “Territory”), which will be delineated by boundary streets, highways, zip codes or county/parish lines, sufficient to cover a population range of up to 500,000. You must continue to meet your mandatory printing and distribution requirements to maintain your franchise which includes your exclusive Territory. We will not operate a fishing magazine business or grant fishing magazine franchises for a similar or competitive business under the Coastal Angler or the Angler trademark within your exclusive Territory except when we may advertise cooperatively with you and other appropriate franchisees. We may offer such a non-fishing magazine franchise in your exclusive Coastal Angler magazine territory. We may, directly or through one of our affiliates, sell products or services that are different than the Coastal Angler fishing magazine franchised business under a different name or using the mark Coastal Angler through other retail and wholesale channels of distribution (including by means of the internet, mail order catalogues, direct mail advertising) in your Territory. We are not required to pay you if we sell a non-fishing magazine franchise inside your Territory or sell non-fishing magazine products inside your Territory.

Your Territory may not be altered during the term of your franchise. If you request approval for relocation of your franchise business, we will evaluate the proposed territory to determine if it meets our population requirements and if we are able to offer a franchise in that proposed territory. You must meet these conditions before we approve relocation of the franchise business. Upon renewal for a new franchise term, you will execute the current form of Franchise Agreement, which may contain materially different terms. There are no other circumstances that permit Coastal Angler to modify your territorial rights.

Coastal Angler franchisees are not subject to a minimum sales quota. However, you must print and distribute a minimum of 10,000 copies of Coastal Angler Magazine within your territory each month to maintain your franchise rights. If you fail to print and distribute this quantity, then you will be in breach of your Franchise Agreement and your Franchise Agreement may be terminated if you do not cure this breach by printing the required amount.

If so, the franchisor must disclose the name of the person or company that was the debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, the date of the action and the material facts.

Choice of Law and Forum

Certain states have statutes and court decisions that may supersede provisions of the franchise agreement that require the application of laws of states other than the franchisee's state or require litigation in a state other than the franchisee's state. However, some of these state laws may be unenforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16, which pre-empts conflicting state law.

Covenants Not To Compete

Certain states have statutes (cited below) that may limit the franchisor's ability to restrict your activity after the franchise agreement has ended. Other states have court decisions limiting the franchisor's ability to restrict your activity after the franchise agreement has ended.

Liquidated Damages

Certain states have statutes (cited below) that may restrict or prohibit the imposition of liquidated damage provisions. The imposition of liquidated damages is also restricted by fair practice laws, contract law and state and federal court decisions.

If so, the franchisor must disclose the names of the parties, the forum, nature, and current status of the pending action. The franchisor may include a summary opinion of counsel concerning the action if a consent to use of the summary opinion is included as part of the Disclosure Document.

If so, the franchisor must disclose the names of the parties, the forum and date of conviction or date judgment was entered, penalty or damages assessed and/or terms of settlements.
- C. A franchisor shall not terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Code § 537A.10(7)(a).

Nonrenewal

A franchisor shall not refuse to renew a franchise unless the franchisee has been notified of the franchisor's intent not to renew at least six months prior to the expiration date or any extension of the franchise agreement and other state specific conditions are satisfied regarding good cause. Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, MD. CODE ANN., BUS. REG. §§ 14-201 to -233.
Fair Distributorship Act, MD. CODE ANN., COM. LAW II §§ 11-1301 to -1307.

Choice of Law and Forum

Section 14-216(c)(25) of the Maryland Franchise Law requires a franchisor to file an irrevocable consent to be sued in Maryland. A franchisee may sue in Maryland for claims arising under that Law.

Periods of Limitation

Under Section 14-227(e) of the Maryland Franchise Law, a franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under that Law for a period of three years after a franchise is granted.

Waivers and Releases

Section 14-226 of the Maryland Franchise Law and Section 02.02.08.16L of the Code of Maryland Regulations prohibit a franchisor from requiring a prospective franchisee to assent to any release, estoppel or waiver of liability as a condition of purchasing, renewing or assigning a franchise. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure law. When prospective franchisees disclaim the occurrence and/or acknowledge the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Maryland Law when purchasing a franchise, such representations are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Law. Any general release required as a condition of renewal, sale, transfer or assignment shall not apply to any liability under the Law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MICHIGAN

Franchise Investment Law, MICH. COMP. LAWS §§ 445.1501 to .1546.

Arbitration

Any provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside of Michigan is void and unenforceable. A franchisee may enter into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside of Michigan. LAWS § 445.1527(f).

Covenants Not To Compete

LAWS §§ 445.771 et seq.

Franchisee Associations

Provisions prohibiting franchisees from joining franchisee associations are void and unenforceable. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(a).

Relationship Laws

Any provision allowing a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause is void and unenforceable. Good cause includes the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice and a reasonable opportunity, which need not be more than 30 days, to cure the failure. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(c).

Any provision that allows a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings is void and unenforceable. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This provision of the law applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by an agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark or name in the same area after the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of the franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(d).

Any provision allowing the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances is void and unenforceable. A renewal provision is not required. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(e).

Any provision that allows the franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause, is void and unenforceable. Good cause includes: (i) the failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards, (ii) the fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor, (iii) the unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations, and (iv) the failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(g).

Any provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor is void and unenforceable. The law does not prohibit provisions allowing a franchisor to exercise a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, or allowing a franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in Section 445.1527(27)(c) of the Law. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(h).

Any provision that permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee is void and unenforceable unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(i).

Waivers and Releases

A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which deprives the franchisee of rights under the Law is void and unenforceable, but the settlement of disputes is not prohibited. LAWS § 445.1527(27)(b).

Liquidated Damages

Liquidated damage provisions are void. MINN. R. 2860.4400J.

Period of Limitation

An action for a violation of Chapter 80C of the Statutes may not be commenced more than three years after the cause of action accrues. STATUTES § 80C.17(5).

Relationship Laws

Any termination penalty provision is void. MINN. R. 2860.4400J.

Trademarks

The Commissioner has determined that it is unfair for the franchisor not to protect the franchisee's right to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols or indemnify the franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the name within the intent of Section 80C.12(1g) of the Minnesota Statutes.

You have also had an adequate opportunity to be thoroughly advised of the terms and conditions of this Agreement by counsel of your own choosing.

THEREFORE, you and Coastal Angler Magazine, intending to be legally bound and in consideration of mutual agreements, covenants and promises contained in this Agreement, agree as follows:

SECTION 1 GRANT OF LICENSE

- 1.1 Subject to the limitations contained in this Agreement Coastal Angler Magazine grants to you, during the License Term and any extensions, the right and license (the "License") to:
 - A. Operate a Business upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in the geographic area or territory described in Exhibit 1 ("Territory");
 - B. Use the Marks in connection with the operation of the Business; and
 - C. Offer and market Coastal Angler Magazine's approved advertising formats, services and products.
- 1.2 During the License Term and any extensions Coastal Angler Magazine will not use or license others to use any of the Marks licensed to you in connection with the operation of any other Business within your Territory described in Exhibit 1.
- 1.3 It is your responsibility to propose a territory to Coastal Angler Magazine for evaluation but Coastal Angler Magazine assists in the selection by considering population density, traffic patterns, and the proximity of the proposed territory to other Coastal Angler Magazine locations or any other reasonable criteria. Coastal Angler Magazine must approve or disapprove your proposed Territory within 30 days after we receive notice from you. A Territory selection and approval must be made prior to the granting of a Coastal Angler Magazine franchise. We will designate your Territory prior to executing this Franchise Agreement.

SECTION 2 LICENSE TERM AND EXTENSION PERIODS

- 2.1 This Agreement and the License granted will continue for a period of 10 years ("License Term"). This 10-year period, will begin on the date this Agreement is executed by Coastal Angler Magazine and is subject to prior termination in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. When the original 10-year period expires and the end of each renewal period, you will have the option to renew your Franchise License for successive periods of 10 years each, subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Coastal Angler Magazine may refuse to renew this Agreement and License if you have:
 - A. Breached this Agreement and failed to remedy any breach of this Agreement specified by Coastal Angler Magazine in a written notice to you; or,
 - B. Has committed 2 or more breaches of this Agreement of a substantial nature during the preceding 12 months prior to renewal.
 - C. Are not current in your payment obligations to Coastal Angler Magazine and our subsidiaries and affiliates and to all of your trade creditors.

You must execute a new Franchise Agreement and all other legal agreements in the form then being used by Coastal Angler Magazine in granting new franchises. These agreements may include, without limitation, higher Royalty Fees and Advertising Fees. There will not be, however, another Initial Franchise Fee charged in the renewal of the Franchise Agreement. Your failure to execute these renewal agreements within 30 days after their delivery to you will be deemed an election by you not to renew the Coastal Angler Magazine Franchise.

As additional conditions to renewal, you must:

- A. Subject to applicable state law, execute a general release of all claims you may have against Coastal Angler Magazine, its officers, directors, shareholders, agents, and employees, whether in their corporate and/or individual capacities. This release will include all claims arising under any federal, state, or local law, rule, or ordinance arising out of or concerning this Agreement and will be in a form satisfactory to Coastal Angler Magazine, a sample of which is attached as Exhibit 5 to this Agreement; and,
- B. Make capital expenditures as may be reasonably required to modernize your Business and your equipment so as to reflect the then-current image of the company. The renewal fee is $2,500 payable to Coastal Angler Magazine 30 days prior to the renewal date of Franchise Agreement.

SECTION 3 INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE

3.1 The initial franchise fee is $25,000 for an exclusive territory with a population range of up to five hundred thousand. The estimated initial investment ranges from $28,975 to $34,600. We do not guarantee that you will not have greater start-up expenses, will not need more operating funds or guarantee earnings. The Initial Franchise Fee is fully earned upon payment, and is not refundable. This fee goes into our general operating fund and is used to defray our costs of recruiting and qualifying new Franchises, fulfilling our pre-opening obligations to new franchisees as well as other operating expenses associated with our business.

3.2 The Initial Franchise Fee is non-refundable once you have paid your Initial Franchise Fee.

SECTION 4 CONTINUING ROYALTIES AND OTHER FEES

4.1 Royalty Fee. A Royalty Fee of 8% of Gross Revenues for local advertising is due on the 15th of each month at the corporate office for the previous month. For example, March Gross Revenues are due by April 15th. Gross Revenues are defined in Section 6. If any governmental taxing authority imposes a tax (other than an income tax) on us upon or against the Royalties payable under this Agreement, you shall pay these taxes together with the Royalty Fee payment to us.

- 4.2 Print Bills. There are no sales quotas, however, Coastal Angler Magazine requires a mandatory printing and distribution of a minimum of 10,000 copies of your Coastal Angler Magazine publication at its then current price. Currently, the price is $1,855.20 FOB. An invoice for printing will be issued to you on the day before upload and is currently due upon receipt, by 5:00 p.m. EST the day the local magazine is uploaded. Payment in full is required prior to printing and shipping. Coastal Angler Magazine reserves the right to vary the price and payment terms in the future. As Coastal Angler Magazine must immediately pay the third party printer, you must pay Coastal Angler Magazine promptly.
- 4.3 National and Regional Advertisement Gross Revenues. If you have any Gross Revenues from your sales of national and regional advertisements that will be placed in the national and regional section, then you will pay Coastal Angler Magazine one-half (50%) of those Gross Revenues. The invoices for the national and regional advertisements will be billed to you in accordance with the policies in our Manuals. Currently, you will be billed on the last or 2nd to last day of the month in order for you to bill your customers immediately. Invoices will be due upon receipt. We strongly recommend that you collect the amounts due at the time that you distribute the magazine and then that you pay us directly from the amounts collected. You must pay your amount due to us regardless of whether or not you collect from the customer that placed the advertising. Amounts that are not paid on time will be charged a 1% late fee at the time frames specified in our Manuals and as further described below.
- 4.4 Graphics Charges. Coastal Angler Magazine may provide an optional graphic and design service for speculative or contracted advertising submitted by you and other franchisees. Coastal Angler Magazine reserves the right to cancel this service at its discretion. You will pay the then current hourly fees. This amount is invoiced by the 1st of the month and due at our corporate location within 10 days from the date of the invoice for any charges incurred in that month. If you have graphic invoices that are unpaid past the due date, Coastal Angler Magazine reserves the right to refuse to provide any graphic services until the due graphic invoices are paid in full, including any late fees assessed. A 1% late fee may also be charged as specified in our Manuals and as described below.
- 4.5 Website and Social Media Accounts. We will assign you a website page for your location and may assign other social media accounts to you as further described in this Agreement. You must keep any social media dedicated account updated and current. If you fail to do you, we may charge you our then-current management fee to manage your accounts.
- 4.6 Personal Guaranty. If you are a corporation, or a limited partnership whose general partner is a corporation, a limited liability company or any other form of legal entity, all applicable partners, officers, directors, managing members and individuals with a 10% or greater ownership interest of the entity (the "Guarantor(s)") shall approve this Agreement, furnish any personal financial information reasonably requested by us, and sign a personal guaranty of your payments and performance obligations under this Agreement and any agreement signed upon renewal, in form and substance substantially in the form of the attached Exhibit 2 (the "Guaranty"). Individuals who subsequently acquire or otherwise succeed to such a position or interest shall also be required to sign a Guaranty. If required by law for any Guaranty to be enforceable, spouses must also sign the Guaranties.

- 4.7 Invoices. All invoices for amounts due to Coastal Angler Magazine will be sent to you through email. The invoice date will be as stated in the Manuals but will typically be the either the date of the email or the day before the email is sent. You are responsible for checking your email daily to receive such invoices and particularly on the days when an invoice is expected. Failure to open an email with an invoice will not excuse payment by the due date or delay the payment due date. Failure to pay any invoice by its due date will result in a 1% late fee as stated in our Manuals. See Section 4.7 below. These late fees will be added to your invoice and are due by the due date stated on the applicable invoice. Your failure to pay any amounts due to us will be a default in your Franchise Agreement and grounds for termination of your franchise.
- 4.8 Good Standing. If you are in “Good Standing” then we may waive our right to immediately impose a late fee if you do not pay your invoiced amount upon its due date and we may permit you to pay the amounts due to us upon extended day terms from the date of the original invoice. These terms are as stated in our Manuals but we reserve the right to modify these payment terms by changes in our Manuals. Currently, a 1% late charge will be added to any royalty invoice if it is not received within 30 days of its invoice date and an additional 1% will be added each month that royalties are not paid. For amounts due for national and regional advertising royalty fees a 1% late fee will be added to any balances not paid after 45 days from invoice date and an additional 1% will be added at 75 days from the original invoice date. We may also shorten or eliminate your delayed payment terms if you are not in Good Standing with us. We will notify you when you are no longer in Good Standing and you must then pay the amounts owed by the due dates and cure any violations to our satisfaction. Failure to pay the amounts due by the required due date or to cure any violations excuses our obligation to include any advertising you have sold or any local materials you have provided to us in the next magazine(s) until your account is in Good Standing. Coastal Angler Magazine is also not liable for any damages you may have for not including paid advertising or local materials in the magazine if you fail to be in Good Standing. “Good Standing” means you have paid all invoices by our terms, you not in violation of any procedure in this Agreement or our Manuals for which you have received notice, you are not default under this Agreement or any other agreement with us or any affiliate of ours, or any agreement with any other third party pertaining to the Business, and no event shall have occurred and be continuing which, with notice or the passage of time or both, would constitute such a default.

- D. Coastal Angler Magazine reserves the right to suspend, defer or rebate the collection of fees for or the facilitation and operation of the National Advertising Pool.

5.4 All advertising for your franchised business, including but not limited to phone listings, print media, social media, newspaper, direct mail, magazines, flyers, electronic media, radio, television, cable television, trade show displays, billboards, truck and vehicle signs, etc., must go through the Coastal Angler Magazine approval process prior to use. We will notify you within 15 days of receiving your advertising of any advertising that has been rejected. Our failure to respond is deemed to be our approval. Submission of the franchisee’s monthly revenue report prior to uploading the report will also be construed as our approval. If you advertise your Coastal Angler Magazine franchise using unauthorized advertising, Coastal Angler Magazine shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, upon notice, without an opportunity to cure. Any advertising that you sell as part of your franchised business for placement in the Coastal Angler Magazine is done on a space availability format basis by our production department and is subject to review. Coastal Angler Magazine reserves the right to reject any advertising, in its sole discretion, that is deemed to be inappropriate or in opposition to the standards or integrity of the Mark. Coastal Angler Magazine will notify you within 5 business days of any advertising you sold that has been rejected.

- 5.5 Local Advertising. The amount of money that you will spend on local advertising is at your discretion. All local advertising must be approved by us prior to use. Any invoices for local advertising are subject to the same payment procedures and other provisions as is stated in Section 4.
- 5.6 We have the right to control all use of URL's domain names, websites, addresses, metatags, links, email address and other means of electronic identification or origin ("e-names") related to the franchised business and system. We also have the right to designate, approve, control or limit all aspects of Franchisees' use of the Internet, Intranet, World Wide Web, wireless technology, digital cable, use of e-names, email, websites, home pages, bulletin boards, chat rooms, email, linking, framing, on-line purchasing cooperatives, marketplaces, barter exchanges, and related technologies, methods, techniques, registrations, networking, and any electronic communication, commerce, computations, or any means of interactive electronic documents contained in a network of computers or similar devices linked by communications software (collectively, "e-commerce"). Accordingly, you may not establish an internet web site, blog, bulletin board, chat room, barter exchange, home page, marketplace, Facebook page, Twitter account or any other electronic media form (collectively, "web-site") advertising the franchise business, or use our name or Marks, or any of its derivatives, in a website, in a web address, in a uniform resource locator or in any manner on the internet such as but not limited to, meta-tags, key words, linking or framing. You will be responsible for developing your territory's web page. You are required to keep your webpage updated and current. We may also assign you a social media account such as a dedicated Facebook page, but we will need to maintain administrative control and access for brand protection. You must keep any social media dedicated account updated and current. If you fail to do so, we may charge you our then-current management fee. We may assist you in the development of your web page or other social media, and we reserve the right to approve or disapprove of any form or content within the make-up of your web page or other social media accounts. We may suggest that you include optional material from third party vendors, such as an online magazine, at the vendor's then current prices. Coastal Angler Magazine has no right to inspect, audit or copy the records of any unrelated business activity you may have.

Any inspections or audits shall be conducted at reasonable times. You must keep all records and reports for six years from the date they originated. Should any inspection or audit disclose a deficiency in the payment of any Royalty, or other amounts required to be paid under this Agreement, you will immediately pay the deficiency to Coastal Angler Magazine, without prejudice or any other remedy of Coastal Angler Magazine under this Agreement. You will also pay 10% interest on any deficiency. In addition, if the deficiency for any audit period equals or exceeds 2% of the correct amount of any Royalty Fee, Advertising Fee or other amounts due, you will also immediately pay to Coastal Angler Magazine the entire cost of the inspection or audit including travel, lodging, meals, salaries and other expenses of the inspecting or auditing personnel, plus 10% interest on the understatement. - 7.3 To encourage prompt payment and to cover the costs and expenses involved in handling and processing late payments, you must also pay us, upon demand, a late payment charge equal to 1% per month, on all payments due to Coastal Angler Magazine during the period of time said payments are due and unpaid but not more than the highest rate permitted by law. The late payment charge will be added each month that a payment remains unpaid. Coastal Angler Magazine may elect to impose the 1% late payment charge at a later payment period, such as 30 days after the payment is due, as stated in its Manual, but reserves the right to impose the late payment charge immediately if the payment is not received on its due date upon notice to you. No custom, usage or practice with regard to this Agreement by you or Coastal Angler Magazine other franchisees will preclude the strict enforcement of this Agreement in accordance with its literal terms. No waiver by Coastal Angler Magazine of performance of any provision of this Agreement will constitute or be implied as a waiver of Coastal Angler Magazine's right to enforce that provision at any future time. You waive any right to a trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity. Any dispute, arbitration or court action will be heard and resolved on an individual basis only and not a class-wide, multiple plaintiff or similar basis. This proceeding will not be consolidated with any other proceeding involving any other person, except for disputes involving affiliates of the parties. Except for your obligations to indemnify us pursuant to Section 13.4 of this Agreement and claims for unauthorized use of the Marks or the Manual, you and Coastal Angler Magazine will each be limited to equitable relief and recovery of any actual damages it sustains, and each waives to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to, or claim for, any punitive or exemplary damages against the other.

20.5 Entire Agreement; Amendments.

This Agreement, together with any written related agreements and all Exhibits, constitutes the entire understanding and agreement of between you and Coastal Angler Magazine and supersedes all prior understandings, whether oral or written, pertaining to this Agreement, License, System or Business. No interpretation, change, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, and no consent or approval under this Agreement, will be binding upon you or Coastal Angler Magazine or effective unless in writing signed by you and Coastal Angler Magazine's President or Vice President. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you.

20.6 Severability.

If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person, property or circumstances will to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement will be unaffected and will remain in full force and effect and each term and provision will be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. Should this prove impractical, Coastal Angler Magazine will have the option of terminating this Agreement upon written notice to you.

20.7 Governing Law.

This Agreement has been made and accepted in the State of Florida and it will be interpreted in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Florida and any applicable federal and state franchise laws. You hereby consent to jurisdiction in the state where we have our principal place of business, currently Florida.

20.8 Arbitration.

Except as specifically otherwise provided in this Agreement, and in the event that you or Coastal Angler Magazine seeks injunctive relief under this Agreement, each of us agree that any and all disputes between us, and any claims by either of us that cannot be amicably settled, will be determined solely and exclusively by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, subject to the following:

- A. You must notify Coastal Angler Magazine of your underlying issues at least 30 days prior to filing for arbitration and you agree that you will discuss the issues you wish to raise in arbitration with Coastal Angler Magazine at least once before filing any demand for arbitration.
- B. Arbitration proceedings will be conducted in accordance with the rules then prevailing of the American Arbitration Association in the county in which we have our principal place of business, currently Brevard County, Florida. Judgment upon an award by the arbitrator will be final and binding and may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction by either party. If there is any question as to whether a claim is subject to arbitration (including whether class action arbitration is permitted), then the decider of the first open action shall decide this issue such that if an arbitration was the first action to have been filed, the arbitrator shall make such determination and if a party has first sought provisional injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, then that court shall decide if a claim is subject to arbitration.

- C. You and Coastal Angler Magazine agree to each pay one-half of the upfront arbitration fees regardless of the number of officers and owners from each side that are also named in the arbitration demand. If either party fails to pay its portion of the arbitration fees, both parties agree that the arbitrator may impose sanctions such as limiting discovery requests, not considering evidence submitted by the non-paying party, and awarding default judgment in favor of the existing party with an award of damages.
- D. Nothing herein contained will bar the right of you or Coastal Angler Magazine to obtain injunctive relief against threatened conduct that would violate this Agreement and cause loss or damages.
- E. Subject to state law, you agree that any arbitration filing will not be pursued on a class action basis and you waive any rights to a class action arbitration.

20.9 Notices.

All notices and other communications provided for in this Agreement must be in writing and will be delivered either in person, via email to the last known email address provided by you, or mailed by certified or other receipted mail or by Federal Express or U.S. Express Mail for overnight delivery to you, at your address or, if to Coastal Angler Magazine at our address, Attention: EVP Coastal Angler Magazine Operations. You or Coastal Angler Magazine, by notice, may change the address to which notices will be sent. Notices delivered in person will be deemed given when presented even if the notice is not accepted. Mailed notices will be legally counted as having been given three days after mailing if by certified or other receipted mail or one day after mailing if by Federal Express or U.S. Express Mail for overnight delivery. Notices provided through email will be legally counted as having been given as of the day after the email is sent, provided that the email is not automatically returned as undeliverable. If the email is returned as undeliverable, an alternative method of delivery in this Section must be used. If you are a corporation or more than one individual, then you will authorize one natural person as correspondent with authority to bind you and to accept notice. You agree that your failure to accept delivery of certified or receipted mail or your failure to open an email will not delay the time periods for notice as long as the delivery was to the physical or email address for which you had previously provided to us. Your verbal or written acknowledgement of receipt of a notice waives any argument that notice was not properly given. An email is also considered to be a notice in writing.

20.10 Certain References.

References to weeks and months mean calendar weeks and calendar months. References to persons mean legal entities as well as natural persons. Whenever the pronoun "he" or "his" is used herein, it refers to masculine, feminine and neuter genders and also singular and plural. E. Franchisee and the Franchisor have reached an understanding with regard to non-disclosure by Franchisee of Confidential Information and with respect to non-competition by Franchisee with the Franchisor.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual promises contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, Franchisee and the Franchisor, intending legally to be bound, agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information. Franchisee and the Franchisor acknowledge that the distinctive business format, plans, methods, data, processes, supply systems, marketing systems, formulas, techniques, designs, layouts, operating procedures, trademarks, proprietary marks and information and know-how of the Franchisor which are developed and utilized in connection with the operation of the Business are the Franchisor's Confidential Information.

Such Confidential Information is unique, exclusive property and a trade secret of the Franchisor. Franchisee further acknowledges that the Franchisor has taken numerous precautions to guard the secrecy of the Confidential Information and that it would be very costly for competitors to acquire or duplicate the Coastal Angler Magazine, Confidential Information.

2. Customer Lists and Operations Manuals as Trade Secrets. It is understood that Confidential Information, constituting "trade secrets", as used in this Agreement, is deemed include, without limitation, product components, lists of customers, supplier information and any and all information contained in the Franchisor's Manual (as defined in the Franchise Agreement), which may be provided as one or more separate print or electronic manuals, or written instructional guides, as the same are changed or supplemented from time to time, and any information of whatever nature which gives the Franchisor and its affiliates an opportunity to obtain an advantage over its competitors who do not have access to, know or use such lists, written materials, or information.

3. Nondisclosure of Confidential Information. Franchisee shall not at any time, publish, disclose, divulge or in any manner communicate to any person, firm, corporation, association, partnership or any other entity whatsoever or use, directly or indirectly, for its own benefit or for the benefit of any person, firm, corporation or other entity other than for the use of the Franchisor or the Business, any of the Confidential Information of the Franchisor or its affiliates.

4. Non-competition Covenant. Franchisee acknowledges that, in addition to the license of the Marks hereunder, Franchisor has also licensed commercially valuable information which comprises and is a part of the System, including without limitation, proprietary processes, operations, marketing and related information and materials and that the value of this information derives not only from the time, effort and money which went into its compilation, but from the usage of the same by all franchisees of Franchisor using the Marks and System. Franchisee therefore agrees that other than the Business licensed herein, neither Franchisee, any manager of the Business nor any of Franchisee's officers, directors, shareholders, partners, members or managers, nor any member of his, her or their immediate families, will during the term of this Agreement:

- a) Have any direct or indirect controlling interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner in a Restricted Business (as defined below);

- b) Perform services as a director, partner, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for a Restricted Business; or,

The term "Restricted Business" as used in this Agreement will mean any magazine business in any format (paper, web-based, online or other format) or any genre even if not directly competitive with the System; and/or any business engaged in the sale of services or products the same as, similar to, or competitive with the System.; provided, however, Franchisee, its owners, members, partners, principals, and if an individual, members of its immediate family will not be prohibited from owning securities in a Restricted Business if such securities are listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market and represent in the aggregate five percent (5%) or less of that class of securities issued and outstanding.

5. Post-Termination Covenant Not to Compete. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason, Franchisee, Franchisee, and its officers, directors, shareholders, and partners agree that, for a period of two (2) years commencing on the effective date of termination or expiration, or the date on which Franchisee ceases to conduct business, whichever is later, neither Franchisee, any manager of the Business, nor any of Franchisee's officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, or partners will have any direct or indirect interest (through any immediate family member of Franchisee, Franchisee, or its owners or otherwise) as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, representative or agent or in any other capacity in any Restricted Business offering the sale of advertising services or products within the Territory or within the state the Territory is located in. This covenant not to compete strictly applies: during the term of the Agreement and for 2 years after expiration or termination, regardless of reason. This term may begin to run from the date of any injunction or court order if such legal action is necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement. The restrictions of this Section will not be applicable to the ownership of shares of a class of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent five percent (5%) or less of the number of shares of that class of securities issued and outstanding. Franchisee, Franchisee, and its officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members and partners expressly acknowledge that they possess skills and abilities of a general nature and have other opportunities for exploiting such skills. Consequently, enforcement of the covenants made in this Section will not deprive them of their personal goodwill or ability to earn a living.

6. Injunction. Franchisee hereby acknowledges and agrees that in the event of any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, the Franchisor shall be authorized and entitled to seek, from any court of competent jurisdiction, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief in addition to any other rights or remedies to which the Franchisor may be entitled. Franchisee agrees that the Franchisor may obtain such injunctive relief, without posting a bond or bonds totaling $500 or more, but upon due notice, and Franchisee's sole remedy in the event of the entry of such injunctive relief shall be dissolution of such injunctive relief, if warranted, upon hearing duly had; provided, however, that all claims for damages by reason of the wrongful issuance of any such injunction are hereby expressly waived by Franchisee.

7. Effect of Waiver. The waiver by Franchisee or the Franchisor of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach thereof.

8. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Franchisee and the Franchisor and their respective heirs, executors, representatives, successors and assigns.

9. Entire Agreement. This instrument contains the entire agreement of Franchisee and the Franchisor relating to the matters set forth herein. It may not be changed verbally, but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of any waiver, change, modification, extension or discharge is sought.

10. Governing Law. This instrument shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of Florida.

11. Jurisdiction and Venue. In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Franchisee of this Agreement, Franchisee hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Florida, and irrevocably agrees that venue for any action or proceeding shall be in the state and federal courts of Florida. Both parties waive any objection to the jurisdiction of these courts or to venue in the state and federal courts of Florida. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the laws of the state where the Franchisee resides prohibit the aforesaid designation of jurisdiction and venue, then such other state's laws shall control.

12. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held, declared or pronounced void, avoidable, invalid, unenforceable or inoperative for any reason, by any court of competent jurisdiction, government authority or otherwise, such holding, declaration or Coastal Angler Magazine pronouncement shall not affect adversely any other provisions of this Agreement which shall otherwise remain in full force and effect.

13. Attorneys' Fees. In any action at law or in equity to enforce any of the provisions or rights under this Agreement, the unsuccessful party in such litigation, as determined by the court in a final judgment or decree, shall pay the successful party or parties all costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred therein by such party or parties (including without limitation such costs, expenses and fees on any appeals), and if such successful party shall recover judgment in any such action or proceeding, such costs, expenses and attorneys' fees shall be included as part of such judgment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have signed this Agreement on the date first above written.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

February 26, 2024

To the Board of Directors of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.
Cocoa Beach, Florida

We have audited the financial statements of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc., which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of earnings and retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc. as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, and have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued. Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Use professional judgment and exercise professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and internal control related matters identified during our audit.

Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. NATURE OF BUSINESS

Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc. (the Company) is a Florida corporation incorporated on April 11, 2008. The Company is engaged in franchising a business known as "Coastal Angler Magazine" and "The Angler Magazine" which offers a monthly print publication through a uniform system consisting of editorial compilation, advertising sales, circulation formulas and promotional endeavors under a branded business format. Franchises in operation are nationwide and internationally with concentrations in Florida, the Gulf Coast East Coast and Great Lakes regions.

The Company receives royalties from its franchisees of 8% of franchisee's gross revenues. The Company also has the right to receive 2% of gross receipts from franchisees to provide national advertising and promotion for the benefit of the franchisees.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting whereby all revenues are recorded when earned and all expenses are recorded when incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates. On an ongoing basis, management reviews its estimates based on currently available information. Changes in facts and circumstances could result in revised estimates and assumptions.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from publication sales upon shipment to end-user franchisees. Revenues are recorded when printed magazines are shipped with shipping terms of FOB shipping point. Income from royalties and national advertising fees are recognized monthly as earned.

Franchise, transfer and upgrade fees are recorded as income upon completion of all performance obligations of the company under the franchise license agreement. The following performance obligations have been identified in connection with the franchise license agreement: full use of the service marks, trademarks, franchise system, etc. for a period no shorter than 10 years, distributing franchise material and training franchise personnel.

There was no revenue from barter transactions involving the exchange of advertising in the magazine for the year ended December 31, 2023 nor 2022.

Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Printing, Shipping, and Handling Costs

The Company includes printing production, shipping, and freight costs in cost of operations. Franchisees are billed for their portion of these costs based on the number of pages and number of copies of the local magazine. These amounts are offset against the printing, shipping and freight expense included in costs of operations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

All highly liquid investments with an original maturity of 90 days or less at the time of purchase are considered to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair value.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded at the original invoice amount less an estimate made for doubtful accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based on the Company's historical losses, the existing economic conditions in the industry, and the financial stability of its customers. Accounts receivable are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts receivable previously written off are recorded when received. There was no allowance for doubtful accounts at December 31, 2023.

Inventory

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out method) or market.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed principally by accelerated and straight-line methods and based on the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which ranges from 5 to 10 years. Repairs and maintenance is expensed when incurred.

Income Taxes

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective bases, and to net operating loss carry forwards, measured by enacted tax rates for years in which taxes are expected to be paid or recovered.

The Company has no uncertain tax positions that it has taken and believes that it can defend its tax return in any jurisdiction. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S., federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2020.

Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.
Melbourne, Florida

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc. (the 'Company'), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2021, the related statements of earnings and retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc. as of December 31, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgement, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and other internal controls related matters that were identified during the audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2021

NOTE A - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Nature of Operation

Coastal Angler Magazine Franchising, Inc. (the "Company") is a Florida corporation organized in March of 2008. The Company is engaged in franchising a business known as "Coastal Angler Magazine" which offers a monthly print publication through a uniform system consisting of editorial compilation, advertising sales, circulation formulas and promotional endeavors under a branded business format. Franchises in operation are nationwide and internationally with concentrations in Florida, the Gulf Coast, East Coast and Great Lakes regions.

The Company receives royalties from its franchisees of 8% of franchisee's gross revenues. The Company also has the right to receive 2% of gross receipts from franchisees to provide national advertising and promotion for the benefit of the franchisees.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting whereby all revenues are recorded when earned and all expenses are recorded when incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results and outcomes could differ from those estimates and assumptions. On an ongoing basis, management reviews its estimates based on currently available information. Changes in facts and circumstances could result in revised estimates and assumptions.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from publication sales upon shipment to end-user franchisees. Revenues are recorded when printed magazines are shipped with shipping terms of FOB shipping point. Income from royalties and national advertising fees are recognized monthly as earned.

Franchise, transfer and upgrade fees are recorded as income upon completion of all performance obligations of the company under the franchise license agreement. The following performance obligations have been identified in connection with the franchise license agreement: full use of the service marks, trademarks, franchise system, etc. for a period no shorter than 10 years, distributing franchise material and training franchise personnel.

There was no revenue from barter transactions involving the exchange of advertising in the magazine for the year ended December 31, 2021.

Printing, Shipping, and Handling Costs

The Company includes printing production, shipping, and freight costs in cost of operations. Franchisees are billed for their portion of these costs based on the number of pages and number of copies of the local magazine. These amounts are offset against the printing, shipping and freight expense included in costs of operations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

All highly liquid investments with an original maturity of 90 days or less at the time of purchase are considered to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair value.

NOTE A - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded at the original invoice amount less an estimate made for doubtful accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based on the Company's historical losses, the existing economic conditions in the industry, and the financial stability of its customers. Accounts receivable are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts receivable previously written off are recorded when received. There was no allowance for doubtful accounts at December 31, 2021.

Inventory

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out method) or market.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed principally by accelerated and straight-line methods and based on the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Repairs and maintenance is expensed when incurred.

Assets	Years
Vehicles and equipment	5 - 10
Furniture and fixtures	7
Computer equipment	5 - 10

Income Taxes

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective bases, and to net operating loss carry forwards, measured by enacted tax rates for years in which taxes are expected to be paid or recovered.

The Company has no uncertain tax positions that it has taken and believes that it can defend its tax return in any jurisdiction. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S., federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2018.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments as of December 31, 2021, do not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying balance sheet.

Concentration of Risk

The Company maintains a deposit in a financial institution that at times may exceed amounts covered by insurance provided by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The Company believes there isn't a significant risk with respect to these deposits. The Company has not experienced any losses on its deposits with financial institutions.

NOTE H - FASB ASC 606 NEW ACCOUNTING GUIDANCE ADOPTION:

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued new guidance that created Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, in the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Topic 606 supersedes the revenue recognition requirements in FASB ASC 605, Revenue Recognition, and requires the recognition of revenue when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The new guidance also added Subtopic 340-40, Other Assets and Deferred Costs-Contracts with Customers, to the ASC to require the deferral of incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer. Collectively, we refer to the new Topic 606 and Subtopic 340-40 as the "new guidance." We adopted the requirements of the new guidance as of January 1, 2019.
