Starting from the car park off Daisy Hill Road, Daisy Hill, this walk takes you on a circuit in both Daisy Hill Conservation Park and Neville Lawrie Reserve, crossing Buhot Creek and visiting the Old Quarry Pond along the way. A great choice for an afternoon walk in summer, this track features mostly wide and undulating fire trails that are open to mountain bikes and horses as well. Additionally, you'll be able to enjoy the refreshing waters of the pond even with your dog. Regardless of your mode of travel, expect a peaceful journey in nature, accompanied by constant birdsong. Remember to cover yourself well from the sun and take plenty of water. Keep an ear out for mountain bike and horse riders throughout the track. Let us begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.
