Master of Business Administration in Arts Innovation

We are proud to have you as a part of our college.

Dear Fellow,

On behalf of The Global Leaders Institute, congratulations on completing the 12-month MBA in Arts Innovation — a practice-based Master of Business Administration grounded in multidisciplinary coursework, applied projects, global fieldwork, and strategic case analysis. You have demonstrated executive-level capability across cultural enterprise, social innovation, systems thinking, operational strategy, and organizational development.

This achievement marks the culmination of a demanding academic journey — and the beginning of a new chapter shaped by purpose, expanded leadership capacity, and continued professional growth.

You now join a global community of leaders representing The Global Arts MBA. Congratulations.
