Very challenging

Starting from Mount Cougal Trailhead Carpark, Dungay, this hike/climb takes you to the summits of Mount Cougal via the Cougar Track, skirting the QLD-NSW border. Expect to be hypnotized by the spectacular views over the Gold Coast and Currumbin valley, along with the rest of the country. The scramble for the top may seem hard, but it's surely worth the gorgeous landscape. As you hike through the rainforest that's teeming with wildlife, you may run into some cute koalas chilling on trees. Don't forget to explore the cave hidden behind the rock formation just before the top to get the full experience. Wear long pants to avoid scratches and ticks. You'll need grippy shoes to safely climb up and down the mountain. The rocks become slippery and dangerous when wet, so please check the forecast beforehand. Let us begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.

Getting started: From the Mount Cougal Trailhead Carpark at the end of Garden of Eden Road, head towards the metal gate next to the fence. Head over/around the gate then follow the dirt track (Cougal Track) as it leads you into the woodland. Stay on the track as it meanders around the border to continue along the Summits of Mount Cougal Track. Stick to the fence when in doubt.

From the Garden of Eden Road Start heading along Garden of Eden Road (a residential road).

After another 5 m (at the intersection of Garden of Eden Road & Cougal Track) continue straight, to head along Cougal Track (a walking track).

Then head through/around the gate.

After 2.4 km pass the "National Park" (5 m on your right).

After another 1.5 km pass the "Mount Cougal East" (8 m on your left).

Continue another 350 m to find the end. Then turn around here and retrace the main route for 4.2 km to get back to the start.

About 80 m past the end is "Mount Cougal West".
