What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit E.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by arbitration and/or litigation only in Illinois. Out-of-state arbitration or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to arbitrate or litigate with the franchisor in Illinois than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS APPLY ONLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, of the franchisor to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENFORCEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Item 1

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this disclosure document, “we,” “us” or “our” means Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C., the franchisor. “You” means the entity acquiring a franchise. One or more of the owners of a Controlling Ownership Interest (defined in Item 15) in you who we specify must sign the Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations, which means that all provisions of the Franchise Agreement (Exhibit C) also will apply to those owners. We expect that only entities, and not individuals, will acquire our franchises.

Our Company History and Parent

We incorporated in Delaware as Hyatt Franchise Corporation and converted under Delaware law to Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company. This change in form did not affect our existence as an operating business entity. Our principal business address is 150 North Riverside Plaza, Chicago, Illinois 60606. If we have an agent for service of process in your state, we disclose that agent in Exhibit E. We do business only under our company name and the Proprietary Marks (defined below). We have never operated Brand Hotels (defined below), but some of our affiliates do. We have no predecessors and no business activities that are not described here. Our parent company is Hyatt Hotels Corporation, whose principal business address is the same as our address.

We have offered franchises for Brand Hotels since June 2016. We have offered franchises for full service, lifestyle hotels under the Hyatt Centric® brand since February 2015. We offered franchises for full service hotels under the Hyatt Regency® name from December 1994 until April 1997 and have again offered those franchises since September 2006. We offered franchises for full service hotels under the Hyatt® name (without a sub-brand) from December 1994 until April 1997 and again from September 2006 until January 2015. We began offering franchises for “lifestyle” hotels operating in the United States under the brand names “Destination®” and “joie de vivre®” (also referred to as “JDV®”) in May 2019 and under the brand name “Caption by Hyatt” in September 2019. We now refer to these brands as “Destination by Hyatt™”, “JdV by Hyatt™” and “Caption by Hyatt” respectively.

We have never offered franchises in any other line of business.

Franchise Rights for Brand Hotels

We grant franchises for, and some of our affiliates operate, Brand Hotels. A “Brand Hotel” is a hotel that (a) offers multiple rooms for overnight accommodation by transient guests from a single building or a series of inter-connected buildings on one property; (b) operates under a separate tradename that the hotel’s owner owns but also affiliates all of the rooms at that building or series of buildings with “The Unbound Collection by Hyatt” brand and other Proprietary Marks; and (c) operates under the Hotel System (defined below). A Brand Hotel does not include any hospitality affiliations which are affiliated with “The Unbound Collection by Hyatt” brand where providing lodging to transient guests is not their primary function, such as safaris and theme parks, even if there is a hotel offering rooms for overnight accommodation by transient guests which is associated with that hospitality affiliation. We expect Brand Hotels to be unique properties that reflect the nature of their local market. We call the Brand Hotel that you will operate under the Franchise Agreement your “Hotel” and the tradename that you own under which the Hotel will operate the “Tradename.” You will operate the Hotel only from the location we approve before signing the Franchise Agreement.

The “Hotel System” means the concept and system associated with the establishment and operation of Brand Hotels, as we periodically modify it. The Hotel System now includes: (a) the trade names, trademarks, and service marks “Unbound Collection by Hyatt®” and other trade names, trademarks, service marks, logos, slogans, trade dress, domain names, and other source and origin designations (including all derivatives) that we or our affiliate periodically develops and we periodically designate for use with the Hotel System (collectively, the “Proprietary Marks”); (b) all copyrightable materials that we or our affiliate periodically develops and we periodically designate for use with the Hotel System, including the manuals, electronic media, marketing materials (including advertising, marketing, promotional, and public relations materials), architectural drawings (including the Design and Construction Standards (defined below), and all architectural plans, designs, and layouts, such as site, floor, plumbing, lobby, electrical, and landscape plans), building designs, and business and marketing plans, whether or not registered with the U.S. Copyright Office (collectively, the “Copyrighted Materials”); (c) all Confidential Information (defined in Item 14); (d) the standards that Hyatt periodically prescribes detailing certain design criteria to be incorporated into the design and layout of the Hotel, and Hyatt’s minimum standards for engineering and construction of newly constructed, renovated, or adapted Brand Hotels, all as Hyatt determines them (the “Design and Construction Standards”), as set forth in Exhibit D; (e) the central reservations system and related services for Brand Hotels, as we may periodically modify it (“CRS”); (f) the global distribution systems (“GDS”) and the online travel agencies and other alternative distribution systems (“ADS”) that we periodically authorize or require for the Hotel and other similarly situated Brand Hotels, subject to Reasonable Deviations (defined in Item 8); (g) management, personnel, and operational training programs, materials, and procedures; (h) standards, specifications, procedures, and rules for operations, marketing, construction, equipment, furnishings, and quality assurance that we implement and may periodically modify for Brand Hotels (collectively, “System Standards”) we describe in our confidential manuals, as we periodically amend them, or in other written or electronic communications; (i) marketing, advertising, and promotional programs; and (j) Mandatory Services and Non-Mandatory Services (each defined in Item 6).

Before signing the Franchise Agreement, and while you apply for franchise rights, you must submit the Franchise Application (Exhibit B) through our online portal and pay the Application Fee (defined in Item 5). We will refund the Application Fee less a fee to cover our costs if you withdraw your franchise application before we approve it or if we do not approve it. During your evaluation process, and before receiving any Confidential Information, you must sign the Confidentiality Agreement (Exhibit G) (the “Confidentiality Agreement”). Because we may engage in negotiations with you and other franchisees, you may sign a Franchise Agreement with us that differs significantly from the agreements that other franchisees sign for Brand Hotels.

Competition and the Market

The hotel market is well-established and highly competitive. Brand Hotels compete with other national full service hotel systems and with regional and local hotels that offer comparable services and lodging products. Brand Hotels will target both corporate business travelers and leisure travelers. Some competitors of Brand Hotels may be larger, may operate more hotels and may have greater resources than we do. Other competitive factors include room rates, quality of accommodations, name recognition, service levels, geographic area, site location, general economic conditions and your management capabilities.

Our Affiliates Who Supply the Franchise Network or Offer Franchises

The following companies are our affiliates who currently provide products or services to Brand Hotel franchisees.

Industry-Specific Regulations

You must comply with a number of federal, state and local laws that apply generally to establishing and operating hotel businesses. The laws involve, among other things, zoning and construction, public accommodations, accessibility by persons with disabilities, health and safety, and labor. Many laws vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. You must learn about and comply with all applicable laws. Examples of these laws include:

Health & Sanitation. Most states have regulations or statutes governing the lodging business and related services. Many state and local authorities require lodging businesses to obtain licenses to assure compliance with health and sanitation codes. Health-related laws may affect the use of linens, towels and glassware, among other things.

Alcoholic Beverages. Alcoholic beverage service in a Brand Hotel is subject to extensive regulations and licensing governing virtually all aspects of the beverage service.

Facility Operations. Lodging facilities must comply with innkeepers' laws that, among other things, might (i) allow innkeepers under certain circumstances to impose liens against the possessions of guests who do not pay their bills; (ii) limit the liability of innkeepers regarding guests' valuables; (iii) require posting of house rules and room rates in each room or near the registration area; (iv) require registration of guests and proof of identity at check-in, and retention of records for a specified period of time; (v) limit the rights of innkeepers to refuse lodging to certain guests; and (vi) limit innkeepers' rights to evict guests under certain circumstances. Applicable federal and state civil rights laws prohibit discrimination in hotels on the basis of race, creed, color or national origin. Some states prohibit “overbooking” and require innkeepers to find other accommodations if the guest has paid a deposit. Some states and municipalities also have enacted laws and regulations governing non-smoking areas and guest rooms.

Persons with Disabilities. The Accessibility Laws, which include the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) and all other laws, rules, regulations and ordinances governing accommodations for or relationships with persons with disabilities or similar individuals, as periodically in effect, require (among other things) that public accommodations, including hotels, (i) offer facilities without discriminating against persons with disabilities; (ii) offer auxiliary aids and services to enable a person with a disability to use and enjoy the establishment's goods or services if doing so is not unduly burdensome or disruptive to business; and (iii) remove barriers to mobility or communication to the extent readily achievable. The U.S. Department of Justice has published “accessibility guidelines” (“ADAAG”) that specify, among other things, a minimum number of handicapped-accessible rooms, assistance devices for hearing, speech, and visually impaired persons, and general design standards that apply to all areas of facilities. Under the ADA, all new public accommodations and commercial facilities must be “readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities,” unless it would be structurally impractical to do so. Alterations of existing facilities also might need to comply with the ADA and ADAAG. In addition, many states and municipalities have their own laws and regulations addressing disability discrimination, access requirements, building modifications and alterations and building code requirements.

Fire Safety. The Hotel and Motel Safety Act of 1990 (the “Safety Act”) encourages public accommodations to install hard wired single-station smoke detectors. Certain travel directories include only those facilities that comply with the Safety Act. Other state and local fire and life safety codes might require maps, lighting systems and other safety measures unique to lodging facilities.

OSHA Regulations. Like many other businesses, lodging facilities are subject to Occupational Safety and Health Administration (“OSHA”) standards. State occupational safety laws and rules may also apply.

Telephone Charges. Federal, state and local laws and regulations affect the re-offering of local, intrastate, and long distance telephone service in hotel guest rooms and at coin box telephones. Some states regulate or prohibit surcharges on local and intrastate calls.

In addition to these laws, you must also comply with laws that apply generally to all businesses. You should investigate these laws.

INITIAL FEES

Application Fee

You will pay us a lump-sum application fee (the “Application Fee”) when you submit the Franchise Application through our online portal. The Application Fee is $100,000 or $300 per guest room in the Hotel, whichever is greater. If you withdraw your Franchise Application before we approve it, or if we do not approve your Franchise Application for any reason, then we will refund your Application Fee less a $10,000 fee to cover our costs for evaluating your application. After we approve your Franchise Application, the Application Fee is not refundable, even if we and you do not sign a Franchise Agreement. If you and we agree to add any guest rooms to the Hotel before the Hotel opens, then you must pay us, when we approve the additional guest rooms, an additional non-refundable Application Fee of $300 multiplied by the number of additional guest rooms at the Hotel.

Comfort Letter Fee

You must obtain a comfort letter or similar agreement, the current form of which is attached as Exhibit K, that we reasonably specify from each lender, each ground lessor (if applicable), the owner of fee simple title to the Hotel’s real property or building and improvements (if you are not that owner), and each other entity with an interest (or any power or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire an interest) in the Hotel’s real property or building and improvements (each a “Comfort Letter Party”). Under this comfort letter or similar agreement, the Comfort Letter Party agrees (among other things) to assume your obligations under the Franchise Agreement (subject to our rights under the Franchise Agreement) if the Comfort Letter Party or any of its affiliates acquires title or otherwise assumes possession, or the right to sell or direct the disposition of, the Hotel’s real property or building and improvements. You must pay our then applicable, non-refundable comfort letter fee, which currently is $2,500, for each comfort letter that we negotiate relating to the Hotel.

Consulting Services

At your option, you may ask Rosemont, our affiliate, to assist you with pre-opening consulting services for the Hotel. Rosemont’s fees for this optional assistance would range from $45,000 to $215,000, depending on how much and what kind of assistance you ask Rosemont to provide.

IT Project Management Services

We will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide IT Project Management Services, which are described in Exhibit E of the Franchise Agreement, in connection with the opening of the Hotel (“IT Project Management Services”). Our performance is dependent on your timely, accurate, and effective performance of all responsibilities set forth in Exhibit E to the Franchise Agreement. These services include blueprint review and IT project management and planning and installation, configuration and training services for Hyatt proprietary systems. You must pay us a non-refundable fee in the amount of $69,900 plus reimbursement of our or our affiliate’s reasonable expenses in rendering the IT Project Management Services, including any necessary transportation, lodging and meals (which we anticipate will range from $10,000 to $16,000), plus applicable taxes thereon. The IT Project Management Services Fee (including expenses) will be invoiced by us no earlier than: (a) our completion of a IT Project Management Services or (b) upon your termination of the Hotel development project or the IT Project Management Services, for any reason, in either event regardless of whether we have approved the Hotel for opening.

Additional Pre-Opening Advisory Services

You may request additional guidance, services or assistance during the Pre-Opening Period concerning the development, construction, or inspection and approval process that is beyond what we typically provide to similarly situated Brand Hotels. If we agree to provide this additional guidance and advice (for example, making more than a reasonable number of visits to the Hotel during the development and construction period), then you must pay our then current fees for our services. The costs of these fees will vary depending on the additional guidance or service you request, but we estimate that you may pay between $0 and $450,000 for additional services or guidance before the Hotels opens.

Pre-Opening Training Fees and Expenses

In connection with the Hotel opening, we will provide training to the Hotel staff on brand standards and related issues. We may conduct training via remote learning, or in person (in one or more visits to the Hotel), or both, as we determine in our sole discretion. We currently estimate that these fees will range from $12,950 to $31,950. You must pay these amounts upon receiving our invoice and before the pre-opening team arrives at the Hotel. You also must pay us and our affiliates for many of the different training programs that we offer to Hotel personnel. These fees and expenses will vary depending on how many people attend each particular training program, how much training they need, and where we conduct training. You must pay the travel and living expenses associated with any brand standards training we provide on site at the Hotel, if any. We currently expect these training expenses (including reimbursement of our expenses) will range from $87,000 to $194,000.

Extension Fee

If you are constructing a new Hotel, you must start and complete construction and open the Hotel, according to the timetables referenced in the Franchise Agreement. We may terminate the Franchise Agreement if you fail to meet the required timetable. You may request one or more extensions of time by giving us written notice and paying a $10,000 "Extension Fee." We will inform you of the length of the extension if and when we grant it. We will refund the Extension Fee only if we deny the extension.

Design Services Review

If you are constructing a new Brand Hotel or adapting a non-hotel space for use as a Brand Hotel, then you will also pay a Design Services Review Fee. The amount of the fee will vary depending on the size and location of the project and the scope of Hyatt's review, but we expect the Design Services Review Fees payable under the Franchise Agreement to range from $75,000 to $160,000.

Field Marketing Program

Three to 6 months prior to the opening of your Hotel, you may elect to receive from the Hyatt Group certain centralized resources to guide and support local integrated marketing for hotels that leverage the expertise of a designated field marketing team for a fee (which may contain a profit component, not to exceed a competitive amount), pursuant to a Field Marketing Program Opt-In Agreement (Exhibit L) (the “Field Marketing Program Opt-In Agreement”). Inclusions and deliverables vary by service level, and may include management of local digital marketing, regional marketing campaigns, website management, social media consultation, local promotion creation and execution, and brand activations. The total amount you may pay us for pre-opening field marketing services ranges from $0 to $13,250.

Revenue Optimization Services

You may elect to begin receiving certain revenue optimization services for your Hotel before the Hotel begins operating under the Proprietary Marks under our Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services (Exhibit I). Depending on some factors concerning your (or your approved management company’s) experience, we may in some situations require you to sign our Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services and receive revenue services from us. If you sign the Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services, then we will provide specialized central revenue optimization services on a daily, weekly, monthly, and annual basis to assist you in a variety of essential Hotel functions, including resource planning, inventory controls, market segmentation, and industry and competitor analyses for the Hotel (as more specifically described in Exhibit I). The current, non-refundable monthly subscription fee due under the Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services is dependent upon the service tier level then in effect: for “Essential” Tier Level: $825 per month for calendar months preceding the Opening Month (if applicable) and $1,650 per month from and after the Opening Month; and for the “Premium” Tier Level: $2,475 per month for calendar months preceding the Opening Month (if applicable) and $3,300 per month from and after the Opening Month. “Opening Month” means the calendar month in which the Hotel first opens to the public as a Hyatt branded or affiliated hotel, but if that date occurs after the 16th day of the month, then the “Opening Month” is the immediately following calendar month. We would provide services under the Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services for up to 90 days before the anticipated or scheduled opening date of the Hotel for the “Essential” service tier level or for up to 120 days before the anticipated or scheduled opening date of the Hotel for the “Premium” service tier level. You must pay these amounts within 30 days after you receive each invoice for services rendered and expenses incurred during the previous month. The total amount you may pay us for pre-opening revenue optimization services ranges from $0 to $9,900. We also reserve the right to charge you for reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred by us, including for transportation and related expenses, printing, photocopying, postage, and delivery services. We may periodically increase these fees at any time upon 30 days’ written notice to you, but we may not increase these fees by more than 10% per calendar year. These payments are not refundable.

Refundability and Range of Initial Fees

Except as we describe above concerning the Application Fee and Extension Fee, none of these payments are refundable under any circumstances. In addition, other than the Application

Fee, Extension Fee and Comfort Letter Fee, all of the ranges of initial fees described in this Item 5 reflect the current fees for services rendered and depending on when the Hotel is developed or remodeled, may be higher in subsequent years. During our 2021 fiscal year, franchisees signing our Franchise Agreement paid, or made commitments to pay, total initial fees as described in this Item 5 to us and/or our affiliates ranging from $72,300 to $182,920.

Item 6

OTHER FEES

We group the ongoing fees that you will pay to us and other companies in the Hyatt Group when operating the Hotel into 3 categories. The first category includes the fees that the Franchise Agreement specifies. Except as described below, these fees are typically imposed and collected by and payable to us. The second category includes the fees for those System Services that we typically classify as Mandatory Services for Brand Hotels. The third category includes the fees for those System Services that we typically classify as Non-Mandatory Services for Brand Hotels, if those Brand Hotels decide to acquire those Non-Mandatory Services. Depending on the particular circumstances of the Hotel, including its size, location and market positioning, we may reclassify some of the Mandatory Services listed below as Non-Mandatory Services and may reclassify some of the Non-Mandatory Services listed below as Mandatory Services for the Hotel. The fees in the second and third group are typically imposed and collected by and payable to Hyatt Corporation. At times we may collect amounts on behalf of our affiliates for services that they provide to franchisees. This Item does not cover the ongoing fees or payments relating to the Hotel’s operation that you pay directly to third parties.

Except for the transfer fee, all fees are non-refundable. In some cases we might negotiate some of the fees that some franchisees will pay, such as franchisees agreeing to develop multiple Brand Hotels or acquiring existing Brand Hotels. Otherwise, except as described below, all fees are uniform or are calculated on a uniform basis. There currently are no franchisee advertising cooperatives in the Brand Hotel network.

Fees Under the Franchise Agreement

You will pay these fees to us under the Franchise Agreement.

System Services, System Services Costs, and System Services Charges

If you are in full compliance with your obligations under the Franchise Agreement, one or more members of the Hyatt Group will provide you those System Services we periodically specify. You must participate in all Mandatory Services and related programs, and may (at your option) participate in any or all Non-Mandatory Services and related programs, in the manner that we periodically specify. "System Services" means those services that the Hyatt Group generally and periodically makes available on a central, regional, or other shared or group basis (whether in whole or in part) to those Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels that the Hyatt Group reasonably determines will be provided those services. We categorize System Services as either Mandatory Services or Non-Mandatory Services. "Mandatory Services" means those mandatory System Services that one or more members of the Hyatt Group provides to the Hotel and certain other Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels that the Hyatt Group reasonably determines must acquire those Mandatory Services only from the Hyatt Group. "Non-Mandatory Services" means those non-mandatory System Services that one or more members of the Hyatt Group provides to the Hotel and certain other Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels that the Hyatt Group reasonably determines will be offered the option, but will not be required to acquire those Non-Mandatory Services from the Hyatt Group.

We may periodically add to, delete from, and otherwise modify System Services, the scope of and manner of providing System Services, upon written notice to you. “System Services Costs” means, for the System Services in which the Hotel participates (or is required to participate), all costs that the Hyatt Group actually incurs or properly accrues during the period of determination in providing those System Services, including out-of-pocket expenses, costs for employees, occupancy costs, capital costs, administrative expenses, carrying costs and other costs. Any allocation of shared costs that the Hyatt Group makes in good faith and with the intention of fairly allocating those costs to System Services is binding on us and you. The Hyatt Group may vary these allocations depending on, among other things, the specific brand, size or market positioning of the Hotel. System Services Costs include the actual costs that the Hyatt Group incurs and are not subject to any mark-up, premium or profit on any Mandatory Services, but may include a profit or mark-up component on Non-Mandatory Services.

“System Services Charges” means the amounts that the Hyatt Group charges the Hotel, and you will pay, for the Hotel’s equitably allocable share of the System Services Costs attributable to the System Services in which the Hotel participates (or is obligated to participate), as the Hyatt Group periodically determines them. The Hyatt Group determines System Services Charges on the same basis as it determines those amounts for other Brand Hotels and Hyatt Network Hotels that are similarly situated with the Hotel (subject to Reasonable Deviations (as defined in Item 8) and that participate in those System Services in the same manner (collectively, “Participating Hotels”). The Hyatt Group may in its reasonable discretion periodically change its method of allocation of the System Services Costs among Participating Hotels, and the categories of Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels that are classified as Participating Hotels, but will at all times determine the method of allocation and categories of Participating Hotels on a reasonable, equitable and non-discriminatory basis.

Current System Services Charges for Mandatory Services

The following reflects the current System Services Charges for the current Mandatory Services. These amounts are estimates, and may change over time and/or as our and the Hyatt Group’s costs of providing Mandatory Services changes.

In addition to any sales, use and other taxes that applicable law requires or permits us to collect from you for providing goods or services under the Franchise Agreement, you must pay us all federal, state, local or foreign (a) sales, use, excise, privilege, occupation or any other transactional taxes, and (b) other taxes or similar exactions, no matter how designated, that are imposed on us or that we are required to withhold relating to the receipt or accrual of Royalty Fees or any other amounts you pay us under the Franchise Agreement, excluding only taxes imposed on us for the privilege of conducting business and calculated based on our net income, capital, net worth, gross receipts, or some other basis or combination of those factors, but not excluding any gross receipts taxes imposed on us or our affiliates for your payments intended to reimburse us or our affiliates for expenditures incurred for your benefit and on your behalf. You must make these additional required payments in an amount necessary to provide us with after-tax receipts (taking into account any additional required payments) equal to the same amounts that we would have received if the additional tax liability or withholding had not been imposed or required.

Explanatory Notes to All Charts

1. Gross Rooms Revenue and Hyatt Channels. “Gross Rooms Revenue” is determined in accordance with the Uniform System of Accounts for the Lodging Industry, Eleventh Edition, as published by the Educational Institute of the American Hotel and Motel Association, 2014, or a later edition that we approve.

The Royalty Fee is payable only on the subset of Gross Rooms Revenue that is generated through the Hyatt Channels. “Hyatt Channels” means all reservation channels and other means for booking Hotel reservations or guest stays at the Hotel that we or our affiliate periodically administers or controls (directly or through third parties) on behalf of or for the benefit of the Hotel and some or all other Hyatt Network Hotels, as (in our sole judgment) we may periodically modify and determine them. Hyatt Channels may include, for example, reservations placed on the Hotel System Website, reservations placed on any Hotel-Specific Website (which must be directed through the Hotel System Website), cross-booking at Hyatt Network Hotels, reservations placed using the Hyatt Global Property and Guest Services, and GDS.

2. Electronic Payments. You must make all payments for Royalty Fees, System Services Charges and other amounts due to us or any member of the Hyatt Group under the Franchise Agreement or relating to the Hotel by electronic funds transfer (“EFT”) in compliance with System Standards. We periodically may change the procedure for payments. You must make funds available in your account to cover payments when due. You may not change your bank, financial institution, or account used in the operation of the Hotel without first telling us.

3. World of Hyatt Program. Brand Hotels must participate in, and pay all charges related to, the Hyatt Group’s frequent guest loyalty program (the “Loyalty Program”), called the “World of Hyatt” program. The Hyatt Group assesses each Participating Hotel and certain other hotels an amount in the Hyatt Group’s discretion to operate the Loyalty Program, which amount may change periodically. The assessment for each Participating Hotel (including the Hotel) is currently 4.5% of all eligible revenue generated at that hotel from members of the program (excluding applicable taxes) who provide their World of Hyatt member number when booking or 2.25% of that eligible revenue when a guest is enrolled on-property in World of Hyatt for that enrolling stay.

Under separate contractual arrangements, the following companies participate in alliances with the World of Hyatt program: (i) MGM Resorts International Operations, Inc.; (ii) the master licensee for Hyatt Residence Club, our shared ownership brand; (iii) HyCard, Inc., our affiliate (in relation with JPMorgan Chase Bank, the issuing company of the World of Hyatt credit cards); (iv) Small Luxury Hotels of the World; (v) American Airlines; (vi) Lindblad Expeditions, LLC; and (vii) Headspace, Inc. The Hyatt Group may allocate assessments for these programs at different rates than those applied to Brand Hotels, given the difference in the products and services being offered to Loyalty Program members. Owners of Participating Hotels bear no cost from including these programs in the Loyalty Program. The Hyatt Group also may agree to other similar partner or co-branding arrangements in the future.

Currently, the Hyatt Group deposits all funds that it collects for the Loyalty Program (including sales of points and other related fees) into segregated accounts and invests a portion of the funds in various investment securities (primarily fixed income) that independent investment managers manage. These funds are designated to fund the Loyalty Program obligations, including all marketing and administrative costs, and current and future award redemptions. The Hyatt Group may periodically change the method of funding the Loyalty Program, the assessment methodology and other program attributes. An independent accounting firm audits the Loyalty Program on an annual basis and we will make copies of the audit reports available upon request. We may periodically change the assessment methodology and other program attributes in the future.

The Hyatt Group also has contractual arrangements with participating airlines under which Participating Hotel guests may choose to receive airline miles, in lieu of Loyalty Program points, as a result of their stay. The Participating Hotel must pay the actual cost of those miles that the airline charges to the Hyatt Group. Guests choosing airline miles for a stay at a Participating Hotel are not entitled to Loyalty Program points for that stay.

4. Quality Assurance. The Hotel must participate in quality assurance, compliance and guest satisfaction programs that we periodically develop and modify (collectively, the “Quality Assurance Program”). You must pay your allocable share of all fees and other costs associated with the Quality Assurance Program. Our representatives may inspect or audit the Hotel at any time, with or without notice to you, to determine whether you and the Hotel are complying with the Hotel System, System Standards, and the terms of the Franchise Agreement, and you will give them free lodging (subject to availability) during the inspection period. If we determine that the Hotel is not complying with the Hotel System, System Standards, or any other Franchise Agreement provisions, then you will pay or bear the cost of the Hotel’s allocable share of all fees and other costs associated with the Quality Assurance Program to correct the non-compliance. This includes (a) reimbursing our costs related to your non-compliance, such as fees, travel and living expenses, guest satisfaction payments or expenses, and other costs for administering any necessary actions, follow-up inspections, audits or re-evaluation visits until you have fully corrected the non-compliance, and (b) paying for meetings and additional brand standard training programs that we specify and require your personnel to attend relating to your non-compliance. These amounts will vary depending on the extent of your non-compliance and may increase if our costs increase. We currently cover the costs of on-site quality assurance inspections (approximately $500 to $1,700 per inspection) but we may require you to pay for those inspections in the future. You must also pay $500 to $1,700 per re-inspection and you must reverse the folio charge for the inspection company. Currently, we impose the following fees if the Hotel is placed in Focused Improvement Policy protocols as a result of QA scores below requirements: (i) FIP Stage 1 - $5,000 administrative fee; (ii) Stage 2 - $15,000 administrative fee; (iii) Stage 3 - $20,000 administrative fee; (iv) room audit fees ranging from $1,000 (FIP Level 1 only) to $3,000 (FIP Levels 1-3); and (v) the costs of our personnel’s travel, lodging and expenses for standards training and room audits.

5. Liquidated Damages. The amount of liquidated damages you must pay us if the Franchise Agreement terminates varies depending on when the Franchise Agreement terminates. Upon termination of the Franchise Agreement before the term expires for any reason (subject to Article X of the Franchise Agreement), you must pay us, within 15 days after the date of such termination, liquidated damages in a lump sum equal to (a) the lesser of 60 or the number of months then remaining in the Franchise Agreement term had it not been terminated, multiplied by (b) the sum of (i) the Average Monthly Revenue (for Gross Rooms Revenue) times 3.5%, plus (ii) the Average Monthly Revenue (for Gross Rooms Revenue generated through Hyatt Channels) times 7%. “Average Monthly Revenue” means (i) if, as of the effective date of termination, at least 60 months have elapsed since the Hotel’s opening date, the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue of the Hotel during the 12 full calendar months preceding the month of termination; or (ii) if, as of the effective date of termination, the Hotel’s opening date has not yet occurred, the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue per available guest room for all Brand Hotels in the United States (including those that we and our affiliates own, manage and franchise) during the 12 full calendar months preceding the month of termination, multiplied by the number of guest rooms approved for the Hotel; or (iii) if, as of the effective date of termination, the Hotel's opening date has occurred but less than 60 months have elapsed since the Hotel's opening date, either (a) the amount determined under part (ii) above or (b) the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue of the Hotel during the period from the Hotel's opening date until the effective date of termination, whichever of (a) or (b) is greater.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if "Average Monthly Revenues" as determined pursuant to any part of (i) through (iii) above has been materially and negatively impacted during the preceding 12 full calendar month period by a disruption in Hotel operations resulting from Force Majeure, casualty, suspension of operations (whether or not consented to by us), renovation of the Hotel, or any other similar circumstances, "Average Monthly Revenue" will be determined by reference to the most recent 12 full calendar month period preceding termination, during which the Hotel performance was not so impacted.

If we or you terminate the Franchise Agreement because of a Consequential Termination, then the liquidated damages are 150% of the amount calculated above. A "Consequential Termination" occurs if (1) the Franchise Agreement's termination involves a transfer of the Hotel or its assets, or a direct or indirect Controlling Ownership Interest in you, to a Competitor (defined below); or (2) there are 3 or more franchise agreements for Hyatt-Related Full Service Brand (defined below) hotels with you or your affiliates (including the Franchise Agreement) that we (or our affiliate) terminate because of your (or your affiliate's) default or you (or your affiliates) terminate in breach of the agreement. A "Hyatt-Related Full Service Brand" means any brand under which or in affiliation with which full service Hyatt Network Hotel operates. A "Competitor" is any entity that owns, franchises and/or manages, or is an affiliate of any entity that owns, franchises and/or manages, a full service (i.e., typically offers to hotel guests 3 meals per day) hotel brand, trade name or service mark for a system of at least 4 hotels with an average daily room rate for all or substantially all of the hotels in the U.S. during the then most recent full calendar year that is at least 60% of the average daily room rate for Hyatt Brand Hotels.

If a governmental agency or other authority condemns or takes by eminent domain or expropriation, all or a substantial portion of the Hotel, and we and you do not agree to terms for relocating the Hotel, then either we or you may terminate the Franchise Agreement. If you and your owners sign our then current form of termination agreement and a general release, in a form satisfactory to us (together, a "Termination Agreement"), then you need not pay us liquidated damages when the Franchise Agreement terminates. The Termination Agreement will provide that if you or your affiliate begins construction on or operation of a new full service hotel at any location within the Area of Protection during the 24-month period following the termination, other than a Hyatt Network Hotel or a hotel that was already under contract to be developed at that particular location within the Area of Protection on the date that the Termination Agreement is signed, then you must pay us liquidated damages of $6,500 multiplied by the number of guest rooms at that new full service hotel. If you and your owners do not sign a Termination Agreement, then you must pay us liquidated damages when the Franchise Agreement terminates.

If the Hotel is damaged by fire, flood, accident, hurricane or other casualty, you must notify us immediately. If the cost to repair the damage is less than or equal to the greater of (a) 60% of the market value of the Hotel immediately prior to the casualty, or (b) the amount of insurance proceeds made available to you in connection with the casualty (“Damage Threshold”), then you must repair the damage promptly according to the System Standards and the Franchise Agreement’s other terms and conditions. If the damage or repair requires you to close all or any portion of the Hotel, then you must commence reconstruction as soon as practicable (but in any event within 4 months) after closing the Hotel and reopen for continuous business operations as a Brand Hotel as soon as practicable (but in any event within 24 months) after closing the Hotel, but not without complying with the Franchise Agreement’s other terms and conditions. The Term will be extended for the period of time during which the Hotel is closed, and you need not make any payments of Royalty Fees or System Services Charges while the Hotel is closed unless you receive insurance proceeds compensating you for lost Gross Rooms Revenue during such period.

6. Commercial Services Fee. The “Commercial Services Fee” currently covers the costs for the following commercial services that the Hyatt Group makes available to the Hotel and other Participating Hotels (the “Commercial Services”):

- (a) brand-wide marketing, advertising, public relations, and guest satisfaction program management and research for the Hotel;
- (b) Global Property and Guest Services which provide, among other things, centralized reservation services (including the services and charges for the base reservation fee which applies regardless of channel, and certain additional reservation fees based on channels) and care professionals supporting the business by enhancing the guest experience;
- (c) revenue management technology, including the Hyatt Group’s proprietary PRIO revenue management system, and advisory and support services, such as pricing strategy across channels and on-going training, support, and tools for pricing and inventory applications;
- (d) group sales support, including lead generation from Hyatt Group’s global and regional sales offices, account management, and account development, and transient and luxury sales promotion services (including Consortia);
- (e) sales and catering system services, including account management, booking pipeline management, and analysis through Envision Lite, with additional group and event management services through Envision Pro;
- (f) property management system services, including Opera PMS, web-in/web-out and hosting, and interface file, maintenance, and support;
- (g) the Hyatt Group’s digital product technology and infrastructure including Hyatt.com and the mobile app; and

(h) other technology services, including e-learning, e-mail, HyattConnect, SharePoint, identity access management, ServiceNow, in-room technology, and network access.

The Hyatt Group may periodically change the benefits and services currently included as Commercial Services and the charges and fees for those benefits and services. The Hyatt Group may adopt other methodologies for fees and charges related to chain-wide programs to Participating Hotels, including segregation by brand, geographic location, or other criteria that the Hyatt Group deems appropriate in its discretion. The Hyatt Group may periodically allocate the Commercial Services Fee as a fixed charge, percentage charge, direct billback, or any other combination of multiple allocation methodologies. The Hyatt Group may spend in any year more or less than the total Commercial Services Fee contributions in that year, but will use all Commercial Services Fees collected for Commercial Services.

7. Digital Acquisition Fee. We currently charge the Hotel and other Participating Hotels the “Digital Acquisition Fee” to help drive bookings through the Hyatt Group’s online direct booking channels (the “Digital Channels”). The Digital Channels currently are the Hotel System Website and any Hyatt-branded website or mobile app (such as the World of Hyatt app). You must pay the Digital Acquisition Fee on the subset of Gross Rooms Revenue resulting from reservations that are generated through the Digital Channels, whether directly or via a link from another platform, such as a search engine advertisement, social media page, or any Franchisee Organization Website. We may, in our sole judgment and subject to change, exclude certain types of bookings that originate through Digital Channels for purposes of calculating the Digital Acquisition Fee and certain portions of Gross Rooms Revenue that is generated through the Digital Channels, such as the Upsell Revenue (defined below). Digital Channels does not include reservations placed through external sources, such as online travel agencies (e.g., priceline.com and expedia.com) or through Hyatt-managed channels that are not digital in nature, such as reservations placed via telephone calls to our global property and guest services.

8. GDS and Other Reservations Services. In addition to the central reservations center, the costs of which the Hyatt Group allocates to each Participating Hotel as part of the Commercial Services Fee, GDSs accept reservations for Participating Hotels and confirm the reservations with the Hyatt Group through the central reservations center. The Hyatt Group incurs a reservations fee for each reservation that these supplemental reservations systems accept, which currently averages approximately $8.85 per reservation, and the Hyatt Group passes on the charge to the hotel receiving the reservation at cost without imposing a markup or receiving a profit.

The Commercial Services Fee and these other reservation services fees include some of the current charges from providers of products or services for the Hotel, including the then current CRS operator (if applicable), the then current GDS and ADS operators (if applicable), and other suppliers to the Hotel, which may include us and/or our affiliates (collectively, “Providers”), that we currently collect from franchisees and pay (on their behalf) to the Providers. If any Provider assesses a single or group fee or other charge that covers all or a group of Brand Hotels or other Hyatt Network Hotels to which that Provider provides products or services, then our calculation of that fee or other charge among the Hotel and other Participating Hotels is final. The Providers may periodically increase the fees and other charges they impose. At our option, you must begin paying these fees and other charges directly to the applicable Provider(s).

9. Mandatory Contracts. The Hyatt Group periodically enters into relationships with vendors or providers of services that require mandatory participation by all or certain subsets of Participating Hotels, such as certain contracts provided through Avendra, LLC, credit card acceptance agreements, music license agreements and certain telecommunications agreements. While the Hyatt Group does not receive any fees, rebates or commissions under these mandatory contracts, certain of the mandatory contracts may provide for promotional or other allowances that the Hyatt Group then allocates among Participating Hotels, as the Hyatt Group determines or the applicable vendor or supplier requires, or that the Hyatt Group uses for activities benefitting all or substantially all Participating Hotels.

10. Other Corporate Services. The Hyatt Group provides a number of other corporate services and programs for the benefit of Participating Hotels for which those hotels reimburse the Hyatt Group on a cost recovery basis, including taxes, if applicable. These services and programs include group sales promotional programs and events that 2 or more Participating Hotels sponsor, property evaluations, profit improvement services, quality assurance manuals, security services, certain training programs and other various services. As part of these other corporate services, the Hyatt Group currently provides “upsell” services for Brand Hotels and other Participating Hotels, offering room upgrades to guests having reservations at the Hotel before they arrive. If the guest purchases the room upgrade, you must pay the Hyatt Group a commission on the additional revenue. That commission currently is 5% of the difference between the Gross Rooms Revenue at the upgraded rate and the Gross Rooms Revenue at the rate the guest originally booked, excluding taxes (the “Upsell Revenue”). The Upsell Revenue currently does not include any additional revenue resulting from the upgrade, such as early arrival fees and additional revenue derived from upgrades to the F&B Operations or Spa Operations.

11. Field Marketing Program. The Hyatt Group currently offers to Participating Hotels centralized resources to guide and support local integrated marketing for hotels that leverage the expertise of a designated field marketing team for a fee (which may contain a profit component, not to exceed a competitive amount), pursuant to a Field Marketing Program Opt-In Agreement. Inclusions and deliverables vary by service level, and may include management of local digital marketing, regional marketing campaigns, website management, social media consultation, local promotion creation and execution, and brand activations.

Explanatory Notes

1. Application Fee. The Application Fee listed above is for a Brand Hotel with 150 to 250 guest rooms. We describe the Application Fee and the conditions for its refund in Item 5.

2. Pre-opening marketing and sales expenses. This item includes costs for marketing and sales programs that you undertake before the Hotel opens, including the costs to establish and operate a sales office during the pre-opening period.

3. Furniture, fixtures, other fixed assets, equipment and inventory. Costs for fixtures; equipment; furnishings; furniture; telephone systems; communications systems; facsimile machines; copiers; signs; the Technology System and other property management, revenue optimization, in-room entertainment, and other computer and technology systems; initial food and beverage inventory plus other operating supplies and equipment, such as bed linens, personal care amenities, cleaning supplies and other consumables, and other similar items we periodically specify for the Hotel (collectively, “FF&E”) depend mostly on the Hotel’s size and configuration. This item covers costs for all FF&E for the Hotel except the costs for telephone, telecom, security and Technology System equipment and related fees that we describe separately in Note 4 below.

4. Telephone, telecom, security and Technology System equipment. We or our affiliate will inspect the Hotel and/or its plans and specifications to develop a specific proposal relating to the telephone and telecom equipment and the Technology System equipment for your Hotel. We include in the estimate for the Technology System the projected costs of acquisition/installation and the annual support and service contracts for the first year.

5. General and administrative. This item includes costs for permit fees, security deposits, utility deposits and startup requirements, impact fees (one-time charges that the government levies to offset service costs relating to the new development), tap fees (charges for connecting to existing water or sewer lines), and various business licenses. Landlords sometimes pay some of the tap or impact fees, and the amount depends on municipal requirements and the final Hotel configuration. This item also includes costs for insurance, legal and accounting expenses.

6. Liquor license. Liquor license costs vary widely depending on the jurisdiction. In most jurisdictions, the cost will be on the low end of the range, but could be on the high end (or even exceed the high end) in those jurisdictions that consider a liquor license to be an asset. You may be able to apply for a full spirits liquor license and pay standard costs for this license that would be on the lower end of the estimate. However, if your property is located in a “quota” city or state, you might need to locate and purchase a full spirits liquor license on the open market, which could mean your anticipated costs are on the mid-to-high range of this cost estimate. If you purchase a liquor license on the open market, you may be able to re-sell your liquor license in those jurisdictions to another licensee if you sell your Hotel. The liquor license that you apply for or purchase must include beer, wine and full spirits, as allowable under applicable law in the Hotel’s jurisdiction. If you engage a third party to be the F&B Operator (defined in Item 8), depending on the jurisdiction, you might not need a liquor license.

7. Additional marketing and design to create brand identity. If you are opening a new Brand Hotel, you will incur additional marketing and design costs to promote and create a new brand identity and tradename for your Brand Hotel. This item estimates your additional costs for marketing, design, public relations, and social media.

8. Miscellaneous opening costs. This item includes costs for office and other supplies, wages for Hotel management and employees, the Extension Fee (if applicable), and other miscellaneous pre-paid opening expenses.

9. Additional funds – 3 months. This item estimates your initial start-up expenses (other than the items identified separately in the table). These expenses include payroll costs for the Hotel’s personnel but not any management fees or similar draw. These figures are estimates, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs depend on how closely you follow our methods and procedures; your management skill, experience, and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for the Hotel’s services; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period.

10. Total estimated initial investment (excluding real estate costs). The estimated amounts presented in the table above are for a Brand Hotel with 150 to 250 guest rooms. We relied on our affiliates’ experience in developing and operating hotels since 1957 to compile the estimate for additional funds and other figures. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire the franchise. We do not offer financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment. The availability and terms of financing depend on many factors, including the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness and collateral, and lending policies of financial institutions from which you request a loan. The estimate does not include any finance charge, interest, or debt service obligations. Except for a portion of the Application Fee that we will refund if we do not approve the application, no amounts in the chart are refundable.

We expect Brand Hotels will typically be in primary markets in urban, densely-populated locations. They will typically have from 150 to 250 guest rooms. The amount of land the Hotel requires will vary greatly depending upon local building codes, setback requirements, parking requirements and similar factors. Leasing or purchase costs vary widely and depend on geographic location, size, visibility, local rental rates, other businesses in the area, other local economic conditions, the site's market potential, the type of ownership or leasehold interest and other factors. Because of these factors, this table does not estimate the costs for the Hotel's rent or security deposit or the purchase price for the building or land on which the Hotel is located (if you decide to buy, rather than lease, the land and/or premises).

The initial investment ranges presented in this Item are to construct new, full-size, 5- to 30-story Brand Hotels with 150 to 250 and 3 to 5 elevators according to our Design and Construction Standards and Hotel System. If you own an existing hotel that you plan to convert from another brand to a Brand Hotel, you might already have incurred many of the costs listed in this Item, but you still might incur additional costs to upgrade and renovate the Hotel to meet our current standards. These costs vary widely and depend primarily on the Hotel's existing condition. Before we and you sign the Franchise Agreement, we will prepare a PIP on your Hotel and provide details about our conversion and upgrade requirements for the Hotel.

Item 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

You must operate the Hotel according to our System Standards, which may regulate, among other things, the types, models, and brands of products and services your Hotel uses, and required and authorized products and services that the Hotel must offer to customers and quality standards for those products and services (including F&B Operations and Spa Operations). "F&B Operations" means all food and beverage operations for Hotel guests and patrons consisting of: (a) restaurant, dining, bar, lounge, and retail food and beverage services; (b) banquet, meeting, event, catering (including outside catering), and room services; and (c) all other food, beverage and related services at the Hotel. "Spa Operations" means all spa and related operations and services for Hotel guests and patrons, consisting of all therapy, massage and other treatments, salon services and other spa-related services, if applicable for the Hotel. Not all Brand Hotels have Spa Operations.

If you are constructing a new Brand Hotel, Hyatt Corporation will advise you on the System Standards to be met, and the systems to be installed at the Hotel, so the Hotel can be opened and operated as an Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotel. You and Hyatt Corporation will determine the types and levels of services and assistance you will receive and the fees you will pay for the services. Hyatt Corporation is the only approved supplier for these services if you are constructing a new Hotel. You do not have to use Hyatt Corporation for these services if you are converting an existing hotel to a Brand Hotel.

We also provide IT Project Management Services and other technology-related services as well as PMS hosting services.

You must use the Opera PMS at the Hotel. You must sign the Hosting Services Agreement and engage us to host the PMS remotely. We will provide services necessary to install access to the PMS at the Hotel under the Franchise Agreement. You must also enter into an agreement with our designated supplier to provide connectivity services and training for the PMS. If your Hotel is in Hawaii or Puerto Rico, under certain circumstances (with our approval), we may permit you to self-host the PMS at the Hotel.

System Services

Mandatory Services and Non-Mandatory Services comprise the System Services. If you are in full compliance with your obligations under the Franchise Agreement, we or one or more members of the Hyatt Group will provide you those System Services that we periodically specify. You must participate in all Mandatory Services and related programs, and may (at your option) participate in any or all Non-Mandatory Services and related programs, in the manner that we periodically specify. You must acquire all Mandatory Services (as we periodically modify them) only from a member of the Hyatt Group. We may periodically add to, delete from, and otherwise modify these System Services, and the scope of and manner of providing System Services, upon notice to you. Also, due to the differences in products, services, markets and hospitality experiences among Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels, we may, where we deem appropriate in our judgment: (a) classify certain System Services as Mandatory Services for the Hotel which we classify as Non-Mandatory Services or do not offer to other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels; (b) not provide to the Hotel certain System Services that we provide to other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels; and (c) limit the scope of those System Services provided to franchised Brand Hotels, such as by limiting the access that franchised Brand Hotels have to certain customer and other proprietary information for Hyatt Network Hotels other than the Hotel. We describe the current System Services and the current charges for those System Services in Item 6.

Avendra, LLC (“Avendra”) is a products and services sourcing company that offers volume contracts to its customer hotels on a variety of FF&E and other items used in hotel operations, including food and beverage equipment and supplies (such as branded and commodity programs), operating equipment and supplies (such as linens, pillows, terry, and light bulbs), and other products and services (such as printing and stationery, logoed items, chemicals, and pest elimination), at competitive prices that Avendra negotiates. You determine whether, and the extent to which, your Hotel will use Avendra’s services. However, if you choose not to use Avendra, you might find it impracticable to purchase certain products for the Hotel (such as bathroom amenities made specifically for Hyatt Network Hotels) elsewhere.

You may, and if we require (depending on your or your approved management company’s experience) you must, acquire revenue optimization services from us. You also may, but are not required to, use Rosemont’s purchasing and project management services and acquire our pre-opening advisory assistance for your Hotel. If you are constructing a new Brand Hotel, you may decide to engage us (or our affiliate) to provide technical services and assistance relating to the Hotel’s development. We or another member of the Hyatt Group, Avendra and Rosemont negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers, including price terms, for some required Hotel items. When we do so, we seek to promote the overall interests of the network of Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels and our interests as the franchisor. We do not provide material benefits (like renewal or granting additional franchises) to individual franchisees for purchasing particular products or services or for using particular suppliers.

You must participate in, connect with, and use the authorized CRS, GDS and ADS as we periodically designate for offering, booking, modifying, and communicating guest room reservations for the Hotel and bear all related costs and expenses. You may only use the GDS and ADS that we periodically authorize. You must honor and give first priority on available rooms to all confirmed reservations that the CRS, GDS or ADS refer to the Hotel. The CRS and approved GDS and ADS are the only reservation systems or services that the Hotel may use for reservations. You will establish the Hotel's room rates, if those rates and your pricing policies comply with System Standards (to the maximum extent the law allows). You must comply with our "best price guarantee" and related policies, as we periodically modify them. You may not charge any guest a rate higher than the rate that the reservations center specifies to the guest when the guest makes the reservation.

Except as described here and in Item 6, in providing these and other products and services to you, the Hyatt Group companies have the right to charge prices that exceed their costs and include a profit margin. Except as described above or in Items 5 or 6, there currently are no other goods or services for the Hotel that you must buy or lease from us or one of our affiliates or for which we or one of our affiliates is an approved supplier or the only approved supplier.

Suppliers, Hotel System and System Standards

Promptly after preparing the plans for your Hotel's construction or remodeling, you must prepare and deliver to us for our approval a plan for conducting and administering the F&B Operations at the Hotel (the "F&B Operations Plan"). The F&B Operations Plan will contain the identity of any proposed restaurant operator or other operator of some or all F&B Operations at the Hotel (other than you or your approved management company) (each an "F&B Operator") and the restaurant concept(s) that you plan to incorporate as part of or adjacent to the Hotel. You must make the modifications to the F&B Operations Plan that we reasonably specify and ensure that the Hotel and its F&B Operations operate according to the approved F&B Operations Plan. You may not make any material changes to the F&B Operations Plan (including any changes to the proposed restaurant concept(s) and/or F&B Operator(s)) without our prior written approval. Before the Hotel begins operating in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks, you must require each F&B Operator to sign the documents we reasonably specify to protect our (and our affiliates') intellectual property and other rights.

If the Hotel has Spa Operations, you may subcontract the management of the Spa Operations to an operator (other than the approved management company) (the "Spa Operator") only if (a) we (in our sole judgment) approve of the Spa Operator, the spa concept and the terms of the lease or other arrangement between you and the Spa Operator; (b) the Spa Operator complies with all applicable System Standards; and (c) the spa does not use the Proprietary Marks in any manner (unless we authorize that use in writing).

If you or your management company do not have in-house technology services support, you must contract with a third-party technology consultant that meets our qualifications for "break/fix" support. You must also use our designated cyber end point protection and web filtering tools and enter into agreements with suppliers of such services, as applicable.

Except as described in this Item or in Items 5 or 6, there currently are no goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, real estate, or comparable items related to establishing or operating the Hotel that you must buy from us, our affiliates, or designated or approved suppliers, and none of those other suppliers is subject to our approval. Except for System Services and as described in this Item, the Franchise Agreement does not restrict the suppliers from whom you may acquire any FF&E or other products or services used in the Hotel's operation. None of our officers currently owns an interest in any supplier to Brand Hotel franchisees.

However, you must buy or lease most other products and services for your Hotel according to our System Standards. We issue and modify standards and specifications based on our, our affiliates' and our franchisees' experience in operating Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels. Our standards and specifications may impose minimum requirements for delivery, performance, reputation, prices, quality, design, and appearance, among other factors. You must ensure that the Hotel strictly complies with all applicable laws and maintains adequate insurance policy coverage in the amounts that we periodically specify. Our System Standards or other communications will identify our standards and specifications.

Neither we nor our affiliates currently receive, or have negotiated to receive, any rebates or other material consideration from suppliers based on our franchisees' purchases or leases, although our affiliates may receive rebates from suppliers based on goods and services they buy for Brand Hotels that they operate.

You also must participate in and comply with the terms of all of our mandatory marketing, reservation service, rate and room inventory management, advertising, cooperative advertising, guest frequency and loyalty, social responsibility, discount or promotional, customer award, customer loyalty, Internet, computer, training and operating programs, including a PMS that interfaces with the CRS or any other central reservation system we periodically adopt. We may periodically establish and/or coordinate these programs with third parties we designate. These third parties might (but need not) be our affiliates. You must sign and comply with any license, participation and other agreements we periodically specify relating to these programs.

You may not make any material changes to the Hotel's construction, including any changes to any structural or life safety equipment or systems, the number and/or type of guest rooms or common areas, or any architectural features, without our prior written consent and complying with our conditions and procedures. We may periodically require you to upgrade or renovate the Hotel, including by altering the Hotel's appearance and/or replacing a material portion of improvements and/or FF&E, to comply with then current building décor, appearance, trade dress standards and other aspects of the Hotel System that we have established and then require for new similarly situated Brand Hotels (subject to Reasonable Deviations (defined below)). This upgrading or renovation might require you to invest additional capital in the Hotel and/or incur higher operating costs. You must implement the upgrading and renovation within the time period we request, regardless of their cost or the point during the Franchise Agreement's term when we require you to do so, as if they were part of the Franchise Agreement when you signed it. However, all of these upgrades and renovations will apply to similarly situated Brand Hotels (subject to Reasonable Deviations). In order to assist you in having funds available to make any necessary capital expenditures at the Hotel and comply with your upgrade and renovation obligations (but without limiting those obligations), you must deposit into a separate account that you control 5% of the Hotel’s total operating revenue each month. You will use these funds only to make approved capital expenditures and comply with your upgrade and renovation obligations, although your obligations may require you to spend more than the amount in the account.

“Reasonable Deviations” means that, if the market area or circumstances of a Brand Hotel warrant, then, in our Reasonable Business Judgment (defined below), we may apply an aspect of the Hotel System, System Standard, requirement, fee or other term or condition to the Hotel in a manner which differs from the manner in which that aspect of the Hotel System, requirement, fee or other term or condition applies to one or more other similarly situated Brand Hotels. “Reasonable Business Judgment” means that our action or inaction has a business basis that is intended to benefit the Brand Hotel network or the profitability of the network, including us and our affiliates, regardless of whether some individual hotels may be unfavorably affected; or to increase the value of the Proprietary Marks; or to increase or enhance overall hotel guest or franchisee or owner satisfaction; or to minimize possible brand inconsistencies or customer confusion.

Collectively, the purchases and leases you must make from us, from designated or approved suppliers, or according to our System Standards represent approximately 75% of your total purchases and leases to establish, and approximately 75% of your total purchases and leases to operate, the Hotel. During the 2021 fiscal year, Hyatt Corporation received $418 in rebates from suppliers of food and beverage products and office supplies based on purchases that franchised Unbound Collection Hotels made from those suppliers, but Hyatt Corporation used this entire amount to offset part of System Services Costs. During our 2021 fiscal year, we did not derive any revenue from selling or leasing products or services directly to Brand Hotel franchisees, but our affiliates collected about $1,131,655 in fees and other revenue from providing various products and services to Brand Hotel franchisees, including revenue for chain services, IT-related services and other ancillary services. In addition, Brand Hotel franchisees received $1,033,935 more in loyalty program reimbursements than they paid in loyalty program fees during 2021. We derived these figures from our affiliates’ internal financial records.

FINANCING

Neither we nor our affiliates offer direct or indirect financing. Neither we nor our affiliates guarantee your note, lease or obligation.

Item 11

FRANCHISOR’S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C. is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you begin operating the Hotel, we or another member of the Hyatt Group will:

1. Approve a site for the Hotel that meets our requirements. We do not provide any site selection assistance or specify an area within which you may look for a site. We do not own hotel premises and lease them to franchisees. In determining whether to approve a site, we consider, among other things, demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, visibility, allowed signage, the predominant character of the neighborhood, competition from other lodging facilities in the area, the nature of other businesses near the site, and other commercial characteristics (including the purchase price or rental obligations and other lease terms) and the proposed site’s size, appearance, and other physical characteristics. You may not develop a Brand Hotel at a site that we do not approve. We and you will not sign a Franchise Agreement until you have located and we have approved the Hotel’s site. If you are converting an existing hotel from another brand to the Hotel System, we will inspect the hotel and prepare a PIP to provide details on our upgrade requirements. Each Comfort Letter Party must sign a comfort letter or similar agreement that we reasonably specify. (Section 2.1 and Exhibit B of Franchise Agreement)

2. Communicate our then current specifications and requirements for designing and developing a Brand Hotel, including the Design and Construction Standards. We will provide a briefing at our headquarters to acquaint your managing owner or senior operations officer with our building process and support structure. If you are constructing a new Hotel at the site, you must design and construct the Hotel according to our Design and Construction Standards and Hotel System, and we (or our affiliate) might provide technical and design services assistance related to the Hotel's development. If you are converting an existing hotel from another brand to the Hotel System, you must renovate the Hotel according to the PIP, which may reference some or all of our Design and Construction Standards and the Hotel System. The PIP is attached to the Franchise Agreement when we and you sign it. You may not make any material changes to plans set forth in the PIP (including any changes to any structural or life safety equipment or systems, the number and/or type of guest rooms or common areas, or any architectural features), without our prior written consent, which we will not unreasonably withhold. We and our affiliates may operate, and authorize others to operate, Brand Hotels within or outside the United States providing additional, fewer and/or different amenities and services to guests than the Hotel provides or that otherwise operate in a manner that is substantially different from the manner in which the Hotel operates. We may establish and periodically modify the Hotel System and System Standards for the Hotel and certain other similarly situated Brand Hotels in a manner that is different from the Hotel System and System Standards that apply to some or all other Brand Hotels within or outside the United States. (Sections 2.1, 2.2 and 2.8 and Exhibit B of Franchise Agreement)

3. As described in Item 8, identify the brands, types, makes and/or models of FF&E and other items (including both products and services) that meet our System Standards. We or our designated affiliate will directly provide and deliver, and in certain cases install, some items. We will provide you with the names of recommended suppliers for some items. Our System Standards or other communications provide our standards and specifications for some items. (Sections 2.4 and 4.3 of Franchise Agreement)

4. Approve your preliminary plans and detailed plans for a new Hotel (or renovation plans for conversion of an existing facility) including working drawings and specifications, if they comply with our Design and Construction Standards, the Hotel System and System Standards. You must prepare and submit the plans to us for our approval and change the plans as we specify. You may not begin constructing, remodeling or developing the Hotel until we have approved the plans. You may not change the approved plans, including by changing any structural or life safety equipment or systems, the number or type of guest rooms or common areas, or any architectural features, without our prior approval. (Section 2.1 and Exhibit B of Franchise Agreement)

5. Approve an F&B Operations Plan and F&B Operator(s) that meet our requirements. (Section 2.3 of Franchise Agreement)

6. Approve your establishing a temporary or permanent sales office at the Hotel's site to solicit and accept reservations during the pre-opening period for stays after the opening date, if it meets our requirements. Promptly after we or our designee installs the Technology System at the Hotel, you must (with our approval) staff the pre-opening sales office with the Hotel's Director of Sales and begin operating the pre-opening sales office. (Section 2.4 of Franchise Agreement)

7. Approve a pre-opening marketing program that you prepare according to our requirements. At least 120 days before the Hotel's grand opening, you must prepare and submit to us for our approval a written pre-opening marketing program that satisfies our requirements and contemplates spending at least the minimum amount we specify. You must change the program as we specify and implement the approved program. We anticipate your spending additional amounts on pre-opening marketing as well. (Section 5.1 of Franchise Agreement)

8. Train your Hotel's senior manager-level employees whom we periodically designate, which may include (as applicable), the general manager, rooms director, director of sales, engineering director, director of food and beverage, director of catering, and the executive chef for the Hotel (the "Core Management"), and other Hotel personnel we specify in the operation of a Brand Hotel to help ensure compliance with System Standards. (Section 3.1 of Franchise Agreement)

9. Provide data installation services relating to the initial set-up of CRS, GDS and ADS at the Hotel, IT project management implementation services and other technology-related services described in Item 5. (Section 2.2 of the Franchise Agreement) We describe the Technology System later in this Item.

10. Provide you access to the System Standards. You must comply with the System Standards, as we periodically modify them, except for any employment-related or other policies and procedures which are clearly indicated as being for your optional use. We may communicate the System Standards to you using various means that we may periodically establish, including electronic media and/or written materials, and you must continuously monitor and access any updates to the System Standards or other aspects of the Hotel System. The System Standards and any passwords or other digital identifications necessary to access the System Standards are confidential.

Any materials, guidance or assistance that we provide on employment-related policies or procedures, whether in the System Standards or otherwise, are solely for your (or your management company's) optional use. Those materials, guidance and assistance do not form part of the mandatory System Standards. You (or your approved management company) will determine to what extent, if any, these materials, guidance or assistance should apply to the Hotel's employees. We do not dictate or control labor or employment matters for franchisees and their employees and will not be responsible for the safety and security of Hotel employees or patrons. You (or your approved management company) are solely responsible for determining the terms and conditions of employment for all Hotel employees (including Core Management), for all decisions concerning the hiring, firing and discipline of Hotel employees, and for all other aspects of the Hotel's labor relations and employment practices. (Sections 3.3 and 4.3 of Franchise Agreement)

11. Authorize your Hotel to open in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks if you satisfy our pre-opening conditions as set forth in the System Standards or otherwise in writing. We will use reasonable efforts in our review and approval of plans and our approval process to open the Hotel, including by making a reasonable number of visits to the Site (to the extent practical under the circumstances) and providing reasonable guidance and advice relating to the Hotel's development or conversion. We act only in an advisory capacity and are not responsible for the adequacy or coordination of any plans and specifications, the integrity of any structures, compliance with applicable laws (including the Accessibility Laws) or any insurance requirements, or obtaining any permits. We will have no liability to you for the Hotel's construction or renovation. You must give us certificates from your contractors concerning the Hotel's compliance. (Sections 2.5 and 2.6 of Franchise Agreement)

12. Provide revenue optimization services for the Hotel if you choose to acquire them or we determine that you must acquire them. (Sections 2 and 3 of Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services)

During your operation of the Hotel, we or another member of the Hyatt Group will:

1. Continue to provide the System Services for the Hotel, as we periodically modify them. (Section 4.1 of Franchise Agreement)

2. Advise you periodically regarding the Hotel's operation, for example concerning System Standards and advertising and marketing materials and programs. If you request, and we agree to provide, additional or special guidance, assistance, or training, or if you sign the Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services, you must pay our then applicable charges and travel and living expenses. Any specific training, guidance or assistance that we provide does not create an obligation (whether by course of dealing or otherwise) to continue providing that specific training, guidance or assistance, all of which we may periodically modify. (Section 3.4 of Franchise Agreement and Sections 2 to 4 of Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services)

3. Let you use our Proprietary Marks. (Sections 11.1 to 11.4 of Franchise Agreement)

4. Let you use our Confidential Information and Copyrighted Materials. (Sections 11.1, 11.6 and 11.7 of Franchise Agreement)

5. Provide you access to the System Standards which we may modify periodically to reflect changes. You must restrict (and ensure your management company restricts) access to the System Standards according to our policies, as we periodically modify them. If there is a dispute over their contents, our master copy of the System Standards controls. Because complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions might not be possible or practical, we may, as we deem best, vary the Hotel System and System Standards for any Brand Hotel based upon the peculiarities of any condition or factors that we consider important to that hotel's successful operation. We need not grant you a similar variation or accommodation. The table of contents for the System Standards in effect as of the issuance date of this disclosure document is Exhibit F and reflects that the System Standards comprise 86 pages. (Sections 3.2 and 4.3 of the Franchise Agreement)

6. Conduct periodic inspections of the Hotel and otherwise maintain the Quality Assurance Program for the Brand Hotel franchise network. (Section 4.7 of the Franchise Agreement)

7. Provide hosting services for the Hotel's PMS when you sign the Hosting Services Agreement (Section 1 of Hosting Services Agreement).

8. Continue to provide revenue optimization services if we choose to offer and either you chose to acquire them or we determine that you must acquire them. (Sections 2 and 3 of Service Agreement for Revenue Optimization Services)

Advertising and Marketing

Except for the System Services, which we describe in Item 6, there are no advertising funds or local or regional advertising cooperatives to which franchisees or other Brand Hotel operators contribute. However, promoting Brand Hotels as a single chain in the United States is an important part of the Hotel System, so you must participate in and use, in the manner we specify, all advertising, marketing and promotional activities, materials and programs that we periodically require for the Hotel. (Section 5.2 of Franchise Agreement) The Hyatt Group prepares advertising, marketing and promotional programs as part of System Services. (Section 4.1 of Franchise Agreement) These programs may cover any media (including print, radio, television and electronic) and their scope may be local, regional, national or international or focus on a subset of hotels (like resort hotels or convention hotels). The Hyatt Group's corporate personnel and advertising agencies develop these programs. We will not use funds that franchisees pay for System Services principally to solicit new franchise sales. We will not prepare any periodic accounting of how we and our affiliates spend these funds. The Hyatt Group need not spend any amount on advertising, marketing or promotional programs in the area where the Hotel is located. There currently are no franchisee advertising councils that advise us on advertising and marketing policies. However, we may form, change, and dissolve these councils.

Before using them, you must submit to us for our prior approval all advertising, marketing, promotional, and public relations plans, programs, and materials that you desire to use or in which you or the Hotel desires to participate and which reference any of the Proprietary Marks, including any materials and uses in digital form. If you do not receive written disapproval within 15 business days after we receive the materials, they are deemed to be approved. You may not use any advertising, marketing, promotional, or public relations materials or engage in any of these plans or programs which reference any of the Proprietary Marks that we have not approved or have disapproved and must discontinue using any previously-approved materials and engaging in any previously-approved plans or programs within the timeframe we specify after you receive written notice from us. (Section 5.3 of Franchise Agreement)

Except for the Hotel System Website, approved ADS, and as otherwise provided below, you may not develop, maintain or authorize any other website, other online presence or other electronic medium that describes or in any other way promotes the Hotel or displays any of the Proprietary Marks.

(a) The “Hotel System Website” is a website that we or one or more members of the Hyatt Group develops, maintains and/or authorizes for all or a certain group of Brand Hotels that we periodically specify (and, at our option, other Hyatt Network Hotels). We currently provide each participating Brand Hotel a separate webpage on the Hotel System Website. You must comply with all System Standards relating to the Hotel System Website, including by providing us (or our designee) all information and other materials concerning the Hotel that we periodically request and promptly notifying us whenever any information concerning the Hotel on the Hotel’s webpage is no longer accurate. We have the final decision about all information or materials appearing on the Hotel System Website. As between us and you, we own all intellectual property rights and other rights in and to the Hotel System Website, including all data that visitors supply or the Hotel System Website obtains. We may discontinue the Hotel System Website and/or any of its content (including separate webpages for participating Brand Hotels) at any time.

(b) You may develop, maintain or authorize a website featuring the Hotel to consumers (the “Hotel-Specific Website”) only with our approval and subject to the conditions described here. The Hotel-Specific Website may not use the word “hyatt,” “unbound” or any similar word, or any of the Proprietary Marks, as part of its domain name or URL. The Hotel-Specific Website may not accept reservations for the Hotel (other than through an approved link to a Hotel System Website) or otherwise sell any products or services associated with the Hotel or any of the Proprietary Marks. You are solely responsible for obtaining all intellectual property rights to use any information and materials on the Hotel-Specific Website. However, as between us and you, we own all intellectual property rights and other rights in and to all Guest Information that visitors supply or the Hotel-Specific Website obtains.

(c) You also may, with our approval (which we will not unreasonably withhold) and subject to compliance with System Standards, authorize any Travel Services Website or Franchisee Organization Website to list and promote the Hotel together with other hotels. A “Travel Services Website” is a website operated by a third party (which is not your affiliate) that promotes and sells travel-related products and services for a number of hotel brands, including other Hyatt Network Hotels. A “Franchisee Organization Website” is a website that mentions the Hotel and other hotels in which you and your affiliates have an interest as part of your and your affiliates’ portfolio of properties and that has a primary purpose of promoting the entire portfolio (rather than only promoting the Hotel). (Section 5.4 of Franchise Agreement)

Technology System

You must use the computer systems, sales and marketing systems, communications equipment and related equipment and supplies that we or our affiliate require in the Hotel’s operation (the “Technology System”). One of the Technology System’s main components is the PMS, which runs the front desk and other Hotel departments and contains guest databases and other operational functions. Currently, your Hotel may use either the PMS that we specify or, if it meets our minimum specifications, another PMS that is compatible with the Hyatt Group's technology system. We will provide project management implementation and related services for the Technology System. Among other things, the Technology System also performs reservations, catering automation, learning management, check-in/out kiosk, revenue management, security and PCI compliant technology. We may periodically update the hardware standards for the Technology System as we deem appropriate.

The specific amount of equipment you will need for the Technology System varies widely depending on the Hotel's size, configuration and market positioning. Hardware and equipment are the proprietary property of their manufacturers. Most of this hardware and equipment is generally available from a number of vendors. The Technology System also uses other widely-available software programs, including Microsoft software. The software programs are the proprietary property of their manufacturers. These programs are generally available from a number of vendors. The Technology System will generate and store revenue, cash, payment, labor and all other data relating to the Hotel and its operations. We estimate that it will cost approximately $750,000 to $1,300,000 for you to acquire and install the Technology System at the Hotel.

The vendor of the PMS software typically will provide maintenance, support, upgrades and updates for the PMS software as part of its license fees. You also must acquire maintenance and support contracts from the companies who sell the hardware. Hyatt Corporation will provide other maintenance, support, upgrades and updates for parts of the Technology System and certain other technology services as part of the Mandatory Services for the Hotel, all of which are included in the Commercial Services Fee. No other party has the contractual right or obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates for Technology System components. If you or your management company do not have in-house technology services support, you must contract with a third party technology consultant that meets our qualifications for "break/fix" support. You must also use our designated cyber end point protection and web filtering tools and enter into agreements with suppliers of such services, if applicable.

We may periodically require changes, upgrades or updates to the Technology System. No contract limits the frequency or cost of changes, upgrades or updates. We or our affiliates may charge you reasonable fees for software or other technology that we license to the Hotel and for other Technology System maintenance and support services that we or they periodically provide to the Hotel. We will have independent, unlimited access to the information that the Technology System generates and tracks. (Sections 4.1, 4.3, 4.4 and 7.3 of Franchise Agreement)

Hotel Opening

If you are developing a new Brand Hotel, we estimate that you will open the Hotel approximately 24 to 36 months after paying the Application Fee. If you are converting an existing hotel from another brand to a Brand Hotel, we estimate that you will open the Hotel in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks approximately 3 to 24 months after paying the Application Fee. The interval depends on the time it takes for you to finalize acquisition of the Hotel's premises (if applicable) and sign the Franchise Agreement, the suitability of the site, weather, the location and condition of the premises (including the premises' former use) and the construction schedule for the Hotel. You must open and begin operating the Hotel within 24 months after signing the Franchise Agreement for new Brand Hotels and 6 months after signing the Franchise Agreement for converted hotels (unless we agree to a longer period before we and you sign the Franchise Agreement). You also must meet various interim deadlines for the Hotel's development. If you do not meet these requirements, then you must pay the $10,000 extension fee to us and request an extension, which we may grant or deny at our option. If we approve the extension, we will set a new opening deadline, the extension fee is non-refundable, and we may (at our option) require you to modify any previously-approved detailed plans or the PIP (as applicable), to comply with the then current design, equipment and other aspects of the Hotel System. If you do not open the Hotel by the required completion date, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

You may not open or begin operating the Hotel in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks until we have notified you in writing that: (1) you have properly developed and equipped the Hotel in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and all applicable laws; (2) Hotel personnel have completed all pre-opening training to our satisfaction; (3) you have paid all amounts then due to us and our affiliates; (4) you have obtained all required certificates of occupancy, licenses and permits to operate the Hotel; (5) you have given us evidence of insurance coverage and payment of premiums we request; (6) you have given us certifications concerning the Hotel's construction; and (7) we have conducted a pre-opening inspection and approved the Hotel for opening in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks. You must open and begin operating the Hotel in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks within 10 days after receiving our authorization, which we will not unreasonably withhold or delay. We may terminate the Franchise Agreement if you do not meet these deadlines. Our determination that you have met all of our pre-opening requirements is not a representation or warranty, express or implied, that the Hotel complies with any laws or is safe for occupancy, nor will such determination act as a waiver of your non-compliance, or our right to demand full compliance, with our pre-opening requirements or any other provision of the Franchise Agreement. You must indemnify us for costs and expenses we incur because of your failure to open on time, including amounts we pay to customers whose reservations are canceled. (Sections 2.1 to 2.6 and Exhibit B of Franchise Agreement)

You must and must cause your lessees and your affiliates and their respective lessees to: (a) develop, maintain and operate all Non-Hotel Components within the Mixed-Use Site (as defined in Item 16) in accordance with quality, design and operational standards consistent with the quality, design and operational standards applicable to the Hotel, (b) refrain from advertising, marketing or promoting the Non-Hotel Components as being associated with or part of the Hotel, the "Unbound Collection by Hyatt" brand or any other Proprietary Marks, except in connection with the Hotel, advertisement and promotion approved pursuant to Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement; and (c) operate the Non-Hotel Components in a way that, in our reasonable judgment, does not damage or reflect adversely on the goodwill associated with any Proprietary Marks.

Training

Our current required initial training program has 6 parts: the owner briefing, the owner orientation, the operations training program, the sales/catering/revenue training program, the training programs for other Hotel personnel, and the grand opening training. Except for any optional courses that we choose to provide, all initial training is mandatory. Our Franchise

Learning Department administers and directs all of our initial training in coordination with our corporate operations team. Matt Fallon, Associate Vice President, Learning Strategy & Design, leads the Franchise Learning Department. He has over 30 years of experience in Human Resources, Operational Management and Training roles and joined us and our affiliates in 2017. We also have a staff of training professionals who conduct various training programs. These staff members typically have at least 15 years of experience in the hotel industry and/or in learning and development roles and at least 5 years of experience with us or our affiliates. The System Standards, videos, charts, pamphlets, and other training aids serve as the instructional materials for the training programs. You must pay us the fees and expenses described in Item 5 and Item 6 and you are responsible for all travel and living expenses (including travel, lodging, food and beverage, and miscellaneous charges) for your personnel.

The trainers arrive at or before the grand opening and typically stay for about 13 days, although we may (at our option) conduct this training on more than one visit. There are no instructional materials or tasks that you must complete to our satisfaction. As of the date of this disclosure document, there is no predetermined agenda for this on-the-job training. The trainers will generally train Hotel staff with aspects of day-to-day operations, including:

- Guest services
- Housekeeping
- Food and beverage
- Front desk
- Culinary (if applicable)

Additional, Supplemental, and Optional Training Programs During Franchise Term

If any member of the Hotel's Core Management team or other individuals whom we required to attend training ceases to hold that position, you (or the approved management company or any F&B Operator) must have his or her replacement attend and successfully complete the applicable mandatory brand standard training programs that we reasonably specify, some of which we describe above, within 90 days (or a longer period we periodically designate) after assuming his or her position. We may charge fees for this training, and you must pay all travel and living expenses. If we determine that any Hotel personnel have failed to satisfactorily complete any training program, you (or the approved management company or F&B Operator) must immediately hire a substitute and promptly arrange for that person to complete training to our satisfaction.

We may, at the times and places we deem best, require the Hotel's Core Management and other personnel to participate in regional and national conventions, meetings and other brand standard training programs that we periodically specify. For example, we may require additional training when major concept and repositioning changes occur in a food and beverage outlet at the Hotel. These individuals must attend any supplemental training within the time period we reasonably specify after you receive notice from us. We also may periodically hold an owner convention for all or a certain group of Hyatt Hotels and/or all or certain other Hyatt Network Hotels at a location we periodically designate. You must pay our fees for these programs and conventions. You must pay all of your personnel's travel, living and other expenses (including local transportation expenses) and compensation relating to these training programs and conventions. (Sections 3.1 and 3.3 and Exhibit B of Franchise Agreement)

In addition to our mandatory initial training programs, we also offer various optional brand standard training courses for Hotel personnel during the Franchise Agreement's term. We typically update the menu of optional courses annually to address then current hotel and business needs. These optional offerings include discounted enrollment for eCornell's self-paced, facilitated courses ($275) and certificate programs specifically curated for hospitality professionals. We also make available other virtually-facilitated commercial services offerings and over 1,600 free, multi-lingual self-paced courses via our learning platform. In addition, we periodically offer optional instructor-led or virtual programs for a fee. You may, at your option, send Hotel personnel to some or all of these programs if you pay our then current fees. We typically conduct optional training programs either at our headquarters in Chicago, Illinois, at your Hotel, or at another operating Hyatt hotel. We offer optional brand standard training programs on an ongoing basis. 100% of our new franchisees attended at least one optional brand standard training program in 2021.

TERRITORY

You must operate the Hotel only from a specific site that we first approve. Your rights under the Franchise Agreement are limited to operating the Hotel at the approved site. If all or a substantial portion of the Hotel is condemned or suffers a casualty requiring you to close all or a portion of the Hotel, you may relocate the Hotel to a location we approve.

Unless the Hotel is already operating in affiliation with the Unbound Collection by Hyatt brand, we and you will agree on the boundaries of your "Area of Protection" before signing the Franchise Agreement. We typically define the Area of Protection's boundaries using geographic references (such as streets or rivers) or as a circle with the Hotel at its center. The Area of Protection's size will vary depending on the Hotel's size and location. It could be as small as a few blocks in densely-populated urban areas and up to about a 1- or 2-mile radius from the Hotel's entrance in less populated areas. We also will assign an "AOP Term" and list the AOP Term in the Franchise Agreement before we and you sign it. The AOP Term is the time period during which your rights in the Area of Protection will apply. The AOP Term begins on the effective date of the Franchise Agreement and typically ends from 1 to 5 years after the Hotel's opening date.

Subject to the one exception below, during the AOP Term, neither we nor any of our affiliates will open and operate, nor authorize any other party to open and operate, any other Brand Hotels the physical premises of which are located within the Area of Protection. One exception to this restriction is that, during the AOP Term, if we or any affiliate acquires ownership of or the right to operate or manage (regardless of the form of transaction) another group of at least 4 hotels, one or more of which hotels are located or are under contract or construction to be located, in the Area of Protection, then we and our affiliates will have the unrestricted right to convert, or cause to be converted, the acquired hotel(s) within the Area of Protection to operate in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks and the Hotel System. We then may operate, or authorize any other party to operate, those hotel(s) as Brand Hotels, even if one or more of the other acquired hotels, whether operating within or outside the Area of Protection, are not converted to Brand Hotels.

If the Hotel is already operating in affiliation with the Unbound Collection by Hyatt brand when you sign the Franchise Agreement, you may not receive any Area of Protection or AOP Term when signing the Franchise Agreement. We will make the determination of whether to provide any Area of Protection based on the time during which the Hotel has operated in affiliation with the Unbound Collection by Hyatt brand and the market conditions under which the Hotel operates.

Your rights in the Area of Protection apply only during the AOP Term. Following the AOP Term, you will have no territorial rights or protection, whether within or outside the Area of Protection, and we and our affiliates may open and operate, and authorize any other parties to open and operate, other Brand Hotels the physical premises of which are located within the Area of Protection, including under franchise applications submitted and/or franchise and other agreements signed during the AOP Term. Because we and others may establish and operate one or more Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels within the Area of Protection after the AOP Term expires, and during the AOP Term under the exception above, you will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Except for the limited exclusivity provided above, your rights under the Franchise Agreement are nonexclusive in all respects, the Hotel has no territorial protection whatsoever, and we and our affiliates have the right without restriction to engage in all activities we and they desire (including with respect to any and all types of lodging facilities) at any time and place, whether or not using the Proprietary Marks or any aspect of the Hotel System, and whether or not those activities compete with your Hotel. We and our affiliates may use or benefit from, among other things, common computer systems, administrative systems, reservation systems, purchasing systems, and personnel and may provide some or all of the System Services to other Hyatt Network Hotels and other hotels, lodging facilities and other businesses, even if they compete with your Hotel. You will have no right to pursue any claims, demands, or damages as a result of these activities, whether under breach of contract, unfair competition, implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, divided loyalty, or other theories.

You have no options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises. Continuation of your territorial rights does not depend on your achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration or other contingency. We may not alter your Area of Protection or territorial rights during the AOP Term.

There are no restrictions on where you or other Brand Hotel operators (including us and our affiliates) may solicit customers or accept orders. We and our affiliates may use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, to make sales in the Area of Protection in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks and other trademarks without compensating you. You may use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, to advertise and market the Hotel outside of the Area of Protection with our approval. Except for the CRS, you may not use the Internet or any other method to accept reservations for the Hotel.

As described in Item 1, Hyatt Corporation and certain of its affiliates operate and/or grant franchises for various types of hotel, resort, spa, timeshare and other lodging facilities, other accommodations and hospitality affiliations that operate under the Hyatt® name and other trade names. (We disclose the principal business addresses for Hyatt Corporation and some of these affiliates, and these other trade names, in Item 1.) We share offices and/or training locations with Hyatt Corporation and some of its other affiliates. These facilities may solicit and serve customers located near your Hotel’s location. You should expect to find, now and in the future, facilities identified with the Hyatt® name and/or these other trade names, and other brands that we and our affiliates operate, franchise, or develop in the future, in your Area of Protection. These facilities will sell goods and services similar to those that you will sell. If conflicts arise between our franchisees and the franchisees and operators of these other facilities, we will analyze them and take the actions (if any) that we deem appropriate. We also may (but need not) develop internal policies for dealing with conflicts.

TRADEMARKS

You may use the Proprietary Marks in operating the Hotel. Hyatt Corporation registered the following principal Proprietary Marks on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the “PTO”):

Mark	Registration No.	Registration Date
Hyatt	945,384	October 17, 1972
World of Hyatt	5,201,881	May 9, 2017
The Unbound Collection by Hyatt	5,324,637	October 31, 2017

Mark	Registration No.	Registration Date
The Unbound Collection by Hyatt logo	5,312,290	October 17, 2017

Hyatt Corporation has made all required renewal and affidavit filings for these registrations.

Hyatt Corporation granted us the rights to use and sublicense the Proprietary Marks under a Trademark License Agreement dated November 1, 1993, as amended. That agreement has a 20-year term with 3 10-year renewal terms. Hyatt Corporation may terminate the agreement only if we fail to comply with the agreement, but a termination will not affect the rights of franchisees under franchise agreements signed before the termination. No agreement significantly limits our rights to use or license the Proprietary Marks in a manner material to the franchise.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the PTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, any state trademark administrator or any court, and no pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or other material federal or state court litigation, involving the Proprietary Marks. We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Proprietary Marks in any state.

You must follow our rules when using the Proprietary Marks. You (and any F&B Operators at the Hotel) may not use the Proprietary Marks with any Hotel restaurant operations without our prior written consent, which we will not unreasonably withhold, and complying with all related System Standards. If we discover your unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks, we may require you to destroy (with no reimbursement from us) all offending items reflecting that unauthorized use. You must notify us immediately of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of any Proprietary Mark, or of any person's claim of any rights in any Proprietary Mark, and not communicate with any person other than us, our affiliates, and our and their attorneys, and your attorneys, regarding any infringement, challenge, or claim. We and our affiliates may take the action we and they deem appropriate (including no action) and control exclusively any litigation, PTO proceeding, or other proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge, or claim or otherwise concerning any Proprietary Mark. You must sign any documents and take any other reasonable actions that, in the opinion of our and our affiliates' attorneys, are necessary or advisable to protect and maintain our and our affiliates' interests in any litigation or PTO or other proceeding or otherwise to protect and maintain our and our affiliates' interests in the Proprietary Marks. We will reimburse your reasonable out-of-pocket costs for taking any requested action.

If it becomes advisable at any time for us and/or you to modify, discontinue using, and/or replace any Proprietary Mark and/or to use one or more additional, substitute, or replacement trade or service marks, you must comply with our directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice. Neither we nor our affiliates will reimburse you for any costs or expenses you incur relating to these directions, including your expenses of changing the Hotel's signs, any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Proprietary Mark, or your expenses of promoting a modified or substitute trademark or service mark. Our rights in this paragraph apply to any of the Proprietary Marks (and any portion of any Proprietary Mark) that we authorize you to use.

We will reimburse you for all damages and expenses that you incur in any trademark infringement proceeding disputing your authorized use of any Proprietary Mark if you have timely notified us of, and comply with our directions in responding to, the proceeding. We will defend you in the proceeding and, at our option, we and/or our affiliate(s) may defend and control the defense of any proceeding arising from your use of any Proprietary Mark.

Even though the Hotel will feature an affiliation with the Unbound Collection by Hyatt name and other Proprietary Marks in the manner that we periodically specify, the Hotel will feature the Tradename identified in an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement as the Hotel's primary trade name in the manner that we periodically specify. Under the Franchise Agreement you are representing to us that you own or have all valid rights to use the Tradename in the manner that the Franchise Agreement contemplates and any other names, including restaurant and spa names, that you provide to us or our affiliates (collectively, the "Outlet Names"). Throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement, you must not use, or allow or authorize any third party to use, the Tradename for any hotel, resort, time share, lodging facility or other accommodations, other than the Hotel or another Brand Hotel. The Tradename and Outlet Names are not Proprietary Marks and we make no representation concerning the validity of or your right to use the Tradename or Outlet Names. You grant us and our affiliates the right to use the Tradename and Outlet Names in marketing the Hotel and otherwise performing our obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

No patents or pending patent applications are material to the franchise. We and our affiliates claim copyright protection for the Copyrighted Materials. We have not registered these Copyrighted Materials with the United States Copyright Office but need not do so at this time in order to protect them. You must follow our rules when using the Copyrighted Materials. You may use the Copyrighted Materials only as we specify to operate the Hotel under the Franchise Agreement.

You must notify us immediately of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of any Copyrighted Materials or Confidential Information, or of any person's claim of any rights in any Copyrighted Materials or Confidential Information, and not communicate with any person other than us, our affiliates, and our and their attorneys, and your attorneys, regarding any infringement, challenge, or claim. We and our affiliates may take the action we and they deem appropriate (including no action) and control exclusively any litigation or administrative proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge, or claim or otherwise concerning any Copyrighted Materials or Confidential Information. You must sign any documents and take any other reasonable actions that, in the opinion of our and our affiliates' attorneys, are necessary or advisable to protect and maintain our and our affiliates' interests in any litigation or other proceeding or otherwise to protect and maintain our and our affiliates' interests in the Copyrighted Materials and Confidential Information. We will reimburse your reasonable out-of-pocket costs for taking any requested action.

We need not participate in your defense nor indemnify you for damages and expenses you incur if you are a party to any administrative or judicial proceeding involving any Copyrighted Materials or if the proceeding is resolved unfavorably to you. If it becomes advisable at any time in our sole judgment for you to modify or discontinue using any of the Copyrighted Materials and/or for you to use one or more additional or substitute copyrighted or copyrightable items, you must immediately comply with our directions.

There are no effective material determinations of, or pending material proceedings before, the PTO, the United States Copyright Office, or any court involving the Copyrighted Materials. We do not know of any infringement of the Copyrighted Materials that could materially affect you. No agreement significantly limits our right to use or license the Copyrighted Materials.

You will sign the Confidentiality Agreement while we and you are evaluating whether to start a franchise relationship. You must keep confidential all information concerning development plans for particular sites or markets and information concerning our plans, strategies, operations, processes, and System Standards, including any information in the PIP that we conduct or prepare for your hotel. These obligations continue even if we and you do not sign a Franchise Agreement. You must take reasonable measures to ensure that your employees, agents and advisors comply with these restrictions and are responsible if they fail to do so. You also must promise us that our and your discussions and, if applicable, your signing a Franchise Agreement do not violate any laws, breach any agreements or require any consents.

We and our affiliates possess (and will continue to develop and acquire) Confidential Information, some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law, relating to developing and operating Brand Hotels. “Confidential Information” includes: (1) site selection criteria; (2) the substance, design, and construction of Brand Hotels and the Design and Construction Standards; (3) training and operations materials and manuals; (4) methods, formats, specifications, standards, systems, procedures, sales and marketing techniques, knowledge, and experience used in developing and operating Brand Hotels; (5) marketing, advertising and promotional programs for Brand Hotels; (6) Guest Information (defined below) and any information and data relating to guests and customers of other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels; (7) knowledge of specifications for and suppliers of FF&E and other products and supplies that are uniquely identified with Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels; (8) any part of the Technology System and other computer software or other technology that is proprietary to us, our affiliates or the Hotel System, including digital passwords and identifications and any source code of, and data, reports, and other printed materials generated by, the software or other technology; (9) knowledge of the operating results and financial performance of Brand Hotels other than the Hotel; (10) graphic designs and related intellectual property; and (11) any negotiated provisions of the Franchise Agreement and any other agreements we sign with you.

Confidential Information is proprietary and includes our and our affiliate’s trade secrets. You (a) must not use (or allow your affiliates to use) Confidential Information in any other business or capacity; (b) must keep confidential each item that is a part of Confidential Information, both during and after the Franchise Agreement’s term (afterward for as long as the item is not generally known in the hotel industry); (c) must not make unauthorized copies of any Confidential Information disclosed via electronic medium or in written or other tangible form; and (d) must adopt and implement reasonable procedures that we periodically specify to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information.

Confidential Information does not include information, knowledge, or know-how that you can demonstrate lawfully came to your attention before we or our affiliate provided it to you directly or indirectly; that, at the time we or our affiliate disclosed it to you, already had lawfully become generally known in the hotel industry through publication or communication by others (without violating an obligation to us or our affiliate); or that, after we or our affiliate disclose it to you, lawfully becomes generally known in the hotel industry through publication or communication by others (without violating an obligation to us or our affiliate). However, if we include any matter in Confidential Information, anyone who claims that it is not Confidential Information must prove that one of these exclusions is satisfied.

All Guest Information, including Guest Information provided to or contained on the Hotel-Specific Website, is our property and part of Confidential Information. “Guest Information” means information and data relating to or derived from the Hotel’s guests and other customers during the Franchise Agreement’s term, whether obtained from the guest or customer or from any other source, including names, preferences, and other information about the guests’ or customers’ experiences and/or purchases, and including information stored in or provided to the CRS or the Hotel’s property management system. We have the right periodically during the Franchise Agreement’s term, without notice to you, to access the Hotel’s property management system and other computer systems to retrieve Guest Information. We and our affiliates may use, and allow others to use, the Guest Information in any manner that we deem appropriate (subject to applicable law).

You may use the Guest Information, and certain other information and data relating to guests and customers of other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels that we periodically specify, during the Franchise Agreement’s term only to market to and provide services to the Hotel’s guests and potential guests in compliance with the System Standards and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. You must ensure that your affiliates may not access, and neither you nor any of your affiliates may use, any of that Guest Information or that other information or data in any other business or capacity. However, following the Franchise Agreement’s expiration or termination, you may use, and allow your affiliates and others to use, any Guest Information that was generated at the Hotel (and that we or our affiliate did not supply to the Hotel) during the guest’s stay at the Hotel and stored in the Hotel’s property management system database in any manner that you deem appropriate (subject to applicable law) at your own risk, if you comply, and ensure that any recipients of that Guest Information from you comply, with our then current policies and procedures regarding the collection, storage, use, processing and transfer of personal and/or financial data. If there is an actual or suspected breach of security or unauthorized access of Guest Information or other information from the Hotel’s property management system or other computer system database, you must notify us promptly and we may require you to use a third party supplier we designate, at your sole cost and expense, to review and if necessary, remediate that breach or unauthorized access. You must not take any action that could jeopardize our or our affiliate’s ability to comply with, or make certifications under, any law, regulation, contract, program or policy related to Guest Information (including privacy laws, privacy notices and PCI certifications) and applicable to us or our affiliate.

You must promptly disclose to us all inventions, innovations and discoveries relating to a Brand Hotel and based or relying upon any element of the Hotel System, including any advertising, marketing, promotional or public relations plans, programs or materials that you or your contractors develop for the Hotel (collectively, “Innovations”), whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you, your affiliates or contractors, or your or their employees. Innovations are our and our affiliate’s sole and exclusive property, part of the Hotel System, and works made-for-hire for us and our affiliate. You may not use any Innovation in operating the Hotel or otherwise without our prior written consent. If any Innovation does not qualify as a “work made-for-hire” for us and our affiliate, you assign ownership of that Innovation, and all related intellectual property rights and other rights to that Innovation, to us and must take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to evidence our ownership or to help us obtain intellectual property rights in the Innovation.

Item 15

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Hotel Management

Either a management company we approve, or you (if we approve you to manage the Hotel), must at all times retain and exercise direct management control over all aspects of the Hotel’s business and be the employer of the Hotel’s Core Management and other personnel, unless an F&B Operator whom we approve employs the individual(s) serving as director of food and beverage, director of catering, and/or executive chef for the Hotel. You may not enter into any lease, management agreement, or other similar arrangement with any management company for the management or other oversight of all or a part of the Hotel’s operation (a “Management Arrangement”) without our prior written approval of the management company, and you may not yourself manage the Hotel without our approval of you as the Hotel’s operator. We will not unreasonably withhold our approval if the management company or you (as applicable) meets our minimum qualifications and ensures that its or your personnel attend and satisfactorily complete required brand standard training programs. If we approve a management company, as a condition of that approval, the management company must sign the documents we require to protect our intellectual property rights and reflect its agreement to perform its management responsibilities and operate the Hotel in compliance with the Franchise Agreement. Our current form of Management Company Rider is attached as Exhibit D to the Franchise Agreement.

We may refuse to approve a management company that is a Brand Owner. “Brand Owner” means any entity that (a) is either a franchisor or owner of a Competing Brand (defined below), (b) manages or otherwise operates hotels exclusively for the franchisor or owner of a Competing Brand, or (c) is an affiliate of any entity described in (a) or (b) above. A “Competing Brand” is a hotel concept that has at least 5 hotels operating under that concept’s trade name anywhere in the world and that, in our reasonable opinion, competes with Brand Hotels. If the management company at any time becomes a Brand Owner or fails to meet our minimum qualifications (as we may periodically modify them) or to comply with the Management Company Rider, or if you are managing the Hotel and at any time fail to meet our minimum qualifications (as we may periodically modify them) or to comply with any Franchise Agreement provision concerning the Hotel’s management or operation, then we may revoke our approval of that management company or you as the Hotel’s manager. You then must promptly terminate the Management Arrangement

(if applicable) and either assume direct control of the Hotel's management and operation, if we approve you to manage the Hotel, or engage another management company we approve.

You must ensure that all F&B Operations and all Spa Operations (if the Hotel has Spa Operations) operate in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and all applicable System Standards. You must provide, or cause the management company to provide, all brand standard training programs to the F&B Operator and Spa Operator (if the Hotel has Spa Operations) that we periodically specify. If the F&B Operator or Spa Operator at any time fails to operate in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and all applicable System Standards, or fails to comply with any agreement with us, then, without limiting our other rights and remedies under the Franchise Agreement and applicable law, we may revoke our approval of the F&B Operator or Spa Operator (as applicable). You then must promptly terminate your arrangement with the F&B Operator or Spa Operator and either assume (if we approve you to manage the Hotel) or have your approved management company assume direct control of the Hotel's F&B Operations or Spa Operations (as applicable) or engage another approved F&B Operator or Spa Operator we approve.

At our option, before the Hotel's general manager is engaged, you must submit to us the proposed candidate's identity and qualifications. If the general manager fails to ensure that the Hotel satisfies our quality assurance requirements and other brand standards, then we may require you (or your approved management company) to hire a new general manager for the Hotel. You or the management company (as applicable) is solely responsible for hiring the Core Management and other Hotel personnel and determining the terms and conditions of their employment. You (or your approved management company or F&B Operator) must hire and properly train all Core Management personnel and have a Core Management team in place at the Hotel at all times. Also, all members of the Hotel's Core Management must spend all of their working time at the Hotel fulfilling their management and operational responsibilities and may not concurrently maintain a position at another lodging facility or in any other capacity related to the lodging industry.

A Core Management team who has satisfactorily completed our initial training program must devote all of its business time to supervising the Hotel's day-to-day operations. Your Hotel's general manager and other Core Management personnel need not have an equity interest in the Hotel or in you.

Guaranty and Guarantor Monetary Threshold

We expect that only business entities, and not individuals, will sign our Franchise Agreement. You must cause one or more of the direct and indirect owners (whether they are individuals or business entities) of a Controlling Ownership Interest (defined below) in you which we specify to sign the form of Guaranty and Assumption of Franchisee's Obligations attached to the Franchise Agreement (the "Guaranty"). Under the Guaranty, these owners must personally guaranty all of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement and be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, every provision of the Franchise Agreement, both monetary and non-monetary, including the confidentiality and arbitration obligations.

In addition, each owner that signs the Guaranty must agree, and you must ensure, that at least one guarantor will satisfy the Guarantor Monetary Threshold at all times during the Franchise

Agreement's term. The "Guarantor Monetary Threshold" means the minimum amount of total assets less total liabilities (excluding Hotel assets and liabilities relating solely to the Hotel), each as calculated according to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and the minimum amount of liquid assets (consisting of cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities), that at least one guarantor (whether an individual or an entity) must maintain at all times during the Franchise Agreement's term. We will determine the amount of the Guarantor Monetary Threshold as of the Franchise Agreement's effective date based on information we deem relevant, including the Hotel's size, the market in which the Hotel will operate, and our assessment of our risk or exposure in the transaction. We will list the initial Guarantor Monetary Threshold in Exhibit B to the Franchise Agreement before we and you sign it. The Guarantor Monetary Threshold will increase automatically each year of the Franchise Agreement's term, without notice from us, effective on the first day of the calendar month during which the Franchise Agreement's effective date falls, by an amount equal to the CPI Increase. The "CPI Increase" means the amount to be adjusted multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for All Items, which the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics publishes (the "Base Index") as of the first day of the calendar month during which the increase is to take effect, and the denominator of which is the Base Index in effect on the Franchise Agreement's effective date or used for the most recent increase (whichever is later). If the Base Index is no longer published, we may designate another reasonably comparable index for calculating changes in the cost of living or purchasing power for consumers. Your guarantors must provide us on an annual basis financial statements or other documents that we reasonably specify, which you or the guarantor certify in the manner we specify, demonstrating that at least one guarantor satisfies the Guarantor Monetary Threshold. You and your guarantors must reasonably cooperate with all auditing and reporting requirements relating to the Guarantor Monetary Threshold.

A "Controlling Ownership Interest" in you or one of your owners (if that owner is a legal entity) means, whether directly or indirectly, either: (a) the record or beneficial ownership of, or right to control, 50% or more of the investment capital, equity, rights to receive profits or losses, or other rights to participate in your or the entity's results; or (b) the effective control of the power to direct or cause the direction of your or that entity's management and policies, including a general partnership interest (if the entity is a partnership) and a manager or managing member interest (if the entity is a limited liability company), or the power to appoint or remove any party having these powers. In addition, in the case of (a) or (b), the determination of whether a "Controlling Ownership Interest" exists is made both immediately before and immediately after a proposed transfer.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

Under the Franchise Agreement, you must offer all products and provide all services that we periodically authorize for your Hotel (including F&B Operations and Spa Operations, if applicable) in compliance with all applicable laws and according to our quality standards. We may change these products and services at any time, and there is no limit on this right. You may not sell any products or perform any services at the Hotel that we have not authorized. You also must obtain our approval of your relationship with any F&B Operator, including the restaurant concept and the lease terms. The Franchise Agreement contains no restrictions on the customers to whom you may provide goods and services.

If the Hotel is or will be part of a mixed-use site that is owned or developed by you, your owners or affiliates (“Mixed-Use Site”), which include in addition to the Hotel any residential, retail, restaurant, commercial or public space that operates separate from the Hotel (“Non-Hotel Components”), no part or portion of the Mixed-Use Site may be used to operate: (i) a pawnshop, check-cashing business, gentlemen’s club, pornography retailer, or other sexually-oriented business, or (ii) a package liquor store, marijuana dispensary, or gambling business, without our prior written consent, which consent may be granted or withheld in our sole judgment, or (iii) a bar, lounge, club or similar establishment situated within 300 feet of any part of the Hotel’s interior footprint, whose revenues are derived more than 50% from the sale of alcoholic beverages, without our prior written consent, which consent will not be withheld unless we reasonably determine that the establishment might have a material negative impact on guests of the Hotel.

You will establish the Hotel’s room rates, if those rates and your pricing policies comply with System Standards (to the maximum extent the law allows). You must comply with our “best price guarantee” and related policies, as we periodically modify them. You may not charge any guest a rate higher than the rate that the reservations center specifies to the guest at the time the guest makes the reservation. You may not change the number of guest rooms in the Hotel without our consent.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location under particular circumstances.

We do not make any representations about a franchisee’s future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor’s management by contacting Jim Chu, Executive Vice President – Global Franchising and Development, at 150 North Riverside Plaza, Chicago, Illinois 60606, (312) 750-1234, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

OUTLETS AND FRANCHISEE INFORMATION

All numbers appearing in the tables below are as of December 31 in each year. In Item 20 we include both Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels that our affiliates own and operate, and Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels that our affiliates manage for third-party owners under management agreements, as “company-owned” Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels. We count Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels in which our affiliates have at least a 50% equity interest in the hotel’s ownership entity as “company-owned” hotels that our affiliates own and operate for purposes of the tables (regardless of the type of agreement governing the hotel’s operation). Our affiliates owned and operated 2 Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels as of December 31, 2019, 2 Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels as of December 31, 2020, and 2 Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels as of December 31, 2021. Our affiliates manage the remaining “company-owned” Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotels for third-party owners.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C.:

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C. (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared from the separate records maintained by the Company and may not necessarily be indicative of the conditions that would have existed or the results of operations if the Company had not been operated as a subsidiary of Hyatt Hotels Corporation (the "Member"). Certain expenses represent charges from the Member or its affiliates.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation—The financial statements were prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic—The COVID-19 pandemic and related travel restrictions and containment efforts have had a significant impact on the travel industry and as a result, on the Company's business. The impact began in the first quarter of 2020 and has continued throughout the year ended December 31, 2021. As a result, the financial results for 2021, and for the foreseeable future, are not comparable to past performance or indicative of long-term future performance.

Use of Estimates—The Company is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying Notes. The estimates and assumptions are subject to inherent risk and uncertainty, which include the ongoing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, and actual results could differ materially from the estimated amounts.

Reclassifications—Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Revenue Recognition—Franchise fees consist of an initial fee and ongoing royalty fees computed as a percentage of gross room revenues and as applicable, food and beverage revenues. The royalty fees received for access to the Hyatt brand names are payable on a monthly basis as the third-party hotel owners derive value from Hyatt's intellectual property. These fees represent variable consideration and are recognized in franchise and other fees over time as services are rendered.

The initial fees received under the franchise agreement do not represent a distinct performance obligation, and therefore, are combined with the royalty fees and deferred and recognized through franchise and other fees over the expected customer life, which is typically the initial term of the franchise agreement. Total franchise and other fees revenues include the recognition of $576,549, $315,022, and $444,838 of initial fees for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, respectively. Initial fees were received in advance of performance under the contract and, accordingly, the unrecognized revenues of $7,528,856, $7,162,905, and $6,948,626 are recorded as contract liabilities as of December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, respectively.

Termination fees are recognized at the point in time a franchise agreement is terminated prior to the end of the full term and are included in franchise and other fees. Total franchise and other fees revenues include $1,365,886, $0, and $1,000,000 of termination fees for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, respectively.

Cash Equivalents—The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents include $5,092,710, $4,290,567, and $4,271,389 invested in interest-bearing money market funds at December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, respectively, which are carried at fair value based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets. The funds are held with open-ended registered investment companies. The fair values are classified as Level One in the fair value hierarchy as the Company is able to obtain market available pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Accounts Receivable—Accounts receivable primarily consists of trade receivables due from hotel owners with whom the Company has franchise agreements for services rendered. The Company assesses all accounts receivable for credit losses quarterly and establishes a reserve to reflect the net amount expected to be collected. The allowance for credit losses is based on an assessment of historical collection activity, the nature of the receivable, and the current business environment. The allowance for credit losses is recognized in selling, general, and administrative expenses.

Financing Receivables—Financing receivables represent contractual rights to receive money either on demand or on fixed or determinable dates and are recorded on the balance sheet at amortized cost, net of expected credit losses. The Company recognizes interest as earned and includes accrued interest in the amortized cost basis of the asset.

Financing receivables are composed of an individual unsecured loan provided to a hotel owner with a stated maturity and interest rate. The amortized cost of financing receivables approximates fair value. The fair value, which is classified as Level Three in the fair value hierarchy, is estimated using discounted future cash flow models. The principal inputs used are projected future cash flows and the discount rate, which is generally the effective interest rate of the loan.

In conjunction with the issuance of the aforementioned financing receivables, the hotel owner is required to pay deposits of $100,000 per month up to a maximum of $3,600,000, which is refundable if certain conditions are met. As of December 31, 2021, the Company has received $2,400,000, which is classified as other long-term liabilities.

The Company individually assesses financing receivables for credit losses quarterly and establishes a reserve to reflect the net amount expected to be collected. The Company estimates credit losses based on an analysis of several factors, including current economic conditions, industry trends, and specific risk characteristics of the financing receivable, including capital structure, loan performance, and market factors.

The Company evaluates accrued interest allowances separately from the financing receivable assets. On an ongoing basis, the Company monitors the credit quality of our financing receivables based on historical and expected future payment activity. The Company determines financing to hotel owners to be nonperforming if interest or principal is greater than 90 days past due based on the contractual terms of the individual financing receivables or if an allowance has been established for other financing arrangements with that borrower. If the Company considers a financing receivable to be nonperforming, the financing receivable is placed on nonaccrual status.

For financing receivables on nonaccrual status, the Company recognizes interest income in interest income when cash is received. Accrual of interest income is resumed and potential reversal of any associated allowance for credit loss occurs when the receivable becomes contractually current and collection doubts are removed.

After an allowance for credit losses has been established, the Company may determine the receivable balance is uncollectible when all commercially reasonable means of recovering the receivable balance have been exhausted. The Company writes off uncollectible balances by reversing the financing receivable and the related allowance for credit losses.

For the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, the Company had no allowances recognized on financing receivables. As of December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, no financing receivables were on nonaccrual status.

Franchise Agreement Assets Constituting Payments to Customers—Consideration provided to customers is recorded in franchise agreement assets constituting payments to customers and amortized over the expected customer life, which is typically the initial term of the franchise agreement. This amortization is recognized as contra revenue within franchise and other fees.

The Company assesses franchise agreement assets constituting payments to customers for recoverability upon contract inception and when events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value might not be recoverable.

Franchise agreement intangibles—Franchise agreement intangibles are recorded at the acquisition-date fair value, less accumulated amortization. Amortization is recognized over the estimated useful lives of the assets using the straight-line method. For franchise agreement intangibles recognized upon conversion of a management agreement to a franchise agreement, the useful lives will represent the remaining term of the original agreement, ranging from 7 to 10 years.

The Company assesses franchise agreement intangibles for impairment quarterly, and when events or circumstances indicate the carrying amount may not be recoverable, the Company evaluates the net book value of the assets by comparing to the projected undiscounted future cash flows of the assets. If the projected undiscounted future cash flows are less than the net book value of the assets, the fair value is determined based upon internally developed discounted cash flows of the assets. The excess of the net book value over the estimated fair value is recognized in asset impairments.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses—The cost of certain corporate functions performed, incurred, or paid by the Member or its affiliates, on behalf of the Company, is charged to the Company. Included in selling, general, and administrative expenses are charges from the Member or its affiliates, allowances for credit losses, and professional fees.

Commitments and Contingencies—At December 31, 2021, the Company is committed, under certain conditions, to provide certain consideration to various business ventures up to $37,050,000.

Income Taxes—Income taxes are computed using the separate return method. The Company accounts for income taxes to recognize the amount of taxes payable or refundable for the current year and the amount of deferred tax assets and liabilities resulting from the future tax consequences of differences between the financial statements and tax basis of the respective assets and liabilities. The Company recognizes the financial statement effect of a tax position when, based on the technical merits of the uncertain tax position, it is more likely than not to be sustained on a review by taxing authorities. These estimates are based on judgments made with currently available information. The Company reviews these estimates and makes changes to recorded amounts of uncertain tax positions as facts and circumstances warrant.

Customer Concentrations—The Company's top five customers represented 25%, 26%, and 24% of its franchise and other fees revenues, excluding initial fee and termination fee revenues, for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, respectively.

Subsequent Events—The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 28, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and noted no significant events to be disclosed.

3. INCOME TAXES

Provision for income taxes for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019 was comprised of the following:

	2021	2020	2019
Current:
Federal	$ 4,461,206	$ 1,634,632	$ 6,933,450
State	1,289,851	573,417	2,170,769
Total current	5,751,057	2,208,049	9,104,219
Deferred:
Federal	395,698	645,563	493,792
State	190,488	176,709	261,459
Total deferred	586,186	822,272	755,251
Total	$ 6,337,243	$ 3,030,321	$ 9,859,470

The effective income tax rates for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019 were 26.55%, 26.98%, and 25.83%, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019, the effective income tax rate is higher than the U.S. statutory corporate income tax rate of 21% primarily due to the effects of state taxes on earnings.

Temporary differences that give rise to the net deferred tax assets result primarily from differences in the financial and tax reporting of amortization of franchise agreement assets constituting payments to customers and contract liabilities. For the year ended December 31, 2021, the change in deferred tax assets of $586,186 is largely due to the amortization of franchise agreement assets constituting payments to customers.

The Company is party to a tax-sharing agreement, which provides that, among other things, the Company shall not be entitled to any reimbursement for utilization of its tax attributes in the consolidated federal income tax return of the Member. The Company is required to pay the Member any tax liability that arises from its operations, computed on a separate return basis. The income tax payable as of December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019 is $5,523,990, $2,167,708, and $8,783,115, respectively. In 2021, 2020, and 2019, this balance was recorded in Member's equity and included in net deemed transfer (to) from Member and affiliate (see Note 5).

U.S. tax years 2009 through 2011 are before the U.S. Tax Court. A trial date has been scheduled for April 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2021, we received a Notice of Proposed Adjustment for tax years 2015 through 2017. As a result, U.S. tax years 2009 through 2017 are pending the outcome of the issue currently in U.S. Tax Court. Resolution of issues from these years will be treated in accordance with the tax-sharing agreement.

We have several state audits pending. State income tax returns are generally subject to examination for a period of three to five years after filing of the return. However, the state impact of any federal changes remain subject to examination by various states for a period generally up to one year after formal notification to the states of the federal changes.

4. FRANCHISE AGREEMENT INTANGIBLES

During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Company recognized $8,815,449 of franchise agreement intangibles related to third-party hotel owners previously operating under management agreements with the Member at the inception of the intangible assets that have subsequently converted to franchise agreements with the Company.

	Weighted- average useful lives in years	2021	2020	2019
Franchise agreement intangibles	9 years	$ 8,175,071	$ —	$ —
Accumulated amortization		(430,665)	—	—
Total franchise agreement intangibles, net		$ 7,744,406	$ —	$ —

The Company estimates amortization expense as follows:

	Years Ending December 31,
	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	Thereafter
Franchise agreement intangibles	$ 893,661	$ 893,661	$ 893,661	$ 893,661	$ 893,661	$ 3,276,102

During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Company recognized $574,545 of impairment charges related to franchise agreements intangibles resulting from a contract termination. During the years ended December 31, 2020, and 2019, the Company did not recognize any impairment charges related to franchise agreement intangibles.

5. OTHER TRANSACTIONS

Pursuant to typical franchise agreements, franchisees are required to purchase certain sales, reservations, technology, marketing, and other services from affiliates of the Company, including the Member. Billings for these services to franchisees from the Company's affiliates or Member are not included in the financial results of the Company. Additionally, franchisees receive payments or incur billings related to the loyalty program, which are also not included in the financial results of the Company. The franchisees are also responsible for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in relation to the services provided above. Franchisees also have the option, but not the obligation, to purchase other products and services that the Member or affiliates of the Company may provide to owned, leased, and managed hotels from time to time. Additionally, the Company advances cash to the Member to invest on its behalf.

The Member or its affiliates pay for operating expenses on the Company's behalf. The Company determined that there was no intent on settling related-party transactions with the Member or its affiliates.

THE UNBOUND COLLECTION BY HYATT FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT is made and entered into as of _____, 2022 (this “Agreement”) by and between _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”) and HYATT FRANCHISING, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (“Hyatt”).

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Franchisee is the owner of, or has the right to occupy, certain real property located at the Site. Hyatt has the right to grant franchises for Brand Hotels. Franchisee wishes to enter into this Agreement to obtain a franchise to use the Hotel System to operate a Brand Hotel located at the Site. In addition to other terms defined in this Agreement, the initial capitalized terms shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A or Exhibit B.

NOW, THEREFORE, Franchisee and Hyatt agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

GRANT OF FRANCHISE, TERM AND AREA OF PROTECTION

1.1 Grant of Franchise. Hyatt grants Franchisee, and Franchisee accepts, the non-exclusive right and obligation to use the Hotel System during the Term (defined below in Section 1.2) to build or convert, and operate, the Hotel at the Site in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks in accordance with this Agreement’s terms.

1.2 Term. The term of this Agreement (the “Term”) will commence on the Effective Date and expire without notice on the date which is twenty (20) years after the Opening Date, subject to its earlier termination as set forth in this Agreement.

1.3 Rights in Area of Protection During AOP Term. Subject to the one exception below, during the AOP Term, neither Hyatt nor any of its Affiliates will open and operate, nor authorize any other party to open and operate, any other Brand Hotels the physical premises of which are located within the Area of Protection. The one exception to this restriction is that, during the AOP Term, if Hyatt or any Affiliate acquires ownership of or the right to operate or manage (regardless of the form of transaction) another group of at least four (4) hotels, one (1) or more of which hotels are located or are under contract or construction to be located in the Area of Protection, then Hyatt and/or its Affiliates will have the unrestricted right to convert, or cause to be converted, the acquired hotel(s) within the Area of Protection to operate in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks and the Hotel System, and thereafter to operate or authorize any other party to operate such hotel(s) as Brand Hotels, even if one (1) or more of the other acquired hotels, whether operating within or outside the Area of Protection, are not converted to Brand Hotels.

Franchisee’s rights in the Area of Protection apply only during the AOP Term. Following the AOP Term, Franchisee will have no territorial rights or protection whatsoever, whether within or outside the Area of Protection, and Hyatt and its Affiliates may open and operate, and authorize any other parties to open and operate, other Brand Hotels the physical premises of which are located within the Area of Protection, including pursuant to franchise applications submitted and/or franchise agreements and other agreements signed during the AOP Term.

1.4 No Other Restrictions. Except for the limited exclusivity provided in Section 1.3, Franchisee's rights under this Agreement are nonexclusive in all respects, the Hotel has no territorial protection whatsoever, and Hyatt and its Affiliates have the right without restriction to engage in any and all activities Hyatt and they desire (including with respect to any and all types of lodging facilities), at any time and place, whether or not using the Proprietary Marks or any aspect of the Hotel System, and whether or not those activities compete with the Hotel. Without limiting the foregoing, Franchisee acknowledges that Hyatt's Affiliates currently operate other franchised and non-franchised systems for lodging facilities and other accommodations and hospitality affiliations that use different brand names, trademarks, and service marks, including those with the "Hyatt" name as part of their brand name, some of which might operate and have facilities in the Area of Protection during the AOP Term, that will compete directly with Franchisee. Hyatt and its Affiliates may use or benefit from, among other things, common computer systems, administrative systems, reservation systems, purchasing systems and personnel, and may provide some or all System Services to other Hyatt Network Hotels and other hotels, lodging facilities and other businesses, even if they compete with the Hotel. Franchisee will have no right to pursue any claims, demands, or damages as a result of these activities, whether under breach of contract, unfair competition, implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, divided loyalty, or other theories.

ARTICLE II

DEVELOPMENT AND OPENING OF THE HOTEL

2.1 Hotel Development. Franchisee shall develop the Hotel at the Site in accordance with the development provisions in Exhibit B. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the selection of the Site for the Hotel or the failure of Hyatt to object to the Site, does not constitute an assurance, representation or warranty by Hyatt of any kind, express or implied, as to the suitability (commercially or otherwise) of the Site for the Hotel or for any other purpose. Hyatt shall not be responsible for the failure of the Site approved by Hyatt to meet expectations as to revenue, income or operational criteria. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that approval of the Site for the Hotel is based on Franchisee's own independent investigation of the suitability of the Site.

2.2 IT Project Management Services.

(a) IT Project Management Services. Hyatt will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the IT Project Management Services in connection with the opening of the Hotel. Hyatt will staff the IT Project Management Services using its employees or third-party contractors, as Hyatt determines.

(b) Franchisee Responsibilities. Franchisee will perform, in a timely manner, the tasks identified as Franchisee's responsibilities in Exhibit E. Franchisee acknowledges that Hyatt's performance of the IT Project Management Services is dependent on Franchisee's timely, accurate, and effective performance of all Franchisee's responsibilities under Exhibit E, including providing written notice to Hyatt of Franchisee's designated representative. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that its failure to perform may prevent or delay Hyatt's performance of the IT Project Management Services and/or require modifications to the services performed, including an adjustment to the scope of work, completion schedule or fees.

(c) Site Preparation. Franchisee will be responsible for all site preparation at the Hotel in connection with the IT Project Management Services. Without limitation, Franchisee is responsible for all climate control, physical safety and security, provision of adequate electric and telecommunications utilities, and wiring for all equipment and devices. Franchisee will also provide such work space, supplies, hardware and software as are reasonably required for each assignment.

(d) Hyatt Limited Warranty. Hyatt warrants that the IT Project Management Services will be performed in substantial accordance with the specifications set forth in Exhibit E. If any IT Project Management Services do not comply with this warranty, Franchisee must notify Hyatt in writing within thirty (30) days after completion of the IT Project Management Services. As to any valid warranty claim, Hyatt will at its option: (i) repair the defect; (ii) re-perform the defective IT Project Management Services; or (iii) refund sums paid by Franchisee to Hyatt for the defective IT Project Management Services. Following expiration of the warranty period, Franchisee accepts the IT Project Management Services in their "AS-IS" condition. The foregoing constitutes Franchisee's sole and exclusive remedies in response to a warranty claim. Hyatt makes no representation or warranty with respect to: (1) software, equipment, or goods manufactured, developed or provided by others, including Franchisee; (2) use of the IT Project Management Services in a manner contrary to instructions from Hyatt; (3) use of the IT Project Management Services in combination with goods or IT Project Management Services not delivered by Hyatt; (4) defects caused by Franchisee; or (5) other events outside the control of Hyatt. EXCEPT AS STATED ABOVE, HYATT MAKES NO OTHER REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO IT PROJECT MANAGEMENT SERVICES, GOODS OR SOFTWARE DELIVERED, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, QUALITY, PERFORMANCE, INTEGRATION, SECURITY, SYSTEM UPTIME, DATA INTEGRITY, OR TITLE. HYATT MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES THAT SYSTEM DISRUPTIONS, SECURITY BREACHES OR IMPAIRMENTS WILL NOT OCCUR AND DISCLAIMS ALL RELATED EXPRESS AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES. HYATT SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OF DATA, CORRUPTION OF DATA, OR NETWORK INSECURITY.

(e) Franchisee Limited Warranty. Franchisee represents and warrants that (i) access by Hyatt to software licensed or controlled by Franchisee is permitted under the applicable third party license agreements; (ii) Hyatt's performance of the IT Project Management Services as requested by Franchisee will not constitute a misappropriation of any intellectual property or other proprietary or contractual rights of any third party; and (iii) Hyatt's performance of the IT Project Management Services will not result in a violation of any applicable law, regulation, rule or order.

(f) Procurement of Third-Party Components. All software, equipment, and other goods required for Franchisee's use in connection with its business operations will be procured directly by Franchisee from the appropriate third-party vendor. Hyatt will not be responsible for procuring any third-party deliverables for use by Franchisee unless otherwise agreed to by Hyatt in a separate writing approved by an authorized officer of Hyatt. Franchisee will comply with the terms of all underlying third-party agreements, including all third-party software license agreements. Franchisee shall also engage a third-party service provider in accordance with this Agreement to support all third-party hardware and software installed at the Hotel, and such engagement shall be in place as of the date Hyatt completes all Services.

(g) Data Back-Up & Disaster Recovery. Franchisee will maintain in accordance with this Agreement: (i) appropriate data back-up and storage procedures to minimize any harm occurring from loss or corruption of data whatever the cause and (ii) an appropriate disaster recovery and business continuance plan to be activated in response to a technology crisis or system downtime.

(h) Changes in Scope, Fees. Hyatt and Franchisee acknowledge and agree that the scope of the IT Project Management Services may change between the Effective Date and the date that the IT Project Management Services are provided, as a result of modifications to the technology systems required under the Hotel System. If any such changes result in an increase to Hyatt's costs in providing the IT Project Management Services, Hyatt shall have the right to charge a reasonable additional fee in connection therewith.

2.3 F&B Operations and Spa Operations.

(a) F&B Operations Plan. Franchisee shall prepare and deliver to Hyatt for its approval the F&B Operations Plan describing Franchisee's proposal for conducting F&B Operations at the Hotel. Franchisee shall make such modifications to the F&B Operations Plan that Hyatt reasonably specifies and ensure that the Hotel and its F&B Operations operate in accordance with the approved F&B Operations Plan. Franchisee may not make any material changes to the F&B Operations Plan (including any changes to the proposed restaurant concept(s) and/or F&B Operator(s)) without Hyatt's prior written approval. Before the Hotel begins operating in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks, Franchisee shall require each F&B Operator to sign such documents as Hyatt reasonably specifies to protect Hyatt's (and its Affiliates') intellectual property and other rights.

(b) Spa Operations. If the Hotel has Spa Operations, Franchisee may subcontract the management of the Spa Operations to a Spa Operator only if (i) Hyatt (in its sole judgment) approves of the Spa Operator, the spa concept and the terms of the lease or other arrangement between Franchisee and the Spa Operator; (ii) the Spa Operator complies with all applicable System Standards; and (iii) the spa does not use the Proprietary Marks in any manner (unless Hyatt authorizes such use in writing).

2.4 Pre-Opening Sales Office. Promptly after the Technology System is installed at the Hotel, Franchisee shall open and begin operating a Pre-Opening Sales Office at the Site, staffed by the Hotel's Director of Sales.

2.5 Opening the Hotel. Franchisee may not open or begin operating the Hotel in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks until Hyatt has notified Franchisee in writing that Franchisee has satisfied all of the pre-opening conditions set forth in the System Standards or otherwise in writing. Franchisee must open and begin operating the Hotel under the Hotel System and in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks on or before the Opening Deadline. If Franchisee wants to request an extension of the Opening Deadline, Franchisee must submit a written request and a Ten Thousand Dollar ($10,000) extension fee to Hyatt before the Opening Deadline. If Hyatt approves the extension, Hyatt will set a new Opening Deadline, the extension fee will be non-refundable, and Hyatt may (at its option) require Franchisee to modify any previously-approved plans or the PIP (as applicable), to comply with the then current design, equipment and other aspects of the Hotel System. If Hyatt denies the extension, Hyatt will refund the extension fee. Franchisee shall indemnify Hyatt for all costs and expenses that Hyatt incurs directly or indirectly as a result of Franchisee's failure to open the Hotel on or before the anticipated Opening Date specified by Franchisee or the Opening Deadline, whichever is earlier, including any amounts that Hyatt pays with respect to customers whose reservations at the Hotel are cancelled.

2.6 Hyatt's Role in Pre-Opening Phase. Hyatt agrees to use reasonable efforts in connection with its review and approval of plans and its approval to open the Hotel in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks, including by making a reasonable number of visits to the Site and providing reasonable guidance and advice relating to the Hotel's development or conversion. Franchisee must pay Hyatt's then current fees for any additional guidance, services or assistance (beyond what Hyatt typically provides to similarly situated Brand Hotels, subject to Reasonable Deviations) that Franchisee requests, and Hyatt (at its option) agrees to provide, in connection with the Hotel's development or conversion. Hyatt's review and approval of plans, its providing construction, design, architectural, planning and/or related services in connection with the Hotel (whether before or after signing this Agreement), and its approval to open the Hotel in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks are intended only to determine compliance with Hyatt's pre-opening requirements. Hyatt's determination that Franchisee has met all of Hyatt's pre-opening requirements will not constitute a representation or warranty, express or implied, that the Hotel complies with any laws or is safe for occupancy, nor shall such determination act as a waiver of Franchisee's non-compliance, or of Hyatt's right to demand full compliance, with such pre-opening requirements or any other provision of this Agreement. Hyatt will have no liability to Franchisee for the Hotel's construction or renovation. It is Franchisee's responsibility to ensure that the Hotel (a) complies with Hyatt's requirements as communicated to Franchisee by Hyatt, (b) complies with all Accessibility Laws and other applicable ordinances, building codes, and permit requirements, and (c) is safe for occupancy.

2.7 Comfort Letter Parties. Franchisee must cause each Comfort Letter Party to sign a comfort letter or other agreement that Hyatt reasonably specifies under which such Comfort Letter Party agrees, among other things, to assume Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement (subject to Hyatt's rights under ARTICLE XII) if the Comfort Letter Party or any of its Affiliates acquires title or otherwise assumes possession, or the right to sell or direct the disposition of, the Hotel's real property or building and improvements. Franchisee shall pay Hyatt its then current comfort letter fee for each comfort letter that Hyatt negotiates relating to the Hotel. In addition, upon Hyatt's request from time to time, Franchisee must cause each Comfort Letter Party to sign and deliver to Hyatt an estoppel in the form that Hyatt reasonably specifies concerning the status of Franchisee's contractual relationship with that Comfort Letter Party.

2.8 Hotel System Variations. Franchisee acknowledges that Hyatt and its Affiliates may operate, and authorize others to operate, Brand Hotels within or outside the United States providing additional, fewer and/or different amenities and services to guests than the Hotel provides or that otherwise operate in a manner that is substantially different from the manner in which the Hotel operates. Hyatt may establish and periodically modify the Hotel System and System Standards for certain Brand Hotels in a manner that is different from the Hotel System and System Standards that apply to some or all other Brand Hotels.

ARTICLE III

TRAINING, GUIDANCE AND ASSISTANCE

3.1 Training.

(a) Owner Orientation. Within the time period that Hyatt reasonably specifies after the Effective Date, Franchisee's managing owner or senior operations officer must attend an owner orientation program at Hyatt's headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. Hyatt does not charge a fee for this orientation program.

(b) General Manager Orientation. Within the time period that Hyatt reasonably specifies before the Hotel's anticipated Opening Date, the Hotel's proposed general manager must attend an orientation program at Hyatt's headquarters. If Franchisee or the Management Company replaces the Hotel's general manager during the Term (subject to Section 4.2), the replacement general manager must attend the orientation program within thirty (30) days (or such longer period that Hyatt periodically designates) after assuming that position. Franchisee must pay Hyatt's then current fee for this orientation program and any additional programs that the Hotel's personnel attend.

(c) Initial Training Programs. Before opening the Hotel for business in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks, members of the Core Management team and other Hotel personnel whom Hyatt specifies must attend and successfully complete Hyatt's brand standard training programs and curriculum for their respective positions. During the Term, if Franchisee, the Management Company or the approved F&B Operator replaces any member of its Core Management team or any other individual whom Hyatt required to attend training, that person's replacement must attend and successfully complete the applicable brand standard training programs that Hyatt reasonably specifies within ninety (90) days (or such longer period that Hyatt periodically designates) after assuming that position. Hyatt will designate the dates, locations, and duration of training.

(d) Pre-Opening Training. Hyatt will provide pre-opening training staff on brand standards and related issues in connection with the Hotel's grand opening in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks. Hyatt may conduct this training via remote learning, in one or more visits to the Hotel, or both, as Hyatt determines in its sole option. Franchisee must pay Hyatt's then current fee and the trainers' travel and living expenses associated with any training that Hyatt provides on-site at the Hotel. If Hyatt provides on-site training, the trainers will arrive at or before the Hotel's grand opening in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks and stay for the period that Hyatt specifies.

(e) Supplemental and Optional Training. Hyatt may, at such times and places as it deems best, require the Core Management and/or other Hotel personnel that Hyatt reasonably specifies to participate in regional and national conventions, meetings, and other brand standard training programs that Hyatt periodically specifies. Hyatt also may, at its option, offer various optional training programs from time to time during the Term.

(f) Training Fees and Expenses. Franchisee must pay Hyatt's then current fees for any conventions, meetings and other initial, supplemental and optional training programs that the Hotel's personnel attend. Franchisee also is responsible for all related compensation, and travel and living expenses that Hotel personnel incur. If Hyatt holds any training at the Hotel, Franchisee must provide free lodging for Hyatt's representatives, subject to availability.

3.2 Providing System Standards. Hyatt shall provide Franchisee access to the System Standards during the Term. Franchisee must comply with the System Standards, as Hyatt periodically modifies them, except for any employment-related or other policies and procedures which are clearly indicated in the System Standards as being for Franchisee's optional use. Hyatt may communicate the System Standards to Franchisee using various means that Hyatt may periodically establish, including electronic media and/or written materials, and Franchisee agrees continuously to monitor and access any updates to the System Standards or other aspects of the Hotel System. Franchisee agrees to restrict (and ensure the Management Company restricts) access to the System Standards in accordance with Hyatt's policies, as Hyatt periodically modifies them. If there is a dispute over their contents, Hyatt's master version of the System Standards controls. Franchisee agrees that the System Standards and any passwords or other digital identifications necessary to access the System Standards are part of the Confidential Information.

3.3 General Guidance and Assistance. During the Term, Hyatt may advise Franchisee from time to time regarding the Hotel's operation, for example, with respect to System Standards and advertising and marketing materials and programs. If Franchisee requests, and Hyatt agrees to provide, additional or special guidance, assistance, or training, Franchisee agrees to pay Hyatt's then applicable charges and travel and living expenses. Any specific training, guidance or assistance that Hyatt provides does not create an obligation (whether by course of dealing or otherwise) to continue providing that specific training, guidance or assistance, all of which Hyatt may periodically modify.

3.4 Other Arrangements and Delegation. Hyatt may make arrangements with its Affiliates or other third parties to provide development, marketing, operations, administration, technical, and support functions, facilities, services, and/or personnel related to the Hotel System. Hyatt may delegate the performance of any portion or all of its obligations under this Agreement to third party designees, whether these designees are its Affiliates, agents, or independent contractors with whom Hyatt contracts to perform these obligations. If Hyatt does so, the third party designees will be obligated to perform the delegated functions for Franchisee in compliance with this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

OPERATION OF THE HOTEL

4.1 System Services. If Franchisee is in full compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, Hyatt or one or more members of the Hyatt Group will provide to Franchisee those System Services periodically specified by Hyatt. Franchisee must participate in all Mandatory Services and related programs, and may (at Franchisee's option) participate in any or all Non-Mandatory Services and related programs, in the manner that Hyatt periodically specifies. Hyatt may from time to time add to, delete from, and otherwise modify these System Services, and the scope of and manner of providing System Services, upon notice to Franchisee. Also, due to the differences in products, services, markets and hospitality experiences among Brand Hotels and other Hyatt Network Hotels, Hyatt may, where it deems appropriate in its judgment: (a) classify certain System Services as Mandatory Services under this Agreement which Hyatt classifies as Non-Mandatory Services or does not offer to other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels; (b) not provide to the Hotel certain System Services that Hyatt provides to other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels; and (c) limit the scope of those System Services provided to franchised Brand Hotels, including, by way of example and without limitation, by limiting the access that franchised Brand Hotels have to certain customer and other proprietary information for Hyatt Network Hotels other than the Hotel.

4.2 Management of the Hotel. Either a Management Company that Hyatt approves pursuant to this Section 4.2, or Franchisee (if Hyatt approves Franchisee to manage the Hotel pursuant to this Section 4.2), must at all times retain and exercise direct management control over all aspects of the Hotel's business and must be the employer of the Hotel's Core Management and other personnel, unless an F&B Operator whom Hyatt approves employs the individual(s) serving as director of food and beverage, director of catering, and/or executive chef for the Hotel.

(a) Franchisee or Management Company as Manager. Franchisee may not enter into a Management Arrangement without Hyatt's prior written approval of the Management Company, and Franchisee may not itself manage the Hotel without Hyatt's approval of Franchisee as the Hotel's operator. Hyatt will not unreasonably withhold its approval if the Management Company or Franchisee (as applicable) meets Hyatt's minimum qualifications and ensures that its personnel attend and satisfactorily complete required brand standard training programs. If Hyatt approves a Management Company, as a condition of that approval, the Management Company must sign the documents Hyatt requires to protect its intellectual property rights and to reflect the Management Company's agreement to perform its management responsibilities and otherwise operate the Hotel in compliance with this Agreement (collectively, the "Management Company Documents"). The current version of the Management Company Documents is attached as Exhibit D. Nevertheless, Hyatt may refuse to approve a Management Company which is a Brand Owner. If Hyatt approves a Management Company as of the Effective Date, or if Hyatt approves Franchisee to manage the Hotel as of the Effective Date, then that approval is indicated on Exhibit B.

If an approved Management Company at any time becomes a Brand Owner or fails to meet Hyatt's minimum qualifications (as Hyatt may periodically modify them) or to comply with any of the Management Company Documents, or if Franchisee is managing the Hotel and at any time fails to meet Hyatt's minimum qualifications (as Hyatt may periodically modify them) or to comply with any provisions of this Agreement concerning the management or operation of the Hotel, then, without limiting Hyatt's other rights and remedies under this Agreement and applicable law, Hyatt may revoke its approval of that Management Company or of Franchisee as the manager of the Hotel. If Hyatt does so, then Franchisee must promptly terminate the Management Arrangement with that Management Company (if applicable) and either assume direct control of the Hotel's management and operation, if Hyatt approves Franchisee to manage the Hotel, or engage another Management Company that Hyatt has approved in writing.

(b) Management Qualifications. At Hyatt's option, before any general manager, director of sales or director of revenue management for the Hotel is engaged, Franchisee must submit to Hyatt the identity and qualifications of the proposed candidates. These personnel must be in place and working on behalf of the Hotel by the time period Hyatt specifies. If the Hotel's general manager fails to ensure that the Hotel satisfies Hyatt's quality assurance requirements or other brand standards, or the Hotel's director of sales or director of revenue management fails to ensure that the Hotel satisfies Hyatt's brand standards relevant to the subject area for which that individual has responsibility, then, without limiting Hyatt's other rights and remedies under this Agreement and applicable law, Hyatt may require Franchisee or the Management Company (as applicable) to appoint a new individual to serve in that position for the Hotel within the time period that Hyatt specifies.

(c) Core Management Staffing. Franchisee, the Management Company or the approved F&B Operator (as applicable) is solely responsible for hiring the Core Management and other Hotel personnel and determining the terms and conditions of their employment. Franchisee, the Management Company or the approved F&B Operator (as applicable) must hire and properly train all Core Management and have a Core Management team in place at the Hotel at all times. Franchisee must ensure that all members of the Hotel's Core Management whom Franchisee or the Management Company employ spends all of their working time at the Hotel fulfilling their management and operational responsibilities and do not concurrently maintain a position at another lodging facility or in any other capacity related to the lodging industry.

4.3 System Standards. Subject to ARTICLE X, Franchisee must operate the Hotel twenty-four (24) hours a day, every day, and use the Hotel and its premises solely for the business franchised under this Agreement. Franchisee must at all times ensure that the Hotel is operated in compliance with the Hotel System and all other mandatory System Standards Hyatt periodically communicates to Franchisee, as Hyatt may periodically modify them. System Standards may regulate any aspect of the Hotel's operation and the products and services that the Hotel uses and offers to guests and other customers, including participation in and compliance with the terms of all of Hyatt's mandatory marketing, reservation service, rate and room inventory management, advertising, guest frequency and loyalty, social responsibility, discount or promotional, training and operating programs, including a property management system that interfaces with the CRS. Franchisee must sign and comply with any license, participation and other agreements Hyatt periodically specifies relating to these programs.

Despite Hyatt's right to establish and periodically to modify System Standards for the Hotel and modify the Hotel System as Hyatt deems best, Franchisee retains the right to control, and responsibility for, the Hotel's day-to-day management and operation and implementing and maintaining System Standards at the Hotel. Because complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions might not be possible or practical, Hyatt reserves the right, as Hyatt deems best, to vary the Hotel System and System Standards for any Brand Hotel based upon the peculiarities of any condition or factors that Hyatt considers important to that hotel's successful operation. Franchisee has no right to require Hyatt to grant Franchisee a similar variation or accommodation.

Hyatt and Franchisee agree that any materials, guidance or assistance that Hyatt provides with respect to employment-related policies or procedures are solely for Franchisee's (and/or the Management Company's) optional use. Those materials, guidance and assistance do not form part of the mandatory System Standards. Franchisee (or the Management Company) will determine to what extent, if any, these materials, guidance or assistance should apply to the Hotel's employees. Franchisee acknowledges that Hyatt does not dictate or control labor or employment matters for franchisees and their employees and will not be responsible for the safety and security of Hotel employees or patrons. Franchisee (or the Management Company) is solely responsible for determining the terms and conditions of employment for all Hotel employees (including Core Management), for all decisions concerning the hiring, firing and discipline of Hotel employees, and for all other aspects of the Hotel's labor relations and employment practices.

4.4 CRS, GDS and ADS. Franchisee must participate in, connect with, and use the authorized CRS, GDS and ADS (and only the authorized CRS, GDS and ADS) in the manner Hyatt periodically designates for offering, booking, modifying, and communicating guest room reservations for the Hotel. Franchisee must honor and give first priority on available rooms to all confirmed reservations that the CRS, GDS or ADS refers to the Hotel. The CRS and approved GDS and ADS are the only reservation systems or services that the Hotel may use for reservations. Franchisee will establish the Hotel's room rates, provided that those rates and Franchisee's pricing policies comply with System Standards (to the maximum extent the law allows). Franchisee may not charge any guest a rate higher than the rate that the reservations center specifies to the guest when the guest makes the reservation.

4.5 F&B Operations and Spa Operations. Franchisee is responsible for ensuring that all F&B Operations and all Spa Operations (if the Hotel has Spa Operations) operate in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and all applicable System Standards. Franchisee agrees to provide, or cause the Management Company to provide, all training programs to the F&B Operator and Spa Operator (if the Hotel has Spa Operations) that Hyatt periodically specifies. If the F&B Operator or Spa Operator at any time fails to operate in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and all applicable System Standards, or fails to comply with any agreement with Hyatt, then, without limiting Hyatt's other rights and remedies under this Agreement and applicable law, Hyatt may revoke its approval of the F&B Operator or Spa Operator (as applicable). If Hyatt does so, then Franchisee must promptly terminate its arrangement with the F&B Operator or Spa Operator and either assume direct control of the Hotel's F&B Operations or Spa Operations (as applicable), if Hyatt has approved Franchisee to manage the Hotel, or engage another approved F&B Operator or Spa Operator that Hyatt has approved in writing.

4.6 Upgrading the Hotel and CapEx Account. Franchisee may not make any material changes to the Hotel's construction, including any changes to any structural or life safety equipment or systems, the number and/or type of guest rooms or common areas, or any architectural features, without Hyatt's prior written consent and complying with such conditions and procedures that Hyatt periodically establishes for such changes. Without limiting Hyatt's rights and Franchisee's obligations under Section 4.3, Hyatt may require Franchisee at any time and from time to time during the Term to upgrade or renovate the Hotel, including by altering the Hotel's appearance and/or replacing a material portion of improvements and/or FF&E, to comply with then current building décor, appearance, trade dress standards and other aspects of the Hotel System that Hyatt has established and then requires for new similarly situated Brand Hotels (subject to Reasonable Deviations). This upgrading or renovation may obligate Franchisee to invest additional capital in the Hotel and/or incur higher operating costs. Franchisee agrees to implement such upgrading and renovation within the time period Hyatt requests, provided that all such upgrades and renovations apply to similarly situated Brand Hotels (subject to Reasonable Deviations).

In order to assist Franchisee in having funds available to make any necessary capital expenditures at the Hotel and comply with its obligations under this Section 4.6 (but without limiting those obligations), Franchisee shall deposit into a separate account that Franchisee controls an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the Hotel's Total Operating Revenue each month. Upon Hyatt's reasonable request, Franchisee will periodically provide Hyatt information concerning the funds in and expenditures from that account. Franchisee shall use such funds only for the purpose of making approved capital expenditures and complying with its upgrade and other obligations under this Section 4.6, although such obligations may require Franchisee to spend more than the amount then in that account.

4.7 Inspections/Compliance Assistance and Quality Assurance Program. Hyatt may inspect the Hotel at any time, with or without notice to Franchisee, to determine whether Franchisee and the Hotel are complying with the Hotel System, System Standards, and other provisions of this Agreement. Franchisee must give Hyatt's representatives free lodging (subject to availability) during the inspection period. The Hotel also must participate in, and pay its allocable share of all fees and other costs associated with, the Quality Assurance Program. If Hyatt determines that the Hotel is failing to comply with the System Standards or any other terms and conditions of this Agreement, then, without limiting Hyatt's other rights or remedies under this Agreement, any other agreement or applicable law, Franchisee must: (a) reimburse Hyatt for its costs related to that non-compliance, including fees, travel and living expenses, guest satisfaction payments or expenses, and other costs for administering any necessary actions, follow-up inspections, audits or re-evaluation visits until the failures to comply have been fully corrected, and (b) ensure that applicable Hotel personnel attend meetings and additional brand standard training programs that Hyatt specifies, at Franchisee's sole expense, relating to that non-compliance.

4.8 Compliance With Laws. Franchisee must strictly comply with all laws, rules, regulations and other legal and governmental requirements concerning the Hotel's development and operation, including by (a) ensuring that the Hotel is at all times in full compliance with the Accessibility Laws and similar rules; (b) paying all taxes when due; and (c) obtaining and maintaining (or ensuring that the Management Company, F&B Operator and/or Spa Operator, as applicable, obtains and maintains) all liquor licenses and other licenses and permits necessary to operate the Hotel, including the F&B Operations and Spa Operations (if the Hotel has Spa Operations). Franchisee agrees to comply, and to assist Hyatt to the fullest extent possible in its efforts to comply, with the Trade Restriction Laws, Anti-Corruption Laws and Privacy Laws. In connection with that compliance, Franchisee (on behalf of itself and its Owners, excluding any Public Owners) certifies, represents, and warrants as of the Effective Date that none of Franchisee's nor any such Owner's property or interests is subject to being blocked under, and that Franchisee and such Owners otherwise are not in violation of, any of the Trade Restriction Laws. Franchisee represents and warrants that as of the Effective Date it has in place, and covenants to maintain in place throughout the Term, commercially reasonable compliance programs, policies and procedures designed to prevent any violations of, and promptly to detect any risks of violation or potential violation of, any Trade Restriction Laws, Anti-Corruption Laws or Privacy Laws, including procedures for conducting background checks on Owners and prospective Owners (other than Public Owners).

4.9 No Diverting Business. Franchisee must refer guests and customers, wherever reasonably possible, only to Brand Hotels or other Hyatt Network Hotels, not use the Hotel or the Hotel System to promote a competing business or other lodging facility, and not divert business from the Hotel to a competing business.

4.10 No Brand Owners. Franchisee represents and warrants to Hyatt that neither Franchisee nor any of its Owners (other than a Public Owner) is a Brand Owner and agrees that neither Franchisee nor any of its Owners (other than a Public Owner) at any time during the Term shall be or become a Brand Owner.

4.11 Restrictions on Use of the Site. If the Hotel is or will be part of a Mixed-Use Site:

(a) Franchisee agrees to ensure that no part or portion of the Mixed-Use Site is used to operate (i) a pawnshop, check-cashing business, gentleman's club, pornography retailer, or other sexually-oriented business, or (ii) a package liquor store, marijuana dispensary, or gambling business, without Hyatt's prior written consent, which consent may be granted or withheld in Hyatt's sole judgment, or (iii) a bar, lounge, club or similar establishment situated within three hundred (300) feet of any part of the Hotel's interior footprint, whose revenues are derived more than fifty percent (50%) from the sale of alcoholic beverages, without Hyatt's prior written consent, which consent will not be withheld unless Hyatt reasonably determines that the establishment might have a material negative impact on guests of the Hotel.

(b) Franchisee shall and shall cause its lessees and its Affiliates and their respective lessees to : (i) develop, maintain and operate all Non-Hotel Components within the Mixed-Use Site in accordance with quality, design and operational standards consistent with the quality, design and operational standards applicable to the Hotel, (ii) refrain from advertising, marketing or promoting the Non-Hotel Components as being associated with or part of the Hotel, The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, the Brand Hotels or any other Proprietary Marks, except in connection with Hotel, advertisement and promotion approved pursuant to ARTICLE V of this Agreement; and (c) operate the Non-Hotel Components in a way that, in Hyatt's reasonable judgment, does not damage or reflect adversely on the goodwill associated with any Proprietary Mark.

(c) Franchisee shall and shall cause its lessees and its Affiliates and their respective lessees to, obtain and maintain throughout the Term, with respect to the Non-Hotel Components, insurance coverages meeting then-current industry standards.

(d) Hyatt shall have the right to review the applicable provisions of agreements between Franchisee or its Affiliates and operators of the Non-Hotel Components to determine compliance with this Section 4.11.

ARTICLE V

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING

5.1 Pre-Opening Marketing. At least one hundred twenty (120) days before the Hotel's Opening Date, Franchisee must prepare and submit to Hyatt for its approval a written pre-opening marketing program that satisfies Hyatt's requirements and contemplates spending at least the minimum amount that Hyatt specifies. Franchisee must change the program as Hyatt specifies and implement the approved program.

5.2 Participation in Advertising and Marketing. Franchisee acknowledges that promoting Brand Hotels as a single chain in the United States is an important part of the Hotel System. Franchisee must participate in and use, in the manner that Hyatt specifies, all advertising, marketing and promotional activities, materials and programs that Hyatt periodically requires for the Hotel.

5.3 Approval of Marketing Programs. Subject to Hyatt's requirements and at Franchisee's expense, Franchisee may conduct local and regional marketing, advertising and promotional programs for the Hotel. Franchisee shall pay Hyatt the reasonable fees that Hyatt periodically establishes for optional marketing, advertising and promotional materials Franchisee acquires from Hyatt or its Affiliates for these programs. Franchisee must conduct these programs in a dignified manner and in accordance with the System Standards.

Before using them, Franchisee must submit to Hyatt for its prior approval all advertising, marketing, promotional, and public relations plans, programs, and materials that Franchisee desires to use or in which Franchisee or the Hotel desires to participate and which reference any of the Proprietary Marks, including any materials and uses of the Proprietary Marks in electronic form. If Franchisee does not receive written disapproval within fifteen (15) business days after Hyatt receives the materials, they are deemed to be approved. Franchisee may not use any advertising, marketing, promotional, or public relations materials or engage in any such plans or programs which reference any of the Proprietary Marks that Hyatt has not approved or has disapproved and must discontinue using any previously-approved materials and engaging in any previously-approved plans or programs within the timeframe Hyatt specifies after Franchisee receives written notice from Hyatt.

5.4 Websites and Electronic Media.

5.4.1 Hyatt may maintain (or authorize any other entity to maintain) the Hotel System Website to advertise, market and promote all or a certain group of Brand Hotels that Hyatt periodically specifies (and, at Hyatt's option, other Hyatt Network Hotels). Franchisee must comply with all System Standards relating to the Hotel System Website, including by providing Hyatt (or its designee) all information and other materials concerning the Hotel that Hyatt periodically requests and promptly notifying Hyatt whenever any information concerning the Hotel on the Hotel System Website is no longer accurate. By providing Hotel-related information and materials, Franchisee is representing to Hyatt that they are accurate and not misleading and do not infringe any third party's intellectual property or other rights. Hyatt shall have the final decision about all information or materials appearing on the Hotel System Website. As between Hyatt and Franchisee, Hyatt owns all intellectual property rights and other rights in and to the Hotel System Website, including data that visitors supply or the Hotel System Website obtains. Hyatt may discontinue the Hotel System Website and/or any of its content (including separate webpages for participating Brand Hotels) at any time.

5.4.2 Franchisee may develop, maintain or authorize a website featuring the Hotel to consumers (the "Hotel-Specific Website") only with Hyatt's approval and subject to the conditions in Section 5.3 and this Section 5.4. The Hotel-Specific Website may not use the word "hyatt," "unbound" or any similar word, or any of the Proprietary Marks, as part of its domain name or URL. The Hotel-Specific Website may not accept reservations for the Hotel (other than through an approved link to a Hotel System Website) or otherwise sell any products or services associated with the Hotel or any of the Proprietary Marks. Franchisee is solely responsible for obtaining all intellectual property rights to use any information and materials on the Hotel-Specific Website. However, as between Hyatt and Franchisee, Hyatt owns all intellectual property rights and other rights in and to all Guest Information that visitors supply or the Hotel-Specific Website obtains.

5.4.3 Franchisee may not develop, maintain or authorize any website or other electronic medium (other than the Hotel System Website) that either has the word "hyatt" or any similar word, or any of the Proprietary Marks, as part of its domain name or URL or that accepts reservations for the Hotel (other than through an approved link to a Hotel System Website) or otherwise sells any products or services associated with the Hotel or any of the Proprietary Marks. In addition, except for the Hotel System Website and Hotel-Specific Website, approved ADS, and as otherwise provided in this Section 5.4, Franchisee may not develop, maintain or authorize any other website, other online presence or other electronic medium that describes or in any other way promotes the Hotel or displays any of the Proprietary Marks. Franchisee may, with Hyatt's approval (which it will not unreasonably withhold) and subject to compliance with System Standards, authorize any Travel Services Website or Franchisee Organization Website to list and promote the Hotel together with other hotels.

ARTICLE VI

FEES AND PAYMENTS

6.1 Initial Fees.

(a) The initial Application Fee was fully earned by Hyatt and non-refundable upon Hyatt's approval of Franchisee's franchise application before Hyatt and Franchisee signed this Agreement. If Hyatt and Franchisee agree to add guest rooms to the Hotel above the number of rooms stated in Exhibit B before the Hotel opens, then Franchisee must pay Hyatt, when Hyatt approves the additional guest rooms, an additional Application Fee in an amount equal to Three Hundred Dollars ($300) multiplied by the number of additional guest rooms at the Hotel. After the Hotel opens, if Franchisee wants to add any guest rooms to the Hotel, Franchisee must pay Hyatt's then current PIP fee (currently Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000)) when Franchisee requests Hyatt's approval of Franchisee's plans. This PIP fee is non-refundable. Hyatt will apply this PIP fee toward the additional Application Fee of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) multiplied by the number of additional guest rooms if Hyatt approves Franchisee's plans. If the PIP fee exceeds the additional Application Fee, Hyatt may keep the excess. The remaining portion of the additional Application Fee is due, fully earned by Hyatt, and non-refundable on the date Hyatt approves Franchisee's plans to develop the additional guest rooms.

(b) In connection with the IT Project Management Services, Franchisee shall pay Hyatt the "IT Project Management Services Fee" as set forth in Exhibit B. The IT Project Management Services Fee is non-refundable.

(c) If Franchisee is constructing a new Hotel, adapting a non-hotel for use as a Hotel, or conducting a significant renovation of an existing hotel in connection with conversion to a Brand Hotel, Franchisee shall pay Hyatt a design services review fee (the "Design Services Review Fee") as set forth in Exhibit B. The Design Services Review Fee is non-refundable.

6.2 Monthly Fees to Hyatt. On or before the tenth (10th) day of each month or such later day of the month that Hyatt periodically specifies, Franchisee shall pay Hyatt:

(a) a "Royalty Fee" equal to seven percent (7%) of the Hotel's Gross Rooms Revenue generated through Hyatt Channels and accrued during the preceding month;

(b) the System Services Charges for the previous month. Franchisee acknowledges that System Services Charges will include an allocable proportion of certain System Services Costs incurred during the period before the Hotel opens in accordance with this Agreement. System Services Charges shall be determined on the same basis as such amounts are determined for other Participating Hotels. Any allocation of shared costs that the Hyatt Group makes in good faith and with the intention of fairly allocating such costs to System Services shall be binding on the parties hereto. System Services Costs shall include the actual costs incurred by the Hyatt Group and shall not be subject to any mark-up, premium or profit on any Mandatory Services, but may include a profit or mark-up component on Non-Mandatory Services as described above or as determined by the Hyatt Group. The Hyatt Group may in its reasonable judgment periodically change its method of allocation of the System Services Costs among Participating Hotels, and the categories of Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels that are classified as Participating Hotels, provided that such method of allocation and categories of Participating Hotels shall at all times be determined on a reasonable, equitable and non-discriminatory basis; and

(c) all fees and other amounts that Hyatt (or its Affiliates) then has paid or has agreed to pay on Franchisee's behalf to any Providers. If any Provider assesses a single or group fee or other charge that covers all or a group of Brand Hotels or other Hyatt Network Hotels to which that Provider provides products or services, Franchisee agrees that Hyatt's allocation of that fee or other charge among the Hotel and other participating hotels is final. The Providers may periodically increase the fees and other charges they impose. At Hyatt's option, Franchisee must begin paying these fees and other charges directly to the applicable Provider(s).

6.3 Payments to Other Parties. Franchisee agrees to pay on a timely basis, as and when due, all amounts owed to third parties (including Hyatt's Affiliates) arising out of the Hotel's operation (excluding only amounts owed which are reasonably in dispute), including: (a) applicable commissions to travel agents and third party reservation service charges and otherwise participate in any Hotel System travel agent commission payment program, as Hyatt periodically modifies it; (b) all commissions and fees for reservations Franchisee accepts through any sources (including the Internet), whether processed through Hyatt, the CRS, or any Provider's reservation system or billed directly to Franchisee; and (c) all fees and assessments due for guest frequency programs and other marketing programs Hyatt periodically initiates that are attributable to the Hotel.

6.4 Electronic Funds Transfer. Franchisee must make all payments for Royalty Fees, System Services Charges and other amounts due to Hyatt or any member of the Hyatt Group under this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Hotel by electronic funds transfer ("EFT") in compliance with System Standards. Hyatt periodically may change the procedure for payments hereunder. Funds must be available in Franchisee's account to cover payments when due. Franchisee may not change its bank, financial institution, or account used in connection with the operation of the Hotel without first telling Hyatt.

6.5 Late Fee and Late Payment Interest. Franchisee agrees to pay Hyatt a late fee of Two Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($225) for each required payment not made on or before its original due date and for each required payment or authorized automatic debit not honored by Franchisee's financial institution. The late fee is not interest or a penalty but compensates Hyatt for increased administrative and management costs due to Franchisee's late payment. In addition, all amounts that Franchisee owes Hyatt that are more than seven (7) days late, or that are not available for withdrawal by automatic debit when due (if the amounts are payable by automatic debit), will bear interest accruing as of their original due date at one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest commercial contract interest rate the law allows, whichever is less. Franchisee acknowledges that this Section 6.5 is not Hyatt's agreement to accept any payments after they are due or Hyatt's commitment to extend credit to, or otherwise finance Franchisee's operation of, the Hotel.

6.6 Application of Payments. Despite any designation Franchisee makes, Hyatt may apply any of Franchisee's payments to any of Franchisee's past due indebtedness to Hyatt or its Affiliates. Hyatt may set off any amounts Franchisee or its Affiliates owe Hyatt or its Affiliates against any amounts that Hyatt or its Affiliates owe Franchisee or its Affiliates. Franchisee may not withhold payment of any amounts Franchisee owes Hyatt or its Affiliates due to Hyatt's alleged nonperformance of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

6.7 Taxes on Franchisee's Payments. In addition to any sales, use and other taxes that applicable law requires or permits Hyatt to collect from Franchisee for providing goods or services under this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay to Hyatt all Transaction Taxes in an amount necessary to provide Hyatt with after-tax receipts (taking into account any additional payments required hereunder) equal to the same amounts that Hyatt would have received under this Agreement if such Transaction Taxes had not been imposed.

6.8 Non-Refundability. Unless otherwise specified, all fees that Franchisee paid to Hyatt or its Affiliates before or simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, or pays to Hyatt or its Affiliates during the Term, are non-refundable.

ARTICLE VII

BOOKS AND RECORDS, AUDITS AND REPORTING

7.1 Reports. Franchisee must prepare and deliver to Hyatt the operating statements, financial statements and other reports relating to the Hotel that Hyatt periodically requires, prepared in the form, by the methods, and within the timeframes that Hyatt periodically specifies in the System Standards. Hyatt may use such information for all reasonable purposes. Hyatt may require Franchisee to have audited financial statements prepared annually during the Term.

7.2 Lender and Ground Lessor Information. Franchisee must send Hyatt current contact information for each Lender and Ground Lessor upon Hyatt's request or any change in the Lender's or Ground Lessor's information, and must provide Hyatt written notice of any proposed material amendments to any mortgage or loan facility covering the Hotel, together with information concerning the proposed amendment and Franchisee's financial condition that Hyatt reasonably requests, at least fifteen (15) days before finalizing the amendment. Upon Hyatt's request, Franchisee must provide Hyatt copies of all ground leases, subleases and other arrangements with any Ground Lessor. Franchisee must promptly send Hyatt a copy of any notices of default, termination, or other exercise of any default rights or remedies that Franchisee receives from or delivers to any Lender or Ground Lessor, together with all other information that Hyatt reasonably requests relating to any such defaults or termination. Franchisee agrees that Hyatt may, at its option and without breaching any rights of or obligations to Franchisee, have discussions and share information with any Lender, Ground Lessor, supplier or other vendor concerning the Hotel or Franchisee.

7.3 Other Actions or Events. Franchisee must notify Hyatt in writing within ten (10) days after Franchisee receives information or documentation about any lawsuit, action, or proceeding, or the issuance of any injunction, award, or decree of any court, quasi-judicial body, or governmental agency, that might adversely affect the Hotel, Franchisee's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, or Franchisee's financial condition.

7.4 Preparation and Maintenance of Books and Records. Franchisee agrees to: (a) prepare on a current basis in a form satisfactory to Hyatt, and thereafter maintain in accordance with System Standards, complete and accurate records concerning Gross Rooms Revenue and all financial, operating, marketing, and other aspects of the Hotel; and (b) maintain an accounting system that fully and accurately reflects all financial aspects of the Hotel. Hyatt reserves the right to access Franchisee's computer system independently to obtain sales information, occupancy information, and other data and information relating to the Hotel.

7.5 Audit. Hyatt may at any time during Franchisee's regular business hours, and with prior notice to Franchisee, examine Franchisee's and the Hotel's business and accounting records, tax records and returns, and other records. Franchisee agrees to cooperate fully in any examination. If any examination discloses an understatement of the Hotel's Gross Rooms Revenue, Franchisee agrees to pay Hyatt, within fifteen (15) days after receiving the examination report, the Royalty Fees, System Services Charges and other fees due on the amount of the understatement, together with the late fee and interest in accordance with Section 6.5. Furthermore, if Hyatt determines that an examination is necessary due to Franchisee's failure to furnish reports or other information when required, or if Hyatt's examination reveals a Royalty Fee or System Services Charge underpayment of three percent (3%) or more of the total amount owed during any six (6)-month period, or that Franchisee willfully understated the Hotel's Gross Rooms Revenue, Franchisee agrees to reimburse Hyatt for the costs of the examination, including out-of-pocket costs and compensation of Hyatt's employees. These remedies are in addition to Hyatt's other remedies and rights under this Agreement and applicable law.

ARTICLE VIII

RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES AND INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 Relationship of the Parties. Franchisee is an independent contractor. Neither Hyatt nor Franchisee is the legal representative or agent of, or has the power to obligate, the other for any purpose. No partnership, joint venture, affiliate, agency, fiduciary, or employment relationship is intended or created by this Agreement. Hyatt and Franchisee may not make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees, or representations, or incur any debt, in the name or on behalf of the other nor represent that Hyatt's and Franchisee's relationship is other than franchisor and franchisee. Hyatt will not be obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of the Hotel's operation or the business Franchisee conducts under this Agreement.

8.2 Franchisee's Notices to Public Concerning Independent Status. Franchisee must provide notices making clear to the public that Hyatt is not the Hotel's owner or operator and is not accountable for events occurring at the Hotel. Franchisee also agrees to communicate clearly with Hotel employees in employment agreements, handbooks and other materials that Franchisee

(or the Management Company, as applicable), and not Hyatt or its Affiliates, is the employer of all Hotel employees.

8.3 Franchisee's Indemnification and Defense of Hyatt.

(a) Indemnification. In addition to Franchisee's obligation under this Agreement to procure and maintain insurance, Franchisee agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Hyatt Indemnified Parties against, and to reimburse any one or more of the Hyatt Indemnified Parties for, all Losses directly or indirectly arising out of, resulting from, or in connection with (a) the application Franchisee submitted to Hyatt for the rights granted under this Agreement; (b) the development or operation of the Hotel, including the use of the Tradename or Hotel IP in connection with the Hotel and any claim or allegation relating to the Accessibility Laws, and including claims alleging either intentional or negligent conduct, acts or omissions by Hyatt or its Affiliates (or any of their agents, employees or representatives) relating to the operation of the Hotel, the F&B Operations, the Spa Operations or the Hotel System, subject to Section 8.4(a); or (c) Franchisee's breach of this Agreement.

(b) Defense. Franchisee shall notify Hyatt within five (5) days after receiving notice of any Proceeding covered in Section 8.3(a) naming any Hyatt Indemnified Party as a defendant or potential defendant and shall include with such notification copies of all correspondence or court papers relating to the Proceeding. Franchisee agrees to defend (at Franchisee's expense) the Hyatt Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Proceedings directly or indirectly arising out of, resulting from, or in connection with any matter described in Section 8.3(a) through (c), including those alleging a Hyatt Indemnified Party's negligence or willful misconduct, subject to Section 8.4(a). Each Hyatt Indemnified Party may at Franchisee's expense defend and control the defense of any Proceeding described in this Section 8.3(b) and agree to settlements and take any other remedial, corrective, or other actions, without limiting Franchisee's obligations under Section 8.3(a), provided that the Hyatt Indemnified Party will seek Franchisee's advice and counsel, and keep Franchisee informed, with regard to any proposed or contemplated settlement.

(c) Separate Counsel and Settlement. If separate counsel is appropriate in Hyatt's opinion because of actual or potential conflicts of interest, Hyatt may retain attorneys and/or independently defend any Proceeding subject to indemnification under this Section 8.3 at Franchisee's sole expense. No party may agree to any settlement in any Proceeding that could have an adverse effect on Hyatt, its Affiliates, the Hotel System, or other franchisees without Hyatt's prior approval.

(d) Right to Control Defense of Certain Proceedings. Without limiting Hyatt's rights or Franchisee's obligations under this Section 8.3, Hyatt (or its designee) has the right to defend and control the defense of any Proceeding arising from any Data Breach or any class action or other Proceeding involving both the Hotel and any other Brand Hotel or Hyatt Network Hotel, regardless of whether Hyatt or any of the other Hyatt Indemnified Parties are named defendants in that Proceeding. Franchisee shall promptly reimburse Hyatt for the Hotel's proportionate share of all reasonable expenses that Hyatt incurs in connection with any Proceeding covered by this Section 8.3(d). Hyatt shall allocate those expenses equitably among the Hotel and all other Brand Hotels and Hyatt Network Hotels involved in the Proceeding in any manner that Hyatt reasonably determines.

8.4 Hyatt's Indemnification and Defense of Franchisee.

(a) Indemnification. Hyatt agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Franchisee Indemnified Parties against, and to reimburse any one or more of the Franchisee Indemnified Parties for, any and all Losses (including defense costs and other Losses incurred in defending any Proceeding described in Section 8.3(b), if applicable) directly or indirectly arising out of, resulting from, or in connection with (i) final decision by a court of competent jurisdiction not subject to further appeal that Hyatt, its Affiliate, or any of their respective employees directly engaged in willful misconduct or gross negligence or intentionally caused the property damage or bodily injury that is the subject of the claim with respect to operation of the Hotel, so long as the claim is not asserted on the basis of (A) theories of vicarious liability (including agency, apparent agency, or joint employer), (B) Hyatt's failure to compel Franchisee to comply with this Agreement, or (C) negligence or misconduct in connection with the development or construction of the Hotel, all of which are claims for which the Franchisee Indemnified Parties are not entitled to indemnification under this Section 8.4(a); or (ii) any trademark infringement Proceeding disputing Franchisee's authorized use of any Proprietary Mark under this Agreement, provided that Franchisee has timely notified Hyatt of, and complies with Hyatt's directions in responding to, the Proceeding.

(b) Defense. Hyatt agrees to defend (at Hyatt's expense) the Franchisee Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Proceedings described in Section 8.4(b). At Hyatt's option, Hyatt and/or its Affiliate(s) may defend and control the defense of any other Proceeding arising from or relating to the Proprietary Marks or Franchisee's use of any Proprietary Mark under this Agreement. Hyatt may agree to settlements and take any other remedial, corrective, or other actions with respect to any Proceeding described in this Section 8.4(b), provided that Hyatt will seek Franchisee's advice and counsel, and keep Franchisee informed, with regard to any proposed or contemplated settlement.

8.5 Survival and Mitigation. The obligations under Sections 8.3 and 8.4 will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding this Agreement's expiration or termination. A Hyatt Indemnified Party or Franchisee Indemnified Party need not seek recovery from any insurer or other third party, or otherwise mitigate its Losses, in order to maintain and recover fully a claim under Section 8.3 or 8.4 (as applicable). The obligation to indemnify under Section 8.3 or 8.4 (as applicable) shall not be limited in any way by reason of any insurance that any indemnified party maintains.

ARTICLE IX

INSURANCE

At Franchisee's expense, Franchisee must procure and at all times during the Term maintain such insurance covering the risks, in the amounts, and with the deductibles, retentions and other provisions, as set forth in the System Standards from time to time. All insurance must be endorsed specifically name Hyatt and its Affiliates (and Hyatt's and their employees and agents) as additional insureds. Franchisee must purchase each policy from an insurance company reasonably acceptable to Hyatt. Either the insurer or Franchisee must provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Hyatt of any insurance policy's cancellation, non-renewal or material change. Franchisee must deliver to Hyatt a certificate of insurance (or certified copy of such insurance policy if Hyatt requests) evidencing the required coverages and setting forth the amount of any deductibles not less than ten (10) days after their respective inception dates. Franchisee must ensure that each F&B Operator and Spa Operator maintains the insurance and otherwise complies with all applicable obligations under this ARTICLE IX that Hyatt periodically specifies, including by naming Hyatt and any Affiliates that Hyatt periodically designates (and Hyatt's and their employees and agents) as additional insureds and delivering certificates of insurance to Hyatt. If Franchisee fails for any reason to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, Hyatt shall have the right and authority (although without any obligation to do so) to immediately procure such insurance and to charge Franchisee the cost together with a reasonable fee for Hyatt's expenses.

ARTICLE X

CONDEMNATION AND DAMAGE

10.1 Condemnation. Franchisee must immediately notify Hyatt of any proposed taking all or a substantial portion of the Hotel by eminent domain, condemnation or expropriation. If the parties do not otherwise agree to relocate the Hotel, then either party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the other. If Franchisee and its Owners sign a Termination Agreement, then Franchisee shall not be required to pay liquidated damages pursuant to Section 16.5 at the time of termination. However, such Termination Agreement shall provide that if Franchisee or any of its Affiliates begins construction on or operation of a full service hotel at any location within the Area of Protection at any time during the twenty-four (24) month period following the effective date of termination of this Agreement, other than a Hyatt Network Hotel or a hotel that was already under contract to be developed at that particular location within the Area of Protection on the date that the Termination Agreement is signed, then Franchisee or its Owners must pay Hyatt liquidated damages equal to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) multiplied by the number of guest rooms in that new full service hotel. If Franchisee and its Owners fail to sign such Termination Agreement within a reasonable time after Hyatt delivers it to Franchisee, then Franchisee must pay Hyatt liquidated damages pursuant to Section 16.5 at the time of termination, in addition to complying with its other post-termination obligations under this Agreement.

10.2 Damage. If the Hotel is damaged by fire, flood, accident, hurricane or other casualty, Franchisee must notify Hyatt immediately.

(a) If the cost to repair the damage is less than or equal to the Damage Threshold, then Franchisee must repair the damage promptly according to the System Standards and this Agreement's other terms and conditions. If the damage or repair requires Franchisee to close all or any portion of the Hotel, then Franchisee must commence reconstruction as soon as practicable (but in any event within four (4) months) after closing the Hotel and reopen for continuous business operations as a Brand Hotel as soon as practicable (but in any event within twenty-four (24) months) after closing the Hotel, but not without complying with this Agreement's other terms and conditions. The Term will be extended for the period of time during which the Hotel is closed pursuant to this Section 10.2(a), and Franchisee need not make any payments of Royalty Fees or System Services Charges while the Hotel is closed pursuant to this Section 10.2(a) unless Franchisee receives insurance proceeds compensating Franchisee for lost Gross Rooms Revenue during such period.

(b) If the cost to repair the damage from the casualty exceeds the Damage Threshold then either party may elect to terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the other in accordance with this Subsection 10.2(b). If Hyatt elects to terminate this Agreement and Franchisee and its Owners sign a Termination Agreement, then Franchisee shall not be required to pay liquidated damages pursuant to Section 16.5 or Brand Damages upon signing the Termination Agreement. If Franchisee elects to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.2(b), and Franchisee and its Owners sign a Termination Agreement, then Franchisee or its Owners must pay a termination fee (in lieu of liquidated damages or Brand Damages) upon signing the Termination Agreement in an amount equal to the lesser of the liquidated damages calculated pursuant to Section 16.5 and the Net Recovery, provided that if the Net Recovery is less than zero, no termination fee shall be required upon signing the Termination Agreement.

(c) Franchisee must provide Hyatt such documentation as Hyatt may reasonably request to calculate the Damage Threshold, the insurance proceeds Franchisee receives in connection with any casualty, and the Net Recovery Amount (if applicable). Any Termination Agreement signed pursuant to this Section 10.2 shall provide that if Franchisee, any of its Affiliates, or any other entity (including any buyer of the Hotel) begins construction on or operation of a full service hotel at the Site other than a Brand Hotel or another Hyatt Network Hotel at any time during the twenty-four (24)-month period following the effective date of termination of this Agreement, then Franchisee or its Owners must pay Hyatt liquidated damages equal to the difference between (i) the amount that would have been payable pursuant to Section 16.5 at the time of termination, less (ii) the amount of liquidated damages actually paid at the time of termination pursuant to this Section 10.2.

ARTICLE XI

PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

11.1 Ownership and Goodwill of Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, and Confidential Information. Hyatt's Affiliate has licensed the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, and Confidential Information to Hyatt to use and sublicense in franchising, developing, and operating Brand Hotels. Franchisee's right to use the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, and Confidential Information is derived only from this Agreement and is limited to Franchisee's developing and operating the Hotel according to this Agreement and all System Standards that Hyatt prescribes during the Term. Franchisee's unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, or Confidential Information is a breach of this Agreement and infringes Hyatt's and its Affiliate's rights in them. Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, and Confidential Information and any goodwill established by that use are exclusively for Hyatt's and its Affiliate's benefit, and this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials or Confidential Information upon Franchisee, other than the right to develop and operate the Hotel under this Agreement. Franchisee may not at any time during or after the Term contest or assist any other person or entity in contesting the validity, or Hyatt's and its Affiliate's ownership, of any of the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, or Confidential Information.

11.2 Limitations on Franchisee's Use of Proprietary Marks. Franchisee agrees to use the Proprietary Marks to identify the Hotel's affiliation in the manner that Hyatt periodically specifies, except that Franchisee must identify itself as the Hotel's independent owner in the manner that Hyatt periodically specifies. Franchisee may not use any Proprietary Mark: (a) as part of any corporate or legal business name; (b) with any prefix, suffix, or other modifying words, terms, designs, or symbols (other than logos Hyatt licenses to Franchisee); (c) in providing or selling any unauthorized services or products; (d) as part of any domain name, homepage, meta tags, keyword, electronic address, or otherwise in connection with a website (unless Hyatt has approved such use in advance); or (e) in any other manner Hyatt has not expressly authorized in writing. Franchisee (and, if applicable, any restaurant operators at the Hotel) may not use the Proprietary Marks in connection with any Hotel restaurant operations without Hyatt's prior written consent, which it will not unreasonably withhold, and complying with all System Standards relating thereto. If Hyatt discovers Franchisee's unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks, in addition to Hyatt's other rights and remedies under this Agreement and applicable law, Hyatt may require Franchisee to destroy (with no reimbursement from Hyatt) all offending items reflecting such unauthorized use.

Franchisee may not use any Proprietary Mark in advertising the transfer, sale, or other disposition of the Hotel or an ownership interest in Franchisee or any of its Owners without Hyatt's prior written consent, which Hyatt will not unreasonably withhold. Franchisee agrees to display the Proprietary Marks as Hyatt periodically prescribes at the Hotel and on advertising and other materials Hyatt periodically designates. Franchisee agrees to give the notices of trade and service mark registrations that Hyatt periodically specifies and to obtain any fictitious or assumed name registrations required under applicable law.

11.3 Notification of Infringements and Claims. Franchisee agrees to notify Hyatt immediately of any apparent infringement or challenge to Franchisee's use of any Proprietary Mark, Copyrighted Materials, or Confidential Information, or of any person's claim of any rights in any Proprietary Mark, Copyrighted Materials, or Confidential Information, and not to communicate with any person other than Hyatt, its Affiliates, and its and their attorneys, and Franchisee's attorneys, regarding any infringement, challenge, or claim. Hyatt and its Affiliates may take the action it and they deem appropriate (including no action) and control exclusively any Proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge, or claim or otherwise concerning any Proprietary Mark, Copyrighted Materials, or Confidential Information. Franchisee agrees to sign any documents and take any other reasonable actions that, in the opinion of Hyatt's and its Affiliates' attorneys, are necessary or advisable to protect and maintain Hyatt's and its Affiliates' interests in any Proceeding or otherwise to protect and maintain Hyatt's and its Affiliates' interests in the Proprietary Marks, Copyrighted Materials, and Confidential Information. Hyatt or its Affiliate will reimburse Franchisee's reasonable out-of-pocket costs for taking any requested action.

11.4 Discontinuing Use of Proprietary Marks. If it becomes advisable at any time for Hyatt and/or Franchisee to modify, discontinue using, and/or replace any Proprietary Mark and/or to use one or more additional, substitute, or replacement trade or service marks, Franchisee agrees to comply with Hyatt's directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice. Neither Hyatt nor its Affiliates will reimburse Franchisee for any costs or expenses incurred in connection with such directions, including expenses of changing the Hotel's signs, any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Proprietary Mark, or Franchisee's expenses of promoting a modified or substitute trademark or service mark. Hyatt's rights in this Section 11.4 apply to any and all of the Proprietary Marks (and any portion of any Proprietary Mark) that this Agreement authorizes Franchisee to use.

11.5 Confidential Information. Hyatt and its Affiliates possess (and will continue to develop and acquire) Confidential Information, some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law. Franchisee agrees that the Confidential Information is proprietary to Hyatt and its Affiliates, includes Hyatt's and its Affiliate's trade secrets, and is disclosed to Franchisee only on the condition that Franchisee agrees, and Franchisee hereby does agree, that Franchisee: (a) will not use (or allow any of its Affiliates to use) Confidential Information in any other business or capacity; (b) will keep confidential each item deemed to be a part of Confidential Information, both during and after the Term (afterward for as long as the item is not generally known in the hotel industry); (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any Confidential Information disclosed via electronic medium or in written or other tangible form; and (d) will adopt and implement reasonable procedures that Hyatt periodically specifies to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information.

11.6 Guest Information. All Guest Information is Hyatt's property and part of Confidential Information. Hyatt has the right from time to time during the Term, without notice to Franchisee, to access the Hotel's property management system and other computer systems to retrieve Guest Information. Hyatt and its Affiliates may use, and allow others to use, the Guest Information in any manner that Hyatt deems appropriate (subject to applicable law).

Franchisee may use the Guest Information, and certain other information and data relating to guests and customers of other Brand Hotels and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels that Hyatt periodically specifies, during the Term only to market to and provide services to guests and potential guests of the Hotel in accordance with the System Standards and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. Franchisee must ensure that its Affiliates may not access, and neither Franchisee nor any of its Affiliates may use, any such Guest Information or such other information and data in any other business or capacity. However, following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Franchisee may use, and allow its Affiliates and others to use, any Guest Information that was generated at the Hotel (and not supplied to the Hotel by Hyatt or its Affiliate) during the guest's stay at the Hotel and stored in the Hotel's property management system database in any manner that Franchisee deems appropriate (subject to applicable law) at Franchisee's own risk, provided that Franchisee complies, and ensures that any recipients of that Guest Information from Franchisee (whether directly or indirectly) comply, with Hyatt's then current policies and procedures regarding the collection, storage, use, processing and transfer of personal and/or financial data. If there is a Data Breach, Franchisee must notify Hyatt promptly and Hyatt may require Franchisee to use a third party supplier designated by Hyatt, at Franchisee's sole cost and expense, to review and if necessary, remediate such breach or unauthorized access. Franchisee shall not take any action that could jeopardize Hyatt's or its Affiliate's ability to comply with, or make certifications under, any law, regulation, contract, program or policy related to Guest Information (including Privacy Laws, privacy notices and PCI certifications) and applicable to Hyatt or such Affiliate.

11.7 Innovations. All Innovations must be promptly disclosed to Hyatt and will be deemed to be Hyatt's and its Affiliate's sole and exclusive property, part of the Hotel System, and works made-for-hire for Hyatt and its Affiliate. However, Franchisee may not use any Innovation in operating the Hotel or otherwise without Hyatt's prior written consent. If any Innovation does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for Hyatt and its Affiliate, by this paragraph Franchisee assigns ownership of that Innovation, and all related intellectual property rights and other rights to that Innovation, to Hyatt and agrees to take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) that Hyatt requests to evidence its ownership or to help Hyatt obtain intellectual property rights in the Innovation.

11.8 Use of Tradename. The Tradename identified on Exhibit B shall be the Hotel's primary trade name and shall also include any related logos, restaurant names, spa names, and other identifiers that Franchisee (with Hyatt's approval) uses to identify the Hotel and its amenities which are not Proprietary Marks. The Hotel shall feature the Tradename identified on Exhibit B as the Hotel's primary trade name in the manner that Hyatt periodically specifies, subject to an affiliation with the Proprietary Marks in the manner that Hyatt periodically specifies. Franchisee represents and warrants that Franchisee owns or has all valid and exclusive rights to use the Tradename in the manner that this Agreement contemplates. Throughout the Term, Franchisee shall not use, or allow or authorize any third party to use, the Tradename in connection with any hotel, resort, time share, lodging facility or other accommodations, other than the Hotel or another Brand Hotel. Franchisee acknowledges that the Tradename is not a Proprietary Mark and Hyatt makes no representation concerning the validity of or Franchisee's right to use the Tradename. Franchisee hereby grants Hyatt and its Affiliates the right to use the Tradename in connection with marketing the Hotel and otherwise performing Hyatt's obligations under this Agreement.

11.9 Hotel IP. Franchisee hereby grants Hyatt and its Affiliates the right to use the Hotel IP in connection with the marketing, promotion, and publicity of the Hotel, the Proprietary Marks, other Brand Hotels, Hyatt Network Hotels, and Hyatt's loyalty program(s), and otherwise to perform Hyatt's obligations under this Agreement, including use of the Hotel IP in connection with the CRS, the Hotel System Website, and any other media, technology or device now known or hereafter developed, without further authorization from or remuneration to Franchisee. As part of this license, Hyatt and its Affiliates have the right to use, copy, publish, distribute, and license others to use the Hotel IP, as needed, and may alter, retouch, crop or use in composite form the Hotel IP, in any way. Franchisee represents and warrants that Franchisee owns or has all valid rights to use the Hotel IP and that use of the Hotel IP by Hyatt and its Affiliates as permitted hereunder will not violate the rights of any third party.

ARTICLE XII

OWNERSHIP OF FRANCHISEE AND TRANSFER

12.1 Ownership of Franchisee and Guarantors.

(a) Franchisee's Owners. Franchisee represents and warrants that: (a) Exhibit F completely and accurately identifies all Owners (other than any Limited Interest Owner) and describes their ownership interests (whether direct or indirect) in Franchisee; and (b) none of Franchisee's Owners (other than a Public Owner) is a Sanctioned Person. Without limiting Hyatt's rights or Franchisee's obligations under this Section 12.1(a), upon Hyatt's reasonable request, Franchisee agrees to provide Hyatt information about the identity of the Owners (other than a Public Owner) and their ownership interests (whether direct or indirect) in Franchisee from time to time using the forms and formats that Hyatt reasonably specifies.

(b) Guaranty. Franchisee must ensure that one or more of the Controlling Owners which Hyatt specifies as of the Effective Date signs Hyatt's Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations (the "Guaranty"), the current form of which is attached as Exhibit G. Franchisee represents and warrants that at least one Guarantor satisfies the Guarantor Monetary Threshold as of the Effective Date, and Franchisee agrees to ensure that at least one Guarantor continues to satisfy the Guarantor Monetary Threshold (as it may be increased in accordance with Exhibit B) at all times during the Term. Franchisee agrees to, and shall cause its Guarantors to, reasonably cooperate with Hyatt in connection with all auditing and reporting requirements that Hyatt reasonably specifies relating to the Guarantor Monetary Threshold.

12.2 Transfer by Franchisee – Defined. Franchisee acknowledges that the rights and duties this Agreement creates are personal to Franchisee and its Controlling Owners and that Hyatt has granted Franchisee the rights under this Agreement in reliance upon Hyatt's perceptions of Franchisee's and its Controlling Owners' collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability, and financial capacity. Accordingly, unless otherwise specified in this ARTICLE XII, neither this Agreement (or any interest in this Agreement), the Hotel or substantially all of its assets, nor any ownership interest in Franchisee or any Owner (if such Owner is a legal entity) may be transferred (as defined in Exhibit A) without complying with the terms and conditions applicable to such transfer in this ARTICLE XII. A transfer of the Hotel's ownership, possession, or control, or substantially all of its assets, may be made only with a transfer of this Agreement. Any transfer without complying with the terms and conditions applicable to such transfer in this ARTICLE XII, including Hyatt's approval (where such approval is required under this Agreement), is a breach of this Agreement.

12.3 Non-Control Transfers. Subject to the other provisions of this ARTICLE XII, Franchisee and/or any of its Owners may consummate any Non-Control Transfers, without seeking or receiving Hyatt's consent, if (a) neither the proposed transferee nor any of its direct and indirect owners (if the transferee is a legal entity), other than a Public Owner, is a Brand Owner or Sanctioned Person; and (b) such transfer does not, whether in one transaction or a series of related transactions (regardless of the time period over which these transactions take place), result in the transfer or creation of a direct or indirect Controlling Ownership Interest in Franchisee. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of any Non-Control Transfer (other than transfers among then-existing Owners), Franchisee shall provide Hyatt an updated Exhibit F (if the previously effective version of Exhibit F has changed) or such other information as Hyatt reasonably requests from time to time concerning any new Non-Controlling Owners (other than Limited Interest Owners).

12.4 Control Transfers. Franchisee must notify Hyatt in writing at least ten (10) days in advance of Franchisee's listing the Hotel or a direct or indirect Controlling Ownership Interest in Franchisee for sale and promptly send Hyatt all information that Hyatt reasonably requests regarding any proposed sale. In connection with any proposed Control Transfer, Franchisee must submit to Hyatt, on behalf of the proposed transferee, a complete application for a new franchise agreement (the "Change of Ownership Application"), accompanied by payment of Hyatt's then current application fee (although no such fee is due if the transfer is to the spouse, child, parent, or sibling of the Owner(s) or from one individual or entity who is an Owner as of the Effective Date to another individual or entity who is an Owner as of the Effective Date) and information concerning any proposed replacement Guarantor. If Hyatt does not approve the Change of Ownership Application and consent to the proposed Control Transfer, Hyatt will refund any application fee paid, less Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) for processing costs. Hyatt will process the Change of Ownership Application according to this Section 12.4 and its then current procedures. Hyatt has sixty (60) days from its receipt of the completed and signed Change of Ownership Application to consent or withhold its consent to the proposed Control Transfer. No Control Transfer may occur without Hyatt's prior written consent.

If Franchisee (and each of its Guarantors) is complying with this Agreement, then, subject to the other provisions of this ARTICLE XII, Hyatt will not unreasonably withhold its approval of a Control Transfer if all of the following conditions are met before or concurrently with the effective date of the Control Transfer:

- (a) the transferee and each of its direct and indirect owners (if the transferee is a legal entity) has, in Hyatt's judgment, the necessary business experience, aptitude, and financial resources to operate the Hotel and meets Hyatt's then applicable standards for Brand Hotel franchisees;
- (b) Franchisee has paid all amounts owed to Hyatt, its Affiliates and third party vendors, and has not violated any provision of this Agreement or any other agreement with Hyatt or its Affiliate, in each case during both the sixty (60)-day period before Franchisee requested Hyatt's consent to the transfer and the period between Franchisee's request and the effective date of the transfer;
- (c) the transferee's general manager and other Hotel management personnel that Hyatt specifies, if different from the Hotel's general manager and management personnel, satisfactorily complete Hyatt's required brand standard training programs;
- (d) the transferee and its owners (if the transfer is of this Agreement), or Franchisee and its Owners (if the transfer is of a Controlling Ownership Interest in Franchisee or one of its Controlling Owners), at Hyatt's option, either sign: (i) Hyatt's then current form of franchise agreement and related documents for use with existing Brand Hotels (including guarantees and assumptions of obligations), any and all of the provisions of which may differ materially from any and all of those contained in this Agreement, including the Royalty Fee and System Services Charges, and the term of which franchise agreement will be, at Hyatt's option, either twenty (20) years or the remaining unexpired portion of the Term; or (ii) the agreements and related documents (including guarantees and assumptions of obligations) that Hyatt then specifies under which they assume (or confirm the continued effectiveness of) all of Franchisee's rights and obligations under this Agreement;

(e) Franchisee signs a Termination Agreement and Franchisee and all Guarantors sign all documents Hyatt requests evidencing their agreement to remain liable or assume liability for all obligations to Hyatt and its Affiliates existing before the effective date of the transfer;

(f) Hyatt has determined that Franchisee's or the transferee's (as applicable) capital structure, debt service and overall financial status following the transfer will not adversely affect the operation of the Hotel;

(g) the transferee (if the transfer is of this Agreement) or Franchisee (if the transfer is of a Controlling Ownership Interest in Franchisee or one of its Controlling Owners) agrees (regardless of cost) to renovate, remodel and/or expand the Hotel, which may include structural alterations, adding or replacing improvements and FF&E, and otherwise modifying the Hotel, as Hyatt requires to comply with the Hotel System and System Standards then applicable for new similarly situated Brand Hotels, subject to Reasonable Deviations; and

(h) Franchisee (if Franchisee will no longer operate the Hotel) and its transferring Owners agree that they will not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner use any Proprietary Mark, Copyrighted Materials or Confidential Information, except as otherwise permitted under any then effective agreement with Hyatt or its Affiliate.

Hyatt may review all information regarding the Hotel that Franchisee gives the proposed transferee, correct any information that Hyatt believes is inaccurate, and give the transferee copies of any reports that Franchisee has given Hyatt or Hyatt has made regarding the Hotel.

12.5 Permitted Control Transfers. Notwithstanding Section 12.4:

(a) any Controlling Owner may, without Hyatt's prior written consent and without complying with the other terms and conditions of Section 12.4, transfer its interest in Franchisee (or Franchisee's Controlling Owner) to any other entity in which such Controlling Owner owns (directly or indirectly) all of the ownership interests; and

(b) Franchisee may mortgage the Hotel (but not this Agreement) to a Lender, and Franchisee's Owners may pledge their ownership interests in Franchisee or any Controlling Owner to a Lender, without having to obtain Hyatt's prior approval and without complying with the other terms and conditions of Section 12.4, provided that any foreclosure or other exercise of the Lender's remedies is subject to any applicable provisions of this ARTICLE XII; and

(c) any Owner who is an individual may, without Hyatt's prior written consent and without complying with the other terms and conditions of Section 12.4, transfer that Owner's interest in Franchisee (or Franchisee's Owner) to a trust or other entity established for estate planning purposes, as long as that Owner is a trustee of, or otherwise controls the exercise of the rights in Franchisee (or Franchisee's Owner) held by, the trust or other entity, continues to comply with and ensures the trust's or other entity's compliance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement (if such Owner is a Guarantor), and notifies Hyatt in writing of the transfer at least ten (10) days prior to its anticipated effective date. Dissolution of or transfers from any trust or other entity described in this Section 12.5(c) are subject to all applicable terms and conditions of Section 12.3 or 12.4.

12.6 Security Interests. Franchisee's Owners may pledge their ownership interests in any Non-Controlling Owner to a Lender, without having to obtain Hyatt's prior approval. Franchisee may mortgage or otherwise grant a Security Interest in the Hotel and its assets (but not this Agreement) to a Lender, and Franchisee's Owners may pledge their ownership interests in Franchisee or any Controlling Owner to a Lender, without having to obtain Hyatt's prior approval and without complying with the other terms and conditions of Section 12.4, provided the Lender signs Hyatt's form of comfort letter pursuant to Section 2.7. Unless otherwise specified in any then effective comfort letter, the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including Section 12.3 or 12.4) apply to any foreclosure or other exercise of any rights or remedies with respect to any Security Interest..

12.7 Transfers of Equity Interest Upon Death. Upon the death or mental incompetency of a person with a Controlling Ownership Interest in Franchisee or one of its Controlling Owners, that person's executor, administrator, or personal representative ("Representative") must, within six (6) months after the date of death or mental incompetency, transfer the Owner's interest in Franchisee or the Controlling Owner to a third party, subject to Hyatt's approval and the conditions set forth in Section 12.4. In the case of a transfer by devise or inheritance, if the heirs or beneficiaries cannot meet the conditions of Section 12.4 within this six (6)-month period, the Representative will have nine (9) months from the date of death or mental incompetency to dispose of the interest, subject to Hyatt's approval and the conditions set forth in Section 12.4. Hyatt may terminate this Agreement if this required transfer fails to occur in compliance with this Agreement within the required timeframe.

12.8 Public Offerings and Disclosures.

(a) Public Offering of Securities. Notwithstanding 12.3 and 12.4, neither Franchisee nor any Controlling Owner may offer any ownership interests or other securities in a public offering for which a registration statement must be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or any similar regulatory agency (whether within or outside the United States) having jurisdiction over the sale of securities.

(b) Private Placement Offering Materials. With respect to any private placement of ownership interests in Franchisee or any Owner, Franchisee agrees to submit all Offering Materials to Hyatt for its prior approval. No Offering Materials may imply or state (by use of the Proprietary Marks or otherwise) that Hyatt or its Affiliate is participating as an underwriter, issuer, or Franchisee's (or its Owner's) representative, suggest that Hyatt or its Affiliate endorses the offering or agrees with any financial projections, or otherwise contain any information about Hyatt or its Affiliates, this Agreement, Hyatt's relationship with Franchisee or the network of Brand Hotels or other Hyatt Network Hotels (other than the Hotel) that Hyatt disapproves. Hyatt's review and approval of the Offering Materials is not its endorsement of the offering or representation that Franchisee or its Owner is complying with applicable laws. Franchisee must pay Hyatt a non-refundable fee equal to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) to review the proposed Offering Materials. Hyatt may require changes to the Offering Materials for the purposes specified above and has the right to request and receive a full indemnification from all participants in the offering before issuing Hyatt's consent.

12.9 Non-Waiver of Claims. Hyatt's consent to a transfer is not a representation of the fairness of the terms of any contract between Franchisee (or its Owners) and the transferee, a guarantee of the Hotel's or transferee's prospects of success, or a waiver of any claims Hyatt has against Franchisee (or its Owners) or of Hyatt's right to demand the transferee's full compliance with this Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisee or the transferee.

12.10 Transfer by Hyatt. Franchisee represents that Franchisee has not signed this Agreement in reliance on any particular direct or indirect owner, officer or employee remaining with Hyatt in that capacity. Hyatt may change its ownership or form and/or assign this Agreement and any other agreement to a third party without restriction. After Hyatt's assignment of this Agreement to a third party who expressly assumes the obligations under this Agreement, Hyatt no longer will have any performance or other obligations under this Agreement. Such an assignment shall constitute a release of Hyatt and a novation with respect to this Agreement, and the assignee shall be liable to Franchisee as if it had been an original party to this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII

SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE

13.1 Right to a Successor Franchise Agreement. When this Agreement expires, if Franchisee (and, as applicable, each Guarantor): (a) has substantially complied with this Agreement during its Term and is in full compliance with this Agreement (including all System Standards) as of the date upon which this Agreement expires; (b) then meets Hyatt's then applicable standards for franchisees and owners of franchisees of Brand Hotels; (c) has received passing Quality Assurance Scores (as defined in the System Standards) on all evaluations conducted during the preceding three (3)-year period; and (d) has the right to maintain possession of the Hotel for at least ten (10) years following this Agreement's expiration, then Hyatt will offer Franchisee the right to enter into a successor franchise agreement to continue operating the Hotel as a Brand Hotel for a term commencing immediately upon the expiration of this Agreement and expiring ten (10) years from that date (the "Successor Franchise Right") in accordance with this ARTICLE XIII. If Franchisee (or any Guarantor) does not meet the requirements of this Section 13.1, then Hyatt need not enter into a successor franchise agreement with Franchisee, whether or not Hyatt notified Franchisee of the non-compliance or had, or chose to exercise, the right to terminate this Agreement during its Term.

13.2 Successor Franchise Notice and PIP. Franchisee agrees to give Hyatt written notice of Franchisee's election to exercise or not to exercise the Successor Franchise Right no more than twenty-one (21) months, and no less than eighteen (18) months, before this Agreement expires. Simultaneously with submitting its notice to exercise the Successor Franchise Right, Franchisee shall pay Hyatt its then current PIP fee, which is non-refundable. Franchisee's failure to deliver such notice within such timeframe or to pay such PIP fee shall be deemed Franchisee's decision not to exercise the Successor Franchise Right. Within ninety (90) days after Hyatt receives Franchisee's notice and payment of the PIP fee, Hyatt agrees to notify Franchisee of Hyatt's decision either to:

(a) deny Franchisee's election to exercise the Successor Franchise Right based on the failure to satisfy the conditions in Section 13.1 (and Hyatt shall provide the reasons for its decision); or

(b) approve Franchisee's election to exercise Successor Franchise Right, subject to (i) Franchisee's renovating, remodeling and/or expanding the Hotel (which may include structural alterations), adding or replacing improvements and FF&E, and otherwise modifying the Hotel as Hyatt requires to comply with the Hotel System and System Standards then applicable for new similarly situated Brand Hotels (subject to Reasonable Deviations), which must be completed to Hyatt's reasonable satisfaction before the Term expires in accordance with the PIP that Hyatt prepares (including the timeframes set forth therein); and (ii) Franchisee's (and each Guarantor's) continued compliance with the other provisions of this Agreement during the remaining Term.

13.3 Agreements/Releases. If Franchisee satisfies all of the other conditions for a successor franchise agreement under this Article XIII, Franchisee agrees to sign the form of franchise agreement and any ancillary agreements Hyatt then customarily uses in granting franchises for Brand Hotels (modified as necessary to reflect the fact that it is for a successor franchise and that there will be no further renewal or successor franchise rights), which may contain provisions that differ materially from any and all of those contained in this Agreement, except that Hyatt will not charge a successor franchise fee. Franchisee and the Guarantors further agree to sign general releases, in a form satisfactory to Hyatt, of any and all claims against Hyatt and its Affiliates and its and their respective owners, officers, directors, managers, employees, agents, representatives, successors, and assigns.

ARTICLE XIV

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

14.1 Arbitration. All controversies, disputes, or claims between Hyatt (and/or its Related Parties) and Franchisee (and/or its Related Parties) arising out of or related to: (a) this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Hyatt or any of its Affiliates; (b) Hyatt's (or any of its Affiliates') relationship with Franchisee; (c) the scope or validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Hyatt or any of its Affiliates, or any provision of any of those agreements (including the validity and scope of the arbitration obligation under this Section 14.1, which Hyatt and Franchisee acknowledge is to be determined by an arbitrator, not a court); or (d) any aspect of the Hotel System or any System Standard, must be submitted for binding arbitration to the American Arbitration Association (the “AAA”). The arbitration proceedings will be conducted by one (1) arbitrator and, except as this Section 14.1 otherwise provides, according to the AAA’s then current commercial arbitration rules. The arbitrator must be a licensed attorney, have hotel industry experience, and be listed on the AAA’s National Roster of Neutrals (or such other equivalent replacement roster of experienced arbitrators that the AAA designates). All proceedings shall be conducted at a suitable location chosen by the arbitrator that is within ten (10) miles of Hyatt’s then current principal business address. The arbitrator shall have no authority to select a different hearing locale. All matters relating to arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. Sections 1 et seq.) and not by any state arbitration law.

The arbitrator has the right to award any relief that he or she deems proper, including money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the date due, as well as post-award interest, in accordance with Section 6.5), specific performance, injunctive relief, and attorneys’ fees and costs, provided that the arbitrator may not declare any Proprietary Mark generic or otherwise invalid or, except as expressly provided in Section 14.5 below, award any punitive, exemplary, or treble or other forms of multiple damages against either party (Hyatt and Franchisee hereby waiving to the fullest extent permitted by law, except as expressly provided in Section 14.5 below, any right to or claim for any punitive, exemplary, and treble and other forms of multiple damages against the other). The award of the arbitrator shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Hyatt and Franchisee agree to be bound by the provisions of any limitation on the period of time in which claims must be brought under applicable law or this Agreement, whichever expires earlier. Hyatt and Franchisee further agree that, in any arbitration proceeding, each must submit or file any claim that would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim that is not submitted or filed as required is forever barred. The arbitrator may not consider any settlement discussions or offers that might have been made by either Franchisee or Hyatt or any of their related parties.

Hyatt and Franchisee agree that arbitration will be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide, basis; that only Hyatt and Franchisee (and/or their respective Related Parties, as applicable) may be the parties to any arbitration proceedings described in this Section 14.1; and that an arbitration proceeding between Hyatt and Franchisee (and/or their respective Related Parties) may not be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding between Hyatt and any other person or entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Section 14.1 or Section 18.2, if any court or arbitrator determines that all or any part of the preceding sentence is unenforceable with respect to a dispute that otherwise would be subject to arbitration under this Section 14.1, then all parties agree that this arbitration clause shall not apply to that dispute and that such dispute shall be resolved in a judicial proceeding in accordance with this ARTICLE XIV (excluding this Section 14.1).

Despite this Section 14.1, Hyatt and Franchisee each have the right to seek temporary restraining orders and temporary or preliminary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, that Hyatt and Franchisee must contemporaneously submit the dispute for arbitration on the merits as provided in this Section 14.1. The provisions of this Section 14.1 are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding this Agreement's expiration or termination.

14.2 Governing Law. All matters relating to arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. Sections 1 et seq.). Except to the extent governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other federal law, this Agreement, the franchise, and all claims arising from the relationship between Hyatt (and/or any of its Affiliates) and Franchisee will be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois, without regard to its conflict of laws rules, except that any Illinois law regulating the offer or sale of franchises, business opportunities, or similar interests, or governing the relationship between a franchisor and a franchisee or any similar relationship, will not apply unless its jurisdictional requirements are met independently without reference to this Section 14.2.

14.3 Consent to Jurisdiction. Subject to the parties' arbitration obligations and the provisions below, Franchisee agrees that all actions arising under this Agreement or otherwise as a result of the relationship between Franchisee and Hyatt (and/or any of its Affiliates) must be commenced in the state or federal court of general jurisdiction closest to Hyatt's then current principal business address, and Franchisee irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of those courts and waives any objection it might have to either the jurisdiction of or venue in those courts. Nonetheless, Franchisee agrees that Hyatt may enforce this Agreement and any arbitration orders and awards in the courts of the state or states in which Franchisee is domiciled or the Hotel is located.

14.4 Attorneys' Fees. If either party initiates a formal legal proceeding under or relating to this Agreement or the relationship between Franchisee and Hyatt (and/or any of its Affiliates), the non-prevailing party in that proceeding (as determined by the judge or arbitrator, as applicable) must reimburse the prevailing party for all of the prevailing party's costs and expenses that it incurs, including reasonable accounting, attorneys', arbitrators', and related fees.

14.5 Waiver Of Punitive Damages And Jury Trial. EXCEPT FOR THE INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS FOR THIRD PARTY CLAIMS UNDER SECTIONS 8.3 AND 8.4, AND EXCEPT FOR PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, AND TREBLE AND OTHER FORMS OF MULTIPLE DAMAGES AVAILABLE TO EITHER PARTY UNDER FEDERAL LAW, HYATT AND FRANCHISEE WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO OR CLAIM FOR ANY PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, AND TREBLE AND OTHER FORMS OF MULTIPLE DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN HYATT AND FRANCHISEE, THE PARTY MAKING A CLAIM WILL BE LIMITED TO EQUITABLE RELIEF AND TO RECOVERY OF ANY ACTUAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES) IT SUSTAINS.

SUBJECT TO THE PARTIES' ARBITRATION OBLIGATIONS, HYATT AND FRANCHISEE IRREVOCABLY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING,

OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, BROUGHT BY EITHER HYATT OR FRANCHISEE.

14.6 Limitations of Claims. EXCEPT FOR CLAIMS ARISING FROM FRANCHISEE'S NON-PAYMENT OR UNDERPAYMENT OF AMOUNTS FRANCHISEE OWES HYATT OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES, ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR HYATT'S (OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES') RELATIONSHIP WITH FRANCHISEE WILL BE BARRED UNLESS A LEGAL PROCEEDING (IN THE REQUIRED OR PERMITTED FORUM) IS COMMENCED WITHIN EIGHTEEN (18) MONTHS FROM THE DATE ON WHICH THE PARTY ASSERTING THE CLAIM KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN OF THE FACTS GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIMS.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

15.1 Termination by Hyatt After Opportunity to Cure. Hyatt has the right to terminate this Agreement, effective on the date stated in Hyatt's written notice (or the earliest date permitted by applicable law), if:

(a) Hyatt determines that a serious threat or danger to public health or safety results from the construction, maintenance, or operation of the Hotel, such that an immediate shutdown of the Hotel or construction site is necessary to avoid a substantial liability or loss of goodwill to the Hotel System, and Franchisee fails to shut down the Hotel or construction site within twenty-four (24) hours after delivery of Hyatt's written notice to Franchisee;

(b) Franchisee fails to pay Hyatt or any of its Affiliates any fees or other amounts due under this Agreement or any other agreement and does not cure that default within ten (10) days after delivery of Hyatt's written notice of default to Franchisee;

(c) Franchisee does not buy, maintain, or send Hyatt evidence of required insurance coverage and does not cure that default within ten (10) days after delivery of Hyatt's written notice of default to Franchisee;

(d) Franchisee fails to pay when due any financial obligation to a Provider or otherwise fails to comply with any other provision of this Agreement, any aspect of the Hotel System or any System Standard, and does not cure that default within thirty (30) days after delivery of Hyatt's written notice of default to Franchisee;

(e) Franchisee fails to comply with any other agreement with Hyatt or its Affiliates relating to the Hotel and does not cure that default within thirty (30) days (or such shorter time period that the other agreement specifies for curing that default) after delivery of Hyatt's written notice of default to Franchisee; or

(f) Franchisee fails to ensure that at least one Guarantor satisfies the Guarantor Monetary Threshold and does not cure that default (by providing the financial statements demonstrating that at least one Guarantor then satisfies the Guarantor Monetary Threshold) within sixty (60) days after delivery of Hyatt's written notice of default to Franchisee.

15.2 Termination by Hyatt Without Opportunity to Cure. Hyatt may terminate this Agreement immediately, without giving Franchisee an opportunity to cure the default, effective upon delivery of written notice to Franchisee (or such later date as required by law), if:

(a) Franchisee or any Guarantor admits its inability to pay its debts as they become due or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; suffers an action to dissolve or liquidate; commences or consents to any case, proceeding, or action seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or composition of debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors; suffers an appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other official for any portion of its property or the Hotel; takes any corporate or other action to authorize any of the actions set forth above in this Section 15.2(a); has any case, proceeding, or other action commenced against it as debtor seeking an order for relief, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other official for it or any portion of its property or the Hotel, and such case, proceeding, or other action results in an order for relief against it that is not fully stayed within seven (7) business days after being entered or remains un-dismissed for forty-five (45) days; has an attachment of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) or more on all or any part of the Hotel or any of its assets that remains for at least ninety (90) days; or fails, within sixty (60) days after the entry of a final judgment against it in any amount exceeding One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), to discharge, vacate, or reverse the judgment, to stay its execution, or, if appealed, to discharge the judgment within thirty (30) days after a final adverse decision in the appeal;

(b) Franchisee ceases operating the Hotel at the Site in affiliation with the Proprietary Marks, fails to identify the Hotel to the public as a hotel affiliated with The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, or loses possession of or the right to possess all or a significant part of the Hotel, for any reason except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;

(c) Franchisee or any of its Affiliates contests in any court or other Proceeding Hyatt's or its Affiliate's ownership of all or any portion of the Hotel System or the validity of any Proprietary Mark, Copyrighted Materials, or Confidential Information, or registers or attempts to register any Proprietary Mark or a derivative thereof;

(d) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) makes a transfer in violation of ARTICLE XII;

(e) Franchisee or any of its Owners or Guarantors is, or is discovered to have been, convicted of a felony or enters or is discovered to have entered a plea of no contest to a felony, unless (i) the Owner is a Limited Interest Owner; and (ii) such Owner divests all of such Owner's direct and indirect ownership interests in Franchisee within sixty (60) days after the date of the conviction or plea;

(f) Franchisee or any of its Owners or Guarantors commits (or is discovered to have committed) any action or any other offense likely in Hyatt's reasonable opinion to reflect materially adversely upon Hyatt, its Affiliates, the Hotel System, or the Proprietary Marks, unless (i) the Owner is a Limited Interest Owner; and (ii) such Owner divests all of such Owner's direct and indirect ownership interests in Franchisee within sixty (60) days after notice from Hyatt;

(g) Franchisee knowingly maintains false books and records of account or knowingly submits false or misleading reports or information to Hyatt or its Affiliate, including any information Franchisee provided or failed to provide on its franchise application;

(h) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) knowingly makes any unauthorized use or disclosure of any part of the System Standards or any other Confidential Information;

(i) Franchisee violates any law, ordinance, or regulation and does not begin to cure the violation immediately after receiving notice from Hyatt or any other party and to complete the cure as soon as is reasonably practicable or within the timeframe allowed by law, whichever is shorter;

(j) Franchisee (1) fails on three (3) or more separate occasions within any twelve (12) consecutive month period to comply with this Agreement, whether the failures relate to the same or different obligations under this Agreement and whether or not Hyatt provides formal written notice to Franchisee of or Franchisee corrects the failures; or (2) fails on two (2) or more separate occasions within any six (6) consecutive month period to comply with the same obligation under this Agreement, whether or not Hyatt provides formal written notice to Franchisee of or Franchisee corrects the failures; or

(k) Franchisee's or any of its Owners' (other than a Public Owner's) assets, property, or interests are blocked under any Trade Restriction Law, or Franchisee or any of its Owners (other than a Public Owner) otherwise violate any Trade Restriction Law.

15.3 Suspension of Rights and Services. Upon Franchisee's failure to remedy any default or failure to comply with this Agreement specified in any written notice issued to Franchisee under Section 15.1 (following any cure period specified for such default or failure in Section 15.1) or Section 15.2, Hyatt has the right, until Franchisee remedies such default or failure to Hyatt's satisfaction, to (a) suspend Franchisee's right to use, and Franchisee's access to, the CRS, the GDS and ADS, and/or other System Services; (b) remove the Hotel from Hyatt's advertising publications and programs and/or remove the Hotel's webpage from the Hotel System Website; (c) suspend or terminate any temporary or other fee reductions to which Hyatt might have agreed in this Agreement or any amendment(s) to this Agreement; and/or (d) refuse to provide any operational support that this Agreement otherwise requires. If Hyatt suspends Franchisee from the CRS, Hyatt has the right to divert reservations previously made for the Hotel to other Brand Hotels or Hyatt Network Hotels. If Hyatt exercises its right to suspend Franchisee's access to the CRS or other System Services, such suspension will last no more than six (6) months, after which time Hyatt shall either reinstate Franchisee's access or terminate this Agreement. Hyatt's exercise of this right will not constitute an actual or constructive termination of this Agreement nor be Hyatt's sole and exclusive remedy for Franchisee's default or failure to comply with this Agreement. If Hyatt exercises its right not to terminate this Agreement but to implement any remedies in this Section 15.3, Hyatt may at any time after the appropriate cure period under the written notice has lapsed (if any) terminate this Agreement without giving Franchisee any additional corrective or cure period. During any suspension period, Franchisee must continue to pay all fees and other amounts due under, and otherwise comply with, this Agreement and all related agreements. Hyatt's exercise of its rights under this Section 15.3 will not be a waiver by Hyatt of any breach of this Agreement. If Hyatt rescinds any suspension of Franchisee's rights, Franchisee will not be entitled to any compensation for any fees, expenses or losses Franchisee might have incurred due to Hyatt's exercise of any suspension right provided in this Section 15.3.

15.4 General Provisions Concerning Default and Termination. In any arbitration or other proceeding in which the validity of any termination of this Agreement or Hyatt's refusal to enter into a successor franchise agreement is contested, each party may cite to and rely upon all defaults or violations of this Agreement, not only the defaults or violations referenced in any written notice. Franchisee agrees that Hyatt has the right and authority (but not the obligation) to notify Franchisee's Lender and any or all of Franchisee's Owners, creditors and/or suppliers if Franchisee is in default under, or Hyatt has terminated, this Agreement.

ARTICLE XVI

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UPON EXPIRATION OR TERMINATION

16.1 De-Identification. Beginning on the date upon which this Agreement terminates or expires, Franchisee must immediately cease using the Hotel System and begin to de-identify the Hotel by taking whatever action Hyatt deems necessary to ensure that the Hotel no longer is identified as a Brand Hotel. Franchisee agrees to take the following steps, among other actions that Hyatt then specifies, to de-identify the Hotel:

(a) return to Hyatt Copyrighted Materials, and all materials containing Confidential Information (other than Guest Information stored in the Hotel's property management system database that Franchisee is permitted to use after this Agreement's expiration or termination pursuant to Section 11.6) or bearing any of the Proprietary Marks, and cease using all such items;

(b) remove all structures and items identifying the Hotel System, including all elements of the trade dress and other distinctive features, devices, and/or items associated with the Hotel System, such as (for example) FF&E that is uniquely identified with a Brand Hotel and/or other Hyatt Network Hotels, interior signage, phone face plates, memo pads, pens, cups, glasses, and all other materials bearing one or more of the Proprietary Marks. With respect to the Hotel's exterior signage, Franchisee must (i) immediately schedule the permanent removal of all exterior signage bearing any of the Proprietary Marks and give Hyatt written evidence of that schedule, (ii) immediately cover all such exterior signage in a professional manner, and (iii) permanently remove all such exterior signage within thirty (30) days after this Agreement expires or terminates. In addition, Franchisee must make at its expense such specific additional changes that Hyatt reasonably requests to de-identify the Hotel;

- (c) stop all uses of the Proprietary Marks, Confidential Information and other aspects of the Hotel System in connection with any F&B Operations or Spa Operations;
- (d) change the Hotel's telephone listing and immediately stop answering the telephone in any way that would lead a current or prospective customer, vendor, or other person to believe that the Hotel still is affiliated with The Unbound Collection by Hyatt or with Hyatt;
- (e) stop all uses of the Proprietary Marks on any Hotel-Specific Website and Franchisee Organization Website and require all third party websites to remove any references that directly or indirectly associate the Hotel with the Proprietary Marks;
- (f) cancel all fictitious, assumed, or other business name registrations relating to Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks; and
- (g) permit Hyatt's representatives to enter the Hotel on no less than twenty-four (24) hours' prior notice to conduct inspections on a periodic basis until de-identification is completed to Hyatt's satisfaction.

Beginning on the date upon which this Agreement terminates or expires and continuing until de-identification is completed to Hyatt's satisfaction, Franchisee must maintain a conspicuous sign at the registration desk in a form that Hyatt specifies stating that the Hotel no longer is associated with The Unbound Collection by Hyatt. Franchisee and its Affiliates may not, without Hyatt's permission, represent to Hotel customers, prospective customers or the public that the Hotel is or was a Brand Hotel, or otherwise hold itself out to the public as a former franchisee of Hyatt's or as the former operator of a Brand Hotel, except in the limited case of informing investors, prospective investors, or lenders that Franchisee has general experience in operating a Brand Hotel. Subject to the terms of Subsection (b) above with respect to exterior signage, Franchisee shall complete all de-identification obligations under this Section 16.1 to Hyatt's satisfaction, and provide a written certification to Hyatt indicating such completion, on or before the date which is fifteen (15) days after this Agreement terminates or expires. If Franchisee fails to comply with any of the de-identification provisions in this Section 16.1, Franchisee agrees to: (i) pay Hyatt a royalty fee of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) per day until de-identification is completed to Hyatt's satisfaction; and (ii) permit Hyatt's representatives to enter the Hotel to complete the de-identification process at Franchisee's expense.

16.2 Pay Amounts Owed. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, within five (5) days after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee must pay all amounts owed to Hyatt and its Affiliates under this Agreement or any other agreement.

16.3 Contacting Customers. Upon this Agreement's termination or expiration for any reason, Hyatt has the right to contact those individuals or entities who have reserved rooms with Franchisee through the CRS, and any other Hotel customers, and inform them that Franchisee's lodging facility no longer is part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt. Hyatt also has the right to inform those individuals, entities and customers of other Brand Hotels and Hyatt Network Hotels that are proximately located to Franchisee's lodging facility in case they prefer to change their reservations so that they can stay at a Hyatt Network Hotel. Hyatt's exercise of these rights will not constitute an interference with Franchisee's contractual or business relationships. Franchisee acknowledges that the individuals and entities that made reservations with Franchisee's lodging facility when it was a Brand Hotel under this Agreement constitute Hyatt's customers.

16.4 Survival. The following provisions of this Agreement shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement regardless of the circumstances: Sections 6.5, 6.7, 7.4, 8.1, 8.3, 8.4, 11.1, 11.5, 11.6, 11.7 and 15.4 and ARTICLE IX, ARTICLE XIV, ARTICLE XVI, ARTICLE XVII and ARTICLE XVIII. Additionally, all of Hyatt's and Franchisee's obligations that by their terms or by implication are to be performed after the termination or expiration of the Term shall survive such termination or expiration.

16.5 Liquidated Damages. Franchisee acknowledges and confirms that Hyatt will suffer substantial damages as a result of the termination of this Agreement before the Term expires, including Brand Damages. Hyatt and Franchisee acknowledge that Brand Damages are difficult to estimate accurately and proof of Brand Damages would be burdensome and costly, although such damages are real and meaningful to Hyatt. Therefore, upon termination of this Agreement before the Term expires for any reason (subject to ARTICLE X), Franchisee agrees to pay Hyatt, within fifteen (15) days after the date of such termination, liquidated damages in a lump sum equal to (a) the lesser of sixty (60) or the number of months then remaining in this Agreement's term had it not been terminated, multiplied by (b) the sum of (i) the Average Monthly Revenue (for Gross Rooms Revenue) times three and one-half percent (3.5%), plus (ii) the Average Monthly Revenue (for Gross Rooms Revenue generated through Hyatt Channels) times seven percent (7%).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if this Agreement is terminated because of a Consequential Termination, then the liquidated damages are one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the amount calculated in the preceding paragraph.

Franchisee agrees that the liquidated damages calculated under this Section 16.5 represent the best estimate of Hyatt's Brand Damages arising from any termination of this Agreement before the Term expires. Franchisee's payment of the liquidated damages to Hyatt will not be considered a penalty but, rather, a reasonable estimate of fair compensation to Hyatt for the Brand Damages Hyatt will incur because this Agreement did not continue for the Term's full length.

Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee's payment of liquidated damages is full compensation to Hyatt only for the Brand Damages resulting from the early termination of this Agreement and is in addition to, and not in lieu of, Franchisee's obligations to pay other amounts due to Hyatt under this Agreement as of the date of termination and to comply strictly with the de-identification procedures of Section 16.1 and Franchisee's other post-termination obligations.

If any valid law or regulation governing this Agreement limits Franchisee's obligation to pay, and/or Hyatt's right to receive, the liquidated damages for which Franchisee is obligated under this Section 16.5, then Franchisee shall be liable to Hyatt for any and all Brand Damages Hyatt incurs, now or in the future, as a result of Franchisee's breach of this Agreement.

16.6 System Services. Beginning on the date that this Agreement terminates or expires, Hyatt and its Affiliates shall stop providing System Services to the Hotel.

ARTICLE XVII

ARTICLE XVIII

GENERAL

18.1 The Exercise of Hyatt’s Judgment. Hyatt has the right from time to time to develop, operate, and change the Hotel System and System Standards in any manner not specifically prohibited by this Agreement. Whenever Hyatt has reserved in this Agreement a right to take or to withhold an action, or to grant or decline to grant Franchisee the right to take or omit an action, Hyatt may, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, make its decision or exercise its rights based on information readily available to it and its judgment of what is in the best interests of Hyatt and its Affiliates, The Unbound Collection by Hyatt network generally, or the Hotel System at the time its decision is made, without regard to whether Hyatt could have made other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternative decisions or whether its decision promotes Hyatt’s (or its Affiliates’) financial or other individual interest. Except where this Agreement expressly obligates Hyatt reasonably to approve or not unreasonably to withhold its approval of any of Franchisee’s actions or requests, Hyatt has the absolute right to refuse any request Franchisee makes or to withhold its approval of any of Franchisee’s proposed, initiated, or completed actions that require its approval. However, Hyatt may withhold its consent, whenever and wherever otherwise required, if Franchisee is in default under this Agreement.

18.2 Severability and Interpretation. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement (including in Section 14.1), each section, subsection, paragraph, term, and provision of this Agreement is severable, and if, for any reason, any part is held to be invalid or contrary to or in conflict with any applicable present or future law or regulation in a final, unappealable ruling issued by any court, agency, or tribunal with competent jurisdiction, that ruling will not impair the operation of, or otherwise affect, any other portions of this Agreement, which will continue to have full force and effect and bind the parties. If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires more notice than this Agreement requires of this Agreement's termination or of Hyatt's refusal to offer Franchisee the Successor Franchise Right, or some other action that this Agreement does not require, or if, under any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction, any provision of this Agreement or any System Standard is invalid, unenforceable, or unlawful, the notice and/or other action required by the law or rule will be substituted for the comparable provisions of this Agreement, and Hyatt may modify the invalid or unenforceable provision or System Standard to the extent required to be valid and enforceable or delete the unlawful provision in its entirety. Franchisee agrees to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty the law permits that is subsumed within any provision of this Agreement, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement.

18.3 Waiver of Obligations and Force Majeure. Hyatt and Franchisee may unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement only by a signed written instrument, effective upon delivery of written notice to the other or another effective date stated in the notice of waiver. Any waiver granted will be without prejudice to any other rights Hyatt or Franchisee have, will be subject to continuing review, and may be revoked at any time and for any reason effective upon delivery of ten (10) days' prior written notice.

Hyatt and Franchisee will not waive or impair any right, power, or option this Agreement reserves (including Hyatt's right to demand compliance with every term, condition, and covenant or to declare any breach to be a default and to terminate this Agreement before the Term expires) because of any custom or practice that varies from this Agreement's terms; Hyatt's or Franchisee's failure, refusal, or neglect to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon the other's compliance with this Agreement, including any System Standard; Hyatt's waiver of or failure to exercise any right, power, or option, whether of the same, similar, or different nature, with other Brand Hotels; the existence of franchise agreements for other Brand Hotels that contain provisions differing from those contained in this Agreement; or Hyatt's acceptance of any payments due from Franchisee after any breach of this Agreement. No special or restrictive legend or endorsement on any check or similar item given to either party will be a waiver, compromise, settlement, or accord and satisfaction. The receiving party is authorized to remove any legend or endorsement, and it will have no effect.

Neither Hyatt nor Franchisee will be liable for loss or damage or be in breach of this Agreement, including Franchisee's obligations to develop and open the Hotel under ARTICLE II, if Hyatt's or Franchisee's failure to perform its obligations results from Force Majeure. Any delay resulting from Force Majeure will extend performance accordingly or excuse performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable, except that Force Majeure will not excuse payments of amounts owed at the time of the occurrence or payment of Royalty Fees, System Services Charges or other payments due afterward.

18.4 Binding Effect. This Agreement is valid and enforceable only when signed by Franchisee and signed and accepted by Hyatt at its office in Chicago, Illinois, whether signed by original or electronic signature. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, which, when taken as a whole, shall constitute a single agreement.

18.5 Entire Agreement and Construction. This Agreement is binding upon Hyatt and Franchisee and their respective permitted assigns and successors in interest. Subject to Hyatt's right to modify the Hotel System, System Standards, System Services and System Services Charges (including the methods of allocating costs for System Services), from time to time, this Agreement may not be modified except by a written agreement signed by both Hyatt's and Franchisee's duly-authorized officers. The Preliminary Statement and Exhibits, the attached PIP (if applicable), any state-specific Rider to this Agreement signed by Hyatt and Franchisee at the same time as this Agreement, and the Franchise Application that Franchisee (or its Owner or Affiliate) submitted to Hyatt relating to the Hotel, are a part of this Agreement, which constitutes Hyatt's and Franchisee's entire agreement, and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between Hyatt and Franchisee, and no other oral or written representations by Hyatt, relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, the franchise relationship, or the Hotel (any understandings or agreements reached, or any representations made, before this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement). Franchisee may not rely on any alleged oral or written understandings, agreements, or representations not contained in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement or any related agreement shall disclaim or require Franchisee to waive reliance on any representation that Hyatt made in the most recent franchise disclosure document (including its exhibits and amendments) that Hyatt delivered to Franchisee or its representative.

Any policies that Hyatt adopts and implements from time to time to guide Hyatt in its decision-making are subject to change, are not a part of this Agreement, and are not binding on Hyatt. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement is intended or deemed to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity not a party to this Agreement.

References in this Agreement to "Hyatt" with respect to all of Hyatt's rights and all of Franchisee's obligations to Hyatt under this Agreement include any of Hyatt's Affiliates, and its and their successors and assigns, with whom Franchisee deals. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and will not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision. Time is of the essence in this Agreement, and all provisions of this Agreement shall be so interpreted.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Hyatt's and Franchisee's rights under this Agreement are cumulative, and their exercise or enforcement of any right or remedy under this Agreement will not preclude their exercise or enforcement of any other right or remedy that they are entitled by law to enforce.

ARTICLE XIX

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To induce Hyatt to sign this Agreement and grant Franchisee the rights under this Agreement, Franchisee represents, warrants and acknowledges that:

(a) Franchisee has independently investigated and evaluated the opportunity of investing in the hotel industry generally and specifically the Brand Hotel franchise opportunity, including the current and potential market conditions and competitive factors and risks, and recognizes that, like any other business, the nature of a Brand Hotel's business will evolve and change over time.

(b) Hyatt's approval of the Site is not a guarantee or warranty, express or implied, of the success or profitability of a Brand Hotel at that location;

(c) "The Unbound Collection by Hyatt" brand and concept were launched in March 2016, there are few hotels operating under "The Unbound Collection by Hyatt" brand as of the Effective Date, and there is no guarantee or assurance that the brand and concept will be successful in the marketplace or that Hyatt will not make significant modifications to the Hotel System, brand and concept as they are further developed;

(d) except as expressly set forth in the franchise disclosure document that Hyatt delivered to Franchisee or its representative, Franchisee has not received from Hyatt, and is not relying upon, and that Hyatt expressly disclaims making, any representation, warranty or guaranty, express or implied, as to the actual or potential volume, sales, income or profits of the Hotel or any other Brand Hotel, and any information Franchisee has acquired from other Brand Hotel owners, including information regarding their sales, profits or cash flows, is not information obtained from Hyatt, and Hyatt makes no representation about that information's accuracy.

(e) Franchisee has no knowledge of any representations made about the Brand Hotel franchise opportunity by Hyatt, its Affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors, managers, owners or agents that are contrary to the statements made in Hyatt's franchise disclosure document or to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(f) it is relying solely on Hyatt, and not on any Affiliate of Hyatt, with regard to Hyatt's financial obligations under this Agreement, and no employee or other person speaking on behalf of, or otherwise representing, Hyatt has made any statement or promise to the effect that Hyatt's Affiliates guarantee Hyatt's performance or financially back Hyatt.

(g) all statements Franchisee has made and all materials (including ownership information and descriptions of Franchisee's and/or its Affiliates' ownership structure(s)) it has given Hyatt in acquiring the rights under this Agreement are accurate and complete and that Franchisee has made no misrepresentations or material omissions in obtaining those rights.

(h) Franchisee is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation, and Franchisee's execution and delivery of this Agreement and performance of its obligations hereunder (i) have been duly authorized by all necessary company action, (ii) do not and will not violate or result in a breach or default under any applicable law or any agreement to which Franchisee is a party or by which it is bound, and (iii) do not require the consent of any third party that has not been obtained.

(i) In accordance with an exemption available under the Federal Trade Commission's Trade Regulation Rule entitled "Disclosure Requirements and Prohibitions Concerning Franchising," 16 C.F.R. Section 436.8(a)(5)(ii), Franchisee, or its parent or any of its Affiliates, is an entity that has been in business for at least five (5) years and has a net worth of at least $6,165,500.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have signed this Agreement as of the dates set forth by their signatures, to be effective as of the Effective Date (regardless of the dates of the parties' signatures).

DEFINED TERMS

In addition to any other terms defined in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the respective meanings as indicated below.

“Accessibility Laws” means the Americans with Disabilities Act and other laws, rules, regulations and ordinances governing accommodations for or relationships with persons with disabilities or similar individuals, as in effect from time to time.

“ADS” means the online travel agencies and other alternative distribution systems that Hyatt may periodically authorize or require for Franchisee’s Hotel and other similarly situated Brand Hotels (subject to Reasonable Deviations).

“Affiliate” means, with respect to a party, any person or entity directly or indirectly owned or controlled by, under common control with, or owning or controlling, such party. For purposes of this definition, “control” means the power to direct or cause the direction of management and policies.

“Anti-Corruption Laws” means any laws, rules or regulations relating to anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering, or similar prohibited conduct or otherwise relating to the maintenance of accurate books and records and internal controls.

“Average Monthly Revenues” means:

(i) if, as of the effective date of termination, at least sixty (60) months have elapsed since the Opening Date, the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue of the Hotel during the twelve (12) full calendar months preceding the month of termination; or

(ii) if, as of the effective date of termination, the Opening Date has not yet occurred, the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue per available guest room for all Brand Hotels in the United States (including those that Hyatt and its Affiliates own, manage, and franchise) during the twelve (12) full calendar months preceding the month of termination, multiplied by the number of guest rooms approved for the Hotel; or

(iii) if, as of the effective date of termination, the Opening Date has occurred but less than sixty (60) months have elapsed since the Opening Date, either (a) the amount determined under part (ii) above or (b) the average monthly Gross Rooms Revenue of the Hotel during the period from the Opening Date until the effective date of termination, whichever of (a) or (b) is greater.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if “Average Monthly Revenues” as determined pursuant to any part of (i) through (iii) above has been materially and negatively impacted during the preceding twelve (12) full calendar month period by a disruption in Hotel operations resulting from Force

Majeure, casualty, suspension of operations (whether or not consented to by Hyatt), renovation of the Hotel, or any other similar circumstances, “Average Monthly Revenue” shall be determined by reference to the most recent twelve (12) full calendar month period preceding termination, during which the Hotel performance was not so impacted.

“Brand Damages” means lost Royalty Fees, lost System Services Charges, lost market penetration and goodwill, loss of Hotel System representation in the Hotel’s market area, confusion of national accounts and individual customers, disadvantage in competing for national accounts and other types of bookings for Brand Hotels, lost opportunity costs, and expenses that Hyatt will incur in developing or finding another franchisee to develop another Brand Hotel in the Hotel’s market area.

“Brand Hotel” means a hotel that (a) offers multiple rooms for overnight accommodation by transient guests from a single building or a series of inter-connected buildings on one property; (b) operates under a separate tradename owned by the Hotel’s owner but affiliates all of the rooms at that building or series of buildings with “The Unbound Collection by Hyatt” brand and other Proprietary Marks; and (c) operates under the Hotel System. For the avoidance of doubt, “Brand Hotel” does not include any hospitality affiliations which are affiliated with “The Unbound Collection by Hyatt” brand but which do not have as their primary function the provision to lodging to transient guests, such as safaris and theme parks, even if there is a hotel offering rooms for overnight accommodation by transient guests which is associated with that hospitality affiliation.

“Brand Owner” means any entity that (a) is either a franchisor or owner of a Competing Brand (defined below), (b) manages or otherwise operates hotels exclusively for the franchisor or owner of a Competing Brand, or (c) is an Affiliate of any entity described in (a) or (b) above. A “Competing Brand” is a hotel concept that has at least five (5) hotels operating under that concept’s trade name anywhere in the world and that, in Hyatt’s reasonable opinion, competes with Brand Hotels. For the avoidance of doubt, Franchisee shall not be deemed a Brand Owner under this Agreement merely because Franchisee’s Affiliates operate (as franchisees and/or managers) hotels of multiple Competing Brands.

“Comfort Letter Party” means each Lender, each Ground Lessor (if applicable), the owner of fee simple title to the Hotel’s real property or building and improvements (if Franchisee is not that owner), and each other entity with an interest (or any power or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire an interest) in the Hotel’s real property or building and improvements.

between Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C. (“Hyatt”) and _____ (“Franchisee”)

_____ (“Management Company”) has entered into a Management Agreement with Franchisee (as amended, the “Management Agreement”) under which Management Company will operate the hotel located at _____ as a hotel affiliated with The Unbound Collection by Hyatt (the “Hotel”) in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement. However, under the Franchise Agreement, Management Company may not operate the Hotel without Hyatt’s consent, and Hyatt is unwilling to provide such consent unless Franchisee and Management Company agree to the terms of this Rider.

In consideration of the rights granted to Management Company under the Management Agreement and of Hyatt’s consent (under the Franchise Agreement) to Management Company’s operation of the Hotel, Management Company hereby acknowledges and ratifies the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement and agrees to fully observe and be bound by all terms, conditions and restrictions regarding the management and operation of the Hotel set forth in the Franchise Agreement for as long as Management Company operates the Hotel, as if and as though Management Company had executed the Franchise Agreement as “Franchisee,” including, without limitation, all terms and conditions of ARTICLE IV and V of the Franchise Agreement (other than Section 4.2(a). Management Company further agrees to be bound by the confidentiality and other covenants set forth in Sections 11.5, 11.6, and 11.7 of the Franchise Agreement (including all remedies available to Hyatt under the Franchise Agreement for breach thereof) during and subsequent to its tenure as manager of the Hotel. However, notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Rider constitutes an agreement of Management Company: (a) to pay or assume any financial obligation of Franchisee to Hyatt or to any third party, including any obligation of Franchisee to pay Royalty Fees or System Services Charges or any liquidated damages pursuant to Section 16.5 of the Franchise Agreement; or (b) to be bound by any provision in ARTICLE XII of the Franchise Agreement. Management Company represents and warrants to Hyatt and Franchisee that Management Company is not a Brand Owner, as defined in the Franchise Agreement.

Management Company agrees that Hyatt may enforce directly against Management Company those terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement to which Management Company has hereby agreed to be bound. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any act or omission of Management Company relating directly or indirectly to the Hotel will be deemed and considered the act or omission of Franchisee for purposes of Hyatt’s rights and remedies under the Franchise Agreement (including, without limitation, Franchisee’s indemnification and defense obligations under Section 8.3 of the Franchise Agreement), any other agreement, or applicable law. Articles VIII, XIV (including, without limitation, the arbitration provisions) and XVIII of the Franchise Agreement, entitled “Relationship of Parties and Indemnification,” “Dispute Resolution,” and “General,” respectively, are incorporated by reference in this Rider and will govern all aspects of Hyatt’s and Management Company’s relationship and this Rider as if fully restated within the text of this Rider, with all references to “Franchisee” interpreted as references to Management Company.

THE UNBOUND COLLECTION BY HYATT HOTEL FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

GUARANTY AND ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS

THIS GUARANTY AND ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS (“Guaranty”) is given this ____ day of _____, 2022, by the undersigned party or parties (individually and collectively, “Guarantor”) in favor of HYATT FRANCHISING, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (together with its successors and assigns, “Hyatt”).

WHEREAS, [_____] (“Franchisee”) owns the hotel to be known as the Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotel located or to be located at the Site identified in the Franchise Agreement (defined below) (the “Hotel”);

WHEREAS, simultaneously herewith, Franchisee is entering into the Unbound Collection by Hyatt Hotel Franchise Agreement (as amended, modified or amended and restated from time to time, the “Franchise Agreement”) with Hyatt with respect to the Hotel;

WHEREAS, Guarantor is either an owner (whether direct or indirect) of Franchisee or otherwise has a direct or indirect relationship with Franchisee or its affiliates, Guarantor will benefit significantly from Hyatt’s entering into the Franchise Agreement with Franchisee, and Hyatt will not enter into the Franchise Agreement unless each of the undersigned agrees to sign and comply with the terms of this Guaranty;

WHEREAS, as a condition to entering into the Franchise Agreement, Hyatt has required that Guarantor guarantee the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations (as defined herein), subject to the terms of this Guaranty.

NOW, THEREFORE, as a material inducement to Hyatt entering into the Franchise Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor hereby does irrevocably and unconditionally warrant and represent unto and covenant as follows:

1. Recitals; Defined Terms. The recitals above are a part of this Guaranty, form a basis for this Guaranty, and shall be considered prima facie evidence of the facts and documents referred to therein. Defined terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Franchise Agreement.

2. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally personally guarantees to Hyatt and its successors and assigns Franchisee’s punctual payment and performance of, and agrees to be personally bound by and personally liable for the breach of, each and every Guaranteed Obligation. Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally covenants and agrees that it is liable for the Guaranteed Obligations as a primary obligor.

3. Guaranteed Obligations. As used herein, the term “Guaranteed Obligations” means (i) Franchisee’s payment in full of all of Franchisee’s monetary obligations including but not limited to Franchisee's payment of any liquidated damages that become due and payable pursuant to the Franchise Agreement as and when required pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, and (ii) Franchisee's performance of each and every provision in the Franchise Agreement (including any amendments or modifications of the Franchise Agreement), including, without limitation: (a) obligations to take or refrain from taking specific actions or to engage or refrain from engaging in specific activities, including, without limitation, the confidentiality and transfer requirements and the prohibitions with respect to Brand Owners; and (b) the arbitration requirements and other enforcement provisions in ARTICLE XIV and ARTICLE VIII of the Franchise Agreement.

4. Guarantor Monetary Threshold. Guarantor represents and agrees that, at the time of signing this Guaranty and at all times during the term of the Franchise Agreement, at least one of the undersigned or another then current guarantor of Franchisee's obligations under the Franchise Agreement satisfies the Guarantor Monetary Threshold (defined below). The "Guarantor Monetary Threshold" means each of the following: (a) the amount of total assets less total liabilities (excluding Hotel assets and liabilities relating solely to the Hotel), each as calculated in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, equal to or exceeding _____ Dollars ($_____) as of the date hereof; and (b) liquid assets (consisting of cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities) equal to or exceeding _____ Dollars ($_____) as of the date hereof. Each dollar amount in this Section 4 shall increase automatically each year, without notice from Hyatt, effective on the first day of the calendar month during which the Franchise Agreement's Effective Date falls, by an amount equal to the CPI Increase. The "CPI Increase" means the amount to be adjusted multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers for All Items, as published by the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics (the "Base Index") as of the first day of the calendar month during which the increase is to take effect, and the denominator of which is the Base Index in effect on the Franchise Agreement's Effective Date or used for the most recent increase (whichever is later). If the Base Index is no longer published, Hyatt may designate another reasonably comparable index for calculating changes in the cost of living or purchasing power for consumers. Guarantor agrees to provide Hyatt on an annual basis financial statements or other documents that Hyatt reasonably specifies, certified by Guarantor in the manner that Hyatt specifies, demonstrating that at least one Guarantor satisfies the Guarantor Monetary Threshold. Upon reasonable advance notice, but no more than twice during any calendar year during the Franchise Agreement's term, Hyatt may examine the undersigned's business, bookkeeping, accounting and tax records to ascertain compliance with the Guarantor Monetary Threshold. In addition to and without limiting Hyatt's other rights and remedies under the Franchise Agreement, this Guaranty or applicable law, Guarantor acknowledges that Hyatt may terminate the Franchise Agreement (subject to the applicable notice and cure period in the Franchise Agreement) if at least one Guarantor or another guarantor of Franchisee's obligations under the Franchise Agreement does not satisfy the Guarantor Monetary Threshold at all times during the Franchise Agreement's term.

5. Nature of Guaranty. Guarantor consents and agrees that: (1) the representations, warranties, agreements, liabilities, and obligations of Guarantor set forth in this Guaranty shall apply to each of the undersigned parties in its individual capacity; (2) notwithstanding the foregoing, each of the undersigned's direct and immediate liability under this Guaranty will be joint and several, both with Franchisee and among the other parties (if any) comprising Guarantor; (3) Guarantor will render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement upon demand if Franchisee fails or refuses punctually to do so; (4) this liability will not be contingent or conditioned upon Hyatt's pursuit of any remedies against Franchisee or any other person or entity; (5) this liability will not be diminished, relieved, or otherwise affected by any extension of time, credit, or other indulgence that Hyatt may from time to time grant to Franchisee or any other person or entity, including, without limitation, the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims (including the release of other guarantors), none of which will in any way modify or amend this Guaranty, which will be continuing and irrevocable during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement (including extensions) for so long as any performance is or might be owed under the Franchise Agreement by Franchisee or any of its guarantors and for so long as Hyatt has any cause of action against Franchisee or any of its guarantors; and (6) this Guaranty will continue in full force and effect for (and as to) any extension or modification of the Franchise Agreement and despite the transfer of any direct or indirect interest in the Franchise Agreement or Franchisee, and Guarantor waives notice of any and all renewals, extensions, modifications, amendments, or transfers.

6. Waivers.

(a) Guarantor hereby waives: (i) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation that Guarantor may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the undersigned's execution of and performance under this Guaranty, for the express purpose that none of the undersigned shall be deemed a "creditor" of Franchisee under any applicable bankruptcy law with respect to Franchisee's obligations to Hyatt; (ii) all rights to require Hyatt to proceed against Franchisee for any payment required under the Franchise Agreement, proceed against or exhaust any security from Franchisee, take any action to assist any of the undersigned in seeking reimbursement or subrogation in connection with this Guaranty or pursue, enforce or exhaust any remedy, including any legal or equitable relief, against Franchisee; (iii) any benefit of, any right to participate in, any security now or hereafter held by Hyatt; and (iv) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Hyatt of Guarantor's undertakings under this Guaranty, all presentments, demands and notices of demand for payment of any indebtedness or non-performance of any obligations hereby guaranteed, protest, notices of dishonor, notices of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed (except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the Franchise Agreement), and any other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled. Hyatt shall have no present or future duty or obligation to the undersigned under this Guaranty, and each of the undersigned waives any right to claim or assert any such duty or obligation, to discover or disclose to the undersigned any information, financial or otherwise, concerning Franchisee, any other guarantor, or any collateral securing any obligations of Franchisee to Hyatt. Without affecting the obligations of the undersigned under this Guaranty, Hyatt may, without notice to the undersigned, extend, modify, supplement, waive strict compliance with, or release all or any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or any indebtedness or obligation of Franchisee, or settle, adjust, release, or compromise any claims against Franchisee or any other guarantor, make advances for the purpose of performing any obligations of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement, assign the Franchise Agreement or the right to receive any sum payable under the Franchise Agreement, and the undersigned each hereby jointly and severally waive notice of same. The undersigned expressly acknowledge that the obligations hereunder survive the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement.

(b) In addition, Guarantor waives any defense arising by reason of any of the following: (i) any disability or any counterclaim or right of set-off or other defense of Franchisee, (ii) any lack of authority of Franchisee with respect to the Franchise Agreement, (iii) the cessation from any cause whatsoever of the liability of Franchisee, (iv) any circumstance whereby the Franchise Agreement shall be void or voidable as against Franchisee or any of Franchisee's creditors, including a trustee in bankruptcy of Franchisee, by reason of any fact or circumstance, (v) any event or circumstance that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge of the undersigned's obligations hereunder, except that the undersigned do not waive any defense arising from the due performance by Franchisee of the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement, (vi) any right or claim of right to cause a marshaling of the assets of Franchisee or any other guarantor, and (vii) any act or omission of Franchisee.

(c) Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty shall not be released, diminished, impaired, reduced or adversely affected by any of the following and Guarantor waives any common law, equitable, statutory or other rights (including, without limitation, rights to notice, other than notices required in this Guaranty) which Guarantor might otherwise have as a result of or in connection with any of the following:

(i) any increase, modification, alteration or rearrangement of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Franchise Agreement or any other document, instrument, contract or understanding between Franchisee and Hyatt or any other parties pertaining to the Guaranteed Obligations, or any failure of Hyatt to notify Guarantor of any such action.

(ii) any adjustment, indulgence, forbearance or compromise that might be granted or given by Hyatt to Franchisee or Guarantor.

(iii) the insolvency, bankruptcy, arrangement, adjustment, composition, liquidation, disability, dissolution or lack of power of Franchisee, Guarantor or any other party at any time liable for the payment or performance of all or part of the Guaranteed Obligations; or any dissolution of Franchisee or Guarantor, or any sale, lease or transfer of any or all of the assets of Franchisee or Guarantor, or any changes in the direct or indirect owners of Franchisee or Guarantor; or any reorganization of Franchisee or Guarantor.

7. Representations. Guarantor represents and warrants to Hyatt that (a) if it is a business entity, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation, and its execution and delivery of this Guaranty have been duly authorized by all necessary company action; and (b) the undersigned's execution and delivery of, and performance under, this Guaranty do not and will not violate or result in a breach or default under any applicable law or any agreement to which the undersigned is a party or by which it is bound, and does not require the consent of any third party that has not been obtained.

8. Expenses. If Hyatt is required to enforce this Guaranty in a judicial or arbitration proceeding and prevails in such proceeding, Guarantor shall reimburse Hyatt for Hyatt's costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, reasonable accountants', attorneys', attorneys' assistants', arbitrators', and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses, and travel and living expenses, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any such proceeding. If Hyatt is required to engage legal counsel in connection with any failure by the undersigned to comply with this Guaranty, the undersigned shall reimburse Hyatt for any of the above-listed costs and expenses Hyatt incurs even if Hyatt does not commence a judicial or arbitration proceeding.

9. Effect of Bankruptcy. In the event that, pursuant to any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization, receivership or other debtor relief law, or any judgment, order or decision thereunder, Hyatt must rescind or restore any payment, or any part thereof, received by Hyatt in satisfaction of the Guaranteed Obligations, as set forth herein, any prior release or discharge from the terms of this Guaranty given to Guarantor by Hyatt shall be without effect, and this Guaranty and the Guaranteed Obligations shall remain in full force and effect. It is the intention of Franchisee and Guarantor that Guarantor's obligations hereunder shall not be discharged except by Guarantor's performance of such obligations and then only to the extent of such performance.

10. Notices. All notices, consents, approvals and requests required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be effective for all purposes (a) at the time delivered by hand; (b) at the time delivered via computer transmission if the sender has confirmation of a successful transmission; (c) one (1) business day after transmission by facsimile or other electronic system if the sender has confirmation of successful transmission; (d) one (1) business day after being placed in the hands of a nationally recognized commercial courier service for next business day delivery; or (e) three (3) business days after placement in the United States Mail by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows (or at such other address and Person as shall be designated from time to time by any party hereto):

For the avoidance of doubt, references to the “Design and Construction Standards” shall mean the Design and Construction Standards as of the date of the Franchise Agreement between Hyatt and Franchisee. Where the requirements of applicable country and local codes and regulations exceed the standards required by Hyatt with respect to a specific item or topic, those applicable country and local codes and regulations will apply to that item or topic. Hyatt may, at its option, nominate to Franchisee each category of Consultants (with the exception of structural engineers) enumerated in section 1.2 of Exhibit A. To the extent that Franchisee has any existing consultants, contractors, or other design specialists and the work quality or the performance of any such existing consultants, contractors, or specialists does not meet Hyatt's standards, or is otherwise deemed unacceptable to Hyatt, Franchisee agrees to replace such consultants, contractors, or specialists with Consultants enumerated on Exhibit A and which have been agreed to by Hyatt, promptly at Hyatt's direction.

In addition to the Consultants, Franchisee agrees to engage and retain at its own expense a Project Manager, which shall be mutually selected by Hyatt and Franchisee. Franchisee shall engage the Project Manager within three (3) months following the effective date of the Franchise Agreement.

If required by Hyatt, Franchisee shall in addition to the Project Manager and the Consultants, engage and retain at its own expense an FF&E Manager to assist Franchisee and its Consultants and contractors to meet the Design and Construction Standards. The FF&E Manager shall be selected no later than fifteen (15) months and no earlier than eighteen (18) months prior to the Opening Date. The FF&E Manager shall be an employee or independent contractor of Franchisee and shall provide monthly construction and photographic reports to Hyatt in such forms as Hyatt may reasonably require. Franchisee will be required to pay the FF&E Manager's salary, benefits, housing (in the form of a fully furnished one (1)-bedroom apartment) and other customary and usual costs incidental to their engagement (including office space and administrative assistance, reasonable transportation to and from the Site, one (1) round trip economy class air ticket to the home of FF&E Manager for each twelve (12)-month period, local income taxes and local business travel).

Franchisee shall cause all Consultants and contractors to prepare full and adequate plans, layouts, specifications, drawings and designs, both interior and exterior, and models, colored renderings and material boards of quality suitable for advertising and promotion, with respect to the Hotel. The contracts between Franchisee and all such Consultants and contractors shall require that, where appropriate, such Consultants and contractors shall provide, at Franchisee's cost and expense, adequate training to the personnel of the Hotel in the use and maintenance of the building and all systems and installations therein and shall furnish to Franchisee and Hyatt, at the conclusion of the Project, three (3) full sets of "as-built drawings" (hard copies and in electronic format) as executed, and catalog cut sheets, operating manuals and instructions.

Franchisee shall cause and ensure that its Consultants and contractors cooperate with Hyatt in every respect in connection with Hyatt's review of the Project. Hyatt shall be entitled to conclusively rely on any instructions or Approvals given to it by Franchisee's Representative as being the instructions or Approvals of Franchisee.

Franchisee shall manage all aspects of the construction of the Project. In performing these responsibilities, Franchisee, either on its own or through its Consultants or contractors, shall, without limiting any other obligations of Franchisee:

- (a) Cause qualified and professionally licensed third party consultants expert in the commissioning of fire and life safety and MEP systems to test, balance and commission such systems, and to issue written reports to Franchisee and Hyatt certifying that they have tested, balanced and commissioned such systems and that such systems are fully operational and ready for use (such reports to be received by Hyatt prior to final review by Hyatt of the Project and turnover of the Hotel in accordance with the Franchise Agreement).
- (b) Provide Hyatt with certification from a qualified, professionally licensed independent structural engineer or firm, certifying that the Hotel building as designed and constructed meets or exceeds all applicable structural requirements, including without limitation seismic, wind, storm and flood, and all other applicable Legal Requirements.
- (c) Ensure that Franchisee's Consultants and contractors conduct a final work list and punch list survey of the Project and correct all defects prior to requesting final review and Approval of the Project by Hyatt. Upon correction of all defects and completion of all remaining work items identified on the punch list, Franchisee shall provide Hyatt with a copy of the punch list signed by the Consultants and contractors reflecting that such work has been completed to Hyatt's satisfaction, and shall request a final review of the Project by Hyatt.

3. PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS, AND DESIGNS

Any changes in or departures from the agreed plans, or such other items must be Approved by Hyatt, unless such changes are so minor as to have no impact on the quality, character and operation of the Hotel (and in the case of such minor changes, no Approval by Hyatt is necessary). Hyatt may withhold its consent to any and all departures from the Approved concepts, plans, layout specifications, drawings or designs, or such other items to be Approved by Hyatt, in its sole discretion, if Hyatt determines that such departure will cause the Hotel to fail to adhere to the Design and Construction Standards.

To the extent that any of the matters in this Section 3 involve compliance with the Design and Construction Standards, Franchisee shall cause its Consultants and contractors to implement the direction provided by Hyatt during the review process in order to ensure that the Project complies with the Design and Construction Standards.

Franchisee's contracts with all Consultants and contractors shall provide that all concepts, plans, specifications and designs, and any changes thereto or departures therefrom subsequently made, shall be submitted for Approval to Franchisee and Hyatt prior to implementation. Franchisee acknowledges that Hyatt's design and construction reviews shall not consist of a Peer Review, but rather are intended only to assist Franchisee and its Consultants in complying with their obligations. Such reviews do not relieve Franchisee or its Consultants of their responsibility to determine the completeness and coordination of their documents and to ensure that the design and construction of the Project comply with applicable Legal Requirements. Peer Review shall be conducted by third party professional consultants retained by Franchisee to review the Consultants' work.

Upon completion of the Project, Franchisee shall give Hyatt a written certificate or opinion from Franchisee's architect, licensed professional engineer, or recognized expert consultant stating that the Hotel conforms to all applicable Legal Requirements (including, without limitation, requirements governing public accommodations for persons with disabilities).

At Hyatt's request, Franchisee (i) must give Hyatt copies of all certificates of architects, contractors, engineers, and designers and such other similar verifications and information Hyatt reasonably requests and (ii) make available to Hyatt copies of all reports, studies, draw requests, schedules and other documents and materials of Franchisee, its contractors, suppliers and consultants relating to the design, construction and furnishing of the Hotel.

Hyatt shall have the right to visit the Site as often as reasonably necessary to ensure the Project is being developed, constructed and equipped in accordance with the Design and Construction Standards and in accordance with the Development Timetable. Hyatt will use reasonable efforts to provide Franchisee with twenty-four (24) hours' advance notice of any visits to be made to the Site by representatives of Hyatt or its affiliates in performance of services hereunder.

For the avoidance of doubt, the fees and expenses payable to all the Consultants (including, without limitation, the salary and expenses of the Project Manager and any FF&E Manager engaged by Franchisee in connection with the planning, building, furnishing, equipping and decorating of the Hotel, and any and all costs and expenses incurred by Hyatt's IT support services personnel), shall be paid directly by Franchisee independent of any fees paid by Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

4. SPARE PARTS

In addition to the FF&E to be included in the Project per the final plans and specifications for the Project, Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's sole cost and expense, cause the Project to include the spare parts set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto, which shall be a part of the Hotel upon the Opening Date. The quantities listed are the minimum acceptable. All quantities are to be rounded up to the next whole number.

Franchisee shall provide Hyatt with notification of any changes to the projected opening date of the Hotel (as set forth in the Franchise Agreement) as soon as Franchisee becomes aware of any such changes. In the event of a material delay of such projected opening date, Hyatt shall have the right to evaluate the Preliminary Area Program to ensure the Project's program continues to meet the Design and Construction Standards then in effect.

5. GENERAL TERMS

The use of Design and Construction Standards for the Project shall in no way give rise to any liability on the part of Hyatt or its affiliates for any defect or deficiency. Franchisee and its affiliates, consultants and other persons using the Design and Construction Standards must verify through their own means and consultants (architect, engineers, and other professionals), their compliance with any law and adequacy for the intended purpose. Hyatt and its affiliates make no representation whatsoever in such regard. The quality of workmanship, and the adequacy and suitability of the plans, specifications, and design data for the Project are the sole responsibility of Franchisee.

Hyatt and its affiliates do not and cannot warrant or represent that the items listed in any documents, plans or reports provided by Franchisee meet all requirements, both written or interpreted, for local, state or other governmental guidelines for accessibility to persons with disabilities or local code enforcement for any additional accessibility requirements. Franchisee shall seek appropriate counsel to ensure such compliance so that such local, state, or other governmental requirements and the Preliminary Area Program.

Hyatt will not be liable for any errors or omissions in the plans and specifications or designs for the Hotel, or for any misfeasance or malfeasance by any specialists or consultant retained by Franchisee, whether or not upon the recommendation of Hyatt, or for any defects in design, manufacture, furnishings or construction, or for any operational deficiencies in the design or construction of the Hotel (including, without limitation, life safety systems and structural integrity), or any failure of any such plans or specifications to conform to applicable Legal Requirements, it being the intention of the parties that in conducting its review and rendering assistance to Franchisee, Hyatt will be functioning solely as a consultant sharing with Franchisee the benefit of its prior experience in the franchising of first-class hotels and its knowledge of guest preferences and market demands.

Wherever Hyatt is required to give its approval or consent on plans, specifications or any other item hereunder, Hyatt will use commercially reasonable efforts to give Franchisee, within fifteen (15) business days from dated receipt in Hyatt's Chicago office or regional offices, as directed by Hyatt, of the items to be approved, its approval or consent or its disapproval or non-consent. All items required to be delivered in hard copy format pursuant to Exhibit A shall be deemed received by Hyatt only upon receipt of all items in hard copy form. If Hyatt fails to give such a notice to Franchisee within the agreed-upon period, Franchisee may treat Hyatt's failure to give such notice as constituting consent or approval by Hyatt, provided that in no event shall such tacit approval shall (i) relieve Franchisee of its obligations to comply with Hyatt's mandatory standards relating to fire and life safety or applicable Legal Requirements or (ii) serve as a consent to any change to the Preliminary Area Program. Hyatt will employ commercially reasonable efforts during the course of the Project to adhere to the Project schedule developed by the project architect and Franchisee. Drawings and specifications approved by Franchisee and submitted by the architect to Hyatt for inspection and comment shall be deemed to be approved by Hyatt and to be incorporated in the design documents unless objection or recommendation is made by Hyatt within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt of the drawings and specifications with a clear and specific notation stating the outside response date. Upon substantial completion of the Hotel, Hyatt shall have the right to review the list of deficiencies and "punch-list" items that require correction.

Wherever Hyatt gives its Approval of plans and designs or specifications, no such Approval shall imply or be deemed to constitute an opinion by Hyatt on, nor impose upon Hyatt any responsibility for, the design or construction of building elements (including, but not limited to, means, methods, techniques, sequences, procedures for construction, structural integrity or fire and life safety requirements or the adequacy of budgets), compliance with applicable Legal Requirements (including but not limited to environmental, construction density, labor or any other kind of regulations), or the obtaining of any necessary licenses, permits or authorizations, all of which shall be the exclusive responsibility of Franchisee, to be obtained and complied with at the cost and expense of Franchisee.

The scope of Hyatt's review and Approval of plans, designs and specifications is limited solely to brand adequacy and relationship of spaces, quality standards, and the aesthetics of the building for use as a hotel of the applicable brand (a "Brand hotel"). All reviews and Approval by Hyatt are for the sole and exclusive benefit of Franchisee and Hyatt and no other person or party shall have the right to rely on any such reviews or Approval by Hyatt. Notwithstanding Hyatt's right of review and Approval, Franchisee and Hyatt acknowledge and agree that none of the Consultants or other contractors of Franchisee will be agents or employees of Hyatt.

The Approval of any item by Hyatt shall not constitute a waiver by Hyatt of its right to insist upon strict compliance by Franchisee with any of the other provision of the Design and Construction Standards, or prevent Hyatt from requiring Franchisee to alter, remove, replace or repair any other item which was not previously Approved by Hyatt and which does not comply with the requirements of the Design and Construction Standards or any Legal Requirements.

All materials provided by Hyatt in connection with the Design and Construction Standards and the Design Approval Process are, and at all times shall remain, the exclusive intellectual property of Hyatt (and Hyatt shall have full ownership thereof), it being understood and agreed by Franchisee that such materials are being furnished for the use of Franchisee as a licensee solely in connection with the Franchise Agreement, and shall constitute "Confidential Information" for purposes of the Franchise Agreement.

This CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made as of this _____ day of _____, _____, by and between _____, a[n] _____, whose address is _____ (“Company”) and HYATT FRANCHISING, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company, whose address is 150 North Riverside Plaza, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (“Hyatt”). Hyatt and/or Company may each also be referred to herein as a “party” or collectively as the “parties” and a party which is disclosing Confidential Information may be referred to herein as the “disclosing party” and the party which is receiving Confidential Information may be referred to herein as the “receiving party.”

RECITALS

A. Company and Hyatt are discussing mutual business opportunities relating to the possible transaction (the “Transaction”) with respect to the property commonly known as _____ (the “Property”) and the hotel business conducted thereon (the “Business”) and Company and Hyatt desire to share certain Confidential Information (as defined herein) with each other, subject to the terms contained herein.

B. Hyatt and Company wish to enter into this Agreement to confirm that the Confidential Information will be treated as confidential in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and to provide the parties hereto with certain rights and remedies in connection with the violation of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” shall mean the information provided by either party to the other with respect to the Property and Business including, but not limited to, the following: (a) management and operational information, forecasts, and projections; (b) financing information; (c) proprietary know-how, data, documents, designs, photographs, plans, graphs, drawings, specifications, pro forma models, reports, contracts, customer lists, pricing information, studies, findings, and other ideas; (d) entity information relating to the disclosing party including, without limitation, any joint venture agreement, limited liability company agreement or similar arrangements; (e) documents relating to real property interests including, but not limited to, environmental reports and audits; (f) information that should be treated as confidential under the circumstances surrounding its disclosure, including without limitation, proprietary information of Hyatt; (g) any information of Hyatt clearly identified as a “Hyatt Trade Secret”; and (h) any discussion between Hyatt and the Company with respect to any of the foregoing, the Property, the Business, the possible business relationship, and this Agreement in general, including without limitation, the fact that any such discussions are taking place or any business relationship is being discussed, and the content and terms thereof.

2. Exclusions. The term Confidential Information does not include information which (A) was or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result, directly or indirectly, of any disclosure by the receiving party hereunder, or (B) was or becomes available to the receiving party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the disclosing party or its employees, agent or representatives, provided that such source is not, to the receiving party’s knowledge, bound by a confidentiality agreement or otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to the receiving party by contractual, legal or fiduciary obligations, (C) was within the possession of the receiving party prior to its being furnished to the receiving party by the disclosing party, or (D) information which is incorporated into analyses, studies or internal reports, provided, however, such information, studies, analyses or reports shall be kept confidential in accordance with the receiving party's policies and procedures it uses to protect and safeguard its own client confidential information.

3. Covenants Regarding Confidential Information. The receiving party shall hold all Confidential Information received in confidence and take all necessary steps to keep the Confidential Information confidential with its then current protocols in order to maintain the confidential nature of the Confidential Information in accordance with the terms hereof. The receiving party may only use Confidential Information for evaluation purposes with respect to the Property and the Business in relationship to the Transaction and may not disclose the Confidential Information to any third party other than to its affiliates, related companies, partners, employees, directors, officers, legal counsel, accountants, prospective lenders, consultants, advisors, principals, and existing investors (collectively, the "Representatives") who have a need to know Confidential Information, provided that the party which shares the Confidential Information with its Representatives shall inform all such Representatives to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information. Receiving party shall be liable for a breach of this Agreement by its Representatives; provided, however, the receiving party shall not be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by a Representative that has executed a separate confidentiality agreement with the disclosing party with respect to the Transaction.

4. Ownership of Confidential Information. All Confidential Information disclosed by a disclosing party, directly or indirectly, shall remain the exclusive property of such party. Further, the disclosing party does not grant any license or rights to any Confidential Information, trademark, trade name or trade secret to the other party.

5. No Representation or Warranty. The disclosing party does not (a) make any guarantee, warranty or representation whatsoever, expressed or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information, and (b) have any liability whatsoever to the receiving party relating to or resulting from the use of the Confidential Information or any errors therein or omissions therefrom. The receiving party agrees that it is not entitled to rely on the accuracy or completeness of any Confidential Information.

6. Destruction of Confidential Information by Company. Each of the parties shall immediately destroy all Confidential Information and all copies or summaries of Confidential Information at the earlier of (a) the termination of discussions between Company and Hyatt regarding the Project or (b) on the written request of the disclosing party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, receiving party and its Representatives may retain one copy of Confidential Information as may be required by (i) law, regulation or legal process, (ii) internal compliance or document retention policies, or (iii) with respect to digital media, such return or destruction is not practically feasible. Any Confidential Information so retained shall kept confidential in accordance with such party's policies and procedures it uses to protect and safeguard its own client confidential information. The receiving party shall also provide to the disclosing party a certification executed by a duly authorized officer who has supervised compliance with the foregoing indicating that the requirements of this provision have been satisfied in full.

7. Term. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the obligations set forth in this Agreement shall terminate upon the execution of definitive agreements between the parties with respect to the Transaction or two (2) years from the date of this Agreement, whichever occurs first; provided, however, that notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement, the confidentiality obligations of the Company with respect to a Hyatt Trade Secret shall continue until the later of (i) five (5) years from the date of this Agreement, and (ii) until such time that Hyatt has provided notice that the Hyatt Trade Secret is no longer deemed by Hyatt to be a trade secret.

8. [Indemnity]. Company acknowledges and agrees that it presented the Property and Business to Hyatt and initiated all discussions with Hyatt surrounding the Property and Business. Company agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Hyatt for, from and against any and all Claims. For purposes of this Agreement, "Claims" shall mean any and all claims, demands, actions, penalties, suits and liabilities, in connection with, arising from, or for any reason related to (i) negotiations relating to the Property or Business in violation of any existing management or similar agreement relating to the branding, operation or use of the Property (the "Existing Agreements") and/or (ii) the termination of the Existing Agreements, as a result of any such negotiations.]

9. Remedies and Waiver. The parties hereby acknowledge the importance of complying with the provisions of this Agreement. Therefore, the parties agree that money damages, which the parties agree would be substantial, would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement, and a party shall be entitled, in addition to money damages, to specific performance and injunctive relief and any other appropriate equitable remedies for any such breach. The party at fault agrees not to oppose the granting of equitable relief on grounds that damages are sufficient, and agrees not to require that the other party prove that damages are insufficient in order to obtain equitable relief or the posting of a bond. The party at fault agrees to waive, and to cause its Representatives to waive, any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy. Such remedies shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies for a breach of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity to a party. THE PARTIES WAIVE THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY SUCH DISPUTE. The prevailing party in any dispute regarding the enforcement of this Agreement shall be entitled to reasonable legal fees and expenses, which such prevailing party incurred in connection with such enforcement.

10. Compulsion by Law. If a receiving party is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogations, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any Confidential Information, the receiving party shall, to the extent legally permissible, provide the disclosing party with immediate notice of such request(s) so that the disclosing party may seek an appropriate protective order and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. The receiving party agrees to cooperate with the disclosing party, at the disclosing party's expense, in obtaining such a protective order. If the receiving party does not obtain such protective order or other remedy, the receiving party agrees to furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which, in the opinion of the receiving party's counsel, the receiving party is legally compelled to disclose and the receiving party agrees to use its reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that, to the extent possible, confidential treatment will be accorded the Confidential Information.

11. Relationship. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to create an agency, joint venture, partnership or other form of business association between Hyatt, Company, and their respective affiliates, related companies, partners, employees, directors, officers, legal counsel, consultants or accountants hereto. By receiving the Confidential Information, neither party nor their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, prospective lenders, consultants, or principals are under any obligation to negotiate in respect of a transaction with respect to the Property or Business, the parties will not be bound by any verbal agreement, and either party may terminate at any time discussions with the other party, its officers, directors, employees, agents, prospective lenders or principals, at its sole and absolute discretion.

12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which, when taken together, shall be deemed one agreement, but no counterpart shall be binding unless an identical counterpart shall have been executed and delivered by each of the other parties hereto. Documents executed, scanned and transmitted electronically in PDF format and/or electronic signatures shall be deemed original signatures for purposes of this Agreement and all matters related thereto, with such scanned and electronic signatures having the same legal effect as original signatures.

This Hosting Services Agreement (“Agreement”) is made this _____ day of _____, 2022 (the “Effective Date”), by and between _____ (Name of Franchisee), a(n) _____ (“Owner”) and Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (“Hyatt”). Hyatt and Owner may be referred to herein individually as a “Party” or together as the “Parties.”

WHEREAS, Owner owns or will own the [BRAND] Hotel, which is or will be located at _____, _____, _____ (the “Property”), and the Property is operated pursuant to a franchise agreement between Owner and Hyatt (as it may be amended, “Franchise Agreement”);

WHEREAS, Owner has entered into an agreement with Oracle America, Inc. (“Oracle”) for the licensing of a property management system (the “License Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, in conjunction with the Franchise Agreement, Hyatt shall provide hosting and related services in support of the Property Management System to the extent set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations and promises of the parties set forth below, and other good and valuable consideration the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Scope of Services.

a. Services. This Agreement including Schedule 1 describes the Services that Hyatt shall provide to Owner hereunder, which shall include hosting and making available the Property Management System for use by Owner and its Authorized Users, and providing and maintaining the Hosted Hardware. The Services shall also include providing upgrades and updates to: (A) the Third Party Software (to the extent provided by an applicable third party vendor and authorized for use by Hyatt); and (B) the Hosted Hardware (to the extent provided by an applicable third party vendor and authorized for use by Hyatt). Installation and configuration services will be subject to a separate agreement.

b. Restrictions. Owner may not: (i) knowingly propagate, or allow propagation of, any virus, worms, Trojan horses or other programming routine intended to damage any system or data; or (ii) knowingly store or allow for storage of defamatory, trade libelous, or otherwise unlawful data. In addition, Owner must comply with all other restrictions listed in the License Agreement.

c. Suspension. Hyatt, without prejudice to its other rights at law or in equity, may suspend the Services: (i) upon a violation of any restriction or obligation listed in Section 1(b); (ii) if any misuse of the Services or misconduct with respect to the Services on the part of Owner or its employees, agents or end users creates, in Hyatt’s sole and reasonable judgment, an imminent risk of material damage to Hyatt’s network, facilities or other property or violation of any applicable laws or legal obligations; (iii) if Owner disrupts or causes harm to Hyatt’s computers, systems, infrastructure, or provision of the Services to other parties; or (iv) upon request of a government authority. Any such suspension shall be as limited in scope and duration as possible consistent with Hyatt’s needs to protect its network, facilities and property. Except in the case of suspension upon request of government authority, Owner shall continue to pay all Fees during the suspension period. Service shall be promptly restored as soon as Hyatt determines, in its sole, reasonable discretion, that the default has been cured. In addition, and without limiting Hyatt’s other rights and remedies, if Owner fails to make any payment when due and such failure continues for forty-five (45) days or more, Hyatt may suspend Owner’s access to the Services until such amounts are paid in full.

4. Services

a. General. Schedule 1 specifies the Hosted System to be provided by Hyatt in connection with the performance of the Services hereunder. The Hosted System shall be installed at the Facility. As of and from the Effective Date and continuing throughout the Term, Hyatt will be responsible for daily management, monitoring, operation and maintenance of the Hosted System within the Facility, for the benefit of Owner and its Authorized Users, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement (with the exception of maintenance for the Property Management System which maintenance is governed by the License Agreement). Should such maintenance require a temporary disruption of any Services, Hyatt shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Owner two (2) weeks advance notice of such scheduled maintenance. The current maintenance schedule is set forth in Schedule 2. Hyatt shall update such schedule as applicable. Should any disruption be required outside of the agreed maintenance window (for example, for a critical incident), Hyatt shall provide Owner with prompt notice of such emergency maintenance. Hyatt will make every commercially reasonable effort to make any such disruptions as brief as possible and to schedule any such disruptions during the scheduled maintenance window.

b. Hotel Environment. Owner acknowledges and agrees that the performance of the Services may be dependent upon Owner providing, at its sole cost and expense, all of the elements of the Hotel Environment. Owner waives any claims including but not limited to warranty claims against Hyatt, to the extent arising from Owner's failure to provide a hardware and software environment that complies with the Hotel Environment requirements.

c. Restrictions. Owner may only use the Hosted System and Services for Owner's business at the Property. Owner will not make any representations or warranties on behalf of Hyatt that are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. Owner's failure to use the Property Management System, Third Party Software, Hosted Hardware, Hosted System, or Services shall not relieve Owner of any of its obligations hereunder, including without limitation payment obligations. Owner may not loan, rent, lease, resell, transfer, convey, assign or license the Services to any other party or sell information services to other parties through the use of the Property Management System, Hosted Systems or Service, whether in the form of a service bureau, reservation center, or other information processing entity.

d. Personnel. Services may be rendered by an employee or subcontractor of Hyatt or its Affiliate who (a) is not solely dedicated to the Property, and may perform similar services for other hotels; (b) may perform Services at the Property or off-site; and (c) will conform to the reasonable rules and regulations of the Property when on Property premises.

5. Term.

This Agreement is effective upon the Effective Date, and shall expire twelve (12) months from the Effective Date (the "Initial Term"), unless sooner terminated in accordance with the terms hereof. Thereafter, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive 12-month renewal periods (each, a "Renewal Term" and, together with the Initial Term, the "Term") unless written notice of termination is provided by either Party to the other Party at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or the then-applicable Renewal Term.

a. Payment. In consideration of the Services to be provided by Hyatt to Owner under this Agreement, Owner shall pay Hyatt the Fees in accordance with the applicable Order. Unless otherwise expressly set forth in the applicable Order, all Fees will be invoiced and payable in U.S. Dollars. If Owner fails to make any payment when due then, in addition to all other remedies that may be available, Hyatt may charge interest on the past due amount at the rate of 1.5% per month calculated daily and compounded monthly or, if lower, the highest rate permitted under applicable law.

b. Fee Guidance. The fee for the Services is intended to cover the costs for Hyatt to provide the Services. The fee for such Services will be calculated in the same manner as the fee charged to hotels managed by a Hyatt Affiliate that are receiving similar services.

7. Warranties.

a. Hyatt represents and warrants to Owner as follows:

i. that it has the full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and that Hyatt's entering into this Agreement shall not result in a breach of or constitute a default under any agreement or instrument to which it is a party;

ii. Hyatt shall comply with all applicable laws, enactments, orders and regulations in connection with the performance of its obligations hereunder;

iii. all performance under this Agreement by Hyatt shall be in a professional, and workmanlike manner by appropriately qualified and experienced personnel, in accordance with industry standard practices and the provisions and requirements of this Agreement;

iv. Hyatt shall maintain compliance with the PCI DSS for the Hosted System, including the security of Cardholder Data that Hyatt stores, processes or transmits on behalf of the Owner; and

v. Hyatt shall implement a disaster recovery program and use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain such program.

b. Owner represents and warrants to Hyatt as follows:

i. it has the full right, power, and authority to enter into this Agreement and that Owner's entering into this Agreement shall not result in a breach of or constitute a default under any agreement or instrument to which it is a party;

ii. Owner shall comply with all applicable laws, enactments, orders and regulations in connection with the performance of its obligations hereunder; and

iii. Owner shall comply with standards and measures required under the PCI DSS regarding the collection, storage, use, processing and transfer of Cardholder Data and maintain the confidentiality and security of that Cardholder Data.

c. THE FOREGOING WARRANTIES ARE IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THOSE CONCERNING MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND ACCURACY OR USE. WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE FOREGOING WARRANTIES OR ANY OF HYATT'S EXPRESS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, HYATT DOES NOT WARRANT OR GUARANTEE THAT THE HOSTED HARDWARE, PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM, OR ANY OF THE SERVICES PROVIDED HEREUNDER WILL SATISFY OWNER'S REQUIREMENTS, OR THAT THE OPERATION OF SUCH WILL BE COMPLETELY UNINTERRUPTED OR COMPLETELY ERROR FREE.

8. Indemnity.

Hyatt and Owner's indemnification obligations in the Franchise Agreement are incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

9. Limitation of Damages and Disclaimers.

a. Indirect Damages. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, NO PARTY WILL BE RESPONSIBLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ITS AFFILIATES FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT OR SPECIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES WHETHER ARISING FROM OWNER'S USE (OR INABILITY TO USE) OF THE HOSTED HARDWARE, PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM, SUPPORT OR SERVICES PROVIDED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

b. Damages Cap. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT SHALL ANY PARTY BE LIABLE IN RESPECT OF ANY EVENT OR SERIES OF CONNECTED EVENTS FOR ANY DAMAGES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER IN EXCESS OF AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE SUM OF ALL FEES AND CHARGES DUE HEREUNDER, WHETHER OR NOT PAID BY OWNER FOR THE 12 MONTHS PERIOD PRIOR TO THE RELEVANT EVENT OR SERIES OF EVENTS. WITHOUT LIMITING HYATT'S EXPRESS OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, HYATT SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR AND DISCLAIMS ANY LIABILITY ASSOCIATED WITH A THIRD PARTY'S FAILURE TO PROCESS CREDIT CARD TRANSACTIONS ON BEHALF OF OWNER.

c. Hotel Security. It is Owner's responsibility to have and maintain in place virus protection software and reasonable security for its on-site systems and on-site data, which such security include firewalls, passwords, physical security, access control policies, and the like. Owner acknowledges that the security of Property's facilities and protection of its own network and the data and applications on that network, including protections against unauthorized access, is solely and entirely Owner's responsibility. Owner acknowledges that, to be effective, virus protection software, system passwords, and other security software require periodic updates, which Owner must obtain from its supplier or the manufacturer, as appropriate. Support or services hereunder necessitated by viruses introduced by Owner or its Affiliate or a third party, or by any failure or breach of Owner's security for its systems or data (not including breaches of the security of the Services or Hosted Hardware), including, without limitation, damage caused by hackers or persons lacking authorized access, is not covered, and will be supplied only upon request and on a reasonable efforts basis, on a time and material basis. Owner waives any claims against Hyatt to the extent arising from Owner's failure to have or maintain current virus protection, or to the extent arising from a failure or breach of Owner's security for its own systems. Hyatt will use commercially reasonable efforts to secure the environment from unauthorized access, which shall be no less than the efforts it takes to secure its own environment.

d. Communications. Owner will be responsible for installing and bearing the cost of all communications necessary to access the Property Management System from Owner's facilities, and implementing and maintaining any necessary or desired security for the communication process. Hyatt expressly disclaims any responsibility for or liability or problems resulting from Owner's choice of a communications service provider and any matters directly relating to Owner's connectivity or transmission of data to or from the Facility.

e. Access to Data. Owner acknowledges that its ability to access its data may be adversely affected by problems with its Internet or Owner private network provider connectivity and any mutually agreed upon scheduled maintenance outages.

10. Termination.

a. Termination by Hyatt. Notwithstanding any minimum agreed term, Hyatt may, by written notice to Owner, terminate this Agreement: (i) upon any material breach by Owner which such material breach is not remedied within thirty (30) days of written notice to Owner setting out the nature of such breach and requiring its remedy; (ii) upon the termination of the License Agreement in accordance with its terms; or (iii) at any time for any reason or no reason upon thirty (30) days written notice to Owner.

b. Termination by Owner. Owner may terminate this Agreement: (i) upon any material breach by Hyatt which such material breach is not remedied within thirty (30) days of written notice to Hyatt setting out the nature of such breach and requiring its remedy; or (ii) without cause upon six (6) months' notice to Hyatt.

c. Termination for Assignment. This Agreement shall automatically terminate upon any Flag Change by Owner. For purposes of this clause, “Flag Change” means any termination of Hyatt’s franchise relationship with Owner or any change resulting in the Property ceasing to be under a management, franchise or similar agreement with a direct or indirect subsidiary of Hyatt Hotels Corporation.

d. Effect of Termination of Agreement. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement:

i. Owner shall immediately cease using the Services and Hyatt shall cease providing Services to Owner under this Agreement;

ii. Upon termination, Owner shall pay all Fees for Services provided up to the expiration/termination date.

iii. The Parties agree that Sections that by their nature, or to give effect to their meaning, must survive expiration or termination of this Agreement, shall survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement.

Hyatt or its Affiliate may move the Facility to another location at any time, provided in the event the new location is in a different country than the prior location, Hyatt shall notify Owner in writing of the intended move as far in advance thereof as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances (but in no event less than ninety (90) days in advance). Any relocation or moving of the Facility shall be conducted with the least disruption feasible upon Owner or any Authorized Users. Hyatt shall not be responsible to Owner for any such additional or incremental costs and expenses incurred by Owner, or any of its respective third-party service-providers or other business associates.

12. No Assignment. Owner may not assign or transfer this Agreement or its rights and obligations hereunder, without the prior written consent of Hyatt. Any unpermitted assignment shall be null and void. Hyatt reserves the right at any time to transfer or assign this Agreement, or a portion thereof, without notice or consent.

13. Force Majeure. Neither Party shall be responsible for delay in performance resulting from events beyond its reasonable control and that were not avoidable through the exercise of due care, which shall include but not limited to acts of God, fire, earthquakes, war, civil unrest, accident, power fluctuations or outages, telecommunication fluctuations, outages or delays, utility failures, mechanical defects or other events beyond the control of a Party.

14. Independent Contractor. Hyatt is an independent contractor and all persons employed to furnish Services hereunder are employees or subcontractors of Hyatt and not of Owner.

15. Incorporation of Franchise Agreement Provisions. Articles XIV, XVII and XVIII of the Franchise Agreement, entitled Dispute Resolution (including, but not limited to Arbitration), Notices and General, respectively, are incorporated by this reference into this Agreement.

_____, 2022

Re: Franchise Agreement dated as of _____, 2022 (the “Franchise Agreement”), by and between Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company, (“Hyatt”) and _____, a(n) _____ (“Franchisee”).

Dear Sir or Madam:

Reference is made to the Franchise Agreement pursuant to which Franchisee operates or will operate a hotel affiliated with The Unbound Collection by Hyatt brand located at _____ (the “Hotel”). The arrangement represented by the Franchise Agreement is called the “Franchise.” Franchisee has represented that (1) Franchisee and _____ (“Lender”) have entered into, or are about to enter into, a loan agreement pursuant to which the Hotel will secure certain indebtedness owed by Franchisee to Lender, which indebtedness will be evidenced by a promissory note made by Franchisee in favor of Lender (together with the other loan documents evidencing or securing such indebtedness, as amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Loan Documents”) and (2) that the loan proceeds will be used for the direct benefit of the Hotel. Franchisee and Lender have requested that Hyatt enter into this letter agreement (this “Comfort Letter”). Franchisee or Lender shall pay to Hyatt a fee in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) in connection with this Comfort Letter, prior to or simultaneous with its execution. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Franchise Agreement.

Hyatt, Franchisee, and Lender agree as follows:

1. While Lender has a valid first mortgage on the Hotel during the term of the Franchise Agreement, Hyatt agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to (a) give Lender thirty (30) days prior written notice of any voluntary surrender by Franchisee of the Franchise (to the extent that Hyatt is aware in advance of any such voluntary surrender) and (b) furnish Lender with copies of default notices sent by Hyatt to Franchisee. In the event of a default by Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement Hyatt shall allow Lender thirty (30) days from the date of any such notice to cure or cause to be cured the default(s) specified in such notice. If such default is of a non-monetary nature and cannot be cured within said thirty (30) day period by reason of the time necessary for Lender to exercise its rights and remedies pursuant to the Loan Documents or applicable law, then Lender shall have such additional period of time, as is reasonably necessary to complete the exercise of its rights and remedies, provided that Lender proceeds with and continues to cure such non-monetary default and exercise of remedies with due diligence, but in no event shall such period exceed one hundred and eighty (180) days following notice to Lender. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing: (a) in the event of a health or life safety default, the cure period shall be three (3) days; and (b) Lender does not have the ability to cure the following defaults by Franchisee: bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors, appointment of a receiver or trustee, breach of restrictions on Control Transfers, or breach of Trade Restriction Laws, but foreclosure of Lender's mortgage by Lender shall constitute curing of such defaults solely for the purpose of this Comfort Letter and commencement of foreclosure proceedings shall constitute commencement of cure solely for the purpose of this Comfort Letter. For the avoidance of doubt, Lender is not required to cure any default by Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement except as set forth below in connection with an Acquisition.

2. If Lender should acquire the Hotel through foreclosure, conveyance in lieu of foreclosure, or any similar transaction (an "Acquisition") while the Franchise Agreement is in full force and effect, Hyatt and Lender shall, within thirty (30) days following such Acquisition, either (a) sign an assignment and assumption agreement in a form that Hyatt reasonably specifies under which Lender shall take an assignment of and assume all of Franchisee's rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement, or (b) enter into a new Franchise Agreement with Hyatt to operate the Hotel for a term equal to Franchisee's remaining term of the Franchise Agreement in accordance with Hyatt's then prevailing standards, rates, requirements, and terms. Hyatt provided however that in either event (i) Lender shall not be charged any Application Fee (as same is described in Hyatt's then current Franchise Disclosure Document for prospective franchisees); (ii) Lender shall not be required to perform a renovation or upgrading of the Hotel (although Lender will be required to cure any quality deficiencies as shown on the most current quality inspection report and shall be subject to ongoing renovation or upgrading requirements that may be required by Hyatt in accordance with the Franchise Agreement, including but not limited to standard cycle renovations); (iii) Lender shall have no personal responsibility for the payment of liquidated damages or termination fees which Franchisee may be obligated to pay under the terms of the Franchise Agreement as a result of the Acquisition; (iv) Lender shall agree to cure any existing defaults under the Franchise Agreement by Franchisee within the times specified by Hyatt and bring current all payments due and owing to Hyatt and its affiliated companies, except for any amounts specifically excluded under this Section 2; [and (v) Lender shall assume the obligation to repay Hyatt any unamortized "key money" as described in the Franchise Agreement, although any such amounts shall (if applicable) continue to amortize in the manner set forth in the Franchise Agreement]. Hyatt acknowledges and agrees that an Acquisition by Lender shall not be subject to any right of first refusal or right of first offer contained in the Franchise Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Hyatt is not obligated to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Lender pursuant to this Section 2 if Lender fails to comply with the requirements of Section 3 below within the times provided therein or if Lender is a Brand Owner or Hyatt is prohibited from transacting with Lender under any Trade Restriction Law. If Lender should acquire the Hotel, Lender shall appoint an agent or management company to operate the Hotel and such agent or management company must (i) be approved in writing by Hyatt; (ii) meet Hyatt's then current requirements for such agents or management companies, including by signing such agreements and other documents as Hyatt periodically specifies; and (iii) cause the Hotel's general manager and other personnel (if different from the Hotel personnel in place prior to the Acquisition) to complete Hyatt's then current training requirements in accordance with the Franchise Agreement.

3. Lender agrees:

(i) to provide Hyatt with written notice twenty (20) days in advance of: (a) the commencement of any proceedings by Lender regarding an Acquisition of the Hotel; (b) the petition by Lender for appointment of a receiver, or to obtain the entry of an order for relief or take any action under federal or state bankruptcy laws or similar laws with regard to the Hotel; (c) the acceptance by Lender of a conveyance of the Hotel in lieu of foreclosure; or (d) Lender taking ownership or possession of the Hotel in any manner; and

(ii) to notify Hyatt in writing of the commencement by another party of foreclosure proceedings or the filing of an action for the appointment of a receiver or petition for relief under state or federal bankruptcy laws, within thirty (30) days after Lender receives notice of commencement of such proceedings.

4. Except as set forth in paragraphs 5 and 6 below, this Comfort Letter and the rights hereunder are not assignable by Lender or Franchisee, and neither Lender nor Franchisee has any right or authority to sell, transfer, or assign, or in any manner convey to any third party the Franchise Agreement or any rights under this Comfort Letter, except as provided in the Franchise Agreement. If a third party should become the owner of the Hotel, that third party may apply to Hyatt for a new Franchise to operate the Hotel, and such application shall be considered in accordance with the same standards by Hyatt with respect to other franchise applications unless otherwise required by law.

5. Lender may assign the Comfort Letter to any subsequent holder or holders of all or any portion of the Loan Documents (the “Assignee”) without Hyatt’s consent; provided that the Assignee (i) is a commercial bank, investment bank, pension fund, finance company, insurance company, trustee in a securitization or other financial company, or other financial institution or such other type of established organization (so long as such established organization is not a Brand Owner or does not exclusively lend to a Brand Owner) primarily engaged in the business of making or holding loans and any fund or trust managed or serviced by any of the foregoing and (ii) does not own, directly or indirectly, any equity interest in Franchisee or its constituent owners; provided further that upon the sale or transfer of the Loan Documents, Lender pays to Hyatt a processing charge of $7,500 and that promptly upon the sale or transfer of the Loan Documents to the Assignee, Lender, Assignee, and Franchisee shall execute and deliver to Hyatt an assignment and assumption agreement (the “Assignment”), and provided further that, in the event there is more than one Assignee, such Assignees shall have (i) designated one representative to receive notices, negotiate on behalf of and bind each such Assignee in connection with this Comfort Letter and any Assignment thereof, and (ii) acknowledged that Hyatt shall be entitled to rely on such designation and deal solely with such representative without the necessity of notifying, negotiating with, or obtaining the consent of, each such Assignee.

6. The rights and obligations which accrue to Lender under this Comfort Letter upon the taking of title to the Hotel’s premises by foreclosure or deed in lieu thereof shall also accrue to any wholly-owned subsidiary or commonly controlled affiliate of Lender that takes title to the premises by foreclosure or deed in lieu thereof, and Lender guarantees all obligations to Hyatt of such subsidiary. For avoidance of doubt, Lender’s obligations under this Comfort Letter shall also apply to and bind any designee of Lender who acquires the Hotel or its premises through an Acquisition.

7. All notices required under this Comfort Letter shall be in writing, sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by Federal Express or other express service and addressed, if to Lender, to _____, if to Hyatt, to Hyatt Franchising, L.L.C., 150 North Riverside Plaza, Chicago, Illinois 60606, with a copy via e-mail to office.of.general.counsel@hyatt.com, and if to Franchisee, _____. Any notice sent pursuant to this Comfort Letter shall be deemed to be given three (3) days after mailing or on the day of delivery by hand.

8. By its signature below, Franchisee acknowledges that this Comfort Letter was provided to Lender at Franchisee’s request and in consideration thereof, Franchisee hereby (i) releases Lender and Hyatt, as well as each of their respective subsidiaries, parents, divisions, successors, assigns, heirs and representatives, including but not limited to their respective employees, agents, officers, directors and owners, of and from any and all actions, causes of action, suits, claims, demands, contingencies, debts, accounts and judgments whatsoever, at law or in equity, whether known or unknown, arising from the exercise by Lender or Hyatt (as applicable) of any of the rights granted hereunder and the recognition and compliance with such exercise by Hyatt or Lender (as applicable) and (ii) agrees that Hyatt may discuss with Lender or its designee the status of the Hotel, the Franchise Agreement, or any matter to which Lender or Hyatt is entitled to notice under the terms of this Comfort Letter or the Franchise Agreement.

9. The provisions of this Comfort Letter are not intended to, and do not in any way, alter, modify or amend the Franchise as between Hyatt and Franchisee.

10. It is further acknowledged and agreed that Hyatt shall be entitled to rely upon any written notice or request by Lender made pursuant to the provisions hereof without requirement of necessitating the accuracy or authenticity of such written notice or any facts or allegations contained therein. Lender shall notify Hyatt promptly upon the satisfaction or cancellation of Lender's mortgage on the Hotel.

11. Lender's rights under this Comfort Letter shall terminate if Lender has been taken over in any manner by any state or federal agency or is in a receivership, conservatorship, reorganization, or liquidation, or Lender or any of its officers or directors have entered into or are subject to a cease and desist order or any other formal or informal written agreement with a federal or state regulatory agency.

12. This Comfort Letter may be executed in multiple counterparts and by .pdf or facsimile transmission, each of which shall constitute an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. An executed copy will be returned to both Lender and Franchisee.

For any subsequent year during the term of this Agreement, Hyatt may update Exhibit A for the following year by providing Hotel an updated Exhibit A (“Updated Services Exhibit”) by September 30th of the year before the Updated Services Agreement will take effect.

3. Personnel. Services may be rendered by an employee or subcontractor of Hyatt or its affiliate who (a) is not solely dedicated to the Hotel and may perform similar services for other Hyatt owners, franchisees, and approved management companies; (b) may perform Services at the Hotel or off-site; and (c) will conform to the reasonable rules and regulations of the Hotel when on Hotel premises.

1. Term and Termination. This Agreement shall be for a term (the “Term”) commencing on the Effective Date and ending upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement, unless sooner terminated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement (the “Expiration Date”). The Services provided by Hyatt shall commence: (a) if the Hotel is already operating as of the date of this Agreement, on a date Hyatt determines not less than ninety (90) days following execution of this Agreement (unless Hyatt consents to an earlier date) or (b) if this Agreement is being executed in connection with the development of a new hotel, on a date Hyatt determines approximately ninety (90) days prior to the anticipated or scheduled opening of the Hotel for the “Essential” service tier level service or one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the anticipated or scheduled opening of the Hotel for the “Premium” service tier level service (the “Service Commencement Date”).

This Agreement may be terminated as follows:

- a. Owner may change its service tier level by providing a minimum of sixty (60) days written notice to Hyatt, provided that Hyatt may agree to a shorter notice period at its sole determination. Hyatt will, upon Owner’s request, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Owner with information regarding the scope and levels of service provided by Hyatt for each service tier level.

Notwithstanding Hyatt’s provision of the Services, Owner is solely responsible for all decisions relating to the revenue optimization and other aspects of the day-to-day control of the Hotel’s operations.

3. Schedule; Personnel. Hyatt will provide the Services on a schedule and using such personnel as Hyatt determines. - (a) For “Essential” Tier Level: Eight Hundred Twenty Five Dollars ($825) per month for calendar months preceding the Opening Month (if applicable) and One

Thousand Six Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,650) per month from and after the Opening Month; and

- (b) For “Premium” Tier Level: Two Thousand Four Hundred and Seventy Five Dollars ($2,475) per month for calendar months preceding the Opening Month (if applicable) and Three Thousand Three Hundred Dollars ($3,300) per month from and after the Opening Month.

For purposes of this Section 5, “Opening Month” means the calendar month in which the Hotel first opens to the public as a Hyatt branded or affiliated hotel, provided that if such date occurs after the 16th day of the month, then the “Opening Month” is the immediately following calendar month.

Hyatt may periodically increase the Fees at any time upon thirty (30) days’ prior written notice to Owner, provided that Hyatt may not increase the Fees by more than ten percent (10%) per calendar year.

In addition to payment of the Fees, Hyatt reserves the right to charge Owner for reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred by Hyatt in rendering the Services, including for transportation and related expenses, printing, photocopying, postage, and delivery services.

6. Compliance with Laws. In performing the Services, Hyatt will, at its expense, fully comply with all federal, state and/or local laws, rules, regulations and ordinances.

7. Indemnification. Owner will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Hyatt, its affiliates, and its and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees, representatives, successors and assigns (the “Indemnified Parties”) against, and will reimburse any one or more of the Indemnified Parties for, all Losses (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) directly or indirectly arising out of, resulting from, or in connection with the performance of the Services or the presence of Hyatt’s personnel at the Hotel, including, but not limited to, all Losses from or arising out of any bodily injuries to or the death of any of Hyatt’s employees working at the Hotel, however caused or occasioned. However, Owner has no obligation to indemnify under this Section 7 if a court of competent jurisdiction makes a final decision not subject to further appeal that Hyatt, its affiliate, or any of their respective employees directly engaged in willful misconduct or gross negligence or intentionally caused the property damage or bodily injury that is the subject of the claim, so long as the claim is not asserted on the basis of a theory of vicarious liability (including agency, apparent agency or employment), which are claims to which the Indemnified Parties are entitled to indemnification under this Section. The provisions of this Section 7 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8. Insurance. Owner shall maintain insurance as set forth in the Franchise Agreement. To the extent the Franchise Agreement does not address Owner’s insurance obligations, Owner shall procure prior to the Service Commencement Date and for the remainder of the Term maintain such insurance covering the risks, in the amounts, and with the deductibles, retentions and other provisions, as reasonably designated by Hyatt from time to time for recipients of the Services, including but not limited to advertising liability and contractual liability coverage in a minimum amount of $2,000,000.00 per occurrence or the then-current minimum coverage amount designated by Hyatt. All insurance must by endorsement specifically name Hyatt and its affiliates (and Hyatt's and their employees and agents) as additional insureds. Owner must purchase each policy from an insurance company reasonably acceptable to Hyatt. Either the insurer or Owner must provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Hyatt of any insurance policy's cancellation, non-renewal or material change. Owner must deliver to Hyatt a certificate of insurance (or certified copy of such insurance policy if Hyatt requests) evidencing the required coverages and setting forth the amount of any deductibles not less than ten (10) days after their respective inception dates. If Owner fails for any reason to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, Hyatt shall have the right and authority (although without any obligation to do so) to procure such insurance and to charge Owner the cost together with a reasonable fee for Hyatt's expenses. Section 8 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

9. Indemnification and Limitation of Liability.

- a. IF ANY, HYATT'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS IN THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT ARE INCORPORATED BY THIS REFERENCE INTO THIS AGREEMENT.
- b. IF ANY, OWNER'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS IN THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT ARE INCORPORATED BY THIS REFERENCE INTO THIS AGREEMENT.
- c. EXCEPT IN FULFILLMENT OF ANY INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF PROFITS OR LOSS OF USE DAMAGES) ARISING OUT OF THE SERVICES OR ANY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER SUCH CLAIM IS BASED UPON BREACH OF CONTRACT, BREACH OF WARRANTY, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) OR ANY OTHER LEGAL THEORY, EVEN IF A PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES OR LOSSES. EXCEPT IN FULFILLMENT OF ANY INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS, EACH PARTY'S LIABILITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE LIMITED TO AND WILL NOT EXCEED THE SUM WHICH EQUALS THE FEES PAID TO HYATT UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.
- d. THIS SECTION 9 SHALL SURVIVE TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

10. Confidentiality. Hyatt and its affiliates have in the past acquired and developed, and in the future may acquire and develop, a substantial amount of commercially useful Proprietary Information (defined below) which gives them competitive advantages over those who do not have, or would have to expend significant efforts to compile, comparable information, including but not limited to revenue optimization practices and material. "Proprietary Information" includes, but is not limited to, (i) information concerning both successful and unsuccessful tests and ideas and technologies, (ii) information concerning Hyatt's and its affiliates' business or business plans, (iii) information which Hyatt compiles and maintains in databases for its internal business purposes, including, but not limited to, information regarding Hyatt's customers, (iv) information disclosed by Hyatt's personnel in conversations verbally noted as "confidential" or in documents marked "confidential", (v) any reports, materials, program materials, software, flowcharts, notes, outlines and the like, used, created or developed by Hyatt or its affiliates in connection herewith ("Work Product"), and (vi) any other information which Owner is informed or reasonably ought to know Hyatt regards as confidential. Owner will keep all Proprietary Information and Work Product confidential at all times, and further, Owner does not have right, title, interest or copyright in any Proprietary Information, Work Product or Hyatt confidential information, nor any license to use, sell, exploit, copy or further develop such Proprietary Information, Work Product or confidential information. This provision will survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

11. Independent Contractor. Hyatt is an independent contractor and all persons employed to furnish Services hereunder are employees or subcontractors of Hyatt or its affiliates and not of Owner.

12. Incorporation of Franchise Agreement Provisions. The article entitled Dispute Resolution and the sections entitled Notices, and Governing Law of the Franchise Agreement (if any and even if identified differently) are incorporated by this reference into this Agreement.

13. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any loss or damage due to delays or failure to perform hereunder resulting from events beyond the reasonable control of such party, including without limitation acts of God, action by any governmental entity, pandemic, fire, flood, telecommunication failures or labor disputes.

14. Binding/Assignment. Except in the event of termination of this Agreement as set forth in Section 1, this Agreement shall inure to and bind the successors, assigns and representatives of the parties. Owner shall not assign this Agreement, except to an affiliate, without the prior written approval of Hyatt. Hyatt may assign this agreement, including to any of its affiliates, without the prior consent of Owner.

15. Entire Agreement. This contains the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes any prior agreement, promises and understandings between them, concerning the subject matter hereto. No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not embodied herein, shall be of any force or effect.

16. Execution / Amendment of Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which, when fully executed, shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement may be executed and delivered via electronic transmission (including PDF) with the same force and effect as if it were executed and delivered by the Parties simultaneously in the presence of one another. This Agreement may be amended only by a written or electronic instrument signed by the parties hereto.
