This Diploma Supplement follows the model developed by the European Commission, Council of Europe and UNESCO/CEPES. The purpose of the supplement is to provide sufficient independent data to improve the international 'transparency' and fair academic and professional recognition of qualifications (diplomas, degrees, certificates etc.). It is designed to provide a description of the nature, level, context, content and status of the studies that were pursued and successfully completed by the individual named on the original qualification to which this supplement is appended. It should be free from any value judgements, equivalence statements or suggestions about recognition. Information in all eight sections should be provided. Where information is not provided, an explanation should give the reason why.

1. Information identifying the holder of the qualification

- 1.1. Full name: Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk

4. Information on the programme completed and the results obtained

4.1. Programme learning outcomes:

Knowledge

- a) Illustrate foundational principles of international law, including treaties, customary law, and state sovereignty, alongside advanced topics such as tax law and digital transformation.
- b) Compare and critically evaluate different legal systems, such as civil, common, religious, and hybrid systems, in their approach to global challenges like data privacy, and economic analysis.
- c) Assess the role of emerging technologies—such as artificial intelligence, blockchain, and cybersecurity—in shaping contemporary legal frameworks, compliance mechanisms, and governance models with particular reference to tax law concepts such as tax reporting, tax administration, international tax compliance, and data protection in taxation processes.

Skills

- a) Navigate ethical considerations across multiple legal disciplines, including corporate tax strategy, human rights law, and sustainable development, with a focus on transparency and social responsibility.
- b) Apply theoretical knowledge to practical scenarios, developing solutions in diverse areas such as data privacy, and economic analysis of law.
- c) Facilitate collaborative and interdisciplinary discussions on legal and policy frameworks, integrating perspectives to address complex global challenges, from tax compliance to societal impact.

Competencies

- a) Develop innovative legal strategies addressing challenges in international taxation, human rights, and cybersecurity, adapting to the demands of a rapidly evolving global legal landscape.
- b) Negotiate effectively across diverse legal contexts, including tax policy, international treaties, human rights frameworks, and environmental governance.
- c) Conduct thorough research on complex legal issues, including the interplay between law, society, and emerging technologies such as AI and blockchain.
