BLAZE

by VEGA

Been training my body, been hardening my core,
don't care about revenge,
but I'm fine with evening the score.

Even if the past has made you just a little sore, everything will heal with time, all will be restored.

Never be afraid of what's in store,
cause we're all made for more.

Every wrong you have to make right, honestly it's a site to see the light, hang on and give the good fight, let that fire shine bright, and remember that when there's a spark a fire will ignite.

I'm enjoying this and that's not really hard to see,
the fire is a part of me, surging through my arteries,
going through this harmony.

I thought I had no one to turn to, but I had a fam to return to, still didn't know what to do, had to learn to,
but you know what they say, mess with fire
and it burns you.

You know that I do this to inspire, so when things get dire, just envision me and remember where there's smoke there's fire.

ART IS INVINCIBLE AND FREE

by VEGA

Whether it's a hobby or a job this path doesn't have mistakes, only folding to the pressure, guess you miss what it takes, if you need to clear your mind go ahead take a break, but at times like this a masterpiece is what you will make. Look to your soul even if you don't know what to find, art is an adventure for all who want to peek inside, it can get a little crazy like a beach with a rising tide, but even in the light it's ok just to run in blind, art is all about how you feel and see, to push past and be the best that you can be, to unlock people's feelings and your art is the key, so all you gotta feel is invincible and free.
