Starting from Lewis Road Car Park, Forrestfield, this walk takes you on a circuit in Mundy Regional Park. You can enjoy the variety of settings through the walk, from bushwalking along the stream to enjoying open views of Perth. Additionally, the native vegetation is broad and suitable for observation purposes. There are wandoo woodlands, red gums and small jarrah trees. You can visit the area between June and September when there is plenty of water and flowers. There are certain steep sections of the walk, so you might want to wear sturdy hiking shoes with support. Let us begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.
