This Diploma Supplement follows the model developed by the European Commission, Council of Europe and UNESCO/CEPES. The purpose of the supplement is to provide sufficient independent data to improve the international 'transparency' and fair academic and professional recognition of qualifications (diplomas, degrees, certificates etc.). It is designed to provide a description of the nature, level, context, content and status of the studies that were pursued and successfully completed by the individual named on the original qualification to which this supplement is appended. It should be free from any value judgements, equivalence statements or suggestions about recognition. Information in all eight sections should be provided. Where information is not provided, an explanation should give the reason why.

1. Information identifying the holder of the qualification

- 1.1. Full name: Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk

Knowledge

Learning Outcomes for Knowledge obtained at the end of the programme

The learner will be able to:

- Demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of dominant discourses to enhance physical, mental, and emotional well-being by cultivating yoga and meditation practice.
- Demonstrate and apply specialised knowledge to support and teach students of diverse identities, backgrounds and abilities and ensure all members of the community thrive.
- Research, evaluate and integrate CASEL-aligned social-emotional learning practices into the pedagogical framework.
- Analyse the societal, cultural, and regulatory contexts related to the concepts of education and leadership.
- Apply a trauma informed lens to teach and integrate trauma-sensitive mind-body wellness practice into the instruction.
- Display unique and empathetic thought processes on the basis of the knowledge they gain in the course.

Skills

Learning Outcomes for Skills obtained at the end of the programme

The learner will be able to:

- Critically evaluate alternative approaches to education and leadership on the basis of academic scholarship and case studies, demonstrating reflection on social and ethical responsibilities.
- Communicate key life skills which embody equity-centred social-emotional learning competences thereby strengthening student experiences and community engagement.
- Build a deep sense of community through fostering vulnerability, co-creating learning, and catalysing human connection.
- Design and facilitate wellness workshops and experiences that rejuvenate, heal, and restore oneself and the ecosystem stimulating professional development and collective well-being.
- Develop new skills in response to emerging knowledge and techniques and demonstrate transformative teaching and leadership abilities and innovation in complex, dynamic and unpredictable contexts.
- Create a community of educators and leaders using wellness to become a leader of social change and progress.
