How To Arrange A Small Band

1. Nail The Essentials.

"Cover the foundational elements of rhythm, frequency range, tempo and structure as best as possible."

(Ex. Listen, the tin whistle, shaker, the 12 string and the Fraction Principle)

2. Approximate The Feel & Groove.

"Use the instruments you have to approximate the groove, maintain inside rhythm, and create ambience."

(Ex. High hat = acoustic guitar, etc.)

3. Honor Musical Space.

"Relax into the sound you have, and don't try to replicate the same energy or ambience captured in the mp3."

(Ex. Guitar + mandolin = new folk, old folk genre or another)

4. What You Have Is Enough.

"Leverage the unique musical voices that you have, and maximize their contribution to the sound."

(Ex. Mandolins, majons, guitar, piano.)
