48 BEAT THE TRAFFIC

BEST PRACTICES

Leave early to head out to prepare for the worship time you're leading. Spend some time plugging in, getting set up and personally worshipping before the rest of the band arrives. It will shake out the jitters and renew your perspective on the worship time ahead.

Being rushed not only drags down you and the rehearsal, but it also models a half-heartedness to your team about worship leadership.

ESSENTIALS IN WORSHIP

worshiptraining